TENNESSEE TITANS SEASON REVIEW

*Titans, new GM Mike Borgonzi go into 2025 with first overall draft choice;
Brian Callahan enters second season as head coach*

NASHVILLE — On Jan. 17, 2025, Tennessee Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk announced the hiring of former Kansas City Chiefs assistant general manager Mike Borgonzi as general manager to join president of football operations Chad Brinker and head coach Brian Callahan.

Together the three are tasked with turning around a team that finished 3-14 in 2024. Armed with the first overall pick in this year's NFL Draft and salary cap space to use in free agency, the work is already underway.

BORGONZI HIRED AS GENERAL MANAGER

Borgonzi became the 15th general manager in Titans/Oilers history after spending the last 16 seasons with the Kansas City Chiefs, including the last four years as assistant general manager. During Borgonzi's time in Kansas City, he contributed to 12 playoff seasons and 10 AFC West titles (2010, 2016-24). Borgonzi helped construct a roster over a six-season span that won the AFC five times (2019-20, 2022-24) and captured three Super Bowl championships (2019, 2022-23).

As the assistant general manager from 2021 through 2024, he supervised and directed the college and professional scouting operations while closely supporting and advising Chiefs general manager Brett Veach with the club's roster management and player acquisition via the NFL Draft, free agency, waiver claims and trades.

"Mike's experience speaks for itself: he has been part of the core team that delivered (five) AFC championships and three Super Bowls over the past (six) seasons," said Adams Strunk. "It's the type of standard I want to build here in Tennessee. I know we have a lot of work ahead of us, and I'm excited for Mike to get started."

"When we set out to find our next general manager, we were looking for someone who not only had a deep understanding of the game, but someone who had a clear vision for building a championship culture and a football team that would be successful year after year. Mike Borgonzi is exactly that person," said Brinker. "He brings a unique combination of experience, leadership and strategic thinking that aligns with where we want to be and where we want to go as an organization. And throughout his career, Mike has consistently demonstrated the ability to evaluate talent, build strong rosters, and create an environment where players and coaches can thrive. We firmly believe he is the most well-rounded candidate for the job, and we have every confidence in his ability to lead us to success."

Prior to his promotion to assistant general manager, Borgonzi served as director of football operations (2018-20), director of player personnel (2017), co-director of player personnel (2015-16), assistant director of pro scouting (2013-14), pro personnel scout (2011-12) and manager of football operations (2010). He joined the Chiefs in 2009 as the club's college scouting administrator.

In addition to Borgonzi, the Titans hired Dave Ziegler as assistant general manager and Reggie McKenzie as vice president/football advisor. Ziegler, who spent the 2024 season as senior personnel advisor for the New Orleans Saints, arrives in Tennessee with 15 years of NFL personnel experience. He served as general manager for the Las Vegas Raiders in 2022 and 2023.

McKenzie, who spent the past six seasons (2019–24) with the Miami Dolphins as senior personnel executive, returns to his home state, where he was raised in Knoxville and played linebacker at the University of Tennessee. After a seven-year professional playing career, McKenzie embarked upon a career working in NFL front offices that is now entering its 32nd campaign. He totaled 18 seasons (1994 - 2011) with the Green Bay Packers, rising in the ranks to director of football operations (2008-11). In 2012, the Raiders hired McKenzie as general manager, a role he maintained for seven seasons (2012-18).

COACHING CHANGES

The coaching staff itself features several newcomers in 2025. Veteran coach Jim Fassel was hired as special teams coordinator, a title he has held since 2008, most recently holding the post with the Dallas Cowboys since 2020. Fassel was a longtime special teams coordinator for the St. Louis/Los Angeles Rams (2012-2019), and he served as the Rams' head coach for three games in 2016. In addition to his time with the Cowboys and Rams, Fassel headed up special teams with the Oakland Raiders from 2008-11. Fassel will bring with him Rayna Stewart as a special teams assistant. Stewart is a former Houston/Tennessee Oiler player and Titans assistant coach who most recently coached alongside Fassel in Dallas.

Travis Smith was hired as defensive run game coordinator. Smith joins the Titans after spending three seasons (2022-24) as the defensive line coach for the Chicago Bears. Prior to joining the Bears, Smith spent 10 seasons (2012-21) with the Oakland/Las Vegas Raiders, serving in a number of roles, including assistant defensive line (2020-21), defensive quality control (2018-19, 2015-16), outside linebackers (2017), and defensive assistant (2012-14).

Tony Oden joins the staff as defensive passing game coordinator/cornerbacks coach. Oden, who brings 19 years of NFL coaching experience and an additional eight seasons in the college coaching ranks, has coached multiple Pro Bowl cornerbacks and safeties during his time in the league. He spent the last four years (2021-24) with the New York Jets as senior defensive assistant/cornerbacks. In each of the last three seasons, the Jets ranked in the top 5 in defensive yards allowed, including 2024, where they ranked third in total yards allowed and fourth in passing yards allowed.

Returning to the staff in new roles, Lori Locust was promoted to defensive assistant and Luke Stocker was promoted to tight ends coach.

OFFSEASON TIMELINE

On March 12, the NFL's 2025 League Year begins and Borgonzi will have his first major opportunity of the offseason to add outside talent to the roster. The date marks the beginning of unrestricted free agency for players whose contracts have expired, the start of the NFL's trading period and requirement to be under the league's 2025 salary cap. Teams can begin negotiating with certified agents of unrestricted free agents on March 10, two days before the new league year.

In the meantime, scouting efforts related to the NFL Draft will be in full swing. The Titans currently own eight total picks including the first overall selection in the draft, scheduled for April 24-26 in Green Bay, Wis. The process leading up to the draft includes the NFL Scouting Combine in Indianapolis (Feb. 24 to March 3), college pro days and prospect visits to Ascension Saint Thomas Sports Park. In addition to these, the staff attended college All-Star games where they were able to meet with players in attendance for the first time.

Callahan and the coaching staff will get their first up-close interaction with new and returning veterans when the offseason program begins in late-April. Clubs are allowed to conduct a voluntary nine-week offseason program in three phases and may hold a mandatory minicamp during phase three, which is a four-week period that also includes a maximum of 10 days of organized team practice activities (OTAs). The offseason program concludes in June, and at that point, players will be off until training camp commences in July.

