The Texans earned a 24-20 victory over the Los Angeles Rams at SoFi Stadium in Inglewood, Calif., last Friday evening. Houston completed a come-from-behind victory for the second consecutive game as QB Jeff Driskel found TE Mason Schreck for a go-ahead, 8-yard touchdown pass with 1:05 to play. On the evening, the Texans recorded three total passing touchdowns between three separate quarterback-receiver combinations, with QB Davis Mills finding WR Nico Collins in the second quarter and QB Kyle Allen connecting with TE Teagan Quitoriano in the third quarter. K Ka'imi Fairbairn added a 42-yard field goal in the fourth quarter to round out the scoring sheet.

In two preseason games thus far in 2022, nine separate Texans have combined for 11.0 total sacks. The unit also limited Los Angeles' offense to 3-of-14 (21 pct.) on third down, while LB Blake Cashman led the the group with six tackles (two solo).

San Francisco also posted a preseason victory last week, besting the Minnesota Vikings, 17-7, at U.S. Bank Stadium in Minneapolis. K Robbie Gould connected on all three field goal attempts (49, 46, 28 yards) to accompany a 2-yard touchdown pass from QB Nate Sudfeld to RB JaMychal Hasty in the fourth quarter.

Two of the three Quessenberry brothers appear on the Texans 2022 training camp roster. FB Paul and OL Scott Quessenberry are both hoping to make an impact on the team’s offense.

Paul Quessenberry enters his second season with Houston after playing in one game for the Texans last season. Scott Quessenberry joins the team after playing four seasons with the Los Angeles Chargers.

OL David Quessenberry, the oldest brother, was a former Texans sixth-round pick in 2013 and played with the team for five seasons (2013-2017). He also spent time with Tennessee (2018-2021) before joining Buffalo in 2022.

Opening Statement

"We're kind of winding down a little bit with training camp, with padded practices. When you had a couple days off, it kind of takes a while to get going. But I like to the way the guys finished, all the way up to Dare (Ogunbowale) kicking a field goal. You've got to be ready at all positions. You never know when it's next man up. So that was encouraging to see. We have some bumps and bruises like everybody does this time of the year. Tomorrow we'll transition to getting ready for San Fran (49ers). As far as playing time for them, we're going to play the guys a lot more this week. This is the game we've kind of been shooting for to play the guys. I'm not going to say exactly how long right now, but a lot more."

Without former Texan Justin Reid, do you have to find a backup kicker?

"Justin, it's a long time since Justin has been here. But you always have to have, we have a couple guys. Normally your punter can kick a little bit, too, so you have a couple of options. Dare (Ogunbowale), the soccer player, most of those soccer players can boot it through when you need them to."

Can you talk about DB Grayland Arnold?

"He's gotten our attention. For young players that haven't gotten a lot of time, it's about taking advantage of the opportunities that you get. Grayland did some good things for us last year at the end of the year. He's been productive. We played him a little bit at the safety position, both safety positions, and he can also play the nickel position. He made some good plays on the special teams. That's what training camp is about, guys getting an opportunity and then producing."

How pleased are you with the productivity and the depth of the defensive line?

"We've known that we've had good depth, but you can never have too many good defensive linemen. Most times it's going to come down to them finishing, being able to rush. Their best rush is at the end of the game. Both of our games we've gotten that. This week some of the guys that haven't played as much. Maliek Collins will play this week. Jerry Hughes will, so anxious to see those guys play, too."

Can you talk about what you've seen from OL Kenyon Green?

"He's missed a lot of time, but getting him back out there, just in a group, was big for us. I think the last couple days he's practiced with us, he's done well. No lingering effects from the previous injury. Hopefully we'll be able to do something with him this weekend."

Do you view OL Kenyon Green as a starter?

"We're not naming many starters. Normally a first-round draft pick eventually is going to move into that role, but it'll play itself out."

What made you feel so comfortable in the decision to not play RB Dameon Pierce last week?

"Just what we saw against the Saints. On training camp, once you see a little bit from one guy, when you have a lot of running backs you've got to let them all have an opportunity. So don't look too much into it. We've seen some good things from Dameon, but some good things from the other guys, too."

Is there an update on DL Ogbornia Okoronkwo?

"No, he has an injury right now, you know, any guy that's not practicing. We don't think it's anything too serious, but we'll see. I'm not sure if he'll be able to go this week, but eventually he'll be out there."

Has FB Troy Hairston caught your eye this past week?

"He's caught our eye throughout camp. Versatile player and was a defensive lineman in college, low linebacker. Normally those guys can transition over to the fullback position. Brings a lot of athletic ability. He's an excellent special teams player, also good lead blocker. We like a lot of things that he's done."

How difficult will it be to keep momentum going through the short break after Thursday's game?

"Everybody has a long one. That's just the nature of our game. Guys grind, grind, grind, and then guys get a chance to heal up, which we'll be able to do. We got a lot of good work in, so that's the part of it we planned for. It won't stop any of our preparation as we go forward getting ready for Indy after this last game."

How difficult is it to evaluate the first-team offense?

"I don't think it's that difficult. We have games that we get a chance to see them. We've gotten a chance to see them a little bit in practice and experience. Most decisions to me aren't that hard at the end if you let guys continue to play. We've seen everybody on our team a long period of time. We feel like we have a pretty good handle on how this is going to play out. But we have one more chance to maybe let one of the guys step up that we haven't seen. I see Grayland Arnold over here talking to someone (media). He's been in the background. Hopefully we'll have somebody this last game kind of step up and make us take notice, too."

Where have you seen some people step up on the first-team offense?

"You've got to keep in mind that we haven't played our entire offense together. We've had two, three linemen out, tight end not in there, running back wasn't in there this week, wide receiver wasn't there. I wouldn't put too much into it. We like what we're getting in practice. Those guys are healthy, will be ready to go when we need to go."

Are you able to say if LB Christian Harris is closer to coming back?

"He's closer, but they're all a little closer. He's not going to play this week. He's not practicing yet. Whenever you have a soft tissue injury it takes a while. He eventually will be out there. It's not anything that's going to be season-ending or anything like that. He was making a lot of progress. Whenever you have an injury on a young player it's not an ideal situation, but eventually he'll be out there. We can't wait. He's going to help us win a lot of games eventually."
