THE MATCHUP

After a 17-14 loss at the Baltimore Ravens on Saturday night at M&T Bank Stadium, the New Orleans Saints (0-1) will host the Jacksonville Jaguars (0-1) on Monday night in the Caesars Superdome to open their 2021 home preseason slate.

New Orleans and Jacksonville have faced each other in two exhibitions, with each club claiming their road matchup. The two clubs last met in the regular season at TIAA Bank Field on October 13, 2019 with the Saints pulling out a dramatic 13-6 victory with a fourth quarter touchdown, while keeping the Jaguars out of the end zone.

New Orleans looks to rebound from Saturday's loss at Baltimore, while Jacksonville fell to the Cleveland Browns at home on Saturday.

The Saints received at the start and quickly drove to the Baltimore nine-yard line with QB Taysom Hill receiving the start, but RB Latavius Murray lost a fumble. Neither club scored until the start of the second quarter when Baltimore took advantage of a fumble by RB Devonta Freeman and K Justin Tucker booted a 56-yard field goal. New Orleans quickly responded on their next drive when RB Tony Jones Jr. reached the end zone with a 18-yard rushing touchdown. Baltimore booted two second quarter field goals, but New Orleans went into halftime with a 14-9 lead following an eight-yard-TD connection between QB Jameis Winston and WR Lil' Jordan Humphrey.

Leading 14-6, the Saints were poised to take command of the contest at the Baltimore 23-yard line, but Jones had the ball punched out and lost the ball at the Ravens eight-yard line. A resilient New Orleans defense got the ball back when rookie DB Eric Burrell forced a fumble that was recovered by LB Kaden Elliss. However Baltimore took the 17-14 edge late when QB Tyler Huntley rushed seven yards for a touchdown.

Saints signal callers completed 60.7% of their passes altogether on the evening. Hill completed eight-of-12 throws for 81 yards with an interception. Winston executed on seven-of-12 throws for 96 yards. Rookie Ian Book in his NFL playing debut, completed nine-of-16 throws for 126 yards and an interception.

Jones was the team's leading rusher and receiver with seven carries for 82 yards (11.7 avg.) and five receptions for 38 yards..

In addition to Jones, TE Juwan Johnson paced the passing game with two receptions for a club-high 71 yards, including a 38-yard grab. WR Marquez Callaway also had three catches for 61 yards.

Defensively, Ellis led New Orleans with eight tackles (six solo), one pass defense and the fumble recovery.

THE HEAD COACHES

Saints Head Coach Sean Payton has posted a 152-89 overall record (.629), including a 9-8 postseason mark after the franchise had won only one playoff game prior to his arrival in 2006. Payton holds both the club's top victory total and winning percentage. Payton is ranked 25th all-time in NFL record books in victories, fifth among active head coaches. He continues to represent the Saints as the model of stability not only within the NFC South, as he is the longest tenured head coach within the division, but also among the most accomplished within the NFL. Only the Patriots' Bill Belichick (2000) has been with the his team longer than Payton's 15 seasons. Payton is also one of just nine active NFL head coaches to lead a team to a Super Bowl victory. The others are the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' Bruce Arians, Belichick, the Seattle Seahawks' Pete Carroll, the Las Vegas Raiders' Jon Gruden (Buccaneers in 2002), the Baltimore Ravens' John Harbaugh, the Dallas Cowboys' Mike McCarthy (Green Bay Packers in 2010), Kansas City's Andy Reid and the Pittsburgh Steelers' Mike Tomlin. The 2020 Saints were only the sixth team in National Football League history to have six-game winning streaks in four consecutive seasons and with a nine-game winning streak had won at least nine straight games in two of the past three seasons and had double-digit victory figures and consecutive playoff berths in four straight years for the first time in franchise history, also being only the third NFC team since divisional alignment to capture four straight division championships. Five Saints were selected to the Pro Bowl as the Black and Gold qualified for the NFL playoffs for the ninth season (2006, 2009-11, 2013, 2017-20) in Payton's head coaching tenure. The 2019 New Orleans Saints posted their second consecutive 13-3 record, capturing their third consecutive NFC South title and playoff berth. A franchise-record six players were selected Associated Press All-Pro and a club-best 11 were named to the Pro Bowl. New Orleans won seven games on the road for the second consecutive season. The Saints set an National Football League single-season record with only eight turnovers as they ranked second in the league in turnover ratio (+15). New Orleans also ranked third in sacks (51), tied for third in scoring (28.6 ppg.) and ranked fourth in opponent rushing yards per game. Special teams captured first place in National Football League writer Rick Gosselin's annual comprehensive rankings. Payton earned a bachelor's degree in communications at Eastern Illinois, where as a quarterback he had 10,665 passing yards, at the time the third-highest total in NCAA Division I-AA history. Payton was inducted into the Eastern Illinois Hall of Fame in 2000 and had his jersey retired in a ceremony in 2010. He received an honorary doctorate from his alma mater in 2013. Payton was born Dec. 29, 1963 in San Mateo, Calif., and raised in Naperville, Ill., Payton has a daughter, Meghan and a son, Connor.

Urban Meyer was hired as the sixth coach in Jacksonville Jaguars history on January 14th, 2021. Before serving as a studio analyst at FOX and an assistant athletic director at Ohio State, Meyer accumulated a 187-32 record and a .854 winning percentage, the third-highest in college football history, during head coaching stints at Ohio State (2012-18), Florida (2005-10), Utah (2003-04) and Bowling Green (2001-02). Meyer also posted a 12-3 record in postseason play. He is the only modern-day coach to win national championships in two different conferences (SEC in 2006 and 2008 at Florida and Big Ten in 2014 at Ohio State). Meyer was named national coach of the year in 2003 by The Sporting News and, in 2004, he was named the Football Writers Association of America's Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year and the Home Depot Coach of the Year. The Touchdown Club of Columbus also presented him with its coach of the year award, the Woody Hayes Trophy. While with the Utes, Meyer mentored quarterback Alex Smith, who threw for 2,952 yards and 32 touchdowns and ran for 631 yards and 10 touchdowns in 2004 before being the first overall pick in the 2005 NFL Draft. His prolific coaching career next took him to Gainesville, where his six-year stint saw two national titles and a 65-15 record with the Gators. He led Florida to national championships in 2006 and 2008 and tutored quarterback Tim Tebow, who won the Heisman Trophy in 2007 and was named first-team All-American in 2008 after leading the most productive offense in SEC history (611 points). During his time in Columbus, the Buckeyes won the inaugural College Football Playoff national championship in 2014, captured the Big Ten Conference title in 2014, 2017 and 2018 and posted an 83-9 record, including a 54-4 conference record. He posted the two longest winning streaks in school history: 24 and 23 games.

