OWNERSHIF

Tom BENSON OWNER

It has been over two decades since Tom Benson assumed ownership of the New Orleans Saints, and it's no coincidence that this period ranks as the most successful and dynamic in franchise history. During the tenure, Benson has emerged as one of the NFL's most influential leaders by dedicating himself to service to the club, the league and the community.

His effort, vision and determination have been the driving influences in the club's transformation within the NFL, the city and the surrounding area. Friends immediately cite his untiring work ethic as a defining virtue, because he works hard and enjoys his work. He has great loyalty to his business associates and employees, many who have worked at his side for over 40 years. But Benson isn't all business, as he's quick to laugh and has a great respect for family and friends. The native New Orleanian also understands the responsibility of putting his resources back into the community to help those less fortunate.

His impact goes far beyond his leadership of the team and within the league. While the club's success has invigorated the area's pride since his arrival, Benson has also built the Saints into an economic powerhouse for the entire region, and his integrity and compassion have transformed the organization into a community leader.

Benson has built his reputation through a record of accomplishment and service to the State of Louisiana, the City of New Orleans, the Gulf South region and the NFL. The Saints have been consistent winners, as Benson's unwavering goal remains for the club to annually rank among the most-admired franchises in all of professional sports.

Prior to his arrival, the Saints and their fans had never enjoyed a winning season, won a division title or experienced the thrill of a playoff victory. Football was a new business for Benson when he purchased the club, but he was a quick learner, and he followed his life-long philosophy of finding the right people and putting them in charge.

Just a year after he was able to put his management group in place, New Orleans stormed to a 12-3 record in 1987 and the city hosted its first playoff contest. In 1990, the Saints captured an NFC playoff berth again, and the following year the club won its first division title. In 1992, New Orleans went 12-4 and marched into the postseason. And in 2000, the Saints won the NFC West crown and won their first playoff contest.

Dedication, hard work and integrity have made Benson among the most trusted and valued figures in the NFL. He plays a key role in many capacities, including as Chairman of the NFL Finance Committee. It's his third stint in one of the league's most influential positions, and evidence of the esteem he is held in by fellow NFL owners.

His involvement in the league started in 1985, when Benson learned that the Saints were on the brink of being sold to out-of-town interests who were going to move the team. While football was one of his interests, the sport had yet to become one of his passions.

But as one of the area's top businessmen, Benson recognized the economic and social importance of the Saints to not only the city, but the entire region. So he spearheaded the effort to keep the Saints. And unlike others, it wasn't just an emotional plea, as he put all of his resources on the line to purchase the club and preserve it for Louisiana.

And while his work within the organization and the Saints' turnaround is well documented, his efforts have also paid dividends for the city and the surrounding area.

SPECIFICS

OWNERSHIP

During his tenure as Owner, the city has hosted four Super Bowls. Each time New Orleans has been chosen, Benson has been the top advocate of the campaign to secure the contest. Each Super Bowl has been an economic windfall for the area that totals over $300 million, not to mention the exposure and the NFL's charitable contributions.

Then there is his commitment to the region's schools and people, as community service is one of the true hallmarks of Benson's years with the Saints. Millions of dollars - not to mention donations of goods and services - have funneled to the entire Gulf South region.

In 1945, Benson served in the U.S. Navy aboard the U.S.S. South Dakota and has remained close to this branch of the armed forces. He is the only enlisted man to ever serve on the Board of Trustees of the Pensacola Naval Museum and has been honored with an award from the crew of the submarine U.S.S. Louisiana. A leading advocate for the National World War II Memorial in Washington D.C., Benson was also a major contributor to The National D-Day Museum.

Because of those efforts and others - including the introduction of Saints Flag Football in middle schools, the Saints Venture Fund and Impact Grants Program for underprivileged kids and Benson's support of football from playgrounds to the Bayou Classic – the World Sports Humanitarian Hall of Fame has twice recognized the club as one of the five most charitable professional organizations.

In addition, Benson brought Arena Football to the city with the New Orleans VooDoo in 2004, one of the league's most successful expansion franchises. His granddaughter, Rita Benson LeBlanc, is the Chief Operation Officer and was named AFL Executive of the Year as the club won the AFL Southern Division title in its first season.

Through ownership of the Saints, it has been Benson's long-term goal to place the City of New Orleans, Louisiana and the Gulf Coast region at the forefront of pro sports and to have his team support the community in economic, civic and charitable efforts. And through two decades, that goal has consistently been met - both on the field and off.

Stanley Rosenberg

One of Tom Benson's most trusted advisers, Rosenberg has been an associate of the Owner's for over 40 years. In addition to his role as Mr. Benson's attorney, Rosenberg has assisted in representing the club in negotiations with the state and has offered experienced counsel in the selection of the Saints' key hires since 1985.

Born in Houma, La., Roddy has a long association with Mr. Benson in both the banking and automotive businesses. He has overseen the day-to-day operations of Benson Management Company as well as Benson Financial Corp. Roddy has also been a member of the Owner's search teams for key hires by the club in the past.

Ryan LeBlancLeBlanc, Mr. Benson's grandson, oversees the daily operation of the sprawling, 2,500-acre Benson Farm and Ranch – known nationwide as a premier hunting destination – in Johnson City, Texas. The ranch features a herd of over 200 Black Angus cattle and has purchased, bred and raced over 100 thoroughbred horses.

MILESTONES

1985 Ownership of club officially transferred to Tom Benson on May 31. Benson becomes managing general partner of the Saints. With training camp almost a month away, Benson maintained the team management group that he inherited.

1986 The Benson influence really begins, as the Owner puts his management team in charge of the franchise. His first hire: Jim Finks as president/general manager on Jan. 14. Jim Mora is named the club's 10th head coach two weeks later.

1987 The Saints post a franchise-best 12-3 record – including victories in the final nine contests and make the playoffs for the first time.

1988 Saints finish 10-6, posting consecutive winning seasons for the first time.

1989 Benson appointed Chairman of the league's most influential group, the NFL Finance Committee, a position he kept before stepping down in the mid-1990s.

1991 New Orleans clinched its first-ever division championship at 11-5 as the Superdome hosts its first playoff game.

1992 Saints post a 12-4 record and host a playoff game for the second-straight year. Benson assumes sole ownership of the club.

1996 Marking a first for the organization, the coaches, players and staff are housed under one roof with the opening of the team's state-of-the-art facility.

1999 Benson promises the club's fans he will "take whatever steps necessary at the end of the season to make the New Orleans Saints a winning franchise."

2000 New Orleans wins the NFC West with a 10-6 record. The Saints win their first playoff game, a 31-28 thriller over St. Louis in the Superdome. Coach Jim Haslett wins NFL Coach of the Year.

2001 New Orleans hosts fourth Super Bowl during Benson's tenure as Owner.

2003 Benson again appointed Chairman of the Finance Committee; Construction of new indoor practice facility and other improvements is finished before camp; Benson moves Saints' annual training camp back to New Orleans.

2004 The Saints notched the 150th win since Benson assumed ownership with a 28-25 overtime victory at St. Louis.

Rita Benson LeBLANC OWNER/EXECUTIVE

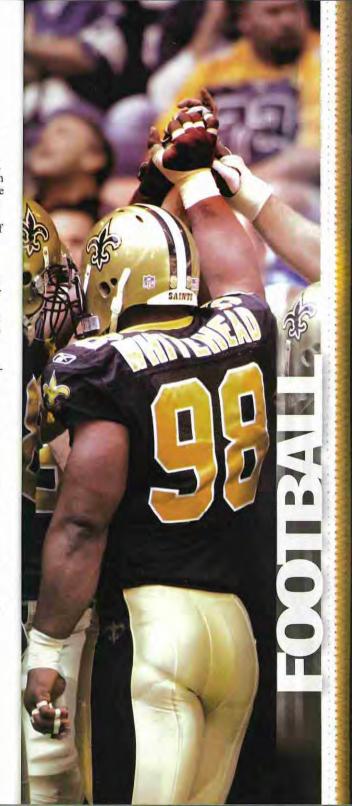

Rita Benson LeBlanc acts as liaison between the Saints, the New Orleans community and the gulf south region coordinating business development projects and special events. She has spearheaded stadium research, club fiscal responsibility and marketing initiatives. In her tenure with the Saints, she has progressed in gaining experience while working through the football business - varying from pro personnel in football operations to ticket sales and youth programs. LeBlanc is also member of the Saints Board of Directors representing the club at NFL ownership meetings.

Her well-rounded NFL experience has included time with the League office in New York, the NFL Properties Publishing Group in Los Angeles and NFL Films in Mount Laurel, N.J. In her endeavors throughout the league, she has participated in the selection process for the Teacher of the Year Program, was staff editor for a season of Gameday magazine, provided production assistance on several Emmy-nominated NFL Films projects and received recognition from the U.S. Secret Service for aiding in the protective mission during Super Bowl XXXVI.

LeBlanc also serves as Owner/Executive for the New Orleans VooDoo. She has been a highly-involved contributor to AFL owner's meetings and a member of the AFL Properties Committee as well as the AFL Television subcommittee. LeBlanc has been instrumental in defining the brand, creating the organization's image and building the VooDoo's unique experience for the franchise's highly-successful first two seasons. For those efforts, she was named the Arena Football League's Executive of the Year in 2004. The excitement continued in 2005 with a powerful VooDoo season of growing fan loyalty and increased local sales.

Additional accolades and involvements in the New Orleans area include; New Orleans Magazine 2004 Top Female Achievers, one of New Orleans CityBusiness' Women of the Year for 2004, Gambit Weekly's Forty Under Forty as one of New Orleans' outstanding achievers and she was honored by Magic 101.9 as one of 2005's Leading Women in Business. She is a member of the Board of Trustees for Loyola University and a board member for the Shirley Landry Benson PACE Center at St. Cecilia.

LeBlanc is a graduate of Texas A&M University with a B.S. in AgriBusiness, and a certificate in International Business from the Mays School of Business. She was a member of the inaugural class of the NFL Managers Program at Stanford University's Executive Education Graduate School of Business, and LeBlanc also attended the 2004 CitiGroup Private Bank's Wealth Management - The Next Generation program in New York for global clients. She is an advisory director to the Board of Directors for Lone Star Capital Bank, N.A. in San Antonio, Texas.

GENERALMANAGER

Mickey LOOMIS EXECUTIVE VICEPRESIDENT/GENERAL MANAGER

His objective is simple: To build and maintain a Super Bowl-winning team in New Orleans. Relying on polished leadership skills, a keen attention to detail and a myriad of lessons learned from over two decades in the NFL, Executive Vice-President/General Manager Mickey Loomis has proven to be a natural for the legion of responsibilities that come with directing the Saints toward that objective.

Always cool in his approach, Loomis possesses a combination of talents and experiences that mesh seamlessly with the everyday duties of his position. He oversees all aspects of the club's football operations, including coaching, player personnel, salary cap management, contract negotiations, equipment, video, athletic training and public relations. He also serves as General Manager of the New Orleans VooDoo of the Arena Football League.

Though his title and authority have evolved during his stint in New Orleans, Loomis continues to follow the same fundamental beliefs that have defined his NFL tenure: Have confidence in those around you, carefully consider every option and be assertive and resolute with each decision.

In assembling a team, Loomis believes in building through the draft and complementing the roster through free agency. His background in managing the salary cap helps immensely in that effort, because in today's NFL landscape cap management cannot be separated from personnel decisions. Loomis understands how the two areas connect when completing a roster and the Saints have never been hounded by cap restraints since he took control of the franchise, evidenced by the active role the club has taken every year in the free-agent market under his stewardship.

Since taking over as General Manager, Loomis has signed Coach Jim Haslett to a long-term contract extension, inked QB Aaron Brooks to a new deal and courted leading free agent acquisitions such as DT Brian Young, T Wayne Gandy, TE Ernie Conwell, P Mitch Berger, G Jermane Mayberry and S Dwight Smith. The Saints have also drafted a wealth of top contributors, including DE Charles Grant, C LeCharles Bentley, WR Donte' Stallworth and DE Will Smith.

Loomis was the guiding force in the construction at the team's headquarters in 2003, a needed facelift that has given the Saints one of the NFL's best training areas. The world-class structure now includes an indoor practice facility, a new weight room and a full-service cafeteria. The locker room, training room and team meeting areas were also redesigned and improved.

ADMINISTRATION

OWNERSHIP

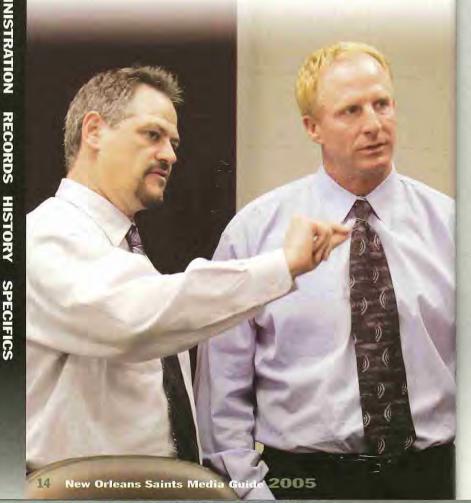

GENERALMANAGER

Loomis brings a blend of experiences to his position. In his former post as Director of Football Administration, he handled contract negotiations with free agents and draft picks and also managed the club's salary cap structure. From draft meetings to post-practice evaluation sessions, Loomis has been a trusted voice among the Saints' highest management circle since he arrived in 2000 and his views have proven to be as savvy as his approach.

Prior to joining the Saints, Loomis spent 15 years with the Seattle Seahawks, most recently as executive vice-president from 1992-98. He originally joined the Seahawks staff in October 1983, was promoted to vice president/finance in 1990 and then to executive vice president in 1992.

A native of Eugene, Ore., he graduated from Williamette High School in 1974 and played basketball at Northwest Christian College. Loomis earned his undergraduate degree in accounting from the University of Oregon and also holds a master's degree in sports administration from Wichita State University.

Loomis has two children: A son, Alex, and a daughter, Katherine.

COACHINGSTA

Coach Jim Haslett, who has notched 42 regularseason victories and the first playoff win in franchise history since being hired in early 2000, enters his sixth season as Head Coach of the New Orleans Saints.

After five years of carefully rebuilding the roster following a six-season stretch (1994-99) where the Saints only posted 32 wins, Haslett's overall victory total - 43 including the playoffs - and winning percentage (.524) already rank second in team record books among the 13 head coaches in club history.

To get his message across, he fosters teamwork while relying on this foundation of beliefs: Intensity for four quarters, endless preparation and a dedication to the basics of blocking and tackling. In an NFL era where the makeup of a team can change dramatically each year because of free agency, Haslett's ability to rapidly create a winning, united atmosphere within those who were once football strangers ranks among his greatest strengths.

Though his focus remains firmly on the future, the Saints' successes over his first five seasons cannot be ignored. Never has his gritty leadership and single-minded determination been more evident than in 2004. After a spate of injuries hamstrung the team early and a trio of defeats came by a touchdown or less, Haslett rallied New Orleans to four-straight victories over the final month and on the cusp of a playoff berth. Though the Saints ranked among the conference's hottest teams, the club was left on the outside of the postseason by the league's tie-breaker system.

The offense again sparkled in 2004, ranking among the team's all-time top 10 in scoring - as the Saints have each year since Haslett's arrival. New Orleans scored three touchdowns or more in 11 games, and QB Aaron Brooks, RB Deuce McAllister and WR Joe Horn combined to give the Saints one of the top threeposition combined yardage seasons in club history.

In 2003, Haslett molded a roster full of inexperienced youngsters, including eight new starters sprinkled throughout the lineup, into a formidable unit. New Orleans bounced back from a 1-4 start to win seven of the final 11 contests - with three of the four defeats coming by a touchdown or less - as Haslett held the club together during a difficult beginning to keep the Saints in playoff contention until the 16th week of the season.

The offense had another record-breaking season, setting club marks for thirddown conversions (106), third-down conversion percentage (46.3) and fewest interceptions thrown (eight) while RB Deuce McAllister emerged as one of the NFL's best players. And on defense, New Orleans held 11 opponents to 20 points or less and gave up an average of 12 points per game in December.

Despite having 10 new starters in 2002, the Saints posted a 9-7 record that included a pair of memorable victories over the Super Bowl XXXVII-Champion Tampa Bay Buccaneers. New Orleans led the NFC with a team-record 432 points that season, while the special teams emerged as one of the league's most opportunistic units.

Observers predicted a lengthy rebuilding project when Haslett arrived in 2000, but the strong-willed coach ignored that timetable and the expectations surrounding the Saints have grown with his demanding standards.

Haslett's keen attention to detail and commitment to preparation are best reflected in the way New Orleans has performed on the road under his leadership. The Saints are 23-16 (.600) in enemy stadiums since Haslett's arrival – the best road winning percentage in team history for a head coach - despite the club having dropped the previous 14 away games before he was hired.

Haslett led New Orleans to the NFC West title and a playoff victory in 2000. The team put an exclamation point on an eventful season with a 31-28 triumph over the St. Louis Rams to notch the first-ever playoff win in New Orleans. With that victory, Haslett had led the Saints to greater heights in his first season than the previous 12 head coaches in franchise history combined. Following that historic effort, Haslett was a unanimous selection for NFL Coach of the Year.

Haslett's 42 regular-season victories ranks second in club history, trailing only Jim Mora's 93 wins from 1986-96. And by entering his sixth season in 2005, Mora is the only head coach who has led the Saints for a longer period.

A 23-year veteran of the NFL as a player and coach, Haslett was hired by New Orleans on Feb. 3, 2000. With the reputation as a player's coach who accepted little nonsense, Haslett's coaching star had been on the rise in league circles for years. He spent 1997-99 as defensive coordinator for the Pittsburgh Steelers, where his aggressive schemes helped create some of the NFL's most dominating units. He tutored a defense that led Pittsburgh to the AFC Championship game in 1997.

This is Haslett's second tour of duty in New Orleans. He spent two years with the Saints, as linebackers coach in 1995 followed by a stint as the defensive coordinator under Mora in 1996. In his first season as coordinator, New Orleans improved from 22nd to 13th in the NFL in defense.

From 1993-94, Haslett was linebackers coach for the Los Angeles Raiders. In 1993, the Raiders posted a 10-6 record, while current Saints linebackers coach Winston Moss had one of his best seasons. Haslett's contributions helped push the Raiders' defense to a top 10 ranking both years. From 1991-92, Haslett was defensive coordinator for the Sacramento Surge of the World League. In 1992, the Surge won the WLAF title. Serving on Haslett's staff that year as a defensive assistant was Rick Mueller, now the Saints' Director of Player Personnel.

COACHINGSTAFF

Haslett opened his coaching career in 1988, handling linebackers at the University of Buffalo. A year later he was promoted to defensive coordinator and served in that capacity for two years.

The bedrock of Haslett's coaching principles was forged during his stellar playing career. After being drafted out of Indiana University of Pennsylvania in the second round of the 1979 NFL Draft by the Buffalo Bills, Haslett was voted the Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year. He played eight seasons with the Bills – earning All-Pro honors in 1981 – and finished his career in 1987 with the New York Jets.

Haslett played defensive end at IUP, where he was a four-time All-American. He enrolled at IUP and joined the football team as a walk-on, yet still set school records with 20 sacks and five fumble recoveries in a season. As a senior Haslett even took over as punter and averaged 41.5 yards. His career was recognized with his induction into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2001.

Born Dec. 9, 1955, in Pittsburgh, Haslett and his wife, Beth, have two daughters, Kelsey and Elizabeth, and a son, Chase.

COACHING CAREER

1988-90 Linebackers coach for the University of Buffalo in 1988, defensive coordinator in 1989 and 1990.

1991-92 Defensive coordinator for the Sacramento Surge of the World League, which won the WLAF Championship in 1992.

1993-94 Linebackers coach for the Los Angeles Raiders.

1995-96 Linebackers coach for the Saints in 1995, promoted to defensive coordinator in 1996.

1997-99 Defensive coordinator for the Pittsburgh Steelers, which advanced to the AFC Championship game in 1997.

2000 Named the 13th Head Coach of the Saints on Feb. 3. Led New Orleans to a 10-6 record, the NFC West title and the franchise's first playoff victory in his opening season. For his efforts, he was named NFL Coach of the Year by several media outlets.

2002 Signed multi-year contract extension in August, keeping him under contract with New Orleans through 2006, with options to extend.

2003 Notched 34th victory in New Orleans in finale over playoff-bound Cowboys. Victory total ranks second to Jim Mora (38 wins from 1986-89) in club history among head coaches in first four seasons.

2004 Finished season with four-game winning streak, including season-ending victory at defending NFC Champion Carolina.

COACHINGSTAFF

Since arriving in New Orleans in 2002, Mike Sheppard has only strengthened his standing as one of the game's finest teachers of quarterbacks and offensive strategy. Respected in coaching circles for his technical expertise and communication skills, he was promoted to offensive coordinator in February after a lengthy search by Coach Jim Haslett, who found the most qualified candidate on his staff.

Over the last three years under Sheppard's guidance, starting QB Aaron Brooks progressed each season. He tossed 72 touchdowns with only 39 interceptions in that span. Brooks had 3,810 yards last season, including six games with 250 or more vards.

After setting a club record with 27 touchdown passes in 2002, Brooks had a sterling encore in 2003 by tossing 24 TDs with eight interceptions. The plus-16 difference between touchdowns and interceptions was the best in club history. Brooks also posted a career-high 88.8 passer rating to rank third in the NFC and was twice named the conference's offensive player of the week.

Before coming to New Orleans, Sheppard spent 2001 as offensive coordinator of the Buffalo Bills. Under his guidance the Bills finished 13th in the NFL in total offense.

Sheppard spent 1999-2000 as quarterbacks coach for the Seattle Seahawks under head coach Mike Holmgren. Twice in 1999 under Sheppard's tutelage, QB Jon Kitna earned AFC Offensive Player of the Week. Prior to arriving in Seattle, Sheppard served from 1997-98 as offensive coordinator for the San Diego Chargers.

In 1996, Sheppard coached wide receivers coach for the Baltimore Ravens and was given play-calling duties under head coach Ted Marchibroda for a unit that finished third overall in the league. Sheppard first entered the NFL with the Cleveland Browns in 1993 as tight ends coach before tutoring wide receivers from 1994-95.

Prior to joining the NFL, Sheppard served one year as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at the University of California in 1992. Before his stint at Cal, he spent eight years as head coach at New Mexico (1987-91) and Long Beach State (1984-86). Sheppard has also spent time on coaching staffs at Kansas, Idaho State, BYU, Cal Lutheran and U.S. International.

Rick VENTURI DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

For over two decades he has been a constant in NFL coaching circles, holding nearly every title in that span, working with some of the league's top coaches and earning a reputation among his peers as one of the game's leading strategists and teachers. During his career, he has spent countless hours on practice fields, in meeting rooms, studying film and pacing the sidelines, a work ethic that has kept Rick Venturi among the innovators during the steady evolution of defensive strategy.

In 2005, he enters his 10th season in New Orleans and fourth as defensive coordinator. Fueled by a limitless supply of intensity and competitiveness, Venturi has earned the respect of players and fellow coaches by consistently cutting out the clutter and breaking every player's responsibilities down into their simplest form. He will rely on those skills again this season as he tutors a youthful unit.

Last year, the Saints posted 37 sacks and created 31 turnovers, including 18 fumble recoveries. DE Charles Grant had a career-high 10.5 sacks, and young players such as DE Will Smith, LB Courtney Watson and LB James Allen became top contributors. The unit solidified over the season's final month, allowing an average of 15.3 points in the last four games.

While working a slew of new starters into the line up of an inexperienced defense in 2003, Venturi's unit improved nearly every week. Over the last 12 games, the Saints' defense gave up only 207 points (an average of 17.2 points). During that span, New Orleans held five opponents to two touchdowns or less and the defense did not allow an opposing wide receiver to score a TD for the rest of the year after the fourth quarter at Tampa Bay on Nov. 2. The defense — which held 11 opponents to 20 points or less — also improved as the season progressed, as over the final four games the defense surrendered a scant 48 points.

In 2002, the club featured one of the league's most opportunistic units by tying for third in the NFL with 38 takeaways (20 interceptions, 18 fumble recoveries).

