SAINTS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Saints Community Relations Department is committed to supporting the charitable efforts of the club's ownership, players, coaches and staff throughout the Gulf South. This dedication to charitable causes and individuals in need was a defining trait of Tom Benson's 33-year tenure as the franchise's Owner and now that legacy carries on under the leadership of Gayle Benson. As a philanthropic force in the community, the club is committed to exercising its core beliefs and basic expectations of every member of the Saints organization, defined by its participation in initiatives that will have a positive and lasting impact in our community.

RESPONDING TO THE COMMUNITY IN TIMES OF CRISES

The relationship between the Saints and its fans is unique in the world of sports. The team has been the recipient of unqualified support from the community since its inception and welcomes the opportunity to give back – particularly in times of crisis. Donating and raising money as well as providing extensive organizational support following several devastating hurricanes, the 2010 Gulf Coast Oil Spill, widespread flooding and tornadoes that affected the region in 2016 and the COVID-19 pandemic from 2020-21, the club most recently faced the challenge of supporting the community following Hurricane Ida that battered the Gulf Coast in August, 2021. Almost immediately following the storm, Mrs. Benson made a donation of $1 million to activate the Saints Gulf Coast Renewal Fund, with over $5 million total being raised. With the assistance of the community leaders, the NFL Foundation and the Greater New Orleans Foundation, nonprofit organizations were identified to be beneficiaries that could address the immediate needs of those impacted throughout Louisiana.

Responding to immediate needs of the community is a priority of the organization. In light of the New Years Day terror attack tragedy in New Orleans, Mrs. Benson and the club sprung into action, collaborating with the NFL Foundation to support relief efforts for the victims with a $1 million donation.

In addition to reacting to real-time issues such as natural disasters, the Saints also will continue its commitment to prioritize efforts that build awareness of and support for issues challenging the Gulf South by working to safeguard and promote our wetlands and energy production, as they are critical to our nation's future economic vitality.

SPECIAL ATTENTION TO YOUTH & EDUCATION

The New Orleans Saints organization believes in the future of the Gulf South, and understands our community's children are our greatest resource and hope for a stronger region. Our Community Affairs and Youth Programs Departments conduct and assist in events and initiatives focusing on the development and education of our children.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

Throughout the year, Saints players, Legends, and staff visit schools and various community centers to stress the importance of education, physical fitness, nutrition, leadership development, character building and time management. The club partners with a variety of organizations including (but not limited to) Boys & Girls Clubs, Special Olympics, Boy and Girl Scouts, United Way, Louisiana Children's Museum, American Heart Association, New Orleans Family Justice Center, Second Harvest Food Bank of Greater New Orleans and Acadiana, the Louisiana SPCA, Louisiana High School Athletic Association, Team Gleason, NFL YET Center, Clover New Orleans, Teach for America, Youth Empowerment Project, NORD and the Jefferson Parish Recreation Department.

SUPPORT AND IMPACT FOR THE ENTIRE COMMUNITY

While supporting youth and education is a daily focus of the club, significant resources are dedicated to enrich the lives of individuals in other areas of need. For the past eight years, the Saints 50/50 Charity Raffle's season total jackpot has raised nearly three million dollars, allowing the organization to assist thousands of people across the Gulf South region through the works of benefitting charities. Local and non-profit organizations have received proceeds garnered via fundraisers such as the Saints Kickoff Run Presented by Hancock Whitney. Saints ownership, executives and staff members serve on numerous community organization boards and partner with those entities to assist or co-develop appropriate programs with a plethora of organizations including (but not limited to) the Autism Society of Greater New Orleans and Autism Speaks, CADA of Greater New Orleans, American Heart Association, Second Harvest Food Bank, City Park of New Orleans, Saintsgiving at Dryades YMCA, Toys for Tots, Rebuilding Together New Orleans, American Red Cross, Make-A-Wish, Volunteers of America, United Negro College Fund and Bridge House. Each year, millions of dollars are given back to the community by the Saints through the donation of cash, goods and services, media and sponsorship.

Whether through financial support, in-kind donations, charitable appearances or just lending a helping hand, the New Orleans Saints are there to reciprocate the support the club has received from its community for 58 years.

SOCIAL JUSTICE EFFORTS

The New Orleans Saints have taken an active role in supporting programming events and advocacy efforts to promote social justice since 2018. Saints Ownership, staff and players have worked towards multiple legislative changes, discussing the reduction and elimination of gun violence and supporting programs that empower those impacted by incarceration to successfully re-enter the community.

SAINTS YOUTH SPORTS DEVELOPMENT

The Saints Youth Sports Development Department maintains an active presence in the community throughout the year, bringing National Football League excitement to children who may not have the opportunity to experience the thrill of a Saints football game in person. The Saints reach thousands of youth through programs such as the Saints Play Football Experience Camp, the Saints Experience and the Saints/Nike 11-ON annual event/High School 7-on-7 Regional Tournament. The club is also highly involved with all of the NFL's youth football initiatives such as PLAY60, NFL FLAG, and PLAY FOOTBALL MONTH celebrations. Throughout the region, the team hosts Play Football Experiences at local schools. The team's major initiative in 2024 and 2025 has been establishing girl's flag football leagues in greater New Orleans and central/south Mississippi, with its sanctioning as a varsity sport on the horizon in 2026 in both states.

The Saints have continued to champion smarter and safer play for young athletes in partnership with USA FOOTBALL through the Heads Up Football program by hosting Player Safety Clinics, Player/Parent Camps and forums to further educate coaches, parents and players. Across the Gulf Coast, the Saints continue to fully fund Heads Up Football's enrollment fees for every high school in Alabama, Louisiana and Mississippi. Also in being committed to keeping young participants safe, in 2024, many of the team's players donated guardian caps to several local high schools.
The club also honors area high school coaches through the Saints NFL High School Coach of the Week program, which provides $1,000 to each coach's respective football programs. In addition, the Saints collaborate with corporate partners to conduct life skills presentations to high schools throughout the city. Topics such as education, work ethic, leadership, and character as well as post-graduation career opportunities are discussed.

The Sports Development Department is influential in helping to secure thousands of dollars through the NFL Foundation via the Player Matching, Team and Grassroots Grants. Funding received from these grants are distributed to youth and high school football organizations and support field projects throughout the region. The team also partners with John Fayard Moving to donate and deliver practice equipment to a local high school football program in need annually. All these efforts positively impact the growth and direction of football for youngsters in the community.

DENNIS LAUSCHA

PRESIDENT

Dennis Lauscha, a native New Orleanian, has been a fan of the Saints since he was a young boy. He attended Jesuit High School and received degrees in Business, first from the University of Alabama, followed by an M.B.A. from Loyola University. Starting out his career as a C.P.A, Lauscha worked for a major global financial services firm before his decades long career with the Saints. He first joined the Saints in 1998 as Treasurer, and as a result of his hard work, loyalty and business acumen, Lauscha rose through the executive ranks to serve as Vice President, Senior Vice President and Executive Vice President before reaching his now esteemed post as President of both the Saints and Pelicans since 2012. In his role, he oversees the club's financial operations, government affairs, marketing, ticket and suite sales, legal, stadium, community affairs, human resources, business intelligence and information technology. He also serves as a representative for both clubs at NFL and NBA Owners meetings.

In addition to his duties with the Saints and Pelicans, the New Orleans native maintains multiple roles within Mrs. Benson's business enterprises, maintaining a role in the management of her eight regional automotive dealerships (Best Chevrolet, Cadillac of New Orleans, Mercedes-Benz of New Orleans, Mercedes-Benz of South Mississippi Mercedes-Benz Sprinter, Porsche New Orleans, Volkswagen of South Mississippi and Infiniti of South Mississippi) and three collision centers, Benson Capital Partners, Corporate Realty, and GMB Racing.

Lauscha's collaborative style, financial acumen and long-term view has played a key role as a member of a contingent that has negotiated agreements for both the Saints and Pelicans with the state of Louisiana. These have resulted in long-term lease agreements, continuous improvements to their playing and practice facilities, revitalization of the areas around them and generated revenue for the state without any new taxes for citizens.

In 2009, Lauscha helped negotiate the partnership with the Louisiana Governor and a subsequent extension of the agreement that continues the Saints' long-term commitment to the state. The deal included the purchase and redevelopment of the former New Orleans Centre, which has been transformed into Champions Square and the Benson Tower property adjacent to the Caesars Superdome, with the stadium undergoing extensive renovations and improvements. Since playing a key role in Mr. and Mrs. Benson's purchase of the Pelicans in 2012, Lauscha has helped broker agreements with the state to upgrade the team's playing and practice facilities.

In 2015, Lauscha helped negotiate an agreement with the state that resulted in $40 million in enhancements for fans of both the Saints and Pelicans. The Caesars Superdome had state-of-the-art video boards added in 2016 in addition to renovated suites and other fan amenities, while a new center-hung HD video scoreboard was installed in the Smoothie King Center. Most recently, Lauscha brokered a $535 million agreement with the state that has resulted in a long-term lease extension for the Saints and a transformation of the Caesars Superdome that will be completed this summer, to keep the stadium among the world's elite sports facilities, including brand new field level suites, which debuted in 2021 and seating, suite and concession upgrades. He has played a key role in finalizing 2021 and 2014 ground-breaking naming rights and sponsorship agreements for both teams' playing facilities with Caesars Entertainment and Smoothie King.

Lauscha was instrumental in the 2003 expansion of the Saints training facility. He later oversaw a renovation and expansion of the facilities and administrative offices for the Saints and Pelicans from 2012-13, while directing the construction of a standalone basketball practice facility. The clubs are now housed on the same site at the Ochsner Sports Performance Center, featuring some of the top practice and administrative facilities in professional sports.

Lauscha has remained committed to attracting major sporting events to New Orleans. He is a key member of the team that actively pursues future Super Bowls and NCAA Basketball Final Four Championships for New Orleans – and was instrumental in landing Super Bowl XLVII (2013), and Super Bowl LIX (2025). After Mr. and Mrs. Bensons' 2012 purchase of the Pelicans, the city has hosted NBA All-Star Games in 2014 and 2017.

Active throughout sports and the community, Lauscha currently serves as a member of the Business Council of New Orleans & the River Region, as a board member of the Audubon Nature Institute, Tulane University, Loyola University New Orleans, Greater New Orleans Foundation, Pro Bono Publico Foundation and as a trustee of the National World War II Museum. New Orleans Saints

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT/
GENERAL MANAGER

Responsible for the club's entire football operation, Executive Vice President/General Manager Mickey Loomis enters his 24th season in his current position and 26th with the New Orleans Saints. He is entering his 39th NFL season. During his time in New Orleans, Loomis has been honored with some of the most prestigious awards presented to a league executive, yet the most satisfying achievement of his career has come in helping mold a roster that has produced many of the franchise's finest moments over the last 19 seasons, including the Super Bowl XLIV championship.

Loomis was promoted to general manager in 2002 and earned the additional title of executive vice president later that year. The departments under his direction include coaching, player personnel, salary cap management, contract negotiations, sports medicine, equipment, video and communications.

In 2006, after being the key figure in the hiring of Head Coach Sean Payton, the free agent signing of QB Drew Brees and overseeing the rebuild of a team that would advance to the NFC Championship, Loomis was voted the NFL Executive of the Year by Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers of America. He was also honored by The Sporting News as the George Young Executive of the Year, an award voted on annually by NFL front-office executives and owners.

Loomis has continued to build on the success of 2006, highlighted by 11 winning seasons, nine postseason appearances, seven division titles, three NFC Championship game berths and the Super Bowl victory. Over the past 22 years, he's brought aboard a group of players who have played a key role in New Orleans posting a 208-164 regular season record through a combination of the draft, free agency and trades. He's also presided over the club's ability to retain their core players, re-signing significant contributors to long-term contracts. This makes him just the ninth person in the 105-year history of the NFL to oversee 200 regular season career wins as the official acting General Manager. This winter, Loomis conducted an extensive coaching search on behalf of the organization to lead the Saints into the future and following the search, Kellen Moore was hired as the Saints' 19th head coach in franchise history.

While his responsibilities have grown during his Saints tenure, Loomis has been a key figure in the highest management circle of the organization since arriving in 2000. Loomis joined the club as director of football administration, a post he held until 2002, handling contract negotiations, managing the salary cap and coordinating different areas of the football operations.

In 2005, Loomis helped steer the club through unprecedented challenges for a National Football League team. He calmly guided the staff and players through a sudden evacuation from New Orleans in the wake of Hurricane Katrina, in addition to several moves of the club's base of operations.

Throughout his tenure in charge of Saints football operations, Loomis has overseen several renovations and facility upgrades at the Ochsner Sports Performance Center. An indoor practice facility, new weight room and cafeteria were constructed in 2003, with upgrades and renovations taking place in coaching and player personnel offices, meeting rooms, medical/rehab areas and locker rooms, giving the club one of the NFL's top training complexes. In 2024, renovated weight room facilities and a new team cafeteria made their debut.

Prior to arriving in New Orleans, Loomis spent 15 years with the Seattle Seahawks, including as executive vice president from 1992-98. He joined the Seahawks in 1983, was promoted to vice president/finance in 1990 and to executive vice president in 1992. A native of Eugene, Ore., Loomis has a bachelor's degree in accounting from the University of Oregon and a master's degree in sports administration from Wichita State.

Married to Melanie, Loomis has four children: Alex, Katherine, Sam and Lucy.

KELLEN MOORE

HEAD COACH

The New Orleans Saints named Kellen Moore as the 19th head coach in franchise history on Feb. 11, 2025. Coming off a Super Bowl LIX victory over the Kansas City Chiefs, Moore joined the Saints after serving as the offensive coordinator for the Philadelphia Eagles' 2024 World Championship campaign.

Moore, a 13-year NFL veteran, played quarterback for six seasons (2012-17) and entered the coaching ranks in 2018, serving as an offensive coordinator for the past six campaigns.

