NEW ORLEANS SAINTS [5-10] AT TENNESSEE TITANS [3-12]

WEEK #17

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 28, 2025 - 12:00 P.M. (CST)
NISSAN STADIUM - NASHVILLE, TN.

THE MATCHUP

The New Orleans Saints [5-10] enter Sunday's contest having won three consecutive contests in the same season for the first time since 2022, looking to improve to four in a row for the first time since 2020, when they play at the Tennessee Titans [3-11]. New Orleans are looking to continue their winning ways in what could serve as a springboard for the 2026 campaign.

Since dropping a close 21-17 loss at the Miami Dolphins on November 30, where they nearly stole a victory in the final minutes, the Saints have managed three consecutive wins in the month of December, first against the two teams jockeying for the NFC South division title, followed by a 29-6 victory over the New York Jets in the team's 2025 Caesars Superdome finale.

The formula for New Orleans' resurgence has come from contributions on offense, defense and special teams. QB Tyler Shough has completed 69-of-101 passes [68.3 pct. - sixth in the NFL] for 724 yards with two touchdowns, while rushing for two more, and posting a 91.4 passer rating. WR Chris Olave has caught 19 passes for 263 yards [13.8 avg.] with three touchdowns [tied for fifth in the NFL]. Defensively, the team has surrendered only 259.0 net yards per game, the lowest total in the national Football League with contributions from rookies and veterans alike. Special teams has been nearly flawless in placekicking from Charlie Smyth to go with impressive performances from the kickoff return and kickoff and punt coverage units. The formula continued to bear results in Sunday's victory over the Jets.

Shough was a model of efficiency, completing 32-of-49 passes [65.3 pct.] for 308 yards, including a 23-yard touchdown to Olave. Olave led New Orleans in receiving with ten receptions for 148 yards with two scores. QB Taysom Hill had a season-high 16 touches for 74 yards and completed a 38 yard touchdown to Olave.

New Orleans surrendered 20 points or fewer for the third consecutive week and had a season-high eight sacks, including three from DE Cameron Jordan, reaching 130 in his career, improving to 17th all-time. Rookie S Jonas Sanker recorded an interception, his third takeaway of the season.

Smyth celebrated being signed to the active roster on Friday after three practice squad elevations, drilled five field goals, to tie the franchise record, providing 15 of his team's 29 points.

THE HEAD COACHES

Named the 19th head coach in New Orleans Saints history on February 11, 2025 Kellen Moore joined the Black and Gold after serving as the offensive coordinator for the Philadelphia Eagles in 2024. Under the guidance of Moore, quarterback Jalen Hurts and running back Saquon Barkley both had career years. Hurts finished with a career-high 103.7 passer rating, en route to Super Bowl LIX MVP honors. Barkley, who was named the 2024 National Football League Offensive Player of the Year by the Associated Press, had one of the best seasons on the ground in NFL history, leading the league with a franchise-record 2,005 rushing yards in the regular season. His 2,504 rushing yards including the postseason were a league record, earning Pro Bowl and All-Pro honors. The 2024 Eagles offense ranked eighth overall in net yards per game [367.2] and seventh in points per game [27.2]. Philadelphia rushed for a single-season club record 3,048 yards [sixth-best in NFL history] and finished second in the league in rushing yards per game [179.3]. Before joining the Eagles in 2024, Moore served as offensive coordinator of the Los Angeles Chargers in 2023 and the Dallas Cowboys from 2019-22 after starting his coaching career as quarterbacks coach in Dallas in 2018. In four seasons as offensive coordinator of the Cowboys, Moore's unit ranked second in the NFL in total offense [391.0 net yards per game] and scoring [27.7 points per game]. The Dallas offense was also the league's fourth-best passing offense [264.4 net yards per game] and ranked seventh in rushing offense [126.6 yards per game] over that span.

Moore played quarterback at Boise State [2007-11] before playing six seasons in the National Football League with the Detroit Lions [2012-14], Dallas Cowboys [2015-17].

Personal: Born July 5, 1988, in Prosser, Washington. He and his wife, Julie, have two daughters, Halle and Madelyn, and two sons, Kyler and Beckham. His younger brother, Kirby, is the offensive coordinator at the University of Missouri.

The Titans named Mike McCoy interim head coach on Monday, Oct. 13, 2025. McCoy is in his first season with the Titans, previously serving as senior offensive assistant, and his 23rd season as a coach in the NFL.

He arrived in Tennessee in 2025 after three seasons with the Jacksonville Jaguars as quarterbacks coach. While in Jacksonville, McCoy helped quarterback Trevor Lawrence register consecutive 4,000-yard passing seasons in 2022 [4,113] and 2023 [4,016]. During those two seasons, Lawrence's 8,219 passing yards ranked fifth in the NFL, and his 46 touchdown passes ranked 10th.

Before arriving in Jacksonville, McCoy served as the offensive coordinator for the Arizona Cardinals in 2018. He helped Josh Rosen completed 217 passes for 2,279 yards and 11 touchdowns in his rookie season, while wide receiver Larry Fitzgerald recorded a team-high 69 receptions for 734 yards and six scores. In 2017, McCoy joined the Broncos in his second stint as an offensive coordinator in Denver and helped running back C.J. Anderson finish ninth in the NFL in rushing yards [1,007].

From 2013 to 2016, McCoy was the head coach of the San Diego Chargers. During that time, San Diego ranked ninth in the league in total offense [365.9 yards per game] and second in offensive third-down percentage [44.6 percent]. In addition, McCoy's group had a top-10 passing attack each season. San Diego qualified for the postseason in McCoy's first campaign at the helm [2013] and beat the Bengals in the Wild Card Round.

Prior to his tenure as head coach in San Diego, McCoy served as the Broncos offensive coordinator for four seasons [2009-12]. In 2012, the Broncos tied Atlanta for the NFL's best record as Peyton Manning earned Comeback Player of the Year honors after passing for a then-franchise-record 4,659 yards with 37 touchdowns.

McCoy spent his first nine NFL seasons as a coach in Carolina, working his way up from offensive assistant [2000] to wide receivers coach [2001], quarterbacks coach/offensive assistant [2002], quarterbacks coach [2003-06] and passing game coordinator/quarterbacks coach [2007-08].

SERIES HISTORY

The New Orleans Saints and the Tennessee Titans, who were the Houston Oilers from 1960-96 have met 17 times. New Orleans has posted a 7-9-1 record all-time against the Titans and nine of the outcomes in the series have been decided by a touchdown or less. The Saints won the last meeting a 16-15 win at the Caesars Superdome on September 10, 2023. The Saints first met Sunday's opponent in 1971 and played to a 13-13 tie with the Oilers in Houston's Astrodome. The Oilers captured the next two games in the series, before the Saints won their first game in the series in 1981 as Head Coach Bum Phillips exacted revenge on his former team. This

This was the start of a three-game winning streak, including a 24-10 win in 1987 that would ensure the Saints a home playoff game in the season where the club would finish with a winning record and qualify for the postseason for the first time in their 21-season history. The two clubs split their next two meetings. The Titans then went on to capture four straight before the Saints won in 2011. The Saints have posted a 4-3-1 record against the Oilers/Titans on the road.

LAST MEETING

Saints 16, Titans 15; September 10, 2023 @ Caesars Superdome - New Orleans had a hard-fought 16-15 season opening victory over the Titans at the Caesars Superdome on Sunday. With the rugged victory, the Black and Gold are the only team to have captured their last five season openers.

Sunday's slugfest was a back and forth defensive battle as the clubs combined for eight field goals, an NFL Week One record, with just one touchdown score - a 19-yard strike from quarterback Derek Carr to wide receiver/return specialist Rashid Shaheed late in the third quarter to give New Orleans their first lead of the contest.

The Black and Gold defense and special teams units contributed early and often, forcing three interceptions, a one-yard punt and K Blake Grupe becoming the first Saints rookie to drill three field goals in his NFL debut.

The New Orleans defense showed why they are among the league's best. CBs Marshon Lattimore and Paulson Adebo and S Marcus Maye all intercepted Titans QB Ryan Tannehill, while all three levels of the unit held him to a career-low 28.8 rating. LB Demario Davis led the team with ten tackles, while DE Carl Granderson contributed 1.5 sacks.

Offensively, Carr was solid in his Saints debut, throwing for 305 yards, including a 41-yard strike to Shaheed, who had a career-high 216 all-purpose yards, with under two minutes left. Wide receivers Chris Olave and Michael Thomas were also a handful for the Tennessee secondary. Olave finished with eight receptions for 112 yards, including a team-long 45-yard grab, while Thomas hauled in five passes for 61 yards.

SEASON GAME SUMMARIES

WEEK 1: Cardinals 20, Saints 13; September 7 @ Caesars Superdome - The Saints fell to the Cardinals in the 2025 opener, despite rebounding from a 20-10 third quarter deficit to come within an end zone throw of a game-tying touchdown.

Heroics on offense, defense and special teams aided the Black and Gold in a promising fourth quarter. With 4:40 left in the contest, Saints DT Bryan Bresee blocked a 46-yard field goal attempt. QB Spencer Rattler then converted a trio of first downs on throws to TE Juwan Johnson and WR Devaughn Vele and a 12-yard scramble by the signal-caller to set up a 28-yard field goal by K Blake Grupe with 2:44 left.

New Orleans then forced a three-and-out, punctuated by a third down sack of Cardinals QB Kyler Murray by CB Alontae Taylor for a 15-yard loss to get New Orleans the ball back with 1:49 left.

Rattler helped advance the Saints to the Cardinals 18-yard line to set up three tries at the end zone, the closest being a laser to Johnson that was broken up by Arizona defenders Jalen Thompson and Budda Baker.

Rattler completed 27-of-46 passes for 214 yards and carried four times for 29 yards. Johnson led the Saints in receiving with eight grabs for 76 yards. Murray completed 21-of-29 passes for 163 yards with two TDs and a 108.8 passer rating, carrying seven times for 38 yards. RB Alvin Kamara's first half 18-yard rushing touchdown was the 1,000th touchdown scored at the Caesars Superdome.

New Orleans outgained Arizona through the air, 208-130, but the Cardinals held the ball for 33:46 of the contest to win the time of possession battle. The loss snapped a six-game winning streak for the Saints in openers. The Saints fell to 15-17 against the Cardinals in the all-time regular season series.

SEASON GAME SUMMARIES

Week 2: San Francisco 49ers 26, New Orleans Saints 21; September 14, 2025 @ Caesars Superdome - The New Orleans Saints dropped their second game of the season to the 49ers, despite bouncing back from a 26-14 early fourth quarter deficit to have a chance of winning the game in the final minutes.

"We've got to play cleaner football, in all three phases," said Coach Kellen Moore. "There's only so many opportunities in these games and you have to value each and every opportunity in all three phases, and when they present themselves you've got to take advantage of them because there's only so many."

An impressive drive and defensive stops paved the way for New Orleans to be back in it in the very end. After going down two scores with 12:18 left in the fourth, quarterback Spencer Rattler and company made some magic happen, converting three first downs to wide receiver Chris Olave and running back Alvin Kamara to set up an eventual three-yard TD to wide receiver Devaughn Vele. The score capped off a 13 play, 71-yard drive in six minutes flat to bring the Saints back within five. After two three-and-out drives by both teams, Rattler led a charge that just fell short. Starting on the New Orleans' six yard-line with 2:40 left, the signal-caller picked up two first downs before the 49ers defense became too much to handle. Rattler completed 25-of-34 passes (73.5 pct.) for 207 yards with career-highs of three passing TDs and a 118.1 rating.

49ers quarterback Mac Jones went 26-of-39 for 279 yards and threw three TDs with a 113.1 passer rating. New Orleans outgained San Francisco on the ground, 121-77, but the 49ers beat the Saints in passing yardage, 344-307, and were 53% (8-for-15) on third down to New Orleans' 36% (four-for-11).

Week 3: Seahawks 44, New Orleans Saints 13; September 21, 2025 @ Lumen Field - New Orleans' season continued to get off to a rocky start, as they fell to the Seahawks at Lumen Field.

The Saints got off to a solid start with the ball first and quarterback Spencer Rattler completed a pass to wide receiver Chris Olave and running back Alvin Kamara gained seven yards to put the team near midfield. However the drive stalled out and the Saints failed to convert on fourth down.

SEASON GAME SUMMARIES

After a Seattle first down, the Saints stopped two run plays for one-yard gains, but DT Bryan Bresee was assessed a 12-yard unnecessary roughness penalty on third down that extended a drive and set up a TD. The Seahawks extended their lead to 21-0 by the end of the first quarter, where rookie WR Tory Horton returned a punt 95 yards for a TD and blocked punt set up a third score.

On a drive spanning the first and second quarter, the Saints got on the scoreboard with a Blake Grupe field goal, but the Seahawks took advantage of a long kickoff return to set up a scoring play of a 14-yard pass from QB Sam Darnold to Horton.

The Seahawks took a halftime 38-6 lead, while the Black and Gold kept up their intensity, holding Seattle to a pair of field goals and recording a turnover, while TE Jack Stoll scored his first touchdown.

Rattler completed 28-of-39 passes for 218 yards with a TD. Olave had a career-high ten catches.

Week 4: Bills 30, Saints 19; September 28, 2025 @ Highmark Stadium - New Orleans faced a 11-point deficit with 6:42 left in the third quarter and was able to cut it to two with 8:53 left in the game, but the Saints never led. New Orleans rushed for a season-high 189 yards, scoring a TD on their first possession for the first time this season. But with Buffalo leading 14-7 in the second quarter, New Orleans was unable to capitalize or score points, when rookie S Jonas Sanker had his first career interception near midfield early in the second quarter. QB Spencer Rattler connected with WR Chris Olave for a three-yard TD late in the third quarter to reduce Buffalo's lead to 21-16, followed by a field goal early in the fourth quarter. But the Bills answered with a four-play, 60-yard drive to gain a nine-point advantage. This was followed by a Saints drive that stalled at the Buffalo 43 on downs and the Bills took advantage of a roughing the punter penalty to hold onto the ball and kick a field goal with 2:12 left.

Week 5: Saints 26, New York Giants 14; October 5, 2025 @ Caesars Superdome - Spencer Rattler was so fired up by the sight of Rashid Shaheed hauling in his deep throw down the right sideline that the second-year quarterback started springing the length of the field to join the celebration.

Rattler's pivotal completion to Shaheed went for an 87-yard touchdown, DB Jordan Howden returned a fumble 86 yards for a score, and New Orleans defeated the turnover-prone Giants 26-14 for the Saints' first win under rookie coach Kellen Moore.

"Probably the fastest I ran all game," Rattler quipped when asked about chasing Rashid to the end zone. "Those plays create energy for the whole team, the whole crowd and we definitely want to have more of those."

