TITANS CROSS SEASON'S MIDWAY POINT, RETURN HOME TO HOST SAINTS

Tennessee Titans (7-2) vs. New Orleans Saints (5-3)

Sunday, Nov. 14, 2021 • Noon CST • Nissan Stadium • Nashville, Tenn. • TV: CBS

NASHVILLE — The Tennessee Titans (7-2) return home this week with a five-game winning streak on the line against the New Orleans Saints (5-3). Kickoff at Nissan Stadium (capacity 69,143) is scheduled for noon CST on Sunday, Nov. 14.

After reaching the midway point of their 17-game season last week, the Titans are in first place in the AFC South and own their conference's best winning percentage at .778. Their last four wins have come against teams that made the playoffs last season, and overall in 2021 they are 6-0 against incumbent playoff clubs with an opportunity to improve that mark against the Saints, last year's NFC South champions.

The Saints are the Titans' extra opponent under the NFL's new 17-game schedule format in which every NFL team plays one additional interconference game based upon the previous year's divisional standings. The Titans and Saints are pitted against each other based on each club's first-place finish in their respective divisions in 2020.

THE BROADCAST

Sunday's contest will be regionally televised on CBS, including Nashville affiliate WTVF NewsChannel 5. The broadcast team includes play-by-play announcer Kevin Harlan, analyst Trent Green and reporter Melanie Collins.

Fans can livestream the broadcast on their mobile devices from the Titans Mobile App (iOS and Android), as well as on desktop computers and mobile web at TennesseeTitans.com. The Titans Radio Network and Nashville flagship 104.5 The Zone will carry the game across the Mid-South with the "Voice of the Titans" Mike Keith, analyst Dave McGinnis, sideline reporter Amie Wells and gameday host Rhett Bryan.

Additionally, Sports USA will broadcast the game to a national radio audience. Play-by-play announcer Larry Kahn and analyst Doug Plank will have the call.

DEFENSE LEADS THE WAY TO HELP EXTEND WINNING STREAK

The Titans were in Los Angeles last week for a Sunday night game against the Rams, who entered the contest 7-1 and tied for the best record in the NFL. The Titans scored 21 straight points in the second quarter—including 14 points resulting from two interceptions—and kept the Rams out of the end zone until the final 30 seconds of the fourth quarter to snatch a convincing 28-16 victory.

The Titans' first two touchdowns came within an 11-second span. Linebacker David Long Jr. returned an interception to the Los Angeles two-yard line after defensive tackle Jeffery Simmons pressured quarterback Matthew Stafford to force an errant throw. That set up a touchdown pass from Ryan Tannehill to tight end Geoff Swaim on the ensuing play.

Then, on the first play of Los Angeles' next drive, Stafford was intercepted by Kevin Byard, who raced 24 yards for his first career interception return for a touchdown. Byard, who is tied for second place in the NFL with five interceptions in 2021, has five consecutive games with either an interception, forced fumble or fumble recovery.

In addition to causing an interception, Simmons tallied three of the defense's five total sacks in the win. He became the first Titans player with three sacks in a game since Jason Jones (3.5) against Pittsburgh on Dec. 21, 2008.

The Titans were playing their first game without NFL rushing leader Derrick Henry, who was placed on injured reserve during the week. They signed fifth all-time leading rusher Adrian Peterson during the week, and Peterson rushed for 21 yards and a touchdown in a starting role.

THE SAINTS

The Saints enter Week 10 in second place in the NFC South behind the 6-2 Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Last week, they hosted the Atlanta Falcons and fell by a final score of 27-25, ending a three-game winning streak.

The Saints underwent a significant change at the quarterback position after the 2020 campaign. Longtime starter Drew Brees announced his retirement during the offseason, clearing the way for Jameis Winston to start the first seven contests of 2021. However, Winston was hurt on Oct. 31 and subsequently placed on injured reserve. Sixth-year veteran Trevor Siemian, who spent time with the Titans in 2020, started against the Falcons. Taysom Hill also has experience at quarterback with the Saints.

Head coach Sean Payton has been with the Saints since 2006, and among all active head coaches, only New England's Bill Belichick (2000) has been with his team longer. Under Payton, the Saints have claimed nine playoff berths, seven NFC South titles and a win in Super Bowl XLIV following the 2009 season.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR THIS WEEK

WHAT TO LOOK FOR – TEAM

- The franchise can record its 200th win since becoming the Titans in 1999, including regular season and postseason games. The Titans are 199-179 in that span.

WR A.J. BROWN

- Can record his 12th career 100-yard receiving game. He would become the only player for the franchise other than Bill Groman (16 games from 1960-61) and Charlie Hennigan (14 games from 1960-62) with at least 12 100-yard receiving games his first three seasons.

S KEVIN BYARD

- With 23 career interceptions, he needs one interception to tie Zeke Moore (24) for 10th place on the franchise's career interception list. He is currently tied with Willie Alexander (23) and Samari Rolle (23) for 11th place.
- Can record his sixth consecutive game with either an interception, forced fumble or fumble recovery.
- With one interception, he will have the first three-game streak of his career with at least one interception.
- Needs one interception to register his second season with at least six interceptions (2017).

WR JULIO JONES

- Can extend his streak to 134 consecutive individual games with at least one reception.
- Can record his 63rd career 100-yard receiving game in the regular season and postseason. It would be his 60th such performance in the regular season, ahead of Marvin Harrison (59) for third place in NFL history behind only Jerry Rice (76) and Randy Moss (64).

OLB HAROLD LANDRY III

- With nine sacks in 2021, he needs a half sack to set a new career high for sacks in a season (nine in 2019).
- Can register his eighth consecutive game with at least a half sack, which would extend the longest such streak of his career. He would join Jevon Kearse (12 consecutive games from 1999 to 2000) as the franchise's only players to accomplish the feat since individual sacks became an official statistic in 1982.
- Needs one sack to become the team's first player since Brian Orakpo (10.5) in 2016 to record double-digit sacks in a season.

RB ADRIAN PETERSON

- With 125 total career touchdowns, he is tied with Walter Payton and needs one touchdown to tie Jim Brown (126) for 10th place in NFL history. He is three touchdowns behind Marvin Harrison (128) for ninth place.

QB RYAN TANNEHILL

- Can record his 24th career 300-yard passing game and his eighth such performance since joining the Titans in 2019. Eight 300-yard games with the Titans would put him in a tie with Marcus Mariota for fourth place in franchise history.

SERIES HISTORY

In head-to-head regular season matchups, the Titans and Saints have played a total of 15 times, with the Titans holding a 8-6-1 advantage. That includes a four-game winning streak by the Titans that was broken with a Saints victory in 2011.

While the teams are infrequent adversaries and the Saints have made only three appearances in Tennessee since the Oilers moved from Houston in 1997, this week marks the second time in three seasons the Saints are traveling to Nissan Stadium. On Dec. 22, 2019, the Saints erased a 14-0 Titans lead to win 38-28, defeating a Titans team that was without running back Derrick Henry for the first and only time during the season. Wide receiver Michael Thomas caught 12 passes from Drew Brees for 136 yards, including a late score to seal the New Orleans victory.

The last time the Titans played in New Orleans was Nov. 8, 2015, a game the Titans won by a final score of 34-28 in overtime. It was the first game the Titans played under then-interim head coach Mike Mularkey. Rookie quarterback Marcus Mariota's fourth touchdown pass of the game was the game-winner in overtime.

The Titans played a memorable primetime game at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome for Monday night, Sept. 24, 2007. Titans linebacker Keith Bulluck recorded a career-high three interceptions, tying a franchise record, in helping the team to a 31-14 win.

The initial regular season matchup between the Saints and the then-Houston Oilers occurred in 1971, five seasons after the Saints began play as an expansion franchise in the NFL. The game resulted in a 13-13 score, one of the six ties in Oilers/Titans history.

The Titans and Saints have a long-standing preseason rivalry. In 30 meetings in the preseason, the Saints lead 15-14-1. They met every preseason from 1968-87, and only the Dallas Cowboys have played the Oilers/Titans more often in the preseason (34 games) than the Saints.

TITANS-SAINTS: THE LAST MEETING

Week 16: Titans 28, Saints 38
Sunday, Dec. 22, 2019 • 12:00 p.m. CT • Nissan Stadium

GAME RECAP

In Week 16 of the 2019 season, the Titans hosted the Saints in the final home matchup of the regular season and fell to New Orleans by a score of 38-28.

In the first quarter, the Titans put together two touchdown scoring drives to take a 14-0 lead. First, QB Ryan Tannehill engineered a five-play, 73-yard possession that saw TE Jonnu Smith catch a 41-yard touchdown. Then, after forcing New Orleans to punt, Tennessee got the ball back and orchestrated a three-play scoring drive. Smith caught a 15-yard pass and RB Dion Lewis rushed for a six-yard gain, before WR A.J. Brown took a handoff and raced 49 yards into the endzone for a score and 14-0 lead.

