CALLAHAN ERA BEGINS

Callahan, offensive coordinator Nick Holz, defensive coordinator Dennard Wilson and special teams coordinator Colt Anderson are among the 20 new coaches on the Tennessee staff.

In addition to Callahan and his assistants, Tennessee's roster includes a number of players in their first season in two-tone blue. Second-year general manager Ran Carthon spearheaded the acquisitions of free agents such as cornerback Chidobe Awuzie (formerly with the Bengals); linebacker Kenneth Murray Jr. (Chargers); defensive lineman Sebastian Joseph-Day (49ers); center Lloyd Cushenberry III (Broncos); running back Tony Pollard (Cowboys); safeties Jamal Adams and Quandre Diggs (Seahawks); and wide receivers Calvin Ridley (Jaguars) and Tyler Boyd (Bengals). Former Chiefs cornerback L'Jarius Sneed was acquired in a trade, as was former Los Angeles Rams linebacker Ernest Jones IV. In the draft, the team used its first selection (seventh overall) on Alabama tackle JC Latham.

Quarterback Will Levis is set to begin his second season and his first as the team's starting signal caller. The 33rd-overall pick in the 2023 NFL Draft stepped into the lineup seven games into his rookie season and eventually totaled nine starts. He completed 149 of 255 passes for 1,808 yards with eight touchdowns and four interceptions.

During the preseason, the Titans went 3-0 with victories over the San Francisco 49ers, Seattle Seahawks and New Orleans Saints. Callahan's preseason offense paced the AFC and ranked second in the NFL with an average of 373.0 yards per game.

THE BEARS

The Bears enter their third season under head coach Matt Eberflus. In 2023, they finished 7-10, an improvement of four wins from the previous season. The Bears led the NFL in rushing defense (86.4 yards allowed per game) and tied for the NFL lead with 22 interceptions in 2023. On offense, they ranked second in rushing (141.1 yards per game).

With the first pick in the 2024 NFL Draft, the Bears selected University of Southern California quarterback and 2022 Heisman Trophy winner Caleb Williams. In two seasons at USC, he passed for 8,170 yards and 72 touchdowns and added 21 rushing touchdowns.

Former Titans safety Kevin Byard is in his first season in Chicago. He was traded from the Titans to the Philadelphia Eagles during the 2023 campaign after appearing in 120 games and tying for fourth place in Titans/Oilers history with 27 interceptions. He signed with the Bears as a free agent during the 2024 offseason.

SERIES HISTORY

This week marks the 14th all-time meeting between the Titans and Bears franchises and the first such clash to begin a season. The Titans have a 7-6 edge in the series, including a current two-game winning streak.

Most recently, the Bears visited Nissan Stadium in Week 9 of the 2020 campaign. The Titans built a 24-3 lead and despite a late charge by the Bears held on for a 24-17 victory. Tennessee's three touchdowns came on a pair of Ryan Tannehill touchdown passes and a 63-yard fumble return for a touchdown by cornerback Desmond King II.

The last time the Titans traveled to Chicago in the regular season was a Week 12 battle in 2016, when they escaped with a 27-21 victory. After falling behind 7-0, they scored 27 unanswered points and withstood a furious fourth-quarter rally by the Bears to clinch the win. Quarterback Marcus Mariota completed 15 of 23 passes for 226 yards with two touchdowns and added 46 rushing yards.

On Nov. 4, 2012, the Bears visited Tennessee and cruised to a 51-20 victory. Their point total remains the most ever scored by a visiting team at Nissan Stadium.

The two teams engaged in a memorable contest in Nashville on Nov. 14, 2004. Chicago prevailed in the game 19-17 when defensive end Adewale Ogunleye registered a safety in overtime. Titans tackle Fred Miller recovered a Billy Volek fumble but was tackled in the end zone, resulting at the time in one of two games in NFL history that ended with a safety.

Some of the other matchups in the series were not as hotly contested, in addition to the Bears' convincing 2012 win. The first ever Bears-Oilers matchup, played Oct. 28, 1973 in Chicago, was won by the Bears 35-14. In the following meeting on Nov. 6, 1977, the Bears were on the receiving end of the second-largest victory in Oilers/Titans history, a 47-0 final at the Astrodome.

TITANS-BEARS: THE LAST MEETING

2020 Week 9: Titans 24, Bears 17
 Sunday, Nov. 8, 2020 • 12:00 p.m. CT • Nissan Stadium

In Week 9 of the 2020 season the Titans hosted the Chicago Bears and won by a score of 24-17. Tennessee's defense limited Chicago to two third-down conversions on 15 attempts and allowed the Bears to rush for just 56 yards.

Tennessee got on the board first with an eight-play, 56-yard scoring drive and never relinquished the lead. WR A.J. Brown caught a 38-yard pass to help move the chains before K Stephen Gostkowski ultimately made a 40-yard field goal for an early 3-0 lead.

In the second quarter, the Titans extended the lead with a 91-yard scoring drive. RB Derrick Henry carried the ball for five consecutive plays, and Brown added a 17-yard reception before he then bulldozed his way into the end zone on a 40-yard touchdown catch to make it 10-0 Tennessee.

In the third quarter with Chicago driving toward the red zone, Bears QB Nick Foles threw a short pass to Bears RB David Montgomery, but DL Jeffery Simmons forced him to fumble. CB Desmond King II scooped up the fumble and returned it for a 63-yard touchdown to extend the Titans lead, 17-0.

Chicago got on the board in the fourth quarter on a 15-play scoring drive. Bears WR Allen Robinson II contributed a 23-yard catch to help move the sticks but Chicago was halted at the Tennessee four-yard line. Bears K Cairo Santos converted a 23-yard field goal to make it a 17-3 game. On the ensuing Titans possession, Tennessee quickly added another touchdown. Henry broke free for a 26-yard gain, and QB Ryan Tannehill threw a 30-yard pass to TE Jonnu Smith to give the Titans a first down at the Chicago two-yard line. On the next play, Tannehill tossed a two-yard touchdown pass to Smith to put Tennessee up, 24-3.

Chicago responded on the next possession with a touchdown of their own. Robinson contributed a 27-yard catch to bring the Bears into Titans territory before Foles ultimately connected with Bears RB Ryan Nall for a six-yard touchdown. Chicago moved closer, 24-10.

