NEW ORLEANS SAINTS

NEW ORLEANS SAINTS [0-2] AT DALLAS COWBOYS [2-0]

PRESEASON GAME #3

FRIDAY, AUGUST 28, 2026 - 7:00 P.M. (CST)

AT&T STADIUM - ARLINGTON, TEXAS

THE MATCHUP

On Friday night, the New Orleans Saints will conclude a preseason that featured grueling padded practices, non-padded workouts focused on correction, three joint practices and three preseason games against teams with explosive offenses and extensive commitment in the meeting rooms, training room and weight room. This phase of meticulous preparation will all come to an end when New Orleans plays at the Dallas Cowboys, the club's final dress rehearsal before they return to action to begin their regular season 16 days later to travel play the Detroit Lions at Ford Field.

Despite being natural geographic rivals, the Saints and Cowboys have met only seven times in the preseason, with Dallas taking four meetings. This is the first time the Saints will play Dallas in the preseason since 2006 and the first time they travel to play the Cowboys for an exhibition since 1978.

Both teams enter tonight's game having utilized the preseason for specific team goals, each club featuring second-year NFL head coaches looking to instill their stamp on growing programs. The Saints, led by Kellen Moore and the Cowboys led by Brian Schottenheimer participated in a joint practice in Oxnard, Calif., last Tuesday, while players for both clubs will look to take advantage of their final opportunity to make impressions prior to Sunday's NFL-mandated cutdown to 53 players.

While New Orleans finished Moore's first campaign in charge at 6-11, with four victories by the Black and Gold in their final five contests in 2025, there is no denying that the aim is to take the next step and compete for the division race. The roster moves the Black and Gold make Sunday will have that goal in mind.

On offense, New Orleans has built up the explosiveness in their ability to run the ball by adding a home run threat in RB Travis Etienne Jr. and signing G David Edwards as an unrestricted free agent.

Defensively, much of the core that has showed significant improvement as the season proceeded in 2025 has returned with the biggest changes taking place at linebacker with the return of Kaden Elliss to the team to take over as the team's signal-caller and the move of S Jonas Sanker to a hybrid role.

On special teams, enhanced competition on both the coverage and return units show promise for improved production in 2026. Among specialists, while the addition of Ryan Wright solidifies punter, placekicking duties remain up for grabs.

THE HEAD COACHES

Named the 19th head coach in New Orleans Saints history on February 11, 2025, Kellen Moore joined the Black and Gold after serving as the offensive coordinator for the Philadelphia Eagles in 2024. In his first season at the helm in New Orleans, Moore rallied the team from a 2-10 start to win four of the final five games. The Saints went 4-0 in the month of December, going undefeated in the month for the first time since 2011 and only the third time in franchise history. Moore put his imprint on the team in year one on offense, mixing a combination of rookie QB Tyler Shough, protected by a pair of promising young tackles in Kelvin Banks Jr. and Taliese Fuaga, along with WR Chris Olave and TE Juwan Johnson. Including Shough and Banks, whose 1,066 snaps on offense was a club-high to earn PFWA All-Rookie honors. Moore and his staff successfully integrated a total of five rookies into the starting lineup and important rotational roles. Before joining the Eagles in 2024, where the Super Bowl LIX champions ranked eighth in net yards per game [367.2], seventh in points per game [27.2] and second in rushing yards per game [179.3], Moore served as offensive coordinator of the Los Angeles Chargers in 2023 and the Dallas Cowboys from 2019-22 after starting his coaching career as quarterbacks coach in Dallas in 2018. In four seasons as offensive coordinator of the Cowboys, Moore's unit ranked second in the NFL in total offense [391.0 net yards per game] and scoring [27.7 points per game]. The Dallas offense was also the league's fourth-best passing offense [264.4 net yards per game] and ranked seventh in rushing offense [126.6 yards per game] over that span.

Moore played quarterback at Boise State [2007-11] before playing six seasons in the National Football League with the Detroit Lions [2012-14] and Dallas Cowboys [2015-17].

Personal: Born July 5, 1988, in Prosser, Washington. He and his wife, Julie, have two daughters, Halle and Madelyn, and two sons, Kyler and Beckham. His younger brother, Kirby, is the head coach at Washington State.

Brian Schottenheimer was named the tenth head coach of the Dallas Cowboys on Jan. 24, 2025 after two seasons as the team's offensive coordinator. Schottenheimer's first season at the helm of the Cowboys focused on competition, passion, connection at every level of the organization, and despite falling short of the team goals, established a concrete foundation for the program moving forward. In 2025, Schottenheimer's offensive acumen reignited an attack that finished among the NFL's elite in both production and efficiency through a balanced approach. The unit ranked top five in total offense and scoring, finishing second in the NFL in total offense [391.9 yards-per-game] and in scoring efficiency, with 48.0% of offensive drives ending in points. Schottenheimer, a veteran coach with 26 years of NFL coaching experience and 15 years as an offensive coordinator at the pro level, previously served as a consultant for the Cowboys throughout the 2022 season, studying future opponents and assisting both the offensive and defensive units with game planning and self-scouting. Before joining Dallas, Schottenheimer was the passing game coordinator with Jacksonville during the 2021 season. Previously, Schottenheimer spent three seasons [2018-20] as the Seattle Seahawks offensive coordinator, in which he helped the Seahawks to three consecutive playoff appearances. Over those three seasons, Seattle ranked third in the NFL in touchdown passes [106], passer rating [106.8] and rushing yards-per-game [140.2]. Schottenheimer spent three seasons as the offensive coordinator for the St. Louis Rams [2012-14]. Also Schottenheimer spent six seasons as the New York Jets offensive coordinator, assembling an offense that helped the Jets make back-to-back appearances in the AFC Championship game from 2009-10.

Background: Played quarterback at the University of Florida from 1994-96. Also coached at Syracuse [1999], USC [2000], Georgia [2015], Kansas City [1998], Washington [2000], San Diego [2002-05] and Indianapolis [2016-17]. He and his wife Gemmi have a son, Sutton and a daughter, Savannah. His later father, Marty, was a head in the NFL from 1984-2006, making stops in Cleveland, Kansas City, Washington and San Diego.

