TITANS TO MAKE FIRST TRIP TO ALLEGiant STADIUM

Tennessee Titans (1-4) vs. Las Vegas Raiders (1-4)

Sunday, Oct. 12, 2025 • 3:05 p.m. CDT • Allegiant Stadium • Las Vegas, Nev. • TV: FOX/WZTV-17

NASHVILLE — The Tennessee Titans (1-4) play their third consecutive road game this week, traveling to play for the first time in Las Vegas at Allegiant Stadium (capacity 65,000). Kickoff against the Raiders (1-4) is scheduled for 1:05 p.m. PDT/3:05 p.m. CDT on Sunday, Oct. 12.

The last time Tennessee traveled to face the Raiders was 2019, the Raiders' final season in Oakland before they relocated to Las Vegas in 2020. Tennessee took that matchup 42-21 and won the next meeting at Nissan Stadium, a 24-22 win on Sept. 25, 2022. However, the Raiders maintain a 30-22 advantage in the all-time series, including the postseason.

THE BROADCAST

The contest will be regionally televised on FOX, including Nashville affiliate WZTV FOX 17. The broadcast team includes play-by-play announcer Kenny Albert, analyst Jonathan Vilma and reporter Megan Olivi.

Fans in Nashville can stream live Titans games on mobile devices with NFL+, which offers access to local games and all primetime games on phones and tablets. Additionally, Compass Media Networks will broadcast the game to a national radio audience. Play-by-play announcer Kevin Ray and analyst Brian Baldinger have the call.

TITANS LOOKING TO BUILD ON WIN AT ARIZONA

The Titans visited Arizona last week and won in dramatic fashion. After they trailed 21-3 in the first half and 21-6 in the fourth quarter, Joey Slye made a 29-yard field goal as time expired in the fourth quarter to complete the 22-21 comeback win.

The Titans registered their largest fourth-quarter comeback victory since overcoming a 21-point deficit to defeat the New York Giants 24-21 on Nov. 26, 2006. Since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger, the only other game won by the Titans franchise after trailing by 15 or more points in the fourth quarter was Nov. 1, 1987 against Cincinnati, when the team erased a 15-point margin to win 31-29.

No. 1 overall draft pick Cam Ward started for the fifth consecutive week to begin the season and was credited with his first career win and his first career game-winning drive. In the fourth quarter, he was 13-of-18 passing for 193 yards. Since 2000, Ward and the Titans' Vince Young (Nov. 26, 2006) are the only NFL rookie quarterbacks to win a game in which they trailed by 15 or more points in the fourth quarter.

Ward's top target was wide receiver Calvin Ridley, who finished with five receptions for 131 yards. It was the sixth-highest receiving yardage total of Ridley's career.

On defense, the Titans were led by 1.5 sacks by defensive tackle Jeffery Simmons. Simmons' 3.5 total sacks this season are tied for his best total of his career (2022) through five games and lead all NFL defensive tackles in 2025.

THE RAIDERS

The Raiders are led by Pete Carroll, who was named head coach in January. He previously spent 14 seasons as the head coach of the Seattle Seahawks, directing the franchise to consecutive Super Bowl appearances and a Super Bowl XLVIII victory following the 2013 campaign.

Quarterback Geno Smith is also in his initial season in Las Vegas after a previous stint in Seattle. He has started each of the first five games of 2025. Since 2022, Smith's 13,402 passing yards rank fourth in the NFL, and his 77 touchdown passes rank ninth.

The Raiders won their 2025 season opener at New England before suffering losses in their past four contests. Last week they traveled to Indianapolis, where the Colts won 40-6.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR THIS WEEK

WR ELIC AYOMANOR

- With one touchdown catch, he can become the franchise's first rookie since the 1970 merger to have three touchdown receptions in the team's first six games of a season.
- Needs two receptions to become the team's first rookie since Chris Johnson (2008) to record at least two receptions in each of the first six games of his rookie season.

S AMANI HOOKER

- With 12 career interceptions, he needs one more to tie Jason McCourty (13) for the eighth-highest career total for the franchise during its "Titans era" (1999–present).

WR VAN JEFFERSON

- Needs 100 receiving yards to reach 2,000 for his career (1,900).

OLB ARDEN KEY

- Can register his third consecutive game with at least a half sack.

RB TONY POLLARD

- Has at least 75 scrimmage yards in four of the first five games of 2025. With 75 scrimmage yards this week, he will join Derrick Henry (six in 2021 and five in 2022) as the team's only players since 2017 to reach 75 scrimmage yards in five of the first six games of a season.

WR CALVIN RIDLEY

- Can record his first back-to-back 100-yard receiving performances since 2020.

DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

- Can register his third consecutive game with at least one sack. It would be the second such three-game streak of his career and his first since Oct. 9-30, 2022.
- Needs 1.5 sacks to record his fifth consecutive season with at least five sacks. He would join Ray Childress (nine consecutive seasons), Jurrell Casey (seven), William Fuller (six) and Sean Jones (six) as the only Titans/Oilers players to do so since individual sacks became an official statistic in 1982.

K JOEY SLYE

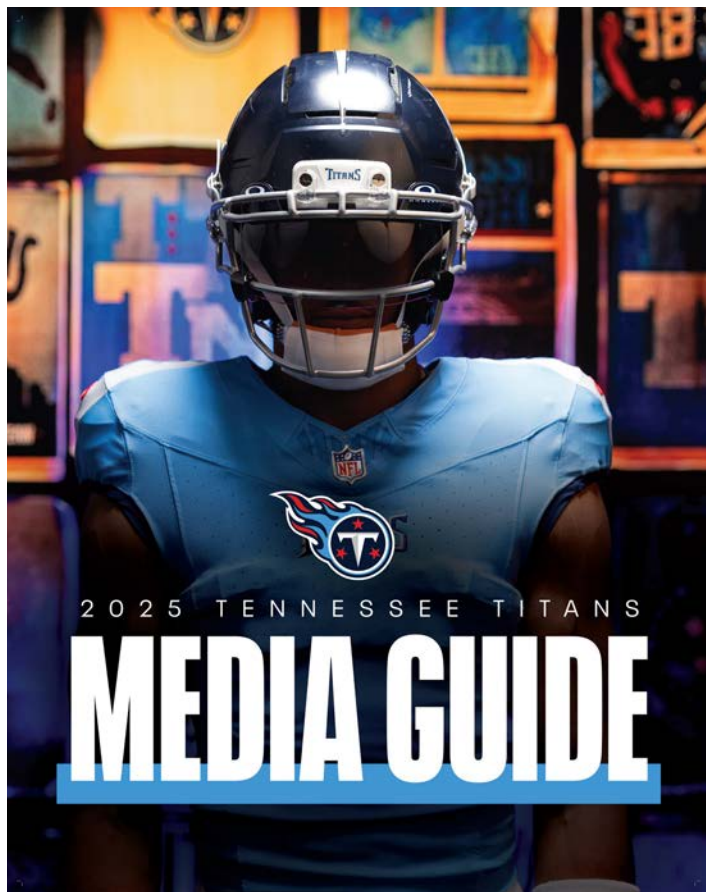

- Enters the game with 13 field goals in the first five weeks. With two field goals, he will join Rob Bironas (16 in 2007), Ryan Succop (16 in 2017) and Nick Folk (16 in 2023) as the only players in franchise history with 15 or more field goals in the first six games of a season.
- Has made five field goals in 2025 of at least 50 yards. With one more, he will join Stephen Gostkowski (seven in 2020), Rob Bironas (six in 2011) and Nick Folk (six in 2024) as the only kickers in franchise history with at least six field goals of 50-plus yards in a season.

DT SHY TUTTLE

- Scheduled to appear in his 100th career game (regular season). He would become the 74th player from the University of Tennessee to achieve the feat since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger.

QB CAM WARD

- Can become the first rookie quarterback in franchise history to start the first six games of a season. Marcus Mariota also started the first five games as a rookie in 2015 before missing the team's sixth game.

SERIES HISTORY

Including the regular season and playoffs, this week marks the 53rd all-time game between the Titans and Raiders organizations, two of the original eight members of the American Football League.

This is the first matchup between the clubs in Las Vegas and at Allegiant Stadium since the Raiders moved from Oakland in 2020.

The rivalry has been filled with historically significant contests, including their very first matchup. On Sept. 11, 1960, the Houston Oilers defeated the Raiders 37-22 in the first game of either franchise's existence.

The Raiders currently hold a 30-22 advantage in the series, including a 4-0 mark in postseason play. The clubs have met in an AFL Playoff Game (1969), an AFL Championship Game (1967), an AFC Wild Card Game (1980) and most recently the 2002 AFC Championship Game.

The Raiders have a considerable lead in the series at home. The Titans have won only seven of 23 games on the road against the Raiders, including a mark of 3-11 at Oakland-Alameda Coliseum.

The Titans franchise has achieved its greatest margin of victory in a game against the Raiders — 55-0 on Sept. 9, 1961 — but also suffered its third-worst defeat against them — 56-7 in a playoff game on Dec. 21, 1969.

The two clubs played in every season from 2001-05, including two meetings during the 2002 campaign, both of which resulted in Titans losses at Oakland -- the first in the regular season and the second in the AFC Championship Game.

More recently, the Raiders traveled to Nissan Stadium on Sept. 25, 2022. The Titans began the game with three consecutive touchdown drives and withstood a late rally by the Raiders to win 24-22. Ryan Tannehill passed for 264 yards and a touchdown. Derrick Henry provided 85 rushing yards and a score to go along with 58 receiving yards.

The last time the Titans played on the road against the Raiders was Dec. 8, 2019—their final trip to Oakland. Tennessee totaled 552 yards—the most by the franchise since 1991—and averaged a franchise-record 9.36 yards per play. Ryan Tannehill passed for 391 yards and three touchdowns.

Raiders quarterback Derek Carr passes for 330 yards and three touchdowns, including the game-winner in the final two minutes ... Seth Roberts' game-clinching touchdown catch for the Raiders (12 yards) comes after a defensive holding call on the Titans on a fourth-down incompletion ... Roberts (113) and Amari Cooper (115) each go over 100 receiving yards ... Marcus Mariota throws three touchdown passes but is intercepted twice ... Raiders outgain the Titans 407 yards to 249 and limit the Titans to 44 rushing yards.

2016 Week 3 • Sept. 25, 2016 • RAIDERS 17 at Titans 10

A late rally by the Titans comes up short, as a fourth-down pass by Marcus Mariota to Harry Douglas sails incomplete into the end zone with 12 seconds remaining ... The Titans rush for 181 yards, including 114 from DeMarco Murray, but commit three turnovers and eight penalties ... Two of their penalties come in the final minute inside the 20-yard line, including a touchdown-negating pass interference penalty ... The Raiders score touchdowns on a 22-yard run by Latavius Murray and a 19-yard reception by Seth Roberts.

2017 Week 1 • Sept. 10, 2017 • RAIDERS 26 at Titans 16

The Titans open their season with 256 passing yards and a touchdown from Marcus Mariota, but Derek Carr completes two touchdown passes in the Raiders victory ... Oakland's Giorgio Tavecchio is perfect on four field goals in his debut ... The Titans go 1-for-3 in the red zone ... Corey Davis makes his NFL debut with six receptions for 69 yards ... The Titans cut the deficit to 23-16 with 4:49 remaining but Oakland drives to put the game away with a final field goal.

2019 Week 14 • Dec. 8, 2019 • TITANS 42 at Raiders 21

The Titans make their final scheduled appearance in Oakland before the Raiders relocate to Las Vegas ... Ryan Tannehill (391 passing yards), A.J. Brown (153 receiving) and Derrick Henry (103 rushing) give the Titans their first 300-100-100 trio since 2009 ... Tannehill throws three touchdown passes, including a 91-yarder to Brown ... The Titans outscore the Raiders 21-0 in the second half ... The Titans total 552 yards ... Henry rushes for two scores, and Brown has two touchdown catches ... Linebacker Jayon Brown helps seal the outcome with a 47-yard fumble return touchdown.

2022 Week 3 • Sept. 25, 2022 • Raiders 22 at TITANS 24

The Titans register touchdowns on their first three drives and score all 24 of their points in the first half, never trailing in the contest ... Raiders receiver Mack Hollins scores on a nine-yard touchdown pass from Derek Carr to cut the Titans' lead to two points with 1:14 remaining, but a pass on the two-point conversion attempt is broken up by linebacker Dylan Cole ... Hollins has eight catches for 158 yards ... Titans running back Derrick Henry totals 143 scrimmage yards (85 rushing, 58 receiving) with one score ... The Raiders offense is 1-of-12 on third down but converts three fourth downs.

TITANS-RAIDERS: THE LAST MEETING

2022 Week 3: Titans 24, Raiders 22

Sunday, Sept. 25, 2022 • 12:00 p.m. CT • Nissan Stadium

In Week 3 of the 2022 season, the Titans hosted the Las Vegas Raiders and won by a score of 24-22. Tennessee's offense scored touchdowns on each of its first three drives, while the Titans' defense limited the Raiders to a single third-down conversion on 12 attempts.

Tennessee got on the board on its opening drive with a 12-play, 75-yard scoring possession. QB Ryan Tannehill connected with RB Derrick Henry, TE Austin Hooper and WR Robert Woods for first-down passes, before tossing a two-yard touchdown to TE Geoff Swaim to make it 7-0, Titans. Las Vegas then responded on its opening possession with a scoring drive as well. Raiders QB Derek Carr connected with Raiders WR Mack Hollins for a 20-yard gain to move the sticks, but Las Vegas was forced to settle for a 22-yard field goal to make it 7-3.

In the second quarter, Tennessee added another touchdown on a six-play scoring drive. Tannehill linked up with Woods for a 41-yard pass to give the Titans a first down at the Raiders' 14-yard line, and WR Treyton Burks' 13-yard catch then allowed Henry to rush a one-yard score into the end zone to make it 14-3, Titans. On the ensuing drive, Las Vegas tacked on another score with a 75-yard possession that culminated in a five-yard touchdown pass from Carr to Raiders WR Davante Adams, 14-10 Titans.

However, Tennessee added two more scores before halftime. First, Henry accounted for 40 rushing yards on a 79-yard scoring drive that resulted in a one-yard touchdown plunge by Tannehill, 21-10 Titans. Then, following a 21-yard punt return by Woods, the Titans' offense began a drive with 21 seconds remaining in the first half and were able to move into field goal range. K Randy Bullock converted a 48-yard kick to make it 24-10 Titans heading into halftime.

Las Vegas began the second half with the ball and with a score. Carr led the Raiders offense into the red zone, but Las Vegas was forced to settle for a field goal as Raiders K Daniel Carlson converted a 32-yard kick, 24-13 Titans.

In the fourth quarter, Las Vegas attempted a comeback but was stopped short. First,

Carlson added a 35-yard field goal to make it 24-16. Then, the Raiders put an 81-yard scoring drive together that resulted in a nine-yard touchdown pass from Carr to Hollins with one minute and 18 seconds remaining in regulation. However, the two-point conversion attempt failed as LB Dylan Cole tipped Carr's pass intended for Raiders TE Darren Waller, as the Titans preserved the lead and sealed a 24-22 victory at home.

Pete Carroll is in his 31st season in the NFL and his first as head coach of the Raiders after 14 seasons as Executive Vice President and head coach of the Seattle Seahawks from 2010-2023.

During his tenure in Seattle, Carroll and Executive VP/General Manager John Schneider constructed the best teams in franchise history with a 137-89-1 regular season record, back-to-back Super Bowl appearances in 2013-14, five consecutive 10-plus win seasons from 2012-16, and five NFC West division titles.

Between 2012 and 2015, Seattle led the NFL in scoring defense four years in a row, becoming the first defense in the Super Bowl era to accomplish the feat. The famous 'Legion of Boom' unit was led by Pro Bowl defensive backs Richard Sherman, Kam Chancellor and Earl Thomas. In 2013, they led the league in defense for the second straight year while the offense boasted the No. 1 rushing attack led by running back Marshawn Lynch and quarterback Russell Wilson. That year, Carroll led the team to its first title in franchise history with a win over the Broncos in Super Bowl XLVIII before returning to the Super Bowl in 2014, falling to the Patriots in Super Bowl XLIX.

Carroll's time in Seattle came after nine seasons (2001-09) as head coach at the University of Southern California, where he won seven consecutive Pac-10 titles (2002-08), two national championships (2003-04), coached three Heisman Trophy winners (Carson Palmer, Matt Leinart, Reggie Bush), and led the Trojans to a 97-19 record. In 2009, he was named Coach of the Decade by Lindy's.

He began his NFL career as defensive backs coach for the Bills in 1984 and the Vikings from 1985-89 before becoming the Jets defensive coordinator from 1990-93 and head coach of the Jets in 1994. He then spent two seasons as defensive coordinator of the 49ers (1995-96), before leading the Patriots to a 28-23 overall record as a head coach from 1997-99.

Carroll began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, the University of the Pacific, from 1974-76. He then served in the same role at Arkansas in 1977, and then a season each as an assistant with the secondary at Iowa State (1978) and Ohio State (1979). He spent the next three seasons as defensive coordinator at North Carolina State (1980-82), before returning to Pacific as offensive coordinator and assistant head coach (1983).

Carroll was a two-time All-Pacific Coast Conference free safety at Pacific after transferring from Marin Junior College after the 1970 season. He is a native of San Francisco, Calif.

LAST WEEK VS. THE CARDINALS

Week 5: Titans 22, Cardinals 21 Sunday Oct. 5, 2025 • 3:05 p.m. MST • State Farm Stadium

In Week 5 of the 2025 season, the Titans traveled to Arizona and won 22-21 by outscoring the Cardinals 16-0 in the fourth quarter. It was the franchise's largest fourth-quarter comeback victory since a 21-point comeback to defeat the Giants in 2006.

The Cardinals jumped to an early 7-0 lead on a one-yard run by RB Michael Carter which capped off an eight-play, 67-yard opening drive.

The Titans responded with a 44-yard field goal by K Joey Slye to make it 7-3 with 5:00 left in the first quarter.

But the Cardinals answered right back. QB Kyle Murray connected with WR Marvin Harrison Jr. for two completions for 36 yards. Murray capped the drive with a 12-yard scamper into the end zone to make it 14-3 at the end of the first quarter.

Later in the second quarter, the Cardinals capitalized on a RB Tony Pollard fumble in Titans territory with a one-yard touchdown run by RB Zonovan Knight to extend the lead to 21-3.

WR Chimere Dike responded with a 65-yard kickoff return to give the Titans a spark. But they were forced to settle for another field goal by Slye to make it 21-6 with 8:29 left in first half.

Neither team scored in the third quarter. Tennessee came up with a fumble recovery by OLB Dre'Mont Jones after a snap gone wrong for the Cardinals but were unable to capitalize and went three-and-out on the ensuing possession.

The Cardinals began the fourth quarter deep in their own territory. RB Emari Demercado broke through for what would have been a 72-yard touchdown run. However CB L'Jarvis Sneed chased him until the end zone, providing pressure before Demercado let go of the ball before crossing the goal line. Instead of a touchdown, it was a touchback.

The Titans capitalized on the mishap with a six-play, 80-yard drive that featured a 47-yard completion from QB Cam Ward to WR Calvin Ridley. Pollard capped off the drive with a one-yard touchdown run. A missed extra point by Slye made it 21-12 with 10:26 left in the game.

The Titans defense forced a three-and-out on the Cardinals next possession and took over at their own 19-yard line. Ward drove Tennessee down to the Cardinals 20-yard line before chaos ensued. A Ward pass was tipped by LB Mack Wilson Sr. before being intercepted by S Dadrion Taylor-Demerson, but he lost control of the ball, and as players scrambled to pick up the fumble, the ball was kicked by a Cardinals defender into the end zone, where WR Tyler Lockett fell on it for Tennessee. Instead of an interception, the Titans came away with a touchdown to make it 21-19.

The Titans defense stood tall and forced a punt to give the offense the ball back at their own 18-yard line with 1:53 left on the clock.

After a quick couple of completions, Ward found TE Chig Okonkwo for 16 yards to cross midfield. Then a 38-yard completion to Ridley in the final minute put the team in field goal range, before an 11-yard run by running back Tony Pollard put the team on the doorstep of the win.

Slye connected on the 29-yard kick as time expired to give the Titans their first win of the season.

