NEW ORLEANS SAINTS

ATLANTA FALCONS (1-2) VS. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS (1-2)

GAME #4 MONDAY, OCTOBER 5, 2026 - 7:15 P.M. (CST)
CAESARS SUPERDOME - NEW ORLEANS, LA.

THE MATCHUP

The New Orleans Saints (1-2) will continue their three-game homestand against the Atlanta Falcons (1-2), as New Orleans starts division play. With the Saints, Falcons and Panthers all at 1-2, the Saints will look to even their record and remain in at least a tie for first place in the NFC South. New Orleans will also be looking to even up the all-time regular season series against Atlanta at 57-57.

The Saints will be looking to avenge a series sweep at the hands of the Falcons, as they play in their first Monday Night Football game at the Caesars Superdome since 2022.

In Week Three, the Saints didn't capitalize on their winning moments and fell to the Las Vegas Raiders, 35-27. QB Tyler Shough completed 29-of-42 passes for 255 yards and a career-high four passing touchdowns, also rushing once for a career-long 26 yards. The second-year veteran produced five total touchdowns, the first time a Saint accounted for that many since the 2021 season opener.

The Saints produced a season-high three scoring drives of at least 10 plays against the Raiders, marking seven ten-play scoring drives on the season. The Black and Gold also scored touchdowns on four-of-four red zone trips. Through the first thre games of the season, the Saints rank third in the NFL in red zone touchdown percentage.

WR Chris Olave caught nine passes for 107 yards, the 14th time he reached the 100-yard mark in his career. Tight ends Noah Fant and Juwan Johnson caught two touchdowns apiece, the duo accounting for six scoring grabs through three games after the whole position group caught only four in 2025.

The New Orleans defense forced the Raiders to kick field goals three times. Edge rusher Chase Young's two quarterback takedowns, one that forced a fumble, led the team as his 3.5 sacks through Week Three are tied for fourth in the NFL. Young's 13.5 takedowns since Week Six of the 2025 campaign rank second in the league. In the second quarter, DL Khristian Boyd sacked QB Kirk Cousins, marking the first takedown of his career.

LB Kaden Elliss led the Saints with nine tackles (four solo), including one stop for loss. Elliss now leads the Black and Gold with 24 stops this season. On Monday night, Elliss, who has experienced both sides of the Atlanta-New Orleans rivalry, will face his former team, which he played for the last three campaigns, exceeding the century mark in stops each time.

THE HEAD COACHES

Named the 19th head coach in New Orleans Saints history on February 11, 2025, Kellen Moore joined the Black and Gold after serving as the offensive coordinator for the Philadelphia Eagles in 2024. In his first season at the helm in New Orleans, Moore rallied the team from a 2-10 start to win four of the final five games. The Saints went 4-0 in the month of December, going undefeated in the month for the first time since 2011 and only the third time in franchise history. Moore put his imprint on the team in year one on offense, mixing a combination of rookie QB Tyler Shough, protected by a pair of promising young tackles in Kelvin Banks Jr. and Taliese Fuaga, along with WR Chris Olave and TE Juwan Johnson. Including Shough and Banks, whose 1,066 snaps on offense was a club-high to earn PFWA All-Rookie honors. Moore and his staff successfully integrated a total of five rookies into the starting lineup and important rotational roles. Before joining the Eagles in 2024, where the Super Bowl LIX champions ranked eighth in net yards per game (367.2), seventh in points per game (27.2) and second in rushing yards per game (179.3), Moore served as offensive coordinator of the Los Angeles Chargers in 2023 and the Dallas Cowboys from 2019-22 after starting his coaching career as quarterbacks coach in Dallas in 2018. In four seasons as offensive coordinator of the Cowboys, Moore's unit ranked second in the NFL in total offense (391.0 net yards per game) and scoring (27.7 points per game). The Dallas offense was also the league's fourth-best passing offense (264.4 net yards per game) and ranked seventh in rushing offense (126.6 yards per game) over that span.

Moore played quarterback at Boise State (2007-11) before playing six seasons in the National Football League with the Detroit Lions (2012-14) and Dallas Cowboys (2015-17).

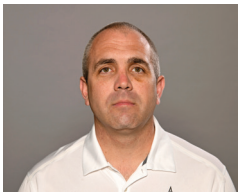

Personal: Born July 5, 1988, in Prosser, Washington. He and his wife, Julie, have two daughters, Halle and Madelyn, and two sons, Kyler and Beckham. His younger brother, Kirby, is the head coach at Washington State.

Kevin Stefanski was named the 20th head coach in Atlanta Falcons history on Jan. 17, 2026. He takes over the club after spending the previous six seasons (2020-25) as the head caoch for the Cleveland Browns. Two-time AP Coach of the Year, Stefanski became the 16th coach to win the award multiple times since its inception in 1957, winning the honors in 2023 and 2020. In his six seasons as head caoch in Cleveland, Stefanski has led the team to two postseason appearances and two 11-win seasons, leading the Browns to the playoffs for the first time since 2002 and their first playoff win since 1994 with an 11-5 record in 2020, their best since 1994. He joined Pro Football Hall of Famer Paul Brown (1951 and 1953) as the only coaches in team history to record multiple seasons with at least 11 regular season wins. In 2023, the Browns made the playoffs and finished 11-6. During his tenure in Cleveland, his teams were consistently one of the league's best rushing units with three top-six finishes in average rush yards per game. During the Browns' 78-year history, the team has surpassed 6,000 scrimmage yards in a single season just seven times but reached the mark in four seasons under Stefanski. Since 2020, the Browns are fifth in the NFL with an average of 130.5 rushing yards per game. Defensively, the Browns were third in the NFL with an average of 322.3 yards per game allowed under Stefanski, including just 204.1 passing yards allowed, the second-fewest since 2020. Stefanski helped several Browns earn individual honors as DE Myles Garrett and RT Jack Conklin were named first-team All-Pros, while G Joel Bitonio and G Wyatt Teller each earned second team honors. Garrett, Bitonio and RB Nick Chubb were selected to the Pro Bowl in 2022. In 2021, the Browns led the NFL in rushing average with a 5.09 mark, which helped Chubb finish second in the league in rushing yards. Prior to his time in Cleveland, Stefanski spent 14 seasons with the MInnesota VIkings, rising from assistant to the head coach to offensive coordinator during that span.

The Philadelphia native played defensive back at Pennsylvania (2000-04 and earned a bachelor's degree in communications.

COORDINATOR CORNER

SPECIAL TEAMS COORD. PHIL GALIANO

Phil Galiano is in his second full season as the Saints' special teams coordinator. A coaching veteran with 26 years of experience, including ten in the NFL, Galiano spent six seasons (2019-24) as New Orleans' assistant special teams coach before taking over coordinator duties full-time in 2025.

In 2026, Galiano will shepherd a special teams unit featuring a new kicker (Daniel Carlson), a new punter (Ryan Wright) and additions in the return game.

In Galiano's first full season leading the Saints special teams, defensive tackle Nathan Shepherd was named the Week Ten recipient of NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors, after he blocked Carolina's 48-yard attempt. Defensive tackle Bryan Bresee had the team's first blocked field goal in Week One against Arizona. Galiano retooled a coverage unit that had their top six tacklers new to the Saints leaderboard from 2024 into 2025, led by linebacker Isaiah Stalbird, who led the club with six stops.

Galiano's work from 2019-24 with Darren Rizzi, who served as coordinator, helped make the kicking game an important key to victory for New Orleans. On coverage units, J.T. Gray's 93 tackles ranked first in the NFL during that span, with the special teams ace selected as an Associated Press All-Pro three times. The punting game also produced the top five seasons in club history for punts inside-the-20-yard line. Since 2019, the Saints have excelled in the return game. Over the seven-season period, the team has been ranked sixth in the National Football League in punt return average (10.3) and are tied for fourth in the leauge with three punts returned for touchdowns.

A three-year starter at safety for Shippensburg, Galiano served as a tri-captain during his senior campaign. He helped lead the Raiders to consecutive winning seasons (1997-99). The Norristown, Pa. native graduated with a degree in business administration.

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR DOUG NUSSMEIER

Doug Nussmeier enters his second season as New Orleans' offensive coordinator in 2026, marking his 11th campaign in the NFL coaching ranks and 12th overall as an offensive coordinator at the NFL and collegiate levels.

A 25-year coaching veteran, Nussmeier returned to New Orleans in 2025 after originally being a fourth round pick (116th overall) of the Saints in the 1994 NFL Draft out of Idaho, playing four seasons with the Black and Gold. He re-joined the Saints after spending the 2024 season as quarterbacks coach of the Philadelphia Eagles.

In his first season with the Saints coaching staff in 2025, Nussmeier helped the offensive improve steadily throughout the season. Nussmeier and Head Coach Kellen Moore devised a scheme behind rookie signal-caller Tyler Shough that accentuated his abilities and helped the Black and Gold finish the season 5-4. Depite having only nine starts, Shough completeed 221-of-327 passes (67.6 pct.) for 2,384 yards with ten touchdowns and a 91.3 passer rating, while leading the team in rushing touchdowns to accentuate his athleticism and earn PFWA All-Rookie. By season's end, the Saints had a pair of players - WR Chris Olave and TE Juwan Johnson - for the first time since the 2016 season.

Nussmeier finished his college playing career at the University of Idaho as the program's all-time leading passer with 10,824 career passing yards over five years (1989-93). He won the Walter Payton Award in 1993, which was at the time given annually to the top player in NCAA Division 1-AA after throwing for a program-record 33 touchdown passes and leading the Vandals to a national semifinal berth. Nussmeier was named Big Sky Conference Offensive Player of the Year in 1992 and was inducted into the University of Idaho Athletic Hall of Fame in 2008.

A Portland, Ore. native, Nussmeier and his wife, Christi, have two sons, Garrett and Colton, and a daughter, Ashlynn. Garrett played quarterback at LSU from 2021-25 and was a seventh-round pick of the Kansas City Chiefs in the 2026 NFL Draft.

SEASON SERIES HISTORY

The Saints trail the regular season series against the Falcons, 57-56, with New Orleans holding a 26-14 advantage over the Falcons since 2006, but looking to avenge a 2025 series sweep. Since 1991, 39 games have been decided by eight points or less. The Falcons had a 10-game winning streak from 1995-99, which remains the Saints' longest winless streak against an opponent. New Orleans took 13-of-16 in the rivalry from 1986-94 and Atlanta won nine-straight over the fledgling Saints from 1969-73. Atlanta's most recent mastery over a five-year period ended with a 21-19 win for New Orleans at the Georgia Dome on Nov. 22, 2000. Eight games in the series have gone into overtime.

LAST MEETING

Atlanta Falcons 19, New Orleans Saints 17; January 4, 2026 @ Mercedes-Benz Stadium -

For the first time in more than a month, the Saints couldn't outmanuever the math. The mixture of a lost fumble, a punt blocked, a missed 56-yard field goal attempt, an interception and an offensive pass interference penalty in the end zone to negate a touchdown - stirred in with a lengthy list of missing offensive players - provided more hurdles than the Saints could clear in a 19-17 loss to the Falcons in the finale at Mercedes-Benz Stadium.

But it wasn't because the Saints (6-11) didn't try, and it didn't dampen the prevailing optimism that surrounds the franchise entering the offseason.

While attempting to win their fifth straight game, the Saints stalked the Falcons (8-9) until time and opportunity evaporated on the season, which concluded with New Orleans holding fourth place in the NFC South while Carolina (8-9) claimed the crown.

The Saints got another strong, poised performance from their rookie quarterback (Tyler Shough completed 23 of 35 passes for 259 yards and a touchdown, with the interception, and three carries for 34 yards and a touchdown).

And they received the final installment in an eight-game string of stout defensive performances - 49 rushing yards allowed on 25 carries and 208 yards allowed total, 10 in 14 third-down attempts, an interception by Carl Granderson), four sacks (Granderson and Chase Young 1.5 each, Cam Jordan one), nine tackles for loss and eight pass breakups.

The Saints allowed 15.4 points per game over the final eight as they won five of them, and went 5-4 in games Shough started.

"Our guys battled," Saints Head Coach Kellen Moore said. "I thought the defense played some outstanding football out there, we just weren't able to quite get it done. We were close. A bunch of guys took advantage of some opportunities out there. Overall there's a little bit of reflection in the sense that we're really proud of this group, the way they've stuck together and battled each and every way, all the way down to the very end of this game."

New Orleans never led or tied in the contest, but nipped at the Falcons' heels for all four quarters despite entering the games without its top five receivers, top three running backs, left guard and starting center. They also lost T Kelvin Banks Jr. during the game.

The Saints forced a punt on the opening possession (Granderson and Young shared a sack on third down), but the defense soon was back on the field when Juwan Johnson fumbled during a 19-yard catch-and-run, with Atlanta S Xavier Watts recovering and returning it five yards to the Saints' 39.

The defense responded again; Atlanta drove to the 12 in seven plays, where on first-and-10, Falcons QB Kirk Cousins eyed a screen pass to the right that Granderson detected and made a diving interception of the short throw at the 14.

The team traded punts, then the Falcons blocked Kai Kroeger's punt on fourth-and-8 from the Saints' 13-yard line, with Atlanta recovering at the 5. After a 10-yard penalty and incomplete pass, Cousins connected with Drake London on a 15-yard touchdown for a 7-0 falcons lead.