SERIES HISTORY

The Saints have the upper hand in the regular season series against the Jaguars including winning the last four regular season matchups, all since Payton became Head Coach and holding a 5-2 overall lead. New Orleans won the first ever meeting between the two clubs 17-13 in 1996 at the Superdome before dropping the next two contests 41-23 in 1999 and 20-19 in 2003, both at Jacksonville. New Orleans has hosted the Jaguars in 2015, 2007 and 1996 while Jacksonville has hosted the other three contests in 1999, 2003, and 2011. In an October 13, 2019 meeting at TIAA Bank Field, two sacks by DE Cameron Jordan and an interception by CB Marshon Lattimore led a suffocating New Orleans defensive effort that didn't surrender a touchdown for the first time since 2019 as the Saints won 13-6, driving for a fourth quarter touchdown behind QB Teddy Bridgewater. The preseason series is tied 1-1, with the Saints winning 24-20 in the least exhibition on August 9, 2018 at TIAA Bank Field.

LAST REGULAR SEASON MEETING

Saints 13, Jaguars 6; October 13, 2019 @ TIAA Bank Field – The Saints won their fourth consecutive game and improved their record on the season to 5-1, despite missing QB Drew Brees for throughout the winning streak defeating Jacksonville in a contest dominated by both defense and special teams, with timely offensive plays mixed in. It marked the first time New Orleans didn't surrender a touchdown in a contest since a 20-0 shutout of the Miami Dolphins in London on October 1, 2017.

The Jaguars won the toss and deferred to receive. The clubs traded punts for their first two possessions. New Orleans jumped out to a 3-0 lead compliments of a 47-yard field goal by K Wil Lutz. New Orleans took a bend but don't break approach on a Jacksonville drive midway through the second quarter as Jaguars QB Gavin Minshew completed 12- and 22-yard passes to WR D.J. Chark, followed by some nifty runs by RB Leonard Fournette. But the Saints kept the Jaguars out of the end zone at their four-yard line and forced a 22-yard Josh Lambo field goal to close out the only first half scoring.

New Orleans recorded the game's only takeaway on the first drive of the second half when CB Marshon Lattimore picked off a pass intended for Chark. The Saints took the lead back on the next drive when Lutz drilled a 21-yard field goal. Midway through the third quarter, Minshew completed a pass for a 23-yard gain to WR Dede Westbrook, that set up a 32-yard Lambo field goal.

Between the third and fourth quarters, New Orleans QB Teddy Bridgewater drove the offense 75 yards in 11 plays on a drive that lasted 6:22 and he eventually connected with TE Jared Cook on a four-yard touchdown pass to put the Saints ahead for good. New Orleans then defended a Jacksonville drive on downs at the Saints 40 and despite a quick three and out, then forced a Jaguars punt. The Saints then wouldn't give the ball back, holding it for the final 6:09 of the contest, converting three first downs.

Bridgewater threw for 240 yards and WR Michael Thomas had eight receptions for 89 yards. DE Cameron Jordan recorded two sacks to move into a tie with OLB Pat Swilling for third place on the club's all-time list.

LAST WEEK

Ravens 17, Saints 14; August 14, 2021 @ M&T Bank Stadium – There was not much separation in the competition to be the next starting quarterback for the New Orleans Saints in the preseason opener against the Ravens on Saturday, Aug. 14 in Baltimore.

Taysom Hill started and went 8 of 12 for 81 yards with an interception. Jameis Winston replaced him and went 7 of 12 for 96 yards with one touchdown and one interception.

But there is no doubt what stat caught the eye of Saints Coach Sean Payton - six turnovers. The Saints lost 17-14 - extending Baltimore's preseason winning streak to a league-best 18 games - but the poor ball security and numerous penalties (10 for 63 yards) gave Payton and his staff plenty to coach before the next preseason game.

Running backs Latavius Murray, Devonta Freeman and Tony Jones Jr. fumbled while Hill, Winston and rookie Ian Book each had a pick. Murray and Jones each fumbled inside the red zone, taking possible points off the board.

The defense was excellent for most of the game with defensive lineman Marcus Davenport and David Onyemata standing out. Rookie cornerback Paulson Adebo was tested repeatedly but held up well and fellow rookie Bryce Thompson had an interception in the first half.

The Ravens scored on a 56-yard field goal by Justin Tucker, two field goals by his backup, Jake Verity, and a 7-yard run by third-string quarterback Tyler Huntley in the fourth quarter that proved to be the winning points.

Saints receiver Marquez Callaway had a nice first half with three catches for 61 yards. Other than the fumble, Jones was excellent. He scored on an 18-yard run and finished with 82 yards on just seven carries. The Notre Dame product also held up well in pass protection and had five receptions for 38 yards.

Numerous Saints players were held out of the game including running back Alvin Kamara, starting tackles Terron Armstead and Ryan Ramczyk and on defense Cameron Jordan, Demario Davis and Marshon Lattimore all watched from the sideline.

Ahead is a synopsis of several returning players and newcomers through the draft and free agency to the 2020 Saints offensive line:

Left Tackle Terron Armstead - The club's first third round draft choice in 2013 out of Arkansas-Pine Bluff, Armstead impressed scouts by running the fastest 40-yard dash time (4.71) by an offensive lineman in the history of the NFL Scouting Combine. He's opened 85 regular season games and nine postseason contests and has been selected to the Pro Bowl the past three seasons, as well as being selected as the club's 2019 Man of the Year and the team nominee for the NFL's Art Rooney Sportsmanship Award.

