CAESARS SUPERDOME - NEW ORLEANS, LA.

THE MATCHUP

The New Orleans Saints (1-1) will play their second consecutive AFC opponent of the season this week when they begin a three-game homestand by taking on the Las Vegas Raiders (2-0) at the Caesars Superdome with a 3:25 p.m. CT kickoff. The Saints are are currently tied for first in the division with the Carolina Panthers.

New Orleans will be looking for their fourth consecutive win against inter-conference opponent for the first time since the 2019 season, when they swept their AFC south opponents.

Last Sunday, New Orleans defeated the Baltimore Ravens, 24-17 at M&T Bank Stadium. The second half was highlighted by inspired play on offense, defense and special teams after trailing the Ravens 14-6 at halftime. In the second half, QB Tyler Shough completed 15-of-19 passes for 150 yards with one touchdown and zero interceptions, while rushing for a one-yard touchdown behind a push from the offensive line, completing a 16-play, 68-yard drive that gave the Black and Gold a 24-17 lead. WR Chris Olave caught five receptions for 54 yards in the second half, including a 21-yard touchdown midway through the fourth quarter to tie the score after RB Travis Etienne's two-point conversion. Olave is ranked second in the NFL in both receptions (18) and receiving yards (268) in picking up right where he left off in his breakthrough 100-catch campaign in 2025.

The New Orleans defense progressed in virtually every area from Week One. They held Ravens RB Derrick Henry to 68 yards rushing and QB Lamar Jackson to 34 yards on the ground, not allowing a gain more than 13 yards in minimizing big plays. S Julian Blackmon recorded the team's first interception of 2026, as his fourth-quarter pick ended Baltimore's hopes. The pass rush delivered three sacks, led by edge rusher Chase Young's 1.5 quarterback takedowns.

Special teams is developing into a strength for New Orleans, as K Daniel Carlson was a perfect three-for-three on field goal attempts. Rookie WR/RS Barion Brown returned a kickoff a career-long 53 yards late in the second quarter, to set up a Carlson field goal that reduced New Orleans' halftime deficit to 14-6.

In his first season at the helm in New Orleans, Moore rallied the team from a 2-10 start to win four of the final five games. The Saints went 4-0 in the month of December, going undefeated in the month for the first time since 2011 and only the third time in franchise history. Moore put his imprint on the team in year one on offense, mixing a combination of rookie QB Tyler Shough, protected by a pair of promising young tackles in Kelvin Banks Jr. and Taliese Fuaga, along with WR Chris Olave and TE Juwan Johnson. Including Shough and Banks, whose 1,066 snaps on offense was a club-high to earn PFWA All-Rookie honors. Moore and his staff successfully integrated a total of five rookies into the starting lineup and important rotational roles. Before joining the Eagles in 2024, where the Super Bowl LIX champions ranked eighth in net yards per game (367.2), seventh in points per game (27.2) and second in rushing yards per game (179.3), Moore served as offensive coordinator of the Los Angeles Chargers in 2023 and the Dallas Cowboys from 2019-22 after starting his coaching career as quarterbacks coach in Dallas in 2018. In four seasons as offensive coordinator of the Cowboys, Moore's unit ranked second in the NFL in total offense (391.0 net yards per game) and scoring (27.7 points per game). The Dallas offense was also the league's fourth-best passing offense (264.4 net yards per game) and ranked seventh in rushing offense (126.6 yards per game) over that span.

COORDINATOR CORNER

SPECIAL TEAMS COORD. PHIL GALIANO

Phil Galiano is in his second full season as the Saints' special teams coordinator. A coaching veteran with 26 years of experience, including ten in the NFL, Galiano spent six seasons (2019-24) as New Orleans' assistant special teams coach before taking over coordinator duties full-time in 2025.

In 2026, Galiano will shepherd a special teams unit featuring a new kicker (Daniel Carlson), a new punter (Ryan Wright) and additions in the return game.

In Galiano's first full season leading the Saints special teams, defensive tackle Nathan Shepherd was named the Week Ten recipient of NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors, after he blocked Carolina's 48-yard attempt. Defensive tackle Bryan Bresee had the team's first blocked field goal in Week One against Arizona. Galiano retooled a coverage unit that had their top six tacklers new to the Saints leaderboard from 2024 into 2025, led by linebacker Isaiah Stalbird, who led the club with six stops.

Galiano's work from 2019-24 with Darren Rizzi, who served as coordinator, helped make the kicking game an important key to victory for New Orleans. On coverage units, J.T. Gray's 93 tackles ranked first in the NFL during that span, with the special teams ace selected as an Associated Press All-Pro three times. The punting game also produced the top five seasons in club history for punts inside-the-20-yard line. Since 2019, the Saints have excelled in the return game. Over the seven-season period, the team has been ranked sixth in the National Football League in punt return average (10.3) and are tied for fourth in the leauge with three punts returned for touchdowns.

A three-year starter at safety for Shippensburg, Galiano served as a tri-captain during his senior campaign. He helped lead the Raiders to consecutive winning seasons (1997-99). The Norristown, Pa. native graduated with a degree in business administration.

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR DOUG NUSSMEIER

Doug Nussmeier enters his second season as New Orleans' offensive coordinator in 2026, marking his 11th campaign in the NFL coaching ranks and 12th overall as an offensive coordinator at the NFL and collegiate levels.

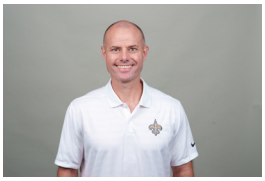

A 25-year coaching veteran, Nussmeier returned to New Orleans in 2025 after originally being a fourth round pick (116th overall) of the Saints in the 1994 NFL Draft out of Idaho, playing four seasons with the Black and Gold. He re-joined the Saints after spending the 2024 season as quarterbacks coach of the Philadelphia Eagles.

In his first season with the Saints coaching staff in 2025, Nussmeier helped the offensive improve steadily throughout the season. Nussmeier and Head Coach Kellen Moore devised a scheme behind rookie signal-caller Tyler Shough that accentuated his abilities and helped the Black and Gold finish the season 5-4. Depite having only nine starts, Shough completeed 221-of-327 passes (67.6 pct.) for 2,384 yards with ten touchdowns and a 91.3 passer rating, while leading the team in rushing touchdowns to accentuate his athleticism and earn PFWA All-Rookie. By season's end, the Saints had a pair of players - WR Chris Olave and TE Juwan Johnson - for the first time since the 2016 season.

Nussmeier finished his college playing career at the University of Idaho as the program's all-time leading passer with 10,824 career passing yards over five years (1989-93). He won the Walter Payton Award in 1993, which was at the time given annually to the top player in NCAA Division 1-AA after throwing for a program-record 33 touchdown passes and leading the Vandals to a national semifinal berth. Nussmeier was named Big Sky Conference Offensive Player of the Year in 1992 and was inducted into the University of Idaho Athletic Hall of Fame in 2008.

A Portland, Ore. native, Nussmeier and his wife, Christi, have two sons, Garrett and Colton, and a daughter, Ashlynn. Garrett played quarterback at LSU from 2021-25 and was a seventh-round pick of the Kansas City Chiefs in the 2026 NFL Draft.

COORDINATOR CORNER

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR BRANDON STALEY

Brandon Staley is in his second season as defensive coordinator for the Saints in 2026. A 20-year coaching veteran, including the last nine in the NFL and three seasons as head coach of the Los Angeles Chargers, Staley oversaw a Saints unit that made great strides in his first season with New Orleans.

In 2025, New Orleans finished the season ranked ninth in opponent yards per game (299.8), fourth in opponent net passing yards per game (179.2), fifth in forced fumbles (11), sixth in opponent rushing yards per play (3.97) and tenth in opponent red zone touchdown percentrage (53.2). The club did not allow a 300-yard passer. The unit was especially stout on third down, ranking third in the NFL in opponent third down conversion rate (34.3). The 2025 Saints were one of eight teams that finished in the league's top-12 units in EPA (Expected Points Added) against both the run and the pass, including second against the rush.

With edge defenders Cameron Jordan (10.5) and Chase Young (career-high 10.0) each reaching double-digit sacks, the Saints were one of only three teams to have two defenders with at least ten takedowns. LB Demario Davis led the team with 143 tackles and two forced fumbles. CBs Alontae Taylor, whose seven stops for a loss were tied for third in the NFL at the position, and Kool-Aid McKinstry, who led the team with his first three career interceptions and was tied for sixth in the league with 17 pass breakups, enjoyed breakout campaigns. Staley and the defensive backfield coaching staff also successfully integrated a pair of promising rookies into the lineup. CB Quincy Riley was named to the CBS Sports and ESPN.com All-Rookie teams after playing in all 17 games (five starts) and totaling 34 tackles, ten passes defensed (tied for fourth in the NFL among rookies), one interception and one forced fumble. S Jonas Sanker entered the starting lineup in Week Two and led the secondary with 78 stops and ranked second among rookie safeties with three takeaways, tied for first on the team, earning ESPN.com All-Rookie.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH/ RUNNING BACKS JOEL THOMAS

Joel Thomas, a 26-year coaching veteran, has tutored the Saints running backs for ten seasons (2015-23 and 2025-). After spending the 2024 season coaching the New York Giants running backs, the Port Angeles, Wash. native returned to New Orleans in 2025 with the additional title of associate head coach.

In Thomas' ten seasons presiding over the Saints running backs, New Orleans tailbacks have led a balanced attack on the ground and through the air. The Saints' 170 rushing touchdowns are tied for fifth in the NFL and their 18,649 rushing yards rank 13th. A Saints tailback has ranked in the top ten in the NFL in receiving at the position in eight of the ten campaigns of Thomas' Black and Gold tenure, with the 1,084 receptions by Saints running backs the most in the league at the position. Thomas has helped his running backs earn six Pro Bowl selections - Alvin Kamara (2017-21) and Mark Ingram (2017).

Under Thomas' tutelage, Kamara, the Saints' all-time rushing yardage leader, was the only NFL player with at least 1,160 total yards from scrimmage in each of the seven seasons he first coached him, three of them 1,500 or more. In 2023, under Thomas' tutelage, Kamara, the team's all-time rushing leader, became the franchise's all-time leader in yards from scrimmage, rushing touchdowns and total touchdowns. Thomas also coached Ingram, New Orleans' career rushing leader from 2021-24, for six years, including two 1,000-yard campaigns. During his first New Orleans tenure, the Saints ranked in the top six in the NFL in rushing three times (2017, 2018 and 2020).

Thomas lettered at running back at Idaho from 1993-98, where he was a two-time first-team All-Big West selection and conference Player of the Year as a senior and still holds Vandals career records with 3,929 rushing yards and 51 TDs on 765 attempts. He was inducted into the University of Idaho Athletic Hall of Fame in 2008. Thomas earned his degree in public communications in 1998. He served as the head coach for the victorious American team for the 2026 Panini Senior Bowl.

GAME SUMMARIES

WEEK 1: Detroit Lions 31, Saints 30; September 13 @ Ford Field - Tyler Shough chose the worst day of his young NFL career to post the best day of his NFL career, and it was nearly enough for the New Orleans Saints to pull off one of the most improbable comebacks in franchise history.

But after rallying from a 21-0 deficit in the third quarter the Saints fell just short in a 31-30, overtime loss to the Lions in the season opener on Sunday at Ford Field in Detroit.

"The defense did a lot of good things in the first half, they competed, they battled. They kept that offense from scoring for the most part," Saints Coach Kellen Moore said. "I think in the second half we started slow again on offense ... I think we finally got to that point where we started executing, and I think that allowed us to use some tempo offense to get some more plays to get the ball downfield. ... I think in all three phases we are going to have some stuff we liked and some stuff we've just got to get better at."

