FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

OCTOBER 6, 2026

TITANS HOST AFC SOUTH RIVAL TEXANS

Tennessee Titans (0-4) vs. Houston Texans (0-4)

Sunday, Oct. 11, 2026 • 12 p.m. CDT • Nissan Stadium • Nashville, Tenn. • TV: CBS/WTVF-5

NASHVILLE — Following consecutive road games, the Tennessee Titans (0-4) return home this Sunday to meet the Houston Texans (0-4) in their first divisional clash of 2026. Kickoff at Nissan Stadium (capacity 69,143) is scheduled for noon CDT on Oct. 11.

This is the 49th all-time meeting in a rivalry that is in its 25th season since the Texans entered the NFL and the AFC South was launched in 2002. The series is even at 24-24, including a 12-12 split in games at Tennessee and Houston. The Texans have won the past three contests.

Sunday also marks the Titans' annual Crucial Catch game. Each NFL team designates one game each season to raise awareness for early cancer detection and risk reduction. The Titans-Texans game will feature on-field and in-stadium Crucial Catch elements to honor survivors and those currently battling cancer.

BROADCAST INFORMATION

This week's contest will be regionally televised on CBS, including Nashville affiliate WTVF NewsChannel 5, as well as on Paramount+ in the Nashville market. The broadcast team includes play-by-play announcer Spero Dedes, analyst Adam Archuleta and reporter Aditi Kinkhabwala.

Additionally, fans in Nashville can stream live Titans games on mobile devices with NFL+, which offers access to local games and all primetime games on phones and tablets. Out of market, fans can watch every Sunday afternoon game with Sunday Ticket. More information on ways to watch NFL games can be found at nfl.com/ways-to-watch.

The Titans Radio Network and Nashville flagship 104.5 The Zone carry all Titans games across the Mid-South with play-by-play announcer Taylor Zarzour, analyst Ramon Foster, executive producer Rhett Bryan, gameday host Will Boling and sideline reporter Brad Hopkins.

LAST WEEK AT BALTIMORE

The Titans traveled to Baltimore last week to face the Ravens. Trailing 24-10 late in the fourth quarter, second-year quarterback Cam Ward connected with wide receiver Wan'Dale Robinson for a three-yard touchdown pass and then found tight end Gunnar Helm in the end zone for a two-point conversion. However, the ensuing onside kick was recovered by the Ravens to secure their 24-18 victory.

Rookie wide receiver Carnell Tate was on the other end of nine completions by Ward, totaling 145 yards. Tate's yardage total was the most by any Titans player in a game since A.J. Brown's 145 against San Francisco on Dec. 23, 2021, and Tate had the most receiving yards by a Titans rookie since Brown's 153 at Oakland on Dec. 8, 2019. Additionally, Tate became the first Titans rookie with nine or more receptions in a game since Kendall Wright had nine catches at Minnesota on Oct. 7, 2012.

On defense, the Titans limited the Ravens to a pair of third-down conversions on 10 attempts. Defensive end Jermaine Johnson II had a sack and a team-high two tackles for loss, while defensive end Jacob Martin and cornerback Marcus Harris also shared a sack.

THE TEXANS

The Texans were at home against the Dallas Cowboys last week. In a game that featured three lead changes in the fourth quarter, the Cowboys scored on a 12-yard touchdown pass with 40 seconds on the clock to win 34-30.

DeMeco Ryans is in his fourth season as Houston's head coach after being named to the role in 2023. His team not only went to the playoffs but also advanced to the Divisional Round in each of his first three campaigns at the helm. In 2025, the Texans went 12-5 in the regular season and tied a franchise record for wins.

Along with Ryans, quarterback C.J. Stroud is in his fourth season with the club after being chosen with the second overall pick in the 2023 NFL Draft. In 2026, Stroud has passed for 1,141 passing yards and five touchdowns without throwing an interception. He had 347 yards and two touchdowns passing last week against Dallas.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR THIS WEEK

TITANS FRANCHISE

- The Titans' next win will be the franchise's 500th all-time victory, including regular season and postseason games.

TITANS OFFENSE

- The Titans offense can register its third consecutive game allowing a maximum of one sack. It would mark the first such three-game streak for the Titans within a season since doing so in Weeks 1-3 of 2017.

TE GUNNAR HELM

- Has caught at least one pass in each of the first 20 games he has played in his NFL career.

LB ANTHONY HILL JR.

- After totaling 42 tackles in the first four games of 2026, an eight-tackle performance this week would make him the third Titans defender since 2000 with 50 or more tackles in the team's first five games (GSIS tackle statistics). He would join linebackers Stephen Tulloch (51 in 2010) and Akeem Ayers (51 in 2012).
- With at least eight tackles this week, he will be the franchise's first player since at least 2000 to have eight or more tackles in each of the team's first five games of a season (GSIS statistics).

S AMANI HOOKER

- With 13 career interceptions, he needs one more to pass Jason McCourty (13) and tie Cortland Finnegan (14) for the seventh-highest career total for the franchise during its "Titans era" (1999–present).

WR WAN'DALE ROBINSON

- Can increase his streak to 47 consecutive individual games with at least one reception.
- Has a touchdown reception in each of the past two games. The last Titans player with a three-game streak was Nick Westbrook-Ikhine in 2024 (twice).

DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

- With 44.5 career sacks entering the game, he is tied with Derrick Morgan (44.5) for 11th on the franchise's all-time sack list. He needs one more sack to surpass Ted Washington (45.0) for 10th on the list. He also would move past Morgan into fourth place in sacks during the team's "Titans era" (1999 to present) behind only Jevon Kearse (52.0), Jurrell Casey (51.0) and Harold Landry III (50.5).

G PETER SKORONSKI

- Has a team-best active streak of 51 consecutive starts entering the week.

WR CARNELL TATE

- Can record three or more receptions for the fifth consecutive game. The last Titans player to do so in the first five games of a season was DeAndre Hopkins in 2023.
- Needs six receptions to become the team's first player since A.J. Brown in 2021 (Weeks 6-8) to have three consecutive games with at least six receptions. No franchise rookie has ever accomplished the feat.
- Can become the first Titans player with consecutive 100-yard receiving games since A.J. Brown in 2021 (Weeks 7-8).
- Can become the first Titans player to tally nine or more receptions in consecutive games since tight end Delanie Walker in 2015 (Weeks 16-17).
- Enters the game with a team-high 22 receptions. With eight receptions, he would have 30 receptions in the team's first five games, joining Haywood Jeffires (38 in 1992), Derrick Mason (33 in 2003; 31 in 2004) and Charlie Hennigan (30 in 1961; 30 in 1964) as the franchise's only players to accomplish the feat.
- Can become the first age-21 player (or younger) since Randy Moss in 1998 (Weeks 12-13) to record back-to-back games with at least 145 receiving yards.

QB CAM WARD

- Enters the contest with 13 touchdown passes, four rushing touchdowns and three interceptions in his past 13 games, including the final nine games of 2025.
- Can record his 10th consecutive game with either a passing touchdown or a rushing touchdown.

SERIES HISTORY

The Titans-Texans rivalry is in its 25th year since the expansion Texans began play and the AFC South was formed in 2002. In 48 games, the Titans are 24-24 against the Texans, including a 12-12 mark at Nissan Stadium and a 12-12 record at Reliant Stadium.

The Titans and Texans last clashed at Nissan Stadium on Nov. 16, 2025. Titans rookie quarterback Cam Ward engineered a 95-yard touchdown drive to tie the score at 13-13 in the fourth quarter. However, Houston's Matthew Wright then delivered a 35-yard field goal as time expired to give the Texans a 16-13 victory and their third consecutive win over the Titans.

The last matchup at Reliant Stadium was on Sept. 28, 2025. The Texans shut out the Titans for the second time in series history, winning 26-0. The Texans led 6-0 before scoring 20 points in the fourth quarter, holding the Titans to 175 total yards in the game.

Several recent late-season battles with the Texans have had playoff implications for the Titans. On Jan. 9, 2022, they won 28-25 at Houston to clinch the top seed in the AFC playoff field.

In the 2020 season finale (Jan. 3, 2021), the Titans traveled to Houston needing a win to secure their first AFC South title since 2008. They got it when Sam Sloman's 37-yard field goal provided the margin in a 41-38 win, capping a historic afternoon during which Derrick Henry established a franchise record with 250 rushing yards and concluded the season with a franchise-record 2,027 rushing yards.

In the 2019 finale, the two eventual playoff teams met at Reliant Stadium. The Texans had already clinched the AFC South, while the Titans went into the day potentially needing a win to secure the wild card berth. The Texans had defended their home turf a series-record seven consecutive times against the Titans, but the Titans came away with a 35-14 win.

The Titans franchise has a rich and storied history with the city of Houston. Under late owner K.S. "Bud" Adams Jr., the Titans existed as the Houston Oilers from 1960-96. In Houston, the Oilers won the first two American Football League Championships and made a total of 15 playoff appearances. The team moved to Tennessee in 1997 and in 1999 adopted the "Titans" moniker.

Ten players who spent a significant portion of their careers in a Houston Oilers uniform are enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, including former quarterback Warren Moon, outside linebacker Robert Brazile, defensive tackle Curley Culp and offensive lineman Bruce Matthews.

Titans Controlling Owner and Chairman Amy Adams Strunk is a graduate of the University of Texas and resides in Waller, Texas.

2025 Week 11 • Nov. 16, 2025 • TEXANS 16 at Titans 13

Matthew Wright makes a 35-yard game-winning field goal as time expires ... Davis Mills starts at quarterback for Houston for an injured C.J. Stroud ... Trailing 13-6, Titans rookie quarterback Cam Ward directs a 95-yard drive, capped by a four-yard touchdown pass to Van Jefferson, to tie the score with 1:35 on the clock in the fourth quarter ... Texans wide receiver Nico Collins catches nine passes for 92 yards, including a touchdown and a 17-yard reception on third-and-16 to help set up the game-winning field goal ... The Titans defense notches four sacks and nine passes defended, but the Texans defense records the only takeaway on a fumble recovery.

TITANS-TEXANS: THE LAST MEETING

Week 11: Titans 13, Texans 16
Sunday Nov. 16, 2025 • 12:00 p.m. CDT • Nissan Stadium

In Week 11 of the 2025 season, the Titans hosted division rival Houston Texans and fell by a score of 16-13 on the last play of the game.

The game got off to an interesting start. The Texans won the toss and elected to receive. After driving down to the Tennessee 13-yard line, Houston elected to attempt a field goal facing fourth-and-two. K Matthew Wright's 31-yard attempt hit the right upright and was no good. But a penalty on DT Jeffery Simmons for unnecessary roughness gave the Texans first-and-goal from the six-yard line. The defense responded with a goal-line stand, and on fourth-and-goal from the one-yard line LB Cody Barton sacked QB Davis Mills and the Titans took over.

The Titans then strung together a 13-play, 50-yard drive that culminated in a 56-yard field goal by K Joey Slye to make it 3-0. QB Cam Ward found first down completions to WR Calvin Ridley, WR Chimere Dike, WR Van Jefferson, RB Tyjae Spears, and TE Chig Okonkwo throughout the drive.

It was a defensive battle for the rest of the half, and it was 3-0 at the break.

The Titans extended their lead on the opening drive of the second half with a 47-yard field goal by Slye to make it 6-0 with 10:45 left in the third quarter.

The Texans responded with a seven-play, 65-yard scoring drive that was capped with a three-yard touchdown pass from Mills to WR Nico Collins to make it 7-3.

The Titans went three-and-out on their next offensive possession and the Texans took over at their own 14-yard line. Wright capped a 10-play, 63-yard drive with a 41-yard field goal to extend the Texans lead to 10-6 heading into the fourth quarter.

The Texans cashed in on a Ward sack fumble forced by DE Will Anderson Jr. with a 43-yard field goal by Wright to extend their lead to 13-6 with 11:59 left in the game.

The Titans made it exciting towards the end. After the Titans defense forced its second consecutive three-and-out, the offense took over at their own five-yard line. A 39-yard pass from Ward to Okonkwo gave the Titans a first-and-goal at the Houston seven-yard line in the closing minutes. Then, Ward connected with WR Van Jefferson for a four-yard touchdown to tie the game at 13-13 with 1:35 remaining.

The Titans were on the verge of getting the ball back, but the Texans converted a third-and-16 with a 17-yard completion from Mills to Collins to cross midfield. The Texans were able to burn the rest of the clock while setting up a 35-yard field goal by Wright on the final play of the game to drop the Titans to 1-9 on the season.

NOTABLE PERFORMANCES VS. THE TEXANS

- On 11/16/25 against Houston, Barton started at linebacker and collected six tackles, including a sack, two quarterback pressures and a career-best three passes defended. Became the first NFL linebacker in 2025 to have one sack and three passes defended in a game. Halted a Texans' drive by dropping Davis Mills for an 11-yard sack on fourth-and-goal from the one-yard line in the opening stanza.

DL JOHN FRANKLIN-MYERS

- On 11/28/21 at Houston, Franklin-Myers posted three tackles, set a career-high with two sacks and registered his first career interception. Picked off a Tyrod Taylor pass intended for David Johnson and returned it 32 yards in the first quarter. Dropped Taylor for a seven-yard sack late in the first quarter. Sacked Taylor for a 10-yard loss in the second stanza.

S AMANI HOOKER

- On 1/3/21 at Houston, Hooker tallied an interception and two tackles. The interception led to a Titans field goal.

LB CEDRIC GRAY

- On 9/28/25 at Houston, Gray collected 17 tackles – a career-high and the most tackles by a Titans defender since Daryl Worley had 17 at Washington on Dec. 1, 2024.

RB TONY POLLARD

- On 12/11/22 against Houston, Pollard rushed for 42 yards on 10 carries with a touchdown and added four receptions for 20 yards and a touchdown for the Cowboys. It marked his first career game with both a rushing and receiving touchdown.
- On 11/24/24 at Houston, Pollard led the team with 119 yards and a touchdown on 24 rushing attempts. He added 10 yards on three receptions.

DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

- On 9/28/25 at Houston, Simmons recorded five tackles, one sack and four tackles for loss. Became the only Titans player with at least four tackles for loss in a game since the beginning of the 2008 season.

K JOEY SLYE

- On 9/29/19 at Houston, Slye made all three field goal attempts, including a 55-yarder in the win for the Panthers. Named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week for his efforts.

DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

- On 9/28/25 at Houston, Simmons recorded five tackles, one sack and a career-high four tackles for loss. Became the only Titans player with at least four tackles for loss in a game since the beginning of the 2008 season.

QB MITCHELL TRUBISKY

- On 12/13/20 against Houston, Trubisky totaled 290 yards of offense in the Week 14 win. Completed 24 of 33 passes for 267 yards with three touchdowns for a 126.7 passer rating.

QB CAM WARD

- On 11/16/25 against Houston, Ward completed 24 of 37 passes for 194 yards with a touchdown. Led the team with 33 rushing yards on three carries. Evened the score at 13-13 with a four-yard touchdown pass with less than two minutes remaining in the contest. During a 95-yard, game-tying drive, he completed six of eight passes for 63 yards and also scrambled for 20 yards.

DeMeco Ryans was named the sixth head coach in Texans history on Jan. 31, 2023. Ryans arrived in Houston after six seasons with the San Francisco 49ers, most recently as the team's defensive coordinator for two years (2021-22).

In his first three seasons (2023-25) at the helm of the Texans, Ryans led the team to three consecutive playoff appearances and won two division titles. In 2025, he became the 13th head coach in NFL history to record at least 10 wins in each of their first three seasons. The team set multiple franchise records, including fewest yards allowed per game (277.2), fewest points allowed per game (17.4), fewest giveaways (12) and highest turnover differential (+17), en route to their third-consecutive appearance in the AFC Divisional Round.

In 2024, Ryans led the Texans to their second straight 10-win season and AFC South title. Ryans and quarterback C.J. Stroud became the first head coach/quarterback combination to win divisional titles in their first two seasons together. The Texans defense set franchise records for most sacks (49.0) and tackles for loss (106). They also finished second in the NFL in interceptions (19) and tied for third in passes defended (90) led by Associated Press First-Team All-Pro cornerback Derek Stingley Jr.

In his first season as a head coach, Ryans led Houston to a 10-7 record, a division title and a playoff berth—a first for the franchise since 2019. The first two Texans draft picks made with Ryans at the helm, Stroud and defensive end Will Anderson Jr., were named AP NFL Offensive and Defensive Rookie of the Year, respectively. He was named PFWA Coach of the Year.

Ryans was named the 2022 PFWA Assistant Coach of the Year after helping lead San Francisco to the NFC Championship. The 49ers defense ranked first in total defense (300.6 yards per game), total points allowed (277) and points allowed (16.3) per game. Under his leadership, 49ers defensive lineman Nick Bosa garnered AP Defensive Player of the Year honors in 2022, linebacker Fred Warner earned two first team All-Pro honors (2020, 2022) and defensive back Talanoa Hufanga earned first-team All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors in 2022.

Prior to his time as coordinator, Ryans served as the 49ers inside linebackers coach from (2018-20). Ryans also served as the team's defensive quality control coach in 2017, his first NFL coaching job.

As a player, Ryans was drafted by the Texans in the second round (33rd overall) of the 2006 NFL Draft. He was named first team All-Pro in 2007, was selected to the Pro Bowl in 2007 and 2009, and currently sits as the second-leading tackler in franchise history (636). He played for the Eagles from 2012-15 and finished his career starting 139 of 140 games played. Over a 10-year career, he registered 735 tackles, 46 passes defended, 13.5 sacks, 10 fumble recoveries and seven interceptions.

A native of Bessemer, Ala., Ryans played collegiately at the University of Alabama from 2002-05. As a senior, he was a unanimous All-American selection, Southeastern Conference Defensive Player of the Year and earned first team All-SEC honors.

TITANS-TEXANS CONNECTIONS

CAM WARD

Titans quarterback Cam Ward is a native of West Columbia, Texas, located an hour south of Houston. He played at Columbia High School, where he earned all-district honors as a quarterback and finished as the basketball program's all-time leading scorer. He helped Columbia High's football team to a 9-1 record and district co-championship as a senior in 2019 before beginning his college career at Incarnate Word in San Antonio.

Ward's family is ingrained in the town's community. His mother, Patrice, is a retired special education teacher and former head basketball coach at Columbia High. His sister, Aaliyah, who started as a point guard for her mother from 2009-12, took over as the head basketball coach in 2020. Ward's other sister, Chantel, set the Houston Christian University records in the indoor and outdoor shot put before transferring to San Jose State. She is now an assistant track and field coach at Houston Christian.

In July 2025, after Ward was selected by the Titans with the first overall pick in the NFL Draft, the West Columbia City Council approved the renaming of North 17th Street in Columbia to be renamed 'Cam Ward Way' for ceremonial purposes. The street is where Patrice Ward grew up, the Ward family told ESPN.

