* In 2006, the NFL implemented a "flexible scheduling" procedure for Sunday Night Football. Flexible scheduling ensured quality matchups on Sunday night in all weeks and gave surprise teams a chance to play their way onto primetime. For the 2023 season, flexible scheduling will be expanded to include Monday Night Football, as well as Thursday Night Football on a trial basis. Please note that the NFL is continuously reviewing its scheduling procedures to ensure exciting and meaningful games are available for viewing by the largest number of fans and so further changes to flexible scheduling could be implemented in the future.

* Flexible scheduling is in effect during the following windows (the "Flex Scheduling Windows"):

- For Sunday Night Football, it may be used up to twice between Weeks 5-10, and at the NFL's discretion during Weeks 11-17;
- For Monday Night Football, it may be used at the NFL's discretion in Weeks 12-17;
- For Thursday Night Football, it may be used up to twice between Weeks 13-17.

* During the Flex Scheduling Windows, the games initially scheduled for Sunday Night Football (on NBC), Monday Night Football (ESPN or ABC), and Thursday Night Football (Amazon Prime Video) are tentatively scheduled and subject to change. Only Sunday afternoon games (or those listed as TBD) are eligible to be moved to Sunday night, Monday night, or Thursday night, in which case the initially scheduled Sunday, Monday, or Thursday night game would be moved to Sunday afternoon. Sunday afternoon games may also be moved between 1:00 p.m. and 4:05 p.m. or 4:25 p.m. ET.

* During the Flex Scheduling Windows, only Sunday afternoon or TBD games are subject to being moved into the Sunday night, Monday, or Thursday night window. The game that has been tentatively scheduled for Sunday Night Football, Monday Night Football, or Thursday Night Football during the Flex Scheduling Windows will generally be listed at 8:20 p.m. ET, 8:15 p.m. ET, and 8:15 p.m. ET, respectively. The majority of games on Sundays will typically be listed at 1:00 p.m. ET during the Flex Scheduling Windows except for games played in Pacific or Mountain time zones, which will be listed at 4:05 or 4:25 p.m. ET. For Sunday Night Football in Weeks 5-13 and for Monday Night Football in Weeks 12-17, the NFL will decide (after consultation with CBS, FOX, NBC, and ESPN) and announce no later than 12 days in advance of the game, which game will be played on Sunday night and which game will be played on Monday night. For Sunday Night Football in Weeks 14-17, the flexible scheduling decision will generally be made no later than six days prior to the game. For Thursday Night Football in Weeks 13-17, the flexible scheduling decision will be made no later than 28 days prior to the game.

In Week 15, three of five designated matchups will be played on Saturday with the remainder to be determined. Specific dates and start times for the designated Week 15 matchups will be determined and announced at a later date during the season.

^ As in prior seasons, for Week 18, the final weekend of the season, the scheduling of the Saturday, Sunday afternoon, and the Sunday night games is not assigned. The schedule for Week 18 will be announced no later than six days prior to that week's Saturday game (Jan. 6, 2024).

2023 POSTSEASON SCHEDULE & SITE PRIORITIES

Super Wild Card

Weekend

Site Priorities

The No. 1 seed in each conference will receive the only bye. Using NFL tie-breaking procedures, the remaining division champions in each conference will be seeded 2, 3 and 4, followed by the next three teams per conference seeded 5, 6 and 7. Wild Card games will feature the 2 seed hosting the 7 seed, the 3 seed hosting the 6 seed and the 4 seed hosting the 5 seed. There are no restrictions on intra-division games.

FUTURE OPPONENTS

Under the NFL scheduling formula, every team plays 17 games as follows:

- Home and away against its three division opponents (six games).
- The four teams from another division within its conference on a rotating, three-year cycle (four games).
- The four teams from a division in the other conference on a rotating, four-year cycle (four games).
- Two intraconference opponents based on the prior year's standings (two games). These games match a first-place team against the first-place teams in the two same-conference divisions the team is not scheduled to play that season. The second-place, third-place and fourth-place teams in a conference are matched in the same way each year.
- One interconference opponent based on the prior year's standings on a rotating four-year cycle (one game). These games match a first-place team from one division against a first-place team in an opposite-conference division that the team is not scheduled to play that season. The second-place, third-place and fourth-place teams in each division are matched in the same way each year. The home conference for this game will rotate.

IMPORTANT DATES, 2023-24

JUNE

- June 1 Deadline for Prior Club to send "June 1 Tender" to its unsigned Restricted Free Agents who received a Qualifying Offer for a Right of First Refusal Only in order for such player to be subject to the CBA's "June 15 Tender" provision.
- June 2 For any player removed from the Club's roster or whose contract is assigned via waivers or trade on or after June 2, any unamortized Signing Bonus amounts for future years will be included fully in Team Salary at the start of the 2024 League Year.
- June 15 Deadline for Club to withdraw higher Qualifying Offer to Restricted Free Agents and still retain exclusive negotiating rights by substituting lower "June 15 Tender" of one-year contract at 110 percent of the player's prior-year Paragraph 5 Salary (with all other terms of his prior-year contract carried forward unchanged).
- Late June Rookie Readiness Program to be held at individual Clubs.

JULY

- July 17+ At 4:00 p.m., New York time, deadline for any Club that designated a Franchise Player to sign such player to a multiyear contract or extension. After this date, the player may sign only a one-year contract with his Prior Club for the 2023 season, and such contract cannot be extended until after the Club's last regular season game (+ — date adjusted to July 17 because July 15 occurs on a weekend in 2023).

Beginning on July 17+, or on the first day any Club begins its training camp, whichever is earlier, and concluding at 4:00 p.m., New York time, on the day of the roster reduction to 53 players, players in the Reserve List categories of Drafted: Unsigned, Exclusive Rights, First Refusal Rights, Unrestricted Free Agents with an individually negotiated Right of First Refusal, Franchise, and Transition will not count against the overall 90-player limit (+ — date adjusted to July 17 because July 15 occurs on a weekend in 2023).

- Mid-July Clubs are permitted to open preseason training camp for Rookies (defined as a player who has never signed a Player Contract with an NFL Club in a prior League Year) beginning seven days prior to the Club's mandatory reporting date for Veteran players. A Club's preseason training camp will be deemed to have officially opened on the designated reporting date for all Rookies.

Clubs may require First-Year Players (defined as a player who signed a Player Contract with any NFL Club in a prior League Year, but who does not have a pension-credited season) to report on the designated reporting date for all Rookies, or at any time thereafter, including, but not limited to, the designated reporting date for Veteran quarterbacks and injured players, or the designated reporting date for all other Veteran players.

- Mid-July Veteran quarterbacks and "injured players" (as defined in CBA Article 21, Section 6) may be required to report to the Club's preseason training camp no earlier than five days immediately prior to the mandatory reporting date for all other Veteran players, provided the Club has already opened (or simultaneously opens) its official preseason training camp for all Rookies.

Beginning on the date that the first training camp opens for Rookies through the last business day prior to the Super Bowl, all tryouts and visits will be reported to Clubs on the Personnel Notice.

- July 24+ At 4:00 p.m., New York time, Signing Period ends for Transition Players with outstanding tenders. After this date and until 4:00 p.m., New York time, on the Tuesday following the 10th weekend of the regular season, Prior Club has exclusive negotiating rights (+ — date adjusted to July 24 because July 22 occurs on a weekend in 2023).

At 4:00 p.m., New York time, on July 22 (or the first scheduled day of the first NFL training camp [July 19 in 2023], whichever is later) signing period ends for Unrestricted Free Agents to whom a "UFA Tender" was made by Prior Club. After this date and until 4:00 p.m., New York time, on the Tuesday following the 10th weekend of the regular season, Prior Club has exclusive negotiating rights.

AUGUST

- Aug. 1 Deadline for all Clubs to conduct physical examinations pursuant to CBA Article 45, Section 2(c) to determine a player's eligibility for the 2023 IP Benefit.

- Aug. 3 NFL/Hall of Fame Game, Cleveland Browns vs. New York Jets (Tom Benson Stadium; Canton, Ohio).

- Aug. 3-6 Hall of Fame Weekend (Canton, Ohio).

- Aug. 8 If a Drafted Rookie has not signed with his Club by this date, he cannot be traded to any other Club in 2023 and may sign a Player Contract only with the drafting Club until the day of the Draft in the 2024 League Year.

- Aug. 10-13 First Preseason Weekend.

- Aug. 12-16 Each Club has until five days prior to its second preseason game to provide any tendered but unsigned Exclusive Rights Player or Restricted Free Agent with written notice of the Club's intent to place the player on the Exempt List if the player fails to report at least the day before the Club's second preseason game. Such notice must also be sent to the NFLPA.

Once such notice has been provided, the Club must place the player on the Exempt List. While on the Exempt List, the player will not be entitled to compensation for up to three regular-season games, depending upon the date the player reports to the Club.

Any such player who fails to report prior to the deadline will be ineligible to play or receive compensation for at least three games (preseason or regular season) from the time that he reports.

- Aug. 24-27 Final Preseason Weekend.

- Aug. 29 Prior to 4:00 p.m., New York time, Clubs must reduce rosters to a maximum of 53 players on the Active/Inactive List.

Can become the first quarterback ever with a passer rating of 95-or-higher in each of his first six regular-season starts.

JAMES ROBINSON, New England, needs five scrimmage touchdowns to become the first undrafted player in the common-draft era to reach the mark in each of his first four seasons.

CHRISTIAN MCCAFFREY, San Francisco, can become the fourth running back ever with four career seasons with 1,000 rushing yards and 500 receiving yards, joining Marshall Faulk (five), Tiki Barber (four) and Thurman Thomas (four). McCaffrey accomplished the feat in 2018, 2019 and 2022. McCaffrey also:

Needs 80 receptions to join Marshall Faulk as the only running backs in NFL history with five such career seasons. McCaffrey and Alvin Kamara each have reached 80 in four career seasons.

Needs 42 receptions to surpass Roger Craig (483) for the most by a running back in his first seven seasons. McCaffrey has 442 career.

Needs 244 receiving yards to become the third running back to reach 4,000 within his first seven seasons, joining Marshall Faulk (4,682) and Roger Craig (4,241). McCaffrey has 3,756 career.

Needs five touchdown receptions to become the first running back to reach the mark in four seasons during a career. McCaffrey, Austin

TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURES

The following procedures will be used to break standings ties for postseason playoffs and to determine regular-season schedules.

Note: Tie games count as one-half win and one-half loss for both clubs.

TO BREAK A TIE WITHIN A DIVISION

If, at the end of the regular season, two or more clubs in the same division finish with the best won-lost-tied percentage, the following steps will be taken until a champion is determined:

TWO CLUBS

1. Head-to-head (best won-lost-tied percentage in games between the clubs).
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the division.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games.
4. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
5. Strength of victory in all games.
6. Strength of schedule in all games.
7. Best combined ranking among conference teams in points scored and points allowed in all games.
8. Best combined ranking among all teams in points scored and points allowed in all games.
9. Best net points in common games.
10. Best net points in all games.
11. Best net touchdowns in all games.
12. Coin toss.

THREE-OR-MORE CLUBS

(Note: If two clubs remain tied after one-or-more clubs are eliminated during any step, tiebreaker restarts at Step 1 of two-club format. If three clubs remain tied after a fourth club is eliminated during any step, tiebreaker restarts at Step 1 of three-club format.)

1. Head-to-head (best won-lost-tied percentage in games among the clubs).
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the division.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games.
4. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
5. Strength of victory in all games.
6. Strength of schedule in all games.
7. Best combined ranking among conference teams in points scored and points allowed in all games.
8. Best combined ranking among all teams in points scored and points allowed in all games.
9. Best net points in common games.
10. Best net points in all games.
11. Best net touchdowns in all games.
12. Coin toss.

TO BREAK A TIE FOR THE WILD CARD TEAM

If necessary to break ties to determine the three Wild Card clubs from each conference, the following steps will be taken:

- A. If all the tied clubs are from the same division, apply division tiebreaker.
- B. If the tied clubs are from different divisions, apply the following steps:

TWO CLUBS

1. Head-to-head, if applicable.
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, minimum of four.
4. Strength of victory in all games.
5. Strength of schedule in all games.
6. Best combined ranking among conference teams in points scored and points allowed in all games.
7. Best combined ranking among all teams in points scored and points allowed in all games.
8. Best net points in conference games.
9. Best net points in all games.
10. Best net touchdowns in all games.
11. Coin toss.

THREE-OR-MORE CLUBS

(Note: If two clubs remain tied after one-or-more clubs are eliminated during any step, tiebreaker restarts at Step 1 of two-club format. If three clubs remain tied after a fourth club is eliminated during any step, tiebreaker restarts at Step 2 of three-club format.)

1. Apply division tiebreaker to eliminate all but highest-ranked club in each division prior to proceeding to Step 2. The original seeding within a division upon application of the division tiebreaker remains the same for all subsequent applications of the procedure that are necessary to identify the two Wild Card participants.
2. Head-to-head sweep (apply only if one has defeated each of the others, or one club has lost to each of the others).
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
4. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, minimum of four.
5. Strength of victory in all games.
6. Strength of schedule in all games.
7. Best combined ranking among conference teams in points scored and points allowed in all games.
8. Best combined ranking among all teams in points scored and points allowed in all games.

TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURES

9. Best net points in conference games.
10. Best net points in all games.
11. Best net touchdowns in all games.
12. Coin toss.

When the first Wild Card team has been identified, the procedure is repeated to name the second and third Wild Card (i.e., eliminate all but the highest-ranked club in each division prior to proceeding to Step 2). In situations in which three teams from the same division are involved in the procedure, the original seeding of the teams remains the same for subsequent applications of the tiebreaker if the top-ranked team in that division qualifies for a Wild Card berth.

OTHER TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURES

1. Only one club advances to the playoffs in any tie-breaking step. Remaining tied clubs revert to the first step of the applicable division or Wild Card tiebreakers. As an example, if two clubs remain tied in any tiebreaker step after all other clubs have been eliminated, the procedure reverts to Step 1 of the two-club format to determine the winner. When one club wins the tiebreaker, all other clubs revert to Step 1 of the applicable two-club or three-club format.
2. In comparing records against common opponents among tied teams, the best won-lost-tied percentage is the deciding factor since teams may have played an unequal number of games.
3. To determine home-field priority among division winners, apply Wild Card tiebreakers.
4. To determine home-field priority for Wild Card qualifiers, apply division tiebreakers (if teams are from the same division) or Wild Card tiebreakers (if teams are from different divisions).
5. To determine the best combined ranking among conference teams in points scored and points allowed, add a team's position in the two categories, and the lowest score wins. For example, if Team A is first in points scored and second in points allowed, its combined ranking is "3." If Team B is third in points scored and first in points allowed, its combined ranking is "4." Team A then wins the tiebreaker. If two teams are tied for a position, both teams are awarded the ranking as if they held it solely. For example, if Team A and Team B are tied for first in points scored, each team is assigned a ranking of "1" in that category, and if Team C is third, its ranking will still be "3."

TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURE FOR SELECTION MEETING

1. Clubs not participating in the playoffs shall select in the first through 18th positions in reverse-standings order.
2. Clubs participating in the playoffs shall select according to the following procedures:
 - (A) The losers of the Wild Card games shall select in the 19th through 24th positions based on won-loss-tied percentage in reverse-standings order.
 - (B) The losers of the Divisional playoff games shall select in the 25th through 28th positions based on won-loss-tied percentage in reverse-standings order.
 - (C) The losers of the Conference Championship Games shall select 29th and 30th based on won-loss-tied percentage in reverse-standings order.
 - (D) The winner of the Super Bowl game shall select last and the Super Bowl loser will select next-to-last.
3. If ties exist in any grouping, such ties shall be broken by figuring the aggregate won-lost-tied percentage of each involved club's regular-season opponents and awarding preferential selection order to the club that faced the schedule of teams with the lowest aggregate won-lost-tied percentage.
4. If ties still exist, apply the Divisional, Conference or Interconference tie-breaking methods, whichever is applicable.
 - (A) For Divisional or Conference ties, use the procedures on the previous page.
 - (B) For Interconference ties, use the following procedures:
 - (i) Ties involving TWO teams from different conferences will be broken by (a) head-to-head meeting; (b) best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, minimum of four; (c) strength of victory in all games; (d) best combined ranking among all teams in points scored and points allowed in all games; (e) best net points in all games; (f) best net touchdowns in all games; and finally (g) coin toss.
 - (ii) Ties involving THREE-OR-MORE clubs from different conferences will be broken by applying (a) divisional tiebreakers to determine the lowest-ranked team in a division, (b) conference tiebreakers to determine the lowest-ranked team within a conference, and (c) interconference tiebreakers to determine the lowest-ranked team in the league. The process will be repeated until the draft order has been established.

After the selection order for the first round of the draft has been determined, clubs originally involved in two-club ties will alternate positions from round to round. In the cases of ties that originally involved three-or-more clubs, the club at the top of a tied segment in a given round will move to the bottom of the segment for the next round, while all other clubs in the segment move up one place. This rotation will continue throughout the draft.

INSTANT REPLAY

The NFL uses a system of Instant Replay Review to aid officiating. The following procedures will be used:

Coach Challenges: In each game, a team will be permitted two challenges that will initiate Instant Replay reviews. The Head Coach can initiate a challenge by throwing a red flag onto the field of play before the next legal snap or kick. Each challenge requires an available team timeout. A team that is out of timeouts, or has used all its available challenges, may not attempt to initiate a challenge. If a challenge is unsuccessful, the team will be charged a timeout. If a team is successful on both of its challenges, it is allowed a third challenge, but a fourth challenge will not be permitted.

The Head Coach may challenge on-field rulings identified in the Reviewable Plays section below, except for those plays that only the Replay Official can challenge. If a team initiates a challenge when it is not permitted to do so, it will be charged a timeout. The penalty for initiating a challenge when a team has exhausted its timeouts is a loss of 15 yards.

Replay Official Request for Review: Only the Replay Official or the Senior Vice President of Officiating or his or her designee may challenge a play that 1) begins after the two-minute warning of each half, 2) happens throughout any over-time period, 3) happens when points are scored by either team, 4) is a Try attempt (successful or unsuccessful), or 5) in which the final on-field ruling includes:

- An interception by an opponent;
- A fumble or backward pass recovered by an opponent or that goes out of bounds through the opponent's end zone;
- A possession by the kicking team at the end of any free kick or scrimmage kick down;
- A play in which the offense failed to reach the line to gain on fourth down; or
- A disqualification of a player.

