WEEK 16, GAME 15 VS. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS

NOTABLE STORYLINES

• The Browns (6-8) will host the New Orleans Saints (5-9) at 1:00 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 24. The Browns are 13-5 all-time against the Saints, including an 8-3 mark at home. The last time the team met at FirstEnergy Stadium, the Browns claimed a 26-24 victory on Sept. 14, 2014.

• Last week the Browns topped the Baltimore Ravens 13-3. It was the fewest points allowed by the Browns in a game since a 23-3 victory at the New York Jets on Sept. 16, 2019. The Browns defense forced two turnovers and limited the Ravens to 0-for-3 on fourth down attempts. WR Donovan Peoples-Jones recorded the game's only touchdown on a 3-yard reception.

• Including last week's win, the Browns are 24-10 on Saturday games with a 11-5 record at home. The Browns are 4-3 at home this season, including wins in their past two contests. Under head coach Kevin Stefanski the Browns are 16-8 at FirstEnergy Stadium.

• RB Nick Chubb is third the NFL in rushing yards (1,252) and tied for third in rushing touchdowns (12). Chubb has recorded a league-high 39 rushes of 10-plus yards, and leads the NFL with 413 fourth quarter rushing yards this season. He has recorded a league-high 16 rushes of 10-plus yards in the fourth frame, four more than any other NFL player this season. Chubb joined LaDainian Tomlinson and Adrian Peterson as the only players in NFL history to rush for at least 950 yards and eight rushing touchdowns in each of their first five seasons. Chubb also joined Jim Brown (1958-61) as the only Browns to record four straight 1,000-yard rushing seasons. Chubb ranks third in team history in career touchdowns (48) and fourth in rushing yards (6,068). Chubb and Minnesota's Dalvin Cook are the only NFL players to reach 1,000 rushing yards in each of the past four seasons.

• DE Myles Garrett recorded 1.5 sacks against the Ravens and leads the team with 13.5 sacks this season, third-most in the NFL. He has six games with multiple sacks this season (tied for most in the NFL), including the past two games. His 13.5 sacks are tied for the third-most by a Browns in a single season. Earlier this season, Garrett became the Browns all-time sack leader a figure he has since increased to 72.0. He is the only Browns player to record multiple double-digit sack seasons, a feat he has accomplished each of the past five years. Garrett is just the seventh player in NFL history to record 10-or-more sacks in five of his first six seasons, joining Richard Dent, Bruce Smith, Derrick Thomas, Reggie White, Von Miller and DeMarcus Ware.

• WR Amari Cooper leads the Browns in receiving yards (932), receptions (67) and receiving touchdowns (seven). He ranks tied for seventh in the NFL in receiving touchdowns this season. His seven receiving scores are the most by a Brown since TE Gary Barnidge recorded nine in 2015 and the most by a Browns WR since Josh Gordon had nine in 2013.

• QB Deshaun Watson improved to 2-1 as a starter for the Browns. In each of his starts this season his completion percentage and QB rating has increased. Last week, he completed 64.3% of his passes, while registering a 91.5 rating.

• TE David Njoku has recorded 51 receptions, 551 receiving yards and three touchdowns. Njoku has recorded 18 career receiving touchdowns, the second-most by a tight end in Browns history, trailing only Pro Football Hall of Famer Ozzie Newsome's 47. Njoku also ranks fourth in club history in receiving yards by a tight end, trailing only Newsome, Milt Morin and Kellen Winslow Jr.

• CB Denzel Ward recorded his second interception of the season last week. He has recorded at least two interceptions each season since being drafted in the first round in 2018. He has 12 career interceptions. This season, he leads the team with 12 passes defended, while adding two defensive scores, both on fumble returns.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR THIS WEEK

NICK CHUBB

- One touchdown gives him a new career-high of 13, his most since recording 12 in 2020. Also ties Jim Brown for the sixth most by a Browns player in a single season.
- Chubb aims to be the only player in the league with 50-or-more scrimmage yards in all 15 games this season, if Austin Ekeler and Josh Jacobs do not accomplish the feat this Saturday.
- Chubb aims for 100-plus scrimmage yards and a rushing score in six of eight home games in 2022.
- Chubb looks for at least 100 rushing yards in three out of his past four Saturday games played in.

MYLES GARRETT

- Half-sack moves him into a tie for second by a Brown in single season (14 with Camp in 1984). Garrett already owns the most (2021), third (2018) and ties for fifth (2020).
- Aims for at least one sack in seven out of his past nine contests. Also looks for his sixth consecutive game with a tackle for loss and fifth straight game at FirstEnergy Stadium with at least 1.5 sacks.
- Can tie T.J. Watt (seven) for the second-most forced fumbles against the AFC North since 2017 with one. 1.5 sacks can tie Watt for the third-most by a player in their first 82 games.