WEEK 4

Tennessee Titans 18, Baltimore Ravens 24

70,101 M&T Bank Stadium Oct 4, 2026

Tennessee Titans	7	0	3	8	—	18
Baltimore Ravens	7	17	0	0	—	24

In Week 4 of the 2026 season, the Titans traveled to Baltimore and fell to the Ravens by a score of 24-18. On the Titans' second offensive play from scrimmage, a flip pass from QB Cam Ward went off the hands of RB Tony Pollard and was intercepted. Five plays later, on fourth-and-one from the Titans' five-yard line, the Ravens took a 7-0 lead on a touchdown run by RB Derrick Henry. However, the Titans responded with a 10-play, 70-yard drive that was capped off with a three-yard touchdown run by Pollard to make it 7-7 with 5:56 left in the first quarter. Ward found WR Carnell Tate for a 22-yard gain on the drive, while Pollard and RB Tyjae Spears combined for eight carries for 31 yards. The Ravens reclaimed the lead in the second quarter on a 19-yard touchdown pass from QB Lamar Jackson to WR Zay Flowers that capped off a six-play, 81-yard drive to make it 14-7. On Tennessee's next possession, the Titans had a first-and-goal at the Ravens eight-yard line. But four straight runs by Pollard, including a direct snap carry from the two on fourth-and-goal, produced no points and the Ravens took over on their own two-yard line. Baltimore then went 98 yards in eight plays, and capped the drive off with a Jackson touchdown pass to TE Mark Andrews to make it 21-7 with 3:32 left in the first half. Later in the second quarter, Ward connected with Tate for a 35-yard completion, but Tate had the ball punched out after making the play and the Ravens recovered at their own 35-yard line. Baltimore cashed that in for a 64-yard field goal by K Tyler Loop to make it 24-7 as time expired in the first half. Jackson suffered an ankle injury late in the first half and was replaced by QB Tyler Huntley who played the entirety of the second half. The Titans cut the lead to 24-10 midway through the third quarter on a 33-yard field goal by K Joey Slye that capped off a 10-play, 76-yard drive. The Titans defense forced back-to-back punts by the Ravens offense to keep the score at 24-10 heading into the fourth quarter. Later with 3:24 left in the game, the Titans defense forced a 40-yard field goal attempt by Loop which was wide left to give the Titans the ball at their own 30-yard line down by 14. After a 22-yard scramble by Ward, he connected with Tate for a 33-yard gain before finding Robinson for a three-yard touchdown with 1:12 left. Ward then connected with TE Gunnar Helm in the endzone for a successful two-point conversion to make it 24-18. But the Ravens spoiled the comeback by recovering the ensuing onside kick, and running out the clock to drop the Titans to 0-4 to start the season.

NOTES FROM LAST WEEK'S GAME

TEAM NOTES

- After playing consecutive road games, the Titans will return to Nissan Stadium for two of the next three weeks, beginning with a divisional showdown against the Houston Texans on Sunday, Oct. 11 (noon CT).
- At Baltimore, the Titans totaled 21 first downs, compared to 19 first downs by the Ravens.
- The Titans committed eight fewer penalties than the Ravens—13 by the Ravens and five by the Titans.

TEAM NOTES – OFFENSE

- The Titans offense produced 12 plays of at least 10 yards against the Ravens defense. It was the most plays of 10-plus yards the team has produced since it recorded 13 such plays against Kansas City on Dec. 21, 2025.
- Rookie wide receiver Carnell Tate recorded a team-high 145 receiving yards, the most by a Titan since A.J. Brown had 145 yards in a game in 2021. The 222 team gross receiving yards was the most since 251 yards against New Orleans on Dec. 28, 2025.
- The offense totaled 14 first downs in the first half, the unit's highest total in the first two quarters since it had 14 at Houston on Nov. 24, 2004.
- The offense allowed only one sack at Baltimore a week after not allowing a sack at the New York Giants. On the season, the Titans have allowed only six sacks through four games.
- In the fourth quarter, the Titans converted a two-point conversion when Cam Ward completed a pass to tight end Gunnar Helm in the end zone. It was the team's first two-point conversion since they passed for a two-point conversion against Houston on Jan. 5, 2025.

TEAM NOTES – DEFENSE

- The Titans did not allow the Ravens to score in the second half. It marked the Titans' first second-half shutout since they accomplished the feat at Arizona on Oct. 5, 2025.
- The Titans defense limited the Ravens to a 20.0-percent conversion rate on third down, allowing two conversions on 10 attempts. It marked the second time in four games that the Titans allowed a 20.0-percent rate or lower after limiting the New York Jets to 16.7 percent in the season opener on Sept. 13.
- The defense limited Ravens running back Derrick Henry to a 3.2-yard rushing average on 23 carries (73 yards).

WR ELIC AYOMANOR

- Notched a reception for 22 yards.

- Tied for the team lead with eight total tackles.

WR CHIMERE DIKE

- Opened the game with a 40-yard kickoff return and then recorded 15-yard reception on the first play from scrimmage.

DL JOHN FRANKLIN-MYERS

- Posted four tackles, including a tackle for loss.

LB CEDRIC GRAY

- His four tackles included a tackle for loss, and he added a stop on special teams.

CB MARCUS HARRIS

- Totaled four tackles and a half sack.
- In the first quarter, he registered the first half sack of his career, combining with Jacob Martin to bring down Lamar Jackson for an eight-yard loss on third down.

TE GUNNAR HELM

- Recorded one reception for five yards.
- Added a reception to convert a two-point attempt in the fourth quarter. It was the first two-point conversion of his career.
- Extended his streak to 20 consecutive games with at least one reception to begin his NFL career.

LB ANTHONY HILL JR.

- Tied for the team lead with eight total tackles.
- Became the first Titans player to begin a season with four consecutive eight-tackle performances since linebacker Wesley Woodyard in 2017 (GSIS statistics).
- Totaled 42 tackles through the first four games of his career.

S AMANI HOOKER

- Appeared in his 100th NFL regular season game and posted six tackles.

DE JERMAINE JOHNSON II

- Posted four tackles, three quarterback pressures and one sack, and he also tied his career high with two tackles for loss.
- In the second quarter, he posted his 14th career sack and his first sack as a member of the Titans, dropping Lamar Jackson for a five-yard loss.
- In the fourth quarter, he combined with Alontae Taylor to bring down Derrick Henry for a loss of one yard on third-and-two..

G ATONIO MAFI

- Made his first start in a Titans uniform at right guard.

DE JACOB MARTIN

- Tallied two tackles, a half sack, and a team-high four quarterback pressures.
- In the first quarter, he combined with Marcus Harris to bring down Lamar Jackson for an eight-yard loss on third down. The play gave him 1.5 sacks in 2026 and 28 career sacks.

NOTES FROM LAST WEEK'S GAME
RB TONY POLLARD

- Rushed for 48 yards on 16 carries.
- Scored his first touchdown on the season on a three-yard run in the first quarter. It was his 34th career rushing touchdown.
- Pollard recorded seven carries on the 10-play, 70-yard scoring drive, rushing for 23 yards.
- Reached the 6,000-yard rushing mark for his career (6,003).
- With 2,382 rushing yards as a member of the Titans, he surpassed LenDale White (2,349) for 12th place on the franchise's all-time career rushing list.

WR CALVIN RIDLEY

- Recorded a reception for 13 yards and a first down.

WR WAN'DALE ROBINSON

- Recorded three receptions for 19 yards and a touchdown.
- Scored on a three-yard pass from Cam Ward in the fourth quarter.
- Logged his second consecutive game with a touchdown reception, the first time in his career he's scored in two straight outings.
- Extended his streak to 46 consecutive games with at least one reception.

DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

- Registered four tackles, a quarterback pressure and a pass defended.

K JOEY SLYE

- Made a 33-yard field goal and his only extra point attempt.

WR CARNELL TATE

- Set season highs and led the team with nine receptions for 145 yards.
- Averaged 16.1 yards per reception.
- Recorded the three longest receptions of his rookie season with a pair of 33-yard catches and a 22-yard catch.
- His 145 receiving yards were the most by an NFL rookie through the early afternoon games of Oct. 4. The only other rookie to eclipse 100 receiving yards this season was Jets tight end Kenyon Saadiq (105 receiving yards at Detroit, Sept. 30).
- He became the first Titans player to eclipse 100 yards in a game since Calvin Ridley at Arizona on Oct. 5, 2025, and he was the first Titans rookie to hit the century mark since Treyton Burks at Green Bay on Nov. 22, 2025.

- Tate's 145 receiving yards were the most by any Titans player since A.J. Brown had 145 yards against San Francisco on Dec. 23, 2021.
- His 145 receiving yards were the most by a Titans rookie since A.J. Brown had 153 at Oakland on Dec. 8, 2019.
- He became the first Titans rookie with nine or more receptions in a game since Kendall Wright (nine) at Minnesota on Oct. 7, 2012.
- Became the franchise's only rookie since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to notch at least three receptions in each of the team's first four games of his rookie season.
- Totaled 74 yards on five receptions in the first half and 71 yards on four receptions in the second half.

CB ALONTAE TAYLOR

- Totaled six tackles.
- In the fourth quarter, he was credited with a tackle for loss after combining with Jermaine Johnson II to bring down Derrick Henry for a loss of one yard on third-and-two..

P TOMMY TOWNSEND

- Established a franchise single-game record with a net average of 51.0 yards per punt (minimum of four punts to qualify). He broke Brett Kern's record of 50.2 net yards in a game at Miami on Oct. 8, 2017.
- Punted five times for a 53.2-yard gross average with two punts placed inside the 20.
- His effort included punts of 63, 35, 54, 56 and 54 yards.

QB CAM WARD

- Completed 20-of-31 passes (64.5 completion percentage) for a season-high 222 yards with a touchdown and an interception.
- Led a 10-play, 70-yard scoring drive in the first quarter, throwing for 34 yards on the drive before Tony Pollard plunged in for a three-yard touchdown.
- Led a second 70-yard scoring drive in the fourth quarter, including a 33-yard connection with Carnell Tate to convert fourth-and-11 and a career-long 22-yard scramble. The drive was capped off by a three-yard touchdown pass to Wan'Dale Robinson and a pass to Gunnar Helm in the end zone for a two-point conversion.
- It was his ninth consecutive game with either a passing or rushing touchdown.

S KEVIN WINSTON JR.

- Finished third on the defense with seven tackles.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

SUNDAY, OCT. 4, 2026

Injury-wise, everyone finished the game. I know a couple [of] guys came out, but they were evaluated and came back in.

How frustrating was it to shut them out in the second half but still not be able to close out that game?

It is just frustrating overall as a whole from a game standpoint. Offense I thought came out and played with a lot of juice. Obviously, we had the two turnovers that resulted into 10 points and then the turnover on downs inside the five. It was a goofy game in that it did not feel like 24-7 at halftime, but I do appreciate the fact that everyone came out and fought and tried to make a game out of it. But just overall, one of those weird games.

Defensively, how much did this basically come down to RB Derrick Henry or the pass game kind of picking you apart?

They are super explosive. You saw it in the first half. I mean, Lamar (Jackson) is a special quarterback. He has been an MVP for a reason, same thing with Derrick (Henry). We had our opportunities to do a lot of things in the first half, but again, Lamar creates a couple things off schedule. They had a really good designed play on the 'seven-pump' on our flat defender. But just overall, they are a challenge for anybody.

You touched on that kind of at the beginning, but the first-and-goal with no points, and then the Ravens go 98 yards. How much did that just change the momentum?

Big time. I mean, 14-point swing. We had our opportunity there at third-and-6. They did a good job. We sent a pressure; it wasn't a good pressure. We picked the wrong protection to attack, and the quarterback had time, got the one-on-one to the tight end on Hook (Amani Hooker) who was in really tight coverage. But at the end of the day, we lost on that one. It's more on me. But overall, it is frustrating when you have those moments where you're looking to tie the game, and next thing you know, you look up, and it's 21-7.

Can you take us through the situations where linebackers Anthony Hill Jr. and Cody Barton were the guys covering WR Zay Flowers?

Yes, based on certain coverages, it is something they do a good job of, and we were aware of it. On the one, it was a pressure, so you are going to end up—he's the first inside defender, so they got him matched up. But part of their offense is they isolate the MIKE a lot. We were trying to do our best to make sure that he had a backstop so he could play it aggressively, but they are going to catch you. You can't play the same coverage every time, and they caught us a couple times. Now, the one on Cody (Barton), that one is on me. I have to call something better.

On the first-and-goal situation four straight run plays, can you just take us through the sequence and the reasoning behind not throwing into the end zone?

I felt like we were running the ball pretty well. It is something I will definitely have a conversation with Dabs (Brian Daboll) about. But I do know that in those situations, the guys worked their tails off to make sure that we are calling the best play for those situations based on what we have seen on tape. So, I am pleased with the preparation that goes into it, and we will watch the tape and figure out what we could have done better, if anything at all.

You guys had two turnovers, but obviously the Baltimore Ravens were dealing with all kinds of injury situations, including a big one to QB Lamar Jackson. Does it feel like you guys have a slimmer margin for error than most right now where you just cannot overcome a couple mistakes?

Well, first off, when you play an offense like this, you turn the ball over on the first drive—and we were moving it—and then we turned it over. Then we come back, we score, and then we get down inside the five-yard line to try to go 'match wits' if you will. And then we are about to go score—the frustrating one is we get the explosive at the end of the half where we are about to go score to make it 21-10 minimum, and you look up and it's 24-7. So, you are just in these situations where you're moving it well, and we shoot ourselves in the foot with a couple of things. But I don't know if it is necessarily margin-for-error against a team like Baltimore. I think 31 other teams will have a slim margin for error they're so explosive. But I think we are capable of overcoming mistakes. I think we kind of did that today, but any team that shoots itself in the foot three times—I mean, again, two turnovers and a turnover on downs inside the five—you're going to struggle for points.

You kept RB Derrick Henry in check for the most part. Would you have been happy with those numbers coming in, thinking you would have done better if you did that?

Yes. We felt good about our ability to defend the run. They are so explosive in the pass game, mainly obviously Lamar (Jackson) and his ability to create off schedule. I felt like we had him, schematically, we were in good shape on a couple of things, but he's special for a reason. And Zay [Flowers] is ridiculous as a football player. But overall, like I said, felt like—I mean we always feel like we come in with a good plan, but they are an explosive offense.

Overall, WR Carnell Tate had the two drops and obviously the fumble, but his 145 yards was the most by a Tennessee Titans receiver since WR A.J. Brown as a rookie in 2019. How do you feel he played overall? What do you think was hitting for you to highlight him?

He's a big-body receiver. I do think overall, when we watch the tape, I think we are going to see a young man who played well. I think we are going to see a young man who blocked his tail off in the run game, and he made a couple of critical errors that he knows. He walked in the locker room, and he was visibly upset about it. He knows that there is still more meat on the bone with regards to his play, despite the fact that he had a decent day statistically. But he is a young kid, man. He is going to get better, he is going to get more consistent, he is going to understand and have more 'FBI' if you will, but he is going to be a good player for a while.

On that one play where the pressure came off the edge and the ball came out hot, would you like to see QB Cam Ward not have as much on that football?

You would like to. I mean, it was a hot ball, and he probably had space to run for a little bit, too. But Cam (Ward), he has such an unbelievable arm talent, and when you are running those RPO systems, that ball has got to come out. And yes, I would not disagree with you with regards to trying to figure out what that touch feels like, but I also know that it is a 'bang-bang read' for the quarterback, and he has got to get that thing out as quickly as possible, and with Cam, obviously, it is going to come with some juice.

How do you think G Atonio Mafi did?

I did not hear his name on the headset, so I am assuming he did halfway decent.

QUARTERBACK CAM WARD

How much do you feel like the sequence where you guys did not score at first-and-goal and then they go 98 yards, with that 14-point swing, how much did it change the game?

Just a missed opportunity. That has been basically the first four games of the season just missed opportunities in the red zone, whether it is throwing the football, running the football, but at the end of the day, it's all of us. It is not just one person. It is not just Coach Dabs (Brian Daboll), it is all of us. We all have to get better in the red zone.

You guys made some plays tonight but did not make enough in the meat of the game. How do you evaluate how things went offensively?

Be critical on the good plays, but we have to really hone in on the bad plays and how we can limit that. That is what is holding us back offensively. That is what is holding the team back. We have to limit the bad plays on both sides of the ball, not just offense. But I think once we do that, we will put ourselves in good situations to win games.

You looked a lot more comfortable and patient in the pocket today. Was that true? If so, what was a result of that?

Yeah, I for sure was. That is just me trusting the O-line, continuously feeling the pocket, not letting one rush affect me for the rest of the game. I think I stood tall through that. I think the O-line did a fantastic job protecting me. Even on the sack, I feel like I should have been able to get out of that. But at the end of the day, those guys keep us in the ballgame. That is why majority of our games this year we are in the ballgames because of the O-line. They are doing really well in the pass game protecting me and doing very well in the run game.

What was your perspective on the interception? It looked like you were trying to make something out of nothing. RB Tony Pollard said he should have caught the ball, but then it went through his hands and got picked off. What did you see as that unfolded?

I just think I could make it easier for him. Me and Tony (Pollard), we have hit on that play a lot of times last year. But I know for him, he wants that play back. I want it back. But I think if I could put it in his chest a little bit more and make it easier for him, he would have a chance to get upfield.

SAFETY AMANI HOOKER

How was it going against RB Derrick Henry?

He had some big runs early. He got in the end zone, on a short field. I could look at it overall how the numbers were for him. I know that we honed in on the run game pretty well, especially in the second quarter.

Is it disappointing that you did as well as you did against RB Derrick Henry and didn't get a better result?

I mean anytime you lose it is disappointing, especially when the key was to stop the run, try to take him out of the game early. I feel like we did a good job with that, and we fell short.

Why was QB Lamar Jackson having so much success with the downfield passes?

He had a couple of scramble passes, but there were two designed passes that he threw that were just good pass and good catch by Zay Flowers on Cody (Barton). Tough matchup, just with the scramble, late in the down. He is just an all-time MVP player. He is going to buy time, and guys on his offense are going to find space and sit down in the zone.

That was a tough matchup. You obviously don't want their fastest receiver going against an inside linebacker.

I mean, it is just part of their scheme. They are watching film on us too. We are watching film on them. They draw things up, we draw things up too, do certain things, and they just made plays.

TACKLE JC LATHAM

I know you guys had some opportunities, especially in the first half, to kind of stay in the ballgame, and then there were turnovers.

The premise of every single team, there are a few things that must happen and a few things that cannot happen, and turnovers is one of them. We harp on it all the time ball security. I think we do a pretty good job at it. It is unfortunate how it went down, but at the end of the day ball security is a big deal for any team to win the game. But we're not looking at it as blaming any specific guy, saying 'Oh, this happened, or that happened, and that is why...' No, we all could have done a better job in every single area, from top to bottom—offense, defense, special teams—all of us. So, to pin it on one specific thing is unfair to anybody.

I guess it was a stretch maybe in the third quarter where you guys got the ball a couple times when it was 24-10, and you just needed points to kind of turn it into a game. How much do you think that came back to haunt you in your ability to take advantage of those?

It's critical. Again, you can always try to pinpoint one specific thing, but football is a complementary game. And we have to complement the defense and special teams, and everybody, vice versa. We lost by six, so of course you could say, 'In the third quarter we should have scored,' or whatever it might have been. But we could also point out other times when we should have scored. We should have scored on the fourth-and-1. I have to do a better job of displacing the D-Lineman. So, it's not just one specific moment that cost us the game. That is unfair to any specific player or position or unit on our team.

RB TONY POLLARD

How much did you think that stalled things?

That was a big swing in momentum, but we did a good job coming out, responding and settling into the game from there.

What about the fourth-down call in the second quarter where you guys did a wildcat? What did you think of that?

Tried to just punch it in and be aggressive, but their defense made a play.

How much of a swing was it where you guys could have scored on the first-and-goal and then they go 98 yards the other way?

That was a big swing in momentum against us, but we have to be professionals and come out and respond.

What about that last drive? What does that say about your rookie quarterback? I know you guys didn't come out with a win, but to score and get the two-point conversion, you have to get some confidence, right?