Venturi was promoted to defensive coordinator after serving as defensive backs coach from 2000-2001, a position he also held in New Orleans in 1998. Venturi was also assistant head coach from 1997-2001. While he stopped serving in that capacity in 2002 to concentrate fully as defensive coordinator, the additional title was a reflection of the respect for Venturi held by Jim Haslett and the entire coaching staff.

COACHINGSTAFF

In his final two seasons as a position coach prior to being elevated to coordinator, Venturi's secondary was one of the strengths of a unit that annually ranked among the league's toughest defenses. In 2000, the Saints ranked 10th in the NFL in pass defense and ninth in the league with 20 interceptions.

Venturi first brought his expertise to the defensive backfield in 1998. That season, the Saints secondary scored five of a team-record nine defensive touchdowns while posting an NFC-high 21 interceptions. In 1999, Venturi served as linebackers coach, the same position he held when he joined the Saints in 1996. In his first year in New Orleans, Venturi was promoted to head coach eight games into the season and held the club together during a difficult period. With a new coaching staff in 1997, he was retained as linebackers coach and first took on the additional duties of assistant head coach.

Prior to joining the Saints, Venturi spent two years working under head coach Bill Belichick with the Cleveland Browns, first as secondary coach in 1994 and as defensive coordinator/linebackers coach the following season.

The formative years of Venturi's NFL career were spent with the Colts. He joined Baltimore as an assistant in 1982 and remained with the club through 1993. He began 1991 as defensive coordinator/linebackers coach before taking over as interim head coach with 11 games remaining. He also served as defensive coordinator with the Colts in 1984 and 1992-93.

Venturi played quarterback and defensive back at Northwestern University, where he earned a dual degree in physical education and history and later added a master's degree in education. His first coaching stop was at his alma mater in 1968. From 1973-76, he was at Purdue before moving on to Illinois for the 1977 season. He returned to Northwestern in 1978, where at 31 he was hired as the youngest head coach in Big 10 history. He stayed at that position with the Wildcats for three years, and in 1981 he landed his first job at the pro level with the CFL Hamilton Tiger-Cats.

Off the field, Venturi enjoys riding motorcycles and owns two bikes. Born Feb. 23, 1946, in Taylorville, Ill., he and his wife, Cheri, have a daughter, Marin, a son, Jason, and a grandson, Aiden.

AI EVEREST SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

By stressing teamwork, aggressive tackling and opportunistic play, the Saints' special teams have established a tradition of top-notch play over the last five seasons under Al Everest. Over the last five years, his hard-charging units have ranked among the NFL's best and set a slew of club records.

In 2004, the club had five players win NFC Special Teams Player of the Week awards, the most in franchise history for a single season. Included in that total was four-straight over the final four contests, which tied the NFL record for the most consecutive winners since the inception of the award in 1993. P Mitch Berger was voted for the honor following the victory at Dallas, Dec. 12, RB Aaron Stecker took home the award after the Dec. 19 win at Tampa Bay, WR Michael Lewis earned the accolade following the victory over Atlanta, Dec. 26, and DE Tony Bryant capped the streak after the triumph at Carolina in the finale.

K John Carney was also named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week after tying a team record with five field goals at St. Louis, Sept. 26. Also last season, Lewis became the team's all-time punt return leader and had a 96-yard kickoff return for a touchdown. Stecker added a 98-yard kick return for a TD and Berger was voted to the Pro Bowl after leading the league in net punting average at 39.5.

In 2003, Carney established a team record with 22-straight contests with a field goal, Berger led the league in net punting average and the Saints notched three-straight games with a blocked field goal, the longest such streak in the NFL since 2000.

In 2002, the Saints had three touchdown returns, blocked five kicks and a forced interception for a TD while rushing a punt. Carney set a club scoring record with 130 points and Lewis set an NFL record with 2,432 combined kickoff and punt return yards. The Saints also set a team record by allowing an average of 5.5 yards on 38 punt returns. Everest was named 2002 NFL Special Teams Coach of the Year in a vote by his peers and The Dallas Morning News listed New Orleans as having the league's No. 1 special teams in the publication's annual ranking.

In 2001, the Saints led the NFC in average drive start, featured the conference's most accurate kicker and ranked among the leaders in kickoff return average.

Everest brings 34 years of coaching experience to his post, arriving in New Orleans in 2000 after a four-year stint in the same capacity at Arizona. In 1999, the Cardinals ranked third in the NFL in defensive punt return coverage, fifth in opponent's net punting average and second in field goal defense. In 1998, Everest relies on a diverse background, having worked on both sides of the ball and around the globe. He served as athletic director and football coach at the American School Foundation in Mexico City from 1976-80, and baseball coach at U.S. International University from 1981-87. He then entered the pro ranks, coaching in Italy from 1988-91. Everest also spent part of 1991 as a scout for the Pro Spring Football League, before serving as secondary coach with the Arkansas Miners in 1992.

In 1992, Everest was offensive coordinator of the San Antonio Force in the Arena Football League. He returned to Italy in 1993 before coaching at The Colony (Lewisville, Texas) HS. In 1995, Everest was special teams coordinator of the CFL Birmingham Barracudas.

A two-year starter at safety at SMU from 1970-71, Everest earned a master's degree from North Texas, and a Doctorate of Education from U.S. International. His father, Andy, was an assistant with the Saints under Bum Phillips from 1981-85. Born Aug. 22, 1950, Everest has two daughters, Michelle and Kaycee.

COACH-RUNNING GAME COORDINATOR

For over a decade he has been polishing the skills of NFL offensive linemen, building a reputation around the league as one of the game's most respected assistant coaches by stressing toughness, assignment responsibility and attention to detail. Jack Henry will now bring those same traits to the club's rushing efforts, as he was promoted this year by Coach Jim Haslett to associate head coach/running game coordinator. This newly-formed position allows him to use his expertise in a key part of the team's offensive attack.

Henry, who arrived in New Orleans with Haslett in 2000, will be the chief advisor to offensive coordinator Mike Sheppard in all facets of the ground attack and bring his understanding of fundamentals and techniques to the game plan. Henry will also continue to tutor the offensive line, working with assistant offensive line coach Jim Pyne. Henry's additional title of associate head coach is a reflection of the respect and regard held for him by the entire coaching staff.

Over the last five seasons, Henry has balanced an aggressive approach to taking on defenders with proper blocking techniques. His hard-nosed units have set the tone for RB Deuce McAllister to become the first player in club history to post three-straight 1,000-yard seasons. Each season Henry has molded his crew of blockers into a cohesive unit, despite weathering a slew of injuries.

Last year, Henry guided LeCharles Bentley in his transformation from right guard to center, and Bentley was voted an alternate for the Pro Bowl. He also integrated G Montrae Holland into the unit as the starting right guard. The Saints averaged over 100 vards rushing per contest and provided protection for QB Aaron Brooks to pass for 3,810 yards.

In 2003, the offensive front was one of the team's most consistent areas despite Henry having to shuffle injured players in and out of the lineup. The line paved the way for the Saints to rush for 2,000 yards, convert a team-record 106 third downs and allow just 36 sacks, the club's lowest total since 1996. McAllister rushed for nine-straight 100-yard games and 1,641 yards, the fourth-consecutive season where New Orleans has featured a 1,000-yard rusher. That accomplishment - now boosted to five-straight - is a first in club history, and none of it was possible without Henry's group clearing the way up front.

Bentley was selected to the Pro Bowl in 2003, the first Saints' guard to be voted to the postseason all-star game since 1987.

Before joining Haslett's staff, Henry was offensive line coach for the Detroit Lions from 1997-99. In Henry's first season, the Lions boasted the NFL's secondranked rushing offense, highlighted by Barry Sanders' 2,053 yards. It is one of only five times in NFL history that a running back reached the 2,000-yard milestone.

A coaching veteran of over 30 years, Henry spent 1996 as offensive line coach for the San Diego Chargers. Prior to joining the Chargers, Henry spent 1993-95 as the offensive line coach at the University of Pittsburgh. His first NFL assignment was tutoring the Pittsburgh Steelers offensive line under Hall of Fame coach Chuck Noll in 1990-91.

Henry previously served as the assistant director of athletics, associate head football coach and offensive coordinator at his alma mater, Indiana University of Pennsylvania (IUP) from 1986-89. He was inducted into the IUP Athletic Hall of Fame in 1997.

He also worked at seven other colleges in his career, coaching the freshman offensive line at West Virginia in 1970, followed by a stint at Edinboro in 1973 (offensive line and wrestling coach), Louisville in 1974 (offensive line), Millersville in 1975-76 (offensive coordinator), Southern Illinois in 1977 (offensive line), West Virginia in 1978-79 (offensive line), Appalachian State in 1980 (offensive coordinator) and Wake Forest in 1981-85 (offensive coordinator/offensive line coach). His first coaching job was at Blairsville (Pa.) High School.

Henry, who began his playing career as a linebacker at Penn State from 1964-65, played guard for IUP in 1967-68 before graduating in 1969. He was the captain of the school's famed 1968 Boardwalk Bowl Championship team.

Henry is a native of Houston, Pa. He and his wife, Carol, have two children: Chad, an area scout for the Detroit Lions who is married to the former Holly Gordon, and Jacqueline.

WILLY ROBINSON SENIOR DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT-SECONDARY

The Saints added a proven, experienced strategist to the coaching staff upon the hiring of Willy Robinson in January. Robinson, the defensive coordinator of the San Francisco 49ers in 2004, will be in charge of the secondary and also lend his expertise and perspective to coordinator Rick Venturi in the weekly preparation for each opponent.

Robinson led a young defense in San Francisco after a four-year stint (2000-03) as defensive backs coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers. Under his guidance, Pittsburgh's secondary forged a reputation as one of the league's most aggressive units. The Steelers went to the playoffs twice in that span – including advancing to the AFC Championship in 2001 – and had 66 interceptions.

Entering his 10th season, Robinson arrived in Pittsburgh after serving as defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Oregon State in 1999, where he tutored the No. 1 ranked defense in the Pac-10. Prior to joining the Beavers staff, Robinson was the secondary coach for the Seattle Seahawks from 1995-98 and worked with a pair of All-Pros: CB Shawn Springs and S Daryl Williams.

COACHINGSTAFF

Robinson opened his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Fresno State (1978), then accepted a position at San Jose State for a season working with the outside linebackers. He returned to Fresno in 1980 and spent 14 years at the school in various capacities, including tutoring the secondary (1980-86), outside linebackers (1987-89) and defensive backs/special teams (1990-91. He was promoted to co-defensive coordinator in 1988 and held the post alone in 1992. In 1994, Robinson was secondary coach for the University of Miami.

Born Feb. 10, 1956 in Fort Carson, Colo., Robinson went to the College of Sequoia prior to attending Fresno State, where he played defensive back. He has two daughters: Brittany and Mallory.

Adam BAILEY

ASSISTANT STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

Adam Bailey enters his first season as assistant strength & conditioning coach. With the Saints, he assists head strength & conditioning coach Rock Gullickson with all facets of the club's workout program.

After a serving as an intern to Gullickson in 2004, Bailey was promoted to his current position. He also serves as strength coach for the New Orleans VooDoo of the Arena Football League, handling the planning and execution of the club's conditioning program.

Bailey came to New Orleans after working as a graduate assistant at the University of Missouri for the school's football, baseball and track strength and conditioning programs. He has held similar positions at Auburn, Louisville and the University of Texas.

He holds a master's degree from Missouri in Educational, School and Counseling Psychology, with an emphasis in health promotion, and graduated from Louisville with an undergraduate degree in Physical Education.

Entering his fifth season with the Saints, offensive assistant Chip Beake handles a wide spectrum of responsibilities, including breaking down film and assisting the coaching staff with all facets of game preparation. Beake is entering his fifth season on Coach Jim Haslett's staff.

Before coming to New Orleans, Beake spent 1995-2000 with the Barcelona Dragons. His years in NFL Europe provided a wide range of experiences, including stints as co-defensive coordinator, secondary coach and special teams coach. He was also involved in draft-day decision making and roster moves, and in 1997 the Dragons captured the World Bowl Championship.

Beake spent NFLE off-seasons working in NFL training camps, picking up experience on both sides of the ball. In 2000, Beake worked as an intern under defensive coordinator Gregg Williams with the Tennessee Titans. In 1999, he was a Green Bay Packers intern under offensive coordinator Sherman Lewis. And in 1997-98, he held a similar post with the Dallas Cowboys during camp, working with the offensive line.

Beake has extensive college experience, working at the Colorado School of Mines (1999), MacPherson College (1998) and the University of Kentucky as a graduate assistant (1993-94). He also worked with the coaching staff at the University of Oklahoma in 1995, handling administrative duties.

A graduate of the University of South Carolina from 1989-92, Beake earned his bachelor's degree in international studies. He received his master's degree in diplomacy and international commerce from Kentucky in 1994. Born May 27, 1969 in Kansas City, Mo., Beake is married to Berta Gispert from Barcelona, Spain. Greg BROWN DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT/ CORNERBACKS

Greg Brown, a 15-year NFL coaching veteran, enters his fourth season with the Saints and his third as defensive assistant/cornerbacks coach. He was promoted to his current spot after spending 2002 as defensive assistant/quality control, and has since been responsible for tutoring the club's platoon of cornerbacks. He coordinates his efforts with senior defensive assistant/secondary coach Willy Robinson.

In 2004 Brown led a unit that was among the most consistent areas of the defense, despite melding the talents of newly-acquired Mike McKenzie and veteran Fakhir Brown into the starting unit. McKenzie finished with a team-high five interceptions while playing in just 11 games, while Brown became one of the leaders of the secondary with his solid play.

But developing top-notch secondary play has been Brown's specialty throughout his coaching career, and he brings a wealth of experience in working with NFL defensive backs. Before coming to New Orleans, Brown spent the previous two years coaching the secondary of the Atlanta Falcons. Before that stint, Brown served as the defensive backs coach for the San Francisco 49ers in 1999, with S Lance Schulters earning Pro Bowl honors that season.

Brown spent 1997-98 as secondary coach of the Tennessee Oilers. In 1997, the Oilers had one of the league's top safety tandems, with Blaine Bishop being voted to the Pro Bowl and Marcus Robertson earning All-Pro honors. Brown also tutored Tennessee CB Samari Rolle, one of the AFC's top cornebacks.

From 1995-96, Brown served as secondary coach at San Diego. Under his guidance, the Chargers finished with top-five rankings both years in fewest yards allowed per completion, and Brown tutored S Rodney Harrison, who has emerged as one of the league's best safeties. In 1994, he had his first stint with Atlanta as defensive backs coach and the Falcons finished second in the NFL with 23 interceptions.

Brown's NFL coaching career began in 1984, when he was hired as a defensive quality control assistant at Tampa Bay. Brown assisted on the offensive side in 1985 and served as tight ends coach in 1986.

Brown also worked on three college coaching staffs as secondary coach: Wyoming (1987-88), Purdue (1989-90) and Colorado (1991-93). Brown coached a pair of Jim Thorpe Award Winners in Deon Figures and Chris Hudson at Colorado, and the Buffalos led the nation in pass defense in 1992.

Rock GULLICKSON STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

Superior conditioning has been one of the cornerstones of the Saints' success over the last five seasons and a tribute to the efforts of strength and conditioning coach Rock Gullickson. His work in New Orleans has also received notice from his peers, as Gullickson was presented the 2000 President's Award by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Society.

Gullickson was a top advisor in the planning and layout of the new weight room that is connected to the Saints' indoor practice facility, including the installation of a nutrition bar for the players as well as a padded, multi-use area for stretching, plyometrics and abdominal work.

Gullickson came to the Saints in 2000 after an accomplished career in the college ranks. He arrived in New Orleans after spending 1998-99 at the University of Louisville. Prior to that, Gullickson served as the head strength and conditioning coach at the University of Texas from 1993-97. Before taking over that position, Gullickson served in a similar capacity at Rutgers from 1990-92.

A 1978 graduate of Moorhead State (Minn.), Gullickson was an Associated Press Division III All-American guard for the Dragons. Following graduation, Gullickson remained at Moorhead State for a season as strength coach before moving to Mayville (N.D.) State for two years as strength coach, assistant football, and head track and field coach.

COACHINGSTAFF

In 1981, Gullickson was named strength coach and weight training instructor at South Dakota State, where he received his master's degree. In 1982 at Montana State, he became the first full-time strength and conditioning coach in the history of the Big Sky Conference. Gullickson remained at the school for eight years planning and designing Montana State's facility and assisting in the team's 1984 Division I-AA National Championship.

Gullickson was the state of Montana's power lifting champion from 1983-86 and captured the Northwest U.S. Championship in 1985. Born April 11, 1955 in Moorhead, Minn., Gullickson is married (Terry).

He was a standout linebacker in the NFL for 11 years and forged a reputation during that span as a hardhitting, disciplined player who brought leadership, consistency and toughness to the field. Winston Moss, the Saints' linebackers coach since 2000, tutors the players at his position by following the same principles he is remembered for as a player.

In 2005, Moss enters his fifth full year at linebackers coach and sixth season in New Orleans. He has quickly built a tradition of fine linebacker play within the defense since being promoted to his current post near the end of 2000 following the departure of John Bunting to become the head coach at the University of North Carolina. Moss initially joined the Saints staff as defensive assistant/quality control coach.

In 2004, Moss tutored a revolving cast of young players and created a solid unit. Rookie LB Courtney Moss and veteran LB Orlando Ruff combined to post 140 tackles, and Moss integrated rookie LB Colby Bockwoldt and fourth-year veteran LB James Allen into the starting lineup on the outside over the last half of the season, with positive results. In 2003, several players distinguished themselves under the guidance of Moss, including LB Derrick Rodgers, who recorded a career-high 107 tackles, an interception and two fumble recoveries.

Moss opened his coaching tenure in 1998 as defensive quality control coach for the Seattle Seahawks, the club he finished his NFL career with after a three-year stint starting in 1995. His playing career also included stops with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1987-90) and the Los Angeles Raiders (1991-94). While with the Raiders in 1993, Saints' head coach Jim Haslett was Moss' position coach. Moss had a teamhigh 102 tackles that season and was elected the Raiders' recipient of the Ed Block Courage Award.

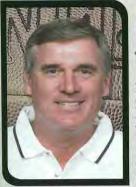

During his 11-year career, Moss appeared in 155 games, started 146 contests and recorded 768 tackles, 20.5 sacks and five interceptions. He was a three-time defensive captain and a recipient of the 1996 NFL Players Association Unsung Hero Award.

COACHINGSTA

Originally a second-round pick by the Buccaneers in 1987, Moss played college football at the University of Miami (Fla.), where he was part of the Hurricanes' 1984 National Championship team.

Born Dec. 24, 1965 in Miami, Fla., Winston and his wife, Zolia, have three sons, Winston Jr., Robert and Marcus, and a daughter, Victoria.

PLAYING CAREER: Miami (Fla.), 1984-87; Tampa Bay Buccaneers, 1987-90: Los Angeles Raiders, 1991-94: Seattle Seahawks, 1995-97. COACHING CAREER: Seattle Seahawks, 1998; New Orleans Saints 2000-.

He leads with a tireless work ethic, a quality that has proven to be contagious to the players under his direction since tight ends coach Bob Palcic arrived in New Orleans in 2000.

A gritty dedication to doing things right has been the foundation of his efforts since the start of his coaching career, a relatively simple approach that has consistently produced quality performances in those under Palcic's tutelage over the last 30 years.

That tradition has continued in New Orleans within the stable of tight ends. Palcic is entering his sixth season with the Saints, and his efforts have helped make the position an integral part of the offense in both the running and passing attacks. Last season, the platoon of tight ends produced 44 receptions for 438 vards and four touchdowns.

Palcic arrived in New Orleans in 2000 after serving as the offensive line coach of the Cleveland Browns in 1999. He coached tight ends for the Detroit Lions in 1997-98 and was the offensive line coach of the Atlanta Falcons from 1994-96.

Before joining the NFL ranks, Palcic helped guide UCLA to a Rose Bowl berth in 1993, where he tutored present Baltimore Ravens All-Pro tackle Jonathan Ogden. He spent 1992 at USC, coaching All-American tackle Tony Boselli.

His two years in Los Angeles followed a six-year stint (1986-91) at Ohio State. The Buckeyes captured a share of the Big Ten title in Palcic's first season. He coached the offensive line at Arizona for two seasons (1984-85) before joining the Ohio State staff.

In addition to his college and NFL coaching tenures, Palcic coached in the Canadian Football League with the Toronto Argonauts (1982-83). In that span the Argonauts appeared in two Grey Cup Championships and won the title in 1983. Palcic began his coaching career at his alma mater, Dayton, in 1974. He coached the school's defensive ends and offensive linemen for two years (1974-75) before moving on to Ball State (1976-77). In his first year at Ball State, the Cardinals won the Mid-American Conference Championship. In 1978, Palcic began a four-year stint as the offensive line coach at Wisconsin, a position he held until moving on to Toronto. Palcic played linebacker at Dayton from 1968-70.

Born July 2, 1948 in Gowanda, N.Y., Palcic and his wife, Theresa, have three children: Joe, currently the defensive coordinator at the University of Indiana, Amy, an assistant in the Cleveland Browns media relations department, and Monica, who is married to Philadelphia Eagles LB Mark Simoneau.

John PEASE DEFENSIVE LINE

An 18-year NFL coaching veteran, John Pease brings a high-energy approach fused with toughness to his second stint in New Orleans as defensive line coach. He was hired by Coach Jim Haslett before last season to help a talented cast of young players up front realize their potential and become the backbone of the defense. Pease's experience, enthusiasm and intensity made him a perfect fit for the assignment.

In 2004, DE Charles Grant had the finest season of his brief career. He posted 10.5 sacks and led the defensive front with a career-high 113 tackles, adding three forced fumbles and a fumble recovery. DE Will Smith, the club's No. 1 pick last year, had a sparkling rookie season with 7.5 sacks and a team-leading five forced fumbles. And Pease integrated prized free agent DT Brian Young into the front four, and the veteran finished fourth on the team with 86 tackles.

Pease spent 1986-94 in New Orleans in a similar position with former Coach Jim Mora. During that span, he directed formidable lines that were key components of defenses that led the team to three playoff appearances in his final five seasons with the club. In those years, Pease tutored top performers in franchise history such as DT Wayne Martin, DE Joe Johnson, DE Frank Warren, DT James Geathers, DT Jim Wilks and DE Renaldo Turnbull.

Before returning to New Orleans, Pease had served as assistant head coach/defensive coordinator of the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2002, with his unit surrendering an average of 19.6 points per game. As assistant head coach, Pease's additional duties included coordination of the team's off-season strength and conditioning program as well as assisting Coach Tom Coughlin in the duties and logistics of minicamps, practice schedules and training camp.

He has long been considered one of the league's top defensive line coaches. While holding that position for the Jaguars from 1995-2001, Jacksonville averaged over 42 sacks a season over his six years.

Opening his 35th season as a coach, Pease has spent 18 years in the NFL, 13 on the collegiate level and three years in the USFL. He began his full-time coaching career at Fullerton College in 1970 as linebackers coach (1970-72) and defensive line coach (1973). He also had stints at Long Beach State, Utah and Washington. From 1983-85, he was on the staff of the Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars under Mora, with the Stars capturing the league's championship the final two seasons. When Mora was named head coach of the Saints, Pease joined him in New Orleans, where he stayed until being hired by the Jaguars in 1995.

A graduate of the University of Utah, Pease began his playing career at Fullerton Junior College, where he was a two-time JUCO All-American. He was inducted into the California Community College Football Coaches Hall of Fame in 1999. Pease transferred to Utah and was named All-Western Athletic Conference at wingback as a senior. From 1965-67, he served in the military in Puerto Rico and coached at Antilles High School. In 1968-69, he was a graduate assistant at Utah before moving to Fullerton the next year.

Born Oct. 14, 1943 in Pittsburgh, Pease and his wife, Chris, have two daughters, Tracy and Kristen, and four grandsons.

Jim PYNE ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

The Saints hired Jim Pyne to serve as assistant offensive line coach. He will work under the guidance of Jack Henry and be responsible for the day-to-day tutoring of the offensive line. The two coaches have worked together before, as Pyne worked under Henry's tutelage as an offensive lineman with the Detroit Lions in 1998.

