NEW ORLEANS SAINTS [6-10] AT ATLANTA FALCONS [7-9]

WEEK #18

SUNDAY, JANUARY 4, 2026 - 12:00 P.M. (CST)
MERCEDES-BENZ STADIUM - ATLANTA, GA.

THE MATCHUP

Although Sunday's season finale between the New Orleans Saints [6-10] and Atlanta Falcons [7-9], who meet at Mercedes-Benz Stadium on Sunday at 12:00 p.m. (CST), the matchup features two clubs playing their best football of the season. The final week showdown between longtime division rivals takes place after the Saints defeated the Tennessee Titans, 34-26, while the Falcons defeated the Los Angeles Rams, 27-24, on Monday Night.

During a season-long journey to improve under first-year Head Coach Kellen Moore, the results began to become visible three weeks ago, winning all four games in December to improve their record to 6-10.

"I think it really comes down to people," said Moore, describing his team's improvement in all three phases. "We have a really special group. They do it the right way. They're so connected. These guys are battling at such a high level and competing for each other and I think it's really special."

The formula for New Orleans' resurgence has taken various forms since the Saints rallied from a 17-14 deficit midway through the third quarter in rain and wind in Tampa Bay on Dec. 7. In that game QB Tyler Shough made timely plays with his arm and his feet, culminating with a fourth quarter 12-yard rushing touchdown and two fourth quarter fourth down stops in a 24-20 win.

The story line has varied little from week-to-week and Sunday at Tennessee was no exception as Shough completed 22-of-27 passes [career-high 81.5 pct.] for a career-best 333 yards with two touchdown passes and a career-high 142.4 rating.

During the past month, Shough has established himself as a front runner for National Football League Offensive Rookie of the Year honors, completing 91-of-128 passes [71.1 pct.] for 1,057 yards with a 102.9 passer rating, throwing for four TDs and rushing for two more.

DE Chase Young made another big impact on defense, making four tackles and 1.5 sacks, including a first half strip sack returned 33 yards for a touchdown to cut down a 13-3 deficit. During the four-game winning streak, Young has made 13 tackles, 3.5 sacks to increase his career-high total to 8.5, four stops for loss, one forced fumble and two recoveries.

On special teams, K Charlie Smyth drilled 56- and 57-yard field goals, becoming the first Saint to drill three kicks of at least 56 yards in the same season.

THE HEAD COACHES

Named the 19th head coach in New Orleans Saints history on February 11, 2025 Kellen Moore joined the Black and Gold after serving as the offensive coordinator for the Philadelphia Eagles in 2024. Under the guidance of Moore, quarterback Jalen Hurts and running back Saquon Barkley both had career years. Hurts finished with a career-high 103.7 passer rating, en route to Super Bowl LIX MVP honors. Barkley, who was named the 2024 National Football League Offensive Player of the Year by the Associated Press, had one of the best seasons on the ground in NFL history, leading the league with a franchise-record 2,005 rushing yards in the regular season. His 2,504 rushing yards including the postseason were a league record, earning Pro Bowl and All-Pro honors. The 2024 Eagles offense ranked eighth overall in net yards per game [367.2] and seventh in points per game [27.2]. Philadelphia rushed for a single-season club record 3,048 yards [sixth-best in NFL history] and finished second in the league in rushing yards per game [179.3]. Before joining the Eagles in 2024, Moore served as offensive coordinator of the Los Angeles Chargers in 2023 and the Dallas Cowboys from 2019-22 after starting his coaching career as quarterbacks coach in Dallas in 2018. In four seasons as offensive coordinator of the Cowboys, Moore's unit ranked second in the NFL in total offense [391.0 net yards per game] and scoring [27.7 points per game]. The Dallas offense was also the league's fourth-best passing offense [264.4 net yards per game] and ranked seventh in rushing offense [126.6 yards per game] over that span.

Moore played quarterback at Boise State [2007-11] before playing six seasons in the National Football League with the Detroit Lions [2012-14], Dallas Cowboys [2015-17].

Personal: Born July 5, 1988, in Prosser, Washington. He and his wife, Julie, have two daughters, Halle and Madelyn, and two sons, Kyler and Beckham. His younger brother, Kirby, is the offensive coordinator at the University of Missouri.

Raheem Morris was named the 19th head coach in Atlanta Falcons history on Jan. 25, 2024. In his first season with the Falcons, Morris finished with a 4-2 record against NFC South opponents. Atlanta finished sixth in offensive yards per game [369.8], fifth in passing yards per game [239.3] and tenth in rushing yards per game [130.5]. Defensively, the Falcons finished the season third in opponent plays of 20-or-more yards, allowing just 52 [eight rushing, 44 passing] throughout the season. Running back Bijan Robinson and special teamer KhaDarel Hodge both were elected to their first-career Pro Bowls after the 2024 season, while guard Chris Lindstrom was elected to his third consecutive [2022-24]. Drake London, Robinson and Michael Penix Jr. combined to make the Falcons the first team in NFL history with a 300-yard passer, 175-yard receiver and 150-yard rusher each under the age of 25 in the same game [Week 18]. In his sophomore season, Robinson finished the season third in the NFL in rushing yards [1,456], fifth in rushing touchdowns [14] and fifth in receiving yards [431], among running backs, making his first Pro Bowl appearance.

During his three-year tenure with the Rams as defensive coordinator, Los Angeles made two postseason appearances and captured a title in Super Bowl LVI. From 2021-23, Los Angeles' defense recorded the fourth-best red-zone efficiency rating and the seventh-fewest rushing yards per game in the NFL. His 2023 unit was one of the youngest in the NFL, but helped the Rams earn a playoff berth and featured third-round rookie defensive lineman Kobie Turner, a finalist for the AP Defensive Rookie of the Year Award. Turner and Byron Young tallied a combined 17 sacks, finishing first and second among all rookies. Turner's nine sacks matched three-time NFL Defensive Player of the Year Aaron Donald's franchise rookie record [nine in 2014], while Young's eight sacks ranked third among rookies in franchise history.

Born and raised in Newark, N.J., Morris played safety at Hofstra from 1994-97 and graduated with a degree in physical education.

SEASON GAME SUMMARIES

WEEK 1: Arizona Cardinals 20, New Orleans Saints 13; September 7 @ Caesars Superdome - The New Orleans Saints fell to the Arizona Cardinals in the 2025 season opener for both teams, despite rebounding from a 20-10 third quarter deficit to come within an end zone throw of a game-tying touchdown.

Heroics on offense, defense and special teams aided the Black and Gold in a promising fourth quarter. With 4:40 left in the contest, Saints DT Bryan Bresee blocked a 46-yard field goal attempt. QB Spencer Rattler then converted a trio of first downs on throws to TE Juwan Johnson and WR Devaughn Vele and a 12-yard scramble by the signal-caller to set up a 28-yard field goal by K Blake Grupe with 2:44 left.

New Orleans then forced a three-and-out, punctuated by a third down sack of Cardinals QB Kyler Murray by CB Alontae Taylor for a 15-yard loss to get New Orleans the ball back with 1:49 left.

Rattler helped advance the Saints to the Cardinals 18-yard line to set up three tries at the end zone, the closest being a laser to Johnson that was broken up by Arizona defenders Jalen Thompson and Budda Baker.

Rattler completed 27-of-46 passes for 214 yards and carried four times for 29 yards. Johnson led the Saints in receiving with eight grabs for 76 yards. Murray completed 21-of-29 passes for 163 yards with two TDs and a 108.8 passer rating, carrying seven times for 38 yards. New Orleans RB Alvin Kamara's first half 18-yard rushing touchdown was the 1,000th touchdown scored at the Caesars Superdome.

New Orleans outgained Arizona through the air, 208-130, but the Cardinals held the ball for 33:46 of the contest to win the time of possession battle. The loss snapped a six-game winning streak for the

Week 2: San Francisco 49ers 26, New Orleans Saints 21; September 14, 2025 @ Caesars Superdome - The New Orleans Saints dropped their second game of the season to the 49ers, despite bouncing back from a 26-14 early fourth quarter deficit to have a chance of winning the game in the final minutes.

"We've got to play cleaner football, in all three phases," said Coach Kellen Moore. "There's only so many opportunities in these games and you have to value each and every opportunity in all three phases, and when they present themselves you've got to take advantage of them because there's only so many."

An impressive drive and defensive stops paved the way for New Orleans to be back in it in the very end. After going down two scores with 12:18 left in the fourth, quarterback Spencer Rattler and company made some magic happen, converting three first downs to wide receiver Chris Olave and running back Alvin Kamara to set up an eventual three-yard TD to wide receiver Devaughn Vele. The score capped off a 13 play, 71-yard drive in six minutes flat to bring the Saints back within five. After two three-and-out drives by both teams, Rattler led a charge that just fell short. Starting on the New Orleans' six yard-line with 2:40 left, the signal-caller picked up two first downs before the 49ers defense became too much to handle. Rattler completed 25-of-34 passes (73.5 pct.) for 207 yards with career-highs of three passing TDs and a 118.1 rating.

49ers quarterback Mac Jones went 26-of-39 for 279 yards and threw three TDs with a 113.1 passer rating. New Orleans outgained San Francisco on the ground, 121-77, but the 49ers beat the Saints in passing yardage, 344-307, and were 53% (8-for-15) on third down to New Orleans' 36% (four-for-11).

Week 3: Seahawks 44, New Orleans Saints 13; September 21, 2025 @ Lumen Field - New Orleans' season continued to get off to a rocky start, as they fell to the Seahawks at Lumen Field.

The Saints got off to a solid start with the ball first and quarterback Spencer Rattler completed a pass to wide receiver Chris Olave and running back Alvin Kamara gained seven yards to put the team near midfield. However the drive stalled out and the Saints failed to convert on fourth down.

After a Seattle first down, the Saints stopped two run plays for one-yard gains, but DT Bryan Bresee was assessed a 12-yard unnecessary roughness penalty on third down that extended a drive and set up a TD. The Seahawks extended their lead to 21-0 by the end of the first quarter, where rookie WR Tory Horton returned a punt 95 yards for a TD and blocked punt set up a third score.

On a drive spanning the first and second quarter, the Saints got on the scoreboard with a Blake Grupe field goal, but the Seahawks took advantage of a long kickoff return to set up a scoring play of a 14-yard pass from QB Sam Darnold to Horton.

The Seahawks took a halftime 38-6 lead, while the Black and Gold kept up their intensity, holding Seattle to a pair of field goals and recording a turnover, while TE Jack Stoll scored his first touchdown.

Rattler completed 28-of-39 passes for 218 yards with a TD. Olave had a career-high ten catches.

Week 4: Bills 30, Saints 19; September 28, 2025 @ Highmark Stadium - New Orleans faced a 11-point deficit with 6:42 left in the third quarter and was able to cut it to two with 8:53 left in the game, but the Saints never led. New Orleans rushed for a season-high 189 yards, scoring a TD on their first possession for the first time this season. But with Buffalo leading 14-7 in the second quarter, New Orleans was unable to capitalize or score points, when rookie S Jonas Sanker had his first career interception near midfield early in the second quarter. QB Spencer Rattler connected with WR Chris Olave for a three-yard TD late in the third quarter to reduce Buffalo's lead to 21-16, followed by a field goal early in the fourth quarter. But the Bills answered with a four-play, 60-yard drive to gain a nine-point advantage. This was followed by a Saints drive that stalled at the Buffalo 43 on downs and the Bills took advantage of a roughing the punter penalty to hold onto the ball and kick a field goal with 2:12 left.

Week 5: Saints 26, New York Giants 14; October 5, 2025 @ Caesars Superdome - Spencer Rattler was so fired up by the sight of Rashid Shaheed hauling in his deep throw down the right sideline that the second-year quarterback started springing the length of the field to join the celebration.