Later in the fourth quarter, the Bears tacked on another score on an 80-yard possession. Nall added two first-down receptions, and Robinson contributed an 11-yard first down, before Foles threw an eight-yard touchdown to Bears TE Jimmy Graham. Chicago made it a one possession game at 24-17 but could not recover an onside kick as the Titans advanced to 6-2 on the season.

Matt Eberflus is entering his third season as Bears head coach after being hired in January 2022. In his second season in Chicago, the Bears finished with a 7-10 record, winning four of their last six contests and posting a four-win improvement from the 2022 season.

The Bears defense improved in 2022 with a league-best 1,486 rushing yards allowed, following a 2022 season in which they ranked 31st in rushing defense. Offensively, Chicago ranked second in the NFL in total rushing yards (2,399) and rushing yards per game (141.1) in 2023.

Eberflus came to Chicago with 30 years of coaching experience, including 13 in the NFL, and earned his first head coaching opportunity after completing his fourth season as defensive coordinator for the Indianapolis Colts in 2021.

Under Eberflus, the Colts were the only NFL defensive unit to be ranked in the top 10 in scoring, run defense and takeaways in each of his final two seasons with the team. The Colts finished in the top 10 in the NFL in run defense and takeaways in all four of his years, top 10 in scoring defense in three of the four and were the least penalized defense in the league in 2019 and 2021.

After inheriting a Colts defense that finished 30th in the NFL in both scoring and total yards in 2017, Eberflus helped the unit improve to 10th in scoring and 11th in yards in his first year in 2018. With a coaching background rooted in the linebacker position, Eberflus helped develop linebacker Shaquille Leonard into one of the most productive linebackers in the NFL. Since being selected by the Colts in the second round of the 2018 NFL Draft, Leonard is a three-time Associated Press All-Pro and three-time Pro Bowler. For his efforts, Eberflus finished third in the voting for the 2018 Associated Press NFL Assistant Coach of the Year.

Eberflus began his NFL career as linebackers coach with the Browns (2009-10) before spending seven seasons with the Cowboys as linebackers coach (2011-17)—and adding passing game coordinator to his duties from 2016-17.

Before entering the NFL, Eberflus was a college coach for 17 years. He started his career at Toledo, his alma mater, as a student assistant (1992), graduate assistant (1993), outside linebackers coach (1994-98), defensive backs coach (1999-2000) and recruiting coordinator (1994-95).

After leaving Toledo, Eberflus spent eight seasons at Missouri from 2001-08, serving as the team's defensive coordinator/defensive backs coach (2001-05) and associate head coach/defensive coordinator/safeties coach (2006-08).

As a player, Eberflus was a four-year letterman and three-year starting linebacker at Toledo. He earned first-team All-MAC honors and led his team in tackles as both a junior and senior. As a senior, he was voted team captain and was awarded the Nicholson Award as the team's Most Valuable Player. Eberflus earned a degree in education in 1993 and was inducted into Toledo's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2004.

KICKOFF WEEKEND

This is the first all-time meeting between the Titans and Bears franchises on Kickoff Weekend.

In last year's opener, the Titans traveled to New Orleans and fell by a final score of 16-15. Kicker Nick Folk provided the only scoring of the day for the Titans, connecting on five field goals. The Titans are 32-32 all-time as a franchise in Week 1, including a 5-7 Kickoff Weekend record at Nissan Stadium.

Since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978 (now a 17-game schedule as of 2021), the Titans have won their opener 22 times. In those seasons, they have made the playoffs 11 times (50.0 percent) and missed the playoffs 11 times (50.0 percent). The Titans have lost their opener 24 times since 1978, and in those seasons, they have made the playoffs nine times (37.5 percent) and missed the playoffs 15 times (62.5 percent).

LAST WEEK VS. THE SAINTS

Preseason Week 3: Titans 30, Saints 27 Sunday, Aug. 25, 2024 • 1:00 p.m. CDT • Caesars Superdome

The Titans closed out the 2024 preseason with a 30-27 win at Caesars Superdome against the Saints to finish the preseason undefeated for the first time since 2003.

After the Titans defense forced a punt on the opening possession, the offense took over at their own 16-yard line. QB Will Levis engineered an nine-play, 84-yard touchdown drive where he went a perfect four-for-four for 65 yards before RB Tony Pollard punched in the one-yard score to take a 7-0 lead.

On the team's next offensive possession, Levis found WR Calvin Ridley for a 33-yard gain on the first play of the drive. Tennessee marched down to the New Orleans 21-yard line before K Nick Folk capped it off with a 39-yard field goal.

The Saints answered on the next possession with a nine-play, 70-yard touchdown drive. QB Spencer Rattler found WR Equanimeous St. Brown for the score.

QB Mason Rudolph then took over for the Titans. He guided Tennessee on a 16-play, 67-yard drive that culminated in a 26-yard field goal by K Brayden Narveson to make it 13-7 with 1:52 left in the half.

A 54-yard field goal by K Blake Grupe made it 13-10 with 35 seconds left in the half. Rudolph and the Titans offense drove to the Saints 40-yard line before Narveson went out to attempt the 58-yard field goal. His kick was short on the attempt and WR Samson Nacua returned the miss 106 yards before being pushed out of bounds at the three-yard line by TE Thomas Odukoya who had ran the length of the field to save the score.

Both teams scored field goals to make it 16-13 heading into the fourth quarter.

The Saints took their first lead of the game on an 11-yard touchdown run by RB Jacob Kibodi with 13:54 left in the game.

The Titans and QB Malik Willis answered on the next possession. Willis connected with WR Bryce Oliver on a 34-yard touchdown strike, which capped a seven-play, 70-yard drive, to give the Titans a 23-20 lead with 9:40 remaining.

Saints responded with another touchdown of their own. This time a two-yard run by Kibodi capped off a seven-play, 70 yard drive and gave the Saints the 27-23 lead.