COACHINGSTAFF

Pyne had worked as offensive quality coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers for the last two seasons. In this position, he worked closely with offensive coordinator Bill Muir in the instruction and preparation of the offensive line. Pyne joined the Bucs' staff following a eight-year playing career along the offensive front in the NFL. He was originally drafted in the seventh-round by Tampa Bay in 1994, where he played until 1997.

In 1998, Pyne signed with Detroit, starting all 16 games at center, and the following year was the first pick of the 1999 expansion draft for the Cleveland Browns, where he started at left guard through 2000. In his stint with the Browns, Pyne was named Man of the Year, Lineman of the Year and was voted team captain in 1999 while earning a reputation as one of the club's strongest players. He was named to Muscle & Fitness Magazine's NFL All-Strength team three times. Pyne spent his final season with the Philadelphia Eagles, who advanced to the NFC Championship in 2001.

A four-year starter at center for Virginia Tech, Pyne was named a first-team All-American in 1993 and had his No. 73 retired. The offensive linemen meeting room at the school is now named in his honor. Pyne was also named the center on the Big East "All-Time" team and was honored with Virginia Tech's academic award for having the highest GPA on the team.

In 2003, Pyne was named to Milford (Mass.) High School's Hall of Fame, and in 2004 he was named to Virginia Tech's Hall of Fame.

Pyne graduated from Virginia Tech with a degree in marketing. Born Nov. 23, he and his wife, Crista, have a daughter, Sophia.

Jimmy ROBINSON WIDE RECEIVERS

A coaching veteran of over 20 years – including 2004, his first with the Saints – Robinson brings a proven track record of producing standout wide receiver corps and has built a lasting reputation around the NFL as a teacher and leader.

His impact was immediate in New Orleans, as Joe Horn and Donté Stallworth posted career records under Robinson's tutelage. Robinson was added to the Saints staff last offseason following a lengthy search by Coach Jim Haslett.

COACHINGSTAFF

The club's platoon of wide receivers were among the most consistent members of the offense, with Horn tying for the NFC lead with 94 receptions and recording a club-records in yardage (1,399) and receiving touchdowns (11). Stallworth also had career-highs with 58 catches for 767 yards and added five TDs. With eight 100-yard performances between them, the duo set a single-season record for the most times reaching the milestone for a pair of Saints targets.

Robinson arrived in New Orleans after serving as wide receivers coach for the New York Giants from 1998-2003, and under his guidance the team's wide receivers posted the most successful seasons in club history. WR Amani Toomer became the team's all-time receiving yards leader with 6,366 yards, and he established team records in 2002 with 82 catches and 1,387 yards. He also became the first player in Giants history to catch at least 70 passes for four-straight years (1999-2002) and have five-straight 1,000-yard seasons. In 2001, Giants wide receivers caught a team-record 186 passes for 2,680 yards and 15 touchdowns. And in 1999, Toomer and WR Ike Hilliard became the first pair in club record books to total more than 2,000 receiving yards.

Prior to joining the Giants, Robinson served as wide receivers coach for the Indianapolis Colts (1994-1997) and the Atlanta Falcons (1990-93). With the Colts he worked with WR Marvin Harrison, who became only the third rookie to lead the team in receiving. While in Atlanta, he guided Andre Rison and Michael Haynes to the top of the NFL's touchdown receptions list for a tandem in 1991 and 1992, and Rison and Mike Pritchard led the league again in 1993.

Robinson began his coaching career in the USFL as wide receivers/tight ends coach of the Memphis Showboats from 1984-85. He returned to his alma mater, Georgia Tech, as wide receivers coach from 1987-89.

Robinson had a standout career at wide receiver for Georgia Tech from 1971-74, hauling in 101 passes for 1,633 yards and 13 touchdowns. He was selected to the school's Hall of Fame in 1981 and to the Yellow Jackets' all-time team in 1992.

Drafted by Atlanta in 1975, Robinson also played for the Giants from 1976-79. His stint with New York was perhaps his most productive as a player (Robinson led the club in receptions in 1977 and '78), and he scored the first touchdown in Giants Stadium on a 30-yard pass from Craig Morton against the Dallas Cowboys on Oct. 10, 1976. He also played for San Francisco (1980) and Denver (1981) before moving into coaching. Born Jan. 3, 1953 in New York City, Robinson and his wife, Karen, have four children: Jamie, Jessica, Jim and Katie.

PLAYING CAREER: Georgia Tech, 1971-74; Atlanta Falcons, 1975; New York Giants, 1976-79; San Francisco 49ers, 1980; Denver Broncos, 1981.

Johnny ROLAND RUNNING BACKS

The Saints added a sharp mind to the coaching staff in January in hiring Johnny Roland as running backs coach. With 27 years of NFL coaching experience, Roland has tutored some of the league's greatest running backs and has served on the staffs of seven clubs. He has also been on the staffs of two teams who have advanced to the Super Bowl.

Roland arrived in New Orleans after working in a similar position for the Green Bay Packers in 2004. Both of his top pupils at Green Bay – RB Ahman Green and FB William Henderson – were voted to the Pro Bowl, with Green rushing for 1,163 yards.

From 1997-2003, Roland was running backs coach for the Arizona Cardinals, where he worked with all-time rushing leader RB Emmitt Smith. Roland's career has been highlighted by tutoring several other top rushers, including RBs Walter Payton and Neal Anderson with the Chicago Bears – from 1983-92, where Roland picked up a Super Bowl XX ring with the Bears' victory at the Superdome – RB Jerome Bettis (with the St. Louis Rams in 1995-96) and RB Wilbert Montgomery (with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1977-78).

In the 1980s with the Bears, Chicago running backs led the league in rushing four times. From 1984-88, the club averaged 160.9 yards per contest on the ground and made the playoffs five-straight years.

Roland is entering his 35th year in the NFL, including eight seasons as a player. He played seven years with the St. Louis Cardinals (departing as the club's all-time leading rusher) and one season for the New York Giants. He was named the NFL's "Rookie of the Year" in 1966 and in 103 career games rushed for 3,750 yards and 28 touchdowns and hauled in 153 passes for six touchdowns. Roland earned trips to the Pro Bowl following the 1967-68 seasons.

He was an All-American while at the University of Missouri, starting at both halfback and cornerback and earning a degree in business administration. Born May 21, 1943 in Corpus Christi, Texas, Roand has two sons: Johnny Jr. and James, and a daughter, Cynnamon.

PLAYING CAREER: Missouri, 1962, 1964-65; St. Louis Cardinals, 1966-73; New York Giants 1974.

COACHING CAREER: Green Bay Packers, 1974; Notre Dame, 1975; Philadelphia Eagles, 1976-78; Chicago Bears, 1983-92; New York Jets, 1993-94; St. Louis Rams, 1995-96; Arizona Cardinals, 1997-2003; Green Bay Packers, 2004; New Orleans Saints, 2005.

COACHINGSTAFF

Turk SCHONERT QUARTERBACKS

After the promotion of Mike Sheppard to offensive coordinator, Coach Jim Haslett hired Turk Schonert as quarterbacks coach. He is a 19-year veteran of both coaching and playing the position in the NFL.

Schonert last served on the New York Giants staff in 2003. He held the same position for the Carolina Panthers in 2001, and directed the passers for the Buffalo Bills from 1998-2000. Schonert opened his career as quarterbacks coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 1992-95.

Schonert entered the NFL as a ninth-round draft choice of the Chicago Bears in 1981 after a record-breaking career at Stanford, and he was known for his resourceful approach to the game. He never played for Chicago, but was signed by the Cincinnati Bengals that season, where he stayed for six years.

He was traded to Atlanta in 1986, and returned to Cincinnati from 1987-89. In 10 seasons he played in 72 games with 12 starts, completing 311 of 504 passes for 3,788 yards and 11 touchdowns. Schonert was 7-5 as a starter, and played in Super Bowls XVI and XXIII while with the Bengals.

As a senior at Stanford, Schonert led the nation in passing efficiency (164.5) and the Pac 10 in touchdown passes (19). He also set a school record for completion percentage at 67.1.

A native of Torrance, Calif., Schonert was born Jan. 15, 1957 and played in the Little League World Series in Williamsport, Penn. in 1968. He and his wife, Beth, have two sons, Jake and Hayden, and a daughter, Camery.

LeCharles BENTLEY 65

HEIGHT: 6-2 WEIGHT: 313

COLLEGE: Ohio State JOINED SAINTS: D2-02

NFL EXPERIENCE: 4th Season

BIRTHDATE: 11/7/79

NFL CAREER - His combination of hard-nosed play, gritty temperament and polished blocking techniques has sparked Bentley's rise to emerge as one of the NFL's top interior linemen in just three seasons. Among the club's strongest players, he made a successful switch to center last season, his college position, handling all line calls and adjustments. Has started all 43 games he has played in since arriving in New Orleans as a second-round pick in 2002, including all 16 games in 2004. Pro Bowl pick in 2003 at guard was a near-unanimous choice for NFL All-Rookie honors in 2002. Bentley was selected as the NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year by Sports Illustrated that season.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS - Placed on injured reserve (knee), 12/27/03; Signed by Saints to three-year contract, 7/27/03; Drafted by the Saints in the second round (44th overall) of the 2002 NFL Draft.

HONORS - 2003: Pro Bowl (did not participate because of knee injury); 2002: Sports Illustrated Offensive Rookie of the Year; Pro Football Weekly All-Rookie.

! playemotes

Has needed little time to establish himself as one of the NFL's best offensive linemen. Voted to Pro Bowl at guard in 2003, a Pro Bowl alternate at center last season and was named to several All-Rookie teams in 2002.

In 2003, became first Saints' guard to be voted to the league's postseason all-star game since 1987, and only the third guard in club history to receive the honor, joining Brad Edelman (1987) and Jake Kupp (1969).

In 2002, was the first Saints' rookie lineman since 1998 to start the first game of his opening season.

As a senior at Ohio State in 2001, Bentley was honored as the Rimington Award winner (given to the nation's top center), Big 10 Offensive Lineman of the Year and as a consensus All-American.

SAINTS MAKING A DIFFERENCE: Bentley enjoys children and often visits area schools. The center also spends time at Boys & Girls Club and made ticket donations in 2004.

NFL CAREER - The Saints' final draft pick in 2004 spent the first nine games serving as one of the club's top special teams players before emerging as a starter for the final seven contests. Bockwoldt proved to be a quick study and a sure tackler, and his speed injected energy into the linebacker corps. He closed the season with 48 tackles and a sack – all but one tackle coming in the final seven games – and added 13 tackles and a fumble recovery returned for a touchdown on special teams.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS - Signed to three-year contract, 7/30/04; Selected in the seventh round of the 2004 NFL Draft (240th overall).

NFL CAREER - After five seasons in New Orleans (2000-04), Brooks ranks second in club history in every major passing category - including yards (16,274), attempts (2,340), completions (1,323) and touchdowns (107) - and first with an 81.5 passer rating. He has emerged as one of the NFL's top quarterbacks since 2001, with 98 touchdown tosses over that span and over 3,500 yards each season. Brooks has thrown for over 250 yards in a team-record 28 regular-season games, and in 30 contests including the playoffs. In 2004, he completed 309 of 542 attempts for 3,810 yards, with 21 touchdowns and 16 interceptions. It was the fourth-straight season where he had over 20 touchdown passes and over 3,500 passing yards, with both streaks signifying the best in Saints record books. Since arriving in New Orleans, he has emerged as one of the NFL's top comeback artists by engineering 16 game-winning drives in the fourth quarter or overtime, including five in 2004. Brooks took over as the team leader in 2000 in relief of injured starter Jeff Blake in Week 11 (vs. Oakland, 11/19/00), started the following week and has not missed the opening snap since. Brooks has played in 72 regular-season games with the Saints, including starting the last 69 contests. His 441 passing yards vs. Denver (12/3/00) is the highest single-game total in franchise history, and Brooks is also the only Saints quarterback to rush for over 100 yards in a contest (108 vs. San Francisco, 12/10/00). Last season vs. the Broncos (11/21/04), Brooks set club marks for attempts (60) and completions (34) in a contest.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS - Signed to six-year contract extension with the Saints, 9/7/02; Acquired from Green Bay Packers, 7/31/00, along with TE Lamont Hall, in exchange for LB K.D. Williams and New Orleans' 2001

Brooks has 16,247 yards since arriving in New Orleans in 2000, joining Archie Manning (21,734, 1971-75, 77-82) as the only two quarterbacks in club history to pass for over 16,000 for the Saints.

With 3,810 last season, Brooks in the only quarterback in franchise history to go over 3,500 passing yards for four-straight seasons (2001-04). With 21 in 2004, Brooks also became the only Saints QB to toss over 20 touchdowns in four-straight years.

Holds club single-game records for passing yards (441 vs. Denver, 12/23/00), attempts (60, vs. Denver, 11/21/04) and completions (34, vs. Denver, 11/21/04). He is also the only quarterback to rush for 100 yards in a contest (108, at San Francisco, 12/10/00).

Ranks first in club history with 28 regular-season contests with 250 or more yards passing, including seven in 2004. He has also eclipsed the milestone twice in the postseason.

Has led the Saints on 16 game-winning marches in the fourth quarter or overtime since joining the club in 2000. In 2004, he led New Orleans on a late march for the win vs. San Francisco, the game-clinching drive in overtime at St. Louis, directed a late victory drive vs. the Chiefs and another game-winning march at Tampa Bay.

New Orleans is 16-7 in the 23 career games where Brooks has posted a passer rating of 100 or more.

After his fourth year as a starter last year, Brooks has recorded four of the top seven marks for total offense in a season by a Saints' player: A club-record 4,190 in 2001, 3,983 (third) in 2004, 3,828 in 2002 (sixth) and 3,721 in 2003 (seventh).

His career ratio between touchdown passes (107) and interceptions (67) is plus-40. With 24 scoring passes and only eight interceptions in 2003, his plus-16 difference set a record for Saints QBs, breaking the single-season record he first established in 2002 (plus-12, 27 TDs, 15 interceptions).

Led the Saints to club's lone playoff victory in team history with his four-TD passing performance vs. St. Louis Rams in Superdome (12/30/00). Brooks ranked as the NFL's top-rated passer of the postseason in 2000.

all 16 games for third-straight year and completed 306 of 518 passes for 3,546 yards, with 24 TDs and eight interceptions. Passer rating of 88.8 was a careerhigh, eclipsing 85.7 in 2000...Ranked second on the team with 175 yards rushing on 54 carries, with two touchdowns...Did not throw an interception over the final six games (206 attempts), included in a stretch of 234 pass attempts to close season...Including 24 in 2003, a club-record 27 in 2002 and 26 TDs in 2001, his total of 77 scoring passes is the highest three-year total for a QB in franchise history (QB Jim Everett was distant second with 60 from 1994-96)...Had 3,721 yards of total offense in 2003 (3,546 passing, 175 rushing). Brooks holds the team record with 4,190 yards of total offense (3,832 yards passing, 358 rushing) in 2001...At Seattle, Sept. 7, completed 29 of 47 for 274 yards, with a touchdown and an interception...Led Saints to first victory of year vs. Houston, Sept. 14, completing 18 of 27 for 189 yards and two touchdowns for a 111.5 passer rating...At Tennessee, Sept. 21, posted second-straight game with a passer rating of over 100 (104.4) by completing 15 of 23 for 185 yards and a touchdown...Earned NFC Offensive Player of the Week following a sparkling

Was 21 of 37 for 228 yards with two interceptions in overtime victory over Atlanta, Nov. 16. Brooks, who weathered seven sacks in the contest, completed four of five passes - including a 38-yard strike to WR Michael Lewis - late in the fourth quarter to set up the field goal that sent the game into overtime. In the extra period, Brooks directed a 37yard march in three plays to set up K John Carney's 36-yard, game-winning kick... Tied career high at Washington, Nov. 30, with two rushing touchdowns. He led New Orleans on fourth-quarter comeback for 11th time in his career, finding TE Boo Williams for a 15-yard touchdown pass in the fourth quarter for the 24-20 victory...Had a top performance in prime time vs. the New York

With 98 touchdown passes since 2001 - including 21 last season - Brooks has thrown for more TDs over a four-year span than any Saints quarterback. Including nine in eight games in his first season with New Orleans, Brooks had 86 from 2000-03 to also rank second. QB Archie Manning is a distant third over a four-year stretch (63 from 1977-80).

Brooks is also a threat when running with the ball. His 358 rushing yards in 2001 is the highest single-season total by a Saints quarterback, and his four rushing touchdowns last season led all NFL quarterbacks.

Has opened 69-straight regular-season games since taking over as the starter in Game 12 of 2000. It's the longest streak for a quarterback in club history, and the third-longest stretch among the NFL's active passers, trailing Green Bay QB Brett Favre (205) and QB Peyton Manning of the Colts (112).

SAINTS MAKING A DIFFERENCE: Brooks was honored as the Saints Man of the Year for 2004. His work with literacy is well-documented and Brooks' summer reading program — "Read to Pass" — is a staple in the New Orleans Public Library System.

Brooks shattered the franchise's single-game records for attempts and completions vs. Denver on Nov. 21 by hitting on 34 of 60 passes. He closed the year with 2,340 career attempts and 1,323 completions, trailing only QB Archie Manning (3,335, 1,849) in each category.

Brooks ranks first in club history with 28 regular-season games of 250 or more yards passing, a milestone he has also crossed twice in the postseason. The quarterback had seven contests with 250 or more passing yards in 2004 to move past the former record of 23 set by Manning.

Brooks has started 69 consecutive games – the third longest streak in the league behind Green Bay's QB Brett Favre and QB Peyton Manning of Indianapolis – and joined Denver QB Jake Plummer as the lone two quarterbacks to attempt every pass in 2004 for his team. Brooks also led all NFL quarterbacks with a career-best four rushing TDs, giving him 11 for his career. The only Saints quarterback with more career rushing TDs is Archie Manning (18).

Saints' leading postseason rusher with 15 rushes for 55 yards...After seeing limited duty in Games 5 and 9, was thrust into extended action in Game 11 vs. Oakland, Nov. 19, following Blake's first-quarter injury... Against Oakland was 14-of-22 for 187 yards, with two touchdown passes and an interception. One of the scoring strikes was a 53-yard toss to Willie Jackson... Engineered a 31-24 win at St. Louis, Nov. 26, completing 17-of-29 for 190 yards with a touchdown and two interceptions. He also Saints carried the ball seven times for 34 yards with two touchdowns and became only the third QB in NFL history to beat the defending Super Bowl Champions in first career start... Was 30-of-48 for 441 yards with two touchdown passes and two interceptions vs. Denver, Dec. 3, setting a club record for passing yards...Helped Saints rebound with come-frombehind, 31-27 win the following week at San Francisco, completing 12-of-29 passes for 203 yards and two touchdowns. Was nearly as dangerous with his feet, rushing for 108 yards on 11 carries, a record for a Saints' quarterback, and it included a memorable fourth-quarter scramble for 10 yards on fourth-and-four at the New Orleans 38. The run kept the game-winning drive alive...Became first NFL QB to have a 400-yard passing effort and a 100-yard rushing game in the same season and only the sixth player to have both in a career... Was 24-of-35 for 285 yards in playoff-clinching, 23-7 win vs. Atlanta, Dec. 17... Was 16-of-31 for 208 yards with two touchdown passes and an interception vs. St. Louis, Dec. 24...In 31-24 NFC Wild Card win over St. Louis, Dec. 30, completed 16-of-29 for 266 yards with four touchdown passes and an interception... In NFC Divisional Playoff at Minnesota, 1/6/01, was 30-of-48 for 295 yards with two touchdowns and a pair of interceptions. 1999 - The Packers' inactive Third QB for all 16 games.

COLLEGE - Earned three letters (1996-98) and started final two seasons at Virginia...Saw minimal action in 1995 after a redshirt year...Finished among top five in almost every career passing category. Departed ranked second in touchdown passes with 33 and third all-time in passing yards (5,118), attempts (651), completions (357) and total offense (5,665 yards)...Held the school record with six career 300-yard passing games, including the single-game record of 390, set in 1997 vs. Virginia Tech...Joined Shawn Moore as the only players at Virginia to throw for 2,000 yards in more than one season (2,282 in 1997 and a career-best 2,319 in 1998)...Also rushed for 547 yards on 199 carries and scored 13 touchdowns ...Started 23 consecutive games from 1997-98, compiling a 16-7 record...Directed Virginia to a 9-3 record and the Peach Bowl as a senior, completing 156 of a career-high 290 pass attempts for 12 touchdowns, with nine interceptions...Also led Atlantic Coast Conference quarterbacks with five rushing touchdowns and 227 yards...Threw for a season-high 345 yards in 1998 win over Virginia Tech, engineering the top comeback in school history...Threw a career-best 20 touchdown passes while being intercepted seven times as a junior...Holds degree in anthropology.

PERSONAL - Voted team MVP his final two seasons at Homer L. Ferguson (Newport News, Va.) HS... Lettered three times in football as a quarterback and free safety...Completed 268 of 481 passes (55.7%) for 4,396 yards and 42 touchdowns in three seasons, also rushing for 791 yards and eight TDs...Earned four letters in basketball, scoring 1,069 career points and earning first-team all-district and team MVP honors as a senior...Lettered twice in baseball...A yearly participant in the NFL Hometown Huddle program...Second cousin of Atlanta Falcons QB Michael Vick...Married (Tisa)...Full name: Aaron Lafette Brooks...Born March 24, 1976 in Newport News, Va.

! memorablemoments

QB Aaron Brooks has ranked among the NFL's top comeback artists since taking over as the starter in 2000, leading 16 drives in the fourth quarter and OT to lead the Saints to victory from either a deficit or tie. A look back:

- Dec. 19, 2004: Saints 21, Buccaneers 17 Brooks found WR Joe Horn on a fouryard scoring toss to cut the deficit to three, then led a 41-yard march, including a 13yard run on 4th-and-12. A seven-yard TD strike with 32 seconds left to clinch the win.
- Dec. 12, 2004: Saints 27, Cowboys 13 With the score knotted at 13-13, Brooks led an 11-play, 73-yard drive, which ended with a four-yard TD by RB Deuce McAllister. Up by a touchdown, Brooks would later add a 31-yard TD strike to Horn.
- Nov. 14, 2004: Saints 27, Chiefs 20 Brooks led a five-play, 72-yard drive, completing all three passes on the march, including a 42-yarder to Horn for a TD.
- Sept. 26, 2004: Saints 28, Rams 25 Brooks led New Orleans 38 yards in four plays in the final 24 seconds to set up a field goal to force overtime. In OT, Brooks completed three passes and had a 12-yard scramble to set up K John Carney's game-winner.
- Sept. 19, 2004: Saints 30, 49ers 27 Brooks posted a 127.0 rating, and his last of three TD passes was a 16-yard strike to WR Donté Stallworth with 1:01 remaining.
- Nov. 30, 2003: Saints 24, Redskins 20 Washington went ahead by three early in the fourth quarter and the Saints took over at the Redskins 40. Brooks scrambled for a first down and tossed a 15-yard TD strike on the victory drive.
- Nov. 16, 2003: Saints 23, Falcons 20 Brooks completed four of five late in the fourth quarter to set up the field goal to force overtime. He then directed a 37-yard drive in three plays to set up Carney's 36-yard, game-winning field goal.
- Nov. 2, 2003: Saints 17, Buccaneers 14 With the score tied, the Saints took over at their 28 with no timeouts and 2:08 left. Brooks completed five-straight to set up a 47yard field goal by Carney with 13 seconds left.
- Nov. 10, 2002: Saints 34, Panthers 24 Trailing by four with 3:31 left, Brooks led a 95-yard drive for a TD. On the next possession, a 38-yard pass to Stallworth set up a short TD pass to the wideout with 31 seconds remaining.

After becoming a consistent contributor in the secondary in 2003, Brown emerged as an important cog for the defense last season. He shattered his career-high with 65 tackles and added 15 passes defensed, two interceptions, a pair of forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries.

While starting 10 games and playing in all 16, his tackle total led all Saints cornerbacks in 2004, as did his 15 passes defensed.