NOTES FROM LAST WEEK'S GAME

TEAM NOTES

- The Titans overcame a 15-point deficit in the fourth quarter to win 22-21 at Arizona. It was the team's largest fourth-quarter comeback in a victory since a 21-point comeback to defeat the New York Giants 24-21 on Nov. 26, 2006. Since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger, the only other game won by the Titans franchise after trailing by 15 or more points in the fourth quarter was Nov. 1, 1987 against Cincinnati, when the team erased a 15-point margin to win 31-29.
- Since the beginning of the 2024 season, the Titans and Buffalo Bills (Sept. 7, 2025 vs. Baltimore) are the NFL's only teams to overcome a 15-point deficit in the fourth quarter to win.
- The Titans' largest deficit was 18 points (21-3) in the second quarter.
- It was the team's first victory at Arizona since Oct. 26, 1997.
- Mike Borgonzi earned his first win as Titans general manager, and rookie Cam Ward earned his first career win as a starting quarterback.
- The Titans played their second of three consecutive road games. They will finish the road swing next Sunday at Las Vegas (3:05 p.m. CT).
- Titans rookie safety Kevin Winston Jr. made his debut and became the ninth and final member of the team's nine-member 2025 draft class to participate in a game this season. The last time the Titans had nine or more rookie draft picks participate in at least one game was 2016, when 10 members of their draft class did so.
- A season-high five rookies were in the starting lineup for the Titans: quarterback Cam Ward, wide receiver Chimere Dike, tight end Gunnar Helm, tackle Brandon Crenshaw-Dickson (jumbo tight end) and outside linebacker Oluwafemi Oladejo.
- Nine total rookies participated for the Titans to match their season high.
- Joey Slye's game-winning field goal was the 56th game-winning field goal in franchise history and the first since Nick Folk's game-winner against New England on Nov. 3, 2024.
- It was the 16th one-point victory in franchise history and the first since a 28-27 win at Miami on Dec. 11, 2023.
- The Titans won the turnover battle with three takeaways and two turnovers. All three takeaways were a result of Arizona fumbles. It was the first game for the Titans since Nov. 27, 2011 against Tampa Bay (four fumble recoveries) in which the Titans were credited with at least three opponent fumble recoveries.
- For the first time in 2025, the Titans had more net passing yards than their opponents (249 to 192).
- For the second time in 2025, the Titans offense scored on its opening possession. They went 44 yards on 12 plays, culminating with a 44-yard field goal by Joey Slye. The Titans also had a field goal to open the season at Denver on Sept. 7.
- The Titans defense generated three sacks from three different defenders: Jeffery Simmons (1.5), Arden Key (0.5) and Sebastian Joseph-Day (1.0), combining for the Titans highest sack total in 2025.

- The Titans defense allowed zero points in the second half for the first time since Oct. 1, 2023, against Cincinnati.
- In the fourth quarter, the defense allowed just two Arizona first downs, 16 net passing yards and one third down conversion on four attempts.

CB JALYN ARMOUR-DAVIS

- Registered a career-best nine tackles and a pass defended.

WR ELIC AYOMANOR

- Caught two passes for 18 yards.
- Became the team's first rookie since Tajae Sharpe (2016) to record at least two receptions in each of the first five games of his rookie season.

LB CODY BARTON

- Participated in his 100th NFL game (regular season).
- Recorded six tackles.

S KENDELL BROOKS

- Made his season debut and logged a stop on special teams.

T BRANDON CRENSHAW-DICKSON

- Registered his first NFL start in the offense's jumbo package.

S QUANDRE DIGGS

- Participated in his 150th NFL game (regular season).
- Recorded two tackles.

WR CHIMERE DIKE

- Contributed two receptions for 17 yards, three punt returns for 33 yards, and four kickoff returns for 136 yards.
- Provided a spark with a 65-yard kickoff return in the second quarter. It was the second-longest kickoff return of his rookie season (71 at Denver on Sept. 7). It gave him two of the NFL's top five longest kickoff returns to date in 2025. His 71-yarder against Denver was the second longest of the season and his 65-yard return ranked fourth.

LB CEDRIC GRAY

- Collected 12 tackles, including a stop for loss.
- Led the team in tackles for the second consecutive game.
- His 29 total tackles in Weeks 4-5 ranked second in the NFL behind Miami's Jordyn Brooks (31).

P JOHNNY HEKKER

- Averaged 54.2 gross yards and 47.0 net yards on five punts with three punts inside the 20.
- Logged his fifth career game and his first since Dec. 15, 2019 in which he punted five or more times and averaged at least 54.0 gross yards and 47.0 net yards with three or more punts inside the 20.
- Pinned Arizona on its 11-yard line with a 50-yard punt in the second quarter.

NOTES FROM LAST WEEK'S GAME

- In the third quarter, his 50-yard punt pinned the Cardinals on the seven-yard line.

TE GUNNAR HELM

- Caught four passes for 34 yards, including a 19-yarder to the one-yard line to set up a touchdown in the fourth quarter.

S AMANI HOOKER

- Notched four tackles, marking his fifth consecutive game with at least four tackles.
- One of three Titans defenders (Cody Barton, Cedric Gray) to record at least four tackles in every contest this season.

OLB DRE'MONT JONES

- Recovered a Cardinals fumble in the third quarter, registering his second career fumble recovery (Dec. 26, 2021 at Las Vegas).
- Added three tackles and two quarterback pressures.

DE SEBASTIAN JOSEPH-DAY

- Recorded his first sack of the season in the fourth quarter, bringing down Kyler Murray for a 10-yard loss.
- Totaled five tackles and a stop for loss. It was his first career game with at least five tackles, two tackles for loss and a sack. He added two quarterback pressures.

OLB ARDEN KEY

- Recorded a half sack in the second quarter, his second consecutive week with at least a half sack. Combined with Jeffery Simmons to bring down Kyler Murray for a loss of eight yards.
- Key has logged 14 sacks since signing as a free agent in 2023, most among active Titans in that span.

WR TYLER LOCKETT

- After an interception by the Cardinals defense, Lockett recovered a fumble in the end zone for a touchdown. It was the team's first touchdown by an offensive player on a fumble recovery in the end zone since Treyton Burks on Nov. 27, 2022 against Cincinnati.
- Added one reception for six yards.

TE DAVID MARTIN-ROBINSON

- Registered his first start of the season.

LB DORIAN MAUSI

- Tied for the team lead with two special teams tackles.

TE CHIG OKONKWO

- Posted four receptions for 48 yards, including a 16-yarder during the game-winning drive in the fourth quarter.

RB TONY POLLARD

- Participated in his 100th NFL game (regular season).

- Led the team with 67 rushing yards on 14 attempts and added 11 yards on three catches.
- Scored his second touchdown of the season and the 30th rushing touchdown of his career on a one-yard carry in the fourth quarter.
- In the third quarter, he reached the 5,000-yard career rushing mark.

WR CALVIN RIDLEY

- Led the team with five receptions for 131 yards. It was the sixth-highest receiving yardage total of his career.
- Logged his 17th career 100-yard game.
- Hauled in a 25-yard pass late in the first quarter.
- His 400th career reception resulted in a 13-yard gain to convert a third-and-four in the second quarter.
- Caught a 47-yard pass from Cam Ward in the fourth quarter to help set up a touchdown.
- Helped set up the game-winning field goal late in the fourth quarter with a 38-yard grab.

DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

- Second consecutive game with a sack.
- Recorded 1.5 sacks along with a season-high eight tackles. Added a stop for loss and a team-high six quarterback pressures.
- Dropped Kyler Murray in the second quarter for a 10-yard loss to force a Cardinals punt.
- Also combined with Arden Key to bring Murray down in the third quarter, giving him 4.5 sacks over the first five games of the 2025 season.
- Simmons' 2.5 sacks over the past two games are the fifth most in the NFL. His five tackles for loss are the most leaguewide in the span (through late afternoon games on Oct. 5).

K JOEY SLYE

- Participated in his 100th NFL game (regular season).
- Made three field goals, including the game-winning 29-yard field goal as time expired in the fourth quarter. It was his first career game-winning field goal.
- Also made a 44-yard field goal in the first quarter and a 51-yarder in the second quarter.
- His game-winner was his 13th field goal of the season. He joined Ryan Succop (13 in 2018) and Nick Folk (13 in 2023) as the only players in franchise history with 13 or more field goals in the first five games of a season.

CB L'JARIUS SNEED

- Affected Emari Demercado as he lost a fumble through the back of the end zone in the fourth quarter, resulting in a touchback and returning possession to the Titans. The turnover preceded 16 Tennessee points in the final frame to capture the 22-21 victory.
- Also logged four tackles.

RB TYJAE SPEARS

- Made his first appearance of the season after being activated from injured reserve during the week.
- Contributed 14 yards on four carries.

DT SHY TUTTLE

- Logged his first start at defensive tackle in a Titans uniform.
- Recorded two tackles.

NOTES FROM LAST WEEK'S GAME

QB CAM WARD

- Earned his first career win as a starting quarterback.
- Completed 21 of 39 passes for 265 yards.
- Engineered a 15-point fourth-quarter comeback in the win. He was 13-of-18 passing for 193 yards in the fourth quarter.
- Credited with his first career game-winning drive, which ended with Joey Slye's game-winning field goal as time expired. Ward completed five of his six passes on the drive for 67 yards, including a 38-yard pass to Calvin Ridley to help set up the field goal.
- The Titans trailed by 18 points in the second quarter. The 18-point deficit that Ward overcame to win tied for the second-largest deficit by any quarterback in their first career win as a starter in the Super Bowl era (21 by Atlanta's Mike Moroski in Week 13, 1983; 18 by New York Giants' Daniel Jones in Week 3, 2019; 18 by Seattle's Jon Kitna in Week 16, 1997).
- Since 2000, Ward joined Vince Young (Nov. 26, 2006 against the New York Giants) as the only NFL rookie quarterbacks to win a game in which they trailed by 15 or more points in the fourth quarter.
- His 193 fourth-quarter passing yards were the fourth-most by an NFL rookie in a game since the beginning of the 1978 season. In that span, Ward ranked behind only Tampa Bay's Jameis Winston (238 at St. Louis on Dec. 17, 2015), Houston's Davis Mills (220 vs. L.A. Rams on Oct. 31, 2021) and Washington's Jayden Daniels (194 vs. Dallas on Nov. 24, 2024). From that group, Ward's total was the second-most in a road game and the most in a victory.

- Found Ridley for a 25-yard completion late in the first quarter.
- Hit Ridley in the fourth quarter for a 47-yard pass, which was the longest of Ward's career to date, to help set up a touchdown.
- Joined Marcus Mariota as the only rookie quarterbacks in franchise history to start the first five games of a season. Mariota started the first five games as a rookie in 2015 before missing the team's sixth game.

OLB JIHAD WARD

- Contributed one tackle, four quarterback pressures and one pass defended.

LB JAMES WILLIAMS SR.

- Tied for the team lead with two special teams tackles.

S KEVIN WINSTON JR.

- Made his NFL debut. He was the last of the Titans' nine 2025 draft picks to debut with the team.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

HEAD COACH BRIAN CALLAHAN

Opening Statement:

Obviously really exciting to get a win. To show that kind of fight in a game where we had to claw our way back into it was everything that we needed to see from our football team and we've been waiting to see for a couple of weeks now. The ability to make the plays when it mattered to help us win a game. Those guys fought like crazy tonight. It was a superb effort all the way around awesome to see. Just the resilience of the team, the fight that they showed with the way things have gone for us early on this year, to come in and fight the way they fought. Even though it didn't look good in the first half, we kept battling. That's all that we ask of those guys and they did a great job. I think individually, some individual efforts, (DT) Jeff Simmons continues to play at what I think is potentially Defensive Player of the Year level. He's been phenomenal in every game he's played. I thought (CB) L'Jarius Sneed's effort on that short yardage ball, it's because he was there chasing it down. That's incredible effort to make a play and sometimes you have to have things go your way a little bit and that was great to see have happen. I think (QB) Cam (Ward) made big plays when we needed him too. Both tight ends, Gunnar (Helm) and Chig (Okonkwo), and (WR) Calvin (Ridley), when we needed the plays to be made, they made them. I think that's the critical part. It's what we've been searching for the first month of the season is guys making plays when they need to make the play. I'm really proud of the team, really proud of the fight. It's good to get a win. Now it's just one and we're going to try to keep rolling and keep stacking but I'm proud of what we showed today.

On the trouble getting (QB) Cam Ward settled into the game

I think he had some struggles early and fought his way through it which is what you have to do as a quarterback in this league. Not every quarter is going to go your way. Not every half is going to go your way. He just got reminded at halftime to put your eyes where they're supposed to be and make the throws. That's what he did in the second half. He worked his way out of a particularly slow start of the game and made the plays when we needed it.

On how important this game was for (WR) Calvin Ridley and his catch on the final drive of the game

Huge for Calvin (Ridley), right? Everything that we've been hoping to see from him. Making those plays in critical moments when we need them to be made. To see him make that catch and put us in really close range for the field goal to win the game was a huge, huge play. You can't undersell how big of a play that was. It was a high degree of difficulty on the catch and it was great to see.

On the goal line fumble and the interception turned touchdown and how that gave them hope

It was everything in the game. I mean those two plays—things just have to go your way sometimes. We feel like we haven't had a lot of that so far this year and haven't had a lot of bounces that have come in our favor. Sometimes you need that. Really though, I think the fumble out of the end zone, I think the highlight was (CB L'Jarius) Sneed's effort to go chase it down and be in the guy's body frame as he's crossing the goal line was awesome to see. Sometimes when a guy makes a pick and fumbles the ball back to you—I mean, great, we'll take it.

On what he says to the defense to keep them going

I think that's the thing I love about the team. These guys play really hard for each other and they knew it wasn't going to be perfect. They knew they had to play really good football for us to win the game. They felt that we were struggling and they didn't blink. They just played the next play and kept going. They picked each other up, kept moving down the sideline, that stuff is good to see. That's the mark of a team that has the right makeup. I've said that all along, we just haven't had much to show for it but knowing the kind of game we were in, the struggles we had offensively, particularly in the first half and even defensively, we struggled in the first quarter for sure. But they kept fighting. They kept playing the next play and finding a way to get it done and we just sort of kept chipping away at it at every turn we had and the guys made plays when we needed them to. I don't think we allowed a score in the second half. So a great effort in the second half defensively to calm it down.

On how much he hopes this will boost the team's confidence

I'm incredibly hopeful of that, that's what we've been searching for. To prove to ourselves that we're capable of winning a fourth-quarter football game. We've been in every single one of these games in the fourth quarter. As the clock turns into the fourth, we've been in striking distance. To show our ability to go close a game out is a tremendous step for us, for a young team, bunch of young players making plays. (WR) Chimere Dike on a huge return, (TE) Gunnar, Cam, these guys all made plays for us, and I think when you get these moments where you have a chance to show your mettle in a tight game at the end, it does wonders for your confidence.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

On how much of the two-minute drill was relying on instinct vs. practice

It was really well done. I think both schematically in the play selection and Cam's execution of it were spot on. That's what you need in those moments. Everything has to work together. The scheme has to be right, the answers have to be right, and you have to make the throws and catches. We did that and did it enough to win the game.

On whether they utilized analytics to make a decision whether to punt the ball or go for it in the fourth quarter

In that particular set of circumstances with what the time was on the clock, handing the ball back to them if you don't get it in field goal range is the end of the game. It kicks the game out of reach, so that's what we had talked about. If it was fourth-and-less-than-one, then we would probably go. Anything later than that, we were going to punt it because our defense was playing so well, we felt like we could flip the field back and take advantage. (We) didn't want to just hand them three points in their field position.

On the relief of ending a losing streak

I don't think about those things. Same thing we preach to the team, our goal this entire week, it's cliché and coach-speak and all that, but it's how you have to work when you're in these situations. You're just trying to go 1-0. That's all we're worried about. You go 1-0 each week and you keep trying to fight and find your way into it. You don't worry about all that stuff. Half of these guys weren't even here last year so that doesn't count on them. You just narrow your focus. You don't listen to the outside stuff and you don't worry about what's happened previously; you just push forward. Our guys do a great job, they just keep swinging. It certainly isn't the end of the season by any stretch. We have a lot of football left to play and we're going to keep doing that.

On how much of a relief this win is for him and the rest of the coaching staff

For us, just to be able to see our team come through and play that way, with that kind of resilience, that kind of effort, and make the plays needed to win the game, it's huge for us. Again, just like every loss, it's still one game. We have a lot of games left to play. I'm very proud of our staff and very proud of the way they've responded in the face of some adversity over the course of the early part of the season. (I'm) excited for what's to come. We just keep trying to stack and keep moving forward. Again one win is one win and one loss is one loss and we try to go out and win next week.

QUARTERBACK CAM WARD

On the feeling of getting the ball back in the fourth with the chance to win

Good. I think our defense played well all day, especially in crunch time getting us the stops that we needed for us to eventually win the game. We were put in one of the best situations. We had the timeout, all we needed was a field goal. We came together as an offense. I think the O-line had a good day. They pushed us to win that game.

On how it felt seeing the game-winning field goal go through

That felt good. A win, especially for my first win in a game like that, it's a big-time win. But I think the biggest thing is we just need to continue to build off of that. We've got to continue to attack the week the right way and try to get a win next week.

On bouncing back after a rough start and playing well to finish the game

It's really not that big to me, honestly. I played well previously in my career. I just have to be consistent at it. I think the second half I really saw the field better in terms of getting the ball out (and) letting my guys make plays. I think (TE) Chig (Okonkwo) and (TE) Gunnar (Helm) did that as well as the receiving core.

On if there was an adjustment that helped him see the field better

There really wasn't an adjustment from the first half to the second half as far as what they were giving me coverage-wise. It was really more of me just putting the ball in play. (If) they give it to me now, if the corner's back, I need to put the ball in play and let them make a play.

On if the coaching staff helped change his mindset at halftime

It wasn't really changing my mindset, it was more of me actually doing it. I've seen it the same way they see it for the past couple of games in terms of just letting my guys make plays. I think this is actually the first time I did that, and it ended up paying off for us. It's just the games you play the more you get experience with it and the more you get to learn your guys. That's why we are able to win this game.

On if the best games of his career have been similar to this game

I would say so. I wish I'd have started better personally, but the end of the day, it doesn't matter how you start it's how you finish.

On what makes two and four minute situations comfortable for him

That's where I want to live at. If I could play that way the entirety of a season or a game, I would. But that's not real football. To be in a position like that, defense gets you a stop, that's what you want to be in. You want to take your guys down there, have (K) Joey (Slye) make the game winning kick and celebrate.

On what went through his mind during the interception play that turned into a touchdown

What was really going through my mind was, 'Damn, I threw a pick.' It was supposed to be a (completion) to 'Rid' (WR Calvin Ridley). He was wide open and they ended up tipping it. Then you look back and see 'Lock' (WR Tyler Lockett) on the ball and they're talking about touchdown so I said touchdown. It was just a feeling. That was only the second play I had like that in my career but I mean, it was good. I think it shows the coaching staff that they emphasize on playing hard, Lockett not giving up on the play and then those guys making a play and Lockett getting a touchdown.

On the importance of connecting with Titans WR Calvin Ridley to set up for a field goal

It was real good. It was just good that we finally did it in a game. We did it all offseason, but now we're finally seeing eye-to-eye in the game. He made a ton of explosive plays for us. I think just his demeanor never changed throughout the game whether we were down and even when we had a two-minute drive, he just stayed right there and was ready to play, ready to get the ball. He's a big reason why we won today.

On the win being a springboard for more wins

I hope it can be a springboard for a lot of wins, but we just have got to continue to get better. We got one step better today and really just keep the right mindset whenever we try to win next week.

On if the team mindset changed on the sideline after the Cardinals fumble

For sure, I think that just sparked it. Him not giving up even when they gave up an explosive run on a key down like that, them boys never gave up. They were a reason why we were in this game the whole time. They also are a reason why we won the game today.

On what the win means for Titans Head Coach Brian Callahan after the ridicule he's experienced

It doesn't even say anything to what we changed day-to-day, because at the end of the day it will never be the coaches. It will always be the players. At the end of the day, we (are) always the ones that (are) on the field. They can't go complete the ball for me, they can't catch the ball for me. So it will always come down to the players. I just think our coaching staff emphasizes that every week we have to play hard. We did that today. We just have to keep on going to battle, not only for us as a team, but for the coaching staff as well.

On the chant in the locker room for Titans QB Coach Bo Hardegree

I don't even know what chant was going on. But he called one hell of a game. It would have been better, stats wise, if I would have been more efficient. If we would have been more efficient in the pass game. I think running the ball, the offensive line moved real well. They were great in the pass game today, even the running backs. I think the biggest thing is we have to be efficient every drive.

On the offensive playcalling in the two-minute

Really every play is called. It just comes down to whether I went to check it or not. I would say just us executing the call. (The) plays that we repped a hundred times through OTA's to training camp and they worked for us. I wish I would have had (WR Chimere) 'Chim' (Dike) back on one of the plays. I missed him wide through the middle (and) ended up checking it down. I just think that's something that we have to get better at.

On him celebrating in locker room for his first win after early season struggles

Me and my man (Offensive Coordinator) Coach Nick (Holz) was right. He lost his voice today. He was so happy. I think that was the biggest win, just seeing him. He stuck to it. He told us he was going to get a win and he's going to be the most excited person in the locker room, and he was. So I think it just meant something to everybody for us to finally get a win, finally know what it feels like. But we all know, we got a new team that we play next week. We play a very talented Raiders team. We just have to try to go in their place and win.

On what he said to Titans K Joey Slye in the locker room

Really good job. I'm not worried about what he did before that kick. Whether he missed it or made it, I'm worried about what he was going to do on this kick. He came through for us. He's one of the most confident people on our team and I'm glad I got him on my team. I know if I get the chance to cross the 50 (yard line), I got a chance to put points on the board.

