Mercedes-Benz Superdome [73,208] | New Orleans, La.

REDSKINS, SAINTS FACE OFF ON MONDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL

The Washington Redskins will make their first prime time appearance of the 2018 season when they face the New Orleans Saints on Monday Night Football. Kickoff from the Mercedes-Benz Superdome is scheduled for 8:15 p.m. ET.

The Redskins enter Week 5 following the bye week with the No. 2 ranked defense in points per game (14.7 avg.). The Redskins are also ranked third in total yards per game (278.0 avg.) and passing yards per game (187.3 avg.). The unit has not allowed a 300-yard passer this season. The Saints rank among the NFL's top five in yards per game (418.3 avg.) and points per game (34.3 avg.)

The offense will look to continue its versatility following a Week 3 win over Green Bay. Running back Adrian Peterson's career milestones have added incentives to the 2018 campaign. After passing Jim Brown for No. 10 on the NFL's all-time list for rushing yards in Week 1, Peterson recorded two rushing touchdowns against the Packers to take sole position of seventh on the NFL's all-time list.

CLASS OF 2018: BOBBY BEATHARD ENSHRINED IN THE PRO FOOTBALL FAME

RICHMOND, Va. [Aug. 4, 2018] — Former Washington Redskins General Manager Bobby Beathard was enshrined in Canton, Ohio at the Pro Football Hall of Fame as a member of the Class of 2018. Beathard, the architect behind some of the most legendary teams in Redskins lore, was presented by former Washington Redskins head coach and Pro Football Hall of Famer Joe Gibbs.

Beathard's illustrious career as an NFL executive included 11 seasons as General Manager of the Redskins from 1978-88. After taking the job on Feb. 24, 1978, Beathard guided the organization to three Super Bowl appearances, including victories in Super Bowls XVII and XXII. Many of the players he acquired remained on the roster for the team's Super Bowl XXVI victory as well.

In Beathard's 11 seasons as General Manager, the Redskins averaged 9.5 wins a year. The team posted a regular season winning percentage of .625 (105-63) in that time frame, best in the NFC and second-best in the NFL. No team in that time frame posted a better postseason winning percentage than the Redskins, who went 11-3 in postseason play in his tenure for a winning percentage of .786.

Draft classes during Beathard's tenure featured three members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, including wide receiver Art Monk (1980, No. 18 overall), guard Russ Grimm (1981, No. 69) and cornerback Darrell Green (1983, No. 28).

The classes also featured four additional members of the Redskins Ring of Fame, including linebacker Monte Coleman (1979, No. 289), defensive end Dexter Manley (1981, No. 119), defensive end Charles Mann (1983, No. 84) and quarterback Mark Rypien (1986, No. 146).

Additionally, Beathard oversaw the college free agent additions of Redskins Ring of Famers Jeff Bostic and Joe Jacoby and supplemented the team with a number of former USFL stars, including quarterback Doug Williams and wide receivers Gary Clark and Ricky Sanders. All of the players listed were led on the field by Coach Gibbs, the former San Diego Chargers offensive coordinator whom Beathard hired prior to the 1981 season.

Beathard began his career as a part-time scout for the American Football League's Kansas City Chiefs in 1963. He earned an AFL championship ring with the organization in 1966 en route to the team's berth in Super Bowl I. He would later serve as a scout for the Atlanta Falcons from 1968-71 and as Director of Player Personnel for the Miami Dolphins from 1972-77 prior to joining the Redskins. He finished his career as General Manager of the San Diego Chargers, serving in that capacity from 1990-2000. In all, Beathard's teams made seven Super Bowl appearances, including one by Kansas City (1966), two by Miami (1972-73), three by Washington (1982-83 and 1987) and one by San Diego (1994).

Beathard was born in Zanesville, Ohio, on Jan. 24, 1937. He grew up in the Los Angeles area and attended El Segundo H.S. before playing quarterback at Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo, where he helped lead the 1957 and 1958 teams to consecutive 9-1 records.

HEAD COACH JAY GRUDEN

Jay Gruden enters his fifth season with the Washington Redskins in 2018 after being named the 29th head coach in franchise history on January 9, 2014.

Previously a decorated quarterback in the college and Arena Football League ranks and a successful NFL assistant, Gruden has showcased his offensive acumen honed from his diverse football background throughout his tenure with the Redskins.

In 2017, the Redskins won at least seven games for their third straight season for the first time since a four-year streak from 1999-2002, marking the fourth-longest streak of seven-win seasons in team history. Gruden's team reached seven wins despite dealing with substantial injury issues throughout the season, as 72 different players appeared in game action for the squad, the second-most used by the team in a single season since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger, trailing only the 108 used to complete the 1987 strike season.

Among the team's highlights in the 2017 season was the team's 4-0 record against NFC West opponents, the franchise's second full-division sweep since NFL realignment in 2002 and the team's first since 2005. The season also produced three Pro Bowlers, with linebacker Ryan Kerrigan, guard Brandon Scherff and tackle Trent Williams all earning return selections among the league's best.

A year earlier, Gruden guided the Redskins to an 8-7-1 record in 2016, giving the franchise back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since 1996-97. The team was led by Gruden's record-shattering offense, which posted team records in total net yards (6,545), net passing yards (4,758) and yards per play (6.40), ranking in the Top 3 in the NFL in all three categories.

Gruden's offense — once called "easily one of the three or four best designed offenses in the NFL" by Andy Benoit of The MMQB — was more than just historically efficient and explosive that season. The distribution of the offensive contributions allowed eight Redskins players (DeSean Jackson, Pierre Garçon, Jamison Crowder, Rob Kelley, Chris Thompson, Jordan Reed, Vernon Davis and Matt Jones) to finish the season with at least 500 yards from scrimmage, tying the 2011 New Orleans Saints for the most in a single season in NFL history.

In 2015, Gruden led the Redskins to an NFC East Championship, posting a 9-7 record to complete the second "worst-to-first" turnaround in team history. Gruden became the sixth coach in team history to lead the Redskins to a playoff berth within the first two years at the helm, joining Ray Flaherty, Dutch Bergman, Dudley DeGroot, George Allen and Joe Gibbs.

Under Gruden's guidance, the 2015 Redskins featured what was at the time the most prolific passing attack in franchise history. Quarterback Kirk Cousins, named the starter in the middle of the preseason, set then-single-season team records for attempts (543), completions (379), passing yards (4,166) and 300-yard passing games (seven) while throwing 29 touchdown passes, including at least one in all 16 games. Cousins' success coincided with the emergence of tight end Jordan Reed, who finished the season with 87 receptions for 952 yards (both team records for a tight end) with 11 receiving touchdowns.

Gruden assumed control of the Redskins in 2014 and guided the team through a campaign in which three different quarterbacks (Robert Griffin III, Kirk Cousins and Colt McCoy) recorded victories as starters. He installed an offensive system that produced two Pro Bowlers in his first season (tackle Trent Williams and running back Alfred Morris).

Excluding interim coaches, Gruden, 46 at the time of his hiring, became the team's youngest head coaching hire since hiring eventual Pro Football Hall of Famer Joe Gibbs at 40 years of age in 1981. He became the first Redskins head coach hired directly from an offensive coordinator role on another team since Norv Turner in 1994.

