GAME SUMMARY

The Minnesota Vikings (4-2-1) host the New Orleans Saints (5-1) at U.S. Bank Stadium for the 3rd time since Week 1 of last season. The game, scheduled to kick off at 7:20 p.m. CT, is the 34th contest between the two franchises and the 18th played in Minnesota.

The Saints are coming off a 24-23 road win over Baltimore, their 5th consecutive win, the 2nd-longest active streak in the NFL (Rams, 7). The Vikings captured their 3rd straight victory in a 37-17 road victory at the New York Jets, giving Minnesota a 7-1 record in October the last 2 seasons (4-1 in 2017, 3-0 in 2018).

Minnesota enters Week 8 ranking 13th in the NFL in total yards per game with a 380.4 mark through 7 games. Vikings QB Kirk Cousins has thrown for 1,921 yards, the 2nd-highest total in the NFL. Cousins is 1 of 4 QBs (Jared Goff, Philip Rivers and Matt Ryan) league wide to rank in the top 10 in each of the following categories - completion percentage, passing yards and passing TDs.

WR Adam Thielen is on a record-breaking pace, recording 67 receptions (1st in the NFL), the most in NFL history through the 1st 7 games of a season. Thielen's 822 receiving yards, also 1st in the NFL, is tied for the 4th most through the 1st 7 games of a season in NFL history. Thielen and Stefon Diggs, who ranks 7th in the NFL with 48 receptions, are the WR duo in the NFL to rank in the top 15 in catches this season.

The Vikings defense, which ranks 11th in yards allowed (345.9 per game) in 2018, has held opponents to a 23.4%-3rd down conversion rate, the lowest in the NFL. Vikings DE Danielle Hunter is tied for 2nd in the NFL with 7.5.

IN MEMORY OF

TONY SPARANO

1961 - 2018

Our hearts go out to Jeanette and the entire Sparano family as we all mourn the loss of Tony. Tony was a passionate and driven individual who cared deeply about his family, and especially enjoyed spending time with his grandchildren. Tony's presence within the Vikings organization will be deeply missed. We are only thinking of Tony's family during this incredibly difficult time. We ask that the entire NFL and Vikings family keep the Sparanos in their thoughts.

- Vikings Owners Mark and Zygi Wilf - 7/22/18

I love Tony Sparano. He was a great teacher, a grinder of a worker and had a toughness and fighting spirit that showed in our linemen. He was a great husband, father and grandfather and a great friend to me. This is just sinking in for us but Tony will be sorely missed by all.

- Vikings Head Coach Mike Zimmer - 7/22/18

I am at a loss for words with Tony's sudden passing. Tony loved the game of football and his players. More importantly, he was a strong man of faith who treasured his family. My heart is with the Sparanos today. As an organization we will support them in whatever ways we can.

- Vikings General Manager Rick Spielman - 7/22/18

IN MEMORY OF

FRED ZAMBERLETTI

1932 - 2018

The Minnesota Vikings family is devastated by the loss of our dear friend Fred Zamberletti. Fred was a staple of the franchise since its founding, helping build the Vikings from an expansion club in 1961 to a team ingrained in the fabric of life for Minnesota and the Upper Midwest. Fred worked tirelessly, at one point building a streak of 1,049 consecutive Vikings games attended, and was loved by everyone throughout the organization – players, coaches, and staff. He cared deeply about the health of his players as well as their lives off the field. With his incredible stories and his passion for the team, he was respected by us as owners. Each of us inside the Vikings has our own personal memories we shared with Fred and those will never be forgotten. Our thoughts are with the entire Zamberletti family.

- Vikings Owners Zygi and Mark Wilf - 9/2/18

Fred Zamberletti was the epitome of a Minnesota Vikings icon. He was more to players than just an athletic trainer; he was a friend, a mentor and a father figure who earned respect and admiration from everyone he encountered. If there was a category in the Hall of Fame for athletic trainers, Fred would be at the top of the list for inductees. We will miss him dearly.

- Vikings General Manager Rick Spielman - 9/2/18

When I reflect upon the legacy of Fred Zamberletti, I think of a man who was loyal, intelligent, hard-working, tough, and dedicated. Fred was a true Renaissance man. He was incredibly knowledgeable about wide-ranging subjects and could capture your attention with his storytelling ability. We rarely discussed football and primarily focused on family, faith, music and life. Fred had a powerful and unique ability to relate to everyone and was a man with a huge heart who deeply loved God and spent every day striving to make the world a better place. My prayers are with the Zamberletti family.