In 2024, Moore was a key piece of a coaching staff that led the Eagles to a 14-3 record, which tied a franchise-mark for regular season victories, an NFC East Division title and the conference's number two playoff seed and culminating with a Super Bowl LIX championship at the Caesars Superdome. Ranked eighth overall in net yards per game (367.2) and seventh in points per game (27.2), Philadelphia rushed for a single-season club record 3,048 yards (sixth-best in NFL history) and finished second in the league in rushing yards per game (179.3). The 2024 Eagles were only the second team in NFL history to rush for 3,000-plus yards and at least 25 touchdowns (29). The Eagles passing attack also flourished under Moore's tutelage, setting a club record with a 103.4 passer rating, led by QB Jalen Hurts' career-high 103.7 ranked fifth-best in the league.

In the NFC Divisional Playoff victory over the Los Angeles Rams, the Philadelphia run game kept humming, gaining a team playoff-record 285 yards on 34 carries (8.4 avg.) with three touchdowns. In the Eagles' 55-23 NFC Championship victory over the Washington Commanders, they had their second-highest scoring total in postseason history, gaining 459 total net yards, including 229 rushing on 36 carries (6.4 avg.) with seven touchdowns. In Philadelphia's 40-22 Super Bowl LIX win over the Kansas City Chiefs, Hurts was voted the winner of the Pete Rozelle Trophy, awarded to the Super Bowl LIX Most Valuable Player after completing 17-of-22 attempts (77.3 pct.) for 221 yards, two touchdowns, a 119.7 passer rating and 72 rushing yards with one touchdown on the ground, the most rushing yards by a quarterback ever in a Super Bowl.

Philadelphia's record-setting offense was led by several stellar individual performances. Running back Saquon Barkley, the consensus NFL Offensive Player of the Year (Associated Press, PFWA, The Sporting News), a first-team AP All-Pro and Pro Bowl starter, led the league with a franchise-record 2,005 rushing yards in the regular season, making him just the ninth player in NFL history to post 2,000+ rushing yards in a season, eighth-most in league records. Including 499 rushing yards in the playoffs which ranked third all-time, Barkley's 2,504 rushing yards were the most in NFL single-season history (regular season and postseason combined).

Hurts ranked among the top eight in the league in yards per attempt (fourth, 8.0), passer rating (fifth, career-high 103.7), completion percentage (eighth, career-high 68.7 pct.) and total touchdowns (eighth, 32) in the regular season. In addition, Hurts tied for the fifth-most rushing touchdowns (14) in the league (first among quarterbacks). In the postseason, en route to Super Bowl MVP honors, Hurts completed 65-of-91 passes (71.4 pct.) for 726 yards with five touchdown passes, only one interception and a 108.6 passer rating. On the ground, he carried 34 times for 194 yards with five touchdowns. His five postseason rushing touchdowns tied his own NFL postseason record for quarterbacks, which he already owned from the 2022 playoffs, and his 194 rushing yards were the fourth-highest total in NFL record books by a signal-caller.

Among pass-catchers, Philadelphia (WRs A.J. Brown and DeVonta Smith) was one of three teams with multiple players that had 60+ receptions for 825+ yards and 7+ touchdowns each during the regular season. Up front, all five of the Eagles offensive line starters received All-Pro votes from the AP, with Lane Johnson and Jordan Mailata earning All-Pro honors. In addition to Johnson, G Landon Dickerson and C Cam Jurgens earned Pro Bowl recognition.

In 2023, Moore served as the Los Angeles Chargers offensive coordinator. He helped lead WR Keenan Allen to the Pro Bowl after finishing sixth in the NFL with 108 receptions for 1,243 yards and seven touchdowns. He also guided Justin Herbert to the sixth-best touchdown-interception ratio (2.9) and ninth-most passing touchdowns (20) in the NFL through Week 14 before sustaining a season-ending injury.

In four seasons as offensive coordinator of the Dallas Cowboys (2019-22), Moore's unit ranked second in the NFL in total offense (391.0 net yards per game) and scoring (27.7 points per game). The Dallas offense was also the NFL's fourth-best passing offense (264.4 net yards per game) and ranked seventh in rushing offense (126.6 yards per game) over that span. Moore helped the Cowboys secure a pair of NFC East titles and three playoff appearances in his five seasons as an assistant coach. He coached eight players to a combined 12 Pro Bowl selections as offensive coordinator, and tutored QB Dak Prescott to another as his position coach in 2018.

In 2022, Dallas offense featured a 1,000-yard rusher and a 1,000-yard receiver under Moore. He helped RB Tony Pollard earn his first Pro Bowl selection while setting career highs with nine rushing touchdowns and 1,007 yards on the ground. Meanwhile, RB Ezekiel Elliott ran in 12 scores. The Cowboys offense also featured WR CeeDee Lamb, who set career highs in receptions (107), receiving yards (1,359) and touchdown grabs (nine), en route to his second Pro Bowl selection.

The Cowboys offense ranked as the NFL's best in 2021, leading the league in total offense (407.0 net yards per game) and scoring offense (31.2 points per game). Moore's guidance helped Prescott return from injury and throw for a franchise-record 37 touchdowns on a career-high 410 completions, registering a passer rating of 104.2, third-best by any passer in the NFL and the fourth-highest in a single season in franchise history at the time. On the ground, Elliott recorded his fifth 1,000-yard campaign and added ten touchdowns. Through the air, Lamb led the Cowboys with 79 receptions for 1,102 yards and six scores, while TE Dalton Schultz experienced a breakout season with 78 receptions for 808 yards and eight touchdowns to join Jason Witten as the only Cowboys tight ends with 70 receptions and 800 receiving yards in a single season. For their efforts, three offensive players were selected to the Pro Bowl in T Tyron Smith, G Zack Martin and WR Lamb.

Moore helped Prescott lead all NFL quarterbacks in passing yards (1,856), and 400-yard passing games (three) through the first five weeks of the 2020 season, before the signal-caller suffered a season-ending ankle injury in Week Five. Overall, he prepared three different additional quarterbacks to take snaps under center for the Cowboys in 2020, the first time that Dallas had at least four different quarterbacks start at least one game in a season since 2015. Moore's offensive front saw a shuffling of eight different starting lineup combinations on the offensive line due to injuries. Despite the injuries, Moore's unit finished the season ranked eighth in the NFL in passing offense, as WR Amari Cooper hauled in a career-high 92 receptions for 1,114 yards and five touchdowns, while Lamb set the franchise rookie record with 74 receptions. Leading the rushing attack, Elliott finished top-10 in the NFL with 979 yards and six touchdowns.

During his first season as offensive coordinator in 2019, Moore's unit led the league with 431.5 total net yards per game, which was the tenth-best single-season performance in NFL history and best by any offense since Denver's 2013 record-setting unit (457.3). Prescott finished second in the NFL with a career-high 4,902 yards passing, second-most in team history, and a then-career-best 30 passing touchdowns. Elliott finished the season ranked second in the league with 1,777 yards from scrimmage, as Cooper recorded eight touchdowns and a career-high 1,189 yards on 79 receptions.

Moore entered the coaching ranks in 2018, taking over as Dallas' quarterbacks coach after spending the previous three seasons in the room as a player. In his first season coaching Prescott, he was named to the second Pro Bowl of his career, helping lead the Cowboys to the franchise's second NFC East Division title in three seasons.

Moore played six NFL seasons for the Detroit Lions (2012-14) and Cowboys (2015-17) after entering the league as an undrafted free agent. Moore appeared in three games, including two starts for the Cowboys in 2015. He threw for 435 yards and three touchdowns in his first home start, a 34-23 loss to Washington, becoming the fifth quarterback in Cowboys history to eclipse 400 passing yards in a single game and recorded the sixth-most passing yards by any Cowboy in a single game. The following season, Moore broke his leg in training camp, but remained a mainstay in Dallas' quarterbacks room, working closely with then-rookie Prescott as the Cowboys tied a franchise-record with 13 wins in the regular season, including an 11-game win streak.

A native of Prosser, Wash., Moore finished his collegiate career at Boise State with a record of 50-3, the most wins by a quarterback in NCAA history. He concluded his collegiate tenure with the second-most touchdown passes (142) and sixth-most passing yards (14,667) by any quarterback in NCAA history, owning a career completion percentage mark of 69.7. Moore was a first-team All-American from the Football Writers Association of America in 2010, twice being named Western Athletic Conference Offensive Player of the Year (2009-10) and earning Mountain West Conference Offensive Player of the Year honors in 2011. The Broncos' offense finished in the top-five in scoring in each of Moore's final three seasons, including a first-place finish in 2009 and rank of second in 2010.

Moore and his wife, Julie, have two daughters, Halle and Madelyn, and two sons, Kyler and Beckham.

During his tenure at South Carolina where he coached defensive backs, Brown guided a secondary that helped the Gamecocks finish in the top 25 nationally in both scoring and total defense. South Carolina surrendered just 315.5 yards per game, which ranked 11th in the country in 2012. They also ranked 13th in the nation in scoring defense that season when, allowing only 18.2 points per game. With Evans leading the way up front, New Orleans finished in the top ten in total offense each of the 11 seasons he lined up for the Saints, while the 196 sacks surrendered by the line over the period were the lowest in the NFC and second-lowest in the NFL.

After being selected as a consensus All-Rookie in 2006, Evans was a Pro Bowl starter and consensus first-team All-Pro each season from 2009-12. He was elected to the Saints Hall of Fame in 2020, the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame in 2022 and the Greater New Orleans Sports Hall of Fame and Saints Ring of Honor in 2024 and was a semifinalist for the Pro Football Hall of Fame's Class of 2023 and a finalist for the Class of 2024 and Class of 2025.

A three-year starter at Bloomsburg, which he originally attended on a combined academic/athletic scholarship, Evans anchored the left tackle position and was a finalist for the Division II Gene Upshaw Offensive Player of the Year Award in 2004 and 2005. The Philadelphia native graduated with a bachelor's degree in exercise science and received his MBA from the University of Miami (Fla.) in Executive Business Administration in 2017.

PHIL GALIANO

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Phil Galiano is in his first season as the Saints' special teams coordinator and his seventh season in New Orleans, spending his first six years in New Orleans as the club's assistant special teams coach. Galiano is a veteran in the coaching ranks with 25 years of experience, including nine seasons in the NFL.

Galiano's work over the past six years with Darren Rizzi, who served as coordinator from 2019-24, helped make the kicking game an important key to victory for New Orleans. On coverage units, J.T. Gray's 93 tackles rank first in the NFL, with the special teams ace selected as an Associated Press All-Pro three times. The punting game has produced the top five seasons in club history for punts inside-the-20-yard line. Since 2019, the Saints have excelled in the return game. Over the six-season period, the team has been ranked fifth in the NFL in punt return average (10.4) and are tied for second in the league with three punts returned for touchdowns. The coverage units have allowed the third-lowest punt return average (7.0).

Special teams continued to be a bright spot for New Orleans in 2024, highlighted by Gray being selected as an All-Pro after recording an NFL-best 26 coverage tackles and one blocked punt. New Orleans ranked first in the NFL in opponent starting field position after kickoffs (28.2) and punts inside the 20-yard line (franchise-record 41 by rookie P Matthew Hayball), fifth in punt return average (12.5), seventh in opponent field goal percentage (78.6), eighth in opponent punt return average (7.6) and tenth in field goal percentage (87.1). Two blocked field goals were crucial in a pair of three-point victories. K Blake Grupe made 27 of 31 field goal attempts six-of-eight from 50+ yards, a .871 percentage and scored 112 points. WR/RS Rashid Shaheed returned a punt for a touchdown for the second consecutive season.

In 2023, the Saints boasted one of the NFL's top special teams units, with the unit finishing second in NFL Writer Rick Gosselin's annual rankings. New Orleans finished in the Top 10 in the NFL in 13-of-22 categories, either leading or sharing the lead in five of them and finishing second in two others. New Orleans finished first in the league in opponent punt return average (5.6), while giving their defense the second-best starting point after kickoffs (24.2). Shaheed was selected as a Pro Bowl starter as a return specialist and as an AP first-team All-Pro punt returner, ranking third in the NFL in punt return average (13.6) with a 76-yard touchdown, the third-longest return in franchise history. The Saints saw key contributions from their youth, as a total of nine rookies or first-year players contributed to the special teams units, including Grupe and LB Nephi Sewell. Grupe set the club rookie record with 30 field goals, led the team with 130 points and ranked third in the NFL with 76 touchbacks. Sewell, the team's 2024 Ed Block Courage Award winner, recorded five coverage stops and forced a fumble by the punter in Week 14 that was recovered for a touchdown. In a sign of respect for his methods, Galiano was selected by the Senior Bowl to serve as special teams coordinator for the National Team.

The Saints special teams units delivered another productive season in 2022. After a season-ending toe injury suffered by Deonte Harty, Shaheed had a 9.7 average on 20 punt returns as a rookie. Despite missing three contests due to injury, Gray led the Saints with 12 coverage stops.

In 2021, Saints special teams ranked fifth in Gosselin's comprehensive special teams rankings for the second consecutive season. Gray received his first career selection as a starter in the league's All-Star Game after leading the NFL with 19 special teams tackles and was also an AP first-team All-Pro. LB Andrew Dowell, in his first full NFL season, tied for fifth in the league with 14 coverage stops and blocked a punt. The Saints special teams unit ranked fourth in the NFL in opponent average starting position after kickoffs (24.1-yard line) and eighth in punt return average (10.0).

2020 saw the Saints ranked fifth in Gosselin's annual rankings. They ranked first in opponent punt return average (2.3) and second in opponent kickoff return average (17.2), sixth in kickoff return average (25.4) and ninth in punt return average (10.2), while ranking third in opponent average starting position after kickoffs (23.8-yard line) and ninth in average starting position after kickoffs (25.9-yard line). Despite missing seven games with injuries, Harty had a 12.2 punt return average and 27.3 kickoff return average. K Wil Lutz (Week Five) and P Thomas Morstead (Week One) each were named NFC Special Teams Player of the week.

