MINNESOTA VIKINGS (4-0) VS. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS (1-3)

GAME #5 SUNDAY, OCTOBER 11, 2026 - 12:00 P.M. (CST)
CAESARS SUPERDOME - NEW ORLEANS, LA.

THE MATCHUP

The New Orleans Saints (1-3) will play the final home game of their three game homestand on Sunday when they host the Minnesota Vikings (4-0) at the Caesars Superdome. Sunday will be the Saints' final contest at their home stadium until they host the Cleveland Browns on Nov. 8.

Off to a 1-3 start, including a 45-24 defeat to the Atlanta Falcons on Monday Night Football, he Saints will welcome the opportunity to get in the win column before visiting the New York Giants in Week Six and then taking a trip to France to play the Pittsburgh Steelers in Week Seven. The Saints have dropped the last two meetings to the Vikings, with Sunday being the first time they have hosted them at their home stadium since a 52-33 win on Dec. 25, 2020.

QB Tyler Shough and WRs Chris Olave and Devaughn Vele were the top performers on offense on Monday night in the loss to the Falcons. Shough completed 30-of-48 passes for 286 yards, one touchdown and zero interceptions. Olave caught eight passes for 116 yards in reaching the century mark for the second consecutive week and for the third time in four games this season. Vele finished with six receptions for 54 yards, including a fourth quarter three-yard touchdown grab. RB Alvin Kamara rushed for two touchdowns, moving into a tie for 44th all-time in NFL record books in total touchdowns (89).

Defensively, S Julian Blackmon led New Orleans with ten tackles (five solo) and EDGE Tyree Wilson in his most extensive action as a Saint, tied a career-high with six tackles and one sack.

The Saints rank ninth in the NFL in total offense (367.0 yards per game) and 26th in defense (360.3 ypg.). Through four games, Shough has completed 121-of-180 passes (67.2 %) for 1,203 yards with nine touchdowns, three interceptions and a 95.7 passer rating. Olave, ranks second in the NFL in receiving and receiving yards with 35 receptions for 491 yards. S Jonas Sanker and LB Pete Werner are tied for the team lead with 25 tackles apiece.

The Vikings are coming off a dramatic 15-10 victory over the Miami Dolphins, where their defense surrendered only 198 total net yards.

This Week in the NFC South: The Tampa Bay Buccaneers travel to AT&T Stadium to play the Dallas Cowboys on Thursday Night Football and the Atlanta Falcons host the Baltimore Ravens on Sunday Night Football.

THE HEAD COACHES

Named the 19th head coach in New Orleans Saints history on February 11, 2025, Kellen Moore joined the Black and Gold after serving as the offensive coordinator for the Philadelphia Eagles in 2024. In his first season at the helm in New Orleans, Moore rallied the team from a 2-10 start to win four of the final five games. The Saints went 4-0 in the month of December, going undefeated in the month for the first time since 2011 and only the third time in franchise history. Moore put his imprint on the team in year one on offense, mixing a combination of rookie QB Tyler Shough, protected by a pair of promising young tackles in Kelvin Banks Jr. and Taliese Fuaga, along with WR Chris Olave and TE Juwan Johnson. Including Shough and Banks, whose 1,066 snaps on offense was a club-high to earn PFWA All-Rookie honors. Moore and his staff successfully integrated a total of five rookies into the starting lineup and important rotational roles. Before joining the Eagles in 2024, where the Super Bowl LIX champions ranked eighth in net yards per game (367.2), seventh in points per game (27.2) and second in rushing yards per game (179.3), Moore served as offensive coordinator of the Los Angeles Chargers in 2023 and the Dallas Cowboys from 2019-22 after starting his coaching career as quarterbacks coach in Dallas in 2018. In four seasons as offensive coordinator of the Cowboys, Moore's unit ranked second in the NFL in total offense (391.0 net yards per game) and scoring (27.7 points per game). The Dallas offense was also the league's fourth-best passing offense (264.4 net yards per game) and ranked seventh in rushing offense (126.6 yards per game) over that span.

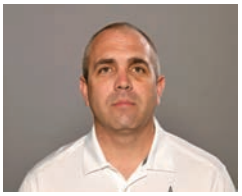

Moore played quarterback at Boise State (2007-11) before playing six seasons in the National Football League with the Detroit Lions (2012-14) and Dallas Cowboys (2015-17).

Personal: Born July 5, 1988, in Prosser, Washington. He and his wife, Julie, have two daughters, Halle and Madelyn, and two sons, Kyler and Beckham. His younger brother, Kirby, is the head coach at Washington State.

Named the tenth head coach in Vikings history on Feb. 16, 2022, Kevin O'Connell joined the Minnesota Vikings after serving as the offensive coordinator for the Los Angeles Rams from 2020-21, including a Super Bowl LVI victory. Has 11 seasons of NFL coaching experience, including three seasons as an offensive coordinator for the Washington Redskins (2019) and Rams (2020-21). In his first four years at the help (2022-25), O'Connell posted a 43-27 (614) record, the highest winning percentage of all head coaches in franchise history, including playoff games. The 2024 AP Coach of the Year has achieved at least a five-game winning streak in each of his first four seasons as the Vikings Head Coach, tied for the second-longest streak of seasons in NFL history (Mike Martz). Only George Seifert's seven-season streak is better than O'Connell's. Minnesota win its final five games of the 2025 season, turning its 4-8 mark entering Week 14 into a 9-8 record. He guided three different quarterbacks through multiple starts during the season (22-year old J.J. McCarthy-10 starts), veteran Carson Wentz (five) and undrafted rookie Max Brosmer (two). Meanwhile WR Justin Jefferson became the third player in NFL history to reach the 1,000-yard mark in each of his first six seasons (Randy Moss, Mike Evans) and joined Cris Carter (eight seasons) and Moss (six) as the only Vikings with at least six 1,000-yard seasons in their careers. Defensively, the VIkings ranked third in the NFL in 2025 allowing just 282.6 yards per game, including just 158.5 passing yards per game, the second fewest in the NFL behind Buffalo (156.9). It also marked the team's fewest passing yards allowed per game by the club since (156.3). On special teams, LS Andrew DePaola and K Will Reichard were named to the Associated Press All-Pro teams, as Reichard was voted first-team while DePaola was tabbed to the second team. It marked the first time in VIkings history two specialists were named to the AP All-Pro teams in the same season and was the ninth and tenth All-Pro nods under O'Connell. The former San Diego State quarterback played for five teams in a five-year career. Born May 25, 1985 in Knoxville, Tenn. He and his wife, Leah, have two sons and two daughters.

COORDINATOR CORNER

SPECIAL TEAMS COORD. PHIL GALIANO

Phil Galiano is in his second full season as the Saints' special teams coordinator. A coaching veteran with 26 years of experience, including ten in the NFL, Galiano spent six seasons (2019-24) as New Orleans' assistant special teams coach before taking over coordinator duties full-time in 2025.

In 2026, Galiano will shepherd a special teams unit featuring a new kicker (Daniel Carlson), a new punter (Ryan Wright) and additions in the return game.

In Galiano's first full season leading the Saints special teams, defensive tackle Nathan Shepherd was named the Week Ten recipient of NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors, after he blocked Carolina's 48-yard attempt. Defensive tackle Bryan Bresee had the team's first blocked field goal in Week One against Arizona. Galiano retooled a coverage unit that had their top six tacklers new to the Saints leaderboard from 2024 into 2025, led by linebacker Isaiah Stalbird, who led the club with six stops.

Galiano's work from 2019-24 with Darren Rizzi, who served as coordinator, helped make the kicking game an important key to victory for New Orleans. On coverage units, J.T. Gray's 93 tackles ranked first in the NFL during that span, with the special teams ace selected as an Associated Press All-Pro three times. The punting game also produced the top five seasons in club history for punts inside-the-20-yard line. Since 2019, the Saints have excelled in the return game. Over the seven-season period, the team has been ranked sixth in the National Football League in punt return average (10.3) and are tied for fourth in the leauge with three punts returned for touchdowns.

A three-year starter at safety for Shippensburg, Galiano served as a tri-captain during his senior campaign. He helped lead the Raiders to consecutive winning seasons (1997-99). The Norristown, Pa. native graduated with a degree in business administration.

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR DOUG NUSSMEIER

Doug Nussmeier enters his second season as New Orleans' offensive coordinator in 2026, marking his 11th campaign in the NFL coaching ranks and 12th overall as an offensive coordinator at the NFL and collegiate levels.

A 25-year coaching veteran, Nussmeier returned to New Orleans in 2025 after originally being a fourth round pick (116th overall) of the Saints in the 1994 NFL Draft out of Idaho, playing four seasons with the Black and Gold. He re-joined the Saints after spending the 2024 season as quarterbacks coach of the Philadelphia Eagles.

In his first season with the Saints coaching staff in 2025, Nussmeier helped the offensive improve steadily throughout the season. Nussmeier and Head Coach Kellen Moore devised a scheme behind rookie signal-caller Tyler Shough that accentuated his abilities and helped the Black and Gold finish the season 5-4. Depite having only nine starts, Shough completeed 221-of-327 passes (67.6 pct.) for 2,384 yards with ten touchdowns and a 91.3 passer rating, while leading the team in rushing touchdowns to accentuate his athleticism and earn PFWA All-Rookie. By season's end, the Saints had a pair of players - WR Chris Olave and TE Juwan Johnson - for the first time since the 2016 season.

Nussmeier finished his college playing career at the University of Idaho as the program's all-time leading passer with 10,824 career passing yards over five years (1989-93). He won the Walter Payton Award in 1993, which was at the time given annually to the top player in NCAA Division 1-AA after throwing for a program-record 33 touchdown passes and leading the Vandals to a national semifinal berth. Nussmeier was named Big Sky Conference Offensive Player of the Year in 1992 and was inducted into the University of Idaho Athletic Hall of Fame in 2008.

A Portland, Ore. native, Nussmeier and his wife, Christi, have two sons, Garrett and Colton, and a daughter, Ashlynn. Garrett played quarterback at LSU from 2021-25 and was a seventh-round pick of the Kansas City Chiefs in the 2026 NFL Draft.

COORDINATOR CORNER

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR BRANDON STALEY

Brandon Staley is in his second season as defensive coordinator for the Saints in 2026. A 20-year coaching veteran, including the last nine in the NFL and three seasons as head coach of the Los Angeles Chargers, Staley oversaw a Saints unit that made great strides in his first season with New Orleans.

In 2025, New Orleans finished the season ranked ninth in opponent yards per game (299.8), fourth in opponent net passing yards per game (179.2), fifth in forced fumbles (11), sixth in opponent rushing yards per play (3.97) and tenth in opponent red zone touchdown percentrage (53.2). The club did not allow a 300-yard passer. The unit was especially stout on third down, ranking third in the NFL in opponent third down conversion rate (34.3). The 2025 Saints were one of eight teams that finished in the league's top-12 units in EPA (Expected Points Added) against both the run and the pass, including second against the rush.

With edge defenders Cameron Jordan (10.5) and Chase Young (career-high 10.0) each reaching double-digit sacks, the Saints were one of only three teams to have two defenders with at least ten takedowns. LB Demario Davis led the team with 143 tackles and two forced fumbles. CBs Alontae Taylor, whose seven stops for a loss were tied for third in the NFL at the position, and Kool-Aid McKinstry, who led the team with his first three career interceptions and was tied for sixth in the league with 17 pass breakups, enjoyed breakout campaigns. Staley and the defensive backfield coaching staff also successfully integrated a pair of promising rookies into the lineup. CB Quincy Riley was named to the CBS Sports and ESPN.com All-Rookie teams after playing in all 17 games (five starts) and totaling 34 tackles, ten passes defensed (tied for fourth in the NFL among rookies), one interception and one forced fumble. S Jonas Sanker entered the starting lineup in Week Two and led the secondary with 78 stops and ranked second among rookie safeties with three takeaways, tied for first on the team, earning ESPN.com All-Rookie.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH/ RUNNING BACKS JOEL THOMAS

Joel Thomas, a 26-year coaching veteran, has tutored the Saints running backs for ten seasons (2015-23 and 2025-). After spending the 2024 season coaching the New York Giants running backs, the Port Angeles, Wash. native returned to New Orleans in 2025 with the additional title of associate head coach.

In Thomas' ten seasons presiding over the Saints running backs, New Orleans tailbacks have led a balanced attack on the ground and through the air. The Saints' 170 rushing touchdowns are tied for fifth in the NFL and their 18,649 rushing yards rank 13th. A Saints tailback has ranked in the top ten in the NFL in receiving at the position in eight of the ten campaigns of Thomas' Black and Gold tenure, with the 1,084 receptions by Saints running backs the most in the league at the position. Thomas has helped his running backs earn six Pro Bowl selections - Alvin Kamara (2017-21) and Mark Ingram (2017).

Under Thomas' tutelage, Kamara, the Saints' all-time rushing yardage leader, was the only NFL player with at least 1,160 total yards from scrimmage in each of the seven seasons he first coached him, three of them 1,500 or more. In 2023, under Thomas' tutelage, Kamara, the team's all-time rushing leader, became the franchise's all-time leader in yards from scrimmage, rushing touchdowns and total touchdowns. Thomas also coached Ingram, New Orleans' career rushing leader from 2021-24, for six years, including two 1,000-yard campaigns. During his first New Orleans tenure, the Saints ranked in the top six in the NFL in rushing three times (2017, 2018 and 2020).

Thomas lettered at running back at Idaho from 1993-98, where he was a two-time first-team All-Big West selection and conference Player of the Year as a senior and still holds Vandals career records with 3,929 rushing yards and 51 TDs on 765 attempts. He was inducted into the University of Idaho Athletic Hall of Fame in 2008. Thomas earned his degree in public communications in 1998. He served as the head coach for the victorious American team for the 2026 Panini Senior Bowl.