Tackle/Guard Andrus Peat - A first round selection (13th overall) in the 2015 NFL Draft out of Stanford, Peat was considered one of the top college offensive linemen in 2014. In his first six seasons, Peat's played in 75 regular season games with 68 starts, opening a contest at every position except center. In 2020, he opened 13 contests at left guard as he is part of the NFC Pro squad for the third consecutive season.

Right Tackle Ryan Ramczyk - The Black and Gold used their second first round selection in the 2017 NFL Draft to snag Ramczyk out of Wisconsin, viewed by many as one of the best linemen in the entire draft. After opening all 16 games and both postseason contests in 2017 and being selected as a PFWA All-Rookie, he was an AP All-Pro selection at right tackle in 2018, not missing an offensive snap in both postseason contests and all 15 regular games at the right tackle position that he played in. Ramczyk opened all 16 regular season games in 2019 to serve as a dominating bookend to Armstead, earning first-team All-Pro honors. Opening every contest and playing a key role in blocking for a run offense that has averaged over 200 yards per game in a three-game stretch for the first time since 2018 in three contests and finished the season ranked sixth in the league in rushing offense, Ramczyk was the team's 2020 nominee for the NFL's Art Rooney Sportsmanship Award and was selected as a second-team AP All-Pro.

Center/Guard Erik McCoy - New Orleans traded up in the second round of the 2019 NFL Draft to select this standout from Texas A&M, who was a three-year starter, anchoring the middle of the Aggies offensive line. In 2018, he was a team captain who paved the way for the SEC's leading rusher and in 2019 was the first Saint in franchise history to start at center in Week One, opening all 16 regular season contests. McCoy opened all 16 contests and both postseason games in 2020 for the NFL's sixth-ranked rushing offense.

Guard/Center Cesar Ruiz - The hard-working, talented and intelligent lineman is a perfect fit for New Orleans' culture with the 24th pick in the 2020 NFL Draft out of the University of Michigan. The three-year letterman played in 36 games in his college career, starting his last 31 including the final 26 at center, earning All-Big Ten as a junior in 2019. Ruiz settled in at right guard in the last 15 games, with nine starts as he has settled into the position without the benefit of offseason workouts, OTAs and preseason games, as well as both postseason contests. Extensive development is expected with the benefit of a full offseason for Ruiz in 2021.

Guard/Tackle Derrick Kelly II - This 6-5, 320 pound former four-year starter on the Florida State line was signed as an undrafted free agent in 2019, possessing the flexibility to play both tackle and guard. After spending his rookie season on the practice squad, Kelly increased strength in the 2020 offseason and made big strides in training camp, securing a roster spot, continuing that trend in 2021.

Tackle Ethan Greenidge - A mainstay at left tackle for his entire college career at Villanova, Greenidge started 43 contests for the Wildcats. The Long Island native was signed by New Orleans as a free agent after the 2019 NFL Draft and after adjusting to the physical and mental rigors of the pro game in 2020, he played in 12 regular season games in 2020.

Tackle/Guard James Hurst - A seven-year NFL veteran who was signed as a free agent from Baltimore in 2020, Hurst has 102 career regular season appearances with 49 at three different positions on the inside and outside. Hurst's versatility came in handy in 2020, his first season in New Orleans as he has started two contests at left tackle with Armstead on the COVID-19 list and the Saints gained over 200 yards rushing each time. Hurst started at left guard in the Christmas Day win over Minnesota in place of an injured Peat as the offensive line blocked for a season-high 264 yards rushing and did not give up a sack.

Center/Guard Will Clapp - A technically proficient player, who through the combination of size, strength and intelligence, was a three-year starter on the LSU offensive line, starting all 36 games that he appeared in (13 at center, 12 at left guard, 11 at right guard), earning first-team All-SEC honors at guard and center. Blocking for 1,000-yard rushers in each of his three college seasons, the former Brother Martin standout settled in at center in 2017, where he was a first-team All-SEC selection and a Rimington Trophy finalist. Clapp made his first career start at left guard in the 2018 regular season finale. In his third season, Clapp provides depth on the interior of the Saints line and has also served as a jumbo tight end, playing in 25 games with four starts, including eight contests in 2020, as well as making his postseason debut in the wild card win over Chicago. In 2021, Clapp has working as the team's backup center in training camp and the preseason.

New Orleans' 215.1 opponent net passing yards per game are ranked fifth in the NFL in 2020 despite the team's starting cornerback duo of Janoris Jenkins and Marshon Lattimore having missed five contests between them due to injuries and nickelback Patrick Robinson, who started December 6 at Atlanta, having missed the majority of that contest and being placed on Injured Reserve on December 12. The Saints' 19-game (regular season) streak of not allowing an individual passer to throw for 300 yards is second-longest in the NFL currently, behind Pittsburgh's 25.

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

JUST KICKING IT

Between deep touchdown passes and athletic interceptions, players often use their hands to produce the game's flashiest plays. However, players using their feet make the difference between winning and losing, drilling clutch field goals or flipping the field with a well-executed punt, a fact which has proven true with New Orleans' 10-2 record.

Kicker Wil Lutz went undrafted in 2016, joining the Ravens for training camp. Prior to the start of the regular season, Lutz joined the Black and Gold. Lutz has kicked in 80 games, converting 142-of-164 field goal attempts (86.6 percent) and 253-of-260 PATs (97.3 percent). He's recorded 316 touchbacks, the most in the NFL since 2016. His 86.6 percent field goal percentage is best among kickers in team history. Until the 2018 regular season finale, he'd kicked a field goal in a club-record 36 consecutive games, second-longest streak in NFL history. In scoring three points on December 6 at Atlanta to reach 101, Lutz joined Morten Andersen (1985-89) as only the second Saint to score at least 100 points in five consecutive seasons, Lutz doing it in the first five years of his career.

With his first field goal on Oct. 20, 2019 at Chicago, Lutz set the National Football League record for consecutive road field goals.

COVERAGE UNITS

New Orleans' coverage units are expected to be led in 2021 by CB Paulson Adebo, ILB Zack Baun, LB Kaden Elliss, DB J.T. Gray, RB Dwayne Washington and CB P.J. Williams, while Head Coach Sean Payton, Special Teams Coordinator Darren Rizzi and Assistant Special Teams Coach Phil Galiano look to identify several new contributors from a group in the preseason.