TEAM/MISC.

- With a win, the team will finish with a 5-2 record at home in 2022, the first time finishing above .500 at home for three straight seasons since doing so from 1985 to 1989.
- The Browns look for their first win against the New Orleans Saints since the 2014 season, when they won 26-24. They can finish the season 3-1 against the NFC South.
- The team can win their 25th game on Saturday and up their overall record to 25-10. A win also improves their Saturday home record to 12-5.
- A 100-yard performance from WR Amari Cooper gives him the most (five) by a Brown in a single-season since Josh Gordon in 2013, along with sole possession of second most. Cooper is 60 receiving yards away from entering the 1,000 yard club for 2022.

- TE David Njoku is just six receptions and 89 receiving yards away from a new single-season career high he totaled in 2018 (56 receptions, 639 yards and four touchdowns).
- QB Deshaun Watson can tally his 13th career game with 250 passing yards and 40 rushing yards and grab sole possession of sixth-most (Michael Vick) in NFL history.
- CB Denzel Ward needs four tackles for a new single-season career high of 54 total tackles. An interception will tie a single-season career high (2018 and 2021) of three.
- K Cade York needs one point after touchdown to pass Jeff Jaeger (29) for the most points scored after a touchdown by a Browns rookie.

KEVIN STEFANSKI HC

2020 NFL COACH OF THE YEAR

Kevin Stefanski was named the 18th full-time head coach in Cleveland Browns history on January 13, 2020. He spent the previous 14 seasons with the Minnesota Vikings, where he moved up the coaching ladder from assistant to the head coach to offensive coordinator.

During his first two seasons, Stefanski has led the Browns to 20 total wins, trailing only Hall of Famer Paul Brown (23 in 1950-51) and Blanton Collier (21 in 1963-64) for the most NFL wins by a Browns coach in his first two seasons. During the Browns 75-year history, the team has surpassed 6,000 scrimmage yards in a single season just five times, including both years under Stefanski.

In his first season with the Browns, Stefanski led the team to its first playoff appearance since 2002 and first playoff victory in 26 years. He notched the most wins (11) by a first-year Browns head coach since Paul Brown had 12 in the team's inaugural season in 1946. Stefanski's 11 regular season wins were the most by a first-year head coach in 2020 and marked just the 11th time since 1970 a first-year coach has won 11 or more games. Stefanski was named the NFL Coach of the Year and joined Forrest Gregg (1976) as the second coach in franchise history to earn the honor.

Stefanski's first season was unlike any other in NFL history as he and the club had to navigate the new realities and protocols presented by the COVID-19 pandemic. During his first offseason program, he and the staff had to install a new offensive and defensive system entirely virtual. Stefanski and his coaching staff didn't meet most of the players in-person until training camp, which was completely revamped to adhere to the league's protocols. During the second half of the season, the Browns dealt with numerous stops and starts to their schedule, including complete closures of the team facility, because of positive COVID-19 tests.

Despite the new norms, Stefanski, who serves as the team's play-caller, helped the Browns offense to some of its best numbers in generations. Cleveland's 408 points were its second-most in franchise history, while the club also finished with its second-best total in scrimmage touchdowns (48) and tied for the second-most first downs (355). The Browns finished third in the league in rushing with an average of 148.4 yards per game (the team's best since 1978).

Stefanski helped several Browns earn individual honors as DE Myles Garrett and RT Jack Conklin were named first-team All-Pros by the Associated Press, while G Joel Bitonio and G Wyatt Teller each earned second team honors. Garrett, Bitonio and RB Nick Chubb were selected to the Pro Bowl.

He didn't just bring the team together on the field, he also brought them together in the community. As protests for social justice erupted all across the country during the summer of 2020, Stefanski carved out meeting time to allow the players time to discuss how they felt in the moment. They were also given time off during the funeral of George Floyd, whose controversial death spurred the movement. Stefanski then empowered them to “get in the arena” and use their platform to make a difference however they saw fit.

In 2021, the Browns led the NFL in rushing average with a 5.09 mark, which helped Chubb finish second in the league in rushing yards. The club’s rush average was the highest by a Browns team since 1966. The team’s 6,090 scrimmage yards were the fourth-most by the club in a single-season.

Defensively, the Browns finished the season fifth in the NFL in total defense, marking just the third time since 1970 that the team has ranked in the top-five and the club’s highest finish since 1987. Garrett set the single-season franchise record with 16 sacks.

Stefanski helped five Browns earn Pro Bowl honors, the most by the team since 2013. Bitonio, Chubb, Garrett, Teller and CB Denzel Ward all earned Pro Bowl honors. Bitonio and Garrett also earned first team All-Pro honors, while Teller was named to the second team.