The 2019 season saw special teams rise to first in Gosselin's rankings. The special teams featured standout performances from Harty, Lutz, Morstead and Gray. For the first time in franchise history, two special teams players were selected to the AP All-Pro team (Gray and Harris) and for the second time two were selected to the Pro Bowl (Harty and Lutz). As an undrafted free agent, Harty ranked in the top five in the NFL in both kickoff and punt return average. Lutz set a franchise record by drilling 32 field goals, ranking second in the NFL in scoring (144 points), PATs (48), touchbacks (career-high 74) and third in field goals. Morstead ranked fifth in the NFL in net punting average (43.1) and was named the September NFC Special Teams Player of the Month and twice was selected conference Special Teams Player of the Week. Gray led the Saints with 16 stops, blocked a punt and recovered a fumble on coverage.

In 2018, Galiano was the special teams coordinator and assistant defensive line coach at Penn State. The Nittany Lions were ranked 12th in the country in kickoff return average (24.7) and 23rd in special teams efficiency and gross punting average (44.0). He joined the Nittany Lions in 2017 as a defensive consultant and served as the special teams coordinator for the 2017 Fiesta Bowl.

In 2016, he was a special teams intern with the Miami Dolphins under Rizzi. Miami ranked seventh in Gosselin's special teams rankings and led the NFL in opponent gross punting average (41.8) and tied for the league lead with four blocked kicks.

Galiano spent eight years at Rutgers over three stints, most recently as special teams coordinator/tight ends coach in 2015 and director of recruiting in 2014. Under Galiano's tutelage in 2015, the Scarlet Knights ranked 12th in ESPN's special teams efficiency ranking, including finishing 19th in the FBS in kick return defense (18.75), 13th in punt return average (13.92) and scoring five special teams touchdowns.

After 12 years at the college level, Galiano jumped to the NFL with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 2012-13 as assistant special teams coach. In 2013, Tampa Bay led the NFL in kickoff return defense (18.8 ypr.) and blocked two punts. In 2012, the Buccaneers led the NFL with three blocked punts. Galiano also worked with K Connor Barth, who tied for the league lead in field goals of 40+ yards and P Michael Koenen, who led the league in touchbacks on kickoffs and touchback percentage on kickoffs.

In his second stint with the Scarlet Knights, Galiano coached the defensive line (2011) and tight ends (2010). In 2011, the Rutgers defense finished third in the FBS in forced turnovers (34), eighth in tackles for loss (7.62) and scoring defense (18.31) and 15th in sacks (2.69).

Prior to his second stint at Rutgers, Galiano served as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Florida International from 2007-09. At FIU, Galiano helped the Panthers achieve marked improvements on the defensive side of the ball. Between the 2007 and 2008 seasons, FIU jumped up 74 spots in turnover margin, 45 spots in pass efficiency defense, 36 spots in scoring defense, 34 spots in total defense and 25 spots in rush defense. The team also ranked 25th nationally in tackles for loss average, moving up 37 spots.

In his first stop at Rutgers from 2003-06, Galiano began as a defensive graduate assistant in 2003, before he was elevated to linebackers coach in 2004. He spent the 2005-06 seasons coaching the defensive ends. His ends were major contributors on a defensive unit that ranked fourth nationally in 2006. Rutgers' defense was fifth in the NCAA in sacks and tackles for loss per game.

Galiano began his coaching career at Dickinson College, where he worked with the outside linebackers in 2000. He spent 2001 as outside linebackers coach at the University of New Haven, before becoming an offensive assistant at Villanova in 2002, working primarily with the tight ends.

A three-year starter at safety for Shippensburg, Galiano served as a tri-captain during his senior campaign. He helped lead the Raiders to consecutive winning seasons (1997-99). The Norristown, Pa. native graduated with a bachelor's degree in business administration.

PLAYING CAREER: Shippensburg, 1996-99.

PETER GIUNTA

SENIOR DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Peter Giunta (pronounced GEN-ta) enters his tenth season as a Saints senior defensive assistant in 2025. He's a 46-year coaching veteran, including 34 years of experience in the NFL with three Super Bowl Championships.

In 2024, Giunta worked with a Saints secondary that persevered through injuries and personnel changes. Giunta helped tutor third-year CB Alontae Taylor as well as rookie CB Kool-Aid McKinstry, who both moved into the starting lineup on the outside. Taylor moved from slot corner to the outside and led the Saints with 16 passes defensed, tied for fifth in the NFL. Veteran S Tyrann Mathieu started all 17 contests and had a team-best four takeaways. Despite missing the last ten contests due to a femur injury, CB Paulson Adebo tied for the team lead with Mathieu with three picks.

In 2023, with Giunta playing an important role in implementation of an aggressive scheme, the Saints forced 29 turnovers after recording only 14 in 2022, ranked fourth in the NFL. The team's 18 interceptions, up from seven in 2022, were tied for third in the league, with 16 coming from the secondary. New Orleans led the NFL with 99 passes defensed, with three Saints ranked in the top 10. Adebo had a club-best six takeaways and ranked third in the NFL with 18 passes defensed. Mathieu tied for the team lead with Adebo with four interceptions, one returned for a touchdown.

In 2022, Giunta worked with a Saints secondary that contributed to the New Orleans defense ranking fifth in the NFL in opponent net yards per game, with a stingy back end responsible for being ranked second in the league in opponent net passing yards per game and being tied for giving up the third-fewest touchdown passes (17) in the league. Giunta worked with veterans, such as Mathieu, while overseeing the development of second-round pick Taylor. Mathieu started every game, posted a career-high 91 tackles and led the Black and Gold with four takeaways. Taylor played in 13 games with nine starts and led the Saints with 11 passes defensed, fourth among rookies.

In 2021, Giunta worked to develop young contributors in the secondary, as well as enhance the performance of veterans. He helped develop third round draft pick Adebo, who was the only Saints defender to open all 17 contests in 2021, while tying for the team lead with three interceptions, second among NFL rookies. CB Marshon Lattimore finished with a career-high 19 passes defensed, ranked third in the NFL, while being selected to his fourth Pro Bowl in his first five seasons. New Orleans was tied for sixth in the NFL with 18 interceptions, with 16 of them coming from the secondary. In addition to New Orleans finishing fourth in the NFL in scoring defense (19.7 points per game) and seventh in total defense (318.2 net yards per game), the Saints gave up the third-fewest touchdown passes (20).

In 2020, the secondary contributed to the Saints tying for third in the NFL in takeaways (26), first in interceptions (18), ranked fourth in total defense (310.9 ypg.), and fifth in opponent points per game (21.1) and opponent net passing yards per game (217.0 ypg.). Lattimore posted 62 tackles (52 solo), two interceptions and 11 passes defensed and was selected to his third Pro Bowl.

In 2019, Saints defensive backs recorded nine interceptions, 2.5 sacks, five forced fumbles and six fumble recoveries. Giunta assisted in the growth of fourth-year S Vonn Bell, who totaled five regular season fumble recoveries – the most in the NFL and added another in the postseason. S Marcus Williams led the team with four interceptions. Lattimore became the first Saints cornerback to be selected to two Pro Bowls, leading the team with 14 passes defensed.

In 2018, New Orleans defensive backs recorded ten interceptions, three sacks, nine forced fumbles and six recoveries. Giunta aided in the continued development of Lattimore, who led the team with five takeaways in the regular season, adding two interceptions in the NFC Divisional Playoff win over Philadelphia.

Lattimore enjoyed a breakout campaign in 2017, starting all 13 games he appeared in and leading NFL rookies with a team-high five interceptions and tying for the rookie lead with a club-best 18 passes defensed as he was the youngest Saint (21 years old) ever selected to the Pro Bowl and the franchise's first Associated Press NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year. S Kenny Vaccaro filled up the stat sheet with 60 tackles (48 solo), 1.5 sacks, a career-high three interceptions, seven passes defensed and one fumble recovery.

Giunta served as the secondary/cornerbacks coach of the Giants from 2006-14, a period when New York captured two Super Bowl titles. The Salem, Mass. native was at the forefront in the development of several young cornerbacks and was instrumental in the success of numerous veterans.

Former LSU standout Corey Webster developed into an eight-year starter under Giunta's watch and recorded 22 interceptions and four fumble recoveries in the regular season and postseason, including recording three takeaways in the 2007 playoffs all the way to a Super Bowl title. Webster's pick of a Brett Favre pass set up the Giants' game-winning field goal in overtime of the NFC Championship in Green Bay. In 2011, Webster opened all 20 regular season and postseason contests. Aaron Ross, the club's first round draft pick in 2007, was inserted into the starting lineup midway through his rookie campaign and delivered three interceptions, one brought back for a score. Ross returned to the starting lineup in 2011 and finished tied for second on the team to Webster (six) with a career-high four picks. Giunta was instrumental in the development of CB Prince Amukamara, the team's first round draft pick in 2011, who despite missing the last eight games with a biceps injury in 2014, had set a career-high with three interceptions through the first eight contests. In 2009, CB Terrell Thomas led the team with five interceptions, one returned for a touchdown, as New York ranked ninth in opponent net passing yards per game. Thomas was selected to the USA Today All-Joe Team.

Giunta was Kansas City's defensive backs coach from 2001-05. In 2003, S Jerome Woods earned his first career Pro Bowl berth under his guidance, an impressive feat considering the fact that he missed the 2002 campaign with a broken leg. The Chiefs registered 25 interceptions to rank third in the NFL that season, as S Greg Wesley and CB Dexter McCleon paced the team with six picks apiece.

Giunta joined the Chiefs after spending four seasons (1997-2000) with the St. Louis Rams, including the last three as defensive coordinator. Giunta served as the Rams' assistant head coach under Dick Vermeil in 1998-99 after originally joining the staff as defensive backs coach in 1997.

As defensive coordinator, Giunta was responsible for the resurgence in a Rams defense that sparked the club's unexpected run to a world championship in 1999. Those efforts culminated with a 13-3 regular season record and a 23-16 victory over the Tennessee Titans in Super Bowl XXXIV. Giunta's unit led the league in rush defense in 1999, allowing just 74.3 yards per game, while ranking fourth in scoring defense (15.1 ppg.) and sixth in total defense (293.6 ypg.).

The Rams' 1999 defense led the NFC and was second in the NFL with 29 interceptions. CB Todd Lyght tied for the league lead with six picks, earning his initial Pro Bowl berth in the process. St. Louis was also opportunistic, returning nine takeaways (seven interceptions and two fumbles) for touchdowns. Those turnovers were due in large part to a Rams pass rush, which racked up 57.0 sacks, tied for the league lead. The sack brigade was headlined by Pro Bowl DE Kevin Carter, who led the NFL with 17.0 quarterback takedowns.

Giunta's has established a reputation for getting the most out of defensive backs. In 2000, McCleon intercepted eight passes, a total surpassed only by one player. In Giunta's first season as defensive coordinator in 1998, St. Louis ranked third in the NFL in pass defense, allowing 176.9 yards per game. With Giunta serving as defensive backs coach in 1997 the Rams were second in the league with 25 interceptions, including an NFL-high nine by CB Ryan McNeil.

Prior to his stint with the Rams, Giunta spent two seasons as defensive backs coach for the New York Jets. In 1995, the Jets led the league in opponent net yards passing (171.3 yards per game). Giunta was instrumental in the development of CB Aaron Glenn, who would go on to be a three-time All-Pro and Pro Bowl selection.

Giunta entered the NFL as the defensive backs coach with the Philadelphia Eagles from 1991-94. In 1991, the Eagles defense ranked first in the league in passing defense (150.8 yards per game), rushing defense (71.0 yards per game) and total defense (221.8 yards per game). That marked just the fifth time in NFL history and the first time since 1975 that a single team led the league in all three of those defensive categories. No team has equaled that feat since the 1991 Eagles.

Giunta's ten seasons in the college ranks began at Penn State (1981-83). He was a defensive assistant his first year before coaching the tight ends in his final two seasons. While he was at Penn State, the Nittany Lions won the 1982 National Championship with a 27-23 victory over Georgia in the Sugar Bowl. Penn State won three bowl games during Giunta's tenure.

Following Penn State, Giunta moved to Brown (1984-87), where he coached tight ends and wide receivers before becoming the offensive coordinator (1986-87). He then joined the staff at Lehigh (1988-90), where he was responsible for tight ends and wide receivers.

After a four-year playing career as a defensive back and running back at Northeastern (1974-77), Giunta began his coaching career in his native Massachusetts, where he was an assistant coach at Swampscott High School from 1978-80.

CHASE HASLETT

TIGHT ENDS COACH

Chase Haslett enters his first season with the New Orleans Saints, where he will tutor the team's tight ends after spending the previous five seasons on the Dallas Cowboys offensive coaching staff.

A ten-year coaching veteran, including the last five seasons in the National Football League, Haslett served as Dallas' pass game specialist in 2024. He previously served as assistant tight ends coach (2023) and offensive quality control coach (2020-22).

In 2024, despite the challenges the Cowboys faced on offense due to injuries to several key starters, Dallas finished the season ranked 11th in the NFL in NFL in net passing yards per game (227.2).

Assisting the Cowboys tight ends in 2023, Haslett helped guide Jake Ferguson to earn his first Pro Bowl selection in his first season as a starter. Ferguson finished second on the team in receiving with 71 receptions for 761 yards and five touchdowns. His 761 receiving yards were eighth among all NFL tight ends, and his 90 career receptions were the second-most by a Cowboys tight end in the first two seasons of a career.

From 2020-22, serving as an offensive quality control coach, Haslett primarily helped with the tight ends. In 2022, Dalton Schultz topped 50 catches for the third straight year. Behind Schultz were two rookies, Ferguson and Peyton Hendershot, who combined to become the third rookie tight end duo in NFL history to record multiple receiving touchdowns in their rookie seasons.

In 2021, the Cowboys led the NFL in scoring (31.2 points-per-game) and total offense (407.0 net yards-per-game). Haslett once again worked closely with the tight ends, helping Schultz to the most productive season of his career with 78 receptions, 808 yards and eight touchdowns.