Shough, in his second season and 10th start, completed 10 of 22 passes for 85 yards and an interception in the first half, after which the Saints trailed 7-0. And he committed turnovers on consecutive possessions in the third quarter – an interception and lost fumble – that helped the Lions post short-field touchdown drives (41 and 25 yards) to take the three-touchdown lead with 8:54 left in the third.

But Shough and the offense created momentum on New Orleans' next drive with a scrambling, 47-yard completion to Chris Olave and from there, he was on a heater. He completed 25 of 34 passes in the second half and overtime, for 325 yards and three touchdowns, as the Saints climbed until they tied the game at 24-24 at the end of regulation.

Shough's 410 passing yards was a career high, and Olave, a second-team All-Pro last year, caught 10 passes for 182 yards as New Orleans scored on four consecutive possessions – three touchdowns and a field goal – before driving and to leave kicker Daniel Carlson in position to end the game on a 62-yard field goal attempt as time expired in regulation.

The kick attempt, which would have been a career best for Carlson, was short and wide right.

The Saints were undeterred.

They won the overtime coin toss, deferred, watched the Lions drive 70 yards in 10 plays to take a 31-24 lead, then mounted their own touchdown drive – 10 plays, 80 yards, including a 20-yard completion to Olave on fourth-and-3 from their own 27 to keep the march alive. Shough's 8-yard touchdown pass to tight end Noah Fant pulled the Saints to within 31-30 with 1:34 left and from there, they went for the winning two-point conversion. But Shough's pass attempt for Bryce Lance sailed out of the back right corner of the end zone, and the comeback fell short.

"I was proud of how we fought as a team and regardless of the adversity or circumstances we kept going ," Shough said. "I just got to play better in the first half. We've got to player better as an offense, get a rhythm going. ...Credit to them, they had some unscouted looks, obviously, it's the first game, there is going to be some new looks. We just have to be able to handle that swing better. It was a good fight to the end."

Shough went 17 of 23 for 231 yards, two touchdown passes, and a 134.5 passer rating in the fourth quarter and overtime. According to NFL research, the only player in the entire 2025 season with a fourth quarter/overtime with more passing yards than Shough had was Josh Allen's 251 in Week 1, 2025 vs the Ravens.

The total points allowed didn't speak well for the defense, but also it didn't tell the complete story. In the first half, little more could have been demanded or provided by the unit. It allowed a 13-play, 89-yard touchdown drive, but otherwise, it surrendered just 72 yards and appeared to have scored a second-quarter touchdown of its own, until the play was reversed on replay.

On third-and-16 from the Detroit 32-yard line, Saints edge Chase Young blazed around the right end and appeared to sack Lions quarterback Jared Goff. In the process Young forced a fumble that, after a scramble, was recovered by safety Jonas Sanker and returned 7 yards for a touchdown with 9:31 left in the half.

But replay reviewed the fumble, ruled that Goff intended a forward pass, and reversed the play. Goff was charged with an incompletion and Detroit was allowed to punt.

The defense actually did produce a turnover – following a replay, ironically – on Detroit's next possession. After the Saints were forced to punt following Detroit's non-fumble, the Lions took over with first down at the New Orleans 44.

Goff completed a short, 4-yard pass to running back Jahmyr Gibbs and as Gibbs shimmied and attempted to advance forward, defensive tackle Vernon Broughton smashed him from the blind side and ripped away the ball as they fell to the turf. Gibbs initially was ruled down by contact but after review, it was determined that the football was dislodged before Gibbs' knee was down. The Saints were successful on the challenge, and took possession at their 40-yard line with 7:40 left in the half.

The jubilation was short-lived. Five plays later, on second-and-6 from the Lions 40, Shough and Fant got their signals crossed and Shough's pass attempt went directly to Detroit safety Chuck Clark, who returned it 1 yard to the 36. The teams exchanged punts before the Lions ran out the final 20 seconds of the half.

GAME SUMMARIES

WEEK 2: New Orleans Saints 24, Baltimore Ravens 17; September 20 @ M&T Bank Stadium - Scared money doesn't make money, and if the New Orleans Saints have shown nothing else in the first two weeks of the regular season, it's that they're not scared money in the 2026 season.

A week after going for a two-point conversion and the win in an overtime road loss to Detroit, Saints Head Coach Kellen Moore rolled the dice on fourth-and-goal from the 1 with 92 seconds left in a 17-17 game against the Ravens at M&T Stadium in Baltimore.

"Fortunate for us to get that. Obviously was gonna go for it in that situation – a chance to score a touchdown, (and) if not, we're forcing them to be on the minus one and go the long way," Moore said. "But it felt like we could get it done there."

New Orleans quarterback Tyler Shough strained, muscled and was shoved across the goal line plane – a call that withstood the replay official's review – and that score stood as the game winner when safety Julian Blackmon intercepted Lamar Jackson's pass at the Saints' seven-yard line with 13 seconds left.

New Orleans (1-1) offered another riveting performance and this time, all three phases played a significant role as the Saints eliminated the turnovers (from three against the Lions in the season opener to none Sunday) and shrunk the penalties to five, for 35 yards.

Shough completed 27 of 34 passes for 252 yards and one touchdown, ran for 23 yards and one touchdown and received big-time assistance from his offensive line (which lost left tackle Kelvin Banks Jr. to an ankle injury with 2:02 remaining in the third quarter), receiver Chris Olave (eight catches for 86 yards and a touchdown) and tight end Juwan Johnson (four catches, 66 yards), who made several critical catches in the second half.

Defensively, the Saints sacked the elusive Jackson three times (1.5 by explosive edge rusher Chase Young), held the Ravens to only one field goal in the second half and clamped down for four quarters: A week after the Ravens posted 41 points and 500-plus yards, they were limited to 17 points and 312 total net yards.

On special teams, Daniel Carlson made all three field goal attempts (23, 47 and 51 yards), rookie receiver Barion Brown had a 53-yard kickoff return to set up a field goal that pulled New Orleans to within 14-6 at halftime, and recently-signed long snapper Scott Daly was flawless in his Saints debut.

All in all, it was the kind of performance – on the road, against a quality opponent – that the Saints have believed themselves capable of rendering since they began OTAs.

As was the case in the opener against the Lions, New Orleans trailed by one score at halftime; 14-6 against the Ravens after 7-0 versus the Lions. And, again defensively, New Orleans did what it could to keep an explosive offensive off the scoreboard.

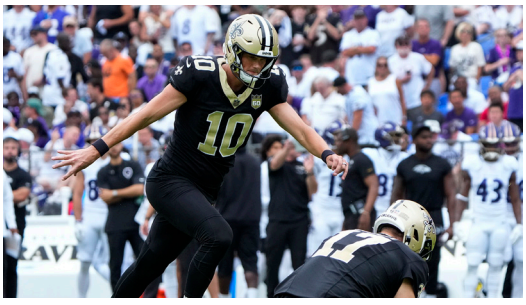

The Ravens' touchdowns came courtesy of a 1-yard run by Derrick Henry and a 23-yard pass from Jackson to Rashod Bateman with 24 seconds left in the half to give Baltimore a 14-3.

But Brown returned the kickoff 53 yards to the Baltimore 44-yard line, Shough ran for 2 yards and completed a 13-yard pass to Devaughn Vele to set up Carlson's 47-yard field goal as time expired in the half.

Both Shough and Jackson were precise in the first half; Shough completed 12 of 15 for 102 yards, and Jackson connected on 13 of 16 for 171 yards and the touchdown. Vele caught three passes for 53 yards in the half.

The Saints helped bottle themselves up with three penalties (for 25 yards), and three plays that were tackled for loss. One of those was a fumbled toss attributed to Shough, but recovered by running back Travis Etienne Jr. for a 7-yard loss.

Those errors mainly disappeared in the second half, when the Saints outscored Baltimore 18-3 and scored on three of four possessions – two touchdowns, a two-point conversion run by Etienne and a field goal from Carlson.

Gray, wide receiver/return specialist Deonte Harty and wide receiver/return specialist Rashid Shaheed) and San Diego/Los Angeles Chargers (2003: guard Kris Dielman, tight end Antonio Gates and wide receiver Kasim Osgood) are the only two teams to have three players signed as undrafted free agents be selected to a Pro Bowl for the team that originally signed them.

FROM THE FIELD TO THE SIDELINE

Kellen Moore was the seventh New Orleans Saints head coach to have played in the National Football League, joining Tom Fears, John North, Dick Nolan, Mike Ditka, Jim Haslett and Sean Payton. Moore, who finished his college playing career at Boise State with a record of 50-3, the most wins by a quarterback in NCAA history, played six seasons for the Detroit Lions (2012-14) and Dallas Cowboys (2015-17). This Sunday, Moore returns to the sideline at Ford Field, where he started his NFL career as a backup signal-caller for the Lions, who signed as a free agent following the 2012 NFL Draft.

BARKING UP THE RIGHT TREE

With Moore as his offensive coordinator in 2024 with the Eagles, Philadelphia running back Saquon Barkley had one of the best seasons by a tailback in NFL history. The consensus National Football League Offensive Player of the Year, a first-team Associated Press All-Pro and Pro Bowl starter selection, Barkley led the league with a franchise-record 2,005 rushing yards in the regular season, making him just the ninth player in NFL history to post 2,000+ rushing yards in a season, eight-most in league records. Including 499 rushing yards in the playoffs which ranked third all-time, Barkley's 2,504 rushing yards were the most in NFL single-season history (regular season and postseason combined).

2024 DRAFT CONTRIBUTORS

The team's top three selections in the 2024 NFL Draft started multiple games for the Saints in both 2024 and 2025. Below is a summary of the performance of five of the top six 2024 draft picks, as each of them made a jump in 2025 and will look to continue to rise in 2026:

RT Taliese Fuaga, Oregon State (first round) - Selected with the 14th overall pick out of Oregon State, the Saints were able to address an immediate need, while also acquiring a cornerstone for the future. Fuaga was an anchor on the Saints offensive line in his rookie campaign, seamlessly moving over to the left tackle position for his first NFL season, where he opened every game for an offense that improved in every rushing metric. Starting all 17 games, he was the first Saint to start every game in his rookie year at the offensive line's most challenging position since J.T. Taylor in 1978. In 2025, Fuaga moved back to his natural right tackle position, starting 13 games as a bookend to left tackle Kelvin Banks Jr., as the duo serve as building blocks for the New Orleans front line moving forward.

CB Kool-Aid McKinstry, Alabama (second round) - Selected in the second round of the 2024 NFL Draft with the 41st overall pick out of Alabama, McKinstry arrived in New Orleans having covered many of the nation's top wideouts in the Southeastern Conference for three years. In 2023, the consensus first-team All-American was a semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award in his final college campaign, making 32 tackles and seven passes defensed.

Opening every contest in his second season in 2025, he recorded 76 tackles (59 solo) with, three interceptions and a club-best 17 pass breakups, tied for sixth in the National Football League and third in the NFC. The Pinson, Ala. native recorded the first two picks of his career in the October 5, 2025 win over the New York Giants, capturing NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for the first time in his career. In 34 career games with 28 starts, he has totals of 127 stops (97 solo), three picks, 25 pass breakups and one special teams tackle.

QB Spencer Rattler, South Carolina (D5a) - Selected with the team's first selection in the fifth round (150th overall) out of South Carolina, Rattler completed 900-of-1,313 passes (68.5 pct.) for 10,807 yards with 77 touchdowns and only 32 interceptions for the Gamecocks (2022-23) and Oklahoma (2019-21).