New Orleans got on the board in the second quarter on a 13-play scoring drive. Saints QB Drew Brees connected with Saints WR Michael Thomas for a 19-yard first down to help move the chains, but on third down at the Tennessee 20-yard line, Brees was sacked by DT Jurrell Casey for a loss of nine. New Orleans settled for a 47-yard field goal to make it a 14-3 game.

Later in the second quarter, on a one-play scoring drive, Brees tossed a quick 61-yard touchdown pass to Saints TE Jared Cook to make it a 14-10 game.

On the Saints opening possession of the second half, New Orleans strung together a three-play scoring drive that saw Saints RB Alvin Kamara tack on a 40-yard rushing score. New Orleans took the lead, 17-14. After forcing Tennessee to punt, the Saints took possession of the ball and added another score. Brees threw two first down passes to Thomas, and one to each Saints WR TreQuan Smith and Kamara, before Kamara ran into the end zone for a one-yard touchdown. New Orleans took a 24-14 lead. The Titans immediately responded on the ensuing possession with a touchdown drive of their own. With help from a 22-yard reception by WR Corey Davis, Tannehill threw a 36-yard touchdown to WR Tajae Sharpe to make it a three-point game, 24-21. On the following drive, New Orleans then extended their lead, as Brees hit Cook for a 16-yard score and a 31-21 game.

In the fourth quarter, the Titans tacked on a six-play, 42-yard scoring drive. RB Dalyn Dawkins amassed 26 yards and two first downs on four carries, before Tannehill threw a seven-yard touchdown to Sharpe. Tennessee again made it a one-score game, 31-28 Saints.

Later in the fourth quarter, the Titans took possession of the ball needing a touchdown to go ahead and retake the lead. Tannehill connected with WR Kalif Raymond for a 22-yard pass to move the Titans downfield, but Raymond fumbled the ball after contact. Saints DB C.J. Gardner-Johnson recovered it and ran 38 yards to give New Orleans possession at the Tennessee 25-yard line. The Saints took over with 4:06 remaining in regulation, and Brees quickly threw a two-yard touchdown to Thomas for a 38-28 lead.

Ultimately, the Titans could not overcome a 10-point deficit and fell to the Saints at home.

Sean Payton was named the 14th head coach in New Orleans Saints history on Jan. 18, 2006.

Payton has led the Saints to nine playoff berths, seven NFC South titles and in 2009 captured the franchise's first world championship with a 31-17 win over the Indianapolis Colts in Super Bowl XLIV.

Entering 2021, Payton's 152 regular season and postseason wins in his NFL head coaching career ranked 24th all-time. The record includes nine postseason wins after the franchise had won only one playoff game prior to his arrival. Payton holds the club's top win total and winning percentage. In all, Payton-led teams have claimed seven division championships and have nine seasons with ten-or-more wins, while claiming the No. 1 seed in the NFC twice.

In 2020, Payton helped guide the Saints to a 12-4 record clinching their fourth consecutive division title. The Saints won the opening wild card game against the Chicago Bears before falling to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the divisional round.

Despite missing QB Drew Brees for five contests, the 2019 Saints won 13 games, including seven on the road, both for the second consecutive season and captured the NFC South division title for the third straight time.

In 2018, Payton led the Saints to back-to-back division titles for the first time in franchise history, as New Orleans captured the NFC South with a 13-3 record.

In 2009, en route to the Super Bowl XLIV title, Payton guided the Saints to the team's second NFC South title in four seasons with a 13-3 record.

Payton earned unanimous NFL Coach of the Year honors in his first season in 2006 and received the same honors from several outlets in 2009.

He has presided over the NFL's most prolific offense since his arrival, leading the league in net yards per game in 2006, 2008, 2009, 2011, 2014 and 2016, and ranking first in scoring in 2008 and 2009.

Payton served as a member of the Dallas Cowboys coaching staff from 2003-05 under 2013 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee Bill Parcells. Prior to his final season with the Cowboys, Payton was promoted to assistant head coach/passing game coordinator and was responsible for the team's play-calling after serving as assistant head coach/quarterbacks coach from 2003-04.

Payton joined Dallas after four years with the New York Giants (1999-2002), the last three as offensive coordinator after spending his first season as quarterbacks coach.

He coached collegiately at San Diego State (1988-89, 1992-93), Indiana State (1990-91), Miami (OH) (1994-95) and Illinois (1996).

Payton had brief playing stops with Chicago in the Arena League, the CFL's Ottawa Rough Riders and the Chicago Bears in 1987.

He was a three-time All-American at Eastern Illinois, where he had the third-highest passing yardage total (10,665 passing yards) in NCAA Division IAA history. He earned a degree in communications.

Payton was born December 29, 1963 in San Mateo, Calif., and raised in Naperville, Ill.

TITANS-SAINTS CONNECTIONS

FORMER SAINTS

- Titans inside linebackers coach Jim Haslett first coached for the New Orleans Saints from 1995-96. He served as the linebackers coach before being promoted to the defensive coordinator. He would return and serve as the team's head coach from 2000 to 2005. Haslett's Saints won 46 games, placing him third in Saints history in career wins. He was named Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year in 2000, when he took over the Saints and raised them from a 3-13 finish in 1999 to a 10-6 record and the NFC South title. The Saints' 31-28 wild card playoff win that season over St. Louis was the first postseason victory in New Orleans franchise history.

LAST WEEK VS. THE RAMS

Week 9: Titans 28, Rams 16

Sunday, Nov. 7, 2021 • 5:20 p.m. PT • SoFi Stadium

In Week 9 of the 2021 season, the Titans traveled to Los Angeles for a Sunday Night Football matchup against the Rams and won by a score of 28-16. The win marked the team's fifth consecutive victory as Tennessee tallied five sacks and two takeaways in the contest.

Los Angeles got on the board first in the opening stanza as QB Ryan Tannehill's pass was intercepted by Rams CB Jalen Ramsey to give Los Angeles possession at their own 35-yard line. Rams QB Matthew Stafford threw a first-down pass to Rams WR Cooper Kupp, and added a first down rush on the ground, before Rams K Matt Gay converted a 34-yard field goal for an early 3-0 lead.

Tennessee scored 21 points in the second quarter and never relinquished the lead. First, with Los Angeles backed up inside their own 10-yard line, Stafford was pressured in the end zone by DT Jeffery Simmons and subsequently threw an interception to LB David Long Jr. who returned the ball to the Rams two-yard line. Tannehill swiftly threw a two-yard touchdown pass to TE Geoff Swaim for a 7-3 lead. Then, on the first play of the ensuing Rams possession, Stafford threw a 24-yard pick six to S Kevin Byard to make it 14-3, Titans.

Later in the second quarter, the Titans constructed a 14-play scoring drive that saw first-down catches by WRs Julio Jones and Nick Westbrook-Ikhine, and a first-down scramble by Tannehill. Ultimately, Tannehill ran into the end zone for a one-yard touchdown on first-and-goal to increase the lead, 21-3.

In the third quarter, Los Angeles had a first down at the Tennessee four-yard line, but the Titans surrendered only a 22-yard field goal to make it 21-6. Later, OLB Harold Landry III and DE Denico Autry combined to deliver a third-down sack of Stafford to force Los Angeles to settle for a 54-yard field goal, 21-9.

In the fourth quarter, Tennessee extended the lead with a seven-play, 59-yard scoring drive that resulted in RB Adrian Peterson finding the end zone for a one-yard rushing score. The Titans took a 28-7 lead with three minutes remaining in regulation. The Rams then scored their lone touchdown of the day, as a 14-play scoring drive resulted in a three-yard touchdown pass from Stafford to Rams RB Sony Michel. However, Tennessee preserved their lead and sealed a primetime road victory by a score of 28-16.

