TITANS TRAVEL TO JACKSONVILLE FOR FINAL ROAD GAME OF 2024

DECEMBER 23, 2024

Tennessee Titans (3-12) at Jacksonville Jaguars (3-12)

Sunday, Dec. 29, 2024 • 1 p.m. EST/Noon CST • EverBank Stadium • Jacksonville, Fla. • TV: CBS

NASHVILLE — The Tennessee Titans (3-12) travel to Jacksonville this week to face the AFC South rival Jaguars (3-12). Kickoff at EverBank Stadium (capacity 67,838) is scheduled for 1 p.m. EST/noon CST on Sunday, Dec. 29.

The Titans and Jaguars will meet for the second time in a four-week span. On Dec. 8, the Jaguars visited Nissan Stadium and claimed a 10-6 victory. After the Titans led 6-0, the Jaguars rallied for 10 points in the fourth quarter, scoring the go-ahead touchdown on a Tank Bigsby run with 6 minutes and 46 seconds remaining.

Following their visit to Jacksonville, the Titans will conclude their 2024 campaign at home against the AFC South champion Houston Texans on either Jan. 4 or 5. The NFL's Week 18 game days and times have not been announced.

THE BROADCAST

This week's contest will be regionally televised on CBS, including Nashville affiliate WTVF NewsChannel 5, as well as on Paramount+ in the Nashville market. The broadcast team includes play-by-play announcer Spero Dedes, analyst Adam Archuleta and reporter Aditi Kinkhabwala.

Fans in Nashville can stream live Titans games on mobile devices with NFL+, which offers access to local games and all primetime games on phones and tablets. Out of market, fans can watch every Sunday afternoon game with Sunday Ticket. More information on ways to watch NFL games can be found at nfl.com/ways-to-watch.

The Titans Radio Network and Nashville flagship 104.5 The Zone carry all Titans action across the Mid-South with the "Voice of the Titans" Mike Keith, analyst Dave McGinnis, sideline reporter Ramon Foster, executive producer/gameday host Rhett Bryan and co-host Amie Wells.

LAST WEEK AT INDIANAPOLIS

Last week at Indianapolis, the Titans played their first of three consecutive AFC South games to conclude the season. After trailing 38-7, the Titans scored 23 unanswered points in the second half to cut the deficit to eight points. However, the Colts thwarted the comeback effort and prevailed 38-30.

Quarterback Mason Rudolph registered his fourth start of the season and completed 23 of 34 passes for 252 yards and a pair of touchdowns with three interceptions. He tossed a 38-yard touchdown pass to Calvin Ridley in the first quarter and found Nick Westbrook-Ikhine for a six-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter.

Running back Tyjae Spears added a career-best two rushing touchdowns. He scored on carries of 11 yards and two yards, giving him back-to-back performances with multiple touchdowns for the first time in his two-year career. Meanwhile, fellow running back Tony Pollard reached 1,017 rushing yards in 2024 to establish a career high and register his third consecutive 1,000-yard rushing season.

On defense, safety Amani Hooker set a career high with his fifth interception of the season. His five interceptions are tied for fifth in the NFL and tied for second in the AFC.

THE JAGUARS

Head coach Doug Pederson is in his third season as the head coach of the Jaguars. He led the Jaguars to a division title in 2022 before the team went 9-8 in 2023.

The Jaguars traveled to take on the Las Vegas Raiders last week and lost 19-14. Rookie wide receiver Brian Thomas totaled nine receptions for 132 yards and a score, notching his second straight game with at least nine receptions and 100 yards.

With quarterback Trevor Lawrence on injured reserve since prior to the first Titans-Jaguars matchup, Mac Jones started his third consecutive game. Jones, who is in his first year in Jacksonville after three seasons in New England, passed for 247 yards and a touchdown against the Raiders.

SERIES HISTORY

The Jaguars are the Titans' longest-standing division rival. The clubs have met at least twice each year since Jacksonville began play as an expansion franchise in 1995. For the first seven seasons of the rivalry they played in the AFC Central, and since 2002 they have been members of the AFC South.

The teams have met a total of 60 times, with the Titans holding a 35-25 advantage. For eight consecutive seasons (2009–2016), the Titans and Jaguars split the annual series before Tennessee took both matchups in 2017 and 2018. In 2019, they exchanged wins once again before the Titans took both games in 2020 and 2021. In 2022, the Jaguars earned their first sweep over the Titans since 2005.

In the first matchup of 2024, the Jaguars visited Nissan Stadium and handed the Titans a 10-6 defeat. It was the fourth-lowest scoring game in the history of the series.

The last time the Titans traveled to EverBank Stadium was Nov. 19, 2023. The Titans suffered a 34-14 loss, giving the Jaguars their third consecutive win in the series. Then, in the season-ending rematch on Jan. 7, 2024, the Titans took a 28-20 victory to deprive the Jaguars of a playoff berth and an AFC South title.

In the 2022 finale, played at EverBank Stadium on Jan. 7, 2023, the Titans and Jaguars played to decide the AFC South title. The Jaguars scored the game-winning touchdown with less than three minutes remaining on the clock on a 37-yard fumble return by linebacker Josh Allen, ending Tennessee's season and propelling Jacksonville to the postseason.

The Titans and Jaguars have met five times on Thursday Night Football. The last occasion was Sept. 19, 2019. The Jaguars won by a final score of 20-7, taking a 3-2 lead in the Thursday night series. Jaguars then-rookie quarterback Gardner Minshew earned his first career victory as a starter in the contest.

On Thursday night, Dec. 6, 2018, Titans running back Derrick Henry rushed for a then-franchise-record 238 yards and four touchdowns on 17 carries, lifting the Titans to a 30-9 win over the Jaguars. On one of his scores, Henry matched Tony Dorsett to become only the second running back in NFL history to record a 99-yard rushing attempt.

The stakes of the rivalry were never higher than in 1999, when the Titans and Jaguars met three times, including the AFC Championship Game in Jacksonville. Steve McNair rushed for two touchdowns and Derrick Mason returned a kickoff 80 yards for a touchdown as the Titans earned their first Super Bowl berth with a 33-14 win. Tennessee went on to Super Bowl XXXIV and eventually fell at the hands of the St. Louis Rams, 23-16.

The Jaguars played their first game in franchise history against the then-Houston Oilers on Sept. 3, 1995. In Jacksonville, the Oilers won the game by a 10-3 final score.

GAME PREVIEW

TITANS-JAGUARS: THE LAST MEETING

2024 Week 14: Titans 6, Jaguars 10 Sunday, Dec. 8, 2024 • 12:00 p.m. CST • Nissan Stadium

In Week 14 of the 2024 season, the Titans hosted division rival Jacksonville Jaguars and fell by a score of 10-6.

The Titans opened the game with an 11-play, 51-yard drive that was capped off by a 46yard field goal from K Nick Folk to make it 3-0 early in the first quarter. RB Tony Pollard rushed five times for 35 yards while RB Tyjae Spears added 10 yards on three carries on the drive.

On the ensuing drive for the Jaguars, CB Chidobe Awuzie intercepted a QB Mac Jones pass and returned it eight yards to the Tennessee 37-yard line. But the Titans were unable to capitalize on the turnover as they went three-and-out on the next possession.

Later in the second quarter, the Titans faced first-and-goal from the Jaguars four-yard line but failed to score after three incompletions led to a turnover on downs

Jacksonville took over from their own two-yard line and drove down to the Tennessee 36yard line on 12 plays, that included three third-down conversions. But facing second-and-13, Jones was intercepted for a second time, this time by LB Otis Reese IV, his first career interception, that put a halt to the Jaguars drive with one second left on the clock in the first half.

Both teams traded punts to start the second half, before the Titans took over at their own 34-yard line. Levis connected with WR Tyler Boyd and TE Chig Okonkwo for two third-down conversions before the drive stalled. Folk extended the Titans lead to 6-0 on a 39-yard field goal with 4:30 left in the third quarter.

Jacksonville cut the lead to 6-3 with a 23-yard field goal from K Cam Little which capped a 14-play, 65-yard drive that featured a 12-yard run by RB Tank Bigsby on fourth-and-two.

The Titans were forced to punt on the next drive and the Jaguars took over at their own 19-vard line, Jones then led a seven-play, 81-vard drive capped off by an eight-vard touchdown run by Bigsby for Jacksonville to take their first lead of the day at 10-6 with 6:46 left in the game

The Titans were unable to rally. Despite reaching the Jacksonville nine-yard line, Levis and WR Nick Westbrook-Ikhine couldn't connect in the back of the end zone on fourth-andthree for another turnover on downs.

The Titans defense forced a three-and-out, but with only 49 seconds remaining all four of Levis' passes fell incomplete and the Jaguars finished the game in victory formation to drop the Titans to 3-10 on the season.

The Titans offense enters the game with a streak of seven consecutive touchdowns on red-zone possessions over the past two games.

TITANS DEFENSE

The Titans defense can register its sixth consecutive game with at least one interception. It would be the team's longest such streak since a seven-game stretch from Sept. 25–Nov. 23, 2022.

K NICK FOLK

- Enters the game with an all-time NFL-record streak of 85 consecutive field goals made on attempts from less than 40 yards.
- With 403 career field goals, he ranks 14th in NFL history. He is four field goals behind Arizona Cardinals kicker Matt Prater, who is 13th with 407 career field goals but is currently on injured reserve.

S AMANI HOOKER

- With a career-high five interceptions in 2024, he needs one more to record the team's first six-interception season since Kevin Byard had eight interceptions in 2017.
- With 12 career interceptions, he needs one more to tie Jason McCourty (13) for the eighth-highest career total for the franchise during its "Titans era" (1999–present).

OLB ARDEN KEY

Needs a half sack to reach seven sacks in 2024 and set a career high for a season. His 6.5 sacks in 2024 are tied with the 6.5 sacks he registered with San Francisco in 2021. STATISTICS

OLB HAROLD LANDRY III

- Enters the game with 49.5 career sacks and needs a half sack to reach 50 for his career. He would be the eighth all-time member of the franchise to do so.
- Currently ranks eighth in franchise history in career sacks. With 1.5 more sacks, he will tie Jurrell Casey (51) for seventh place, and with 2.5 more sacks, he will tie Jevon Kearse (52) for sixth place. Only Casey and Kearse have had more sacks for the franchise during its "Titans era," which began in 1999.

LB KENNETH MURRAY JR.

Needs five tackles (95 entering the game) to reach the 100-tackle mark for the second consecutive season and for the third time in his career (107 tackles in both 2020 and 2023).

TE CHIG OKONKWO

- Enters the game with 47 receptions for 437 yards in 2024. With three receptions and 63 receiving yards, he will join Frank Wycheck (six consecutive seasons) and Delanie Walker (five) as the only tight ends in franchise history to record consecutive seasons with at least 50 receptions and 500 receiving yards.
- Can join Travis Kelce, Cade Otton and Brock Bowers as the NFL's only tight ends in 2024 with eight or more receptions in three consecutive games.
- Can become the franchise's third player and first tight end since 1970 with eight or more receptions in three consecutive games, joining running back Butch Woolfolk (three games in 1985) and wide receiver Drew Hill (three in 1991).
- Needs seven receptions to match his career high of 54 receptions in 2023.

RB TONY POLLARD

- > Needs two more rushing touchdowns to reach 30 for his career.
- Needs one rushing touchdown to record his third consecutive season with at least six rushing touchdowns (nine in 2022 and six in 2023).
- With 1,255 scrimmage yards in 2024, he needs 124 more scrimmage yards to set a new career high for a season (1,378 scrimmage yards in 2022).
- With 238 rushing attempts in 2024, he needs 15 more to set a career high (252 in 2023).

WR CALVIN RIDLEY

- Needs 43 receiving yards (857 in 2024) to reach 900 for the third time in his career.
- Needs 143 receiving yards to record his third career 1,000-yard receiving season (2020 and 2023). It would be the franchise's 12th 1,000-yard receiving season during its "Titans era" (1999–present).
- Can log his 11th consecutive game with a catch of at least 20 yards. His current 10-game streak is the best of his career and also tied for the second-longest by a Titans player since the beginning of the 2000 campaign (12 by Delanie Walker, 2015-16; 10 by Kevin Dyson, 2001).

DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

- > With five sacks in 2024 entering the game, he needs one more to register his third career season with at least six sacks.
- Needs a half sack to reach 5.5 sacks in 2024. He would become the franchise's first player to reach the number in four consecutive seasons since Ray Childress (eight consecutive seasons from 1987–1994).

RB TYJAE SPEARS

- Can record his third consecutive game with at least one rushing touchdown.
- Can record his third consecutive game with two or more touchdowns. Only Bills quarterback Josh Allen has accomplished the feat in 2024. The last Titans player to achieve the feat was Derrick Henry in 2023 (Nov. 26–Dec. 11).

P RYAN STONEHOUSE

Can extend his career-best streak with his 23rd consecutive game with at least one punt of 50-plus yards. Stonehouse has the NFL's secondlongest active streak of games with a 50-yard punt behind Indianapolis' Rigoberto Sanchez (31).

WR NICK WESTBROOK-IKHINE

- > Enters the week with nine touchdown receptions in the past 11 games.
- Can become the team's first player to register a touchdown catch in nine or more games in a season since A.J. Brown (10) accomplished the feat in 2020.
- Needs one more receiving touchdown (19 in his career entering the game) to become the 16th player in franchise history to reach 20 career touchdown receptions.
- Needs one more receiving touchdown in 2024 (nine entering the game) to log the 10th individual season in franchise history with 10 or more touchdown catches.

Doug Pederson was named head coach of the Jaguars on Feb. 3, 2022 after five seasons coaching the Eagles from 2016-20.

In his first season in Jacksonville, Pederson led the Jaguars to their first AFC South title since 2017. After starting 2-7, the team finished the season on a five-game winning streak to qualify for the playoffs and won their first postseason game in the Wild Card round, coming back from a 27-0 deficit to defeat the Chargers 31-30. The Jaguars ranked first in the NFL in win differential from the 2021 to 2022 season and Pederson was named the NFL 101 AFC Coach of the Year.

As head coach in Philadelphia, Pederson posted a 46-39-1 record, including two division titles in 2017 and 2019, three consecutive playoff appearances and the Eagles' first Super Bowl championship in 2017. He was key in the development of 2016 first-round selection quarterback Carson Wentz, the preparation for backup quarterback and eventual Super Bowl LII MVP Nick Foles, and the early support of quarterback Jalen Hurts.

As a second year head coach, Pederson led the Eagles to a franchisetying 13 regular season wins. Wentz earned AP Second-Team All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors despite suffering a season-ending injury in Week 14. In relief of Wentz, Foles recorded a 100-plus passer rating in all three playoff contests and garnered Super Bowl MVP honors following a 41-33 win over the Patriots in Super Bowl LII.

Before Philadelphia, Pederson served as offensive coordinator for the Chiefs from 2013-15, helping quarterback Alex Smith to three consecutive 3,000-yard passing seasons. Pederson's first coaching stint in Philadelphia was as an assistant, coaching quarterbacks from 2011-12 and starting as offensive quality control coach from 2009-10.

A 12-year NFL veteran, Pederson played quarterback for the Packers (1996-98, 01-04), Dolphins (1993), Eagles (1999) and Browns (2000) after being originally signed by the Dolphins as an undrafted rookie in 1991. Pederson played for Packers teams that went to two Super Bowls and won one in 1996 (XXXI).

Pederson played collegiately at Northeast Louisiana (now Louisiana Monroe) where he was a three-year starter at quarterback.

Pederson is a native of Bellingham, Wash.

GAME PREVIEW

TEAM

NOTES

PLAYER NOTES

In Week 16 of the 2024 season, the Titans traveled to division rival Indianapolis and lost by a score of 38-30.

The Titans got on the board first with a 38-yard touchdown pass from QB Mason Rudolph to WR Calvin Ridley to cap off a six-play, 65-yard drive and give the Titans an early 7-0 lead. Tennessee had a chance to extend the lead after S Amani Hooker intercepted QB Anthony Richardson to give the Titans the ball at their own 25-yard line, but the ensuing drive stalled and K Brayden Narveson missed the 53-yard field goal to keep the score 7-0 with 14:11 left in the second quarter.

Things went downhill from there as the Colts scored 38 unanswered points between the rest of the second and third quarters.

Richardson scored on a five yard touchdown run with 11:01 left in the second quarter to tie the game. The Colts then made it 14-7 on a 65-yard run by RB Jonathan Taylor with 7:25 left in the second. A three-and-out by the Titans gave the Colts the ball back at their own 22-yard line. Indianapolis extended their lead to 17-7 with a 31-yard field goal by K Matt Gay.

Following a Rudolph interception on Tennessee's next possession, the Colts made it 24-7 on a 27-yard touchdown pass from Richardson to WR Josh Downs to end the half.

The Colts continued their scoring streak into the second half. On the first play from scrimmage, Taylor broke through for another big run this time a 70-yard touchdown to make it 31-7 with 14:42 left in the third.

After another Rudolph interception later in the third quarter, the Colts took over at the Tennessee 40-yard line. Richardson connected with Downs for a 31-yard gain before Taylor found the end zone for a third time to extend the lead to 38-7.

The Titans fought back late to make it interesting. An 11-yard touchdown run by RB Tyjae Spears, followed by a two-point run by RB Tony Pollard capped off a nine-play, 70-yard drive to make it 38-14 with 2:52 left in the third guarter.

Gay missed a 55-yard field goal attempt on the Colts next possession and the Titans turned that into another seven points. Rudolph connected with WR Nick Westbrook-Ikhine for the touchdown to make it 38-22 with 8:13 left in the game.

The Titans defense forced a punt on the next Colts possession and the Titans offense took over at their own 29-yard line. Spears added his second touchdown of the day, this one from two yards out to cap the seven-play, 71-yard drive. Rudolph found TE Chig Okonkwo for the two-point conversion to make it 38-30 with 2:53 left on the clock

Indianapolis was able to pick up two first downs on the next drive, while burning 2:50 off the clock and all of Tennessee's time outs. The Titans got the ball back with three seconds on the clock and Rudolph was intercepted on the final play of the game to seal the score at 38-30 and drop the Titans to 3-12.

NOTES FROM LAST WEEK'S GAME

TEAM NOTES

- Kicker Brayden Narveson and outside linebacker Khalid Duke became the 12th and 13th rookies to appear for the Titans in 2024.
- The Titans had a season-high 10 rookies play in the game at Indianapolis. The team used nine rookies in four previous games this season.
- The Titans were penalized four times, tying for their second-lowest total of the season.

TEAM NOTES – OFFENSE

- The Titans scored 30 points at Indianapolis. It was their third game of 2024 scoring at least 30 points after previously doing so at Miami on Sept. 30 (31 points) and at Houston on Nov. 24 (32 points).
- The Titans' 57 combined points over two weeks, which also included 27 against Cincinnati on Dec. 15, was the team's highest point total in a two-game span since scoring 62 points over the final two games of the 2021 campaign.
- The Titans' 15 points in the fourth quarter established a season high.
- In the second half, the Titans offense scored touchdowns on three consecutive possessions. It was the team's first time scoring touchdowns on three straight drives since doing so against Cincinnati on Oct. 1, 2023.
- The offense was successful on both of its two-point conversion attempts. The two successful two-point attempts tied a franchise single-game record and were the most for the team since scoring a pair of two-point conversions against the New York Jets on Sept. 10, 2006.
- The Titans offense converted five of its 11 attempts on third down for a 45.5 conversion percentage. It was the offense's third consecutive week with a conversion rate above 45.0 percent—the team's three best third-down rates of the season through 15 games.
- The offense scored touchdowns on all three of its possessions in the red zone. The unit increased its streak to seven consecutive touchdowns in the red zone after converting on all four of its chances in the previous game against Cincinnati.

TEAM NOTES – DEFENSE

- The Titans defense recorded its eighth interception in a five-game span. They went into the game with a league-best seven interceptions over the previous four weeks.
- The Titans defense registered its fifth consecutive game with at least one interception. It marked the team's longest such streak since a seven-game stretch from Sept. 25–Nov. 23, 2022.

WR TYLER BOYD

- Totaled 20 yards on two receptions.
- Converted a third-and-one with a 14-yard catch in the first quarter, leading to a Titans touchdown.

CB JARVIS BROWNLEE JR.

Posted six tackles, including his seventh tackle for loss of the season.

LB CEDRIC GRAY

- Led the team with a career-high 11 tackles on defense.
 - Also led the team with four special teams tackles.
- Became the NFL's second player since the start of the 2000 season with at least 10 tackles on defense and at least four tackles on special teams in the same game. The only other player to accomplish the feat in that span was Washington's Vernon Fox, who had 10 tackles on defense and six tackles on special teams at the St. Louis Rams on Dec. 24, 2006.
- Joined Luke Gifford (Oct. 20 at Buffalo) as the Titans' only players with four special teams tackles in a game in 2024.

- Became the NFL's eighth player overall in 2024 and the first rookie in 2024 with four or more special teams tackles in a game.
- Became the first Titans rookie with 11 tackles on defense in a game since Roger McCreary had 11 at Buffalo on Sept. 19, 2022.

S AMANI HOOKER

- Totaled five tackles and an interception.
- Intercepted a pass by Anthony Richardson in the first quarter and returned the ball 19 yards.
- Established a career high with his fifth interception of the season, eclipsing his previous best mark of four interceptions in 2020.
- Increased his career total to 12 interceptions.
- Became the NFL's first player in 2024 with at least five interceptions, two forced fumbles and 50 tackles on defense.

OLB HAROLD LANDRY III

Tied for second on the team with eight tackles.

TE DAVID MARTIN-ROBINSON

Gained six yards and a first down on his first NFL reception in the first quarter.

K BRAYDEN NARVESON

- Made his Titans debut.
- Made both of his extra point attempts and missed a 53-yard field goal attempt.

TE CHIG OKONKWO

- Led the offense with nine receptions and 81 receiving yards, establishing career highs in both categories.
- Scored on a two-point conversion in the fourth quarter. It was his second career two-point conversion.
- Became the third tight end in the franchise's "Titans era" to post eight or more receptions in consecutive games, joining Jared Cook (Dec, 18-24, 2011) and Delanie Walker (Dec. 27, 2015-Jan. 3, 2016).
- Became the team's first tight end with nine or more receptions in a game since Delanie Walker had nine catches against Green Bay on Nov. 13, 2016.
- Joined Calvin Ridley (10 receptions at Detroit on Oct. 27) as the only two Titans players with nine or more receptions in a game in 2024.

