TITANS HOST JAGUARS IN HOME OPENER

Tennessee Titans (1-0) vs. Jacksonville Jaguars (1-0)

Sunday, Sept. 20, 2020 • Noon CDT • Nissan Stadium • Nashville, Tenn. • TV: CBS

NASHVILLE — The Tennessee Titans (1-0) play their home opener this week against the AFC South rival Jacksonville Jaguars (1-0). Kickoff at Nissan Stadium is scheduled for noon CDT on Sunday, Sept. 20.

For the first time, the Titans will host a game at Nissan Stadium with no fans present. In August, the Titans and the city of Nashville announced the decision that no fans would attend the contest due to COVID-19 restrictions. No decision has been announced for the remaining Titans home dates, including three games in October.

With a win this week, the Titans would even their all-time record to 11-11 in home openers at Nissan Stadium, which opened in 1999.

THE BROADCAST

This week's game will be regionally televised on CBS, including Nashville affiliate WTVF NewsChannel 5. The broadcast team includes play-by-play announcer Andrew Catalon, analyst James Lofton and reporter AJ Ross.

Fans can livestream the game on their mobile devices from the Titans Mobile App (iOS and Android) and on TennesseeTitans.com mobile web. Restrictions apply. For more information visit TennesseeTitans.com or NFL.com/ways-to-watch.

The Titans Radio Network, including Nashville flagship 104.5 The Zone, will carry the game across the Mid-South with the "Voice of the Titans" Mike Keith, analyst Dave McGinnis, sideline reporter Amie Wells, and gameday hosts Rhett Bryan and Jonathan Hutton.

TITANS EARN NARROW WIN IN OPENER

The Titans will have a short week to prepare for the Jaguars after traveling to Denver in Week 1 for Monday Night Football. They escaped Mile High with a hard-earned 16-14 victory after Stephen Gostkowski made a go-ahead 25-yard field goal with 17 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter.

Starting quarterback Ryan Tannehill led his 17th career game-winning drive, capping a game in which he completed 29 of 43 passes for 249 yards and two touchdowns.

Running back Derrick Henry totaled 116 rushing yards on 31 attempts to notch his 14th career 100-yard rushing game (regular season and playoffs) and his eighth such performance in his last 10 regular season and postseason contests.

Meanwhile, the Titans defense limited the Broncos to 122 total yards in the second half. Safety Kevin Byard and defensive tackle Jeffery Simmons combined for the game's only takeaway, with a forced fumble and recovery, respectively.

THE JAGUARS

The Jaguars are in their fourth full season under head coach Doug Marrone, who led the team to a division title in 2017. They are looking to rebound after a 6-10 finish in 2019.

In Week 1, the Jaguars hosted the division rival Indianapolis Colts and won 27-20. They were outgained in total yards 445 to 241 but recorded two interceptions and scored the game's final 10 points.

Jaguars second-year quarterback Gardner Minshew completed 19 of 20 pass attempts (95.0 percent) for 173 yards with three touchdowns and zero interceptions for a 142.3 passer rating. He became the fourth quarterback in NFL history with a completion percentage of 95 or higher (minimum 20 attempts) in a single game.

SERIES HISTORY

The Jaguars are the Titans' longest-standing division rival. The clubs have met at least twice each year since Jacksonville began play as an expansion franchise in 1995. For the first seven seasons of the rivalry they played in the AFC Central, and since 2002 they have been members of the AFC South.

The teams have met a total of 51 times, with the Titans holding a 30-21 advantage. For eight consecutive seasons (2009–2016), the Titans and Jaguars split the annual series before Tennessee took both matchups in 2017 and 2018. In 2019, they exchanged wins once again.

In their first battle of 2019, the Titans and Jaguars were featured on Thursday Night Football for the fifth time in six seasons (2014-19). The Jaguars hosted the game and won by a final score of 20-7, taking a 3-2 lead in the Thursday night series. Jaguars rookie quarterback Gardner Minshew earned his first career victory as a starter.

In the rematch at Nissan Stadium on Nov. 24, the Titans used a 28-point third quarter en route to a 42-20 victory. Running back Derrick Henry rushed for 159 yards and two touchdowns, and Ryan Tannehill registered his first career game with multiple touchdown passes and multiple touchdown runs, with two each.

On Thursday night, Dec. 6, 2018, Henry rushed for a franchise-record 238 yards and four touchdowns on 17 carries, lifting the Titans to a 30-9 win over the Jaguars. On one of his scores, Henry matched Tony Dorsett to become only the second running back in NFL history to record a 99-yard rushing attempt.

The Titans have posted two separate five-game winning streaks against the Jaguars, dating from 1998-00 and 2001-03. Jacksonville's longest winning streak in the series was a four-game run from 1996-98.

The stakes of the rivalry were never higher than in 1999, when the Titans and Jaguars met three times, including the AFC Championship Game in Jacksonville. Steve McNair rushed for two touchdowns and Derrick Mason returned a kickoff 80 yards for a touchdown as the Titans earned their first Super Bowl berth with a 33-14 win. Tennessee went on to Super Bowl XXXIV and eventually fell at the hands of the St. Louis Rams, 23-16.

The Jaguars played their first game in franchise history against the then-Houston Oilers on Sept. 3, 1995. In Jacksonville, the Oilers won the game by a 10-3 final score.

TITANS-JAGUARS: THE LAST MEETING

Week 12: Titans 42, Jaguars 20
Sunday, Nov. 24, 2019 • 3:05 p.m. CT • Nissan Stadium

GAME RECAP

In Week 12 of the 2019 season, the Titans hosted the AFC South opponent Jacksonville Jaguars and won by a score of 42-20. Tennessee accumulated 471 total net yards on offense, including 248 net yards in the third quarter alone.

Both teams held each other scoreless through the first quarter. Tennessee got on the board first in the second stanza, as QB Ryan Tannehill led the offense on a seven-play, 73-yard scoring drive. With help from a 24-yard reception by WR Corey Davis, Tannehill ran into the end zone for a 21-yard touchdown and a 7-0 lead. Jacksonville responded on their following possession, as Jaguars QB Nick Foles led his team on a scoring drive that culminated in a 49-yard field goal, 7-3.

The Titans tied a franchise record by racking up 28 total points in the third quarter and scoring on three consecutive scrimmage plays. First, Tannehill tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to T/G Dennis Kelly for a 14-3 lead. After forcing Jacksonville to punt on the ensuing drive, RB Derrick Henry took a handoff and raced 74 yards into the end zone for a one-play scoring drive and a 21-3 lead. As Tennessee kicked the ball off after the touchdown, LB Daren Bates forced Jaguars KR Michael Walker to fumble the ball on the return. Bates recovered the ball to give the Titans possession at the Jacksonville seven-yard line. Henry again took the ball and on the first play immediately ran into the end zone for a 28-3 lead. Henry became the first player since 2006 to record two touchdowns in a 20-second span. The Titans then added their fourth touchdown of the quarter, as WR A.J. Brown took a Tannehill pass 65 yards to extend the lead to 35-3.

Later in the third quarter, Jacksonville strung together a 12-play scoring drive. With first down receptions by Jaguars WRs Dede Westbrook and Keelan Cole, as well as one rushing and one receiving first down by Jaguars RB Leonard Fournette, Fournette ultimately ran in a one-yard score. Jacksonville's two-point conversion attempt was successful as Foles connected with Jaguars WR DJ Chark to cut the lead, 35-11.

In the fourth quarter, Fournette ran in his second one-yard touchdown of the day. However, Jacksonville's two-point conversion attempt was unsuccessful, 35-17. On the following Tennessee possession, the Titans put together a quick, four-play scoring drive that saw Tannehill rush for a three-yard score to extend the lead, 42-17.

Jacksonville added a 50-yard field goal in the fourth quarter to make it a 42-20 game, but ultimately the Titans preserved the lead and won a divisional game at home.

Doug Marrone was named the fifth head coach of the Jaguars on Jan. 9, 2017 after previously serving as the team's interim head coach for the final two games of the 2016 season.

In 2019, the Jaguars posted a 6-10 record, winning two of their final three games. Three players were selected to the Pro Bowl in 2020 under Marrone's watch, including then-rookie defensive end Josh Allen, defensive lineman Calais Campbell and wide receiver DJ Chark Jr.

In 2018, the Jaguars finished with a 5-11 record, including a 3-4 mark at TIAA Bank Field. The Jaguars had two players selected to the 2019 Pro Bowl: cornerback Jalen Ramsey, making his second consecutive appearance as a Pro Bowl starter, and Campbell.

