THE MATCHUP

The New Orleans Saints aim to continue their win streak this week as they travel to Lambeau Field to take on the Green Bay Packers. The 2-0 Saints look to start 3-0 for the first time since 2013.

The Black and Gold are fresh off a Monday Night Football 20-17 win against the division rival Carolina Panthers at Bank of America Stadium. With the victory, the Saints kept pace with the other 2-0 teams in the division- Tampa Bay and Atlanta.

New Orleans defense proved to be one of the league's best once again Monday night, as they held the Panthers to just 229 yards of offense, including 139 passing yards and just 4-of-14 (28.6%) on third downs. In the first three quarters, Dennis Allen's unit surrendered just six points while also forcing a fumble on a sack from defensive end Carl Granderson that was recovered by cornerback Paulson Adebo. Linebacker Demario Davis and safety Marcus Maye both added a sack, while tying for a team-high seven tackles with linebacker Pete Werner.

Offensively, the Saints got contributions up and down the lineup. Quarterback Derek Carr spread the ball around to six different targets, finishing 21-of-36 for 228 yards through the air. Wide Receiver Michael Thomas had a team-high seven receptions for 55 yards. Explosive playmakers Chris Olave and Rashid Shaheed made big impacts down the stretch, with Olave finishing with six catches for a club-best 86 yards, including a 42-yard one-handed grab to set up a touchdown in the third quarter while Shaheed once again made a huge play with a game-long 45-yard reception late in the fourth quarter. After running back Jamaal Williams left the game in the first half with a hamstring injury, quarterback Taysom Hill and running back Tony Jones Jr. helped carry the load for the ground game. Hill was extremely efficient, rushing nine times for a team-high 75 yards, while Jones added 12 carries for 34 yards and both of the Saints touchdown scores on the night. Kicker Blake Grupe remained perfect on the season, making both of his field goal and PATs.

Sunday afternoon's matchup between the Saints and Packers features two of the NFC's most successful franchises since 2006, with both clubs winning a Super Bowl Championship. The Packers lead the all-time series 17-10, but New Orleans has won three of the last four meetings dating back to 2014. The Black and Gold defense will be facing a different quarterback in Green Bay, as Jordan Love is the new man under center for the Packers.

Around the NFC South: The Falcons (2-0) play at the Detroit Lions (1-1) at noon CT at Ford Field, the Panthers (0-2), play at Seattle (1-1) at 3:05 CT and The Buccaneers (2-0) host the Philadelphia Eagles (2-0) on Monday Night Football Raymond James Stadium at 6:15 CT.

THE COACHES

Dennis Allen was hired as the 17th head coach in New Orleans Saints history on February 8, 2022. Now in his 28th year coaching and 21st in the NFL, Allen has spent 13 seasons in New Orleans in two separate stints, including the six-and-a-half campaigns (2015-21) as the team's defensive coordinator prior to being promoted to head coach. He succeeded Sean Payton, who coached the team for 16 seasons, including the 2009 campaign, when Allen was secondary coach and ended with the Super Bowl XLIV championship. When Allen took control of a Black and Gold defense in Week 11 of the 2015 season that was ranked 32nd both in opponent net yards per game and opponent points per game, he methodically molded a unit that has finished in the top 10 in both categories each of the last three years. From 2017 to the present, New Orleans is the only defense in the NFL to rank in the top five in the National Football League in both opponent rushing yards per game and sacks.

In his first year as head coach of the Saints, Allen guided New Orleans through the challenge of significant injuries at several positions to win three of their last four games after a Week 14 bye and give up 20 or fewer points in the final eight contests of the season, ten points apiece in the final three. Carrying over to the 2023 season, where New Orleans has started 2-0, the Saints have surrendered 20 or fewer points in a franchise-record 20 consecutive games.

Before rejoining the Saints coaching staff in 2015, Allen served as head coach of the Oakland Raiders from 2012-14 and as defensive coordinator of the Denver Broncos in 2011. Prior to his first stint in New Orleans from 2006-10, Allen was also an assistant with the Atlanta Falcons from 2002-05, where he received his NFL coaching start.