RB TONY POLLARD

- Recorded a team-high 35 rushing yards on eight carries and added five yards on two receptions.
- Converted a third-and-one with a 17-yard run in the first quarter. The run put him over the 1,000-yard mark for the season.
- Scored on a two-point conversion in the third quarter. It was his third career two-point conversion.
- By reaching 1,017 rushing yards in 2024, he established a new career high, eclipsing his previous mark of 1,007 rushing yards in 2022.
- Registered his third consecutive 1,000-yard rushing season.
- Became the franchise's 14th all-time player and the eighth player in its "Titans era" (1999 to present) to record a 1,000-yard rushing season.
- On his eighth and final rushing attempt of the game, he reached 1,000 career rushing attempts and joined 18 other active NFL players who previously reached the plateau.

WR CALVIN RIDLEY

- Caught three passes for 78 yards and a touchdown.
- Caught a 38-yard touchdown pass from Mason Rudolph in the first quarter. It was his 40th career touchdown reception and his fourth touchdown grab of 2024.

T

- Surpassed Curley Culp (31.0 sacks) for 13th place among the franchise's all-time sack leaders.
- Secured his fourth consecutive season with at least five sacks.

RB TYJAE SPEARS

- Recorded a team-high 10 rushing attempts for 27 yards and a pair of touchdowns.
- Added 39 yards on three receptions.
- Reached the end zone on an 11-yard rushing attempt in the third quarter and on a two-yard run in the fourth quarter.

- Registered his first career game with multiple rushing touchdowns.
- Increased his season total to four rushing touchdowns and improved his career total to six rushing touchdowns.
- Tallied his third career game with two total touchdowns and his second consecutive game with two total touchdowns after scoring on a rushing attempt and a reception in the previous contest against Cincinnati.
- Became the team's first player with four or more touchdowns in a twogame span since Derrick Henry had four touchdowns from Dec. 3-11, 2023.
- Returned a kickoff a career-best 42 yards in the second quarter. It was the team's longest kickoff return of the season to date. He added a 27yard kickoff return in the contest.

P RYAN STONEHOUSE

- Averaged 55.3 gross yards and 45.8 net yards on four punts with one punt placed inside the 20.
- Pinned the Colts at their one-yard line with a 60-yard punt in the first quarter. It was the fourth time in his career that he pinned an opponent inside the five-yard line with a punt of 60-plus yards.
- Extended his career-best streak with his 22nd consecutive game with at least one punt of 50-plus yards. He entered the week with the NFL's third-longest active streak of games with a 50-yard punt behind Indianapolis' Rigoberto Sanchez (30) and Las Vegas' AJ Cole (23).
- Logged his 12th career game with multiple punts of 60-plus yards.

WR NICK WESTBROOK-IKHINE

- Totaled 17 yards and a touchdown on two receptions.
- Caught a six-yard touchdown pass from Mason Rudolph in the fourth quarter. It was his ninth touchdown reception of 2024 and his 19th career touchdown reception.
- His nine touchdown receptions in 2024 put him in a tie for the 10thbest total in franchise history.
- Tallied his ninth touchdown reception in an 11-game span.
- Became the team's first player to register a touchdown catch in eight or more games in a season since A.J. Brown (10) accomplished the feat in 2020.

How do you kind of justify the way the game spiraled in the first half? I'm disappointed all the way around and on the final outcome. I just wish we played better early in that game. We were in a good spot to go down and miss the field goal, but a chance to go up. And then offensively we have a critical spot where we get about a 60-yard gain to Calvin (Ridley), and we get a hands to the face, and that one gets called back. That's kind of where the momentum shifted. We turn the ball over, and then once we the turn the ball over late in the half, which made it even harder when we throw that pick in a two-minute drill. The whole thing is disappointing because I thought we were going to play better than we did early. The run game, they had a couple really, really big, explosive ones get away from us, and made it challenging to have to come back into the game. I wish we didn't have to come back, and we didn't have to show that kind of effort.

I wish we could have won the game.

HEAD COACH BRIAN CALLAHAN

Opening Statement:

We had a couple guys injured and did not return. Otis (Reese IV) – ankle, didn't return to the game. We will see where he's at. Kenneth Murray (Jr.) had a wrist and did not return. Not probably encouraging for him. (Dillon) Radunz had a shoulder and did not return. (Amani) Hooker had a shoulder and did not return. (Tony) Pollard's ankle is the same. He did not return, but he's the same as he was before, so nothing different. Obviously disappointed the way that first half got away from us early, did not play well at either line of scrimmage. Didn't stop the run at all. Didn't run the ball well. That's a recipe to lose against a team that is built to do both, and we didn't do a good enough job. Guys fought. We didn't stop. We kept swinging at it. We had a chance to get the ball back with an eightpoint game in the fourth quarter. I appreciate the effort and the fight. Ultimately, it wasn't enough, but too many things that we didn't do well enough in that game, all the way around, myself included.

What's happening on the run defense that you're getting gassed to the degree that you did?

Again, super disappointing performance. Really, not at all what I think that we've shown over the course of the year, but didn't get out blocks, didn't win the line of scrimmage, and didn't tackle in space. We had, then the speed of Jonathan Taylor showed up, and we couldn't get him on the ground, and he had two extremely large runs, and the quarterback had the other. Sometimes that's all you need to have a day like that is two 70-yard runs to put you in a pretty rare category to begin with. So not good enough. We've got to be able to get the ball carrier on the ground. We've got to be able to fit gaps better than we did. So, disappointing performance.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

Regarding defending the soft accusations, how do you go about it? Did you present that to them?

No, I didn't present that to them. If they saw it, they saw it. I didn't make anything of it. And again, it's disappointing that we ended up giving up the amount of rushing yards we did. You can look all the way around. You can say whatever you want about it. It wasn't good in any area in the run game. So not a whole lot of defense there for that. But I didn't bring it up to them.

What did you think about Mason Rudolph's play?

Yeah, the turnovers were unfortunate. The one turnover at the end of the half is killer. It kind of predetermined and forced the ball in there, and then the ball should have went to the adjacent receiver. But other than that, I thought he battled. We held up okay in protection. We lost some guys up front. We had to shuffle some guys around. (Daniel) Brunskill had to go to guard. (Corey) Levin had to go to center. John (Ojukwu) went in at tackle. We were moving pieces all over the place. I thought they fought in a drop back passing game, which was good to see. Didn't give up a ton of pressure in a rush game. And ultimately, Mason (Rudolph) responded well to that part of it, but needed him to play cleaner. We need to be able to run the ball better than we did. So disappointed.

In the first half. You go down, you get the touchdown, get the early score, then the offense just kind of goes dormant until the game is out of hand. Why weren't you able to sustain any rhythm there?

We failed in a sequence there after that ball comes back on a penalty. We kind of get back into in a manageable distance, and we don't convert, which is disappointing. Trying to take an aggressive throw on a third-and-one and a half to see if we could generate another explosive there. We didn't end up converting and we had to punt. But that really was, about where we missed a field goal too driving down there. So just the down and down consistency, which has been sort of our issue all year long, and it showed up again.

You had an eight or nine play offensive drive at the end of the first quarter and second quarter break. The defense comes on the field and Jeffery Simmons doesn't play the first four or five snaps there. Can you explain the logic between the substitution pattern there?

Yeah, that's pretty standard operating procedure for most defensive lines, as you're trying to get those guys a breather so they can play the entirety of the game. You want to try to keep a healthy rotation. Jeff (Jeffery Simmons) has played a ton of snaps this year in general out of necessity. You're just trying to rotate and make sure we're fresh for the entirety of the game. I'd have to look back on the rotation numbers and all that, but there's a rhyme and a reason behind it.

Can you put a finger on the lack of composure?

I have not. I can't put a finger on those things. Those are challenging, and it comes down to we have to make less mistakes. That's ultimately on me to figure out and fix. We make too many mistakes that put us in holes. It's been that way all season long, and it keeps showing up at critical moments, particularly again, like the end of the half, where we end up with a turnover in plus territory and they go down and score. It's just one of those things that we've got to find an answer to, and it's been a struggle to do that thus far, and I've got to do a better job.

How do you go about finding a spark? What would that look like?

I was just looking for more consistency. And I think he (Mason Rudolph) started the game out really well. I think he was eight-for-eight or nine-for-nine, whatever it was to start. We put ourselves on two scoring drives back-to-back. We missed the field goal – we were in position. That's what I was looking for. We just didn't sustain that over the entirety of the first half. We did some good things in the second half, but again, the game was so out of hand that we had to do those things. Mason (Rudolph) responded and battled and kept swinging. That part was great, but I was hoping to see more consistency than we had. And really, the same kind of problems reared their head again on us.

In the second quarter, Kenny Moore II, was he kind of playing both routes?

He's playing Two Tampa. He's playing in between both. We have two different levels. It's meant to stretch him, and he squeezed inside and just you'd like to hit the ball on the outside. It's not going to be for a crazy gain. It would probably be a completion for five to eight yards, but he played it well. Played it like he had showed he played between both those guys, and we were trying to just put some stretch on him. Has a little bit of horizontal stretch and some vertical stretch. He played it well. And would like to see Mason (Rudolph) come off it quicker.

When you look at the mistakes today, is that consistency having Mason Rudolph as the quarterback again next week?

We will see. This a week-to-week thing right now and we'll see where that lands. I'm not going to make any determination on it right now.

What's the cause for any hope the next two weeks based on how you guys are trending?

I don't really deal in that. My job is to try to put the best product we can on the field and try to go win the game. Whatever that looks like, I'm not really in the Christmas spirit right now for hope. I'm just trying to play good football. Right now, we haven't done it well enough. Our job is to go try to play another game next week. We've got two more (games) to play. I'd love to find a way to win both of them and play better than we have. And that's all my focus is at, and that's where we're going to do our best to do. Outside of that, I can't control the rest of that, just trying to do our best job we can.

Don't you guys need to have some hope? Is that not part of the factor for them?

Oh, I'm sure it is. I mean, they want it, but we all have to play better. We've got to do a better job doing what we're supposed to do. I've got to do a better job coaching. Everybody has got to be better. The hope comes from doing things the right way over the course of an entire game at a better and higher rate than we have. That's the ultimate sign of hope is when you play well. We've got to find a way to play well with two weeks to go.

Why has the complementary football been so hard to find?

That's a good question. There are a lot of reasons for it. A lot of it has just been putting ourselves in bad spots on both sides. We can't stop the run today, and we give up turnovers in plus territory the week before – we give up turnovers for touchdowns. So as of right now, we don't complement each other very well at all, and that's a large reason why we haven't had as much success as I think we're capable of. But those things have got to be better. We have to be able to complement when one side of the ball is playing well, and be able to capitalize on those things, and thus far, not consistently enough over the course of the season.

QB MASON RUDOLPH

Early in the game the touchdown drive and the drive from the missed field goal. Then, all of a sudden things kind of dried up until the game was out of hand. Why weren't you able to sustain that rhythm?

I just didn't make enough throws and hit enough runs. I turned the ball over before half. I think it was twice there before the half that gave them – it might have been 14 points. I think they scored off of both of those turnovers. That's on me. I put our team in a bad spot. It can't happen.

Why do things feel like they tend to spiral in a lot of these situations for you guys?

STATISTICS

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

It felt like that today, but we were able to come back and make it an eightpoint game. I was proud of the way the guys fought at the end. We could have easily thrown in the towel and let it spiral completely out of control, but we scored three touchdowns in the second half and made it a game.

What was the mood during the spiral and did it change at all?

When it's going bad, you just try to pick each other up and encourage and get back out there and talk about putting one good play and stacking them one good play on top of another. That's all you can do. We eventually started to stack some plays.

One interception went off Tony Pollard's hands. What did you see on the other one?

The other one was just a bad throw. Kenny (Moore II) made a great play. He had some great eye control and peeked inside at the last minute and stepped in front of it. He's a good player and he made a good play. It was a bad throw on my part.

Why has it been so hard to get the second score and build the lead?

I don't have an answer. We just have to make more throws. On third down, we had a bad pass. The defensive lineman did a great job. We had a receiver open. That was when we kicked the field goal the following play. Sometimes I think it just comes down to execution. That's cliché, but we have to do a better job of running and throwing and completing balls. That starts with me.

WR CALVIN RIDLEY

Do you take anything from coming back or is the story that they ran away with it in the first half?

Yeah, they ran away with it in the first. Obviously, we want to win the game with the comeback. It doesn't matter if you come back, you have to win the game. We let them get out a little too far ahead.

How big was it to lose the big game that you had on a penalty? It seemed like that stole some of the momentum.

It just took our momentum a little bit. We flipped the field with a big play. Who knows what we do on that drive? It has been the same thing all year.

Why has adversity tended to snowball for this team on games like it did today?

I have no idea. We don't try to do that, it's just football. It happens. We have to figure out how to be better the next game.

DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

What went most wrong today in the run defense?

I have to watch the tape, but we were moving, and they run a lot of gap scheme. It's déjà vu all over again, just like when we played Washington. It's the same (expletive). When we turn on the tape, there is going to be guys misfit, I'm sure. I have to watch the tape, but I don't think they ran with a duo or nothing like that. When they did do it, it was like third-and-one quarterback sneak or something like that. At the end of the day, when you talk about stopping the run, it's not just on the defensive line. When they are running gap scheme, everyone on defense has to be where they are supposed to be. We have to fit correctly. That's what it is. It's not like they had exotic runs. When we look at how many rushing yards they had, the first thing people are going to say is the defensive line. Like I said, when gap changes - guys in a different gap. The linebackers have to be where they are supposed to be. DBs have to be where they are supposed to be. It takes all 11 to stop the run. At the end of the day, I think we misfit a lot of their runs. It was not like they were just knocking us off the ball. It was a lot of freaking gap scheme and guite frankly, they had three big explosive runs. Jonathan Taylor at one point had seven rushes for 112. That was two big explosive runs that he had. At the end of the day, we have to know what the team is doing and adjust and know where to be at. Especially in a situation like that when we knew they were going to run the ball and knew that their quarterback was going to run the ball, we have to be able to be where we are supposed to be.

Do you guys have problems sometimes when you are facing a team that has a running quarterback? That's what happened at Washinton and that's what happened today.

Like I said, guys have to be where they are supposed to be. Guys have to be ready to ball bounce. We have to watch the tape. Like I said, when we watch the tape as a group, we have to see what really went wrong. It wasn't like they were knocking us off the ball. I think they had three or four explosive runs. The types of runs they were running was the same thing as Washington. Of course they had some quarterback runs. There were a lot of gap schemes. Even on the quarterback runs, everybody was pulling. So now they are getting the ball on the edges. We just have to see what went wrong and at the end of the day, it takes eleven to stop the run.

At one point they ran the ball 10 consecutive times for two touchdowns. What are you thinking knowing how much you want to stop the run, but you know it's coming, and you can't stop it?

It's the same thing I just said. We have to be where we are supposed to be. Stopping the run is not hard. When you look at a game and see that a team has 300 rushing yards, or however many they had, it's like 'Damn the d-line is getting beat.' But like I said, it takes all eleven to stop the run. They were doing a lot of pulling and getting guys on our edges. We had DBs trying to set the edges. They had a good plan and props to them for trying to get on the edges on defense. They did a good job on their game plan runs. I feel like we just weren't fitting right.

NT T'VONDRE SWEAT

You guys pride yourself on stopping the run as much as anything. To see the stats at the end of the game like this, how difficult is that to swallow?

If you were watching, you would see. Just got to watch the game and you'll see for yourselves.

Do you think it was just guys getting beat or is it guys missing tackles or what?

Like I told him, y'all watch the film and y'all will see.

What happened on your eye and how is it doing? Hurting. A hand went straight in it.

In college, you won a lot of games. And then you come here and have all this losing. How tough has that been on you personally? It's tough losing. You just have to keep fighting – just keep fighting, man.

2024 GAME-BY-GAME RECAP

Week 1 • Sept. 8, 2024 • Titans 17 at BEARS 24 • 0-1

Jets wide receiver Irvin Charles blocks a Ryan Stonehouse punt, leading to a field goal ... Titans wide receiver Calvin Ridley registers a 10-yard rushing touchdown and a 40-yard receiving touchdown ... Jets quarterback Aaron Rodgers tosses a pair touchdown passes.

Week 3 • Sept. 22, 2024 • PACKERS 30 at Titans 14 • 0-3

Malik Willis starts at quarterback for Packers in place of injured starter Jordan Love ... Willis, who was traded from the Titans to the Packers prior to the regular season, passes for 202 yards and a touchdown and also rushes for 73 yards and a score ... The Packers defense sacks Will Levis eight times and forces three turnovers ... Packers cornerback Jaire Alexander scores on a 35-yard interception return for a touchdown ... Levis passes for 260 yards and connects on touchdown passes to Nick Vannett and DeAndre Hopkins.

Week 4 • Sept. 30, 2024 • TITANS 31 at Dolphins 12 • 1-3

Titans win on Monday Night Football after starting quarterback Will Levis exits in the first quarter with a shoulder injury and backup Mason Rudolph finishes ... The Titans never trail after taking a 3-0 lead in the second quarter ... Miami is kept out of the end zone until less than four minutes remain in the fourth quarter ... Rudolph passes for 85 yards in leading seven scoring drives ... Nick Folk connects on five field goals—three from beyond 50 yards (53, 52 and 51) ... Tony Pollard accounts for 108 scrimmage yards and a touchdown ... The Titans defense limits quarterback Tyler Huntley and the Dolphins offense to 184 total yards and 78 net passing yards.

Week 6 • Oct. 13, 2024 • COLTS 20 at Titans 17 • 1-4

The Titans lose at home after returning from their Week 5 bye ... The Colts score the game's final 10 points in the fourth quarter, including the game-winning touchdown pass quarterback Joe Flacco to wide receiver Michael Pittman Jr. ... Flacco starts for an injured Anthony Richardson and passes for two touchdowns ... The Titans rush for 146 yards, including 93 yards by Tony Pollard, who also scores on a 23-yard run ... Will Levis and Nick Westbrook Ikhine provide the Titans' first touchdown on a nine-yard completion ... Neither team allows a sack, but each quarterback is intercepted, including Levis in the fourth quarter.

Week 7 • Oct. 20, 2024 • Titans 10 at BILLS 34 • 1-5

The Bills score 34 consecutive points after the Titans claim a 10-0 lead in the second quarter ... Buffalo scores on all five possessions in the second half ... Quarterback Mason Rudolph records his first start in a Titans uniform with Will Levis inactive due to injury ... Rudolph passes for 215 yards, including a four-yard touchdown to Nick Westbrook-Ikhine ... The Bills force two turnovers and get a crucial turnover on downs, stopping the Titans offense on fourth down at their 44-yard line on the opening drive of the second half ... Josh Allen passes for 323 yards and two touchdowns for the Bills, while rookie Keon Coleman registers 125 receiving yards.

Week 8 • Oct. 27, 2024 • Titans 14 at LIONS 52 • 1-6

The Lions force four turnovers (two fumbles and two interceptions) and record 303 return yards on kickoffs (72), punts (190) and interceptions (41) ... Mason Rudolph records his second consecutive start at quarterback for the Titans and accounts for 266 yards and one touchdown passing, as well as a rushing score ... After the Titans tie the score 14-14 in the second quarter, the Lions score the final 38 points ... Detroit's Jared Goff passes for only 85 yards but has three completions for touchdowns... Kalif Raymond totals 190 punt return yards for the Lions, including a 90-yard touchdown.

Week 9 • Nov. 3, 2024 • Patriots 17 at TITANS 20 (OT) • 2-6

Nick Folk puts the Titans ahead in overtime with a 25-yard field goal, and Amani Hooker ends the contest with his second interception of the game off Patriots rookie quarterback Drake Maye ... Maye's five-yard touchdown pass to running back Rhamondre Stevenson and subsequent extra point with no time remaining in the fourth quarter sends the game to overtime ... The Titans defense forces three turnovers and adds four sacks, including a strip-sack by Arden Key with a recovery by Jeffery Simmons to set up a Titans touchdown in the fourth quarter ... Running back Tony Pollard accounts for 128 rushing yards and 154 scrimmage yards.

Week 10 • Nov. 10, 2024 • Titans 17 at CHARGERS 27 • 2-7

Chargers quarterback Justin Herbert passes for one touchdown and rushes for another score after the Titans take a 7-3 lead in the first half ... The Chargers rush for 145 yards and two scores ... The Chargers defense sacks Will Levis seven times, including five sacks in the second half ... Late in the second quarter, a strip-sack by Jeffery Simmons and fumble return for a Titans touchdown by Roger McCreary is changed to an incomplete pass upon replay review ... Levis and Calvin Ridley connect on two touchdown passes.

Week 11 • Nov. 17, 2024 • VIKINGS 23 at Titans 13 • 2-8

Vikings quarterback Sam Darnold passes for two touchdowns and rushes for another score ... The Titans are penalized 13 times for 91 yards, including an unnecessary roughness penalty that nullifies a fourth-down stop and gives the Vikings a first-and-goal at the one-yard line, leading to a touchdown ... Another penalty nullifies a 51-yard touchdown reception by Calvin Ridley ... The Vikings defense sacks Will Levis five times and totals 10 tackles for loss ... Levis and Nick Westbrook-Ikhine connect on a 98-yard touchdown pass, tying for the longest completion in franchise history ... Levis totals 295 passing yards.

Week 12 • Nov. 24, 2024 • TITANS 32 at Texans 27 • 3-8

Will Levis and Chig Okonkwo connect for the go-ahead 70-yard touchdown pass in the fourth quarter ... Levis, who also tosses a 38-yard touchdown strike to Nick Westbrook-Ikhine, totals 278 passing yards, while Tony Pollard rushes for 119 yards and a score ... Harold Landry III helps clinch the win with a sack of C.J. Stroud for a safety ... Nick Folk boots three 50-plus-yard field goals, including a 56-yarder ... Cornerback Jarvis Brownlee Jr. and linebacker Kenneth Murray Jr. notch interceptions for the Titans ... The Texans are limited to 40 rushing yards ... The Titans win despite allowing eight sacks, including three sacks by Danielle Hunter.