In 2017, Marrone's first full season as the team's head coach, the Jaguars finished 10-6 and earned an AFC South division title, which was the team's first division title since winning the AFC Central in 1999. For the first time in 18 years, the Jaguars hosted a playoff game and defeated the Buffalo Bills 10-3 in an AFC Wild Card game. The team advanced to the AFC Championship for the first time since 1999 after defeating the Pittsburgh Steelers 45-42 in the AFC Divisional round, ultimately falling to the New England Patriots, 20-24.

From 2015-16, Marrone was the assistant head coach-offense/offensive line coach for the Jaguars. His offensive line only allowed 34 sacks, the fewest sacks allowed by the team since it yielded 31 sacks in 2007. In the final two games as interim head coach (2016), Marrone lead the Jaguars to a 1-1 record.

As head coach of the Bills (2013-14), Marrone's squad went 15-17 in two seasons, including a 9-7 mark in 2014, the most wins for the franchise since 2004. He became only the third head coach in Bills history to win 15 games in his first two seasons (Marv Levy, 19; Wade Phillips, 21).

Prior to joining the Bills, Marrone spent four seasons (2009-12) as the head coach of his alma mater, Syracuse, where he guided the Orange to an 8-5 record in 2010 and 2012, and both seasons culminated with a New Era Pinstripe Bowl Championship.

From 2006-08, Marrone served as the offensive coordinator for the New Orleans Saints. He directed an offense that led the NFL in total offense and passing yards per game in two different seasons (2006, 2008).

Marrone broke into the NFL with the N.Y. Jets, where he was the offensive line coach from 2002-05. The team made two postseason appearances (2002, 2004) during his tenure.

Before he joined the NFL coaching ranks, Marrone had stops at Tennessee (2001), Georgia (2000), Georgia Tech (1995-99), Northeastern (1994), U.S. Coast Guard Academy (1993) and Cortland (1992).

A native of the Bronx, N.Y., Marrone was a sixth-round draft pick by the Los Angeles Raiders in 1986 and had playing stints with Miami, New Orleans, Pittsburgh, Dallas and Minnesota before closing his career with the NFL Europe's London Monarchs from 1991-92. He was a three-year letterman at Syracuse. He returned to Syracuse and graduated in 1991 with a degree in liberal arts.

LAST WEEK VS. THE BRONCOS

Week 1: Titans 16, Broncos 14
Monday, Sept. 14, 2020 • 8:20 p.m. MT • Empower Field at Mile High

GAME RECAP

In Week 1 of the 2020 NFL season, the Titans traveled to Denver to take on the Broncos on Monday Night Football. Tennessee won by a score of 16-14.

Denver got on the board first with a 10-play, 63-yard scoring drive. Broncos RB Melvin Gordon III and QB Drew Lock each rushed for a first down, and Lock tossed a 12-yard pass to Broncos WR Jerry Jeudy to help move the chains. Ultimately, Lock connected with Broncos TE Noah Fant for a nine-yard score and an early 7-0 lead.

In the second quarter at the Denver 21-yard line, Lock tossed a two-yard pass to Gordon III, but S Kevin Byard forced a fumble and the ball was recovered by DL Jeffery Simmons. Tennessee took possession and capitalized on the turnover. RB Derrick Henry contributed 13 yard on the ground as QB Ryan Tannehill hit TE MyCole Pruitt for a one-yard touchdown to tie the game, 7-7.

On the ensuing Denver drive, the Broncos drove into Titans territory but were denied a score. On first-and-goal at the Tennessee two-yard line, Broncos RB Phillip Lindsay gained one yard on the ground, but Denver was stopped on the following three downs. On fourth down, Lock tossed a shovel pass to Broncos TE Jake Butt, who was taken down by Simmons and DL DaQuan Jones for no gain to preserve the score.

In the second half, the Titans took the lead with a 15-play, 82-yard scoring drive. Tannehill completed two first-down passes to WR Corey Davis, one to WR Adam Humphries, and Henry added one rushing first down before Tannehill threw a one-yard touchdown pass to TE Jonnu Smith. The extra point attempt was no good as the Titans pulled ahead, 13-7. The Broncos responded on the ensuing possession with a scoring drive of their own. Gordon III rushed for a gain of 25, and Jeudy contributed a 21-yard reception before Gordon ran in a one-yard score as the Broncos retook the lead, 14-13.

Late in the fourth quarter, the Titans offense moved efficiently down the field for an 83-yard scoring drive that took 2:48 to complete. With 17 seconds remaining in regulation, K Stephen Gostkowski tacked on a 25-yard field goal to put the Titans ahead, 16-14. Tennessee's defense preserved the score and the Titans opened up the season with a primetime victory.

(on if he had any second thoughts about letting kicker Stephen Gostkowski attempt the game-winning field goal)

No. They did obviously, because they weren't using their timeouts. They were banking on him missing. We've all got to do our job. It's not on just one player. We'll get this stuff fixed. We've got a lot of faith in our players. We're excited to get out of here with a win, this is a tough place to play.

(on the defensive stands in the fourth quarter)

To come back and let them answer after we had scored that touchdown, I give our defense a lot of credit. All night they kept battling. It's not great, but again, it was hard-fought and I think sometimes the tougher it gets, the better we are. We can embrace those types of games and win those tight football games.

(on the decision to have three outside linebackers active on gameday and if he liked the production he saw today)

Every week we see who's healthy and that's where we were today. Jack (Crawford) helped us a little bit on first and second down. We have to watch the tape and see how we played and see what we did. There are a lot of things that we'll have to correct to get better against Jacksonville.

(on Stephen Gostkowski's missed kicks)

We all have a job to do, and I'm very confident that that will get corrected. Again, like I said earlier, it's not all one guy. Whether there's some push and snap, we've got to make them. That's a whole operation. That was one of the keys to the game, the field goal block unit. Fortunately for us, it didn't cost us.

(on quarterback Ryan Tannehill's poise today)

Yeah, huge drive there late. We just stayed together and I thought Corey (Davis) was fantastic. They pressured us the one time which kind of got us. Then late there, to be able to move the ball down and grind out some clock and some yards to get us down there into chip-shot range, was huge. We've got a lot of faith in Ryan (Tannehill) to get us in the right play and operate our offense.

(on the performance by wide receiver Corey Davis and if he feels this was one of Davis' better games)

Absolutely. I'm really proud of his effort to get himself to this game. I think admittedly, he's probably not at 100 percent, but I was happy to present him with a game ball in there in front of the team for his effort, toughness and competitiveness.

(on running back Derrick Henry and committing to the run game)

I think that's what you have to do. That's a good defense. I think if you start dropping back and throwing all over the place – that is an excellent defense. We came out here and didn't score last year. They're well-coached and have got really good players. This was a good test off the bat for all of us.

(on the fourth quarter delay of game penalty and if he was considering going for it there)

Yeah, just kind of felt like at that point in time that the timeouts were going to be critical. We didn't like our operation, and at that point in time we just felt like if we couldn't get out there and do it efficiently, that we should just take the delay and punt it and play defense, and see if we couldn't do what we did here at the end of the game.

(on the importance of keeping timeouts to have late in the game)

That's the thing. Those things, they're the golden ticket. To be able to keep them allows you a lot of flexibility down the stretch obviously to challenge plays, but also to use the entire field and to be able to manage the clock and do what we did.

(on linebacker Rashaan Evans being ejected)

Yeah, it does (hurt). We have to use great decisions. We talk about this when it's penalties and keeping our composure at the end of the play. We try to practice that that if those things happen in practice, you're out of a game. When you throw a punch, that's what happens. You hurt the team, and I think he'll learn from it.

(on what defensive back Chris Jackson has done to earn his playoff time today)

He's been available. He's been able to practice almost every day. I think he missed a day or two throughout camp, so when you're available and you can go out and practice, you earn reps and opportunities.

(on how much he feels the team needs to clean up going forward)

A lot. I don't know how many penalties we had, I think there – five maybe. I think that there are always things to clean up, and more so now than ever. We've got to do it quickly with a long flight and a quick turnaround.

(on practicing ball disruption drills during the week and seeing that carry over in today's game)

That's the nature of this game. When you practice a certain way you have the ability to build confidence. Practice carries over to the game. When you're in traffic and you're a receiver, you have to go attack the football. I thought Corey (Davis) exemplified that. We still need to create more turnovers and do some more of those things on defense. But again, any time we can attack the football out in front of our eyes and be strong with the catch, those are great things.

