THE MATCHUP

After a 31-6 loss to the Buffalo Bills on Thanksgiving night, the New Orleans Saints (5-6), remain at home for the second straight week, returning to play against teams in the rugged NFC East and host the Dallas Cowboys (7-4) on Thursday Night Football at the Caesars Superdome. The Saints have lost four consecutive games and a victory is essential this week to climb back to .500 and remain in the hunt for a playoff berth.

Dallas leads the all-time series 17-3, but New Orleans has won nine of the last 13 meetings dating back to the 1998 season. Also given the attractiveness of the matchup, since Sean Payton, a former member of the Cowboys coaching staff under Pro Football Hall of Fame coach Bill Parcells, arrived in New Orleans in 2006, eight of the nine meetings have been played in prime time or before a nationally televised audience. Payton has posted a 5-3 record against his former team, the most recent meeting being a 12-10 home win on Sunday Night Football on September 29, 2019, when New Orleans won their first contest since the 1998 season without scoring a touchdown, backed by an efficient run game, stingy defense and four field goals.

Both teams will be looking to reverse a trend in the wrong direction on Sunday night. The Saints will be looking to break their first four-game losing streak since the start of the 2015 season. That skid was broken by a 26-20 win over Dallas on Sunday Night Football in the Superdome. The 7-4 Cowboys have a two-game lead over Philadelphia in the NFC East, but have dropped three of their past four games in losing ground in the race for the top seed in the conference.

In addition to the importance of the game for both clubs at halftime, former Black and Gold LB Sam Mills will be inducted into the club's Ring of Honor.

Week 13 In The NFC South: The Atlanta Falcons travel to Raymond James Stadium to play at the division-leading Tampa Bay Buccaneers at noon on Sunday and the Carolina Panthers have a Week 13 bye.

SERIES HISTORY

Dallas leads the series, 17-13, though New Orleans has won nine of the last 13 meetings. The Cowboys won 8 of 10 from 1973-1994 and 13 of the first 16 between the clubs. 12 games have been decided by a touchdown or less, seven contests by three or less. The Saints have an 8-3 record in series contests played at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome:

LAST MEETING

Saints 12, Dallas Cowboys 10; September 29, 2019 @ Mercedes-Benz Superdome – The Saints won their second consecutive game, defeating Dallas at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome in a contest dominated by defense and special teams. It marked the first time New Orleans won a game without scoring a touchdown since an Oct. 25, 1998 9-3 victory over Tampa Bay.

The Saints won the coin toss and deferred. After the Cowboys punted, the Cowboys took advantage of an interception off a bobbled ball by WR Ted Ginn Jr. and took possession at their 46-yard line. Dallas jumped out to a 3-0 lead compliments of a 28-yard field goal by K Brett Maher. New Orleans started pushing back when WR/RS Deonte Harris returned a kickoff 29 yards in a drive that spanned the first and second quarters and went nine plays and 52 yards, K Wil Lutz drilled a 40-yard field goal. New Orleans then forced a quick three-and-out, Harris returned the punt to the Saints 49 and Lutz hit a 42-yard field goal to give New Orleans the edge. A potential score was averted when on a completion from Cowboys QB Dak Prescott to TE Jason Witten, LB A.J. Klein punched the ball out and it was recovered by S Vonn Bell. Towards the end of the quarter, Bell forced a fumble by Cowboys RB Ezekiel Elliott and recovered it, setting the stage for a 19-yard field goal by Lutz and a 9-3 Saints halftime lead.

Midway through the third quarter, Prescott completed a pass for a 35-yard gain to TE Blake Jarwin, that set up a one-yard rushing touchdown by Elliott to give the Dallas a 10-9 lead.

Between the third and fourth quarters, QB Teddy Bridgewater drove the offense 67 yards in 15 plays on a drive that lasted 9:06 and Lutz drilled a 26-yard field goal for the lead. New Orleans held on for the win with DT David Onyemata dropping Prescott for a 11-yard loss and S Marcus Williams picking him off on the final play of the contest to seal the victory.

Bridgewater threw for 193 yards and WR Michael Thomas had nine receptions for 95 yards to move into a tie for the NFL receiving lead with 34 grabs and tie Odel Beckham Jr. for reaching 350 career catches in the fewest games in NFL history (52 games). Defensively, Bell led the team with ten tackles.

THE HEAD COACHES

Sean Payton has posted a 157-95 overall record (.623), including a 9-8 postseason mark after the franchise had won only one playoff game prior to his arrival in 2006. Payton holds the club's top victory total and winning percentage. Payton is ranked 22nd all-time in National Football League records in victories, fifth among active coaches. He continues to represent the Saints as the model of stability not only within the NFC South, as he is the longest tenured head coach within the conference, but also among the most accomplished within the NFL. Only Bill Belichick (2000) has been with his team longer than Payton's 15 seasons. Payton is also one of just eight active NFL head coaches to lead a team to a Super Bowl victory. The others are the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' Bruce Arians, Belichick, the Seattle Seahawks' Pete Carroll, the Baltimore Ravens' John Harbaugh, the Dallas Cowboys' Mike McCarthy (Green Bay in 2010), Kansas City's Andy Reid and Tomlin. The 2020 Saints were only the sixth team in National Football League history to have six-game winning streaks in four consecutive seasons and with a nine-game winning streak had won at least nine straight games in two of the past three seasons and had double-digit victory figures and consecutive playoff berths in four straight years for the first time in team history, also being only the third NFC team since divisional alignment to capture four straight division championships. The Black and Gold qualified for the NFL playoffs for the ninth season (2006, 2009-11, 2013, 2017-20) in Payton's head coaching tenure). Payton earned a degree in communications at Eastern Illinois, where as a quarterback he had 10,665 passing yards, at the time the third-highest total in NCAA Division I-AA history. Payton was inducted into the Eastern Illinois Hall of Fame in 2000 and had his jersey retired in a ceremony in 2010. He received an honorary doctorate from his alma mater in 2013. Payton was born December 29, 1963 in San Mateo, Calif., and raised in Naperville, Ill., Payton has a daughter, Meghan and a son, Connor.

The Dallas Cowboys named Mike McCarthy the ninth head coach in franchise history on Jan. 8, 2020, handing the reigns of the team to an innovative offensive mind with a championship pedigree. McCarthy finished his first campaign with a 6-10 record following an early season-ending injury to quarterback Dak Prescott, but have moved into first place in the NFC East in 2021.

McCarthy came to Dallas with 13 years of head coaching experience and 13 additional years as an assistant coach in the NFL, including six as an offensive coordinator.

As a head coach, McCarthy has racked up a 138-91-2 regular season coaching record with the Green Bay Packers (2006-18) and Cowboys, and he owns the sixth-most wins (tied for 27th all-time) and sixth-highest winning percentage (.600) among active NFL coaches. His teams have qualified for the postseason nine times, won six NFC North Division titles, made four NFC Championship Game appearances and took home a Super Bowl XLV championship held at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Texas, following the 2010 NFL season.

McCarthy broke into the NFL as a quality control assistant with the Kansas City Chiefs in 1993. It was then he worked with Montana before moving up to quarterbacks coach from 1995-98, working with starters Gannon, Grbac and Bono.

When Gannon left the Chiefs for Oakland in 1999, McCarthy departed Kansas City to become Green Bay's quarterbacks coach. That year, the Packers ranked seventh in the NFL in passing and ninth in total offense. Favre threw for 4,091 yards, the third-highest total in his career at that point.

The following year, McCarthy began a successful five-year stint as the offensive coordinator of the New Orleans Saints. It became the most prolific offensive era to that point in the team's four decades, as the Saints set 10 offensive team records and 25 individual marks. Among the more notable accomplishments, the Saints led the NFC with 432 points and 49 touchdowns in 2002, both team records at the time. In his first season in 2000, McCarthy was named NFC Assistant Coach of the Year by USA Today. In 2005 McCarthy served as offensive coordinator for the San Francisco 49ers.

McCarthy began his six-year collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at Fort Hays State in Hays, Kan., (1987), just after completing his playing career at nearby Baker University in Baldwin City, Kan. At Baker, McCarthy earned a degree in business administration and was an all-conference tight end and senior captain in 1986, helping lead the Wildcats to an NAIA Division II national runner-up finish. He was inducted into the school's athletic hall of fame in October 2007.

