THE MATCHUP

Following a 45-35 victory over the Los Angeles Rams on Sunday that was aided by a combination of timely plays on offense defense and special teams, the New Orleans Saints will attempt to win eight straight games in consecutive seasons for the first time in franchise history and maintain or build on their one-game NFC South Division lead over Carolina when they travel to Paul Brown Stadium to face the Cincinnati Bengals on Sunday at Noon (CT).

New Orleans left the Mercedes-Benz Superdome on Sunday in a contest that wasn't in hand until RB Alvin Kamara grinded out a first down on a fourth down play. New Orleans is now riding the eighth winning streak of at least seven games in franchise record books. The Saints (7-1), Rams (8-1) and Kansas City Chiefs are the only teams with one loss entering week 10.

WR Michael Thomas enjoyed the most productive performance of his career Sunday, as he caught 12 passes for a franchise-record 211 yards (17.6 avg.) with a fourth quarter career-long 72-yard touchdown to give the Saints a 45-35 lead. Thomas has recorded 70 receptions for 880 yards with five TDs, ranked second in the NFL in receiving.

The Saints run game powered by RBs Mark Ingram and Alvin Kamara enjoyed a productive day, as they ran for 141 yards on 34 carries (4.1 avg.). Kamara carried 19 times for 82 yards and two touchdowns and added four receptions for 34 yards and a TD in the passing game, as he had his third, three-touchdown performance of 2018. The second-year back's ranked third in the NFL with 12 TDs and seventh in total yards from scrimmage (917).

QB Drew Brees enjoyed another standout performance, completing 25-of-36 passes for 346 yards with four touchdowns, zero interceptions and a 137.0 rating, tossing for four scores for the first time since 2016. Los Angeles tied the contest at 35 apiece early in the fourth quarter, but Brees led the Saints on a nine-play, 40-yard drive, highlighted by a key third down conversion on an 18-yard throw to Thomas that set up a 54-yard field goal by K Wil Lutz. When the Saints defense forced a punt, three plays later, Brees tossed the 72-yard touchdown to Thomas. In 2018, Brees has completed 213-of-279 (76.3%) passes for 2,336 yards with 18 touchdowns, only one interception and a 120.6 passer rating. He's ranked first in the NFL in completion percentage, rating and third down passer rating (120.9).

While the Saints defense faced an explosive offense, they continued their success against the run, as they held the Rams offense to 92 yards rushing, not allowing an opponent to reach the century mark for the seventh straight contest. New Orleans is ranked first in the NFL in both opponent rushing yards per game (76.4) and opponent net yards per rush (3.4). LB Demario Davis had a club-best seven stops to up his team-high season total to 62.

With Cincinnati going into Sunday's contest with a 5-3 record, this will be the fifth straight opponent that the Saints will face with a winning record, as so far the Black and Gold have successfully navigated a challenging schedule.

In The NFC South This Week: The Carolina Panthers (6-2) will travel to the Pittsburgh Steelers (5-2-1) in another key interconference matchup. The Atlanta Falcons (4-4) play at the Cleveland Browns (2-5-1) and Tampa Bay (3-5) hosts Washington (5-3).

THE COACHES

New Orleans Saints Head Coach Sean Payton has posted a 119-77 overall record (.607), including a 7-5 postseason mark (.583) after the franchise had won only one playoff game prior to his arrival. Payton holds both the club's top win total and winning percentage. He continues to represent the Saints as the model of stability not only within the NFC South, as he is the longest tenured head coach within the division, but also among the most accomplished within the National Football League. Only New England's Bill Belichick (2000), Cincinnati's Marvin Lewis (2003) and Green Bay's Mike McCarthy (hired one week prior to Payton in 2006) have been with their teams longer. Payton is also one of just eight active coaches to lead a team to a Super Bowl victory. The others are Belichick, Seattle's Pete Carroll, Oakland's Jon Gruden (Tampa Bay in 2002), Baltimore's John Harbaugh, McCarthy, Philadelphia's Doug Pederson and Pittsburgh's Mike Tomlin. The 2018 Saints have posted a 6-1 record and currently sit atop the NFC South through Week Eight. The 2017 Saints squad yielded an 11-5 regular season record, producing their first playoff berth since 2013, behind a squad led by quarterback Drew Brees offensively and defensive end Cameron Jordan defensively, this team featured seven players selected to the Pro Bowl, tied for the most in club history and four draft picks selected to the PFWA All-Rookie Team, two more than any other club. With running back Alvin Kamara and cornerback Marshon Lattimore, the 2017 Saints were the first team to have both the Associated Press NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year and Defensive Rookie of the Year since 1967. The Saints defense saw improvement in virtually every major statistical category. New Orleans moved up ten spots in total defense, including from 32nd to 15th against the pass. After ranking 31st in opponent points per game in 2016, New Orleans moved up to tenth in 2017, surrendering only 20.4 points per game. Payton earned a bachelor's degree in communications at Eastern Illinois, where as a quarterback he had 10,665 passing yards, at the time the third-highest total in NCAA Division I-AA history. Payton was inducted into the Eastern Illinois Hall of Fame in September of 2000 and had his jersey retired in a ceremony in September of 2010. He received an honorary doctorate from his alma mater in 2013. Payton was born December 29, 1963 in San Mateo, Calif., and raised in Naperville, Ill., Payton has a daughter, Meghan and a son, Connor.

Marvin Lewis is 130-115 in the regular season since becoming the Bengals' head coach in 2003 and he is currently the league's second-longest tenured head coach behind Belichick. After leading the Bengals to the playoffs in five consecutive seasons from 2011-15, Cincinnati has missed the postseason the last two campaigns. But he has them primed to return in 2018 with a 5-3 mark. Lewis was named the ninth head coach in Bengals history on January 14, 2003. The McDonald, Pa. native served as the Washington Redskins' defensive coordinator and assistant head coach in 2002, after spending six seasons (1996-2001) as defensive coordinator with the Baltimore Ravens, which included a Super Bowl victory in the 2000 season, when his defense set the NFL record for fewest points in a 16-game campaign (165).

SERIES HISTORY

The Bengals lead the all-time series over the Saints 7-6 entering Sunday's matchup. The teams first faced off in 1970, as the Saints lost 26-6 at Cincinnati. They did not meet again for five years, when the two teams christened the Superdome for the first regular season game, a 21-0 Bengals win. Three years later, the Saints recorded their first win against Cincinnati, a 17-7 home win. The two clubs split their next meetings, while the Saints won the next three. The Bengals then captured three straight until New Orleans broke the skid in 2010. The Bengals defeated the Saints 27-10 at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome on November 16, 2014. Five of the games in the series have been decided by a touchdown or less. A look back at the results between the Saints and Bengals in the previous 13 meetings between the clubs:

LAST MEETING

Cincinnati Bengals 27, Saints 10; Nov. 16, 2014 @ Mercedes-Benz Superdome – Cincinnati converted nine-of-13 third down attempts (69%) and New Orleans were hurt by the failure to convert and make stops in key situations on offense and defense

The Saints had taken a 3-0 lead after K Shayne Graham booted a 31-yard field goal upon getting the ball first, but the Bengals responded with 20 unanswered points, while holding the Saints scoreless in the second and third quarters. QB Drew Brees moved New Orleans to within 10 on a nine-yard pass to WR Kenny Stills, but Cincinnati quickly shut the door on a 24-yard touchdown connection between QB Andy Dalton and WR A.J. Green.

Brees completed 33 of 41 passes for 255 yards with a touchdown pass and a 100.7 passer rating. RB Mark Ingram had 97 total yards from scrimmage, including a career-high seven receptions. WR Marques Colston had a team-high 56 yards receiving on four grabs.

Dalton completed 16 of 22 passes for 220 yards with three touchdown passes and a 143.9 passer rating. Green recorded six catches for 127 yards with one touchdown while TE Jermain Gresham added two scoring grabs. Bengals RB Jeremy Hill rushed 27 times for 152 yards including a 62-yard run at the end of the second quarter to set up a field goal with one second left.

HONORS

NFC OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK
WEEK 3: QB DREW Brees

New Orleans Saints 43, Atlanta Falcons 37 @ Mercedes-Benz Stadium, Sept. 23, 2018

Completed 39-of-49 passes for 396 yards, two touchdowns and two rushing touchdowns tying his single-game career high. Became the only player to have 350 passing yards, three touchdown passes, two rushing touchdowns and zero interceptions in a contest. With 396 yards passing, Brees recorded his 104th 300-yard game as a Saint, 111th overall. With his career-high tying 39 completions, Brees surpassed Brett Favre (6,300) and is now the NFL's all-time leader in completions.

NFC DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK
WEEK 4: LB DEMARIO DAVIS

New Orleans Saints 33, New York Giants 18 @ MetLife Stadium, Sept. 30, 2018

Started at weakside linebacker and recorded a team-high 11 tackles (nine solo), his highest total and solo total as a

Saint so far and tied a career-high with two sacks for loss of 17 yards.

NFC SPECIAL TEAMS PLAYER OF THE MONTH
SEPTEMBER: K WIL LUTZ

Lutz drilled 10-of-11 field goals, all 11 PAT attempts and had 17 of his kickoffs sail into the end zone for touchbacks as he led the NFL in scoring (41 points) through Week Four. Lutz has made his last eight field goal attempts.

FEDEX GROUND PLAYER OF THE WEEK
WEEK 4: RB Alvin Kamara

New Orleans Saints 33, New York Giants 18 @ MetLife Stadium, Sept. 30, 2018

Started and carried a career-high 19 times for a career-high 134 yards with a career-high three touchdowns and added five receptions for 47 yards for 181 total yards from scrimmage. Became only the third Saint in franchise history to have 180+ total yards from scrimmage games in back-to-back weeks.

FEDEX AIR PLAYER OF THE WEEK
NFC OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK
WEEK 5: QB DREW Brees

New Orleans Saints 43, Washington Redskins 19 @ Mercedes-Benz Stadium, Oct. 8, 2018

Completed 26-of-29 passes for 363 yards, three touchdowns, zero interceptions and a 153.2 passer rating. With 363 yards passing, Brees recorded his 105th 300-yard game as a Saint, 112th overall. Had a career-high 89.7% completion percentage. With his second quarter 62-yard touchdown pass to rookie wide receiver Tre'Quan Smith, Brees surpassed former Indianapolis Colts and Denver Broncos quarterback Peyton Manning to become the NFL's all-time passing yardage leader, finishing the contest with 72,103 career passing yards.

NFC DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK
WEEK 8: CB P.J. Williams

New Orleans Saints 30, Minnesota Vikings 10 @ U.S. Bank Stadium, Oct. 28, 2018

Williams' third quarter 45-yard interception return for a touchdown, the first touchdown of his NFL career, gave New Orleans a 27-13 lead in the contest. This is Williams' first NFC Defensive Player of the Week award the second by a Saint this season, joining LB Demario Davis in Week 4. It is the first time two different Saints defenders have captured the honor since 2009.

GAME SUMMARIES

WEEK 1: Tampa Bay Buccaneers 48, New Orleans Saints 40; September 9, 2018 @ Mercedes-Benz Superdome – The New Orleans Saints' 2018 regular season got off to a disappointing start as the Tampa Bay Buccaneers took a 48-40 victory at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

Trailing by 24 points in the fourth quarter, the Saints rallied behind two Alvin Kamara touchdowns, a one-yard run and a seven-yard pass from quarterback Drew Brees. The Saints converted two-point plays on both touchdowns. But Tampa was able to run out the clock to claim the road victory.

Ryan Fitzpatrick, filling in for suspended starting quarterback Jameis Winston, had one of the most productive games of his career, passing for 417 yards and four touchdowns while rushing for another. Wide receivers Mike Evans (seven catches for 147 yards, one touchdown) and DeSean Jackson (five catches for 146 yards, two touchdowns) did the most damage as the Saints defense didn't force its first punt until 7:42 was remaining in the third quarter. The Saints offense kept up for the first half - scoring 24 points - but sputtered at the start of the second half with two punts and a lost fumble (wide receiver Michael Thomas) on the first three possessions. In the first half Bucs returned running back Mike Gillislee's fumble 34 yards for a score.

Thomas' fumble was the lone miscue in a record-setting performance as the third-year receiver from Ohio State had 16 catches for 180 yards and one six-yard touchdown. He set the team's single-game receptions record and was the highest receptions total on NFL kickoff weekend all-time. It was his fourth 100-yard game and he moved past 200 career receptions.

The Bucs finished with 529 yards of offense while the Saints had 475.