(on if the plan was to get Corey Davis involved early or if those plays were just the open reads)

I think a lot of those things are just kind of where the read takes us. Corey (Davis) does a lot of dirty work in there, so to be able to get him out on some of those play-action passes proved to be helpful tonight.

(on if the Broncos not taking timeouts on the game-winning drive impacted how he managed the situation)

Yeah, I think at that point in time it was, 'Let's just get it down here close enough and take care of the football and win the football game with a field goal.' I've got a lot of confidence, I coached Stephen (Gostkowski) early on and I think after whatever miss, I said, 'Hey, you're going to have an opportunity to win this game. I know you will, and you're going to make the most of it.'

(on holding Broncos tight end Noah Fant without a catch in the second half)

Just an awareness and understanding, and playing correct leverage. There are a lot of things we've got to get fixed defensively, but Week One is always difficult. It's a great challenge, so hopefully we can watch the film and learn from it and understand what we need to do better to continue to win.

(on if his past experiences with Stephen Gostkowski impacted his decision to allow Gostkowski to attempt what became the game-winning field goal)

Yeah, I just kind of know. I mean, you have to. It's like sitting there and being like, 'It's been red ten times so I'm going to bet black because it's been red ten times.' It doesn't work that way. I just felt like we were going to be able to make the field goal and that that was the right play. That's the proper way to approach it, and everyone did their job on the last one.

QUARTERBACK RYAN TANNEHILL

(on the importance of keeping his composure when circumstances favor the opponent)

I mean, it wasn't pretty. We didn't come out and execute the way we wanted to for the length of the football game, but we battled and the guys keep battling. We fought through a lot of adversity and we found a way to win in the end. When we needed to put points up, we found a way to do it. I'm proud of the guys and how we battled through that adversity.

(on his confidence in kicker Stephen Gostkowski making the game-winning field goal after missing earlier in the game)

Yeah, I still had confidence in Stephen (Gostkowski). Being a part of the offense, we want to put that thing in the end zone, and I had opportunity to hit A.J. (Brown). Really not too happy about that. That's a big opportunity we're missing. I had a ton of confidence in Stephen (Gostkowski) regardless of what happened. That guy has made a ton of kicks in his career, and there was no question that he was going to make that.

(on if he adopted a more aggressive mindset after Gostkowski began struggling)

No, I didn't say anything to him. He's a guy that's been doing it for a long time. I had confidence that he was going to be able to come back and make the kick when we needed him. Any time you're in a situation like that you want to get in the end zone, and if not in the end zone, as close as possible to make it a chip-shot field goal. That's our mindset. We had plenty of time to work with. Let's get this thing in the end zone, and if it's not in the end zone, we want to be down there. That way it's an easy field goal.

(on why the offense was disjointed early in the game)

We moved the ball on several drives throughout the night. I wouldn't say it was a struggle to move it. We didn't have the explosive runs that we're used to having. They did a really good job of keeping the runs short on first and second down. Derrick (Henry) was getting the tough yardage inside. He was banging and they were making the tough tackles on him. I have to give a lot of credit to Denver and the way they bottled up everything inside and made it tough yards to gain. We should have been able to gain positive yards. Like I said, we weren't getting those explosive runs that we're used to seeing. We have to give a lot of credit to Denver. I'm sure we will look at the tape and see what we can do next time to create more explosive plays and bigger runs. We were able to move the ball a few times throughout the night. Unfortunately, we didn't capitalize and finish on a couple of them. That'll be an emphasis this week.

(on how he personally views the win)

Obviously we're happy to win. Any win in the NFL is a good win. They don't put asterisks on them in the win column. It's a win, it's a W and we'll take it. We're 1-0, but we do have a lot to work on and a lot to clean up. I think we're excited. We didn't play the way we wanted to, but we're excited to be able to come back next week and clean up some things and put a good football game together.

(on the team's poise)

We know our guys are going to battle. Obviously, we want to save things up and not be in that situation at the end, but I think we had a lot of confidence going into that drive that we were going to find a way to win. There was no panic on the sideline, not happy about the way things were going, but there was no panic. We had a lot of confidence that we were going to go out and score. In the huddle, everyone just focused on the task at hand, taking it one play at a time. That's what I told the guys, 'Hey, just take it one play at a time. Make one play at a time and we'll march this thing down and win this.' That's exactly what we did.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

(on the role of wide receiver Corey Davis in today's game)

He was huge. He came up with some huge catches, scores. I'm really proud of the way he went out and battled. Obviously, just dealing with some things throughout the week and being able to go out and make some huge catches for us, successful catches in traffic, big catch and runs as well. I'm really proud of the way Corey (Davis) played. Obviously a talented guy and he made big plays for us.

(on utilizing the run game and if he thinks it impacted the score)

I don't know. We ran a lot of plays and we were feeling it and they were feeling it. I know it went both ways. Like I said, our guys continue to battle, dug down deep and we found a way to win. We found a way to put the ball in the endzone. We got it in the red zone and then get that two-minute drive going, get down in tight, making sure the field goal is receiving. I'm proud of the guys way of pushing through that element of being tired, being short of breath and altitude. We were able to just battle through that and found a way to make the play when it counted.

(on using the run game on the final drive while also having timeouts)

It was huge. It gave us a lot of freedom to call what we wanted to call and we had everything on the table at that point. Get down inside the 20, or close to it, and really had the whole playbook open to do what we wanted to do because of timeouts. It was a good job of being able to hold onto those throughout the game and be able to use them at the end.

(on his level of calm in a close game situation)

I try to keep a steady hand. A steady hand drives the ship. Honestly focused and tense, but calm. We can't panic. They make the play, we go to second down. You just have to be able to reset one play at a time, whether it was good or bad. Reset and make the next one. I believe in myself, but the whole offense in that situation, we knew we (had the length) of the field, we knew we were going to have to put a drive together and had to do it one play at a time.

RUNNING BACK DERRICK HENRY

(on Denver's defensive line and on the Titans committing to the run)

That defense is definitely solid. They're stout, they're very good at what they do and we just had to trust in what we do. Keep pounding, and eventually something will open up for us. Just keep trying to make plays and sticking with it. Like I said, they're a good defense so we just had to be physical and stick to our plan, just like they were sticking to theirs.

(on not having fans at the game)

I think once we got going and started playing, I think guys were just locked in and not really worried about the fans. You've got to go out there and do your job. We came out and it was different, but when the game got going, we got to focus on what we needed to do.

(on having a 100-yard rushing game despite having a long carry of 13 yards today)

It definitely was a grind. I was hoping I could pop one, but that wasn't the case. Sometimes that's how the game goes. You've got to grind it out. Like I said, they're a great defense, so we just had to grind and keep pushing forward. That's what we tried to do.

KICKER STEPHEN GOSTKOWSKI

(on if he can celebrate kicking a game-winning field goal when he struggled earlier in the game)

It's tough. It's part of the position. It's definitely an opportunity I didn't deserve but I'm grateful I got it for my team and the guys that went out there and busted their butt. I'd rather we put them in a tough spot. You don't always get that lucky to have a chance to redeem yourself. I'm just happy the guys got to celebrate. I'm disappointed in myself and embarrassed and frustrated, but at the end of the day we won and luckily the guys are happy going home.

(on if he felt like something was off mechanically)

Some of them I felt like I hit well. It's just a frustrating thing. Maybe my timing was off a little bit. I've been kicking pretty well, definitely a lot better than that. It's a very fickle job and it's an easy job when you're doing good and a tough job when you're doing bad. I'm just disappointed in myself that I couldn't bounce back quicker. That's usually something I pride myself on, is on to the next kick. Letting one kick turn into two, obviously it just snowballed from there.

(on what teammates were saying to him on the sideline)

I just got here and come out and play like that. For the guys to still support me and still have my back was pretty cool. That's the cool thing about team sports. You win and lose as a team. Obviously in a position like mine, everyone sees it when you screw up. That's why I was grateful for the opportunity at the end. The guys deserved to win. We're all pros here, we've all had our days but the kicking position, if you miss a couple kicks, the camera follows you around. It can get to a lonely spot but you just need to keep your head high and keep on going.

(on taking his kicking shoe off and putting it back on while seated on the sideline)

I practice without socks all summer so then I started putting them on. I would have taken my pants off to make that last kick to try something different. I wasn't doing very well so I had to switch something up for mental sake. It's just a weird quirk I guess.

