NEW ORLEANS SAINTS [2-9] AT MIAMI DOLPHINS [4-7]

WEEK #13

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 2025 - 12:00 P.M. (CST)
HARD ROCK STADIUM - MIAMI GARDENS, FL.

THE MATCHUP

The New Orleans Saints [2-9] start a two-game road trip consisting of contests in the state of Florida, when they travel to Hard Rock Stadium in Miami Gardens, Fla. to face off against the Miami Dolphins [4-7]. This is the first time the teams have faced off since the 2021 season and the first time the Saints have played the Dolphins in South Florida since their Super Bowl-winning 2009 campaign, when they later returned to the same stadium to capture the World Championship.

The Saints travel to Miami following a tough 24-10 home loss to the Atlanta Falcons, 24-10 at the Caesars Superdome, while the Dolphins are rested following two consecutive victories and a Week 12 bye.

Saints QB Tyler Shough completed 30-of-43 passes for 243 yards with one interception near the end of the game in his first home start. WR Chris Olave was his primary target in a contest where Shough connected with eight different players, finishing first on the Saints, with nine receptions for 70 yards to increase his team-leading catch total to 69. At running back, rookie Devin Neal took over for an injured Alvin Kamara and with limited carries rushed for 22 yards and made an impact in the passing game with five grabs for 43 yards.

Taking the ball away has been and will continue to be a point of emphasis for both teams on Sunday. S Justin Reid had a second quarter 49-yard interception return for a touchdown, the team's first pick brought back for a score since the 2023 season. The Dolphins have shown a nose for the ball, ranking second in the NFL with nine fumble recoveries.

Reid leads a young Saints secondary that has seen five different members record picks in 2025, leading the back end with 59 tackles, a split sack, the interception return for a touchdown and four pass breakups.

A surging Saints defense ranks 12th in the NFL [21st against the run, ninth against the pass]. The Dolphins defense are ranked 24th [29th run, 12th pass]. An improving Saints pass offense ranked 20th, while the team is ranked 26th overall, 29th running the ball. The Dolphins offense is ranked 25th [18th run, 26th pass].

In The NFC South: The Atlanta Falcons [4-7] play at the New York Jets [2-9], the Carolina Panthers [6-6], host the Los Angeles Rams [9-2] and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers [6-5] host the Arizona Cardinals [3-8].

THE HEAD COACHES

Named the 19th head coach in New Orleans Saints history on February 11, 2025 Kellen Moore joined the Black and Gold after serving as the offensive coordinator for the Philadelphia Eagles in 2024. Under the guidance of Moore, quarterback Jalen Hurts and running back Saquon Barkley both had career years. Hurts finished with a career-high 103.7 passer rating, en route to Super Bowl LIX MVP honors. Barkley, who was named the 2024 National Football League Offensive Player of the Year by the Associated Press, had one of the best seasons on the ground in NFL history, leading the league with a franchise-record 2,005 rushing yards in the regular season. His 2,504 rushing yards including the postseason were a league record, earning Pro Bowl and All-Pro honors. The 2024 Eagles offense ranked eighth overall in net yards per game [367.2] and seventh in points per game [27.2]. Philadelphia rushed for a single-season club record 3,048 yards [sixth-best in NFL history] and finished second in the league in rushing yards per game [179.3]. Before joining the Eagles in 2024, Moore served as offensive coordinator of the Los Angeles Chargers in 2023 and the Dallas Cowboys from 2019-22 after starting his coaching career as quarterbacks coach in Dallas in 2018. In four seasons as offensive coordinator of the Cowboys, Moore's unit ranked second in the NFL in total offense [391.0 net yards per game] and scoring [27.7 points per game]. The Dallas offense was also the league's fourth-best passing offense [264.4 net yards per game] and ranked seventh in rushing offense [126.6 yards per game] over that span.

Moore played quarterback at Boise State [2007-11] before playing six seasons in the National Football League with the Detroit Lions [2012-14], Dallas Cowboys [2015-17].

Personal: Born July 5, 1988, in Prosser, Washington. He and his wife, Julie, have two daughters, Halle and Madelyn, and two sons, Kyler and Beckham. His younger brother, Kirby, is the offensive coordinator at the University of Missouri.

McDaniel became the 11th head coach in Miami Dolphins history on Feb. 7, 2022. The 2025 season is McDaniel's 19th in the NFL and fourth as a head coach. Miami has made big strides in the last three years under McDaniel. He led the team to the postseason in 2022 and 2023, becoming the third coach in Dolphins history to make the playoffs his first two seasons. Under his leadership, multiple players have reached new career milestones, including 11 Pro Bowl selections and numerous team and NFL records. In 2024, McDaniel's offense set a franchise record in completions [413], while QB Tua Tagovailoa led the NFL in completion percentage [72.9] and red zone passer rating [120.2]. His completion percentage was the best mark in franchise history and third-best in NFL history. RB De'Von Achane led NFL running backs in both receptions and receiving yards, while tallying the third-most scrimmage yards [1,499] by a running back in franchise history and becoming the first Dolphin to record 750+ rushing yards and 500+ receiving yards in a single season. Defensively, Miami ranked fourth in total defense [314.4], the best mark by the franchise since 2010 and its first top five finish since 2006. DT Zach Sieler led the unit with 10.0 sacks for a second consecutive season, and his 20.0 sacks from 2023-24 are the most among interior defensive linemen in the NFL during that span. Rookie LB Chop Robinson tallied 6.0 sacks and 14 QB hits, the second most among first-year players.

McDaniel spent five seasons [2017-21] in San Francisco as run game specialist [2017], run game coordinator [2018-20] and offensive coordinator [2021]. The 49ers advanced to the NFC Championship Game twice in that span and won it in 2019. In 2021, McDaniel's offense finished seventh in total offense [375.7 ypg] and had four players earned Pro Bowl selections. McDaniel also went to the Super Bowl in 2016 as an offensive assistant in Atlanta, where he served in that role from 2015-16. He also was wide receivers coach in Cleveland [2014], wide receivers coach [2013] and offensive assistant [2011-12] in Washington, running backs coach for Sacramento in the UFL [2009-10] and offensive assistant with the Texans [2006-08]. He began his coaching career as an intern in Denver [2005].

SEASON GAME SUMMARIES

WEEK 1: Arizona Cardinals 20, New Orleans Saints 13; September 7 @ Caesars Superdome - The New Orleans Saints fell to the Arizona Cardinals in the 2025 season opener for both teams, despite rebounding from a 20-10 third quarter deficit to come within an end zone throw of a game-tying touchdown.

Heroics on offense, defense and special teams aided the Black and Gold in a promising fourth quarter. With 4:40 left in the contest, Saints DT Bryan Bresee blocked a 46-yard field goal attempt. QB Spencer Rattler then converted a trio of first downs on throws to TE Juwan Johnson and WR Devaughn Vele and a 12-yard scramble by the signal-caller to set up a 28-yard field goal by K Blake Grupe with 2:44 left.

New Orleans then forced a three-and-out, punctuated by a third down sack of Cardinals QB Kyler Murray by CB Alontae Taylor for a 15-yard loss to get New Orleans the ball back with 1:49 left.

Rattler helped advance the Saints to the Cardinals 18-yard line to set up three tries at the end zone, the closest being a laser to Johnson that was broken up by Arizona defenders Jalen Thompson and Budda Baker.

Rattler completed 27-of-46 passes for 214 yards and carried four times for 29 yards. Johnson led the Saints in receiving with eight grabs for 76 yards. Murray completed 21-of-29 passes for 163 yards with two TDs and a 108.8 passer rating, carrying seven times for 38 yards. New Orleans RB Alvin Kamara's first half 18-yard rushing touchdown was the 1,000th touchdown scored at the Caesars Superdome.

New Orleans outgained Arizona through the air, 208-130, but the Cardinals held the ball for 33:46 of the contest to win the time of possession battle. The loss snapped a six-game winning streak for the Saints in season openers. The Saints fell to 15-17 against the Cardinals in the all-time regular season series.

"We've got to play cleaner football, in all three phases," said Coach Kellen Moore. "There's only so many opportunities in these games and you have to value each and every opportunity in all three phases, and when they present themselves you've got to take advantage of them because there's only so many."

An impressive drive and defensive stops paved the way for New Orleans to be back in it in the very end. After going down two scores with 12:18 left in the fourth, QB Spencer Rattler and company made some magic happen, converting three first downs to WR Chris Olave and RB Alvin Kamara to set up an eventual three-yard TD to WR Devaughn Vele. The score capped off a 13 play, 71-yard drive in just six minutes flat to bring the Saints back within five. After two three-and-out drives by both teams, Rattler led a charge that just fell short. Starting on the New Orleans' six yard-line with 2:40 left, the signal-caller picked up two first downs before the 49ers defense became too much to handle. Rattler completed 25-of-34 passes (73.5 pct.) for 207 yards with career-highs of three passing TDs and a rating of 118.1. He also carried four times for 14 yards.

Mac Jones went 26-of-39 for 279 yards and threw three TDs with a 113.1 rating. New Orleans out-gained San Francisco on the ground, 121-77, but the 49ers beat the Saints in passing yardage, 344-307, and were 53% [8-for-15] on third down to New Orleans' 36% [four-for-11].

Week 3: Seahawks 44, Saints 13; September 21, 2025 @ Lumen Field - New Orleans' season continued to get off to a rocky start, as they fell to the Seahawks at Lumen Field.

The Saints got off to a solid start with the ball first and QB Spencer Rattler completed a pass to WR Chris Olave and RB Alvin Kamara gained seven yards to put the team near midfield. However the drive stalled out and the Saints failed to convert on fourth down. After a Seattle first down, the Saints stopped two run plays for one-yard gains, but DT Bryan Bresee was assessed a 12-yard unnecessary roughness penalty on third down that extended a drive and set up a TD. The Seahawks extended their lead to 21-0 by the end of the first quarter, where Seattle rookie WR Tory Horton returned a punt 95 yards for a TD and blocked punt set up a third score. On a drive spanning the first and second quarter, the Saints got on the scoreboard with a Blake Grupe field goal, but the Seahawks took advantage of a long kickoff return to set up a scoring play of a 14-yard pass from QB Sam Darnold to Horton.

The Seahawks took a halftime 38-6 lead, while the Black and Gold kept up their intensity, holding Seattle to a pair of field goals and recording a turnover, while TE Jack Stoll scored his first touchdown. Rattler completed 28-of-39 passes for 218 yards with a TD. Olave had a career-high ten catches.

Week 4: Bills 30, Saints 19; September 28, 2025 @ Highmark Stadium - New Orleans faced a 11-point deficit with 6:42 left in the third quarter and was able to cut it to two with 8:53 left in the game, but the Saints never took the lead. New Orleans rushed for a season-high 189 yards, scoring a touchdown on their first possession for the first time this season. But with Buffalo leading 14-7 in the second quarter, New Orleans was unable to capitalize or score points, when rookie S Jonas Sanker recorded his first career interception near midfield early in the second quarter. QB Spencer Rattler connected with WR Chris Olave for a three-yard TD late in the third quarter to reduce Buffalo's lead to 21-16, followed by a Blake Grupe field goal early in the fourth quarter. But the Bills answered with a four-play, 60-yard drive to gain a nine-point advantage. This was followed by a Saints drive that stalled at the Buffalo 43 on downs and the Bills then took advantage of a roughing the punter penalty to hold onto the ball and kick a field goal with 2:12 left.