Before joining the Redskins, Gruden spent his previous three seasons as offensive coordinator for the Cincinnati Bengals. In his tenure in Cincinnati, the Bengals averaged 10 wins a season, making three consecutive playoff appearances and earning an AFC North championship in 2013. Members of the Bengals' offense accounted for seven Pro Bowl selections in his three seasons in Cincinnati.

Gruden was tasked with the development of quarterback Andy Dalton, a 2011 second-round pick. In three seasons together, Gruden helped Dalton to a 30-18 regular season record as a starter (.625), as Dalton's 30 wins in that time frame ranked tied for fifth-most among NFL quarterbacks. Dalton's 80 passing touchdowns ranked third-most in NFL history for a quarterback in his first three seasons, trailing only Dan Marino (98) and Peyton Manning (85).

Prior to joining the Bengals, Gruden served two years with the Florida Tuskers of the United Football League from 2009-10. In 2009, Gruden served as offensive coordinator as the Tuskers compiled a 6-0 regular season record and earned a UFL championship game berth. In 2010, he assumed the roles of head coach and general manager and led the Tuskers to their second consecutive championship game appearance.

Gruden coached for seven seasons (2002-08) with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, earning a Super Bowl championship ring as an offensive assistant in 2002. There he worked under his brother, Jon (then the Bucs' head coach), and current Redskins President Bruce Allen (the Bucs' general manager from 2004-08). Gruden helped guide the Buccaneers to the team's first championship, a 48-21 victory in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Gruden also ranks among the most outstanding players and coaches in the history of the Arena Football League, having won six combined league championships — four as a quarterback and two as a head coach. Gruden played quarterback (2002-03) and served as head coach (2004-08) of the AFL's Orlando Predators while simultaneously working as an offensive assistant with the Buccaneers. In all, Gruden served as head coach of the Predators for nine seasons (1998-2001 and 2004-08), leading the Predators to four championship game appearances and two league titles as a coach. During a two-year hiatus from coaching the Predators in 2002-03, he returned to the playing field as Orlando's quarterback, leading the Predators to playoff appearances in both seasons.

In his eight seasons as a player in the AFL, Gruden completed 1,673-of-2,775 passes (60.3 percent) for 21,578 yards with 398 touchdowns and 99 interceptions. In addition to his time with Orlando, he spent six seasons (1991-96) at quarterback for the Tampa Bay Storm, winning four AFL titles and being named MVP of Arena Bowl VII in 1993. He was also named the 1992 AFL Most Valuable Player and was honored with induction into the AFL Hall of Fame in 1999.

Gruden played quarterback for four seasons for former Redskins draft pick Howard Schnellenberger at the University of Louisville (1985-88) and was a two-time team MVP.

Gruden was born March 4, 1967, in Tiffin, Ohio. He and his wife, Sherry, have three sons — J.J., Joey and Jack — and a grandson, Trey.

SEAN PAYTON

Since he was hired as head coach of the New Orleans Saints in 2006, Sean Payton has led the Saints to five playoff berths, three NFC South division titles and the franchise's first World Championship in Super Bowl XLIV.

Payton has a 93-61 overall record (.604), including a 6-4 postseason mark (.600). Throughout his tenure, Payton holds the franchise's top winning percentage (.604) for a head coach and ranks seventh among current NFL head coaches (min. 50 games). He's one win short of sur-

Payton is the longest tenured head coach in the NFC South and trails only New England's Bill Belichick [2000], Cincinnati's Marvin Lewis [2003] and Green Bay's Mike McCarthy (hired one week prior to Payton in 2006) in active tenure.

Payton has presided over prolific offenses since his arrival, leading the league in net yards per game in 2006, 2008, 2009, 2011 and 2014, and finishing first in scoring in 2008 and 2009. These are the only five times the Saints have led the NFL in offense. Ranking in the top ten offensively every season since Payton arrived, the Saints have the third-longest streak (10 seasons) in the NFL since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. In team history, the Saints have scored at least 45 points on 17 separate occasions with 13 of these outputs occurring under Payton's watch. During his tenure, the Saints have set 26 team single-season records, four of them NFL marks. He's also sent 16 players with a total of 36 selections to the Pro Bowl and earned the honor of coaching the NFC squad following the 2006 season.

Payton was hired as the 14th head coach in Saints history on Jan. 18, 2006 after serving as a member of the Dallas Cowboys coaching staff from 2003-05 under 2013 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee Bill Parcells. In 2009, en route to the Super Bowl XLIV title, Payton guided the Saints to the team's second NFC South title in four seasons with a 13-3 record. Along the way the Saints set a franchise-record for most regular season wins in a season (13) and posted the franchise's longest winning streak and best start when they won their first 13 contests.

Prior to his time in New Orleans and Dallas, Payton spent four years with the New York Giants (1999-2002), the last three as offensive coordinator after spending his first season as quarterbacks coach. He spent 1997 and 1998 as Philadelphia's quarterbacks coach.

Following the 1993 season, Payton moved to Miami (Ohio) [1994-95] where he was quarterbacks coach. He spent 1996 as quarterbacks coach at Illinois before entering the NFL with Philadelphia.

Payton wrapped two coaching stints at San Diego State University (1988-89 and 1992-93) around a stop at Indiana State (1990-91).

Payton earned a bachelor's degree in communications at Eastern Illinois. The three-time AP All-American selection had professional stints with Chicago of the Arena Football League, Ottawa of the Canadian Football League and the Chicago Bears in 1987. Payton was inducted into the Eastern Illinois Hall of Fame in September of 2000.

LEADING THE FAN EXPERIENCE

In May, the Washington Redskins hired Brian Lafemina as the team's President of Business Operations and Chief Operating Officer.

In this newly created role, Lafemina will oversee all club business operations and report directly to Owner Dan Snyder.

"Nothing could have prepared me more for this role than working at the NFL," Lafemina said. "Dan first approached me about a year ago to discuss the possibility of me joining the Redskins. During that time, I was able to see first-hand his passion for the Redskins, the game of football and his deep commitment to the Washington, D.C. community. Working with Dan and Bruce Allen to develop a new dynamic stadium that matches the vibrancy of this organization and its fan base will be an exciting challenge and one of our top priorities. I would also be remiss if I didn't thank everyone I have worked with at the NFL, starting with Roger Goodell."

Lafemina spent eight years at the NFL, leading Club Business Development and building the team that works to create and share best practices across all of the NFL's 32 member clubs. During his tenure, the league saw significant growth in game day fan satisfaction, season ticket sales, suite sales, local sponsorship and media revenue. In addition, Lafemina led or played key roles in league-wide initiatives on fan experience, ticketing strategy, Super Bowl strategy, Pro Bowl strategy and stadium development.

"I am thrilled to welcome Brian to the Washington Redskins. Brian has been one of the most highly regarded NFL executives amongst league ownership for many years because of his deep understanding of our business, his focus on partner relationships and his genuine belief that fans must be at the center of every decision we make. Brian is coming to Washington with fresh thinking and big ideas to implement, and I have full confidence that with Brian's addition and with Bruce Allen continuing as team President, the Redskins' success will continue to grow, both on and off the field."