2025 OPPONENTS

The Titans' opponents for the 2025 regular season are set under the NFL's 17-game scheduling formula. During the regular season, they are slated for nine games at Nissan Stadium and eight road contests.

As always, the Titans have home and road games against each of the AFC South rival Houston Texans, Indianapolis Colts and Jacksonville Jaguars.

Based upon the NFL's schedule rotation, the Titans will face every team from the AFC West in 2024. They are slated for home games against the Kansas City Chiefs and Los Angeles Chargers and are scheduled to meet the Denver Broncos and Las Vegas Raiders on the road.

Additionally, the Titans will square off against the NFC West. They are scheduled for home dates against the Los Angeles Rams and Seattle Seahawks and road games versus the Arizona Cardinals and San Francisco 49ers.

Every team plays two intraconference games that are determined by order of finish within its division. By finishing fourth in the AFC South in 2024, they are slated for a 2025 home matchup with the AFC East's equivalent finisher, the fourth-place New England Patriots. The Titans will go on the road to meet the AFC North's fourth-place Cleveland Browns.

Similarly, the NFL's 17-game format unveiled for the first time in 2021 features interconference matchups based on the previous year's divisional standings. The AFC will be the home conference for the 17th game in 2025 after going on the road in 2024. As a result, the Titans are scheduled to host a ninth game, which means welcoming the fourth-place finishers of the NFC South, the New Orleans Saints, to Nissan Stadium.

The complete league schedule with dates and times, including each club's three-game preseason slate, is typically released by the NFL in May.

Mike Borgonzi was named the 15th general manager in franchise history on Jan. 17, 2025.

Borgonzi arrived in Tennessee with 16 years of experience with the Kansas City Chiefs. For the last four seasons, he served as Kansas City's Assistant General Manager.

"Mike's experience speaks for itself: he has been part of the core team that delivered (five) AFC championships and three Super Bowls over the past (six) seasons," said Titans Controlling Owner Amy Adams Strunk. "It's the type of standard I want to build here in Tennessee. I know we have a lot of work ahead of us, and I'm excited for Mike to get started."

"During Mike's 16 years in the league, he has been a key part of transforming the Chiefs from a two-win team to a three-time Super Bowl champion," said Titans President of Football Operations Chad Brinker. "During our meetings, he articulated a clear plan to build a championship standard in Nashville through consistency, discipline, and hard work. I've admired him for many years and I'm thrilled to add him to the team as our general manager."

During Borgonzi's time in Kansas City, he contributed to 12 playoff seasons and 10 AFC West titles (2010, 2016-24). Borgonzi helped construct a roster over a five-season span that won the AFC five times (2019-20, 2022-24) and captured three Super Bowl championships (2019, 2022-23).

For the last eight seasons (2017-24), Borgonzi worked under Chiefs General Manager Brett Veach. As the Assistant General Manager from 2021 through 2024, he supervised and directed the college and professional scouting operations while closely supporting and advising Veach with the club's roster management and player acquisition via the NFL Draft, free agency, waiver claims and trades. During his four seasons as Assistant General Manager, the Chiefs built a league-best 52-16 regular-season record (.765). In the same four-year span, 10 different Kansas City players earned a combined 23 Pro Bowl selections: tackle Orlando Brown Jr. (2021-22), wide receiver Tyreek Hill (2021), center Creed Humphrey (2022-24), defensive tackle Chris Jones (2021-24), tight end Travis Kelce (2021-24), quarterback Patrick Mahomes (2021-23), safety Tyrann Mathieu (2021), guard Trey Smith (2024), guard Joe Thuney (2022-24) and punter Tommy Townsend (2022).

The Chiefs entered the 2024 postseason after capturing their ninth consecutive AFC West crown. They tied the Detroit Lions for the NFL's best record at 15-2, setting a franchise record for wins in a regular season and securing the AFC's top seed. Twenty original Chiefs draft picks started at least six games for the team during the 2024 regular season. Kansas City had five players voted to the Pro Bowl, marking the seventh consecutive year in which it had at least five players earn the honor.

Prior to his promotion to Assistant General Manager, Borgonzi served as Director of Football Operations (2018-20), Director of Player Personnel (2017), Co-Director of Player Personnel (2015-16), Assistant Director of Pro Scouting (2013-14), Pro Personnel Scout (2011-12) and Manager of Football Operations (2010). He joined the Chiefs in 2009 as the club's College Scouting Administrator.

Before landing in the NFL with the Chiefs, Borgonzi spent the 2007 and 2008 seasons at Boston College, where he was the Assistant Recruiting Coordinator. He also coached tight ends at Amherst College in 2002 before working in the financial sector in Boston for several years.

A native of Everett, Mass., Borgonzi graduated from Brown University, where he was a four-year starter at fullback and was a three-time All-Ivy League selection.

He and his wife, Jill, have a son, Joseph, and a daughter, Nina. His brother, Dave, has served as the linebackers coach for the Indianapolis Colts and Chicago Bears and currently serves as the linebackers coach for the Dallas Cowboys.

Q. When does the 2025 free agency signing period begin?

A. At 4:00 p.m. ET on Wednesday, March 12.

Q. When is the two-day negotiating period for potential unrestricted free agents?

A. From 12:00 p.m. ET on Monday, March 10 until 3:59:59 p.m. ET on Wednesday, March 12, clubs are permitted to contact and enter into contract negotiations with the certified agents of players who will become unrestricted free agents upon expiration of their 2024 player contracts at 4:00 p.m. ET on March 12.

Q. What are the categories of free agency?

A. Players are either “restricted free agents” or “unrestricted free agents.” A restricted free agent may be subject to a “qualifying offer.” A restricted or unrestricted free agent may be designated by his prior club as its franchise player or transition player.