Week 13 • Dec. 1, 2024 • Titans 19 at COMMANDERS 42 • 3-9

The Commanders score the game's first 28 points, including 21 points in the first quarter ... Washington rushes for 267 yards, the most allowed by the Titans since Nov. 26, 2018 (281 at Houston), with Brian Robinson Jr. accounting for 103 yards and the game's first touchdown (40 yards) ... Commanders rookie Jayden Daniels passes for three touchdowns and rushes for another score ... Will Levis and Nick Westbrook-Ikhine connect on touchdown passes of 27 and 17 yards for the Titans ... The Commanders turn a pair of fumble recoveries into touchdown drives, while Amani Hooker records the Titans' only takeaway on an interception.

Week 14 • Dec. 8, 2024 • JAGUARS 10 at Titans 6 • 3-10

The Jaguars score 10 unanswered points in the fourth quarter after the Titans keep them off the scoreboard through three quarters ... Jaguars running back Tank Bigsby scores the game-winning touchdown on an eight-yard run with 6:46 on the clock in the fourth quarter ... Jaguars quarterback Mac Jones passes for 220 yards in the comeback, overcoming interceptions by Titans cornerback Chidobe Awuzie and linebacker Otis Reese IV ... In the second quarter, quarterback Will Levis and the Titans are stymied on fourth down at Jacksonville's two-yard line ... The Titans are stopped two more times on fourth down in the game's final two minutes.

Week 15 • Dec. 15, 2024 • BENGALS 37 at Titans 27 • 3-11

The Titans (six turnovers) and Bengals (four) combine for 10 turnovers, and the Bengals score 24 points off Titans turnovers ... The game also features 26 penalties—14 by the Bengals and 12 by the Titans ... Joe Burrow leads the Bengals with 271 passing yards and three touchdowns with two interceptions ... The Bengals convert 10 third downs on 13 attempts ... Titans starting quarterback Will Levis is intercepted three times before Mason Rudolph enters in relief during the third quarter ... Rudolph completes touchdown passes to Tyjae Spears and Josh Whyle, and Spears adds a rushing touchdown.

Week 16 • Dec. 22, 2024 • Titans 30 at COLTS 38 • 3-12

After the Titans jump out 7-0, the Colts score 38 unanswered points before the Titans score the final 23 points ... The Colts rush 50 times for 335 rushing yards, the second-most rushing yards allowed by the Titans/Oilers in franchise history ... Jonathan Taylor scores three touchdowns and leads the Colts with 218 rushing yards, the second-highest individual total allowed in Titans/Oilers history ... Mason Rudolph starts at quarterback for Tennessee, passing for 252 yards and two touchdowns along with three interceptions ... Tyjae Spears' second touchdown run and subsequent two-point conversion cuts the deficit to eight points with 2:53 on the clock, but the Colts run out all but the final three seconds of regulation.

EVP/GENERAL MANAGER RAN CARTHON

Video: Ran Carthon and Anthony Robinson Recap the 2024 NFL Draft

Jim Wyatt: Ran Carthon Discusses Team's Moves in Free Agency

GM Ran Carthon Motivated to Turn Titans Around, and Prove Ownership Right

Video: Ran Carthon Introduced as Titans GM

Ran Carthon was named the 14th general manager in franchise history on Jan. 18, 2023. He joined the Titans after spending six seasons with the San Francisco 49ers, including the last two as the team's director of player personnel.

A year after initially joining the franchise, Carthon was promoted to executive vice president/general manager. His duties expanded to include all areas that impact the football team: roster control, team activities and personnel decisions including draft and free agency acquisitions, oversight of head coach Brian Callahan and his coaching staff, scouting, sports medicine, and player engagement.

"Over the past year, Ran has impressed me and our staff with his innovative approach to roster building," said Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk upon Carthon's promotion in 2024. "Ran's exceptional reputation around the league as a talent evaluator and culture builder was a clear competitive advantage during last year's free agency and draft process, as well as our recent search for a head coach. Simply put, Ran Carthon makes the Tennessee Titans a destination for the league's top talent. By expanding his role to include full roster control and oversight of the coaching staff, our organization will now benefit more completely from Ran's unique ability to build and lead a championship-caliber football team."

Shortly after receiving his promotion, Carthon and his staff embarked upon the 2024 offseason. Their efforts resulted in several notable signings in free agency: cornerback Chidobe Awuzie, linebacker Kenneth Murray Jr., defensive lineman Sebastian Joseph-Day, center Lloyd Cushenberry III, running back Tony Pollard, guarterback Mason Rudolph and wide receiver Calvin Ridley. The Titans then used a trade to acquire former Kansas City Chiefs cornerback L'Jarius Sneed before circling back in free agency to add wide receiver Tyler Boyd and safety Jamal Adams. Prior to the start of the 2024 season, another trade brought linebacker Ernest Jones IV to the Titans from the Los Angeles Rams.

During the 2024 NFL Draft, Carthon orchestrated the selection of seven total players. With the seventh overall pick in the first round, the Titans chose Alabama tackle JC Latham, and at No. 38 in the second round, they took Texas nose tackle T'Vondre Sweat.

In his first year with the Titans, Carthon re-worked the roster with several veteran additions who would become key starters for the team in 2023, including wide receiver DeAndre Hopkins, outside linebacker Arden Key, linebacker Azeez Al-Shaair, cornerback Sean Murphy-Bunting and offensive lineman Daniel Brunskill in free agency. In his first draft, offensive lineman Peter Skoronski, quarterback Will Levis and running back Tyjae Spears were selected in the first three rounds, respectively. Carthon also used a trade to acquire kicker Nick Folk.

Carthon arrived in Tennessee with a range of experience from multiple teams. In San Francisco, he was the 49ers director of pro personnel for four seasons (2017-20) and then promoted to director of player personnel in 2021, serving in that capacity until joining the Titans. In his role as director of player personnel, Carthon was responsible for evaluating the top college prospects and assisting in the construction of the pro free agent board and evaluations. He joined the 49ers when head coach Kyle Shanahan and general manager John Lynch took over in 2017 and played a part in the team's three playoff appearances, two division titles and an NFC championship in 2019. Additionally, the 49ers had nine players account for 13 total Pro Bowl selections from 2021 (seven selections) to 2022 (six selections)-evidence of the talented roster the personnel staff amassed.

Before joining San Francisco, Carthon spent five seasons (2012-16) with the St. Louis/Los Angeles Rams as their director of pro personnel. He entered the NFL scouting world as a pro scout with the Atlanta Falcons for four years (2008-11).

As a player, Carthon spent three seasons in the NFL (2004-06) primarily with the Indianapolis Colts, after entering the league as an undrafted college free agent. At the University of Florida, he tallied 1,353 career rushing yards over four seasons and was part of the Gators' 2000 SEC Championship team.

Carthon was raised in an NFL family with his father, Maurice Carthon, having a distinguished playing and coaching career. Maurice Carthon played for the Colts and New York Giants, and he coached for New England, the New York Jets, Detroit, Dallas, Cleveland, Arizona and Kansas City.

Following his playing career, Ran Carthon received his bachelor's degree in sociology from the University of Florida in 2008. As a member of the Rams (2013) and 49ers (2018) he was selected to participate in the NFL Career Development Symposium at the Wharton School of Business, and in 2022, he took part in the inaugural NFL coach and front office accelerator program.

Born Arandic Kornell Carthon in February of 1981, in Osceola, Ark., he attended Key West High School in Key West, Fla.

HEAD COACH BRIAN CALLAHAN

The OTP with Brian Callahan: Part I | Part II

Jim Wyatt: Callahan Follows in His Father's Footsteps

Jim Wyatt: Callahan Feels Like He Found the Perfect Fit With Titans

Video: Brian Callahan's Introductory Press Conference

Brian Callahan was named head coach of the Titans on Jan. 24, 2024, becoming the 20th head coach in franchise history.

"This is an exciting time for our franchise, and we're thrilled to have Brian as our head coach," said Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk. "We went through a thorough candidate search and Brian stood out as the best person to lead our football team. I want to thank the other candidates who were part of this process and wish them well moving forward.

"Brian has a track record of success and a range of experience that has prepared him for this opportunity. His football knowledge and his enthusiasm for the game really stand out, and beyond that, we think his ability to lead will make him the ideal fit for our franchise.

"If you look at his history, Brian has been a part of a Super Bowl winning team (Denver, 2015) and another team that advanced to the Super Bowl (Cincinnati, 2021). He's worked in a variety of dynamic offenses with top-flight quarterbacks. At each step of his career, he's shown the flexibility and intelligence to make an impact.

"During his time with the Bengals, he was trusted with a number of responsibilities-offensive design, quarterback development, a contributor to the free agency and draft processes-and showed the ability to be a resource in all of those areas. As we seek sustained success and pursue a championship, Brian has seen firsthand what that looks like, and he is the right person to lead us there.

"To our fans, thank you for your support and for sticking with us. You deserve a championship team, and we're going to get there. I can't wait for you to get to know Brian and his family."

Callahan arrived in Tennessee with 18 years of coaching experience and 14 years of NFL coaching experience, including the previous five seasons as the offensive coordinator for the Cincinnati Bengals.

During his time in Cincinnati, Callahan served under head coach Zac Taylor and was part of two AFC North titles, two AFC Championship appearances and a Super Bowl berth. He also helped guide guarterback Joe Burrow from the No. 1 overall draft pick in 2020 to multiple singleseason franchise records by his second year and Pro Bowl honors within three years.

Over Callahan's final three seasons in Cincinnati (2021-23), the Bengals offense ranked in the NFL's top 10 in several categories: sixth in scoring (24.9), seventh in passing (250.8 yards per game), seventh in redzone efficiency (61.5 percent), 10th in third-down percentage (41.0) and sixth in time of possession (31:00).

From the time Burrow entered the NFL in 2020 through the 2023 campaign, he recorded the league's seventh-best passer rating (98.6) and tied for the third-best completion percentage (68.0). His 270.8 passing yards per game in that period ranked fifth.

Additionally, Cincinnati's offense under Callahan featured a trio of 1,000-yard wide receivers in Ja'Marr Chase (2021-23), Tee Higgins (2021-22) and Tyler Boyd (2019). Chase quickly emerged as one of the NFL's top wide receivers after being drafted in the first round in 2021. He earned three consecutive Pro Bowl nods and became the eighth player in NFL history to reach 1,000 receiving yards in each of his first three career seasons, including 1,216 yards on a career-high 100 receptions in 2023. Boyd's statistical highlights included 1,046 receiving yards in 2019, while Higgins contributed 1,091 yards in 2021 and 1,029 yards in 2022.

Bengals running back Joe Mixon exceeded 1,000 scrimmage yards four times in five seasons with Callahan as his offensive coordinator. From 2019 through 2023, he joined Christian McCaffrey and Aaron Jones as the NFL's only players with at least 4,500 rushing yards (4,618) and 1,500 receiving yards (1,556). Mixon was named to the Pro Bowl in 2021.

In 2023, Burrow was limited to 10 total games due to multiple injuries. Backup Jake Browning stepped into the lineup, and in the first action of his career, he registered a season passer rating of 98.4-qualifying as the seventh-best number in the NFL.

In 2022, the Bengals ranked seventh in the NFL in points per game (26.1), eighth in total offense (360.5 yards per game) and fifth in passing offense (265.0). Burrow earned his first career Pro Bowl selection while setting single-season franchise records for completions (414) and touchdown passes (35). The third-year signal caller also placed fifth in the NFL with 4,475 passing yards. The team's new-look offensive line came together during the season and did not allow more than two sacks in any of the final eight games of the regular season.

En route to an appearance in Super Bowl LVI, the 2021 Bengals ranked seventh in passing offense (259.0 yards per game) and tied for seventh in points per game (27.1). Burrow, after returning from a knee injury suffered in 2020, led the NFL in completion percentage (70.4) and established single-season Bengals records for passing yards (4,611) and passer rating (108.3). Chase was named the AP Offensive Rookie of the Year after posting a team-record 1,455 receiving yards, while Mixon placed third in the NFL in rushing yards (1,205).

In 2020, Callahan helped develop Burrow as a rookie despite facing the challenges associated with the COVID-19 pandemic, including the cancellation of all in-person NFL offseason programs. Before a knee injury ended his rookie campaign in Week 11, Burrow's 264 completions were the most ever by an NFL quarterback through his first 10 career games, while his 2,688 passing yards were fifth.

Callahan joined the Bengals after spending 2018 as the quarterbacks coach for the Oakland Raiders. Under his tutelage, Raiders quarterback Derek Carr passed for a then-career-high 4,049 yards and led the AFC with a 68.9 completion percentage.

From 2016 to 2017, Callahan was the quarterbacks coach for the Detroit Lions. Working with Matthew Stafford, he helped the veteran finish third in passing yards (4,446) and fourth in passing touchdowns (29) in 2017, while posting a then-career-best 99.3 passer rating. In 2016, Stafford's eight game-winning drives were the most by a quarterback in a season since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger.

Callahan broke into the NFL with the Denver Broncos in 2010 and served in multiple roles for the franchise through 2015. He began as a coaching assistant (2010) before transitioning to offensive quality control coach (2011-12), offensive assistant coach (2013-14) and finally offensive assistant/quarterbacks coach (2015). In 2013, Broncos quarterback Peyton Manning won the Associated Press NFL MVP award after completing a league-record 55 touchdown passes. Callahan's tenure in Denver was capped by the team's victory in Super Bowl 50 following the 2015 campaign. Before reaching the NFL, Callahan spent time at his alma mater, UCLA, as a graduate assistant in 2006 and 2007. He then spent two years (2008-09) as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for Junipero Serra High School in San Mateo, Calif.

As a former walk-on quarterback at UCLA, he appeared in 13 games as a holder on PATs. He earned a bachelor's degree in sociology in 2006 and added a master's in education in 2008.

Born in Champaign, Ill., Callahan attended De La Salle High School in Concord, Calif., where he was a part of the school's national-record 151-game winning streak and a No. 1 national ranking.

He and his wife, Allyson, have a son, Ronan, and a daughter, Norah. He is the son of longtime NFL coach Bill Callahan, the current Titans offensive line coach.

NISSAN STADIUM

NISSAN

STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and North America Nissan announced the formation of an exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

Eight years later, on Nov. 17, 2023, the Titans and Nissan North America announced a new agreement: a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that brands the new Titans home venue as 'Nissan Stadium.'

Slated for completion in 2027, the new Nissan Stadium will host Titans home games, Tennessee State University football games, concerts, largescale events and other community events.

"This partnership is a natural extension of our already longstanding friendship with Nissan," said Burke Nihill, Titans President and CEO. "Our mission at the Titans is to Win. Serve, and Entertain. We pride ourselves on collaborating with organizations who love this city and state as much as we do, and for the past 40 years, Nissan has invested more than $10.5 billion statewide, serving as a great example of an outstanding corporate steward and community advocate. We look forward to the continued positive impact of this relationship for the Titans organization and the City of Nashville."

Since 2015 our fans and organization have called our home Nissan Stadium,' and we are proud to continue that tradition in the new stadium as we deepen and expand our relationship with them," said Titans Chief Revenue Officer Adam Nuse. "The new stadium will host the world's largest events, as well as serve as a community hub for our local neighbors. We're excited to have a partner like Nissan embark on this journey with us as we look towards the future."

The partnership will feature dedicated areas in the new stadium for brand experiences and displays, innovative technology integration, and involvement in Titans broadcast platforms. Nissan also will support a to-bedetermined program in the Titans' ONE Community philanthropic platform, which reaches Nashville's most underrepresented and marginalized communities with a focus on three areas - Opportunity, Neighborhoods and Education.

"Nissan Stadium is a centerpiece of the Nashville skyline and has become a household name in Middle Tennessee. It is important for Nissan to keep our name on the new stadium," said Jérémie Papin, chairperson, Nissan Americas. "As more people come to Nashville both to visit and to live in this wonderful city, Nissan Stadium is true showcase for our brand and for the career opportunities we've offered here for more than four decades. This partnership sends a strong message about the bright future for Nissan, the Titans, Nashville and the State of Tennessee."

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin. Nissan is home to more than 11,000 employees across all three locations.

"Nissan has been a strong partner to middle Tennessee for four decades, and I'm thrilled that the Titans have united with a partner that invests in our community and its people," said Nashville Mayor Freddie O'Connell. "The familiarity and trust they've established with the Titans in the last eight years will undoubtedly be a great asset as we plan for the stadium's opening in 2027."

Consecutive games that the Titans play against AFC South foes to conclude the 2024 season.

Total touchdowns by second-year running back Tyjae Spears in the past two games (three rushing and one receiving).

Receptions of 25-plus yards in the last 10 weeks by Calvin Ridley. Only San Francisco tight end George Kittle has more in that span than Ridley, who is tied with Justin Jefferson for the second most.

Receptions last week by tight end Chig Okonkwo, who has set a career high in receptions in each of the past two games.

Touchdown receptions in 2024 by wide receiver Nick Westbrook-Ikhine. His total is tied for the fifth most in the NFL behind Ja'Marr Chase (16), Terry McLaurin (12), Amon-Ra St. Brown (11) and Justin Jefferson (10).

26

Players on the current Titans 53-man roster who have been added since the end of the 2023 season.

49.5

Career sacks by outside linebacker Harold Landry III, who has moved into eighth place on the franchise's all-time career sack list.

52.5

League-leading gross punting average by Ryan Stonehouse since he entered the NFL in 2022. In 2022 and 2023, Stonehouse recorded the NFL's top two single-season gross punting averages in NFL history (53.1 in 2022 and 2023).

60

All-time Titans-Jaguars games going into this weekend's meeting.

65

Seasons by the Titans franchise, including 2024. It is the 26th campaign as the Titans after 39 seasons as the Oilers.

96.2

Percentage on field goals by Titans kicker Nick Folk since the start of the 2023 season (50 of 52). Folk's percentage in that time period ranks first in the NFL among kickers with at least 20 field goals.

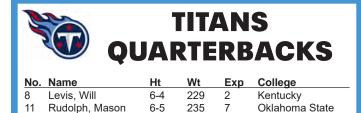

1,017

Career-high rushing yards by Tony Pollard in 2024, his third consecutive season with at least 1,000 rushing yards.

1,255

Scrimmage yards by Tony Pollard in 2024. It is his fourth consecutive season with at least 1,000 scrimmage yards and third consecutive season with at least 1,200 scrimmage yards. He became the third running back in the franchise's "Titans era" (1999 to present) to reach 1,000 scrimmage yards in their first season with the team, joining Chris Johnson (2008) and DeMarco Murray (2016).

#8 • QB WILL LEVIS

6-4, 229, 2nd Year/2nd with Titans, Kentucky Click for complete bio

Quarterback Will Levis was selected by the Titans in the second round (33rd overall) of the 2023 NFL Draft. He was the fourth quarterback chosen in the draft after the Titans traded up in the second round to select him.

In his debut season, Levis recorded starts in all nine games in which he appeared, becoming the third rookie quarterback in franchise history to start at least nine games. Only Vince Young (13 starts in 2006) and Marcus Mariota (12 starts in 2015) preceded him in the accomplishment. Levis' rookie passing totals included 255 attempts, 149 completions, 1,808 yards, eight touchdowns and four interceptions. His 84.2 passer rating was the second best in franchise history by a rookie quarterback (91.5 by Mariota in 2015), and the number also ranked first in NFL history among second-round quarterbacks in their rookie season (minimum 200 attempts). Levis had an additional 57 yards and a touchdown rushing.

Prior to entering the NFL, Levis spent two seasons at the University of Kentucky after transferring from Penn State. In four combined college seasons, he appeared in 39 games with 26 starts. He completed 479 of his 738 passes (64.9 percent) for 5,876 yards with 46 touchdowns and 25 interceptions. He also rushed for 742 yards and 17 touchdowns.

At Kentucky, Levis went 17-7 as a starter, tying Terry Wilson for the second-most quarterback wins since 1993. The two-time team captain completed 418 of 636 passes for 5,233 yards with 43 passing touchdowns and 11 rushing scores for the Wildcats. His six 300-yard passing games were the fourth-most in school history.

As a senior in 2022, he started 11 games at quarterback and connected on 185 of 283 passes for 2,406 yards with 19 passing scores, while ranking fourth in the SEC in pass efficiency (151.9). He finished fifth in the SEC with 19 passing scores.

As a junior in 2021, he transferred from Penn State to Kentucky and started in all 13 games, helping to lead UK to 10 wins for the fourth time in school history. He totaled 3,203 yards total offense, becoming the seventh player in school history to reach 3,000 yards of total offense in a season. He was 233-of-353 passing for 2,826 yards and 24 touchdowns, and he also registered 107 rushes for 376 yards and a team-high tying nine rushing touchdowns.

He is a native of Madison, Conn.

2024 Game Notes:

> At Chicago (9/8), in his first Week 1 start and his 10th career start, completed 19 of 32 passes for 127 yards and a touchdown with two interceptions. He added 36 rushing yards on four carries. In the second quarter, he converted a third-and-15 with a 22-yard pass to Calvin Ridley and tossed a 17-yard touchdown pass to Chig Okonkwo. It was his ninth career touchdown pass.

> Against the New York Jets (9/15), completed 19 of 28 passes for 192 yards with one touchdown and one interception (84.2 passer rating). His 67.9 completion percentage set a career high (min. 20 attempts). He added a career-high 38 rushing yards on four attempts, marking the second consecutive week he posted a career high in rushing. In the first half, he completed 11 of 13 passes, and his 84.6 first-half completion percentage was the second-highest mark of his career (88.9 against Houston, Dec. 17, 2023) through 11 starts. In the second quarter, he converted a third-and-three with a 22-yard pass to Tony Pollard. In the third quarter, his career long 21-yard rushing attempt converted a third-and-one. Also in the third quarter, he completed a 40-yard touchdown pass to Calvin Ridley for his second touchdown pass of the season.

