CHICAGO BEARS RETURN HOME FOR WEEK 7 BOUT

The Chicago Bears return home in Week 7, welcoming the New Orleans Saints. Kickoff from the Lakefront is set for Noon CT on Sunday, October 19. FOX's crew of Kevin Kugler (play-by-play), Daryl Johnston (analyst) and Allison Williams (sideline) will have the television call, as Jeff Joniak (play-by-play), Tom Thayer (analyst) and Jason McKie (sideline) will broadcast on the Bears Radio Network airwaves.

The Chicago Bears defeated the Washington Commanders on Monday Night Football in Week 6, 25-24. Chicago's win was secured with a fourth-quarter takeaway under three minutes remaining and game-winning 38-yard field goal by K Jake Moody, who made four field goals on Monday night, tying the franchise record for most field goals made in a Bears debut (Jaeger, 4; W5, 1996). With the victory, Chicago secure the team's third-straight win, and first win on Monday Night Football since 2023, and back-to-back road wins for the first time since 2020. The Bears scored points on each of their first three possessions, the team's first occurrence in a single game since 2023 (W5). The Bears accumulated 25 points in tonight's game, becoming the only team in the NFL to score at least 21 points in each of their first five games this season. The output marks the first time that a Bears team has scored at least 21 points in each of the first five games of a single season since 1995 (7).

With three takeaways on Monday night, the Bears have now amassed 12 takeaways through the first six weeks, second most in the NFL, including eight INTs, also ranking No. 2 in the league. Chicago's eight INTs are the most by a Bears defense through their first five games since 2018 (10). Chicago's forced fumble and INT in the first quarter of Week 6 marked the first occurrence in back-to-back games for the Bears since 2006 (W12-13). Defensively, the Bears held the Commanders to three-of-eight on third down, a season mark of 15-of-49 on third down, the third-highest defensive third-down percentage in the NFL through Week 6 (30.6). The Bears have now held opponents to three-or-fewer third-down conversions in three-straight games, the club's first occurrence in a single season since 2004 (W8-10).

RB D'Andre Swift led the Bears with 175 yards from scrimmage, including a season-high 108 yards on the ground. Swift added a 55-yard receiving touchdown in the fourth quarter, the second-longest reception of his career and the second-longest receiving TD by a RB in the NFL this season (Irving, 72 yards). Swift became the first player in the NFL this season to total at least 100 rushing yards and 60 receiving yards in a single game, a first in his six-year career. QB Caleb Williams registered his fourth-career fourth-quarter comeback and his 16th career game without an INT, the latter ties for the second-most in the NFL.

An eventful, progressive offseason for the Bears kicked off with the hiring of Head Coach Ben Johnson. Named AP NFL Assistant Coach of the Year for his efforts as Offensive Coordinator of the Lions in 2024, Johnson's offense paced the NFL with an average of 32.4 points per game. This season, the Bears are scheduled to play games on Friday, Saturday, Sunday and Monday, the first occurrence in team history.

Following this week's game, the Bears will travel to take on the Baltimore Ravens in Week 8. Kickoff is slated for 1 p.m. ET from Baltimore, Md.

NUMBERS TO KNOW

HONORING OUR LEGACY

VIRGINIA HALAS McCASKEY

In honor and tribute of the passing of the organization's matriarch, Virginia Halas McCaskey, the Bears are wearing a stitched football-shaped patch on their uniforms for the 2025 season.

The patch — an orange football with navy lettering and a white outline around the middle "M" for McCaskey — will be stitched on the upper left side of each jersey for each game this season, strategically placed above each player's heart.

The 2025 patch is a near-identical design to the patch the Bears wore during the 1983 season after founder, owner and Hall of Fame coach and player, George Halas, passed away.

The Bears are also honoring Mrs. McCaskey by only wearing the club's iconic primary uniforms during the 2025 season.

