FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE — NOVEMBER 17, 2026

TITANS TRAVEL TO DALLAS FOR FIRST TIME SINCE 2018

Tennessee Titans (1-8) at Dallas Cowboys (4-6)

Sunday, Nov. 22, 2026 • 12 p.m. CST • AT&T Stadium • Arlington, Texas • TV: FOX/WZTV-17

NASHVILLE — The Tennessee Titans (1-8) travel to Dallas this week to face the Cowboys (4-6). Kickoff at AT&T Stadium (capacity 80,000) is scheduled for noon CST on Sunday, Nov. 22.

The Titans last made an appearance at AT&T Stadium on Nov. 5, 2018, winning 28-14 on Monday Night Football. The Cowboys returned the favor in the most recent meeting, claiming a 27-13 victory on Thursday night, Dec. 29, 2022. In 16 all-time meetings, the Cowboys lead the series 9-7.

BROADCAST INFORMATION

The contest will be regionally televised on FOX, including Nashville affiliate WZTV FOX 17, and streamed on FOX One in the Nashville market. The broadcast team includes play-by-play announcer Joe Davis, analyst Greg Olsen and reporter Pam Oliver.

Additionally, fans in Nashville can stream live Titans games on mobile devices with NFL+, which offers access to local games and all primetime games on phones and tablets. Out of market, fans can watch every Sunday afternoon game with Sunday Ticket. More information on ways to watch NFL games can be found at nfl.com/ways-to-watch.

The Titans Radio Network and Nashville flagship 104.5 The Zone carry all Titans games across the Mid-South with play-by-play announcer Taylor Zarzour, analyst Ramon Foster, executive producer Rhett Bryan, gameday host Will Boling and sideline reporter Brad Hopkins.

LAST WEEK AGAINST JACKSONVILLE

The Titans were at home last week to host the AFC South rival Jacksonville Jaguars. They made it a one-score game midway through the fourth quarter on a 32-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Cam Ward to running back Tony Pollard – Pollard's sixth touchdown in a three-game span. However, Jacksonville scored the game's final 10 points to prevail 40-23 and maintain a four-game lead in the division.

Ward was 28-of-39 passing for 231 yards with two touchdowns, and he added a team-high 39 rushing yards. In the past two games, Ward's totals include 54 completions for 535 yards and four touchdowns on 79 attempts with one interception, amounting to a 98.9 passer rating. He rushed for 80 yards on 10 carries in the same two-game span.

Kicker Joey Slye made all three of his field goals against Jacksonville, connecting on attempts from 53, 54 and 50 yards. He tied the club record for 50-yarders in a single game and became the NFL's first kicker in 2026 with three in a game. He added two special teams tackles and a forced fumble in kickoff coverage.

Defensive end Jacob Martin had a sack to add to his team lead, bringing his season total to a career-high 7.5 sacks. He is tied for the seventh-best sack total in the NFL in 2026.

THE COWBOYS

The Cowboys are led by second-year head coach Brian Schottenheimer. Prior to being named to the post in 2025, Schottenheimer spent two seasons as the team's offensive coordinator. Under his direction, the Cowboys feature the NFL's third-ranked passing offense in 2026 with an average of 265.5 yards per game.

Quarterback Dak Prescott is in his 11th NFL season since being drafted out of Mississippi State in the fourth round of the 2016 NFL Draft. He is the franchise's all-time leader in passing yards (38,713), attempts (5,146), completions (3,432) and touchdowns (264). In 2026, he has thrown for 2,724 yards with 21 touchdowns and six interceptions.

The Cowboys hosted the San Francisco 49ers last week and fell by a final score of 46-40.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR THIS WEEK

SACKS ALLOWED

- The Titans offense can record its eighth game of the season with two or fewer sacks allowed, which would be its best total within the first 10 games of a season since nine such occurrences in 2020.

DEFENSIVE INTERCEPTIONS

- The Titans can record their fifth consecutive game with at least one interception. The last time they did so within a season was a seven-game streak from Week 3 to Week 10 of 2022.

TURNOVER MARGIN

- The Titans can register their fifth consecutive game with an even or positive turnover margin. It would be their longest such streak since a seven-game run from Week 4 to Week 10 of 2021.

NET YARDS

- After gaining 322 yards against Cleveland in Week 7, 440 yards at Cincinnati in Week 8, and 327 yards against Jacksonville in Week 10, the Titans can post four consecutive games with 320-plus yards for the first time since a seven-game streak in 2021 (Weeks 2-8).

LS MORGAN COX

- Can extend his active streak to 100 consecutive NFL games played.

WR/KR CHIMERE DIKE

- With 2,573 career kickoff return yards, he needs 20 more to pass Mel Gray (2,592) for the sixth most in franchise history.

DE JACOB MARTIN

- Martin, who leads the Titans with a career-best 7.5 sacks in 2026, can register his seventh game in 2026 with at least a half sack.
- Needs one sack this week to reach 8.5 sacks within the first 10 games of the season. He would join Harold Landry III (10.0 in 2021), Jevon Kearse (9.5 in 2003; 9.0 in 2001) and Brian Orakpo (9.0 in 2016) as the only Titans players from 1999 to present to register 8.5 sacks within the first 10 games of a season.

RB TONY POLLARD

- With at least one scrimmage touchdown, he will own a career-best four-game streak of games with at least one scrimmage touchdown.
- Can record his 16th career 100-yard rushing game.

WR CARNELL TATE

- With 413 receiving yards entering the week, he needs 87 more to join Bill Groman (978 in 1960), Ernest Givins (545 in 1986) and Charlie Hennigan (501 in 1960) as the only rookies in franchise history with 500 receiving yards in the team's first 10 games.
- With 34 receptions entering the week, Tate needs six receptions to join Bill Groman (49 in 1960), Sid Blanks (45 in 1964) and Kendall Wright (43 in 2012) as the only rookies in franchise history with 40 receptions in the team's first 10 games.

QB CAM WARD

- Has completed two touchdown passes in each of the past two games.
- For the first time in his career, he can register a passer rating of 90.0 or greater for a third consecutive game.
- In the past two contests, his passing totals include 79 attempts, 54 completions, 535 yards, four touchdowns and one interception, amounting to a 98.9 passer rating. He rushed for 80 yards on 10 carries in the same span.

SERIES HISTORY

The Titans and Cowboys have met only 16 times during the regular season, with the series leaning 9-7 in favor of the Cowboys. They have split the past two games, both of which were primetime contests.

Most recently, the Titans hosted the Cowboys for a Thursday night game on Dec. 29, 2022. Joshua Dobbs started at quarterback for the Titans in place of the injured Ryan Tannehill. The Cowboys, led by quarterback Dak Prescott's two touchdown passes to tight end Dalton Schultz, won 27-13.

The Titans defeated the Cowboys in the most recent matchup at Dallas, winning 28-14 at AT&T Stadium on Nov. 5, 2018. In front of a Monday Night Football audience, Titans quarterback Marcus Mariota passed for two touchdowns and rushed for another. The Titans defense forced two turnovers and totaled five sacks while pitching a second-half shutout against Dallas. Safety Kevin Byard recorded an interception in the end zone to avert what could have been an early two-touchdown lead for the Cowboys.

The teams first played each other in Dallas in 1970, the first year of the NFL/AFL merger. The Cowboys were victorious with a 52-10 win on their way to their first NFC title and an appearance in Super Bowl V.

In 2000, the teams met for the first time outside of Texas in Nashville on Christmas Night. With their 31-0 shutout of the Cowboys, the Titans clinched the AFC Central Division championship, finishing the regular season with a 13-3 record for the second consecutive year.

While their regular season meetings have been infrequent, the two former in-state rivals once met routinely in the preseason. They have played a total of 34 preseason contests, including match-ups in a string of 31 consecutive preseasons from 1967-97. No other team has played more preseason games against the Titans/Oilers than the Cowboys. Most recently, the Titans helped open AT&T Stadium (then called Cowboys Stadium) on Aug. 21, 2009 with a 30-10 preseason loss.

MOST RECENT MATCHUPS

TITANS-JAGUARS: THE LAST MEETING

2022 Week 17: Titans 13, Cowboys 27
Thursday, Dec. 29, 2022 • 7:15 p.m. CT • Nissan Stadium

In Week 17 of the 2022 season, the Titans hosted the Cowboys for a primetime matchup on Thursday Night Football and fell to Dallas by a score of 27-13.

Dallas jumped out to a 10-0 lead with a scoring drive in each of the first two quarters. In the opening stanza, Cowboys QB Dak Prescott led his team on a 10-play scoring drive that included first-down passes to Cowboys TE Dalton Schultz and Cowboys WR T.Y. Hilton. Ultimately, Cowboys RB Ezekiel Elliot found the end zone on a one-yard rushing score, 7-0 Dallas. In the second quarter, Dallas tacked on a field goal as Cowboys K Brett Maher converted a 36-yard attempt, 10-0 Dallas.

Later in the second quarter, Prescott's pass was intercepted by S Kevin Byard and returned two yards to give Tennessee possession at their own 36-yard line. QB Josh Dobbs found RB Julius Chestnut on a 33-yard screen pass to enter Cowboys territory and then found WR Robert Woods for a 10-yard gain to move the sticks. Ultimately, the Titans were forced to settle for a field goal as K Randy Bullock made a 37-yard attempt, 10-3 Dallas. On the ensuing Dallas possession, Prescott threw a second interception to Byard, who returned the ball 28 yards for a Titans first down at the Dallas 41-yard line. Dobbs threw a 30-yard pass to WR Treylon Burks, setting up a second field goal as time expired. Bullock converted a 29-yard kick as Dallas took a 10-6 lead into halftime.

Dallas increased it's lead in the third quarter with an 89-yard scoring drive. Facing a third-and-19 at the Dallas 43-yard line, a pass interference provided the Cowboys a first down at the Tennessee six-yard line. Prescott then found Schultz for a six-yard touchdown pass to extend the lead, 17-6.

However, on the ensuing Titans possession, Tennessee inched closer with a touchdown of its own. Dobbs connected with Burks for a 21-yard gain, and RB Hassan Haskins contributed a 12-yard first down rush, as the drive culminated in a seven-yard touchdown pass from Dobbs to Woods, 17-13 Cowboys.

In the fourth quarter, Dallas tacked on 10 points to put the game out of reach for Tennessee. First, a 10-play possession concluded as Prescott found Schultz for a 10-yard score to make it 24-13. Then, the Titans defense held Dallas to a field goal as Maher converted a 45-yard kick to make it 27-13. However, Tennessee was unable to construct a comeback and fell to Dallas at home.

Brian Schottenheimer is in his second season as head coach of the Dallas Cowboys. He was named the 10th head coach in franchise history on Jan. 24, 2025 after two seasons as the team's offensive coordinator.

In his first season at the post, Schottenheimer helped Dallas' offense rank second in the NFL in total offense (391.9 yards per game). Quarterback Dak Prescott passed for 4,000 yards while CeeDee Lamb and George Pickens each recorded 1,000-yard receiving seasons. Running back Javonte Williams also topped 1,000 rushing yards and the Cowboys finished top-10 league-wide in passing and rushing offense.

With Schottenheimer as offensive coordinator, Dallas led the league in scoring offense during the 2023 season with Prescott passing for a league-high 36 touchdowns. In 2024, Lamb garnered Pro Bowl and second-team Associated Press All-Pro honors after tallying 100 receptions for the third consecutive season.

Prior to joining the Cowboys as a consultant in 2022, he served as the passing game coordinator for the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2021, helping then-rookie Trevor Lawrence pass for a franchise rookie record 3,641 yards.

Schottenheimer spent the previous three seasons with the Seattle Seahawks (2018-20) as the team's offensive coordinator, helping Seattle to three consecutive playoff appearances. He also coached quarterbacks with the Indianapolis Colts in 2016 and 2017.

He spent the 2015 season in the college ranks as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Georgia.

Schottenheimer's first stints as an offensive coordinator in the NFL came with the New York Jets (2006-11) and St. Louis Rams (2012-14). The Jets qualified for the AFC conference championship game in 2009 and 2010 with Schottenheimer leading the offense.

Schottenheimer's father, Marty, was a longtime NFL coach and the two worked on the same staff at several stops including with the Kansas City Chiefs in 1998, Washington Commanders in 2001 and San Diego Chargers from 2002-05. Brian got his start in the NFL as an offensive assistant with the St. Louis Rams in 1997.

Schottenheimer played quarterback at Florida from 1994-96 after one season at Kansas in 1992.

Tennessee Titans	3	7	6	7	—	23

In Week 10 of the 2026 season, the Titans hosted division rival Jacksonville Jaguars and fell by a score of 40-23. The Jaguars opened the game with a 10-play, 60-yard touchdown drive to take an early 7-0 lead. The Titans answered with a 53-yard field goal from K Joey Slye to make it 7-3 with 7:03 left in the first quarter. The two teams traded interceptions after that. LB Cedric Gray intercepted QB Trevor Lawrence on a tipped pass by DT Solomon Thomas and returned it 25 yards to the 50-yard line. However, a few plays later Jaguars CB Travis Hunter intercepted QB Cam Ward on a throw across the middle. Jacksonville turned the interception into three points on a 46-yard field goal from Cam Little to make it 10-3 at the start of the second quarter. The Jaguars extended their lead to 13-3 with another Little field goal, this one from 48 yards out with 7:54 left in the second. On the Titans next possession, Ward connected with WR Elic Ayomanor for a 50-yard completion down to the Jaguars' four-yard line before finding TE Daniel Bellinger for a two-yard touchdown pass to make it 13-10 with 5:06 left in the second quarter. The Jaguars led 16-10 at the half on Little's third field goal of the day. The Titans opened the second half with a 54-yard field goal from Slye to cut the lead to 16-13 with 12:35 left in the third quarter. A pair of controversial officiating decisions led to Jacksonville's next touchdown. First, officials called DL John Franklin-Myers for roughing the passer on Lawrence, who had just thrown an incompletion on third down. It gave the Jaguars a first down, and later in the drive, Lawrence threw a touchdown pass to TE Brenton Strange on a fourth-down play that head coach Robert Saleh argued was an offensive pass interference penalty because of a pick play. No penalty was called and the Jaguars took a 23-13 lead with 6:28 left in the third quarter. On the ensuing drive, the Titans cut the lead to 23-16 with Slye's third field goal of the day, this one from 50 yards out marking the first time in Slye's career he had made three field goals of 50-plus yards in a game. But the Jaguars stretched their lead to 30-16 on a 25-yard touchdown pass from Lawrence to WR Josh Cameron that capped an 11-play, 65-yard drive that took 7:29 off the clock. The Titans answered back quickly, scoring on a 32-yard touchdown pass from Ward to Pollard just over a minute later to make it 30-23 with 8:21 left in the game. Another field goal by Little, this one from 40 yards, made it 33-23 with 4:31 left. The Titans offense was stuffed on a fourth-and-one on the next drive and the Jaguars took over at the Tennessee 28-yard line. RB Bhayshui Tuten scored on a six-yard touchdown run with 1:10 left to account for the final score and drop the Titans to 1-8 on the year.

NOTES FROM LAST WEEK'S GAME

TEAM NOTES

- The Titans played the Jaguars for the first of two matchups within a three-game span. The rematch is scheduled at Jacksonville on Sunday, Nov. 29. Prior to then, the Titans will travel to Dallas to play the Cowboys on Sunday, Nov. 22 (noon CT).
- The Titans have three games remaining at the current Nissan Stadium before the new Nissan Stadium opens in 2027.
- Two members of the team – linebacker Dorian Mausi and guard Chandler Zavala – started in their season debuts. Zavala, who lined up at left guard, made his Titans debut, as did reserve linebacker Dominique Hampton.
- Seven of the 47 Titans who participated in the game were either practice squad standard elevations (wide receiver Xavier Restrepo and linebacker Dominique Hampton), were signed from the practice squad to the 53-man roster the day before the game (punter Thomas Morstead, safety Isaiah Oliver and guard Chandler Zavala), activated from injured reserve during the week (linebacker Dorian Mausi), or were not with the Titans a week prior to the game (linebacker Mohamoud Diabate).
- With one interception on defense and one interception by the offense, the Titans notched their fourth consecutive game with either an even or positive turnover ratio.