WEEK 2: New Orleans Saints 21, Cleveland Browns 18; September 16, 2018 @ Mercedes-Benz Superdome – The New Orleans Saints earned their first win of the 2018 season with a 21-18 come-from-behind victory over the Cleveland Browns at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

After the two clubs traded field goals in the first quarter, Cleveland kicker Zane Gonzalez kicked a 39-yard field goal with 1:55 left in the second quarter to give the Browns a 6-3 lead going into halftime.

To open up the second half, the Cleveland defense forced a three-and-out. Browns quarterback Tyrod Taylor then led them on a 12-play, 79-yard drive that ended with a one-yard touchdown run by running back Carlos Hyde to take a 12-3 lead following a missed extra point attempt.

New Orleans' offensive struggles continued as a promising drive that had the Saints at third-and-one at the Cleveland 40-yard line was derailed when Brees was sacked by Larry Ogunjobi for a ten-yard loss to be forced to punt.

Cleveland advanced to the New Orleans 26-yard line on the subsequent drive that entered into the fourth quarter, but a 44-yard field goal attempt by Gonzalez went wide left. The Saints got the ball back at their 34-yard line and Brees engineered a nine-play, 66-yard drive that ended with a two-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Michael Thomas that put the Saints within two. The two clubs then traded three-and-outs, but safety Marcus Williams picked off Taylor at the Cleveland 40 and returned it 22 yards to the 18-yard line. Four plays later, Brees connected with Thomas for a five-yard touchdown with a successful two-point conversion rush by running back Alvin Kamara to give the Saints an 18-12 lead. The Browns answered when Taylor connected with wide receiver Andrew Callaway on a 47-yard touchdown, but Gonzalez's extra point attempt went wide left. Brees and the Saints got the ball back and he led them down the field to set up a game-winning Wil Lutz 44-yard field goal with 21 seconds left.

WEEK 3: New Orleans Saints 43, Atlanta Falcons 37; September 23, 2018 @ Mercedes-Benz Stadium – The Saints improved to 2-1 with this overtime victory at Atlanta, with QB Drew Brees becoming the NFL's completions leader, passing for 396 yards and tossing three touchdowns and running for two more, one a fourth quarter seven-yard rush in the fourth quarter, the second a dramatic quarterback sneak to end overtime. RB Alvin Kamara and WR Michael Thomas also had monster performances, backed by a stout offensive line, DE Cameron Jordan had two sacks and special teams made a significant contribution with a blocked punt.

With their first offensive drive at their 25-yard line to start, the Saints marched 75 yards in six plays, with Brees connecting with WR Ted Ginn Jr. on a four-yard touchdown pass. Atlanta responded on their second possession of the contest with an 18-yard touchdown connection from QB Matt Ryan to WR Calvin Ridley.

K Wil Lutz booted a pair of second quarter field goals, but Ryan gave Atlanta a 14-13 lead when he connected with Ridley on a 75-yard touchdown. But New Orleans took advantage of a late possession at their 42 and Brees completed quick throws to Kamara and TE Benjamin Watson to set up a 45-yard Lutz field goal to give New Orleans a 16-14 lead at halftime.

Atlanta got the ball coming out of the half and they took the lead back on a nine-yard touchdown connection between Ryan and Ridley. Midway through the third quarter, DE Alex Okafor blocked a punt by Falcons P Matt Bosher and LB Craig Robertson recovered the ball at the Falcons 16-yard line. Four plays later, Brees completed an 11-yard touchdown to WR Cameron Meredith.

Three plays into the final quarter, RB Tevin Coleman capped a 12-play, 82-yard with a five-yard TD reception followed by a successful two-point conversion to give the Falcons a six-point lead. But the Saints put together a lengthy drive, with Brees finding FB Zach Line for a one-yard touchdown. Ryan's five-yard touchdown pass to WR Mohamed Sanu and a two-point conversion gave Atlanta a seven-point lead, but the Saints marched 81 yards in 11 plays and Brees had a seven-yard rush for a touchdown to tie the score. CONTINUED ON NEXT PAGE

New Orleans took the opening kickoff of overtime and drove 80 yards, the game ending with the one-yard quarterback sneak by Brees.

Thomas had ten receptions for 129 yards. Kamara had a career-high 190 total yards from scrimmage with 16 carries for 66 yards and a career-best 15 receptions for 124 yards. Adding in 16 punt return yards, the workhorse on offense and special teams finished with 206 all-purpose yards. Jordan led an inspired effort by the defense with two sacks.

WEEK 4: New Orleans Saints 33, New York Giants 18; September 30, 2018 @ MetLife Stadium – The Saints posted an impressive victory against the Giants behind a powerful running game and an outstanding run-stopping effort.

The Giants scored on their first offensive drive, taking a 7-0 lead on a two-yard touchdown connection between QB Eli Manning and WR Sterling Shepard.

When the Saints got the ball back, QB Drew Brees engineered a 15-play, 51-yard drive that ended with a Wil Lutz 42-yard field goal on the first play of the second quarter, the first of four successful kicks in the quarter to give the Saints a 12-7 halftime lead. The Saints defense then proceeded to clamp down on the Giants offense as they allowed only 65 rushing yards, fumbles were forced by DT Tyler Davison and CB P.J. Williams and recovered by CB Marshon Lattimore and DL Taylor Stallworth, while Manning was sacked three times, the defense allowing him to average only 5.3 yards per attempt..

QB Drew Brees completed 18 of 32 passes for 217 yards as the Saints ran up 170 yards on the ground. RB Alvin Kamara carried 19 times for a career-high 134 yards (7.1 avg) and three touchdowns. In the passing game, Kamara also led the team in receiving with five grabs for 47 yards, for a game-high total of 181 total yards from scrimmage. TE Josh Hill added three receptions for a team-high 63 yards.

LB Demario Davis led the New Orleans pass rush with two sacks and added a team-high 11 tackles, while Davison added a quarterback takedown and forced fumble in the fourth quarter. Lattimore's fumble return was for 37 yards as New Orleans finished +2 in turnover ratio, not giving away the football.

- The Saints held the Giants to 299 net yards, the first time this season they have held an opponent to under 300 yards. Surrendering only 44 yards rushing to Giants RB Saquon Barkley, New Orleans has not allowed an opposing running back to reach the century mark for their last ten regular season games.

- With a career-high 134 yards rushing and 181 total yards from scrimmage, Graham had the third back-to-back 180-yard games by a New Orleans player, joining RBs Rueben Mayes (1986-two straight) and Deuce McAllister (2003-three straight).

- Davis' two sacks were the second time in his seven-year career that he has posted more than one quarterback takedown, but his first as a Saint.

- The victory improved New Orleans' all-time record vs. New York to 14-16, giving the Saints their first win at MetLife Stadium.

- With the Saints having now won their last three games, New Orleans has enjoyed their 13th win streak of at least three contests since Sean Payton became head coach in 2006.

WEEK 5: New Orleans Saints 43, Washington Redskins 19; October 8, 2018 @ Mercedes-Benz Superdome –

The Saints won their fourth consecutive game in a standout Monday night performance on both offense and defense, which also saw quarterback Drew Brees become the National Football League's all-time passing yardage leader.

The Saints first jumped out to a 6-0 first quarter lead on their first drive of the contest when running back Mark Ingram, returning from a four-game suspension had a two-yard rushing touchdown. Carolina got on the board when kicker Dustin Hopkins drilled a 37-yard field goal at the end of the first quarter.

The Saints jumped out to a commanding 26-6 lead when Ingram rushed for a one-yard touchdown and Brees and Smith connected on the record-setting touchdown with 2:36 left in the second quarter. The Redskins cut the halftime deficit to 26-13 when they converted a fumble by wide receiver Cameron Meredith into a four-yard touchdown run by quarterback Alex Smith.

Getting the ball first at the start of the second half, Brees connected with Smith on a 35-yard touchdown. Smith was then picked off by Saints defensive back Justin Hardee, seeing the first regular season defensive action of his two-year NFL career and the interception was returned 77 yards to set up a one-yard touchdown run by quarterback Taysom Hill to extend New Orleans' lead to 40-13. A third quarter Washington fumble set up a 44-yard field goal by kicker Wil Lutz.

Brees completed 26-of-28 passes for 363 yards with three touchdowns, zero interceptions and a 153.2 passer rating as his 89.7 completion percentage set a career-high. Smith finished with three receptions for a game-high 111 yards.

- Safety Vonn Bell led the Saints with eight tackles (seven solo) and one pass defensed, while defensive end Marcus Davenport, defensive end Cameron Jordan and defensive tackle Sheldon Rankins each recorded sacks with Davenport forcing a fumble.

- Smith's 62-yard reception on the record-setting play from Brees was the longest catch by a Saints rookie since a 76-yard scoring grab by wide receiver Kenny Stills in 2013.

- After recording a sack in the contest, Smith become the 27th quarterback that Jordan has dropped in the regular season in his eight-year career.

- The victory improved New Orleans' all-time record vs. Washington to 10-17, giving the Saints back-to-back home wins over the Redskins for the first time.

GAME SUMMARIES

WEEK 7: New Orleans Saints 24, Baltimore Ravens 23; October 21, 2018 @ M&T Bank Stadium – Quarterback Drew Brees helped New Orleans rebound from a 17-7 fourth quarter deficit as he led the Saints on three drives that produced 17 points including two touchdowns against Baltimore defense that had not allowed an opponent into the end zone in the second half all season. New Orleans captured their fifth consecutive contest.

Brees completed 22-of-30 passes for 212 yards with two touchdowns, zero interceptions and a 114.9 passer rating as his second quarter one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Benjamin Watson marked his 500th career scoring throw. With the win, Brees has now defeated all 32 National Football League teams, becoming the third signal-caller to do so and Head Coach Sean Payton has defeated all 31 opponents. Wide receiver Michael Thomas led New Orleans in receiving with seven grabs for 69 yards, including a fourth quarter five-yard touchdown grab to put New Orleans up 21-17.

- Linebacker A.J. Klein sparkled with a team-high seven tackles as he led a run-stopping effort that gave up only 77 yards rushing and surrendered only a 3.3 yards per carry clip.

WEEK 8: New Orleans Saints 30, Minnesota Vikings 20; October 28, 2018 @ U.S. Bank Stadium – The New Orleans Saints improved to 6-1 after defeating the Minnesota Vikings in Minnesota on Sunday Night Football by a score of 30-20. New Orleans jumped out to a 7-0 lead after quarterback Drew Brees found running back Alvin Kamara in the first quarter on a three-yard pass, which was then matched by the Vikings when quarterback Kirk Cousins completed a one-yard touchdown to wide receiver Stefon Diggs.

Early in the second quarter, the Vikings took a 13-7 lead on a one-yard run by running back Latavius Murray followed up by a failed extra point. Kicker Will Lutz then connected on a 52-yard field goal to put New Orleans within three. With 1:11 left in the first half, linebacker Alex Anzalone caused a fumble by the Vikings' Adam Thielen that was returned by cornerback Marshon Lattimore 53 yards. Kamara punched in a one-yard touchdown two plays later that gave the Saints a 17-13 halftime lead..

Lutz made his second field goal of the night early in the third to bring the score to 20-13 and on Minnesota's next possession the lead was extended to 27-13 on a 45-yard interception return for a touchdown by cornerback P.J. Williams, which would earn him NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors.

In the fourth quarter, Lutz drilled a second 42-yard kick. Minnesota made a TD drive late while the Saints defense had switched to a prevent mode to set up a finale score of 30-20.

- Quarterback Drew Brees threw a first half interception, which was his first pick after he went 264 regular season pass attempts over a nine-game period without one.

WEEK 9: New Orleans Saints 45, Los Angeles Rams 35; November 4, 2018 @ Mercedes-Benz Superdome – Despite a furious second half rally by the Rams, where they came back from an 18-point halftime deficit and tied the score at 35 apiece early in the fourth quarter, the Saints scored the last ten points of the contest as the improved to 7-1 and extended their winning streak to seven contests.

The Saints took charge from the start in the contest when on their first offensive drive they marched down the field in ten plays, ending with a 11-yard touchdown by running back Alvin Kamara. The Rams would quickly strike back when running back Todd Gurley rushed for an eight-yard score. The Saints struck back when quarterback Drew Brees found Kamara for a 16-yard score on a screen. Los Angeles knotted the score back up at the start of the second quarter when quarterback Jared Goff found wide receiver Brandin Cooks for a four-yard touchdown.