Q. What is the time period for free agency signings this year?

A. For restricted free agents, from March 12 to April 18. For unrestricted free agents who have received a tender from their prior club by the Monday immediately following the final day of the NFL Draft for the 2025 League Year (“April 29 Tender”), from March 12 to July 21 (or the first scheduled day of the first NFL training camp, whichever is later). For franchise players, from March 12 until the Tuesday following Week 10 of the regular season. For transition players, from March 12 until July 21. After July 21 and until 4 p.m. ET on the Tuesday following Week 10 of the regular season, the prior club has exclusive negotiating rights to unrestricted free agents and transition players. If the above-listed players do not sign by November 12, they must sit out the season.

Q. What is the difference between a restricted free agent and an unrestricted free agent?

A. In the 2025 league year, players with three accrued seasons who have received a qualifying offer become restricted free agents when their contracts expire at the conclusion of the 2024 league year on March 12. Unrestricted free agents have completed four or more accrued seasons. Upon expiration of his 2024 contract, an unrestricted free agent is free to sign with any club with no draft-choice compensation owed to his old club.

Q. What constitutes an “accrued season”?

A. Six or more regular season games on a club’s active/inactive, reserve/injured or reserve/physically unable to perform lists.

Q. How do the free agency rules apply to restricted free agents?

A. If a player with three accrued seasons has received a “qualifying offer” (a salary tender predetermined by the Collective Bargaining Agreement between the league and its players) from his old club, he can negotiate with any club through April 18. If the restricted free agent signs an offer sheet with a new club, his old club can match the offer and retain him because the qualifying offer entitles it to a “right of first refusal” on any offer sheet the player signs. If the old club does not match the offer, it may receive draft-choice compensation depending on the amount of its qualifying offer. If an offer sheet is not executed on or before April 18, the player’s negotiating rights revert exclusively to his old club. In addition, prior to the start of free agency a player who would otherwise be a restricted free agent may be designated by his old club as its franchise player or transition player.

Q. What determines an unrestricted free agent?

A. A player with four or more accrued seasons whose contract has expired. He is free to sign with any club, with no draft-choice compensation owed to his old club, through July 21 (or the first scheduled day of the first NFL training camp, whichever is later). At that point, his negotiating rights revert exclusively to his old club if by April 29 the old club tendered the player a one-year contract for 110 percent of his prior year’s salary. His old club then has until the Tuesday following Week 10 of the regular season to sign him. If he does not sign by that date, he must sit out the season. If no tender is offered by April 29, the player can be signed by any club at any time throughout the season.

Q. What determines a franchise player?

A. The salary offer by a player’s club determines what type of franchise player he is: exclusive or non-exclusive.

An “exclusive” franchise player – not free to sign with another club – is offered the greater of (i) the average of the top five salaries at the player’s position for the current year as of the end of the restricted free agent signing period on April 18; or (ii) the amount of the required tender for a non-exclusive franchise player, as explained below.

Article 10, Section 2(a)(i) of the CBA sets forth the methodology, known as the “Cap Percentage Average,” for calculating the required tender for a non-exclusive franchise player:

The Nonexclusive Franchise Tender shall be a one year NFL Player Contract for (A) the average of the five largest Prior Year Salaries for players at the position ... at which the Franchise Player participated in the most plays during the prior League Year, which average shall be calculated by: (1) summing the amounts of the Franchise Tags for players at that position for the five preceding League Years; (2) dividing the resulting amount by the sum of the Salary Caps for the five preceding League Years ... ; and (3) multiplying the resulting percentage by the Salary Cap for the upcoming League Year ... (the “Cap Percentage Average”) ... ; or (B) 120% of his Prior Year Salary, whichever is greater ... .

If a club extends a required tender to a “non-exclusive” franchise player pursuant to this section, the player shall be permitted to negotiate a player contract with any club, except that draft-choice compensation of two first-round draft selections shall be made in the event he signs with a new club.

Q. How many franchise players and transition players can a team designate each season?

A. A club can designate one franchise player or one transition player among its potential restricted or unrestricted free agents.

Q. Can a club decide to withdraw its franchise or transition designation on a player?

A. Yes. A club can withdraw its franchise or transition designation, and the player then automatically becomes an unrestricted free agent, either immediately if the tender is withdrawn after the start of the 2025 league year, or when his 2024 contract expires if the tender is withdrawn before the start of the 2025 league year.

Q. Have the Titans used the franchise or transition designations recently?

A. The last Titans player to receive the franchise designation was running back Derrick Henry in 2020. After receiving the franchise tag, Henry and the Titans reached a long-term contract agreement. Prior to Henry, the Titans used the franchise designation in 2012 on safety Michael Griffin, in 2009 on tight end Bo Scaife, and in 2008 on defensive tackle Albert Haynesworth. Before Haynesworth, the Titans had not applied the franchise tag to a player since Blaine Bishop in 1997. The transition designation has not been used by the Titans since they applied it to punter Craig Hentrich in 2003. The tag was removed after one week, and he was signed to a long-term contract.

Q. When must teams be in compliance with the salary cap?

A. At the start of the 2025 league year, which begins at 4:00 p.m. ET on Wednesday, March 12.

Q. If a team is under the salary cap at the end of a given season, can the team “carry over” room to the next season?

A. Yes. A team may carry over room from one league year to the following league year by submitting notice to the NFL prior to 4:00 p.m. ET on the day following the team’s final regular-season game, indicating the amount of room that the club wishes to carry over.

Q. What is the maximum amount of room that a club can carry over?

A. A club can carry over 100 percent of its remaining 2024 room to its adjusted salary cap for 2025.

TITANS OWN FIRST OVERALL DRAFT PICK

The Titans currently own eight total choices, including the first overall pick, in the 90th National Football League Player Selection Meeting. The first round will start on Thursday, April 24, in Green Bay, Wis., with the second and third rounds on Friday, April 25, followed by rounds four through seven on Saturday, April 26.

For the duration of the draft, Titans general manager Mike Borgonzi, head coach Brian Callahan and their staffs will be headquartered at Ascension Saint Thomas Sports Park in MetroCenter, just north of downtown Nashville.

EIGHT PICKS

Included in the Titans' eight picks are single selections in Rounds 1, 2, 6 and 7. They additionally own two picks in Rounds 4 and 5. They surrendered this year's third-round choice to the Kansas City Chiefs in the 2024 trade for cornerback L'Jarvis Sneed.