Yes, just the attitude and mindset that he has, there's no quit in him. We're going to play until it's zeroes are on the clock, and that's what we did.

The flip pass from QB Cam Ward early — that's one of those where he can make a play at any point, and is that just one you feel like you should have come down with?

Definitely. That's one that every day of the week, I expect myself to make that play.

How much does this team need to find a way to win one of these games?

We don't really have to talk about it. The record is 0-4, so the urgency is there.

WR CARNELL TATE

Your first 100-yard game, is it bittersweet the way it happened, that it came in a loss?

I don't really look at that. At the end of the day, a loss is a loss, so I do not really care about what happened as far as overall individual stats.

Was there something that clicked differently for you and QB Cam Ward this week? It seemed like he was going your way a lot and it was successful.

The more you catch the ball, the more consistent he is to come to you. So, that's all.

That play where you went hot and QB Cam Ward delivered a hard pass to you, is there something you could have done differently?

I switched my gloves on that one, but should have just stayed out there and do what I was doing the rest of the game just catch the ball. No excuse.

What happened on the fumble?

Yes, like they always say, it is the one you do not see. So, Kyle (Hamilton) made a play. I thought I lost him on the route, and I caught the ball, turned upfield, and then he was behind me still. So, it's the ones you do not see that always cause the fumbles.

What was the conversation like on the sideline after the fumble?

I have the same demeanor from Ohio State. I just go laugh off bad plays. At the end of the day, you have to go out there and play the next play. You can't let the last play affect the next play. So, just go out there, laugh it off, stay loose and stay in the game.

How much do you feel like maybe the middle portion of this game came back to haunt you?

I think it's a lesson learned. I have to hold on to the ball. If we go into the half and I hold onto the ball, who knows we go out there and put seven points on the board. But instead, I cough up the ball, they go out there and score a field goal. So, I just have to hold on to the ball next time.

Obviously, nobody wants to see somebody like QB Lamar Jackson leave the game with an injury, but did you feel like you guys missed an opportunity as an offense to win this game knowing that they did not have their best player on the field?

We definitely feel like we lost the game as an offense, without even Lamar (Jackson) playing. I don't think he played a factor in it. I just think if I don't cough up the ball, who knows? We go out there and score, and they don't get three points. I just have to hold on to the ball and make plays.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 2026

WHAT TO LOOK FOR – TEAM

- The Titans franchise (499 all-time wins) needs one win to reach 500 all-time wins, including the regular season and postseason.

WR ELIC AYOMANOR

- After tallying 41 receptions for 515 yards and four touchdowns as a rookie in 2025, he can join A.J. Brown (2019-20), Jerry LeVias (1969-70), Bill Groman (1960-61) and Charlie Hennigan (1960-61) as the only players in franchise history to reach 40 receptions, 500 receiving yards and four touchdown catches in each of his first two NFL seasons.

LS MORGAN COX

- Enters 2026 ranked sixth in the NFL in career games played among active players (250 entering 2026).
- Will reach 100 consecutive NFL games played by appearing in the team's first 10 games of the 2026 season.
- Enters 2026 with a team-best active streak of 85 consecutive games played with the Titans.

WR CHIMERE DIKE

- After leading the NFL with a 17.3-yard punt return average in 2025, he can become the franchise's first player to lead the league in punt return average in consecutive seasons. The only other player in team annals to lead the NFL multiple times in punt returns is Billy "White Shoes" Johnson (1975 and 1977).
- Can become the franchise's first player since Earl Campbell (1978-79) to be named first-team Associated Press All-Pro in each of his first two NFL seasons.
- Can become the franchise's first player since Chris Johnson (2008-09) to be named to the Pro Bowl in each of his first two NFL seasons.

DL JOHN FRANKLIN-MYERS

- Can register his seventh consecutive season with at least 15 games played.
- Can notch his third consecutive campaign with at least seven sacks (7.0 in 2024 and 7.5 in 2025).

LB CEDRIC GRAY

- After totaling 160 tackles in 2025, he can become the franchise's first player in its "Titans era" (1999 to present) with 150 or more tackles in back-to-back seasons.

TE GUNNAR HELM

- After he had 44 receptions in 2025, which set a franchise record among rookie tight ends, Helm needs 45 receptions in 2026 to break Ben Troupe's franchise record (88) for the most receptions in a tight end's first two NFL seasons.

S AMANI HOOKER

- Needs three interceptions in 2026 (12 entering 2026) to become the seventh player in the franchise's "Titans era" (1999–present) to reach 15 career interceptions.
- Will reach 100 career games played with four appearances in 2026.

T DAN MOORE JR.

- Can record 16 or more starts for the sixth consecutive season to begin his career.

RB TONY POLLARD

- Needs 218 rushing yards to reach 6,000 for his career (5,782 rushing yards entering 2026).
- Can notch his fifth consecutive season with at least 1,000 rushing yards.
- Joins Derrick Henry as the NFL's only players entering 2026 holding an active streak of four consecutive seasons with at least 1,000 rushing yards.
- Can notch his third consecutive season as a member of the Titans with at least 1,000 rushing yards. He would join Chris Johnson (six), Eddie George (five), Earl Campbell (four) and Derrick Henry (three) as the franchise's only players to accomplish the feat.
- Looks to extend his streak to six consecutive seasons with at least 1,000 scrimmage yards.
- Joins running backs Derrick Henry and Saquon Barkley and wide receiver Amon-Ra St. Brown as the NFL's only players entering 2026 holding an active streak of four consecutive seasons with at least 1,200 scrimmage yards.

WR CALVIN RIDLEY

- Enters the 2026 season with 405 receptions for 5,678 yards, averaging 14.0 yards per reception. He joins Mike Evans, A.J. Brown, DK

Metcalf, Courtland Sutton and Justin Jefferson as the NFL's only active players with at least 400 receptions and an average of at least 14.0 yards per catch.

- Needs 322 receiving yards to reach 6,000 for his career (5,678 entering 2025).
- Can record his fourth career 1,000-yard receiving season.

WR WAN'DALE ROBINSON

- Looks to register his third consecutive season with 90-plus receptions after a career-high 93 catches in 2024 and 92 catches in 2025. He was one of five players to reach the 90-reception mark in both 2024 and 2025, along with Amon-Ra St. Brown, Ja'Marr Chase, Trey McBride and Jaxon Smith-Njigba.
- Can log back-to-back 1,000-yard receiving seasons after totaling a career-high 1,014 yards in 2025.

DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

- Enters the 2026 season with 42.5 career sacks. With 10 more sacks, he will move past Jevon Kearse (52.0) as the team's sack leader in the franchise's "Titans era" (1999 to present).
- With 10 sacks in 2026, he will join Sean Jones (1990-91) and Jevon Kearse (1999–2001) as the only Titans/Oilers players since 1982 to reach double-digit sacks in consecutive campaigns.
- Needs 7.5 sacks (42.5 entering 2025) to become the ninth player in franchise history to reach 50 career sacks and the seventh such player to do so since individual sacks became an official statistic in 1982.
- Can record his sixth consecutive season with at least five sacks. He would join Ray Childress (nine consecutive seasons), Jurrell Casey (seven), William Fuller (six) and Sean Jones (six) as the only Titans/Oilers players to do so since individual sacks became an official statistic in 1982.
- Will reach 100 career games played with his first appearance of 2026.
- His 99 career games played with the Titans are the most among all current players on the team entering 2026.

G PETER SKORONSKI

- Enters 2026 with a team-best active streak of 47 consecutive starts.
- Can notch his third consecutive season without missing an offensive snap.

K JOEY SLYE

- Slye connected on 28 field goals in 2025, his first season in Tennessee. If he reaches the number again in 2026, he will join Rob Bironas (2007-08) as the only players in franchise history with 28 or more field goals in back-to-back campaigns.
- Can log his third consecutive season and fifth total season with 100 or more points.

CB ALONTAE TAYLOR

- Shares with Riq Woolen a league-best active streak of four consecutive seasons with at least 11 passes defended entering 2026.
- Can appear in all 17 games for the fourth consecutive campaign.

P TOMMY TOWNSEND

- Enters 2026 as one of four active players who have averaged 47.0 yards per punt in each of the last five seasons, joining Logan Cooke (six consecutive seasons), Bryan Anger (five) and AJ Cole (five).
- Enters the 2026 season with a career net punting average of 42.8 yards, tying Blake Gillikin for fourth in NFL history (since 1976; minimum of 250 career punts) behind only Logan Cooke (43.4), Jack Fox (43.1) and Michael Dickson (42.9).
- Can notch his third consecutive season with at least 30 punts inside the 20. He is the NFL's only player with at least 30 punts inside the 20 in each of the past two campaigns.

QB CAM WARD

- Can record his second consecutive season with 3,000-plus passing yards. As a rookie in 2025, he became the first rookie in franchise history with 3,000 passing yards (3,169).
- Can join Warren Moon (1989-91), Steve McNair (2001-03), George Blanda (1963-64), Marcus Mariota (2016-17) and Ryan Tannehill (2020-21) as the only quarterbacks in franchise history with 3,000 passing yards in consecutive seasons.
- Enters 2026 with one interception and 10 touchdown passes in his past nine games.

2026 TITANS SCHEDULE NOTES

SEASON NOTES

- FAREWELL SEASON: With the opening of the new Nissan Stadium set for 2027, this season will mark the farewell season at the current Nissan Stadium. The Titans will open the campaign with a home game against the New York Jets in Week 1, and the team will close out its final regular season in the current building in Week 17 against the Pittsburgh Steelers. The Titans have already played more games at Nissan Stadium than any other venue in the franchise's history entering 2026. Including regular season and postseason games, the team has appeared 224 times at Nissan Stadium (119-105), one more than the 223 total contests at the Astrodome (116-105-2) from 1968 to 1996.
- PLAYOFF OPPONENTS: The Titans have six total games against four playoff teams from last season. They have home games against Houston, Jacksonville, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh and road contests at Houston and Jacksonville. Four of those games are against 2025 division winners: Jaguars twice (AFC South), Pittsburgh (AFC North) and Philadelphia (NFC East). This is the third consecutive year in which the Titans will have six games against reigning playoff clubs.
- TV BREAKDOWN: Excluding their Week 18 matchup at Houston, which has yet to be assigned a broadcasting network, the Titans are currently scheduled for 10 games on CBS and six games on FOX. Due to the NFL's flex scheduling, some contests could be moved to a different network from the one appearing on the initial schedule.
- TOP DRAFT PICKS: The Titans selected Carnell Tate with the fourth overall pick in this year's draft. The team is slated to face seven of the top-11 players selected in this year's draft, including Fernando Mendoza (first overall – Las Vegas), David Bailey (second overall – N.Y. Jets), Arvell Reese (fifth overall – N.Y. Giants), Sonny Styles (seventh overall – Washington), Spencer Fano (ninth overall – Cleveland), Francis Mauigoa (10th overall – N.Y. Giants) and Caleb Downs (11th overall – Dallas). Tate, Reese, Styles and Downs were teammates at Ohio State University.
- HEAD COACHING EXPERIENCE: Robert Saleh was one of 10 NFL head coaches who were hired by their teams this offseason, and the Titans will face five of the others: New York Giants' John Harbaugh, Baltimore's Jesse Minter, Cleveland's Todd Monken, Las Vegas' Klint Kubiak and Pittsburgh's Mike McCarthy. It is the first time since 2022 the Titans will face five-or-more head coaches in their first season with their team.
- THREE GAMES BASED UPON 2025 FINISH: Every NFL team has two intraconference games and one interconference matchup based on the previous year's standings. As a result of the Titans' fourth-place AFC South finish in 2025, they host the AFC East's fourth-place New York Jets, and they visit the AFC West's fourth-place Las Vegas Raiders and the NFC North's fourth-place Detroit Lions. Overall, the Titans' strength of schedule is .476 (137-151-1) based upon their opponents' combined 2025 record, the eighth lowest out of 32 NFL teams.
- OFFENSIVE LEADERS: The revamped Titans defense under head coach Robert Saleh will face two of the top-five offenses from last season in the Dallas Cowboys (second – 391.9 yards per game) and Detroit Lions (fifth – 373.2).
- TIME (ZONE) TRAVEL: The Titans will stay in the Central time zone for 10 matchups in 2026, including every home game and their two trips to Texas against the Cowboys and the Texans. They will double their trips to the Eastern time zone from three in 2025 to six in 2026 (at N.Y. Giants, Baltimore, Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Jacksonville and Detroit). Outside of a preseason visit to San Francisco, the farthest Tennessee will fly is to Las Vegas, their second trip to Nevada in two seasons after never playing there before 2025. The Titans will not play in the Mountain time zone.

WEEK-BY-WEEK SCHEDULE NOTES

- WEEK 5 (H) & WEEK 18 (A) vs. HOUSTON TEXANS: The Titans and Texans rivalry enters its 25th season. The two teams have split the season series in six of the last nine years. The Titans will look to take the lead in the series as it currently sits tied at 24 wins apiece. Head coach DeMeco Ryans and quarterback C.J. Stroud enter their fourth year together. The Texans have reached the playoffs the previous three seasons but have fallen short in the divisional round each year.
- WEEK 6 (A) & WEEK 15 (H) vs. INDIANAPOLIS COLTS: The Titans look to end the Colts' six-game winning streak in the rivalry. Prior to the Colts' streak, the Titans won five consecutive matchups in the series from 2020-22. Titans' defensive coordinator, Gus Bradley, spent three seasons as the Colts defensive coordinator from 2022-24, including two years under current Colts head coach Shane Steichen. The two coaches spent four years together (2017-20) with the Chargers as Steichen climbed the ranks from offensive quality control to quarterbacks coach to offensive coordinator while Bradley served as defensive coordinator.
- WEEK 7 vs. CLEVELAND BROWNS: Cleveland visits Nissan Stadium for the first time since Dec. 6, 2020, when the Browns left with a 41-25 victory. Overall, Cleveland holds a 37-33 lead in the all-time series dating back to 1970. Last season, the Titans captured a victory at Cleveland while Tony Pollard rushed for a career-high 161 yards, Jeffery Simmons totaled 1.5 sacks and James Williams Sr. blocked a punt.
- WEEK 8 at CINCINNATI BENGALS: The Titans lead the all-time series against the Bengals, 41-38-1. From 2021 to 2024, the Bengals visited Nissan Stadium every year and claimed three out of the four matchups, including the 2021 divisional playoff game. This will be the first time the Titans travel to Cincinnati since 2020. The Bengals are led by seventh-year quarterback Joe Burrow and eight-year head coach Zac Taylor.
- WEEK 9 (BYE): This season marks the first time since 2014 the Titans have had a Week 9 bye. It comes one week earlier than the Week 10 bye the Titans had in 2025.
- WEEK 10 (H) & WEEK 12 (A) vs. JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS: The Titans and Jaguars will play two games in a three-week span, as the Jaguars defend their divisional crown. In 2025, the Jaguars went 13-4 to win the AFC South for the first time since 2022. The Titans, who lead the series 34-28 including the postseason, look to regain the momentum in the series after being swept the past two seasons. Titans defensive coordinator Gus Bradley served as head coach of the Jaguars from 2013-16. During that time, Titans head coach Robert Saleh was the linebackers coach.
- WEEK 11 at DALLAS COWBOYS: In Week 11, the Titans and Cowboys will meet for the 17th time as the Titans travel to AT&T Stadium for the first time since a 28-14 Monday Night Football victory in November 2018. Tennessee has won both of its regular season games at the site, which opened in 2009. Of the 14 new additions to the Titans coaching staff in 2026, three (Dave Borzonzi, Tanel Smart and Aaron Whitecotton) coached for Dallas in 2025. Special teams coordinator John "Bones" Fassel joined the Titans in 2024 after five years with the Cowboys. The Titans also acquired defensive lineman Solomon Thomas in a trade with Dallas in March.
- WEEK 13 vs. WASHINGTON COMMANDERS: The Titans will face the Commanders in Week 13. In 2024, the teams also met in Week 13 in the nation's capital. The Titans lead the all-time series, 8-7, and have won two of the last three meetings. Washington coach Dan Quinn succeeded Titans defensive coordinator Gus Bradley as defensive coordinator of the Seahawks in 2013 after Bradley was hired to be the head coach of the Jaguars. Head coach Robert Saleh served as quality control coach under both Bradley and Quinn in Seattle from 2011-13, ending the 2013 season with a victory in Super Bowl XLVIII.
- WEEK 14 at DETROIT LIONS: For the second time since 2024, the Titans will make the trip to Detroit to take on the Lions, and they look to win their seventh game against Detroit in eight matchups. The Titans currently hold a 10-4 lead in the all-time series. Head coach Robert Saleh is a native of Dearborn, Mich., a suburb of Detroit. This will be his first time visiting Detroit as a head coach. Since the Lions hired Dan Campbell as head coach in 2022, their 45 regular season wins are the fourth-most in the NFL.

2026 TITANS SCHEDULE NOTES

- WEEK 16 at LAS VEGAS RAIDERS: For the second consecutive year, the Titans will travel to Las Vegas to take on the Raiders. This year, the contest could feature the top overall pick from the last two drafts in Titans quarterback Cam Ward and Raiders quarterback Fernando Mendoza, who the Raiders took first overall in 2026. The Titans, who trail in the series 22-31, look to regain momentum after dropping last year's contest in their first ever trip to Allegiant Stadium. Former Titans interim coach Mike McCoy currently serves as the assistant head coach of the Raiders, while former offensive coordinator Nick Holz is the offensive pass game coordinator.
- WEEK 17 vs. PITTSBURGH STEELERS: In the final regular season game at the current Nissan Stadium, the Titans will face off against the Steelers, who are led by new head coach Mike McCarthy. It will be Pittsburgh's first visit to Nissan Stadium since 2020. McCarthy takes over the reins in Pittsburgh following former head coach Mike Tomlin's resignation following 19 seasons at the helm. The Titans look to snap a five-game losing streak against the Steelers dating back to 2014. In franchise history, the Titans/Oilers have played the Steelers more than any other opponent.

2026 GAME-BY-GAME RECAP

Week 1 • Sept. 13, 2026 • JETS 23 at Titans 10 • 0-1

After Joey Slye's 42-yard field goal caps the Titans' first drive, the Jets keep the Titans off the scoreboard until Cam Ward's touchdown pass to Elic Ayomanor with less than three minutes remaining in the fourth quarter ... The Jets total 152 rushing yards and two rushing touchdowns, possessing the ball for more than 38 minutes ... Jets kicker Jason Sanders makes three field goals, including a 51-yarder and a 52-yarder ... Titans second-round rookie linebacker Anthony Hill Jr. debuts with a game-high 16 tackles ... The temperature is 90 degrees at kickoff.

Week 2 • Sept. 20, 2026 • EAGLES 24 at Titans 20 • 0-2

Trailing 20-17, Eagles quarterback Jalen Hurts completes a game-winning, three-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Darius Cooper with nine seconds remaining ... Hurts totals two touchdown passes and two interceptions, including an interception to Titans safety Amani Hooker that goes for a 92-yard return ... Eagles receiver DeVonta Smith contributes 10 receptions for 117 yards and a score ... Titans quarterback Cam Ward accounts for both of his team's touchdowns on one-yard rushes and leads the go-ahead field goal drive in the fourth quarter ahead of Cooper's touchdown ... The temperature is 92 degrees at kickoff.

