SAINTS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Saints Community Relations Department is committed to supporting the charitable efforts of the club's ownership, players, coaches and staff throughout the Gulf South. This dedication to charitable causes and individuals in need was a defining trait of Tom Benson's 33-year tenure as the franchise's Owner and now that legacy carries on under the leadership of Gayle Benson. As a philanthropic force in the community, the club is committed to exercising its core beliefs and basic expectations of every member of the Saints organization, defined by its participation in initiatives that will have a positive and lasting impact in our community.

RESPONDING TO THE COMMUNITY IN TIMES OF CRISES

The relationship between the Saints and its fans is unique in the world of sports. The team has been the recipient of unqualified support from the community since its inception and welcomes the opportunity to give back – particularly in times of crisis. Donating and raising money as well as providing extensive organizational support following several devastating hurricanes, the 2010 Gulf Coast Oil Spill, widespread flooding and tornadoes that affected the region in 2016 and the COVID-19 pandemic from 2020-21, the club most recently faced the challenge of supporting the community following Hurricane Ida that battered the Gulf Coast in August, 2021. Almost immediately following the storm, Mrs. Benson made a donation of $1 million to activate the Saints Gulf Coast Renewal Fund, with over $5 million total being raised. With the assistance of the community leaders, the NFL Foundation and the Greater New Orleans Foundation, nonprofit organizations were identified to be beneficiaries that could address the immediate needs of those impacted throughout Louisiana.

Responding to immediate needs of the community is a priority of the organization. In light of the New Years Day 2025 terror attack tragedy in New Orleans, Mrs. Benson and the club sprung into action, collaborating with the NFL Foundation to support relief efforts for the victims with a $1 million donation.

In addition to reacting to real-time issues such as natural disasters, the Saints also will continue its commitment to prioritize efforts that build awareness of and support for issues challenging the Gulf South by working to safeguard and promote our wetlands and energy production, as they are critical to our nation's future economic vitality.

SPECIAL ATTENTION TO YOUTH & EDUCATION

The New Orleans Saints organization believes in the future of the Gulf South, and understands our community's children are our greatest resource and hope for a stronger region. Our Community Affairs and Youth Programs Departments conduct and assist in events and initiatives focusing on the development and education of our children.

Throughout the year, Saints players, Legends, and staff visit schools and various community centers to stress the importance of education, physical fitness, nutrition, leadership development, character building and time management. The club partners with a variety of organizations including (but not limited to) Boys & Girls Clubs, Special Olympics, Boy and Girl Scouts, United Way, Louisiana Children's Museum, American Heart Association, New Orleans Family Justice Center, Second Harvest Food Bank of Greater New Orleans and Acadiana, the Louisiana SPCA, Louisiana High School Athletic Association, Team Gleason, NFL YET Center, Clover New Orleans, Teach for America, Youth Empowerment Project, NORD and the Jefferson Parish Recreation Department.

SUPPORT AND IMPACT FOR THE ENTIRE COMMUNITY

While supporting youth and education is a daily focus of the club, significant resources are dedicated to enrich the lives of individuals in other areas of need. For the past eight years, the Saints 50/50 Charity Raffle's season total jackpot has raised nearly three million dollars, allowing the organization to assist thousands of people across the Gulf South region through the works of benefitting charities. Local and non-profit organizations have received proceeds garnered via fundraisers such as the Saints Kickoff Run Presented by Hancock Whitney. Saints ownership, executives and staff members serve on numerous community organization boards and partner with those entities to assist or co-develop appropriate programs with a plethora of organizations including (but not limited to) the Autism Society of Greater New Orleans and Autism Speaks, CADA of Greater New Orleans, American Heart Association, Feeding Louisiana, Louisiana Children's Museum, Goodwill of Southeast Louisiana, ARC of Louisiana, City Park of New Orleans, Saintsgiving at Dryades YMCA, Louisiana National Guard, Toys for Tots, Rebuilding Together New Orleans, American Red Cross, Make-A-Wish, Volunteers of America, United Negro College Fund, Bureau of Governmental Research and Bridge House. Each year, millions of dollars are given back to the community by the Saints through the donation of cash, goods and services, media and sponsorship.

Whether through financial support, in-kind donations, charitable appearances or just lending a helping hand, the New Orleans Saints are there to reciprocate the support the club has received from its community for 59 years.

SOCIAL JUSTICE EFFORTS

The New Orleans Saints have taken an active role in supporting programming events and advocacy efforts to promote social justice since 2018. Saints Ownership, staff and players have worked towards multiple legislative changes, discussing the reduction and elimination of gun violence and supporting programs that empower those impacted by incarceration to successfully re-enter the community.

SAINTS YOUTH SPORTS DEVELOPMENT

The Saints Youth Sports Development Department maintains an active presence in the community throughout the year, bringing National Football League excitement to children who may not have the opportunity to experience the thrill of a Saints football game in person. The Saints reach thousands of youth through programs such as the Saints Play Football Experience Camp, the Saints Experience and the Saints/Nike 11-ON annual event/High School 7-on-7 Regional Tournament. The club is also highly involved with all of the NFL's youth football initiatives such as PLAY60, NFL FLAG, and PLAY FOOTBALL MONTH celebrations. Throughout the region, the team hosts Play Football Experiences at local schools. The team's major initiative in 2024 and 2025 has been establishing girl's flag football leagues in greater New Orleans and central/south Mississippi, with its sanctioning as a varsity sport taking place in Mississippi and on the horizon in Louisiana in 2026.

The Saints have continued to champion smarter and safer play for young athletes in partnership with USA FOOTBALL through the Heads Up Football program by hosting Player Safety Clinics, Player/Parent Camps and forums to further educate coaches, parents and players. Across the Gulf Coast, the Saints continue to fully fund Heads Up Football's enrollment fees for every high school in Alabama, Louisiana and Mississippi. Also in being committed to keeping young participants safe, in 2024, many of the team's players donated guardian caps to several local high schools.

YOUTH SPORTS DEVELOPMENT

The club also honors area high school coaches through the Saints NFL High School Coach of the Week program, which provides $1,000 to each coach's respective football programs. In addition, the Saints collaborate with corporate partners to conduct life skills presentations to high schools throughout the city. Topics such as education, work ethic, leadership, and character as well as post-graduation career opportunities are discussed.

The Sports Development Department is influential in helping to secure thousands of dollars through the NFL Foundation via the Player Matching, Team and Grassroots Grants. Funding received from these grants are distributed to youth and high school football organizations and support field projects throughout the region. The team also partners with John Fayard Moving to donate and deliver practice equipment to a local high school football program in need annually. All these efforts positively impact the growth and direction of football for youngsters in the community.

DENNIS LAUSCHA

PRESIDENT

Dennis Lauscha, a native New Orleanian, has been a fan of the Saints since he was a young boy. He attended Jesuit High School and received degrees in Business, first from the University of Alabama, followed by an M.B.A. from Loyola University. Starting out his career as a C.P.A, Lauscha worked for a major global financial services firm before his decades long career with the Saints. He first joined the Saints in 1998 as Treasurer, and as a result of his hard work, loyalty and business acumen, Lauscha rose through the executive ranks to serve as Vice President, Senior Vice President and Executive Vice President before reaching his now esteemed post as President of both the Saints and Pelicans since 2012. In his role, he oversees the club's financial operations, government affairs, marketing, ticket and suite sales, legal, stadium, community affairs, human resources, business intelligence and information technology. He also serves as a representative for both clubs at NFL and NBA Owners meetings.

In addition to his duties with the Saints and Pelicans, the New Orleans native maintains multiple roles within Owner & CEO Mrs. Gayle Benson's business enterprises, maintaining a role in the management of her eight regional automotive dealerships (Best Chevrolet, Cadillac of New Orleans, Mercedes-Benz of New Orleans, Mercedes-Benz of South Mississippi Mercedes-Benz Sprinter, Porsche New Orleans, Volkswagen of South Mississippi and Infiniti of South Mississippi) and three collision centers, Benson Capital Partners, Corporate Realty, and GMB Racing.

Lauscha's collaborative style, financial acumen and long-term view has played a key role as a member of a contingent that has negotiated agreements for both the Saints and Pelicans with the state of Louisiana. These have resulted in long-term lease agreements, continuous improvements to their playing and practice facilities, revitalization of the areas around them and generated revenue for the state without any new taxes for citizens.

In 2009, Lauscha helped negotiate the partnership with the Louisiana Governor and a subsequent extension of the agreement that continues the Saints' long-term commitment to the state. The deal included the purchase and redevelopment of the former New Orleans Centre, which has been transformed into Champions Square and the Benson Tower property adjacent to the Caesars Superdome, with the stadium undergoing extensive renovations and improvements. Since playing a key role in Mr. and Mrs. Benson's purchase of the Pelicans in 2012, Lauscha has helped broker agreements with the state to upgrade the team's playing and practice facilities.

In 2015, Lauscha helped negotiate an agreement with the state that resulted in $40 million in enhancements for fans of both the Saints and Pelicans. The Caesars Superdome had state-of-the-art video boards added in 2016 in addition to renovated suites and other fan amenities, while a new center-hung HD video scoreboard was installed in the Smoothie King Center. Most recently, Lauscha brokered a $535 million agreement with the state that has resulted in a long-term lease extension for the Saints and a transformation of the Caesars Superdome. The stadium is among the world's elite sports facilities, including brand new field level suites, which debuted in 2021. He has played a key role in finalizing 2021 and 2014 ground-breaking naming rights and sponsorship agreements for both teams' playing facilities with Caesars Entertainment and Smoothie King.

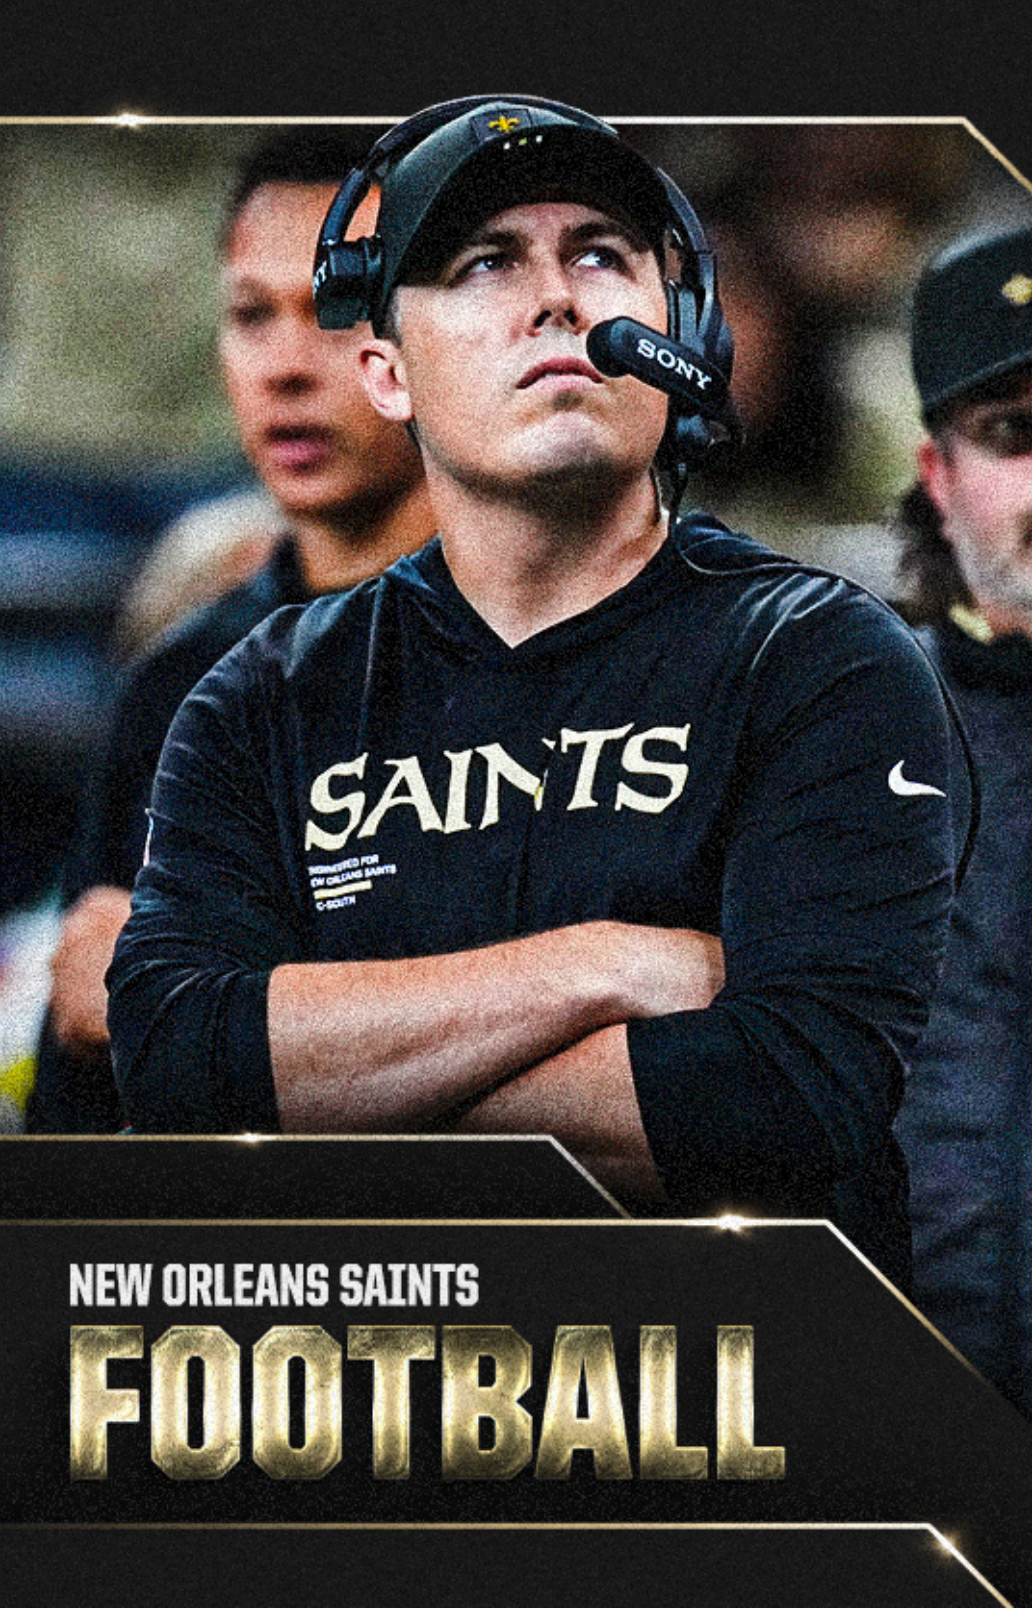
Lauscha was instrumental in the 2003 expansion of the Saints training facility. He later oversaw a renovation and expansion of the facilities and administrative offices for the Saints and Pelicans from 2012-13, while directing the construction of a standalone basketball practice facility. The clubs are now housed on the same site at the Ochsner Sports Performance Center, featuring some of the top practice and administrative facilities in professional sports.

Lauscha has remained committed to attracting major sporting events to New Orleans. He is a key member of the team that actively pursues future Super Bowls and NCAA Basketball Final Four Championships for New Orleans – and was instrumental in landing Super Bowl XLVII (2013), and Super Bowl LIX (2025). After Mr. and Mrs. Bensons' 2012 purchase of the Pelicans, the city has hosted NBA All-Star Games in 2014 and 2017. Lauscha's leadership and sustained contributions to the New Orleans' sports and civic landscape were recognized with his induction into the Greater New Orleans Sports Foundation Hall of Fame Class of 2025.

Active in both sports and the community, Lauscha serves on the University of Alabama President's Cabinet and the Business Council of New Orleans & the River Region. He is also the board chair of the Audubon Nature Institute and serves on the boards of Ochsner Health, Tulane University, Loyola University New Orleans, Greater New Orleans Foundation, and Pro Bono Publico Foundation. Lauscha has completed terms as board president of the Preservation Resource Center, president of the regional chapter of the Boy Scouts of America, a member of the Blight Transition New Orleans Task Force, the Mayor's Transition Committee, the Super Bowl XLVII Host Committee, the 2014 and 2017 NBA All-Star Game Host Committees, the 2012 NCAA Final Four Host Committee, the Loyola University New Orleans School of Business Visiting Committee, the NBA's Team Advisory Council of Presidents and Team CBA Advisory Committee, the NFL's Ticketing Strategy Working Group, the NFL's 100th Anniversary Committee, the NFL's Sports Betting Committee, the Stuart Hall School Board of Trustees, the National World War II Museum Board of Trustees and on the New Orleans Museum of Art Board.

Lauscha's dealings with the Saints and Pelicans, state officials and local organizations have provided an opportunity for community involvement. His professional and charitable work was recognized by New Orleans CityBusiness, when he was selected as one of the 40 Most Influential Members of the Community. The honor is bestowed on those who are laying the groundwork for a better city. In 2010, he was named the Alumnus of the Year by Loyola's College of Business and was named to the 2010 Class of Role Models by the Young Leadership Council. He was honored by the Allstate Sugar Bowl Chapter of the National Football Foundation/College Football Hall of Fame with its 2014 Distinguished American Award. In 2015, Lauscha gave the commencement address to the graduates of the University of New Orleans. In 2016, he was inducted into the Order of West Range for the Pi Kappa Alpha Foundation. He was honored as a 2019 Laureate of Junior Achievement's Greater New Orleans chapter. Lauscha has also completed the National Football League Managers Program at Stanford University's Executive Education Graduate School of Business. Most recently, he was named Jesuit's 2022-23 Alumnus of the Year.



NEW ORLEANS SAINTS

FOOTBALL

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT/
GENERAL MANAGER

Responsible for the club's entire football operation, Executive Vice President/General Manager Mickey Loomis enters his 25th season in his current position and 27th with the New Orleans Saints. He is entering his 40th NFL season. During his time in New Orleans, Loomis has been honored with some of the most prestigious awards presented to a league executive, yet the most satisfying achievement of his career has come in helping mold a roster that has produced many of the franchise's finest moments over the last 20 seasons, including the Super Bowl XLIV championship.

Loomis was promoted to general manager in 2002 and earned the additional title of executive vice president later that year. The departments under his direction include coaching, player personnel, salary cap management, contract negotiations, sports medicine, equipment, video and communications.

In 2006, after being the key figure in the hiring of Head Coach Sean Payton, the free agent signing of QB Drew Brees, who will be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame this summer and overseeing the rebuild of a team that would advance to the NFC Championship, Loomis was voted the NFL Executive of the Year by Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers of America. He was also honored by The Sporting News as the George Young Executive of the Year, an award voted on annually by NFL front-office executives and owners.

Loomis has continued to build on the success of 2006, highlighted by 11 winning seasons, nine postseason appearances, seven division titles, three NFC Championship game berths and the Super Bowl victory. Over the past 23 years, he's brought aboard a group of players who have played a key role in New Orleans posting a 214-175 regular season record through a combination of the draft, free agency and trades. He's also presided over the club's ability to retain their core players, re-signing significant contributors to long-term contracts. This makes him just the ninth person in the 106-year history of the NFL to oversee 200 regular season career wins as the official acting General Manager. In 2025, Loomis conducted an extensive coaching search on behalf of the organization to lead the Saints into the future and following the search, Kellen Moore was hired as the Saints' 19th head coach in franchise history, presiding over a draft that found four starters and significant contributors who helped the team finish strong in winning four of their last five games, including PFWA All-Rookie selections in T Kelvin Banks Jr. and QB Tyler Shough.

While his responsibilities have grown during his Saints tenure, Loomis has been a key figure in the highest management circle of the organization since arriving in 2000. Loomis joined the club as director of football administration, a post he held until 2002, handling contract negotiations, managing the salary cap and coordinating different areas of the football operations.

In 2005, Loomis helped steer the club through unprecedented challenges for a National Football League team. He calmly guided the staff and players through a sudden evacuation from New Orleans in the wake of Hurricane Katrina, in addition to several moves of the club's base of operations.

Throughout his tenure in charge of Saints football operations, Loomis has overseen several renovations and facility upgrades at the Ochsner Sports Performance Center. An indoor practice facility, new weight room and cafeteria were constructed in 2003, with upgrades and renovations taking place in coaching and player personnel offices, meeting rooms, medical/rehab areas and locker rooms, giving the club one of the NFL's top training complexes. In 2024, renovated weight room facilities and a new team cafeteria made their debut.

Prior to arriving in New Orleans, Loomis spent 15 years with the Seattle Seahawks, including as executive vice president from 1992-98. He joined the Seahawks in 1983, was promoted to vice president/finance in 1990 and to executive vice president in 1992. A native of Eugene, Ore., Loomis has a bachelor's degree in accounting from the University of Oregon and a master's degree in sports administration from Wichita State.

Married to Melanie, Loomis has four children: Alex, Katherine, Sam and Lucy.