Such plays can be challenged only by the Replay Official or the Senior Vice President of Officiating or his or her designee, including when a foul is committed on the play that, if accepted, would negate the on-field ruling.

There is no limit to the number of Replay Reviews that may be initiated by the Replay Official. The Replay Official may only challenge a play until the next legal snap or kick.

Replay Reviews: All Replay Reviews will be conducted by the Senior Vice President of Officiating or his or her designee. Reviews are conducted in consultation with the Replay Official and the Referee, who will have access to a field-level video monitor. An on-field ruling will be changed only when the Senior Vice President of Officiating or his or her designee determines that clear and obvious video evidence warrants a change.

A replay-review decision must be made within 60 seconds from when video is sent to the hand-held, field-level device.

All reviewable aspects of the play may be examined and are subject to reversal, even if not identified in a coach's challenge or if not the specific reason for a Replay Official's request for review.

Reviewable Plays: The Replay System will cover the following play situations:

- A. Plays involving possession.
- B. Plays involving touching of either the ball or the ground.
- C. Plays governed by the goal line.
- D. Plays governed by the boundary lines.
- E. Plays governed by the line of scrimmage.
- F. Plays governed by the line to gain.
- G. Number of players on the field, even when a foul is not called.
- H. Game administration:
 - a. Penalty enforcement.
 - b. Proper down.
 - c. Spot of a foul.
 - d. Status of the game clock.
- I. Disqualification of a player for football and non-football acts.
- J. Other reviewable plays:
 - a. Direction of a pass.
 - b. Illegal forward pass.
 - c. Field goal or Try attempt.
 - d. Illegal forward handoff.
 - e. Ball touching a foreign object.

When the on-field ruling results in a dead ball (e.g., score, down by contact, incomplete pass, etc.), and following replay review, it is determined that possession was lost before the ball should have been ruled dead, possession can be awarded to a player who clearly recovers a loose ball in the immediate continuing action. When the on-field ruling is an incomplete pass and there is no clear recovery, the ball will be awarded to the team last in possession at the spot where it lost possession. A loose ball that touches out of bounds is deemed a clear recovery by the player who last possessed the ball. A preliminary ruling by on-field officials of which team recovered the ball can also constitute a clear recovery.

When a ruling is changed in replay, the game clock will be reset to the time when the ball should have been declared dead and the clock status is determined by rule. The game clock is not reset if the on-field ruling is not changed in replay.

When a changed ruling after the two-minute warning results in a game clock that would start before the snap, the clock is reset to the time when the play should have ended, and the clock will run for 10 seconds from the reset time. If less than 10 seconds remain in the half or the game, the half or the game is over. Either team may use a team timeout to avoid the 10-second runoff.

INSTANT REPLAY

INSTANT REPLAY HISTORY

From 1986-91, a limited system of Instant Replay was used on a year-by-year basis. Replay also was experimented with during the 1996 and 1998 preseasons.

For the 1999 season, the NFL introduced a system of Referee Replay Review to aid officiating. That system was extended on a one-year basis for the 2000 season and then approved for the next three years through 2003. The system was extended on a five-year basis in March 2004 and was later installed permanently in March 2007.

Following are the results of the different systems:

WAIVER & PERSONNEL INFORMATION

WAIVERS

The waiver system is a procedure by which player contracts or NFL rights to players are made available by a club to other clubs in the league. During the procedure, the 31 other clubs either file claims to obtain the players or waive the opportunity to do so—thus the term “waiver.” Claiming clubs are assigned players on a priority based on the inverse of won-and-lost standing. The claiming period is 24 hours from the first business day after the Super Bowl through the conclusion of the regular season. If a player passes through waivers unclaimed, he becomes a free agent. All waivers are no recall and no withdrawal. Under the Collective Bargaining Agreement, from the beginning of the waiver system each year through the trading deadline, any veteran who has acquired four years of pension credit is not subject to the waiver system if the club desires to release him. After the trading deadline, such players are subject to the waiver system.

ACTIVE/INACTIVE LIST

The Active/Inactive List is the principal status for players participating for a club. It consists of all players under contract who are eligible for preseason, regular-season and postseason games. Clubs are permitted to open training camp with no more than 90 players under contract and thereafter must meet a mandatory roster reduction prior to the season-opener. Clubs will be permitted an Active List of 47 players (or 48 players if teams carry eight offensive linemen) and an Inactive List of five or six players to complete their 53-player rosters for each regular-season and postseason game. A club that does not carry three quarterbacks on its 47/48-player Active List is permitted to designate one quarterback from its Inactive List as its emergency Third Quarterback. A Third Quarterback can be activated during a game if the club's first two quarterbacks are disqualified, injured or undergoing a medical examination. In addition, each club is permitted to elevate two players from its Practice Squad each week to increase its roster to 54 or 55 players. An emergency Third Quarterback may not be an elevated Practice Squad player.

PRACTICE SQUAD

Clubs are permitted to establish Practice Squads of up to 16 players who are eligible to participate in practice, but these players remain free agents and are eligible to sign with any other team.

PRESEASON ROSTER DATES, 2023

Aug. 29	Roster reduction to 53 players
Aug. 30	Teams establish practice squads

In addition to the squad limits described above, the overall roster limit of 90 players remains in effect throughout the regular season and postseason. The overall limit is applicable to players on a team's Active, Inactive and certain exempt lists, players on the Practice Squad, and players on the Reserve List as Injured, Physically Unable to Perform, Non-Football Illness/Injury, and Suspended by Club.

RESERVE LIST

The Reserve List is a status for players who, for reasons of injury, retirement, military service, or other circumstances, are not immediately available for participation with a club. Except for eight players who must be Designated for Return, players on Reserve/Injured are not eligible to practice or return to the Active/Inactive List in the same season that they are placed on Reserve. Players in the category of Reserve/Retired, Reserve/Did Not Report or Reserve/Exclusive Rights, and players who were placed in the category of Reserve/Left Squad in a previous season, may not be reinstated after a club's Week 13 game. No reinstatement may occur in the last five weeks of the regular season through the postseason.

2023 COACHING STAFF

John Harbaugh, Head Coach

Pro Career: Super Bowl-winning head coach John Harbaugh enters his 16th season at the helm in Baltimore. He has led the Ravens to a playoff berth in 10 (2008-12, 2014, 2018-20, 2022) of his 15 full seasons, and in 2012, captured the franchise's second Super Bowl championship. Under Harbaugh's guidance, Baltimore is one of five teams with at least 10 playoff berths in the past 15 seasons, joining New England (12), Green Bay (11), Kansas City (10) and Seattle (10). Harbaugh has also led the Ravens to playoff berths in four (2018-20, 2022) of the past five seasons, producing the league's third-most regular-season victories (53, tied with Buffalo and Green Bay) during that span. In 2019, Harbaugh became the first Ravens coach to win Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year, leading the Ravens to the AFC's No. 1 playoff seed and a franchise-best 14-2 record. Baltimore also won a franchise-record 12-straight games to close out the regular season. In 2018, Baltimore (10-6) captured the AFC North Division title, earning a Wild Card berth. In 2014, the Ravens posted a 10-6 record en route to capturing a 30-17 victory at Pittsburgh in the Wild Card round. In 2012 the Ravens seized the franchise's second Super Bowl championship. Baltimore topped the Colts in the Wild Card round and followed that by earning a Divisional Round victory over top-seeded Denver before advancing to Super Bowl XLVII with a win in the AFC Championship Game at New England. In the Super Bowl in New Orleans, the Ravens bested the San Francisco 49ers, 34-31. In his initial season with the team (2008), Harbaugh led Baltimore to an 11-5 record and a berth in the AFC Championship Game. Baltimore set an NFL record that season for most total wins (13) by a team with both a rookie head coach and a rookie starting quarterback (Joe Flacco). Harbaugh spent his first 10 NFL seasons (1998-2007) with the Philadelphia Eagles. He was the team's secondary coach in 2007, after nine seasons as its special teams coordinator. In 2001, he was voted the NFL's Special Teams Coach of the Year by his peers. Career record: 158-104.

Background: Played defensive back at Miami (Ohio) from 1980-83, earning a degree in political science. Coached collegiately at Western Michigan (1984-86), Pittsburgh (1987), Morehead State (1988), Cincinnati (1989-1996), and Indiana (1997).

Personal: Born in Perrysburg, Ohio, on Sept. 23, 1962, Harbaugh and his wife, Ingrid, have a daughter, Alison. Son of longtime college coach Jack. His brother, Jim, head coach at Michigan, played for the Ravens in 1998. John's brother-in-law, Tom Crean, a longtime college head basketball coach, is married to the brothers' sister, Joani.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2023 COACHING STAFF

Sean McDermott, Head Coach

Pro Career: McDermott was named Buffalo's 19th head coach on Jan. 11, 2017. He enters his seventh season as Buffalo's head coach and his 25th season in the NFL ranks. McDermott joined the Bills after spending six seasons as the defensive coordinator of the Carolina Panthers. In his first year in Buffalo, McDermott led the Bills to their first playoff berth since 1999 with a 9-7 record. He became the third coach in Bills history to earn a playoff berth in his first season at the helm, joining Joe Collier (1966) and Wade Phillips (1998). The 2017 Bills also won six home games for the first time since 1999. In his second year in Buffalo, McDermott led the Bills to the NFL's second-ranked defense. McDermott led the Bills back to the playoffs in 2019, as the team recorded its first 10-win season since 1999. In 2020, he led the Bills to the AFC Championship Game for the first time since 1994. Career record: 66-40.

Background: An all-Atlantic 10 Conference choice at safety for William & Mary as a senior in 1997, McDermott graduated with a degree in finance and began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater in 1998. No pro playing experience.

Personal: Born March 21, 1974. He and his wife, Jamie, have three children.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform

2023 COACHING STAFF

Zac Taylor, Head Coach

Pro Career: Zac Taylor is in his fifth season as head coach of the Cincinnati Bengals, after being named the 10th head coach in team history on Feb. 4, 2019. In 2022, his fourth season as head coach, Taylor guided the Bengals to team records in regular-season wins (12) and consecutive wins (eight) on the way to capturing their second consecutive AFC North Division title. He led Cincinnati to a 10-7 record, an AFC North title, AFC conference championship and berth in Super Bowl LVI in the 2021 season. Taylor came to Cincinnati after two seasons with the L.A. Rams, where he served as assistant wide receivers coach in 2017 and quarterbacks coach in '18. With Taylor on staff, the Rams won the NFC West in 2018 and advanced to Super Bowl LIII. Taylor broke into NFL coaching in 2012 with the Dolphins as assistant quarterbacks coach. He was elevated to quarterbacks coach from 2013-15. He spent the final five games of 2015 as the Dolphins' interim offensive coordinator and primary play caller. Career record: 33-38-1.

Background: Taylor played quarterback at Wake Forest (2002-03), Butler County (Kan.) CC (2004) and Nebraska (2005-06). As a senior in 2006, Taylor was named Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year after passing for 3,197 yards and leading the Cornhuskers to a 9-3 record, an appearance in the Big 12 Championship Game and a berth in the Cotton Bowl. He was inducted into the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame in 2017. He joined the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as a college free agent in 2007, but was waived prior to the start of training camp. Later that year, he joined the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League, where he spent one season (did not play). Taylor coached collegiately at Texas A&M (2008-11) and Cincinnati (2016). Personal: Taylor was born on May 10, 1983, in Norman, Okla. He earned a bachelor's degree in communication studies from Nebraska in 2006. He and his wife, Sarah, have four children — Brooks, Luke, Emma Claire and Milly. Sarah Taylor is the daughter of former Green Bay Packers and Texas A&M head coach Mike Sherman. Taylor's father, Sherwood, was a defensive back and captain at Oklahoma (1976-79). Sherwood Taylor later served as an assistant coach at Oklahoma and Kansas State. Taylor's brother, Press, played quarterback at Marshall and is currently the offensive coordinator for the Jacksonville Jaguars.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2023 COACHING STAFF

Kevin Stefanski, Head Coach

Pro Career: The 2020 NFL Coach of the Year, Kevin Stefanski enters his fourth season as the Cleveland Browns head coach after being named the 18th full-time head coach in franchise history by Managing and Principal Partners Dee and Jimmy Haslam on Jan. 13, 2020. Stefanski spent 14 seasons (2006-19) with the Minnesota Vikings and moved up the coaching ladder from assistant to the head coach to offensive coordinator. In his first season with the Browns, Stefanski led the team to its first playoff appearance since 2002 and first playoff victory in 26 years. He notched the most wins (11) by a first-year Browns head coach since Hall of Famer Paul Brown had 12 in the team's inaugural season in 1946. Stefanski's 11 regular-season wins were the most by any first-year head coach in 2020 and marked just the 11th time since 1970 a first-year coach had won 11 or more games. He gained his first league experience with the Vikings in 2006 as an assistant to the head coach before transitioning to assistant quarterbacks coach from 2009-13. He also spent two seasons tutoring the tight ends (2014-15), one season as running backs coach (2016), two seasons guiding the quarterbacks (2017-18) and added the role of interim offensive coordinator for the remaining three games of the 2018 season. The Vikings promoted him to offensive coordinator in 2019. Career record: 27-25.

Background: Stefanski played defensive back at Pennsylvania (2000-04) and earned a bachelor's degree in communications.

Personal: Born April 8, 1982, Stefanski is a native of Philadelphia, Pa. He and his wife, Michelle, have two sons, Will and Gabe, and one daughter, Juliet.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2023 COACHING STAFF

Sean Payton, Head Coach

Pro Career: Sean Payton enters his first season with the Denver Broncos after being named the 20th head coach in franchise history on Feb. 3, 2023. A 34-year coaching veteran with 24 seasons of NFL experience, Payton joins the Broncos after spending 15 years as New Orleans' head coach (2006-11, '13-21). While with the Saints, Payton accumulated a regular-season record of 152-89-0 and a 9-8 record in the playoffs. He also led the franchise to its first Super Bowl championship (Super Bowl XLIV) during the 2009 season along with making two NFC Championship Game appearances, winning seven NFC South Division titles and making nine playoff trips. With New Orleans, Payton helped lead an offense that ranked in the top 10 in each season from 2006-19. In his first season with the Saints in 2006, he received unanimous NFL Coach of the Year honors after leading the team to a 10-6 record. Prior to joining New Orleans, he spent three years on the Dallas Cowboys staff as assistant to the head coach & quarterbacks coach (2003-05). Payton got his first NFL offensive coordinator position with the New York Giants (2000-02) after spending one season as the team's quarterbacks coach (1999). He first entered the NFL with the Philadelphia Eagles as their quarterbacks coach (1997-98). Career record: 161-97-0.

Background: Attended Eastern Illinois (1983-86). Coached collegiately at Illinois (1996), Miami (Ohio) (1994-95), San Diego State (1988-89; '92-93) and Indiana State (1990-91). Had brief playing stops with the Chicago Bruins (AFL), Ottawa Rough Riders (CFL) and Chicago Bears in 1987.

Personal: Born Dec. 29, 1963, in San Mateo, Calif. Payton is married to Skyline. He has one daughter, Meghan, and one son, Connor.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2023 COACHING STAFF

DeMeco Ryans, Head Coach

Pro Career: DeMeco Ryans was named the head coach of the Houston Texans on Jan. 31, 2023, becoming the sixth head coach in franchise history. Ryans served as the defensive coordinator for the San Francisco 49ers from 2021-22. Ryans owns six years of NFL experience, all with the 49ers. Ryans was named the 2022 Pro Football Writers of America Assistant Coach of the Year. Ryans helped lead the 49ers to the NFC Championship Game in both 2021 and 2022. He spent the previous three seasons (2018-20) as the team's inside linebackers coach and defensive quality control coach in 2017. As the defensive coordinator, his 2022 defense ranked first in total defense (300.6 yards/game), fewest points allowed (277) and fewest points allowed per game (16.3). San Francisco's defense allowed just 37 red-zone trips, fewest in the league. The 49ers also limited explosive plays, allowing the fewest plays of 10-or-more yards (168), while holding opponents to the fourth-fewest yards per play overall (4.98). Additionally, San Francisco allowed the second-fewest first downs (291) and first-down yards (4.69 yards) on the season. The defense added 20 interceptions, tied for the most in the NFL. Ryans guided a San Francisco defense that forced three-and-outs on 27.3 percent of their opportunities, fourth-highest in the NFL, while registering 44.0 sacks, tied for 10th in the league. In his first season as defensive coordinator in 2021, the 49ers defense allowed 310.0 total yards per game, ranking third in the NFL. San Francisco also surrendered the sixth-fewest passing yards per game (206.5). The 49ers saw eight players record an interception on the season, while forcing 22 fumbles, most in the NFL and most in a single season by the 49ers since 1994. In 2020, Ryans helped the defense rank fifth in total yards allowed per game (359.0) and seventh in rush defense (118.9). The previous year, Ryans helped guide San Francisco's second-ranked defense in total yards allowed per game (281.8), the fewest total yards allowed per game by the team since 1997 (250.8). The 49ers defense also ranked first in the NFL in forced fumbles (21) and sixth in takeaways (27).

Background: Originally selected in the second round (33rd overall) by the Houston Texans in the 2006 NFL Draft, Ryans played for Houston (2006-11) and the Philadelphia Eagles (2012-15). A 2011 Texans team captain for a squad that claimed the franchise's inaugural AFC South title and playoff berth, Ryans holds the Texans record for the most tackles by a rookie (156) and currently sits as the second-leading tackler in franchise history (636). During his 10-year playing career, Ryans was named AP Defensive Rookie of the Year and PFWA Rookie of the Year in 2006, first-team All-Pro in 2007 and was selected to the Pro Bowl in 2007 and 2009. He appeared in 140 career games (139 starts) and registered 970 tackles, 46 passes defended, 13.5 sacks, seven forced fumbles, 10 fumble recoveries and seven interceptions. Ryans played linebacker at Alabama (2002-05). An All-America selection as a senior, he was also SEC Defensive Player of the Year and earned first-team

All-SEC honors in 2005. Ryans also was selected as the 2005 Lott Trophy recipient for his combination of athletic excellence and off-field achievements and earned defensive MVP honors in the 2006 Cotton Bowl.