Week 3 • Sept. 27, 2026 • Titans 7 at GIANTS 12 • 0-3

With 24 seconds remaining and the Titans having a first-and-goal from the seven-yard line, Cam Ward's pass to the end zone is intercepted by safety Jevón Holland to seal the victory for the Giants ... The Titans' three possessions in the second half all move deep into New York territory, but they are turned away on two of them (turnover on downs and interception) Ward tosses a four-yard touchdown pass to Wan'Dale Robinson in the fourth quarter to narrow the Giants' lead ... Giants quarterback Jameis Winston passes for 118 yards in his first start of the season ... The weather includes steady, light rain for the duration of the game.

Week 4 • Oct. 4, 2026 • Titans 18 at RAVENS 24 • 0-4

Ravens quarterback Lamar Jackson passes for 222 yards and two touchdowns in the first half before leaving the game due to injury ... Ravens running back Derrick Henry rushes for 73 yards and a score in his first career game against the Titans ... The Ravens force a pair of turnovers as well as a turnover on downs, the latter of which occurred at Baltimore's two-yard line and led to a 98-yard touchdown drive in the second quarter ... Titans rookie wide receiver Carnell Tate catches nine passes for 145 yards ... A late touchdown pass from Cam Ward to Wan'Dale Robinson cuts into Baltimore's lead, but an onside kick attempt by the Titans is recovered by the Ravens to seal the outcome.

The OTP: 2025 New Titans GM Mike Borgonzi

Mike Borgonzi was named the 15th general manager in franchise history on Jan. 17, 2025.

Borgonzi arrived in Tennessee after 16 years with the Kansas City Chiefs, helping to build the franchise into a perennial contender and three-time Super Bowl winner. During his final four seasons in Kansas City, Borgonzi served as Assistant General Manager.

Tasked with building a foundation for sustained success in Tennessee, Borgonzi directed a significant overhaul of the Titans roster from the time he arrived through the end of his second offseason on the job. Entering training camp in 2026, only 17 of the 91 players on the team (as of July 15) were with the club before he was named GM.

The additions included an eight-man class from the 2026 NFL Draft. Borgonzi took wide receiver Carnell Tate with the fourth overall pick, and on the same night, he traded back into the first round to draft defensive end Keldric Faulk at No. 31. It marked only the second time in the franchise's "Titans era" (1999 to present) that the team had multiple first-rounders. The class also included linebacker Anthony Hill Jr. in the second round and five more players on Day 3: guard Fernando Carmona Jr. (Round 5), running back Nick Singleton (5), defensive tackle Jackie Marshall (6), center Pat Coogan (6) and tight end Jaren Kanak (7).

The 2026 draft followed an active period of signings and trades, when the Titans targeted several key veterans to raise the talent level and provide leadership. From the day the NFL's unrestricted free agent signing period began to the start of the draft, a total of 21 free agents joined the Titans. The haul included wide receiver Wan'Dale Robinson (formerly of the New York Giants), tight end Daniel Bellinger (Giants), punter Tommy Townsend (Houston Texans), defensive lineman John Franklin-Myers (Denver Broncos) and cornerbacks Alontae Taylor (New Orleans Saints) and Cor'Dale Flott (Giants). Two additional veterans—defensive end Jermaine Johnson II (New York Jets) and defensive tackle Solomon Thomas (Dallas Cowboys)—were acquired in trades.

Borgonzi capped the 2026 offseason by awarding defensive tackle Jeffery Simmons with a multi-year contract extension, securing the four-time Pro Bowler's tenure in Tennessee for the foreseeable future.

The Titans' first Borgonzi-led draft in 2025 featured nine selections, including quarterback Cam Ward with the first-overall selection. All nine of the draftees appeared in at least six games as rookies, and six members of the group started at least five games. The Titans draft class accumulated 64 combined starts in 2025, which ranked second in the NFL (75 by Cleveland) and was the largest total for the franchise in the Titans era.

Ward, who was voted a team captain as a rookie, started all 17 games, and his 3,169 passing yards eclipsed Marcus Mariota's previous franchise rookie record (2,818 passing yards in 2015). With 15 touchdowns and seven interceptions on 323-of-540 passing, Ward's 1.3 percent interception rate was the best single-season mark in franchise history by all qualifying quarterbacks, breaking Ryan Tannehill's franchise mark of 1.5 percent in 2020.

Another draft pick, fourth-round wide receiver Chimere Dike, was named to the Pro Bowl as a returner and added first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors as a punt returner. Dike led the NFL with 2,427 all-purpose yards, which ranked third all-time for the franchise and first all-time among all NFL rookies. His 17.3-yard punt return average broke Billy "White Shoes" Johnson's franchise record (15.4) that stood since 1977, and he also posted a franchise-best 1,588 kickoff return yards.

During Borgonzi's time in Kansas City, he contributed to 12 playoff seasons (2010, 2013, 2015-24) and 10 AFC West titles (2010, 2016-24). Borgonzi helped construct a roster over a five-season span that won the AFC five times (2019-20, 2022-24) and captured three Super Bowl championships (2019, 2022-23).

In his final eight seasons in Kansas City (2017-24), Borgonzi worked under Chiefs General Manager Brett Veach. As the Assistant General Manager from 2021 through 2024, he supervised and directed the college and professional scouting operations while closely supporting and advising Veach with the club's roster management and player acquisition via the NFL Draft, free agency, waiver claims and trades. During his four seasons as Assistant General Manager, the Chiefs built a league-best 52-16 regular-season record (.765). In the same four-year span, 10 different Kansas City players earned a combined 23 Pro Bowl selections: tackle Orlando Brown Jr. (2021-22), wide receiver Tyreek Hill (2021), center Creed Humphrey (2022-24), defensive tackle Chris Jones (2021-24), tight end Travis Kelce (2021-24), quarterback Patrick Mahomes (2021-23), safety Tyrann Mathieu (2021), guard Trey Smith (2024), guard Joe Thuney (2022-24) and Townsend (2022).

In 2024, the Chiefs captured their ninth consecutive AFC West crown. They tied the Detroit Lions for the NFL's best record at 15-2, setting a franchise record for wins in a regular season and securing the AFC's top seed. Twenty original Chiefs draft picks started at least six games for the team during the 2024 regular season. Kansas City had five players voted to the Pro Bowl, marking the seventh consecutive year in which it had at least five players earn the honor.

Prior to his promotion to Assistant General Manager, Borgonzi served as Director of Football Operations (2018-20), Director of Player Personnel (2017), Co-Director of Player Personnel (2015-16), Assistant Director of Pro Scouting (2013-14), Pro Personnel Scout (2011-12) and Manager of Football Operations (2010). He joined the Chiefs in 2009 as the club's College Scouting Administrator.

Before landing in the NFL with the Chiefs, Borgonzi spent the 2007 and 2008 seasons at Boston College, where he was the Assistant Recruiting Coordinator. He also coached tight ends at Amherst College in 2002 before working in the financial sector in Boston for several years.

A native of Everett, Mass., Borgonzi graduated from Brown University, where he was a four-year starter at fullback and was a three-time All-Ivy League selection.

TITANS HEAD COACH ROBERT SALEH

The Tennessee Titans hired Robert Saleh as the 22nd head coach in franchise history on Jan. 22, 2026.

Saleh arrives in Tennessee with 21 seasons of NFL coaching experience: six seasons with the Houston Texans (2005-10), three with the Seattle Seahawks (2011-13), three with the Jacksonville Jaguars (2014-16), five total seasons over two stints with the San Francisco 49ers (2017-20, 2025), and four campaigns as the head coach of the New York Jets (2021-24). During his time in the NFL, he has been a part of nine top-10 defenses, and in his nine seasons as a defensive coordinator or head coach, his team has finished in the top five in total defense on five occasions.

In 2025, Saleh returned to the San Francisco 49ers for his second stint as defensive coordinator under head coach Kyle Shanahan. With the roster decimated by injuries, including season-ending injuries to All-Pro defensive lineman Nick Bosa and All-Pro linebacker Fred Warner, the 49ers went 12-5 during the regular season and progressed to the Divisional Round of the playoffs.

As the head coach of the Jets, Saleh guided four different players in their first four years in the NFL to Associated Press First-Team All-Pro honors (cornerback Sauce Gardner, defensive lineman Quinnen Williams and returner Braxton Berrios) and/or Pro Bowl appearances (Gardner, Williams and linebacker Jermaine Johnson II). The Jets defense finished in the top 10 in multiple categories over the 2022 and 2023 seasons, including first in passing yards allowed per game (178.9) and opponent yards per play (4.7), second in total defense (301.7), and sixth in opponent yards per rush (4.1). The unit also tallied 93 sacks and 29 interceptions during that time, tied for the eighth and 10th-most, respectively, in the NFL.

The 2023 Jets featured a pair of first-team Associated Press All-Pros in Gardner and linebacker Quincy Williams, as well as three Pro Bowl selections in Gardner, Johnson II and Quinnen Williams. The Jets also won four games after trailing in the fourth quarter, tying for the second-most such victories in the NFL. Defensively, the Jets finished in a tie for first place in opponent yards per play (4.6) and ranked second in passing yards allowed per game (168.3), third in total defense (292.3) and tied for eighth in takeaways (27). The Jets held opponents to seven points or less in 10 of their 17 games, which was tied for the most such games in the NFL. Meanwhile, the Jets offense gained 4,566 total yards in 2023, with 64.1 percent of those yards coming from rookie and second-year players, the second-most in the NFL. Saleh saw second-year running back Breece Hall register career highs in rushing yards (994), receiving yards (591), yards from scrimmage (1,585) and total touchdowns (nine).

In 2022, Saleh led a roster that featured two first-team AP All-Pro selections (Gardner and Quinnen Williams), a second-team All-Pro (linebacker C.J. Mosley) and four Pro Bowl selections (special teamer Justin Hardee, Gardner, Mosley and Quinnen Williams). He also oversaw the development of the NFL's Offensive and Defensive Rookies of the Year in wide receiver Garrett Wilson and Gardner, making the Jets the third team in NFL history to have both rookie players win the honor. Wilson led all rookie wide receivers in receptions (83) and receiving yards (1,103), while Gardner led the NFL in passes defended (20). The Jets improved their win total by three games, which marked the sixth-largest win improvement in the NFL in 2022. The club boasted a defense that tied for first in opponent yards per play (4.8) and finished third in passing defense (189.4), fourth in scoring defense (316) and fourth in total defense (311.1).

In his first year as head coach of the Jets, the 2021 team was led by rookie quarterback Zach Wilson (2,519 passing yards), rookie running back Michael Carter (639 rushing yards) and rookie wide receiver Elijah Moore (538 receiving yards). The Jets were just the second team since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger to be led by rookies in passing yards, rushing yards and receiving yards.

Before taking the helm in New York, Saleh logged four seasons (2017-20) in his first stint as the defensive coordinator for the 49ers. During that span, the 49ers defense ranked third in passing yards allowed per game (211.4), fourth in total defense (323.6) and opponent yards per play (5.1) and sixth in opponent yards per rush (4.1).

In 2020, despite injuries to key players throughout the year, the 49ers defense held top-five marks in passing yards allowed per game (207.9, fourth), third-down defense (35.5 percent, fourth), total defense (314.4, fifth) and opponent yards per play (5.0, tied for fifth). The unit also ranked tied for sixth in opponent yards per rush (4.0) and seventh in opponent rushing yards per game (106.4). The defense was led by Warner, who earned first-team AP All-Pro honors and a Pro Bowl selection after registering a team-high 125 tackles to go along with a sack, two interceptions, six passes defended, one forced fumble and two fumble recoveries.

In 2019, Saleh was named Coordinator of the Year by Sporting News after leading the 49ers defense to a second-place finish in total defense – 281.8 yards allowed per game – which was the fewest total yards allowed per game by the team since 1997 (250.8). San Francisco placed first in the NFL in passing yards allowed per game (169.2), the fewest passing yards allowed per game in the NFL since 2009 (153.7 by the Jets). It marked the first time San Francisco led the NFL in passing defense since 1987 (165.6). The 49ers tied for second in the NFL in third-down percentage allowed (33.3) and tied for fifth in the NFL in sacks (48), the most by the team in a single season since 1998 (51). San Francisco also ranked seventh in

QUOTES ON ROBERT SALEH

CONTROLLING OWNER AMY ADAMS STRUNK:

"We're delighted to welcome Robert and his family to the Titans, and firmly believe he is the right person for our team and community. We immediately connected with his competitive spirit and detailed approach to developing our players and team. Also, Robert's recommendations from across the league were overwhelmingly positive and were only reinforced during our time together. I want to thank Mike Borgonzi for his leadership during this process and acknowledge the work done by the search committee. They dedicated so much time and effort and I am thrilled with the results – and most importantly – I believe Titans fans will be, too. Congratulations to Robert and his family, and welcome to Nashville."

GENERAL MANAGER MIKE BORGONZI:

"On behalf of the entire Titans organization and Nashville community, I am thrilled to welcome Robert Saleh as our head coach. Robert embodies the fundamental values of what we believe a Titan should look like and represent. He's smart, tough, dependable, and values working with people. His innate ability to lead and respond to adversity is what makes him the right person to lead our football program back to one whose identity embodies sustainable success. We understand the urgency to win, and believe this is a step in that direction with a coach best equipped to accomplish our goals. The work has just begun, but I'm grateful for this partnership and excited to build this together."

opponent completion percentage (61.3) and opponent quarterback rating (83.0).

Bosa, a rookie in 2019, played in all 16 games (14 starts) and registered 47 tackles, nine sacks, one interception, one forced fumble, two fumble recoveries and two passes defended. He was named Defensive Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press and the PFWA, and Rookie of the Year by Sporting News and PFWA, as well as the NFL's Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Year. He was also named to the PFWA All-Rookie Team and was named a starter in the Pro Bowl. With defensive linemen Arik Armstead (10.0), Bosa (nine), DeForest Buckner (7.5) and Dee Ford (6.5), the 49ers were the only team in the NFL to have four or more players with at least 6.5 sacks in 2019. Rookie linebacker Dre Greenlaw was named to the PFWA All-Rookie team. The secondary was led by cornerback Richard Sherman, who registered three interceptions (one returned for a touchdown) and was named second-team All-Pro.

In 2018, the 49ers defense registered 37 sacks, the most by the team in a single season at the time since 2013 (38). The defense ranked among the top dozen teams in the league in rushing yards per play allowed (4.09, seventh), opponent completion percentage (63.5, 10th), yards per play allowed (5.42, 11th) and net passing yards per game allowed (233.3, 11th). San Francisco was one of six teams (Baltimore Ravens, Buffalo Bills, Detroit Lions, Indianapolis Colts & New England Patriots) to allow fewer net yards per game, rushing yards per game and passing yards per game than in 2017. The 2018 San Francisco defense was anchored by Buckner, who led the team with a career-high 12 sacks and was named to the Pro Bowl for the first time in his career. His 12 sacks were the most by a 49ers defender since 2012 (19.5 by Aldon Smith). Warner started all 16 games as a rookie and led the team with 123 tackles, ranking 12th in the NFL and third among all rookies.

In 2017, Saleh spearheaded a 49ers defensive unit that allowed 5.28 yards per play, which was a 0.62 yards-per-play improvement from 2016 and the third-largest improvement in the NFL from 2016 to 2017 behind Cleveland (0.76) and the Jets (0.72). The defense also held its opponents under 100 yards rushing seven times. From Weeks 12-16, the 49ers' streak of holding each of their five opponents under 100 yards rushing was tied for the longest streak in the NFL over that span (Arizona). The 49ers defense was among the league leaders at getting into the opponent's backfield on running plays, finishing tied for fifth in the NFL by forcing 53 rushes for negative yardage. Over the final eight weeks of the year, San Francisco ranked second in the NFL in rushing yards allowed (640) and tied for fourth in yards per carry allowed (3.62).

Saleh joined San Francisco after three years (2014-16) as the linebackers coach of the Jaguars. In 2016, Saleh's linebackers helped the Jacksonville defense rank fifth in passing yards allowed (215.3) and sixth in opponent rushing average (3.82). Team captain Paul Posluszny started all 16 games at middle linebacker and led the club in tackles for the second consecutive season. According to Jaguars team statistics, linebacker Telvin Smith Sr. registered 118 tackles while starting all 16 games at outside linebacker for the first time in his career. Smith's 350 career tackles from 2014 through 2016 were the most by a Jaguars player in his first three NFL seasons.

In 2015, the Jaguars defense allowed 3.68 yards per rushing attempt, which was the fifth-lowest rushing average allowed in the NFL. Posluszny led the squad and ranked fifth in the NFL with 133 tackles, according to GSIS statistics, while tying with Smith for the team lead with 13 tackles for loss.

Under Saleh's guidance, Smith stepped into the starting lineup in 2014 and ranked third among all rookies with 99 tackles. Smith led the team with two fumble recoveries while ranking second with nine tackles for loss. After a season-ending injury to Posluszny midway through the year, J.T. Thomas stepped in and set a career high in tackles along with two interceptions.

Prior to Jacksonville, Saleh spent three seasons (2011-13) as a defensive quality control coach for the Seahawks. During that period, he was responsible for assisting the defensive staff with day-to-day duties with a focus on the linebackers. Working under linebackers coach Ken Norton Jr., Saleh aided in the development of K.J. Wright, Bobby Wagner and Super Bowl XLVIII MVP Malcolm Smith.

Before joining the Seahawks, Saleh totaled six seasons with the Texans, serving as a coaching intern (2005), defensive assistant (2006-08) and assistant linebackers coach (2009-10). While there, Saleh oversaw the growth of the Texans linebackers, including AP Defensive Rookie of the Year performances by DeMeco Ryans (2006) and Brian Cushing (2009). In 2009, the Pro Bowl duo of Ryans and Cushing were the only teammates to each rank among the league's top 10 tacklers.

Saleh's coaching career began with three seasons in the collegiate ranks. He launched his career at Michigan State University as an offensive assistant/tight ends coach (2002) and defensive assistant/defensive line coach (2003). He then spent one season (2004) as a defensive assistant/defensive line coach at Central Michigan University before a brief stint at the University of Georgia as a defensive assistant/linebackers coach (2005).

A native of Dearborn, Mich., Saleh attended Northern Michigan University, where he was a four-year starter at tight end.

He and his wife, Sanaa, have eight children: sons Adam, Zane, Michael, Sam, Jacob and Robert Jr., and daughters Mila and Ella.

- Rayna Stewart returned to Tennessee in 2025 after three seasons as the special teams assistant with the Cowboys.
- He is in his 10th season coaching in the NFL following a five-year playing career he began in 1996 as a fifth-round draft pick with the Houston Oilers.
- In 2025, he helped the Titans finish in the NFL's top 10 in punt return average (second at 16.6 yards per return), opponent kickoff return average (seventh, 24.9) and opponent net punting average (second, 37.1).
- During his time in Dallas from 2022 through 2024, Stewart worked with current Titans special teams coordinator John Fassel, helping the Cowboys field goal unit connect on 90 percent of its attempts, the fourth-best mark in the NFL.
- Assisted in the development of first-year kicker Brandon Aubrey throughout the 2023 season and led the league in field goals made (36), ranked third in field goal percentage (94.7) and first in kicking points (157).
- Stewart went to Dallas after three seasons in Green Bay in a similar capacity, first as the special teams quality control coach (2019-20) and then as the assistant special teams coach (2021).
- In 2021, Packers kicker Mason Crosby made 25-of-34 (73.5 percent) field goals and converted 49-of-51 extra points, leading the team in scoring (124 points) for the 13th time in his career.
- Was part of a staff in 2019 that saw Crosby connect on 22-of-24 field goal attempts (91.7 percent), matching Jan Stenerud's 1981 single-season franchise record.
- Spent four seasons (2015-18) at Vanderbilt, first as director of player development (2015-17) and then as special teams quality control coach (2018).
- From 2009 to 2010, Stewart was a member of the Titans coaching staff for the first time, working primarily with the linebackers and defensive linemen as a defensive quality control coach.
- Stewart played collegiately at Northern Arizona, where he was a two-time All-American cornerback and set the school record for passes defended in a season, posting 19 in both 1994 and 1995.

