THE MATCHUP

Following a resilient 21-16 victory over the Atlanta Falcons on the road to give them the season sweep and punch their playoff ticket for a club-record fourth consecutive season, the New Orleans Saints (10-2), owners of a nine-game winning streak, will conclude their three-game road run against the Philadelphia Eagles (3-8-1) at Lincoln Financial Field on Sunday afternoon.

The Saints proved their consistency across the board, becoming the first team in 2020 to clinch a playoff berth. Week in and Week out, the Black and Gold defense has improved and come up strong in recent weeks, while they racked up their fifth consecutive performance of surrendering 20 or fewer points. LB Demario Davis led a unit that allowed only 70 rushing yards on 21 carries (3.3 avg.), by posting nine tackles, one of the most important being two late fourth quarter stuffs on back to back plays of Falcons RB Todd Gurley for no gain followed by a loss of seven yards. New Orleans' defensive front continues to spark momentum week after week, as DE Trey Hendrickson, DT David Onyemata and DE Carl Granderson each recorded sacks, as the Saints have dropped Falcons QB Matt Ryan 20 times in the last three meetings. To end the contest, DB D.J. Swearinger broke up a Ryan pass in the end zone, taking confidence into Sunday's matchup.

On the offensive side of the ball, the Black and Gold were productive in all phases. QB Taysom Hill tossed two touchdowns, passed for 232 yards and rushed for a career-high 83 yards, as New Orleans converted 8-of-17 (47.1%) third down attempts. To top off the run offense that featured several explosive plays, RB Alvin Kamara produced 88 yards on the ground, including a 37-yard rush and an acrobatic 11-yard touchdown. WR Michael Thomas lit up the field as Hill's biggest target with nine receptions for 105 yards, as he made history, recording his 500th reception in his 69th game, the quickest to the milestone in NFL record books. TE Jared Cook caught his team-leading fifth touchdown.

Looking to surrender under 20 points in six consecutive contests for the first time since the 2018 season, the Black and Gold defense ranked first in the NFL, will look to complement a diverse offense and solid special teams unit in Philadelphia, a traditionally difficult place to play. The Saints will face the Eagles looking to break a four-game losing streak and keep their postseason hopes alive, which are in distance in the NFC East. New Orleans' fourth consecutive division title will be clinched with a win

Around The NFC South: The Tampa Bay Buccaneers (7-5) will host Minnesota (6-6), the Falcons (4-8) will travel to the Los Angeles Chargers (3-9) and the Carolina Panthers (4-8) will host the Denver Broncos (4-8).

DATING GAME

This week's game at Philadelphia is on December 13. The Saints are 4-3 on December 13. New Orleans' first December 13 game was a 38-27 loss to the San Francisco 49ers at Tulane Stadium in 1970 and the most recent was a 24-17 victory over the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2015. New Orleans has not played a team multiple times on the date. Here is a brief look at New Orleans' December 13 games:

1970 - The Saints lose to the San Francisco 49ers 38-27 at the Tulane Stadium

1981 - The Saints lose to the Green Bay Packers 35-7 at the Superdome.

1987 - New Orleans defeats the Houston Oilers 24-10 at the Superdome for the team's seventh straight win as QB Bobby Hebert tossed three touchdowns to guarantee New Orleans a home playoff game.

1992 - The Saints defeat the Los Angeles Rams 37-14 at Anaheim Stadium.

1998 - The Saints lose to the Atlanta Falcons 27-17 at the Superdome.

2009 - New Orleans improves to 13-0 with a 26-23 overtime victory at Atlanta.

2015 - New Orleans breaks a three-game losing streak to defeat Tampa Bay 24-17 at Raymond James Stadium and split the season series.

THE COACHES

Saints Head Coach Sean Payton has posted a 149-86 overall record (.634), including an 8-7 postseason mark after the franchise had won only one playoff game prior to his arrival in 2006. Payton holds both the club's top victory total and winning percentage. Payton is currently ranked 25th all-time in National Football League record books in victories, fifth among active head coaches. He continues to represent the Saints as the model of stability not only within the NFC South, as he is the longest tenured head coach within the division, but also among the most accomplished within the NFL. Only the Patriots' Bill Belichick (2000) has been with the his team longer than Payton's 15 seasons. Payton is also one of just nine active National Football League head coaches to lead a team to a Super Bowl victory. The others are Belichick, the Seahawks' Pete Carroll, the Raiders' Jon Gruden (Buccaneers in 2002), the Ravens' John Harbaugh, the Cowboys' Mike McCarthy (Green Bay in 2010), the Eagles' Doug Pederson, Kansas City's Andy Reid and the Steelers' Mike Tomlin. The 2020 Saints are only the sixth team in NFL history to have six-game winning streaks in four consecutive seasons and with their current win streak at nine had won at least nine straight games in two of the past three seasons and have had double-digit victory figures and consecutive playoff berths in four straight years for the first time in franchise history. The 2019 Saints edition posted their second consecutive 13-3 regular season record, capturing their third consecutive NFC South title and playoff berth. A franchise-record six players were selected to Associated Press All-Pro and a club-best 11 were named to the Pro Bowl. New Orleans won seven games on the road for the second consecutive season. The Saints set an NFL single-season record with only eight turnovers as they ranked second in the league in turnover ratio (+15). New Orleans also ranked third in sacks (51), tied for third in scoring (28.6 ppg.) and ranked fourth in opponent rushing yards per game. Special teams captured first place in NFL writer Rick Gosselin's annual comprehensive rankings. Payton earned a bachelor's degree in communications at Eastern Illinois, where as a quarterback he had 10,665 passing yards, at the time the third-highest total in NCAA Division I-AA history. Payton was inducted into the Eastern Illinois Hall of Fame in September of 2000 and had his jersey retired in a ceremony in September of 2010. He received an honorary doctorate from his alma mater in 2013. Payton was born Dec. 29, 1963 in San Mateo, Calif., and raised in Naperville, Ill., Payton has a daughter, Meghan and a son, Connor.

Doug Pederson was named head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles on January 18, 2016, after having served as the Kansas City Chiefs offensive coordinator (2013-15), posting a 45-36 record (combined regular season and post-season). In 2019, Pederson helped Philadelphia reach the playoffs for the third consecutive season. In 2018, Pederson helped the Eagles win their last four games to reach the playoffs and then defeat the Chicago Bears in the NFC Wild Card round. In just his second season as an NFL head coach, Pederson led the Eagles to a 13-3 regular-season record, an NFC East title, the No. 1 seed in the NFC playoffs and to victory in Super Bowl LII against the New England Patriots. As a first-year head coach with the Eagles in 2016, Pederson helped develop rookie quarterback Carson Wentz, who set a team and all-time NFL rookie record with 379 completions. Under Pederson's direction, Wentz also posted franchise rookie records in pass attempts, passing yards and passing touchdowns. Pederson, who enjoyed a 12-year playing career in the NFL, began his pro coaching career in Philadelphia where he served under Andy Reid as an offensive quality control coach (2009-2010) and quarterbacks coach (2011-12). Pederson attended Northeast Louisiana, where he was a three-year starter at quarterback and graduated with a B.B.A. in business management. A 12-year NFL veteran, he played quarterback for the Green Bay Packers, Miami Dolphins, Eagles and Cleveland Browns. Pederson served as a backup quarterback for the Packers when the team won Super Bowl XXXI. Began coaching as head coach at Calvary Baptist Academy (Shreveport, LA).

SERIES HISTORY

The New Orleans Saints and Philadelphia Eagles first met on November 5, 1967, with New Orleans posting a 31-24 victory at Tulane Stadium. It was the first win in franchise history, coming in Week eight of the Saints' inaugural season. The Saints are 3-9 in games played in New Orleans in the regular season and 1-0 in the playoffs. The Saints have a 12-16 regular season record and a 3-1 mark in the postseason vs. the Eagles.

13 of the games in the Saints-Eagles series counting both the regular season and the playoffs have been decided by a touchdown or less, with seven decided by three points or less:

LAST MEETING

NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF: New Orleans Saints 20, Philadelphia Eagles 14; January 13, 2019 @ Mercedes-Benz Superdome – A stout defensive effort which held Philadelphia scoreless for the final three quarters, combined with a pair of touchdown passes by quarterback Drew Brees and a standout, record-breaking performance by wide receiver Michael Thomas pushed the Saints one game closer to the Super Bowl, as they beat the Eagles for the second time this season.

Philadelphia jumped out to a 14-0 lead after a 37-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Nick Foles to wide receiver Jordan Matthews and a quarterback sneak by Foles.

But the Saints rallied in the second quarter, starting on its third play when cornerback Marshon Lattimore intercepted Foles at the New Orleans 21-yard line. On the ensuing possession, New Orleans quarterback Taysom Hill successfully executed a fourth-and-one running conversion on a fake punt and on fourth and two from the Eagles two-yard line, Brees connected with rookie wide receiver Keith Kirkwood to put the Saints on the scoreboard. The Saints got the Eagles off the field two times and kicker Wil Lutz put the Saints within four points with 11 seconds left in the first half when he drilled a 45-yard field goal.

Following a Philadelphia three-and-out at the start of the third quarter, Brees and the Saints offense executed an 18-play, 92 yard drive that ate up 11:29 off the clock and ended with a two-yard touchdown pass from the signal-caller to Thomas. The drive which included three third down conversions and overcame three penalties was the longest (by time) scoring drive in the NFL playoffs since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger.

On New Orleans' first drive of the fourth quarter, running back Mark Ingram II rambled for a 36-yard gain to set up a 39-yard field goal by Lutz. However New Orleans' momentum was stopped when a 52-yard field goal attempt by Lutz on the next possession was wide right, giving the Eagles the ball back at their 42-yard line. However on a second-and-ten-play from the Saints 27, Lattimore picked off Foles at the 19 and returned the ball 14 yards to the 33. A 12-yard rush on third down by running back Alvin Kamara with 1:03 left ensured the Saints win.

- After trailing 14-0, the Saints scored the last 20 points of the game. The 14-point comeback is the largest in Saints postseason history, surpassing the 10-point comeback to defeat the Indianapolis Colts in Super Bowl XLIV.
- For the seventh contest in their last eight, the Saints held an opponent scoreless in the fourth quarter.
- Playing in his franchise-record 13th playoff game as a Saint and 14th postseason contest overall, Brees finished 28-of-38 for 301 yards, two touchdowns and one interception.

tion. With the two touchdown passes, Brees moves into a tie with Kurt Warner for seventh in the all-time NFL playoff record books with 31. Additionally, Brees' 28 completions moves his career postseason total to 382, surpassing John Elway and Aaron Rodgers to move into seventh all-time.

- Thomas finished with a Saints' postseason record 171 yards on 12 receptions and added one touchdown. In franchise postseason history, Thomas now stands third in receiving yards with 387, fifth in receptions with 27, and tied for fourth with Jimmy Graham for touchdown receptions with two. In his career, Thomas has played in three postseason games and has recorded at least 85 receiving yards in each.
- The Saints' third quarter 18-play, 92-yard, 11:29 touchdown drive resulting in a Thomas' two-yard touchdown reception is the longest touchdown drive, in terms of time elapsed, in Saints' postseason history. The 18-play drive is also the longest in National Football League postseason play since the 2007 NFC Divisional Playoffs when the Dallas Cowboys had a 20-play touchdown drive against the New York Giants. It was the longest scoring drive by time in a playoff game since the AFL-NFL merger in 1970.

GAME SUMMARIES

WEEK 1: Saints 34, Buccaneers 23; September 13, 2020 @ Mercedes-Benz Superdome – Drew Brees and Tom Brady, the two leading passers in National Football League history, couldn't muster vintage performances in the first NFL game featuring two starting quarterbacks in their 40s.

But while Brees avoided game-turning mishaps with an offense he's led since 2006, Brady suffered some costly cross-ups with his new team. Brady threw two interceptions in his Tampa Bay debut, Alvin Kamara scored touchdowns running and receiving, and the New Orleans Saints beat the Buccaneers 34-23 on Sunday.

"I made some just bad, terrible turnovers," Brady said. "I obviously have got to do a lot better job."

The first of Brady's interceptions led to Kamara's six-yard touchdown run. The second pick thrown by the new, 43-year-old Bucs QB — who left the Patriots in free agency after 20 years and six Super Bowl triumphs — was returned 36 yards for a touchdown by Janoris Jenkins.

"Win the turnover battle like we did, have a turnover for a touchdown, you're a 90-something percent winner in those games," Saints coach Sean Payton said. "Just a lot of things happened in that game that despite how you play, those things can help you win games. The energy and effort I was pleased with."

The 41-year-old Brees passed for 160 yards and two TDs. He did not turn the ball over and took only one sack. His first TD pass was a dump-off to Kamara from 12 yards out. In the fourth quarter he hit free-agent signing Emmanuel Sanders for a 5-yard score.

"I'd probably say I played awful," Brees said. "Certainly, we are used to playing at a much higher level offensively and especially in the passing game. So, we'll get that back on track."

Still, Brees found satisfaction in beating Brady's Bucs.

"Of course, it's significant and it's unique and I'd be lying to you if I said to you it didn't mean a little bit more," Brees said. "I've got so much love and respect for (Brady) and what he's able to accomplish."

"We played against each other in college, for goodness sake, in 1999," Brees continued. "At the end of the day, I think we would both pinch ourselves if you told us back then we'd have the opportunity to play this long and be a part of so many great teams and moments, historic moments."

Few witnessed this latest bit of history in person, with government leaders and the Saints organization having agreed that no fans should attend the opener amid the coronavirus pandemic.

That turned the normally deafening Mercedes-Benz Superdome into more of an echo chamber. When kicker Wil Lutz's field goal put New Orleans up 17-7, the squeaking of pulleys could be heard as the net behind the goalpost was lowered.

Brady compared the environment to "a scrimmage."

"But obviously, it counts," he added. "We've got to look each other in the eye and all work harder, put more urgency on the things we have to do."

Tight end Jared Cook caught five passes for 80 yards for New Orleans, highlighted by a 46-yard reception down the left side that set up Sanders' touchdown. Brady was 15 of 28 passing for 157 yards and one touchdown through the first 54 minutes. He padded his numbers in garbage time, finishing with 239 yards and two touchdowns, the second scoring strike going to wide receiver Mike Evans with 2:41 left.

Tampa Bay's opening drive was promising for Brady, who the Bucs hope can lead them to their first playoff appearance since the 2007 season.

He lofted a 26-yard completion to wide receiver Chris Godwin along the right sideline, drew a pass interference penalty with a 22-yard attempt to Evans and capped the drive with a 2-yard keeper, after which he emphatically spiked the ball.

It was a fleeting, triumphant moment for the Bucs in a game defined more, in the end, by their new star's mistakes.

FORTUITOUS MOVES

The Saints saw two players activated from the practice squad come up with big special teams plays. DL Margus Hunt blocked a 54-yard field goal attempt. WR Bennie Fowler recovered a muffed kickoff at the Tampa Bay 18 in the fourth quarter, setting up a 21-yard field goal that made it 34-17 with 8:01 left.