DEFENSIVE TACKLE JEFFERY SIMMONS

On how wild the finish was

It was wild. We talk about resilience. We talk about a team that can finish in the fourth quarter, and the message at halftime (was) 'Somebody just has to make a play. Don't wait on anybody else, and make a play. Go out there and make a play. Everybody do their job.' Of course, I pay attention and a guy who (has) been working his tail off, from injuries to getting back into that feel of football, (CB L'Jarius) Sneed. That play changed the football game. With him making that play running down maybe sixty yards, that's a type of play that shows what we talk about as a team, our culture, our foundation, and what we build this team on. That right there changed the game. That's a good team win, we deserve that. That play in the end zone with (WR Tyler) Lockett, things like that just fell in our hands. You wish for plays like that, and it just so happened to happen for us. Today, that was a good win and it feels good to actually win a football game.

On how he feels talking about a win vs another loss

It's a relief. We talk about just learning, finding a way to finish games, (and) finding a way to make a play. I think that's what we talk about. We've been talking about it, just fight to the end and we showed that today. Shoutout to even the special teams plays. Things like that change games. To be able to get a turnover and take care of the ball in two minutes. We worked the hell out of two minutes' on Thursday. We worked two minutes in the game. We talk about being good in situational football and I think that showed today. In two minutes (QB) Cam (Ward) went down, had a hell of a drive, (found) 'Rid' (WR Calvin Ridley) on the sideline, and set it up for (K) Joey (Slye). It feels good as hell to finally get a win.

On what he said to QB Cam Ward before the final drive

Right when they scored that last drive, I told him, 'We're going to get you this ball back. We're going to get you this ball back and you're going to put it in the end zone.' All he said was, 'I got you.' We got him the ball, and they did what they did on the offensive side. I told him, 'That's why we drafted you (with the) number one overall pick.' His calmness, his poise in that pocket like that, I don't know how many rookie quarterbacks could have that type of poise when the game comes down to him. He knew it, the ball was in his hands and he did a hell of a job of controlling that offense and getting us down to be able to kick that field goal to win.

On what the defensive unit said to each other

I don't know if y'all saw it, but even after the turnover we had, when our offense turned over the ball, we talked about it through the week. We have to be better with sudden change and that's one thing we did a hell of a job with today. Being able to go out there on the field, we knew our offense needed the ball back. We huddled up right before we went on the field and we talked about it. We're going to get on the sideline, everybody take a deep breath, go out there, everybody do their job and get the ball back to our offense. That's just what we've been talking about pretty much this whole week. Last week, the offense turned over the ball and we ended up going on defense and giving up a touchdown. This whole week we've been just talking about keeping composure, everyone just doing their job and go put the fire out. We did a hell of a job with that.

On Ward turning it up in the fourth quarter after struggling throughout the game

I was focused on my job. I don't know how much he struggled. This is a team game. I don't know why he was struggling, but the overall thing is he went down, had a hell of a drive in the fourth quarter, and got a score. It's always a lot to fix and always a lot of things that we could get better at, but the overall message was we got a win. He did a hell of a job getting the offense in position down there to kick that field goal.

On how this win can help springboard them and give the guys confidence

Winning solves everything. When you can win a football game in the National Football League, that builds confidence. I think us winning today shows guys that we can win in this league even when we were down 21-6 going into the fourth quarter. Nobody stopped believing. We kept believing in each other that everyone was going to do their job when it really mattered. I think that's what we talked about, that blind trust. Our guy (Air-Force pilot Jacob) 'Primo' (Impellizzeri) was in there. We've been watching his documentary with them flying and whatnot. It's that blind trust that everyone is going to do their job, especially in the fourth quarter. That's what we've been talking about. It feels good as hell to finally get a win.

On what he felt when he saw the field goal go in

A relief. We know how hard it is in this league. With (Titans K) Joey (Slye), I'm sure he never wants to miss a kick. That's one guy that I see working his tail off. I've never seen a kicker work his tail off as much as Joey. In the weight room to on the field, Joey works his ass off. It came down to him and I had faith in him. I knew Joey was going to put that ball in the uprights. I told him, 'It's going to come down to you and you're going to put it in the uprights.' The belief in him to go out there and make that kick was a relief. The message was 1-0 and we finally got a win.

On what the win does for the coaching staff

I think it builds confidence for them as well. Like I said, winning takes care of everything and when you can have a staff who can come in, make adjustments, make sure they (are) calling the right plays and putting guys in position to be able to make the plays. I'm sure (head coach Brian) Callahan probably had something to do with that two-minute drive as well. He's the head coach and of course we all know he was calling the plays. I'm sure that that was a team effort from top-down. Hopefully that could help build confidence not just (with) the players, but the coaches as well.

SEASON NOTES

- PLAYOFF OPPONENTS: The Titans have six total games against five playoff teams from last season. They have home games against Kansas City, Houston, Los Angeles Chargers and Los Angeles Rams and road contests at Houston and Denver. Four of those six games are against 2024 division winners: Houston twice (AFC South), Kansas City (AFC West) and the Los Angeles Rams (NFC West). The six games against reigning playoff clubs matches the total from last year. Prior to the 2024 season, the last time the Titans had six or fewer games against reigning playoff clubs was the 2020 campaign when they had five such games.
- TV BREAKDOWN: Excluding their Week 18 matchup with the Jaguars, which has yet to be assigned a broadcasting network, the Titans are currently scheduled for 10 games on CBS and six games on FOX. Due to the NFL's flex scheduling, some contests could be moved to a different network from the one appearing on the initial schedule.
- TOP DRAFT PICKS: The Titans selected Cameron Ward with this year's first overall pick. The team will face four of the next five selected players from the draft in Travis Hunter (second overall – Jacksonville), Will Campbell (fourth overall - New England Patriots), Mason Graham (fifth overall – Cleveland) and Ashton Jeanty (sixth overall - Las Vegas).
- HEAD COACHING EXPERIENCE: There are seven NFL head coaches who were hired by their teams this offseason, and the Titans will face four of them: New Orleans' Kellen Moore, Jacksonville's Liam Coen, Las Vegas' Pete Carroll and New England's Mike Vrabel. The Titans will also face off against two of the top five longest tenured coaches: Kansas City's Andy Reid (third-longest tenure – 13 years) and the Los Angeles Rams' Sean McVay (fifth-longest tenure – nine years).
- THREE GAMES BASED UPON 2024 FINISH: Every NFL team has two intraconference games and one interconference matchup based on the previous year's standings. As a result of the Titans' fourth-place AFC South finish in 2024, they host the AFC East's fourth-place New England Patriots and the NFC South's fourth-place New Orleans Saints, and they visit the AFC North's fourth-place Cleveland Browns. Overall, the Titans' strength of schedule is .450 (130-159) based upon their opponents' combined 2024 record, the 29th most difficult schedule out of 32 NFL teams.
- TIME (ZONE) TRAVEL: The Titans will play in every continental United States time zone at least twice during the 2025 regular season. They will stay in the Central time zone for 10 matchups, including every home contest as well as at Houston. The Titans have three trips to the Eastern time zone (at Cleveland, at Jacksonville and at Indianapolis). The farthest they will travel is Santa Clara, Calif., to face the 49ers (Pacific time zone). Tennessee will visit Allegiant Stadium in Las Vegas for the first time to face the Raiders on the franchise's first trip to the state of Nevada. Other road trips include Glendale, Ariz., to meet the Cardinals and Denver, Colo., to face the Broncos (both in the Mountain time zone). This is the first time since 2019 in which the team will play in every continental U.S. time zone.
- ORIGINAL AFL TEAMS: This season, the Titans will face off against five of the other seven original AFL teams: Kansas City Chiefs (formerly Dallas Texans), New England Patriots (Boston Patriots), Los Angeles Chargers, Las Vegas Raiders (Oakland Raiders) and Denver Broncos.

WEEK-BY-WEEK NOTES

- WEEK 3 (H) & WEEK 8 (A) vs. INDIANAPOLIS COLTS: The Titans look to end the Colts' four-game winning streak in the rivalry. Prior to the Colts' streak, the Titans won five consecutive matchups in the series from 2020-22. Colts third-year head coach Shane Steichen served as the offensive coordinator of the Philadelphia Eagles at the same time that Titans defensive coordinator Dennard Wilson was on the Eagles staff as defensive backs coach (2021) and defensive backs coach/defensive passing game coordinator (2022), culminating with Philadelphia's appearance in Super Bowl LVII.
- WEEK 4 (A) & WEEK 11 (H) vs. HOUSTON TEXANS: The reigning AFC South champion Texans have won the division the last two years. The two teams have split the season series in six of the last eight years, including last year when the Titans captured a 32-27 victory at Houston in November before falling at home in the season finale, 23-14. The Titans have a slight advantage in the series, leading 24-22 in 46 matchups since 2002. The Texans offense will feature first-time offensive coordinator Nick Caley calling plays for third-year quarterback CJ Stroud.

- WEEK 6 at LAS VEGAS RAIDERS: In a clash between two of the original members of the American Football League, the Titans trek to Nevada for the first time in franchise history when they take on the Las Vegas Raiders at Allegiant Stadium. The last time Tennessee traveled to face the Raiders was 2019, the franchise's final season in Oakland before it relocated to Las Vegas in 2020. Tennessee put up 21 unanswered points in the second half to defeat the Raiders 42-21. The Raiders hold a 30-22 advantage in the all-time series, including wins in all four postseason meetings. The Titans have won the last two meetings, most recently a 24-22 win in September of 2022 at Nissan Stadium in Nashville.
- WEEK 7 vs. NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS: The Titans will host New England for the first time since Mike Vrabel became New England's head coach after spending six seasons (2018-23) at the Titans helm. The Titans hosted the Patriots last season and won 20-17. Outside linebacker Harold Landry III signed with the Patriots during the 2025 offseason after spending his first seven NFL seasons with the Titans and rising to eighth in franchise history in career sacks (50.5). In addition to Vrabel, the Patriots staff includes several other former Titans coaches, including current Patriots defensive coordinator Terrell Williams.
- WEEK 9 vs. LOS ANGELES CHARGERS: The Titans and Chargers meet for the fourth consecutive season. Most recently, the Chargers captured a 27-17 victory when the Titans traveled to SoFi Stadium in 2024. The last time the Titans hosted the Chargers, Tennessee won 27-24 in overtime on Sept. 17, 2023. The Titans have won the last three matchups at Nissan Stadium dating back to 2013. The rivalry dates back to the inaugural 1960 AFL season, with the Chargers owning a 30-19-1 lead in the series. The two franchises met in the first two AFL Championship games (1960-61), with the Houston Oilers capturing the title on both occasions.
- WEEK 10 (BYE): The Week 10 bye comes five weeks later than the Week 5 bye the Titans had in 2024. Week 10 marks the latest bye the Titans have had since the 2021 season, when their bye was Week 13.
- WEEK 12 vs. SEATTLE SEAHAWKS: Two second-year head coaches meet for the first time in the regular season when Seattle's Mike Macdonald and Tennessee's Brian Callahan lead their teams. The clubs held joint practices and played a preseason game in Nashville during the 2024 preseason. Seattle pulled out a 20-17 victory during their last visit to Nissan Stadium on Christmas Eve in 2023. The only postseason matchup between the franchises came in the 1988 Wild Card round when the Oilers defeated the Seahawks 23-20 in overtime. This year's game could feature two newly-acquired quarterbacks with Tennessee's Cameron Ward, taken with the first overall draft pick in 2025, and Seattle's Sam Darnold, the 2025 unrestricted free agent addition for the Seahawks and former number three overall selection in 2018.
- WEEK 13 (H) & WEEK 18 (A) vs. JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS: The annual Titans-Jaguars series heads into its 31st season since the Jaguars' inaugural 1995 campaign. This year, the contest could feature the top two draft picks of the 2025 class: Titans quarterback Cameron Ward and wide receiver/cornerback Travis Hunter, who the Jaguars drafted with the second-overall pick after trading up. The Titans, who lead the all-time series 35-26 (including postseason), look to regain the momentum in the series after being swept by the Jaguars in 2024.
- WEEK 14 at CLEVELAND BROWNS: The Titans travel to Cleveland to face the Browns in the 70th meeting between the teams, including the postseason. The Browns hold a 37-32 lead in the all-time series, winning the most recent matchup 27-3 when Tennessee last visited Huntington Bank Field in September 2023. The only playoff game between the two teams came in the Wild Card round of the 1988 postseason, with the Oilers pulling out a 24-23 victory on the road in Cleveland.
- WEEK 15 at SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS: The Titans travel to Levi's Stadium in Santa Clara, Calif., for the second time in the venue's history and the first time since 2017. The teams last met in 2021 for a 20-17 Titans win on a Thursday night at Nissan Stadium in Nashville. The 49ers hold a 9-6 lead in the all-time series. Quarterback Brock Purdy enters his fourth NFL season with the 49ers, who are also led by the 2023 AP Offensive Player of the Year, running back Christian McCaffrey.

- WEEK 16 vs. KANSAS CITY CHIEFS: The Titans host the Kansas City Chiefs for the first time since 2021, when the Titans won by a final score of 27-3. The series between two original AFL rivals dates back to 1960, with the Chiefs holding a 28-24 edge in the series. Titans first-year general manager Mike Borgonzi spent the past 16 years with the Chiefs organization, most recently serving as Kansas City's assistant general manager.

- WEEK 17 vs. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS: The Titans will host the Saints and first-year head coach Kellen Moore when New Orleans travels to Nashville for the first time since 2021. The last two meetings between the two teams have been decided by a total of three points, with the Saints winning 16-15 in the 2023 season opener at the Caesars Superdome and the Titans winning 23-21 in November 2021 at Nissan Stadium. The Titans hold a 9-7-1 record in the all-time series.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 2025

WHAT TO LOOK FOR – TEAM

- The Titans franchise (496 all-time wins) needs four wins to reach 500 all-time wins, including the regular season and postseason.

LS MORGAN COX

- Enters 2025 ranked sixth in the NFL in career games played among active players (233 entering 2025).
- By appearing in all 17 contests in 2025, he will reach 250 career games. Prior to 2025, 56 players have reached the mark during the Super Bowl era (1966–present).

P JOHNNY HEKKER

- Needs 37 punts in 2025 to reach 1,000 for his career (963 entering 2025). He would join 26 other players who reached the mark prior to 2025.
- Can record his 11th career season with a net punting average of at least 42.0 yards. His 10 such seasons entering 2025 are more than any other NFL player.

S AMANI HOOKER

- Needs three interceptions (12 entering 2025) to become the seventh player in the franchise's "Titans era" (1999–present) to reach 15 career interceptions.

OLB ARDEN KEY

- Can record his third consecutive season with at least six sacks since joining the team in 2023.

WR TYLER LOCKETT

- Enters 2025 as one of five NFL players with at least 500 receiving yards in each of the past 10 seasons, along with DeAndre Hopkins, Amari Cooper, Mike Evans and Travis Kelce.
- Needs 39 receptions (661 entering 2025) to reach 700 for his career.
- Needs 406 receiving yards (8,594 entering 2025) to reach 9,000 for his career.

TE CHIG OKONKWO

- Can join Frank Wycheck (six consecutive seasons) and Delanie Walker (five) as the only tight ends in franchise history to record at least 50 receptions in three consecutive seasons.
- Can join Frank Wycheck (seven consecutive seasons) and Delanie Walker (five) as the only tight ends in franchise history to record at least 450 receiving yards in four consecutive seasons.
- Can become the franchise's fourth player to begin his NFL career with four consecutive seasons in which he posted at least 30 receptions and 400 receiving yards. He would join Ernest Givins (nine straight seasons), Charlie Hennigan (six) and Kendall Wright (four). Okonkwo already became the first franchise tight end to do so in the first three seasons of his career.

RB TONY POLLARD

- Needs 300 rushing yards in 2025 to reach 5,000 for his career (4,700 rushing yards entering 2025).
- Can notch his fourth consecutive season with at least 1,000 rushing yards.

- Looks to extend his streak to five consecutive seasons with at least 1,000 scrimmage yards.
- Joins Derrick Henry as the NFL's only players entering 2025 holding an active streak of three consecutive seasons with at least 1,300 scrimmage yards.

WR CALVIN RIDLEY

Chad Brinker and Mike Borgonzi recap the 2025 NFL Draft

Chad Brinker serves as president of football operations for the Titans. He joined the Titans in 2023 as assistant general manager before being promoted to his current position in 2024. In his role, Brinker provides executive leadership and direct oversight for the entire football staff, reporting directly to Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk.

Since his arrival in Tennessee, Brinker's progressive approach has led to several initiatives aimed at moving the organization forward. He spearheaded the club's extensive search for a new general manager in 2025, resulting in the hiring of Mike Borgonzi. Brinker was also a pillar in the team's comprehensive search for head coach Brian Callahan in 2024. Additionally, he reshaped and refined the foundation of the team's analytics department from the ground up, while building and executing the 2024 and 2025 offseason strategies for player acquisitions in both free agency and the draft.

An NFL personnel veteran, Brinker embodies core strengths focused in executive leadership, strategic operations, financial analysis, and talent evaluation. His dual background in football operations merged with a business acumen gained from an MBA at Northwestern University's Kellogg School of Management further developed his skills as a team builder and strategic leader both on and off the field.

Prior to joining the Titans, Brinker spent 13 years with the Green Bay Packers in a variety of roles as a talent evaluator and strategic counselor to Packers leadership. In his initial season with the Packers, he collected his first Super Bowl championship when the team defeated the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XLV.

Throughout his experience with the Packers, he served as a pro and college scout; led strategy for unrestricted free agency and undrafted free agent processes; handled player contracts, salary cap administration, and roster management; and advised the general manager and executive vice president of football operations on team needs in free agency and drafts, always with an eye on long-term vision. The Packers won the NFC North Division eight times and drafted 13 Pro Bowl Players during his tenure.

Brinker also owns corporate business experience with two Fortune 100 companies in the pharmaceutical and medical device industries. He serves as an executive council member on the Freed-Hardeman University President's Council and has shared his expertise as a guest lecturer in the Sports Marketing program at Freed-Hardeman and the Sports Administration program at his alma mater, Ohio University.

A native of Martins Ferry, Ohio, Brinker first entered the NFL in 2003 as an undrafted free agent running back with the New York Jets. He holds two degrees from Ohio University, including a master's degree in sports administration, where he was a two-sport athlete and a two-time All-Mid-American Conference selection at running back. He was also selected as Ohio University's Male Athlete of the Year in 2003.

Brinker and his wife, Rachelle, have three children. In addition to prioritizing time with his family, he enjoys reading, teaching, traveling, and spending time outdoors.

Mike Borgonzi was named the 15th general manager in franchise history on Jan. 17, 2025.

Borgonzi arrived in Tennessee with 16 years of experience with the Kansas City Chiefs. For the last four seasons, he served as Kansas City's assistant general manager.

"Mike's experience speaks for itself: he has been part of the core team that delivered five AFC championships and three Super Bowls over the past six seasons," said Titans Controlling Owner Amy Adams Strunk. "It's the type of standard I want to build here in Tennessee. I know we have a lot of work ahead of us, and I'm excited for Mike to get started."

"During Mike's 16 years in the league, he has been a key part of transforming the Chiefs from a two-win team to a three-time Super Bowl champion," said Titans President of Football Operations Chad Brinker. "During our meetings, he articulated a clear plan to build a championship standard in Nashville through consistency, discipline, and hard work. I've admired him for many years and I'm thrilled to add him to the team as our general manager."

In Borgonzi's first offseason in Tennessee, the Titans acquired several veteran free agents. Among the most notable signings were tackle Dan Moore Jr. (previously with Pittsburgh); guard Kevin Zeitler (Detroit); linebacker Cody Barton (Denver); outside linebacker Dre'Mont Jones (Seattle); wide receivers Van Jefferson (Pittsburgh) and Tyler Lockett (Seattle); safety Xavier Woods (Carolina); punter Johnny Hekker (Carolina); and kicker Joey Slye (New England).

In April, Borgonzi led the process that concluded with the selection of Miami (Fla.) quarterback Cam Ward with the first overall pick in the 2025 NFL Draft. The team's nine total draft choices also included UCLA outside linebacker Oluwafemi Oladejo (second round), Penn State safety Kevin Winston Jr. (third round), Florida wide receiver Chimere Dike (fourth round), Texas tight end Gunnar Helm (fourth round), Stanford wide receiver Elic Ayomanor (fourth round), Sacramento State offensive lineman Jackson Slater (fifth round), California cornerback Marcus Harris (sixth round) and Michigan running back Kalel Mullings (sixth round).

During Borgonzi's time in Kansas City, he contributed to 12 playoff seasons (2010, 2013, 2015-24) and 10 AFC West titles (2010, 2016-24). Borgonzi helped construct a roster that won the AFC five times (2019-20, 2022-24) and captured three Super Bowl championships (2019, 2022-23) over a six-season span.