Stefanski joined the Vikings in 2006 as an assistant to the head coach and remained with the organization under three different head coaches. After serving as assistant quarterbacks coach from 2009-13, Stefanski spent two seasons (2014-15) coaching the tight ends and one season (2016) as running backs coach. From 2017-18, he coached the quarterbacks and added the role of interim offensive coordinator for the final three games before being named the team’s offensive coordinator in 2019.

In 2019, the Vikings posted a 10-6 record and earned their first road playoff win since January 9, 2005, after defeating the Saints, 26-20, in New Orleans. Three offensive players were selected to the Pro Bowl as RB Dalvin Cook and FB C.J. Ham were each named to their first career Pro Bowl with Cook voted a starter. QB Kirk Cousins was also named to the Pro Bowl.

In his first full year under Stefanski, Cousins set a single-season career high for passer rating with a 107.4 mark, fourth best in the NFL in 2019. Cousins also finished with a career-low six interceptions, while adding 26 touchdowns and a 69.1 completion percentage, fourth in the NFL in 2019. He set a Vikings record for completions in a season with 425 and finished with the second-most passing yards (4,298) and passer rating (107.4) in Vikings history.

With 1,135 rushing yards, Cook became the eighth player in Vikings history to rush for 1,000 yards in a single season and the first since Adrian Peterson in 2015. Despite missing the final two games of the season, Cook finished fourth in the NFL with 13 rushing touchdowns and seventh in scrimmage yards with 1,654.

WR Stefon Diggs set a career high with 1,130 receiving yards, giving him back-to-back 1,000-receiving yard seasons for the first time in his career. Diggs finished fourth in the NFL with an average of 17.9 yards per reception in 2019.

Stefanski was elevated from quarterbacks coach to interim offensive coordinator in Week 15 of the 2018 season and promptly guided the unit to two of its best showings of the season. In his first game calling plays, Minnesota scored a season-high 41 points and recorded 418 yards of offense en route to a 41-17 victory over the Dolphins.

As quarterbacks coach in 2017, the Vikings were forced to go to their backup, Case Keenum, early in the season after starter Sam Bradford went down with an injury. Keenum, who had completed 58 percent of his passes previously owned a 9-15 career record as a starter, went on to complete nearly 68 percent of his throws with 22 touchdowns and seven interceptions while leading the Vikings to a record of 11-3.

In his lone season coaching the running backs in 2016, the Vikings battled injuries along the offensive line and to RB Adrian Peterson that caused the runner to miss 13 games. The running game leaned on veterans Jerick McKinnon and Matt Asiata as the duo combined for 941 yards and eight rushing touchdowns.

As tight ends coach, Stefanski helped develop Pro Bowl TE Kyle Rudolph. In 2015, his unit helped clear the way for Adrian Peterson to lead the NFL in rushing with 1,485 yards.

Stefanski was elevated to assistant quarterbacks coach in 2009, where he had a hands-on role in one of the most successful offensive seasons in Vikings history. Veteran QB Brett Favre signed with the team in mid-August and closed the season with 4,202 passing yards and 33 touchdowns. The Vikings finished the season 12-4 and won the NFC North.

Stefanski spent 2006-08 working directly with Head Coach Brad Childress on administrative duties and special projects. Stefanski first worked with Childress during Eagles training camp in 2005 as part of the team’s operations department.

Stefanski spent the 2005 season at his alma mater, Pennsylvania, as assistant director of football operations, coordinating all aspects of the Quakers’ day-to-day operations.

A team captain as a senior in 2003, Stefanski was part of one of the most successful stretches in the history of the Quaker football program. The team won three Ivy League titles (2000, 2002 and 2003), and went 10-0 in 2003 to become the first undefeated Penn team in a decade. During Stefanski’s tenure, the squad posted a 42-7 overall record and a 32-3 mark in Ivy League play.

Stefanski earned a bachelor’s degree in communications from Pennsylvania and attended St. Joseph’s Prep in Philadelphia.

In 2022, the Browns received inaugural John B. Wooten Award by the Fritz Pollard Alliance. The award honors NFL teams that embody workplace diversity, equity and inclusion across the hierarchy. The Browns have filled their business and football operations departments with multiple fellowships and minority hires that have helped the organization grow. Stefanski, along with EVP and GM Andrew Berry, created the Bill Willis Coaching Fellowship for a rising minority coach with a focus on the offensive side of the ball. Stefanski also hired Callie Brownson as Chief of Staff in 2020, who later became first woman to coach an NFL position group in a regular-season game.

The Stefanski family has made a name in athletics as Kevin’s father, Ed, was a basketball standout at Penn and works in the front office of the Detroit Pistons. He has previously held executive positions with the NBA’s New Jersey Nets, Philadelphia 76ers, Toronto Raptors and Memphis Grizzlies.

Stefanski and wife, Michelle, have a daughter and two sons.