Such moments had been rare for New Orleans since late last season, which ended with the Saints on a four-game skid before the Moore era began with four more losses to start the 2025 season.

That changed Sunday against the Giants (1-4) - also the previous team to lose to the Saints last Dec. 8. And after the game, the Saints transformed their home locker room - equipped with a sound system and color-changing LED lighting - into "Club Dub" for the first time since beating the Cleveland Browns on November 17.

"It's been a while since we had the fog and the music playing afterward," Howden said. "I almost forgot how that was."

The 37-year old Moore celebrated his first victory since last season's Super Bowl - a game also played in the Caesars Superdome, when he was Philadelphia's offensive coordinator.

"This is a special group," Moore said, praising Saints players' "resiliency to hang in there through some challenging times the first month."

Rattler earned his first victory in 11 career starts, passing for 225 yards without turning the ball over or taking a sack, while Shaheed finished with four catches for 114 yards for the Saints (1-4).

"It feels good to get that first win," Rattler said. "It was a team win. The defense played great. The offensive line was elite."

Giants rookie quarterback Jaxon Dart, who won his first career start in Week Four, passed for 202 yards and two touchdowns, but also turned the ball over three times, the first when the ball slipped from his hand during a scramble in the third quarter. DE Cameron Jordan recovered the football as Dart, laying across Jordan's legs, disgustedly put both hands over his face.

"We had a lot of opportunities and moved the ball just fine," Dart said. "We hurt ourselves. We just kind of gave this game away."

Dart threw his first two career interceptions in the fourth quarter - both caught by Kool-Aid McKinstry for his first career picks.

New York committed five turnovers in all, none more costly than when RB Cam Skattebo was stripped by DT Bryan Bresee at the Saints 12-yard line, giving Howden the chance to scoop the loose ball on the 14 and sprint untouched the other way early in the fourth quarter.

"It was a game-changing play," Moore said.

Indeed, the Giants were threatening to score a go-ahead touchdown when Howden saw the ball on the ground behind the line of scrimmage, picked it up and recalled thinking, "Just run - run for my life."

Dart completed his first five passes for 44 yards, capped by a short TD to TE Theo Johnson. He mixed in a 20-yard scramble with three more completions during New York's next series, which ended with Dart's 15-yard strike to Johnson for a 14-3 lead.

New Orleans closed to 14-13 on Shaheed's TD - the Saints' longest offensive play since 2016.

Shaheed said he tried to make S Tyler Nubin believe he was headed across the field to the left, "and once I saw his hips turn, I broke toward the [right] corner and the rest is history."

It was also Shaheed's sixth career touchdown reception of 53 or more yards, and his third covering at least 68 yards.

After Saints K Blake Grupe missed a 52-yard field goal that would have given New Orleans the lead late in the first half, the Saints got the ball back when LB Demario Davis forced receiver Darius Slayton's fumble at the Saints 35 and S Jonas Sanker recovered.

That led to Grupe's short field goal for a 16-14 Saints lead at halftime.

Week 6: New England Patriots 26, Saints 19; October 12, 2025 @ Caesars Superdome - It's not the fight, it's the finish.

It's not the play it's the precision.

It's not the drive, it's the discipline and details.

The New Orleans Saints (1-5) lost their third one-score game this season in the Caesars Superdome, falling 25-19 to the New England Patriots.

Add that to earlier losses against the Cardinals [20-13] and 49ers [26-21] and the Saints have riddled themselves with "couldas" and "wouldas," not not filled the holes with finished business.

"Tough," cornerback Alontae Taylor said. "I think it speaks volumes for us, though. Teams ain't just blowing us out like we're just trash. I think we're right there, and we've just got to find that hump and just stay consistent with that and try to get some wins under our belt."

Sunday followed a similar pattern.

Quarterback Spencer Rattler was efficient and turnover-free - 20 of 26 for 227 yards with no interceptions, but no touchdowns. New Orleans split success in its two red zone trips - a short field goal by Blake Grupe and a one-yard touchdown run by Taysom Hill - and settled for field goals when drives stalled at the New England 30-, 20- and 36-yard lines.

Grupe's last field goal, a 54-yarder with 13:41 left in the contest, pulled New Orleans to within 25-19. And the defense, which struggled while allowing the Patriots to convert six of 13 times on third down, forced punts on consecutive New England possessions.

The Saints began their final two possessions of the contest at their own 25- and 10-yard lines. The first ended after two plays when tight end Juwan Johnson caught a pass from Rattler over the middle and lost a fumble after a 14-yard gain to the 50, and the second ended after the offense gained 28 yards on five plays.

The Patriots converted one last third down on their final drive - a 21-yard pass on third-and-11 from their own 30-yard line with 2:40 left - that allowed them to run out the clock.

New England QB Drake Maye [18 of 26 for 261 yards and three touchdowns, with no interceptions] had completions of fourth-and-four and third-and-11 [twice] in the second half, while all three touchdown passes came on first down in the first half.

"You're guarding pretty good receivers," Taylor said, noting Maye's ability to extend plays and five receivers extra time to uncover. "They're finding ways, and Drake and them have a pretty good connection."

"So you're just going to find a guy open and throw the ball. We've just got to tighten up on our end. If we've got to cover longer, then we've got to cover longer."

Even though the Patriots didn't convert the game's lone turnover into points, they siphoned 2:45 off the clock and pinned New Orleans deep with a punt. The Saints took possession at their 10 with 5:51 left in the contest.

"It says in the Word, like, don't get tired in doing good," Johnson said. "We have a lot of stuff that we're doing that's good, so don't get tired in doing it. You're going to be rewarded when the time is right. The time isn't right, but one thing we're going to do is just keep working, clean up a few things and that's where we're at."

"Our red zone efficiency needs to be a little better, that's something we're going to clean up and be a little more efficient. I had a turnover, so obviously clean that up."

"The biggest thing is just being better and sound. It's just little things that a lot of people don't see, but we see. We'll clean up, we'll do better, we'll come out with a better attitude and a different result next week."

Several winning elements have been displayed. The Saints continue the quest to minimize - if not eliminate the costly ones.

"At the end of the day we did not take advantage of the opportunities that were presented to us," Head Coach Kellen Moore said. "Every game is going to have those opportunities, and you have got to take advantage of them. They won the turnover ratio, they won some of the situational stuff and that's how this game was decided."

"I have got to find a way for myself to coach better, to put ourselves in better situations to be more successful as a football team. Because there is too much good and not enough in those little margins [to be losing]."

Week 7: Chicago Bears 26, New Orleans Saints 14; October 19, 2025 @ Soldier Field - The piecemeal approach to winning National Football League games continued to fail the New Orleans Saints at the Chicago Bears.

Flashes of effectiveness [defensive stops, a forced turnover, two impressive TD drives] again could not sufficiently puncture a thicker shield of futility [four turnovers including three interceptions, no run game against the Bears, inability to stop the run], and the Saints dropped their sixth game in seven outings, 26-14 to the Bears at Soldier Field.

A promising defensive start included a three-and-out punt to open the game, a field goal allowed after the offense committed a turnover deep in New Orleans territory and an interception off Bears QB Caleb Williams. But that buckled under the weight of 222 rushing yards and two touchdowns allowed on 40 carries.

And an offensive flurry that produced consecutive touchdown drives of 91 and 80 yards, each ending on passes from QB Spencer Rattler to WR Chris Olave, was negated by four Rattler turnovers and an invisible run game [44 yards on 17 carries].

Saints first-year coach Kellen Moore echoed the sound of sameness to explain the outcome.

"The theme of that game...we had our chances," Moore said. "I thought our guys battled. I thought our guys put [us] in really good position in the middle of the game to come back and get ourself back in it. But then we just couldn't keep it going. Credit to those guys – they played better than us, they coached better than us. We've got to find the formula that works."

New Orleans has shown it has the ability to create the elements of the formula. It hasn't been able to create them consistently and sustain them long enough for the scoreboard to reflect the mix.

Rattler [20 of 32 for 233 yards and two TDs, and sacked four times for -24 yards] entered the contest with only one turnover – an interception in September against the Seattle Seahawks – and six touchdowns.

But he was sacked and lost a fumble on the Saints' opening possession, after New Orleans' defense forced a punt on the game's opening drive. And after the Saints punted and Blake Grupe missed his sixth field goal this season to end the second and third drives, Rattler's pass intended for Mason Tipton was intercepted and returned to the Saints 30-yard line to conclude the fourth drive.

Week 8: Tampa Bay Buccaneers 23, Saints 3; October 26, 2025 @ Caesars Superdome - An inspired defensive effort and a quarterback change wasn't enough for the New Orleans Saints on Sunday, as they dropped a 23-3 decision to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers at the Caesars Superdome.

The Saints turned the ball over four times [two interceptions, one a pick-six] to allow the Bucs to solidify their grip on the NFC South at 6-2. The loss dropped the Saints to 1-7.

Rookie Tyler Shough entered the game with 3:57 to play in the third quarter and the Saints down 17-3 and promptly completed his first pass for six yards to Taysom Hill. Shough's first series ended when Tampa safety Antoine Winfield Jr. took the ball away from Saints receiver Chris Olave for an interception. Starter Spencer Rattler was 15 of 21 for 136 yards with a lost fumble and pick-six, leading the Saints to just three points [48-yard Blake Grupe field goal]. Shough finished 17 of 30 for 129 yards.

The Saints defense played exceptional football in the first half, not allowing the Bucs' offense to score while sacking quarterback Baker Mayfield three times and forcing him to fumble once. Tampa had just 80 yards of offense in the first half. The Saints defense also had a goal-line stand and came close to a second one before Tampa scored on a 1-yard dive in the third quarter.

Saints running back Alvin Kamara joined another exclusive list Sunday when he became the fifth running back in NFL history to have 600 or more receptions. He entered Sunday's game against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers needing two receptions to hit the milestone and accomplished that in the final minute of the second quarter. He had two receptions for 24 yards and six carries for 21 yards.

Luke Fortner started at center for the Saints, replacing longtime starter Erik McCoy, who is out for the season with a biceps injury. Running back Devin Neal saw his most extensive action of the season as the Saints played without Kendre Miller, who was lost for the season in Week Seven because of a knee injury. Wide receiver/return specialist Rashid Shaheed had nine receptions for 75 yards and wide receiver Chris Olave also added eight grabs for 63 yards.

Week 9: Los Angeles Rams 34, Saints 10; November 2, 2025 @ SoFi Stadium - It seemed less about what New Orleans didn't do Sunday against Los Angeles, as it was about what the Rams did - clinically, repeatedly and thoroughly - in a 34-10 Rams victory. The Rams [6-2] scored touchdowns on three of their first four possessions, piled up 77 offensive plays and 438 yards, registered a lopsided time of possession advantage [43:53 to 16:07] and prevented the Saints from conjuring much hope in the first NFL start for Saints rookie QB Tyler Shough. Shough displayed moments of promise while completing 15 of 24 passes for 176 yards and his first career touchdown pass, with one interception. But the Rams ball-hogged to a gluttonous level, keeping the Saints offense off the field and helping set the state for Los Angeles' defense to allow just 40 offensive plays, 224 yards and ten first downs. And a week after New Orleans' defense played arguably its best game this season in a 23-3 loss Tampa Bay, it couldn't get off the field [the Rams converted half of their 14 third-down attempts and both fourth down tries, and New Orleans didn't force a turnover and was shredded in the red zone, where Los Angeles scored on four of five trips. "They controlled so many of the situational football plays," Saints coach Kellen Moore said. "They were able to play a lot more efficiently, run the football better. But third downs, red zone, fourth downs - they were able to control the ball in so many ways." "We didn't get enough shots at it. We didn't get enough opportunities. We've got to play obviously a lot better. A lot of this comes down to the details and the fundamentals of the football game. Sometimes it's a simple game; we've got to play better and give ourselves more opportunities. "When you look at it, we had 40 snaps on offense - probably an all-time low - and they had 77. So they obviously controlled the ball for much of this game." When the Saints went three-and-out on their first two possessions and the Rams scored touchdowns on two of their last three - a 12-play, 88-yard drive and an 11-play, 62-yard drive that lasted a combined 12:36 - it was a harbinger of things to come. New Orleans manufactured an eight-play, 44-yard drive in the second quarter that ended with a 39-yard field goal by Blake Grupe to cut its deficit to 13-3.

And when the Rams responded with a three-play, 65-yard punch to push the lead to 2--3 with 6:25 in the half, the teams traded possessions - the Saints punted, the Rams missed a field goal - before the Saints countered with their only touchdown.

The six-play, 71-yard drive began with 54 seconds left in the second quarter and included Shough completions to WR Rashid Shaheed [13 yards], TE Juwan Johnson [eight yards], receiver Chris Olave [27 yards], and a roughing the passer penalty that pushed the ball to the Rams' 11-yard line.

On first down from there, Shough found Johnson open a few yards in front of the goal line. Johnson made the catch, spun around a tackle attempt and lunged into the end zone for Shough's first touchdown, and halved the Rams' lead to 20-10 entering halftime.

But that was as far as the momentum went.

Los Angeles opened the second half with an 8-yard touchdown drive that required 16 plays, lasted 9:46 and included two third-down conversions and one fourth-down conversion.

Stafford was sacked twice, by Chase Young and Jonah Williams. Young raised his season total to three sacks in four games, second-most on the team. But Stafford mainly was surgical, completing 24 of 32 passes for 281 yards and four touchdowns, with no interceptions. And with Kyren Williams adding 114 rushing yards and a touchdown on 25 carries, the Saints' defense was in a quandry.

Shough will now look to build off his performance.

"I thought there were some positives that came out of the game from Tyler's perspective," Moore said.

"I thought he threw it well. I thought that two-minute drive was big-time football right before the half. Even at the end I thought he made a couple of really good plays to quickly get us down in the red zone and we weren't able to run the football and get a first down."

Week 10: New Orleans Saints 17, Carolina Panthers 7; November 9, 2025 @ Bank of America Stadium - No need to overdramatize the New Orleans Saints' 17-7 victory over Carolina at Bank of America Stadium in Charlotte, N.C. In the grand scheme it was the second win in New Orleans' 10 games and in a business measured by wins and losses, everything based on that reality.

But the tingly feeling that tickled fans, and the music inside Club Dub that Saints players blared inside the Visitors' locker room in Carolina, probably felt and sounded like a mixture of relief and hope.

The relief came in the form of a much-needed victory in New Orleans' most complete game of the season, where offense, defense and special teams each ponied up and shared the winnings.

The hope came in the form of a rookie quarterback, Tyler Shough, who made his second career start.

New Orleans' defense came up with two turnovers, held Carolina to 175 yards and produced stops on six of nine third-down attempts; the special teams blocked a field goal and added a field goal; and the offense produced 388 yards and chewed up 33-21 in time of possession on 67 plays.