The Titans offense punted on the next possession and P Ryan Stonehouse pinned the Saints at their own eight-yard line. The Titans defense then stepped up to force a three-and-out. DB Eric Garrow took the punt 22 yards to the Saints 25-yard line. Willis found Oliver for another touchdown this time from five yards out on fourth down to take the 30-27 lead with 1:25 left. Tennessee defense stopped the Saints and the Titans left with the win.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

SUNDAY AUG. 25, 2024

HEAD COACH BRIAN CALLAHAN

(Opening Statement on injuries)

Just two injury-wise. Chance Campbell had a left knee. He's in the MRI, so we'll see. We'll get some more information on that. All I can say about that is we'll see. I don't know the severity of it. Hopeful, but we'll see. And then, Elijah Molden was evaluated for a concussion. Those really the two injuries we had. We came out pretty clean thankfully. That was positive.

(Opening Statement on the preseason and today's game)

Just unbelievable effort and work by our team this preseason. I understand that preseason records have no bearing on regular season success, it's not predictive in any way, shape, or form, but for the guys that suit up and play and give everything they have in the back of the roster, it means something. So, that was really cool. And just to see how hard our team has played in the preseason gave us chances to win all of these games—and that was what I think the most important part of all this is—the effort that they've shown has given us an opportunity at the end of games to win, and so that's been really cool. I've got to point out Thomas Odukoya and both Nick Petit-(Frere) on that cover down field goal. I think everyone got excited about last week's field goal, and this is the consequence of long field goals, sometimes is, you put yourself in a little bit of harm's way. But that effort, that relentless effort, to go chase that play down really saved the touchdown and, ultimately, probably won us the game. So, really awesome by them. It's good to see our ones start the drive. Opening drive, we went seven first downs, zero third downs. Again, I understand their starters weren't playing but our operation was good, we executed the right way. And then, we scored on three possessions in the first half, put our defense in a tough spot to open the second half. They handled the sudden change well, held them to a field goal in plus-territory and then we didn't punt until the third quarter. So, I apologize to (Ryan) Stonehouse. We attempted to get him some punts, but we didn't have too many of them early on which is great. Too many penalties in the second half. We need to get touchdowns, not field goals, when we're close. We had some possessions at the 21-(yard line), the 8- and the 13- that we needed to get seven instead of three so those are four-point losses to us, and that's what it is. But overall, pretty good day for us. I think offensively and defensively it's good to finish out the preseason the way we did.

(On being pleased with the offense)

Encouraged. Again, I hesitate to make any sort of prediction on preseason operations, but for us, just to see guys go out and play well, execute well, and then go score points, that's the job. That's part of what playing offense in the NFL is. To see that is a positive first step, and it's really encouraging to see those guys play well in those spots. So, I'm happy with that.

(On if the starting offensive line playing most of the first half was by design)

That was by design. We wanted to play our skill guys for two series for sure. We got two long drives and pulled most of them out. The intent for the offensive line was to play a considerable amount more. We wanted those guys to play. We have a young line; they need reps together. We didn't get any reps against Seattle because we were trying to make sure—there were a lot of reps for those guys during the week. It was good to see them play a good extended amount of time, it'll be good film to watch. And they just need to play together, so we wanted to make sure they could do that.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

(On if the competition on the right side of the offensive line is completed)

Yeah, I think the guys that finished that first half at this point are probably our starting five for Week One. So, again there's things to be talked about still, but at this point, yeah.

(On what he told the team before or after the game about this being the last time for everyone to be together before roster cuts)

I said it last night in our team meeting and I said it to the guys here in our locker room today, just you know, you develop relationships with these guys, and they work really hard. And so, you see their development. A lot of guys have improved dramatically. They've done really good things. You just thank them for their effort, you thank them for what they put into it. I'm appreciative. They've done everything we've asked, from top-to-bottom, every guy on this roster. And so really, really pleased with that, I think that's the makings of a good team. I told them in the locker room afterwards here that part of the reason that we've been able to win the preseason games is the performance of the guys that have had to play at the end of games. To see those guys, there is a pride factor in that, for them to be able to go out and close out some preseason games this year which was really good to see. I thank them for their effort, appreciated everything they've given us. And again, worst part of the job probably comes Tuesday and Wednesday and we got to cut the roster down but that's life in the NFL. We got to get to 53 and that's just how it goes.

(On Caleb Farley's performance)

He did a nice job. Just for all the things that he's been through, the ups and downs of his career, his personal life, just really cool to see him have a chance to go play. He hasn't been able to play much, so that was cool to see him play. I think that there's a little bit of joy in that too for him just to be able to go, not think about anything, and just go play football. And I thought he played pretty well from just what I saw with my eyes on the sideline. So, it was good for him. I was happy for him.

(On if he's seen Malik Willis lead scoring drives like he did today)

It was good to see, certainly. He hadn't had an opportunity at that point. Obviously threw that pick against Seattle, we needed that drive. But to see him bounce back and play—he threw an unbelievable throw on that third down to Bryce (Oliver)—the slant route to Bryce for the second touchdown was fantastic. He made some plays with his feet, so Malik (Willis) showed really well for himself tonight. He made some really big time throws, and again the job of the quarterback is to score touchdowns, lead the offense to touchdowns and points. He did that tonight, so that was really good to see.

(On how today's performance affects each of the backup QBs roster status)

Yeah, that factors in. It certainly factors in and those are conversations we're going to have to have over the next couple of days. But to Malik's (Willis) credit and to Mason's (Rudolph) credit, they've made it very challenging decision because they've both played really well. I think that that's a good problem to have. But it's going to be—that decision again isn't necessarily related to their play, though, I think is the point that I need to make. Whatever we decide to do there, it's probably based on whatever else we need to do on the roster and not necessarily just their play. However that shakes out, I think those guys have both shown that they're very capable NFL quarterbacks.

(On team confidence after the performance)

Yeah, it gives me quite a bit of confidence. I know I want to make sure TB (Tyler Boyd) got a good target or two too early. I want to make sure Calvin (Ridley) got his and then Tony (Pollard) and Tyjae (Spears) got their touches. That part was really good to see, and it gives me a lot of confidence into what we're capable of. Again, potential doesn't really mean much, right? We got to go do it. We got to prove it. We got to prove it every week. But I think we leave training camp in a good spot. We got a lot, a lot to work on still, we still got to improve in a lot of areas. But I think to cap training camp in the preseason the way we did, I think shows us that we got a chance to be competitive.