From 2017 to 2024, Borgonzi worked under Chiefs general manager Brett Veach. As the assistant general manager from 2021 through 2024, he supervised and directed the college and professional scouting operations while closely supporting and advising Veach with the club's roster management and player acquisition via the NFL Draft, free agency, waiver claims and trades. During his four seasons as assistant general manager, the Chiefs built a league-best 52-16 regular-season record (.765). In the same four-year span, 10 different Kansas City players earned a combined 23 Pro Bowl selections: tackle Orlando Brown Jr. (2021-22), wide receiver Tyreek Hill (2021), center Creed Humphrey (2022-24), defensive tackle Chris Jones (2021-24), tight end Travis Kelce (2021-24), quarterback Patrick Mahomes (2021-23), safety Tyrann Mathieu (2021), guard Trey Smith (2024), guard Joe Thuney (2022-24) and punter Tommy Townsend (2022).

The Chiefs entered the 2024 postseason after capturing their ninth consecutive AFC West crown. They tied the Detroit Lions for the NFL's best record at 15-2, setting a franchise record for wins in a regular season and securing the AFC's top seed. Twenty original Chiefs draft picks started at least six games for the team during the 2024 regular season. Kansas City had five players voted to the Pro Bowl, marking the seventh consecutive year in which it had at least five players earn the honor.

Prior to his promotion to assistant general manager, Borgonzi served as director of football operations (2018-20), director of player personnel (2017), co-director of player personnel (2015-16), assistant director of pro scouting (2013-14), pro personnel scout (2011-12) and manager of football operations (2010). He joined the Chiefs in 2009 as the club's college scouting administrator.

Before landing in the NFL with the Chiefs, Borgonzi spent the 2007 and 2008 seasons at Boston College, where he was the assistant recruiting coordinator. He also coached tight ends at Amherst College in 2002 before working in the financial sector in Boston for several years.

A native of Everett, Mass., Borgonzi graduated from Brown University, where he was a four-year starter at fullback and was a three-time All-Ivy League selection.

He and his wife, Jill, have a son, Joseph, and a daughter, Nina. His brother, Dave, has served as the linebackers coach for the Indianapolis Colts and Chicago Bears and currently serves as the linebackers coach for the Dallas Cowboys.

Brian Callahan was named head coach of the Titans on Jan. 24, 2024, becoming the 20th head coach in franchise history.

During his first season as head coach, Callahan guided a team that underwent significant personnel changes. In Week 1, 11 players started for the team who were added during the offseason—five players on offense and six on defense. Two of those players on offense, running back Tony Pollard (1,079 rushing yards) and wide receiver Calvin Ridley (1,017 receiving yards), went on to produce 1,000-yard seasons rushing and receiving, respectively.

All seven members of the Titans' 2024 draft class saw action in at least seven games as rookies. First-rounder JC Latham was the NFL's only rookie in 2024 to start 17 games at left tackle, while second-rounder T'Vondre Sweat appeared in every game and led all rookie defensive linemen in defensive snaps (667). Fifth-round cornerback Jarvis Brownlee Jr. was one of five NFL rookie defensive backs to start at least 14 games in 2024.

Defensively, the Titans finished Callahan's first season ranked second overall (311.2 opponent yards per game) and second in passing defense (177.3) despite a unit that suffered significant injuries. The starting secondary of safety Quandre Diggs (eight games played), safety Amani Hooker (14 games played), cornerback L'Jarius Sneed (five games played) and cornerback Chidobe Awuzie (eight games played) missed a combined total of 33 games.

Callahan, who at age 40 became the second-youngest head coach in Titans/Oilers history behind Jeff Fisher (36), arrived in Tennessee with 18 years of coaching experience and 14 years of NFL coaching experience, including the previous five seasons as the offensive coordinator for the Cincinnati Bengals.

During his time in Cincinnati, Callahan served under head coach Zac Taylor and was part of two AFC North titles, two AFC Championship appearances and a Super Bowl berth. He also helped guide quarterback Joe Burrow from the No. 1 overall draft pick in 2020 to multiple single-season franchise records by his second year and Pro Bowl honors within three years.

Over Callahan's final three seasons in Cincinnati (2021-23), the Bengals offense ranked in the NFL's top 10 in several categories: sixth in scoring (24.9), seventh in passing (250.8 yards per game), seventh in red-zone efficiency (61.5 percent), 10th in third-down percentage (41.0) and sixth in time of possession (31:00).

From the time Burrow entered the NFL in 2020 through the 2023 campaign, he recorded the league's seventh-best passer rating (98.6) and tied for the third-best completion percentage (68.0). His 270.8 passing yards per game in that period ranked fifth.

Additionally, Cincinnati's offense under Callahan featured a trio of 1,000-yard wide receivers in Ja'Marr Chase (2021-23), Tee Higgins (2021-22) and Tyler Boyd (2019). Chase quickly emerged as one of the NFL's top wide receivers after being drafted in the first round in 2021. He earned three consecutive Pro Bowl nods and became the eighth player in NFL history to reach 1,000 receiving yards in each of his first three career seasons, including 1,216 yards on a career-high 100 receptions in 2023. Boyd's statistical highlights included 1,046 receiving yards in 2019, while Higgins contributed 1,091 yards in 2021 and 1,029 yards in 2022.

Bengals running back Joe Mixon exceeded 1,000 scrimmage yards four times in five seasons with Callahan as his offensive coordinator. From 2019 through 2023, he joined Christian McCaffrey and Aaron Jones as the NFL's only players with at least 4,500 rushing yards (4,618) and 1,500 receiving yards (1,556). Mixon was named to the Pro Bowl in 2021.

In 2023, Burrow was limited to 10 total games due to multiple injuries. Backup Jake Browning stepped into the lineup, and in the first action of his career, he registered a season passer rating of 98.4—qualifying as the seventh-best number in the NFL.

In 2022, the Bengals ranked seventh in the NFL in points per game (26.1), eighth in total offense (360.5 yards per game) and fifth in passing offense (265.0). Burrow earned his first career Pro Bowl selection while setting single-season franchise records for completions (414) and touchdown passes (35). The third-year signal caller also placed fifth in the NFL with 4,475 passing yards. The team's new-look offensive line came together during the season and did not allow more than two sacks in any of the final eight games of the regular season.

En route to an appearance in Super Bowl LVI, the 2021 Bengals ranked seventh in passing offense (259.0 yards per game) and tied for seventh in points per game (27.1). Burrow, after returning from a knee injury suffered in 2020, led the NFL in completion percentage (70.4) and established single-season Bengals records for passing yards (4,611) and passer rating (108.3). Chase was named the AP Offensive Rookie of the Year after posting a team-record 1,455 receiving yards, while Mixon placed third in the NFL in rushing yards (1,205).

In 2020, Callahan helped develop Burrow as a rookie despite facing the challenges associated with the COVID-19 pandemic, including the cancellation of all in-person NFL offseason programs. Before a knee injury ended his rookie campaign in Week 11, Burrow's 264 completions were the most ever by an NFL quarterback through his first 10 career games, while his 2,688 passing yards were fifth.

Callahan joined the Bengals after spending 2018 as the quarterbacks coach for the Oakland Raiders. Under his tutelage, Raiders quarterback Derek Carr passed for a then-career-high 4,049 yards and led the AFC with a 68.9 completion percentage.

From 2016 to 2017, Callahan was the quarterbacks coach for the Detroit Lions. Working with Matthew Stafford, he helped the veteran finish third in passing yards (4,446) and fourth in passing touchdowns (29) in 2017, while posting a then-career-best 99.3 passer rating. In 2016, Stafford's eight game-winning drives were the most by a quarterback in a season since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger.

Callahan broke into the NFL with the Denver Broncos in 2010 and served in multiple roles for the franchise through 2015. He began as a coaching assistant (2010) before transitioning to offensive quality control coach (2011-12), offensive assistant coach (2013-14) and finally offensive assistant/quarterbacks coach (2015). In 2013, Broncos quarterback Peyton Manning won the Associated Press NFL MVP award after completing a league-record 55 touchdown passes. Callahan's tenure in Denver was capped by the team's victory in Super Bowl 50 following the 2015 campaign. Before reaching the NFL, Callahan spent time at his alma mater, UCLA, as a graduate assistant in 2006 and 2007. He then spent two years (2008-09) as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for Junipero Serra High School in San Mateo, Calif.

As a former walk-on quarterback at UCLA, he appeared in 13 games as a holder on PATs. He earned a bachelor's degree in sociology in 2006 and added a master's in education in 2008.

Born in Champaign, Ill., Callahan attended De La Salle High School in Concord, Calif., where he was a part of the school's national-record 151-game winning streak and a No. 1 national ranking.

He and his wife, Allyson, have a son, Ronan, and a daughter, Norah. He is the son of longtime NFL coach Bill Callahan, the current Titans offensive line coach.

TITANS 2025 ASSISTANT COACHES

JOHN FASSEL SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Click For Complete Online Bio

- Fassel joined the Titans in 2025 after spending the previous five seasons with the Dallas Cowboys.
- After Fassel's arrival in Dallas in 2020, the Cowboys improved from the league's bottom-ranked kick return and punt coverage units to top five marks in both categories during his tenure.
- Under Fassel's direction in 2024, second-year kicker Brandon Aubrey connected on a franchise-record 40 field goals, tying for the third-highest total in NFL history. The Cowboys also ranked second in the league with 1,091 kickoff return yards, led the NFL with an NFL-record 32.1 kickoff return average, and were the only team to return multiple kickoffs for touchdowns. Aubrey and second year returner KaVontae Turpin received AP All-Pro honors.
- In 2023, Cowboys punter Bryan Anger led the NFC with a 51.4 gross average.
- Before his time in Dallas, Fassel served as special teams coordinator for the Los Angeles Rams for eight seasons from 2012-19. During those eight seasons, the Rams led the NFL in net yards per punt (43.3) and ranked second in gross yards per punt (46.9). Fassel helped Los Angeles to a Super Bowl berth during the 2018 season. In 2013, Fassel oversaw a punt team that set the single-season NFL record for net punting average (46.0), led by punter Johnny Hekker.
- Fassel joined the Rams after three seasons (2009-11) with the Oakland Raiders as special teams coordinator. He began his NFL coaching career as an assistant special teams coach with the Baltimore Ravens.
- Prior to his NFL career, Fassel was the head coach and assistant athletic director at New Mexico Highlands University. His coaching career also included stops at Idaho State (2001) and with the Amsterdam Admirals of NFL Europe (2000) and Bucknell University (1999, 2002).
- The Anaheim, Calif., native played wide receiver at Weber State. He signed as an undrafted free agent with the Colts following his college playing career.
- Fassel is the son of the late NFL coach Jim Fassel.

- At the University of Colorado, Holz was a three-year letter winner (2004-06) as a wide receiver and holder.

DENNARD WILSON DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Click For Complete Online Bio

- Wilson arrived in Tennessee in 2024 with 12 years of NFL coaching experience, including nine seasons leading defensive back units.
- In 2024, Wilson's first season as an NFL defensive coordinator, the Titans ranked second overall in total defense (311.2 opponent yards per game) and second in passing defense (177.3). The unit tied for the fifth-fewest first downs allowed per game (18.5) and tied for the fifth-fewest opponent yards allowed per play (5.2).
- Prior to joining the Titans, Wilson spent the 2023 campaign as the defensive backs coach with the Baltimore Ravens, working with head coach John Harbaugh and defensive coordinator Mike Macdonald. The defense ranked first in points allowed (16.5 per game), sixth overall (301.4 yards allowed per game), sixth in pass defense (191.9 yards per game), first in sacks (60) and third in interceptions (18). Second-year safety Kyle Hamilton earned All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors.
- Before he joined the Ravens, Wilson spent two seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles, where he served as defensive passing game coordinator/defensive backs (2022) and a defensive backs coach (2021). In 2022, the Eagles ranked first in the NFL in pass defense (179.8 yards per game) en route to an appearance in Super Bowl LVII.
- Wilson spent four total seasons (2017-20) with the New York Jets—initially as defensive backs coach (2017-18) and then passing game coordinator/defensive backs (2019-20). While there he oversaw the development of safeties Jamal Adams and Marcus Maye.
- Wilson's initial NFL coaching job was with the St. Louis/Los Angeles Rams under head coach Jeff Fisher. He began his tenure with the Rams as a defensive quality control coach (2012-14) and then spent two years as the defensive backs coach (2015-16).
- From 2008 to 2011, he was employed by the Chicago Bears as a pro scout.
- The Upper Marlboro, Md., native was a three-year starter and team captain as a corner and safety at the University of Maryland. He entered the NFL in 2004 as a rookie free agent with Washington.

NICK HOLZ OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Click For Complete Online Bio

- Holz (pronounced "HOLTS") arrived in Tennessee in 2024 with 11 years of NFL coaching experience and 16 total years of coaching experience.
- In 2024, Holz helped direct a Titans offense that featured running back Tony Pollard (1,079 rushing yards) and wide receiver Calvin Ridley (1,017 receiving yards), who produced 1,000-yard seasons rushing and receiving, respectively.
- He joined the Titans after spending the 2023 campaign as the passing game coordinator for the Jacksonville Jaguars. Working in an offense that featured quarterback Trevor Lawrence, he helped the unit rank ninth in passing (242.7 yards per game) and 13th in points scored (22.2 points per game). Calvin Ridley posted 1,016 receiving yards and eight touchdowns, while Evan Engram led all NFL tight ends with 114 receptions for 963 yards.
- Before his stint in Jacksonville, Holz was the offensive coordinator for UNLV in 2022, which followed 10 campaigns with the Oakland/Las Vegas Raiders (2012-21). With the Raiders, he served in a variety of roles on offense, mostly focused on wide receivers. He served on the staff of three different Raiders head coaches and worked with a notable list of offensive minds, including Greg Knapp, Greg Olson, Bill Musgrave and Jon Gruden.
- Prior to joining the Raiders, Holz was an assistant at Stanford under head coach Jim Harbaugh (2008-10) and David Shaw (2011). As an assistant quarterbacks coach, he helped Andrew Luck earn first-team All-American honors and finish as the runner-up in Heisman Trophy voting two times.
- Holz began his collegiate coaching career in 2007 at Nebraska, where he served as offensive quality control coach and video intern for the Cornhuskers under head coach Bill Callahan.

BEN BLOOM OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

Click For Complete Online Bio

- Bloom arrived in Tennessee in 2024 with 15 years of experience coaching in the NFL. He was hired after spending the previous four campaigns with the Cleveland Browns.
- In 2024, Bloom helped outside linebackers Harold Landry III (9.0 sacks) and Arden Key (6.5) rank first and second in sacks on the team, respectively, and combine for 15.5 sacks. Key's total tied a career high. Landry was one of three NFL players in 2024 that recorded at least 70 tackles and 15 tackles for loss (Andrew Van Ginkel and Brian Burns).
- During his most recent stint with the Browns, Bloom served as senior defensive assistant in 2020, run game coordinator in 2021 and 2022, and defensive line coach in 2023. He broke into the NFL with the Browns from 2009 to 2010 and then worked nine seasons on the Dallas Cowboys staff (2011-19) before heading back to Cleveland.
- In 2023, Bloom worked with Browns defensive end Myles Garrett, who was named the AP Defensive Player of the Year after leading the Browns and tying for seventh in the NFL with 14 sacks. As a unit, the Browns led the NFL in total defense (270.2 opponent yards per game), passing defense (164.7) and third-down defense (29.1 percent).
- Bloom was the linebackers coach for the Cowboys in his final two seasons with the organization (2018-19) and was instrumental in Leighton Vander Esch and Jaylon Smith earning Pro Bowl honors.
- Prior to entering the NFL, Bloom spent four years in the college coaching ranks, lastly as the assistant defensive line coach at Harvard University.

TITANS 2025 ASSISTANT COACHES

in 2008. That followed three years (2005-07) as defensive line/graduate assistant at Tufts University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in history in 2005 and master's in education in 2008.

- A native of Wellesley, Mass., Bloom was a three-year letter winner on the Tufts offensive line.

FRANK BUSH LINEBACKERS

Click For Complete Online Bio

- Bush rejoined the Titans as linebackers coach in 2024, beginning his third coaching stint with the franchise that also drafted him as a player in 1985. Prior to 2024, he spent 39 total NFL seasons as a player (1985-86), scout (1987-91) and coach (1992-present).
- In 2024, Bush helped newcomer Kenneth Murray Jr. lead the defense with 95 total tackles. Bush's group was forced to overcome a significant number of games missed due to injuries to Murray (three games), Jack Gibbens (seven), Otis Reese IV (four) and Chance Campbell (17) while also absorbing the midseason trade of starter Ernest Jones IV.
- From 2021 to 2023, Bush coached the Atlanta Falcons linebackers. In his final season there, his platoon was part of an overall unit that ranked eighth in passing defense (202.9 opponent yards per game), third in third-down efficiency (33.8 percent) and fourth in red-zone efficiency (45.3 touchdown percent).
- Prior to joining Atlanta's staff, Bush spent two seasons (2019-20) with the New York Jets as assistant head coach defense/linebackers coach and was promoted to defensive coordinator for the final four games of the 2020 season.
- Prior to joining the Jets, Bush served two seasons with the Dolphins as the team's assistant head coach/linebackers coach (2017-18).
- Returning to the Oilers/Titans organization in 2011, Bush spent two seasons in Tennessee (2011-12) and helped a trio of young linebackers—Akeem Ayers, Colin McCarthy and Zach Brown—earn starting roles.
- Bush also coached for the St. Louis/Los Angeles Rams (2013-16), Arizona Cardinals (2004-06) and Denver Broncos (1995-03). In his time with Denver, Bush earned two Super Bowl rings (XXXII and XXXIII).
- The Athens, Ga., native was a three-year starter at North Carolina State and was selected in the fifth round by the Oilers in the 1985 NFL Draft. A starter at linebacker as a rookie, Bush earned All-Rookie honors before an injury in his second season and subsequent diagnosis of a narrow spinal canal forced an early end to his playing career.
- Following his on-field career with the Oilers, he joined the team as a college scout for five seasons (1987-91) before transitioning to the coaching staff, initially as the team's linebackers coach (1992) and then as the defensive quality control/linebackers coach (1993-94).

BILL CALLAHAN OFFENSIVE LINE

Click For Complete Online Bio

- Callahan was hired by the Titans as offensive line coach in 2024, arriving with 46 years of coaching experience, including 25 years in the NFL.
- He previously spent a total of six seasons as a head coach with the Oakland Raiders (2002-03) and the University of Nebraska (2004-07), in addition to part of one season as an interim head coach with the Washington Commanders (2019).
- In 2024, Callahan helped develop first-round pick JC Latham, who started all 17 games at left tackle. Second-year left guard Peter Skoronski also started every game, while right guard Dillon Radunz established a career high with 15 starts.
- Prior to joining the Titans, Callahan spent 22 seasons coaching offensive lines and seven years as an offensive coordinator. Those teams went to the playoffs 11 times. He helped his side of the ball finish with the No. 1 ranked rushing offense in 2000 (Raiders) and 2009 (Jets), as well as the top ranked passing offense in 2002 (Raiders). In the process, 14 offensive linemen under his tutelage were selected to a total of 35 Pro Bowls.

- When he joined the Titans, it marked the first time that he and his son, Titans head coach Brian Callahan, were employed by the same organization.
- Before venturing to Tennessee, he spent four years as the offensive line coach for the Cleveland Browns (2020-23). During that span, the Browns qualified for the playoffs twice and ranked third in the NFL with an average of 139.6 rushing yards per game.
- Callahan was on Washington's coaching staff from 2015 to 2019, working mostly with the offensive line and serving as interim head coach for the final 11 games in 2019.
- Callahan spent six seasons with the Oakland Raiders from 1998 to 2003, first as offensive coordinator before becoming the 13th head coach in Raiders history in 2002. The 2002 squad set a franchise record for total offense with an NFL-best 6,237 yards and led the NFL in passing yards (4,689) en route to an appearance in Super Bowl XXXVII. He became the fourth rookie head coach in NFL history to earn a Super Bowl berth.
- His time in the NFL also includes stints with the Dallas Cowboys (2012-14), New York Jets (2008-11) and Philadelphia Eagles (1995-97).
- Callahan served as head coach at the University of Nebraska from 2004 to 2007. He led the Cornhuskers to a Big 12 Conference Championship Game appearance in 2006 and two bowl invitations in his four seasons.
- His collegiate coaching experience also involved stops at Illinois (1980-86), Northern Arizona (1987-88), Southern Illinois (1989) and Wisconsin (1990-94).
- The Chicago, Ill., native started at quarterback for three seasons (1975-77) at Illinois Benedictine (Iisle, Ill.), where he earned honorable-mention All-America honors in 1976 and 1977.