Rattler's pivotal completion to Shaheed went for an 87-yard touchdown, DB Jordan Howden returned a fumble 86 yards for a score, and New Orleans defeated the turnover-prone Giants 26-14 for the Saints' first win under rookie coach Kellen Moore.

"Probably the fastest I ran all game," Rattler quipped when asked about chasing Rashid to the end zone. "Those plays create energy for the whole team, the whole crowd and we definitely want to have more of those."

Such moments had been rare for New Orleans since late last season, which ended with the Saints on a four-game skid before the Moore era began with four more losses to start the 2025 season.

That changed Sunday against the Giants (1-4) - also the previous team to lose to the Saints last Dec. 8. And after the game, the Saints transformed their home locker room - equipped with a sound system and color-changing LED lighting - into "Club Dub" for the first time since beating the Cleveland Browns on November 17.

"It's been a while since we had the fog and the music playing afterward," Howden said. "I almost forgot how that was."

The 37-year old Moore celebrated his first victory since last season's Super Bowl - a game also played in the Caesars Superdome, when he was Philadelphia's offensive coordinator.

"This is a special group," Moore said, praising Saints players' "resiliency to hang in there through some challenging times the first month."

Rattler earned his first victory in 11 career starts, passing for 225 yards without turning the ball over or taking a sack, while Shaheed finished with four catches for 114 yards for the Saints (1-4).

"It feels good to get that first win," Rattler said. "It was a team win. The defense played great. The offensive line was elite."

Giants rookie quarterback Jaxon Dart, who won his first career start in Week Four, passed for 202 yards and two touchdowns, but also turned the ball over three times, the first when the ball slipped from his hand during a scramble in the third quarter. DE Cameron Jordan recovered the football as Dart, laying across Jordan's legs, disgustedly put both hands over his face.

"We had a lot of opportunities and moved the ball just fine," Dart said. "We hurt ourselves. We just kind of gave this game away."

Dart threw his first two career interceptions in the fourth quarter - both caught by Kool-Aid McKinstry for his first career picks.

New York committed five turnovers in all, none more costly than when RB Cam Skattebo was stripped by DT Bryan Bresee at the Saints 12-yard line, giving Howden the chance to scoop the loose ball on the 14 and sprint untouched the other way early in the fourth quarter.

"It was a game-changing play," Moore said.

Indeed, the Giants were threatening to score a go-ahead touchdown when Howden saw the ball on the ground behind the line of scrimmage, picked it up and recalled thinking, "Just run - run for my life."

Dart completed his first five passes for 44 yards, capped by a short TD to TE Theo Johnson. He mixed in a 20-yard scramble with three more completions during New York's next series, which ended with Dart's 15-yard strike to Johnson for a 14-3 lead.

New Orleans closed to 14-13 on Shaheed's TD - the Saints' longest offensive play since 2016.

Shaheed said he tried to make S Tyler Nubin believe he was headed across the field to the left, "and once I saw his hips turn, I broke toward the [right] corner and the rest is history."

It was also Shaheed's sixth career touchdown reception of 53 or more yards, and his third covering at least 68 yards.

After Saints K Blake Grupe missed a 52-yard field goal that would have given New Orleans the lead late in the first half, the Saints got the ball back when LB Demario Davis forced receiver Darius Slayton's fumble at the Saints 35 and S Jonas Sanker recovered.

That led to Grupe's short field goal for a 16-14 Saints lead at halftime.

Week 6: New England Patriots 26, Saints 19; October 12, 2025 @ Caesars Superdome - It's not the fight, it's the finish.

It's not the play it's the precision.

It's not the drive, it's the discipline and details.

The New Orleans Saints (1-5) lost their third one-score game this season in the Caesars Superdome, falling 25-19 to the New England Patriots.

Add that to earlier losses against the Cardinals [20-13] and 49ers [26-21] and the Saints have riddled themselves with "couldas" and "wouldas," not not filled the holes with finished business.

"Tough," cornerback Alontae Taylor said. "I think it speaks volumes for us, though. Teams ain't just blowing us out like we're just trash. I think we're right there, and we've just got to find that hump and just stay consistent with that and try to get some wins under our belt."

Sunday followed a similar pattern.

Quarterback Spencer Rattler was efficient and turnover-free - 20 of 26 for 227 yards with no interceptions, but no touchdowns. New Orleans split success in its two red zone trips - a short field goal by Blake Grupe and a one-yard touchdown run by Taysom Hill - and settled for field goals when drives stalled at the New England 30-, 20- and 36-yard lines.

Grupe's last field goal, a 54-yarder with 13:41 left in the contest, pulled New Orleans to within 25-19. And the defense, which struggled while allowing the Patriots to convert six of 13 times on third down, forced punts on consecutive New England possessions.

The Saints began their final two possessions of the contest at their own 25- and 10-yard lines. The first ended after two plays when tight end Juwan Johnson caught a pass from Rattler over the middle and lost a fumble after a 14-yard gain to the 50, and the second ended after the offense gained 28 yards on five plays.

The Patriots converted one last third down on their final drive - a 21-yard pass on third-and-11 from their own 30-yard line with 2:40 left - that allowed them to run out the clock.

New England QB Drake Maye [18 of 26 for 261 yards and three touchdowns, with no interceptions] had completions of fourth-and-four and third-and-11 [twice] in the second half, while all three touchdown passes came on first down in the first half.

"You're guarding pretty good receivers," Taylor said, noting Maye's ability to extend plays and five receivers extra time to uncover. "They're finding ways, and Drake and them have a pretty good connection."

"So you're just going to find a guy open and throw the ball. We've just got to tighten up on our end. If we've got to cover longer, then we've got to cover longer."

Even though the Patriots didn't convert the game's lone turnover into points, they siphoned 2:45 off the clock and pinned New Orleans deep with a punt. The Saints took possession at their 10 with 5:51 left in the contest.

"It says in the Word, like, don't get tired in doing good," Johnson said. "We have a lot of stuff that we're doing that's good, so don't get tired in doing it. You're going to be rewarded when the time is right. The time isn't right, but one thing we're going to do is just keep working, clean up a few things and that's where we're at."

"Our red zone efficiency needs to be a little better, that's something we're going to clean up and be a little more efficient. I had a turnover, so obviously clean that up."

"The biggest thing is just being better and sound. It's just little things that a lot of people don't see, but we see. We'll clean up, we'll do better, we'll come out with a better attitude and a different result next week."

Several winning elements have been displayed. The Saints continue the quest to minimize - if not eliminate the costly ones.

"At the end of the day we did not take advantage of the opportunities that were presented to us," Head Coach Kellen Moore said. "Every game is going to have those opportunities, and you have got to take advantage of them. They won the turnover ratio, they won some of the situational stuff and that's how this game was decided."

"I have got to find a way for myself to coach better, to put ourselves in better situations to be more successful as a football team. Because there is too much good and not enough in those little margins [to be losing]."

Week 7: Chicago Bears 26, New Orleans Saints 14; October 19, 2025 @ Soldier Field - The piecemeal approach to winning National Football League games continued to fail the New Orleans Saints at the Chicago Bears.

Flashes of effectiveness [defensive stops, a forced turnover, two impressive TD drives] again could not sufficiently puncture a thicker shield of futility [four turnovers including three interceptions, no run game against the Bears, inability to stop the run], and the Saints dropped their sixth game in seven outings, 26-14 to the Bears at Soldier Field.

A promising defensive start included a three-and-out punt to open the game, a field goal allowed after the offense committed a turnover deep in New Orleans territory and an interception off Bears QB Caleb Williams. But that buckled under the weight of 222 rushing yards and two touchdowns allowed on 40 carries.

And an offensive flurry that produced consecutive touchdown drives of 91 and 80 yards, each ending on passes from QB Spencer Rattler to WR Chris Olave, was negated by four Rattler turnovers and an invisible run game [44 yards on 17 carries].

Saints first-year coach Kellen Moore echoed the sound of sameness to explain the outcome.

"The theme of that game...we had our chances," Moore said. "I thought our guys battled. I thought our guys put [us] in really good position in the middle of the game to come back and get ourself back in it. But then we just couldn't keep it going. Credit to those guys – they played better than us, they coached better than us. We've got to find the formula that works."

New Orleans has shown it has the ability to create the elements of the formula. It hasn't been able to create them consistently and sustain them long enough for the scoreboard to reflect the mix.

Rattler [20 of 32 for 233 yards and two TDs, and sacked four times for -24 yards] entered the contest with only one turnover – an interception in September against the Seattle Seahawks – and six touchdowns.

But he was sacked and lost a fumble on the Saints' opening possession, after New Orleans' defense forced a punt on the game's opening drive. And after the Saints punted and Blake Grupe missed his sixth field goal this season to end the second and third drives, Rattler's pass intended for Mason Tipton was intercepted and returned to the Saints 30-yard line to conclude the fourth drive.

Week 8: Tampa Bay Buccaneers 23, Saints 3; October 26, 2025 @ Caesars Superdome - An inspired defensive effort and a quarterback change wasn't enough for the New Orleans Saints on Sunday, as they dropped a 23-3 decision to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers at the Caesars Superdome.

The Saints turned the ball over four times [two interceptions, one a pick-six] to allow the Bucs to solidify their grip on the NFC South at 6-2. The loss dropped the Saints to 1-7.

Rookie Tyler Shough entered the game with 3:57 to play in the third quarter and the Saints down 17-3 and promptly completed his first pass for six yards to Taysom Hill. Shough's first series ended when Tampa safety Antoine Winfield Jr. took the ball away from Saints receiver Chris Olave for an interception. Starter Spencer Rattler was 15 of 21 for 136 yards with a lost fumble and pick-six, leading the Saints to just three points [48-yard Blake Grupe field goal]. Shough finished 17 of 30 for 129 yards.

The Saints defense played exceptional football in the first half, not allowing the Bucs' offense to score while sacking quarterback Baker Mayfield three times and forcing him to fumble once. Tampa had just 80 yards of offense in the first half. The Saints defense also had a goal-line stand and came close to a second one before Tampa scored on a 1-yard dive in the third quarter.

Saints running back Alvin Kamara joined another exclusive list Sunday when he became the fifth running back in NFL history to have 600 or more receptions. He entered Sunday's game against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers needing two receptions to hit the milestone and accomplished that in the final minute of the second quarter. He had two receptions for 24 yards and six carries for 21 yards.

Luke Fortner started at center for the Saints, replacing longtime starter Erik McCoy, who is out for the season with a biceps injury. Running back Devin Neal saw his most extensive action of the season as the Saints played without Kendre Miller, who was lost for the season in Week Seven because of a knee injury. Wide receiver/return specialist Rashid Shaheed had nine receptions for 75 yards and wide receiver Chris Olave also added eight grabs for 63 yards.