REGULAR SEASON SERIES HISTORY

The Dallas Cowboys lead the regular season series 18-14, although the New Orleans Saints have won 11 of the last 15 meetings between the two clubs. In 1967 and 1969, the two clubs were in the NFL Capitol Division. The Cowboys won eight of ten from 1973-1994 and 13 of the first 16 meetings. 12 games have been decided by a touchdown or less, seven contests by three or less. The Saints have a 3-2 record in contests played at AT&T Stadium, including a 45-19 victory on September 15, 2024, tied for the largest margin of victory against Dallas on the road.

PRESEASON SERIES HISTORY

The Saints and the Cowboys will face off for only the eighth time in the preseason. Dallas extended the lead in the series to 4-3 with a 30-7 win over the Saints in a contest played in Shreveport's Independence Bowl on August 21, 2006. LAST MEETING

Saints 44, Dallas Cowboys 19; September 15, 2024 @ AT&T Stadium - The Saints posted an impressive road victory against Dallas behind the powerful offensive firepower of RB Alvin Kamara, the arm of QB Derek Carr, the hands of WRs Chris Olave and Rashid Shaheed and two interceptions by the defense.

The Saints struck first on the opening drive as Carr led the offense down the field on a sequence ending with Kamara rushing for a five-yard touchdown. At the conclusion of Dallas' first drive, K Brandon Aubrey booted a 52-yard field goal. New Orleans struck right back for their second score of the first quarter on a 70-yard pass play from Carr to Shaheed to put New Orleans up 14-3.

Leading 35-16 at halftime, the Cowboys got the ball out of the second half and New Orleans moved Dallas out of the red zone in the first drive, when DT Bryan Bresee sacked QB Dak Prescott and forced him to fumble before it was recovered by Dallas at the New Orleans 22-yard line, forcing a 40-yard field goal. On New Orleans' next 13-play, 70-yard drive, Kamara capped things off with a seven-yard touchdown, his fourth score of the day.

In the fourth quarter, Carr was intercepted on a tipped pass, but on the next play, New Orleans got the ball back on an interception by S Tyrann Mathieu, his second takeaway of the season. On the ensuing drive, New Orleans closed out the scoring in the contest with a 26-yard field goal by K Blake Grupe. Carr completed 11-of-16 passes for 243 yards with two touchdown throws and one interception, while scoring one rushing touchdown for a 125.0 passer rating. Kamara led the club in rushing with a game-high 115 yards on 20 carries with three touchdowns to go with two receptions for 65 yards, including a career-long 57-yard scoring grab on a screen pass. Shaheed led the Saints in receiving with four grabs for 96 yards with the deep touchdown, reaching the end zone in his third consecutive contest dating back to 2023.

The Saints defense harassed Prescott, sacking him three times and forcing two interceptions. CB Alontae Taylor led the team with a career-high nine tackles, while CB Paulson Adebo had his first interception of the season and DE Carl Granderson picked up 1.5 sacks.

- The win marks the first time the Saints had won in Dallas since a 34-31 overtime victory on December 23, 2012.
- Shaheed's career-long 70-yard touchdown reception gives him eight career touchdowns on offense and special teams.
- Mathieu's interception was the 34th of his career since coming into the league in 2013, the most in the NFL over that time.
- A stingy Saints run defense held the Cowboys to 68 yards rushing on 21 carries (3.2 avg.).
- The 91 points by New Orleans in their first two games are tied for the second-most in NFL history through the first two games of a season, behind the Saints' 93 point total in 2009.

LAST WEEK

Los Angeles Rams 34, New Orleans Saints 0; August 22, 2026 @ SoFi Stadium - Inglewood, Calif. — It wasn't the objective, but on Saturday, the New Orleans Saints very much resembled a team that was completing a grueling road trip and desperately needed to return home.

Joint practices on Tuesday and Thursday preceded Saturday's preseason game against the Rams at SoFi Stadium, and the zest New Orleans exhibited earlier in the week seemed absent in Saturday's 34-0 loss.

"There's going to be some challenging lessons coming out of this game, but I think it's going to be lessons nevertheless," Coach Kellen Moore said. "That just shows you the discipline, the details of football. It's a game of execution and I think at the end of the day, we didn't prepare [ourselves] well enough from a coaching perspective. Our guys weren't there, so we've got to reset together."

The Saints trailed 20-0 at halftime and the ledger reflected the lopsidedness: The Rams led 19-4 in first downs, 272-98 in total yards and 47-25 in plays from scrimmage. And it didn't get better from there, as the Saints committed two turnovers in the red zone (one, an interception returned for a touchdown), another interception that led to a touchdown, missed a field-goal attempt and committed 12 penalties.

"Regular season, preseason, does not matter: Those aren't the ones you want," Moore said. "That was a big-time missed opportunity for us. Starts with me; we didn't respond the right way. Film is your resume in this league as coaches and players. We didn't coach well enough to prepare ourselves to take advantage of this opportunity."

Regarding the penalties, Moore said it was a "lack of discipline, lack of detail. A lot of them are under our control."

Former New Orleans Saints quarterback Drew Brees was the franchise's inaugural first-ballot selection to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, following the induction ceremony on August 8.

Brees was a two-time AP NFL Offensive Player of the Year, named to 13 Pro Bowls and five AP All-Pro teams and was the 2004 NFL Comeback Player of the Year. Brees set marks for touchdown passes in a game (seven, tied with seven other players), completion percentage in a season (74.4, 2018) and in a game (96.7, 12/16/19), completions in a season (471, 2016-broken), 300-yard passing games in a season (13, 2011), consecutive games with at least 300 yards passing (nine, twice), career passing yards (80,358-since broken), passing yards in a four-season span (20,767, 2011-14), in a five-season span (25,637, 2011-15) and in a six-season span (30,845, 2011-16), most seasons leading the league in passing yardage (seven), consecutive games with a touchdown pass (54, 2009-12), games with four-plus touchdown passes (37), four TD passes and zero interceptions (25), games with five-plus TD passes (11) consecutive games with at least three touchdown passes and zero interceptions (four, tied with three other players), overall (10) and consecutive (nine) seasons with at least 30 TD passes, career 300-yard passing games (123) and career 350-yard passing games (63).