BO HARDEGREE QUARTERBACKS

Click For Complete Online Bio

- Hardegree was hired by the Titans in 2024 after spending two campaigns (2022-23) with the Las Vegas Raiders.
- In 2024, Hardegree aided the development of second-year quarterback Will Levis, while veteran Mason Rudolph started five games, his highest total in a season since 2019.
- A Jackson, Tenn., native and University of Tennessee product, Hardegree arrived at the Titans with 16 total years of coaching experience and 10 seasons coaching in the NFL.
- Hardegree joined the Raiders as quarterbacks coach in 2022 and was promoted to interim offensive coordinator for the final nine games of 2023. Under Hardegree's tutelage as an offensive coordinator, fourth-round rookie Aidan O'Connell passed for 1,905 yards and 11 touchdowns while posting the third-best passer rating (83.9) among all qualifying 2023 rookies.
- With the Patriots in 2021, Hardegree played a key role in the development of Patriots first-round pick Mac Jones, who led all rookie quarterbacks with 3,801 passing yards and 22 touchdowns.
- Prior to joining the Patriots, Hardegree logged two years with the New York Jets (2019-20) and three seasons as quarterbacks coach of the Miami Dolphins (2016-18).
- After beginning his coaching career at Duke (2008-10), he was on the staff at Louisiana State (2011-13) before his initial NFL stints with the Denver Broncos (2014) and Chicago Bears (2015).
- At the University of Tennessee, Hardegree played quarterback and was a member of SEC Eastern Division championship teams in 2004 and 2007.

TITANS 2025 ASSISTANT COACHES

STEVE JACKSON SECONDARY/SAFETIES

Click For Complete Online Bio

- Jackson returned to the Titans in 2024 as secondary/safeties coach after previously serving on the staff as assistant secondary coach in 2016 and 2017.
- A former Houston Oilers draft pick, Jackson played nine seasons in the NFL—all with the Oilers/Titans from 1991 to 1999.
- In 2024, Jackson helped the Titans finish second in passing defense (177.3) and seventh in opponent passing yards per attempt (6.80). The unit was forced to overcome significant time missed due to injuries to the starting secondary of safety Quandre Diggs (nine games missed), safety Amani Hooker (three), cornerback L'Jarius Sneed (12) and cornerback Chidobe Awuzie (nine).

NISSAN STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of an exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

Eight years later, on Nov. 17, 2023, the Titans and Nissan North America announced a new agreement: a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that brands the new Titans home venue as 'Nissan Stadium.'

Slated for completion in 2027, the new Nissan Stadium will host Titans home games, Tennessee State University football games, concerts, large-scale events and other community events.

"This partnership is a natural extension of our already longstanding friendship with Nissan," said Burke Nihill, Titans President and CEO. "Our mission at the Titans is to Win, Serve, and Entertain. We pride ourselves on collaborating with organizations who love this city and state as much as we do, and for the past 40 years, Nissan has invested more than $10.5 billion statewide, serving as a great example of an outstanding corporate steward and community advocate. We look forward to the continued positive impact of this relationship for the Titans organization and the City of Nashville."

"Since 2015 our fans and organization have called our home 'Nissan Stadium,' and we are proud to continue that tradition in the new stadium as we deepen and expand our relationship with them," said Titans Chief Revenue Officer Adam Nuse. "The new stadium will host the world's largest events, as well as serve as a community hub for our local neighbors. We're excited to have a partner like Nissan embark on this journey with us as we look towards the future."

The partnership will feature dedicated areas in the new stadium for brand experiences and displays, innovative technology integration, and involvement in Titans broadcast platforms. Nissan also will support a to-be-determined program in the Titans' ONE Community philanthropic platform, which reaches Nashville's most underrepresented and marginalized communities with a focus on three areas – Opportunity, Neighborhoods and Education.

"Nissan Stadium is a centerpiece of the Nashville skyline and has become a household name in Middle Tennessee. It is important for Nissan to keep our name on the new stadium," said Jérémie Papin, chairperson, Nissan Americas. "As more people come to Nashville both to visit and to live in this wonderful city, Nissan Stadium is true showcase for our brand and for the career opportunities we've offered here for more than four decades. This partnership sends a strong message about the bright future for Nissan, the Titans, Nashville and the State of Tennessee."

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin. Nissan is home to more than 11,000 employees across all three locations.

"Nissan has been a strong partner to middle Tennessee for four decades, and I'm thrilled that the Titans have united with a partner that invests in our community and its people," said Nashville Mayor Freddie O'Connell. "The familiarity and trust they've established with the Titans in the last eight years will undoubtedly be a great asset as we plan for the stadium's opening in 2027."

The new Nissan stadium will be built on the east side of the current stadium campus, along Nashville's East Bank. Features of the building include: a circular translucent roof; exterior porches with panoramic views of Nashville; improved sightlines for all spectators through a range of diverse seating experiences; and a 12,000 square foot community space available for use year-round. Quarterback Cam Ward was selected by the Titans with the first overall pick in the 2025 NFL Draft. He became the first No. 1 overall pick for the franchise since running back Earl Campbell in 1978.

In five college seasons, Ward played for three different schools: Incarnate Word (2020-21), Washington State (2022-23) and Miami (2024). In 57 career games—all starts—he completed 1,516 of 2,330 passes for 18,184 yards, and his 158 touchdown passes set an NCAA Division I (FBS/FCS) record. He also totaled 399 rushes for 473 yards and 20 touchdowns.

During his graduate campaign at Miami, he started all 13 games and led the Hurricanes to a 10-3 record, giving them their first 10-win season since 2017. He earned first-team Associated Press All-America honors and was a Heisman finalist after establishing Miami's single-season records for passing yards (4,313), touchdowns (39) and completion percentage (67.2 percent, 305-for-454), while throwing only seven interceptions. He received the 2024 Davey O'Brien Award, recognizing the nation's top quarterback, and was named ACC Player of the Year, ACC Offensive Player of the Year and first-team All-ACC.

At Washington State in 2023, Ward started all 12 games and completed 324 of 486 passes for 3,732 yards and 25 touchdowns with seven interceptions. He also accounted for eight rushing touchdowns. At the conclusion of the season, he received All-Pac-12 Conference honorable mention for the second consecutive season.

Ward arrived at Washington State as a junior in 2022. He started all 13 games in his first season with the Cougars and completed 320 of 497 passes for 3,231 yards and 23 touchdowns with nine interceptions. He added five rushing touchdowns.

In 2021, Ward was a sophomore at Incarnate Word, where he was named Southland Conference Offensive Player of the Year, FCS All-American second team and a Walter Payton Award Finalist after leading UIW to Southland Conference Championship, a 10-3 record and into the second round of the FCS playoffs. His statistics included 384 completions on 590 attempts for 4,648 yards, 47 touchdowns and 10 interceptions. He set program records for single game passing yards (610), single-game passing touchdowns (seven), career passing touchdowns (71) and career passing yards (6,908).

As a freshman in 2020, Ward started in all six games at Incarnate Word during the spring season (2021) that resulted from the COVID-19 outbreak. He completed 183 of 303 passes for 2,260 yards and 24 touchdowns and was named the Jerry Rice Award winner, given to the top FCS freshman.

Ward is a native of West Columbia, Texas.

2025 Game Notes:

➤ At Denver (9/7), completed 12 of 28 passes for 112 yards in his NFL debut. Joined Marcus Mariota (2015) as the only rookie quarterbacks in franchise history to start a season opener. Became the 13th rookie starting quarterback in franchise history and the first since Will Levis in 2023. Became the 20th quarterback in the common draft era (since 1967) to be selected with the first pick in the NFL Draft and start in Week 1 of his rookie season. On his first NFL pass attempt in the first quarter, converted a third-and-10 with a short pass to Tony Pollard that went 29 yards. It led to a Titans field goal to cap their first drive.

➤ Against the L.A. Rams (9/14), completed 19 of 33 passes for 175 yards and one touchdown (82.3 passer rating), and he added four rushing attempts for eight yards. In the first half, his statistics included 10 completions, 17 attempts, 123 yards, one touchdown, no interceptions and a 100.9 passer rating. He also rushed for two first downs in the first half. In the first quarter, he delivered a 26-yard pass to Calvin Ridley, and he added a 21-yarder to Ridley in the second quarter. Rushed for three yards and a first down on fourth-and-one in the second quarter. With a nine-yard toss across the field to Elic Ayomanor late in the second quarter, he completed his first career ➤ Against Indianapolis (9/21), completed 23 of 38 passes for 219 yards with one touchdown and one interception, and added three rushing attempts for 12 yards. In the first quarter, he found Chig Okonkwo for a 22-yard completion and Calvin Ridley on a 27-yarder. In the third quarter, he led a 13-play, 73-yard touchdown drive, during which he completed five passes for 32 yards on six attempts. On a 16-play, 77-yard touchdown drive, he threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to Elic Ayomanor on fourth-and-goal in the fourth quarter. On the drive, Ward completed eight-of-11 passes for 80 yards.

➤ At Houston (9/28), while joining Marcus Mariota (2015) as the only rookie quarterbacks in franchise history to start the first four games of a season, completed 10-of-26 passes for 108 yards with one interception. He added 22 yards and a first down on two rushing attempts. In the first quarter, he found Elic Ayomanor for a 33-yard completion, his longest career completion to date. In the second quarter, he converted a third-and-six with a 22-yard pass to Calvin Ridley.

➤ At Arizona (10/5), earned his first career win as a starting quarterback, completing 21 of 39 passes for 265 yards. He engineered a 15-point fourth-quarter comeback in the win, and in the fourth quarter, he was 13-of-18 passing for 193 yards in the fourth quarter. He was credited with his first career game-winning drive, which ended with Joey Slye's game-winning field goal as time expired. Ward completed five of his six passes on the drive for 67 yards, including a 38-yard pass to Calvin Ridley to help set up the field goal. The Titans trailed by 18 points in the second quarter, which tied for the second-largest deficit by any quarterback in their first career win as a starter in the Super Bowl era (21 by Atlanta's Mike Moroski in Week 13, 1983; 18 by New York Giants' Daniel Jones in Week 3, 2019; 18 by Seattle's Jon Kitna in Week 16, 1997). Since 2000, Ward joined Vince Young (Nov. 26, 2006 against the New York Giants) as the only NFL rookie quarterbacks to win a game in which they trailed by 15 or more points in the fourth quarter. Ward's 193 fourth-quarter passing yards were the fourth-most by an NFL rookie in a game since the beginning of the 1978 season. In that span, Ward ranked behind only Tampa Bay's Jameis Winston (238 at St. Louis on Dec. 17, 2015), Houston's Davis Mills (220 vs. L.A. Rams on Oct. 31, 2021) and Washington's Jayden Daniels (194 vs. Dallas on Nov. 24, 2024). From that group, Ward's total was the second-most in a road game and the most in a victory. He found Ridley in the fourth quarter for a 47-yard pass, which was the longest of Ward's career to date, to help set up a touchdown. Ward joined Marcus Mariota as the only rookie quarterbacks in franchise history to start the first five games of a season. Mariota started the first five games as a rookie in 2015 before missing the team's sixth game.

6-4, 229, 3rd Year/3rd with Titans, Kentucky

Click for complete bio

Quarterback Will Levis is in his third season in 2025. He was selected by the Titans in the second round (33rd overall) of the 2023 NFL Draft after the Titans traded up to select him.

Levis will spend the 2025 campaign on injured reserve due to a shoulder injury.

During his first two NFL seasons, Levis totaled 21 starts. In franchise history, only Warren Moon (30), Vince Young (28) and Marcus Mariota (27) started more games at quarterback than Levis within their first two NFL seasons. Levis' career numbers through his first two campaigns included 339 completions, 556 attempts, 3,899 yards, 21 touchdowns and 16 interceptions.

In 2024, Levis finished with a team-high 301 pass attempts, 190 completions, 2,091 yards, 13 touchdowns and 81.4 passer rating. His 63.1 completion percentage qualified for the 10th-best mark in franchise history. He added 183 rushing yards on 45 attempts.

In his debut season, Levis recorded starts in all nine games in which he appeared, becoming the third rookie quarterback in franchise history to start at least nine games. Only Young (13 starts in 2006) and Mariota (12 starts in 2015) preceded him in the accomplishment. Levis' rookie passing totals included 255 attempts, 149 completions, 1,808 yards, eight touchdowns and four interceptions. His 84.2 passer rating was the second best in franchise history by a rookie quarterback (91.5 by Mariota in 2015), and the number also ranked first in NFL history among second-round quarterbacks in their rookie season (minimum 200 attempts). Levis had an additional 57 yards and a touchdown rushing.

Prior to entering the NFL, Levis spent two seasons at the University of Kentucky after transferring from Penn State. In four combined college seasons, he appeared in 39 games with 26 starts. He completed 479 of his 738 passes (64.9 percent) for 5,876 yards with 46 touchdowns and 25 interceptions. He also rushed for 742 yards and 17 touchdowns.

At Kentucky, Levis went 17-7 as a starter, tying Terry Wilson for the second-most quarterback wins since 1993. The two-time team captain completed 418 of 636 passes for 5,233 yards with 43 passing touchdowns and 11 rushing scores for the Wildcats. His six 300-yard passing games were the fourth-most in school history.

As a senior in 2022, he started 11 games at quarterback and connected on 185 of 283 passes for 2,406 yards with 19 passing scores, while ranking fourth in the SEC in pass efficiency (151.9). He finished fifth in the SEC with 19 passing scores.

As a junior in 2021, he transferred from Penn State to Kentucky and started in all 13 games, helping to lead UK to 10 wins for the fourth time in school history. He totaled 3,203 yards total offense, becoming the seventh player in school history to reach 3,000 yards of total offense in a season. He was 233-of-353 passing for 2,826 yards and 24 touchdowns, and he also registered 107 rushes for 376 yards and a team-high tying nine rushing touchdowns.

He is a native of Madison, Conn.

#20 • RB TONY POLLARD

6-0, 209, 7th Year/2nd with Titans, Memphis

Click for complete bio

Running back Tony Pollard is in his seventh NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2025. The Memphis native was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 14, 2024.

During his first year with the Titans, Pollard ranked third in the AFC and tied for 12th in the NFL with a career-best 1,079 rushing yards on a career-high 260 carries. Both numbers led the team, as did his five rushing touchdowns. With an additional 238 yards on 41 receptions, he produced a team-high 1,317 scrimmage yards—the second-best total of his career.

Prior to joining the Titans, Pollard spent five seasons (2019-23) with the Dallas Cowboys, who selected him in the fourth round (128th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft. During his time in Dallas, he appeared in 79 games with 23 starts, totaling 3,621 rushing yards and 23 touchdowns on 762 carries. With an additional 176 receptions for 1,319 yards and five receiving touchdowns, he reached 1,000 scrimmage yards in each of his final three years in Dallas while also returning 63 kickoffs for 1,500 yards, including one return for a score.

In 2023, his first season as the lead running back in Dallas, Pollard started all 17 games for the first time in his career and led the team with 1,005 rushing yards on a career-high 252 carries (4.0 avg.) with six touchdowns.

In 2022, he set career marks with 193 carries for 1,007 yards and nine scores, averaging 5.2 yards-per-carry to rank third in the NFL and earn his first Pro Bowl nod.

At the University of Memphis, he played in 40 games at running back and wide receiver, amassing 2,233 yards and 18 touchdowns on offense. He also averaged 30.1 yards per kickoff return and tied an NCAA record with seven kickoff returns for touchdowns.

2025 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/7), started and led the team with 60 rushing yards on 18 attempts. He added one catch for 29 yards. Helped convert a third-and-10 in the first quarter with a 29-yard reception. His 12 rushing attempts in the first half set a new career high (11, four times, last vs. Jacksonville, on Dec. 8, 2024).
- Against the L.A. Rams (9/14), rushed for a team-high 92 yards on 20 attempts (4.6 avg.). It was his 27th career game with at least 90 scrimmage yards.
- Against Indianapolis (9/21), carried the ball 16 times for 45 yards and a touchdown. In the third quarter, he scored his first touchdown of the season and the 29th rushing touchdown of his career on a one-yard plunge. Added two receptions for 14 yards.
- At Houston (9/28), led the team with 64 rushing yards on 14 carries and added a team-high three receptions for 12 yards. In the second quarter, he rushed for a 21-yard gain, his longest run since a 21-yarder against Jacksonville on Dec. 8, 2024.
- At Arizona (10/5), participated in his 100th NFL game (regular season). He led the team with 67 rushing yards on 14 attempts and added 11 yards on three catches. Scored his second touchdown of the season and the 30th rushing touchdown of his career on a one-yard carry in the fourth quarter. In the third quarter, he reached the 5,000-yard career rushing mark.

#2 • RB TYJAE SPEARS

5-11, 195, 3rd Year/3rd with Titans, Tulane

Click for complete bio

Running back Tyjae Spears is in his third NFL season. He was selected by the Titans in the third round (81st overall) of the 2023 NFL Draft.

In 2024, Spears appeared in 12 games with one start. His totals included 312 yards and four touchdowns on 84 rushing attempts, and he added 30 receptions for 224 yards and a touchdown.

As a rookie, Spears did not miss a game and registered one start. He carried the ball 100 times for 453 yards and two touchdowns, and he added 52 receptions for 385 yards and one score. His 838 scrimmage yards ranked seventh in franchise history among rookie running backs, and the total also placed fourth among rookie running backs in 2023 behind Atlanta's Bijan Robinson, Detroit's Jahmyr Gibbs and Miami's De'Von Achane. Spears became the franchise's first rookie running back with at least 50 receptions since Sid Blanks in 1964 (56).

Spears spent four years at Tulane (2019-22) prior to entering the NFL. He appeared in 33 games with 20 starts at running back for the Green Wave, totaling 2,910 yards and 31 touchdowns on 427 carries with an additional 48 receptions for 564 yards and three scores. He ended his career as the school's all-time leader in yards per carry (6.8), tied for second in 100-yard rushing games (15), tied for third in rushing touchdowns (31), fourth in rushing yards per game (85.6) and sixth in rushing yards (2,910) and total touchdowns (34). His 6.8 yards per carry from 2019 to 2022 ranked second in the FBS behind only Alabama-Birmingham running back DeWayne McBride's 7.3-yard average (minimum 400 attempts).

As a junior in 2022, he started all 14 games for the Green Wave, totaling 1,581 yards and 19 touchdowns on 229 rushing attempts and adding 22 receptions for 256 yards and two touchdowns. He tied for the national lead with 21 total touchdowns and tied for third in the country with 19 rushing touchdowns, a total that ranked second in Tulane single-season history. His 1,581 rushing yards led the conference and made up the Green Wave's all-time second-highest single-season total. His nine 100-yard rushing games included eight consecutive such efforts to finish the season. He was named the American Athletic Conference Offensive Player of the Year and also earned first-team All-AAC honors. His efforts helped Tulane earn a 12-2 record and win an American Athletic Conference title.

He is a native of Ponchatoula, La.

2025 Game Notes:

- Placed on injured reserve (designated to return) on Aug. 26.
- Activated from injured reserve on Oct. 4.
- At Arizona (10/5), contributed 14 yards on four carries in his season debut.

#85 • TE CHIG OKONKWO

6-3, 238, 4th Year/4th with Titans, Maryland

Click for complete bio

Tight end Chig Okonkwo (pronounced "CHIGG oh-KAHN-kwoh") is in his fourth NFL season in 2025. He was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (143rd overall) of the 2022 NFL Draft.

Through his first three seasons, Okonkwo led the team's tight ends with 138 receptions for 1,457 yards and six touchdowns. During that time, he did not miss a game, appearing in 51 contests with 30 starts. His career yardage total through 2024 ranked second among all tight ends drafted in 2022, trailing only Trey McBride (2,236).

Okonkwo became the fifth tight end in franchise history to register three or more seasons with a minimum of 30 receptions and 450 receiving yards per season. He joined Frank Wycheck (1995–2001), Delanie Walker (2013–2017), Dave Casper (1980–1982) and Alvin Reed (1968–1970).

In 2024, Okonkwo tied his career high with 11 starts, matching his 2023 total. He ranked second on the team and led the Titans tight ends with 52 receptions. His 479 receiving yards ranked third on the team and led the team's tight ends, and he had two touchdown receptions.

Okonkwo started 11 games in 2023 and finished the season with 54 receptions for 528 yards and one touchdown. He ranked second on the team in receptions and receiving yards.

During his rookie season, Okonkwo appeared in all 17 games with eight starts and totaled 32 receptions for 450 yards (14.1 avg.) and three touchdowns. His yardage total ranked second on the team. He also tied for fifth on the team with seven special teams tackles. He was named to the Pro Football Writers of America All-Rookie team.

Okonkwo's 450 receiving yards in 2022 established a new record for franchise rookie tight ends, surpassing Ben Troupe's 329 yards in 2004. Okonkwo tied Chris Dressel (32 receptions in 1983) for the third-best reception total among all Titans/Oilers rookie tight ends, trailing only Bo Scaife (37 in 2005) and Troupe (33 in 2004), and he became the second rookie tight end in franchise history with at least three touchdown catches, joining Dressel (four in 1983).

The Powder Springs, Ga., native appeared in 37 games with 20 starts over four seasons (2018-21) at Maryland and caught 77 passes for 717 yards and eight touchdowns. He added three carries for 72 yards and three touchdowns, including a career-long rush of 54 yards.