TEAM NOTES – OFFENSE

- For the third consecutive game and for the fifth time in 2026, the Titans offense opened the game with a scoring drive. Against the Jaguars, the offense marched 31 yards on eight plays, capped by a 53-yard field goal by Joey Slye.
- The Titans scored 23 or more points for the fourth consecutive game, tied for the NFL's second-best streak behind the Buffalo Bills (nine consecutive games in 2026) through the early afternoon games of Nov. 15.
- After gaining 322 yards against Cleveland in Week 7, 440 yards at Cincinnati in Week 8, and 327 yards against the Jaguars, the Titans posted three consecutive games with 320-plus yards of offense for the first time since a seven-game streak in 2021 (Weeks 2-8).
- The Titans totaled 105 rushing yards, posting their third consecutive game over the 100-yard rushing mark.
- After guard Peter Skoronski was placed on injured reserve earlier in the week, Chandler Zavala made his Titans debut in a start at left guard. Tennessee rushed 17 times for 105 yards, and the team's 6.2-yard average was its highest of the season. The Titans' 6.2 yards per carry was the highest rushing average allowed by Jacksonville through their first nine games of the season.
- Cam Ward and Elic Ayomanor connected for the team's longest offensive play of the season through nine contests, a 50-yard pass completion in the second quarter. It was the longest completion of Ward's career, surpassing a 47-yard pass to Calvin Ridley at Arizona last season. It was also Ayomanor's longest reception, topping his 41-yard catch against Philadelphia in Week 2.

TEAM NOTES – DEFENSE

- The Titans defense registered its fourth consecutive game with at least one interception. The last time the team had such a streak was a five-game run from Week 12 to Week 16 of 2024.
- With one interception against Jacksonville, the Titans increased their season total to nine interceptions, which tied for fifth in the NFL through the early afternoon games of Nov. 15.

- Tied for third on the team with seven tackles, including a tackle for loss, and also tied for the team lead with two passes defensed.

WR ELIC AYOMANOR

- Established a new career high and led the offense with 79 receiving yards on five receptions.

- Recorded the longest reception of his career in the second quarter on a 50-yard catch. He now boasts the two longest offensive plays by a Titan in 2026 after previously recording a 41-yard reception against Philadelphia in Week 2.
- His 16.1 yards per reception in 2026 leads the team through nine games.

TE DANIEL BELLINGER

- Recorded his first touchdown in a Titan uniform on a two-yard reception from Cam Ward in the second quarter. The veteran now has six career touchdown receptions.

WR CHIMERE DIKE

- Recorded two receptions for 16 yards and added a five-yard rush attempt.
- Returned six kickoffs for 156 yards with a long return of 33 yards.

CB COR'DALE FLOTT

- Posted six tackles and a pass defensed.

LB CEDRIC GRAY

- Started and led the defense with nine tackles to go along with an interception, two passes defensed and one tackle for loss.
- In the first quarter, he notched his first career interception, picking off a Trevor Lawrence pass that was initially tipped by Solomon Thomas. Gray was credited with 25 yards on the return.
- Logged his 12th career game with nine or more total tackles.
- Became the first Titans player with a minimum of nine tackles, one interception, two passes defensed and one tackle for loss since safety Kevin Byard against Detroit on Dec. 20, 2020.

TE GUNNAR HELM

- Finished with four receptions for 23 yards in his 25th career game.

DE JERMAINE JOHNSON II

- Registered three tackles, including a tackle for loss.

DE JACOB MARTIN

- Totaled two tackles, a sack and a team-high three quarterback pressures.
- In the second quarter, he helped thwart a Jaguars drive with a 16-yard sack of Trevor Lawrence on third down. It increased his season total to a career-high 7.5 sacks.

NOTES FROM LAST WEEK'S GAME

- Posted at least a half sack in six of the team's first nine games of 2026.
- Through the early afternoon games of Nov. 15, his 7.5 sacks were tied for seventh in the NFL.

LB DORIAN MAUSI

- Logged his first career start at linebacker in his first game of 2026.
- Tied for third on the team with seven tackles.

P THOMAS MORSTEAD

- Averaged 46.0 yards (41.0 net yards) on two punts, placing one at the Jacksonville 17-yard line in the second quarter.

RB TONY POLLARD

- Increased his total to 2,789 rushing yards since joining the Titans in 2024, moving into the Titans/Oilers top 10 during the contest by surpassing Chris Brown (2,757) for 11th place and Ronnie Coleman (2,769) for 10th place.
- Logged his first receiving touchdown in a Titans uniform on a 32-yard catch-and-run in the third quarter. It was the sixth receiving touchdown of his career and his first since the 2022 season.
- Scored his sixth total touchdown since Tennessee's Week 7 game against Cleveland. He joined Derrick Henry as team's only players since the beginning of 2010 with six touchdowns over a span of three games.
- Led the team with eight receptions for 66 yards, both highs since joining Tennessee. His eight receptions established a career high.
- Finished with nine attempts on the ground for 33 yards to give him a total of 99 scrimmage yards in the contest.

WR XAVIER RESTREPO

- Recorded his first reception of the season, a 15-yard catch in the third quarter.
- Finished with career highs in both receptions (three) and yards (31).

WR WAN'DALE ROBINSON

- Extended his streak to 51 consecutive games with at least one reception.

K JOEY SLYE

- Made all three field goals and both extra point attempts.
- Made a 53-yard field goal in the first quarter and added field goals from 54 and 50 yards in the third stanza.
- Registered his first career game with at least three field goals of 50-plus yards and his sixth career game with at least two field goals of 50-plus yards.
- His three field goals of 50-plus yards tied the franchise's single-game record, previously accomplished by Stephen Gostkowski (Sept. 27, 2020 at Minnesota) and Nick Folk (Sept. 30, 2024 at Miami; Nov. 24, 2024 at Houston).
- Became the first NFL kicker in 2026 with three field goals of 50-plus yards in a game.
- Increased his count of 50-yarders (or longer) made since joining Tennessee to 13, tied for sixth in the NFL during that span (2025-26). Slye has 39 career 50-plus-yard field goals, the fourth-most since he entered the NFL in 2019.
- Recorded his first career forced fumble, jarring the ball loose from Jaguars kickoff returner Josh Cameron in the third quarter (recovered by the Jaguars). He became the first kicker to force a fumble since Stephen Hauschka did so in 2017 as a member of the Buffalo Bills.
- Tied his career high and tied for the team lead with two special teams tackles.

RB TYJAE SPEARS

- Returned to action for the first time since Oct. 18 and finished with four carries for 28 yards.

DT NAZIR STACKHOUSE

- Set a career high with four tackles and added a pass defensed.

CB ALONTAE TAYLOR

- Tied for third on the team with seven tackles.

DT SOLOMON THOMAS

- Helped force a turnover in the first quarter when he tipped a Trevor Lawrence pass that was then intercepted by Cedric Gray. Thomas notched his first pass defensed of the season.
- Added four tackles.

QB CAM WARD

- Connected with Elic Ayomanor for a career-long 50-yard completion in the second quarter to set up the Titans' first touchdown of the contest.
- Tossed Daniel Bellinger his first touchdown in a Titans uniform on a two-yard pass in the second quarter.
- Recorded a career-long 26-yard run in the third quarter.
- Finished with 231 yards on 28-of-39 passing with two touchdowns and an interception. It was his second consecutive game with at least 200 yards and two passing scores, the second such streak of his career (Weeks 16-17 of 2025).
- Led the team with 39 rushing yards. The past two games have produced his highest (41 at Cincinnati on Nov. 1) and second-highest career rushing yard totals.
- His 93.0 passer rating ranked fifth in his career in games with at least 20 pass attempts.

CB JOSHUA WILLIAMS

- Finished second on the team with eight tackles.

S KEVIN WINSTON JR.

- Tallied five tackles, including a tackle for loss.

G CHANDLER ZAVALA

- Played his first game with the Titans and logged his first start of the season, opening the game at left guard.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

SUNDAY, NOV. 15, 2026

Wan'Dale (Robinson) didn't finish. He's dealing with an ankle. And then Tony Adams did not finish. He was held out for a concussion.

Where do you feel like things started to kind of not spiral, for lack of a better term, but where do you feel like you lost the thread there?
We were sitting there 30-23 and we had that critical third-and-long. It was third down for us from a defensive perspective, just not making the plays that we need to make in those situations. Give them credit. That third-and-11, and I think it was 30-23 at that point, got a chance to get off the field, and Trevor (Lawrence) scrambles. But I think that was the situation, but either way, that was a critical one that led to points for them. But just overall in critical moments, the fourth down inside the 5-yard line, I think they were 7-of-14 on third down overall, which is not good enough on defense. Just critical moments.

You've given up 40 two games in a row, 300-yard passes three games in a row. How do you stop the bleeding on defense, and can you compete if teams are doing that?
Yeah, if you're giving up 40 a game, you're not going to compete. We've got to do better in, like I said, situational football, third down, red zone. Obviously, teams are—and give those guys credit. I think the (Parker) Washington kid made three ridiculous plays. But overall, it's something that we've definitely got to get better at.

When you look at the touchdown to Josh Cameron, and I think it was two times Jakobi Meyers got open, it looked like there was like a miscommunication. What happened in the secondary?
On the last touchdown?

On Josh Cameron's touchdown, and a few times Jakobi Meyers was able to get open as well, kind of running behind the defense.
Yeah, well, the last one we were in a cloud, so there was—need more depth from the corner, safety has got to play more on top of one. But on the other touchdowns, I've got to go back and look. There was a couple plays where they were able to create space in the secondary. But overall, for the most part, I thought we were all right, but like I said, the third downs that allowed them to extend drives, the explosive plays that came on third down resulted in most of the bleeding for us today.

What was your take when you got the roughing and then the call that you disputed at the goal line?
Well, the roughing, obviously I don't agree with either one of them. But they called them. There's nothing we can do about it.

The pick, were you saying that there was a pick play there?
They picked. I mean, the pick damn near happened in the end zone.

Were you given any kind of explanation?
They said it was within one yard, and it wasn't.

Do you think an umpire officiating as a referee puts the whole game in a difficult situation?
No. I thought the refs overall did a good job. Obviously, that was a—it was a missed call. Then as far as the roughing the passer, I still don't understand what that was.

It seemed like consistently you couldn't generate enough of a pass rush to really affect Trevor Lawrence more than just on occasion. How often did you guys send blitzes after him and how often did you just rush four?
I've got to look at the numbers but felt like we had a balance with regards to some of the pressures that we sent. On one of the first third downs, I think they caught on Alontae (Taylor) on the sideline, and we were in a pressure, we were able to get a hit on the quarterback. Made a really good throw, and then (Parker) Washington made a hell of a catch. We sent some pressures in the second half. Again, he was spitting it out to number (11) outside the numbers and they were doing a good job. One was uncontested. The second one to (Cor'Dale) Flott where I thought he was a little bit closer. But either way, they did a good job combatting it.

Realistically, how much do you think the defense can improve considering the personnel changes it's undergone recently?
We've got to get better, and we can get better. It's little things. They had a couple checkdowns on the drive that went for 11 yards, which is bad football. When you look at the picture and where guys were when the ball came out of the hand, it should be a four-, five-yard gain. So those are things we've got to get faster at. Unfortunately, we weren't—and then obviously in critical situations, in one-on-one moments, we've got to be able to win on the outside and win our one-on-ones on the inside in pass rush.

Today it was Parker Washington, a couple weeks ago it was Tee Higgins who was you mentioned the dominant receiver that had a big game. How can you determine if it's just guys going off against you or if it's something you guys can be better at against the wide receiver 1 types?
You know, with (Parker) Washington, God, I think he made some ridiculous catches today. I'm not exactly sure, unless you're just committing to strictly just—we had some doubles here and there. We were doing some different things. But there's still a whole game, a different game to play, whether they run the ball. There's a lot of different things that they do. Jakobi Meyers is a hell of a player, 85 is a hell of a player. They've got good players all the way around, so you're just trying to mix the coverages the best you can. But at the end of the day, there's going to be moments where you've got to win a one-on-one if we want to be able to get pressure on the quarterback and do those things, and unfortunately, we just didn't do it today.

You came out with seven straight passes to start the game and in tempo. Was that designed to replicate what you did to start against Cincinnati, or was it more of a respect for their run defense, which is near the top of the league?
It's what the game plan called for. Cam (Ward) has been getting a lot better throughout the course of the year. I think he's very close to consistently playing at a high level, which is what we're going to need. So we're in a space right now where we're very confident putting the ball in his hands to allow him to do the things he needs to do.

Can you really ask much more from these guys in terms of effort?
I thought we played our asses off today. I know the scoreboard is what it is, but our guys played their asses off. I know it says 40-23, but that's not indicative of what I felt this game was. I felt like it was a heck of a lot closer there, especially in the fourth quarter. We're sitting there 30-23 with a chance to get the ball back, and credit to those guys they made a play to extend the drive and get points on. But regardless, it was a little bit of a back-and-forth. Felt like we had our opportunities to kind of tie the game, even coming out of the locker room. Had a chance to go take a lead with having the ball, but we got points on. Again, I thought our guys gave us everything they had. Unfortunately, they made more plays than we did.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

Have you seen Joey Slye hit people like that?
That was awesome. It was awesome. Joey (Slye) actually did in Cincinnati. He hit somebody. He sit one of the—it didn't get much pub because I think there was a penalty on the play, but he blew up the returner in that game, too.

QUARTERBACK CAM WARD

How encouraging is it to be able to get some offensive consistency after being on the bye week?
I mean, it's big. I think what we're looking forward to is putting up more points. That's the only way we're going to be able to win games, especially against good offenses like that. But I mean we found what we want to do offensively. We just got to continue to build on it, continue to get better.

What you did like about what you did today and what wasn't good enough?
Well, I think what wasn't good enough is we're consistently, myself, we're having turnovers off sudden change. That's where we have to be able to make the defensive turnover count as points. And that's the biggest thing that we have to emphasize. I have to better protecting the ball in that situation. But I always think we're getting better each and every week. We're very young, but we don't take that as an excuse. We think we can compete with anybody in the NFL. We are competing with anybody in the NFL. We just got to try to win games.

It sounds like you're picking your opportunities better to run. Is your clock shortening or what is behind you running a little bit more and more successfully?
I think Dab's (Brian Daboll) has emphasized that to me. He's called more runs than what we have in previous games, whether it was zone read runs or true quarterback runs. Then I think it's me getting a feel for the game and the situation of whether it's a third down, second-and-short, if I see a gap, just take it and get the first down, keep the chains moving.

Seems like there have been times in the past when maybe the offense didn't do well and you guys have said to the defense, 'Hey, we need to do more, make your effort stand up.' They saying anything like that to you as they're going through a tough time?
We all got to do more. I think what I preach to them is we're not playing complementary football. We're doing it at key times, but we're not doing the whole game. And if you don't do the whole game, you're going to constantly find yourself losing three, seven-point games. So, we start to play together at every play, every aspect of the game, whether defense gives up a touchdown, we got to respond. If we score, defense needs to get a stop. So, it's both sides, not just one, but continue to try to build together.

I kind of understand what you were saying about running it. You mentioned you're kind of getting a better feel on when to run. Are you running more now in situations than you were previously in the season? Are you recognizing those opportunities better?

I guess you could say that, but it all comes down to the play call, what we have on the play. If it's a completion play, if it's shot play, or if it's a move-the-pocket play, it all depends on that. Then it all comes down to being able to out-leverage guys in space, and if I have it, just get the first down, get out of bounds.

Cam, with Carnell Tate being out today, how important was Elic Ayomanor?
Very important. He's someone who's very physical. He runs really good routes. I think, early in the game, I was getting back to him too fast before he got out of his breaks. But he's a guy who I can always depend on. That goes for the whole receiver corps. So, we just got to continue to hone in on him, what he's good at, put him in great situations, and I got to deliver the ball to him.

The deep one, obviously, he had a lot of space. How quickly did you realize after you let it go that he'd be able to go so far with it?
As soon as I got out the play fake, seeing him get to either some type of quarters or two, then it's really him over the MIKE Linebacker, then he did the rest. So, it was a great play call by Dabs (Brian Daboll) right after we ran the toss to do the play-action off of it. So, I think we just executed that play very well.

Do you think it showed how fast he is on that play?
Yeah, he got fined for that, too. He can't get stopped right there. We got to find a way to get in the end zone, but he for sure got a fine for that one.

The interception you take, did Travis Hunter surprise you diving it to get that pass. Do you think you could have put it out more?
I think I could have put it out more for sure. If I had the play over again, I'd do the same thing. I would just put it more outside. He made a great play. So just continue to give my guys chances. And I know if Elic (Ayomanor) had the opportunity again, I know he'd try to make the play for me. But I for sure got to put it outside.

