THE MATCHUP

After a 17-16 loss on Monday Night Football at the Tampa Bay Buccaneers on December 5, followed by a Week 14 bye, the New Orleans Saints embark on a four-game stretch to close their season. Their first contest after the bye will mark a continuation of division play in the rugged NFC South when New Orleans takes on the Atlanta Falcons 5-8) at the Caesars Superdome on Sunday afternoon. The Saints have lost their last two games and a victory is essential to remain in the hunt in an open NFC South divisional race.

Even in defeat, quarterback Andy Dalton has established connections with a trio of playmakers in tight end Taysom Hill and rookie wide receivers Chris Olave and Rashid Shaheed. Hill's 30-yard touchdown reception was the ninth of his career, making him the only player in the Super Bowl era with 9+ touchdowns passing, rushing and receiving. Olave, the 11th pick in the NFL Draft, finished with four receptions for 65 yards, as he became only the fifth Saints rookie to record 60 grabs. Shaheed enjoyed a breakout performance with four receptions for 75 yards, including a 40-yard grab. Overall, Dalton has completed 200-of-299 passes (66.9%) for 2,252 yards with 15 touchdowns, only seven interceptions and a 96.2 passer rating, ranking in the top league's top ten in both rating and completion percentage, while avoiding an interception in his last three contests.

Safety Marcus Maye led the defense with 11 tackles, while linebacker Demario Davis posted the game's only interception and defensive end Cameron Jordan forced a fumble that was recovered by defensive end Carl Granderson. New Orleans is ranked 11th in the league in total defense, tenth against the pass, while allowing 20 points or fewer in five of their last six contests.

New Orleans' special teams enjoyed a productive evening despite the loss. Rashid had a career-long 42-yard punt return. Kicker Wil Lutz booted all three field goal attempts and his only PAT for ten points to go with four touchbacks on five kickoffs.

New Orleans will be looking for their second series sweep of the Falcons in the past three years, who they previously beat in the season opener on Sept. 11 at Mercedes-Benz Stadium, 27-26. In that season-opening win, New Orleans overcame a 16-point fourth quarter deficit with two touchdown drives, followed by Lutz booting the game-winning 51-yard field goal.

This Week In The NFC South: The Tampa Bay Buccaneers host the Cincinnati Bengals and the Carolina Panthers host the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Dennis Allen was hired as the 17th head coach in New Orleans Saints history on February 8, 2022. Now in his 27th year coaching and 21st in the NFL, Allen has spent 13 seasons in New Orleans in two stints, including six-and-a-half campaigns as the team's defensive coordinator before being hired as head coach in the 2022 offseason. He succeeds Sean Payton, who coached the team for 16 seasons, including the 2009 campaign, when Allen was secondary coach and ended with the Super Bowl XLIV championship. When Allen took control of a Black and Gold defense in Week 11 of the 2015 season that was ranked 32nd in opponent net yards per game and opponent points per game, he methodically molded a unit that has finished in the top 10 in both categories each of the last two years, effectively synchronizing with the team's offensive and special teams units. Before rejoining the Saints coaching staff in 2015, Allen served as head coach of the Oakland Raiders from 2012-14 and as defensive coordinator of the Denver Broncos in 2011. Prior to his first stint in New Orleans from 2006-10, Allen was also an assistant in Atlanta from 2002-05.

Allen played safety at Texas A&M from 1992-95, where he started the final 21 games of his career before being signed as an undrafted free agent by the Buffalo Bills in 1996. Prior to entering the National Football League coaching ranks in 2002, Allen served as a graduate assistant at his alma mater from 1996-99 and as secondary coach at the University of Tulsa from 2000-2001. He earned a bachelor of business administration degree and a master's in kinesiology from Texas A&M.

Raised in Hurst, Texas, Allen and his wife Alisson have a daughter, Layla and a son, Garrison.

Arthur Smith was named the 18th head coach in Atlanta Falcons history on January 15, 2021 after serving as the Tennessee Titans offensive coordinator for the last two seasons from 2019-20. In 2021, Smith helped the Falcons improve from a 4-12 record in 2020 to a 7-10 mark.

Smith orchestrated one of the NFL's top offenses with the Titans from 2019-20, leading the league in red-zone touchdown percentage (75.2), ranking fifth in points per game (27.9) and total offense (379.6). He oversaw the NFL's second-ranked rushing attack, averaging 153.5 yards per game on the ground. The Titans were among the league's best in the red zone. The club's 75.6 (2019) and 75.0 (2020) red zone touchdown percentages are the fourth and fifth-best single-season marks by a team since 2000.