But Shough, the Saints' second-round pick this year, likely left the biggest imprint. He completed 19 of 27 passes for 282 yards and two touchdowns, with no interceptions. He had touchdown passes of 62 yards to receiver Chris Olave and 30 yards to tight end Juwan Johnson, and added another 52-yard completion to Johnson, as New Orleans [2-8] evened its record to 1-1 in his starts.

"Just a great feeling," Shough said. "I think my favorite moment was just seeing everybody in the locker room, dapping everybody up and just kind of the work that everyone has put in to this point. Just a great team win. The defense, special teams, everybody had an impact on the game."

Week 12: Atlanta Falcons 24, New Orleans Saints 10; November 23, 2025 @ Caesars Superdome - No need to have searched for a rocket scientist or nuclear physicist on Sunday in the Caesars Superdome.

The New Orleans Saints shot themselves in the foot, then tied a hand behind their back, then got in their own way, then...

You get the idea: In a 24-10 loss to Atlanta, which dropped the Saints to 2-9 and prevented their first two-game winning streak this season, describing why was simple because applicable clichés were appropriate. New Orleans committed such self-injury that the Falcons [4-7] only needed to accept the benevolence and not reciprocate.

The Saints missed two field goals and twice didn't score touchdowns after drives advanced to Atlanta's one-yard line, leaving twice as many points on the field as they posted on the scoreboard. The lone touchdown was a 49-yard interception return by safety Justin Reid in the second quarter, pulling the Saints to wintin 10-7 in a game they never led.

"Defense has got to come up with a second turnover," said edge rusher Cameron Jordan, who posted a sack [No. 126 of his career], two tackles for loss and a forced fumble. "I think the games we've won, we've gotten two turnovers quick and easy and gave the offense another chance. I had a sack-strip-fumble, I've got to get that ball."

Had Jordan recovered the first-quarter fumble, with the Falcons facing third-and-ten from their 45-yard line, New Orleans likely would have taken over inside Atlanta's 40, trailing 3-0.

But the Falcons recovered, maintained possession, punted and forced the Saints punt to end New Orleans' ensuing drive.

And the Saints were 0 for 3 in the red zone - two failed drives that reached the 1 and a missed 38-yard field goal attempt by Blake Grupe on a drive that started at Atlanta's 16, following a 75-yard kickoff return by Mason Tipton.

Grupe also missed a 47-yard attempt - both were wide right - in the second quarter and is now 18 of 26 this season.

"It's not working right now," Grupe said. "All I can do at this point is look at, literally everything. Look into myself, first of all, and go from there. But other than just literally continuing to put the work in week by week and day by day, that's all I can do."

Jordan said he can sympathize with the struggles, but also stressed the expectation.

"I have no idea what it's like to be a kicker," Jordan said. "I've seen kickers go 40-for-40, or whatever, and then...I assume it's a mindset thing. When you have a great kicker and he starts missing, I've seen it multiple times. I understand there's a mental aspect to it all, one that I can't relate to. I expect them, just like I expect [edge rushers] Chase [Young] or Carl [Granderson] to be able to do their jobs."

"So, when a teammate is in a rut or something, you can't do anything but uplift them. You have to find a way, as a teammate and as a team, to get yourselves out of a hole."

"Beyond that, when you enter the red zone as many times as we did it today, you have to be able to come out with points, preferably touchdowns. When you have a chance on defense to take over the game, you have to be able to. We were playing a good team; I think we showed we are the better team, and we lost. The better team did not win today, and that's on us. We have to be our best friend and not our worst enemy. We stayed getting in our own damn way."

The Saints held Atlanta to 302 yards of offense and the defense produced stops on nine of 12 third down attempts, but New Orleans' own offensive struggles - 293 yards, 5 for 16 on third down and 2 for 5 on fourth down - counterbalanced the effort.

The frustration glared most at the goal line.

On the opening drive of the third quarter, the Saints drove 73 yards on 13 plays (aided by defensive pass interference) to reach the Falcons' one-yard line. But on third-and-goal from the two, Taysom Hill took a direct snap and gained one yard on fourth-and-goal from the one, Hill threw an incomplete pass and the deficit remained 16-7 with 7:32 left in the third.

The Saints forced a punt, began the next drive at their 41-yard line and used 12 plays to reach the one. On second-and-goal, quarterback Tyler Shough was stuffed on a sneak. On third down, a direct snap to Hill went through his hands, he recovered at the 12 and threw incomplete. But he was penalized for intentional grounding and, facing fourth-and-goal from the 15, the Saints settled for Grapes' 33-yard field goal with 12:13 left in the fourth quarter.

Atlanta responded with a 49-yard touchdown pass and successful two-point conversion to end its next drive, and that was more than enough.

"Frustrating game," Head Coach Kellen Moore said. "All three phases kind of had different opportunities that, obviously, we missed. It's going to be a big opportunity for us to respond the right way and stick together and keep battling."

Week 13: Miami Dolphins 21, New Orleans Saints 17; November 30, 2025 @ Hard Rock Stadium - As glaringly inefficient as the New Orleans Saints were in the first half of Sunday's game against the Dolphins at Hard Rock Stadium in Miami Gardens, Fla., it is as spectacularly resilient as they were in a stirring second-half comeback that nearly resulted in a victory.

Nearly

But their 16-0 halftime deficit was just enough to help Miami squeeze out a 21-17 victory over New Orleans, dropping the Saints to 2-10 entering a road game next Sunday against Tampa Bay.

New Orleans' first half included two turnovers (a fumble and an interception by rookie Tyler Shough in his fourth start) and a gashed run defense (112 of Miami's 164 rushing yards) against the Dolphins (5-7), who held the Saints to 63 total yards and one third-down conversion in five attempts in the first 30 minutes.

But the Saints produced one of their best patch jobs of the season in the second half. Shough, who completed seven of 12 passes for 43 yards and was sacked twice in the first half, connected on 19 of 26 passes for 196 yards and two touchdowns in the second half, while the defense didn't allow a touchdown after surrendering one on the opening drive of the game, and limited Miami's offense to 105 yards and a field goal in the final two quarters. "Love the way our guys battled," Saints coach Kellen Moore said. "It was an unfortunate ending, but there's stuff to learn from and grow from during that game, so we'll continue to grow."

New Orleans pulled to within 19-17 on an acrobatic, 15-yard touchdown pass from Shough to Devaughn Vele (eight catches, 93 yards) with 1:17 left, with the 6-foot-5 receiver leaping high and tapping down each foot before falling out of the back of the end zone.

On the two-point attempt to tie, Shough was intercepted by Miami safety Minkah Fitzpatrick who returned it untouched for a Dolphins two-point conversion and 21-17 lead.

Saints K Charlie Smyth, in his first NFL game, then executed a perfect onside kick that Vele recovered at the Saints' 45-yard line, and in two plays New Orleans gained 19 yards to the Miami 36-yard line.

From there, on second-and-1 with 44 seconds left, Shough lofted a pass down the right sideline intended for WR Chris Olave. Olave, escorted by two defenders, made a leaping attempt at the goal line and had the best chance of the trio to make the catch, but saw the ball go through his hands for an incompleteness.

Shough threw incomplete again on third down to avoid a sack and on fourth-and-1, Shough's sneak attempt up the middle was stuffed by the Dolphins. Miami took possession and kneeled twice to end it. New Orleans sped up its offensive tempo in the second half, with great benefit.

"I think once we were able to finally get some first downs and get some efficient runs on first and second down and play in some positive yardage situations, the tempo is a byproduct of that and you're able to play with more tempo," Moore said.

It noticeably benefited Shough, whose two turnovers came in the second quarter (Vele said he was to blame for the fumble, for missing a block on the blind side which allowed an undetected Fitzpatrick a strip-sack that was recovered by Miami and returned to the Saints' 37-yard line).

New Orleans held when cornerback Kool-Aid McKinstry intercepted Tua Tagovailoa in the end zone on the next play.

Miami added a field goal to take a 13-0 lead on its next possession before the Saints drove from their 28 to Miami's 24, where on second-and-10 with 1:14 left, Shough was intercepted by cornerback Rasul Douglas, who returned it 38 yards to the Saints' 42. The Dolphins added a field goal as time expired in the half to take the 16-point lead.

New Orleans opened the second half with a 10-play, 65-yard touchdown drive that ended on a 17-yard pass to Olave (four catches for 47 yards), and Shough's two-point conversion run halved the deficit to 16-8.

"Just really proud of our resiliency throughout," Shough said. "We started off too slow, just kind of proud how we battled the whole way. It just sucks, losing. We've got to find the little ways to keep getting better. I think we're progressing well, we've got to shore it up."

Defensively, New Orleans posted four sacks including two by edge rusher Cameron Jordan raising his season total to a team-leading 6.5 and his career total to 128, tied with Pro Football Hall of Famer and Saints legend Rickey Jackson for 17th all-time in NFL history.

Week 14: Saints 24, Tampa Bay Buccaneers 20; December 7, 2025 @ Raymond James Stadium - As the rain and turf at Raymond James Stadium caked cleats, slicked hands and smeared jerseys, Tyler Shough left the field as pristine as he possibly could have on Sunday in Tampa, Fla.

The New Orleans Saints rookie quarterback showed off the goods that made him the Saints' highest drafted signal-caller since 1971 in a 24-20 victory, his second as a starter and the third this season for the Saints (3-10).

Shough ran for two touchdowns - including a lead-taking 13-yarder with 8:42 left - and benefited from a herculean defensive effort. New Orleans' defense forced a turnover and produced five fourth-down stops as the Saints won their second road game this season, each over the top two teams (Carolina and Tampa Bay) in the NFC South Division. "This is why you play football," Shough said, after helping New Orleans raise its record to 2-3 in his starts. "You come in here, in the elements with all your boys, all your teammates and we fought really hard. I was really proud of the O-line, just kind of chugging along the whole way, they did a really good job in protection.

"The defense was making huge stops. I think we did a better job of being a little bit more complementary, and I'm just proud of all of our guys. It took everybody, so it was just a lot of fun. That's the thing that is kind of resonating with me right now, it was just a lot of fun. And I think this shows kind of how we are as a team."

The Saints again proved to be a markedly better second-half team, outscoring the Buccaneers 17-10, going 5 for 7 on third down after blanking on four attempts in the first half, gaining 187 of their 260 yards and producing four stops on third down and two on fourth, including the game sealer with 81 seconds left.

"Coming into it, we just knew they were going to be aggressive," said CB Alontae Taylor, whose third quarter interception set the table for Shough's 34-yard touchdown run, the first rushing touchdown of Shough's career. "With those fourth-down plays, we were expecting them to go for them."

"I think [defensive coordinator Brandon] Staley came up with the right gameplan throughout the week. We communicated on the back end and throughout the whole defense, and we were just able to get the stops."

New Orleans opened the game with a touchdown drive, following WR Mason Tipton's 54-yard kickoff return. Four plays, including completions of 16 and 12 yards to WR Devaughn Vele and TE Juwan Johnson, and an 11-yard read option run by Shough took the Saints to the 3-yard line. On first-and-goal from there, rookie RB Devin Neal muscled in up the middle for his first NFL touchdown.

The Bucs [7-6] responded with a touchdown and neither team scored again until the second quarter. Shough [13 of 20 for 144 yards, with an interception, and seven carries for 55 yards] was picked off on a deep pass attempt on first-and-5 from New Orleans' 21-yard line with 11:20 left in the first half. Tampa Bay's 19-yard return set up the possession to begin at New Orleans' 40, and after gaining 17 yards in four plays, the Bucs settled for a 41-yard field goal and 10-7 lead they carried into halftime.

After Taylor's interception ended Tampa Bay's opening drive of the second half and Shough's 34-yard run gave New Orleans a 14-10 lead, the Bucs responded with a seven-play, 65-yard drive to retake the advantage, 17-14 with 7:40 left in the third. The Saints tied it on Charlie Smyth's field goal with 1:36 left in the third quarter, and fourth down stop No. 4 for the Saints [a Kool-Aid McKinstry pass breakup] gave New Orleans possession at its own 47 with 12:48 left.

Eight plays later, including conversions on third-and-10 and third-and-8, and the Saints were first-and-10 at the Tampa Bay 13. Shough dropped back to pass, evaded heavy pressure in the pocket and escaped through an opening on the left side, then outran the defense to the pylon for a 24-17 lead with 8:26 left.

"We were getting Taysom [Hill] on a linebacker for maybe a pylon-wheel shot and it kind of all got muddled up at the end, so I was just trying to get out of there and make a play," Shough said. "Just saw green grass and went for it. It was a good job of driving the whole way down the field and getting down there. Stuff like that happens and you've got to go for it."

The defense made it stand, allowing a red zone field goal before producing its final fourth-down stop - a Demario Davis tackle following a three-yard completion on fourth-and-4- with 1:21 left. The Saints limited the Bucs to 301 yards and Tampa Bay quarterback Baker Mayfield completed 14 of 30 passes for 122 yards and a touchdown, with an interception.

"We've only won a couple of games this season, there's a lot of adversity you face," Moore said. "And, so, for our guys to come out and have the energy and physicality they played with, I thought it was a credit to our guys."

"They're a special group, a group that keeps playing and all three phases contributed to this game. It was a really challenging game for both teams. It was big for our guys to come away with the win."

Week 15: New Orleans Saints 20, Carolina Panthers 17; December 14, 2025 @ Caesars Superdome - The

New Orleans Saints hitched to improbable Sunday and wouldn't loosen their grip until they crossed into possible and landed on victory, posting a 20-17 win over Carolina in the Caesars Superdome that riveted as they scored 10 points in the final 2:29.

The Saints [4-10] won their second consecutive games - their first winning streak this season - and evened their record to 3-3 with rookie Tyler Shough starting at quarterback.

Shough [24 of 32 for 272 yards and a touchdown, with no interceptions] threw a 12-yard touchdown pass to receiver Chris Olave with 2:29 left to tie the score at 17-17. After the defense forced a punt, Shough led an eight-play, 62-yard drive that lasted 55 seconds and ended with Charlie Smyth's 47-yard field goal with two seconds left.

"Tyler Shough, he's building," said edge rusher Chase Young, whose nine-yard sack on Carolina's final possession helped force the punt. Young added two tackles for loss and two quarterback hits, but lauded the work of the Saints' rookie quarterback.

"Every week, I can tell he's getting more comfortable," Young said. "He's just starting to look like that guy."

Smyth, too, as assumed the look of a solid NFL kicker. He has made four of his last five kicks [he added a 42-yarder Sunday], and the game-winner was pure.

"We have a great operation," Smyth said. "I never have to think about the ball being in the right spot or with the right hold. It was a cool moment, and one I'll never forget."

Smyth was the Saints' kicker for the third straight game and with the Saints.

His game-winner gave New Orleans its second one-score victory in as many weeks over the NFC South Division leader. Last week, it was a 24-20 road win against Tampa Bay.