(on how he felt during warmups)

I felt good going into the game. I had a strong week of practice and felt good in warmups. The first one I kicked didn't miss by much but that doesn't really matter. I thought I put a good boot on it, maybe just pushed it a little bit. The second one got blocked and I just started to speed up after that. That's on me. I've got to keep my composure and not worry about what else is going on. A lot of kicking is timing and rhythm and doing the same thing over and over again. Hopefully I can get back on track and get my timing and rhythm back.

(on if he anticipated having a chance to kick on the final drive)

Obviously you're hoping for a chance. That's really the only positive play I had all day, so you want some kind of chance to help the team win. I don't shy away from those situations, even when I have an awful game like that. I like being in that moment. I wish I didn't put the team in that situation to get there. Football is a crazy sport and there are a lot of things going on. You have to keep your poise and keep your head up. I'm just happy for the opportunity, even if I didn't deserve it.

(on if he felt he over-compensated after the first two missed kicks)

I don't think so. I think I just ran at the ball too fast. I was aiming down the middle on all of them. It's not like I was trying to move the ball.

(on if his relationship with Head Coach Mike Vrabel is beneficial to know Vrabel will still have confidence in him)

It's hard to answer. I just got to this team and I really wanted to come out and make a strong first impression, and I didn't. The exact opposite. The positive thing is they send you back out there. That's part of the game. I've played for a long time and hopefully this is the last game like that. You have to trust the guys on your team and trust they can go back out and do it, and if they can't you find someone else to do it. I don't think about stuff like that in the moment.

Jon Robinson was hired as Titans general manager on Jan. 14, 2016 after spending two years as director of player personnel for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Nearly one year later, on Jan. 5, 2017, he was promoted to executive vice president/general manager.

In his first four years on the job, the Titans finished with four consecutive 9-7 seasons. It marked the first time the organization produced at least four consecutive winning seasons since a seven-year run of winning records from 1987–1993. The Titans were one of four NFL teams to accomplish the feat from 2016–2019, joining New England, Seattle and Kansas City.

Robinson became only the second general manager in franchise history whose first four teams finished above the .500 mark, joining Mike Holovak (1989-92).

Robinson's work helped the team go from three wins in the season prior to his arrival (2015) to a divisional round playoff finish following the 2017 campaign. He became the fifth general manager in franchise history to have the team in the playoffs within his first two full seasons.

Then, in 2019, the team he constructed advanced to the AFC Championship game. It was the organization's first appearance in the conference title game in 17 seasons (2002).

When the Titans took the field for the 2019 postseason, only seven players remained on the 53-man roster from prior to Robinson's arrival—a turnover rate of 87 percent. That included 23 free agents, 18 draft picks, four players acquired via trade and one waiver pickup. An additional six players he acquired (four free agents, one draft pick and one waiver claim) ended 2019 on injured reserve.

The 2020 NFL Draft was Robinson's fifth draft as general manager. In those five drafts, he selected 35 total players, and 21 of those players remained with the club at the beginning of training camp in 2020. During that same time period (as of July 28, 2020), he engineered 20 trades and made 11 waiver claims.

2020: Prior to the 2020 free agent signing period, the Titans reached an agreement on a multi-year contract to keep quarterback Ryan Tannehill in Tennessee. The Titans also re-signed tackle Dennis Kelly and outside linebacker Kamalei Correa, among others.

After initially placing the franchise tag on running back Derrick Henry, the Titans and Henry were able to come to an agreement on a multi-year contract extension in July 2020.

Robinson also led the acquisition of unrestricted free agent outside linebacker Vic Beasley from the Atlanta Falcons. The former first-round pick spent his first five NFL seasons (2015-19) in Atlanta, capping his tenure there with eight sacks in 2019. He led the NFL with 15.5 sacks in 2016, and from his rookie season through 2019, he ranked 16th in the NFL in sacks by edge rushers (outside linebackers and defensive ends).

Robinson patiently waited to add two more significant free agents just prior to the beginning of the 2020 regular season, picking up kicker Stephen Gostkowski and outside linebacker Jadeveon Clowney during the first week of September. Gostkowski earned four Pro Bowl berths and three Super Bowl rings during 14 seasons with the Patriots, becoming the team's all-time leading scorer (1,775 points). Through 2019, he was the NFL's fifth-most accurate kicker in history (374 of 428). Clowney, a three-time Pro Bowl selection, joined Aaron Donald and Chandler Jones as the only NFL players with at least 60 tackles for loss, eight forced fumbles and 150 quarterback pressures from 2016 through 2019.

In the 2020 NFL Draft, the Titans had six total picks. The first of those was Georgia tackle Isaiah Wilson (first round, 29th overall), followed by Louisiana State cornerback Kristian Fulton (second round, 61st overall) and Appalachian State running back Darrynton Evans (third round, 93rd overall) in the first three rounds.

2019: Near the beginning of the 2019 free agent signing period, Robinson worked quickly to add several veterans from other teams who played key roles in 2019: Buccaneers wide receiver Adam Humphries, Rams guard Rodger Saffold and Tannehill in a trade with the Dolphins. Robinson also worked to re-sign starting safety Kenny Vaccaro and punter Brett Kern.

Then, in the 2019 NFL Draft, Robinson directed the selection of six total players, including Mississippi State defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons in the first round (19th overall), Ole Miss wide receiver A.J. Brown in the second round (51st overall) and Charlotte offensive lineman Nate Davis in the third round (82nd overall).

Tannehill, who proved to be one of the NFL's top acquisitions of 2019, started every game after Week 6, leading the team into the playoffs. He led the NFL and set franchise records with a 117.5 passer rating and a 9.6-yard passing average. In addition to being named to his first Pro Bowl, he earned Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year honors.

As a rookie, Brown led the Titans in every major receiving category. Among all rookies in 2019, he ranked first in receiving yards (1,051), tied for the rookie lead in touchdown receptions (eight) and placed fifth in receptions (52). Among all NFL players in 2019—rookies and veterans—Brown finished second in receiving average (20.2), behind only the Los Angeles Chargers' Mike Williams (20.4).

2018: The Titans' 2018 free agent class included Pro Bowl cornerback Malcolm Butler. In his first two seasons in Tennessee, Butler played in 25 games (20 starts) and totaled five interceptions. In early August, the Titans signed Vaccaro, who went on to start 13 games his first season in Tennessee and all 16 games in 2019.

Robinson's 2018 draft class was comprised of four players after he used multiple trades to go up and get his targets. It included first-round linebacker Rashaan Evans from Alabama (22nd overall pick) and second-round outside linebacker Harold Landry III from Boston College (41st overall). Evans started all 16 games in 2019 and led the team with 139 tackles. Landry appeared in 31 games (19 starts) in his first two seasons, and his 13.5 sacks from 2018–2019 (nine in 2019) ranked first on the team.

2017: During the 2017 offseason, Robinson used free agency to address needs on defense and special teams. Most notably, he spearheaded deals for cornerback Logan Ryan (New England) and special teams contributor and 2017 Pro Bowler Brynden Trawick (Oakland).

In the 2017 NFL Draft, Robinson spent first-round picks on wide receiver Corey Davis (fifth overall) and cornerback Adoree' Jackson (18th overall). It marked the first time the franchise had a pair of first-round draft selections since 1987. The Titans' 2017 draft haul also featured tight end Jonnu Smith in the third round and linebacker Jayon Brown in the fifth round.

The 2017 Titans advanced to the playoffs for the first time since 2008. Robinson became the fifth general manager in franchise history to have the team in the postseason within his first two full seasons.

2016: In his first year as an NFL general manager, Robinson's leadership and decision-making helped the Titans triple their win total from the previous season, finishing 9-7 in 2016 after a 3-13 finish in 2015. The six-win improvement tied for the most in franchise history (1967 and 1974) and doubled the previous club benchmark for the most wins in the first year under a new general manager (three by Bum Phillips in 1975).

Within the first four months at his post, Robinson pulled the trigger on several key personnel decisions. On March 9, 2016, he made his first major acquisition, swapping fourth-round draft picks with the Philadelphia Eagles in exchange for running back DeMarco Murray. The trade provided major dividends in 2016, as Murray led the AFC and ranked third in the NFL with 1,287 rushing yards.

Around the same time, Robinson began to work the free agent market. Center Ben Jones and wide receiver Rishard Matthews highlighted the haul, and both were instrumental in helping to transform the Titans offense into the 11th-ranked unit in the NFL.

On April 14, 2016, two weeks before the NFL Draft, Robinson and the Titans dealt the first overall pick to the Los Angeles Rams in one of the biggest trades in recent NFL history. The Titans gave up the No. 1 pick and a fourth-rounder in order to receive the 15th overall pick, two second-rounders and a third-rounder in 2016, plus the Rams' first- and third-round picks in 2017. From 1990–2015, there were seven trades involving the No. 1 overall pick, but this was the first since 2004, when the San Diego Chargers selected Eli Manning with the first pick and dealt his rights to the New York Giants.