Personal: Born July 28, 1984, in Bessemer, Ala. He and his wife, Jamila, have one daughter, Xia, and two sons, MJ and Micah.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2023 COACHING STAFF

Shane Steichen, Head Coach

Pro Career: Shane Steichen was hired as head coach of the Indianapolis Colts on Feb. 14, 2023. He has 13 years of coaching experience, including the last 12 seasons in the NFL. Steichen served as the offensive coordinator of the Philadelphia Eagles the last two seasons and helped the team reach Super Bowl LVII in 2022. During his two seasons as offensive coordinator, he coordinated an offense that ranked first in the NFL in rushing yards per game (153.6), rushing yards (5,224) and rushing touchdowns (57) over that time frame. Philadelphia also ranked tied for first in fewest interceptions (19) and third in fourth-down conversion percentage (58.92). Additionally, the Eagles offense set single-season franchise records in third-down conversion percentage in back-to-back seasons. In 2022, Steichen guided a Philadelphia offense that finished in the top 10 in numerous categories, including yards per game (389.1 – third), points per game (28.1 – third), rushing yards per game (147.6 – fifth), passing yards per game (241.5 – ninth), fewest turnovers (19 – tied-fifth), first downs per game (22.6 – third), third-down percentage (franchise-record 45.95 – fourth), fourth-down percentage (68.75 – fourth), red-zone percentage (67.80 – third), goal-to-go percentage (82.35 – fifth), points scored on their first offensive possession (62 – first) and plays of 10+ yards (253 – second). The Eagles were one of just two teams to finish in the top 10 in rushing yards per game and passing yards per game. Philadelphia led the NFL with eight total Pro Bowl selections in 2022, including six on offense (A.J. Brown, Landon Dickerson, Jalen Hurts, Lane Johnson, Jason Kelce and Miles Sanders). Additionally, Johnson (first-team), Kelce (first-team), Brown (second-team) and Hurts (second-team) each earned Associated Press All-Pro honors. In his first season with the Eagles, Steichen orchestrated the NFL's most productive rushing offense, as Philadelphia led the league with a franchise-record 2,715 rushing yards. The Eagles ranked fourth in third-down percentage (then-team-record 45.7), eighth in red-zone percentage (62.3) and fifth in fewest turnovers (16). Prior to Philadelphia, Steichen spent seven seasons (2014-20) with the Los Angeles/San Diego Chargers where he served as offensive coordinator (2020), interim offensive coordinator (2019), quarterbacks coach (2016-19) and offensive quality control/wide receivers (2014-15). The Chargers offense finished in the top 10 in passing yards per game in each of his seven years on the offensive staff, including the league's best in 2017. In 2013, Steichen assisted the quarterbacks as an offensive quality control coach with the Cleveland Browns. He began his NFL career as a defensive assistant with the Chargers (2011-12) after spending one season as a full-time offensive assistant at Louisville (2010). Steichen also served as an offensive graduate assistant (2008-09) and student graduate assistant (2007) at his alma mater, Nevada-Las Vegas.

Background: A four-year letterman (2003-06) at quarterback for the Rebels, Steichen left as the school's 12th all-time leading passer with 2,755 yards and 22 touchdowns. He also registered 399 rushing yards and five touchdowns.

Personal: A native of Sacramento, Calif., Steichen was born on May 11, 1985. He and his wife, Nina, have a son, Hudson, and a daughter, Stella.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS

Doug Pederson, Head Coach

Pro Career: Two-time Super Bowl champion Doug Pederson was named the eighth head coach in Jaguars history on Feb. 3, 2022. In 2022, he led the Jaguars to a 9-8 regular-season record, an AFC South title and a playoff win. Pederson joined the Jaguars after spending five seasons as the head coach (2016-20) of the Philadelphia Eagles, compiling a 46-39-1 record during the regular season and postseason. During his time in Philadelphia, the Eagles made the playoffs in three consecutive seasons (2017-19) and won two NFC East titles (2017 and 2019). In 2017, Pederson led the Eagles to their first-ever Super Bowl Championship in Super Bowl LII with a 41-33 victory against the Patriots. Prior to arriving in Philadelphia, Pederson served as the offensive coordinator of the Kansas City Chiefs from 2013-15, helping the team post a 31-17 regular-season record over three seasons. Pederson helped QB Alex Smith experience the most productive stretch of his career with three consecutive 3,000-yard seasons. Before joining Kansas City, Pederson coached the quarterbacks in Philadelphia from 2011-12. In his first year in that role, Pederson saw Michael Vick become the second quarterback in NFL history to top the 3,000-yard passing and 500-yard rushing plateaus in consecutive seasons. A 12-year NFL veteran, Pederson played quarterback for the Green Bay Packers, Miami Dolphins, Philadelphia Eagles and Cleveland Browns after originally being drafted by the Carolina Panthers in the 1995 expansion draft. He was coached by three of the most successful coaches in NFL history: Don Shula, Mike Holmgren and Andy Reid. Pederson played for Green Bay from 1996-98 and 2001-04 and was part of Packers teams that won Super Bowl XXXI, two NFC championships (1996 and 1997) and six division titles. Career record: 56-48-1.

Background: The Bellingham, Wash., native attended Northeast Louisiana (now Louisiana Monroe), where he was a three-year starter at quarterback. He finished his career with 6,445 yards and 33 touchdowns on 571-of-1,032 passing. Made his coaching debut as head coach at Calvary Baptist Academy in Shreveport, La., from 2005-08.

Personal: Born Jan. 31, 1968. He and his wife, Jeannie, have three sons, Drew, Josh and Joel.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

Andy Reid, Head Coach

Pro Career: Andy Reid was named the 13th head coach in Kansas City Chiefs history on Jan. 7, 2013. He is entering his 32nd season in the National Football League and his 25th season as an NFL head coach in 2023. In 2022, his 10th season with the Chiefs, Reid and company tallied 14 wins, tying the record set in 2020 under Reid's direction. In 2022, the Chiefs earned their seventh-consecutive AFC West title and for the first time since 2019, were undefeated against AFC West opponents. This was the third time Reid led the team to an undefeated AFC West season. The Chiefs also hosted their fifth-consecutive AFC Championship Game, an NFL record, and defeated the Cincinnati Bengals en route to their Super Bowl LVII victory over the Eagles. With Reid's second Super Bowl win with the Chiefs, he became one of two active coaches (Bill Belichick) who have led teams to multiple Super Bowl wins. Reid now owns 22 postseason victories, second only to Bill Belichick's 31 postseason wins. In 2019, Reid led the Chiefs to their first Super Bowl appearance and victory in 50 years, bringing the Lombardi Trophy back to Kansas City for the first time since 1969. Additionally, the Chiefs' 35-24 victory over the Tennessee Titans in the AFC Championship Game brought the Lamar Hunt Trophy to Kansas City for the first time ever. In 2015 Reid also led the Chiefs to their first playoff win since 1993, with a win at Houston in the Wild Card round of the playoffs. In his first season in Kansas City in 2013, he helped orchestrate the franchise's best single-season turnaround as the Chiefs won 11 games and made the playoffs after going 2-14 the previous season. Prior to joining the Chiefs, he served as the head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles for 14 years (1999-2012), earning NFL Coach of the Year honors three times. Reid compiled the best win total (140) and playoff victory total (10) in Philadelphia Eagles history. He captured six division titles and five trips to the NFC Championship Game. Reid was an assistant coach with Green Bay (1992-98) under Mike Holmgren. With Green Bay, he helped the Packers earn a Super Bowl XXXI victory over New England. Career record: 269-154-1.

Background: A tackle and guard at Brigham Young (1979-81), Reid played on three Cougars Holiday Bowl teams. Served as a college coach at Brigham Young (1982), San Francisco State (1983-85), Northern Arizona (1986), Texas-El Paso (1987-88) and Missouri (1989-91). Reid graduated with a bachelor's degree in physical education. He also received a master's degree in professional leadership in physical education and athletics.

Personal: Born March 19, 1958, in Los Angeles, Calif. Reid and his wife Tammy have five children: Britt, Crosby, Drew Ann, Spencer, and the late Garrett. He has 11 grandchildren: Maverick, Somers, Saylor, Blake, Reid, Brigitte, Canyon, Ryker, Rylen, Garrett and Ford.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2023 COACHING STAFF

Josh McDaniels, Head Coach

Pro career: Josh McDaniels was named head coach of the Raiders on Jan. 31, 2022, after having served as the New England Patriots' offensive coordinator from 2012-21. He has 22 seasons of coaching experience at the NFL level, including time as an offensive coordinator for the St. Louis Rams (2011) and head coach of the Denver Broncos (2009-10), where he became the fifth-youngest head coach in NFL history at the time (32 years, 8 months). Prior to joining the Broncos, McDaniels spent eight years during his first stint as a member of the Patriots' coaching staff, including three seasons as an offensive coordinator (2006-08), two seasons as quarterbacks coach (2004-05) and three seasons as a coaching assistant (2001-03). In 14 seasons as an offensive coordinator (2006-08, 2011, 2012-21), McDaniels directed an offense that ranked in the top-10 on eight occasions, including the league's No. 1-ranked offense three times (2007, 2012 and 2017). He has also guided offenses on teams with 10-or-more wins in 12 seasons and been a part of six Super Bowl championships, 14 division titles and eight conference crowns with New England. Career record: 17-28-0.

Background: Played wide receiver at John Carroll from 1995-98 and coached collegiately at Michigan State in 1999. No pro playing experience.

Personal: Born April 22, 1976, in Canton, Ohio. McDaniels and his wife, Laura, have four children.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2023 COACHING STAFF

Brandon Staley, Head Coach

Pro Career: Named the 17th head coach in franchise history on Jan. 17, 2021. Has led the Bolts to a 19-16 record in two years, including 10 wins and a post-season berth in 2022. In those two seasons, Staley coached seven players selected to a combined eight Pro Bowls. Down the stretch in 2022, Staley's defense was among the NFL's best, ranking No. 3 in total defense (284.8 total net yards allowed per game) over the final five weeks of the regular season. On the year, the Bolts had the best third-and-short defense in the NFL, allowing conversions on just 48.6 percent on third-and-1 and third-and-2 situations. He brought an aggressive style to the organization, as the Bolts' offense led the NFL in 2021 with 22 fourth-down conversions and seven two-point conversions. The unit also scored 181 fourth-quarter points, good for the second-most in a season in NFL history. Staley called a defense that led the NFL with 11 strip-sacks and paced the AFC with 19 forced fumbles. As defensive coordinator for the Los Angeles Rams in 2020, Staley directed the NFL's No. 1-ranked total defense, pass defense and scoring defense. Staley's unit also ranked as the league's third-best run defense in 2020. Prior to the Rams, Staley spent one season as outside linebackers coach with the Denver Broncos (2019) after two seasons in the same capacity for the Chicago Bears (2017-18). Staley guided OLB Von Miller and OLB Khalil Mack to Pro Bowl honors during their time together, as Mack earned first-team AP All-Pro recognition in 2018. Career record: 19-16.

Background: Played quarterback at Dayton (2001-04) and Mercyhurst (2005). Coached collegiately at Northern Illinois (2006-08), St. Thomas (2009), Hutchinson (Kan.) CC (2010-11), Tennessee (2012), John Carroll (2013 and 2015-16) and James Madison (2014). Under Staley's direction, the 2016 John Carroll defensive unit ranked third in the nation in total defense (218.0 yards allowed per game) and fourth in scoring defense (12.6 points allowed per game), as Staley was named Division III National Coordinator of the Year.

Personal: Born Dec. 10, 1982, in Perry, Ohio. Staley and his wife, Amy, have three sons — Colin, Will and Grant.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2023 COACHING STAFF

Mike McDaniel, Head Coach

Pro Career: Mike McDaniel became the 11th head coach in Miami Dolphins history on Feb. 7, 2022. The 2022 season was McDaniel's 16th in the NFL and first as a head coach. McDaniel became the fifth coach in Dolphins history to lead his team to the playoffs in his first season and just the sixth to post a winning record (9-8) in his first year at the helm. Under his leadership, multiple players reached new career milestones, including four Pro Bowl selections. The Dolphins offense ranked in the top 10 for the first time since 1995. Wide receiver Tyreek Hill's 119 receptions and 1,710 receiving yards broke Miami's single-season franchise records. Wide receiver Jaylen Waddle caught 75 passes for 1,356 yards and eight touchdowns and led the league in yards per reception (18.1). Quarterback Tua Tagovailoa led the NFL in passer rating (105.5) and red-zone passer rating (112.2). McDaniel spent five seasons (2017-21) with the San Francisco 49ers, where he was the team's run game specialist in 2017 before being promoted to run game coordinator in 2018 and again to offensive coordinator in 2021. The 49ers had four offensive players earn Pro Bowl selections and finished seventh in total offense (375.7 yards per game) in 2021. As run game coordinator from 2018-20, McDaniel helped the 49ers finish fifth in rushing (127.0 yards per game) in that span despite having a different leading rusher in all three seasons. During his five years in San Francisco, the 49ers advanced to the NFC Championship Game twice, winning it in 2019. McDaniel also went to the Super Bowl in 2016 as an offensive assistant in Atlanta, where he served in that role from 2015-16. McDaniel also was wide receivers coach in Cleveland (2014), wide receivers coach (2013) and offensive assistant working with the offensive line (2011-12) in Washington, running backs coach for Sacramento in the United Football League (2009-10) and offensive assistant with the Houston Texans (2006-08). He began his coaching career as an intern in Denver (2005). Career record: 9-9.

Background: McDaniel earned a bachelor's degree in history from Yale, where he played wide receiver. No pro playing experience.

Personal: Born March 6, 1983, in Aurora, Colo. He and his wife, Katie, have one daughter, Ayla.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2023 COACHING STAFF

Bill Belichick, Head Coach

Pro Career: Bill Belichick is in his 49th season as an NFL coach and his 24th season as head coach of the New England Patriots. His 49 consecutive seasons as an NFL coach are the most in NFL history. Hired by Chairman and CEO Robert Kraft on Jan. 27, 2000, Belichick led the Patriots to 19 consecutive winning seasons (2001-19). The only other NFL coaches to have at least 10 consecutive winning seasons with one team since the 1970 merger are Tom Landry, who led the Dallas Cowboys to 16 consecutive winning seasons (1970-85), and Andy Reid, who has led Kansas City to 10 winning seasons (2013-22). Through 23 seasons with New England, Belichick has delivered six Super Bowl championships, nine conference titles, 17 division crowns and 30 playoff victories in 18 playoff seasons while posting an overall record of 292-120. Belichick won his sixth Super Bowl title in 2018 with the Patriots' 13-3 victory over the Los Angeles Rams. He joined George Halas and Curly Lambeau as the only coaches with six NFL championships and owns the record for most Super Bowl titles, two ahead of Pittsburgh's Chuck Noll. Belichick is the only one of those to win three titles in a four-year span with Super Bowl wins in 2001 and back-to-back Super Bowl wins in 2003 and 2004. With the victory over Indianapolis in the 2014 AFC Championship Game, Belichick collected his 21st career postseason win, the most postseason wins by a head coach. He expanded on that record and now has 31 postseason victories. The 2018 AFC Championship was also Belichick's ninth conference championship as a head coach, adding to his mark for the most in NFL history. New England's berth in Super Bowl LIII was Belichick's 12th Super Bowl during his coaching career, the most among any individual who eventually became a head coach in NFL history. Belichick has recorded 329 career wins (regular season and postseason) as a head coach, which is second in NFL history. He owns a career winning percentage of .666 as a head coach, which is second in NFL history. Belichick directed the Patriots to victories in Super Bowls XXXVI (2001), XXXVIII (2003), XXXIX (2004), XLIX (2014), LI (2016) and LIII (2018), and in 2007 he became the first NFL head coach to guide his team to a 16-0 regular-season record. His 17 division titles are the most among any coach. He also is the first NFL head coach to lead his team to 11 straight division crowns (2009-19). Belichick helped the Patriots become the first franchise in NFL history to score 500-or-more points in four seasons (2007-589, 2010-518, 2011-513 and 2012-557). The St. Louis/Los Angeles Rams are the only other team to have done it four times, while Belichick is the only head coach in NFL history to lead a team to three straight 500-point seasons. Belichick is the only head coach in NFL history to win at least 14 regular-season games in five separate seasons. Only five other coaches – San Francisco's George Seifert (3), Washington's Joe Gibbs (2), Chicago's Mike Ditka (2), Kansas City's Andy

Reid (3) and Miami's Don Shula (2) – have more than one 14-win season. Belichick's Patriots teams own the all-time NFL records for consecutive victories, including the postseason (21 from 2003-04) and consecutive playoff victories (10 from 2001-05). Over a 100-game span from 2003-09, he directed the Patriots to 81 wins – the most in NFL history by a head coach. Belichick's recent accomplishments are the latest triumphs in a career during which he has helped produce eight Super Bowl titles, 12 conference championships and 24 division titles since entering the NFL in 1975. He won his first two Super Bowls as defensive coordinator for the New York Giants in 1986 and 1990 before claiming six Super Bowl championships with the Patriots. George Seifert is the only other individual to have won multiple Super Bowls both as a head coach and as an assistant coach. Belichick launched his coaching career in 1975 with the Baltimore Colts and continued as an assistant coach with Detroit (1976-77), Denver (1978) and the New York Giants (1979-90). Belichick was named head coach of the Cleveland Browns in 1991, becoming the youngest head coach in the NFL at the time at age 38. By 1994, Belichick led the Browns to the postseason, finishing 11-5 and advancing to the second round of the playoffs, while allowing a league-low 204 total points. In 1996, Belichick joined New England and was a key contributor to the Patriots' first division title in 10 years, en route to an appearance in Super Bowl XXXI. Belichick then spent three seasons with the New York Jets from 1997-99, helping New York improve from a 1-15 season in 1996 to an appearance in the AFC Championship Game in 1998. Career record: 329-165-0.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

Robert Saleh, Head Coach

Pro career: Robert Saleh was named the head coach of the New York Jets by Vice Chairman Christopher Johnson on Jan. 19, 2021. Now in his 19th season coaching in the NFL, and third with the Jets, Saleh spent four seasons as the defensive coordinator with San Francisco (2017-20), previously coaching in the NFL with the Houston Texans (2005-10), Seattle Seahawks (2011-13) and Jacksonville Jaguars (2014-16). In his second season as Head Coach, Saleh oversaw the fourth-ranked defense in the league after being ranked last in the same category in 2021. Since 2000, the Jets are one of just five teams to finish in the top five in total defense one season after ranking last in the league. After overseeing the youngest roster in the NFL (averaging 25.13 years on Kickoff Weekend) in 2021, Saleh's leadership and coaching proved critical as the defense improved in all major categories year-over-year, registering 45 sacks in 2022, tied for the fourth-most in franchise history and seventh-most in the league, limiting opposing quarterbacks to an 80.5 passer rating, the second-lowest in the league, and not allowing a single 300-yard passer, the only team in the NFL to do so. The team had its longest win streak of Saleh's tenure in 2022 (four straight, Weeks 4-7), translating to meaningful football games down the stretch. The team success also translated to individual accolades. The Jets' first selection in the 2022 NFL Draft, CB Sauce Gardner, was named a first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press and won Defensive Rookie of the Year, on top of being one of only two rookies in the league to be selected to the Pro Bowl. The team's second selection in the first round, WR Garrett Wilson, was named Offensive Rookie of the Year and a Pro Bowl alternate after leading all rookies in receptions (83) and receiving yards (1,103), the most by a Jets rookie in franchise history. The achievements marked the third time in NFL history that a team won both Offensive and Defensive Rookie of the Year, joining the Detroit Lions (1967) and New Orleans Saints (2017). DL Quinnen Williams was also named a first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press, and Williams, LB C.J. Mosley, and CB Justin Hardee were selected to the Pro Bowl, marking the highest number of Jets Pro Bowlers since 2015. Career record: 11-23-0.