(On fans waiting to see T'Vondre Sweat be as disruptive as he was today)

Yeah, I was too. It was good to see. That's what he does, and that's why we drafted him where we did. Because he's got the ability to really be a tremendously disruptive player in the interior, both in the run game and pushing the pocket. I mean he had a hell of a rush in there too. That's what he does. You put him and Jeff (Simmons) next to each other and makes you feel pretty good about what they'll be able to accomplish and how hard they'll make life on offenses. Really positive to see that show up in a game. He's starting to get it. You see him getting his feet underneath him. You see it start to slow down for him. Everything's starting to make a little more sense. He's come a long way. I think that that's going to be really good for our football team.

QUARTERBACK WILL LEVIS

(On today's game)

It went how we wanted it to. We played great from top to bottom. It was great watching guys go out there and make plays. We got the win. It doesn't necessarily mean anything in preseason, but it feels good.

(On his play)

It was good. I felt comfortable back there. Everything was happening in rhythm. The guys did a good job of separating and I felt like we were on the same page.

(On moving toward the regular season and losing some of the guys)

It's the business of the game. As the days have wound down, this is our final moment as a full group. They are going to have to make those tough decisions on Tuesday. We obviously can't keep everyone. We have a bunch of dogs in here from top to bottom. I know if they don't work out with us then they are going to find another opportunity.

TIGHT END THOMAS ODUKOYA

(On the touchdown saving play at the end of the half)

We attempted a long field goal there. Prior to the play, I saw that there was a returner back there. After we kicked it, I knew that we had to go cover it. I was on the left side. I tried to set an edge to contain my side of the field. He went to our right and I started running. I felt the cutback. I felt like I didn't have a chance. I was close. I knew I had to keep running. They slowed down and I made the play at the three-yard line. It was awesome to stop them and not give up a touchdown at the end of the first half. It brought the momentum on our side. It was important for the game.

(On getting swarmed by his teammates)

They were excited. Coach (Brian Callahan) said before the game that there is one word that we need to think about and that is finish. That play kind of exemplified that. Leaving it all out on the field for our last preseason game. Guys like me are fighting for a roster spot. I wanted to leave it all out there. My teammates obviously in that moment knew how big that play was. We thought we were going to get three points with the field goal attempt and then all of a sudden, they were about to get seven points. It was a huge momentum swing.

SEASON NOTES

- PLAYOFF OPPONENTS: The Titans have six total games against five playoff teams from last season. They have home games against Green Bay and Houston and road contests at Miami, Buffalo, Detroit and Houston. Four of those six games are against 2023 division winners: Houston twice (AFC South), Buffalo (AFC East) and Detroit (NFC North). The six games against reigning playoff clubs are the fewest for the Titans since they had five such games entering the 2020 campaign.
- TV BREAKDOWN: Excluding their Week 18 matchup with the Texans, which has yet to be assigned a broadcasting network, the Titans are currently scheduled for nine contests on CBS, six games on FOX, and one game on ESPN. Due to the NFL's flex scheduling, some contests could be moved to a different network from the one appearing on the initial schedule.
- TIME (ZONE) TRAVEL: Besides a trip to Los Angeles to face the Chargers in Week 10, the Titans stay in either the central time zone (10 games) or eastern time zone (six) for the duration of 2024, including the preseason. Other than Los Angeles, the farthest west they travel is Houston.
- HIGH NOON: During the regular season, 14 of the Titans' 16 games prior to Week 18 are scheduled for Sundays at noon CT.
- FIRST-YEAR COACHES: Brian Callahan is one of eight NFL head coaches in their first season with their current team. He and the Titans face three of the others, all within a five-week span: Jerod Mayo's New England Patriots, Jim Harbaugh's Los Angeles Chargers, and Dan Quinn's Washington Commanders. Additionally, the Titans go against the Seattle Seahawks and new head coach Mike Macdonald in the second week of the preseason.
- QUARTERBACKS 1-2-3: The 2024 NFL Draft featured quarterbacks in the top three selections, beginning with Caleb Williams going first to Chicago, followed by Jayden Daniels to Washington and Drake Maye to New England. The Titans face each of those teams this season, in addition to the Minnesota Vikings, who drafted J.J. McCarthy with the 11th overall selection.
- DIVISIONAL WAITING GAMES: The Titans must wait until Week 6 against Indianapolis to play their first AFC South matchup of 2024. It is their longest wait for a divisional game since 2010 (Week 6 at Jacksonville). However, the Titans conclude 2024 with divisional games in five of the final seven weeks, including three consecutive division battles to conclude the schedule.
- THREE GAMES BASED UPON 2023 FINISH: Every NFL team has two intraconference games and one interconference matchup based on the previous year's standings. As a result of the Titans' fourth-place finish in 2023, they host the AFC North's fourth-place Bengals, and they visit the fourth-place Chargers from the AFC West and the Washington Commanders from the NFC East. Overall, the Titans' strength of schedule is .491 (142-147) based upon their opponents' combined 2023 record, which is tied for the 21st most difficult schedule out of 32 NFL teams.
- FACING TOP OFFENSES AND DEFENSES: The Titans face four of the NFL's top 10 offenses from last season: Miami (No. 1 overall offense), Buffalo (No. 4), Detroit (No. 3) and Minnesota (No. 10). Ran Carthon was named the 14th general manager in franchise history on Jan. 18, 2023. He joined the Titans after spending six seasons with the San Francisco 49ers, including the last two as the team's director of player personnel.

A year after initially joining the franchise, Carthon was promoted to executive vice president/general manager. His duties expanded to include all areas that impact the football team: roster control, team activities and personnel decisions including draft and free agency acquisitions, oversight of head coach Brian Callahan and his coaching staff, scouting, sports medicine, and player engagement.

"Over the past year, Ran has impressed me and our staff with his innovative approach to roster building," said Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk upon Carthon's promotion in 2024. "Ran's exceptional reputation around the league as a talent evaluator and culture builder was a clear competitive advantage during last year's free agency and draft process, as well as our recent search for a head coach. Simply put, Ran Carthon makes the Tennessee Titans a destination for the league's top talent. By expanding his role to include full roster control and oversight of the coaching staff, our organization will now benefit more completely from Ran's unique ability to build and lead a championship-caliber football team."