WEEK 2: Las Vegas Raiders 34, New Orleans Saints 24; September 21, 2020 @ Allegiant Stadium – After being in control of the contest with a 17-7 lead, the Saints got caught in a hailstorm of a comeback in the desert debut of the NFL in Las Vegas, where the Raiders scored 24 consecutive points in the final three quarters in a loss that dropped New Orleans to 1-1. Despite struggles on offense, New Orleans seemed to be inching back early in the fourth quarter when CB P.J. Williams recovered a fumble by Raiders QB Derek Carr at the Saints 40. But New Orleans couldn't get past the Las Vegas 47 and Carr engineered a ten-play, 89-yard drive that ended with a 20-yard rushing TD by RB Jalen Richard.

Carr completed 28-of-38 passes for 282 yards, three touchdowns, zero interceptions and a 120.7 passer rating, despite being sacked three times.

New Orleans held Las Vegas scoreless on their first two offensive possessions, including one late in the first quarter where DT David Onyemata sacked Carr on third down to get the defense off the field. But the momentum quickly changed when the Raiders forced a three-and-out. Carr led Las Vegas on a 11-play, 63-yard drive that ended with a three-yard touchdown pass to FB Alec Ingold. The club's then traded touchdowns, but Raiders K Daniel Carlson booted a 28-yard field goal as time expired at the half to tie the score.

On the fifth play from scrimmage of the third quarter, Raiders TE Foster Moreau had a 31-yard grab from Carr to set up a one-yard touchdown throw to TE Darren Waller. Once the Saints got the ball back, their only drive of the third quarter was stunted at the Las Vegas 43-yard line by 35 yards. Following Richard's fourth quarter touchdown, New Orleans would match it with a three-yard rushing touchdown by RB Alvin Kamara. On Las Vegas' next drive, Carlson kicked a 54-yard field goal, set up by a 29-yard pass interference penalty assessed to CB Janoris Jenkins.

WEEK 3: Green Bay Packers 37, New Orleans Saints 30; September 27, 2020 @ Mercedes-Benz Superdome – The Saints battled back from four deficits to tie the score at 27-27 on the final play from scrimmage in the fourth quarter on a spectacular 52-yard touchdown reception by RB Alvin Kamara, then stopped Green Bay on downs near midfield to put themselves in position to take a fourth quarter lead. But a fumble that set up a field goal, hurt New Orleans' momentum, as well as three defensive penalties on Green Bay's drive, proving to be the difference in the Packers' win.

In a contest that featured seven different lead changes, New Orleans tied the score on the last play from scrimmage of the third quarter at 27-27 when Kamara took a screen pass from QB Drew Brees and slithered and broke multiple tackles for the career-long 52-yard receiving touchdown, also moving into first place in franchise history in multiple-score contests (16). S Malcolm Jenkins and CB Marshon Lattimore then combined to stop Packers RB Aaron Jones on an unsuccessful fourth-and-one rushing near midfield.

Following a seven-yard rush by RB Latavius Murray, QB Taysom Hill fumbled on an option play as it was forced and it was recovered by Green Bay LB Z'Darius Smith, setting up a 49-yard field goal by K Mason Crosby. On Green Bay's final drive, with the Packers up 30-27 and third-and-three, LB Demario Davis jumped offsides, giving QB Aaron Rodgers a free play. On it, CB Janoris Jenkins was assessed a defensive pass interference penalty at the New Orleans one-yard line, exhausting New Orleans' hopes for a comeback.

Kamara had a huge performance, setting career-highs in both receiving yardage and touchdown receptions with 13 grabs for 139 yards and two scores, adding 58 rushing yards on 12 carries for 187 total yards from scrimmage. Brees completed 29-of-36 passes for 288 yards with three touchdown throws, zero interceptions and a 127.8 rating.

Rodgers completed 21-of-32 passes for 283 yards with three touchdown passes, zero interceptions and a 124.9 passer rating. Green Bay WR Allen Lazard recorded six catches for 146 yards with one touchdown, including a career-long 72-yard grab. Packers RB Aaron Jones rushed 16 times for 69 yards with one touchdown, as the Saints did not surrender 100 yards rushing to a player for the 45th consecutive regular season/postseason contest, now tied for the third-longest streak in NFL record books.

WEEK 4: New Orleans Saints 35, Detroit Lions 29, October 4, 2020 at Ford Field- The New Orleans Saints came away with a convincing win against the Lions, showcasing their run game versatility, dominant defense and effective passing game, scoring 35 unanswered points.

The Lions offense put up two touchdowns within the first five minutes of play, displaying an early 14-0 lead against the Saints. The Detroit defense came up with an interception on the Saints' first play, to put them in prime field position. QB Matthew Stafford found targets RB D'Andre Swift and WR Kenny Golladay during their first scores.

QB Drew Brees and the Saints offense overcame the two-touchdown deficit, going into the half with a 28-14 lead.

Running backs Alvin Kamara and Latavius Murray took command of the run game, splitting up touches throughout the game. New Orleans had a total 164 yards rushing, Kamara with 19 carries for 83 yards (4.4 yd avg) and Murray with 14 carries for 64 yards (4.6 yd avg). The run game capitalized in the red zone, exhibiting Kamara's seventh touchdown this season, as well as two rushing scores from Murray.

Brees and the New Orleans passing offense were consistent throughout the contest, with two stand out targets, wide receiver Emmanuel Sanders and wide receiver Tre'Quan Smith. Brees threw for a total of 246 yards, two touchdowns and went 19 for 25. Sanders led the team in receiving, during a breakout game with 6 receptions for 93 yards, his season high. Brees connected with Smith twice in the endzone, giving him (Smith) a total of 4 receptions for 54 yards.

The Saints offense went five-for-five in the red zone against the Lions defense, scoring touchdowns on each attempt.

Defensive end Cameron Jordan, Defensive tackle David Onyemata and Defensive end Trey Hendrickson led the pass rush, each coming up with one sack apiece. Cornerback Patrick Robinson forced a critical turnover, picking off Stafford in the end zone in the second quarter.

- New Orleans' defense was steady on all aspects. The Saints' run defense held the Lions to 90 yards rushing and only allowed a season-low 281 total yards, the first time they gave up under 300 yards this season. Surrendering only 36 yards rushing to Lions running back Adrian Peterson, New Orleans has not allowed an opposing running back to reach the century mark for their last 46 regular season and postseason games, the third-longest streak in the National Football League.

- Kamara scored a touchdown for the sixth consecutive regular season game dating back to 2019, tying the franchise mark for consecutive contests with a score.

- Jordan's sack gives him four against Detroit, tying the franchise for fourth among teams on his list of sack victims behind the three NFC South clubs, Atlanta, Carolina and Tampa Bay.

- The victory improved New Orleans' all-time regular season record vs. Detroit to 13-12-1, increasing the number of clubs they have a winning record against to nine.

- Head Coach Sean Payton now has 141 career wins in regular season/postseason combined, moving him into a tie with John Fox for 25th all-time in National Football League record books.

GAME SUMMARIES

WEEK 5: New Orleans Saints 30, Los Angeles Chargers 27, October 4, 2020 at Mercedes-Benz Superdome- Wil Lutz kicked a 36-yard field goal with 5:08 left in overtime and New Orleans' defense stopped Chargers receiver Mike Williams just short on fourth down to preserve a 30-27 victory over seemingly star-crossed Los Angeles on Monday night.

Chargers kicker Michael Badgley, who missed his first career point-after kick wide right in the first quarter, had a chance to redeem himself after Williams' leaping catch between two defenders put the Chargers on the Saints' 32-yard line in the final seconds. But Badgley's 50-yard kick as time expired bounced off the right upright.

"The young man has been kicking outstanding. He's got to do better but we could have done some other things better," Chargers coach Anthony Lynn said.

Drew Brees rushed for a 1-yard touchdown and hit tight end Jared Cook for a 41-yard score as the Saints rallied from a 17-point deficit in the second quarter.

"This is how you grow as a team," Brees said. "This is how you become battle-tested — and I think it pays dividends."

Rookie Justin Herbert's fourth touchdown pass of the game, a 64-yarder to Michael Williams, briefly put Los Angeles back in front before the Saints (3-2) tied it on Taysom Hill's nine-yard run with 52 seconds remaining in regulation.

The Chargers (1-4) fell to their fourth straight loss by a touchdown or less, and the second in overtime. They also blew a 17-point lead for a second straight game.

"Never thought this team would lose four straight. We've put ourselves in position, but we didn't get it done," Lynn said. "We have to finish these damn games."

Herbert, who was named the starter for the remainder of the season this week, finished 20 of 34 for 264 yards without an turnover. Five of his completions went to Williams for 109 yards and two TDs.

Brees finished 33 of 47 for 325 yards, including 12 completions to wide receiver Emmanuel Sanders for 122 yards, as his 13 career overtime wins a starting quarterback broke a tie with Tom Brady since it was instituted in the 1974 season. Kamara had 119 yards from scrimmage, highlighted by his leaping, juggling catch along the right sideline over the head of safety Rayshawn Jenkins to set up Hill's tying TD.

In Week Four, it was Tampa Bay's Tom Brady, a six-time Super Bowl winner. This week it was Brees — the NFL's all -time leader in completions, yards and touchdowns.

Brees' dive over a pile of linemen at the goal line made it 20-10 14 seconds before halftime.

Lutz' 53-yard field goal pulled New Orleans within a touchdown in the third quarter. Then Brees found Cook open behind the Chargers' secondary on third-and-long to tie it early in the fourth quarter.

In staking Los Angeles to an early 20-3 lead, Herbert became the first rookie to pass for three TDs in the first half of a Monday night game.

His first came touchdown pass of the evening when he rolled right away from pressure and fired a 17-yard pass down the sideline to Allen.

Herbert's 49-yard completion to Jalen Guyton set up his four-yard scoring strike to Williams one play later. The touchdown capped a drive extended by a roughing-the-punter penalty against New Orleans RB Dwayne Washington.

Chargers S Nasir Adderly's interception of Brees and 39-yard return to the Saints one-yard line set up Herbert's three-yard scoring pass to TE Hunter Henry, which made it 20-3.

WEEK 7: Saints 27, Carolina Panthers 24, October 25, 2020 at Mercedes-Benz Superdome- The Saints earned a hard-fought 27-24 victory over the Carolina Panthers with 3,000 fans in attendance for the first time this season at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome on Sunday, Oct. 25

Saints QB Drew Brees found a rhythm on the opening possession, driving 75 yards which ended with a four-yard touchdown pass to tight end Jared Cook. The score marked the first time the Saints have scored a touchdown on the opening possession of a game in the 2020 season.

With two of his top targets inactive for the contest, Brees relied on rookie WR Marquez Callaway, WR/RS Deonte Harris, WR Tre'Quan Smith and RB Alvin Kamara in the passing game. Star rWRs Michael Thomas (hamstring) and Emmanuel Sanders (Covid-19) were absent..

Brees completed 29-of-36 passes for 387 yards and two scores. In a standout performance, Callaway hauled in eight catches for 75 yards. The Saints were 12 of 14 on third down and never punted.

The Saints rushing attack, led by Kamara and Latavius Murray, combined for 130 yards on the ground. Kamara also notched eight receptions for 65 yards. After a 16-yard grab in the second half, Kamara joined Roger Craig and Christian McCaffrey as the only players with at least 2,500 rushing and 2,500 receiving yards in their first four seasons in NFL history.

While the New Orleans defense had some struggles, DE Marcus Davenport stepped up when it mattered most. Davenport sacked former Saints QB Teddy Bridgewater for a eight-yard loss with two minutes remaining, knocking Carolina out of reasonable field goal range. Joey Slye attempted a 65-yard field goal to tie the game, but just came up short.

"I thought the sack on third down was critical," Saints Head Coach Sean Payton said during his postgame press conference. "It put them in a much different position. It was a good win."

Bridgewater, who played two seasons with the Saints before joining Carolina this season, completed 23-of-28 passes for 254 yards, including a 74-yard touchdown strike to wideout D.J. Moore.

WEEK 8: New Orleans Saints 26, Chicago Bears 23, November 1, 2020 @ Soldier Field – The New Orleans Saints earned a 26-23 overtime victory over the Bears behind the leg of kicker Wil Lutz on a crisp, autumn afternoon at Soldier Field on Sunday, Nov. 1, All Saints Day. Lutz knocked home a 35-yard field goal with 2:12 left in overtime to secure the fourth consecutive win of the season for New Orleans, which is 5-2 and tied for first with Tampa Bay in the NFC South.

"It was a hard fought game," Saints Coach Sean Payton said during his postgame press conference. "I think in the second half we played better football. It's good when you win an overtime game like that - it's the second one this year. There's a little bit of grit and toughness that I think you begin to build. I don't think you just start with it." Saints quarterback Drew Brees completed 31-of-41 passes for 280 yards and two touchdowns. Brees connected with tight end Jared Cook on a 16-yard touchdown strike with three seconds remaining in the first half, trimming Chicago's lead to 13-10 at the break. Taysom Hill found paydirt late in regulation on a 20-yard pass from Brees, extending the Saints lead to 23-13. On the play Brees surpassed Buccaneers quarterback Tom Brady for most career touchdown passes (560 to 559).

Running back Alvin Kamara hauled in nine passes for 96 yards, finishing with 163 all-purpose yards in the contest. New Orleans' first three offensive possessions of the second half started inside Chicago territory. Return man Deonte Harris set up the Saints offense with excellent field position on a pair of electrifying punt returns, including a 42-yard return setting the Saints up in the red zone midway through the third quarter.

Defensively, New Orleans tallied 5.0 sacks on the afternoon. Defensive end Trey Hendrickson established a new season high (5.5 sacks) on the year with one quarterback takedown. Saints cornerback Marshon Lattimore came up with an interception with 8:34 to play in the third quarter. The takeaway came on the ensuing play after Bears wideout Javon Wims was ejected for throwing multiple punches at Saints defensive back C.J. Gardner-Johnson.

Saints linebacker Demario Davis had an opportunity to seal the win in regulation, but a forward progress call allowed Chicago to maintain possession after Davis forced and jumped on a fumble.

Bears quarterback Nick Foles completed 28-of-41 passes for 272 yards for two touchdowns and one interception. Foles connected with former Tulane Green Wave wideout Darnell Mooney five times for 69 yards and one touchdown. Star receiver Allen Robinson had six receptions for 87 yards and a score.

Chicago running back David Montgomery flirted with a 100-yard rushing game, finishing with 21 carries for 89 yards.

WEEK 9: Saints 38, Buccaneers 3; November 8, 2020 @ Raymond James Stadium – Drew Brees vs. Tom Brady, and the battle for the supremacy of the NFC South, was a one-sided affair.

Brees threw for 222 yards and four touchdowns, regaining the NFL career TD pass lead and lifting the New Orleans Saints into first place with a 38-3 rout of Brady and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers on Sunday night.

The three-time defending division champion won their fifth straight game, intercepting Brady three times and completing a season sweep of the Bucs (6-3), who also suffered a double-digit loss at New Orleans in Week 1.

"Each time you can win and find different ways to win, I think it just builds confidence and creates momentum," Brees said.