- Redskins Owner Daniel M. Snyder

Before joining the NFL, Lafemina spent 22 years at The Madison Square Garden Company in a variety of roles, starting as an intern and working his way up to Senior Vice President of Madison Square Garden Sports, where he was responsible for managing the business operations of the New York Knicks and New York Rangers.

Lafemina is a 1989 graduate of Rutgers University, where he earned his bachelor's degree in economics.

LAST MEETING

Saints 34, Redskins 31 OT

Associated Press
Nov. 19, 2017

NEW ORLEANS -- The New Orleans Saints extended their winning streak to eight games with an unlikely comeback, erasing a 15-point deficit inside the final six minutes of regulation and kicking a short field goal in overtime to defeat the Washington Redskins 34-31 on Sunday.

Mark Ingram capped a 131-yard rushing performance with gains of 20 and 31 yards on back-to-back carries in overtime to set up Wil Lutz's winning 28-yard kick.

Drew Brees passed for 385 yards and two touchdowns, going 11 of 11 for 164 yards and his only two touchdowns on New Orleans' final two possessions of regulation. His first TD went to tight end Josh Hill with 2:53 to go and the last to Alvin Kamara with 1:05 left.

The Saints (8-2) set up their final drive with by stopping Samaje Perine on third-and-1 at the two-minute warning when a first down would have allowed Washington (4-6) to run out the clock.

After Kamara had corralled a bobble while running between two converging defenders to score from 18 yards out, he took a pitch on a misdirection play to the left side and easily reached the end zone for a 2-point conversion as the Superdome crowd -- at least those who hadn't left early -- went wild.

Washington managed to get into winning field-goal range in the final minute of regulation, only to be pushed back by a fluky grounding penalty that appeared to result from Kirk Cousins' miscommunication with a receiver, followed by a sack as time expired.

The Redskins also received the ball first in overtime, but the Saints' hobbled defense, which gave up more yards than in any game during its winning streak, rallied to force a quick punt and Ingram did the rest.

Cousins passed for 322 yards and three touchdowns.

Aggressively looking down field against a hobbled Saints secondary, Cousins completed 22 of 32 passes with no interceptions. His touchdowns went for 40 yards to Ryan Grant, 16 to Chris Thompson and 7 to Jeremy Sprinkle. Grant's TD, which made it 24-13 in the third quarter, capped a drive extended by a successful fake punt on fourth-and-1 from the Redskins 15-yard line.

Perine carried 23 times for 117 yards, including his 1-yard TD.

New Orleans' defense entered the game without veteran safety Kenny Vaccaro and then lost top cornerback Marshon Lattimore at the end of Washington's first possession when he twisted his left ankle while diving to break up a pass in the end zone. The Saints also entered the game without leading tackler and starting middle linebacker A.J. Klein.

The Redskins gained 456 yards -- their second most this season -- against a Saints defense that had not allowed more 347 yards in any game during New Orleans' winning streak.

INJURIES

Saints: Lattimore tried to return for the first defensive series of the second half, but came off the field soon after and went to the locker room. Defensive end Alex Okafor needed help off the field, favoring his left leg, in the fourth quarter.

TEAM DRAFT NOTES

» Dating back to 2011, the Redskins have now selected at least seven players in eight consecutive drafts for the first time since the league adopted the seven-round format in 1994.

» Including their 10 selections in the 2017 NFL Draft, the Redskins have now selected eight or more players in back-to-back drafts for only the third time since the NFL adopted the seven-round format in 1994, including instances in 2011-12, 2014-15 and 2017-18.

» The Redskins made two trades during the draft. On Day 2, the Redskins sent the Nos. 44 and 142 overall picks to the San Francisco 49ers for the Nos. 59 and 74 overall selections. On Day 3, the team traded the Nos. 205 and 231 picks to the Los Angeles Rams for the Nos. 197 and 256 selections.

» Of the Redskins' eight selections, seven were made with picks acquired by trade, including draft-day trades with San Francisco (RB Derrius Guice and T Geron Christian) and the Los Angeles Rams (LB Shaun Dion Hamilton and WR Trey Quinn), an offseason trade with Denver (S Troy Apke and DL Tim Settle) and a 2017 preseason trade with the Rams (CB Greg Stroman).

» The Redskins' seven selections with picks acquired by trades are the team's most since 2011 (eight). The only player selected by Washington with one of the team's original picks was DL Daron Payne with the No. 13 overall selection.

» The Redskins have selected at least four players with picks acquired via trade in each of the last five drafts. It is the team's longest such stretch since a five-draft span from 1985-89.

» The Redskins selected two pairs of college teammates in the same draft for the first time since 2012.

DIVISION PARITY

Parity has been a topic de jour in recent years, and the league-wide trends provide the evidence. Each year since the 12-team playoff format was adopted in 1990, at least four teams have qualified for the playoffs after missing the postseason the year before. Through 2017, the NFC East and the AFC West are the only divisions to have all four teams earn at least one division title since 2011.

13 YEARS, NO NFC EAST REPEATS

No division has been more hotly contested in this era than the NFC East, as the 2017 season marked the division's 13th consecutive campaign without a repeat champion, easily the league's longest stretch. No other division has gone more than three years since their last repeat champion.

STARTING STRONG

From Weeks 2-8, the Redskins scored points on their first possession of six consecutive games for the first time since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. The stretch helped the Redskins rank fifth in the NFL in points scored on opening possessions in 2017.

POINTS ON FIRST OFFENSIVE POSSESSION (NFL, SINCE 2017):

| Team | TD | FG | Points |

| 5t. Washington Redskins | 6 | 4 | 54 |
| 5t. Jacksonville Jaguars | 5 | 5 | 50 |

Conversely, the Redskins' defense surrendered only 17 points on teams' opening drives in 2017. In Week 10, the Redskins allowed a touchdown on Minnesota's opening drive, snapping a streak of seven straight games without allowing any opening-possession points, the team's longest since the final seven games of the 2007 season. Prior to the drive, Washington had not surrendered any opening-drive points to opponents since allowing an opening drive touchdown in Week 1.

Through three games in 2018, Washington has allowed seven points on opening drives.

Below is a breakdown of how opponents fared against Washington on their opening possessions in 2017 by game. The Redskins rank tied for second in the NFL in number of scoring drives allowed on opponents' first possessions [four].

FLIGHT MARSHALS

In 2016, the Redskins made a major splash in their secondary, adding free agent Josh Norman to the group. A year later, the unit found additional leadership in both the coaching and player ranks.

In January of 2017, the Redskins named Torrian Gray as the team's Defensive Backs Coach after he spent the previous 11 seasons producing NFL defensive backs at Virginia Tech (2006-15) and Florida (2016). Two months later, the Redskins signed safety D.J. Swearinger on the first day of unrestricted free agency. Swearinger's swagger and Gray's emphasis on technique brought new life to a unit that has dubbed itself the "Flight Marshals."

"We control everything in the air, man," Swearinger told The Washington Post. "Like we say, man, we're going to get on this flight, it's going to be a long flight, we're going to keep everybody in their seat belts and we're going to keep the red light on. The wide receivers, you gotta stay in your seat belt."