NOTES FROM LAST WEEK'S GAME

TEAM NOTES

- The Titans won their fifth consecutive game to improve their record to an AFC-best 7-2. It is the second consecutive season in which the Titans have recorded a five-game winning streak.
- With a 7-2 record, it marks the fifth time in the "Titans era" (1999–present) that the team has won seven or more of its first nine games in a season (1999, 2000, 2003, 2008).
- The Titans improved to 6-0 in 2021 against clubs that advanced to the playoffs in 2020. In addition to the win at the Rams, they have two wins over the Colts and victories against the Seattle Seahawks, Buffalo Bills and Kansas City Chiefs. The Titans are nearing the end of a five-game streak of games against incumbent postseason qualifiers, as they conclude the stretch next week against the New Orleans Saints (Nov. 14).
- The Titans are 13-3 in their last 16 road games. Their .813 road winning percentage since Dec. 1, 2019 ranks second in the NFL behind only the Kansas City Chiefs' .857 (12-2). The Titans' 13-3 road record over 16 games is tied for the best stretch in franchise history, matching a period from 2006 to 2008.
- The win improved the Titans' all-time record on Sunday nights to 12-11. It was their first win on Sunday Night Football since Dec. 30, 2007 at Indianapolis.
- The Titans won the turnover battle with two takeaways (two interceptions) and one giveaway (interception). It marked the sixth consecutive week they either won the turnover margin (five games) or were even in turnovers (one game). The Titans have now improved their takeaway-giveaway ratio for the season to plus-one (13 takeaways and 12 turnovers) after beginning the season minus-six in their first three contests.
- The Titans tied their season low with four penalties. Their 19 penalty yards were a season low through nine weeks. Conversely, the Rams were flagged 12 times for 115 yards, each season highs by a Titans opponent.
- The Titans scored 14 points off turnovers, giving them 55 points off turnovers in their last five games.

TEAM NOTES – OFFENSE

- The Titans offense attempted two fourth downs and converted on both of them to improve its season totals to 10 conversions on 14 attempts. Their 71.4-percent conversion rate on fourth down ranks third in the NFL in 2021 behind Arizona (88.9) and Denver (76.9).
- The Titans offense was perfect in the red zone and in goal-to-go possessions, scoring all three times they were in each situation. The Titans rank ninth in the NFL in red-zone offense (65.7 percent) and first in goal-to-go scoring efficiency (94.1 percent).

TEAM NOTES – DEFENSE

- Two interceptions helped the Titans score a pair of touchdowns within 11 seconds in the second quarter. David Long Jr.'s interception led to a touchdown pass from Ryan Tannehill to Geoff Swaim with 12:21 remaining in the second quarter, and on the first play of the subsequent Rams series, safety Kevin Byard returned an interception 24 yards for a touchdown with 12:10 on the clock.
- The Titans defense allowed the Rams to convert only four of their 15 third-down attempts. The 26.7-percent conversion rate was the second-best for the Titans defense through nine games in 2021 (25.0 percent vs. Indianapolis on Sept. 26). The Rams entered the Sunday night contest with the fifth-best third-down offense in the NFL at 46.2 percent.
- The Titans defense limited the Rams to one touchdown on three trips inside the red zone, as well as one touchdown in a pair of goal-to-go possessions.
- The defense totaled five sacks, the most by the Titans since a five-sack performance at Atlanta on Sept. 29, 2019.
- The Titans are tied for fifth place in the NFL with 23 sacks in 2021.

- The Titans registered their first game with at least five sacks and two interceptions since Sept. 8, 2019 at Cleveland (five sacks and three interceptions).

DL DENICO AUTRY

- Totaled three tackles, 1.5 sacks and two passes defended.
- Registered a nine-yard sack of Matthew Stafford in the first quarter and split a six-yard sack with Harold Landry III in the third quarter.

- Secured the fourth season of his career with at least five sacks.

WR A.J. BROWN

- Led the team with five receptions and 42 receiving yards.

S KEVIN BYARD

- Recorded his first career interception return for a touchdown, picking off Matthew Stafford's pass in the second quarter and returning the ball 24 yards for a touchdown. It was his second career touchdown and second in 2021 after returning a fumble for a score at Jacksonville on Oct. 10.
- With his 23rd career interception, he passed Marcus Robertson (22) and tied Willie Alexander (23) and Samari Rolle (23) for 11th place on the franchise's career interception list.
- Logged his fifth consecutive game with either an interception, forced fumble or fumble recovery.
- Secured his third season with at least five interceptions (2017 and 2019).
- His 23 interceptions since the beginning of the 2017 season rank second in the NFL behind only Xavien Howard's 24 interceptions.

RB D'ONTA FOREMAN

- Led the Titans with 29 rushing yards on five attempts in his first game since re-signing with the team less than a week before the game.

RB DERRICK HENRY

- After being placed on injured reserve, he ended his streak of 25 consecutive starts, which was the longest active streak in the NFL among running backs.

S AMANI HOOKER

- Led the team and set a new career high with 12 tackles.

NOTES FROM LAST WEEK'S GAME

WR JULIO JONES

- Split a six-yard sack with Denico Autry in the third quarter to improve his 2021 total to nine sacks and his career total to 28 sacks.
- With nine sacks in 2021, he matched his career high for sacks in a season (nine in 2019).
- Registered his seventh consecutive game with at least a half sack, which extended the longest such streak of his career.

LB DAVID LONG JR.

- Posted six tackles, one interception and two passes defended.
- Registered his first career interception in the second quarter, picking off Matthew Stafford's pass at the Los Angeles eight-yard line and returning the ball to the two-yard line to set up a Titans touchdown on the next play.

RB ADRIAN PETERSON

- Started in his Titans debut less than a week after joining the team and rushed for 21 yards and a touchdown on 10 carries.
- Scored his first touchdown in a Titans uniform on a one-yard plunge in the fourth quarter. It was his 119th career rushing touchdown, which stands fourth in NFL history.

Prior to Peterson, Collins was the most recent 36-year-old to score a touchdown for the franchise on Oct. 4, 2009 at Jacksonville.

DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

- Totaled six tackles and three sacks, becoming the first Titans player with three sacks in a game since Dec. 21, 2008, when defensive lineman Jason Jones had 3.5 sacks against Pittsburgh.
- Registered a seven-yard sack of Matthew Stafford in the first quarter. In the second quarter, he ended a Rams drive with a 10-yard sack, dropping Stafford on third down. On the next Rams possession, he added a nine-yard sack.
- Improved his totals to 5.5 sacks in 2021 and 10.5 sacks in his career.
- Became the franchise's first player in the "Titans era" (1999 to present) with at least three sacks in a primetime game.

- Became the only Titans/Oilers players with three sacks in the first half of a game since individual sacks became an official NFL statistic in 1982. He joined Ray Childress (Jan. 2, 1994), William Fuller (Oct. 6, 1991), Kenny Holmes (Oct. 26, 1997) and Kyle Vanden Bosch (Dec. 9, 2007)—all of whom previously accomplished the feat in the second half—as the only players for the franchise since 1982 to record three sacks in either half.
- Caused an interception in the second quarter, getting his hands on Matthew Stafford in the end zone as Stafford attempted to pass. Stafford's throw was intercepted by David Long Jr. to set up a Titans touchdown on the next play.

TE GEOFF SWAIM

- Improved his 2021 total to 11 touchdown passes and improved his career total to 189 touchdown passes.
- His four rushing touchdowns in 2021 give him three consecutive seasons reaching the mark—all three seasons since arriving in Tennessee in 2019. Prior to that point, his career high for rushing touchdowns in a season was two touchdowns as a rookie in 2012.
- Registered his third game of 2021 and the 13th game of his career with at least one passing touchdown and at least one rushing touchdown.

HEAD COACH MIKE VRABEL(on being proud of controlling the game defensively)

Those guys played fantastic. It was fun to watch them play. I thought Shane (Bowen) called a great game. I thought all the assistants were ready to go to make adjustments, but all the credit goes to the players. Obviously, the impact that the front had and the pressure, you want to force him into some bad decisions.

(on if the two early turnovers were a result of the team focusing on that as a whole)

I hope that it is. I think we've got to still continue to try to hammer the football out. When you can force quarterbacks in this league, just like they did sometimes to Ryan (Tannehill) – if you can, it can force them into bad decisions. I think that the group is playing with a lot of confidence right now to be able to come in here and play the way they did and holding field goals and play great in the red zone, all those situations that we had where it was third down in the red zone, and we really came up big and that's been an improvement for us this year.

(on how he anticipated the game going)

I don't really try to anticipate how the game is going to go. You go out there and you get a sense for how it's going. You could tell early on yards were going to be hard to come by. So, all the little things that we talk about with details, and penalties, and not doing stuff to hurt the team, and turnovers – all those things make a huge difference.

(on the team's reaction to losing running back Derrick Henry and then coming out with a win against the Rams)

We've moved on since Derrick (Henry). We knew that he wasn't going to be with us early in the week. I felt like the guys responded, had a great week. Coaches got players ready that weren't here, and they played in the game and they made plays to help us win.

(on his perspective of Rams tight Tyler Higbee's touchdown that was ruled not a score)

Same one it was for you. I don't get an extra replay. I just get the same ones you guys get. Looked like his foot was out of bounds.

(on why it took so long to make the call)

Guys, they have a Twitter site. That's @NFLOfficiating. Just tweet at them. I don't know. You know what I mean? I don't get any special answers. So, just tweet them and see if they respond to you.