- Vikings Chief Operating Officer Kevin Warren - 9/2/18

MIKE ZIMMER QUOTES FROM MONDAY, OCTOBER 22, 2018

Good team win yesterday. Part of our goal this last week was to take care of the football which I thought we did well. Had four turnovers. I thought our punter, Matt Wile, had a good game. Flipped the field position. Special teams played well. It's nice to finish out the game the way we did. It will be good to get back home in front of our fans this week. We need them to be loud and rowdy on a Sunday night.

Q: With the third down defense, how much of it is what you're doing on first and second down and how much of it is the mentality of getting off the field?

A: It's hard to say. The worst thing we've been doing defensively is first and second down. We haven't been very good there. Recently, we've been better. We work real hard at third downs. We've been working real hard on first and second downs the last few weeks. Guys are executing. We change up some calls here and there every week and try to figure out what is the best way to stop them and guys have executed.

Q: When you have a streak on third down like you had going, is that a point of pride or discussed at all?

A: Not really by me. I don't really know what everybody is saying over there because I'm not. The two that they converted, one was a quarterback sneak and one was a quarterback scramble.

Q: What are some of the keys with how the young guys on defense have developed?

A: We have good coaches, number one. I think that is good. I think they're talented guys. Just because a guy isn't drafted doesn't mean he's not a good football player. Nowadays with only seven rounds, there are a lot of players that are available after the draft that have opportunities to play. We've been very fortunate. We work real hard at getting those kind of guys.

Q: What is Holton Hill showing you that has translated from when you were looking at him as an undrafted free agent?

A: Obviously, the size and speed and toughness that he has. When he gets out there, the game is not too big for him. He just goes out and plays and does his job.

Q: What is the key to get young defensive backs playing as well as they have when they come in?

A: I think the biggest thing is these guys come in and pay attention to meetings. The older guys help these guys a lot. Xavier [Rhodes], Trae [Waynes], these guys all help these young guys. Marcus Sherels, all these guys. Terence [Newman] spends a lot of time with them. All that stuff helps them when they have to get out there. I wouldn't say that Holton has everything down pat. But he has a lot of physical attributes that can translate into being a good corner and now we're working on continuing to get better on technique, get better with fundamentals, get better with the knowledge of the game. That is usually what is different for young defensive backs in general coming into the NFL. It is a lot of technique, knowledge of the game, things like that.

Q: What do you think the biggest factors were in stopping the run game yesterday?

A: So one of the things we talked about all week long was perimeter run force, because a lot of their big runs had come from bounce outs to the perimeter with [Isaiah] Crowell. Trae [Waynes] made a couple of really nice tackles coming off the perimeter, I thought we were strong at the point of attack, I thought Jaleel Johnson played well, Sheldon [Richardson] played well inside. That helps, and then the linebackers were in the right place most of the time.

Q: What has Trae Waynes done to be so effective and being able to diagnose a play so quickly in the run game?

A: Part of it is reading your keys, that's part of it, being able to read your keys. Talking about young corners, if their eyes are in the wrong place, typically wrong things happen. He still has some issues sometimes where his eyes are in the wrong place, but the majority of the time now in the last couple of years, he's been really good with looking at his key. They get in all those different formations and they got three guys over there, if you're looking at the wrong one, you're looking at the quarterback, you're looking at the running back, that's where you get in trouble. If you focus on your key, typically that gives you a good read.

Q: How do you feel about Jalyn Holmes continued progress?

A: I thought he did better. I thought he played to his strength a little bit more than trying to be somebody he's not, so I think that helped him to have a better game.

Q: What does the three-man front in the nickel package with Eric Wilson present as opposed to the four-man front?

A: There's a number of different things. Usually with a four-down front in protection they're identifying four guys and one more guy, and in the three-down front they have to identify three down and one other guy, that might be [Anthony] Barr, that might be [Eric] Kendricks, that might be [Eric] Wilson. There's different ways to rush the quarterback, but you also have other guys in coverage, so you may have a guy covering a back, covering a tight end, doubling a guy. I guess it's a little more varied.

Q: Is the Double A gap just an adjustment to the adjustment?

A: Some of it. Every team in the league now is running double A gaps, so five, six years ago, whatever it was, seven years ago when we started all that stuff, it was free runners all day long. Now [they say,] "Okay, we're going to block it this way. We're going to do this, we're going to check to that, check to a screen, do this." Gives us something else to work on, and at some point we'll be back to our old self.