Over the course of his coaching career in New Orleans, Allen has coached linebacker Demario Davis and defensive end Cameron Jordan to career seasons. Davis has led the team in tackles in every campaign since signing with the club as an unrestricted free agent in 2018 and has garnered AP All-Pro honors four straight times. Since Allen returned to New Orleans in 2015, his 86.5 sacks rank third in the NFL.

Allen played safety at Texas A&M from 1992-95, where he started the final 21 games of his college career before being signed as an undrafted free agent by the Buffalo Bills in 1996. Prior to entering the National Football League coaching ranks in 2002, Allen served as a graduate assistant at his alma mater from 1996-99 and as secondary coach at the University of Tulsa from 2000-2001. He earned a bachelor of business administration degree and a master's in kinesiology from Texas A&M.

Raised in Hurst, Texas, Allen and his wife, Alisson, have a daughter, Layla and a son, Garrison.

Matt LaFleur (50-23) was named the 15th head coach in Packers history, Jan. 8, 2019. He enters his fifth season as Green Bay's head coach and 15th campaign in the National Football League. He led the Packers to 39 regular season wins 2019-21, surpassing George Seifert (38 from 1989-91) for the most in NFL history by a coach in his first three seasons. LaFleur became the first head coach in league history to win 13-plus games in three straight seasons. He guided the Packers to three consecutive NFC North crowns and the most wins (39) in the league from 2019-21. In 2020, he helped the Packers rank No. 1 in the NFL in scoring (509), touchdowns (66) and giveaways (franchise-record 11). LaFleur led Green Bay to a 13-3 record in his first season in 2019, the biggest one-year improvement in team history (plus-seven). Served as an offensive coordinator for two seasons (Los Angeles Rams, 2017; Tennessee Titans, 2018) and coached quarterbacks for two seasons with Atlanta Falcons (2015, 2016) and four with Washington (2010-2013). LaFleur received his start in the NFL ranks as an offensive assistant with Houston Texans (2008-09). LaFleur played quarterback at Saginaw Valley State (2000-02), where he guided the Cardinals to three straight NCAA Division II playoff appearances and earned second-team All-Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference honors in all three seasons. Played in the NFL for the Omaha Beef in 2003 and the Billings Outlaws in 2004. Coached collegiately at Saginaw Valley State (2003), Central Michigan (2004-05), Northern Michigan (2006), Ashland (2007) and Notre Dame (2014). Born November 3, 1979 in Mount Pleasant, Mich, he and his wife, BreAnne, have two sons, Luke and Ty.

SERIES HISTORY

BUCKING THE ODDS

The Saints have a long tradition of finding players as free agents signed after the draft that make an impact immediately or developing their careers initially on the team's practice squad. Several Saints on the roster play key roles on offense, defense and special teams that the club developed. This trends for the competition battles in training camp/preseason

Wide receiver/return specialist Rashid Shaheed came to New Orleans as an undrafted free agent out of Weber State in 2022 after being one of the all-time best Division FCS returners and after spending the first five weeks on the practice squad, made an immediate impact, Oct. 16 vs. Cincinnati with a 44-yard rushing touchdown. He followed that up with a 53-yard touchdown reception on Oct. 20 at Arizona to become the only Saint to score a touchdown in each of his first two offensive touches. In the December 18 win over Atlanta, he finished with three receptions for 95 yards, with a 68-yard touchdown grab from Taysom Hill, the longest play from scrimmage of the season for New Orleans and the fifth-longest receiving TD by a Saints rookie all-time. On the Christmas Eve win at Cleveland in challenging conditions, Shaheed led the team in receiving with four grabs for 41 yards. In the January 1 victory at Philadelphia, he led the team in receiving for the third consecutive week, posting six receptions for 79 yards, including a 58-yard grab to set up a field goal. Overall, he carried four times for 57 yards with a 44-yard touchdown, caught 28 passes for 488 yards (17.4 avg.) with two TDs, returned 20 punts for 193 yards (9.7 avg.) and returned 14 kickoffs for 320 yards (22.9 avg.).

Tight end Juwan Johnson led his position group with four touchdown receptions in 2021, converting to the position after playing wide receiver in college and starting his Black and Gold career in 2020 as a wideout on the team's practice squad after signing as an undrafted free agent from Oregon. In 2022, he led his position group in receiving with 42 grabs for 508 yards with a club-best and career-high seven receiving touchdowns, tied for third at the position in the National Football League. On January 1, 2023 at Philadelphia, Johnson tied his career-high in receiving with five grabs for 62 yards. Johnson leads the Saints with 11 receiving touchdowns over the past three seasons, while being tied for sixth among league tight ends.

