The Houston Texans (0-0) open the 2022 preseason by hosting the New Orleans Saints (0-0) at NRG Stadium on Saturday, Aug. 13 at 7 p.m. CT. The two teams will meet for the 11th time in preseason play, splitting the all-time series with five victories apiece. First-year Head Coach Lovie Smith will lead the Texans for the first time against New Orleans, having served as Houston's associate head coach/ defensive coordinator during the 2021 season. The Saints will also be led by a first-year head coach, with Dennis Allen assuming the position after 12 seasons on New Orleans' coaching staff and six-plus seasons as the team's defensive coordinator.

Texans QB Davis Mills enters his second season having made 11 starts as a rookie in 2021, finishing the year with 2,664 passing yards (a Texans rookie record) and completing 263-of-394 attempts (66.8 pct.) for 16 touchdowns, 10 interceptions and an 88.8 passer rating. Veteran WR Brandin Cooks, who signed a contract extension in the 2022 offseason, returns after posting a career-high 90 receptions for 1,037 yards (11.5 avg.) and six touchdowns last season. The Texans offensive line features three players who have each started 70-plus games in their careers: OL Justin Britt (97), OL A.J. TEXANS CARE

USAA'S SALUTE TO SERVICE NFL BOOT CAMP

On Tuesday, Aug. 9, the Houston Texans and USAA hosted 100 local military service members at training camp for USAA's Salute to Service NFL Boot Camp. The event was highlighted by military members completing drills similar to those used by NFL coaches to evaluate talent, including the 40-yard dash, vertical jump, three-cone shuttle, receiving gauntlet and the QB arm challenge all inside the Texans bubble. As an additional thank you to those to serve, Texans players signed autographs following the conclusion of practice for the participating local military service members. The Salute to Service NFL Boot Camp represents the evolution of authentic military appreciation events USAA and the Texans have created to foster an understanding and appreciation for our local military community.

FROM HEAD COACH LOVIE SMITH (AUG. 7)

Do you have any updates on the players who are coming off injuries?

"We have a plan for a few of our guys that are coming off injuries. It's a scheduled day off for Derek (Stingley Jr.), Justin Britt and a few others, but as you can see the days we've asked him to play, he's performed well and getting better. Learning, growing, love what he's doing."

Have you been pleased with K Ka'imi Fairbairn's kicks?

"Yeah, they are playing their end and they are one of the guys. Then all of a sudden, boom, it's that time. Last play of the game, we need our kicker to come in, put it between up rights, he did that. So big plans for him. We're expecting big things from him this year."

What have you seen from DL Ogbonnia Okoronkwo?

"He's on record of being a pass rusher in the league. I mean, that's why we signed him, you know, to bring another local guy back home. He's a legitimate pass rusher, so we'll have a plan for him."

Can you talk about the secondary in the red zone?

"Just in general, you know, most quarterbacks will tell you they would like for you to line up and show them pre-snap what you're going to do. Most defenses aren't going to do that. Some days out here, is a day that we are going to be doing a lot of disguising. Other days like today, you didn't see any. I mean, it's just a vanilla day today. It still kind of comes down to you get in position and making plays. Sometimes you're going to put, for me, want to put the defense in a tough situation. Where the offense knows, you have to make a play, man on man."

How often do you have conversations with a guy about how he's performed in practice?

"It's constant feedback on how you're doing, really from play-toplay. A guy does something we don't like, that should be corrected then. We watch video. Everything we do, we video and then, on like off-days when you have a chance, a little bit more time, maybe some individual things, and that's just getting ready. We are preparing guys, getting ready for the first preseason game. Then, of course, what they put on video, we'll put a little bit more into it once it starts happening for real against an opponent."

What are you looking at going into the preseason and going up against another opponent?

"Any time they keep score, you want to win, but that's not the total focus. Live tackling the quarterbacks, running backs, cut blocking, all of that. So, what I want to see in the game is how guys finish and it's more about the individual play before we collectively put the team together. So that's what I can't wait to see. We are going to try to give as many guys an opportunity to play as possible. If we win at the end of the day, that's fine, but it's something bigger we are trying to get accomplished."

What has LB Garret Wallow showed you to get more playing time?

"You get playing time when you get opportunities and you do something. You know, show up each day, and then show out making plays, just that. And when you get an opportunity to do multiple things, the more things you can do, the better you are at helping our team and staying on our team."

How is the competition for the slot receiver?

"We have legitimate competition I feel like at just about every position. And what you want to see right now, no mental (errors) and the guys have their bodies in good shape to be able to perform once we get to New Orleans. I can't say that I'm disappointed in any position. Our guys are getting themselves in position now to play and play well but, I know what to do. You know, now it's about having ability to go out there and do it."

Are there any players in particular who have stood out to you during training camp?

"You know, I kind of hate to say, until you finish a play, you never know. Like for our quarterback, they know we are not going to touch them. Receivers know we are not going to hit them. Defensive linemen know that you are not going to get cut. So, trying not to put too much into it right now. We just want to make sure that the guys are practicing hard and know what they are doing. Then we'll get to that next phase. After that first preseason game, I can talk a little bit more. That really tells you, everybody, where they are."

What goes in the preparation of being able to manage your players, especially in this heat?

"Well, first off, to me, football is hard, so you got to grind a little bit. You know, typical game, some of our guys are going to maybe play 70 plays. Only way you get ready to play that, you've got to grind in it, the heat. This just makes you stronger when you go through a little adversity. That's what they are doing. Training camp is not designed to feel great every day. We want them spent. We want them to empty the tank every day they come out here. We have been around it a few times and we're right on course, I'll just say that."

So that's that old school mentality?

"It's old school, but it's new school. It's winning football. That's old and new. To do well and to be able to finish, you've got to put work into it and that's what we're doing."

How have you seen DL Adedayo Odeleye improve and transition his game?

"Well, he knows more the rules on how we play it. Just think of an infant, and with a big body, that's where he is. But the guy is so eager to learn and he has ability. So, we're going to love just kind of working with him this year. You know, the question was asked, who have you seen that's made a lot of progress throughout. He has a longways to go but we have seen a lot of improvement from him."