Q: Play calling plays a big part in having a successful defense, but how much does it come down to just having good tacklers?

A: Big. In today's NFL, the way everybody is playing in space now, if you're not a good tackler in space it makes it really hard to be a good defensive team, because they don't bunch everything up anymore. Everything is rockets, don't block this guy and leave this guy alone, five wide receivers. Yesterday they came out in three wide receivers and two tight ends a lot, and they had maximum protections and they had no backs, all five guys out. It becomes a space game, really, and that's partly why you want to get more cover guys in there if you can.

Q: With did you see that worked so well on some of the interior runs from Latavius Murray?

A: We did a good job with cutting off the backside. The first touchdown they ran a shell coverage and I think we got on the linebacker and then he beat the safety and the second one, the long one we kind of cut them out of their gaps and he made a good cut. One guy over ran it, he made a good cut.

Q: How have you seen Pat Elflein progress?

A: Yeah, he's doing really well. I thought he played well yesterday.

Q: Are you expecting the Saints to come in with a chip on their shoulder?

A: I think the Saints will come in with a chip on their shoulder because that's who they are. They're very aggressive on defense. They're aggressive offensively. They got a good football team, so I don't know. That was a long time ago.

Q: What is it like preparing for Drew Brees?

A: It's different than it has been in the last few weeks. This guy is amazing. I've always thought when you talk about Hall of Fame quarterbacks, he's going to be one, but he's very cerebral, accurate. He's moving well in the pocket. I was watching tape today and I thought, "How old is this guy? I thought he was getting old." He moves well in the pocket. He's not really a runner, but he scrambles and usually to find guys open and he knows where to go with the football, he's extremely accurate. They've got a great scheme, all kinds of things. They've got all different kinds of personnel groups. They use their backup quarterback, [Taysom] Hill, as a tight end, they use him as a running back, they use him as a quarterback to run the options. There's a lot of different things.

Q: Have you seen any physical deterioration from Drew Brees?

A: No. He should retire too.

Q: What did you see from Danny Isidora on film?

A: One of the runs for Latavius he cut the guy out. That was who it was, on the first run he cut the guy off. The guy was inside shade on him and he cut him off and allowed him [Latavius Murray] to get up in there. He did some good things in running and was decent in the pass game.

Q: Do you have an update on Tom Compton's knee?

A: No.

Q: Is there any update on Anthony Barr or Xavier Rhodes?

A: No.

Q: What do you see about Drew Bree's competitiveness?

A: Well, I kind of know from when my son was there and he knows and he says he's one of the most competitive guys there is. It didn't matter what they were playing, he was trying to win. Whether it's games out in the yard or whatever. From what I know, I know Sean [Payton] loves him.

Q: Do you see Brian O'Neill settling in on the right tackle spot?

A: Yeah, I thought he played well yesterday. Physical, much better in the pass protection, good in the running game. I thought he did well.

VIKINGS-SAINTS GAME INFORMATION

SEAN PAYTON

NFL Head Coach: 12th Year
Overall NFL Experience: 21st Year
Coaching Experience: 30th Year
Overall NFL Record: 117-77 (.603)
Regular Season: 110-72 (.604)
Postseason: 7-5 (.583)
Record with NO: 117-77 (.601)
Record vs. MIN: 4-3 (.571)
College: Eastern Illinois '86

Since he was hired as head coach of the New Orleans Saints in 2006, Sean Payton has established himself as one of the most successful coaches in the NFL. Payton has led the Saints to six playoff berths, four NFC South division titles and in 2009 captured the franchise's first World Championship with a 31-17 win over the Indianapolis Colts in Super Bowl XLIV.

Payton has a 112-76 overall record (.596), including a 7-5 postseason mark (.583) after the franchise had won only one playoff game prior to his arrival. Payton holds the club's top win total and winning percentage for a head coach.

As Payton enters the 2018 campaign he continues to represent the Saints as the model of stability not only within the NFC South, as he is the longest tenured head coach within the division, but also within the National Football League as only New England's Bill Belichick (2000), Cincinnati's Marvin Lewis (2003) and Green Bay's Mike McCarthy (hired one week prior to Payton in 2006) have been with their teams longer. Payton is also one of just eight active coaches to lead a team to a Super Bowl victory. The others are Belichick, Seattle's Pete Carroll, Oakland's Jon Gruden (with Tampa Bay in 2002), Baltimore's John Harbaugh, McCarthy, Philadelphia's Doug Pederson and Pittsburgh's Mike Tomlin.