Adebo, the club's third round pick out of Stanford, secured no return with a stop on a 59-yard punt by P Blake Gillikin early in the fourth quarter of his NFL debut at Baltimore

In another addition to the club's special teams units, Gray led the team in 2019 with 17 stops, blocked a punt and recovered a fumble on a muffed punt as he was selected an AP second-team All-Pro. Gray is tied for the team lead with seven stops in 2020

A seventh round draft pick of New Orleans in 2019, Elliss' blue collar mentality has fit in with the coverage units as he rebounded from a season-ending knee injury in his rookie season to have four stops in 2020.

One of the club's two third round draft picks in 2020, Baun, a former University of Wisconsin standout, has embraced work on the club's coverage units with three stops.

Washington is a sixth-year NFL veteran who was originally a seventh round draft pick of the Detroit Lions in 2016. In addition to his value in providing dependable depth at the tailback position behind Alvin Kamara and Latavius Murray, Washington has excelled on special teams for New Orleans. In his career, he has posted ten coverage stops, one blocked punt recovery and also possesses the ability to fill in on kickoff return units. Washington has posted two special teams stops in 2020.

Williams, in his seventh season, has continued to add to his versatility the past two seasons, flipping between cornerback and free safety on multiple occasions as well as increasing his contributions to the coverage units, where he posted four regular season stops in 2020 and his first post-season coverage tackle in the wild card win over Chicago.

New Orleans was ranked first in the NFL in opponent punt return average in 2020.

BALTIMORE RAVENS POST-GAME QUOTES

New Orleans Saints vs. Baltimore Ravens

Saturday, Aug. 14, 2021 M&T Bank Stadium

NEW ORLEANS SAINTS

Head Coach Sean Payton

Opening Statement "When you get six turnovers and 10 penalties, you are going to struggle, and that is what we did. To be ahead at halftime, I thought we did real good defensively, especially in the first half. But the turnovers really hurt us. Bad job by us. The coaches, the players, it was ugly to watch, and we are going to end up losing games like that."

(on QB Taysom Hill's interception) "We were not on the same page. The receivers and the quarterbacks, one was running a shallow cross, and the other was expecting to sit it down. Bad by both of them. We will have to look at it on tape. If you get certain looks, you should sit it down. But if you get another look, you should stay on the move. Obviously, there was a miscommunication there."

(on QB Jameis Winston's interception) "Look, we are going to look at the tape tomorrow. I'd really rather not go turnover, by turnover here."

(on comparing Hill's overall play to Winston's overall play) "I'm not really going to make comparisons tonight, it doesn't really matter who was at quarterback, when you have six turnovers, right? At the same time, I said to these guys, there is going to be some things we like on the film. Like I thought we played with some energy, and there is a handful of things that we are going to like. But it is just going to be overshadowed though with those early mistakes. Despite how you play in the kicking game, the passing game, the defensive game, those mistakes will overshadow all of it."

(on the penalties) "Two false starts, four offsides, motion hard count four times, so we will see more of that defensively. Just overall, it was very disappointing. Some of it was that we were in and out with the substitutions and all of that. Like I said, I liked our energy. But hey, look, it wasn't just our rookies. There were some veteran players."

(on QB Ian Book playing the entire second half) "Yes, third phase. Third phase. We got our numbers about right in the first two phases. So, it was more reps than it is halftime versus non halftime. Everybody got their numbers."

(on if there was any plan to play QB Trevor Siemian) "No. It was just those three."

(on if he liked what he saw from the linebackers including LB Zack Baun) "Yes. We will watch the tape, but there were a number of things we liked."

(on DT David Onyemata playing DE today) "Yes. We moved him around because we liked our depth at that position in this game. We moved him around. Some guys were down intentionally for tonight that we should have back next week. That was part of the plan."

(on his defense at the end of the first half) "I didn't like the defense at the end of the half. [Baltimore was] able to get a completion and then another one, down themselves, and then kick a field goal and score. I didn't like that sequence, but it will be something we can learn from."

(on if DT David Onyemata was on a snap count for conditioning purposes even though he was going to be out for a while) "Right. But we are going to play him anyway. We are not going to sit with him right now. We've had this before where a player begins the season on suspension. Those guys still need to be in football shape."

BALTIMORE RAVENS POST-GAME QUOTES

New Orleans Saints vs. Baltimore Ravens

Saturday, Aug. 14, 2021 M&T Bank Stadium

(on if it was important to have WR Michael Thomas at the stadium tonight) "Well, he is part of the team. It was great seeing him. He is doing well. He is ahead of schedule. He was excited to be around these guys, and we are excited to have him, but it wasn't this big kumbaya moment. He was with us at the start, and then he went to Philly to do some rehab up there."

(on if he had a talk with WR Michael Thomas) "All of that is between me and him. It was good seeing him, yes it was all good."

LB Zack Baun

(on playing the WILL linebacker position) "Playing the WILL is something totally new for me. But I had a lot of fun with it tonight. I just want to use this training camp to show the coaches that they can trust me, putting me at WILL, or SAM, fly around and make plays and show my athleticism."

(on what his goal was tonight) "Like I said, I just wanted to make plays, fly around. [I want to] make good decisions and do the right thing."

(on LB Kaden Elliss) "Kaden is a monster. The WILL and the SAM are two difficult positions to know and learn, and he has done a great job of mastering them both. He is really athletic and really smart."

(on playing the WILL linebacker sport instinctually) "Like I said, I am having fun with it. What I like about the position is it gives you opportunities to make a lot of plays. It is like 50-50. You are setting the edge and defending the pass. Like I said, I am just trying to have a lot of fun with it."

(on his confidence level, year-over-year) "Oh, I feel a lot more confident this year, even playing at a new position on the defense. It definitely helps a lot, not being new. I know the scheme. It is a lot more natural. Last year I was thinking a little more. Now I am just reacting."

(on how important it is for him to play fast) "It is important, especially in these preseason games. You always want to do the right thing, but it is all about showing effort and tenacity for being around the football, and that is nothing I can't do."

(on playing his first game in a while) "I am definitely going to be sore tomorrow. But it is great to get those plays under my belt and get that experience."