As a senior in 2021, he started all 13 games and posted career-high marks with 52 catches for 447 yards and a team-leading five touchdowns. His 52 receptions ranked second in Terrapins history for a single season by a tight end, behind only Wycheck (58 in 1990). Okonkwo's 447 receiving yards were the most by a Terps tight end in a season since Vernon Davis (871 in 2005).

He sat out the 2020 season with myocarditis due to COVID-19. Prior to then, he saw action in 12 games (four starts) as a freshman and 12 games (three starts) as a sophomore.

Wide receiver Elic Ayomanor was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (136th overall) of the 2025 NFL Draft.

Ayomanor attended Stanford from 2022 to 2024. He saw action in his final two seasons there, appearing in 24 games with 23 starts. He led the Cardinal in receptions and receiving yards in both campaigns, totaling 125 receptions for 1,844 yards and 12 touchdowns in that span.

In 2024, he started all 12 games and was named second team All-ACC from the coaches after leading all Stanford receivers with 63 receptions for 831 yards. He recorded six receiving touchdowns, tied for the most by a Cardinal wideout, and he was the Cardinal's leading receiver in seven of the 12 games. In the ACC, he finished seventh in receptions and tied for ninth in receiving touchdowns. He was honored with the team's Tommy Vardell Award, given to an academic junior or senior who best epitomizes excellence in both academics and athletics, as well as Stanford's Deswarte-Eller Award, presented to the team's most outstanding sophomore player.

As a redshirt freshman in 2023, he appeared in all 12 games, making starts at wide receiver in the final 11 games. He paced the Stanford offense with 62 receptions for 1,013 yards and six touchdowns and was named the team's Irving S. Zeimer Award recipient, given to the team's offensive most valuable player. He ranked seventh in the Pac-12 in receiving yards and yards per catch (16.3), while ranking fifth in yards per game (84.4).

In a game at Colorado (Oct. 13), he amassed career highs with 13 catches for 294 yards and three receiving scores, setting the Stanford program record for receiving yards in a game.

A native of Medicine Hat, Alberta, Canada, he spent his initial year of high school in Canada before one year at The Peddie School (Hightstown, N.J.) and two years at Deerfield (Mass.) Academy.

2025 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/7), started at wide receiver in his NFL debut. Totaled 13 yards on a pair of receptions.
- Against the L.A. Rams (9/14), totaled 56 yards on four receptions, which tied for the team lead and included a touchdown. In the second quarter, he made a one-handed, 23-yard catch along the sideline, and three plays later, he scored his first career touchdown on a nine-yard pass from Cam Ward.
- Against Indianapolis (9/21), caught four passes for 38 yards and a touchdown. In the fourth quarter, he scored a touchdown with an eight-yard grab on fourth-and-goal. It marked his second consecutive week with a touchdown reception. He became the first Titans rookie with a touchdown catch in consecutive games since A.J. Brown (Weeks 14-15) in 2019.
- At Houston (9/28), recorded a team-high 44 receiving yards on a pair of receptions. In the first quarter, he hauled in a 33-yard pass to notch his longest career reception to date. He became the team's first player with at least two receptions in each of the first four games of his rookie season since Tajae Sharpe (first five games) in 2016. He also became the team's fourth player since 1999 with 12 or more receptions in the team's first four games of his rookie season, joining Kendall Wright (18 in 2012), Kenny Britt (17 in 2009) and Tajae Sharpe (16 in 2016).
- At Arizona (10/5), caught two passes for 18 yards. He became the team's

#17 • WR CHIMERE DIKE

6-1, 196, Rookie, Florida

Click for complete bio

Wide receiver Chimere Dike was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (103rd overall) of the 2025 NFL Draft.

The Waukesha, Wis., native played four seasons (2020-23) at Wisconsin before transferring to Florida for his final season (2024). In five total seasons, he appeared in 57 games with 42 starts and tallied 139 receptions for 2,261 yards and 11 touchdowns. He added 14 rushing attempts for 99 yards and one touchdown, and additionally, he recorded 26 punt returns for 300 yards and 20 kickoff returns for 472 yards.

In 2024, Dike was named a team captain for the Gators during his first and only season with the team. He led the team in catches (42) and ranked second with a career-high in receiving yards (783) and touchdown catches (two). In SEC play, he averaged a league-leading 16.5 yards per punt return. He was one of 23 players in the FBS to contribute four punt returns of 20-plus yards.

In Dike's final season at Wisconsin, he started in 11 games and finished with 19 receptions for 328 yards and one touchdown. He added 12 punt returns for 108 yards and 11 kickoff returns for 249 yards.

As a junior in 2022, he started all 13 games for the Badgers and led the team with 47 catches, 689 receiving yards and six touchdown catches. His six scores tied for seventh in the Big Ten and were the most for a Badger wide receiver since 2019.

2025 Game Notes:

➤ At Denver (9/7), made his NFL debut. Totaled 144 yards with a 36.0-yard average on four kickoff returns and added a 12-yard punt return. Gained nine yards on his first NFL rushing attempt in the second quarter. Recorded a 71-yard kickoff return in the second quarter to set up a Titans field goal. It was the Titans' longest kickoff return since Darius Jennings returned a kickoff 94 yards for a touchdown on Sept. 9, 2018 at Miami. His 71-yard kickoff return was the longest by a Titans rookie since Marc Mariani's 73-yarder at Dallas on Oct. 10, 2010. His 144 kickoff return yards made up the highest single-game total for a Titans player since Darrynton Evans (145) on Dec. 27, 2020 at Green Bay.

➤ Against the L.A. Rams (9/14), totaled 37 yards on two punt returns, including a 21-yard long. He also returned five kickoffs for 83 yards (16.6 avg.), caught two passes resulting in a net loss of one yard, and added nine rushing yards on two attempts.

➤ Against Indianapolis (9/21), registered his first NFL start at wide receiver. He totaled 162 kickoff return yards on six attempts (27.0 average), accumulating the most kickoff return yards in a game by a Titans player since Leon Washington's 209 kickoff return yards at Denver on Dec. 8, 2013. His 35-yard kickoff return in the first quarter helped set up a field goal. Also totaled three yards on two rushing attempts and two yards on three receptions.

➤ At Houston (9/28), returned six kickoffs for a 23.5-yard average (long of 29). He became the NFL's first rookie since Chad Morton of the New Orleans Saints in 2000 with at least four kickoff returns in each of the first four games of his rookie season.

➤ At Arizona (10/5), contributed two receptions for 17 yards, three punt returns for 33 yards, and four kickoff returns for 136 yards. He provided a spark with a 65-yard kickoff return in the second quarter—the second-longest kickoff return of his rookie season (71 at Denver on Sept. 7). It gave him two of the NFL's top five longest kickoff returns to date in 2025. His 71-yarder against Denver was the second longest of the season and his 65-yard return ranked fourth.

Click for complete bio

Wide receiver Tyler Lockett is in his 11th NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans. He was signed by the Titans as a free agent on April 28, 2025.

Prior to his arrival in Tennessee, Lockett played in 161 games with 134 starts as a member of the Seattle Seahawks (2015-24), who selected him in the fifth round (69th overall) of the 2015 NFL Draft. During his tenure in Seattle, he posted 661 receptions for 8,594 yards and 61 touchdowns. He departed as the franchise's second all-time leader in receptions, yards and touchdowns, trailing only Pro Football Hall of Famer Steve Largent.

Lockett also became a decorated return specialist with the Seahawks. His return totals for Seattle included 145 punt returns for 1,078 yards and one touchdown and 127 kickoff returns for 3,188 yards and two scores. As a rookie in 2015, he was named to the Pro Bowl as a returner and added first-team Associated Press All-Pro recognition. He earned second-team AP All-Pro recognition in 2016 and 2017.

Lockett was a member of six playoff teams during his time in Seattle. His Seahawks postseason totals included 29 receptions for 510 yards and two touchdowns in seven games.

From 2019 to 2022, Lockett amassed at least 70 receptions and 1,000 yards in four consecutive seasons, matched during that stretch only by Chiefs tight end Travis Kelce. He achieved a career high with 100 receptions in 2020, followed by a career-high 1,175 receiving yards in 2021.

In 2024, Lockett played in 17 games for the second straight year, registering 49 catches for 600 yards and two scores in his final year in Seattle.

As a college player, the Tulsa, Okla., native was the first Kansas State player to earn an All-American honor in each of his four seasons with the team (2012-14). He set several school records including career receptions (249), receiving yards (3,710) and receiving touchdowns (29). He finished as Kansas State's all-time top kickoff returner in attempts (77) and yards (2,196).

2025 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/7), made his Titans debut.
- Against the L.A. Rams (9/14), started and caught his first two passes as a member of the Titans for nine total yards. His first reception as a member of the Titans was a five-yarder in the first quarter.
- Against Indianapolis (9/21), caught four passes for 37 yards, including a 16-yarder to convert a third down in the fourth quarter.
- At Arizona (10/5), after an interception by the Cardinals defense in the fourth quarter, he recovered a fumble in the end zone for a touchdown that contributed to a comeback victory. It was the team's first touchdown by an offensive player on a fumble recovery in the end zone since Treyton Burks on Nov. 27, 2022 against Cincinnati. Lockett added one reception for six yards.

#0 • WR CALVIN RIDLEY

6-1, 190, 7th Year/2nd with Titans, Alabama

Click for complete bio

Wide receiver Calvin Ridley is in his seventh NFL season and his second season with the Titans in 2025. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 15, 2024.

During the 2024 campaign, Ridley led the Titans offense with 64 receptions and 1,017 receiving yards and caught four touchdown passes. His 15.9-yard receiving average in 2024 ranked fifth in the NFL among qualifiers. Only Ridley and Philadelphia's A.J. Brown (67 receptions for 1,079 yards, 16.1 avg.) accumulated at least 60 receptions and 1,000 receiving yards with an average of at least 15.0 yards per catch. Ridley also rushed for 55 yards and a touchdown.

Ridley's 2024 season was his third career 1,000-yard receiving season (2020 and 2023), and it was the franchise's 12th 1,000-yard receiving season during its "Titans era" (1999 to present). He became the ninth player in NFL history to have at least one 1,000-yard receiving season with three different teams, joining Brandin Cooks (four teams), Brandon Marshall (four), Amari Cooper (three), DeAndre Hopkins (three), Irving Fryar (three), Randy Moss (three), Terrell Owens (three) and Tony Martin (three). Ridley became the first player in NFL history to secure his first three 1,000-yard receiving seasons with three different teams.

Prior to joining the Titans, Ridley appeared in 66 NFL games with 52 starts. He was originally drafted by the Atlanta Falcons with the 26th overall pick of the 2018 NFL Draft and was traded to the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2022. His statistical totals with the Falcons and Jaguars included 324 receptions for 4,358 yards and 36 touchdowns.

In 2023, Ridley started a career-high 17 games for the Jaguars and led the team with 1,016 yards and eight receiving touchdowns on 76 catches.

From 2018 through 2020, no member of the 2018 draft class had more receptions or touchdown catches than Ridley, who totaled 217 grabs and 26 scores for the Falcons during that span. His 3,061 receiving yards ranked second in his draft class behind only DJ Moore's 3,156. Ridley's 90 receptions and 1,374 yards in 2020 were career highs.

As a rookie in 2018, Ridley played in all 16 games and accumulated 64 receptions. He led all rookie receivers in the NFL with 821 receiving yards and a team-high 10 receiving touchdowns, including an NFL-rookie record six receiving scores in the team's first four games. He was named to the All-Rookie team by the Professional Football Writers of America.

A native of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Ridley attended the University of Alabama, where he played in 44 games over three seasons (2015-17). He finished his career second in Crimson Tide history with 224 receptions and 19 receiving touchdowns. He also ranked third with 2,781 receiving yards, while totaling eight career 100-yard receiving games to tie for third in the Alabama record books.

2025 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/7), registered a team-high four receptions for 27 yards.
- Against the L.A. Rams (9/14), tallied a team-high 57 receiving yards on three catches. He recorded a 26-yard reception in the first quarter and added a 21-yard catch in the second quarter.
- Against Indianapolis (9/21), tallied a 27-yard reception in the first quarter.
- At Houston (9/28), totaled 30 yards on a pair of receptions. He converted a third-and-six with a 22-yard catch in the second quarter. It was his 23rd reception of 20-plus yards since the start of the 2024 season, which tied for third in the NFL.
- At Arizona (10/5), led the team with five receptions for 131 yards, logging his 17th career 100-yard game. It was the sixth-highest receiving yardage total of his career. Late in the first quarter, he hauled in a 25-yard pass. In the second quarter, his 400th career reception resulted in a 13-yard gain to convert a third-and-four. In the fourth quarter, he caught a 47-yard pass to help set up a touchdown, and later, he helped set up the game-winning field goal with a 38-yard grab. His 93 receiving yards in the fourth quarter established a career high and were the most by a Titans player in the fourth quarter since Taywan Taylor's 104 receiving yards in the fourth quarter against the New York Jets on Dec. 2, 2018. Ridley's fourth-quarter total was the third-most in the NFL in 2025 (through Sunday, Oct. 5) behind the 98 receiving yards by Las Vegas' Tre Tucker (Sept. 21) and 95 by Buffalo's Keon Coleman (Sept. 7).

Click for complete bio

JC Latham is in his second NFL season. He was drafted by the Titans with the seventh overall pick in the first round of the 2024 NFL Draft.

As a rookie, Latham finished the season with 17 starts at left tackle, joining Jack Conklin (2016), Chance Warmack (2013) and Michael Roos (2005) as the franchise's only rookie offensive linemen in the "Titans era" (1999–present) to start every game. He was the first to do so exclusively at left tackle. Pro Football Focus named him to its All-Rookie team.

Latham did not miss an offensive snap during his rookie season. He led all rookie offensive linemen and ranked third among all rookies in 2024 with 1,032 offensive snaps. Only Chicago quarterback Caleb Williams (1,052) and Denver quarterback Bo Nix (1,040) played more offensive snaps than Latham among the 2024 rookie class.

Prior to entering the NFL, Latham spent three seasons at the University of Alabama, where he appeared in 41 total games, including 27 consecutive starts at right tackle to conclude his collegiate career. He was credited with allowing only four sacks during his time with the Tide.

As a junior in 2023, Latham was a second-team All-American and a first-team All-SEC selection at right tackle. He recorded 41 knockdown blocks and allowed only two sacks.

A native of Oak Creek, Wis., Latham attended IMG Academy for the final two years of high school. He began his high school career as a defensive lineman before finishing as one of the nation's top left tackle prospects.

STARTS BEFORE 22ND BIRTHDAY

First-round draft pick JC Latham started every game at left tackle in 2024. With 17 starts before his 22nd birthday (Feb. 8, 2025), he ranked second in franchise history for starts before turning 22. He finished behind only former defensive tackle Randy Starks, who registered 21 starts before celebrating his 22nd birthday in 2005.

Latham was the NFL's only player under age 22 to log 17 starts in 2024.

Most starts in franchise history (1960–2024) before a player's 22nd birthday:

#75 • T DAN MOORE JR.

6-5, 315, 5th Year/1st with Titans, Texas A&M

Click for complete bio

Dan Moore Jr. is in his fifth NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2025. He was signed by the Titans on March 13, 2025.

Prior to joining the Titans, Moore spent the previous four seasons (2021-24) with the Pittsburgh Steelers. He started 66 total games—all at left tackle—protecting the blind side for all but two contests during his time in the Steel City. During that span, Moore ranked third in the NFL in offensive snaps (4,109) played by tackles, trailing only Penei Sewell (4,328) and Jawaan Taylor (4,135).

In each of Moore's four seasons with the Steelers, running back Najee Harris surpassed 1,000 rushing yards. In 2023, the Steelers offensive line allowed only 36 sacks, which ranked ninth in the NFL.

Moore was drafted by the Steelers in the fourth round (128th overall) of the 2021 NFL Draft after attending Texas A&M University. The Beaumont, Texas, native appeared in 44 games with 37 starts for the Aggies, including starts at left tackle in each of the final 36 games of his collegiate career.

#77 • G PETER SKORONSKI

6-4, 313, 3rd Year/3rd with Titans, Northwestern

Click for complete bio

Peter Skoronski is in his third NFL season. He was selected by the Titans with the 11th overall pick in the first round of the 2023 NFL Draft.

During his first two seasons, Skoronski started 31 games at left guard. After missing three of the first four games during his rookie season due to an appendectomy, he started the next 30 games through the end of the 2024 campaign. In 2024, he did not miss a snap.

As a rookie in 2023, Skoronski started 14 games at left guard and helped running back Derrick Henry finish second in the NFL with 1,167 rushing yards. He was one of nine NFL rookie offensive linemen in 2023 to register 14 or more starts, and he joined Nicholas Petit-Frere (2022), Jack Conklin (2016), Chance Warmack (2013), Michael Roos (2005) and Jacob Bell (2004) as the only rookie offensive linemen to record at least 14 starts for the franchise during its "Titans era" (1999–present).

During a three-year career at Northwestern University, Skoronski started all 33 games at left tackle without missing a game. He earned second-team All-Big Ten honors as a freshman and first-team recognition in each of the next two seasons. He became the first offensive lineman in program history to earn two All-Big Ten first-team awards.

As a junior in 2022, he was named the Rimington-Pace Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year—the first ever by a Northwestern lineman—after starting all 12 games at left tackle. He was the first player in school history to become a unanimous first-team All-American and was named first-team All-Big Ten by coaches and media. He finished as a finalist for the 2022 Outland Trophy.

When the Titans drafted Skoronski, he became Northwestern's highest draft selection since guard Chris Hinton went to Denver with the fourth pick in 1983, and he was the 11th player in program history to be picked in the first round.

His grandfather, Bob Skoronski Sr., was a left tackle for the Green Bay Packers, playing nine total seasons with the franchise. He was a permanent offensive captain for the Packers under Vince Lombardi and played on five NFL championship teams. In 1976, he was inducted into the Packers Hall of Fame. Bob Skoronski Jr., Peter's father, was an All-Ivy League football player at Yale.

Peter Skoronski attended Maine South High School in Park Ridge, Ill.

#70 • G KEVIN ZEITLER

6-4, 332, 14th Year/1st with Titans, Wisconsin

Click for complete bio

Kevin Zeitler is in his 14th NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2025. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 13, 2025.

Prior to his arrival in Tennessee, Zeitler appeared in 198 games with 197 starts in 13 total seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals (2012-16), Cleveland Browns (2017-18), New York Giants (2019-20), Baltimore Ravens (2021-23) and Detroit Lions (2024). From the time he entered the NFL in 2012 through the 2024 campaign, he played more offensive snaps (12,443) than any other offensive lineman in the league.

In 2023, he was named to the Pro Bowl for the first time after starting 15 contests in his final season with the Ravens. Then, in 2024, he was a 16-game starter at right guard for the Lions.

Zeitler also arrived in Tennessee with significant playoff experience. He accumulated seven total starts over four playoff seasons with the Bengals (2012-15) and two postseasons with the Ravens (2022-23). Additionally, he contributed to Detroit's 2024 division championship but was inactive during the playoffs due to injury.

Zeitler entered the NFL with the Bengals as first-round selection (27th overall) in the 2012 NFL Draft. As a rookie, he was named to the Pro Football Writer's Association All-Rookie team.

At the University of Wisconsin, Zeitler played in 43 career games with 36 starts in four seasons (2008-11). He helped the Badgers to consecutive Big Ten titles and Rose Bowl berths in his junior and senior campaigns, and as a senior, he earned first-team All-Big Ten honors.

#69 • DE SEBASTIAN JOSEPH-DAY

6-4, 310, 7th Year/2nd with Titans, Rutgers

Click for complete bio

Defensive lineman Sebastian Joseph-Day is in his seventh NFL season and his second season with the Titans in 2025. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 20, 2024.

During the 2024 campaign, Joseph-Day registered 17 games played for the first time in his career. His first year in Tennessee concluded with 44 tackles, 2.5 sacks, 14 quarterback pressures, three tackles for loss and one pass defended for the NFL's second-overall ranked defense.

Prior to arriving in Tennessee, Joseph-Day totaled 71 games played and 68 starts for the Los Angeles Rams (2018-21), Los Angeles Chargers (2022-23) and San Francisco 49ers (2023). His statistical totals during that time included 230 tackles, 11 sacks, one interception, five passes defended, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery.

In 2023, Joseph-Day started the first 14 games of the season with the Chargers and collected 32 tackles, three sacks and 25 quarterback pressures. After being released by the Chargers, he was signed by the 49ers as a free agent on Dec. 27 and saw action as a reserve in the final two regular season contests, amassing five tackles. He then appeared as a reserve in all three of the 49ers' postseason contests and registered three tackles, including a tackle in Super Bowl LVIII.

Joseph-Day originally entered the NFL as a sixth-round pick (195th overall) of the Rams in 2018. After not seeing game action his entire rookie campaign, he totaled 38 starts and six sacks over the next three seasons with the Rams, culminating with an appearance in the Rams' Super Bowl LVI victory. He then joined the Chargers during the 2022 offseason and played in 30 regular season games with the club before heading to San Francisco.