The long pass to Elic Ayomanor and your long run on the sideline were both career longs for you. How much confidence and maybe continued growth do you take into those two plays specifically?
Just continue to get better, continue to hone in on little things, try to have a lot more explosives next week and try to get a win against the Cowboys.

How is going to the line of scrimmaging, instead of more huddling, kind of help you process things on the field?
It's easier, not only for myself, but for everybody. The defense has to play to our tempo, whether I snap it fast or I use the whole shot clock. And it allows us to do plays that we're good at and just dress them up different ways. We're able to play fast or to play slow if we want to. And it allows Dabs (Brian Daboll) to talk to me more at the line of scrimmage if he wants to get to a play or if I need to get to certain play. But it's for sure helping us out a lot.

Cam, knowing that the defense has been kind of depleted with guys hurt and guys being traded. How much do you feel like you and the offense kind of have to pick up the slack and be more aggressive and proactive in terms of keeping this team in game?
We got to do more. Defensively they know what they have to continue to work on, but at key times we have to help those guys out. They've been doing it for us the entire part of the season and we have continue to try to find ways to score points in the red zone. Can't settle for three points with teams like Jacksonville. I think that's where we can continue to watch this film get better is try to get seven in the red zone.

Early in the game on that first drive, it was a third down, you checked into another play, you hit Elic Ayomanor. That along with the no huddle, do you feel like you're getting more freedom to check plays and make decisions at the line?
For sure. That plays a part in Dabs (Brian Daboll), too, giving me so much time at the line of scrimmage. He's given me the keys to the kingdom. It doesn't matter what I go to, but I always got to have an explanation of what I'm going to and why. He's a true quarterback coach. Him and Shea (Tierney), they prepare me the right way each and every week. It's always three plays that we all want back, whether it's from Dabs as a play caller, me as a quarterback. It's always a couple plays that we all want back. But I can for sure and proudly say that I think I'm the most prepared quarterback week in and week out.

How much of that do you feel is like getting to the next level? Something Shea Tierney said is that he expects you to do that eight, nine games into the offense.
Yeah, just continue to hone into who I'm surrounded with. Playing to all of our strengths, myself being as accurate as I can be with my playmakers out there, then I think it comes down to our mindset. The mindset I have to have, each and every drive to play one play at a time. And it all takes care from the O-line. I think those guys the whole year have been doing a fantastic job protecting me. Even the sack today really wasn't on them. So just us continue to get better and us continue do the things that we're good at on the field.

LINEBACKER CEDRIC GRAY

It seems that anytime the game got close, they always had an answer. How did it feel on defense?
I think it was tough. I think we got into third down a lot. I think the biggest thing was not getting off the field on third down. I think if we just make those adjustments, make better plays when the ball is in the air, the game could have gone a lot differently.

Down a bunch of key players with injuries, trades and stuff like that, what does it say about the character of this team, taking on a first-place and fighting with them as long as you did today?
Yeah, I mean, I think that's the culture of this team. No matter what happens, no matter what our record is, we're still going to go out there and fight. Obviously, we need to do more than fight. We need to execute, and we need to win some football games. But this team is always going to out there and play hard. Your tape is your resume. So we're not going to to go here and put bull crap on film.

How nice was it to get your first interception in the books?
It was amazing, it was great. Dream come true. Like you said, it was my first one. So, to be able to get an opportunity, off the tipped pass today, and get one, was very exciting.

RUNNING BACK TONY POLLARD

How frustrating is it, when you have two weeks of a really good run game, and then obviously, this outcome today?
Well, it's tough, especially in a game like today. We pretty much were in it, the whole day. We just couldn't find a way to pull ahead and get the lead. Got to be a little bit better, playing complementary football off of each other. Offense going out there, getting points off of turnovers, defense getting stops off of us, getting points. We've just got to all bring it together.

Was their run game defense, better than you guys anticipated?
No. We knew their run game defense was pretty good. Top-ranked in the league. But we believe in what we do. As long as we do what we do right, it really doesn't matter what the other guys do. There was a lot of things out there, some of it was self-inflicted. But we just have to be better.

What have you seen, in the big differences of the drives, where you finish in touchdowns, as opposed to the ones finishing in field goals? How much of a difference was that today?
Guys just making plays. When an opportunity comes their way, you either make the play or you don't. And we had a few of those, but not enough of them.

Was this a bench marker, so to speak, of the kind of a game, where we see how you fare against a team that's on their way to winning this division, where ultimately, you guys want to be?
I wouldn't say that. But no, it's the next game. We wanted to go out there and win. We felt like we were in a position to go and do that, but we just weren't able to pull it off today.

What kind of positives can you take, from the way you guys were able to fight against a really good team, being under-manned, with trades, and all that?
There's always positives. Offense, us being productive, being efficient on offense, us playing on time, getting the ball out of our hands, tiring the defense out, having them play to our tempo. There's a lot of things that we can build off of from that game today.

A lot of guys on both sides of the ball seemed to step up today. How positive is that, going forward?
That's big for us. With the guys that we lost in free agency, that's something that the entire team, everybody's going to have to play a bigger part, bigger role.

CENTER AUSTIN SCHLOTTMANN

What do you think as a group of your performance?
I am a tape guy. I need to watch the tape before I can really comment on kind of what we were doing well, what we weren't doing well. But we just got to finish drives, got to finish in the end zone. That's the name of the game, especially against a team like that. They're a great team, a great offense, and a great defense. You have to score touchdowns against them.

What positives can you take away from this game in terms of how you guys were able to fight against a really good team?
You always want that, that's obviously the main goal. I think we had guys step up, make sure we did a great job today, just speaking O-line wise, and just stuff to build on. We'll just keep working, we'll get to see them again in two weeks and get to really watch the tape tomorrow and see what went well, what didn't go well, and we'll build on it.

You mentioned it, you're going to see these guys in two weeks and then bye week's over, there's an eight-week sprint to the finish. What do you guys have to do to kind of build some positivity going forward?
I think just speaking offensively, just keep moving the ball, keep the run game going. Keep converting third downs and score touchdowns. That's kind of the name of the game, that's how it goes. That's what you want to always do, but yeah, that's the goal.

2026 TITANS SCHEDULE NOTES

SEASON NOTES

- FAREWELL SEASON: With the opening of the new Nissan Stadium set for 2027, this season will mark the farewell season at the current Nissan Stadium. The Titans will open the campaign with a home game against the New York Jets in Week 1, and the team will close out its final regular season in the current building in Week 17 against the Pittsburgh Steelers. The Titans have already played more games at Nissan Stadium than any other venue in the franchise's history entering 2026. Including regular season and postseason games, the team has appeared 224 times at Nissan Stadium (119-105), one more than the 223 total contests at the Astrodome (116-105-2) from 1968 to 1996.
- PLAYOFF OPPONENTS: The Titans have six total games against four playoff teams from last season. They have home games against Houston, Jacksonville, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh and road contests at Houston and Jacksonville. Four of those games are against 2025 division winners: Jaguars twice (AFC South), Pittsburgh (AFC North) and Philadelphia (NFC East). This is the third consecutive year in which the Titans will have six games against reigning playoff clubs.
- TV BREAKDOWN: Excluding their Week 18 matchup at Houston, which has yet to be assigned a broadcasting network, the Titans are currently scheduled for 10 games on CBS and six games on FOX. Due to the NFL's flex scheduling, some contests could be moved to a different network from the one appearing on the initial schedule.
- TOP DRAFT PICKS: The Titans selected Carnell Tate with the fourth overall pick in this year's draft. The team is slated to face seven of the top-11 players selected in this years' draft, including Fernando Mendoza (first overall – Las Vegas), David Bailey (second overall – N.Y. Jets), Arvell Reese (fifth overall – N.Y. Giants), Sonny Styles (seventh overall – Washington), Spencer Fano (ninth overall – Cleveland), Francis Mauigoa (10th overall – N.Y. Giants) and Caleb Downs (11th overall – Dallas). Tate, Reese, Styles and Downs were teammates at Ohio State University.
- HEAD COACHING EXPERIENCE: Robert Saleh was one of 10 NFL head coaches who were hired by their teams this offseason, and the Titans will face five of the others: New York Giants' John Harbaugh, Baltimore's Jesse Minter, Cleveland's Todd Monken, Las Vegas' Klint Kubiak and Pittsburgh's Mike McCarthy. It is the first time since 2022 the Titans will face five-or-more head coaches in their first season with their team.
- THREE GAMES BASED UPON 2025 FINISH: Every NFL team has two intraconference games and one interconference matchup based on the previous year's standings. As a result of the Titans' fourth-place AFC South finish in 2025, they host the AFC East's fourth-place New York Jets, and they visit the AFC West's fourth-place Las Vegas Raiders and the NFC North's fourth-place Detroit Lions. Overall, the Titans' strength of schedule is .476 (137-151-1) based upon their opponents' combined 2025 record, the eighth lowest out of 32 NFL teams.
- OFFENSIVE LEADERS: The revamped Titans defense under head coach Robert Saleh will face two of the top-five offenses from last season in the Dallas Cowboys (second – 391.9 yards per game) and Detroit Lions (fifth – 373.2).
- TIME (ZONE) TRAVEL: The Titans will stay in the Central time zone for 10 matchups in 2026, including every home game and their two trips to Texas against the Cowboys and the Texans. They will double their trips to the Eastern time zone from three in 2025 to six in 2026 (at N.Y. Giants, Baltimore, Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Jacksonville and Detroit). Outside of a preseason visit to San Francisco, the farthest Tennessee will fly is to Las Vegas, their second trip to Nevada in two seasons after never playing there before 2025. The Titans will not play in the Mountain time zone.

WEEK-BY-WEEK SCHEDULE NOTES

- WEEK 5 (H) & WEEK 18 (A) vs. HOUSTON TEXANS: The Titans and Texans rivalry enters its 25th season. The two teams have split the season series in six of the last nine years. The Titans will look to take the lead in the series as it currently sits tied at 24 wins apiece. Head coach DeMeco Ryans and quarterback C.J. Stroud enter their fourth year together. The Texans have reached the playoffs the previous three seasons but have fallen short in the divisional round each year.
- WEEK 6 (A) & WEEK 15 (H) vs. INDIANAPOLIS COLTS: The Titans look to end the Colts' six-game winning streak in the rivalry. Prior to the Colts' streak, the Titans won five consecutive matchups in the series from 2020-22. Titans' defensive coordinator, Gus Bradley, spent three seasons as the Colts defensive coordinator from 2022-24, including two years under current Colts head coach Shane Steichen. The two coaches spent four years together (2017-20) with the Chargers as Steichen climbed the ranks from offensive quality control to quarterbacks coach to offensive coordinator while Bradley served as defensive coordinator.
- WEEK 10 (H) & WEEK 12 (A) vs. JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS: The Titans and Jaguars will play two games in a three-week span, as the Jaguars defend their divisional crown. In 2025, the Jaguars went 13-4 to win the AFC South for the first time since 2022. The Titans, who lead the series 35-28 including the postseason, look to regain the momentum in the series after being swept the past two seasons. Titans defensive coordinator Gus Bradley served as head coach of the Jaguars from 2013-16. During that time, Titans head coach Robert Saleh was the linebackers coach.
- WEEK 11 at DALLAS COWBOYS: In Week 11, the Titans and Cowboys will meet for the 17th time as the Titans travel to AT&T Stadium for the first time since a 28-14 Monday Night Football victory in November 2018. Tennessee has won both of its regular season games at the site, which opened in 2009. Of the 14 new additions to the Titans coaching staff in 2026, three (Dave Borgonzi, Tanzel Smart and Aaron Whitecotton) coached for Dallas in 2025. Special teams coordinator John "Bones" Fassel joined the Titans in 2024 after five years with the Cowboys. The Titans also acquired defensive lineman Solomon Thomas in a trade with Dallas in March.
- WEEK 13 vs. WASHINGTON COMMANDERS: The Titans will face the Commanders in Week 13. In 2024, the teams also met in Week 13 in the nation's capital. The Titans lead the all-time series, 8-7, and have won two of the last three meetings. Washington coach Dan Quinn succeeded Titans defensive coordinator Gus Bradley as defensive coordinator of the Seahawks in 2013 after Bradley was hired to be the head coach of the Jaguars. Head coach Robert Saleh served as quality control coach under both Bradley and Quinn in Seattle from 2011-13, ending the 2013 season with a victory in Super Bowl XLVIII.
- WEEK 14 at DETROIT LIONS: For the second time since 2024, the Titans will make the trip to Detroit to take on the Lions, and they look to win their seventh game against Detroit in eight matchups. The Titans currently hold a 10-4 lead in the all-time series. Head coach Robert Saleh is a native of Dearborn, Mich., a suburb of Detroit. This will be his first time visiting Detroit as a head coach. Since the Lions hired Dan Campbell as head coach in 2022, their 45 regular season wins are the fourth-most in the NFL.
- WEEK 16 at LAS VEGAS RAIDERS: For the second consecutive year, the Titans will travel to Las Vegas to take on the Raiders. This year, the contest could feature the top overall pick from the last two drafts in Titans quarterback Cam Ward and Raiders quarterback Fernando Mendoza, who the Raiders took first overall in 2026. The Titans, who trail in the series 22-31, look to regain momentum after dropping last year's contest in their first ever trip to Allegiant Stadium. Former Titans interim coach Mike McCoy currently serves as the assistant head coach of the Raiders, while former offensive coordinator Nick Holz is the offensive pass game coordinator.
- WEEK 17 vs. PITTSBURGH STEELERS: In the final regular season game at the current Nissan Stadium, the Titans will face off against the Steelers, who are led by new head coach Mike McCarthy. It will be Pittsburgh's first visit to Nissan Stadium since 2020. McCarthy takes over the reins in Pittsburgh following former head coach Mike Tomlin's resignation following 19 seasons at the helm. The Titans look to snap a five-game losing streak against the Steelers dating back to 2014. In franchise history, the Titans/Oilers have played the Steelers more than any other opponent.

2026 GAME-BY-GAME RECAP

Week 1 • Sept. 13, 2026 • JETS 23 at Titans 10 • 0-1

Cam Ward and Carnell Tate connect for an eight-yard touchdown, and Joey Slye adds four field goals ... Jeffery Simmons and Jermaine Johnson II each notch two sacks, and Simmons adds a forced fumble and recovery.

Week 7 • Oct. 25, 2026 • BROWNS 27 at Titans 24 • 1-6

Andre Szmyt's 32-yard field goal as time expires lifts the Browns after Tennessee ties the game with 58 seconds remaining on Tony Pollard's one-yard touchdown run and subsequent extra point ... Pollard scores three touchdowns and rushes for 129 yards, with his first two scores helping the Titans take a 14-0 lead in the first quarter .. The Browns come back using 491 yards of offense, as Deshaun Watson passes for 308 yards ... The Browns defense shifts momentum in the second quarter with a goal-line stand after another would-be touchdown run by Pollard is reversed by replay ... Cleveland's Quinshon Judkins rushes for a pair of scores, and Watson rushes for another.

Week 8 • Nov. 1, 2026 • Titans 36 at BENGALS 43 (OT) • 1-7

Bengals quarterback Joe Burrow runs for a nine-yard touchdown in overtime, and the Titans offense is stopped on the ensuing drive to end the game ... Burrow passes for 462 yards and five touchdowns but is intercepted three times by Titans safety Amani Hooker ... Cam Ward records his first career 300-yard passing game (304), while Tony Pollard rushes for 117 yards and two scores ... In a game that features seven lead changes, the Titans jump out to a 13-0 lead in the first quarter and lead 36-29 with less than four minutes remaining in regulation before the Bengals score the final 14 points.

Week 10 • Nov. 15, 2026 • JAGUARS 40 at Titans 23 • 1-8

The Jaguars never trail, but the Titans make it a one-score game at 30-23 midway through the fourth quarter before Jacksonville scores the final 10 points ... Jaguars quarterback Trevor Lawrence passes for 352 yards and three touchdowns, including seven completions to Parker Washington for 152 yards and a touchdown ... Washington's first-half numbers include six catches for 148 yards and a score ... The teams combine for seven field goals, including three of 50-plus yards by Tennessee's Joey Slye ... Cam Ward passes for 231 yards with touchdowns to Tony Pollard and Daniel Bellinger ... Ward is intercepted by Travis Hunter in the first quarter on the ensuing drive after linebacker Cedric Gray picks off a pass by Lawrence.