The last time the Titans used eight or more draft picks was 2022, when they made nine selections.

Additionally, the NFL will award a total of 32 compensatory picks to teams in Rounds 3-7, based on net unrestricted free agency losses in 2024. The NFL typically announces the compensatory picks in March.

Teams are permitted to trade any pick, including compensatory selections.

THE FIRST PICK

In determining draft order, non-playoff clubs select first through 18th, according to the reverse order of their standing (i.e., the team with the lowest winning percentage receives the first pick, the team with the second-lowest winning percentage receives the second pick, etc.). Playoff teams select 19th through 32nd based on their level of advancement in the postseason.

Ties in the draft order are broken by figuring the aggregate won-lost-tied percentage of each involved club's regular season opponents (strength of schedule) and awarding preferential selection order to the club which faced the schedule of teams with the lowest aggregate won-lost-tied percentage. If ties still exist, the divisional, conference or interconference tie-breaking methods are applied, whichever is applicable.

Clubs involved in two-club ties alternate positions from round-to-round. In ties that involve three or more clubs, the club at the top of a tied segment in a given round will move to the bottom of the segment for the next round, while all other clubs in the segment move up one position. This rotation continues throughout the draft.

The Titans were one of three teams with a 3-14 record in 2024, along with the Cleveland Browns and New York Giants. The Titans had a .522 strength of schedule in 2024, while the Browns and Giants finished at .536 and .554, respectively. As a result, the Titans own the first pick in the first round, followed by the Browns and Giants. In the second round, the Titans move to the third slot (35th overall), behind the Browns (33rd overall) and Giants (34th). The Giants select first in the third round, and the three teams will rotate positions accordingly throughout the remainder of the draft.

Exact selection numbers for Rounds 4-7 will be known once compensatory selections are awarded.

Since 1967, when the NFL and AFL agreed to a "common draft," the Titans/Oilers have used the No. 1 pick on two prior occasions. In 1973, the Oilers selected defensive end John Matuszak with the top pick, and in 1978, they traded up to select running back Earl Campbell with the first selection. Additionally, the franchise possessed the first pick in 1974 but traded it to Dallas, and in 2016, the team traded the first overall pick to the Los Angeles Rams.

The first pick of the 2024 NFL Draft was University of Southern California quarterback Caleb Williams, who was taken by the Chicago Bears. As a rookie, Williams started all 17 games, passing for 3,541 yards and 20 touchdowns with six interceptions.

In 58 drafts in the common draft era, there have been a total of 41 No. 1 overall picks (70.7 percent) that have gone on to make at least one Pro Bowl. The list includes 10 members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame: quarterback Peyton Manning (1998, Indianapolis Colts), tackle Orlando Pace (1997, St. Louis Rams), quarterback Troy Aikman (1989, Dallas Cowboys), defensive end Bruce Smith (1985, Buffalo Bills), quarterback John Elway (1983, Baltimore Colts), Campbell (1978, Houston Oilers), defensive end Lee Roy Selmon (1976, Tampa Bay Buccaneers), quarterback Terry Bradshaw (1970, Pittsburgh Steelers), running back O.J. Simpson (1969, Buffalo Bills) and tackle Ron Yary (1968, Minnesota Vikings).

In addition to Williams, the recent list of players selected first overall includes quarterback Bryce Young (2023, Carolina), defensive end Travon Walker (2022, Jacksonville), quarterback Trevor Lawrence (2021, Jacksonville) and quarterback Joe Burrow (2020, Cincinnati).

In the past 25 drafts (2000 to 2024), a quarterback has been selected first overall 18 times. The only other positions taken were defensive ends/outside linebackers (five selections) and offensive tackles (two).

FIRST-ROUND PICKS BY POSITION

Since the team's initial draft as a charter member of the American Football League in 1960, the Titans have made 61 first-round selections, using that pick on an offensive player 36 times and on defense 25 times.

On offense, running backs and tackles lead the list, with each position having been chosen eight times in the first round. In 2024, the Titans drafted tackle JC Latham with the seventh overall pick. The most recent running back taken by the organization in the first round was Chris Johnson, the 24th overall selection in 2008.

On the defensive side of the ball, linebackers have been selected the most—eight times—by the Titans in the first round. Robert Brazile (1975), Lamar Lathon (1990) and Keith Bulluck (2000) headline the linebackers chosen. Most recently, the Titans selected linebacker Rashaan Evans with their first-round pick in 2018.

During the franchise's "Titans era," which began in 1999, Tennessee has chosen an offensive player with a first-round pick 14 times and a defensive player 11 times. On two occasions during that span—2001 and 2004—the team did not have a first-round pick due to trades.

Video: Brian Callahan's Introductory Press Conference

Brian Callahan was named head coach of the Titans on Jan. 24, 2024, becoming the 20th head coach in franchise history.

"This is an exciting time for our franchise, and we're thrilled to have Brian as our head coach," said Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk. "We went through a thorough candidate search and Brian stood out as the best person to lead our football team. I want to thank the other candidates who were part of this process and wish them well moving forward.

"Brian has a track record of success and a range of experience that has prepared him for this opportunity. His football knowledge and his enthusiasm for the game really stand out, and beyond that, we think his ability to lead will make him the ideal fit for our franchise.

"If you look at his history, Brian has been a part of a Super Bowl winning team (Denver, 2015) and another team that advanced to the Super Bowl (Cincinnati, 2021). He's worked in a variety of dynamic offenses with top-flight quarterbacks. At each step of his career, he's shown the flexibility and intelligence to make an impact.

"During his time with the Bengals, he was trusted with a number of responsibilities—offensive design, quarterback development, a contributor to the free agency and draft processes—and showed the ability to be a resource in all of those areas. As we seek sustained success and pursue a championship, Brian has seen firsthand what that looks like, and he is the right person to lead us there."

During his first season as head coach, Callahan guided a team that underwent significant personnel changes. In Week 1, 11 players started for the team who were added during the offseason—five players on offense and six on defense. Two of those players on offense, running back Tony Pollard (1,079 rushing yards) and wide receiver Calvin Ridley (1,017 receiving yards), went on to produce 1,000-yard seasons rushing and receiving, respectively.