Johnson has gotten off to a positive start in 2023, leading the team's tight ends group in receiving with five grabs for 49 yards.

Signed as an undrafted free agent out of Notre Dame in 2020, RB Tony Jones Jr. first made his playing debut in the team's regular season finale as a rookie. In 2021, he rushed for 142 yards in 11 games with four starts. In 2022, after splitting the season between New Orleans and Seattle, Jones returned to the Saints practice squad at the end of the 2023 preseason. Elevated to the active roster for the first two contests, Jones has rushed for 39 yards and scored his first two career touchdowns in New Orleans' Monday Night Football victory over Carolina.

Defensive end Carl Granderson played in 15 games in 2021 with three starts and posted 24 tackles and three sacks. In 2022, he posted 53 stops (30 solo) and a career-high 5.5 sacks, recovering the first fumble of his career on December 5 at Tampa Bay. In the Christmas Eve win at Cleveland, Granderson, sacked Browns QB Deshaun Watson at the Saints 22-yard line on fourth down with 19 seconds left in the fourth quarter to secure the win. The following week on January 1, 2023 at Philadelphia, he posted two stops, 1.5 sacks, one stop for loss and two quarterback hits, as Granderson posted at least half a takedown in three consecutive weeks for the first time in his career.

Earning the starting position opposite Cameron Jordan in 2023, Granderson has posted five tackles, leads the team with 2.5 sacks and has forced a fumble in the first two contests. In Monday night's win over Carolina, Granderson had a standout performance with two solo tackles and a sack/forced fumble of Panthers rookie quarterback Bryce Young to save a potential score.

Punter Lou Hedley was signed following the 2023 NFL Draft by the Saints out of the University of Miami, where he played from 2019-22 and punted 206 times for 9,315 yards with a 45.2 gross punting average and 77 inside-the-20. The Australia native, who won the punting job in a punting competition in training camp at 30 years old earned All-ACC second-team honors in 2021 and was selected as a semifinalist for the Ray Guy Award, honoring the nation's top punter. In 2020, Hedley was recognized with AP second-team All-American honors and a Ray Guy Award finalist, as the Hurricanes ranked second in the FBS in net punting average.

Kicker Blake Grupe was signed by New Orleans as an undrafted free agent out of Notre Dame, where he played his graduate campaign in 2022, after handling kicking duties at Arkansas State from 2017-21. In 2022, he led the Fighting Irish with 91 points on 14-of-19 field goals and a perfect 49-for-49 in PATs. The Missouri native was Arkansas State's career record holder in scoring (354), field goals (64) and PATs (162). In the 2023 preseason, Grupe secured a roster spot, by making five-of-six field goal attempts.

In the team's first two games, Grupe has made his first five field goal attempts and all three PAT attempts to lead the team with 18 points, while also tying for fifth in the National Football League with ten touchbacks on kickoffs.

Wide Receiver Keith Kirkwood originally joined the Saints as an undrafted free agent out of Temple in 2018. The New Jersey native spent the first two months of his rookie season on the New Orleans practice squad, before being signed to the active roster at midseason and recording 13 receptions for 209 yards (16.1 avg.) with two touchdowns. He added one more scoring grab in the NFC Divisional playoff win over Philadelphia to help the Saints advance to the NFC Championship. After spending most of the 2019 campaign on Injured Reserve and playing for Carolina from 2020-21, Kirkwood returned to New Orleans in 2022, where he contributed on offense and special teams. In the 2023 preseason opening win over Kansas City, he caught a four-yard touchdown pass from QB Derek Carr.

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT

A spot on the practice squad is another avenue to eventually get onto the active roster and have the opportunity to contribute. Below is an overview of eight key contributors players on the club's Week One 53-man roster with extensive practice squad experience.

TE Juwan Johnson was signed by New Orleans out of Oregon, where he spent his graduate transfer season, following the 2020 NFL Draft as a wideout. Recording four receptions for 39 yards in seven contests, Johnson spent the majority of his rookie season on the practice squad. Converted to tight end in 2021 and leading the position group with four touchdowns, Johnson took advantage of his first full offseason strength and conditioning program in 2022, led the tight ends group with 42 receptions for 508 yards with a club-best seven TD grabs, tied for third in the league at his position.