"Obviously tonight was a great night," he added. "All the way around in all three phases, it was pretty exceptional."

The Saints (6-2) weren't perfect—turning the ball over twice themselves—however the offense was extremely efficient with receivers Michael Thomas and Emmanuel Sanders back in the lineup, and the defense played its best game of the season.

Brees was 26 of 32 passing, including first-half TD throws of 14 yards to Tre'Quan Smith, 8 yards to Adam Trautman and 12 yards to Sanders, who missed the previous two games while on the COVID-19 list. The 41-year old added a three-yarder to Josh Hill to make it 38-0 with just over nine minutes remaining.

"We knew this was a big game, divisional opponent, Tampa's playing extremely well," said Brees, who lost a fumble on Tampa Bay's only sack but didn't throw an interception. "Obviously we're been a little short-handed over the last few weeks ... Tonight, it was good to get them back in the mix," Brees added. "We wanted to spread the ball around, wanted to play complementary football. I can't say enough about our defense, they just played phenomenal."

Brees regained the league career TD pass lead with 564, three more than the 43-year old Brady, who had thrown for 17 touchdowns and just one interception over the previous six games.

GAME SUMMARIES

WEEK 10: Saints 27, 49ers 13, Nov. 15, 2020 at Mercedes-Benz Superdome- With QB Drew Brees sidelined by a rib injury, the Saints turned to their defense to defeat the San Francisco 49ers 27-13 in front of 6,000 fans at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome on Sunday, Nov. 15.

The defense delivered.

All-Pro LB Demario Davis notched a game high 12 tackles, while DB C.J. Gardner-Johnson tallied eight total tackles, including his first career sack. DBs Malcolm Jenkins and Patrick Robinson each intercepted 49ers QB Nick Mullens. Special teams played a factor in the field position game for New Orleans.

Undrafted rookie Marquez Callaway came up with two muffed punt recoveries, and rookie LB Zack Baun also delivered a high-impact special teams tackle.

It took the Saints offense while to get going, but a 75-yard Deonte Harris kick return sparked the first score of the game, a 49-yard Wil Lutz field goal.

Brees completed 8-of-13 passes for 76 yards and one score before exiting the game with a rib injury at halftime. He took a hard hit in the second quarter on a sack by 49ers defensive end Kentavious Street. Street was called for unnecessary roughness on the play.

"He took a heavy shot in the first half," Saints Coach Sean Payton said during his postgame press conference. "As he came out in the second half, he felt it was really impacting him. He'll get an MRI and x-rays. His back felt sore. As he tried to throw, he just came up to me and said, 'Hey, I don't feel like I'm capable of playing.' And so quickly we made the switch, and you know, that happens sometimes."

"I was not going to be able to be effective," Brees said. "It had nothing to do with pain. It was definitely just what my body was going to be able to do or not be able to do."

Jameis Winston's first pass replacing Brees went for a first down. Winston completed 6-of-10 passes for 63 yards, while Taysom Hill carried the ball eight times for 45 yards from the quarterback position.

"My main job is to serve my teammates and help put us in a position to win the football game," Winston said during his postgame press conference. "I am happy we had a great team win today."

Five quarterbacks took at least one snap between the two teams in Sunday's contest.

Running back Alvin Kamara hauled in seven receptions for 83 yards and a score and added two short rushing touchdowns. In addition to Brees, the Saints had these players leave the game with injuries, tight end Josh Hill, wide receiver TreQuan Smith, cornerback Marshon Lattimore and defensive tackle Malcom Brown.

WEEK 11: New Orleans Saints 24, Atlanta Falcons 9, November 22, 2020 at Mercedes-Benz Superdome- Driving accurate throws downfield, exhibiting poise in the pocket and scrambling judiciously, Taysom Hill capitalized on his first true opportunity to make his case as a candidate to one day succeed record-setting star Drew Brees as the Saints quarterback.

Hill rushed for two touchdowns and completed 78.3% of his passes for 233 yards in his first NFL start at quarterback, and New Orleans beat the Atlanta Falcons 24-9 on Sunday to extend its winning streak to seven games.

"Man, he played tremendous," said Saints receiver Michael Thomas, who caught nine passes for 104 yards. "I could see the look in his eyes. He was ready for the moment."

With the 41-year-old Brees sidelined at least three games with multiple rib fractures, Saints coach Sean Payton gave Hill the nod over offseason free-agent acquisition Jameis Winston.

The decision meant a lot to Hill, who persevered through an injury-plagued college career at BYU before starting his NFL career as a 27-year-old undrafted rookie in 2017. And because Hill initially flourished in an unconventional utility role, with duties ranging from change-of-pace option QB to tight end and special teams, he played in 46 previous NFL games before finally getting his first start under center.

"I spent a lot of time reflecting this week. My wife and I had so many conversations about where we've been, the process of getting here," Hill said. "If I'm being honest, it was an emotional week."

Hill looked comfortable running the scheme Payton designed for him. He completed 18 of 23 passes without an interception and used his all-around athleticism to run intermittently on scrambles or designed read-option plays, finishing with a team-high 51 yards rushing. The biggest blemish in his performance was an inconsequential, fourth-quarter fumble after a 20-yard run to the Atlanta 22.

Still, he had a better day than Atlanta quarterback Matt Ryan, who was sacked eight times and finished 19-of-37 passing for 232 yards, no touchdowns and two interceptions to defensive backs Marcus Williams and Janoris Jenkins. Cameron Jordan sacked Ryan three times, while Trey Hendrickson and David Onyemata each had two sacks.

"You've got to give the Saints credit. They did a great job on defense," Falcons interim coach Raheem Morris said.

"The defensive backs, they did a nice job of limiting us on what we were able to do. They had a nice game plan for us. They did a nice job of keeping Matt under control and they did a nice job keeping our receivers under control."

Hill entered having thrown just five passes with four completions for 86 yards this season and was 10 of 18 for 205 yards in his career, leaving him relatively unproven as a passer.

Not anymore. While his all-around athleticism would have made scrambling a tempting default choice, he regularly showed patience and poise while delivering accurate passes moments before impact from onrushing defenders.

"I always know that I have the ability, if things break down, that I can make a play," Hill said. "But my mindset was: let's keep your eyes down the field and let's find opportunities" for receivers.

Hill was among the last to leave the field after the game, raising one hand to acknowledge cheers of the pandemic-limited crowd of about 6,000.

All that was missing was a first-career scoring pass — partly because of how effectively the Saints ran the ball. Alvin Kamara scored New Orleans' first touchdown on a three-yard run, Hill scored the second on a fourth down keeper from the Atlanta 2, and Hill's second TD came on a 10-yard scramble.

Kamara, Hill and Latavius Murray powered a ground game that netted 168 yards, which helped the Saints (8-2) sustain drives that consumed a total of 33:41.

New Orleans' second-ranked run defense held Atlanta to 52 yards rushing, and the Saints defense did not allow a touchdown for the second time in three games — with only one touchdown given up in between.

The Falcons (3-7) struck first with a field goal set up by Ryan's 46-yard completion to Calvin Ridley and led 9-3 on three Youngblood Koo kicks before the Saints responded with 21 straight points.

MAKING HISTORY

Kamara became the first player in NFL history with at least 500 yards rushing and receiving in each of his first four seasons.

Thomas recorded his 482nd career catch during the first half, giving him ownership of the record for most catches in an NFL player's first five seasons. He finished with 489.

WEEK 12: Saints 31, Broncos 3, November 29, 2020 at Empower Field at Mile High-

The Saints dominated the line of scrimmage in its 31-3 rout over Denver on Sunday. The Saints ran for 229 yards and scored four rushing touchdowns against a stout Broncos defensive unit that gave up just 56 rushing yards the week prior.

"I was proud of how we ran the football," Saints Coach Sean Payton said. "I thought our guys up front, toward the end of the game, we won that battle pretty clearly."

Running back Latavius Murray carried 19 times, tallying 124 yards and two scores. Taysom Hill added two scores on the ground, taking advantage of his trademark quarterback power rush off the right side of the line.

"Yeah, the quarterback power, any time the quarterback runs the ball, you really gain an extra blocker," Saints guard Nick Easton said Monday. "So if everybody executes their assignments, he's got a free run to the end zone. So, it's pretty hard for a defense, like somebody's got to defeat the block in order to make a tackle. So, you end up getting a few extra yards on those type of plays."

Easton got the start in place of injured guard Andrus Peat. "As far as knowing I was going to start, I approach every week with the mentality that I'm going to be a big contributor and play my hardest," Easton said. "Andrus, was dealing with a concussion and working through the protocol. So, it was a little blurry going through the week, but I always prepare like I'm going to start."

New Orleans was also without All-Pro T Terron Armstead, who was placed on the Covid-19/Reserve List Saturday. Defensively, the Saints (9-2) set a franchise record with just 112 yards allowed and forced three turnovers while winning their eighth straight game.

"We're just playing with trust in our teammates and our guys next to us," DT Malcolm Brown said. "I mean, we trust everybody to be where they're supposed to be. And we're just trying to roll like that and we just keep on working. Not looking too far ahead and not trying to hold anything from ourselves. But, we just want to keep on working, go through the process and stack them up every week." Brown and company were tasked with facing Kendall Hinton, an undrafted rookie wide receiver activated from the Broncos' practice squad and inserted as their quarterback. The Broncos lost all four of their quarterbacks this week after backup Jeff Driskel tested positive for Covid-19 and starter Drew Lock and the other two quarterbacks on the roster were deemed close contacts and ruled ineligible. "We all kind of prepared for the offense as Drew Lock at quarterback and everything," Brown said. "But I mean, it's the NFL. Whatever they roll out, you have got to defend and that's kind of the mentality we took to it."

Due to Denver's quarterback situation, the Broncos relied heavily on the "Wildcat" offense, only attempting nine passes, two of which were intercepted.

"I like to play the run a lot," Brown said. "My fundamentals and technique are real important to me. So, we knew we'd play the run a lot all game. It's weird too though, because usually you get rewarded with a pass on third down, where you can rush the passer. It was just one of those games where it was just, I don't know, it was kind of weird."

New Orleans leads the NFL in total defense, allowing just 284.9 yards per game.

WEEK 13: Saints 21, Atlanta Falcons 16, December 6, 2020 at Mercedes-Benz Stadium –

Taysom Hill finally threw a touchdown pass. Two of them, in fact. The New Orleans defense finally gave up a touchdown. But not two, which ensured the Saints are headed back to the playoffs for the fourth year in a row.

Hill won another start filling in for injured Drew Brees and New Orleans got the big defensive stop it needed in the closing minutes to preserve a 21-16 victory over the Atlanta Falcons.

The Saints (10-2) clinched a playoff berth with their ninth straight victory and Chicago's 34-30 loss to Detroit.

"our work's not done yet," defensive end Trey Hendrickson said.

Hill connected with TreQuan Smith on a 15-yard touchdown in the opening quarter—the quarterback's first scoring pass since his senior year at Brigham Young in 2016.

He added another before halftime, zipping an 11-yard pass to tight end Jared Cook in tight coverage.

"I don't care as much as people might think (regarding lack of touchdown pass)," said Hill, who improved to 3-0 in filling in for Brees. "I know there was a lot of conversation about getting that first TD completion. But as long as we're winning football games, I'm happy."

Hill was 27 of 37 for 232 yards passing. He tackled on 83 yards rushing on 14 carries, including a 43-yard scamper that was the longest run of his career, setting up his first TD pass.

"I thought his performance was strong," coach Sean Payton said. "He made a lot of throws."

If there was one flaw in Hill's game, it was hanging on to the football. He had a couple of fumbles, the first coming deep in Atlanta territory to spark the Falcons' comeback.

Atlanta drove 85 yards capped by Matt Ryan's 10-yard touchdown pass to Russell Gage with 7:43 remaining. New Orleans hadn't allowed a touchdown since the opening drive of a game against San Francisco on Nov. 15, a span of 14 quarters without one.

The Falcons (9-8) got the ball back and again pushed deep into New Orleans territory. On second-and-2 at the saints 13, Todd Gurley was stuffed for no gain by LB Demario Davis. He got the ball again on third down for a sweep around the left end, but Davis caught him for a 7-yard loss.

Ryan threw into the end zone on fourth down, but the pass fell incomplete to finish off the home team's best chance at pulling off an upset. Atlanta got a desperation heave on the final play of the game, but it was batted down by DB D.J. Swearingen.

The Saints never doubted their ability to prevent a second TD.

"We like us," defensive end Cam Jordan said. "If we're defending a touchdown, we love us."

New Orleans extended the lead to 21-8 on Alvin Kamara's 11-yard TD run in the third quarter and had a chance to wrap it up after Ryan fumbled on a play that was initially ruled an incompleting but changed to a fumble after Payton challenged the call.

Hill gave it right back. Under heavy pressure, he tried to throw the ball away but wound up fumbling, giving the Falcons renewed hope.

"It's one of those things where I'm trying to make a play," Hill said. "In hindsight, I wish I had just taken the sack and gotten a field goal. Those would've been big points for us."

Ryan was 19-of-39 for 273 yards. He was sacked three times—a far cry from the combined 17 times he went down in the last two games against the Saints.

Still, Ryan faced heavy pressure much of the game, getting hit eight times. The running game wasn't much help, managing just 70 yards and 3.3 yards per carry. Gurley, coming back from a knee injury, was held to 16 yards on eight carries.

"They're a good defense, that's for sure," Ryan said. "We needed to be in more third-and-short to give us better opportunities."

Younghoe Koo kicked three field goals for the Falcons, extending his streak to 24 in a row since his lone miss of the season in Week 3.

New Orleans swept the season series with the Falcons, winning 24-9 two weeks ago at the Superdome in Hill's first career start.

WINNING WITHOUT BREES

The Saints are now 8-0 over the last two seasons when Brees isn't able to play. Last season, then won all five games that Teddy Bridgewater started.

"That's the position everyone focuses on, but our team's playing well," Payton said. "We're fortunate to have depth at a number of positions, and that includes quarterback."

SPEEDY MIKE

Wide receiver Michael Thomas became the fastest player in NFL history to record 500 career receptions, doing it in his 69th career game.

He surpassed the mark shared by Anquan Boldin and Julio Jones, who reached 500 catches in 80 games.

IN THE NFC SOUTH

The Saints have the best record among NFC South teams since 2006, a time where they've won six division titles including three straight from 2017-19, the most in division history. They've posted a 56-33 division mark since 2006 after Sunday's win over Atlanta. On Jan. 3, 2021 at Carolina, the Saints will seek to become the first team since the NFC South debuted in 2002 to finish the season 6-0 in the division. With a win on Sunday at Philadelphia, New Orleans will be looking to join the 2004-07 Seattle Seahawks and 2011-14 Green Bay Packers to become only the third NFC team since divisional realignment in 2002 to win four consecutive division titles.

TAKING CARE OF THE BALL

Ball security was of utmost importance for the 2019 Saints, as their eight giveaways were the fewest in NFL history. The 2019 Saints lost only two fumbles and tied an NFL record with the 2002 Chiefs and 2014 Vikings for the fewest lost fumbles.