KELLEN MOORE

HEAD COACH

The New Orleans Saints named Kellen Moore as the 19th head coach in franchise history on Feb. 11, 2025. Coming off a Super Bowl LIX victory over the Kansas City Chiefs, Moore joined the Black and Gold after serving as the offensive coordinator for the Philadelphia Eagles' 2024 World Championship campaign.

Moore, a 14-year NFL veteran, played quarterback for six seasons (2012-17) and entered the coaching ranks in 2018, serving as an offensive coordinator for six campaigns (2019-24).

In his first season at the helm in New Orleans, Moore rallied the team from a 2-10 start to win four of the final five games. The Saints went 4-0 in the month of December, going undefeated in the month for the first time since 2011 and for only the third time in franchise history.

Moore put his imprint on the team in year one on offense, mixing a combination of rookie QB Tyler Shough, protected by a pair of promising young tackles in Kelvin Banks Jr. and Taliese Fuaga and WR Chris Olave and TE Juwan Johnson. A scheme was implemented behind Shough that accentuated his abilities and allowed the team to finish the season 5-4 with him as the starter. Shough completed 221-of-327 passes (67.6 pct.) for 2,384 yards with ten touchdowns and a 91.3 passer rating, while leading the team in rushing touchdowns to accentuate his athleticism and earn PFWA All-Rookie honors. By season's end, the Saints had a pair of players with at least 850 receiving yards – WR Chris Olave, who earned Associated Press All-Pro honors as only the second Saint with 100 receptions, and TE Juwan Johnson - for the first time since the 2016 season.

Including Shough and Banks, whose 1,066 snaps on offense was a club-high to earn PFWA All-Rookie, Moore and his staff successfully integrated a total of five rookies into the starting lineup and important rotational roles. Two draft picks on defense, CB Quincy Riley and S Jonas Sanker, earned All-Rookie honors, while injecting youth into a promising group that finished the season ranked ninth in opponent net yards per game (299.8), fourth in pass defense (179.2 ypg.) and sixth in opponent rushing yards per play (3.97).

In 2024, Moore was a key piece of a coaching staff that led the Eagles to a 14-3 record, which tied a franchise-mark for regular season victories, an NFC East Division title and the conference's number two playoff seed, culminating with a Super Bowl LIX championship at the Caesars Superdome. Ranked eighth overall in net yards per game (367.2) and seventh in points per game (27.2), Philadelphia rushed for a single-season club record 3,048 yards (sixth-best in NFL history) and finished second in the league in rushing yards per game (179.3). The 2024 Eagles were only the second team in NFL history to rush for 3,000-plus yards and at least 25 touchdowns (29). The Eagles passing attack also flourished under Moore's tutelage, setting a club record with a 103.4 passer rating, led by QB Jalen Hurts' career-high 103.7 ranked fifth-best in the league.

In the NFC Divisional Playoff victory over the Los Angeles Rams, the Philadelphia run game kept humming, gaining a team playoff-record 285 yards on 34 carries (8.4 avg.) with three touchdowns. In the Eagles' 55-23 NFC Championship victory over the Washington Commanders, they had their second-highest scoring total in postseason history, gaining 459 total net yards, including 229 rushing on 36 carries (6.4 avg.) with seven touchdowns. In Philadelphia's 40-22 Super Bowl LIX win over the Kansas City Chiefs, Hurts was voted the winner of the Pete Rozelle Trophy, awarded to the Super Bowl LIX Most Valuable Player after completing 17-of-22 attempts (77.3 pct.) for 221 yards, two touchdowns, a 119.7 passer rating and 72 rushing yards with one touchdown on the ground, the most rushing yards by a quarterback ever in a Super Bowl.

Philadelphia's record-setting offense was led by several stellar individual performances. Running back Saquon Barkley, the consensus NFL Offensive Player of the Year (Associated Press, PFWA, The Sporting News), a first-team AP All-Pro and Pro Bowl starter, led the league with a franchise-record 2,005 rushing yards in the regular season, making him just the ninth player in NFL history to post 2,000+ rushing yards in a season, eighth-most in league records. Including 499 rushing yards in the playoffs which ranked third all-time, Barkley's 2,504 rushing yards were the most in NFL single-season history (regular season and postseason combined).

Hurts ranked among the top eight in the league in yards per attempt (fourth, 8.0), passer rating (fifth, career-high 103.7), completion percentage (eighth, career-high 68.7 pct.) and total touchdowns (eighth, 32) in the regular season. In addition, Hurts tied for the fifth-most rushing touchdowns (14) in the league (first among quarterbacks). In the postseason, en route to Super Bowl MVP honors, Hurts completed 65-of-91 passes (71.4 pct.) for 726 yards with five touchdown passes, only one interception and a 108.6 passer rating. On the ground, he carried 34 times for 194 yards with five touchdowns. His five postseason rushing touchdowns tied his own NFL postseason record for quarterbacks, which he already owned from the 2022 playoffs, and his 194 rushing yards were the fourth-highest total in NFL record books by a signal-caller.

Among pass-catchers, Philadelphia (WRs A.J. Brown and DeVonta Smith) was one of three teams with multiple players that had 60+ receptions for 825+ yards and 7+ touchdowns each during the regular season. Up front, all five of the Eagles offensive line starters received All-Pro votes from the AP, with Lane Johnson and Jordan Mailata earning All-Pro honors. In addition to Johnson, G Landon Dickerson and C Cam Jurgens earned Pro Bowl recognition.

In 2023, Moore served as the Los Angeles Chargers offensive coordinator. He helped lead WR Keenan Allen to the Pro Bowl after finishing sixth in the NFL with 108 receptions for 1,243 yards and seven touchdowns. He also guided Justin Herbert to the sixth-best touchdown-interception ratio (2.9) and ninth-most passing touchdowns (20) in the NFL through Week 14 before sustaining a season-ending injury.

In four seasons as offensive coordinator of the Dallas Cowboys (2019-22), Moore's unit ranked second in the NFL in total offense (391.0 net yards per game) and scoring (27.7 points per game). The Dallas offense was also the NFL's fourth-best passing offense (264.4 net yards per game) and ranked seventh in rushing offense (126.6 yards per game) over that span. Moore helped the Cowboys secure a pair of NFC East titles and three playoff appearances in his five seasons as an assistant coach. He coached eight players to a combined 12 Pro Bowl selections as offensive coordinator, and tutored QB Dak Prescott to another as his position coach in 2018.

In 2022, the Dallas offense featured a 1,000-yard rusher and a 1,000-yard receiver under Moore. He helped RB Tony Pollard earn his first Pro Bowl selection while setting career highs with nine rushing touchdowns and 1,007 yards on the ground. Meanwhile, RB Ezekiel Elliott ran in 12 scores. The Cowboys offense also featured WR CeeDee Lamb, who set career highs in receptions (107), receiving yards (1,359) and touchdown grabs (nine), en route to his second Pro Bowl selection.

The Cowboys offense ranked as the NFL's best in 2021, leading the league in total offense (407.0 net yards per game) and scoring offense (31.2 points per game). Moore's guidance helped Prescott return from injury and throw for a franchise-record 37 touchdowns on a career-high 410 completions, registering a passer rating of 104.2, third-best by any passer in the NFL and the fourth-highest in a single season in franchise history at the time. On the ground, Elliott recorded his fifth 1,000-yard campaign and added ten touchdowns. Through the air, Lamb led the Cowboys with 79 receptions for 1,102 yards and six scores, while TE Dalton Schultz experienced a breakout season with 78 receptions for 808 yards and eight touchdowns to join Jason Witten as the only Cowboys tight ends with 70 receptions and 800 receiving yards in a single season. For their efforts, three offensive players were selected to the Pro Bowl in T Tyron Smith, G Zack Martin and WR Lamb.

Moore helped Prescott lead all NFL quarterbacks in passing yards (1,856), and 400-yard passing games (three) through the first five weeks of the 2020 season, before the signal-caller suffered a season-ending ankle injury in Week Five. Overall, he prepared three different additional quarterbacks to take snaps under center for the Cowboys in 2020, the first time that Dallas had at least four different quarterbacks start at least one game in a season since 2015. Moore's offensive front saw a shuffling of eight different starting lineup combinations on the offensive line due to injuries. Despite the injuries, Moore's unit finished the season ranked eighth in the NFL in passing offense, as WR Amari Cooper hauled in a career-high 92 receptions for 1,114 yards and five touchdowns, while Lamb set the franchise rookie record with 74 receptions. Leading the rushing attack, Elliott finished top-10 in the NFL with 979 yards and six touchdowns.

During his first season as offensive coordinator in 2019, Moore's unit led the league with 431.5 total net yards per game, which was the tenth-best single-season performance in NFL history and best by any offense since Denver's 2013 record-setting unit (457.3). Prescott finished second in the NFL with a career-high 4,902 yards passing, second-most in team history, and a then-career-best 30 passing touchdowns. Elliott finished the season ranked second in the league with 1,777 yards from scrimmage, as Cooper recorded eight touchdowns and a career-high 1,189 yards on 79 receptions.

Moore entered the coaching ranks in 2018, taking over as Dallas' quarterbacks coach after spending the previous three seasons in the room as a player. In his first season coaching Prescott, he was named to the second Pro Bowl of his career, helping lead the Cowboys to the franchise's second NFC East Division title in three seasons.

Moore played six NFL seasons for the Detroit Lions (2012-14) and Cowboys (2015-17) after entering the league as an undrafted free agent. Moore appeared in three games, including two starts for the Cowboys in 2015. He threw for 435 yards and three touchdowns in his first home start, a 34-23 loss to Washington, becoming the fifth quarterback in Cowboys history to eclipse 400 passing yards in a single game and recorded the sixth-most passing yards by any Cowboy in a single game. The following season, Moore broke his leg in training camp, but remained a mainstay in Dallas' quarterbacks room, working closely with then-rookie Prescott as the Cowboys tied a franchise-record with 13 wins in the regular season, including an 11-game win streak.

A native of Prosser, Wash., Moore finished his collegiate career at Boise State with a record of 50-3, the most wins by a quarterback in NCAA history. He concluded his collegiate tenure with the second-most touchdown passes (142) and sixth-most passing yards (14,667) by any quarterback in NCAA history, owning a career completion percentage mark of 69.7. Moore was a first-team All-American from the Football Writers Association of America in 2010, twice being named Western Athletic Conference Offensive Player of the Year (2009-10) and earning Mountain West Conference Offensive Player of the Year honors in 2011. The Broncos' offense finished in the top-five in scoring in each of Moore's final three seasons, including a first-place finish in 2009 and rank of second in 2010.

Moore and his wife, Julie, have two daughters, Halle and Madelyn, and two sons, Kyler and Beckham.

ROBERT BLANTON

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE BACKS COACH

Robert Blanton, a six-year NFL veteran in the playing ranks, enters his second season as assistant defensive backs coach for the Saints and his sixth season as a coach.

In 2025, Blanton assisted the defensive backs in finishing with a top five passing defense, allowing only 179.2 net passing yards per game. The group also helped lead New Orleans to allow the ninth-fewest yards per game in the NFL.

During a five-year tenure at Miami (Ohio) prior to joining the Saints in 2025, including serving as the defensive pass game coordinator and safeties coach in 2024, five of Blanton's players earned All-Mid-American Conference honors. In 2024, Miami rebounded from a 1-4 start to finish 9-5, securing their first bowl victory since 2021. Blanton was part of a defensive staff that finished third in the MAC in scoring defense (18.8), total defense (331.4), rushing defense (137.1) and pass defense (194.3). The RedHawks were the top red zone defense in the conference and forced 23 turnovers. Sophomore DB Raion Strader, a consensus Freshman All-American in 2023, earned first-team All-MAC honors after recording 53 tackles, two interceptions and a team-high 18 pass breakups. Redshirt senior DB Eli Blakey was named Miami's Defensive Most Improved Player of the Year and earned third-team All-MAC recognition, leading the team with 89 tackles while adding one interception and two pass breakups.

Under Blanton's guidance in 2023, Yahsyn McKee earned second-team All-MAC and Strader was the first freshman All-American at Miami since Ben Roethlisberger garnered the same attention in 2001. Blanton was part of a defensive coaching staff that helped the RedHawks rank eighth nationally in scoring defense (15.9) and allowed just 86 points in eight conference games (10.8/game), the fewest allowed in MAC play since 2000.

In his first year, several defensive backs had breakout years. John Saunders Jr. earned third-team All-MAC, recording a team-high ten pass breakups. McKee was second with six.

Blanton, who had a six-year NFL career with the Minnesota Vikings and Buffalo Bills as a safety and special teams standout, came to Oxford after spending two years as the defensive backs coach at Benilde St. Margaret's High School in St. Louis Park, Minn.

Blanton's NFL playing career began as a fifth round (139th overall) selection by the Minnesota Vikings in the 2012 NFL Draft. He was with the Vikings from 2012-15 and also spent time with the Buffalo Bills in 2016 and 2017. Blanton, who was a team captain for both the Vikings and Bills, played in 72 career regular season games with 19 starts and recorded 220 tackles (151 solo), one interception, five pass breakups, one fumble recovery and 39 coverage stops. His most productive year came in 2014, leading Minnesota with a career-high 111 stops (76 solo), while he added a career-best two takeaways and two coverage stops. In 2023, Blanton showed his interest in coaching in the NFL by participating in the Vikings Diversity Coaching Summit. He also received his first on-field experience that summer, taking advantage of a Bill Walsh minority coaching internship with the Los Angeles Chargers, where Saints Defensive Coordinator Brandon Staley was head coach and Head Coach Kellen Moore was offensive coordinator.

Blanton, a four-year member of the Fighting Irish football team from 2008-11, where he recorded 193 tackles (124 solo), two sacks, eight interceptions, 16 pass breakups and one fumble recovery, graduated from Notre Dame with a business degree in 2012 and completed his MBA in finance from the University of Miami (Fla.) in 2016. In January, Blanton coached the secondary for the American Team at the Panini Senior Bowl.

GRADY BROWN

CORNERBACKS COACH

Grady Brown enters his 27th season of coaching and sixth in the NFL, returning for his second campaign as the Saints' cornerbacks coach. Prior to arriving in New Orleans, he spent four seasons as the defensive backs coach of the Pittsburgh Steelers.

In 2025, Brown helped Kool-Aid McKinstry to a breakout season in his second campaign. McKinstry tied for sixth in the league in passes defensed (16) and was one-of-five-players to record 15-plus passes defensed and three-plus interceptions. He earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors following his Week Five performance against the New York Giants, when he recorded the first two interceptions of his career. Alontae Taylor's 83 tackles ranked seventh among cornerbacks, while his seven stops for loss were tied for third at the position. Quincy Riley was named to the CBS Sports and ESPN.com All-Rookie teams after playing in all 17 games (five starts) and totaling 34 tackles, ten passes defensed, one interception and one forced fumble. Riley's ten pass breakups were tied for fourth in the NFL among rookies.

Several individual contributors in the Pittsburgh secondary developed and shined under Brown's tutelage. FS Minkah Fitzpatrick was voted an Associated Press first-team All-Pro, named to the Pro Bowl three times, and led the NFL in interceptions in 2022 under Brown's watch. In 2023, Brown played an instrumental role in the development of rookie CB Joey Porter Jr., who was selected to the PFWA All-Rookie team. A second-round (32nd overall) draft selection in 2023, Porter played in all 17 regular-season games (11 starts) in 2023. He registered 42 tackles (32 solo), one interception, ten pass breakups, a 47.6% completion percentage on targets and 70.1 allowed passer rating. In 2024, SS DeShon Elliott, in his first season in Pittsburgh, showed a nose for the ball by tying for first in the NFL with three defensive fumble recoveries, for a defense that ranked second in the league in opponent third down conversion percentage (35.3).

With the help of Brown, the Steelers defense tied for the NFL lead with 20 interceptions in 2022. Fitzpatrick was voted AP first-team All-Pro for the third time in his career. His six picks in 2022 were the most by a Steeler in a single season since 2010 and tied for 12th-most in a single season in franchise history.

In Brown's first season in Pittsburgh, the secondary combined for 11 interceptions, led by CB Ahkello Witherspoon, who snagged three picks in just nine games. Fitzpatrick tallied a career-high 124 tackles - his first NFL season with 100+ stops.

Brown previously served as either defensive coordinator or coached in the secondary at McNeese State (2020), Old Dominion (2019), Louisville (2018), Alabama State (2002-07 and 2017), Birmingham Southern (2016), South Carolina (2012-15), Southern Mississippi (2010-11) and Texas Southern (2008). He also served as an assistant football strength coach at LSU in 2009. Brown started his collegiate coaching career in 2000 at his alma mater, Alabama A&M as a graduate assistant, before being promoted to outside linebackers coach in 2001. Brown also held two NFL training camp coaching internships, first with Seattle in 2004 and then with Kansas City in 2007.

During his tenure at South Carolina where he coached defensive backs, Brown guided a secondary that helped the Gamecocks finish in the top 25 nationally in both scoring and total defense. South Carolina surrendered just 315.5 yards per game, which ranked 11th in the country in 2012. They also ranked 13th in the nation in scoring defense that season when, allowing only 18.2 points per game. The Gamecocks improved in 2013 and ranked 12th nationally in scoring defense (20.3 points per game). Brown's secondary contributed to South Carolina ranking third in the Southeastern Conference and 12th in the nation in pass defense in 2013, allowing 196.2 passing yards per game. The Gamecocks finished second in the SEC and 13th in the nation in interceptions with 18. In Columbia, in 2012, Brown tutored former Saints S D.J. Swearinger, who captured second-team All-SEC.

With Brown coaching cornerbacks at Southern Mississippi, the defense helped lead the Golden Eagles to the 2011 Conference USA Championship. Southern Miss ranked fourth nationally in interceptions, seventh in pass efficiency defense, tenth in passing yards allowed/attempt and set an NCAA single-season record with eight interceptions returned for touchdowns. As a unit, the Golden Eagles finished the season as a Top-30 defense.

In his first four seasons in New Orleans, Clapp was a valuable blocker on the Saints interior, playing in 34 contests and starting seven games at all three inside positions and as an extra lineman for teams that reached the postseason in his first three campaigns. He re-signed with the Black and Gold in 2025 and assisted the team's coaching staff along the offensive line after suffering a season-ending foot injury in training camp.

BO DAVIS

DEFENSIVE LINE COACH

Bo Davis is in his second season as the Saints defensive line coach. Under Davis's supervision up front in the team's implementation to a 3-4 defense, veteran linemen Nathan Shepherd (tied) and Jonah Williams had a career-high three sacks apiece, while Bryan Bresee finished with 2.5 takedowns and a forced fumble despite missing the final two games with a knee injury. DT Davon Godchaux posted 45 tackles in the middle, as the Black and Gold improved from ranking 31st in opponent rushing yards per play in 2024 to sixth in 2025.

Davis, who holds 31 years of coaching experience, including six in the NFL, joined the Saints with a history of developing some of the top defensive linemen in college football. In 13 years of coaching the line at the college level, Davis has produced 18 all-conference selections and seven All-Americans. He's coached players who have won the Outland Trophy, the Defensive Player of the Year in the Big 12 and Conference USA, along with the Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year. Davis has been part of three national championships during his college coaching career, winning the 2003 title at LSU along with championships at Alabama in 2009 and 2015 as the defensive line coach for the Crimson Tide.

The Magee, Miss. native, who was a standout nose guard at LSU, spent the 2024 season as the defensive line coach at his alma mater. With Davis' tutelage up front, the Tigers tied for 30th in the nation with 2.62 sacks per game. Davis was instrumental in the development of several defensive linemen. DE Bradyn Swinson shined with 58 tackles, 13 stops for loss, 8.5 sacks and two forced fumbles, earning second-team All-Southeastern Conference, as he was selected in the fifth round of the 2025 NFL Draft by the New England Patriots. Senior DE Sai'Vion Jones had his most productive season in college with 40 tackles, 7.5 stops for loss, 4.5 sacks and 17 quarterback hurries and was selected in the third round of the 2025 NFL Draft by the Denver Broncos. Freshman DT Dominick McKinley, who saw his snaps increase as the season progressed, earned SEC Freshman of the Week for the final contest of the regular season after recording four tackles and two sacks in the win over Oklahoma.

Davis re-joined the LSU staff in 2024 after spending three seasons at Texas (2021-23) where he helped the Longhorns reach the College Football Playoff in 2023 with one of the nation's top defenses. Davis spent six seasons in Austin, first as defensive tackles coach (2011-13) and then as defensive line coach (2021-23). Davis' 2023 Texas defensive line featured T'Vondre Sweat, a consensus All-America and recipient of the Outland Trophy as the nation's top interior lineman, along with Byron Murphy, who earned Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year. The Longhorns allowed only 82.5

yards rushing a contest and held opponents to fewer than 100 yards on the ground in eight games.

Davis joined Texas for his second stint after serving as defensive line coach for the Detroit Lions (2018-20). He also received valuable NFL coaching experience with the Miami Dolphins as assistant defensive line coach (2006) and as a defensive intern with the Jacksonville Jaguars (2016).