All seven members of the Titans' 2024 draft class saw action in at least seven games as rookies. First-rounder JC Latham was the NFL's only rookie in 2024 to start 17 games at left tackle, while second-rounder T'Vondre Sweat appeared in every game and led all rookie defensive linemen in defensive snaps (667). Fifth-round cornerback Jarvis Brownlee

Jr. was one of five NFL rookie defensive backs to start at least 14 games in 2024.

Defensively, the Titans finished Callahan's first season ranked second overall (311.2 opponent yards per game) and second in passing defense (177.3) despite a unit that suffered significant injuries. The starting secondary of safety Quandre Diggs (eight games played), safety Amani Hooker (14 games played), cornerback L'Jarvis Sneed (five games played) and cornerback Chidobe Awuzie (eight games played) missed a combined total of 33 games.

Callahan, who at age 40 became the second-youngest head coach in Titans/Oilers history behind Jeff Fisher (36), arrived in Tennessee with 18 years of coaching experience and 14 years of NFL coaching experience, including the previous five seasons as the offensive coordinator for the Cincinnati Bengals.

During his time in Cincinnati, Callahan served under head coach Zac Taylor and was part of two AFC North titles, two AFC Championship appearances and a Super Bowl berth. He also helped guide quarterback Joe Burrow from the No. 1 overall draft pick in 2020 to multiple single-season franchise records by his second year and Pro Bowl honors within three years.

Over Callahan's final three seasons in Cincinnati (2021-23), the Bengals offense ranked in the NFL's top 10 in several categories: sixth in scoring (24.9), seventh in passing (250.8 yards per game), seventh in red-zone efficiency (61.5 percent), 10th in third-down percentage (41.0) and sixth in time of possession (31:00).

From the time Burrow entered the NFL in 2020 through the 2023 campaign, he recorded the league's seventh-best passer rating (98.6) and tied for the third-best completion percentage (68.0). His 270.8 passing yards per game in that period ranked fifth.

Additionally, Cincinnati's offense under Callahan featured a trio of 1,000-yard wide receivers in Ja'Marr Chase (2021-23), Tee Higgins (2021-22) and Tyler Boyd (2019). Chase quickly emerged as one of the NFL's top wide receivers after being drafted in the first round in 2021. He earned three consecutive Pro Bowl nods and became the eighth player in NFL history to reach 1,000 receiving yards in each of his first three career seasons, including 1,216 yards on a career-high 100 receptions in 2023. Boyd's statistical highlights included 1,046 receiving yards in 2019, while Higgins contributed 1,091 yards in 2021 and 1,029 yards in 2022.

Bengals running back Joe Mixon exceeded 1,000 scrimmage yards four times in five seasons with Callahan as his offensive coordinator. From 2019 through 2023, he joined Christian McCaffrey and Aaron Jones as the NFL's only players with at least 4,500 rushing yards (4,618) and 1,500 receiving yards (1,556). Mixon was named to the Pro Bowl in 2021.

In 2023, Burrow was limited to 10 total games due to multiple injuries. Backup Jake Browning stepped into the lineup, and in the first action of his career, he registered a season passer rating of 98.4—qualifying as the seventh-best number in the NFL.

In 2022, the Bengals ranked seventh in the NFL in points per game (26.1), eighth in total offense (360.5 yards per game) and fifth in passing offense (265.0). Burrow earned his first career Pro Bowl selection while setting single-season franchise records for completions (414) and touchdown passes (35). The third-year signal caller also placed fifth in the NFL with 4,475 passing yards. The team's new-look offensive line came together during the season and did not allow more than two sacks in any of the final eight games of the regular season.

En route to an appearance in Super Bowl LVI, the 2021 Bengals ranked seventh in passing offense (259.0 yards per game) and tied for seventh in points per game (27.1). Burrow, after returning from a knee injury suffered in 2020, led the NFL in completion percentage (70.4) and established single-season Bengals records for passing yards (4,611) and passer rating (108.3). Chase was named the AP Offensive Rookie of the Year after posting a team-record 1,455 receiving yards, while Mixon placed third in the NFL in rushing yards (1,205).

In 2020, Callahan helped develop Burrow as a rookie despite facing the challenges associated with the COVID-19 pandemic, including the cancellation of all in-person NFL offseason programs. Before a knee injury ended his rookie campaign in Week 11, Burrow's 264 completions were the most ever by an NFL quarterback through his first 10 career games, while his 2,688 passing yards were fifth.

Callahan joined the Bengals after spending 2018 as the quarterbacks coach for the Oakland Raiders. Under his tutelage, Raiders quarterback Derek Carr passed for a then-career-high 4,049 yards and led the AFC with a 68.9 completion percentage.

NISSAN STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of an exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

NISSAN STADIUM

Eight years later, on Nov. 17, 2023, the Titans and Nissan North America announced a new agreement: a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that brands the new Titans home venue as 'Nissan Stadium.'

Slated for completion in 2027, the new Nissan Stadium will host Titans home games, Tennessee State University football games, concerts, large-scale events and other community events.

"This partnership is a natural extension of our already longstanding friendship with Nissan," said Burke Nihill, Titans President and CEO. "Our mission at the Titans is to Win, Serve, and Entertain. We pride ourselves on collaborating with organizations who love this city and state as much as we do, and for the past 40 years, Nissan has invested more than $10.5 billion statewide, serving as a great example of an outstanding corporate steward and community advocate. We look forward to the continued positive impact of this relationship for the Titans organization and the City of Nashville."

"Since 2015 our fans and organization have called our home 'Nissan Stadium,' and we are proud to continue that tradition in the new stadium as we deepen and expand our relationship with them," said Titans Chief Revenue Officer Adam Nuse. "The new stadium will host the world's largest events, as well as serve as a community hub for our local neighbors. We're excited to have a partner like Nissan embark on this journey with us as we look towards the future."

The partnership will feature dedicated areas in the new stadium for brand experiences and displays, innovative technology integration, and involvement in Titans broadcast platforms. Nissan also will support a to-be-determined program in the Titans' ONE Community philanthropic platform, which reaches Nashville's most underrepresented and marginalized communities with a focus on three areas – Opportunity, Neighborhoods and Education.

