LAST WEEK AT HOUSTON

The Titans traveled to Houston last week for their second divisional game of the 2024 season. In a game that featured five lead changes, the Titans scored the final goahead touchdown with less than 10 minutes remaining in the fourth quarter, when Titans tight end Chig Okonkwo turned a pass by quarterback Will Levis into a 70-yard score. Harold Landry III's sack for a safety helped clinch the victory for the Titans.

Levis also completed a 38-yard touchdown pass to Nick Westbrook-Ikhine and found Calvin Ridley for a 63-yard strike to set up another score. The second-year signal caller totaled 278 passing yards with a 123.3 passer rating. He opened the game with 11 straight completions.

The passing game was complemented by Tony Pollard's 119 rushing yards and one touchdown. Pollard, who has 800 rushing yards through 11 games, registered his second 100-yard rushing performance of the season.

Kicker Nick Folk made all three of his field goals—all from beyond 50 yards. His 56-yarder tied his career long and tied for the second-longest field goal in franchise history.

Landry provided one of the four sacks for a defense that also limited Houston to 40 rushing yards on 17 attempts. Rookie cornerback Jarvis Brownlee Jr. notched three passes defensed, including his first career interception, while veteran linebacker Kenneth Murray Jr. added his first interception in a Titans uniform.

The Titans enter December ranked second in the NFL in overall defense (276.4 yards allowed per game), first in passing defense (169.6) and eighth in rushing defense (106.7).

THE COMMANDERS

During the 2024 offseason, the Commanders hired a new general manager, Adam Peters, and a new head coach, Dan Quinn. Peters and Titans executive vice president/general manager Ran Carthon previously worked together at the San Francisco 49ers. Quinn, who was the head coach of the Atlanta Falcons from 2015 to 2020, arrived in Washington following his role as the defensive coordinator of the Dallas Cowboys.

The Commanders also welcomed a new quarterback during the 2024 offseason. With the second selection in the NFL Draft, they chose Heisman Trophy winner Jayden Daniels from Louisiana State. In 12 starts as a rookie, Daniels has passed for 2,613 yards and 12 touchdowns with five interceptions.

The Commanders hosted the NFC East rival Dallas Cowboys last week and suffered their third consecutive loss, falling by a final score of 34-26. They are in second place in the division behind the 9-2 Philadelphia Eagles.

SERIES HISTORY

The Titans-Commanders rivalry dates back to 1971, a year after the merger of the American Football League and National Football League. The Commanders defeated the then-Houston Oilers by a final score of 22-13 on Oct. 10, 1971 in the first of 14 meetings in the regular season.

The Titans lead the all-time series 8-6. They own a 4-2 record at home against the Commanders and are 4-4 on the road. At Northwest Stadium, which opened in 1997, the Titans have three wins in four visits.

The last Titans-Commanders clash at Northwest Stadium was played on Oct. 9, 2022. The Commanders were in position for a go-ahead score in the game's closing seconds, but quarterback Carson Wentz was intercepted at the one-yard line by Titans linebacker David Long Jr. to seal the win for Tennessee.

The Titans have not hosted the Commanders since Week 16 of the 2018 campaign. Blaine Gabbert came off the bench to replace an injured Marcus Mariota at quarterback, and Gabbert's fourth-quarter touchdown pass to tight end MyCole Pruitt helped deliver a 25-16 victory to set up a win-and-in playoff scenario for the Titans the following week against Indianapolis.

On Nov. 21, 2010, the Commanders visited Nissan Stadium and won in overtime by a final score of 19-16. Although Vince Young began the game at quarterback, his injury in the third quarter forced third-stringer Rusty Smith into the game with Kerry Collins inactive due to a calf injury. Washington's Graham Gano booted a 48-yard field goal in overtime to lift the Commanders to victory.

On Aug. 12, 1995, a historic preseason game was played when the then-Houston Oilers traveled to Knoxville, Tenn., to play a preseason game with the Commanders. The teams spent the previous two days practicing together at Maryville College outside of Knoxville. The same weekend, then-owner K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. entered into an exclusive negotiating period with the city of Nashville to relocate the Oilers to Tennessee. An agreement was finalized by November of the same year.

In 1975, the Oilers earned a 13-10 win over the Commanders, giving them their first franchise win over an NFC team.

In Week 5 of the 2022 season, the Titans traveled to FedEx Field and beat the Commanders by a score of 21-17. The offense, led by RB Derrick Henry's 102 rushing yards and two touchdowns, scored touchdowns on all three of its red zone possessions. The defense stifled Washington, allowing just one third-down conversion on 11 attempts, and LB David Long Jr. sealed the victory with a game-winning interception.

Tennessee got on the board in the first quarter with a 52-yard scoring drive. QB Ryan Tannehill connected with Henry for a 24-yard pass that provided a first down at the Washington 13-yard line, and on the ensuing play, Tannehill tossed a 13-yard touchdown pass to RB Dontrell Hilliard, 7-0 Titans. On Washington's following possession, Commanders QB Carson Wentz found Commanders WR Curtis Samuel for a 32-yard gain to enter Tennessee territory, but Washington was forced to settle for a 50-yard field goal, 7-3 Titans.

In the second quarter, Washington took the lead on a one-play scoring drive as Wentz tossed a 75-yard touchdown pass to Commanders WR Dyami Brown for a 10-7 score. However, Tennessee responded later in the second stanza with an 81-yard scoring drive to take the lead back. Tannehill tossed first-down passes to Hilliard and WR Robert Woods to move the chains, as the possession culminated in a one-yard rushing score by Henry. Tennessee took a 14-10 lead heading into halftime.

The third quarter saw two more lead changes as both teams scored touchdowns. First, Wentz guided his team on an 80-yard scoring possession that culminated in a 30yard touchdown toss to Brown, 17-14 Commanders. Tennessee immediately responded, as Tannehill found WR Nick Westbrook-Ikhine for a 61-yard pass that flipped field position and gave the Titans a first down at the 12-yard line. TE Austin Hooper contributed a seven-yard catch for a first-and-goal at the two-yard line, as ultimately Henry ran in a one-yard rushing score for a 21-17 Tennessee advantage.

Down by four points and in search of a touchdown in the fourth quarter, Washington began driving at their own 11-yard line and marched their way down to the Tennessee

WHAT TO LOOK FOR THIS WEEK

K NICK FOLK

- Enters the game with an all-time NFL-record streak of 84 consecutive field goals made on attempts from less than 40 yards.
- With 399 career field goals, he needs one more to reach 400 career field goals and tie Mason Crosby for 14th place in NFL history. He would be the third active player to hit 400 field goals, joining Justin Tucker and Matt Prater.

S AMANI HOOKER

With three interceptions in 2024, he needs one more to match his career high of four interceptions in 2020.

OLB ARDEN KEY

- > Expected to appear in his 100th career game.
- With five sacks in 2024, he needs two more to set a career high for a season, surpassing the 6.5 sacks he registered with San Francisco in 2021.

OLB HAROLD LANDRY III

- Enters the game with 47.5 career sacks, which ranks ninth in franchise history. He needs a half sack to tie Robert Brazile (48.0) for eighth place on the list. Landry owns the third-highest sack total for the team in its "Titans era" (1999–present), trailing only Jevon Kearse (52) and Jurrell Casey (51).
- > Needs 2.5 sacks to reach 50 for his career.

