What kind of photo should I submit?

Your photo must be a single, high quality current photo. Show us your personality! Anything from business casual to your audition outfit is acceptable. Cannot be larger than 12.5 MB.

Is this a full-time position?

No, this is a part-time position and the number of hours worked will vary during the season and off-season.

What will the judges be looking for?

Poise, Personality, Dance Ability, Showmanship, Athleticism, Work Ethic

Do current team members have to re-audition?

Yes, all members must go through the audition process each season and are not guaranteed a place on the team.

What can I do to prepare for auditions?

Dance! Attend dance classes to practice your skills and sign up for our HTC Prep Classes here.

You need to be able to pick up choreography fairly quickly and feel comfortable performing for the judges.

Will my recording be used by the Houston Texans?

The Houston Texans will have the rights to the video and may use the video in any way we consider appropriate.

Video Requirements:

Video must contain instructed choreography only for the round you are auditioning for.

Video must be shot horizontally.

Video must show a clear view of your full body (head to toe view).

Video may not be edited or spliced during your performance and choreography should be filmed in one take.

You can film anywhere that is available to you including but not limited to your home/living room with furniture pushed out of the way, or outdoor space. You are not required to rent studio space to record.

How do I submit my videos to Dropbox?

You will receive the Dropbox submission link in the same email we send with Round 1 and Round 2 choreography. Please enter your full name and email address when uploading your video file to Dropbox. Please do not publish your Tryout video in a public forum (e.g., a public YouTube page, on your social media accounts, etc.).