SERIES HISTORY

Minnesota leads the regular season series, having won 21 of 33 contests since the teams first met on October 13, 1968 at Tulane Stadium and four of five postseason meetings; the Black and Gold won that first matchup 20-17. The Saints would not beat the Vikings again until Sept. 3, 1978, losing six straight contests in the interim. Though the Vikings have a grasp of the overall series record, the Saints have fared much better since 2009. The teams have met on 11 occasions since then, eight times in the regular season and three in the postseason and New Orleans has captured six, including a 52-33 win on Dec. 25, 2020, when RB Alvin Kamara tied NFL records with six rushing TDs and six overall TDs.

GAME SUMMARIES

WEEK 1: Detroit Lions 31, Saints 30; September 13 @ Ford Field - Tyler Shough chose the worst day of his young NFL career to post the best day of his NFL career, and it was nearly enough for the New Orleans Saints to pull off one of the most improbable comebacks in franchise history.
But after rallying from a 21-0 deficit in the third quarter the Saints fell just short in a 31-30, overtime loss to the Lions in the season opener on Sunday at Ford Field in Detroit.
"The defense did a lot of good things in the first half, they competed, they battled. They kept that offense from scoring for the most part," Saints Coach Kellen Moore said. "I think in the second half we started slow again on offense ... I think we finally got to that point where we started executing, and I think that allowed us to use some tempo offense to get some more plays to get the ball downfield. ... I think in all three phases we are going to have some stuff we liked and some stuff we've just got to get better at."
Shough, in his second season and 10th start, completed 10 of 22 passes for 85 yards and an interception in the first half, after which the Saints trailed 7-0. And he committed turnovers on consecutive possessions in the third quarter – an interception and lost fumble – that helped the Lions post short-field touchdown drives (41 and 25 yards) to take the three-touchdown lead with 8:54 left in the third.
But Shough and the offense created momentum on New Orleans' next drive with a scrambling, 47-yard completion to Chris Olave and from there, he was on a heater. He completed 25 of 34 passes in the second half and overtime, for 325 yards and three touchdowns, as the Saints climbed until they tied the game at 24-24 at the end of regulation.
Shough's 410 passing yards was a career high, and Olave, a second-team All-Pro last year, caught 10 passes for 182 yards as New Orleans scored on four consecutive possessions – three touchdowns and a field goal – before driving and to leave kicker Daniel Carlson in position to end the game on a 62-yard field goal attempt as time expired in regulation.
The kick attempt, which would have been a career best for Carlson, was short and wide right.
The Saints were undeterred.
They won the overtime coin toss, deferred, watched the Lions drive 70 yards in 10 plays to take a 31-24 lead, then mounted their own touchdown drive – 10 plays, 80 yards, including a 20-yard completion to Olave on fourth-and-3 from their own 27 to keep the march alive. Shough's 8-yard touchdown pass to tight end Noah Fant pulled the Saints to within 31-30 with 1:34 left and from there, they went for two.
.the winning two-point conversion. But Shough's pass attempt for Bryce Lance sailed out of the back right corner of the end zone, and the comeback fell short.
"I was proud of how we fought as a team and regardless of the adversity or circumstances we kept going ," Shough said. "I just got to play better in the first half. We've got to player better as an offense, get a rhythm going. ...Credit to them, they had some unscouted looks, obviously, it's the first game, there is going to be some new looks. We just have to be able to handle that swing better. It was a good fight to the end."

The total points allowed didn't speak well for the defense, but also it didn't tell the complete story. In the first half, little more could have been demanded or provided by the unit. It allowed a 13-play, 89-yard touchdown drive, but otherwise, it surrendered just 72 yards and appeared to have scored a second-quarter touchdown of its own, until the play was reversed on replay.

On third-and-16 from the Detroit 32-yard line, Saints edge Chase Young blazed around the right end and appeared to sack Lions quarterback Jared Goff. In the process Young forced a fumble that, after a scramble, was recovered by safety Jonas Sanker and returned 7 yards for a touchdown with 9:31 left in the half.

But replay reviewed the fumble, ruled that Goff intended a forward pass, and reversed the play. Goff was charged with an incompletion and Detroit was allowed to punt.

The defense actually did produce a turnover – following a replay, ironically – on Detroit's next possession. After the Saints were forced to punt following Detroit's non-fumble, the Lions took over with first down at the New Orleans 44.

Goff completed a short, 4-yard pass to running back Jahmyr Gibbs and as Gibbs shimmied and attempted to advance forward, defensive tackle Vernon Broughton smashed him from the blind side and ripped away the ball as they fell to the turf. Gibbs initially was ruled down by contact but after review, it was determined that the football was dislodged before Gibbs' knee was down. The Saints were successful on the challenge, and took possession at their 40-yard line with 7:40 left in the half.

The jubilation was short-lived. Five plays later, on second-and-6 from the Lions 40, Shough and Fant got their signals crossed and Shough's pass attempt went directly to Detroit safety Chuck Clark, who returned it 1 yard to the 36. The teams exchanged punts before the Lions ran out the final 20 seconds of the half.

WEEK 2: New Orleans Saints 24, Baltimore Ravens 17; September 20 @ M&T Bank Stadium - Scared money doesn't make money, and if the New Orleans Saints have shown nothing else in the first two weeks of the regular season, it's that they're not scared money in the 2026 season.

A week after going for a two-point conversion and the win in an overtime road loss to Detroit, Saints Head Coach Kellen Moore rolled the dice on fourth-and-goal from the 1 with 92 seconds left in a 17-17 game against the Ravens at M&T Stadium in Baltimore.

"Fortunate for us to get that. Obviously was gonna go for it in that situation – a chance to score a touchdown, (and) if not, we're forcing them to be on the minus one and go the long way," Moore said. "But it felt like we could get it done there."

New Orleans quarterback Tyler Shough strained, muscled and was shoved across the goal line plane – a call that withstood the replay official's review – and that score stood as the game winner when safety Julian Blackmon intercepted Lamar Jackson's pass at the Saints' seven-yard line with 13 seconds left.

New Orleans (1-1) offered another riveting performance and this time, all three phases played a significant role as the Saints eliminated the turnovers (from three against the Lions in the season opener to none Sunday) and shrunk the penalties to five, for 35 yards.

Shough completed 27 of 34 passes for 252 yards and one touchdown, ran for 23 yards and one touchdown and received big-time assistance from his offensive line (which lost left tackle Kelvin Banks Jr. to an ankle injury with 2:02 remaining in the third quarter), receiver Chris Olave (eight catches for 86 yards and a touchdown) and tight end Juwan Johnson (four catches, 66 yards), who made several critical catches in the second half.

Defensively, the Saints sacked the elusive Jackson three times (1.5 by explosive edge rusher Chase Young), held the Ravens to only one field goal in the second half and clamped down for four quarters: A week after the Ravens posted 41 points and 500-plus yards, they were limited to 17 points and 312 total net yards.

On special teams, Daniel Carlson made all three field goal attempts (23, 47 and 51 yards), rookie receiver Barion Brown had a 53-yard kickoff return to set up a field goal that pulled New Orleans to within 14-6 at halftime, and recently-signed long snapper Scott Daly was flawless in his Saints debut.

All in all, it was the kind of performance – on the road, against a quality opponent – that the Saints have believed themselves capable of rendering since they began OTAs.

As was the case in the opener against the Lions, New Orleans trailed by one score at halftime; 14-6 against the Ravens after 7-0 versus the Lions. And, again defensively, New Orleans did what it could to keep an explosive offensive off the scoreboard.

The Ravens' touchdowns came courtesy of a 1-yard run by Derrick Henry and a 23-yard pass from Jackson to Rashod Bateman with 24 seconds left in the half to give Baltimore a 14-3.

But Brown returned the kickoff 53 yards to the Baltimore 44-yard line, Shough ran for 2 yards and completed a 13-yard pass to Devaughn Vele to set up Carlson's 47-yard field goal as time expired in the half.

Both Shough and Jackson were precise in the first half; Shough completed 12 of 15 for 102 yards, and Jackson connected on 13 of 16 for 171 yards and the touchdown. Vele caught three passes for 53 yards in the half.

The Saints helped bottle themselves up with three penalties (for 25 yards), and three plays that were tackled for loss. One of those was a fumbled toss attributed to Shough, but recovered by running back Travis Etienne Jr. for a 7-yard loss.

Those errors mainly disappeared in the second half, when the Saints outscored Baltimore 18-3 and scored on three of four possessions – two touchdowns, a two-point conversion run by Etienne and a field goal from Carlson.

WEEK 3: Las Vegas Raiders 35, Saints 27; September 27 @ Caesars Superdome - The speed with which the unraveling occurred was "warp."

Each of the New Orleans Saints' four fourth-quarter possessions resulted in a turnover Sunday against the Raiders in the Caesars Superdome: Lost fumble, interception, lost fumble and lost fumble. And what had been a 27-22 lead entering the final 15 minutes became a heavily-assisted, 13-point close for the Raiders in a 35-27 victory that dropped New Orleans (1-2) below .500 and kept Las Vegas (3-0) undefeated.

"I thought we fell short in all three phases," safety Justin Reid said. "There's a couple of plays I fell short. I thought that we played a lot of good football and I thought there were some plays we just left short out there in all three phases. We just can't do that. We had a lot of good things going.

"We're going to learn from this and we're not going to get too down on ourselves, but a lot of guys are upset, a lot of guys are pissed off. I'm pissed off right now. That's OK, because we have high standards for ourselves, we have high standards for what we can do and we're going to step up to the occasion next time."

The standards were being met for a good portion of Sunday's game, New Orleans' home opener.

The Saints posted their first first-quarter score of the season – a 2-yard touchdown pass from Tyler Shough to tight end Juwan Johnson – and led 6-3 at the end of the first quarter. And even though the Saints trailed 16-13 at halftime, the offense appeared sharp early with two lengthy touchdown drives (79 yards on 13 plays on the touchdown pass to Johnson, and 72 yards on 10 plays leading to a 3-yard touchdown pass to tight end Noah Fant).

Two more touchdown passes to the tight ends in the third quarter – 1 yard to Johnson and 16 to Fant – allowed Shough (29 of 42 for 255 yards and four touchdowns, with an interception and two lost fumbles) to post his single-game high for touchdown passes and gave New Orleans tight ends as many touchdown receptions Sunday (four) as the position generated all last season in 17 games.

But after the Saints took a 27-16 lead on the 16-yarder to Fant with 5:46 left in the third quarter, on a score that came after edge Anfernee Jennings forced a fumble on a kickoff that was recovered by safety Jordan Howden, New Orleans was more imperfect at any stretch of the young season.

The Raiders answered with a quick-strike touchdown drive (71 yards on five plays in 146 seconds) and pulled to within 27-22 with 3:40 left in the quarter; their two-point conversion attempt failed.

The Saints couldn't take advantage when the ensuing kickoff went out of bounds and they began their next possession at their 40, gaining 17 yards and taking a 5-yard delay of game penalty before punting, but forced the Raiders to punt after a three-and-out.

The next possession began at the Saints' 39 with 1:36 left in the third and trickled over into the fourth quarter as New Orleans drove to the Raiders' 29-yard line. On third-and-4 from there, Shough was sacked from behind by Raiders edge Malcolm Koonce while attempting to throw, the football popped free and Maxx Crosby recovered at the Raiders' 45.

Six plays later, Kirk Cousins threw a 4-yard touchdown pass to Cody White and the Raiders took a 28-27 lead with 9:21 left.

Shough was intercepted on third-and-6 to end the Saints' next drive, and it was returned 35 yards by cornerback Hezekiah Masses to the Saints' 8, fumbled by Masses, and recovered by defensive tackle Adam Butler at the 4. Cousins threw a 4-yard touchdown pass to Brock Bowers three plays later and Las Vegas' lead grew to 35-27.

The next two drives ended on a Shough fumble from the Raiders' 20-yard line, and a Johnson fumble at the Saints' 40 to smother the last gasps for New Orleans.

The Saints on Sunday were perfect in the red zone (4 for 4), perfect on goal-to-go (3 for 3) and more than healthy on third down (9 for 16). But the turnovers and penalties (8 for 36 yards), several which drew the ire of the Saints' sideline, were devastating.

"It's frustrating, but we're on to the next," said edge Chase Young, who had the third two-sack game of his career, his second as a Saint. "This is the league. We could be better, we know that. We try not to bank our wins off the referees' calls. We may not like a call, but at the end of the day, we try to look past that and just play within the white lines."

WEEK 4: Atlanta Falcons 45, Saints 24; October 5 @ Caesars Superdome - The Monday night football celebration decisively disintegrated at the "football" part of the program for the New Orleans Saints. New Orleans' 45-24 loss to Atlanta in the Caesars Superdome was the wet-blanket conclusion to what began as a festive, reflective day commemorating the 20-year anniversary of the Superdome re-opening after Hurricane Katrina. The Saints (1-3) produced a season-worst performance in the nationally-televised contest against their NFC South Division rivals, who evened their record at 2-2 with their second straight win.

After three straight close games, all decided in the fourth quarter or overtime, and Saints gave up a 59-yard touchdown run to Atlanta running back Bijan Robinson on the third play from scrimmage, fell behind 14-0 and never pulled closer than seven points as the Falcons rushed for five touchdowns and 205 yards.

"It's really upsetting when you think about the talent that we have on the team," Saints edge rusher Cameron Jordan said. "I hate that we had a slow start and got punched in the mouths early and we were looking to respond. It's one of those games where we weren't good enough on offense, defense and special teams. And you look in the second half, like, 'fight back.'

"When you have a division rival, it's damn near worth two games. They had an early score with Bijan and at that point, (had) 60 yards on the ground. We've got to be able to figure something out. And you end up letting them - what, 200 yards rushing? That's on the defensive line. You can't look anywhere else. When you have a ground game like that, you have to look at your defensive line and say, hey, we've got to tighten up.