The Titans had their hands at one point or another on 17 selections in the 2016 draft due to five different trades (including one trade in 2015), and in the end, they ended up with a class of 10 players, including four of the top 45 picks. Robinson swung a draft-day trade with the Cleveland Browns to move back up to the eighth slot to choose Michigan State tackle Jack Conklin.

All 10 members of Robinson's first draft class played in at least one game in 2016. They accumulated a total of 110 games played and 38 starts, including 16 starts at right tackle by Conklin. The eighth-overall pick capped his successful rookie campaign by being named first-team All-Pro by Associated Press.

Henry, a second-rounder in 2016, led the Titans in rushing every season from 2017 through 2019. In 2019, he won the NFL's rushing crown with 1,540 yards and tied for the NFL lead with 16 rushing touchdowns.

Third-round safety Kevin Byard earned first-team All-Pro honors in his second campaign. He led the NFL from 2017–2019 with 17 total interceptions also was named to the Pro Bowl in 2017.

PRIOR HISTORY: Robinson arrived in Tennessee with a wide range of experience from working his way up on the personnel side of the NFL. From 2014–2015, he served as director of player personnel for the Buccaneers and oversaw both college and pro departments as the team rebuilt its roster. The 2015 Buccaneers draft class made a significant impact, including four rookie starters: quarterback Jameis Winston, tackle Donovan Smith, guard Ali Marpet and linebacker Kwon Alexander.

Prior to joining Tampa Bay, Robinson spent 12 years with the New England Patriots, including his last five years (2009-13) as the director of college scouting. In the five years heading up their college scouting, the Patriots added a number of key components to their roster that won the Super Bowl in 2014, including wide receiver Julian Edelman, defensive back Devin McCourty, tight end Rob Gronkowski, tackle Nate Solder and defensive end Chandler Jones. He joined the Patriots as an area scout in 2002, a role he served for four seasons. Robinson then spent two years (2006-07) as a regional scout, before being promoted to assistant director of college scouting in 2008 and then director of college scouting in 2009. In his time scouting for the Patriots the team won 10 division titles, four conference titles and two Super Bowls (2003, 2004).

Robinson played three years at Southeast Missouri State as a defensive lineman after starting his college career at the Air Force Academy. Following his college career as a player, he spent one season (1998) coaching at his alma mater and three years (1999-2001) coaching at Nicholls State.

A native of Union City, Tenn., Robinson and his wife, Jaimie, have two daughters, Taylor and Bailey.

1st round, 29th overall

College: Following a redshirt season, Wilson started 24 total games for the Bulldogs from 2018 to 2019. All of his starts came at right tackle. As a sophomore (2019), Wilson was named second-team Associated Press All-SEC and was the co-winner of the Offensive "Up Front" Award. Wilson was named to the Football Writers Association of America Freshman All-America team and the 2018 Coaches Freshman All-SEC Team his redshirt freshman year (2018).

2nd round, 61st overall

As a senior in 2019, Fulton started all 15 games and posted 38 tackles, one tackle for loss, 15 passes defended and one interception. He also earned second-team All-SEC recognition by the Associated Press. During his junior season (2018), Fulton started 10 games and tallied 25 tackles, one tackle for loss, 10 passes defended, one interception and one forced fumble.

Evans set school records for most career rushes without a fumble (482) and single-season rushes without a fumble (255 in 2019). Evans had 4,642 all-purpose yards, including 1,439 yards on kickoff returns and 319 yards as a receiver, plus 14 passing yards. Evans scored 34 total touchdowns with 25 rushing, six receiving and a program-record three as a kick returner. Evans totaled 11 runs of at least 50 yards in his final two seasons.

Mike Vrabel enters his third season as head coach in 2020. He was named to the position on Jan. 20, 2018, becoming the 19th head coach in franchise history.

In Vrabel's first two years, he directed the Titans to a 20-15 record, including a 2-1 mark in the 2019 playoffs. His 20 wins made up the second-highest total in franchise history for a head coach's first two seasons, behind only Jack Pardee's 21 wins from 1990–1991.

Vrabel became the first head coach in the organization's history to win multiple playoff games within his first two seasons. The Titans won a pair of road games—at New England in the wild card round and at Baltimore in the divisional round—to advance to the 2019 AFC championship game, falling at Kansas City to the eventual Super Bowl champion Chiefs.

The Titans began the 2019 campaign with two wins in their first six games but rallied to win seven of their final 10 games in the regular season. From the time the NFL went to its current playoff format in 1990 through 2019, 345 teams went 2-4 or worse in their first six games of a season. From that group, the Titans became only the third team to advance to a conference championship game, joining the 2002 Titans (2-4) and the 1996 Jacksonville Jaguars (2-4).

The 2019 Titans ranked in the NFL's top 10 in scoring margin (eighth, +71), turnover margin (sixth, +6), offensive yards per play (fourth, 6.12), rushing offense (third, 138.9 yards per game), red zone efficiency (first, 75.6 percent), total touchdowns (tied for third, 54) and third-down defense (eighth, 36.3 percent).

From 2018–2019, Vrabel's Titans were the second-least penalized NFL team (181). Over the same period of time, they were the fourth-best rushing offense (129.2 yards per game), the fifth-best scoring defense (19.8 points allowed per game) and the seventh-best third-down defense (36.4 percent).

In his first season as head coach, Vrabel directed the Titans to a 9-7 record. His nine wins tied for the fourth-highest total in franchise history by a first-year head coach.

With only 82 penalties enforced against the Titans in 2018, Vrabel's team led the NFL and set a franchise record (16-game season) for fewest penalties in a season. The 2018 Titans also placed third in points allowed (18.9 per game), eighth in total defense (333.4 yards per game), sixth in passing defense (216.9), second in red zone defense (44.7 percent touchdown rate) and seventh in rushing offense (126.4) in the league rankings.

Vrabel arrived in Tennessee with 18 years of NFL experience, including four seasons as a coach and 14 seasons as a player. His distinguished playing career included three Super Bowl wins (2001, 2003 and 2004), one Pro Bowl selection (2007) and an All-Pro honor (2007). Vrabel played in 206 NFL games and totaled 57 sacks, 496 tackles, 11 interceptions, 20 forced fumbles, nine fumble recoveries and 10 touchdown receptions. Additionally, his teams advanced to the playoffs eight times (20 postseason games), with Vrabel recording eight postseason sacks and two postseason touchdown receptions.

Vrabel joined the Titans after four seasons with the Houston Texans, spending the first three seasons (2014-16) coaching linebackers and one year (2017) as the team's defensive coordinator. During his time in Houston, the Texans built one of the best defenses in the NFL and experienced tremendous success as a team – earning two division titles (2015, 2016).

Between 2014-16, the Texans defense ranked third in the NFL in yards allowed per game (319.9) and net passing yards (218.4). Houston also ranked first in third-down defense (33.6), fourth in opponent completion percentage (59.5) and sixth in points allowed per game (19.8). The 2016 defense ranked number one in the NFL, for the first time in franchise history, in yards allowed (301.3).

In 2017, his first year as a defensive coordinator, the Texans finished the campaign with 19 players on injured reserve. Despite the injuries, Vrabel led the defense to the fifth-best third-down percentage in the NFL and a franchise-record 3.97 yards per carry by opponents. Houston also had 18 different players record at least half a sack last year and 26 players tally at least one tackle for loss.

Vrabel spent his career playing and coaching with accomplished leaders, including Bill Belichick, Bill Cowher, Romeo Crennel, Urban Meyer, Bill O'Brien and Todd Haley.

As the Texans linebackers coach from 2014-16, Vrabel developed several players into top-notch performers, including Jadeveon Clowney (Pro Bowl, 2016), Whitney Mercilus, Benardrick McKinney (second-team All-Pro, 2016) and Brian Cushing. The 2015 Texans defense had the top third-down defense in the NFL (28.5 percent), which was the lowest percentage in franchise history and the lowest by any NFL team since the 2003 Titans (27.7 percent). The 2015 defense also set a franchise mark for sacks in a season with 45 - 22.5 coming from Vrabel's linebacking corps.

Prior to joining the NFL coaching ranks, Vrabel transitioned immediately from an NFL player to college coach. He started as the linebacker coach at Ohio State in 2011 and coached the defensive line from 2012–2013. The 2012 Buckeyes finished the season undefeated at 12-0. He also was named Big Ten Recruiter of the Year by ESPN.com in 2012.