At Fort Hays State under head coach John Vincent, McCarthy coached linebackers for two years while earning a master's degree in sports administration.

McCarthy returned to his hometown in 1989, serving first as a graduate assistant (1989-91) and then wide receivers coach for the Pittsburgh Panthers.

GAME SUMMARIES

Week 1: Saints 38, Packers 3; September 12, 2021 @ TIAA Bank Field (Jacksonville, Fla.) – Jameis Winston and the hurricane-displaced Saints looked right at home in northeast Florida — no doubt to the delight of fans rebuilding homes and lives back in New Orleans. Winston passed for five touchdowns, New Orleans intercepted reigning NFL MVP Aaron Rodgers twice, and the Saints kicked off the post-Drew Brees era with a strikingly dominant 38-3 victory over Green Bay. "We knew that even though some people don't have power, they're going to find a way to watch the Saints," LB Demario Davis said. "That's just what this team means to the city — and the city means the same to us." The game, originally scheduled for the Superdome, was moved while the New Orleans area continues to clean up wreckage left by Hurricane Ida, which struck as a Category 4 storm on Aug. 29. After canceling their last preseason game and practicing two weeks in Dallas, the Saints looked as sharp and inspired as any club with such distractions could have hoped. "That was for the city," Winston said. "We did that for them. We knew how much it would mean to get a great victory for that region. They've been through so much. ... Hats off to them for their resilience, because they motivated us. They inspired us to come out there and ball." Winston was an efficient 14 of 20 for 148 yards. New Orleans rushed for 171 yards.

"Drew always preached, it's about the decision, not the result," Winston said, alluding to last season, when he served as a reserve and understudy to Brees in an effort to improve the long-term trajectory of his career. "Sometimes the decision is throwing the ball away, sometimes the decision is running, tucking. Sometimes the decision may be taking a sack."

Winston didn't take a sack, but did take off and run for a few key third-down conversions in the first half.

The only risky throw that backfired on him, a deflected pass caught by Packers defensive back Darnell Savage in the end zone — was negated by a contested roughing-the-passer penalty called against edge rusher Z'Darius Smith.

The penalty set up the second touchdown catch of the game by Juwan Johnson, who came in with four career catches and was converted from receiver to a tight end this off-season.

On the day before his 25th birthday, Johnson also converted a screen pass into a 12-yard, first-down gain on fourth-and-7 in the second quarter, when the game was still in doubt. He capped that drive with a leaping catch in the end zone on fourth-and-two. The two fourth down conversions highlighted a pivotal 14-play drive that consumed 10 minutes.

"You've got to pick your spots where you want to be aggressive and it's a little bit easier on that end of the field," Payton said. "I felt pretty good about the calls."

Green Bay fans seemed to outnumber Saints fans in a crowd announced at 35,242 for what was officially a Saints home game. But they left disappointed in a day that could not have gone much worse for Rodgers, who was pulled with nearly 11 minutes left.

As the time expired, the remaining Saints fans joined in triumphant chants of "Who Dat!" that echoed throughout the stadium.

"This is a good kick in the you-know-where," said Rodgers, who finished 15 of 28 for 133 yards and no TDs. "We felt like we were going to go up and down the field on whoever they have and that obviously wasn't the case."

Opening the third quarter down 17-3, the Packers squandered a chance to trim their deficit when Rodgers' wobbly pass under pressure was intercepted by rookie defensive back Paulson Adebo at the New Orleans 7 early in the third quarter.

On Green Bay's next drive, Marcus Williams intercepted Rodgers' deep overthrow and returned it to the Packers 12, setting up Winston's 10-yard TD to Chris Hogan.

"Every team has a game like this," said Packers running back Aaron Jones, who was limited to 9 yards on five carries. "It's better to get it out now."

FAST START

The Saints did not punt in the first half.

New Orleans took the opening kickoff for a field goal and led 10-0 after Alvin Kamara took a short forward pitch from Winston as he crossed behind the offensive line, then slipped multiple tackle attempts to squirm into the end zone from 3 yards. That officially went down as Winston's first regular-season TD pass as a Saint, and he helped set it up with a 10-yard scramble on third-and-8.

Week 2: Carolina Panthers 26, Saints 7; September 19, 2021 @ Bank of America Stadium – The Carolina Panthers, a week after their season-opening win over the New York Jets, continued to take advantage of home cooking and handed the Saints a 26-7 defeat on a warm afternoon at Bank of America Stadium.

Carolina quarterback Sam Darnold was impressive and efficient throughout the majority of the game, completing 26-of-38 passes for 305 yards with two touchdown passes, one interception and a 99.1 rating. But Darnold wasn't the lone story of the day, as a healthy Christian McCaffrey gained 137 total yards from scrimmage and one rushing touchdown.

The Panthers defense seemingly took away most of the Saints' big play abilities, with New Orleans' longest play a 27-yard connection between quarterback Jameis Winston and wide receiver Lil'Jordan Humphrey. New Orleans struggled running the ball (17 carries for 48 yards) and on early downs, resulting in unfavorable situations and production on third down (2-for-11) and losing the time of possession battle 38:32-21:28.

Defensively, LB Demario Davis led the club with 12 tackles, while a pair of young defensive linemen in DT Malcolm Roach and DE Payton Turner recorded their first career interception and sack respectively.

The New Orleans special teams units also worked to keep the Saints in the hunt on a day of tough sledding. P Blake Gillikin pinned the Panthers back several times, recording a 45.0 net punting average on six punts with a 60-yard punt. WR Ty Montgomery had a career-high three coverage stops. Midway through the third quarter, DE Carl Granderson, who had made his first career start on defense, blocked a 55-yard field goal attempt by K Zane Gonzalez and it was recovered and returned by LB Zack Baun. WR/RS Deonte Harris returned five kickoffs for a career-high 156 yards, running back a kick late in the second quarter 39 yards.

Week 3: Saints 28, Patriots 13; September 26, 2021 @ Gillette Stadium – Only one brand of football comes to mind when Jameis Winston thinks about the best New Orleans Saints teams of the past.

"Saints football has always been efficiency and physicality up front," he said. "That's all I know. They win up front and they play tough. That's what we did here."

Winston threw two touchdown passes, Malcolm Jenkins returned an interception for a score, and the Saints beat the Patriots 28-13 on Sunday.

A week after a career-low passer rating Winston showed better command of the offense, completing 13 of 21 passes for 128 yards. Taysom Hill ran for a touchdown and Alvin Kamara rushed 24 times for 89 yards and had a receiving TD. He got support from a defense that made Patriots rookie quarterback's life miserable.

Mac Jones entered the day hoping to stretch the field after two games in which the passing attack was mostly underneath. Instead, he found himself under pressure for most of the day and threw three interceptions, two leading to Saints touchdowns. New Orleans sacked Jones three times and hit him 11 times. He finished 30 of 51 for 270 yards and a touchdown.

"I think it just goes back to execution," Jones said. "I can do a better job just sticking to my reads and being patient and letting things develop. I didn't do a good job of that today."

P.J. Williams returned Jones' first pick of the day 46 yards to set up a second quarter 7-yard TD pass by Winston.

Jenkins was the beneficiary of the second INT, snaring a pass bobbled by tight end Jonnu Smith. He returned it 34 yards and put the Saints in front 21-3.

The Patriots cut it to 21-13 following Jones' 22-yard TD pass to Kendrick Bourne with 9:22 left in the fourth period.

The Saints responded with a 13-play, 75-yard drive that ate up 6:45 and ended with a 4-yard run by Hill.

Saints coach Sean Payton harped all week on the Patriots' impressive 108-7 record at home (including playoffs) since 2000 when they win the turnover battle. He said having a plus-3 differential Sunday was huge.

"We're mindful of it every week, but it had to be something that was put in our heads every day," he said. "I thought we took care of the football. I thought that was important."

New Orleans overcame an early injury to take a 14-3 lead into halftime.