SEASON GAME SUMMARIES

Week 9: Los Angeles Rams 34, Saints 10; November 2, 2025 @ SoFi Stadium - It seemed less about what New Orleans didn't do Sunday against Los Angeles, as it was about what the Rams did - clinically, repeatedly and thoroughly - in a 34-10 Rams victory. The Rams [6-2] scored touchdowns on three of their first four possessions, piled up 77 offensive plays and 438 yards, registered a lopsided time of possession advantage [43:53 to 16:07] and prevented the Saints from conjuring much hope in the first NFL start for Saints rookie QB Tyler Shough. Shough displayed moments of promise while completing 15 of 24 passes for 176 yards and his first career touchdown pass, with one interception. But the Rams ball-hogged to a gluttonous level, keeping the Saints offense off the field and helping set the state for Los Angeles' defense to allow just 40 offensive plays, 224 yards and ten first downs. And a week after New Orleans' defense played arguably its best game this season in a 23-3 loss Tampa Bay, it couldn't get off the field [the Rams converted half of their 14 third-down attempts and both fourth down tries, and New Orleans didn't force a turnover and was shredded in the red zone, where Los Angeles scored on four of five trips. "They controlled so many of the situational football plays," Saints coach Kellen Moore said. "They were able to play a lot more efficiently, run the football better. But third downs, red zone, fourth downs - they were able to control the ball in so many ways." "We didn't get enough shots at it. We didn't get enough opportunities. We've got to play obviously a lot better. A lot of this comes down to the details and the fundamentals of the football game. Sometimes it's a simple game; we've got to play better and give ourselves more opportunities. "When you look at it, we had 40 snaps on offense - probably an all-time low - and they had 77. So they obviously controlled the ball for much of this game." When the Saints went three-and-out on their first two possessions and the Rams scored touchdowns on two of their last three - a 12-play, 88-yard drive and an 11-play, 62-yard drive that lasted a combined 12:36 - it was a harbinger of things to come. New Orleans manufactured an eight-play, 44-yard drive in the second quarter that ended with a 39-yard field goal by Blake Grupe to cut its deficit to 13-3.

And when the Rams responded with a three-play, 65-yard punch to push the lead to 2--3 with 6:25 in the half, the teams traded possessions - the Saints punted, the Rams missed a field goal - before the Saints countered with their only touchdown.

The six-play, 71-yard drive began with 54 seconds left in the second quarter and included Shough completions to WR Rashid Shaheed [13 yards], TE Juwan Johnson [eight yards], receiver Chris Olave [27 yards], and a roughing the passer penalty that pushed the ball to the Rams' 11-yard line.

On first down from there, Shough found Johnson open a few yards in front of the goal line. Johnson made the catch, spun around a tackle attempt and lunged into the end zone for Shough's first touchdown, and halved the Rams' lead to 20-10 entering halftime.

But that was as far as the momentum went.

Los Angeles opened the second half with an 8-yard touchdown drive that required 16 plays, lasted 9:46 and included two third-down conversions and one fourth-down conversion.

Stafford was sacked twice, by Chase Young and Jonah Williams. Young raised his season total to three sacks in four games, second-most on the team. But Stafford mainly was surgical, completing 24 of 32 passes for 281 yards and four touchdowns, with no interceptions. And with Kyren Williams adding 114 rushing yards and a touchdown on 25 carries, the Saints' defense was in a quandry.

Shough will now look to build off his performance.

"I thought there were some positives that came out of the game from Tyler's perspective," Moore said.

"I thought he threw it well. I thought that two-minute drive was big-time football right before the half. Even at the end I thought he made a couple of really good plays to quickly get us down in the red zone and we weren't able to run the football and get a first down."

Week 10: New Orleans Saints 17, Carolina Panthers 7; November 9, 2025 @ Bank of America Stadium - No need to overdramatize the New Orleans Saints' 17-7 victory over Carolina at Bank of America Stadium in Charlotte, N.C. In the grand scheme it was the second win in New Orleans' 10 games and in a business measured by wins and losses, everything based on that reality.

But the tingly feeling that tickled fans, and the music inside Club Dub that Saints players blared inside the Visitors' locker room in Carolina, probably felt and sounded like a mixture of relief and hope.

The relief came in the form of a much-needed victory in New Orleans' most complete game of the season, where offense, defense and special teams each ponied up and shared the winnings.

The hope came in the form of a rookie quarterback, Tyler Shough, who made his second career start.

New Orleans' defense came up with two turnovers, held Carolina to 175 yards and produced stops on six of nine third-down attempts; the special teams blocked a field goal and added a field goal; and the offense produced 388 yards and chewed up 33-21 in time of possession on 67 plays.

But Shough, the Saints' second-round pick this year, likely left the biggest imprint. He completed 19 of 27 passes for 282 yards and two touchdowns, with no interceptions. He had touchdown passes of 62 yards to receiver Chris Olave and 30 yards to tight end Juwan Johnson, and added another 52-yard completion to Johnson, as New Orleans [2-8] evened its record to 1-1 in his starts.

"Just a great feeling," Shough said. "I think my favorite moment was just seeing everybody in the locker room, dapping everybody up and just kind of the work that everyone has put in to this point. Just a great team win. The defense, special teams, everybody had an impact on the game."

Week 12: Atlanta Falcons 24, New Orleans Saints 10; November 23, 2025 @ Caesars Superdome - No need to have searched for a rocket scientist or nuclear physicist on Sunday in the Caesars Superdome.

The New Orleans Saints shot themselves in the foot, then tied a hand behind their back, then got in their own way, then...

You get the idea: In a 24-10 loss to Atlanta, which dropped the Saints to 2-9 and prevented their first two-game winning streak this season, describing why was simple because applicable clichés were appropriate. New Orleans committed such self-injury that the Falcons [4-7] only needed to accept the benevolence and not reciprocate.

The Saints missed two field goals and twice didn't score touchdowns after drives advanced to Atlanta's one-yard line, leaving twice as many points on the field as they posted on the scoreboard. The lone touchdown was a 49-yard interception return by safety Justin Reid in the second quarter, pulling the Saints to within 10-7 in a game they never led.

"Defense has got to come up with a second turnover," said edge rusher Cameron Jordan, who posted a sack [No. 126 of his career], two tackles for loss and a forced fumble. "I think the games we've won, we've gotten two turnovers quick and easy and gave the offense another chance. I had a sack-strip-fumble, I've got to get that ball."

Had Jordan recovered the first-quarter fumble, with the Falcons facing third-and-ten from their 45-yard line, New Orleans likely would have taken over inside Atlanta's 40, trailing 3-0.

But the Falcons recovered, maintained possession, punted and forced the Saints punt to end New Orleans' ensuing drive.

And the Saints were 0 for 3 in the red zone - two failed drives that reached the 1 and a missed 38-yard field goal attempt by Blake Grupe on a drive that started at Atlanta's 16, following a 75-yard kickoff return by Mason Tipton.

Grupe also missed a 47-yard attempt - both were wide right - in the second quarter and is now 18 of 26 this season.

"It's not working right now," Grupe said. "All I can do at this point is look at, literally everything. Look into myself, first of all, and go from there. But other than just literally continuing to put the work in week by week and day by day, that's all I can do."

Jordan said he can sympathize with the struggles, but also stressed the expectation.

"I have no idea what it's like to be a kicker," Jordan said. "I've seen kickers go 40-for-40, or whatever, and then...I assume it's a mindset thing. When you have a great kicker and he starts missing, I've seen it multiple times. I understand there's a mental aspect to it all, one that I can't relate to. I expect them, just like I expect [edge rushers] Chase [Young] or Carl [Granderson] to be able to do their jobs."

"So, when a teammate is in a rut or something, you can't do anything but uplift them. You have to find a way, as a teammate and as a team, to get yourselves out of a hole."

"Beyond that, when you enter the red zone as many times as we did it today, you have to be able to come out with points, preferably touchdowns. When you have a chance on defense to take over the game, you have to be able to. We were playing a good team; I think we showed we are the better team, and we lost. The better team did not win today, and that's on us. We have to be our best friend and not our worst enemy. We stayed getting in our own damn way."

The Saints held Atlanta to 302 yards of offense and the defense produced stops on nine of 12 third down attempts, but New Orleans' own offensive struggles - 293 yards, 5 for 16 on third down and 2 for 5 on fourth down - counterbalanced the effort.

The frustration glared most at the goal line.

On the opening drive of the third quarter, the Saints drove 73 yards on 13 plays (aided by defensive pass interference) to reach the Falcons' one-yard line. But on third-and-goal from the two, Taysom Hill took a direct snap and gained one yard on fourth-and-goal from the one, Hill threw an incomplete pass and the deficit remained 16-7 with 7:32 left in the third.

The Saints forced a punt, began the next drive at their 41-yard line and used 12 plays to reach the one. On second-and-goal, quarterback Tyler Shough was stuffed on a sneak. On third down, a direct snap to Hill went through his hands, he recovered at the 12 and threw incomplete. But he was penalized for intentional grounding and, facing fourth-and-goal from the 15, the Saints settled for Grapes' 33-yard field goal with 12:13 left in the fourth quarter.

Atlanta responded with a 49-yard touchdown pass and successful two-point conversion to end its next drive, and that was more than enough.

"Frustrating game," Head Coach Kellen Moore said. "All three phases kind of had different opportunities that, obviously, we missed. It's going to be a big opportunity for us to respond the right way and stick together and keep battling."

Week 13: Miami Dolphins 21, New Orleans Saints 17; November 30, 2025 @ Hard Rock Stadium - As glaringly inefficient as the New Orleans Saints were in the first half of Sunday's game against the Dolphins at Hard Rock Stadium in Miami Gardens, Fla., it is as spectacularly resilient as they were in a stirring second-half comeback that nearly resulted in a victory.

Nearly

But their 16-0 halftime deficit was just enough to help Miami squeeze out a 21-17 victory over New Orleans, dropping the Saints to 2-10 entering a road game next Sunday against Tampa Bay.

New Orleans' first half included two turnovers (a fumble and an interception by rookie Tyler Shough in his fourth start) and a gashed run defense (112 of Miami's 164 rushing yards) against the Dolphins (5-7), who held the Saints to 63 total yards and one third-down conversion in five attempts in the first 30 minutes.

But the Saints produced one of their best patch jobs of the season in the second half. Shough, who completed seven of 12 passes for 43 yards and was sacked twice in the first half, connected on 19 of 26 passes for 196 yards and two touchdowns in the second half, while the defense didn't allow a touchdown after surrendering one on the opening drive of the game, and limited Miami's offense to 105 yards and a field goal in the final two quarters. "Love the way our guys battled," Saints coach Kellen Moore said. "It was an unfortunate ending, but there's stuff to learn from and grow from during that game, so we'll continue to grow."

New Orleans pulled to within 19-17 on an acrobatic, 15-yard touchdown pass from Shough to Devaughn Vele (eight catches, 93 yards) with 1:17 left, with the 6-foot-5 receiver leaping high and tapping down each foot before falling out of the back of the end zone.

On the two-point attempt to tie, Shough was intercepted by Miami safety Minkah Fitzpatrick who returned it untouched for a Dolphins two-point conversion and 21-17 lead.

Saints K Charlie Smyth, in his first NFL game, then executed a perfect onside kick that Vele recovered at the Saints' 45-yard line, and in two plays New Orleans gained 19 yards to the Miami 36-yard line.

From there, on second-and-1 with 44 seconds left, Shough lofted a pass down the right sideline intended for WR Chris Olave. Olave, escorted by two defenders, made a leaping attempt at the goal line and had the best chance of the trio to make the catch, but saw the ball go through his hands for an incompleteness.

Shough threw incomplete again on third down to avoid a sack and on fourth-and-1, Shough's sneak attempt up the middle was stuffed by the Dolphins. Miami took possession and kneeled twice to end it. New Orleans sped up its offensive tempo in the second half, with great benefit.

"I think once we were able to finally get some first downs and get some efficient runs on first and second down and play in some positive yardage situations, the tempo is a byproduct of that and you're able to play with more tempo," Moore said.

It noticeably benefited Shough, whose two turnovers came in the second quarter (Vele said he was to blame for the fumble, for missing a block on the blind side which allowed an undetected Fitzpatrick a strip-sack that was recovered by Miami and returned to the Saints' 37-yard line).

New Orleans held when cornerback Kool-Aid McKinstry intercepted Tua Tagovailoa in the end zone on the next play.

Miami added a field goal to take a 13-0 lead on its next possession before the Saints drove from their 28 to Miami's 24, where on second-and-10 with 1:14 left, Shough was intercepted by cornerback Rasul Douglas, who returned it 38 yards to the Saints' 42. The Dolphins added a field goal as time expired in the half to take the 16-point lead.