Jim Wyatt: New Titans GM Mike Borgonzi Shares His Vision to Build a Winner

The OTP: 2025 New Titans GM Mike Borgonzi

Mike Borgonzi was named the 15th general manager in franchise history on Jan. 17, 2025.

Borgonzi arrived in Tennessee after 16 years with the Kansas City Chiefs, helping to build the franchise into a perennial contender and three-time Super Bowl winner. During his final four seasons in Kansas City, Borgonzi served as Assistant General Manager.

Tasked with building a foundation for sustained success in Tennessee, Borgonzi directed a significant overhaul of the Titans roster from the time he arrived through the end of his second offseason on the job. Entering training camp in 2026, only 17 of the 91 players on the team (as of July 15) were with the club before he was named GM.

The additions included an eight-man class from the 2026 NFL Draft. Borgonzi took wide receiver Carnell Tate with the fourth overall pick, and on the same night, he traded back into the first round to draft defensive end Keldric Faulk at No. 31. It marked only the second time in the franchise's "Titans era" (1999 to present) that the team had multiple first-rounders. The class also included linebacker Anthony Hill Jr. in the second round and five more players on Day 3: guard Fernando Carmona Jr. (Round 5), running back Nick Singleton (5), defensive tackle Jackie Marshall (6), center Pat Coogan (6) and tight end Jaren Kanak (7).

The 2026 draft followed an active period of signings and trades, when the Titans targeted several key veterans to raise the talent level and provide leadership. From the day the NFL's unrestricted free agent signing period began to the start of the draft, a total of 21 free agents joined the Titans. The haul included wide receiver Wan'Dale Robinson (formerly of the New York Giants), tight end Daniel Bellinger (Giants), punter Tommy Townsend (Houston Texans), defensive lineman John Franklin-Myers (Denver Broncos) and cornerbacks Alontae Taylor (New Orleans Saints) and Cor'Dale Flott (Giants). Two additional veterans—defensive end Jermaine Johnson II (New York Jets) and defensive tackle Solomon Thomas (Dallas Cowboys)—were acquired in trades.

Borgonzi capped the 2026 offseason by awarding defensive tackle Jeffery Simmons with a multi-year contract extension, securing the four-time Pro Bowler's tenure in Tennessee for the foreseeable future.

The Titans' first Borgonzi-led draft in 2025 featured nine selections, including quarterback Cam Ward with the first-overall selection. All nine of the draftees appeared in at least six games as rookies, and six members of the group started at least five games. The Titans draft class accumulated 64 combined starts in 2025, which ranked second in the NFL (75 by Cleveland) and was the largest total for the franchise in the Titans era.

Ward, who was voted a team captain as a rookie, started all 17 games, and his 3,169 passing yards eclipsed Marcus Mariota's previous franchise rookie record (2,818 passing yards in 2015). With 15 touchdowns and seven interceptions on 323-of-540 passing, Ward's 1.3 percent interception rate was the best single-season mark in franchise history by all qualifying quarterbacks, breaking Ryan Tannehill's franchise mark of 1.5 percent in 2020.

Another draft pick, fourth-round wide receiver Chimere Dike, was named to the Pro Bowl as a returner and added first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors as a punt returner. Dike led the NFL with 2,427 all-purpose yards, which ranked third all-time for the franchise and first all-time among all NFL rookies. His 17.3-yard punt return average broke Billy "White Shoes" Johnson's franchise record (15.4) that stood since 1977, and he also posted a franchise-best 1,588 kickoff return yards.

During Borgonzi's time in Kansas City, he contributed to 12 playoff seasons (2010, 2013, 2015-24) and 10 AFC West titles (2010, 2016-24). Borgonzi helped construct a roster over a five-season span that won the AFC five times (2019-20, 2022-24) and captured three Super Bowl championships (2019, 2022-23).

In his final eight seasons in Kansas City (2017-24), Borgonzi worked under Chiefs General Manager Brett Veach. As the Assistant General Manager from 2021 through 2024, he supervised and directed the college and professional scouting operations while closely supporting and advising Veach with the club's roster management and player acquisition via the NFL Draft, free agency, waiver claims and trades. During his four seasons as Assistant General Manager, the Chiefs built a league-best 52-16 regular-season record (.765). In the same four-year span, 10 different Kansas City players earned a combined 23 Pro Bowl selections: tackle Orlando Brown Jr. (2021-22), wide receiver Tyreek Hill (2021), center Creed Humphrey (2022-24), defensive tackle Chris Jones (2021-24), tight end Travis Kelce (2021-24), quarterback Patrick Mahomes (2021-23), safety Tyrann Mathieu (2021), guard Trey Smith (2024), guard Joe Thuney (2022-24) and Townsend (2022).

In 2024, the Chiefs captured their ninth consecutive AFC West crown. They tied the Detroit Lions for the NFL's best record at 15-2, setting a franchise record for wins in a regular season and securing the AFC's top seed. Twenty original Chiefs draft picks started at least six games for the team during the 2024 regular season. Kansas City had five players voted to the Pro Bowl, marking the seventh consecutive year in which it had at least five players earn the honor.

Prior to his promotion to Assistant General Manager, Borgonzi served as Director of Football Operations (2018-20), Director of Player Personnel (2017), Co-Director of Player Personnel (2015-16), Assistant Director of Pro Scouting (2013-14), Pro Personnel Scout (2011-12) and Manager of Football Operations (2010). He joined the Chiefs in 2009 as the club's College Scouting Administrator.

Before landing in the NFL with the Chiefs, Borgonzi spent the 2007 and 2008 seasons at Boston College, where he was the Assistant Recruiting Coordinator. He also coached tight ends at Amherst College in 2002 before working in the financial sector in Boston for several years.

A native of Everett, Mass., Borgonzi graduated from Brown University, where he was a four-year starter at fullback and was a three-time All-Ivy League selection.

TITANS HEAD COACH ROBERT SALEH

The OTP: Robert Saleh Talks Titans Training Camp, Cam Ward and Building the Standard

Inside Robert Saleh's First Day as Titans Head Coach

Video: Robert Saleh's Introductory Press Conference

The Tennessee Titans hired Robert Saleh as the 22nd head coach in franchise history on Jan. 22, 2026.

Saleh arrives in Tennessee with 21 seasons of NFL coaching experience: six seasons with the Houston Texans (2005-10), three with the Seattle Seahawks (2011-13), three with the Jacksonville Jaguars (2014-16), five total seasons over two stints with the San Francisco 49ers (2017-20, 2025), and four campaigns as the head coach of the New York Jets (2021-24). During his time in the NFL, he has been a part of nine top-10 defenses, and in his nine seasons as a defensive coordinator or head coach, his team has finished in the top five in total defense on five occasions.

In 2025, Saleh returned to the San Francisco 49ers for his second stint as defensive coordinator under head coach Kyle Shanahan. With the roster decimated by injuries, including season-ending injuries to All-Pro defensive lineman Nick Bosa and All-Pro linebacker Fred Warner, the 49ers went 12-5 during the regular season and progressed to the Divisional Round of the playoffs.

As the head coach of the Jets, Saleh guided four different players in their first four years in the NFL to Associated Press First-Team All-Pro honors (cornerback Sauce Gardner, defensive lineman Quinnen Williams and returner Braxton Berrios) and/or Pro Bowl appearances (Gardner, Williams and linebacker Jermaine Johnson II). The Jets defense finished in the top 10 in multiple categories over the 2022 and 2023 seasons, including first in passing yards allowed per game (178.9) and opponent yards per play (4.7), second in total defense (301.7), and sixth in opponent yards per rush (4.1). The unit also tallied 93 sacks and 29 interceptions during that time, tied for the eighth and 10th-most, respectively, in the NFL.

The 2023 Jets featured a pair of first-team Associated Press All-Pros in Gardner and linebacker Quincy Williams, as well as three Pro Bowl selections in Gardner, Johnson II and Quinnen Williams. The Jets also won four games after trailing in the fourth quarter, tying for the second-most such victories in the NFL. Defensively, the Jets finished in a tie for first place in opponent yards per play (4.6) and ranked second in passing yards allowed per game (168.3), third in total defense (292.3) and tied for eighth in takeaways (27). The Jets held opponents to seven points or less in 10 of their 17 games, which was tied for the most such games in the NFL. Meanwhile, the Jets offense gained 4,566 total yards in 2023, with 64.1 percent of those yards coming from rookie and second-year players, the second-most in the NFL. Saleh saw second-year running back Breece Hall register career highs in rushing yards (994), receiving yards (591), yards from scrimmage (1,585) and total touchdowns (nine).

In 2022, Saleh led a roster that featured two first-team AP All-Pro selections (Gardner and Quinnen Williams), a second-team All-Pro (linebacker C.J. Mosley) and four Pro Bowl selections (special teamer Justin Hardee, Gardner, Mosley and Quinnen Williams). He also oversaw the development of the NFL's Offensive and Defensive Rookies of the Year in wide receiver Garrett Wilson and Gardner, making the Jets the third team in NFL history to have both rookie players win the honor. Wilson led all rookie wide receivers in receptions (83) and receiving yards (1,103), while Gardner led the NFL in passes defensed (20). The Jets improved their win total by three games, which marked the sixth-largest win improvement in the NFL in 2022. The club boasted a defense that tied for first in opponent yards per play (4.8) and finished third in passing defense (189.4), fourth in scoring defense (316) and fourth in total defense (311.1).

In his first year as head coach of the Jets, the 2021 team was led by rookie quarterback Zach Wilson (2,519 passing yards), rookie running back Michael Carter (639 rushing yards) and rookie wide receiver Elijah Moore (538 receiving yards). The Jets were just the second team since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger to be led by rookies in passing yards, rushing yards and receiving yards.

Before taking the helm in New York, Saleh logged four seasons (2017-20) in his first stint as the defensive coordinator for the 49ers. During that span, the 49ers defense ranked third in passing yards allowed per game (211.4), fourth in total defense (323.6) and opponent yards per play (5.1) and sixth in opponent yards per rush (4.1).

In 2020, despite injuries to key players throughout the year, the 49ers defense held top-five marks in passing yards allowed per game (207.9, fourth), third-down defense (35.5 percent, fourth), total defense (314.4, fifth) and opponent yards per play (5.0, tied for fifth). The unit also ranked tied for sixth in opponent yards per rush (4.0) and seventh in opponent rushing yards per game (106.4). The defense was led by Warner, who earned first-team AP All-Pro honors and a Pro Bowl selection after registering a team-high 125 tackles to go along with a sack, two interceptions, six passes defensed, one forced fumble and two fumble recoveries.

In 2019, Saleh was named Coordinator of the Year by Sporting News after leading the 49ers defense to a second-place finish in total defense – 281.8 yards allowed per game – which was the fewest total yards allowed per game by the team since 1997 (250.8). San Francisco placed first in the NFL in passing yards allowed per game (169.2), the fewest passing yards allowed per game in the NFL since 2009 (153.7 by the Jets). It marked the first time San Francisco led the NFL in passing defense since 1987 (165.6). The 49ers tied for second in the NFL in third-down percentage allowed (33.3) and tied for fifth in the NFL in sacks (48), the most by the team in a single season since 1998 (51). San Francisco also ranked seventh in

QUOTES ON ROBERT SALEH

CONTROLLING OWNER AMY ADAMS STRUNK:
"We're delighted to welcome Robert and his family to the Titans, and firmly believe he is the right person for our team and community. We immediately connected with his competitive spirit and detailed approach to developing our players and team. Also, Robert's recommendations from across the league were overwhelmingly positive and were only reinforced during our time together. I want to thank Mike Borgonzi for his leadership during this process and acknowledge the work done by the search committee. They dedicated so much time and effort and I am thrilled with the results – and most importantly – I believe Titans fans will be, too. Congratulations to Robert and his family, and welcome to Nashville."

GENERAL MANAGER MIKE BORGONZI:
"On behalf of the entire Titans organization and Nashville community, I am thrilled to welcome Robert Saleh as our head coach. Robert embodies the fundamental values of what we believe a Titan should look like and represent. He's smart, tough, dependable, and values working with people. His innate ability to lead and respond to adversity is what makes him the right person to lead our football program back to one whose identity embodies sustainable success. We understand the urgency to win, and believe this is a step in that direction with a coach best equipped to accomplish our goals. The work has just begun, but I'm grateful for this partnership and excited to build this together."

opponent completion percentage (61.3) and opponent quarterback rating (83.0).

Bosa, a rookie in 2019, played in all 16 games (14 starts) and registered 47 tackles, nine sacks, one interception, one forced fumble, two fumble recoveries and two passes defensed. He was named Defensive Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press and the PFWA, and Rookie of the Year by Sporting News and PFWA, as well as the NFL's Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Year. He was also named to the PFWA All-Rookie Team and was named a starter in the Pro Bowl. With defensive linemen Arik Armstead (10.0), Bosa (nine), DeForest Buckner (7.5) and Dee Ford (6.5), the 49ers were the only team in the NFL to have four or more players with at least 6.5 sacks in 2019. Rookie linebacker Dre Greenlaw was named to the PFWA All-Rookie team. The secondary was led by cornerback Richard Sherman, who registered three interceptions (one returned for a touchdown) and was named second-team All-Pro.

In 2018, the 49ers defense registered 37 sacks, the most by the team in a single season at the time since 2013 (38). The defense ranked among the top dozen teams in the league in rushing yards per play allowed (4.09, seventh), opponent completion percentage (63.5, 10th), yards per play allowed (5.42, 11th) and net passing yards per game allowed (233.3, 11th). San Francisco was one of six teams (Baltimore Ravens, Buffalo Bills, Detroit Lions, Indianapolis Colts & New England Patriots) to allow fewer net yards per game, rushing yards per game and passing yards per game than in 2017. The 2018 San Francisco defense was anchored by Buckner, who led the team with a career-high 12 sacks and was named to the Pro Bowl for the first time in his career. His 12 sacks were the most by a 49ers defender since 2012 (19.5 by Aldon Smith). Warner started all 16 games as a rookie and led the team with 123 tackles, ranking 12th in the NFL and third among all rookies.

In 2017, Saleh spearheaded a 49ers defensive unit that allowed 5.28 yards per play, which was a 0.62 yards-per-play improvement from 2016 and the third-largest improvement in the NFL from 2016 to 2017 behind Cleveland (0.76) and the Jets (0.72). The defense also held its opponents under 100 yards rushing seven times. From Weeks 12-16, the 49ers' streak of holding each of their five opponents under 100 yards rushing was tied for the longest streak in the NFL over that span (Arizona). The 49ers defense was among the league leaders at getting into the opponent's backfield on running plays, finishing tied for fifth in the NFL by forcing 53 rushes for negative yardage. Over the final eight weeks of the year, San Francisco ranked second in the NFL in rushing yards allowed (640) and tied for fourth in yards per carry allowed (3.62).

Saleh joined San Francisco after three years (2014-16) as the linebackers coach of the Jaguars. In 2016, Saleh's linebackers helped the Jacksonville defense rank fifth in passing yards allowed (215.3) and sixth in opponent rushing average (3.82). Team captain Paul Posluszny started all 16 games at middle linebacker and led the club in tackles for the second consecutive season. According to Jaguars team statistics, linebacker Telvin Smith Sr. registered 118 tackles while starting all 16 games at outside linebacker for the first time in his career. Smith's 350 career tackles from 2014 through 2016 were the most by a Jaguars player in his first three NFL seasons.

In 2015, the Jaguars defense allowed 3.68 yards per rushing attempt, which was the fifth-lowest rushing average allowed in the NFL. Posluszny led the squad and ranked fifth in the NFL with 133 tackles, according to GSIS statistics, while tying with Smith for the team lead with 13 tackles for loss.

Under Saleh's guidance, Smith stepped into the starting lineup in 2014 and ranked third among all rookies with 99 tackles. Smith led the team with two fumble recoveries while ranking second with nine tackles for loss. After a season-ending injury to Posluszny midway through the year, J.T. Thomas stepped in and set a career high in tackles along with two interceptions.