QB WILL LEVIS

- Has a 109.3 passer rating over the past three games, during which time he has completed 53 of 78 passes for 748 yards and five touchdowns with two interceptions.
- Needs one more start to become the third quarterback in franchise history to start at least nine games in each of his first two NFL seasons, joining Vince Young and Marcus Mariota.

CB ROGER McCREARY

Enters the game with a streak of five consecutive games with at least one tackle for loss. Since the beginning of the 2000 campaign, no NFL defensive back has had a streak of six such performances within a single season.

LB KENNETH MURRAY JR.

With three sacks in 2024, he needs one more to set a career high for a season, surpassing the three sacks he registered with the Los Angeles Chargers in 2023.

RB TONY POLLARD

WR CALVIN RIDLEY

- Needs eight receiving yards to reach 5,000 for his career (4,992 entering the game).
- Needs eight receiving yards (4,992 entering the game) and one receiving touchdown (39) to become the 21st active player with 5,000 receiving yards and 40 receiving touchdowns.
- Needs 66 receiving yards (634 entering the game) to reach 700 for the fifth time in his career.
- Can log his seventh consecutive game with a catch of at least 20 yards. It would extend his career-best streak.
- > Can record his sixth consecutive game with at least four receptions.

DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

- With four sacks in 2024 entering the game, he needs one more to register his fourth consecutive season with at least five sacks.
- Needs 1.5 more sacks to reach 5.5 sacks in 2024. He can become the franchise's first player to reach the number in four consecutive seasons since Ray Childress (eight consecutive seasons from 1987–1994).

P RYAN STONEHOUSE

Can record his 19th consecutive game with at least one punt of 55-plus yards. Currently at 18 games, he holds the NFL's longest such active streak, which is also the longest streak of his career. It would be the third-longest such streak in the NFL since 2000 behind a pair of streaks by Shane Lechler (23 from 2007-09, and 23 from 2010-12).

WR NICK WESTBROOK-IKHINE

- Enters the week with six touchdown receptions in the past seven games.

Dan Quinn is in his first season as the Commanders head coach, bringing 21 years of coaching experience to Washington. Quinn spent the past three seasons as the defensive coordinator for the Dallas Cowboys, where he was named Associated Press Assistant Coach of the Year in 2021.

Dallas' defense experienced considerable improvement upon Quinn's arrival, jumping from a 28th-ranked points-per-game unit to No. 5 in the NFL over his tenure (19.9). The Cowboys also ranked in the top 10 in net yards allowed per game (seventh, 327), sacks (sixth, 141) and interceptions (first, 141) between 2021 and 2023. Quinn helped in the development of linebacker Micah Parsons and cornerbacks Da'Ron Bland and Trevon Diggs, all named AP First Team All-Pro during his time in Dallas.

His first stint as a head coach was with the Atlanta Falcons from 2015-20. In 2016, Quinn led the Falcons to an NFC Championship and a Super Bowl berth in his first playoff appearance as head coach. The Falcons played in Super Bowl LI, falling to the New England Patriots 34-28, the NFL's first Super Bowl decided by overtime.

Quinn spent two seasons as the defensive coordinator for the Seattle Seahawks from 2013-14. Safeties Kam Chancellor and Earl Thomas, cornerback Richard Sherman and linebacker Bobby Wagner combined to earn seven Pro Bowl nods during his time leading the unit. In addition, the Seahawks defense held opponents to the lowest quarterback rating in the NFL (71.7) and allowed the fewest touchdowns (33) in the league. With Quinn's defense, the Seahawks also had 41 interceptions, the second most in the NFL.

With Quinn as Seattle's defensive coordinator, the Seahawks only allowed 270.4 yards per game, 15.2 points per game and 178.8 passing yards per game, ranking first in the NFL in each category. In both 2013 and 2014, Seattle reached the Super Bowl, coming out victorious in Super Bowl XLVIII after holding a Denver Broncos offense that set the single-season record for total points scored to eight points in a 43-8 win.

Quinn originally joined Seattle in 2009 as assistant head coach/defensive line coach, after previously serving in the same role for the San Francisco 49ers (2003-04), Miami Dolphins (2005-06) and the New York Jets (2007-08).

In addition to Quinn's NFL experience, he also coached collegiately. Quinn left Seattle and became the defensive coordinator at the University of Florida during the 2011-12 seasons, and coached in the same role at Hofstra University from 1996-99. Prior to that, he coached the defensive lines at Virginia Military Institute in 1995 and at William and Mary in 1994.

The Morristown, N.J., native was a four-year letter winner and two-time cocaptain at Division III Salisbury (Md.) State as a defensive lineman, where he recorded 139 tackles and eight tackles for a loss

LAST WEEK VS. THE TEXANS

Week 12: Titans 32, Texans 27 Sunday, Nov. 24, 2024 • 12:00 p.m. CST • NRG Stadium

In Week 12 of the 2024 season, the Titans traveled to the division rival Houston Texans and won by a score of 32-27 to climb to 3-8 on the season and 1-1 in the division.

The Texans got off to a fast start after RB Dameon Pierce took the opening kickoff 80 yards to the Titans 19-yard line. QB C.J. Stroud found TE Cade Stover on the next play for the touchdown to take an early 7-0 lead.

Tennessee answered with a 51-yard field goal by K Nick Folk.

After forcing a Texans punt on the next possession, the Titans took over at their own 11yard line. QB Will Levis led a 10-play, 89-yard drive that culminated in a 38-yard touchdown pass to WR Nick Westbrook-Ikhine to give the Titans their first lead of the day.

Tennessee's defense forced another Houston punt on the next possession and the Titans took over at their own five-yard line. Facing third-and-11, Levis found WR Calvin Ridley deep for a 63-yard completion. RB Tony Pollard found the end zone two plays later on a 10-yard run to make it 17-7. He totaled 33 yards on three carries during the six-play, 95-yard drive

The Texans answered with a five-yard touchdown pass form Stroud to WR Nico Collins that capped a 10-play, 78-yard drive to make it 17-14 with 6:17 left in the first half.

On the next possession, Levis and Pollard fumbled a handoff exchange and the ball was recovered by DT Mario Edwards Jr. to give Houston the ball at their own 35-yard line. After a 56-yard completion from Stroud to Collins brought the Texans to the Titans nine-yard line, Tennessee's defense stiffened up and forced a 28-yard field goal from K Ka'imi Fairbairn.

Levis was sacked twice on the next offensive possession, forcing the Titans to punt. However, two plays into the Houston drive. Stroud was intercepted by CB Jarvis Brownlee Jr. to give Tennessee the ball at the Houston 20-yard line. The Titans closed out the half with a 56yard field goal from Folk to give the Titans the 20-17 lead going into the break.

The Titans opened the second half with a 51-yard field goal from Folk, his third field goal of 50-plus yards on the day, to extend the Titans lead to 23-17.

Both teams then traded punts before Houston took over at their own 25-yard line. LB Kenneth Murray then jumped a Stroud pass for the interception and returned it six yards to the Houston 39-yard line. However, three plays later, Levis was intercepted by S Jimmie Ward who returned it 65 yards for a touchdown to give Houston a 24-23 lead to end the third quarter.