"It didn't happen this game, so our secondary had to come down and try to focus on the run and that's where they get to have their way. They had their way."

Atlanta totaled 420 yards and averaged 7.5 yards per play on 56 plays.

Offense was just as much of a struggle for New Orleans, which finished with 320 yards and managed just 50 rushing yards. Running back Alvin Kamara ran for 3- and 5-yard touchdowns to raise his franchise-record total to 89, but the Saints averaged 2.6 yards on 19 carries and, again, started slowly.

The first offensive possession ended on a three-and-out, the second on a missed 52-yard field goal attempt by Daniel Carlson and the third, on Kendre Miller's lost fumble - a down-by-contact field ruling that was overturned by Atlanta's challenge.

The Falcons were able to take advantage of the short field and score on a five-play, 22-yard drive as Bijan Robinson scored on a 4-yard run. The Saints forced an incompletion on the drive on fourth-and-4 from their 8-yard line, but cornerback Kool-Aid McKinstry drew a defensive holding penalty in the end zone that gave the Falcons first-and-goal at the 4.

Brian Robinson Jr. ran for three touchdowns and quarterback Michael Penix added a passing touchdown as New Orleans never seriously threatened after pulling to within 14-7.

"We didn't shut down, our run defense," Jordan said. "Our run defense didn't show up to play early on - 60-yard touchdown happens. From there, they understand their zone schemes were working, they relied on that. And for whatever reason, we couldn't tighten up our gaps. Our gap integrity has to be at a premium, especially when you're going against a top-tier back like Bijan. Or any running back, the way that we're playing. It just wasn't good enough."

Jordan said the message from Monday's game was a clear one.

"The message is, if you get punched in the chin you tuck your chin and start swinging back."

SAINTS TEAM CAPTAINS

In 2026 in a vote by teammates, G David Edwards and QB Tyler Shough were added as offensive team captains, Chase Young and Kaden Elliss were voted as a defensive captain and LB Chris Rumph was added for his leadership on defense and special teams. Brees was a two-time AP NFL Offensive Player of the Year, named to 13 Pro Bowls and five AP All-Pro teams and was the 2004 NFL Comeback Player of the Year. Overall, in his 20-year NFL career, he played in 287 regular season games (286 starts) and completed 7,142-of-10,551 passes (67.7 pct.) for 80,358 yards, 571 touchdown passes and a 98.7 passer rating. He set numerous NFL passing records and retired as the league's all-time leader in passing yardage (80,358), completions (7,142) passing attempts (10,551), ranked second in career completion percentage (67.7%) and touchdown passes (571) and fifth in passer rating (98.7).

Brees set marks for touchdown passes in a game (seven, tied with seven other players), completion percentage in a season (74.4, 2018) and in a game (96.7, 12/16/19), completions in a season (471, 2016-broken), 300-yard passing games in a season (13, 2011), consecutive games with at least 300 yards passing (nine, twice), career passing yards (80,358-since broken), passing yards in a four-season span (20,767, 2011-14), in a five-season span (25,637, 2011-15) and in a six-season span (30,845, 2011-16), most seasons leading the league in passing yardage (seven), consecutive games with a touchdown pass (54, 2009-12), games with four-plus touchdown passes (37), four TD passes and zero interceptions (25), games with five-plus TD passes (11) consecutive games with at least three touchdown passes and zero interceptions (four, tied with three other players), overall (10) and consecutive (nine) seasons with at least 30 TD passes, career 300-yard passing games (123) and career 350-yard passing games (63).

Brees retired holding four of the top five most accurate seasons in league history and threw for 5,000 yards an NFL-record five times, a feat no other player has accomplished more than two times.

the Austin, Texas native's record as a starter for the Saints was 151-94 (.616) in the regular season and postseason combined, easily making him the winningest signal-caller in franchise history. Posting a 144-85 (.629) record in the regular season and postseason with Sean Payton as his head coach, the Payton-Brees head coach/starting quarterback combination is tied for second in total wins all-time. Brees retired as the holder of virtually every passing record in club record books with his 15 years of service and 228 regular season starts, both the highest totals in the team's history at the time.

From 2006-20, Brees led the NFL with 68,010 passing yards, 491 touchdowns, 8,742 attempts, 6,017 completions, a 68.8 completion percentage, 116 games with at least 300 yards passing, 16 with at least 400 and 518 completions of 25 yards or more.

Brees was inducted in Canton on August 8 in front of an enthusiastic crowd of Saints supporters and will be inducted into the team's Ring of Honor and will be presented with his Pro Football Hall of Fame ring on Sunday at a halftime presentation of the Saints-Vikings contest of which he is the game color analyst for FOX.

OFFENSIVE SURGE

BUCKING THE ODDS

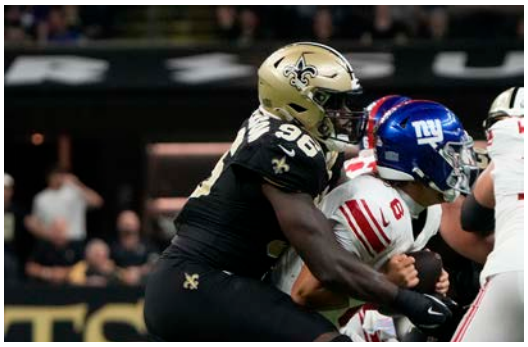

The Saints have a long tradition of finding players as free agents signed after the draft who make an impact immediately or after developing their careers initially on the practice squad. Several undrafted Saints on the roster have played key roles on offense, defense and special teams.

Over the past 23 years, the Saints (2018-22: defensive back J.T. Gray, wide receiver/return specialist Deonte Harty and wide receiver/return specialist Rashid Shaheed) and San Diego/Los Angeles Chargers (2003: guard Kris Dielman, tight end Antonio Gates and wide receiver Kasim Osgood) are the only two teams to have three players signed as undrafted free agents be selected to a Pro Bowl for the team that originally signed them.

EDGE Carl Granderson joined the club in 2019 as an undrafted free agent out of Wyoming and has appeared in 108 games with 50 starts, posting 308 tackles (179 solo), 35.5 sacks for a loss of 210 yards, ten pass breakups, one interception, four forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries, two blocked field goals and one blocked extra point.

In 2025, Granderson enjoyed a productive season, recording 57 total tackles (35 solo), six sacks, ranking third on the team, one pick, four pass breakups. In three games this season, he recorded more than one sack, playing an important role on a front line of a defense that finished ranked ninth in the NFL in opponent net yards per game and sixth in opponent net yards per play.

Granderson opened the first three games opposite Chase Young and has made significant contributions on both defense and special teams with 11 tackles (five solo), one sack and a blocked field goal. In the September 20, 24-17 win at Baltimore, Granderson blocked a field goal in the first half and at the end of the fourth quarter was responsible for the pressure on Ravens QB Lamar Jackson that forced an interception to seal the New Orleans victory.

Tight end Juwan Johnson first led Saints tight ends with four touchdown receptions in 2021, converting to the position that offseason after playing wideout in college and as a rookie in 2020, signing as an undrafted free agent from Oregon. Johnson led Saints tight ends with 50 receptions for a club-best 548 yards in 2024, adding three TD grabs. He ranks first on the Saints with 20 receiving touchdowns over the past five seasons, tied for sixth over that period among NFL tight ends. In his career, Johnson has played in 88 games (46 starts), making 244 receptions for 2,743 yards with 24 TDs.

In 2025, Johnson finished ranked fifth among tight ends in receiving and third in receiving yards with a career-high 77 grabs for a career-best 889 yards with three touchdowns. His 240 receptions as a tight end (four additional were as a WR in 2020) are ranked third among the position all-time for the club. His 244 career catches are second among Saints originally signed as an undrafted free agent.

Signed following the 2024 NFL Draft, linebacker Isaiah Stalbird played at Nebraska (2019) and South Dakota State (2020-23). He appeared in 64 games in his college career and made 251 tackles, 18.5 for loss, three sacks, an interception, 19 pass breakups, five forced fumbles, two recoveries and three blocked punts for the 2022 and 2023 FCS National Champions. In 2025, Stalbird had a team-high 19 coverage stops and leads the club with six special teams tackles in 2026.

The only player on the 53-man roster signed by the club following the 2026 NFL Draft, the club inked running back CJ Donaldson out of Ohio State, whe he completed his college career leading the Buckeyes with ten rushing touchdowns in 2025. Donaldson has excelled in a short yardage role through three games, one of only ten players with at least three third-and-one conversions in 2026.

2025 DRAFT RECAP

The New Orleans Saints 2025 draft class, the first under Head Coach Kellen Moore, featured eight players contributing to the team's 53-man roster at the end of the season, three offensive players, as well as three defenders, with four (left tackle Kelvin Banks Jr., cornerback Quincy Riley, safety Jonas Sanker and quarterback Tyler Shough) starting in the regular season finale at the Atlanta Falcons and tight end Moliki Matavao and linebacker Danny Stutsman playing significant snaps. On offense, Executive Vice President/General Manager Mickey Loomis split the selections among four different positions.

Defensively, New Orleans added players at four different positions as the unit makes the switch to Defensive Coordinator Brandon Staley's 3-4 scheme, a safety, a linebacker and a cornerback currently contributing. With Sanker posting his second interception of the season in the December 21 win against the Jets, for three total takeaways on the season, the most by a Saints rookie since 2021.

2025 saw significant contributions from most of the rookie class. Banks opened all 17 games at one of the NFL's most challenging positions. Riley played in all 17 games with five starts and recorded 34 tackles, one interception, ten pass breakups and one forced fumble for the NFL's fourth-ranked pass defense. Sanker played in all 17 games with 16 starts and finished second on the team with 78 stops to go with three takeaways and six pass breakups. Shough started the last eight games of the season and completed 221-of-327 passes (67.6 pct.) for 2,834 yards with ten touchdowns, a 91.3 passer rating and a club-best three rushing touchdowns.

Kelvin Banks Jr. was selected with the ninth overall pick out of Texas. A three-year starter who opened all 42 games he played in at left tackle for the Longhorns from 2022-24, Banks was the 2024 Outland Trophy winner and a unanimous All-American selection. In his first season, Banks lined up at the position that he manned flawlessly as a college standout, facing weekly challenges from some of the NFL's elite pass rushers. He was a consensus All-Rookie selection and was the only Saints offensive lineman to open every contest. Surrendering only four sacks, when often left on an island, for rookie tackles who started at least 16 of their team's contests, Banks gave up the fewest takedowns.

The Saints selected Shough out of Louisville with the team's selection in the second round (40th overall) of the 2025 NFL Draft. In seven seasons at Oregon (2018-20), Texas Tech (2021-23) and Louisville (2024), Shough played in 42 games and completed 599-of-951 passes (63.0 pct.) for 7,820 yards with 59 touchdowns, also carrying 246 times for 733 yards with 11 scores.

In 11 games with nine starts, Shough completed 221-of-327 passes (67.6 pct.-third all-time among qualifying NFL rookies) for 2,384 yards with ten touchdowns, six interceptions and a 91.3 passer rating, while also carrying 47 times for 186 yards with a team-leading touchdowns and an additional two-point conversion rush. Among qualifying passers, he ranked first in the NFL in third down passer rating (103.3).

Setting every rookie passing record in team history, Shough snuck up on the competition as a consensus all-rookie selection and finalist for Associated Press NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year honors. Posting a 5-4 record as the team's starter, the Chandler, Ariz. native led all rookie signal-callers in victories, as well as several other categories.

Over the last five games of the season, Shough earned NFL Offensive Rookie of the Month honors, when he led the Black and Gold to a 4-1 record, including a four-game winning streak with three fourth quarter game-winning drives. During the period he completed 114-of-163 passes (69.9 pct.) for 1,316 yards with five touchdowns, two interceptions and a 99.1 passer rating (111.6 on third down) over the final month of the regular season. Shough also rushed 24 times for 135 yards with three touchdowns during the stretch.

The first of two fourth round draft picks by the Saints, LB Danny Stutsman played in 47 career contests, starting 37, with all coming over the last three seasons at Oklahoma. The Central Florida native accumulated 376 tackles over his four-year career with 183 solo stops, 36 stops for loss, eight sacks, three interception returns for 70 yards, eight pass breakups, 11 passes defensed, four forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. Stutsman was a first-team All-American for the Sooners in 2024, when he started all 12 games he played in and made 109 stops, eight tackles for loss and one sack.

In 2025, Stutsman played an active role on the team's special teams units, where he finished third on the club with 13 stops and the club also inserted him into defensive packages, where he made 40 tackles. In 2026, he has played in all four contests with one start and has 19 tackles (eight solo) and three coverage stops.

The second of two fourth round picks by the Black and Gold, CB Quincy Riley finished his college career playing in 55 games with 36 starts in six seasons with Louisville (2022-24) and Middle Tennessee (2019-21), posting 159 tackles, ten stops for loss, 2.5 sacks, 15 interceptions, including two returned for touchdowns, 59 passes defensed and a forced fumble. In 2024 when he was a teammate of Shough, Riley appeared in ten games with eight starts for the Cardinals and finished with 33 tackles (21 solo), one forced fumble and three stops for loss. Tied for the team lead with two interceptions and tied for ninth in the nation with 15 pass breakups (17 passes defensed), earning second-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors.

After competing in training camp for a role in the team's defensive packages, Riley's competitiveness and speed propelled him into the starting lineup in the team's three-cornerback rotation in Week Three, and for the the season, when he played in all 17 games with five starts in the base defense and recorded 30 tackles, an interception, ten pass breakups, a forced fumble and one coverage stop, earning ESPN and CBS Sports All-Rookie honors. Riley finished the season tied for fourth in the NFL among rookies with ten pass breakups.

Christen Miller was selected in the second round with the 42nd overall pick. Miller spent four seasons at Georgia and appeared in 43 games (24 starts), recording 64 tackles (31 solo), 11.5 tackles for loss, four sacks and one pass breakup. Miller was named first-team All-SEC by the Associated Press in 2025, when he plugged the middle with 23 tackles, four stops for loss, four sacks, a team-leading 23 quarterback pressures and one pass breakup.