In 2020, Haslett assisted with an offense that ranked in the top-10 of most primary statistical categories. Despite losing starter Dak Prescott to injury after five games and playing four different quarterbacks, the Cowboys offense ranked seventh in the NFL in net passing yards per game (260.1).

Prior to Dallas, Haslett spent four years in the college ranks. After growing up around coaching first-hand under the watchful eye of his father, Jim Haslett, a former standout linebacker and a longtime coaching veteran who served on New Orleans' defensive staff (1995-96) and as Saints head coach (2000-05), earning NFL Coach of the Year in 2000 in guiding the franchise to their first playoff win, Chase Haslett earned his first foray into the NFL coaching ranks after spending time on the staffs at Nebraska as a graduate assistant/quarterbacks (2016-17), Mississippi State as quality control/offense (2018) and Mercer as tight ends coach (2019).

A former college quarterback at Illinois and Indiana University of Pennsylvania (IUP), Haslett earned his bachelor's degree in recreation, sport and tourism from Illinois in 2014 and his master's degree in sport science from IUP in 2015.

TERRY JOSEPH

DEFENSIVE PASS GAME COORDINATOR

A 19-year coaching veteran in the collegiate ranks, including the last seven at a pair of Power Five schools that both reached the College Football Playoff, Terry Joseph returns to his hometown to lead the Saints' defensive backs as defensive pass game coordinator.

The New Orleans native spent the last four seasons as the defensive passing game coordinator and secondary coach at the University of Texas. In 2024, Joseph helped lead the Longhorns defense to an impressive campaign, ranking seventh nationally in opponent passing yards per game (173.8) and tied for first in interceptions (22). He was key in the development of Jahdae Barron, who won the 2024 Jim Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back, earned consensus All-American honors, when he made 67 tackles, five interception returns for 82 yards, 11 pass breakups and a fumble recovery and was a first-round pick of the Denver Broncos.

Texas' 2023 secondary was highlighted by a standout campaign from Barron, a Thorpe Award semifinalist, who led the crew with 61 tackles (32 solo) while adding 4.5 stops for loss, one interception, one forced fumble and a six pass breakups. Terrance Brooks, Jerrin Thompson and Michael Taaffe led the team with three interceptions apiece, while the Longhorns as a whole tallied 16 interceptions, the tenth-most in the nation.

The 2022 Longhorns featured a secondary with a quartet of honorable mention All-Big 12 honorees in Barron, Anthony Cook, Thompson and Ryan Watts. Texas was 12th in the nation with three defensive touchdowns, two by Barron and 34th in defensive passing efficiency at 123.64, while ranking 27th in scoring defense (21.6 ppg). Barron had a team-leading 11.5 tackles for loss and had an interception return and fumble return for scores.

In 2021, Joseph tutored honorable mention All-Big 12 honorees B.J. Foster and Cook, helping guide them to career years. Foster tallied a career-high three interceptions, third in the conference, while also registering a career-best 47 tackles. Cook recorded a career-best 46 tackles, including three stops for loss.

Joseph arrived in Austin after spending three seasons at Notre Dame, the last two as defensive passing game coordinator and all three as defensive backs coach. During that time, he helped the Fighting Irish post a 33-5 record, earn two College Football Playoff appearances, a pair of No. 5 rankings in the final polls (2018 & 2020) and a No. 11 ranking in 2019.

In 2020, the Irish ranked in the top 25 nationally in fumbles recovered (10/eighth), opponent third down conversion percentage (31.4/12th), scoring defense (19.7/14th), tackles for loss (7.5/17th), rushing defense (113.0/16th) and total defense (343.6/25th). The defense had six straight games allowing fewer than 100 yards rushing en route to a 10-2 record, including a win over No. 1 Clemson, an undefeated regular season and appearances in the ACC Championship Game and College Football Playoff.

Under Joseph, sophomore safety Kyle Hamilton flourished and earned third-team All-America honors from the Associated Press, was named a consensus first-team All-ACC and was named a semifinalist for the Bednarik Award. He led Notre Dame with 63 tackles (51 solo), recorded 4.5 stops for loss, six pass breakups and an interception. Members of the secondary made up four of the team's top six tacklers and those four combined for 26 pass breakups.

In 2019, Notre Dame's defense ranked in the top five in passing yards allowed per game (168.5/third) and passing efficiency defense (110.15/fifth), along with leading the nation in fumble recoveries and positioning in the top 20 in scoring defense (17.9 ppg./12th) and total defense (321.6 ypg./18th). The Irish were 11-2 for the season with a win in the Camping World Bowl. Safety Alohi Gilman led the defensive backs with 74 tackles and three forced fumbles, while Hamilton was named a freshman All-American by The Athletic after collecting four interceptions and six pass breakups. Cornerback Troy Pride Jr. also had six pass breakups and went on to be selected in the fourth round of the 2020 NFL Draft by the Carolina Panthers.

Notre Dame posted another perfect regular season and appearance in the College Football Playoff in 2018, going 12-0 and then only falling to eventual champion No. 2 Clemson in the Cotton Bowl. The defense was ranked in the top ten nationally in passing yards allowed per attempt (5.6/t-second), fewest touchdown passes allowed (ten/third), pass efficiency defense (105.6/sixth), fewest plays of at least 30 yards (17/t-tenth) and fewest touchdowns allowed (28/t-tenth). Junior cornerback Julian Love was a consensus first-team All-American and Thorpe Award finalist after amassing 16 pass breakups and three fumble recoveries. He went on to be a fourth-round pick by the New York Giants in the 2019 NFL Draft. After Irish safeties failed to record an interception in 2017, Elliott and Gilman had four and two, respectively, in 2018.

Joseph went to Notre Dame after spending the 2017 season as defensive backs coach at North Carolina. He tutored cornerback M.J. Stewart, who participated in the 2018 Reese's Senior Bowl. A two-time All-ACC honorable mention selection, Stewart registered 45 tackles, 12 pass breakups, 5.0 stops for loss and 2.0 sacks.

Prior to joining the Tar Heels staff, Joseph served as defensive backs coach at Texas A&M from 2014-16. He tutored an Aggies pass defense in 2015 that ranked fourth nationally in passing yards allowed per game and 18th in opponent pass efficiency. Joseph was instrumental in the position switch of Brandon Williams in 2015, who converted from running back to cornerback prior to the start of the season and developed into a third round pick in the 2016 NFL Draft. In 2016, Joseph mentored All-SEC strong safety and former Saint Justin Evans, who was a semifinalist for the Thorpe Award.

Previously, Joseph spent two seasons at Nebraska as its secondary coach (2012-13). Despite the loss of two returning starters in the secondary, Nebraska led the nation in opponent completion percentage (47.1 percent), ranked fourth in pass defense (168.2 yards allowed per game) and ninth in pass efficiency defense (105.32), while helping the Cornhuskers to a 10-win season. The 168.2 passing yards per game NU allowed was the second-fewest by a Husker defense since 1993, while the 47.1 completion percentage was the lowest for Nebraska since 2001.

In 2012, safety Daimion Stafford earned first-team All-Big Ten honors under Joseph's tutelage after leading the conference with four interceptions in league play. He ranked second on the team with 96 tackles, he forced two fumbles and recovered two fumbles. Cornerback Ciante Evans earned first-team All-Big Ten honors from CBS Sports, totaling 56 tackles and ranking second on the team with eight pass breakups. Evans registered a 29-yard interception return for a touchdown. The Cornhuskers' three interception returns for touchdowns tied for its most since 2006, while their 13 picks in 2012 eclipsed its 2011 total.

Before arriving at Nebraska, Joseph spent two seasons under Derek Dooley as the defensive backs coach at Tennessee, where he also served as the recruiting coordinator. He helped the Volunteers rank among the nation's top pass defenses in 2010 and 2011. In 2011, UT finished 12th nationally in passing yards allowed with an average of just 177.8 yards per game.

In Joseph's first season in Knoxville in 2010, he helped the Vols rank in the top 20 in the nation with 18 interceptions, and the group played a key role in a late-season run that earned Tennessee a trip to the Music City Bowl. Safety Janzen Jackson and cornerback Prentiss Waggner each earned second-team All-SEC honors. Waggner returned a school-record three interceptions for touchdowns.

Joseph joined Tennessee after working under Dooley for three seasons at Louisiana Tech from 2007-09, where he served as secondary coach/recruiting coordinator, playing a key role in a defensive turnaround in Ruston. The highlight of Joseph's stint at Louisiana Tech came in 2008, when the Bulldogs finished second in the Western Athletic Conference and earned their first bowl trip in seven seasons. Tech completed an 8-5 season with an Independence Bowl win.

Joseph served as a Defensive Graduate Assistant at LSU in 2006, when, the Tigers ranked third nationally in total defense and finished the year with a Sugar Bowl victory over Notre Dame.

Joseph began his coaching career in the New Orleans-area high school ranks, working at his alma mater, Archbishop Shaw (1999-2002) and Destrehan (2003-05).

Joseph earned his bachelor's degree in marketing/business administration from Northwestern State in 1996, where he was a baseball standout and is one of only 12 players in Southland Conference history to earn first-team All-Conference honors three straight seasons. Joseph, who was named the 1995 Southland Conference and Louisiana Player of the Year and twice earned Academic All-America honors. He helped the Demons capture three straight SLC championships and held ten different school records when his collegiate career ended. He was a 13th-round draft pick of the Chicago Cubs and played four seasons with the Cubs and San Diego Padres minor league systems.

Joseph comes from a coaching family as his cousin Vance Joseph, is the defensive coordinator of the Denver Broncos, and another cousin, Mickey Joseph, is the head football coach for Grambling State University.

SCOTT LINEHAN

SENIOR OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Scott Linehan arrives in New Orleans with 36 years of coaching experience, including 17 in the NFL. The Sunnyside, Wash. native was the head coach of the St. Louis Rams (2006-2008) and served as the offensive coordinator for the Dallas Cowboys (2015-18), Detroit Lions (2009-13), Miami Dolphins (2005), and Minnesota Vikings (2002-04). Linehan has spent the past five seasons at the collegiate level, including stops at Montana (2024, offensive analyst), Missouri (2021, offensive analyst) and LSU (2020, passing game coordinator). Of his 36 years of coaching football, terms as an offensive coordinator or head coach make up 24 years on Linehan's resume.

In 2024, Linehan served as an offensive analyst for the University of Montana, helping the Grizzlies finish fourth in the Big Sky Conference in points per game (33.4). With his help, Montana improved in numerous offensive categories from the previous season, including points per game, rushing yards per game, rushing yards per attempt, passing yards per game, third down conversion pct. and fourth down conversion pct. The Grizzlies finished second in the conference in yards per carry (5.5) after averaging 4.2 yards per carry the year prior. Linehan worked on the Montana Staff with his son Mike, who serves as defensive line coach.

In 2021, Linehan served as an offensive analyst for Missouri. On the same staff as son Matt, who was an offensive graduate assistant working with the quarterbacks and wide receivers and is now offensive coordinate/quarterbacks at Idaho. The Tigers improved their win total and reached the Armed Forces Bowl. Running back Tyler Badie was a second-team All-American, rushing for 1,604 yards with 14 touchdowns, surpassing 200 rushing yards in five games.

In 2020, Linehan served as passing game coordinator for LSU. After multiple injuries at the quarterback position, Linehan tutored true freshman quarterback Max Johnson to take over the starting job over the final six games, going 88-for-150 (58.7 pct.) passing for 1,069 yards, eight touchdowns and only one interception. At wideout, fellow freshman Kayshon Boutte was a standout, catching 45 passes for 735 yards with five touchdowns. Boutte also set an LSU and Southeastern Conference record for receiving yards (308) in a single game in the Tigers' season finale victory over Ole Miss.

In 2018 in Dallas, Dak Prescott established career-highs in passing yards (3,885 - more than 200 greater than his club rookie record), attempts (526) and completions (356 - second in team history). Prescott, who was named to his second career Pro Bowl, helped lead Dallas to an NFC East Division Crown, Dallas' second in three years. In addition, Ezekiel Elliott earned his second Pro Bowl nomination and became the first Cowboys running back with 2,000 scrimmage yards in a season since 2014.

In 2017, Dallas' offense featured the 2016 NFL Rookie of the Year, Prescott and the league's 2016 rushing champ, Elliott. Linehan helped guide Prescott to become the first Dallas quarterback to throw for 3,000-plus yards (3,324) and 20-plus touchdowns (22) in each of his first two pro seasons. In ten games, Elliott rushed for 983 yards and seven scores, averaging 4.1 yards-per-carry. Jason Witten was named to his 11th Pro Bowl and became the team's all-time receiving yards leader. Dez Bryant also became the club's all-time receiving touchdown leader, finishing the year with six. As a unit, the offense was second in the league in rushing (2,170), marking the first time since 1998-99 a Cowboys team had at least 2,000 rushing yards in consecutive seasons. Additionally, three offensive lineman again earned trips to the Pro Bowl - Tyron Smith (fifth), Travis Frederick and Zack Martin (four each).

Linehan opened the 2016 season with Prescott, who became only the fourth rookie signal-caller to start a season opener in team history. Under Linehan, Elliott and Prescott went on to have the best rookie seasons at their respective positions in team history, while also ranking on the league's all-time charts for rookies. Prescott tied the most wins (13) by a rookie quarterback in league history, setting club rookie records for yards (3,667), touchdowns (23), attempts (459), completions (311), completion percentage (67.8) and passer rating (104.9 - an NFL record). On the ground, Elliott became only the fifth NFL rookie since the merger to lead the league in rushing (1,631 - third by an NFL rookie all-time), with a club rookie record seven 100-yard rushing games. Both earned a trip to the Pro Bowl to mark the first time in team history a rookie quarterback and rookie running back both made the all-star game. The offensive line led the way for the league's second ranked rushing attack (149.8 yards-per-game) as three of its charges earned Pro Bowl nods: Smith, Frederick and Martin. The line also earned the Built Ford Tough Offensive Line of the Year award.