New Orleans opened the second half with a 10-play, 65-yard touchdown drive that ended on a 17-yard pass to Olave (four catches for 47 yards), and Shough's two-point conversion run halved the deficit to 16-8.

"Just really proud of our resiliency throughout," Shough said. "We started off too slow, just kind of proud how we battled the whole way. It just sucks, losing. We've got to find the little ways to keep getting better. I think we're progressing well, we've got to shore it up."

Defensively, New Orleans posted four sacks including two by edge rusher Cameron Jordan raising his season total to a team-leading 6.5 and his career total to 128, tied with Pro Football Hall of Famer and Saints legend Rickey Jackson for 17th all-time in NFL history.

Week 14: Saints 24, Tampa Bay Buccaneers 20; December 7, 2025 @ Raymond James Stadium - As the rain and turf at Raymond James Stadium caked cleats, slicked hands and smeared jerseys, Tyler Shough left the field as pristine as he possibly could have on Sunday in Tampa, Fla.

The New Orleans Saints rookie quarterback showed off the goods that made him the Saints' highest drafted signal-caller since 1971 in a 24-20 victory, his second as a starter and the third this season for the Saints (3-10).

Shough ran for two touchdowns - including a lead-taking 13-yarder with 8:42 left - and benefited from a herculean defensive effort. New Orleans' defense forced a turnover and produced five fourth-down stops as the Saints won their second road game this season, each over the top two teams (Carolina and Tampa Bay) in the NFC South Division. "This is why you play football," Shough said, after helping New Orleans raise its record to 2-3 in his starts. "You come in here, in the elements with all your boys, all your teammates and we fought really hard. I was really proud of the O-line, just kind of chugging along the whole way, they did a really good job in protection.

"The defense was making huge stops. I think we did a better job of being a little bit more complementary, and I'm just proud of all of our guys. It took everybody, so it was just a lot of fun. That's the thing that is kind of resonating with me right now, it was just a lot of fun. And I think this shows kind of how we are as a team."

The Saints again proved to be a markedly better second-half team, outscoring the Buccaneers 17-10, going 5 for 7 on third down after blanking on four attempts in the first half, gaining 187 of their 260 yards and producing four stops on third down and two on fourth, including the game sealer with 81 seconds left.

"Coming into it, we just knew they were going to be aggressive," said CB Alontae Taylor, whose third quarter interception set the table for Shough's 34-yard touchdown run, the first rushing touchdown of Shough's career. "With those fourth-down plays, we were expecting them to go for them."

"I think [defensive coordinator Brandon] Staley came up with the right gameplan throughout the week. We communicated on the back end and throughout the whole defense, and we were just able to get the stops."

New Orleans opened the game with a touchdown drive, following WR Mason Tipton's 54-yard kickoff return. Four plays, including completions of 16 and 12 yards to WR Devaughn Vele and TE Juwan Johnson, and an 11-yard read option run by Shough took the Saints to the 3-yard line. On first-and-goal from there, rookie RB Devin Neal muscled in up the middle for his first NFL touchdown.

The Bucs [7-6] responded with a touchdown and neither team scored again until the second quarter. Shough [13 of 20 for 144 yards, with an interception, and seven carries for 55 yards] was picked off on a deep pass attempt on first-and-5 from New Orleans' 21-yard line with 11:20 left in the first half. Tampa Bay's 19-yard return set up the possession to begin at New Orleans' 40, and after gaining 17 yards in four plays, the Bucs settled for a 41-yard field goal and 10-7 lead they carried into halftime.

After Taylor's interception ended Tampa Bay's opening drive of the second half and Shough's 34-yard run gave New Orleans a 14-10 lead, the Bucs responded with a seven-play, 65-yard drive to retake the advantage, 17-14 with 7:40 left in the third. The Saints tied it on Charlie Smyth's field goal with 1:36 left in the third quarter, and fourth down stop No. 4 for the Saints [a Kool-Aid McKinstry pass breakup] gave New Orleans possession at its own 47 with 12:48 left.

Eight plays later, including conversions on third-and-10 and third-and-8, and the Saints were first-and-10 at the Tampa Bay 13. Shough dropped back to pass, evaded heavy pressure in the pocket and escaped through an opening on the left side, then outran the defense to the pylon for a 24-17 lead with 8:26 left.

"We were getting Taysom [Hill] on a linebacker for maybe a pylon-wheel shot and it kind of all got muddled up at the end, so I was just trying to get out of there and make a play," Shough said. "Just saw green grass and went for it. It was a good job of driving the whole way down the field and getting down there. Stuff like that happens and you've got to go for it."

The defense made it stand, allowing a red zone field goal before producing its final fourth-down stop - a Demario Davis tackle following a three-yard completion on fourth-and-4- with 1:21 left. The Saints limited the Bucs to 301 yards and Tampa Bay quarterback Baker Mayfield completed 14 of 30 passes for 122 yards and a touchdown, with an interception.

"We've only won a couple of games this season, there's a lot of adversity you face," Moore said. "And, so, for our guys to come out and have the energy and physicality they played with, I thought it was a credit to our guys."

"They're a special group, a group that keeps playing and all three phases contributed to this game. It was a really challenging game for both teams. It was big for our guys to come away with the win."

Week 15: New Orleans Saints 20, Carolina Panthers 17; December 14, 2025 @ Caesars Superdome - The

New Orleans Saints hitched to improbable Sunday and wouldn't loosen their grip until they crossed into possible and landed on victory, posting a 20-17 win over Carolina in the Caesars Superdome that riveted as they scored 10 points in the final 2:29.

The Saints [4-10] won their second consecutive games - their first winning streak this season - and evened their record to 3-3 with rookie Tyler Shough starting at quarterback.

Shough [24 of 32 for 272 yards and a touchdown, with no interceptions] threw a 12-yard touchdown pass to receiver Chris Olave with 2:29 left to tie the score at 17-17. After the defense forced a punt, Shough led an eight-play, 62-yard drive that lasted 55 seconds and ended with Charlie Smyth's 47-yard field goal with two seconds left.

"Tyler Shough, he's building," said edge rusher Chase Young, whose nine-yard sack on Carolina's final possession helped force the punt. Young added two tackles for loss and two quarterback hits, but lauded the work of the Saints' rookie quarterback.

"Every week, I can tell he's getting more comfortable," Young said. "He's just starting to look like that guy."

Smyth, too, as assumed the look of a solid NFL kicker. He has made four of his last five kicks [he added a 42-yarder Sunday], and the game-winner was pure.

"We have a great operation," Smyth said. "I never have to think about the ball being in the right spot or with the right hold. It was a cool moment, and one I'll never forget."

Smyth was the Saints' kicker for the third straight game and with the Saints.

His game-winner gave New Orleans its second one-score victory in as many weeks over the NFC South Division leader. Last week, it was a 24-20 road win against Tampa Bay.

Adding to the degree of difficulty against Carolina [7-7], the Saints waded through attrition - running back Devin Neal [hamstring], receiver Devaughn Vele [ankle] and right guard Cesar Ruiz [ankle] were lost to injuries during the game - and gutted out a victory that raised their record to 3-2 in the NFC South.

New Orleans battled uphill the entire game; it punted on its opening drive and Carolina followed with a 13-play, 74-yard touchdown drive to take a 7-0 lead. The Saints used their first possession of the second quarter to construct a 17-play, 95-yard touchdown drive that lasted 11:22 and ended on Neal's four-yard touchdown run, his second in as many weeks.

But the Panthers nudged ahead on a 40-yard field goal with 21 seconds left in the first half, then expanded the lead to 17-7 when quarterback Bryce Young threw a 32-yard touchdown pass to Jalen Coker with 9:54 left in the third.

Three consecutive possessions resulted in a fourth-down stop by New Orleans' defense, a fourth-down stop by Carolina's defense, and a forced punt by New Orleans before the frantic finish.

The game-tying drive began at the Saints' 22-yard line with 4:37 left, and Shough completed six of seven passes for 83 yards, including the 12-yard score to Olave with 2:29 left. He connected with Olave, who has game highs of six catches for 85 yards, four times for 63 yards on the drive.

Carolina drove from its 29 to its 43 on its final drive before stalling and punting, with the Saints beginning the game's final drive at their nine-yard line following a holding penalty on the punt return.

Shough completed three passes for 43 yards, spiked the ball to stop the clock with 12 seconds left, then scrambled for four yards and drew a personal foul penalty because he was hit when he started his slide. The 15 yards pushed the Saints from Carolina's 44 to the 29, backup quarterback Spencer Rattler subbed in for the injured Shough to throw incomplete and sift three seconds off the clock to lower it to six seconds, and Smyth popped the winner on second-and-ten.

"It was huge," Shough said of the victory. "I felt like we had played well on the road but we wanted to show the fans what we could do here, just as a team collectively. Just the resiliency, just a lot of fun. We're just proud of everybody throughout the whole game, especially against a really good team. Two playoff teams, back to back. It was a lot of fun."

Week 16: New Orleans Saints 29, New York Jets 6; December 21, 2025 @ Caesars Superdome - The New Orleans Saints achieved the goal many worthwhile acts aspire to in their regular-season finale Sunday in the Caesars Superdome.

Definitely, more of the 2025 season, which is heading in an upward trajectory that's fostering a hope and expectation that feels familiar. New Orleans [5-10] won its third consecutive game for the first time since 2022, behind a rookie quarterback who has led the team to a 4-3 record in his seven starts, and a defense that continued cresting with eight sacks and two forced turnovers while allowing six points [a season low] and 195 yards in a 29-6 victory over the Jets.

"We've talked a lot about making December football meaningful, and I feel like our guys have been really jumping on that opportunity," Saints Coach Kellen Moore said. "Win a few down the stretch here, have a couple more opportunities - the energy, the juice, the way our guys are playing together I think is really special. It's a special group in that locker room. A group that lost 10 of its first 12 games - including three of the first four starts by rookie quarterback Tyler Shough - found its footing and collected three wins over NFC South division foes Carolina and Tampa Bay, the top two teams in the division, in a five-game stretch.

Sunday's pummeling of the Jets [3-12] was New Orleans' most lopsided decision this season.

It was spurred by five Charlie Smyth field goals; career days from Shough (32 of 49 for 308 yards and a touchdown) and receiver Chris Olave (10 catches for 148 yards and two touchdowns); more history from Taysom Hill, who ran for 42 yards on 12 carries, caught four passes for 36 yards, threw a 38-yard touchdown pass and became the only player in the Super Bowl era to top 1,000 yards passing [2,388], 1,000 yards rushing [2,545] and 1,000 yards receiving [1,002]; and the best defensive effort of the season from a unit that has allowed 16 points per game in the last six.

"There was a bunch of guys making plays today," Moore said. "I thought it was a credit to our guys, just the relentless effort, the finish, the way they're playing together. The sacks - there's coverage associated with that, the way our guys are covering on the back end. And guys just took advantage of opportunities. That was really cool to see."

New Orleans overcame a sluggish open. Hill fumbled on the second play from scrimmage after the opening kickoff, and the Jets recovered at the Saints 37-yard line. The defense stiffened after allowing 27 yards on seven plays and forced New York to settle for Nick Folk's 29-yard field goal, the Jets' only lead. The Saints countered with their own field goal drive - 43 yards on 12 plays - to tie the score on a 35-yard field goal by Smyth and after forcing a punt, Smyth capped a 35-yard drive with a 49-yard field goal to give the Saints a 6-3 lead 37 seconds into the second quarter.

The teams exchanged two more field goals in the second quarter and New Orleans held a 9-6 advantage at halftime. But after the Jets sandwiched two punts around a Saints punt to open the third quarter, New Orleans crafted a 12-play, 93-yard touchdown drive that lasted 5:20 and ended on Shough's 23-yard touchdown pass to a wide-open Olave toward the right pylon.