Brown's sure tackling also makes him a standout on special teams, where he has recorded 33 stops, a blocked kick and two fumble recoveries over the last three seasons.

Originally signed by New Orleans prior to 2002 training camp after participating in the final minicamp on a tryout basis.

Started 11 games with the San Diego Chargers from 1999-2000 after one-year stint in CFL.

SAINTS MAKING A DIFFERENCE: Brown joins the Bayou Classic and State Farm Insurance annually for a Teddy Bear Giveaway at Children's Hospital of New Orleans.

NFL CAREER - Proven starter at cornerback was re-signed after testing the free agent market. Craft has opened 33 of 85 NFL games, with the Jaguars and Saints. In his career, he has 200 tackles (169 solo), seven interceptions, two forced fumbles and a pair of fumble recoveries. He played in 14 games last season, posting 17 tackles and four pass defensed. Craft had started 27-straight contests until suffering a knee injury vs. Miami (10/23/03), forcing him to the inactive list for six of eight games until he was placed on injured reserve, Dec. 19. The former fifth-round pick served as Jacksonville's third cornerback in 2001 (with eight starts) before starting all 16 games in 2002. He has also been a solid special teams player throughout his career, notching 44 tackles and scoring a touchdown in his first NFL game by returning a fumbled kickoff.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS - Re-signed by Saints to four-year contract (UFA), 3/14/05; Acquired for a fifth-round pick (150th overall) in trade with Jacksonville Jaguars, 4/8/04; Placed on injured reserve by Jacksonville, 12/19/03; Offer sheet matched by Jacksonville, 5/12/02; Tendered offer sheet by Saints for a three-year contract (RFA), 5/5/02; Signed by Jacksonville, 5/18/99; Selected by Jacksonville in fifth-round (160th overall) in 1999 NFL Draft.

NFL CAREER – The Arizona Cardinals' second-round pick in 2002 looks to rebound with the Saints this season after sitting out all of 2004 with a knee injury. The Saints signed the free agent to a one-year contract in March to bolster the depth and quality at linebacker, and he is also expected to be a contributor on special teams. In his career, he has started 16 of 23 games and posted 117 tackles (40 solo), a sack and three pass deflections. Fisher's finest season in Arizona came in 2003, when he opened 15 of 16 contests and had 87 tackles (56 solo) and a sack.

NFL CAREER - While Gleason adds quality depth to the secondary, he has really sparkled on special teams over the last four seasons. In 2004, he had 15 special teams tackles and added a blocked punt for the third-straight season. His leadership and dedication gives the Saints one of the NFL's most aggressive and effective coverage units, and Gleason has notched a blocked punt in each of the last three seasons, including at Arizona last year that was recovered by S Mel Mitchell for a touchdown. The former college linebacker has made a successful switch to defensive back.

NFL CAREER - After just three years, Grant has emerged as one of the NFL's top defensive linemen and a key member of the team. He had a stellar 2004 campaign, posting career-highs with 113 tackles, 10.5 sacks and an interception while adding three forced fumbles and a fumble recovery. He has shown significant improvement each season since being drafted in the first round in 2002, improving his sack and tackle totals every year. In his career, Grant has started 38 of 48 games and has 210 stops (148 solo), 27.5 sacks, 13 pass defenses, 10 forced fumbles and a pair of fumble recoveries. No player in club history has posted more sacks in his first three seasons than Grant, and his seven sacks in 2002 were the third-highest total for a Saints rookie. Grant was the second of two first-round picks (25th overall) for New Orleans in 2002, following WR Donté Stallworth (13th overall).

CAREER TRANSACTIONS - Signed to a six-year contract, 7/27/02; Selected in the first round (25th overall) of the 2002 NFL Draft.

Has 27.5 sacks since 2002, more than any player in club history in his first three seasons. No Saints player has had more sacks over the last three years.

Shattered career high with 113 tackles in 2004 to lead all defensive linemen and also had 10.5 sacks, three forced fumbles, a fumble recovery, an interception and knocked down six nasses.

Has recorded two or more sacks in six NFL games, including a career-high three at St. Louis last season.

Combination of size and athleticism makes Grant a force vs. the run and a top pass-rusher.

Former college fullback scooped up a fumble in 2002 at Carolina and rumbled 34 yards for a touchdown and had an interception with an eight-yard return last season at Atlanta.

SAINTS MAKING A DIFFERENCE: Grant has wasted little time in becoming a fixture in the Saints' community relations efforts. Each off-season, he has a free football clinic at his hometown of Colquitt, Ga., and he visits local school children almost every week of the season. The defensive end led all players in community service appearances last year, and in 2003 was the biggest financial contributor to Belle Chasse Naval Academy's fundraiser to improve the playground conditions and purchase new books for the library.

Whitehead...Recorded eight tackles, a sack and forced fumble vs. Pittsburgh, Oct. 6... Had a solo tackle, a pass defense and a 34-yard fumble return for a TD at Carolina, Nov. 10... Had sack and forced fumble vs. Tampa Bay, Dec.

JOINED SAINTS: D3a-01
NFL EXPERIENCE: 5th Season
BIRTHDATE: 9/13/78

NFL CAREER - With limitless potential because of his ability to range from sideline to sideline with remarkable speed and quickness to go along with his prototype size, Hodge is expected to vie for a starting spot in 2005. He has opened 32 of 50 games in his career, including a stretch of 25-straight contests from 2002-03. The former third-round pick first entered the starting lineup in 2002 after spending his rookie season contributing primarily on special teams.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS - Re-signed with Saints (UFA) to one-year contract, 3/21/05; Signed one-year contract (RFA) with Saints, 4/22/04; Tendered one-year qualifying offer by Saints as Restricted Free Agent, 2/26/04; Selected in the third round by the Saints (70th overall) in the 2001 NFL Draft.

2004 - Posted 31 tackles on the season (23 solo) while appearing in nine games and starting six...Placed on reserve/suspended list for first four games after suspension by NFL...Returned to action in reserve role vs. Tampa Bay, Oct. 10, and had six tackles...Also tied his season-high with six tackles (five solo) the following week vs. Minnesota, his first start of the season and the first of his career at weakside linebacker...Moved back to his customary strongside linebacker post for the next five games, all starts...Had four solo stops vs.

Developing young linebacker continues to emerge as an integral part of the Saints' defense.

Played in nine games with six starts in 2004 and had 31 tackles.

Speedy young playmaker continues to emerge as top performer on the Saints' defense.

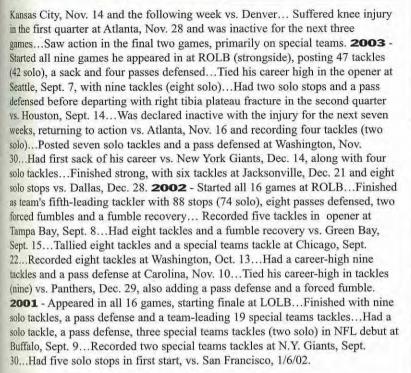

Despite missing seven games with a leg injury in 2003, posted 47 tackles and a sack.

Set career highs in 2002 with 88 tackles, eight passes defensed and two forced fumbles in first season as a starter.

Over the last two seasons, Hodge has recorded five or more tackles in 18 games.

Can make plays from sideline to sideline because he possesses speed and quickness with prototype size for his position.

NFL CAREER - In five seasons with the Saints, the four-time Pro Bowl pick has emerged as one of the NFL's most consistent wide receivers and has shattered several team records in the process. No player in club history approaches Horn's five-year totals of 428 catches for 6,289 yards and 45 touchdowns. The 10th year veteran had one of his finest seasons in 2004, tying for the NFC lead with 94 catches (the ranking is the highest for a Saints player, and the total tied the club record he first established in 2000) and finishing second in the conference with a career-high 1,399 yards (another Saints all-time best). Horn also hauled in a team-record 11 TDs to rank fifth in the NFC - the second-straight year he has had double-digit touchdown totals, a feat unequalled by a Saints' player. He has 24 games with at least 100 yards receiving for New Orleans, a club mark for reaching the milestone, and enters 2005 second in career totals in nearly every other major receiving category.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS - Re-signed to three-year contract, 6/2/03; Signed by the Saints (UFA), 2/13/00; Originally a fifth-round draft choice (135th overall) of Kansas City in the 1996 NFL Draft.

HONORS - 2004: Pro Bowl; 2002: Pro Bowl (Starter); 2001: Pro Bowl, All-Madden; 2000: Pro Bowl, All-Madden.

2004 - After falling short of 1,000-yard milestone in 2003 for the first time since arriving in New Orleans. Horn responded with the finest season for a wide receiver in club history. He tied for the conference lead with 94 receptions (with former Carolina WR Muhsin Muhammad) and ranked second in the NFC with a career-high 1,399 yards. His vardage total broke the club record he had owned since 2000 by 59 yards, and his 11 touchdown grabs were the most in franchise history...Five 100-yard games was the second-highest single-season total for the Saints, trailing the six he posted in 2002...Closed season by stretching his streak to 79 games in New Orleans with a reception, tying WR Danny Abramowicz for second in the category (79 from 9/17/67 through 12/16/73) and trailing only WR Eric Martin (105 from 11/1/87 through 1/2/94)...Caught five or more passes in 12 contests...Of his catches, 73 moved the chains for a first down, second among NFC wideouts and fifth in the conference... Tied for sixth in the NFC in thirddown receptions, with 23 for 370 yards, a 16.1 average... Had 22 catches of at least 20 yards...Opened with six receptions for 110 yards vs. Seattle, Sept. 12, his 20th 100-yard day in New Orleans...Added eight catches for 94 yards and a TD vs. San Francisco, Sept. 19...Continued blazing start with seven grabs for 91 yards in victory at St. Louis, Sept. 26, including a nine-yard touchdown... Hauled in nine passes for 123 yards at Oakland, Oct. 24...Had five catches for seasonbest 167 yards vs. Kansas City - including a season-long 57-yard grab and a 42yard touchdown in the final quarter against his former team that provided the margin in the 27-20 win... Equaled season-high in catches with nine for 101 yards and a TD at Atlanta, Nov. 28 - becoming only the third player in team history to reach 40 TDs (joining Dalton Hilliard, 53 and Martin, 48). Also had two-point conversion on third-quarter catch...Recorded eight receptions for 160 yards and a pair of touchdowns vs. Carolina, Dec. 5, going over 1,000 yards for the fourth time in career...Notched five catches for 81 yards and a touchdown at Dallas, Dec. 12. His 31-yard scoring grab sealed the victory... Had six touchdown grabs in the final six contests, with his stretch from at Atlanta, Nov. 28, to at Dallas, Dec. 12 tying the club mark for consecutive games with a receiving TDal four...Closed with four grabs for 75 yards in season-ending win at Carolina, 1/2/05. 2003 - Paced Saints with 78 receptions for 973 yards and 10 TDs...Started 14 of 15 games, missing finale vs. Dallas with left shoulder injury...Ranked third in NFC in third-down receptions with 29...Had 11

The most productive free-agent acquisition in club history continues to shatter the team's all-time receiving marks.

Has hauled in at least one pass in all 79 games he has played since joining the Saints in 2000 (inactive for 2003 finale vs. Dallas), and in his last 93 NFL contests, including the final 14 games of 2000 with the Kansas City Chiefs.

The only player in franchise history to record 75 or more catches in five-straight seasons, including tying for the NFC lead in 2004 with 94 grabs, which also equaled the career-high he established in 2000.

Set a team record with 11 touchdown receptions last year, the second-consecutive season he has broken the mark after having 10 in 2003. He also became the first Saints player to have double-digit touchdown totals in consecutive seasons.

winning field goal...Had nine receptions for 118 yards vs. Tampa Bay, Dec. 7...Set a franchise record vs. New York Giants on Dec. 14 with four touchdowns on nine catches for 133 yards. Also set a club record single-season record with 10 TDs and posted the 19th 100-yard game with the Saints, surpassing WR Eric Martin (18, 1985-93). Yardage total equaled his season-high, including a season-long 50-yard touchdown grab...Departed at Jacksonville, Dec. 21, in the fourth quarter with a left shoulder injury, forcing him to miss finale vs. Dallas...Caught six or more passes in seven contests. 2002 - Enjoyed another record-setting season and selected to his third-consecutive Pro Bowl, first as starter...Had 88 catches for 1,312 yards and seven TDs...Reception total six short of the team record he set in 2000 and ranked fifth in NFC...Yardage total 28 short of record he set in his first season in New Orleans and ranked third in the NFC...Started all 16 games for the third-straight year, ranking as one of six Saints offensive players to do so...Caught five or more passes in 12 games...Led or shared teamlead in receiving in 13 contests and in yards 11 times...Recorded 65 first downs.

Has posted 24 games with 100 or more yards receiving, a team record. The Saints are 18-6 when Horn reaches the milestone.

Four-time Pro Bowl pick: 2000, 2001, 2002 and 2004, ranking as the only skill position player in club history to be voted to the postseason all-star game that many times.

His 45 touchdowns with New Orleans is the third-highest total in team record books.

The only wide receiver in team history to post three-straight 1,000-yard years (2000-02). He added a career-high 1,399 yards in 2004 - a single-season Saints record that also ranked second in the conference.

Became the first player in franchise history to score four touchdowns in a game by hauling in four in the Superdome vs. the New York Giants, 12/14/03.

SAINTS MAKING A DIFFERENCE: Horn loves interacting with Saints fans and participates in several fan-interaction activities. A highlight last season was visiting a Metairie nursing home for All Saints Day.

RECORD BREAKER

Horn has made an assault on the Saints' record book since arriving in 2000. Selected to the Pro Bowl from 2000-02 and again in 2004, Horn has hauled in at least one pass in all 79 games he has played with the Saints (he was inactive for the 2003 finale), and in the last 93-straight overall, including the final 14 contests of 1999 with the Chiefs. He is the only player in team record books to have five-straight seasons with 75 or more catches - including 2004, when he tied for the NFC lead with 94 grabs an NFC-leading 90 this season - and he broke the club record he set in 2003 (10) with 11 receiving touchdowns.

NFL CAREER - A cornerstone of the Saints' defense, Howard has been an impact player since arriving in 2000 as a second-round pick - the first draft choice of Coach Jim Haslett's hiring as head coach. He possesses a prototype combination of strength, explosive quickness and intensity, serving as a force against the run and a top pass-rusher. Howard has 41 career sacks, which already ranks ninth in club history, and has started 68 of 70 games. Despite being sidelined for the first two contests in 2004, he equaled his career-high with 11 sacks and added 42 tackles, four forced fumbles and a trio of fumble recoveries. Designated the team's Franchise Player entering the free agency period each of the last two years, Howard's lower-body strength allows him to anchor against double-teams, nearly an every-down occurrence since setting the club's rookie record with 11 sacks in 2000.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS - Signed one-year contract tender as Saints' Franchise Player, 3/15/05; Designated Franchise Player, 2/22/05: Signed one-year tender as Franchise Player, 5/3/04; Designated the Franchise Player, 2/23/04; Selected by Saints in the second round (33rd overall) of 2000 NFL Draft.

After being slowed by injuries the year before, Howard bounced back with a stellar performance in 2004, leading the team with 11 sacks and adding four forced fumbles and three fumble

With 41 sacks in his first five seasons, Howard already ranks ninth in club history.

Long-arms and quickness make the defensive end particular effective vs. the pass, as he has knocked down 21 throws during his career and has a pair of interceptions.

First draft choice of the Saints after the arrival of Coach Jim Haslett in 2000 has played in every game he has been active for since, starting 68 of 70 contests.

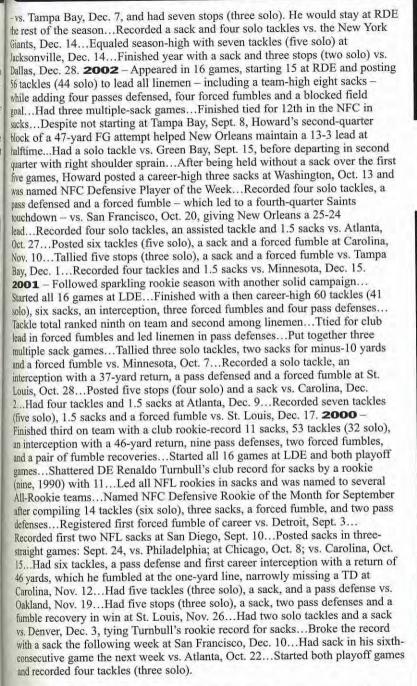

No defender in club history has posted more sacks in his first three seasons with the Saints than Howard's 25 from 2000-2002.

Unanimous All-Rookie selection in 2000, when he set a club rookie record with 11 sacks.

SAINTS MAKING A DIFFERENCE: Howard's charitable foundation - "93 Ways Arts" – offers access to training, education and exposure to the arts for underprivileged and at-risk youth. He also served as the club's United Way representative for 2003.

NFL CAREER - The popular New Orleans native has beaten the odds to become one of the NFL's most feared kickoff and punt return specialists. Lewis made his first NFL roster in 2001 at the age of 29. Previously, he had worked several jobs to support his family following his high school graduation 11 years earlier. Lewis has also had stints in NFL Europe. Arena Football and the Indoor Professional Football League. In 2004, he closed the season with 122 career punt returns for 1,363 yards and is the club's all-time leader in both categories (surpassing CB Tyrone Hughes, 116 returns for 1,060 yards from 1993-96). Lewis is also tied with Hughes for most kickoff returns for a touchdown (3). including a 96-yard burst last season. He ranks second for New Orleans with 198 career kickoff returns for 4.852 yards, trailing only Hughes (229 for 5.717). Last year, he ranked third in the NFC by returning 34 punts for 382 yards (11.2average) and sixth in the conference with 51 returns for 1,215 yards (23.8average). After a solid rookie season where he showed flashes of his gamebreaking ability, Lewis took his performance to a new level in 2002 and authored one of the most prolific seasons by a return man in league history. He set an NFL record with 2,432 combined yards on kickoff and punt returns and capped a memorable year with a selection to the Pro Bowl and almost every All-Pro team.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS - Signed three-year contract extension, 10/8/03; Signed to active roster from practice squad, 12/21/01; Signed to Saints practice squad, 10/31/01; Waived by Saints, 10/30/01; Signed by Saints, 2/9/01; Waived by Philadelphia Eagles, 8/21/00, Signed by Philadelphia prior to training camp, 2000.

NFL CAREER - One of the Saints' top free-agent acquisitions, Mayberry is a versatile performer known for his professional approach, strong blocking in the running game and nimble pass-protection techniques. He was targeted as one of the club's top priorities entering the free-agency period, and is expected to make an impact on the offense from a production and leadership perspective. While with Philadelphia from 1996-2004, the former No. 1 pick started 96 games at every spot along the offensive line other than center, including 12 regular-season games last year for the Eagles at right guard and all three postseason contests, including Super Bowl XXXIX. Signed March 5, Mayberry is expected to anchor the offensive front as the club's starting guard. He was selected to the Pro Bowl as a starter in 2002 and has appeared in 112 games in his career.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS - Signed by Saints to four-year contract (UFA), 3/5/05; Placed on injured reserve by Philadelphia Eagles, 10/27/03; Signed four-year contract extension with Philadelphia, 12/23/00; Signed by Philadelphia to five-year contract, 6/26/96; Drafted in the first round by Philadelphia the 1996 NFL Draft (25th overall).

! playemotes

One of the club's prime free-agent signings of 2005, Mayberry comes to New Orleans after nine seasons with Philadelphia.

Massive veteran was a Pro Bowl pick in 2002 and is expected to bolster the Saints' offensive front.

Has started 96 games in his career and is known as one of the NFL's most rugged run blockers.

While with the Eagles, Mayberry opened 65 games at right guard, 17 at left tackle, 10 at left guard and four at right tackle.

Earned All-Pro honors by the Associated Press, Sports Illustrated, College and Pro Football Newsweekly and Football Digest and garnered All-NFC honors by Pro Football Weekly in 2002.

SAINTS MAKING A DIFFERENCE: While just arriving in New Orleans, Mayberry has forged a reputation as one of the NFL's most active players in community service. While with Philadelphia, he contributed $117,500 to start a vision-testing program, which circulated a 36-foot, mobile vision clinic to local schools for free, on-site eye exams. He has received special recognition from several charitable organizations for his efforts.

HISTORY

SPECIFICS

NFL CAREER - McAllister has been one of the NFL's most productive running backs over the last three seasons, rushing for over 1,000 yards each year (a first in club history) as the centerpiece of the Saints offensive attack. He ranks second in team record books with 4,194 rushing yards and 31 touchdowns and is first with 22 100-yard games, including a franchise record nine-straight contests in 2003. New Orleans is 14-8 when he reaches the milestone, and McAllister has added 165 receptions for 1,262 yards and four touchdowns. In 2003, he finished second in the NFC in rushing and fourth in the league with a career-high 1,641 vards on 351 carries. That total is also second in club history (RB George Rogers, 1,674 yards, 1981). Including the 516 yards on a career-high 69 receptions, McAllister posted 2,157 yards from scrimmage that season to set a club record and rank second in the NFC. All of these accomplishments were a stunning encore to 2002, when in his first year as a starter he led the conference with 1,388 rushing yards, scored 16 TDs and was voted to the Pro Bowl. McAllister is the lone Saints' running back to be voted to the Pro Bowl in consecutive seasons.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS - Signed by the Saints to a six-year contract, 8/4/01; Selected by the Saints in the first round (23rd overall) of the 2001 NFL Draft.

HONORS - 2004: NFL.com FedEx Ground Player of the Week (Week 17); 2003: Pro Bowl, Pro Football Weekly All-NFC, NFL.com FedEx Ground Player of the Week (Week 10), NFL.com FedEx Ground Player of the Week (Week 11), NFC Offensive Player of the Week (Week 13); 2002: NFC Pro Bowl (Starter), NFC Offensive Player of the Month (October), Pro Football Weekly All-NFC.

2004 - Started all 14 games he appeared in, missing two contests (at St. Louis, Sept. 26 and at Arizona, Oct. 3) with an ankle injury...Ranked seventh in the NFC with 1,074 rushing vards on 269 carries (4.0 avg.) and nine touchdowns ...Added 34 receptions for 228 yards...Tied for 12th in the NFC in scoring among non-kickers (54 points) and tied for 15th in the conference with 58 first downs (53 rushing, five receiving)...Suffered right ankle sprain in the first quarter vs. San Francisco, Sept. 19 and was placed on the inactive list for the next two contests...Returned with an inspiring performance vs. Tampa Bay, Oct. 10, rushing for 102 yards on 21 carries with his injured joint heavily wrapped ... Had 78 yards on 18 carries and two touchdowns the following week vs. Minnesota...Added 42 yards on 24 carries at Oakland, Oct. 24 and rushed for a pair of touchdowns. His yardage total moved him past RB Chuck Muncie (3,386 vards, 1976-80) on the club's all-time rushing chart... Moved into third all-time in rushing (passing RB Reuben Mayes 3,408, 1986-88, 1990) the following week at San Diego. Had 63 yards on 16 carries and a touchdown...Recorded 127 yards on 16 carries with a touchdown vs. Kansas City, Nov. 14, capping a career-best four-game stretch with a TD...Set a career-high in receptions and receiving yardage vs. Denver, Nov. 21, with 11 catches for 87 yards... Had 23 attempts for 100 yards at Atlanta, Nov. 28... Started strong four-game stretch to end the season at Dallas, Dec. 12, recording 83 rushing yards and a pair of TDs along with four receptions for 37 yards...Had 98 yards from scrimmage (89 rushing) at Tampa Bay, Dec. 19... Posted fourth 100-yard performance of the season with 128 yards on 29 carries... Had 28 carries and a touchdown for a season-high 140 yards including a 71-yard burst in the first quarter that ranked as the NFL's longest non-scoring run of the season - at Carolina, Jan. 2... Finished season ranked second in club history with 31 rushing touchdowns, only trailing RB Dalton Hilliard (39 from 1986-93). 2003 - Turned in perhaps the greatest all-around season for an offensive player in club history and set a slew of rushing and allpurpose vardage records...Started all 16 games for the first time and set career highs in rushing yards (1,641, second in the NFC), attempts (351), receptions

Became first running back in club history to rush for 1,000 vards for three-straight seasons - and first to reach the milestone three times with the Saints - with 1,074 yards on 269 carries in 2004.