Brees' record as a starter for the Saints was 151-94 (.616) in the regular season and postseason combined, easily making him the winningest signal-caller in franchise history. Posting a 144-85 (.629) record in the regular season and postseason with Sean Payton as his head coach, the Payton-Brees head coach/starting quarterback combination is tied for second in total wins all-time. Brees retired as the holder of virtually every passing record in club record books with his 15 years of service and 228 regular season starts, both the highest totals in the team's history at the time. From 2006-20, Brees led the NFL with 68,010 passing yards, 491 touchdowns, 8,742 attempts, 6,017 completions, a 68.8 completion percentage, 116 games with at least 300 yards passing, 16 with at least 400 and 518 completions of 25 yards or more.

LATE SEASON SURGE

Following a 2-10 start to the 2025 season, the Saints got hotter as the weather got colder, winning all four contests in the month of December, to set up the team's first four-game winning streak in the same campaign since 2020. This is only the third time in the month of December that the team won all their games, joining the 1987 and 2011 squads.

For Head Coach Kellen Moore, he became the second first-year head coach in Saints history to have a winning streak of at least four games.

New Orleans' late season success can be attributed to improvements in several areas on both offense and defense. Several areas of success are highlighted below, which accounted for the four-game winning streak which the team hopes to use as a springboard into the 2026 campaign:

BUCKING THE ODDS

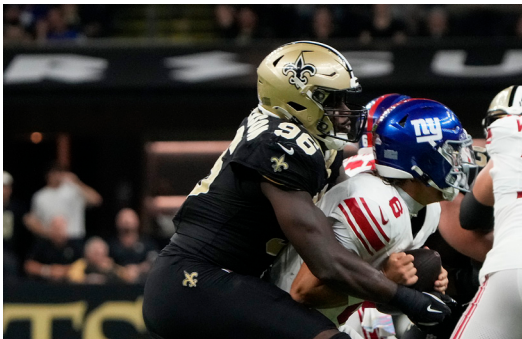

The Saints have a long tradition of finding players as free agents signed after the draft who make an impact immediately or after developing their careers initially on the practice squad. Several undrafted Saints on the roster have played key roles on offense, defense and special teams.

Over the past 22 years, the Saints [2018-22: defensive back J.T. Gray, wide receiver/return specialist Deonte Harty and wide receiver/return specialist Rashid Shaheed] and San Diego/Los Angeles Chargers [2003: guard Kris Dielman, tight end Antonio Gates and wide receiver Kasim Osgood] are the only two teams to have three players signed as undrafted free agents be selected to a Pro Bowl for the team that originally signed them.

EDGE Carl Granderson joined the club in 2019 as an undrafted free agent out of the University of Wyoming and has appeared in 105 games with 47 starts, posting 297 tackles [174 solo], 34.5 sacks for a loss of 208 yards, ten pass breakups, one interception four forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries, one blocked field goal and one blocked extra point.

In 2025, Granderson enjoyed a productive season, recording 57 total tackles [35 solo], six sacks, ranking third on the team, one pick, four pass breakups. In three games this season, he recorded more than one sack, playing an important role on a front line of a defense that finished ranked ninth in the NFL in opponent net yards per game and sixth in opponent net yards per play.

Granderson enjoyed a monster performance in the season finale at Atlanta, when he tied a career-high with ten tackles [five solo stops tied career-best], 1.5 sacks, his first career interception and three stops for loss.

Tight end Juwan Johnson first led Saints tight ends with four touchdown receptions in 2021, converting to the position that offseason after playing wideout in college and as a rookie in 2020, signing as an undrafted free agent from Oregon. Johnson led Saints tight ends with 50 receptions for a club-best 548 yards in 2024, adding three TD grabs. He ranks second on the Saints with 17 receiving touchdowns over the past four seasons, tied for seventh over that period among NFL tight ends. In his career, Johnson has played in 84 games [44 starts], making 223 receptions for 2,511 yards with 21 TDs.

In 2025, Johnson finished ranked fifth among tight ends in receiving and third in receiving yards with a career-high 77 grabs for a career-best 889 yards with three touchdowns. His 219 receptions as a tight end [four additional were as a WR in 2020] are ranked third among the position all-time for the club. His 223 career catches are second among Saints originally signed as an undrafted free agent.

he played in at left tackle for the Longhorns from 2022-24, Banks was the 2024 Outland Trophy winner and a unanimous All-American selection. In his first season, Banks lined up at the position that he manned flawlessly as a college standout, facing weekly challenges from some of the NFL’s elite pass rushers. Surrendering only four sacks, when often left on an island, for rookie tackles who started at least 16 of their team’s contests, Banks gave up the fewest takedowns.

In the Oct. 26, 2025 contest against Tampa Bay, the Saints succeeded in a pair of short yardage situations against tall odds, putting the heart they have shown all season on full display in a valiant effort. In the second quarter, with the Buccaneers having first and one at the Saints’ one-yard line, the New Orleans front seven stopped Buccaneers RB Raachaad White from entering the end zone on three straight plays, with DE Chris Rumph II and DT Nathan Shepherd stuffing Tampa Bay RB Sean Tucker on fourth-and-one.

On a pair of goal line plays, CB Kool-Aid McKinstry successfully defended Mayfield pass attempts to wideouts Sterling Shepard and Emeka Egbuka. On second down, LB Demario Davis stuffed Tucker. Until Tucker reached the end zone on fourth and one, the Saints had successfully defended the one-yard line seven times in the contest, the first time a team had done so since the December 8, 2013 matchup where Tennessee Titans managed seven stops from the one-yard line by the Denver Broncos at Empower Field at Mile High [credit-ESPN].