"Nissan Stadium is a centerpiece of the Nashville skyline and has become a household name in Middle Tennessee. It is important for Nissan to keep our name on the new stadium," said Jérémie Papin, chairperson, Nissan Americas. "As more people come to Nashville both to visit and to live in this wonderful city, Nissan Stadium is true showcase for our brand and for the career opportunities we've offered here for more than four decades. This partnership sends a strong message about the bright future for Nissan, the Titans, Nashville and the State of Tennessee."

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin. Nissan is home to more than 11,000 employees across all three locations.

"Nissan has been a strong partner to middle Tennessee for four decades, and I'm thrilled that the Titans have united with a partner that invests in our community and its people," said Nashville Mayor Freddie O'Connell. "The familiarity and trust they've established with the Titans in the last eight years will undoubtedly be a great asset as we plan for the stadium's opening in 2027."

The new Nissan stadium will be built on the east side of the current stadium campus, along Nashville's East Bank. Features of the building include: a circular translucent roof; exterior porches with panoramic views of Nashville; improved sightlines for all spectators through a range of diverse seating experiences; and a 12,000 square foot community space available for use year-round. A waitlist for those interested in purchasing PSLs or suites is now open at NewNissanStadium.com.

As a junior in 2021, he transferred from Penn State to Kentucky and started in all 13 games, helping to lead UK to 10 wins for the fourth time in school history. He totaled 3,203 yards total offense, becoming the seventh player in school history to reach 3,000 yards of total offense in a season. 6-4, 305, 6th Year/6th with Titans, Mississippi State

Defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons completed his sixth NFL season in 2024. He was selected by the Titans in the first round (19th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft.

During his first six seasons, Simmons earned three Pro Bowl berths (2021-22, 2024), was a four-time team captain (2021-24), and was nominated two times for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award (2023-24). During that span, he appeared in 84 games with 82 starts, accumulating 316 tackles, 31.5 sacks, 24 passes defended, five forced fumbles and six fumble recoveries. He was second on the defense in sacks during that span behind only Harold Landry III (46).

Simmons missed only one game in 2024. His 16 starts made up the second-highest total of his career through six seasons behind his 17 starts in 2021. Among his season totals, he set career highs with 76 tackles and two forced fumbles, and he added five sacks and a team-high 42 quarterback pressures. He was rewarded with his third Pro Bowl invitation.

Simmons' 76 tackles ranked second on the Titans in 2024. It was the best number for any defensive lineman for the organization in its "Titans era" (1999 to present), topping defensive end Kyle Vanden Bosch's previous mark of 75 tackles in 2006 (press box statistics). Among NFL defensive linemen in 2024, Simmons finished second in tackles behind Carolina's A'Shawn Robinson (80).

The 2024 campaign marked Simmons' fourth consecutive season with at least five sacks. His 31.5 career sacks through 2024 ranked 13th in franchise history and sixth for the organization during its "Titans era" (1999 to present).

In 2023, although he was limited to 12 games and finished the season on injured reserve, he managed to register 5.5 sacks, marking his third consecutive season to reach that number or higher. He added 44 tackles, 38 quarterback pressures, 11 tackles for loss, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and one pass defended. For the first time in his career, he received the honor of the team's nomination for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year award.

In 2022, Simmons appeared in 15 games and anchored a unit that ranked first in the NFL in rushing defense (76.9 opponent rushing yards per game). En route to his second consecutive Pro Bowl appearance, he totaled 53 tackles, 7.5 sacks, 43 quarterback pressures, nine tackles for loss, one forced fumble and a career-high seven passes defended, which tied for the fourth-best mark among all NFL defensive linemen. Simmons and Arizona's J.J. Watt were the NFL's only players in 2022 with at least seven sacks and seven passes defended.

Before the start of the 2021 season, Simmons was named a team captain for the first time in his career, and he went on to become one of six players on the roster to start all 17 games. He was named to his first career Pro Bowl and added Associated Press second-team All-Pro honors after setting career highs in several categories, including sacks (8.5), tackles (54), quarterback pressures (58), tackles for loss (12) and passes defended (six). He led the squad in pressures and placed third in sacks. Among all defensive tackles in the NFL, his 8.5 sacks ranked sixth. In the divisional playoffs, he set a franchise postseason record with three sacks.

In 2020, Simmons appeared and started in 15 games. With three defensive fumble recoveries, he tied Chase Young for the most in the NFL in 2020 and was the first Titans defender with three fumble recoveries in a season since 2005, when linebacker Brad Kassell accomplished the feat. Simmons ranked second on the team with 19 quarterback pressures and added 49 tackles, three sacks, three tackles for loss, five passes defended and one forced fumble. In the franchise's "Titans era" (since 1999), he became the first player to post at least three fumble recoveries, three sacks and five passes defended in the same season. He also had three tackles and a tackle for loss in one playoff contest.

Simmons began his rookie season on the non-football injury list due to a knee injury he suffered during training in February 2019. He missed the first six games of the season before joining the 53-man roster in Week 7.

His rookie totals included 40 tackles, two sacks, two tackles for loss, 14 quarterback pressures and one pass defended in nine games (seven starts). He added four tackles, three quarterback pressures and a fumble recovery in three playoff contests.

During a three-year career as a defensive tackle at Mississippi State, Simmons appeared in 38 contests with 28 starts. He finished his career ranked sixth in school history with 32.5 tackles for loss. He also tied for sixth in MSU annals with five forced fumbles and tied for fourth with three blocked kicks. His totals also included 163 tackles, seven sacks, seven passes defended and two defensive touchdowns.

He was a first-team All-SEC selection as a sophomore and junior and was one of two players in the nation to be named a Bednarik Award Semifinalist in both 2017 and 2018.

As a junior in 2018, Simmons was named second-team All-American after totaling 63 tackles, 17 tackles for loss and two sacks. His 17 tackles for loss led the team, ranked fourth in the SEC and were the third-most in single-season school history.

During his sophomore season (2017), he set a career high with five sacks and added 12 tackles for loss. With three total blocked kicks and punts, he became the first SEC player since 2004 to lead the nation in the category.