Club leader in 100-yard performances with 22, all since taking over as a starter in 2002. McAllister reached triple digits in rushing five times last season.

Had at least one rushing touchdown in four-straight games in 2004, his career-high for consecutive contests with a TD. During the span he had six scoring runs.

Emerged as one of the NFL's top players in 2003, when he rushed for a career-high 1,641 yards, including nine-straight 100-yard performances. With 2,157 yards from scrimmage, became the first player in franchise record books to surpass 2,000 in a season.

(69) and receiving yards (516)...Became the first player in club history to post over 2,000 vards from scrimmage with 2,157, ranking second in the NFC and fourth in the NFL...Also had eight touchdowns (all rushing) and ranked fourth in the NFC with 91 first downs (69 rushing, 22 receiving)...Rushing total ranks second in club history (RB George Rogers, 1,674, 1981). McAllister also ranks third in team record books with 1,388 yards in 2002... Tied for first in the NFL with 16 rushes of 20 yards or more (RB Jamal Lewis, Baltimore)...Rushed for over 100 yards in a nine-game stretch (from Sept. 28 vs. Indianapolis until Nov. 30 at Washington), tied for third in league history with former Chicago RB Walter Payton (1985) and Jacksonville RB Fred Taylor (2000) for consecutive 100-vard performances. Former Detroit RB Barry Sanders reached the milestone in 14-straight games in 1997, and RB Marcus Allen had 11-consecutive 100-yard games from 1986-86 with Oakland. With 1,190 yards in those nine games, McAllister's rushing total only trailed Taylor's 1,212 yards over the same span among the five record holders...His nine-game streak is a club record, shattering the mark set by RB Ricky Williams (five, 2000). McAllister also ranks third in team history with four-straight 100-yard outings in 2002...With 237 combined club record for consecutive 100-yard contests (five, RB Ricky Williams, 2000)...At Tampa Bay, Nov. 2, had 26 rushes for 110 yards, including a 37-yard burst in the first quarter. Set a new club record by reaching the 100-yard milestone for the sixth-straight contest... In a three-game stretch (Nov. 16-Nov. 30), recorded three of the top nine single-game rushing totals in franchise history...Set career-high in rushing vs. Atlanta, Nov. 16, recording 173 yards on 28 carries with two touchdowns. It was the fifth-highest single-game rushing total in team history. Shook loose for a 58-yard run on the second play of OT, but fumbled at the Atlanta 2 and it was recovered by CB Juran Bolden in the end zone. His 23-yard burst on the second possession of the extra period helped set up the game-winning field goal. Rushed for 153 yards in the second half, including 124 in the fourth quarter and overtime. Also led the team with nine catches for 64 yards, and his 237 yards from scrimmage set a club record ... Continued torrid stretch with a career-best 184 rushing yards on 19 carries at Philadelphia, Nov. 23. He also had two rushing TDs, including a career-long 76yarder in the third quarter. He averaged a season-high 9.7 yards per carry during the third-highest rushing day in club history. Also hauled in four passes for 48 yards, giving him 232 yards from scrimmage, which ranks second in club history

NFL CAREER - Acquired in an early-season trade with Green Bay, McKenzie immediately bolstered the cornerback position and led the club with five interceptions while adding 39 tackles (29 solo) and 13 pass defenses in just 11 contests. A quick study, once he learned the nuances of the Saints' system McKenzie became an impact player. He has started 77 of 80 games in his career, including a five-year stint with the Packers. Shows toughness when defending against the run, but his skills are most evident when matching strides with opposing wide receivers. For his career, he has 330 tackles (275 solo), a sack, 20 interceptions for 184 yards in returns and two touchdowns, 95 pass defenses and a fumble recovery. McKenzie was the Packers' third-round pick in 1999 and immediately established himself as one of the club's top defenders.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS - Acquired in trade with Green Bay, with Saints sending QB J.T. O'Sullivan and second-round pick (51st overall) to Packers for McKenzie and a conditional pick in 2006 NFL Draft, 10/4/04; Signed five-year contract extension with Green Bay Packers, 1/7/02; Signed to three-year contract by Green Bay, 7/8/99; Selected by Green Bay with third-round pick (87th overall) in 1999 NFL Draft.

HONORS - 2002: NFL.com Play of the Week (Week 14); 2001: All-Madden: 1999: Football Digest All-Rookie team, Football News All-Rookie team.

2004 - Arrived Oct. 4 trade with Green Bay and started 10 of 11 games... Paced the club with five interceptions and was second to CB Fakhir Brown (15) with 13 pass defenses. Added 39 tackles (29 solo)... At Oakland, Oct. 24, had eight tackles (five solo) and a pair of pass defenses... Notched six tackles (five solo) and a pass defense...Had first interception with the Saints and a 14-yard return and two pass defenses vs. Kansas City, Nov. 14... Inactive vs. Denver, Nov. 21 with knee injury...Posted eight tackles (six solo) vs. Carolina, Dec. 5...Had three stops, an interception with a five-yard return and a pass defense at Dallas, Dec. 12. ORIGIN OF THE FLEUR DE LIS

The Fleur de Lis, the emblem most closely associated with the New Orleans Saints and wom on the team's helmets, is a symbol from the Court of Louis XIV. A French word that stands for "Flower of the Lily," the Fleur de Lis is also a symbol for the City of New Orleans.

The Fleur de Lis was adopted during the French occupation of Louisiana from 1682-1762. Traditionally, it has been used to represent French royalty, and in that sense, it is said to signify perfection,

Due to its three petals, the Fleur de Lis has also been used to represent the Holy Trinity.

HAPPY RETURNS

The Saints had kickoff returns for touchdowns in consecutive games last season. RB Aaron Stecker shook loose for a 98-yard TD return at Tampa Bay, Dec. 19. It was the first scoring return of Stecker's career, and it came against his former team. WR Michael Lewis matched the feat with a 96-yard burst for a touchdown vs. Atlanta the following week. Both players earned NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors.

NFL CAREER - Hard-nosed veteran provides a quality, proven player to the defensive line rotation at both end and tackle. Whitehead has started 20 games the last three seasons and when healthy has been among the unit's most consistent performers. He was placed on the Physically Unable to Perform list (PUP) in training camp after off-season knee surgery, where he remained for the first eight games of 2004. The seventh-year veteran is also an NFL success story, a former football vagabond who paid his dues on the fields of NFL Europe and the CFL before making it in New Orleans. Since coming to the Saints, Whitehead has started 25 of 77 games, with 197 tackles (131 solo), 23 sacks, three forced fumbles and a fumble recovery.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS - Activated to roster from Physically Unable to Perform list, Nov. 12; Placed on PUP list, 7/30/05; Agreed to terms with the Saints on a three-year contract, 4/25/03; Re-signed by Saints to one-year contract, 4/4/02; Allocated by Saints to NFLE Frankfurt Galaxy, 2/22/99; Signed by the Saints to four-year contract, 1/27/99; Released by Detroit Lions, 8/25/98; Signed by Detroit, 2/11/98; Signed by CFL Hamilton Tiger-Cats, 5/14/97; Signed to practice squad by CFL Montreal Alouettes, 1996; Signed by CFL Baltimore Stallions of CFL, 8/95; Released by San Francisco 49ers, 7/16/95; Signed by San Francisco as undrafted free agent, 4/26/95.

HONORS - 2004: Ed Block Courage Award winner in vote by teammates; 2003: NFC Defensive Player of the Week (Week 9).

2004 - Knee surgery the previous off-season kept him on the Physically Unable to Perform list for the first eight contests...Dedication to getting back on the field prompted teammates to vote him the club's Ed Block Courage Award winner, an honor bestowed on a player who best exemplifies the principles of sportsmanship and courage...Played in the final eight games in a reserve role, not starting a contest for the first time since 2001...Returned to practice Nov. 9 and reclaimed spot on active roster three days later...Finished with 20 tackles (nine solo), seeing majority of action at defensive tackle... Though slowed by injuries in 2004, Whitehead has had 23 sacks since joining the Saints in 1999, the third-highest total on the club over that span, trailing only DE Darren Howard (41 since 2000) and DE Charles Grant (27.5 since 2002).

Spent first eight games of last season on the club's Physically Unable to Perform list after off-season left knee surgery. Dedication to rehabilitation earned Whitehead the Ed Block Courage Award in vote by teammates.

Rugged veteran has started at both defensive tackle and end and is solid against the run and provides a consistent pass rush.

Started 10 games in 2003 and posted a career-high 52 tackles, 5.5 sacks and a forced fumble.

Earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors at Tampa Bay that season after recording a career-best three sacks, five tackles and a forced fumble.

The sixth-year veteran has also had stints in the CFL and NFL

Former walk-on at Auburn went on to earn a scholarship and start 32 contests.

Boo WILLIAMS 82

HEIGHT: 6-4 WEIGHT: 265

COLLEGE: Arkansas
JOINED SAINTS: FA-01
NFL EXPERIENCE: 5th Season
BIRTHDATE: 6/22/79

NFL CAREER - Former undrafted free agent has developed into one of the top options for QB Aaron Brooks over the last three years and a cog in the club's recordbreaking offense. Williams has played in 59 games (22 starts) since being signed in 2001. In his career, he has 107 receptions for 1,143 yards and 12 touchdowns, including two scoring grabs last season. A wide receiver during a stellar college career at Arkansas, Williams has put on over 30 pounds as part of his conversion to tight end and has refined his blocking techniques, becoming a solid part of the rushing attack. His speed and size make him a difficult target to defend, particularly in the red zone.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS - Agreed to terms with Saints on a three-year contract (RFA), 1/22/04; Signed off practice squad, 10/27/01; Signed to practice squad, 9/3/01; Waived by Saints, 9/2/01; Signed by Saints as undrafted free agent, 4/26/01.

Top game came against San Diego with five catches for 71 yards, including a six-yard TD...Average of 11.0 per reception tied the career-high he established in 2002, 2003 - Played in 16 games with six starts...Had 41 catches for 436 yards (10.6-average per catch) and five touchdowns...Reception total ranked seventh in the NFC among tight ends and his five TDs led all tight ends in conference (third in the NFL)... His reception, yardage and touchdown totals were the most for a Saints tight end since Cam Cleeland had 54 grabs for 684 yards and six TDs in 1998... Emerged as a top weapon over the last six games with 29 receptions for 347 yards and four touchdowns...Started at Tennessee, Sept. 21, but other than that was a reserve for the first 10 contests...Recorded four catches for 32 yards, including a 12-yard TD, at Atlanta, Oct. 19... Moved into starting lineup at Philadelphia, Nov. 23, following injury the week before to TE Ernie Conwell. Williams responded with the top game of his career, hauling in nine passes for 110 yards and a touchdown... Came off bench for three catches for 43 yards at Washington, Nov. 30, including a 15yard TD in final quarter that provided the game-winning points...Started the remaining four games...Recorded four catches for 59 yards (season-high 14.8-yard average) vs. Tampa Bay, Dec. 7. Had a 31-yard TD grab in first quarter, his longest of 2003...Added five grabs for 54 yards at Jacksonville, Dec. 21, including a two-yard TD. 2002 - Saw action in 16 games, starting three... The team's top pass-catching TE with 13 catches for 143 yards and two TDs...Had career-long 32-yard TD reception at Tampa Bay, Sept. 8... Hauled in a two-yard TD at Washington, Oct. 13...First start came at Carolina, Nov. 10, and had two receptions for 16 yards... Started vs. Cleveland, Nov. 24, and had four receptions for 43 yards. 2001 - Signed off practice squad, Oct. 27, and appeared in 11 games (four starts)... NFL CAREER - Signing this quick and explosive defensive tackle ranked among the Saints' top priorities entering the 2004 free agency period, and Young's acquisition immediately bolstered the club's defensive front. He had 86 tackles (50 solo), 2.5 sacks for 12 yards in losses and a fumble recovery in his first season with New Orleans. For his career, Young has played in 75 games, with 46 starts, including all 15 he appeared in last season. A solid presence vs. the run and a active pass rusher, he has shown a nose for the ball in his career, having recovered five fumbles in 2003, including tying an NFL record by pouncing on three vs. Baltimore that season.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS - Agreed to terms with Saints on a fouryear contract (UFA), 3/8/04; Re-signed by St. Louis Rams to a one-year contract (RFA), 4/25/03; Signed by St. Louis to a three-year contract, 7/7/00; Selected by the St. Louis in the fifth round (139th overall) of the 2000 NFL Draft.

2004 - Started all 15 games he was active for, inactive with hip flexor injury vs. San Francisco, Sept. 19, that he suffered in the opener...Finished first among defensive tackles, second among defensive linemen and fourth on the team with 86 tackles (50 solo). Also had 2.5 sacks for 12 yards in losses and a fumble recovery... Had seven tackles (three solo) at Arizona, Oct. 3, and vs. Tampa Bay, Oct. 10, also recovering a fumble against the Buccaneers...Added six stops (two solo) and a half-sack vs. Minnesota, Oct. 17...Recorded eight tackles (six solo) vs. Denver, Nov. 21...Had a sack and five tackles vs. Carolina, Dec. 5...Posted a season-high nine

! playernotes

The club's top free-agent signing of 2004 finished second on the defensive front and fourth on the team with 86 tackles. Added career-high 2.5 sacks and fumble recovery while bringing energy and hard-nosed play to the entire unit.

Has posted 13 sacks in his five-year career.

Started 12 games in 2003 for the St. Louis Rams and had 102 tackles, three tackles for a loss, two sacks and a pair of forced fumbles.

Tied a Rams record with five fumble recoveries in 2003, including three vs. Baltimore, Nov. 9, to tie an NFL record.

Considered the top offensive line prospect in the draft.

Outland Trophy recipient in 2004, awarded to the nation's top lineman, did not allow a sack or quarterback hurry as a senior while posting 130 knockdown blocks.

Brown surrendered only one sack in his final 26 games at Oklahoma.

One of only five collegiate offensive tackles selected by the Saints in the first round, joining Kyle Turley (1998), William Roaf (1993), Jim Dombrowski (1986) and Stan Brock (1980).

COLLEGE CAREER - Ranked as unquestionably the top offensive lineman in the 2005 NFL Draft, the Saints moved up to take this two-time All-American and 2004 Outland Trophy winner, given to the nation's best blocker. New Orleans swapped their 2005 first-round pick (16th overall) and a third-round choice in 2006 for Brown a draft-day trade with the Houston Texans. He did not allow a sack in 2004, and only one in 2003. He led Oklahoma in blocking consistency for two years, and earned the highest grade among the school's blockers in 20 of his final 26 contests. As a senior, he helped the Sooners average over 462 yards of offense and led the team with 130 knockdown blocks. Brown was a consensus All-Big 12 pick for his last three years.

PERSONAL - Sociology major...Father, Charles, is retired from the Army... Attended MacArthur (Lawton, Okla.) HS...Played both sides of the ball during prep career and earned first-team All-State honors as a defensive tackle - posting nine sacks and 70 tackles - and made the conversion to offensive line at Oklahoma.

NFLE RISING

Four Saints were allocated to NFL Europe – T Ben Archibald, LB Cabel Rohloff, G Chad Setterstrom (63) and WR Chris Vance.

Setterstrom was named to the All-NFLE team as a member of the Amsterdam Admirals.

Setterstrom is entering his third season with New Orleans. He was on the club's practice squad for most of 2004 before being elevated to the active roster late in the season. Setterstrom spent 2003 on the Saints' injured reserve.

He was allocated to NFL Europe in January and started all 10 games for the Admirals. His blocking helped pave the way for Amsterdam to average a league-high 154.9 yards per game rushing and the Admirals surrendered and NFLE-low 16 sacks. The Admirals finished the season with a 6-4 record and won the league championship in World Bowl XII.

Setterstrom was joined on the Admirals offensive front by Archibald, who started at right tackle.

WHATTOLOOKFOR2005

Coach Jim Haslett needs seven victories to become the second coach in franchise history to post 50 or more wins (Jim Mora, 93 from 1986-96). Haslett's record includes playoff victory in 2000.

OB Aaron Brooks is the only Saints quarterback in franchise history to go over 1,500 passing yards in four-straight seasons (2001-04). With 16,274 career yards, he needs 726 in 2005 to become only the second QB in club record books to reach 17,000 yards, joining QB Archie Manning, 21,734 from 1971-76, 77-82. He is also the only New Orleans passer to toss 20 or more touchdowns in fourconsecutive years, including 21 in 2004. Brooks, who has started 69 consecutive games (third among current streaks for NFL quarterbacks), ranks first in club history with 28 regular-season games of 250 yards or more, a milestone he has also crossed twice in the postseason.

K John Carney, who ranks ninth on the NFL's all-time scoring list with 1,537 points, needs 47 points in 2005 to move past K Al Del Greco (1,584 points). Only the ninth player in league history to surpass 1,500 career points, Carney is third in club history with 449 points since joining the Saints in 2001 and needs 65 points this season to move into third (Doug Brien, 513 from 1995-2000).

WR Joe Horn needs four touchdown grabs in 2005 to become the club's all-time leader in scoring catches, moving past WR Eric Martin, who had 48 from 1985-93. Horn needs nine TDs to become the Saints' all-time leader in total touchdowns (RB Dalton Hilliard, 53 from 1986-93), and he is the only player in team history to have two-straight seasons with double-digit touchdown reception totals (a club-record 11 in 2004, 10 in 2003) and can increase that mark to three. Hom needs 62 catches in 2005 to become only the second player for the Saints to reach 500 receptions (joining Martin, 532, 1985-93). Horn is the lone player in club history to have 75 or more catches for five-straight years, including an NFC-best 94 in 2004, and can increase that record to six. He is the only player in learn record books with four 1,000-vard receiving seasons, including a clubrecord 1,399 in 2004.

WR Michael Lewis needs 32 kickoff returns for 865 yards to become the Saints' all-time leader in both categories (CB Tyrone Hughes, 229 kick returns for 5,717 yards).

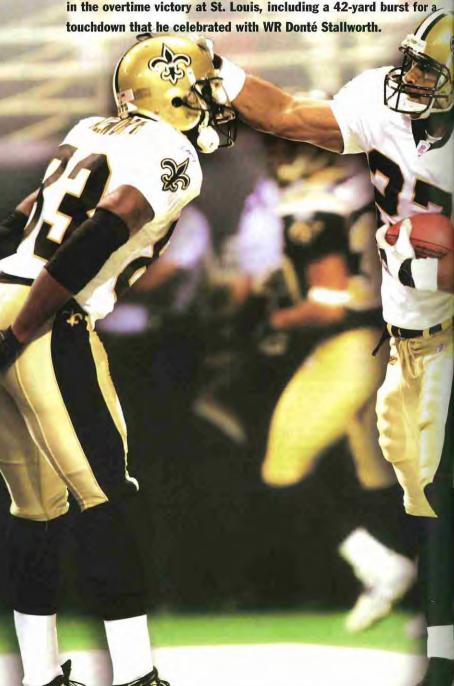

RB Deuce McAllister has posted three-straight 1,000-yard seasons and can increase that team-record stretch to four in 2005. He enters this season with 4,194 rushing yards, needing 73 yards to become the top ground-gainer in club history (RB George Rogers, 4,267, 1981-84). He also moved up to third in career rushing attempts with 961, trailing only Rogers (995) and RB Dalton Hilliard (1,126 from 1986-93). McAllister is second in team record books in rushing touchdowns with 31, needing nine in 2005 to become New Orleans' alltime leader (Hilliard, 39 from 1986-93).

2004 Honors

PRO BOWL: WR Joe Horn and P Mitch Berger, both NFL statistical leaders last season, were voted to the 2005 Pro Bowl. For Horn, it was his fourth trip to the postseason all-star game since joining the Saints, and first since 2002. Berger was voted to the Pro Bowl for the second time in his career and made his first appearance since 1999 and first with New Orleans

Horn was second in the NFC with a career-high 1,399 yards, the top total ever recorded by a New Orleans receiver. Horn tied his career-high and tied for the NFC lead with 94 catches equalling the club-record total he established in 2000. The 10th-year veteran set another team mark with 11 touchdown grabs, which ranked fifth in the conference. He had five 100-yard games in 2004 - including a season-high 167 on five grabs vs. Kansas City Nov. 14 – giving him a club-record 24 in his career.

Berger led the league with a 39.0-yard net punting average, also a tribute to the club's coverage unit. He ranked third in the NFC with a 43.6-yard average on 85 punts (3,704 yards) and dropped 28 punts inside the opponent's 20. Following the Saints' victory at Dallas Dec. 12 where he averaged 46 yards per punt and pinned five inside the 20, Berger was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week. He was also voted to the Pro Bowl in 1999 while n member of the Minnesota Vikings.

Three Saints were voted alternates to the Pro Bowl:

C LeCharles Bentley, WR Michael Lewis as kick-return specialist, and RB Deuce McAllister. Bentley and McAllister were Pro Bowl picks in 2003, and Lewis went to the postseason all-star game in

NFL PLAYER OF THE WEEK AWARDS:

Five Saints special-teamers were selected as NEC Special Teams Player of the Week in 2004, the highest total in club history. New Orleans closed the season with four-straight winners, a first for the Saints and tied for the most consecutive winners in the NFL since the inception of the award in 1993 (fied with the Kansas City Chiefs, as WR Dante Hall won the award in Weeks Two through Five in 2003)

WEEK 3: K John Carney earned the award after tying a club record with five field goals, including the 31-yard game-winner in over-time at St. Louis. Carney also had 52- and 53-yard kicks in the WEEK 14: P Mitch Berger took home the honor for the first time in New Orleans after punting five times for a 46.0-yard average. He kept the Cowboys backed up in their own territory by dropping five nunts inside the 20.

WEEK 15: RB Aaron Stecker was voted the winner after a 98-vard kickoff return for a touchdown at Tampa Bay, his former team. It was the Saints' first kickoff return for a TD since 2002 and first on an opening kickoff since the club's debut season in 1967. WEEK 16: WR Michael Lewis carned the award following a sparkling performance against the Falcons in the Superdome that included a 96-yard kickoff return for a touchdown. Lewis had three kickoff returns for 122 yards, returned five punts for 40 yards - including a 25-yard burst - and also raced downfield to down a punt at the Atlanta 1 in the first quarter, leading to a salety

WEEK 17: DE Tony Bryant became the fourth-straight Saints special teamer to win the honor after blocking what could have been the game-tying field goal on the final play of the victory at Carolina. Bryant steamed through a pair of Panthers to reject a 60yard field goal as time expired.

NEL Febry AIR PLAYER OF THE WEEK-

WEEK 2: QB Aaron Brooks captured the award after completing 25 of 34 passes for 279 yards and three touchdowns vs. San Francisco. His passer rating of 127.0 was the fourth-highest of his career as he led New Orleans to the 12th comeback victory under his leadership since 2000. Brooks' final touchdown toss, a 16-yani strike to WR Donté Stallworth, proved to be the game-winner.

NFL FeDex GROUND PLAYER OF THE WEEK:

WEEK 17: RB Deuce McAllister took home the honor after mshing for a season-best 140 yards and a touchdown on 29 carries in the finale at Carolina, including a 71-yard burst. It was the fifth 100-yard performance of the 2004 season for McAllister, and the clab-

ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD:

DE/DT Willie Whitehead, who returned to action in 2004 after his tling back from the offseason knee surgery that sidelined him for the first nine games, was voted the Saints' recipient of the Ed Block Courage Award. The honor is bestowed annually on a player from each NFL team who exemplifies the principles of sportsfrom each NPL team who exemplifies the principles of sport-maship and courage, in a vote by his teammates. Whitehead su-fered a right knee injury in mid-November 2003, keeping him oil of the lineup for the final four games. He had surgery to repair the joint in the spring and continued his rehabilitation while on the club's Physically Unable to Perform list throughout training camp and the first 10 weeks of this season. His workouts were often solitary while the rest of the team practiced. Whitehead returned to the active roster Nov. 9 and was an immediate contributor, adding veteran depth and energy to the defensive front. The Ed Block Courage Award is one of the most esteemed honors bestowed upon a player in the NFL, primarily since the winner is chosen by his

SAINTS HONORED

10/3 (a) Ariz.