Payton's presided over the NFL's most prolific offense since his arrival, leading the league in net yards per game in 2006, 2008, 2009, 2011, 2014 and 2016, and finishing first in scoring in 2008 and 2009. These are the only six times the Saints have led the NFL in offense. Ranking in the top ten offensively every season since Payton arrived, the Saints have the third-longest streak (12 seasons) in the NFL since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. In team history, the Saints have scored at least 45 points on 21 separate occasions with 17 of these outputs occurring under Payton's watch, including two in 2017. Defensively, New Orleans has finished in the top five twice (2010 and 2013). He has also sent a total of 44 selections to the Pro Bowl and earned the honor of coaching the NFC squad following the 2006 and 2017 seasons.

The 2017 Saints produced an 11-5 regular season record, producing their first playoff berth since 2013, behind a squad that led by QB Drew Brees offensively and DE Cameron Jordan defensively featured seven players selected to the Pro Bowl, tied for the most in club history and four draft picks selected to the PFWA All-Rookie Team, two more than any other club. In RB Alvin Kamara and CB Marshon Lattimore, the 2017 Saints were the first team to have both the Associated Press NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year and Defensive Rookie of the Year since 1967. New Orleans, one of three NFC South teams to make the postseason, upended Carolina (11-5) and Atlanta (10-6) to finish first in the division and advanced to the Divisional Playoff round after capturing a 31-26 Wild Card victory over the Panthers in the Mercedes-Benz Superdome. The Saints' bid to reach their third NFC Championship game under Payton was cut short in Minnesota, where New Orleans fell to the Vikings 29-24, after coming back from a 17-0 halftime deficit to hold a 24-23 fourth quarter lead during a thrilling battle.

Offensively, New Orleans was the only team to rank in the top five in the NFL in both rushing yards per game (129.4) and net passing yards per game (261.8), while giving up only 20 sacks, the second lowest total in the league and turning the ball over a franchise-low 18 times. Brees was selected to his club-record tenth Pro Bowl as a Saint as he completed 386-of-536 passes (72.0%) with 23 touchdowns, eight interceptions and a 103.9 rating. Brees' completion percentage set an NFL record. His eight picks were his lowest total as a Saint. RBs Mark Ingram II and Alvin Kamara and WR Michael Thomas provided additional highlights on offense. Kamara led the team with 1,544 total yards from scrimmage, seventh in the NFL, as he carried 120 times for 728 yards with eight touchdowns and led NFL running backs in receiving yardage with 82 grabs for 826 yards and five touchdowns. His 6.1 yards per carry led the NFL. Adding a 106-yard kickoff return for a touchdown in Week 17, the longest play in club history, he set the club rookie record for touchdowns (14). Ingram ranked second on the club with 1,540 total yards from scrimmage as he and Kamara became the first running back duo in NFL history to each reach 1,500 yards. Ingram led the team in rushing with 230 carries for a career-high 1,124 yards and career-best 12 touchdowns. Thomas set a club record with 104 receptions for 1,245 yards and five scores. In addition to Brees, Ingram, Kamara and Thomas, RG Larry Warford, a free agent acquisition, also was named to his first Pro Bowl.

The Saints defense saw improvement in virtually every major statistical category. New Orleans moved up ten spots in total defense, including from 32nd to 15th against the pass. After ranking 31st in opponent points per game in 2016, New Orleans moved up to tenth in 2017, surrendering only 20.4 points per game. Led by Jordan, a first-team Associated Press All-Pro who posted a career-high 13 sacks, New Orleans racked up 42 takedowns (tied for seventh in the NFL). Lattimore, who led NFL rookies with five interceptions, joined Jordan as a Pro Bowl selection.