6-4, 233, 15th Year/4th with Titans, Tennessee

Long snapper Morgan Cox completed his 15th NFL season and his fourth campaign with the Titans in 2024. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 19, 2021.

In 2024, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties for the fourth consecutive season. With 68 consecutive games played in his first four seasons with the Titans, he finished the 2024 campaign with the longest active streak of games played for the team. It was the 12th time in his career he appeared in every game for his team.

With Cox serving as the team's long snapper, kicker Nick Folk led the NFL in field goal percentage for the second consecutive season in 2024. Folk connected on 21 of 22 field goals for an NFL-best rate of 95.5 percent. Meanwhile, punter Ryan Stonehouse ranked third in the NFL with an average of 50.6 yards per punt attempt. Also in 2024, Cox was a finalist for the NFL's Bart Starr Award for the second consecutive year.

Cox finished the 2024 season with a career total of 233 games played. He ranked 10th among all active NFL players, and his total also moved him past Reggie White (232 games) for the fourth-most NFL games played by a former University of Tennessee Volunteer behind tight end Jason Witten (271 NFL games), quarterback Peyton Manning (266) and punter Dustin Colquitt (255).

In 2023, Cox's efforts helped Folk lead the NFL in field goal accuracy (96.7 percent) and helped Stonehouse lead the NFL for a second consecutive season in gross punting average (53.1).

In 2022, Cox was named to his fifth career Pro Bowl. He has more Pro Bowl appearances than any other player at his position since the league began naming long snappers to the Pro Bowl in 2004.

His steady play in 2022 helped Stonehouse, a rookie, lead the league and set a new NFL record with a 53.1-yard gross punting average. Stonehouse also finished fourth in the NFL and set a rookie record with a 44.0-yard net average. Meanwhile, kicker Randy Bullock made 17 of 20 field goals (85.0 percent) and made all 28 extra point attempts.

In 2021, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties in 17 regular season games and one postseason game. He helped Bullock finish ninth in franchise history with 120 points in a single season, including three game-winning field goals (Sept. 19 at Seattle, Oct. 31 at Indianapolis and Dec. 23 against San Francisco). He also snapped for punter Brett Kern, who had the league's third-best ratio of punts inside the 20 to touchbacks (18:1).

In his first 11 seasons, Cox appeared in 165 regular season games for the Baltimore Ravens, serving as the team's primary long snapper after entering the NFL as an undrafted free agent in 2010. He was selected to four Pro Bowls and was a part of five playoff teams in Baltimore, totaling 10 postseason games played.

In 2020, he earned his fourth career Pro Bowl selection. He helped kicker Justin Tucker record his fifth consecutive season with at least 130 points, tying the NFL record of consecutive seasons with 130-plus points. Tucker connected on 26 of 29 field goals (89.7 percent) and was 52 of 53 on extra points (98.1 percent). Cox also snapped on all 51 of Sam Koch's 51 punts, as Koch was the NFL's only punter to place at least 20 punts (22) inside in the 20-yard line and have no more than one touchback.

A native of Collierville, Tenn., Cox played 38 games in three seasons (2007-09) as the primary long snapper at the University of Tennessee.

Kicker Nick Folk completed his 17th NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2024. He was acquired by the Titans in a trade with the New England Patriots on Aug. 29, 2023.

At the conclusion of the 2024 season, Folk's 403 career field goals ranked third among all active kickers behind only Justin Tucker (417) and Matt Prater (407), and Folk's number also ranked 14th in NFL history. His 1,720 total points scored ranked 20th in league annals. Among all active NFL players at the conclusion of 2024, Folk's 242 career games ranked ninth.

Through 2024, Folk carried an all-time NFL-record streak of 85 consecutive field goals from under 40 yards—a streak going back to 2017. Tucker previously owned the record with 70 straight under-40-yarders from 2016 to 2020.

In 2024, Folk led the team in scoring and led the NFL in field goal percentage for a second consecutive season, connecting on 21 of 22 field goal attempts and 25 of 25 extra point attempts for a total of 88 points. His 95.5 percentage on field goals qualified as the second-best single-season percentage in franchise history behind his own franchise-record 96.7 percent (29 of 30) in 2023. Folk became the first player to lead the NFL in field goal percentage in consecutive seasons since Detroit's Eddie Murray accomplished the feat from 1988 (95.2) to 1989 (95.2).

In his first season in Tennessee, Folk appeared in all 17 games and made 29 field goals on 30 attempts. His career-best 96.7 percent accuracy on field goals led the NFL and tied for the 14th-best single-season mark in NFL history. It also established a new franchise record for a single season, breaking the record of 92.3 percent by Al Del Greco (1998) and Rob Bironas (2010). Folk's initial season with the Titans also included 28 extra points on 30 attempts. His 115 total points tied for the 13th-best single-season total in franchise history.

In his first 15 NFL seasons prior to joining the Titans, Folk spent time with the Dallas Cowboys (2007-09), New York Jets (2010-2016), Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2017) and Patriots (2019-22). During that time, he connected on 82.9 percent (353 of 426) of his field goal attempts and 96.8 percent of his extra point attempts (458 of 473). He had 10 seasons with at least 100 points, including a league-leading 150 points in 2021 with the Patriots. He registered 11 game-winning field goals in the regular season and one in postseason play.

Over his four years with New England, Folk made 108 of his 121 field goal attempts (89.3 percent) in 57 games. He departed the Patriots in fifth place on the New England all-time field goal list and tied for seventh place on the franchise's all-time scoring list with 440 total points.

In 2022, he played in all 17 games for New England and totaled 128 points on 32-of-37 field goal attempts. He was also 32-of-35 on extra points. Folk became one of six all-time NFL players to have at least five seasons with 30 field goals, joining Tucker (eight), Stephen Gostkowski (five), Robbie Gould (five), John Carney (five) and David Akers (five).

Folk established the NFL record for consecutive field goals made under 50 yards with a streak of 64 such kicks from Oct. 5, 2017 to Oct. 16, 2022. He broke the record (56 consecutive) set by Ryan Succop of the Titans from 2014 to 2017.