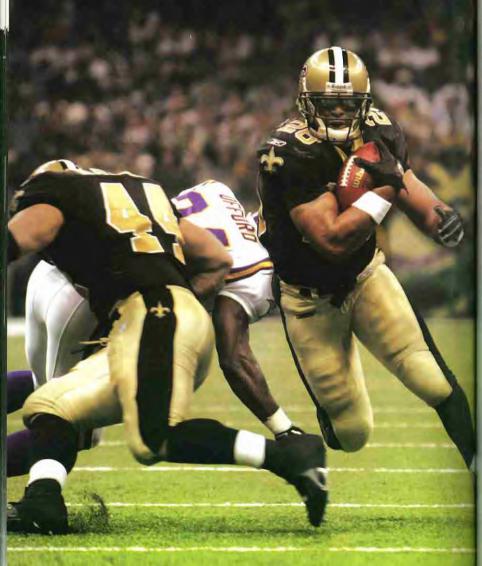

Several former Saints have been selected to the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame, voted on by the Louisiana Sports Writers Association:

LONGEST FUMBLE RETURN

DEUCEMCALLISTER

In 2004 RB Deuce McAllister became the only player in club history to reach 1,000 yards rushing for a third-straight season. He had two touchdowns against the Vikings Oct. 17. FB Mike Karney (44) provided rugged blocking as a rookie.

The Saints started the 2004 season against the same foe they had in the 2003 opener on the road by taking on the Seattle Seahawks, this time in the Louisiana Superdome.

The two clubs traded field position in a scoreless first quarter, but Seattle capped an eight-play, 76yard drive with a 14-yard touchdown catch-and-run by RB Shaun Alexander on the first play of the second quarter.

Alexander struck again for the Seahawks two drives later with a six-yard TD run over the left side, giving Seattle a 14-0 advantage.

After a 47-yard return by WR Michael Lewis on the ensuing kickoff, the Saints drove 47 yards in eight plays, with QB Aaron Brooks finding TE Ernie Conwell on a six-yard touchdown pass.

A couple of turnovers undemined the Saints' chances to tie the game in the third quarter. RB Deuce McAllister fumbled at the Seattle 35 on the team's opening drive of the

New Orleans Saints Seattle Seahawks second half, and Brooks was intercepted by LB Michael Boulware at the New Orleans 26 two possessions later.

The Seahawks capitalized on the second turnover with a two-play scoring drive. Alexander carried the load,

SAINTS: 30 49ERS: 27 LOUISIANA SUPERDOME NEW ORLEANS - 9/19/04 ATTENDANCE: 64,900 TIME: 3:17

QB Aaron Brooks found WR Donté Stallworth on a 16-yard touchdown pass with 1:07 remaining to give New Orleans its first victory.

The win came with a price, as RB Deuce McAllister suffered a high ankle sprain early in the contest which caused him to miss the next two contests. His backup, RB Aaron Stecker, twisted his ankle in the third quarter, forcing the offense to rely primarily on the passing attack.

It was a banner day for Brooks, who completed 25 of 34 for 279 yards and three TDs, posting a 127.0 passer rating. The come-from-behind victory was the 12th of his career, and the second-straight against the 49ers. In the two teams, 2002 meeting, Brooks led the club back from an 11-point deficit in the fourth quarter for a 35-27 win.

New Orleans took a 7-3 lead when Brooks found WR Joe Horn on an eight-yard TD pass with 6:59 left in the first quarter. K John Carney capped the next Saints drive with a 32-vard field goal.

The second quarter was similar for New Orleans, with Brooks connecting with WR Jerome Pathon on a 37-yard TD pass and Carney adding a QB Aaron Brooks had eight completions of 15 yards or more.

WRs Joe Horn and Donté Stallwoth combined to post 17 catches for 207 yards and two TDs in the contest. Stallworth had a game-high 113 yards on nine grabs.

S Jay Bellamy started his 107th consecutive game, the longest active streak in the NFL at his position. His fourth-quarter fumble recovery set up the game-winning TD* pass from Brooks to Stallworth.

36-yard field goal. But 49ers RB Kevan Barlow ran for two TDs in the quarter to make it 20-17 at halftime.

Carney gave New Orleans a sixpoint lead in the third quarter, but a field goal and fourth-quarter touchdown put the 49ers ahead, 27-23, setting up the winning TD pass from Brooks to Stallworth.

With the heat index reaching into triple figures, it was a steamy, frustrating afternoon for the Saints, with turnovers contributing to a defeat that dropped New Orleans to 2-2.

The Saints were hamstrung by two first-quarter fumbles - including one inside the Cardinals 1-yard line on the first drive - and 12 penalties for 194 yards. New Orleans also failed to convert on 11 of 12 on third down.

The Saints made the opening drive look effortless, with OB Aaron Brooks completing his first five passes for 66 yards. But Brooks lost the ball attempting to lunge into the end zone on a 4th-and-1 sneak, negating the scoring chance.

Two series later, a fumbled exchange on a reverse produced an Arizona touchdown when S Adrian Wilson scooped up the ball and ran 35 vards for a touchdown.

Arizona added a touchdown before halftime on a 21-yard halfback pass from RB Emmitt Smith to FB Obafemi Avanbadeio to take a 14-3 lead at the end of the second quarter.

New Orleans cut the margin to four points in the third quarter when S Steve Gleason blocked a punt and S

At the end of the opening quarter, the Saints had outgained the Cards 132-4 in total offense and 8-0 in first downs but trailed 7-0.

The punt-block recovery in the end zone for a touchdown by S Mel Mitchell in the third quarter was the first by a Saint since Tommy Myers scored vs. Detroit on Sept. 25, 1977. Steve Gleason blocked the punt that Mitchell pounced on for the TD, Gleason's third blocked punt over the last three seasons.

> Mel Mitchell recovered the loose ball in the end zone.

But Arizona supplied the rest of the scoring in the Cardinals' biggest winning margin since 1993, with two field goals by K Neil Rackers, a 29yard touchdown run by RB Emmitt Smith and an 11-yard TD burst by RB Troy Hambrick.

The Saints fell to a winless team for the second-straight week in a game where a 10-point scoring burst in an 18-second stretch of the second quarter by the Buccaneers left New Orleans unable to reclaim the lead.

But moments after a 53-vard field goal by Tampa Bay K Martin Gramatica, CB Ronde Barber scooped up a fumble by McAllister and returned it 18 yards for a touchdown. The sudden 10-point swing gave the Tampa Bay won despite losing starting OB Chris Simms to a sprained knee in the first quarter. He was replaced by QB Brian Griese, who completed 16 of 19 passes for 194 yards, with a 45-yard TD to TE Ken Dilger in the third quarter.

The Saints got a memorable performance from RB Deuce

McAllister. Playing with a heavily-wrapped ankle from the injury he had sustained three weeks earlier, McAllister pound-

After missing two games with an injured ankle. RB Deuce McAllister returned to rush for 102 yards on 21 carries.

WR Joe Horn's third-quarter TD grab tied WR Danny Abramowicz for second in team history with 37 touchdown receptions.

DE Charles Grant posted six tackles, a pair of sacks and a forced fumble. He exited the game tied for the NFL lead at seven

With five points on the day, K John Carney moved into ninth in league history with 1.471 career points.

Bucs a 13-7 lead at halftime.

Tampa Bay would add Dilger's touchdown grab in the third quarter. The Saints would rally with 10straight points to get within a field goal, but the Buccaneers ran out the final 3:42 of the contest.

VIKINGS: 38 SAINTS: 31 LOUISIANA SUPERDOME NEW ORLEANS - 10/17/04 ATTENDANCE: 64,900 TIME: 3:19

In a nationally-televised game on ESPN's Sunday Night Football, the Saints got caught in a hailstorm of offensive production by the Vikings in a loss that dropped New Orleans to 2-

4. Minnesota, which never trailed, had 605 yards of total offense, the most by a foe in Saints' history.

Vikings QB Daunte Culpepper completed 26 of 37 passes for 425 yards and five touchdowns. His yardage total was the second-most for an opposing quarterback in club history.

CB Ashley Ambrose had an interception in the end zone on the Vikings' first possession. But Minnesota rallied for a pair of quick touchdowns

- both scoring strikes by Culpepper - on the next two series. The Saints responded with a 14-point second quarter to cut the Vikings' advantage to 21-14 at the half.

Minnesota TE Jermaine Wiggins added his second scoring grab in the third quarter. The Saints put together a nine-play, 79-yard drive, capped by RB Deuce McAllister's one-yard touchdown plunge. K Morten Andersen added a 39-yard field goal minutes before the third quarter

DE Charles Grant notched a sack in his fith-straight game, joining LB Pat Swilling (1991), LB Renaldo Turnbull (1993) and DE Darren Howard (2000) as the only Saints to reach the milestone.

RB Fred McAfee, signed just days before, took a fake punt 53 yards in the third quarter to set up a touchdown.

With a seven-yard scoring toss, QB Aaron Brooks and WR Joe Horn added to their total as the top quarterback-wide reciever touchdown duo in franchise record books, with the two reaching 30 TD connections.

closed to give the Vikings a 31-21 lead entering the final 15 minutes.

New Orleans sandwiched a 45yard field goal and a five-yard touchdown burst by QB Aaron Brooks with 2:51 remaining around the fifth TD pass by Culpepper, a one-yard flip to WR Marcus Robinson.

LB Colby Bockwoldt had his first career TD, scooping up an Oakland kick return fumble and returning it six vards.

CB Fakhir Brown had seven tackles and broke up three passes in his first start for New Orleans. It opened a solid stretch of play for Brown, who was one of five new defenders starting from the prior contest.

The Saints improved to 17-4 when WR Joe Horn reaches 100 receiving yards.

LB Colby Bockwoldt and CB Jason Craft combined to make the biggest play of the game late in the fourth quarter, with Craft stripping Oakland returner Carlos Francis inside the Raiders' 10. Bockwoldt scooped up the loose ball and returned it six yards for his first NFL touchdown. The score gave New Orleans a 31-19 lead with 4:20 left.

A 13-yard touchdown grab by WR Jerry Porter cut the Saints' lead

S Tebucky Jones helped extend the lead with a 55-yard return of an interception, with McAllister capping the ensuing drive with a three-yard TD burst to put the Saints ahead 21-9.

The Raiders converted only four of 15 third-down attempts and had to settle for four field goals in six scoring opportunities.

The Chargers raced out to a 17-0 lead in the second quarter that New Orleans never recovered from, dropping the Saints to 3-5 at the midway point of the season.

A 22-yard run off a fake punt for kept the Chargers' opening drive alive, a 73-yard march that was capped by a 12-yard touchdown pass from QB Drew Brees to TE Antonio Gates.

A 48-yard reverse by WR Tim Dwight set up San Diego's second scoring march, with RB LaDanian Tomlinson's one-yard TD plunge.

An interception on the first play of the second quarter at the San Diego 35 yard line led to a field goal for the Chargers, but the Saints responded by putting together a 10-play, 68-yard touchdown drive, with RB Deuce McAllister capping the possession with a two-yard scoring run.

San Diego added another Nate Kaeding field goal after a 64-yard drive that lasted 10 plays to take a 20-

7 lead at the half.

A holding penalty enforced in the end zone gave the Chargers a 15point advantage early in the third quarter.

The Saints rebounded from an early 10-0 deficit to earn their fourth victory of 2004 after sterling performances from their top three players on offense: QB Aaron Brooks, RB Deuce McAllister and WR Joe Horn.

Brooks rushed for one TD and completed 15 of 27 for 259 yards and a touchdown, including a 57-yard strike to Horn, who had five catches for a season-high 167 yards and a TD. McAllister averaged 7.9 yards per rush, finishing the game with 127 yards and a TD on 16 attempts.

Kansas City took advantage of a 63-yard return by Dante Hall on the opening kickoff, marching 35 yards on five plays, with QB Tim Green finding former Saints WR Eddie Kennison for a 21-yard touchdown to make it 7-0.

Kansas City Chiefs

Nam Oulanna Calula

The Chiefs would score again later in the first quarter on a 24-yard field goal by K Lawrence Tynes.

New Orleans got on the board on its next drive, with Brooks scoring on a one-yard plunge on the opening play of the second quarter.

On their following drive, the Saints went 89 yards on five plays, incuding the long reception by Horn.

LB Orlando Ruff made a key interception at the New Orleans 4-yard line, hauling in a deflected pass with 1:16 remaining to preserve the victory.

RB Deuce McAllister rushed for a touchdown in his fourth-straight contest, setting a career-high for consecutive games with a TD. He had six scores during the streak. McAllister also moved into third all-time on the club's rushing charts.

McAllister capped the lengthy drive with a 13-yard scoring burst.

The Saints added K John Carney field goals in the third quarter and early in the fourth. After Kansas City responded with a 78-yard touchdown drive, Brooks found a streaking Hom for a 42-yard TD to complete the game's scoring.

BRONCOS: 34 SAINTS: 13 LOUISIANA SUPERDOME NEW ORLEANS - 11/28/04 ATTENDANCE: 64,900 TIME: 3:25

New Orleans never recovered from a 20-point first-quarter burst by the Broncos, dropping the Saints to 4-6 on the season. A piping-hot Denver offense and four turnovers proved too much for the Saints to overcome. The Broncos accounted for 151 yards on their first five plays from scrimmage.

A 51-yard touchdown run by RB Reuben Droughns on the first play of Denver's opening drive started the scoring spree. On the Broncos' following possession, QB Jake Plummer found WR Ashley Lelie for a 37-yard

Ashley Lelle for a 37-yard touchdown strike, and Denver added two field goals later in the quarter.

K John Carney capper play, 70-yard drive for New York (1997).

K John Carney capped an 11-play, 70-yard drive for New Orleans early in the second quarter with a 24-yard field goal. But on the Saints' following possession, LB Al Wilson returned an interception off a screen seven yards for a touchdown as Denver's lead swelled to 27-3.

The Saints would rally briefly later in the quarter with a 30-yard catch-and-run TD by WR Donté Stallworth and a 36-yard field goal by Carney to make it 27-13 at the half.

But Denver started a lengthy

An inspired, near-flawless second half for New Orleans was spoiled by Atlanta's game-winning touchdown pass with 1:22 remaining. The Saints were unable to drive within field goal range on their final possession.

By early in the second quarter, the Falcons had raced to a 14-0 lead after a 16-yard TD run by QB Michael Vick and a 1yard touchdown catch by FB Stanley Pritchett.

New Orleans added a pair of field goals, but the Falcons responded with a 31-yard kick by K Jay Feely as time expired in the half. The field goal was set up by a late interception in Saints territory.

After an intense halftime speech delivered by Coach Jim Haslett, the Saints began to erase the double-digit deficit. QB Aaron Brooks capped a nine-play, 80-yard march with a one-yard touchdown plunge.

Brooks found WR Joe Horn for a seven-yard score early in the fourth quarter, capitalizing on DE Charles Grant's interception and eight-yard return to the Atlanta 30.

The clubs traded jabs for the rest of the game, and a fumble recovery by LB James Allen – who stripped RB WR Joe Horn caught his 40th touchdown pass with the Saints, third in franchise history for TDs behind RB Dalton Hilliard (53) and WR Eric Martin (48). Horn also had his 23rd 100-yard receiving performance and hauled in a two-point conversion in the third quarter, the first of his career.

RB Deuce McAllister recorded a 100-yard rushing day for the 20th time in his career.

Warrick Dunn and pounced on the ball at the New Orleans 6 with 3:03 remaining. But it left the Saints deep in their own territory, and Atlanta took over at the New Orleans 47.

The game-winning drive only took two plays, with Vick finding TE Alge Crumpler for a 20-yard TD.

A 23-point deficit at halftime and six field goals proved to be too much for the Saints to overcome in this home defeat to the defending NFC-Champion Carolina Panthers.

K John Kasay set a club record with six field goals and scored 20 points in the game, including two extra points. Carolina scored 13 points in both the first and second quarters.

After a 49-yard return on the opening kickoff, the Panthers drove 29 yards in six plays to set up their first field goal. On their following possession, Kasay added another three points on a 50-yard kick.

A Saints' fumble at the New Orleans 10 set up Carolina's next score a play later, with QB Jake Delhomme finding WR Muhsin Muhammad to take a 13-0 lead.

The Panthers increased their lead to 20 early in the second quarter, with RB Nick Goings capping a 75-yard drive – including a 50-yard grab by Muhammad – with a six-yard TD run.

ATTENDANCE: 58,878 TIME: 3:06

Carolina would add another lengthy drive on its following possession, with Kasay drilling a 46-yard field goal to take a 23-point lead.

The Saints got on the board with

DE Darren Howard had a season-high two sacks for 11 yards in losses and added three tackles.

RB Aaron Stecker returned a career-best eight kickoffs for 214 yards, a 26.8-yard average.

QB Aaron Brooks reached 100 career TD passes with his 13-yard toss to WR Joe Horn in the second quarter. He added two more scoring passes.

a 13-yard TD from QB Aaron Brooks to WR Joe Horn, but the Panthers added a field goal before halftime.

Brooks would find Horn on a 24yard scoring strike in the third quarter. Kasay drilled a pair of 21-yard field goals in the final 15 minutes, and New Orleans closed with a 25-yard touchdown catch by Donté Stallworth.

Irving. Texas - 12/12/04

ATTENDANCE: 64,056 TIME: 3:15

A stout defensive effort combined with a pair of touchdown runs by RB Deuce McAllister and a solid performance by the starting wide receivers pushed the Saints to their fifth victory of the season.

Dallas jumped out to a 10-0 lead after a field goal and a one-yard touchdown plunge by RB Julius Jones following an interference penalty.

But the Saints rallied in the second quarter. An interception by CB Mike McKenzie at the Dallas 26 set up a fiveyard TD burst by RB Deuce McAllister with six minutes remaining. On their following possession, the Cowboys drove to the New Orleans 38, but an incompletion on 4th-and-4 ended the possession.

A 41-yard drive ensued, with K John Carney evening the score with a 39-yard field goal with 41 seconds left in the second quarter.

An interception with a 20-yard return set up a 41-yard field goal for Dallas, but the Saints again tied the contest on a 44-yard kick by Carney.

McAllister would add a fouryard touchdown, capping an 11-play, 73-yard march that included a 25-yard completion to WR Donté Stallworth.

! notebook

P Mitch Berger was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week for the first time with New Orleans after averaging 46 yards on five punts and dropping four inside the Dallas 20.

WR Donté Stallworth hauled in five passes for 113 vards, his third 100-yard game of 2004.

The Saints allowed a scant 148 net yards passing.

A 43-yard punt return by WR Michael Lewis set up a 31-yard scoring strike to WR Joe Horn.

A late drive for Dallas was snapped by a sack and forced fumble by DE Will Smith at the New Orleans 44, recovered by CB Fred Thomas. CB Fakhir Brown added an interception on the Cowboys' final possession.

QB Aaron Brooks found WR Donté Stallworth on a seven-yard touchdown pass with 32 seconds remaining to lift New Orleans to victory, part of a 14-point burst in the final quarter. It was the fourth game-winning TD fourth game-winning TI for the duo, and the second in 2004.

The Saints took the lead on the opening kick-off, with RB Aaron Stecker bobbling the kick, picking it up and racing 98 yards for a touchdown. It was the first return for a TD for the former Buccaneer.

Tampa Bay answered on the following possession with a seven-play, 60-yard march, capped by a three-yard scoring pass from QB Brian Griese to WR Joey Galloway.

The teams traded punts in the second quarter, but Galloway struck again after halftime with a 59-yard punt return for a TD. The Saints lost a prime scoring chance later in the third quarter when WR Jerome Pathon fumbled at the Tampa Bay 3. The Bucs made the most of the turnover, driving 77 yards to set up a 37-yard field goal.

A 53-yard punt return by WR Michael Lewis to the Tampa Bay 4 set up a short touchdown grab by WR Joe

RB Aaron Stecker was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week after his 98-yard touchdown return of the opening kickoff. WR Michael Lewis also had a 53-yard punt return to set up a TD.

QB Aaron Brooks engineered the 16th game-winning drive of his career in either the fourth quarter or overtime.

DE Darren Howard had a career-high nine tackles (five solo) and a fourth-quarter sack.

ing four downs later.

Horn to cut the Bucs' lead to 17-14.

On the following play from scrimmage, DE Will Smith caused a fumble while stopping RB Michael Pittman that was recovered by CB Fakhir Brown, with Stallworth's seven-yard TD catch off a quick slant com-

FALCONS: 13 LOUISIANA SUPERDOME NEW ORLEANS - 12/26/04 ATTENDANCE: 64,900 TIME: 3:11

The Saints put together another gritty defensive performance and recorded a kickoff return for a touchdown for the second-straight week in a victory over the NFC South-leading Atlanta Falcons at the Superdome.

A resurgent defense held its third-straight opponent to less than 20 points, limiting Atlanta to 267 yards and an average of 3.9 yards per play. The unit also posted two interceptions, a fumble recovery and three sacks.

DE Tony Bryant sacked Falcons OB Matt Schaub for a safety in the first quarter. On the following possession, K John Carney capped a 51yard drive with a 22-yard field goal to give the Saints a 5-0 lead.

Atlanta would answer with a field goal, and an interception followed by another field goal pushed the Falcons ahead by a point.

But the Saints would score the game's first touchdown on the next drive, marching 80 yards in 11 plays - including four catches for 58 yards by WR Joe Horn. QB Aaron Brooks capped the drive with a one-yard TD.

New Orleans would strike again early in the third quarter, taking the opening kickoff of the second half 70

! notebook

RB Deuce McAllister became the third player in club history to reach 4,000 rushing yards, joining former RBs George Rogers and Dalton Hilliard.

WR Michael Lewis, who had a 96-vard kickoff return for a touchdown, became the third-straight Saints player to win NFC Special Teams Player of the Week.

Rookie DE Will Smith forced a fumble for the third-consecutive game.

> yards in five plays, including a 39yard touchdown catch-and-run by WR Donté Stallworth for a 19-6 lead.

> Atlanta would counter with a touchdown drive, but WR Michael Lewis provided the exclamation point to the victory by returning the following kickoff 96 yards for a TD.

The Saints finished out of the playoffs due to a Wild Card tie-breaker but ended on a high note with a win at Carolina, the final of four-straight victories to close 2004 that evened New Orleans' record to 8-8.

It was another strong performance for the defense, with DEs Charles Grant, Darren Howard, Will Smith and Tony Bryant combining for six sacks, two forced fumbles and a pair of fumble recoveries.

Trailing by a field goal, New Orleans took the lead in the first quarter on a seven-yard TD run by RB Aaron Stecker. The drive was only two plays, the first being a 71-yard pick up by RB Deuce McAllister. In the second quarter, Grant sacked Panthers QB Jake Delhomme and forced a fumble that was recovered by Smith at the New Orleans 18. The Saints capitalized on the turnover by driving 83 yards in seven plays, with McAllister running for a one-yard TD around left end.

Carolina cut the Saints' lead to four on a nine-yard touchdown grab by WR Muhsin Muhammad. But New Orleans immediately responded, with QB Aaron Brooks finding WR Joe Horn for a 44-yard touchdown three

New Orleans improved to 23-16 (.600) on the road since Jim Haslett arrived in 2000.

DE Tony Bryant became the fourth-straight Saints player to win NFC Special Teams Player of the Week after blocking a potentially game-tying field goal in the game's final moments.

RB Deuce McAllister had a season-high 140 yards on 28 carries, including a 71-yard burst.

plays later.

In the fourth quarter, Delhomme found Muhammad again on a nine-yard scoring pass to cap a 72-yard march. Carolina would drive to the New Orleans 42 on the game's final possession, but K John Kasay's 60-yard field goal attempt was blocked by Bryant as time expired.