The Stroudsburg, Pa., native played five seasons at Rutgers, where he amassed 90 total tackles, 3.5 sacks, two passes defended, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery.

2025 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/7), started and notched five tackles and recovered a fumble caused by a Jeffery Simmons strip sack in the second quarter. The turnover yielded three points for the Titans after a Joey Slye field goal on the ensuing possession. It was his second career fumble recovery.
- At Houston (9/28), recorded four tackles and two quarterback pressures.
- At Arizona (10/5), posted his first sack of the season in the fourth quarter, bringing down Kyler Murray for a 10-yard loss. He added five tackles and an additional stop for loss, marking his first career game with at least five tackles, two tackles for loss and a sack.

#98 • DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

6-4, 305, 7th Year/7th with Titans, Mississippi State
Click for complete bio

Defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons completed is in his seventh NFL season in 2025. He was selected by the Titans in the first round (19th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft.

During his first six seasons, Simmons earned three Pro Bowl berths (2021-22, 2024), was a four-time team captain (2021-24), and was nominated two times for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award (2023-24). During that span, he appeared in 84 games with 82 starts, accumulating 316 tackles, 31.5 sacks, 24 passes defended, five forced fumbles and six fumble recoveries. He was second on the defense in sacks during that span behind only Harold Landry III (46).

Simmons missed only one game in 2024. His 16 starts made up the second-highest total of his career through six seasons behind his 17 starts in 2021. Among his season totals, he set career highs with 76 tackles and two forced fumbles, and he added five sacks and a team-high 42 quarterback pressures. He was rewarded with his third Pro Bowl invitation.

Simmons' 76 tackles ranked second on the Titans in 2024. It was the best number for any defensive lineman for the organization in its "Titans era" (1999 to present), topping defensive end Kyle Vanden Bosch's previous mark of 75 tackles in 2006 (press box statistics). Among NFL defensive linemen in 2024, Simmons finished second in tackles behind Carolina's A'Shawn Robinson (80).

The 2024 campaign marked Simmons' fourth consecutive season with at least five sacks. His 31.5 career sacks through 2024 ranked 13th in franchise history and sixth for the organization during its "Titans era" (1999 to present).

In 2023, although he was limited to 12 games and finished the season on injured reserve, he managed to register 5.5 sacks, marking his third consecutive season to reach that number or higher. He added 44 tackles, 38 quarterback pressures, 11 tackles for loss, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and one pass defended. For the first time in his career, he received the honor of the team's nomination for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year award.

In 2022, Simmons appeared in 15 games and anchored a unit that ranked first in the NFL in rushing defense (76.9 opponent rushing yards per game). En route to his second consecutive Pro Bowl appearance, he totalled 53 tackles, 7.5 sacks, 43 quarterback pressures, nine tackles for loss, one forced fumble and a career-high seven passes defended, which tied for the fourth-best mark among all NFL defensive linemen. Simmons and Arizona's J.J. Watt were the NFL's only players in 2022 with at least seven sacks and seven passes defended.

Before the start of the 2021 season, Simmons was named a team captain for the first time in his career, and he went on to become one of six players on the roster to start all 17 games. He was named to his first career Pro Bowl and added Associated Press second-team All-Pro honors after setting career highs in several categories, including sacks (8.5), tackles (54), quarterback pressures (58), tackles for loss (12) and passes defended (six). He led the squad in pressures and placed third in sacks. Among all defensive tackles in the NFL, his 8.5 sacks ranked sixth. In the divisional playoffs, he set a franchise postseason record with three sacks.

In 2020, Simmons appeared and started in 15 games. With three defensive fumble recoveries, he tied Chase Young for the most in the NFL in 2020 and was the first Titans defender with three fumble recoveries in a season since 2005, when linebacker Brad Kassell accomplished the feat. Simmons ranked second on the team with 19 quarterback pressures and added 49 tackles, three sacks, three tackles for loss, five passes defended and one forced fumble. In the franchise's "Titans era" (since 1999), he became the first player to post at least three fumble recoveries, three sacks and five passes defended in the same season. He also had three tackles and a tackle for loss in one playoff contest.

Simmons began his rookie season on the non-football injury list due to a knee injury he suffered during training in February 2019. He missed the first six games of the season before joining the 53-man roster in Week 7.

His rookie totals included 40 tackles, two sacks, two tackles for loss, 14 quarterback pressures and one pass defended in nine games (seven starts). He added four tackles, three quarterback pressures and a fumble recovery in three playoff contests.

During a three-year career as a defensive tackle at Mississippi State, Simmons appeared in 38 contests with 28 starts. He finished his career ranked sixth in school history with 32.5 tackles for loss. He also tied for sixth in MSU annals with five forced fumbles and tied for fourth with three blocked kicks. His totals also included 163 tackles, seven sacks, seven passes defended and two defensive touchdowns.

He was a first-team All-SEC selection as a sophomore and junior and was one of two players in the nation to be named a Bednarik Award Semifinalist in both 2017 and 2018.

As a junior in 2018, Simmons was named second-team All-American after totaling 63 tackles, 17 tackles for loss and two sacks. His 17 tackles for loss led the team, ranked fourth in the SEC and were the third-most in single-season school history.

During his sophomore season (2017), he set a career high with five sacks and added 12 tackles for loss. With three total blocked kicks and punts, he became the first SEC player since 2004 to lead the nation in the category.

Simmons is a native of Macon, Miss.

2025 Game Notes:

➤ At Denver (9/7), started at defensive tackle and finished the game with four tackles, a stop for loss, a sack, a forced fumble and a team-high four quarterback pressures. Recorded a strip sack on Bo Nix in the second quarter, the fourth of his career. It was his first sack fumble since Oct. 27, 2024 at Detroit. Notched a quarterback hit on Bo Nix on a third down in the first quarter to help force a field goal attempt. Increased his career total to 32.5 sacks.

➤ Against the L.A. Rams (9/14), recorded two tackles and three quarterback pressures. He registered a hit on Matthew Stafford on third down to help force a Los Angeles punt in the second quarter.

➤ Against Indianapolis (9/21), generated three tackles and three quarterback pressures.

➤ At Houston (9/28), produced five tackles, one sack, a career-high four tackles for loss and four quarterback pressures. In the first quarter, he logged his second sack of the season (33.5 career), dropping C.J. Stroud for a loss of three yards. It was his fifth career sack against the Texans, his highest career total against any opponent. He became the only Titans player with at least four tackles for loss in a game since the beginning of the 2008 season. He joined three other NFL players in 2025 to record four or more tackles for loss in a game through Sept. 28: Tuli Tuipulotu (five on Sept. 28), Myles Garrett (four on Sept. 7) and Derwin James Jr. (four on Sept. 21). He joined the same four players as the only players in 2025 with five tackles, four tackles for loss and a sack in a game. According to NFL NextGenStats, Simmons sacked Stroud 2.09 seconds after the ball was snapped, the fastest sack in the NFL since the beginning of the 2024 season. His get-off time was recorded at 0.32 seconds, the fastest time by a defensive tackle in 2025.

➤ At Arizona (10/5), totaled 1.5 sacks, a season-high eight tackles, a stop for loss and six quarterback pressures. Dropped Kyler Murray in the second quarter for a 10-yard loss to force a Cardinals punt. It was his second consecutive game with a sack. He also combined with Arden Key to bring Murray down in the third quarter, giving him 3.5 sacks over the first five games of the 2025 season.

#93 • NT T'VONDRE SWEAT

6-4, 366, 2nd Year/2nd with Titans, Texas

Click for complete bio

Defensive tackle T'Vondre Sweat is in his second NFL season. He was selected by the Titans in the second round (38th overall) of the 2024 NFL Draft.

As a rookie, Sweat appeared in all 17 games with 16 starts. His totals for the NFL's second-ranked overall defense included 51 tackles, one sack, four tackles for loss, one pass defended, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. He earned All-Rookie honors from Pro Football Focus and Pro Football Writers of America.

Sweat became the franchise's first rookie defensive lineman to start 16 games in a season since defensive end Jevon Kearse (16) in 1999, and he was the NFL's first interior defensive lineman to start at least 16 games in a rookie season since Dexter Lawrence (16) with the New York Giants in 2019.

During his five-year career at the University of Texas, Sweat appeared in 62 games with 17 starts. He finished his collegiate career with 128 tackles, 17.5 tackles for loss, five sacks, 14 passes defended, one forced fumble, two fumble recoveries and one blocked extra point.

In 2023, Sweat's final collegiate campaign, he played in all 14 games with eight starts. His 45 tackles, 18 solo tackles, eight tackles for loss, two sacks, four pass breakups and one blocked kick all established career highs, and he added a two-yard touchdown reception on offense. His efforts earned him the 2023 Outland Trophy, which is presented to the nation's top interior lineman. He also garnered unanimous first-team All-American, Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year and unanimous first-team All-Big 12 honors. He was the fifth Texas defensive tackle to be a unanimous All-American.

As a senior in 2022, Sweat played in all 13 games with nine starts and established a then-career high with 30 tackles and added 2.5 tackles for loss, seven quarterback hurries and four pass breakups. He was named honorable mention All-Big 12 by the league's coaches.

He is a native of Huntsville, Texas.

2025 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/7), started at nose tackle and recorded two tackles.
- Placed on injured reserve on Sept. 20, 2025.

#33 • LB CEDRIC GRAY

6-2, 234, 2nd Year/2nd with Titans, North Carolina

Click for complete bio

Linebacker Cedric Gray is in his second NFL season in 2025. He was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (106th overall) of the 2024 NFL Draft.

As a rookie in 2024, spent the first seven games on injured reserve before being activated on Oct. 28, 2024. He appeared in the final seven games of the season and totaled 14 tackles on defense while ranking third on the team with eight tackles on special teams. His eight special teams tackles tied for the seventh-best total among rookies in 2024, and over the final seven weeks of the season, he led the rookie class and tied for second overall in the NFL (Oren Burks, Jeremy Reaves) behind only Pittsburgh's Miles Killebrew (nine).

In four seasons at the University of North Carolina, he played in 51 games with 37 starts and recorded 369 tackles, 30 tackles for loss, 8.5 sacks, five interceptions, 13 passes defended, six forced fumbles and five fumble recoveries. He was a two-time first team All-ACC selection and a 2023 Butkus Award semifinalist.

As a senior in 2023, he played and started in 12 games and posted a team-best 121 tackles in addition to five sacks, 11 stops for loss, seven quarterback pressures, two forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries, an interception and four passes defended. He was named first-team All-ACC by the league and the Associated Press. He recorded five double-digit tackle games and ranked second in the ACC with 121 tackles.

Gray is a native of Charlotte, N.C.

2025 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/7), made his first NFL start. He ranked third on the team with seven tackles and added a stop on special teams.
- Against the L.A. Rams (9/14), finished with four tackles on defense and added a tackle on special teams.
- Against Indianapolis (9/21), tied for second on the defense with five tackles.
- At Houston (9/28), collected 17 tackles—a career-high, the most for a Titans defender this season, and the most tackles for a Titans defender since Daryl Worley had 17 at Washington on Dec. 1, 2024. His 17 tackles tied for the highest figure by a Titans player since 2020 (Worley). It was the 11th time since 2000 (press box statistics) in which a Titans defender registered 15 or more tackles in a game. Through Sept. 28, Gray's 17 stops at Houston were the most of any defender in the NFL during a single game in the 2025 season. The last NFL player to register 17 tackles in a game was Philadelphia's Oren Burks on Jan. 5, 2025. He added a tackle for loss and a quarterback pressure.
- At Arizona (10/5), led the team in tackles for the second consecutive game, collecting 12 tackles, including a stop for loss. His 29 total tackles in Weeks 4-5 ranked second in the NFL behind Miami's Jordyn Brooks (31).

#45 • OLB DRE'MONT JONES

6-3, 281, 7th Year/1st with Titans, Ohio State
Click for complete bio

Outside linebacker Dre'Mont Jones is in his seventh NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2025. He was signed as an unrestricted on March 14, 2025.

Jones joined the Titans after six combined seasons with the Denver Broncos (2019-22) and Seattle Seahawks (2023-24). In that span, he played in 90 games with 52 starts and totaled 210 tackles, 30.5 sacks, one interception, 40 stops for loss, three forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. Additionally, he blocked a pair of field goals.

The Broncos selected Jones in the third round (71st overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft. He spent the first four seasons of his career with the club, appearing in 56 games with 29 starts and collecting 133 tackles, 22 sacks, one interception, 28 tackles for loss, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery.

He joined the Seattle Seahawks in 2023 and started a career-high 16 games while amassing a career-best 49 tackles with 4.5 sacks. In 2024, he appeared in all 17 games with seven starts and totaled 28 tackles to go along with four sacks and a forced fumble.

Prior to entering the NFL, Jones started 37 of 39 games at Ohio State and was selected first-team All-Big Ten Conference after his senior season. During his college career, he helped the Buckeyes win two Big Ten Conference Championships (2017-18), the Cotton Bowl (2017) and the Rose Bowl (2018).

He is a native of Cleveland, Ohio.

2025 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/7), started in his Titans debut and recorded two tackles.
- Against the L.A. Rams (9/14), finished with two tackles, including a stop for loss, and three quarterback pressures.

➤ At Arizona (10/5), recovered a Cardinals fumble in the third quarter, registering his second career fumble recovery (Dec 26, 2021 at Las Vegas). He added three tackles and two quarterback pressures.

#49 • OLB ARDEN KEY

6-5, 240, 8th Year/3rd with Titans, Louisiana State
Click for complete bio

Outside linebacker Arden Key is in his eighth NFL season and his third campaign with the Titans in 2025. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 20, 2023.

In 2024, he participated in the first 16 games of the season with a career-high 15 starts. When he was inactive for the season finale, it ended his streak of 75 consecutive games played. His 6.5 sacks in 2024 tied his career high (2021) and ranked second on the team, and he also established career highs with 42 total tackles and 11 tackles for loss. He added 38 quarterback pressures, one pass defended, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery.

In 2023, Key appeared in 17 games for the third consecutive season and registered nine starts—the most since starting 10 times in 2018 as a rookie with Oakland. He ranked second on the team with a career-high 57 quarterback pressures, and his six sacks provided the second-best total of his career. He added 30 tackles, four tackles for loss, two passes defended and two forced fumbles.

Key originally entered the NFL as a third-round pick (87th overall) of the Oakland Raiders in 2018 and spent his first three campaigns with the organization. He then spent the 2021 campaign with the San Francisco 49ers and the 2022 season with the Jacksonville Jaguars. His statistical totals during his first five NFL seasons included 98 tackles and 14 sacks in 71 games (13 starts).

In 2022, Key played 17 games with three starts for the Jaguars and totaled 27 tackles, 4.5 sacks, 38 quarterback pressures, five tackles for loss and a fumble recovery. His 38 pressures ranked second for the Jaguars, and over the last five weeks of the season, he posted 25 pressures, which ranked second in the league behind Nick Bosa over that time frame. He was a key figure in helping the Jaguars win the AFC South and advance to the divisional round of the playoffs.

In 2021, Key notched a career-best 6.5 sacks to go along with 22 tackles and 25 quarterback pressures in his lone season with the 49ers.

During a three-year career at Louisiana State University, Key totaled 21 sacks and 26.5 tackles for loss. As a sophomore, he earned all-conference honors, while setting the school record for sacks in a season (12.0).

He is a native of Atlanta, Ga.

2025 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/7), started and posted one tackle in the season opener.
➤ Against the L.A. Rams (9/14), blocked a Rams extra point attempt in the fourth quarter. It was the Titans' first blocked kick since Dec. 11, 2023 at Miami when Denico Autry blocked a 44-yard field goal attempt. It was the second blocked kick of Key's career and the first since Dec. 2, 2018 as a member of the Raiders against the Kansas City Chiefs, when he blocked an extra point attempt by Harrison Butker. Added one tackle.
➤ At Houston (9/28), notched his first sack of the season in the second quarter, taking down C.J. Stroud to force a third-and-17. It was his first sack since Dec. 1, 2024 at Washington. He added two tackles and two quarterback pressures.
➤ At Arizona (10/5), recorded a half sack in the second quarter, his second consecutive week with at least a half sack. Combined with Jeffery Simmons to bring down Kyler Murray for a loss of eight yards. Improved his total to 14 sacks since signing as a free agent in 2023, most among active Titans in that span.

Outside linebacker Oluwafemi Oladejo (pronounced "oh-loo-wah-FEH-me oh-luh-DAY-jo") was selected by the Titans in the second round (52nd overall) of the 2025 NFL Draft.

After playing two seasons at the University of California (2021-22), Oladejo finished his collegiate career with two seasons at UCLA (2023-24). He began college as an off-the-ball linebacker before transitioning to the edge position during his senior campaign at UCLA. With 46 games played and 27 starts over his four combined seasons, he totaled 238 total tackles, 24 stops for loss, six sacks, a forced fumble and three fumble recoveries.

As a senior at UCLA in 2024, Oladejo started two games at inside linebacker before moving to the edge spot. He recorded starts in all 12 games on the season and logged 57 total tackles, 13.5 tackles for loss, 4.5 sacks and two pass breakups. His 13.5 stops for loss, 4.5 sacks and six quarterback hurries led the team. After the season, he was named the Kenny Clark Award winner for the team's most outstanding defensive lineman.

In his first year at UCLA, Oladejo appeared in all 13 games with four starts. His statistics included 54 tackles, a half sack, 3.5 stops for loss, an interception, three passes defended and two fumble recoveries.

The Sacramento, Calif., native played in nine games at Cal as a true freshman in 2021, and in 2022, he appeared in 10 games with 10 starts.

2025 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/7), started at outside linebacker in his NFL debut. He became the first Titans rookie to start at outside linebacker since Harold Landry III in 2018. Posted two tackles and notched a quarterback hit on Bo Nix in the third quarter.
- At Arizona (10/5), posted two tackles and two quarterback pressures.

#21 • CB ROGER McCREARY

5-11, 190, 4th Year/4th with Titans, Auburn

Click for complete bio

Cornerback Roger McCreary is in his fourth NFL season in 2025. He was selected by the Titans in the second round (35th overall) of the 2022 NFL Draft.

During his first three seasons, McCreary appeared in 47 games with 35 starts. He ranked second for the team with 15 total passes defended, while his 21 tackles for loss led the team's defensive backs and ranked third for the defense. His 220 tackles from 2022 to 2024 tied for the NFL's fourth-highest total among cornerbacks. He and the New York Jets' D.J. Reed (220) trailed only Buffalo's Taron Johnson (252), San Francisco's Deommodore Lenoir (246) and Indianapolis' Kenny Moore II (236). McCreary's three-year totals also included two interceptions and three sacks.

In 2024, McCreary saw action in 15 games with seven starts, primarily as the nickel defensive back. He ranked second on the team with 12 tackles for loss, which tied Cincinnati Bengals cornerback Mike Hilton's total for the most in the NFL among defensive backs. McCreary added 50 total tackles, one sack and one pass defended.

In 2023, McCreary ranked third on the team and led all Titans defensive backs with 86 tackles. Among all NFL cornerbacks, his 86 tackles tied Las Vegas' Nate Hobbs for the third-highest total behind Johnson (98) and Indianapolis' Kenny Moore II (93). McCreary added one interception, six passes defended, two sacks, four quarterback pressures, seven tackles for loss and one forced fumble.

As a rookie, McCreary was one of three players on the team to start all 17 games (Kevin Byard, Aaron Brewer), and he became the first Titans rookie cornerback since Adoree' Jackson in 2017 to start every game. Only two other rookie cornerbacks in the NFL—Seattle's Tariq Woolen and the New York Jets' Sauce Gardner—started all 17 games in 2022. McCreary finished third on the Titans defense with 85 tackles, ranked second on the defense with eight passes defended, and added one interception, two tackles for loss and one quarterback pressure.

During four seasons at Auburn (2018-21), McCreary appeared in 43 games with 23 starts and posted 135 tackles, five interceptions, 35 passes defended, 10 stops for loss, a forced fumble and two fumble recoveries.

As a senior in 2021, McCreary started 12 games at cornerback for the Tigers and collected a career-best 49 tackles, an interception, a sack, two stops for loss and a team-best 16 passes defended. He was a first-team All-America selection by The Athletic, Associated Press, ESPN and Reese's Senior Bowl.

As a junior in 2020, he established career highs with three interceptions and seven tackles for loss.

McCreary is a native of Mobile, Ala.

2025 Game Notes:

➤ At Denver (9/7), recorded five tackles and an interception. On the last play of the first quarter, he notched his first interception of the season on a Bo Nix pass. It was his first interception since Nov. 12, 2023 at Tampa Bay. It was the Titans first interception in a season opener since Amani Hooker on Sept. 10, 2023 at New Orleans, and also the team's first interception in the first quarter since Hooker at Indianapolis on Dec. 22, 2025.

➤ Against the L.A. Rams (9/14), ranked third on the defense with seven tackles and added a pass defended. He broke up a pass on third down to help force a punt in the second quarter and register his second consecutive game with a pass defended.