Background: A tight end at Northern Michigan (1997-2000). No pro playing experience. Saleh coached collegiately at Michigan State (2002-03), Central Michigan (2004) and Georgia (2005).

Personal: Born Jan. 31, 1979, in Dearborn, Mich.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2023 COACHING STAFF

Mike Tomlin, Head Coach

Pro Career: Named the 16th head coach in Steelers history when he replaced Bill Cowher on Jan. 22, 2007. Became the youngest coach (36 years, 323 days) in NFL history to win a Super Bowl when the Steelers defeated the Arizona Cardinals, 27-23, in Super Bowl XLIII on Feb. 1, 2009 (Sean McVay later eclipsed the mark at 36 years, 10 days). Tomlin reached the playoffs four times in his first five seasons and is the only coach in Steelers history to win division titles each of his first two seasons. In his 16 years as head coach of the Steelers, Tomlin has led Pittsburgh to seven AFC North titles, most recently in 2020, and has guided the Steelers to the playoffs 10 times, including two trips to the Super Bowl (XLIII and XLV). He has led Pittsburgh to a 163-93-2 record in the regular season since becoming the team's head coach in 2007 - the third-best record in the NFL during that time span. His 163-93-2 regular-season record (.636) is the best start in franchise history. Tomlin secured his 16th straight non-losing season with the Steelers' ninth victory in 2022, a 28-14 win vs. Cleveland in Week 18, a streak dating back to his first season as the team's head coach in 2007. Tomlin is the only head coach in NFL history to begin a head-coaching tenure with at least 15 consecutive non-losing seasons. In 2020, Tomlin's club won its seventh AFC North title. No other head coach has won the AFC North more than four times. In 2008, Tomlin directed the Steelers to a 12-4 record, winning his second-consecutive AFC North title. That season culminated with a Super Bowl triumph, making Tomlin one of only seven coaches in league history to win a Super Bowl within his first two seasons as an NFL head coach. In his first season, Tomlin guided the Steelers to a 10-6 record and their first AFC North title since 2004. Tomlin was the Minnesota Vikings' defensive coordinator in 2006 after spending the previous five seasons (2001-05) as defensive backs coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Tomlin coached one of the top defensive backfields in the NFL for the Buccaneers, culminating with a winning performance in Super Bowl XXXVII. The secondary recorded four interceptions, returning two for touchdowns, to help Tampa Bay capture the franchise's first Super Bowl title. Tomlin served two seasons as the defensive backs coach at the University of Cincinnati (1999-2000) before going to Tampa Bay. Prior to joining the Cincinnati staff, Tomlin had a short stint on the coaching staff at Tennessee-Martin and then spent two seasons at Arkansas State. Tomlin spent the 1996 season as a graduate assistant at Memphis. Tomlin began his coaching career in 1995 as wide receivers coach at Virginia Military Institute. Career record: 171-102-2.

Background: Was a three-year starter at wide receiver at William & Mary (1990-94) and finished his career with 101 receptions for 2,046 yards and a school-record 20 touchdown receptions. A first-team All-Yankee Conference selection in 1994, he established a school record with a 20.2-yards-per-catch average. Graduated in 1994 with a degree in sociology.

Personal: Born in Hampton, Va., on March 15, 1972. He and his wife, Kiya, have two sons, Dino and Mason, and a daughter, Harlyn Quinn.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2023 COACHING STAFF

Mike Vrabel, Head Coach

Pro Career: Mike Vrabel became the 19th head coach in franchise history on Jan. 20, 2018. Enters 10th year as an NFL coach, in addition to three years as a college coach. Led the Titans to a 50-37 record in his first five seasons, including playoff appearances from 2019-21. His 50 wins were the most in franchise history for a head coach's first five complete seasons, and the total moved Vrabel into third place in team annals for total wins, behind Jeff Fisher (147) and Bum Phillips (59). In 2022, the Titans had the NFL's top-ranked rushing defense (76.9). In 2021, the Titans captured their second consecutive division title, marking the franchise's first back-to-back division crowns since 1960-62. It was the first time the team made the playoffs in three consecutive seasons since a seven-year postseason stretch from 1987-93. Named the 2021 Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year. In 2020, the Titans won their first AFC South title since 2008 and tied for second in total offense (396.4). In 2019, the Titans appeared in the AFC Championship Game for the first time since 2002. Spent four seasons with the Houston Texans, as linebackers coach (2014-16) and defensive coordinator (2017). Texans won two division titles (2015, 2016) during his tenure. Houston's 2016 defense ranked first overall in the NFL (301.3) for the first time in franchise history. Career record: 50-37.

Background: Vrabel was a defensive lineman for the Ohio State Buckeyes (1993-96). Earned back-to-back All-America honors and was twice named Big Ten Conference Defensive Lineman of the Year (1995 and 1996). Third-round 1997 draft pick of the Pittsburgh Steelers (1997-2000) and played for the New England Patriots (2001-08) and Kansas City Chiefs (2009-10). With the Patriots, he earned Pro Bowl and first-team All-Pro honors in 2007 and was a member of three Super Bowl championship squads. Coached collegiately at Ohio State (2011-13).

Personal: Born Aug. 14, 1975, in Akron, Ohio. He and his wife, Jennifer, are the parents of two sons, Tyler and Carter.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2023 COACHING STAFF

Jonathan Gannon, Head Coach

Pro Career: Became an NFL head coach for the first time when hired by Arizona on Feb. 14, 2023. Gannon came to Arizona after spending the past two seasons (2021-22) as the defensive coordinator with the Philadelphia Eagles. He has 15 years of experience in the NFL with the Eagles (2021-22), Colts (2018-20), Vikings (2014-17), Titans (2012-13), Rams (2009-11) and Falcons (2007). Gannon has coached with three different teams (Eagles, Colts, Vikings) who have combined for six playoff berths in the last eight seasons (2015-22). Under Gannon, the Eagles boasted a top-10 defense in each of the past two seasons, ranking second in total defense in 2022 (301.5 ypg) and 10th in the NFL in 2021 (328.8 ypg). Between 2021-22, the Eagles defense led the NFL with 99 sacks, ranked third in total defense (315.1 ypg), third in pass defense (200.4 ypg), sixth in tackles for loss (168), tied for fourth in total return TDs (7) and interception-return TDs (4) and tied for 10th in interceptions (29). The Eagles qualified for the postseason in each year Gannon was the defensive coordinator. In 2022 the Eagles featured the NFL's top-ranked pass defense (179.8 ypg) and the league's eighth-ranked scoring defense (20.2 ppg). Philadelphia advanced to Super Bowl LVII at State Farm Stadium after beating San Francisco in the NFC Championship, won the NFC East in 2022 and finished the regular season as the No. 1 seed in the NFC with a 14-3 record. The Eagles easily led the NFL with a franchise single-season record 70 sacks during the 2022 regular season. Philadelphia's 70 sacks in 2022 were the most by any team in a single season since the 1989 Minnesota Vikings (71). Combined with their eight sacks in the postseason, the Eagles' 78 total sacks in 2022 were the third-most in NFL history behind only the 1984 (82 sacks) and 1985 Chicago Bears (80 sacks). Philadelphia also tied for fourth in the NFL in both total takeaways (27) and INTs during the regular season. In his first season with the Eagles in 2021, Gannon directed the NFL's 10th-ranked defense (328.8 ypg). Philadelphia had the second-most defensive TDs (5), allowed the fifth-fewest explosive plays (117) in the league and finished ninth in opponent rushing yards per game (107.9) and opponent three-and-out percentage (33.1). In his two seasons as defensive coordinator with Philadelphia, four different Eagles players combined for five Pro Bowl selections: Darius Slay (2), Haason Reddick (1), Javon Hargrave (1) and Josh Sweat (1). Reddick, Hargrave and Sweat all earned their first career Pro Bowl selections playing in Gannon's defense. Reddick and CB James Bradberry were each named second-team All-Pro in 2022. Prior to working with the Eagles, Gannon was the defensive backs/cornerbacks coach with the Indianapolis Colts (2018-20) and the assistant defensive backs/quality control coach with the Minnesota Vikings (2014-17) after working as a defensive assistant with the Tennessee Titans (2012-13). He spent three seasons (2009-11) as a scout with the St. Louis Rams after beginning his NFL coaching career as a defensive assistant with the Atlanta Falcons in 2007.

Background: Gannon played collegiately as a safety at Louisville and appeared in nine games as a redshirt freshman in 2002 before suffering a career-ending hip injury in his first career start at Cincinnati. As a true freshman in 2001, he was named the Cardinals defensive scout team player of the year. Following the injury, he worked as a student assistant at Louisville for three seasons (2003-05) and one season as a graduate assistant (2006) under Bobby Petrino. Gannon attended Saint Ignatius (Cleveland, Ohio) High School where he was an all-state defensive back and a standout in basketball and track & field. As a senior in 2001, he helped lead the basketball team to the school's first state championship and starred in the long jump and 110-meter hurdles, helping Saint Ignatius to its first track & field state championship that same year. Gannon was inducted into the Saint Ignatius Sports Hall of Fame in 2011.

Personal: Born April 4, 1983, in Cleveland, Ohio. Gannon and his wife, Gina, have three children – Rocco, Lola and Angelo.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

ATLANTA FALCONS

2023 COACHING STAFF

Arthur Smith, Head Coach

Pro Career: Arthur Smith was named the 18th head coach in Atlanta Falcons history on Jan. 15, 2021. In 2022, Atlanta finished with a 7-10 record, winning six games at Mercedes-Benz Stadium - the most since the stadium opened in 2017. Under Smith's guidance, the Falcons led the NFL in fewest penalties, finished third in the league in rushing yards per game and 10th in third-down conversion rate. Atlanta also had the third-highest successful play rate on rushing attempts, based on EPA, at 45.1 percent. Atlanta's rushing attack averaged 74.5 more rushing yards per game in 2022 than it did in 2021, resulting in the largest one-season improvement by any team since at least 2001. With Cordarrelle Patterson (340), Tyler Allgeier (324), Marcus Mariota (280) and Caleb Huntley (265), the Falcons became the first team to have four players with at least 250 rushing yards through the first eight games of a season in NFL history. Additionally, Allgeier surpassed William Andrews (1,023 in 1979) for the most rushing yards by a rookie in franchise history and became the sixth rookie selected in the fifth round or later to eclipse 1,000 rushing yards over the past 20 seasons. Prior to joining the Falcons, Smith served 10 seasons on the coaching staff of the Tennessee Titans, most recently as offensive coordinator (2019-20). His first NFL position was as defensive quality control coach with Washington from 2007-08. Career record: 14-20. Background: Played offensive line at North Carolina and later joined the Tar Heels coaching staff as a graduate assistant (2006), working with the offensive line. Also spent the 2010 season on the football staff at Mississippi. No pro playing experience.

Personal: Born and raised in Memphis, Tenn., he went to high school at Georgetown Prep in North Bethesda, Md.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Matt Baker, special teams assistant; born in Lansing, Mich. Quarterback North Carolina 2002-05. Pro quarterback Dallas Cowboys 2006, New Orleans Saints 2007, Miami Dolphins 2008, Buffalo Bills 2008-09. College coach: Mississippi 2010-11, Western Michigan 2019, John Carroll 2020-22. The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

Frank Reich, Head Coach

Pro Career: Frank Reich is in his first season as head coach of the Carolina Panthers after being named the sixth head coach in franchise history on Jan. 26, 2023. Reich has more than 30 years of NFL experience as a player (1985-98) and a coach (2006-present), including serving as the Panthers' first starting quarterback in franchise history after signing with the team during its inaugural season, 1995. Reich joined Carolina after five seasons (2018-22) as the head coach of the Indianapolis Colts. Reich led the team to the playoffs twice and guided the Colts to 41 wins, including two years with 10-plus wins (2018 and 2020). It marked his second stint as a coach with the Colts, rejoining the team after spending six years on the coaching staff from 2006-11. Reich spent the 2016-17 seasons as offensive coordinator of the Philadelphia Eagles and was instrumental in the team's Super Bowl LII championship during the 2017 season. Prior to Philadelphia, Reich spent three seasons (2013-15) with the San Diego Chargers, serving the last two as offensive coordinator. He worked closely with Philip Rivers, who hit the 4,000-yard passing plateau in three straight seasons and totaled 13,556 yards, marking the third-most passing yards by an NFL quarterback during that span. Reich spent the first six seasons (2006-11) of his coaching career with the Colts as wide receivers coach (2011), quarterbacks coach (2009-10), offensive assistant (2008) and coaching intern (2006-07). In Indianapolis, he was a member of teams that earned five playoff appearances, four AFC South division titles, two AFC championships, two Super Bowl appearances and one Super Bowl title. Reich enjoyed a 14-year playing career with the Buffalo Bills, Carolina Panthers, New York Jets and Detroit Lions after being selected by the Bills in the third round (57th overall) of the 1985 NFL Draft. Including postseason, he played in 129 career games (22 starts) and passed for 6,858 yards and 47 touchdowns. Reich is most notably known for engineering the greatest comeback in NFL history, a 1992 Wild Card playoff game against the Houston Oilers. Making his first postseason start in place of injured quarterback Jim Kelly, Reich led the Bills to a 41-38 overtime victory despite being down by 32 points early in the third quarter. Career record: 41-35-1.

Background: Played quarterback at Maryland (1981-84). As a senior, Reich rallied the Terrapins from a 31-0 deficit to defeat the Miami Hurricanes, 42-40; entering 2022, that effort is tied for the fourth-greatest comeback in FBS history.

Personal: A native of Freeport, N.Y., Reich was born on Dec. 4, 1961. He and his wife, Linda, have three children and two grandchildren.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2023 COACHING STAFF

Matt Eberflus, Head Coach

Pro Career: Matt Eberflus was named the 17th head coach in franchise history on Jan. 27, 2022. Eberflus came to Chicago with 30 years of coaching experience, including 13 in the NFL, and completed his fourth season as defensive coordinator for the Indianapolis Colts in 2021. Under Eberflus the Colts were the only NFL defensive unit to be ranked in the top-10 in scoring, run defense and takeaways in each of the past two seasons. The Colts finished in the top-10 in the NFL in run defense and takeaways in all four of his years, top-10 in scoring defense in three of the four and were the least-penalized defense in the league in 2019 and 2021. Career record: 3-14.

Background: Before entering the NFL, Eberflus was a college coach for 17 years. He started his career at Toledo, his alma mater, where he spent nine years (1992-2000). After leaving Toledo, Eberflus spent eight seasons at Missouri, holding several roles from 2001-08. While with Mizzou, Eberflus helped guide the Tigers to the Big 12 North Division title in 2007 and 2008, compiling a 22-6 record over that span. As a player, Eberflus was a four-year letterman and three-year starting linebacker at Toledo. He earned first-team All-MAC honors and led his team in tackles as both a junior and senior. Eberflus earned a degree in education in 1993 and was inducted into Toledo's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2004. No pro playing experience.

Personal: Born May 17, 1970, in Toledo, Ohio, Eberflus and his wife, Kelly, have two daughters, Grace and Giada.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2023 COACHING STAFF

Mike McCarthy, Head Coach

Pro Career: The Dallas Cowboys named Mike McCarthy the ninth head coach in franchise history on Jan. 8, 2020, and he has led the franchise to back-to-back playoff appearances for the first time since 2006-07. He also won 12 games in each of the last two seasons, the first time Dallas posted consecutive seasons with 12-plus wins since 1994-95. Along with 16 years of head coaching experience and 13 additional years as an assistant coach in the NFL, McCarthy boasts a 155-97-2 regular-season coaching record following 13 seasons with the Green Bay Packers (2006-18) and three (2020-22) in Dallas. He owns the fifth-most wins (20th all-time) and sixth-highest winning percentage among active NFL coaches. His teams have qualified for the postseason 11 times, won six NFC North division titles, one NFC East division crown, made four NFC Championship Game appearances and took home a Super Bowl XLV championship. In his third season in Dallas, in 2022, McCarthy led the Cowboys to a 12-5 record for the second consecutive season, the first time since 1994-95 that Dallas posted 12 wins in back-to-back seasons. McCarthy's Cowboys also led the league in takeaways (33) for the second straight year, becoming the first NFL team to lead the league in takeaways in back-to-back seasons since Pittsburgh from 1972-74. During his time in Green Bay (2006-18), McCarthy was known as a prolific offensive mind — and the primary play-caller. McCarthy's Packers offense finished fourth in the NFL in total offense and third in points per game through his tenure with the club. Behind the arm of Aaron Rodgers, the Packers were third in passing offense in that same span. Additionally, his Packers offenses finished in the top-10 in passing yards (10 times), total offense (nine) and scoring (nine). McCarthy's nine playoff appearances overall are the most by a Packers coach since the NFL postseason began in 1933. With the victory over Dallas in the 2016 playoffs, McCarthy surpassed Vince Lombardi and Mike Holmgren for the most playoff victories in team history (10). Career record: 166-107-2.