Adding to the degree of difficulty against Carolina [7-7], the Saints waded through attrition - running back Devin Neal [hamstring], receiver Devaughn Vele [ankle] and right guard Cesar Ruiz [ankle] were lost to injuries during the game - and gutted out a victory that raised their record to 3-2 in the NFC South.

New Orleans battled uphill the entire game; it punted on its opening drive and Carolina followed with a 13-play, 74-yard touchdown drive to take a 7-0 lead. The Saints used their first possession of the second quarter to construct a 17-play, 95-yard touchdown drive that lasted 11:22 and ended on Neal's four-yard touchdown run, his second in as many weeks.

But the Panthers nudged ahead on a 40-yard field goal with 21 seconds left in the first half, then expanded the lead to 17-7 when quarterback Bryce Young threw a 32-yard touchdown pass to Jalen Coker with 9:54 left in the third.

Three consecutive possessions resulted in a fourth-down stop by New Orleans' defense, a fourth-down stop by Carolina's defense, and a forced punt by New Orleans before the frantic finish.

The game-tying drive began at the Saints' 22-yard line with 4:37 left, and Shough completed six of seven passes for 83 yards, including the 12-yard score to Olave with 2:29 left. He connected with Olave, who has game highs of six catches for 85 yards, four times for 63 yards on the drive.

Carolina drove from its 29 to its 43 on its final drive before stalling and punting, with the Saints beginning the game's final drive at their nine-yard line following a holding penalty on the punt return.

Shough completed three passes for 43 yards, spiked the ball to stop the clock with 12 seconds left, then scrambled for four yards and drew a personal foul penalty because he was hit when he started his slide. The 15 yards pushed the Saints from Carolina's 44 to the 29, backup quarterback Spencer Rattler subbed in for the injured Shough to throw incomplete and sift three seconds off the clock to lower it to six seconds, and Smyth popped the winner on second-and-ten.

"It was huge," Shough said of the victory. "I felt like we had played well on the road but we wanted to show the fans what we could do here, just as a team collectively. Just the resiliency, just a lot of fun. We're just proud of everybody throughout the whole game, especially against a really good team. Two playoff teams, back to back. It was a lot of fun."

Week 16: New Orleans Saints 29, New York Jets 6; December 21, 2025 @ Caesars Superdome - The New Orleans Saints achieved the goal many worthwhile acts aspire to in their regular-season finale Sunday in the Caesars Superdome.

Definitely, more of the 2025 season, which is heading in an upward trajectory that's fostering a hope and expectation that feels familiar. New Orleans [5-10] won its third consecutive game for the first time since 2022, behind a rookie quarterback who has led the team to a 4-3 record in his seven starts, and a defense that continued cresting with eight sacks and two forced turnovers while allowing six points [a season low] and 195 yards in a 29-6 victory over the Jets.

"We've talked a lot about making December football meaningful, and I feel like our guys have been really jumping on that opportunity," Saints Coach Kellen Moore said. "Win a few down the stretch here, have a couple more opportunities - the energy, the juice, the way our guys are playing together I think is really special. It's a special group in that locker room. A group that lost 10 of its first 12 games - including three of the first four starts by rookie quarterback Tyler Shough - found its footing and collected three wins over NFC South division foes Carolina and Tampa Bay, the top two teams in the division, in a five-game stretch.

Sunday's pummeling of the Jets [3-12] was New Orleans' most lopsided decision this season.

It was spurred by five Charlie Smyth field goals; career days from Shough (32 of 49 for 308 yards and a touchdown) and receiver Chris Olave (10 catches for 148 yards and two touchdowns); more history from Taysom Hill, who ran for 42 yards on 12 carries, caught four passes for 36 yards, threw a 38-yard touchdown pass and became the only player in the Super Bowl era to top 1,000 yards passing [2,388], 1,000 yards rushing [2,545] and 1,000 yards receiving [1,002]; and the best defensive effort of the season from a unit that has allowed 16 points per game in the last six.

"There was a bunch of guys making plays today," Moore said. "I thought it was a credit to our guys, just the relentless effort, the finish, the way they're playing together. The sacks - there's coverage associated with that, the way our guys are covering on the back end. And guys just took advantage of opportunities. That was really cool to see."

New Orleans overcame a sluggish open. Hill fumbled on the second play from scrimmage after the opening kickoff, and the Jets recovered at the Saints 37-yard line. The defense stiffened after allowing 27 yards on seven plays and forced New York to settle for Nick Folk's 29-yard field goal, the Jets' only lead. The Saints countered with their own field goal drive - 43 yards on 12 plays - to tie the score on a 35-yard field goal by Smyth and after forcing a punt, Smyth capped a 35-yard drive with a 49-yard field goal to give the Saints a 6-3 lead 37 seconds into the second quarter.

The teams exchanged two more field goals in the second quarter and New Orleans held a 9-6 advantage at halftime. But after the Jets sandwiched two punts around a Saints punt to open the third quarter, New Orleans crafted a 12-play, 93-yard touchdown drive that lasted 5:20 and ended on Shough's 23-yard touchdown pass to a wide-open Olave toward the right pylon.

The 16-6 lead essentially was insurmountable when paired with the Saints defense, which added six sacks in the second half and forced both turnovers - a fumble recovery and interception - on consecutive Jets drives in the fourth quarter. Jets rookie quarterback Brady Cook (22 for 35 for 188 yards and an interception, and sacked eight times) bore the brunt of the punishment.

"Went into this game knowing that that this was one of those games we could take advantage on defense," said Saints edge rusher Cam Jordan, the 15-year veteran who had two sacks to raise his season total to a team-leading 8.5 and his career number to 130, extending his franchise record tally. "Just a great defensive outing."

"We have such a talented core. We have such talented veterans. We have a combination, and I'm mad that it took us this long to find some success because you find some success, you understand how to win. And for a while, while we were in a drought, we were trying to figure out why we weren't winning."

2025 New Orleans Saints Man of the Year - LB Demario Davis

COORDINATOR CORNER

SPECIAL TEAMS COORD.
PHIL GALIANO

Phil Galiano is in his first season as the Saints' special teams coordinator and his seventh campaign in New Orleans, spending his first six years as the club's assistant special teams coach. Galiano is a veteran in the coaching ranks with 25 years of experience, including nine seasons in the NFL.

Galiano's work over the past six years with Darren Rizzi, who served as coordinator from 2019-24, helped make the kicking game an important key to victory for New Orleans. On coverage units, J.T. Gray's 93 tackles rank first in the NFL, with the special teams ace selected as an Associated Press All-Pro three times. The punting game has produced the top five seasons in club history for punts inside-the-20-yard line. Since 2019, the Saints have excelled in the return game. Over the six-season period, the team has been ranked fifth in the NFL in punt return average (10.4) and are tied for second in the league with three punts returned for touchdowns. The coverage units have allowed the third-lowest punt return average (7.0).

Special teams continued to be a bright spot for New Orleans in 2024, highlighted by Gray being selected as an All-Pro after recording an NFL-best 26 coverage tackles and one blocked punt. New Orleans ranked first in the NFL in opponent starting field position after kickoffs (28.2), punts inside-the-20 yard line (franchise-record 41), fifth in punt return average (12.5), seventh in opponent field goal percentage (78.6), eighth in opponent punt return average (7.6) and tenth in field goal percentage (87.1). Two blocked field goals were crucial in a pair of three-point victories. K Blake Grupe made 27-of-31 field goal attempts, six-of-eight from 50+ yards, an 87.1 percentage and scored 112 points. WR/RS Rashid Shaheed returned a punt for a touchdown for the second consecutive season.

A three-year starter at safety for Shippensburg, Galiano served as a tri-captain during his senior campaign. He helped lead the Raiders to consecutive winning seasons (1997-99). The Norristown, Pa. native graduated a degree in business administration.

COORDINATOR CORNER

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR
DOUG NUSSMEIER

Doug Nussmeier is in his first season as the Saints' offensive coordinator and tenth campaign as a coach in the National Football League. A 24-year coaching veteran, Nussmeier returns to New Orleans after originally being a fourth round pick (116th overall) of the Saints in the 1994 NFL Draft out of Idaho.

Nussmeier joins the Saints after spending the 2024 season as quarterbacks coach of the Philadelphia Eagles under Saints Head Coach Kellen Moore, who served as offensive coordinator, where he proved to be a key piece of their Super Bowl LIX Champion offensive coaching staff. Jalen Hurts flourished under Nussmeier's tutelage, posting a career-high 103.7 passer rating, fifth in the league and tying for the fifth-most rushing touchdowns (14) in the league (first among quarterbacks).

Nussmeier rejoined the NFL with the Dallas Cowboys in 2018, after previously spending two seasons with the St. Louis Rams from 2006-07 as quarterbacks coach. After serving on the Cowboys staff from 2018-22, he served as quarterbacks coach of the Los Angeles Chargers in 2023. In between, he spent 13 seasons coaching at the collegiate level, where he tutored eight different players who were selected in the first or second round of the NFL Draft.

Nussmeier finished his career at the University of Idaho as the program's all-time leading passer with 10,824 career passing yards over five years (1989-93). He won the Walter Payton Award in 1993, which was at the time given annually to the top player in NCAA Division 1-AA after throwing for a program-record 33 touchdown passes and leading the Vandals to a national semifinal berth. Nussmeier was named Big Sky Conference Offensive Player of the Year in 1992 and was inducted into the University of Idaho Athletic Hall of Fame in 2008.

A Portland, Ore. native, Nussmeier and his wife, Christi, have two sons, Garrett and Colton, and a daughter, Ashlynn. Garrett is in his fifth season as a quarterback at LSU.

COORDINATOR CORNER

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR
BRANDON STALEY

Brandon Staley is in his first season as the Saints' defensive coordinator. Staley is a 19-year coaching veteran with three as head coach of the Los Angeles Chargers.

This will be Staley's second stint as a defensive coordinator after leading the Los Angeles Rams to finish first in the NFL in total defense in 2020.

Staley arrived in New Orleans after serving most recently as assistant coach/defense of the San Francisco 49ers in 2024. Working with multiple position groups, as well as aiding 49ers Head Coach Kyle Shanahan, the San Francisco defense finished the season ranked eighth in the NFL in opponent net yards per game (317.4) and fifth against the pass (192.8 ypg.). DL Nick Bosa was selected to the Pro Bowl after recording nine sacks, one interception, one forced fumble and one recovery. ILB Fred Warner was selected to the Pro Bowl, Associated Press All-Pro and PFWA All-NFL, as he registered 131 tackles (76 solo), two interceptions returned for 70 yards, including a 45-yard touchdown return and four forced fumbles. Saints CB Issac Yiadom led the team with a career-high three takeaways.

During his tenure as Chargers head coach, Staley led Los Angeles to a 24-24 record and guided the franchise to its first postseason appearance since the 2018 season. In his final season with the Chargers (2023), Staley helped QB Justin Herbert continue one of the best starts to a career in NFL history as no quarterback has more completions or passing yards over the first four seasons of a career than Herbert. Staley also saw WR Keenan Allen and LB Khalil Mack put together career seasons and earn themselves nods to the Pro Bowl Games roster. Before becoming an NFL coach, Staley spent 11 seasons coaching at the collegiate level. In 2016, Staley earned National Coordinator of the Year honors for Division III.

A native of Perry, Ohio, Staley played collegiately as a quarterback at the University of Dayton for four seasons (2001-04) before finishing at Division II Mercyhurst College in 2005. He and his wife Amy, have three sons, Colin, Will and Grant.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH/
RUNNING BACKS
JOEL THOMAS

Joel Thomas, a 25-year coaching veteran, returns to New Orleans to tutor the clubs running backs in 2025. He previously spent nine years with the Black and Gold (2015-23). After spending the 2024 season coaching the New York Giants running backs, the Port Angeles, Wash. native returns to New Orleans with a additional title of associate head coach.

During Thomas' initial nine-year tenure in tutoring the Saints running backs, the Black and Gold tied for second in the NFL with 161 rushing touchdowns and his backs registered 25 individual 100-yard performances. Under his tutelage, Alvin Kamara, the Saints' all-time rushing yardage leader, earned five consecutive Pro Bowl selections (2017-21) and was the only NFL player with at least 1,160 total yards from scrimmage in each of the seven seasons he first coached him, three of them 1,500 or more.

In 2023 under Thomas, Kamara became the franchise's all-time leader in yards from scrimmage, rushing touchdowns and total touchdowns. Thomas also coached Mark Ingram II, New Orleans' all-time rushing leader from 2021-24 (6,500 yards), for six years, including two 1,000-yard campaigns. During Thomas' first New Orleans tenure, the Saints ranked in the top six in the NFL in rushing three times (2017, 2018 and 2020).

With the Giants in 2024, Thomas oversaw the development of rookie tailback Tyrone Tracy Jr., a fifth round pick. Tracy earned PFWA All-Rookie when he carried 192 times for 839 yards (4.4 avg.) with five TDs to rank second among NFL rookies for the season and New York rookies all-time in rushing yards. He added 38 receptions for 284 yards with one TD to tally 1,123 yards from scrimmage, the fifth-highest total among NFL rookies in 2024 and fourth among Giants rookies all-time.

Thomas lettered as a running back at Idaho from 1993-98 and still holds Vandals career records with 3,929 rushing yards and 51 touchdowns. He was inducted into the University of Idaho Athletic Hall of Fame in 2008. Thomas earned his degree in communications in 1998.

Thomas and his wife, Ebbie, have two boys, Teyo and Niko.

GOAL LINE STANDS

In the October 26 contest against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, the Saints succeeded in a pair of short yardage situations against tall odds, putting the heart they have shown all season on full display in a valiant effort.

In the second quarter, with the Buccaneers having first and one at the Saints’ one-yard line, the New Orleans front seven stopped Buccaneers running back Rachaad White from entering the end zone on three straight plays, with defensive end Chris Rumph II and defensive tackle Nathan Shepherd stuffing Tampa Bay running back Sean Tucker on fourth-and-one.

In Tampa Bay’s first drive of the third quarter, the Buccaneers advanced to the New Orleans one-yard line following a 22-yard completion from quarterback Baker Mayfield to tight end Cade Otton. On a pair of goal line plays, cornerback Kool-Aid McKinstry successfully defended Mayfield pass attempts to wideouts Sterling Shepard and Emeka Egbuka. On second down, linebacker Demario Davis stuffed Tucker.

Until Tucker reached the end zone on fourth and one, the Saints had successfully defended the one-yard line seven times in the contest, the first time a team had done so since the December 8, 2013 matchup where Tennessee Titans managed seven stops from the one-yard line by the Denver Broncos [credit-ESPN] at Empower Field at Mile High.