(on defensive back Amani Hooker)

It was absolutely critical, and I think that Amani (Hooker) worked his way through the trash. They probably tried to pick them off and made a fantastic tackle. And then for (OLB) Bud (Dupree) to factor on that play – it was a huge play. We were trying to hang on by any means. It was just tough sledding there. I thought we came up with a huge drive. They helped us out, but we went down there and we were able to finish off, and Ryan (Tannehill) threw a great ball. A.J. (Brown) came up big when it mattered, and then we were able to punch it in there in the end zone.

(on the front four getting pressure and being able to drop seven)

I think that now that we're starting to see some of that. Hopefully, we can start to marry some of that and not take some chances but understand that the ball is coming out here pretty quick. I think he was able to progress through a few times, but they're going to block us. But hopefully that we can continue to have some success with rushing four and mixing in some pressure.

(on if one of his coaching points was to have players match hands with the quarterbacks)

That's something that we've always done. That's part of ball disruption. That's part of our practice routine, matching the quarterbacks' throwing hand, stabbing through the pocket, hammer and raking, all those things that we coach. And I think that the more that they see themselves do it on film, then they're holding each other accountable to get turnovers. The offense is obviously taking care of the football, you can start to do some really good things.

(on the type of contribution running back Adrian Peterson made)

I thought he played physical. I thought he brought an energy and a professionalism. As a run behind this line and we didn't have a practice that was a full-speed padded practice because where we were in the season, so I'm sure there's a lot of things that he would like to have had back or cuts. We were battling and I give our guys a lot of credit for competing.

(on when he knew they would be without tackle Taylor Lewan and how he thinks the line did)

I think that this is a very good, excellent defense, but I enjoy watching those guys play and compete. Quess (David Quessenberry) was a captain for us today. Obviously, Rodger (Saffold III) coming back home, Ben Jones is the glue and then Brew (Aaron Brewer) being able to step up in there. I'm sure he'll be finishing all over the place and sure there'll be some plays that he'd like to have back. Bobby (Hart) stepped in. Bobby's played in this league and he was ready to go.

(on if tackle Taylor Lewan's participation was based off what he could do in warmups)

"Taylor (Lewan) just was unavailable today. Maybe it was going to be emergency role."

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

(on how much growth he's seen from defensive tackle Jeffery Simmons)

He's been a fantastic person, leader, a contributor for us since the day that we drafted him. He's really playing with a lot of confidence. I think that his technique is what's improved. He was always just a big, powerful play hard, be disruptive player. I think we're all starting to see some of the technique that those guys up front or are coaching him and he's feeling some confidence in it. It's showing that it works.

(on how important it is to have a defense that makes game-changing plays)

I hope it doesn't run out. I know you can't rely on it, but again, you put enough pressure and I'm feeling it over on the sidelines. I'm feeling that type of pressure and they're doing the same thing to our guy. They're doing the same thing to our quarterback, but I think they're all just continuing to build some confidence and guys are catching them when a quarterback makes bad decisions.

(on if his players did a good job not letting Rams cornerback Jalen Ramsey get under their skin)

He's a good player. We had however many, three penalties or four penalties. They had 10 or 11. Again, there's your answer to how we responded.

(on if he thought Ramsey was going to be ejected from the game after his second penalty)

From my knowledge, when it was reported, they called a taunt and then the next one is the penalty that would get you out of the game. They just said, 'No. We changed it.' 'OK, then just let me know when you change it.'

(n how the success his team has had over the past few weeks helps build confidence)

Success leads to confidence. Going out there and being able to view it, continue to improve. That's the message. We're better now than what we were to start the season. And that's the most important thing in the National Football League, is that you find ways to continue to improve. Obviously, you have to find ways to win, but along the way, you've got to find ways to get better because if you don't, you'll find yourself on the outside looking in because there's a lot of teams that are going to continue to improve and we have to be one of those.

QUARTERBACK RYAN TANNEHILL

(on the importance of getting short-field position and the pick-six to take pressure off the offense)

Oh, it's huge. And the defense played huge all game and those plays early were unbelievable. You look at the pressure on the quarterback, and then David (Long Jr.) making a play on the ball, and then Kevin (Byard) reading the pattern and getting underneath that out cut was huge. So hats off to them, they played a heck of a game. It was fun watching them make plays and, I'm proud of the way they played.

(on going into the game not knowing if backup linemen offensive lineman Bobby Hart or offensive lineman Aaron Brewer would start)

Yeah, I didn't know exactly what was going to pan out up there, but I'm proud of those guys, the way they stepped in for us. We obviously knew coming in that, they have some pretty good players on the other side and I'm proud of the way that those guys battled and made plays for us.

(on the Titans' resiliency despite losing running back Derrick Henry and two starting offensive linemen to injury)

We are a resilient group. We believe in each other. It's the 'next man up' mentality. We know it's not always going to be pretty, but we believe in each other. We're going to fight and we're going to try to find a way to win, and today we did that. The defense came up huge for us. They made those huge plays in the first half. The offense did enough, we made some plays when it counted there at the end, we were able to put that drive together and go get a touchdown, when if we give the ball back to him, it could have gone the other way. So, proud of the way our guys battled. Hats off to the defense, they play their tails off all day. And we found a way to win.

(on if the Titans have as good of an understanding as there can be about the shape of the game as it unfolds)

Yeah, you don't play for stats. You play for wins. Sometimes they correlate together, but in other situations, in other games, it's just a matter of finding a way to win. And today as a team, we did that. The defense, like we just mentioned, some of the plays they made were huge. They played tough the whole day and offensively, we kind of answered the bell there at the end when we needed to make a play.

(on what he was seeing when he threw an interception to Rams cornerback Jalen Ramsey)

A.J. (Brown) was going on the outside. Right at the last second, somebody's hand went across my face and I tried to adjust my arm angle so I wouldn't get batted, and I left it inside there.

(on beating a Super Bowl contender on the road and how big of a deal is it for the Titans)

That was a good one for us. No doubt about it. Proud of our guys, the way we came out and battled, a good team on the other side, on the road. And guys stepped up and made plays, but at the end of the day, it's just one more game. We just have to find a way to keep winning one game at a time. But I think that hopefully we can build on it, and I'm proud of the guys and way they battled.

(on the tough hits he took in the fourth quarter and if the Rams were trying to rough him up when the game seemed out of reach for them)

I mean, they're playing physical. They have a good pass rush and they play physical. I don't think it was personal or anything. At that point, if they get the ball back then they're going to have a chance to possibly make it a game again. So, they're playing good, tough defense and they committed those fouls and allowed us to extend the drives.

(on where the team is now and what is different about this team compared to previous years)

I don't want to compare it to years past, but I'm proud of our guys and the way we battled. We have a lot of heart, a lot of belief in one another, and a lot of will to win. No matter what's going on, what adversity we face, it's kind of next man up mentality. And it's been that way since I've been here, but I'm proud of our guys and the way we battle. We just want to go out and find a way to win each and every week.

(on facing adversity)

It's a lot of fun to go out with a tough group of guys that believe in each other and want to find a way to win. It may not always be the prettiest win. It may not always be smooth sailing, but when things don't go well, this team doesn't blink. We believe in each other, we're going to keep fighting no matter what happens. And I'm proud to be a part of a team like that.

Jon Robinson was hired as Titans general manager on Jan. 14, 2016 after spending two years as director of player personnel for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Nearly one year later, on Jan. 5, 2017, he was promoted to executive vice president/general manager.

In his first five seasons on the job, the Titans finished with four consecutive 9-7 records followed by an 11-5 mark in 2020. It was the first time the organization produced at least five consecutive winning seasons since a seven-year run of winning records from 1987–1993. The Titans, Seattle Seahawks and Kansas City Chiefs were the only NFL teams without a losing season from 2016 to 2020.

Robinson became only the second general manager in franchise history whose first five teams finished above the .500 mark, joining Mike Holovak (1989-93).

Robinson's work helped the team go from three wins in the season prior to his arrival (2015) to a divisional round playoff finish following the 2017 campaign. He became the fifth general manager in franchise history to have the team in the playoffs within his first two full seasons.

Then, in 2019, the team he constructed advanced to the AFC Championship game. It was the organization's first appearance in the conference title game in 17 seasons (2002).

In 2020, Robinson and the Titans clinched the 2020 AFC South title with an 11-5 record in the regular season, claiming their best record and first division title since going 13-3 in 2008. They did so while navigating the challenges associated with the COVID-19 pandemic.

Robinson has overseen a nearly complete overhaul of the roster during his tenure. In six drafts as general manager from 2016 to 2021, he selected 48 total players, and 23 of those players were still with the organization through the 2021 offseason. The only members of the roster who predated Robinson at that time were punter Brett Kern and tackle Taylor Lewan. During that same time period (through June 2021), he engineered 26 trades and made 12 waiver claims.