On the next play from scrimmage, running back Mark Ingram lost a fumble, but the Saints defense and special teams backed the runner up when on a fourth down fake field goal attempt, linebacker Craig Robertson stopped holder Johnny Hekker short of the first down marker. The Saints would then score 21 unanswered points in the second quarter to take a 35-17 halftime lead as they set an NFL record with 24 first half, first downs.

Goff led a furious second half rally, engineering drives for two touchdowns and one field goal to tie the score. However Brees found wide receiver Michael Thomas for an 18-yard third down completion to set up a field goal and on New Orleans' next drive, the duo connected on a 72-yard touchdown.

The Saints outgained the Rams 487 yards to 483, but New Orleans scoring a touchdown following an interception in the first half and forcing the first three-and-out of the contest in the fourth quarter made for the slim difference. Thomas had 12 receptions for a franchise-record 211 yards, the NFL season's highest receiving yardage total, while Brees completed 25-of-36 passes for 346 yards, four touchdowns, zero interceptions and a 137.0 passer rating.

- LB Demario Davis led the Saints defense with seven tackles.

- Kamara scored three touchdowns for the third time this season, carrying 19 times for a game-high 82 yards with two rushing scores and catching four passes for 34 yards and a 16-yard scoring grab.

- This was New Orleans' second win against their former NFC West rivals in the past three seasons, as they haven't lost to the Rams in the Mercedes-Benz Superdome since 2007. The Saints now trail the Rams 41-33 in the all-time regular season series

- One week after earning NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors when he returned an interception 45 yards for a touchdown at Minnesota, cornerback P.J. Williams started in the nickel and had a career-high three passes defended.

UP NEXT FOR THE SAINTS

Following the road contest against the Bengals, New Orleans will return home to the Mercedes-Benz Superdome to face the Philadelphia Eagles (4-4) in a 3:25 p.m. CT contest televised on FOX (WVUE-FOX 8 locally) against the defending Super Bow champions. The Eagles lead the regular season series 16-11, while New Orleans has captured two of three playoff meetings. On October 11, 2015 in the last meeting between the clubs, the Saints fell to the Eagles 39-17 at Lincoln Financial Field. It will be the third straight season the Saints will host defending champs.

TEAM NOTESFAMILY TIES

Numerous New Orleans Saints players, coaches and player personnel department staffers are not the only members of their families to make a name for themselves in professional football. No fewer than 16 Saints players, coaches or front office personnel have relatives who have played, coached or served in the front office in the National Football League.

Defensive Coordinator Dennis Allen - late father, Grady, played linebacker for the Atlanta Falcons from 1968-72.

PAYTON'S PLACE AMONG HEAD COACHES

Sean Payton has had an impressive run as head coach of the New Orleans Saints for the last 13 seasons.

- The Saints clinched the 2017 NFC South title, earning their fourth division title under Payton after winning only two prior to his hiring.
- Payton the highest winning percentage (.607) and most wins (119) among the 16 Saints head coaches, also ranked 35th all-time in National Football League record books.

Ahead is a synopsis of several returning players and newcomers through the draft, free agency and trade to the 2018 Saints offensive line:

Left tackle Terron Armstead - The club's first third round draft choice in 2013 out of Arkansas-Pine Bluff, Armstead impressed scouts by running the fastest 40-yard dash time (4.71) by an offensive lineman in the history of the NFL Scouting Combine. He has opened 53 regular season games for New Orleans and four postseason contests and is a prime candidate for his first Pro Bowl selection in 2018, having opened all eight contests.

Tackle/guard Jermon Bushrod - A fourth round selection in the 2007 NFL Draft out of Towson, Bushrod developed into a starting left tackle by his third season and opened 62 regular season contests at left tackle. Bushrod returns to serve as a top backup off the bench.

Tackle/guard Andrus Peat - A first round selection (13th overall) in the 2015 NFL Draft out of Stanford, Peat was considered one of the top college offensive linemen in 2014. In his final season in Palo Alto as a junior, Peat started all 13 games at left tackle and was named a first-team All-American by ESPN.com, The Sporting News and SI.com and received second-team honors from the Associated Press. In his first three seasons, Peat has played in 43 games with 38 starts, opening a contest at every position except center. In 2017, Peat took a massive step forward, opening 15 contests at left guard and left tackle, also opening the NFC Divisional Playoff at left guard. Headed into his fourth season, Peat made his 2018 debut in the Sept. 16 win over Cleveland. Peat possesses both a veteran's experience and youthful athleticism, making him a key to the Saints' future success.

Right tackle Ryan Ramczyk - The Black and Gold used their second first round selection in the 2017 NFL Draft to snag Ramczyk out of the University of Wisconsin, viewed by many as one of the best linemen in the entire draft. The 6-6, 314 lb. tackle moved from Division III Wisconsin-Stevens Point to Wisconsin, and in just one season with the Badgers, he flourished. Ramczyk started all 14 games in 2016 and was a consensus All-American, blocking for an offense that gained 203.1 rushing yards per game and allowing just one sack. Ramczyk figures to make an immediate impact in year two in holding down the right side following after opening all 16 games and both postseason contests in 2017 and being selected as a PFWA All-Rookie.

Center Max Unger - After being acquired by the Saints via trade in the 2015 offseason, Max Unger has anchored the middle of the line for the past four seasons, starting all 55 contests he's appeared in at center and serving as a three-time team captain. A second round draft pick of the Seattle Seahawks in 2009, Unger has been named an AP first-team All-Pro in 2012 and is a two-time Pro Bowler. The Hawaii native's opened all 121 regular season contests he has played in since 2009.

Right guard Larry Warford - Originally selected by Detroit in the third round of the 2013 NFL Draft (65th overall) out of Kentucky, this sixth-year blocker brought size, strength and foot quickness to the Saints' line in 2017, as he started all 14 regular season games and both postseason contests at right guard. New Orleans' rush offense responded to his addition, as the ground game finished fifth in the National Football League as he was named to the Pro Bowl for the first time in his career.

Center/guard Cameron Tom - Signed as an undrafted free agent out of Southern Mississippi in 2017, this Baton Rouge native and former Catholic High School standout was elevated from the practice squad to 53-man roster midway through his rookie year. Tom's development came into play on Oct. 21 at Baltimore, where he was sent into the lineup at left guard in place of an injured Josh LeRibeus in New Orleans' come-from-behind victory.

Center/guard Will Clapp - A technically proficient player, who through the combination of size, strength and intelligence, was a three-year starter on the LSU offensive line, starting all 36 games that he appeared in (13 at center, 12 at left guard, 11 at right guard), earning first-team All-SEC honors at guard and center. Blocking for 1,000-yard rushers in each of his three college seasons, Clapp settled in at center in 2017, where he was a first-team All-SEC selection and a Rimington Trophy finalist.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

DEFENSIVE DRAFTS

Over the last four NFL Drafts from 2015-18, New Orleans has shown a commitment to improving the defense, spending 17-of-28 picks on that side of the ball. With nine picks in the 2015 NFL Draft, the Saints picked six defensive players, the most taken since New Orleans chose nine defensive players in a 12-round selection meeting in 1990. Below is an overview of the players selected by New Orleans from 2015-18 on the 53-man roster:

Linebacker Alex Anzalone, Florida (D3b-17) - A 6-3, 241 lb. linebacker, Anzalone showcased plenty of potential at the University of Florida. As a senior in 2016, he started the first eight contests for the Gators until a broken forearm prematurely ended his final campaign in Gainesville. Despite the shortened season, Anzalone still ranked third on the team with 53 tackles and racked up three sacks and one fumble recovery. The three-time SEC Academic Honor Roll recipient plays with both physicality and intelligence and made an immediate impact as a starter on the outside from day one in 2017 where he recorded 14 tackles, one sack and one pass defended for being placed on Injured Reserve in Week Five. Anzalone has started three contests on the inside and the outside in 2018, posting 24 tackles (17 solo), one interception, two passes defended and one forced fumble.

Safety Vonn Bell, Ohio State (D2b-16) - Selected in the second round (61st overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft, Bell was a consensus All-American and one of the top rated defensive backs in the NFL Draft. As a senior, the Rossville, Ga. native was a Jim Thorpe Award semifinalist after recording 65 tackles and adding two interceptions, one brought back for a touchdown, one fumble recovery and 11 passes defended. Bell has translated that collegiate success to the NFL with ease in his first three seasons, appearing in 40 games with 28 starts and filling up the stat sheet with 211 tackles (145 solo), 5.5 sacks, ten passes defended, four forced fumbles and one fumble recovery.

Defensive end Marcus Davenport, Texas-San Antonio (D1-18) - Davenport joined the Saints with the 14th overall pick in the 2018 NFL Draft after showing potential and production as a pass rusher during his college career at Texas-San Antonio. In four college seasons, Davenport posted 22 sacks, including 8.5 in 2017 when he captured Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year honors. Davenport's strength on the line should be a valuable asset for the Saints front in the future, playing an important role in the club's packages in 2018, recording four sacks and one forced fumble, including a two-takedown performance in the Oct. 28 win at Minnesota. Davenport's takedown total is currently tied for second among NFL rookies.

Defensive tackle Tyeler Davison, Fresno State (D5b-15)

- This run-stopping widebody defensive lineman played in 53 career games at Fresno State from 2011-14 and made 28.5 stops for a loss and 14.5 sacks. After moving into the starting lineup in 2016, Davison continued to improve in 2017, with his 31 tackles (21 solo), one pass defended and two forced fumbles not showing his true value as a run-stopper. In the postseason, he added nine tackles and one sack. Davison has played an important role in the middle on a defense that is ranked first in opponent yards per game and in opponent yards per carry, posting ten stops, one sack and one fumble recovery.

Defensive end Trey Hendrickson, Florida Atlantic (D3c-17) - This former third round draft choice in the 2017 NFL Draft (103rd overall) out of Florida Atlantic brought his raw talent, size, strength and speed to a youthful Saints defensive line. In his first season as a pro the rotational pass rusher appeared in 14 regular season games posting 14 tackles (eight solo), two sacks for 15 yards lost, two passes defended and one forced fumble.

Cornerback Marshon Lattimore, Ohio State (D1a-17)

The 11th overall selection in the 2017 NFL draft and the first corner taken possesses all the traits of a lockdown defender. With his agile, fluid style, Lattimore has the ability to shut down the best wide receivers. He played a critical role in the Black and Gold pass defense unit as a rookie in 2017, as he moved into the starting lineup immediately. In October, he became the first Saints rookie since 2000 to capture NFL Defensive Rookie of the Month, when he had 16 tackles, two interceptions, one returned for a touchdown, five passes defended and a fumble recovery and also captured the award in December. For the season, he finished with 53 stops, five picks, to lead NFL rookies and the Saints, tying a team rookie record, a club-best 18 passes defended, a forced fumble and a recovery. Lattimore was the first Saints corner selected to the Pro Bowl since 1995 and was selected as Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year. His two defensive fumble recoveries in 2018 lead the team and are tied for second in the NFL, while his 91 yards of returns lead the league..

Defensive tackle David Onyemata, Manitoba (D4-16)

Possessing a unique combination of size and speed, this Lagos, Nigeria native had an impressive rookie year after becoming the first player from the University of Manitoba to be drafted into the National Football League. Despite being extraordinarily new to the sport of football, the 2016 fourth round draft pick became a critical member on the interior of the Saints defensive front in 2017, playing in all 16 games for the second consecutive season with six starts, making 40 tackles and two sacks, while adding three more stops in the postseason. In 2018, he's played in all eight games with four starts, posting 17 stops (12 solo).

Defensive tackle Sheldon Rankins, Louisville (D1-16)

- Selected 12th overall in the first round of the 2016 NFL Draft, the Georgia native played in 46 games along the line at Louisville from 2012-15, producing 133 total tackles (72 solo), 31.5 tackles for loss and 18 sacks. On Nov. 12, 2017, Rankins recorded his first career interception. In the week 15 win vs. Atlanta, he closed out the contest with a sack. In the NFC Divisional Playoff at Minnesota, Rankins added his first career postseason takedown. In 2018, Rankins is tied for second on the Saints with four sacks after a career-high two-takedown performance in the Oct. 28 win over Minnesota. Overall Rankins has posted 21 stops (13 solo).

Safety Marcus Williams, Utah (D2-17) - A three-year starter at Utah, Williams was twice named All-Pac 12 and earned second-team All-American as a junior before declaring for the NFL Draft. In 2016, he tied for second in the conference with five interceptions, despite missing two games due to injury. The defender boasts a dangerous mix of speed, fluidity, and instinct that allows him to read offenses and make breaks on the ball. His athleticism showed in his rookie season in 2017 as he made 70 tackles, four interceptions and six passes defended in 15 regular season games, adding ten more stops (seven solo) and another pick in two postseason contests. In the Sept. 16 win over Cleveland, Williams recorded a key fourth quarter pick. In 2018, he has posted 27 tackles (22 solo), the Week Two pick, two passes defended and two special teams stops.