> Against Green Bay (9/22), completed 26 of 34 passes for 260 yards with two touchdowns and two interceptions. His 26 completions were a career high, and his 76.5 completion percentage established a new career high (minimum of 20 pass attempts). His completion percentage also tied Ken Stabler (Sept. 28, 1980 at Cincinnati) for fourth place in franchise history in a game in which a guarterback attempted at least 34 passes behind only Steve McNair (79.4 against Jacksonville on Nov. 4, 2001), Warren Moon (78.9 against Detroit on Nov. 5, 1989) and Neil O'Donnell (77.5 against Cleveland on Sept. 19, 1999). His 92.8 passer rating ranked second in his career in a game with at least 20 attempts. Levis tallied his third career game with two or more touchdown passes. On the team's opening offensive series, he completed a 23-yard pass to Josh Whyle on the first play of the game, added a 20-yard pass to Tyler Boyd, and completed a one-yard touchdown pass to Nick Vannett. In the third quarter, he completed a screen pass for 29 yards to Tyjae Spears, and later on the same drive, he completed an 11-yard touchdown pass to DeAndre Hopkins.

> At Miami (9/30), completed three of four passes for 25 yards with one interception before leaving the game in the first quarter with a right shoulder injury. He added five yards on two rushing attempts.

> Against Indianapolis (10/13), completed 16 of 27 passes for 95 yards with one touchdown and one interception, and he added three rushing attempts for 15 yards. In the first quarter, he tossed a nine-yard touchdown pass to Nick Westbrook-Ikhine to register his 13th career touchdown pass (fifth in 2024). He found DeAndre Hopkins for a 23-yard gain in the second quarter.

> At Buffalo (10/20), at Detroit (10/27) and against New England (11/3), he was inactive with a right shoulder injury.

> At the Los Angeles Chargers (11/10), he returned to the starting lineup after missing three games with a shoulder injury. He completed 18 of 23 passes for 175 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions. His 78.3 completion percentage established a career high, and his 127.4 passer rating ranked second in his career in a game with at least 20 attempts. In the first quarter, he completed a 41-yard touchdown pass to Calvin Ridley—the fourth-longest touchdown pass of his career, and he added a 15-yard touchdown toss to Ridley in the fourth quarter. It was his fourth career game with at least two touchdown passes. He added a career-high 41 yards on five rushing attempts.

> Against Minnesota (11/17), completed 17 of 31 passes for 295 yards with one touchdown and one interception (84.7 passer rating). His 9.52 yards per pass attempt set a career high, and his 17.4 yards per completion set a career high and tied for the fifth-highest average in the NFL in 2024 in a game in which a guarterback attempted at least 20 passes. He tied his career high with three completions of at least 25 yards, and he also tied his career high with seven rushing attempts for a total of 18 yards. In the third quarter, he completed a career-long 98-yard touchdown pass to Nick Westbrook-Ikhine. It tied for the longest pass in franchise history, matching Jacky Lee's 98-yard touchdown pass to Willard Dewveall against San Diego on Nov. 25, 1962. It also tied Lee's pass to Dewveall for the second-longest play from scrimmage in franchise history behind Derrick Henry's 99-yard touchdown run against Jacksonville on Dec. 6, 2018. His 98-yard touchdown pass was the longest in the NFL in 2024 (through Nov. 17) and the league's longest pass since Buffalo's Josh Allen completed a 98-yard touchdown pass to Gabe Davis against Pittsburgh on Oct. 9, 2022. The 98-yard touchdown pass was the 25th pass in NFL history of either 98 yards (12 times) or 99 yards (13). In the first quarter, he helped convert a third-and-nine with a 21-yard pass to Calvin Ridley. On the final play of the third quarter, he helped convert a third-and-11 with a 33-yard connection with Bryce Oliver.

> At Houston (11/24), completed 18 of 24 passes for 278 yards with two touchdowns and one interception. His 123.3 passer rating and his 75.0 completion percentage both ranked third in his career in a game in which he attempted at least 20 passes. He was credited with his second career game-winning drive after completing the go-ahead 70-yard touchdown pass to Chig Okonkwo in the fourth quarter. He completed his first 11 passes of the game to set a career high, and since 1997, Levis' 11 straight completions to begin a game tied for the second most by a Titans/Oilers signal caller (19 by Marcus Mariota at Houston on Nov. 26, 2018; 11 by Ryan Tannehill against Kansas City on Oct. 24, 2021). His statistics during the first two quarters at Houston included 11-of-12 passing for 177 yards with one touchdown, no interceptions and a passer rating of 146.5. His 177 passing yards in the first half set a career high for passing yards in the first half of a game. In the first quarter, he found Nick Westbrook-Ikhine for a 38-yard touchdown. In the second guarter, he helped convert a thirdand-11 with a 63-yard pass to Calvin Ridley. At the time, it was the second-

He added a 30-yard pass to Tony Pollard in the third quarter. He became the franchise's 19th player to reach 20 career touchdown passes.

➤ Against Jacksonville (12/8), completed 19 of 32 passes for 168 yards and no interceptions. He helped convert a third-and-one with a 23-yard pass to Josh Whyle in the second quarter, and he found Calvin Ridley for a 30-yard gain in the fourth quarter. He passed Billy Volek (3,505) and Don Trull (3,538) for the 15th-most passing yards in franchise history.

> Against Cincinnati (12/15), completed eight of 12 passes for 89 yards with three interceptions. He helped convert a third-and-nine with a 40-yard completion to Tyler Boyd in the first quarter.

SECOND-ROUND QUARTERBACKS

From the first common draft in 1967 to 2023, there were 63 quarterbacks selected in the second round of the NFL Draft. Among those with at least 200 passing attempts in their rookie season, Titans quarterback Will Levis delivered the highest passer rating. Levis was 149-of-255 passing for 1,808 yards with eight touchdowns and four interceptions, amounting to an 84.2 passer rating. The previous leader was Charlie Batch, who had an 83.5 passer rating as a rookie with the Detroit Lions in 1998.

Levis' 58.4 completion percentage also ranked as the best of any second-rounder in his rookie campaign. Former Cincinnati Bengals quarterback Andy Dalton previously held the top spot with a 58.1 completion percentage as a rookie in 2011.

#20 • RB TONY POLLARD

6-0, 209, 6th Year/1st with Titans, Memphis Click for complete bio

Running back Tony Pollard is in his sixth NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans. The Memphis native was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 14, 2024.

2019 NFL Draft. During his time in Dallas, he appeared in 79 games with 23 starts, totaling 3,621 rushing yards and 23 touchdowns on 762 carries. With an additional 176 receptions for 1,319 yards and five receiving touchdowns, he reached 1,000 scrimmage yards in each of his final three years in Dallas while also returning 63 kickoffs for 1,500 yards, including one return for a score.

In 2023, his first season as the lead running back in Dallas, Pollard started all 17 games for the first time in his career and led the team with 1,005 rushing yards on a career-high 252 carries (4.0 avg.) with six touchdowns.

In 2022, he set career marks with 193 carries for 1,007 yards and nine scores, averaging 5.2 yards-per-carry to rank third in the NFL and earn his first Pro Bowl nod.

At the University of Memphis, he played in 40 games at running back and wide receiver, amassing 2,233 yards and 18 touchdowns on offense. He also averaged 30.1 yards per kickoff return and tied an NCAA record with seven kickoff returns for touchdowns.

2024 Game Notes:

> At Chicago (9/8), started in his Titans debut and led the team with 82 rushing yards and a touchdown on 16 carries. He added 12 yards on three receptions to give him 94 scrimmage yards in the contest. In the first quarter, he rushed for a 14-yard gain, and later during the same drive, he crossed the goal line on a 26-yard run. It was his 24th career touchdown run and his 30th total career touchdown (five receiving, one kickoff return). He totaled 54 yards on four carries during the scoring drive. During the contest, he reached 5,000 career scrimmage yards.

> Against the N.Y. Jets (9/15), led the team with 102 scrimmage yards on 22 total touches. He rushed for a team-high 62 yards on 17 attempts and added 40 receiving yards on a team-high five catches. In the second quarter, he converted a third-and-three with a 22-yard reception.

> At Miami (9/30), led the team with 108 scrimmage yards, including 88 rushing yards on 22 carries and 20 yards on a pair of receptions. It was his 18th career game with a minimum of 100 scrimmage yards. His 22 carries tied for the third-highest total of his career. In the fourth quarter, he scored his 25th career rushing touchdown (second of 2024) on a four-yard run. In the third quarter, he rushed for a 41-yard gain to help set up a touchdown on the ensuing play. It was his eighth career carry of 40-plus yards. He added a 16-yard reception in the second quarter.

➤ Against Indianapolis (10/13), led the offense with 93 yards and one score on 17 rushing attempts. On third-and-19 in the second quarter, he scored a touchdown on a 23-yard run. He became the third NFL player in 2024 with two (or more) rushing touchdowns of 20-plus yards, joining Derrick Henry and Kenneth Walker III.

At Buffalo (10/20), recorded a team-high 61 yards on 16 rushing attempts, including a 14-yarder. He added four yards on a pair of receptions.
 During the contest, he reached 4,000 rushing yards for his career (4,021). For the first time in his career, he reached 400 rushing yards within his team's first six games of the season.

> At Detroit (10/27), totaled 94 rushing yards on 20 attempts and added three receptions for 23 yards. He totaled 117 scrimmage yards, reaching 100 scrimmage yards in a game for the 19th time in his career. His 117 scrimmage yards amounted to the ninth-best total of his career. He hit the 20-carry mark for the sixth time in his career. In the first quarter, he rushed for a 17-yard gain. He logged his fourth consecutive game with at least 60 rushing yards, which matched the second-longest such streak of his career (six games in 2022; four games in 2021).

> Against New England (11/3), led the team with a career-high 28 carries for 128 yards, achieving his eighth career 100-yard rushing game. His yardage total was the third-best of his career and his best number in 2024 through eight games. He added 26 yards on three receptions to give him 154 scrimmage yards, which was the second-best scrimmage yard total of his career. It was his second consecutive game with at least 100 scrimmage yards and fourth such performance of 2024, matching his total from 2023. His four such performances in 2024 matched his total from 2023 with the Cowboys. He hit the 600-yard rushing mark (622), reaching the plateau within his team's first eight games for the first time in his career. He joined Chris Johnson and DeMarco Murray as the only players in the franchise's Titans era (1999 to present) to reach at least 500 rushing yards and 100 receiving yards in their first eight games with the team. In the first quarter, he gained 32 yards on a carry to help set up a touchdown on the next play. > At the Los Angeles Chargers (11/10), rushed for 44 yards on nine carries and added 19 yards on four receptions. #2 • RB TYJAE SPEARS

5-11, 195, 2nd Year/2nd with Titans, Tulane Click for complete bio

Running back Tyjae Spears was selected by the Titans in the third round (81st overall) of the 2023 NFL Draft.

As a rookie, Spears did not miss a game and registered one start. He carried the ball 100 times for 453 yards and two touchdowns, and he added 52 receptions for 385 yards and one score. His 838 scrimmage yards ranked seventh in franchise history among rookie running backs, and the total also placed fourth among rookie running backs in 2023 behind Atlanta's Bijan Robinson, Detroit's Jahmyr Gibbs and Miami's De'Von Achane. Spears became the franchise's first rookie running back with at least 50 receptions since Sid Blanks in 1964 (56).

Spears spent four years at Tulane (2019-22) prior to entering the NFL. He appeared in 33 games with 20 starts at running back for the Green Wave, totaling 2,910 yards and 31 touchdowns on 427 carries with an additional 48 receptions for 564 yards and three scores. He ended his career as the school's all-time leader in yards per carry (6.8), tied for second in 100-yard rushing games (15), tied for third in rushing touchdowns (31), fourth in rushing yards per game (85.6) and sixth in rushing yards (2,910) and total touchdowns (34). His 6.8 yards per carry from 2019 to 2022 ranked second in the FBS behind only Alabama-Birmingham running back DeWayne McBride's 7.3-yard average (minimum 400 attempts).

As a junior in 2022, he started all 14 games for the Green Wave, totaling 1,581 yards and 19 touchdowns on 229 rushing attempts and adding 22 receptions for 256 yards and two touchdowns. He tied for the national lead with 21 total touchdowns and tied for third in the country with 19 rushing touchdowns, a total that ranked second in Tulane single-season history. His 1,581 rushing yards led the conference and made up the Green Wave's all-time second-highest single-season total. His nine 100-yard rushing games included eight consecutive such efforts to finish the season. He was named the American Athletic Conference Offensive Player of the Year and also earned first-team All-AAC honors. His efforts helped Tulane earn a 12-2 record and win an American Athletic Conference title.

He is a native of Ponchatoula, La.

6-3, 238, 3rd Year/3rd with Titans, Maryland Click for complete bio

Tight end Chig Okonkwo (pronounced "CHIGG oh-KAHN-kwoh") is in his third NFL season in 2024. He was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (143rd overall) of the 2022 NFL Draft.

In his first two campaigns, Okonkwo did not miss a game and totaled 19 starts. His two-year statistics included 86 receptions for 978 yards and four touchdowns. His 11.4-yard receiving average tied for sixth among all NFL tight ends from 2022 to 2023.

Okonkwo started 11 games in 2023 and finished the season with 54 receptions for 528 yards and one touchdown. He ranked second on the team in receptions and receiving yards.

During his rookie season, Okonkwo appeared in all 17 games with eight starts and totaled 32 receptions for 450 yards (14.1 avg.) and three touchdowns. His vardage total ranked second on the team. He also tied for fifth on the team with seven special teams tackles. He was named to the Pro Football Writers of America All-Rookie team.

Okonkwo's 450 receiving yards in 2022 established a new record for franchise rookie tight ends, surpassing Ben Troupe's 329 yards in 2004. Okonkwo tied Chris Dressel (32 receptions in 1983) for the third-best reception total among all Titans/Oilers rookie tight ends, trailing only Bo Scaife (37 in 2005) and Troupe (33 in 2004), and he became the second rookie tight end in franchise history with at least three touchdown catches, joining Dressel (four in 1983).

The Powder Springs, Ga., native appeared in 37 games with 20 starts over four seasons (2018-21) at Maryland and caught 77 passes for 717 yards and eight touchdowns. He added three carries for 72 yards and three touchdowns, including a career-long rush of 54 yards.

As a senior in 2021, he started all 13 games and posted career-high marks with 52 catches for 447 yards and a team-leading five touchdowns. His 52 receptions ranked second in Terrapins history for a single season by a tight end, behind only former Titans tight end Frank Wycheck (58 in 1990). Okonkwo's 447 receiving yards were the most by a Terps tight end in a season since Vernon Davis (871 in 2005).

He sat out the 2020 season with myocarditis due to COVID-19. Prior to then, he saw action in 12 games (four starts) as a freshman and 12 games (three starts) as a sophomore.

2024 Game Notes:

> At Chicago (9/8), started and caught two passes for 15 yards and a touchdown. He hauled in a 17-yard touchdown pass from Will Levis in the second quarter for his fifth career touchdown reception.

> Against the N.Y. Jets (9/15), totaled 16 yards on three receptions. He reached the 1,000-yard receiving mark for his career (1,009), becoming the franchise's 15th tight end to reach the plateau.

- > Against Green Bay (9/22), totaled 15 yards on a pair of receptions.
- > At Miami (9/30), caught one pass for five yards.
- > Against Indianapolis (10/13), totaled six yards on three receptions.

> At Buffalo (10/20), recorded a team-high 50 receiving yards on four catches. It was his fifth career game with at least 50 receiving yards. In the first quarter, he caught a 26-yard pass from Mason Rudolph for the seventh-longest reception of his career. During the contest, he reached the

> At Detroit (10/27), totaled 14 yards on two receptions, including an 18yard catch in the third guarter.

> Against New England (11/3), totaled 38 yards on three receptions, including a 21-yard catch in the third guarter to set up a first-and-goal.

- > At the Los Angeles Chargers (11/10), caught one pass for 14 yards.
- ≻ Against Minnesota (11/17), totaled 19 yards on a pair of receptions.

At Houston (11/24), took a pass from Will Levis 70 yards for a touchdown in the fourth quarter for the longest reception of his career. The reception gave him a career high for receiving yards in a game. His 70-yarder was the franchise's longest catch by a tight end since Jared Cook's 80-yard score on Oct. 2, 2011, and it was the NFL's longest reception by a tight end since Detroit's T.J. Hockenson had an 81-yard reception (no touchdown) for Detroit against Seattle on Oct. 2, 2022. Okonkwo recorded the longest touchdown reception by an NFL tight end since Cleveland's David Njoku scored on a 71-yard catch against the L.A. Chargers on Oct. 10, 2021. Tracked by Next Gen Stats at 20.03 miles per hour during his touchdown catch, he reached the fastest speed by an NFL tight end on a touchdownscoring play from scrimmage since Week 9 of 2023, when then-Falcons tight end Jonnu Smith hit 21.15 MPH on a 60-yard touchdown reception against the Vikings.

> At Washington (12/1), totaled 27 yards on three receptions. In the second quarter, he converted a third-and-10 with a 14-yard grab.

> Against Jacksonville (12/8), totaled eight yards on three receptions.

Against Cincinnati (12/15), led the offense and established a career high with eight receptions for 59 yards. His yardage total was the fifthbest of his career. He became the first Titans tight end with eight or more receptions in a game since Anthony Firkser had eight catches against the Houston Texans on Oct. 18, 2020. He also drew a pass interference penalty that led to a first-and-goal and a Titans touchdown in the first quarter.

> At Indianapolis (12/22), led the offense with nine receptions and 81 receiving yards, establishing career highs in both categories. He scored his second career two-point conversion on a catch in the fourth quarter. He became the third tight end in the franchise's "Titans era" to post eight or more receptions in consecutive games, joining Jared Cook (Dec, 18-24, 2011) and Delanie Walker (Dec. 27, 2015-Jan. 3, 2016). He also became the team's first tight end with nine or more receptions in a game since Delanie Walker had nine catches against Green Bay on Nov. 13, 2016.

in the second round (55th overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft.

During his time in Cincinnati, he played in 120 games with 77 starts, plus an additional seven postseason contests with six starts. His production at the Bengals included 513 career receptions for 6,000 yards and 31 touchdowns, and he departed Cincinnati ranked fourth in franchise history in receptions and seventh in receiving yards.

From 2016 through 2023, Boyd ranked first in the NFL in receptions (390), receiving yards (4,813) and first downs (233) among wide receivers from the slot formation, per Next Gen Stats.

During his final campaign in Cincinnati in 2023, Boyd ranked second on Cincinnati's offense with 67 receptions and 667 receiving yards, including two touchdown grabs. It was his sixth consecutive season with a minimum of 58 receptions and 667 receiving yards, and he was one of only nine NFL players to do so each year from 2018 through 2023. Boyd appeared in all but four contests during that six-year stretch.

In 2019, Boyd achieved career highs with 15 starts, 90 receptions and 1,046 receiving yards during his fourth NFL season.

A native of Clairton, Pa., Boyd attended the University of Pittsburgh, where he played three seasons (2013-15) and was named first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference in each of his final two seasons. He finished his collegiate career as Pittburgh's all-time leader in both receptions (254) and receiving yards (3,361) and finished second at Pitt in career all-purpose yards (5,243), trailing only Tony Dorsett (7,117).

#16 • WR TREYLON BURKS

6-2, 225, 3rd Year/3rd with Titans, Arkansas Click for complete bio

Wide receiver TreyIon Burks is in his third NFL season in 2024. He was selected by the Titans in the first round (18th overall) of the 2022 NFL Draft.

Through his first two seasons, Burks totaled 49 receptions for 665 yards and one touchdown in 22 games (15 starts). That included 16 catches for 221 yards in 2023.

As a rookie, Burks appeared in 11 games with six starts, totaling 33 receptions for 444 yards and one touchdown. His reception total tied for third place on the team, while his yardage total tied for third on the squad. Among NFL rookies in 2022, Burks' 444 receiving yards ranked ninth.

In three seasons (2019-21) at the University of Arkansas, Burks appeared in 32 career games with 30 starts. He totaled 146 receptions for 2,399 yards and 18 touchdowns to go along with 32 rushing attempts for 222 yards and one score. He returned 13 punts for 134 yards (10.3-yard average) and returned 11 kickoff returns for 226 yards (20.5 avg.).

At the conclusion of his collegiate career, he ranked sixth in Razorbacks history in career receptions and receiving yards, and his touchdown reception total tied for fifth all-time. He set an Arkansas record with 10 career 100-yard receiving games, including a school-record six 100yard receiving performances in his final year.

Burks earned All-SEC honors in each of his three seasons: in 2019. second-team All-SEC as a returner and All-Freshman as a receiver; secondteam All-SEC in 2020; and first-team All-SEC in 2021.

The Warren, Ark., native was drafted with the highest pick of any Arkansas player since Darren McFadden was taken fourth overall in 2008, and Burks was the first Arkansas wide receiver to be selected in the first round since Matt Jones was taken 21st overall by Jacksonville in 2006.

As a junior in 2021, Burks was named first-team All-SEC after totaling 66 receptions (seventh in the SEC) for 1,104 yards (fourth) and 11 touchdowns (fourth). His 92.0 receiving yards per game ranked third in the SEC behind only Jameson Williams (104.8) and Wan'Dale Robinson (102.6).

As a sophomore in 2020, he was named second-team All-SEC after contributing 51 receptions for 820 yards and seven touchdowns. His 91.1 receiving yards per game ranked third in the SEC behind only Elijah Moore (149.1) and DeVonta Smith (142.8).

while totaling eight career 100-yard receiving games to tie for third in the Alabama record books.

2024 Game Notes:

> At Chicago (9/8), started in his Titans debut and led the offense with 50 receiving yards on three caches. He converted a third-and-15 with a 22-yard reception in the second quarter.

Against the N.Y. Jets (9/15), led the team with 77 receiving yards on four catches, including a touchdown, and added a rushing touchdown. On a drive in the first quarter, he converted a third-and-five with a 15-yard catch and capped the series with his first career rushing touchdown on a 10-yard run. It was the team's first rushing touchdown by a wide receiver since A.J. Brown's 49-yarder against New Orleans on Dec. 22, 2019. In the third quarter, he registered his first receiving touchdown with the Titans on a 40-yard pass from Will Levis. He became the first Titans wide receiver with a rushing touchdown and a receiving touchdown in the same game since Nate Washington accomplished the feat against Indianapolis on Oct. 30, 2011. It was his 10th consecutive game with at least three receptions.

> Against Green Bay (9/22), caught one pass for nine yards.

> At Miami (9/30), caught one pass for five yards and added a 10-yard rushing attempt.