In 2017, with Davis serving as the defensive line coach at UTSA, former Saint Marcus Davenport earned Conference USA Player of the Year honors. The Roadrunners ranked No. 5 nationally in total defense (287.8 ypg), No. 8 in scoring defense (17.0 ppg) and No. 22 in rush defense (127.7 ypg).

Davis served two stints at Alabama, coaching the defensive line from 2007-10 and again from 2014-15. In his first stop with the Crimson Tide, Davis developed NG Terrence Cody into a two-time consensus All-American and a finalist for the Lombardi, Nagurski and Bednarik Awards.

From 2007-10, Alabama ranked among the Top Five in the nation in total defense three times, including No. 2 in 2009, surrendering only 245.4 yards per game. The Crimson Tide also ranked among the Top Ten nationally three times during that span in opponent rushing yards per game, which included No. 2 in back-to-back seasons in 2008 (74.1) and 2009 (79.4).

During his second stretch with the Crimson Tide, Alabama's defense led the nation in run defense in 2015, allowing only 75.7 rushing yards per game and ranked third nationally in total defense (273.3 ypg). Davis' 2015 Crimson Tide defensive line featured first-team All-American A'Shawn Robinson, who was an Outland Trophy finalist, along with Jonathan Allen, a 2017 first-round NFL Draft pick.

Davis first joined the Texas staff in 2011, coaching defensive tackles for three years before returning to Alabama in 2014. The Longhorns ranked sixth nationally in rush defense in 2011, allowing 96.2 yards per game and 11th in total defense (306.1 ypg).

Playing at LSU from 1990-92, Davis earned All-Southeastern Conference honors as a senior and graduated in 1993, also serving as a graduate assistant in the strength and conditioning program from 1995-97.

After four years coaching at North Shore (Houston, Texas) High School, Davis returned to LSU as assistant strength and conditioning coach (2002-05), with the team going 41-11 during that span.

Davis and his wife, Omeika, have two sons, Beau and Jackson, and a daughter, Juliana.

PHIL GALIANO

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Phil Galiano is in his second full season as the Saints' special teams coordinator. A coaching veteran with 26 years of experience, including ten in the NFL, Galiano spent six seasons (2019-24) as New Orleans' assistant special teams coach before taking over coordinator duties in 2025.

In Galiano's first full season leading the Saints special teams, defensive tackle Nathan Shepherd was named the Week Ten recipient of NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors, after he blocked Carolina's 48-yard game-tying field goal attempt. Defensive tackle Bryan Bresee had the team's first blocked field goal in Week One against Arizona. Galiano retooled a coverage unit that had their top six tacklers new to the Saints leaderboard from 2024 into 2025, led by linebacker Isaiah Stalbird, who led the club with 16 stops. Kicker Charlie Smyth, a native of Ireland, who was originally signed as part of the NFL's International Player Pathway Program in 2024, kicked in the last six games of the season and made 12 field goals and all 13 extra points, including the second-longest field goal by a player on their first career attempt (56 yards). Smyth also tied the club record by making five field goals in the team's Dec. 21 win over the New York Jets.

Galiano's work from 2019-24 with Darren Rizzi, who served as coordinator, helped make the kicking game an important key to victory for New Orleans. On coverage units, J.T. Gray's 93 tackles ranked first in the NFL during that span, with the special teams ace selected as an Associated Press All-Pro three times. The punting game also produced the top five seasons in club history for punts inside-the-20-yard line. Since 2019, the Saints have excelled in the return game. Over the seven-season period, the team has been ranked sixth in the NFL in punt return average (10.3) and are tied for fourth in the league with three punts returned for touchdowns.

Special teams were a bright spot for New Orleans in 2024, highlighted by Gray being selected as an All-Pro after recording an NFL-best 26 coverage tackles and one blocked punt. New Orleans ranked first in the NFL in opponent starting field position after kickoffs (28.2) and punts inside the 20-yard line (franchise-record 41), fifth in punt return average (12.5), seventh in opponent field goal percentage (78.6), eighth in opponent punt return average (7.6) and tenth in field goal percentage (87.1). Two blocked field goals were crucial in a pair of three-point victories. Wide receiver/return specialist Rashid Shaheed also returned a punt for a touchdown for the second consecutive season.

The 2023 Saints boasted one of the league's top special teams units, with the unit finishing ranked second in NFL Writer Rick Gosselin's annual rankings. New Orleans finished in the Top 10 in the league in 13-of-22 categories, either leading or sharing the lead in five of them and finishing second in two others. New Orleans finished ranked first in the league in opponent punt return average (5.6), while giving their defense the second-best starting point after kickoffs (24.2). Shaheed was selected as a Pro Bowl starter as a return specialist and as an AP first-team All-Pro punt returner, ranking third in the NFL in punt return average (13.6) with a 76-yard touchdown, the third-longest runback in franchise history. The Saints saw key contributions from youth, as nine rookies or first-year players contributed to the special teams units, including kicker Blake Grupe and linebacker Nephi Sewell. Grupe set the club rookie record with 30 field goals, led the team with 130 points and ranked third in the NFL with 76 touchbacks. Sewell, the team's 2024 Ed Block Courage Award winner, recorded five coverage stops and forced a fumble by the punter in Week 14 that was recovered for a touchdown. In a sign of respect for his methods, Galiano was selected by the Senior Bowl to serve as special teams coordinator for the National Team.

The Saints special teams units delivered another productive season in 2022. After a season-ending toe injury suffered by Deonte Harty, Shaheed had a 9.7 average on 20 punt returns as a rookie. Despite missing three contests due to injury, Gray led the Saints with 12 coverage stops.

In 2021, Saints special teams ranked fifth in Gosselin's comprehensive special teams rankings for the second consecutive season. Gray received his first career selection as a starter in the league's All-Star Game after leading the NFL with 19 special teams tackles and was also an AP first-team All-Pro. Linebacker Andrew Dowell, in his first full NFL season, tied for fifth in the league with 14 coverage stops and blocked a punt. The Saints special teams unit ranked fourth in the NFL in opponent average starting position after kickoffs (24.1-yard line) and eighth in punt return average (10.0).

2020 saw the Saints ranked fifth in Gosselin's annual rankings. They ranked first in opponent punt return average (2.3) and second in opponent kickoff return average (17.2), sixth in kickoff return average (25.4) and ninth in punt return average (10.2), while ranking third in opponent average starting position after kickoffs (23.8-yard line) and ninth in average starting position after kickoffs (25.9-yard line). Despite missing seven games with injuries, Harty had a 12.2 punt return average and 27.3 kickoff return average. Kicker Wil Lutz (Week Five) and punter Thomas Morstead (Week One) each were named NFC Special Teams Player of the week.

The 2019 season saw special teams rise to first in Gosselin's rankings. The special teams featured standout performances from Harty, Lutz, Morstead and Gray. For the first time in franchise history, two special teams players were selected to the AP All-Pro team (Gray and Harris) and for the second time two were selected to the Pro Bowl (Harty and Lutz). As an undrafted free agent, Harty ranked in the top five in the NFL in both kickoff and punt return average. Lutz set a franchise record by drilling 32 field goals, ranking second in the NFL in scoring (144 points), PATs (48), touchbacks (career-high 74) and third in field goals. Morstead ranked fifth in the NFL in net punting average (43.1) and was named the September NFC Special Teams Player of the Month and twice was selected conference Special Teams Player of the Week. Gray led the Saints with 16 stops, blocked a punt and recovered a fumble on coverage.

In 2018, Galiano was the special teams coordinator and assistant defensive line coach at Penn State. The Nittany Lions were ranked 12th in the country in kickoff return average (24.7) and 23rd in special teams efficiency and gross punting average (44.0). He joined the Nittany Lions in 2017 as a defensive consultant and served as the special teams coordinator for the 2017 Fiesta Bowl.

In 2016, he was a special teams intern with the Miami Dolphins under Rizzi. Miami ranked seventh in Gosselin's special teams rankings and led the NFL in opponent gross punting average (41.8) and tied for the league lead with four blocked kicks.

Galiano spent eight years at Rutgers over three stints, serving as special teams coordinator/tight ends coach in 2015 and director of recruiting in 2014. Under Galiano's tutelage in 2015, the Scarlet Knights ranked 12th in ESPN's special teams efficiency ranking, including finishing 19th in the FBS in kick return defense (18.75), 13th in punt return average (13.92) and scoring five special teams touchdowns.

After 12 years at the college level, Galiano jumped to the NFL with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 2012-13 as assistant special teams coach. In 2013, Tampa Bay led the NFL in kickoff return defense (18.8 ypr.) and blocked two punts. In 2012, the Buccaneers led the NFL with three blocked punts. Galiano also worked with kicker Connor Barth, who tied for the league lead in field goals of 40+ yards and punter Michael Koenen, who led the league in touchbacks on kickoffs and touchback percentage on kickoffs.

In his second stint with the Scarlet Knights, Galiano coached the defensive line (2011) and tight ends (2010). In 2011, the Rutgers defense finished third in the FBS in forced turnovers (34), eighth in tackles for loss per game (7.62) and scoring defense (18.31) and 15th in sacks per game (2.69).

Prior to his second stint at Rutgers, Galiano served as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Florida International from 2007-09. At FIU, Galiano helped the Panthers achieve marked improvements on the defensive side of the ball. Between the 2007 and 2008 seasons, FIU jumped up 74 spots in turnover margin, 45 spots in pass efficiency defense, 36 spots in scoring defense, 34 spots in total defense and 25 spots in rush defense. The team also ranked 25th nationally in tackles for loss average, moving up 37 spots.

In his first stop at Rutgers from 2003-06, Galiano began as a defensive graduate assistant in 2003 before he was elevated to linebackers coach in 2004. He spent the 2005-06 seasons coaching the defensive ends. His ends were major contributors on a defensive unit that ranked fourth nationally in 2006. Rutgers' defense was fifth in the NCAA in sacks and tackles for loss per game.

Galiano began his coaching career at Dickinson College, where he worked with the outside linebackers in 2000. He spent 2001 as outside linebackers coach at the University of New Haven before becoming an offensive assistant at Villanova in 2002, working primarily with the tight ends.

A three-year starter at safety for Shippensburg, Galiano served as a tri-captain during his senior campaign. He helped lead the Raiders to consecutive winning seasons (1997-99). The Norristown, Pa. native graduated with a bachelor's degree in business administration. In 2025, he was inducted into the Norristown Area High School Hall of Champions.

Galiano and his wife, Kelly, have three children, TJ, Taylor and Drew.

PETER GIUNTA

SENIOR DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Peter Giunta (pronounced GEN-ta) enters his 11th season as a Saints senior defensive assistant in 2026. He's a 47-year coaching veteran, including 35 years of experience in the NFL with three Super Bowl Championships.

Working with Cornerbacks Coach Grady Brown and a position group with both youth and veteran leadership, Giunta and the defensive staff helped Kool-Aid McKinstry to a breakout season in his second campaign. McKinstry tied for sixth in the league in pass breakups (16) and was one-of-five-players to record 15-plus pass breakups and three-plus interceptions this season. He earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors following his Week Five performance, when he recorded his first two career interceptions. Alontae Taylor's 83 tackles ranked seventh among cornerbacks, while his seven stops for loss were tied for third at the position in 2025. Quincy Riley was named to the CBS Sports and ESPN.com All-Rookie teams after playing in all 17 games (five starts) and totaling 34 tackles, ten pass breakups, an interception and a forced fumble. Riley's ten pass breakups were tied for fourth in the NFL among rookies.

In 2024, Giunta worked with a Saints secondary that persevered through injuries and personnel changes. Giunta helped tutor Taylor as well as rookie McKinstry, who both moved into the starting lineup on the outside. Taylor moved from slot corner to the outside and led the Saints with 16 pass breakups, tied for fifth in the NFL. Veteran S Tyrann Mathieu started all 17 contests and had a team-best four takeaways. Despite missing the last ten contests due to a femur injury, CB Paulson Adebo tied for the team lead with Mathieu with three picks.

In 2023, with Giunta playing an important role in implementation of an aggressive scheme, the Saints forced 29 turnovers after recording only 14 in 2022, ranked fourth in the NFL. The team's 18 interceptions, up from seven in 2022, were tied for third in the league, with 16 coming from the secondary. New Orleans led the NFL with 99 pass breakups, with three Saints ranked in the top 10. Adebo had a club-best six takeaways and ranked third in the NFL with 18 pass breakups. Mathieu tied for the team lead with Adebo with four interceptions, one returned for a touchdown.

In 2022, Giunta worked with a Saints secondary that contributed to the New Orleans defense ranking fifth in the NFL in opponent net yards per game, with a stingy back end responsible for being ranked second in the league in opponent net passing yards per game and being tied for giving up the third-fewest touchdown passes (17) in the league. Giunta worked with veterans, such as Mathieu, while overseeing the development of second-round pick Taylor. Mathieu started every game, posted a career-high 91 tackles and led the Black and Gold with four takeaways. Taylor played in 13 games with nine starts and led the Saints with 11 pass breakups, fourth among rookies.

In 2021, Giunta worked to develop young contributors in the secondary, as well as enhance the performance of veterans. He helped develop third round draft pick Adebo, who was the only Saints defender to open all 17 contests in 2021, while tying for the team lead with three interceptions, second among NFL rookies. CB Marshon Lattimore finished with a career-high 19 pass breakups, ranked third in the NFL, while being selected to his fourth Pro Bowl in his first five seasons. New Orleans was tied for sixth in the NFL with 18 interceptions, with 16 of them coming from the secondary. In addition to New Orleans finishing fourth in the NFL in scoring defense (19.7 points per game) and seventh in total defense (318.2 net yards per game), the Saints gave up the third-fewest touchdown passes (20).

In 2020, the secondary contributed to the Saints tying for third in the NFL in takeaways (26), first in interceptions (18), ranked fourth in total defense (310.9 ypg.), and fifth in opponent points per game (21.1) and opponent net passing yards per game (217.0 ypg.). Lattimore posted 62 tackles (52 solo), two interceptions and 11 pass breakups and was selected to his third Pro Bowl.

In 2019, Saints defensive backs recorded nine interceptions, 2.5 sacks, five forced fumbles and six fumble recoveries. Giunta assisted in the growth of fourth-year S Vonn Bell, who totaled five regular season fumble recoveries – the most in the NFL and added another in the postseason. S Marcus Williams led the team with four interceptions. Lattimore became the first Saints cornerback to be selected to two Pro Bowls, leading the team with 14 pass breakups.

In 2018, New Orleans defensive backs recorded ten interceptions, three sacks, nine forced fumbles and six recoveries. Giunta aided in the continued development of Lattimore, who led the team with five takeaways in the regular season, adding two interceptions in the NFC Divisional Playoff win over Philadelphia.

Lattimore enjoyed a breakout campaign in 2017, starting all 13 games he appeared in and leading NFL rookies with a team-high five interceptions and tying for the rookie lead with a club-best 18 pass breakups as he was the youngest Saint (21 years old) ever selected to the Pro Bowl and the franchise's first Associated Press NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year. S Kenny Vaccaro filled up the stat sheet with 60 tackles (48 solo), 1.5 sacks, a career-high three interceptions, seven pass breakups and one fumble recovery.

Giunta served as the secondary/cornerbacks coach of the Giants from 2006-14, a period when New York captured two Super Bowl titles. The Salem, Mass. native was at the forefront in the development of several young cornerbacks and was instrumental in the success of numerous veterans.

Former LSU standout Corey Webster developed into an eight-year starter under Giunta's watch and recorded 22 interceptions and four fumble recoveries in the regular season and postseason, including recording three takeaways in the 2007 playoffs all the way to a Super Bowl title. Webster's pick of a Brett Favre pass set up the Giants' game-winning field goal in overtime of the NFC Championship in Green Bay. In 2011, Webster opened all 20 regular season and postseason contests. Aaron Ross, the club's first round draft pick in 2007, was inserted into the starting lineup midway through his rookie campaign and delivered three interceptions, one brought back for a score. Ross returned to the starting lineup in 2011 and finished tied for second on the team to Webster (six) with a career-high four picks. Giunta was instrumental in the development of CB Prince Amukamara, the team's first round draft pick in 2011, who despite missing the last eight games with a biceps injury in 2014, had set a career-high with three interceptions through the first eight contests. In 2009, CB Terrell Thomas led the team with five interceptions, one returned for a touchdown, as New York ranked ninth in opponent net passing yards per game. Thomas was selected to the USA Today All-Joe Team.

Giunta was Kansas City's defensive backs coach for four seasons (2001-05). In 2003, S Jerome Woods earned his first career Pro Bowl berth under his guidance, an impressive feat considering the fact that he missed the 2002 campaign with a broken leg. The Chiefs registered 25 interceptions to rank third in the NFL that season, as S Greg Wesley and CB Dexter McCleon paced the team with six picks apiece.

Giunta joined the Chiefs after spending four seasons (1997-2000) with the St. Louis Rams, including the last three as defensive coordinator. Giunta served as the Rams' assistant head coach under Dick Vermeil in 1998-99 after originally joining the staff as defensive backs coach in 1997.

As defensive coordinator, Giunta was responsible for the resurgence in a Rams defense that sparked the club's unexpected run to a world championship in 1999. Those efforts culminated with a 13-3 regular season record and a 23-16 victory over the Tennessee Titans in Super Bowl XXXIV. Giunta's unit led the league in rush defense in 1999, allowing just 74.3 yards per game, while ranking fourth in scoring defense (15.1 ppg.) and sixth in total defense (293.6 ypg.).

The Rams' 1999 defense led the NFC and was second in the NFL with 29 interceptions. CB Todd Lyght tied for the league lead with six picks, earning his initial Pro Bowl berth in the process. St. Louis was also opportunistic, returning nine takeaways (seven interceptions and two fumbles) for touchdowns. Those turnovers were due in large part to a Rams pass rush, which racked up 57.0 sacks, tied for the league lead. The sack brigade was headlined by Pro Bowl DE Kevin Carter, who led the NFL with 17.0 quarterback takedowns.

Giunta's has established a reputation for getting the most out of defensive backs. In 2000, McCleon intercepted eight passes, a total surpassed by only one player. In Giunta's first season as defensive coordinator in 1998, St. Louis ranked third in the NFL in pass defense, allowing 176.9 yards per game. With Giunta serving as defensive backs coach in 1997 the Rams were second in the league with 25 interceptions, including an NFL-high nine by CB Ryan McNeil.

Prior to his stint with the Rams, Giunta spent two seasons as defensive backs coach for the New York Jets. In 1995, the Jets led the league in opponent net yards passing (171.3 yards per game). Giunta was instrumental in the development of CB Aaron Glenn, who would go on to be a three-time All-Pro and Pro Bowl selection.

Giunta entered the NFL as the defensive backs coach with the Philadelphia Eagles from 1991-94. In 1991, the Eagles defense ranked first in the league in passing defense (150.8 yards per game), rushing defense (71.0 yards per game) and total defense (221.8 yards per game). That marked just the fifth time in NFL history and the first time since 1975 that a single team led the league in all three of those defensive categories. No team has equaled that feat since the 1991 Eagles.

Giunta's ten seasons in the college ranks began at Penn State (1981-83). He was a defensive assistant his first year before coaching the tight ends in his final two seasons. While he was at Penn State, the Nittany Lions won the 1982 National Championship with a 27-23 victory over Georgia in the Sugar Bowl. Penn State won three bowl games during Giunta's tenure.

Following Penn State, Giunta moved to Brown (1984-87), where he coached tight ends and wide receivers before becoming the offensive coordinator (1986-87). He then joined the staff at Lehigh (1988-90), where he was responsible for tight ends and wide receivers.

After a four-year playing career as a defensive back and running back at Northeastern (1974-77), Giunta began his coaching career in his native Massachusetts, where he was an assistant coach at Swampscott High School from 1978-80.

ADAM GRISTICK

ASSISTANT LINEBACKERS COACH

Adam Gristick enters his second season as assistant linebackers coach and fourth season with New Orleans, where spent his first two years as a defensive assistant (2023-24) before being elevated to assistant linebackers coach in 2025.

During his third season on staff, Gristick and Linebackers Coach Peter Sirmon helped the team's linebackers adjust to an alignment change from a 4-3 to 3-4, with the team ranking ninth in the NFL in opponent net yards per game. Demario Davis finished with 143 tackles, his highest total as a Saint. Pete Werner finished with 81 stops (50 solo), two sacks, and career-highs in pass breakups (five) and fumble recoveries (three), tying for the league lead in the latter. With player development at a premium, fourth round draft pick Danny Stutsman had 40 tackles in spot duty and Isaiah Stalbird led the linebackers with two sacks in his second season.

CHASE HASLETT

TIGHT ENDS COACH

Chase Haslett enters his second season as the Saints tight ends coach after joining New Orleans in 2025.

In his first campaign with the Saints, Haslett helped guide Juwan Johnson to his most productive season as a professional, finishing with career-highs in receptions (77) and receiving yards (889) to go with three touchdowns, ranked fifth in receptions and third in receiving yards and third down grabs (21) in the NFL among tight ends.

A 11-year coaching veteran, including six in the National Football League, Haslett came to New Orleans after serving five seasons on the Dallas Cowboys offensive coaching staff.