2021: After the NFL's new league year began in March, the Titans struck several deals with veterans in the initial days of free agency. The incoming players included Pittsburgh Steelers outside linebackers Bud Dupree and Ola Adeniyi, New Orleans Saints cornerback Jackrabbit Jenkins, Indianapolis Colts defensive lineman Denico Autry, New York Jets safety Matthias Farley, Los Angeles Rams wide receiver Josh Reynolds, Browns tackle Kendall Lamm and Baltimore Ravens long snapper Morgan Cox.

The Titans also re-signed several of their own free agents: tight ends Anthony Firkser and Geoff Swaim, tackle Ty Sambrailo and inside linebacker Jayon Brown.

During the 2021 NFL Draft, Robinson led the selection of eight total players, beginning with Virginia Tech cornerback Caleb Farley with the 22nd overall selection in the first round. In the second round, the Titans chose North Dakota State tackle Dillon Radunz, followed by Georgia linebacker Monty Rice and Washington defensive back Elijah Molden in Round 3.

Perhaps the most notable transaction of the organization's 2021 offseason was the trade for wide receiver Julio Jones on June 9. Robinson dealt draft picks in 2022 (second round) and 2023 (fourth round) to the Atlanta Falcons in exchange for Jones and a 2023 sixth-rounder. Through 2020, Jones' average of 95.5 receiver yards per game ranked first in NFL history, and he is Atlanta's all-time career leader in receptions (848), receiving yards (12,896) and 100-yard receiving games (58).

2020: Early in 2020, the Titans reached an agreement on a multi-year contract to keep quarterback Ryan Tannehill in Tennessee. The Titans also re-signed tackle Dennis Kelly, who would go on to start all 16 games at right tackle.

After initially placing the franchise tag on running back Derrick Henry, the Titans and Henry were able to come to an agreement on a multi-year contract extension in July 2020.

Tannehill responded with 16 starts for the first time since 2015 and produced one of the best seasons of any quarterback in franchise history. He finished in the top five of several of the organization's single-season record lists with 40 total touchdowns (first), a 106.5 passer rating (second), 3,819 passing yards (third) and 33 touchdown passes (tied for second).

Robinson acquired Tannehill for the Titans in a 2019 trade with the Miami Dolphins, and in the quarterback's first two seasons with the team, he led the Titans to two playoff appearances. From the time he took over as the Titans' starter in Week 7 of 2019 through the end of 2020, Tannehill's 111.3 passer rating ranked third in the NFL behind only Drew Brees' 112.3 and Aaron Rodgers' 111.7. Tannehill's 2020 successes followed a 2019 season in which he led the NFL and set franchise records with a 117.5 passer rating and a 9.6-yard passing average. In addition to being named to his first Pro Bowl, he earned the 2019 Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year Award.

After securing his multi-year extension, Henry produced one of the greatest seasons in NFL history by a running back. He led the NFL in rushing for the second consecutive season with 2,027 rushing yards, which was only the eighth 2,000-yard rushing season in league annals, and also paced the league with 17 rushing touchdowns. He was recognized with the Associated Press Offensive Player of the Year Award.

Henry, a second-round pick by Robinson in 2016, led the Titans in rushing every season from 2017 through 2020, during which time he also led the NFL with 5,370 total rushing yards. In 2019, he won his first of two consecutive NFL rushing crowns with 1,540 yards and tied for the NFL lead with 16 rushing touchdowns.

In the 2020 NFL Draft, the Titans had six total picks, including Louisiana State cornerback Kristian Fulton in the second round (61st overall) and Appalachian State running back Darrynton Evans in the third round (93rd overall).

2019: Near the beginning of the 2019 free agent signing period, Robinson worked quickly to add several veterans from other teams who played key roles, including Tannehill and former Rams guard Rodger Saffold. Robinson also worked to re-sign safety Kenny Vaccaro and punter Brett Kern.

Then, in the 2019 NFL Draft, Robinson directed the selection of six total players, including Mississippi State defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons in the first round (19th overall), Ole Miss wide receiver A.J. Brown in the second round (51st overall) and Charlotte offensive lineman Nate Davis in the third round (82nd overall).

In his first two seasons, Brown led the Titans in every major receiving category, totaling 122 catches for 2,126 yards and 19 touchdowns. He became the 11th NFL player to reach 1,000 receiving yards in each of his first two NFL seasons and the first player to do so since Michael Thomas (2016-17). From 1970 through 2020, Brown and Randy Moss were the only players to post at least 120 receptions and 19 touchdown catches while averaging 17.0 yards per reception in their first two seasons. He was named to the Pro Bowl in 2020 after totaling 70 receptions for 1,075 yards and 11 touchdowns.

As a rookie, Brown ranked first among rookies in receiving yards (1,051), tied for the rookie lead in touchdown receptions (eight) and placed fifth in receptions (52). Among all NFL players in 2019—rookies and veterans—Brown finished second in receiving average (20.2), behind only the Los Angeles Chargers' Mike Williams (20.4).

2018: The Titans' 2018 free agent class included Pro Bowl cornerback Malcolm Butler. In his three seasons in Tennessee, Butler played in 41 games (36 starts) and totaled nine interceptions. In early August 2018, the Titans signed Vaccaro, who went on to start 42 games over his three seasons with the club.

Robinson's 2018 draft class was comprised of four players after he used multiple trades to go up and get his targets. It included first-round linebacker Rashaan Evans from Alabama (22nd overall pick) and second-round outside linebacker Harold Landry III from Boston College (41st overall). Evans started all 32 games from 2019 to 2020, and in 2019 he led the team with 139 tackles. Landry appeared in 47 games (35 starts) in his first three seasons, and his 19.0 sacks from 2018–2020 (nine in 2019) ranked first on the team.

2017: During the 2017 offseason, Robinson used free agency to address needs on defense and special teams. Most notably, he spearheaded deals for cornerback Logan Ryan (New England) and special teams contributor and 2017 Pro Bowler Brynden Trawick (Oakland).

In the 2017 NFL Draft, Robinson spent first-round picks on wide receiver Corey Davis (fifth overall) and cornerback Adoree' Jackson (18th overall). It marked the first time the franchise had a pair of first-round draft selections since 1987. The Titans' 2017 draft haul also featured tight end Jonnu Smith in the third round and linebacker Jayon Brown in the fifth round.

The 2017 Titans advanced to the playoffs for the first time since 2008. Robinson became the fifth general manager in franchise history to have the team in the postseason within his first two full seasons.

2016: In his first year as an NFL general manager, Robinson's leadership and decision-making helped the Titans triple their win total from the previous season, finishing 9-7 in 2016 after a 3-13 finish in 2015. The six-win improvement tied for the most in franchise history (1967 and 1974) and doubled the previous club benchmark for the most wins in the first year under a new general manager (three by Bum Phillips in 1975).

Within the first four months at his post, Robinson pulled the trigger on several key personnel decisions. On March 9, 2016, he made his first major acquisition, swapping fourth-round draft picks with the Philadelphia Eagles in exchange for running back DeMarco Murray. The trade provided major dividends in 2016, as Murray led the AFC and ranked third in the NFL with 1,287 rushing yards.

Around the same time, Robinson began to work the free agent market. Center Ben Jones and wide receiver Rishard Matthews highlighted the haul, and both were instrumental in helping to transform the Titans offense into the 11th-ranked unit in the NFL.

On April 14, 2016, two weeks before the NFL Draft, Robinson and the Titans dealt the first overall pick to the Los Angeles Rams in one of the biggest trades in recent NFL history. The Titans gave up the No. 1 pick and a fourth-rounder in order to receive the 15th overall pick, two second-rounders and a third-rounder in 2016, plus the Rams' first- and third-round picks in 2017. From 1990–2015, there were seven trades involving the No. 1 overall pick, but this was the first since 2004, when the San Diego Chargers selected Eli Manning with the first pick and dealt his rights to the New York Giants.

The Titans had their hands at one point or another on 17 selections in the 2016 draft due to five different trades (including one trade in 2015), and in the end, they ended up with a class of 10 players, including four of the top 45 picks. Robinson swung a draft-day trade with the Cleveland Browns to move back up to the eighth slot to choose Michigan State tackle Jack Conklin.

All 10 members of Robinson's first draft class played in at least one game in 2016. They accumulated a total of 110 games played and 38 starts, including 16 starts at right tackle by Conklin. The eighth-overall pick capped his successful rookie campaign by being named first-team All-Pro by Associated Press.

Third-round safety Kevin Byard earned first-team All-Pro honors in his second campaign. He ranked second in the NFL from 2017–2020 with 18 total interceptions also was named to the Pro Bowl in 2017.