The Saints' offensive line was already down one starter with C Erik McCoy (calf) ruled out. They lost another early in the first quarter after T Terron Armstead exited (elbow). But after going three-and-out on their opening drive, the Saints got efficient, sweeping down the field mixing runs and passes, and a long third-down conversion to get inside the red zone. Winston then put a bow on the 11-play, 69-yard drive with an 11-yard touchdown pass to Kamara. The Saints turned defense into offense for their second score.

The Patriots had third down near midfield when LB Kaden Ellis pressured Jones, forcing a pass tipped and intercepted by Williams. He returned it 46 yards to the Patriots 9.

Three plays later Winston connected with Marquez Callaway for a 7-yard touchdown.

"There's no magic sauce here," Belichick said. "Just have to go back to work and do better."

Week 4: New York Giants 27, New Orleans Saints 21; October 3, 2021 @ Caesars Superdome – The New York Giants spoiled the New Orleans Saints' Dome-coming party as they won a 27-21 overtime game in the Caesars Superdome.

Down 21-10 with 12 minutes to play quarterback Daniel Jones started the comeback by hitting Barkley on a 54-yard scoring play with 6:52 to play. Jones ran it in for the 2-point conversion to make it 21-18. Jones then led the Giants on a late drive to tie the score at 21 when kicker Graham Gano made a 48-yard field goal with 31 seconds to play. The Giants (1-3) won the coin toss and took the ball to start the 10-minute overtime period and marched down the field, ending it with a powerful run by Barkley. Jones finished 28 of 40 for 402 yards with two touchdown passes and one interception. Barkley had 13 carries for 52 yards and the game-winning touchdown.

The loss dropped the Saints to 2-2 and ruined the team's first game in front of a full home crowd in 637 days. The scheduled home opener was moved to Jacksonville because of damage to the area from Hurricane Ida and the team had been training in Dallas until Sept. 24. The Saints had seemed to be in command of the game thanks to their quarterbacks, Jameis Winston and Taysom Hill.

Winston handled the passing-17 of 23 for 226 yards and a touchdown-while Hill took care of the rushing, powering in for two 8-yard touchdown runs.

The loss ruined one of the best games of RB Alvin Kamara's five-year career. He recorded his fourth 100-yard rushing game, carrying a career-high 26 times for 120 yards. Hill finished with 28 yards on six carries and caught two passes for 26 yards.

Week 5: New Orleans Saints 33, Washington Football

Team 22; October 10, 2021 @ FedEx Field After quarterback Jameis Winston connected with wide receiver Marquez Callaway on a Hail Mary touchdown on the final play of the first half, Sean Payton recalled a similar play in his first season as Saints coach.

15 years ago, his team's Hail Mary in Atlanta overshadowed a halftime performance by country music duo Sugarland. Payton thought to himself: "If there was any halftime entertainment, that's a tough spot to be in."

This one was even sweeter. The Hail Mary was one of Winston's four touchdown passes to help the Saints beat Washington 33-22 for a bounce-back victory.

"Turnovers are going to happen — you just don't want the trickle-down effect to happen," said Winston, who completed 15 of 30 passes for 279 yards and made up for an inexplicable interception on the first possession and a fumble on Chase Young's first sack of the season. "We played efficient football. We made plays when we needed it."

The win came at a cost with two more injuries. Winston took every snap at quarterback for the first time, a necessity after Taysom Hill suffered a concussion.

Winston completed a 72-yard TD pass to Deonte Harris, who departed (hamstring). He also connected with Callaway on the 49-yard Hail Mary TD, found him wide open from 12 yards out early in the fourth quarter and sent Washington fans to the exits with a pass to Alvin Kamara that turned into a 19-yard score. Kamara also had a 23-yard TD run, returned punts in Harris' absence and racked up 151 total yards.

"Any time I'm catching the ball, I love it," said Kamara, who didn't have a reception last week in the overtime loss to the New York Giants. "I think it adds an aspect to our offense. We had an opportunity to do that."

The Saints picked off Taylor Heinicke twice and put some pressure on him a week after not sacking the Giants. Antonio Gibson ran for two TDs, but Washington could not outscore another rough performance by its defense.

Week 7: Saints 13, Seahawks 10; October 25, 2021 @ Lumen Field

Alvin Kamara and Jameis Winston were the happy beneficiaries of the Seahawks' many mistakes. Then it was rookie Brian Johnson's turn to make sure the Saints got the win they needed to keep pace in the NFC South.

"In a game like this where things are close, things get a little a little ugly towards the end, it builds confidence to be able to come into a game like this and close it out the way we did," Saints DE Cameron Jordan said.

Johnson kicked a 33-yard field goal with 1:56 left in his NFL debut, and New Orleans outlasted Seattle 13-10. Kamara carried the load for New Orleans and Winston made a handful of plays when needed, but the Saints escaped Seattle thanks largely to a series of Seahawks blunders, which is sorely missing injured QB Russell Wilson. Two of the Seahawks' biggest mistakes came on New Orleans' deciding drive when Seattle was flagged for roughing the passer and jumping offside on a long field-goal attempt. Both penalties gave New Orleans first downs, and Johnson's field goal coming out of the 2-minute warning put the Saints ahead.

Johnson, a rookie, made a PAT and both field-goal tries, connecting from 21 yards in the first half.

"It was tough trying to see what the wind was doing because it was changing constantly throughout pregame and the game itself," Johnson said. "So just stick with my plan I had coming into it and really focusing on just hitting my ball and hitting good contact that will cut through the wind."

Geno Smith made his second start at QB for Seattle (2-5) since Wilson suffered a serious finger injury in a loss to the Rams. The backup hit DK Metcalf for an 84-yard touchdown in the first quarter but went nowhere when the Seahawks had a final chance to tie or win.

Smith was sacked on consecutive plays by Malcolm Jenkins and Demario Davis. On fourth-and-28, Smith was pressured again and his throw to Metcalf fell incomplete. Smith went 12 of 22 for 167 yards — half coming on the TD toss to Metcalf — and was sacked five times as Davis, Cameron Jordan and others made his night uncomfortable. Seattle's lost three straight for the first time since 2011 and fell to 0-3 at home for the first time since 1992. Although both defeats with Smith under center have been by three points, the Seahawks aren't the same without Wilson.

"I've been here a long time and if we didn't have Russell, I probably wouldn't have been here a long time because of all the magic he has created over the years," coach Pete

Carroll said.

Kamara finished with 10 catches for 128 yards and a 13-yard TD reception late in the first half. It was his fifth career regular-season game with double-digit receptions. He rushed for 51 yards.

Winston was 19 of 35 for 222 yards and added 43 yards rushing. He also made enough plays—thanks to Seattle penalties—to get the Saints in range for the field goal. Seattle appeared to get a stop, but Marquise Blair was called for roughing the passer on a third-down sack after hitting Winston with the crown of his helmet. Kamara then sprinted past a blitz for 12 yards on third-and-10 and the Saints were in field-goal range.

Al Woods jumped offside as Johnson lined up for a 43-yard attempt, allowing New Orleans to burn another 90 seconds off the clock before Johnson made the shorter try.

"We got to get right," Seattle LB Bobby Wagner said.

"We've got to really fix our mistakes, play smarter, make less penalties."

Seattle's Jason Myers missed two field goal attempts — the second into the open end of the stadium after Smith took another costly sack. Myers made a 50-yarder.

Kamara had 21 touches on New Orleans' 39 offensive plays in the first half. He was mostly ineffective on the ground, but Seattle couldn't slow him down in the pass game. He already had 108 yards receiving by halftime. Four of his receptions came on the final drive of the half when his 31-yard catch-and-run out of the backfield set up his 13-yard TD catch and a 10-7 halftime lead.

"Every game has a life of its own, so that was just the flavor of this week, ended up getting a lot of touches," Kamara said.

Week 8: Saints 36, Buccaneers 27; October 31, 2021 @ Caesars Superdome

When Saints QB Jameis Winston could no longer walk on his own, his New Orleans teammates rose up in dramatic fashion to knock off Tom Brady and the defending champs.

P.J. Williams intercepted Brady and returned it 40 yards for a touchdown with 1:24 left, helping New Orleans seal an eventful but potentially costly 36-27 victory over the Tampa Bay Buccaneers on Sunday.