The unit's signature celebration was on display against the 49ers in Week 6. After a game-sealing interception with three seconds remaining, Swearinger and his Flight Marshal teammates mimed a security screening/frisking.

No matter the nickname, Swearinger's impact has been immediately felt by Redskins coaches and players. He was named the team's defensive captain prior to ever stepping foot on the field for the Redskins in a regular season game. It was proof that Swearinger's teammates believed he could back up his reputation for trash talk with a reputation for stellar play.

"It's one thing being a vocal guy, but you have to back it up with production and sound play and know what you are talking about. I've had guys before that are talkers that don't know what they are doing, but he brings both," Head Coach Jay Gruden said. "He brings an edge to him that rubs off on people."

While Swearinger and Norman — former high school teammates in Greenwood, S.C. — account for most of the spotlight and the volume among the group, the Redskins had a number of young players make important contributions in the secondary in 2017. Receiver-convert Quinton Dunbar was called upon to start in place of an injured Norman and registered a couple of critical passes defended in a win over San Francisco in Week 6. Rookie safety Montae Nicholson announced his presence in a big way in Week 3, intercepting Raiders quarterback Derek Carr on the game's first possession and later leveling and knocking wide receiver Michael Crabtree out of the game with a legal hit.

Collectively, the unit held passers to an 81.0 rating in 2017, the lowest allowed by the Redskins since 2008 (75.6). The Redskins ranked 10th in opposing passer rating, finishing in the top half in the NFL and in the Top 10 in the category for the first time since 2008.

OPPONENT PASSER RATING, REDSKINS, LAST 11 YEARS:

| Year | Opp. Rtg. | NFL Rank | NFC Rank |
|----------------------|-------------|----------|----------|
| 2018 Redskins | 77.0 | 3 | 1 |
| 2017 Redskins | 81.0 | 10 | 6 |
| 2016 Redskins | 91.1 | 20 | 7 |
| 2015 Redskins | 96.1 | 22 | 11 |
| 2014 Redskins | 108.3 | 32 | 16 |

| 2009 Redskins | 85.7 | 18 | 8 |
| 2008 Redskins | 75.6 | 7 | 4 |

Through three games in 2018, the Redskins have allowed a 77.0 passer rating, the third best mark in the NFL and best mark in the NFC. Opposing quarterbacks are completing passes against Washington at a 61.8 percent clip, but Washington has limited opponents to an NFL-best three 25+ yard passing plays.

The Washington defense has also allowed only four offensive touchdowns this season, tied for the third best mark in the NFL.

ALEX SMITH

Smith made his Redskins regular season debut at Arizona and led the team to a 24-6 victory at State Farm Stadium in Glendale, Ariz. He finished the game 21-for-30 with 255 yards and two touchdowns. Smith's passer rating of 118.1 ranks eighth all-time in Redskins history in Week 1 matchups and is the fourth best passer rating among Redskins quarterbacks making their first start with the team.

"Yeah, he did a great job, both on schedule and off schedule. That's kind of the MO of his career," said Gruden. "He does a great job of managing the game, keeping us out of negative down and distance and negative plays. He does a great job of extending plays from time to time also, so couldn't be more excited about his performance and moving forward, I think there's a lot to build on there."

"...we came up with Alex Smith, but we had to find a way to get it done. And it wasn't easy because there were a few teams in it that wanted Alex Smith. He chose us and he chose us for a reason. It's because who we are, the legacy of the Washington Redskins, the history of the Washington Redskins."

- Senior Vice President of Player Personnel Doug Williams

Smith picked up his first home win as a Redskin in Week 3 after leading the offense and helping to score 31 points en route to a 31-17 win over the Green Bay Packers. Smith finished the game 12-for-20 with 220 yards, two touchdown passes and one interception. He picked up his second head-to-head win over fellow 2005 NFL Draft pick Aaron Rodgers and moved to 2-2 all-time against the Cal product.

ADRIAN PETERSON

"We're fortunate that he was on the streets and he had a great workout - hats off to him for staying in great shape, really. A lot of guys can tank it and not workout, but he was in great physical condition and he showed it on Sunday, being able to carry the ball as many times as he did without wilting. He actually got stronger as the game went on."

The Washington Redskins bolstered their depth at the running back position by signing seven-time Pro Bowler Adrian Peterson on Aug. 20 after losing second round pick Derrius Guice to a torn ACL in the first preseason game.

Peterson impressed during his workout and in his performance in the preseason and carried that over to the regular season. Against the Cardinals in Week 1, Peterson rushed for 96 yards on 26 carries and caught two passes for 70 yards, including a 52 yard reception that was the third longest of his career. He was also the only player in Week 1 to lead a team in both rushing and receiving.

In Week 3, Peterson rushed for 120 yards on 19 carries (6.3 avg.) and scored two rushing touchdowns to help the Redskins secure their first home win of the season, defeating the Green Bay Packers, 31-17. He was awarded the FedEx Ground Player of the Week Award for his efforts against Green Bay.

"He's a great player, he's a pro and we're happy to have him," said Gruden. "He fell into our lap at a critical time, we needed a player and he was there for us. He is everything as advertised."

Peterson has amassed 12,512 rushing yards on 2,630 attempts (4.8 avg.) and 102 touchdowns in 136 career games. He has started in 126 of the 136 games he has appeared in. Peterson has also registered 257 receptions for 2,115 yards and five touchdowns through the air.

He has been selected to seven Pro Bowls and was the 2012 NFL MVP after finishing second all-time in rushing yards for a single season (2,097). The 12th-year pro currently ranks third all-time in yards per game (92.0), is seventh all-time in rushing touchdowns

CHRIS THOMPSON

Following the Week 1 win over Arizona, Head Coach Jay Gruden was asked about running back Chris Thompson's resiliency in coming back from the injury that sidelined him for the second half of the 2017 season.

"Yeah, nothing surprised me about Chris. We all know how I feel about Chris. The way he's battled back from that injury, was a testament to what kind of person he is, also the player he is. He can get open in the backfield, he protected well, obviously ran the ball well. He's a critical player for this football team."

The Redskins signed Thompson to a multi-year contract extension in Week 1 of the 2017 season, locking up the third-down back that Gruden considers the best in the NFL.

"When you're talking about third downs, that's the most important down in football. There's nobody better as a third-down back in my opinion than Chris."

- Head Coach Jay Gruden on RB Chris Thompson

Dubbed the "Chris Army Knife" by some fans for his ability to run, catch and block, Thompson's story has been one of perseverance. At Florida State, two broken vertebrae ended his 2011 season and a knee injury ended his 2012 campaign. Shoulder surgery cut his 2013 rookie season in Washington short, he spent the majority of the 2014 season on the team's practice squad and in 2017 a knee injury caused him to miss the final six games of the season.

But Thompson's role has blossomed in recent years. Before missing the final six games of the season in 2017, Thompson was one of, if not the best receiving back in football. In 10 games he caught 39 passes for 510 yards and scored four touchdowns. He also rushed for 294 yards on 64 attempts with two rushing touchdowns. In 10 games he amassed 804 scrimmage yards. From Week 1 to Week 11 of the 2017 season, Thompson ranked first among running backs in receiving yards (510), average yards per reception (13.1) and receiving yards per game (51.0). He was tied with L.A. Chargers RB Melvin Gordon for first in receiving touchdowns (4) and was second in 25+ yard receptions (5) behind L.A. Rams RB Todd Gurley (6).