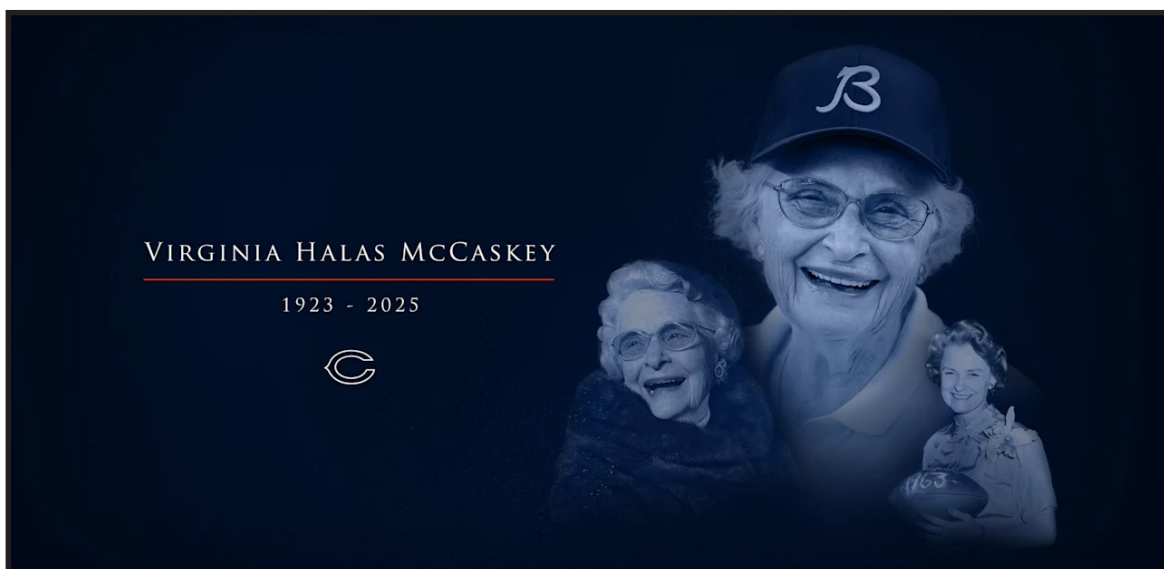

STEVE McMICHAEL

The Bears are also honoring Pro Football Hall of Fame defensive lineman Steve "Mongo" McMichael, who passed away earlier this year.

The Bears are paying tribute to the Super Bowl XX champion by donning a football-shaped decal featuring McMichael's No. 76 on the back of each helmet. The logo will also be painted on the grass for every home game.

A five-time All-Pro, McMichael, who appeared in 203 games (postseason included) with the Bears, totaled 95.0 career sacks, third-most by a defensive tackle in NFL history.

"It's a cruel irony that the Bears' Ironman succumbed to this dreaded disease," said Chicago Bears Chairman George H. McCaskey in a statement following the passing of McMichael. "Yet Steve showed us throughout his struggle that his real strength was internal, and he demonstrated on a daily basis his class, his dignity and his humanity. He is at peace now."

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

OWENS FOR GOLD

In the third quarter of last season's Week 1 win over Tennessee, Bears DL Daniel Hardy blocked a Tennessee punt, which was recovered by DB Jonathan Owens and returned for a touchdown, marking the first punt block returned for a touchdown by the Bears since 2012 (Corey Wootton, at Tennessee). Owens' score marks the first punt block returned for a touchdown in a Bears season-opening game since 1993 (Myron Baker), as Hardy's blocked punt was the first blocked punt by the Bears since Week 9 of 2012 (Sherrick McManis), the same play that Wootton returned for a touchdown. Owens' return touchdown helped the Bears log their fourth-biggest comeback since at least 1950. The blocked punt return touchdown registered as the second touchdown of Owens' career, as the seven-year veteran also returned a fumble recovery for a touchdown in 2023.

BLACKWELL TO THE BANK

In 2024, DB Josh Blackwell opened the scoring in the Bears Week 18 victory over the Packers with a 94-yard punt return touchdown. While WR DJ Moore and the blockers set up for a decoy return on one side of the field, Blackwell ran back from his gunner position to field the punt on the other side. The decoy worked, giving Blackwell a lane to run back the second longest punt return of the season in the NFL, and tied for the third longest for the Bears since at least 1948.