QB Taysom Hill

(on the number of turnovers) "I think at first glance, it's hard not to talk about your team having six turnovers, but I think preseason games are where you're trying to get film out there. I think there were a lot of really good things that we can all learn from, [but] without seeing the film and what was going on, it's really hard to say. I think that there were some really good things overall. Obviously, the mistake were the turnovers."

(on the interception that was intended for WR Ty Montgomery) "There was a little confusion there. I was expecting him to stay on the move on that look and he thought he should settle. There was a little pressure and I had to get the ball out. I think those are the things that it's nice to see in a preseason game so we can make sure between our room [quarterbacks] and that room [wide receivers] that we're all on the same page."

(on how he processes mistakes in the midst of competition within his position group) "The talk of the competition is right here. I think it's going out there and playing my best football every night. I don't like when things don't go well. At the end of the day, I'm trying to be as good as I possibly can."

BALTIMORE RAVENS POST-GAME QUOTES

New Orleans Saints vs. Baltimore Ravens

Saturday, Aug. 14, 2021 M&T Bank Stadium

(on the offense's performance with him in as QB) "Again, I think that there were some really good things. I think we were moving the ball, and then we had some costly mistakes that we overcame in our few drives. Again, without seeing the tape, there were some really good things that we saw tonight. In the first drive, I thought guys were where they needed to be, and I was seeing the field, and it was good."

(on how he evaluates his performance, given all the absences on the offense) "It's a good question, and I don't know that I have a great answer for you. I think, at the end of the day, we've been through this long enough, and you guys have seen how seasons go. It's hard to last 17 games in the NFL season, so I think these things are really important for us to establish depth. Obviously, we don't hope that guys get injured, and we have everyone that we need every game, but that's not the reality, so I think you assess each game like it is a game. There are some things to clean up, [and] we've got time to do that, but there is a certain sense of urgency."

(on how the offense was able to adjust at the line of scrimmage and set protections) "I thought everything was pretty smooth. Erik McCoy did a great job, He's a smart player. I think everyone was on the same page. I don't think there was a lot of miscommunication up front. I felt that was really smooth."

(on how he and QB Jameis Winston help each other) "I think we might digest information differently, but the information is all the same. So, whether we get that from each other or whether we get that from pictures ... But I know that there were times tonight, and historically last year, [when] I would come to the sideline and Jameis [Winston] insight. We have plays where we have routes that are alerts that we have that might not be part of a progression, but he'll peep those for me. And I did the same thing for him when he was playing tonight and just throw a little one-liner in there for him, and you can take that information and do with it what you want. It's all about getting good information and then making the right decision."

(on WR Marquez Callaway and the catch and run he made on the sideline) "Yes, I like [Marquez] Callaway. He's a great player. I think he's really ... He stepped up and has made a lot of plays throughout all of camp. So, on that particular play, that's the expectation for him. If you hit him on a route like that, you expect him to [catch it]. If you put the ball out there, he's going to make the play. He's a good player, and that's what we've seen the last two weeks."

(on QB Ian Book) "I thought Ian [Book] handled the situation really well. I was proud of him. There were a lot of young guys who he was playing with. When you step in the huddle, all eyes go to you, and I had conversations with guys that were in the huddle, and all the feedback was really positive. I think that he handled the situation really well. Guys were not in the spots that he was expecting them [to be]. It's a part of playing in the preseason. It's about managing chaos, and I think he did that."

QB Jameis Winston

(on if he agrees with Taysom Hill that playing preseason games is like managing chaos, and if it felt like that to him) "I wouldn't describe it like that. It was fun just to be out there and compete. We saw the great things that we did, and we know the things we have to fix."

(on his touchdown pass) "Great play call by [offensive coordinator] Pete [Carmichael] and we ran it a little farther out than I was expecting. Great timing. [Lil' Jordan] 'LJ' got open in the backend. I think they had pressure on us. They were in man-to-man coverage. We got us a good one."

(on playing with guys that hasn't been practicing with much and if that is challenging in a preseason game) "Got to compete and play football. We have guys that have worked their whole life opportunity. I have worked my whole life for this opportunity. I'm so happy to be back out there playing football with whoever. I felt like we did a good job executing for the most part. We have room for improvement, that's a good thing."

(on playing catch with Michael Thomas and seeing him before the game) "I communicate with him every now and then. Any time you get a chance to throw 'Mike T.' some balls, you are going to feed him that rock. It was good for the team to see him and be around. Everyone embraced him, and we were happy to have him with us. When you have a leader like him, his presence is always felt. It was good to see him. I am trying to toss him as many balls as I can. It was excellent. It was the highlight of my day."

(on how he felt pass protections went with the offensive line) "They did an outstanding job. I think I was touched one time. I held the ball for like eight seconds. They did an outstanding job. Baltimore through a lot at us. They did a good job picking up pressures. Like I said, we have room for improvement. I have to get the ball out on time. As a quarterback, we have to get the ball to the guys that make the plays, and it works all together."

(on RB Tony Jones Jr.) "We see it all the time. He is a dynamic back. I think we have a great room of running backs. I'm happy with Tony having the game that he had. He works his tail off. He was waiting for this opportunity, and he did a great job of showing up."

(on his impressions on Tyler Huntley) "It was always a sight to see a young quarterback out there getting exposure. When I looked up and I glanced at him, he looked like Lamar [Jackson] I think they do somethings very similar, but it's tough to find another Lamar Jackson. He's as dynamic as it gets. He did a great job in making decisions and using his legs when he had to. He did a great job executing. All those young bucks, especially young black quarterbacks, I am always supporting those guys and trying to motivate those guys to be better. It was good to see him. I saw some him play some last year when Lamar [Jackson] was out. He did a great job."

(on what he saw from Ian Book) "His communication and his execution, I think he did a great job. That was his first feeling for it. So, he is going to continue to get better. We all as a whole, have to continue to get better. But you can tell, he is built for the moment. You can tell he does some really great things."

RB Tony Jones Jr.

(on how he's going to look back on tonight's game after a touchdown and a fumble) "To be honest, I think you just have to go back to the film and just learn from my mistakes and just not do that again with the next couple of weeks so I can make this team."

(on if not having full contact practice impacted his readiness for tonight's game) "To be honest, that's on me. Just plain – the ball was loose, and he dove at the right spot. So, that's on me. That has nothing to do with contact; it's just me getting focused."