So far this season, Thompson has picked up right where he left off. Three games into the 2018 season, he has registered 20 receptions for 155 receiving yards and one touchdown and has added 83 yards on the ground for a total of 238 yards from scrimmage. Thompson is third in the NFL in receiving yards per game and fourth in the NFL in receptions per game among running backs.

"It's great that you see the hard work pay off for somebody like Chris," Gruden said. "He's such a great kid off the field. You want to see him succeed in the worst way because he does everything exactly right the way you ask him. In practice, he takes all the reps, he works hard, never takes a play off. He's never been late one time to a meeting or a workout. He's a coach's dream, quite frankly."

Though the team often rations his touches, Thompson has become one of the most efficient running backs in the NFL with the ball in his hands. Thompson's 6.7 yards per touch rank second among active NFL running backs with at least 200 career offensive touches.

2017 THOMPSON TIDBITS

 Thompson recorded only the sixth season in franchise history with at least 275 rushing yards and at least 500 receiving yards, joining Jim Podoley (1957), Charley Taylor (1964 and 1965), Clarence Harmon (1980), Joe Washington (1981).

 Thompson was one of six NFL players with at least 275 rushing yards and at least 500 receiving yards in 2017, joining Todd Gurley II, Le'Veon Bell, Alvin Kamara, Christian McCaffrey and Duke Johnson Jr. Thompson accomplished the feat in 10 games, while the other five players all appeared in at least 15 games.

 Before a Week 11 contest in which he suffered a season-ending injury, Thompson led the Redskins in both rushing and receiving yards, the only player in the NFL at the time to lead a team in both categories.

 Thompson led all NFL running backs (min. 30 receptions) with 13.1 yards per catch in 2017, joining Larry Brown (14.2 in 1972), Clarence Harmon (13.6 in 1979) and Roy Helu Jr. (11.4 in 2014) as the only Redskins running backs to lead the league in the category since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger.

 Thompson's receiving average was the best by a qualified Redskins running back since Clarence Harmon (13.6) in 1979.

 Thompson's 13.1 yards-per-catch average was the highest by any NFL running back with at least 35 receptions since San Francisco's Garrison Hearst in 1998 (13.7).

 Thompson accrued 804 scrimmage yards on 103 combined offensive touches, averaging 7.8 scrimmage yards per touch. His 7.8-yard average was the best among qualified players in team history since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. The mark is the fifth-best in team history dating back to the franchise's inception in 1932, trailing only Steve Bagarus (10.6 in 1945), Eddie Saenz (8.7 in 1947) and Dick Todd (8.4 in 1940 and 8.0 in 1948).

JORDAN REED

In recent seasons, Redskins players have often extolled the ability of tight end Jordan Reed to anyone who will listen.

“As I’ve said before and said every week, I don’t know anybody who can guard that young man. When he’s on, he’s on, and it’s tough to stop. He’s the best receiving tight end in the NFL, hands down.”

- Five-time Pro Bowl tackle Trent Williams on Jordan Reed, as told to Master Tesfatsion of The Washington Post

The NFL officially took notice in 2016 when Reed earned his first career Pro Bowl selection, the first by a Redskins tight end since Chris Cooley in 2008. Reed joined Cooley (2007-08), Stephen Alexander (2000), Jean Fugett (1977) and Jerry Smith (1967 and 1969) as the only Redskins tight ends to earn Pro Bowl honors since the game’s inception in 1950.

Despite being limited by injury to only 12 games with eight starts in 2016, the ex-college-quarterback recorded 66 receptions for 686 yards with six receiving touchdowns. A year earlier, he compiled arguably the greatest season by a tight end in franchise history. During the 2015 regular season, Reed recorded 87 receptions for 952 yards (both team records for a tight end) with 11 receiving touchdowns, becoming the first tight end to lead the Redskins in all three categories since Fugett in 1977.

“He was a puppy when he came in here physically; now he’s filling out and he’s a bigger guy. He’s playing with a ton of confidence,” Head Coach Jay Gruden said in 2016. “We can move him around and do a lot of different things with him. He’s a smart player. He can see coverages, he can work off leverage of the defenders, he’s got big strong hands and he’s excellent after the catch. Really, the sky is the limit for Jordan. I have all of the confidence in the world that when the ball is thrown to him, he’s going to be in the right spot and make the catch. And he can beat a lot of people. He’s getting better and better, more and more confident and he’s blocking better, too. He’s a heck of a player, no doubt.”

In 54 career games with 28 starts for Washington, Reed has compiled 285 career receptions for 2,916 yards with 23 receiving touchdowns. In Week 4 of the 2016 season against Cleveland, Reed recorded his 200th career reception in his 38th career game, becoming the fastest tight end to reach 200 career receptions in NFL history, surpassing Pro Football Hall of Famer Kellen Winslow.

While various injuries limited Reed to 9, 11, 14, 12 and 6 games in his first five NFL seasons, Reed’s per-game productivity ranks among the league’s best. Reed ranks first among all NFL tight ends in receptions per game since entering the league in 2013.

JAMISON CROWDER

Thirty-four wide receivers were drafted in the 2015 NFL Draft. As of the conclusion of the 2017 season, 30 of them had appeared in NFL game action. Thirteen of those players were drafted ahead of the moment when the Washington Redskins selected Jamison Crowder with the No. 105 overall selection in the fourth round.

However, only two of Crowder's classmates (Oakland's Amari Cooper and Minnesota's Stefon Diggs) have recorded more career receptions than the Duke product, who has placed himself on the NFL radar with 192 receptions for 2,240 yards and 12 receiving touchdowns in his young career.

Crowder entered his rookie season in 2015 with expectations of assuming the team's role at punt returner, but Crowder rapidly exceeded those limits and earned the team's top slot receiver role and became another weapon for the Redskins on third down.

"We had a penciled-in punt returner job for him, but for him to win the starting inside slot receiver is a testament to him and how quickly he picked it up and his production," Head Coach Jay Gruden said. "When you draft guys, you have high hopes for them, but you never expect them to be this much of a factor this early, especially fourth-fifth rounders."

"He's one of those kids: You can put him in a phone booth and you probably wouldn't get a hand on him."

- Receivers Coach Ike Hilliard to The Washington Post's Liz Clarke

In Week 5 of his sophomore campaign in 2016, Crowder ended the Redskins' 124-game punt return touchdown drought with an 85-yard touchdown at Baltimore. His punt return for touchdown was the Redskins' first since Oct. 26, 2008, when Santana Moss returned a punt 80 yards for a touchdown at Detroit.

At 23 years and 114 days old, Crowder became the youngest member of the Redskins to return a punt for a touchdown since Brian Mitchell (23 years, 35 days) at Cincinnati on Sept. 22, 1991, according to records provided by Pro Football Reference.

