OCTOBER 11, 2020 ///HEINZ FIELD (5,260)

PITTSBURGH-The Browns came to Heinz Field determined to challenge for first place in the AFC North Division but the Steelers had all the answers on Sunday afternoon at Heinz Field.The defense sacked quarterback Baker Mayfield and took the ball away. The offense ran the ball and sprinkled in big plays.

It all added up to a 38-7 Steelers' victory.

"That was varsity ball today," Steelers head coach Mike Tomlin announced. "They stepped up and stepped up big and met a challenge."

Mayfield, battling a rib injury at the outset he had officially been listed as "questionable/chest" watched the fourth quarter from the bench as the Steelers improved to 5-0 for the second time in franchise history and for the first time since 1978. The Browns saw their four-game winning streak snapped and fell to 4-2. Cleveland has lost 17 consecutive games at Heinz Field and is 1-19 all-time at the facility.

"It was a good win, but I'm going to leave it at that," Steelers defensive tackle and defensive captain Cam Heyward said.

A sequence late in the third quarter told the story as well as any.

Down 24-7, the Browns went for a first down on fourth-and-1 from the Cleveland 29-yard line and 5:59 left in the third. Running back Kareem Hunt was engulfed for a 1-yard loss and the Steelers took over at the Browns' 28.

From there the Steelers ran the ball eight consecutive times on the way to re-establishing a 24-point lead at 31-7. The march included a 2-yard sneak by QB Ben Roethlisberger on fourth-and-1 from the Browns' 5 and a 3-yard touchdown run by WR Chase Claypool on a sweep. The Steelers dominated the first half while building a 24-7 lead.

The first big play was an interception and 33-yard return for a touchdown by FS Minkah Fitzpatrick on third-and-3 from the Cleveland 28 with 9:05 left in the first quarter. K Chris Boswell's extra point gave the Steelers a 10-0 advantage.

"We needed to set the tone on defense," Fitzpatrick said. "A pick-six on the first (defensive) drive of the game is definitely a way to do it."

Added Tomlin: "I think it sent a message to them, third down wasn't going to be easy sledding today." The Eagles had converted 10 of 14 third-down attempts in the Steelers' 38-29 victory over Philadelphia on Oct. 11.

Cleveland went 1-for-12 on third down and 0-for-3 on fourth down. Mayfield was sacked four times and intercepted twice.

And the Browns' No. 1 rushing offense was held to 75 yards on 22 carries, less than half of the 188.4 yards per game on the ground Cleveland had been amassing on average.

The Steelers rushed for 129 yards, including 101 on 20 carries by RB James Conner, and scored three touchdowns on the ground.

"At the end of the day it comes down to respect," Conner said. "We just want our respect."

NOVEMBER 16, 2017 /// HEINZ FIELD (60,703)

PITTSBURGH – QB Ben Roethlisberger threw four touchdown passes - three to WR Antonio Brown - in the Steelers' 40-17 victory over the Tennessee Titans at Heinz Field.

Pittsburgh scored on it's opening drive for the fifth time this season with a 41-yard touchdown pass from Roethlisberger to Brown. The Steelers put up three more points on their following possession with a 41-yard field goal from K Chris Boswell after CB Mike Hilton intercepted Titans QB Marcus Mariota, giving Pittsburgh a short field.

Tennessee struck back with a 7-yard touchdown run from Mariota, tightening the score at 10-7. The Titans looked to tie things up with a 48-yard field goal attempt from K Ryan Succop, but the kick was blocked by Pittsburgh LB T.J. Watt - the first blocked field goal by the Steelers since Oct. 16, 2016 at Miami.

Boswell helped the Steelers extend their lead to 16-7 before the end of the half, with two more field goals from 28 and 50 yards out. His 50-yard field goal was the third field goal of at least 50 yards in his NFL career, and first of 2017.

Mariota tightened the score to 16-14 early in the second half with a deep pass to WR Rishard Matthews that resulted in a 75-yard touchdown.

Roethlisberger responded with his second touchdown pass to Brown. Another Titans field goal from Succop moved the score to 23-17 before the end of the quarter.

In the fourth quarter, the Steelers racked up 17 unanswered points, including touchdown passes from Roethlisberger to TE Jesse James and Brown, as well as a fourth field goal by Boswell for a 40-17 victory.

Pittsburgh 26
New York Giants 16

SEPTEMBER 14, 2020 ///METLIFE STADIUIM (0)

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. – There was one overriding reason QB Ben Roethlisberger worked so hard to return from a major elbow injury.