Serving as the team's pass game specialist in 2024, despite the challenges the Cowboys faced on offense due to injuries to several key starters, Dallas finished the season ranked 11th in the NFL in NFL in net passing yards per game (227.2).

Assisting the Cowboys tight ends in 2023, Haslett helped guide Jake Ferguson to earn his first Pro Bowl selection in his first season as a starter. Ferguson finished second on the team in receiving with 71 receptions for 761 yards and five touchdowns. His 761 receiving yards were eighth among all NFL tight ends, and his 90 career receptions were the second-most by a Cowboys tight end in the first two seasons of a career.

From 2020-22, serving as an offensive quality control coach, Haslett primarily helped with the tight ends. In 2022, Dalton Schultz topped 50 catches for the third straight year. Behind Schultz were two rookies, Ferguson and Peyton Hendershot, who combined to become the third rookie tight end duo in NFL history to record multiple receiving touchdowns in their rookie seasons.

In 2021, the Cowboys led the NFL in scoring (31.2 points-per-game) and total offense (407.0 net yards-per-game). Haslett once again worked closely with the tight ends, helping Schultz to the most productive season of his career with 78 receptions, 808 yards and eight touchdowns.

In 2020, Haslett assisted with an offense that ranked in the top-10 of most primary statistical categories. Despite losing starter Dak Prescott to injury after five games and playing four different quarterbacks, the Cowboys offense ranked seventh in the NFL in net passing yards per game (260.1).

Prior to Dallas, Haslett spent four years in the college ranks. After growing up around coaching first-hand under the watchful eye of his father, Jim Haslett, a former standout linebacker and a longtime coaching veteran who served on New Orleans' defensive staff (1995-96) and as Saints head coach (2000-05), earning NFL Coach of the Year in 2000 in guiding the franchise to their first playoff win, Chase Haslett earned his first foray into the NFL coaching ranks after spending time on the staffs at Nebraska as a graduate assistant/quarterbacks (2016-17), Mississippi State as quality control/offense (2018) and Mercer as tight ends coach (2019).

A former college quarterback at Illinois and Indiana University of Pennsylvania (IUP), Haslett earned his bachelor's degree in recreation, sport and tourism from Illinois in 2014 and his master's degree in sport science from IUP in 2015.

TERRY JOSEPH

DEFENSIVE PASS GAME COORDINATOR

A 20-year coaching veteran, including 19 in the collegiate ranks, Terry Joseph enters his second season as the Saints defensive pass game coordinator.

Working with the safeties, the New Orleans native helped usher two new starters into New Orleans' lineup in 2025, forming a productive duo as the back end for a defense that finished fourth in the NFL in opponent net passing yards per game. Justin Reid anchored the secondary, finishing with 72 tackles, despite missing two contests and returning an interception 49 yards for a touchdown. Rookie Jonas Sanker entered the starting lineup in Week Two and led the secondary with 78 stops and ranked second among rookie safeties with three takeaways, tied for first on the team, earning ESPN.com All-Pro honors.

Joseph arrived in New Orleans after spending four seasons as the defensive passing game coordinator and secondary coach at Texas (2021-24). In 2024, Joseph helped lead the Longhorns defense to an impressive campaign, ranking seventh nationally in opponent passing yards per game (173.8) and tied for first in interceptions (22). He was key in the development of Jahdae Barron, who won the 2024 Jim Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back, earned consensus All-American honors, when he made 67 tackles, five interception returns for 82 yards, 11 pass breakups and a fumble recovery and was a first round pick of the Denver Broncos.

Texas' 2023 secondary was highlighted by a standout campaign from Barron, a Thorpe Award semifinalist, who led the crew with 61 tackles (32 solo) while adding 4.5 stops for loss, one interception, one forced fumble and a six pass breakups. Terrance Brooks, Jerrin Thompson and Michael Taaffe led the team with three interceptions apiece, while the Longhorns as a whole tallied 16 interceptions, the tenth-most in the nation.

The 2022 Longhorns featured a secondary with a quartet of honorable mention All-Big 12 honorees in Barron, Anthony Cook, Thompson and Ryan Watts. Texas was 12th in the nation with three defensive touchdowns, two by Barron and 34th in defensive passing efficiency at 123.64, while ranking 27th in scoring defense (21.6 ppg). Barron had a team-leading 11.5 tackles for loss and had an interception return and fumble return for scores.

In 2021, Joseph tutored honorable mention All-Big 12 honorees B.J. Foster and Cook, helping guide them to career years. Foster tallied a career-high three interceptions, third in the conference, while also registering a career-best 47 tackles. Cook recorded a career-best 46 tackles, including three stops for loss.

Joseph arrived in Austin after spending three seasons at Notre Dame (2018-20), the last two as defensive passing game coordinator and all three as defensive backs coach. During that time, he helped the Fighting Irish post a 33-5 record, earn two College Football Playoff appearances, a pair of No. 5 rankings in the final polls (2018 & 2020) and a No. 11 ranking in 2019.

In 2020, the Irish ranked in the top 25 nationally in fumbles recovered (10/eighth), opponent third down conversion percentage (31.4/12th), scoring defense (19.7/14th), tackles for loss (7.5/17th), rushing defense (113.0/16th) and total defense (343.6/25th). The defense had six straight games allowing fewer than 100 yards rushing en route to a 10-2 record, including a win over No. 1 Clemson, an undefeated regular season and appearances in the ACC Championship Game and College Football Playoff.

Under Joseph, sophomore safety Kyle Hamilton flourished and earned third-team All-America honors from the AP, was named consensus first-team All-ACC and a semifinalist for the Bednarik Award. He led Notre Dame with 63 tackles, recorded 4.5 stops for loss, six pass breakups and an interception. Members of the secondary made up four of the team's top six tacklers and those four combined for 26 pass breakups.

In 2019, Notre Dame's defense ranked in the top five in passing yards allowed per game (168.5/third) and passing efficiency defense (110.15/fifth), along with leading the nation in fumble recoveries and positioning in the top 20 in scoring defense (17.9 ppg./12th) and total defense (321.6 ypg./18th). The Irish were 11-2 for the season with a win in the Camping World Bowl. Safety Alohi Gilman led the defensive backs with 74 tackles and three forced fumbles, while Hamilton was named a freshman All-American by The Athletic after collecting four interceptions and six pass breakups. Cornerback Troy Pride Jr. also had six pass breakups and went on to be selected in the fourth round of the 2020 NFL Draft by the Carolina Panthers.

Notre Dame posted another perfect regular season and appearance in the College Football Playoff in 2018, going 12-0 and then only falling to eventual champion No. 2 Clemson in the Cotton Bowl. The defense was ranked in the top ten nationally in passing yards allowed per attempt (5.6/t-second), fewest touchdown passes allowed (ten/third), pass efficiency defense (105.6/sixth), fewest plays allowed of at least 30 yards (17/t-tenth) and fewest touchdowns allowed (28/t-tenth). Junior cornerback Julian Love was a consensus first-team All-American and Thorpe Award finalist after amassing 16 pass breakups and three fumble recoveries. He went on to be a fourth-round pick by the New York Giants in the 2019 NFL Draft. After Irish safeties failed to record an interception in 2017, Jalsen Elliott and Gilman had four and two, respectively, in 2018.

Joseph went to Notre Dame after spending the 2017 season as defensive backs coach at North Carolina. He tutored cornerback M.J. Stewart, who participated in the 2018 Reese's Senior Bowl. A two-time All-ACC honorable mention selection, Stewart registered 45 tackles, 12 pass breakups, 5.0 stops for loss and 2.0 sacks.

Prior to joining the Tar Heels staff, Joseph served as defensive backs coach at Texas A&M from 2014-16. He tutored an Aggies pass defense in 2015 that ranked fourth nationally in passing yards allowed per game and 18th in opponent pass efficiency. Joseph was instrumental in the position switch of Brandon Williams in 2015, who converted from running back to cornerback in training camp and developed into a third round pick in the 2016 NFL Draft. In 2016, Joseph mentored All-SEC strong safety and former Saint Justin Evans, who was a semifinalist for the Thorpe Award.

Previously, Joseph spent two seasons at Nebraska as its secondary coach (2012-13). Despite the loss of two returning starters in the secondary, Nebraska led the nation in opponent completion percentage (47.1 percent), ranked fourth in pass defense (168.2 yards allowed per game) and ninth in pass efficiency defense (105.32), while helping the Cornhuskers to a 10-win season. The 168.2 passing yards per game NU allowed was the second-fewest by a Husker defense since 1993, while the 47.1 completion percentage was the lowest for Nebraska since 2001.

In 2012, safety Daimion Stafford earned first-team All-Big Ten under Joseph's tutelage after leading the conference with four interceptions in league play. He ranked second on the team with 96 tackles, forced two fumbles and recovered two. Cornerback Ciante Evans earned first-team All-Big Ten from CBS Sports, totaling 56 tackles and ranking second on the team with eight pass breakups. Evans registered a 29-yard interception return for a touchdown. The Cornhuskers' three interception returns for touchdowns tied for its most since 2006, while their 13 picks in 2012 eclipsed its 2011 total.

Before arriving at Nebraska, Joseph spent two seasons under Derek Dooley as the defensive backs coach at Tennessee, where he also served as the recruiting coordinator. He helped the Volunteers rank among the nation's top pass defenses in 2010 and 2011. In 2011, UT finished 12th nationally in passing yards allowed with an average of just 177.8 yards per game.

In Joseph's first season in Knoxville in 2010, he helped the Vols rank in the top 20 in the nation with 18 interceptions, and the group played a key role in a late-season run that earned Tennessee a trip to the Music City Bowl. Safety Janzen Jackson and cornerback Prentiss Waggner each earned second-team All-SEC honors. Waggner returned a school-record three interceptions for touchdowns.

Joseph joined Tennessee after working under Dooley for three seasons at Louisiana Tech from 2007-09, where he served as secondary coach/recruiting coordinator, playing a key role in a defensive turnaround in Ruston. The highlight of Joseph's stint at Louisiana Tech came in 2008, when the Bulldogs finished second in the Western Athletic Conference and earned their first bowl trip in seven seasons. Tech completed an 8-5 season with an Independence Bowl win.

Joseph served as a Defensive Graduate Assistant at LSU in 2006, where the Tigers ranked third nationally in total defense and finished the year with a Sugar Bowl victory over Notre Dame.

Joseph began his coaching career in the New Orleans-area high school ranks, working at his alma mater, Archbishop Shaw (1999-2002) and Destrehan (2003-05).

Joseph earned his bachelor's degree in marketing/business administration from Northwestern State in 1996, where he was a baseball standout and one of only 12 players in Southland Conference history to earn first-team All-Conference honors in three consecutive seasons. Joseph, who was named the 1995 Southland Conference and Louisiana Player of the Year, twice earned Academic All-America honors. He helped the Demons capture three straight SLC championships and held ten different school records when his collegiate career ended and is a member of the school's Athletic Hall of Fame. He was a 13th-round draft pick of the Chicago Cubs and played four seasons with the Cubs and San Diego Padres minor league systems.

Joseph comes from a family with deep coaching roots. His cousin, Vance Joseph, is the defensive coordinator of the Denver Broncos, and another cousin, Mickey Joseph, is the head football coach for Grambling State University.

Joseph and his wife, Amanda, have two daughters, Taylor and Lynleigh.

SCOTT LINEHAN

SENIOR OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Scott Linehan enters his second season as a senior offensive assistant with the Saints and his 19th campaign as an NFL coach.

A Sunnyside, Wash. native, the 37-year coaching veteran was previously the head coach of the St. Louis Rams (2006-2008) and served as the offensive coordinator for the Dallas Cowboys (2015-18), Detroit Lions (2009-13), Miami Dolphins (2005), and Minnesota Vikings (2002-04). Before joining the Saints, Linehan had spent the prior five seasons at the collegiate level, including stops at Montana (2024, offensive analyst), Missouri (2021, offensive analyst) and LSU (2020, passing game coordinator). Of his 37 years of coaching football, Linehan has served 24 years as either an offensive coordinator or head coach.

Linehan was a key part of a staff that devised a scheme behind rookie signal-caller Tyler Shough that accentuated his abilities and helped the Black and Gold finish the season

5-4. Despite having only nine starts, Shough completed 221-of-327 passes (67.6 pct.) for 2,384 yards with ten touchdowns and a 91.3 passer rating, while leading the team in rushing touchdowns to accentuate his athleticism and earn PFWA All-Rookie honors. By season's end with the improvement to the passing offense, the Saints had a pair of players with at least 850 receiving yards – WR Chris Olave and TE Juwan Johnson for the first time since the 2016 season.

In 2024, Linehan served as an offensive analyst for the University of Montana, helping the Grizzlies finish fourth in the Big Sky Conference in points per game (33.4). With his help, Montana improved in numerous offensive categories from 2023, including points per game, rushing yards per game, rushing yards per attempt, passing yards per game, third down conversion pct. and fourth down conversion pct. The Grizzlies finished second in the conference in yards per carry (5.5) after averaging 4.2 yards per carry in 2023. Linehan worked on the Montana Staff with his son Mike, who served as defensive line coach and is now defensive ends coach at Illinois.

In 2021, Linehan served as an offensive analyst for Missouri. On the same staff as son Matt, who was a graduate assistant working with the quarterbacks and wide receivers and is now wide receivers coach at Winona State. The Tigers improved their win total and reached the Armed Forces Bowl. Running back Tyler Badie was a second-team All-American, rushing for 1,604 yards with 14 touchdowns, surpassing 200 rushing yards in five games.

In 2020, Linehan served as passing game coordinator for LSU. After multiple injuries at the quarterback position, Linehan tutored true freshman quarterback Max Johnson to take over the starting job over the final six games, going 88-for-150 (58.7 pct.) passing for 1,069 yards, eight touchdowns and only one interception. At wideout, fellow freshman Kayshon Boutte was a standout, catching 45 passes for 735 yards with five touchdowns. Boutte also set an LSU and Southeastern Conference record for receiving yards (308) in a single game in the Tigers' season finale victory over Ole Miss.

In 2018 in Dallas, Dak Prescott established career-highs in passing yards (3,885 - more than 200 greater than his club rookie record), attempts (526) and completions (356 - second in team history). Prescott, who was named to his second career Pro Bowl, helped lead Dallas to an NFC East Division Crown, Dallas' second in three years. In addition, Ezekiel Elliott earned his second Pro Bowl nomination and became the first Cowboys running back with 2,000 scrimmage yards in a season since 2014.

In 2017, Dallas' offense featured the 2016 NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year, Prescott and the league's 2016 rushing champ, Elliott. Linehan helped guide Prescott to become the first Dallas quarterback to throw for 3,000-plus yards (3,324) and 20-plus touchdowns (22) in each of his first two pro seasons. In ten games, Elliott rushed for 983 yards and seven scores, averaging 4.1 yards-per-carry. Jason Witten was named to his 11th Pro Bowl and became the team's all-time receiving yards leader. Dez Bryant also became the club's all-time receiving touchdown leader, finishing the year with six. As a unit, the offense was second in the league in rushing (2,170), marking the first time since 1998-99 a Cowboys team had at least 2,000 rushing yards in consecutive seasons. Additionally, three offensive lineman again earned trips to the Pro Bowl - Tyron Smith (fifth), Travis Frederick and Zack Martin (four each).

Linehan opened the 2016 season with Prescott, who became only the fourth rookie signal-caller to start a season opener in team history. Under Linehan, Elliott and Prescott went on to have the best rookie seasons at their respective positions in team history, while also ranking on the league's all-time charts for rookies. Prescott tied the most wins (13) by a rookie quarterback in league history, setting club rookie records for yards (3,667), touchdowns (23), attempts (459), completions (311), completion percentage (67.8) and passer rating (104.9 - an NFL rookie record). On the ground, Elliott became only the fifth NFL rookie since the merger to lead the league in rushing (1,631 - third by an NFL rookie all-time), with a club rookie record seven 100-yard rushing games. Both earned a trip to the Pro Bowl to mark the first time in team history a rookie quarterback and rookie running back both made the all-star game. The offensive line led the way for the league's second ranked rushing attack (149.8 yards-per-game) as three of its charges earned Pro Bowl nods: Smith, Frederick and Martin. The line also earned the Built Ford Tough Offensive Line of the Year award.

With an injury to Romo in 2015, Linehan employed four quarterbacks over the course of 16 games, with Brandon Weeden (three starts), Matt Cassel (seven) and Saints Head Coach Kellen Moore (two) trying to lead the offense. An injury to Bryant allowed Witten to lead the team for the eighth time in his career with 77 catches, and Terrance Williams had a team-high 840 receiving yards. The Cowboys rushing attack racked up 1,890 yards (ninth), with Darren McFadden leading all Cowboys running backs with 1,089 yards and a 4.6 average. Three Cowboys offensive linemen made the Pro Bowl: Smith, Frederick and Martin; as the group continued to be a dominant force for the team.

Linehan called an offense that helped the 2014 Cowboys to an NFL-best tying 12-4 record. Along the way, the team had three players lead the league and establish single-season club records as DeMarco Murray rushed for 1,845 yards and earned Associated Press NFL Offensive Player of the year honors, Bryant caught a league-best 16 touchdown passes and Tony Romo completed 69.9% of his passes and had a 113.2 quarterback rating. The Dallas offense as a whole was second in the league in rushing yards (2,354). For the season, the Dallas offense totaled 6,138 yards and 467 points, both second in a season in franchise history. The club had seven offensive players selected to the Pro Bowl, including two first-timers (Frederick and rookie Martin). Perennial Pro Bowler Witten earned his tenth trip, Romo made his fourth and Bryant, Murray and Smith each made their second. Martin was the only offensive rookie in the NFL in 2014 to make the Pro Bowl, the first rookie offensive lineman in team history to make the game, and was named to the AP All-Pro team - only the third rookie in club history to receive the honor.

From 2009-13, Linehan served as the Detroit Lions offensive coordinator and in 2013 his offense finished the season sixth in the NFL in total yards (6,274) and third in passing yards (4,482). Helping bolster those numbers was Pro Football Hall of Fame wideout Calvin Johnson, who finished the season with 1,492 receiving yards - fourth in team history - including a club single-game record (second all-time in the NFL) 329 yards. Under Linehan's guidance, Johnson established the club single-season record for receiving yards with 1,964 (2012) while also finishing 2011 third in team history with 1,681. Over those same three seasons, Matthew Stafford took the top-three spots in team history for passing yards with 5,038 (2011), 4,967 (2012) and 4,650 (2013). From 2010-13, the Lions offense amassed 18,033 passing yards (ranked second in the NFL) and 24,574 total yards (fourth).

In 2012, the offense set a club record with 6,540 yards (third in the league) and net passing yards 4,927 (second). In finishing third in total offense, it marked the highest finish for Detroit since 1997 (second).

Linehan's offense in 2011 scored 474 points to set a team record and finish fourth in the league. In addition to establishing the club record for passing yards in a season, Stafford threw a franchise-best 41 touchdowns while topping team all-time charts for completion percentage (63.5) and passer rating (97.2). His 5,000-yard season was only the fourth in NFL history.

In Linehan's second season in Detroit (2010), the Lions had the league's fourth-most improved offense, gaining 639 more yards than in 2009.

Upon arriving in Detroit (2009), Linehan helped Stafford finish his rookie campaign near the top of many franchise rookie passing records, placing first in touchdown passes (13) and second in passing yards (2,267), completions (201) and completion percentage (54.1).

Prior to landing in Detroit, Linehan spent three seasons (2006-08) as the head coach of the St. Louis Rams. Linehan helped establish St. Louis' rushing attack, utilizing Stephen Jackson, whose 346 carries in 2006 were the most by a Rams player in 20 seasons. Jackson's 1,528 rushing yards were third in the NFC while his 105 first downs and 2,334 all-purpose yards were tops in the NFL to earn his first career Pro Bowl selection. QB Marc Bulger flourished under Linehan's offense, passing for a career-best 4,301 in 2006 with 24 touchdowns (second in Rams history at the time). Torry Holt and Pro Football Hall of Fame WR Isaac Bruce both finished 2006 with 1,000-plus yards and combined for 167 catches.

In 2005, Linehan was the offensive coordinator for the Miami Dolphins, helping improve the total offensive output from 4,960 yards (29th) in 2004 to 5,198 (12th) in 2005.

Linehan made his NFL coaching debut in 2002 with the Minnesota Vikings where he was the club's offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach (2002-04). The Vikings finished 2002 fourth in team history (second at that point) with 6,192 yards, followed by 2003's mark of 6,294 yards, which was the club record at season's end. Linehan's 2003 number was trumped by his 2004 total of 6,339, which still stands as the franchise record. Overall in the three seasons from 2002-04, the Vikings finished second, first and fourth in the NFL in net yards per game. Both Pro Football Hall of Fame WR Randy Moss and QB Daunte Culpepper excelled in Linehan's offense, and in 2002, Moss' 111 catches for 1,632 yards were a personal-best. Culpepper's 2004 season saw him make his second trip to the Pro Bowl while finishing with the then fourth-highest passer rating in league history (110.9) while leading the league with personal-bests in passing yards (4,717), yards-per-play (8.6) and touchdowns (39). After scoring 290 points in 2001, Linehan improved the club's figures to 390 (2002), 416 (2003) and 405 (2004).