After spending his first three seasons with the Seattle Seahawks, contributing on both defense and special teams, defensive back Ugo Amadi split the 2022 campaign between the Titans active roster and the Kansas City Chiefs practice squad, also appearing in one contest for Kansas City. Possessing the versatility to play in multiple roles, Amadi secured a roster spot with the Saints in the preseason, recording eight tackles, one interception, two passes defended and one coverage stop. He has contributed on both defense and special teams in the first two regular season victories

After splitting his rookie season in 2018 between the practice squad and active roster, defensive back J.T. Gray enjoyed a breakthrough campaign in 2019, when he was selected AP second-team All-Pro when he recorded 16 special teams tackles, one blocked punt and one coverage fumble recovery. In 2021, he was selected as a first-team All-Pro and to his first career Pro Bowl (starter), when he led the NFL with 19 special teams tackles (league-leading 16 solo). Gray led the team with 12 special teams stops in 2022, despite missing three games with a hamstring, the third time in four seasons, he has led New Orleans in coverage tackles. He had his first coverage stop of 2023 in his season debut in the Monday Night Football win over Carolina.

Wide receiver/return specialist Rashid Shaheed came to New Orleans as one of the all-time best Division I-AA returners and after spending the first five weeks on the practice squad, made a quick impact on Oct. 16 vs. Cincinnati with a 44-yard rushing TD. With his 53-yard receiving touchdown on October 20 at Arizona, Shaheed became the only Saint to score touchdowns on each of his first two career offensive touches. In addition to finishing with 28 grabs for 488 yards (17.4 avg.) with two touchdowns, Shaheed also handled return duties for New Orleans since being activated, bringing back 20 punts for 193 yards (9.7 avg.). He made big contribution's in the Sept. 10 season opening win over Tennessee with a career-high 216 all-purpose yards, including five receptions for 89 yards, including a 19-yard touchdown and a late fourth quarter 41-yard grab to help secure the victory. In Monday night's win over Carolina, he posted four catches for 63 yards (15.8 avg.), including a fourth quarter 45-yard grab.

He added one more scoring grab in the NFC Divisional Playoff win over Philadelphia to help the Saints advance to the NFC Championship. After spending most of the 2019 campaign on Injured Reserve and playing for Carolina from 2020-21, Kirkwood returned to New Orleans in 2022, where he contributed on offense and special teams. In the 2023 preseason opening win over Kansas City, he caught a four-yard touchdown pass from QB Derek Carr.

Fullback Adam Prentice was originally signed by Denver following the 2021 NFL Draft out of South Carolina. Joining the Saints at the conclusion of the 2021 preseason, Prentice appeared in seven games with three starts for New Orleans, carrying three times for five yards and catching three passes for 16 yards, while making one special teams stop. In the offseason, Sewell continued to progress on both defense and special teams and secured a spot on the 53-man roster after leading New Orleans in both defensive tackles (12) and coverage stops (four) in the preseason.

Ahead is a synopsis of several returning players and newcomers through the draft and free agency to the 2023 Saints offensive line:

T/G James Hurst - A nine-year NFL veteran who was signed as a free agent from Baltimore in 2020, Hurst has 137 career regular season appearances with 82 starts at three different positions on the inside and outside. His versatility came in handy in 2020, as he started two contests at left tackle and one at left guard, while the Saints gained over 200 yards rushing each time. In 2021, Hurst moved into the lineup for eight games at left tackle in place of an injured Armstead, two at left guard in place of an injured Andrus Peat and three at right tackle for an injured Ryan Ramczyk. Hurst started 15 games at left tackle and one at left guard in 2022, the position he has opened both games at in 2023.

RT Ryan Ramczyk - The Black and Gold used their second first round selection in the 2017 NFL Draft to snag Ramczyk out of the University of Wisconsin, one of the best offensive linemen in the entire draft. After opening all 16 games and both postseason contests in 2017 and being selected as a PFWA All-Rookie, he has been selected as an Associated Press All-Pro selection three times since. After missing seven contests in 2021, Ramczyk rebounded to open the first 16 games in 2022 and continues to anchor the right side of the line.