IRON WILL

DE Will Smith, the Saints' No. 1 pick lived up to his draft status by bringing energy and a hard-nosed approach to the pass rush. He had a key forced fumble in the fourth quarter at Tampa Bay that set up the Saints' game-winning march, and also helped spring WR Michael Lewis for a 53-yard punt return earlier in the quarter with his downfield blocking. Smith ranked third on the club with 7.5 sacks, a total that led all rookies in the NFC. Smith really came on over the last half of the season, recording 36 tackles, 5.5 sacks, four forced fumbles and a fumble recovery in the final eight games. He caused a fumble in each of the last four contests, becoming the first player in club history to achieve that feat.

FOOTBALLOPERATIONSSTAFF

The Saints' defensive surge started at Dallas Dec. 12th, as the unit held the final four opponents to an average 15.3 points a game. CB Mike McKenzie and DE Will Smith (right) celebrate a McKenzie interception against the Cowboys.

FOOTBALLOPERATIONS

A highly-respected executive within the club and an advisor on all major decisions, Senior Football Administrator Russ Ball enters his fourth season with the Saints and 17th in the NFL. His position comes with a wide spectrum of responsibilities, including salary-cap management and contract negotiations. He also coordinates different areas of the day-to-day football operations with Executive Vice-President/General Manager Mickey Loomis and Coach Jim Haslett.

Ball arrived in New Orleans after spending 2001 as the Director of Football Administration for the Washington Redskins. In that position, Ball assisted then-Head Coach Marty Schottenheimer with the daily responsibilities and administrative functions of running a NFL organization. His wide-ranging duties included managing the salary cap as well as overseeing team operations, video and athletic training departments and their respective budgets.

From 1999-2000, Ball served as Senior Football Administrator for the Minnesota Vikings, where he was responsible for assisting with player contracts and salary cap management. Before arriving in Minneapolis, Ball spent 10 seasons in Kansas City, serving as the Chiefs' assistant strength and conditioning coach for his first eight seasons and spending the final two years working under Schottenheimer in football operations.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Ball served as head strength and conditioning coach at the University of Missouri from 1982-88. He was a four-year letterman as a center at Central Missouri State University.

Ball earned a masters degree in human performance from the University of Missouri in 1990, after receiving an undergraduate degree from Central Missouri State in 1981. He and his wife, Diana, have two children, Joe and Andrea.

Entering his sixth season in New Orleans, Director of Player Personnel Rick Mueller has helped shape the club's last five drafts and free-agent classes, which now form the foundation of the team.

From grading NFL free agents to studying college prospects, Mueller serves as the Saints' point man in the never-ending effort to stock the clubs' roster.

As the organization's top personnel executive, Mueller is responsible for all aspects of scouting and evaluation. His duties include supervising and coordinating the organization's legion of college and pro scouts, and his efforts peak each year by running the Saints' draft room.

Mueller came to the team following a six-year stint with the Jacksonville Jaguars, where he was instrumental in their rise from expansion franchise in 1995 to AFC powerhouse. Mueller served as the Jaguars' Director of College Scouting in 1998-99 and was in charge of his initial draft in 1999. Prior to being promoted, Mueller was a college scout for Jacksonville.

In 1993, Mueller served as Director of Player Personnel and wide receivers coach for the CFL Sacramento Gold Miners. In 1992, he worked as defensive assistant and special teams coach for the World League's Sacramento Surge. In that assignment, Mueller worked alongside then-defensive coordinator Jim Haslett. The Surge finished 8-2 and captured the World Bowl Championship.

Following that season, Mueller was one of five pro scouts for the World League. Working for the Surge was his first pro assignment after serving as a graduate assistant at Washington State from 1990-92, where he served as quarterbacks coach and recruiting coordinator. While at the school, he tutored OB Drew Bledsoe, who was the first overall pick in the 1993 draft by New England and has been a three-time Pro Bowl pick.

A graduate of the University of Puget Sound, Mueller was a three-year starter at quarterback. He received a bachelor's degree in communications in 1990 and also attended graduate school, studying communications while coaching at Washington State from 1990-92. Mueller and his wife, Andrea, have twin sons, Chase and Rhett, and a daughter, Emry.

Director of Operations James Nagaoka brings over 25 years of NFL experience to his post, including the last five seasons with the Saints. He was promoted to his current position in 2002 after serving as Director of Team Logistics/Box Office Manager following his arrival in New Orleans in 2000.

Nagaoka handles the day-to-day operations of the club and is responsible for the details that relate to team travel. In 2002, he served as the chief liaison during the construction of the indoor practice facility, locker room, weight room and cafeteria. He also oversees game-day operations at the Superdome.

In 22 years with the Seattle Seahawks, Nagaoka had a wide spectrum of responsibilities, including special projects, entertainment, travel coordination and as ticket director. He is a graduate of the University of Washington.

Acting as the conduit for players in their dealings with coaches and management, Director of Player Development Ricky Porter is entering his sixth year with the Saints. He also provides a comprehensive career development program to build a smooth transition for players who are either coming into or adjusting to life following their stints in professional football.

Included in those efforts are life skills training seminars, continuing education opportunities in the quest for college graduation, career internships, financial education classes and family assistance. His duties aren't limited to off-field responsibilities, however, as Porter has also taken a key role in developing the talents of the team's kick and punt return specialists, including 2002 Pro Bowl pick Michael Lewis.

Porter has a well-rounded football resume: He served for three years on the Denver Broncos' coaching staff, starting in 1997 as an offensive assistant and spent 1996 in the same capacity with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Prior to that, Porter worked as a scout for National Football Scouting in 1995, assessing talent in the Ohio Valley region.

Porter also has previous NFL coaching experience with Buffalo (1991), New Orleans (1993) and Detroit (1994) through the NFL Minority Coaching Fellowship Program. His first full-time experience came at his alma mater, Slippery Rock State, where he coached running backs and special teams in 1990-91 before moving on to handle the same duties at Kent State from 1992-93.

FOOTBALLOPERAT

Porter played for five years in the NFL with Detroit (1982), Baltimore (1983) and Buffalo (1987-89). He also played for the USFL Memphis Showboats in 1985 and the CFL Montreal Alouettes from 1986-87.

Amember of the Slippery Rock Sports Hall of Fame, Porter was the first player drafted from the Division II program when he was chosen by Detroit in 1982. As a senior, he led the nation in rushing while also participating on the school's baseball and track teams. In 1990, he was a member of the Baltimore Orioles' AAA Rochester Red Wings.

Porter holds a bachelor's degree in communications from Slippery Rock and a master's degree in athletic administration from Kent State.

HISTORY

FOOTBALLOPERATIONS

Rick Reiprish, a knowledgeable addition to the Saints' personnel department who joined the club in 2004, brings 26 years of NFL experience to his post as college scouting director. His responsibilities include coordinating the club's staff of scouts and evaluating hundreds of college prospects in preparation for the vearly draft.

Reiprish joined the Saints following an eight-year stint (1994-2002) with Jacksonville, where he was one of the architects of the Jaguars' rapid ascension to the top of the AFC. He was responsible for the team's drafts since its inaugural effort in 1995, selecting such stalwarts as T Tony Boselli, DE Tony Brackens, RB Fred Taylor, S Donovin Darius and CB Fernando Bryant. Of the team's seven first-round picks from 1995 to 1999, each became a starter, more than any other NFL team in that span.

Originally hired as the Jaguars' director of college scouting on May 15, 1994. Reiprish was promoted to director of player personnel in 1998. He was responsible for the pro and college scouting departments, including directing the scouting of college players and the draft as well as the evaluation of veteran free agents.

Reiprish joined the Jaguars after working for the Seattle Seahawks for 10 years (1984-94), first as an area scout before being promoted to Eastern Scout Supervisor in 1989. He began his scouting career as a Southeast scout with BLESTO from 1979-82. From 1982-84, he was a personnel scout for the Kansas City Chiefs.

Reiprish coached wide receivers and running backs at Austin Peay State University (1973-76) before going to East Tennessee in 1977, where he coached quarterbacks and running backs. In 1978, he was offensive line coach at North Alabama.

Born Sept. 14, 1950 in Shamokin, Pa., Reiprish graduated from Villanova in 1972 and earned a master's degree in education-administration and supervision from Austin Peay in 1974. He and his wife, Janet, have a son, Andrew.

Entering his sixth year in New Orleans as College Scouting Coordinator, Rick Thompson oversees all activities of college scouting and is director of the team's training camp operations.

Thompson joined the Saints after a lengthy tenure with the Seattle Seahawks, where he was an original member of the staff. He started out in 1975 as an assistant in player personnel and was promoted to assistant player personnel director in 1984. Thompson was promoted to assistant football operations direcfor in 1998 and served as an area scout in 1999. He also served as the Seahawks' training camp director from 1978-98.

A graduate of Hamline University in St. Paul, Minn., Thompson earned a degree in sports administration. He worked part time for the Minnesota Vikings for five years while an undergraduate. He and his wife, Kathy, have a daughter, Kacie, and a son, Nick, one of the area's most promising youth hockey players.

Promoted to Pro Scout in 2004, Ryan Pace enters his fifth season with the Saints and fourth year in the personnel department. His responsibilities include evaluating free agent prospects, advance scouting future opponents and assisting in the club's efforts in the NFL Draft.

Since the start of 2002, Pace had served as a scouting assistant, where he helped evaluate veteran free agents from around the league as well as players from NFL Europe and the CFL. He also tracked player movement, broke down film and assisted in the preparation of the draft room.

Pace started with the club in 2001, assisting in the coordination of all operations on game days, training camp and with the Louisiana Superdome. Married (Stephanie), Pace was a four-year letterman at defensive end for Eastern Illinois University (1995-99) and graduated with a degree in marketing.

An experienced member of the personnel department earned by logging over 40 years of playing, coaching and scouting, Bill Quinter enters his sixth season in New Orleans and 10th in the NFL. He is responsible for scouting colleges on the West Coast and also assists in player evaluations for all professional leagues and film breakdown and analysis of upcoming opponents.

Quinter joined the staff in 2000 after spending 1999 as a scout for the New York Giants. He was with the Seattle Seahawks from 1995-98, starting as a player personnel assistant before promoted to pro scouting director. Quinter has also spent 24 seasons in the Canadian Football League as a player, coach and administrator.

Quinter played in the NFL with the Washington Redskins in 1962 before joining the Ottawa Rough Riders in 1963. His career was highlighted by earning All-CFL honors at linebacker in 1964. Quinter also had stints with the Dallas Cowboys and Atlanta Falcons.

He opened his coaching career at Indiana State in 1968 and moved on to the University of Pittsburgh, where he stayed until 1972. Quinter went back to the CFL as an assistant with the Toronto Argonauts in 1973, where he stayed until becoming the defensive coordinator of the Calgary Stampeders from 1975-76. He joined the British Columbia Lions in 1977 as offensive line coach, and served as the club's defensive line coach from 1981-82. In 1983, the Lions named him their player personnel director. From 1984-86, he served as general manager of the Saskatchewan Rough Riders.

From 1987-90, Quinter was the player personnel director of the Winnipeg Blue Bombers before rejoining the B.C. Lions from 1990-94 in the same capacity.

Quinter and his wife, Christine, have six children, sons, Jason and Bill Jr., and daughters, Judi, Josie, Jenny and Joy.

Scottie B. PATTON HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

A veteran of 14 years in the NFL, Scottie Patton enters his sixth season with the Saints as head athletic trainer. In his position, Patton coordinates the medical care and injury rehabilitation for the team.

Only the third head athletic trainer in club history, Patton joined the Saints in 2000 after serving as an assistant athletic trainer with the Philadelphia Eagles from 1996-99 and an assistant athletic trainer for the San Francisco 49ers for five years. Patton was on the staff of the Super Bowl XXIX Champion 49ers in 1995. He has also served twice as an athletic trainer for the NFC squad at the Pro Bowl.

Patton earned a bachelor's degree in Sports Medicine/Exercise Science from Appalachian State University in 1990. After enrolling in graduate school at the University of South Carolina, Patton completed his master's in Sports Medicine at San Jose State in 1996. A certified athletic trainer, he is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) and the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society.

Patton began his career as a graduate assistant athletic trainer at South Carolina (1990-91), as a student athletic trainer at Appalachian State (1986-90) and a summer training camp and assistant athletic trainer with the 49ers in 1988-89.

During his final two years with the Eagles, Patton created the Football/Athletic Training Clinic, a non-profit venture in the offseason that provided instruction in athletic training and football skills in his hometown of Gastonia, N.C.

He was recently married to his wife, Evette. Patton has two children: Cameron (15) and Alexis (9).

Duane BROOKS ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Entering his fourth season with the Saints as assistant athletic trainer after serving six years in a similar position at Florida State University, Duane Brooks works under the direction of Head Athletic Trainer Scottie B. Patton to rehabilitate and treat players throughout the year. Brooks is also responsible for two tracking systems that monitor a player's progress from injuries for both the club and the NFL.

While at Florida State, Brooks was the assistant football athletic trainer and head trainer for the baseball team. He traveled to the College World Series three times and participated in four national football championship games. Brooks also completed summer internships with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1992, 1993 and 1996.

A member of both the National Athletic Trainers Association and the Louisiana Athletic Trainers Association, Brooks has an undergraduate degree from Florida A&M and earned his graduate degree in athletic administration at Florida State. He and his wife, Natasha, have a son, Rashaad.

Kevin MANGUM ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

One of the club's longest-tenured employees, Kevin Mangum enters his 25th season with the Saints as assistant athletic trainer. In his position, Mangum works with Head Trainer Scottie B. Patton to treat and rehabilitate injured players. Mangum also works with the rest of training staff to maintain the overall health and welfare of the team.

A native of Tylertown, Miss., Mangum has collected a lengthy list of honors since joining the Saints. He received the Southeast Athletic Trainers Association's 1991 Backbone Award, which recognizes the region's outstanding assistant athletic trainer, and was part of the NFL Athletic Training Staff of the Year in 1986.

Mangum was a student athletic trainer for two years at Southwest Mississippi Junior College and two more at the University of Southern Mississippi before joining the Saints in 1981. He received a bachelor's degree in athletic administration with a specialization in athletic training from USM in 1981, and an advanced degree in physical education from the University of New Orleans in 1988. Mangum was inducted into the Southwest Mississippi Junior College Sports Hall of Fame in 1995.

He and his wife, Susie, and their five children: Katie, Megan, Scott, Kevin Paul and Mark, reside in Kenner.

Known to all at the club's training facility as "Chief," equipment manager Dan Simmons is in his fourth decade of employment with the New Orleans Saints. In 2002, Simmons was honored by the organization for his 30th season with the club, becoming only the second employee to reach the level of service since the team's founding in 1967.

Simmons was hired for his current position on April 1, 1973 and has been with the organization longer than any other current employee. He is responsible for the myriad of details that go into filling an NFL team's daily needs, including the purchase, upkeep and repair of all equipment and uniforms for players and coaches, the transportation of that equipment to and from all road trips and the daily practice field arrangement.

Dedication to an NFL team runs in his blood. His father, Bill, started the tradition by holding a similar post with the St. Louis Cardinals for 22 years. Dan, who in 1994 was honored as the first recipient of the Whitey Zimmerman Award that recognizes the NFL Equipment Manager of the Year, came to New Orleans after working with his father.

A graduate of Meramec College in St. Louis, Simmons served for four years in the Navy, including a stint in Vietnam. He and his wife, Elaine, live in Mandeville and have three grown children - Tracy, Tony and Amy - along with four grandchildren.

ADMINISTRATION

Amold D. DOESIDEAN ADMINISTRATION

Arnold D. Fielkow enters his sixth season with the New Orleans Saints, having been promoted to Executive Vice President in 2004. In this capacity, he serves as the top senior management official of the administrative/business departments, including marketing and sales, governmental affairs, community relations, business media relations and youth programs.

Fielkow has been instrumental in improving the team's influence both nationally and locally throughout the Gulf South. Upon joining the Saints, Fielkow immediately restructured the Saints business and marketing efforts, with an emphasis on enhancing the club's ticket, suite, sponsorship and special event

Under his leadership, club records were established in 2003 with season ticket sales as well as total attendance. The club has also been successful in reaching a virtual sellout of the 137 Superdome box suites and has seen a three fold increase in corporate sponsorship sales through its new Patron Saints Partners program Fielkow established. He also created and implemented one of the most comprehensive regional sales operations in all of professional sports, creating a presence over a four-state area. Since beginning this effort in 2000, regional sales have jumped from 8% to 30% of the club's business ventures.

In addition to his administrative duties. Fielkow also led the club's efforts in negotiations with the State of Louisiana. A 10-year agreement reached with the State in 2002 helped ensure the club's continued presence in New Orleans and provided for the construction of a state-of-the-art practice facility at the Saints' headquarters. This agreement, which provides for significant financial inducements over the next decade, was overwhelmingly approved by the Louisiana legislature and signed into law by former Louisiana Governor Mike Foster on April 18, 2002.

Fielkow has initiated a number of innovative business/marketing projects, including the NFL's first Fan and Community Advisory Boards, Saints-led international trade missions to Central America, marketing partnerships with the Harlem Globetrotters and the PGA's HP Classic of New Orleans, Football 101 mini-camps for the team's female fan base and the Hispanic community, a Business Breakfast series with the top 200 business leaders in New Orleans and the Gulf South, Draft Day and Monday Night Football cruises, and a Saints ticket sales Radio-a-thon.

Fielkow has also overseen tremendous growth in the Saints youth programming, highlighted by its involvement in the NFL's Junior Player Development program and the administration of summer youth clinics throughout greater New Orleans. Teaming with the NFL and the Orleans Parish School Board, the Saints have been instrumental in returning tackle football to the city's public middle schools.

For his efforts, Fielkow was selected to receive the prestigious 2004 TOP Award ("Ten Outstanding Person") and the 2003 Sanchez to Sanchez to Smith Award issued by Family Service of Greater New Orleans and the Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, respectively.

Prior to joining the Saints, Fielkow was involved in Major League Baseball's player development system by serving as President and General Counsel of the historic Southern League of Professional Baseball Clubs and as President of Minor League Baseball's AA Association. During his six-year tenure, Fielkow oversaw the construction and renovation of six new ballparks and introduced marketing and business programs that catapulted the Southern League into one of the most respected leagues within Minor League Baseball.

Previously, Fielkow served as Deputy Commissioner and General Counsel of the Continental Basketball Association, the official developmental league of the NBA. During his tenure, he negotiated new player and referee development agreements with the NBA and helped the League reach record attendance levels. He also introduced and administered several new programs, including a national television agreement with ESPN2, a CBA national radio contract, and a multigame exhibition series involving former Lakers' great Magic Johnson. He was also elected to the Board of Directors of USA Basketball.

Fielkow began his professional career as a practicing attorney in Chicago, and eventually co-founded the law firm of Grossman, Solomon, & Fielkow, P.C. As part of this practice, Fielkow was elected Commissioner of the NCAA Division I North Star Conference (currently the Mid-Continent Conference), the last allfemale Conference at the Division I level, and was successful in securing the conference's first-ever automatic bid to the NCAA Division I basketball tournament. A member of the Illinois and Wisconsin Bar Associations, Fielkow has authored several legal and sports-related articles/publications, including "Civil Rico: The Insurers Fight Back" and "CBA: A World of Opportunity", and is a frequent public speaker at national and local sports industry events.

Fielkow has immersed himself in the New Orleans community, serving on the Board of Directors for Greater New Orleans, Inc., United Way, Each One, Save One, the World Trade Center, Audubon Commission, The Greater New Orleans Sports Foundation, Jewish Federation of Greater New Orleans, Touro Synagogue and the National Conference for Community and Justice. He also co-chairs the Sports Cluster for GNO, Inc. and was an executive committee member of the Super Bowl XXXVI Host Committee.

A native of Appleton, Wisconsin, Fielkow is a 1981 graduate of the University of Wisconsin - School of Law and earned his B. A. degree with honors (Phi Beta Kappa) from Northwestern University.

An avid sports fan, Fielkow played tennis on the collegiate level and was selected to the silver-medal winning United States men's basketball team at the 15th Maccabiah Games in Israel. Fielkow also serves as an active youth coach in the uptown New Orleans Carrollton baseball program. He and his wife, Dr. Susan Fielkow, have three sons, Justin, Michael and Steven.

SENIOR DIRECTOR OF WARKETING & BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

A sports executive for over 25 years, Connie Kowal enters his third season as Senior Director of Marketing & Business Development. Kowal spearheads the club's marketing efforts, including corporate sponsorships, advertising, ticket sales and operations, entertainment, suite sales, stadium operations, internet, youth programs and broadcasting.

Kowal's previous experience is highlighted by his 14year tenure with the Chicago Cubs (1985-1998) handling special events, marketing, promotions, sponsorships and community relations, as well as directing business operations at the minor league level for the Cubs. He has also served as Vice President & General Manager of the Chicago Enforcers of the XFL (2000-2001), Vice President of Marketing & Broadcasting for the Chicago Motor Speedway (1998-2000), Director of Public Relations with the Chicago Sting (1980-1985) and Vice President of Sponsorships for the U.S. Professional Volleyball League (2002).

Kowal is a 1974 graduate of Western Illinois University with a B.A. in Political Science and played baseball at WIU. He was assistant baseball coach in 1975. A Chicago-area native, Kowal and his wife, Sally, are the parents of two children, son K.C. 20, and daughter, Lauren, who passed away two years ago at age 20.

As General Counsel, Vicky Neumeyer serves the entire organization by providing legal consultation and services for the executive staff. Her central responsibilities include drafting key documents including leases, sponsorship agreements and broadcast contracts, identifying and analyzing legal issues, presenting comprehensive recommendations and assuring compliance in all business endeavors.

Prior to joining the Saints in 2000 and becoming General Counsel in 2001, Neumeyer had over 10 years of experience in her field and is a member of the state and federal bars of Louisiana. She spent over five years as an in-house litigation attorney for Exxon, was a judicial clerk for the Supreme Court of Louisiana and in private practice as a consultant to corporate clients and law firms.

Neumeyer has extensive experience in Sports Law, including antitrust, labor and organizational matters. She also has a comprehensive background in CAD engineering software development firm drafting, negotiating contracts worldwide, copyrighting and handling business issues.

She graduated with honors from Loyola Law School in 1989 and attained a Master of Law with Distinction with a dual emphasis in Intellectual Property Law and Sports Law in 1998.

Twice selected in competition for a staff position on the Sports Lawyers Journal, Neumeyer is married (Jeff) and has a daughter, Mary Rose.

Paul Corliss is in his fifth year with Saints and third as Director of Community Affairs. He leads the community outreach endeavors and oversees all charitable appearances made by players, coaches and staff.

Corliss serves as the club's liaison to charitable organizations across the city, state and region and represents the Saints on several philanthropic boards and committees. He also oversees administrative public relations under Executive Vice President Arnold D. Fielkow.

The community affairs department recognizes youth and education as its primary target areas in giving back as the club looks to fulfill Owner Tom Benson's goal of supporting the Greater New Orleans and Gulf South community through monetary donations, goods and services.

In 2002, Corliss served as Assistant Director of Community Affairs, and prior to that he worked for the Saints as a Media and Public Relations Manager. He has worked on the NFL public relations staffs for Super Bowl XXXVI, XXXVII and XXXIX. Before coming to New Orleans, Corliss worked as a sports writer for the Dallas Morning News and Denton Record-Chronicle, and also served as the Associate Public Relations Director at the University of Dallas.

A native of suburban Chicago, Corliss graduated from Texas Christian University in 1997. Corliss, his wife, Jennifer, and daughter, Amelia, live in Mandeville.

COMMUNITYAFFAIRS

Saints Making A Difference

Game day at the Louisiana Superdome comes on Sunday, when the New Orleans Saints charge onto the field in front of 68,000 fans and fight to tackle the opposition, move the chains and score touchdowns. But everyday is game day in the club's community relations efforts, and the Saints put in the same energy and drive they do on the field when working to positively impact the people living in New Orleans and across the Gulf South region.

The Saints remain dedicated to making big plays in the community every day. Starting with Owner Tom Benson and moving on down through the coaches, players and staff, the organization feels a responsibility to give back. With that in mind, the Saints make a concerted effort to be visible and accessible members of the community, with a hands-on approach toward charitable outreach. But these efforts are sparked by more than the desire to be seen - the Saints are firmly focused on making a positive, lasting impact.