Vrabel was selected by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the third round (91st overall) of the 1997 NFL Draft, after his playing career at Ohio State, where he earned All-America honors and Big Ten Conference Defensive Lineman of the Year in both 1995 and 1996.

A native of Akron, Ohio, Vrabel attended Walsh Jesuit High School. He and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons: Tyler and Carter.

20 WINS IN FIRST TWO YEARS

Mike Vrabel won nine games as a rookie head coach in 2018. Of the 19 head coaches in the organization's history, beginning in 1960, Vrabel became the eighth to reach nine wins in his first full season as head coach.

Then, in 2019, Vrabel's team again went 9-7 in the regular season. The club earned a wild card playoff berth and won two postseason games before falling in the AFC title game.

Including regular season and postseason games, Vrabel's 20 wins from 2018–2019 give him the second-highest total in franchise history for a head coach's first two seasons (not including interim seasons). Only Jack Pardee's 21 wins from 1990–1991 rank better than Vrabel's total.

Most combined regular season and postseason wins in a head coaches first two seasons, franchise history*:

NISSAN STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

Nissan Stadium hosts all Titans home football games, Tennessee State University football games, the Music City Bowl, the CMA Music Festival and numerous other events.

The procurement of naming rights to Nissan Stadium fit the automotive company's 'Fewer, Bigger, Better' marketing strategy, which has included ongoing sponsorships of NBC's 'The Voice,' the Heisman House college football program and a major advertising presence in this year's Super Bowl. Nissan is also now the official automotive partner of the Tennessee Titans.

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin.

The Nissan Smyrna Plant began operations in 1983 and employs more than 8,400 people. In 2014, the Smyrna plant assembled more than 648,000 vehicles, making it the highest volume automotive assembly plant in North America. Nissan also has a major manufacturing presence in Canton, Miss., along with research and development groups in California, Arizona and Michigan. In total, the company employs more than 22,000 employees in the U.S.

One component of the Titans-Nissan partnership is assisting charitable organizations throughout Middle Tennessee in an array of community outreach programs. A centerpiece of this is the annual "Taste of Titans" charitable event, for which Nissan serves as presenting sponsor. During the course of a 20-year relationship, a total of more than $1 million resulting from these annual events is anticipated to be distributed to local non-profit organizations.

Nissan Stadium is a city-owned venue that has housed the Titans since 1999. The naming rights agreement includes the opportunity for Nissan branding on the exterior of the stadium, as well as stadium signage and other unique displays inside the stadium. LP Building Products held the naming rights to the stadium from 2006 until the Nissan partnership was established in 2015.

TITANS REBOUND AFTER 2-4 START

After winning their 2019 regular season opener at Cleveland (Sept. 8), the Titans dropped four of their next five games to begin the season with a 2-4 record. From that point forward, they won nine of their last 13 games, including playoffs.

Since the NFL went to its current playoff format in 1990, 345 teams have gone 2-4 or worse in their first six games of a season. From that group, the Titans became the 21st team to earn a postseason berth.

Their wild card victory over the Patriots made the Titans the 10th team to win a playoff game and the 11th team to advance to the divisional round after faring no better than 2-4 in their first six games.

A week later, the Titans became the third such team to advance to the conference championship, joining the 2002 Titans (2-4) and the 1996 Jacksonville Jaguars (2-4).

As a franchise, the Titans/Oilers have advanced to the divisional round or beyond three times following a 2-4 or worse start through six games. In addition to the 2019 squad and the 2002 club, the 1993 Oilers went to the divisional round with a first-round bye.

THE SIXTH SEED

The Titans entered the 2019 playoffs with a 9-7 record and the sixth and final seed in the AFC playoffs. In winning their wild card game at New England and their divisional matchup at Baltimore, they became the NFL's first No. 6 seed to reach the conference championship game since 2010.

Since the NFL instituted the current 12-team playoff format in 1990, the Titans joined the 2005 Pittsburgh Steelers, 2008 Philadelphia Eagles, 2008 Baltimore Ravens, 2010 New York Jets and 2010 Green Bay Packers in reaching the conference championship game as No. 6 seeds.

No. 6 playoff seeds to reach the conference championship game, 1990–2019:

Quarterback Ryan Tannehill is in his ninth NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2020. He received a multi-year contract extension during the 2020 offseason.

In 2019, Tannehill took control as the team's starting quarterback in Week 7 and subsequently led the Titans to the playoffs and an appearance in the AFC championship game. In his 13 starts, including the regular season and playoffs, the Titans went 9-4.

Tannehill set single-season franchise records and led the NFL with a 117.5 passer rating and a passing average of 9.6 yards per attempt. His passer rating was the fourth-highest figure in NFL history among qualifiers. Additionally, he set a club record and placed third in the NFL with a 70.3 completion percentage.

Tannehill was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for December 2019 and was named to his first career Pro Bowl. He also won the Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year Award.

Originally a first-round selection (eighth overall) by the Miami Dolphins in the 2012 NFL Draft, Tannehill was acquired by the Titans in a trade with the Dolphins on March 15, 2019. The Titans sent a 2019 seventh-round pick and a 2020 fourth-round selection to Miami in exchange for Tannehill and a 2019 sixth-rounder.

Over his seven seasons in Miami, he started 88 games, threw for 20,434 yards and 123 touchdowns, and rushed for 1,210 yards and six scores. When he left Miami, he ranked second in franchise history behind Chad Pennington in both career completion percentage (62.8) and career passer rating (87.0). He authored 13 game-winning drives for the Dolphins.

During the first four seasons of his career (2012-15), Tannehill's passing yardage total—15,460 yards—was the third highest mark in NFL history, behind only Peyton Manning and Dan Marino. Tannehill's two 4,000-yard passing seasons (2015 and 2014) were the only ones recorded by a Dolphins quarterback other than Marino (six times). The Dolphins reached the playoffs in 2016, breaking an eight-year postseason drought.

A native of Big Spring, Texas, Tannehill attended Texas A&M, where he earned honorable mention All-America honors as a senior. He played both quarterback and wide receiver, passing for 5,450 yards and 42 touchdowns and adding 112 receptions for 1,596 yards and 10 scores.

2020 Notes:

➤ At Denver (9/14), opened the season on Monday Night Football with a 97.9 passer rating after completing 29 of 43 passes for 249 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions. He also rushed for 14 yards on three attempts. He registered his 17th career game-winning drive and his fourth as a member of the Titans. On the team's final drive, which ended with the go-ahead 25-yard field goal by Stephen Gostkowski, Tannehill completed five of seven attempts for 40 yards. His two touchdown passes included a one-yard pass to tight end MyCole Pruitt in the second quarter and a one-yard touchdown toss to tight end Jonnu Smith in the fourth quarter. He extended his streak to 11 consecutive regular season games with at least one touchdown pass, the longest streak by a Titans quarterback since Steve McNair's franchise-record 23 straight games from 2001 to 2002. He also extended his streak to eight consecutive regular season games with at least two touchdown passes, the best streak of his career (five in 2015) and tied for the best such streak in franchise history (Marcus Mariota, 2016). His 43 passing attempts were his most in a game since Sept. 18, 2016 (45 vs. New England).

LEADING VETERAN QBS ON NEW TEAMS

In 2019, Ryan Tannehill set a new standard for veteran quarterbacks in their first year with a new team. Tannehill, who was acquired in a trade after seven years with the Miami Dolphins, had a passer rating of 117.5. No quarterback has ever finished with a passer rating that high in his first season with a new team after playing at least one year with another team.

Brett Favre held the distinction until 2019. In 2009, Favre's 107.2 passer rating with the Minnesota Vikings became the best figure in league annals by a veteran in his first campaign with a new club.

Highest passer rating in a veteran's first season with a new team:

Player	Season	New Team	Former Team	Rating
1. Ryan Tannehill	2019	Tennessee	Miami	117.5

To end the 2019 regular season, Ryan Tannehill completed multiple touchdown passes for seven consecutive games, one game shy of Marcus Mariota's 2016 franchise record of eight consecutive games with multiple touchdown passes.

However, Tannehill did establish a franchise benchmark in his final seven contests for most consecutive games with multiple touchdown passes and fewer than two interceptions. Over those seven games, he had two total interceptions—one each on Dec. 8 (at Oakland) and Dec. 15 (vs. Houston)—to go along with 19 touchdown passes and a 129.8 passer rating.