ROAD WARRIORS

Since 2006, the Saints have the best road record in the NFC, second-best in the NFL at 69-49 (.585). Following Sunday's win at Atlanta, they are 5-1 away from the Mercedes-Benz Superdome in 2020, posting winning road records for three consecutive seasons for the first time since 2009-11, with back-to-back road records of 7-1 in 2018 and 2019 for the first time in franchise history. New Orleans is in the midst of a three-game road trip where following wins at Denver and Atlanta, they travel to Philadelphia on Sunday, as they seek to become the first Saints team to sweep a three-game road trip since the 1987 club and only the second in franchise record books.

PAYTON'S PLACE AMONG HEAD COACHES

Sean Payton has had an impressive run as head coach of the Saints since being hired in 2006. After the team had captured only two division titles prior to 2006, the club has six under Payton, including three straight NFC South titles from 2017-19, the first time the club won their division in consecutive seasons. The franchise has had 15 winning seasons overall in its 54-season history, nine under Payton's watch including the 2020 10-2. Payton has the highest winning percentage (.634) and most wins (149) among the 16 Saints head coaches, ranked 25th all-time in NFL records, fifth among active head coaches. Payton's the only coach in Saints history with double-digit win totals in nine seasons.

MOVING SEASON

After the October 25 27-24 victory over the Panthers, the Saints closed out a 3-0 October for 2020 and are on a 15-game winning streak for the month overall, dating to a 25-20 win over the Seattle Seahawks on October, 30-2016. Payton has posted a 40-13 record in the month of October, dating back to his first season in 2006. New Orleans has also won 17 consecutive home games in the month of October, a streak dating back to a 20-10 victory over the Pittsburgh Steelers on October 31, 2010.

November also has been a successful month for New Orleans in recent years and once again was successful in 2020 as they have posted a 14-3 mark in the month since 2017 including Sunday's 31-3 victory at the Denver Broncos. With the win on Sunday at Denver, the Saints finished 5-0 in November, the first undefeated finish in the month since 2011.

Since 2017, the Saints have posted a 29-3 mark in the months of October and November and will look to continue and improve on success in December/January to close the regular season where they have went 10-4, starting with Sunday's win at Atlanta.

SAINTS TEAM CAPTAINS

In a player vote, strong safety Malcolm Jenkins was added as a defensive team captain in his return to the team for the 2020 season, with the other six returning captains all re-elected. Quarterback Drew Brees is a 14-time offensive team captain, punter Thomas Morstead has been a team captain since 2013 and defensive end Cameron Jordan since 2015. Tackle Terron Armstead, linebackers Demario Davis (defensive) and Craig Robertson (special teams) round out the group.

TEAM NOTES

OPPONENT POINTS PER GAME

A rapidly improving defense and crushing and opportunistic special teams coverage units have contributed to the New Orleans Saints being ranked fourth in the National Football League in opponent points per game, following Sunday's 21-16 win at Atlanta where the Saints have not surrendered more than 16 points in five consecutive games. Only twice in franchise history (1991 and 1992) have the Saints had a streak of giving up 16 or fewer points in six consecutive contests in the same season.

Ahead is a synopsis of several returning players and newcomers through the draft and free agency to the 2020 Saints offensive line:

LT Terron Armstead - The club's first third round draft choice in 2013 out of Arkansas-Pine Bluff, Armstead impressed scouts by running the fastest 40-yard dash time (4.71) by an offensive lineman in the history of the National Football League Scouting Combine. He's opened 81 regular season games and seven postseason contests and has been selected to the Pro Bowl the past two seasons, as well as being selected as the club's 2019 Man of the Year and the team nominee for the NFL's Art Rooney Sportsmanship Award.

T/G Andrus Peat - A first round selection (13th overall) in the 2015 NFL Draft out of Stanford, Peat was considered one of the top college offensive linemen in 2014. In his first six seasons, Peat's played in 72 games with 65 starts, opening a contest at every position except center. He opened ten contests at left guard in 2019, returning to action in Week 17 after missing five contests, being named to the Pro Bowl for the second consecutive season.

C/G Nick Easton - Originally signed as an undrafted free agent by Baltimore out of Harvard, Easton developed into a starting swing guard/center by his second season and opened 18 contests for Minnesota. The North Carolina native signed with New Orleans in 2019 to provide interior depth and started five consecutive contests at left guard in place of an injured Peat, the final four where the Saints surrendered only three takedowns. Easton has started five games at right guard and two at left guard in 2020, seeing significant action at both right guard and left guard in virtually every contest.

RT Ryan Ramczyk - The Black and Gold used their second first round selection in the 2017 NFL Draft to snag Ramczyk out of Wisconsin, viewed by many as one of the best linemen in the entire draft. After opening all 16 games and both postseason contests in 2017 and being selected as a PFWA All-Rookie, he was an AP All-Pro selection at right tackle in 2018, not missing an offensive snap in both postseason contests and all 15 regular games at the right tackle position that he played in. Ramczyk opened all 16 regular season games in 2019 to serve as a dominating bookend to Armstead, earning first-team All-Pro honors. Opening every contest and playing a key role in blocking for a run offense that has averaged over 200 yards per game in a three-game stretch for the first time since 2018 in the last three contests, Ramczyk is also the team's 2020 nominee for the NFL's Art Rooney Sportsmanship Award.

C/G Erik McCoy - New Orleans traded up in the second round of the 2019 NFL Draft to select this standout from Texas A&M, who was a three-year starter, anchoring the middle of the Aggies offensive line. In 2018, he was a team captain who paved the way for the SEC's leading rusher and in 2019 was the first Saint in franchise history to start at center in Week One, as he ably replaced the retired Max Unger, opening all 16 regular season contests. McCoy has opened all 12 contests in 2020.

G/C Cesar Ruiz - The hard-working, talented and intelligent lineman is a perfect fit for New Orleans' culture with the 24th pick in the 2020 NFL Draft out of the University of Michigan. The three-year letterman played in 36 games in his college career, starting his last 31 including the final 26 at center, earning All-Big Ten as a junior in 2019. Ruiz has played at right guard in the last 11 games, with seven starts as he has settled into the position without the benefit of offseason workouts, OTAs and preseason games due to COVID-19.

G/T Derrick Kelly II - This 6-5, 320 pound former four-year starter on the Florida State line was signed as an undrafted free agent in 2019, possessing the flexibility to play both tackle and guard. After spending his rookie season on the practice squad, Kelly increased strength in the 2020 offseason and made big strides in training camp, securing a roster spot.

T/G James Hurst - A seven-year NFL veteran who was signed as a free agent from Baltimore in 2020, Hurst has 97 career regular season appearances with 48 at three different positions on the inside and outside. Hurst his versatility in 2020, his first season in New Orleans as he has started the last two contests at left tackle with Armstead on the COVID-19 list and the Saints have gained over 200 yards rushing each time.

OL Ethan Greenidge - A mainstay at left tackle for his entire college career at Villanova, Greenidge started 43 contests for the Wildcats. The Long Island native was signed by New Orleans as a free agent after the 2019 NFL Draft and after adjusting to the physical and mental rigors of the pro game in 2019, he's played in ten games in 2020.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

Over the last six NFL Drafts from 2015-20, New Orleans has shown a commitment to defense, spending 18-of-32 picks on that side of the ball. With nine picks in the 2015 NFL Draft, the Saints picked six defensive players, the most taken since New Orleans chose nine in a 12-round selection meeting in 1990. Below is an overview of the defensive players selected by New Orleans from 2015-20 on the 53-man roster:

LB Alex Anzalone, Florida (D3b-17) - Selected in the third round (76th overall) of the 2017 NFL Draft out of Florida, Anzalone posted 53 tackles as a senior through the first eight games before suffering a forearm injury. Fully recovered from a shoulder injury that limited him to two games in 2019, Anzalone returns to the team's linebacker rotation in 2020 and has posted 36 tackles (18 solo) and one special teams stop through 12 contests.

LB Zack Baun, Wisconsin (D3a-20) - Selected in the third round (74th overall) of the 2020 NFL Draft out of the Wisconsin, Baun finished his college career with 154 tackles, 15 sacks, two interceptions, one returned for a touchdown, six passes defensed, three forced fumbles and a fumble recovery. The Saints were attracted to his playmaking ability that he displayed for the Badgers in 2019, when he ranked second in the Big Ten with a 19.5 stops for loss and 12 sacks (second among Power Five linebackers in both categories). Baun's contributed the last nine contests posting five defensive stops and four coverage tackles.

DB C.J. Gardner-Johnson, Florida (D4-19) Possessing a combination of instincts and speed, this Florida native was a solid value in the fourth round after playing in all 13 games with 12 starts for the Gators in 2018, when he posted 71 tackles, three sacks and four interceptions with two brought back for touchdowns. Gardner-Johnson appeared in all 16 contests with seven starts in 2019, recording 46 tackles (35 solo), an interception, eight passes defensed, one forced fumble and a fumble recovery. He ranks third on the team with 53 stops in 2020 and posted his first interception of 2020 on November 29 at Denver.

DE Trey Hendrickson, Florida Atlantic (D3c-17) - This third round draft choice in the 2017 NFL Draft (103rd overall) out of Florida Atlantic brought his raw talent, size, strength and speed to a youthful Saints defensive line. Hendrickson was ranked third on the team with a career-high 4.5 sacks in 2019, adding one more takedown in the postseason. Hendrickson's picked up where he left off in 2020, leading the team with a career-high 10.5 sacks, tied for third in the NFL.

CB Marshon Lattimore, Ohio State (D1a-17) - The 11th overall selection in the 2017 NFL draft out of Ohio State and the first corner taken possesses all the traits of a lockdown defender. With his agile, fluid style, Lattimore has the ability to shut down the best wide receivers. . For the 2017 season, he finished with 53 stops, five picks, to lead NFL rookies and the Saints, tying a team rookie record, a club-best 18 passes defended, a forced fumble and a recovery. Lattimore was the first Saints corner selected to the Pro Bowl since 1995 and was selected as AP Defensive Rookie of the Year. His five takeaways (two interceptions and three fumble recoveries) in 2018 led the team, adding two more picks in the NFC Divisional Playoff win.). For his efforts in 2019, Lattimore was selected to his second Pro Bowl after posting a club-best 14 passes defended. He leads the cornerbacks with 49 tackles, one interception and five passes defended.

DT David Onyemata, Manitoba (D4-16) - Possessing a unique combination of size and speed, this Nigeria native had an impressive rookie year after becoming the first player from the University of Manitoba to be drafted into the NFL. Despite being new to football, the 2016 fourth round draft pick became a critical member on the interior of the Saints defensive front in 2017, playing in all 16 games with six starts, making 40 tackles and two sacks. Onyemata had a career-high 4.5 sacks in 2018, including a single-game career best three takedowns in at Dallas/ Onyemata provided a punch for the Saints defense, having started all 15 games that he has played in and recording 32 stops and three sacks to tie for fourth on the team, while being a key run-stopping cog to the NFL's fourth-ranked rush defense, being re-signed to a three-year contract. Onyemata has six sacks and an interception.

DT Sheldon Rankins, Louisville (D1-16) - Selected 12th overall in the first round of the 2016 NFL Draft, the Georgia native played in 46 games along the line at Louisville from 2012-15, producing 133 total tackles, 31.5 tackles for loss and 18 sacks. In 2018, Rankins ranked second on the Saints with eight sacks, posting 42 stops and a forced fumble.

Rankins ardently rehabilitated from a ruptured Achilles tendon suffered in the NFC Divisional Playoff and returned to the field in 2019. Stronger in 2020, he has posted 12 tackles, 1.5 sacks and three tackles for loss.

DE Marcus Davenport, Texas-San Antonio (D1-18) -

Davenport joined the Saints with the 14th overall pick in the 2018 NFL Draft after showing potential and production as a pass rusher at Texas-San Antonio. In four seasons, Davenport posted 22 sacks, including 8.5 in 2017 when he captured Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year. Davenport's strength on the line is a valuable asset for the Saints front, playing an important role in the club's packages in 2018, recording 4.5 sacks. Davenport posted six sacks in 13 games. After missing the first four games with injuries in 2020, he returned in Week Five and has made a big impact in the front. In Week Seven, his sack of Carolina QB Teddy Bridgewater in the fourth quarter forced an unsuccessful 65-yard field goal attempt. He added a split sack in the week eight overtime win at Chicago.

S Marcus Williams, Utah (D2-17) - A three-year starter at the University of Utah, Williams was twice named All-Pac 12 and earned second-team All-American as a junior when he tied for second in the conference with five interceptions. The defender boasts a dangerous mix of speed, fluidity, and instinct that allows him to read offenses and make breaks on the football. His athleticism showed in his rookie season in as he made 70 tackles, four interceptions and six passes defended, adding ten more stops (seven solo) and another pick in the postseason. In 2019, he played in all 15 games with 14 starts, posting 52 tackles (35 solo), the team-high four picks, tied for eighth in the National Football League, 13 passes defended, a forced fumble and two coverage stops. In 2020, he has 50 stops, six passes defended and a club-best-tying three interceptions.

CB P.J. Williams, Florida State (D3b-15) - Williams' career was initially limited by missing all but two games his first two seasons with a hamstring injury (2015) and a concussion (2016), but he's rebounded to miss only two games with injury since. An experienced starter from Florida State, who developed into one of the nation's top cover corners, in 2019, he made 41 stops, a sack, an interception, three passes defended and one special teams stop, serving as the team's nickel corner for the second straight season. In the Dec. 22, 2019 win at Tennessee, Williams further showed his versatility by making the switch to safety after Marcus Williams was forced to depart with a groin injury and then starting in Williams' place in the regular season finale at Carolina. Williams was re-signed in the offseason by the club, and has posted 24 tackles, a club-best two defensive fumble recoveries, one pass defended and three special teams stops in 11 games.

The Saints produced their most impressive run-stopping effort in several seasons in 2018 and have carried it over in 2019 and 2020. In seven straight games in 2018, they didn't surrender 100 rushing yards to an opponent for the first time since 2007 and are currently at seven in 2020. Below are the longest streaks in team history the defense has gone without surrendering 100 yards. New Orleans hasn't allowed a 100-yard rusher in a 55 straight games (regular season and postseason), the longest streak in NFL history. In holding Buccaneers TB Ronald Jones to nine yards on Nov. 8, New Orleans' efforts produced dominant results as his rushing total was the lowest for a leading rusher in a contest for an opponent during this streak. In Keeping San Francisco RB Jerrick McKinnon to 18 carries for 33 yards (1.8 avg.), New Orleans set the NFL record for the longest streak of keeping individual rushers under 100 yards. The Saints have now increased the streak to 55 games

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

JUST KICKING IT

Between deep touchdown passes and athletic interceptions, players often use their hands to produce the game's flashiest plays. However, players using their feet make the difference between winning and losing, drilling clutch field goals or flipping the field with a well-executed punt, a fact which has proven true with New Orleans' 10-2 record.