Background: Played tight end at Baker University (Kan.) and was all-conference and senior captain in 1986. Earned a degree in business administration. Coached collegiately at Fort Hays State (1987-88) and Pittsburgh (1989-92). No pro playing experience.

Personal: Born Nov. 10, 1963, in Pittsburgh, Pa. He and his wife, Jessica, have five children.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2023 COACHING STAFF

Dan Campbell, Head Coach

Pro Career: Named the Lions' 28th head coach on Jan. 21, 2021. Campbell enters his third season with the Lions after leading Detroit to its first winning season since 2017 last year. Campbell brings 22 years of NFL experience, including 11 years as a coach and 11 as a player. He previously served as the assistant head coach/tight ends coach for the New Orleans Saints, a position he held since 2016. During the span of his five-year coaching tenure with New Orleans, the club captured four NFC South titles, ranked first in the NFL in points scored (2,361), touchdowns (277) and net yardage (31,147), and posted the third-most wins (56) in the league.

Background: In 2015, Campbell became the Miami Dolphins' interim head coach, taking over a 1-3 team and guiding the club to a 5-7 finish. Under Campbell, Miami improved eight spots in the NFL's rushing rankings and saw five players selected to the Pro Bowl in 2015. Campbell initially joined the Dolphins in 2010 as a coaching intern before overseeing the tight ends for five seasons (2011-15).

Personal: Born April 13, 1976, in Clifton, Texas. He and his wife, Holly, have a son, Cody, and a daughter, Piper. He earned a bachelor's degree in agricultural development from Texas A&M.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2023 COACHING STAFF

Matt LaFleur, Head Coach

Pro Career: Named the 15th head coach in team history on Jan. 8, 2019. Is entering his fifth season as Green Bay's head coach and his 15th season in the NFL. Has led the Packers to 47 regular-season wins, the second most in NFL history by a coach in his first four seasons (George Seifert, 52 from 1989-92). Has guided Green Bay to a 27-6 regular-season record at home (.818), tops in the NFL since 2019. In 2019-21, became the first coach in league history to win 13-plus games in three straight seasons. Guided the Packers to three consecutive NFC North crowns and the most wins (39) in the league from 2019-21. In 2020, helped the Packers rank No. 1 in the NFL in scoring (509), touchdowns (66) and giveaways (franchise-record 11). Led Green Bay to a 13-3 record in his first season in '19, the biggest one-year win improvement in team history (plus-seven). Served as an offensive coordinator for two seasons (Los Angeles Rams, 2017; Tennessee Titans, 2018) and coached quarterbacks for two seasons with the Atlanta Falcons (2015-16) and four seasons with the Washington Redskins (2010-13). Got his start in the NFL coaching ranks as an offensive assistant with the Houston Texans (2008-09). Has been a part of three staffs that have helped their teams lead the NFL in scoring (2016 Falcons, 2017 Rams, 2020 Packers). In Atlanta, tutored QB Matt Ryan, who posted a league-high 117.1 passer rating in 2016 on his way to being named NFL Most Valuable Player and Offensive Player of the Year by The Associated Press. With Washington in 2012, coached QB Robert Griffin III, who became the first QB in team history to win AP Offensive Rookie of the Year. Career record: 49-22.

Background: Played QB at Saginaw Valley State (2000-02), where he guided the Cardinals to three straight NCAA Division II playoff appearances and earned second-team All-Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference honors in all three seasons. Ranks No. 3 in school history in passing yards (7,699), completions (560) and passing TDs (67). Played in the National Indoor Football League for the Omaha Beef in 2003 and the Billings Outlaws in 2004. Began his coaching career as an offensive assistant at Saginaw Valley State in 2003 before working as a graduate assistant at Central Michigan in 2004-05. Also coached quarterbacks/wide receivers at Northern Michigan in 2006, served as the offensive coordinator at Ashland (Ohio) University in 2007 and coached quarterbacks at Notre Dame in 2014.

Personal: Born Nov. 3, 1979, in Mount Pleasant, Mich. He and his wife, BreAnne, have two sons, Luke and Ty. His younger brother, Mike, is the offensive coordinator for the Los Angeles Rams. Their father, Dennis, coached 22 seasons (1976-97) on the staff at Central Michigan.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2023 COACHING STAFF

Sean McVay, Head Coach

Pro Career: Named the 23rd full-time head coach in franchise history on Jan. 12, 2017. McVay became the youngest head coach in modern NFL history. The Rams finished 5-12 in 2022 after an injury-riddled team forced young players to step up. The stars aligned in 2021 as McVay and the Rams went "all in" to win Super Bowl LVI. He finished the regular season 12-5 and became the youngest head coach in NFL history to win a Super Bowl. In 2020, McVay and the Rams posted a 10-6 record, McVay's fourth-consecutive winning season, and earned his third playoff berth in his first four seasons. During the 2019 season the Rams posted a 9-7 record, the third-straight winning season under McVay. In 2018, his second season as head coach, the Rams won 13 games, tied for the second-most single-season wins in franchise history, and competed in the organization's fourth Super Bowl. In his first season in 2017, the Rams won seven more games than the previous season, went from last in the league in scoring to first, and made their first postseason appearance in 13 years. Prior to joining the Rams, McVay was the offensive coordinator (2014-16), tight ends coach (2011-13) and offensive assistant (2010) in Washington. McVay joined Washington prior to 2010 after an undefeated regular season with the Florida Tuskers of the United Football League. The Tuskers finished a perfect 6-0 before losing in the NFL's inaugural championship game. McVay originally entered the National Football League as an offensive assistant with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Career record: 67-41-0.

Background: Played wide receiver at Miami (Ohio). No pro playing experience. His grandfather, John McVay, served in various administrative roles, including director of research development for the New York Giants (1976) and vice president/director of football operations for the San Francisco 49ers (1983-94), as well as serving as general manager one year in San Francisco (1998-99). John McVay oversaw five Super Bowl championship squads and earned induction into the 49ers Hall of Fame in 2013.

Personal: Born Jan. 24, 1986, in Marietta, Ga. Son of Tim and Cindy McVay. Has one brother, Ryan.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2023 COACHING STAFF

Kevin O'Connell, Head Coach

Pro Career: Named the 10th head coach in Vikings history on Feb. 16, 2022. O'Connell joined the Vikings after serving as the offensive coordinator for the Los Angeles Rams from 2020-21, including a Super Bowl LVI victory. Has eight seasons of NFL coaching experience, including three seasons as an offensive coordinator for the Washington Redskins (2019) and Los Angeles Rams (2020-21). In his first season as head coach in 2022, led the Vikings to 13 wins, the most by any first-year head coach in franchise history, earning the club's first division title since 2017. O'Connell had seven players win Player of the Week awards in 2022, the most by a first-year head coach in franchise history. Seven notched Pro Bowl berths and three earned Associated Press All-Pro honors. O'Connell heavily emphasized his team becoming "situational masters" since becoming the 10th head coach in franchise history, pointing to areas that might not always be prominent on stat sheets, but are crucial to winning games. Minnesota saw immediate improvement in these areas, finishing 11-0 in one-score games during the regular season after going 5-8 in those same situations in 2021. The team also had an NFL-record-tying 10 comeback wins in 2022, including overcoming a 33-point halftime deficit in Week 15 against the Colts, the greatest comeback in NFL history. Prior to joining the Vikings in 2022, O'Connell guided Rams QB Matthew Stafford and WR Cooper Kupp to career years in 2021. Kupp was named 2021 NFL Offensive Player of the Year by the Associated Press and Super Bowl LVI MVP. O'Connell worked in Washington, serving as the quarterbacks coach in 2017-18 and the offensive coordinator in 2019. He coached QB Kirk Cousins in 2017, helping him throw for more than 4,000 yards and 27 touchdowns, and record a career-high 342 rushing yards and a league-leading four game-winning drives. O'Connell worked on special projects with the San Francisco 49ers in 2016. He was also the quarterbacks coach in Cleveland during the 2015 season. Career record: 13-5.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2023 COACHING STAFF

Dennis Allen, Head Coach

Pro Career: Dennis Allen was named the 17th head coach in Saints history on Feb. 8, 2022. Now in his 28th year coaching and 22nd in the NFL. Promoted from defensive coordinator, for which he served for six-and-a-half seasons, Allen has been a member of the New Orleans coaching staff for 13 years. In his first season as head coach, the Saints rallied to win three of their last four games, finished in the top 10 in five major defensive categories and improved at least nine spots from the previous year in both total offense and passing offense. Before rejoining the Saints staff in 2015 for his second stint with the team, Allen served as head coach of the Oakland Raiders from 2012-14 and as defensive coordinator of the Denver Broncos in 2011. Prior to his first stint in New Orleans from 2006-10, Allen was also an assistant in Atlanta from 2002-05. Career record: 15-38.

Background: Earned a bachelor of business administration degree and a master's degree in kinesiology from Texas A&M, where he played safety from 1992-95 and started the final 21 games of his career. Prior to entering the NFL coaching ranks in 2002, Allen served as a graduate assistant at his alma mater from 1996-99 and as secondary coach at Tulsa from 2000-01.

Personal: Born Sept. 22, 1972, in Atlanta, Ga., and raised in Hurst, Texas. He and his wife Allison have a daughter, Layla, and a son, Garrison.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2023 COACHING STAFF

Brian Daboll, Head Coach

Career: Daboll was named Giants Head Coach on Jan. 29, 2022. Daboll joined the Bills in 2018 as coordinator under coach Sean McDermott. The previous year, he helped lead the University of Alabama to its 17th national championship as the Crimson Tide's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. In 2020, Daboll was voted Associated Press NFL Assistant Coach of the Year after the Bills finished 13-3 and ended the Patriots' streak of 11 consecutive division titles. Daboll has 20 years of NFL coaching experience. He spent 11 seasons with the New England Patriots (2000-06, 2013-16) in a variety of roles and helped the franchise win five Super Bowls (XXXVI, XXXVIII, XXXIX, XLIX and LI). Daboll began his coaching career at age 24 in 2000 — Bill Belichick's first year with the team — as a defensive coaching assistant. He was promoted to wide receivers coach in 2002. Daboll left the Patriots to become the Jets' quarterbacks coach from 2007-08. He has been an offensive coordinator for the Cleveland Browns (2009-10), Miami Dolphins (2011) and Kansas City Chiefs (2012). Prior to entering the NFL, Daboll spent one year (1997) as a volunteer assistant at the College of William & Mary, where he first met McDermott, before serving two seasons (1998-99) as a graduate assistant for Nick Saban at Michigan State. Career record: 10-8-1.

Background: Played safety at Rochester from 1995-97. No pro playing experience. College coach: William & Mary 1997, Michigan State 1998-99, Alabama 2017. Pro coach: New England Patriots 2000-06 and 2013-16, New York Jets 2007-08, Cleveland Browns 2009-10, Miami Dolphins 2011, Kansas City Chiefs 2012, Buffalo Bills 2018-21.

Personal: Born April 14, 1975, in Welland, Ontario, Canada.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2023 COACHING STAFF

Kyle Shanahan, Head Coach

Pro Career: Kyle Shanahan became the 20th head coach in franchise history on Feb. 6, 2017, after spending the prior two seasons as offensive coordinator of the Atlanta Falcons. Has 19 seasons of coaching experience at the NFL level, including time as an offensive coordinator with the Atlanta Falcons (2015-16), Cleveland Browns (2014), Washington Redskins (2010-13) and Houston Texans (2008-09). In six of his nine seasons as an offensive coordinator (2008-09, 2012-13 and 2015-16), and two as head coach of the 49ers (2019 and 2021), Shanahan has directed an offense that ranked in the top 10 in the NFL in yards gained. In 2019, Shanahan led the 49ers to Super Bowl LIV in his third season with the team, winning Coach of the Year honors (Sporting News) and NFC Coach of the Year (Committee of 101). Shanahan later guided the team to back-to-back NFC Championship Game appearances (2021-22). Following the 2016 season, Shanahan was named Associated Press Assistant Coach of the Year, Coordinator of the Year by the Sporting News and Assistant Coach of the Year by the Pro Football Writers of America after a record-setting performance by the Falcons offense en route to capturing the NFC South division title and an appearance in Super Bowl LI. Career record: 58-49.

Background: Played wide receiver at Duke (1998-99) and Texas (2001-02). Began coaching career at UCLA (2003), then served as an NFL assistant coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2004-05), Houston Texans (2006-09), Washington Redskins (2010-13), Cleveland Browns (2014) and Atlanta Falcons (2015-16).

Personal: Born Dec. 14, 1979; Minneapolis, Minn.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2023 COACHING STAFF

Pete Carroll, Executive VP of Football Operations/Head Coach

Pro Career: Named as Seattle's eighth head coach on Jan. 11, 2010. Led Seattle to its first Super Bowl title in franchise history in 2013 after posting a 13-3 record and a 43-8 victory over Denver in Super Bowl XLVIII, followed by a consecutive appearance in Super Bowl XLIX vs. New England. Pro coaching background: Buffalo Bills (defensive backs 1984), Minnesota Vikings (defensive backs 1985-89), N.Y. Jets (defensive coordinator 1990-93, head coach 1994), San Francisco 49ers (defensive coordinator 1995-96). From 1997-99, he was the New England Patriots head coach, posting a 27-21 record and two playoff appearances. Career record: 172-123-1.

Background: A two-time All-Pacific Coast Conference safety at Pacific (1971-72), where he earned his degree in business administration (1973) and a secondary teaching credential as well as a master's degree in physical education (1976). No pro playing experience. College coach: Pacific 1974-76 and 1983, Arkansas 1977, Iowa State 1978, Ohio State 1979, North Carolina State 1980-82 and Southern California, where he served as head coach from 2001-09 and posted a 97-19 record, won seven consecutive Pac-10 titles (2002-08) and two national championships.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS

2023 COACHING STAFF

Todd Bowles, Head Coach

Pro Career: Todd Bowles enters his second season as head coach of the Buccaneers following three seasons as the team's defensive coordinator (2019-21). Bowles led the Buccaneers to an NFC South title in his first year as the head coach in Tampa Bay, joining Jon Gruden as the only coaches in franchise history to accomplish that feat in Year 1. The play-caller for a defense that finished top 10 in the NFL in total yards per game (324.3 yards/game), yards per play (5.14 avg.), pass defense (203.5 passing yards/game), net yards per attempt (6.1), sacks (45.0) and tackles for loss (89), while limiting opponents to the fifth-fewest first downs per game (18.5) and the sixth-lowest third-down conversion percentage (36.9). On offense, Tristan Wirfs made his second Pro Bowl as part of an offensive line that led the league in fewest sacks allowed/pass attempt (2.8). In addition, Tampa Bay ranked second in the NFL in passing offense (279.8 yards/game) and boasted a pair of 1,000-yard receivers, Mike Evans and Chris Godwin. Godwin finished eighth in the NFL with 104 receptions, second in franchise history. In three seasons as defensive coordinator (2019-21), Bowles transformed the unit into one of the NFL's most productive, opportunistic defenses. Tampa Bay ranked third in the league in both takeaways (82) and sacks (142), joining Pittsburgh as the only teams to place in the top five of both categories. In addition to sacks and takeaways under Bowles' guidance, the Buccaneers led the NFL in fewest rushing yards per game (82.5), fewest rushing yards per attempt (3.72), quarterback hits (352), defensive fumble recoveries (37) and passes defended (241), ranked second in strip sacks (26), third in tackles for loss (262), fourth in forced fumbles (52), tied for fourth in defensive touchdowns (nine), fifth in fewest yards per play allowed (5.13), fifth in fewest passing yards per attempt (6.78), sixth in red-zone defense efficiency (54.7), seventh in third-down conversion rate (37.6), ninth in total defense (334.1 yards per game) and ninth in goal-to-go efficiency (68.6). From 2020-21, the Buccaneers allowed the sixth-fewest points per game (21.5) and the fifth-fewest yards per game (329.4). In six postseason contests during that span, Tampa Bay tallied 16 takeaways, seven more than any other team. The architect behind a historic defensive performance that catapulted the Buccaneers to a Super Bowl LV victory, Bowles and the Bucs held the explosive Kansas City offense to nine points and without a touchdown for the first time in 54 games with Patrick Mahomes as the starting quarterback. Bowles joined the Buccaneers after four seasons as head coach of the New York Jets (2015-18). Under Bowles, the Jets posted one of the best run defenses in the NFL, holding teams to just 4.0 yards per carry, the sixth-lowest figure in the NFL during that span, and allowed only 44 rushing touchdowns, tied for eighth-fewest in that time frame. Bowles' Jets defense also allowed opponents to convert only 36.0 percent of third downs, the fourth-lowest mark in the league. Opposing passers completed just 60.6 percent of their attempts against the Jets under Bowles, the third-lowest mark in the NFL. Nine New York players earned Pro Bowl berths: Darrelle Revis (2015), Muhammad Wilkerson

(2015), Chris Ivory (2015), Brandon Marshall (2015), Nick Mangold (2015), Leonard Williams (2016), Jamal Adams (2018), Jason Myers (2018) and Andre Roberts (2018). Prior to serving as Jets head coach, Bowles spent two seasons as defensive coordinator of the Arizona Cardinals (2013-14), where he won Assistant Coach of the Year honors from the PFWA and AP in 2014. During Bowles' time in Arizona, the Cardinals defense allowed the third-fewest rushing touchdowns (14), fifth-fewest points per game (19.5) and fifth-fewest rushing yards per game (96.6). Bowles' defenses in Arizona also showed a knack for takeaways, recording the fifth-most interceptions (38) and most defensive touchdowns (nine) in the NFL. Bowles saw cornerback Patrick Peterson earn first-team AP All-Pro honors in 2013 and Pro Bowl honors both years (2013-14). Defensive end John Abraham (2013), cornerback Antonio Cromartie (2014) and defensive end Calais Campbell (2014) also earned Pro Bowl selections. Bowles spent one year with the Philadelphia Eagles (2012) as the team's secondary coach, before being named interim defensive coordinator for the final 10 games of the season. Before Philadelphia, Bowles was the Dolphins' assistant head coach/secondary coach for four seasons (2008-11). In 2011, he was named interim head coach for the final three games, going 2-1. Bowles also worked as Cowboys defensive backs coach from 2005-07, coaching three players to the Pro Bowl (safety Ken Hamlin, cornerback Terence Newman and safety Roy Williams). His NFL coaching career began in 2000 as the defensive backs coach of the New York Jets prior to four years with the Cleveland Browns, working as the team's nickel package coach (2001-03) and secondary coach (2004). Career record: 34-51.