The club understands that our children represent the community's hope for the future, and thus the Saints have targeted youth programs and education as the primary impact areas in giving back to New Orleans and the Gulf South region. Saints players visit New Orleans area schools each week during the regular season to stress the importance of education to students as part of the club's Domino's Pizza/WWL Radio Literacy Program. The club also partners with youth-oriented charities such as the New Orleans Recreation Department, Big Brothers/Big Sisters, Boys & Girls Clubs, the New Orleans Police Department's "COPS for Kids" program, the Fellowship Foundation and the NFL YET Center.

During the NFL's 17-week regular season in 2004, more than 200 charitable appearances were made by Saints players, coaches and staff. included in that number were weekly player visits to Children's Hospital of New Orleans. Starbright World - a widely-recognized computer video conference program - unites other NFL teams in charity as patients and players from New Orleans chat in cyberspace with their counterparts from children's hospitals in other NFL cities. The Saints pioneered this program and it has since been implemented in many cities across the league.

The Saints also reach out to thousands of youngsters each year through programs like the Gatorade Junior Training Camp, Saints Experience and the Outback Steakhouse Tackle Football Program. The club is highly involved with the NFL's Junior Player Development Program in New Orleans Public Schools. and supports all of the league's youth initiatives. Over the summer in 2004, the Saints teamed up with the United Way for Greater New Orleans to provide 15 two-day youth football and life skills clinics, free of charge.

And while supporting youth and education is the club's chief focus in the community, the Saints haven't limited their resources. In 2004 the team hosted the Taste of the Saints Celebrity Dinner and Fashion Show - raising more than $30,000 for United Way and Second Harversters Food Bank. The club also worked closely with the Council on Alcohol and Drug Abuse for Greater New Orleans, the American Red Cross in Southeast Louisiana, the Fore!Kids Foundation, and Bridge House. Millions of dollars were placed back into the community by the Saints through the donation of cash, goods and services.

Saints players also provide hundreds of unfortunate families a holiday dinner with all the trimmings as part of the team's annual Thanksgiving benefit at Dryades YMCA. In addition, several Saints players took unfortunate families on holiday shopping sprees at their own expense.

Whether through financial support, in-kind donations, charitable appearances or just lending an oversized helping hand, the New Orleans Saints are there for the Greater New Orleans and Gulf South community.

SPECIALIZING IN SPECIAL TEAMS

Five Saints special-teamers were voted NFC Special Teams Player of the Week in 2004, the highest total in club history. New Orleans closed the season with four-straight winners over the final month, a first for the club and tied for the most consecutive winners in the NFL since the inception of the award in 1993 (tied with the Kansas City Chiefs, as WR Dante Hall won the award in Weeks Two through Five in 2003).

Sept. 26: Saints 28, St. Louis Rams 25 – K John Carney earned the award after tying a club record with five field goals, including the 31-yard game-winner in overtime. Carney also had 52and 53-yard kicks in the first half.

Dec. 12: Saints 27, Dallas Cowboys 13 - P Mitch Berger took home the honor for the first time in New Orleans after punting five times for a 46.0-yard average. He kept the Cowboys backed up in their own territory by dropping five punts inside the 20.

Dec. 19: Saints 21, Tampa Bay Buccaneers 17 - RB Aaron Stecker was voted the winner after a 98-yard kickoff return for a touchdown, the Saints' first since 2002 and first on an opening kickoff since the club's debut season in 1967.

Dec. 26: Saints 26, Atlanta Falcons 13 - WR Michael Lewis earned the award following a sparkling performance against the Falcons that included a 96-yard kickoff return for a touchdown. Lewis had three kickoff returns for 122 yards, returned five punts for 40 yards - including a 25-yard burst - and also raced downfield to down a punt at the Atlanta 1 in the first quarter, leading to a safety three plays later.

Jan. 2: Saints 21. Carolina Panthers 18 - DE Tony Bryant became the fourth-straight Saints special teamer to win the honor after blocking what could have been the game-tying field goal on the final play of the victory. Bryant steamed through a pair of Panthers to reject a 60-yard field goal as time expired.

MANY HAPPY RETURNS

WR Michael Lewis closed last season with 122 career punt returns for 1,363 yards, moving past CB Tyrone Hughes (116 returns for 1,060 yards from 1993-96) to be the club's all-time leader in both categories. With his 96-yard kickoff return for a touchdown vs. Atlanta on Dec. 26, Lewis moved into a tie with Hughes for most kickoff returns for a TD with three. Lewis ranks second for New Orleans with 198 career kickoff returns for 4,852 yards (Hughes, 229 kick returns for 5,717 yards).

his with great sadness that the Saints hear the news of the assing of Sam Mills. Sam will be cherished and never forgotten. was embraced by the whole community, who loved his spirit, his titude and his drive and determination. He will be sorely missed." - Tom Benson, after the passing of Sam Mills following a long bout with cancer.

Mills was a four-time Pro Bowl pick during his nine-year career in New Orleans.

DOWN WITH DONTÉ

WR Donté Stallworth finished 2004 with a career high in receptions and receiving yards. He finished the year with 58 receptions for 767 yards and five touchdowns, the most since his rookie year in 2002, when he had eight TDs. For his career, Stallworth has 125 grabs for 1.846 yards and 16 touchdowns. Of those scoring catches, 11 have been from 25 yards or more. Four of Stallworth's TD catches have been game winners, including two last season: vs. San Franciso, Sept. 19 and at Tampa Bay, Dec. 19.

RUSHING TO THE TOP

With 1,074 yards on 269 carries last year, RB Deuce McAllister became the first player in club history to rush for over 1,000 yards in three-straight seasons. McAllister had a career-high 1,641 yards in 2003 and 1,388 in his breakout season the year before.

The fourth-year veteran closed the season with 4,194 career rushing yards. During the course of the year, McAllister moved past RB Ricky Williams (3,129, 1999-2001), RB Chuck Muncie (3,386, 1976-80), RB Rueben Mayes (3,408, 1986-88, 90) and RB Dalton Hilliard (4,164, 1986-93) on the team's all-time rushing chart. McAllister trails RB George Rogers (4,267, 1981-84) by a scant 73 yards to become the top rusher in Saints history. He also moved up to third in career rushing attempts with 961, trailing only Rogers (995) and Hilliard (1,126).

With five in 2004, McAllister increased his total for most 100-yard rushing performances by a Saints player to 22, with the team posting a 14-8 record when he reaches the milestone. He also ran for a touchdown in a four-game stretch (Oct. 17 vs. Minnesota until Nov. 14 vs. Kansas City), setting his career-high for consecutive contests with a TD. McAllister had six scoring runs during the span and nine in 2004. He moved into second place in rushing touchdowns with 31 moving past Mayes (23), FB Tony Galbreath (27, 1976-80), and Muncie (28). Hilliard leads the category with 39 career rushing touchdowns.

Finally, McAllister needs 74 yards, 166 attempts and nine rushing touchdowns in 2005 to become the club's all-time leader in each category.

NFC Wild Card Playoff (Jan. 3, 1988) - Louisiana Superdome (68,127) The Vikings spoiled the Saints' playoff debut by racing out to a 21-point lead at halftime and never looking back in an NFC Wild Card Playoff game in the Superdome. New Orleans opened the scoring when QB Bobby Hebert found WR Eric Martin for a 10-yard TD pass early in the first quarter, but the Vikings answered with 24 consecutive points. The Saints scored their final points on a 40-yard FG by K. Morten Andersen late in the first half. A "Hail Mary" TD pass from QB Wade Wilson to WR Hassan Jones as the second quarter ended pushed the Vikings lead to 31-10. The Saints were held without a rushing first down in the contest while only moving the chains nine times. Minnesota controlled the ball for over 41 minutes, posting 28 first downs and rushing for 210 yards in the victory.

CHICAGOBEARS 16, SAINTS 6

NFC Wild Card Playoff (Jan. 6, 1991) - Soldier Field (60,767)

In a clash between two of the NFL's top defenses, the Bears jumped ahead 10-0 and held off the Saints in an NFC Wild Card Playoff game at Soldier Field. The Bears went up 3-0 on a K Kevin Butler 33-yard FG after an interception. Chicago surged ahead by 10 points when QB Mike Tomczak connected with TE James Thornton on an 18-yard scoring pass. K Morten Andersen got the Saints on the scoreboard with a 47-yard FG with 1:38 remaining in the half. An offsides call on New Orleans nullified a 61-yard return of a blocked Bears FG attempt in the third quarter. Chicago took advantage on the reprieve, driving to set up a 22-yard field goal to give the Bears a 13-3 advantage midway through the third quarter. The teams traded FGs in the final quarter, with Andersen drilling a 38-yard kick and Butler connecting from 21 yards out to produce the winning margin. Chicago RB Neal Anderson rushed 27 times for 166 yards and hauled in four passes for 42 yards as the Bears rolled up 365 total yards to the Saints' 193 yards of offense.

NFC Wild Card Playoff (Dec. 28, 1991) - Louisiana Superdome (68,794) Atlanta posted 10 points in the final quarter - including a 61-yard TD grab by WR Michael Havnes - to defeat the Saints, 27-20, in a Wild Card clash between division rivals. A TD pass from OB Bobby Hebert to WR Floyd Turner gave New Orleans a 7-0 advantage and K Morten Andersen increased the lead with a 45-yard FG. The Falcons got on the board when QB Chris Miller found WR Andre Rison for a 24-yard TD pass in the second quarter. K Norm Johnson's 44yard FG with 0:37 left in the first half tied the score, but the Saints responded with a 35-yard FG by Andersen for a 13-10 advantage at halftime. Atlanta surged ahead with a TD early in the third quarter, but the Saints came back when RB Dalton Hilliard's one-yard TD plunge. A 36-yard FG by Johnson tied it up, and Haynes' long TD with 2:41 left provided the winning margin. Hebert was intercepted with 1:10 left at the Atlanta 35.

NFC Wild Card Playoff (Jan. 3, 1993) - Louisiana Superdome (68,893)

The Philadelphia Eagles rallied from a 20-7 deficit to defeat the Saints, 36-20, in an NFC Wild Card Playoff game at the Superdome. The Saints took a 7-0 lead in the first quarter when Craig Heyward scored on a one-yard run. The Eagles tied the game on a 57-yard TD pass but the Saints got a 17-7 halftime lead on a Bobby Hebert scoring pass and a 35-yard FG by Morten Andersen. Andersen drilled another FG in the third quarter, but Philadelphia pulled to 20-10 on a Roger Ruzek 40-yard FG. The Eagles grabbed a 24-20 lead with TDs on their first two possessions of the fourth quarter and Hebert was sacked for a safety by DE Reggie White. Ruzek booted a 39yard FG and CB Eric Allen returned a INT for another score in the final minutes.

NFC Wild Card Playoff (Dec. 30, 2000) - Louisiana Superdome (64,900)

The Saints earned the first win in franchise history by jumping ahead to a commanding lead early by scoring 31 unanswered points and weathering a late St. Louis rally at the Superdome. After a St. Louis TD in the first quarter, the Saints scored on five of their next nine possessions. OB Aaron Brooks found WR Robert Wilson for a 12-yard TD pass and K Doug Brien hit a 33vard FG for a 10-7 lead. Brooks then connected with WR Willie Jackson on TD passes of 10, 49 and 16 yards for a 31-7 lead with 11:57 left. The Rams mounted a comeback as QB Kurt Warner threw two TD passes and ran for another TD to pull St. Louis within three points. The Saints were forced to punt with 1:51 remaining, but the return was muffed by WR Az-Zahir Hakim. FB Brian Milne recovered the loose ball to seal the win. Jackson tied an NFL Playoff record with 3 TD catches as part of a six-catch, 142-yard day.

NFC Divisional Playoff (Jan. 6, 2001) - Metrodome (64,900)

The Vikings raced out to a 21-point lead on the way to a 34-16 victory in the NFC Divisional Playoff game at the Metrodome. Minnesota QB Daunte Culpepper found WR Randy Moss for a 53-yard TD pass on the Vikings' opening series. The Saints pulled to 7-3, but Vikings K Gary Anderson hit a 24-yard FG and Culpepper connected with WR Cris Carter for a 17-yard TD to give Minnesota a 17-3 lead at halftime. The Vikings opened the second half with a 68-yard TD pass from Culpepper to Moss. The Saints added a TD pass from QB Aaron Brooks to TE Dave Stachelski to pull to 24-10, but the Vikings' Anderson hit a 44-yard FG and RB Robert Smith scored on a two-yard run for a 34-10 margin. New Orleans scored the game's final points as Brooks found WR Willie Jackson for a 48-yard TD pass with 2:19 left. Saints RB Chad Morton caught a NFL postseason record-tying 13 passes for 106 yards and Jackson added nine grabs for 125 yards.

COMEBACK RUSH

RB Deuce McAllister showed his leadership against Tampa Bay Oct. 10 by coming back from the high ankle sprain he suffered vs. San Francisco (Sept. 19) weeks ahead of time to return to the starting lineup. He ground out 102 yards on 21 carries against the Bucs and had another top performance in the win over the Chiefs, rushing for 127 yards on 16 carries. He added an even 100 Nov. 28 at Atlanta on 23 attempts and had 128 on 29 carries against the Falcons Dec. 26. He finished 2004 by rushing for a seasonhigh 140 yards, including a 71-yard burst, on 28 carries at Carolina Jan. 2 - marking his club-record 22nd 100-yard game. He rushed for a touchdown in four-straight contest (from vs. Vikings, Oct. 17 until vs. Chiefs, Nov. 14), a career-best for consecutive games with a TD, and had six scoring runs during that span.

GRAB BAG

WR Joe Horn is the lone player in club history to have 75 or more grabs for five-consecutive seasons. Horn's 94 catches last season equaled the franchise-best total he first reached in 2000. He is also the only player in team record books with four 1,000-yard receiving seasons. Horn shattered another one of his club records with 1,399 yards last season, topping the 1,340 he had in 2000.

Entering his sixth season with New Orleans. Horn has a current streak of consecutive games with a reception at 93 contests, including the last 79 with the Saints. That is the franchise's second-longest stretch, trailing only WR Eric Martin, who holds the club record with at least one reception in 105 consecutive games (11/1/87 until 1/2/94).

NFLSCHEDUI EROTA

The NFL regular season scheduling rotation for the next seven seasons under the realignment plan that went into effect in 2002:

The interconference and intraconference divisional matchups - 14 of each season's 16 games were determined last year following extensive analysis and discussion with NFL clubs. A key factor in deciding the initial schedules was the displacement of certain teams from their traditional divisions in the new alignment.

The Saints, who teamed with Atlanta, Carolina and Tampa Bay to create the newly-formed NFC South in 2002, play home-and-home with each of their divisional rivals (six games), the four teams from another NFC division on a rotating three-year cycle (four games), the four teams from an AFC division on a rotating four-year cycle (four contests) and two intraconference games based on the prior year's standings (two games against teams in the two NFC divisions the team is not scheduled to play that season. The division champions of each division will play against each other, and the second-, third- and fourth-place teams in a each conference are matched the same way).

The format adopted by the NFL in 2002 has several advantages:

- . There is an increased common-opponent emphasis with every team in a division playing against 14 common opponents.
- · All teams play each other on a regular basis, home and away, for a more consistent presentation of attractive games, eliminating the many schedule aberrations of the past.
- . Teams are guaranteed to play all non-division opponents in their conference at least once every three years and at home at least once every six years.
- · Every NFC team plays every AFC team once every four years and at home once every eight
- · A team's record from the previous year has less of a bearing on its schedule, with only two opponents based on the previous year's standings, rather than the four of the previous system. Thus, the so-called "easy" fifth-place schedules have been eliminated,
- The division that a team is in will be less of a factor in a team's won-loss record with 10-of-16 games each season coming against non-division teams.

Other Tie Breaking Procedures

1. Only 1 club advances to the playoffs in any tiebreaking step. Remaining tied clubs revert to the 1st step of the applicable division or Wild Card tie breakers. As an example, if 2 clubs remain tied in any tie-breaker step after all other clubs have been eliminated, the procedure reverts to step 1 of the 2-club format to determine the winner. When 1 club wins the tie breaker, all other clubs revert to step 1 of the applicable 2-club or 3-club format. 2. În comparing records against common opponents among tied teams, the best won-lost-tied percentage is the deciding factor since teams may have played an unequal number of games. 3. To determine home-field priority among division-titlists, apply Wild Card tie-breakers. 4. To determine home-field priority for Wild Card qualifiers, apply division tie-breakers (if teams are from the same division) or Wild Card tie-breakers (if teams are from different divisions).

SAINTSFACILIT

Since the expansion was completed prior to the 2003 season, the Saints' headquarters have been a top resource for the players and coaching staff, who have access to three full-sized outdoor fields, an indoor field, a renovated locker room, a state-of-the-art weight room and a full-service cafeteria. It's also a boon for the team's fans, who since 2003 have been able to atttend the outdoor practices during the club's month-long training camp in the New Orleans area for the first time.

Because of the unpredictable weather of southeast Louisiana throughout the year, the club has long needed an indoor practice area. That need was filled in 2003 with the completion of one of the league's best facilities. No longer does the club have to regularly bus to alternative locations for practice, and other newly-built structures were included that complete the club's training area. Also on the Saints' 19-acre campus in Metairie is the recently-completed, 12,800 square-foot practice facility that houses the New Orleans VooDoo of the Arena Football League.

At 78 feet high, the indoor practice facility casts a long shadow over the entire property. The covered field is 220 feet wide by 420 feet long and has 6,375,600 cubic feet of air-conditioned space. There are 93,400 feet under roof covered in FieldTurf. A 250-seat cafeteria is connected to the lightning-protected facility, as is a 9,000 square-foot weight room with a cushioned floor. Over 8,000 square feet of maintenance and equipment storage was also added, and there are covered walkways connecting the indoor facility and cafeteria to the existing building. Outside of the VooDoo facility is a new, full-sized outdoor field covered in AstroPlay.

The existing building was also renovated two years ago. The team's locker room was doubled in size, with new lockers installed. A large, open area is in the middle so all lockers are visible for communcation and interaction between the players and coaches. A player's lounge was built, and the existing medical and rehabilitation area was doubled in size. It now includes a treadmill pool facility for injury rehab work. AND DESCRIPTION OF REAL PROPERTY.

Other updated features of the Saints' facility include expansion of the ticket area and additional staff locker rooms. All of the renovated areas have freshly-carpeted floors emblazoned with the Saints' Fleur de Lis logo.

The entire club moved into the training facility at 5800 Airline Drive in Metairie on April 15, 1996, marking the first time in club history that the team's players, coaches and staff were housed under one roof. The first floor is approximately 43,000 square feet and primarily serves the needs of the players. It also consists of a reception area, ticket office, media workroom and storage areas. Two symmetrically laid-out fields behind the building are planted with Bermuda grass and are surrounded by an asphalt, half-mile running track.

A 1,700 square foot auditorium, which sits on the first floor, can seat 110 players for team meetings and can be divided into two rooms. On either side of the auditorium are eight smaller team meeting rooms. Located on the second floor are offices for coaches, player personnel, video and the administrative staff.

SAINTSBROADCASTING

The New Orleans Saints have a number of team-affiliated media outlets, In addition to the weekly games broadcast on a regional radio network, the Saints have partnerships that produce weekly radio and TV programs as well as an Internet homepage.

WWL (870 AM) is the flagship of the Saints Radio Network, and the station extends the weekly action of Saints football throughout the southeast. Jim Henderson handles the play-by play duties, former Saint running back and scout Hokie Gajan provides color commentary for all regular season and playoff contests. Kenny Wilkerson reports from the sidelines. WWL also hosts the Jim Haslett Show and the Front Office Show each week during the season.

WFNO (830 AM) provides Spanish broadcasts of Saints action. Marco Garcia handles the playby-play duties, while Hector Pineda provides the color commentary.

TELEVISION

UPN 54 (WUPL-TV) provides preseason game telecasts to the New Orleans market, including live coverage of all away games and sold-out home preseason games. Home preseason games not sold out 72 hours in advance are televised locally on a taped-delay basis, Tim Brando will handle the play-by-play duties for every contest. For the color commentary, Brando will be teamed with former Saints quarterback Archie Manning and former Eagles quarterback Ron Jaworski. UPN 54 also produces and airs several Saints specials throughout the year, including a post draft special, player specials and a holiday special.

FOX 8 (WVUE-TV) will present "Inside Saints," a weekly show during the season about the team. The program features interviews with players and coaches, a review of the previous week's game and a look ahead to the next opponent. Fox 8 will also produce and air a Training Camp Special.

COX SPORTS TELEVISION also presents a prime-time weekly television show, "Outside the Huddle." Hosted by Ro Brown, the show focuses on the community efforts of Saints' players and personnel, as well as lifestyle features and interviews. In addition, Cox will produce and air a "Making of the Saintsations Calendar Show."

INTERNET

The Saints' official website is the best place to find all of the information about the team on the Internet. Saints news and notes, player features and interviews and ticket and sponsorship information is available here. Fans can also sign up for a free e-newsletter that is distributed weekly, which contains up-to-the-minute updates on the Saints. FREEAGENCY/SALARYCAPQ&A

Q - What are the categories of free agency?

A - Players are either "restricted" or "unrestricted" free agents. Within those categories are also "transition" and "franchise" players.

Q — What is the difference between a restricted free agent and an unrestricted

A - Players become restricted free agents when they complete three accrued seasons and their contract expires. Unrestricted free agents have completed four or more accrued seasons with an expired contract.

0 - What constitutes an "accrued season?"

A - Six or more regular-season games on a club's active/inactive, reserved-injured or "physically unable to perform" lists.

Q - Other than accrued seasons, what determines a restricted free agent?

A — He has received a "qualifying" offer (a salary level predetermined by the Collective Bargaining Agreement between the league and its players) from his old club. He can negotiate with any club through April 15. If the restricted free agent accepts an offer sheet from a new club, his old club can match the offer and retain him because it has the "right of first refusal." If the old club does not match the offer, it can possibly receive draft-choice compensation depending on the amount of its qualifying offer. If an offer sheet is not executed, the player's rights revert to his old club on April 16.

Q — What determines an unrestricted free agent?

A - A player with four or more accrued seasons whose contract has expired. He is free to sign with any club, with no compensation owed to his old club, through July 22 (or the first scheduled day of the first NFL training camp, whichever is later). On July 23, his rights revert to his old club if it made a "tender" offer (110 percent of last year's salary) to him by June 1. His old club then has until the 10th week of the season (November 12) to sign him. If he does not sign by November 12, he must sit out the season. If no tender is offered by June 1, player can be signed by any club anytime throughout the season.

0 — What determines a transition player?

A - His club must offer a minimum of the average of the top 10 salaries of last season at the player's position or 120 percent of the player's previous year's salary, whichever is greater. A transition player designation gives the club a first-refusal right to match within seven days an offer sheet given to the player by another club after his contract expires. If the club matches, it retains the player. If it does not match, it receives no compensation.

Q — What determines a franchise player?

A - A club can designate one franchise player in any given year. The salary level offer by a player's old club determines what type of franchise player he is. An "exclusive" franchise player -- not free to sign with another club - is offered a minimum of the average of the top five salaries at the player's position as of April 15, or 120 percent of the player's previous year's salary, whichever is greater. If the player is offered a minimum of the average of the top five salaries of last season at his position, he becomes a "non-exclusive" franchise player and can negotiate with other clubs. His old club can match a new club's offer, or receive two first-round draft choices if it decides not to match.

Q — Can a club decide to withdraw its franchise or transition designations on a player? If so, can it then use them on other players?

A - A club can withdraw its franchise or transition designations and the player then automatically becomes an unrestricted free agent either immediately or when his contract expires. The club cannot name a new transition player (two were allowed in 1993, one in 1994 and one in the final year of the CBA). It can name a new franchise player the next year. A club can, though, designate a transition player in lieu of a franchise player at any time.

Q — What determines each team's salary cap? Is it always in effect?

A - The salary cap is the absolute maximum each club may spend on player salaries in a capped year. The cap is in effect 365 days a year. From March 1 to the day before the season begins, a club's top 51 salaried players count towards the cap, plus pro-rated signing bonuses, incentives, etc., but not base salaries of other players on the roster up to 80. Thereafter, all salaries on a club's roster count towards the cap.