> At Buffalo (10/20), totaled 42 yards on three receptions. He tallied a 33yard reception on the final play of the first half.

> At Detroit (10/27), led the team with 10 receptions for 143 yards. His 10 receptions tied his career high (Dec. 20, 2020 vs. Tampa Bay), and his 143 receiving yards tied for the third-best total of his career. He became the first Titans player with 10 receptions in a game since A.J. Brown (11) against San Francisco on Dec. 23, 2021, and Ridley's 143 yards were the most by a Titans player since Brown's same performance against San Francisco. Ridley became the first Titans player with 100 receiving yards since DeAndre Hopkins (124) at Miami on Dec. 11, 2023. In the first quarter, he had six receptions for 118 yards, becoming the only Titans/ Oilers player with six or more receptions in the first quarter of a game since at least 1978. The most recent time a Titans player had six-plus catches in any single quarter was Nate Washington (six receptions) in the fourth quarter at Buffalo on Oct. 21, 2012. Ridley was the first Titans player over the 100-yard receiving mark in the first quarter since Drew Bennett (124) at Indianapolis on Dec. 5, 2004. He helped set up a touchdown in the first quarter by catching a 26-yard pass from Mason Rudolph, and later in the first quarter, he recorded a 47-yard catch.

> Against New England (11/3), led the team with five receptions for 73 yards. In the second quarter, he notched a 25-yard reception, and in overtime, he posted receptions of 16 yards and 14 yards to help set up the game-winning field goal.

> At the Los Angeles Chargers (11/10), led the team with five receptions, 84 receiving yards and a pair of touchdown grabs. It was his seventh career game with two or more touchdown receptions and his first such game as a member of the Titans. In the first quarter, he caught a 41-yard touchdown pass from Will Levis, recording the fourth-longest touchdown reception of his career. He added a 15-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter. He logged his fourth consecutive game with a catch of at least 25 yards, matching his career-best streak (2020).

> Against Minnesota (11/17), produced a team-high four receptions for 58 yards. In the first quarter, he converted a third-and-nine with a 21-yard grab. He tallied his fifth consecutive game with a catch of at least 20 yards, matching his career-best streak (2018 and 2023). He went over 500 yards in a season (541) for the fifth time in his career.

> At Houston (11/24), totaled a team-high 93 yards on five receptions, logging his fifth consecutive game with at least four receptions. In the second quarter, he helped convert a third-and-11 with a 63-yard reception, which tied for third-longest reception of Ridley's career. It was his sixth consecutive game with a catch of at least 20 yards, exceeding his previous career-best streak of five games in both 2018 and 2023. He reached the 600-yard receiving mark for the fifth season of his career.

> At Washington (12/1), caught two passes for 45 yards. During a touchdown drive in the second quarter, he converted a third-and-21 with a 30-yard reception. He went over the 5,000-yard receiving mark for his career (5,037). Additionally, he logged his seventh consecutive game with a catch of at least 20 yards to extend his career-best streak, which was the team's third-longest such streak since the beginning of the 2000 campaign behind only a streak of 12 games by Delanie Walker (2015-16) and a streak of 10 games by Kevin Dyson (2001).

> Against Jacksonville (12/8), led the offense with seven receptions and 59 receiving yards. It was his 19th career game with seven or more receptions. He reached the 700-yard receiving mark in a season (738) for the fifth time in his career, and he reached the 50-reception mark in a season (50) for the fifth time in his career. In the fourth quarter, he registered a 30-yard catch, giving him three consecutive games with a reception of at least 30 yards.

> Against Cincinnati (12/15), totaled 41 yards on three receptions. In the third quarter, he was credited with a 19-yard rushing attempt. With 21 yards on a pass from Mason Rudolph in the fourth quarter, he logged his ninth consecutive game with a catch of at least 20 yards to extend his careerbest streak and the third-longest such streak by a Titans player since the beginning of the 2000 campaign (12 by Delanie Walker, 2015-16; 10 by Kevin Dyson, 2001).

> At Indianapolis (12/22), caught three passes for 78 yards, including a 38-yard touchdown on a pass from Mason Rudolph in the first quarter. It was his 40th career touchdown reception and his fourth touchdown grab of 2024. He became the 21st active player with 5,000 receiving yards and 40 receiving touchdowns. He passed the 800-yard receiving mark (857) for the fifth season in his career. It was his 10th consecutive game with a catch of at least 20 yards to extend the best such streak of his career and tie Kevin Dyson (10 consecutive games in 2001) for the second-longest such streak by a Titans player since the beginning of the 2000 campaign behind the 12 games by Delanie Walker from 2015 to 2016.

#15 • WR NICK WESTBROOK-IKHINE

6-2, 211, 5th Year/5th with Titans, Indiana Click for complete bio

Wide receiver Nick Westbrook-Ikhine is in his fifth NFL season in 2024. He was originally signed by the Titans as a rookie free agent on May 7, 2020.

During his first four seasons in the NFL, no player appeared in more games in a Titans uniform than Westbrook-Ikhine, who logged 61 games in that stretch with 30 starts. He totaled 94 receptions for 1,276 yards and 10 touchdowns.

From the beginning of his second year in the NFL (2021) through 2023, Westbrook-Ikhine led the Titans in receptions (91), receiving yards (1,243), touchdown catches (10) and receptions for first downs (59).

The 2023 campaign was the third consecutive season for Westbrook-Ikhine with at least 25 receptions, 370 receiving yards and three touchdowns. He registered 28 catches for 370 yards and three scores in 14 games (nine starts) before finishing the season on injured reserve.

In 2022, Westbrook-Ikhine appeared in all 17 games with a careerhigh 13 starts. He posted 25 catches for 397 yards and three touchdowns.

In 2021, he played in 16 games with seven starts. He ranked second on the team and set career highs with 38 receptions, 476 receiving yards and four touchdown catches, and he added three tackles on special teams. Westbrook-Ikhine was named the team's 2021 recipient of the Ed Block Courage Award.

As a rookie in 2020, he appeared in 14 games with one start and totaled three receptions for 33 yards, two special teams tackles and one reception for a two-point conversion. In one playoff game, he registered two catches for 17 yards and a special teams tackle.

A native of Lake Mary, Fla., he appeared in 52 games with 36 starts at Indiana University, where he totaled 144 receptions for 2,226 yards with 16 touchdowns over four seasons. He ranked sixth in school history in catches, seventh in yardage and touchdowns, and tied for seventh in 100-yard receiving games (six). He became the seventh Hoosier to reach 125 receptions and 2,000 yards. As a senior in 2019, he caught 42 passes for 572 yards and five touchdowns.

2024 Game Notes:

> At Chicago (9/8), led the team and set a career high with two special teams tackles.

> Against Indianapolis (10/13), caught a nine-yard touchdown pass from Will Levis in the first quarter. He notched his 11th career touchdown reception on his first catch of 2024.

> At Buffalo (10/20), totaled two receptions for 10 yards and a touchdown. In the second quarter, he caught a four-yard touchdown pass from Mason Rudolph, giving him his second touchdown reception of 2024 and his 12th career touchdown grab. It was the first time in his career he recorded a touchdown reception in consecutive games.

> At Detroit (10/27), totaled 39 yards and a touchdown on a pair of receptions. In the second quarter, he caught a five-yard touchdown pass from Mason Rudolph, and later in the second quarter, he added a 34-yard grab. He extended his career-long streak to three consecutive games with a touchdown reception, becoming the first Titans player to do so since A.J. Brown in 2020 (five consecutive games). He secured his fourth consecutive season with three or more touchdown receptions.

> Against New England (11/3), tied for the team lead with five receptions, totaling 50 yards and a touchdown. It was his fourth career game with five or more receptions. In the third quarter, he converted a third-and-10 with a 13yard grab, and in the fourth quarter, he caught a six-yard touchdown pass from Mason Rudolph on third-and-goal to give the Titans a 17-10 lead. He logged his fourth consecutive game with a touchdown reception, marking the 14th occasion in franchise history that a player achieved the feat. The most recent player to do so was A.J. Brown (five-game streak) in 2020. Westbrook-Ikhine also became the fourth undrafted player in the franchise's "Titans era" (1999 to present) to produce 100 career receptions for the team (104), joining wide receivers Nate Washington (307 receptions with the Titans) and Drew Bennett (273) and tight end Anthony Firkser (106). Westbrook-Ikhine joined Bennett as the only members of the group who initially entered the NFL with the Titans. His four touchdown receptions in 2024 matched his career high (four in 2021) and increased his career total to 14 touchdown catches.

> At the Los Angeles Chargers (11/10), totaled 31 yards on three receptions.

Against Minnesota (11/17), led the offense with 117 yards on two receptions, including a touchdown. His yardage total ranked second in his career. In the third quarter, he caught a 98-yard touchdown pass from Will Levis. The play tied for the longest reception in franchise history, matching Willard Dewveall's 98-yard touchdown reception on a pass from Jacky Lee against San Diego on Nov. 25, 1962. It tied Dewveall's catch for the second-longest play from scrimmage in franchise history behind Derrick Henry's 99-yard touchdown run against Jacksonville on Dec. 6, 2018. His 98-yard reception was the longest in the NFL in 2024 (through Nov. 17) and the league's longest reception since Gabe Davis' 98-yard touchdown reception for Buffalo against Pittsburgh on Oct. 9, 2022. It was the 25th reception in NFL history of either 98 yards (12 times) or 99 yards (13). He registered his third career 100-yard game. Additionally, he set a career high with his fifth touchdown reception of the season, beating his previous high of four touchdown grabs in 2021.

> At Houston (11/24), totaled 48 yards and a touchdown on a pair of receptions. In the first quarter, he hauled in a 38-yard touchdown pass from Will Levis to register his sixth touchdown reception in a seven-game stretch. He became the team's first player to register a touchdown catch in six or more games in a season since A.J. Brown (10) and Jonnu Smith (six) accomplished the feat in 2020. His six touchdown receptions from Week 6 to Week 12 ranked third in the NFL.

> At Washington (12/1), recorded a team-high 61 yards on three receptions, including a pair of touchdowns. In the second quarter, he caught a 27-yard touchdown pass from Will Levis, and the duo connected again in the fourth quarter for a 17-yard touchdown. Westbrook-Ikhine produced his seventh and eighth touchdown receptions in an eight-game span. It was his second career game with two touchdown receptions, matching the career high he set against the Denver Broncos on Nov. 13, 2022. He became the team's first player with eight receiving touchdowns over an eight-game span since A.J. Brown from Oct. 13 to Nov. 29, 2020, and he also became the team's first player to register a touchdown catch in seven or more games in a season since Brown (10) accomplished the feat in 2020. It was his third consecutive game with at least one touchdown catch. He was the team's first player with eight touchdown catches in a season since A.J. Brown (11) and Jonnu Smith (eight) achieved the feat in 2020.

> Against Jacksonville (12/8), hauled in a 19-yard pass in the third quarter.

Against Cincinnati (12/15), totaled nine yards on a pair of receptions.

> At Indianapolis (12/22), totaled 17 yards and a touchdown on two receptions. In the fourth quarter, he caught a six-yard touchdown pass from Mason Rudolph for his ninth touchdown reception of 2024 and his 19th career touchdown reception. His nine touchdown receptions in 2024 put him in a tie for the 10th-best total in franchise history. His nine touchdowns came in an 11-game span. Westbrook-Ikhine became the team's first player to register a touchdown catch in eight or more games in a season since A.J. Brown (10) accomplished the feat in 2020.

Nicholas Petit-Frere (pronounced "puh-TEET FRAIR") is in his third NFL season in 2024. He was selected by the Titans with the 69th overall pick in the third round of the 2022 NFL Draft.

In 2023, Petit-Frere was limited to three games and two starts. He started one game at right tackle and one contest at left tackle before he was placed on injured reserve on Nov. 11.

As a rookie, Petit-Frere started 16 games at right tackle. He joined Michael Roos (2005), Chance Warmack (2013) and Jack Conklin (2016) as the only offensive linemen in the franchise's "Titans era" (1999–present) to start at least 16 games as a rookie. Petit-Frere helped running back Derrick Henry rush for 1,538 yards, which ranked second in the NFL.

In four seasons at Ohio State, Petit-Frere saw action in 35 career games with 20 starts. He was a member of three consecutive Big Ten Conference championship teams (2018-20) and was a part of two Ohio State teams that qualified for the College Football Playoffs (2019-2020).

As a junior in 2021, he was named first team All-Big Ten by both the coaches and media after starting all 12 games at left tackle, helping Ohio State lead the nation in total offense and scoring offense. He added first-team All-American honors by the Football Writers Association of America and CBS Sports.

As a sophomore in 2020, he received second-team All-Big Ten honors after starting seven games at right tackle for the eighth-ranked rushing attack in the country. He was an Academic All-Big Ten selection.

STATISTICS

Dillon Radunz (pronounced "RAY-dinz") is in his fourth NFL season in 2024. He was selected by the Titans with the 53rd overall pick in the second round of the 2021 NFL Draft.

In 2023, he returned from a season-ending knee injury during the previous season to record career highs with 16 games played and 11 starts.

He logged starts at four different offensive line positions: seven starts at right tackle, two starts at left guard, one start at left tackle and one start at right guard. Radunz was voted by his teammates as the Ed Block Courage Award winner for the Titans in 2023.

In 2022, he appeared in 11 games, including four starts. He started two games at left guard and two games at right guard. His season came to an end on Dec. 21 when he was placed on injured reserve.

As a rookie in 2021, he appeared in 12 games with one start at left tackle.

A native of Becker, Minn., Radunz declared for the NFL Draft after North Dakota State's lone fall game his senior season, choosing to forego the Bisons' spring football schedule.

He started 32 collegiate games—all at left tackle—at NDSU and was a member of four Missouri Valley Football Conference championship teams and three NCAA Division I football national championships.

#77 • G PETER SKORONSKI

6-4, 313, 2nd Year/2nd with Titans, Northwestern Click for complete bio

Peter Skoronski was selected by the Titans with the 11th overall pick in the first round of the 2023 NFL Draft.

As a rookie in 2023, Skoronski started 14 games at left guard and helped running back Derrick Henry finish second in the NFL with 1,167 rushing yards. He was one of nine NFL rookie offensive linemen in 2023 to register 14 or more starts, and he joined Nicholas Petit-Frere (2022), Jack Conklin (2016), Chance Warmack (2013), Michael Roos (2005) and Jacob Bell (2004) as the only rookie offensive linemen to record at least 14 starts for the franchise during its "Titans era" (1999–present).

During a three-year career at Northwestern University, Skoronski started all 33 games at left tackle without missing a game. He earned second-team All-Big Ten honors as a freshman and first-team recognition in each of the next two seasons. He became the first offensive lineman in program history to earn two All-Big Ten first-team awards.

As a junior in 2022, he was named the Rimington-Pace Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year—the first ever by a Northwestern lineman—after starting all 12 games at left tackle. He was the first player in school history to become a unanimous first-team All-American and was named first-team All-Big Ten by coaches and media. He finished as a finalist for the 2022 Outland Trophy.

When the Titans drafted Skoronski, he became Northwestern's highest draft selection since guard Chris Hinton went to Denver with the fourth pick in 1983, and he was the 11th player in program history to be picked in the first round.

His grandfather, Bob Skoronski Sr., was a left tackle for the Green Bay Packers, playing nine total seasons with the franchise. He was a permanent offensive captain for the Packers under Vince Lombardi and played on five NFL championship teams. In 1976, he was inducted into the Packers Hall of Fame. Bob Skoronski Jr., Peter's father, was an All-Ivy League football player at Yale.

Peter Skoronski attended Maine South High School in Park Ridge, Ill.

> Corey Levin was originally selected by the Titans in the sixth round (217th overall) of the 2017 NFL Draft.

> After appearing in 16 games for the Titans in 2023, Levin was re-signed as a free agent during training camp in 2024.

> In 2022, he appeared in all 17 games, including starts at center in the final three games of the season.

He played in 16 games during his previous stint with the Titans (2017-18) before spending time with Denver and Chicago in 2019 and New England in 2020. He signed with the Jets during the 2021 offseason and was there through the 2021 preseason. He was claimed by the Titans off waivers from the Jets on Sept. 1, 2021.

In 2018, he appeared in all 16 games for the Titans with one start (Oct. 21 vs. the Chargers in London).

> As a rookie in 2017, Levin spent the entire season on the 53-man roster but did not see game action. He was inactive 14 times and did not play in two other contests.

> A native of Dacula, Ga., he appeared in 52 career games with 51 starts at Chattanooga, 45 of which were consecutive. He developed versatility over his four-year collegiate career, making starts at left guard, and both tackle spots.

61 - OL JOHN OJUKWU

6-5, 309, 1st Year/1st with Titans, Boise State

> John Ojukwu (last name pronounced "oh-JOOkoo") was signed by the Titans as a rookie free agent on May 12, 2023.

> As a rookie in 2023, he spent the beginning of the campaign on the practice squad before being promoted to the 53-man roster in Week 16. He appeared in three games, logging three starts as a jumbo tight end.

In six seasons at Boise State (2017-22), he played in 56 games with 51 starts. He made 18 starts as a right tackle during his first two seasons and then transitioned to left tackle and started in all 33 games he played in his final three seasons. He ended his career with 43 consecutive starts.

> As a graduate in 2022, he was the only Bronco to start all 14 games on offense. He did not allow a sack and did not commit a false start or a holding penalty. He was a team captain and was named to the All-Mountain West first team

> As a senior in 2021, he started all 12 games at left tackle and was named to the All-Mountain West first team.

> He is a native of Boise, Idaho.

76 - OL ANDREW RUPCICH

6-6, 318, 1st Year/1st with Titans, Culver-Stockton

> Andrew Rupcich (last name pronounced "RUPPsitch") was signed by the Titans as a rookie free agent on May 13, 2022.

> In 2023, he spent the majority of the campaign on the practice squad before finishing the season on the 53-man roster. He appeared in five games and notched two starts at right guard.

> In 2022, he spent all 17 games on the Titans practice squad. He spent most of the 2023 campaign on the practice squad prior to being promoted to the 53-man roster in Week 16.

During his college career, Rupcich appeared in 48 games, registering 48 consecutive starts at left tackle. He became the first three-time All-American at the same position in the NAIA.

> As a fifth-year senior in 2021, he started all 11 games at left tackle and earned first-team All-American honors from the Associated Press, NAIA, and the American Football Coaches Association.

He is a native of Wonder Lake, III.

2024 Notes:

Placed on injured reserve on Nov. 2, 2024.

#69 • DE SEBASTIAN JOSEPH-DAY

6-4, 310, 6th Year/1st with Titans, Rutgers Click for complete bio

Defensive lineman Sebastian Joseph-Day is in his sixth NFL season and his first season with the Titans in 2024. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 20, 2024.

Prior to arriving in Tennessee, Joseph-Day totaled 71 games played and 68 starts for the Los Angeles Rams (2018-21), Los Angeles Chargers (2022-23) and San Francisco 49ers (2023). His statistical totals during that time included 230 tackles, 11 sacks, one interception, five passes defensed, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery.

In 2023, Joseph-Day started the first 14 games of the season with the Chargers and collected 32 tackles, three sacks and 25 quarterback pressures. After being released by the Chargers, he was signed by the 49ers as a free agent on Dec. 27 and saw action as a reserve in the final two regular season contests, amassing five tackles. He then appeared as a reserve in all three of the 49ers' postseason contests and registered three tackles, including a tackle in Super Bowl LVIII.

Joseph-Day originally entered the NFL as a sixth-round pick (195th overall) of the Rams in 2018. After not seeing game action his entire rookie campaign, he totaled 38 starts and six sacks over the next three seasons with the Rams, culminating with an appearance in the Rams' Super Bowl LVI victory. He then joined the Chargers during the 2022 offseason and played in 30 regular season games with the club before heading to San Francisco.

The Stroudsburg, Pa., native played five seasons at Rutgers, where he amassed 90 total tackles, 3.5 sacks, two passes defensed, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery.

2024 Game Notes:

> At Chicago (9/8), started in his Titans debut and totaled three tackles, one sack, two quarterback pressures, two tackles for loss and one pass defensed. He became the first Titans defender to reach each of those marks in a game since Denico Autry accomplished the feat against the Houston Texans on Dec. 24, 2022. Joseph-Day was credited with a 19-yard sack of Caleb Williams in the first quarter. The 19 sack yards on the play were the most yards on a single sack by a Titans player since Dec. 1, 2021, when Derick Roberson sacked Jacksonville's Trevor Lawrence for a 20-yard loss.

Against the N.Y. Jets (9/15), tallied a pair of tackles.
 Against Green Bay (9/22), posted one tackle.

At Miami (9/30), tied for second on the team with six tackles, including a sack. He sacked Tyler Huntley for a 10-yard loss in the third quarter, picking up his 13th career sack.

> Against Indianapolis (10/13), contributed two tackles and a quarterback pressure.

> At Buffalo (10/20), recorded one tackle and two quarterback pressures.

> At Detroit (10/27), posted four tackles and a quarterback pressure.

> Against New England (11/3), totaled two tackles, including a half sack, and added three quarterback pressures. In the third quarter, he combined with Jack Gibbens to sack Drake Maye for a seven-yard loss. The play gave him 2.5 sacks in 2024 and 13.5 sacks in his career.

- > At the Los Angeles Chargers (11/10), credited with three tackles.
- Against Minnesota (11/17), posted a tackle.
- > At Houston (11/24), totaled a pair of tackles and a quarterback pressure.
- > At Washington (12/1), totaled three tackles and a quarterback pressure.
- > Against Jacksonville (12/8), posted five tackles.
- Against Cincinnati (12/15), credited with two tackles.
- > At Indianapolis (12/22), posted five tackles.

#98 • DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

6-4, 305, 6th Year/6th with Titans, Mississippi State Click for complete bio

Defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons is in his sixth NFL season in 2024. He was selected by the Titans in the first round (19th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft.

During his first five seasons, Simmons appeared in 68 games with 66 starts and earned two Pro Bowl berths. The three-time team captain (2021-

23) accumulated 240 tackles, 26.5 sacks, 20 passes defensed, three forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries. He was third on the defense in sacks during that span behind only Harold Landry III (37) and Denico Autry (28.5).