2024 DRAFT CONTRIBUTORS

The team’s top three selections in the 2024 NFL Draft started multiple games for the Saints in both 2024 and 2025. Below is a summary of the performance of five of the top six 2024 draft picks, as each of them made a jump in 2025 and will look to continue to rise in 2026:

Right Tackle Taliese Fuaga, Oregon State [first round] - Selected with the 14th overall pick out of Oregon State, the Saints were able to address an immediate need, while also acquiring a building block for the future. Fuaga was an anchor on the Saints offensive line in his rookie campaign, seamlessly moving over to the left tackle position for his first NFL season, where he opened every game for an offense that improved in every rushing metric. Starting all 17 games, he was the first Saint to start every game in his rookie year at the offensive line’s most challenging position since J.T. Taylor in 1978. In 2025, Fuaga moved back to his natural right tackle position, starting 13 games as a bookend to left tackle Kelvin Banks Jr., as the duo serve as building blocks for the New Orleans front line moving forward.

Cornerback Kool-Aid McKinstry, Alabama [second round] - Selected in the second round of the 2024 NFL Draft with the 41st overall pick out of Alabama, McKinstry arrived in New Orleans having covered many of the nation’s top wideouts in the Southeastern Conference for three years. In 2023, the consensus first-team All-American was a semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award in his final college campaign, making 32 tackles and seven passes defended.

Opening every contest in his second season in 2025, he recorded 76 tackles [59 solo] with, three interceptions and a club-best 17 pass breakups, tied for sixth in the National Football League and third in the NFC. The Pinson, Ala. native recorded the first two picks of his career in the October 5, 2025 win over the New York Giants, capturing NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for the first time in his career. In 32 career games with 26 starts, he has totals of 117 stops [90 solo], three picks, 24 pass breakups and one special teams tackle.

As a rookie, Ford established a role on special teams, contributing five tackles before suffering a fibula injury in Week 17. In 2025, he had nine coverage tackles and two defensive stops.

In the 2026 preseason, Ford has stepped up, recording an interception in the Week One contest vs. Jacksonville and making five stops on Sunday at the L.A. Rams.

DT Khristian Boyd, Northern Iowa (D6) - A sixth round selection, Boyd appeared in 49 career games in college and collected 149 tackles (59 solo), 22.5 stops for loss, 10.5 sacks, five pass breakups and two forced fumbles.

SPECIAL TEAMS OVERVIEW

Saints special teams benefited from the elevation of Phil Galiano to coordinator, after serving as assistant special teams coach for five-and-a-half seasons before taking over coordination of the unit midway through the 2024 season. During Galiano's tenure, the special teams units have consistently ranked among the NFL's leaders in placekicking, coverage and return units, producing Pro Bowlers and Associated Press All-Pros, while also setting various club records in placekicking, punting, return game and coverage units. Under Galiano's direction, the club has committed to a transition of a mix of seasoned veterans and several promising youngsters, supplemented by some key additions in free agency and the draft in 2026.

BLOCK UNIT

New Orleans’ field goal block unit came through big on two occasions in 2025, after doing so three times in 2024.

The field goal block unit’s hard work carried over into the 2025 season opener, as third-year defensive tackle Bryan Bresee blocked a fourth quarter 46-yard field goal attempt to give the offense the ball back for a drive where they ended up scoring a field goal.

In the third quarter of New Orleans’ November 9 win at Carolina, narrowly holding onto a 10-7 third quarter lead, DT Nathan Shepherd blocked a 48-yard field goal attempt. For his efforts, Shepherd was named the Week Ten NFC Special Teams Player of the Week.

COVERAGE UNITS

Galiano and Assistant Special Teams Coach Kyle Wilber were tasked with remaking the coverage aspect of the special teams units with the top six tacklers from the 2024 campaign not on the roster. Second-year LB Isaiah Stalbird led the team with 16 stops. Each of the unit’s top six tacklers return to the team in 2026.

Signing following the 2024 NFL Draft, Stalbird played in five games and recorded three special teams tackles. In 2025, he played in all 17 contests and buoyed the coverage units with a club-best 16 stops, while also leading the linebackers with two sacks.

Signed by New Orleans following the 2025 NFL Draft, Rumph provided depth at the edge position and knowledge of Defensive Coordinator Brandon Staley’s system from their time together with the Los Angeles Chargers. He developed into a core special teams player for the Black and Gold and added 14 stops.

The second of the team’s two fourth round picks in 2025, Stutsman immediately assumed a significant role on special teams, as well as seeing action on defensive packages, finishing third on the Saints with 13 coverage stops.

Yiadom is an eight-year NFL veteran who returned to New Orleans in the offseason, having spent the 2022 and 2023 campaigns with the Black and Gold, split by the 2024 season in San Francisco. In 2025, he added a career-high ten coverage stops to his career total that is now 36.

K CHARLIE SMYTH

Signed by New Orleans in the 2024 offseason as part of the National Football League’s International Player Pathway program, this Newry, Ireland native spent his entire rookie campaign and the first 12 weeks of 2025 on the practice squad. The former Gaelic football player made his NFL debut on Nov. 30 at Miami and drilled a 56-yard field goal attempt. He also successfully executed an onside kick recovered by teammate Devaughn Vele, part of a play that had a 7.75% success rate up to that point since new league kickoff rules were instituted in 2018.

Smyth’s 56-yard field goal was tied for the second-longest field goal by an NFL player on their first career attempt

In six appearances, Smyth drilled 12-of-16 field goal attempts (75.0 pct.), including four-of-six on 50+-yard attempts, made all 13 PAT attempts for 49 total points and also had 16 touchbacks on kickoffs. Smyth is the only Saints kicker to drill three kicks of 56 yards or more in the same season.

GAME WINNER

On Dec. 14, 2025 vs. Carolina, Smyth made both of his PAT attempts, a 42-yard field goal and a 47-yard game-winning field goal with two seconds left to help carry the Black and Gold to a 20-17 victory. Smyth’s kick was the first game-winner (within two minutes of end of regulation or in overtime) the 2022 opener at Atlanta.

I GOT FIVE ON IT

In the Dec. 21, 2025 29-6 win over the New York Jets, Smyth provided 17 of New Orleans’ season-high point total, tying a club record by drilling five field goals, including a 50-yard kick, to go with two PATs. This is the tenth game a Saint has kicked five field goals. Five of the occurrences are by foreign-born Saints with Smyth joining Pro Football Hall of Fame kicker and Denmark native Morten Anderson, who reached five field goals four times as a Saint.