His team.

Roethlisberger, who missed the final 14 games last season after elbow surgery, threw for three scores and the Steelers beat the New York Giants 26-16 at an empty and eerie MetLife Stadium. He also got all the help he could ask for from his defense and backup RB Bennie Snell.

A key part of it, along with several defensive plays and Snell's 113 yards on 19 carries -- his first 100-yard performance in his second NFL season.

The defense, while not quite on the level of the famed Steel Curtain, was stingy and physical. It held Saquon Barkley to 6 yards on 15 carries, swarming in the backfield nearly all night.

Three Steelers stars got them their first touchdown. All-Pro LB T.J. Watt made a clever interception at the New York 36. Roethlisberger beat a blitz with a perfect throw to WR JuJu Smith-Schuster for a 10-yard second-quarter score. K Chris Boswell's extra point hit the upright, leaving them behind 10-9.

They got the lead with 7 seconds remaining in the half as Roethlisberger connected with WR James Washington, who dived into the end zone for a 13-yard score. Boswell made the PAT this time, and added a 36-yard field goal early in the final quarter. That came following the night's biggest play.

Even though the Pittsburgh defense broke down as the Giants marched 87 yards on 19 plays in the third quarter, it still came up with a huge stop. LB Bud Dupree pressured quarterback Daniel Jones as he rolled left from the 4 and deflected his pass. DT Cam Heyward practically made a fair catch in the end zone for the interception.

Roethlisberger then took Pittsburgh 62 yards for the field goal and a 19-10 lead. He hit Smith-Schuster again for a 10-yard touchdown and a 26-10 lead before New York got a late TD.

Roethlisberger finished 21 of 32 for 229 yards has now thrown for 366 touchdowns, a franchise record, tying Eli Manning for the eighth most in NFL history.

Pittsburgh 26
Denver 21

SEPTEMBER 20, 2020 ///HEINZ FIELD (0)

PITTSBURGH – They started strong but in the end they were hanging on.

All the twists and turns made the Steelers' 26-21 victory over Denver this afternoon at Heinz Field less than aesthetically pleasing, but the final result sure beat the alternative.

"We were far from perfect," head coach Mike Tomlin assessed. "We gotta get better. We're thankful to win in spite of it.

The biggest play was made by SS Terrell Edmunds.

Edmunds' sack of Broncos backup quarterback Jeff Driskel on fourth-and-2 from the Steelers' 15-yard line with 1:51 left in the fourth quarter ended what turned out to be Denver's final possession.

The Broncos had driven from their 18 to the Steelers 15 but couldn't finish what could have been a game-stealing march.

RB James Conner's subsequent 59-yard burst allowed the Steelers to run out the clock.

A fumble by RB Benny Snell immediately after the Steelers' punt-return team had registered a safety opened the door for the Broncos to get back in the game.

Denver eventually turned that into a 16-yard touchdown pass from Driskell to running back Melvin Gordon that brought the Broncos to within 26-21.

QB Ben Roethlisberger finished 29-for-41 passing for 311 yards and two touchdowns, but he was also intercepted once (the Broncos turned that turnover into a field goal and a 17-6 third-quarter deficit) and directed an offense that converted just two of 12 third downs.

"I didn't play well and that's on me," he said.

In the early stages it was the Steelers' defense generating the turnovers and the Steelers' offense taking advantage.

The tone was set on Denver's second possession, when Steelers outside LB Bud Dupree sacked quarterback Drew Lock and forced a fumble that was recovered by CB Mike Hilton and returned 8 yards to the Steelers' 41.

Denver lost Lock (shoulder) for the remainder of the afternoon on the play, the first of five sacks registered by the Steelers in the first half.

The Steelers' offense responded with a nine-play, 59-yard drive in 3:19 for a 7-0 lead.

CB Joe Haden's interception of a Driskel pass that deflected off the hands of wide receiver Courtland Sutton and 24-yard return set the Steelers up at the Denver 11 with 1:58 left in the second quarter. But this time Conner lost 1 yard on third-and-1 from the Broncos' 2 and the Steelers settled for K Chris Boswell's 21-yard field goal and a 17-3 lead.