In 2020, Smith's offense averaged 30.7 points per game and 491 total points which was good for fourth in the NFL and stand as the second-highest marks in team history. He also oversaw one of the most potent rushing attacks in league history as Derrick Henry became just the eighth player in NFL history to rush for more than 2,000 yards in a single season. Henry's 2,027 rushing yards rank fifth all-time and paced the Titans to the league's second-best rushing offense in 2020, trailing only the Baltimore Ravens. Tennessee's 168.1 yards per game on the ground set a club record and Henry eclipsed Chris Johnson's franchise record of 2,006 rushing yards set in 2009.

Smith served under four different Titans head coaches, working his way up from his 2011 position of defensive assistant/quality control coach. He also spent time as an offensive assistant/quality control coach (2012), offensive line/tight ends asst. (2013), and assistant tight ends coach (2014-15) before taking over as tight ends coach during the 2015 season and holding the position through 2018.

Prior to joining the Titans, Smith spent two years as the defensive quality control coach for the Washington Commanders from 2007-08 serving on legendary coach Joe Gibbs' staff. In addition to his coaching role, he also worked as a college scouting assistant in Washington in 2007. In 2010, Smith worked at Ole Miss as an administrative assistant/defensive intern, primarily working with the linebackers.

Smith graduated from North Carolina where he played offensive line and later joined the coaching staff as a graduate assistant (2006), working with the offensive line.

Born and raised in Memphis, Tenn., he went to high school at Georgetown Prep (North Bethesda, Md.). Smith and his wife, Allison have two sons, Tanner and Liam, and one daughter, Sophie.

Ahead is a synopsis of several returning players and newcomers through the draft and free agency to the 2022 Saints offensive line:

Tackle/Guard James Hurst - An eight-year NFL veteran who was signed as a free agent from Baltimore in 2020, Hurst has 131 career regular season appearances with 76 starts at three different positions on the inside and outside. His versatility came in handy in 2020, as he started two contests at left tackle and one at left guard and the Saints gained over 200 yards rushing each time. In 2021, Hurst moved into the lineup for eight games at left tackle in place of an injured Armstead, two at left guard in place of an injured Andrus Peat and three at right tackle for an injured Ryan Ramczyk, starting contests at three different positions. Hurst has started 12 games at left tackle, returning to the lineup in Week 12, after missing the Week 11 contest (concussion).

Right Tackle Ryan Ramczyk - The Black and Gold used their second first round selection in the 2017 NFL Draft to snag Ramczyk out of Wisconsin, one of the best linemen in the entire draft. After opening all 16 games and both post-season contests in 2017 and being selected as a PFWA All-Rookie, he has been selected as an AP All-Pro selection three times since. After missing seven contests in 2021, Ramczyk has rebounded to open every game in 2022, also having been elected as a team captain.

Guard/Center Cesar Ruiz - The hard-working, talented and intelligent lineman is a perfect fit for New Orleans' culture with the 24th pick in the 2020 NFL Draft out of the University of Michigan. The three-year letterman played in 36 games in college, starting his last 31 including the final 26 at center, earning All-Big Ten in 2019. Ruiz settled in at right guard in the last 15 games, with nine starts, as well as both postseason contests. When McCoy suffered a lower leg injury in the first quarter of the 2021 season-opening win over Green Bay, Ruiz transitioned over to his natural position, where the Saints did not give up a sack and started four contests in the middle. He returned to right guard on Oct. 25 at Seattle and was the only lineman in 2021 to not miss a start. Ruiz opened the team's last contest at Tampa Bay at center. The 45 consecutive starts along the offensive line for Ruiz is the longest current streak for a Saint.

Tackle/Guard Andrus Peat - A first round selection (13th overall) in the 2015 NFL Draft out of Stanford, Peat was considered one of the top college linemen in 2014. In his first eight seasons, he's played in 90 regular season games with 85 starts, opening a contest at every position except center. In 2020, he opened 13 contests at left guard as he was part of the NFC Pro squad for the third consecutive season. In 2021, he opened the first six contests, where New Orleans got off to a 4-2 start before suffering a season-ending pectoral injury. In his return to the starting lineup in the 2022 season opener in Atlanta, New Orleans rushed for 151 yards. In back-to-back weeks, Peat was been a part rushing efforts of 200-yards plus by the club for the first time since 2020. Peat returned to the lineup on Sunday at San Francisco after missing two contests with a triceps injury.