During Mariota's 2016 season, he registered the previous franchise-best streak of four straight games with at least two touchdown passes and fewer than two interceptions.

In the history of the NFL, only two previous qualifying passers have enjoyed a season in which they completed at least 70.0 percent of their passes and averaged at least 9.0 yards per attempt: Sammy Baugh and Joe Montana.

Montana led the San Francisco 49ers to a Super Bowl XXIV title and won the NFL MVP award following a 1989 season in which he completed 70.2 percent of his passes (271 of 386) and averaged 9.1 yards per attempt (3,521 yards).

Running back Derrick Henry is in his fifth NFL season in 2020. He was selected by the Titans with the 45th overall pick in the second round of the 2016 NFL Draft and received a multi-year contract extension in 2020.

In 2019, Henry was named to his first career Pro Bowl and added second-team Associated Press All-Pro honors after leading the NFL in rushing in 2019. In 15 games, he totaled 1,540 yards on 303 carries (5.1 avg.), joining Billy Cannon (AFL, 1961), Earl Campbell (1978-80) and Chris Johnson (2009) as the only running backs in franchise history to lead their respective leagues in rushing. Henry's single-season total ranked fourth in franchise annals behind Johnson's 2009 total (2,006) and Campbell's 1979 (1,697) and 1980 (1,934) performances. He was named the FedEx Ground Player of the Year.

With 16 rushing touchdowns in 2019, Henry tied for the NFL lead (Aaron Jones) and finished second in team history (19 by Campbell in 1979). Adding his two receiving touchdowns, his 18 total touchdowns were third in the NFL and tied for second in franchise annals (19 by Campbell in 1979; 18 by Bill Groman in 1961).

Henry's performance late in the 2019 season was instrumental in the team's run to the AFC championship game. Over the final six games of the regular season plus three playoff appearances, Henry registered seven 100-yard games. During a three-game stretch (Dec. 29 at Houston, Jan. 4 at New England and Jan. 11 at Baltimore), he became the first player in NFL history to rush for at least 180 yards in three consecutive regular season and/or postseason games.

Henry authored his first career 1,000-yard season in 2018 and the 28th 1,000-yard rushing season in franchise history, totaling 1,059 yards and 12 touchdowns on 215 carries—all then-career highs.

His 2018 rushing yardage ranked second in the AFC to Joe Mixon's 1,168 yards, and he finished seventh in the NFL. Henry's 12 rushing touchdowns tied James Connor for third place in the NFL behind Todd Gurley (17) and Alvin Kamara (14).

Henry was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for December 2018. His 625 rushing yards in the month were the most by any NFL player in any month during the season.

Against the Jacksonville Jaguars on Dec. 6, 2018, Henry recorded one of the greatest single games in franchise history in front of a national television audience. He broke Johnson's single-game franchise record (228) with 238 rushing yards, including a 99-yard touchdown run. He joined Tony Dorsett as the only two players in NFL history to rush for a 99-yard score.

In 2017, Henry shared time in the Titans backfield with DeMarco Murray. Henry led the team with 744 rushing yards on 176 carries, and he added 11 receptions for 136 yards and a touchdown. His five rushing touchdowns tied for second on the club.

As a rookie in 2016, Henry played in 15 games with one start, splitting reps in the backfield with Murray. He carried the ball 110 times for 490 yards and five touchdowns and added 137 yards on 13 receptions. Henry became the third rookie for the franchise in the "Titans era" to score at least five touchdowns in a season, joining Vince Young (seven rushing touchdowns in 2006) and Johnson (nine rushing and one receiving in 2008).

The Heisman Trophy winner played three seasons (2013–2015) at the University of Alabama, where he set numerous school and SEC records while helping his team win a National Championship in 2015. He played in 39 games and totaled 602 carries for 3,591 yards and 42 rushing touchdowns and added 285 yards on 17 career receptions with three receiving scores. During Alabama's victory over Clemson in the 2016 College Football Playoff National Championship, he broke Shaun Alexander's record for most career rushing yards in Alabama history.

In his final collegiate season, Henry rushed for an Alabama and Southeastern Conference record 2,219 yards, which led the nation and ranked fifth in FBS history. He recorded 100-yard rushing games 10 times and had four 200-yard games during the season. His 28 rushing touchdowns were a national best and an SEC record, snapping Tim Tebow and Tre Mason's old mark of 23. In addition to the Heisman, he also won the Doak Walker Award, Walter Camp Award and Maxwell Award, among a multitude of other honors.

Henry is a native of Yulee, Fla.

2020 Notes:

➤ At Denver (9/14), rushed for 116 yards on 31 carries on Monday Night Football to notch his 14th career 100-yard rushing game (regular season and playoffs). Became the fourth player in franchise history to record 10 consecutive regular season games with at least 80 scrimmage yards, joining Chris Johnson (12 from 2009 to 2010), Eddie George (10 games in 1998) and Billy Cannon (10 games from 1961 to 1962). The only active NFL streak better than Henry's is owned by Carolina Panthers running back Christian McCaffrey, who is currently riding an 11-game stretch of 80-yard scrimmage games after Week 1. His 31 rushing attempts made up the third-highest total of his career in the regular season.

#60 - C BEN JONES

6-3, 303, 9th Year, Georgia

Click for complete bio

Center Ben Jones is in his ninth NFL season and his fifth campaign with the Titans in 2020. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 10, 2016.

From 2012 through 2019, Jones appeared in 127 of 128 possible regular season games, including starts in all but one game during his first four seasons in Tennessee.

In 2019, Jones captained an offensive line that helped running back Derrick Henry win the NFL's rushing title (1,540 yards). He started all three playoff games en route to an AFC Championship Game appearance.

On Dec. 12, 2019, Jones was named the Titans nominee for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award. Considered one of the league's most prestigious honors, the award recognizes an NFL player for outstanding community service activities off the field, as well as excellence on the field.

On Nov. 3, 2019, Jones' streak of 120 consecutive games played and 88 consecutive starts came to an end when he was deactivated with a concussion. At the time, Jones' consecutive games streak tied Kansas City's Mitchell Schwartz for the longest active streak in the NFL among offensive linemen, and his starting streak ranked first in the NFL among all centers.

Jones started all 16 games at center in 2018, registering a start in every contest for the fifth consecutive season, dating back to his third year in Houston (2014).

In his first year in Tennessee, Jones played a key role in an offensive turnaround. The veteran was a key cog in a line that helped the Titans finish 11th overall in offense, third in rushing and tied for seventh in fewest sacks allowed.

Jones was originally selected by the Houston Texans in the fourth round (99th overall) of the 2012 NFL Draft. Over the following four seasons, he started contests at center and both guard spots. He was a starter on two playoff teams in Houston (2012 and 2015).

Cornerback Malcolm Butler is in his seventh NFL season and his third campaign with the Titans in 2020. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 16, 2018.

Butler's 2019 season was cut short due to a wrist injury he suffered in the ninth game (Nov. 3 at Carolina). Until that point, he had 30 tackles, two interceptions, including one for a touchdown, and 10 passes defended.

In 2018, Butler led the Titans with 13 passes defended in his first season as a Titan and was second on the team with three interceptions, which included an interception return for a touchdown. He added 56 tackles, one sack, one quarterback pressure, three tackles for loss and one forced fumble in 16 games (11 starts).

Prior to his arrival in Tennessee, Butler spent the first four seasons of his career with the New England Patriots. During his time in New England, he appeared in 59 career regular season games with 48 starts and amassed 204 tackles, eight interceptions, 47 passes defended, four forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries.

Butler appeared in 11 career playoff games with seven starts with the Patriots. He started all three postseason contests on the Patriots' run to the Super Bowl LI title in 2016 and made the crucial, game-winning interception at the goal line in New England's Super Bowl XLIX victory over the Seattle Seahawks to conclude the 2014 campaign.

In 2017, he played in all 16 games during the regular season with 15 starts and amassed 60 tackles, two interceptions, a sack, 12 passes defended and three forced fumbles. He saw action in all three postseason games (two starts) and posted four tackles.

In 2016, Butler earned his second consecutive Pro Bowl invitation and was named Associated Press second-team All-Pro after starting all 16 regular season games and recording 63 tackles, one sack, a career-high four interceptions and 17 passes defended.

As a rookie free agent in 2014, Butler was involved in one of the most memorable plays in Super Bowl history. With 26 seconds remaining against the Seattle Seahawks in Super Bowl XLIX, he intercepted a pass intended for Ricardo Lockette at the goal line, preventing a go-ahead touchdown by the Seahawks and sealing New England's championship victory.