In 2023, although he was limited to 12 games and finished the season on injured reserve, he managed to register 5.5 sacks, marking his third consecutive season to reach that number or higher. He added 44 tackles, 38 quarterback pressures, 11 tackles for loss, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and one pass defensed. For the first time in his career, he received the honor of the team's nomination for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year award.

In 2022, Simmons appeared in 15 games and anchored a unit that ranked first in the NFL in rushing defense (76.9 opponent rushing yards per game). En route to his second consecutive Pro Bowl appearance, he totaled 53 tackles, 7.5 sacks, 43 quarterback pressures, nine tackles for loss, one forced fumble and a career-high seven passes defensed, which tied for the fourth-best mark among all NFL defensive linemen. Simmons and Arizona's J.J. Watt were the NFL's only players in 2022 with at least seven sacks and seven passes defensed.

Before the start of the 2021 season, Simmons was named a team captain for the first time in his career, and he went on to become one of six players on the roster to start all 17 games. He was named to his first career Pro Bowl and added Associated Press second-team All-Pro honors after setting career highs in several categories, including sacks (8.5), tackles (54), quarterback pressures (58), tackles for loss (12) and passes defensed (six). He led the squad in pressures and placed third in sacks. Among all defensive tackles in the NFL, his 8.5 sacks ranked sixth. In the divisional playoffs, he set a franchise postseason record with three sacks.

In 2020, Simmons appeared and started in 15 games. With three defensive fumble recoveries, he tied Chase Young for the most in the NFL in 2020 and was the first Titans defender with three fumble recoveries in a season since 2005, when linebacker Brad Kassell accomplished the feat.

Simmons ranked second on the team with 19 quarterback pressures and added 49 tackles, three sacks, three tackles for loss, five passes defensed and one forced fumble. In the franchise's "Titans era" (since 1999), he became the first player to post at least three fumble recoveries, three sacks and five passes defensed in the same season. He also had three tackles and a tackle for loss in one playoff contest.

Simmons began his rookie season on the non-football injury list due to a knee injury he suffered during training in February 2019. He missed the first six games of the season before joining the 53-man roster in Week 7.

His rookie totals included 40 tackles, two sacks, two tackles for loss, 14 quarterback pressures and one pass defensed in nine games (seven starts). He added four tackles, three quarterback pressures and a fumble recovery in three playoff contests.

During a three-year career as a defensive tackle at Mississippi State, Simmons appeared in 38 contests with 28 starts. He finished his career ranked sixth in school history with 32.5 tackles for loss. He also tied for sixth in MSU annals with five forced fumbles and tied for fourth with three blocked kicks. His totals also included 163 tackles, seven sacks, seven passes defensed and two defensive touchdowns.

He was a first-team All-SEC selection as a sophomore and junior and was one of two players in the nation to be named a Bednarik Award Semifinalist in both 2017 and 2018.

As a junior in 2018, Simmons was named second-team All-American after totaling 63 tackles, 17 tackles for loss and two sacks. His 17 tackles for loss led the team, ranked fourth in the SEC and were the third-most in single-season school history.

During his sophomore season (2017), he set a career high with five sacks and added 12 tackles for loss. With three total blocked kicks and punts, he became the first SEC player since 2004 to lead the nation in the category.

Simmons is a native of Macon, Miss.

2024 Game Notes:

> At Chicago (9/8), registered two tackles, including a tackle for loss.

Against the N.Y. Jets (9/15), tied for third on the defense with five tackles. Late in the second quarter, he teamed with Ernest Jones IV to end a Jets drive with a two-yard tackle for loss against Breece Hall on third-andone.

> Against Green Bay (9/22), totaled five tackles, including his first sack of the season. In the second quarter, he dropped Malik Willis for a two-yard sack on a third down.

- At Miami (9/30), he was inactive due to an elbow injury.
- Against Indianapolis (10/13), recorded three tackles, including a tackle for loss, and tied for the team lead with three quarterback pressures.

At Buffalo (10/20), posted two tackles, two quarterback pressures and one pass defensed.

➢ At Detroit (10/27), totaled four tackles, one sack, three quarterback pressures, two tackles for loss and one forced fumble. He recorded a stripsack in the third quarter, taking down Jared Goff and registering a forced fumble on the play (recovered by the Lions). He notched his third career strip-sack and his fourth career forced fumble.

> Against New England (11/3), totaled five tackles, one sack, one fumble recovery and a team-high seven quarterback pressures. His seven quarterback pressures were his most in a game since posting seven at Washington on Oct. 9, 2022. In the second quarter, he pressured Drake Maye to help cause an interception by Amani Hooker. In the third quarter, he dropped Drake Maye for a six-yard sack to increase his season total to three sacks and his career total to 29.5 sacks. In the fourth quarter, he recorded his fifth career defensive fumble recovery (first in 2024) after Drake Maye lost the ball on a strip-sack by Arden Key. Simmons recovered the ball at New England's 26-yard line to set up a go-ahead score.

At the Los Angeles Chargers (11/10), posted five tackles, a team-high three quarterback pressures and a pass defensed.

> Against Minnesota (11/17), produced four tackles, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery, and he led the defense with six quarterback pressures. In the first quarter, he recovered a Vikings fumble, which led to a Titans field goal on the ensuing possession. In the third quarter, he was credited with a forced fumble against running back Aaron Jones Sr., but the ball was recovered by the Vikings. It was his fifth career forced fumble and his second forced fumble of 2024, which set a career high.

At Houston (11/24), totaled two tackles, one sack, three quarterback pressures and one pass defensed. Late in the fourth quarter, he took down C.J. Stroud for a sack at Houston's one-yard line, leading to a Titans safety on the next play that helped secure the victory. He became the franchise's 10th player to reach 30 sacks since individual sacks became an official NFL statistic in 1982, as well as the organization's sixth player in its "Titans era" (1999–present) to reach 30 sacks. He secured his fourth consecutive season with at least four sacks.

> At Washington (12/1), finished third on the defense and established a career high with nine tackles. His previous career high was seven tackles, which he reached on three different occasions. He became the fifth NFL defensive lineman in 2024 with nine-plus tackles in a game, joining Carolina's A'Shawn Robinson (nine at New Orleans, Sept. 8), Cincinnati's Sam Hubbard (nine vs. Baltimore, Oct. 6), New England's Daniel Ekuale (nine vs. Miami, Oct. 6) and Tampa Bay's Vita Vea (10 at Kansas City, Nov. 4). He added a guarterback pressure.

> Against Jacksonville (12/8), totaled five tackles, two quarterback pressures, one tackle for loss and one pass defensed.

> Against Cincinnati (12/15), tied for second on the defense with seven tackles, including a team-high two tackles for loss, and tied for the team lead with three quarterback pressures. He logged his 12th career game with two or more tackles for loss.

> At Indianapolis (12/22), tied for second on the defense with eight tackles, including a sack, and led the team with three quarterback pressures. In the fourth quarter, he helped end a Colts drive with an eightyard sack of Anthony Richardson on third down. He secured his fourth consecutive season with at least five sacks, and with 31.5 career sacks, he surpassed Curley Culp (31.0) for 13th place among the franchise's all-time sack leaders.

6-2, 241, 5th Year/1st with Titans, Oklahoma Click for complete bio

Linebacker Kenneth Murray Jr. is in his fifth NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2024. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 14, 2024.

Prior to joining the Titans, Murray spent four years (2020-23) with the Los Angeles Chargers. During his time in Los Angeles, he played in 59 games with 53 starts and recorded 321 tackles, five sacks, two interceptions, 10 passes defensed and a forced fumble.

In 2023, Murray started 15 games and tied a pair of career highs with 107 tackles and seven tackles for loss. He also set a career high with three sacks.

Murray was selected by the Chargers in the first round (23rd overall) of the 2020 NFL Draft.

At the University of Oklahoma, Murray earned first-team All-Big 12 recognition and was a semifinalist in 2019 for the Bednarik and Butkus awards. He finished his Sooners career tied for 11th in school history in career tackles (335) and eighth among linebackers in sacks (9.5).

He is a native of Missouri City, Texas.

2024 Game Notes:

> At Chicago (9/8), started in his Titans debut and tied for the team lead with six tackles.

> Against the N.Y. Jets (9/15), ranked second on the defense with eight tackles, including a tackle for loss, and added a quarterback pressure.

> Against Green Bay (9/22), tied for second on the team with eight tackles and set a career high with two sacks. In the second quarter, he sacked Malik Willis for a 10-yard loss, and he added another sack later in the second quarter, when he took Willis down for no gain. His first two sacks of the season gave him seven in his career.

> At Miami (9/30), led the defense with nine tackles, including a tackle for loss.

> Against Indianapolis (10/13), tied for second on the defense with eight tackles, including a tackle for loss.

➤ At Buffalo (10/20), led the team with seven tackles. He logged his fifth consecutive game with at least seven tackles, which is the best such streak of his career.

> At Detroit (10/27), tallied one tackle and one quarterback pressure.

> Against New England (11/3), tied for third on the defense with six total tackles and added a quarterback pressure.

> At the Los Angeles Chargers (11/10), ranked third on the team with six tackles.

Against Minnesota (11/17), paced the defense with 10 tackles, including a sack. In the third quarter, he helped end a Vikings drive with a one-yard sack of Sam Darnold on third down. With his third sack of 2024, he tied the career high he set in 2023 as a member of the Los Angeles Chargers.

> At Houston (11/24), led the team with seven tackles to go along with one interception, a career-high two passes defensed and two tackles for loss (tied career high). He became the first NFL player in 2024 to reach all four marks in the same game and the Titans' only player to do so since the beginning of the 2000 season. He notched his first interception of the season and the third interception of his career, picking off C.J. Stroud in the third quarter and returning the ball six yards. It was his first career game with at least two tackles for loss and two passes defensed. He added two quarterback pressures.

> At Washington (12/1), finished second on the defense with 10 tackles and added a half sack, one tackle for loss and one forced fumble. He also led the defense and set a career high with four quarterback pressures. He notched his second game of 2024 with double-digit tackles (10 vs. Minnesota, Nov. 17). In the fourth quarter, he teamed with Arden Key on a sack of Jayden Daniels. Murray was credited with a forced fumble on the play, but the ball was recovered by Washington. It was his second career forced fumble and his first since 2022 as a member of the Los Angeles Chargers. By increasing his season total to 3.5 sacks, he established a new career high for a season. His previous high was three sacks as a member of the Los Angeles Chargers in 2023.

> Against Jacksonville (12/8), he was inactive with a hamstring injury.

> Against Cincinnati (12/15), tied for second on the defense with seven tackles and added a quarterback pressure.

> At Indianapolis (12/22), tallied a pair of tackles.

6-5, 240, 7th Year/2nd with Titans, Louisiana State Click for complete bio

Outside linebacker Arden Key is in his seventh NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2024. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 20, 2023.

In 2023, Key appeared in 17 games for the third consecutive season and registered nine starts—the most since starting 10 times in 2018 as a rookie with Oakland. He ranked second on the team with a career-high 57 quarterback pressures, and his six sacks provided the second-best total of his career. He added 30 tackles, four tackles for loss, two passes defensed and two forced fumbles.

Key originally entered the NFL as a third-round pick (87th overall) of the Oakland Raiders in 2018 and spent his first three campaigns with the organization. He then spent the 2021 campaign with the San Francisco 49ers and the 2022 season with the Jacksonville Jaguars. His statistical totals during his first five NFL seasons included 98 tackles and 14 sacks in 71 games (13 starts).

In 2022, Key played 17 games with three starts for the Jaguars and totaled 27 tackles, 4.5 sacks, 38 quarterback pressures, five tackles for loss and a fumble recovery. His 38 pressures ranked second for the Jaguars, and over the last five weeks of the season, he posted 25 pressures, which ranked second in the league behind Nick Bosa over that time frame. He was a key figure in helping the Jaguars win the AFC South and advance to the divisional round of the playoffs.

In 2021, Key notched a career-best 6.5 sacks to go along with 22 tackles and 25 quarterback pressures in his lone season with the 49ers.

During a three-year career at Louisiana State University, Key totaled 21 sacks and 26.5 tackles for loss. As a sophomore, he earned all-conference honors, while setting the school record for sacks in a season (12.0). He is a native of Atlanta, Ga.

#58 • OLB HAROLD LANDRY III

6-2, 252, 7th Year/7th with Titans, Boston College Click for complete bio

Outside linebacker Harold Landry III is in his seventh NFL season in 2024. He was selected by the Titans in the second round (41st overall) of the 2018 NFL Draft after the Titans traded up 16 spots in the second round (57 to 41) in order to take the former Boston College standout.

During his first six NFL seasons, Landry totaled a team-leading 41.5 sacks. He finished the 2023 season ranked 11th for the franchise in career sacks, and in the organization's "Titans era" (1999– present), his total trailed only Jevon Kearse (52), Jurrell Casey (51) and Derrick Morgan (44.5).

In 2023, Landry played in all 17 games (10 starts) after missing the entire 2022 campaign due to injury. He ranked second on the team with 10.5 sacks, producing his second-best career total (12 sacks in 2021). In doing so, he became the NFL's third veteran player since 1982 to miss an entire NFL season and come back the next year to record at least 10 sacks. The only previous players to do so were a pair of New Orleans Saints: Joe Johnson in 2000 (12 sacks) and Charlie Clemons in 2001 (13.5 sacks). Landry's 14 tackles for loss led the defense and matched his career high, and his 48 quarterback pressures were third on the squad and were one off his career high in 2021 (49). His statistics also included 70 tackles.

Landry was placed on injured reserve on Sept. 2, 2022, ending his fifth NFL season before Week 1. Prior to the injury, he recorded 64 consecutive games played and 52 consecutive starts.

From the start of his rookie campaign through 2021, Landry's 31 total sacks led the Titans. Other than Jevon Kearse (37), Landry produced the highest sack total by a Titans/Oilers player in his first four NFL seasons since individual sacks became an official NFL statistic in 1982.

From 2018 to 2021, Landry joined Pittsburgh's Cameron Heyward as the NFL's only players to be credited with at least 250 tackles (press box statistics), 30 sacks and two interceptions.

In 2021, Landry was named to his first Pro Bowl after starting all 17 games. He registered his third consecutive season to start every contest, extending his streaks to 64 consecutive games played and 52 consecutive starts. At the conclusion of 2021, his starting streak was the sixth-longest active streak in the NFL among all defensive players.

Landry's 12 sacks in 2021 led the Titans, ranked 10th in the NFL and established a career high. He became the first Titans player to record double-digit sacks in a season since Brian Orakpo (10.5) in 2016 and the first Titans player with 12 sacks in a season since Jason Babin (12.5) in PLAYER NOTES

STATISTICS

2010. Landry tied for second on the squad with 75 tackles, ranked second with a career-high 49 quarterback pressures, led the team with 14 tackles for loss, and added a forced fumble. He joined Micah Parsons, Aaron Donald and Heyward as the only NFL players in 2021 to post at least 75 tackles and 10 sacks.

Then, in the team's 2021 divisional playoff contest, he recorded 1.5 sacks. He improved his postseason career total to 4.5 sacks, becoming the organization's first player with at least four career postseason sacks since individual sacks became an official statistic in 1982.

In 2020, Landry recorded 16 starts for the second consecutive season. He led the team with 5.5 sacks, a then-career-high 32 quarterback pressures and a then-career-high 10 tackles for loss. He totaled 69 tackles and added one interception and a career-high five passes defensed. In one playoff contest, he led the team with 10 tackles and two sacks.

Landry started all 16 games in 2019 and led the Titans with nine sacks. His 28 quarterback pressures ranked second, and he added 81 tackles, four tackles for loss, one pass defensed, one forced fumble and two fumble recoveries. He also started all three postseason games and registered a sack and a team-high eight quarterback pressures.

As a rookie in 2018, he played in 15 games with three starts. His 4.5 sacks tied for third place on the team, and he also tied for second on the defense with 18 quarterback pressures.

In 46 career games playing defensive end for Boston College, Landry totaled 160 tackles, 26 sacks, 47.5 tackles for loss, seven passes defensed, 10 forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and one interception. His 26 career sacks were exceeded in school history by only Mathias Kiwanuka (37.5 from 2002-05).

As a senior in 2017, Landry played and started eight games before a season-ending ankle injury ended his year. He finished second on the team with five sacks and totaled 38 tackles, 8.5 tackles for loss and two passes defensed.

In 2016, Landry set the school's single-season record with 16.5 sacks, which led the nation. He added seven forced fumbles, which also led the country, while his 22 tackles for loss ranked fifth nationally and ranked second all-time for the Eagles. His numerous honors included Walter Camp second-team All-America, AP second-team All-America and second-team All-ACC by the Atlantic Coast Sports Media Association and the league's head coaches.

He is a native of Spring Lake, N.C.

2024 Game Notes:

> At Chicago (9/8), tied for the team lead with six tackles, recorded a team-high three quarterback pressures, and also tallied a sack. In the third quarter, he recorded his first sack of the season, dropping Caleb Williams for a 10-yard loss on third down.

Against the N.Y. Jets (9/15), posted three tackles, including a pair of sacks, and added two passes defensed and a team-high four quarterback pressures. He became the first Titans player with two sacks and two passes defensed in a game since defensive end Carlos Hall did so against Philadelphia on Sept. 8, 2002. In the second quarter, he recorded a five-yard sack of Aaron Rodgers, and in the third quarter, he dropped Rodgers for a seven-yard loss on third-and-10. Landry registered his sixth career game with two or more sacks, and for the first time in his career, he recorded at least one sack in each of the team's first two games of the season. In improving his career total to 44.5 sacks, he tied Derrick Morgan for 10th place on the franchise's all-time sack list. He also tied Morgan for the third-highest sack total for the team in its "Titans era" (1999–present), trailing only Jevon Kearse (52) and Jurrell Casey (51). Landry became the first Titans player to total three or more sacks through the first two games of a season since Derrick Morgan accomplished the feat (three sacks) in 2015. > Against Green Bay (9/22), tallied four tackles and two quarterback pressures.

> At Miami (9/30), totaled five tackles, including a sack. In the first quarter, he ended a Dolphins drive by sacking Tyler Huntley for an eight-yard loss on third down. By increasing his career total to 45.5 sacks, he moved ahead of Derrick Morgan (44.5) and Ted Washington (45.0) for ninth place in franchise history. He surpassed Morgan for the third-highest sack total for the team in its "Titans era" (1999–present), trailing only Jevon Kearse (52) and Jurrell Casey (51). The sack gave him 9.5 total over a 10-game stretch. He also reached 10 sacks during his career in primetime games, becoming the franchise's third player to reach double digits in sacks in primetime games since individual sacks became an official NFL statistic in 1982, joining Ray Childress (15.5) and William Fuller (15.5).

> Against Indianapolis (10/13), registered seven tackles, including a team-high two tackles for loss, and tied for the team lead with three quarterback pressures. He logged his 14th career game with two or more tackles for loss, including twice in 2024.

> At Buffalo (10/20), posted four tackles, a team-high-tying three quarterback pressures, one tackle for loss and one pass defensed. He registered the third game of his career with a minimum of four tackles, one tackle for loss and one pass defensed, and his first such performance since Nov. 8, 2020 against Chicago.

> At Detroit (10/27), credited with two tackles.

> Against New England (11/3), totaled five tackles, one sack, two tackles for loss and one pass defensed. It was the second time in his career reaching all three marks in the same game (at Carolina on Nov. 3, 2019). He added six quarterback pressures to rank second on the defense. In the first quarter, he sacked Drake Maye for a four-yard loss on third down. He secured his fifth career season with at least five sacks, joining Jurrell Casey (seven seasons) and Derrick Morgan (five seasons) as the franchise's only players in its "Titans era" (1999 to present) to reach five sacks in at least five different seasons.

> At the Los Angeles Chargers (11/10), tallied five tackles and two quarterback pressures.

> Against Minnesota (11/17), finished third on the team with six tackles and added a quarterback pressure.

> At Houston (11/24), totaled three tackles, including a sack for a safety, and led the team with four quarterback pressures. With 1 minute and 13 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter, he was credited with his first career safety, helping to secure the victory with a sack of C.J. Stroud in the end zone. He was the first individual Titans defender to tally a safety since outside linebacker Cameron Wake at Cleveland on Sept. 8, 2019. On his safety, he was also credited with his sixth sack of the season, securing his fourth career season with at least six sacks.

> At Washington (12/1), posted three tackles, including a tackle for loss, and added two quarterback pressures. He was credited with a two-yard tackle for loss against quarterback Jayden Daniels in the second quarter.

> Against Jacksonville (12/8), totaled two tackles, including a stop of Mac Jones for no gain to record his seventh sack of the 2024 season. He also led the defense with five quarterback pressures. In improving his career total to 48.5 sacks, he moved past Robert Brazile (48.0) for eighth place in franchise history.

> Against Cincinnati (12/15), tallied three tackles, including a sack, and totaled two quarterback pressures. In the second quarter, he tallied a sack and helped create a turnover. On the play, as he was sacking Joe Burrow, T'Vondre Sweat was credited with a forced fumble and fumble recovery for the Titans. He logged his second consecutive game with a sack while securing his fourth career season and second consecutive season with at least eight sacks.

> At Indianapolis (12/22), tied for second on the team with eight tackles.

LANDRY'S TRIUMPHANT COMEBACK

In 2021, Harold Landry III was named to his first career Pro Bowl, finishing his fourth NFL season with a career-high 12 sacks. Then, poised to follow up on his career year, he suffered a knee injury before the start of the 2022 regular season. It forced him to spend all 17 games on injured reserve.

In 2023, Landry bounced back from the injury to participate in every game and record 10.5 sacks. In doing so, he became the NFL's third veteran player since 1982 to miss an entire NFL season and come back the next year to record at least 10 sacks. The only previous players to do so were a pair of New Orleans Saints: Joe Johnson in 2000 (12 sacks) and Charlie Clemons in 2001 (13.5 sacks).

#21 • CB ROGER McCREARY

5-11, 190, 3rd Year/3rd with Titans, Auburn Click for complete bio

Cornerback Roger McCreary is in his third NFL season in 2024. He was selected by the Titans in the second round (35th overall) of the 2022 NFL Draft.

cornerbacks, trailing Buffalo's Taron Johnson (187) and former Chiefs cornerback and current Titan L'Jarius Sneed (186).