DRAFT CONTRIBUTORS

The team's top three selections in the 2024 NFL Draft started multiple games for the Saints in 2024. Below is a summary of the performance of five of the top six 2024 draft picks, as each of them have made a jump in 2025:

Right Tackle Taliese Fuaga, Oregon State [D1] - Selected with the 14th overall pick out of Oregon State, the Saints were able to address an immediate need, while also acquiring a building block for the future. Fuaga was an anchor on the Saints offensive line in his rookie campaign, seamlessly moving over to the left tackle position for his first NFL season, where he opened every game for an offense that improved in every rushing metric. Starting all 17 games, he was the first Saint to start every game in his rookie year at the offensive line's most challenging position since J.T. Taylor in 1978. Now in 2025, Fuaga has moved back to his natural right tackle position. After missing the Week Three contest at Seattle, he returned to the lineup in Week Four and helped spur a run game that gained a season-high 189 yards. On October 5, against the New York Giants, he anchored an offensive line that kept QB Spencer Rattler's jersey clean and did not give up a sack.

Cornerback Kool-Aid McKinstry, Alabama [D2] - Selected in the second round of the 2024 NFL Draft with the 41st overall pick out of Alabama, McKinstry arrived in New Orleans having covered many of the nation's top wideouts in the Southeastern Conference for the last three years.

In 2023, the consensus first-team All-American was a semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award in his final campaign for the Crimson Tide, making 32 tackles and seven passes defended.

In New Orleans, McKinstry played in 15 games with nine starts as a rookie in 2024, moving into the starting lineup in Week Eight and recorded 44 tackles with seven pass breakups, often tasked with covering an opponent's top wideout.

Through 15 contests/starts in 2025, he has recorded 67 tackles [52 solo] with, three interceptions and a club-best 11 pass breakups. The Pinson, Ala. native recorded the first two picks of his career in the October 5 win over the New York Giants, capturing NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for the first time in his career. On Nov. 30 at the Miami Dolphins, McKinstry neutralized a prior New Orleans giveaway by recording an interception in the end zone and later got the Saints defense off the field with a fourth down stop. In the season series with Tampa Bay, McKinstry played an important role in surrendering only 124 and 122 total net yards in the contests. In 30 career games with 24 starts, he has career totals of 108 stops [83 solo], three picks, 18 pass breakups and one special teams tackle.

As a rookie in 2024, Rattler appeared in seven games with six starts, he completed 130-of-228 passes for a Saints rookie-record 1,317 yards with four touchdowns, also carrying 18 times for 146 yards. On the 2025 season in nine games with eight starts, Rattler has completed 173-of-257 passes [67.3 pct.] for 1,586 yards with eight touchdowns, five interceptions and an 86.8 passer rating. Rattler has also utilized his feet, carrying 31 times for 167 yards [5.4 avg.].

LB Jaylan Ford, Texas [D5c] - The last of three fifth round draft picks by the club in 2024, Ford was selected out of Texas, where during he posted 287 tackles, 27.5 stops for loss, three sacks, ten pass breakups, six interceptions, four forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries. As a rookie, Ford established a role on special teams, contributing five tackles before suffering a fibula injury in Week 17. In 2025, he has eight coverage tackles and two defensive stops.

DT Khristian Boyd, Northern Iowa [D6] - A sixth round selection, Boyd appeared in 49 career games in college and collected 149 tackles [59 solo], 22.5 stops for loss, 10.5 sacks, five pass breakups and two forced fumbles.

In his final college season, Boyd started all 11 games along and had 43 stops, 6.5 tackles for loss, 3.5 sacks and a pass breakup, while earning All-MVFC first-team and consensus FCS third-team All-American. Following a full offseason, and utilizing his 6-2, 320-pound frame to fit into the Saints' 3-4 alignment, the Kansas City native led the Black and Gold with two sacks in the preseason, providing a push up the team's interior defensive line. Boyd has three stops in two games.

LINING THEM UP

One of New Orleans Head Coach Kellen Moore's first tasks was shoring up the alignment and the overall depth of the Saints offensive line- a unit that saw nine different starting combinations during the 2024 campaign. The line has gelled, now managing a season-long absence of Pro Bowl center Erik McCoy, who suffered a biceps injury in Week Seven, despite, the offensive line staff being forced to employ seven different starting combinations.

A franchise that has consistently invested in the offensive line with four first round picks in the last six seasons, the past two campaigns have been no different. On the interior right guard Cesar Ruiz is the elder statesman, having been selected in the first round in 2020, having played in 88 regular season contests with 82 starts. In 2025, Ruiz has opened 13-of-14 contests, returning after missing only one game from a high ankle sprain suffered in Week Four.

In the last two seasons, New Orleans has continued to fortify their offensive line, selecting left tackle Kelvin Banks Jr. (ninth overall-2025) out of the University of Texas and right tackle Taliese Fuaga (14th overall-2024) out of Washington State University.

Banks, 6-5, 315, was selected with the ninth overall pick out of Texas this past April, the highest selection by the Black and Gold since 2005. A three-year starter who opened all 42 games he played in at left tackle for the Longhorns from 2022-24, Banks was the 2024 Outland Trophy winner and a unanimous All-American selection. In his first season, Banks has lined up at the position that he manned flawlessly as a college standout, facing weekly challenges from some of the NFL's elite pass rushers, a leading candidate for league All-Rookie honors, the only Saints offensive lineman to open every contest.

2024 first round pick Fuaga, immediately moved into left tackle as a rookie after being a two-year starter at right tackle at Oregon State, earning first-team All-American in 2023.

In 2025, the Tacoma, Wash. native became the first Saints rookie to start every game at the position since J.T. Taylor in 1978. In 2025 for his second-team campaign, Fuaga has moved back to the right tackle position he manned in Corvallis, fighting ankle, back and knee injuries to open ten contests.

Luke Fortner is a former University of Kentucky standout who was a third round pick (65th overall) of the Jacksonville Jaguars out of Kentucky in 2022 and has started 41 of the 65 regular season games he has played and two postseason contests in 2023. Acquired by New Orleans in a preseason trade with the Jaguars following an exhibition game by the two clubs, Fortner has been called into action to manage the center position for the Black and Gold for the remainder of the 2025 campaign.

Following the trade of left guard Trevor Penning on November 4, the offensive line is rounded out by OL Asim Richards, who has seen action at right tackle in the absence of Fuaga, including opening three contests. G/T Dillon Radunz, who started the first two contests at left guard, takes over the position following the trade of Trevor Penning. Rookie C/G Torricelli Simpkins II started one game at right guard and one contest at center. T/G Xavier Truss, a rookie from the University of Georgia, was awarded off waivers from Denver at the end of the preseason and provides valuable depth, while developing. On Sunday against the Jets, OL William Sherman, who spent his first four seasons on practice squads, stepped in for an injured Ruiz at right guard and blocked for a 412-yard effort.

SPECIAL TEAMS OVERVIEW

Saints special teams will benefit from the elevation of Phil Galiano to coordinator, after serving as assistant special teams coach for the past five-and-a-half seasons before taking over coordination of the unit midway through the 2024 season. During Galiano’s tenure, the special teams units have consistently ranked among the NFL’s leaders in place-kicking, coverage and return units, producing Pro Bowlers and AP All-Pros, also setting various club records in placekicking, punting, return game and coverage units Under Galiano’s direction, the club has committed to a transition of a mix of seasoned veterans and several promising youngsters.

BLOCK UNIT

New Orleans’ field goal block unit came through big on three occasions in the second half of the 2024 season, two taking place in three-point victories. The field goal block unit’s hard work carried over into the 2025 season opener, as third-year defensive tackle Bryan Bresee blocked a fourth quarter 46-yard field goal attempt to give the offense the ball back for a drive where they ended up scoring a field goal.

In the third quarter of New Orleans’ November 9 win at Carolina, narrowly holding onto a 10-7 third quarter lead, DT Nathan Shepherd blocked a 48-yard field goal attempt. For his efforts, Shepherd was named the Week Ten NFC Special Teams Player of the Week.

New Orleans leads the NFL since the 2024 season with four blocked field goals.

COVERAGE UNITS

Galiano and Assistant Special Teams Coach Kyle Wilber have been tasked with remaking the coverage aspect of the special teams units with the top Six tacklers from the 2024 campaign not on the roster. LB Isaiah Stalbird leads the team with 14 stops through 15 games.

This second-year wideout, who never returned a kick until his rookie season in 2024, has assumed kickoff return duties with success for New Orleans, using his combination of straight-ahead speed and ability to find creases and work with blocks. Tipton [75 yards vs. Atlanta, 11/23 and 54 yards at Tampa Bay, Dec. 7] joined Tennessee’s Chimere Dike [71 yards against Denver, Sept. 7 and 65 yards against Arizona, Oct. 5] as only the second player in 2025 with two kickoff returns of at least 54 yards. For the season, Tipton has played in 14 games with three starts, made 11 receptions for 76 yards, rushed twice for 23 yards and brought back 12 kickoffs for 378 yards.

Jordan's sack of QB Kirk Cousins was the 126th of his career, which surpassed Pro Football Hall of Fame DE Dwight Freeney for 19th all-time in NFL history. It was also his 25th sack in 29 career games against Atlanta. Jordan also played in his 237th career regular season game, surpassing Simmons and Washington to take sole possession of seventh most all-time by a defensive lineman in NFL history. at Miami (11/30): Started and finished with four tackles (two solo), two sacks and three quarterback hits. Jordan sacked Miami QB Tua Tagovailoa early in the first and second quarters to reach 128 sacks for his career, the second-most among active players. He passed Pro Football Hall of Fame LB Derrick Thomas (Class of 2009) in NFL record books and is now tied with Pro Football Hall of Fame LB Rickey Jackson (Saints 1981-93 and 49ers 1994-95) for 17th all-time in NFL history (since 1982). With his two takedowns of Tua Tagovailoa, Jordan now has 30 career games with 2+ sacks, a milestone reached by only 20 other players in NFL history. His 6.5 sacks in the 2025 campaign are the most by Jordan since 2022. It was also his first performance of at least two sacks in a road contest since 1/1/23 at Philadelphia. at Tampa Bay (12/7): Started and finished with two tackles (one solo) and one pass breakup. Including postseason contests, Jordan played in his 250th career game, surpassing Washington and Chris Doleman for eighth all-time in NFL history among defensive linemen. vs. Carolina (12/14): Started and recorded three solo tackles. He also played in his 251st career game (including postseason), tying PFHOF DE Reggie White and DE Ron McDole for sixth all-time in NFL history among defensive linemen. vs. N.Y. Jets (12/21): Started and recorded four solo tackles, two sacks and three tackles for loss. Jordan now has 130 sacks in his career, surpassing Jackson for 17th all-time. Brady Cook is also the 51st signal-caller that Jordan has dropped. The Jets are now the 29th team that he has a sack against. He also enters rare-air by joining numerous Pro Football Hall of Famers: LB Derrick Thomas along with DEs Lawrence Taylor, Jared Allen, Bruce Smith, Michael Strahan and Reggie White to have recorded 15 or more sacks against three different opponents. With his two sacks today, Jordan now has eight or more sacks in nine seasons, joining Jackson, DL Leslie O'Neal, PFHOF DE Jason Taylor, PFHOF DE Dwight Freeney, OLB Robert Mathis, PFHOF DE Jared Allen, PFHOF DE DeMarcus Ware, and DT Aaron Donald as the only players in NFL history to achieve this feat. Including postseason contests, Jordan also played in his 252nd career game, surpassing DE Ron McDole to take sole possession of fifth all-time in NFL history among defensive linemen.

Finished 20-for-26 (76.9 pct., new career-high) for 226 yards, a career-high 8.73 yards per attempt and had a 102.6 passer rating. Rushed four times for 20 yards. at Chicago (10/19): Started. 2025 REVIEW: vs. Arizona (9/7): Dressed but did not play. vs. San Francisco (9/14): Dressed but did not play. at Seattle (9/21): Rotated in during the fourth quarter to make his NFL debut, finishing 0-for-2 on pass attempts. at Buffalo (9/28): Dressed but did not play. vs. New York Giants (10/5): Dressed but did not play. vs. New England (10/12): Dressed but did not play. at Chicago (10/19): Dressed but did not play. vs. Tampa Bay (10/26): Came in late in third quarter and played the rest of the game. Finished 17-for-30 for 128 yards and an interception. Shough also rushed three times for 12 yards (4.0 avg). at Los Angeles Rams (11/2): Started his first game as Saint and went 15-of-24 (62.5 pct.) for 176 yards, one touchdown and one interception. He also rushed one time for two yards. at Carolina (11/9): Started and finished 19-of-27 for 282 (70.4 pct.) yards with two touchdowns and a 128.9 passer rating. His first touchdown pass was for 62 yards, the second longest touchdown throw by a Saints rookie quarterback since Archie Manning threw a 63-yarder to Danny Abramowicz on Oct. 3, 1971. With the Saints victory, Shough became the first Saints rookie to win a start since Dave Wilson, when the Saints won at the L. A. Rams (Nov. 8, 1981). Overall, became fourth Saints rookie to win a start, joining Wilson, Larry Cipa (1974) and Manning (1971). His 282 passing yards were also the most by a Saints rookie in a game, which passed Wilson as well. The last time a Saints quarterback had 2+ TD passes and 0 INTs in one of his first two career starts was Manning on Sept. 26, 1971, vs. San Francisco. No Saints QB has ever recorded 282+ passing yards, 2+ passing TDs and 0 INTs on the road in one of their first two starts. He and Head Coach Kellen Moore became the first rookie quarterback and first-year coach duo to win a game in franchise history. vs. Atlanta (11/23): Started. Finished 30-for-43 (69.8 pct.) for 243 yards, an interception and a 74.1 passer rating. Carried seven times for 22 yards (career-high). at Miami (11/30): Started. Finished 26-for-38 (65.8 pct.) for 239 yards, two touchdowns, one interception and a 91.9 passer rating. Rushed six times for 18 yards. Also rushed for a successful two-point conversion attempt and intercepted on a two-point conversion attempt. at Tampa Bay (12/7): Started and finished 13-of-20 (65.0 pct.) for 144 yards, one interception and a 65.4 passer rating. Had a career day on the ground, carrying seven times (tied career-high) for 55 yards and two touchdowns, with his longest rush being a 34 yard touchdown (all new career-highs). Shough's two scores were the first time a Saints rookie QB had two rushing TDs since Archie Manning (vs. Dallas on 10/17/71) and his 55 yards rushing are the most in franchise history by a rookie QB. Shough executed the first fourth quarter game-winning drive of his career, when with the score tied 17-17, he drove New Orleans down the field 53 yards on nine plays, ending with a 13-yard rushing TD. In addition to the rushing touchdown, Shough completed three-of-four passes for 36 yards on the game-winning drive. vs. Carolina (12/14): Started and finished 24-for-32 (75.0 pct., a career-best) for 272 yards with one touchdown pass, a 110.4 QB rating, and rushed eight times for 32 yards. With his 272 passing yards today, Shough now has 1,484 passing yards in 2025, setting a new Saints' rookie single season rookie passing record, surpassing Spencer Rattler's previous franchise high of 1,317. His 12-yard touchdown pass in the fourth quarter to Chris Olave put Shough at six TD passes in 2025, tying Archie Manning's rookie-best mark of six, set in 1971. With the win today against the Panthers, Shough is the first Saints rookie QB to ever win a start in the Caesars Superdome and the first to win back-to-back games. He is also now 3-1 against the NFC South since becoming the starter. Shough engineered an eight-play, 62-yard drive that took 55 seconds, ending with a 47-yard field goal by K Charlie Smyth. In it, he completed three-of-four passes for 43 yards and also gained four yards on a rush. With Shough's fourth quarter game-winning drive last week, it is the first time a Saints signal-caller has had fourth quarter/overtime game-winning drives in consecutive contests since Drew Brees in Weeks Five (team had bye in Week Six), Seven and Eight of the 2020 season. vs. New York Jets (12/21): Started and finished 32-of-49 (65.3 pct.) for 308 yards, one touchdown pass, and also carried two times for eight yards. 308-yard passing performance is the first 300-yard game of his career, becoming the first Saints rookie QB to ever have a 300-yard+ game and only one of two rookie quarterbacks to have a 300-yard game this season (Shedeur Sanders).