NISSAN STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of an exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

Eight years later, on Nov. 17, 2023, the Titans and Nissan North America announced a new agreement: a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that brands the new Titans home venue as 'Nissan Stadium.'

Slated for completion in 2027, the new Nissan Stadium will host Titans home games, Tennessee State University football games, concerts, large-scale events and other community events.

"This partnership is a natural extension of our already longstanding friendship with Nissan," said Burke Nihill, Titans President and CEO. "Our mission at the Titans is to Win, Serve, and Entertain. We pride ourselves on collaborating with organizations who love this city and state as much as we do, and for the past 40 years, Nissan has invested more than $10.5 billion statewide, serving as a great example of an outstanding corporate steward and community advocate. We look forward to the continued positive impact of this relationship for the Titans organization and the City of Nashville."

"Since 2015 our fans and organization have called our home 'Nissan Stadium,' and we are proud to continue that tradition in the new stadium as we deepen and expand our relationship with them," said Titans Chief Revenue Officer Adam Nuse. "The new stadium will host the world's largest events, as well as serve as a community hub for our local neighbors. We're excited to have a partner like Nissan embark on this journey with us as we look towards the future."

The partnership will feature dedicated areas in the new stadium for brand experiences and displays, innovative technology integration, and involvement in Titans broadcast platforms. Nissan also will support a to-be-determined program in the Titans' ONE Community philanthropic platform, which reaches Nashville's most underrepresented and marginalized communities with a focus on three areas – Opportunity, Neighborhoods and Education.

"Nissan Stadium is a centerpiece of the Nashville skyline and has become a household name in Middle Tennessee. It is important for Nissan to keep our name on the new stadium," said Jérémie Papin, chairperson, Nissan Americas. "As more people come to Nashville both to visit and to live in this wonderful city, Nissan Stadium is true showcase for our brand and for the career opportunities we've offered here for more than four decades. This partnership sends a strong message about the bright future for Nissan, the Titans, Nashville and the State of Tennessee."

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin. Nissan is home to more than 11,000 employees across all three locations.

"Nissan has been a strong partner to middle Tennessee for four decades, and I'm thrilled that the Titans have united with a partner that invests in our community and its people," said Nashville Mayor Freddie O'Connell. "The familiarity and trust they've established with the Titans in the last eight years will undoubtedly be a great asset as we plan for the stadium's opening in 2027."

The new Nissan stadium will be built on the east side of the current stadium campus, along Nashville's East Bank. Features of the building include: a circular translucent roof; exterior porches with panoramic views of Nashville; improved sightlines for all spectators through a range of diverse seating experiences; and a 12,000 square foot community space available for use year-round. A waitlist for those interested in purchasing PSLs or suites is now open at NewNissanStadium.com.

6-2, 219, 2nd Year/2nd with Titans, Miami (Fla.)

Click for complete bio

Quarterback Cam Ward was selected by the Titans with the first overall pick in the 2025 NFL Draft. He became the first No. 1 overall pick for the franchise since running back Earl Campbell in 1978.

As a rookie, Ward was voted a team captain prior to the season. He started all 17 games, and his final statistics included 323 completions, 3,169 yards, 15 touchdowns and seven interceptions on 540 attempts with a passer rating of 80.2. He broke Marcus Mariota's franchise rookie record (2,818 passing yards in 2015) for passing yards in a season. He also rushed for 159 yards and two touchdowns on 39 attempts.

With 17 starts, he set a franchise record for starts by a rookie quarterback and joined Ryan Tannehill (2021) as the only Titans quarterbacks with 17 starts in a season since the NFL schedule went to 17 games in 2021. Previously during the 16-game schedule era from 1978 to 2020, six Titans/Oilers quarterbacks combined for 10 total seasons with 16 starts: Warren Moon (three), Steve McNair (three), Dan Pastorini, Ken Stabler, Matt Hasselbeck and Tannehill.

Ward's 540 attempts in 2025 were not only more than any other rookie in the organization's history, but also more than every quarterback in franchise annals in a season other than Warren Moon, who had 655 attempts in 1991 and 584 attempts in 1990.

On 540 attempts, Ward threw only seven interceptions. His 1.3 interception percentage stands as the best single-season mark in franchise history by all qualifying quarterbacks. He broke Ryan Tannehill's franchise record of 1.5 percent in 2020. Over the final nine games of the season, Ward threw only one interception. His 1.3 percent interception rate also tied for the third-best mark in the NFL among qualifiers in 2025 behind Atlanta's Michael Penix Jr. (1.1) and Chicago's Caleb Williams (1.2).

Prior to entering the NFL, Ward played for three different schools over five college seasons: Incarnate Word (2020-21), Washington State (2022-23) and Miami (2024). In 57 career games—all starts—he completed 1,516 of 2,330 passes for 18,184 yards, and his 158 touchdown passes set an NCAA Division I (FBS/FCS) record. He also totaled 399 rushes for 473 yards and 20 touchdowns.

During his graduate campaign at Miami, he started all 13 games and led the Hurricanes to a 10-3 record, giving them their first 10-win season since 2017. He earned first-team Associated Press All-America honors and was a Heisman finalist after establishing Miami's single-season records for passing yards (4,313), touchdowns (39) and completion percentage (67.2 percent, 305-for-454), while throwing only seven interceptions. He received the 2024 Davey O'Brien Award, recognizing the nation's top quarterback, and was named ACC Player of the Year, ACC Offensive Player of the Year and first-team All-ACC.

At Washington State in 2023, Ward started all 12 games and completed 324 of 486 passes for 3,732 yards and 25 touchdowns with seven interceptions. He also accounted for eight rushing touchdowns. At the conclusion of the season, he received All-Pac-12 Conference honorable mention for the second consecutive season.

Ward arrived at Washington State as a junior in 2022. He started all 13 games in his first season with the Cougars and completed 320 of 497 passes for 3,231 yards and 23 touchdowns with nine interceptions. He added five rushing touchdowns.

In 2021, Ward was a sophomore at Incarnate Word, where he was named Southland Conference Offensive Player of the Year, FCS All-American second team and a Walter Payton Award Finalist after leading UIW to Southland Conference Championship, a 10-3 record and into the second round of the FCS playoffs. His statistics included 384 completions on 590 attempts for 4,648 yards, 47 touchdowns and 10 interceptions. He set program records for single game passing yards (610), single-game passing touchdowns (seven), career passing touchdowns (71) and career passing yards (6,908).

As a freshman in 2020, Ward started in all six games at Incarnate Word during the spring season (2021) that resulted from the COVID-19 outbreak. He completed 183 of 303 passes for 2,260 yards and 24 touchdowns and was named the Jerry Rice Award winner, given to the top FCS freshman.

Ward is a native of West Columbia, Texas.

2026 Notes:

➤ Against N.Y. Jets (9/13), started at quarterback, joining Marcus Mariota (2015-16) as the only quarterbacks in franchise history to start Week 1 in each of their first two NFL seasons. He finished with 140 yards on 19-of-32 passing and added four rushes for 21 yards. In the fourth quarter, he connected with Elic Ayomanor for an 11-yard touchdown.

➤ Against Philadelphia (9/20), completed 13 of 20 passes for 183 yards and a 94.4 passer rating. His passer rating was the third best of his 19-game career in a contest with at least 20 attempts. He added two rushing touchdowns, finishing with seven rushing yards on four attempts. He scored the Titans' first touchdown of the contest with a one-yard run on fourth-and-goal in the first quarter and then capped a 12-play, 69-yard drive with his second rushing touchdown of the contest on a one-yard carry in the third quarter. It was his first career game with multiple rushing touchdowns and gave him four career rushing scores. Ward became the first Titans quarterback with multiple rushing touchdowns in a game since Ryan Tannehill had a pair at Houston on Jan. 3, 2021. His four passes of 25-plus yards in the game matched a career high (Ayomanor for 28 and 41 yards, Tyjae Spears for 27 yards, and Calvin Ridley for 25 yards). He increased his streak to six consecutive games without an interception, including the final four games of 2025, while also increasing his streak to 173 consecutive passes without an interception, second in the franchise record books behind only Marcus Mariota's 205 consecutive passes without an interception from 2018 to 2019. Over an 11-game span, including the final nine games of 2025, his totals included one interception, 11 touchdown passes and four rushing touchdowns.

➤ At N.Y. Giants (9/27), finished the game with 181 yards on 23-of-36 passing, with a four-yard touchdown pass to Wan'Dale Robinson. On a fourth-quarter scoring drive, completed all eight pass attempts for 54 yards and a touchdown. In the second half, he completed 16-of-23 passes (69.6 percent) for 141 yards with a touchdown and an interception. Ward's 16 completions in the second half tied for the second-most in any half in his career. Prior to his interception—his first since Dec. 7, 2025 at Cleveland—he attempted 208 consecutive passes without an interception to break the franchise record, previously set by Marcus Mariota, who had 205 consecutive pass attempts without an interception from 2018 to 2019.

➤ At Baltimore (10/4), completed 20-of-31 passes (64.5 completion percentage) for a season-high 222 yards with a touchdown and an interception. In the first quarter, he led a 10-play, 70-yard scoring drive, throwing for 34 yards on the drive before Tony Pollard plunged in for a three-yard touchdown. In the fourth quarter, he led a second 70-yard scoring drive, including a 33-yard connection with Carnell Tate to convert fourth-and-11 and a career-long 22-yard scramble. The drive was capped off by a three-yard touchdown pass to Wan'Dale Robinson and a pass to Gunnar Helm in the end zone for a two-point conversion. It was his ninth consecutive game with either a passing or rushing touchdown.

ROOKIE QBs, FRANCHISE HISTORY

First-overall draft pick Cam Ward was the 13th rookie starting quarterback in the history of the Titans/Oilers franchise. He became the first rookie quarterback in franchise annals to start at least 14 games, surpassing Vince Young's previous mark of 13 starts as a rookie in 2006. Additionally, Ward passed Marcus Mariota (2,818 passing yards in 2015) for the most passing yards in franchise history by a rookie.

#20 • RB TONY POLLARD

6-0, 209, 8th Year/3rd with Titans, Memphis
Click for complete bio

Running back Tony Pollard is in his eighth NFL season and his third campaign with the Titans in 2026. The Memphis native was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 14, 2024.

In 2025, Pollard was voted a team captain for the first time in his career. He led the Titans in rushing for the second consecutive season with 242 carries for a career-high 1,082 yards and five touchdowns. It was the second consecutive season in which he set a career high in rushing (1,079 yards in 2024).

Pollard became the fourth player in Titans/Oilers history to rush for 1,000 yards in each of his first two seasons with the club, joining Earl Campbell (1978-81), Eddie George (1996-00) and Chris Johnson (2008-13). With his fourth consecutive 1,000-yard rushing season, including his final two campaigns in Dallas, he joined Derrick Henry as the NFL's only running backs to rush for 1,000 yards every season from 2022 to 2025.

Pollard's durability continued through seven NFL campaigns, during which time he never missed more than two games in a season. He started all 17 games in 2025, marking the second time in his career (2023) that he started every week. Over a three-season span (2023-25), Pollard missed only one total game (2024).

During his first year with the Titans, Pollard ranked third in the AFC and tied for 12th in the NFL with a then-career-best 1,079 rushing yards on a career-high 260 carries. Both numbers led the team, as did his five rushing touchdowns. With an additional 238 yards on 41 receptions, he produced a team-high 1,317 scrimmage yards—the second-best total of his career.

Prior to joining the Titans, Pollard spent five seasons (2019-23) with the Dallas Cowboys, who selected him in the fourth round (128th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft. During his time in Dallas, he appeared in 79 games with 23 starts, totaling 3,621 rushing yards and 23 touchdowns on 762 carries. With an additional 176 receptions for 1,319 yards and five receiving touchdowns, he reached 1,000 scrimmage yards in each of his final three years in Dallas while also returning 63 kickoffs for 1,500 yards, including one return for a score.

In 2023, his first season as the lead running back in Dallas, Pollard started all 17 games for the first time in his career and led the team with 1,005 rushing yards on a career-high 252 carries (4.0 avg.) with six touchdowns.

In 2022, he set career marks with 193 carries for 1,007 yards and nine scores, averaging 5.2 yards-per-carry to rank third in the NFL and earn his first Pro Bowl nod.

At the University of Memphis, he played in 40 games at running back and wide receiver, amassing 2,233 yards and 18 touchdowns on offense. He also averaged 30.1 yards per kickoff return and tied an NCAA record with seven kickoff returns for touchdowns.

2026 Notes:

- Against N.Y. Jets (9/13), rushed seven times for 35 yards.
- Against Philadelphia (9/20), led the team with 64 rushing yards on 14 attempts, including a 13-yard run to convert a third-and-one in the second quarter and a season-long 18-yard run in the fourth quarter.
- At N.Y. Giants (9/27), led the team with 17 carries for 74 rushing yards and added four receptions for 22 yards. It was his 13th game with at least 90 yards from scrimmage since joining the Titans in 2024, and his 32nd career game with at least 90 scrimmage yards.

➤ At Baltimore (10/4), rushed for 48 yards on 16 carries. In the first quarter, he scored his first touchdown on the season on a three-yard run. He recorded seven carries on the 10-play, 70-yard scoring drive, rushing for 23 yards. During the game he reached the 6,000-yard rushing mark for his career (6,003). Additionally, he surpassed LenDale White (2,349) for 12th place on the franchise's all-time career rushing list.

RUSHING & SCRIMMAGE YARDS, 2021-26

Since the start of the 2021 season, Tony Pollard has been one of the NFL's most productive running backs, ranking in the top 10 in rushing yards during that time.

In 2021, Pollard totaled 719 yards on the ground as a member of the Dallas Cowboys, followed by 1,007 yards in 2022 and 1,005 yards in 2023. He arrived in Tennessee in 2024 and set a then-career high with 1,079 rushing yards before breaking that mark with 1,082 rushing yards in 2025.

His 6.8 yards per carry from 2019 to 2022 ranked second in the FBS behind only Alabama-Birmingham running back DeWayne McBride's 7.3-yard average (minimum 400 attempts).

As a junior in 2022, he started all 14 games for the Green Wave, totaling 1,581 yards and 19 touchdowns on 229 rushing attempts and adding 22 receptions for 256 yards and two touchdowns. He tied for the national lead with 21 total touchdowns and tied for third in the country with 19 rushing touchdowns, a total that ranked second in Tulane single-season history. His 1,581 rushing yards led the conference and made up the Green Wave's all-time second-highest single-season total. His nine 100-yard rushing games included eight consecutive such efforts to finish the season. He was named the American Athletic Conference Offensive Player of the Year and also earned first-team All-AAC honors. His efforts helped Tulane earn a 12-2 record and win an American Athletic Conference title.

He is a native of Ponchatoula, La.

2026 Notes:

- Against N.Y. Jets (9/13), finished with 24 yards from scrimmage on three carries (12 yards) and two receptions (12 yards).
- Against Philadelphia (9/20), produced a team-high 70 yards from scrimmage (41 rushing, 29 receiving), including a 27-yard run in the fourth quarter, which was the second-longest rush of his career, and a 27-yard reception in the second quarter to help set up a Titans field goal. He reached the 2,000-yard plateau for career scrimmage yards (2,015).

SCRIMMAGE YARDS, 2023 DRAFT CLASS

In his first three NFL seasons, Titans running back Tyjae Spears totaled 1,921 scrimmage yards, including 1,048 rushing yards and 873 receiving yards. Through 2025, Spears' career scrimmage yards total ranked sixth among the 19 running backs selected in the 2023 NFL Draft.

Click for complete bio

Wide receiver Elic Ayomanor was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (136th overall) of the 2025 NFL Draft.

As a rookie, Ayomanor contributed 41 receptions for 515 yards and four touchdowns. He ranked fifth on the team in receptions, second in receiving yards, and tied for first in touchdown catches. Among all rookie NFL wide receivers, Ayomanor, who was the 19th wide receiver drafted in 2025, ranked ninth in receiving yards and tied for 11th in touchdown receptions. He became the sixth rookie in Titans/Oilers history to reach 40 receptions, 500 receiving yards and four receiving touchdowns, joining Bill Groman (1960), Charlie Hennigan (1960), Jerry LeVias (1969), Kendall Wright (2012) and A.J. Brown (2019).

Ayomanor attended Stanford from 2022 to 2024. He saw action in his final two seasons there, appearing in 24 games with 23 starts. He led the Cardinal in receptions and receiving yards in both campaigns, totaling 125 receptions for 1,844 yards and 12 touchdowns in that span.

In 2024, he started all 12 games and was named second team All-ACC from the coaches after leading all Stanford receivers with 63 receptions for 831 yards. He recorded six receiving touchdowns, tied for the most by a Cardinal wideout, and he was the Cardinal's leading receiver in seven of the 12 games. In the ACC, he finished seventh in receptions and tied for ninth in receiving touchdowns. He was honored with the team's Tommy Vardell Award, given to an academic junior or senior who best epitomizes excellence in both academics and athletics, as well as Stanford's Deswarte-Eller Award, presented to the team's most outstanding sophomore player.

As a redshirt freshman in 2023, he appeared in all 12 games, making starts at wide receiver in the final 11 games. He paced the Stanford offense with 62 receptions for 1,013 yards and six touchdowns and was named the team's Irving S. Zeimer Award recipient, given to the team's offensive most valuable player. He ranked seventh in the Pac-12 in receiving yards and yards per catch (16.3), while ranking fifth in yards per game (84.4).

In a game at Colorado (Oct. 13), he amassed career highs with 13 catches for 294 yards and three receiving scores, setting the Stanford program record for receiving yards in a game.

A native of Medicine Hat, Alberta, Canada, he spent his initial year of high school in Canada before one year at The Peddie School (Hightstown, N.J.) and two years at Deerfield (Mass.) Academy.

2026 Game Notes:

- Against N.Y. Jets (9/13), hauled in an 11-yard strike from Cam Ward in the fourth quarter for his fifth career touchdown catch.
- Against Philadelphia (9/20), started at wide receiver and led the team with 69 receiving yards on two receptions, including a 28-yard reception in the second quarter and a career-long 41-yard reception in the fourth quarter. It was his first career game with two receptions of over 25 yards.
- At N.Y. Giants (9/27), logged a catch from Cam Ward for 11 yards and a first down in the fourth quarter.
- At Baltimore (10/4), notched a reception for 22 yards. He also drew a 39-yard pass interference penalty during a scoring drive in the third quarter.

#17 • WR CHIMERE DIKE

6-1, 196, 2nd Year/2nd with Titans, Florida

Click for complete bio

Wide receiver Chimere Dike was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (103rd overall) of the 2025 NFL Draft.

As a rookie, he led the NFL with 2,427 all-purpose yards, which included 1,588 kickoff return yards, 398 punt return yards, 423 receiving yards and 18 rushing yards.

He was named to the Pro Bowl as the AFC's starting returner, becoming the franchise's sixth rookie to be named to the Pro Bowl since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger and the first since returner Marc Mariani in 2010. The others to do so were running back Earl Campbell (1978), defensive end Jevon Kearse (1999), quarterback Vince Young (2006) and running back Chris Johnson (2008).