Cornerback P.J. Williams, Florida State (D3b-15) - Williams' career was limited in the beginning by missing all but two games his first two seasons with various injuries, but rebounded from the adversity early in his career to come on strong in 2017, when he played in all 16 regular season games and both postseason contests. An experienced starter from Florida State, who developed into one of the nation's top cover corners as a junior in 2014, Williams finished his college career with 123 tackles (82 solo), four interceptions and 18 passes defended. Williams finished with 47 tackles, his first two career interceptions and nine passes defended in 2017, while adding 28 more stops (22 solo), one 45-yard interception for a touchdown, five passes defended and one forced fumble in 2018 while serving primarily in the nickel cornerback role following an ankle injury to Patrick Robinson. Williams is coming off of his finest moment Oct. 28 at Minnesota, when his third quarter interception return for a 45-yard touchdown helped pace the Saints' 30-20 victory earning him NFC Defensive Player of the Week, followed up by a career-high-tying three passes defended in the Rams win on Sunday.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

RUSH DEFENSE

After giving up 4.4 yards per carry in 2017, through the first four games of the 2018 season, New Orleans has reduced that clip by a full yard, surrendering only 3.4 rushing yards per attempt to ranked first in the NFL.

OPPONENT RUSHING YARDS PER CARRY IN 2018

| Team | Opp. Yards/Carry |
|---------|------------------|
| 1. NO | 3.39 |
| 2. Dal. | 3.55 |
| 3. Hou. | 3.60 |

In total rush defense, the Saints have given up only 76.4 net yards per game in 2018, ranked first in the NFL after giving up 129.4 per game in 2017. In Sunday's win vs. the Rams, the Saints gave up only 92 rushing yards.

| 2. Phi. | 83.8 |
| 3. Chi. | 84.9 |

STOPPING THE RUN

The Saints have produced their most impressive run-stopping effort in several seasons through the last seven games, all wins. The club has not surrendered 100 rushing yards to an opponent since the season opener vs. Tampa Bay, Sept. 10. The Saints have not held an opponent to under this marking point for seven consecutive games since the 1991 season. If they hold Cincinnati to under 100 yards on November 11, it will be the second-longest streak for holding teams below the century mark for consecutive games. Below are the longest streaks in franchise history that the defense has gone without surrendering 100 yards.

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

JUST KICKING IT

Between deep passes for touchdowns and athletic interceptions, players often use their hands to produce the game's flashiest plays. However, the players who use their feet often make the difference between winning and losing, between drilling clutch field goals or flipping the field with a well-executed punt.

K Wil Lutz went undrafted in 2016, joining the Baltimore Ravens for training camp. Prior to the start of the regular season, Lutz joined the Black and Gold and immediately took on placekicking and kickoff duties. Lutz has kicked in 40 games, converting 75-of-87 field goal attempts (86.2 percent) and 123-of-128 PATS (96.1 percent). He has also recorded 142 touchbacks on 235 career kickoffs. His 86.2 percent field goal percentage is best among kickers with at least 50 made field goals in team history.

In 2018, Lutz has made 16-of-17 field goal attempts, including his last 14, 27-of-28 PAT attempts and has recorded 35 touchbacks.

P Thomas Morstead was the first punter drafted by the Saints since 1984. The club's fifth round draft choice (164th overall) in 2009 from Southern Methodist University, Morstead has been a weapon in the field position game with his strong leg, outstanding placement abilities and booming kickoffs. In ten seasons, he has a gross average of 47.0 on 544 punts with a 41.4 net and 189 punts inside the 20-yard line, while also booming 259 kickoffs in the end zone for touchbacks. Morstead is ranked 13th on the club's all-time games played list with 150 regular season appearances and his consistency has carried over to the 2018 season, where he's averaged a 42.6 net punting average, with seven dropped inside-the-20.

SWISS ARMY KNIFE

New Orleans QB Taysom Hill, in his second year with the club, has brought unheralded versatility to the Saints on both offense and special teams. A participant on every special teams unit except field goal and PAT, as well as a signal-caller, runner and receiver on offense, Hill has averaged 24.4 yards per return on nine kickoff returns, is tied for second on the team with three coverage stops and completed a ten-yard pass on a fake punt in Week Four. In Sunday night's win at Minnesota, returned two kickoffs for 50 yards, caught a pass for gain of five yards and completed a 44-yard pass on offense. Overall in 2018, Hill's carried 23 times for 133 yards, ranked third on the team, with a club best 5.8 average and has completed two of three passes for 54 yards.

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

RETURN TO SENDER

The New Orleans Saints kickoff return game has found juice through several avenues in 2018, led by Hill who brought back a kickoff 47 yards in Week two and has taken over return duties averaging 22.2 yards per return, running back Alvin Kamara recorded a 106-yard kickoff return for a touchdown in Week 17 at the Buccaneers in 2017 the longest play in team history and also has the ability to be a threat in the punt return game to go with his gamebreaking abilities on offense. Below are the three-longest kickoff returns in club records:

LONGEST KICKOFF RETURNS IN NEW ORLEANS SAINTS HISTORY

| Rk. | Player | Yards | Year |
|-----|---------------------|-------------|-------------|
| 1. | Alvin Kamara | 106t | 2017 |
| 2. | Eric Guliford | 102t | 1997 |
| 3. | Mel Gray | 101t | 1986 |

COVERAGE/BLOCK UNITS

New Orleans' coverage units have been led the past two seasons by S Chris Banjo and DB Justin Hardee. Hardee led the team with nine stops and a blocked punt recovered for a touchdown as a rookie in 2017 and Banjo finished with eight tackles and a forced fumble. Hardee leads the team with seven stops with Banjo and Hill tied for second with three apiece. DE Alex Okafor also made a game-changing play at Atlanta, Sept. 23, when his third quarter blocked punt that was recovered by LB Craig Robertson at the Falcons 16-yard line, set up a subsequent New Orleans touchdown. Robertson also made a big play in Sunday's win over Los Angeles when he stopped H Johnny Hecker short of the first down marker on a fake field goal attempt. New Orleans' punt coverage unit ranks fourth in the NFL, surrendering only 5.4 yards per return.

QUARTERBACKS

DREW BREES

• Since signing with the Saints as an unrestricted free agent in 2006 from the San Diego Chargers, quarterback Drew Brees has thrown for 4,000 or more yards in each of his 12 seasons with the club, became the only National Football League signal-caller to throw for 5,000 yards five different times and ranked at or near the top in every passing category.

• Brees is enjoying another standout campaign in 2018, completing 213-of-279 passes (76.3%) for 2,336 yards with 18 touchdowns, only one interception and a 120.6 passer rating. Brees is currently ranked first in the National Football League in completion percentage, passer rating and third down passer rating (120.9) and second in interception percentage and fourth quarter passer rating (129.6), while setting the league's all-time records in both completions and passing yardage.

• Since first signing with New Orleans in 2006 and starting all 198 regular season games he has appeared in, surpassing K Morten Andersen first place in club record books for games played, Brees leads the NFL with 60,433 passing yards, 426 touchdown passes, 7,764 attempts, 5,310 completions, a 68.4% completion percentage, 106 games with at least 300 yards passing, 16 with at least 400 yards passing, 462 completions of 25 yards or more and stands at third in the league with a 100.2 passer rating.

• Brees has been selected to play in a team-record ten Pro Bowls as a member of the Saints, with 11 overall berths in the National Football League's all-star game, twice as a starter, including his most recent selection in 2017. His seven consecutive selections (2008-14) as a Saint is tied for first in club history with Pro Football Hall of Fame tackle William Roaf.

• Brees has posted a 119-79 regular season mark in games he has started since signing with the Saints in 2006. In Week 15 of the 2016 season, Brees earned his 100th regular season victory in a Saints uniform. Including his seven playoff victories, his 126 total wins as a member of the Saints make him the winningest quarterback in team history and the NFL's second-winningest signal-caller since 2006.

• In his 18-year National Football League player career during which he has appeared in 257 regular season games with 256 starts, ranked sixth in National Football League record books for signal-callers, Brees has completed 6,434-of-9,573 passes (67.2%) for 72,781 yards, 506 touchdown passes and a 97.4 passer rating. He's stands as the National Football League's all-time most accurate passer, became the league's recordholder in completions on Sept. 23, the passing yardage leader on Oct. 8, and is ranked third in touchdowns, having tossed his 500th career scoring pass to tight end Benjamin Watson in the October 23 win at Baltimore and passer rating.

• The Saints have been led six times in the postseason behind the arm of Brees, who in the playoffs, has started all 13 games he has appeared in, 12 as a member of the Saints. He has completed 354-of-537 passes (65.9 pct.) for 4,209 yards, 29 touchdown passes, nine interceptions and a 101.6 passer rating, while posting a 7-6 mark, 7-5 as the starting signal-caller for the Saints from 2006-present.

BY THE NUMBERS

3 – NFC Offensive Player of the Month awards won by Brees in his 13-year career in Black and Gold, the most monthly conference awards won by a Saints player in team history.

4 – Brees (2011 and 2012), Dan Marino (Miami in 1984 and 1986) Peyton Manning (Denver in 2013 and Indianapolis in 2014), and Aaron Rodgers (Green Bay in 2011 and 2016) are the only four players to throw for 40 or more touchdowns twice. Also, the NFL-record number of consecutive games that Brees threw for 350 yards in 2011.

5 – National Football League-record number of seasons (2008, 2011-13, 2016) that Brees has thrown for over 5,000 yards.

6 – National Football League-record number of regular season contests where Brees has thrown five touchdowns and zero interceptions.

7 – League-record number of times Brees has led the league in passing, including in 2016 (5,208). Also the career-high and NFL-record tying number of touchdown passes he threw against the New York Giants on November 1, 2015.

8 – The NFL-record number of times Brees reached the 350-yard passing mark in 2011. He has reached it three times in 2018, including throwing for 363 yards vs. Washington, Oct. 8.

9 – NFL-record stretch of consecutive games with at least 300 yards passing, which he's accomplished twice. Brees' nine-game winning streak (11/24/08-9/30/13) as a starter on Monday Night Football is tied for second all-time. Also, the team record number of seasons that Brees has been selected to the Pro Bowl. Also, the number of seasons overall and NFL-record consecutive campaigns (2008-16) that Brees has thrown for at least 30 touchdowns.

10 – In the postseason, Brees' passing yardage (3,915) and completions (329) numbers both rank tenth in National Football League record books.

11 – The number of consecutive seasons Brees threw 25 touchdown passes from 2006-16, making him only the second player in history to do so, joining Manning (13, 1998-2010). Including once with San Diego in 2004, the number of times Brees has been selected to the Pro Bowl. He was selected for the team-record tenth time as a Saint in 2017.

12 – Number of seasons Brees thrown 25 or more touchdowns, third in National Football League record books behind Tom Brady (13) and Manning (16). Also the number of seasons, all consecutive that Brees has tossed for at least 4,000 yards.

14 – After tossing for 246 yards on Nov. 26, 2017 at the Los Angeles Rams, 2017 became Brees' 14th consecutive season with 3,000 yards passing, a feat surpassed only by Brett Favre (18). Also, with 13 300-yard games in 2011, Brees set the National Football League single-season record, surpassing the one he previously tied with 10 in 2008.

15 – In 2017, Brees became the fourth player in National Football League records to have 15 3,000-yard passing seasons, joining Brett Favre (18), Manning (16), currently tied with Brady (15).

16 – National Football League-record number of regular season contests where Brees has thrown for at least 400 yards after tossing for 439 yards in the Sept. 9 season opener vs. Tampa Bay.

20 – On Sept. 23 at Atlanta, Brees scored rushing touchdowns on a fourth quarter seven-yard run and a game-winning quarterback sneak in overtime to give him 20 career rushing touchdowns. It was the second time in Brees' 18-year career that he's scored two rushing TDs in a contest.

22 – Club-record NFC Player of the Week awards won by Brees as a member of the Saints and the most conference Player of the Week honors since 2006. Including his five-year tenure with the Chargers, his 24 conference Player of the Week awards rank third all-time in NFL record books behind Brady (28) and Manning (27). Also the number of games with four touchdown passes and zero interceptions after Sunday's winning performance against the Rams, tied for first in NFL record books with Brady.