Before coming to the NFL, Linehan coached collegiately for 13 years for teams that played in seven bowl games and won five conference titles. Five of Linehan's quarterbacks were drafted by NFL Teams - Chris Redman and Dave Ragone (Louisville), Brock Huard and Marques Tuiasosopo (Washington) and current Saints Offensive Coordinator Doug Nussmeier (Idaho).

Linehan was the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Louisville (1999-2001), helping the school to three bowl berths and consecutive Conference USA championships - the first school in conference history to accomplish the feat. In each of his three seasons, one of his quarterbacks earned Conference Player of the Year honors.

Linehan spent five seasons at the University of Washington (1994-98), advancing to four bowl games and winning the 1995 Pac-10 title. He spent four seasons at his alma mater, Idaho, serving as wide receivers coach (1989-90) and offensive coordinator/quarterbacks (1992-93). Sandwiched between his two stints at Idaho was a one-year stop as the quarterbacks coach for UNLV.

Linehan was a quarterback for College Football Hall of Fame Head Coach Dennis Erickson at the University of Idaho (1982-86), winning the Big Sky Championship in 1985 and earning Division I-AA playoff appearances three straight times (1984-86). He signed with the Dallas Cowboys in 1987 as a rookie free agent, but a shoulder injury ended his playing career.

In 2017, Linehan was inducted into the Idaho Athletic Hall of Fame. He and his wife, Kristen, have three sons, Matthew, Michael and Marcus.

BRENDAN NUGENT

OFFENSIVE LINE COACH

Brendan Nugent enters his second season under Head Coach Kellen Moore as offensive line coach for New Orleans in 2026 in his second stint with the club. A 22-year coaching veteran, including the last 13 seasons in the NFL, he previously served as the Saints' offensive line coach in 2021.

In his return to New Orleans in 2025, Nugent helped the offensive line overcome a rash of injuries to improve in both pass protection and run blocking as the season progressed. The line was anchored on the outside by rookie left tackle Kelvin Banks Jr. and second-year right tackle Taliese Fuaga. He played a key role in the development of Banks, the team's first round draft pick, who was named as a consensus All-Rookie selection after leading the Saints offense with 1,066 snaps played. Banks surrendered only four sacks, the fewest takedowns given up for rookie tackles who started at least 16 contests. Nugent returned to New Orleans after serving as assistant offensive line coach of the Seattle Seahawks in 2024.

First joining the Saints as an offensive assistant in 2015, Nugent served as assistant offensive line coach (2017-20) and as offensive line coach (2021). In that five-season period, the Saints surrendered only 131 sacks, the lowest total in the NFL, tied for first with 103 rushing touchdowns, ranked second in points per game (27.9), eighth in rushing yards per game (124.6) and ninth in net yards per game (364.3). Left tackle Terron Armstead was selected to three Pro Bowls and was a second-team Associated Press All-Pro in 2018. After being selected PFWA All-Rookie in 2017, right tackle Ryan Ramczyk was a three-time All-Pro from 2018-20 (first-team in 2018). Guard Larry Warford was a Pro Bowler from 2017-19 and center Max Unger was selected in his final season in 2018. Center Erik McCoy, who has developed into a two-time Pro Bowler and the anchor of the Saints line, was selected PFWA All-Rookie in 2019 under Nugent's tutelage. During the time period, running back Alvin Kamara led the NFL in total touchdowns (68), ranked third in rushing touchdowns (47) and led running backs with 373 receptions.

From 2022-23, Nugent served as offensive line coach of the Los Angeles Chargers, key in the development of Jamaree Salyer, who was thrust in as the starting left tackle as a rookie after an injury to All-Pro tackle Rashawn Slater. In his first two seasons (2022-23), and over 2,100 offensive snaps, Salyer was only called for six penalties (zero for holding).

In 2022, Nugent helped the Chargers offense rank third in net passing yards per game (296.6) and No. 9 in total offense (359.3 ypg.). The line protected quarterback Justin Herbert to become the first player in history to top 4,000 passing yards in each of his first three seasons and join Peyton Manning as the only players to throw 25 touchdowns in three consecutive seasons to begin a career. The unit blocked for a versatile offensive attack led by running back Austin Ekeler, who led the league for the second-consecutive campaign with 18 scrimmage touchdowns and set single-season career highs with 1,637 yards from scrimmage, 13 rushing touchdowns, 915 rushing yards and 107 receptions. His receptions total led all running backs, ranked fifth in the NFL overall, and tied for the second-most by a running back in a single season in NFL history.

Nugent spent the 2012 season as a special teams assistant/offensive quality control coach on the staff of Marc Trestman with the CFL's Montreal Alouettes. That year, the Alouettes finished first in the CFL's East Division. Nugent then coached under Trestman as an offensive quality control coach with the Chicago Bears (2013-14).

A White Plains, N.Y. native, Nugent played linebacker at The Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. After his college playing career, he broke into coaching at his high school alma mater, Archbishop Stepinac High, tutoring the team's linebackers.

Nugent went on to spend two years as an offensive assistant at Iowa (2005-06), helping the Hawkeyes reach the 2005 Outback Bowl and 2006 Alamo Bowl during his tenure, while also earning his bachelor's degree in political science in 2006. He then coached at William & Mary from 2007-11. In his five years with the Tribe, he tutored the tight ends (2007, 2009), wide receivers (2008) and running backs (2010-11).

Nugent and his wife, Jenny, have four children: Addelynn, Declan, Maelie and Nolan.

PLAYING CAREER: Catholic University of America, 2001-03.
COACHING CAREER: Archbishop Stepinac (White Plains, N.Y.) High School, 2004; Iowa, 2005-06; William & Mary, 2007-11; Montreal Alouettes (CFL), 2012; Chicago Bears, 2013-14; New Orleans Saints, 2015-21; Los Angeles Chargers, 2022-23; Seattle Seahawks, 2024, New Orleans Saints, 2025-.

DOUG NUSSMEIER

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Doug Nussmeier enters his second season as New Orleans' offensive coordinator in 2026, marking his 11th season in the NFL coaching ranks and 12th overall as an offensive coordinator at the NFL and collegiate levels.

A 25-year coaching veteran, Nussmeier returned to New Orleans in 2025 after originally being a fourth round pick (116th overall) of the Saints in the 1994 NFL Draft out of Idaho, playing four seasons with the Black and Gold. He re-joined the Saints after spending the 2024 season as quarterbacks coach of the Philadelphia Eagles.

In his first season with the Saints coaching staff in 2025, Nussmeier helped the offensive improve steadily throughout the season. Nussmeier and Head Coach Kellen Moore devised a scheme behind rookie signal-caller Tyler Shough that accentuated his abilities and helped the Black and Gold finish the season 5-4. Despite having only nine starts, Shough completed 221-of-327 passes (67.6 pct.) for 2,384 yards with ten touchdowns and a 91.3 passer rating, while leading the team in rushing touchdowns to accentuate his athleticism and earn PFWA All-Rookie. By season's end, the Saints had a pair of players with at least 850 receiving yards – WR Chris Olave and TE Juwan Johnson - for the first time since the 2016 season.

In 2024, Nussmeier was a key piece of the Eagles Super Bowl LIX Champion offensive coaching staff. With Philadelphia ranked eighth overall in the NFL in net yards per game (367.2) and seventh in points per game (27.2), Jalen Hurts flourished under Nussmeier's tutelage, posting a career-high 103.7 passer rating, fifth in the league. Hurts also ranked among the top eight in the league in yards per attempt (fourth, 8.0), completion percentage (eighth, career-high 68.7) and total touchdowns (eighth, 32). In addition, Hurts tied for the fifth-most rushing touchdowns (14) in the league (first among quarterbacks).

In the postseason, Hurts completed 65-of-91 (71.4 pct.) for 726 yards with five touchdown passes, only one interception and a 108.6 passer rating. On the ground, he carried 34 times for 194 yards with five touchdowns. His five postseason rushing touchdowns tied his own NFL playoffs record for quarterbacks, which he already owned from the Eagles' run to Super Bowl LVII, and his 194 rushing yards were the fourth-highest postseason total in NFL record books by a signal-caller. In Philadelphia's 40-22 Super Bowl LIX win over the Kansas City Chiefs, Hurts was voted the game's MVP, after completing 17-of-22 (77.3 pct.) attempts for 221 yards, two touchdowns, a 119.7 passer rating and 72 rushing yards with one touchdown, the most rushing yards by a quarterback ever in a Super Bowl.

In 2023, Nussmeier served as the Los Angeles Chargers' quarterbacks coach. Under his direction, Justin Herbert completed 295-of-517 (65.1 pct.) attempts for 3,134 yards, 20 touchdowns, only seven interceptions and a 93.2 passer rating in 13 contests before suffering a broken finger.

Prior to his stint with the Chargers, Nussmeier spent five seasons as a member of the Dallas Cowboys' coaching staff, working as the quarterbacks coach (2020-22) and tight ends coach (2018-19). From 2020-22, Dallas produced the fourth-most total yards per game in the league despite requiring five different starting quarterbacks in that span.

During the 2022 campaign, Nussmeier's quarterback room battled through adversity to help the team finish 12-5 with a postseason appearance. Dak Prescott returned from injury midseason and ranked among the NFL's top passers down the stretch, as his 20 passing scores from Week Ten until the end of the regular season were tied for the most in the league. Nussmeier's development of the entire quarterbacks room was critical early in the season, as Cooper Rush guided the team to a 4-1 record in five starts.

In 2021, Nussmeier mentored a group of quarterbacks that helped Dallas rank among the top offensive units in the NFL, as the Cowboys finished first in total offense (407.0 ypg.) and points per game (31.2). Prescott registered the third-highest passer rating (104.2) in the league while throwing for a franchise-record 37 touchdowns.

Prescott averaged 371.2 passing yards per game through the first five contests of 2020, before enduring an ankle injury that ended his season prematurely.

As tight ends coach in Dallas, Nussmeier helped Jason Witten post his 14th and 15th career seasons with 60-plus catches while also tutoring Blake Jarwin, who caught 58 passes and six touchdowns from 2018-19.

Nussmeier joined the Cowboys in 2018 after spending 13 of the previous 15 seasons coaching at the collegiate level, including ten years as an offensive coordinator. In those 13 seasons, Nussmeier tutored eight different players who were selected in the first or second round of the NFL Draft.

Before going to Dallas, Nussmeier served as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Florida (2015-17), Michigan (2014) and Alabama (2012-13). In his first season with the Crimson Tide, Nussmeier guided A.J. McCarron to a then-school-best 30 passing touchdowns, including four in Alabama's victory over Notre Dame in the 2013 BCS National Championship Game. He also coached McCarron to throw for 3,063 yards in 2013, which marked the most in single-season program history at the time.

Nussmeier also was the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at the University of Washington (2009-11). In his final season with the Huskies, the offense recorded 57 touchdowns and 431 points scored, both good for the second-most in a single season in school history. Nussmeier's first coordinator position came in 2008, directing the offense and coaching quarterbacks at Fresno State University.

In 2006, Nussmeier landed his first NFL coaching job with St. Louis, coaching quarterbacks for the Rams for two seasons. He helped Marc Bulger earn his second Pro Bowl selection after passing for a career-best 4,301 yards with 24 touchdowns. Prior to his time in St. Louis, Nussmeier coached the quarterbacks at Michigan State for three seasons (2003-05), capping his tenure by helping Drew Stanton throw for a then-school-record 3,415 passing yards in 2005.

Nussmeier first broke into coaching in the Canadian Football League, landing his first job in 2001 as the quarterbacks coach of his former team, the British Columbia Lions. After one season on the Lions' staff, he went on to spend the 2002 campaign as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach of the Ottawa Renegades.

After being selected by New Orleans in 1994, Nussmeier spent four seasons with the Saints and the 1998 campaign with the Indianapolis Colts, before heading to the CFL in 2000, helping the BC Lions to the Grey Cup Championship. Nussmeier appeared in five games, including two starts, over his NFL career, all with New Orleans.

Nussmeier finished his career at the University of Idaho as the program's all-time leading passer with 10,824 career passing yards over five years (1989-93). He won the Walter Payton Award in 1993, which was at the time given annually to the top player in NCAA Division 1-AA after throwing for a program-record 33 touchdown passes and leading the Vandals to a national semifinal berth. Nussmeier was named Big Sky Conference Offensive Player of the Year in 1992 and inducted into the University of Idaho Athletic Hall of Fame in 2008 and the Big Sky Hall of Fame in 2025.

A Portland, Ore. native, Nussmeier and his wife, Christi, have two sons, Garrett and Colton, and a daughter Ashlynn. Garrett played quarterback at LSU in 2021-25 and was a seventh round pick of the Kansas City Chiefs in the 2026 NFL Draft.

T.J. PAGANETTI

RUN GAME COORDINATOR

T.J. Paganetti enters his second campaign as the Saints' run game coordinator. The Bedford, Mass. native has 19 years of coaching experience, including 11 seasons in the NFL.

In his first season with the Saints coaching staff in 2025 that implemented a new scheme, Paganetti helped the run game improve its production in the latter part of the season, overcoming injuries at tailback, tight end and on the offensive line. As New Orleans finished the season 4-1, they increased their rushing yards per game by nearly 13 yards and finished tied for ninth in the National Football League over the period with six rushing touchdowns. Up front in helping engineer the rushing attack, rookie left tackle Kelvin Banks Jr., the team's first round pick, was a consensus All-Rookie selection.

Paganetti arrived in New Orleans from the Philadelphia Eagles, where he served ten seasons (2013-14, 2017-24) on their offensive coaching staff. In 2024, he served as the team's run game specialist/assistant offensive line coach. Up front, all five of the Eagles offensive line starters received All-Pro votes from the Associated Press, with Lane Johnson and Jordan Mailata earning All-Pro honors. In addition to Johnson, guard Landon Dickerson and center Cam Jurgens earned Pro Bowl recognition.

The Super Bowl Champion Eagles finished the 2024 season ranked eighth overall in net yards per game (367.2) and seventh in points per game (27.2). Philadelphia rushed for a single-season club record 3,048 yards (sixth-best in NFL history) and finished second in the league in rushing yards per game (179.3). The 2024 Eagles were only the second team in NFL history to rush for 3,000-plus yards and at least 25 (29) touchdowns.

Serving as the team's run game specialist/assistant tight ends coach in 2023, Paganetti helped the Eagles establish a single-season team record in third-down conversion rate (48.0 pct.) while finishing with the eight-best rushing attack (128.8 ypg) and fifth-most rushing touchdowns (22, tied) in the NFL. Dallas Goedert also registered a career-high 59 receptions for 592 yards and three touchdowns in 14 contests.

In 2022, Paganetti supported a record-breaking offense that helped the team advance to Super Bowl LVII following its 14-3 campaign. Overall, Philadelphia set club records in points (477), total touchdowns (59), scrimmage touchdowns (57), rushing touchdowns (32, tied for fourth in NFL history), total first downs (385) and red zone touchdown efficiency (67.8 pct.).

During the 2021 campaign, Paganetti assisted a unit that ranked first in the NFL with a team-record 2,715 rushing yards. Philadelphia also finished fourth in third-down percentage (45.7 pct.) and fifth in fewest turnovers (16).

Paganetti served as the assistant running backs coach from 2019-20, including the added responsibilities of assistant run game coordinator in 2020. In 2019, he helped guide Miles Sanders to PFWA All-Rookie honors after leading his class with 1,327 scrimmage yards and setting a franchise rookie record with 818 rushing yards.

As the offensive quality control/assistant offensive line coach from 2017-18, Paganetti worked with a unit that helped Jason Kelce (twice) and Johnson earn AP first-team All-Pro selections, also sending Brandon Brooks and Johnson to their first career Pro Bowls.

Paganetti contributed to one of the most prolific offensive lines in the league during Philadelphia's Super Bowl LII-winning campaign in 2017. The Eagles, who won 13 games en route to an NFC East championship and No. 1 seed in the playoffs, led the NFL in red zone offense (65.5 pct.) and ranked third in rushing 132.2 ypg) and offensive points per game (26.3).

As an analyst from 2013-14, Philadelphia set multiple single-season team records, including points (474), touchdowns (54), passing yards (4,581) and first downs (356) in 2014, as well as total yards (6,676) and fewest turnovers (19) in 2013.

Between stints with the Eagles, Paganetti returned to Oregon as a graduate assistant/ linebackers coach during the 2015-16 seasons. He previously worked with the Ducks' quarterbacks as an offensive intern in 2012 after serving as a student assistant (offense and quarterbacks) from 2009-11.

Paganetti originally began his career as an undergraduate offensive intern (2007-08) with Oregon, where he earned his bachelor's degree in political science in 2012.

JAY RODGERS

EDGES COACH

Jay Rodgers enters his second season as edges coach for New Orleans in 2026. A 25-year coaching veteran with 17 years of NFL experience, Rodgers has been a defensive line coach, outside linebackers/edges coach or defensive run game coordinator in each of the last 14 seasons in the NFL. Prior to coming to New Orleans, the Austin, Texas native spent the 2024 season with the Atlanta Falcons as defensive line coach.

In 2025, Rodgers played an important role in helping the team implement a 3-4 base defensive scheme. Edge defenders Cameron Jordan (10.5) and Chase Young (career-high 10.0) each reached double-digit sacks, with the Saints being one of only three teams to have two defenders with at least ten takedowns. Carl Granderson led the edge group with 57 tackles (35 solo), while adding six sacks, 11 stops for loss, one interception and four pass breakups. Granderson and Pittsburgh's T.J. Watt were the only two NFL edge players with at least 55 stops, six takedowns and one pick.

In 2024 with the Falcons, he guided a promising young defensive line that helped the Falcons allow only 11 rushing touchdowns. Former Saint David Onyemata finished with 45 tackles, including eight stops for loss and one pass breakup, while leading Atlanta's 3-4 scheme up front group in sacks.

Prior to his stint with Atlanta, Rodgers spent three seasons with the Los Angeles Chargers (2021-23) under former Chargers head coach and current Saints Defensive Coordinator Brandon Staley, where served as outside linebackers coach and defensive run game coordinator (2021) before transitioning to defensive line coach and defensive run game coordinator (2022–23).

During Rodgers's three-season tenure in Los Angeles, the Chargers were ranked first in the NFL in sacks on third and fourth down (75). The Chargers defense finished with 48 sacks in 2023, tied for seventh-most in the league, and limited opponents to a 62.5 goal-to-go-percentage, fourth-best in the league. In 2021, Rodgers oversaw an outside linebackers room that recorded 19.5 of the team's 35 sacks, including 10.5 from Joey Bosa, who was named to his fourth-career Pro Bowl.

Prior to Los Angeles, Rodgers spent six seasons (2015-20) as defensive line coach for the Chicago Bears, where he directed a defensive front that routinely was part of a top-ranked defensive unit. In 2018, Chicago boasted the NFL's top run defense (80 ypg) while holding opponents to a league-low 17.7 points per game. For his efforts overseeing the defensive line of the NFC North champions, Rodgers was awarded by his league peers with the John Teerlinck NFL Defensive Line Coach of the Year. The unit was led by former Saints defensive lineman Akiem Hicks, who earned second-team All-Pro honors and was named to his first career Pro Bowl. From 2016-20, Hicks recorded the seventh-most sacks by an interior defensive lineman despite missing most of the 2019 season.

Rodgers joined the Bears after six years (2009-14) with the Denver Broncos. He was part of a staff that saw the team make four consecutive postseason appearances from 2011-14, including an appearance in Super Bowl XLVIII following the 2013 season. Over his three years (2012-14) as the defensive line coach, Rodgers' unit helped the Broncos defense lead the NFL in rushing yards allowed per game (90.8). In 2012, defensive end Elvis Dumervil was named to his third-career Pro Bowl as the front helped the defense record a league-leading 52 sacks. Rodgers began his NFL coaching career as a coaching assistant for Denver in 2009 and was a defensive quality control coach from 2010-11.

Rodgers is an alumnus of Westlake High School, the same program that legendary Saints signal-caller Drew Brees came from. He started 15 games at quarterback at Indiana University from 1996-98 before transferring to Missouri State in 1999. Rodgers was named team captain and the team's Most Valuable Player in his one season at Missouri State, where he set a number of school single-season passing records. Rodgers earned his bachelor's degree from Indiana before working as a recruiting assistant at Ohio State University in 2000.

Rodgers entered the coaching ranks as a graduate assistant at LSU from 2001-02. He spent his first season working with the offensive staff, as the 2001 Tigers won the Southeastern Conference and defeated Illinois in the Sugar Bowl. Rodgers then assisted the defensive staff in 2002 before moving to Dodge City (Kan.) Community College in 2003 as passing game coordinator, quarterbacks coach and wide receivers coach. Following one season at Dodge City, Rodgers returned to Missouri State, spending the 2004 season as quarterbacks coach. He then coached the position for two seasons at Stephen F. Austin (2005-06) and, in his final stop before the NFL, coached wide receivers at Iowa State (2007-08).