The Titans punted on their next possession and Houston took over at their own 34-yard line. Two false start penalties and NT T'Vondre Sweat's first career sack forced the Texans to punt but WR Jha'Quan Jackson muffed the punt and it was recovered by CB Kris Boyd to give the Texans back possession at the Titans 43-yard line. Titans defense once again stiffened and

- The Titans had two plays of 60-plus yards: a 63-yard completion from Will Levis to Calvin Ridley, and a 70-yard touchdown pass from Levis to Chig Okonkwo. It was the Titans' first game with two scrimmage plays of 60-plus yards since they accomplished the feat against Jacksonville on Nov. 24, 2019. It was also the Titans' first game with two completions of 60-plus yards since they had a pair of such plays against Detroit on Sept. 23, 2012.
- For the third time in 2024, the Titans scored on their opening drives of each half. They previously accomplished the feat against New England (Nov. 3) and at the Los Angeles Chargers (Nov. 10).

- The Texans' 40 rushing yards were the fewest by a Titans opponent since Jacksonville totaled 19 rushing yards against the Titans on Jan. 7, 2023.
- The Titans defense notched its second performance of the season with at least four sacks and two interceptions. They previously reached both totals against New England on Nov. 3. Prior to the New England game, the defense had not accomplished the feat since Nov. 7, 2021 at the L.A. Chargers.

HEAD COACH BRIAN CALLAHAN

On the overall game

Divisional win on the road, those are hard to come by. I thought the coolest part of the whole game was just the way that our team fought. I mean you talk about the things that we try to embody, being resilient, being relentless. Those things showed up in a big way today. Had to overcome a lot in all three phases. It was a back and forth game. That's what these games are on the road in the division. That's a really good football team. And I thought our guys did a good job of not flinching and keeping the blinders on. We've gotten in games like this before and we haven't been able to make the play. And this week we made the play and that was really good to see. A couple of individual performances. I thought Tony Pollard was fantastic today, as he always is. 119 yards and a touchdownthat's good work. I thought up front, you know, that's a really good rush unit, and I thought we held them in decent check for most of the game. The sacks are what they are. We can assign blame later, but it was enough to win up front. It was enough to win for sure and put us in good position. Defensively, the effort at the end was remarkable. The way those guys chased the quarterback around, getting pressure, followed up by a huge point from (Ryan) Stonehouse at the end, had his best punt when we needed most and pinned them back down there. Really, really momentum-swinging play for us to keep them backed up. When we were on the clock. Really, it was just great to see the way our guys fought, again. And, finally, for us we get a chance to have something to show for it, and that's what I'm most happy about.

On the TE Chig Okonkwo's play and what he envisioned

It doesn't get any better than that. I normally wasn't calling a drive starter on a movement play to get 70 yards, but what happened was is they were essentially doubling (Calvin) Ridley and they took their eyes off him and the action was all front side with all the polars. We run quite a bit and just a complement off the run. And Chig (Okonkwo) usually pins that defensive end, and he just slipped past him, and all the linebackers went running and as they were doubling Rid there was just no eyes on him and there was nobody left to tackle him. And he did the rest with his feet and Chig's a big, strong, fast dude when he's going full speed.

On QB Will Levis and the divisional win

I mean it's a cumulation of the last couple weeks. I thought he [Will Levis] played, for the most part, fantastic, particularly in that first half. He had the one interception for a touchdown, but he kept battling. He'd throw interceptions sometimes, and come back and fight. It was great. But I really was happy with the way he played. He put some great balls down the field. He did some really nice things, and he protected the ball well outside the interception. So that's what quarterbacking looks like. I think he was pretty efficient. I don't know what the final stats were, but pretty dang efficient and threw for a bunch of yards and managed the offense, and at the end of the day and got us in position to score points and we scored more than they did for the first time in a while. So really proud of Will. Proud of the work he's put in. Proud of all the things that he's done to try to get himself back in the right place mentally, physically, all those things and it was a really good performance.

On Will Levis' resilience

Huge. Huge. You're going to have bad plays in a game at every position, and particularly the quarterback ones, you throw one for interception and it goes down the other way for points is challenging to overcome. But it was just really good to see that nobody really flinched at all. We just kept going and found ways in all phases to make the plays to win the game at the end. And Will is deserving of it. He does everything the way that you want a quarterback to do things. He works his butt off to be in position to help our team, and for him to get his first win of the season and for his road win on the division against a team that we gotta play twice a year is awesome.

On communication to Will Levis on bad play

Just got a lot of football left to play. The game wasn't anywhere close to over. It was a bad play that went the wrong way and we just gotta flush that one and move on to the next. And he did a really good job of doing that and got caught in some tough field positions to climb out of it at the end of the fourth quarter there. But, really, just to not flinch is to me the biggest thing, just, hey, man, you made a bad play. It went the wrong way. Let's come back and get ready to try to win the game.

On the locker room celebration

They're all pretty much the same celebration wise. Just proud of the way that our guys fought, proud of the way they played in the stretch of the game when a lot of these games early in the year got away from us. To see that sort of performance when we've had to overcome some things, again, in all three phases and play our best ball when we needed most, I thought that was really, really awesome to see. We didn't do that early in the year and I think that shows a lot of growth in our team and a lot of things that I talked about before I think we got to see today on the field, which was great.

On how today's win is important in terms of investment and buy-in

Oh, critically important. Again, one of the things I keep trying to have is some validation for what we do and how we do it, and that ultimately the NFL comes in the form of wins. We finally get a chance against a really good team on the road in the division to show what we're made of. This is the team we think we're capable of being. It's the team that I've believed in all year long. The way they go about their business and the foundation and the culture of what we want our team to look like is there. We've just had to make the plays to win the game. It was really great to see that. This is a critical stretch for all of us just in terms of making sure that what we want our team to be and what the future of our team looks like, which for us is just week to week right now. But it validates a lot of the things that we've done so far.

On the team's growth and what led to that change

That's a good question. I would think the most important thing for us is just the way that our guys don't ever react to what's out there. They trust each other. They trust the coaches. They trust the people around them. You got a lot of good people here and people in place. Players, coaches, support staff. And those guys do a great job and we've always believed in each other from the get go. It was never at any point even when things hadn't gone well, that we didn't believe we were a better football team than we showed on the field, and that's a credit to those guys. They got a ton of belief in what's in our locker room, and I feel the same way about them. And I've said the same thing for weeks now, and it's just great to be able to have a victory to show for it against a good football team.

On surviving the punt fumble

Paul (Kuharsky), you're just going to ruin my day here, huh? Is that what you're looking for? We can talk about it tomorrow. Those are things that we overcame. They were plays that we can't have, obviously can't fumble the ball and the return that the guys bottled up and he somehow gets out of it, gotta get him on the ground. So the performance there is, sometimes that's enough to lose you a game and today thankfully it wasn't. But those things gotta be better, and we gotta hold on to the football when we're trying to catch it.