Crowder finished the 2016 season with a 12.1-yard punt return average, the best by a member of the Redskins since 2001. His fourth-place ranking in the NFL in punt return average was the best by a member of the Redskins since Brian Mitchell's second-place finish in 1995. The dual threat was the only player in the NFL in 2016 to catch at least 65 passes and average at least 11.0 yards per return.

On offense, Crowder's 192 receptions from 2015-17 are the second-most by a member of the Redskins in the first three years of an NFL career. Crowder has hauled in nine receptions for 79 yards and a touchdown in 2018 thus far.

VERNON DAVIS

What does it take to have coaches, teammates and broadcasters refer to you as "The Ageless One"?

How about a 6-foot-3, 244-pound veteran registering only 3.8 percent body fat the day after completing his 12th NFL season? What about that same man reportedly still running the 40-yard dash in the 4.4 range into his mid-30s?

For Vernon Davis, those astoundingly true facts tell only part of the story. A native of Washington, D.C., Davis came home in free agency in 2016 and delivered 87 catches and 1,231 yards in his first two seasons in burgundy and gold. At age 32-33 in those seasons, he ranks second only to Redskins legend Jerry Smith in both categories among tight ends age 30 or older in team history, according to records provided by Pro Football Reference.

Ageless as a physical specimen, Davis is trying to make his career production withstand the test of time as well. He now ranks in the Top 10 in NFL history in career receptions, receiving yards and receiving touchdowns by a tight end.

"We all should get on Vernon Davis' diet. I mean, really. The guy's a freak. He's the most impressive guy I've been around really as far as taking care of his body, and whatever he's doing, he needs to tell all our young guys to do it because he's amazing.

He's running around like a 20-year-old kid. We're going to have to try to dive into that but I know he has a great routine in the offseason, during the season. His diet is top-notch. His workouts are on point. Not to mention he prepares and he's just always got a smile on his face.

He's just one of those guys you look forward to seeing every day and then you watch him practice and it's always hard and effective. Great guy, great player."

- Head Coach Jay Gruden on Vernon Davis

RYAN KERRIGAN

With a wrestling-inspired sack celebration, linebacker Ryan Kerrigan has earned the moniker "The Showstopper" since joining the Redskins in 2011. But while it might not have the same cachet, calling the three-time Pro Bowler "Mr. Reliable" might be just as apt.

If patience is a virtue, the Redskins were virtuous in the first round of the 2011 NFL Draft, as the team opted to trade back from its No. 10 overall selection to the 16th overall pick. With the selection, the Redskins selected Kerrigan, the then-defensive end out of Purdue.

Kerrigan has started all 114 regular season games played by the Redskins since he entered the league in 2011, the longest active streak of consecutive starts by any NFL linebacker. In 2016, Kerrigan became the first member of the Redskins to start all 16 games in each of the first six seasons of an NFL career since the adoption of the 16-game schedule in 1978. In Week 4 of the 2017 season, Kerrigan became the first member of the Redskins since at least 1970 to open a career with 100 consecutive regular season starts.

The Muncie, Ind. native is only the fifth player in NFL history to open a career with at least 7.5 sacks in each of his first seven seasons, joining Jared Allen, Derrick Thomas, DeMarcus Ware and Reggie White. He also became only the fifth member of the Redskins to post multiple 10-sack seasons since 1982 (Dexter Manley, 4; Charles Mann, 4; Andre Carter, 2; Brian Orakpo, 2). He's also displayed aptitude with the ball in hands, as he has returned all three of his career interceptions for touchdowns, joining Julius Peppers and Pro Football Hall of Famer Jason Taylor as the only players in league history with 60+ sacks and three or more interception return touchdowns.

Kerrigan's productivity has provided a number of opportunities for him to showcase his co-opted celebration.

"Will Compton has been kind of getting in my ear for a while to do the Shawn Michaels from wrestling — the HBK," Kerrigan said in 2014 of the inspiration for his celebrations. "All he kept saying was, 'Hit the HBK, hit the HBK.' Finally, I did right by him and hit the HBK a couple times. On the second and third ones, when I didn't do it, he was giving me a bunch of hell on the sidelines, like, 'Why didn't you do it? You need to trademark it.' I'm like, 'Well, I can't trademark it, it's HBK.' But that's where it came from."

The gesture resonated with wrestling fans and Redskins fans alike. The celebration was promoted by WWE on Twitter, and Redskins fans immediately began referring to the celebration as the "Heartbreak Kerrigan," or #HBKerrigan in hashtag form.

The Purdue product ended his college career tied for the Football Bowl Subdivision record with 14 career forced fumbles, and his innate knack for knocking the ball loose has translated to the NFL. Kerrigan has been credited with 22 forced fumbles in his career, the most by a member of the Redskins since 1994 and among the most by any NFL player since 2011.

Kerrigan's impact on the Redskins has transcended football, as he was honored with the team's Walter Payton Man of the Year award in 2015. In addition to participating in numerous events through the Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation, Kerrigan welcomed 185 guests to the Grand Hyatt Washington in 2015 for his third Celebrity Waiter Night, raising more than $100,000 for his Blitz for the Better Foundation, which provides support to seriously ill, special needs and physically challenged children throughout the Greater Washington D.C. area.

In training camp in 2016, the question was posed to Head Coach Jay Gruden: Is there a better example for young players than Kerrigan?

"Not really, no," Gruden said. "He's very humble, number one. Keeps to himself and does exactly what's asked of him in practice. He practices hard; in fact, we have to pull him back a little bit because he practices so hard and we want to keep him healthy for the 16-week grind. He's a top-notch guy, on and off the field, character-wise. He's what you're looking for."

SECONDARY SPOTLIGHT

JOSH NORMAN

When the Carolina Panthers rescinded cornerback Josh Norman's franchise tag and allowed the All-Pro defender to enter unrestricted free agency on April 20, roles instantly became reversed. The then-28-year-old lockdown corner became the subject of teams trying to lock down his services.

The Redskins mobilized quickly, dispatching members of the Redskins' coaching staff on April 22 to pick up Norman and his family from his Carolina home and bring them to team headquarters. The group arrived back in Ashburn early that afternoon, and after the full press and a family vote, Norman was a member of the Washington Redskins by 9:30 p.m.

"It was an exciting 24 hours there and we're happy as heck to get him," Head Coach Jay Gruden said. "I think he's one of the premier corners in the National Football League."

Norman joined the Redskins having previously appeared in 53 regular season games with 38 starts for Carolina, recording 178 tackles (136 solo), 36 passes defended, seven interceptions (two returned for touchdowns), four forced fumbles and three fumbles recovered from 2012-15.

In 2015, Norman started all 16 regular season games and all three postseason games for the Panthers, recording career highs in interceptions (four), forced fumbles (three) and fumbles recovered (two) in addition to tying for the league lead in interceptions returned for touchdowns (two). His highly decorated 2015 campaign resulted in a myriad of honors, including All-Pro selections from both the Associated Press and Pro Football Writers Association in addition to sharing PFWA Co-Most Improved Player of the Year honors with new teammate Kirk Cousins.