As a rookie in 2024, Rattler appeared in seven games with six starts, he completed 130-of-228 passes for a Saints rookie-record 1,317 yards with four touchdowns, also carrying 18 times for 146 yards. In 2025 in nine games with eight starts, Rattler completed 173-of-257 passes (67.3 pct.) for 1,586 yards with eight touchdowns, five interceptions and an 86.8 passer rating. As a rookie, Ford established a role on special teams, contributing five tackles before suffering a fibula injury in Week 17. In 2025, he had nine coverage tackles and two defensive stops.

[2024 DRAFT CONTRIBUTORS]

In the 2026 preseason, Ford stepped up in starting and play-calling duty before being placed on Injured Reserve-designated to return prior to Week One.

DT Khristian Boyd, Northern Iowa (D6) - A sixth round selection, Boyd appeared in 49 career games in college and collected 149 tackles (59 solo), 22.5 stops for loss, 10.5 sacks, five pass breakups and two forced fumbles.

In his final college season, Boyd started all 11 games along and had 43 stops, 6.5 tackles for loss, 3.5 sacks and a pass breakup, earning All-MVFC first-team and consensus FCS third-team All-American. Following a full offseason, and utilizing his 6-2, 320-pound frame to fit into the Saints' 3-4 alignment, the Kansas City native provided a push to New Orleans' interior line along the stretch run in 2025. He made his 2026 debut against Baltimore on Sunday, where he saw 20 snaps plugging the middle of the New Orleans front line.

SPECIAL TEAMS OVERVIEW

Saints special teams benefited from the elevation of Phil Galiano to coordinator, after serving as assistant special teams coach for five-and-a-half seasons before taking over coordination of the unit midway through the 2024 season. During Galiano's tenure, the special teams units have consistently ranked among the NFL's leaders in placekicking, coverage and return units, producing Pro Bowlers and Associated Press All-Pros, while also setting various club records in placekicking, punting, return game and coverage units. Under Galiano's direction, the club has committed to a transition of a mix of seasoned veterans and several promising youngsters, supplemented by some key additions in free agency and the draft in 2026.

BLOCK UNIT

New Orleans' field goal block unit came through big on two occassions in 2025, after doing so three times in 2024.

The field goal block unit's hard work carried over into the 2025 season opener, as third-year defensive tackle Bryan Bresee blocked a fourth quarter 46-yard field goal attempt to give the offense the ball back for a drive where they ended up scoring a field goal.

In the third quarter of New Orleans' November 9 win at Carolina, narrowly holding onto a 10-7 third quarter lead, DT Nathan Shepherd blocked a 48-yard field goal attempt. For his efforts, Shepherd was named the Week Ten NFC Special Teams Player of the Week.

In Sunday's 24-17 win over hte Baltimore Ravens, EDGE Carl Granderson blocked a 49-yard field goal attempt by K Tyler Loup, aided by pressure from teammates Justin Reid and special teams captain Chris Rumph.

COVERAGE UNITS

Galiano and Assistant Special Teams Coach Kyle Wilber were tasked with remaking the coverage aspect of the special teams units with the top six tacklers from the 2024 campaign not on the roster. Second-year LB Isaiah Stalbird led the team with 16 stops. The Unit's top three tacklers return to the team in 2026.

After signing following the 2024 NFL Draft, Stalbird played in five games and recorded three special teams tackles. In 2025, he played in all 17 contests and buoyed the coverage units with a club-best 16 stops, while also leading the linebackers with two sacks. In the September 13 season opener at the Detroit Lions, he led the team with three coverage tackles before missing Sunday's Week Two contest at the Baltimore Ravens with a shoulder injury.

Signed by New Orleans following the 2025 NFL Draft, Rumph provided depth at the edge position and knowledge of Defensive Coordinator Brandon Staley's system from their time together with the Los Angeles Chargers. He developed into a core speccial teams player for the Black and Gold and added 14 stops. In addition to his special teams acumen, Rumph has the intelligence and skillset to contribute at both the EDGE and inside linebacker positions. Voted by his teammates as a team captain based on the leadership he provides on coverage units, he has two stops in 2026.

The second of the team's two fourth round picks in 2025, Stutsman immediately assumed a significant role on special teams, as well as seeing action on defensive packages, finishing third on the Saints with 13 coverage stops. On Sunday at Baltimore, Stutsman had a career-high three coverage tackles.

WR/RS BARION BROWN

The Saints' sixth-round pick out of LSU ranks statistically as one of the top special teams playmakers in college football history. Brown finished his career second in NCAA history with six kickoffs returned for touchdowns (Southeastern Conference record), one shy of the NCAA record. In the return game throughout his college career at Kentucky (2022-24) and LSU (2025), he returned 65 kickoffs for 1,910 yards (29.4 avg.) with six touchdowns and 11 punt returns for 85 yards. QUARTERBACKS

TYLER SHOUGH

In 11 games with nine starts in 2025 after opening his first contest on November 2, Tyler Shough, the team's second round draft pick out of Louisville, completed 221-of-327 passes (67.6 pct.) for 2,384 yards with ten touchdowns and only six interceptions, posting a 91.3 passer rating, also carrying 45 times for 186 yards with a club-best three touchdowns and an additional two-point conversion rush. A consensus All-Rookie selection and one of five finalists for the Associated Press NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year honors, Shough ended up leading rookie signal-callers in wins (five), third down passer rating (third-best 103.3), completion percentage, 300-yard passing games (two) and fourth quarter game-winning drives (three).

In 2026, Shough has assumed the leadership reigns of the Black and Gold throughout the offseason and in training camp, as he looks to continue his progression in his sophomore season, as well as helping the Saints take their next step forward in the team's deveopment.

PROLIFIC PASSING

In the 2026 season opener at Detroit, Shough overcame a slow start by himself and the Saints offense to nearly lead the team to a comeback from a 21-0 deficit. Shough completed 35-of-56 passes for 410 yards with three touchdowns. The second-year signal caller set career-highs in attempts, completions passing yards and passing touchdowns.

With New Orleans down 21-0, Shough led the Saints on four consecutive scoring drives: two third quarter touchdown drives to cut the deficit to 21-14, a drive for a field goal at the start of the fourth quarter to cut it to 21-17 and then an eight-play, 74-yard drive that ended with a nine-yard touchdown pass to TE Juwan Johnson to tie the score at 24-24. After the New Orleans defense forced a three and out the Saints got the ball back and Shough connected with Johnson for 18 yards to set up a 62-yard field goal attempt at the end of regulation. In overtime, Shough led the Saints on a ten-play, 80-yard drive that culminated with an eight-yard connection in the end zone with TE Noah Fant, putting his team in position to take victory until the failed two-point attempt to end the contest.

Shough's career-high 410 passing yards marked the 18th-highest total in franchise history and the 18th 400-yard passing game. He joins Drew Brees and Aaron Brooks as only the third Saint to throw for 400 yards. It was the first time a Saint threw for at least 400 yards in a contest since Brees tossed for 439 yards in the 2018 season opener vs. Tampa Bay.

Shough's 325 passing yards in the second half and overtime marks a club-best for passing yardage in a second half/overtime and is tied for the 17th-highest total in NFL record books.

COMEBACK KID

In New Orleans' 24-17 fourth quarter come-from-behind win at the Baltimore Ravens, Shough engineered the Saints back to victory from the biggest fourth quarter deficit they faced in his 13 career starts.

Following a successful two-point conversion, the score was tied 17-17.

GAME-WINNERS

JIn the clutch, Shough become the first Saint since 2020 to lead the Black and Gold to two straight fourth quarter/overtime game-winning drives, when Drew Brees did so in 2020, including leading the team from a 17-10 fourth quarter deficit in the December 14, 2025, 20-17 victory over Carolina.

In New Orleans' Dec. 28 win at Tennessee, Shough had his third of the season, with the Saints trailing 26-20 in the fourth quarter. Shough overcame a lost fumble by the Saints on their first drive of the final period. Following the fumble, Shough took advantage of the defense quickly getting the ball back and went to work with 8:45 left. Following a 12 yard carry by RB Audric Estime, Shough completed a pass for a 60-yard gain to WR Chris Olave to the Titans eight-yard line. On second down, the rookie signal-caller and WR Kevin Austin Jr. connected in the end zone for a ten-yard TD to complete New Orleans' comeback. Despite only playing in 11 games with nine starts, Shough's three fourth quarter game-winning drives led all rookies and were the most by a Saint since Brees' three in 2020.

HERE FOR SECONDS

In his second career start at Carolina on Nov. 9, 2025, Shough completed 19-of-27 passes for a then Saints rookie-record 282 yards with two touchdowns, zero interceptions and a 128.9 passer rating. His first TD pass was a 62-yard laser to WR Chris Olave, which was the second-longest touchdown thrown by a Saints rookie QB, with Archie Manning throwing a 63-yarder to WR Danny Abramowicz on Oct. 3, 1971 against the Houston Oilers. With the victory, Shough became the first Saints rookie signal-caller to win a start since Dave Wilson (at L.A. Rams, 11/8/81). Overall he became the fourth Saints rookie to win a start, joining Wilson, Manning (1971) and Larry Cipa (1974).

The last time a Saints quarterback had 2+ touchdown passes and zero interceptions in one of his first two career starts was Manning (9/26/71 @San Francisco).

NEW ORLEANS SAINTS AT BALTIMORE RAVENS
SUNDAY, SEPT. 20, 2026 ● M&T BANK STADIUM
SAINTS POSTGAME NOTES

- With the 24-17 win over the Ravens, the Saints even their record at 1-1 on the season. The victory gives New Orleans a 3-6 record against Baltimore and their second straight road victory against the Ravens.

- The Saints return to action next Sunday for their home opener against the Las Vegas Raiders with a 3:25 kickoff. The game will be regionally televised on CBS (WWL 4 locally).

- New Orleans overcame a 14-3 deficit, scoring 15 unanswered points to close the game in the fourth quarter.

- With the win over Baltimore, the Saints have won three straight games against AFC opponents dating back to their win over the New York Jets on Dec. 21, 2025. It is their first three-game winning streak against AFC opponents since a three-game streak from Dec. 24, 2022-Oct. 8, 2023, when they defeated Cleveland, Tennessee and New England.

- QB Tyler Shough completed 27-of-34 passes (79.4 pct.) for 252 yards and one touchdown, while adding 23 rushing yards and a rushing TD. His 21-yard TD pass to Chris Olave tied the game at 17-17 before his one-yard rushing TD gave New Orleans the lead. With the win, Shough improves his record as a starter to 6-5. Shough engineered the fourth, fourth quarter game-winning drive of his career, when he led the Black and Gold on a 16-play, 68-yard drive that ended with a one-yard rushing touchdown.

- With 662 passing yards through the first two games, Shough's total is the most to start a season for a Saints signal-caller since Drew Brees in 2009 (669).

- Per ESPN Research, Shough, who was 12-of-14 for 119 yards with a passing touchdown and a rushing touchdown, joined Trevor Siemian (2021 at Philadelphia) as only the second Saints quarterback to in the last ten seasons to have 100+ passing yards, a passing TD and a rushing TD in the fourth quarter.

- RB Alvin Kamara recorded 9 carries for 15 yards and added 5 receptions for 7 yards. With the five grabs, he now has 611 for his career, as he surpassed Keith Byers for fifth all-time among running backs.

- RB Travis Etienne Jr. had 8 carries for 25 yards and 2 receptions for 6 yards; he also added the successful two-point conversion on the Saints' game-tying score.