On Amani Hooker being out and how they managed it

I knew Amani (Hooker) was going to be questionable when we got to the stadium this morning. He didn't get on the first bus, and he called the docs and said he wasn't feeling very good. He was throwing up and all those things. And they tried everything to get him ready to go. He tried to fight through it but basically every time he stood up he threw up. Tough day to go out there and play when you feel like that. And really I think Daryl Worley stepping up in that role after not really practicing much this week -- played a little bit, but to step up in that moment and play an entire game at safety that he wasn't anticipating was pretty remarkable, to be honest. We knew probably about a couple hours before kickoff that it would be a struggle to get him to go."

On cutting the penalties in half today

It's huge. The negative plays are a part of it. Again, still, ultimately too many sacks, but we knew we were going to get a few against this crew. They're good. Yeah, the negative plays in key moments is really what has hurt us, and some of those conversions they got on defense, I think we still had one. But, yeah, it was good. Anytime you can cut the penalties in half what they were before that's a good start for us and we gotta continue that trend.

On the protection in the second half

No. We kept kind of mixing it up. I think we did a good job of mixing in some runs and keeping the rush at bay with some of the scheme runs we had. Did a good job with some of the movements. We tried not to be in positions to get their full-throttle rush. I thought they did a good job of staying in manageable spots for a lot of the game. It wasn't perfect, but put ourselves in position to not have to face full-throttle rush that they got going when you get in the long-yard spots. And then when we did, you know, you saw what that looked like. They were pretty dang good.

On the Amy Adams Strunk's excitement to win a game in Houston

She's thrilled. She was thrilled mainly because we won the game. But, yeah. It's okay to admit that these things sometimes mean more, and I know it does for her and it does for us and we wanted to make sure that we put on a great performance down here, and we had a chance to win the game and we did. And I think that she's more than anything else just proud of our football team and the way they came down here and fought and played.

On Levis against the blitz

My mind is a little bit jumbled when it comes to the progression of things, so I'd have to get back to you tomorrow on that. Be happy to once I watch it. I can't probably answer it accurately enough right now.

QUARTERBACK WILL LEVIS

On how he feels after today's win

Feels awesome. A lot of people have been working hard to get a win like this, and just happy, from top down in the whole organization. We talked all week about how much it means to help the front office, Miss Amy [Adams Strunk], and everybody. That win was for her, and just good to come here and get a win.

On today's roller coaster game

We were rolling from the start. The pass game was cooking. Just felt really good with where the ball was getting placed out there. Kind of hit a bit of a rut, those couple of turnovers, then the fringe field goal range was tough. Obviously, the pick six is hard to come back from, but I was proud of how we all bounced back from that, defense, special teams, everybody. We had our moments of adversity and were able to come through when it mattered.

On his mindset after today's interception

Just put it behind me. Just get the ball back and can't really think about it. Didn't make any necessarily huge plays myself after that, but I just put the ball in play and made the right decisions and let our guys finish out that game. Just proud of how everyone finished.

On what he was thinking when TE Chig Okonkwo broke away

That was awesome. We've been setting that up all year. That's the scheme we've been running out of that formation, the naked off of it. That's as wide open as you can get, and Chig's specialty is his athleticism. His speed. I'm curious to see what he hit on his GPS there on that one. He had the ball, I think, 15 to 20 yards down the field before anybody on that side even knew he had it. It was cool to see him finish that. That's the skill set he has that makes him special.

On what's clicking to make the explosive plays happen

I think credit to the coaching staff dialing up some awesome stuff that one to Nick (Westbrook-Ikhine) was a complement of something we showed in LA. Just a double move off that. He ran it to perfection. We got him blocked up really nice. I was back there for a couple of hitches and able to let it fly. And, the third-and-long to Calvin (Ridley) was sweet. That's a very coverage-specific play that we just went up there and speed braked it. Knew I had it. Took my time. Again, ample time. Was able to put it up and let him come across the field and make a play. Those are two definitely big ones that we needed to make to win that game.

On the change in protection and production between halves

Credit to the guys up front, holding their own. Still myself, I can look at what I can do better, just get the ball out and check it down here and there. Couple of opportunities where I felt like I could've got the ball out. I'd like to know how many sacks of one- or two-yard losses I've had this year, like trying to fight back to the line of scrimmage. Sometimes you've just got to take them, and just credit to those guys and Nick (Westbrook-Ikhine) for stepping up and playing well.

On how RB Tony Pollard's performance helps balance the pass and run game

Tony has been a baller all year for us. With Tyjae (Spears) being out, we knew his workload was going to be extensive this week, and he was up for the challenge, and credit those guys up front. Couple trickier schemes that we were able to pull off and rip some big ones. That touchdown run was sweet, that trap we ran. Tony sees it well. He gets the yards he needs to and more, and it's fun to watch him and spectate back there.

On how today's win can be a jump start for the remainder of the season

Just take it one game at a time. We knew we needed to get this one. Glad we did, and we're on to Washington. Four more divisional games in these last six games, obviously very important with how things shake out. We're just going to take it one day at a time.

On getting his first divisional win in the AFC South

Felt great. Yeah, it didn't even hit me until after the game. I was about to throw my jersey in the wash, and I was like, 'Actually, let's hold onto that one.' It was a cool moment. To get down here and play top team in the division right now, away, and get the win, gives us a lot of confidence going forward.

On the key to sustaining today's performance

I think we've still got to be more consistent. As we said, mistakes on both sides of the ball. We were able to kind of just overcome and hedge them in that respect, but we've got to be better operationally. Couple of things in that first half that came up and ended some drives, made us kick a field goal instead of getting an opportunity for a touchdown. But we've got to look at our offense and how we can just operate better to make these games not be as close as they are.

On what today's performance says to the team's naysayers

I'm proud of how everyone has handled themselves. There are teams across the league in similar situation we are, just the bottom of that pack. We feel like the football we put on tape, how we prepare, how we strain every single game, that we weren't going to be seen as a team that's given up. It's credit to everybody just powering through, blocking out all the noise, keeping the blinders on and just getting a win.