The Vicksburg, Miss., native was originally signed by the New England Patriots on May 19, 2014, following two seasons at the University of West Alabama, where he was a two-time first team All-Gulf South Conference selection at cornerback. He transferred to West Alabama from Hinds (Miss.) Community College.

Punter Brett Kern is in his 13th NFL season and his 11th full campaign with the Titans in 2019. He was claimed off waivers by the Titans during the 2009 season.

During his time in Tennessee, Kern has placed his name at the top of most of the franchise's leaderboards at his position. At the end of the 2019 campaign, he ranked as the team's all-time career leader in gross punting average (45.9 yards), net punting average (40.8) and punts placed inside the 20 (333). He punted 839 times in a Titans uniform from 2009–2019, second all-time for the franchise behind Craig Hentrich's 861 punts. Kern owns the top eight net punting seasons in franchise history and six of the team's top eight gross punting seasons.

In 2019, Kern was named to the Pro Bowl for the third consecutive season, and he earned first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors for the first time in his career. His 37 punts inside the 20 led the NFL, and his 43.1-yard net average ranked second in team history.

At the end of the 2019 campaign, Kern's 170 consecutive games played (regular season) ranked second in team history behind only Bruce Matthews (232). Kern's 170 career games ranked sixth in franchise annals and were the most in the organization's "Titans era" (1999–2019).

In 2018, his 47.1-yard gross average ranked fifth in team history, and his 41.7-yard net average ranked second in team annals. He set a franchise record and recorded a career high with 39 of his 74 punts inside the 20-yard line. He finished the season with a career-long streak of 16 consecutive punts placed inside the 20, including every punt in the final three games of the season.

In 2017, Kern had arguably one of the best seasons by a punter in NFL history and was named to his first career Pro Bowl in addition to earning second-team Associated Press All-Pro honors. He punted 75 times for 3,728 yards with 28 punts placed inside the 20-yard line. His 44.6-yard net average broke his own team record and finished second in NFL history behind only Johnny Hekker's 46.0-yard net average in 2016. Kern's 49.7-yard gross average also broke his team mark and finished eighth in NFL history.

In 2015, Kern continued his annual assault on the team's all-time punting records and accomplished a first-of-its-kind NFL feat, becoming the first punter in league history to record 80 or more punts, a net average of 40 yards, and one or zero touchbacks in a single season. His season totals included 88 punts (tied for fifth place in franchise history), a 47.4-yard gross average (second in franchise history), a 40.3 net average (third in franchise history), a career-high 34 punts inside the 20 (third in franchise history) and only one touchback (career low).

In 2014, Kern launched a career-high 88 total punts for a gross average of 46.8 yards and a net average of 40.8 yards, which broke his own single-season team record (40.4-yard net average in 2012).

Kern produced one of the best punting seasons in team history in 2012. He set then-franchise records with a gross punting average of 47.6 yards and a net punting average of 40.4 yards (he later broke both marks).

Kern was claimed by the Titans off waivers from the Denver Broncos on Oct. 27, 2009. He spent the entire 2008 season and the first six games of 2009 campaign in Denver, totaling 73 punts and a 46.5-yard average in 22 games with the Broncos.

In 2008, Kern ranked fifth in the league with a 46.7-yard punting average that marked the third-best season total by a Bronco in club history. At the time, his punting average was the best in NFL history by a rookie. He was named to the All-Rookie team by Pro Football Weekly/PFWA and The Sporting News.

The Grand Island, N.Y., native was originally signed by the Broncos as a rookie free agent on April 28, 2008, following four seasons at the University of Toledo.

2020 Notes:

➤ At Denver (9/14), punted four times for a 51.0-yard gross average and a 47.0-yard net average with two punts inside the 20, including a long punt of 66 yards to help pin the Broncos inside their 10-yard line in the second quarter. He became the seventh player in franchise history to play in 12 seasons with the organization, joining Bruce Matthews (1983–2001), Elvin Bethea (1968–1983), Brad Hopkins (1993–2005), Gregg Bingham (1973–1983), Mike Munchak (1982–1993) and Craig Hentrich (1998–2009). Kern became the first to accomplish the feat exclusively in the "Titans era" (1999–present).

- One of Lewan's close friends is former Carolina Panthers defensive end Craig Roh. The two played together as high school seniors and then went to Michigan at the same time.
- At the 2014 NFL Scouting Combine, Lewan ran the 40-yard dash in 4.87 seconds, beating all other offensive linemen in his class and clocking the fourth-fastest time among offensive linemen from 2010-14. He also ranked among the top offensive linemen at the 2014 combine in the broad jump (first at nine feet, nine inches), vertical jump (tied for third at 30.5 inches) and three-cone drill (fourth at 7.39 seconds).

LB DAVID LONG JR.

- David's father, David Sr., is a former professional boxer who went 12-5-2 as a heavyweight. He once fought future world champ Deontay Wilder.
- During the offseason, Long still uses on-the-bell, three-minute-round boxing training to focus on his mental awareness. In 2018, Long Jr. went into the ring with headgear against his old man for the first time. They went for three 90-second rounds. "He busted up my lip, but it was fun," Long Jr. says. "He was really iffy that I knew how to throw my hands for real. It was just jabs, but it's grown-man strength."
- Long was a high school teammate of safety Mike Edwards, who was drafted by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the third round of the 2019 NFL Draft.

DT ISAAH MACK

- For part of his time at Chattanooga, Mack's position coach was former Titans and Mocs defensive lineman Tony Brown.
- Mack is extremely close with his mother, Sequoyah, who calls him 'D' because his middle name is Dwight.
- Mack's mother is a nurse and he initially majored in nursing at Chattanooga. He switched to criminal justice after taking a course in violence against women as a freshman.
- He lists his favorite hobby as 'going mudding' in his pickup truck, and also enjoys hunting, fishing and cooking

CB CHRIS MILTON

- Milton is related to former NFL running back Tashard Choice, who played six seasons (2008-2013) in the NFL with the Dallas Cowboys, Washington, Buffalo Bills and Indianapolis Colts.
- Milton had the opportunity to learn from Pro Football Hall of Famer Champ Bailey. Their families were close, and when Milton was getting ready for the NFL, he reached out to Bailey for tips. They trained together during the weeks leading up to the draft. Now if he ever has questions, he still reaches out to the legendary cornerback.
- Milton enjoys fishing in his free time and when he is not playing or training for football he feels like a full-time fisherman on the water.

C DANIEL MUNYER

- As a senior at Colorado, Munyer was awarded the department of communication's Academic Leadership Award for his dedication to learning and strong positive presence in the classroom.

"Everything is good, but if you go, I'd say start with the fried pork chops, mac and cheese and cabbage."
- Murchison loves everything music and enjoys playing the drums. His dad played drums in the church when he was younger, and he just followed in his footsteps.

RB SENORISE PERRY (first name pronounce suh-nah-RISS)

- Perry wasn't among the rookie free agents signed in the days following the 2014 NFL Draft. He hit the tryout circuit and hoped to make an impression. Perry was one of two players signed by the Chicago Bears after a May tryout. He excelled on special teams in the preseason games and sealed his 53-man roster spot as an undrafted free agent.
- Perry excelled in track and field as a high school senior, winning the Georgia state titles in the 100 meters and long jump.
- Perry's hobbies include photography, and he has a desire to learn how to deep sea fish.

TE MYCOLE PRUITT

- The name MyCole has a unique origin. Pruitt's mother's name is Colette. Cole means "people's victory" in Greek baby names. She named him MyCole for My-Victory. MyCole is his mother's victory.

- Raymond received little interest from college football programs when he was a student at Greater Atlanta Christian (Ga.) High School, partly due to a serious injury he suffered as a senior. Undeterred, he began sending emails to colleges with football programs with high academic standards. The only schools to respond were Lehigh, Georgetown and Holy Cross, and he chose the latter.

TE JONNU SMITH (first name pronounced JAH-new)

- Smith competed in weightlifting, finishing second in the county in the 219-pound weight class in high school at West Port.

"My mother is my rock. It was tough, but we always got what we needed—not necessarily what we wanted all the time—but what we needed. She was so strong all the time."

- Smith endured a lot of challenges as a youngster in Philadelphia and after his brother was arrested and one of his friends was killed on the streets, a decision needed to be made. His family didn't have the financial means to just uproot, so for his own safety Jonnu moved in with his mother's sister and brother-in-law, Darla and Mike Kirkland, in Ocala, Fla. He started playing high school football and even though he was far from a touted recruit, he earned a scholarship to Florida International where his play took off.