In 2023, McCreary ranked third on the team and led all Titans defensive backs with 86 tackles. Among all NFL cornerbacks, his 86 tackles tied Las Vegas' Nate Hobbs for the third-highest total behind Johnson (98) and Indianapolis' Kenny Moore II (93). McCreary added one interception, six passes defensed, two sacks, four quarterback pressures, seven tackles for loss and one forced fumble

As a rookie, McCreary was one of three players on the team to start all 17 games (Kevin Byard, Aaron Brewer), and he became the first Titans rookie cornerback since Adoree' Jackson in 2017 to start every game. Only two other rookie cornerbacks in the NFL-Seattle's Tariq Woolen and the New York Jets' Sauce Gardner-started all 17 games in 2022. McCreary finished third on the Titans defense with 85 tackles, ranked second on the defense with eight passes defensed, and added one interception, two tackles for loss and one quarterback pressure.

During four seasons at Auburn (2018-21), McCreary appeared in 43 games with 23 starts and posted 135 tackles, five interceptions, 35 passes defensed, 10 stops for loss, a forced fumble and two fumble recoveries.

As a senior in 2021, McCreary started 12 games at cornerback for the Tigers and collected a career-best 49 tackles, an interception, a sack, two stops for loss and a team-best 16 passes defensed. He was a first-team All-America selection by The Athletic, Associated Press, ESPN and Reese's Senior Bowl.

As a junior in 2020, he established career highs with three interceptions and seven tackles for loss.

McCreary is a native of Mobile, Ala.

PLAYER NOTES

6-1, 192, 5th Year/1st with Titans, Louisiana Tech Click for complete bio

Cornerback L'Jarius Sneed is in his fifth NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2024. He was acquired by the Titans in a trade with the Kansas City Chiefs on April 1, 2024.

Sneed spent four seasons with the Chiefs after they selected him in the fourth round (138th overall) of the 2020 NFL Draft. During that time, he tallied 10 interceptions, 40 passes defensed and 6.5 sacks in 57 games. He and Harrison Smith were the only two NFL players from 2020 to 2023 to record at least 10 interceptions and 6.5 sacks.

Sneed also arrived in Tennessee with 13 games of postseason experience. He helped the Chiefs win two Super Bowls (LVII, LVIII), and his seven passes defensed tied for third in the postseason from 2020 to 2023. He became one of five NFL players from 2000 to 2023 with at least 75 tackles, two sacks and seven passes defensed in the postseason, joining Ray Lewis, James Farrior, Brian Dawkins and Rodney Harrison.

In 2023, he started 16 games at cornerback and amassed 78 tackles, two interceptions, a career-best 14 passes defensed and a fumble recovery. He was in the starting lineup for all four Chiefs postseason games and generated 17 tackles, three passes defensed and a forced fumble while helping the Chiefs to their second consecutive Super Bowl championship.

As a rookie in 2020, Sneed was named to the Pro Football Writers Association's All-Rookie team after notching 41 tackles, three interceptions, two sacks and seven passes defensed in nine games.

As a college player at Louisiana Tech, Sneed was named second-team All-Conference USA as a senior in 2019. He played safety and cornerback in college, and in 51 games, he registered 177 tackles, eight interceptions and 19 passed defensed.

He is a native of Minden, La.

2024 Game Notes:

5-9, 197, 10th Year/1st with Titans, Texas Click for complete bio

Three-time Pro Bowl safety Quandre Diggs is in his 10th NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2024. He was signed by the Titans as a free agent on Aug. 6, 2024.

Prior to arriving in Tennessee, Diggs totaled nine seasons between his time with the Detroit Lions (2015-19) and Seattle Seahawks (2019-23). He was originally drafted by the Lions in the sixth round (200th overall) of the 2015 NFL Draft and later traded to the Seahawks during the 2019 campaign. His career totals with the Lions and Seahawks included 137 games played, 112 starts, 24 interceptions, 56 passes defensed, 574 tackles, one sack, five forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. He was named to three consecutive Pro Bowls from 2020 to 2022.

In 2023, Diggs started every game for the Seahawks for the fourth consecutive season. He totaled a career-high 95 tackles to go along with one interception and five passes defensed.

From 2017 through 2022, Diggs was the NFL's only player to record at least three interceptions every season. He set a career benchmark with five interceptions in 2020 and matched the number in 2021.

Diggs started a total of eight games in his first two years in Detroit. In his third season, he registered 11 starts before starting 16 games for the first time in 2018.

A native of Houston, Texas, Diggs played cornerback at the University of Texas, where he never missed a game in four seasons, appearing in 52 games with 49 starts. He finished his collegiate career tied for ninth in Longhorns history with 11 interceptions, while his 37 career passes defensed tied for ninth on the all-time list. He earned All-Big 12 honors three times (2011, 2013, 2014).

2024 Game Notes:

> At Chicago (9/8), started in his Titans debut. He tallied four tackles and was part of a defensive effort that allowed only 64 net passing yards.

> Against the N.Y. Jets (9/15), tied for third on the defense with five tackles.

 Against Green Bay (9/22), tied for second on the team with eight tackles.
 At Miami (9/30), totaled four tackles. In the second quarter, he helped end a Dolphins drive by stopping wide receiver Tyreek Hill short on fourthand-one.

- Against Indianapolis (10/13), totaled six tackles.
- > At Buffalo (10/20), tied for third on the squad with five tackles.

> At Detroit (10/27), ranked second on the defense with seven tackles. He extended his streak to 74 consecutive games started, lengthening what is tied (Patrick Queen) for the NFL's third-longest active streak among defensive players behind Kevin Byard (128) and Daron Payne (75).

> Against New England (11/3), totaled three tackles before leaving the game in the second quarter with a foot injury. He recorded his 75th consecutive start after entering the contest trailing only Kevin Byard (128), Daron Payne (75) and Patrick Queen (75) for the NFL's longest active starting streak among defensive players.

> Placed on injured reserve on Nov. 6, 2024.

6-1, 210, 7th Year, West Virginia

Daryl Worley signed to the Titans practice squad on Nov. 5, 2024 and was promoted to the 53-man roster on Nov. 29, 2024.

➢ Prior to joining the Titans, Worley played in 90 games, totaling 292 tackles, five interceptions, 40 passes defensed and one fumble recovery during his time with the Panthers (2016-17), Raiders (2018-20), Cowboys (2020), Bills (2020), Lions (2021) and Ravens (2021-23).

> Before arriving in Tennessee, he spent three seasons (2021-23) in Baltimore, playing in 20 games (three starts) and recording 21 tackles, one stop for loss and three passes defensed. He also played in one playoff game with the Ravens in 2021.

> In 2023, he appeared in 12 games with two starts for the Ravens, totaling nine tackles and one pass defensed.

➢ He was originally drafted by the Panthers in the third round (77th overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft. In Carolina, he played in 31 games over his first two seasons, recording 150 tackles, six tackles for loss, two sacks, three interceptions and 19 passes defensed.

➢ Worley played 34 games in three seasons (2013-15) for West Virginia University and earned All-Big 12 honors in his final season.

> He is a native of Philadelphia, Pa.

2024 Game Notes:

> At Houston (11/24), logged his first start in a Titans uniform. He totaled four tackles and one pass defensed.

> At Washington (12/1), started at safety and led the team with a career-high 17 total tackles. His previous high for tackles in a game was 12 at Oakland as a member of the Carolina Panthers on Nov. 27, 2016. Worley registered the highest tackle total by a Titans defender (press box statistics) since Akeem Ayers had 17 total stops against Detroit on Sept. 23, 2012. He became the second Titans defensive back since the beginning of the 2000 season to be credited with 17 tackles in a game (press box tackle statistics), joining safety Michael Griffin (18 vs. San Diego on Sept. 16, 2012). Worley joined three other NFL players in 2024—and became the first defensive back in 2024—to be credited with 17 or more tackles in a game, along with Indianapolis Colts linebacker Grant Stuard (18 vs. Miami, Oct. 20), Baltimore Ravens linebacker Roquan Smith (18 at Tampa Bay, Oct. 21) and New York Jets linebacker Jamien Sherwood (17 at Arizona, Nov. 10).

> Against Jacksonville (12/8), tallied six tackles in a start.

> Against Cincinnati (12/15), totaled five tackles and an interception. In the third quarter, he recorded his first interception of the season, picking off a Joe Burrow pass at the Tennessee three-yard line. It was Worley's sixth career interception and first since 2019.

#46 • LS MORGAN COX

6-4, 233, 15th Year/4th with Titans, Tennessee Click for complete bio

Long snapper Morgan Cox is in his 15th NFL season and his fourth campaign with the Titans in 2024. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 19, 2021.

In 2023, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties for the third consecutive season. With 51 consecutive games played in his first three seasons with the Titans, he finished the 2023 campaign with the longest active streak of games played for the team. His efforts helped kicker Nick Folk lead the NFL in field goal accuracy (96.7 percent) and helped punter Ryan Stonehouse lead the NFL for a second consecutive season in gross punting average (53.1). He was also a finalist in 2023 for the NFL's Bart Starr Award.

In 2022, Cox was named to his fifth career Pro Bowl. He has more Pro Bowl appearances than any other player at his position since the league began naming long snappers to the Pro Bowl in 2004.

His steady play in 2022 helped Stonehouse, a rookie, lead the league and set a new NFL record with a 53.1-yard gross punting average. Stonehouse also finished fourth in the NFL and set a rookie record with a 44.0-yard net average. Meanwhile, kicker Randy Bullock made 17 of 20 field goals (85.0 percent) and made all 28 extra point attempts.

In 2021, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties in 17 regular season games and one postseason game. He helped Bullock finish ninth in franchise history with 120 points in a single season, including three game-winning field goals (Sept. 19 at Seattle, Oct. 31 at Indianapolis and Dec. 23 against San Francisco). He also snapped for punter Brett Kern, who had the league's third-best ratio of punts inside the 20 to touchbacks (18:1).

In his first 11 seasons, Cox appeared in 165 regular season games for the Baltimore Ravens, serving as the team's primary long snapper after entering the NFL as an undrafted free agent in 2010. He was selected to four Pro Bowls and was a part of five playoff teams in Baltimore, totaling 10 postseason games played.

In 2020, he earned his fourth career Pro Bowl selection. He helped kicker Justin Tucker record his fifth consecutive season with at least 130 points, tying the NFL record of consecutive seasons with 130-plus points. Tucker connected on 26 of 29 field goals (89.7 percent) and was 52 of 53 on extra points (98.1 percent). Cox also snapped on all 51 of Sam Koch's 51 punts, as Koch was the NFL's only punter to place at least 20 punts (22) inside in the 20-yard line and have no more than one touchback.

A native of Collierville, Tenn., Cox played 38 games in three seasons (2007-09) as the primary long snapper at the University of Tennessee.

#6 • K NICK FOLK

6-1, 225, 17th Year/2nd with Titans, Arizona Click for complete bio

Kicker Nick Folk is in his 17th NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2024. He was acquired by the Titans in a trade with the New England Patriots on Aug. 29, 2023.

At the conclusion of the 2023 season, Folk's 382 career field goals ranked fourth among all active kickers behind only Matt Prater (401), Mason

Crosby (400) and Justin Tucker (395), and Folk's number also ranked 19th in NFL history. His 1,632 total points scored ranked 23rd in league annals. Among all active NFL players at the conclusion of 2023, Folk's 228 career games ranked 10th.

Through 2023, Folk carried an all-time NFL-record streak of 78 consecutive field goals from under 40 yards—a streak going back to 2017. Tucker previously owned the record with 70 straight under-40-yarders from 2016 to 2020.

In his first season in Tennessee, Folk appeared in all 17 games and made 29 field goals on 30 attempts. His career-best 96.7 percent accuracy on field goals led the NFL and tied for the 14th-best single-season mark in NFL history. It also established a new franchise record for a single season, breaking the record of 92.3 percent by AI Del Greco (1998) and Rob Bironas (2010). Folk's initial season with the Titans also included 28 extra points on 30 attempts. His 115 total points tied for the 13th-best single-season total in franchise history.

In his first 15 NFL seasons prior to joining the Titans, Folk spent time with the Dallas Cowboys (2007-09), New York Jets (2010-2016), Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2017) and Patriots (2019-22). During that time, he connected on 82.9 percent (353 of 426) of his field goal attempts and 96.8 percent of his extra point attempts (458 of 473). He had 10 seasons with at least 100 points, including a league-leading 150 points in 2021 with the Patriots. He registered 11 game-winning field goals in the regular season and one in postseason play.

Over his four years with New England, Folk made 108 of his 121 field goal attempts (89.3 percent) in 57 games. He departed the Patriots in fifth place on the New England all-time field goal list and tied for seventh place on the franchise's all-time scoring list with 440 total points.

In 2022, he played in all 17 games for New England and totaled 128 points on 32-of-37 field goal attempts. He was also 32-of-35 on extra points. Folk became one of six all-time NFL players to have at least five seasons with 30 field goals, joining Tucker (eight), Stephen Gostkowski (five), Robbie Gould (five), John Carney (five) and David Akers (five).

Folk established the NFL record for consecutive field goals made under 50 yards with a streak of 64 such kicks from Oct. 5, 2017 to Oct. 16, 2022. He broke the record (56 consecutive) set by Ryan Succop of the Titans from 2014 to 2017.

While with the Patriots, he also set the franchise mark for consecutive field goals made (36) during a streak that spanned from 2020 to 2021 and posted the third-highest field goal percentage for a season by a Patriot in 2020 (92.9).

Folk entered the NFL as a sixth-round selection by the Dallas in the 2007 NFL Draft. As a rookie for the Cowboys, he earned a Pro Bowl selection and all-rookie honors.

A native of Sherman Oaks, Calif., Folk attended the University of Arizona, where he earned All-PAC 10 accolades in his final season.

2024 Game Notes:

> At Chicago (9/8), made his only field goal attempt, a 40-yarder in the second quarter, and made both of his extra point attempts.

> Against the N.Y. Jets (9/15), made a 41-yard field goal as time expired in the first half and also connected on both of his extra point attempts. With his 384th career field goal, he surpassed Nick Lowery (383) for 18th place in NFL history.

> Against Green Bay (9/22), made both extra points.

> At Miami (9/30), named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week after matching his career high with five field goals and also making both extra points. He connected from 53, 52 and 47 yards in the second quarter, marking his third career game in which he made three or more field goals in a single quarter. He added a 51-yarder in the third quarter and a 29-yarder in the fourth quarter. His performance established a career high with three field goals of 50-plus yards in a game. least two field goals of 50-plus yards and his first time accomplishing the feat since Oct. 10, 2021 at Houston, when he was a member of the New England Patriots. He increased his career total to 44 career field goals from 50-plus yards on 67 career attempts (65.7 percent). He logged his 52nd career game with three or more field goals. In finishing the contest with 389 field goals, he surpassed David Akers (386) for 17th place in NFL history for career field goals. He also set a career high with seven touchbacks on kickoffs.

> Against Indianapolis (10/13), made a 44-yard field goal in the second guarter and also connected on both extra point attempts.

> At Buffalo (10/20), made a 25-yard field goal in the first quarter and in the second quarter made his only extra point attempt. He connected on his 18th consecutive field goal, dating back to Nov. 12, 2023, which gave him the fifth-longest streak of his career and also tied for the eighth-longest streak in team annals.

> At Detroit (10/27), made both of his extra point attempts.

> Against New England (11/3), made both of his field goal attempts and both of his extra point attempts. He connected on a 21-yard field goal in the third quarter and made the game-winning 25-yard field goal in overtime. He registered his 14th career game-winning field goal, including 13 in the regular season and one in the playoffs. It was his second game-winner since joining the Titans in 2023 (Sept. 17, 2023 vs. L.A. Chargers). With 393 career field goals, he surpassed Stephen Gostkowski (392) for 16th place in NFL history. He also ran his streak to 20 consecutive field goals made since Nov. 12, 2023, which was the fourth-longest streak of his career and tied for the Titans/Oilers franchise record. He matched the record of 20 consecutive field goals that was reached previously on five different occasions, including once by Folk in 2023.

> At the Los Angeles Chargers (11/10), made a 27-yard field goal and missed from 49 yards. His franchise-record-tying streak of 20 consecutive field goals made came to an end. He also made both extra point attempts. He became the franchise's fourth player to appear in a game after his 40th birthday and the first since kicker Gary Anderson in 2004. The other players who did so for the franchise were offensive lineman Bruce Matthews and quarterback Dave Krieg. Folk joined Jets quarterback Aaron Rodgers, Bears tight end Marcedes Lewis and Arizona kicker Matt Prater as the NFL's only players to participate in games in 2024 in their 40s.

Against Minnesota (11/17), made both of his field goal attempts and made his only extra point attempt. He booted a 30-yard field goal in the first quarter and a 43-yarder in the fourth quarter. He increased his all-time NFL-record streak to 84 consecutive field goals made on attempts from less than 40 yards.

> At Houston (11/24), made all three field goals and all three extra point attempts. He connected on attempts of 51 yards in the first quarter, 56 yards in the second quarter and 51 yards in the third quarter. He registered his second career game with three field goals of 50-plus yards, equaling what he accomplished for the first time in his career this season at Miami on Sept. 30. He became the first kicker in NFL history to make three field goals of 50-plus yards after his 40th birthday. He joined Pittsburgh's Chris Boswell (twice) and Houston's Ka'imi Fairbairn (twice) as the NFL's only kickers in 2024 to make three 50-yarders in two different games. No other NFL kicker had done so in a single game prior to Week 12. Folk matched his career long (Oct. 17, 2010 at Denver)with a 56-yarder as time expired in the first half. His 56-yard field goal tied for the second-longest field goal in franchise history behind Rob Bironas' 60-yarder against Indianapolis on Dec. 3, 2006. Bironas also made a 56-yard field goal (Nov. 19, 2007 at Denver), as did Al Del Greco (Oct. 27, 1996 vs. San Francisco). With 399 career field goals, he surpassed Matt Bryant (397) for 15th place in NFL history.

> At Washington (12/1), made both of his field goal attempts and his only extra point attempt. With his 400th career field goal, a 41-yarder in the third quarter, he became the third active player to hit 400 field goals, joining Justin Tucker and Matt Prater. With his 44-yard field goal in the third quarter, he passed Mason Crosby (400) for 14th place in NFL history in career field goals. Folk became the 12th player in Titans/Oilers history to attempt 50 field goals with the organization, and his 48 successful field goals on his first 50 attempts with the team (96.0 percent) broke the previous franchise mark of 43 field goals in Ryan Succop's first 50 attempts from 2014 to 2016. > Against Jacksonville (12/8), made a 46-yard field goal to conclude the Titans' opening drive and added a 39-yarder in the third quarter. He became the eighth player in franchise history to reach 50 field goals. It was his 30th contest in a Titans uniform, and his 96.2 percentage on field goals (50 of 52) with the Titans was the best of any NFL player in his first 30 games with a team since 1970 (minimum 30 games). His percentage exceeded the mark established by Robbie Gould, who made 95.8 percent of his attempts (68 of 71) in his first 30 contests with the San Francisco 49ers. The best previous percentage on field goals in a player's first 30 games with the Titans/Oilers was held by Ryan Succop, who made 86.5 percent of his attempts (32 of 37) at the beginning of his tenure in Tennessee from 2014 to 2015. With his 39-yard field goal, he increased his all-time NFL-record streak to 85 consecutive field goals made on attempts from less than 40 yards.

> Against Cincinnati (12/15), made all three of his extra point attempts.

At Indianapolis (12/22), he was inactive with an abdomen injury, ending a streak of 85 consecutive games played.

CONSECUTIVE FGs, FRANCHISE HISTORY

Nick Folk tied the franchise's all-time record for consecutive field goals made by making 20 consecutive attempts from 2023 to 2024. He matched a record was reached on five prior occasions, including one other time by Folk in 2023.

After joining the Titans in a trade on Aug. 29, 2023, Folk made his first 20 field goals he attempted before his first miss from 51 yards at Tampa Bay on Nov. 12, 2023. His 20 consecutive field goals made to start a season were the most in franchise history.

After his first and only miss in 2023, he made his next 20 field goals before missing a 49-yarder at the Los Angeles Chargers on Nov. 10, 2024.

Al Del Greco established the benchmark from 1998 to 1999, and Rob Bironas later matched the record on three different occasions.

games and averaged 50.9 yards per attempt on 58 punts, including a careerlong 81-yard punt. He placed 27 punts inside the 20-yard line and totaled 32 punts of 50-plus yards en route to being named a second-team All-Mountain West selection and a Ray Guy Award semifinalist. He is a native of La Verne, Calif.

2024 Game Notes:

> At Chicago (9/8), played in the regular season for the first time since suffering a season-ending knee injury on Dec. 3, 2023. He averaged 53.6 yards on five punts (34.0 net) with one punt placed inside the 20 and one punt blocked.

> Against the N.Y. Jets (9/15), averaged 56.5 yards on four punts (38.2 net) with one punt placed inside the 20 and one punt blocked. His 56.5-yard gross average was the fifth-best of his career in a game with four or more punts. He booted a 63-yard punt in the third quarter, and his 59-yarder in the fourth quarter pinned the Jets inside the 20.

> Against Green Bay (9/22), averaged 46.8 yards (43.0 net) on four punts with one punt placed inside the 20. In the fourth quarter, he launched a 57-yard punt.

> At Miami (9/30), averaged 41.8 yards (32.4 net) on five punts with two punts placed inside the 20. In the third quarter, he booted a 64-yard punt.

> Against Indianapolis (10/13), averaged 57.8 yards (40.4 net) on five punts. His 57.8-yard gross average was the second-best average of his career and ranked fourth in franchise history for a single game (minimum four punts). In the fourth quarter, he registered a career-long 75-yard punt. It was the longest punt by a Titans player since Brett Kern tied the franchise record with a 79-yarder against the Colts on Dec. 28, 2014. Stonehouse's previous long punt was 74 yards (twice, last at Cleveland on Sept. 24, 2023).

> At Buffalo (10/20), averaged 53.2 yards (42.0 net) on five punts in windy conditions. In the second quarter, he registered a 62-yard punt, logging his third consecutive game with a punt of at least 62 yards.

> At Detroit (10/27), averaged 49.3 yards (17.7 net) on six punts with two punts placed inside the 20.