SEASON NOTES

- PLAYOFF OPPONENTS: The Titans have six total games against five playoff teams from last season. They have home games against Green Bay and Houston and road contests at Miami, Buffalo, Detroit and Houston. Four of those six games are against 2023 division winners: Houston twice (AFC South), Buffalo (AFC East) and Detroit (NFC North). The six games against reigning playoff clubs are the fewest for the Titans since they had five such games entering the 2020 campaign.
- TV BREAKDOWN: Excluding their Week 18 matchup with the Texans, which has yet to be assigned a broadcasting network, the Titans are currently scheduled for nine contests on CBS, six games on FOX, and one game on ESPN. Due to the NFL's flex scheduling, some contests could be moved to a different network from the one appearing on the initial schedule.
- TIME (ZONE) TRAVEL: Besides a trip to Los Angeles to face the Chargers in Week 10, the Titans stay in either the central time zone (10 games) or eastern time zone (six) for the duration of 2024, including the preseason. Other than Los Angeles, the farthest west they travel is Houston.
- HIGH NOON: During the regular season, 14 of the Titans' 16 games prior to Week 18 are scheduled for Sundays at noon CT.
- FIRST-YEAR COACHES: Brian Callahan is one of eight NFL head coaches in their first season with their current team. He and the Titans face three of the others, all within a five-week span: Jerod Mayo's New England Patriots, Jim Harbaugh's Los Angeles Chargers, and Dan Quinn's Washington Commanders. Additionally, the Titans go against the Seattle Seahawks and new head coach Mike Macdonald in the second week of the preseason.
- QUARTERBACKS 1-2-3: The 2024 NFL Draft featured quarterbacks in the top three selections, beginning with Caleb Williams going first to Chicago, followed by Jayden Daniels to Washington and Drake Maye to New England. The Titans face each of those teams this season, in addition to the Minnesota Vikings, who drafted J.J. McCarthy with the 11th overall selection.
- DIVISIONAL WAITING GAMES: The Titans must wait until Week 6 against Indianapolis to play their first AFC South matchup of 2024. It is their longest wait for a divisional game since 2010 (Week 6 at Jacksonville). However, the Titans conclude 2024 with divisional games in five of the final seven weeks, including three consecutive division battles to conclude the schedule.
- THREE GAMES BASED UPON 2023 FINISH: Every NFL team has two intraconference games and one interconference matchup based on the previous year's standings. As a result of the Titans' fourth-place finish in 2023, they host the AFC North's fourth-place Bengals, and they visit the fourth-place Chargers from the AFC West and the Washington Commanders from the NFC East. Overall, the Titans' strength of schedule is .491 (142-147) based upon their opponents' combined 2023 record, which is tied for the 21st most difficult schedule out of 32 NFL teams.
- FACING TOP OFFENSES AND DEFENSES: The Titans face four of the NFL's top 10 offenses from last season: Miami (No. 1 overall offense), Buffalo (No. 4), Detroit (No. 3) and Minnesota (No. 10). They also contend with four of the top 10 defenses from 2023: the New York Jets (No. 3 overall defense), Miami (No. 10), Buffalo (No. 9) and New England (No. 7).

Stroud won the 2023 AP Offensive Rookie of the Year Award, and his teammate, defensive end Will Anderson, was named the AP Defensive Rookie of the Year ... During the 2024 offseason, former Jaguars wide receiver Calvin Ridley was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent. In 2023, during his only season with the Jaguars, Ridley started every contest and caught 76 passes for 1,016 yards and eight touchdowns ... New Titans offensive coordinator Nick Holz also arrives from Jacksonville, where he was the Jaguars' passing game coordinator.
- WEEK 15 vs. CINCINNATI: Early in the 2024 offseason, the Titans made Brian Callahan the 20th head coach in franchise history after he spent the previous five campaigns as Cincinnati's offensive coordinator. During his tenure in Cincinnati, Callahan served under head coach Zac Taylor, helping the Bengals to two AFC North titles, two AFC Championship appearances and a Super Bowl berth ... Wide receiver Tyler Boyd spent the first eight seasons of his career with the Bengals before signing with the Titans as a free agent in 2024 ... EVP/GENERAL MANAGER RAN CARTHON

Jim Wyatt: Ran Carthon Discusses Team's Moves in Free Agency

GM Ran Carthon Motivated to Turn Titans Around, and Prove Ownership Right

Video: Ran Carthon Introduced as Titans GM

Ran Carthon was named the 14th general manager in franchise history on Jan. 18, 2023. He joined the Titans after spending six seasons with the San Francisco 49ers, including the last two as the team's director of player personnel.

A year after initially joining the franchise, Carthon was promoted to executive vice president/general manager. His duties expanded to include all areas that impact the football team: roster control, team activities and personnel decisions including draft and free agency acquisitions, oversight of head coach Brian Callahan and his coaching staff, scouting, sports medicine, and player engagement.

"Over the past year, Ran has impressed me and our staff with his innovative approach to roster building," said Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk upon Carthon's promotion in 2024. "Ran's exceptional reputation around the league as a talent evaluator and culture builder was a clear competitive advantage during last year's free agency and draft process, as well as our recent search for a head coach. Simply put, Ran Carthon makes the Tennessee Titans a destination for the league's top talent. By expanding his role to include full roster control and oversight of the coaching staff, our organization will now benefit more completely from Ran's unique ability to build and lead a championship-caliber football team."

Shortly after receiving his promotion, Carthon and his staff embarked upon the 2024 offseason. Their efforts resulted in several notable signings in free agency: cornerback Chidobe Awuzie, linebacker Kenneth Murray Jr., defensive lineman Sebastian Joseph-Day, center Lloyd Cushenberry III, running back Tony Pollard, quarterback Mason Rudolph and wide receiver Calvin Ridley. The Titans then used a trade to acquire former Kansas City Chiefs cornerback L'Jarius Sneed before circling back in free agency to add wide receiver Tyler Boyd and safety Jamal Adams. Prior to the start of the 2024 season, another trade brought linebacker Ernest Jones IV to the Titans from the Los Angeles Rams.

During the 2024 NFL Draft, Carthon orchestrated the selection of seven total players. With the seventh overall pick in the first round, the Titans chose Alabama tackle JC Latham, and at No. 38 in the second round, they took Texas nose tackle T'Vondre Sweat.

In his first year with the Titans, Carthon re-worked the roster with several veteran additions who would become key starters for the team in 2023, including wide receiver DeAndre Hopkins, outside linebacker Arden Key, linebacker Azeez Al-Shaair, cornerback Sean Murphy-Bunting and offensive lineman Daniel Brunskill in free agency. In his first draft, offensive lineman Peter Skoronski, quarterback Will Levis and running back Tyjae Spears were selected in the first three rounds, respectively. Carthon also used a trade to acquire kicker Nick Folk.

Carthon arrived in Tennessee with a range of experience from multiple teams. In San Francisco, he was the 49ers director of pro personnel for four seasons (2017-20) and then promoted to director of player personnel in 2021, serving in that capacity until joining the Titans. In his role as director of player personnel, Carthon was responsible for evaluating the top college prospects and assisting in the construction of the pro free agent board and evaluations. He joined the 49ers when head coach Kyle Shanahan and general manager John Lynch took over in 2017 and played a part in the team's three playoff appearances, two division titles and an NFC championship in 2019. Additionally, the 49ers had nine players account for 13 total Pro Bowl selections from 2021 (seven selections) to 2022 (six selections)–evidence of the talented roster the personnel staff amassed.

Before joining San Francisco, Carthon spent five seasons (2012-16) with the St. Louis/Los Angeles Rams as their director of pro personnel. He entered the NFL scouting world as a pro scout with the Atlanta Falcons for four years (2008-11).

As a player, Carthon spent three seasons in the NFL (2004-06) primarily with the Indianapolis Colts, after entering the league as an undrafted college free agent. At the University of Florida, he tallied 1,353 career rushing yards over four seasons and was part of the Gators' 2000 SEC Championship team.

Carthon was raised in an NFL family with his father, Maurice Carthon, having a distinguished playing and coaching career. Maurice Carthon played for the Colts and New York Giants, and he coached for New England, the New York Jets, Detroit, Dallas, Cleveland, Arizona and Kansas City.

Following his playing career, Ran Carthon received his bachelor's degree in sociology from the University of Florida in 2008. As a member of the Rams (2013) and 49ers (2018) he was selected to participate in the NFL Career Development Symposium at the Wharton School of Business, and in 2022, he took part in the inaugural NFL coach and front office accelerator program.