The Vikings were 5-3 at U.S. Bank Stadium in the inaugural season in 2016, 7-1 in 2017 and 2-1 in 2018. The Vikings began a 2-year stint at TCF Bank Stadium in 2014 hoping to continue the strong home record they have held throughout their history. The Vikings finished 11-6 (11-5 in 2014-15) in their 17 regular season games at TCF Bank Stadium. The Vikings have amassed the 3rd-most home wins by an NFL team since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. The club moved from Metropolitan Stadium following the 1981 season, playing at Mall of America Field at HHH Metrodome starting in 1982. The Vikings played 260 regular season and playoff games indoors, notching a 168-92 record at the Dome. In 2010 the team endured the loss of the final 2 home games of the season following the collapse of the Dome roof due to heavy snows and blizzard conditions. The Vikings played "host" to the NY Giants at Detroit's Ford Field and played the regular season home finale at TCF Bank Stadium on the University of Minnesota campus when Chicago visited for a Monday Night Football matchup on 12/20/10. The game was 29 years to the day since the last outdoor Vikings game in Minnesota, the finale at Met Stadium on 12/20/81 against KC.

COUSINS BRINGS STABILITY

Kirk Cousins comes to the Vikings with a proven track record. A 2016 Pro Bowler, Cousins had a career-best 4,917 yards passing, a mark that would have set the Vikings season record by 200 yards and did set the Washington franchise record. In his 1st start at Lambeau, he threw for 425 yards and 4 TDs, the 2nd most passing yards by a Vikings QB in the series. He became only the 6th Vikings QB to throw for 425+ yards in a game. Cousins set an NFL record at Philadelphia with his 4th straight 30+ completion game.

NEW LOOK LINE

The 2017 Vikings line was an overhaul from the previous season and the unit came together quickly. The 2018 version has had to adapt due to injuries but will feature a core of returning vets with experience. The revamped unit helped the 2017 Vikings climb to #11 in NFL offense up from #28 in 2016. The team welcomed back 2017 regular starting center Pat Elflein to the starting lineup for 2018 in the game at Los Angeles. The 2017 All-Rookie honoree started his 1st game of 2018 and helped solidify the line on the road.

The current roster is highlighted by WR Adam Thielen, who went from undrafted out of Minnesota State, Mankato to earning a practice squad spot as a rookie in 2013 and then a berth in the Pro Bowl in 2017. The Vikings have featured Hall of Famers Mick Tingelhoff and John Randle who came to the team undrafted and earned their places in Canton.

IT'S GOOD FOOTBALL, EH?

The Vikings feature a pair of players who began their pro careers in the CFL, DL Tom Johnson, OL Brett Jones and WR Brandon Zylstra. Jones is a native of Saskatchewan and began his career in his homeland. The Vikings have a tradition of crossover with the CFL, most notably head coach Bud Grant, who played (1953-56) and coached (1957-66) with Winnipeg, winning 4 Grey Cups as coach.

BIGGER'S NOT ALWAYS BETTER

The Vikings have 3 players who have been fighting an uphill battle after playing collegiately at smaller Division II or DIII institutions. Adam Thielen is the Vikings leader among the small-school players with 63 career games and 29 starts. FB C.J. Ham out started as a rookie minicamp college tryout in 2016 and WR Brandon Zylstra is entering his 1st season in the NFL after joining the Vikings after 2 years in the CFL. Zylstra had Vikings connections before joining the team in 2018. He was teammates at Augustana College in Sioux Falls, SD for 2 seasons with Vikings FB C.J. Ham before he transferred to Division III Concordia College in Moorhead, MN, a member of the Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference. Minnesota State, Mankato and Augustana are rivals in the Northern Sun Conference where Thielen and Ham continued their days of competition, dating back to high school when Thielen's Detroit Lakes High Lakers and Ham's Duluth Denfeld High Hunters squared off as conference opponents.

DIGGS THIS

The hero of the Minneapolis Miracle, Vikings WR Stefon Diggs set the Vikings record for fewest games to reach 200 receptions, achieving the feat in 40 games. Diggs set a team record for most catches in consecutive games with 26 in 2016 (13 vs. Det., 13 at Wash.). His 13 catches in straight weeks marks the 1st time an NFL player has had 13+ catches consecutively. Diggs has 6 receiving TDs in the past 9 regular season games to tie for 3rd in the NFL over that span. Diggs and fellow WR Adam Thielen have had a pair of games in 2018 where they both broke the 100-yard receiving mark. They can tie the Vikings record for a duo achieving the feat if they get one more 100/100 game on the season to match the 2000 mark set by Cris Carter and Randy Moss.

RUNNING BACKS TO THE FRONT

The Vikings lead backs- Latavious Murray and Dalvin Cook are both boosts to the passing game and have proven themselves on the ground. Murray was a Pro Bowler for Oakland in 2015 when he broke the 1,000-yard mark for the Raiders with 1,066 yards and a 4.0 yard average. A presence catching the ball, Murray had a career-high 41 catches in 2015 and followed it up with 33 receptions in 2016. Murray notched a career-high 155 yards on the ground vs. Arizona (10/14/18).