In between, the Steelers sprinkled in some spectacular via an 84-yard connection from Roethlisberger to rookie second-round WR Chase Claypool. Roethlisberger let it fly on first-and-10 from the Steelers' 16 and Claypool hauled the ball in over rookie third-round cornerback Michael Ojemudia, managed to navigate the sideline after coming down with it and sprinted the final 47 yards into the end zone.

Boswell's extra point gave the Steelers a 14-3 lead with 6:23 left in the half.

A 36-yard punt by P Dustin Colquitt and 9-yard return by Diontae Spencer started a Broncos' possession at the Steelers' 36 at the start of the second. Kicker Brandon McManus' 49-yard field goal drew Denver to within 7-3 five plays later.

And a stop by the Denver defense on fourth-and-2 from the Broncos' 35 (Roethlisberger threw incomplete for TE Eric Ebron) turned into a six-play, 65-yard drive that ended with a 20-yard touchdown pass to tight end Noah Fant and a two-point conversion to Fant that sliced the Steelers' lead to 17-14 with 1:07 left in the third.

The Steelers countered with a 28-yard touchdown pass from Roethlisberger to WR Diontae Johnson, and with a safety when Broncos punter Sam Martin fumbled a snap and the ball was eventually knocked out of the back of the end zone.

Roethlisberger broke a tie with Eli Manning and assumed sole possession of eighth place on the NFL's all-time touchdown passes list at 368.

His 311 passing yards moved him ahead of Manning and into seventh place all-time with 57,085.

Pittsburgh 28
Houston 21

SEPTEMBER 27, 2020 ///HEINZ FIELD (0)

PITTSBURGH – QB Ben Roethlisberger's record-setting afternoon turned into a first-half shootout with Houston.

Roethlisberger appeared in his 221st regular-season game, which broke a tie with Hall-of-Fame center Mike Webster and elevated Roethlisberger into sole possession of first place on the Steelers' all-time list.

The Steelers made it an occasion to celebrate with a 28-21 victory over the Texans.

The Steelers improved to 3-0.

What had been a back-and-forth exhibit of offense in the first two quarters turned into a slug-fest in the second half.

Trailing 21-20 in the fourth quarter, Roethlisberger directed a 12-play, 79-yard drive in 7:03 that ended on a 12-yard burst for a touchdown by RB James Conner and a pass for a two-point conversion from Roethlisberger to WR JuJu Smith-Schuster and a 28-21 Steelers' lead with 6:24 left in regulation.

The Texans failed to manage a first down on their next possession and punted, and the Steelers exhausted the final 4:47 left on the clock.

Houston had put up 21 points and gained 209 total net yards in the first half.

The Steelers' defense pitched a second-half shutout while limiting the Texans to 51 total net yards and two first downs, and coming up with the game's only turnover, an interception by nickel CB Mike Hilton that set the table for what became the game-winning drive.

"They had a really good plan," Steelers head coach Mike Tomlin said of the Texans. "It took us a while to get adjusted to it. It took us a while to find our rhythm."

The Steelers had closed to within 21-20 on a 26-yard field goal from K Chris Boswell with 9:54 left in the third quarter. Their 12-play, 62-yard drive in 5:06 required a pair of fourth-down conversions, one a 2-yard effort by Conner to the Houston 48-yard line and one on a 29-yard pass interference penalty on a deep ball to WR Chase Claypool that set the Steelers up at the Texans' 10.

The drive that closed out the game included a 7-yard pass from Roethlisberger to WR James Washington on fourth-and-1 from the Houston 35 with 3:11 left in the fourth

The Steelers responded to an early 14-3 deficit with consecutive touchdown drives for a 17-14 advantage. Roethlisberger found TE Eric Ebron with a back shoulder-fade on third-and-goal from the Houston 10 with 5:05 left in the second quarter. Boswell's extra point brought the Steelers to within 14-10.

The Steelers got the ball back 2:38 before the break and turned the possession into a seven-play, 63-yard march for a touchdown in 1:24. Smith-Schuster ran through the Houston secondary uncovered and walked into the end zone on a drive-capping, 26-yard catch-and-run touchdown. Boswell's PAT made in 17-14 Steelers with 1:14 remaining in the second.

It took the Texans just 50 seconds to re-take the lead.

A five-play, 75-yard drive ended with a 14-yard fade from quarterback Deshaun Watson to wide receiver Will Fuller over CB Steven Nelson in the back of the end zone. Ka'imi Fairbairn's extra point gave Houston a 21-17 lead with 24 seconds left before halftime.