Background: Bowles got his start as the defensive coordinator for Morehouse College in 1997, followed by a two-year stint as defensive coordinator at Grambling State (1998-99). He played collegiately at Temple, and despite going undrafted in 1986, played eight years in the NFL, with Washington (1986-90 and 1992-93) and San Francisco (1991), starting on the 1987 Washington team that won Super Bowl XXII. Following his retirement as a player, Bowles spent two seasons (1995-96) with the Green Bay Packers' player personnel department.

Personal: An Elizabeth, N.J., native, he and his wife, Taneka, have three sons, Todd Jr., Troy and Tyson.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

2023 COACHING STAFF

Ron Rivera, Head Coach

Pro Career: Became the 30th coach in Washington history on Jan. 1, 2020. In eight-plus seasons with the Carolina Panthers, Rivera guided the team to a Super Bowl appearance, an NFC Championship and three NFC South titles. He is a two-time (2013 and 2015) Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year award winner. Rivera inherited a 2-14 Carolina team as a rookie head coach in 2011 and guided it back to relevance with four playoffs appearances in a five-year span (2013-17). In 2015, Rivera led the Panthers to the second Super Bowl appearance in team history following a franchise-best 15-1 record and a third consecutive NFC South championship. In the process, Carolina became the fourth team in the Super Bowl era to start a season 14-0, joining the 1972 Miami Dolphins, 2007 New England Patriots and 2009 Indianapolis Colts. Carolina's 18-game regular-season winning streak was the longest in NFC history. In 2014, the Panthers became the first team since 1970 to overcome a six-game losing streak and win its division. In 2013, Rivera directed Carolina to 12 wins, the NFC South title and its first playoff appearance since 2008. Before joining Washington, Rivera coached for the Panthers (2011-19), San Diego Chargers (2007-10), Chicago Bears (2004-06, 1997-98) and Philadelphia Eagles (1999-2003). In 2006, the Bears defense led the NFL with 44 takeaways, helping propel Chicago to an appearance in Super Bowl XLI. He is just the third Latino head coach in NFL history, joining Tom Flores (Oakland Raiders 1979-87 and Seattle Seahawks 1992-94) and Tom Fears (New Orleans Saints 1967-70). Career record: 86-77-1.

Background: Linebacker California (1980-83). Finished as the school's all-time leader in sacks (22) and tackles (336). Played with the Chicago Bears (1984-92), primarily as an outside linebacker. He was a member of the 1985 Super Bowl XX winning team. Personal: Born Jan. 7, 1962, in Fort Ord, Calif. He and his wife, Stephanie, have two children—Christopher and Courtney.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

OVERTIME PROCEDURES

MODIFIED SUDDEN-DEATH OVERTIME

For the 2010 postseason, the NFL installed a modified sudden-death system to determine the winner when the score is tied at the end of regulation. In 2012, the system was expanded to cover all NFL games, including regular-season and preseason games. In 2022, the system was expanded for postseason games only to allow each team the opportunity to possess the ball.

Modified sudden death guarantees each team a possession or the opportunity to possess, unless the team that receives the opening kickoff scores a touchdown on its initial possession.

Key Definitions

Possession: Actual possession of the ball with complete control. The defense gains possession when it catches, intercepts, or recovers a loose ball.

Opportunity to possess: The opportunity to possess occurs only during kicking plays. A kickoff is an opportunity to possess for the receiving team. If the kicking team legally recovers the kick, the receiving team is considered to have had its opportunity. A punt or a field goal that crosses the line of scrimmage and is muffed by the receiving team is considered to be an opportunity to possess for the receivers. Normal touching rules by the kicking team apply.

REGULAR SEASON

At the end of regulation time, the Referee will immediately toss coin at the center of the field in accordance with rules pertaining to the usual pregame toss. The captain of the visiting team will call the toss prior to the coin being flipped.

Following a three-minute intermission after the end of the regulation game, there shall be a maximum of one 10-minute period. Each team must possess or have the opportunity to possess the ball unless the team that has the ball first scores a touchdown on its initial possession. Play continues in sudden death until a winner is determined, and the game automatically ends upon any score (by safety, field goal, or touchdown) or when a score is awarded by Referee for a palpably unfair act. If a touchdown is scored, the game is over, and the Try is not attempted. Each team shall be entitled to two timeouts, and if there is an excess timeout, the usual rules shall apply. Disqualified players are not allowed to return.

If the score is tied at the end of a 10-minute overtime period, the game shall result in a tie.

Instant Replay: No challenges. Reviews to be initiated by the replay official.

POSTSEASON

At the end of regulation time, the Referee will immediately toss coin at the center of the field in accordance with rules pertaining to the usual pregame toss. The captain of the visiting team will call the toss prior to the coin being flipped.

Following a three-minute intermission after the end of the regulation game, play will be continued in 15-minute periods until a winner is declared.

Both teams must have the opportunity to possess the ball at least once during the extra period, unless the team kicking off to start the overtime period scores a safety on the receiving team's initial possession, in which case the team that kicked off is the winner. If the team that possesses the ball first does not score on its initial possession, or if the score is tied after each team has had its opportunity to possess the ball, the team next scoring by any method shall be the winner.

If the score is tied at the end of a 15-minute overtime period, or if the second team's initial possession has not ended, another overtime period will begin, and play will continue, regardless of how many 15-minute periods are necessary. Each team has three timeouts per half and all general timing provisions apply as during a regular game. Disqualified players are not allowed to return.

Instant Replay: No challenges. Reviews to be initiated by the replay official.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS

The NFL rates its passers for statistical purposes against a fixed performance standard based on statistical achievements of all qualified pro passers since 1960. The current system replaced one that rated passers in relation to their position in a total group based on various criteria. The current system, which was adopted in 1973, removes inequities that existed in the former method and, at the same time, provides a means of comparing passing performances from one season to the next.

It is important to remember that the system is used to rate passers, not quarterbacks. Statistics do not reflect leadership, play-calling, and other intangible factors that go into making a successful professional quarterback. Four categories are used as a basis for compiling a rating:

- Percentage of completions per attempt
- Average yards gained per attempt
- Percentage of touchdown passes per attempt
- Percentage of interceptions per attempt

The average standard is 1.000. The bottom is .000. To earn a 2.000 rating, a passer must perform at exceptional levels, i.e., 70 percent in completions, 10 percent in touchdowns, 1.5 percent in interceptions, and 11 yards average gain per pass attempt. The maximum a passer can receive in any category is 2.375.

For example, to gain a 2.375 in completion percentage, a passer would have to complete 77.5 percent of his passes. The NFL record is 74.44 by Drew Brees (New Orleans, 2018). To earn a 2.375 in percentage of touchdowns, a passer would have to achieve a percentage of 11.9. The record is 13.9 by Sid Luckman (Chicago, 1943). To gain 2.375 in percentage of interceptions, a passer would have to go the entire season without an interception. The 2.375 figure in average yards is 12.50, compared with the NFL record of 11.17 by Tommy O'Connell (Cleveland, 1957).

In order to make the rating more understandable, the point rating is then converted into a scale of 100, with 158.3 being the highest rating a passer can achieve. In cases where statistical performance has been superior, it is possible for a passer to surpass a 100 rating. For example, take Aaron Rodgers' record-setting season in 2011 when he completed 343 of 502 passes for 4,643 yards, 45 touchdowns, and six interceptions. The four calculations would be:

—Percentage of Completions—343 of 502 is 68.33 percent. Subtract 30 from the completion percentage (38.33) and multiply the result by 0.05. The result is a point rating of 1.916.

Note: If the result is less than zero (Comp. Pct. less than 30.0), award zero points. If the results are greater than 2.375 (Comp. Pct. greater than 77.5), award 2.375.

—Average Yards Gained Per Attempt—4,643 yards divided by 502 attempts is 9.25. Subtract 3 yards from yards-per-attempt (6.25) and multiply the result by 0.25. The result is 1.562.

Note: If the result is less than zero (yards per attempt less than 3.0), award zero points. If the result is greater than 2.375 (yards per attempt greater than 12.5), award 2.375 points.

—Percentage of Touchdown Passes—45 touchdowns in 502 attempts is 8.96 percent. Multiply the touchdown percentage by 0.2. The result is 1.793.

Note: If the result is greater than 2.375 (touchdown percentage greater than 11.875), award 2.375.

—Percentage of Interceptions—Six interceptions in 502 attempts is 1.20 percent. Multiply the interception percentage by 0.25 (0.299) and subtract the number from 2.375. The result is 2.076.

Note: If the result is less than zero (interception percentage greater than 9.5), award zero points.

The sum of the four steps is (1.916 + 1.562 + 1.793 + 2.076) 7.348. The sum is then divided by six (1.225) and multiplied by 100. In this case, the result is 122.5. This same formula can be used to determine a passer rating for any player who attempts at least one pass.

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

From its humble beginnings in 1963 to today, the Pro Football Hall of Fame has grown in both size and stature, now recognized worldwide as America's premier sports hall of fame. It's doubtful that even the most optimistic of those who led the drive to bring the Hall of Fame to Canton, Ohio, could have envisioned the successes it would realize.

An exhilarating museum and attraction, the Hall of Fame pays tribute to the talents and triumphs of pro football's greatest stars. Chronicled within the walls of the Hall of Fame are the stories and circumstances of play that bring to life words such as courage, dedication, vision, fair play, integrity and excellence.

The Pro Football Hall of Fame has welcomed over 10 million fans. Each year, visitors travel from each of the 50 states and from upwards of 70 foreign countries.

Today, the Hall reaches tens of millions of additional football fans each year through broad outreach such as nationally televised events, an in-depth website, educational and youth programs, social media, traveling exhibits, and special events held around the country.

The Pro Football Hall of Fame works collaboratively with the pro football family — the NFL and its 32 clubs, and other entities. The cooperative efforts of all these organizations have contributed greatly to the overall success of the Pro Football Hall of Fame. In turn, the Hall strives to serve as the best possible historical showplace and repository for pro football.

The Hall of Fame is a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit educational institution guided by its mission to "Honor the greatest of the game, preserve its history, promote its values and celebrate excellence together."

A 49-member Selection Committee of media representatives elects new members to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The year-round selection process culminates with the election of no fewer than four or no more than nine new members each year. An affirmative vote of 80 percent is needed for election.

The charter class of 17 enshrinees was elected in 1963 and the honor roll now stands at 371 (183 living as of May 31, 2023) with the election of a nine-man class in 2023.

CHRONOLOGY OF PROFESSIONAL FOOTBALL

1869

Rutgers and Princeton played a college soccer football game, the first ever, Nov. 6. The game used modified London Football Association rules. During the next seven years, rugby gained favor with the major eastern schools over soccer, and modern football began to develop from rugby.

1876

At the Massasoit convention, the first rules for American football were written. Walter Camp, who would become known as the father of American football, first became involved with the game.

1892

In an era in which football was a major attraction of local athletic clubs, an intense competition between two Pittsburgh-area clubs, the Allegheny Athletic Association (AAA) and the Pittsburgh Athletic Club (PAC), led to the making of the first professional football player. Former Yale All-America guard William (Pudge) Heffelfinger was paid $500 by the AAA to play in a game against the PAC, becoming the first person to be paid to play football, Nov. 12. The AAA won the game 4-0 when Heffelfinger picked up a PAC fumble and ran 35 yards for a touchdown.

1893

The Pittsburgh Athletic Club signed one of its players, probably halfback Grant Dibert, to the first known pro football contract, which covered all of the PAC's games for the year.

1895

John Brallier became the first football player to openly turn pro, accepting $10 and expenses to play for the Latrobe YMCA against the Jeannette Athletic Club.

1896

The Allegheny Athletic Association team fielded the first completely professional team for its abbreviated two-game season.

1897

The Latrobe Athletic Association football team went entirely professional, becoming the first team to play a full season with only professionals.

1898

- ▶ A touchdown was changed from four points to five.
- ▶ Chris O'Brien formed a neighborhood team, which played under the name the Morgan Athletic Club, on the south side of Chicago. The team later became known as the Normals, then the Racine (for a street in Chicago) Cardinals, the Chicago Cardinals, the St. Louis Cardinals, the Phoenix Cardinals, and, in 1994, the Arizona Cardinals. The team remains the oldest continuing operation in pro football.

1900

William C. Temple took over the team payments for the Duquesne Country and Athletic Club, becoming the first known individual club owner.

1902

- ▶ Baseball's Philadelphia Athletics, managed by Connie Mack, and the Philadelphia Phillies formed professional football teams, joining the Pittsburgh Stars in the first attempt at a pro football league, named the National Football League. The Athletics won the first night football game ever played, 39-0 over Kanawoola AC at Elmira, New York, Nov. 21.
- ▶ All three teams claimed the pro championship for the year, but the league president, Dave Berry, named the Stars the champions. Pitcher Rube Waddell was with the Athletics, and pitcher Christy Mathewson a fullback for Pittsburgh.
- ▶ The first World Series of pro football, actually a five-team tournament, was played among a team made up of players from both the Athletics and the Phillies, but simply named New York; the New York Knickerbockers; the Syracuse AC; the Warlow AC; and the Orange (New Jersey) AC at New York's original Madison Square Garden. New York and Syracuse played the first indoor football game before 3,000, Dec. 28. Syracuse, with Glen (Pop) Warner at guard, won 6-0 and went on to win the tournament.

- ▶ The Franklin (Pa.) Athletic Club won the second and last World Series of pro football over the Oreos AC of Asbury Park, New Jersey; the Watertown Red and Blacks; and the Orange AC.
- ▶ Pro football was popularized in Ohio when the Massillon Tigers, a strong amateur team, hired four Pittsburgh pros to play in the season-ending game against Akron. At the same time, pro football declined in the Pittsburgh area, and the emphasis on the pro game moved west from Pennsylvania to Ohio.

- ▶ A field goal was changed from five points to four.
- ▶ Ohio had at least seven pro teams, with Massillon winning the Ohio Independent Championship, that is, the pro title. Talk surfaced about forming a state-wide league to end spiraling salaries brought about by constant bidding for players and to write universal rules for the game. The feeble attempt to start the league failed.

- ▶ Halfback Charles Follis signed a contract with the Shelby (Ohio) AC, making him the first known black pro football player.

The Canton AC, later to become known as the Bulldogs, became a professional team. Massillon again won the Ohio League championship.

1906

- ▶ The forward pass was legalized. The first authenticated pass completion in a pro game came on Oct. 25, when George (Peggy) Parratt of Massillon threw a completion to Dan (Bullet) Riley in a victory over a combined Benwood-Moundsville team.

- ▶ Arch-rivals Canton and Massillon, the two best pro teams in America, played twice, with Canton winning the first game but Massillon winning the second and the Ohio League championship. A betting scandal and the financial disaster wrought upon the two clubs by paying huge salaries caused a temporary decline in interest in pro football in the two cities and, somewhat, throughout Ohio.

A field goal dropped from four points to three.

1912

- ▶ A touchdown was increased from five points to six.
- ▶ Jack Cusack revived a strong pro team in Canton.

1913

Jim Thorpe, a former football and track star at the Carlisle Indian School (Pa.) and a double gold medal winner at the 1912 Olympics in Stockholm, played for the Pine Village Pros in Indiana.

1915

Massillon again fielded a major team, reviving the old rivalry with Canton. Cusack signed Thorpe to play for Canton for $250 a game.

1916

With Thorpe and former Carlisle teammate Pete Calac starring, Canton went 9-0-1, won the Ohio League championship, and was acclaimed the pro football champion.

1917

Despite an upset by Massillon, Canton again won the Ohio League championship.

1919

- ▶ Canton again won the Ohio League championship, despite the team having been turned over from Cusack to Ralph Hay. Thorpe and Calac were joined in the backfield by Joe Guyon.
- ▶ Earl (Curly) Lambeau and newspaperman George Calhoun founded the Green Bay Packers on Aug. 11. The local Indian Packing Company sponsored the team for two years while it played an independent schedule.

1920

- ▶ Pro football was in a state of confusion due to three major problems: dramatically rising salaries; players continually jumping from one team to another following the highest offer; and the use of college players still enrolled in school. A league in which all the members would follow the same rules seemed the answer. An organizational meeting, at which the Akron Pros, Canton Bulldogs, Cleveland Indians, and Dayton Triangles were represented, was held at the Jordan and Hupmobile auto showroom in Canton, Ohio, Aug. 20. This meeting resulted in the formation of the American Professional Football Conference.

CHRONOLOGY OF PROFESSIONAL FOOTBALL

- A second organizational meeting was held in Canton, Sept. 17. The teams were from four states—Akron, Canton, Cleveland, and Dayton from Ohio; the Hammond Pros and Muncie Flyers from Indiana; the Rochester Jeffersons from New York; and the Rock Island Independents, Decatur Staleys, and Racine Cardinals from Illinois. The name of the league was changed to the American Professional Football Association. Hoping to capitalize on his fame, the members elected Thorpe president; Stanley Cofall of Cleveland was elected vice president. A membership fee of $100 per team was charged to give an appearance of respectability, but no team ever paid it. Scheduling was left up to the teams, and there were wide variations, both in the overall number of games played and in the number played against APFA member teams.
- Four other teams—the Buffalo All-Americans, Chicago Tigers, Columbus Panhandles, and Detroit Heralds—joined the league sometime during the year. On Sept. 26, the first game featuring an APFA team was played at Rock Island's Douglas Park. A crowd of 800 watched the Independents defeat the St. Paul Ideals 48-0. A week later, Oct. 3, the first game matching two APFA teams was held. At Triangle Park, Dayton defeated Columbus 14-0, with Lou Partlow of Dayton scoring the first touchdown in a game between Association teams. The same day, Rock Island defeated Muncie 45-0.
- By the beginning of December, most of the teams in the APFA had abandoned their hopes for a championship, and some of them, including the Chicago Tigers and the Detroit Heralds, had finished their seasons, disbanded, and had their franchises canceled by the Association. Four teams—Akron, Buffalo, Canton, and Decatur—still had championship aspirations, but a series of late-season games among them left Akron as the only undefeated team in the Association. At one of these games, Akron sold tackle Bob Nash to Buffalo for $300 and five percent of the gate receipts—the first APFA player deal.