Born Arandic Kornell Carthon in February of 1981, in Osceola, Ark., he attended Key West High School in Key West, Fla.

Jim Wyatt: Callahan Feels Like He Found the Perfect Fit With Titans

Video: Brian Callahan's Introductory Press Conference

Brian Callahan was named head coach of the Titans on Jan. 24, 2024, becoming the 20th head coach in franchise history.

"This is an exciting time for our franchise, and we're thrilled to have Brian as our head coach," said Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk. "We went through a thorough candidate search and Brian stood out as the best person to lead our football team. I want to thank the other candidates who were part of this process and wish them well moving forward.

"Brian has a track record of success and a range of experience that has prepared him for this opportunity. His football knowledge and his enthusiasm for the game really stand out, and beyond that, we think his ability to lead will make him the ideal fit for our franchise.

"If you look at his history, Brian has been a part of a Super Bowl winning team (Denver, 2015) and another team that advanced to the Super Bowl (Cincinnati, 2021). He's worked in a variety of dynamic offenses with top-flight quarterbacks. At each step of his career, he's shown the flexibility and intelligence to make an impact.

"During his time with the Bengals, he was trusted with a number of responsibilities-offensive design, quarterback development, a contributor to the free agency and draft processes-and showed the ability to be a resource in all of those areas. As we seek sustained success and pursue a championship, Brian has seen firsthand what that looks like, and he is the right person to lead us there.

"To our fans, thank you for your support and for sticking with us. You deserve a championship team, and we're going to get there. I can't wait for you to get to know Brian and his family."

Callahan arrived in Tennessee with 18 years of coaching experience and 14 years of NFL coaching experience, including the previous five seasons as the offensive coordinator for the Cincinnati Bengals.

During his time in Cincinnati, Callahan served under head coach Zac Taylor and was part of two AFC North titles, two AFC Championship appearances and a Super Bowl berth. He also helped guide guarterback Joe Burrow from the No. 1 overall draft pick in 2020 to multiple singleseason franchise records by his second year and Pro Bowl honors within three years.

Over Callahan's final three seasons in Cincinnati (2021-23), the Bengals offense ranked in the NFL's top 10 in several categories: sixth in scoring (24.9), seventh in passing (250.8 yards per game), seventh in redzone efficiency (61.5 percent), 10th in third-down percentage (41.0) and sixth in time of possession (31:00).

From the time Burrow entered the NFL in 2020 through the 2023 campaign, he recorded the league's seventh-best passer rating (98.6) and tied for the third-best completion percentage (68.0). His 270.8 passing yards per game in that period ranked fifth.

Additionally, Cincinnati's offense under Callahan featured a trio of 1,000-yard wide receivers in Ja'Marr Chase (2021-23), Tee Higgins (2021-22) and Tyler Boyd (2019). Chase quickly emerged as one of the NFL's top wide receivers after being drafted in the first round in 2021. He earned three consecutive Pro Bowl nods and became the eighth player in NFL history to reach 1,000 receiving yards in each of his first three career seasons, including 1,216 yards on a career-high 100 receptions in 2023. Boyd's statistical highlights included 1,046 receiving yards in 2019, while Higgins contributed 1,091 yards in 2021 and 1,029 yards in 2022.

Bengals running back Joe Mixon exceeded 1,000 scrimmage yards four times in five seasons with Callahan as his offensive coordinator. From 2019 through 2023, he joined Christian McCaffrey and Aaron Jones as the NFL's only players with at least 4,500 rushing yards (4,618) and 1,500 receiving yards (1,556). Mixon was named to the Pro Bowl in 2021.

In 2023, Burrow was limited to 10 total games due to multiple injuries. Backup Jake Browning stepped into the lineup, and in the first action of his career, he registered a season passer rating of 98.4-qualifying as the seventh-best number in the NFL.

In 2022, the Bengals ranked seventh in the NFL in points per game (26.1), eighth in total offense (360.5 yards per game) and fifth in passing offense (265.0). Burrow earned his first career Pro Bowl selection while setting single-season franchise records for completions (414) and touchdown passes (35). The third-year signal caller also placed fifth in the NFL with 4,475 passing yards. The team's new-look offensive line came together during the season and did not allow more than two sacks in any of the final eight games of the regular season.

En route to an appearance in Super Bowl LVI, the 2021 Bengals ranked seventh in passing offense (259.0 yards per game) and tied for seventh in points per game (27.1). Burrow, after returning from a knee injury suffered in 2020, led the NFL in completion percentage (70.4) and established single-season Bengals records for passing yards (4,611) and passer rating (108.3). Chase was named the AP Offensive Rookie of the Year after posting a team-record 1,455 receiving yards, while Mixon placed third in the NFL in rushing yards (1,205).

In 2020, Callahan helped develop Burrow as a rookie despite facing the challenges associated with the COVID-19 pandemic, including the cancellation of all in-person NFL offseason programs. Before a knee injury ended his rookie campaign in Week 11, Burrow's 264 completions were the most ever by an NFL quarterback through his first 10 career games, while his 2,688 passing yards were fifth.

Callahan joined the Bengals after spending 2018 as the quarterbacks coach for the Oakland Raiders. Under his tutelage, Raiders quarterback Derek Carr passed for a then-career-high 4,049 yards and led the AFC with a 68.9 completion percentage.

From 2016 to 2017, Callahan was the quarterbacks coach for the Detroit Lions. Working with Matthew Stafford, he helped the veteran finish third in passing yards (4,446) and fourth in passing touchdowns (29) in 2017, while posting a then-career-best 99.3 passer rating. In 2016, Stafford's eight game-winning drives were the most by a quarterback in a season since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger.

Callahan broke into the NFL with the Denver Broncos in 2010 and served in multiple roles for the franchise through 2015. He began as a coaching assistant (2010) before transitioning to offensive quality control coach (2011-12), offensive assistant coach (2013-14) and finally offensive assistant/quarterbacks coach (2015). In 2013, Broncos quarterback Peyton Manning won the Associated Press NFL MVP award after completing a league-record 55 touchdown passes. Callahan's tenure in Denver was capped by the team's victory in Super Bowl 50 following the 2015 campaign. Before reaching the NFL, Callahan spent time at his alma mater, UCLA, as a graduate assistant in 2006 and 2007. He then spent two years (2008-09) as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for Junipero Serra High School in San Mateo, Calif.

As a former walk-on quarterback at UCLA, he appeared in 13 games as a holder on PATs. He earned a bachelor's degree in sociology in 2006 and added a master's in education in 2008.

Born in Champaign, Ill., Callahan attended De La Salle High School in Concord, Calif., where he was a part of the school's national-record 151-game winning streak and a No. 1 national ranking.

He and his wife, Allyson, have a son, Ronan, and a daughter, Norah. He is the son of longtime NFL coach Bill Callahan, the current Titans offensive line coach.

In 2015, the Titans and America Nissan North announced the formation of an exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

Eight years later, on Nov. 17, 2023, the Titans and Nissan North America announced a new agreement: a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that brands the new Titans home venue as 'Nissan Stadium.'