#38 • CB L'JARIUS SNEED

6-1, 192, 6th Year/2nd with Titans, Louisiana Tech
Click for complete bio

Cornerback L'Jarius Sneed is in his sixth NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2025. He was acquired by the Titans in a trade with the Kansas City Chiefs on April 1, 2024.

Sneed started five games before missing the remainder of the season due to a quad injury. He was placed on injured reserve on Nov. 23. His statistics prior to the injury included 23 tackles and two tackles for loss.

Sneed spent four seasons with the Chiefs after they selected him in the fourth round (138th overall) of the 2020 NFL Draft. During that time, he tallied 10 interceptions, 40 passes defended and 6.5 sacks in 57 games. He and Harrison Smith were the only two NFL players from 2020 to 2023 to record at least 10 interceptions and 6.5 sacks.

Sneed also arrived in Tennessee with 13 games of postseason experience. He helped the Chiefs win two Super Bowls (LVII, LVIII), and his seven passes defended tied for third in the postseason from 2020 to 2023. He became one of five NFL players from 2000 to 2023 with at least 75 tackles, two sacks and seven passes defended in the postseason, joining Ray Lewis, James Farrior, Brian Dawkins and Rodney Harrison.

In 2023, he started 16 games at cornerback and amassed 78 tackles, two interceptions, a career-best 14 passes defended and a fumble recovery. He was in the starting lineup for all four Chiefs postseason games and generated 17 tackles, three passes defended and a forced fumble while helping the Chiefs to their second consecutive Super Bowl championship.

As a rookie in 2020, Sneed was named to the Pro Football Writers Association's All-Rookie team after notching 41 tackles, three interceptions, two sacks and seven passes defended in nine games.

As a college player at Louisiana Tech, Sneed was named second-team All-Conference USA as a senior in 2019. He played safety and cornerback in college, and in 51 games, he registered 177 tackles, eight interceptions and 19 passes defended.

He is a native of Minden, La.

2025 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/7), started at cornerback and notched a pass defended in his first action since Week 6 of the 2024 season.
- Against the L.A. Rams (9/14), posted three tackles and a team-high two passes defended.
- At Arizona (10/5), affected Emari Demercado as he lost a fumble through the back of the end zone in the fourth quarter, resulting in a touchback and returning possession to the Titans. The turnover preceded 16 Tennessee points in the final frame to capture the 22-21 victory. He also logged four tackles.

#28 • S QUANDRE DIGGS

5-9, 197, 11th Year/2nd with Titans, Texas

Click for complete bio

Three-time Pro Bowl safety Quandre Diggs is in his 11th NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2025. He re-signed on Aug. 7, 2025 after initially joining the Titans as a free agent on Aug. 6, 2024.

Diggs was limited to eight games in 2024 due to a foot injury. Prior to being placed on injured reserve, he tallied 42 tackles.

Before arriving in Tennessee, Diggs totaled nine seasons between his time with the Detroit Lions (2015-19) and Seattle Seahawks (2019-23). He was originally drafted by the Lions in the sixth round (200th overall) of the 2015 NFL Draft and later traded to the Seahawks during the 2019 campaign. His career totals with the Lions and Seahawks included 137 games played, 112 starts, 24 interceptions, 56 passes defended, 574 tackles, one sack, five forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. He was named to three consecutive Pro Bowls from 2020 to 2022.

In 2023, Diggs started every game for the Seahawks for the fourth consecutive season. He totaled a career-high 95 tackles to go along with one interception and five passes defended.

From 2017 through 2022, Diggs was the NFL's only player to record at least three interceptions every season. He set a career benchmark with five interceptions in 2020 and matched the number in 2021.

Diggs started a total of eight games in his first two years in Detroit. In his third season, he registered 11 starts before starting 16 games for the first time in 2018.

A native of Houston, Texas, Diggs played cornerback at the University of Texas, where he never missed a game in four seasons, appearing in 52 games with 49 starts. He finished his collegiate career tied for ninth in Longhorns history with 11 interceptions, while his 37 career passes defended tied for ninth on the all-time list. He earned All-Big 12 honors three times (2011, 2013, 2014).

2025 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/7), registered three tackles in the season opener.
- Against Indianapolis (9/21), started in a three-safety package, notching his first start since Nov. 3, 2024.
- At Houston (9/28), started and recorded five tackles and a pass defended.

5-11, 200, 9th Year/1st with Titans, Louisiana Tech

Click for complete bio

Safety Xavier Woods is in his ninth NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2025. He was signed by the Titans as a free agent on March 14, 2025.

Woods arrived in Tennessee with eight years of NFL experience, including four seasons with the Dallas Cowboys (2017-20), one season with the Minnesota Vikings (2021) and three seasons with the Carolina Panthers (2022-24). During that span, he appeared in 123 games with 111 starts and totaled 616 tackles, 13 interceptions, 47 passes defensed, 11 stops for loss, one sack, five forced fumbles and five fumble recoveries.

Playing in Carolina in 2024, Woods did not miss a defensive snap and led the league in the category with 1,152, according to TruMedia. He set a career best with 119 tackles and tied his career high with three interceptions.

Woods was a sixth-round selection by Dallas in the 2017 NFL Draft. He played four seasons at Louisiana Tech and was named an All-Conference USA selection three times. Woods finished fifth in school history with 14 career interceptions to go along with a school-record 325 interception return yards. Titans cornerback L'Jarius Sneed and Woods were teammates with the Bulldogs in 2016.

He is a native of West Monroe, La.

#46 • LS MORGAN COX

6-4, 233, 16th Year/5th with Titans, Tennessee
Click for complete bio

Long snapper Morgan Cox is in his 16th NFL season and his fifth campaign with the Titans in 2025. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 19, 2021.

In 2024, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties for the fourth consecutive season. With 68 consecutive games played in his first four seasons with the Titans, he finished the 2024 campaign with the longest active streak of games played for the team. It was the 12th time in his career he appeared in every game for his team.

With Cox serving as the team's long snapper, kicker Nick Folk led the NFL in field goal percentage for the second consecutive season in 2024. Folk connected on 21 of 22 field goals for an NFL-best rate of 95.5 percent. Meanwhile, punter Ryan Stonehouse ranked third in the NFL with an average of 50.6 yards per punt attempt. Also in 2024, Cox was a finalist for the NFL's Bart Starr Award for the second consecutive year.

Cox finished the 2024 season with a career total of 233 games played. He ranked 10th among all active NFL players, and his total also moved him past Reggie White (232 games) for the fourth-most NFL games played by a former University of Tennessee Volunteer behind tight end Jason Witten (271 NFL games), quarterback Peyton Manning (266) and punter Dustin Colquitt (255).

In 2023, Cox's efforts helped Folk lead the NFL in field goal accuracy (96.7 percent) and helped Stonehouse lead the NFL for a second consecutive season in gross punting average (53.1).

In 2022, Cox was named to his fifth career Pro Bowl. He has more Pro Bowl appearances than any other player at his position since the league began naming long snappers to the Pro Bowl in 2004.

His steady play in 2022 helped Stonehouse, a rookie, lead the league and set a new NFL record with a 53.1-yard gross punting average. Stonehouse also finished fourth in the NFL and set a rookie record with a 44.0-yard net average. Meanwhile, kicker Randy Bullock made 17 of 20 field goals (85.0 percent) and made all 28 extra point attempts.

In 2021, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties in 17 regular season games and one postseason game. He helped Bullock finish ninth in franchise history with 120 points in a single season, including three game-winning field goals (Sept. 19 at Seattle, Oct. 31 at Indianapolis and Dec. 23 against San Francisco). He also snapped for punter Brett Kern, who had the league's third-best ratio of punts inside the 20 to touchbacks (18:1).

In his first 11 seasons, Cox appeared in 165 regular season games for the Baltimore Ravens, serving as the team's primary long snapper after entering the NFL as an undrafted free agent in 2010. He was selected to four Pro Bowls and was a part of five playoff teams in Baltimore, totaling 10 postseason games played.

In 2020, he earned his fourth career Pro Bowl selection. He helped kicker Justin Tucker record his fifth consecutive season with at least 130 points, tying the NFL record of consecutive seasons with 130-plus points. Tucker connected on 26 of 29 field goals (89.7 percent) and was 52 of 53 on extra points (98.1 percent). Cox also snapped on all 51 of Sam Koch's 51 punts, as Koch was the NFL's only punter to place at least 20 punts (22) inside in the 20-yard line and have no more than one touchback.

A native of Collierville, Tenn., Cox played 38 games in three seasons (2007-09) as the primary long snapper at the University of Tennessee.

#3 • P JOHNNY HEKKER

6-5, 225, 14th Year/1st with Titans, Oregon State
Click for complete bio

Four-time Pro Bowl punter Johnny Hekker is in his 14th NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2025. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 13, 2025.

In 13 seasons before arriving in Tennessee, Hekker played in 212 games and punted 963 times for a 46.8-yard gross average (45,052 yards) with 378 punts placed inside the 20-yard line and a 42.9 career net punting average. A member of the NFL 2010's All-Decade team, Hekker is a six-time All-Pro with four first-team selections (2013, 2015-17) and two second-team selections (2014, 2018). He was named to the Pro Bowl following the 2013, 2015, 2016 and 2017 seasons.

Hekker has climbed near the top of several all-time NFL leaderboards during his career. In 2016, he established the NFL single-season record with 51 punts inside the 20 (51 in 2016), and in the same season, he established an NFL record (since broken) with a 46.0 net punting average. Hekker ended the 2024 campaign ranked fifth all-time in career net average (42.9) and tied for 11th all-time in gross average (46.8).

Hekker entered the league as a rookie free agent with the St. Louis Rams in 2012. The Oregon State product spent his first 10 NFL campaigns with the club and helped the Rams conclude the 2021 campaign with a win Super Bowl LVI before signing with the Carolina Panthers as a free agent in 2022.

In 2024, his last season with the Panthers, Hekker saw action in all 17 games and punted 73 times for 3,338 yards (45.7 gross avg.) with 24 punts placed inside the 20-yard line and a 41.9 net punt average.

He is a native of Bothell, Wash.

2025 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/7), made his Titans debut and averaged 49.4 yards and 41.0 net yards on eight punts with two punts placed inside the 20. In his 17th career game with eight or more punts, his 49.4-yard gross average ranked fifth in his career in a game with eight or more punts. His gross average also ranked ninth in franchise history for a player in a game with eight or more punts.
- Against the L.A. Rams (9/14), averaged 50.0 gross yards and 47.2 net yards on five punts with two punts placed inside the 20. In the first quarter, he pinned the Rams on their 10-yard line with a 48-yard punt, and in the second quarter, he pinned the Rams on their four-yard line with a 44-yard punt. Through two games, he placed three total punts inside the opponent's 10-yard line, which tied for the most by a Titans player through the first two games of a season (Brett Kern in 2011 and 2013) since 2000.

- Against Indianapolis (9/21), recorded a 52-yard punt on his only attempt.
- At Houston (9/28), averaged 42.6 gross yards and 39.6 net yards on five punts with two punts placed inside the 20.
- At Arizona (10/5), averaged 54.2 gross yards and 47.0 net yards on five punts with three punts inside the 20. He logged his fifth career game and his first since Dec. 15, 2019 in which he punted five or more times and averaged at least 54.0 gross yards and 47.0 net yards with three or more punts inside the 20. In the second quarter, he pinned Arizona on its 11-yard line with a 50-yard punt, and in the third quarter, his 50-yard punt pinned the Cardinals on the seven-yard line.

#6 • K JOEY SLYE

5-11, 213, 7th Year/1st with Titans, Virginia Tech
Click for complete bio

Kicker Joey Slye is in his seventh NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2025. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 24, 2025.

Prior to arriving in Tennessee, Slye appeared in 95 games over six seasons with the Carolina Panthers (2019-20), Houston Texans (2022), San Francisco 49ers (2022), Washington Commanders (2022-23) and New England Patriots (2024). The Virginia Tech product has also spent time with the N.Y. Giants and Jacksonville Jaguars. From 2019 to 2024, he made 147 field goals on 180 attempts and added 163 extra points on 182 attempts.

In 2024, Slye played in all 17 games for the Patriots and connected on 26 of 33 field goal attempts and 25 of 26 extra point attempts for a total of 103 points. At San Francisco on Sept. 29, 2024, he set a Patriots record and established his career long with a 63-yard field goal at the end of the second quarter. It tied for the fourth-longest field goal in NFL history.

In his final season in Washington (2023), Slye saw action in all 17 games and handled all kickoffs, field goals and extra points for the Commanders. He connected on 19 of 24 field goals and 32 of 35 extra points for 89 points. Also had 64 touchbacks on 69 kickoffs.

The North Stafford, Va., native attended Virginia Tech (2014-17), where he played four seasons and made 78 of 108 field goal attempts (72.2 percent) and 169 of 172 extra point attempts (98.3 percent).

2025 Game Notes:

➤ At Denver (9/7), converted on all four field goal attempts in his Titans debut, including makes of 50, 39, 42 and 35 yards. It was Slye's sixth career game with four or more made field goals. His first attempt as a member of the Titans was a 50-yarder that he made in the first quarter. Joined Nick Folk (Sept. 10, 2023 at New Orleans) and Ryan Succop (Sept. 7, 2014 at Kansas City) as the team's only kickers with four or more field goals in a Week 1 game in the franchise's "Titans era" (since 1999).

➤ Against the L.A. Rams (9/14), made all four field goal attempts, connecting from 55, 37, 57 and 35 yards. He added an extra point. Kicked two of the 10 longest field goals in franchise history in the game. Joined Brandon Aubrey (2024), John Kasay (1996) and Nick Lowery (1985) as the only NFL players since the 1970 merger to make four field goals in each of the first two weeks of a season. Became the first player in franchise history to record two field goals of 55-plus yards in the same game. At the time, his 55-yard field goal in the second quarter tied (four previous) for the fifth-longest field goal in franchise history. Drilled a 37-yard field goal as time expired in the first half. Recorded a 57-yard field goal in the third quarter, the second-longest in franchise history. The only field goal from a longer distance was Rob Bironas' 60-yard game-winner against Indianapolis on Dec. 3, 2006. Increased his career total to 10 field goals of 55 yards or longer. For the first time in his career, he recorded back-to-back performances with four field goals, and for the first time in his career, he reached three consecutive games with at least three field goals made. He connected on a trio of field goals in the 2024 season finale with the Patriots before making four field goals in Week 1 of 2025 at Denver. In his first two games with the Titans, he connected on all eight field goal attempts with makes in six of the team's eight quarters played in 2025. His eight field goals established a new franchise high for any Titans/Oilers kicker in the first two games of a season, breaking the mark of seven field goals by Nick Folk in 2023.

➤ Against Indianapolis (9/21), made two of his four attempts, connecting from 57 and 42 yards and missing from 64 and 62 yards, the latter of which was blocked. In the first quarter, he made a 57-yard field goal to tie the second-longest field goal in franchise history, which he made in the previous game against the L.A. Rams (Sept. 14). He joined Jake Elliott (2025), Brandon Aubrey (2024), Greg Zuerlein (2022) and Brett Maher (2019) as the NFL's only kickers to have a field goal of at least 57 yards in two consecutive games. Slye joined Rob Bironas (2009) as the team's only kickers in the "Titans era" (since 1999) to register three consecutive games with at least one field goal of 50-plus yards, and also became the only franchise kicker other than Bironas (four) with three career field goals of 55-plus yards. He was credited with a career-high two special teams tackles.

➤ At Arizona (10/5), participated in his 100th NFL game (regular season). Made three field goals, including the game-winning 29-yard field goal as time expired in the fourth quarter. It was his first career game-winning field goal. He also made a 44-yard field goal in the first quarter and a 51-yarder in the second quarter. His game-winner was his 13th field goal of the season. He joined Ryan Succop (13 in 2018) and Nick Folk (13 in 2023) as the only players in franchise history with 13 or more field goals in the first five games of a season.

TITANS RADIO BROADCAST TEAM & LINEUP

Taylor Zarzour, a nationally recognized broadcaster with over 20 years of experience, joins the Titans Radio Network as the new play-by-play voice of the Tennessee Titans. Known for his energetic style, clarity, and deep football knowledge, Zarzour has called games for ESPN, SEC Network, and SiriusXM. His addition signals a new era of Titans Radio, bringing fans closer than ever to the action.

Returning for his ninth season as color analyst is Dave McGinnis, whose four decades of coaching experience—including time as an NFL head coach and longtime Titans assistant—provide invaluable insight and analysis. A fan favorite affectionately known as “Coach Mac,” McGinnis’ passion and expertise make every broadcast a must-listen event.

Joining the game day team as sideline reporter is Will Boling, a versatile broadcaster and Nashville native with a growing footprint in Tennessee sports media. Boling has been a familiar voice on 104.5 The Zone, known for his high school football coverage and engaging on-air presence. His energy and local perspective will bring fans the latest developments from field level each game.

NISSAN STADIUM GAMEDAY MEDIA INFORMATION

FOOTBALL COMMUNICATIONS CONTACTS

Titans Media Relations (Press Box Seats B8-B15): (615) 565-4450
 Evert Geerlings, Vice President, Football Communications
 Dwight Spradlin, Director of Football Communications
 Jared Puffer, Associate Director of Football Communications (Field Contact)
 Kaylee Connors, Coordinator of Football Communications
 Travis McDaniel, Football Communications Assistant
 Preston Anderson, Football Communications Fellow (Media Will Call)
 Visiting Team Media Relations (Press Box Seats 29-32): (615) 565-4452

DIRECTIONS TO NISSAN STADIUM

FROM AIRPORT TO NISSAN STADIUM (APPROXIMATELY 15 MINUTES):
 Take I-40 West toward Nashville/Memphis to I-24 West (before downtown). Exit at James Robertson Parkway (Exit 48). Turn left at first light (Interstate Drive). Turn right on Woodland Street. Nissan Stadium will be on the left. Follow signs to parking lot ("M" lot on northwest corner/river side of stadium).

NISSAN STADIUM MEDIA WILL CALL/MEDIA ENTRANCE

The media will call window and media entrance are located in the northwest corner of Nissan Stadium near Gate 6. The media will call window opens three hours prior to kickoff.

FIELD MEDIA VESTS

All members of the media with field access during the game must wear a media vest. Still and video photographers will be issued tan vests, while team-affiliated photographers and videographers (scoreboard, social, coaches' shows, etc.) will be issued gray vests. Additionally, media with in-game field access will be issued an armband. All vests and armbands must be obtained prior to each game at the check-in table. Vest check-in is located on the third-floor landing near the press box. All vests must be returned at the conclusion of the game to Titans personnel or to the vest check-in table.

NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX INTERNET ACCESS

Wireless internet access is available free of charge in the Nissan Stadium press box. The login information will be available upon arrival in the press box. A limited number of ethernet lines also are available. Accessing the wireless network works the same in the Nissan Stadium press box as it does in most areas with free connectivity. Titans staff may be able to assist in a limited manner, but you should first contact your company's I.T. department with any questions.

FROM NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX TO INTERVIEW ROOMS

Take the press box elevator (Level 3) to field level (Level 1). The Titans interview room is immediately on the right. Turn left and continue straight along the concourse to reach the visiting team's interview room (white line).

POSTGAME POLICIES

Reporters with press box credentials will not be allowed on the field during pregame activities or during the game itself. Press box credentials do NOT provide access to the field at the two-minute warning in the fourth quarter. Media will be allowed to gather in the Titans interview room to watch the end of the game or remain in the press box to make the short walk down to service level at the conclusion of the game. Interviews with Titans players are not permitted on the field following the game. The press conference will begin approximately 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game and will be held in the interview room across from the Titans locker room. Key players also will be brought to the interview room. Simultaneously, the locker room will open to credentialed media members with a working function. The press conference audio will be played live over the press box speakers.

POSTGAME QUOTES

Quotes from each team's head coach and key players will be transcribed and distributed throughout the Nissan Stadium press box following the game. The quotes also will be available at www.TennesseeTitans.com/media.

POOL REPORTS

Pool reporters are assigned by the Pro Football Writers of America. Requests for pool reports with game officials must be made in advance through the home team's media relations. Interviews will be conducted virtually. Pool reports will be recorded, transcribed and then distributed in the press box.

EXITING NISSAN STADIUM

FROM NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX TO STADIUM EXIT: Cross the press box catwalk to the third floor lobby. If less than two hours have elapsed since the end of the game, take the stairs or elevator one floor down to Level 2. Exit through the doors and walk right to get to the "M" lot. If more than two hours have elapsed since the end of the game, take the elevator down to Level 1. Proceed through the lower concourse and exit through the security checkpoint at the loading dock.

FROM NISSAN STADIUM TO AIRPORT (APPROXIMATELY 15 MINUTES):
 Take I-24 East toward Chattanooga to I-40 East toward Knoxville. The airport is at Exit 216A.

NISSAN STADIUM PARKING AND MEDIA ENTRANCE

The media will call window and media entrance are located in the northwest corner of Nissan Stadium near Gate 6. The media will call window opens three hours prior to kickoff. Photographers' vests can be picked up near the entrance to the press box on Level 3.