56 PLUS X 3

In the December 28, 2025 34-26 victory at the Tennessee Titans, Smyth drilled 56- and 57-yard field goals to go with three PAT attempts and six touchbacks on kickoffs. Combined with a 56-yard field goal in his NFL debut at Miami on November 30, Smyth’s three field goals in 2025 of 56 yards or more make him the first Saint to do so.

K DANIEL CARLSON

On August 24, the club signed veteran kicker Daniel Carlson to add competition at placekicker, between Carlson, Smyth and Tanner Brown.

Carlson, 6-5, 222, was originally selected by the Minnesota Vikings in the fifth round (167th overall) of the 2018 NFL Draft out of Auburn. In eight seasons with the Vikings (2018) and Oakland/Las Vegas Raiders (2018-25), Carlson has made 225-of-259 field goals (86.9%) and 244-of-255 extra points (95.7%) for 919 total points. Since 2018, his 225 field goals rank third in the NFL, his 86.9 field goal percentage ranks seventh (min. 200 att.) and his 919 kicking points ranks fourth. Carlson's 910 points as a Raider from 2018-25 rank second in franchise history. The two-time AP All-Pro made 22-of-27 field goals (82.5%) and 21-of-22 extra point attempts for 87 total points in 2025, including a game-winning career-long 60-yard kick with eight seconds left in a season-closing 14-12 victory over Kansas City.

WRIGHT FLIPS FIELD

Signed by New Orleans in the 2026 offseason as an unrestricted free agent after spending his first four seasons with the Minnesota Vikings, who signed him as an undrafted free agent out of Tulane in 2022. In four campaigns with the Vikings, Wright was among the most productive punters in the NFL, recording a career gross average of 47.9 on 253 with 42.4 net and 100 punts inside the 20-yard line across 68 contests. In 2025, the former Green Wave standout set career-highs in gross average (49.0) and net (44.5), good for third-best in the league in both categories.

QUARTERBACKS

TYLER SHOUGH

In 11 games with nine starts in 2025 after opening his first contest on November 2, Tyler Shough, the team's second round draft pick out of Louisville, completed 221-of-327 passes (67.6 pct.) for 2,384 yards with ten touchdowns, only six interceptions and a 91.3 passer rating, also carrying 45 times for 186 yards with a club-best three touchdowns and an additional two-point conversion rush. A consensus All-Rookie selection and one of five finalists for the Associated Press NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year honors, Shough ended up leading rookie signal-callers in wins (five), third down passer rating (third-best 103.3), completion percentage, 300-yard passing games (two) and fourth quarter game-winning drives (three).

In 2026, Shough has assumed the leadership reigns of the Black and Gold throughout the offseason and in training camp, as he looks to continue his progression in his sophomore season, as well as helping the Saints take their next step forward in the team's deveopment.

SHOUGH’S FIRST NINE

After throwing for 2,256 yards through his first nine starts, Shough’s passing yardage total ranked third among a Saints signal-caller for their first nine starts with the club.

GAME-WINNERS

In the clutch, Shough became the first Saint since 2020 to lead the Black and Gold to two straight fourth quarter/overtime game-winning drives, when Drew Brees did so in 2020, including leading the team from a 17-10 fourth quarter deficit in the December 14, 2025, 20-17 victory over Carolina.

In New Orleans’ Dec. 28 win at Tennessee, Shough had his third of the season, with the Saints trailing 26-20 in the fourth quarter. Shough overcame a lost fumble by the Saints on their first drive of the final period. Following the fumble, Shough took advantage of the defense quickly getting the ball back and went to work with 8:45 left. Following a 12 yard carry by RB Audric Esteime, Shough completed a pass for a 60-yard gain to WR Chris Olave to the Titans eight-yard line. On second down, the rookie signal-caller and WR Kevin Austin Jr. connected in the end zone for a ten-yard TD to complete New Orleans’ comeback. Despite only playing in 11 games with nine starts, Shough’s three fourth quarter game-winning drives led all rookies and were the most by a Saint since Brees’ three in 2020.

HERE FOR SECONDS

In his second career start at Carolina on Nov. 9, 2025 Shough completed 19-of-27 passes for a then Saints rookie-record 282 yards with two touchdowns, zero interceptions and a 128.9 passer rating. His first TD pass was a 62-yard laser to WR Chris Olave, which was the second-longest touchdown thrown by a Saints rookie QB, with Archie Manning throwing a 63-yarder to WR Danny Abramowicz on Oct. 3, 1971 against the Houston Oilers. With the victory, Shough became the first Saints rookie signal-caller to win a start since Dave Wilson [at L.A. Rams, 11/8/81]. Overall he became the fourth Saints rookie to win a start, joining Wilson, Manning [1971] and Larry Cipa [1974].

In the December 7, 2025 24-20 win at Tampa Bay, Shough achieved several firsts in using both his arm and legs to help power New Orleans’ 24-20 win over the Buccaneers. Shough completed 13-of-20 passes (65.0 pct.) for 144 yards, with a career day on the ground in driving rain, carrying seven times for 55 yards (7.9 avg.) with two touchdowns. Shough’s two scores were the first time a Saints rookie had two rushing TDs since Archie Manning [vs. Dallas on 10/17/71] and his 55 yards rushing are the most in franchise history by a rookie signal-caller. Shough executed the first fourth quarter game winning drive of his career, when with the score tied 17-17, he drove New Orleans down the field 53-yards on nine plays, ending with a 13-yard rushing touchdown. In addition to the rushing touchdown, Shough completed three-of-four passes for 36 yards on the game-winning drive.

On Dec. 14, vs. Carolina Shough engineered an eight-play, 62-yard drive that took 55 seconds, ending with a 47-yard field goal by K Charlie Smyth. In it, he completed three-of-four passes for 43 yards and also gained four yards on a rush to help lead the Saints to the 20-17 win. In the fourth quarter alone, Shough completed 13-of-18 passes for 162 yards with the game-tying 12-yard touchdown pass to WR Chris Olave, as well as grinding out four yards rushing, for the second-highest fourth quarter passing yardage total in Week 15 in the NFL. With Shough’s fourth quarter game-winning drive at Tampa Bay the prior week, it is the first time a Saints signal-caller has had fourth quarter/overtime game-winning drives in consecutive contests since Drew Brees in Weeks Five [team had bye in Week Six], Seven and Eight of the 2020 season. Shough and Jayden Daniels [2024] are the only rookie quarterbacks in the last ten seasons to lead a game-winning drive in back-to-back games against a team with a winning record.