Saints Charlie Smyth missed his 56-yard attempt and the Falcons added a field goal in the second quarter before New Orleans constructed a 100-play, 65-yard touchdown drive that ended on Shough's 1-yard run around right end with 4:31 left in the half, pulling the Saints to within 10-7.

The teams swapped field goals in the third quarter, and the Falcons added two more field goals in the fourth - the second, following Shough's interception - to take a 19-10 lead with 2:52 remaining.

Shough then led New Orleans on a seven-play, 65-yard touchdown drive that ended on a 16-yard throw to Ronnie Bell, who made a one-handed, lefthanded catch in the back left of the end zone while his right hand was being held.

That pulled New Orleans to within 19-17 with 71 seconds left, but the Saints no timeouts and when Atlanta recovered the onside kick, the Falcons walked away with a season series sweep.

Smyth kicked a 29-yard field goal in the third; Shough threw a one-yard touchdown pass to Kevin Austin on fourth down, but it was nullified on a penalty. Instead of a 14-13 lead, the Saints trailed 13-10.

Still, New Orleans left the field with an even more definitive portrait of its starting quarterback entering the future.

"I love what Tyler has done," Moore said. "His development, his growth, his ability to learn from each and every experience, he's put a ton of good football out there. We're all going to continue to try and improve and get better, collectively as a football team and certainly individually."

"I'm excited for what he'll have for this offseason. i think always having a full offseason is a huge benefit for guys just to kind of step away for a second, look at it. You get to watch a ton of film that you get to evaluate and then go from there."

GAME SUMMARIES

WEEK 1: Detroit Lions 31, Saints 30; September 13 @ Ford Field - Tyler Shough chose the worst day of his young NFL career to post the best day of his NFL career, and it was nearly enough for the New Orleans Saints to pull off one of the most improbable comebacks in franchise history.

But after rallying from a 21-0 deficit in the third quarter the Saints fell just short in a 31-30, overtime loss to the Lions in the season opener on Sunday at Ford Field in Detroit.

"The defense did a lot of good things in the first half, they competed, they battled. They kept that offense from scoring for the most part," Saints Coach Kellen Moore said. "I think in the second half we started slow again on offense ... I think we finally got to that point where we started executing, and I think that allowed us to use some tempo offense to get some more plays to get the ball downfield. ... I think in all three phases we are going to have some stuff we liked and some stuff we've just got to get better at."

Shough, in his second season and 10th start, completed 10 of 22 passes for 85 yards and an interception in the first half, after which the Saints trailed 7-0. And he committed turnovers on consecutive possessions in the third quarter – an interception and lost fumble – that helped the Lions post short-field touchdown drives (41 and 25 yards) to take the three-touchdown lead with 8:54 left in the third.

But Shough and the offense created momentum on New Orleans' next drive with a scrambling, 47-yard completion to Chris Olave and from there, he was on a heater. He completed 25 of 34 passes in the second half and overtime, for 325 yards and three touchdowns, as the Saints climbed until they tied the game at 24-24 at the end of regulation.

Shough's 410 passing yards was a career high, and Olave, a second-team All-Pro last year, caught 10 passes for 182 yards as New Orleans scored on four consecutive possessions – three touchdowns and a field goal – before driving and to leave kicker Daniel Carlson in position to end the game on a 62-yard field goal attempt as time expired in regulation.

The kick attempt, which would have been a career best for Carlson, was short and wide right.

The Saints were undeterred.

They won the overtime coin toss, deferred, watched the Lions drive 70 yards in 10 plays to take a 31-24 lead, then mounted their own touchdown drive – 10 plays, 80 yards, including a 20-yard completion to Olave on fourth-and-3 from their own 27 to keep the march alive. Shough's 8-yard touchdown pass to tight end Noah Fant pulled the Saints to within 31-30 with 1:34 left and from there, they went for two.

.the winning two-point conversion. But Shough's pass attempt for Bryce Lance sailed out of the back right corner of the end zone, and the comeback fell short.

"I was proud of how we fought as a team and regardless of the adversity or circumstances we kept going ," Shough said. "I just got to play better in the first half. We've got to player better as an offense, get a rhythm going. ...Credit to them, they had some unscouted looks, obviously, it's the first game, there is going to be some new looks. We just have to be able to handle that swing better. It was a good fight to the end."

The total points allowed didn't speak well for the defense, but also it didn't tell the complete story. In the first half, little more could have been demanded or provided by the unit. It allowed a 13-play, 89-yard touchdown drive, but otherwise, it surrendered just 72 yards and appeared to have scored a second-quarter touchdown of its own, until the play was reversed on replay.

On third-and-16 from the Detroit 32-yard line, Saints edge Chase Young blazed around the right end and appeared to sack Lions quarterback Jared Goff. In the process Young forced a fumble that, after a scramble, was recovered by safety Jonas Sanker and returned 7 yards for a touchdown with 9:31 left in the half.

But replay reviewed the fumble, ruled that Goff intended a forward pass, and reversed the play. Goff was charged with an incompletion and Detroit was allowed to punt.

The defense actually did produce a turnover – following a replay, ironically – on Detroit's next possession. After the Saints were forced to punt following Detroit's non-fumble, the Lions took over with first down at the New Orleans 44.

Goff completed a short, 4-yard pass to running back Jahmyr Gibbs and as Gibbs shimmied and attempted to advance forward, defensive tackle Vernon Broughton smashed him from the blind side and ripped away the ball as they fell to the turf. Gibbs initially was ruled down by contact but after review, it was determined that the football was dislodged before Gibbs' knee was down. The Saints were successful on the challenge, and took possession at their 40-yard line with 7:40 left in the half.

The jubilation was short-lived. Five plays later, on second-and-6 from the Lions 40, Shough and Fant got their signals crossed and Shough's pass attempt went directly to Detroit safety Chuck Clark, who returned it 1 yard to the 36. The teams exchanged punts before the Lions ran out the final 20 seconds of the half.

WEEK 2: New Orleans Saints 24, Baltimore Ravens 17; September 20 @ M&T Bank Stadium - Scared money doesn't make money, and if the New Orleans Saints have shown nothing else in the first two weeks of the regular season, it's that they're not scared money in the 2026 season.

A week after going for a two-point conversion and the win in an overtime road loss to Detroit, Saints Head Coach Kellen Moore rolled the dice on fourth-and-goal from the 1 with 92 seconds left in a 17-17 game against the Ravens at M&T Stadium in Baltimore.

"Fortunate for us to get that. Obviously was gonna go for it in that situation – a chance to score a touchdown, (and) if not, we're forcing them to be on the minus one and go the long way," Moore said. "But it felt like we could get it done there."

New Orleans quarterback Tyler Shough strained, muscled and was shoved across the goal line plane – a call that withstood the replay official's review – and that score stood as the game winner when safety Julian Blackmon intercepted Lamar Jackson's pass at the Saints' seven-yard line with 13 seconds left.

New Orleans (1-1) offered another riveting performance and this time, all three phases played a significant role as the Saints eliminated the turnovers (from three against the Lions in the season opener to none Sunday) and shrunk the penalties to five, for 35 yards.

Shough completed 27 of 34 passes for 252 yards and one touchdown, ran for 23 yards and one touchdown and received big-time assistance from his offensive line (which lost left tackle Kelvin Banks Jr. to an ankle injury with 2:02 remaining in the third quarter), receiver Chris Olave (eight catches for 86 yards and a touchdown) and tight end Juwan Johnson (four catches, 66 yards), who made several critical catches in the second half.

Defensively, the Saints sacked the elusive Jackson three times (1.5 by explosive edge rusher Chase Young), held the Ravens to only one field goal in the second half and clamped down for four quarters: A week after the Ravens posted 41 points and 500-plus yards, they were limited to 17 points and 312 total net yards.

On special teams, Daniel Carlson made all three field goal attempts (23, 47 and 51 yards), rookie receiver Barion Brown had a 53-yard kickoff return to set up a field goal that pulled New Orleans to within 14-6 at halftime, and recently-signed long snapper Scott Daly was flawless in his Saints debut.

All in all, it was the kind of performance – on the road, against a quality opponent – that the Saints have believed themselves capable of rendering since they began OTAs.

As was the case in the opener against the Lions, New Orleans trailed by one score at halftime; 14-6 against the Ravens after 7-0 versus the Lions. And, again defensively, New Orleans did what it could to keep an explosive offensive off the scoreboard.

The Ravens' touchdowns came courtesy of a 1-yard run by Derrick Henry and a 23-yard pass from Jackson to Rashod Bateman with 24 seconds left in the half to give Baltimore a 14-3.

But Brown returned the kickoff 53 yards to the Baltimore 44-yard line, Shough ran for 2 yards and completed a 13-yard pass to Devaughn Vele to set up Carlson's 47-yard field goal as time expired in the half.

Both Shough and Jackson were precise in the first half; Shough completed 12 of 15 for 102 yards, and Jackson connected on 13 of 16 for 171 yards and the touchdown. Vele caught three passes for 53 yards in the half.

The Saints helped bottle themselves up with three penalties (for 25 yards), and three plays that were tackled for loss. One of those was a fumbled toss attributed to Shough, but recovered by running back Travis Etienne Jr. for a 7-yard loss.

Those errors mainly disappeared in the second half, when the Saints outscored Baltimore 18-3 and scored on three of four possessions – two touchdowns, a two-point conversion run by Etienne and a field goal from Carlson.

WEEK 3: Las Vegas Raiders 35, Saints 27; September 27 @ Caesars Superdome - The speed with which the unraveling occurred was "warp."

Each of the New Orleans Saints' four fourth-quarter possessions resulted in a turnover Sunday against the Raiders in the Caesars Superdome: Lost fumble, interception, lost fumble and lost fumble. And what had been a 27-22 lead entering the final 15 minutes became a heavily-assisted, 13-point close for the Raiders in a 35-27 victory that dropped New Orleans (1-2) below .500 and kept Las Vegas (3-0) undefeated.

"I thought we fell short in all three phases," safety Justin Reid said. "There's a couple of plays I fell short. I thought that we played a lot of good football and I thought there were some plays we just left short out there in all three phases. We just can't do that. We had a lot of good things going.

"We're going to learn from this and we're not going to get too down on ourselves, but a lot of guys are upset, a lot of guys are pissed off. I'm pissed off right now. That's OK, because we have high standards for ourselves, we have high standards for what we can do and we're going to step up to the occasion next time."

The standards were being met for a good portion of Sunday's game, New Orleans' home opener.

The Saints posted their first first-quarter score of the season – a 2-yard touchdown pass from Tyler Shough to tight end Juwan Johnson – and led 6-3 at the end of the first quarter. And even though the Saints trailed 16-13 at halftime, the offense appeared sharp early with two lengthy touchdown drives (79 yards on 13 plays on the touchdown pass to Johnson, and 72 yards on 10 plays leading to a 3-yard touchdown pass to tight end Noah Fant).

Two more touchdown passes to the tight ends in the third quarter – 1 yard to Johnson and 16 to Fant – allowed Shough (29 of 42 for 255 yards and four touchdowns, with an interception and two lost fumbles) to post his single-game high for touchdown passes and gave New Orleans tight ends as many touchdown receptions Sunday (four) as the position generated all last season in 17 games.

But after the Saints took a 27-16 lead on the 16-yarder to Fant with 5:46 left in the third quarter, on a score that came after edge Anfernee Jennings forced a fumble on a kickoff that was recovered by safety Jordan Howden, New Orleans was more imperfect at any stretch of the young season.

The Raiders answered with a quick-strike touchdown drive (71 yards on five plays in 146 seconds) and pulled to within 27-22 with 3:40 left in the quarter; their two-point conversion attempt failed.

The Saints couldn't take advantage when the ensuing kickoff went out of bounds and they began their next possession at their 40, gaining 17 yards and taking a 5-yard delay of game penalty before punting, but forced the Raiders to punt after a three-and-out.

The next possession began at the Saints' 39 with 1:36 left in the third and trickled over into the fourth quarter as New Orleans drove to the Raiders' 29-yard line. On third-and-4 from there, Shough was sacked from behind by Raiders edge Malcolm Koonce while attempting to throw, the football popped free and Maxx Crosby recovered at the Raiders' 45.

Six plays later, Kirk Cousins threw a 4-yard touchdown pass to Cody White and the Raiders took a 28-27 lead with 9:21 left.

Shough was intercepted on third-and-6 to end the Saints' next drive, and it was returned 35 yards by cornerback Hezekiah Masses to the Saints' 8, fumbled by Masses, and recovered by defensive tackle Adam Butler at the 4. Cousins threw a 4-yard touchdown pass to Brock Bowers three plays later and Las Vegas' lead grew to 35-27.

The next two drives ended on a Shough fumble from the Raiders' 20-yard line, and a Johnson fumble at the Saints' 40 to smother the last gasps for New Orleans.

The Saints on Sunday were perfect in the red zone (4 for 4), perfect on goal-to-go (3 for 3) and more than healthy on third down (9 for 16). But the turnovers and penalties (8 for 36 yards), several which drew the ire of the Saints' sideline, were devastating.

"It's frustrating, but we're on to the next," said edge Chase Young, who had the third two-sack game of his career, his second as a Saint. "This is the league. We could be better, we know that. We try not to bank our wins off the referees' calls. We may not like a call, but at the end of the day, we try to look past that and just play within the white lines."