> Against New England (11/3), averaged 46.6 yards (28.8 net) on five punts with two punts placed inside the 20. He recorded his 15th consecutive game with at least one punt of 55-plus yards (58).

> At the Los Angeles Chargers (11/10), averaged 53.5 gross yards and 50.0 net yards on four punts with three punts placed inside the 20. His 50.0 net punting average set a new career high and ranked second in franchise history (minimum four punts). The only qualifying net punting performance in franchise annals higher than 50.0 yards was Brett Kern's 50.2 at Miami on Oct. 8, 2017. He helped flip the field with a 56-yard punt in the first quarter, and he helped pin the Chargers on their five-yard line with a 58-yarder in the fourth quarter.

> Against Minnesota (11/17), averaged 48.2 yards (40.8 net) on five punts with one punt placed inside the 20. In the second quarter, he recorded a 62-yard punt.

> At Houston (11/24), averaged 50.0 yards (45.2 net) on five punts with two punts placed inside the 20. He registered his 13th career game with a minimum 50.0-yard gross average and a 45.0-yard net average (minimum four punts), trailing only Las Vegas punter AJ Cole (14) for the most such games since Stonehouse entered the NFL in 2022. He launched a 62-yard punt in the fourth quarter, giving him consecutive games with a long punt of 62 yards.

At Washington (12/1), averaged 53.3 yards (43.8 net) on four punts. All four of his punts went at least 50 yards. He booted a 58-yard punt in the second quarter to record his 19th consecutive game with at least one punt of 55-plus yards. It ended the following week as the NFL's longest such active streak, the longest such streak of his career, and the third-longest such streak in the NFL since 2000 behind a pair of streaks by Shane Lechler (23 from 2007-09, and 23 from 2010-12).

> Against Jacksonville (12/8), punted three times for a 47.7-yard gross average and a 45.0-yard net average. He was credited with a punt inside the 20 on all three of his attempts.

> Against Cincinnati (12/15), launched a 67-yard punt in the third quarter. It was his second-longest punt of the season to date behind his 75-yarder against Indianapolis on Oct. 13.

> At Indianapolis (12/22), averaged 55.3 gross yards and 45.8 net yards on four punts with one punt placed inside the 20. In the first quarter, he pinned the Colts at their one-yard line with a 60-yard punt. It was the fourth time in his career that he pinned an opponent inside the five-yard line with a punt of 60-plus yards. He logged his 12th career game with multiple punts of 60-plus yards. He extended his career-best streak to 22 consecutive games with at least one punt of 50-plus yards, ranking as the NFL's secondlongest active streak of games with a 50-yard punt behind Indianapolis' Rigoberto Sanchez (31).

NFL RECORD: SINGLE-SEASON AVERAGE

In 1940, Washington's Sammy Baugh punted 35 times for 1,799 yards, averaging 51.40 yards per punt. Eighty-two seasons later, the mark still stood as the best qualifying single-season punting average in NFL history, until Titans rookie punter Ryan Stonehouse broke the record in 2022.

Stonehouse, an undrafted rookie from Colorado State University, averaged 53.10 yards per attempt on 90 total punts—1.70 yards per punt ahead of Baugh's number.

Then, in his second season, Stonehouse averaged an NFL-high 53.06 yards per punt. His 53 attempts (2,812 yards) qualified him for the single-season charts, and as a result, he owns the top two numbers of all-time in his first two NFL seasons.

Prior to Stonehouse's rookie campaign, Baugh's mark was one of the NFL's longest-held records. In the 2022 NFL Record & Fact Book, only three single-season individual records predated Baugh's punting mark, and all three of those were later tied: most safeties in a season (two by Green Bay's Tom Nash in 1932 and subsequently tied 18 times), most fumbles returned for a touchdown in a season (two by Boston's Harold McPhail in 1934 and tied 44 times), and most opponent fumbles returned for a touchdown in a season (two by McPhail in 1934 and tied 41 times).

To qualify for the single-season average record, a punter needs a minimum of 2.5 attempts per team game.

> His father, Arden Key Sr., played point guard and shooting guard at Jacksonville State and also coached Arden Jr. in football.

12 - WR MASON KINSEY

> At Berry College, Kinsey's career receptions (203), receiving yardage (3,343) and receiving touchdowns (50) all rank first in school history, and his career receiving yardage and touchdowns set Southern Athletic Association records.

58 - HAROLD LANDRY III

> Landry could have entered the NFL Draft following his 16.5-sack junior season at Boston College. However, he chose to stay in school and received his degree in communications in December 2017.

> Landry enjoys traveling. One of his favorite getaways is Destin, Fla.

> He and his wife, Danielle, have two sons, Greyson and Ollie. He and Greyson share the same June 5 birthday.

55 - T JC LATHAM

> Latham enrolled at IMG Academy intending to play defensive line, but injuries to three teammates forced him to move to offensive line two weeks before the start of his junior season.

> One of Latham's talents off the field his cooking. He believes 'no one can make your food the way you like it better than you.' His go-to dish is hot honey jerk chicken over rice and mac and cheese.

62 - C/G COREY LEVIN

> At Dacula (Ga.) High School, Levin was a multi-sport athlete who played pitcher and third base for the baseball team.

> He was the first member of his immediate family to graduate from college.

8 - QB WILL LEVIS

> Levis' great grandfather, Alva Kelley, was an All-America football player at Cornell University and won a National Championship in 1939. His mother, Beth Kelley Levis, was a two-time All-America soccer player at Yale and has been inducted into the Connecticut Girls' Soccer Association Hall of Fame. His father, Mike, was a tight end at Denison University. His uncle, David Kelley, also was an Academic All-America football player at Yale.

> Levis has used his platform to make a difference in the community. He set up a Cameo campaign to raise money for flood victims in eastern Kentucky in 2022 and organized an autograph signing with fellow teammates to gather funds for tornado victims in western Kentucky in 2021. He has also volunteered with Amachi, an organization that aims to assist children affected by incarceration.

Levis was a special guest at Special Olympics of Tennessee's Summer Games Opening Ceremonies in 2024. He shook hands, took photos, signed autographs and had conversations with a majority of the athletes participating in the games.

ROSTERS

> Levis has an endorsement deal with Hellmann's Mayonnaise that resulted in the 2024 release of the world's first parfum de mayonnaise, Will Levis No. 8, and a humorous accompanying ad campaign.

97 - DL JAMES LYNCH

 \succ While participating in the 2020 NFL Combine, Lynch partnered with Uplifting Athletes to raise money for the rare disease community.

 \succ Lynch's middle name, Husker, was given to him by his father, Tim, who played linebacker at Nebraska.

88 - TE DAVID MARTIN-ROBINSON

Martin-Robinson spent 2022 spring break in Rome as part of Temple University's Study Abroad program.

His nickname is "DMR."

> Martin-Robinson was a three-sport athlete at Hempfield (Landisville, Pa.) High School playing football, baseball and track and field.

21 - CB ROGER McCREARY

> McCreary's pregame ritual in college was eating two plates of baked beans with sugar the night before a game. The tradition started when he got to Auburn and he says Bush's baked beans are his favorite.

> His uncle, Angelo James, was a defensive back for the Philadelphia Eagles.

56 - LB KENNETH MURRAY JR.

> Murray's family adopted three special needs children when he was 10 years old, and he has used his love for them and his family to motivate his success on the gridiron.

> Murray is a certified scuba diver.

 $\succ\,$ In the summer of 2019, Murray performed CPR to revive an unresponsive woman on a street corner in Norman, Okla.

61 - OL JOHN OJUKWU

> As a junior at Boise State (Idaho) High School, Ojukwu weighed only 185 pounds. Knowing that he needed to gain weight to have a chance in college, he ate large amounts of food and constantly worked out. He gained close to 100 pounds in nine months with a diet that included a daily gallon of milk and sometimes whole pizzas.

 \succ In high school, Ojukwu interned for Boise State University's sports performance department.

85 - TE CHIG OKONKWO

> Okonkwo's father, Charlton, passed away of a heart attack when Okonkwo was 15. According to his mother, Isioma, who emigrated from Nigeria, "In our culture, the boys, even if they're young or not, they're always considered more important. When my husband passed, the people who came let him know that he's the man and now he has the responsibility to take care of his mom and his sisters." According to Okonkwo, "In our culture, [being] the man in the house is a really big deal. As the only male, I was the one giving my mom support."

- > Okonkwo sat out the 2020 season with myocarditis due to COVID.
- > Okonkwo is a cat lover and has a feline named Sage.
- > In his free time, Okonkwo enjoys watching anime.

78 - OL NICHOLAS PETIT-FRERE

➢ Petit-Frere was about 270 pounds when he arrived at Ohio State, and it took him a while to get to his current weight of around 315 pounds. During the COVID-19 pandemic, he learned how to cook to help him continue his weight progress. He still enjoys cooking to this day, especially a lot of pastas, but says he can cook anything. He really enjoys trying out new recipes.

> Petit-Frere is trying to learn how to play the piano after playing the cello in middle school.

> He worked for Metropolitan Ministries in high school and would like to continue to be involved in education and causes to help underprivileged children and victims of domestic violence.

20 - RB TONY POLLARD

➢ Pollard's family owns Pollard's Bar-B-Q restaurant in his hometown of Memphis. Starting from humble beginnings, Pollard's was first established as a mobile catering business in 1995. As the demand for their unique southern style of Memphis BBQ grew, Pollard's reopened in the fall of 1996 as a small carry-out catering business. In 2011, Pollard's answered the overwhelming demands of its growing customer base by becoming a dine-in restaurant. With the new expansion came bigger and better things, such as an expanded menu and an upscale renovation by Food Network's Robert Irvine from Restaurant Impossible.

> Pollard was a dynamic kickoff returner at the collegiate level, tying a FBS record with seven career kickoff returns for touchdowns during his Memphis career.

75 - OL DILLON RADUNZ

➢ Radunz has a long history with the jersey number 75. At Becker (Minn.) High School, No. 75 was passed down from the previous player of the year to him. After he won the player of the year award, he passed it on to the next winner. Then he was issued the number at North Dakota State and later passed it on to his younger brother, Nick.

> The community fellowship program Alcoholics Anonymous has a special place in Radunz's life due to his father's struggles with alcoholism. His father, Jeff, passed away at the age of 45 in an alcohol-related incident when Dillon was 12.

➢ He was voted by his teammates as the Ed Block Courage Award winner for the Titans in 2023 after coming back from a knee injury that he suffered in 2022.

41 - LB OTIS REESE IV

> Reese played safety during his college career, but made the transition to linebacker once he arrived with the Titans.

> When asked what he would be if not an NFL player, Reese said he never considered a plan B. "If I didn't make it, I was going to keep trying until I did."

0 - WR CALVIN RIDLEY

➢ Ridley and his younger brothers spent parts of their childhood growing up in foster homes in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. He says that's when football saved his life. The Ridley brothers were moved to SOS Children's Village in Coconut Creek, Fla., a small complex with 10 houses and around 150 apartments. He used to wake up in the morning and bang on all the doors, rounding up everybody to play football. At that time, he realized if he had football, he would be all right.

> When he was younger, Ridley played Pop Warner football in the same league as Baltimore Ravens quarterback Lamar Jackson, Kansas City Chiefs wide receiver Marquise Brown and Ravens cornerback Trayvon Mullen, in the Pompano Beach area of Florida just four miles from the high school he would attend.

➢ His younger brother, Riley, played college football at Georgia and was drafted by the Chicago Bears in the fourth round of the 2019 NFL Draft.

11 - QB MASON RUDOLPH

➢ Rudolph comes from an athletic family. His mother, Jamie, ran track at Liberty University and his dad, Brett, played football at the University of North Carolina. His younger brother, Logan, played on the defensive line at Clemson from 2017-19.

➢ Rudolph has a strong connection to 2024 first-round quarterback Drake Maye. In the mid-1980s, Drake's father, Mark, was the starting quarterback at North Carolina and his roommate was Mason's dad, Brett, a linebacker on the Tar Heels. The two fathers have stayed close in the years since college, and their children grew up together. When the Rudolphs lived in Virginia, the families would go on vacation together once or twice each year. After the Rudolphs moved to Rock Hill, S.C., when Mason was in middle school, they were a 45-minute drive from the Mayes' home in Huntersville, N.C. The boys went to each other's basketball and football games.

PLAYER NOTES

MEDI

98 - DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

> In 2023, Simmons was named the Titans nominee for the NFL's Walter Payton Man of the Year Award that recognizes a player for outstanding community service, as well as excellence on the field. "To be in a position to be able to give back, it means a lot. I want to be a light in the community."

➢ In July 2023, Simmons paid homage to his hometown of Macon, Miss., with his first 'Community Fun Day,' which included local food vendors, games, inflatables and fireworks. He was then honored by city officials with a key to the city. He also holds an annual youth football camp in Mississippi.

> In July 2022, the official ribbon cutting was held at the Jeffery B. Simmons Field House at Noxubee County High School in Macon, Miss. Simmons donated more than $50,000 to upgrade his former high school's athletic facilities. During the same week, he donated $75,000 to Starkville (Miss.) Parks and Recreation to be used for a new turf field at the Starkville Sportsplex. The field was also named in his honor.

Simmons' brother, Dylan Bradley, played football at Southern Miss and then spent time with the Minnesota Vikings. His uncle, Jason Hatcher, played 10 total seasons with the Dallas Cowboys and Washington Commanders.

> Away from football, Simmons enjoys fishing and spending time outdoors.

77 - G PETER SKORONSKI

> His grandfather, Bob Skoronski, was a left tackle for the Green Bay Packers, playing nine total seasons with the franchise. He missed two seasons while serving in the U.S. Air Force. He was a permanent offensive captain for the Packers under Vince Lombardi from 1964 to 1968 and played on five NFL championship teams. In 1976, he was inducted into the Packers Hall of Fame.

> Among all offensive linemen at the 2023 NFL Scouting Combine, Skoronski placed second in the vertical jump (34.50 inches), second in the broad jump (9 feet 7 inches), fifth in the bench press (30 reps) and ninth in the 10-yard split (1.75 seconds).

Minored in history in college and considers himself a "history nerd."

Has a black lab named Slim.

38 - CB L'JARIUS SNEED

> After playing wide receiver at Minden (La.) High School, Sneed converted to cornerback at Louisiana Tech and saw playing time in his true freshman season. His initial collegiate campaign was highlighted by an interception return touchdown against Western Kentucky in the Conference USA Championship Game.

> Sneed's brother, T.Q. Mims, played football at Arkansas-Pine Bluff from 2010 to 2013.

2 - RB TYJAE SPEARS

➢ In the sixth round of the 2024 NFL Draft, the Titans selected one of Spears' best friends and his former college roommate, Tulane wide receiver Jha'Quan Jackson. Spears was with Jackson when he received the phone call from general manager Ran Carthon during the draft.

> Spears has worked with a non-profit organization in New Orleans called Son of a Saint, which provides "mentorship, education, recreation, camaraderie, cultural enrichment, emotional support and helping to fill the void for dozens of fatherless young men."

His first job as a teenager was working at Walmart.

4 - P RYAN STONEHOUSE

> Stonehouse comes from a lineage of punters. His father, Paul, was an All-American punter for Stanford. His uncle, John Stonehouse was an All-American punter at Southern California and was signed by the New York Giants as a rookie free agent in 1996. His uncle, Jeff Banks, was a punter at Washington State. His younger cousin, Jack, is a punter at Missouri.

> Stonehouse's father, Paul, and uncle, John, used to teach punting at their camp, The Kicking Game, and through private lessons. The camp's website houses testimonials from coaches Bill Walsh, John Robinson, Paul Pasqualoni and Mike Price.

> As a craftsman, Stonehouse built an outdoor kitchen in his home, that is owned by his grandmother, and it is complete with two different cooking areas, a sink, granite countertops, it is made out of wood and brick and is even wired for lighting.

93 - NT T'VONDRE SWEAT

Sweat considers fellow Titans defensive lineman Keondre Coburn a close friend and mentor after playing together at Texas.

> Away from football, Sweat enjoys playing video games, including Madden, NBA 2K and Call of Duty: Warzone.

> The son of Lashunda Ross, Sweat is a self-proclaimed 'Momma's boy" and chose to go to Texas to be closer to her. After being drafted and signing his first NFL contract, he surprised his mother by purchasing her a home in their hometown of Houston.

84 - TE NICK VANNETT

> Vannett played a role in the development of a product called "Screen Skinz," a tempered glass screen protector that shows logos of professional and major college sports teams while a phone is off.

 \succ He graduated from Ohio State in August 2015 with a degree in sport industry.

15 - WR NICK WESTBROOK-IKHINE

> As an avid dog lover, Westbrook-Ikhine took care of dogs while in college through the popular app "Rover." Westbrook-Ikhine joined Rover the summer before his senior year at Indiana, and he would set his rate $10-15 lower than the average price to ensure he was selected as a dog-sitter. Westbrook-Ikhine would bring the dogs everywhere with him, even to Indiana's indoor field, and would let the dogs run around on the turf. He has his own rescue dog now named Winston.

 \succ In 2021, Westbrook-Ikhine was named the team's Ed Block Courage Award recipient.

> Westbrook-Ikhine and his wife have become involved with Destiny Rescue, a "global, faith-based organization that rescues children out of sexual exploitation and human trafficking and most importantly helps them stay free." He chose to represent the organization through the NFL's My Cause My Cleats initiative.

81 - TE JOSH WHYLE

 \succ Whyle had the chance to meet Titans great Delanie Walker at the 2023 NFL Combine and the two tight ends enjoyed dinner together one evening.

 $\succ\,$ He loves country music and his all-time favorite artists are Johnny Cash, Luke Combs and Kenny Chesney.

> He has two cats named Boots and Georgie.

> Whyle and fellow Titans tight end Chig Okonkwo were born on the same day: Sept. 8, 1999.

52 - LB JAMES WILLIAMS

> Williams played against fellow 2024 Titans draftee Jarvis Brownlee Jr. since they were both young from pee wee ball through high school in the Fort Lauderdale, Fla., area.

> Williams' hidden talent is writing poetry.

24 - DB JULIUS WOOD

> Wood is familiar with his new professional surroundings having trained at X3 Performance and Physical Therapy in Nashville during the 2024 predraft process.

35 - DB DARYL WORLEY

> Worley and his wife connected through a X hash tag for West Virginia University, in which they realized they were from the same area and planning to attend the same college. They began dating their freshman year at West Virginia.

NISSAN STADIUM GAMEDAY MEDIA INFORMATION

MEDIA RELATIONS CONTACTS

Titans Media Relations (Press Box Seats 1-7): (615) 565-4450 Robbie Bohren, Vice President, Football Communications Dwight Spradlin, Director of Football Communications Jared Puffer, Associate Director of Football Communications (Field Contact) Kaylee Connors, Coordinator of Football Communications Travis McDaniel, Football Communications Assistant (Media Will Call) Visiting Team Media Relations (Press Box Seats 29-32): (615) 565-4452

DIRECTIONS TO NISSAN STADIUM

FROM AIRPORT TO NISSAN STADIUM (APPROXIMATELY 15 MINUTES): Take I-40 West toward Nashville/Memphis to I-24 West (before downtown). Exit at James Robertson Parkway (Exit 48). Turn left at first light (Interstate Drive). Turn right on Woodland Street. Nissan Stadium will be on the left. Follow signs to parking lot ("M" lot on northwest corner/river side of stadium).

NISSAN STADIUM MEDIA WILL CALL/MEDIA ENTRANCE

The media will call window and media entrance are located in the northwest corner of Nissan Stadium near Gate 6. The media will call window opens three hours prior to kickoff.

FIELD MEDIA VESTS

All members of the media with field access during the game must wear a media vest. Still and video photographers will be issued tan vests, while team-affiliated photographers and videographers (scoreboard, social, coaches' shows, etc.) will be issued gray vests. Additionally, media with in-game field access will be issued an armband. All vests and armbands must be obtained prior to each game at the checkin table. Vest check-in is located on the third-floor landing near the press box. All vests must be returned at the conclusion of the game to Titans personnel or to the vest check-in table.

NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX INTERNET ACCESS

Wireless internet access is available free of charge in the Nissan Stadium press box. The login information will be available upon arrival in the press box. A limited number of ethernet lines also are available. Accessing the wireless network works the same in the Nissan Stadium press box as it does in most areas with free connectivity. Titans staff may be able to assist in a limited manner, but you should first contact your company's I.T. department with any questions.

FROM NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX TO INTERVIEW ROOMS

Take the press box elevator (Level 3) to field level (Level 1). The Titans interview room is immediately on the right. Turn left and continue straight along the concourse to reach the visiting team's interview room (white line).

POSTGAME POLICIES

Reporters with press box credentials will not be allowed on the field during pre-game activities or during the game itself. Press box credentials do NOT provide access to the field at the two-minute warning in the fourth quarter. Media will be allowed to gather in the Titans interview room to watch the end of the game or remain in the press box to make the short walk down to the field level at the conclusion of the game. Interviews with Titans players are not permitted on the field following the game. The press conference will begin approximately 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game and will be held in the interview room across from the Titans locker room. Key players also will be brought to the interview room. Simultaneously, the locker room will open to credentialed media members with a working function. The press conference audio will be played live over the press box speakers.

POSTGAME QUOTES

Quotes from each team's head coach and key players will be transcribed and distributed throughout the Nissan Stadium press box following the game. The quotes also will be available at www.TennesseeTitans.com/media.

POOL REPORTS

Pool reporters are assigned by the Pro Football Writers of America. Requests for pool reports with game officials must be made in advance through the home team's media relations. Interviews will be conducted virtually. Pool reports will be recorded, transcribed and then distributed in the press box.

EXITING NISSAN STADIUM

FROM NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX TO STADIUM EXIT: Cross the press box catwalk to the third floor lobby. Take the stairs or elevator one floor down to Level 2. Exit through the doors and walk right to get to the "M" lot.

FROM NISSAN STADIUM TO AIRPORT (APPROXIMATELY 15 MINUTES): Take I-24 East toward Chattanooga to I-40 East toward Knoxville. The airport is at Exit 216A.

NISSAN STADIUM PARKING AND MEDIA ENTRANCE

The media will call window and media entrance are located in the northwest corner of Nissan Stadium near Gate 6. The media will call window opens three hours prior to kickoff. Photographers' vests can be picked up near the entrance to the press box on Level 3.