Rodgers and his wife, Melissa, have three children. His brother, Jeff, is the special teams coordinator for the Buffalo Bills. The two coached together for four seasons with Denver (2011-14) and three campaigns with Chicago (2015-17).

PETER SIRMON

LINEBACKERS COACH

Peter Sirmon (pronounced Sermon) enters his second season as linebackers coach with the Saints in 2026. Sirmon made his NFL coaching debut after 17 years on the collegiate level, but is no stranger to the NFL, having played seven seasons (2000-06) as a linebacker with the Tennessee Titans.

In 2025, Sirmon helped lead a unit that helped power the Saints to ranking ninth in the NFL in total defense (299.8 ypg). Demario Davis led the team in tackles (143) for the eighth consecutive season. Pete Werner finished with 81 tackles, two sacks, five pass breakups and three fumble recoveries, tied for first in the NFL. Rookie Danny Stutsman tallied 40 tackles, all in the final 12 contests.

The Walla Walla, Wash. native arrived in New Orleans in 2025 after serving on the University of California coaching staff for seven seasons, coaching inside linebackers during his entire stint and serving as defensive coordinator the last five campaigns. Starting at Cal in 2018 as the inside linebackers coach, Sirmon added co-defensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator duties to his role in 2019.

At Cal, Sirmon was instrumental for developing a multitude of defensive players, including three All-Americans in CB Elijah Hicks, ILB Evan Weaver and DB Nohl Williams, with Weaver, the nation's leading tackler in 2019, a consensus ACC first-team selection and also the Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year. In 2024, Williams was a consensus All-American and first-team All-ACC. Overall, Sirmon coached nine players at Cal who combined for 11 first or second-team All-Conference selections.

In 2024 Sirmon was a Broyles Award nominee, annually awarded to the best FBS assistant coach in the nation. Cal's scoring defense (22.31) ranked 36th in the nation and second in the ACC, allowing 10.5 points per game fewer than the 32.8 it allowed in 2023. Cal's defense under Sirmon was tied for second in the country with 17 interceptions and finished among the nation's top 30 in several defensive team categories including takeaways (27th, 22), team passing efficiency defense (25th, 117.8), run defense (14th, 109.8 ypg) and team sacks (t30th, 2.62). Dating from the last game of the 2020 season through the sixth of 2024, Cal had at least one takeaway in 41 of 44 games at at one point during the 2022 campaign, the defense had the longest streak of consecutive games in the nation with at least one turnover with 19 in a row.

Williams was a consensus All-American, leading the nation with seven interceptions and finishing second in the ACC in pass breakups (15) to earn first-team All-Conference. Golden Bears ILB Teddye Buchanan, now with the Baltimore Ravens, had a standout season as a transfer, starting every game and finishing third in the conference with 114 tackles to go with 12 stops for loss, five sacks, seven quarterback hurries, four passes broken up and two forced fumbles.

Sirmon's 2023 defense led the nation with 16 fumble recoveries and tied for the national lead with 28 takeaways. Three different defensive players – S Patrick McMorris, freshman ILB Cade Uluave and Williams – recovered three fumbles each to tie for second in the Pac-12 and 19th nationally. In addition, the Bears' three defensive touchdowns were second in the Pac-12 and tied for 15th nationally.

The Golden Bears tied for second in the Pac-12 and 12th nationally in 2022 with three defensive touchdowns. Jackson Sirmon led the team with 104 tackles, adding career-highs of 6.0 stops for loss, 3.5 sacks, three pass breakups and a 37-yard fumble return for a touchdown, as well as one forced fumble. He was third in the conference and among NCAA leaders in tackles per game (8.7, 40th NCAA) and tackles (t47th NCAA).

Sirmon's 2021 defense improved throughout the season in his first full campaign as defensive coordinator (his first season in the role in 2020 was shortened to four games by COVID-19). Cal held four of its final six opponents to 14 points or less while the Bears won four of their final six games. Cal finished the campaign second in the Pac-12 in scoring defense (22.2 ppg) and fourth in total defense and run defense. Hicks led the way as a PFF third-team All-American and a consensus first-team All-Pac-12 pick, notching 72 tackles while co-leading the conference with a career-high four forced fumbles and 0.33 fumbles per game (t-11th NCAA). He also had three interceptions to tie for third in the conference. Fellow S Daniel Scott earned PFF first-team All-Pac-12 and was among the league's leaders in solo tackles (team-high 60, tied-second), interceptions (team-high-tying three, tied-third) and tackles (team-high 82, tenth Pac-12) with all career-bests. True freshman CB Lu-Magia Hearns III finished with team highs of ten pass breakups and 11 passes deflected. In addition to Hicks' first-team selection by league coaches, Cal had four defensive players earn honorable mention All-Pac-12. Hearns also picked up honorable mention honors for the league's Defensive Freshman of the Year. OLB Cameron Goode led the Pac-12 in sacks with 0.68 per game and totaled 7.5 to finish his career eighth on Cal's all-time list with 21.5.

In his first season as the team's defensive coordinator in a 2020 campaign shortened to four games, S Camryn Bynum (first-team) and Goode (second-team) earned All-Pac-12 while OLB Kuony Deng, CB Josh Drayden, DL Brett Johnson and DE Zeandae Johnson were honorable mention All-Conference. Deng served as a team captain when he led the squad with 31 tackles and two forced fumbles. Both forced fumbles came in the fourth quarter of a 21-17 win over Oregon. Goode was tied for second both nationally and in the Pac-12 with his 2.0 tackles for loss per game, as well as sixth in the Pac-12 and tied for 30th in the nation with 0.75 sacks per contest. Drayden tied for second in the Pac-12 and 13th nationally with his 1.2 passes defended per game. Cal led the Pac-12 and tied for 20th nationally in red zone defense by allowing only 12 scores in 16 opponent red zone visits (75.0 pct.) with only nine of the 12 touchdowns. The defense was also a disciplined unit that helped the Bears lead the Pac-12 in per game averages for both fewest penalty yards (35.0) and penalties (4.5), ranking fifth and tied for 12th nationally.

In 2019, Sirmon was Cal's co-defensive coordinator/inside linebackers coach, and paired up with fellow defensive coordinator/outside linebackers coach Tim DeRuyter to earn FootballScoop Linebackers Coaches of the Year presented by AstroTurf. Weaver finished the 2019 campaign with a school-record 182 tackles and in addition to his consensus first-team All-American honors was also the Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year. In addition, he was a finalist for the Butkus Award, Lott IMPACT Trophy and the Lombardi Award. Weaver (182) and Deng (119, third Pac-12, 15th NCAA) finished 2019 with a combined 301 stops. The number not only allowed Cal to lead the nation for most tackles by a duo for a second straight season but was six shy of the Bears' school-record of 307 by a duo that Weaver (159) and Jordan Kunaszyk (148) recorded in 2018.

In his first season on Cal's staff in 2018, Sirmon helped the defense finish among national and Pac-12 leaders in nearly every category. The Bears ranked in the Top Ten nationally and paced the conference in interceptions (21, second NCAA), defensive touchdowns (5, tied-fourth NCAA), takeaways (28, tied-sixth NCAA) and passing yards allowed (175.1 ypg., ninth NCAA). Cal led the league and ranked in the top 20 in the country in pass efficiency defense (107.26, 11th NCAA) and first downs allowed (227, 18th NCAA). The Bears were 15th nationally in total defense (317.2 ypg.) and 22nd in scoring defense (20.4 ppg.), third in the Pac-12 in both. Both Sirmon's starters in 2018 – Weaver (PFF) and Kunaszyk (SI) – earned second-team All-American with Kunaszyk adding first-team All-Pac-12 (league coaches), while both earned consensus first-team All-Conference. Their combined 307 tackles were the most by any duo in the nation and the highest total ever by two players in a single season at Cal. Weaver's 159 tackles were the second-highest total in the nation, while his 12.2 stops per game were sixth in the country. Kunaszyk's 148 tackles were the fifth-highest single-season total in school history and were fifth nationally with his 11.4 tackles per contest ninth in the nation. Weaver and Kunaszyk ranked second and third, respectively, in the Pac-12 in both tackles and tackles per game. S Jaylinn Hawkins led the Pac-12 and tied for third nationally with six interceptions including three in the Cheez-It Bowl to earn Defensive Player of the Game honors and a spot on SI's All-Bowl squad.

Prior to his arrival at Cal, Sirmon was the defensive coordinator at Mississippi State (2016) and Louisville (2017) for one season each after previously coaching on staffs for six seasons at Tennessee (2010-11), Washington (2012-13) and USC (2014-15).

Sirmon helped Louisville to an 8-5 record as the Cardinals' defensive coordinator/outside linebackers coach in 2017. Louisville was nationally ranked for much of the season and reached as high as 14th in the AP Top 25. Sirmon's defense was second in the ACC with ten fumbles recovered and third with 23 turnovers gained to help get the ball back to a high-powered offense ranked third nationally in scoring. LB Dorian Etheridge earned Freshman All-American after leading the Cardinals with 83 tackles, while All-ACC honorable mention selection Trumaine Washington was involved in a team-best six takeaways with four interceptions, a forced fumble and a recovery.

Mississippi State won the St. Petersburg Bowl during Sirmon's lone campaign as coordinator, with his unit contributing four defensive touchdowns, tied for eighth nationally. A Bulldogs' defense that included 11 first-time starters and nine freshmen had 23 takeaways, tied for 38th nationally, nine more than the unit recorded in 2015. LB Leo Lewis led SEC freshmen in tackles (79) and became the first FWAA Freshman All-American in school history, while Jeffrey Simmons paced all SEC freshmen defensive linemen in tackles (40) on his way to joining Lewis on the Freshman All-SEC team.

Sirmon spent two campaigns (2014-15) at USC as linebackers/associate head coach defense/recruiting coordinator. In 2015, the Trojans won the Pac-12 South and made a second consecutive Holiday Bowl appearance, leading the conference in opponent third-down conversion percentage and scoring five defensive touchdowns, third nationally. Sirmon's guidance propelled OLB Su'a Cravens to All-Pac-12 first-team for the second straight season. ILB Cameron Smith was selected as Pac-12 Defensive Freshman of the Year and named a consensus Freshman All-American.

Sirmon was linebackers coach at Washington the two prior seasons from 2012-13, adding recruiting coordinator to his duties for the first time in 2013. The Huskies ranked in the top 40 nationally in total defense, scoring defense and pass defense in his first campaign in 2012 after finishing the previous campaign lower than 105th in each category. Washington's scoring defense jumped to tie for 29th nationally in 2013, while its team passing efficiency defense improved 60 spots to 27th in 2012 before climbing to tenth in 2013, with its 41.0 sacks tied for fourth nationally the same season. The Huskies qualified for bowls each season. Sirmon tutored eventual first-round NFL Draft pick Shaq Thompson during his back-to-back honorable mention All-Pac-12 seasons during his first two seasons with the Huskies.

Sirmon also spent one season as a graduate assistant at Oregon in 2009 when the Ducks won a Pac-10 title and played in the Rose Bowl. He first entered the coaching ranks as the linebackers coach at Central Washington in 2008.

Sirmon played seven NFL seasons as a linebacker with the Titans (2000-06) after being selected in the fourth round in the 2000 NFL Draft out of Oregon, where he played in 81 games with 54 starts and recorded 343 tackles, five sacks, four interceptions, one returned for a touchdown, 12 pass breakups, one forced fumble, one recovery, and 15 special teams stops. Sirmon, who received his degree in political science from Oregon in 1999, was a four-year starter (1996-99). He helped the Ducks to winning campaigns in all four seasons and three bowl games. A first-team All-Pac-10 selection as a senior, Sirmon was the Ducks' leading tackler as a sophomore and senior.

Sirmon and his wife, Lindsay, have four children – son Jackson, who played college football at Washington (2018-21) and Cal (2022-23), spent two campaigns with the New York Jets (2024-2025) and signed with the Saints this offseason; and daughters Austyn, Savanna and Sadie.

BRANDON STALEY

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Brandon Staley is in his second season as defensive coordinator for the Saints in 2026. A 20-year coaching veteran, including the last nine in the NFL and three seasons as head coach of the Los Angeles Chargers, Staley oversaw a Saints unit that made great strides in his first season with New Orleans.

In 2025, New Orleans finished the season ranked ninth in opponent net yards per game (299.8), fourth in opponent net passing yards per game (179.2), fifth in forced fumbles (11), sixth in opponent rushing yards per play (3.97) and tenth in opponent red zone touchdown percentage (53.2). The club did not allow a 300-yard passer. The unit was especially stout on third down, ranking third in the NFL in opponent third down conversion rate (34.3). The 2025 Saints were one of eight teams that finished in the league's top-12 units in EPA (Expected Points Added) against both the run and the pass, including second against the rush.

With edge defenders Cameron Jordan (10.5) and Chase Young (career-high 10.0) each reaching double-digit sacks, the Saints were one of only three teams to have two defenders with at least ten takedowns. LB Demario Davis led the team with 143 tackles and two forced fumbles. CBs Alontae Taylor, whose seven stops for a loss were tied for third in the NFL at the position, and Kool-Aid McKinstry, who led the team with his first three career interceptions and was tied for sixth in the league with 17 pass breakups, enjoyed breakout campaigns.

Staley and the defensive backfield coaching staff also successfully integrated a pair of promising rookies into the lineup. CB Quincy Riley was named to the CBS Sports and ESPN.com All-Rookie teams after playing in all 17 games (five starts) and totaling 34 tackles, ten passes defensed (tied for fourth in the NFL among rookies), one interception and one forced fumble. S Jonas Sanker entered the starting lineup in Week Two and led the secondary with 78 stops and ranked second among rookie safeties with three takeaways, tied for first on the team, earning ESPN.com All-Rookie honors.

Staley arrived in New Orleans after serving as assistant coach/defense of the San Francisco 49ers in 2024. Working with multiple position groups, as well as aiding 49ers Head Coach Kyle Shanahan, the San Francisco defense finished the season eighth in the NFL in opponent net yards per game (317.4) and fifth against the pass (192.8 ypg.). DL Nick Bosa was selected to the Pro Bowl after recording nine sacks, one interception, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. ILB Fred Warner was selected to the Pro Bowl, AP All-Pro and PFWA All-NFL, as he registered 131 tackles (76 solo), two interceptions returned for 70 yards, including a 45-yard touchdown return and four forced fumbles. Saints CB Isaac Yiadom led the team with a career-high three takeaways.

During his tenure as Chargers head coach, Staley led Los Angeles to a 24-24 record and guided the franchise to its first postseason appearance since the 2018 season. In his final season with the Chargers (2023), where Saints Head Coach Kellen Moore served as his offensive coordinator, Staley helped QB Justin Herbert continue one of the best starts to a career in NFL history, with no quarterback having more completions or passing yards over the first four seasons of their career than Herbert. Staley also saw WR Keenan Allen and LB Khalil Mack put together career seasons with Pro Bowl honors. Allen registered a career-high and team-record 108 receptions, while Mack tallied a career-high 17.0 sacks, tying the single-season franchise mark. Under Staley, the Chargers defensive unit registered 48.0 sacks in 2023, which was tied for the seventh-most in the NFL.

In 2022, Staley guided the Chargers to a 10-7 regular season record and the first postseason appearance for the franchise since 2018. Under his guidance, the Chargers offense finished the 2022 season with the third-ranked passing offense (269.6 yards per game) and the ninth-ranked total offense (359.3 yards per game), while the defensive unit finished with the seventh-ranked passing defense (200.4 yards per game). Staley also helped RB Austin Ekeler set single-season career highs in yards from scrimmage (1,637), rushing touchdowns, rushing yards (915) and receptions (107). His 18 total touchdowns led the NFL for the second-consecutive season while his 107 catches led all running backs. Staley's defensive unit featured two Pro Bowl selections in S Derwin James Jr. and Mack, who helped the Chargers finish the final five weeks of the regular season with the third-ranked total defense (284.8 yards per game).

In his first season at the helm in 2021, Staley led the Chargers to a 9-8 record, their best mark since 2018. He helped the Chargers offense set single-season franchise records for a career-high 5,014 yards and 443 completions, the second-most in his career. Herbert, along with Allen, OL Corey Linsley and OL Rashawn Slater earned Pro Bowl honors under Staley's guidance. Defensively, Staley's unit finished with the fourth down defense in the NFL, holding opponents to a 31.8% success rate, and also finished with the third-most forced fumbles (21). DL Joey Bosa registered 10.5 sacks, marking the fourth time that he has registered 10.0-or-more sacks in a season, while James totaled 118 tackles, two interceptions, 2.0 sacks and three forced fumbles. Bosa and James were each named to the 2022 Pro Bowl, giving Staley six Pro Bowl selections in his first season as head coach.

Prior to joining the Chargers, Staley spent the 2020 season as the defensive coordinator for the Los Angeles Rams. With Staley at the defensive helm, the Rams led the NFL in total defense (281.9 net yards per game), passing defense (190.7 net yards per game) and scoring defense (18.5 points per game), while finishing with the third-best rushing defense (91.3 yards per game). The 2020 Rams had the third-best defensive EPA by a team since the 2000 season (195.77-Trumedia/The 33rd Team). Led by DL Aaron Donald, who Staley helped earn AP first-team All-Pro, his seventh career Pro Bowl selection and his third NFL Defensive Player of the Year award, the Rams finished the season with 53.0 sacks, the second-most in the NFL. Donald finished the year with 13.5 sacks and four forced fumbles. In addition to Donald, Staley helped CB Jalen Ramsey earn AP first-team All-Pro and his fourth-consecutive Pro Bowl selection after he registered 44 tackles, one interception and nine pass breakups.

Staley went to the Rams after spending three seasons on Vic Fangio's coaching staff with the Denver Broncos (2019) and Chicago Bears (2017-18) as outside linebackers coach. He worked closely with LB Von Miller, helping him earn the eighth Pro Bowl selection of his career after he registered 46 tackles, 8.0 sacks and two pass breakups. During his time with Chicago, Staley worked with a defense that held opposing offenses to only 80.0 rushing yards per game in 2018, the best mark in the NFL. That defense was led by Mack, who Staley helped earn AP first-team All-Pro honors and the fourth-consecutive Pro Bowl selection of his career. In his first year with the Bears, Staley helped the Bears hold opposing offenses to 319.1 yards per game, tenth in the NFL.

Before becoming an NFL coach, Staley spent 11 seasons coaching at the collegiate level. He spent three seasons (2013, '15-16) as the defensive coordinator/secondary coach at John Carroll and the 2014 campaign as the defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at James Madison. In 2016, Staley earned National Coordinator of the Year honors for Division III to rank third in total defense (218.0 ypg.) and fourth in scoring defense (12.6 points per game).

Staley began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Northern Illinois University (2006-08) before joining the University of St. Thomas (2009), where he coached the defensive line and special teams. His first coordinator job came at Hutchinson (Kan.) Community College where he spent two seasons (2010-11). He also served as a graduate assistant at the University of Tennessee in 2012.

A native of Perry, Ohio, Staley played collegiately as a quarterback at the University of Dayton for four seasons (2001-04) before finishing his career at Division II Mercyhurst College in 2005. He and his wife, Amy, have three sons, Colin, Will and Grant.

JOEL THOMAS

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH/RUNNING BACKS

Joel Thomas, a 26-year coaching veteran, has tutored the Saints running backs for ten seasons (2015-23 and 2025-). After spending the 2024 season coaching the New York Giants running backs, the Port Angeles, Wash. native returned to New Orleans in 2025 with the additional title of associate head coach.

In Thomas' ten seasons presiding over the Saints running backs, New Orleans tailbacks have led a balanced attack on the ground and through the air. The Saints' 170 rushing touchdowns are tied for fifth in the NFL and their 18,649 rushing yards rank 13th. A Saints tailback has ranked in the top ten in the NFL in receiving at the position in eight of the ten campaigns of Thomas' Black and Gold tenure, with the 1,084 receptions by Saints running backs the most in the league at the position. Thomas has helped his running backs earn six Pro Bowl selections – Alvin Kamara (2017-21) and Mark Ingram II (2017).

Under Thomas' tutelage, Kamara, the Saints' all-time rushing yardage leader, was the only NFL player with at least 1,160 total yards from scrimmage in each of the seven seasons he first coached him, three of them 1,500 or more. In 2023 under Thomas' tutelage, Kamara, the team's all-time rushing leader, became the franchise's all-time leader in yards from scrimmage, rushing touchdowns and total touchdowns. Thomas also coached Ingram, New Orleans' career rushing leader from 2021-24 (6,500 yards), for six years, including two 1,000-yard campaigns. During his first New Orleans tenure, the Saints ranked in the top six in the NFL in rushing three times (2017, 2018 and 2020).