Tackle Landon Young - A mainstay at left tackle for his entire college career at the Kentucky, Young played in 49 contests with 30 starts in his college career. The Lexington, Ky. native was selected by New Orleans in the sixth round of the 2021 NFL Draft and held up to the competition in training camp to snare a roster spot. Young opened one contest at right tackle in 2021 and serves as Ramczyk's backup on the right side, also playing jumbo tight end. On October 13 at Pittsburgh, he slide over to left tackle for the second half to replace Hurst (concussion) and opened this the November 20 win over the Rams at one of the league's most challenging positions.

Offensive Lineman Calvin Throckmorton - This 6-5, 309 pound former four-year starter on the Oregon line was signed as an undrafted free agent in 2020, possessing the flexibility to play all five positions along the offensive line. After spending his rookie season on the practice squad, Throckmorton increased strength in the 2021 offseason and made strides in training camp. In his NFL debut in the 2021 season opening-win, Throckmorton was called to play right guard following a lower leg injury to McCoy in the first quarter, subsequently starting four contests. He then moved into left guard, Oct. 25 at Seattle following a shoulder injury to Andrus Peat and opened the last ten, opening three in 2022 in place of an injured Peat and starting the last contest at right guard.

Offensive Lineman Lewis Kidd - This 6-5, 311 pounder closed out his college career with 48 consecutive starts at Montana State, third in school history. Possessing the versatility to play both guard and tackle, he was selected a consensus first-team All-American in the fall of 2021. Kidd was the only Saints undrafted free agent rookie to secure a roster spot in Week One of the regular season and made his first career NFL start, opening at left guard on November 13 at Pittsburgh.

Between 2017-20 they didn't allow a 100-yard rusher in a 55 straight games (regular season/postseason), the longest streak in NFL history. After the last streak ended, New Orleans again had the longest current NFL streak of not surrendering a 100-yard rusher until the 2022 season opener when 120 rushing yards were given up to Atlanta RB Cordarelle Patterson. New Orleans gave up a season-low 38 yards rushing in the Oct. 30th 24-0 shutout of Las Vegas, the lowest total surrendered since giving up only 34 in Week 9 vs. Atlanta in 2021. The 38 yards were tied for the 24th-lowest single-game total in club history and marked the ninth time that the Saints defense has given up fewer than 40 yards rushing since Allen assumed control of the New Orleans defense in the middle of the 2015 season.

JARVIS LANDRY

• Signed by New Orleans as a free agent after the 2022 NFL Draft, this former Litcher High and LSU standout returns home as one of the league's most accomplished receivers has quickly established chemistry with the Saints offense to become one of its top targets. Posting career totals in 131 career games with 116 starts with Miami (2014-17), Cleveland (2018-21) and the Saints (2022), the five-time Pro Bowler has produced 713 catches for 7,870 yards with 38 touchdowns. He ranks fifth in the NFL in receptions since coming into the league as a second round pick of the Dolphins in 2014. Landry is just one of five players to have 700-plus catches since 2014. Since being drafted in 2014, Landry is ranked fifth in the league in receptions (713), ninth in first down receptions (406) and 12th in receiving yards (7,870).

HOMECOMING

Landry made an immediate impact in the uniform of his home state team on September 11 at Atlanta, grabbing a team-leading seven passes for a team-high 114 yards (club-best 16.3 yards per reception), with four of his catches going for first downs. Landry was particularly clutch on New Orleans' drive for the game-winning field goal late in the fourth quarter, when he made a difficult catch for a 40-yard gain, the longest reception of the game for the Saints. Playing in all four games, Landry has fought through an ankle injury that has sidelined him for the five games and returned to the lineup on November 13 at Pittsburgh with three grabs for 37 yards then posted three grabs for 33 yards with his first touchdown as a Saint in the November 20 win over the Los Angeles Rams. He will look to build on his 25 receptions for 272 yards with the scoring grab over the final four games of the season in helping New Orleans make a push up the NFC South division race.

TWO AT A TIME

Since Week 2 of his rookie season in 2014 until Week 2 of the 2021 campaign, Landry caught at least two passes in 111 consecutive games. His streak was the best in the NFL since 2014 and was the fourth-longest all-time.