With an injury to Romo in 2015, Linehan employed four quarterbacks over the course of 16 games, with Brandon Weeden (three starts), Matt Cassel (seven) and Saints Head Coach Kellen Moore (two) trying to lead the offense. An injury to Bryant allowed Witten to lead the team for the eighth time in his career with 77 catches, and Terrance Williams had a team-high 840 receiving yards. The Cowboys rushing attack racked up 1,890 yards (ninth), with Darren McFadden leading all Cowboys running backs with 1,089 yards and a 4.6 average. Three Cowboys offensive linemen made the Pro Bowl: Smith, Frederick and Martin; as the group continued to be a dominant force for the team.

Linehan called an offense that helped the 2014 Cowboys to an NFL-best tying 12-4 record. Along the way, the team had three players lead the league and establish single-season club records as DeMarco Murray rushed for 1,845 yards and earned Assocated Press NFL Offensive Player of the year honors, Bryant caught a league-best 16 touchdown passes and Tony Romo completed 69.9% of his passes and had a 113.2 quarterback rating. The Dallas offense as a whole was second in the league in rushing yards (2,354). For the season, the Dallas offense totaled 6,138 yards and 467 points, both second in a season in franchise history. The club had seven offensive players selected to the Pro Bowl, including two first-timers (Frederick and rookie Martin). Perennial Pro Bowler Witten earned his tenth trip, Romo made his fourth and Bryant, Murray and Smith each made their second. Martin was the only offensive rookie in the NFL in 2014 to make the Pro Bowl, the first rookie offensive lineman in team history to make the game, and was named to the AP All-Pro team - only the third rookie in club history to receive the honor.

For five seasons, Linehan served as the Detroit Lions offensive coordinator (2009-13), and in 2013 his offense finished the season sixth in the NFL in total yards (6,274) and third in passing yards (4,482). Helping bolster those numbers was Pro Football Hall of Fame WR Calvin Johnson, who finished the season with 1,492 receiving yards - fourth in team history - including a club single-game record (second all-time in the NFL) 329 yards. Under Linehan's guidance, Johnson established the club record for yards in a season with 1,964 (2012) while also finishing 2011 third in team history with 1,681 yards. Over those same three seasons, Matthew Stafford took the top-three spots in team history for passing yards with 5,038 (2011), 4,967 (2012) and 4,650 (2013). From 2010-13, the Lions offense amassed 18,033 passing yards (second in the NFL) and 24,574 total yards (fourth).

In 2012, the offense set a club record with 6,540 yards (third in the league) and net passing yards 4,927 (second). In finishing third in total offense, it marked the highest finish for Detroit since 1997 (second).

Linehan's offense in 2011 scored 474 points to set a team record and finish fourth in the league. In addition to establishing the club record for passing yards in a season, Stafford threw a franchise-best 41 touchdowns while topping team all-time charts for completion percentage (63.5) and passer rating (97.2). His 5,000-yard season was only the fourth in NFL history.

In Linehan's second season in Detroit (2010), the Lions had the league's fourth-most improved offense, gaining 639 more yards than in 2009.

Upon arriving in Detroit (2009), Linehan helped Stafford finish his rookie campaign near the top of many franchise rookie passing record, placing first in touchdowns (13) and second in passing yards (2,267), completions (201) and completion percentage (54.1).

Prior to landing in Detroit, Linehan spent three seasons (2006-08) as head coach of the St. Louis Rams. Linehan helped establish St. Louis' rushing attack, utilizing Stephen Jackson, whose 346 carries in 2006 were the most by a Rams player in 20 seasons. Jackson's 1,528 rushing yards were third in the NFC while his 105 first downs and 2,334 all-purpose yards were tops in the NFL to earn his first career Pro Bowl selection. Marc Bulger flourished under Linehan's offense, passing for a career-best 4,301 in 2006 with 24 touchdowns (second in Rams history). Torry Holt and Pro Football Hall of Fame WR Isaac Bruce both finished 2006 with 1,000-plus yards and combined for 167 catches.

In 2005, Linehan was the offensive coordinator for the Miami Dolphins, helping improve the total offensive output from 4,960 yards (29th) in 2004 to 5,198 (12th) in 2005.

Linehan made his NFL coaching debut in 2002 with the Minnesota Vikings where he was the club's offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach (2002-04). The Vikings finished 2002 fourth in team history (second at that point) with 6,192 yards, followed by 2003's mark of 6,294 yards, which was the club record at season's end. Linehan's 2003 number was trumped by his 2004 total of 6,339, which still stands as the franchise record. Overall in the three seasons from 2002-04, the Vikings finished second, first and fourth in the NFL in net yards per game. Both Pro Football Hall of Fame WR Randy Moss and QB Daunte Culpepper excelled in Linehan's offense, and in 2002, Moss' 111 catches for 1,632 yards were a personal-best. Culpepper's 2004 season saw him make his second trip to the Pro Bowl while finishing with the then fourth-highest passer rating in league history (110.9) while leading the league with personal-bests in passing yards (4,717), yards-per-play (8.6) and touchdowns (39). After scoring 290 points in 2001, Linehan improved the club's figures to 390 (2002), 416 (2003) and 405 (2004).

Before coming to the NFL, Linehan coached collegiately for 13 years for teams that played in seven bowl games and won five conference titles. Five of Linehan's quarterbacks were drafted by NFL Teams - Chris Redman and Dave Ragone (Louisville) Brock Huard and Marques Tuiasosopo (Washington) and current Saints Offensive Coordinator Doug Nussmeier (Idaho).

Linehan was the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Louisville (1999-01), helping the school to three bowl berths and consecutive Conference USA championships - the first school in conference history to accomplish the feat. In each of his three seasons, one of his quarterbacks earned Conference Player of the Year.

Linehan spent five seasons at the University of Washington (1994-98), advancing to four bowl games and winning the 1995 Pac-10 title. He spent four seasons at his alma mater, Idaho, serving as wide receivers coach (1989-90) and offensive coordinator/quarterbacks (1992-93). Sandwiched between his two stints at Idaho was a one-year stop as the quarterbacks coach for UNLV.

Linehan was a quarterback for College Football Hall of Fame Head Coach Dennis Erickson at the Idaho (1982-86), winning the Big Sky Championship in 1985 and earning Division I-AA playoff appearances three straight times (1984-86). He signed with the Dallas Cowboys in 1987 as a rookie free agent, but a shoulder injury ended his playing career. In 2017, Linehan was inducted into the Idaho Athletic Hall of Fame. Linehan and his wife, Kristen, have three sons, Matthew, Michael and Marcus.

After first joining the Saints as an offensive assistant in 2015, Nugent served as assistant offensive line coach (2017-20) and as offensive line coach (2021). From 2017-21, when Nugent worked with the offensive line as his primary position group, the Saints surrendered only 131 sacks, the lowest total in the NFL, tied for first with 103 rushing touchdowns, ranked second in points per game (27.9), eighth in rushing yards per game (124.6) and ninth in net yards per game (364.3). During the time period, RB Alvin Kamara led the NFL in total touchdowns (68), ranked third in rushing

From 2022-23, Nugent served as offensive line coach of the Los Angeles Chargers, key in the development of OL Jamaree Salyer, who was thrust in as the starting left tackle as a rookie after an injury to All-Pro T Rashawn Slater. In his first two seasons (2022-23), and over 2,100 offensive snaps, Salyer was only called for six penalties (zero for holding).

In 2022, Nugent helped the Chargers offense rank third in net passing yards per game (296.6) and No. 9 in total offense (359.3 ypg.). The line protected QB Justin Herbert to become the first player in history to top 4,000 passing yards in each of his first three seasons and join Peyton Manning as the only players to throw 25 touchdowns in three consecutive seasons to begin a career. DOUG NUSSMEIER

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Doug Nussmeier is in his first season as the Saints' offensive coordinator and tenth season as a coach in the National Football League.

A 24-year coaching veteran, Nussmeier returns to New Orleans after originally being a fourth round pick (116th overall) of the Saints in the 1994 NFL Draft out of Idaho, for who he played four seasons. He joins the Saints after spending the 2024 season as quarterbacks coach of the Philadelphia Eagles.

In 2024, Nussmeier was a key piece of the Eagles Super Bowl LIX Champion offensive coaching staff. With Philadelphia ranked eighth overall in the NFL in net yards per game (367.2) and seventh in points per game (27.2), Jalen Hurts flourished under Nussmeier's tutelage, posting a career-high 103.7 passer rating, fifth in the league. Hurts also ranked among the top eight in the league in yards per attempt (fourth, 8.0), completion percentage (eighth, career-high 68.7) and total touchdowns (eighth, 32). In addition, Hurts tied for the fifth-most rushing touchdowns (14) in the league (first among quarterbacks).

In the postseason, Hurts completed 65-of-91 (71.4 pct.) for 726 yards with five touchdown passes, only one interception and a 108.6 passer rating. On the ground, he carried 34 times for 194 yards with five touchdowns. His five postseason rushing touchdowns tied his own NFL playoffs record for quarterbacks, which he already owned from the Eagles' run to Super Bowl LVII, and his 194 rushing yards were the fourth-highest postseason total in NFL record books by a signal-caller. In Philadelphia's 40-22 Super Bowl LIX win over the Kansas City Chiefs, Hurts was voted the game's MVP, after completing 17-of-22 (77.3 pct.) attempts for 221 yards, two touchdowns, a 119.7 passer rating and 72 rushing yards with one touchdown, the most rushing yards by a quarterback ever in a Super Bowl.

In 2023, Nussmeier served as the Los Angeles Chargers' quarterbacks coach. Under his direction, Justin Herbert completed 295-of-517 (65.1 pct.) attempts for 3,134 yards, 20 touchdowns, only seven interceptions and a 93.2 passer rating in 13 contests before suffering a broken finger.

Prior to his stint with the Chargers, Nussmeier spent five seasons as a member of the Dallas Cowboys' coaching staff, working as the quarterbacks coach (2020-22) and tight ends coach (2018-19). From 2020-22, Dallas produced the fourth-most total yards per game in the league despite requiring five different starting quarterbacks in that span.

During the 2022 campaign, Nussmeier's quarterback room battled through adversity to help the team finish 12-5 with a postseason appearance. Dak Prescott returned from injury midseason and ranked among the NFL's top passers down the stretch, as his 20 passing scores from Week Ten until the end of the regular season were tied for the most in the league. Nussmeier's development of the entire quarterbacks room was critical early in the season, as Cooper Rush guided the team to a 4-1 record in five starts.

In 2021, Nussmeier mentored a group of quarterbacks that helped Dallas rank among the top offensive units in the NFL, as the Cowboys finished first in total offense (407.0 ypg.) and points per game (31.2). Prescott registered the third-highest passer rating (104.2) in the league while throwing for a franchise-record 37 touchdowns.

Prescott averaged 371.2 passing yards per game through the first five contests of 2020, before enduring an ankle injury that ended his season prematurely.

As tight ends coach in Dallas, Nussmeier helped Jason Witten post his 14th and 15th career seasons with 60-plus catches while also tutoring Blake Jarwin, who caught 58 passes and six touchdowns from 2018-19.

Nussmeier joined the Cowboys in 2018 after spending 13 of the previous 15 seasons coaching at the collegiate level, including ten years as an offensive coordinator. In those 13 seasons, Nussmeier tutored eight different players who were selected in the first or second round of the NFL Draft.

Before going to Dallas, Nussmeier served as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Florida (2015-17), Michigan (2014) and Alabama (2012-13). In his first season with the Crimson Tide, Nussmeier guided A.J. McCarron to a then-school-best 30 passing touchdowns, including four in Alabama's victory over Notre Dame in the 2013 BCS National Championship Game. He also coached McCarron to throw for 3,063 yards in 2013, which marked the most in single-season program history at the time.

Nussmeier also was the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at the University of Washington (2009-11). In his final season with the Huskies, the offense recorded 57 touchdowns and 431 points scored, both good for the second-most in a single season in school history. Nussmeier's first coordinator position came in 2008, directing the offense and coaching quarterbacks at Fresno State University.

In 2006, Nussmeier landed his first NFL coaching job with St. Louis, coaching quarterbacks for the Rams for two seasons. He helped Marc Bulger earn his second Pro Bowl selection after passing for a career-best 4,301 yards with 24 touchdowns. Prior to his time in St. Louis, Nussmeier coached the quarterbacks at Michigan State for three seasons (2003-05), capping his tenure by helping Drew Stanton throw for a then-school-record 3,415 passing yards in 2005.

Nussmeier first broke into coaching in the CFL, landing his first job in 2001 as the quarterbacks coach of his former team, the British Columbia Lions. After one season on the Lions' staff, he went on to spend the 2002 campaign as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach of the Ottawa Renegades.

After being selected by New Orleans in 1994, Nussmeier spent four seasons with the Saints and the 1998 campaign with the Indianapolis Colts, before heading to the CFL in 2000, helping the BC Lions to the Grey Cup Championship. Nussmeier appeared in five games, including two starts, over his NFL career, all with New Orleans.

Nussmeier finished his career at the University of Idaho as the program's all-time leading passer with 10,824 career passing yards over five years (1989-93). He won the Walter Payton Award in 1993, which was at the time given annually to the top player in NCAA Division 1-AA after throwing for a program-record 33 touchdown passes and leading the Vandals to a national semifinal berth. Nussmeier was named Big Sky Conference Offensive Player of the Year in 1992 and inducted into the University of Idaho Athletic Hall of Fame in 2008.

A Portland, Ore. native, Nussmeier and his wife, Christi, have two sons, Garrett and Colton, and a daughter Ashlynn. Garrett will be entering his fifth season as a quarterback at LSU in 2025.

PLAYING CAREER: Idaho, 1989-93; New Orleans Saints, 1994-97; Indianapolis Colts, 1998; British Columbia Lions (CFL), 2000.