- WR Chris Olave led the Saints with eight receptions for 86 yards and a touchdown, including a 21-yard touchdown reception that tied the game at 17 following the two-point conversion. With eight catches, he tied WR Danny Abramowicz for ninth all-time in club records.

- TE Juwan Johnson posted four receptions for 66 yards, including a 25-yard reception. With 2,631 receiving yards, he moved past RB Pierre Thomas for 18th in club records and has the most receiving yards by a player to be signed by the Saints as an undrafted free agent.

- WR Devaughn Vele added five receptions for 64 yards, including a team-long 29-yard catch.

- LB Pete Werner led the Saints defense with 11 tackles (eight solo) and one sack, as the Saints allowed only 40 yards rushing in the second half.

- EDGE Carl Granderson recorded five tackles, including one tackle for loss and a blocked field goal. He played in his 107th career game on Sunday and moved into a tie for 46th in club record books with LB Pat Swilling and S Gene Atkins.

- EDGE Chase Young finished with two tackles, 1.5 sacks, one tackle for loss and two QB hits.

- EDGE Cameron Jordan recorded two tackles. Jordan played in his 244th career game and moved into a tie for 74th all-time in NFL games played with Ray Donaldson, Chris Gardocki, Ricky Proehl, Terrell Suggs and Matt Turk.

- LB Kaden Elliss added six tackles, one tackle for loss and two QB hits.

- S Justin Reid recorded three solo tackles.

- S Julian Blackmon sealed the victory with an interception/pass breakup of Lamar Jackson with 20 seconds remaining, stopping Baltimore's final possession. Blackmon also added two solo tackles.

- In addition to Blackmon, CBs Kool-Aid McKinstry and Quincy Riley also added one pass breakup apiece.

- LB Danny Stutsman led the team with three special teams tackles and added one solo stop.

- In the return game, rookie WR/RS Barion Brown returned two kickoffs for 73 yards, including a 53-yard runback near the end of the second quarter to set up a field goal. He also brought back two punts for 13 yards.

- K Daniel Carlson drilled all three field goal attempts and one extra point for ten total points.

- P Ryan Wright had three punts for 117 yards with a 39.0 gross/net, with one downed at the Ravens six-yard line by S Michael Reid

RAVENS-SAINTS POSTGAME QUOTES

NEW ORLEANS SAINTS

Opening Statement: "At the end of the day, that was a fun battle. That was a really fun battle against a really talented team [in Baltimore]. For our team to come up here and come away with a victory, I think [I give] credit to our guys and just their resiliency. There are plenty of ups; there are plenty of downs in this game. There is a lot of stuff we have to get better at, but our guys stuck with it. Our guys stuck with it, and then we had an opportunity to kind of close it out, and our guys were able to get it done. So, [I'm] excited for those guys."

Is this resiliency you speak of the defining characteristic of this team at this point in the year? "Yes, I think that certainly is. As frustrating as there are moments in these games — and we all get frustrated — our guys just keep going. Our guys just keep going, and I thought the offense had some struggles there for a while just kicking field goals all game, and then we finally had that drive where we — coming off the three-and-out, we had a really bad three-and-out — and then we came out and went right down the field and made some big-time plays. I felt like that eased us a little bit on offense. Then our defense just kept battling. To force them to take a field goal on that long third-quarter drive — I thought that was huge — and so our guys just kept going."

What does it mean for these guys to just keep believing like that when they haven't necessarily had a reason to? "Yes, I think our guys are really close. Our guys are really well-connected, and I think that is important that these guys [are close]. All the stuff you do all offseason, it is for these moments right here. It is for these moments when things are not going great for you, and our guys are not looking at each other frustrated. They are looking at each other like, 'OK, we are going to find a solution, [and] we are going to find a way.' That is what the whole offseason is about: building."

I think it was right before that touchdown at the end — it took a third-and-8 where they had like a three-man rush — that was something that gave you all some trouble early last week. What did you see on that play that had you all come up with it? "That is the one that Juwan [Johnson] caught and ran, right? Yes. That's just guys being on the same page at the end of the day. I think that is the most important thing. Juwan [Johnson] and Tyler [Shough] being on the same page [with] the completion, and then his ability to run after the football [and] the run after the catch was a big part of that play. [It] extended us and gave us a really good situation to kind of hopefully finish it."

After the way last week went, how much did you feel like you needed a game like this for this group? "It's the NFL. Every week is going to be really hard. To open the season with two road games against two teams I think are going to be playing a lot of meaningful football towards the end of this year — those are two really talented teams — and our guys stuck with it all the way to the end both games. For both games to come down to one opportunity at the end — one possession — that is a good experience for our guys, because they are going to have more battles like these."

Walk me through what you're thinking when you're looking at that fourth-down replay where QB Tyler Shough is in the end zone, and it's being reviewed. What's going through your mind? "Obviously, I felt like, 'Hey, [it's] third down, we are going to sneak it.' I felt like we had a good opportunity there; I felt pretty good about that one, and that did not work out our way. Then the fourth-down one, those are tough, tough situations just because you lose the ball. That happened on the third-down one too, where I think it is hard — it is a hard play on the goal line — just because, even if you feel a surge, sometimes they lose sight of the football, and I think it is a challenging play for everyone who was a part of it, and so [it was] fortunate for us to get that. Obviously, we are going to go for it in that situation. [It's a] chance to score a touchdown. If not, we are forcing them to be on the -1 [-yard line] and go the long way, but felt like we could get it done there."

When you're in a goal-to-go situation, are you also consciously thinking 'I don't want to leave too much time for QB Lamar Jackson to possibly drive down the field.' What's kind of the thought process there? "Yes, you have got to have awareness as to what is going to happen after the fact that — whatever happens in that drive, you have got to know what is coming after that. So, we tried to run the football. [We] unfortunately had the false start, [so] that kind of put us in a little bit of a tricky spot just because now we are at the 7 [-yard line], and we kind of have to go earn this thing now, we are not on the 2 [-yard line]. Again, our guys battled, our guys handled all those moving pieces [and] all those situations right there at the end pretty well."

In hindsight, is the false start — considering that you did convert — does it almost become a good thing because you get to take even more off the clock, and they have to use their timeouts, and you're in a better situation? "I would say 'no,' because it was a lot more stressful" (laughter) "when you are at the 7 [-yard line] trying to score a touchdown. That derailed us, but our guys kept getting back into it."

What can you say specifically about the defense keeping QB Lamar Jackson and RB Derrick Henry in check in the second half? "I just thought our relentlessness — at the defensive line, the edge position [and the] linebackers blitzing — our guys just didn't stop. Lamar [Jackson] is going to make plays. He is one of the most talented quarterbacks in this league; he is a phenomenal player; he makes a lot of plays, and you cannot get discouraged when he makes a play. You have just got to keep going for it, and I thought that is what our guys did."

Is the consistent blitzing something that wears down a team as the game goes along? "Yes, I think it really takes the right mindset. Again, [Lamar Jackson] is going to make some plays, and you are going to be really close, and he is going to make a play on a [defensive lineman] that is going to be frustrating, [and] it is going to be a first down, and you just have got to keep going. So, I thought 'Grando' [Carl Granderson], even on the interception at the end, 'Grando's' rush was really big there. He made a play, and I just love the way our guys are playing."

I understand this was a team win, but when your quarterback plays like that late in a tight football game like this, what does it do for your team just from a confidence standpoint knowing that he has a chance to win it? "Tyler [Shough] is just steady. He is a steady player. He makes good decisions; he runs when he has to. The game is not too big for him ever, and we appreciate the heck out of the way he hangs in there, takes shots in the pocket at times when he has to, delivers and does not flinch one bit. So, that was a big-time performance by him."

Did you ever feel like you figured something out that allowed you to get a little bit more vertical in the passing game? "Yes, I thought there were some layering opportunities [with] just the way they were covering 'C.O' [Chris Olave] to kind of create some more layers to the defense and pass game. We were playing just behind the sticks. It wasn't good [during] the early part of that game and even into the third quarter where we just had way too many penalties, first-and-long [situations], second-and-long [situations and] third-and-forevers. That is a really, really rough formula. We can't play that way consistently, but our guys got through it. So, we have to clean that phase of this game up [and] make that look a little bit better. But, I thought that drive after the three-and-out was a big one for us. We were able to run the football efficiently enough and then make the pass game plays that we needed."

Why do you think the third-and-long plays always seem to work for you guys? It's almost unbelievable. "Well, I think Juwan [Johnson] has a phenomenal catch and run [ability]. That was a big-time play, and our guys are still resilient. They are going to keep battling no matter what the circumstances are. I thought there was some stuff in there that we could certainly embrace and recognize the good in there, but we have got plenty of stuff to improve on."

You saw a lot more of RB Alvin Kamara in the first half and then a little bit more of RB Travis Etienne in the second half. Was there anything with that? "Not necessarily a specific rhyme or reason. [It was] just the flow of the game."

On that three-and-out where you lost T Kelvin Banks Jr., do you have an update on him? Was part of the response you saw from the team an emotional one to him going down? "It always hurts when we lose guys. [Our] guys compete. Kelvin [Banks Jr.] has an ankle [injury], so we'll see what this thing looks like tomorrow, but our guys hung in there. They kept battling, and I thought Asim [Richards] did a good job of stepping in there. That is a good front. They're a talented front, and he did a really good job of stepping in there."

To get that big kick return by WR Barion Brown at the end of the half, you were able to steal some points there. How big was that play? "I thought that was huge. I thought that was huge. It is a 14-3 game right there, and then for us to steal three points, now you are back into a one-possession game at halftime with the ball to start the second half. So, I thought that was a big moment for us."

Has anything about the way QB Tyler Shough has handled the first two games surprised you or taught you anything else about him? "No, I think it just reconfirms [that Tyler Shough] is just going to keep going for it, and I think that is just the way he plays. There are highs and lows in games. There are things that go our way, [there are] things that do not go our way, and he just keeps going, and I think I was proud of him. That team — [Ravens head coach] Jesse [Minter] does a phenomenal job on third downs, and for us to be able to convert some of those critical third downs in big moments against a lot of pressure looks that are exotic and unique and stress your protection plans, I thought Tyler [Shough] did a really steady job of just executing there."

Did you get an explanation of why they reviewed the third-and-goal play in the fourth quarter? "I was asking about it. I did not get anything back."

RB Kendre Miller was inactive today. Was that just a numbers thing? "Yes, [a] numbers thing. We had a couple of tight end situations as the week progressed. Juwan [Johnson] was a little bit sick [and] missed some of the week, [and] Oscar [Delp] was coming back, so it felt like four tight ends there [and] three running backs. We had a few other pieces. We carried five edge rushers with Chase [Young] and Cam [Jordan] kind of returning to action there a little bit. So, we just had a few moving pieces."

Is RB CJ Donaldson's pass protection a big part of why he was playing this week? "Yes, CJ [Donaldson] does a really good job in the protection game. He has got kind of his fullback package that, certainly, we did not use as much today as normal. But, these guys are all going to play plenty of meaningful football. I talked to Kendre [Miller] about it. He is a big part of this. He is going to play plenty of football for us."

RB TRAVIS ETIENNE JR.

The tide really changed in the third quarter into the beginning of the fourth quarter. How did you guys change the momentum of the game? "We just had to keep believing. I feel like we [were] beating ourselves a lot in the first half. [We] had too many mistakes. [We] had to lock in and just keep playing. It's a four-quarter game. You can never get down on yourself, never give up and just keep plugging away — just forget about the results, go down there and just play each play down until you score."