32 – The number regular season contests by Brees with at least four touchdown passes, ranked second all-time behind Manning (35).

FB ZACH LINE

- First signed as an undrafted free agent by the Minnesota Vikings, where he spent four seasons, Line contributed to the club's fifth-ranked run game in 2017 after joining the club early in the regular season, as well as on special teams. He has played in 55 career regular season games with 17 starts and has carried 20 times for 53 yards and two touchdowns, as well as adding 13 receptions for 124 yards and three TDs and three special teams tackles.

WIDE RECEIVERSMICHAEL THOMAS

- A talented wideout with a 6-3, 212-pound frame who was selected by the Saints in the second round of the 2016 NFL Draft out of Ohio State, Thomas had an outstanding rookie campaign, leading the Black and Gold with 92 receptions for 1,137 yards and a nine touchdown grabs. He became the first Saints rookie to break 1,000 yards in a season since Marques Colston went for 1,038 in 2006. In 2017, Thomas was New Orleans' receiving leader in catches and yardage, making a club-record 104 receptions for 1,245 yards with five touchdowns to rank third in the National Football League in receiving and making him only the second player in NFL record books, joining Odell Beckham Jr. to have 90 catches in each of his first two seasons and his 196 grabs being the most by a player in NFL history in his first two seasons.

TRE'QUAN SMITH

• A talented rookie wideout, who was selected by New Orleans in the third round of the draft out of Central Florida, the 6-1, 210-pounder emerged as one of the Knights' top weapons from 2015-17 and was a key figure in the emergence of their program. During that period, he caught 168 passes for 2,748 yards (16.4 avg.) with 22 touchdowns. In his final campaign for the 13-0 Knights in 2017, Smith appeared in and started all 13 games and hauled in 54 receptions for 1,082 yards (19.9 avg.) and 13 touchdowns, his first 1,000-yard receiving season. Working his way into the club's wideout rotation, Smith has posted 12 receptions for 214 yards (17.8 avg.) with three touchdowns.

TIGHT ENDSBENJAMIN WATSON

• Originally signed as an unrestricted free agent from the Cleveland Browns in 2013 and brought back in 2018 after spending the last two campaigns with Baltimore, Watson leads the team at the position at age 37. The former Georgia standout and 15-year NFL veteran who originally entered the league as a first round draft pick of the New England Patriots in 2004 (32nd overall) has career totals of 521 receptions for 5,777 yards (11.1 avg.) with 44 touchdowns in 187 games with 136 starts. Watson has also played in 11 postseason games with nine starts and has added 21 receptions for 222 yards and three scoring grabs.

• Watson's played in all eight games with four starts in 2018 and leads the tight ends with 26 receptions for 292 yards (11.2 avg.) with two touchdowns to ranked third on the club in receiving.

CLIMBING THE CHARTS

Benjamin Watson stands at 12th place all-time on the NFL's all-time list for receptions at tight end with 521. He needs 20 to move into 11th and 26 to move into the top ten.

DEFENSIVE ENDS

CAMERON JORDAN

• New Orleans' first choice in the 2011 NFL Draft (24th overall) out of the University of California, Jordan enjoyed another standout season in 2017, recording 62 tackles, a career-high 13 sacks, one interception return for a touchdown, a career-high 11 passes defended and two forced fumbles. Jordan was selected to his third Pro Bowl and was named a first-team Associated Press All-Pro for the first time in his career. With 64.5 sacks in eight seasons, Jordan is fifth on the Saints career sack list, closing in on fourth. Jordan's also proven to be one of the National Football League's best run defenders, as well as being known for generating pressure on quarterbacks that doesn't always show up on the stat sheet, with him playing a lead role in a run defense that is currently ranked first in the National Football League in both opponent rushing yards per game and opponent yards per carry.

After recording 1.5 quarterback takedowns in the November 5, 2017 win vs. Tampa Bay, Jordan inched to fifth place in club record books. After recording two sacks in back-to-back contests (Weeks Two and Three), with three quarter-

ALEX OKAFOR

• Selected by the Arizona Cardinals in the fourth round of the 2013 NFL Draft, Okafor joined the Saints in 2017 where he added valuable depth on the defensive line. Okafor has appeared in 59 games with 42 starts in six years, collecting 19 sacks, an interception, three forced fumbles, one fumble recovery, ten passes defended and a blocked punt. In 2017, he had 37 tackles (26 solo), 4.5 sacks to tie for second behind Jordan, four passes defended and two forced fumbles. Recovered from an Achilles injury suffered in Week 11, Okafor re-signed in the offseason opened the 2018 season opener as a productive counterpart opposite Jordan and has posted 14 tackles (nine solo), one sack, one pass defended and one blocked punt in starting all eight contests.

MARCUS DAVENPORT

• Trading up to the 14th spot in the 2018 NFL Draft, the Saints addressed the defensive line and the club's pass rush with this gifted pass rusher, only the second draft choice ever from Texas-San Antonio. During his four collegiate seasons, Davenport notched career totals of 186 tackles (97 solo), 22 sacks, 38 tackles for loss, six forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries, one returned for a touchdown and eight passes defended, finishing his career as the school's all-time leader for stops for loss, takedowns and quarterback hurries (21). In the first seven games of the season, having missed Sunday's win over the Rams with a toe injury Davenport has posted 11 tackles (seven solo), four sacks, tied for second among rookies, two passes defended and one forced fumble.

DEFENSIVE TACKLES

TYELER DAVISON

- This former fifth round draft pick has been a vital part of the Saints line since being drafted in the 2015 NFL Draft (154th overall). The Fresno State product followed up his first two seasons with an even more productive campaign in 2017, helping the defense post 42 sacks, ranking seventh in the league and allowing only 20.4 points per game, good for tenth in the NFL. In 2017, he started all 16 games posting 31 tackles (21 solo), one pass defended and two forced fumbles. Overall in four seasons, the disruptive defensive tackle has 94 tackles (52 solo), 2.5 sacks, two pass deflections and three forced fumbles. In 2018, he's made 11 tackles, one sack and one forced fumble, being a run-stopping force for a defense ranked first in the NFL in opponent rushing yards per game and per an attempt.

SHELDON RANKINS

- The third defensive lineman selected in the 2016 NFL Draft out of Louisville, Sheldon Rankins started all 16 games in 2017 posting 26 tackles (16 solo), two sacks for loss of 13 yards, one interception, one pass defended and one forced fumble. He helped a defensive unit that went from 31st in the NFL, allowing 28.4 points per game in 2016 to allowing 20.4 points per game in 2017, good for tenth in the league. In his first full season after missing seven contests as a rookie, Rankins' ability to rush the passer from the inside as well as take on double teams proved beneficial in 2017 helping the defense post 42 sacks, ranking seventh in the league, compared to only 30 takedowns in 2016. In 2018, Rankins has 21 tackles (13 solo) and four sacks to tie for second on the club after recording the first multi-takedown contest of his career with two on October 28 at Minnesota.

LINEBACKERS

Key free agent acquisitions in both 2017 and 2018 combined with an extra year of growth for younger players have rendered the Saints linebacking corps a hard-hitting squad with a solid mix of both youth and experience.

ALEX ANZALONE

- One of three third round picks in 2017, Anzalone came to the Saints after a solid career at Florida. In his rookie season, Anzalone started four games before suffering a season-ending shoulder injury and posted 16 tackles, a sack and a pass defended. In seven games with three starts in 2018, he's posted 24 tackles (17 solo), one interception and a forced fumble. Anzalone has come on strong, the past two weeks, forcing a fumble in Week Eight and recording his first career pick in Week Nine.

DEMARIO DAVIS

- This dependable and sure-tackling defender joined the Saints after a breakout 2017, where he started 16 games for the Jets. Davis enjoyed his best season, posting a team-high and career-high 165 tackles (112 solo), a career-best five sacks, tied for second in the inside linebackers, three passes defended and a fumble recovery. For his career, the Brandon, Miss. native has appeared in 103 games with 89 starts for the Jets (2012-15, 2017), Cleveland (2016) and Saints, recording 722 tackles (472 solo), 15.5 sacks, an interception, 18 passes defended, two forced fumbles, four fumble recoveries and 24 special team stops.

- In 2018, Davis has opened all eight contests at the weakside position and leads the team with 62 stops (38 solo), two sacks to lead the linebacker corps, one pass defended and one forced fumble. Davis' abilities to diagnose and tackle have played a key role in New Orleans ranking first in the NFL in both opponent rushing yards per game and opponent rushing yards per play.

A.J. KLEIN

- Signed as an unrestricted free agent from Carolina in 2017, where he spent his first four NFL seasons, Klein has played a significant role in the club's linebacker rotation. Opening 12 games on the strongside for the Saints in his first season with the club, Klein had 54 tackles (37 solo), two sacks, five passes defended and one forced fumble. In eight contests with seven starts in 2018, he has posted 44 tackles (27 solo), two passes defended and one fumble recovery, playing a key role in a run defense ranked first in the NFL in opponent yards per rush and opponent rushing yards per game.

MANTI TE'O

- Coming to New Orleans as a free agent in 2017, Te'o used his four seasons in San Diego to establish himself as a talented, linebacker. A second round pick in 2013 out of Notre Dame where he finished second in the voting for the 2012 Heisman Trophy, In 2017, his first season in New Orleans, he ranked among team leaders with 61 tackles (43 solo), three passes defended and one fumble recovery. Teo has posted 12 tackles (eight solo) in four games in 2018, returning in Week Seven after missing three contests with a knee injury.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

MARSHON LATTIMORE

• Selected by the Saints in the first round (11th overall) of the 2017 NFL Draft, Lattimore captured a starting position in training camp and started all 13 games he appeared in. He totaled 53 tackles (44 solo), a forced fumble, one fumble recovery, five interceptions for 85 yards and 18 passes defended, as he became the youngest Saint (21 years old) ever selected to the Pro Bowl and was selected as the AP NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year.

OUT OF THE MARSH

• In 2018, Lattimore has opened all eight contests and has posted 24 tackles (19 solo), a club-best five passes defended, one forced fumble and two fumble recoveries, returned for an NFL-best 91 yards.

Marshon Lattimore came through for the defense at the New York Giants (9/30). He made a big play in the second quarter when he picked up a fumble forced by his teammate CB P.J. Williams and returned it to the New York 11-yard line 37 yards. He finished the day adding four solo tackles for his effort. Lattimore was also assigned to Giants standout WR Odell Beckham Jr., who averaged only 8.6 yards per catch.

In the Oct. 28 win at Minnesota, Lattimore picked up a fumble deep in Saints territory and returned it 54 yards to set up a Saints touchdown before halftime that gave New Orleans the lead for good.

MARCUS WILLIAMS

• After being selected in the second round of the 2017 NFL Draft (42nd overall) out of the University of Utah, this ball-hawking safety had an excellent rookie campaign starting all 15 games he appeared in posting 70 tackles (56 solo), four interceptions and 6 passes defended. Williams led all rookie safeties in interceptions and was second for a rookie safety in total tackles and passes defended, including two picks in the regular season finale. The talented safety posted his first career postseason interception, which was the only interception made by a rookie in the 2017 postseason. Williams looks to build on a great rookie season and continue to grow with one of the NFL's best young defensive backfields heading into the 2018 season.

DB DUO

With five and four interceptions respectively as rookies in 2017, Marshon Lattimore and Marcus Williams finished ranked first and tied for second respectively in picks among first-year players, setting the stage for a promising Saints secondary.

KURT COLEMAN

• This smart, versatile veteran safety brings experience and a wealth of knowledge to a young New Orleans secondary. Originally a seventh round pick (244th overall) of the Eagles in the 2010 NFL Draft out of Ohio State, after spending his first four seasons in Philadelphia and one in Kansas City, Coleman recorded 11 interceptions over the three seasons in Carolina. Overall, for his career, he's appeared in 124 regular season games with 79 starts, posting 515 tackles, two sacks, 21 interceptions, two returns for touchdowns, 29 passes defended, four forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and 34 special teams stops. In 2018, he's played in all eight games with five starts and has posted 18 stops (11 solo), providing a run-stopping presence on the backside.