Winston injured his left knee during a scramble early in the second quarter when pulled down from behind by Devin White, who was flagged for a horse collar tackle.

"I think it's significant," said coach Sean Payton, adding he cried when he saw Winston in the locker room. "He felt something and is on crutches right now. ... When he got up and then had to go back down, you were a little concerned."

Backup Trevor Siemian took over for Winston and completed 16 of 29 passes for 159 yards and a touchdown without a turnover, leading the Saints on five scoring drives that produced two touchdowns and three field goals.

Payton said he had confidence in Siemian, who'd started for Denver in 2016 and 2017. Payton added his play calling for the duration of the game had more to do with how Tampa Bay was defending than the fact that his backup QB was under center.

"He's an experienced player," Payton said.

Siemian, who last took a meaningful snap in Week 2 of 2019 with the Jets, said he'd "kind of lost a little bit a sense of how fun it is."

"There's a joy to this game," Siemian said. "There's nothing better than to see your teammates make plays and you're moving the ball and it's the best."

Winston's first start against the team that drafted him first overall in 2015, and then let him go in 2020 when they had a chance to sign Brady, was a subplot of this NFC South clash.

And Winston looked determined to do whatever it took to win, passing for 56 yards and a 14-yard touchdown to Tre'Quan Smith, and scrambling for 40 yards before his injury. Payton gave Winston a game ball, and teammates lamented his injury.

"It was hard, man, because he worked so hard this off-season," said Williams, Winston's friend since they were teammates at Florida State. "It's tough for me, it's tough for the team and I know it's tough for him. I told him at halftime we were going to go out there and win for him."

Brady passed for four TDs, but also turned the ball over three times on a pair of interceptions and a fumble, which the Saints converted into 16 points.

The Bucs nearly overcame their mistakes. They wiped out a 16-point second-half deficit and took a lead with 5:44 to go when receiver and former LSU trickster Cyril Grayson was left uncovered and Brady found him for a 50-yard TD. New Orleans responded by driving for a field goal and a 29-27 lead with 1:41 left, leaving Brady, no stranger to late-game heroics, that much time plus a timeout to get in field goal range. Instead, the Saints' defense came up big.

"I just threw it to the wrong guy," Brady said of his late interception. "I had Mike (Evans) open. It cost us the game."

MOMENTUM SWINGS

New Orleans' defense came up with two second quarter turnover and the offense converted those into nine points. Brady fumbled on a double-pump caused by pressure from DE Cameron Jordan. DT David Onyemata, newly activated after a six-game suspension, recovered near midfield. The Saints got a field goal, but only after a roughing-the-passer call against William Gholston wiped out what would have been an interception by Antoine Winfield Jr. in the end zone.

Later, Brady was intercepted by C.J. Gardner Johnson, who had left his man to undercut a pass intended for Chris Godwin.

New Orleans capitalized by driving for Siemian's 1-yard pass to fullback Alex Armah shortly before halftime.

The Saints widened their lead to 23-7 on the opening possession of the second half, which began with Siemian hitting Kevin White for a 38-yard gain. Alvin Kamara finished it on a pitch play on fourth-and-goal from the 1.

But Brady responded by leading the Bucs to touchdowns on two straight possessions. He hit RB Giovani Bernard for a 7-yard TD and launched a 41-yard scoring strike to Evans, who beat Marshon Lattimore in single coverage.

STAT LINES

For the Bucs, the loss squandered a prolific day for Godwin, who had eight catches for 144 yards, including a 12-yard touchdown in the first quarter.

The Saints rushed for 152 yards — led by Kamara's 61 — against Tampa Bay's top-ranked run defense, which came in allowing 67.4 yards rushing per game.

The Saints sacked Brady three times: one each by Jordan, Kwon Alexander and Tanoh Kpassagnon.

Week 9: Atlanta Falcons 26, Saints 5; November 7, 2021 @ Caesars Superdome - Matt Ryan's last and longest of several deep completions spared the Atlanta Falcons from another infamous collapse.

Ryan hit Cordarrelle Patterson for a 64-yard gain with a minute left to set up Youngbuck Koo's 29-yard field goal as time expired, and Atlanta defeated mistake-prone New Orleans on Sunday after allowing the Saints to wipe out an 18-point, fourth-quarter deficit.

"We just like to give our fans a heart attack, just keep them on their toes to make sure they're paying attention," Patterson joked. "We wanted to put them away early, but it's the Saints; they've got a great team over there. They fought till the end. We did a better job. We got the win, that's all that matters."

Ryan passed for 343 yards, connected twice with Olamide Zaccheaus for touchdowns, and the veteran quarterback also ran for a score on a bootleg as the Falcons (4-4) snapped the Saints' three-game winning streak and prevented New Orleans (5-3) from moving into a tie with Tampa Bay (6-2) atop the NFC South.

"I felt good after that one," Ryan said. "I was excited. We needed to make a play. We needed to win that game. I'm proud of the guys for getting the job done."

Ryan's second scoring pass gave the Falcons a 24-6 lead with 10:39 left in the fourth quarter. But the Saints rallied to briefly take the lead on Trevor Siemian's 8-yard pass to Kenny Stills with 1:01 left.

New Orleans then missed a 2-point conversion try for the second time in the game, leaving the door open for the Falcons to win with a field goal.

"We got it going but it was too little, too late," Siemian said. "You can't spot a team that many scores. I knew there was a lot of time left and the game wasn't over when we scored at the end. You were still holding your breath a little bit."

LOST LEADS

The Falcons have seen their share of blown double-digit leads in recent years — none worse than a Super Bowl loss five seasons ago to the Patriots in overtime after leading 28-3.

The Falcons lost four fourth-quarter leads last season, when they also became the first team in NFL history to lose back-to-back games after leading by 15 or more in the fourth quarter.

And just last December, the Falcons fell to Tampa Bay after leading 24-7.

But against their historical rivals in New Orleans, the Falcons didn't fold. Rather, Ryan pulled off his 41st career comeback. Ryan needed just one play to burn the Saints' defense for his fourth completion of more than 30 yards in the game — and his second long connection with Patterson. The versatile running back beat rookie Paulson Adebode down the right sideline to give him six catches for 126 yards on the day.

"That's 'Matty Ice,'" Patterson said. "He's not nervous, he's been doing this his whole career."

STATS AND SUCH

Even with top Falcons receiver Calvin Ridley unavailable while addressing mental health issues, Ryan completed 23 of 30 passes without a turnover. Russell Gage caught seven passes for 64 yards, rookie tight end Kyle Pitts caught three for 62 yards and Zaccarias caught three for 58 yards.

Saints head coach Sean Payton started Siemian on the heels of Jameis Winston's season-ending knee injury a week ago, and intermittently mixed in Taysom Hill behind center.

Siemian passed for 249 yards and two touchdowns without an interception, and Hill completed both of his passes for 33 yards. But both quarterbacks were hindered by a combination of penalties, dropped passes and protection breakdowns.

"They played better than us today," Payton said of the Falcons. "We did not do the things that winning teams do consistently in our league, and we have got to get that corrected."

James Vaughters' blind-side sack and strip of Siemian set up Atlanta's final TD after linebacker Steven Means recovered and returned the fumble 32 yards to the New Orleans 6.

But New Orleans rallied for three straight TDs in the final eight minutes, starting with Siemian's 5-yard pass to Marquez Callaway and Alvin Kamara's 2-yard scoring run with 4:35 to go.

The Saints failed on a 2-point try after Kamara's touchdown, but New Orleans sacked Ryan for the first two times all game to force a punt and set up its late, go-ahead possession.

"You'd love to have a comfortable lead. Everybody wants to be comfortable," Falcons first-year coach Arthur Smith said. "That's not the NFL, not when you're on the road playing a good team."

"Our mindset has been we are going to finish games," Smith added. "This shows more about their mental toughness."

turnover, a questionable call that took away an end zone interception, two missed extra points and a false start proved too much for the New Orleans Saints to overcome in a 23-21 loss to the Tennessee Titans on Sunday, Nov. 14 at Nissan Stadium in Nashville, Tenn.

It was the Saints' second consecutive loss and dropped them to 5-4. Tennessee improved to 8-2.