Week 5: Saints 26, New York Giants 14; October 5, 2025 @ Caesars Superdome - Spencer Rattler was so fired up by the sight of Rashid Shaheed hauling in his deep throw down the right sideline that the second-year quarterback started springing the length of the field to join the celebration. Rattler's pivotal completion to Shaheed went for an 87-yard touchdown, DB Jordan Howden returned a fumble 86 yards for a score, and New Orleans defeated the turnover-prone Giants 26-14 for the Saints' first win under rookie coach Kellen Moore. "Probably the fastest I ran all game," Rattler quipped when asked about chasing Rashid to the end zone. "Those plays create energy for the whole team, the whole crowd and we definitely want to have more of those."

Such moments had been rare for New Orleans since late last season, which ended with the Saints on a four-game skid before the Moore era began with four more losses to start the 2025 season.

That changed Sunday against the Giants [1-4] - also the previous team to lose to the Saints last Dec. 8. And after the game, the Saints transformed their home locker room - equipped with a sound system and color-changing LED lighting - into "Club Dub" for the first time since beating the Cleveland Browns on November 17.

"It's been a while since we had the fog and the music playing afterward," Howden said. "I almost forgot how that was."

The 37-year old Moore celebrated his first victory since last season's Super Bowl - a game also played in the Caesars Superdome, when he was Philadelphia's offensive coordinator.

"This is a special group," Moore said, praising Saints players' "resiliency to hang in there through some challenging times the first month."

Rattler earned his first victory in 11 career starts, passing for 225 yards without turning the ball over or taking a sack, while Shaheed finished with four catches for 114 yards for the Saints [1-4].

"It feels good to get that first win," Rattler said. "It was a team win. The defense played great. The offensive line was elite."

Giants rookie quarterback Jaxon Dart, who won his first career start in Week Four, passed for 202 yards and two touchdowns, but also turned the ball over three times, the first when the ball slipped from his hand during a scramble in the third quarter. DE Cameron Jordan recovered the football as Dart, laying across Jordan's legs, disgustedly put both hands over his face.

"We had a lot of opportunities and moved the ball just fine," Dart said. "We hurt ourselves. We just kind of gave this game away."

Dart threw his first two career interceptions in the fourth quarter - both caught by Kool-Aid McKinstry for his first career picks.

New York committed five turnovers in all, none more costly than when RB Cam Skattebo was stripped by DT Bryan Bresee at the Saints 12-yard line, giving Howden the chance to scoop the loose ball on the 14 and sprint untouched the other way early in the fourth quarter.

"It was a game-changing play," Moore said.

Indeed, the Giants were threatening to score a go-ahead touchdown when Howden saw the ball on the ground behind the line of scrimmage, picked it up and recalled thinking, "Just run - run for my life." Dart completed his first five passes for 44 yards, capped by his short TD pass to TE Theo Johnson. He mixed in a 20-yard scramble with three more completions during New York's next series, which ended with Dart's 15-yard strike to Johnson for a 14-3 lead.

New Orleans closed to 14-13 on Shaheed's TD - the Saints' longest offensive play since Drew Brees connected with Brandin Cooks for a 98-yard score in 2016.

Shaheed said he tried to make S Tyler Nubin believe he was headed across the field to the left, "and once I saw his hips turn, I broke toward the [right] corner and the rest is history.

It was also Shaheed's sixth career touchdown reception of 53 or more yards, and his third covering at least 68 yards.

After Saints K Blake Grupe missed a 52-yard field goal that would have given New Orleans the lead late in the first half, the Saints got the ball back when LB Demario Davis forced receiver Darius Slayton's fumble at the Saints 35 and S Jonas Sanker recovered.

That led to Grupe's short field goal for a 16-14 Saints lead at halftime.

Week 6: New England Patriots 26, Saints 19; October 12, 2025 @ Caesars Superdome - It's not the fight, it's the finish.

It's not the play it's the precision.

It's not the drive, it's the discipline and details.

The New Orleans Saints [1-5] lost their third one-score game this season in the Caesars Superdome, falling 25-19 to the New England Patriots.

Add that to earlier losses against the Arizona Cardinals [20-13] and San Francisco 49ers [26-21] and the Saints have riddled themselves with "couldas" and "wouldas," not not filled the holes with finished business.

"Tough," cornerback Alontae Taylor said. "I think it speaks volumes for us, though. Teams ain't just blowing us out like we're just trash. I think we're right there, and we've just got to find that hump and just stay consistent with that and try to get some wins under our belt."

Sunday followed a similar pattern.

Quarterback Spencer Rattler was efficient and turnover-free - 20 of 26 for 227 yards with no interceptions, but no touchdowns. New Orleans split success in its two red zone trips - a short field goal by Blake Grupe and a one-yard touchdown run by Taysom Hill - and settled for field goals when drives stalled at the New England 30-, 20- and 36-yard lines.

Grupe's last field goal, a 54-yarder with 13:41 left in the contest, pulled New Orleans to within 25-19. And the defense, which struggled while allowing the Patriots to convert six of 13 times on third down, forced punts on consecutive New England possessions.

The Saints began their final two possessions of the contest at their own 25- and 10-yard lines. The first ended after two plays when tight end Juwan Johnson caught a pass from Rattler over the middle and lost a fumble after a 14-yard gain to the 50, and the second ended after the offense gained 28 yards on five plays.

The Patriots converted one last third down on their final drive - a 21-yard pass on third-and-11 from their own 30-yard line with 2:40 left - that allowed them to run out the clock.

New England quarterback Drake Maye [18 of 26 for 261 yards and three touchdowns, with no interceptions] had completions of fourth-and-four and third-and-11 [twice] in the second half, while all three touchdown passes came on first down in the first half.

"You're guarding pretty good receivers," Taylor said, noting Maye's ability to extend plays and five receivers extra time to uncover. "They're finding ways, and Drake and them have a pretty good connection.

"So you're just going to find a guy open and throw the ball. We've just got to tightend up on our end. if we've got to cover longer, then we've got to cover longer."

Even though the Patriots didn't convert the game's lone turnover into points, they siphoned 2:45 off the clock and pinned New Orleans deep with a punt. The Saints took possession at their 10 with 5:51 left in the contest.

"It says in the Word, like, don't get tired in doing good," Johnson said. "We have a lot of stuff that we're doing that's good, so don't get tired in doing it. You're going to be rewarded when the time is right. The time isn't right, but one thing we're going to do is just keep working, clean up a few things and that's where we're at."

"Our red zone efficiency needs to be a little better, that's something we're going to clean up and be a little more efficient. I had a turnover, so obviously clean that up."

"The biggest thing is just being better and sound. It's just little things that a lot of people don't see, but we see. We'll clean up, we'll do better, we'll come out with a better attitude and a different result next week."

Several winning elements have been displayed. The Saints continue the quest to minimize - if not eliminate the costly ones.

"At the end of the day we did not take advantage of the opportunities that were presented to us," Head Coach Kellen Moore said. "Every game is going to have those opportunities, and you have got to take advantage of them. They won the turnover ratio, they won some of the situational stuff and that's how this game was decided."

"I have got to find a way for myself to coach better, to put ourselves in better situations to be more successful as a football team. Because there is too much good and not enough in those little margins [to be losing]."

Week 7: Chicago Bears 26, New Orleans Saints 14; October 19, 2025 @ Soldier Field - The piecemeal approach to winning National Football League games continued to fail the New Orleans Saints on Sunday in Chicago.

Flashes of effectiveness [defensive stops, a forced turnover, two impressive touchdown drives] again could not sufficiently puncture a thicker shield of futility [four turnovers including three interceptions, no run game against the Bears, inability to stop the run], and the Saints dropped their sixth game in seven outings, 26-14 to the Bears at Soldier Field.

A promising defensive start included a three-and-out punt to open the game, a field goal allowed after the offense committed a turnover deep in New Orleans territory and an interception off Bears QB Caleb Williams. But that buckled under the weight of 222 rushing yards and two touchdowns allowed on 40 carries.

And an offensive flurry that produced consecutive touchdown drives of 91 and 80 yards, each ending on passes from QB Spencer Rattler to WR Chris Olave, was negated by four Rattler turnovers and an invisible run game [44 yards on 17 carries].

Saints first-year coach Kellen Moore echoed the sound of sameness to explain the outcome.

"The theme of that game...we had our chances," Moore said. "I thought our guys battled. I thought our guys put [us] in really good position in the middle of the game to come back and get ourself back in it. But then we just couldn't keep it going. Credit to those guys – they played better than us, they coached better than us. We've got to find the formula that works."

New Orleans has shown it has the ability to create the elements of the formula. It hasn't been able to create them consistently and sustain them long enough for the scoreboard to reflect the mix.

Rattler [20 of 32 for 233 yards and two TDs, and sacked four times for -24 yards] had been masterful in his caretaking the first six games. He entered Sunday with one turnover – an interception almost a month ago against Seattle – and six touchdowns. But he was sacked and lost a fumble on the Saints' opening possession, after New Orleans' defense forced a punt on the game's opening drive. And after the Saints punted and Blake Grupe missed his sixth field goal this season to end the second and third drives, Rattler's pass intended for Mason Tipton was intercepted and returned to the Saints 30-yard line to conclude the fourth drive.

Week 8: Tampa Bay Buccaneers 23, Saints 3; October 26, 2025 @ Caesars Superdome - An inspired defensive effort and a quarterback change wasn't enough for the New Orleans Saints on Sunday, as they dropped a 23-3 decision to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers at the Caesars Superdome.

The Saints turned the ball over four times [two interceptions, one a pick-six] to allow the Bucs to solidify their grip on the NFC South at 6-2. The loss dropped the Saints to 1-7.

Rookie Tyler Shough entered the game with 3:57 to play in the third quarter and the Saints down 17-3 and promptly completed his first pass for six yards to Taysom Hill. Shough's first series ended when Tampa safety Antoine Winfield Jr. took the ball away from Saints receiver Chris Olave for an interception. Starter Spencer Rattler was 15 of 21 for 136 yards with a lost fumble and pick-six, leading the Saints to just three points [48-yard Blake Grupe field goal]. Shough finished 17 of 30 for 129 yards.

The Saints defense played exceptional football in the first half, not allowing the Bucs' offense to score while sacking quarterback Baker Mayfield three times and forcing him to fumble once. Tampa had just 80 yards of offense in the first half. The Saints defense also had a goal-line stand and came close to a second one before Tampa scored on a 1-yard dive in the third quarter.

Saints running back Alvin Kamara joined another exclusive list Sunday when he became the fifth running back in NFL history to have 600 or more receptions. He entered Sunday's game against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers needing two receptions to hit the milestone and accomplished that in the final minute of the second quarter. He had two receptions for 24 yards and six carries for 21 yards.

Luke Fortner started at center for the Saints, replacing longtime starter Erik McCoy, who is out for the season with a biceps injury. Running back Devin Neal saw his most extensive action of the season as the Saints played without Kendre Miller, who was lost for the season in Week Seven because of a knee injury. Rashid Shaheed had nine receptions for 75 yards and Chris Olave added eight grabs for 63 yards.

Week 9: Los Angeles Rams 34, Saints 10; November 2, 2025 @ SoFi Stadium - It seemed less about what New Orleans didn't do Sunday against the Los Angeles Rams, as it was about what the Rams did - clinically, repeatedly and thoroughly - in a 34-10 Rams victory at SoFi Stadium in Inglewood, Cal.