Kicker Wil Lutz went undrafted in 2016, joining the Ravens for training camp. Prior to the start of the regular season, Lutz joined the Black and Gold. Lutz has kicked in 76 games, converting 139-of-159 field goal attempts (87.4 percent) and 237-of-243 PATs (97.5 percent). He's recorded 294 touchbacks. His 87.4 percent field goal percentage is best among kickers in team history. Until the 2018 regular season finale, he'd kicked a field goal in a club-record 36 consecutive games, second-longest streak in NFL history. In scoring three points on Sunday at Atlanta to reach 101, Lutz joined Morten Andersen (1985-89) as only the second Saint to score at least 100 points in five consecutive seasons, Lutz doing it in the first five years of his career.

With his first field goal on Oct. 20, 2019 at Chicago, Lutz set the NFL record for consecutive road field goals.

In 2018, Lutz made 28-of-30 field goal attempts, including a club-record 26 straight at one point, 52-of-53 PAT attempts and recorded 64 touchbacks, adding a special teams stop. He ranked second in the NFL in scoring with 134 points, his field goal accuracy ranked third in the league and 52 PATs ranked second. In 2020, he has made all 11 field goal attempts, a franchise-record 28 dating back to last season.

Thomas Morstead was the first punter drafted by the Saints since 1984. The club's fifth round draft choice (164th overall) in 2009 from Southern Methodist University, Morstead's been a weapon in the field position game with his strong leg and outstanding placement abilities. In 12 seasons, he has a gross average of 46.5 on 675 punts with a 41.5 net and 248 punts inside the 20-yard line, while also booming 259 kickoffs in the end zone for touchbacks. Morstead is tied for fifth on the club's all-time games played list with 186 regular season appearances and his consistency carried over to 2019, he finished the season ranked fifth in the National Football League in net punting average (43.1).

COVERAGE/BLOCK UNITS

New Orleans' coverage units have been led in 2020 by LB Zack Baun, WR Marquez Callaway, LB Craig Robertson, LB Kaden Elliss, DB J.T. Gray, DB Justin Hardee Sr. and RB Dwayne Washington.

Hardee led the team with nine stops and a blocked punt recovered for a touchdown as a rookie in 2017. In 2018, Hardee led the team with a career-high ten stops, with Hill ranked second with six. He posted five tackles in 2019 and leads the club with six stops in 2020 before being placed on Injured Reserve in Week 9.

Robertson, one of the club's special teams captains, also made a big play in the November. 4, 2019 win over the Los Angeles Rams when he stopped Rams holder Johnny Hekker short of the first down marker on a fake field goal attempt. He did the same on Dec. 23, 2018 vs. Pittsburgh in a crucial fourth quarter situation to snuff out a fake punt attempt. Robertson has been voted as a captain of the coverage units for the third consecutive season and has two stops.

In another addition to the club's special teams units, Gray led the team in 2019 with 17 stops, blocked a punt and recovered a fumble on a muffed punt as he was selected an AP second-team All-Pro. Gray has five stops in 2020.

A seventh round draft pick of New Orleans in 2019, Elliss' blue collar mentality has fit in with the coverage units as he rebounded from a season-ending knee injury in his rookie season to have three stops in 2020.

One of the club's two third round draft picks in 2020, Baun, a former University of Wisconsin standout, has embraced work on the club's coverage units with three stops.

Signed following the 2020 NFL draft out of the University of Tennessee, Callaway has contributed in all facets for the club on both offense and special teams, recording 15 receptions for 136 yards, returning ten punts for 106 yards (10.6 avg.), bringing back four kickoffs for 94 yards and on Nov. 15 vs. San Francisco, recovering two muffed punts that would lead to Saints offensive touchdowns.

Washington is a fifth-year NFL veteran who was originally a seventh round draft pick of the Detroit Lions in 2016. In addition to his value in providing dependable depth at the tailback position behind Alvin Kamara and Latavius Murray, Washington has excelled on special teams for New Orleans. In his career, he has posted ten coverage stops, one blocked punt recovery and also possesses the ability to fill in on kickoff return units. Washington has posted two special teams stops in 2020, including one on Sunday at Atlanta.

KEY SPECIAL TEAMS PERFORMANCES

Special teams played a key role in the team's season opening 34-23 win over Tampa Bay on September 13. Two players called up from the practice squad the day before made a significant impact, wide receiver Bennie Fowler III and defensive lineman Margus Hunt. Early in the fourth quarter with New Orleans leading 31-17, the Saints took advantage of a facemask penalty on New Orleans' prior touchdown to have it assessed on the kickoff. Fowler then recovered a muffed return on a short kickoff at the Tampa Bay 18-yard line to help set up a Lutz field goal. Late in the second quarter with New Orleans leading 14-7, the 6-9 Hunt blocked a 54-yard field goal attempt to eventually put Lutz in position to drill a 29-yard field goal. Morstead captured NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors, punting six times for a 44.0 net punting average with five punts inside the 20.

Special teams also played a key role in the team's Oct. 12 30-27 overtime win over the Chargers. Lutz was a perfect three-of-three, booting field goals of 48, 53 and 36 yards.

His shortest came in overtime to give New Orleans their first lead of the contest as he was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week. Rookie wide receiver Marquez Callaway filled in for an injured Deonte Harris in the return game and brought back six punts for 69 yards and returned two kickoffs for 57 yards. In overtime, running back Alvin Kamara's 31-yard kickoff return gave New Orleans favorable starting field position at their 34-yard line for the game-winning drive.

Every facet of special teams made a difference in the November 1 26-23 overtime win at Chicago. Lutz booted four-of-five field goals, including the 35-yard game winner in overtime. Chicago averaged only 15.3 yards per return on four kickoff returns, with two stopped at the 11- and 13-yard lines. Harris averaged 22.3 yards on three punt returns, including a season-long 42-yard runback. Hardee led the units with two stops.

All facets of special teams helped New Orleans overcome a 10-0 deficit and the loss of quarterback Drew Brees to a rib injury at halftime in Sunday's 27-13 win over San Francisco. Callaway recovered two muffed punts that led to New Orleans touchdowns. Baun's special teams tackle on kickoff coverage gave San Francisco starting position at their 14-yard line for what would be an unsuccessful drive. Lutz was perfect in drilling two-of-two field goals, three-of-three PATs and had five of his six kickoffs sail into the end zone for touchbacks. Thomas Morstead had a 41.0 gross and net punting average with one kick dropped inside-the-20-yard line. WR/RS Deonte Harris had a career-long 75-yard kickoff return to set up a Lutz field goal.

RETURN UNITS

Wide receiver/return specialist Deonte Harris has made an impact on New Orleans' return game since being picked up an undrafted free agent in 2019. Harris was signed following the NFL Draft out of NCAA Division II Assumption, where he finished his college career as one of the most prolific returners in NCAA history. In the final game of his college career, he set the NCAA-All Division record for career combined return touchdowns (14).

In 2019, Harris brought back 36 punts for 338 yards (9.4 avg.), ranked first in the NFC and fourth in the National Football League in punt return average, ranked second among rookies, following a 53-yard runback for a touchdown in the first quarter of the Sept. 22 33-27 win at Seattle.

He also returned 24 kickoffs for 644 yards (26.8 avg.), second in the NFC and third in the National Football League and has recorded one special teams stop. On offense Harris carried twice for 18 yards (9.0 avg.) and caught six passes for 24 yards.

QUARTERBACKS

TAYSOM HILL

Taysom Hill has brought unheralded versatility to the Saints offense and special teams. A constant participant on special teams from midseason in 2017 to midseason in 2020, as well as the backup signal-caller and as a runner and receiver, in 2018, Hill averaged 24.9 yards per return on 14 kickoff returns, had six coverage stops, second on the team, completed a ten-yard pass on a fake punt and blocked a punt. Overall, Hill carried 37 times for 196 yards (5.3 avg.), third on the team, with two touchdowns and completed three of seven passes for 64 yards. The blocked punt that sparked a division-clinching win at Tampa Bay, earning him Week 14 NFC Special Teams Player of the Week. In the postseason, he caught a touchdown, made a special teams tackle and executed a successful fake punt, making significant contributions in all facets as the team advanced to the NFC Championship game for the third time in franchise history.

In 2019, Hill carried 27 times for 156 yards (5.8 avg.) with a touchdown, catching 19 passes for 234 yards with six TDs, deflecting a punt and posting two coverage stops. He ranked third on the club in touchdowns and third in receiving TDs. After a multi-threat performance Thanksgiving night at Atlanta, when he deflected a punt and caught and rushed for a touchdown. Hill became the first quarterback to rush for and catch a touchdown in the same contest since Jim McMahon in 1983. In a valiant postseason effort vs. Minnesota, Hill led the team in rushing with four carries for 50 yards, caught two passes for 25 yards with a TD and completed a 50-yard pass.

In 2020, Hill's contributed on multiple facets, completing 58-of-81 passes (71.6%) for 629 yards with a 97.2 rating, rushing 68 times for 362 (5.3 avg.) yards with five touchdowns, catching six passes for 74 yards with one touchdown. and playing on several special teams units until Brees' rib injury. Following Brees' rib injury, Nov. 15, Hill and Jameis Winston have taken on more prominent roles at quarterback, with Hill winning all three of his starts.

A DAY FOR FIRSTS

In Brees' absence, Hill received his first career start on November 22 vs. Atlanta and completed 18-of-23 passes for 233 yards, while carrying ten times for 51 yard with two touchdowns and a 108.9 passer rating in leading New Orleans to a 24-9 win over the Falcons.

With the performance, Hill joined Daunte Culpepper as only the second player in the Super Bowl era with 40+ rushing yards and 2+ rushing TDs in his first QB start. He also became the first Saints signal-caller to rush for 50+ yards and 2+ TDs, since Archie Manning carried seven times for 52 yards and two scores in a 24-14 win over Dallas at Tulane stadium on October 17, 1971.

VERSATILE VICTOR

Hill followed Head Coach Sean Payton and his coaching staff's game plan in a 31-3 victory over Denver on November 29 that called for more of a ground-based effort the following week. Completing nine of 16 passes, he also was a key part of a ground game that gained a season-high 229 yards rushing, carrying ten times for 44 yards with two touchdowns for the second consecutive week himself.

In Sunday's 21-16 win at Atlanta to punch New Orleans' playoff ticket for the fourth straight season, Hill was a threat both with his arm and legs, completing 27-of-37 passes for 232 yards, his first two career touchdown passes and a 107.0 passer rating. In the run game, Hill carried 15 times for a career-high 83 yards (5.9 avg.), including a career-long 43-yard rush. Hill became the first Saints signal-caller to win his first three career starts at the position, joining Drew Brees as the second Saint to win his first three starts in Black and Gold.

Hill has enjoyed the most prolific rushing season in franchise history for a Black and Gold signal-caller, helping them maintain top seeding status in the NFC postseason race with his arm, legs and leadership. Hill's 358 rushing yards ranked first all-time in club record books for Saints quarterbacks in a single season, while his rushing touchdown total is tied for first. Hill currently ranked sixth among National Football League signal-callers in rushing yardage, second in yards per carry (5.3) and third in rushing touchdowns.

JAMEIS WINSTON

• Originally selected with the first overall pick in the 2015 NFL Draft by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers out of Florida State, Winston joined the Black and Gold after spending his first five seasons with the Buccaneers. The Hueytown, Al. native has appeared in 75 career games with 70 starts, completing 1,570 –of-2,559 passes for 19,812 yards with 121 touchdowns, 88 interceptions and an 86.9 passer rating, while also carrying 255 times for 1,039 yards with ten touchdowns.

• Winston signed with New Orleans as an unrestricted free agent after the 2020 NFL Draft after starting all 16 games for Tampa Bay in 2019, completing 380-of-626 passes (60.7%) for 5,109 yards with 33 touchdowns and an 84.3 passer rating, also carrying 59 times for 250 yards with one touchdown. Winston's NFL-high passing yardage total was the eighth-highest total in NFL record books as he became only the eighth passer to reach 5,000 yards in a season. In Week 14 and 15 wins, Winston tossed for 456 and 458 yards, becoming the only player in NFL history to pass for 450 yards in consecutive contests.

• Seeing his first action of the season in the fourth quarter of New Orleans' 38-3 win at Tampa Bay on November 8, Winston was pressed into action after Brees was forced to leave with a rib injury the following week vs. San Francisco and completed six-of-ten passes for 63 yards, engineering two field goal and one touchdown drive. While Brees recovers from injury, both he and Taysom Hill are an important part of the club's gameplan at quarterback.

RUNNING BACKSALVIN KAMARA

• A talented runner and receiver with a 5-10, 215-pound frame who was selected by the Saints in the third round of the 2017 NFL Draft out of Tennessee, Kamara enjoyed an outstanding rookie campaign. He ranked first on the club and sixth in the NFL in total yards from scrimmage (1,554), second on the team in rushing and receiving, carrying 120 times for 728 yards (6.1 avg.) with eight TDs and a two-point conversion, catching 81 passes for 826 yards (10.2 avg.) with five TDs and a kickoff return for a TD for a club rookie record 14 total scores, tied for second in the NFL. Kamara finished first in the NFL in yards per carry.

• Kamara was the first Saints offensive rookie selected to the Pro Bowl since Rueben Mayes (1986), as an Associated Press second team All-Pro (flex), the club's first rookie All-Pro since 1993. He was named The Sporting News NFL

Rookie of the Year and AP NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year.

ALVIN TIME

As a rookie in 2017 Kamara totaled 81 receptions, second-highest among running backs and the highest rookie reception total. His 826 receiving yards set a club record for running backs as well.

LATAVIUS MURRAY

- Originally a sixth round pick of the Raiders in the 2013 NFL Draft out of the University of Central Florida, the versatile back brings a bruising style to the Black and Gold to complement Kamara. Signed as an unrestricted free agent from the Minnesota Vikings in 2019, Murray has appeared in 105 career games with 62 starts for the Raiders, Vikings and Saints, carrying 1,171 times for 4,903 yards (4.2 avg.) with 43 touchdowns and catching 179 passes for 1,250 yards, including his first career receiving touchdown scored vs. Arizona on October 27, 2019.

- In his first season in New Orleans, Murray played in all 16 games for the third consecutive season with seven starts, carrying 146 times for 637 yards (4.4 avg.) with five touchdowns to tie for the team lead and also caught 34 passes for 235 yards with his first career receiving touchdown, to rank third on the club in overall scores. In Weeks Seven-Eight, Murray was the first Saint to have back-to-back games of 150 total yards from scrimmage since running back Deuce McAllister from November 23-30, 2003.

• In 2020, Murray has served as a solid complement to Kamara, carrying 126 times for 568 yards (4.5 avg.) with four touchdowns with 17 receptions for 132 yards, converting five-of-five third-and-one rushing attempts..

MURRAY'S BIG DAYS

Latavius Murray has reached 100 rushing yards 11 times over his career, including his first of 2020 in Sunday's win at Denver. His teams have posted a 10-1 record in those games.

• Nov. 20, 2014 at Kansas City - Carried four times for 112 yards (28.0 avg.) with one 90-yard touchdown, becoming the first player in NFL history to gain at least 110 rushing yards on five or fewer carries in the first 100-yard performance of his career.

• Sept. 27, 2015 at Cleveland - Rushed for 139 yards on 26 carries (5.3 avg.) with one touchdown.