(on how he's grown as a runner over the last year) "I think I can see the runs better now, because coming out of college, my runs were a little different than the schemes here. Now since I have a year under my belt, I can see it better. I see the holes before they even open, so it seems like it's working."

(on what the difference is between the runs with the Saints versus his time in college) "Just the outside zone stuff. I mean ... I never did that in college. But now I've done it for like the whole year, so now it's good."

BALTIMORE RAVENS POST-GAME QUOTES

New Orleans Saints vs. Baltimore Ravens

Saturday, Aug. 14, 2021 M&T Bank Stadium

(on if more patience has contributed to his growth) "It's more patience and having faith that you can make those types of cuts and stuff like that. So, now I'm more confident and I can make those cuts." (Reporter: "It looked like you had a couple of those today for big gains.") "Yes, something like that."

(on how it felt to be playing in a game after not playing much last season) "I had four carries [last season]. Four [carries] for 14 [yards], or something like that. But to be honest, I haven't had a real game since college. It felt great. It was like a coming out party. I felt great. ... I mean, we lost, but it was a good day for me, besides the fumble. I have to fix that next week."

(on if the team had to brace themselves for head coach Sean Payton's reaction to six turnovers) "Yes, I mean ... Coach [Sean Payton] has the right to do that, because the loss relies on those turnovers. If we don't have those, the score is not even the same."

(on if his turnover contributes to him not playing a game since college) "No, because in practice, they punch at the ball. We go like thud; it's the same type of thing. I was just not focused on the ball at that point. I was trying to make moves, and I wasn't staying on keys, so that's on me."

(on how he felt on his scoring play) "I had that same exact play in college, and I didn't score. So, I was like, 'I have to score on it tonight. I have to score.' But Coach [Sean Payton] said if you dive for the pylon, you better not fumble. So, I dove for it, and I pulled it back in. It worked it, so it was alright."

LB Kaden Elliss

(on what the LB room has been like this year with a lot of new guys trying to establish themselves) "It's been a really fun room. It's been high energy having Kwon Alexander and Damario Davis back. Thank the Lord, like always says, be legendary. His energy is also through the roof. Just getting to be with them and learn from them is amazing. We have a lot of young guys trying to establish themselves. We saw a lot of linebackers making plays, and someone was getting a tackle, forcing a tackle and getting things done. It's really cool."

(on being able to play consecutive snaps and how he felt playing) "You know, I had some of the nerves come back, getting back out there and getting things done. It was so fun. I'm just thankful to God to get back out there. It's so cool and so special. It's such a blessing and an honor. Just to get out and do it again, is awesome."

(on the fourth-and-1 play) "We don't do too much film study on preseason games. But in a day and a half of studying, they had been in that kind of wedge formation, tight with tight ends, kind of close, and they just ran a wedge play basically and overpower you for a couple yards. But on that, they didn't block the edge players. So, they gave me an edge rush. I saw the formation, and I knew. That was the only play we saw them run in the first two preseason games in 2018 and 2019. So, I knew I could come off the edge hot. The interior did a great job of stonewalling it so they could not get the initial push. He was looking for somewhere else to go, and I was able to grab him and pull back."

BALTIMORE RAVENS POST-GAME QUOTES

New Orleans Saints vs. Baltimore Ravens

Saturday, Aug. 14, 2021 M&T Bank Stadium

BALTIMORE RAVENS

Head Coach John Harbaugh

(opening statement) "OK, good to see you guys here. I appreciate you being here. [It was a] great night, back to football with fans. [It was] a pretty good crowd. What was our number? Does anybody know? Nobody cares. (laughter) It was loud. It was loud, [and] it was great. They were into it. [It was] good to get the victory. [There are] a lot of things to work on; so many things to work on, [and] so many little things that can cost you games. We made some mistakes, so we'll go to work the next couple of days before we go to Carolina and try to clean all those issues up. [We'll] take a good hard look at the tape and just try to improve. [We'll] evaluate the guys and see where we go from there. What questions do you have?"

(on what he saw from QB Tyler Huntley and QB Trace McSorley) "I thought they both operated really well. Trace [McSorley], he was dealing with a little back spasm issue. So, I think that limited his ability to move around in the pocket and run around, but he made some good throws. Then Tyler [Huntley] came in and just played tremendous football. [He] made plays running and throwing. [He] just did a great job. He won us the game. We called him up – he broke the huddle at the end of the day, and it was great. Shaun Wade, another guy, a rookie who makes the play to get the interception to close them out when they're moving down the field there. It was a great play. To see those guys make plays like that was pretty fun."

(on the six defensive turnovers) "It's good to see. We caught the ones they threw to us. I think we punched a couple balls out. Even ... you think about the one that wasn't a turnover; Marcus [Peters], one of the first plays. They had the catch, and Marcus punched the ball out. That's what we work on in practice, and our guys take a lot of pride in that. The other thing is that we were running to the ball. Usually when you run to the ball, you have a chance to recover fumbles. Our guys did a great job of that."

(on how LB Patrick Queen and LB Malik Harrison played tonight) "Yes, I agree with you. They both played great. Pat [Queen] made ... One series, he had two plays in a row. He went and got a screen, and then the other play, I can't remember what it was, but just two speed plays. He was a rocket going to get that, and that's how you expect him to play. He did a lot of good things. I didn't really see anything that was an issue. I'm sure there will be stuff from the tape, but I thought both those guys played very good."

(on an injury update on C/G Bradley Bozeman) "Brad [Bozeman] just had a pretty minor ankle sprain, it turned out, which was good news. Kristian Welch had a stinger. So, I think we got out of there in pretty good shape. Knock on wood, until tomorrow morning, when guys start coming back in."

(on what it was like to have fans back in the stands) "It was thrilling. It just felt like it was supposed to feel. It wasn't eerie like it had been last year." (Reporter: "That's a good word.") "Yes, it wasn't that; it was like it was supposed to be. It was great. Our fans are great. You could tell they were excited to be there. So, [I'm] looking forward to when they can tailgate again – that'll be a nice day."