VONN BELL

• Bell left onlookers impressed with his 2016 rookie campaign, alerting the NFL to his arrival through his hard-hitting play. Playing in every game with 14 starts, he totaled 98 tackles (59 solo) both second on the team. He added four passes defended, a sack, two forced fumbles, and a fumble recovery. Drafted by New Orleans in the second round of the 2016 NFL Draft (61st overall), Bell was a consensus first-team All-American, was voted First-team All-Big Ten and was also a Jim Thorpe Award semifinalist following his junior season at Ohio State. In 2017, he appeared in all 16 games with ten starts in the regular season and posted a team-high 78 tackles (57 solo), 4.5 sacks, to tie for second on the club and lead defensive backs, two passes defended, two forced fumbles and five special teams stops. He led Saints defenders with 17 stops in the postseason and added a key takedown late in the NFC Wild Card Playoff win vs. Carolina. In 2018, he leads the Saints secondary with 41 tackles (29 solo) three passes defended.

P.J. WILLIAMS

• Originally a third round draft pick by the Saints in 2015 out of Florida State, Williams has appeared in 19 career games with nine starts for New Orleans, posting 58 tackles, two interceptions and 11 passes defended. In 2018, he's played in six contests with two starts and has posted 28 tackles (22 solo), a 45-yard interception return for a touchdown in the Oct. 28 win at Minnesota, five passes defended and a forced fumble.

SPECIAL TEAMSP THOMAS MORSTEAD

• Morstead's established himself as one of the NFL's top punters, where he's posted career club-best 47.0 gross and 41.4 net punting averages. In 2018, he has punted 19 times for a 45.9 gross punting average and a 42.6 net with seven punts placed inside-the-20-yard line.

NFL CAREER - Selected by Dallas in the third round of the 2015 NFL Draft (91st overall), Green joined the Saints in Week Eight. The four-year veteran's shown the versatility to play guard or tackle. After starting 30 games for Florida at both tackle positions, Green went to Dallas to play with a line that featured three Pro Bowlers. After injuries plagued his first two seasons, limiting him to four games, he returned in 2017 to play in 14 games with four starts.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS - Signed by Saints, 10/24/18; Released by Dallas, 9/1/18; Activated from physically unable to perform list by Dallas, 12/5/15; Placed on physically unable to perform list by Dallas, 9/1/15; Signed by Dallas to a four-year contract, 5/26/15; Selected in the third round (91st overall) of the 2015 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

2017 - Appeared in 14 games with four starts and began the season as the Cowboy's starting LG, but settled into the role as a reserve lineman at both G and T. Made his first start at G, manning the left side in the opener against N.Y. Giants (9/10). Stepped in for Tyron Smith (groin) in the fourth quarter against Kansas City (11/5). Started in Smith's (groin) place at Atlanta (11/12). 2016 - Played in his first four career games with two starts before injuries kept him from the remaining 12. Made NFL debut in opener against N.Y. Giants (9/11), playing on special teams and stepping in for five plays for Smith at LT. Against Chicago (9/25) made his first career start with Smith (back) sidelined, and helped Ezekiel Elliott rush for 140 yards - his first career 100-yard day - as three different backs rushed for a score for the second straight game. Again started in place of Smith (back) and opened holes at San Francisco (10/2) for Elliott to rush for 138 yards - his second straight 100-yard game. CONTINUED ON NEXT PAGE

NEW ORLEANS SAINTS VS LOS ANGELES RAMS
SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 2018 • MERCEDES-BENZ SUPERDOME
SAINTS POSTGAME NOTES

- With the win, New Orleans improves their record to 7-1 and extends their winning streak to seven games, the longest current winning streak in the NFL after dropping the 8-1 Rams with their first loss of the season. It is the Saints fourth seven-game win streak since Sean Payton was hired as head coach in 2006, and seventh in franchise history. The Saints remain one game ahead of the 6-2 Carolina Panthers for first place in the NFC South. New Orleans returns to action on Sunday, November 11 when they face the Cincinnati Bengals at Paul Brown Stadium. Kickoff is scheduled for 12:00 p.m. CT.
- The Saints' win improves their all-time record against the Rams to 33-41 and improves their home record against the Rams to 17-19.
- The last four wins of the Saints' seven-game win streak have come against teams either in sole possession of first place or tied for first place in their division, the only time in franchise history.
- The only other seasons New Orleans has finished 7-1 or better at the season's midpoint is 1988 (7-1), 1991 (7-1) and 2009 (8-0).
- New Orleans scored a season-high 45 points and gained 487 total yards, their second highest total of the season (534 at Atlanta on September 23). The Saints' rushed for 141 yards and gained 346 yards passing. New Orleans possessed the ball for 33:41, which is their highest time of possession in a non-overtime game this season (37:45 at Atlanta on September 23).
- Defensively, the Saints held Los Angeles to 93 yards rushing, the Rams second lowest total of the season. Coming into the game, the Rams led the NFL in rushing with 150.9 yards per game. They have not surrendered 100 yards rushing to an opponent during the seven-game winning streak.
- For Head Coach Sean Payton, the win marks the 119th victory of his career (regular season and post-season), putting him in sole possession of 35th place all-time for wins by an NFL head coach. Rams Head Coach Sean McVay is now the 59th coach Payton has defeated in his career and 48th head coach he has at least a .500 winning percentage against.
- WR Michael Thomas finished with 12 receptions for 211 receiving yards, including a fourth quarter career-long 72-yard touchdown catch. His 211 receiving yards sets a new Saints record, breaking the previous club record of 205 yards held by Wes Chandler set against the Atlanta Falcons on September 2, 1979. Thomas recorded his third 100-yard receiving game of the season and eighth of his career. His eight career 100-yard receiving games is tied for ninth in Saints history with WR Lance Moore.
- QB Drew Brees finished 25 of 36 passing for 346 yards, his fourth 300-yard passing game of the season with four touchdowns, zero interceptions and a 137.0 passer rating. It was Brees' first four-touchdown game since December 18, 2016 at Arizona. It was the second consecutive week that the Saints offensive line has not given up a sack, surrendering a league-low nine for the season at the midpoint.
- RB Alvin Kamara finished with 19 carries for 82 yards and 4 receptions for 34 yards. His 82 rushing yards is his second highest total of the season (134 at the New York Giants on September 30) and he eclipsed 100 yards from scrimmage for the fourth time this season.
- Kamara tied a career-high with three touchdowns and recorded his third three-touchdown performance of the season, finishing with 2 rushing touchdowns and a receiving touchdown. He scored his tenth touchdown of the season on an eight-yard first quarter run, and joins Jimmy Graham (2013-14), Mark Ingram (2016-17) and Joe Horn (2003-04) as only the third Saint with back-to-back seasons of ten touchdowns. Kamara's the only Saint to do so in his first two seasons.
- LB Alex Anzalone recorded his first career interception with 1:06 remaining in the second quarter, setting up a Saints six-play, 34-yard touchdown drive. The interception was the Saints fourth of the season, and eighth takeaway on the year.

- RB Mark Ingram finished with 9 carries for 33 yards and caught a three-yard pass and eclipsed 7,000 career all-purpose yards on his five-yard run on the Saints first drive of the game. He is the fifth Saint with 7,000 all-purpose yards, joining Marques Colston, Eric Martin, Deuce McAllister and Horn. He also
- CB PJ Williams tied a career-high with three pass defenses and finished with six tackles and one tackle-for-loss.
- LB Demario Davis led the team in tackles, finishing with seven tackles, one tackle-for-loss, and one quarterback hit.
- LB AJ Klein tallied four tackles and recorded the 250th tackle of his career on his first quarter tackle of Todd Gurley.
- TE Benjamin Watson finished with a season-high 62 yards on three receptions, and scored his second touchdown of the season on a second quarter 13-yard scoring pass from Brees.
- WR Tre'Quan Smith recorded two receptions for 23 yards and scored his first touchdown since scoring two against Washington on October 8.
- The Saints finished two-for-two on fourth down conversions and are second in the NFL in fourth down conversion percentage at 90% (9/10).
- The Saints set a new NFL record for of 24 first-half first Downs, breaking a record of 22 previously set by New Orleans on November 4, 2017 against the Jacksonville Jaguars.
- New Orleans finished a perfect five-for-five in Red Zone conversions for touchdowns, their first game this season finishing with a 100% Red Zone conversion rate. The Saints also went seven-for-12 on third Downs earning their best third down conversion percentage (58%) of the season.
- In his second game with New Orleans, CB Eli Apple finished with five tackles and his first pass defense as a Saint.
- K Wil Lutz converted a season-long 54-yard FG. With the field goal, Lutz has now converted his last 14 straight attempts.
- P Thomas Morstead punted twice and became the 13th Saint to play in 150 games for New Orleans.

LOS ANGELES RAMS VS. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS
SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 2018 • MERCEDES-BENZ SUPERDOME
SAINTS HEAD COACH SEAN PAYTON

(Opening Statement) “(It was a) Good win, obviously a hard fought win. We had two good teams going back and forth. The momentum shifted the second half in their favor. Credit those guys, they fought back and really came right back into the game. In the end we made enough plays, we won an important game and I’m excited about that.”

(on composure as the Rams tried to come back) “I think each week there’s instances where the game unfolds differently and today certainly it unfolded in a certain manner, but there is a confidence level in playing in close games. They understand most of the games we are going to play in are really going to be games that come down to the final couple of possessions. Part of that is experience, you gain confidence if you’ve had successful experiences or experienced some type of success. We have at some point or a few different times during the year. It’s just trying to change that momentum shift and obviously the third down with Mike (Michael Thomas) was significant. We kind of caught him in a bracket coverage, they doubled low on Alvin (Kamara), and Mike was freed up. (Michael Thomas) played outstanding today. I wasn’t all fired up about the penalty. We’ll get that figured out and handled, but he had a good game.”

(on how to handle play calling during a close game) “You are constantly working on pictures from the last series. We knew late in that game that we were going to get more five-man rush, more man-to-man (coverage). You are looking at different thoughts going in, what are our best runs when we know we are going to get see a run front. (You) Highlight and cross them off and try to take the approach during halftime. You don’t know how the game is going to finish. Defensively they made some stops during the second half and we were just going to approach each series like it was 0-0. There’s a little bit of cliché to that but we knew it would be a hard fought game. I felt coming in that we were battle-tested and that served us well.”

(on the fake field goal attempt stop) “That was a big play. Obviously, (you can) just call it a three or seven-point swing. They knew it was close and it was a huge stop because we just had the turnover. That was significant.”

LOS ANGELES RAMS VS. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 2018 • MERCEDES-BENZ SUPERDOME RAMS HEAD COACH SEAN McVAY

(Opening Statement) “The Saints are an excellent football team. They made enough plays to win. I thought that our team did a great job fighting in the second half. We had some things that didn’t go our way in the first half. They (the Saints) jumped out to a 21-point lead. We were able to get a field goal at the end of the first half; and then find a way to tie it up at 35 apiece. I thought that there were some play selections by me; I did not put us in some good spots to try to get us back in the game. The defense tightened up (in the second half). They made the critical plays at the end and did an excellent job. I cannot wait to go back and look at this film and figure out what we can do to get better. Give credit to Coach Payton and the Saints for coming out with a great win today.”

(On his message to the team at halftime with the 35-17 deficit) “All you can do is to just take it one play at a time. Things change quickly. (The) Defense got a couple of stops. Offensively, we were able to get into a little bit of a rhythm and finish some drives with touchdowns. Our players are great. They just continue to fight and battle. They do not flinch; they do not blink. We did not make enough plays today. It starts with me being able to look at myself critically. What can I do better for this football team? I can’t wait to get back to work tomorrow, try to get better, and get ready for a great Seattle team next week.”

(On the decision to fake the first half field goal attempt) “We always talk about it. We are an aggressive, attacking team. If we feel like some of these looks present themselves to try to do that, we have confidence in our players. Unfortunately, it didn’t work out in that situation. We came into this game feeling like we had to be aggressive. We wanted to be aggressive. That kind of embodies the identity that we do have. It didn’t work out today, but that’s not going to stop us from continuing to fight and make sure that we make aggressive decisions that are also smart. Based on the look, we have a lot of confidence in Johnny Hekker. We feel that more times than not, he is going to make that play for us”

(On what the Rams did on defense in the second half to slow the Saints offense down some) “I think that it was just being able to limit the big plays, be efficient on the early downs, and get some third down stops. We were able to sustain some drives offensively. We had a couple of critical stops and got them into some negative situations on some early down and distance and eliminate the big plays for a few series. (Michael) Thomas ended up making a big play at the end. (They) ended up having a fourth down conversion to (Alvin) Kamara on the toss-crack. They did a good job. You can see that that is a football team that has won seven in a row. (I have) a lot of respect for them. We came in here trying to get the win and expected to get the win.”