• Nov. 1, 2015 vs. N.Y. Jets - Rushed 20 times for 113 yards for his second 100-yard performance of season.

• Nov. 6, 2016 vs. Denver - Turned in one of his best performances as a professional with 20 carries for 114 yards and three goal-line touchdowns in a rivalry game win.

• Dec. 8, 2016 at Kansas City - Carried 22 times for 103 yards with one touchdown.

• Oct. 22, 2017 vs. Baltimore - Carried 18 times for 113 yards and one touchdown.

• Dec. 31, 2017 vs. Chicago - Rushed 20 times for 111 yards with two touchdowns.

• Oct. 14, 2018 vs. Arizona - Carried 24 times for a career-high 155 yards (6.5 avg.) with one touchdown.

• Oct. 20, 2019 at Chicago—Started in place of an injured Kamara, opening his 50th career regular season contest and led team in rushing on a career-high 27 carries for 119 yards (4.4 avg.) with two TDs, adding five receptions for 31 yards, total 150 total yards from scrimmage in his most productive contest as a Saint.

• Oct. 27, 2019 vs. Arizona - Started in place of an injured Kamara and carried the ball 21 times for 102 yards and one touchdown and rushed for over 100 yards in back-to-back games for the first time in his career. Murray also added nine receptions for a career-high 55 receiving yards and his first career TD reception, marking Murray's eighth career multi-TD performance and the first time in his career that he had multiple touchdowns in back-to-back games.

• Nov. 29, 2016 at Denver - Turned in his most explosive performance as a Saint, carrying 19 times for 124 yards (6.5 avg.) with two touchdowns, including a 36-yard straight-ahead scamper, his longest run as a Saint, leading the way for the team's season-high 229 yards on the ground in a 31-3 win.

WIDE RECEIVERS

MICHAEL THOMAS

• A talented wideout with a 6-3, 212-pound frame who was selected by the Saints in the second round of the 2016 NFL Draft out of Ohio State, Thomas had an outstanding rookie campaign, leading the team with 92 receptions for 1,137 yards and a nine touchdowns. He became the first Saints rookie to break 1,000 yards since Marques Colston (1,038-2006). In 2017, Thomas was New Orleans' receiving leader, making a club-record 104 receptions for 1,245 yards with five TDs to rank third in the league and making him only the second player in NFL record books, joining Odell Beckham Jr. to have 90 catches in each of his first two seasons, his 196 grabs being the most by a player in his first two seasons.

BY THE NUMBERS

502 - Career grabs, the fourth-highest total in club history and the most in the National Football League since 2016 and through a player's first five seasons. His 470 receptions from 2016-19 are the most by a player through his first four seasons. Reaching 500 grabs in his 69th career contests, Thomas reached the mark the quickest in NFL record books.

5,866 - Career receiving yardage, third-highest in the National Football League since 2016 and fourth-highest in club history.

32 - Career receiving touchdowns, the seventh-most in franchise history and the sixth-most in the National Football League since 2016.

21 - 100-yard receiving games, third in team history—including a club-record three games with 180 yards, all during the last three seasons, tied with Amari Cooper for the most over that time. Thomas reached the century mark a club-record ten times in 2019 and twice in 2020.

30 - The number of contests over the last five seasons when Thomas has recorded eight or more receptions.

317 - Career receptions that have moved the chains for a first down - 63.1 percent of his catches.

34 - Catches of 25 yards or more.

5 - Career multiple-touchdown games. Also with the November 24, 2019 101-yards receiving performance vs. Carolina, Thomas surpassed tight end Jimmy Graham (four-2011 and 201313) to become the first player in franchise history with five consecutive games of 100-yards receiving.

3 - The number of quarterbacks Thomas caught passes from in his NFL record-setting 149 grabs in 2019, including Drew Brees, Teddy Bridgewater and Taysom Hill. In 2020, he has caught passes from Brees, Hill and Jameis Winston.

4 - Thomas became the first player in NFL history to have 90 receptions in each of his first four NFL seasons.

56 - On November 10, 2019 vs. Atlanta, in his 56th game, Thomas surpassed Odell Beckham Jr. (61) to become the player to reach 400 catches in the fewest games.

9 - With eight games of at least ten grabs in 2019, Thomas set the NFL single-season record.

149 - NFL-record number of receptions Thomas posted in 2019, surpassing Marvin Harrison's (143-2002).

1,725 - NFL-leading and career-high receiving yardage total in 2019, the seventh-highest single-season total in NFL history

THOMAS VS. EAGLES

In a 48-7 win over Philadelphia on Nov. 18, 2018, Thomas recorded four grabs for 92 yards and one touchdown in his first appearance against the Eagles. He came back for more in the NFC Divisional Playoff win, when he posted 12 grabs for a postseason franchise record 171 yards and one touchdown.

EMMANUEL SANDERS

- Sanders joined the Saints in the 2020 offseason as an unrestricted free agent and is in his 11th NFL season. He has been a member of four teams since being selected in the third round (82nd overall) of the 2010 NFL Draft by the Pittsburgh Steelers, and has appeared in 154 games with 106 starts over that period. In his long career marked by big play ability, he has accumulated 8,349 receiving yards off 642 catches (13.0 avg.), recording 45 touchdowns.

- After spending the final four games of the 2018 campaign with the Denver Broncos on Injured Reserve with a ruptured Achilles tendon, Sanders went through an aggressive rehab and in a season split between the Broncos and San Francisco 49ers, appeared in 17 games with 16 starts and posted 66 receptions for 869 yards with five touchdowns, also tossing a 35-yard touchdown in San Francisco's matchup with New Orleans as his acquisition played an important role in the 49ers run to the Super Bowl.

- For the season, Sanders has posted 41 receptions for 466 yards with three scoring grabs to lead the wide receiver corps in grabs and yardage.

TRE'QUAN SMITH

- A talented second-year wideout, who was selected by New Orleans in the third round of the 2018 draft out of UCF, the 6-1, 210-pounder emerged as one of the Knights' top weapons from 2015-17 and was a key figure in their emergence. During that period, he caught 168 passes for 2,748 yards (16.4 avg.) with 22 touchdowns. In his final campaign for the 13-0 Knights in 2017, Smith appeared in and started all 13 games and hauled in 54 receptions for 1,082 yards (19.9 avg.) and 13 touchdowns.

- Smith recorded five touchdowns apiece in each of his first two seasons, but is starting to breakout In 2020, he has posted 30 receptions for 363 yards (12.1 avg.) with four touchdowns to rank third on the Black and Gold in receiving.

TIGHT ENDS

JARED COOK

• This veteran enjoyed his most explosive season as a professional in his 12th overall and first with the Black and Gold after signing as a free agent from the Raiders. The former South Carolina standout who originally entered the league as a third round draft pick of the Titans in 2009 has career totals of 493 receptions for 6,482 yards (13.1 avg.) with 39 touchdowns in 174 games with 88 starts. Through 14 regular season contests with seven starts in 2019, Cook posted 43 receptions for 705 yards (16.4 avg.) and a career-high eight touchdowns. In 2020, he has 25 grabs for 313 yards and a club-best five touchdowns, tied for sixth in the NFL among tight ends.

Cook's 2,568 receiving yards since 2017 ranks fourth in the NFL at the position.

JOSH HILL

• This Idaho State product made the club as an undrafted free agent in 2013 and his consistency has been an asset to the position group for who he's played in 114 career games with 60 starts, making 115 receptions for 1,070 yards and 15 touchdowns, also chipping in 27 special teams tackles. In 2019, Hill played in all 16 games for the third consecutive season with 11 starts and posted a career-high 25 receptions for a career-best 226 yards with three touchdowns, including grabbing QB Drew Brees' NFL-record 540th touchdown on December 16 vs. Indianapolis. In 2020, Hill's played in 11 games with seven starts, posting seven grabs for 45 yards and one touchdown.

ADAM TRAUTMAN

• The Saints were pleased to find the 6-5, 253-pound Trautman available near the end of the third round of the 2020 NFL Draft and made an aggressive trade up to the 105th pick to add him out of Dayton. A converted high school quarterback, the Michigan native moved to tight end as a freshman developed into one of the top offensive player in NCAA FCS football, where he played in 44 games, recording 178 receptions for 2,295 yards (12.9 avg.) and 31 touchdowns. Though 11 contests, Trautman has posted 11 receptions for 109 yards with one touchdown while also impressively developing his blocking ability.

DEFENSIVE ENDS

CAMERON JORDAN

• New Orleans' first choice in the 2011 NFL Draft (24th overall) out of California, Jordan enjoyed another standout season in 2019, posting 53 tackles (37 solo) with a career-high 15.5 sacks, to rank third in the NFL in takedowns, three passes defensed and one fumble recovery as he was selected to his fifth Pro Bowl and a second-team AP All-Pro selection. With 93.5 sacks in ten seasons, Jordan's second on the Saints career sack list. He's also proven to be one of the NFL's best run defenders, playing an important role in top five rush defenses in each of the past three seasons.

Jordan is ranked second on the club's all-time sack list in the regular season and first in postseason.

MARCUS DAVENPORT

• Trading up to the 14th spot in the 2018 NFL Draft, the Saints addressed the line and the pass rush with this gifted pass rusher, only the second draft choice ever from Texas-San Antonio. During four college seasons, Davenport notched totals of 186 tackles (97 solo), 22 sacks, 38 tackles for loss, six forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries, one returned for a touchdown and eight passes defended, finishing his career as the school's all-time leader for stops for loss, takedowns and quarterback hurries (21). In 13 games as a rookie, Davenport posted 22 tackles (12 solo), four sacks, two passes defended and one forced fumble. He served as a solid bookend opposite Jordan in 2019, starting all 12 games before being placed on Injured Reserve and posting 29 stops, six sacks and four forced fumbles. After recovering from toe and elbow injuries, Davenport has made an impact in seven contests with 14 tackles, 1.5 sacks and two passes defense.

TREY HENDRICKSON

- Selected by the Saints in the third round of the 2017 NFL Draft, Hendrickson came to the Saints from Florida Atlantic, where he departed the school with a team-record 29.5 career sacks. Hendrickson has appeared in 28 career games in three seasons, recording 35 tackles (22 solo), six takedowns, two passes defended and two forced fumbles. Following an offseason, where he made significant strides in the weight room and with his technique, Hendrickson's hard work paid off with two sacks in the Sept. 9, 2019 season-opening win over Houston followed up by a takedown/forced fumble in Week Two at the Los Angeles Rams and one on Thanksgiving night at Atlanta. In his breakthrough campaign, he had 19 tackles, 4.5 sacks to rank fourth on the club and added one more takedown in a postseason contest. Hendrickson has started the first 12 games of 2020, he leads the team with 10.5 sacks to tie for third in the National Football League.

CARL GRANDERSON

- Signed by New Orleans as an undrafted free agent out of Wyoming, Granderson posted 17.5 career sacks in college and possesses the perfect body type for a pass rusher. As a rookie, Granderson appeared in eight regular season contests, posting ten tackles and one sack as he moved into the defensive line rotation in December and is expected to see more action in 2020. In 2020, Granderson has added seven tackles, two sacks, a club-best two forced fumbles and one pass defended as he has seen more extensive time in the club's defensive line rotation in recent games.

DEFENSIVE TACKLESMALCOM BROWN

- This former first round draft pick out of the University of Texas was a vital part of a Patriots defensive line that helped pick up two Super Bowl championships in the last three seasons. The University of Texas product has been a run-stopping force in the New England defensive line for the past four seasons and now with New Orleans after signing as an unrestricted free agent in the offseason, playing in 85 career games with 76 starts and recording career totals of 237 tackles (127 solo), 11.5 sacks, one forced fumble and four fumble recoveries. Brown supplemented the middle a Saints defense that finished the 2019 regular season fourth in opponent rushing yards per game, posting 1.5 sacks and one fumble recovery in all 16 contests as well as 34 stops, Brown has opened all 12 contests posting 21 tackles and one sack in providing a line of defense for the NFL's second-ranked run defense.

DAVID ONYEMATA

- A fourth round selection out of Manitoba in 2016, Onyemata teams with Brown to form a solid duo in the interior of the Saints defensive line. In 64 games with 26 starts in four seasons, he has posted 141 career tackles, 9.5 sacks, two passes defended and one forced fumble. In 16 games with four starts in 2018, Onyemata posted 36 tackles, in helping with a run defense ranked second in the National Football League. On Nov. 29, 2018 vs. Dallas, he enjoyed a breakout performance with career-highs in tackles (seven), Quarterback takedowns (three) and forced fumbles (one). In 2019, he opened all 15 regular season games he played in, posting 32 stops, one pass defended and three sacks for the NFL's fourth-ranked run defense. Onyemata was re-signed to a three-year contract by the Saints in the offseason and is ranked third on the team with six quarterback takedowns, tied for second in the league among defensive tackles and one interception, starting every contest for a unit ranked first in the NFL in opponent net yards per game and second in run defense.

LINEBACKERSDEMARIO DAVIS

- This dependable and sure-tackling defender joined the Saints after a breakout 2017, where he started 16 games for the New York Jets. Davis posted a team-high and career-high 165 tackles (112 solo) and a career-best five sacks. For his career, the Brandon, Miss. native has appeared in 140 games with 126 starts for the Jets (2012-15, 2017), Cleveland (2016) and Saints, recording 966 tackles (647 solo), 26.5 sacks, two interceptions, 37 passes defended, three forced fumbles, five fumble recoveries and 24 special team stops.

- In 2018, Davis opened all 16 contests and led the team with 110 stops (74 solo), five sacks to lead the linebackers, four passes defended, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. Davis' abilities to diagnose and tackle played a key role in New Orleans ranking second in the National Football League in opponent rushing yards per game and opponent rushing yards per play. Participating in the postseason for the first time, Davis led the defense with 22 stops (15 solo), an interception in the NFC Championship and a pass defense. In 2019, he posted 111 stops, ranked first on the club, four sacks, one interception and 11 passes defended to help spur the league's fourth-ranked run defense.

CRAIG ROBERTSON

• In just his first year with the Saints in 2016, Robertson quickly became one of the defense's most important members. Robertson joined the Saints looking to contribute on defense and special teams, yet his production outpaced even the highest expectations, posting 201 tackles, three interceptions and three fumble recoveries in his first two seasons. In 2018 and 2019, while he continued to contribute on defense he has served the as captain of the club's coverage units on special teams. Robertson, who has 554 career defensive stops and 49 special teams tackles, provides depth at all three linebacker positions and outstanding leadership to the defense and special teams units.

ALEX ANZALONE

• One of three third round picks in 2017, Anzalone came to the Saints after a solid career at the University of Florida. In his rookie season, Anzalone started four games before suffering a season-ending shoulder injury and posted 16 tackles, a sack and a pass defended. In 16 games with seven starts in 2018, he posted 59 tackles (34 solo), two sacks, one interception, two passes defended and three forced fumbles.

• After missing the last 15 regular season and postseason contests of 2019 with a shoulder injury, Anzalone has opened nine of 12 contests of 2020 at middle linebacker, recording 36 tackles (18 solo) and one special teams stop.