BACK TO BACK II

In the Dec. 21, 29-6 win over the Jets, Shough went 32-49 for a career-high 308 yards with a touchdown, and zero interceptions. He also rushed for eight yards on two attempts. It marked the first time a Saints rookie signal-caller threw for 300 yards and only the second time an NFL rookie threw for 300 in 2025. Following the Jets contest, Shough No. 1 in completions [176], passing yards [1,792], passing touchdowns [7], passer rating [86.5] and completion percentage [66.4 pct.] among the 11 qualifying rookie quarterbacks in franchise history.

Transcripts - Rams Head Coach Sean McVay, Rams QB
Stetson Bennett IV, Saints Head Coach Kellen Moore, Saints
QB Zach Wilson - Saturday, August 22, 2026

Rams HC Sean McVay

(Opening Statement)

"I thought it was a really good team effort. Awesome to see so many guys making plays. I thought [QB] Stetson [Bennett] did a really good job in the first half. I thought [QB] Ty [Simpson] did a nice job being efficient in the second half. To be able to do some different things as far as the two-minute drive was excellent. The two turnovers in the tight red area to be able to prevent them from scoring was big. Awesome for 'AC' [S Alex Cook] to be able to make that pick-six. Really cool for [OLB] 'Wes' [Wesley] Bailey to be able to force that fumble. I thought he made his presence felt throughout the day. I thought we were able to run the ball and really pleased with the overall operation. I thought [Assoc. Coordinator/QB Coach] Dave Ragone and the offensive coaches did an outstanding job getting in and out of the huddle and then obviously the players deserve a ton of credit. Then the same thing with [Pass Rush Coordinator] Drew Wilkins on the defensive side. Really good communication throughout. The guys in the box did a great job. Awesome to be able to celebrate a lot of guys today and to be able to have their teammates here to be able to celebrate them was fun for me as well. Cool deal and then we'll move on and continue to try to stack days."

(On the decision to give Bennett more playing time today)

"Just really both of them playing a half. It just ended up that they deferred so we took the possession and then we got a two-minute possession at the end of the half. He just got a little bit more opportunities. Then with the lead being the way that it was, I wanted to keep the clock running, get a little bit more runs. Then, obviously, when you get a pick-six early on and you're playing back-to-back defensive possessions, just a little bit more limited. The thinking was getting both those guys a half."

(On whether he agrees Bennett 'plays at another level' when it's actual game time)

"I agree with that. I thought he used his legs as a weapon, which we talked about a little bit with you guys last week. I think those are the things that don't necessarily come to life in some of the practice settings. The fourth-down play that he made was unbelievable. We got a little roll pass on, they got a slot pressure. For him to be able to pull up and make that throw to allow us to be able to run underneath that, that was an incredible throw and catch. Great job by [WR] Tyler Scott. Really, I was happy with Stetson and I thought Ty did a great job managing the reps that he had as well."

(On whether he's seen Bennett's growth increase each preseason)

"Yeah, I think so. I think he's getting better and better. I think part of it is the overall command. I thought he made some really good decisions. I thought he got through some progressions. Then I love the fact that he used his legs. We'll learn from reaching the ball out on the end zone even though I challenged that and it worked out for us. We want to make sure that we don't leave ourselves susceptible to getting a fumble in those types of situations where it goes to a touchback. But he did a great job. I thought he got an opportunity to be able to really showcase a lot of his skills. Huge credit to Dave Ragone too. I think those two guys were really in sync and it was fun to watch."

(On his thoughts of rookie OLB Wesley Bailey)

"Yeah, I thought you felt his presence all day. He did a great job, played a bunch of snaps. He's gotten a lot of reps, even just because of some of the injuries that we've had throughout camp or guys being out where he's taking reps with the ones. He's playing a lot of reps in both of these preseason games. I thought his body of work today compared to last week was improvement, and he did some really good things last week. Being able to force the fumble, but I've mentioned it before, there are certain guys you feel on defense where you know they're making their presence felt and that was how I felt about 'Wes' Bailey all day today."

(On whether Simpson or Bennett will play in the final preseason game and if there are any updates on Former Rams' DL Aaron Donald's decision to return)

"No news, no updates on that right now. So there are no updates on that and then we'll wait and see. I'll look at it and next time I get with you I'll probably have a good idea of what we're going to do with that."

(On what he saw from the secondary today)

"They did a great job. I thought we were in positions to understand a lot of the coverages, some different things we were trying to get done. [Pass Game Coordinator/Defensive Backs Coach] Jimmy Lake and [Safeties] Coach [Chris] Beake and [Assistant Defensive Backs Coach] Mike Hunter do such a good job with that group as a whole, but it was awesome to see 'Lamp' [CB Cam Lampkin] make his plays. 'AZ' [CB Al'zillion Hamilton] did a great job, like you mentioned, and then for 'AC' [Alex Cook] to be able to make that pick-six, it's so awesome. I thought [S] Tanner [Ingle] made his presence felt. You could really see [CB] Alex Johnson made his plays. I thought our back end as a whole did a really good job, obviously, [S] Nick Andersen. I've been really pleased with that group really the last two weeks. Tremendous credit to those players and I think the coaches have done a great job as well."

(On whether Bennett's confidence, growth and leadership from year-to-year is obvious to him)

"I think so. I think because he's been so intentional and even I've mentioned to you guys before where you look at, in a lot of instances last year, he's really walking around the field with Dave Ragone and going through mental reps because [Former Rams' QB] Jimmy [Garoppolo] and [QB] Matthew [Stafford] took the majority of those reps and so I have seen that. We talk about it all the time, and you guys have heard me say it, repetition is the mother of learning. He has been intentional about applying those reps and you can feel like his teammates, they enjoy him. He's an easy guy to be able to root for. He's just got a nice swag and a nice presence and especially like what we asked earlier, you feel his game really comes to life in game day settings. The gamer thing, he's just got a good feel and it's not too big. He loves competing and it's fun to watch him do it."