The Rams [6-2] scored touchdowns on three of their first four possessions, piled up 77 offensive plays and 438 yards, registered a lopsided time of possession advantage [43:53 to 16:07] and prevented the Saints [1-8] from conjuring much hope in the first NFL start for Saints rookie quarterback Tylyer Shough.

Shough displayed moments of promise while completing 15 of 24 passes for 176 yards and the first touchdown pass of his career, with one interception. But the Rams ball-hogged to a gluttonous level, keeping the Saints offense off the field and helping set the state for Los Angeles' defense to allow just 40 offensive plays, 224 yards and ten first downs.

And a week after New Orleans' defense played arguably its best game this season in a 23-3 loss against Tampa Bay, it couldn't get off the field [the Rams converted half of their 14 third-down attempts and both fourth down tries, and New Orleans didn't force da turnover] and was shredded in the red zone, where Los Angeles scored on four of five trips.

"They controlled so many of the situational football plays," Saints coach Kellen Moore said. "They were able to play a lot more efficiently, run the football better. But third downs, red zone, fourth downs - they were able to control the ball in so many ways." "We didn't get enough shots at it. We didn't get enough opportunities. We've got to play obviously a lot better. A lot of this comes down to the details and the fundamentals of the football game. Sometimes it's a simple game; we've got to play better and give ourselves more opportunities.

"When you look at it, we had 40 snaps on offense - probably an all-time low - and they had 77. So they obviously controlled the ball for much of this game."

When the Saints went three-and-out on their first two possessions and the Rams scored touchdowns on two of their last three - a 12-play, 88-yard drive and an 11-play, 62-yard drive that lasted a combined 12:36 - it was a harbinger of things to come. New Orleans manufactured an eight-play, 44-yard drive in the second quarter that ended with a 39-yard field goal by Blake Grupe to cut its deficit to 13-3.

And when the Rams responded with a three-play, 65-yard punch to push the lead to 2--3 with 6:25 in the half, the teams traded possessions - the Saints punted, the Rams missed a field goal - before the Saints countered with their only touchdown.

The six-play, 71-yard drive began with 54 seconds left in the second quarter and included Shough completions to receiver Rashid Shaheed [13 yards], tight end Juwan Johnson [eight yards], receiver Chris Olave [27 yards], and a roughing the passer penalty that pushed the ball to the Rams' 11-yard line.

On first down from there, Shough found Johnson open a few yards in front of the goal line. Johnson made the catch, spun around a tackle attempt and lunged into the end zone for Shough's first touchdown, and halved the Rams' lead to 20-10 entering halftime.

But that was as far as the momentum went.

Los Angeles opened the second half with an 8-yard touchdown drive that required 16 plays, lasted 9:46 and included two third-down conversions and one fourth-down conversion.

Stafford was sacked twice, by Chase Young and Jonah Williams. Young raised his season total to three sacks in four games, second-most on the team. But Stafford mainly was surgical, completing 24 of 32 passes for 281 yards and four touchdowns, with no interceptions. And with Kyren Williams adding 114 rushing yards and a touchdown on 25 carries, the Saints' defense was in a quandry.

Shough will now look to build off his performance.

"I thought there were some positives that came out of the game from Tyler's perspective," Moore said. "I thought he threw it well. I thought that two-minute drive was big-time football right before the half. Even at the end I thought he made a couple of really good plays to quickly get us down in the red zone and we weren't able to run the football and get a first down."

Week 10: New Orleans Saints 17, Carolina Panthers 7; November 9, 2025 @ Bank of America Stadium - No need to overdramatize the New Orleans Saints' 17-7 victory over Carolina at Bank of America Stadium in Charlotte, N.C. In the grand scheme it was the second win in New Orleans' 10 games and in a business measured by wins and losses, everything based on that reality.

But the tingly feeling that tickled fans, and the music inside Club Dub that Saints players blared inside the Visitors' locker room in Carolina, probably felt and sounded like a mixture of relief and hope.

The relief came in the form of a much-needed victory in New Orleans' most complete game of the season, where offense, defense and special teams each ponied up and shared the winnings.

The hope came in the form of a rookie quarterback, Tyler Shough, who made his second career start.

New Orleans' defense came up with two turnovers, held Carolina to 175 yards and produced stops on six of nine third-down attempts; the special teams blocked a field goal and added a field goal: and the offense produced 388 yards and chewed up 33-21 in time of possession on 67 plays.

But Shough, the Saints' second-round pick this year, likely left the biggest imprint. He completed 19 of 27 passes for 282 yards and two touchdowns, with no interceptions. He had touchdown passes of 62 yards to receiver Chris Olave and 30 yards to tight end Juwan Johnson, and added another 52-yard completion to Johnson, as New Orleans [2-8] evened its record to 1-1 in his starts.

"Just a great feeling," Shough said. "I think my favorite moment was just seeing everybody in the locker room, dapping everybody up and just kind of the work that everyone has put in to this point. Just a great team win. The defense, special teams, everybody had an impact on the game."

Week 12: Atlanta Falcons 24, New Orleans Saints 10; November 23, 2025 @ Mercedes-Benz Superdome - No need to have searched for a rocket scientist or nuclear physicist on Sunday in the Caesars Superdome.

The New Orleans Saints shot themselves in the foot, then tied a hand behind their back, then got in their own way, then...

You get the idea: In a 24-10 loss to Atlanta, which dropped the Saints to 2-9 and prevented their first two-game winning streak this season, describing why was simple because applicable cliches were appropriate. New Orleans committed such self-injury that the Falcons [4-7] only needed to accept the benevolence and not reciprocate.

The Saints missed two field goals and twice didn't score touchdowns after drives advanced to Atlanta's one-yard line, leaving twice as many points on the field as they posted on the scoreboard. The lone touchdown was a 49-yard interception return by safety Justin Reid in the second quarter, pulling the Saints to wintin 10-7 in a game they never led.

"Defense has got to come up with a second turnover," said edge rusher Cameron Jordan, who posted a sack [No. 126 of his career], two tackles for loss and a forced fumble. "I think the games we've won, we've gotten two turnovers quick and easy and gave the offense another chance. I had a sack-strip-fumble, I've got to get that ball.

Had Jordan recovered the first-quarter fumble, with the Falcons facing third-and-ten from their 45-yard line, New Orleans likely would have taken over inside Atlanta's 40, trailing 3-0.

But the Falcons recovered, maintained possession, punted and forced the Saints punt to end New Orleans' ensuing drive.

And the Saints were 0 for 3 in the red zone - two failed drives that reached the 1 and a missed 38-yard field goal attempt by Blake Grupe on a drive that started at Atlanta's 16, following a 75-yard kickoff return by Mason Tipton.

Grupe also missed a 47-yard attempt - both were wide right - in the second quarter and is now 18 of 26 this season.

"It's not working right now," Grupe said. "All i can do at this point is look at, literally everything. Look into myself, first of all, and go from there. But other than just literally continuing to put the work in week by week and day by day, that's all i can do."

Jordan said he can sympathize with the struggles, but also stressed the expectation.

"I have no idea what it's like to be a kicker," Jordan said. "i've seen kickers go 40-for-40, or whatever, and then...I assume it's a mindset thing. When you have a great kicker and he starts missing, I've seen it multiple times. I understand there's a mental aspect to it all, one that i can't relate to. I expect them, just like I expect [edge rushers] Chase [Young] or Carl [Granderson] to be able to do their jobs.

"So, when a teammate is in a rut or something, you can't do anything but uplift them. You have to find a way, as a teammate and as a team, to get yourselves out of a hole."

"Beyond that, when you enter the red zone as many times as we did it today, you have to be able to come out with points, preferably touchdowns. When you have a chance on defense to take over the game, you have to be able to. We were playing a good team; I think we showed we are the better team, and we lost. The better team did not win today, and that's on us. We have to be our best friend and not our worst enemy. We stayed getting in our own damn way."

The Saints held Atlanta to 302 yards of offense and the defense produced stops on nine of 12 third down attempts, but New Orleans' own offensive struggles - 293 yards, 5 for 16 on third down and 2 for 5 on fourth down - counterbalanced the effort.

The frustration glared most at the goal line.

On the opening drive of the third quarter, the Saints drove 73 yards on 13 plays [aided by defensive pass interference] to reach the Falcons' one-yard line. But on third-and-goal from the two, Taysom Hill took a direct snap and gained one yard on fourth-and-goal from the one, Hill threw an incomplete pass and the deficit remained 16-7 with 7:32 left in the third.

The Saints forced a punt, began the next drive at their 41-yard line and used 12 plays to reach the one. On second-and-goal, quarterback Tyler Shough was stuffed on a sneak. On third down, a direct snap to Hill went through his hands, he recovered at the 12 and threw incomplete. But he was penalized for intentional grounding and, facing fourth-and-goal from the 15, the Saints settled for Grapes' 33-yard field goal with 12:13 left in the fourth quarter.

Atlanta responded with a 49-yard touchdown pass and successful two-point conversion to end its next drive, and that was more than enough.

"Frustrating game," Head Coach Kellen Moore said. "All three phases kind of had different opportunities that, obviously, we missed. It's going to be a big opportunity for us to respond the right way and stick together and keep battling."

HONORS

WEEK 5 NFC Defensive Player of the Week: CB Kool-Aid McKinstry

WEEK 10 NFC Special Teams Player of the Week: DT Nathan Shepherd

New Orleans Saints 17, Carolina Panthers 7 @ Bank of America Stadium, Nov. 9, 2025

Blocked a 48-yard field goal attempt in the third quarter to help the Saints keep a 10-7 lead. Also added two solo stops and a sack for a 13-yard loss, as part of a day where the Saints surrendered only 73 yards rushing on 23 carries [3.2 avg.].

COORDINATOR CORNER

SPECIAL TEAMS COORD.
PHIL GALIANO

Phil Galiano is in his first season as the Saints' special teams coordinator and his seventh campaign in New Orleans, spending his first six years as the club's assistant special teams coach. Galiano is a veteran in the coaching ranks with 25 years of experience, including nine seasons in the NFL.

Galiano's work over the past six years with Darren Rizzi, who served as coordinator from 2019-24, helped make the kicking game an important key to victory for New Orleans. On coverage units, J.T. Gray's 93 tackles rank first in the NFL, with the special teams ace selected as an Associated Press All-Pro three times. The punting game has produced the top five seasons in club history for punts inside-the-20-yard line. Since 2019, the Saints have excelled in the return game. Over the six-season period, the team has been ranked fifth in the NFL in punt return average (10.4) and are tied for second in the league with three punts returned for touchdowns. The coverage units have allowed the third-lowest punt return average (7.0).

Special teams continued to be a bright spot for New Orleans in 2024, highlighted by Gray being selected as an All-Pro after recording an NFL-best 26 coverage tackles and one blocked punt. New Orleans ranked first in the NFL in opponent starting field position after kickoffs (28.2), punts inside-the-20 yard line (franchise-record 41), fifth in punt return average (12.5), seventh in opponent field goal percentage (78.6), eighth in opponent punt return average (7.6) and tenth in field goal percentage (87.1). Two blocked field goals were crucial in a pair of three-point victories. K Blake Grupe made 27-of-31 field goal attempts, six-of-eight from 50+ yards, an 87.1 percentage and scored 112 points. WR/RS Rashid Shaheed returned a punt for a touchdown for the second consecutive season.