What did you see on the game-winning touchdown? "Thank God we [were] able to make a play on the fourth down and get that play off. Whenever you need an inch in the NFL, you've got to be able to get that. We [were] able to get that. The football bounced in our favor today. [I'm] just grateful for that."

What does it say about the team going for it on fourth down instead of taking the field goal there. "Belief. I feel like [head] Coach [Kellen Moore] believed in us. We didn't go all that way to get to fourth-and-1. Although we do have a great defense, which was] another reason we [were] in the game. We got an inch and two minutes left, you've got Lamar Jackson on the other side of the field. Three points was not going to win the game there. Coach [Moore] just believed in us, and we believed in our preparation. We [were] able to get that play."

Two huge fourth-quarter comebacks so far this season, and this one you were successful with. What does that say about your young QB Tyler Shough? "It says a lot. It says a lot. It says he's very resilient, but we have to find a way to be better throughout the whole course of the game. We just can't keep relying on just being able to come back, because as the year goes, teams get better and better, and they get more disciplined. And we [are] starting to make these choices early in the season, but we have to find a way to be better in the first half — that way we could build on momentum going into the second half, and we [are] not always trying to fight our way back all the time."

What was it like having RB Alvin Kamara back? "It's great having Alvin [Kamara] back. I feel like we were in that 21 Pony [personnel], so I feel like he takes a lot of pressure off of me. The defense has to respect him, and so he has a lot of eyes moving with him to draw attention to him, so it gives me a chance to open up and get plays in space. So, we just have to continue to build off of that and keep getting better and just be better in the first half. I feel like I have to do a better job taking care of the ball, catching the ball, looking it in and things like that. If we just continue to get better and just focus on ourselves and right our wrongs, we'll be a great team."

Why do you think the moment hasn't been too big for this team? "We truly believe it's us versus the world. I feel like nobody believes in us, so we have nothing to lose. We're out there playing for each other, and that's the way we want it."

The third-and-longs haven't been too big. The end-of-game situations haven't been too big. It's crazy how you guys have been able to overcome every situation you've faced.

“We just believe in each other. We trust our preparation and trust our work. Coach [Kellen Moore] hits on [being in] these positions throughout the course of the week, so when we come out here, it’s just us executing. I feel like we just have to do a better job of executing and be better on first and second downs so [that] we won’t be in those third-and-long situations. So, that’s what we have to continue to get better at is on those early-down situations so [that] we [are] not always operating in third-and-long.”

On the two-point conversion, did that go as planned, or did you kind of have to ad-lib? What did you see on that play? “No, that went as planned. Right before the play happened, Juwan [Johnson] said, ‘Follow me.’ So, I just followed Juwan, and he escorted me to the end zone, so [I’m] grateful for him.”

What did you think of TE Juwan Johnson’s footwork on that little juke move? “I am about to get [Juwan Johnson] in the room with me and work on my moves after practice. I really love the way Juwan plays, man. I feel like nobody gives him the credit. He does a lot for this team. He’s blocking, he’s catching balls, [and] he escorted me to [the] touchdown on the two-point conversion, so I am just grateful that he’s a part of this team.”

TE JUWAN JOHNSON

You guys show this resilience, especially in that fourth quarter again. We have seen this now for two weeks where you guys still, despite how it starts, are able to figure things out, and this time you guys get to finish it off. “I feel like that is just a testament to the training camp and the offseason OTAs. You don’t want to give up on the guys that you have been spending a lot of time with. We have put a lot of investment in ourselves and each other. We spend a lot of time with each other. We play video games. We go out with each other. The one thing we would not want to do is let each other down. Despite what happens on the field, I think we do not give up because we know we have invested into each other [and] invested into this team. I think the biggest thing is just playing for each other and knowing that just because we start from behind does not mean we have to give up. Last year, we would have given up. We have seen it multiple times before where we gave up when we were down. [When] we are down, we never feel like the game is over, truly, until the game is actually over. Just know we are never counted out.”

Do you think QB Tyler Shough scored on that third down before he had to go to that fourth-and-goal? “I am not going to get into a whole political thing about it. At the end of the day, we scored and I am just going to leave it at that. We scored either way.”

On that fourth down are you looking at that replay going, “All right, we got this, right?” “Like I said, I do not know how the refs do it. They have a tough job themselves. I do not even want to step into that world. They have to do that [job].”

We talk about QB Tyler Shough’s steadiness. I guess it is just that attitude he has where you guys know, “Hey, we are still in this thing no matter what.” Again, Tyler showed it in this fourth quarter as well where you guys are able to come back, and he is leading the way. “Tyler [Shough] does a great job of doing that — staying even-keel. I think he does a great job. I think that helps not just the guys around him, but I also think head coach Kellen Moore is that [way] too. I think when you have a head coach who is like that, it puts you at ease and makes you like that as well. When you have guys around that do not panic, that do not waver — something goes wrong and we do not throw our hands up or have that bad body language — I think that is a huge testament to Kellen because that trickles down. People see that, and I think when your leader is doing that, you do that around your whole organization. He is doing a really good job."

Is that why you guys are so good in key situations like third-and-long? You get behind in the game, but it seemed like the moment was never too much. "I feel like the thing I have gathered most from being in those third-and-longs and those second-and-longs [or when] you have a bad play on first down is that you have to live in the moment. I feel like when you try to live too much in what happened before, you stay in that, and then you mess up the next play. I feel like when you just stay in the moment, you do not really think about what's happened before. You do your best, you put your best foot forward [and] you move forward when you live in the present, live in the moment. I feel like we do a good job of doing that."

These guys were saying on the two-point play that you said, "Get behind me." How did that go back there? "We knew what play we were running. I told 'Trav' [Travis Etienne], 'I know what is going on — just get behind me.' I love plays like that where I can just get in front of a running back, and we just lead the charge. Whatever gets in my way, I am just trying to move them out of the way, for lack of a better term. I am just trying to pave the way so we can put some points on the board. I just like putting it on my shoulders. Just put it on my shoulders and I am going to lead the way for you."

WR CHRIS OLAVE

On the touchdown and the setup for that two-point conversion — can you just kind of walk us through that? "It was a perfect — it was a perfect call, I should say, by [head coach] Kellen [Moore]. He knows what type of coverage they were going to be in, especially in a fringe or right outside the 20. So, we got quarters where we got what we needed. We had a perfect play call, and we just executed it."

Did you feel like things just kind of opened up in terms of the chunk plays in the second half? What was the reason for that? "Just attacking them, man. [The Baltimore Ravens] played a lot of cloud coverage. They played a lot of different coverages to be able to take our explosive plays away. But we just kept battling, and we kept battling. Once we got the run game going, we started getting five yards a pop, six yards a pop. They had to play us true. So, it was a great — it was a great fight. Like I said, we put ourselves in a hole again, but we were able to fight back, and it was a great thing of resilience today again."

What does it do for you guys as an offense when you see your defense responding the way that they did, particularly in the second half? "I love – I feel like [defensive coordinator Brandon] Staley doesn't get enough credit. He puts the players in a great position to be able to succeed. He did that in the first week; he did that all last year. So, to be able to hold that offense to 17 points was a great thing for us. Our defense did a great job today. I was super excited for them and, like I said, we were able to fight back, to stay in the game and fight to the end and get a win."

What can this win do for you all — just in the building, what does it do? "It's a great team over there, man. It's a great team. They're probably going to be an AFC contender. They've been an AFC contender for the past couple years. So, I just feel like if we believe, and we have faith in each other that we could be a great team over here. I feel like that drives confidence into us to be able to get a win — come over here and get a win and go into next week."

Why do you think you guys play your best after getting punched in the mouth a couple times, or even like a third-and-long seems like the most automatic play you have? "I mean, that's just what we've been dealt. That's the cards we've been dealt these first two weeks. Like I said, we're not going to bow down; we're not going to give up. We're just going to keep fighting. Like I said, we all believe in each other in this locker room. We have a great team, and faith is the biggest thing we have. We believe in each other, and like I said, the first two weeks were a great battle, a great test of our resilience. So, it was a good test, and like I said, we come out 1-1."

What do you feel like you guys have learned about yourselves and QB Tyler Shough, just kind of going through these two games and being able to build these comebacks? "Tyler [Shough] is a leader of our team, man. Just the way he battles, the way he takes the hits, the way he scrambles, the way he could extend plays — I am a huge believer in him. You all always know that. So, he's a leader of our team. He does a great job and [is] able to battle back, especially when we dig ourselves in holes in the first half these past two games. We all believe in him. He believes in us receivers, so I am super excited for his future."

That battle with CB Marlon Humphrey today — you also had that unsportsmanlike conduct early on in the game. Do you kind of feel in a way that that sort of worked to fire up the team, despite the yardage loss? "No — that's just how I play, man. That's just how I play. [Marlon Humphrey]'s a well-known cornerback; he's been in the league for a long time. I want to be able to go against the best. So, when I get those matchups, I believe in myself — I could win those matchups. It's just a competition, man. It's not — nothing against him — he's a great player; I respect his game. Like I said, he's been in the league for a long time doing it at a high level. So, when I get those matchups, I want to be able to attack and try to win."

Putting a cap on you was kind of their priority leading up to the game. Did that motivate you at all, from some of those comments? "Not really, man. Everybody's got a game plan, but at the end of the day you still have to go out there and execute it. You've got to go out there and guard me, and they did a great job in the first half [with] cloud coverages, especially to the boundary — they were clouding a lot. But just when the ball came my way, I wanted to capitalize on it. I knew I was going to get a lot of opportunities in the second half to come back. So, I just kept my head in the game. I didn't get too down on it, but I just kept attacking."

Some people here have no idea what I'm about to say — but did you hear anybody call QB Tyler Shough a "poor-man's quarterback"? "Of course — everybody has seen that. But you know how social media [is]. It's not really motivation, man. People try to compare people all the time. But I feel like Tyler [Shough]'s one-of-one. He's making a name for himself in this league, and it's going to be — by the end of the year, I feel like he's going to be one of the top quarterbacks."

Do you think the attention you got early in the game kind of opened up the rest of the offense? Is that kind of one of the reasons it got going? "You saw [Devaughn] Vele making a lot of plays. Vele's been great for us. Even at the beginning of training camp, he's been great. He was one of the best players in training camp, and just to be able to see him make plays — I am super happy for him, especially his journey. If you try to cloud me or double me, we've got a lot of different playmakers. You see Juwan [Johnson] make a lot of plays, just extending plays. Like I said, Vele — we've got a lot of guys that can do that, especially having 'AK' [Alvin Kamara] back. AK was huge for us today in the run game and in the pass game. So that was his first game, but just being able to get AK going — I feel like it's going to set us up for a great future."

Considering the opponent and being on the road, would this be one of the best wins you've had in your career? "Yes, for sure. I was just talking to my people about it — I feel like since I've been here, we haven't really beaten a good team. I feel like it's been tough for us to be able to battle against good teams or great teams that make the playoffs every year. Baltimore's — like I said — [they are] a contender in the AFC. So just being able to battle, being able to show our resilience, being able to come in here and get a 'W' was huge for us, and we have to carry it over to next week."

QB TYLER SHOUGH

I want to start with the third-and-8 and TE Juwan Johnson with the catch-and-run. Based on the final touchdown there, is that a zero blitz that they sent on that play? Something about that last segment, just like the struggle early in the game, like to make that play in that moment — what kind of stood out to you there? "Yes, we had a good play call and I knew I was going to be hot. Juwan [Johnson] did a really good job being friendly there and [I] was able to dump it off to him and he just made a play with his legs. He's hard to cover [in] man or zone and then all of our guys have that ability to get that YAC. So, it was just a great, great finish, after some of the stuff that we needed to clean up early on."