SAINTS TEAM CAPTAINS

In 2026 in a vote by teammates, G David Edwards and QB Tyler Shough were added as offensive team captains, Chase Young and Kaden Elliss were voted as a defensive captain and LB Chris Rumph was added for his leadership on defense and special teams. Cameron Jordan is the team's longest tenured captain (2015) and the franchise's longest-tenured defensive team captain of all-time. C/G Erik McCoy, S Justin Reid and LS Zach Wood round out the group.

FAMILY TIES

Numerous Saints players, coaches and administrators are not the only members of their families to make a name for themselves in pro football. 24 Saints players, coaches and front office staff have relatives who have played, coached or served in the front office in the NFL.

Tight Ends Coach Chase Haslett - Father, Jim Haslett, played linebacker for the Buffalo Bills from 1979-85 and finished his playing career with the New York Jets in 1986. Haslett was an assistant for the Los Angeles Raiders, Saints, Pittsburgh Steelers, St. Louis Rams, Washington Redskins, Cincinnati Bengals and Tennessee Titans and was head coach of the Saints from 2000-05, where he guided the franchise to their first playoff victory in 2000 and was named NFL Coach of the Year.

Defensive Pass Game Coordinator Terry Joseph - Cousin Vance Joseph is currently defensive coordinator of the Denver Broncos, was their head coach from 2017-18. He has also served as an assistant coach with six other teams, after also playing for the New York Jets and Indianapolis Colts. Younger cousin, Sammy, played for the San Francisco 49ers in 2007.

Vice President/Asst. General Manager-College Personnel Jeff Ireland - Stepson of Chiefs Hall of Fame linebacker/center E.J. Holub. Grandson of Philadelphia Eagles running back and Chicago Bears personnel executive Jim Parmer.

National Scout Terry Wooden - Brother, JoJo, has been a longtime scout in the NFL Player Personnel ranks.

Offensive Coordinator Doug Nussmeier - Son, Garrett, plays for the Kansas City Chiefs.

Offensive Assistant Will Clapp - Father, Tommy went to training camp with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1988.

Edges Coach Jay Rodgers - Brother, Jeff, is a longtime NFL assistant who is special teams coordinator for the Buffalo Bills.

Linebackers Coach Peter Sirmon and Practice Squad LB Jackson Sirmon - Son, Jackson, signed with the Saints in the offseason.

Assistant Wide Receivers Coach Kyle Valero - Father, Art, was an NFL assistant for ten years.

Brees was a two-time AP NFL Offensive Player of the Year, named to 13 Pro Bowls and five AP All-Pro teams and was the 2004 NFL Comeback Player of the Year. Overall, in his 20-year NFL career, he played in 287 regular season games (286 starts) and completed 7,142-of-10,551 passes (67.7 pct.) for 80,358 yards, 571 touchdown passes and a 98.7 passer rating. He set numerous NFL passing records and retired as the league's all-time leader in passing yardage (80,358), completions (7,142) passing attempts (10,551), ranked second in career completion percentage (67.7%) and touchdown passes (571) and fifth in passer rating (98.7).

Brees set marks for touchdown passes in a game (seven, tied with seven other players), completion percentage in a season (74.4, 2018) and in a game (96.7, 12/16/19), completions in a season (471, 2016-broken), 300-yard passing games in a season (13, 2011), consecutive games with at least 300 yards passing (nine, twice), career passing yards (80,358-since broken), passing yards in a four-season span (20,767, 2011-14), in a five-season span (25,637, 2011-15) and in a six-season span (30,845, 2011-16), most seasons leading the league in passing yardage (seven), consecutive games with a touchdown pass (54, 2009-12), games with four-plus touchdown passes (37), four TD passes and zero interceptions (25), games with five-plus TD passes (11) consecutive games with at least three touchdown passes and zero interceptions (four, tied with three other players), overall (10) and consecutive (nine) seasons with at least 30 TD passes, career 300-yard passing games (123) and career 350-yard passing games (63).

Brees retired holding four of the top five most accurate seasons in league history and threw for 5,000 yards an NFL-record five times, a feat no other player has accomplished more than two times.

the Austin, Texas native's record as a starter for the Saints was 151-94 (.616) in the regular season and postseason combined, easily making him the winningest signal-caller in franchise history. Posting a 144-85 (.629) record in the regular season and postseason with Sean Payton as his head coach, the Payton-Brees head coach/starting quarterback combination is tied for second in total wins all-time. Brees retired as the holder of virtually every passing record in club record books with his 15 years of service and 228 regular season starts, both the highest totals in the team's history at the time.

From 2006-20, Brees led the NFL with 68,010 passing yards, 491 touchdowns, 8,742 attempts, 6,017 completions, a 68.8 completion percentage, 116 games with at least 300 yards passing, 16 with at least 400 and 518 completions of 25 yards or more.

Brees was inducted in Canton on August 8 in front of an enthusiastic crowd of Saints supporters and will be inducted into the team's Ring of Honor and will be presented with his Pro Football Hall of Fame ring on October 11 at a halftime presentation of the Saints-Vikings contest.

OFFENSIVE SURGE

BUCKING THE ODDS

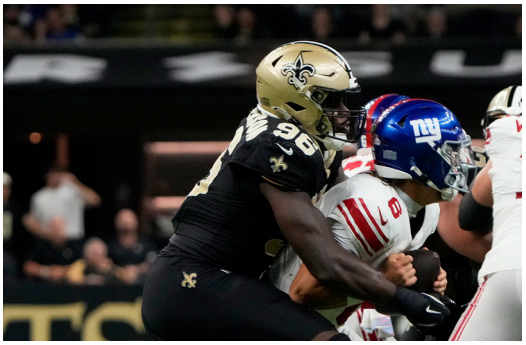

The Saints have a long tradition of finding players as free agents signed after the draft who make an impact immediately or after developing their careers initially on the practice squad. Several undrafted Saints on the roster have played key roles on offense, defense and special teams.

Over the past 23 years, the Saints (2018-22: defensive back J.T. Gray, wide receiver/return specialist Deonte Harty and wide receiver/return specialist Rashid Shaheed) and San Diego/Los Angeles Chargers (2003: guard Kris Dielman, tight end Antonio Gates and wide receiver Kasim Osgood) are the only two teams to have three players signed as undrafted free agents be selected to a Pro Bowl for the team that originally signed them.

EDGE Carl Granderson joined the club in 2019 as an undrafted free agent out of Wyoming and has appeared in 108 games with 50 starts, posting 308 tackles (179 solo), 35.5 sacks for a loss of 210 yards, ten pass breakups, one interception, four forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries, two blocked field goals and one blocked extra point.

In 2025, Granderson enjoyed a productive season, recording 57 total tackles (35 solo), six sacks, ranking third on the team, one pick, four pass breakups. In three games this season, he recorded more than one sack, playing an important role on a front line of a defense that finished ranked ninth in the NFL in opponent net yards per game and sixth in opponent net yards per play.

Granderson has opened the first three games opposite Chase Young and has made significant contributions on both defense and special teams with 11 tackles (ffive solo), one sack and a blocked field goal. In the September 20, 24-17 win at Baltimore, Granderson blocked a field goal in the first half and at the end of the fourth quarter was responsible for the pressure on Ravens QB Lamar Jackson that forced an interception to seal the New Orleans victory.

Tight end Juwan Johnson first led Saints tight ends with four touchdown receptions in 2021, converting to the position that offseason after playing wideout in college and as a rookie in 2020, signing as an undrafted free agent from Oregon. Johnson led Saints tight ends with 50 receptions for a club-best 548 yards in 2024, adding three TD grabs. He ranks first on the Saints with 20 receiving touchdowns over the past five seasons, tied for sixth over that period among NFL tight ends. In his career, Johnson has played in 87 games (47 starts), making 238 receptions for 2,684 yards with 24 TDs.

In 2025, Johnson finished ranked fifth among tight ends in receiving and third in receiving yards with a career-high 77 grabs for a career-best 889 yards with three touchdowns. His 234 receptions as a tight end (four additional were as a WR in 2020) are ranked third among the position all-time for the club. His 238 career catches are second among Saints originally signed as an undrafted free agent.

Signed following the 2024 NFL Draft, linebacker Isaiah Stalbird played at Nebraska (2019) and South Dakota State (2020-23). He appeared in 64 games in his college career and made 251 tackles, 18.5 for loss, three sacks, an interception, 19 pass breakups, five forced fumbles, two recoveries and three blocked punts for the 2022 and 2023 FCS National Champions. In 2025, Stalbird had a team-high 19 coverage stops and leads the club with five special teams tackles in 2026.

The only player on the 53-man roster signed by the club following the 2026 NFL Draft, the club inked running back CJ Donaldson out of Ohio State, whe he completed his college career leading the Buckeyes with ten rushing touchdowns in 2025. Donaldson has excelled in a short yardage role through three games, one of only seven players with three third-and-one conversions in 2026.

2025 DRAFT RECAP

The New Orleans Saints 2025 draft class, the first under Head Coach Kellen Moore, featured eight players contributing to the team's 53-man roster at the end of the season, three offensive players, as well as three defenders, with four (left tackle Kelvin Banks Jr., cornerback Quincy Riley, safety Jonas Sanker and quarterback Tyler Shough) starting in the regular season finale at the Atlanta Falcons and tight end Moliki Matavao and linebacker Danny Stutsman playing significant snaps. On offense, Executive Vice President/General Manager Mickey Loomis split the selections among four different positions.

Defensively, New Orleans added players at four different positions as the unit makes the switch to Defensive Coordinator Brandon Staley's 3-4 scheme, a safety, a linebacker and a cornerback currently contributing. With Sanker posting his second interception of the season in the December 21 win against the Jets, for three total takeaways on the season, the most by a Saints rookie since 2021.

2025 saw significant contributions from most of the rookie class. Banks opened all 17 games at one of the NFL's most challenging positions. Riley played in all 17 games with five starts and recorded 34 tackles, one interception, ten pass breakups and one forced fumble for the NFL's fourth-ranked pass defense. Sanker played in all 17 games with 16 starts and finished second on the team with 78 stops to go with three takeaways and six pass breakups. Shough started the last eight games of the season and completed 221-of-327 passes (67.6 pct.) for 2,834 yards with ten touchdowns, a 91.3 passer rating and a club-best three rushing touchdowns.

2026 has shown further growth from the class, headlined on offense by Shough who ranks among league leaders in all major passing categories by completing 91-of-132 passes (68.9 pct.) for 917 yards with eight touchdown passes and one rushing touchdown. Sanker and CB Quincy Riley have cemented key roles in the starting secondary, while DL Vernon Broughton has been a key member of the team's rotation up front.

Kelvin Banks Jr. was selected with the ninth overall pick out of Texas, the highest draft selection by the Black and Gold since 2005. A three-year starter who opened all 42 games he played in at left tackle for the Longhorns from 2022-24, Banks was the 2024 Outland Trophy winner and a unanimous All-American selection. In his first season, Banks lined up at the position that he manned flawlessly as a college standout, facing weekly challenges from some of the NFL's elite pass rushers. He was a consensus All-Rookie selection and was the only Saints offensive lineman to open every contest. Surrendering only four sacks, when often left on an island, for rookie tackles who started at least 16 of their team's contests, Banks gave up the fewest takedowns.

Jordyn Tyson was the eighth overall pick. He spent three seasons at Arizona State (2023-25) after spending his freshman campaign at Colorado (2022). He appeared in 33 career games (23 starts), finishing with 158 receptions for 2,282 yards (14.4 avg.) with 22 TDs. Tyson finished with 61 receptions for 711 yards with eight touchdowns in 2025, earning Associated Press All-American the second straight season. Tyson starts 2026 on Injured Reserve after suffering a hamstring injury in training camp.

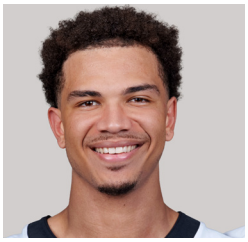

Christen Miller was selected in the secondr round with the 42nd overall pick. Miller spent four seasons at Georgia and appeared in 43 games (24 starts), recording 64 tackles (31 solo), 11.5 tackles for loss, four sacks and one pass breakup. Miller was named first-team All-SEC by the Associated Press in 2025, when he plugged the middle with 23 tackles, four stops for loss, four sacks, a team-leading 23 quarterback pressures and one pass breakup.

TE Oscar Delp was selected by the Saints in the third round out of the University of Georgia, where he spent four seasons (2022-25). He appeared in 55 games with 34 starts and recorded 70 receptions for 854 yards (12.2 avg.) with nine touchdowns. In 2025, Delp started all 14 games and had 20 receptions for 261 yards and one score, while being a force in the Bulldogs run game, helping Georgia rushers gain 2,250 yards on the ground on 212 carries. Expected to contribute as both a blocker and pass catcher, Delp caught one touchdown in the presason. Delp made his National Football League debut on September 20, at Baltimore, recording one reception for eight yards.

G Jeremiah Wright was selected in the fourth-round with the 132nd pick. A guard who converted from defensive tackle in 2022, opening 25-of-of 53 games at Auburn. The Selma, Ala. native started 24 consecutive games for the Tigers over his final two college seasons. The 6-5, 331-pounder has been learning how to use his large frame both run-blocking and pass-blocking, opening all three preseason contests at right guard.

WR Bryce Lance was the second of two fourth-round picks by New Orleans, with the 136th overall selection. Lance spent four seasons at North Dakota State (2022-25) and appeared in 57 games with 26 starts, catching 127 passes for 2,157 yards (17.0 avg.) with 25 touchdowns. In 2025, Lance was an Football Championship Subdivision first-team All-American, as well as a Missouri Valley Football Conference first-team selection for the second consecutive year in 2025, when he started all 13 games and caught 51 passes for 1,079 yards (21. 2 avg.) with eight touchdowns. In the season opener at Detroit, Lance finished with three receptions for 42 yards.