TE Oscar Delp was selected by the Saints in the third round out of the University of Georgia, where he spent four seasons (2022-25). He appeared in 55 games with 34 starts and recorded 70 receptions for 854 yards (12.2 avg.) with nine touchdowns. In 2025, Delp started all 14 games and had 20 receptions for 261 yards and one score, while being a force in the Bulldogs run game, helping Georgia rushers gain 2,250 yards on the ground on 212 carries. Expected to contribute as both a blocker and pass catcher, Delp caught one touchdown in the presason. Delp made his National Football League debut on September 20, at Baltimore, recording one reception for eight yards. On Monday night vs. Atlanta, Delp recorded his first career coverage stop, contributing on special teams in addition to starting in a three-tight end set.

G Jeremiah Wright was selected in the fourth-round with the 132nd pick. A guard who converted from defensive tackle in 2022, opening 25-of-of 53 games at Auburn. The Selma, Ala. native started 24 consecutive games for the Tigers over his final two college seasons. The 6-5, 331-pounder has been learning how to use his large frame both run-blocking and pass-blocking, opening all three preseason contests at right guard.

WR Bryce Lance was the second of two fourth-round picks by New Orleans, with the 136th overall selection. Lance spent four seasons at North Dakota State (2022-25) and appeared in 57 games with 26 starts, catching 127 passes for 2,157 yards (17.0 avg.) with 25 touchdowns. In 2025, Lance was an Football Championship Subdivision first-team All-American, as well as a Missouri Valley Football Conference first-team selection for the second consecutive year in 2025, when he started all 13 games and caught 51 passes for 1,079 yards (21.2 avg.) with eight touchdowns. He has played in all four games and recorded five grabs for 57 yards.

S Lorenzo Styles was the Saints' first sixth round pick (172nd overall). Styles spent three seasons at Ohio State (2023-25) after spending two seasons at Notre Dame (2021-22). Moving to the secondary with the Buckeyes, he appeared in 35 games with 11 starts in Columbus and recorded 46 tackles and six pass breakups. In 2025, he played in 12 games with 11 starts and posted 30 tackles (18 solo), 1.5 stops for loss and two pass breakups. Styles, who has competed on the Saints special teams units, returned a kickoff for a 100-yard touchdown against UCLA. Styles is currently on Injured Reserve.

WR/RS Barion Brown was a sixth round pick by the Saints with the 190th pick. Brown spent one season at LSU (2025), after spending his first three campaigns at Kentucky. Brown finished his career second in NCAA history with six kickoff returns for touchdowns (Southeastern Conference record), one shy of the NCAA record. In the return game throughout his college career at Kentucky (2022-24) and LSU (2025), he returned 65 kickoffs for 1,910 yards (29.4 avg.) with six TDs and 11 punt returns for 85 yards. On offense, the Nashville, Tenn. native played in 50 games with 37 starts and recorded 175 catches for 2,060 yards with 12 TDs and rushed 32 times for 228 yards with two TDs.

On September 20, at Baltimore, Brown's second quarter 53-yard kickoff return set up a field goal as time expired in the half to cut the Saints' halftime deficit to 14-6. In three contests, Brown has brought juice to the team's kickoff return game with ten runbacks for 258 yards (25.8 avg.)

CB TJ Hall was selected with the 219th pick by New Orleans. Hall spent four seasons at Iowa (2022-25), where he played in 42 games with 18 starts and recorded 75 tackles (29 solo), two interceptions, 14 pass breakups and one fumble recovery. In his final season, he recorded 47 stops and a team-leading 11 passes defensed for the Hawkeyes. Hall will start the season on the practice squad after competing for snaps on both defense and special teams in the preseason.

SAINTS ROOKIES

Of the 19 new players on the 53-man roster, seven of those players are rookies, including five of the 2026 draft picks and one rookie free agent who was claimed off waivers - tackle Mason Murphy (Chicago), who originally joined the Bears as a rookie free agent out of Auburn and undrafted rookie free agent running back CJ Donaldson, who was signed to the active roster in Week Two after being a Week One practice squad elevation. This is the 20th consecutive season, the Saints have had a rookie free agent on the initial 53-man roster.

PRO BOWL AND ALL-PRO PLAYERS COACHED BY KELLEN MOORE

New Orleans Saints Head Coach Kellen Moore has coached 15 players who've earned 19 Pro Bowl selections as coordinator and position coach, with the Philadelphia Eagles, Los Angeles Chargers and Dallas Cowboys. Moore also coached eight players to pick up Associated Press All-Pro honors with the Cowboys, Eagles and Saints, with wide receiver Chris Olave his first Saint under his tutelage voted with the honors.

FROM THE FIELD TO THE SIDELINE

Kellen Moore was the seventh New Orleans Saints head coach to have played in the National Football League, joining Tom Fears, John North, Dick Nolan, Mike Ditka, Jim Haslett and Sean Payton. Moore, who finished his college playing career at Boise State with a record of 50-3, the most wins by a quarterback in NCAA history, played six seasons for the Detroit Lions (2012-14) and Dallas Cowboys (2015-17). This Sunday, Moore returns to the sideline at Ford Field, where he started his NFL career as a backup signal-caller for the Lions, who signed as a free agent following the 2012 NFL Draft.

BARKING UP THE RIGHT TREE

With Moore as his offensive coordinator in 2024 with the Eagles, Philadelphia running back Saquon Barkley had one of the best seasons by a tailback in NFL history. The consensus National Football League Offensive Player of the Year, a first-team Associated Press All-Pro and Pro Bowl starter selection, Barkley led the league with a franchise-record 2,005 rushing yards in the regular season, making him just the ninth player in NFL history to post 2,000+ rushing yards in a season, eight-most in league records. Including 499 rushing yards in the playoffs which ranked third all-time, Barkley's 2,504 rushing yards were the most in NFL single-season history (regular season and postseason combined).

NOTHING HURTS

In 2024 in Philadelphia, under the tutelage of Moore who served as offensive coordinator, Eagles signal-caller Jalen Hurts was able to put together one of the best seasons of his career. The Super Bowl Most Valuable Player ranked among the top eight in the leauge in yards per attempt (fourth, 8.0), passer rating (fifth, career-high 103.7), completion percentage (eighth, career-high 6.7 pct.) and total touchdowns (32, eighth). In Super Bowl LIX, Hurts completed 17-of-22 passes (77.3 pct.) for 221 yards, two TDs, a 119.7 passer rating and 72 rushing yards with one TD on the ground, the most rushing yards by a signal-caller ever in a Super Bowl.

FIVE STRAIGHT

In the Oct. 5, 2025 26-14 win over the New York Giants, the Saints recorded takeaways off five consecutive possessions. This was the first time this occurred in an NFL game since the Kansas City Chiefs intercepted QB Ryan Fitzpatrick on the last five Jets' possessions of the contest in a 24-3 Chiefs win (Sept. 25, 2016). It was the first time the Saints had defensive takeaways on five consecutive possessions, since they had five straight interceptions in a 27-3 win at the Phoenix Cardinals (Dec. 22, 1991). Below is a summary of the turnovers in the last two Saints contests where the Black and Gold recorded five consecutive takeaways.

GOAL LINE STANDS

In the Oct. 26, 2025 contest against Tampa Bay, the Saints succeeded in two short yardage situations against tall odds, putting the heart they had shown all season on full display in a valiant effort.

In the second quarter, with the Buccaneers having first and one at the Saints' one-yard line, the New Orleans front seven stopped Buccaneers RB Rachaad White from entering the end zone on three straight plays, with Chris Rumph II and Nathan Shepherd stuffing Tampa Bay RB Sean Tucker on fourth-and-one.

In Tampa Bay's first drive of the third quarter, the Buccaneers advanced to the New Orleans one-yard line following a 22-yard completion from QB Baker Mayfield to TE Cade Otton. On two goal line plays, CB Kool-Aid McKinstry successfully defended Mayfield pass attempts to WRs Sterling Shepard and Emeka Egbuka. On second down, LB Demario Davis stuffed Tucker. Until Tucker reached the end zone on fourth and one, the Saints had sucessfully defended the one-yard line seven times in the contest, the first time a team had done so since the Dec. 8, 2013 matchup where Tennessee Titans managed seven stops from the one-yard line by the Denver Broncos at Empower Field at Mile High (credit-ESPN).

2024 DRAFT CONTRIBUTORS

The team's top three selections in the 2024 NFL Draft started multiple games for the Saints in both 2024 and 2025. Below is a summary of the performance of five of the top six 2024 draft picks, as each of them made a jump in 2025 and will look to continue to rise in 2026:

RT Taliese Fuaga, Oregon State (first round) - Selected with the 14th overall pick, the Saints were able to address an immediate need, while also acquiring a cornerstone for the future. Fuaga was an anchor on the Saints offensive line in his rookie campaign, seamlessly moving over to the left tackle position for his first NFL season, where he opened every game for an offense that improved in every rushing metric. Starting all 17 games, he was the first Saint to start every game in his rookie year at the offensive line's most challenging position since J.T. Taylor in 1978. In 2025, Fuaga moved back to his natural right tackle position, starting 13 games as the anchor to that side of the line.

CB Kool-Aid McKinstry, Alabama (second round) - Selected in the second round of the 2024 NFL Draft with the 41st overall pick, McKinstry arrived in New Orleans having covered many of the nation's top wideouts in the SEC for three years. In 2023, the consensus first-team All-American was a semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award in his final campaign, making 32 tackles and seven passes defensed.

Opening every contest in his second season in 2025, he recorded 76 tackles (59 solo) with, three interceptions and a club-best 17 pass breakups, tied for sixth in the National Football League and third in the NFC. The Pinson, Ala. native recorded the first two picks of his career in the October 5, 2025 win over the New York Giants, capturing NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for the first time in his career. In 36 career games with 30 starts, he has totals of 134 stops (101 solo), three picks, 27 pass breakups and one special teams tackle.

QB Spencer Rattler, South Carolina (D5a) - Selected with the team's first selection in the fifth round (150th overall), Rattler completed 900-of-1,313 passes (68.5 pct.) for 10,807 yards with 77 touchdowns and only 32 interceptions for the Gamecocks (2022-23) and Oklahoma (2019-21).

As a rookie in 2024, Rattler appeared in seven games with six starts, he completed 130-of-228 passes for a Saints rookie-record 1,317 yards with four touchdowns, also carrying 18 times for 146 yards. In 2025 in nine games with eight starts, Rattler completed 173-of-257 passes (67.3 pct.) for 1,586 yards with eight touchdowns, five interceptions and an 86.8 passer rating. Rattler utilized his feet well, carrying 31 times for 167 yards (5.4 avg.).

LB Jaylan Ford, Texas (D5c) - The last of three fifth round draft picks by the club in 2024, Ford was selected out of Texas, where he posted 287 tackles, 27.5 stops for loss, three sacks, ten pass breakups, six interceptions, four forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries. As a rookie, Ford established a role on special teams, contributing five tackles before suffering a fibula injury in Week 17. In 2025, he had nine coverage tackles and two defensive stops.

In the 2026 preseason, Ford stepped up in starting and play-calling duty before being placed on Injured Reserve-designated to return prior to Week One.

DT Khristian Boyd, Northern Iowa (D6) - A sixth round selection, Boyd appeared in 49 career games in college and collected 149 tackles (59 solo), 22.5 stops for loss, 10.5 sacks, five pass breakups and two forced fumbles.

In his final college season, Boyd started all 11 games along and had 43 stops, 6.5 tackles for loss, 3.5 sacks and a pass breakup, earning All-MVFC first-team and consensus FCS third-team All-American. Following a full offseason, and utilizing his 6-2, 320-pound frame to fit into the Saints' 3-4 alignment, the Kansas City native provided a push to New Orleans' interior line along the stretch run in 2025. On Sept. 27, against Las Vegas, Boyd recorded his first career sack.

SPECIAL TEAMS OVERVIEW

Saints special teams benefited from the elevation of Phil Galiano to coordinator, after serving as assistant special teams coach for five-and-a-half seasons before taking over coordination of the unit midway through the 2024 season. During Galiano's tenure, the special teams units have consistently ranked among the NFL's leaders in placekicking, coverage and return units, producing Pro Bowlers and Associated Press All-Pros, while also setting various club records in placekicking, punting, return game and coverage units. Under Galiano's direction, the club has committed to a transition of a mix of seasoned veterans and several promising youngsters, supplemented by some key additions in free agency and the draft in 2026.

BLOCK UNIT

New Orleans' field goal block unit has blocked six kicks over the last three seasons.

In the September 20, 24-17 win over the Baltimore Ravens, EDGE Carl Granderson blocked a 49-yard field goal attempt by K Tyler Loup, aided by pressure from teammates Justin Reid and special teams captain Chris Rumph.

COVERAGE UNITS

Galiano and Assistant Special Teams Coach Kyle Wilber were tasked with remaking the coverage aspect of the special teams units with the top six tacklers from the 2024 campaign not on the roster. Second-year LB Isaiah Stalbird led the team with 16 stops. The Unit's top three tacklers return to the team in 2026.

After signing with the Saints following the 2024 NFL Draft, Stalbird played in five games and recorded three special teams tackles. In 2025, he played in all 17 contests and buoyed the coverage units with a club-best 16 stops, while also leading the linebackers with two sacks. In the September 13 season opener at the Detroit Lions, he led the team with three coverage tackles and leads the club with six stops despite missing the team's Week Two contest.

Signed by New Orleans following the 2025 NFL Draft, Rumph provided depth at the edge position and knowledge of Defensive Coordinator Brandon Staley's system from their time together with the Los Angeles Chargers. He developed into a core speccial teams player for the Black and Gold and added 14 stops. In addition to his special teams acumen, Rumph has the intelligence and skillset to contribute at both the EDGE and inside linebacker positions. Voted by his teammates as a team captain based on the leadership he provides on coverage units, he has two stops in 2026, also receiving a defensive start on Monday night vs. Atlanta.