(On Drew Brees today) “Drew is outstanding. I just think that his command and his overall presence...you can see why he is a first ballot Hall of Famer. He made the big-time throws. I thought that he did a nice job on some third downs being able to buy time in the pocket and find some guys down the field a little bit off-schedule when things weren’t there in-rhythm. He is a special player, and I have a lot of respect for Drew.”

(On how his team feels after the loss today) “We are good. We love it. You find out about yourself when you have a little bit of adversity. I know everybody in that locker room is going to respond the right way. I have full confidence in that. Sometimes setbacks can be setups for comebacks. That is the way that we look at it. I think that the motivation and the desire to move forward in positive ways is something that we challenge everybody in our building to do. I can’t wait to go back to work and get ready to go for a tough Seattle team and being back at home. It’s a setback, but we are going to respond the right way. I have full confidence in that in our coaches and our players.”

(On the cornerbacks and the safeties struggling today) “I think some of the situations dictate whatever coverages we are in. Really, until you go back and look at the film, especially just based on my involvement on it, I would prefer to give it a look at that and figure out what are the things we can all do collectively to try and be better there and in all areas. Everybody can look at ourselves and figure out what we can do better. You see why Drew (Brees) is the all-time leading passer. He did an excellent job distributing the field. He's got great playmakers. Michael Thomas is a guy that doesn't get enough respect in this league for the production that he does have. I've always thought that he is a great player. (Alvin) Kamara is clearly special. Drew has the ability to use all five eligible (receivers) and get them involved in a variety of ways."

(On the defensive play call on the Michael Thomas touchdown catch at the end of the game) "We were in a combination-coverage right there. They ended up getting us where certain guys were doubled and some other guys had some situations where they were able to be one-on-one. We liked the calls right there. We can always look at ourselves and figure out what we can do as coaches and what can the players do to anticipate some of those and know what to expect in that situation from the given offense."

NEW ORLEANS SAINTS VS. LOS ANGELES RAMS
SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 2018 • MERCEDES-BENZ SUPERDOME
QB DREW BREES

(On the connection between Drew (Brees) and Michael (Thomas) throughout the game along with Thomas' abilities.)

"Some of those were tight windows. Credit to him for getting open, getting that separation, body control. Just all of those things that he does to give me a place to throw the ball to him. He makes a ton of contested throws and he did that today. Some big, big third down catches. Obviously none bigger than the one at the end of the game. Just a big time player who's always ready to make big time plays."

(On if there is somewhat of a "lulling to sleep" factor to Michael Thomas' game due to him not really being considered a deep threat by some.)

"Yes there is. He can do everything. I think, a lot of times, I think corners may get a little frustrated with him. With just as physical as he is with a lot of the intermediate stuff. So when they start playing underneath him, that's when we have opportunities to push the ball down the field to him which is what happened there at the end of the game."

(On Drew's pre-snap reads of bracket coverage on Kamara during the game.)

"They're standing next to each other. So as you're looking at it, you feel like they're dropping and will double somebody. You just don't know which one it is. Sometimes they can do three on two and different stuff like that. But, the minute the ball was snapped it felt like. Okay, Kamara is doubled, then Mike was single. Mike's prominent, here we go."

(On the matchup between Michael Thomas and Marcus Peters.)

"Well listen, he's (Marcus Peters) a top flight corner. He's an elite corner. Just depending on the team and that kind of thing, they go in to every game saying, alright what are our matchups? where are our matchup problems? A lot of times you see it on film with Marcus Peters where they say, alright you just take their best guy, you take care of him, and we'll worry about the rest of them. That's basically what happened on that play was, everybody's trying to match and you kinda say alright Peters, you got Mike T."

(On the offense in the second half, if the success was based on whether it was due to the Rams adjustments to them.)

"They get the ball first. They go down and score. We come back. We go six plays, we convert a third down and then they drive down and score. Then we go six plays again, get a couple first downs, then we get stopped. It's just not like three and out, three and out. We were driving the ball a little bit. You've just got to be so efficient against a team like that. Especially the back and forth, is occurring. On the other side of the ball, that is as explosive an offense as there is with the Rams. We knew it was going to be an all-day battle. We knew that, even with the score at 35-14, there was still a ton of football left to be played. They're a high scoring offense. We still need to go and score some points."

GREG BENSEL ✦ SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF COMMUNICATIONS

NEW ORLEANS SAINTS VS. LOS ANGELES RAMS SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 2018 • MERCEDES-BENZ SUPERDOME SAINTS PLAYER QUOTES

WR Michael Thomas

(On the touchdown) "My number was called. The play presented itself. I made a play for my team. I live for those types of moments. It's a blessing. I thank God for letting me be on the end of that play to help my team put that game away."

RB Alvin Kamara

(On the big win) "It's huge. We are fully capable. We play how we play and focus on us. We are focused on the Saints. We are not focused on any outside noise."

(On fighting adversity) "We are focused on us. We are only worried about the track that we are on. There is no derailing this train."

(On the touchdown run on the left side) "It was good blocking. Sometimes plays stretch out longer than they need to. I just tried to keep it alive. I squeezed in there somehow."

RB Mark Ingram

(On beating the Rams today) "We believe in ourselves. We believe in each other not matter what arises in the game. We believe we can overcome anything. That is a great team. They have a good coaching staff. Give them credit. We are worried about ourselves and what we can do to improve."

(On the defensive stop after his fumble in the first half) "That was huge. They were able to get a big fourth down stop. I am thankful for those guys for having my back. At the end of the day, that's what it is all about. We believe in each other. We have each other's back no matter what. I appreciate the defense for that."

DE Cameron Jordan

(On the defense) "They have a high-powered offense. We are trying to stop Todd Gurley. I don't know what he ended up with but it seems like we did a pretty good job in the run defense part. I think he broke four big ones. That's something that we need to focus on."

(On winning the game) "That was the most important game because it was the game in front of us. We have an important game coming up next week. We have to go travel, go to an enemy's territory and get a win out there. As much as I would like to start focusing on them, we have to break down this film."

(On the second quarter stops and their importance) "That turned the tide in our favor. We talk about the ability of our defense to make those turnovers. That's what we were emphasizing all week. We let them get a couple of big plays that we would like to take back, but we have another week to make those corrections. We have another week to try to play a perfect game. As for this one, we got a turnover and made a couple of stops."

LB Alex Anzalone

(On the the crowd) "Playing at home is a huge advantage. It's awesome in these big games."

(On capitalizing on his interception today) "Coach Westhoff always says get the ball to Michael Jordan (Drew Brees). If you get the ball to him in good field position, then we are bound to score some points. We have to get the ball to him. Coach Payton has the offense dialed up and they have a good gameplan. We just have to get the ball to him."

(On the interception) "It was a normal cross route. It's a play that a lot of teams hit, but I was able to read the quarterbacks eyes, break on the ball and make a play."

LB Demario Davis

(On the the touchdown) "I keep telling everybody that's why I came here. He is a GOAT (Greatest of All Time). He feels good being on the sideline knowing that GOAT has the ball. I tell the defense all of the time that we just have to get one stop. It's like giving the ball to Michael Jordan with the game on the line. Don't worry about it. We are in good hands. You can't ask for anything better than that."

NEW ORLEANS SAINTS VS. LOS ANGELES RAMS

RAMS PLAYER QUOTES

QB Jared Goff

(On his thoughts on today's game) "It was a good, full four quarter game and I think we did show the ability to fight back. I think even a little bit last week and this week, just the ability to be down and be out that we can fight back. We really made it a tight game at one point and we were right there in, just came a few plays short. I think we are just going to learn from it and move on to Seattle."

(On the fake field goal and if it shifted momentum some) "I loved it and I think he got it, so we will see. I haven't seen the replay yet, it was close. I don't know, I think it was still early and things were still about to happen throughout the game. What I think it really come down to was we both had one turnover, both teams, and they capitalized on their end and scored a touchdown and we didn't. That is the end of the story right there."

(On the team's message coming into the second half) "Same thing it always is, to just be ourselves and be poise and continue to execute. Getting that field goal was big and it put us in a position to continue to use that momentum in the next half. Like I said, we fought back hard, I am very proud of the guys, I am very proud of everyone, offense and defense, special teams. The way we fought helped make it a game."

(On his interception at the end of the first half) "I just didn't throw a great ball. He made a good play and I didn't throw a great ball. I thought there was a couple that I would like to have back; you always kind of feel that way when the result is this way, but for the most part I felt they played well on defense and gave us a lot of issues."

(On this being the team's first loss of the season and if it relieves any pressure on them now) "I don't think so. I think we'd put ourselves in a good place winning eight in a row. Coming in here, we knew it would be a tough game and unfortunately we came out on the wrong side, but I don't think so. We are going to take things one at a time and hopefully move on to 9-1 against Seattle."

(On having Cooper Kupp back from injury today and how he contributed) "He was great, he did a great job. Just getting him back. I am just so comfortable with him and everything he does. He is such a great player for us and just getting him healthy is really important."

(On his second game playing in the Mercedes-Benz Superdome) "It was just as loud and a lot of the same stuff involved with that, but I felt more comfortable and more seasoned and everything is not new, it is all stuff I have been through before."

RB Todd Gurley

(On his impressions of the game) "This was a game we have got to finish. I liked the way we played until the end, but obviously, we don't want that outcome or the loss, but you know, it is just another game and we will be able to bounce back next week."

(On what the Saints defense did in the first half) "Nothing we weren't doing. We were scoring points, kind of going back and forth, but we just didn't score enough."

(On coming back in the second half) "That is what we have been doing all year. Last week we were down and were able to come back. The last couple of games have been close, but we have been able to finish them out, (we) just didn't finish this one out."

(On his takeaways from the comeback) "It just tells you what type of team we are. Like I said, we have been able to do this for the last couple of weeks, we just did not come away with this big win."

This is a great team and credit to the Saints, they have a great offense, a great defense, and great coaching. They were the better team today and credit them the win.”

CB Marcus Peters

(On the late touchdown to Michael Thomas) “Third down and six, I just looked back and tried to make a play on the ball, shit happens like that in football. We were just trying to get in line and get something off and it just happened like that, I got beat. Regardless of communication, I got beat. Once the play starts you have got to go out there and you have to compete. I did, and they got it off for a touchdown.”

(On the team’s first loss of the season) “No man, how good this team is, we never thought this day would come, because we try so hard together, we know all three phases are going to go out there and compete. That is why we came back at the end of the game, that just shows how tough we are, how together we are, but this is going to be a good thing for us. We are going to go back to work and have an extra edge coming off a loss.”

(On the defense in the second half) “That was just great coaching adjustment by coach Wade (Phillips). We came out there and we executed our second half plan, but we just couldn't get off the field on third down, I got beat on the play. I can stand up, I can play better. I have not been playing well these last couple of weeks and am just being honest, but I continue to fight, that is the type of player I am. Who cares if you get beat, but you go out there and you compete to the highest of your ability and stuff happens.”

DT Aaron Donald

(On this difference between the first and second half) “We just cleaned some things up and made less mistakes, but we didn’t play well in the first half. We need to go watch the film and see where we need to make corrections. They just played good, they did certain things we weren’t expected and a few things that slowed us down, but that is a part of the game. You have to find ways up front to put more pressure on them. We tried at times in the first, but did in the second half to get a little bit more.”

(On the Rams not recording any sacks today) “He (Drew Brees) did a lot of different things to try and slow us down. In the second half, we did some things to try and open it up and we got some more pressure on him, but he was getting the ball out. Sometimes you have big games, sometimes you get a bunch, some games you get a couple and some you get none. We just have to watch the film to make the corrections and fix it.”

(On the team’s mindset going into the second half of the season with a loss) “We are going to watch the film, make the corrections and fix things. This was just one game, we will fix it. We are disappointed that we lost, but like I said, we are going to fix it. We aren’t panicking, we’re not worried. We will make the corrections to fix it and continue to be better.”

New Orleans Saints Head Coach Sean Payton
Conference Call with New Orleans Media
Monday, November 5, 2018

What were some of the things that stood out from the game?

"The end of the first half stood out. The interception we get with Alex (Anzalone) converted into a touchdown. That was significant after we had just scored. I didn't like the way the final (defensive) series (of the first half) played out where they ended up getting a field goal. We'll get that corrected. That needs to be cleaned up. I thought in the second half we made some key stops, particularly the fourth down stop. Obviously, the play to Mike Thomas on third down when the game had gotten closer was significant. All in all, enough to win, but a lot of things that we need to clean up."

I know Todd Gurley had the 24-yard run, but other than that it seemed like you did a pretty good job with him. What has made this defensive front especially play so well this season?