In 2020, Thomas oversaw the NFL's sixth-ranked rushing attack. New Orleans led the league with a club-record 30 touchdowns on the ground, tied for the NFL's sixth-highest total all-time. Kamara, selected to his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl, shattered the team record and led the NFL with 21 touchdowns, ranking second with 93 first downs and third with a career-best 1,688 yards from scrimmage. In addition to running for a then-career-high 932 yards on 187 carries (5.0 avg.), Kamara led NFL running backs in receiving with a team-best and career-high 83 grabs for 756 yards and five touchdowns, as he became only the second Saint to lead the team in rushing and receiving in the same season. Latavius Murray served as a solid complement to Kamara in the running game, carrying 146 times for 656 yards (4.5 avg.) with four touchdowns.

In 2018, the Saints were ranked sixth in the NFL in rushing (126.6 ypg.). Kamara had a standout sophomore campaign, as he rushed 194 times for a club best 883 yards (4.6 avg.) with 14 touchdowns. He also caught 81 receptions for 709 yards with four scores for a 1,589 total yards from scrimmage and 18 total touchdowns. Ingram rushed 138 times for 645 yards (4.7 avg.) with six touchdowns in 12 games.

In 2017, the duo of Ingram and rookie Kamara produced standout seasons, with both being selected to the Pro Bowl. Ingram appeared in all 16 games for the second consecutive season and led the team with a career-high 1,124 yards rushing and a career-best 12 touchdowns on 230 carries, a 4.9-yard average per attempt. He added a career-high 58 receptions for 416 yards for a career-high 1,540 yards from scrimmage. Kamara set a league record for rookie running backs with 826 receiving yards on 81 receptions and five touchdowns, while he led the NFL by averaging 6.1 yards per carry on 120 carries for 728 yards with eight touchdowns. He led the club with 1,554 total yards from scrimmage and was selected by the Associated Press as the NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year and as a second-team All-Pro at the Flex position. The 3,094 combined total yards from scrimmage from Ingram and Kamara was the second-most by an NFL running back duo since the start of a 16-game season in 1978.

With the Giants in 2024, Thomas oversaw the development of rookie tailback Tyrone Tracy Jr., a fifth round pick from Purdue. Tracy earned PFWA All-Rookie honors when he carried 192 times for 839 yards (4.4 avg.) with five touchdowns to rank second among NFL rookies for the season and New York rookies all-time in rushing yards. He added 38 receptions for 284 yards with one touchdown to tally a total of 1,123 yards from scrimmage, the fifth-highest total among NFL rookies in 2024 and fourth among Giants rookies all-time.

Thomas first joined the Saints in 2015 following a two-year stint (2013-14) as the running backs coach at the University of Arkansas. In 2014, tailbacks Jonathan Williams and Alex Collins were the only pair of FBS teammates to rush for 1,000-plus yards. The duo became just the second pair of Razorbacks to accomplish the feat. Collins became just the second player in school history to surpass 1,000 yards in each of his first two seasons and was named SEC Freshman of the Year in 2013.

Thomas was the running backs coach at the University of Washington from 2009-12, when he coached a 1,000-yard rusher each year and added the title of associate head coach for offense prior to the 2012 campaign.

Thomas also has experience as running backs coach at Purdue (2006-08), Idaho (2004-05, also serving as co-offensive coordinator) and Louisville (2002-03). In 2007, the Boilermakers led the Big Ten in total offense and scoring offense. In 2008, tailback Kory Sheets rushed for 1,131 yards to become Purdue's first 1,000-yard rusher in six seasons. Thomas was also at Purdue from 2000-01, as a graduate assistant. In 2000, Drew Brees led the NCAA in total offense and won the Maxwell Award. The Boilermakers won the Big Ten and advanced to the Rose Bowl for the first time in 33 years.

Thomas lettered at running back at Idaho from 1993-98, where he was a two-time first-team All-Big West selection and conference Player of the Year as a senior and still holds Vandals career records with 3,929 rushing yards and 51 touchdowns on 765 attempts. He was inducted into the University of Idaho Athletic Hall of Fame in 2008 and into the North Idaho Athletic Hall of Fame in 2022. Thomas earned his bachelor's degree in public communications in 1998. He served as the head coach for the victorious American team for the 2026 Panini Senior Bowl.

Thomas and his wife, Ebbie, are the parents of two boys, Teyo and Niko.

SCOTT TOLZIEN
QUARTERBACKS COACH

Scott Tolzien (pronounced Toll-ZEEN) enters his second season as quarterbacks coach for the Saints in 2026.

Working with New Orleans' quarterbacks in 2025, Tolzien was instrumental in Tyler Shough's development. In his rookie campaign, Shough completed 67.6% of his passes for 2,384 yards (10 TDs & 6 INT – 91.3 rating) in his nine starts (5-4 as a starter with four consecutive victories). Shough was a consensus All-Rookie selection, breaking all team rookie passing records. Tolzien also played a key role in the development of quarterback Spencer Rattler in his second season, who completed 174-of-257 passes (club-best 67.7 pct.) for 1,586 yards with eight touchdowns, only five interceptions and added 167 rushing yards on 31 carries (5.4 avg.) in eight starts.

Tolzien joined the Saints after spending the previous five years with the Dallas Cowboys, including the last two years as the team's quarterbacks coach and three years as an offensive assistant. After losing starting Dak Prescott to injury midway through the 2024 season, Tolzien integrated Cooper Rush into the starting role, where he finished 4-4, including victories over playoff participants Washington and Tampa Bay, completing 187-of-308 (60.7 pct.) passes for 1,844 yards with 12 touchdowns and only five interceptions.

In Tolzien's first season as quarterbacks coach in 2023, Prescott finished second in MVP voting as he led the NFL in completions (410) and passing touchdowns (36), the only Cowboys quarterback to lead the NFL outright in passing scores, while finishing second in passer rating (105.9) and third in yards (4,516). Prescott also reduced his interception totals from 15 in 2022 to nine in 2023, and his interceptions percentage of 1.5% was ranked fourth among all NFL passers. Perhaps most impressive was Prescott's command of the offense, as he engineered three game-winning drives, a higher total than in any single-season since 2018, when he led five such drives, and now has 23 in his career. He finished with the most 100.0-rating games (11) and multi-passing touchdown games (11) league-wide.

Utilizing experience from a seven-year NFL playing career at quarterback, Tolzien served as an offensive assistant in 2022, his final season in that role before earning a promotion. Working closely with the quarterbacks, he played a key role in preparing Dak Prescott and Cooper Rush. After Prescott suffered a thumb injury in Week One, Tolzien helped assemble the offensive game plan for Rush, who went 4–1 in five starts in 2022 and became the first quarterback in franchise history to win his first four career starts. When Prescott returned to action in Week Seven against Detroit (10/23), Dallas' offense led the league in offensive points-per-game (31.3) and third down offense (52.3%) and was third in yards-per-game (384.3) for the rest of the season.

The Cowboys offense grew to new heights in 2021, leading the NFL in scoring (31.2), including a franchise-record 530 points, and yards (407.0) while also reaching the end zone on 28.6% of drives, sixth in the league. Tolzien's close work with Prescott saw the quarterback set a career-high and franchise-record 37 touchdowns passes and record a 100.0 passer rating in eight games, tied for second in single-season team history.

In his first season with Dallas in 2020, Tolzien assisted with an offensive unit that ranked in the top-10 of most primary statistical categories. Despite losing Prescott to injury, the Cowboys offense ranked seventh in the NFL in receiving yards (4,511), eighth in net passing yards (4,161) and tied for ninth in scrimmage yards (6,299).

Before becoming an NFL coach, Tolzien was given a brief introduction to off-field tasks in 2019 at his alma mater, Wisconsin, where he scouted opponents as an analyst. The Badgers finished the season with a 10-4 record, including a Big Ten Championship Game appearance and Rose Bowl berth.

Tolzien enjoyed a seven-year NFL career, originally signing with the San Diego Chargers as a rookie free agent in 2011. Following his first two campaigns with the San Francisco 49ers (2011-12), which included two trips to the NFC Championship Game, he spent three seasons as a backup to Aaron Rodgers in Green Bay (2013-15), playing in six games with two starts. In 2013, starting in relief for Rodgers, Tolzien threw for 717 yards, the fourth-most in NFL history for a quarterback in his first two career games. He spent the final two seasons of his playing career with the Indianapolis Colts, where he appeared in four games with two starts (2016-17).

Tolzien appeared in 29 games with 26 starts at Wisconsin (2006-10), leaving with the school record for completion percentage (68.1) and efficiency rating (153.2). In his final season in 2010, he won the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, presented annually to the nation's top upperclassman quarterback.

Tolzien starred at William Fremd High School in Palatine, Ill., where he set 15 school passing records and was an All-State and All-Academic selection as a senior. He also earned two-time all-conference, academic all-conference honors, and Chicago Sun-Times "Top 100" honors.

He and his wife, Megan, have a son, Blake, and two daughters, Brooke and Caroline.

PLAYING CAREER: Wisconsin, 2006-10; San Francisco 49ers, 2011-12; Green Bay Packers, 2013-15; Indianapolis Colts, 2016-17.
COACHING CAREER: Dallas Cowboys, 2020-24; New Orleans Saints, 2025-.

KYLE VALERO

ASSISTANT WIDE RECEIVERS COACH

Kyle Valero will enter his second season as the Saints assistant wide receivers coach. He arrived in New Orleans after working under Saints Head Coach Kellen Moore with the Philadelphia Eagles as an offensive assistant.

During the 2025 season, Valero assisted Saints wide receivers coach Keith Williams in developing a group of young receivers. Valero helped tutor fourth-year wideout Chris Olave to his first career Associated Press All-Pro selection, after leading the Black and Gold with 100 catches for 1,163 yards and nine touchdowns, setting career-highs in all three categories. Olave was only the third Saints wideout to be voted as an AP All-Pro. After being moved into the starting lineup, Devaughn Vele had 19 receptions for 239 yards in his last four games.

With the Super Bowl LIX Champion Eagles, Valero assisted with an offensive unit ranked eighth overall in net yards per game (367.2) and seventh in points per game (27.2). The 2024 Eagles were only the second team in NFL history to rush for 3,000-plus yards and have at least 25 (29) rushing touchdowns. The Eagles passing attack also flourished, with a club-record 103.4 passer rating.

From 2020-22, Valero served as the Dallas Cowboys' quality control/analytics coach while assisting the team's wide receivers. In 2022, Valero helped Dallas rank fourth in the NFL in scoring (27.5 ppg) while mentoring CeeDee Lamb to top-six finishes among wide receivers with career highs at the time in receptions (107), receiving yards (1,359), and touchdowns (nine). During the 2021 campaign, Valero assisted in the offensive game-planning that helped produce the No. 1-ranked total offense (407.0 ypg.) and scoring offense (31.2 ppg.) in the league. Lamb also recorded his first 1,000-yard season en route to Pro Bowl honors. In 2020, the Cowboys wide receiver corps finished third in the NFC in receiving yards (4,511) and first in receptions (413) despite undergoing four quarterback changes. Lamb set a Cowboys record for receptions by a rookie (74) while notching 934 yards, which stood as the second-most in team rookie history. Amari Cooper finished with a career-high 92 catches for 1,114 yards and five touchdowns.

Valero spent the 2019 season working as Dallas' assistant tight ends coach after assisting the wideouts during his first five years (2014-18) with the team. In 2017, Valero supported a unit that featured Dez Bryant, who led the club in catches (69), receiving yards (838) and receiving touchdowns (six). In 2016, Dallas' receivers were led by Bryant, who earned his third Pro Bowl selection after leading the offense with eight touchdown receptions. In 2015, Terrence Williams stepped up in Bryant's absence due to injury and paced the team with a career-high 840 yards on 52 catches (16.2 avg.). Valero worked with a young group of receivers in 2014, which included Bryant, who caught 88 passes for 1,320 yards (eighth in the NFL) and a league-leading 16 touchdowns to garner Pro Bowl recognition.

Prior to joining the Cowboys, Valero spent four years on the Detroit Lions offensive staff, holding the titles of assistant wide receivers coach (2013) and offensive quality control coach (2010-12). During his time with Detroit, Valero worked with Pro Football Hall of Fame wideout Calvin Johnson. From 2010-13, Johnson was voted to his first four Pro Bowls and received three consecutive first-team AP All-Pro selections (2011-13). In 2012, Johnson established the NFL single-season record with 1,964 receiving yards.

KEITH WILLIAMS

WIDE RECEIVERS COACH

Keith Williams is in his third year as wide receivers coach in 2026 after joining New Orleans in 2024. The Stockton, Calif. native has five years of NFL coaching experience, 18 years at the collegiate level, and has also served as a personal coach for several top NFL wide receivers, including former All-Pros Davante Adams and Tyreek Hill.

In 2025, Williams coached fourth-year wide receiver Chris Olave to his first career Associated Press All-Pro selection after leading the team with 100 receptions for 1,163 yards with nine touchdowns, setting career-highs in all three categories. Olave was only the third Saints wideout to be voted as an AP All-Pro. After being moved into the starting lineup, Devaughn Vele had 19 receptions for 239 yards in his last four games, who Williams was instrumental in developing.

In 2024, Williams led a wide receiver corps featuring several new faces after Olave and Rashid Shaheed were sidelined after midseason. Olave had 32 receptions for 400 yards with one touchdown in eight games. Shaheed caught 20 passes for 349 yards (17.5 avg.) with three touchdowns before suffering a season-ending knee injury in Week Six. Williams quickly integrated midseason acquisition Marquez Valdes-Scantling into the offense and the veteran responded, making 17 receptions for 385 yards (22.6 avg.), while leading the wideouts with four touchdowns, three from 28 yards or more.

Williams arrived in New Orleans after three years on the Baltimore Ravens coaching staff, where he served as assistant wide receivers coach (2023) and as the team's pass game specialist (2021-22), working with the wideouts.

In 2023, Williams worked with Ravens Wide Receivers Coach Greg Lewis to tutor a unit that contributed to Baltimore ranking fourth in the NFL in scoring (28.4 ppg.) and sixth in total offense (370.4 ypg.). Zay Flowers, the club's first round pick, set rookie franchise marks in catches (77) and receiving yards (858), adding six total touchdowns (five receiving and one rushing).

In 2022, Williams helped guide WR Devin Duvernay to career-bests in receptions (37), receiving yards (407) and receiving touchdowns (3), while Demarcus Robinson also finished with a career-best 48 catches. In 2021, Williams contributed to scheming a passing attack that made the league's biggest improvement (+61.8 ypg.) from 2020 with Marquise Brown enjoying a breakout campaign with 91 receptions for 1,008 yards and six touchdowns.

Prior to his first professional experience as wide receivers coach of the AAF's San Antonio franchise in 2019, Williams mentored wide receivers for 18 years at the college level, including time with Nebraska (2015-17) and at Tulane (2012-14).

Mentoring the Cornhuskers' wide receivers under Head Coach Mike Riley, Nebraska's wideouts flourished under Williams' leadership upon arrival in 2015, with the group combining for more than 200 receptions, nearly 2,800 yards and 23 touchdowns. Nebraska ranked in the Top three in the Big Ten Conference in passing offense, scoring offense, total offense and third-down conversions.

During his tenure at Tulane under former Saints Wide Receivers Coach Curtis Johnson, Williams garnered impressive production out of the Green Wave's wideouts. In 2013, Tulane's wide receivers combined for 156 receptions, totaling 1,877 yards (12.0 avg.) and 18 touchdowns, as the team had its first winning record and bowl berth since 2002. In his first season in Uptown New Orleans in 2012, the Green Wave's receiving corps combined for 186 receptions, 2,656 receiving yards and 19 touchdown grabs. He mentored Ryan Grant, who was later selected by Washington in the fifth round of the 2014 NFL Draft, to a conference-high 1,149 receiving yards.

Williams tutored the wideouts at Fresno State from 2009-11, where he guided three of his wideouts (former Saint Jalen Saunders – 2011, Jamel Hamler – 2010 and Seyi Ajirotutu – 2009) to All-Western Athletic Conference honors. The Bulldogs made two bowl appearances (2009-10) in Williams's three seasons.

From 2005-08, Williams received valuable experience as offensive coordinator at San Jose City College, also coaching wideouts. From 2001-04, he served as wide receivers coach at San Jose State. In 2001 under his mentoring, Edell Shepherd set Spartans single-season records in receptions (83 – surpassed), receiving yards (1,500 – stands) and touchdown grabs (14 – surpassed). Williams started his coaching career as a wide receivers coach and math teacher at Brookside Christian (Stockton, Calif.) High School from 1997-99, before moving to the college ranks in 2000 at Solano (Fairfield, Calif.) Community College.

Williams played wideout for San Diego State (1991-93), including the 1991 Freedom Bowl team, while also competing on the Aztecs' track & field team, finishing with a bronze medal (10.31) in the 100m at the Western Athletic Conference Outdoor Track & Field Championships. He earned his bachelor's degree in public administration in 1996.

HEIGHT: 6-4 • WEIGHT: 287
COLLEGE: CALIFORNIA
JOINED SAINTS: D1A-11
NFL EXPERIENCE: 16
BORN: 7/10/89

NFL CAREER – Jordan enters his 16th season with the Black and Gold, coming off a standout campaign for a resurgent New Orleans defense in which he started all 17 contests and produced 47 tackles (32 solo), a team-high 10.5 sacks, two pass breakups, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. In his 15-year career, Jordan has been selected to eight Pro Bowls, the most for a defensive player in club history and second overall. His six consecutive selections (2017-2022) trail only QB Drew Brees (seven from 2008-2014) and T William Roaf (seven from 1994-2000) for first in team record books. He has a franchise-record 132.0 career sacks. The 11-time defensive captain is the first Saint to record at least 7.5 sacks in 12 different seasons, the only to do so in 11 straight campaigns and the first player in franchise history to record seven seasons with double-digit sack totals (12.5-2013, 10.0-2015, 13.0-2017, 12.0-2018, 15.5-2019, 12.5-2021 and 10.5-2025). Jordan has registered multiple sacks in a game (1.5 or more) 31 times in his career, with 14 of those coming against teams from the NFC South (seven vs. Atlanta; five vs. Tampa Bay; two vs. Carolina). Jordan is one of only three defensive end/edge players to register at least 65 passes defensed since coming into the league after being drafted in the first round in 2011. An explosive and physical defensive end, the former University of California standout possesses the combination of size, speed and strength to play in either a 3-4 or 4-3, successfully adapting to Defensive Coordinator Brandon Staley's 3-4 alignment in 2025. Jordan has appeared in 243 regular season games with 242 starts (both Saints bests), posting career totals of 857 stops (529 solo), 132 quarterback takedowns (ranked 17th all-time in the NFL and first among active players), three interceptions, 69 passes defensed, 17 forced fumbles, 12 fumble recoveries and one blocked kick. With 6.5 sacks in 2026, he would move into the top 10. Jordan's 243 regular season games played is sixth all-time among NFL defensive end/edge players. He will set a Saints team record by playing in his 16th season with the club in 2026. Jordan's also played in 11 career postseason games (10 starts), tallying 42 tackles (32 solo), 5.5 sacks and five passes defensed, the club's all-time leader in quarterback takedowns in the playoffs. In 12 drafts, he has led the effort to select several impact players in RB Alvin Kamara, CB Marshon Lattimore, C Erik McCoy and WR Chris Olave, as well as significant contributors in T Kelvin Banks Jr., DT Bryan Bresee, T Taliese Fuaga, CB Kool-Aid McKinstry and QB Tyler Shough.

Ireland's 2025 draft featured the selections of Banks and Shough, both making impactful contributions for the Saints. Banks' 1,066 snaps led Saints offensive players to earn All-Rookie honors from the Professional Football Writers of America, while Shough posted a winning record as the team's starter and completed 221-of-327 passes (67.6 pct.) for 2,384 yards with ten touchdowns, a 91.3 passer rating, while leading the club with three rushing touchdowns. The 2025 draft class also saw third-round S Jonas Sanker tie for the team lead with three takeaways.

In 2017, Ireland led a standout draft effort headlined by Lattimore and Kamara, who became the first duo from the same team since 1967 to sweep AP Defensive and Offensive Rookie of the Year and they were the first Saints duo selected to the Pro Bowl as rookies. In 2020, Kamara, the only Saint selected to the Pro Bowl in each of his first four campaigns, shattered the club's touchdown record with an NFL-best 21 scores and is the team's all-time leader in first downs, rushing yards, total yards from scrimmage, total touchdowns and rushing touchdowns. Lattimore was selected to four Pro Bowls during his tenure as a Saint. McCoy has become the anchor of the interior of the offensive line, receiving Pro Bowl selections twice.

He replaced almost half the roster, bringing on board 27 new faces, including nine new starters. Eight players he acquired through the draft, free agency and trades accounted for a total of 14 Pro Bowl selections, with Jake Long and Cameron Wake earning AP first-team All-Pro.

Ireland joined Miami after a seven-year stint (2001-07) with the Dallas Cowboys, where he served his last three seasons as the team's vice president/college and pro scouting. He was originally hired as the team's national scout and in four years in that role, his talent evaluation led to the drafting of four Pro Bowl performers. Of the 53 players on the roster, 38 were acquired over the three years (2005-07) he served as VP/scouting, seven making the Pro Bowl during that time.