(On what he saw from his offensive line when it came to keeping the pocket clean)

"I thought it was really good. I thought the ball came out pretty quickly. I thought we moved the spot a little bit. Then I thought when we were running a lot of more downhill direct runs, I thought our runners ran really well. I thought [RB Jordan] Waters made his presence felt. Obviously, it was an awesome run by [RB] Jarquez Hunter to be able to get the last touchdown. I think it will probably go down as a rushing stat when Ty got through the progressions and threw a lateral to him on a check down. He makes an incredible amount of guys miss, takes a big hit and pops up. Looked like he was talking crap to the sideline too. But I was really happy with the offensive line. I thought they did a really good job and [OL Coach] Ryan Wendell and [Assistant OL Coach] Zak Kromer and [Assistant OL Coach] Brian Allen, they've done a really good job of challenging these guys. You've seen improvement really from all of the group."

(On OLB Keir Thomas II's and ILB Daniel Rickert's injury updates)

"Don't have anything on that. Keir's so tough. Hopefully, he's okay. And it looked like it was a knee with Daniel, but I haven't gotten any confirmation on that still."

(On whether he expects DE Myles Garrett to return to practice this week)

"Not sure yet. We'll see about that."

Rams QB Stetson Bennett IV

(On his performance in the first half)

"I thought we did good things on offense. Obviously, going to have to go back and watch the film. There are some balls that I wish we would have connected on but overall, I thought it was good."

(On whether he's grown since past preseasons when he played well)

"I'd like to say so. I definitely felt more comfortable out there than years prior. Yeah, I'd like to say so."

(On if he liked taking off on the runs)

"Yeah, that was fun. That was fun. They're constantly reminding me in practice, especially down there in the red zone. If it's not there, take off. I had one early in the first quarter, I want to say, where I checked it down and kind of threw it away. I had gotten through all my progressions and taken off and run. I had that in my mind on the two rushing scores, but yeah, it was fun."

(On whether he was going to do an end zone celebration)

"Probably not, to be honest with you."

(On what he saw in the fourth-down play where he was able to layer the ball over a couple defenders)

"I got pulled up. We were supposed to have a flat and we got ran into. I saw [Wide Receiver] 'T. Scott' [Tyler Scott] running, and I was like, 'It's fourth down, just put it out there.' He's so fast. He ran up under it and caught it."

(On how the offensive line played today)

"I think I got hit on that one because it was a keeper and I pulled up but other than that, I don't think I got touched. So, I'd say pretty awesome."

(On when he last had such a clean pocket)

"To be honest with you, it feels like every offensive line I have ever played with has given me clean pockets. But it was really clean today."

(On whether it's easier to get into a rhythm when he's playing an entire half and if he wants to play an entire half against the Chargers)

"Yeah, I'd say the more you play, the more rhythm you get into."

(On whether it's easier to start a game than to come off the bench in the third quarter and play the second half)

"I would say so because you've got the hustle-bustle of pregame and everybody's going out there so yeah, I'd say so."

(On how he feels about the decisions he made and throwing some deep passes)

"I don't think I put the ball in harm's way today. I wish we would have hit that big one to 'T. Scott.' That would have been sweet. Obviously, you've got to keep the ball in play, keep it moving. That's what drives defenses crazy, but it is fun to hit the big ones."

(On the progression of his confidence and how it's been working with Offensive Coordinator Nate Scheelhaase and Quarterbacks Coach/Associate Coordinator Dave Ragone)

"I feel like the more time you spend with somebody...Me and 'Rags'...we have a history. He's been in the room for...what is this, third year now? Yeah, I feel like it's his third year. We do the rapport. We used to walk the field and talk about it when I wasn't getting as many reps. Nate being with the wide outs last year and coming in, I feel like it's definitely building a tight-knit group."

(On the play where he layered the pass over two defenders and Tyler Scott caught the ball)

"It's fourth down. We got to get it or at least give us a shot so I got pulled up. The flat guy...we got ran into. I was just thinking, 'Put it in a safe spot so T. Scott can go get it.'"

(On if he was surprised it took a coach's challenge to get his first rushing touchdown of the game)

"Yeah, I was like, 'I hit the pylon.' Now, I was like, 'Maybe I stepped out or something like that,' but the pylon got hit."

Saints HC Kellen Moore

(Opening Remarks)

"Regular season, preseason, does not matter. Those ones aren't the ones you want. That was a big time missed opportunity for us. Starts with me. We didn't respond the right way. I thought we had a really good week out here as far as the workload that we got. We just missed an opportunity at the end of this week and obviously it's really frustrating. Again, film is your resume in this league, coaches, players. We didn't coach well enough to prepare ourselves to take advantage of this opportunity. Obviously, hopefully it's going to be a really valuable lesson for our team, a response opportunity for our team moving forward with one more week of essentially preseason football, preparation week, and a game in Dallas."

(On the challenges his team faced in the game)

"Just a lack of discipline, lack of detail. A lot of them are under our control. You know, 12 penalties in a football game, you're not going to win football games. I feel like we talked a lot about that and it was obviously a step back from the progress that we felt like we've made. So, it's going to be a lesson."

(On what happened with the illegal formation penalty coming out of a timeout)

"Yeah, we were aligned incorrectly. Officials are correct, 100%."

(On how he would grade QB Zach Wilson in the first half and QB Spencer Rattler in the second half)

"Obviously, we're going to have to watch the film really closely because your gut reaction is obviously, we want to accomplish more as an offense. We had the unfortunate interception in the first half. We had one in the red zone in the second half when we're driving. We're just going to have to watch this film and get better. I thought those guys had some really good work throughout this entire week and obviously as a team, collectively, we didn't take advantage of this opportunity today."

(On if his animated demeanor on the sideline was a reflection on his frustrations with the game)

"I think just when you have controlled situations that you're missing opportunities, too many penalties that are 100% under our control and just got to play better football. We pushed these guys this week. We challenged them with some big-time opportunities for some joint practices and in this game. And so I love the work collectively that we got over the course of this week. Obviously we missed an opportunity here, and I have got to prepare our guys better. I have got to get our guys ready to go for this opportunity. And obviously we didn't coach well enough."