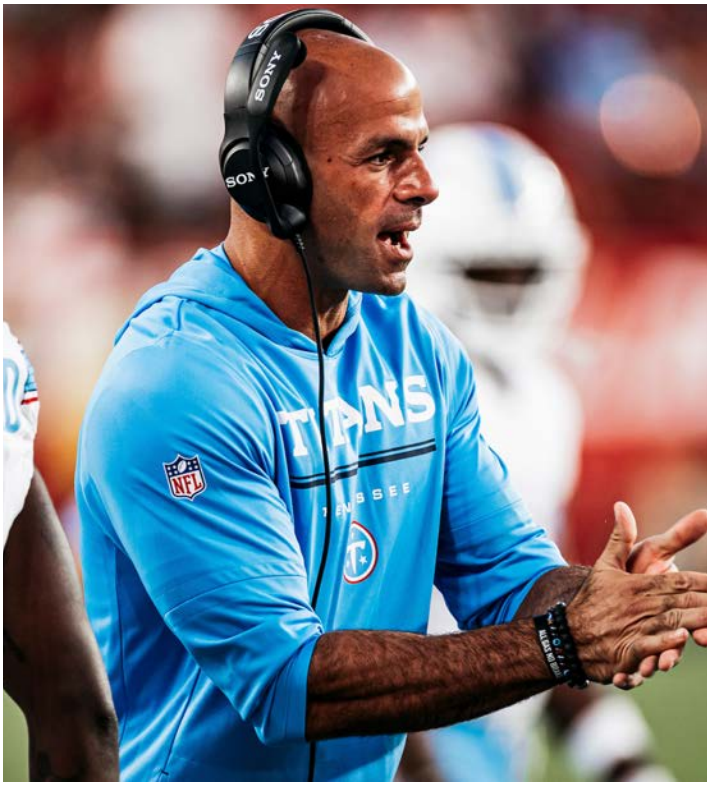

Prior to Jacksonville, Saleh spent three seasons (2011-13) as a defensive quality control coach for the Seahawks. During that period, he was responsible for assisting the defensive staff with day-to-day duties with a focus on the linebackers. Working under linebackers coach Ken Norton Jr., Saleh aided in the development of K.J. Wright, Bobby Wagner and Super Bowl XLVIII MVP Malcolm Smith.

Before joining the Seahawks, Saleh totaled six seasons with the Texans, serving as a coaching intern (2005), defensive assistant (2006-08) and assistant linebackers coach (2009-10). While there, Saleh oversaw the growth of the Texans linebackers, including AP Defensive Rookie of the Year performances by DeMeco Ryans (2006) and Brian Cushing (2009). In 2009, the Pro Bowl duo of Ryans and Cushing were the only teammates to each rank among the league's top 10 tacklers.

Saleh's coaching career began with three seasons in the collegiate ranks. He launched his career at Michigan State University as an offensive assistant/tight ends coach (2002) and defensive assistant/defensive line coach (2003). He then spent one season (2004) as a defensive assistant/defensive line coach at Central Michigan University before a brief stint at the University of Georgia as a defensive assistant/linebackers coach (2005).

A native of Dearborn, Mich., Saleh attended Northern Michigan University, where he was a four-year starter at tight end.

He and his wife, Sanaa, have eight children: sons Adam, Zane, Michael, Sam, Jacob and Robert Jr., and daughters Mila and Ella.

NISSAN STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of an exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

Eight years later, on Nov. 17, 2023, the Titans and Nissan North America announced a new agreement: a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that brands the new Titans home venue as 'Nissan Stadium.'

Slated for completion in 2027, the new Nissan Stadium will host Titans home games, Tennessee State University football games, concerts, large-scale events and other community events.

"This partnership is a natural extension of our already longstanding friendship with Nissan," said Burke Nihill, Titans President and CEO. "Our mission at the Titans is to Win, Serve, and Entertain. We pride ourselves on collaborating with organizations who love this city and state as much as we do, and for the past 40 years, Nissan has invested more than $10.5 billion statewide, serving as a great example of an outstanding corporate steward and community advocate. We look forward to the continued positive impact of this relationship for the Titans organization and the City of Nashville."

"Since 2015 our fans and organization have called our home 'Nissan Stadium,' and we are proud to continue that tradition in the new stadium as we deepen and expand our relationship with them," said Titans Chief Revenue Officer Adam Nuse. "The new stadium will host the world's largest events, as well as serve as a community hub for our local neighbors. We're excited to have a partner like Nissan embark on this journey with us as we look towards the future."

The partnership will feature dedicated areas in the new stadium for brand experiences and displays, innovative technology integration, and involvement in Titans broadcast platforms. Nissan also will support a to-be-determined program in the Titans' ONE Community philanthropic platform, which reaches Nashville's most underrepresented and marginalized communities with a focus on three areas – Opportunity, Neighborhoods and Education.

"Nissan Stadium is a centerpiece of the Nashville skyline and has become a household name in Middle Tennessee. It is important for Nissan to keep our name on the new stadium," said Jérémie Papin, chairperson, Nissan Americas. "As more people come to Nashville both to visit and to live in this wonderful city, Nissan Stadium is true showcase for our brand and for the career opportunities we've offered here for more than four decades. This partnership sends a strong message about the bright future for Nissan, the Titans, Nashville and the State of Tennessee."

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin. Nissan is home to more than 11,000 employees across all three locations.

"Nissan has been a strong partner to middle Tennessee for four decades, and I'm thrilled that the Titans have united with a partner that invests in our community and its people," said Nashville Mayor Freddie O'Connell. "The familiarity and trust they've established with the Titans in the last eight years will undoubtedly be a great asset as we plan for the stadium's opening in 2027."

The new Nissan stadium will be built on the east side of the current stadium campus, along Nashville's East Bank. Features of the building include: a circular translucent roof; exterior porches with panoramic views of Nashville; improved sightlines for all spectators through a range of diverse seating experiences; and a 12,000 square foot community space available for use year-round. A waitlist for those interested in purchasing PSLs or suites is now open at NewNissanStadium.com.

TITANS QUARTERBACKS

No.	Name	Ht	Wt	Exp	College
10	Trubisky, Mitchell	6-3	222	10	North Carolina
1	Ward, Cam	6-2	219	2	Miami (Fla.)

#1 • QB CAM WARD

6-2, 219, 2nd Year/2nd with Titans, Miami (Fla.)

Quarterback Cam Ward was selected by the Titans with the first overall pick in the 2025 NFL Draft. He became the first No. 1 overall pick for the franchise since running back Earl Campbell in 1978.

As a rookie, Ward was voted a team captain prior to the season. He started all 17 games, and his final statistics included 323 completions, 3,169 yards, 15 touchdowns and seven interceptions on 540 attempts with a passer rating of 80.2. He broke Marcus Mariota's franchise rookie record (2,818 passing yards in 2015) for passing yards in a season. He also rushed for 159 yards and two touchdowns on 39 attempts.

With 17 starts, he set a franchise record for starts by a rookie quarterback and joined Ryan Tannehill (2021) as the only Titans quarterbacks with 17 starts in a season since the NFL schedule went to 17 games in 2021. Previously during the 16-game schedule era from 1978 to 2020, six Titans/Oilers quarterbacks combined for 10 total seasons with 16 starts: Warren Moon (three), Steve McNair (three), Dan Pastorini, Ken Stabler, Matt Hasselbeck and Tannehill.

Ward's 540 attempts in 2025 were not only more than any other rookie in the organization's history, but also more than every quarterback in franchise annals in a season other than Warren Moon, who had 655 attempts in 1991 and 584 attempts in 1990.

On 540 attempts, Ward threw only seven interceptions. His 1.3 interception percentage stands as the best single-season mark in franchise history by all qualifying quarterbacks. He broke Ryan Tannehill's franchise record of 1.5 percent in 2020. Over the final nine games of the season, Ward threw only one interception. His 1.3 percent interception rate also tied for the third-best mark in the NFL among qualifiers in 2025 behind Atlanta's Michael Penix Jr. (1.1) and Chicago's Caleb Williams (1.2).

Prior to entering the NFL, Ward played for three different schools over five college seasons: Incarnate Word (2020-21), Washington State (2022-23) and Miami (2024). In 57 career games—all starts—he completed 1,516 of 2,330 passes for 18,184 yards, and his 158 touchdown passes set an NCAA Division I (FBS/FCS) record. He also totaled 399 rushes for 473 yards and 20 touchdowns.

During his graduate campaign at Miami, he started all 13 games and led the Hurricanes to a 10-3 record, giving them their first 10-win season since 2017. He earned first-team Associated Press All-America honors and was a Heisman finalist after establishing Miami's single-season records for passing yards (4,313), touchdowns (39) and completion percentage (67.2 percent, 305-for-454), while throwing only seven interceptions. He received the 2024 Davey O'Brien Award, recognizing the nation's top quarterback, and was named ACC Player of the Year, ACC Offensive Player of the Year and first-team All-ACC.

At Washington State in 2023, Ward started all 12 games and completed 324 of 486 passes for 3,732 yards and 25 touchdowns with seven interceptions. He also accounted for eight rushing touchdowns. At the conclusion of the season, he received All-Pac-12 Conference honorable mention for the second consecutive season.

Ward arrived at Washington State as a junior in 2022. He started all 13 games in his first season with the Cougars and completed 320 of 497 passes for 3,231 yards and 23 touchdowns with nine interceptions. He added five rushing touchdowns.

In 2021, Ward was a sophomore at Incarnate Word, where he was named Southland Conference Offensive Player of the Year, FCS All-American second team and a Walter Payton Award Finalist after leading UIW to Southland Conference Championship, a 10-3 record and into the second round of the FCS playoffs. His statistics included 384 completions on 590 attempts for 4,648 yards, 47 touchdowns and 10 interceptions. He set program records for single game passing yards (610), single-game passing touchdowns (seven), career passing touchdowns (71) and career passing yards (6,908).

As a freshman in 2020, Ward started in all six games at Incarnate Word during the spring season (2021) that resulted from the COVID-19 outbreak. He completed 183 of 303 passes for 2,260 yards and 24 touchdowns and was named the Jerry Rice Award winner, given to the top FCS freshman.

Ward is a native of West Columbia, Texas.

2026 Notes:

➢ Against N.Y. Jets (9/13), started at quarterback, joining Marcus Mariota (2015-16) as the only quarterbacks in franchise history to start Week 1 in each of their first two NFL seasons. He finished with 140 yards on 19-of-32 passing and added four rushes for 21 yards. In the fourth quarter, he connected with Elic Ayomanor for an 11-yard touchdown.

➢ Against Philadelphia (9/20), completed 13 of 20 passes for 183 yards and a 94.4 passer rating. His passer rating was the third best of his 19-game career in a contest with at least 20 attempts. He added two rushing touchdowns, finishing with seven rushing yards on four attempts. He scored the Titans' first touchdown of the contest with a one-yard run on fourth-and-goal in the first quarter and then capped a 12-play, 69-yard drive with his second rushing touchdown of the contest on a one-yard carry in the third quarter. It was his first career game with multiple rushing touchdowns and gave him four career rushing scores. Ward became the first Titans quarterback with multiple rushing touchdowns in a game since Ryan Tannehill had a pair at Houston on Jan. 3, 2021. His four passes of 25-plus yards in the game matched a career high (Ayomanor for 28 and 41 yards, Tyjae Spears for 27 yards, and Calvin Ridley for 25 yards). He increased his streak to six consecutive games without an interception, including the final four games of 2025, while also increasing his streak to 173 consecutive passes without an interception, second in the franchise record books behind only Marcus Mariota's 205 consecutive passes without an interception from 2018 to 2019. Over an 11-game span, including the final nine games of 2025, his totals included one interception, 11 touchdown passes and four rushing touchdowns.

➢ At N.Y. Giants (9/27), finished the game with 181 yards on 23-of-36 passing, with a four-yard touchdown pass to Wan'Dale Robinson. On a fourth-quarter scoring drive, completed all eight pass attempts for 54 yards and a touchdown. In the second half, he completed 16-of-23 passes (69.6 percent) for 141 yards with a touchdown and an interception. Ward's 16 completions in the second half tied for the second-most in any half in his career. Prior to his interception—his first since Dec. 7, 2025 at Cleveland—he attempted 208 consecutive passes without an interception to break the franchise record, previously set by Marcus Mariota, who had 205 consecutive pass attempts without an interception from 2018 to 2019.

➢ At Baltimore (10/4), completed 20-of-31 passes (64.5 completion percentage) for a season-high 222 yards with a touchdown and an interception. In the first quarter, he led a 10-play, 70-yard scoring drive, throwing for 34 yards on the drive before Tony Pollard plunged in for a three-yard touchdown. In the fourth quarter, he led a second 70-yard scoring drive, including a 33-yard connection with Carnell Tate to convert fourth-and-11 and a career-long 22-yard scramble. The drive was capped off by a three-yard touchdown pass to Wan'Dale Robinson and a pass to Gunnar Helm in the end zone for a two-point conversion. It was his ninth consecutive game with either a passing or rushing touchdown.

- Against Houston (10/11), completed 23-of-36 passes for 170 yards.
- At Indianapolis (10/18), completed 11-of-22 passes for 102 yards and an eight-yard touchdown to Carnell Tate in the third quarter. He engineered his second career game-winning drive, leading the offense on a seven-play, 52-yard drive in the fourth quarter that resulted in a 49-yard field goal to put Tennessee ahead for good. During the drive, he completed a six-yard pass to Wan'Dale Robinson to convert a third-and-five.
- Against Cleveland (10/25), finished with 181 yards on 20-of-31 passing and led the offense on touchdown drives of 65, 24 and 63 yards. In the fourth quarter, he engineered an 11-play, 63-yard touchdown drive that included a 26-yard pass to Elic Ayomanor on fourth-and-eight and an 18-yard connection with Carnell Tate on third-and-12. He took one sack (zero yards) against Cleveland, marking his fourth game of the season taking one or fewer sacks.
- At Cincinnati (11/1), passed for a career-best 304 yards, completing 26 of 40 passes (65.0 percent) with two touchdowns. He became the first Titans quarterback with 300 passing yards, two touchdown passes and no interceptions since Ryan Fitzpatrick at Oakland on Nov. 24, 2013. Adding seven rushes for a career-high 41 yards, he joined Lamar Jackson as the only quarterbacks to pass for 300 yards and rush for 40 yards in a game in 2026. He became the first Titans quarterback with such a performance since Marcus Mariota on Sept. 30, 2018 against Philadelphia. Ward completed five passes of at least 20 yards, his most in any game since entering the league in 2025. In the fourth quarter, he connected with Chimere Dike and Wan'Dale Robinson for go-ahead touchdown passes of 11 and 15 yards, respectively. It was the second time in his career he had multiple passing touchdowns in a quarter and his first two-touchdown passing fourth quarter. In the third quarter, he ran in a two-point conversion attempt and connected with Gunnar Helm for another two-point conversion in the fourth quarter. He set career highs for the first half with 21 pass attempts, 14 completions and 166 passing yards – the second most yards he had in any half of his career, trailing only a 209-yard passing performance in the second half at Arizona on Oct. 5, 2025.
- Against Jacksonville (11/15), finished with 231 yards on 28-of-39 passing with two touchdowns and an interception. It was his second consecutive game with at least 200 yards and two passing scores, the second such streak of his career (Weeks 16-17 of 2025). His 93.0 passer rating ranked fifth in his career in games with at least 20 pass attempts. In the second quarter, he connected with Elic Ayomanor for a career-long 50-yard completion to set up a touchdown. In the second quarter, he tossed a two-yard touchdown pass to Daniel Bellinger. Additionally, he led the team with 39 rushing yards, including a career-long 26-yard run in the third quarter. In a two-game span he produced the highest (41 at Cincinnati on Nov. 1) and second-highest (39 against Jacksonville) single-game rushing yardage totals of his career.

ROOKIE QBs, FRANCHISE HISTORY

First-overall draft pick Cam Ward was the 13th rookie starting quarterback in the history of the Titans/Oilers franchise. He became the first rookie quarterback in franchise annals to start at least 14 games, surpassing Vince Young's previous mark of 13 starts as a rookie in 2006. Additionally, Ward passed Marcus Mariota (2,818 passing yards in 2015) for the most passing yards in franchise history by a rookie.

#10 • QB MITCHELL TRUBISKY

6-3, 222, 10th Year/1st with Titans, North Carolina

Mitchell Trubisky is in his 10th NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2026. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 12, 2026.

Prior to arriving in Tennessee, Trubisky totaled nine NFL seasons with the Chicago Bears (2017-20), Buffalo Bills (2021, 2024-25) and Pittsburgh Steelers (2022-23). During that span, he appeared in 82 regular season games with 57 starts and completed 1,244 of 1,933 passes for 13,028 yards with 78 touchdowns and an 86.9 passer rating.

In his second stint in Buffalo from 2024 to 2025, he served as a backup to Josh Allen, appearing in 13 total games. In his final season with the Bills, his numbers included 25-of-35 passing for 313 yards and four touchdowns with no interceptions.