PETER SIRMON

LINEBACKERS COACH

Peter Sirmon (pronounced sermon) will make his NFL coaching debut after 17 years on the collegiate level, but is no stranger to the NFL, having played seven seasons (2000-06) as a linebacker with the Tennessee Titans.

The Walla Walla, Wash. native joins New Orleans after serving on the University of California coaching staff for seven seasons, coaching inside linebackers the entire time and serving as defensive coordinator the last five. Starting at Cal in 2018 as the inside linebackers coach, Sirmon added co-defensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator duties to his role in 2019.

At Cal, Sirmon was instrumental for developing a multitude of defensive players, including a trio of All-Americans in CB Elijah Hicks, ILB Evan Weaver and DB Nohl Williams, with Weaver, the nation's leading tackler in 2019, a consensus first-team pick and also the Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year. In 2024, Williams was a consensus All-American and first-team All-ACC. Overall, Sirmon coached nine players at Cal who combined for 11 first or second-team All-Conference selections.

In 2024 Sirmon was a Broyles Award nominee, given to the best FBS assistant coach in the nation. Cal's scoring defense (22.31) ranked 36th in the nation and second in the ACC, allowing 10.5 points per game fewer than the 32.8 it allowed in 2023. Cal's defense under Sirmon was tied for second in the country with 17 interceptions and finished among the nation's top 30 in several defensive team categories including turnovers gained (27th, 22), team passing efficiency defense (25th, 117.8), rushing defense (14th, 109.8 ypg) and team sacks (t30th, 2.62). Dating from the last game of the 2020 season through the sixth game of 2024, Cal had at least one takeaway in 41 of 44 games ant at one point during the 2022 campaign, the defense had the longest streak of consecutive games in the nation with at least one turnover with 19 in a row. Williams was a consensus All-American, leading the nation with seven interceptions. He also earned first-team All-ACC honors after finishing second in the ACC in passes defended (15). DB Marcus Harris, another transfer, went on to play in all 13 games for Cal, registering 46 tackles (35 solo), two interceptions returned for 19 yards, five pass breakups and one forced fumble.

Sirmon's 2023 defense led the nation with 16 fumble recoveries and tied for the national lead with 28 takeaways. Three different defensive players – S Patrick McMorris, freshman ILB Cade Uluave and Williams – recovered three fumbles each to tie for second in the Pac-12 and 19th nationally. In addition, the Bears' three defensive touchdowns were second in the Pac-12 and tied for 15th nationally.

Cal tied for second in the conference and 12th nationally in 2022 with three defensive touchdowns. Jackson Sirmon led the team with a career-high 104 tackles, adding career-highs of 6.0 stops for loss, 3.5 sacks, three pass breakups and a 37-yard fumble return for a touchdown, as well as one forced fumble. He was third in the Pac-12 and among NCAA leaders in tackles per game (8.7, 40th NCAA) and tackles (t47th NCAA).

Sirmon's 2021 defense improved throughout the season in his first full campaign as defensive coordinator (his first season in the role in 2020 was shortened to four games by COVID-19). Cal held four of its final six opponents to 14 points or less while the Bears also won four of their final six games. Cal finished the campaign second in the Pac-12 in scoring defense (22.2 ppg) and fourth in total defense and rushing defense. Hicks led the way as a Pro Football Focus third-team All-American and a consensus first-team All-Pac-12 pick, notching 72 tackles while co-leading the Pac-12 with a career-high four forced fumbles and 0.33 fumbles per game (t-11th NCAA). True freshman CB Lu-Magia Hearns III finished with team highs of ten pass breakups and 11 passes deflected. In addition to Hicks' first-team selection by the league's coaches, Cal had four players earn honorable mention All-Pac-12 honors on the defensive side of the ball. Hearns also picked up honorable mention honors for the league's Defensive Freshman of the Year. OLB Cameron Goode led the Pac-12 in sacks with 0.68 per game and totaled 7.5 to finish his career eighth on Cal's all-time list with 21.5 (-132 yards).

Deng served as a team captain in 2020 when he led the squad with 31 tackles and two forced fumbles. Both of his forced fumbles came in the fourth quarter of a 21-17 win over Oregon. Goode was tied for second both nationally and in the Pac-12 with his 2.0 tackles for loss per game, as well as sixth in the Pac-12 and tied for 30th in the nation with 0.75 sacks per contest. The defense was also a disciplined unit that helped the Bears lead the Pac-12 in per game averages for both fewest penalty yards (35.0) and penalties (4.5), while ranking fifth and tied for 12th nationally.

In 2019, Sirmon was Cal's co-defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach, and paired up with his fellow defensive coordinator and outside linebackers coach Tim DeRuyter to earn FootballScoop Linebackers Coaches of the Year presented by AstroTurf honors. Weaver finished the 2019 campaign with a school-record 182 tackles and in addition to his consensus first-team All-American honors was also the Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year. In addition, he was a finalist for the Butkus Award, Lott IMPACT Trophy, The Lombardi and the Senior Class Award. Weaver (182) and Deng (119, third Pac-12, 15th NCAA) finished 2019 with a combined 301 stops. The number not only allowed Cal to lead the nation for most tackles by a duo for a second straight season but was six shy of the Bears' school-record of 307 by a duo that Weaver (159) and Jordan Kunaszyk (148) recorded in 2018.

In his first season on Cal's staff in 2018, Sirmon helped the Bears' defense finish among national and Pac-12 leaders in nearly every category. The Bears ranked in the Top Ten nationally and paced the conference in interceptions (21, second NCAA), defensive touchdowns (5, tied-fourth NCAA), turnovers gained (28, tied-sixth NCAA) and passing yards allowed (175.1 ypg, ninth NCAA). Their combined 307 tackles were the most by any duo in the nation and the highest total ever by two players in a single season at Cal. Weaver's 159 tackles were the second-highest total in the nation, while his 12.2 stops per game were sixth in the country. Kunaszyk's 148 tackles are the fifth-highest single-season total in school history and were fifth nationally with his 11.4 tackles per contest ninth in the nation. Weaver and Kunaszyk ranked second and third, respectively, in the Pac-12 in both total tackles and tackles per game. S Jaylinn Hawkins led the Pac-12 and tied for third nationally with his six interceptions including three in the Cheez-It Bowl to earn Defensive Player of the Game honors and a spot on SI's All-Bowl squad.

Prior to his arrival at Cal, Sirmon was the defensive coordinator at Mississippi State (2016) and Louisville (2017) for one season each after previously coaching on staffs for six seasons at Tennessee (2010-11), Washington (2012-13) and USC (2014-15).

Sirmon spent two campaigns from 2014-15 at USC as the associate head coach, recruiting coordinator and linebackers coach. In 2015, the Trojans won the Pac-12 South title and made a second consecutive appearance in the Holiday Bowl, leading the conference in opponent third-down conversion percentage and scoring five defensive touchdowns to rank third nationally. Sirmon's guidance propelled OLB Su'a Cravens to All-Pac-12 first-team honors for the second straight season. ILB Cameron Smith was selected as Pac-12 Defensive Freshman of the Year in addition to being named a consensus Freshman All-American.

Sirmon was linebackers coach at Washington the two prior seasons from 2012-13, adding recruiting coordinator to his duties for the first time in 2013. The Huskies ranked in the top 40 nationally in total defense, scoring defense and pass defense in his first campaign in 2012 after finishing the previous campaign lower than 105th in each category. Washington's scoring defense jumped to tie for 29th nationally in 2013, while its team passing efficiency defense improved 60 spots to 27th in 2012 before climbing to tenth in 2013, with its 41.0 sacks tied for fourth nationally the same season. The Huskies qualified for bowls each season. Sirmon tutored eventual first-round NFL Draft pick Shaq Thompson during his back-to-back honorable mention All-Pac-12 seasons as a 2012 freshman and 2013 sophomore.

Sirmon also spent one season as a graduate assistant at Oregon in 2009 when the Ducks won a Pac-10 title and played in the Rose Bowl after getting into the coaching business as the linebackers coach at Central Washington in 2008 for a team that finished 10-2.

Sirmon played seven NFL seasons as a linebacker with the Titans (2000-06), participating in 81 games with 54 starts and registering 343 career tackles while adding four interceptions including one that he returned for a touchdown. Tennessee won two divisional titles (2000 AFC Central, 2002 AFC South), before earning a third playoff appearance during his tenure in 2003. He was a fourth-round pick in the 2000 NFL Draft.

Sirmon, who received his bachelor's degree in political science from Oregon in 1999, was a four-year starter (1996-99) and selected to the 2000 Senior Bowl. He helped the Ducks to winning campaigns in all four seasons and three bowl games. A first-team All-Pac-10 selection as a senior, Sirmon was the Ducks' leading tackler both his sophomore and senior seasons.

JOEL THOMAS

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH/RUNNING BACKS

Joel Thomas, a 25-year coaching veteran, returns to New Orleans to tutor the club's running backs in 2025 after previously spending nine years with the Black and Gold (2015-23). After spending the 2024 season coaching the New York Giants running backs, the Port Angeles, Wash. native returns to New Orleans with the additional title of associate head coach.

During Thomas' initial nine-year tenure in tutoring the Saints running backs, the Black and Gold tied for second in the NFL with 161 rushing touchdowns and his backs registered 25 individual 100-yard performances.

Under Thomas' tutelage, Alvin Kamara, the Saints' all-time rushing yardage leader, earned five consecutive Pro Bowl selections (2017-21) and was the only NFL player with at least 1,160 total yards from scrimmage in each of the seven seasons he first coached him, three of them 1,500 or more. In 2023 under Thomas, Kamara became the franchise's all-time leader in yards from scrimmage, rushing touchdowns and total touchdowns. Thomas also coached Mark Ingram II, New Orleans' career rushing leader from 2021-24 (6,500 yards), for six years, including two 1-000-yard campaigns. During his first New Orleans tenure, the Saints ranking in the top six in the NFL in rushing three times (2017, 2018 and 2020).

In 2020, Thomas oversaw the NFL's sixth-ranked rushing attack. New Orleans led the league with a club-record 30 touchdowns on the ground, tied for the NFL's sixth-highest total all-time. Kamara, selected to his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl, shattered the team record and led the NFL with 21 touchdowns, ranking second with 93 first downs and third with a career-best 1,688 yards from scrimmage. In addition to running for a then-career-high 932 yards on 187 carries (5.0 avg.), Kamara led NFL running backs in receiving with a team-best and career-high 83 grabs for 756 yards and five touchdowns, as he became only the second Saint to lead the team in rushing and receiving in the same season. Latavius Murray served as a solid complement to Kamara in the running game, carrying 146 times for 656 yards (4.5 avg.) with four touchdowns.

In 2018, the Saints were ranked sixth in the NFL in rushing (126.6 ypg.). Kamara had a standout sophomore campaign, as he rushed 194 times for a club best 883 yards (4.6 avg.) with 14 touchdowns. He also caught 81 receptions for 709 yards with four scores for a 1,589 total yards from scrimmage and 18 total touchdowns. Ingram rushed 138 times for 645 yards (4.7 avg.) with six touchdowns in 12 games.

In 2017, the duo of Ingram and rookie Kamara produced standout seasons, with both being selected to the Pro Bowl. Ingram appeared in all 16 games for the second consecutive season and led the team with a career-high 1,124 yards rushing and a career-best 12 touchdowns on 230 carries, a 4.9-yard average per attempt. He added a career-high 58 receptions for 416 yards for a career-high 1,540 yards from scrimmage. Kamara set a league record for rookie running backs with 826 receiving yards on 81 receptions and five touchdowns, while he led the NFL by averaging 6.1 yards per carry on 120 carries for 728 yards with eight touchdowns. He led the club with 1,554 total yards from scrimmage and was selected by the Associated Press as the NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year and as a second-team All-Pro at the Flex position. The 3,094 combined total yards from scrimmage from Ingram and Kamara was the second-most by an NFL running back duo since the start of a 16-game season in 1978.

With the Giants in 2024, Thomas oversaw the development of rookie tailback Tyrone Tracy Jr., a fifth round pick from Purdue. Tracy earned PFWA All-Rookie honors when he carried 192 times for 839 yards (4.4 avg.) with five touchdowns to rank second among NFL rookies for the season and New York rookies all-time in rushing yards. He added 38 receptions for 284 yards with one touchdown to tally a total of 1,123 yards from scrimmage, the fifth-highest total among NFL rookies in 2024 and fourth among Giants rookies all-time.

Thomas first joined the Saints in 2015 following a two-year stint (2013-14) as the running backs coach at the University of Arkansas. In 2014, tailbacks Jonathan Williams and Alex Collins were the only pair of FBS teammates to rush for 1,000-plus yards. The duo became just the second pair of Razorbacks to accomplish the feat. Collins became just the second player in school history to surpass 1,000 yards in each of his first two seasons and was named SEC Freshman of the Year in 2013.

Thomas was the running backs coach at the University of Washington from 2009-12, when he coached a 1,000-yard rusher each year and added the title of associate head coach for offense prior to the 2012 campaign.

Thomas also has experience as running backs coach at Purdue (2006-08), Idaho (2004-05, also serving as co-offensive coordinator) and Louisville (2002-03). In 2007, the Boilermakers led the Big Ten in total offense and scoring offense. In 2008, tailback Kory Sheets rushed for 1,131 yards to become Purdue's first 1,000-yard rusher in six seasons. Thomas was also at Purdue from 2000-01, as a graduate assistant. In 2000, Drew Brees led the NCAA in total offense and won the Maxwell Award. The Boilermakers won the Big Ten and advanced to the Rose Bowl for the first time in 33 years.

Thomas lettered at running back at Idaho from 1993-98, where he was a two-time first-team All-Big West selection and conference Player of the Year as a senior and still holds Vandals career records with 3,929 rushing yards and 51 touchdowns on 765 attempts. He was inducted into the University of Idaho Athletic Hall of Fame in 2008 and into the North Idaho Athletic Hall of Fame in 2022. SCOTT TOLZIEN

QUARTERBACKS COACH

Scott Tolzien (pronounced TOLL-ZEEN) enters his first season as New Orleans' quarterbacks coach in 2025 after spending the past two seasons in the same role with the Dallas Cowboys.