Since that breakout campaign in 2015, few defensive backs have been as disruptive as the man known colloquially as "J-No."

| 8t. Josh Norman | 46 |
| 8t. Bashaud Breeland | 46 |
| 8t. David Amerson | 46 |

Norman's accolades and productivity speak for themselves, but what kind of person were the Redskins getting? Gruden and the Redskins learned early in 2016.

"I've been very impressed with Josh from the day that he got here," Gruden said. "He works extremely hard. He's got a great energy every single time that he walks out onto the field, and he's the last one off the field. He's attentive at meetings - he's excellent. As far as his off-the-field 'antics' or on-the-field penalties that he's gotten, he's a physical football player. He's in your face and he's very competitive. You don't want to change that about him at all; that's what makes him, him. Obviously we might have to work on his hand placement in bump-and-run so he doesn't hit the receiver in the head, but his aggression, his competitive style, that's what drew us to him in the first place. We would never change that."

DJ SWEARINGER, SR.

In 2017, the Washington Redskins signed four-year safety DJ Swearinger Sr. Swearinger came to Washington after stops in Houston, Tampa Bay and Arizona.

Since signing with the Redskins, Swearinger has assumed a leadership role in the secondary and is one of the team's vocal leaders. He had an impressive first season with the team registering four interceptions and 10 passes defended. His four interceptions was tied for a team-high and was tied for the 12th best mark in the league.

So far this season, Swearinger has picked up right where he left off. In three games thus far, he has two interceptions and four passes defended. His two interceptions are tied for fifth in the NFL and his four passes defended are tied for fifth among safeties in 2018.

In the Week 2 matchup against the Indianapolis Colts, Swearinger intercepted Colts QB Andrew Luck twice marking his second multi-interception game as a Redskin. He became the 19th player in franchise history to record multiple games with two or more interceptions.

QUINTON DUNBAR

In 2015, the Washington Redskins signed college free agent Quinton Dunbar as a wide receiver. A few months later during training camp, the coaching staff transitioned Dunbar to cornerback.

For the 2018 season, Dunbar has emerged to become an option for the starting role opposite Josh Norman in the secondary. Head Coach Jay Gruden has gone on record spotlighting Dunbar's athletic ability.

"Yeah, that is a great tribute to him and his work, you know, but when you have that type of speed and that type of length you try to find a spot for a guy with that type of athletic ability and Quinton has done a good job with buying in and making the adjustment," said Gruden. "Now, with the opportunity he has in front of him, it's going to be up to him whether he takes the next step..."

Dunbar intercepted Sam Bradford in the Redskins Week 1 win over Arizona. It was the fourth-consecutive season that Dunbar has recorded an interception. He is the first Redskin to accomplish this feat since Bashad Breeland recorded an interception in consecutive seasons from 2014-17.

SPOTLIGHT ON SPECIAL TEAMS

KICKER DUSTIN HOPKINS

The Redskins surprised many in Week 2 of the 2015 season when they elected to move on from kicker Kai Forbath, who exited as the franchise leader in field goal percentage among players with at least 50 attempts, in favor of signing kicker Dustin Hopkins.

After a solid debut in 2015, Hopkins went 34-for-42 on field goal attempts in 2016, breaking Mark Moseley's record (33 in 1983) for the most field goals in a single season in team history. In Week 3 that year, he tied a team record with five field goals in a 5-for-5 performance in a victory as part of an NFC Special Teams Player of the Week and Player of the Month performance.

MOST FIELD GOALS MADE (SINGLE SEASON, REDSKINS HISTORY):

| Player | Season | FGM | FGA | FG Pct. | Pts. |
|--------------------------|-------------|-----------|-----------|-------------|------------|
| 1. Dustin Hopkins | 2016 | 34 | 42 | 81.0 | 138 |
| 2. Mark Moseley | 1983 | 33 | 47 | 70.2 | 161 |
| 3t. Graham Gano | 2011 | 31 | 41 | 75.6 | 118 |

| 5t. Chip Lohmiller | 1992 | 30 | 40 | 75.0 | 120 |

Now in his third season with the Redskins, Hopkins already ranks fifth in franchise history in career field goals made.

MOST FIELD GOALS MADE (CAREER, REDSKINS HISTORY):

| Player | Seasons | FGM | FGA | FG Pct. |
|--------------------------|----------------|-----------|-----------|-------------|

| 5. Dustin Hopkins | 2015-18 | 78 | 93 | 83.9 |

Beyond Hopkins' ability to boot the ball through the uprights, his ability to get it to stop and turn on a dime after 10 yards was vital to a Redskins' victory against Tampa Bay in Week 7 of the 2015 season. After facing an early 24-0 deficit, the Redskins scored late in the first half and at the start of the second half to cut the lead to 24-14, at which point Gruden and Special Teams Coordinator Ben Kotwica turned to Hopkins to deliver a surprise onside kick early in the third. Receiver Rashad Ross batted the skidding ball to safety Trenton Robinson, ending a league-wide 0-for-24 skid on onside kick attempts to start the 2015 season. The onside kick helped jumpstart the Redskins en route to recording the largest comeback victory in franchise history.

"His onside kicks, they're like magic balls. I don't know how he keeps them in play."

- Head Coach Jay Gruden

It was only the fourth successful onside kick by the Redskins since 2000 and ended a streak of 18 unsuccessful onside kick attempts by the Redskins over the previous nine seasons.

PUNTER TRESS WAY

In recent years, the Redskins have expressed a desire to create competition at every position and reward their own players who perform at high levels. Punter Tress Way is emblematic of both ideals.

The Redskins spent the majority of the 2014 offseason evaluating a punting battle between newcomers Robert Malone and Blake Clingan, but the race received a darkhorse candidate when the team claimed Way off waivers from Chicago on Aug. 20 that year. Way was given 10 days to stake a claim to the punting job.

Way accomplished the feat and has since posted historically relevant numbers, earned the special teams captaincy in 2015 and been rewarded with a multi-year contract extension in 2016.

In 2014, Way's punting numbers rewarded the coaching staff's faith. Way averaged 47.5 yards per punt, the highest by a Redskins player since World War II. He finished the season averaging 47.5 yards per punt to rank fourth in team history, trailing only Sammy Baugh's full-season NFL record (51.4 yards per punt in 1940) and Baugh's 1941 and 1942 campaigns (48.7 and 48.2). Way became the first member of the Redskins to lead the NFL in punting for a season since Sam Baker in 1958 (45.4).

REDSKINS TO LEAD NFL IN PUNTING SINCE 1939:

| Player | Season | Avg. |
|------------------|-------------|-------------|
| Tress Way | 2014 | 47.5 |
| Sam Baker | 1958 | 45.4 |
| Sammy Baugh | 1945 | 43.3 |
| Sammy Baugh | 1943 | 45.9 |
| Sammy Baugh | 1942 | 48.2 |
| Sammy Baugh | 1941 | 48.7 |
| Sammy Baugh | 1940 | 51.4 |

While Way's left leg has been on display, the Redskins gave their third-year punter a chance to show off his right arm in Week 3 of the 2016 season. Locked in a tight, divisional road game against the New York Giants, Way threw a perfect spiral to cornerback Quinton Dunbar for a 31-yard gain on a fake punt. The fake punt was the Redskins' first successful fake kick of any kind since Week 10 of the 2009 season vs. Denver, when punter Hunter Smith connected with fullback Mike Sellers for a 35-yard touchdown.