The Saints had a chance to send the game to overtime after quarterback Trevor Siemian's 15-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Marquez Callaway made it 23-21 Tennessee with 1:16 to play. With Taysom Hill in at quarterback for the two-point play, the Saints were penalized for a false start by tight end Adam Trautman. Siemian came back in and his pass to running back Mark Ingram II from the seven-yard line was incomplete.

The comeback was necessary after New Orleans returner Deonte Harris fumbled the kickoff to start the second half, giving Tennessee the ball at the 19-yard line. The Titans quickly scored on a 2-yard pass from quarterback Ryan Tannehill to MyCole Pruitt, which increased Tennessee's lead to 20-6.

Another key play in the game came when the Saints appeared to have stopped a Tennessee scoring drive in the first half when Marcus Williams intercepted Tannehill in the end zone but the Saints were penalized for roughing the passer by linebacker Kaden Elliss. Later in the drive Demario Davis was called for pass interference, giving Tennessee the ball first and goal at the 1. Tennessee scored on the next play on a dive by Tannehill for a 13-6 halftime lead.

The Saints scored their first touchdown on an 11-yard pass from Siemian to Tre'Quan Smith in the second quarter. The score was set up by a 46-yard completion to Deonte Harris. Kicker Brian Johnson missed the extra-point attempt, the first of two missed extra points.

New Orleans entered the game without offensive stars Alvin Kamara, Terron Armstead and Michael Thomas and playing its second game without starting quarterback Jameis Winston. Siemian got the start again at quarterback and was 19 of 34 for 298 yards and two touchdown passes. He was sacked four times, all in the first half.

Ingram took over the load from Kamara and was effective, rushing the ball 14 times for 47 yards and scoring the team's second touchdown on a 13-yard scamper through the right side. The team's 2011 first-round draft pick also set up a 20-yard Johnson field goal with a 34-yard reception from Siemian in the fourth quarter. Ingram had four receptions for 61 yards.

Defensive end Marcus Davenport had a strong game for New Orleans with two sacks.

INGRAM SETS RECORD: Ingram has added another line to an already impressive resume': all-time leading rusher for the Saints.

The former Heisman Trophy winner and 2011 first-round draft pick out of Alabama entered Sunday's game against Tennessee with 6,077 career rushing yards with the Saints, 19 yards behind Saints Hall of Famer Deuce McAllister. Ingram accomplished the mark in the third quarter with a 6-yard run.

GAME SUMMARIES

Week 11: Philadelphia Eagles 40, New Orleans Saints 29; November 21, 2021 @ Lincoln Financial Field—A lengthy injury report and the rushing attack of the Philadelphia Eagles was too much for the New Orleans Saints to overcome as they dropped their third consecutive game, this time a 40-29 defeat to the Eagles on Sunday, Nov. 21 at Lincoln Financial Field in Philadelphia.

The loss dropped the Saints to 5-5 with a Thanksgiving night game coming up against the Buffalo Bills at Caesars Superdome.

"We didn't do the things necessary to win in this league," Saints Coach Sean Payton said. "All of us have to do a better job. It's going to be a short week."

The Eagles (5-6) ran the ball at will against the Saints, carrying the ball 50 times for 242 yards. Philadelphia also forced Saints quarterback Trevor Siemian into two interceptions, the second one returned 51 yards for a touchdown by cornerback Darius Slay toward the end of the second quarter.

Mark Ingram II, starting at running back in place of an injured Alvin Kamara, carried the ball 16 times for 88 yards and caught six passes for 25 yards. He lost a fumble early in the third quarter, the team's third turnover.

Siemian, who replaced Jameis Winston at quarterback after Winston was lost for the season to an injury sustained against Tampa Bay on Oct. 31, had an uneven performance, completing 22 of 40 passes for 214 yards with three touchdown passes (18 yards to Adam Trautman, 26 yards to Marquez Callaway, four yards to Lil'Jordan Humphrey), a 17-yard touchdown run and the two interceptions. Tight end Adam Trautman, who had five receptions for 58 yards and a touchdown, left the game in the fourth quarter with an injury.

In addition to Kamara and Winston, the Saints were missing three-fifths of their starting offensive line (Terron Armstead, Andrus Peat and Ryan Ramczyk) and star receiver Michael Thomas.

The New Orleans defense was relatively healthy but struggled to contain Eagles quarterback Jalen Hurts and running backs Miles Sanders and Jordan Howard. Hurts had two short touchdown runs in the first quarter and put the game away with a 24-yard touchdown run with 3:59 to play. Philadelphia kicker Jake Elliott converted on all four of his field-goal attempts (50, 37, 33 and 47 yards).

Defensive end Cameron Jordan recorded a sack, giving him 98.5 for his career.

The Saints scored 15 consecutive points in the fourth quarter - 22 total for the period - to get back into the game. It was the third consecutive fourth quarter rally for the Saints (22 points in fourth quarter of loss to Atlanta, nine points in loss to Tennessee) but they came up short each time. It is the team's first three-game losing streak since the 2016 season.

Week 12: Buffalo Bills 31, New Orleans Saints 6; November 25, 2021 @ Caesars Superdome—On the night that legendary New Orleans quarterback Drew Brees said goodbye to Saints fans, the New Orleans offense had one of its least effective games as the Buffalo Bills cruised to a 31-6 victory on Thanksgiving night at the Caesars Superdome.

Quarterback Trevor Siemian, making his fourth start in place of an injured Jameis Winston, couldn't get anything working early as the Saints lost their fourth consecutive game to drop to 5-6. New Orleans had 64 yards of offense at halftime and just 190 for the game. The Saints didn't get on the scoreboard until 14:54 remained when Siemian hit tight end Nick Vannett with an 11-yard touchdown pass. The New Orleans offense was decimated by injuries. The Saints played without their two top running backs (Alvin Kamara, Mark Ingram), their starting quarterback (Winston), their star receiver (Michael Thomas), their All-Pro right tackle (Ryan Ramczyk), their Pro Bowl left guard (Andrus Peat) and their top tight end (Adam Trautman). Taysom Hill was the team's backup quarterback and took no snaps.

Siemian was 17 of 29 for 163 yards with one touchdown and one interception and Tony Jones Jr. was the top rusher with 27 yards on 16 carries. Ty Montgomery was the top receiver with five catches for 31 yards. The Saints were 5 of 13 on third down and had just 12 first downs.

The defense was missing three of its top four defensive ends but held tough through a 10-0 first half, coming up with two interceptions (Bradley Roby and Kwon Alexander) and two sacks (Carl Granderson, Kaden Elliss). But Bills quarterback Josh Allen and his offense eventually broke the game open in the second half, scoring on a 5-yard pass to Stefon Diggs, a 24-yard pass to Dawson Knox, his second touchdown of the game, and a 23-yard pass to Matt Breida.

The Saints will play host to the Dallas Cowboys (7-4) next Thursday at the Caesars Superdome. While Winston and Thomas are out for the season, the Saints could get several of their injured star players back for the game. The four-game losing streak is the Saints' longest since the 2015 season.

PAYTON'S PLACE AMONG HEAD COACHES

Sean Payton's had an impressive run as head coach since being hired. After the team had captured only two division titles prior to 2006, the club has seven under Payton, including four straight from 2017-20, the first time the club won their division in consecutive seasons and only the third time an NFC team's won their division four straight seasons since 2002 realignment. The franchise has had 15 winning seasons in its 55-season history, nine under Payton's watch. Payton has the highest winning percentage (.623) and most wins (157) among the 16 Saints coaches, ranked 22nd all-time, fifth among active coaches. With 148 regular season victories in 234 regular season games coaches, Payton needs two more wins to have the fifth-fewest games to reach 150 victories with Pro Football Hall of Fame and former Pittsburgh Steelers Head Coach Chuck Noll reaching the milestone in 240 contests.

HIGHER EDUCATION

39 schools are represented on the Saints' 2021 53-man roster. Of that total, 13 are represented by multiple Saints, led by five from Ohio State (DE Jaylyn Holmes, S Malcolm Jenkins, Lattimore, CB Bradley Roby and LB Pete Werner).