Shortly after receiving his promotion, Carthon and his staff embarked upon the 2024 offseason. Their efforts resulted in several notable signings in free agency: cornerback Chidobe Awuzie, linebacker Kenneth Murray Jr., defensive lineman Sebastian Joseph-Day, center Lloyd Cushenberry III, running back Tony Pollard, quarterback Mason Rudolph and wide receiver Calvin Ridley. The Titans then used a trade to acquire former Kansas City Chiefs cornerback L'Jarius Sneed before circling back in free agency to add wide receiver Tyler Boyd and safety Jamal Adams. Prior to the start of the 2024 season, another trade brought linebacker Ernest Jones IV to the Titans from the Los Angeles Rams.

During the 2024 NFL Draft, Carthon orchestrated the selection of seven total players. With the seventh overall pick in the first round, the Titans chose Alabama tackle JC Latham, and at No. 38 in the second round, they took Texas nose tackle T'Vondre Sweat.

In his first year with the Titans, Carthon re-worked the roster with several veteran additions who would become key starters for the team in 2023, including wide receiver DeAndre Hopkins, outside linebacker Arden Key, linebacker Azeez Al-Shaair, cornerback Sean Murphy-Bunting and offensive lineman Daniel Brunskill in free agency. In his first draft, offensive lineman Peter Skoronski, quarterback Will Levis and running back Tyjae Spears were selected in the first three rounds, respectively. Carthon also used a trade to acquire kicker Nick Folk.

Carthon arrived in Tennessee with a range of experience from multiple teams. In San Francisco, he was the 49ers director of pro personnel for four seasons (2017-20) and then promoted to director of player personnel in 2021, serving in that capacity until joining the Titans. In his role as director of player personnel, Carthon was responsible for evaluating the top college prospects and assisting in the construction of the pro free agent board and evaluations. He joined the 49ers when head coach Kyle Shanahan and general manager John Lynch took over in 2017 and played a part in the team's three playoff appearances, two division titles and an NFC championship in 2019. Additionally, the 49ers had nine players account for 13 total Pro Bowl selections from 2021 (seven selections) to 2022 (six selections)—evidence of the talented roster the personnel staff amassed.

Before joining San Francisco, Carthon spent five seasons (2012-16) with the St. Louis/Los Angeles Rams as their director of pro personnel. He entered the NFL scouting world as a pro scout with the Atlanta Falcons for four years (2008-11).

As a player, Carthon spent three seasons in the NFL (2004-06) primarily with the Indianapolis Colts, after entering the league as an undrafted college free agent. At the University of Florida, he tallied 1,353 career rushing yards over four seasons and was part of the Gators' 2000 SEC Championship team.

Carthon was raised in an NFL family with his father, Maurice Carthon, having a distinguished playing and coaching career. Maurice Carthon played for the Colts and New York Giants, and he coached for New England, the New York Jets, Detroit, Dallas, Cleveland, Arizona and Kansas City.

Following his playing career, Ran Carthon received his bachelor's degree in sociology from the University of Florida in 2008. As a member of the Rams (2013) and 49ers (2018) he was selected to participate in the NFL Career Development Symposium at the Wharton School of Business, and in 2022, he took part in the inaugural NFL coach and front office accelerator program.

Born Arandic Kornell Carthon in February of 1981, in Osceola, Ark., he attended Key West High School in Key West, Fla.

Brian Callahan was named head coach of the Titans on Jan. 24, 2024, becoming the 20th head coach in franchise history.

"This is an exciting time for our franchise, and we're thrilled to have Brian as our head coach," said Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk. "We went through a thorough candidate search and Brian stood out as the best person to lead our football team. I want to thank the other candidates who were part of this process and wish them well moving forward.

"Brian has a track record of success and a range of experience that has prepared him for this opportunity. His football knowledge and his enthusiasm for the game really stand out, and beyond that, we think his ability to lead will make him the ideal fit for our franchise.

"If you look at his history, Brian has been a part of a Super Bowl winning team (Denver, 2015) and another team that advanced to the Super Bowl (Cincinnati, 2021). He's worked in a variety of dynamic offenses with top-flight quarterbacks. At each step of his career, he's shown the flexibility and intelligence to make an impact.

"During his time with the Bengals, he was trusted with a number of responsibilities—offensive design, quarterback development, a contributor to the free agency and draft processes—and showed the ability to be a resource in all of those areas. As we seek sustained success and pursue a championship, Brian has seen firsthand what that looks like, and he is the right person to lead us there.

"To our fans, thank you for your support and for sticking with us. You deserve a championship team, and we're going to get there. I can't wait for you to get to know Brian and his family."

Callahan arrived in Tennessee with 18 years of coaching experience and 14 years of NFL coaching experience, including the previous five seasons as the offensive coordinator for the Cincinnati Bengals.

During his time in Cincinnati, Callahan served under head coach Zac Taylor and was part of two AFC North titles, two AFC Championship appearances and a Super Bowl berth. He also helped guide quarterback Joe Burrow from the No. 1 overall draft pick in 2020 to multiple single-season franchise records by his second year and Pro Bowl honors within three years.

Over Callahan's final three seasons in Cincinnati (2021-23), the Bengals offense ranked in the NFL's top 10 in several categories: sixth in scoring (24.9), seventh in passing (250.8 yards per game), seventh in red-zone efficiency (61.5 percent), 10th in third-down percentage (41.0) and sixth in time of possession (31:00).

From the time Burrow entered the NFL in 2020 through the 2023 campaign, he recorded the league's seventh-best passer rating (98.6) and tied for the third-best completion percentage (68.0). His 270.8 passing yards per game in that period ranked fifth.

Additionally, Cincinnati's offense under Callahan featured a trio of 1,000-yard wide receivers in Ja'Marr Chase (2021-23), Tee Higgins (2021-22) and Tyler Boyd (2019). Chase quickly emerged as one of the NFL's top wide receivers after being drafted in the first round in 2021. He earned three consecutive Pro Bowl nods and became the eighth player in NFL history to reach 1,000 receiving yards in each of his first three career seasons, including 1,216 yards on a career-high 100 receptions in 2023. Boyd's statistical highlights included 1,046 receiving yards in 2019, while Higgins contributed 1,091 yards in 2021 and 1,029 yards in 2022.

Bengals running back Joe Mixon exceeded 1,000 scrimmage yards four times in five seasons with Callahan as his offensive coordinator. From 2019 through 2023, he joined Christian McCaffrey and Aaron Jones as the NFL's only players with at least 4,500 rushing yards (4,618) and 1,500 receiving yards (1,556). Mixon was named to the Pro Bowl in 2021.