- At the league meeting in Akron, April 30, the championship of the 1920 season was awarded to the Akron Pros. The APFA was reorganized, with Joe Carr of the Columbus Panhandles named president and Carl Storck of Dayton secretary-treasurer. Carr moved the Association's headquarters to Columbus, drafted a league constitution and by-laws, gave teams territorial rights, restricted player movements, developed membership criteria for the franchises, and issued standings for the first time, so that the APFA would have a clear champion.
- The Association's membership increased to 22 teams, including the Green Bay Packers who were awarded to J. Emmett Clair of the Acme Packing Co. on Aug. 27. The team cut ties with Acme Packing in October.

- Thorpe moved from Canton to the Cleveland Indians, but he was hurt early in the season and played very little.
- A.E. Staley turned the Decatur Staleys over to player-coach George Halas, who moved the team to Cubs Park in Chicago. Staley paid Halas $5,000 to keep the name Staleys for one more year. Halas made halfback Ed (Dutch) Sternaman his partner.
- Player-coach Fritz Pollard of the Akron Pros became the first black head coach.
- The Staleys claimed the APFA championship with a 9-1-1 record, as did Buffalo at 9-1-2. Carr ruled in favor of the Staleys, giving Halas his first championship.

1922

- After admitting the use of players who had college eligibility remaining, J. Emmett Clair withdrew from the APFA, Jan. 28. Six months later, the Packers were readmitted to the renamed NFL. The private Green Bay Football Club, with Curly Lambeau as president, suffered heavy financial losses and folded at the end of the season.
- The American Professional Football Association changed its name to the National Football League, June 24. The Chicago Staleys became the Chicago Bears.
- The NFL fielded 18 teams, including the new Oorang Indians of Marion, Ohio, an all-Indian team featuring Thorpe, Joe Guyon, and Pete Calac, and sponsored by the Oorang dog kennels.
- Canton, led by player-coach Guy Chamberlin and tackles Link Lyman and Wilbur (Pete) Henry, emerged as the league's first true powerhouse, going 10-0-2.

1923

- For the first time, all of the franchises considered to be part of the NFL fielded teams. Thorpe played his second and final season for the Oorang Indians. Against the Bears, Thorpe fumbled, and Halas picked up the ball and returned it 98 yards for a touchdown, a record that would last until 1972.
- Canton had its second consecutive undefeated season, going 11-0-1 for the NFL title.

1924

- The league had 18 franchises, including new ones in Kansas City, Kenosha, and Frankford, a section of Philadelphia. League champion Canton, successful on the field but not at the box office, was purchased by the owner of the Cleveland franchise, who kept the Canton franchise inactive, while using the best players for his Cleveland team, which he renamed the Bulldogs. Cleveland won the title with a 7-1-1 record.

1925

- Five new franchises were admitted to the NFL—the New York Giants, who were awarded to Tim Mara and Billy Gibson for $500; the Detroit Panthers, featuring Jimmy Conzelman as owner, coach, and tailback; the Providence Steam Roller; a new Canton Bulldogs team; and the Pottsville Maroons, who had been perhaps the most successful independent pro team. The NFL established its first player limit, at 16 players.

- Late in the season, the NFL made its greatest coup in gaining national recognition. Shortly after the University of Illinois season ended in November, All-America halfback Harold (Red) Grange signed a contract to play with the Chicago Bears. On Thanksgiving Day, a crowd of 36,000—the largest in pro football history—watched Grange and the Bears play the Chicago Cardinals to a scoreless tie at Wrigley Field. At the beginning of December, the Bears left on a barnstorming tour that saw them play eight games in 12 days, in St. Louis, Philadelphia, New York City, Washington, Boston, Pittsburgh, Detroit, and Chicago. A crowd of 73,000 watched the game against the Giants at the Polo Grounds, helping assure the future of the troubled NFL franchise in New York. The Bears then played nine more games in the South and West, including a game in Los Angeles, in which 75,000 fans watched them defeat the Los Angeles Tigers in the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.
- Pottsville and the Chicago Cardinals were the top contenders for the league title, with Pottsville winning a late-season meeting 21-7. Pottsville scheduled a game against a team of former Notre Dame players for Shibe Park in Philadelphia. Frankford lodged a protest not only because the game was in Frankford's protected territory, but because it was being played the same day as a Yellow Jackets home game. Carr gave three different notices forbidding Pottsville to play the game, but Pottsville played anyway, Dec. 12. That day, Carr fined the club, suspended it from all rights and privileges (including the right to play for the NFL championship), and re-turned its franchise to the league. The Cardinals, who ended the season with the best record in the league, were named the 1925 champions.

- Grange's manager, C.C. Pyle, told the Bears that Grange wouldn't play for them unless he was paid a five-figure salary and given one-third ownership of the team. The Bears refused. Pyle leased Yankee Stadium in New York City, then petitioned for an NFL franchise. After he was refused, he started the first American Football League. It lasted one season and included Grange's New York Yankees and eight other teams. The AFL champion Philadelphia Quakers played a December game against the New York Giants, seventh in the NFL, and the Giants won 31-0. At the end of the season, the AFL folded.
- Halas pushed through a rule that prohibited any team from signing a player whose college class had not graduated.
- The NFL grew to 22 teams, including the Duluth Eskimos, who signed All-America fullback Ernie Nevers of Stanford, giving the league a gate attraction to rival Grange. The 15-member Eskimos, dubbed the Iron Men of the North, played 29 exhibition and league games, 28 on the road, and Nevers played in all but 29 minutes of them.

- Frankford edged the Bears for the championship, despite Halas having obtained John (Paddy) Driscoll from the Cardinals. On Dec. 4, the Yellow Jackets scored in the final two minutes to defeat the Bears 7-6 and move ahead of them in the standings.

1927

At a special meeting in Cleveland, April 23, Carr decided to secure the NFL's future by eliminating the financially weaker teams and consolidating the quality players onto a limited number of more successful teams. The new-look NFL dropped to 12 teams, and the center of gravity of the league left the Midwest, where the NFL had started, and began to emerge in the large cities of the East. One of the new teams was Grange's New York Yankees, but Grange suffered a knee injury and the Yankees finished in the middle of the pack. The NFL championship was won by the cross-town rival New York Giants, who posted 10 shutouts in 13 games.

1928

Grange and Nevers both retired from pro football, and Duluth disbanded, as the NFL was reduced to only 10 teams. The Providence Steam Roller of Jimmy Conzelman and Pearce Johnson won the championship, playing in the Cycledrome, a 10,000-seat oval that had been built for bicycle races.

1929

- Chris O'Brien sold the Chicago Cardinals to David Jones, July 27.
- The NFL added a fourth official, the field judge, July 28.
- Grange and Nevers returned to the NFL. Nevers scored six rushing touchdowns and four extra points as the Cardinals beat Grange's Bears 40-6, Nov. 28. The 40 points set a record that remains the NFL's oldest.
- Providence became the first NFL team to host a game at night under floodlights, against the Cardinals, Nov. 6.
- The Packers added back Johnny Blood (McNally), tackle Cal Hubbard, and guard Mike Michalske, and won their first NFL championship, edging the Giants, who featured quarterback Benny Friedman.

- Dayton, the last of the NFL's original franchises, was purchased by William B. Dwyer and John C. Depler, moved to Brooklyn, and renamed the Dodgers. The Portsmouth, Ohio, Spartans entered the league.
- The Packers edged the Giants for the title, but the most improved team was the Bears. Halas retired as a player and replaced himself as coach of the Bears with Ralph Jones, who refined the T-formation by introducing wide ends and a halfback in motion. Jones also introduced rookie All-America fullback-tackle Bronko Nagurski.
- The Giants defeated a team of former Notre Dame players coached by Knute Rockne 22-0 before 55,000 at the Polo Grounds, Dec. 14. The proceeds went to the New York Unemployment Fund to help those suffering because of the Great Depression, and the easy victory helped give the NFL credibility with the press and the public.

1931

- The NFL decreased to 10 teams, and halfway through the season the Frankford franchise folded. Carr fined the Bears, Packers, and Portsmouth $1,000 each for using players whose college classes had not graduated.
- The Packers won an unprecedented third consecutive title, beating out the Spartans, who were led by rookie backs Earl (Dutch) Clark and Glenn Presnell.

- George Preston Marshall, Vincent Bendix, Jay O'Brien, and M. Dorland Doyle were awarded a franchise for Boston, July 9. Despite the presence of two rookies—halfback Cliff Battles and tackle Glen (Turk) Edwards—the new team, named the Braves, lost money and Marshall was left as the sole owner at the end of the year.
- NFL membership dropped to eight teams, the lowest in history. Official statistics were kept for the first time. The Bears and the Spartans finished the season in the first-ever tie for first place. After the season finale, the league office arranged for an additional regular-season game to determine the league champion. The game was moved indoors to Chicago Stadium because of bitter cold and heavy snow. The arena allowed only an 80-yard field that came right to the walls. The goal posts were moved from the end lines to the goal lines and, for safety, inbounds lines or hashmarks where the ball would be put in play were drawn 10 yards from the walls that butted against the sidelines. The Bears won 9-0, Dec. 18, scoring the winning touchdown on a two-yard pass from Nagurski to Grange. The Spartans claimed Nagurski's pass was thrown from less than five yards behind the line of scrimmage, violating the existing passing rule, but the play stood.

- The NFL, which long had followed the rules of college football, made a number of significant changes from the college game for the first time and began to develop rules serving its needs and the style of play it preferred. The innovations from the 1932 championship game—inbounds line or hashmarks and goal posts on the goal lines—were adopted. Also the forward pass was legalized from anywhere behind the line of scrimmage, Feb. 25.
- Marshall and Halas pushed through a proposal that divided the NFL into two divisions, with the winners to meet in an annual championship game, July 8.
- Three new franchises joined the league—the Pittsburgh Pirates of Art Rooney, the Philadelphia Eagles of Bert Bell and Lud Wray, and the Cincinnati Reds. The Staten Island Stapletons suspended operations for a year, but never returned to the league.

- Halas bought out Sternaman, became sole owner of the Bears, and reinstated himself as head coach. Marshall changed the name of the Boston Braves to the Redskins. David Jones sold the Chicago Cardinals to Charles W. Bidwill.
- In the first NFL Championship Game scheduled before the season, the Western Division champion Bears defeated the Eastern Division champion Giants 23-21 at Wrigley Field, Dec. 17.

1934

- G.A. (Dick) Richards purchased the Portsmouth Spartans, moved them to Detroit, and renamed them the Lions.
- Professional football gained new prestige when the Bears were matched against the best college football players in the first Chicago College All-Star Game, Aug. 31. The game ended in a scoreless tie before 79,432 at Soldier Field.
- The Cincinnati Reds lost their first eight games, then were suspended from the league for defaulting on payments. The St. Louis Gunners, an independent team, joined the NFL by buying the Cincinnati franchise and went 1-2 the last three weeks.
- Rookie Beattie Feathers of the Bears became the NFL's first 1,000-yard rusher, gaining 1,004 on 101 carries. The Thanksgiving Day game between the Bears and the Lions became the first NFL game broadcast nationally, with Graham McNamee the announcer for NBC radio.
- In the championship game, on an extremely cold and icy day at the Polo Grounds, the Giants trailed the Bears 13-3 in the third quarter before changing to basketball shoes for better footing. The Giants won 30-13 in what has come to be known as the Sneakers Game, Dec. 9.
- The player waiver rule was adopted, Dec. 10.

- The NFL adopted Bert Bell's proposal to hold an annual draft of college players, to begin in 1936, with teams selecting in an inverse order of finish, May 19. The inbounds line or hashmarks were moved nearer the center of the field, 15 yards from the sidelines.
- All-America end Don Hutson of Alabama joined Green Bay. The Lions defeated the Giants 26-7 in the NFL Championship Game, Dec. 15.

- There were no franchise transactions for the first year since the formation of the NFL. It also was the first year in which all member teams played the same number of games.
- The Eagles made University of Chicago halfback and Heisman Trophy winner Jay Berwanger the first player ever selected in the NFL draft, Feb. 8. The Eagles traded his rights to the Bears, but Berwanger never played pro football. The first player selected to actually sign was the number-two pick, Riley Smith of Alabama, who was selected by Boston.

CHRONOLOGY OF PROFESSIONAL FOOTBALL

- ▶ A rival league was formed, and it became the second to call itself the American Football League. The Boston Shamrocks were its champions.
- ▶ Because of poor attendance, Marshall, the owner of the host team, moved the Championship Game from Boston to the Polo Grounds in New York. Green Bay defeated the Redskins 21-6, Dec. 13.

1937

- ▶ Homer Marshman was granted a Cleveland franchise, named the Rams, Feb. 12. Marshall moved the Redskins to Washington, D.C., Feb. 13. The Redskins signed TCU All-America tailback Sammy Baugh, who led them to a 28-21 victory over the Bears in the NFL Championship Game, Dec. 12.
- ▶ The Los Angeles Bulldogs had an 8-0 record to win the AFL title, but then the 2-year-old league folded.

1938

- ▶ At the suggestion of Halas, Hugh (Shorty) Ray became a technical advisor on rules and officiating to the NFL. A new rule called for a 15-yard penalty for roughing the passer.
- ▶ Rookie Byron (Whizzer) White of the Pittsburgh Pirates led the NFL in rushing. The Giants defeated the Packers 23-17 for the NFL title, Dec. 11.
- ▶ Marshall, Los Angeles Times sports editor Bill Henry, and promoter Tom Gallery established the Pro Bowl game between the NFL champion and a team of pro all-stars.

1939

- ▶ The New York Giants defeated the Pro All-Stars 13-10 in the first Pro Bowl, at Wrigley Field, Los Angeles, Jan. 15.
- ▶ Carr, NFL president since 1921, died in Columbus, May 20. Carl Storkc was named acting president, May 25.
- ▶ An NFL game was televised for the first time when NBC broadcast the Brooklyn Dodgers-Philadelphia Eagles game from Ebbets Field to the approximately 1,000 sets then in New York, Oct. 22.
- ▶ Green Bay defeated New York 27-0 in the NFL Championship Game, Dec. 10 at Milwaukee. NFL attendance exceeded 1 million in a season for the first time, reaching 1,071,200.

- ▶ A six-team rival league, the third to call itself the American Football League, was formed, and the Columbus Bullies won its championship.
- ▶ Halas' Bears, with additional coaching by Clark Shaughnessy of Stanford, defeated the Redskins 73-0 in the NFL Championship Game, December 8. The game, which was the most decisive victory in NFL history, popularized the Bears' T-formation with a man-in-motion. It was the first championship carried on network radio, broadcast by Red Barber to 120 stations of the Mutual Broadcasting System, which paid $2,500 for the rights.

- ▶ Art Rooney sold the Pittsburgh franchise to Alexis Thompson, Dec. 9, then bought part interest in the Philadelphia Eagles.
- ▶ Bell and Rooney traded the Eagles to Thompson for the Pirates, then re-named their new team the Steelers.

1941

- ▶ Elmer Layden was named the first Commissioner of the NFL, March 1; Storkc, the acting president, resigned, April 5. NFL headquarters were moved to Chicago.
- ▶ Homer Marshman sold the Rams to Daniel F. Reeves and Fred Levy, Jr.
- ▶ The league by-laws were revised to provide for playoffs in case there were ties in division races, and sudden-death overtimes in case a playoff game was tied after four quarters. An official NFL Record Manual was published for the first time.
- ▶ Columbus again won the championship of the AFL, but the two-year-old league then folded.
- ▶ The Bears and the Packers finished in a tie for the Western Division championship, setting up the first divisional playoff game in league history. The Bears won 33-14, then defeated the Giants 37-9 for the NFL championship, Dec. 21.

1942

- ▶ Players departing for service in World War II depleted the rosters of NFL teams. Halas left the Bears in midseason to join the Navy, and Luke Johnsos and Heartley (Hunk) Anderson served as co-coaches as the Bears went 11-0 in the regular season. The Redskins defeated the Bears 14-6 in the NFL Championship Game, Dec. 13.

1943

- ▶ The Cleveland Rams, with co-owners Reeves and Levy in the service, were granted permission to suspend operations for one season, April 6. Levy transferred his stock in the team to Reeves, April 16.
- ▶ The NFL adopted free substitution, April 7. The league also made the wearing of helmets mandatory and approved a 10-game schedule for all teams.
- ▶ Philadelphia and Pittsburgh were granted permission to merge for one season, June 19. The team, known as Phil-Pitt (and called the Steagles by fans), divided home games between the two cities, and Earle (Greasy) Neale of Philadelphia and Walt Kiesling of Pittsburgh served as co-coaches. The merger automatically dissolved the last day of the season, Dec. 5.
- ▶ Ted Collins was granted a franchise for Boston, to become active in 1944.
- ▶ Sammy Baugh led the league in passing, punting, and interceptions. He led the Redskins to a tie with the Giants for the Eastern Division title, and then to a 28-0 victory in a divisional playoff game. The Bears beat the Redskins 41-21 in the NFL Championship Game, Dec. 26.

1944

- ▶ Collins, who had wanted a franchise in Yankee Stadium in New York, named his new team in Boston the Yanks. Cleveland resumed operations. The Brooklyn Dodgers changed their name to the Tigers.
- ▶ Coaching from the bench was legalized, April 20.
- ▶ The Cardinals and the Steelers were granted permission to merge for one year under the name Card-Pitt, April 21. Phil Handler of the Cardinals and Walt Kiesling of the Steelers served as co-coaches. The merger automatically dissolved the last day of the season, Dec. 3.
- ▶ In the NFL Championship Game, Green Bay defeated the New York Giants 14-7, Dec. 17.