- The New Orleans Saints downed the New York Jets in its final home game of the 2025 season, 29-6, improving to 5-10 on the season and extending its winning streak to three games, the longest in a single season since 2022. The Saints concluded the game with 23 unanswered points, highlighted by a 20-0 shutout in the second half.
- The three-game win streak for New Orleans is the first time since the team had a four-game win streak from Weeks 17-18 of the 2023 season, carrying over to the first two weeks of the 2024 campaign. It is the team's first three-game winning streak in the same season, since they won three consecutive contests in 2022 from Weeks 15-17.
- The Saints victory improves New Orleans' overall record to 9-6 against the Jets all-time, and 4-3 in games played in New Orleans, all which have been played at the Caesars Superdome.
- New Orleans had 412 yards of offense, including 33-of-50 passing for 346 yards and two touchdowns (was sacked three times for 18 yards). The Saints also rushed for 84 yards. The Black and Gold were only penalized three times to the Jets' seven times.
- QB Tyler Shough went 32-49 for a career-high 308 yards with a touchdown, and zero interceptions. He also rushed for eight yards on two attempts. It marked the first time a Saints rookie signal-caller threw for 300 yards and only the second time an NFL rookie threw for 300 in 2025.
- WR Chris Olave concluded the game with 10 catches for 148 yards with two touchdowns – a 23-yard catch and 38-yard reception, his top two longest receptions of the day.
- Olave ranks sixth in Saints history with 11 games of 100 or more receiving yards, passing WRs Danny Abramowicz and Devery Henderson.
- Olave recorded his third 1000-yard receiving season, joining Marques Colston (five), Joe Horn and Michael Thomas (four) and Eric Martin (three) to become the fifth Saint with at least three 1,000-yard seasons.
- With his eighth catch of the day, the 23-yard touchdown reception, Olave became the fifth Saint with 90 catches in a single season, joining Michael Thomas, Jimmy Graham, Marques Colston and Joe Horn.
- It is a new career-high in single-season receptions for Olave, besting his previous best of 87 receptions in 2023.

- Olave's first reception logged his third season of 900 yards, joining Marques Colston (eight), Joe Horn and Eric Martin (five), Michael Thomas (four) and Jimmy Graham (three) in Saints history. Olave also joins Graham, Thomas and Colston as the only ones in club history to do it in three of their first four seasons.
- QB Taysom Hill has 2,551 rushing yards, 2,426 passing yards and 1,002 receiving yards, becoming the only player with 1,000 pass yards, 1,000 rushing yards and 1,000 receiving yards in the Super Bowl Era.

- TE Juwan Johnson registered eight catches on nine targets for 89 yards in the win. He had seven catches for 82 yards in the first half alone, marking a career-best in a half.
- With his fourth catch of the day, Johnson surpassed former Saints TE Henry Childs for third all-time in Saints history for most receptions by a tight end in a single season. He has 70 catches after today's game.
- K Charlie Smyth tied a club record with five field goals in the win. Smyth connected from 35, 49, 36, 50 and 39 yards out, respectively.
- The New Orleans defense surrendered only 195 total net yards including only 134 net yards passing and 64 net yards rushing. The Saints gave up 92 total yards in the first half, including 28 rushing yards in 11 carries.
- The Saints defense tallied a season-high eight sacks for a total of 57 yards. They held the Jets to converting two-of-15 (13.3 pct.) third down attempts.
- This was the first time New Orleans did not surrender a touchdown to an opponent until a 24-6 win over the New York Giants on December 17, 2023.
- New Orleans defense held the New York Jets offense to 2-for-15 in third down conversions and was 0-for-2 in the redzone.
- LB Demario Davis finished with eight tackles (two solo), moving his total to a team-leading 131 this season. After posting 136 stops in 2024, Davis has logged back-to-back seasons of at least 130 tackles for the first time in his 14-year career.
- Davis' first tackle was a solo tackle for a loss, marking the 116th of his career, surpassing DE Jared Allen for 24th all-time.
- With his sixth tackle, Davis joined Washington Commanders MLB Bobby Wagner and Tampa Bay Buccaneers MLB Lavonte David as only the third active player with 1,600 stops.
- Davis played in his 225th career game on Sunday, tying Keith Brooking and Hardy Nickerson for ninth all-time in NFL history among linebackers.

- DE Cameron Jordan had back-to-back sacks for a loss of 10 yards combined on the New York Jets' final drive of the first half. With those two sacks, Jordan has 130 career sacks, surpassing former Saints great Rickey Jackson for sole possession of 17th in NFL history in sacks.
- With the two sacks against Jets signal-caller Brady Cook, Cook is the 51st player that Jordan has sacked and the Jets are the 29th NFL team for Jordan to have a sack against, the Baltimore Ravens and Kansas City Chiefs being the only two he doesn't have a sack against.
- With 8.5 sacks on the season, this is the ninth season Jordan has at least eight sacks, joining Jackson, defensive lineman Leslie O'Neal, defensive end Jason Taylor, defensive end Dwight Freeney, outside linebacker Robert Mathis, defensive end Jared Allen, defensive end DeMarcus Ware and defensive tackle Aaron Donald as the ninth player to do so.
- All four of Jordan's tackles were solo.
- Including postseason contests, Jordan played in his 252nd career game, surpassing DE Ron McDole to take sole possession of fifth all-time in NFL history among defensive linemen.
- S Justin Reid led the defense with nine total tackles and had one pass deflection.
- CB Alontae Taylor made his 50th start for his career and as a Saint. He recorded his seventh sack as a cornerback, giving him the club record at the position, passing Alex Mollen (1996-2000). Taylor had a team-best five solo tackles in the win.
- S Jonas Sanker's fourth quarter interception was his third takeaway in his rookie campaign, the most by a Saints rookie since CB Paulson Adebo in 2021. He also had five tackles, two pass deflections and one coverage stin the victory.
- DT Nathan Shepherd tied his career-best of 3.0 sacks in a single season (2023) with a sack and forced fumble that was recovered by DE Chase Young in the fourth quarter.
- Young also had a sack in the game, as did DE Chris Rumph II, LB Isaiah Stalbird and DE Jonah Williams. Stalbird's lone tackle of the game was a key 10-yard sack to end the New York Jets opening drive of the second half.
- DE Carl Granderson played in his 103rd career game on Sunday, moving into a three-way tie for 54th in team history with DB Malcolm Jenkins and DT Elex Price. He finished with three tackles (one solo).
- LS Zach Wood played in his 147th game (consecutive and overall) on Sunday, surpassing WR Marques Colston to take sole possession of 16th all-time in Saints history. Wood also moved into a tie for second in club record books with OL Jim Dombrowski (10/25/87-11/3/96) for most consecutive games played.
- S Terrell Burgess finished with one special teams tackle.

POSTGAME NOTES & QUOTES

NEW ORLEANS SAINTS

NEW YORK JETS VS. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS SUNDAY, DEC. 21, 2025 • CAESARS SUPERDOME SAINTS HEAD COACH KELLEN MOORE

Opening comments

“Good win for our team. Again, we’ve talked a lot about making December football meaningful, and I feel like our guys have really been jumping on that opportunity. To win a few down the stretch here, and have a couple more opportunities –the energy, the juice, the way our guys are playing together is really, really special. It’s a special group in that locker room.”

(On the defensive performance)

“Just phenomenal. The shoutouts took a while in the locker room. There were a bunch of guys making plays today. I thought it was just credit to our guys, the relentless effort, the finish, the way they’re playing together. Those sacks, there’s coverage associated with that and the way our guys are covering the backend. The guys just took advantage of opportunities, and it was really cool to see.”

(On how many players received game balls)

“I don’t know. I’ll have to tally them up later. It was a healthy list.”

(On the importance of winning the final home game of the year)

“It was a big part of our whole entire week, starting on Wednesday—last opportunity in the Dome for this year. Let’s finish it off the right way. It’s been an awesome place, and we’re building something really special. When we play in this dome, special things can happen. We’ve allowed the last couple of wins to really get the crowd into it, which has helped build from there.”

(On all three phases playing complementary football)

“I think it’s just the focus, the habits guys are creating. We are simply playing better football. In all three phases, we talk about complementary football. All three phases working together, playing off of each other, feeding off of each other in big moments. Again, I love the energy that’s in the locker room.”

(On the offensive response, with limited impact players in the run game available)

“I thought it was great. Taysom (Hill) stepped up and contributed in really a positive way. That was just really a special game by Taysom. All the things that he did and that he was asked to do in this game were incredible for him to become the first guy in the NFL in the Super Bowl era who has 1,000 rushing [yards], 1,000 receiving [yards] and 1,000 passing [yards]. He’s the first guy in the Super Bowl era to do that. It’s a really special thing. He’s just a special guy. Then, the young guys hopped in there. When the opportunities present themselves, I thought we were still able to get a few runs in there. It was not always pretty; it was dirty. In the pass game, we were able to create some explosives as a result of that.”

(On if they were trying to give Taysom Hill a touchdown late in the game)

“The opportunities were certainly going his way toward the end of the game, yes.”

(On building confidence)

“Again, I think the confidence is growing. We’re creating habits, creating meaningful December football. We want to play that moving forward, so we are starting those habits right now. Like you said, winning is contagious. You want to create those winning habits. It starts with every opportunity you have, and it’s really cool to see our guys doing this.”

(On matching last year’s win total)

“I have not thought about that. I think our guys, again, are playing better football down the stretch, and we just have to keep building on that. We still have a couple more opportunities. We still have to keep growing.”

(On DE Cam Jordan’s day)

“Just awesome, relentless, two sacks, around the ball a ton, making plays a ton. It was just a really special day.”

(On going for the fake punt instead of challenging the previous play)

“We talked about it. We felt like the fake punt felt pretty clean. We felt confident about that. It was discussed. We kind of talked through it.”

(On how close a complete game of complementary football today’s win was)

“It was good. We have to finish some drives. We have to score some more touchdowns in those situations. I thought special teams-wise Charlie [Smyth] did an excellent job kicking the football. We made some big plays on special teams. That was going to be a really hard challenge for us. They’re basically No.1 in the NFL on special teams, and with good reason. They’re really, really talented there. Our defense was just relentless. I love the way all three phases were working together and came in to compete for four quarters.”

(On DE Cam Jordan and QB Taysom Hill)

“Those guys are the best. They have done this for a really long time in this league. They are the ultimate lead-by-example guys. For the effort they have put into this season, the continuous work, all the young guys get to look up to those guys like Cam, like Taysom and the way they prepare. It is really, really special. You can watch it out on the field. Those guys are playing really good football right now. I am really excited about those guys.”

(On QB Tyler Shough’s performance)

“He did a really good job. Playing quarterback in this league, there’s a lot of downs, a lot of opportunities, and for him to just handle that and stay steady through this whole process, I thought he did an excellent job today.”

(On the passing game plan today)

“Just the way the game was flowing. Certainly, you’d love to run the football a little more, but I just felt like from a pass-game perspective, it was a little cleaner for us, a little more efficient. That’s credit to those guys and Tyler [Shough] executing at a really high level.”

(On injury updates)

“We will see what happens. [Bryan] Bresee was a knee. We will see tomorrow about Foster [Moreau] with the ankle and the hip-drop thing and how he got caught there. We will see how that goes.”

(On K Charlie Smyth signaling for one more kick)

“Charlie’s awesome. Charlie’s awesome. He’s playing really good football, really good football, and our team’s rallying behind him. He’s got a bright future.”

(On QB Taysom Hill’s touchdown pass to WR Chris Olave)

“I think the threat of Taysom running it. Obviously, we went into the play with the ability to either run it, or if the look presented itself to throw it. We were trying to get a first down there, and it turned into a touchdown.”

(On how unique of a player QB Taysom Hill is)

“I think at the end of the day, this league talks about trying to get ‘Taysom Hills’ on your football team. There’s a role, and everyone is chasing it. No one seems to be able to duplicate it because of his ability to play in every phase of an offense and contribute on special teams as well. The things he can do from the capacity of having to handle all of these looks, structures and fundamentals that you have to play all these positions at, it’s just really, really special. He’s an A-plus person, an A-plus human being and an A-plus player. I think all of these young guys, especially, can learn a lot from him, as we go through the rest of the year.”

POSTGAME NOTES & QUOTES

NEW ORLEANS SAINTS

NEW YORK JETS VS. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS SUNDAY, DECEMBER 21, 2025 • CAESARS SUPERDOME JETS HEAD COACH AARON GLENN

(Opening statement)

“Alright when it comes to injuries, we had one. It was Jay Tufele, and he injured his foot. When it comes to this game, here’s what I told our guys. There were three things that really stood out. Two I will keep between me and the players, but the one that I asked our players to do was to play with effort. I thought that our guys did that. I thought that they went out there, they fought hard and did everything they could to keep us in this game. There were a couple of things from an overall perspective that we got to get better at. One thing is that they had too many plays on our side of the ball. So, field position wasn’t as good as I wanted it to be, and us as a team and a staff as we wanted it to be. Offensively, we had way too many penalties that actually put us behind the sticks. We would have a good play that put ourselves in a good position, then we would have a penalty. That happened a number of times, on third down plays, on early downs, you can’t do that in this league and win games. I think at the end of the game, we were trying to do too much, as players. I understand why because they’re trying to make plays, and they did that at the end of the game. I thought Chris Harris did a really good job at calling this first game in a live game. I thought the guys, again, played hard. We knew what this team was. We knew at the beginning of the game that this was our chance to really try and get up on this team. We knew in the second half, if you look at the numbers that’s who they were, a team that really explodes in the second half. They did exactly what we all knew they would do. We have to do a better job of understanding that and playing to that. It’s my job to continue to help these guys to be able to understand that. Listen we got two more games left, and I want to continue to play with effort like we did. It sucks that you lose a game, it does, regardless of the situation it sucks. But we have to get back to work next week and continue to play with effort and continue to find ways to help put our guys in positions to be successful. I know you guys hear that a lot, that’s really the one thing that we all have to do as a staff, to be able to do that. Again, we got to flush this one. I clearly know exactly what happened in this game, and I know you guys are going to talk about Brady (Cook). Brady did some good things, but also there was some things that has to do better at, we cannot turn the ball over. We all know that. He will know that, and he knows that as a quarterback. His hands are on the ball all the time, and he has to protect it. Other than that, listen we’ll clean some stuff up and we’ll move on. Any questions?”