The second of the team's two fourth round picks in 2025, Stutsman immediately assumed a significant role on special teams, as well as seeing action on defensive packages, finishing third on the Saints with 13 coverage stops. On Sept. 20 at Baltimore, Stutsman had a career-high three coverage tackles. Stutsman also enjoyed his first career start on defense on Monday night, vs. Atlanta.

Tied with Rumph, RB CJ Donaldson and CB Jayden Price for third on the club with two special teams tackles apiece, DB Jordan Howden and EDGE Anfernee Jennings collaborated on a big play on Sept. 27 against Las Vegas, when Jennings, an offseson free agent acquisition, stripped the ball from the Raiders kick returner and it was picked up by Howden for the team's first special teams takeaway of the season

WR/RS BARION BROWN

The Saints' sixth-round pick out of LSU ranks statistically as one of the top special teams playmakers in college football history. Brown finished his career second in NCAA history with six kickoffs returned for touchdowns (Southeastern Conference record), one shy of the NCAA record. In the return game throughout his college career at Kentucky (2022-24) and LSU (2025), he returned 65 kickoffs for 1,910 yards (29.4 avg.) with six touchdowns and 11 punt returns for 85 yards. On offense, the Nashville, Tenn. native played in 50 games with 37 starts and recorded 175 catches for 2,060 yards with 12 touchdowns and rushed 32 times for 228 yards with two TDs. In the Sept. 20 24-17 win over the Baltimore Ravens, Brown's 53-yard kickoff return near the end of the first half set up a field goal as the half expired to cut New Orleans' deficit to 14-6. n three contests, Brown has brought juice to the team's kickoff return game with ten runbacks for 258 yards (25.8 avg.)

K DANIEL CARLSON

The club signed veteran kicker Daniel Carlson to handle placekicking duties. Carlson, 6-5, 222, was originally selected by the Minnesota Vikings in the fifth round (167th overall) of the 2018 NFL Draft out of Auburn. In nine seasons with the Vikings (2018), Oakland/Las Vegas Raiders (2018-25) and Saints (2026-), Carlson has made 230-of-266 field goals (86.5%) and 255-of-266 extra points (95.5%) for 944 total points. Since 2018, his 230 field goals rank third in the NFL, his 86.5 field goal percentage ranks sixth (min. 200 att.) and his 944 kicking points ranks fifth. Carlson's 910 points as a Raider from 2018-25 rank second in franchise history. The two-time AP All-Pro made 22-of-27 field goals (82.5%) and 21-of-22 extra point attempts for 87 total points in 2025, including a game-winning career-long 60-yard field goal with eight seconds left in a season-closing 14-12 victory over Kansas City.

WRIGHT FLIPS FIELD

Ryan Wright was signed by New Orleans in the 2026 offseason as an unrestricted free agent after spending his first four seasons with the Minnesota Vikings, who signed him as an undrafted free agent out of Tulane in 2022. In five NFL campaigns, Wright has been among the most productive punters in the NFL, recording a career gross average of 47.8 on 261 with 42.3 net and 106 punts inside the 20-yard line across 72 contests. In 2025, the former Green Wave standout set career-highs in gross average (49.0) and net (44.5), good for third-best in the league in both categories.

QUARTERBACKS

TYLER SHOUGH

In 11 games with nine starts in 2025 after opening his first contest on November 2, Shough, the team's second round draft pick out of Louisville, completed 221-of-327 passes (67.6 pct.) for 2,384 yards with ten touchdowns, posting a 91.3 passer rating, also carrying 45 times for 186 yards with a club-best three touchdowns and an additional two-point conversion rush. A consensus All-Rookie selection and one of five finalists for the Associated Press NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year honors, Shough ended up leading rookie signal-callers in wins (five), third down passer rating (third-best 103.3), completion percentage, 300-yard passing games (two) and fourth quarter game-winning drives (three).

In 2026, Shough has assumed the leadership reigns of the Black and Gold throughout the offseason and in training camp, as he looks to continue his progression in his sophomore season, as well as helping the Saints take their next step forward in the team's deveopment.

In the first four games of 2026, Shough has completed 121-of-180 passes (67.2 pct.) for 1,203 yards with nine touchdowns, only three interceptions and a 95.7 passer rating. Shough has also carried 14 times for 67 yards with one touchdown, as well as a career-long 36-yard carry. Shough is ranked first in the NFL in completions, third in passing yards and tied for third in touchdown passes.

PROLIFIC PASSING

In the 2026 season opener at Detroit, Shough overcame a slow start by himself and the Saints offense to nearly lead the team to a comeback from a 21-0 deficit. Shough completed 35-of-56 passes for 410 yards with three touchdowns. The second-year signal caller set career-highs in attempts, completions passing yards and passing touchdowns.

With New Orleans down 21-0, Shough led the Saints on four consecutive scoring drives: two third quarter touchdown drives to cut the deficit to 21-14, a drive for a field goal at the start of the fourth quarter to cut it to 21-17 and then an eight-play, 74-yard drive that ended with a nine-yard touchdown pass to TE Juwan Johnson to tie the score at 24-24. After the New Orleans defense forced a three and out the Saints got the ball back and Shough connected with Johnson for 18 yards to set up a 62-yard field goal attempt at the end of regulation. In overtime, Shough led the Saints on a ten-play, 80-yard drive that culminated with an eight-yard connection in the end zone with TE Noah Fant, putting his team in position to take victory until the failed two-point attempt to end the contest.

Shough's career-high 410 passing yards marked the 18th-highest total in franchise history and the 18th 400-yard passing game. He joins Drew Brees and Aaron Brooks as only the third Saint to throw for 400 yards. It was the first time a Saint threw for at least 400 yards in a contest since Brees tossed for 439 yards in the 2018 season opener vs. Tampa Bay.

Shough's 325 passing yards in the second half and overtime marks a club-best for passing yardage in a second half/overtime and is tied for the 17th-highest total in NFL record books.

COMEBACK KID

In New Orleans' 24-17 fourth quarter come-from-behind win at the Baltimore Ravens on September 20, Shough engineered the Saints back to victory from the biggest fourth quarter deficit they faced in his 13 career starts.

With New Orleans trailing the Ravens, 17-9 at the start of the fourth quarter, Shough first led the Black and Gold on a nine-play, 68-yard drive, where he completed five-of-five passes, ending with a 21-yard touchdown pass to WR Chris Olave. Following a successful two-point conversion, the score was tied 17-17.

After the Saints forced a three-and-out quickly, Shough and the Saints offense got the ball back with 8:06 remaining, Shough led the Saints on a 16-play, 68-yard drive that chewed up 6:38 of clock, ending with a one-yard rushing touchdown to give the Saints the 24-17 lead and complete the comeback.

GAME-WINNERS

In the clutch, Shough become the first Saint since Drew Brees in 2020 to lead the Black and Gold to two straight fourth quarter/overtime game-winning drives, when Drew Brees did so in 2020, including leading the team from a 17-10 fourth quarter deficit in the December 14, 2025, 20-17 victory over Carolina.

In New Orleans' Dec. 28 win at Tennessee, Shough had his third of the season, with the Saints trailing 26-20 in the fourth quarter. Shough overcame a lost fumble by the Saints on their first drive of the final period. Following the fumble, Shough took advantage of the defense quickly getting the ball back and went to work with 8:45 left. Following a 12 yard carry by RB Audric Estime, Shough completed a pass for a 60-yard gain to WR Chris Olave to the Titans eight-yard line. On second down, the rookie signal-caller and WR Kevin Austin Jr. connected in the end zone for a ten-yard TD to complete New Orleans' comeback.

Despite only playing in 11 games with nine starts, Shough's three fourth quarter game-winning drives led all rookies and were the most by a Saint since Brees' three in 2020.

HERE FOR SECONDS

In his second career start at Carolina on Nov. 9, 2025, Shough completed 19-of-27 passes for a then Saints rookie-record 282 yards with two touchdowns, zero interceptions and a 128.9 passer rating. His first TD pass was a 62-yard laser to WR Chris Olave, which was the second-longest touchdown thrown by a Saints rookie QB, with Archie Manning throwing a 63-yarder to WR Danny Abramowicz on Oct. 3, 1971 against the Houston Oilers. With the victory, Shough became the first Saints rookie signal-caller to win a start since Dave Wilson (at L.A. Rams, 11/8/81). Overall he became the fourth Saints rookie to win a start, joining Wilson, Manning (1971) and Larry Cipa (1974).
The last time a Saints quarterback had 2+ touchdown passes and zero interceptions in one of his first two career starts was Manning (9/26/71 @San Francisco).

RUN FOR IT

In the December 7, 2025 24-20 win at Tampa Bay, Shough achieved several firsts in using both his arm and legs to help power New Orleans' 24-20 win over the Buccaneers. Shough completed 13-of-20 passes (65.0 pct.) for 144 yards, with a career day on the ground in driving rain, carrying seven times for 55 yards (7.9 avg.) with two touchdowns. Shough's two scores marked the first time a Saints rookie had two rushing TDs since Archie Manning (vs. Dallas on 10/17/71) and his 55 yards rushing are the most in franchise history by a rookie signal-caller. Shough executed the first fourth quarter game winning drive of his career, when with the score tied 17-17, he drove New Orleans down the field 53-yards on nine plays, ending with a 13-yard rushing touchdown. In addition to the rushing touchdown, Shough completed three-of-four passes for 36 yards on the game-winning drive.

In the September 27 contest vs. Las Vegas, Shough set a new career-long with a 36-yard run and he has made plays with his legs when neccessary in 2026, carrying 16 times for 72 yards (4.5 avg.) with one touchdown.

BACK TO BACK I

On Dec. 14, vs. Carolina Shough engineered an eight-play, 62-yard drive that took 55 seconds, ending with a 47-yard field goal by K Charlie Smyth. In it, he completed three-of-four passes for 43 yards and also gained four yards on a rush to help lead the Saints to the 20-17 win. In the fourth quarter alone, Shough completed 13-of-18 passes for 162 yards with the game-tying 12-yard touchdown pass to WR Chris Olave, as well as grinding out four yards rushing, for the second-highest fourth quarter passing yardage total in Week 15 in the NFL. With Shough's fourth quarter game-winning drive at Tampa Bay the prior week, this marked the first time a Saints signal-caller has had fourth quarter/overtime game-winning drives in consecutive contests since Drew Brees in Weeks Five (team had bye in Week Six), Seven and Eight of the 2020 season. Shough and Jayden Daniels (2024) are the only rookie quarterbacks in the last ten seasons to lead a game-winning drive in back-to-back games against a team with a winning record.

BACK TO BACK II

In the Dec. 21, 2025 29-6 win over the Jets, Shough went 32-49 for a career-high 308 yards with a touchdown, and zero interceptions. He also rushed for eight yards on two attempts. It marked the first time a Saints rookie signal-caller threw for 300 yards and only the second time an NFL rookie threw for 300 in 2025. Following the Jets contest, Shough No. 1 in completions (176), passing yards (1,792), passing touchdowns (7), passer rating (86.5) and completion percentage (66.4 pct.) among the 11 qualifying rookie quarterbacks in franchise history.

In the Dec. 28, 2025 34-26 win over the Titans, Shough finished 22-of-27 (81.5 pct.) for 333 yards with a touchdown, zero interceptions and a 142.4 passer rating, setting career-highs in completion percentage, passing yardage, passer rating and yards per attempt (12.33), leading New Orleans to its third undefeated December in franchise history.

RUNNING BACKS

ALVIN KAMARA

A talented runner and receiver who was selected by the Saints in the third round of the 2017 NFL Draft out of Tennessee, in 129 career games with 97 starts, Alvin Kamara has carried 1,699 times for 7,324 yards (4.3 avg.) with 63 touchdowns and has caught 617 passes (fifth all-time among running backs) for 4,995 yards (8.1 avg.) with 25 TDs. Kamara is the franchise's all-time leader in rushing yards, rushing touchdowns, total touchdowns (89), two-point conversions (7), total yards from scrimmage (12,319-The most with a single team since 2017), all-purpose yardage (12,983) and first downs (608).

In 2026, Kamara has played in three games with two starts and has rushed for 74 yards with two touchdowns and caught 11 passes for 47 yards

KAMARA VS. VIKINGS

In four regular season games against the Minnesota Vikings, Sunday's opponent, Kamara has carried 51 times for 260 yards (5.1 avg.) with six touchdowns and caught 21 passes for 101 yards with on touchdown for 271 total yards from scrimmage, 286 all-purpose yards when adding a 15-yard kickoff return.

In two postseason contests against the Vikings, Kamara has rushed for 64 yards with one touchdown, caught 12 passes for 96 yards with one touchdown and returned two kickoffs for 50 yards for 210 all-purpose yards.

Kamara enjoyed the most spectacular game of his career on December 25, 2020 against the Vikings in a 52-33 victory, when he tied the National Football League record for both total touchdowns and rushing touchdowns, as he carried 22 times for a career-high 155 yards (7.0 avg.) with six scores, adding three receptions for 172 total yards from scrimmage. The rushing touchdowns tied the record set by Ernie Nevers of the Chicago Cardinals on Nov. 28, 1929. For total touchdowns, he joined Nevers, the Cleveland Browns' Dub Jones (November 25, 1951) and the Bears' Gale Sayers (December 12, 1965), which catapulted him into being the NFL's rushing touchdown champion (21), joining running back Dalton Hilliard (1989) as only the second Saint to ever lead the league

In four seasons, Miller has played in 24 games with two starts and has carried 146 times for 550 yards with four touchdowns, caught 24 passes for 195 yards and returned 24 kickoffs for 606 yards.