Dike also earned first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors as a punt returner. He was the franchise's fourth rookie since the merger to earn first-team AP All-Pro honors, joining Campbell (1978), Kearse (1999) and tackle Jack Conklin (2016).

Dike's 2,427 all-purpose yards in 2025 ranked third in franchise history for a single season behind Derrick Mason's 2,690 all-purpose yards in 2000 and Johnson's 2,509 yards in 2009. The number established the all-time NFL rookie record for all-purpose yards and was the highest in a season by any NFL player since 2011, when Darren Sproles set the NFL record with 2,696 all-purpose yards.

Dike returned 23 punts for 398 yards and two touchdowns. His 17.3-yard average tied for the NFL lead with New England's Marcus Jones while also breaking the franchise single-season record, which was held for 48 years by Billy "White Shoes" Johnson. Dike averaged nearly two yards per return more than Johnson's mark of 15.4 yards in 1977 (35 for 539 yards).

Dike also returned 62 kickoffs for a franchise-record 1,588 yards, averaging 25.6 yards per attempt. He ranked second in the NFL in kickoff return yards in 2025 behind Dallas' KaVontae Turpin (1,814). His 1,588 kickoff return yards put him in third place in NFL history among rookies, trailing only the Raiders' Chris Carr (1,752 in 2005) and Arizona's Josh Scobey (1,684 in 2003).

With a punt return average of 17.3 yards and a kickoff return average of 25.6 yards, Dike became the NFL's first player since Detroit's Jack Christiansen in 1952 (21.5 punt return average and 25.6 kickoff return average) to qualify with an average 17.0-plus yards per punt return and 25.0-plus yards per kickoff return in a season.

On offense, Dike's rookie contributions included finishing second on the squad with 48 receptions, ranking third with 423 receiving yards, and tying for the team lead with four touchdown catches. His six total touchdowns led the Titans.

The Waukesha, Wis., native played four seasons (2020-23) at Wisconsin before transferring to Florida for his final season (2024). In five total seasons, he appeared in 57 games with 42 starts and tallied 139 receptions for 2,261 yards and 11 touchdowns. He added 14 rushing attempts for 99 yards and one touchdown, and additionally, he recorded 26 punt returns for 300 yards and 20 kickoff returns for 472 yards.

In 2024, Dike was named a team captain for the Gators during his first and only season with the team. He led the team in catches (42) and ranked second with a career-high in receiving yards (783) and touchdown catches (two). In SEC play, he averaged a league-leading 16.5 yards per punt return. He was one of 23 players in the FBS to contribute four punt returns of 20-plus yards.

In Dike's final season at Wisconsin, he started in 11 games and finished with 19 receptions for 328 yards and one touchdown. He added 12 punt returns for 108 yards and 11 kickoff returns for 249 yards.

As a junior in 2022, he started all 13 games for the Badgers and led the team with 47 catches, 689 receiving yards and six touchdown catches. His six scores tied for seventh in the Big Ten and were the most for a Badger wide receiver since 2019.

2026 Game Notes:

- Against N.Y. Jets (9/13), recorded one reception for seven yards and also returned three kickoffs for 62 yards.
- At N.Y. Giants (9/27), returned four punts for 38 yards and two kickoffs for 54 yards, and he hauled in one reception for three yards.
- At Baltimore (10/4), opened the game with a 40-yard kickoff return and then recorded a 15-yard reception on the first play from scrimmage.

#0 • WR CALVIN RIDLEY

6-1, 190, 8th Year/3rd with Titans, Alabama

Click for complete bio

Wide receiver Calvin Ridley is in his eighth NFL season and his third season with the Titans in 2026. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 15, 2024.

Ridley was named a team captain for the first time in his career in 2025. However, his campaign came to a premature end due to injury. He appeared in seven of the first 10 games of the season before landing on injured reserve for the team's final seven contests. His season totals included 17 receptions for 303 yards (17.8 avg.).

During his first season in Tennessee, Ridley led the Titans offense with 64 receptions and 1,017 receiving yards and caught four touchdown passes. His 15.9-yard receiving average in 2024 ranked fifth in the NFL among qualifiers. Only Ridley and Philadelphia's A.J. Brown (67 receptions for 1,079 yards, 16.1 avg.) accumulated at least 60 receptions and 1,000 receiving yards with an average of at least 15.0 yards per catch. Ridley also rushed for 55 yards and a touchdown.

Ridley's 2024 season was his third career 1,000-yard receiving season (2020 and 2023), and it was the franchise's 12th 1,000-yard receiving season during its "Titans era" (1999 to present). He became the ninth player in NFL history to have at least one 1,000-yard receiving season with three different teams, joining Brandin Cooks (four teams), Brandon Marshall (four), Amari Cooper (three), DeAndre Hopkins (three), Irving Fryar (three), Randy Moss (three), Terrell Owens (three) and Tony Martin (three). Ridley became the first player in NFL history to secure his first three 1,000-yard receiving seasons with three different teams.

Prior to joining the Titans, Ridley appeared in 66 NFL games with 52 starts. He was originally drafted by the Atlanta Falcons with the 26th overall pick of the 2018 NFL Draft and was traded to the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2022. His statistical totals with the Falcons and Jaguars included 324 receptions for 4,358 yards and 36 touchdowns.

In 2023, Ridley started a career-high 17 games for the Jaguars and led the team with 1,016 yards and eight receiving touchdowns on 76 catches.

From 2018 through 2020, no member of the 2018 draft class had more receptions or touchdown catches than Ridley, who totaled 217 grabs and 26 scores for the Falcons during that span. His 3,061 receiving yards ranked second in his draft class behind only DJ Moore's 3,156. Ridley's 90 receptions and 1,374 yards in 2020 were career highs.

As a rookie in 2018, Ridley played in all 16 games and accumulated 64 receptions. He led all rookie receivers in the NFL with 821 receiving yards and a team-high 10 receiving touchdowns, including an NFL-rookie record six receiving scores in the team's first four games. He was named to the All-Rookie team by the Professional Football Writers of America.

A native of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Ridley attended the University of Alabama, where he played in 44 games over three seasons (2015-17. He finished his career second in Crimson Tide history with 224 receptions and 19 receiving touchdowns. He also ranked third with 2,781 receiving yards, while totaling eight career 100-yard receiving games to tie for third in the Alabama record books.

2026 Game Notes:

- Against Philadelphia (9/20), started at wide receiver and finished with two receptions for 35 yards. He recorded a 25-yard gain on his first reception of the season in the third quarter.
- At Baltimore (10/4), recorded a 13-yard reception for a first down.

RECEIVING AVERAGE SINCE 2024

During his first three seasons in Tennessee, Calvin Ridley ranks among the league leaders in receiving average. From 2024 to 2025, his two-year totals included 1,320 yards on 81 receptions for an average of 16.3 yards per catch.

In 2024, Ridley caught 64 passes for 1,017 yards, resulting in a career-best 15.9-yard receiving average. His average ranked fifth in the NFL among qualifiers. Only Ridley and Philadelphia's A.J. Brown (67 receptions for 1,079 yards, 16.1 avg.) averaged at least 15.0 yards per catch while also tallying at least 60 receptions and 1,000 receiving yards.

In 2025, Ridley's participation was limited due to injuries. However, he averaged 17.8 yards per catch, hauling in 17 passes for 303 yards.

Best receiving average from 2024 to 2026*:

1,000 REC YARDS WITH THREE TEAMS

Calvin Ridley has registered a 1,000-yard receiving season with three different NFL teams. He first hit the plateau as a member of the Atlanta Falcons in 2020 (1,374 yards), and in 2023, he hit 1,000 yards (1,016) while playing for the Jacksonville Jaguars. He posted 1,017 receiving yards for the Titans in 2024.

In NFL history, only eight players previously had a 1,000-yard receiving season with three different teams. DeAndre Hopkins was the most recent member to join the group after accomplishing the feat with the Titans in 2023.

Ridley became the first player in NFL history to secure his first three 1,000-yard receiving seasons with three different teams.

NFL players with 1,000-yard receiving seasons for three different teams, all-time (through 2024):

Player	Number of Teams	Teams

#4 • WR WAN'DALE ROBINSON

5-8, 185, 5th Year/1st with Titans, Kentucky

Click for complete bio

Wide receiver Wan'Dale Robinson is in his fifth NFL season and his first season with the Titans in 2026. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 12, 2026.

Prior to his arrival in Tennessee, he played in 54 NFL contests over four seasons with the New York Giants, who selected him in the second round (43rd overall) of the 2022 NFL Draft. During that time, he tallied 268 catches for 2,465 yards with nine touchdowns. Among all players in Giants history, only Odell Beckham Jr. (313) had more receptions in his first four NFL seasons than Robinson did.

In his final season in New York, Robinson saw action in 16 games. He finished the year with a team-high 92 catches and single-season career highs in receiving yards (1,014) and receiving touchdowns (four). His 92 receptions gave him the NFL's ninth-highest total in 2025. The number ranked sixth in franchise history, and Robinson joined Beckham as the only players in franchise history with 90 or more catches in multiple seasons. Robinson was one of five NFL players to record 90-plus receptions in 2024 and 2025. Additionally, Robinson tied for ninth in the NFL with 11 receptions of 25-plus yards and tied for ninth with 25 receptions on third down.

In 2024, he saw action in all 17 games for the first time in his career with seven starts. His career-best 93 receptions ranked him 13th in the NFL, and he led the league with 34 third-down receptions.

A native of Frankfort, Ky., Robinson played in 31 games with 24 starts in three collegiate seasons (two at Nebraska and one at Kentucky). He caught 195 passes for 2,248 yards with 10 receiving touchdowns in his career.

As a junior at Kentucky in 2021, he was named second-team All-SEC after playing in all 13 games and setting career highs with a then school-record 104 receptions, 1,334 yards and seven touchdowns.

2026 Game Notes:

- Against N.Y. Jets (9/13), made his Titans debut and led the team with five receptions for 38 yards. He moved past the 2,500 career receiving yards mark (2,503).
- Against Philadelphia (9/20), caught a nine-yard pass.
- At N.Y. Giants (9/27), led the team in his return trip to New York with seven receptions for 57 yards and a touchdown, all highs for his debut season as a Titan through three contests. He registered his first touchdown as a Titan on a four-yard reception from Cam Ward in the fourth quarter. Three of Robinson's receptions resulted in first downs.
- At Baltimore (10/4), totaled three receptions for 19 yards, including a three-yard touchdown pass from Cam Ward in the fourth quarter. He logged his second consecutive game with a touchdown reception, the first time in his career he scored in two straight outings. He extended his streak to 46 consecutive games with at least one reception.

RECEPTIONS FROM SLOT, 2024-26

Since the start of the 2024 season, Titans wide receiver Wan'Dale Robinson is at the top of the leaderboard in receptions out of the slot by a wide receiver.

From 2024 through 2025, Robinson totaled a league-high 113 catches from the slot, and he was one of only five NFL receivers to top 1,000 yards on catches from the slot in that period, joining Jaxon Smith-Njigba, Amon-Ra St. Brown, Josh Downs and Ladd McConkey. Among players at all positions, only Arizona Cardinals tight end Trey McBride (115) had more receptions from the slot than Robinson from 2024 to 2025.

Most receptions from the slot among NFL wide receivers, 2024-26:

Wide Receiver	Receptions	Receiving Yards
1. Wan'Dale Robinson	122	1,181
2. Amon-Ra St. Brown	111	1,184

#14 • WR CARNELL TATE

6-2, 192, Rookie, Ohio State

Click for complete bio

Wide receiver Carnell Tate was selected by the Titans with the fourth overall pick in the 2026 NFL Draft.

The No. 4 pick was the highest selection used by the Titans franchise to draft a wide receiver in the common draft era (1967-present). The previous high pick for a Titans/Oilers wideout was fifth overall for Corey Davis in 2017. Tate became the first player picked in the first round by the Titans out of Ohio State since running back Eddie George in 1996 (14th overall).

Tate joined an extensive list of recent Ohio State wide receivers selected high in the draft. He extended the school's streak to five consecutive seasons (six total players) with a wide receiver drafted in the first round, joining Garrett Wilson (10th by New York Jets in 2022), Chris Olave (11th by New Orleans in 2022), Jaxon Smith-Njigba (20th by Seattle in 2023), Marvin Harrison Jr. (fourth by Arizona in 2024) and Emeka Egbuka (19th by Tampa Bay in 2025).

During his three-year career at Ohio State (2023-25), Tate saw action in 39 games with 27 starts. He finished his career with 121 receptions for 1,872 yards and 14 touchdowns. Over the course of his career, he had at least one reception in 37 of the 39 games in which he played.

In 2025, he started 11 games and totaled 51 receptions for 875 yards (17.2 avg.) and nine touchdowns. He took home second-team Associated Press All-American and first-team Academic All-American honors.

He is a native of Chicago, Ill.

2026 Game Notes:

➤ Against N.Y. Jets (9/13), started at wide receiver in his NFL debut and tied for the team lead with 38 receiving yards on four catches. He recorded his first professional reception on a 12-yard pass from Cam Ward in the first quarter.

➤ Against Philadelphia (9/20), started at wide receiver and led the team with three receptions for 27 yards.

➤ At N.Y. Giants (9/27), established season-bests with a team-leading 58 yards on six receptions. He connected with Cam Ward for a 20-yard completion in the third quarter to earn Tennessee a fresh set of downs and also recorded a 13-yard reception in the fourth quarter.

➤ At Baltimore (10/4), led the team with nine receptions for 145 yards, averaging 16.1 yards per reception. Tate became the first Titans player to eclipse 100 yards in a game since Calvin Ridley at Arizona on Oct. 5, 2025, and he was the first Titans rookie to hit the century mark since Treylon Burks at Green Bay on Nov. 22, 2025. His 145 receiving yards were the most by an NFL rookie in 2026 through Oct. 4, the most by any Titans player since A.J. Brown had 145 yards against San Francisco on Dec. 23, 2021, and the most by a Titans rookie since Brown had 153 at Oakland on Dec. 8, 2019. Tate became the first Titans rookie with nine or more receptions in a game since Kendall Wright (nine) at Minnesota on Oct. 7, 2012. He also became the franchise's only rookie since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to notch at least three receptions in each of the team's first four games of the season. His pair of 33-yard catches and a 22-yard catch were the three longest receptions of his rookie season through four games. He totaled 74 yards on five receptions in the first half and 71 yards on four receptions in the second half.

#66 • G FERNANDO CARMONA JR.

6-5, 316, Rookie, Arkansas

Click for complete bio

Fernando Carmona Jr. was drafted by the Titans in the fifth round (142nd overall) of the 2026 NFL Draft.

Prior to reaching the NFL, Carmona totaled five seasons in college football, starting 49 of 50 games. He spent three seasons (2021-23) at San Jose State before going to Arkansas for his final two years (2024-25). He totaled 37 starts at left tackle before making the transition to left guard for the final 12 games of his college career.

He finished his college career with 49 consecutive starts.

As a senior at Arkansas in 2025, he made the transition to left guard and started all 12 games. He helped pave the way for six games with 500-plus yards of total offense and was named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll.

He is a native of Las Vegas, Nev.

#55 • T JC LATHAM

6-6, 342, 3rd Year/3rd with Titans, Alabama

Click for complete bio

JC Latham is in his third NFL season in 2026. He was drafted by the Titans with the seventh overall pick in the first round of the 2024 NFL Draft.

In 2025, Latham moved to right tackle, where he started 13 games. He was in the lineup every game for the final 12 contests after missing four of the first five weeks due to injury.

With 30 starts in his first two NFL seasons, Latham joined Jack Conklin (32 from 2016-17), Chance Warmack (32 from 2013-14), Michael Roos (32 from 2005-06) and Peter Skoronski (31 from 2023-24) as the franchise's only offensive linemen in its "Titans era" (1999 to present) to accomplish the feat. He did so all before his 23rd birthday (Feb. 8, 2026). Among NFL offensive linemen under 23 at the end of the 2025 regular season, Latham had the most career starts.

As a rookie, Latham notched 17 starts at left tackle, joining Jack Conklin (2016), Chance Warmack (2013) and Michael Roos (2005) as the franchise's only rookie offensive linemen in the "Titans era" (1999–present) to start every game. He was the first to do so exclusively at left tackle. Pro Football Focus named him to its All-Rookie team.

Latham did not miss an offensive snap during his rookie season. He led all rookie offensive linemen and ranked third among all rookies in 2024 with 1,032 offensive snaps. Only Chicago quarterback Caleb Williams (1,052) and Denver quarterback Bo Nix (1,040) played more offensive snaps than Latham among the 2024 rookie class.

Prior to entering the NFL, Latham spent three seasons at the University of Alabama, where he appeared in 41 total games, including 27 consecutive starts at right tackle to conclude his collegiate career. He was credited with allowing only four sacks during his time with the Tide.

As a junior in 2023, Latham was a second-team All-American and a first-team All-SEC selection at right tackle. He recorded 41 knockdown blocks and allowed only two sacks.

A native of Oak Creek, Wis., Latham attended IMG Academy for the final two years of high school. He began his high school career as a defensive lineman before finishing as one of the nation's top left tackle prospects.

STARTS BEFORE 23RD BIRTHDAY

In his first two NFL seasons, JC Latham started 30 of the Titans' 34 games—all before his 23rd birthday on Feb. 8, 2026.

As a rookie in 2024, the first-round pick started every game at left tackle. With 17 starts before his 22nd birthday, he ranked second in franchise history for starts before turning 22. He finished behind only former defensive tackle Randy Starks, who registered 21 starts before celebrating his 22nd birthday in 2005. Among all NFL players in 2024, Latham was the only one under age 22 to log 17 starts.

Then, in 2025, Latham moved to right tackle and registered 13 starts. By increasing his total to 30 games played and 30 starts, he ranked fifth in franchise history in total games before a player's 23rd birthday and second in total starts before a player's 23rd birthday. Only Starks (31) had more starts for the organization before turning 23.

Most starts in franchise history (1960 to 2025) before a player's 23rd birthday:

Player	Position	Season(s)	Starts
1. Randy Starks	DT	2004-06	31
2. JC Latham	T	2024-25	30
3. Jurrell Casey	DT	2011-12	27
4. George Webster	LB	1967-68	25
5. Bob Talamini	OL	1960-61	23

At the end of the 2025 regular season, Latham led all active NFL offensive linemen under the age of 23 in career starts. Additionally, since 1980, only nine other NFL offensive linemen started more games than Latham before their 23rd birthday.

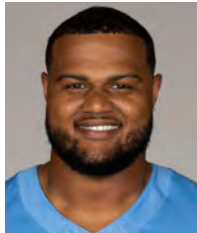

Most starts by an offensive linemen before his 23rd birthday from 1980 to 2025:

Player	Team	Seasons	Starts
1. Tyron Smith	Dallas Cowboys	2011-13	44
2. Penei Sewell	Detroit Lions	2021-23	38

#75 • T DAN MOORE JR.

6-5, 315, 6th Year/2nd with Titans, Texas A&M

Click for complete bio

Dan Moore Jr. is in his sixth NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2026. He was signed by the Titans on March 13, 2025.

During his first season in Tennessee, Moore started 16 games at left tackle. It was the fifth time in five NFL seasons he logged 16 or more starts at left tackle. His 82 total starts from 2021 through 2025 ranked third in the NFL among offensive tackles, trailing only Atlanta's Jake Matthews (85) and Detroit's Penei Sewell (83).