Trubisky was selected by the Bears with the second-overall pick of the 2017 NFL Draft. Over the next four seasons, he appeared in 51 games with 50 starts.

In 2018, he recorded his first of two consecutive 3,000-yard passing seasons and was named to his first career Pro Bowl after completing 289 of 434 passes for 3,223 yards with 24 touchdowns and 12 interceptions. The Bears went 12-4 in the regular season to win the NFC North.

As a rookie in 2017, he started 12 games set the then-franchise rookie records for completions (196) and passing yards (2,193), finished second in attempts (330), and tied for third in touchdown passes (seven).

The Mentor, Ohio, native played in 34 games with 13 starts in three seasons at the University of North Carolina. He finished his Tarheels career ranked fifth in passing touchdowns (41), sixth in passing yards (4,762) and seventh in total offense (5,201).

#20 • RB TONY POLLARD

6-0, 209, 8th Year/3rd with Titans, Memphis

Running back Tony Pollard is in his eighth NFL season and his third campaign with the Titans in 2026. The Memphis native was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 14, 2024.

In 2025, Pollard was voted a team captain for the first time in his career. He led the Titans in rushing for the second consecutive season with 242 carries for a career-high 1,082 yards and five touchdowns. It was the second consecutive season in which he set a career high in rushing (1,079 yards in 2024).

Pollard became the fourth player in Titans/Oilers history to rush for 1,000 yards in each of his first two seasons with the club, joining Earl Campbell (1978-81), Eddie George (1996-00) and Chris Johnson (2008-13). With his fourth consecutive 1,000-yard rushing season, including his final two campaigns in Dallas, he joined Derrick Henry as the NFL's only running backs to rush for 1,000 yards every season from 2022 to 2025.

Pollard's durability continued through seven NFL campaigns, during which time he never missed more than two games in a season. He started all 17 games in 2025, marking the second time in his career (2023) that he started every week. Over a three-season span (2023-25), Pollard missed only one total game (2024).

During his first year with the Titans, Pollard ranked third in the AFC and tied for 12th in the NFL with a then-career-best 1,079 rushing yards on a career-high 260 carries. Both numbers led the team, as did his five rushing touchdowns. With an additional 238 yards on 41 receptions, he produced a team-high 1,317 scrimmage yards—the second-best total of his career.

Prior to joining the Titans, Pollard spent five seasons (2019-23) with the Dallas Cowboys, who selected him in the fourth round (128th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft. During his time in Dallas, he appeared in 79 games with 23 starts, totaling 3,621 rushing yards and 23 touchdowns on 762 carries. With an additional 176 receptions for 1,319 yards and five receiving touchdowns, he reached 1,000 scrimmage yards in each of his final three years in Dallas while also returning 63 kickoffs for 1,500 yards, including one return for a score.

In 2023, his first season as the lead running back in Dallas, Pollard started all 17 games for the first time in his career and led the team with 1,005 rushing yards on a career-high 252 carries (4.0 avg.) with six touchdowns.

In 2022, he set career marks with 193 carries for 1,007 yards and nine scores, averaging 5.2 yards-per-carry to rank third in the NFL and earn his first Pro Bowl nod.

At the University of Memphis, he played in 40 games at running back and wide receiver, amassing 2,233 yards and 18 touchdowns on offense. He also averaged 30.1 yards per kickoff return and tied an NCAA record with seven kickoff returns for touchdowns.

2026 Notes:

➢ Against N.Y. Jets (9/13), rushed seven times for 35 yards.

➢ Against Philadelphia (9/20), led the team with 64 rushing yards on 14 attempts, including a 13-yard run to convert a third-and-one in the second quarter and a season-long 18-yard run in the fourth quarter.

➢ At N.Y. Giants (9/27), led the team with 17 carries for 74 rushing yards and added four receptions for 22 yards. It was his 13th game with at least 90 yards from scrimmage since joining the Titans in 2024, and his 32nd career game with at least 90 scrimmage yards.

➢ At Baltimore (10/4), rushed for 48 yards on 16 carries. In the first quarter, he scored his first touchdown on the season on a three-yard run. He recorded seven carries on the 10-play, 70-yard scoring drive, rushing for 23 yards. During the game he reached the 6,000-yard rushing mark for his career (6,003). Additionally, he surpassed LenDale White (2,349) for 12th place on the franchise's all-time career rushing list.

➢ Against Houston (10/11), logged 14 rush attempts for 52 yards, including a 14-yard rush in the first quarter.

➢ At Indianapolis (10/18), logged a season-high 76 rushing yards on 19 attempts.

➢ Against Cleveland (10/25), matched a personal best with three scores on the ground and set a season high with 129 rushing yards on 25 carries. He scored on the Titans' first two possessions in the first quarter on runs of 36 and 10 yards. To open the game, he carried the ball five times for 60 yards on a 65-yard drive, and his 36-yard touchdown was the eighth-longest rushing touchdown of his career. His 87 first-quarter rushing yards tied a career-best (87 at Cleveland on Dec. 7, 2025). His 10-yard touchdown run later in the first quarter marked his sixth career game with multiple rushing touchdowns and his first career game with multiple rushing scores in the same quarter. In the first half, he rushed 16 times for 92 yards, with a 5.8-yard average, making him the first player in 2026 to average 5.8 rushing yards in a half where they carried the ball at least 16 times. Pollard's third rushing score, a one-yard run to help tie the game at 24-24 late in the fourth quarter, tied his high for a single game originally set on Oct. 30, 2022 as a member of the Dallas Cowboys. Pollard logged his first 100-yard performance of the 2026 season and the 14th such game of his career. He added three receptions for 26 yards to finish with 155 yards from scrimmage, his third-most scrimmage yards since entering the league in 2019. He became the first Titans player to rush for three touchdowns in a game since Derrick Henry against Buffalo on Oct. 18, 2021, and he also joined Henry (Sept. 13 at Indianapolis) as the NFL's first players in 2026 with at least 125 rushing yards and three rushing touchdowns in a game. Henry was also the last Titans player to accomplish the feat prior to Pollard when he did so against Buffalo on Oct. 18, 2021.

➢ At Cincinnati (11/1), finished with 117 rushing yards on 21 carries (5.6-yard average), marking his second consecutive 100-yard rushing game and the 16th such performance of his career. He ran in a 40-yard touchdown in the first quarter to increase the Titans' lead in Cincinnati, giving him the seventh-longest rushing touchdown of his career. At the time it was the ninth-longest rushing score in the NFL in 2026 and the second-longest offensive play by a Titan in 2026, trailing only Elic Ayomanor's 41-yard reception against Philadelphia in Week 2. It marked the first time in his career with back-to-back games with touchdown runs of 20-plus yards. In the third quarter, he scored on a one-yard run.

➢ Against Jacksonville (11/15), led the team with eight receptions for 66 yards, both highs since joining Tennessee. His eight receptions established a career high. He also finished with nine attempts on the ground for 33 yards to give him a total of 99 scrimmage yards in the contest. He logged his first receiving touchdown in a Titans uniform and his first since 2022 on a 32-yard catch-and-run in the third quarter. He scored his sixth total touchdown in three games to join Derrick Henry as the team's only players since the beginning of 2010 with six touchdowns over a span of three games. Pollard also increased his total to 2,789 rushing yards since joining the Titans in 2024, moving into the Titans/Oilers top 10 during the contest by surpassing Chris Brown (2,757) for 11th place and Ronnie Coleman (2,769) for 10th place.

RUSHING & SCRIMMAGE YARDS, 2021-26

Since the start of the 2021 season, Tony Pollard has been one of the NFL's most productive running backs, ranking in the top 10 in rushing yards during that time.

In 2021, Pollard totaled 719 yards on the ground as a member of the Dallas Cowboys, followed by 1,007 yards in 2022 and 1,005 yards in 2023. He arrived in Tennessee in 2024 and set a then-career high with 1,079 rushing yards before breaking that mark with 1,082 rushing yards in 2025.

Most rushing yards from 2021 to 2026:

	Player	Current Team	Rushing Yards
1.	Derrick Henry	Baltimore Ravens	7,857
2.	Jonathan Taylor	Indianapolis Colts	7,168

#2 • RB TYJAE SPEARS

5-11, 200, 4th Year/4th with Titans, Tulane

Running back Tyjae Spears is in his fourth NFL season in 2026. He was selected by the Titans in the third round (81st overall) of the 2023 NFL Draft.

In 2025, he appeared in 13 games with one start and totaled 72 rushing attempts for 283 yards and two touchdowns. He added 45 receptions for 264 yards for a total of 547 scrimmage yards. It was his third consecutive season with at least 500 scrimmage yards to begin his career.

In 2024, Spears appeared in 12 games with one start. His totals included 312 yards and four touchdowns on 84 rushing attempts, and he added 30 receptions for 224 yards and a touchdown.

As a rookie, Spears did not miss a game and registered one start. He carried the ball 100 times for 453 yards and two touchdowns, and he added 52 receptions for 385 yards and one score. His 838 scrimmage yards ranked seventh in franchise history among rookie running backs, and the total also placed fourth among rookie running backs in 2023 behind Atlanta's Bijan Robinson, Detroit's Jahmyr Gibbs and Miami's De'Von Achane. Spears became the franchise's first rookie running back with at least 50 receptions since Sid Blanks in 1964 (56).

Spears spent four years at Tulane (2019-22) prior to entering the NFL. He appeared in 33 games with 20 starts at running back for the Green Wave, totaling 2,910 yards and 31 touchdowns on 427 carries with an additional 48 receptions for 564 yards and three scores. He ended his career as the school's all-time leader in yards per carry (6.8), tied for second in 100-yard rushing games (15), tied for third in rushing touchdowns (31), fourth in rushing yards per game (85.6) and sixth in rushing yards (2,910) and total touchdowns (34). His 6.8 yards per carry from 2019 to 2022 ranked second in the FBS behind only Alabama-Birmingham running back DeWayne McBride's 7.3-yard average (minimum 400 attempts).

As a junior in 2022, he started all 14 games for the Green Wave, totaling 1,581 yards and 19 touchdowns on 229 rushing attempts and adding 22 receptions for 256 yards and two touchdowns. He tied for the national lead with 21 total touchdowns and tied for third in the country with 19 rushing touchdowns, a total that ranked second in Tulane single-season history. His 1,581 rushing yards led the conference and made up the Green Wave's all-time second-highest single-season total. His nine 100-yard rushing games included eight consecutive such efforts to finish the season. He was named the American Athletic Conference Offensive Player of the Year and also earned first-team All-AAC honors. His efforts helped Tulane earn a 12-2 record and win an American Athletic Conference title.

He is a native of Ponchatoula, La.

2026 Notes:

- Against N.Y. Jets (9/13), finished with 24 yards from scrimmage on three carries (12 yards) and two receptions (12 yards).
- Against Philadelphia (9/20), produced a team-high 70 yards from scrimmage (41 rushing, 29 receiving), including a 27-yard run in the fourth quarter, which was the second-longest rush of his career, and a 27-yard reception in the second quarter to help set up a Titans field goal. He reached the 2,000-yard plateau for career scrimmage yards (2,015).

➢ Against Houston (10/11), led the team with a career-high nine receptions for 28 yards. His nine receptions ranked fourth among running backs in a single game in 2026 through Oct. 11. It was the most receptions by a Titans running back since Dion Lewis matched the feat on Oct. 20, 2018 against Philadelphia. Spears, Lewis and Chris Johnson (twice in 2009) are the only Titans running backs to record nine receptions in a game since the beginning of the 1999 season.

➢ Against Jacksonville (11/15), returned to action for the first time since Oct. 18 and finished with four carries for 28 yards.

SCRIMMAGE YARDS, 2023 DRAFT CLASS

In his first three NFL seasons, Titans running back Tyjae Spears totaled 1,921 scrimmage yards, including 1,048 rushing yards and 873 receiving yards. Through 2025, Spears' career scrimmage yards total ranked sixth among the 19 running backs selected in the 2023 NFL Draft.

#84 • TE GUNNAR HELM

6-5, 241, 2nd Year/2nd with Titans, Texas

Tight end Gunnar Helm was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (120th overall) of the 2025 NFL Draft.

As a rookie, he appeared in the first 16 games of the season with 10 starts before missing the finale due to injury. He amassed 44 catches for 357 yards and two touchdowns during the campaign, tallying at least one reception in every game he played. Among franchise rookie tight ends, he had the most receptions in team history and ranked second in receiving yards behind Chig Okonkwo's 450 receiving yards in 2022. Among members of the 2025 rookie tight end class, Helm tied for fifth in receptions and placed sixth in receiving yards.

During his career at the University of Texas, Helm participated in 54 games with 26 starts from 2021 to 2024. He recorded 79 receptions for 1,022 yards and nine touchdowns in his college career.

As a senior in 2024, he started all 16 games and recorded a career-high and team-leading 60 receptions for 786 yards and seven touchdowns. His play earned him second-team All-SEC honors, and he was a semifinalist for the John Mackey Award, presented to the nation's most outstanding tight end. Helm helped the Longhorns advance to the semifinals of the College Football Playoff.

As a junior in 2023, he appeared in 14 games with six starts, totaling 14 receptions for 192 yards and two touchdowns. He was voted honorable mention All-Big 12 and also named Academic All-Big 12 second team.

He is a native of Englewood, Colo.

#5 • WR ELIC AYOMANOR

6-2, 206, 2nd Year/2nd with Titans, Stanford

Wide receiver Elic Ayomanor was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (136th overall) of the 2025 NFL Draft.

As a rookie, Ayomanor contributed 41 receptions for 515 yards and four touchdowns. He ranked fifth on the team in receptions, second in receiving yards, and tied for first in touchdown catches. Among all rookie NFL wide receivers, Ayomanor, who was the 19th wide receiver drafted in 2025, ranked ninth in receiving yards and tied for 11th in touchdown receptions. He became the sixth rookie in Titans/Oilers history to reach 40 receptions, 500 receiving yards and four receiving touchdowns, joining Bill Groman (1960), Charlie Hennigan (1960), Jerry LeVias (1969), Kendall Wright (2012) and A.J. Brown (2019).

Ayomanor attended Stanford from 2022 to 2024. He saw action in his final two seasons there, appearing in 24 games with 23 starts. He led the Cardinal in receptions and receiving yards in both campaigns, totaling 125 receptions for 1,844 yards and 12 touchdowns in that span.

In 2024, he started all 12 games and was named second team All-ACC from the coaches after leading all Stanford receivers with 63 receptions for 831 yards. He recorded six receiving touchdowns, tied for the most by a Cardinal wideout, and he was the Cardinal's leading receiver in seven of the 12 games. In the ACC, he finished seventh in receptions and tied for ninth in receiving touchdowns. He was honors with the team's Tommy Vardell Award, given to an academic junior or senior who best epitomizes excellence in both academics and athletics, as well as Stanford's Deswarte-Eller Award, presented to the team's most outstanding sophomore player.

As a redshirt freshman in 2023, he appeared in all 12 games, making starts at wide receiver in the final 11 games. He paced the Stanford offense with 62 receptions for 1,013 yards and six touchdowns and was named the team's Irving S. Zeimer Award recipient, given to the team's offensive most valuable player. He ranked seventh in the Pac-12 in receiving yards and yards per catch (16.3), while ranking fifth in yards per game (84.4).

In a game at Colorado (Oct. 13), he amassed career highs with 13 catches for 294 yards and three receiving scores, setting the Stanford program record for receiving yards in a game.

A native of Medicine Hat, Alberta, Canada, he spent his initial year of high school in Canada before one year at The Peddie School (Hightstown, N.J.) and two years at Deerfield (Mass.) Academy.

#17 • WR CHIMERE DIKE

6-1, 196, 2nd Year/2nd with Titans, Florida

Wide receiver Chimere Dike was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (103rd overall) of the 2025 NFL Draft.

As a rookie, he led the NFL with 2,427 all-purpose yards, which included 1,588 kickoff return yards, 398 punt return yards, 423 receiving yards and 18 rushing yards.

He was named to the Pro Bowl as the AFC's starting returner, becoming the franchise's sixth rookie to be named to the Pro Bowl since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger and the first since returner Marc Mariani in 2010. The others to do so were running back Earl Campbell (1978), defensive end Jevon Kearse (1999), quarterback Vince Young (2006) and running back Chris Johnson (2008).

Dike also earned first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors as a punt returner. He was the franchise's fourth rookie since the merger to earn first-team AP All-Pro honors, joining Campbell (1978), Kearse (1999) and tackle Jack Conklin (2016).