The 16-6 lead essentially was insurmountable when paired with the Saints defense, which added six sacks in the second half and forced both turnovers - a fumble recovery and interception - on consecutive Jets drives in the fourth quarter. Jets rookie quarterback Brady Cook (22 for 35 for 188 yards and an interception, and sacked eight times) bore the brunt of the punishment.

"Went into this game knowing that that this was one of those games we could take advantage on defense," said Saints edge rusher Cam Jordan, the 15-year veteran who had two sacks to raise his season total to a team-leading 8.5 and his career number to 130, extending his franchise record tally. "Just a great defensive outing."

"We have such a talented core. We have such talented veterans. We have a combination, and I'm mad that it took us this long to find some success because you find some success, you understand how to win. And for a while, while we were in a drought, we were trying to figure out why we weren't winning."

Week 17: New Orleans Saints 34, Tennessee Titans 26; December 28, 2025 @ Nissan Stadium - Tyler Shough didn't need a magical performance against Tennessee to meet the soaring expectations that have followed him since becoming the Saints starting quarterback.

But in New Orleans a little lagniappe doesn't hurt. Shough helped provide it for Saints fans in Nissan Stadium against the Titans, leading a furious second-half comeback in a 34-26 victory, the fourth straight for New Orleans (6-10) and the fifth win in his eight games as a starter.

New Orleans, which outscored the Titans 24-6 in the second half, hadn't won four consecutive games in a season since winning nine straight in 2020. Shough posted a career-high 333 passing yards and two touchdowns while completing 22 of 27 passes. Audric Esteime ran for a career-high 94 yards, and a 32-yard touchdown, on 18 carries.

Chris Olave caught eight passes to push his season total to 100, a career-high, for 119 yards and a touchdown. Charlie Smyth kicked a career-best 56-yard field goal in the second quarter, then topped it with a 57-yarder in the third.

And the defense held the Titans (3-13) to two second-half field goals, benefitted from four sacks, including 1.5 by edge Chase Young, who returned a strip-sack 33 yards for a touchdown in the second quarter to keep the Saints afloat until the offense found its groove.

"As enjoyable of a win as we've had this year, just from the standpoint of the first half going the way it did - not meeting the standard, having to navigate some stuff in there and then the second half - just the way our guys responded," Saints coach Kellen Moore said.

"It took all three phases. Complementary football at its finest. All three phases contributed really well in that second half and we had some big-time plays by some big-time players."

Nothing less would have sufficed for New Orleans, which trailed 20-10 at halftime as it sputtered offensively [92 yards] and failed to keep Tennessee under wraps on defense [184 yards allowed, 135 of them passing].

But Shough and the offense sprang to life in a second half that was littered with explosive plays: a third-quarter completion of 30 yards [Juwan Johnson]; fourth-quarter completion of 32 [Dante Pettis], 39 [Johnson] and 60 [Olave] yards; and a 32-yard touchdown run by Estime in the fourth quarter to close out the scoring.

"It was our same approach the whole game," said Shough, who completed 12 of 16 passes for 251 yards and both touchdowns in the second half. "We just had to be more dialed. At halftime, Coach Nuss [offensive coordinator Doug Nussmeier], myself, all the guys, we were firing up. Just keep doing what we're doing but find that extra edge, find that extra inch and we can go out there and finish them.

But before the finish there was the mud-stuck start. New Orleans forced a punt on the game's opening drive, but gave up a sack to end its own three-and-out open on offense. The Titans kicked two field goals and scored on a 43-yard touchdown pass by rookie Cam Ward to take a 13-0 lead, and the Saints answered with Smyth's 56-yard field goal before Young injected life back into the game.

Tennessee drove from its own 24 to the Saints' 46-yard line before a holding penalty pushed the ball back to the Titans' 44. On first-and-20, Ward was pressured by edge Carl Granderson and, in his quest to escape, was sacked from behind by Young. Instead of taking Ward to the ground, Young wrestled the football away and won a 33-yard spring to the end zone, pulling the Saints within 13-10 with 3:51 left in the second quarter.

The Titans scored another touchdown before the half ended, but New Orleans had already found the jolt of adrenaline it needed.

"They chipped me, I went high," said Young, who raised his sack total to a career-high 8.5 this season, with three fumble recoveries. "I owe Grando a couple steak dinners. He pushed the pocket - it doesn't work if we're not together. He went lower, I went high, [Ward] came right to me."

"Mid-play, when I saw him the ball was in the air, and for that split second - my dad used to tell me when I was a kid and I played D-end, 'Take the ball out of his hand' - And for that split second it hit me and I was like the ball is right there, I can take it. I came down on it, and I just took it. And that was all she wrote."

The rest was written by his defense [152 yards allowed and six stops on eight third-down plays in the second half] and offense, which produced 74-, 80- and 64-yard touchdown drives that ended on a 19- and 10-yard touchdown passes to Olave and Kevin Austin Jr., and Estime's run.

Austin and Estime joined the list of unlikely heroes that have surfaced for New Orleans, which continues to produce despite ongoing injury issues.

"I feel like we just don't care," Shough said. "We're here for a reason. We're going to go out there and operate. There's no, 'Oh, man, if we had this.' Let's go out there and play football."

"This is why you do it, and that's kind of my message. Like, what a great opportunity. Next man up, now you get to go make plays. Everybody stepped up."

COORDINATOR CORNER

SPECIAL TEAMS COORD.
PHIL GALIANO

Phil Galiano is in his first season as the Saints' special teams coordinator and his seventh campaign in New Orleans, spending his first six years as the club's assistant special teams coach. Galiano is a veteran in the coaching ranks with 25 years of experience, including nine seasons in the NFL.

Galiano's work over the past six years with Darren Rizzi, who served as coordinator from 2019-24, helped make the kicking game an important key to victory for New Orleans. On coverage units, J.T. Gray's 93 tackles rank first in the NFL, with the special teams ace selected as an Associated Press All-Pro three times. The punting game has produced the top five seasons in club history for punts inside-the-20-yard line. Since 2019, the Saints have excelled in the return game. Over the six-season period, the team has been ranked fifth in the NFL in punt return average (10.4) and are tied for second in the league with three punts returned for touchdowns. The coverage units have allowed the third-lowest punt return average (7.0).

Special teams continued to be a bright spot for New Orleans in 2024, highlighted by Gray being selected as an All-Pro after recording an NFL-best 26 coverage tackles and one blocked punt. New Orleans ranked first in the NFL in opponent starting field position after kickoffs (28.2), punts inside-the-20 yard line (franchise-record 41), fifth in punt return average (12.5), seventh in opponent field goal percentage (78.6), eighth in opponent punt return average (7.6) and tenth in field goal percentage (87.1). Two blocked field goals were crucial in a pair of three-point victories. K Blake Grupe made 27-of-31 field goal attempts, six-of-eight from 50+ yards, an 87.1 percentage and scored 112 points. WR/RS Rashid Shaheed returned a punt for a touchdown for the second consecutive season.

A three-year starter at safety for Shippensburg, Galiano served as a tri-captain during his senior campaign. He helped lead the Raiders to consecutive winning seasons (1997-99). The Norristown, Pa. native graduated a degree in business administration.

COORDINATOR CORNER

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR
DOUG NUSSMEIER

Doug Nussmeier is in his first season as the Saints' offensive coordinator and tenth campaign as a coach in the National Football League. A 24-year coaching veteran, Nussmeier returns to New Orleans after originally being a fourth round pick (116th overall) of the Saints in the 1994 NFL Draft out of Idaho.

Nussmeier joins the Saints after spending the 2024 season as quarterbacks coach of the Philadelphia Eagles under Saints Head Coach Kellen Moore, who served as offensive coordinator, where he proved to be a key piece of their Super Bowl LIX Champion offensive coaching staff. Jalen Hurts flourished under Nussmeier's tutelage, posting a career-high 103.7 passer rating, fifth in the league and tying for the fifth-most rushing touchdowns (14) in the league (first among quarterbacks).

Nussmeier rejoined the NFL with the Dallas Cowboys in 2018, after previously spending two seasons with the St. Louis Rams from 2006-07 as quarterbacks coach. After serving on the Cowboys staff from 2018-22, he served as quarterbacks coach of the Los Angeles Chargers in 2023. In between, he spent 13 seasons coaching at the collegiate level, where he tutored eight different players who were selected in the first or second round of the NFL Draft.

Nussmeier finished his career at the University of Idaho as the program's all-time leading passer with 10,824 career passing yards over five years (1989-93). He won the Walter Payton Award in 1993, which was at the time given annually to the top player in NCAA Division 1-AA after throwing for a program-record 33 touchdown passes and leading the Vandals to a national semifinal berth. Nussmeier was named Big Sky Conference Offensive Player of the Year in 1992 and was inducted into the University of Idaho Athletic Hall of Fame in 2008.

A Portland, Ore. native, Nussmeier and his wife, Christi, have two sons, Garrett and Colton, and a daughter, Ashlynn. Garrett is in his fifth season as a quarterback at LSU.

COORDINATOR CORNER

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR
BRANDON STALEY

Brandon Staley is in his first season as the Saints' defensive coordinator. Staley is a 19-year coaching veteran with three as head coach of the Los Angeles Chargers.

This will be Staley's second stint as a defensive coordinator after leading the Los Angeles Rams to finish first in the NFL in total defense in 2020.

Staley arrived in New Orleans after serving most recently as assistant coach/defense of the San Francisco 49ers in 2024. Working with multiple position groups, as well as aiding 49ers Head Coach Kyle Shanahan, the San Francisco defense finished the season ranked eighth in the NFL in opponent net yards per game (317.4) and fifth against the pass (192.8 ypg.). DL Nick Bosa was selected to the Pro Bowl after recording nine sacks, one interception, one forced fumble and one recovery. ILB Fred Warner was selected to the Pro Bowl, Associated Press All-Pro and PFWA All-NFL, as he registered 131 tackles (76 solo), two interceptions returned for 70 yards, including a 45-yard touchdown return and four forced fumbles. Saints CB Issac Yiadom led the team with a career-high three takeaways.

During his tenure as Chargers head coach, Staley led Los Angeles to a 24-24 record and guided the franchise to its first postseason appearance since the 2018 season. In his final season with the Chargers (2023), Staley helped QB Justin Herbert continue one of the best starts to a career in NFL history as no quarterback has more completions or passing yards over the first four seasons of a career than Herbert. Staley also saw WR Keenan Allen and LB Khalil Mack put together career seasons and earn themselves nods to the Pro Bowl Games roster. Before becoming an NFL coach, Staley spent 11 seasons coaching at the collegiate level. In 2016, Staley earned National Coordinator of the Year honors for Division III.

A native of Perry, Ohio, Staley played collegiately as a quarterback at the University of Dayton for four seasons (2001-04) before finishing at Division II Mercyhurst College in 2005. He and his wife Amy, have three sons, Colin, Will and Grant.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH/
RUNNING BACKS

Joel Thomas, a 25-year coaching veteran, returns to New Orleans to tutor the clubs running backs in 2025. He previously spent nine years with the Black and Gold (2015-23). After spending the 2024 season coaching the New York Giants running backs, the Port Angeles, Wash. native returns to New Orleans with a additional title of associate head coach.

During Thomas' initial nine-year tenure in tutoring the Saints running backs, the Black and Gold tied for second in the NFL with 161 rushing touchdowns and his backs registered 25 individual 100-yard performances. Under his tutelage, Alvin Kamara, the Saints' all-time rushing yardage leader, earned five consecutive Pro Bowl selections (2017-21) and was the only NFL player with at least 1,160 total yards from scrimmage in each of the seven seasons he first coached him, three of them 1,500 or more.