Prior to joining the Titans, Moore spent the previous four seasons (2021-24) with the Pittsburgh Steelers. He started 66 total games—all at left tackle—protecting the blind side for all but two contests during his time in the Steel City. During that span, Moore ranked third in the NFL in offensive snaps (4,109) played by tackles, trailing only Penei Sewell (4,328) and Jawaan Taylor (4,135).

In each of Moore's four seasons with the Steelers, running back Najee Harris surpassed 1,000 rushing yards. In 2023, the Steelers offensive line allowed only 36 sacks, which ranked ninth in the NFL.

Moore was drafted by the Steelers in the fourth round (128th overall) of the 2021 NFL Draft after attending Texas A&M University. The Beaumont, Texas, native appeared in 44 games with 37 starts for the Aggies, including starts at left tackle in each of the final 36 games of his collegiate career.

#51 • C AUSTIN SCHLOTTMANN

6-6, 310, 8th Year/1st with Titans, Texas Christian

Click for complete bio

Austin Schlottmann is in his eighth NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2026. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 12, 2026.

During his first seven NFL seasons, Schlottmann (pronounced SHLOAT-man), appeared in 85 games with 18 starts, registering starts at both center and right guard. After being signed by the Denver Broncos as a rookie free agent in 2018 and remaining in Denver through 2021, he also spent time with the Minnesota Vikings (2022-23) and the New York Giants (2024-25).

In 2025, Schlottmann established a career high with 17 games played and matched a career high with four starts—all at center.

The Brenham, Texas, native attended Texas Christian University (2014-17), where he appeared in 51 games with 29 starts over four seasons. As a senior in 2017, he was an honorable mention All-Big-12 Conference selection after starting all 14 games (eight at center; six at right guard).

#77 • G PETER SKORONSKI

6-4, 330, 4th Year/4th with Titans, Northwestern

Peter Skoronski is in his fourth NFL season in 2026. He was selected by the Titans with the 11th overall pick in the first round of the 2023 NFL Draft, and in August 2026, he received a multi-year contract extension from the team.

During his first three seasons, Skoronski started 48 games at left guard. After missing three of the first four games during his rookie season due to an appendectomy, he started the next 47 games through the end of the 2025 campaign. In 2024 and 2025, he did not miss an offensive snap.

Through 2025, Skoronski's 48 starts were the most for the team in its "Titans era" (1999 to present) by a player before his 25th birthday (July 31, 2026). His streak of 47 consecutive starts at the conclusion of 2025 made up the team's longest active streak.

As a rookie in 2023, Skoronski started 14 games at left guard and helped running back Derrick Henry finish second in the NFL with 1,167 rushing yards. He was one of nine NFL rookie offensive linemen in 2023 to register 14 or more starts, and he joined Nicholas Petit-Frere (2022), Jack Conklin (2016), Chance Warmack (2013), Michael Roos (2005) and Jacob Bell (2004) as the only rookie offensive linemen to record at least 14 starts for the franchise during its "Titans era" (1999–present).

During a three-year career at Northwestern University, Skoronski started all 33 games at left tackle without missing a game. He earned second-team All-Big Ten honors as a freshman and first-team recognition in each of the next two seasons. He became the first offensive lineman in program history to earn two All-Big Ten first-team awards.

As a junior in 2022, he was named the Rimington-Pace Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year—the first ever by a Northwestern lineman—after starting all 12 games at left tackle. He was the first player in school history to become a unanimous first-team All-American and was named first-team All-Big Ten by coaches and media. He finished as a finalist for the 2022 Outland Trophy.

When the Titans drafted Skoronski, he became Northwestern's highest draft selection since guard Chris Hinton went to Denver with the fourth pick in 1983, and he was the 11th player in program history to be picked in the first round.

His grandfather, Bob Skoronski Sr., was a left tackle for the Green Bay Packers, playing nine total seasons with the franchise. He was a permanent offensive captain for the Packers under Vince Lombardi and played on five NFL championship teams. In 1976, he was inducted into the Packers Hall of Fame. Bob Skoronski Jr., Peter's father, was an All-Ivy League football player at Yale.

He attended Maine South High School in Park Ridge, Ill.

Defensive lineman John Franklin-Myers is in his ninth NFL season and his first season with the Titans in 2026. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 12, 2026.

Prior to his arrival in Tennessee, Franklin-Myers appeared in 114 games with 83 starts and amassed 200 tackles, 34 sacks, 251 quarterback pressures, an interception, seven passes defended, two forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries.

He was originally selected by the L.A. Rams in the fourth round of the 2018 NFL Draft and spent his rookie NFL campaign with the club. In 2019, he was claimed off waivers by the N.Y. Jets and spent the next five seasons with the organization. After being traded to the Denver Broncos in 2024, he spent the next two seasons with the team before signing with the Titans in 2026.

In 2025, Franklin-Myers played in 16 games with 15 starts for the Broncos. It marked his sixth consecutive season with at least 15 games played and his fifth consecutive season with at least 15 starts. He posted 25 tackles, including a career-best 7.5 sacks, and added 39 quarterback pressures and six tackles for loss.

The Greenville, Texas, played four seasons (2014-17) at Stephen F. Austin where he totaled 130 tackles, 17.5 sacks, 37.5 tackles for loss, two fumble recoveries and five forced fumbles in 41 games (33 starts). He completed his collegiate career ranked fifth on Stephen F. Austin's all-time career tackles for loss list and finished ninth in program history in career sacks.

2026 Notes:

- Against N.Y. Jets (9/13), started in his Titans debut and recorded three tackles.

- Against Philadelphia (9/20), totaled two tackles, including a sack. In the fourth quarter, he was credited with the first sack of his Titans career when he forced Jalen Hurts out of bounds for no gain, increasing his career total to 35 sacks.
- At N.Y. Giants (9/27), posted a tackle for loss, a quarterback pressure and a pass defended.
- At Baltimore (10/4), registered four tackles, including a tackle for loss, and a quarterback pressure.

#98 • DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

6-4, 305, 8th Year/8th with Titans, Mississippi State
Click for complete bio

Defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons is in his eighth NFL season in 2026. He was selected by the Titans in the first round (19th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft. During the 2026 offseason, he received a multi-year contract extension.

During his first seven seasons, Simmons earned four Pro Bowl berths (2021-22, 2024-25), was a five-time team captain (2021-25), earned first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors (2025), second-team All-Pro honors (2021-22), and was nominated three times for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award (2023-25). During that span, he appeared in 99 games with 97 starts, accumulating 383 tackles, 42.5 sacks, 27 passes defended, eight forced fumbles and six fumble recoveries.

From 2019 through 2025, Simmons was second on the Titans defense in sacks behind only outside linebacker Harold Landry III (46). In franchise history, Simmons' 42.5 sacks were 12th overall and fifth in the organization's "Titans era" (1999 to present). Additionally, his total ranked sixth among all NFL interior defensive linemen.

With at least five sacks every season from 2021 to 2025, Simmons joined Ray Childress (nine consecutive seasons), Jurrell Casey (seven), William Fuller (six), and Sean Jones (six) as the only players for the franchise to record five consecutive seasons with at least five sacks since individual sacks became an official statistic in 1982.

In 2025, Simmons appeared in 15 games with 15 starts. He earned Pro Bowl and AP All-Pro honors after ranking first in the NFL among interior defensive linemen in solo tackles (39), tackles for loss (17), sacks (11.0), sack yards (79.0), quarterback pressures (60), pressure rate (14.5 percent) and forced fumbles (tied - three). His sacks, sack yards, tackles for loss and forced fumbles all set career highs, despite missing two games due to injury.

From 2016 through 2025, only two NFL interior defensive linemen recorded at least 65 tackles, 11 sacks, 17 tackles for loss and three forced fumbles in a single season: Aaron Donald (2021) and Simmons (2025).

Simmons missed only one game in 2024. His 16 starts made up the second-highest total of his career through six seasons behind his 17 starts in 2021. Among his season totals, he set career highs with 76 tackles and two forced fumbles, and he added five sacks and a team-high 42 quarterback pressures. He was rewarded with his third Pro Bowl invitation.

Simmons' 76 tackles ranked second on the Titans in 2024. It was the best number for any defensive lineman for the organization in its "Titans era" (1999 to present), topping defensive end Kyle Vanden Bosch's previous mark of 75 tackles in 2006 (GSIS/press box statistics). Among NFL defensive linemen in 2024, Simmons finished second in tackles behind Carolina's A'Shawn Robinson (80).

In 2023, although he was limited to 12 games and finished the season on injured reserve, he managed to register 5.5 sacks, marking his third consecutive season to reach that number or higher. He added 44 tackles, 38 quarterback pressures, 11 tackles for loss, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and one pass defended. For the first time in his career, he received the honor of the team's nomination for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year award.

In 2022, Simmons appeared in 15 games and anchored a unit that ranked first in the NFL in rushing defense (76.9 opponent rushing yards per game). En route to his second consecutive Pro Bowl appearance, he totaled 53 tackles, 7.5 sacks, 43 quarterback pressures, nine tackles for loss, one forced fumble and a career-high seven passes defended, which tied for the fourth-best mark among all NFL defensive linemen. Simmons and Arizona's J.J. Watt were the NFL's only players in 2022 with at least seven sacks and seven passes defended.

Before the start of the 2021 season, Simmons was named a team captain for the first time in his career, and he went on to become one of six players on the roster to start all 17 games. He was named to his first career Pro Bowl and added Associated Press second-team All-Pro honors after setting career highs in several categories, including sacks (8.5), tackles (54), quarterback pressures (58), tackles for loss (12) and passes defended (six). He led the squad in pressures and placed third in sacks. Among all defensive tackles in the NFL, his 8.5 sacks ranked sixth. In the divisional playoffs, he set a franchise postseason record with three sacks.

In 2020, Simmons appeared and started in 15 games. With three defensive fumble recoveries, he tied Chase Young for the most in the NFL in 2020 and was the first Titans defender with three fumble recoveries in a season since 2005, when linebacker Brad Kassell accomplished the feat. Simmons ranked second on the team with 19 quarterback pressures and added 49 tackles, three sacks, three tackles for loss, five passes defended and one forced fumble. In the franchise's "Titans era" (since 1999), he became the first player to post at least three fumble recoveries, three sacks and five passes defended in the same season. He also had three tackles and a tackle for loss in one playoff contest.

Simmons began his rookie season on the non-football injury list due to a knee injury he suffered during training in February 2019. He missed the first six games of the season before joining the 53-man roster in Week 7.

His rookie totals included 40 tackles, two sacks, two tackles for loss, 14 quarterback pressures and one pass defended in nine games (seven starts). He added four tackles, three quarterback pressures and a fumble recovery in three playoff contests.

During a three-year career as a defensive tackle at Mississippi State, Simmons appeared in 38 contests with 28 starts. He finished his career ranked sixth in school history with 32.5 tackles for loss. He also tied for sixth in MSU annals with five forced fumbles and tied for fourth with three blocked kicks. His totals also included 163 tackles, seven sacks, seven passes defended and two defensive touchdowns.

He was a first-team All-SEC selection as a sophomore and junior and was one of two players in the nation to be named a Bednarik Award Semifinalist in both 2017 and 2018.

As a junior in 2018, Simmons was named second-team All-American after totaling 63 tackles, 17 tackles for loss and two sacks. His 17 tackles for loss led the team, ranked fourth in the SEC and were the third-most in single-season school history.

During his sophomore season (2017), he set a career high with five sacks and added 12 tackles for loss. With three total blocked kicks and punts, he became the first SEC player since 2004 to lead the nation in the category.

Simmons is a native of Macon, Miss.

2026 Notes:

➤ Against N.Y. Jets (9/13), appeared in his 100th career game (regular season) and registered four tackles and a team-high six quarterback pressures.

➤ Against Philadelphia (9/20), totaled six tackles, one sack, one tackle for loss, a team-high seven quarterback pressures and a pass defended. In the second quarter, he forced Jalen Hurts out of bounds for a one-yard loss to notch his first sack of the season, which gave him a career total of 43.5 sacks. In the fourth quarter, he pressured Hurts on third down to help force an interception by Marcus Harris. He moved to within one sack of tying Derrick Morgan (44.5) for 11th place on the franchise's all-time sack list, and fourth among players in the franchise's "Titans era" (1999 to present). In the first two games of the 2026 season, he recorded 13 total pressures to set a career high and give him the most quarterback pressures by a defensive tackle since San Francisco's Javon Hargrave recorded 13 in the first two weeks of 2023. His 13 quarterback pressures in Weeks 1 and 2 were the most by a Titans player at any position since Arden Key recorded 15 in the first two weeks of 2023.

➤ At N.Y. Giants (9/27), set a career high and led the defense with 10 total tackles. His previous career high for tackles in a game was nine (twice, last at Indianapolis on Dec. 22, 2024). His totals also included a sack, two quarterback pressures and two tackles for loss. In the first quarter, he was credited with a three-yard tackle for loss against running back Cam Skattebo in the first quarter. In the second quarter, he helped end a Giants drive with a seven-yard sack of Jameis Winston, which gave him 44.5 career sacks and tied him with Derrick Morgan for 11th on the franchise career sack list and for the fourth most in the franchise's "Titans era" (1999 to present). His seven total tackles in the first half set a career high for any single half (previous high of six tackles in the second half at Pittsburgh on Nov. 2, 2023 and at Indianapolis on Dec. 22, 2024). He became the first defensive tackle in 2026 to post seven tackles in a half and 10 tackles in a game. He became the first Titans defensive tackle with 10 tackles in a game since the beginning of the 2000 campaign (GSIS statistics).

➤ At Baltimore (10/4), registered four tackles, a quarterback pressure and a pass defended.

FRANCHISE SACK LEADERS

#90 • DT SOLOMON THOMAS

6-2, 285, 10th Year/1st with Titans, Stanford

Click for complete bio

Defensive tackle Solomon Thomas is in his 10th NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2026. He was acquired by the Titans in a trade with the Dallas Cowboys on March 12, 2026.

Prior to his arrival in Tennessee, he appeared in 131 games with 36 starts and posted 239 tackles, 18.5 sacks, 138 quarterback pressures, six passes defended, three forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries.

Thomas was originally selected by the San Francisco 49ers in the first round (third overall) of the 2017 NFL Draft and spent his initial four campaigns with the club. He joined the Las Vegas Raiders for one season in 2021 before a three-year stint with the N.Y. Jets. In 2025, the Stanford product suited up for the Dallas Cowboys.

His career prior to his time with the Titans also included four consecutive nominations for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award: 2022 through 2024 with the Jets and 2025 with the Cowboys.

During his only season with the Cowboys, Thomas played in 16 games with two starts and amassed 27 tackles, 11 quarterback pressures, three stops for loss and a pass defended. It marked his fifth consecutive season to appear in at least 16 games.

In three seasons at Stanford University (2014-16), he played in 27 games and registered 101 tackles, 11.5 sacks, 25.5 tackles for loss, four fumble recoveries and two defensive scores. As a junior in 2016, he was named third-team All-America by the Associated Press and first-team All-Pac-12, and he won the Morris Trophy, which was selected by Pac-12 offensive linemen.

Thomas was born in Chicago, Ill., and spent part of his childhood living in Australia before attending high school in Coppell, Texas.

6-2, 237, 8th Year/2nd with Titans, Utah

Click for complete bio

Linebacker Cody Barton is in his eighth NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2026. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 13, 2025.

Barton was named team captain prior to the start of his first campaign in Tennessee. He then registered 17 starts for the first time in his career and never came off the field when the Titans were on defense, participating in 100 percent of the defensive snaps (1,009). He led the team with career highs of three interceptions and 11 passes defended, and his season statistics also included 81 tackles (tied for second on the team), one sack, eight quarterback pressures and four tackles for loss (tied career high).

Within the NFL in 2025, Barton and Jacksonville's Foye Oluokun tied for the lead among linebackers in passes defended (11). Barton and Chicago cornerback Nahshon Wright were the only NFL players during the season to record at least 80 tackles, 10 passes defended, multiple defensive takeaways and a defensive touchdown.

After Barton was selected in the third round (88th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft by the Seattle Seahawks, he spent four seasons in Seattle, followed by one season each in Washington (2023) and Denver (2024). During the first six years of his career, he recorded 43 starts in 95 games played. His statistics during that time included 419 tackles, 3.5 sacks, 31 quarterback pressures, 10 tackles for loss, five interceptions, 14 passes defended, three forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries.

In 2024, Barton played in all 17 games with 14 starts at linebacker for the Broncos, who finished the season in the playoffs. He recorded 104 tackles, two tackles for loss, 1.5 sacks, five passes defended, two interceptions, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. After returning a fumble 52 yards for a touchdown at New Orleans in Week 7, he was named the AFC Defensive Player of the Week.

From 2019 through 2021, Barton tallied 34 special teams tackles as a member of the Seahawks. The total tied for the fifth most in the NFL during that period and included 16 special teams tackles in 2020, when he ranked second in the NFL and first in the NFC.

The Cottonwood Heights, Utah, native played four seasons at the University of Utah (2015-18), where he played in 50 games with 23 starts. As a senior, he was an honorable mention All-Pac 12 linebacker after leading the team with 116 tackles and adding four sacks and an interception.

2026 Notes:

- Against N.Y. Jets (9/13), posted three tackles in the season opener.
- At N.Y. Giants (9/27), totaled five tackles and a pass defended.
- At Baltimore (10/4), tied for the team lead with eight total tackles.

INTERCEPTIONS BY LINEBACKERS

Linebacker Cody Barton has eight interceptions since the beginning of the 2022 season, including a career-high three interceptions with the Titans in 2025. He ranks among the NFL leaders at the linebacker position over the past four campaigns.

#33 • LB CEDRIC GRAY

6-2, 240, 3rd Year/3rd with Titans, North Carolina

Click for complete bio

Linebacker Cedric Gray is in his third NFL season in 2026. He was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (106th overall) of the 2024 NFL Draft.

In 2025, Gray played and started in 16 games. He led the Titans and ranked fifth in the NFL with 160 total tackles on defense. No NFL player in his first or second NFL campaign in 2025 had more tackles than Gray. Additionally, Gray tied Stephen Tulloch (2010) for the Titans' second-highest single-season tackle total since 2000, trailing only Azeez Al-Shaair's 163 tackles in 2023 (GSIS tackle statistics).

As a rookie in 2024, spent the first seven games on injured reserve before being activated on Oct. 28, 2024. He appeared in the final seven games of the season and totaled 14 tackles on defense while ranking third on the team with eight tackles on special teams. His eight special teams tackles tied for the seventh-best total among rookies in 2024, and over the final seven weeks of the season, he led the rookie class and tied for second overall in the NFL (Oren Burks, Jeremy Reaves) behind only Pittsburgh's Miles Killebrew (nine).

In four seasons at the University of North Carolina, he played in 51 games with 37 starts and recorded 369 tackles, 30 tackles for loss, 8.5 sacks, five interceptions, 13 passes defended, six forced fumbles and five fumble recoveries. He was a two-time first team All-ACC selection and a 2023 Butkus Award semifinalist.

As a senior in 2023, he played and started in 12 games and posted a team-best 121 tackles in addition to five sacks, 11 stops for loss, seven quarterback pressures, two forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries, an interception and four passes defended. He was named first-team All-ACC by the league and the Associated Press. He recorded five double-digit tackle games and ranked second in the ACC with 121 tackles.

Gray is a native of Charlotte, N.C.