S Lorenzo Styles was the Saints' first sixth round pick (172nd overall). Styles spent three seasons at Ohio State (2023-25) after spending two seasons at Notre Dame (2021-22). Moving to the secondary with the Buckeyes, he appeared in 35 games with 11 starts in Columbus and recorded 46 tackles and six pass breakups. In 2025, he played in 12 games with 11 starts and posted 30 tackles (18 solo), 1.5 stops for loss and two pass breakups. Styles, who has competed on the Saints special teams units, returned a kickoff for a 100-yard touchdown against UCLA. After competing on defense and special teams in training camp, Styles is currently on Injured Reserve.

In the return game throughout his college career at Kentucky (2022-24) and LSU (2025), he returned 65 kickoffs for 1,910 yards (29.4 avg.) with six touchdowns and 11 punt returns for 85 yards. On offense, the Nashville, Tenn. native played in 50 games with 37 starts and recorded 175 catches for 2,060 yards with 12 touchdowns and rushed 32 times for 228 yards with two TDs. On September 20, at Baltimore, Brown's second quarter 53-yard kickoff return set up a field goal as time expired in the half to cut the Saints' haltime deficit to 14-6.

CB TJ Hall was selected with the 219th pick by New Orleans. Hall spent four seasons at Iowa (2022-25), where he played in 42 games with 18 starts and recorded 75 tackles (29 solo), two interceptions, 14 pass breakups and one fumble recovery. In his final season, he recorded 47 stops and a team-leading 11 passes defensed for the Hawkeyes. Hall will start the season on the practice squad.

SAINTS ROOKIES

Of the 20 new players on the 53-man roster, seven of those playrs are rookies, including five of the 2026 draft picks and one rookie free agent who was claimed off waivers - T Mason Murphy (Chicago), who originally joined the Bears as a rookie free agent out of Auburn and undrafted rookie free agent RB CJ Donaldson, who was signed to the active roster in Week Two. This is the 20th consecutive season, the Saints have had a rookie free agent on the initial 53-man roster.

FROM THE FIELD TO THE SIDELINE

Kellen Moore was the seventh New Orleans Saints head coach to have played in the National Football League, joining Tom Fears, John North, Dick Nolan, Mike Ditka, Jim Haslett and Sean Payton. Moore, who finished his college playing career at Boise State with a record of 50-3, the most wins by a quarterback in NCAA history, played six seasons for the Detroit Lions (2012-14) and Dallas Cowboys (2015-17). This Sunday, Moore returns to the sideline at Ford Field, where he started his NFL career as a backup signal-caller for the Lions, who signed as a free agent following the 2012 NFL Draft.

BARKING UP THE RIGHT TREE

With Moore as his offensive coordinator in 2024 with the Eagles, Philadelphia running back Saquon Barkley had one of the best seasons by a tailback in NFL history. The consensus National Football League Offensive Player of the Year, a first-team Associated Press All-Pro and Pro Bowl starter selection, Barkley led the league with a franchise-record 2,005 rushing yards in the regular season, making him just the ninth player in NFL history to post 2,000+ rushing yards in a season, eight-most in league records. Including 499 rushing yards in the playoffs which ranked third all-time, Barkley's 2,504 rushing yards were the most in NFL single-season history (regular season and postseason combined).

NOTHING HURTS

In 2024 in Philadelphia, under the tutelage of Moore who served as offensive coordinator and Saints Offensive Coordinator Doug Nussmeier, who was quarterbacks coach, Eagles signal-caller Jalen Hurts was able to put together one of the best seasons of his career. The Super Bowl Most Valuable Player ranked among the top eight in the leauge in yards per attempt (fourth, 8.0), passer rating (fifth, career-high 103.7), completion percentage (eighth, career-high 6.7 pct.) and total touchdowns (32, eighth). In Super Bowl LIX, Hurts completed 17-of-22 passes (77.3 pct.) for 221 yards, two touchdowns, a 119.7 passer rating and 72 rushing yards with one touchdown on the ground, the most rushing yards by a signal-caller ever in a Super Bowl.

FIVE STRAIGHT

In the Oct. 5, 2025 26-14 win over the New York Giants, the Saints recorded takeaways off five consecutive possessions. This was the first time this occurred in an NFL game since the Kansas City Chiefs intercepted QB Ryan Fitzpatrick on the last five Jets' possessions of the contest in a 24-3 Chiefs win (Sept. 25, 2016). It was the first time the Saints had defensive takeaways on five consecutive possessions, since they had five straight interceptions in a 27-3 win at the Phoenix Cardinals (Dec. 22, 1991). Below is a summary of the turnovers in the last two Saints contests where the Black and Gold recorded five consecutive takeaways.

GOAL LINE STANDS

In the Oct. 26, 2025 contest against Tampa Bay, the Saints succeeded in two short yardage situations against tall odds, putting the heart they had shown all season on full display in a valiant effort.

In the second quarter, with the Buccaneers having first and one at the Saints' one-yard line, the New Orleans front seven stopped Buccaneers RB Rachaad White from entering the end zone on three straight plays, with Chris Rumph II and Nathan Shepherd stuffing Tampa Bay RB Sean Tucker on fourth-and-one.

In Tampa Bay's first drive of the third quarter, the Buccaneers advanced to the New Orleans one-yard line following a 22-yard completion from QB Baker Mayfield to TE Cade Otton. On two goal line plays, CB Kool-Aid McKinstry successfully defended Mayfield pass attempts to WRs Sterling Shepard and Emeka Egbuka. On second down, LB Demario Davis stuffed Tucker. Until Tucker reached the end zone on fourth and one, the Saints had sucessfully defended the one-yard line seven times in the contest, the first time a team had done so since the Dec. 8, 2013 matchup where Tennessee Titans managed seven stops from the one-yard line by the Denver Broncos at Empower Field at Mile High (credit-ESPN).

THIRD DOWN DEFENSE

In 2024, the Saints finished ranked 21st in the NFL in opponent third down percentage (41.1), improving to third in the league (34.3) in 2025.

2024 DRAFT CONTRIBUTORS

The team's top three selections in the 2024 NFL Draft started multiple games for the Saints in both 2024 and 2025. Below is a summary of the performance of five of the top six 2024 draft picks, as each of them made a jump in 2025 and will look to continue to rise in 2026:

RT Taliese Fuaga, Oregon State (first round) - Selected with the 14th overall pick, the Saints were able to address an immediate need, while also acquiring a cornerstone for the future. Fuaga was an anchor on the Saints offensive line in his rookie campaign, seamlessly moving over to the left tackle position for his first NFL season, where he opened every game for an offense that improved in every rushing metric. Starting all 17 games, he was the first Saint to start every game in his rookie year at the offensive line's most challenging position since J.T. Taylor in 1978. In 2025, Fuaga moved back to his natural right tackle position, starting 13 games as the anchor to that side of the line..

CB Kool-Aid McKinstry, Alabama (second round) - Selected in the second round of the 2024 NFL Draft with the 41st overall pick, McKinstry arrived in New Orleans having covered many of the nation's top wideouts in the SEC for three years. In 2023, the consensus first-team All-American was a semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award in his final campaign, making 32 tackles and seven passes defensed.

Opening every contest in his second season in 2025, he recorded 76 tackles (59 solo) with, three interceptions and a club-best 17 pass breakups, tied for sixth in the National Football League and third in the NFC. The Pinson, Ala. native recorded the first two picks of his career in the October 5, 2025 win over the New York Giants, capturing NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for the first time in his career. In 35 career games with 29 starts, he has totals of 132 stops (100 solo), three picks, 27 pass breakups and one special teams tackle.

As a rookie in 2024, Rattler appeared in seven games with six starts, he completed 130-of-228 passes for a Saints rookie-record 1,317 yards with four touchdowns, also carrying 18 times for 146 yards. In 2025 in nine games with eight starts, Rattler completed 173-of-257 passes (67.3 pct.) for 1,586 yards with eight touchdowns, five interceptions and an 86.8 passer rating. Rattler utilized his feet well, carrying 31 times for 167 yards (5.4 avg.).

LB Jaylan Ford, Texas (D5c) - The last of three fifth round draft picks by the club in 2024, Ford was selected out of Texas, where he posted 287 tackles, 27.5 stops for loss, three sacks, ten pass breakups, six interceptions, four forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries. As a rookie, Ford established a role on special teams, contributing five tackles before suffering a fibula injury in Week 17. In 2025, he had nine coverage tackles and two defensive stops.

In the 2026 preseason, Ford stepped up in starting and play-calling duty before being placed on Injured Reserve-designated to return prior to Week One.

DT Khristian Boyd, Northern Iowa (D6) - A sixth round selection, Boyd appeared in 49 career games in college and collected 149 tackles (59 solo), 22.5 stops for loss, 10.5 sacks, five pass breakups and two forced fumbles.

In his final college season, Boyd started all 11 games along and had 43 stops, 6.5 tackles for loss, 3.5 sacks and a pass breakup, earning All-MVFC first-team and consensus FCS third-team All-American. Following a full offseason, and utilizing his 6-2, 320-pound frame to fit into the Saints' 3-4 alignment, the Kansas City native provided a push to New Orleans' interior line along the stretch run in 2025. On Sunday, against Las Vegas, Boyd recorded his first career sack.

SPECIAL TEAMS OVERVIEW

Saints special teams benefited from the elevation of Phil Galiano to coordinator, after serving as assistant special teams coach for five-and-a-half seasons before taking over coordination of the unit midway through the 2024 season. During Galiano's tenure, the special teams units have consistently ranked among the NFL's leaders in placekicking, coverage and return units, producing Pro Bowlers and Associated Press All-Pros, while also setting various club records in placekicking, punting, return game and coverage units. Under Galiano's direction, the club has committed to a transition of a mix of seasoned veterans and several promising youngsters, supplemented by some key additions in free agency and the draft in 2026.

BLOCK UNIT

New Orleans' field goal block unit has blocked six kicks over the last three seasons.

In the September 20, 24-17 win over hte Baltimore Ravens, EDGE Carl Granderson blocked a 49-yard field goal attempt by K Tyler Loup, aided by pressure from teammates Justin Reid and special teams captain Chris Rumph.

COVERAGE UNITS

Galiano and Assistant Special Teams Coach Kyle Wilber were tasked with remaking the coverage aspect of the special teams units with the top six tacklers from the 2024 campaign not on the roster. Second-year LB Isaiah Stalbird led the team with 16 stops. The Unit's top three tacklers return to the team in 2026.

After signing following the 2024 NFL Draft, Stalbird played in five games and recorded three special teams tackles. In 2025, he played in all 17 contests and buoyed the coverage units with a club-best 16 stops, while also leading the linebackers with two sacks. In the September 13 season opener at the Detroit Lions, he led the team with three coverage tackles and leads the club with five stops despite missing the team's Week Two contest.

Signed by New Orleans following the 2025 NFL Draft, Rumph provided depth at the edge position and knowledge of Defensive Coordinator Brandon Staley's system from their time together with the Los Angeles Chargers. He developed into a core speccial teams player for the Black and Gold and added 14 stops. In addition to his special teams acumen, Rumph has the intelligence and skillset to contribute at both the EDGE and inside linebacker positions. Voted by his teammates as a team captain based on the leadership he provides on coverage units, he has two stops in 2026.

The second of the team's two fourth round picks in 2025, Stutsman immediately assumed a significant role on special teams, as well as seeing action on defensive packages, finishing third on the Saints with 13 coverage stops. On Sept. 20 at Baltimore, Stutsman had a career-high three coverage tackles.

Tied with Rumph for third on the club with two tackles apiece, DB Jordan Howden and EDGE Anfernee Jennings collaborated on a big play on Sunday against Vegas, when Jennings, an offseson free agent acquisition, stripped the ball from the Raiders kick returner and it was picked up by Howden for the team's first special teams takeaway of the season.

WR/RS BARION BROWN

The Saints' sixth-round pick out of LSU ranks statistically as one of the top special teams playmakers in college football history. Brown finished his career second in NCAA history with six kickoffs returned for touchdowns (Southeastern Conference record), one shy of the NCAA record. In the return game throughout his college career at Kentucky (2022-24) and LSU (2025), he returned 65 kickoffs for 1,910 yards (29.4 avg.) with six touchdowns and 11 punt returns for 85 yards. On offense, the Nashville, Tenn. native played in 50 games with 37 starts and recorded 175 catches for 2,060 yards with 12 touchdowns and rushed 32 times for 228 yards with two TDs. In the Sept. 20 24-17 win over the Baltimore Ravens, Brown's 53-yard kickoff return near the end of the first half set up a field goal as the half expired to cut New Orleans' deficit to 14-6.

K DANIEL CARLSON

The club signed veteran kicker Daniel Carlson to handle placekicking duties. Carlson, 6-5, 222, was originally selected by the Minnesota Vikings in the fifth round (167th overall) of the 2018 NFL Draft out of Auburn. In nine seasons with the Vikings (2018), Oakland/Las Vegas Raiders (2018-25) and Saints (2026-), Carlson has made 229-of-264 field goals (86.7%) and 251-of-263 extra points (95.4%) for 938 total points. Since 2018, his 229 field goals rank third in the NFL, his 86.7 field goal percentage ranks sixth (min. 200 att.) and his 928 kicking points ranks fourth. Carlson's 910 points as a Raider from 2018-25 rank second in franchise history. The two-time AP All-Pro made 22-of-27 field goals (82.5%) and 21-of-22 extra point attempts for 87 total points in 2025, including a game-winning career-long 60-yard field goal with eight seconds left in a season-closing 14-12 victory over Kansas City.