Cook was only the 4th Vikings rookie RB to start the season opener, joining Michael Bennett (2001), D.J. Dozier (1987) and Darrin Nelson (1982). He was leading the club in rushing when he was lost for the season in 2017 with a knee injury in the 4th game of the season, cutting short a promising rookie campaign.

The Vikings ended 2016 ranked #32 in the NFL in rushing offense and leapt to #7 in rushing offense for 2017. In total NFL offense for 2017 the Vikings ranked #11, up from #28 in 2017 and the highest ranking since the 2009 season.

VIKINGS PREP SPOTLIGHT GAMES

The Minnesota Vikings will host three separate high school football events during the 2018 season at Twin Cities Orthopedics Performance Center in collaboration with the individual schools, the Minnesota State High School League and the Vikings.

The newly-constructed TCO Performance Center and TCO Stadium will be utilized to continue the club's commitment to youth football programming to showcase and grow the game at the high school level. The facility will give high school players a unique opportunity to compete on the same fields as their NFL counterparts. The events will include a regular-season game on September 28 between Farmington and Eagan (home team), a regular-season game on October 12 between Lakeville North and Prior Lake (home team) and TCO will serve as an MSHSL Playoff host site for the state quarterfinals on November 9 and 10 for 3 games.

"The opportunity to share our new facility with the community and with the high school sports teams was always an emphasis of the design of TCO Performance Center from the beginning," Minnesota Vikings Chief Operating Officer Kevin Warren said. "The chance to connect with fans, parents and players at the high school level is an important part of our ongoing youth football events and we will proudly share our field with Minnesota high school teams."

Friday, September 28 – Farmington vs. Eagan; Farmington 41, Eagan 28
Friday, October 12 – Lakeville North vs. Prior Lake; Lakeville North 38, Prior Lake 3
Friday-Saturday, November 9-10 – MSHSL Quarterfinal Playoffs

The Vikings welcomed Farmington, Eagan, Prior Lake and Lakeville North to Twin Cities Orthopedics Performance Center in July during training camp to announce a pair of games during the regular season and that TCO Stadium would host state quarterfinal playoff games.

GIVING BACK TO GIVING MOMS

The Raise the Barr Foundation was launched in spring 2016 as a way to provide support to single mothers through childcare assistance and providing scholarship funds for mothers wishing to continue their education. Barr was raised by his single mother, Lori, and took advantage of his platform as an NFL player to help give back. "As a young child, I witnessed my mother work hard to put herself through college after having me when she was only 19 years old," Barr said. "She worked as a classroom assistant in the morning hours, went to school in the afternoon, and waited tables at night. Even so, she still had to take out student loans to pay for college, loans she is still paying off today."

U.S. BANK STADIUM SIGNATURE ITEMS

Vikings fans don't have to look far from the field in order to catch instant replays at U.S. Bank Stadium. The stadium boasts two of the best-positioned LED video boards in the NFL. Located in both the east and west end zones, the video boards have been strategically placed as close as possible to eye level to ensure fans can simply shift their eyes from the field to the boards without head movement.

The larger of the two boards – manufactured by Daktronics in Redwood Falls, Minnesota – measures 120x68, or 8,160 square feet. Placed on the west side of the stadium just beyond the five large pivoting glass doors, the board is 13 times larger than the Metrodome video boards.

DENNIS GREEN HONORED WITH RING OF HONOR INDUCTION

The Vikings lost a member of the football family when former Head Coach Dennis Green passed away on July 22, 2016 at the age of 67. Green was with the Vikings from 1992-2001 and led a team that made 8 playoff appearances in his 10 seasons as head coach. The club advanced to the NFC Championship game in 1998 and 2000, but Green's impact was felt as much off the field as on it during his tenure. Green instituted "Community Tuesday" early in his coaching career with the Vikings and the concept spread NFL-wide as a weekly happening dedicated to giving back to communities that NFL franchises call home.

The Vikings will recognize Green's contributions to the franchise on September 23, 2018 vs. Buffalo when he is honored as the newest member of the Vikings Ring of Honor.