A three-year starter at safety for Shippensburg, Galiano served as a tri-captain during his senior campaign. He helped lead the Raiders to consecutive winning seasons (1997-99). The Norristown, Pa. native graduated a degree in business administration.

COORDINATOR CORNER

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR
DOUG NUSSMEIER

Doug Nussmeier is in his first season as the Saints' offensive coordinator and tenth campaign as a coach in the National Football League. A 24-year coaching veteran, Nussmeier returns to New Orleans after originally being a fourth round pick (116th overall) of the Saints in the 1994 NFL Draft out of Idaho.

Nussmeier joins the Saints after spending the 2024 season as quarterbacks coach of the Philadelphia Eagles under Saints Head Coach Kellen Moore, who served as offensive coordinator, where he proved to be a key piece of their Super Bowl LIX Champion offensive coaching staff. Jalen Hurts flourished under Nussmeier's tutelage, posting a career-high 103.7 passer rating, fifth in the league and tying for the fifth-most rushing touchdowns (14) in the league (first among quarterbacks).

Nussmeier rejoined the NFL with the Dallas Cowboys in 2018, after previously spending two seasons with the St. Louis Rams from 2006-07 as quarterbacks coach. After serving on the Cowboys staff from 2018-22, he served as quarterbacks coach of the Los Angeles Chargers in 2023. In between, he spent 13 seasons coaching at the collegiate level, where he tutored eight different players who were selected in the first or second round of the NFL Draft.

Nussmeier finished his career at the University of Idaho as the program's all-time leading passer with 10,824 career passing yards over five years (1989-93). He won the Walter Payton Award in 1993, which was at the time given annually to the top player in NCAA Division 1-AA after throwing for a program-record 33 touchdown passes and leading the Vandals to a national semifinal berth. Nussmeier was named Big Sky Conference Offensive Player of the Year in 1992 and was inducted into the University of Idaho Athletic Hall of Fame in 2008.

A Portland, Ore. native, Nussmeier and his wife, Christi, have two sons, Garrett and Colton, and a daughter, Ashlynn. Garrett is in his fifth season as a quarterback at LSU.

COORDINATOR CORNER

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR
BRANDON STALEY

Brandon Staley is in his first season as the Saints' defensive coordinator. Staley is a 19-year coaching veteran with three as head coach of the Los Angeles Chargers.

This will be Staley's second stint as a defensive coordinator after leading the Los Angeles Rams to finish first in the NFL in total defense in 2020.

Staley arrived in New Orleans after serving most recently as assistant coach/defense of the San Francisco 49ers in 2024. Working with multiple position groups, as well as aiding 49ers Head Coach Kyle Shanahan, the San Francisco defense finished the season ranked eighth in the NFL in opponent net yards per game (317.4) and fifth against the pass (192.8 ypg.). DL Nick Bosa was selected to the Pro Bowl after recording nine sacks, one interception, one forced fumble and one recovery. ILB Fred Warner was selected to the Pro Bowl, Associated Press All-Pro and PFWA All-NFL, as he registered 131 tackles (76 solo), two interceptions returned for 70 yards, including a 45-yard touchdown return and four forced fumbles. Saints CB Issac Yiadom led the team with a career-high three takeaways.

During his tenure as Chargers head coach, Staley led Los Angeles to a 24-24 record and guided the franchise to its first postseason appearance since the 2018 season. In his final season with the Chargers (2023), Staley helped QB Justin Herbert continue one of the best starts to a career in NFL history as no quarterback has more completions or passing yards over the first four seasons of a career than Herbert. Staley also saw WR Keenan Allen and LB Khalil Mack put together career seasons and earn themselves nods to the Pro Bowl Games roster. Before becoming an NFL coach, Staley spent 11 seasons coaching at the collegiate level. In 2016, Staley earned National Coordinator of the Year honors for Division III.

A native of Perry, Ohio, Staley played collegiately as a quarterback at the University of Dayton for four seasons (2001-04) before finishing at Division II Mercyhurst College in 2005. He and his wife Amy, have three sons, Colin, Will and Grant.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH/
RUNNING BACKS
JOEL THOMAS

Joel Thomas, a 25-year coaching veteran, returns to New Orleans to tutor the clubs running backs in 2025. He previously spent nine years with the Black and Gold (2015-23). After spending the 2024 season coaching the New York Giants running backs, the Port Angeles, Wash. native returns to New Orleans with a additional title of associate head coach.

During Thomas' initial nine-year tenure in tutoring the Saints running backs, the Black and Gold tied for second in the NFL with 161 rushing touchdowns and his backs registered 25 individual 100-yard performances. Under his tutelage, Alvin Kamara, the Saints' all-time rushing yardage leader, earned five consecutive Pro Bowl selections (2017-21) and was the only NFL player with at least 1,160 total yards from scrimmage in each of the seven seasons he first coached him, three of them 1,500 or more.

In 2023 under Thomas, Kamara became the franchise's all-time leader in yards from scrimmage, rushing touchdowns and total touchdowns. Thomas also coached Mark Ingram II, New Orleans' all-time rushing leader from 2021-24 (6,500 yards), for six years, including two 1,000-yard campaigns. During Thomas' first New Orleans tenure, the Saints ranked in the top six in the NFL in rushing three times (2017, 2018 and 2020).

With the Giants in 2024, Thomas oversaw the development of rookie tailback Tyrone Tracy Jr., a fifth round pick. Tracy earned PFWA All-Rookie when he carried 192 times for 839 yards (4.4 avg.) with five TDs to rank second among NFL rookies for the season and New York rookies all-time in rushing yards. He added 38 receptions for 284 yards with one TD to tally 1,123 yards from scrimmage, the fifth-highest total among NFL rookies in 2024 and fourth among Giants rookies all-time.

Thomas lettered as a running back at Idaho from 1993-98 and still holds Vandals career records with 3,929 rushing yards and 51 touchdowns. He was inducted into the University of Idaho Athletic Hall of Fame in 2008. Thomas earned his degree in communications in 1998.

Thomas and his wife, Ebbie, have two boys, Teyo and Niko.

BUCKING THE ODDS

The Saints have a long tradition of finding players as free agents signed after the draft that make an impact immediately or after developing their careers initially on the practice squad. Several undrafted Saints on the roster have played key roles on offense, defense and special teams.

Over the past 22 years, the Saints [2018-22: DB J.T. Gray, WR/RS Deonte Harty and WR/RS Rashid Shaheed] and San Diego/Los Angeles Chargers [2003: G Kris Dielman, TE Antonio Gates and WR Kasim Osgood] are the only two teams to have three players signed as undrafted free agents be selected to a Pro Bowl for the team that originally signed them.

Defensive End Carl Granderson joined the club in 2019 as an undrafted free agent out of the University of Wyoming and has appeared in 99 games with 47 starts, posting 275 tackles [163 solo], 33 sacks for a loss of 202.5 yards, eight pass breakups, four forced fumbles and two recoveries, one blocked field goal and one blocked extra point.

In 2025, Granderson has been hot from the start, recording 35 tackles [24 solo], a team-high-tying 4.5 sacks and two pass breakups. In the first two games of the season, he recorded more than one sack. If Granderson leads the team in sacks in 2025, he would join linebacker Rickey Jackson, linebacker Pat Swilling, defensive lineman Wayne Martin, defensive tackle La’Roi Glover, defensive end Will Smith and defensive end Cameron Jordan as Saints to lead the team in quarterback takedowns in consecutive seasons.

Tight end Juwan Johnson first led Saints tight ends with four touchdown receptions in 2021, converting to the position that offseason after playing wideout in college and as a rookie in 2020, he signed as an undrafted free agent from Oregon. Johnson led Saints tight ends with a career-high 50 receptions for a club-best 548 yards in 2024, adding three touchdown grabs. He has led the Saints with 17 receiving touchdowns over the past four seasons, seventh over that period among NFL tight ends. In his career, Johnson has played in 78 games [41 starts], making 195 receptions for 2,159 yards with 21 TDs.

In 2025, Johnson is tied for fourth among tight ends in receiving yards and sixth in receiving with 49 grabs for 537 yards [11.0 avg.] with three touchdowns. His 191 receptions as a tight end [four additional were as a WR in 2020] are fourth among the position all-time for the club.

After playing the first three seasons of his career at NCCU, where he was a third-team All-American in 2023, he transferred to USC in 2024. He opened all 13 games at right guard for the Gamecocks and received third-team All-SEC. He competed on all three interior positions in training camp and secured a roster spot based on his play in preseason games. Simpkins received his first career start at left guard at Seattle, Sept. 21, saw extensive action at right guard, Sept. 28 at Buffalo and started at right guard in the Oct. 5 victory over the New York Giants, where the offensive line did not give up a sack.

Signing following the 2024 NFL Draft, linebacker Isaiah Stalbird played at Nebraska [2019] and South Dakota State [2020-23]. He played in 64 games and made 251 tackles, 18.5 for loss, three sacks, an interception, 19 pass breakups, five forced fumbles, two recoveries and three blocked punts for the 2022 and 2023 FCS National Champions. Through 11 games in 2025, Stallbird has a team-high 13 coverage stops and has added eight defensive tackles and one sack, including a career-high three stops, his first career quarterback takedown and two special teams tackles on Sunday vs. Atlanta.

Wide receiver Mason Tipton stuck on the 53-man roster in 2024 after showing bright spots in the preseason following a college career at Yale, where he posted 132 receptions for 1,067 yards with 19 touchdowns. In 2024, he had 14 receptions for 99 yards. In the 2025 preseason, Tipton led the team in all receiving categories with eight receptions for 158 yards [19.8 avg.] with one touchdown, ranking fifth in the league in receiving yardage. On Sunday vs. Atlanta, Tipton brought back a kickoff for 75 yards, the longest by the team since the 2020 season.

DRAFT RECAP

The New Orleans Saints 2025 draft class, the first under first-year Head Coach Kellen Moore features six-of-nine players currently contributing to the team’s 53-man roster, three offensive players, as well as three defenders, with three [T Kelvin Banks Jr., S Jonas Sanker and quarterback Tyler Shough] starting against Atlanta on Sunday, with running back Devin Neal and cornerback Quincy Riley seeing significant snaps on offense and defense. On offense, Executive Vice President/General Manager Mickey Loomis split the selections among four different positions. Defensively, New Orleans added players at four different positions as the unit makes the switch to Defensive Coordinator Brandon Staley’s 3-4 scheme, a safety, a linebacker and a cornerback currently contributing. With Riley recording a pick in Week Seven and Sanker posting one in Week Four, this is the first time since 2019, that two Saints rookie defenders have recorded interceptions.

1,000 - Kamara’s 18-yard rushing touchdown in the opener was the 1000th touchdown from scrimmage by the Saints in the Caesars Superdome (regular season/postseason), joining the Green Bay Packers and Kansas City Chiefs as the third team to have 1,000 touchdowns from scrimmage in their home stadium [the Buffalo Bills became the fourth team].

1,573 - Career number of tackles by linebacker Demario Davis after finishing with a club-best 11 stops [six solo] on Sunday vs. the Atlanta Falcons, joining Washington Commanders linebacker Bobby Wagner and Tampa Bay Buccaneers linebacker Lavonte David as only the third active player with 1,500 stops.