Miller returned to action in the 2026 season opener against Detroit after missing the second half of 2025 with a knee injury and rushed for 30 yards, including scoring the Saints' first touchdown of the season on an eight-yard run.

WIDE RECEIVERS

CHRIS OLAVE

This talented wideout made an immediate impact as a rookie in 2022 and has served as a primary target for the Saints offense. The former Ohio State standout has appeared in 56 contests in five campaigns with 45 starts, totaling 301 receptions for 3,910 yards and 19 touchdowns. After missing nine games in 2024 due to multiple concussions, Olave rebounded to appear in 16 contests, while leading the team in receiving in 2025 with a career-high 100 receptions for 1,163 yards with a career-high nine touchdowns to earn Associated Press second-team All-Pro honors. Olave finished the season ranked seventh in the NFL in receiving, eighth in receiving yards and third in third down receptions (30) after he reached the end zone for his career-high ninth scoring grab of the season on Dec. 28 in Tennessee.

100 CLUB

In the December 28, 2025 34-26 win over Tennessee, he enjoyed a career performance to date in powering the passing offense to victory. Olave finished with eight catches for 119 yards with one touchdown, as well as a grab for a 60-yard gain that was his 100th catch of the season. With the grab, he joined Michael Thomas as only the second Saint to reach the century mark. In reaching the 1,100-yard mark for the second time in his career, Olave joins Joe Horn and Michael Thomas (four), Marques Colston (three) and Jimmy Graham (two) to become only the fifth Saint to have multiple 1,100-yard receiving seasons.

THIRD THROUGH 50

Olave's 260 receptions through his first 50 games rank third among Saints. Overall his career totals in 59 games with 48 starts are at 326 grabs for 4,219 yards and 20 touchdowns.

EXPLOSIVE DEBUT

In the 2026 season opener at Detroit, Olave took off in the second half with the rest of the Saints offense, finishing with ten receptions to tie a career-high for 182 yards, the highest receiving yardage total in the NFL in Week One. Dating back to his last two games played in 2025, Olave had three straight 100-yard receiving performances, the first time a Saint has done so since Michael Thomas in Weeks 14-16 of the 2019 campaign. With at least eight receptions in each of these three contests, it marks the first time a Saint has had three straight performances of at least eight grabs since Alvin Kamara (10/12/20-11/1/20).

DEVAUGHN VELE

This third-year wideout was acquired by the Saints from Denver near the conclusion of the 2025 preseason. A seventh round pick of Denver out of Utah in 2024, Vele appeared in 13 games with seven starts, recording 41 receptions for 475 yards with three TDs, tallying the most receiving yards, receptions and receiving touchdowns by a Broncos' seventh-round draft choice as a rookie. The Saints have utilized the San Diego native's 6-5, 210 frame in key spots. In 2025, he made 25 catches for 293 yards with two TDs. He had 19 grabs in the last four contests before suffering a shoulder injury. Vele has picked right back up in 2026, making 21 grabs for 226 yards with two touchdowns.

BRYCE LANCE

The Saints were pleased to find Lance available in the middle of the fourth round of the 2026 NFL Draft. The Minnesota native developed into one of the top offensive players in NCAA FCS football, where he played in 57 games with 26 starts, recording 127 receptions for 2,157 yards (17.0 avg.) with 28 touchdowns.

Lance started all 13 games, helping North Dakota State to a 12-1 record including an 8-0 mark in the Missouri Valley Football Conference and was named amed to the All-MVFC first team for second straight year. the consensus FCS All-American first-team led the MVFC with 83.0 receiving yards per game and became the first receiver in Bison history with multiple 1,000-yard seasons, when he caught eight touchdowns and made 51 catches for 1,079 yards, the third-most in NDSU single-season history. In his NFL debut on Sept. 13 at Detroit, Lance finished with three receptions for 42 yards.

BARION BROWN

Saints' sixth-round pick out of LSU ranks statistically as one of the top special teams playmakers in college football history. Brown finished his career second in NCAA history with six kickoffs returned for touchdowns (SEC record), one shy of the NCAA record. In the return game throughout his college career at Kentucky (2022-24) and LSU (2025), he returned 65 kickoffs for 1,910 yards (29.4 avg.) with six touchdowns and 11 punt returns for 85 yards. On offense, the Nashville, Tenn. native played in 50 games with 37 starts and recorded 175 catches for 2,060 yards with 12 touchdowns and rushed 32 times for 228 yards with two TDs. Brown had a 53-yard kickoff return for a touchdown on Sept. 20 at Baltimore, setting up a field goal.

TIGHT ENDS

JUWAN JOHNSON

The former Penn State and Oregon wideout joined the New Orleans Saints in 2020 following the NFL Draft and transitioned to tight end his second season in 2021. Overall, Johnson's 18 touchdown grabs since 2021 lead the team. In 2024, Johnson stepped up after missing most of training camp with a foot injury to play in all 17 games with five starts and make a career-high 50 receptions for a team-best/career-best 548 yards. With a career-high 77 receptions for a career-best 889 yards (11.5 avg.) with three touchdowns in 2025, Johnson joined Jimmy Graham as only the second Saints tight end with 75 grabs in a season.

Through four games, Johnson leads the tight end corps with 21 grabs for 232 yards (11.0 avg.) with three touchdowns.

BIG TARGET

Johnson's 20 touchdown grabs since 2022 after converting to the tight end position from wide receiver are tied for sixth among tight ends.

MOST SACKED

Jordan is now one of only 15 NFL players to have at least 15 sacks against two opponents, 17 against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and 26 against the Atlanta Falcons (in 30 games), both NFC South divisional rivals. Jordan's 23 takedowns of former Atlanta quarterback Matt Ryan are the most sacks a player has had against an individual quarterback in NFL history.

Jordan has sacks against 29 different teams after dropping New York Jets signal-caller Brady Cook twice on Dec. 21, 2025. The Baltimore Ravens and Kansas City Chiefs are the only teams he doesn't have a sack against.

Jordan has sacked 52 different players in the regular season after dropping Tennessee Titans signal-caller Cam Ward on December 28, 2025.

CAM'S CORNER

One of the team's leading philanthropists, Cameron Jordan has been recognized as a three-time team nominee for the NFL's Walter Payton Man of the Year Award. Jordan is a weekly visitor to a local schools during the season to discuss topics such as literacy, academics and physical fitness.

Jordan has also continually stepped up for the community in times of need such as the COVID-19 pandemic and Hurricane Ida.

Jordan has been recognized for his community service as a three-time team nominee for the NFL's Walter Payton Man of the Year award and the 2025 Bart Starr Award winner.

CAM JORDAN FOUNDATION

Entering his 16th NFL season in 2026, Cameron Jordan, through his "Cam Jordan Foundation" is launching "Thank You NOLA," a season-long initiative dedicated to celebrating the city, people and communities that have been part of his journey since first arriving in New Orleans in 2011.

Throughout the 2026 season, Jordan will combine his final year on the field with an expanded commitment to community impact, creating opportunities to recognize local heroes, invest in young people and strengthen programs that will continue serving Louisiana Families for years to come.

The 'Thank You NOLA' campaign will feature 16 weeks of community engagement, surprise activations, service projects, fan experiences and charitable initiatives designed to celebrate the City while investing in his future.

FAMILY AFFAIR

Sunday's game against the Minnesota Vikings will hold sentimental value for Saints EDGE Cameron Jordan.

Jordan's father, Steve, was a seventh round pick (179th overall) of the Vikings in 1982 out of Brown University and had a 13-year career in the Twin Cities that far surpassed his draft status.

In 13 seasons with the Vikings, Jordan played in 176 career games with 148 starts and recorded 498 receptions for 6,307 yards with 28 touchdowns. He was selected to the Pro Bowl six times (1986-91) and is a member of the team's Ring of Honor.

Born in Minnesota, Jordan has played the Vikings seven times in the regular season and has recorded 21 tackles, 3.5 sacks, two pass breakups and one fumble recovery. In two postseason contests, Jordan has five tackles and one sack against the Vikings. In the nine total contests, Jordan has sacked four different quarterbacks: Teddy Bridgewater, Sam Bradford, Case Keenum and Kirk Cousins. Jordan could make it a fifth if he drops Minnesota signal-caller Kyler Murray, who he has sacked 4.5 times when he was a member of the Arizona Cardinals.

EDGE CHASE YOUNG

Originally selected by the Washington Commanders with the second overall pick in the 2020 NFL Draft out of Ohio State, this talented edge rusher frinished his sixth season and second in New Orleans. In six campaigns for Washington (2020-23), San Francisco 49ers (2023) and New Orleans (2024-), Young has appeared in 76 regular season games with 48 starts and has recorded 177 tackles (115 solo), 35.5 sacks for loss of 231.5 yards, 42 stops for loss, 18 pass breakups, ten forced fumbles and six recoveries. The Associated Press NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year, Young recorded 7.5 sacks and made multiple splash plays with four forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries in his first season in 2020. In 2023, he played in seven games for Washington and nine for San Francisco following a midseason trade and tied his career-best with 7.5 takedowns in helping the 49ers advance to Super Bowl LVIII.

Young originally signed with New Orleans as an unrestricted free agent in 2024, when he played in all 17 games and posted 31 tackles (21 solo), 5.5 sacks, three pass breakups and one forced fumble and signed a three-year contract extension subsuquently. In 2025 after missing the first five games with a calf injury, Young started the remaining 12 contests of the season, posting 38 tackles (22 solo), ten sacks to rank second on the team and tie for 15th in the National Football League, ten stops for loss, 15 quarterback hits four passes defensed, two forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries, tied for first in the NFL with teammate Pete Werner and two other players.

SUPER STRETCH

After missing the first five games of the 2025 season with a calf injury, upon Young's return to the lineup, he made an instant impact on the team's front seven. Since October 12, 2025, Young's 13.5 sacks over the period are tied for second in the National Football League.

DL DAVON GODCHAUX

Davon Godchaux (pronounced duh-VAHN GOD-chaw), a Plaquemine native, returned to his home state to play for New Orleans in his ninth NFL campaign after being acquired from New England. Originally a fifth round draft pick (178th overall) of the Miami Dolphins out of Louisiana State University in 2017, Godchaux has started 127-of-141 regular season games for the Dolphins (2017-20), Patriots (2021-24) and Saints (2025-), recording 484 tackles (223 solo), 5.5 sacks, 21 stops for loss, three pass breakups, three forced fumbles and one fumble recovery, as well as a solo stop in the 2021 Wild Card Playoff for New England.

In 2025, he played in all 17 contests with 16 starts and recorded 45 tackles (16 solo) and one forced fumble, plugging the middle for a run defense that improved from 30th in the NFL to sixth in opponent yards per rush.

DL NATHAN SHEPHERD

Originally selected by the New York Jets in the third round (72nd overall) of the 2018 NFL Draft out of Fort Hays State, this versatile defensive lineman is entering his ninth NFL season and fourth with the Saints. The Ajax, Ontario, Canada native has appeared in 126 career games with 53 starts, totaling 257 tackles (128 solo) and 14 sacks for a loss of 119.5 yards. In 2025, he appeared in 16 games with eight starts for New Orleans, posting 47 tackles (23 solo), 3.0 sacks, four stops for loss and his first career blocked field goal.

LINEBACKERS

PETE WERNER

New Orleans selected this three-year starter from Ohio State in the second round of the 2021 NFL Draft. The Indianapolis native finished his college career playing in 47 career games with 35 starts, recording 185 tackles, 16 stops for loss, four sacks, 11 pass breakups, four forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. Werner helped power the Buckeyes to the 2020 College Football Playoff championship game, when he was voted by the Big Ten coaches first-team All-Conference and a Butkus Award semifinalist. In five NFL seasons, Werner has played in 77 games with 66 starts and has recorded 429 tackles, 3.5 sacks, one interception, 11 pass breakups, two forced fumbles and five recoveries.

In 17 games with 15 starts in 2025, he he ranked third on the team with 81 stops (50 solo), two sacks, a career-high five pass breakups and three fumble recoveries to tie for the National Football League lead with college and Saints teammate Chase Young and two other players.

KADEN ELLISS

Elliss returned to New Orleans in the offseason after originally being a seventh round choice (244th overall) in the 2019 NFL Draft out of Idaho and spending his first four seasons with the club. Elliss is a strong, athletic player with coverage, pass rush and run-stopping abilities who by the end of his Saints tenure had developed into a three-down player. Returning to the Saints after spending the last three seasons with the Atlanta Falcons, in 2025, he started all 17 games and finished with 107 tackles (59 solo), 3.5 sacks, ten stops for a loss, ten quarterback hits, one interception, six pass breakups (career-best) and forced one fumble. In seven NFL seasons, Elliss has appeared in 102 games with 66 starts, recording 490 tackles (283 solo), 20.5 sacks, 38 stops for loss, 50 quarterback hits, two interceptions, 15 pass breakups, four forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries, and 15 coverage stops. The son of former NFL standout Luther Elliss with two younger brothers who currently play in the NFL, Elliss leads the Saints with 24 tackles (11 solo) and one pass breakup, as he was voted a team captain by teammates.

FAMILY AFFAIR

Kaden Elliss has two brothers playing in the NFL with Jonah (Denver) and Christian (New England). The Elliss brothers are one of two families with three brothers currently playing in the NFL, joining the Sewell family - Penei (Detroit) and Nephi and Noah (Chicago).

Kaden Elliss' father, Luther, was selected in the first round (20th) overall by Detroit in the 1995 NFL Draft out of Utah. Luther Elliss was a two-time Pro Bowl selection for the Lions, recording 27 sacks, five forced fumbles and seven fumble recoveries.

CHRIS RUMPH II

Signed as a free agent in the offseason, Rumph is well-versed in defensive coordinator Brandon Staley's system with the edge position. In his career, he's played in 58 games and made 66 tackles (36 solo), five sacks, two passes defensed, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and 24 special teams tackles, posting a career-best 14 coverage stops in 2025 to rank second on the team to go with two takedowns and 35 tackles. Voted by his teammates as a team captain, Rumph moved to linebacker in the Saints defensive scheme and has two coverage tackles.