KWON ALEXANDER

• A fourth round draft pick of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2015, this former LSU standout has recorded 483 tackles (343 solo), 9.5 sacks, seven interceptions, 27 passes defended, nine forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries. Acquired by New Orleans at midseason from San Francisco, Alexander immediately moved into the starting lineup where he has posted 13 tackles, eight solo, three passes defended and one fumble recovery.

SECONDARYMARSHON LATTIMORE

• Selected by the Saints in the first round (11th overall) of the 2017 NFL Draft, Lattimore started all 13 games he appeared in. He totaled 53 tackles (44 solo), a forced fumble, one fumble recovery, five interceptions for 85 yards and 18 passes defended, as he became the youngest Saint (21 years old) ever selected to the Pro Bowl and was selected as the AP NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year.

• In 2018, Lattimore opened all 16 contests and posted a career-high 59 tackles (49 solo), two interceptions, 12 passes defended, a club-best four forced fumbles, tied for fourth in the NFL and three fumble recoveries, returned for 91 yards, leading the team in takeaways and tied for the NFL lead in defensive fumble recoveries, the highest total among defensive backs. Lattimore also added two picks in the NFC Divisional Playoff win over Philadelphia.

• A standout 2019 campaign by Lattimore resulted in him being voted to the Pro Bowl. Lattimore started all 14 games he played in and posted 57 stops, one interception and ranked first on the team with 14 passes defended.

OUT OF THE MARSH

Below are Marshon Lattimore's 2020 defensive highlights

• In the season-opening, September 13 34-23 win vs. Tampa Bay, Lattimore was assigned to wideout Mike Evans, who recorded only one two-yard touchdown reception late in the fourth quarter with New Orleans already 34-17.

OUT OF THE MARSH

- In New Orleans 30-27 overtime win over the Los Angeles Chargers on Monday night, October 12, Lattimore saved the game and brought home victory with a tackle of Chargers wideout Mike Williams on fourth down, one yard short of the first down marker.
- In New Orleans' 26-23 overtime win at Chicago, Lattimore recorded his first interception of 2020.

JANORIS JENKINS

- A nine-year NFL veteran who was originally a second round draft pick of the St. Louis Rams in 2012, Jenkins has shown a nose for the ball during his stints with the Rams (2012-15), New York Giants (2016-19) and since joining the Saints prior to Week 16 of the 2019 campaign. He has played in 124 games with 121 starts, posting 522 tackles two sacks, 26 interceptions, with eight returned for touchdowns, 121 passes defended, six forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries, one blocked field goal and one return of a blocked field goal for a touchdown.

END ZONE LEADER

Affectionately nicknamed "Jackrabbit", Jenkins picked off Buccaneers signal-caller Tom Brady and returned it 36 yards into the end zone in the club's 2020 season opening win over Tampa Bay and moved into a tie for eighth all-time in NFL records. He is tied for the team lead with three picks and ranked second on the club with ten passes defended, after recording a career-high five vs. Atlanta, Nov. 22.

MARCUS WILLIAMS

- After being selected in the second round of the 2017 NFL Draft (42nd overall) out of the Utah, this ball-hawking safety has started all 58 games he has appeared in, recording 228 tackles (174 solo), one sack, 13 interceptions, one returned for a touchdown, 28 passes defended, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. With a team-leading three interceptions in 2020, Williams' 13 picks since being drafted is tied for seventh in the NFL over that period, tied for third among safeties.

- Williams has been a stalwart in the secondary for New Orleans in 2020, recording 50 tackles to ranked fourth on the team (33 solo), three interceptions and six passes defended, to tied for the team lead in picks with Janoris Jenkins, while also recording a career-high nine stops, November 15, vs. San Francisco, topping it with a pick vs. Atlanta, November 22.

MALCOLM JENKINS

- Returning to New Orleans this offseason after six seasons in Philadelphia, Malcolm Jenkins is one of the NFL's most intelligent and instinctive defensive backs. One of only two safeties in Saints history to be selected as an Associated Press All-Pro, Jenkins has played in 179 career games with 171 starts and has career totals of 1,177 tackles (835 solo), 12 sacks, 19 interceptions, with six returned for touchdowns, 124 passes defended, 15 forced fumbles, nine fumble recoveries, one special teams fumble recovery, one blocked field goal and 44 special teams stops. He has also played in 12 postseason contests with 10 starts and has recorded 73 tackles (52) solo, two sacks and five passes defended.

- The three-time Pro Bowler started all 16 regular season games at safety for the sixth straight campaign in 2019 and finished with a team-high 118 tackles (82 solo), a career-high four forced fumbles, a career-high tying 2.5 tackles, 12 passes defended and one fumble recovery. He added ten stops and a sack in Philadelphia's playoff game for the NFC East champions. In his 2020 Saints return, Jenkins is ranked second on the team with 63 tackles (46 solo), one sack, two interceptions to tied for the team lead and nine-passes defended through the first 12 contests of 2020, playing virtually every defensive snap, after being voted by his teammates as a team captain.

JENKINS=TDs

Both entering their first seasons as a tandem together in the Saints, CB Janoris Jenkins and S Malcolm Jenkins have both shown a nose for the end zone after interceptions throughout their careers.

C.J. Gardner-Johnson

- Selected in the fourth round (109th overall) of the 2019 overall draft out of the University of Florida by New Orleans, Gardner-Johnson's hard-hitting and playmaking persona took root as a rookie in 2019, when he played in all 16 games with seven starts, posting 46 tackles (35 solo), one interception, eight passes defended, a forced fumble, a fumble recovery and three special teams stops. In 2020, he has established a niche as the club's starting nickel, playing in all 12 games with ten starts and posting 53 tackles (43 solo) to rank third on the club, one sack, one interception and eight passes defended for the NFL's top-ranked defense in opponent net yards per game, second against the run and fourth against the pass.

Patrick Robinson

- New Orleans' first round selection (32nd overall) in the 2010 NFL Draft out of Florida State, Robinson made significant contributions to the Saints secondary his first five seasons with the club followed by stints with the Colts, Chargers and Eagles. Re-signed by New Orleans in 2018, Robinson has fought back from injuries to play all four games with one start this season, posting five tackles (four solo), one interception and two passes defended, picking off his first pass in his second Saints stint on October 4 at Detroit, when he filled in for an injured Janoris Jenkins and Marshon Lattimore. Filling in for an injured Lattimore in Sunday's win vs. San Francisco, Robinson had another end zone pick in the fourth quarter to tie for the team lead in interceptions

- Overall, in his 11-season NFL career, Robinson has played in 123 games with 62 starts, posting 348 tackles (284 solo), two sacks, 16 interceptions with one brought back for a touchdown, 88 passes defended and three forced fumbles.

Pos.: QB Ht.: 6-0 Wt.: 209 Exp.: 20 College: Purdue

Regular Season Career GP/GS (284/283): 2020:(9/9)

2020 REVIEW: vs. Tampa Bay (9/13): Started, beginning his 20th NFL season and 15th in New Orleans. Brees became the NFL's all-time leader in pass attempts, surpassing Brett Favre's 10,169 attempts, finishing the game with 30 attempts and moving to 10,191 for his career. Brees finished the game with 160 yards on 18-for-30 passing and two touchdowns. With his two touchdown passes, Brees surpassed Peyton Manning for second-most multi-touchdown games in his career, with 166. Brees has now thrown for at least two touchdowns in nine of his 15 season openers with the Saints. at Las Vegas (9/21): Started and completed 26-of-38 passes for 312 yards with one touchdown, one interception and a 91.1 rating. vs. Green Bay (9/27): Started and passed for 288 yards and three touchdowns on 29-of-36 passing, finishing with a passer rating of 127.8. Brees has now passed for at least three touchdowns in 94 games, surpassing Peyton Manning (93) and joining Tampa Bay QB Tom Brady (94) for the most such games in NFL history. Brees finished with a passer rating of above 125.0 for the 51st time in his career, surpassing Manning (50) for most such games in NFL history. At Detroit (10/4): Started and completed 19-of-25 passes for 246 yards, two touchdown passes and a 108.2 rating. Brees led the Saints on five scoring drives resulting in five touchdowns. vs. L.A. Chargers (10/12): Started and finished the game 33-of-47 passing for 325 yards and one touchdown pass. Brees also rushed for his 24th career touchdown and first since December 8, 2019. Engineered an overtime game-winning drive where he completed five-of-six passes for 41 yards to set up Wil Lutz's 36-yard field goal. Recorded 51st fourth quarter/overtime game-winning drive and 36th fourth quarter comeback of his career. Those marks rank second (Peyton Manning, 54) and third (Manning 43, Tom Brady 37) in NFL history. vs. Carolina (10/25): Became the first player in NFL history to reach 7,000 career completions, finishing the game 29-of-36 passing for 287 yards and two touchdowns. Brees also became the first player in NFL history to eclipse 79,000 yards passing in his career. In his 281st game, Brees rushed for the 25th touchdown of his career, 16 of which have been one-yard rushing scores. Recorded 52nd fourth quarter/overtime game-winning drive of his career. This mark ranks second (Peyton Manning, 54) in NFL history at the start of the fourth quarter when he completed four-of-five passes for 45 yards, setting up a 43-yard field goal by K Wil Lutz to put New Orleans ahead 27-24. At Chicago (11/1): Started and completed 31-of-41 passes for 280 yards, two touchdown passes and a 109.8 passer rating, leading the Saints on six scoring drives resulting in two touchdowns and four field goals. In game-winning overtime drive, carried once for two yards to avoid a sack at the start of a drive that led to Wil Lutz's 35-yard field goal. At Tampa Bay (11/8): Started and finished the game with 222 passing yards on 26-of-32 passing and added four touchdown passes. Brees has now thrown for four or more touchdowns in 37 career games. With the win, Brees' career record against Tampa Bay improves to 20-10, making the Buccaneers the first team Brees has defeated 20 times in his career. Brees also now holds a 5-2 record against Brady in his career. vs. San Francisco (11/15): Started and played in his 300th career game (regular season/postseason combined). Brees passed for 76 yards on 8-of-13 passing and one touchdown, before leaving the game at halftime due to a rub injury. This was the 284th regular season appearance for Brees, moving into a tie with K Sebastian Janikowski and P Sean Landeta for 17th in games played in NFL record books. Placed on Injured Reserve (11/20).

Regular Season Career GP/GS: (57/32); 2020: (12/7)

REVIEW: vs. Tampa Bay (9/13): Started and finished with 16 rushing yards on 12 attempts and 51 receiving yards on five receptions, adding both a rushing and receiving touchdown. Kamara recorded his 14th career multi-touchdown game and fourth such game against Tampa Bay, the most of any opponent. Kamara's rushing touchdown was the 28th of his career and moves him into a tie with former black and gold running backs Chuck Muncie and Pierre Thomas for fourth in the club record books. Kamara now has 40 career touchdowns, which surpasses Lance Moore for ninth in team history. at Las Vegas (9/21): Started and carried 13 times for 79 yards (6.1 avg.) with two touchdowns and also caught a team-high nine passes for 95 yards for a game-high 174 total yards from scrimmage. With 30 career rushing touchdowns, surpassed Chuck Muncie and Pierre Thomas for sole possession of fourth place in club record books. Kamara's 257 career catches move him past Dalton Hilliard for fourth place in club record books among Saints running backs. vs. Green Bay (9/27): Scored two receiving touchdowns, recording his 16th career multi-touchdown game, surpassing Marques Colston and Deuce McAllister and setting a new club record. Kamara also had the most productive receiving game of his career, finishing with 13 receptions for a career-high 139 yards and two touchdown receptions. Finished with a game-high 197 total yards from scrimmage. Kamara set a new career-long reception on a 52-yard third quarter catch-and-run touchdown. Kamara also carried the ball six times for 58 yards, including a first quarter 49-yard rush, matching the second longest run of his career. At Detroit (10/4): Started and led the team in rushing with 83 yards on 19 carries and one touchdown. Kamara also caught two passes for 36 yards and returned one kickoff for 13 yards. Kamara has scored a touchdown in six consecutive regular season games, tying the club record shared by Dalton Hilliard (1988-1989, 1992), Thomas (2008), Jimmy Graham (2011-12) and Kamara (2017). Set a new club record with his 7th touchdown through the team's first four games. vs. L.A. Chargers (10/12): Started and saw action on special teams, carrying 11 times for 45 yards, catching eight passes for 74 yards and bringing back a kickoff 31 yards at the start of overtime. vs. Carolina (10/25): Started, finishing with 65 receiving yards on eight receptions, became the third player in NFL history with at least 2,500 rushing and 2,500 receiving yards in their first four NFL seasons, joining Roger Craig and Christian McCaffrey. With 289 career receptions, Moves into the top-10 in club record books, surpassing RB Tony Galbreath (284) for tenth in all-time receptions for New Orleans. With five more receptions, Kamara will surpass RB Reggie Bush for ninth in club record-books. Kamara also tied his season-best with 83 rushing yards on 14 carries. Kamara has at least five receptions in 32 games, tied with Craig (32 games) for the second-most among running backs in their first four seasons in NFL history. Only McCaffrey (34 games) has more. POSTGAME NOTES AND QUOTES
GREG BENSEL + SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF COMMUNICATIONS

NEW ORLEANS SAINTS VS ATLANTA FALCONS SUNDAY, DEC. 6, 2020 • MERCEDES-BENZ STADIUM SAINTS POSTGAME NOTES

- With the win, New Orleans' record improves to 10-2, putting them three games ahead of the 7-5 Tampa Bay Buccaneers for first place in the NFC South, who have a Week 13 bye.
- It also gives the franchise their fifth winning streak of at least nine games (13-9/13-12/13/09, 10-9/16-12/23/18, 9-11/1-12/27/87 and 12/23/90-10/20/91), their third under Head Coach Sean Payton and second in the last three seasons.
- The Saints have also clinched their fourth consecutive playoff berth for the first time in franchise history. With a win on Sunday at Philadelphia, they would clinch their fourth consecutive NFC South title.
- The win gives the franchise four consecutive double-digit victory seasons for the first time in franchise history.
- The win improves Payton's record against Atlanta to 20-8, making the Falcons the first opponent he has 20 victories against. The win also gives Payton a 10-4 road record against Atlanta. A win over Falcons Interim Head Coach Raheem Morris gives him a 5-3 all-time record against Morris, and retains his regular season winning record against 51 head coaches.
- New Orleans improves their road record to 5-1, giving them winning road records in three consecutive seasons for the second time in franchise history after Payton and the Saints first achieved this from 2009-11. With a win on Sunday at Philadelphia, they would have a sweep of three consecutive road games for the second time in franchise history, the first a 11/1-11/1987 stretch. It also gives them a 3-1 record at Mercedes-Benz Stadium, giving them their third consecutive victory at the facility.
- Offensively, New Orleans racked up 424 yards in the win with 217 net passing yards and 207 rushing yards.
- Quarterback Taysom Hill started and completed 37-of-27 passes for 232 yards with the first two touchdown passes of his career and a 107.0 quarterback rating while carrying 14 times for a career-high 83 yards, leading the Saints on three scoring drives resulting in three touchdowns. He is also the first Saints quarterback to win his first three career starts as a Saint.