In 2023 under Thomas, Kamara became the franchise's all-time leader in yards from scrimmage, rushing touchdowns and total touchdowns. Thomas also coached Mark Ingram II, New Orleans' all-time rushing leader from 2021-24 (6,500 yards), for six years, including two 1,000-yard campaigns. During Thomas' first New Orleans tenure, the Saints ranked in the top six in the NFL in rushing three times (2017, 2018 and 2020).

With the Giants in 2024, Thomas oversaw the development of rookie tailback Tyrone Tracy Jr., a fifth round pick. Tracy earned PFWA All-Rookie when he carried 192 times for 839 yards (4.4 avg.) with five TDs to rank second among NFL rookies for the season and New York rookies all-time in rushing yards. He added 38 receptions for 284 yards with one TD to tally 1,123 yards from scrimmage, the fifth-highest total among NFL rookies in 2024 and fourth among Giants rookies all-time.

Thomas lettered as a running back at Idaho from 1993-98 and still holds Vandals career records with 3,929 rushing yards and 51 touchdowns. He was inducted into the University of Idaho Athletic Hall of Fame in 2008. Thomas earned his degree in communications in 1998.

Thomas and his wife, Ebbie, have two boys, Teyo and Niko.

MISTLETOE MADNESS

Following a 2-10 start to the 2025 season, as the weather has gotten colder, the Saints have gotten hotter, winning all four contests in the month of December, to set up the team's first four-game winning streak in the same campaign since 2020. This is only the third time in the month of December that the team won all their games in the month, joining the 1987 and 2011 squads. The 2025 Saints will look to join those two clubs as only the third to close out a season with five straight victories. For Head Coach Kellen Moore, he becomes the second first-year head coach in Saints history to have a winning streak of at least four games. New Orleans' late season success can be accounted for in improvements in several areas on both offense and special teams. Several areas of success are highlighted in the following page, which account for the four-game winning streak:

BUCKING THE ODDS

The Saints have a long tradition of finding players as free agents signed after the draft that make an impact immediately or after developing their careers initially on the practice squad. Several undrafted Saints on the roster have played key roles on offense, defense and special teams.

Over the past 22 years, the Saints [2018-22: defensive back J.T. Gray, wide receiver/return specialist Deonte Harty and wide receiver/return specialist Rashid Shaheed] and San Diego/Los Angeles Chargers [2003: guard Kris Dielman, tight end Antonio Gates and wide receiver Kasim Osgood] are the only two teams to have three players signed as undrafted free agents be selected to a Pro Bowl for the team that originally signed them.

Defensive End Carl Granderson joined the club in 2019 as an undrafted free agent out of the University of Wyoming and has appeared in 104 games with 47 starts, posting 287 tackles [169 solo], 33 sacks for a loss of 202.5 yards, eight pass breakups, four forced fumbles and two recoveries, one blocked field goal and one blocked extra point.

In 2025, Granderson has enjoyed a productive season, recording 47 tackles [30 solo], 4.5 sacks to rank third on the team and three pass breakups. In the first two games of the season, he recorded more than one sack, playing an important role on a front line of a defense that is ranked ninth in the National Football League in opponent net yards per game.

Granderson enjoyed a monster performance at Tampa Bay on December 7, when he finished with five tackles [four solo], including two stops for loss and one pass breakup.

Tight end Juwan Johnson first led Saints tight ends with four touchdown receptions in 2021, converting to the position that offseason after playing wideout in college and as a rookie in 2020, he signed as an undrafted free agent from Oregon. Johnson led Saints tight ends with 50 receptions for a club-best 548 yards in 2024, adding three touchdown grabs. He has ranked second on the Saints with 17 receiving touchdowns over the past four seasons, tied for seventh over that period among NFL tight ends. In his career, Johnson has played in 83 games [43 starts], making 220 receptions for 2,450 yards with 21 TDs.

In 2025, Johnson is ranked fifth among tight ends in receiving and fourth in receiving yards with a career-high 74 grabs for a career-best 828 yards with three touchdowns. His 216 receptions as a tight end [four additional were as a WR in 2020] are ranked third among the position all-time for the club.

After playing the first three seasons of his career at NCCU, where he was a third-team All-American in 2023, he transferred to USC in 2024. He opened all 13 games at right guard for the Gamecocks and received third-team All-Southeastern Conference. He competed on all three interior positions in training camp and secured a roster spot. Simpkins received his first career start at left guard at Seattle, Sept. 21, saw extensive action at right guard, Sept. 28 at Buffalo and started at right guard in the Oct. 5 victory over the New York Giants, where the offensive line did not give up a sack.

Signing following the 2024 NFL Draft, linebacker Isaiah Stalbird played at Nebraska [2019] and South Dakota State [2020-23]. He appeared in 64 games in his college career and made 251 tackles, 18.5 for loss, three sacks, an interception, 19 pass break-ups, five forced fumbles, two recoveries and three blocked punts for the 2022 and 2023 FCS National Champions. Through 16 games in 2025, Stallbird has a team-high 14 coverage stops and has added 11 defensive tackles two sacks, to lead the team’s linebacker corps and one pass breakup.

In 2024, he had 14 receptions for 99 yards. In the 2025 preseason, Tipton led the team in all receiving categories with eight receptions for 158 yards [19.8 avg.] with one touchdown, ranking fifth in the league in receiving yardage. On Nov. 23, vs. Atlanta, Tipton brought back a kickoff for 75 yards, the longest by the team since the 2020 season. After returning the opening kickoff 54 yards to set up a touchdown on December 7 at Tampa Bay, he has brought back 12 kickoffs for 378 yards [31.5 avg.] to rank second in the National Football League among players with at least 11 kickoff returns on the season.

DRAFT RECAP

The New Orleans Saints 2025 draft class, the first under first-year Head Coach Kellen Moore features six players currently contributing to the team’s 53-man roster, three offensive players, as well as three defenders, with five [left tackle Kelvin Banks Jr., tight end Moliki Matavao, cornerback Quincy Riley, safety Jonas Sanker and quarterback Tyler Shough] starting at the Tennessee Titans on Sunday and linebacker Danny Stutsman playing significant snaps. On offense, Executive Vice President/General Manager Mickey Loomis split the selections among four different positions. Defensively, New Orleans added players at four different positions as the unit makes the switch to Defensive Coordinator Brandon Staley’s 3-4 scheme, a safety, a linebacker and a cornerback currently contributing. With Sanker posting his second interception of the season in the December 21 win against the Jets, for three total takeaways on the season, the most by a Saints rookie since 2021.

Sunday’s fourth quarter come-from behind win over the Titans, was the time for two offensive cornerstones to shine. While Banks continued to play a flawless left tackle with no sacks allowed or penalties committed and blocked for the team gaining a season-high 423 net yards. Shough was also a standout, completing 22-of-27 passes [career-high 81.5 pct.] for 333 yards with two touchdowns, zero interceptions and a career-high 142.4 passer rating. On defense, Stutsman saw his most extensive action on defense to date, recording six tackles [career-high three solo], Sanker had three solo stops and Riley tied a career-high with four tackles, all as part of a defensive effort that surrendered only six points in the second half of a 34-26 win.

Kelvin Banks Jr. was selected with the ninth overall pick out of Texas this past April, the highest selection by the Black and Gold since 2005.

A three-year starter who opened all 42 games he played in at left tackle for the Longhorns from 2022-24, Banks was the 2024 Outland Trophy winner and a unanimous All-American selection. In his first season, Banks has lined up at the position that he manned flawlessly as a college standout, facing weekly challenges from some of the NFL’s elite pass rushers. He is a leading candidate for league All-Rookie honors and the only Saints offensive lineman to open every contest. Surrendering only four sacks, when often left on an island, for rookie tackles who have started all of their team’s contests [playing 1,052 out of 1,056 snaps-99.6 pct.], Banks has given up the fewest takedowns.

2024 DRAFT CONTRIBUTORS

The team's top three selections in the 2024 NFL Draft started multiple games for the Saints in 2024. Below is a summary of the performance of five of the top six 2024 draft picks, as each of them have made a jump in 2025:

Right Tackle Taliese Fuaga, Oregon State [D1] - Selected with the 14th overall pick out of Oregon State, the Saints were able to address an immediate need, while also acquiring a building block for the future. Fuaga was an anchor on the Saints offensive line in his rookie campaign, seamlessly moving over to the left tackle position for his first NFL season, where he opened every game for an offense that improved in every rushing metric. Starting all 17 games, he was the first Saint to start every game in his rookie year at the offensive line's most challenging position since J.T. Taylor in 1978. Now in 2025, Fuaga has moved back to his natural right tackle position. After missing the Week Three contest at Seattle, he returned to the lineup in Week Four and helped spur a run game that gained a season-high 189 yards. On October 5, against the New York Giants, he anchored an offensive line that kept QB Spencer Rattler's jersey clean and did not give up a sack.

Cornerback Kool-Aid McKinstry, Alabama [D2] - Selected in the second round of the 2024 NFL Draft with the 41st overall pick out of Alabama, McKinstry arrived in New Orleans having covered many of the nation's top wideouts in the Southeastern Conference for the last three years.

In 2023, the consensus first-team All-American was a semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award in his final campaign for the Crimson Tide, making 32 tackles and seven passes defended.

In New Orleans, McKinstry played in 15 games with nine starts as a rookie in 2024, moving into the starting lineup in Week Eight and recorded 44 tackles with seven pass breakups, often tasked with covering an opponent's top wideout.

Through 16 contests/starts in 2025, he has recorded 73 tackles (56 solo) with, three interceptions and a club-best 13 pass breakups. The Pinson, Ala. native recorded the first two picks of his career in the October 5 win over the New York Giants, capturing NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for the first time in his career. On Nov. 30 at the Miami Dolphins, McKinstry neutralized a prior New Orleans giveaway by recording an interception in the end zone and later got the Saints defense off the field with a fourth down stop. In the season series with Tampa Bay, McKinstry played an important role in surrendering only 124 and 122 total net yards in the contests. In 31 career games with 25 starts, he has career totals of 114 stops (87 solo), three picks, 20 pass breakups and one special teams tackle.

As a rookie in 2024, Rattler appeared in seven games with six starts, he completed 130-of-228 passes for a Saints rookie-record 1,317 yards with four touchdowns, also carrying 18 times for 146 yards. Rattler has also utilized his feet, carrying 31 times for 167 yards [5.4 avg.].

LB Jaylan Ford, Texas [D5c] - The last of three fifth round draft picks by the club in 2024, Ford was selected out of Texas, where during he posted 287 tackles, 27.5 stops for loss, three sacks, ten pass breakups, six interceptions, four forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries. As a rookie, Ford established a role on special teams, contributing five tackles before suffering a fibula injury in Week 17. In 2025, he has eight coverage tackles and two defensive stops.

DT Khristian Boyd, Northern Iowa [D6] - A sixth round selection, Boyd appeared in 49 career games in college and collected 149 tackles [59 solo], 22.5 stops for loss, 10.5 sacks, five pass breakups and two forced fumbles.

In his final college season, Boyd started all 11 games along and had 43 stops, 6.5 tackles for loss, 3.5 sacks and a pass breakup, while earning All-MVFC first-team and consensus FCS third-team All-American. Following a full offseason, and utilizing his 6-2, 320-pound frame to fit into the Saints' 3-4 alignment, the Kansas City native led the Black and Gold with two sacks in the preseason, providing a push up the team's interior defensive line. Boyd has three stops in three games.

LINING THEM UP

One of New Orleans Head Coach Kellen Moore's first tasks was shoring up the alignment and the overall depth of the Saints offensive line- a unit that saw nine different starting combinations during the 2024 campaign. The line has gelled, now managing a season-long absence of Pro Bowl center Erik McCoy, who suffered a biceps injury in Week Seven, despite, the offensive line staff being forced to employ seven different starting combinations.