Dike's 2,427 all-purpose yards in 2025 ranked third in franchise history for a single season behind Derrick Mason's 2,690 all-purpose yards in 2000 and Johnson's 2,509 yards in 2009. The number established the all-time NFL rookie record for all-purpose yards and was the highest in a season by any NFL player since 2011, when Darren Sproles set the NFL record with 2,696 all-purpose yards.

Dike returned 23 punts for 398 yards and two touchdowns. His 17.3-yard average tied for the NFL lead with New England's Marcus Jones while also breaking the franchise single-season record, which was held for 48 years by Billy "White Shoes" Johnson. Dike averaged nearly two yards per return more than Johnson's mark of 15.4 yards in 1977 (35 for 539 yards).

Dike also returned 62 kickoffs for a franchise-record 1,588 yards, averaging 25.6 yards per attempt. He ranked second in the NFL in kickoff return yards in 2025 behind Dallas' KaVontae Turpin (1,814). His 1,588 kickoff return yards put him in third place in NFL history among rookies, trailing only the Raiders' Chris Carr (1,752 in 2005) and Arizona's Josh Scobey (1,684 in 2003).

With a punt return average of 17.3 yards and a kickoff return average of 25.6 yards, Dike became the NFL's first player since Detroit's Jack Christiansen in 1952 (21.5 punt return average and 25.6 kickoff return average) to qualify with an average 17.0-plus yards per punt return and 25.0-plus yards per kickoff return in a season.

On offense, Dike's rookie contributions included finishing second on the squad with 48 receptions, ranking third with 423 receiving yards, and tying for the team lead with four touchdown catches. His six total touchdowns led the Titans.

The Waukesha, Wis., native played four seasons (2020-23) at Wisconsin before transferring to Florida for his final season (2024). In five total seasons, he appeared in 57 games with 42 starts and tallied 139 receptions for 2,261 yards and 11 touchdowns. He added 14 rushing attempts for 99 yards and one touchdown, and additionally, he recorded 26 punt returns for 300 yards and 20 kickoff returns for 472 yards.

In 2024, Dike was named a team captain for the Gators during his first and only season with the team. He led the team in catches (42) and ranked second with a career-high in receiving yards (783) and touchdown catches (two). In SEC play, he averaged a league-leading 16.5 yards per punt return. He was one of 23 players in the FBS to contribute four punt returns of 20-plus yards.

In Dike's final season at Wisconsin, he started in 11 games and finished with 19 receptions for 328 yards and one touchdown. He added 12 punt returns for 108 yards and 11 kickoff returns for 249 yards.

As a junior in 2022, he started all 13 games for the Badgers and led the team with 47 catches, 689 receiving yards and six touchdown catches. His six scores tied for seventh in the Big Ten and were the most for a Badger wide receiver since 2019.

2026 Game Notes:

- Against N.Y. Jets (9/13), recorded one reception for seven yards and also returned three kickoffs for 62 yards.
- At N.Y. Giants (9/27), returned four punts for 38 yards and two kickoffs for 54 yards, and he hauled in one reception for three yards.
- At Baltimore (10/4), opened the game with a 40-yard kickoff return and then recorded a 15-yard reception on the first play from scrimmage.
- Against Houston (10/11), notched a season-high three receptions for 28 yards and added a season-high 147 kickoff return yards on six returns.
- At Indianapolis (10/18), returned a fourth-quarter punt 58 yards to set up the Titans' first touchdown of the contest. It was the third-longest punt return of his career and the third-longest punt return in the NFL this season to date. He added five kick returns for 118 yards.
- Against Cleveland (10/25), averaged 30.5 yards on two kickoff returns and added a 14-yard punt return.
- At Cincinnati (11/1), finished with a season-best 71 receiving yards on five receptions. He recorded his first touchdown reception of the season on an 11-yard pass from Cam Ward in the fourth quarter to take the lead. He also had a 28-yard reception in the third quarter.
- Against Jacksonville (11/15), recorded two receptions for 16 yards, a five-yard rushing attempt and six kickoff returns for 156 yards with a long return of 33 yards.

#0 • WR CALVIN RIDLEY

6-1, 190, 8th Year/3rd with Titans, Alabama

Wide receiver Calvin Ridley is in his eighth NFL season and his third season with the Titans in 2026. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 15, 2024.

Ridley was named a team captain for the first time in his career in 2025. However, his campaign came to a premature end due to injury. He appeared in seven of the first 10 games of the season before landing on injured reserve for the team's final seven contests. His season totals included 17 receptions for 303 yards (17.8 avg.).

During his first season in Tennessee, Ridley led the Titans offense with 64 receptions and 1,017 receiving yards and caught four touchdown passes. His 15.9-yard receiving average in 2024 ranked fifth in the NFL among qualifiers. Only Ridley and Philadelphia's A.J. Brown (67 receptions for 1,079 yards, 16.1 avg.) accumulated at least 60 receptions and 1,000 receiving yards with an average of at least 15.0 yards per catch. Ridley also rushed for 55 yards and a touchdown.

Ridley's 2024 season was his third career 1,000-yard receiving season (2020 and 2023), and it was the franchise's 12th 1,000-yard receiving season during its "Titans era" (1999 to present). He became the ninth player in NFL history to have at least one 1,000-yard receiving season with three different teams, joining Brandin Cooks (four teams), Brandon Marshall (four), Amari Cooper (three), DeAndre Hopkins (three), Irving Fryar (three), Randy Moss (three), Terrell Owens (three) and Tony Martin (three). Ridley became the first player in NFL history to secure his first three 1,000-yard receiving seasons with three different teams.

Prior to joining the Titans, Ridley appeared in 66 NFL games with 52 starts. He was originally drafted by the Atlanta Falcons with the 26th overall pick of the 2018 NFL Draft and was traded to the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2022. His statistical totals with the Falcons and Jaguars included 324 receptions for 4,358 yards and 36 touchdowns.

In 2023, Ridley started a career-high 17 games for the Jaguars and led the team with 1,016 yards and eight receiving touchdowns on 76 catches.

From 2018 through 2020, no member of the 2018 draft class had more receptions or touchdown catches than Ridley, who totaled 217 grabs and 26 scores for the Falcons during that span. His 3,061 receiving yards ranked second in his draft class behind only DJ Moore's 3,156. Ridley's 90 receptions and 1,374 yards in 2020 were career highs.

As a rookie in 2018, Ridley played in all 16 games and accumulated 64 receptions. He led all rookie receivers in the NFL with 821 receiving yards and a team-high 10 receiving touchdowns, including an NFL-rookie record six receiving scores in the team's first four games. He was named to the All-Rookie team by the Professional Football Writers of America.

A native of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Ridley attended the University of Alabama, where he played in 44 games over three seasons (2015-17. He finished his career second in Crimson Tide history with 224 receptions and 19 receiving touchdowns. He also ranked third with 2,781 receiving yards, while totaling eight career 100-yard receiving games to tie for third in the Alabama record books.

2026 Game Notes:

- Against Philadelphia (9/20), started at wide receiver and finished with two receptions for 35 yards. He recorded a 25-yard gain on his first reception of the season in the third quarter.
- At Baltimore (10/4), recorded a 13-yard reception for a first down.
- Against Houston (10/11), recorded a 23-yard reception on the game's first play from scrimmage. He finished with two catches for 33 yards.

RECEIVING AVERAGE SINCE 2024

During his first three seasons in Tennessee, Calvin Ridley ranks among the league leaders in receiving average. From 2024 to 2025, his two-year totals included 1,320 yards on 81 receptions for an average of 16.3 yards per catch.

In 2024, Ridley caught 64 passes for 1,017 yards, resulting in a career-best 15.9-yard receiving average. His average ranked fifth in the NFL among qualifiers. Only Ridley and Philadelphia's A.J. Brown (67 receptions for 1,079 yards, 16.1 avg.) averaged at least 15.0 yards per catch while also tallying at least 60 receptions and 1,000 receiving yards.

In 2025, Ridley's participation was limited due to injuries. However, he averaged 17.8 yards per catch, hauling in 17 passes for 303 yards.

#4 • WR WAN'DALE ROBINSON

5-8, 185, 5th Year/1st with Titans, Kentucky

Wide receiver Wan'Dale Robinson is in his fifth NFL season and his first season with the Titans in 2026. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 12, 2026.

Prior to his arrival in Tennessee, he played in 54 NFL contests over four seasons with the New York Giants, who selected him in the second round (43rd overall) of the 2022 NFL Draft. During that time, he tallied 268 catches for 2,465 yards with nine touchdowns. Among all players in Giants history, only Odell Beckham Jr. (313) had more receptions in his first four NFL seasons than Robinson did.

In his final season in New York, Robinson saw action in 16 games. He finished the year with a team-high 92 catches and single-season career highs in receiving yards (1,014) and receiving touchdowns (four). His 92 receptions gave him the NFL's ninth-highest total in 2025. The number ranked sixth in franchise history, and Robinson joined Beckham as the only players in franchise history with 90 or more catches in multiple seasons. Robinson was one of five NFL players to record 90-plus receptions in 2024 and 2025. Additionally, Robinson tied for ninth in the NFL with 11 receptions of 25-plus yards and tied for ninth with 25 receptions on third down.

In 2024, he saw action in all 17 games for the first time in his career with seven starts. His career-best 93 receptions ranked him 13th in the NFL, and he led the league with 34 third-down receptions.

A native of Frankfort, Ky., Robinson played in 31 games with 24 starts in three collegiate seasons (two at Nebraska and one at Kentucky). He caught 195 passes for 2,248 yards with 10 receiving touchdowns in his career.

As a junior at Kentucky in 2021, he was named second-team All-SEC after playing in all 13 games and setting career highs with a then school-record 104 receptions, 1,334 yards and seven touchdowns.

2026 Game Notes:

- Against N.Y. Jets (9/13), made his Titans debut and led the team with five receptions for 38 yards. He moved past the 2,500 career receiving yards mark (2,503).
- Against Philadelphia (9/20), caught a nine-yard pass.
- At N.Y. Giants (9/27), led the team in his return trip to New York with seven receptions for 57 yards and a touchdown, all highs for his debut season as a Titan through three contests. He registered his first touchdown as a Titan on a four-yard reception from Cam Ward in the fourth quarter. Three of Robinson's receptions resulted in first downs.
- At Baltimore (10/4), totaled three receptions for 19 yards, including a three-yard touchdown pass from Cam Ward in the fourth quarter. He logged his second consecutive game with a touchdown reception, the first time in his career he scored in two straight outings.
- Against Houston (10/11), led the team with 53 receiving yards on six receptions, including a 17-yard reception in the third quarter. It was his 23rd career game with six or more receptions.
- At Indianapolis (10/18), finished with 22 receiving yards on three catches, including a six-yard reception on a crucial third-and-five in the fourth quarter. Tennessee took a 23-20 lead four plays later.
- Against Cleveland (10/25), had four receptions to extend his streak to 49 consecutive games with at least one reception.
- At Cincinnati (11/1), led the team with six receptions for 56 yards and a touchdown. He opened the contest with a 16-yard reception on the first play from scrimmage. He helped the Titans take the lead in the fourth quarter with a 15-yard score, his third touchdown reception in his first season as a Titan. During the contest, he reached 300 career receptions (303).
- Against Jacksonville (11/15), caught three passes for 10 yards to extend his streak to 51 consecutive games with at least one reception.
- Placed on injured reserve on Nov. 17.

RECEPTIONS FROM SLOT, 2024-26

Since the start of the 2024 season, Titans wide receiver Wan'Dale Robinson is at the top of the leaderboard in receptions out of the slot by a wide receiver.

From 2024 through 2025, Robinson totaled a league-high 113 catches from the slot, and he was one of only five NFL receivers to top 1,000 yards on catches from the slot in that period, joining Jaxon Smith-Njigba, Amon-Ra St. Brown, Josh Downs and Ladd McConkey. Among players at all positions, only Arizona Cardinals tight end Trey McBride (115) had more receptions from the slot than Robinson from 2024 to 2025.

Most receptions from the slot among NFL wide receivers, 2024-26:

	Wide Receiver	Receptions	Receiving Yards
1.	Wan'Dale Robinson	137	1,293
2.	Amon-Ra St. Brown	123	1,287
3.	Josh Downs	122	1,416

5.	Ja'Marr Chase	107	1,052
6.	Khalil Shakir	102	1,058
7.	Ladd McConkey	99	1,276
8.	CeeDee Lamb	98	1,077
9.	DeMario Douglas	90	1,059
10.	Drake London	87	1,225

RECEPTIONS ON 3RD DOWN SINCE 2024

Since the beginning of 2024, Titans wide receiver Wan'Dale Robinson has been one of the most reliable targets on third down. In the two seasons from 2024 to 2025, he posted 59 total receptions on third down to rank second in the NFL behind only Amon-Ra St. Brown (64).

Most receptions on third down, 2024-26:

	Player	Receptions on 3rd Down
1.	Amon-Ra St. Brown	82
2.	Jaxon Smith-Njigba	73
3.	Wan'Dale Robinson	70
4.	Keenan Allen	64

#14 • WR CARNELL TATE

6-2, 192, Rookie, Ohio State

Wide receiver Carnell Tate was selected by the Titans with the fourth overall pick in the 2026 NFL Draft.

The No. 4 pick was the highest selection used by the Titans franchise to draft a wide receiver in the common draft era (1967-present). The previous high pick for a Titans/Oilers wideout was fifth overall for Corey Davis in 2017. Tate became the first player picked in the first round by the Titans out of Ohio State since running back Eddie George in 1996 (14th overall).

Tate joined an extensive list of recent Ohio State wide receivers selected high in the draft. He extended the school's streak to five consecutive seasons (six total players) with a wide receiver drafted in the first round, joining Garrett Wilson (10th by New York Jets in 2022), Chris Olave (11th by New Orleans in 2022), Jaxon Smith-Njigba (20th by Seattle in 2023), Marvin Harrison Jr. (fourth by Arizona in 2024) and Emeka Egbuka (19th by Tampa Bay in 2025).

During his three-year career at Ohio State (2023-25), Tate saw action in 39 games with 27 starts. He finished his career with 121 receptions for 1,872 yards and 14 touchdowns. Over the course of his career, he had at least one reception in 37 of the 39 games in which he played.

In 2025, he started 11 games and totaled 51 receptions for 875 yards (17.2 avg.) and nine touchdowns. He took home second-team Associated Press All-American and first-team Academic All-American honors.

He is a native of Chicago, Ill.

2026 Game Notes:

- Against N.Y. Jets (9/13), started at wide receiver in his NFL debut and tied for the team lead with 38 receiving yards on four catches. He recorded his first professional reception on a 12-yard pass from Cam Ward in the first quarter.
- Against Philadelphia (9/20), started at wide receiver and led the team with three receptions for 27 yards.
- At N.Y. Giants (9/27), established season-bests with a team-leading 58 yards on six receptions. He connected with Cam Ward for a 20-yard completion in the third quarter to earn Tennessee a fresh set of downs and also recorded a 13-yard reception in the fourth quarter.
- At Baltimore (10/4), led the team with nine receptions for 145 yards, averaging 16.1 yards per reception. Tate became the first Titans player to eclipse 100 yards in a game since Calvin Ridley at Arizona on Oct. 5, 2025, and he was the first Titans rookie to hit the century mark since Treylon Burks at Green Bay on Nov. 22, 2025. His 145 receiving yards were the most by an NFL rookie in 2026 through Oct. 4, the most by any Titans player since A.J. Brown had 145 yards against San Francisco on Dec. 23, 2021, and the most by a Titans rookie since Brown had 153 at Oakland on Dec. 8, 2019. Tate became the first Titans rookie with nine or more receptions in a game since Kendall Wright (nine) at Minnesota on Oct. 7, 2012. He also became the franchise's only rookie since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to notch at least three receptions in each of the team's first four games of the season. His pair of 33-yard catches and a 22-yard catch were the three longest receptions of his rookie season through four games. He totaled 74 yards on five receptions in the first half and 71 yards on four receptions in the second half.
- Against Houston (10/11), recorded one catch for six yards.
- At Indianapolis (10/18), finished with six receptions for 70 yards and his first career touchdown. He helped the Titans tie the score at 13-13 with an eight-yard touchdown reception in the third quarter. Additionally, he was credited with three of the Titans' four longest offensive gains, including a 19-yard reception on third-and-10 in the third quarter, along with an 18-yard catch and a 14-yard catch, each resulting in a new set of downs. It was his third game of the season with at least six receptions and 50 receiving yards. He became the first Titans receiver with three such games in a season since DeAndre Hopkins in 2023 and the first Titans rookie receiver to accomplish the feat since Kendall Wright in 2012.
- Against Cleveland (10/25), finished with five receptions for 69 yards to lead the team and record his fourth game with at least four receptions and 50 receiving yards in 2026, the most such games by a rookie receiver for the team during its Titans era (1999-present) other than A.J. Brown (six games in 2019). He accounted for three first down receptions, including conversions of third-and-12 (18-yard reception), second-and-12 (15 yards) and second-and-nine (17 yards). He converted a crucial third-and-12 late in the fourth quarter with an 18-yard reception to get the Titans offense to the Cleveland one-yard line. Tate (413 yards) joined Bill Groman (553 in 1960) and Ernest Givins (485 in 1986) as the only players in franchise history with 400 receiving yards in the team's first seven games of their rookie season.
- On Nov. 5, he was named NFL Offensive Rookie of the Month for October. In Weeks 4-8, he led all NFL rookies with 290 receiving yards and 13 receptions for first downs. During that span, his 13.8-yard receiving average led all rookies (12 receptions min.) while his 21 receptions tied for third.