WRIGHT FLIPS FIELD

Ryan Wright was signed by New Orleans in the 2026 offseason as an unrestricted free agent after spending his first four seasons with the Minnesota Vikings, who signed him as an undrafted free agent out of Tulane in 2022. In five NFL campaigns, Wright has been among the most productive punters in the NFL, recording a career gross average of 47.8 on 261 with 42.4 net and 103 punts inside the 20-yard line across 69 contests. In 2025, the former Green Wave standout set career-highs in gross average (49.0) and net (44.5), good for third-best in the league in both categories.

QUARTERBACKS

TYLER SHOUGH

In 11 games with nine starts in 2025 after opening his first contest on November 2, Shough, the team's second round draft pick out of Louisville, completed 221-of-327 passes (67.6 pct.) for 2,384 yards with ten touchdowns, posting a 91.3 passer rating, also carrying 45 times for 186 yards with a club-best three touchdowns and an additional two-point conversion rush. A consensus All-Rookie selection and one of five finalists for the Associated Press NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year honors, Shough ended up leading rookie signal-callers in wins (five), third down passer rating (third-best 103.3), completion percentage, 300-yard passing games (two) and fourth quarter game-winning drives (three).

In 2026, Shough has assumed the leadership reigns of the Black and Gold throughout the offseason and in training camp, as he looks to continue his progression in his sophomore season, as well as helping the Saints take their next step forward in the team's deveopment.

PROLIFIC PASSING

In the 2026 season opener at Detroit, Shough overcame a slow start by himself and the Saints offense to nearly lead the team to a comeback from a 21-0 deficit. Shough completed 35-of-56 passes for 410 yards with three touchdowns. The second-year signal caller set career-highs in attempts, completions passing yards and passing touchdowns.

With New Orleans down 21-0, Shough led the Saints on four consecutive scoring drives: two third quarter touchdown drives to cut the deficit to 21-14, a drive for a field goal at the start of the fourth quarter to cut it to 21-17 and then an eight-play, 74-yard drive that ended with a nine-yard touchdown pass to TE Juwan Johnson to tie the score at 24-24. After the New Orleans defense forced a three and out the Saints got the ball back and Shough connected with Johnson for 18 yards to set up a 62-yard field goal attempt at the end of regulation. In overtime, Shough led the Saints on a ten-play, 80-yard drive that culminated with an eight-yard connection in the end zone with TE Noah Fant, putting his team in position to take victory until the failed two-point attempt to end the contest.

(PROLIFIC PASSING)

Shough's career-high 410 passing yards marked the 18th-highest total in franchise history and the 18th 400-yard passing game. He joins Drew Brees and Aaron Brooks as only the third Saint to throw for 400 yards. It was the first time a Saint threw for at least 400 yards in a contest since Brees tossed for 439 yards in the 2018 season opener vs. Tampa Bay.

Shough's 325 passing yards in the second half and overtime marks a club-best for passing yardage in a second half/overtime and is tied for the 17th-highest total in NFL record books.

COMEBACK KID

In New Orleans' 24-17 fourth quarter come-from-behind win at the Baltimore Ravens on September 20, Shough engineered the Saints back to victory from the biggest fourth quarter deficit they faced in his 13 career starts.

With New Orleans trailing the Ravens, 17-9 at the start of the fourth quarter, Shough first led the Black and Gold on a nine-play, 68-yard drive, where he completed five-of-five passes, ending with a 21-yard touchdown pass to WR Chris Olave. Following a successful two-point conversion, the score was tied 17-17.

After the Saints forced a three-and-out quickly, Shough and the Saints offense got the ball back with 8:06 remaining, Shough led the Saints on a 16-play, 68-yard drive that chewed up 6:38 of clock, ending with a one-yard rushing touchdown to give the Saints the 24-17 lead and complete the comeback.

GAME-WINNERS

In the clutch, Shough become the first Saint since 2020 to lead the Black and Gold to two straight fourth quarter/overtime game-winning drives, when Drew Brees did so in 2020, including leading the team from a 17-10 fourth quarter deficit in the December 14, 2025, 20-17 victory over Carolina.

In New Orleans' Dec. 28 win at Tennessee, Shough had his third of the season, with the Saints trailing 26-20 in the fourth quarter. Shough overcame a lost fumble by the Saints on their first drive of the final period. Following the fumble, Shough took advantage of the defense quickly getting the ball back and went to work with 8:45 left. Following a 12 yard carry by RB Audric Estime, Shough completed a pass for a 60-yard gain to WR Chris Olave to the Titans eight-yard line. On second down, the rookie signal-caller and WR Kevin Austin Jr. connected in the end zone for a ten-yard TD to complete New Orleans' comeback. Despite only playing in 11 games with nine starts, Shough's three fourth quarter game-winning drives led all rookies and were the most by a Saint since Brees' three in 2020.

HERE FOR SECONDS

In his second career start at Carolina on Nov. 9, 2025, Shough completed 19-of-27 passes for a then Saints rookie-record 282 yards with two touchdowns, zero interceptions and a 128.9 passer rating. His first TD pass was a 62-yard laser to WR Chris Olave, which was the second-longest touchdown thrown by a Saints rookie QB, with Archie Manning throwing a 63-yarder to WR Danny Abramowicz on Oct. 3, 1971 against the Houston Oilers. With the victory, Shough became the first Saints rookie signal-caller to win a start since Dave Wilson (at L.A. Rams, 11/8/81). Overall he became the fourth Saints rookie to win a start, joining Wilson, Manning (1971) and Larry Cipa (1974).

The last time a Saints quarterback had 2+ touchdown passes and zero interceptions in one of his first two career starts was Manning (9/26/71 @San Francisco).

RUN FOR IT

In the December 7, 2025 24-20 win at Tampa Bay, Shough achieved several firsts in using both his arm and legs to help power New Orleans' 24-20 win over the Buccaneers. Shough completed 13-of-20 passes (65.0 pct.) for 144 yards, with a career day on the ground in driving rain, carrying seven times for 55 yards (7.9 avg.) with two touchdowns. Shough's two scores marked the first time a Saints rookie had two rushing TDs since Archie Manning (vs. Dallas on 10/17/71) and his 55 yards rushing are the most in franchise history by a rookie signal-caller. Shough executed the first fourth quarter game winning drive of his career, when with the score tied 17-17, he drove New Orleans down the field 53-yards on nine plays, ending with a 13-yard rushing touchdown. In addition to the rushing touchdown, Shough completed three-of-four passes for 36 yards on the game-winning drive.

In Sunday's contest vs. Las Vegas, Shough set a new career-long with a 36-yard run.

BACK TO BACK I

On Dec. 14, vs. Carolina Shough engineered an eight-play, 62-yard drive that took 55 seconds, ending with a 47-yard field goal by K Charlie Smyth. In it, he completed three-of-four passes for 43 yards and also gained four yards on a rush to help lead the Saints to the 20-17 win. In the fourth quarter alone, Shough completed 13-of-18 passes for 162 yards with the game-tying 12-yard touchdown pass to WR Chris Olave, as well as grinding out four yards rushing, for the second-highest fourth quarter passing yardage total in Week 15 in the NFL. With Shough's fourth quarter game-winning drive at Tampa Bay the prior week, this marked the first time a Saints signal-caller has had fourth quarter/overtime game-winning drives in consecutive contests since Drew Brees in Weeks Five (team had bye in Week Six), Seven and Eight of the 2020 season. Shough and Jayden Daniels (2024) are the only rookie quarterbacks in the last ten seasons to lead a game-winning drive in back-to-back games against a team with a winning record.

BACK TO BACK II

In the Dec. 21, 2025 29-6 win over the Jets, Shough went 32-49 for a career-high 308 yards with a touchdown, and zero interceptions. He also rushed for eight yards on two attempts. It marked the first time a Saints rookie signal-caller threw for 300 yards and only the second time an NFL rookie threw for 300 in 2025. Following the Jets contest, Shough No. 1 in completions (176), passing yards (1,792), passing touchdowns (7), passer rating (86.5) and completion percentage (66.4 pct.) among the 11 qualifying rookie quarterbacks in franchise history.

In the Dec. 28, 2025 34-26 win over the Titans, Shough finished 22-of-27 (81.5 pct.) for 333 yards with a touchdown, zero interceptions and a 142.4 passer rating, setting career-highs in completion percentage, passing yardage, passer rating and yards per attempt (12.33), leading New Orleans to its third undefeated December in franchise history.

RUNNING BACKS

TRAVIS ETIENNE JR.

Travis Etienne Jr. is in first season with the Saints after agreeing to a multi-year contract during free agency. Selected by the Jacksonville Jaguars in the first round (25th overall) of the 2021 NFL Draft out of Clemson, in six NFL seasons, Etienne has appeared in 69 games with 63 starts and rushed 927 times for 3,926 yards (4.2 avg.) with 25 touchdowns and has 179 receptions for 1,389 yards with seven receiving touchdowns. One of just three NFL players to have 500-plus rushing yards and 250-plus receiving yards each season from 2022-25, joining RBs Saquon Barkley and Josh Jacobs.

The Jennings, La. native has also rushed 40 times for 238 yards (6.0 avg.) with one touchdown and has nine catches for 79 yards and one score in three postseason starts. In 2025, Etienne appeared in all 17 games with 16 starts and rushed for 1,107 yards on 260 carries with seven touchdowns, while adding 36 receptions for 292 yards with a career-high and team-leading six receiving touchdowns. His six touchdown receptions ranked second among NFL running backs in 2025 and his 1,107 rushing yards were fifth-most in the AFC. In three contests in 2026, Etienne has 30 carries for 128 yards (4.3 avg.) and caught 11 passes for 51 yards, as well as a two-point conversion run.

KENDRE MILLER

A third round draft pick of the Saints in 2023, Miller was a three-year standout at TCU, posting 2,410 rushing yards and 26 touchdowns in only 33 games (17 starts). In 2022, the first-team All-Big 12 selection carried 242 times for 1,399 yards and 17 TDs.

In four seasons, Miller has played in 23 games with two starts and has carried 140 times for 541 yards with four touchdowns, caught 22 passes for 185 yards and returned 24 kickoffs for 606 yards.

Miller returned to action in the 2026 season opener against Detroit after missing the second half of 2025 with a knee injury and rushed for 30 yards, including scoring the Saints' first touchdown of the season on an eight-yard run.

WIDE RECEIVERS

CHRIS OLAVE

This talented wideout made an immediate impact as a rookie in 2022 and has served as a primary target for the Saints offense. The former Ohio State standout has appeared in 56 contests in five campaigns with 45 starts, totaling 301 receptions for 3,910 yards and 19 touchdowns. After missing nine games in 2024 due to multiple concussions, Olave rebounded to appear in 16 contests, while leading the team in receiving in 2025 with a career-high 100 receptions for 1,163 yards with a career-high nine touchdowns to earn Associated Press second-team All-Pro honors. Olave finished the season ranked seventh in the NFL in receiving, eighth in receiving yards and third in third down receptions (30) after he reached the end zone for his career-high ninth scoring grab of the season on Dec. 28 in Tennessee.

100 CLUB

In the December 28, 2025 34-26 win over Tennessee, he enjoyed a career performance to date in powering the passing offense to victory. Olave finished with eight catches for 119 yards with one touchdown, as well as a grab for a 60-yard gain that was his 100th catch of the season. With the grab, he joined Michael Thomas as only the second Saint to reach the century mark. In reaching the 1,100-yard mark for the second time in his career, Olave joins Joe Horn and Michael Thomas (four), Marques Colston (three) and Jimmy Graham (two) to become only the fifth Saint to have multiple 1,100-yard receiving seasons.

THIRD THROUGH 50

Olave's 260 receptions through his first 50 games rank third among Saints. Overall his career totals in 51 games with 40 starts at 264 grabs for 3,346 yards and 15 touchdowns.

EXPLOSIVE DEBUT

In the 2026 season opener at Detroit, Olave took off in the second half with the rest of the Saints offense, finishing with ten receptions to tie a career-high for 182 yards, the highest receiving yardage total in the NFL in Week One. Dating back to his last two games played in 2025, Olave had three straight 100-yard receiving performances, the first time a Saint has done so since Michael Thomas in Weeks 14-16 of the 2019 campaign. With at least eight receptions in each of these three contests, it marks the first time a Saint has had three straight performances of at least eight grabs since Alvin Kamara (10/12/20-11/1/20).

DEVAUGHN VELE

This third-year wideout was acquired by the Saints from Denver near the conclusion of the 2025 preseason. A seventh round pick of Denver out of Utah in 2024, Vele appeared in 13 games with seven starts, recording 41 receptions for 475 yards with three TDs, tallying the most receiving yards, receptions and receiving touchdowns by a Broncos' seventh-round draft choice as a rookie. The Saints have utilized the San Diego native's 6-5, 210 frame in key spots. In 2025, he made 25 catches for 293 yards with two TDs. He had 19 grabs in the last four contests before suffering a shoulder injury. Vele has picked right back up in 2026, making 15 grabs for 172 yards with one touchdown.