In 2023, Burrow was limited to 10 total games due to multiple injuries. Backup Jake Browning stepped into the lineup, and in the first action of his career, he registered a season passer rating of 98.4—qualifying as the seventh-best number in the NFL.

NISSAN STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of an exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

NISSAN STADIUM

Eight years later, on Nov. 17, 2023, the Titans and Nissan North America announced a new agreement: a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that brands the new Titans home venue as 'Nissan Stadium.'

Slated for completion in 2027, the new Nissan Stadium will host Titans home games, Tennessee State University football games, concerts, large-scale events and other community events.

"This partnership is a natural extension of our already longstanding friendship with Nissan," said Burke Nihill, Titans President and CEO. "Our mission at the Titans is to Win, Serve, and Entertain. We pride ourselves on collaborating with organizations who love this city and state as much as we do, and for the past 40 years, Nissan has invested more than $10.5 billion statewide, serving as a great example of an outstanding corporate steward and community advocate. We look forward to the continued positive impact of this relationship for the Titans organization and the City of Nashville."

"Since 2015 our fans and organization have called our home 'Nissan Stadium,' and we are proud to continue that tradition in the new stadium as we deepen and expand our relationship with them," said Titans Chief Revenue Officer Adam Nuse. "The new stadium will host the world's largest events, as well as serve as a community hub for our local neighbors. We're excited to have a partner like Nissan embark on this journey with us as we look towards the future."

The partnership will feature dedicated areas in the new stadium for brand experiences and displays, innovative technology integration, and involvement in Titans broadcast platforms. Nissan also will support a to-be-determined program in the Titans' ONE Community philanthropic platform, which reaches Nashville's most underrepresented and marginalized communities with a focus on three areas – Opportunity, Neighborhoods and Education.

"Nissan Stadium is a centerpiece of the Nashville skyline and has become a household name in Middle Tennessee. It is important for Nissan to keep our name on the new stadium," said Jérémie Papin, chairperson, Nissan Americas. "As more people come to Nashville both to visit and to live in this wonderful city, Nissan Stadium is true showcase for our brand and for the career opportunities we've offered here for more than four decades. This partnership sends a strong message about the bright future for Nissan, the Titans, Nashville and the State of Tennessee."

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin. Nissan is home to more than 11,000 employees across all three locations.

"Nissan has been a strong partner to middle Tennessee for four decades, and I'm thrilled that the Titans have united with a partner that invests in our community and its people," said Nashville Mayor Freddie O'Connell. "The familiarity and trust they've established with the Titans in the last eight years will undoubtedly be a great asset as we plan for the stadium's opening in 2027."

The new Nissan stadium will be built on the east side of the current stadium campus, along Nashville's East Bank. Features of the building include: a circular translucent roof; exterior porches with panoramic views of Nashville; improved sightlines for all spectators through a range of diverse seating experiences; and a 12,000 square foot community space available for use year-round. A waitlist for those interested in purchasing PSLs or suites is now open at NewNissanStadium.com.

#10 • WR DeANDRE HOPKINS

6-1, 212, 12th Year/2nd with Titans, Clemson

Click for complete bio

Wide receiver DeAndre Hopkins is in his 12th NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2024. He was signed by the team prior to training camp in 2023.

Hopkins entered the league as the 27th overall pick in the 2013 NFL Draft out of Clemson and spent his first seven seasons with the Houston Texans before being traded to the Arizona Cardinals in 2020.

Over NFL 11 seasons, Hopkins established himself as one of the premier receivers in NFL history. Among all players during that 11-year period, he ranked first in receptions (928), first in first-down receptions (642), first in receiving yards (12,355), third in receiving touchdowns (78), and first in receptions of 25-plus yards (113). He has been named to five Pro Bowls (2015, 2017-20) and received AP All-Pro honors four times—first-team All-Pro from 2017 to 2019 and second-team All-Pro in 2020.

From 2013 through 2023, Hopkins surpassed 100 receptions four times, had seven seasons reaching 1,000 receiving yards, recorded three seasons with at least 10 touchdowns, and posted 100 or more receiving yards in a game 42 times. Hopkins was the only NFL player to have 100-plus receptions every season between from 2018 to 2020.

Hopkins became one of 17 players in NFL history to reach 900 receptions, 12,000 receiving yards and 75 touchdown catches during a career. Only five players—Hopkins, Marvin Harrison, Jerry Rice, Brandon Marshall and Larry Fitzgerald—reached all three milestones within their first 11 NFL seasons.

He concluded the 2023 season tied with Antonio Brown for 21st place in NFL history with 928 career receptions. His 12,355 career receiving yards ranked 23rd all-time, and his 78 touchdown receptions were 35th in history.

Through 2023, he had at least one reception in all 162 career games he played during the regular season. That represents the longest active streak in the NFL at the conclusion of 2023 and the third-longest streak in NFL history to begin a career behind only Marvin Harrison (190 consecutive games) and Keyshawn Johnson (167).

During the 2022 campaign with the Cardinals, Hopkins finished with a team-high 64 receptions for 717 yards (second on the team) and three touchdowns despite being limited to nine contests. His average of 7.1 receptions per game ranked fourth in the NFL among all players. His three games with 10-plus receptions matched the second most in franchise annals behind Larry Fitzgerald's four such performances in 2017.

At the conclusion of his tenure with the Texans (2013-19), Hopkins owned several franchise records, including franchise marks for career receiving average (13.6), receptions in a season (115 in 2018; tied Andre Johnson, 2008), receiving touchdowns in a season (13 in 2017) and receiving first downs in a season (83 in 2015). When he left Houston, he ranked second on the franchise's all-time career charts in receptions (632), receiving yards (8,602) and touchdown catches (54), trailing only Andre Johnson in each category.

The Central, S.C., native appeared in 39 games with 32 starts over three seasons (2010-12) at Clemson and totaled 206 receptions for 3,020 yards and 27 touchdowns. He left Clemson ranked first in school history in receiving yards, first in receiving touchdowns, first in 100-yard receiving games (12) and second in receptions. As a junior (2012), he led the team with 82 receptions for 1,405 yards and 18 touchdowns.

He was third on the defense in sacks during that span behind only Harold Landry III (37) and Denico Autry (28.5).