- Hill's 364 rushing yards this season are the most by a Saints' QB in club history, surpassing Aaron Brooks' 358 in 2001.
- RB Alvin Kamara led the team in rushing with 88 rushing yards and a touchdown on 15 carries (5.9 avg.) while also catching two passes for nine yards. Kamara joins Roger Craig as the only players with at least 3,000 rushing yards and 2,500 receiving yards in their first four seasons. He also joins RB Pierre Thomas as only the second Saint with at least 3,000 rushing yards and 2,500 receiving yards. Kamara now has 51 career touchdowns, moving into a tie with TE Jimmy Graham for fifth in club record books.
- WR Michael Thomas led the team in receiving and caught nine passes for 106 yards. Thomas eclipsed the 500 receptions mark for his career, reaching the milestone in an NFL-record 69 games. Thomas surpassed Anquan Boldin and Julio Jones who each reached 500 receptions in 80 games. Today marked Thomas' 21st 100-yard receiving game, third place in team history.
- WR Tre'Quan Smith and TE Jared Cook each caught touchdown passes from Hill in the first half.
- Beginning after a first quarter touchdown against San Francisco in Week 10, the Saints' defense went a club-record 14 straight quarters without giving up a touchdown until Atlanta reached the end zone in the fourth quarter today.
- LB Demario Davis played in his 140th consecutive NFL game on Sunday, having never missed a contest in his nine-year NFL career. Davis led the team in tackles with nine and now has over 300 tackles as a member of the black and gold.
- DE Trey Hendrickson, DT David Onyemata and DE Carl Granderson each recorded a sack against Falcons' QB Matt Ryan.
- Hendrickson now has 10.5 sacks on the season and becomes the first Saint besides DE Cameron Jordan to have double-digit sacks in a season since 2014.
- Jordan finished with two solo tackles and eclipsed the 600 tackle mark for his career.
- Onyemata now has a career-high 6 sacks. Onyemata, Jordan and Hendrickson are the first trio of Saints defenders to post at least 5.5 sacks each since 2006 when DE Will Smith had 10.5, DE Charles Grant 6 and DT Brian Young, now the team's pass rush specialist coach, had 5.5 quarterbacks takedowns.

- FS Marcus Williams finished with seven tackles and one pass defended.
- DB P.J. Williams finished with two solo tackles, his 25th career pass defended and one fumble recovery.
- LB Kwon Alexander recorded three solo tackles and a team-high two passes defended.
- K Wil Lutz converted all three extra point attempts and joins Morten Andersen (1985-89) as only the second Saint to have 100 points in five consecutive seasons.
- P Thomas Morstead played in his 186th regular season game on Sunday, moving him into a tie with T Stan Brock for fifth place in club record books. Morstead punted four times for 159 yards with a 37.4 net punting average, three dropped inside-the-20-yard line and a long of 49.
- The Saints have not surrendered 100 yards to an individual player in 55 consecutive games in the regular season and postseason combined, the longest streak in National Football League history with the regular season streak at 50 games.

Does it look like Michael Thomas has gotten back in his comfort zone? And it seems like he's a guy that any quarterback you have on the roster can rely on?

"I think, first off, I'm proud of him, because I know it's, it's been a grind working back, he's still trying to get to 100%. Obviously, the injury he had was significant. But I would agree in that. Man, he's come up with some big plays here and for a quarterback, new in the lineup, you know, to have that target in someone who is going to come down with the ball, make plays, that's a big deal. So, he's doing well."

How does it seem that he's (Michael Thomas) able to sync in with whichever quarterback, he doesn't get the same amount of reps with all of them, but how does he manage to sync with all of them?

"Well, look, it starts with being a great receiver. He's able to separate, he gives you a great target radius, an area to throw to and I think that suits anybody who's passing the ball to him. The key each week is to find different route concepts to give him those opportunities and continue to find more of those even in the red zone."

How did you think Sheldon (Rankins) did his first game back?

"I thought it was good to have him back out there and it was a minute (time sidelined) since he played last. So it is going to be a little different. He will be a little sore today. But there's a lot that comes with him and his ability to not only play the run, (but) to rush the passer and I think he has I would say, a lot of real good leadership qualities as well."

After getting a chance to look at the film, another big game on the ground in terms of rushing yards, what were some of the keys that you saw once you looked at the film to kind of have that kind of outing?

"(I) think in yesterday's case, look, there were some real good signs. We had two big explosives, obviously Alvin's (Kamara) run and Taysom's (Hill) run and then there were a lot of positive plays, the touchdown to Alvin (Kamara), a handful of things that we can do a better job with, from a consistency standpoint. But I think in yesterday's game, it was about some of the big runs."

On Alvin's (Kamara) big run, I think it was Tre'Quan (Smith) who had a nice block on the outside. How good of a blocker is Tre'Quan (Smith)?

"I think he's a real good blocker. I think he's physical. I think he's long, and that helps, when you have that size and length with your wingspan. And the other thing is he's willing and extremely unselfish."

Yesterday, you all clinched a playoff berth, was that a big deal to you all or did you need to talk about it after the game?

"No, I do not think so. I mean, yeah. I mean, we found out about it afterwards. But, I don't know that that was something that we were waiting to hear on or anything like that. I guess it had something to do with another NFC team (Chicago) losing. But look, I think the focus in this league is to win your division. The next focus is to put yourself in the best position, playoff wise and those are the things we're focused on."

I know I'm asking this knowing there won't be some grand announcement or anything, but is there an update on Drew (Brees) and how his progress is going and a potential timetable at all?

"I've not seen anything. I think he's working (hard). I know he's spending a ton of time with Beau (Lowery) in the training room and so I think it would be early. I honestly wouldn't be able to give you a time frame. He's like a handful of the other guys that are down there working their tails off to get back healthy, 100% and we'll kind of see when that is."

On Taysom Hill, did you see improvement in his quickness of his decisionmaking. In the pocket, did you see him get more decisive and act more quickly (than the other games)?

"Yeah, I think you've got to eliminate last week, in fairness to the process and look at the first game versus Atlanta, (and then) which was his third game, second game versus Atlanta. I felt like the thing I was impressed with (was) his third down (decisionmaking) and our conversion percentage and I did feel watching, just during the game, even the decisiveness as to where to go with the football. There is some heat on it, our receivers and tight ends and everyone is getting adjusted to the way it is coming out and I was pleased with that."

What about just how he (Taysom Hill) is, you know, in the huddle, getting guys lined up, I think Jared Cook mentioned that that was an area he's really seen Taysom come along?

"Yeah and listen, part of that is on the other 10. You get used to one thing for so long and Drew (Brees) kind of, is there to handle everyone's problems and everyone's issues and everyone's little intricacies. And look, the O-Line, the tight ends, running backs, receivers, everyone has to focus on their specific job and I think that's something that just comes with time and experience."

In the face of pressure, do you think (Taysom) is maybe a little better, then some people really, you see yesterday he had a bunch of throws with guys really buried down on him?

"We've got to do a better job with some of our protections. I think you're right, I think he made some very impressive throws. It's a tough front. But we had a couple free rushes that we've got to clean up."

I know that yesterday, the Eagles made a quarterback change in the game and then Doug Pederson said he will not announce a starter, just maybe the challenges of your defense having to prepare for two guys, especially when you have maybe just a lot of college film and not a lot of NFL film on one (Jalen Hurts) of them?

"Yeah, look, I think you prepare first for the offense. And then you recognize the nuances when you have a quarterback who's in the game that has a little bit more mobility, and they see that with Taysom sometimes. But I think you've got to prepare for the offense that you're playing. And then more specifically, the skillset of who's in there Carson (Wentz) is a guy when he is in there that moves well, that can escape and run. So in either case, you're going to be playing a quarterback who's a real good athlete."

With back to back 200-yard rushing games, what has been the key to your offense being able to do that two weeks in a row?

"I think the run game has been the emphasis for the last couple of weeks. Atlanta has a good defense up front for the running game. We handled the pressure and that went well. Coach (Payton) emphasized for us to keep running the ball. I think we ended up doing a very good job."

With that kind of success on the ground, do you get a sense of it later in the game of maybe a frustration from the opposing defense and while not breaking them, but the weight of it taking measure of a team?

"Yes, when you can run the ball at will and keep running the ball, it definitely weighs on a defense. We know that if we're able to do that, we can have a lot of success with that."

When Taysom Hill breaks off a long run like he did in the first half yesterday, does that affect at all how you pass protect or change the mentality at all?

"I don't think it changes our mentality too much. We know who we have back there and that he can break off runs and pick them up on account of himself, but as far as us, we're blocking our tails off and doing everything we can. I was excited to see him take off and get that chunk of yardage."

What was the locker room attitude in clinching a playoff spot, was it more temporary joy/celebration or more a step along the road to bigger and better?

"I think it's obviously, you don't want to take the playoffs lightly. But I think this program and what we've been doing here and what our goals are, we're looking for more than just clinching a playoff spot. We want that number one seed. We still want a lot more. That's kind of our mindset."

We have talked to a lot of guys on the offensive line, regarding the injuries and some of the shuffling on the unit, but when you go back and look at the film at how everybody played, but does it surprise you at how cohesive you guys are despite the fact that you have to plug in pieces now and then?

"We have guys that can go play on Sunday and do a really good job. I think we all mesh well. I think we all communicate really well up front. Like you've said we've had to do some shuffling, but overall everyone is on the same page and everyone meshes really well together and plays really well together."

As far as Taysom Hill is in the huddle and his command of the offense, do you notice his confidence increasing as the weeks go on?

"Yes, I think so. When he first got in there, I think he did a good job, but I think you can see with a couple of more weeks to prepare and getting into the flow of things I think he's maybe getting a little more comfortable and fluid and taking command of the huddle a little better. I think he's confident in what he does and (he's) a good leader. He's done a really good job."

New Orleans Saints Defensive Tackle Sheldon Rankins
Conference Call with New Orleans Media

What was it like to be back out there on the field?

"It felt good, obviously I've had my fair share of injuries and setbacks, so just being able to overcome something again and get back out there. Just trying to help this team, help the defense continue to do what they've been doing. We're just playing great ball. Definitely, extremely rusty, but that'll work itself out the more I get those live reps."

While you've been watching defense, what are the things that you've noticed over this last period of time?

"They're playing to the standard we've always held ourselves to. I think since I've been here and been a part of this defense, this culture, we have always held ourselves to a standard and not necessarily always going out and playing that way. In spurts. I think we're just finally hitting that level of consistency where the preparation and the mental aspect is meeting the physical tools and the physical abilities that we know the players on this defense have. So, you're seeing guys going out and playing, playing the right way, playing with effort, playing with energy. Guys know their assignments and guys are just flying around. There's no thinking, there's no hesitating, guys are just playing ball the right way and you see the results."

When you got hurt, were you worried it was going to be a lot worse than it was, it just sounded like it was really painful when it happened?

"Absolutely. I'm pretty honest about, you know, everything with you guys. So I would be lying if I sat here and said I knew it was going to be X amount of weeks out or whatever. No, when it happened I immediately thought the worst. Obviously because things I have already went through. But, just the initial shock, just the initial pain, I felt it was pretty excruciating. So no, I definitely initially thought it would be a lot worse than it was. But I am glad it wasn't and I'm glad I was able to, to be able to rebound pretty quickly and be able to get back out there and get back to what I love doing."

When you said you were rusty, do you feel health wise, I mean, do you feel like you're at 100%, as far as the actual recovery from the injury?

“Yeah, I don't feel like the injury held me back at all. There's only certain feels and certain things you can receive in a live game, live full speed reps going against somebody else.”

Were you surprised you aimed to play 40 snaps?

No, I think over the course of it all, I've always maintained as far as being in pretty good cardio standing. So I knew, if I had to play an extended amount of plays, as far as you know, physically being able to do it, I knew I could. It was just, like I said obviously, you know, they're just, like I said certain things you're only going to get the feel for actually playing the game. And prior to getting hurt I definitely felt like I was finding my rhythm and starting to heat up. So just, kind of getting back into that and trying to get back up to speed as soon as possible, it's going to be big. But you know, we got some games left and I'll continue to get better each time I'm out there.”

What are those Sundays like when you're not playing? Just watching the games, what's it like for you?

“Yeah, okay. They're tough, I'm not going to lie to you. I'm kind of always caught in between, do I want to watch the game. I take this game very seriously. So, it has a certain effect on me, having to sit at home and watch a game. It emotionally takes a toll on me, but at the same time, those are my guys out there. So, I've got to watch and I have to be supportive and I've got to be able to watch the game. I can see certain things or different things like that, So it's definitely tough. It's definitely an emotional tug-o-war for sure. I know I say it every time, but I'm hoping I don't have to watch any more games on Sunday.”

How did you feel the chemistry was when you got back into that rotation, you know, obviously missing it for a few weeks?

“The chemistry is fine, look I think, I mean, I've been here, this is my fifth year here now, David's (Onyemata) fifth year here, been with Cam (Jordan) those whole five years, Trey (Hendrickson) four years. So I mean, I have played a lot of ball with all these guys before. So from that standpoint, you know, I don't think we miss a beat. Obviously, watching the tape, I feel like we could execute better on certain things like that. And like I said for me, just my own play, just certain things I sit back and look at, I'm like, if I was clicking on all cylinders, I would've done this sooner, I would have done that. So, like I said, just a level of rust, but you know, as far as the chemistry goes, no I mean, everybody's on one cord.”

What have you seen in Trey Hendrickson and his breakout season he's been having, how's he been able to do what he's done so far?

“I tell people all the time when they ask me this, this is nothing new. From the day Trey's (Hendrickson) got here, Trey's been able to affect the quarterback, rush the passer, better than most guys in this league. So, I think you saw last year when he got his extended reps earlier in the season and then each year he's gotten reps, he has always maximized those. So I think this year obviously he's continuing to grow and another year in the system and just perfecting his craft and obviously with the extended reps he is able to get, he is showing you the caliber player he's always been, the caliber of player we always knew he was. It is just a matter of now the world is getting to see it and he continued to go about his business as such. He's a true professional."

Did the postgame locker room celebration feel a little bit better? You know, now that you were able to be back out on the field?

"Yeah, definitely. It's always good to be a part of those, it's always good to be in there, music playing and everybody having a good time. Coming off a win like that, a division opponent, so like I said, I'm hoping, you know, God willing, I'm done having to watch games on Sundays and I can always be a part of these locker room celebrations as we go forward."

Speaking of that, you clinched a playoff berth yesterday, but obviously, you know, not done yet with your goals. Did you focus on that at all? Or are you just looking ahead for potentially clinching that one seed, winning the south again, that type of stuff?

"Yeah, the number one goal each year is to win your division. And obviously, we'll take the the playoff ticket, we'll take that. But, goal number one is always win your division and then content for that one seed. So, business is not done. We got to continue to work, we have to continue to grind. We have a nice stretch of games here left that we got to be ready to go to battle for. So, we'll continue to work, we will continue to go out and execute and try to keep this show rolling and hopefully be able to lock up the number one seed. But, the only way you can do that is, you take it one week at a time, end each Sunday 1-0, and then let the chips fall where they may."