BRYCE LANCE

The Saints were pleased to find Lance available in the middle of the fourth round of the 2026 NFL Draft. The Minnesota native developed into one of the top offensive players in NCAA FCS football, where he played in 57 games with 26 starts, recording 127 receptions for 2,157 yards (17.0 avg.) with 28 touchdowns.

Lance started all 13 games, helping North Dakota State to a 12-1 record including an 8-0 mark in the Missouri Valley Football Conference and was named amed to the All-MVFC first team for second straight year. the consensus FCS All-American first-team led the MVFC with 83.0 receiving yards per game and became the first receiver in Bison history with multiple 1,000-yard seasons, when he caught eight touchdowns and made 51 catches for 1,079 yards, the third-most in NDSU single-season history. In his NFL debut on Sept. 13 at Detroit, Lance finished with three receptions for 42 yards.

BARION BROWN

Saints' sixth-round pick out of LSU ranks statistically as one of the top special teams playmakers in college football history. Brown finished his career second in NCAA history with six kickoffs returned for touchdowns (SEC record), one shy of the NCAA record. In the return game throughout his college career at Kentucky (2022-24) and LSU (2025), he returned 65 kickoffs for 1,910 yards (29.4 avg.) with six touchdowns and 11 punt returns for 85 yards. On offense, the Nashville, Tenn. native played in 50 games with 37 starts and recorded 175 catches for 2,060 yards with 12 touchdowns and rushed 32 times for 228 yards with two TDs. Brown had a 53-yard kickoff return for a touchdown on Sept. 20 at Baltimore, setting up a field goal.

TIGHT ENDS

JUWAN JOHNSON

The former Penn State and Oregon wideout joined the New Orleans Saints in 2020 following the NFL Draft and transitioned to tight end his second season in 2021. Overall, Johnson's 18 touchdown grabs since 2021 lead the team. In 2024, Johnson stepped up after missing most of training camp with a foot injury to play in all 17 games with five starts and make a career-high 50 receptions for a team-best/career-best 548 yards. With a career-high 77 receptions for a career-best 889 yards (11.5 avg.) with three touchdowns in 2025, Johnson joined Jimmy Graham as only the second Saints tight end with 75 grabs in a season.

Through the first thrrr games, Johnson leads the tight end corps with 15 grabs for 173 yards with three touchdowns.

BIG TARGET

Johnson's 20 touchdown grabs since 2022 after converting to the tight end position from wide receiver are tied for sixth among tight ends.

DEFENSIVE LINE/EDGE

New Orleans' first choice in the 2011 NFL Draft (24th overall) out of the University of California, Cameron Jordan has played in 245 career regular season games with 242 starts, recording 858 tackles (530 solo), a franchise record 132 sacks for a loss of 870 yards, three interceptions, 69 pass breakups, 17 forced fumbles and 12 fumble recoveries. He has been selected to eight Pro Bowls, the most by a defensive Saint and three Associated Press All-Pro teams.

SACK SURGE

Jordan's leadership and experience have served as a crucial component in a season that has faced adversity. Embracing a new structure on defense, he opened every game from the edge position and finished with 47 tackles (28 solo), a club-best 10.5 sacks for a loss of 64.5 yards, tied for 13th in the NFL, two pass breakups, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. In his last eight contests, Jordan recorded eight sacks, fourth in the NFL over the period.

MOST SACKED

Jordan is now one of only 15 NFL players to have at least 15 sacks against two opponents, 17 against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and 26 against the Atlanta Falcons (in 30 games), both NFC South divisional rivals. Jordan's 23 takedowns of former Atlanta quarterback Matt Ryan are the most sacks a player has had against an individual quarterback in NFL history.

Jordan has sacks against 29 different teams after dropping New York Jets signal-caller Brady Cook twice on Dec. 21, 2025. The Baltimore Ravens and Kansas City Chiefs are the only teams he doesn't have a sack against.

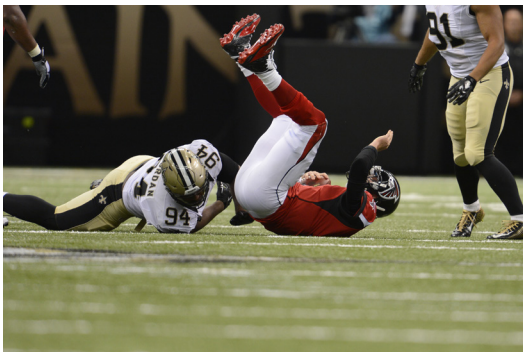

Jordan has sacked 52 different players in the regular season after dropping Tennessee Titans signal-caller Cam Ward on December 28, 2025. If Jordan sacks Atlanta QB Michael Penix Jr., he would be the 53rd player for him to drop.

JORDAN VS. FALCONS

Against this week's opponent, the Atlanta Falcons, in 30 games, Jordan has recorded (press box totals) 97 tackle (64 solo), 26 sacks for loss of 134 yards, eight pass breakups, 32 stops for loss, two forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and one blocked kick.

In the last three meetings against the Falcons dating back to 11/10/24, Jordan has one sack in each of the meetings. The only other stretch, he has at least one sack in three consecutive meetings against Atlanta dates from 12/24/17-11/22/18, as he tries to have a sack agains the Falcons in the fourth consecutive contest. Jordan has had seven multi-sack efforts against the Falcons.

CAM'S CORNER

One of the team's leading philanthropists, Cameron Jordan has been recognized as a three-time team nominee for the NFL's Walter Payton Man of the Year Award. Jordan is a weekly visitor to a local schools during the season to discuss topics such as literacy, academics and physical fitness.

CAM JORDAN FOUNDATION

Entering his 16th NFL season in 2026, Cameron Jordan, through his "Cam Jordan Foundation" is launching "Thank You NOLA," a season-long initiative dedicated to celebrating the city, people and communities that have been part of his journey since first arriving in New Orleans in 2011.

Throughout the 2026 season, Jordan will combine his final year on the field with an expanded commitment to community impact, creating opportunities to recognize local heroes, invest in young people and strengthen programs that will continue serving Louisiana Families for years to come.

The 'Thank You NOLA' campaign will feature 16 weeks of community engagement, surprise activations, service projects, fan experiences and charitable initiatives designed to celebrate the City while investing in his future.

PRIME TIME HERIOCS

Jordan has always come up big on the NFL's biggest stages, with his 35.5 career sacks in prime time contests ranked third all-time. With two sacks, he would move into a tie for second.

Only 0.5 of Jordan's 12 sacks on Monday Night Football have taken place against Atlanta, as he will be looking to have his first full sack against their division rivals.

EDGE CHASE YOUNG

Originally selected by the Washington Commanders with the second overall pick in the 2020 NFL Draft out of Ohio State, this talented edge rusher finished his sixth season and second in New Orleans. In six campaigns for Washington (2020-23), San Francisco 49ers (2023) and New Orleans (2024-), Young has appeared in 75 regular season games with 47 starts and has recorded 173 tackles (113 solo), 35.5 sacks for loss of 231.5 yards, 42 stops for loss, 17 pass breakups, ten forced fumbles and six recoveries. The Associated Press NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year, Young recorded 7.5 sacks and made multiple splash plays with four forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries in his first season in 2020. In 2023, he played in seven games for Washington and nine for San Francisco following a midseason trade and tied his career-best with 7.5 takedowns in helping the 49ers advance to Super Bowl LVIII.

Young originally signed with New Orleans as an unrestricted free agent in 2024, when he played in all 17 games and posted 31 tackles (21 solo), 5.5 sacks, three pass breakups and one forced fumble and signed a three-year contract extension subsuquently. In 2025 after missing the first five games with a calf injury, Young started the remaining 12 contests of the season, posting 38 tackles (22 solo), ten sacks to rank second on the team and tie for 15th in the National Football League, ten stops for loss, 15 quarterback hits four passes defensed, two forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries, tied for first in the NFL with teammate Pete Werner and two other players.

SPLASH PLAYER

Young was the only player in the National Football League with double-digit sacks and three fumble recoveries, with only two players in the league had at least six takedowns and three fumble recoveries in 2025.

On Monday night, Young will play the Falcons for the seventh time in his career. In six appearances, he has 18 tackles, 3.5 sacks, one pass breakup and one forced fumble. With 3.5 sacks against Atlanta, the only other team to equal that sack total against are the Philadelphia Eagles. With one split takedown on Monday night, Young would have more sacks against the Falcons than any other club.

DL DAVON GODCHAUX

Davon Godchaux (pronounced duh-VAHN GOD-chaw), a Plaquemine native, returned to his home state to play for New Orleans in his ninth NFL campaign after being acquired from New England. Originally a fifth round draft pick (178th overall) of the Miami Dolphins out of Louisiana State University in 2017, Godchaux has started 126-of-140 regular season games for the Dolphins (2017-20), Patriots (2021-24) and Saints (2025-), recording 483 tackles (223 solo), 5.5 sacks, 21 stops for loss, three pass breakups, three forced fumbles and one fumble recovery, as well as a solo stop in the 2021 Wild Card Playoff for New England.

In 2025, he played in all 17 contests with 16 starts and recorded 45 tackles (16 solo) and one forced fumble, plugging the middle for a run defense that improved from 30th in the NFL to sixth in opponent yards per rush.

DL NATHAN SHEPHERD

Originally selected by the New York Jets in the third round (72nd overall) of the 2018 NFL Draft out of Fort Hays State, this versatile defensive lineman is entering his ninth NFL season and fourth with the Saints. The Ajax, Ontario, Canada native has appeared in 125 career games with 53 starts, totaling 255 tackles (127 solo) and 14 sacks for a loss of 119.5 yards. In 2025, he appeared in 16 games with eight starts for New Orleans, posting 47 tackles (23 solo), 3.0 sacks, four stops for loss and his first career blocked field goal.

LINEBACKERS

PETE WERNER

New Orleans selected this three-year starter from Ohio State in the second round of the 2021 NFL Draft. The Indianapolis native finished his college career playing in 47 career games with 35 starts, recording 185 tackles, 16 stops for loss, four sacks, 11 pass breakups, four forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. Werner helped power the Buckeyes to the 2020 College Football Playoff championship game, when he was voted by the Big Ten coaches first-team All-Conference and a Butkus Award semifinalist. In five NFL seasons, Werner has played in 76 games with 66 starts and has recorded 425 tackles, 3.5 sacks, one interception, 11 pass breakups, two forced fumbles and five recoveries.

In 17 games with 15 starts in 2025, he he ranked third on the team with 81 stops (50 solo), two sacks, a career-high five pass breakups and three fumble recoveries to tie for the National Football League lead with college and Saints teammate Chase Young and two other players.

KADEN ELLISS

Elliss returned to New Orleans in the offseason after originally being a seventh round choice (244th overall) in the 2019 NFL Draft out of Idaho and spending his first four seasons with the club. Elliss is a strong, athletic player with coverage, pass rush and run-stopping abilities who by the end of his Saints tenure had developed into a three-down player. Returning to the Saints after spending the last three seasons with the Atlanta Falcons, in 2025, he started all 17 games and finished with 107 tackles (59 solo), 3.5 sacks, ten stops for a loss, ten quarterback hits, one interception, six pass breakups (career-best) and forced one fumble. In seven NFL seasons, Elliss has appeared in 102 games with 66 starts, recording 490 tackles (283 solo), 20.5 sacks, 38 stops for loss, 50 quarterback hits, two interceptions, 15 pass breakups, four forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries, and 15 coverage stops. The son of former NFL standout Luther Elliss with two younger brothers who currently play in the NFL, Elliss leads the Saints with 24 tackles (11 solo) and one pass breakup, as he was voted a team captain by teammates.

FAMILY AFFAIR

Kaden Elliss has two brothers playing in the NFL with Jonah (Denver) and Christian (New England). The Elliss brothers are one of two families with three brothers currently playing in the NFL, joining the Sewell family - Penei (Detroit) and Nephi and Noah (Chicago).

Kaden Elliss' father, Luther, was selected in the first round (20th) overall by Detroit in the 1995 NFL Draft out of Utah. Luther Elliss was a two-time Pro Bowl selection for the Lions, recording 27 sacks, five forced fumbles and seven fumble recoveries.

CHRIS RUMPH II

Signed as a free agent in the offseason, Rumph is well-versed in defensive coordinator Brandon Staley's system with the edge position. In his career, he's played in 57 games and made 66 tackles (36 solo), five sacks, two passes defensed, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and 24 special teams tackles, posting a career-best 14 coverage stops in 2025 to rank second on the team to go with two takedowns and 35 tackles. Voted by his teammates as a team captain, Rumph moved to linebacker in the Saints defensive scheme and has two coverage tackles.

SAFETIES

JUSTIN REID

This versatile, hard-hitting, playmaking safety and Louisiana native returned to his home state after signing with the Black and Gold during the 2025 offseason. Reid was originally selected by the Houston Texans in the third round (68th overall) in the 2018 NFL Draft out of Stanford. In seven NFL seasons, the former Dutchtown High School standout has played in 124 career regular season games with 120 starts for the Texans (2018-21), Kansas City Chiefs (2022-24) and Saints (2025-), recording 652 tackles (460 solo), 26 stops for loss, 6.5 sacks, 11 interceptions, with two returned for touchdowns, 51 pass breakups, three forced fumbles, three fumble recoveries, 15 special teams stops and one blocked kick. Reid started all 14 games he played in, a stabilizing force in the back end and finished with 72 tackles (37 solo), a split sack, a 49-yard interception return for a touchdown and five pass breakups.