Slated for completion in 2027, the new Nissan Stadium will host Titans home games, Tennessee State University football games, concerts, largescale events and other community events.

"This partnership is a natural extension of our already longstanding friendship with Nissan," said Burke Nihill, Titans President and CEO. "Our mission at the Titans is to Win. Serve, and Entertain. We pride ourselves on collaborating with organizations who love this city and state as much as we do, and for the past 40 years, Nissan has invested more than $10.5 billion statewide, serving as a great example of an outstanding corporate steward and community advocate. We look forward to the continued positive impact of this relationship for the Titans organization and the City of Nashville."

Since 2015 our fans and organization have called our home Nissan Stadium,' and we are proud to continue that tradition in the new stadium as we deepen and expand our relationship with them," said Titans Chief Revenue Officer Adam Nuse. "The new stadium will host the world's largest events, as well as serve as a community hub for our local neighbors. We're excited to have a partner like Nissan embark on this journey with us as we look towards the future."

The partnership will feature dedicated areas in the new stadium for brand experiences and displays, innovative technology integration, and involvement in Titans broadcast platforms. Nissan also will support a to-bedetermined program in the Titans' ONE Community philanthropic platform, which reaches Nashville's most underrepresented and marginalized communities with a focus on three areas - Opportunity, Neighborhoods and Education.

"Nissan Stadium is a centerpiece of the Nashville skyline and has become a household name in Middle Tennessee. It is important for Nissan to keep our name on the new stadium," said Jérémie Papin, chairperson, Nissan Americas. "As more people come to Nashville both to visit and to live in this wonderful city, Nissan Stadium is true showcase for our brand and for the career opportunities we've offered here for more than four decades. This partnership sends a strong message about the bright future for Nissan, the Titans, Nashville and the State of Tennessee."

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin. Nissan is home to more than 11,000 employees across all three locations.

"Nissan has been a strong partner to middle Tennessee for four decades, and I'm thrilled that the Titans have united with a partner that invests in our community and its people," said Nashville Mayor Freddie O'Connell. "The familiarity and trust they've established with the Titans in the last eight years will undoubtedly be a great asset as we plan for the stadium's opening in 2027."

Quarterback Will Levis was selected by the Titans in the second round (33rd overall) of the 2023 NFL Draft. He was the fourth quarterback chosen in the draft after the Titans traded up in the second round to select him.

In his debut season, Levis recorded starts in all nine games in which he appeared, becoming the third rookie quarterback in franchise history to start at least nine games. Only Vince Young (13 starts in 2006) and Marcus Mariota (12 starts in 2015) preceded him in the accomplishment. Levis' rookie passing totals included 255 attempts, 149 completions, 1,808 yards, eight touchdowns and four interceptions. His 84.2 passer rating was the second best in franchise history by a rookie quarterback (91.5 by Mariota in 2015), and the number also ranked first in NFL history among second-round quarterbacks in their rookie season (minimum 200 attempts). Levis had an additional 57 yards and a touchdown rushing.

Prior to entering the NFL, Levis spent two seasons at the University of Kentucky after transferring from Penn State. In four combined college seasons, he appeared in 39 games with 26 starts. He completed 479 of his 738 passes (64.9 percent) for 5,876 yards with 46 touchdowns and 25 interceptions. He also rushed for 742 yards and 17 touchdowns.

At Kentucky, Levis went 17-7 as a starter, tying Terry Wilson for the second-most quarterback wins since 1993. The two-time team captain completed 418 of 636 passes for 5,233 yards with 43 passing touchdowns and 11 rushing scores for the Wildcats. His six 300-yard passing games were the fourth-most in school history.

As a senior in 2022, he started 11 games at quarterback and connected on 185 of 283 passes for 2,406 yards with 19 passing scores, while ranking fourth in the SEC in pass efficiency (151.9). He finished fifth in the SEC with 19 passing scores.

As a junior in 2021, he transferred from Penn State to Kentucky and started in all 13 games, helping to lead UK to 10 wins for the fourth time in school history. He totaled 3,203 yards total offense, becoming the seventh player in school history to reach 3,000 yards of total offense in a season. He was 233-of-353 passing for 2,826 yards and 24 touchdowns, and he also registered 107 rushes for 376 yards and a team-high tying nine rushing touchdowns.

He is a native of Madison, Conn.

In the second quarter, he helped convert a thirdand-11 with a 63-yard pass to Calvin Ridley. At the time, it was the secondlongest completion of his career before he threw a 70-yarder in the fourth guarter. His 70-yard touchdown pass to Chig Okonkwo in the fourth guarter became the second-longest completion of his career behind his 98-yarder in the previous game against Minnesota. Levis notched his seventh career touchdown pass of at least 40 yards.

SECOND-ROUND QUARTERBACKS

From the first common draft in 1967 to 2023, there were 63 quarterbacks selected in the second round of the NFL Draft. Among those with at least 200 passing attempts in their rookie season, Titans quarterback Will Levis delivered the highest passer rating. Levis was 149-of-255 passing for 1,808 yards with eight touchdowns and four interceptions, amounting to an 84.2 passer rating. The previous leader was Charlie Batch, who had an 83.5 passer rating as a rookie with the Detroit Lions in 1998.

Levis' 58.4 completion percentage also ranked as the best of any second-rounder in his rookie campaign. Former Cincinnati Bengals quarterback Andy Dalton previously held the top spot with a 58.1 completion percentage as a rookie in 2011.

6-4, 233, 15th Year/4th with Titans, Tennessee Click for complete bio

Long snapper Morgan Cox is in his 15th NFL season and his fourth campaign with the Titans in 2024. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 19, 2021.

In 2023, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties for the third consecutive season. With 51 consecutive games played in his first three seasons with the Titans, he finished the 2023 campaign with the longest active streak of games played for the team. His efforts helped kicker Nick Folk lead the NFL in field goal accuracy (96.7 percent) and helped punter Ryan Stonehouse lead the NFL for a second consecutive season in gross punting average (53.1). He was also a finalist in 2023 for the NFL's Bart Starr Award.

In 2022, Cox was named to his fifth career Pro Bowl. He has more Pro Bowl appearances than any other player at his position since the league began naming long snappers to the Pro Bowl in 2004.

His steady play in 2022 helped Stonehouse, a rookie, lead the league and set a new NFL record with a 53.1-yard gross punting average. Stonehouse also finished fourth in the NFL and set a rookie record with a 44.0-yard net average. Meanwhile, kicker Randy Bullock made 17 of 20 field goals (85.0 percent) and made all 28 extra point attempts.

In 2021, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties in 17 regular season games and one postseason game. He helped Bullock finish ninth in franchise history with 120 points in a single season, including three game-winning field goals (Sept. 19 at Seattle, Oct. 31 at Indianapolis and Dec. 23 against San Francisco). He also snapped for punter Brett Kern, who had the league's third-best ratio of punts inside the 20 to touchbacks (18:1).

In his first 11 seasons, Cox appeared in 165 regular season games for the Baltimore Ravens, serving as the team's primary long snapper after entering the NFL as an undrafted free agent in 2010. He was selected to four Pro Bowls and was a part of five playoff teams in Baltimore, totaling 10 postseason games played.