MINNESOTA VIKINGS 44 SAINTS 10

NFC Wild Card Playoff (Jan. 3, 1988) - Louisiana Superdome (68,127)

The Vikings spoiled the Saints' playoff debut by racing out to a 21-point lead at halftime and never looking back in a NFC Wild Card Playoff game at the Superdome. New Orleans struck first when QB Bobby Hebert found WR Eric Martin for a ten-yard TD pass early in the first quarter, but the Vikings answered with 24 consecutive points. The Saints scored their final points on a 40-yard FG by K Morten Andersen late in the first half. A "Hail Mary" TD pass from QB Wade Wilson to WR Hassan Jones as the second quarter ended pushed the Vikings lead to 31-10. The Saints were held without a rushing first down in the contest while only moving the chains nine times. Minnesota controlled the ball for over 41 minutes, posting 28 first downs and rushing for 210 yards in the victory.

NFC Wild Card Playoff (Jan. 6, 1991) - Soldier Field (60,767)

In a clash between two of the NFL's top defenses, the Bears jumped ahead 10-0 and held off the Saints in a NFC Wild Card Playoff game at Soldier Field. The teams traded FGs in the final quarter, with Andersen drilling a 38-yard kick and Butler connecting from 21 yards out to produce the winning margin. Chicago RB Neal Anderson rushed 27 times for 102 yards and hauled in four passes for 42 yards as the Bears rolled up 365 total yards to the Saints' 193 yards of offense.

SAINTS 27 PHILADELPHIA EAGLES 24

NFC Divisional Playoff (Jan. 13, 2007) - Louisiana Superdome (70,001)

RB Deuce McAllister set a team playoff record with 143 rushing yards, leading the Saints to a come-from-behind victory over Philadelphia in the NFC Divisional Playoffs. McAllister, making his first NFL postseason appearance, rushed for one touchdown and caught another. New Orleans took the early lead after a pair of field goals, but Philadelphia struck on a 75-yard touchdown pass in the second quarter. The Saints responded with a lengthy drive capped by a four-yard TD burst by RB Reggie Bush, but the Eagles took a lead into halftime after an 80-yard touchdown drive. Philadelphia RB Brian Westbrook shook loose for a 65-yard touchdown run to open the second half, giving the Eagles a 21-13 advantage. But McAllister put the Saints ahead by capping the next two drives with a five-yard scoring run and an 11-yard touchdown reception. Philadelphia added a field goal in the final quarter, but the Saints forced a punt on the Eagles' final possession, and the offense picked up a key first down to run out the clock and preserve the victory.

CHICAGO BEARS 39 SAINTS 14

NFC Conference Championship (Jan. 21, 2007) - Soldier Field (61,817)

In the club's first appearance in the NFC Championship Game, after trailing 16-0 the Saints sliced the Bears' lead to two points and were behind by only four early in the fourth quarter, but four turnovers proved too difficult to overcome. A fumble led to Chicago's first field goal late in the first quarter, and another fumble on the ensuing kickoff added another three-pointer for the Bears a few minutes later. Chicago would drive for a field goal in the second quarter to go ahead 9-0 and march for a TD on its next drive to take a 16-0 lead. The Saints would get on the scoreboard when WR Marques Colston hauled in a 13-yard touchdown with 51 seconds remaining in the first half. Chicago's lead shrunk to 16-14 when RB Reggie Bush scored on an 88-yard TD early in the second half. But QB Drew Brees was flagged for intentional grounding in the end zone for a safety later in the third quarter, and the Bears wore down the Saints in the fourth quarter following a pair of New Orleans turnovers and after the Saints failed to convert on two fourth-down attempts.

SEATTLE SEAHAWKS 23 SAINTS 15

NFC Divisional Playoff (Jan. 11, 2014) - CenturyLink Field (63,388)

Held scoreless until a fourth quarter rally, New Orleans was unable to overcome a 16-0 halftime deficit to the Seahawks, who put an end to their playoff run. After New Orleans was forced into a three-and-out on the game's opening drive, Seattle took advantage of a 16-yard punt by P Thomas Morstead in windy conditions to set up a 38-yard field goal by K Steve Hauschka. Hauschka drilled another FG in the first quarter and Seattle increased their lead to 16-0 in the second quarter on a 15-yard TD run by RB Marshawn Lynch and a 26-yard FG. Following a scoreless third quarter, The Saints trimmed the deficit to 16-8 at the start of the fourth quarter on a one-yard TD run by RB Khiry Robinson followed by a two-point conversion by RB Mark Ingram. Late in the fourth quarter, a missed field goal attempt by New Orleans gave Seattle favorable field position and Lynch ran in a 31-yard TD. QB Drew Brees connected on a nine-yard TD with WR Marques Colston with 26 seconds left, but time ran out on the rally after the Saints recovered the onside kick.

In the team's first playoff game in New Orleans since the 2011 season, the Saints jumped out to a 21-6 second quarter lead before holding on for the 31-26 Wild Card victory. In the third quarter, the clubs traded field goals. Carolina pulled to 24-19 on a 14-yard TD pass from QB Cam Newton to TE Greg Olsen. But Brees led the Saints on a five-play, 62-yard drive with a two-yard TD run by RB Alvin Kamara. Behind 31-26, Panthers S Mike Adams picked off Brees with 1:51 left, but a sack by S Vonn Bell on fourth and 23 sealed the win.

NFC Divisional Playoff (Jan. 13, 2019) - Mercedes-Benz Superdome (73,027)

Facing a defending Super Bowl champion in the postseason for the first time since 2000, the Saints knocked off the early rust of a 14-0 first quarter deficit to score 20 unanswered points for the remaining scoring in the contest. On the first play from scrimmage, a long pass attempt by QB Drew Brees intended for WR Ted Ginn Jr. was intercepted by Eagles CB Cre'Veon LeBlanc. Philadelphia QB Nick Foles then engineered a seven-play, 76-yard drive that ended with a 37-yard TD pass to WR Jordan Matthews. Philadelphia and New Orleans then traded touchdowns and K Wil Lutz drilled a 45-yard field goal with six seconds left in the first half to put the Saints within four points. In the third quarter, New Orleans pulled to a 17-14 lead on a two-yard TD pass from Brees to WR Michael Thomas on an 18-play, 92-yard drive. Behind 20-14, Foles brought the Eagles close to scoring territory late in the fourth quarter, but CB Marshon Lattimore's second interception sealed the win.

SAINTS 21 CHICAGO BEARS 9

NFC Wild Card Playoff (Jan. 10, 2021) - Mercedes-Benz Superdome (3,000)

QB Drew Brees threw a pair of touchdown passes to WR Michael Thomas and RB Latavius Murray, and the Saints defense held the Bears to only nine points and 239 total net yards, the lowest opponent totals in the team's playoff history. The Saints led 7-3 entering the third quarter, when after forcing a punt and consumed 7:29, while driving to the Bears eight-yard line. After Murray rushed for two yards, Brees then found the running back on a six-yard touchdown to give New Orleans a 14-3 lead. After forcing a three-and-out, Brees engineered a 15-play, 64-yard drive that took 8:51 and ended with a three-yard rushing TD by RB Alvin Kamara. The Saints then forced another three-and-out and drove to the one-yard line on the next drive, where a fourth-and-one Brees dive did not reach the end zone with 2:19 left in the fourth quarter. Although Bears QB Mitchell Trubisky connected on a 19-yard touchdown to TE Jimmy Graham as time expired, the gritty effort would be enough for New Orleans to advance to the divisional round.

JIM FINKS
PRESIDENT/GENERAL MANAGER

BORN: 8/31/27 DIED: 5/8/94
COLLEGE: TULSA '49
PLAYER: 1949-55
GENERAL MANAGER: 1964-93
SAINTS PRESIDENT/GENERAL MANAGER: 1986-93
YEAR INDUCTED: 1995

On July 29, 1995, an illustrious career as a football administrator was capped when Jim Finks was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. Finks' posthumous election to the Hall was the ultimate honor in a career full of significant accomplishments.

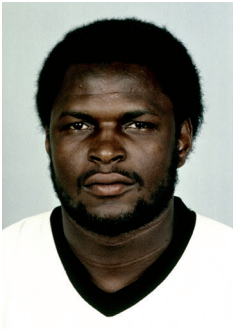
Finks was named president/general manager of the Saints on Jan. 14, 1986 by Owner Tom Benson. As Benson's first major hire since purchasing the team in 1985, Finks brought with him a portfolio of success as a player, coach, scout and administrator that had spanned 37 years in sports.

Much like his prior stints as general manager with the Minnesota Vikings and Chicago Bears, Finks' final stop would also be a success. Hiring head coach Jim Mora and picking impact players in guard/tackle Jim Dombrowski, running backs Dalton Hilliard and Rueben Mayes and linebacker Pat Swilling in his first draft, a franchise that had not achieved a winning season in 20 years logged a 12-3 mark in 1987, second-best in the NFL and went on to their first-ever playoff game. Finks' presence was apparent and recognized as he was named The Sporting News NFL Executive of the Year.

Under Finks' leadership, the Saints would continue to have success, winning their first division title in 1991 as the NFC West championship flag flew in New Orleans for the first time. However, shortly after his final draft in 1993, where he mined a future Pro Football Hall of Fame selection in tackle William Roaf, Finks would be forced to resign due to a valiant fight with lung cancer that would claim his life on May 8, 1994. Overall from 1986-92, the Saints would win 60 percent of their regular season games and enjoy a streak of six consecutive non-losing years. Over that period, only two other NFL teams had the same accomplishment.

Prior to coming to New Orleans, Finks served as general manager of the Chicago Bears from 1974-83, where he constructed one of the NFL's most dominating teams. Before his departure, Finks would acquire 19 of the 22 starters for a Bears team that compiled a 15-1 record in 1985 and crushed New England in Super Bowl XX. During his 10-year tenure in Minnesota, Finks hired then-unkown Bud Grant as head coach and the Vikings followed with a string of five NFC Central crowns and two Super Bowl appearances.

The Salem, Ill. native played quarterback at Tulsa University and was a 12th round selection of the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1949. Finks played defensive back until 1952, when he became the Steelers' starting quarterback and went to the Pro Bowl. After retiring as an NFL player following the 1955 season, he served as an assistant coach for two seasons before beginning his career as an administrator as the general manager of Calgary of the Canadian Football League in 1958.



RICKEY JACKSON 57
LINEBACKER

BORN: 3/20/58
COLLEGE: PITTSBURGH
NFL: 1981-95
SAINTS: 1981-93
YEAR INDUCTED: 2010

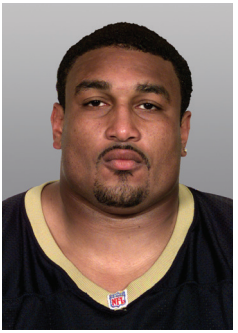
One of the most productive linebackers in National Football League history, Rickey Jackson served as the linchpin of one of the most dominant linebacker corps the league has ever seen. He became the first player to have spent the majority of his career with New Orleans to have been selected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

The Pahokee, Fla. native had an outstanding college career at Pittsburgh and was picked in the second round (51st overall) by the Saints in the 1981 NFL Draft. Jackson appeared in 227 regular season games, starting 225 during 15 NFL seasons, 13 of with the Saints. With 115 sacks as a Saint, he was the club's all-time leader until the end of the 2022 season. Jackson led the club in takedowns six times. He missed only two contests out of a possible 229 regular season games in his career.

Jackson finished his career with 128 sacks, (his eight sacks in his rookie season of 1981 are not included since sacks did not become an official statistic until 1982) ranked tenth all-time in NFL history. He is also the franchise's all-time leader in fumble recoveries with 26.

As a show of respect by opposing coaches and players for his dominating pass rush abilities and sideline to sideline play, Jackson was named to the Pro Bowl six times (1983-86, 1992-93) in his career, tied for the third-most by a Saint. He was an All-Pro selection six times (1984-87, 1992-93). After failing to post a winning campaign in the franchise's first 18 seasons, Jackson's Saints did not have a losing season in his final seven campaigns with the club from 1987-93, qualifying for the playoffs four times during this period.

Jackson would close out his NFL career with San Francisco from 1994-95, earning a championship ring as part of the Super Bowl XXIX winners. Jackson retired as a Saint in 1996. He was inducted into the New Orleans Saints Hall of Fame in 1997 and to the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame in 1999. In 2013, he was inducted into the New Orleans Saints Ring of Honor and in 2016 was named to the franchise's All-50th team.



WILLIAM ROAF 77

TACKLE

BORN: 4/18/70
COLLEGE: LOUISIANA TECH
NFL: 1993-2005
SAINTS: 1993-2001
YEAR INDUCTED: 2012

One of the most accomplished tackles in National Football League history, William Roaf was the anchor of the Saints offensive line for nine seasons. Coming out of Louisiana Tech in 1993, Roaf was picked by the Saints with the eighth overall choice in the 1993 NFL Draft.

The Pine Bluff, Ark. native was immediately inserted by head coach Jim Mora into the starting lineup at right tackle, where he would start every contest and was selected to several All-Rookie teams. The 6-5, 312-pounder moved to the left side in his second season where he was named a Pro Bowl starter and Associated Press first-team All-Pro, which would begin a 12-year stretch as one of the most dominant left tackles in NFL history.

During his nine seasons with the Saints, Roaf was named to the Pro Bowl seven consecutive times (1994-2000), the second-most appearances ever by a Saint. Following a trade to the Kansas City Chiefs in 2002, he would be selected four more times, totaling 11 total selections, tied for the most nominations by a tackle in league history with Anthony Munoz and Jonathan Ogden. He also was an eight-time AP All-Pro selection, with four selections from each club. Overall, Roaf started all 189 regular season games and three postseason contests he appeared in for the Saints and Chiefs.

Roaf received one of football's highest honors as he was named to the NFL's All-Decade teams of the 1990's and 2000's, voted on by the Pro Football Hall of Fame selection committee. He was a first-team selection for the 1990's squad and a second-team choice on the 2000's roster, making him one of only 16 players since the AFL-NFL merger to be named to two All-Decade rosters. Additionally, Roaf was named to the Saints Hall of Fame in 2008 and is a member of the Louisiana and Arkansas Sports Hall of Fames. In 2013, he was inducted into the New Orleans Saints Ring of Honor. In 2014, he was elected to the College Football Hall of Fame and in 2016 was named to the franchise's All-50th team.

MORTEN ANDERSEN 7
KICKER

BORN: 8/19/60
COLLEGE: MICHIGAN STATE
NFL: 1982-2004, 2006-07
SAINTS: 1982-1994
YEAR INDUCTED: 2017

One of the most decorated kickers in NFL history, Andersen became only the second exclusive placekicker to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The NFL's all-time scoring leader until the 2018 season played in an NFL-record 382 games during his 25-year career with five teams.

The Copenhagen, Denmark native was a Saints scoring weapon for 13 seasons after being selected by New Orleans in the 1982 NFL Draft in the fourth round (86th overall) out of Michigan State. During his Saints career, Andersen was named to the Pro Bowl four consecutive times and six-times overall (1985-88, 1990,1992) and was named a first team AP All-Pro selection five times (1985-88,1992). He finished his Saints career as the club's all-time leader in scoring with 1,318 points, in field goals made with 302 and 25 consecutive field goals made. Andersen went on to play eight seasons for the Falcons (1995-2000, 2006-07) and became Atlanta's all-time scoring leader, earning Pro Bowl and AP All-Pro selections in 1995. In the 1999 NFC Championship game, he made a game-winning kick in overtime to beat Minnesota 30-27. Andersen spent the 2001 season with the Giants, the 2002-03 campaigns with the Chiefs and the 2004 season with the Vikings.

Andersen's illustrious career would break almost every NFL kicking and scoring record. In his 25 seasons, he became the NFL's all-time leader in scoring with 2,544 points, in games played with 382 appearances, in field goals made with 565, achieved NFL records with 22 seasons with 90+ points and scored in an NFL record 360 straight games. The "Great Dane" was named a first-team selection for both the 1980's team and 1990's roster, making him one of only 16 players since the AFL-NFL merger to be named to two All Decade teams. Andersen is a member of the Saints Hall of Fame (2009), the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame (2011), the Saints Ring of Honor (2015) and the club's All-50th team (2016).

YEAR INDUCTED: 2022

Mills became the fourth player that spent the majority of his career with the New Orleans Saints to be elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, when he was posthumously selected in 2022.

Mills, 5-9, 232, who passed away in 2005 after a valiant battle with cancer, joined the Saints in 1986, signing with the team after starting his pro football career in the USFL with the Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars (1983-85). The former Montclair State (N.Y.) standout spent nine seasons (1986-94) with New Orleans, a time when he was a sparkplug for one of the NFL's most dominant defenses during the majority of his tenure with the Saints.

The New Jersey native played in 133 games with 125 starts during his Saints tenure and recorded 934 career tackles (723 solo), ranked second in club history to Rickey Jackson, 10.5 sacks, four interceptions, 27 passes defensed, 16 forced fumbles and 17 fumble recoveries, including two recovered for a touchdown. Mills led New Orleans in tackles in five of his nine (1989-92 and 1994) seasons and reached the century mark five times (1988, 1990-92 and 1994), tied for second in club history. During his tenure, the Saints were ranked in the top four in the NFL in opponent net yards per game three times (1987, 1991-92) and in scoring defense three times (1988, 1991-92), including ranking first in both 1991 and 1992. In four postseason contests, he also added 35 tackles (27 solo) and one sack.

Mills earned accolade after accolade during his playing years with the Saints, being selected to the Pro Bowl four times (1987-88 and 1991-92) and as a consensus All-Pro twice (1991-92). Mills was selected to the Saints Hall of Fame in 1998 and the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame in 2001 and posthumously the club's All-50th Team (2016) and Ring of Honor (2021).

Following the conclusion of his Saints career in 1994, Mills played three more seasons for the Carolina Panthers from 1995-97, producing 331 tackles, ten sacks and seven interceptions, summing up his career totals to 1,265 stops, 20.5 quarterback takedowns and 11 interceptions. He was selected to his fifth Pro Bowl in 1996 and also as an Associated Press All-Pro for the third time.

Mills was one of the club's most active players in the community throughout his tenure, having been selected as the Saints recipient of the Byron "Whizzer" White Humanitarian Award in 1992 and 1993.

Few players in the era of NFL free agency rival the impact that Drew Brees made on the Saints when he arrived in 2006 – leading the team to a Super Bowl XLIV victory and being named the contest's MVP, earning AP NFL Offensive Player of the Year honors twice, Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year and AP Male Athlete of the Year in 2010, being named to the Pro Bowl a club-record 12 times and shattering league records. On Feb. 5, 2026, he was elected on the first ballot into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Brees ranks among the league's elite quarterbacks all-time, becoming the first player in NFL history to pass for over 4,000 yards in 12-straight campaigns – including an NFL-record five 5,000-yard passing seasons, a feat no other player has accomplished more than twice. Brees also set single-season NFL records since joining the Saints in 300-yard passing games (13, 2011) and completion percentage (74.4, 2018). His streak of 54 consecutive games with at least one touchdown pass from 2009-12 shattered a mark that had stood since 1960. Overall, in his 20-year NFL career, he played in 287 regular season games (286 starts) and completed 7,142-of-10,551 passes (67.7 pct.) for 80,358 yards, 571 touchdown passes and a 98.7 passer rating.

Brees retired as the league's leader in passing yardage (80,358), completions (7,142) attempts (10,551), ranked second in career completion percentage (67.7) and touchdown passes (571) and fifth in passer rating (98.7). He set marks for touchdown passes in a game (seven, tied with seven other players), completions in a season (471, 2016-broken), completion percentage in a season (74.4, 2018), completion percentage in a game (96.7, 12/16/19), 300-yard passing games in a season (13, 2011), consecutive games with at least 300 yards passing (nine, twice), most passing yards in a five-game span (1,954), most passing yards in a four-season span (20,767, 2011-14), most passing yards in a five-season span (25,637, 2011-15), most passing yards in a six-season span (30,845, 2011-16), most seasons leading the league in passing yardage (seven), consecutive games with a touchdown pass (54, 2009-12), games with four-plus touchdown passes (37), games with four touchdown passes and zero interceptions (25), games with five-plus touchdown passes (11), consecutive seasons with at least 30 touchdown passes (nine), career 300-yard passing games (123), career 350-yard passing games (63) and career 400-yard passing games (16). Brees retired holding four of the top five most accurate seasons in league history.

1967 EXPANSION DRAFT

Held Feb. 10, 1967

In what became the foundation of New Orleans' first team, the Saints selected 42 players in an expansion draft, using the same procedures as in the formation of the Atlanta Falcons in 1966. The Falcons were exempted from the expansion draft in 1967, thus leaving 14 teams from whom the Saints selected players. The procedures that were in place for the Saints were as follows: Each of the other 14 NFL teams froze 29 players from its 40-man roster, leaving 11 players available to be selected. The Saints chose one player from those 11 remaining on each team. Then, each team froze two additional players, leaving eight on each list, from which the Saints chose two more.