JULIAN BLACKMON

Blackmon is a seven-year NFL veteran who was originally selected by Indianapolis in the third round (85th overall) in the 2020 NFL Draft out of Utah, joining the Saints at the start of 2025 training camp. He's appeared in 70 games with 66 starts, recording 311 tackles (230 solo), 1.5 sacks, 13 stops for loss, 11 interceptions, including one returned for a touchdown, 23 pass breakups, two forced fumbles, four fumble recoveries, and seven coverage stops. Blackmon closed out the Saints' 24-17 win with his first interception as a member of the Black and Gold on September 20 at Baltimore. He has 11 tackles, the pick and one pass breakup on the season.

2026 REVIEW: Named an offensive team captain for the first time in his career. at Detroit (9/13): Made his 10th career NFL start and 35-of-56 passes for a career-high 410 yards, three touchdowns and two interceptions, posting an 87.6 passer rating. His 410 passing yards marked the 18th-highest total in franchise history and the 18th 400-yard passing game. Shough joined Drew Brees and Aaron Brooks as only the third Saint to throw for 400 yards. His 325 passing yards in the second half and overtime marks a club-best for passing yardage in a second half/overtime and is tied for the 17th-highest total in NFL record books. Shough also rushed four times for eight yards in the contest. at Baltimore (9/20): Started and completed 27-of-34 passes (79.4%) for 252 yards and a touchdown while adding 23 rushing yards and a score, leading a 16-play, 68-yard game-winning drive capped by his one-yard touchdown run later in the fourth quarter. Shough improved to 6-5 as a starter and has thrown for 662 yards through two games, the most by a Saints quarterback to start a season since Drew Brees in 2009 (669). vs. Las Vegas (9/27): Started and completed 29-of-42 passes (69.0%) for 255 yards and a career-high four touchdowns, one interception, a 106.7 QBR and rushed once for a career long 36 yards. Shough's four touchdown passes were the most by a Saints QB since Derek Carr vs. Atlanta, (1/7/24) and his 36 yard run was the longest by a Saints QB since Taysom Hill's 75 yard rush vs. Cleveland (11/17/24).

ADDITIONAL STATS: Rushing Two-Point Conversions — (2025, 1); Total: 1.

CAREER HIGHS: Attempts — 56, at Detroit (9/13/26); Completions — 35, at Detroit (9/13/26); Completion Pct. — 81.5, at Tennessee (12/28/25); Passing Yards — 410, at Detroit (9/13/26); Passing Yards Per Attempt — 12.3, at Tennessee (12/28/25); Long Completion — 62t, at Carolina (11/9/25); Passing TDs — 3, at Detroit (9/13/26); Passer Rating — 142.7, at Tennessee (12/28/25); Rushes — 8, at Carolina (12/14/25); Rushing Yards — 55, at Tampa Bay (12/7/25); Long Rush — 36t, vs Las Vegas (9/27/26); Rushing TDs — 2, at Tampa Bay (12/7/25).

LAS VEGAS RAIDERS VS. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS
SUNDAY, SEPT. 27, 2026 ● CAESARS SUPERDOME
NFL OFFICIALS POOL REPORT WITH NFL VICE PRESIDENT OF INSTANT REPLAY MARK BUTTERWORTH (POOL REPORT CONDUCTED BY LUKE JOHNSON OF NEW ORLEANS TIMES-PICAYUNE/ADVOCATE)

Question: Can you explain the ruling as you saw it on the play where referees on the field ruled that Tyler Shough was sacked and fumbled (4th quarter, 13:04, 3rd-and-4, Las Vegas' 29-yard line)?

Butterworth: "With the ruling on the field of a fumble recovered by the defense, that is an automatic booth review which any automatic booth review is either confirmed with New York to confirm the ruling on the field, or we stop the game if we need to. On that play, we were able to confirm that the defenders' right hand hit the ball and the hand. The quarterback clearly lost control of the ball before his hand was coming forward. We were able to confirm the ruling on the field.

Question: There was a very similar play in the New Orleans Saints vs. Detroit Lions Week 1 game, where it ended up being ruled as an incomplete pass – is there any difference between these two plays from your vantage point?

Butterworth: "All we are looking for is the hand coming forward with control to make it an incomplete pass. In the play that happened today, the hand was not coming forward with control of the ball."

SAINTS POSTGAME NOTES

- With the 35-27 loss to the Las Vegas Raiders, the Saints drop the home opener and fall to 1-2 on the season.

- The Saints return to action at the Caesars Superdome on Monday Night Football against the Atlanta Falcons with a 7:15 CT kickoff. The game will be nationally televised on ESPN (WDSU 6 locally).

- New Orleans outgained the Raiders in yardage 381-340, but had four giveaways to only one by Las Vegas.

- New Orleans converted nine-of-15 (60.0 %) third down attempts.

- QB Tyler Shough completed 29-of-42 passes for 250 passing yards with a career-high four touchdown passes, one interception and a 99.5 passer rating.

- In the first quarter, Shough recorded a 36-yard rush, the longest of his career and the longest rush by a Saints QB since Taysom Hill (75 yards) on 11-17-24.

- The last Saints QB to register four touchdown passes in a game was Derek Carr on Jan. 7, 2024 vs. Atlanta.

- RB Travis Etienne Jr. had 13 carries for 57 yards and also added two receptions for 13 yards.

- RB Alvin Kamara recorded 9 carries for 36 yards and one reception for five yards.

- WR Chris Olave became the 10th Saint to reach 4,000 career receiving yards, while also going over 100 yards today (107) on nine catches. With 318 career catches now, he surpassed Danny Abramowicz to move into sole possession of ninth place in club record books. With his 14th career 100-yard receiving game, he surpassed Jimmy Graham to move into sole possession of fifth in club history.

- TE Juwan Johnson recorded eight receptions for 53 yards. Johnson is now tied for 20th in the club record books with 232 receptions with Darren Sproles.

- Today was the fourth time Johnson has had two TD receptions (first since 12-18-22 vs. Atlanta), and also the fourth multi touchdown game of his career.

- TE Noah Fant finished with four receptions for 33 yards, including a career-high 33 grabs.

- Saints recorded four touchdowns receptions by tight ends all last year. The Black and Gold recorded four vs the Raiders and have six this season.

- WR Devaughn Vele added three receptions for 39 yards.

- DT Khristian Boyd recorded his first career sack, as part of a three-tackle, two stop for loss day.

- EDGE Chase Young recorded two sacks. His third time doing so, and second for the Saints.

- The Raiders are the 22nd team that Young has recorded a sack against.

- Nathan Shepherd registered took down Raiders QB Kirk Cousins on a failed two-point conversion attempt.

- LB Kaden Elliss led the defense in tackles with nine (four solo).

- LB Danny Stutsman added seven tackles (four solo).

- S Justin Reid finished with four tackles (three solo) and also kicked off to open the second half of the contest.

- DB Jordan Howden recovered a fumble on special teams that was forced by EDGE Anfernee Jennings.

- LB Isaiah Stalbird returned to action after missing one game with a shoulder injury and led the team with two special teams tackles (one solo).

- P Ryan Wright punted eight times for 355 yards, averaging 44.4 yards per punt, with a long of 57 yards and three punts placed inside the 20-yard line.

SAINTS HEAD COACH KELLEN MOORE

(Opening Statement) “Tough battle. Really good game. Ultimately, turnovers in the fourth quarter got us, and we weren’t able to overcome them. These guys finished better than us. There’s a lot of good stuff on this film, but ultimately, we weren’t able to get it done collectively.”

(On answers from the officials regarding the sack-fumble) “It was hard to get much communication during the game, so I don’t know.”

(On the four Saints turnovers) “They made plays. Obviously, a lot of them came at critical downs and critical situations that we weren’t able to get those downs done. Credit to those guys. Those guys made plays, and we weren’t able to.”

(On learning from this loss) “I think in many ways, there is a lot of good stuff on this film. As painful as this loss is, as frustrating as this loss is, we can’t let this thing linger too long. We were in a position to finish that game, and we didn’t finish it. We had our opportunities and were not able to get it done. We have to recognize the entire film, not just the ending.”

(On his frustration with the lack of flow) “It’s just a back and forth. We were trying to create some flow. At the end of the day, we had our opportunities. We didn’t get it done.”

(On frustrations and composure from the players and staff) “There was frustration on the sideline. I have to keep my composure. I have to stay there. I think our guys still stuck with it and battled all the way to the end. I thought our defense had great opportunities down there in the red zone. Khristian Boyd was close to making a play on the QB and didn’t get anything out of that one. It was a tough one.”

(On consecutive turnovers and calming down with a chance to win) “I felt like we moved it well. There were these critical downs, and they made plays. We moved it the last couple of drives. We just weren’t able to sustain it and get the points needed to finish the game off.”

(On the pace in the beginning of the second half) “I felt good about it. Obviously, there was a component of their defense to stay on the ball to keep them in a specific package. I felt like our guys executed well in that instance.”

(On the positives from the game) “They busted a big run, but I thought our run defense – there was some good stuff in there to force some field goals in the red zone. I felt like we ran the ball a little bit better this week. I think we just have to look at it and get better.”

(On the four injuries in the game) “We’ll see. We’ll see what happens. Obviously, we will get information tomorrow and have more clarity.”

(On if RB Travis Etienne Jr.’s hamstring injury the same issue) “A little bit. It’s the same leg.”

(On the game plan for Etienne) “I think just with the sequencing of things, I felt like he was able to get a rhythm, which was good. I thought he had some good runs in there.”

(On his vantage point from Tyler Shough’s interception) “I did not see the pocket, obviously. They were able to make a play there, kind of late in the progression. I’m going to have to look at it more specifically.”

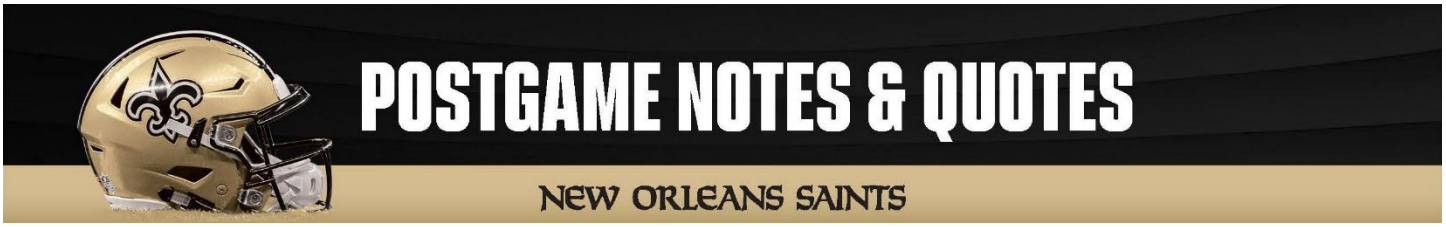

(On the atmosphere today) “I thought the atmosphere was awesome. I thought it was a great atmosphere. I thought our guys really rallied off of it. Obviously, we’re all bummed Our whole community, our whole team’s bummed that we weren’t able to get this one done. We will work on it more, moving forward, and I’m excited to find that solution to get it done together.”

(On difficulty defending tight endBrock Bowers) “Brock, at the end of the day, had a phenomenal game. He made plays in critical downs that were going to him, and was getting plays done.”

(On S Justin Reid kicking off in the second half) “Planned thing. It was just an option to kind of change things up in the kicker position. It was just a different look.”

(On if Reid’s assignment was to get an additional tackler on the kickoff unit) “Yes.”

RAIDERS HEAD COACH KLINT KUBIAK

(Opening comments regarding injuries) “Jack Bech fractured his forearm, so we will evaluate him tomorrow. JPJ (J. Powers-Johnson) has a groin.”

(On the defense) “I just want to give a big shout out to our defense (with) four takeaways in the second half was the catalyst to the game. I am so proud of them and all of the guys fighting to the end.”

(On the team’s resilience to win) “That’s a great job by our players. That’s what they have been doing since April. They believe in each other. They are a tight group. It wasn’t pretty, but they found a way to win. That’s what it takes every week in this league.”

(On what flipped defensively for the team down the stretch) “It’s a four quarter game. (You) just keep playing. Our guys kept playing.”

(On Nakobe Dean causing another fumble today) “I think that it just starts with the leadership of that position. You’ve got to get everybody on the same page. Then, he is producing on top of it. He’s the heartbeat of our defense. We are counting on him every week. The other guys thrive off of his maturity, number one, and his play style, number two.”

(On the success of the tight ends today) “Yeah, whatever it takes to win. Those guys did a great job.”

(On Tight End Brock Bowers) “Brock has always been a guy that we count on, but to come off of an injury and play the way that he did; it’s very, very impressive. We needed it. We are not surprised by that with Brock. Again, it’s a whole team effort. There’s a lot of guys that did a lot of good things. I am very proud of Brock. I am proud of the offensive line, the running backs, the receivers, the quarterback. It was a team effort.”

(On the play of Kirk Cousins) “He’s been leading this way since April. I’m not surprised by what he’s doing. He’s leaning on his teammates. He is a leader on our team. Again, it’s three games into the year, (so) we aren’t taking anyone’s flowers. It’s a one game season from here on out every week.”

(On what Cousins brings to the role) “He has the experience. He has the maturity. He is making plays.”

(On if he thought that the sack and fumble recovery would stand) “We thought that it was a fumble.”