Do you feel like you used your legs a little bit more early on? Did you make a more concerted effort to do it with scramble drills, broken plays kind of thing early on versus last week, or was that just the second half? "They did a good job kind of keeping a shell on everything, keeping it in front of them, and we knew that was going to be part of the game plan. How do I take as [many] yards I can, step up, be able to dump it off and still take shots. So, it was going to be a patient but aggressive game, and I think we did a good job with that. We just had self-inflicted wounds with penalties and some negative plays earlier on, so I think we shored that up and we keep climbing."

Did you feel OK after that missed face-mask call on that sneak? "Yes, that one, that one hurt a little bit. I got kind of folded a couple times, but I was able to get in there. We would like to not make it as close, but yes, I think that's definitely something to look at. That's, you know, I was going to reach for it but getting your head pulled off is tough."

This is two games now this season where you guys have kind of found it late. Is there something you just like about playing in that scenario where you've kind of got to just take over in the fourth quarter? "Yes, I love, love those moments just because in my head, it's just another down and it's just another play, and we have repped all of that stuff. We have repped; we prepared for a lot of those moments, so on the outside it feels like this may be the game, but it genuinely feels like let's just go play. That's the best part about it. Earlier on, we just, like I said, we had the penalties and that kind of killed us and, again, it's football. They're going to have some good plays too, but at the same time the way we operate, the stuff we can control, our communication, I feel like we're hard to stop that way."

What can a win like this do for this team going forward? "It shows who we are as a team just [from] top to bottom — offense, defense [and] special teams playing together. The juice that we have coming in their stadium, first time home opener and being able to kind of bounce back from last week and continue to climb. So, we feel like we're never out of it and we have just got to kind of find ways to keep growing throughout the rest of the season to shore those things up, and there's always going to be little things. But that's a really good football team and it shows us that we believe in ourselves even more. So, we're ready to keep going."

Forgive me if you've already answered this question, but just in that goal-to-go situation, late in the fourth, did that false start, that penalty that pushed you back, did that kind of almost give you some opportunity maybe to burn a little bit of time? Did that work in an advantageous way in the end? “We weren’t thinking about it from that perspective. I think we want to score there. We’re trying to get in. Obviously, stuff like that can’t happen. We got the look that we wanted and, thankfully, we were able to finish it and get in a couple plays later. In that moment, you know, we’re trying to win.”

Did you feel like, on third down, that sneak — that you were in? “I feel so. I felt like, both of them, I was in. You know, obviously I’m not going to — third down, can’t reach for it and stuff like that, but I felt like I was over it. Down there it’s tough, just from different angles, but both of them we felt pretty confident about.”

What is it about third downs that you guys seem to bring the best out, even third and longs — you converted a couple of them today — and why is that such a successful thing for you all? “I think just communication and operation. I feel like if we’re on the same page, good things can happen, and we just operate in that way and try to put a lot of preparation into those things. They’re hard situations. They’re not always going to be great, but I feel like if we can manage those and keep them to manageable situations, then we can have some success.”

This is the biggest win that you and head coach Kellen Moore have had together. What is it about him that just keeps you so calm in these situations like this? “[Head coach Kellen Moore]’s kind of mantra is ‘go for it.’ We’re always going to go for it no matter the situation. We’re going to keep chunking it away. Anything that we’re doing, he’s just levelheaded. We have our leaders on the team that he really employs us to go out there and speak life into the guys, and he also does a really good job of still being himself and being aggressive and allowing, [defensive coordinator] Coach [Brandon] Staley, all the coaches to go out there and do their best. So, I feel like it’s been so much fun being able to learn and play for him and we want to keep doing that.”

Head coach Kellen Moore had a pretty big smile when he walked in here, which we normally don’t see. Did this game mean a little bit more to him? “Man, I think [head coach Kellen Moore] just understands it’s a long week of preparation. It’s really hard to be able to put together a full game plan and win and go against a really good team like that, and then it’s a culmination. So, you have got to be able to really enjoy it and learn from it and reset. So, you try and take all those things and deep down, whether it’s a win or a loss, you really want to feel it and you want to keep moving. So, it’s good to see him show some stuff too, but he’s like that every day, man. You guys don’t obviously get to see it, but he’s always levelheaded, he’s positive and it keeps us going.”

Did head coach Kellen Moore show any emotion post-game at all? “No, we just got some game balls out there per usual. We got the game balls out going again, and that’s always fun whenever we get those rolling. You just felt the juice in the locker room. You felt the energy. Man, we love each other, and you could tell it means a lot.”

TE Juwan Johnson’s kind of impact on this offense, even when he’s not catching passes — his ability to just kind of always be there, be ready and make plays, like how does that help you for this season? “Yes, I mean, [Juwan Johnson]’s such a tremendous person for me on and off the field. He’s always kind of like a safety blanket, but he’s also freakishly athletic and can win versus any coverage. So, when you have that relationship, it’s hard not to rely on him. You've got other playmakers as well, so we feel like we have really good matchups all over the field, and it starts with him too. So, being able to dump it off to him or maybe isolate him in one-on-ones, [with] stuff like that, he's going to be key for us going forward."

What did you think of TE Juwan Johnson's juke there on the third down? "I didn't get to see it. I was on the ground, but I'm excited to look back and watch it, but that's who [Juwan Johnson] is, man, he's a ball player."

Did you get to talk to QB Lamar Jackson after the game? "Yes, I got to say, 'What's up?' to [Lamar Jackson]. I am a huge fan of his. He's an unbelievable player. What he means to Louisville and obviously this city, who he is and as a person too, so it was cool to dap him up and everything and it was a good game as a team to be able to kind of finish out there."

What's kind of your mindset when the defense gets a stop and you know you're going to get the ball back for a chance to go win the game? Do you just try to stay as normal as possible in that moment? "Yes, just like I said, just how do we operate? It's just another rep. If you fail that rep, you can always work on the next one, you have the next one coming up, you have success and you have to finish the drive. So, it's kind of a continual process, and it's all situation-based. It's all play clock, time clock, timeouts – where are we out on the field? What am I expecting? How do we manage that? How do we keep going forward? So, it's all those things and I think when you have that operation [and] you have your process, you don't really think about the result."

Do you have to kind of train out, some of the emotional end of it — from the outside, you're just kind of lost in the emotion. Do you kind of zone out on that almost? "Yes, it's a long game. You have to think about it analytically. You have to keep going. You can feel the emotions afterwards, but even then they were driving, I was ready to go play in overtime, so I'm still ready to go regardless. That's football, man. That's why you love it; you have to keep going no matter what the circumstances."

I was talking to some people in the locker room saying you have the "it factor." How would you describe that? What is the "it factor" for this team and for you? "Man, I just feel like — that's awesome to hear from one of your teammates, but I think more than anything, it's a lot of the guys on our team have that 'it factor.' To me it's regardless of the circumstance, whatever happens, whatever is happening, let's just go make a play. We can draw up the perfect play but at the same time you have got to go execute. For me, that's where I feel like I can continue to get better, continue to grow because we had too many mistakes earlier on, I think we can really dial it [in]."

Do you like trying to manage with your back against the wall — do you enjoy that? "Yes, like I said earlier, to me it's literally just another play. It's fun because you're doing it with all your best friends; you're doing it together. We're riding and dying with each other and that's when you can have some elite play, elite success. You're out there grinding, and I think you look back at it afterwards, it's like, man, that was a big moment, but I mean, if I'm genuinely being honest, it feels like how do we just keep going?"

When you play a video game, do you put it on the hardest setting immediately? "Yes — I don't get to play video games anymore. That's long gone, but I think that starts with practice, though. You go against our defense in practice. The way they played; practices are tough. Like, you guys see it, ball camp's tough. You're going against those looks, but that kind of prepares you for [the] season [with] that level of difficulty."

Did you see the headline from Baltimore's defensive coordinator Anthony Weaver about you being a "poor man's Josh Allen?" Did you see that? "Yes, I saw it. A bunch of the coaches were telling me about it the whole time, just called me 'poor man' and I loved it. I knew what [Baltimore Ravens defensive coordinator Anthony Weaver] meant by it, but yes, obviously [Josh Allen]'s an elite player, but it fires me up."

EDGE CHASE YOUNG

One of the things head coach Kellen Moore mentioned about going up against a player like QB Lamar Jackson is you have to be kind of relentless. How did you view that? "Yes, like I said last week, [we had to] stay in our rushing lanes, be aware of where [Lamar Jackson] is, and just know how to rush dual threats."

Do you think that the consistent pressure that you got on him today had an impact, especially on that last play there? "Yes, I think it is more so that, but it is us, but it is also the back end too, giving us time to get there, and that just tying in with each other, getting there and covering — front and coverage. I think we did enough today."

What is kind of going through your head when you see S Julian Blackmon camping under that ball that last second? "Whew." (laughter)

When QB Tyler Shough is doing what he has done the last two weeks in the fourth quarter, what does that do for the team, just kind of seeing him consistently deliver in those big moments? "I'm proud of [Tyler Shough]. [We] always believe. I'm just proud of him, man. I'm just happy, honestly. [I'm] happy that he is playing well, happy for him, happy for our team."

What was your confidence like heading into this game? "That we can hang with anybody. Sometimes you have to learn how to win [and] learn how to finish, and I think we are right on time."

We heard you say 'no moral victories' during the week. How does getting this win kind of change the dynamic for this team to get this actual victory? "Yes, it feels good. Yes, no more moral victories. We want [wins], and if it comes down to the wire, then we just have to tough it out, but we want to win."

RB Derrick Henry got going a little bit in the first half. What changed in the second half? How did you kind of keep him under wraps? "I would not even really say a lot changed. I would just say we just keep fighting. Obviously, [Derrick Henry] is a future Hall of Famer, so sometimes he is going to get his. He is arguably the best in the league, so with all respect, [we] just keep attacking. Just keep on attacking everything that, as a defense, we see, and that is all we can do."

Were you sweating out at all the replay review on that sneak? "Ball don't lie, man."

BALTIMORE RAVENS

HEAD COACH JESSE MINTER

Opening Statement: "All right, give the Saints a lot of credit. They outplayed us, especially in the second half. [We] had a lot of opportunities to turn that game the way we wanted to turn it [and] did not take advantage o it. Really, we can look at things probably in all three phases, starting with me — start with the coaches first, it is always going to be that way. But really all three phases, [there were] plays that — you know — never extended the game where we probably could have, and then [we] let them keep kind of hanging around. [We allowed them] third-down conversions, things like that. And so, we will look at ourselves first and try to improve and get better. Again, [give] credit to them, and with that, I will open up for questions."

On that fourth-down try at the goal line, did the Saints get into the end zone? (Jamison Hensley) "Yes, that is such a — you know — interesting play. I give our guys a lot of credit. I felt like [on] back-to-back plays, our front did a really nice job. You know, those are so subjective; it is so hard to tell. It is what it is, honestly."

On the offensive possession that you guys had with — I think — about eight minutes left, you throw it deep on third-and-one, then punt on fourth-and-one. Can you describe the decisions there? (Kyle Goon) "Yes, just — you know — it's a play that we liked. Thought we had a shot there for an explosive. Obviously, it didn't work out, so it is always going to be [everyone] looking at it after the fact. But yes, that's what happened."

What did you see on the challenge that you guys ended up losing? (Cordell Woodland) "Yes, so, you know, [it's] the difference between third-and-10 and third-and-5. I thought the ball was moving a little bit and thought the ground may have assisted it. Again, those are subjective. I felt like it was a critical point in the game based on the field position. They are probably in four-down mode regardless there, but the difference in the third downs trying to give us a chance there."