- ▶ The inbounds lines or hashmarks were moved from 15 yards away from the sidelines to nearer the center of the field—20 yards from the sidelines.
- ▶ Brooklyn and Boston merged into a team that played home games in both cities and was known simply as The Yanks. The team was coached by former Boston head coach Herb Kopf. In December, the Brooklyn franchise withdrew from the NFL to join the new All-America Football Conference; all the players on its active and reserve lists were assigned to The Yanks, who once again became the Boston Yanks.
- ▶ Halas rejoined the Bears late in the season after service with the U.S. Navy. Although Halas took over much of the coaching duties, Anderson and Johnsos remained the coaches of record throughout the season.
- ▶ Steve Van Buren of Philadelphia led the NFL in rushing, kickoff returns, and scoring.
- ▶ After the Japanese surrendered ending World War II, a count showed that the NFL service roster, limited to men who had played in league games, totaled 638, 21 of whom had died in action.
- ▶ Rookie quarterback Bob Waterfield led Cleveland to a 15-14 victory over Washington in the NFL Championship Game, Dec. 16.

- ▶ The contract of Commissioner Layden was not renewed, and Bert Bell, co-owner of the Steelers, replaced him, Jan. 11. Bell moved the league headquarters from Chicago to the Philadelphia suburb of Bala-Cynwyd.
- ▶ Free substitution was withdrawn and substitutions were limited to no more than three men at a time. Forward passes were made automatically incomplete upon striking the goal posts, Jan. 11.
- ▶ The NFL took on a truly national appearance for the first time when Reeves was granted permission by the league to move his NFL champion Rams to Los Angeles.
- ▶ Halfback Kenny Washington (March 21) and end Woody Strode (May 7) signed with the Los Angeles Rams to become the first African-Americans to play in the NFL in the modern era. Guard Bill Willis (Aug. 6) and running back Marion Motley (Aug. 9) joined the AAFC with the Cleveland Browns.

CHRONOLOGY OF PROFESSIONAL FOOTBALL

- The rival All-America Football Conference began play with eight teams. The Cleveland Browns, coached by Paul Brown, won the AAFC's first championship, defeating the New York Yankees 14-9.

- Bill Dudley of the Steelers led the NFL in rushing, interceptions, and punt returns, and won the league's most valuable player award.

- Backs Frank Filchock and Merle Hapes of the Giants were questioned about an attempt by a New York man to fix the championship game with the Bears. Bell suspended Hapes but allowed Filchock to play; he played well, but Chicago won 24-14, Dec. 15.

- The NFL added a fifth official, the back judge.

- A bonus choice was made for the first time in the NFL draft. One team each year would select the special choice before the first round began. The Chicago Bears won a lottery and the rights to the first choice and drafted back Bob Fenimore of Oklahoma A&M.

- The Cleveland Browns again won the AAFC title, defeating the New York Yankees 14-3.

- Charles Bidwill, Sr., owner of the Cardinals, died April 19, but his wife and sons retained ownership of the team. On Dec. 28, the Cardinals won the NFL Championship Game 28-21 over the Philadelphia Eagles, who had beaten Pittsburgh 21-0 in a playoff.

1948

- Plastic helmets were prohibited. A flexible artificial tee was permitted at the kickoff. Officials other than the referee were equipped with whistles, not horns, Jan. 14.

- Fred Mandel sold the Detroit Lions to a syndicate headed by D. Lyle Fife, Jan. 15.

- Halfback Fred Gehrkke of the Los Angeles Rams painted horns on the Rams' helmets, the first modern helmet emblems in pro football.

- The Cleveland Browns won their third straight AAFC championship, going 14-0 and then defeating the Buffalo Bills 49-7.

- In a blizzard, the Eagles defeated the Cardinals 7-0 in the NFL Championship Game, Dec. 19.

1949

- Alexis Thompson sold the champion Eagles to a syndicate headed by James P. Clark, Jan. 15. The Boston Yanks became the New York Bulldogs, sharing the Polo Grounds with the Giants.

- Free substitution was adopted for one year, Jan. 20.

- The NFL had two 1,000-yard rushers in the same season for the first time—Steve Van Buren of Philadelphia and Tony Canadeo of Green Bay.

- The AAFC played its season with a one-division, seven-team format. On Dec. 9, Bell announced a merger agreement in which three AAFC franchises—Cleveland, San Francisco, and Baltimore—would join the NFL in 1950. The Browns won their fourth consecutive AAFC title, defeating the 49ers 21-7, Dec. 11.

- In a heavy rain, the Eagles defeated the Rams 14-0 in the NFL Championship Game, Dec. 18.

1950

- Unlimited free substitution was restored, opening the way for the era of two platoons and specialization in pro football, Jan. 20.

- Curly Lambeau, founder of the franchise and Green Bay's head coach since 1921, resigned under fire, Feb. 1.

- The name National Football League was restored after about three months as the National-American Football League. The American and National conferences were created to replace the Eastern and Western divisions, March 3.

- The New York Bulldogs became the Yanks and divided the players of the former AAFC Yankees with the Giants. A special allocation draft was held in which the 13 teams drafted the remaining AAFC players, with special consideration for Baltimore, which received 15 choices compared to 10 for other teams.

- The Los Angeles Rams became the first NFL team to have all of its games—both home and away—televised. The Washington Redskins followed the Rams in arranging to televise their games; other teams made deals to put selected games on television.

- In the first game of the season, former AAFC champion Cleveland defeated NFL champion Philadelphia 35-10. For the first time, deadlocks occurred in both conferences and playoffs were necessary. The Browns defeated the Giants in the American and the Rams defeated the Bears in the National. Cleveland defeated Los Angeles 30-28 in the NFL Championship Game, Dec. 24.

- The Pro Bowl game, dormant since 1942, was revived under a new format matching the all-stars of each conference at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. The American Conference defeated the National Conference 28-27, Jan. 14.

- Abraham Walner returned the Baltimore franchise and its player contracts back to the NFL for $50,000. Baltimore's former players were made available for drafting at the same time as college players, Jan. 18.

- A rule was passed that no tackle, guard, or center would be eligible to catch a forward pass, Jan. 18.

- The Rams reversed their television policy and televised only road games.

- The NFL Championship Game was televised coast-to-coast for the first time, Dec. 23. The DuMont Network paid $75,000 for the rights to the game, in which the Rams defeated the Browns 24-17.

1952

- Ted Collins sold the New York Yanks' franchise back to the NFL, Jan. 19. A new franchise was awarded to a group in Dallas after it purchased the assets of the Yanks, Jan. 24. The new Texans went 1-11, with the owners turning the franchise back to the league in midseason. For the last five games of the season, the commissioner's office operated the Texans as a road team, using Hershey, Pennsylvania, as a home base. At the end of the season the franchise was canceled, the last time an NFL team failed.

- The Pittsburgh Steelers abandoned the Single-Wing for the T-formation, the last pro team to do so.

- The Detroit Lions won their first NFL championship in 17 years, defeating the Browns 17-7 in the title game, Dec. 28.

- A Baltimore group headed by Carroll Rosenbloom was granted a franchise and was awarded the holdings of the defunct Dallas organization, Jan. 23. The team, named the Colts, put together the largest trade in league history, acquiring 10 players from Cleveland in exchange for five.

- The names of the American and National conferences were changed to the Eastern and Western conferences, Jan. 24.

- Jim Thorpe died, March 28.

- Mickey McBride, founder of the Cleveland Browns, sold the franchise to a syndicate headed by Dave R. Jones, June 10.

- The NFL policy of blacking out home games was upheld by Judge Allan K. Grim of the U.S. District Court in Philadelphia, Nov. 12.

- The Lions again defeated the Browns in the NFL Championship Game, winning 17-16, Dec. 27.

1954

- The Canadian Football League began a series of raids on NFL teams, signing quarterback Eddie LeBaron and defensive end Gene Brito of Washington and defensive tackle Arnie Weinmeister of the Giants, among others.

- Fullback Joe Perry of the 49ers became the first player in league history to gain 1,000 yards rushing in consecutive seasons.

- Cleveland defeated Detroit 56-10 in the NFL Championship Game, December 26.

1955

- The sudden-death overtime rule was used for the first time in a preseason game between the Rams and Giants at Portland, Oregon, Aug. 28. The Rams won 23-17 three minutes into overtime.

- A rule change declared the ball dead immediately if the ball carrier touched the ground with any part of his body except his hands or feet while in the grasp of an opponent.

- The Baltimore Colts made an 80-cent phone call to Johnny Unitas and signed him as a free agent. Another quarterback, Otto Graham, played his last game as the Browns defeated the Rams 38-14 in the NFL Championship Game, Dec. 26. Graham had quarterbacked the Browns to 10 championship-game appearances in 10 years.

- NBC replaced DuMont as the network for the title game, paying a rights fee of $100,000.

- ▶ A seventh official, the side judge, was added to the officiating crew, March 14.
- ▶ The NFL continued a trend toward opening up the game. Rules changes permitted a defender to maintain contact with a receiver within five yards of the line of scrimmage, but restricted contact beyond that point. The pass-blocking rule was interpreted to permit the extending of arms and open hands, March 17.
- ▶ A study on the use of instant replay as an officiating aid was made during seven nationally televised preseason games.
- ▶ The NFL played for the first time in Mexico City, with the Saints defeating the Eagles 14-7 in a preseason game, Aug. 5.

CHRONOLOGY OF PROFESSIONAL FOOTBALL

- Bolstered by the expansion of the regular-season schedule from 14 to 16 weeks, NFL paid attendance exceeded 12 million (12,771,800) for the first time. The per-game average of 57,017 was the third-highest in league history and the most since 1973.

- Pittsburgh defeated Dallas 35-31 in Super Bowl XIII at Miami to become the first team ever to win three Super Bowls, Jan. 21.
- NFL rules changes emphasized additional player safety. The changes prohibited players on the receiving team from blocking below the waist during kickoffs, punts, and field-goal attempts; prohibited the wearing of torn or altered equipment and exposed pads that could be hazardous; extended the zone in which there could be no crackback blocks; and instructed officials to quickly whistle a play dead when a quarterback was clearly in the grasp of a tackler, March 16.
- Carroll Rosenbloom, the president of the Rams, drowned at 72, April 2. His widow, Georgia, assumed control of the club.

1980

- Pittsburgh defeated the Los Angeles Rams 31-19 in Super Bowl XIV at Pasadena to become the first team to win four Super Bowls, Jan. 20.
- The AFC-NFC Pro Bowl, won 37-27 by the NFC, was played before 48,060 fans at Aloha Stadium in Honolulu, Hawaii. It was the first time in the 30-year history of the Pro Bowl that the game was played in a non-NFL city.
- Rules changes placed greater restrictions on contact in the area of the head, neck, and face. Under the heading of "personal foul," players were prohibited from directly striking, swinging, or clubbing on the head, neck, or face. Starting in 1980, a penalty could be called for such contact whether or not the initial contact was made below the neck area.
- CBS, with a record bid of $12 million, won the national radio rights to 26 NFL regular-season games, including Monday Night Football, and all 10 postseason games for the 1980-83 seasons.
- The Los Angeles Rams moved their home games to Anaheim Stadium in nearby Orange County, California.
- The Oakland Raiders joined the Los Angeles Coliseum Commission's antitrust suit against the NFL. The suit contended the league violated antitrust laws in declining to approve a proposed move by the Raiders from Oakland to Los Angeles.
- The NFL Draft is televised for the first time by ESPN, April 29.
- Television ratings in 1980 were the second-best in NFL history, trailing only the combined ratings of the 1976 season. All three networks posted gains, and NBC's 15.0 rating was its best ever. CBS and ABC had their best ratings since 1977, with 15.3 and 20.8 ratings, respectively. CBS Radio reported a record audience of 7 million for Monday night and special games.

1981

- Oakland defeated Philadelphia 27-10 in Super Bowl XV at the Louisiana Superdome in New Orleans, to become the first wild-card team to win a Super Bowl, Jan. 25.

1982

- San Francisco defeated Cincinnati 26-21 in Super Bowl XVI at the Pontiac Silverdome, in the first Super Bowl held in the North, Jan. 24. The CBS telecast achieved the highest rating of any televised sports event ever, 49.1 with a 73.0 share.
- The NFL signed a five-year contract with the three television networks (ABC, CBS, and NBC) to televise all NFL regular-season and postseason games starting with the 1982 season.
- A jury ruled against the NFL in the antitrust trial brought by the Los Angeles Coliseum Commission and the Oakland Raiders, May 7. The verdict cleared the way for the Raiders to move to Los Angeles, where they defeated Green Bay 24-3 in their first preseason game, Aug. 29.
- The Vikings moved into the new Metrodome, Aug. 21.
- The 1982 season was reduced from a 16-game schedule to nine as the result of a 57-day players' strike. The strike was called by the NFLPA at midnight on Monday, Sept. 20, following the Green Bay at New York Giants game. Play resumed Nov. 21-22 following ratification of the Collective Bargaining Agreement by NFL owners, Nov. 17 in New York.
- Under the Collective Bargaining Agreement, which was to run through the 1986 season, the NFL draft was extended through 1992 and the veteran free-agent system was left basically unchanged. A minimum salary schedule for years of experience was established; training camp and postseason pay were increased; players' medical, insurance, and retirement benefits were increased; and a severance-pay system was introduced to aid in career transition, a first in professional sports.
- Despite the players' strike, the average paid attendance in 1982 was 58,472, the fifth-highest in league history.

1983

- Because of the shortened season, the NFL adopted a format of 16 teams competing in

- a Super Bowl Tournament for the 1982 playoffs. The NFC's number-one seed, Washington, defeated the AFC's number-two seed, Miami, 27-17 in Super Bowl XVII at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Jan. 30.
- Super Bowl XVII was the second-highest rated live television program of all time, giving the NFL a sweep of the top 10 live programs in television history.
- The NFL played for the first time in London, England, with the Vikings defeating the Cardinals 28-10 in a preseason game, Aug. 6.

President Ronald Reagan, who took his second oath of office before tossing the coin for the game, was one of 115,936,000 viewers. Super Bowl XIX had a direct economic impact of $113.5 million on the San Francisco Bay area.
- NBC Radio and the NFL entered into a two-year agreement granting NBC the radio rights to a 37-game package in each of the

CHRONOLOGY OF PROFESSIONAL FOOTBALL

1985-86 seasons, March 6. The package included 27 regular-season games and 10 postseason games.

- ▶ Norman Braman, in partnership with Edward Leibowitz, bought the Philadelphia Eagles from Leonard Tose, April 29.
- ▶ A group headed by Tom Benson, Jr., was approved to purchase the New Orleans Saints from John W. Mecom, Jr., June 3.
- ▶ The NFL owners adopted a resolution calling for a series of overseas preseason games, beginning in 1986, with one game to be played in England/Europe and/or one game in Japan each year. The game would be a fifth preseason game for the clubs involved and all arrangements and selection of the clubs would be under the control of the Commissioner, May 23.
- ▶ The league-wide conversion to videotape from movie film for coaching study was approved.
- ▶ A Louis Harris poll in December revealed that pro football remained the sport most followed by Americans. Fifty-nine percent of those surveyed followed pro football, compared with 54 percent who followed baseball.
- ▶ The Chicago-Miami Monday game had the highest rating, 29.6, and share, 46.0, of any primetime game in NFL history, Dec. 2. The game was viewed in more than 25 million homes.
- ▶ The NFL showed a ratings increase on all three networks for the season, gaining 4 percent on NBC, 10 on CBS, and 16 on ABC.

- ▶ Chicago defeated New England 46-10 in Super Bowl XX at the Louisiana Superdome, Jan. 26. The Patriots had earned the right to play the Bears by becoming the first wild-card team to win three consecutive games on the road. The NBC telecast replaced the final episode of *M*A*S*H* as the most-viewed television program in history, with an audience of 127 million viewers, according to A.C. Nielsen figures. In addition to drawing a 48.3 rating and a 70 percent share in the United States, Super Bowl XX was televised to 59 foreign countries and beamed via satellite to the QE II.
- ▶ The owners adopted limited use of instant replay as an officiating aid, prohibited players from wearing or otherwise displaying equipment, apparel, or other items that carry commercial names, names of organizations, or personal messages of any type, March 11.
- ▶ After an 11-week trial, a jury in U.S. District Court in New York awarded the United States Football League one dollar in its $1.7 billion antitrust suit against the NFL. The jury rejected all of the USFL's television-related claims, which were the self-proclaimed heart of the USFL's case. The jury deliberated five days, July 29.
- ▶ Chicago defeated Dallas 17-6 at Wembley Stadium in London in the first American Bowl. The game drew a sellout crowd of 82,699 and the NBC national telecast in this country produced a 12.4 rating and 36 percent share, making it the highest daytime preseason television audience ever with 10.65-million viewers, Aug. 3.

- ▶ ABC's NFL Monday Night Football, in its 17th season, became the longest-running primetime series in the history of the network.

1987

As the result of a 57-day players' strike, the 1982 NFL regular-season schedule was reduced from 16 weeks to nine. At the conclusion of the regular season, the NFL conducted a 16-team postseason Super Bowl Tournament. Eight teams from each conference were seeded 1-8 based on their records during the season.

#Top playoff seed in conference

Miami finished ahead of Cincinnati based on better conference record (6-1 to Bengals' 6-2). Pittsburgh finished ahead of San Diego based on better record against common opponents (3-1 to Chargers' 2-1) after N.Y. Jets were eliminated from three-way tie based on conference record (Pittsburgh and San Diego 5-3 to Jets' 2-3). Cleveland finished ahead of Buffalo and Seattle based on better conference record (4-3 to Bills' 3-3 to Seahawks' 3-5). Buffalo finished ahead of Seattle based on better conference record (3-3 to Seahawks' 3-5). Minnesota (4-1), Atlanta (4-3), St. Louis (5-4), Tampa Bay (3-3) seeds were determined by best won-lost record in conference games. Detroit finished ahead of New Orleans and the N.Y. Giants based on best conference record (4-4 to Saints' 3-5 to Giants' 3-5). New Orleans finished ahead of N.Y. Giants based on better record against common opponents (1-3 to Giants' 0-4). San Francisco finished ahead of Chicago, and Chicago finished ahead of Philadelphia, based on conference record (49ers' 2-3 to Bears' 2-5 to Eagles' 1-5).