(On the offense’s general struggles and with penalties)

“I mean that was it, you just said it. Every time we had a good play, we would get a penalty and put ourselves behind the sticks. You can’t do that. I don’t care what defense you’re playing against. It’s too hard on the offense and then it makes you more predictable in that situation where you have to pass the ball. We can’t do that to ourselves; we cannot do it.”

(On the run game struggles)

"I don't think that's a surprise. I think last week we ran 130 yards against the number one run defense, so I don't think that's an accurate statement. I would say that yards per carry hasn't been as good as it should be, I will agree with that. But, when you're a team that is a run heavy team, I mean teams are going to stack the box and that's when we have to be better in the passing game. That is one area that we have to improve on. I know our young quarterback knows that, you know everyone in the league knows that. They're going to attack our quarterback with a certain blitz, and I think this team did. I think they were successful on some of those, but also, they made some plays and just ripped the full man rush and had coverage in the back end with seven guys. Again, we have to continue to find ways we can run the ball and then put our quarterback in a situation where he can deliver the ball to open guys."

(On Brady Cook's struggles with holding onto the ball)

"Yeah, I would agree with that statement. That's something that we all have to look at on tape and make sure we talk to him about, getting the ball out of your hands as quick as you can. Plus, we have to make sure we give him options to be able to do that. So, that goes both ways. With him, when options are there get the ball out of your hands. With us as a staff, making sure we have concepts that allow him to be able to do that."

(On if he started Brady Cook to see what he could do or give them the best shot at winning)

"I think a little bit of both. I think he gives us the best chance to win, but we also want to evaluate where he's at. There are a lot of guys on this roster that we're trying to evaluate where they are at too. Again, we had guys that were hurt, our two quarterbacks and we know that, but I do think he gives us a chance to win games. He wouldn't be in there if he didn't give us a chance to win."

(On what he saw out of Chris Harris in terms of his play calling)

"I thought he was patient. I don't think there was anything with the way he was calling where I thought he was frazzled at all. This team did a ton of up-tempo, so that really gave me an opportunity to evaluate how he had calls in his head going on to the next play if that makes sense. There was no second guessing. Every game, every play caller will have a couple of calls where they say man I wish I had that back, and I know he will say that. I would say this: there was no panic, there was no second guessing from what I know, and I'm proud of the way he operated. I felt he did a really great job going into this week to be able to call a game against an operation like they had with so much tempo."

(On if he considered Tyrod Taylor in the second half)

"You know what, no. The thing is, we weren't stagnant until the second half. Take a look at where we were, what 9-6? I thought we were right there in the game. I just thought at that time that Brady would give us the best chance to win. I thought that was a game, which we've been talking about all week, where the game was right there for us. I really wanted to see how he was going to operate. I'll go back to this: the operation side was really good; it was the penalties that got us in a situation where they got us behind the sticks. It's hard as an offense to try and continue to get past that."

(On setting an NFL record for the longest streak of games without an interception)

"I hate the fact that we haven't gotten an interception. The thing is, we got a turnover and we got a fourth down stop. Those things are something we can build on, and our guys will continue to build on that. I want interceptions just like everybody else, but if we can get a turnover that's all I care about."

(On if he saw anything that he liked defensively)

"I thought we were really sound for the most part, I really did. That first half I thought our guys did a really good job of understanding exactly what Chris Harris was trying to do. There were some calls that we just put in that our guys executed really well. I think the one fumble that we got was outstanding. I think that one of the third down plays in the red zone, which was one of our calls but I don't want to get into that, was outstanding. Chris called it at the right time when he knew we really needed it. But yeah, I thought we were really sound. That's where you start when it comes to defense, just how sound you are. Then, you start to add all of the other things within that. Exotic pressures, the single back pressures, things like that. But once you're just sound and you can make sure your gaps are sound, that's where it starts."

NEW ORLEANS SAINTS

NEW YORK JETS VS. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS SUNDAY, DEC. 21, 2025 • CAESARS SUPERDOME SAINTS PLAYER QUOTES

DE CAMERON JORDAN

(Opening comments about family and friends) “We’ve got a lot of family here. My sister flew in from Germany. My brother came down from Arizona. Dad, I am not sure where he flies in and out of. I never have a (clue where he is). I’ve got like eight boys from Cal that came through (for the game).”

(On the game today) “We went into this game knowing that this was one of those games that we could take advantage of on defense. I love that we had eight sacks. From Jonah Williams to Nathan Shepherd to Chris Rumph to Chase Young to Alontae Taylor, Isaiah Stalbird, and myself. I think the defense just took advantage where we could. I almost thought that Alontae was going to take it to the crib at the very end of the game. He jumped the route so perfectly (on the interception). A great defensive outing (by the team). Jonas Sanker (also had) an interception.”

(On the reason why family and friends attended) “Absolutely. (It was) just like they did last year. When you are getting towards your elder-statesmanship, you know, you never know if you are going to come back or not or whatever that may be. I have never not had guaranteed money in a contract and I have never not had a contract. Now, we are leaning on not having a contract, so you can’t have guaranteed money when a contract isn’t (in place). It’s a simple conundrum. As you get older, you just sort of start looking around and seeing where you are at. I am just totally blessed to be a part of a defense where you have such an influx of young guys playing at such a high level, like Jonas (Sanker), like Danny Stuts(man). You’ve got guys (on the team) like Taliese Fuaga (and) Kelvin Banks. Our team has such a great core of veteran leadership like Demario Davis and myself and such a great core of young guys who are heading towards leadership, when you talk about Alontae Taylor; when you talk about everybody on offense; when you talk about you inset Tyler Shough, the way that he’s played this last couple of games. It’s exciting because you see such a future and I want to be a part of everything about it; and, now I am in that limbo of, ‘Are you sending me a new contract or not?’ I just take every game for what it is. I am blessed and honored to be presented to affect the game any way that I can.”

(On if he treated this game differently than ones in the past) “I think I did last year. This year, everybody texted me. Last year, I was texting everybody. Now, everybody just wants to partake. My Manager, Rebecca Otto, has been with me since the beginning. (My agent) Doug Hendrickson showed up. I said, ‘Oh, dang!’ I’ve got best friends who have been with me since college show up. I had a cousin from Arizona come through. I was like, ‘Alright, we are going to make this thing a party. So, we are going to hit the streets tonight. It is what it is.”

(On the many Cam Jordan head shots in the crowd today) “That was my wife, for sure. I came out there with the family. Nikki Jordan, of course, has all of the big heads. We came together (to the stadium). How did I miss this? We drove in the same car. Great job (with that). We just went from there. I love that it was against the Jets. I didn’t know that I hadn’t sacked the Jets before. I guess that they haven’t been on my list in the AFC. I don’t really care. There is one team that I hate and there are two other teams in our division. The league is the league.”

(On how it feels to be aging backwards) “Is it aging backwards or is it just taking advantage of opportunities presented? If you take it back to 2023, I tore a couple of ligaments in the leg. I was straight run mode. I capped my season in like Week 11 or whatever it was. I finished with 2.5 sacks or whatever it was. It was 2. The next year I sort of got buried once I saw light back on the edge, because, apparently, I am not a nose tackle. This year, (I was) back on the edge (and) had some fun, Stop the run and have some fun. That has been the name of the game. You know, take advantage of every opportunity presented. It’s nice to have multi-sack games.”

(On coming back to play for New Orleans this year instead of signing with another team) “I’ve never seen myself not being in black and gold. I’ve stated since Sean Payton and Mickey (Loomis) called me on draft night, I said, ‘Alright, let’s do this.’ When I said, ‘Let’s do this’, I meant, ‘Let’s do this together.’ 15 years later, I still say, ‘Let’s do this.’ I see a bright future with all of the guys that we have. We have such a talented young core. We have such a talented veteran (group). We have such a talented group. I am mad that it took us this long to find some success, because once you find some success, you understand how to win.”

S JONAS SANKER

(On making play and the defense playing well together) “It’s awesome to hear guys like Cam (Jordan) talk. It’s great to have somebody like that constantly building guys up. He’s been that guy that we have expected him to be every day. It’s awesome to see guys like him (and) Demario (Davis) just be able to have that consistency for the team, even at year 15.”

(On the interception and other chances today) “We were definitely looking for that and really emphasizing playing off of the quarterback’s eyes. It is funny, because literally, before that possession, our coach was talking about, ‘When they go three by one, be ready to cut that special. Sure enough, that is the play that we got. They have done a really good job helping me to be prepared and just pushing me to take this season with a grain of salt and constantly get better every week, not get too caught up in the ups and downs and find ways to constantly be improving.”

(On being a part of this team turnaround) “I am a big believer in what we have and I think that we are doing things the right way. I really trust the establishment in what we are trying to do. (We) keep improving and focus on what I can control, understanding that we have a lot of other guys who are having that same mentality I am really excited to see what we can do in the future.”

QB TYLER SHOUGH

(On if the plan was to throw this many times) “I think it was kind of the way it played out. We felt good about throwing the ball, and we had a really good plan in all phases of it, so, obviously, you want to maybe not throw it so much, but I think whatever it takes to win. I've said it before, and it was really a great offensive unit effort, and we left a lot out there, quite frankly, so we got to patch it up and continue to go.”

(On if the TD pass to Chris Olave increased momentum) “No, I mean, it was frustrating because we didn't start how we knew what we could do, and I think we were moving the ball, we were just like a yard short in some of those third downs, and it was tough. But it was just a great play call by Kellen (Moore), and a great route by CO (Olave), and all the guys kind of helped him get open versus that man coverage look, and yeah, I mean, whenever you can get him one-on-one, obviously you have to own the ball.”

(On if there was a plan to get Olave involved early this week) “Yeah, for sure. I think we got to do everything we can to get him the ball, and that's my goal. We had great communication the whole week; he's one of our best players, and he needs to get the ball. And credit to him, preparing the way that he did, showing up—it was big time, obviously. Things happen during the game, or certain flows, but he's always the same dude.”

(On how three straight wins and maybe more feel going into the next year) “Yeah, anytime you can put something on tape that you want to show other people, show your teammates, all of us, we're all playing for everything that's valuable to us, whether that's we're going to be here on a different team—for certain guys. We're super proud of what we're putting together. We're just having fun, and I think that's the biggest thing. We all want to be here together. We understand that how we finish this game is the characterization of this team, and I think that it's reflecting that in the play. The defense, special teams, everybody, I think we've done a better job of just playing with each other, playing complementary football.”

(On reaching the milestone of 300 yards in a game, first Saints rookie to do so) “I don't really care. I mean, we should have had quite a bit more and left a lot of points on the board, so we've got to find a way to fix those things and continue to go forward.”

(On Coach Moore “selling out” to make sure Taysom Hill had his TD) “Yeah, I mean, I knew when the play call was coming in. I knew we were close. We talked about it on the sideline. I was hoping we got that touchdown to be the signaling moment for him, but I'm just super proud. That's a credit to him. His preparation has worked. He takes a beating physically week in, week out, playing different positions, different personnel groups. So he's just such an asset for us, and he's very deserving of everything that he gets, and that's a huge milestone.”

(On building off of the score last week and what advantage that provided) “Yeah. I mean, a great two-play package there. Obviously, you're playing with tempo, going up on the ball, having the ability to run it out in space, and then kind of having to pass off of it as well. So, it was a great play call and a great design by him.”

(On the process of blossoming into leadership) “I think it started as soon as I got here. I was really, really intentional about getting to know everybody. Making sure that I'm the same dude every single day. And obviously, when you're in a backup role, you're not pulling guys aside or jumping guys or talking to them. There's a different element of that, naturally. But you still want to be the same dude. But I kept my same routine, sending guys scripts, making sure the communication was great regardless of that way. When I became a starter, it did not change. And then, obviously, you kind of expand on that. And you have got to earn that and earn the respect of those guys. And I think we have kind of been able to bond together. And for me, that is my whole goal—to continue to build that. And, obviously, the quarterback position, you're thrust into it. But for me, how I behave around my teammates, who I am every single day, what we put on the film, that's the stuff that really matters to me.”

(On what are some factors that go into leading as a QB) “You have to have a one-on-one relationship with each guy. You can't ask them to do something that you wouldn't do yourself. And we have a great bond with each other. We spend a lot of time outside the facility together. It's been a journey. Obviously, the season hasn't gone as exactly as we wanted to. But we've stayed resilient through that. And for me, that is why you play football, to go out there every single day. But for me, I'm going to do everything I can to earn this guy's respect every single day, no matter the circumstance.”

(On if winning Rookie of the Year would matter to him) “Yeah, that's obviously a great achievement. But I think for us, that can be attained by finishing the season the right way with getting the victory next week and then the week after that. So that's all I'm focused on right now. And we'll go from there.”

(On seeing Olave bounce back after injuries and what that means to him) “It's tough. It is tough because you understand where he's coming from mentally, and you understand the value of your body, and for him to continue to step up to the plate every single week, every single year. And like I said before, he's the same dude. And he's continuing to grow. We're around the same age. He's got so much left in the tank. And obviously, he understands what's in front of him and what he's doing now. So I am really proud of him. I know it's obviously not easy, but that is a credit to him and the coaching staff and everybody for believing in him, and he's going to be great for us.”

(On 50 Cent being present and if he's planning a song for his IG post) “I don't know. I was not expecting to see him pregame. I was like, holy crap, that was 50, man. That was pretty cool. That was probably one of the cooler moments for me as a player. But I got to talk to him a little bit, and hopefully get him back a few more times as well.

(On Juwan Johnson saying that the music he plays in the locker room is weird) “I just got a wide genre, man. I keep it fresh. We got reggae. We got rap. We got country, EDM. I like to keep it fresh. Keep the juices flowing. For me, I've been everywhere college-wise, so I've got a wide array. He's vibing to it as well, but we usually keep the same rotation.”