7,250 - Career rushing yardage total by Kamara, ranked first in club record books. Kamara’s total is ranked 69th all-time. Kamara needs 25 rushing yards to move into 68th and surpass Pro Football Hall of Fame RB Leroy Kelly.

12,198 - Club-record number of total yards from scrimmage by Kamara, the third-highest total in the National Football League since 2017 and ranked 68th all-time. With 88 yards, he would tie wide receiver Jimmy Smith for 67th and with 89 would surpass him.

FROM THE FIELD TO THE SIDELINE

Kellen Moore is the seventh New Orleans Saints head coach to have played in the National Football League, joining Tom Fears, John North, Dick Nolan, Mike Ditka, Jim Haslett and Sean Payton. Moore, who finished his college playing career at Boise State with a record of 50-3, the most wins by a quarterback in NCAA history, played six seasons for the Detroit Lions [2012-14] and Dallas Cowboys [2015-17].

BARKING UP THE RIGHT TREE

With Moore as his offensive coordinator in 2024 with the Eagles, Philadelphia running back Saquon Barkley had one of the best seasons by a tailback in NFL history. The consensus National Football League Offensive Player of the Year, a first-team Associated Press All-Pro and Pro Bowl starter selection, Barkley led the league with a franchise-record 2,005 rushing yards in the regular season, making him just the ninth player in NFL history to post 2,000+ rushing yards in a season, eight-most in league records. Including 499 rushing yards in the playoffs which ranked third all-time, Barkley's 2,504 rushing yards were the most in NFL single-season history (regular season and postseason combined).

The Super Bowl Most Valuable Player ranked among the top eight in the league in yards per attempt (fourth, 8.0), passer rating (fifth, career-high 103.7), completion percentage (eight, career-high 6.7 pct.) and total touchdowns (32, eighth). In Super Bowl LIX, Hurts completed 17-of-22 passes [77.3 pct.] for 221 yards, two touchdowns, a 119.7 passer rating and 72 rushing yards with one touchdown on the ground, the most rushing yards by a signal-caller ever in a Super Bowl.

GOAL LINE STANDS

In The October 26 contest against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, the Saints succeeded in a pair of short yardage situations against tall odds, putting the heart they have shown all season on full display in a valiant effort. In the second quarter, with the Buccaneers having first and one at the Saints’ one-yard line, the New Orleans front seven stopped Buccaneers running back Rachaad White from entering the end zone on three straight plays, with defensive end Chris Rumph II and defensive tackle Nathan Shepherd stuffing Tampa Bay running back Sean Tucker on fourth-and-one. In Tampa Bay’s first drive of the third quarter, the Buccaneers advanced to the New Orleans one-yard line following a 22-yard completion from quarterback Baker Mayfield to tight end Cade Otton. On a pair of goal line plays, cornerback Kool-Aid McKinstry successfully defended Mayfield pass attempts to wideouts Sterling Shepard and Emeka Egbuka. On second down, linebacker Demario Davis stuffed Tucker.

Until Tucker reached the end zone on fourth and one, the Saints had sucessfully defended the one-yard line seven times in the contest, the first time a team had done so since the December 8, 2013 matchup where Tennessee Titans managed seven stops from the one-yard line by the Denver Broncos [credit-ESPN] at Empower Field at Mile High.

DRAFT CONTRIBUTORS

The team’s top three selections in the 2024 NFL Draft started multiple games for the Saints in 2024. Below is a summary of the performance of five of the top six 2024 draft picks, as each of them have made a jump in 2025:

Right Tackle Taliese Fuaga, Oregon State [D1] - Selected with the 14th overall pick out of Oregon State, the Saints were able to address an immediate need, while also acquiring a building block for the future. Fuaga was an anchor on the Saints offensive line in his rookie campaign, seamlessly moving over to the left tackle position for his first NFL season, where he opened every game for an offense that improved in every rushing metric. Starting all 17 games, he was the first Saint to start every game in his rookie year at the offensive line's most challenging position since J.T. Taylor in 1978. Now in 2025, Fuaga has moved back to his natural right tackle position. After missing the Week Three contest at Seattle, he returned to the lineup in Week Four and helped spur a run game that gained a season-high 189 yards. On October 5, against the New York Giants, he anchored an offensive line that kept QB Spencer Rattler's jersey clean and did not give up a sack.

Cornerback Kool-Aid McKinstry, Alabama [D2] - Selected in the second round of the 2024 NFL Draft with the 41st overall pick out of Alabama, McKinstry arrived in New Orleans having covered many of the nation's top wideouts in the Southeastern Conference for the last three years.

In 2023, the consensus first-team All-American was a semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award in his final campaign for the Crimson Tide, making 32 tackles and seven passes defended.

In New Orleans, McKinstry played in 15 games with nine starts as a rookie in 2024, moving into the starting lineup in Week Eight and recorded 44 tackles with seven pass breakups, often tasked with covering an opponent's top wideout.

Through the first ten contests/starts of 2025, he has recorded 48 tackles [38 solo] with, two interceptions and a club-best eight pass breakups. Seven of the eight passes defended have taken place in the second half of contests, tied for eighth in the league. The Pinson, Ala. native recorded the first two picks of his career in the October 5 win over the New York Giants, capturing NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for the first time in his career. On October 26, vs. Tampa Bay, McKinstry played an important role in holding the Buccaneers to 124 net yards passing. On Sunday at the Los Angeles Rams, he tied a career-high with seven tackles [four solo]. In 26 career games with 20 starts, he has career totals of 89 stops [69 solo], two picks, 15 pass breakups and one special teams tackle.

QB Spencer Rattler, South Carolina [D5a] - Selected with the team's first selection in the fifth round [150th overall] out of South Carolina, Rattler completed 900-of-1,313 passes [68.5 pct.] for 10,807 yards with 77 touchdowns, and only 32 interceptions for the Gamecocks [2022-23] and Oklahoma [2019-21].

As a rookie in 2024, Rattler appeared in seven games with six starts, he completed 130-of-228 passes for a Saints rookie-record 1,317 yards with four touchdowns, also carrying 18 times for 146 yards.

On the season in eight games started/played, Rattler has completed 173-of-256 passes (67.6 pct.) for 1,586 yards with eight touchdowns, five interceptions and an 86.8 passer rating. Rattler has also utilized his feet, carrying 31 times for 167 yards (5.4 avg.).

LB Jaylan Ford, Texas (D5c) - The last of three fifth round draft picks by the club in 2024, Ford was selected out of the University of Texas, where during he posted 287 tackles, 27.5 stops for loss, three sacks, ten pass breakups, six interceptions, four forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries. As a rookie, Ford established a role on special teams, contributing five tackles before suffering a fibula injury in Week 17. Ford has comprised his role as a core special teams player in 2025, making seven stops, after recording three on October 19, at Chicago.

DT Khristian Boyd, Northern Iowa (D6) - A sixth round selection, Boyd appeared in 49 career games in college and collected 149 tackles (59 solo), 22.5 stops for loss, 10.5 sacks, five pass breakups and two forced fumbles.

In his final college season, Boyd started all 11 games along the defensive line and had 43 stops (17 solo), 6.5 tackles for loss, 3.5 sacks and a pass breakup, while earning All-Missouri Valley Football Conference first-team and consensus FCS third-team All-American. Following a full offseason, and utilizing his 6-2, 320-pound frame to fit into the Saints' 3-4 alignment under Staley, the Kansas City native led the Black and Gold with two sacks in the preseason, while providing a push up the team's interior defensive line. Boyd made his 2025 regular season debut in Week Four at Buffalo and finished with one tackle. On October 19 at Chicago, he finished with two stops.

LINING THEM UP

One of Head Coach Kellen Moore's first tasks was shoring up the alignment and the overall depth of the Saints offensive line- a unit that saw nine different starting combinations during the 2024 campaign. The line has gelled, now managing a season-long absence of Pro Bowl center Erik McCoy, who suffered a biceps injury in Week Seven, despite, the offensive line staff being forced to employ six different starting combinations.

A franchise that has consistently invested in the offensive line with four first round picks in the last six seasons, the past two campaigns have been no different. On the interior right guard Cesar Ruiz is the elder statesman, having been selected in the first round in 2020, having played in 85 regular season contests with 79 starts. In 2025, Ruiz has opened ten-of-11 contests, returning after missing only one game from a high ankle sprain suffered in Week Four.

In the last two seasons, New Orleans has continued to fortify their offensive line, selecting left tackle Kelvin Banks Jr. [ninth overall-2025] and right tackle Taliese Fuaga [14th overall-2024].

Banks, 6-5, 315, was selected with the ninth overall pick out of Texas this past April, the highest selection by the Black and Gold since 2005. A three-year starter who opened all 42 games he played in at left tackle for the Longhorns from 2022-24, Banks was the 2024 Outland Trophy winner and a unanimous All-American selection. In his first season, Banks has lined up at the position that he manned flawlessly as a college standout, facing weekly challenges from some of the NFL's elite pass rushers, a leading candidate for league All-Rookie honors, the only Saints offensive lineman to open every contest.

2024 first round pick Fuaga, immediately moved into left tackle as a rookie after being a two-year starter at right tackle at Oregon State, earning first-team All-American in 2023.

In 2025, the Tacoma, Wash. native became the first Saints rookie to start every game at the position since J.T. Taylor in 1978. In 2025 for his second-team campaign, Fuaga has moved back to the right tackle position he manned in Corvallis.

Luke Fortner is a former University of Kentucky standout who was a third round pick [65th overall] of the Jacksonville Jaguars out of Kentucky in 2022 and has started 38 of the 62 regular season games he has played and two postseason contests in 2023. Acquired by New Orleans in a preseason trade with the Jaguars following an exhibition game by the two clubs, Fortner has been called into action to manage the center position for the Black and Gold for the remainder of the 2025 campaign.

Following the trade of left guard Trevor Penning on November 4, the offensive line is rounded out by OL Asim Richards, who has seen action at right tackle in the absence of Fuaga, including opening the past two contests. G/T Dillon Radunz, who started the first two contests at left guard, takes over the position following the trade of Penning. Rookie C/G Torricelli Simpkins II started one game at right guard and one contest at center. T/G Xavier Truss, a rookie from the University of Georgia, was awarded off waivers from Denver at the end of the preseason and provides valuable depth, while developing.

SPECIAL TEAMS OVERVIEW

Saints special teams will benefit from the elevation of Phil Galiano to coordinator, after serving as assistant special teams coach for the past five-and-a-half seasons before taking over coordination of the unit midway through the 2024 season. During Galiano's tenure, the special teams units have consistently ranked among the NFL's leaders in placekicking, coverage and return units, producing Pro Bowlers and AP All-Pros, also setting various club records in placekicking, punting, return game and coverage units Under Galiano's direction, the club has committed to a transition of a mix of seasoned veterans and several promising youngsters.

BLOCK UNIT

New Orleans’ field goal block unit came through big on three occasions in the second half of the 2024 season, two taking place in three-point victories. The field goal block unit’s hard work carried over into the 2025 season opener, as third-year defensive tackle Bryan Bresee blocked a fourth quarter 46-yard field goal attempt to give the offense the ball back for a drive where they ended up scoring a field goal.

In the third quarter of New Orleans’ November 9, at Carolina, narrowly holding onto a 10-7 third quarter lead, DT Nathan Shepherd blocked a 48-yard field goal attempt. For his efforts, Shepherd was named the Week Ten NFC Special Teams Player of the Week.

New Orleans leads the NFL since the 2024 season with four blocked field goals.