In 2023, although he was limited to 12 games and finished the season on injured reserve, he managed to register 5.5 sacks, marking his third consecutive season to reach that number or higher. He added 44 tackles, 38 quarterback pressures, 11 tackles for loss, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and one pass defended. En route to his second consecutive Pro Bowl appearance, he totaled 53 tackles, 7.5 sacks, 43 quarterback pressures, nine tackles for loss, one forced fumble and a career-high seven passes defended, which tied for the fourth-best mark among all NFL defensive linemen. Simmons and Arizona's J.J. Watt were the NFL's only players in 2022 with at least seven sacks and seven passes defended.

Before the start of the 2021 season, Simmons was named a team captain for the first time in his career, and he went on to become one of six players on the roster to start all 17 games. He was named to his first career Pro Bowl and added Associated Press second-team All-Pro honors after setting career highs in several categories, including sacks (8.5), tackles (54), quarterback pressures (58), tackles for loss (12) and passes defended (six). He also had three tackles and a tackle for loss in one playoff contest.

Simmons began his rookie season on the non-football injury list due to a knee injury he suffered during training in February 2019. He missed the first six games of the season before joining the 53-man roster in Week 7.

His rookie totals included 40 tackles, two sacks, two tackles for loss, 14 quarterback pressures and one pass defended in nine games (seven starts). He added four tackles, three quarterback pressures and a fumble recovery in three playoff contests.

As a junior in 2018, Simmons was named second-team All-American after totaling 63 tackles, 17 tackles for loss and two sacks. His 17 tackles for loss led the team, ranked fourth in the SEC and were the third-most in single-season school history.

#46 • LS MORGAN COX6-4, 233, 15th Year/4th with Titans, TennesseeClick for complete bio

Long snapper Morgan Cox is in his 15th NFL season and his fourth campaign with the Titans in 2024. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 19, 2021.

In 2023, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties for the third consecutive season. With 51 consecutive games played in his first three seasons with the Titans, he finished the 2023 campaign with the longest active streak of games played for the team. His efforts helped kicker Nick Folk lead the NFL in field goal accuracy (96.7 percent) and helped punter Ryan Stonehouse lead the NFL for a second consecutive season in gross punting average (53.1). He was also a finalist in 2023 for the NFL's Bart Starr Award.

In 2022, Cox was named to his fifth career Pro Bowl. He has more Pro Bowl appearances than any other player at his position since the league began naming long snappers to the Pro Bowl in 2004.

His steady play in 2022 helped Stonehouse, a rookie, lead the league and set a new NFL record with a 53.1-yard gross punting average. Stonehouse also finished fourth in the NFL and set a rookie record with a 44.0-yard net average. Meanwhile, kicker Randy Bullock made 17 of 20 field goals (85.0 percent) and made all 28 extra point attempts.

In 2021, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties in 17 regular season games and one postseason game. He helped Bullock finish ninth in franchise history with 120 points in a single season, including three game-winning field goals (Sept. 19 at Seattle, Oct. 31 at Indianapolis and Dec. 23 against San Francisco). He also snapped for punter Brett Kern, who had the league's third-best ratio of punts inside the 20 to touchbacks (18:1).

In his first 11 seasons, Cox appeared in 165 regular season games for the Baltimore Ravens, serving as the team's primary long snapper after entering the NFL as an undrafted free agent in 2010. He was selected to four Pro Bowls and was a part of five playoff teams in Baltimore, totaling 10 postseason games played.

In 2020, he earned his fourth career Pro Bowl selection. He helped kicker Justin Tucker record his fifth consecutive season with at least 130 points, tying the NFL record of consecutive seasons with 130-plus points. Tucker connected on 26 of 29 field goals (89.7 percent) and was 52 of 53 on extra points (98.1 percent). Cox also snapped on all 51 of Sam Koch's 51 punts, as Koch was the NFL's only punter to place at least 20 punts (22) inside in the 20-yard line and have no more than one touchback.

A native of Collierville, Tenn., Cox played 38 games in three seasons (2007-09) as the primary long snapper at the University of Tennessee.

Kicker Nick Folk is in his 17th NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2024. He was acquired by the Titans in a trade with the New England Patriots on Aug. 29, 2023.

At the conclusion of the 2023 season, Folk's 382 career field goals ranked fourth among all active kickers behind only Matt Prater (401), Mason Crosby (400) and Justin Tucker (395), and Folk's number also ranked 19th in NFL history. Through 2023, Folk carried an all-time NFL-record streak of 78 consecutive field goals from under 40 yards—a streak going back to 2017. Tucker previously owned the record with 70 straight under-40-yarders from 2016 to 2020.

In his first season in Tennessee, Folk appeared in all 17 games and made 29 field goals on 30 attempts. His career-best 96.7 percent accuracy on field goals led the NFL and tied for the 14th-best single-season mark in NFL history. It also established a new franchise record for a single season, breaking the record of 92.3 percent by Al Del Greco (1998) and Rob Bironas (2010). Folk's initial season with the Titans also included 28 extra points on 30 attempts. His 115 total points tied for the 13th-best single-season total in franchise history.

In his first 15 NFL seasons prior to joining the Titans, Folk spent time with the Dallas Cowboys (2007-09), New York Jets (2010-2016), Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2017) and Patriots (2019-22). He had 10 seasons with at least 100 points, including a league-leading 150 points in 2021 with the Patriots. He registered 11 game-winning field goals in the regular season and one in postseason play.

Over his four years with New England, Folk made 108 of his 121 field goal attempts (89.3 percent) in 57 games. He departed the Patriots in fifth place on the New England all-time field goal list and tied for seventh place on the franchise's all-time scoring list with 440 total points.

In 2022, he played in all 17 games for New England and totaled 128 points on 32-of-37 field goal attempts. He was also 32-of-35 on extra points. Folk became one of six all-time NFL players to have at least five seasons with 30 field goals, joining Tucker (eight), Stephen Gostkowski (five), Robbie Gould (five), John Carney (five) and David Akers (five).

Folk established the NFL record for consecutive field goals made under 50 yards with a streak of 64 such kicks from Oct. 5, 2017 to Oct. 16, 2022. He broke the record (56 consecutive) set by Ryan Succop of the Titans from 2014 to 2017.