SAFETIES

JUSTIN REID

This versatile, hard-hitting, playmaking safety and Louisiana native returned to his home state after signing with the Black and Gold during the 2025 offseason. Reid was originally selected by the Houston Texans in the third round (68th overall) in the 2018 NFL Draft out of Stanford. In seven NFL seasons, the former Dutchtown High School standout has played in 125 career regular season games with 121 starts for the Texans (2018-21), Kansas City Chiefs (2022-24) and Saints (2025-), recording 656 tackles (463 solo), 26 stops for loss, 6.5 sacks, 11 interceptions, with two returned for touchdowns, 51 pass breakups, three forced fumbles, three fumble recoveries, 15 special teams stops and one blocked kick. Reid started all 14 games he played in, a stabilizing force in the back end and finished with 72 tackles (37 solo), a split sack, a 49-yard interception return for a touchdown and five pass breakups.

JULIAN BLACKMON

Blackmon is a seven-year NFL veteran who was originally selected by Indianapolis in the third round (85th overall) in the 2020 NFL Draft out of Utah, joining the Saints at the start of 2025 training camp. He's appeared in 71 games with 67 starts, recording 321 tackles (235 solo), 1.5 sacks, 13 stops for loss, 11 interceptions, including one returned for a touchdown, 23 pass breakups, two forced fumbles, four fumble recoveries, and seven coverage stops. Blackmon closed out the Saints' 24-17 win with his first interception as a member of the Black and Gold on September 20 at Baltimore. He has 21 tackles, the pick and one pass breakup in 2026.

2026 REVIEW: Named an offensive team captain for the first time in his career. at Detroit (9/13): Made his 10th career NFL start and 35-of-56 passes for a career-high 410 yards, three touchdowns and two interceptions, posting an 87.6 passer rating. His 410 passing yards marked the 18th-highest total in franchise history and the 18th 400-yard passing game. Shough joined Drew Brees and Aaron Brooks as only the third Saint to throw for 400 yards. His 325 passing yards in the second half and overtime marks a club-best for passing yardage in a second half/overtime and is tied for the 17th-highest total in NFL record books. He also rushed four times for eight yards in the contest. at Baltimore (9/20): Started and completed 27-of-34 passes (79.4%) for 252 yards and a touchdown while adding 23 rushing yards and a score, leading a 16-play, 68-yard game-winning drive capped by his one-yard touchdown run later in the fourth quarter. Shough improved to 6-5 as a starter and has thrown for 662 yards through two games, the most by a Saints quarterback to start a season since Drew Brees in 2009 (669). vs. Las Vegas (9/27): Started and completed 29-of-42 passes (69.0%) for 255 yards and a career-high four touchdowns, one interception, a 106.7 QBR and rushed once for a career long 36 yards. His four touchdown passes were the most by a Saints QB since Derek Carr vs. Atlanta, (1/7/24) and his 36 yard run was the longest by a Saints QB since Taysom Hill's 75 yard rush vs. Cleveland (11/17/24). vs. Atlanta (10/5): Started and completed a season-high 30-of-48 passes (62.5%) for 286 yards with a touchdown and an 85.9 QBR.

ATLANTA FALCONS VS. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS
MONDAY, OCT. 5, 2026 ● CAESARS SUPERDOME
SAINTS POSTGAME NOTES

- Saints fell to the Atlanta Falcons, 45-24 to drop to 1-3 on the season.

- The Saints return to action at the Caesars Superdome Sunday against the Minnesota Vikings with a 12:00 CT kickoff. The game will be nationally televised on FOX (WVUE FOX 8 locally).

- QB Tyler Shough was 30-of-48 for 286 yards with one touchdown and zero interceptions — his second-highest passing-yardage total of the season, behind only his 410-yard Week 1 performance. His 30 completions were a season high.

- RB Alvin Kamara rushed for 23 yards and two touchdowns and had five receptions for 35 yards. Kamara's two rushing touchdowns gave him 89 career total touchdowns, tying him for 44th all-time with former Saint Jimmy Graham, LeSean McCoy, Corey Dillon and Steve Smith Sr. Kamara now has 63 career rushing touchdowns, tying him for 55th all-time with Pro Football Hall of Famer Lenny Moore. Kamara's two rushing TDs also tied Deuce McAllister's Saints franchise record for most multiple-rushing-TD games (14).

- WR Chris Olave had eight receptions for 116 yards (14.5 avg.), including a 44-yard reception.

- TE Juwan Johnson finished with six receptions for 59 yards.

- WR Devaughn Vele finished with six receptions for 54 yards with one touchdown.

- S Julian Blackmon led the team with ten tackles (five solo).

- EDGE Tyree Wilson finished with six tackles (four solo) and one sack for an eight-yard loss — his first sack as a Saint.

SAINTS HEAD COACH KELLEN MOORE

(Opening Statement) “Really disappointing game for us. Obviously, I thought the Dome was an incredible night, incredible energy. We obviously did a poor job just preparing our football team. We really, in all three phases, did not do enough to win this game. Atlanta came in and played a lot better than us. I didn’t coach well enough, play well enough, so obviously, it wasn’t good enough. We’re at where we’re at. We’re a 1-3 football team with some good moments, but not enough consistent football to be where we ultimately want to be. We have a lot of work to do. There’s a path for us, but it’s going to take a lot of work to get there. We’ve got to keep going.”

(On the slow starts) “It is just disappointing. Obviously, not coaching it well enough, not executing well enough. They came out, went right down the field and scored. We went three-and-out and didn’t score until the second quarter.”

(On if they have tried to shake it up to get a faster start) “We have tried a number of different things. Obviously, we have to solve this. We have to find a way.”

(On if he has experienced slow starts before) “At times, yeah. Every experience is going to be different. There are times where it is.”

(On the team’s preparation) “I just think, at the end of the day, they executed better than us. They played faster than us. They, obviously, ran the ball really well, created some explosive plays in the pass game. On our side of it, we weren’t able to run the ball well enough. We turned the ball over, and that’s a challenging formula.”

(On struggles with the run game) “We weren’t able to run well, and we weren’t able to put ourselves in position to have the opportunities to continue to run it and find that ability to finally get it going. When you fall behind, you play in some different circumstances. Obviously, you are going to have to adjust the plan.”

(On the gravity and symbolism of tonight’s game) “We talked about it at the beginning of the week. They guys were fired up. I thought there was good energy. We just didn’t execute well enough in the beginning, and they (Atlanta) got going.”

(On if there was a moment where he realized the team was not prepared) “Again, we just didn’t get it done. They started fast, and we weren’t able to catch up.”

(On if WR Chris Olave is OK) “Yes”.

(On if he thought about removing the starters) “A little bit. Yeah. I appreciate our guys finishing and battling and continuing to fight there.”

(On why the starters stayed in the game late in the fourth quarter) “Just trying to get ourselves an opportunity to just play some clean football at the end of the game.”

(On if he talks to anyone when his team is struggling) “Obviously, you’re going to have mentors, but more importantly, our group has to come together and find those solutions together. I love this group. This group is going to rally together. It’s a really disappointing night for everyone in that locker room. Everyone is disappointed, but these are opportunities for us to come together and find a solution and play better football and coach better football moving forward. We get an opportunity to take a certain path, and we can look back at this as a real growth opportunity. That's what we have to focus on. We have to get better at it, though."

(On kicking a field goal down 17 points) "Long drive. We had a little bit of a missed opportunity on third down. It got it to at least a 14-point game, get the points and then, if we could make a stop there, then we could go. We'd obviously have to be really aggressive the rest of the way out. I know it felt like getting some points there got us back to a two-score game. By not going for it there, the rest of the game was going to have to be aggressive. Unfortunately, they went back and scored."

(On the end of the first half and if he considered pressing for points) "Trying to get points. Ultimately, we just didn't get it done and put ourselves in challenging situations. We did not want to give them a chance to have the ball before half and hopefully was going to steal some points before half and get points on the backend of it."

(On if Atlanta's offense was what he expected) "Every team is going to have flavors and some different things schematically. We had our opportunities and just didn't get it done."

(On Tyler Shough's hand) "It kind of swelled up a little bit. I think he got hit at some point in the game."

(On if the hand swelling had an effect on his performance) "I don't think so. He seemed fine."

(On the QB pressure from Atlanta) "There were some pressure situations. Obviously, when you're in more high-trend passing situations, it's going to be more challenging."

(On potential for different offensive line combinations) "We have to look at everything. We have guys who are battling and competing, and I appreciate the heck out of that. We just have to get better. Obviously, we are going to focus on just getting better fundamentally, and schematically, we will keep building."

(On the mood in the locker room) "That locker room is disappointed, frustration. These guys put a lot into this and for us to not have a game like we expected, there's a lot of frustration in that. Our guys just have to come together and stick together. That's the path of the NFL. There are highs and lows in the league. These are challenging circumstances when you're dealt a 1-3 start, with the energy our guys have and the goals our guys have. We just have to keep going. You get to use these things as big-time growth opportunities, as challenging as they are and as frustrating as they are for everyone a part of this – fans, players, coaches, everyone a part of this thing. We just have to move on and keep getting better. We can't ignore this team. We have to learn a ton from this game. We're going to be back here on Sunday with one more opportunity in this stretch."

(On if this feels different from last year's start in the first quarter of the season) "I don't know. This one is just, obviously, disappointing. We have had some close games. This one just got away from us. They played a lot better than us. We're going to have to learn from this one and grow from this one. Again, this is the first quarter, essentially, of the NFL season. We are 1-3. That is just what we are. We have some opportunities ahead of ourselves. We obviously have to turn the page and play much better football."

(On the path forward) "Just playing more consistent football. Protecting the football, getting turnovers. Again, we are going to have to find that path for the consistent football that we need."

(On his concerns regarding the lack of preparation) "That's the part I'm going to focus on. How can we help prepare our guys for those situations? Ultimately, we're not getting it done, so you're going to keep looking back on what Monday through Saturday looks like and how we can keep improving that so Sunday can have a better formula. Again, there are moments that are good but just not enough."

(On the game structure process) "We go put them in and go through them on Friday's practice and Saturday and Sunday."

(On correlations between last year's slow starts and this year's) "We did a lot of studies through the offseason from a schedule and logistics standpoint, from an on-field standpoint. Again, we just have to find the solution."

(On the energy of the Caesars Superdome pregame) "Anytime you get to play a national game, those are big-time opportunities. It is just disappointing, obviously, for us. I know there are frustrations for everyone. We're all frustrated. We're all disappointed in where we are at. We're going to have to learn from this one and move forward and find some better opportunities."

(On the magnitude of this game) "That's a good question. Obviously, it's a really awesome moment when you play a nationally televised game. It's probably a little bit more juice in these games nationally with the build-up and all that stuff. You have to look at this as one of our games. Obviously, as disappointing as it is, we're going to have to learn from it. We're going to have to grow from it. We're going to have to keep moving because there are going to be a whole bunch of more games that are coming ahead of us. There are going to be opportunities that we can change this path very quickly."

(On the 20th anniversary of Domecoming) "I think this is a special night as far as Domecoming and Monday Night Football. It's something we certainly talked about throughout the week. I think our guys grew a great appreciation for it and understood the opportunity that was presented. I thought there was great energy in there. Unfortunately, we weren't able to get the juice continued just because they were able to get things going early, and we weren't able to catch up."

(On the defensive problems) "Bijan (Robinson) is a really talented runner. He made guys miss and got to the second and third level quickly. We weren't able to generate any turnovers. They only had eight third downs (attempts). Obviously, they were getting a lot of production on first and second down."

(On the matchup facing Bijan Robinson) "He's a talented player. He's going to make plays. Obviously, we weren't able to get it done."

(On the penalties, specifically red zone defense penalties) "There were penalties. I don't have any that stand out that I was necessarily saying were completely wrong. There are penalties that occur in the game, and we certainly had some."

(On if this is an urgent situation for the team) "I think we have to use this as a big-time learning lesson and launching point. We have to look at this as a great lesson, a very hard lesson that we have to learn. We have to move forward and turn the path. I know we have opportunities ahead of ourselves. I know we have the right kind of guys in that locker room to keep sticking together, to keep growing. We're going to find it."

(On the discipline of the team with penalties in critical situations) "I know we got a couple of defensive pass interference or holds, one way or the other. They're going to call those. They're going to call those when we have our hands in those positions. As frustrating as that is, that's what's going to happen."

MONDAY, OCT. 5, 2026 ● CAESARS SUPERDOME
FALCONS HEAD COACH KEVIN STEFANSKI

(Opening comments and injury updates) "Za'Darius [Smith] is in concussion protocol. We will know more tomorrow. Jake Matthews has a groin injury. Again, we will image that, and I will know more tomorrow. Very pleased with the effort, and I'll start with turnover margin. We knew that's going to be a big deal going into this football game, and CJ [Henderson] punching the ball out; technique was outstanding; and then turning that into points. That's just a big part of winning games on the road. So, execution was at a high level in a ton of areas. Are there things we can clean up? Yes, there are. Didn't like a lot of those penalties. That's one area that I know we will focus on. But big thing here is getting home and then getting to work on a short week."

(On successful running game) "Yes, I thought again, really nice plan by Tommy [Rees] and Coach Callie (Bill Callahan) and the offensive staff and then executed at a high level. To have rush success, it really is an 11-man operation. And I thought Mike [Penix Jr.] got us in and out of things. Did a nice job. I thought across the board, tight ends, wide receivers, offensive line did a great job."

(On Quarterback Michael Penix Jr.'s performances coming off injury) "I thought Mike played well. I thought he took care of the football, made some really good throws. I thought the throw late in the game on that third down to get the ball to Drake [London] was an excellent play. There is a bunch of great stuff out there, but I really like Mike's demeanor on gameday. I like how he's operating."