ROSTER ROLL CALL

Of the players currently on the Saints' active roster, 41 were on the active roster, a reserve list or the practice squad at the end of 2020. 23 have less than four years of prior NFL experience. The following's a breakdown of New Orleans' roster by experience (year entering): 13 years-1, 11 years-2, 10 years-1, 9 years-2, 8 years-2, 7 years-3, 6 years-3, 5 years-8, 4 years-6, 3 years-7, 2 years-7, 1 year-3 rookies-6.

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT

A spot on the practice squad is another avenue to eventually get onto the active roster and have the opportunity to contribute. The Saints have ten players on their current 2021 53-man roster who moved up to their 53-man roster after being on NFL practice squads, all who spent time on the Saints practice roster before being promoted. Below is an overview of players on the club's current 53-man roster with extensive practice squad experience.

After appearing in three regular season games in 2017 and posting two receptions for 12 yards and one touchdown in the 2018 NFC Championship, TE Garrett Griffin was elevated to the club's active roster multiple times in 2020, playing in four games with three starts, serving as a blocking presence and has appeared in all seven in 2021, receiving his first start vs. Tampa Bay on October 31, posting a career-high three receptions for 30 yards.

RB Dwayne Washington participated on the Saints practice squad briefly in 2018 after spending most of the 2016 and 2017 seasons on Detroit's active roster. Through development, the tailback, in addition to his running skills, has developed into a core special teams player with ten stops, including one vs. Buffalo on Thursday night to set a career-high of five for 2021.

TE Juwan Johnson was signed by New Orleans out of Oregon, where he spent his graduate transfer season following the 2020 NFL Draft as a wideout. Recording four receptions for 39 yards seven contests, Johnson spent the majority of the season on the practice squad. Converted to tight end in 2021, Johnson's taken advantage of his frame and participation in his first full offseason strength and conditioning program and in the season-opening win over Green Bay, he posted three receptions for 21 yards and two touchdowns. Overall, Johnson has nine receptions for 108 yards with three touchdowns.

After spending the last six weeks of the 2019 season and the first 16 weeks of the 2020 campaign on the team's practice squad, linebacker Andrew Dowell was elevated to the club's active roster for the regular season finale at Carolina. In two preseason games in 2021, he posted five tackles, one forced fumbles and two coverage spots to secure a roster spot. In Week 3 at New England, Dowell recorded the first blocked punt that an opponent had against the Patriots since the 2015 season.

OFFENSIVE NOTES

Ahead is a synopsis of several returning players and newcomers through the draft and free agency to the 2021 Saints offensive line:

Left Tackle Terron Armstead - The club's first third round draft choice in 2013 out of Arkansas-Pine Bluff, Armstead impressed scouts by running the fastest 40-yard dash time (4.71) by an offensive lineman in the history of the NFL Scouting Combine. He's opened 92 regular season games and nine postseason contests and has been selected to the Pro Bowl the past three seasons.

Right Tackle Ryan Ramczyk - The Black and Gold used their second first round selection in the 2017 NFL Draft to snag Ramczyk out of Wisconsin, one of the best linemen in the entire draft. After opening all 16 games and both postseason contests in 2017 and being selected as a PFWA All-Rookie, he was an AP All-Pro selection in 2018, not missing an offensive snap in both postseason contests and all 15 regular games. Ramczyk opened all 16 games in 2019 to serve as a dominating bookend to Armstead, earning first-team All-Pro. Opening every contest and playing a key role in blocking for a run offense that averaged over 200 yards per game in a three-game stretch for the first time since 2018 in three contests and finished ranked sixth in the league in rushing offense. In 2020, he was selected as a second-team AP All-Pro.

Center/Guard Erik McCoy - New Orleans traded up in the second round of the 2019 NFL Draft to select this standout from Texas A&M, who was a three-year starter, anchoring the middle of the Aggies offensive line. In 2018, he was a team captain who paved the way for the SEC's leading rusher and in 2019 was the first Saint in franchise history to start at center in Week One, opening all 16 regular season contests. McCoy opened all 16 contests and both postseason games in 2020 for the NFL's sixth-ranked rushing offense. McCoy has started six contests at center in 2021.

Guard/Center Cesar Ruiz - The hard-working, talented and intelligent lineman is a perfect fit for New Orleans' culture with the 24th pick in the 2020 NFL Draft out of Michigan. The three-year letterman played in 36 games in college, starting his last 31 including the final 26 at center, earning All-Big Ten in 2019. Ruiz settled in at right guard in the last 15 games, with nine start, as well as both postseason contests. When McCoy suffered a lower leg injury in the first quarter of the season-opening win over Green Bay, Ruiz transitioned over to his natural position, where the Saints did not give up a sack and has started the past four contests in the middle. He returned to right guard on October 25 at Seattle.

Offensive Lineman Calvin Throckmorton - This 6-5, 309 pound former four-year starter on the Oregon line was signed as an undrafted free agent in 2020, possessing the flexibility to play all five positions along the offensive line. After spending his rookie season on the practice squad, Throckmorton increased strength in the 2021 offseason and made strides in training camp, securing a roster spot. In his NFL debut in the season opening-win, Throckmorton was called to play right guard following a lower leg injury to McCoy in the first quarter, subsequently starting the past four contests. Hurst moved into the lineup for three games at left tackle in place of an injured Armstead at left guard in place of an injured Peat and now at right tackle for an injured Ramczyk.

Tackle Jordan Mills - This former Louisiana Tech standout from Napoleonville has played in 92 career regular season games with 84 starts for Chicago, Buffalo and Arizona. In 2021 he has served a valuable role on the line as a top backup for Armstead and Ramczyk.

Blocking for 1,000-yard rushers in each of his three college seasons, the former Brother Martin standout settled in at center in 2017, where he was a first-team All-SEC selection and a Rimington Trophy finalist. Clapp made his first career start at left guard in the 2018 regular season finale. In his third season, Clapp provides depth on the interior of the Saints line and has also served as a jumbo tight end, playing in 25 games with four starts, including eight contests in 2020, as well as making his postseason debut in the wild card win over Chicago. In his career, he has posted 15 coverage stops, including a career-high five in 2021.0

Williams, in his seventh season, has continued to add to his versatility the past two seasons, flipping between cornerback and free safety on multiple occasions as well as increasing his contributions to the coverage units, where he posted four regular season stops in 2020 and his first post-season coverage tackle in the NFC wild card playoff win over Chicago.

2 Jameis Winston

Pos.: QB Ht.: 6-4 Wt.: 231 Exp.: 7 College: Florida State

Regular Season Career GP/GS (83/77): 2021:(7/7)