After losing starting Dak Prescott to injury midway through the 2024 season, Tolzien integrated Cooper Rush into the starting role, where he finished 4-4, including victories over playoff participants Washington and Tampa Bay, completing 187-of-308 (60.7 pct.) passes for 1,844 yards with 12 touchdowns and only five interceptions.

In Tolzien's first season as quarterbacks coach in 2023 after serving as an offensive assistant for three seasons (2020-22), Prescott finished second in MVP voting as he led the NFL in completions (410) and passing touchdowns (36), the only Cowboys quarterback to lead the NFL outright in passing scores, while finishing second in passer rating (105.9) and third in yards (4,516). Prescott also reduced his interception totals from 15 in 2022 to nine in 2023, and his interceptions percentage of 1.5% was fourth among all NFL passers. Perhaps most impressive was Prescott's command of the offense, as he engineered three game-winning drives, a higher total than in any single-season since 2018, when he led five such drives, and now has 23 in his career. He finished with the most 100.0-rating games (11) and multi-passing touchdown games (11) league-wide.

Utilizing his experience from a seven-year NFL playing career at quarterback serving as an offensive assistant in 2022 for a final season before his promotion, while working with the quarterbacks, Tolzien was instrumental in preparing Prescott and Rush. After Prescott suffered a thumb injury in Week One, Tolzien helped assemble the offensive game plan for Rush, who went 4-1 in his five starts in 2022 and became the first quarterback in franchise history to win his first five career starts. When Prescott returned to action in Week Seven against Detroit (10/23), Dallas' offense led the league in offensive points-per-game (31.3) and third down offense (52.3%) and was third in yards-per-game (384.3) for the rest of the season.

The Cowboys offense grew to new heights in 2021, leading the NFL in scoring (31.2), including a franchise-record 530 points, and yards (407.0) while also reaching the end zone on 28.6% of drives, sixth in the league. Tolzien's close work with Prescott saw the quarterback set a career-high and franchise-record 37 touchdowns passes and record a 100.0 passer rating in eight games, tied for second in single-season team history.

In his first season with Dallas in 2020, Tolzien assisted with an offensive unit that ranked in the top-10 of most primary statistical categories. Despite losing Prescott to injury, the Cowboys offense ranked seventh in the NFL in receiving yards (4,511), eighth in net passing yards (4,161) and tied for ninth in scrimmage yards (6,299).

Before becoming an NFL coach, Tolzien was given a brief introduction to off-field tasks in 2019 at his alma mater, Wisconsin, where he served as an analyst scouting opponents. The Badgers finished the season with a 10-4 record, including a Big Ten Championship Game appearance and Rose Bowl berth.

Tolzien enjoyed a seven-year NFL career, originally signing with the San Diego Chargers under Philip Rivers as a rookie free agent in 2011. Following his first two campaigns with the San Francisco 49ers (2011-12), which included two trips to the NFC Championship Game, he spent three seasons as a backup to Aaron Rodgers in Green Bay (2013-15), playing in six games with two starts and appeared in four games with two starts with the Indianapolis Colts from 2016-17.

Tolzien appeared in 29 games with 26 starts at Wisconsin, leaving with the school record for completion percentage (68.1) and efficiency rating (153.2). In his final season, 2010, he won the Johnny Unitas Gold Arm award, given annually to the top upperclassman quarterback in the country.

Tolzien was an All-State and All-Academic selection at William Fremd High School in Palatine, Ill.

He and his wife, Megan, have a son, Blake, and two daughters, Brooke and Caroline.

The 2024 Eagles

were only the second team in NFL history to rush for 3,000-plus yards and at least 25 (29) touchdowns. The Eagles passing attack also flourished, with a club-record 103.4 passer rating.

From 2020-22, Valero served as the Cowboys' quality control/analytics coach while assisting the team's wide receivers. In 2022, Valero helped Dallas rank fourth in the NFL in scoring (27.5 ppg) while mentoring CeeDee Lamb to top-six finishes among wide receivers with career highs at the time in receptions (107), receiving yards (1,359), and touchdowns (nine). During the 2021 campaign, Valero assisted in the offensive game-planning that helped produce the No. 1-ranked total offense (407.0 ypg) and scoring offense (31.2 ppg) in the league. Lamb also recorded his first 1,000-yard season (1,102) en route to Pro Bowl honors. In 2020, the Cowboys wide receiver corps finished third in the NFC in receiving yards (4,511) and first in receptions (413) despite undergoing four quarterback changes. Lamb set a Cowboys record for receptions by a rookie (74) while notching 934 yards, which stood as the second-most in team rookie history. Amari Cooper finished with a career-high 92 catches for 1,114 yards and five touchdowns.

Valero spent the 2019 season working as Dallas' assistant tight ends coach after assisting the wideouts during his first five years (2014-18) with the team. With the midseason acquisition of Cooper in 2018, Dallas excelled during the second half of the year by ranking third across the NFL in receptions (228) as well as fifth in receiving yards (2,468). In 2017, Valero supported a unit that featured Dez Bryant, who led the club in catches (69), receiving yards (838) and receiving touchdowns (six). In 2016, Dallas' receivers were led by Bryant, who earned his third Pro Bowls selection after leading the offense with eight touchdown receptions. In 2015, Terrence Williams stepped up in Bryant's absence due to injury and paced the team with a career-high 840 yards on 52 catches (16.2 avg.). Valero worked with a young group of receivers in 2014, which included Bryant, who caught 88 passes for 1,320 yards (eighth in the NFL) and a league-leading 16 touchdowns to garner Pro Bowl recognition.

Prior to joining the Cowboys, Valero spent four years on the Detroit Lions offensive staff, holding the titles of assistant wide receivers coach (2013) and offensive quality control coach (2010-12). During his time with Detroit, Valero worked with Pro Football Hall of Fame wideout Calvin Johnson. From 2010-13, Johnson was voted to his first four Pro Bowls and received three consecutive first-team AP All-Pro selections (2011-13). In 2012, Johnson established the NFL single-season record with 1,964 receiving yards.

Before starting his NFL coaching career in Detroit, Valero spent two seasons as a student assistant at Florida State (2008-09), where he earned a bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies.

McAfee first played for the Saints from 1991-1993, leading New Orleans in rushing as a rookie with a career-high 494 yards. That season the Saints won their first NFC West division title. Following a seven-game stint with the Arizona Cardinals in 1994, he was signed by the Pittsburgh Steelers later that season. He stayed with the Steelers until 1998 and served as their special teams captain for two seasons. McAfee rejoined the Saints in 2000 following a brief stint in Tampa Bay and was voted to the 2002 Pro Bowl for his stellar special teams play. The final game of his playing career was the 2006 regular season finale vs. the Carolina Panthers, and one of the final carries of McAfee's career was a six-yard burst for a touchdown in the third quarter. McAfee was selected to the Saints Hall of Fame in 2022, for his excellence on special teams.

Stanfield also oversees the clubs' high standards for customer service and retention.

Under his direction, the Saints have surpassed the majority of the club's ticket sales milestones, including selling out on a season-ticket basis for the first time in 2006 – a feat that has reached 19-straight seasons. Additionally, the club has also sold out every Caesars Superdome suite for 19 straight seasons. In 2021, 12 field level suites, sold out by Stanfield's staff, made a successful debut. Stanfield also supervises the ticket, suite sales and box office personnel on a daily basis, in addition to serving as the food and beverage service liaison.

Since Stanfield's arrival in 2000, the Saints have sold out every contest in New Orleans but one. Prior to the 2006 season, an innovative season-ticket marketing program fueled the rise of filling the stadium on a season-ticket basis. Fans on all economic levels were reached in an effort to retain existing accounts while cultivating new ones.

In his tenure with the Saints and Pelicans, Stanfield and his staff have consistently delivered elite service and exceptional value to all team partners and staff. They have maintained top performance across both leagues in all key categories while continuously developing top-tier sales personnel. Both clubs have also embraced numerous innovative practices, including AI-driven strategies, to enhance sales and drive growth.

In 2018 and 2019, the Saints were ranked first in Overall Gameday Satisfaction by the league, based on the NFL's Observation Program and third-party Expert Review Audits of all 32 clubs across eight categories. Under his leadership, the Saints have consistently ranked in the top eight in the NFL's customer service rankings. In 2020 and 2021, Stanfield empowered his staff to respond to the challenges of providing the safest and most pleasurable fan experience possible during the COVID-19 pandemic. In the annual league audits, the Saints have ranked among league leaders in categories such as safety, security and mobile ticketing based on recent successful adjustments.

While making fan experience a top priority, Stanfield has also been deeply involved in the extension and expansion of the already sizable corporate sponsorship base for both clubs, providing platforms for companies across the Gulf South and beyond to use the Saints to further their own business objectives. In recent years, Stanfield has directed the extension of long-term agreements with numerous valued partners like Caesars Entertainment, Cox Communications, Entergy and Verizon, as well as the expansion of the Ochsner Health System partnership to include naming rights for the Ochsner Sports Performance Center. In 2021, Stanfield and his staff finalized a ground-breaking 20-year naming rights deal for the Saints' iconic stadium with Caesars Entertainment.

A graduate of St. Leo (Fla.) University, Stanfield started his career in sports in 1988, working in minor league soccer, minor league hockey, minor league baseball, the MLB and the NBA. Stanfield served as the assistant general manager of the Clinton (Iowa), Class A minor league baseball team and attained impressive sales results. Before joining the Saints, Stanfield gained valuable sales experience with several major sports organizations, including the Florida Marlins, New York Yankees, Miami Heat, and Detroit Tigers.

Stanfield has also completed Stanford Business School's Executive Education NFL-Stanford Program for Managers, an educational program and honor known league-wide as an important training ground for promising executives. He currently serves on the People's Health Champion Selection Committee and on the advisory board for Archbishop Chapelle High School. A sports industry public speaker, Stanfield has given presentations at many national events. He is also an active speaker at numerous universities, youth foundations and professional groups both nationally and throughout the Gulf South.

His contributions on the field and his lasting impact on the school's athletic program solidified his place among its most distinguished alumni.

He and his wife Stacey, have one daughter, Olivia, a junior at the University of Alabama.

SENIOR FINANCIAL ADVISOR TO GAYLE BENSON

Ed Lang is in his first year as Senior Financial Advisor to Gayle Benson after serving 14 years as Senior Vice President/Chief Financial Officer for the Saints, Pelicans and GMB Management. In his new role, Lang leads the strategic coordination of Mrs. Benson's financial, investment, tax, and legacy planning initiatives. His key responsibilities include overseeing a diverse portfolio of investments—including real estate, private equity, and venture capital—to managing complex financial operations across her family of businesses and associated entities such as the Gayle Benson Automotive Team, GMB Properties, Benson Capital Partners and the Gayle and Tom Benson Charitable Foundation.

Entering his 15th season with the Benson organization, Lang was named Senior Vice President/Chief Financial Officer for the Saints and Pelicans in 2012. Lang oversaw the financial operations, as well as information technology, facilities and grounds departments for both clubs. He also served as a financial liaison with the Louisiana Stadium and Exposition District, which is responsible for the maintenance, management and enhancement of the playing facilities of the Saints and Pelicans. In addition to working with the LSED for multiple renovations and enhancements of the home venues for the teams since 2012, Lang has also supervised several expansions of the Ochsner Sports Performance Center, helping provide state of the art playing and practice facilities.

The Cincinnati, Ohio native first came to New Orleans in 2011, following 13 years with the National Hockey League's Nashville Predators in several different leadership capacities. For his last three years with the club, he served as the team's President of Business Operations after the successful sale of the team to a new ownership group. Lang, who was with the franchise at its inception, began as the organization's Vice President/CFO and was named Executive Vice President of Finance and Administration/CFO in 2005.

Instrumental in assisting the club's founder Craig Leipold in securing the expansion franchise that became the Predators in 1997, Lang was one of the club's first employees, playing an important role in creating the organization's structure and establishing its business operations. He was in charge of all aspects of the Predators operations outside of hockey, including Bridgestone Arena operations and development of the club's long-term plans and goals. He was responsible for the franchise's business operations, which included ticket operations and sales, sponsorship sales, broadcasting, marketing, communications and development, administration and finances.

Prior to joining the Predators organization, Lang worked for S.C. Johnson and Son in Racine, Wisconsin for 12 years. He served in a variety of business and financial capacities, including venture manager for the office of the chairman, financial support manager for North America professional markets, and financial project manager, corporate financial analysis.

In 2006, Lang was elected to the board of directors for Johnson Outdoors, a leader in the outdoor recreation market. The company designs, manufactures and markets a portfolio of winning, consumer-preferred brands across four categories: fishing, diving, watercraft, and outdoor equipment.

Lang serves as a board member of the Louisiana Children's Museum. He also previously served on the Loyola University New Orleans School of Business Visiting Committee and as a board member of the Southeast Louisiana Boy Scouts of America. Prior to moving to New Orleans, Lang was very active in the Middle Tennessee community. He served as Chairman of Nashville's Adventure Science Center in 2008-10, and as a member on numerous boards, including the Nashville Convention and Visitors Bureau, the Nashville Downtown Partnership, Make-A-Wish Foundation of Middle Tennessee and the Nashville Predators Foundation.

A 1985 Indiana University graduate with a B.S. in finance, Lang received his MBA from Marquette University in 1992. He is an outdoor enthusiast and has competed in numerous triathlons, marathons and cycling events. He also enjoys skiing and mountain climbing.