(On overcoming the electric atmosphere to begin the game) "I know that this is a great place to play. Our guys love playing here. It's an awesome atmosphere under the lights. As much as we love that, we just focus on our job. I think all these games are challenges and tough environments on the road, crowd noise, great defenses across the other side. These are all one-game seasons, and we're excited about this one."

(On defense hitting New Orleans Quarterback Tyler Shough) "New Orleans has a great offense. I think very highly of their quarterback, and in order to slow him down, you have to be able to get to him. I thought our guys did that. I thought Brick [Jeff Ulbrich] did a nice job on the game plan and what we're trying to do was sound. I thought the guys executed."

(On Offensive Lineman Michael Jerrell filling in) "Mike Jerrell did a good job. Obviously, that's a tough deal when you go in there to replace a guy like Jake [Matthews] and not have a ton of reps during the week. But you know, Mike's a guy that we trust, and we gave him a shot."

(On what went into the decision to go for it on fourth down near the goal line) “I think of all of the factors, you name them. I mean, what we feel about our play call, what we feel about the distance. You know, if you don't make it, you're putting your defense in a situation where you feel like you can pin them back and get good field position. So, there's times when we feel like sevens are really valuable, and I thought we, you know, obviously we were fortunate with that penalty, but yeah, always just making decisions that feel like the best for our football team.”

(On the play of Linebacker Harold Perkins Jr.) “Yeah, I thought Perk was outstanding, and all those guys. But I'm really excited for Perk coming home. I thought he was really good.”

(On Running Back Bijan Robinson’s first touchdown run) “Bijan is such an interesting, unique back where he has that power. Some of those runs, when they're not perfect, you know, perfectly blocked, he's churning those legs, and he can run with such power. And then when he does get an opening, you know, he's got that breakaway speed. So that's very rare to have.”

(On first time as Atlanta’s head coach coaching in this rivalry game) “Our players and coaches, we love the nature of rivalries. We love the nature of competition. Again, because we respect our opponent, we think you know this is a great team that we get to come in here, get to play under the lights in front of an awesome crowd. So, we relish these opportunities.”

MONDAY, OCTOBER 5, 2026 ● CAESARS SUPERDOME
SAINTS PLAYER QUOTES

QB TYLER SHOUGH

(On Kellen Moore's discussion about preparation and what they can do to clean up preparation) "I don't think there's a lack of preparation. I think there's a lack of execution on some of it. We were prepared. I think the turnover early killed us, and we've got to be able to put some of those early drives together and score more points early on to get it going. As an offense, we knew exactly what went wrong and what went right. We just have to clean up those little things and take responsibility for that. I have to be able to put us in the right position to go out and do that. There's a lot to learn from. It obviously sucks, but we're going to keep going."

(On his hand getting hit in the first quarter) "Yeah, I took a helmet or something to it. I think it was just bruised up, so it should be good. I was able to play the rest of the game."

(On if it was tough to grip the ball or throw) "No. It was just part of it. It didn't affect my right hand, obviously, so it was just something to deal with."

(On his disappointment considering the day's circumstances) "It is extremely disappointing. It is embarrassing. You can't say enough good things about the fans showing up and the entire process, what this game meant, and we fell short as a team to not get that win. That was our mission. That was my message, and we did not win. It was a team loss. We've got to do better on all fronts. As an offense, we have to start faster when we are going against another really good offense and be able to do our part. We've got to do a lot better there, and it starts with myself."

(On the mood in the locker room) "Disappointed. More than anything, you lose to the Falcons like that, especially on a Monday night game, and it sucks. You can't say "Oh, man that doesn't suck." It definitely does. But I do know as a team that we're extremely close and that we're going to keep going and keep our eyes forward. We have really good leadership, and our leadership admits that we've got to get better. We have to get better, watch the film, and evaluate that. There's no hiding that. But at the same time, it is a long season, and there are a lot of games yet to be played where we can do that. There's nothing set in stone. We know that, and that's the best part about this business is that we're going to keep climbing."

(On how concerning lack of execution and questioning of preparation process are together early in the season) "There are things that are fixable. More than anything, there's going to be football stuff that happens. The defense is going to make some plays, but how do we limit the mistakes so that they're not too big for us to come back from. Little mistakes are going to happen—that's fine. We're not perfect. But how do we not create turnovers or put ourselves behind the ball too much to where you can't come back from that. That's on myself and some of those blitz looks. Some of those different things that we can get rolling faster. More than anything, we've just got to limit those smaller mistakes that compound into bigger ones. So we'll do that."

(On if it was important for him to stay on the field today) "Yeah. 100%. I'm not ever going to come out of the game if we've got a fighting chance, and obviously the game got away from us, but it shows our mindset as an offense. I do not care what the score is. We just have to be able to put it together. We knew what to do, and we just got to execute it better. We're going to do that."

(On how he avoids feeling like the team squandered an opportunity after the win at the Ravens) "No, we squandered an opportunity. But we've got more opportunities. It doesn't matter. We've got to learn from this opportunity that we definitely squandered. We have to get better from it, but it hasn't changed what next week against the Minnesota Vikings is. We're going to take advantage of that and keep going. Two things can be true. You have to take it on the chin, and we will see them again and keep going."

(On what he takes moving forward after the close losses) "Yeah, it's a huge opportunity. One, you get to find out who we are as a team. I think there was a quote by the Boston Celtics coach (Joe Mazulla) about adversity, and there's not really that much adversity when it comes to the NFL or NBA, but once you face adversity, and you start getting some losses or start having some reality checks, that's the best part about it. Now we get to come together, keep going, and figure out who we are. You have some adversity early on, and it's great. We're going to keep going. I think at the end of the year, you are going to look back and say, 'Man, that was a tough one, but we kept going, and we learned from it.'"

(On if the adversity now feels different than the adversity last season) "I think as a team, the closeness of us and the culture that we have, it hurts more because of that. But at the same time, we also understand that it is a long season that we can continue to grow from. I think more than anything, in some losses it was a little bit more like, 'Oh, man, there's not much to say there.' I think more than anything, we know that we're a couple plays away from some huge wins. That's part of it, and how do we find that razor-sharp edge of getting those plays done?"

(On the process of addressing the locker room) "Yeah, it's everybody. Me, Chase (Young), Cam (Jordan), all the leaders are talking to our guys, talking to everybody. I think we have a good dynamic. We talked about it in the locker room—being honest with the tape and being honest with yourself. It goes for everybody. Then also keeping your eyes forward and understanding our mission and continuing to go that way. That was our message, and that's going to continue to be our message."

(On if this loss is tougher considering how well he's connected with the city) "Yeah, I love New Orleans. I love this place, and you see the energy, the passion of everybody, and the culture behind this place. It sucks whenever you don't come through on the field in that way, especially against our division rival. It hurts me. I don't want to feel like that ever again, so I'm going to continue to prepare and execute and do everything I can so that we're not feeling like this as a city. But it's something to learn and grow from. There's a lot more to be had, and we're going to go get it."

(On his thoughts moving forward to the Vikings) "Yeah, just got to reset. Like I said, we're going to watch the film tomorrow, be critical, be honest, and then flush it. It doesn't change anything for next week and how we get ready to go on the short week. It's part of it, and we're going to be ready."

(On the boos during the game) "Fans understandably are upset. We had some opportunities that we didn't take advantage of, and you're playing the Falcons, and you lose like that. I mean, I'd boo too. That sucks. But we want to get everybody going. That's part of it. You have to have the energy of the crowd, and we're going to need them next week too against a really good team. That's the best part about New Orleans, man. You feel it, and we feel it too. We're going to keep going."

(On what the Falcons were doing that made the run game challenging) "We just got behind a little bit too early, so now we're playing drop-back ball. Can't move like that in the NFL, no matter who you are playing. We have to be able to set that up better and sustain those drives earlier on to get the run game going."

WR DEVAUGHN VELE

(On the offense's performance today) "There are a lot of things that we have to fix. We started out slow. We talk about starting fast and we didn't do that. We lost the ball as well. There are a lot of things here and there. There was a lot of emotions this game. Obviously it was a tough loss for all of us. We have to build off it. There was a lot of good and a lot of bad. We just have to keep working."

(On the emotions of the game tonight) "It is frustrating. We owe it to the fans with the Domecoming and everything. There was a lot of meaning with this game and I feel like we let them down. We just need to go back to the drawing board and correct our mistakes. I still have a lot of faith in this team. We are going to make sure that we do the right things. We are going to build off it."

(On if they did anything to get offensive traction going) “I feel like at times we couldn’t get the momentum going. It is a credit to them. They played good defense. I feel like at the beginning we didn’t start fast. Turning the ball over and starting slow is hard to come back from. We have to minimize those mistakes”

TE JUWAN JOHNSON

(On expectations after this game tonight) “Football is not always what you expect it to be. It is a good thing that we have 17 weeks. We have to stay encouraged. We have to have the mindset that this is not a defining moment. We can’t take a step back because the rear view mirror is smaller than the front mirror. So, let’s just keep it there.”

(On speaking up on what happened) “Nobody has to speak for it. Nobody says we have to step it up. Everyone knows that. Go make plays. Make this happen. We start with turnovers. We start with shooting ourselves in the foot. It’s all obvious. We know that and we all have to be intentional about it. We play smarter ball and the results are different. These are all things that we can control. The outcome will be the outcome. We just have to control what we control and let the results speak for themselves.”

CB QUINCY RILEY

(On if they were surprised about the play action game) “We weren’t surprised. We feel like we knew what they were going to do, but we just have to be better. Keep your eyes open and be ready to defend anything that you are going to get.”

(On if he can put his finger on what hurt them tonight) "No, we just feel like we didn’t play our best game and they played one of their best games. Congrats to them.”

(On if the running game opened up everything for them) "I mean we know that they are going to get some runs off. We just have to be better all across the board including the run game and pass game.”

EDGE CAMERON JORDAN

(On the disappointment) “I hate that we had a slow start. We got punched in the mouth early and look at the response. It’s one of those games where we weren’t good on offense, defense or special teams. You look at the second half and are ready to fight back. When you play a division rival it’s like playing two games. When you have the Falcons coming into our building, you have to be ready. They had an early score with Bijan (Robinson). At that point with 60 yards on the ground, we have to figure something out. They had almost 200 yards rushing (205). That’s on the defensive line. When you have a ground game like that, then you have to tell the defensive line to tighten up. Our secondary had to come down and try to focus on the run and then that’s when they have their way. They had their way tonight. It’s embarrassing.”

(On if he can pinpoint on why it was hard to stop them) "Without sounding redundant. A 60-yard (59) touchdown. We didn’t shut down our run defense. Our run defense did not show up to play early on. A 60-yard touchdown . From there, they see that their zone schemes are working, so they relied on that. For whatever reason, we couldn’t tighten up our gaps. Our gap integrity has to be at a premium especially when you have a top tier back like Bijan or any running back the way that we were playing. It just wasn’t good enough.”

ATLANTA FALCONS PLAYERS

QB MICHAEL PENIX JR.

(On getting the run game going tonight) “Just trust in the details and everything that we have been getting coached on throughout the week; and, for me, (it’s important) doing my job and carry out the fakes the best way that I can. (It’s) just the guys buying in and going out there and wanting to do it.”

(On stretching the Saints on the third play from scrimmage) “We just wanted to get some ball out throws (with) some easy stuff so that we can get the drive going. That’s what we did. It was awesome to see Bijan (Robinson) break that third play (for a score).”

(On how his first NFL start in the Caesars Superdome went) “It went great. Obviously, we got the results that we wanted. It went real good.”

(On his long throw to Drake London in the fourth quarter and the confidence he felt in the game) “I felt good. We knew coming out of halftime that they were probably going to try and hit us up, so we went into our max protection right there in that third down. They did bring the pressure, but we were in max protection, so we blocked it up and I found Drake.”

(On the team’s success in red zone and third downs) “Everybody buying in and just paying attention to the details each and every day. (It’s) just the amount of time that we put into it and just trusting in the process and everything. Also, on top of that, just the manageable situations (are better). Last year and years prior, I felt like we were in third and long a lot. (This year), we are in third and four, third and five, third and two. The defense has got to defend the run and the pass. They don’t know what we are going to do. Obviously, with the backs that we have and the offensive line, it’s going to help the percentages go up.”

S JESSIE BATES III

(On the difference between the team’s play over the last two games as opposed to the first two games) “It’s night and day. The energy #9 (Michael Penix Jr.) brings to our team (and) the way that we can go out there and continue to keep that momentum going for our team (is important). Even our special teams, I think that they did a great job as well. That was a complete game. We just have to continue to be consistent in that way.”

(On the importance of scoring early and taking the home crowd out of the game) “It was a big time stuff that we had been talking about (to) start fast and be the most physical team in our division. Our offense went out there and started it for us, and I think that our defense continued it. I think we had a quick three and out as well. I’m excited to see what this team can do moving forward.”

DL LaCALE LONDON

(On how good is the defensive line) “It’s still early in the season, but we are all hungry on the defensive line. We’ve just got to keep working every week.”

(On how it felt to have support from Falcons fans in a tough road game environment) “It was good. When you play this team, it is always a good environment. It was loud at first, and then it got kind of quiet.”

(On what worked well to pressure Saints QB Tyler Shough) “Getting off the ball and we were rushing together. (We are) four as one. That’s what we talked about all week, so I think that was the main thing, rushing together.”

G MATTHEW BERGERON

(On having a balanced offense) “I think that having a balanced run game, you can run zone and you can also go downhill and have B Rob (Bijan Robinson) get those tough yards. I think it’s great. I think it completes our run game. Once that is successful, you can open up the passing game and attack the play action game, which we did tonight.”

(On how it felt to play this good tonight as a team) “It felt great. I was made aware that there was a lot of trash talk on social media by my friends back home. It just felt good that we were able to back it up, so hopefully our fans can have their day on social media.”