2021 REVIEW: vs. Green Bay (9/12): Made his first start for the Saints and passed for 148 yards on 14-of-20 passing with a 130.8 quarterback rating. Winston threw 5 touchdown passes, with a long of 55 yards on a touchdown pass to Deonte Harris. His five touchdown passes tied a career-high from when he threw five touchdowns against the Eagles (11/22/15) as a member of Tampa Bay. He also finished with 37 rushing yards on six attempts. Winston earned his first victory as the starting quarterback for the black and gold. In his first start with the Saints, Winston became the third player since 1950 to throw for five touchdowns in his first start with a team, finishing 14-of-20 for 148 yards and the five touchdowns. Winston's 148 passing yards is the fewest yards with five passing touchdowns since 1948. With zero interceptions, Winston becomes the first quarterback in NFL history to throw five touchdown passes with no interceptions in his first career start with a new team in a season-opener. Overall, Winston becomes the 7th quarterback with five touchdown passes and no interceptions in a season opener, and first since Baltimore QB Lamar Jackson did so at Miami on September 8, 2019. Winston became the 33rd player to start a game at quarterback for New Orleans, and the 11th to win in his first start. The victory is Winston's third career opening day victory and his first career win over Green Bay. at Carolina (9/19): Made his second start as a Saint, completing 11-of-22 passes for 111 yards and two interceptions. Winston got the Saints on the scoreboard with his first rushing touchdown of the season with 14:37 remaining in the fourth quarter. Winston eclipsed 20,000 career passing yards against the Panthers. at New England (9/26): Made his third start as a Saint, completing 13-of-21 passes for 128 yards and two scores. The win Sunday marks the 18th team Winston has defeated in his career as a starter. vs. N.Y. Giants (10/3): Winston completed 17-of-23 passes for 226 and one score on the afternoon, without having a chance to see the field in overtime. Winston's 58-yard completion to Marquez Callaway on the opening drive of the second half was his longest completion as a Saint, regular season or postseason. Winston completed 12 consecutive passes at one point in the contest to tie a career-high. This was Winston's first start in the Caesars Superdome as a Saint Sunday. at Washington (10/10): Made his fifth start as a Saint and also made his 75th career start Sunday, completing 15-of-30 passes for 279 yards and 4 scores with a 108.2 passer rating. Also had 6 rushes for 26 yards. Winston threw a career-long 72-yard touchdown pass to Deonte Harris in the first quarter, the longest of his career. Marquez Callaway also caught a 49-yard touchdown pass to end the first half; the last time the Saints had two scoring plays of 45 yards, or more was on December 18, 2016, at Arizona when WR Brandon Cooks had 45-yard and 65-yard touchdown receptions from Drew Brees. Sunday was the first time Winston has thrown 2 TD passes over 45 yards in his career. Winston's 4 touchdown passes, and 279 passing yards were the most in his Saints career. Winston is now 1-1 as a starter against Washington. The Saints win gives Winston at least a .500 record against 15 opponents. Washington becomes the 19th team Winston has defeated as a starter. at Seattle (10/25): Winston made his sixth start as a Saint on Monday, completing 19-of-35 passes for 222 yards and one score. He also rushed eight times for 40 yards, his season high and also his most rushing yards with the Saints. Winston led the Saints on their longest scoring drive of the season, which lasted 19 plays for a total of 86 yards and accounted for a total of 10:16. Jameis Winston now has a 2-1 record against Seattle, where he has completed 69-of-107 passes (64.5%) for 666 yards with five touchdowns, and one interception. Winston now has a winning record against six of the 28 teams he has started a contest against. In his first Monday night start since 2017, Winston improved his record on Monday nights to 2-1. vs. Tampa Bay (10/31): Made his first career start against his former team, going 6-of-10 passing for 56 yards and a touchdown with four rushes for 40 yards. On a scramble in the second quarter, Winston suffered a left knee injury and did not return to the game. Winston was placed on the Reserve/Injured list with a torn ACL/MCL in his left knee, which will sideline him for the rest of the 2021 season, (11/6).

POSTGAME NOTES AND QUOTES

BUFFALO BILLS VS. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 2021 • CAESARS SUPERDOME SAINTS HEAD COACH SEAN PAYTON

Opening Statement: "Let's start with the obvious. Obviously, we were not very good tonight. It was a long game, especially offensively. I thought the two things that stood out were that we had trouble with any type of balance, protection. I thought our return game struggled, especially in the kickoff return. I thought we hung in there defensively for the first half. We had some takeaways, but it wasn't very good. Disappointing."

On the first adjustment he will make from this game: "It's hard to do that without reviewing it yet. In fairness to the question, watch the tape, look closely at who's doing what, and we'll get back to work on Sunday."

On Taysom Hill's role this week: "He was still going through the week. We knew he wasn't going to be able to play quarterback this week, but he's listed as full relative to being up. That was his foot."

On his role once healthy: "Again, we'll see. We'll look at everything right now. Obviously, we have to."

On Ian Book being inactive and Taysom Hill active: "[Taysom Hill] was just like last week. He was our No. 2 quarterback, right? Last week was the same way. Obviously, his role would be limited, but it was the same as last week's game."

On the fourth down attempt with lost yardage: "We were late with the get off. The ball was not snapped, but we had guys moving. We will look at it on film, but the timing and the get-off were poor."

On his aggressive play-calling: "I think a little bit. I think we were going to try to return kicks as best as we could, bring them out. How do you create points? I think going in we felt like we had to be a little bit more aggressive. (Buffalo) is a team that's capable of scoring. We weren't going to be able to just score 14 points or 17 points and win a game against a team like this."

On if he can recall a time where he felt like he needed to be this aggressive on certain types of decisions: "I can't remember. I'm sure. There were some tough seasons, but it's now. You deal with the now. Obviously, it was difficult, and I am sure it was difficult for the television viewing audience."

On the offensive struggles: "More importantly being a head coach, the premium on winning is so important with the amount of work you put in for everyone involved – players, coaches, trainers, equipment, everyone. There's so much that goes into it. That's what you think about."

On if the offensive struggles weigh on him being an offensive-minded coach: "No. It just weighs on you, period. It's something that, obviously, we have to look closely at everything we're doing and who we are doing it with. It's not like these players are going to come walking through the hallway. It has to be from within."

On his review of Trevor Siemian's performance: "We just finished the game. It's hard to give a review. He struggled. We struggled blocking him. We struggled running. I think it's going to be difficult to do a lot of anything if you can't block him and you can't have some balance."

On Josh Allen: "Shoot, he's big and athletic. There were probably three or four plays, either 2nd or 3rd down, where all of a sudden, he gets into the defense for a first down. He's extremely talented."

On Siemian's interception: "I think he forced it in the two-minute drill outside. I'm sure he will see that on film. Just seeing it, that's something he will see."

On how he keeps the focus one game at a time after four-straight losses: "You have to focus on the next game, the same way if you have three or four-straight wins. It is very narrow relative to who the next opponent is. How do we change the results? How do we improve? That is where our focus will be."

On the two-point conversion attempt: “I’ll be honest with you, and I’m aware if you’re a pretty good offensive team, it’s probably not a problem. If you’re not a good offensive team, which is what I would say that’s where we are at right now, it probably is a problem. Two yards on a handful of downs tonight were a struggle, but I understand the question.”

On if the short week had to do with the performance: “I don’t think so. I think both teams (were dealing with the same thing) – it is what it is.”

POSTGAME NOTES AND QUOTES

BUFFALO BILLS VS. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS
THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 2021 • CAESARS SUPERDOME
NEW ORLEANS SAINTS PLAYER QUOTES

QB TREVOR SIEMIAN

On how he played tonight: “Not good enough to win. I didn’t play very well.”

On why the offense has struggled in the past four weeks: “It just feels hard. We’re just not getting anything going early in games and today we kind of allowed it to snowball. We put our defense in a bad situation, so, we have to get (the offense) right.”

On what happened during the critical missed fourth down conversion in the first half: “Yeah, it was just a miscommunication with the snap and the cadence.”

On how he will prepare to adjust his preparation to have more success: “You just try to get some first downs and get some momentum back. You have to play it one play at a time. When you get first downs, good things happen from there. (It felt like) there were way too many three-and-outs today.”

LB KWON ALEXANDER

On the mood of the team after losing four straight: “Everybody is upset. We’re trying to figure it out. But we will figure it out. We have to get back to the drawing board and get ready for next week.”

On if there was a tackling issue: “We just have to get better at every little thing; tackling, coverage, communication, everything. Everybody has to work together, figure out a plan, and execute.”

On how hard it is on the defense when the offense is struggling to score: “It’s our job not to let the other team score. We have to hold our offense down and pick them up. We have to figure out a way to keep them energized.”

POSTGAME NOTES AND QUOTES

BUFFALO BILLS VS. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 2021 • CAESARS SUPERDOME NEW ORLEANS SAINTS PLAYER QUOTES

C ERIK McCOY

On the impact of a changing offensive starting lineup: “I wouldn’t really say so. It’s all guys that have experience, all guys that played together before. Like I said, we just did not play our best ball today.”

On the feeling of snowballing offensively, and how to get out of it: “I think it goes back to practice this week. We’ve got to come in, we have to pay attention, even closer attention. It all comes down to the execution in practice and in games, we just have to do it.”

On the difficulty converting third downs and its impact on the offense: “Yeah, when you come off the field on third down, three and outs, you don’t get anything going. You don’t get the run game going. Nobody’s getting their touches, and it’s just hard.”

DE CAMERON JORDAN

On a strong first-half performance, then the point of team morale falling: “As a defender, if we can get one turnover, we can get two. If we can get two turnovers, we can get three, and we didn’t get enough turnovers today. So, I mean, four quarters, no spirit diminished. We knew what the emphasis was, we needed to create another turnovers and we didn’t, so we have to get better from that.”