NFC Wild Card Playoff (Jan. 3, 1988) - Louisiana Superdome (68,127)

The Vikings spoiled the Saints' playoff debut by racing out to a 21-point lead at halftime and never looking back in a NFC Wild Card Playoff game at the Superdome. New Orleans struck first when QB Bobby Hebert found WR Eric Martin for a ten-yard TD pass early in the first quarter, but the Vikings answered with 24 consecutive points. The Saints scored their final points on a 40-yard FG by K Morten Andersen late in the first half. A "Hail Mary" TD pass from QB Wade Wilson to WR Hassan Jones as the second quarter ended pushed the Vikings lead to 31-10. The Saints were held without a rushing first down in the contest while only moving the chains nine times. Minnesota controlled the ball for over 41 minutes, posting 28 first downs and rushing for 210 yards in the victory.

CHICAGO BEARS 16 SAINTS 6

NFC Wild Card Playoff (Jan. 6, 1991) - Soldier Field (60,767)

In a clash between two of the NFL's top defenses, the Bears jumped ahead 10-0 and held off the Saints in a NFC Wild Card Playoff game at Soldier Field. The Bears went up 3-0 on a K Kevin Butler 33-yard FG after an interception. Chicago surged ahead by 10 points when QB Mike Tomczak connected with TE James Thornton on an 18-yard scoring pass. K Morten Andersen got the Saints on the scoreboard with a 47-yard FG with 1:38 remaining in the half. An offsides call on New Orleans nullified a 61-yard return of a blocked Bears FG attempt in the third quarter. Chicago took advantage on the reprieve, driving to set up a 22-yard field goal to give the Bears a 13-3 advantage midway through the third quarter. The teams traded FGs in the final quarter, with Andersen drilling a 38-yard kick and Butler connecting from 21 yards out to produce the winning margin. Chicago RB Neal Anderson rushed 27 times for 102 yards and hauled in four passes for 42 yards as the Bears rolled up 365 total yards to the Saints' 193 yards of offense.

Atlanta posted 10 unanswered points in the last 7:43 of the final quarter – including a 61-yard TD grab by WR Michael Haynes – to defeat the Saints, 27-20, in a Wild Card clash between division rivals. A TD pass from QB Bobby Hebert to WR Floyd Turner gave New Orleans a 7-0 advantage and K Morten Andersen increased the lead with a 45-yard FG. The Falcons got on the board when QB Chris Miller found WR Andre Rison for a 24-yard TD pass in the second quarter. K Norm Johnson's 44-yard FG with 0:37 left in the first half tied the score, but the Saints responded with a 35-yard FG by Andersen for a 13-10 advantage at halftime. SAINTS 27 PHILADELPHIA EAGLES 24

NFC Divisional Playoff (Jan. 13, 2007) - Louisiana Superdome (70,001)

RB Deuce McAllister set a team playoff record with 143 rushing yards, leading the Saints to a come-from-behind victory over Philadelphia in the NFC Divisional Playoffs. McAllister, making his first NFL postseason appearance, rushed for one touchdown and caught another. New Orleans took the early lead after a pair of field goals, but Philadelphia struck on a 75-yard touchdown pass in the second quarter. The Saints responded with a lengthy drive capped by a four-yard TD burst by RB Reggie Bush, but the Eagles took a lead into halftime after an 80-yard touchdown drive. Philadelphia RB Brian Westbrook shook loose for a 65-yard touchdown run to open the second half, giving the Eagles a 21-13 advantage. But McAllister put the Saints ahead by capping the next two drives with a five-yard scoring run and an 11-yard touchdown reception. Philadelphia added a field goal in the final quarter, but the Saints forced a punt on the Eagles' final possession, and the offense picked up a key first down to run out the clock and preserve the victory.

CHICAGO BEARS 39 SAINTS 14

NFC Conference Championship (Jan. 21, 2007) - Soldier Field (61,817)

In the club's first appearance in the NFC Championship Game, after trailing 16-0 the Saints sliced the Bears' lead to two points and were behind by only four early in the fourth quarter, but four turnovers proved too difficult to overcome. A fumble led to Chicago's first field goal late in the first quarter, and another fumble on the ensuing kickoff added another three-pointer for the Bears a few minutes later. Chicago would drive for a field goal in the second quarter to go ahead 9-0 and march for a TD on its next drive to take a 16-0 lead. The Saints would get on the scoreboard when WR Marques Colston hauled in a 13-yard touchdown with 51 seconds remaining in the first half. Chicago's lead shrunk to 16-14 when RB Reggie Bush scored on an 88-yard TD early in the second half. But QB Drew Brees was flagged for intentional grounding in the end zone for a safety later in the third quarter, and the Bears wore down the Saints in the fourth quarter following a pair of New Orleans turnovers and after the Saints failed to convert on two fourth-down attempts.

Facing a defending Super Bowl champion in the postseason for the first time since 2000, the Saints knocked off the early rust of a 14-0 first quarter deficit to score 20 unanswered points for the remaining scoring in the contest. On the first play from scrimmage, a long pass attempt by QB Drew Brees intended for WR Ted Ginn Jr. was intercepted by Eagles CB Cre'Veon LeBlanc. Philadelphia QB Nick Foles then engineered a seven-play, 76-yard drive that ended with a 37-yard TD pass to WR Jordan Matthews. Philadelphia and New Orleans then traded touchdowns and K Wil Lutz drilled a 45-yard field goal with six seconds left in the first half to put the Saints within four points. In the third quarter, New Orleans pulled to a 17-14 lead on a two-yard TD pass from Brees to WR Michael Thomas on an 18-play, 92-yard drive. Behind 20-14, Foles brought the Eagles close to scoring territory late in the fourth quarter, but CB Marshon Lattimore's second interception sealed the win.

SAINTS 21 CHICAGO BEARS 9

NFC Wild Card Playoff (Jan. 10, 2021) - Mercedes-Benz Superdome (3,000)

QB Drew Brees threw a pair of touchdown passes to WR Michael Thomas and RB Latavius Murray, and the Saints defense held the Bears to only nine points and 239 total net yards, the lowest opponent totals in the team's playoff history. The Saints led 7-3 entering the third quarter, when after forcing a punt and consumed 7:29, while driving to the Bears eight-yard line. After Murray rushed for two yards, Brees then found the running back on a six-yard touchdown to give New Orleans a 14-3 lead. After forcing a three-and-out, Brees engineered a 15-play, 64-yard drive that took 8:51 and ended with a three-yard rushing TD by RB Alvin Kamara. The Saints then forced another three-and-out and drove to the one-yard line on the next drive, where a fourth-and-one Brees dive did not reach the end zone with 2:19 left in the fourth quarter. Although Bears QB Mitchell Trubisky connected on a 19-yard touchdown to TE Jimmy Graham as time expired, the gritty effort would be enough for New Orleans to advance to the divisional round.

JIM FINKS
PRESIDENT/GENERAL MANAGER

BORN: 8/31/27 DIED: 5/8/94
COLLEGE: TULSA '49
PLAYER: 1949-55
GENERAL MANAGER: 1964-93
SAINTS PRESIDENT/GENERAL MANAGER: 1986-93
YEAR INDUCTED: 1995

On July 29, 1995, an illustrious career as a football administrator was capped when Jim Finks was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. Finks' posthumous election to the Hall was the ultimate honor in a career full of significant accomplishments.

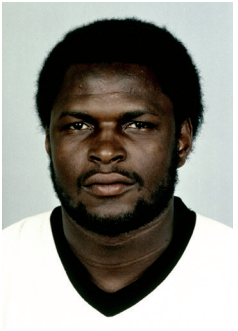

Finks was named president/general manager of the Saints on Jan. 14, 1986 by Owner Tom Benson. As Benson's first major hire since purchasing the team in 1985, Finks brought with him a portfolio of success as a player, coach, scout and administrator that had spanned 37 years in sports.

Much like his prior stints as general manager with the Minnesota Vikings and Chicago Bears, Finks' final stop would also be a success. Hiring head coach Jim Mora and picking impact players in guard/tackle Jim Dombrowski, running backs Dalton Hilliard and Rueben Mayes and linebacker Pat Swilling in his first draft, a franchise that had not achieved a winning season in 20 years logged a 12-3 mark in 1987, second-best in the NFL and went on to their first-ever playoff game. Finks' presence was apparent and recognized as he was named The Sporting News NFL Executive of the Year.

Under Finks' leadership, the Saints would continue to have success, winning their first division title in 1991 as the NFC West championship flag flew in New Orleans for the first time. However, shortly after his final draft in 1993, where he mined a future Pro Football Hall of Fame selection in tackle William Roaf, Finks would be forced to resign due to a valiant fight with lung cancer that would claim his life on May 8, 1994. Overall from 1986-92, the Saints would win 60 percent of their regular season games and enjoy a streak of six consecutive non-losing years. Over that period, only two other NFL teams had the same accomplishment.

Prior to coming to New Orleans, Finks served as general manager of the Chicago Bears from 1974-83, where he constructed one of the NFL's most dominating teams. Before his departure, Finks would acquire 19 of the 22 starters for a Bears team that compiled a 15-1 record in 1985 and crushed New England in Super Bowl XX. During his 10-year tenure in Minnesota, Finks hired then-unkown Bud Grant as head coach and the Vikings followed with a string of five NFC Central crowns and two Super Bowl appearances.

The Salem, Ill. native played quarterback at Tulsa University and was a 12th round selection of the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1949. Finks played defensive back until 1952, when he became the Steelers' starting quarterback and went to the Pro Bowl. After retiring as an NFL player following the 1955 season, he served as an assistant coach for two seasons before beginning his career as an administrator as the general manager of Calgary of the Canadian Football League in 1958.

LINEBACKER

BORN: 3/20/58
COLLEGE: PITTSBURGH
NFL: 1981-95
SAINTS: 1981-93
YEAR INDUCTED: 2010

One of the most productive linebackers in National Football League history, Rickey Jackson served as the linchpin of one of the most dominant linebacker corps the league has ever seen. He became the first player to have spent the majority of his career with New Orleans to have been selected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

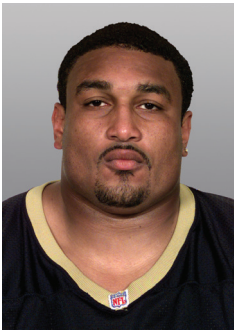

The Pahokee, Fla. native had an outstanding college career at Pittsburgh and was picked in the second round (51st overall) by the Saints in the 1981 NFL Draft. Jackson appeared in 227 regular season games, starting 225 during 15 NFL seasons, 13 of with the Saints. With 115 sacks as a Saint, he was the club's all-time leader until the end of the 2022 season. Jackson led the club in takedowns six times. He missed only two contests out of a possible 229 regular season games in his career.

Jackson finished his career with 128 sacks, (his eight sacks in his rookie season of 1981 are not included since sacks did not become an official statistic until 1982) ranked tenth all-time in NFL history. He is also the franchise's all-time leader in fumble recoveries with 26.

As a show of respect by opposing coaches and players for his dominating pass rush abilities and sideline to sideline play, Jackson was named to the Pro Bowl six times (1983-86, 1992-93) in his career, tied for the third-most by a Saint. He was an All-Pro selection six times (1984-87, 1992-93). After failing to post a winning campaign in the franchise's first 18 seasons, Jackson's Saints did not have a losing season in his final seven campaigns with the club from 1987-93, qualifying for the playoffs four times during this period.

Jackson would close out his NFL career with San Francisco from 1994-95, earning a championship ring as part of the Super Bowl XXIX winners. Jackson retired as a Saint in 1996. He was inducted into the New Orleans Saints Hall of Fame in 1997 and to the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame in 1999. In 2013, he was inducted into the New Orleans Saints Ring of Honor and in 2016 was named to the franchise's All-50th team.

BORN: 4/18/70
COLLEGE: LOUISIANA TECH
NFL: 1993-2005
SAINTS: 1993-2001
YEAR INDUCTED: 2012

One of the most accomplished tackles in National Football League history, William Roaf was the anchor of the Saints offensive line for nine seasons. Coming out of Louisiana Tech in 1993, Roaf was picked by the Saints with the eighth overall choice in the 1993 NFL Draft.

The Pine Bluff, Ark. native was immediately inserted by head coach Jim Mora into the starting lineup at right tackle, where he would start every contest and was selected to several All-Rookie teams. The 6-5, 312-pounder moved to the left side in his second season where he was named a Pro Bowl starter and Associated Press first-team All-Pro, which would begin a 12-year stretch as one of the most dominant left tackles in NFL history.

During his nine seasons with the Saints, Roaf was named to the Pro Bowl seven consecutive times (1994-2000), the second-most appearances ever by a Saint. Following a trade to the Kansas City Chiefs in 2002, he would be selected four more times, totaling 11 total selections, tied for the most nominations by a tackle in league history with Anthony Munoz and Jonathan Ogden. He also was an eight-time AP All-Pro selection, with four selections from each club. Overall, Roaf started all 189 regular season games and three postseason contests he appeared in for the Saints and Chiefs.

Roaf received one of football's highest honors as he was named to the NFL's All-Decade teams of the 1990's and 2000's, voted on by the Pro Football Hall of Fame selection committee. He was a first-team selection for the 1990's squad and a second-team choice on the 2000's roster, making him one of only 16 players since the AFL-NFL merger to be named to two All-Decade rosters. Additionally, Roaf was named to the Saints Hall of Fame in 2008 and is a member of the Louisiana and Arkansas Sports Hall of Fames. In 2013, he was inducted into the New Orleans Saints Ring of Honor. In 2014, he was elected to the College Football Hall of Fame and in 2016 was named to the franchise's All-50th team.

( ) - number of multiple selections to honor as a Saint

1967 EXPANSION DRAFT

Held Feb. 10, 1967

In what became the foundation of New Orleans' first team, the Saints selected 42 players in an expansion draft, using the same procedures as in the formation of the Atlanta Falcons in 1966. The Falcons were exempted from the expansion draft in 1967, thus leaving 14 teams from whom the Saints selected players. The procedures that were in place for the Saints were as follows: Each of the other 14 NFL teams froze 29 players from its 40-man roster, leaving 11 players available to be selected. The Saints chose one player from those 11 remaining on each team. Then, each team froze two additional players, leaving eight on each list, from which the Saints chose two more.