(On how Brock Bowers' presence helps everyone else) "It's a team game. Brock played his tail off. Our guys won those first two games when he wasn't there. In the NFL every week someone is going to be out. There will be more guys out this (upcoming) week. Jack Bech is probably going to be out. As the team finds a way to win, that it what good teams do."

(On Cody White scoring after coming off the practice squad) "All he does is produce and work hard. I am very happy for #82, too"

(On why the team has made a turnaround this quickly) "It's a 17 game season, so we can't be happy or satisfied with this win. We put ourselves in good position. We know what's coming to our place next week in the Chiefs, so let's take it one game at a time. That is how you win games. You don't look too far ahead; you don't look behind. You keep your eyes on the prize and get better every day."

SAINTS PLAYER QUOTES

S JUSTIN REID

(On his thoughts on the fourth-quarter mistakes) “I think we fell short in all three phases, there was a couple of plays I fell short, and we all just got to look at what, you know, we can do better at the film and make sure we get that cleaned up. I thought that we played a lot of good football, and I thought that there were some plays we just left short out there on all three phases, so we just can't do that. We have a lot of good things going; we are going to learn from this, and we are not going to get too down on ourselves. But a lot of guys are upset, a lot of guys are pissed off, I'm pissed off right now, but that's okay because we have high standards for ourselves. We have high standards for what we can do, and we are going to step up to the occasion next time.”

(On if losing control of the game after three quarters was the most unsettling part) “Yeah, that's what the NFL is, and playing this league long enough, you kind of always end up on every side of it. We had a chance, we're up two scores, we got to run away with that. We just fell short, we need to have a little more production on offense; we need to get some stops on defense, didn't do either one of them, and that's what happens.

(On what makes Brock Bowers difficult to limit) “Yeah, the kid is special. He had a hell of a game today. First game back, he was excited to be back, and he just got open. They featured him; I'm sure he had probably at least a third, maybe half of their touches, and he's a talented kid, so credit to him. They did a good job featuring him and getting him the ball and allowing him to make some plays, and kudos to them winning the game.”

QB TYLER SHOUGH

(On the fourth quarter and his message to the team trying to get back in the game) “I mean, one, we’ve just got to be better. Towards the end there, we had opportunities all the way towards the end, and we feel very comfortable in those moments, and we’re just a couple plays away. Whether it’s a miscommunication or a good job by them, but we can clean that up for sure. More than anything, it’s just keep going. It’s a long season. There’s a lot of great stuff to watch on film, a lot of stuff that we can learn from. Finishing strong in that game is really one of those things, and that starts with myself protecting the ball. It starts with all of us.”

(On what the big takeaway is from today and moving forward) “Yeah, 100%. There are ebbs and flows to the game. We obviously had some momentum there, and we got to finish it off in the end zone on some of those and protect those opportunities for field goals. Obviously, those fourth downs you’ve got to get the ball out of your hands in some of those moments. Turnovers are not necessarily the worst thing, but you’ve got to get out and get it out of your hands. More than anything is how do we learn from it and how do we keep that same intensity throughout the game. I thought the playstyle, our communication, were good. We just got to figure out a way to get over that hump.”

(On emotions in the locker room) “Oh, man, it hurts for sure, because you understand the work that was put in and you understand the fight. That’s the best thing for our team is—it hurts whenever you love each other that way. We all let each other down. As a team, we are going to figure out how we keep going. More than anything, it’s stuff to learn from on film. It’s not anything to freak out about. It’s more of, there’s some really good stuff, but how do we shore this up to where we want to be in the position where we want to be at the end of the year? How do we do that? That’s a really good football team, and they're playing well, and I think we're a really good football team and playing well. So it comes down to a couple plays, and we'll fix those up."

(On the first fumble in the fourth quarter and what he thought compared to the Goff play) "Yeah, I mean, I thought I threw it. Personally, I thought my arm was going forward. I'm not exactly sure on the rule, but it doesn't really matter to me. I've got to get it out sooner regardless. I thought I was going to get it off in time. Sometimes it happens like that. So keep learning from it, and we'll get it done."

(On emotions regarding the calls and how that affects the next play) "It's part of the job where you have to continue to do that, good or bad. But you're humans too, and you want all of your guys to make the play or make the big play on defense, and we want to go out and score every single time. We're fighting together, and that's the best part—is when we can rally off each other. But at the same time, we have to respond regardless. So it's a unique battle, but for us as an offense, I feel we do a good job of resetting. At the end there, they made a couple more plays, and we had to do a better job of ball security because that was kind of the story of it. So we'll clean that up and put a huge emphasis on it as far as doing our job that way."

(On what he saw on the interception) "Yeah, I knew they getting to a 'junkie 2'. So I was trying to find that alley right there. I just got hit. I've got to eat that one, either take the sack or run. They did a good job in that coverage, and it wasn't necessarily a surprise, but I need to find a way to get out of their hands to the checkdown there or run. That kind of sucks. It happens that way when the ball gets floated in the air like that. So I've got to be better there as far as protecting it in those situations, especially on that side of the field."

(On keeping composure after consistent turnovers) "It goes back to going to the next play and how do you go back to the next play. They made a couple of good plays. At the end of the day, it's football. Stuff like that's going to happen, and I think we understand how we fix that more than anything, and it's staying neutral throughout it. We're not going to fall victim to riding that emotional wave. At the end of the day, we lost, and we have some plays that we can fix in order to win."

(On changing the play at fourth-down and what he saw and switched to) "Yeah, I knew they were getting into Cover 0, so we got into one of our answers for it. They did a good job popping out and bracketing (Chris) Olave there. So I tried to run it. They did a good job covering it. So we got to maybe switch things up, get into a different answer. At the end of the day, execute better on that play. Felt the operation was good. Communication was good. We got to find a way to get it there on third-and-one and fourth-and-one."

(On what he liked about being able to move the ball the first 3 quarters) "We feel very strongly about our ability to, in any circumstance, gain positive yards and keep going. I think we were moving the ball well a lot of the time. At the end there, we shot ourselves in the foot when it came down to those turnovers. Stuff like that's going to happen, but how do we try to limit those and make sure that we're on the other side of the coin from the turnover margin. So, that was the story at the end there, and it sucks, but there's a lot of stuff to build off of."

(On what was working at the beginning of the second half and if it was something they liked about their sequencing, or the look that the Raiders were stuck in) "A little bit of both. We did a good job of staying on the ball, being able to kind of get in a different place, and we were executing really well, communicating well, and we were able to finish off in the red zone a couple of really good times. So tempo is going to be a big factor and also executing in some of those looks. That's stuff to continue to build off of, and we're going to keep going that way."

(On if they liked the matchup specifically with Juwan (Johnson) and Noah (Fant) at TE in the red zone or if they were the open guys) "Both, for sure. We feel like those guys are mismatches all over the field. All of our guys—and (Devaughn) Vele, Olave—you got all those weapons down there—(Travis)Etienne (Jr.), AK (Alvin Kamara). So it's how do we dissect that look and get it to the best guy. They did a phenomenal job getting on those routes, and we've got to come up big and continue to make plays."

(On receiving a lot of different looks today offensively—all active players got on the field—and if that is how they want to operate) "Yes, we want to be balanced, but change things up personnel-wise. We want to get the ball to all of our guys. So that's the best thing is being multiple that way and still running what you're good at. That's the challenge every single week, and we still got to focus on us. It's still

September football. It’s still early. There’s a lot of stuff to clean up expectedly, but at the same time, we don’t want to live like that. We want to continue to get better, and we’re going to do that. We’re going to really evaluate what was good and what we can clean up going forward.”

(On the energy in the Caesars Superdome today) “I thought it was awesome. The energy in the Dome and the fans were active the whole game. We appreciate their support. It’s going to be another big game coming up next, for obvious reasons. We’re going to need everybody showing out, and we’re going to put it together this week. Have a great week of practice and get after them.”

(On if he found a lot of significant growth in the run scheme as well to build off of for future weeks) “Yeah, the O-line and the RBs did a great job today in the run game. There was some really good stuff to build on. Very physical. We’ve got to clean up some plays, but it definitely helped out a lot, and a lot of those things came down to the wire on a couple of those fourth downs. I was really proud of our effort in that way and stuff to build off of.”

(On the last first-down drive, and if giving them 1:54 with multiple timeouts was intended towards the end of the first half) “No, that wasn’t the exact intent. Obviously, you want to score, but ideally you would like to maybe run it, run out the clock a little bit more. But at the same time, if you have the opportunity, you are going to score. So they did a good job on driving down. We’ve got to figure out a way to slow it down a little bit at the end, but that’s part of it.”

(On Olave’s biggest step from last year to this year) “His consistency—every single day, I feel he’s the same dude. I’ve felt like that since I’ve gotten here. But more than anything—our dialogue, our chemistry has grown. Whether that’s, ‘Hey, find me on this look,’ or ‘we get this, you know, I’m coming to you’ or maybe a play breaks down, stuff like that, and we’re continuing to talk to each other that way. That’s part of it. Sometimes they’re going to get some points, we’re going to have some negative plays, and we’re going to have some great plays. And that’s the fun part of playing with a guy like him.”

WR CHRIS OLAVE

(On the difference between last week's win over the Ravens and this week's game) “Of course, I feel like we got one win, two losses, so we definitely missed two opportunities, but it's only week Three, so all we can do is learn from this. Of course, it's a tough loss; it was a great position to win, but we just got to learn from it and not let it happen again.”

(On playing in close games in the fourth quarter) "We just got to control what we can control, man. There's going to be plays like that where it's out of our hands; it's a tough part at the end of the day, but that's what they went with. We had another opportunity to go down and score and take the lead.”

(On if he felt the offense had a good start to the game) "Not at all; first drive, three-and-out- that's not what we want at all. We want to go down and get some points, especially when we get the ball first. So, it was a little dirt; we had thirteen points at halftime, but we know we can be a lot better.”

LAS VEGAS RAIDERS PLAYERS

QB KIRK COUSINS

(On coming back today) “It’s very much like each game is its own stage. As we are watching games as we are getting ready in the locker room, you can see that each game is its own entity. I was proud of the way that we kept playing. Obviously momentum. I am proud of the way that the defense kept fighting and getting us the ball back with the turnovers. Guys made plays. We stayed resilient. It’s a long season.”

(On the momentum swings) “All I know is to keep playing. Stuff like that hardens you. I threw a pick at Notre Dame in a game that we had wrapped up. It was terrible interception. I threw a terrible pick to end the season (as a pro), if we would have won then we would have made the playoffs. If you play long enough, then you get some scars. It hurts. You just keep playing. I go back to what Mike Shannahan told me when I was a rookie. Tough times don’t last, but tough people do. I have to remind that to myself a lot. Just stay the course and the tough person is going to be there. We just have to live that every day a little bit.”

(On the Raiders fans today) “It’s a privilege to play for an organization with the kind of history that we have. I wasn’t say I was on the fence about signing with the Raiders, but I was excited. When I saw that Autumn Wind video with the history and the music on, it kind of pushed me over the edge. There aren’t many organizations in this league with that history and tradition and iconic names. To play for one is a privilege. It’s good to be a part of that history. It was fun to see the Raider Nation. My son goes to school and he hears Raiders. They love it and are all in. It’s been fun.”

TE BROCK BOWERS

(On the last few weeks) “It was tough dealing with it during camp. I thought it was nothing. I thought it would go away by the start of the season. I had to get it done before the long season ahead. I’m glad to be back.”

(On Kirk Cousin’s veteran leadership) “It helps a lot having a very experienced guy back there. He keeps everyone calm. He’s calm, cool and collected. He’s seen a lot and is very smart out there.”

(On his message in the huddle down two scores) “Keep having faith in what we are doing. Part of the game is up and downs, but we have to focus in on what we have been doing all week.”

(On how he thought he’d play today) “I had no idea. T first it was fun with all the guys flying around out there. It was fun being out there with all of the guys. Our offensive line played hard.”

DL MAXX CROSBY

(On the mentality of the defense) “It’s a credit to everybody. It starts with Robbie (Leonard). He trusts us as a group. We emphasize everyday in the building about taking the ball away. We continue to do that. I think we had four in the second half. You continue to do that and you have a lot better chance of winning.”

(On how big his eyes got on the fumble recovery) “I couldn’t pick the ball up, but at least I got the ball. It was a great play. Malcolm (Koonce) got the strip sack and a big turnover. It was a big play in the game. It slipped out of my hands twice and I just have to fall on the ball. We’ll have more opportunities. We just need to keep hunting, be around the ball and we’ll have more opportunities.”

(On the success of 3-0) “We have a lot of work to do. It’s early. It’s September. Everyone in the locker room is playing for each other. It is as simple as that. I think guys enjoy being around each other. I think guys enjoy putting in the work together and finding solutions instead of complaining and looking for an out. Everyone is trying to get on the same page toward one common goal and I think that has been a big part of why.

LB NAKOBE DEAN

(On the turnovers) “We knew we had to rally back and start playing our type of football. Our style of play is taking the ball away. We have to go every week and see how many takeaways that we can get. We didn’t have any in the first half. So, we had to come back in the second half strong and we did.”

(On how easy is it to flip that switch) “It’s not a switch. You are supposed to always keep it on. It was in our minds the entire game. It’s a 60-minute ballgame.”

(On the mentality being down two scores) “Make one play at a time. That’s it. We preach to be 1-0 at the end of the day. It’s like 1-0 each play. Just win the play. Don’t look too far ahead.