On issues created by Josh Allen, especially after facing Jalen Hurts: “I would say after seeing (Jalen) Hurts, probably not. You feel like you’re aware that he (Josh Allen) can stretch some plays out with his feet. I think we did a good job of rounding him (Josh Allen) early and often. He was hit a few times, we got two turnovers out of it, but again, if you can get two turnovers, you can get three. If you can affect the quarterback every other play, you can affect the quarterback every play, and again, we have to put it on our defense right now. We knew we had to come in and take the load, and we’ve got to be who we think we are.”

On the burden on defense to generate turnovers or impact the quarterback on every play: “What do you mean? We are a team. Our offense is dinged up, that is no excuse. It is (a) next man up mentality. Our defense is relatively healthy in terms of our linebacker corps and our secondary. So, we (the defense) have to be the strength. We (the defense) have to be more than we are in this game, more than we were in this game.”

BUFFALO BILLS VS. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 2021 • CAESARS SUPERDOME BUFFALO BILLS HEAD COACH SEAN McDERMOTT

Opening comments: "Happy Thanksgiving to everyone and their families out there. I really appreciate the support that we got from Bills mafia down here the last couple of days. It was awesome to see. Happy Thanksgiving to everyone back home in Buffalo. I can't wait to see you guys back home."

On kickoff coverage: "Kickoff coverage was outstanding. Special teams, I thought, did a terrific job giving us a spark that I think we needed."

On Isaiah McKenzie's being inactive: "He's a competitive guy. I understand that he wants to be out there, so those emotions are real, and I get that."

On Marquez Stevenson's performance: "This is his first game, so there is work to be done there, but I thought that he handled himself fairly well in his first game. More than anything, I thought that he came in and, having not played, in particular, in a few months, he handled himself well. It's really about, number one, taking care of the football. That is the number one thing that I am looking for."

On the injury to Tre'Davious White: "Don't know at this point. I think that we will know more in the next couple of days."

On what goes through his head when he sees White injured: "To be honest, I care for all of them the same, regardless of the caliber of player. So, we just pray that he's back and we'll see where it goes. We just take it one day at a time."

On Dane Jackson's performance: "I thought that he did a good job. He's been in that position before, in terms of having to come in, whether it's been for Tre (White) or Levi (Wallace); and he usually handles himself well just like he did tonight."

On if Matt Breida gave the team a spark: "I thought that both backs ran well. I thought that we had a couple of opportunities overall in the first half as an offense where we didn't come away with points, where we should have come away with more points. We have to look at that. Overall, we were able to overcome the turnovers in the first half. I thought that our defense did a good job with a sudden change defense right there. I thought that both backs in the second half, in particular, ran strong."

On the team's kick coverage: "Awesome. I'll give the guys credit. I trust them. We wanted to kick one out of the end zone when we were up a little bit and had a little bit of a lead there. That was about 20 yards away, and they start looking at me. I said, "What do you want?" They said, "Let's try and pin them down there." I trust them. I think that is the one that got them on the 11. So, it's fun to watch."

On what he enjoyed about the special teams play: "They were hungry. That's a really good returner as well (for the Saints). I think they are one of the tops in the league with their return game. And, our kickoff coverage was outstanding. Our offense moved the ball well enough that we could get in some sky punts and some pooch punt situations. I thought that Matt Haack did a great job as well."

On how much the defensive line took last week's loss personally: "By the way they played, the message hit home. That is what I expected, to be honest with you. That is what veteran leaders do. They lead by their play. The physicality of our defense is where I thought it needed to be."

On going for it on fourth down when the team could have kicked a field goal: “I thought that it was a great call by Coach (Brian) Daboll and well executed. That’s what you want. You want to be able to trust your players. There will be other situations where we go for it (or) do not go for it. At the end of the day, I am always trying to put the team in the right position to win the game based on score (and based on situation.”

On why Dawson Knox is having so much success this season: “He’s just confident. Over half of this game is mental. I think that his confidence is where it needs to be this year. He’s had success, and he’s been able to bounce back from some moments where he needed to reset. I think that shows how mentally tough he is.”

On what it’s like to see Knox come back from injury and resume having a good year: “Yeah, that shows how mentally tough he is. It’s great to have him out there. I know that Josh (Allen) has a lot of faith in him.”

On the team’s ability to bounce back from a loss: “Yeah, it’s a resilient group. I think that they respond to a challenge. And, we will be challenged this week as we look ahead to the Patriots. That will be a big challenge for us.”

On the team cutting down on its penalties: “You have got to make it a conscious effort to play with good technique and fundamentals, and move your feet and get your hands inside. That is all three sides of the ball. I know that we had the one penalty on the quarterback. I thought that they should have been called for one, quite honestly, on Josh (Allen). It is really frustrating that that does not get called. (It is) really frustrating. That is clear, clear as day to see that. I just want to protect my quarterback. Yeah, overall, I thought that we did a better job playing disciplined and playing with better technique. So, it’s got to continue.”

POSTGAME NOTES AND QUOTES

BUFFALO BILLS VS. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS THURSDAY, November 25 2021 • CAESARS SUPERDOME BUFFALO BILLS PLAYER QUOTES

QB JOSH ALLEN

What did getting the ball to Diggs do for the offense? “That’s the type of player he is. He’s extremely special when the ball is in his hands. Things like run after catch, making guys miss, and making plays for us. I’m glad we got some running game going tonight which forced them to give us some different looks and Diggs took advantage of it. We’re going to need everyone going forward in order to start stacking wins.”

What did he see on Diggs touchdown? “Diggs gets open basically. He’s a route technician and I think everybody knows that. I do not know what you are supposed to do when you are out there with him because he’s very smart with the way he sets you up and the quickness and speed’s unbelievable. I saw him open and I just tried to get it to him as quickly as possibly before he got out too wide. See open, throw open, and he made a great play.”

What did you talk about after the second touchdown was erased at the end of the first half?

“He made a great play. I put the ball in harms way a little too much there and fortunately he came down with it and we had a few guys down field. There’s a few things we need to clean up and things that can’t happen, but we’ll focus on that.”

Does coach McDermott have faith in you to make those decisions in big-down situations?

“You want coach to have supreme faith in you especially on 4th down situations where analytics say one thing, but sometimes the coaches’ guts say another thing. Hopefully he sides with us more times than not because we’ve got guys that want to make plays and want to do everything they can for this team. Thankful he let us go for it there.”

Was being more involved in run game partially due to watching what Eagles did last week with the Saints?

“I think we took a couple things from them. It’s really just stuff we’ve had for a long time that we kind of just threw back in. I think coach did a great job of sprinkling those in when he did.”

What’s your reaction when you see those playoff brackets? “We don’t really focus on that. It is just one game at a time that we can focus on. We know that we’re not going to get in with seven wins, we know we’re not, not going to make it with four losses. We have to continue to find ways to play to the best of our abilities as these weeks go by. We’ve got a long week to look at the next opponent and go from there.”

When a guy like Tre’Davious White goes down, what does that do for your football team?

“Prayers up for him. I hope nothing is too serious and I know all the guys in the locker room are praying for him and hurting with him. You can’t say a single bad thing about that man. He comes in and busts his ass every day. He’s such a great teammate and treats everybody the right way. He just does the little things well that not many people see, but that’s why he’s so good. Hoping again it’s not too serious.”

S MICAH HYDE

On washing away last week? “We knew what happened last week. We couldn’t wait to get back. Luckily it was Thursday, Thanksgiving game and we were able to come in here and get a win. We’re just happy to get this win.”

On the large number of Bills fans at the game? “It’s not a surprise to me. This happens every week. Win or lose.”

On the performance of the defense tonight? “Same as last week. We knew what we did last week where we kind of laid an egg. So we had to come in this week and give our offense good field position and take the ball away and we were able to do that today, but we need to be able to continue to do this every week.”

On taking back first place in the AFC East? “It’s still a long season, a very long season. Good to hopefully get this weekend off, get some rest, spend some time with the family, celebrate Thanksgiving tomorrow and get ready for our Monday Night game.”