(on if it's important that the offensive line plays a game together before the regular season or if practice sessions) "You just kind of have to do what you have to do. If we don't get them together because of circumstances, it's not like we're not going to play. I can't say we're not going to play, so it'll be what it is. Hopefully, we can get them out there for the last [preseason] game. There's a lot of time and a lot of circumstances between now and then. So, I think everybody ... If you look at the Saints, they didn't have everyone out there, either. It's just the way it works in the NFL in training camp."

BALTIMORE RAVENS POST-GAME QUOTES

New Orleans Saints vs. Baltimore Ravens

Saturday, Aug. 14, 2021 M&T Bank Stadium

(on why RB Gus Edwards did not dress tonight) “Gus [Edwards] had a personal thing. When he comes back, I’ll let him explain it to you. [It was] a family matter he had to attend to.”

QB Trace McSorley

(on how it feels to be playing preseason football) “It felt pretty good just to get out and get back to playing games. Obviously, it was awesome going against different competition. We’ve got some things we need to clean up, so, we’ll go back, study the tape and then get ready to come into practice to clean those things up before we get down to Carolina. But [we’ll] just keep grinding, keep working to get better. That’s the main thing. But it felt pretty good just, again, getting out there and playing a game tonight.”

(on dealing with back spasms) “It’s something that happened earlier today; it just started locking up on me before I got down to the stadium. So, we got it down, got with the doctors, trainers. I tried to loosen it up, get out there, and I tested it out. It felt pretty good to be able to go in and operate and do what I needed to do. So, I’m just going to keep working with them, and I feel pretty good right now. So, we’ll just kind of keep trying to keep it loose and see where we go from there, but I’m feeling pretty good about it.”

(on if his mobility was limited by the back spasms) “I mean, I felt it a little bit. I was just kind of tight throughout the entire game. Honestly, I was really just working through it, having to kind of press and grind through it. So, it sucked that it happened earlier today, but like I said, the trainers were great and were able to help get it loosened up enough that I could get out there and play today, so we’ll just keep going with that.”

(on the offensive struggles early) “Like you said, we couldn’t get into that rhythm. Getting that first first down is so important, and once you get that, you can kind of get on a roll. We were able to see that once we got a few first downs, we were able to kind of use some of our tempo things and keep the ball moving downfield; that was the biggest thing. Early on, we just weren’t able to get that first first down, and we weren’t able to keep the chains moving to get the defense worn down. So, those are some of the main things that ... We’ve just got to get into that rhythm [and] find a way. New Orleans had a great gameplan coming into it. They just didn’t let guys get off the line early, and then pass rush was pretty good for them early. So, those are some of the things that they did well, so we’ve got to give them credit on that. And then we’ve just got to find a way to get into a rhythm, get that first first down and keep the chains moving.”

(on if throwing a completion and taking a big hit got his “juices” flowing) “Yes, I took that one, and at that point, I was like, ‘Alright.’ My back held up, and I was fine. I was just ready to go. I like getting the first hit out. I obviously don’t love getting hit like that, but I like getting the first hit out and then just kind of get into that flow of the game. So, like you said, we got that one going, and like you saw, once you get the first first down, we can kind of keep those chains moving, we can kind of get into a groove as an offense, and that’s when we really start operating well.”

QB Tyler Huntley

(on taking a hit that forced a fumble) “I’ve got to get down low a bit quicker. Yes, I’ve got to get down a little quicker.”

(on how it felt to score a touchdown) “It was good. It would have felt better if we had [scored] a touchdown on the drive before, for sure, but it felt good to get in that end zone.”

BALTIMORE RAVENS POST-GAME QUOTES

New Orleans Saints vs. Baltimore Ravens

Saturday, Aug. 14, 2021 M&T Bank Stadium

(on his teammates celebrating his touchdown) "Just joy. You're playing the game you love, for people [who are] your teammates, your friends, for them to cheer you on and everything, that's a good feeling to have. I feel like that just explains how the Ravens work – all of us together, and we all go for each other."

(on taking reps at practice and getting game experience) "[I'm] just taking the reps one play at a time, just trying to [get us] better opportunities of scoring. Playing the game of football, the more reps you get, the more you feel comfortable. I feel like all the training camp reps [and] this little half, it's just building on our camaraderie."

(on escaping pressure and making plays with his legs) "I'm just really trying to get another first down, so however we're going to get the first down, that's how we're going to get it. That's my focus. So, if it's me running, me throwing, me punting it, (laughter) we're going to get a first down."

(on if he thinks about competing for the second QB position with QB Trace McSorley) "Not when you're out there. I don't think about it – period. We're just playing football, and everything else is going to take care of itself. We're teammates; there isn't a competition – for real."

LB Patrick Queen

(on how much more comfortable he felt in a game scenario after a full offseason) "[I felt] way more comfortable. I could just feel it. Just way more relaxed [and] way more anxious for the play to happen. It was a lot of hard work that I put into it, so I'm happy."

(on if he feels even faster this season) "Yes, I feel like I'm going two steps faster now. It's just a lot of film work, a lot of dedication to the craft and to the sport. So, I feel way better."

(on how it felt to see LB Malik Harrison force a fumble and where he thinks the two of them together can go) "Yes, that play, it was crazy. The ball just popped out. I was happy for him, but I was so tired, I couldn't even move. So, I was happy for him. But it's going to be a great season. Like I said, Malik [Harrison] is my guy. We're always talking. We're always communicating on the field. So, I know what type of player he is, [and] I know what type of player he can be. He expects the same out of me, so it's going to be a nice season for us two."

(on if the team talked about the preseason win streak before the game) "No, we don't talk about that at all. We just show up and play. 'Harbs' [head coach John Harbaugh] hadn't mentioned anything about it. The other players hadn't said anything about it. We just show up and handle business – that's it."

(on how it felt to have fans in the stands) "It's way different from last year [with] no fans at all, and then we come into M&T Bank Stadium, and it's going crazy. You could feel the energy. When I got my sack and my tackle for a loss, I was like, 'Wow.' It's insane. It felt like [LSU's] Tiger Stadium, almost."

(on what brought out the excitement on the sideline) "It's just the energy. I don't know what it is with the fans being in there, but it's just a different vibe. The guys feel it. Everybody feels it. The fans are feeling it from us. So, it's just something that's going to work together all this season."