In 2017 and throughout his career, Way has waged his field position war by dropping punts inside the 20 with regularity.

State Farm Stadium (Glendale, Ariz.)

REDSKINS 24, CARDINALS 6

GLENDALE, Ariz. - Alex Smith looked like his old self. So did Adrian Peterson. When the 34-year-old Smith wasn't carving up the Arizona defense, the 33-year-old Peterson was running through it. The result was a 24-6 Washington victory on Sunday, coach Jay Gruden's first win in a season opener in five tries, and it was even more dominant than the final score would indicate.

Smith and Peterson were playing their first game as Redskins and the two veterans made an impact from the start. Smith, acquired from Kansas City in the offseason to replace Kirk Cousins, completed 21 of 30 passes without an interception and had TD throws of 13 yards to Chris Thompson and 4 yards to Jordan Reed. Peterson rushed for 96 yards on 26 carries, including a 1-yard touchdown run.

Peterson, who played for Arizona a year ago and signed with Washington as a free agent on Aug. 20, finished his day with a 52-yard reception, but fumbled at the end of the play. The Redskins outgained the Cardinals 429-213 and had 30 first downs to Arizona's 14 and it was even more one-sided before the Cardinals showed some life late in the game. Washington rushed for 182 yards to Arizona's 68.

Arizona avoided a shutout when David Johnson ran 2 yards for a touchdown with 5:47 to play. Johnson, who signed a three-year, $39 million contract extension with Arizona on Saturday night with $30 million guaranteed, carried nine times for 37 yards and caught five passes for 30 yards. Sam Bradford, in his debut as Cardinals quarterback, was 20 of 34 for 153 yards and was intercepted once. The Redskins manhandled the Arizona defense in a dominant first half to lead 21-0 at the break. And the Arizona team under the new coaching regime was booed roundly as it left the field.

The statistics were stunningly one-sided through the first two quarters: 261 yards for the Redskins to 36 yards for the Cardinals. Smith completed 17 of 20 passes for 171 yards and two touchdowns. Bradford, meanwhile, was 3 of 7 for 11 yards. Washington had the ball for 22 minutes, 57 seconds to the Cardinals' 7:03. Arizona got two first downs on its first possession and went three-and-out the only other two times it had the ball in the first half.

Washington, meanwhile, had touchdown drives of 80, 73 and 92 yards behind a powerful rushing game and the efficient management of Smith. The first scoring drive went 80 yards in 11 plays, Smith went 13 yards to Thompson on the first play of the second quarter for the score.

After Arizona's first three-and-out, Washington used up 9:06 in a 15-play, 73-yard drive, Peterson plowing in from the 1-yard line to make it 14-0. The Cardinals went nowhere again and the Redskins took advantage of their last chance of the half. Smith completed 7 of 7 passes for 77 yards in a 10-play, 92-yard drive. Smith threw 4 yards to Reed for the touchdown and it was 21-0 with 8 seconds left in the half.

COLTS 21, REDSKINS 9

LANDOVER, Md. -- Andrew Luck could recall a critical error the Indianapolis Colts made on almost every possession, some he made.

When it mattered most, he was almost perfect. Luck shook off two interceptions and capped a methodical drive with his second touchdown of the game to help the Colts beat the Washington Redskins 21-9 Sunday and pick up their first victory of the season.

Luck was 21 of 31 for 179 yards and had a TD pass in a 25th consecutive game, the longest active streak in the NFL. He was 7 of 8 for 62 yards on a 13-play, 75-yard drive that culminated in a Luck-to-T.Y. Hilton score that put Indianapolis (1-1) up 21-9 early in the fourth quarter.

"When we needed to, we put a drive together and got points," Luck said. "On the longer drive where we ended up with a touchdown, everybody, we all just did our jobs and we did them well."

Executing first-year coach Frank Reich's creative play-calling scheme, Luck also found Eric Ebron for a touchdown on the game's opening drive. The balanced offensive attack with 27 rushing and 31 passing attempts kept the Redskins' defense off balance and allowed Luck to pick apart a secondary that struggled in coverage and tackling.

The Colts avoided starting 0-2 for the first time since 2013.

"We felt like we let one slip last week," Hilton said. "In the third quarter we kind of went back to our ways and then we picked it up in the fourth quarter and got it going."

After putting up a Week 1-best 182 rushing yards, the Redskins (1-1) put up just 65 yards on 22 carries. Adrian Peterson was limited to 20 yards on 11 carries, and receiver Jamison Crowder was actually Washington's leading rusher with 29 yards on two sweep plays.

Dropped balls and shoddy offensive line play hampered QB Alex Smith on a day he was 33 of 46 for 292 yards.

"Our running game suffered and we were pretty much one-dimensional," coach Jay Gruden said. "We didn't have a very good run plan. ... Didn't give [Peterson] any good looks."

REDSKINS 31, PACKERS 17

LANDOVER, Md. -- Adrian Peterson ran for 120 yards and a pair of 2-yard scores, Alex Smith threw two touchdown passes -- all in the first half Sunday -- and the Washington Redskins held on for a 31-17 victory over a gimpy Aaron Rodgers and the Green Bay Packers, who again had complaints about a roughing-the-passer penalty on Clay Matthews.

On a rainy afternoon, the Redskins (2-1) moved out to leads of 14-0 and, at halftime, 28-10, by putting together TD drives of 74, 75, 79 and 98 yards. Smith connected for TDs of 46 yards to Paul Richardson on the game's fourth play and of 9 to Jamison Crowder in the second quarter.

Peterson, who ran 19 times Sunday, raised his career total to 102 rushing touchdowns, breaking a tie at 100 with Marshall Faulk and Shaun Alexander and moving him alone into seventh place in NFL history behind Emmitt Smith's record of 164. This was Peterson's 52nd game with at least 100 yards on the ground, and first since Nov. 5, 2017, for Arizona against San Francisco.

Playing with a bulky brace on his left knee, which he hurt in Week 1, Rodgers hobbled and limped around, and couldn't do enough to get the Packers (1-1-1) back into the game. He finished 27 for 44 for 265 yards with two TDs -- of 64 yards to Geronimo Allison and 2 yards to Davante Adams -- and was sacked four times.

But Green Bay's receivers had problems with drops, plus Randall Cobb was stripped of the ball by Fabian Moreau -- Josh Norman recovered the fumble -- after a completion with about 5 1/2 minutes remaining in the fourth quarter.

In the third, Packers linebacker Matthews was flagged for roughing Smith -- and there are sure to be more questions about what constitutes a penalty on such plays. Matthews broke in alone on Smith, wrapped him and brought him down. Matthews immediately put his arms up and slapped himself in the helmet as the flag was thrown.

Packers coach Mike McCarthy threw down a play-calling sheet and argued with two officials about the call, even chasing one along the sideline as he backpedaled away.

On Sunday, Smith went 12 for 20 for 220 yards. He also had his streak of 156 consecutive passes without an interception, the longest active run in the NFL, end in the second quarter. Safety Ha Ha Clinton-Dix made the pick when tight end Jordan Reed went one way and Smith threw another.