"I thought all season we've defended the run pretty well. We thought that was going to be important in this game. They present some challenges though in that they can go either direction a lot of times with what they want to do in the running game. Some of the challenges we dealt with were not as much run-related, but they were more tempo-related., with a long huddle, up to the line for two seconds, snapped the ball real quick and get into the passing game which makes things hard or stresses you defensively. Relative to the run game, I was pleased with how we fit it. I thought we won that battle, clearly, whether it was total yards, rushing yards, total attempts. We felt that was going to be important."

I think Drew (Brees) brought it up last night, but situationally was that maybe one of your better games last night in terms of third downs, red-zone offense, all that stuff?

"Yes. I think the first thing that comes to mind is periodically you'll play in games where you don't have a lot of third downs. I felt that was one of those games. So our first and second down efficiency was real good. When we got to third downs, we converted. We converted two fourth downs. We were able to score the touchdowns we needed in the red area and make enough big plays in the passing game. I thought we blocked them well up front and I thought our protection was good and our running game was good. I thought up front we did a good job against a pretty good run front."

If you could expand on that, you had a different plan in this game than you did against the Ravens when you were trying to neutralize that front, but how has the offensive line handled these different challenges week after week?

"Yes. The teams are different. How we play a game was different. There was a flow to it. There was a rhythm to it at home where all of a sudden you just felt the momentum going. Drew had a hot hand and guys were getting open. I thought they blocked well. There's some hurries and some hits, but relative to what we had seen on tape, I thought our guys really did a good job of handling the front. We got a lot of five-man rush which meant a lot of man coverage or three-under zone pressures coverage. So we were able to make enough big plays, enough to score the points we were able to."

The guys in general were saying that (Aaron) Donald and (Ndamukong) Suh were even better than they look on film. Could you see that from your level on the field?

"Donald's probably one of the better defensive players in the game right now. He is real active, extremely strong, leverage, great flexibility, plays hard. He's as tough a defensive lineman as we'll see all year and we see every week real talented players. Then Suh inside at the nose, we just knew that the challenges weren't necessarily going to be chip edge threats as much as they were going to be interior threats.”

You and Drew (Brees) both mentioned how the defense crashed down on Alvin (Kamara) for that touchdown pass to Michael Thomas. With the way defenses pay attention and decide to defend Alvin (Kamara), does it open up as many things in your playbook as you’ve ever had with a player?

“There is flexibility. It depends largely on who we put on the field with him. In other words, if I put a tight end, and Mark Ingram, and Zach Line, and Mike Thomas and then Alvin (Kamara), there's a better-than-good chance they're going to treat him as the ‘Z’ receiver. And then there's times where we'll put him on the field with Mark (Ingram), (a) couple other receivers, and a tight end and then they are probably going to treat him as the nickel or third receiver. So in each of these personnel groupings, the plan has to have a starting point relative to what we hope to get coverage-wise on him. And the play we hit yesterday was a man scheme – a third down scheme where, these guys did a ton of double here, double there. Single the rest of the players. The underneath coverage jumped on Alvin. Drew did a great job of seeing the vertical run by Mike.”

What did you think of P.J.’s (Williams) tackling and awareness on a couple of those plays late in the game?

“He had a good game. He played a lot of snaps. We were almost a 100% nickel. So, three linebackers played in the game. Mainly it was A.J. (Klein), and Demario (Davis), and Alex (Anzalone). P.J. I thought had a good game with a lot of responsibility relative to what he was seeing.”

Just to clarify, Manti (Te’o) was inactive just because of the matchup against the Rams and the way they run their offense?

“Strictly the type of team we were playing. And we brought up the extra corner and down the one linebacker. Had nothing to do with how he's playing.”

Do you think your defense is where you want it to be when it comes to forcing turnovers the last couple games?

“Yes. Those have been good plays for us. We still have to improve our red zone defense. That is the one area that is bothering me relative to where we are at. And we are almost at the bottom of the league. That is an area that has to get better for us to have success as a team.”

Are you speaking in terms of keeping them off the board in those situations or keeping them out of the end zone?

“When we talk about red zone defenses, it's generally just touchdown efficiency right now. When a team's inside the 15, just finding ways to force more field goals. The touchdown efficiency number that we're on right now is absurdly high.”

Do you have any halfway message or assessment?

“Nope. No halfway report cards or any of that. None of that. The point is though, and it is a good point, there's eight games left. In other words, there is a ton of football left. There are a ton of things we have to improve on and we need to improve on, or it is going to hurt us later. And I mentioned one of them right now – red zone defense. That that has to get better. Those numbers – you can't find any team having success later in the season with the numbers that we currently have. We have to find a way to improve that.”

What is something that's red zone defense specific as opposed to just defense specific?

"Red zone defense. How we're playing fronting coverage. How are we forcing a field goal? Currently, we're last in the league in that area. In other words, the average, just take the trips in, touchdowns scored, do the simple math and we're just under 80 percent. So 78 percent of the time you enter our red zone, you are scoring a touchdown and that is not good."

You guys have done a good job protecting Drew Brees. Is there anything that you contribute that too?

"We've got a pretty good protection plan kind of coming into these last couple weeks. We've put some pretty good lines and it's just kind of something we've been focusing on and Drew is getting us in the right situation and he's gotten the ball out of his hands on time and that's pretty big for us."

Was the defensive front you played yesterday, was that the biggest defensive challenge so far?

"It was definitely one of them. Interior defensive lineman, like Aaron (Donald) and Ndamukong Suh are pretty rare players in the league. It's a tough challenge stopping those guys and I think that we did a good job kind of staying out of really unmanageable passing situations and I we knew that was kind of critical going into this game."

What was your experience going up against Aaron Donald?

"Yes. He's an elite player in this league. He is a legitimate gameplan threat that's disruptive and again, the best. You'd be hard pressed to find a better defensive player in the league. It's about management, getting into situations that are favorable for us and having a solid protection plan for a guy like that and it was a tough game."

What have made you guys so good in third down situations and in the red zone?

"Watching the Rams game last year and some of the other stuff, we have struggled in the red zone a little bit. It is just an emphasis as far as in practice and being mindful of sticking to our plan when we get down there and then the second part of that question was third down. Right? Just the efficiency. Yes, our third down numbers have not been awesome, going in this year and they've kind of been going up trending in the direction we want them to be. But it's (not) just kind of analyzing the team that we just played, but being in positions where we're not in long third down situations and if that means two, three-yard runs on first and second down and we were okay with being in that position and that's kind of the plan that we're able to stick to."

Does Taysom Hill play a part in that efficiency? Someone who can play in so many different situations?

"I'm continuously amazed with Taysom and what he's been able to do. You're talking about a guy that played exclusively quarterback at the beginning of last year and special teams. Now he's like a cog in the machine. The sky's the limit for him. It certainly is an interesting wrinkle in our game plan and I think that it definitely is shown to be pretty effective."

Do you ever think about you know how many muscles you pull trying to hurdle players like Alvin Kamara?

"My first question is how and my second is why? I see it and I mean like (players) chasing them down and I see I go, oh my goodness my head's up and I'm just like imagining the worst possible scenario, but he still landed on his feet and I would blow out most of the muscles in my lower body if I tried to do that to answer a question."

Are you shocked when you see him bottled up and then he is able to gain a few more yards?

"When he has the ball, I never know what is going to go on. I've been caught standing around a pile when I thought Alvin (Kamara) was down and got blown up. Anytime he has the ball in his hands and until I hear the whistle I mean it's full tilt go because he has continued to show that he can get out of some pretty insane situations. That's kind of whenever he has the ball, it's go until you hear the whistle."

Midway through the season, what are the things that you have been impressed with and what are the things you think you guys need to work on?

"I think that we've put kind of a string of good defenses. I think that we've been able to stick to the gameplan that we've all wanted to and we've been able to execute it and that is running the ball effectively on early downs and sticking to it throughout the game. We are getting enough production early on to be able to carry the momentum and being able to run the ball later in the game as a positive. Quite a bit of improvement on that. As far as improvement goes, we talk about third down earlier. Our numbers were not where we wanted them to be earlier in the season and they're turning in the right direction. But again, that's something that we historically have been very good at and this year it's not where we need them to be, so that's probably the number one thing that we need to improve on."

Have you seen Larry (Warford) grow in the offense since last year? He looked like having more of that extra year and continuity with you guys (helped).

"Yeah. I forget that this is his second year here. He steps in, it feels like we've been playing together for certainly more than a year and eight games. Larry's a monster. He has been playing really well and I can't say enough good stuff about what he's been able to do and it's just been an awesome addition to the line."

You guys probably haven't looked at much of the Bengals film yet, but another tough matchup against some stud defensive linemen this weekend. What do you know about Geno Atkins in particular?

"Yeah. I'm trying to remember the last time I played Geno. I can't remember off the top of my head, but this is a very good defense. Their reputation around the league is that it's very very physical defense. Obviously, him being another challenge in a string of insane defensive lines that we've had to play this year kind of in a row. But again another very difficult challenge and we'll go check the film out and kind of see what we want to do."

Todd Gurley came into this game averaging 100 rushing yards per game and after a pretty good first quarter you guys were able to slow him down. What was kind of key behind that? How much emphasis did you put on stopping him?

"That was the goal for the week. We've got to be really good in the run game. So we put an emphasis on stopping the run. I think you know they are very tough. They were a very good team, very tough opponent, the top rushing team in the league. I think it's just a credit to our coaches doing a good job of getting us prepared. Our front has been playing lights out all year. It's a testament to the guys inside, outside, setting the edge. They have just been phenomenal. Just a wholehearted team effort. The position that our offense was able to put us in a lot of times helped us in that area as well. It was a good team win."

Do you feel like the defensive line gets overlooked a little bit?

"I don't know about being overlooked. Not inside this building. We know how much they mean to our defense. You know they've been an anchor for our defensive unit. All of those guys have been playing lights out. AO (Alex Okafor), Cam (Jordan), Rank (Sheldon Rankins), Big Ole Davison (Tyeler Davison) have been huge for us."

Coach Payton said the one thing that has been kind of nagging him is the red zone defense ranking. What do you guys need to do to get better there?

"Execution. Coach (Payton) is putting in the gameplan. We have to be able to execute it. That's the goal for us to be good in the red zone. So if we execute, we do well and if we don't we don't."

What would you say is the level of concern in that area? I mean, you guys have won seven games in a row and sometimes winning can mask that stuff. Is it a major point of emphasis for you guys or do you think it's something that can be fixed within a week?

"We have our goals and all of them are important. So you have to be good in the red zone, (and) you have to be good on third down. You have to be good on first and second down in the pass game. You have to stop the run. (We) have to find a way to get takeaways. Those are our goals every week. When we do those, we're usually successful. When we don't, it's not a good day."

How big was (Alex) Anzalone's pick last night just kind of setting you guys up to take that big halftime lead?

"Takeaways are always huge. He's been playing some really good football for us. I think it's been back to back games with creating a turnover. Something our coaches have been emphasizing is to create takeaways. He has done that and put our team in position to go up another score. Turnovers are magnified when they happen on the other team's side of the ball. So that was huge to happen where it happened on the first play of the drive. That was a big play."

Do you think 'opportunistic' is a good way to describe this defense, or would you describe it some other way?

"I don't know how I would describe it. We just try to go out and execute. We've got another challenge in front of us this week. Go on the road. We've always got to play good defense on the road. I know the coaches are going to have us a gameplan and we have to be ready to execute."

I know you haven't really looked ahead to the next opponent, but you've played in the same division with the Bengals before, what are some of the challenges that they present?

"A well-coached unit. Really good quarterback (Andy Dalton). One of the top receivers (A.J. Green) in the league that has been there for a long time. Some good (running) backs (Giovanni Bernard and Joe Mixon). They rely on their tight ends a lot. They have some phenomenal players and weapons over there. It is going to be a challenge to go into their place. They play well at home. That division is always tough, so it's going to be a challenge for us."

Has anyone ever tried to hurdle you like Alvin (Kamara) hurdled the guy last night?

“No. I don’t think I ever – nobody ever tried it on me. But AK, he’s special. That guy jumped so high off the ground, he probably could have jumped over anybody.”

I think that the casual fans have the impression that you have less territory to cover when you're playing defense in the red zone so in many ways that should be easier to guard against that, but is that kind of a fallacy or an oversimplification of what it takes to succeed in that area of the field?

“I just think it comes down to understanding how teams want to attack you down there. And being locked into what they’re going to try to do. Just understand, traditionally, how teams are going to try to get the ball in the end zone down there. And just understanding, knowing your assignment and doing your assignment. I just think it comes down to that.”