(on how validating it was to show he furthered his development) "It feels good. ... I'm a person that likes to read what the critics say. I took to what they said, and I just went to work on it. I tried to get better, and I feel like I have a lot. So, I feel really good, like I said. It's a big season. There are a lot of expectations for me. So, I'm just trying to live up to them."

BALTIMORE RAVENS POST-GAME QUOTES

New Orleans Saints vs. Baltimore Ravens

Saturday, Aug. 14, 2021 M&T Bank Stadium

(on how his outlook has changed in the past year) “A lot. ... You could say I’m young, but I realized a lot of stuff. You can say I matured a lot faster than most, but it’s crazy, because when you’re young, you kind of rush things, and you kind of stress. Just going through last season, I felt like I was pressing too hard sometimes, and it was just making me make mistakes. Going through that whole year and just having time off and realizing all that stuff, it’s so much simpler now. It’s so much more relaxed [and] just focused one play at a time, one day at a time, whatever it may be. I feel like I’m getting better at that, too.”

(on if someone talked to him about needing to slow his game down) “Yes, [former LSU teammate and current Tampa Bay Buccaneer] Devin [White]. Like I said, that’s my guy. We go way back. So, he called me after the season ... Well, he called me during the season and told me then. But at the time, like I said, I’m young, so I really didn’t realize. But after the season, he called me again and sat me down and told me. It kind of clicked then. My dad always told me the same thing, too. So, when I heard it from two people that I know really care about me, it clicked.”

(on if it was a confidence boost to see his teammates around him doing well) “It’s way better. I love to see my guys ball out. I don’t have a hating bone in my body. So, I love all my guys.”

(on why he likes to read what the critics say) “It’s just ... I don’t have [any] hatred in my heart. If a critic says something, obviously they see something that I don’t see, or they’re pointing out something that needs to be pointed out. So, I like to read that stuff, [and] I like to take it as fuel. I remember at LSU, when I was getting criticized, I put it as my screensaver for a little while. It’s just something I like.”

(on if he put the Pro Football Focus rankings from last year as his screensaver) (laughter) “No. I’ve seen a couple of their tweets, but it’s PFF, so ...”

WR Devin Duvernay

(on QB Tyler Huntley’s game) “Electric, for sure. He’s electric; he can run it, throw it, do things that Lamar [Jackson] can do as well. So, he’s definitely electric and provided that boost.”

(on his role in a receivers’ group that is dealing with some injuries) “Just doing my part. I come locked in every day, every week, and I do my part and just continue to try to pave a role for myself.”

DB Brandon Stephens

(on playing in his first NFL game) “Man, it was great. I just soaked it all in. I went out there early when I first got here, and I just sat on the field soaking everything in. It was good to just be out there with my boys, just grinding, but most importantly, getting this win.”

(on the defensive effort) “The defense, we definitely did our thing. Geno [Stone] had two interceptions, Shaun [Wade] with the game-winning [interception] there in the fourth quarter. But it was good all around. Guys were flying to the ball, just showing effort and showing that we deserve to be Ravens. I was pleased with how we performed.”

OLB Odafe Oweh

(on playing in his first NFL game) “It felt good. It was a big moment. I had to get the jitters out in the first few plays, but after that, it was just football. I was just trying to be active and play hard – I love it. It was a really good experience.”

BALTIMORE RAVENS POST-GAME QUOTES

New Orleans Saints vs. Baltimore Ravens

Saturday, Aug. 14, 2021 M&T Bank Stadium

(on the defense forcing six turnovers and having a strong game) “Yes, the defense was everywhere; I think we had six takeaways. Geno [Stone] was everywhere, Ar’Darius [Washington], DeShon [Elliott], Brandon [Stephens] – just everywhere. There was havoc going everywhere. We’d like to get a few more sacks, but in terms of just being all over the field, I think we did that. It was really Ravens’ defense.”

(on running down field as a gunner on special teams) “I think it’s just an opportunity to show my athleticism, show my speed and physicality. It was fun. Just running down the field and forcing them into a fair catch and everything, I just hope the next time, I get an opportunity to make a play. That was definitely fun, though, I love doing it.”

RB Ty’Son Williams

(on getting a heavy workload on the offense) “It felt good. First time getting back in live action since I went down with my injury, so it just felt good to get back out there, and I had fun playing ball with the guys.”

(on the offensive performance and building on this outing) “Yeah, I think we’re keeping things kind of simple right now, but even with that, I feel like we still didn’t have a problem moving the ball. Let’s just continue to build, and hopefully we’ll continue to create momentum on offense.”

(on finally having some fans back in the stands) “That’s huge. Having the fans out there brings so much energy, and that’s huge. You can’t replicate them being out there, so it was awesome.”

S Geno Stone

(on the last time he’s had two interceptions in a game) “High school – in high school. It probably was the second to last ever high school game, but I had three of them that game, so ... (laughter). But yes, it felt good to get two.”

(on how it felt being out there) “I’ll take as many more as I can get. It was just fun being out there. It was probably my first real ball since college – playing defense. So, it felt good being back out there.”

(on the value of this opportunity seeing how there was no preseason last year) “It definitely has helped a lot – especially OTAs. I didn’t have OTAs last year, and I felt like this year, going into the spring, I took a really big leap, because the OTAs are really just for building the playbook and everything like that. And I felt like I grew a lot in that area. I learned my playbook, learned the positions, and I feel like it really helped me a lot today, and it’s helped me all [training] camp. I feel like it’s really a good thing for our young players to get, and I wish I had it last year, honestly.”

(on re-signing with the Ravens) “It wasn’t really unfinished business – it was really just me getting somewhere where I felt was best for me. Baltimore, when I first got here, it’s a really special place. I can tell when I first walked into the building with the players, the head coach, and all the way up. Just definitely somewhere that I wanted to come back when I talked to my agent about it. I love this place, honestly.”

(on securing two interceptions for the team that drafted him) “Honestly, I’m still trying to process it all. It was a great night for me, but at the same time, I can’t just think about this night. I’ve got to think about next week, and the week after that. Not even next week – [but] tomorrow. I just want to get better each day. I felt like I got better today, but at the same time, I’ve got stuff to work on. You always have