PRIOR HISTORY: Robinson arrived in Tennessee with a wide range of experience from working his way up on the personnel side of the NFL. From 2014–2015, he served as director of player personnel for the Buccaneers and oversaw both college and pro departments as the team rebuilt its roster. The 2015 Buccaneers draft class made a significant impact, including four rookie starters: quarterback Jameis Winston, tackle Donovan Smith, guard Ali Marpet and linebacker Kwon Alexander.

Prior to joining Tampa Bay, Robinson spent 12 years with the New England Patriots, including his last five years (2009-13) as the director of college scouting. In the five years heading up their college scouting, the Patriots added a number of key components to their roster that won the Super Bowl in 2014, including wide receiver Julian Edelman, defensive back Devin McCourty, tight end Rob Gronkowski, tackle Nate Solder and defensive end Chandler Jones. He joined the Patriots as an area scout in 2002, a role he served for four seasons. Robinson then spent two years (2006-07) as a regional scout, before being promoted to assistant director of college scouting in 2008 and then director of college scouting in 2009. In his time scouting for the Patriots the team won 10 division titles, four conference titles and two Super Bowls (2003, 2004).

Robinson played three years at Southeast Missouri State as a defensive lineman after starting his college career at the Air Force Academy. Following his college career as a player, he spent one season

FIVE YEARS, THREE PLAYOFF BERTHS

Jon Robinson constructed a roster that produced five consecutive winning seasons in Robinson's first five years on the job, including 2020. The club went 9-7 in 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2019 with postseason berths following the 2017 and 2019 campaigns. Then, in 2020, the Titans finished the regular season 11-5 and won the team's first division championship since 2008.

Robinson is only the second general manager in franchise history whose first five teams finished above the .500 mark, joining Mike Holovak (1989-93).

He is also the second general manager in team annals who has helped guide the club to three playoff berths in his first five seasons. Holovak did so in each of his first five years.

FIVE CONSECUTIVE WINNING SEASONS

With an 11-5 record during the 2020 regular season, the Titans recorded their fifth season with a winning record in five seasons since Jon Robinson was hired as general manager.

In the "Titans era" (1999–present), it marks the first time the team has had as many as three consecutive winning campaigns.

With their 2020 mark on top of their 9-7 marks every season from 2016 through 2019, the Titans built the third-longest active streak of winning seasons in the NFL.

Most current consecutive winning seasons:

Mike Vrabel was named head coach of the Titans on Jan. 20, 2018, becoming the 19th head coach in franchise history.

In 2020, the Titans made their second consecutive playoff appearance under Vrabel, who finished his third season with the organization with 31 total wins and a .596 winning percentage (31-21), including the regular season and postseason. His win total and winning percentage each tied Jack Pardee (31-21 from 1990 to 1992) for the best in franchise history over a head coach's first three seasons.

The Titans won the 2020 AFC South title with an 11-5 record in the regular season, claiming their best record and first division title since going 13-3 in 2008. They finished with a 5-1 record within the division and a 6-2 mark in road games, all while navigating the challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic.

The Titans led the NFL in 2020 with a plus-11 turnover differential. Their 23 takeaways ranked seventh in the NFL, while their 12 turnovers were the second-fewest in the league in 2020 and tied for the ninth-lowest number since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978.

In 2020, the Tennessee offense continued its ascent into the NFL's upper echelon. The Titans tied for second place in total offense (396.4 yards per game) and ranked fourth in scoring offense (30.7 points per game). They became the first team in NFL history to generate at least 2,500 rushing yards (2,690) and 3,500 net passing yards (3,653) while surrendering 25 or fewer sacks (25). Their 6,343 total yards and 381 first downs established franchise records, while their 491 points amounted to the organization's second-best total.

The 2020 Titans joined the 1997 Detroit Lions as the only teams in NFL history to feature a 2,000-yard rusher, a 3,000-yard passer and a 1,000-yard receiver. Derrick Henry led the NFL in rushing for the second consecutive season, and his 2,027 rushing yards gave him the fifth-best total in league history. Meanwhile, Ryan Tannehill passed for 3,819 yards, and his 106.5 passer rating was the fifth-best number in the NFL. A.J. Brown was named to the Pro Bowl after recording his second consecutive 1,000-yard season (1,075) and tying for fifth place in the NFL with 11 touchdown catches.

Situationally, Vrabel's teams fared well among the NFL leaders in his first three seasons as head coach. From 2018 to 2020, their .935 winning percentage (29-2) in regular season games in which they had a fourth-quarter lead ranked second in the NFL behind the New Orleans Saints (.974). In the same time period, the Titans had a .643 winning percentage in three-point games (9-5), good for fifth in the league. The Titans and Saints were the only clubs to win at least three overtime contests in the regular season from 2018 to 2020, and neither suffered a loss.

The Titans were called for 267 penalties from 2018 through 2020, which was the second-fewest total in the NFL. Only the New England Patriots (249) fared better.

Also from 2018 to 2020, the Titans were a top-10 team in scoring defense. They allowed opponents to score 22.4 points per game during that time period, the eighth-lowest average in the NFL.

Titans to AFC Championship Game in Vrabel's Second Season

In 2019, Vrabel became the first head coach in the organization's history to win multiple playoff games within his first two seasons. The Titans won a pair of road games—at New England in the wild card round and at Baltimore in the divisional round—to advance to the 2019 AFC championship game, falling at Kansas City to the eventual Super Bowl champion Chiefs.

The Titans began the 2019 campaign with two wins in their first six games but rallied to win seven of their final 10 games in the regular season. From the time the NFL went to its current playoff format in 1990 through 2019, 345 teams went 2-4 or worse in their first six games of a season. From that group, the Titans became only the third team to advance to a conference championship game, joining the 2002 Titans (2-4) and the 1996 Jacksonville Jaguars (2-4).

The 2019 Titans ranked in the NFL's top 10 in scoring margin (eighth, +71), turnover margin (sixth, +6), offensive yards per play (fourth, 6.12), rushing offense (third, 138.9 yards per game), red zone efficiency (first, 75.6 percent), total touchdowns (tied for third, 54) and third-down defense (eighth, 36.3 percent).

In his first season as head coach, Vrabel directed the Titans to a 9-7 record. His nine wins tied for the fourth-highest total in franchise history by a first-year head coach.

With only 82 penalties enforced against the Titans in 2018, Vrabel's team led the NFL and set a franchise record (16-game season) for fewest penalties in a season. The 2018 Titans also placed third in points allowed (18.9 per game), eighth in total defense (333.4 yards per game), sixth in passing defense (216.9), second in red zone defense (44.7 percent touchdown rate) and seventh in rushing offense (126.4) in the league rankings.

Background as a Player and Coach

Vrabel arrived in Tennessee with 18 years of NFL experience, including four seasons as a coach and 14 seasons as a player. His distinguished playing career included three Super Bowl wins (2001, 2003 and 2004), one Pro Bowl selection (2007) and an All-Pro honor (2007). Vrabel played in 206 NFL games and totaled 57 sacks, 496 tackles, 11 interceptions, 20 forced fumbles, nine fumble recoveries and 10 touchdown receptions. Additionally, his teams advanced to the playoffs eight times (20 postseason games), with Vrabel recording eight postseason sacks and two postseason touchdown receptions.

Vrabel joined the Titans after four seasons with the Houston Texans, spending the first three seasons (2014-16) coaching linebackers and one year (2017) as the team's defensive coordinator. During his time in Houston, the Texans built one of the best defenses in the NFL and experienced tremendous success as a team – earning two division titles (2015, 2016).

Between 2014-16, the Texans defense ranked third in the NFL in yards allowed per game (319.9) and net passing yards (218.4). Houston also ranked first in third-down defense (33.6), fourth in opponent completion percentage (59.5) and sixth in points allowed per game (19.8). The 2016 defense ranked number one in the NFL, for the first time in franchise history, in yards allowed (301.3).

In 2017, his first year as a defensive coordinator, the Texans finished the campaign with 19 players on injured reserve. Despite the injuries, Vrabel led the defense to the fifth-best third-down percentage in the NFL and a franchise-record 3.97 yards per carry by opponents. Houston also had 18 different players record at least half a sack last year and 26 players tally at least one tackle for loss.

Vrabel spent his career playing and coaching with accomplished leaders, including Bill Belichick, Bill Cowher, Romeo Crennel, Urban Meyer, Bill O'Brien and Todd Haley.

As the Texans linebackers coach from 2014-16, Vrabel developed several players into top-notch performers, including Jadeveon Clowney (Pro Bowl, 2016), Whitney Mercilus, Benardrick McKinney (second-team All-Pro, 2016) and Brian Cushing. The 2015 Texans defense had the top third-down defense in the NFL (28.5 percent), which was the lowest percentage in franchise history and the lowest by any NFL team since the 2003 Titans (27.7 percent). The 2015 defense also set a franchise mark for sacks in a season with 45 - 22.5 coming from Vrabel's linebacking corps.