(On if the players and staff treated this game as an afterthought)

"No, no. I think these guys understand this is a big-time opportunity. We just missed the opportunity."

(On if fatigue set in after the mid-week practices and an open week next week)

"I don't know. Obviously, this is a good 'push it' week, which you have to have those in training camp. Those are inevitably part of camp and so I thought our ones got a lot of reps on Tuesday and Thursday. Those guys weren't going to play in this game and so we gave some other guys some opportunities."

(On RB Kendre Miller's performance)

"I thought there were some physical runs in there. I was proud of him hopping in there. I think he did have some runs that were taking advantage of some opportunities and they're not all perfect runs. There are some dirty runs and he's able to get some really positive yards so I'm excited to see him back out there."

(On the health status of RB Devin Neal and TE Moliki Motavao)

"Yeah, a few guys out. We'll obviously gather more information with (RB) Devin (Neal) and the 'hammy' [hamstring], (TE) Mo(lik) Motavao in the knee. (S) (Lorenzo) Styles had a calf, (G) Celli (Torricelli Simpkins) had a concussion. We had a few other guys up with the 'hammy' and then (DL) (Brien) Taylor had a stinger."

(On if RB Devin Neal's injury was a reaggravation)

"I don't have the exact specifics on that."

(On WR Barion Brown's status)

"No, we're just resting him based off of the workload this week."

(On the status of RB Alvin Kamara and if he's trending in a positive direction)

"No, I think he's doing a lot of work as far as doing everything he can to get ready. We'll just let this thing take its course over the next few weeks and we'll see where we're all at. (RB) Alvin (Kamara) certainly is going to do everything he can to be as ready as he can."

(On the exact injury for TE Moliki Motavao)

"Knee."

(On what went behind the decision to start QB Zach Wilson in the first half this week when QB Spencer Rattler started last week)

"Just want to give ourselves different looks, different perspectives. I feel really good about both those guys. I thought they've had really good camps overall. We got some talent in that quarterback room, which I think is a huge asset to us. We just got to keep developing these guys. We have got to keep taking advantage of the next opportunities."

(On if there are concerns about the kicker position)

"We'll evaluate it. We obviously didn't get down there enough for them to not have an opportunity to kick it until the last few seconds of the game. We got to give ourselves more opportunities offensively."

(On his thoughts on the $500,00 fine and if he plans to appeal it)

"Yeah, we'll talk with the league about it. We'll have that conversation. And we'll let that kind of from a private standpoint, take its course, and then we'll communicate when necessary."

(On how you walk the line from learning lessons from this game and not overreacting to it)

"Yeah, we're going to get to learn some great lessons from this game. I think at the end of the day, there are going to be some challenging lessons coming out of this game, but I think it's going to be lessons, nevertheless. And I think that that just shows you the discipline, the details of football. They didn't have the penalties, they didn't turn the ball over, they ran the ball well, they took advantage of the opportunities in the red zone. It's a game of execution. I think at the end of the day, we didn't prepare ourselves well enough from a coaching perspective. Our guys weren't there and so we got to reset together. Hey, we're going to go back to Metairie. We're going to have a great week of practice out there, get yourself ready to go and then we'll have one more preseason game opportunity in Dallas and that'll be great."

(On how important it will be to elevate the team's performance in the final preseason game)

"We just need a really good week, a really good week collectively."

(On his approach with playing starters in the next game)

"This one's going to be independent of that. We'll have a really good week and we'll put together a plan."

Saints QB Zach Wilson

(On what he takes from a game like that)

"It was ugly, but I think it was a good opportunity to see how guys respond. And then I always find, especially for a preseason game, how many plays you'll go back and you let the crap of everything going on kind of get in the way of whatever your process and what your job is on the individual play. So for me personally, I'm excited to go back and watch it and just see where I can improve and get better."

(On when he found out he was going to play)

"I found out, I think, maybe the day before the game."

(On whether all the joint practices impacted the game today)

"I don't think so. It's hard. It's hard to tell reps for everyone else. But all I know is, I think in the joint practice I throw seven balls so for me that's no excuse. And I don't think it is really for the other guys either. I think the way that we have it structured, when you look at it that way, you could say that's challenging. But at the same time, I think the starters are taking the majority of the first two practices and that's why we're getting so much of the game. I personally don't feel like it's an issue, but I'm a quarterback, so who knows?"

(On what happened on the interception)

"Yeah, we'll have to take a look at it. At the end of the day, third and long, and the ball is in my hands so I got to take care of it."

(On his performance in today's game)

"Yeah, I thought it was good, man. I thought I learned a lot of good things. I thought I got better in certain aspects and thought my understanding of this offense and what we're trying to do has grown and I don't think that's always going to be a straight line, right? Like today was a little messy and there are going to be things I can clean up and do better. I know the whole team thinks that as well, but I think we're trying in the right direction."

(On if throwing an interception affected the next series)

"Yeah, not at all. I think every single play is like its own game, right? And it's like resetting, going back, what's my read on this play, what's my job, my responsibility? Mistakes happen. Every quarterback is going to throw a pick here and there. I think the best ones are the ones I can rebound and just continue to keep playing. It was messy so I'm excited to go back and see where I can improve. That's not even probably a play that I'm that upset at myself for. There are other plays I think I can do better on. Excited to learn from it."

(On the plays he wants to have back)

"It's hard to talk to you guys about it, but just something progression-wise, right? That I felt like maybe I was a little slow progressing on. And maybe from your vantage point, it was actually a completion or something too, but something that I just felt process-wise I could have gotten through quicker or gotten to an option better or hung with somebody on something or had better ball placement on something.”

(On if he was disappointed with his performance)

“I think it can be better. I absolutely think it'd be better. It's going to be something we'll watch the film and see.”

(On how he ‘parses out’ playing in the preseason and finding ways to improve despite limited reps)

“Yeah, I think it's just not being emotional. Just going through and watching the film and taking each play, the learning responsibilities on each play, and other reps, other guys are getting as well. I think there are always learning experiences in it all. Yeah, I think that's really it.”