While with the Patriots, he also set the franchise mark for consecutive field goals made (36) during a streak that spanned from 2020 to 2021 and posted the third-highest field goal percentage for a season by a Patriot in 2020 (92.9).

Folk entered the NFL as a sixth-round selection by the Dallas in the 2007 NFL Draft. As a rookie for the Cowboys, he earned a Pro Bowl selection and all-rookie honors.

A native of Sherman Oaks, Calif., Folk attended the University of Arizona, where he earned All-PAC 10 accolades in his final season.

Punter Ryan Stonehouse is in his third NFL season in 2024. He was signed by the Titans as a rookie free agent on May 13, 2022.

In only two NFL seasons, Stonehouse recorded the top two single-season gross punting averages in NFL history, and he also recorded two of the top three single-season net averages in franchise history. He became the first punter in NFL annals to lead the league in gross punting average in each of his first two seasons.

In 2023, he appeared in the first 12 games of the season before missing the final five contests on injured reserve. Despite his missed time, he averaged a league-high 53.06 yards per punt, grossing 2,812 yards on 53 attempts. The average qualified as the second-highest figure in NFL history behind his own record-setting 53.10 yards per punt as a rookie in 2022. He also finished sixth in the NFL with a 43.87-yard net punting average, which ranked third in franchise history.

In 2022, Stonehouse finished the season with a gross average of 53.10 yards per punt on 90 total punts (4,779 total yards). In doing so, he broke Sammy Baugh's single-season NFL record of 51.40 yards per punt, which was established in 1940 and was never matched among qualifiers (2.5 punts per team game) until Stonehouse's rookie campaign. Stonehouse's mark also surpassed Brett Kern's franchise record of 49.7 yards per punt in 2017.

With a net punting average of 44.0 yards per punt in 2022, Stonehouse also established a new NFL record for the highest net average by a rookie punter. He broke the record set by Indianapolis' Rigoberto Sanchez, who averaged 42.64 net yards per punt as a rookie in 2017. Stonehouse finished fourth in the NFL in net punting behind veterans Tommy Townsend (45.6), Michael Dickson (44.5) and Johnny Hekker (44.1). In franchise history, his net average ranked second for a single season, trailing only Kern's 44.6 net average in 2017.

NFL RECORD: SINGLE-SEASON AVERAGE

In 1940, Washington's Sammy Baugh punted 35 times for 1,799 yards, averaging 51.40 yards per punt. Eighty-two seasons later, the mark still stood as the best qualifying single-season punting average in NFL history, until Titans rookie punter Ryan Stonehouse broke the record in 2022.

Stonehouse, an undrafted rookie from Colorado State University, averaged 53.10 yards per attempt on 90 total punts—1.70 yards per punt ahead of Baugh's number.

Then, in his second season, Stonehouse averaged an NFL-high 53.06 yards per punt. His 53 attempts (2,812 yards) qualified him for the single-season charts, and as a result, he owns the top two numbers of all-time in his first two NFL seasons.

Prior to Stonehouse's rookie campaign, Baugh's mark was one of the NFL's longest-held records. In the 2022 NFL Record & Fact Book, only three single-season individual records predated Baugh's punting mark, and all three of those were later tied: most safeties in a season (two by Green Bay's Tom Nash in 1932 and subsequently tied 18 times), most fumbles returned for a touchdown in a season (two by Boston's Harold McPhail in 1934 and tied 44 times), and most opponent fumbles returned for a touchdown in a season (two by McPhail in 1934 and tied 41 times).

To qualify for the single-season average record, a punter needs a minimum of 2.5 attempts per team game.

Turn left at first light (Interstate Drive). Turn right on Woodland Street. Nissan Stadium will be on the left. Follow signs to parking lot ("M" lot on northwest corner/river side of stadium).

NISSAN STADIUM MEDIA WILL CALL/MEDIA ENTRANCE

The media will call window and media entrance are located in the northwest corner of Nissan Stadium near Gate 6. The media will call window opens three hours prior to kickoff.

FIELD MEDIA VESTS

All members of the media with field access during the game must wear a media vest. Still and video photographers will be issued tan vests, while team-affiliated photographers and videographers (scoreboard, social, coaches' shows, etc.) will be issued gray vests. Additionally, media with in-game field access will be issued an armband. All vests and armbands must be obtained prior to each game at the check-in table. Vest check-in is located on the third-floor landing near the press box. All vests must be returned at the conclusion of the game to Titans personnel or to the vest check-in table.

NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX INTERNET ACCESS

Wireless internet access is available free of charge in the Nissan Stadium press box. The login information will be available upon arrival in the press box. A limited number of ethernet lines also are available. Accessing the wireless network works the same in the Nissan Stadium press box as it does in most areas with free connectivity. Titans staff may be able to assist in a limited manner, but you should first contact your company's I.T. department with any questions.

FROM NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX TO INTERVIEW ROOMS

Take the press box elevator (Level 3) to field level (Level 1). The Titans interview room is immediately on the right. Turn left and continue straight along the concourse to reach the visiting team's interview room (white line).

POSTGAME POLICIES

Reporters with press box credentials will not be allowed on the field during pre-game activities or during the game itself. Press box credentials do NOT provide access to the field at the two-minute warning in the fourth quarter. Media will be allowed to gather in the Titans interview room to watch the end of the game or remain in the press box to make the short walk down to the field level at the conclusion of the game. Interviews with Titans players are not permitted on the field following the game. The press conference will begin approximately 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game and will be held in the interview room across from the Titans locker room. Key players also will be brought to the interview room. Simultaneously, the locker room will open to credentialed media members with a working function. The press conference audio will be played live over the press box speakers.

POSTGAME QUOTES

Quotes from each team's head coach and key players will be transcribed and distributed throughout the Nissan Stadium press box following the game. The quotes also will be available at www.TennesseeTitans.com/media.

POOL REPORTS

Pool reporters are assigned by the Pro Football Writers of America. Requests for pool reports with game officials must be made in advance through the home team's media relations. Interviews will be conducted virtually. Pool reports will be recorded, transcribed and then distributed in the press box.

EXITING NISSAN STADIUM

FROM NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX TO STADIUM EXIT: Cross the press box catwalk to the third floor lobby. Take the stairs or elevator one floor down to Level 2. Exit through the doors and walk right to get to the "M" lot.