Philadelphia 29
Pittsburgh 38

OCTOBER 11, 2020 ///HEINZ FIELD (4,708)

PITTSBURGH – Rookie WR Chase Claypool, a native of Abbotsford, British Columbia, rushed for one touchdown and caught passes for three more scores and the Steelers broke open what had been a tight game at halftime and then hung on and outlasted the Eagles, 38-29, on Sunday afternoon at Heinz Field. Claypool tied a Steelers record for most touchdowns scored in a game with the four, and most points scored in a game with 24 (tying records set by Roy Jefferson, 1968, and Ray Mathews, 1954)

The Steelers improved to 4-0 for the first time since 1979 and for the fourth time in franchise history (1978, 1973).

The Eagles fell to 1-3-1.

Philadelphia trailed 31-29 and had a chance to grab a late lead but a 57-yard field goal attempt by kicker Jake Elliott missed wide right with 3:18 left in regulation.

The Steelers countered with a 35-yard touchdown pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger to Claypool with 2:59 left in the fourth quarter. Claypool's fourth touchdown of the day and K Chris Boswell's extra point turned the two-point lead into a nine-point advantage at 38-29.

Claypool finished with seven catches for 110 yards and three touchdowns, and three carroes for 6 yards and a score. Claypool became the fourth rookie since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger with two receiving touchdowns and one rushing touchdown in the same game.

An announced crowd of 4,708 attended the first game fans were permitted to attend amid the pandemic. The Steelers lost G David DeCastro (abdomen) for the game after their initial touchdown drive. DeCastro was replaced by rookie G Kevin Dotson.

WR Diontae Johnson went down and stayed down (back) after a 5-yard punt return at the end of Philadelphia's second possession and did not return.

Cleveland 7
Pittsburgh 38

OCTOBER 11, 2020 ///HEINZ FIELD (5,260)

PITTSBURGH-The Browns came to Heinz Field determined to challenge for first place in the AFC North Division but the Steelers had all the answers on Sunday afternoon at Heinz Field.The defense sacked quarterback Baker Mayfield and took the ball away. The offense ran the ball and sprinkled in big plays.

It all added up to a 38-7 Steelers' victory.

"That was varsity ball today," Steelers head coach Mike Tomlin announced. "They stepped up and stepped up big and met a challenge."

Mayfield, battling a rib injury at the outset he had officially been listed as "questionable/chest" watched the fourth quarter from the bench as the Steelers improved to 5-0 for the second time in franchise history and for the first time since 1978. The Browns saw their four-game winning streak snapped and fell to 4-2. Cleveland has lost 17 consecutive games at Heinz Field and is 1-19 all-time at the facility.

"It was a good win, but I'm going to leave it at that," Steelers defensive tackle and defensive captain Cam Heyward said.

A sequence late in the third quarter told the story as well as any.

Down 24-7, the Browns went for a first down on fourth-and-1 from the Cleveland 29-yard line and 5:59 left in the third. Running back Kareem Hunt was engulfed for a 1-yard loss and the Steelers took over at the Browns' 28.

From there the Steelers ran the ball eight consecutive times on the way to re-establishing a 24-point lead at 31-7. The march included a 2-yard sneak by QB Ben Roethlisberger on fourth-and-1 from the Browns' 5 and a 3-yard touchdown run by WR Chase Claypool on a sweep. The Steelers dominated the first half while building a 24-7 lead.

The first big play was an interception and 33-yard return for a touchdown by FS Minkah Fitzpatrick on third-and-3 from the Cleveland 28 with 9:05 left in the first quarter. K Chris Boswell's extra point gave the Steelers a 10-0 advantage.

"We needed to set the tone on defense," Fitzpatrick said. "A pick-six on the first (defensive) drive of the game is definitely a way to do it."

Added Tomlin: "I think it sent a message to them, third down wasn't going to be easy sledding today." The Eagles had converted 10 of 14 third-down attempts in the Steelers' 38-29 victory over Philadelphia on Oct. 11.

Cleveland went 1-for-12 on third down and 0-for-3 on fourth down. Mayfield was sacked four times and intercepted twice.

And the Browns' No. 1 rushing offense was held to 75 yards on 22 carries, less than half of the 188.4 yards per game on the ground Cleveland had been amassing on average.

The Steelers rushed for 129 yards, including 101 on 20 carries by RB James Conner, and scored three touchdowns on the ground.

"At the end of the day it comes down to respect," Conner said. "We just want our respect."