Prior to joining the NFL coaching ranks, Vrabel transitioned immediately from an NFL player to college coach. He started as the linebacker coach at Ohio State in 2011 and coached the defensive line from 2012-2013. The 2012 Buckeyes finished the season undefeated at 12-0. He also was named Big Ten Recruiter of the Year by ESPN.com in 2012.

Vrabel was selected by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the third round (91st overall) of the 1997 NFL Draft, after his playing career at Ohio State, where he earned All-America honors and Big Ten Conference Defensive Lineman of the Year in both 1995 and 1996.

A native of Akron, Ohio, Vrabel attended Walsh Jesuit High School. He and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons: Tyler and Carter.

MOST WINS IN FIRST THREE SEASONS

In the 2020 regular season finale at Houston, Mike Vrabel earned his 31st win in the regular season and postseason since taking over as Titans head coach in 2018. He finished the campaign with a three-year record of 31-21, including a 2-2 mark in the playoffs.

His 31 victories tied for the three-year franchise record originally established by former Oilers coach Jack Pardee from 1990 to 1992.

Vrabel, Pardee and Jerry Glanville (1986-1988) are the only head coaches in team annals to preside over at least two playoff squads in their initial three seasons. All three of Pardee's first three teams made the postseason, while Glanville's Oilers advanced to the postseason in his second and third years.

With a 31-21 record, Vrabel's winning percentage of .596 tied Pardee for the highest mark of any head coach in franchise history who has been with the organization at least three years.

NISSAN STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

Nissan Stadium hosts all Titans home football games, Tennessee State University football games, the Music City Bowl, the CMA Music Festival and numerous other events.

The procurement of naming rights to Nissan Stadium fit the automotive company's 'Fewer, Bigger, Better' marketing strategy, which has included ongoing sponsorships of NBC's 'The Voice,' the Heisman House college football program and a major advertising presence in this year's Super Bowl. Nissan is also now the official automotive partner of the Tennessee Titans.

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin.

The Nissan Smyrna Plant began operations in 1983 and employs more than 8,400 people. In 2014, the Smyrna plant assembled more than 648,000 vehicles, making it the highest volume automotive assembly plant in North America. One component of the Titans-Nissan partnership is assisting charitable organizations throughout Middle Tennessee in an array of community outreach programs. A centerpiece of this is the annual "Taste of Titans" charitable event, for which Nissan serves as presenting sponsor. During the course of a 20-year relationship, a total of more than $1 million resulting from these annual events is anticipated to be distributed to local non-profit organizations.

Nissan Stadium is a city-owned venue that has housed the Titans since 1999. The naming rights agreement includes the opportunity for Nissan branding on the exterior of the stadium, as well as stadium signage and other unique displays inside the stadium. Quarterback Ryan Tannehill is in his 10th NFL season and his third campaign with the Titans in 2021.

After receiving a multi-year contract extension during the 2020 offseason, Tannehill responded with 16 starts for the first time since 2015 and produced one of the best seasons of any quarterback in franchise history. A Titans team captain for the first time, his statistics finished in the top five of several of the organization's single-season record lists, including 40 total touchdowns (first), a 106.5 passer rating (second), 3,819 passing yards (third), 33 touchdown passes (tied for second), 65.5 completion percentage (fourth) and 7.9 yards per attempt (tied for fifth).

Tannehill and Buffalo's Josh Allen became the fourth and fifth quarterbacks in NFL history with at least 3,800 passing yards, 33 passing touchdowns and seven rushing touchdowns in the same season. Only Cam Newton (2015), Daunte Culpepper (2000) and Steve Young (1994) had done so previously.

From the time he took over as the Titans' starter in Week 7 of 2019 through the 2020 campaign, Tannehill's 111.3 passer rating ranked third in the NFL behind only Drew Brees' 112.3 and Aaron Rodgers' 111.7. Among qualifiers, Tannehill became the fourth player in NFL history with a passer rating of at least 106.0 in consecutive seasons, joining Brees (2018-20), Russell Wilson (2018-19) and Rodgers (2011-12).

In 2019, Tannehill set single-season franchise records and led the NFL with a 117.5 passer rating and a passing average of 9.6 yards per attempt. His passer rating was the fourth-highest figure in NFL history among qualifiers. Additionally, he set a club record and placed third in the NFL with a 70.3 completion percentage.

Tannehill was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for December 2019 and was named to his first career Pro Bowl. He also won the Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year Award.

Originally a first-round selection (eighth overall) by the Miami Dolphins in the 2012 NFL Draft, Tannehill was acquired by the Titans in a trade with the Dolphins on March 15, 2019. The Titans sent a 2019 seventh-round pick and a 2020 fourth-round selection to Miami in exchange for Tannehill and a 2019 sixth-rounder.

Over his seven seasons in Miami, he started 88 games, threw for 20,434 yards and 123 touchdowns, and rushed for 1,210 yards and six scores. When he left Miami, he ranked second in franchise history behind Chad Pennington in both career completion percentage (62.8) and career passer rating (87.0). He authored 13 game-winning drives for the Dolphins.

From 2012 through 2015, Tannehill's passing yardage total—15,460 yards—was the third highest mark in NFL history for a player's first four seasons, behind only Peyton Manning and Dan Marino. Tannehill's two 4,000-yard passing seasons (2015 and 2014) were the only ones recorded by a Dolphins quarterback other than Marino (six times). The Dolphins reached the playoffs in 2016, breaking an eight-year postseason drought.

A native of Big Spring, Texas, Tannehill attended Texas A&M, where he earned honorable mention All-America honors as a senior. He played both quarterback and wide receiver, passing for 5,450 yards and 42 touchdowns and adding 112 receptions for 1,596 yards and 10 scores.

His 30 completions tied for the fifth-highest total of his career. He helped tie the score in the final minute of the fourth quarter with a two-yard touchdown pass to Cameron Batson. He also completed a pass to MyCole Pruitt for a two-point conversion in the fourth quarter.

➤ At Jacksonville (10/10), completed 14 of 22 passes for 197 yards and a touchdown without throwing an interception (107.6 passer rating). To end the 2019 regular season, Ryan Tannehill completed multiple touchdown passes for seven consecutive games, one game shy of Marcus Mariota's 2016 franchise record of eight consecutive games with multiple touchdown passes.

However, Tannehill did establish a franchise benchmark in his final seven contests for most consecutive games with multiple touchdown passes and fewer than two interceptions. Over those seven games, he had two total interceptions—one each on Dec. 8 (at Oakland) and Dec. 15 (vs. Houston)—to go along with 19 touchdown passes and a 129.8 passer rating.

Running back Derrick Henry is in his sixth NFL season in 2021. He was selected by the Titans with the 45th overall pick in the second round of the 2016 NFL Draft.

Henry was named the Associated Press NFL Offensive Player of the Year in 2020 after an historic campaign in which he totaled 378 rushing attempts for 2,027 yards and 17 touchdowns. His rushing yardage total established a new franchise record and led the NFL. As the eighth player in NFL annals to hit the 2,000-yard mark, his 2,027 yards finished fifth on the all-time single-season rushing charts. He was honored with his second consecutive Pro Bowl, named first-team Associated Press All-Pro, and won the FedEx Ground Player of the Year Award for the second consecutive year.

Henry was a first-time team captain in 2020. He started all 16 regular season games for the first time and became the first player since LaDainian Tomlinson (2006-07) to lead the NFL in rushing yards in consecutive years. He was the first player in more than 50 years to lead the league in rushing yards, attempts and rushing touchdowns in consecutive seasons and the fifth player ever to do so. The most recent prior to him was Cleveland's Leroy Kelly from 1967 to 1968.

Henry's 17 rushing touchdowns in 2020 set a career high and finished as the second-best total in franchise history behind Earl Campbell's 19 rushing touchdowns in 1979.

In 2019, Henry was named to his first Pro Bowl and added second-team Associated Press All-Pro honors after leading the NFL in rushing. In 15 games, he totaled 1,540 yards on 303 carries (5.1 avg.), joining Billy Cannon (AFL, 1961), Campbell (1978-80) and Chris Johnson (2009) as the only running backs in franchise history to lead their respective leagues in rushing. At the time, Henry's single-season total ranked fourth in franchise annals behind Johnson's 2009 total (2,006) and Campbell's 1979 (1,697) and 1980 (1,934) performances.

With 16 rushing touchdowns in 2019, Henry tied for the NFL lead (Aaron Jones). Adding his two receiving touchdowns, his 18 total touchdowns were third in the NFL and tied for second in franchise annals (19 by Campbell in 1979; 18 by Bill Groman in 1961).