VIKINGS CONSECUTIVE WINNING SEASONS

Bud Grant - 6 (1973-78)
Dennis Green - 5 (1996-00)

"He coached his players hard but he also loved hard. He was a man who loved his family and promoted the value of family time. I learned many life traits from Denny Green and appreciate him as a coach, husband and father. He led by example and was a true asset to our team. I will always remember Denny as a great leader of men. I am deeply saddened by the news. May he rest in peace."

With plenty of space inside the 1.75 million-square foot building, the Vikings turned to local artists to create a collection that will cover otherwise barren walls. Approximately 40 artists were commissioned following a selection process to create hundreds of pieces of art including 350 original pieces of work, 250 photographs and 12,000 square feet of wall graphics. Included in the stadium's art collection are three former players - Matt Blair (photography), Carl Eller (sculpture) and Jim Marshall (drawing).

VIKINGS ORIGINAL STARTING LINEUP

The Vikings have seen the NFL change dramatically over the years. The players who started the upset win over Chicago in the 1961 opener were a mix of future stars and aging veterans who were embarking on a new adventure with the NFL's fledgling franchise. The team started veteran signal-caller George Shaw instead of rookie phenom Fran Tarkenton, a footnote in history to Tarkenton's Hall of Fame career. Tarkenton came off the bench late in the 1st quarter to spearhead the Vikings to a win over the same Bears club that posted a dominating 30-7 win only two weeks prior in a preseason game played in Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Tarkenton threw 4 TD passes and hit on 17-of-23 passes for 250 yards. The Vikings opened the scoring in the game with a Mike Mercer FG. Tarkenton connected with Bob Schnelker on the 1st TD pass of his career on a 14-yard toss. Tarkenton went on to throw TDs to Jerry Reichow from 29 yards, Hugh McElhenry from a yard out and ran for a 3-yard TD himself on a QB keeper. He rounded out the day with a 2-yard TD pass to Dave Middleton, and the upstart Vikings notched a 37-13 win.

Marcus Sherels and Saints P Thomas Morstead teamed up during Super Bowl LII week to turn a negative into a positive. Morstead was injured in the Vikings-Saints playoff game tackling Marcus Sherels on a punt return. Limited the rest of the game, he continued to play and earned the respect of Vikings fans worldwide for his courage and sportsmanship when he returned to the field after Stefon Diggs game-winning catch for the mandatory point-after try. Fan donations poured in for his What You Give Will Grow Foundation to show appreciation for his effort. The generosity was so overwhelming that Morstead vowed to come back to Minnesota for the Super Bowl and donate back to a local charity. He held true to his word and presented a check for over $221,000 to Children's Hospital Minnesota with Sherels on hand to take part in the event.

VIKINGS-RAMS RENEW RIVALRY IN LOS ANGELES FOR FIRST TIME SINCE 1992

Including playoff action, the Rams and Vikings have met 45 times with the Vikings holding a 27-16-2 all-time series advantage. The Vikings have played the Rams 7 times in the playoffs, tied with Dallas for the most in club history. The 1961 expansion Vikings were assigned to the NFL's Western Conference, joining Baltimore, Chicago, Detroit, Green Bay, Los Angeles and San Francisco. In that debut season, the Vikings played 5 preseason games against Western Conference foes and played 12 games against Western Conference foes and a pair of games against Dallas from the Eastern Conference. The Vikings struggled to a 3-11 mark to finish in the bottom of the conference, 1 game behind LA, who the Vikings topped 42-21 on 12/3/61 for their 3rd and final win of the season.

During the 1970s the teams were bitter rivals that met in the playoffs 4 times in 5 seasons. The Vikings won NFC Championship games over the Rams in 1974 to go to Super Bowl IX and in 1976 to go to Super Bowl XI. Both Championship game meetings were at Met Stadium in Bloomington. The teams also squared off in the NFC Divisional Playoffs in 1977 and '78 with the Vikings winning the '77 meeting in Los Angeles. The Vikings 1st playoff win was a 12/27/69 victory over the Rams in the NFL Divisional Round playoffs en route to the club winning the final NFL title before the 1970 merger and advancing to Super Bowl IV.

The founding figures of the Vikings had strong Rams ties. The club tabbed Rams PR Director Bert Rose to serve as the Vikings 1st General Manager and Norm Van Brocklin parlayed a successful 12-year career as a QB into being named the 1st Head Coach in Vikings history, a playing career that began with the Rams from 1949-57. The 1st Vikings game at Met Stadium was the 1961 preseason finale against the Rams on 9/10/61, a 21-17 Rams win.