His first touchdown pass was for 62 yards, the second longest touchdown throw by a Saints rookie quarterback since Archie Manning threw a 63-yarder to Danny Abramowicz on Oct. 3, 1971. With the Saints victory, Shough became the first Saints rookie to win a start since Dave Wilson, when the Saints won at the Los Angeles Rams on Nov. 8, 1981. Overall, became the fourth Saints rookie to win a start, joining Wilson, Larry Cipa (1974) and Manning (1971). His 282 passing yards were also the most by a Saints rookie in a game, which passed Wilson as well. The last time a Saints quarterback had 2+ TD passes and 0 INTs in one of his first two career starts was Manning on Sept. 26, 1971, vs. San Francisco. POSTGAME NOTES & QUOTES

NEW ORLEANS SAINTS

ATLANTA FALCONS VS. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS SUNDAY, NOV. 23, 2025 • CAESARS SUPERDOME SAINTS HEAD COACH KELLEN MOORE

Opening Statement:

“Frustrating game, a game we felt good about coming in. We felt like there was some carryover from the Carolina game into the bye week. We felt like it was a good week. Then, we didn’t come out and get this one done. Credit to those guys. Those guys coached better, played better and ultimately executed better than us today. It was a frustrating game. All three phases had different opportunities that, obviously, we missed. It’s going to be a big opportunity for us to respond the right way, stick together and keep battling.”

On if he still has faith in K Blake Grupe:

“It’s a frustrating one. I think the biggest and most important thing is we have to go through this whole process to understand how this happened today. He missed a couple, and that’s unfortunate because there’s been a lot of good. We’ll have to evaluate that and just get a better feel for just how that process went down today.”

On evaluating the kickers:

“We’ll just evaluate that as we go. It’s an important thing we will have to evaluate. First, really dig into what happened today, as far as let’s communicate at a high level, let’s go through the process and understand how the outcomes occurred. Then, we will evaluate, and there will be another day to continue to assess that.”

On whether Charlie Smyth will be a part of the evaluation:

“Charlie is certainly in a developmental role. He’s done a lot of good as he’s gone through this process for a couple of years now in the developmental role. It’s something we will have to spend some time and invest some time in. Today’s not going to be the answer to all of that. I think it’s a process that we are just going to have to go through.”

On playing QB Taysom Hill in the red zone:

“Just some of the run game stuff. I feel like it’s a numbers game down there. We need a number (advantage that we get) with Taysom. Red zone’s on me. We’re not getting it done. It’s as simple as that. We’re not scoring touchdowns down there. 0-for-3 today, had a huge impact today. We have to find a way to get it done.”

On if he will consider playing QB Tyler Shough in the red zone in those situations in the future:

“I think always the goal is still to win the football game. There are plenty of opportunities that Tyler goes through that are hard, challenging situations. There’s plenty of stuff in there red zone-wise where I felt like there would be some good opportunities. I felt like the run game in the plus-one situation, there’s a lot of evidence to support it would be a positive manner. Certainly, there are more opportunities that we will have to evaluate Tyler. There are plenty of games that we are going to be able to evaluate him in those situations. That will be an important part of the process.”

On the fumble by RB Alvin Kamara:

“It’s just a play action. Obviously, they got a little too close. There was a collision there. It was a play action play. We were going play action pass. I didn’t get a perfect, clean look at it. I was watching the routes as it went. I saw a little bit of footage. I’ll have to look more into it.”

On passing on fourth and one with Hill:

“We ran a lot of direct runs with Taysom at the quarterback position. We felt like there was a play opportunity there (in the passing game). Ultimately, it’s on me. It didn’t work.”

On the struggles in the red zone:

“Yeah, it’s missed opportunities. Credit to those guys. They made the opportunities. They created enough explosive plays in the game. They made stops in the red zone. We had our opportunities, like in a lot of games. It’s just a matter of small margins. We have to take advantage of them.”

On the playcalling in the red zone:

“Not good enough. Obviously, we didn’t get it done on offense. It was choppy. We weren’t able to create the flow that we had in the previous week against Carolina. It’s frustrating. I haven’t done a good enough job with this group. We have to find a way.”

On the playcalling against the Atlanta defense:

“Certainly, their pass rush has been really productive. They’ve been a very productive pass-rush team. I thought there were a few opportunities to get the ball out of our hands. Obviously, as the game progressed, we got into some challenging situations, and they’re going to rush the passer with some known rushes, and that was a challenge for us.”

On Shough’s performance:

“I thought he battled. I thought he gave us some positive things in there. It wasn’t an easy situation in some of those as the game progressed and we got into a multi-score game. I thought he battled. I think if you take the emotions out of it and watch the film probably tonight and tomorrow, you’ll certainly take some positives.”

On Kamara’s injury:

“We will have to let that go through its process. Obviously, he wasn’t able to return. We will have to get the full evaluation tomorrow, get a feel for that and see what this outline looks like.”

On Smyth’s development:

“I think it’s something that’s definitely part of the evaluation process. He’s been here for two years, and he’s developed in time. He’s had some preseason opportunities. He’s done a nice job there. He’s in a developmental role. We just have to continue to evaluate that each and every week. We’ve had a lot of guys who have had opportunities to step up. We will see how all of this stuff progresses.”

On RB Devin Neal’s performance:

“There’s probably going to be some positives coming out of that film. I thought he made a couple of plays in space and got some extra yards, which was a positive. For the most part, his protection stuff, he did some nice things in there. He stepped up, and we will see how this opportunity progresses as we move forward.”

On opting to play in the shotgun on the goal line:

“Get Taysom (Hill) and essentially you have ten blockers and Taysom. That was the goal with the play we ran earlier in the game and got a first down. Unfortunately, the snap wasn’t successful.”

On the atmosphere in the Caesars Superdome:

“I thought it was a great atmosphere. There were a couple of big-time opportunities that I felt like the crowd helped with, some third downs. They were in field goal range and got a false start. There were a couple of procedure penalties. We appreciate all of that. That makes this place special. We know we have some work to do. We have to keep grinding, getting better. There will be better days, certainly. We all have that sight that we will get better each week. We will keep finding those opportunities.”

On the mood in the locker room:

“Just frustration because you recognize the opportunities that are out there, and we just haven’t gotten it done.”

On RG Cesar Ruiz:

“Again, I think those ones are always really important to see the film. Up front, we got into some passing situations, and [the Falcons] are really good against the pass rush. It’s a challenging situation, but we have to find something that works for us a little bit better and find a solution to get the ball moving in some of those situations. In the run game, we have to find some more consistency in the run game where we can get some things moving and create more flow.”

On WR Mason Tipton:

“We like Mason a lot. He’s done some positive things through training camps and through preseason football. He’s played in a somewhat limited role in the regular season. Every time Mason plays in this game, he will continue to play a valuable role.”

On if adjustments were not being fully implemented during the bye week:

“I mean, at the end of the day, we just didn’t get it done. We can look at it from a lot of different angles. Schematically, I’m going to spend a lot of time saying are we putting ourselves in the best position to be successful? The players are trying to find every margin they can improve on. That’s the goal of this thing. Every opportunity you have, whether it be a self-scout or a game film, you’re going to evaluate it. There’s going to be things that come out of it positively and negatively. You just have to keep growing. Obviously, we missed this opportunity.”

ATLANTA FALCONS VS. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS
SUNDAY, NOV. 23, 2025 • CAESARS SUPERDOME
SAINTS PLAYER QUOTES

QB TYLER SHOUGH

On his first start in the Caesars Superdome:

"Yeah, running out of the tunnel and seeing everybody in the Dome, it was such a cool moment. I was talking to David at Drago's. He's one of the managers, and I went to Drago's yesterday with my family, and he talked about the dream that he had running out of the tunnel as a Saints quarterback, and it kind of gave me some perspective that a lot of people really dream about that opportunity. We fell short, but I was proud of how we battled, and it sucks to lose, especially to the Falcons, but at least the start it was a cool moment, and overall, we know what we have to do to fix it, and that's the story of the game. There's a lot of fixable things, especially in the red zone where we just came up short, and then we'll finish it, and then it's a different story."

On the first fumble and the first drive:

"Yeah, it was play-action, and it just hit his (Alvin Kamara's) elbow. It was literally like a fluke deal. Sucks, because I wasn't trying to give him it. It was just a fake. He was rolling over it, and it hit. He closed in, but it's on me at the end of the day. I've got to make sure I can hang on to that, and, yeah, it sucks. We've got to be better there, and we had guys open, but I was proud of how the defense responded the whole time. They held them to a field goal in a really bad scenario, and then they were making plays the whole game."

On his assessment of his third start:

"It wasn't good enough at the end of the day, but we were moving the ball really well. We were doing the things that we needed to do to put ourselves in position, and then two goal-line opportunities that are tough, and a couple of field goals where we shouldn't have been in a situation. We should have been scoring in those red zone drives, and we felt really good about it, and we came up short. So for me, just continue to learn from those new scenarios, little mistakes, and keep building."

On Blake Grupe's misses having an effect on the offense/team as a whole:

"No. I mean, Blake makes those nine times out of ten, and he's doing a great job throughout the week, and we've got his back. He's got our back, and it's part of it. We put him in those scenarios where we can finish those drives out, and that's really on us as an offense. But we know that's really on us because we can finish it. It motivates us. But we'll continue to get back to it and continue to stay together."

On balancing emotions of getting the team to the red zone and then going to the sideline:

"I'm trying to do whatever it takes to get in the end zone. If Taysom (Hill) scores on a run, I'm equally as fired up as if we hand the ball off or if I run the ball in. At that point, we're trying to win. So whenever we think we can get the advantage-wise or schematically, I'm all for it. So it sucks we weren't able to finish it. And continually, we'll look at how we can be better there as an offense. But there's nothing really special to say as far as that. It sucks."

On the one-yard play and the stumble:

"Yeah. No, I thought I was in whenever I landed. Then obviously I think my knee was down short, which happens, it was second down. So I knew that I wasn't going to reach. I didn't want to reach and have something bad happen. So I wouldn't really change anything about that. I just fell short. And maybe if it was third or fourth down, we're going to reach for the ball. And then the second one, we had a little rub. So I was getting ready to throw it, and that's why. It was more of a throw—RPR—and then slipped on the cut and almost got in. But, yeah, that was more of a design throw in the flat and then trying to make a miss when they switched it off. So, yeah, super close."

On dealing with Atlanta's pass rush:

"We put ourselves in that situation when you're down two scores at the end. That's a scenario where defenses want to live, and they know we're going to throw the ball. And so it's tough. It's tough on any other lines. Every D line is going to have an advantage there. So we have to be better on first down. We had too many second and longs where we have to get back on track. We've got to be better starting off the drive."

On feeling prepared pre-game:

"I felt really prepared. We were moving the ball how we thought we could, and came up short. But at the end of the day, it stinks, especially against them. But, a lot to build off of. And I was proud of the receivers — (Mason) Tipton, (Devaughn) Vele, (Dante) Pettis, Kevin (Austin Jr.) — all those guys stepping up, especially with some departures. And (Chris Olave) obviously was a huge part of that as well, and what he's been able to do and all the tight ends too. They've had an increased role. So I was proud of them. It's obviously not an easy situation. But there's a lot to build off of, encouraging stuff. And we have to fix those little things on first down and then in the red zone."