T/G Andrus Peat - A first round selection (13th overall) in the 2015 NFL Draft out of Stanford, Peat was considered one of the top college linemen in 2014. In his first eight seasons, he's played in 92 regular season games with 86 starts, opening a contest at every position except center. In 2020, he opened 13 contests at left guard as he was part of the NFC Pro squad for the third consecutive season. In 2021, he opened the first six contests, where New Orleans got off to a 4-2 start before suffering a season-ending pectoral injury. In his return to the starting lineup in the 2022 season opener in Atlanta, New Orleans rushed for 151 yards. In back-to-back weeks, Peat was a part of rushing efforts of 200-yards plus by the club for the first time since 2020.

C/G Erik McCoy - New Orleans traded up in the second round of the 2019 NFL Draft to select this standout from Texas A&M, who was a three-year starter, anchoring the middle of the Aggies line. In 2018, he was a team captain who paved the way for the SEC's leading rusher and in 2019 was the first Saint in franchise history to start at center in Week One, opening all 16 contests. McCoy has opened all 59 contests he has appeared in at center and signed a five-year contract extension with the team in 2022.

G/C Cesar Ruiz - The hard-working, talented and intelligent lineman is a perfect fit for New Orleans' culture. He was selected with the 24th pick in the 2020 NFL Draft out of the University of Michigan. The three-year letterman played in 36 games in college, starting his last 31 including the final 26 at center, earning All-Big Ten in 2019. Ruiz settled in at right guard in the last 15 games, with nine starts, as well as both postseason contests. When McCoy suffered a lower leg injury in the first quarter of the 2021 opening win over Green Bay, Ruiz transitioned over to his natural position, where the Saints did not give up a sack in his four starts at center. He returned to right guard on Oct. 25 at Seattle and was the only lineman in 2021 to not miss a start. Ruiz opened 13 games at right guard and one at center in 2022 before suffering a season-ending foot injury Dec. 18, vs. Atlanta. The 46 consecutive starts for Ruiz at the time of his injury was the longest active streak for a Saint. Following an ardent rehab, Ruiz returned to the starting lineup for the season opener on September 10, the day after signing a four-year contract extension.

T Landon Young - A mainstay at left tackle for his entire college career at Kentucky, Young played in 49 contests with 30 starts in his college career. The Lexington, Ky. native was selected by New Orleans in the sixth round of the 2021 NFL Draft and held up to the competition in training camp to snare a roster spot. Young opened one contest at right tackle in 2021 and serves as Ramczyk's backup on the right side, also playing jumbo tight end. In 2022, Young showed versatility. On October 13 at Pittsburgh, he slide over to left tackle for the second half to replace Hurst (concussion) and opened this the November 20 win over the Rams at one of the league's most challenging positions. In the January 1 win at Philadelphia, Young played the final three quarters in place of Ramczyk (hip) and then started the following week's season finale vs. Carolina.

T Trevor Penning- The club's second first round draft choice (19th overall) in 2022 out of Northern Iowa, the 6-7, 322-pound Penning competed with Hurst for the starting left tackle slot in the preseason before suffering a toe injury. The Clear Lake, Iowa native brings athleticism and extensive college experience to the tackle position, where he played in 37 games with 33 starts. Activated for the second half of the season, Penning served as the club's sixth offensive lineman in jumbo packages and started the season finale at left tackle, carrying over in 2023 to start at the position.

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

A third round draft pick of the Denver Broncos in 2018 out of Boston College, in addition to starting 20 of his 71 career contests on defense and posting 107 tackles, a split sack, one interception, 13 passes defended and a forced fumble, Isaac Yiadom has recorded 18 career coverage stops for five teams. Brought up to the active roster during Gray's injury, Yiadom brought a boost to the Saints coverage units with two stops, remaining an integral part of the group after Gray's return to the lineup and re-signing in the offseason.

One of the club's two third round draft picks in 2020, Zack Baun, a former Wisconsin standout, has embraced work on the team's special teams units. He has recorded 20 tackles on coverage, one blocked field goal and 38 defensive stops. On Sept. 10 at Tennessee, Baun got his hands on a punt that went out of bounds one yard past the line of scrimmage, a game-changing play.