A franchise that has consistently invested in the offensive line with four first round picks in the last six seasons, the past two campaigns have been no different. On the interior right guard Cesar Ruiz is the elder statesman, having been selected in the first round in 2020, having played in 88 regular season contests with 82 starts. In 2025, Ruiz has opened 13-of-16 contests, sidelined the past two weeks with an ankle injury.

In the last two seasons, New Orleans has continued to fortify their offensive line, selecting left tackle Kelvin Banks Jr. [ninth overall-2025] out of the University of Texas and right tackle Taliese Fuaga [14th overall-2024] out of Washington State University.

Banks, 6-5, 315, was selected with the ninth overall pick out of Texas this past April, the highest selection by the Black and Gold since 2005. A three-year starter who opened all 42 games he played in at left tackle for the Longhorns from 2022-24, Banks was the 2024 Outland Trophy winner and a unanimous All-American selection. In his first season, Banks has lined up at the position that he manned flawlessly as a college standout, facing weekly challenges from some of the NFL's elite pass rushers, a leading candidate for league All-Rookie honors, the only Saints offensive lineman to open every contest.

2024 first round pick Fuaga, immediately moved into left tackle as a rookie after being a two-year starter at right tackle at Oregon State, earning first-team All-American in 2023.

In 2025, the Tacoma, Wash. native became the first Saints rookie to start every game at the position since J.T. Taylor in 1978. In 2025 for his second-team campaign, Fuaga has moved back to the right tackle position he manned in Corvallis, fighting ankle, back and knee injuries to open ten contests.

Luke Fortner is a former University of Kentucky standout who was a third round pick [65th overall] of the Jacksonville Jaguars out of Kentucky in 2022 and has started 41 of the 65 regular season games he has played and two postseason contests in 2023. Acquired by New Orleans in a preseason trade with the Jaguars following an exhibition game by the two clubs, Fortner has been called into action to manage the center position for the Black and Gold for the remainder of the 2025 campaign.

Following the trade of left guard Trevor Penning on November 4, the offensive line is rounded out by OL Asim Richards, who has seen action at right tackle in the absence of Fuaga, including opening three contests. G/T Dillon Radunz, who started the first two contests at left guard, takes over the position following the trade of Trevor Penning. Rookie C/G Torricelli Simpkins II started one game at right guard and one contest at center. T/G Xavier Truss, a rookie from the University of Georgia, was awarded off waivers from Denver at the end of the preseason and provides valuable depth, while developing. OL William Sherman, who spent his first four seasons on practice squads, stepped in for an injured Ruiz at right guard the past two contests and blocked for 412- and 423-yard efforts.

SPECIAL TEAMS OVERVIEW

Saints special teams have benefited from the elevation of Phil Galiano to coordinator, after serving as assistant special teams coach for the past five-and-a-half seasons before taking over coordination of the unit midway through the 2024 season. During Galiano’s tenure, the special teams units have consistently ranked among the NFL’s leaders in place-kicking, coverage and return units, producing Pro Bowlers and AP All-Pros, while also setting various club records in placekicking, punting, return game and coverage units. Under Galiano’s direction, the club has committed to a transition of a mix of seasoned veterans and several promising youngsters.

BLOCK UNIT

New Orleans’ field goal block unit came through big on three occasions in the second half of the 2024 season, two taking place in three-point victories. The field goal block unit’s hard work carried over into the 2025 season opener, as third-year defensive tackle Bryan Bresee blocked a fourth quarter 46-yard field goal attempt to give the offense the ball back for a drive where they ended up scoring a field goal.

In the third quarter of New Orleans’ November 9 win at Carolina, narrowly holding onto a 10-7 third quarter lead, DT Nathan Shepherd blocked a 48-yard field goal attempt. For his efforts, Shepherd was named the Week Ten NFC Special Teams Player of the Week.

New Orleans leads the NFL since the 2024 season with four blocked field goals.

COVERAGE UNITS

Galiano and Assistant Special Teams Coach Kyle Wilber were tasked with remaking the coverage aspect of the special teams units with the top Six tacklers from the 2024 campaign not on the roster. LB Isaiah Stalbird leads the team with 14 stops through 15 games.

KR MASON TIPTON

This second-year wideout, who never returned a kick until his rookie season in 2024, has assumed kickoff return duties with success for New Orleans, using his combination of straight-ahead speed and ability to find creases and work with blocks. Tipton [75 yards vs. Atlanta, 11/23 and 54 yards at Tampa Bay, Dec. 7] joined Tennessee’s Chimere Dike [71 yards against Denver, Sept. 7 and 65 yards against Arizona, Oct. 5] as only the second player in 2025 with two kickoff returns of at least 54 yards. For the season, Tipton has played in 14 games with three starts, made 11 receptions for 76 yards, rushed twice for 23 yards and brought back 12 kickoffs for 378 yards.

K CHARLIE SMYTH

Signed by New Orleans in the 2024 offseason as part of the National Football League’s International Player Pathway program, this Newry, Ireland native spent his entire rookie campaign and the first 12 weeks of 2025 on the practice squad. The former Gaelic football player made his NFL debut on Nov. 30 at Miami and drilled a 56-yard field goal attempt. He also successfully executed an onside kick recovered by teammate Devaughn Vele, part of a play that has a 7.75% success rate since new league kickoff rules being instituted in 2018.

Smyth’s 56-yard field goal was tied for the second-longest field goal by an NFL player on their first career attempt.

Smyth is the only Saints kicker to drill three kicks of 56 yards or more in the same season.

GAME WINNER

On Dec. 14, vs. Carolina, Smyth made both of his PAT attempts, a 42-yard field goal and a 47-yard game-winning field goal with two seconds remaining to help carry the Black and Gold to a 20-17 victory. Smyth’s kick was the first game-winner [within two minutes of end of regulation or in overtime] by the Saints since a 51-yard kick by Wil Lutz in the 2022 season opener at Atlanta in a 27-26 Saints victory.

I GOT FIVE ON IT

In the Dec. 21 29-6 win over the New York Jets, Smyth provided 17 of New Orleans’ season-high point total, tying a club record by drilling five field goals, including a 50-yard kick, to go with two PATs. This is the tenth time a Saint has kicked five field goals in a contest. 56 PLUS X 3

In Sunday's 34-26 victory at the Tennessee Titans, Smyth drilled 56- and 57-yard field goals to go with three PAT attempts and six touchbacks on kickoffs. Combined with a 56-yard field goal in his NFL debut at Miami on November 30, Smyth's three field goals in 2025 of 56 yards or more make him the first Saint to do so.

QUARTERBACKS

In ten games with eight starts, Shough has completed 198-of-292 passes (67.8 pct.) for 2,125 yards with nine touchdowns, only five interceptions and a 92.1 passer rating, also carrying 44 times for 152 yards with two touchdowns and an additional two-point conversion rush. A leading candidate for NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year honors, leading rookie signal-callers in wins (five), passer rating, completion percentage, 300-yard passing games (two) and fourth quarter game-winning drives (3)

GAME-WINNERS

In the clutch, Shough become the first Saint since 2020 to lead the Black and Gold to two straight fourth quarter/overtime game-winning drives, the first Saint to do so since Drew Brees in 2020, including leading the team from a 17-10 fourth quarter deficit in the December 14, 20-17 victory over Carolina.

On Sunday at Tennessee, with the Saints trailing 26-20 in the fourth quarter, Shough overcame a lost fumble by the Saints on their first drive of the final period. Following the fumble, Shough took advantage of the defense quickly getting the ball back and went to work with 8:45 remaining in the quarter. Following a 12 yard carry by RB Audric Esteime, Shough completed a pass for a 60-yard gain to WR Chris Olave to the Titans eight-yard line. On second down, the rookie signal-caller and WR Kevin Austin Jr. connected in the end zone for a ten-yard touchdown to complete New Orleans' comeback.

Despite only playing in ten games with eight starts, Shough's three fourth quarter/overtime game-winning drives on the season lead all rookies and are the most by a Saint since Brees' three in 2020.

With the victory, Shough became the first Saints rookie signal-caller to win a start since Dave Wilson [at L.A. Rams, 11/8/81]. Overall he became the fourth Saints rookie to win a start, joining Wilson, Manning [1971] and Larry Cipa.

The last time a Saints quarterback had 2+ touchdown passes and zero interceptions in one of his first two career starts was Manning [9/26/71 @San Francisco].

In the December 7, 24-20 win at Tampa Bay, Shough achieved several firsts in using both his arm and legs to help power New Orleans' 24-20 win over the Buccaneers. Shough completed 13-of-20 passes [65.0 pct.] for 144 yards, with a career day on the ground in driving rain, carrying seven times for 55 yards with two touchdowns. Shough's two scores were the first time a Saints rookie had two rushing TDs since Archie Manning [vs. Dallas on 10/17/71] and his 55 yards rushing are the most in franchise history by a rookie signal-caller. Shough executed the first fourth quarter game winning drive of his career, when with the score tied 17-17, he drove New Orleans down the field 53-yards on nine plays, ending with a 13-yard rushing TD. In addition to the rushing touchdown, Shough completed three-of-four passes for 36 yards on the game-winning drive.

With Shough's fourth quarter game-winning drive at Tampa Bay the prior week, it is the first time a Saints signal-caller has had fourth quarter/over-time game-winning drives in consecutive contests since Drew Brees in Weeks Five [team had bye in Week Six], Seven and Eight of the 2020 season. Shough and Jayden Daniels [2024] are the only rookie quarterbacks in the last ten seasons to lead a game-winning drive in back-to-back games against a team with a winning record.

BACK TO BACK II

In the Dec. 21, 29-6 win over the Jets, Shough went 32-49 for a career-high 308 yards with a touchdown, and zero interceptions. He also rushed for eight yards on two attempts. It marked the first time a Saints rookie signal-caller threw for 300 yards and only the second time an NFL rookie threw for 300 in 2025. Following the Jets contest, Shough No. 1 in completions [176], passing yards [1,792], passing touchdowns [7], passer rating [86.5] and completion percentage [66.4 pct.] among the 11 qualifying rookie quarterbacks in franchise history.

In Sunday's 34-26 win over the Titans, Shough finished 22-of-27 [81.5 pct.] for 333 yards with a touchdown, zero interceptions and a 142.4 passer rating, setting career-highs in completion percentage, passing yardage, passer rating and yards per attempt [12.33], leading New Orleans to their third undefeated December in franchise history.

After throwing for 308 yards the week before against the Jets, combined with the 333-yard passing performance, Shough is the first quarterback to have back-to-back passing games since the Houston Texans' C.J. Stroud, who did so in four consecutive games [11/5-11/16/23], that season's NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year. Looking towards Sunday's regular season finale at Atlanta, the last time a Saints signal-caller threw for at least three 300 yards in three consecutive games was Drew Brees, for a five games stretch spanning both the 2015 and 2016 seasons [12/13/15-9/11/16].

With Shough's back-to-back performances of 300+ yards and zero interceptions, he joins Cincinnati's Joe Burrow [9/17-9/27/20] and Dallas's Dak Prescott [11/13-11/20/16] as only the third rookie quarterback to do so since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. If Shough manages 300 yards passing and zero interceptions in Sunday's season finale at Atlanta, he would be the first rookie signal-caller to do so in three straight games.