Why do you think the Saints were so successful on third downs today? (Pete Gilbert) "Well, it is a bunch of different things. We let them off the hook on some simple checkdowns where we didn't leverage the ball. [There were] a few of those and missed a chance at a couple of interception-type plays. And again, we weren't tight and clean the way we need to be on third down. Again, [it] starts with me, putting the guys in the best position to be successful. So, definitely an area we will chase improvement."

It seems like you guys went away from RB Derrick Henry a little bit in the second half. I think he only had five carries. Just, I mean, what sort of happened there? Did you just get away from him, or was that just part of the gameplan? (Brian Wacker) "Yes, I think a little bit was ... You know, we started to get some of the looks of them cheating down to stop the run and have a chance to really open it up. But again, we'll look at everything, and we'll study ourselves first. We'll take accountability for how it went and go from there."

You had that one possession where I think OLB Trey Hendrickson and OLB Mike Green each get sacks and pushed QB Tyler Shough back all the way. After that, they lost their left tackle. Why was it so difficult to get that kind of pressure on Shough the rest of the game? (Kyle Goon) "Yes, I think they did a good job of just getting the ball out really fast from that point on. Obviously, you lose a tackle and so they committed a little bit to the run game on that next drive, and then when they were getting rid of the ball really fast I would say, running some of those types of plays to get it out of his hands, things like that. So again, we will have to keep chasing rush and coverage being connected and working together. You know, that is the type of game where we need our rush and coverage to win us the game on those last two drives, and we did not get it done."

Did T Ronnie Stanley just reach a point he could not go anymore or was there an aggravation of the injury? (Jeff Zrebiec) "No, I think — give credit to Ronnie, man. He gave us everything he had, dealing with a situation. So, we felt like at some point that might happen and thought the guys went in there and did an OK job."

How disappointing was it for this to be the home opener and to welcome fans back, with the fans excited about it? (Jonas Shaffer) "Yes, look, losses are all disappointing, especially at home. Everybody is going to just say the same old thing of having a lead and things like that. So, we will own this. We'll look in the mirror; we'll figure out what we can do to improve. That is the main thing. It's early in the season, [and] we were missing a few key guys, but that is a game we need to find a way to win, especially when we have a lead like that. So, we'll look at ourselves first, try to get better this week and go to the next one."

TE MARK ANDREWS

I know you have not had much time to process since you have been out there, but was that a touchdown from your vantage point? "I think that those are tough calls to make. Obviously, there are a lot of people in the pile. I thought [the] defense did a good job holding up."

Fourth quarter, and the second half in general for the offense, what were you seeing from their defense that was shutting you guys out? "I think it is going to be all about us. We are going to be able to look at this film and see the 'why.' There were some times where we were not moving the ball the way we should, and it is going to be all about us learning from our mistakes and getting better. I have so much confidence in this team."

Is it fair or unfair to look at some of the problems that arose in this whether it was the defense not being able to hold on late, giving up the late lead, not having it go your way at home? Is that unfair to try and tie it to last season? Are they repeated things that you see happening? "I mean, this is an individual game. There is a lot of good football being played. I think we controlled a lot of this game and we did not come out with the win. Like I said [before], this is a different team [with] different energy. This is not par for the course. We are going to learn from this and continue to be better and capitalize when we need to capitalize."

It is only one but is it difficult to have it go this way at home? "We want to defend our turf and we are going to take pride in that this year. [We are] not satisfied with the outcome today, and that is why we are going to get back to work. These fans and everybody in this city deserve [for us] to show up and show out — because that is what they did tonight. We need to get it done for them."

What was the message post-game from head coach Jesse Minter today? "[It was] just continuing to get better [and] staying together. We talked all preseason about just moving on to the next play. It is going to be a next-game mentality. [By] just focusing on ourselves and trying to be the best that we can be. [I am] excited for this next week."

There have been a lot of positive things around this team throughout the offseason. What is the key in responding here in a tough moment? “It is a long season. You are 1-1. There are 17 games [and] we have 15 left. I think that is the beauty of it [is that] there is so much opportunity left.”

DL Calais Campbell was telling us it feels like, in regards to some of these letdown losses and not being able to hold fourth-quarter leads, that history is irrelevant here. Is that how you feel about this game? Do you feel like it is connected to some of these others? “Not at all. I feel like this is a whole new team with a whole new energy. These guys, this coaching staff, everybody — there is not one similarity [that] I can feel. I feel like this team is built for adversity, built to get better [and] learn from our mistakes. Head coach [Jesse] Minter always preaches on just trying to learn from our mistakes, moving on and getting on to the next play. It is about the next game now.”

You have to move quickly, and Rio de Janeiro is new for you guys to play over there. Not so much a time change or anything like that. Having the game there, have you heard anything about the field conditions there, with the soccer teams being concerned? “I just saw one [report] that they are unsure about it. For us, it is just about being professionals [and] being ready to go. Whatever happens, happens.”

WR RASHOD BATEMAN

Was it just a miscommunication with QB Lamar Jackson on that last play? “No, [there] was no miscommunication at all. [I] ran the right route, looked up [and] the ball was what it was. That is really what it is. It is just one of those plays that you look at it and you can’t get it back. Lamar [Jackson] played well. I think we all played well. [There] is just a lot of clean-up to do.”

Why did you feel like the offense was just less explosive in the second half? It really moved the ball well in the first half. What happened out there? “I don’t know. It is hard to tell. [There] is a lot to look at. We just got done playing. It is hard to say without looking at the tape. I am going to go back and look at the tape and see what those mistakes are.”

Is it frustrating to feel like the same sort of things cropped up, whether it be penalties or self-inflicted stuff in some cases? “I would say so. I think for any situation it is tough to deal with when you know you are beating yourself, but we live to fight another day. It is only Week 2. None of us in here [are] fixing to sit here and stress out and cry about it. We're all grown men. We know what we have got to go do to fix it. Everybody is on that accord right now.”

Over the years, the Ravens have had some trouble finishing in that fourth quarter. You’ve heard that question before. Why do you think there’s some repeated difficulty in closing out games? “It is football, for one. I don’t think it has got anything to do with the Ravens. Y’all’s stats are what [they are], but football is football. We can’t get caught up in the stats and what people want it to look like. We have got to go play the game for what the Ravens want it to look like. Today it wasn’t that, obviously. We didn’t get the dub. We just go fix what we can and see what we can do next week.”

How do you move forward from here to next week in Brazil? “[By] being grown. [You] just put it in the toilet, flush it and move on. [There isn’t anything] we can do about this game today when we know we have got to play the Cowboys next week. It is what it is.”

How do you think the offense operated today without WR Zay Flowers? “I think we did really well. Obviously, losing Zay [Flowers] always hurts. He is our one receiver. [A] very dynamic guy. But the guys that we have got, are able to get the job done as well. We just came up short. We have come up short with Zay on the field before. We have come up short without Zay on the field. That is football. We just go [and] keep putting our best foot forward.”

How do you balance learning from this loss but also moving on to the next game? “Most of us in here have been playing football since we were five years old. We [have] lost games before. We still ended up here. We have got to find a way to keep pushing forward [and] to fix what we know we can fix and just be better. It is definitely self-explanatory. It is easier said than done, but [there] is a lot of small things, nothing crazy. We know we are a good football team and we just have got to go prove it.”

DL CALAIS CAMPBELL

I’ve been asking everybody, from your vantage point on that fourth-down play for the Saints, did they cross the goal line? “I am one of those people [that says] what the referee calls, is what it is. We fought [as] hard as we could fight to keep them out of the end zone. We will watch the tape and really see what it looks like, but the referee called it. We have to live with it. It’s football. It just is what it is.”

Why did you feel like you guys couldn’t get pressure on QB Tyler Shough down the stretch? You had pressure for a lot of the game, but those last few drives it was tough. “I felt like [there were] just way too many missed opportunities out there today. Football is such a momentum game, and we let them get into a rhythm late. It was hard to get them out of that rhythm. They did a good job of calling quick throws and getting to the playmakers. Just from the naked eye without watching the tape [there were] just so many missed opportunities, especially tackling. We have to really emphasize and get better at tackling. I feel like there was a lot of opportunities that we did not take advantage of there, and it cost us.”

When you have those missed opportunities, does that sort of play on you or the team in terms of either pressing too much or mentally impacting you guys? “We want to win games. When you miss opportunities and lose a game, it is disappointing. We prepared really hard, and [we] go out there with the mindset that we are going to win. Then, when you miss your opportunities, and you lose, it is a tough feeling. I will say that adversity is a truth-teller. How we respond is going to be crucial to who we are as a team [and] who this team is. I know what kind of guys we’ve got. That is why I am so disappointed right now. You cannot let games like this slip away. We have too many of the right pieces. We will not make any excuses. There are a lot of excuses if people were looking for them. At the end of the day, we've just got to be more disciplined. We’ve got to execute better.”

Even though you guys have changed so much and the team has changed so much over those years, how hard is it for a team to change its identity when some of these late-game situations just seem to keep happening every year? “What is funny is the history really doesn’t matter. I mean, you can go through and look at all the history. It is just in this moment, in this game, we have to execute to win the ball game. We did not get it done. You could talk about it from a story standpoint, but at the end of the day, in this moment, we did not get it done. Our history is irrelevant to the future of where we want to go. It just comes down to how we respond and our execution going forward.”

On third downs, the Saints were 8-for-15. They were 2-for-2 on fourth down. By not getting off the field, how deflating is that? Why were they so successful in those situations? "I mean, that is the game, right? [The] money down is third down. When you find a way to extend drives, you give yourself a chance to get points. They found a way to extend drives, especially in the second half. We will watch the tape and figure out why that is, and we'll get better. This team — if we are who I think we are — which you really do not know until you get out there and compete, but we've got to respond. How we respond is critical to who we are going to be this year. I've got faith in my guys, but we've got to watch the tape. We've got to be critical. We've got to respond."

Is there anything in particular that you want to take away from the game that you want to be able to implement next week on the personal front? "We all should look ourselves in the mirror. I had maybe three opportunities to get TFLs today, and I missed them – all three of them. It led to shorter down and distances that they were able to get on third down and fourth down. I feel like personally, I cannot miss those plays. I've got to be better. I know who I am, and I know what I am capable of. Just looking inward, I feel like if the game is on the line, and you are counting on me, I can show up, and I can make that play. For us to go where we want to go, to be the team we want to be, we all have to look ourselves in the mirror and make our plays."

RB DERRICK HENRY

The offense really changed from the first half to the second. What do you attribute to that? "It's not good enough. We just weren't good enough in the second half to win this game. We were put in a position to win this game. We just have to be better. We just weren't good enough – at all."

In terms of finishing games, that was something that was a point of emphasis throughout last year too. What do you think you guys need to do to finish these games stronger? "We didn't finish today. [We played with] some adversity — something that we probably need — [it] came early. Obviously, we wanted to win, we didn't win, but there is a lot to learn from and fix. So, we go into next week being ready and being better than this week for sure."

What were you seeing them doing to kind of limit the explosive plays you guys were able to do offensively? "Yes, they had a good gameplan – the credit goes to them. They did a great job of limiting the explosives and, you know, being where they needed to be for those not to occur. We've just got to be better. We weren't the better team today, as far as offense against their defense, and we will watch the film and fix that for sure."

You're on the sideline for that long drive that the Saints had in the fourth quarter that ate up a lot of clock. What were you guys thinking on the sideline as the defense was trying to stop them at all costs? "Go score. Whatever happens, we need to go get points."