DT NATHAN SHEPHERD

(On what this year has meant to him so far) “It's been filled with a lot of challenges. I always go into a year knowing that there's going to be adversity. You just don't know where it's going to come from. You don't know what form it's going to take. It's just about whatever obstacle is in our way, how are we going to overcome it, because that's where progress happens. I feel like we have just been doing the best we can to lean on each other in these hard times and times of adversity, and be like ‘why are we facing this?’ It is to get better. That's what we committed to early on in the year before any of this started. ‘Here's an obstacle. How are we going to overcome it together?’ So that's been the focus that we try to surround ourselves around and block out any other distractions.”

(On how multiple sacks contribute to momentum) “I get what you're saying. It's a little bit of a feeding frenzy, but it's great when that happens, but there's a huge recipe to be a part of that. Everyone has to contribute. It's not just the defense. If I'm looking at this game, I'm looking at special teams. To begin with, special teams played very well. We're able to have great field position no matter where we started. So, got to give it out to special teams. Offense did a great job of sustaining drives. That's definitely huge. Does a couple of things. We're able to come up with more points. We were also able to keep their offense off the field. They have less opportunities to create explosives. Definitely won the turnover battle—this all goes into it. On the defensive perspective, don't quote me, but I think we had kept them under like 70 yards against Breece Hall—he is a premier back in this league. So every time you can take away the run game, eventually, and you are scoring points on offense, great field position, eventually it as a pressure cooker where it is like, okay, what is an offense going to do? They are going to go throw the ball. And when we are in that great position, hey, everyone can kind of contribute off of each other and get those big plays.”

(On the difference between the Jets and Saints locker rooms) “I started my career off earlier in the Jets and had a great opportunity to get drafted by them. Todd Bowles, Mike Maccagnan, who was the GM at the time, I’m still close with Todd—now he's at Tampa Bay. And there was definitely a lot of turnover in my time there. So, everything I took from the Jets is part of who I am today. So I can't really take away from that. I would say that in this locker room, what we're trying to do is just keep going forward. Whatever the adversity is, we are just trying to keep going forward, trying to lean on each other. And, our mentality is, ‘Hey, as long as we don't give up, we don't lose.’ Whatever the scoreboard says at the end of the day, that does not explain the effort that we've got to put in; it's not related. So it is like, ‘Hey, whatever adversity we have, whatever problems there are, how are we attacking it?’ Whatever the scoreboard says.”

(On having Cam Jordan as a teammate) “I mean, with Cam, it's just a matter of time. You give that guy reps, and you’re going to have production. So, definitely happy for him but not surprised. I'm just like, I know, because I'm like, ‘I know this is what Cam does, this is what he's going to get done, this is what he's going to continue doing for, you know, as long as he chooses to.’ So, it's really great to just, I wasn't here for his whole career, but it's really great to be a part of what he was able to accomplish today, and just look back at his body of work, and what he's been able to do, look at his resume, to be part of that is a great opportunity. But also he’s an inspiration to everyone else, whatever part of your career you’re in, like, ‘hey, as long as you keep with it, you know, a lot of things can happen at the end.’”

(On how Brandon Staley’s approach stands out) “Just how he goes about getting you guys ready and preparation and all that stuff. One great thing about Staley—you can tell that he is looking at the big picture. And he is definitely looking down the road, even though each day he takes one day at a time. He definitely has a lot of belief in this defense. He definitely wants to drive his defense in a winning direction, in a dominant direction. And that's what he holds us to every day. And every day, same guy, same expectations, high expectations for everyone in that room. And there's no easy way out. So, mistakes, whatever it is, he's going to get on you. But only because he expects so much from everyone in that locker room. And, you know, we're able to put that together and have good performances.”

(On if he swapped jerseys with Bink (Saunders)) “Bink and I were gonna hit it up. I'm gonna talk to him. Actually, we're supposed to be hitting him up right now. He was waiting on me. I had to text him and say, ‘I got some things to do.’ But, Bink's my guy. It was great seeing him. It was great seeing a lot of other guys. I mean, Jermaine Johnson. I'm glad to see that he came back from injury and he's healthy. Michael Clemons. Who else is there right now? Breece Hall. Those are a few guys. It was great to see them and some other guys in the building for sure, too.”

K CHARLIE

(On if he was disappointed with the Olave-Taysom TD, which prevented him from trying to get a franchise-record sixth field goal) “I didn't know the circumstances of what was at stake for Taysom, so whenever I heard that, I was super pumped up for him, but in that moment, I saw it was 5 and tied for club record. But after hearing about what was at stake for Taysom, it was awesome, and you want to give great credit to the offense and defense today—I think we're really starting to play some good, complementary football here. Defense got a lot of turnovers, and offense was awesome again, and getting us in position. Then we got some opportunities to go out there and execute. And the O-line did a great job, and got to knock a couple of them through, so it was nice.”

(On if he heard the crowd during the 61-yard FG attempt) “Yeah, it's a moment I would like back. It's a little bit of a learning moment where I know I can hit those without having to change my form, but because it was my first 60-plus attempt in the game, and it was the end of half, I was kind of a little amped up going out there, and I wish I could have that one back. It was a great learning moment for going forward, where I feel like I don't need to change my form to hit that 61, but I just sort of short-stabbed it, but I pulled it a little bit, so we'll learn going forward.

(On the support/response back in Ireland) “Yeah, the support from everybody back home in Ireland has been unreal. I am super grateful for it. A lot of people are pushing the game of American football in Ireland, and it's nice to play—I suppose—a small part in the rise of it and just the fan culture at home. Yeah, I am super elated to be a part of that and the support has been amazing. I am constantly getting texts, and the phone is constantly blowing up this past couple of weeks, so it's been unreal. It's been unreal because this organization took a chance on me a couple of weeks ago and said, ‘Look, despite all the lack of experience, we are still going to give him a shot, and we see what he has been doing in the building, so just super grateful to everybody here. And I think we're all reaping the rewards of it at the minute.”

(On this being his fourth career game and already being in the record books, and what that means for sports in Ireland) “It's been a great year for all of our Irish sports to be honest. Rory (McIlroy) won the Masters, and then Lowry hit the putt in the Ryder Cup, and the athletics at home has taken off really well and a couple of the girls are doing really well. The Irish soccer team had a big win against Hungary a couple of weeks ago, so the sports at home is rising. Katie Taylor in boxing—the Irish sporting culture around the world is really great and picking up. It's pretty good to be a part of that, so just got to keep it going now.”

TE JUWAN JOHNSON

(On having a win like this to help close out the season)

“It means a lot, when you start off the season the way that we did, and then they kind of regroup the way we did, kind of put some stuff together. Ironically, it kind of happened when Tyler (Shough) became quarterback, and things started to happen, pieces started to move, and then we just started to come together. And then the gel started coming in, sort of like how it was in the offseason, kind of playful, we were always kind of playful, but it was just kind of let loose, just kind of play free. And so, when we started doing that, the offense kind of came alive Kellen (Moore) started getting a little more comfortable. But yeah, I just feel like everybody should get a little more comfortable, to let their hair down a little bit. And I think we got after a little bit. So, I think that was the biggest part in just kind of this whole win streak in December, just really getting back to what we're good at doing things well, being selfless.”

(On personality being a big conversation/Kellen yelling at the referee)

“He 100% yelled at a referee. I think the biggest thing is brush off some stuff. And I think you can get a little pass on that, going to let it slide, let it slide. But when it happens over and over again, it's always good to see Kellen kind of get out of what people think he is, and kind of get after it. But the thing is, he's done a great job, aside from that, he's been doing a phenomenal job, and I think he's done well with what is going on throughout the whole year, keeping his composure, keeping the locker room the way it is, and this is the best locker room I have ever had. Especially with the season, what it has been, nobody ever wavered, no one ever wanted to give up, no one ever looked forward to the offseason. I do not think I really even had a lot of offseason conversations like everybody can be locked in and kind of wanting to finish the year off right. He has good guys, he has the right guys in there to do the job, and I think that's the biggest part.”

(On why this is the best locker room he has been a part of)

“Yeah, sort of like I said, you could always have a good locker room when you win it, but when you're losing, it shows the character of a person. And so, when you're losing, you can always feel like, oh well we're not doing this right, we're not doing this right, you point the finger, you kind of want to leave, you want things to go a certain way, you think you should be getting the ball more. And the thing is, is, you don't really see that. And the thing is, like I said he brought in the right guys to have the right mindset. I think that all started with the offseason activities that we did. There's a lot of offseason activities you get to know, like the guys you're going to war with, and the guys are going to play with. And I think that's the biggest thing. Getting to do paintball, going bowling, things like that. I think that's all part of something that people may not think it's necessary. But when you get to top, like December, it really pays off. You really know who you are going to war with."

(On the vibe last year versus this year)

"Yeah, but just the way you win too. And I think, like I said, when you win with certain people, especially like the players, it means a lot more, because we know how much work we put in to be where we're at. You know, I don't think people expect a lot of us this year, but I think the narrative is starting to change, just the way that we're compiling on wins, and the way that we're playing in the way that we're winning. I think that's the biggest, I think last year, yeah, we got the first two wins, and that was early, and then we kind of had one here and there. But I think right now, just the way that we're winning and the style that we're winning at and the way that we're playing, I think that's the biggest one."

QB TAYSOM HILL

(On his thoughts on the locker room this year)

"Yeah, I think it's, it's been a great locker room. Juwan talked about when; the season started the way that it did. I think it shows a lot about the characters and the character of our team. And the reality is there's been no quit in anybody in that locker room, and everyone's still competing and playing for one another. And, God, it's a fun environment to be in. And we know that the postseason stuff is off the table, but everyone's still cherishing every opportunity to get and I think, that that's pretty unique and special."

(On family and friends showing up to the game)

"Yeah, my entire family's here for the game, so it was fun to have them here and put a lot of love and support for people around me, that's for sure."

(On taking a second through potential change in the future)

"Yeah, ask me the tough questions. Look, my wife asked me that this morning, and I didn't really feel any type of way this morning, but as I was driving the stadium today you start to, think about the last nine years and what it's meant to me and my family and the city and stuff. So, I think for me personally, you just try to take it all in. They had a great experience here tonight, and I don't know what the future holds for me, but it was a special day."

(On having thoughts about his future)

"I'm focused on the next two weeks and kind of tackle the rest of that as we get down the road."

(On his touchdown play)

"I was a little bit surprised when it came in. You have to ask (Chris) Olave I think they were, they were going to hold him out of the game. And he found out what the call was. He says, No, I'm in. I know, Kellen made a concerted effort to give me more opportunities and stuff, given the circumstances, and God's it's a great way to, great way to seal (a) game. We had the look that, that we wanted, and it worked out perfect."

WR CHRIS OLAVE

(On wanting to be a part of Taysom Hill's play)

"Definitely wanted to be a part of that, especially I knew Taysom, they wanted to get him a touchdown, so I wanted to be a part of that, a deep ball too so I definitely want to be in there."

(On career-high in receiving yards this game)

"It feels good man, I feel like we left a lot of plays out there too, especially that first touchdown kind of hold on to that, couple of those deep balls. I feel like could have done a lot more, but I'm glad we executed and went out there and was able to come out with a win. Tyler did a great job today, Offensive line did a great job. And we executed when we needed the most."

(On going through his injury last year to a career year)

"Just got to thank God man, it was a tough time last year. I was only 24 years old, contemplating retirement, especially with head injuries, but prayed about it. My close family was around me, they stuck by my side. Just gave it another try, another chance. And it's been a great year for like through all the ups and downs, just kept focused. Kellen still believes in me and all I can do is thank God, in this situation and I'm super grateful. Really, you know, just really, after the same concussion, being out there in Carolina and to next few days. I mean, that was my last game. I don't know when it was. Think was October or November, but it was a long time, especially not coming back to last year. Having that being my last game, it was tough, it was real tough, long offseason, a lot of things, and especially early in the year. It's easy to be in practice and run routes and do all that without getting hit. But first few games, it was tough going out there, kind of trying to get down, used to playing again. But kind of after a few games, I kind of got more and more comfortable.”

(On his continuing contract conversations)

“Yeah, they continue. You know, it's been a clear communication. But I ain't really focused on that right now. Just finished trying to finish the year off strong. You know, it's been a couple conversations here and there, but like I said, just want to prove that I'm one of the top receivers in the league, year in, year out, when I got a full year. So just got to finish these last two strong and those conversations will come.”

(On if he wants an extension)

“Oh, yeah, of course, this is where I want to be man. They took a chance on me, they traded up in draft to be able to come get me. So, they've been nothing but good to me. They were here for me last year, when I was going through that tough time. They told me to take my time, they stood by my side. And even this year, when Kellen came in, he still believed in me through the ups and downs. This year, he kept coming to me. I'm super grateful for that, and I can't thank the organization enough for that.”

POSTGAME NOTES & QUOTES

NEW ORLEANS SAINTS

NEW YORK JETS VS. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS SUNDAY, DECEMBER 21, 2025 • CAESARS SUPERDOME JETS PLAYER QUOTES

QB BRADY COOK

(Overall Play) “Definitely need to watch the film. Good moments but not enough; not enough points, not enough sustained drives. We are putting our defense on the field way too often – too many punts.”

(On a slow start for the team)

“Number one, we need to start fast and sustain it, we need to sustain drives. It starts with being efficient on first down and second down; not putting all the pressure on third and longs and forcing ourselves to be perfect on third down when the defense is in control. It starts with starting fast on the first and second down.”

(On sacks and the Saints defense getting through quicker)

“I think so, like I said I need to watch the film, especially with protections and sacks. It’s hard to tell exactly what’s going on right at the moment. At the end of the day I need to get the ball out. I don’t think I threw the ball down the field very much today.”

(On why he didn’t throw as much today)

“There’s always going to be opportunities to throw the ball down the field – the defense played a great game, they really did. They covered a lot up and had a great plan for us. I need to watch the film and see how we can push the ball down the field better.”

(On emotion/energy in the locker room)

“Extremely disappointed. We came here prepared, ready to win this game and we didn’t do it. Naturally you’re going to feel disappointment from that, but all we can do now is go back to work. We have two games left and we need to play for each other, and we need to fight for each other and find a way to get a win. ”

(On Coach Glenn’s message to the team)

“Keep fighting and stay in, and that’s what we’re going to do. This locker room is bought in, and we’re going to stay in for these last two games. We’re going to fight, and we’re going to go back to work.”

(On difficulty playing behind the sticks)

“As I alluded to, I think it starts with that first and second down efficiency, and setting yourself up for success on the third down. Instead of putting all the pressure on yourselves on the 3rd and XL’s and 3rd and longs. That’s when the defense can be in control and control it. It starts with me operation wise, making sure we’re in the right calls and we’re not getting those flags, and making sure everyone’s in the right spots. Need to look at it and continue to get better.”