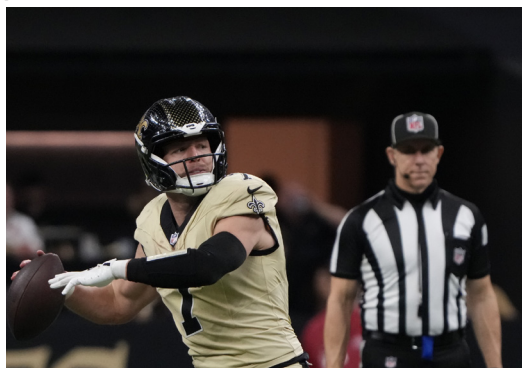

TAYSOM HILL

Hill has brought unheralded versatility to the Saints offense and special teams. He's played in 117 games with 52 starts at several positions. He has carried 489 times for 2,551 yards, the most by a Saint not to play running back full-time, with 34 touchdowns, ranked fifth in club records. After suffering a season-ending knee injury in Week 13 of the 2024 season, Hill aggressively rehabbed to return to action in Week Four. On Oct. 12, vs. the New England Patriots, Hill scored his first rushing touchdown of the season on a one-yard run. He has rushed for 114 yards with one touchdown, caught eight passes for 59 yards, completed two passes for 57 yards with a 38-yard touchdown and had his first special teams stop of the season on December 7 at Tampa Bay. Hill was voted by his teammates as the 2025 Ed Block Courage Award Saints team winner.

3 X 1,000

With the team suffering attrition at the running back position, Hill had a career-high 16 touches in Sunday's win over the New York Jets, finishing with 78 yards from scrimmage on a team-best 42 yards rushing and four receptions for 36 yards. Hill saved his best for last on the team's final possession, when he completed a 38-yard laser to WR Chris Olave in the end zone. Victory also marks Rattler's first win as a starting QB in the NFL and the first time that a QB drafted by the Saints started and recorded a win since Danny Wuerffel (vs. Carolina on Sept. 13, 1998, at Superdome). vs. New England (10/12): Started. Finished 20-for-26 (76.9 pct., new career-high) for 226 yards, a career-high 8.73 yards per attempt and had a 102.6 passer rating. Rushed four times for 20 yards. at Chicago (10/19): Started. He also rushed one time for two yards. at Carolina (11/9): Started and finished 19-of-27 for 282 (70.4 pct.) yards with two touchdowns and a 128.9 passer rating. His first touchdown pass was for 62 yards, the second longest touchdown throw by a Saints rookie quarterback since Archie Manning threw a 63-yarder to Danny Abramowicz on Oct. 3, 1971. With the Saints victory, Shough became the first Saints rookie to win a start since Dave Wilson, when the Saints won at the L. A. Rams (Nov. 8, 1981). Overall, became fourth Saints rookie to win a start, joining Wilson, Larry Cipa (1974) and Manning (1971). His 282 passing yards were also the most by a Saints rookie in a game, which passed Wilson as well. The last time a Saints quarterback had 2+ TD passes and 0 INTs in one of his first two career starts was Manning on Sept. 26, 1971, vs. San Francisco. No Saints QB has ever recorded 282+ passing yards, 2+ passing TDs and 0 INTs on the road in one of their first two starts. He and Head Coach Kellen Moore became the first rookie quarterback and first-year coach duo to win a game in franchise history. vs. Atlanta (11/23): Started. Finished 30-for-43 (69.8 pct.) for 243 yards, an interception and a 74.1 passer rating. Carried seven times for 22 yards. at Miami (11/30): Started. Finished 26-for-38 (65.8 pct.) for 239 yards, two touchdowns, one interception and a 91.9 passer rating. Rushed six times for 18 yards. Also rushed for a successful two-point conversion attempt and intercepted on a two-point conversion attempt. at Tampa Bay (12/7): Started and finished 13-of-20 (65.0 pct.) for 144 yards, one interception and a 65.4 passer rating. Had a career day on the ground, carrying seven times (tied career-high) for 55 yards and two touchdowns, with his longest rush being a 34 yard touchdown (all new career-highs). Shough's two scores were the first time a Saints rookie QB had two rushing TDs since Archie Manning (vs. Dallas on 10/17/71) and his 55 yards rushing are the most in franchise history by a rookie QB. Shough executed the first fourth quarter game-winning drive of his career, when with the score tied 17-17, he drove New Orleans down the field 53 yards on nine plays, ending with a 13-yard rushing TD. In addition to the rushing touchdown, Shough completed three-of-four passes for 36 yards on the game-winning drive. vs. Carolina (12/14): Started and finished 24-for-32 (75.0 pct., a career-best) for 272 yards with one touchdown pass, a 110.4 QB rating, and rushed eight times for 32 yards. With his 272 passing yards today, Shough now has 1,484 passing yards in 2025, setting a new Saints' rookie single season rookie passing record, surpassing Spencer Rattler's previous franchise high of 1,317. His 12-yard touchdown pass in the fourth quarter to Chris Olave put Shough at six TD passes in 2025, tying Archie Manning's rookie-best mark of six, set in 1971. With the win today against the Panthers, Shough is the first Saints rookie QB to ever win a start in the Caesars Superdome and the first to win back-to-back games. He is also now 3-1 against the NFC South since becoming the starter. Shough engineered an eight-play, 62-yard drive that took 55 seconds, ending with a 47-yard field goal by K Charlie Smyth. In it, he completed three-of-four passes for 43 yards and also gained four yards on a rush. With Shough's fourth quarter game-winning drive last week, it is the first time a Saints signal-caller has had fourth quarter/overtime game-winning drives in consecutive contests since Drew Brees in Weeks Five (team had bye in Week Six), Seven and Eight of the 2020 season. vs. New York Jets (12/21): Started and finished 32-of-49 (65.3 pct.) for 308 yards, one touchdown pass, and also carried two times for eight yards. 308-yard passing performance is the first 300-yard game of his career, becoming the first Saints rookie QB to ever have a 300-yard+ game and only one of two rookie quarterbacks to have a 300-yard game this season (Shedeur Sanders). at Tennessee (12/28): Started and finished 22-of-27 (81.5 pct.) for 333 yards with two touchdowns, a 142.4 passer rating and rushed four times for six yards. After throwing for 308 yards last week, with his 333-yard passing performance against Tennessee, Shough is the first rookie quarterback to have back-to-back 300-yard passing games since the Houston Texans' C.J. Stroud, who did so in four consecutive games (11/5-11/26/23), that season's NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year. With his fifth consecutive win as the starter, Shough joined Bobby Hebert, Wade Wilson, Jeff Blake, Aaron Brooks, Drew Brees and Teddy Bridgewater as only the seventh Saints signal-caller to win four straight starts in a season. Shough also set new career-highs in completion percentage (81.5 pct.), passing yards, passing yards per attempt (12.3) and passer rating.

POSTGAME NOTES & QUOTES

NEW ORLEANS SAINTS

TENNESSEE TITANS VS. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS SUNDAY, DEC. 28, 2025 • NISSAN STADIUM SAINTS POSTGAME NOTES

- The Saints victory improved New Orleans' overall record to 8-9-1 against the Titans all-time.
- The New Orleans win marks a four game win streak within a season for the first time since a six-game winning streak from Weeks Five-Ten in the 2020 season. For Head Coach Kellen Moore, a four-game winning streak is the second-longest for a first-time head coach with the Saints behind Jim Haslett's six-game winning streak in his first season in 2000.
- The Black and Gold victory over the Titans gives the Saints a 5-3-1 edge in games played in Houston or Nashville against the Titans/Oilers franchise.
- The Saints victory would close out the month of December for the team having won four contests in the month for the third time in franchise history, joining the 1987 and 2011 teams.
- Offensively, New Orleans gained 423 total net yards, went five-of-11 (45.5 pct.) on third down and scored touchdowns on both red zone trips.
- QB Tyler Shough finished 22-of-27 (81.5 pct.) for 333 yards with a touchdown and a 142.4 passer rating. His 333 passing yards set a new career-high for the rookie signal-caller. He also rushed three times for eight yards.
- After throwing for 308 yards last week, with his 333-yard passing performance today, Shough is the first rookie quarterback to have back-to-back 300-yard passing games since the Houston Texans' C.J. Stroud, who did so in four consecutive games (11/5-11/26/23), that season's NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year.
- After throwing for 308 yards the week before against the Jets, combined with the 333-yard passing performance, Shough is the first quarterback to have back-to-back passing games since the Houston Texans' C.J. Stroud, who did so in four consecutive games (11/5-11/16/23), that season's NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year.
- With Shough's back-to-back performances of 300+ yards and zero interceptions, he joins Cincinnati's Joe Burrow (9/17-9/27/20) and Dallas's Dak Prescott (11/13-11/20/16) as only the third rookie quarterback to do so since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger.
- RB Audric Esteime was the leading rusher for the Black and Gold, carrying 14 times for a career-high 94 yards and a career-long 32-yard touchdown.

- WR Chris Olave led the receiving effort, catching eight balls for 119 yards and his ninth touchdown of the season. With his 119 yards, he became the sixth Saint with 1,100 receiving yards in a season (1,163) joining WRs Michael Thomas, Joe Horn, Marques Colston and Brandin Cooks and TE Jimmy Graham.
- Olave's eight catches marks the first 100-catch season of his career, which makes him the only New Orleans Saints receiver besides Thomas (three times) to reach the 100-reception mark in franchise history.
- WR Kevin Austin Jr. also had a productive day, recording four receptions for 52 yards and a touchdown, setting new career-highs in receptions, receiving yards and long reception (36), and had his first career touchdown.
- TE Juwan Johnson caught four passes for 95 yards with a long reception of 39 yards. His 95 receiving yards also set a new career-high.
- CB Alontae Taylor led New Orleans in tackling with nine (seven solo) while also recording four pass breakups. Taylor's four pass breakups today moved him past 50 for his career. With 12 pass breakups on the season, Taylor become only the fourth Saint to have ten passes defended (statistic recorded since 1980) in each of his first four NFL seasons, joining LB Rickey Jackson (1981-84), CB Dave Waymer (1980-83) and CB Marshon Lattimore (2017-20).
- Rookie LB Danny Stutsman also tallied six tackles (three solo), setting a new career-high in solo stops.
- DE Chase Young recorded four tackles (three solo), 1.5 sacks, including a strip sack on Tennessee QB Cam Ward that he returned for a touchdown. It was the first time a fumble was returned for a touchdown by New Orleans since LB DeMarco Jackson's eight-yard return vs. Carolina on Dec. 10, 2023. Young now has a career-high 8.5 quarterback takedowns in 2025 (in only 11 games).
- Young also has three defensive fumble recoveries in 2025, tying his career-high that he posted as a rookie in 2020, when he earned Associated Press NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year honors. Young is tied with LB Pete Werner, Seattle DE Demarcus Lawrence and Chicago CB Nashone Wright for first in the NFL.
- DE Cameron Jordan tallied five total tackles (two solo), a sack and a forced fumble. That sack brings his total to 9.5 on the season, his seventh season with at least nine sacks, making him the 29th player in NFL history with seven seasons of at least nine sacks. With his 17th career forced fumble, Jordan surpassed DE Charles Grant and took sole possession of fourth in club record books.
- LB Pete Werner recorded five total tackles (three solo), which broke the 400-tackle mark for his career.
- DE Jonah Williams also recorded a sack on Ward, which set a new career-high with three on the season to go with three tackles (two solo). It is also the first time he has posted back-to-back games with a sack.

- K Charlie Smyth set a new career-long with a 57-yard field goal in the third quarter, while also making a 56-yard field goal earlier in the game. He is the first kicker in Saints history with three field goals of 56 yards or more in a season. Smyth also had six touchbacks on seven kickoffs.
- LB Demario Davis played in his 226th career game, surpassing Keith Brooking and Hardy Nickerson to take sole possession of ninth all-time in NFL history among linebackers. Davis finished with six assisted tackles and a split-sack.
- Davis also tied LS Joe Federspiel for 28th all-time in Saints history by playing in his 130th game as a Saint on Sunday.
- LS Zach Wood played in his 148th career game, both overall and consecutive, tying OL Jim Dombrowski (10/25/87-11/3/96) for the franchise's second-longest games played streak.