Henry's performance late in the 2019 season was instrumental in the team's run to the AFC championship game. Over the final six games of the regular season plus three playoff appearances, Henry registered seven 100-yard games. During a three-game stretch (Dec. 29 at Houston, Jan. 4 at New England and Jan. 11 at Baltimore), he became the first player in NFL history to rush for at least 180 yards in three consecutive regular season and/or postseason games.

Henry authored his first career 1,000-yard season in 2018 and the 28th 1,000-yard rushing season in franchise history, totaling 1,059 yards and 12 touchdowns on 215 carries—all then-career highs.

His 2018 rushing yardage ranked second in the AFC to Joe Mixon's 1,168 yards, and he finished seventh in the NFL. Henry's 12 rushing touchdowns tied James Connor for third place in the NFL behind Todd Gurley (17) and Alvin Kamara (14).

Henry was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for December 2018. His 625 rushing yards in the month were the most by any NFL player in any month during the season.

Against the Jacksonville Jaguars on Dec. 6, 2018, Henry recorded one of the greatest single games in franchise history in front of a national television audience. He broke Johnson's single-game franchise record (228) with 238 rushing yards, including a 99-yard touchdown run. He joined Tony Dorsett as the only two players in NFL history to rush for a 99-yard score.

In 2017, Henry shared time in the Titans backfield with DeMarco Murray. Henry led the team with 744 rushing yards on 176 carries, and he added 11 receptions for 136 yards and a touchdown. His five rushing touchdowns tied for second on the club.

As a rookie in 2016, Henry played in 15 games with one start, splitting reps in the backfield with Murray. He carried the ball 110 times for 490 yards and five touchdowns and added 137 yards on 13 receptions. Henry became the third rookie for the franchise in the "Titans era" to score at least five touchdowns in a season, joining Vince Young (seven rushing touchdowns in 2006) and Johnson (nine rushing and one receiving in 2008).

The Heisman Trophy winner played three seasons (2013–2015) at the University of Alabama, where he set numerous school and SEC records while helping his team win a National Championship in 2015. He played in 39 games and totaled 602 carries for 3,591 yards and 42 rushing touchdowns and added 285 yards on 17 career receptions with three receiving scores. During Alabama's victory over Clemson in the 2016 College Football Playoff National Championship, he broke Shaun Alexander's record for most career rushing yards in Alabama history.

In his final collegiate season, Henry rushed for an Alabama and Southeastern Conference record 2,219 yards, which led the nation and ranked fifth in FBS history. He recorded 100-yard rushing games 10 times and had four 200-yard games during the season. His 28 rushing touchdowns were a national best and an SEC record, snapping Tim Tebow and Tre Mason's old mark of 23. In addition to the Heisman, he also won the Doak Walker Award, Walter Camp Award and Maxwell Award, among a multitude of other honors.

Henry is a native of Yulee, Fla.

His 187 scrimmage yards in the second half and overtime (147 rushing, 40 receiving) were the most by a Titans player since Kenny Britt's 199 yards in the second half against Philadelphia on Oct. 24, 2010. In the third quarter, he reversed field for a nine-yard touchdown run. In the fourth quarter, he scored on a 60-yard run and then helped send the game to overtime at 30-30 with a one-yard touchdown run with 29 seconds remaining in regulation. It was the third performance for the team in its "Titans era" (1999 to present) in which a player had three rushing touchdowns in the second half. Eddie George accomplished the feat on Nov. 19, 2000 against Cleveland, and Henry did so for the first time on Dec. 29, 2019 at Houston. On his first touchdown of the day, he passed Chris Johnson (58) for third place on the team's all-time touchdowns list behind only Eddie George (74) and Earl Campbell (73). His 60-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter was his seventh career touchdown run of 60 yards or longer, placing him in a tie with Ahman Green for the fifth most in NFL history behind only Adrian Peterson (15), Jim Brown (nine), Chris Johnson (eight) and Barry Sanders (eight). He registered his sixth consecutive divisional game with at least 100 rushing yards, dating back to the 2020 season. His 19-yard run in the first quarter set up a touchdown three plays later. In the fourth quarter, he scored his second career two-point conversion. During the contest he passed Ken Burrough (6,965) for the sixth-highest career scrimmage yards total in franchise history. Over a two-week span, including Week 2 at Seattle, he produced 381 scrimmage yards on 72 scrimmage touches. For the second consecutive week, he was named the FedEx Ground Player of the Week.

It was his first career touchdown pass in the regular season, in addition to his one postseason touchdown pass. He joined LaDainian Tomlinson (2005) as the only players with 10 or more rushing touchdowns and a passing touchdown in his team's first seven games of a season in the Super Bowl era.

The only other players to achieve it are Jim Brown (1958-59), Steve Van Buren (1947-49) and Bill Paschal (1943-44).
- Established a single-game franchise record with 250 rushing yards on Jan. 3 at Houston. He broke his own club record of 238 rushing yards, established against the Jacksonville Jaguars on Dec. 6, 2018. Henry's 250 rushing yards tied for the 13th-best single-game total in the NFL since 1948.

He added a touchdown on a kickoff return.

As a rookie, Brown led the Titans in every major receiving category, totaling 52 catches for 1,051 yards and eight touchdowns. He added a 49-yard rushing touchdown. He earned AP first-team All-SEC and third-team All-American honors for the second consecutive season.

Wide receiver Julio Jones is in his 11th NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2021. He was acquired in a June 2021 trade in which the Titans sent a 2022 second-round draft pick and a conditional 2023 fourth-rounder to the Atlanta Falcons in exchange for Jones and a 2023 sixth-round pick.

The seven-time Pro Bowler and two-time first-team All-Pro selection arrived in Tennessee with 848 career receptions for 12,896 yards and 60 touchdowns in 135 games (134 starts). He set Falcons franchise receiving records in both catches and yards, while his touchdowns ranked second all-time.

Through the 2020 campaign, Jones averaged 95.5 receiving yards per game, ranking first in NFL history. Hall of Famer Calvin Johnson established the previous record of 86.1 receiving yards per game.

Jones' 12,896 career receiving yards through 2020 put him 20th in league annals, while his 58 career 100-yard receiving games put him fourth all-time behind Hall of Famers Jerry Rice (76), Randy Moss (64) and Marvin Harrison (59). A native of Foley, Ala., Jones established himself as one of the premier wide receivers in college football in three seasons at the University of Alabama. After 40 collegiate games, his 179 receptions ranked second all-time at Alabama, while his 2,653 receiving yards ranked second in school history and his 15 touchdowns tied for fourth in Crimson Tide annals. As a junior (2010), he garnered second-team All-American honors and was a first-team All-Southeastern Conference selection after leading the Tide and setting school records with 78 receptions and 1,133 receiving yards to go along with seven touchdown catches.

Defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons is in his third NFL season in 2021. He was selected by the Titans in the first round (19th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft.

In 2020, Simmons appeared and started in 15 games. With three defensive fumble recoveries, he tied Chase Young for the most in the NFL in 2020 and was the first Titans defender with three fumble recoveries in a season since 2005, when linebacker Brad Kassell accomplished the feat. Simmons ranked second on the team with 19 quarterback pressures and added 49 tackles, three sacks, three tackles for loss, five passes defended and one forced fumble. In the franchise's "Titans era" (since 1999), he became the first player to post at least three fumble recoveries, three sacks and five passes defended in the same season. He also had three tackles and a tackle for loss in one playoff contest.

Simmons began his rookie season on the non-football injury list due to a knee injury he suffered during training in February 2019. He missed the first six games of the season before joining the 53-man roster in Week 7.

His rookie totals included 40 tackles, two sacks, two tackles for loss, 14 quarterback pressures and one pass defended in nine games (seven starts). He added four tackles, three quarterback pressures and a fumble recovery in three playoff contests.

During a three-year career as a defensive tackle at Mississippi State, Simmons appeared in 38 contests with 28 starts. He finished his career ranked sixth in school history with 32.5 in tackles for loss. He also tied for sixth in MSU annals with five forced fumbles and tied for fourth with three blocked kicks. His totals also included 163 tackles, seven sacks, seven passes defended and two defensive touchdowns.

He was a first-team All-SEC selection as a sophomore and junior and was one of two players in the nation to be named a Bednarik Award Semifinalist in both 2017 and 2018.

As a junior in 2018, Simmons was named second-team All-American after totaling 63 tackles, 17 tackles for loss and two sacks. His 17 tackles for loss led the team, ranked fourth in the SEC and were the third-most in single-season school history.

During his sophomore season (2017), he set a career high with five sacks and added 12 tackles for loss. With three total blocked kicks and punts, he became the first SEC player since 2004 to lead the nation in the category.