2026 Notes:

- Against Philadelphia (9/20), saw his first action of the season and totaled four tackles, including a tackle for loss.
- At N.Y. Giants (9/27), logged his first start of the season and totaled six tackles. He added a stop on special teams.
- At Baltimore (10/4), his four tackles included a tackle for loss, and he added a stop on special teams.

2025 NFL TACKLE LEADERS

In his second NFL season, linebacker Cedric Gray ranked fifth in the NFL with 160 total tackles on defense. He led all players among those in their first or second season in the NFL.

Gray's total included 95 solo tackles. He tied Devin White for the second most in the league behind only Jordyn Brooks' 99 solo tackles.

Most total tackles on defense in 2025:

Player	Team	NFL Exp.	Total	Solo	Asst
1. Jordyn Brooks	Miami	6	183	99	84

TEAM SINGLE-SEASON LEADERS, 2000-25

Using NFL GSIS tackle statistics dating back to 2000, Cedric Gray's 160 tackles in 2025 tied for the second-highest total for the team. Gray tied Stephen Tulloch, who had 160 tackles in 2010, and trailed only Azeez Al-Shaair, whose 163 tackles in 2023 tops the list.

Tackle statistics compiled by Titans coaches were published in the team's record books for many of those seasons and differed from press box/GSIS totals.

Most total tackles in a season for the Titans/Oilers, 2000-25*:

Player	Season	Pos	Games	Total	Solo	Asst
1. Azeez Al-Shaair	2023	LB	17	163	84	79

#53 • LB ANTHONY HILL JR.

6-2, 238, Rookie, Texas

Click for complete bio

Anthony Hill Jr. was selected by the Titans in the second round (60th overall) of the 2026 NFL Draft.

Prior to entering the NFL, Hill played three seasons (2023-25) at the University of Texas. He saw action in 40 games with 32 starts over three seasons (2023-25) with the Longhorns and finished his career with 249 tackles, 31.5 tackles for loss, 17 sacks, eight forced fumbles and three interceptions.

As a junior in 2025, he started 10 games and recorded 69 tackles, seven tackles for loss, four sacks, two interceptions, three forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. He was named a second-team All-American by the Associated Press, AFCA and FWAA. He also was a finalist for the Butkus Award and a semifinalist for the Chuck Bednarik Award, and he was selected to the coaches' All-SEC second team.

As a sophomore in 2024, Hill started all 16 games and led the team with 113 tackles and 16.5 tackles for loss en route to being named a second-team All-American by the Associated Press, AFCA, Sporting News and Walter Camp.

He is a native of Denton, Texas.

2026 Notes:

- Against N.Y. Jets (9/13), started in his NFL debut and led the defense with 16 total tackles and two passes defended. He became the first NFL rookie with 16 tackles and two passes defended in a game since at least 2000; the first NFL player with 16 tackles and two passes defended in a Week 1 game since at least 2000; and the first NFL player with 16 tackles and two passes defended in a game since Dec. 10, 2023, when Chicago Bears safety Jaquan Brisker had 17 stops and two passes defended against Detroit. Hill's two passes defended also made him the first Titans rookie to have two or more passes defended in his first game action since Adoree' Jackson had two against the Las Vegas Raiders on Sept. 10, 2017. In the first half, he totaled 11 tackles and two passes defended, becoming the first NFL player to have at least 10 tackles and two passes defended in any first half since Dec. 24, 2006, when Colts cornerback Marlin Jackson had 12 tackles and two passes defended in the first half against Houston. His 11 tackles in the first half were the most by a Titans rookie in his debut first half since at least 2000 (according to Tru Media). On the first play of the game from scrimmage, which also was his first career play, he was credited with a tackle of running back Breece Hall. Later in the first quarter, he tallied his first career pass defended on a pass intended for tight end Mason Taylor. In the second quarter, he added a pass defended on third down on a pass intended for running back Braelon Allen, resulting in the Jets settling for a field goal.

➤ Against Philadelphia (9/20), led the team in tackles for the second consecutive week, accumulating 10 tackles against the Eagles. In the first two weeks of the season, he totaled an NFL-high 26 tackles, which also tied him with Keith Bulluck (2006) for the most total tackles (26) by a Titans player through the first two games of a season since the beginning of 2000 (GSIS press box statistics). Since the beginning of 2000, the only NFL rookie with more tackles in the first two games of a season was Indianapolis Colts linebacker Shaquille Leonard with 28 in 2018.

➤ At N.Y. Giants (9/27), finished second on the defense with eight tackles.

➤ On Oct. 1, he was named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Month for September, becoming the sixth rookie in franchise history to garner a Rookie of the Month honor and the first since 2019. Over his first three contests, he logged three starts and led the NFL with 34 tackles, while also adding two passes defended. Hill's 34 tackles gave him the second-highest total by a Titans player through the first three games of a season since 2000, topped only by LB Akeem Ayers, who claimed the mark with 37 tackles through three games in 2012 (GSIS statistics). Since 2000, the only NFL rookie with more tackles through his team's first three games than Hill was Colts linebacker Shaquille Leonard, who had 41 stops through three games as a rookie in 2018.

➤ At Baltimore (10/4), tied for the team lead with eight total tackles to become the first Titans player since linebacker Wesley Woodyard in 2017 to begin a season with four consecutive eight-tackle performances (GSIS statistics). He totaled 42 tackles through the first four games of his career.

#46 • LS MORGAN COX

6-4, 233, 17th Year/6th with Titans, Tennessee
Click for complete bio

Long snapper Morgan Cox is in his 17th NFL season and his sixth campaign with the Titans in 2026. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 19, 2021.

In 2025, Cox was voted a team captain for the third consecutive season and handled all of the team's long snapping duties for the fifth consecutive season. With 85 consecutive games played in his first five seasons with the Titans, he finished the 2025 campaign with the longest active streak of games played for the team. It was the 13th time in his career he appeared in every game for his team.

Cox also appeared in his 250th career game (regular season) in the 2025 season finale, becoming the 64th all-time NFL player to do so. He ranked ninth among all active NFL players, and his total also gave him the fourth-most NFL games played by a former University of Tennessee Volunteer behind tight end Jason Witten (271 NFL games), quarterback Peyton Manning (266) and punter Dustin Colquitt (255).

Cox worked with new battery mates in 2025 in punter Johnny Hekker and kicker Joey Slye. Hekker averaged 46.8 gross yards per punt to tie for 11th place in franchise history and 40.3 net yards per punt, which tied for ninth place in team annals. Slye delivered on 28 of 35 field goals, including four of the eight longest field goals in franchise history (58, 57, 57 and 56 yards). Also in 2025, Cox was a finalist for the NFL's Bart Starr Award for the third consecutive year.

In 2024, Cox's consistency helped kicker Nick Folk lead the NFL in field goal percentage for the second consecutive season. Folk connected on 21 of 22 field goals for an NFL-best rate of 95.5 percent. Meanwhile, punter Ryan Stonehouse ranked third in the NFL with an average of 50.6 yards per punt attempt.

In 2023, Cox's efforts helped Folk lead the NFL in field goal accuracy (96.7 percent) and helped Stonehouse lead the NFL for a second consecutive season in gross punting average (53.1).

In 2022, Cox was named to his fifth career Pro Bowl. He garnered more Pro Bowl appearances than any other player at his position since the league began naming long snappers to the Pro Bowl in 2004.

His steady play in 2022 helped Stonehouse, a rookie, lead the league and set a new NFL record with a 53.1-yard gross punting average. Stonehouse also finished fourth in the NFL and set a rookie record with a 44.0-yard net average. Meanwhile, kicker Randy Bullock made 17 of 20 field goals (85.0 percent) and made all 28 extra point attempts.

In 2021, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties in 17 regular season games and one postseason game. He helped Bullock finish ninth in franchise history with 120 points in a single season, including three game-winning field goals (Sept. 19 at Seattle, Oct. 31 at Indianapolis and Dec. 23 against San Francisco). He also snapped for punter Brett Kern, who had the league's third-best ratio of punts inside the 20 to touchbacks (18:1).

In his first 11 seasons, Cox appeared in 165 regular season games for the Baltimore Ravens, serving as the team's primary long snapper after entering the NFL as an undrafted free agent in 2010. He was selected to four Pro Bowls and was a part of five playoff teams in Baltimore, totaling 10 postseason games played.

In 2020, he earned his fourth career Pro Bowl selection. He helped kicker Justin Tucker record his fifth consecutive season with at least 130 points, tying the NFL record of consecutive seasons with 130-plus points. Tucker connected on 26 of 29 field goals (89.7 percent) and was 52 of 53 on extra points (98.1 percent). Cox also snapped on all 51 of Sam Koch's 51 punts, as Koch was the NFL's only punter to place at least 20 punts (22) inside in the 20-yard line and have no more than one touchback.

A native of Collierville, Tenn., Cox played 38 games in three seasons (2007-09) as the primary long snapper at the University of Tennessee.

MOST GAMES BY ACTIVE NFL PLAYERS

Titans long snapper Morgan Cox ranks sixth on the NFL's list for most career games by active players. He is third among all long snappers.

Most career games by active NFL players:

#6 • K JOEY SLYE

5-11, 228, 8th Year/2nd with Titans, Virginia Tech
Click for complete bio

Kicker Joey Slye is in his eighth NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2026. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 24, 2025.

During the 2025 season, Slye made 28 field goals on 35 attempts and added 26 extra points on 27 attempts for a total of 110 points. It was the fourth time in his career that he went over the 100-point mark. His totals included a team-record nine field goals of at least 50 yards, breaking Stephen Gostkowski's record of seven such field goals in 2020. In only one season, Slye booted four of the eight longest field goals in franchise history (58, 57, 57 and 56 yards).

Prior to arriving in Tennessee, Slye totaled six seasons with the Carolina Panthers (2019-20), Houston Texans (2022), San Francisco 49ers (2022), Washington Commanders (2022-23) and New England Patriots (2024). The Virginia Tech product has also spent time with the N.Y. Giants and Jacksonville Jaguars.

In 2024, Slye played in all 17 games for the Patriots and connected on 26 of 33 field goal attempts and 25 of 26 extra point attempts for a total of 103 points. At San Francisco on Sept. 29, 2024, he set a Patriots record and established his career long with a 63-yard field goal at the end of the second quarter. It tied for the fourth-longest field goal in NFL history.

In his final season in Washington (2023), Slye saw action in all 17 games and handled all kickoffs, field goals and extra points for the Commanders. He connected on 19 of 24 field goals and 32 of 35 extra points for 89 points. Also had 64 touchbacks on 69 kickoffs.

The North Stafford, Va., native attended Virginia Tech (2014-17), where he played four seasons and made 78 of 108 field goal attempts (72.2 percent) and 169 of 172 extra point attempts (98.3 percent).

2026 Notes:

- Against N.Y. Jets (9/13), connected on a 42-yard field goal in the first quarter to give Tennessee its first points of the contest.
- Against Philadelphia (9/20), made a 37-yard field goal on the final play of the first half and added a 33-yarder in the fourth quarter. He was also good on both extra point attempts.

#3 • P TOMMY TOWNSEND

6-1, 191, 7th Year/1st with Titans, Florida
Click for complete bio

Punter Tommy Townsend is in his seventh NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2026. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 12, 2026.

Townsend entered the NFL in 2020 as an undrafted free agent with the Kansas City Chiefs and spent his first four seasons with the club, contributing to a pair of Super Bowl title runs in 2022 and 2023. Prior to arriving in Tennessee, Townsend spent the 2024 and 2025 campaigns with the Houston Texans. In each of his first six NFL seasons, his team won at least one postseason game.

In 2025, Townsend saw action in all 17 contests for the fourth consecutive year. He punted 72 times for an average of 47.6 yards and a net average of 41.6 yards. He placed 30 punts inside the 20.

During the 2022 season in Kansas City, Townsend averaged 50.4 yards per punt with a net average of 45.6 yards. His punting average and net average both established Chiefs single-season records. In addition to being named September AFC Special Teams Player of the Month, he was voted to the Pro Bowl and earned first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors.

The Orlando, Fla., native played at the University of Florida from 2016 to 2019. In 26 college games, he recorded 93 punts for a 44.8-yard average with 44 kicks placed inside the 20-yard line. He set the Gators record for most yards by a punter in a single game (432, nine punts) and the seventh-longest punt (71 yards; twice). He began his career at the University of Tennessee and redshirted before transferring to Florida.

Townsend's older brother, Johnny, punted at Florida in college and then spent time in the NFL with the Raiders, Ravens, Chiefs and Titans in between 2018 and 2021. He appeared in three games for the Titans in 2021, punting 11 times for 465 yards with two kicks placed inside the 20-yard line.

2026 Notes:

- Against Philadelphia (9/20), averaged 50.8 yards on four punts, including one punt inside the 20. He delivered a 65-yard punt in the first quarter.
- At N.Y. Giants (9/27), averaged 45.4 net yards on five punts (47.8 gross average) with three punts placed inside the 20. He was credited with a 53-yard punt in the first quarter that pinned the Giants on their five-yard line.
- At Baltimore (10/4), established a franchise single-game record with a net average of 51.0 yards per punt (minimum of four punts to qualify). He punted five times for a 53.2-yard gross average with two punts placed inside the 20, and his effort included punts of 63, 35, 54, 56 and 54 yards. He broke Brett Kern's single-game franchise record of 50.2 net yards per punt, set at Miami on Oct. 8, 2017.

CAREER NET PUNTING AVERAGE LEADERS

Since he entered the NFL in 2020, Titans punter Tommy Townsend has established himself as one of the league's all-time leaders in net punting average. His 42.8-yard career net average is fourth in NFL history.

NFL all-time net punting leaders (since 1976):

Player	Career Net Punt Avg.
1. Logan Cooke	43.4
2. Jack Fox	43.1
3. Michael Dickson	42.9
4. Tommy Townsend	42.8

Press box credentials do NOT provide access to the field at the two-minute warning in the fourth quarter. Media will be allowed to gather in the Titans interview room to watch the end of the game or remain in the press box to make the short walk down to service level at the conclusion of the game. Interviews with Titans players are not permitted on the field following the game. The press conference will begin approximately 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game and will be held in the interview room across from the Titans locker room. Key players also will be brought to the interview room. Simultaneously, the locker room will open to credentialed media members with a working function. The press conference audio will be played live over the press box speakers.

POSTGAME QUOTES

Quotes from each team's head coach and key players will be transcribed and distributed throughout the Nissan Stadium press box following the game. The quotes also will be available at www.TennesseeTitans.com/media.

POOL REPORTS

Pool reporters are assigned by the Pro Football Writers of America. Requests for pool reports with game officials must be made in advance through the home team's media relations. Interviews will be conducted virtually. Pool reports will be recorded, transcribed and then distributed in the press box.

EXITING NISSAN STADIUM

FROM NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX TO STADIUM EXIT: Cross the press box catwalk to the third floor lobby. If less than two hours have elapsed since the end of the game, take the stairs or elevator one floor down to Level 2. Exit through the doors and walk right to get to the "M" or "G" lot. If more than two hours have elapsed since the end of the game, take the elevator down to Level 1. Proceed through the lower concourse and exit through the security checkpoint at the loading dock.

FROM NISSAN STADIUM TO AIRPORT (APPROXIMATELY 15 MINUTES): Take I-24 East toward Chattanooga to I-40 East toward Knoxville. The airport is at Exit 216A.

NISSAN STADIUM PARKING, MEDIA WILL CALL AND MEDIA ENTRANCE

The media will call window and media entrance are located in the northwest corner of Nissan Stadium near Gate 6. The media will call window opens three hours prior to kickoff. Photographers' vests can be picked up near the entrance to the press box on Level 3.

Jim Wyatt: Titans Unveil New Uniforms, Logo, to Represent the Next Chapter of Franchise History

On March 12, 2026, the Tennessee Titans revealed new logos and uniforms, marking an exciting moment for the organization that honors the team's deep roots and celebrates its home in Nashville and the state of Tennessee.

More than just a new look, the uniform and logo embody the spirit of the organization – its rich history dating back to 1960, heritage, and home. The design was inspired by the voices and passion of Titans fans, players, alumni, and neighbors.

"We are incredibly proud to unveil this new look for the Tennessee Titans," said Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk. "Our uniforms and logo represent the strength of our history, the passion of our fans, and the bold future we're building together. Today is about honoring over 65 years of our organization while confidently stepping into the next chapter, and I couldn't be more excited for our players, our city, and our fans to wear this identity with pride."

The team's new primary logo, The Shield, remains true to the Titans identity, featuring strong colors of Titans blue, white, and red, and the team's familiar tri-stars. A secondary mark, The Football, gives a cultural nod to city and state and offers fans a fresh way to show their Titans pride. The letters "T" and "N" are blended in a vertical arrangement commemorating both the state's postal abbreviation and the city of Nashville, TN. An array of other marks, including a handcrafted script wordmark, also adorn the team's new logo slick.

The team uniform features some of the organization's most iconic aspects of its heritage and brings them into its present and future.

- At home in Nashville, the Titans primary jerseys will don the distinctive Titans blue, with "TITANS" emblazoned across the chest. The chest font draws inspiration from traditional woodblock printmaking – a tribute to the city's creative spirit – while the numbers echo classic collegiate design.

- On the road, white jerseys will carry the "TENNESSEE" name, ensuring the team represents the state everywhere they play.
- The Tennessee Tri-Star can be found in navy in the tab at the back of the uniform and on the side panel underneath the arm.
- Inside every jersey, a simple "WE" tag is stitched, a rallying cry for the team that emphasizes a "we over me" mentality.
- The iconic stripe of the team's past was infused with Nashville's deep roots in music and is now the 6-String Stripe, represented on the pants, sleeve, and helmet.

Jerseys and new team merchandise is now available online at shop.tennesseetitans.com and at the Titans Team Store in Nissan Stadium. More gear will be arriving later this spring and summer. For more information on events and merchandise, visit tennesseetitans.com/brand.

"From the beginning, we approached this process with tremendous care and pride, knowing how much the Titans identity means to our fans and to the state of Tennessee," said Titans President and CEO Burke Nihill. "Every element of these uniforms was thoughtfully considered – from the Titans blue and Tri-Star to the new 6-String Stripe that celebrates Nashville's deep musical roots. We wanted to honor the history that defines this franchise while creating something that reflects who we are today and where we're going. The result is a uniform that represents our team, our city, and our state with authenticity and pride."

TITANS UNVEIL NEW LOGO AND UNIFORMS

THE HELMET

Our primary logo, "The Shield" adorns the side of the helmet, while the 6-String Stripe runs down the center. The helmet's clean, white shell is paired with an all-white face mask.

THE CHEST PLATES

The Titans primary wordmark, stitched prominently across the center of the chest, announces our name in a bold, serif font inspired by Tennessee woodblock type and classic athletics. Rendered in a sans-serif typeface, our away jersey proudly represents our home state everywhere we play.

THE STRIPE

The "6-String Stripe" infuses the iconic stripe from our past with Nashville's deep roots in music. This stripe is featured prominently along the pants, sleeve, and helmet.

THE NAMEPLATE

The nameplate uses a roster font that is an extension of the woodblock-inspired wordmark.

THE NUMBERS

Inspired by collegiate-style block numbers, our classic jersey numbers stand out in white on our primary home jersey and in Titans blue while we're away, both accented with red outlines.

THE ACCENTS

Navy continues in the 6-String Stripe, the collar tab, the Tri-Star vents at the side panels, the Nike Swoosh, and the 3D helmet bumpers.

THE TAB

The collar tab features the Tennessee Tri-Star, proudly honoring the three Grand Divisions of our home state. Inside the collar tab is the word, "WE," representing the team's "We Over Me" mentality.