You said there was a lot to learn from this game. What's one thing that you feel like you learned about this team today? "We are going to stick together. I mean, we are always going to be close. Obviously, we didn't get the result we wanted; [it left a] bad taste in our mouth, but like I said, it is just a little adversity. It is all about how we respond, and I know the guys are going to respond the right way [by] watching the film, correcting things and moving on to Dallas and being ready for Rio."

How can you make this more of a hiccup instead of a bridge to something bigger like it kind of turned into last year — what does that look like for you guys? “Yes, I mean, we know what type of team we’ve got — we have in our locker room — so, you know, we are not going to flinch. [We’ll] be a man about it. They were the better team today. [We’ll] watch the film, fix what we need to get fixed and be ready to move on.”

As the game moved on, did you feel like they put more people closer to the line of scrimmage, or were they pretty consistent with their run defense gameplan? “I think it really didn’t matter if they put people down [at the line of scrimmage] or not. We want to run the ball, [and] we have to dictate how we move the line of scrimmage, and me doing my job. At the end of the day, we just have to be better. I have to be better in the run game; we have to be better as a team, as an offense and fix those things and be ready to go. Nobody [is] going to be negative. We know what we need [to do]. We need to watch the film, move past this and get ready for next week.”

Derrick, were you disappointed not to get the ball on that third-and-1 with about nine minutes left? “No, I mean, we are going to ride with 'Dec’ [offensive coordinator Declan Doyle], whatever he calls. We just have to go make a play. Obviously, we didn’t, but if [Chris Moore] caught the ball, it would be a whole different story. We are going to ride with ‘Dec,’ man. He called a [play], [he] wanted to take a shot, and it didn’t work out this time. But, we are going to still do what we need to do to be better next time.”

With the fourth quarter going the way it went today, does the past creep into your mind at all about the fourth-quarter troubles? “No, we’re not going to do that. It just didn’t work out today. We wanted the result to be different. We wanted to come out here [and win]. The [White Noise] crowd was great. We’re sorry we didn’t get the ‘dub,’ but stick with us. We’re determined; we’re focused. They were the better team today. That’s going to happen. Adversity comes, and this one came early, so we just have to fix it. We’ll be alright.”

OLB TREY HENDRICKSON

How disappointing is the result, being outscored 15-0 in the fourth quarter? “It is the National Football League, right? There is a lot to correct. It is a win-loss league. You do not get any of them back. [The New Orleans Saints] are a good football team — credit to them — but, we have a lot to correct on defense and [we are] looking forward to next week.”

What was it in the fourth quarter? Was QB Tyler Shough getting the ball out really fast? What was giving you guys problems mostly defensively? “[They have a] talented roster, right? They make plays too. It was our job to make a stop. You know, it is what it is.”

What do you make of that goal line stand where the New Orleans Saints scored? “That is kind of what my pause was — it is what it is.”

How tough is it as a defense confidence-wise when they are converting as many third-and-longs as they were? I mean, it has to take a toll mentally after a while. “Yes, that is something that we are going to have addressed. You know, it is rush and coverage together. When we had good coverage, sometimes our rush was not there, and sometimes when our rush was good, the coverage was not there. So, playing as a unit is something we need to figure out — what our ‘2026 Ravens identity’ is moving forward. Like I said, [it’s a] win-loss league, you take it on the chin and move on.”

CB MARLON HUMPHREY

Could you take us through the fourth down from your perspective — when the ball comes out, what's going through your mind? "Touchdown."

You thought it was a touchdown? "I mean, it was a touchdown. It just was what it was."

How were you guys feeling on that 16-play drive that the Saints had that ate up a lot of clock in the fourth? "Yes, not that good. Obviously, [we] wanted to get off the field. They made some good first downs on third down, and we kind of just could not get off the field. That is kind of the moral of the story for the second half."

There was a lot of talk about losing fourth quarter leads last year, I guess how were you guys motivated to try to change that? "Yes, I think this week there were two things — obviously going into the season and then just coming to the home opener — winning in front of our fans, and not kind of doing what we did today. I mean, it is definitely a little disappointing. It is just disappointing. We felt coming in at halftime like we did not really... then we kind of went out and it just did not go well. So, it seems like there is serious disappointment amongst the guys, but like [head] Coach [Jesse] Minter said, we will come in tomorrow and come in with the mindset to fix things instead of letting this kind of go on and on."

How do you balance learning from this game as opposed to also just moving on to the next game? "Obviously, I have been in the league for 10 years, but the consensus amongst the team is like, everyone is kind of tired of doing what we just did. I think it is a lot of older guys — a lot of guys that it just feels like it is time. So, kind of having this — hopefully we will make this a hiccup and not [let] this be a bridge that is final and cannot be repaired. So, there will definitely be some things getting right, and we just cannot let this linger too long."

QB LAMAR JACKSON

Opening Statement: "Like I said last week, before I say anything, I just want to thank Jesus Christ for coming out here [and] supporting us like He always does, [and for] waking us up [and letting] us perform. Even though we did not come out with a victory, we still have all our guys here healthy."

I know you weren't out on the field for that Saints fourth down, but from your vantage point, do you think the Saints scored on that play? (Jamison Hensley) "I am a Raven. I don't think they scored. But the refs went with their call, and it is what it is."

What happened on that last play, the interception to end the game? (Cordell Woodland) "We were just trying to make something happen. It was just the same group of guys out there. I feel like they were a little fatigued, and how I played it, it was a timing thing. I feel like I want that pass back, though. I feel like I want that pass back."

Did it seem like WR Rashod Bateman cheated on the route? (Mike Preston) "No, no, no. [Rashod Bateman] ran his route. He ran his route, man. He just made a play. That is all it was."

Since 2019, this is the 15th time the Ravens have not been able to hold a fourth-quarter lead and win the game. Why do you think that is? (Jamison Hensley) "Things just don't go our way sometimes, at the wrong time. That is what I believe. Certain calls happen — we get the momentum going, get [it] brought back, [and we have] penalties here and there. Anything can go down. That is why I believe we have not been finishing, or we have the lead and we don't have it anymore. We just have to tighten up."

The sequence where the defense got two sacks, and you guys get the ball back at midfield late in the third quarter and moved backwards — looking back, how critical was that sequence to leading to what happened in the fourth quarter? (Luke Jones) "Extremely critical. Our defense did a great job, and when we get so close to punching the ball in, [or when] we're driving the ball downfield, or on the opposite side of our opponent's territory, we would like points there, [whether it's a] field goal [or] touchdown. I prefer touchdowns. I don't want to put [Tyler] Loop out there at all. Don't get me wrong, I love our kicker — but I just love scoring touchdowns. I am an offensive player. But I believe that played a part to it, too, because we should be scoring points for our defense and our special teams."

How much do the penalties and the negative plays hurt? It didn't really hurt you last week because you were so sharp otherwise, but it is the second straight week with quite a few offensive penalties and also some negative sacks. (Jeff Zrebiec) "Like you said, last week we were able to overcome them, but this week we weren't. So, that is why we have to clean things like that up. It starts in practice, though. We have to get better at practicing having no holding [penalties] and whatever they were calling, because I believe some of them. It wasn't a hold on Chris [Moore], I don't believe, but the refs are doing their job at the same time. We just have to clean that up and hopefully thrive."

So much has changed over the offseason, and you guys have been talking about being at your best when your best is needed. How disappointing is it to sort of come out in the first home game and kind of lose like this? What do you kind of look back on personally about what you want to do better in a game like this? (Kyle Goon) "Oh, not just [at] home — any [game]. It doesn't matter where we [are] playing. I don't want to lose at all, and I believe none of our guys want to lose. Coaches, everyone, we are all one unit, but we wouldn't like to come in on an opener and lose at home, especially with the new jerseys and stuff like that. But, things happen. Things didn't go our way out there, but hopefully we [are] prepared next time."

I know you guys didn't have WR Zay Flowers today, but why do you think you guys weren't able to have as many explosive plays on the offensive side today? (Cordell Woodland) "We weren't finishing drives, man. We just weren't finishing. We had the penalties and stuff like that that killed us, too. We just have to overcome a few things, clean that up, and we will be good."

Is it frustrating to have to say 'not finishing' again? We have heard that come out of your mouth a few times. (Morgan Adsit) "No. Not really, because I see what we can be. I see what we are capable of. I see it day in and day out. New Orleans just did a great job today."

OLB TAVIUS ROBINSON

What were the Saints doing in the fourth quarter that allowed them to have success? "I think, you know, we 've just got to, at the end of the day, go in and look at the film, and [look for things that] we have to fix and the stuff that we could have played better, and then go from there."

Third downs — when they start converting them, does it become a confidence thing a little bit, in that situation, too, do you think? "[It's] kind of the same thing. Like it's just – we have to be on our stuff, and we have to make sure that we're executing the best we can on third down."

Is it frustrating that you guys have a chance to kind of change the narrative about this team and fulfill that when your best is needed, and you missed that opportunity in a game like this? "Of course it is — it's not our standard, but at the end of the day, we have to go back to the film tomorrow, get better, and it's a long season."

What did you think of New Orleans Saints QB Tyler Shough? "[Tyler Shough is a] good quarterback. He is a great quarterback."

ILB ROQUAN SMITH

Opening Statement: "Over the last six months, everything has been ascending, ascending, ascending, and I think this is the first real test, in a sense, of adversity. I just think it is about how we are going to respond. Obviously, no sides of the ball played the way we wanted to play, and especially on the defensive side of the ball, we did not play to the standard that we hold ourselves to, so I think it is the first test of adversity. It is about how you would respond, and I think that is the truth-teller for us all, and it is going to be like how we respond this coming week, but obviously we have to learn from this one."

When you lose a game like this in the fourth quarter — we know kind of the history with that with the Ravens — does it creep in your mind at all when you get to the fourth quarter and the game is kind of slipping away like that? "Not at all. You cannot dwell on the past at the end of the day. Obviously, people say history repeats itself in some ways, but you cannot think like that [or] have that mentality, because at the end of the day, you would always want it on your shoulders in order to win. And like I said, we obviously did not finish the way we wanted to finish, and I think it is the first true test of adversity. So, it is about how we are going to respond, and I think that is what it is going to be from here."

No one was in on that last play more than you. Was that a touchdown? "At the end of the day, whatever the refs call on the field, that is what it is. I did not see it as one, but at the end of the day, they get paid to make the calls out there, I get paid to play ball to the best of my ability, so I cannot focus on what is out of my control."

PFWA Pool Reporter Jamison Hensley Interview with NFL Vice President of Instant Replay Mark Butterworth

Question: Was there clear evidence that Tyler Shough crossed the goal line on the fourth down quarterback sneak (1:32 remaining, New Orleans 4th and 1, Baltimore 1 yard-line)?

Mark Butterworth: “The key here is the ruling on the field is a touchdown. So, we need clear and obvious video evidence that he didn't score in order to reverse the on-field ruling. We stopped the game, it's a high-leverage play, we wanted to make sure to either find clear and obvious video evidence that he didn't score or to confirm the call on the field. We exhausted all available angles and could not prove clear and obvious that he did not break the plane of the goal line.”

Question: During any of the replays, did it show that Tyler Shough lost control of the ball at any point while trying to get the ball across the goal line?

Butterworth: “No. If he did lose control of the ball, we would need to find, after he regained possession, if the ball broke the plane of the goal line. In that mass of players, we weren't able to find clear and obvious video evidence that the ball did not break the plane of the goal line. Therefore, the ruling on the field stands.”