On outside-of-structure plays:

"Yeah, just instinct. Trying to push it. You can't take a sack. Obviously, the time is against you. So, doing everything you can to move up, trying to find different angles and get it to the guys. So just part of it."

On embracing it (out-of-structure plays) when down:

"Whatever it takes. That's my mindset. I love when we stay on the ball. We can get some tempo. We're throwing it whenever those odds are against us. I felt the whole time, who knows what's going to happen. We can break a tackle, can score here, can get it to a one-score game. So nobody's belief was shattered. That was one thing I was really encouraged by. We were all still pretty in it. It sucks because it's the Falcons, and we came up short there. But like I said before, we'll build off it."

On any commonality to problems in the end zone:

"No, it's tough when you're on the one-yard line and you come up short. And, like I said, we're moving it. And, we have to find a way to get that last yard. So, we'll look at it. It's tough to think about it right now. But I don't think there's any commonalities with it."

On formations in the red zone that were recently introduced the past week or from camp:

"A little bit of both. There was some new stuff that we were repping. And then, obviously, you got some new guys in the mix. Tipton, Vele, and Taysom are switching around. So there's a lot of different personnel styles where you've got to rep. And then, there was some traditional stuff as well. But, yeah, that's very common week to week, though, just trying to attack."

On confidence in the red zone throughout last week:

"Yeah, we felt really, really confident. And with those results, and like I said, you get down really close, you've got to find a way to punch it in. You've got to find a way. So, and whether that's, whatever it is, I don't have an answer for that."

On losing Alvin Kamara in the first quarter affecting the offense:

"Yeah, he's a great part of what we do as an offense, and from riding the ball, catching the ball, receiving it, he's obviously one of the best in the business when it comes to that. So, hopefully he's okay. I haven't heard anything yet, but it obviously sucks. But I was really proud of (Devin) Neal and what he was able to do. He was laying the boom quite a few times, doing his job really well. Taysom (Hill) as well. He's like a Swiss Army knife, and he was thrown in some tough situations. So, hopefully he'll be good, and then we'll continue to go."

On if he got hurt the last play of the game:

"I got landed on my leg. So, it was just a bruise. It should be good. I got some flashbacks where he landed on, and I put some weight on it temporarily, and it was fine. But when you're in those scenarios, you're trying to go down and score."

On what message he’s trying to send to the team about this game:

“Yeah, a lot of the NFL, and a lot of this game, it can be taken emotionally, and understandably. It’s a high-strung game, but if you think about it analytically and what we could have done better or fixed, it’s very simple. We score on those two red zone scenarios on the one-yard line, and we find a way, then it’s a different story. It just comes down to that. I don’t think there needs to be anybody freaking out about it, and we know what we need to do, and keep going. And it’s part of it, and it hurts a little bit more, and it should. So we’ll see them again.”

On the third guy stepping up in the passing game after Chris Olave and Johnson:

“Vele and Tipton equally. I continually get reps with them. I was really proud of Tipton when he was able to do (some of the things that he did this afternoon). He made some huge plays, especially with the amount of reps that he’s gotten all year—minimally. And Vele as well, everything that he does. So, we’ve got some good options, and we just continue to go.”

On if it feels different starting his first game at home compared to on the road:

“Preparation-wise and the game plan-wise, no. But like I said in the beginning, it was really cool to kind of be home in front of the fans and have that opportunity. It means a lot, but at the end of the day, we lost. So it hurts at the end, and we’ll continue to keep building, and we’ll get it done here at home. We’ve got to protect our house.”

On what he learned about the rivalry today:

“Yeah, just how important it is to the people of the city, and how important it can be, and it makes you want to work that much harder and find that extra edge. At the same day, you’ve got to go back to execution and analytics, and that’s why we lost. It wasn’t anything other than that as far as some of the scenarios. So, we feel really good about going forward. We’ve got to get back to work, and there’s a lot of ball left.”

QB TAYSOM HILL

On the play where the snap went over his head:

“We got a certain look. It’s a little challenging because I haven’t seen the film. We’d like to have that on back and I’d secure the snap and get into the end zone there. It’s hard to really comment on it without having seen it. That was a disappointing play. It was a disappointing game. We had plenty of opportunities as a team and an offense to create situations. We didn’t capitalize on that and it is a hard thing to swallow at this point. I think there were some good things to build on obviously we got down in the red zone and put ourselves in position to score. We have to find ways to finish.”

On if the fourth down play near the end zone was a designed pass:

“I did not just decide to throw it on my own. It was a designed pass play.”

On what he saw on that play:

“There is no secret that when I am in at quarterback that we run the ball a lot. We have done different things through the course of my career. We were counting on a heavy box. They made a good play. We were trying to sneak (Devaughn) Vele in the corner. They made a good play.”

On what caused the troubles in the red zone:

“It’s a little bit challenging right now. You get into the game. It’s hard to give you a really good answer frankly having not seen the tape. I am trying to think through the drives. We had plenty of opportunities. It’s not like there were negative plays. We had one negative play that turned into intentional grounding. Certainly, you would like to think that we can score from the one-yard line. It’s a tough yard to gain down there. It’s hard to give you a great answer. We could all play with lower pad level. We were all trying to run a sneak down there. I don’t know. We had some missed opportunities down there.”

On if it is frustrating when you have that many shots:

“No one feels good about this game. The first 24 hours are hard. Right now, it is hard because we had a lot of opportunities to get that done. We didn’t do that. I’m not trying to all of a sudden feel great about this. You take a step back and there are some great things that we did and are encouraging. It’s week 12 and (we) should have that figured out by now. Atlanta is a good team. Those guys get paid too. They did a good job. We knew that they were an aggressive front. They rely on getting negative plays that way and they are aggressive in their schemes up front.”

On being in so many close games:

“Nobody feels good about our record. It’s one of those things a competitor and a player, that you can’t let circumstances dictate how you prepare, the effort that you put into it and the film that you put out there. We have conversations in the locker room and that’s really the conversation. At the end of the day nobody cares what you record is. When you put it on film, then it is out there forever. I think the leadership in the locker room has been really good about managing that. Guys are competing. I love that locker room. I really appreciate everyone in there.”

On if his role changed when Alvin Kamara came out of the game:

“For sure. There were a lot of things that I ended up doing today that I had zero time on task. That is the nature of the NFL. He went down (and) I spent a little bit extra time with the running backs coach (Joel Thomas), figuring out some things schematically and finding out some things.”

On Tyler Shough’s progression:

“I think Tyler has done a really nice job. I think Tyler is in it. You feel his presence. You feel confident with him in the huddle. He knows what’s going on. He has put the time and energy into learning the system and understands the intricacies of what’s going on. He has a really positive, great presence in the huddle and at the line of scrimmage. As a fan base, if you watch a play, then you can feel that. As a teammate and in the locker room, you feel that as well. He has made some nice plays over the course of the three games that he has been playing. We have had conversations, and the nature of that position is challenging. As you look at an NFL game, so often the game boils down to a few plays and I feel that Tyler has done a nice job of making these 50-50 plays. I really appreciate the time that he has put into it and he has progressed really well.”

On if this season has gone as expected with his injury:

“I think as things relate to me, this season and this year is kind of like a perfect storm with a new coaching staff, a new scheme and a new offense. I was out (from offseason, training camp practices and Weeks One-Four), so the first opportunity I had was week Five. My first practice with them was on a Wednesday. You practice in pads on Wednesday, and we had practice Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and then a game on Sunday. It was one of those things that I was hyper-focused on. How can I expedite? The rest of it was that I really didn’t have a lot of expectations. I certainly had conversations with Kellen (Moore) and what that was going to look like when I came back. We are still in the process of learning together and what my role will be week to week in this offense. I don’t know if I had any real expectations. I was just so hyper-focused on getting healthy and being available.”

On if he feels he is getting better as the season is going on:

“It is a really fair question. The reality is coming out of surgery, it was trying to be available to play in November or December. I think it is one of those things that you don’t realize how bad that you felt a month ago. I think it is one of those things that I will continue to feel better as the season goes on. I had surgery on December 17. Through my conversation with people who have had that surgery and talking to surgeons, you are going to continue to feel better through the rest of the season. Personally, I feel confident in my knee. I feel confident in the responsibilities on the field that I am asked to do. I don’t feel like I am lacking as a result of this injury. I also don’t know how I am going to feel in a month too.”

On his conversation with Joel Thomas when his role in the run game increased due to Kamara’s injury:

“Obviously there are things that I have done in my career that I am familiar with. It is fine to say in the balance that this is what I have done in the past. It fits our game plan already. There are obviously things that we have game planned for that we don’t need additional conversations about. There were a few plans I ran today that I had zero reps. It was quick conversation. You play enough football and you can scheme different things up. As a runner, you rely so much on instincts and that is really what happened today.”

S JUSTIN REID

On scoring a touchdown:

“It felt good. It was a result of my teammates and coach making a great play call. My teammates did their job. Kool-Aid (McKinsty) helping get the pop up. We got help on blocks from teammates to help me get into the end zone. It was great defensive snap all around.”

On practicing cutting back:

“It takes me back to my younger days when I got to play both sides of the ball. It felt like an opportunity to do it. I cut back on it and found a way to get to the end zone.”

On Kirk Cousins’ performance:

“First of all, credit to them. They came out and played a tough game. The most important thing is the W or the L and they found a way to get the win. I think in a lot of ways we let it slip through our fingers. We were so aggressive on defense in the first half. They went to some screens. If your defense is flying around and you have energy, then offenses are going to go to screen plays and screen and go plays. They were able to get that one to (Kyle) Pitts early on. They were able to come back to another one to Bijan (Robinson). I think you take the screens off the field that we were dominant defensively. They were able to get some momentum from it. That is just something that we are going to have to be aware of. I don't want us to lose our energy or our edge. I want us to continue to be a ferocious defense. When we are flying around like that, then we just need to be aware that teams are going to go to screens or screen and gos."

On the second and 24 play: "They had a screen to Bijan. He is such a talented back. He found a lane and he took it. That's such an advantageous position for the defense to be in. We have to take advantage of that."

On the Darnell Mooney touchdown:

"We were in a quarters concept. Kool-Aid was on an island on the field side. We had a cut and climb where the safety drove the dig and the corner climbed. Mooney just hit is so skinny that it was tough for our help to get there, our assist on the touchdown. That's a play that we really wanted to make sure that we took care of the run because we knew that they were going to do wide zone all day. We are going to have an answer for that next week. We talked about an adjustment on the sideline. We didn't get the chance to use the adjustment, but we are just going to have to be aware. This is (a) copycat league, so teams are going to see the same thing and pull it back up. We have to make sure that we don't get beat on the same play in the future."

On the frustration of the offense not converting in the red zone:

"The biggest thing is to find a way to finish. I think that the offense actually moved the ball well. They made it down to the one-yard line and inside the five. We just have to take advantage of the opportunities. We just can't leave points off the board offensively and on special teams I think they did a great job moving the ball. We just have to find a way to get into the end zone. Those points are big. More than anything it's momentum."

K BLAKE GRUPE

On his missed attempts:

"Right now, I don't have a whole lot of answers, to be honest. When you go out and have (a) perfect week over and over and over during practice, then you go out in games and there is something that is not working right now, all I can do at this point is literally everything. (I need to) look into myself and go from there. Other than just, really, continuing to put the work in...All I can do (is work)."