While with the Patriots, he also set the franchise mark for consecutive field goals made (36) during a streak that spanned from 2020 to 2021 and posted the third-highest field goal percentage for a season by a Patriot in 2020 (92.9).

Folk entered the NFL as a sixth-round selection by the Dallas in the 2007 NFL Draft. As a rookie for the Cowboys, he earned a Pro Bowl selection and all-rookie honors.

A native of Sherman Oaks, Calif., Folk attended the University of Arizona, where he earned All-PAC 10 accolades in his final season.

Sept. 30. He became the first kicker in NFL history to make three field goals of 50-plus yards after his 40th birthday. He joined Pittsburgh's Chris Boswell (twice) and Houston's Ka'imi Fairbairn (twice) as the NFL's only kickers in 2024 to make three 50-yarders in two different games. ## #4 • P RYAN STONEHOUSE

5-10, 193, 3rd Year/3rd with Titans, Colorado State

Punter Ryan Stonehouse completed his third NFL season in 2024. He was signed by the Titans as a rookie free agent on May 13, 2022.

In only three NFL seasons, Stonehouse recorded the top two single-season gross punting averages in NFL history and the top three single-season gross punting averages in franchise history. He also recorded two of the top three single-season net averages in team annals. He became the first NFL punter of all-time to lead the league in gross punting average in each of his first two seasons.

In 2024, he played in all 17 games after recovering from a knee injury that prematurely ended his previous campaign. He averaged 50.6 gross yards per punt (38.6 net) on 73 attempts with 22 punts placed inside the 20. His gross average qualified for the 12th-best mark in NFL annals and ranked third in team history. He was recognized by his teammates as the recipient of the team's 2024 Ed Block Courage Award.

After averaging an NFL-record 53.1-yards per punt as a rookie in 2022 and then averaging 53.1 yards per attempt in 2023, he became one of the first two players in NFL history to record three career seasons with an average of 50.0 yards per punt. Las Vegas punter AJ Cole also accomplished the feat in 2024. Stonehouse became the first player in NFL history to begin his career with three consecutive seasons with a 50.0-yard gross punting average.

Stonehouse also served as the team's holder on field goals and extra points for the third consecutive season. His efforts helped kicker Nick Folk lead the NFL in field goal percentage for the second consecutive season. Folk made 95.5 percent of his field goal attempts (21 of 22) in 2024 after making a franchise-record 96.7 percent (29 of 30) in 2023.

In 2023, he appeared in the first 12 games of the season before missing the final five contests on injured reserve. Despite his missed time, he averaged a league-high 53.06 yards per punt, grossing 2,812 yards on 53 attempts. The average qualified as the second-highest figure in NFL history behind his own record-setting 53.10 yards per punt as a rookie in 2022. He also finished sixth in the NFL with a 43.87-yard net punting average, which ranked third in franchise history.

In 2022, Stonehouse finished the season with a gross average of 53.10 yards per punt on 90 total punts (4,779 total yards). In doing so, he broke Sammy Baugh's single-season NFL record of 51.40 yards per punt, which was established in 1940 and was never matched among qualifiers (2.5 punts per team game) until Stonehouse's rookie campaign. Stonehouse's mark also surpassed Brett Kern's franchise record of 49.7 yards per punt in 2017.

With a net punting average of 44.0 yards per punt in 2022, Stonehouse also established a new NFL record for the highest net average by a rookie punter. He broke the record set by Indianapolis' Rigoberto Sanchez, who averaged 42.64 net yards per punt as a rookie in 2017. Stonehouse finished fourth in the NFL in net punting behind veterans Tommy Townsend (45.6), Michael Dickson (44.5) and Johnny Hekker (44.1). In franchise history, his net average ranked second for a single season, trailing only Kern's 44.6 net average in 2017.

Stonehouse's 90 punts in 2022 made up the NFL's second-highest total. Only Denver's Corliss Waitman (96) had more. The 90 punts by Stonehouse tied Craig Hentrich's 1999 number for the fourth-highest total in team annals behind Rich Camarillo (96 punts in 1994) and Cliff Parsley (93 in 1979; 91 in 1978).

Stonehouse appeared in 53 games over five seasons at Colorado State (2017-21) and set an NCAA career record with a 47.8-yard gross punting average. His career totals included 244 punts for 11,656 yards with 91 punts inside the 20. He totaled 106 punts of 50-plus yards and became the first player in Colorado State history to log 11,000 punting yards in a career.

During his final college season in 2021, Stonehouse appeared in 12 games and averaged 50.9 yards per attempt on 58 punts, including a career-long 81-yard punt. He placed 27 punts inside the 20-yard line and totaled 32 punts of 50-plus yards en route to being named a second-team All-Mountain West selection and a Ray Guy Award semifinalist.

He is a native of La Verne, Calif.

NFL RECORD: SINGLE-SEASON AVERAGE

In 1940, Washington's Sammy Baugh punted 35 times for 1,799 yards, averaging 51.40 yards per punt. Eighty-two seasons later, the mark still stood as the best qualifying single-season punting average in NFL history, until Titans rookie punter Ryan Stonehouse broke the record in 2022.

Stonehouse, an undrafted rookie from Colorado State University, averaged 53.10 yards per attempt on 90 total punts—1.70 yards per punt ahead of Baugh's number.

Then, in his second season, Stonehouse averaged an NFL-high 53.06 yards per punt. His 53 attempts (2,812 yards) qualified him for the single-season charts, and as a result, he owns the top two numbers of all-time in his first two NFL seasons.

Prior to Stonehouse's rookie campaign, Baugh's mark was one of the NFL's longest-held records. In the 2022 NFL Record & Fact Book, only three single-season individual records predated Baugh's punting mark, and all three of those were later tied: most safeties in a season (two by Green Bay's Tom Nash in 1932 and subsequently tied 18 times), most fumbles returned for a touchdown in a season (two by Boston's Harold McPhail in 1934 and tied 44 times), and most opponent fumbles returned for a touchdown in a season (two by McPhail in 1934 and tied 41 times).

To qualify for the single-season average record, a punter needs a minimum of 2.5 attempts per team game.