In 2020, he earned his fourth career Pro Bowl selection. He helped kicker Justin Tucker record his fifth consecutive season with at least 130 points, tying the NFL record of consecutive seasons with 130-plus points. Tucker connected on 26 of 29 field goals (89.7 percent) and was 52 of 53 on extra points (98.1 percent). Cox also snapped on all 51 of Sam Koch's 51 punts, as Koch was the NFL's only punter to place at least 20 punts (22) inside in the 20-yard line and have no more than one touchback.

A native of Collierville, Tenn., Cox played 38 games in three seasons (2007-09) as the primary long snapper at the University of Tennessee.

Kicker Nick Folk is in his 17th NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2024. He was acquired by the Titans in a trade with the New England Patriots on Aug. 29, 2023.

At the conclusion of the 2023 season, Folk's 382 career field goals ranked fourth among all active kickers behind only Matt Prater (401), Mason

Crosby (400) and Justin Tucker (395), and Folk's number also ranked 19th in NFL history. His 1,632 total points scored ranked 23rd in league annals. Among all active NFL players at the conclusion of 2023, Folk's 228 career games ranked 10th.

Through 2023, Folk carried an all-time NFL-record streak of 78 consecutive field goals from under 40 yards—a streak going back to 2017. Tucker previously owned the record with 70 straight under-40-yarders from 2016 to 2020.

In his first season in Tennessee, Folk appeared in all 17 games and made 29 field goals on 30 attempts. His career-best 96.7 percent accuracy on field goals led the NFL and tied for the 14th-best single-season mark in NFL history. It also established a new franchise record for a single season, breaking the record of 92.3 percent by AI Del Greco (1998) and Rob Bironas (2010). Folk's initial season with the Titans also included 28 extra points on 30 attempts. His 115 total points tied for the 13th-best single-season total in franchise history.

In his first 15 NFL seasons prior to joining the Titans, Folk spent time with the Dallas Cowboys (2007-09), New York Jets (2010-2016), Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2017) and Patriots (2019-22). During that time, he connected on 82.9 percent (353 of 426) of his field goal attempts and 96.8 percent of his extra point attempts (458 of 473). He had 10 seasons with at least 100 points, including a league-leading 150 points in 2021 with the Patriots. He registered 11 game-winning field goals in the regular season and one in postseason play.

Over his four years with New England, Folk made 108 of his 121 field goal attempts (89.3 percent) in 57 games. He departed the Patriots in fifth place on the New England all-time field goal list and tied for seventh place on the franchise's all-time scoring list with 440 total points.

In 2022, he played in all 17 games for New England and totaled 128 points on 32-of-37 field goal attempts. He was also 32-of-35 on extra points. Folk became one of six all-time NFL players to have at least five seasons with 30 field goals, joining Tucker (eight), Stephen Gostkowski (five), Robbie Gould (five), John Carney (five) and David Akers (five).

Folk established the NFL record for consecutive field goals made under 50 yards with a streak of 64 such kicks from Oct. 5, 2017 to Oct. 16, 2022. He broke the record (56 consecutive) set by Ryan Succop of the Titans from 2014 to 2017.

While with the Patriots, he also set the franchise mark for consecutive field goals made (36) during a streak that spanned from 2020 to 2021 and posted the third-highest field goal percentage for a season by a Patriot in 2020 (92.9).

Folk entered the NFL as a sixth-round selection by the Dallas in the 2007 NFL Draft. As a rookie for the Cowboys, he earned a Pro Bowl selection and all-rookie honors.

NFL RECORD: SINGLE-SEASON AVERAGE

In 1940, Washington's Sammy Baugh punted 35 times for 1,799 yards, averaging 51.40 yards per punt. Eighty-two seasons later, the mark still stood as the best qualifying single-season punting average in NFL history, until Titans rookie punter Ryan Stonehouse broke the record in 2022.

Stonehouse, an undrafted rookie from Colorado State University, averaged 53.10 yards per attempt on 90 total punts—1.70 yards per punt ahead of Baugh's number.

Then, in his second season, Stonehouse averaged an NFL-high 53.06 yards per punt. His 53 attempts (2,812 yards) qualified him for the single-season charts, and as a result, he owns the top two numbers of all-time in his first two NFL seasons.

Prior to Stonehouse's rookie campaign, Baugh's mark was one of the NFL's longest-held records. In the 2022 NFL Record & Fact Book, only three single-season individual records predated Baugh's punting mark, and all three of those were later tied: most safeties in a season (two by Green Bay's Tom Nash in 1932 and subsequently tied 18 times), most fumbles returned for a touchdown in a season (two by Boston's Harold McPhail in 1934 and tied 44 times), and most opponent fumbles returned for a touchdown in a season (two by McPhail in 1934 and tied 41 times).

To qualify for the single-season average record, a punter needs a minimum of 2.5 attempts per team game.

Turn left at first light (Interstate Drive). Turn right on Woodland Street. Nissan Stadium will be on the left. Follow signs to parking lot ("M" lot on northwest corner/river side of stadium).

NISSAN STADIUM MEDIA WILL CALL/MEDIA ENTRANCE

The media will call window and media entrance are located in the northwest corner of Nissan Stadium near Gate 6. The media will call window opens three hours prior to kickoff.

FIELD MEDIA VESTS

All members of the media with field access during the game must wear a media vest. Still and video photographers will be issued tan vests, while team-affiliated photographers and videographers (scoreboard, social, coaches' shows, etc.) will be issued gray vests. Additionally, media with in-game field access will be issued an armband. All vests and armbands must be obtained prior to each game at the checkin table. Vest check-in is located on the third-floor landing near the press box. All vests must be returned at the conclusion of the game to Titans personnel or to the vest check-in table.

NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX INTERNET ACCESS

Wireless internet access is available free of charge in the Nissan Stadium press box. The login information will be available upon arrival in the press box. A limited number of ethernet lines also are available. Accessing the wireless network works the same in the Nissan Stadium press box as it does in most areas with free connectivity. Titans staff may be able to assist in a limited manner, but you should first contact your company's I.T. department with any questions.

FROM NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX TO INTERVIEW ROOMS

Take the press box elevator (Level 3) to field level (Level 1). The Titans interview room is immediately on the right. Turn left and continue straight along the concourse to reach the visiting team's interview room (white line).

POSTGAME POLICIES

Reporters with press box credentials will not be allowed on the field during pre-game activities or during the game itself. Press box credentials do NOT provide access to the field at the two-minute warning in the fourth quarter. Media will be allowed to gather in the Titans interview room to watch the end of the game or remain in the press box to make the short walk down to the field level at the conclusion of the game. Interviews with Titans players are not permitted on the field following the game. The press conference will begin approximately 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game and will be held in the interview room across from the Titans locker room. Key players also will be brought to the interview room. Simultaneously, the locker room will open to credentialed media members with a working function. The press conference audio will be played live over the press box speakers.

POSTGAME QUOTES

Quotes from each team's head coach and key players will be transcribed and distributed throughout the Nissan Stadium press box following the game. The quotes also will be available at www.TennesseeTitans.com/media.

POOL REPORTS

Pool reporters are assigned by the Pro Football Writers of America. Requests for pool reports with game officials must be made in advance through the home team's media relations.