On if the misses are mental-related:

"Not at all. Nothing about me about going through my process in my mind is anywhere other than where it needs to be. I am just going to continue to work. That's all I can do. When you have to go out there in pregame, like I did, and have a great pregame...It's frustrating. I am frustrated. I know that the fans are right now. A lot of the guys in this locker room are (frustrated)."

On both misses to the right:

"They were literally right on the outside, just (wide) right. A lot of those have been just right this year. It's frustrating."

POSTGAME NOTES & QUOTES

NEW ORLEANS SAINTS

ATLANTA FALCONS VS. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS SUNDAY, NOV. 23, 2025 • CAESARS SUPERDOME FALCONS HEAD COACH RAHEEM MORRIS

Opening comments:

"A really well played game by the guys today, a lot of credit to the coaching staff, and Zac Robinson for putting together a great game plan for our offense. A lot of credit to Jeff Ulbrich for putting a great game plan together for our defense. Those guys went out there, they executed to keep those guys out of the end zone. On special teams, we were out there, made a couple plays a day, got a couple things to clean up like always, and we'll get those things on this week as we prepare for the Jets."

On how Kirk Cousins was able to execute the game plan Zac put together:

"We did a nice job going out, being able to run the football. We want to come out early and establish the run and those things you got to keep pounding at, keep going and keep grinding. Even when we noticed some ugly runs early in the game, but eventually, with the guys that we have we talked about Tyler (Allgeier) and Bijan (Robinson) and that upfront crew that we do have, they break them. We're to get that thing open up a little bit, make some plays that allow us to open up an action pass game, and get Kirk to make a couple completions. We left one point out there when we got the interception for return. But other than that, very pleased with how the guys played and how that operated."

Deep shot to Darnell Mooney:

"We've been setting up all year, that's what Mooney is more like, he came to life today. We've been talking about the last couple of weeks, being able to go out there and execute those things, and I'm very proud of Mooney being (able to) run a great route, and our protection and (being able to) let go a great pass down the middle of the field to really give us an explosive"

Defensive front and pressure:

"Obviously sacks and pressures have been a big focus on our team, away from the draft and things of that nature. Terry Fontenot on his crew, obviously, Kyle Smith, all those guys, Ryan Pace, everybody in our personnel department did a nice job of acquiring draft picks. Over the last two years, since I've been here at least, being able to add people (in the draft) and free agency, whatever the case has been, for me to get them in here, to rush the passer."

Kirk's efficiency:

"We talked about it during the week, and it's about going out and really having a full week of preparation and operation, with Zac, going (in) knowing you (are) the guy all week, being able to execute all the game plan, being able to have input, being able to talk and communicate with your coaches, to go out there and know exactly what you like and exactly what he likes. We got to execute that today.”

Pressure on the center with the way Kirk runs an offense:

“There’s no question about it. Kirk is, that’s what he’s been throughout his whole career. Obviously, when he came off the injury last year, he felt a little bit more comfortable in the pistol. He’s back to what he’s been in the past and what he’s played the 12, 13 years in the National Football League. We did what accommodated Kirk, what made him look the best, and what made us feel the best about going out and operating.”

POSTGAME NOTES & QUOTES

NEW ORLEANS SAINTS

ATLANTA FALCONS VS. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS SUNDAY, NOV. 23, 2025 • CAESARS SUPERDOME ATLANTA FALCONS PLAYERS

QB KIRK COUSINS

Opening Statement:

"It's always gratifying to be able to win an NFL game on the road, and it's never easy. I feel like most wins in this league are team wins, but today certainly was one when you think about how offense made plays, defense only allowed three points, and special teams stood up in multiple moments, whether that was the (missed) kicks or the field position they gave us. It felt like we leaned on everybody today and that's what makes it fun, feeling like you're flying home as a whole team that contributed to winning that game. I'm looking forward to watching the tape tomorrow and being able to talk through everything to try and keep getting better."

On Dylan Drummond and David Sills being involved in the passing game:

"Yeah, I thought it was a great design by Zac (Robinson) and the staff to get David that open in the low red. It's rare to have a guy be able to cross towards the goalposts there in the back of the endzone. The Saints did a good job of passing the inside route off, I think it was KP (Kyle Pitts Sr.) on that route. He passed it off when they were in transition, and we were able to hit it just as they were transitioning back. It was great to get David (Sills) involved there, and Dylan (Drummond) showed up big in the two minutes before the half. He's got great hands, great intelligence, and I really trust him. We were working together on scout team a lot this season, and even in training camp. He showed a lot, and there is a reason that he's on this football team. It was great having him out there today."

On the execution of the 49-yard pass to Darnell Mooney:

"We had run a few play actions throughout the game and got a variety of coverages against them. You never know what you're going to get when you dial it up. They played a fairly aggressive quarter there. I think KP attracted some attention as he came across the field, which kept them a little flat footed. The key for me was knowing how [Mooney] can really run. When you feel like he's getting even with somebody, I say if you're even you're leaving, by the time the ball gets there he's going to have hopefully blown by them. I just threw that with a lot of trust that if Mooney can get through there, he's going to make me right when the ball arrives, and he did. It was great to get that, and was a big moment in the game."

On the emotion that came with his big play to Mooney:

"I think it was a combination of hitting a big throw, and also what that meant in the flow of the game. Explosive plays are always exciting. We decided to go for two so we couldn't celebrate for too long. I'm trying to run down there, and the offensive linemen are having a party in the end zone, and I tell them to get back to the huddle. We got another play to run; the play clock is running! So, it was a good moment. I think that everyone exhaled after that one, and then to get the 2-point conversion I felt was a big deal as well, to be able to pound that in there. It was a great run by the guys."

On how knowing if he would start had affected his preparation for the game:

"I think we had a sharp week of practice and being able to get those reps helps. The week is a process, and you try to just build that process all the way to Sunday and then let the product on Sunday show. Sometimes, practice doesn't mimic the game, and you have a great week, and the game isn't as good. But today I felt like it built all week, and it was able to come to fruition."

On his collaboration during the week with Zac Robinson on the game plan:

“I don’t think it was too much me, I wasn’t necessarily in there on Tuesday giving him a bunch of thoughts. It was more that Zac knows me pretty well by now, what I’m comfortable with, and knows what I like, do well, and don’t do well. I think he factors that in as he thinks through the game plan on Monday and Tuesday. Coming in on Wednesday, I started to see where we were headed with it, and I felt pretty excited about what we were going to do. You never know until you get into the game, and I thought the game was fun to work through together and get a lot of different teammates involved.”

On how much the team needed this win:

“Any time you go on the road to be able to get a win is a big shot in the arm in a good way. Now we have to build on it. There’s so much football left and so much work left. It starts tomorrow morning with having candid conversations about how I want to be coached and criticized in a way that acts like we lost. I think that’s how you have to do it the Monday after a game. So, we’ll have those conversations and keep trying to get better. But it’s much more fun to have them after a win.”

On his confidence in all of the play action tonight:

“Yeah, I’ve always enjoyed play action. I think they did a good job defending a few of them where we had to check it down or throw it away. I think it’s good to try and get them called and see if we can’t get some explosives out of it. I do think we left some meat on the bone there, I think [Kyle Pitts Sr.] was open on one that we couldn’t connect on. So, we’ll keep trying to build that to where we can really lean on them.”

On lowering his shoulder during the scramble to the sideline:

“I put my boys in wrestling, so I’m trying to show them what it looks like to have some grit in your life. Honestly, it was the perfect storm. You got to get out of bounds, you have to get the first down, and I see [Justin Reid] from out of bounds coming at me. I thought, this is going to be a collision, but I don’t know how to do this any other way. So, I just said let’s take it back to high school and lower the shoulder and may the best man win. I don’t know who won that one, it might have been a stalemate in which tie goes to the runner.”

On how much it helps to have a kicker he can trust:

“In today’s NFL, with the way that they have even changed some of the rules in the last couple of years, games are going to come down to the final possession more often than not. You see it every Sunday. The kicks are just such a big deal, and you do all you can as an offense to not have to rely on it, but you also know that it can be such a big part of your team’s success.”

On his eagerness to build and improve after watching the film:

“That’s what it’s all about, is to be analytical and go back and ask yourself, how can we do this better? What did we leave out there? I’m going to wear out D.J. Williams tomorrow hopefully with a lot of questions and I think he’ll have a lot of good answers for me too. He’ll tell me what I got to do better and what we left out there, and we’ll build on that. I do think Brandon Staley and that defense did a good job today and made it hard on us. We’ll bring up a lot of good points tomorrow.”

RB BIJAN ROBINSON

On the win:

“God is good man. Give honor to Him and for Him, just getting us this win. And without him, everyone got the win, like, just come together as a team and pull it out and serve Him and praise Him as He but, we are happy about this. We'll celebrate this team right here, man, like this was a great win for us, but we got to move on and get on. Get on to the Jets.”

On Kirk Cousins' play:

“Yeah, you know, obviously he dealt with so many ups and downs. So, for him, this is just another step in his in his role that he's taken. And I think he did an amazing job. For him this is a long season for him as well. So, for him to come out here and help get this win and keep us going.”

On how the team communicated and stuck together to pull out the win:

“Yeah, man, you know for us, like everybody was just like, continue to talk to each other. So, like, Kyle (Pitts) was talking, I was talking, Tyler (Allgeier) was talking, (David) Sills. Everybody was hurt, like we were all on the same page. Even Charlie (Woerner) came over and said, like, we're not done, bro. But I think the biggest thing with all of it is, is the whole line, Chris (Lindstrom), you know, he's the premier of it all. You know, he gets everybody hype. He's walking back and forth on the sidelines. Doesn't matter offensive, defense, and he's making sure everybody's still locked in, everybody's still trying to play their hearts out. Then, Chris being the ring there with everything it gets. It gets news merge, Jake (Matthews) and then Elijah (Wilkinson) might get them all on the same page, and they're all just trying to go up there and ball out.”

WR DAVID SILLS V

On Kirk Cousins stepping in:

“I think he obviously, when he's out there, we kind of know what we're going to get out of him. He's been in a lot of situations, pretty much every situation you can think of, so he knows how to go in there and play the position and do really well at it. So obviously, injuries are part of the game, and it sucks. We got to move forward as an offense.”

On getting his first touchdown:

“It was awesome. But I like to say that, playing receiver is really something that when receiver does well, it's a product that everybody else on offense, the quarterback or the line in protection, the running backs in protection, everybody else doing their job. My job is just to make the play on the player. A touchdown for receiver is really a product of them. So, we did a great job up front gave (which) me a chance. It was awesome.”

On getting this win:

“I think it was big. I think it was big for my battle moving forward. You know, I think it's something that there's ebbs and flows to the NFL season. I think everybody that's played in there knows that. And you know, it's definitely big to get this one.”

LB DIVINE DEABLO

On approach going forward:

“I mean, it's just one, how do you guys build off and hopefully we can stack it next week.”

On how it felt to be sidelined for a few weeks:

“Obviously, it was frustrating, because I wanted to be out there with the guys, but I seen a lot of good things, seeing some mess ups, but hey, week by week in NFL.”

On returning to play in today's game:

“It felt great, like I said earlier, a little out of shape.”

On playing with a club on his hand:

“That was the plan. I think I know a few people out there trying to get my arms around them so they couldn't escape. It was a little hard to tackle not having a grip on my left hand, but it's okay. I think it worked out... Yes, very first time with the club. It was weird only because, you got to do everything with it. So, it worked out.”