#66 • G FERNANDO CARMONA JR.

6-5, 316, Rookie, Arkansas

Fernando Carmona Jr. was drafted by the Titans in the fifth round (142nd overall) of the 2026 NFL Draft.

Prior to reaching the NFL, Carmona totaled five seasons in college football, starting 49 of 50 games. He spent three seasons (2021-23) at San Jose State before going to Arkansas for his final two years (2024-25). He totaled 37 starts at left tackle before making the transition to left guard for the final 12 games of his college career.

He finished his college career with 49 consecutive starts.

As a senior at Arkansas in 2025, he made the transition to left guard and started all 12 games. He helped pave the way for six games with 500-plus yards of total offense and was named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll.

He is a native of Las Vegas, Nev.

#55 • T JC LATHAM

6-6, 342, 3rd Year/3rd with Titans, Alabama

JC Latham is in his third NFL season in 2026. He was drafted by the Titans with the seventh overall pick in the first round of the 2024 NFL Draft.

In 2025, Latham moved to right tackle, where he started 13 games. He was in the lineup every game for the final 12 contests after missing four of the first five weeks due to injury.

With 30 starts in his first two NFL seasons, Latham joined Jack Conklin (32 from 2016-17), Chance Warmack (32 from 2013-14), Michael Roos (32 from 2005-06) and Peter Skoronski (31 from 2023-24) as the franchise's only offensive linemen in its "Titans era" (1999 to present) to accomplish the feat. He did so all before his 23rd birthday (Feb. 8, 2026). Among NFL offensive linemen under 23 at the end of the 2025 regular season, Latham had the most career starts.

As a rookie, Latham notched 17 starts at left tackle, joining Jack

Conklin (2016), Chance Warmack (2013) and Michael Roos (2005) as the franchise's only rookie offensive linemen in the "Titans era" (1999–present) to start every game. He was the first to do so exclusively at left tackle. Pro Football Focus named him to its All-Rookie team.

Latham did not miss an offensive snap during his rookie season. He led all rookie offensive linemen and ranked third among all rookies in 2024 with 1,032 offensive snaps. Only Chicago quarterback Caleb Williams (1,052) and Denver quarterback Bo Nix (1,040) played more offensive snaps than Latham among the 2024 rookie class.

Prior to entering the NFL, Latham spent three seasons at the University of Alabama, where he appeared in 41 total games, including 27 consecutive starts at right tackle to conclude his collegiate career. He was credited with allowing only four sacks during his time with the Tide.

As a junior in 2023, Latham was a second-team All-American and a first-team All-SEC selection at right tackle. He recorded 41 knockdown blocks and allowed only two sacks.

A native of Oak Creek, Wis., Latham attended IMG Academy for the final two years of high school. He began his high school career as a defensive lineman before finishing as one of the nation's top left tackle prospects.

STARTS BEFORE 24TH BIRTHDAY

Titans tackle JC Latham has accumulated more starts before his 24th birthday than almost every other player in franchise history. He does not celebrate his 24th birthday until Feb. 8, 2027.

As a rookie in 2024, the first-round pick started every game at left tackle. With 17 starts before his 22nd birthday, he ranked second in franchise history for starts before turning 22. He finished behind only former defensive tackle Randy Starks, who registered 21 starts before celebrating his 22nd birthday in 2005. Among all NFL players in 2024, Latham was the only one under age 22 to log 17 starts.

Then, in 2025, Latham moved to right tackle and registered 13 starts. By increasing his total to 30 games played and 30 starts, he ranked fifth in franchise history in total games before a player's 23rd birthday and second in total starts before a player's 23rd birthday. Only Starks (31) had more starts for the organization before turning 23.

Most games started in franchise history (1960 to 2026) before a player's 24th birthday:

	Player	Position	Season(s)	Starts
1.	Jurrell Casey	DT	2011-13	42
2.	JC Latham	T	2024-26	39
	George Webster	LB	1967-69	39
4.	Bob Talamini	OL	1960-62	37
5.	Randy Starks	DT	2004-07	35
6.	Marcus Mariota	QB	2015-17	33
	Chance Warmack	G	2013-15	33
	Rich Michael	T	1960-62	33
9.	Jack Conklin	T	2016-17	32
	Tank Williams	S	2002-03	32

At the end of the 2025 regular season, Latham led all active NFL offensive linemen under the age of 23 in career starts. Additionally, since 1980, only nine other NFL offensive linemen started more games than Latham before their 23rd birthday.

Most starts by an offensive linemen before his 23rd birthday from 1980 to 2025:

	Player	Team	Seasons	Starts
1.	Tyron Smith	Dallas Cowboys	2011-13	44
2.	Penei Sewell	Detroit Lions	2021-23	38
3.	Anthony Davis	San Francisco 49ers	2010-12	37
4.	Anton Harrison	Jacksonville Jaguars	2023-24	33

	Korey Stringer	Minnesota Vikings	1995-96	30

#75 • T DAN MOORE JR.

6-5, 315, 6th Year/2nd with Titans, Texas A&M

Dan Moore Jr. is in his sixth NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2026. He was signed by the Titans on March 13, 2025.

During his first season in Tennessee, Moore started 16 games at left tackle. It was the fifth time in five NFL seasons he logged 16 or more starts at left tackle. His 82 total starts from 2021 through 2025 ranked third in the NFL among offensive tackles, trailing only Atlanta's Jake Matthews (85) and Detroit's Penei Sewell (83).

Prior to joining the Titans, Moore spent the previous four seasons (2021-24) with the Pittsburgh Steelers. He started 66 total games—all at left tackle—protecting the blind side for all but two contests during his time in the Steel City. During that span, Moore ranked third in the NFL in offensive snaps (4,109) played by tackles, trailing only Penei Sewell (4,328) and Jawaan Taylor (4,135).

In each of Moore's four seasons with the Steelers, running back Najee Harris surpassed 1,000 rushing yards. In 2023, the Steelers offensive line allowed only 36 sacks, which ranked ninth in the NFL.

Moore was drafted by the Steelers in the fourth round (128th overall) of the 2021 NFL Draft after attending Texas A&M University. The Beaumont, Texas, native appeared in 44 games with 37 starts for the Aggies, including starts at left tackle in each of the final 36 games of his collegiate career.

#51 • C AUSTIN SCHLOTTMANN

6-6, 310, 8th Year/1st with Titans, Texas Christian

Austin Schlottmann is in his eighth NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2026. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 12, 2026.

During his first seven NFL seasons, Schlottmann (pronounced SHLOAT-man), appeared in 85 games with 18 starts, registering starts at both center and right guard. After being signed by the Denver Broncos as a rookie free agent in 2018 and remaining in Denver through 2021, he also spent time with the Minnesota Vikings (2022-23) and the New York Giants (2024-25).

In 2025, Schlottmann established a career high with 17 games played and matched a career high with four starts—all at center.

The Brenham, Texas, native attended Texas Christian University (2014-17), where he appeared in 51 games with 29 starts over four seasons. As a senior in 2017, he was an honorable mention All-Big-12 Conference selection after starting all 14 games (eight at center; six at right guard).

#77 • G PETER SKORONSKI

6-4, 330, 4th Year/4th with Titans, Northwestern

Peter Skoronski is in his fourth NFL season in 2026. He was selected by the Titans with the 11th overall pick in the first round of the 2023 NFL Draft, and in August 2026, he received a multi-year contract extension from the team.

During his first three seasons, Skoronski started 48 games at left guard. After missing three of the first four games during his rookie season due to an appendectomy, he started the next 47 games through the end of the 2025 campaign. In 2024 and 2025, he did not miss an offensive snap.

Through 2025, Skoronski's 48 starts were the most for the team in its "Titans era" (1999 to present) by a player before his 25th birthday (July 31, 2026). His streak of 47 consecutive starts at the conclusion of 2025 made up the team's longest active streak.

As a rookie in 2023, Skoronski started 14 games at left guard and helped running back Derrick Henry finish second in the NFL with 1,167 rushing yards. He was one of nine NFL rookie offensive linemen in 2023 to register 14 or more starts, and he joined Nicholas Petit-Frere (2022), Jack Conklin (2016), Chance Warmack (2013), Michael Roos (2005) and Jacob Bell (2004) as the only rookie offensive linemen to record at least 14 starts for the franchise during its "Titans era" (1999–present).

During a three-year career at Northwestern University, Skoronski started all 33 games at left tackle without missing a game. He earned second-team All-Big Ten honors as a freshman and first-team recognition in each of the next two seasons. He became the first offensive lineman in program history to earn two All-Big Ten first-team awards.

As a junior in 2022, he was named the Rimington-Pace Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year—the first ever by a Northwestern lineman—after starting all 12 games at left tackle. He was the first player in school history to become a unanimous first-team All-American and was named first-team All-Big Ten by coaches and media. He finished as a finalist for the 2022 Outland Trophy.

His brother, Josh Martin, had an eight-year NFL playing career as a linebacker for the Kansas City Chiefs, Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Indianapolis Colts, N.Y. Jets and New Orleans Saints.

2026 Notes:

➢ Against N.Y. Jets (9/13), started in his Titans debut and recorded a quarterback pressure.

➢ Against Philadelphia (9/20), tallied a sack and six quarterback pressures. In the third quarter, he notched his first sack as a member of the Titans to end an Eagles drive, taking down Jalen Hurts for an 11-yard loss on third down.

➢ At Baltimore (10/4), tallied two tackles, a half sack and a team-high four quarterback pressures. In the first quarter, he combined with Marcus Harris to bring down Lamar Jackson for an eight-yard loss on third down. The play gave him 1.5 sacks in 2026 and 28 career sacks.

➢ Against Houston (10/11), sacked C.J. Stroud in the fourth quarter, bringing his season total to 2.5 sacks and his career total to 29 sacks. He added a pass defensed.

➢ At Indianapolis (10/18), totaled two tackles, a sack and a pass defensed. He dropped Daniel Jones for a six-yard loss to increase his career total to 30 sacks, logging his third consecutive game with at least a half sack—the third such streak of his career (2019 and 2021). He totaled four quarterback pressures.

➢ Against Cleveland (10/25), took down running back Quinshon Judkins for a two-yard tackle for loss and also totaled two quarterback pressures.

➢ At Cincinnati (11/1), established a career high with three sacks, topping his previous best of two sacks at Kansas City on Oct. 22, 2025 as a member of the Washington Commanders. He totaled four tackles and also led the defense with six quarterback pressures. In the second quarter, he sacked Joe Burrow for a two-yard loss, and later in the same drive, he sacked Burrow again for a loss of 15 yards on fourth down to force a turnover on downs. He added a 10-yard sack in the fourth quarter for the first three-sack game by a Titans player since Harold Landry III at Miami on Dec. 11, 2023. He increased his season total to 6.5 sacks, which set a new career high (5.5 in 2025).

➢ Against Jacksonville (11/15), totaled two tackles, a sack and a team-high three quarterback pressures. In the second quarter, he helped thwart a Jaguars drive with a 16-yard sack of Trevor Lawrence on third down. It increased his season total to a career-high 7.5 sacks. In the team's first nine games of the season, he posted at least a half sack in six of the contests.

2026 NFL SACK LEADERS

#7 • DE OLUWAFEMI OLADEJO

6-3, 259, 2nd Year/2nd with Titans, UCLA

Defensive end Oluwafemi Oladejo (pronounced "oh-loo-wah-FEH-me oh-luh-DAY-jo") is in his second NFL season in 2026. He was selected by the Titans in the second round (52nd overall) of the 2025 NFL Draft.

As a rookie outside linebacker in 2025, Oladejo was limited by injuries to six games and two starts. His totals included 13 tackles, six quarterback pressures and two tackles for loss. He spent the season's final 11 games on injured reserve.

After playing two seasons at the University of California (2021-22), Oladejo finished his collegiate career with two seasons at UCLA (2023-24). He began college as an off-the-ball linebacker before transitioning to the edge position during his senior campaign at UCLA. With 46 games played and 27 starts over his four combined seasons, he totaled 238 total tackles, 24 stops for loss, six sacks, a forced fumble and three fumbles recoveries.

As a senior at UCLA in 2024, Oladejo started two games at inside linebacker before moving to the edge spot. He recorded starts in all 12 games on the season and logged 57 total tackles, 13.5 tackles for loss, 4.5 sacks and two pass breakups. His 13.5 stops for loss, 4.5 sacks and six quarterback hurries led the team. After the season, he was named the Kenny Clark Award winner for the team's most outstanding defensive lineman.

In his first year at UCLA, Oladejo appeared in all 13 games with four starts. His statistics included 54 tackles, a half sack, 3.5 stops for loss, an interception, three passes defensed and two fumble recoveries.

The Sacramento, Calif., native played in nine games at Cal as a true freshman in 2021, and in 2022, he appeared in 10 games with 10 starts.

2026 Notes:

➢ Against N.Y. Jets (9/13), totaled three tackles, including a tackle for loss. He was credited with an eight-yard tackle for loss on a reception by tight end Mason Taylor in the second quarter.

➢ At Indianapolis (10/18), recovered a blocked punt and returned the ball 14 yards for his first career touchdown in the fourth quarter to help the Titans take a 20-13 lead. It was the team's first touchdown off a blocked punt since Oct. 30, 2011 against Indianapolis, when Patrick Bailey blocked a Pat McAfee punt and Jason McCourty returned it for a score. Oladejo's touchdown was the first in the NFL in 2026 on a blocked punt. He added a tackle and a quarterback pressure.

➢ Against Cleveland (10/25), credited with his first career sack when he forced Deshaun Watson out of bounds for no gain in the third quarter. He totaled two tackles and two quarterback pressures on defense and added a special teams stop.

#50 • LB CODY BARTON

6-2, 237, 8th Year/2nd with Titans, Utah

Linebacker Cody Barton is in his eighth NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2026. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 13, 2025.

Barton was named team captain prior to the start of his first campaign in Tennessee. He then registered 17 starts for the first time in his career and never came off the field when the Titans were on defense, participating in 100 percent of the defensive snaps (1,009). He led the team with career highs of three interceptions and 11 passes defensed, and his season statistics also included 81 tackles (tied for second on the team), one sack, eight quarterback pressures and four tackles for loss (tied career high).

Within the NFL in 2025, Barton and Jacksonville's Foye Oluokun tied for the lead among linebackers in passes defensed (11). Barton and Chicago cornerback Nahshon Wright were the only NFL players during the season to record at least 80 tackles, 10 passes defensed, multiple defensive takeaways and a defensive touchdown.

After Barton was selected in the third round (88th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft by the Seattle Seahawks, he spent four seasons in Seattle, followed by one season each in Washington (2023) and Denver (2024). During the first six years of his career, he recorded 43 starts in 95 games played. His statistics during that time included 419 tackles, 3.5 sacks, 31 quarterback pressures, 10 tackles for loss, five interceptions, 14 passes defensed, three forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries.

In 2024, Barton played in all 17 games with 14 starts at linebacker for the Broncos, who finished the season in the playoffs. He recorded 104 tackles, two tackles for loss, 1.5 sacks, five passes defensed, two interceptions, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. After returning a fumble 52 yards for a touchdown at New Orleans in Week 7, he was named the AFC Defensive Player of the Week.

From 2019 through 2021, Barton tallied 34 special teams tackles as a member of the Seahawks. The total tied for the fifth most in the NFL during that period and included 16 special teams tackles in 2020, when he ranked second in the NFL and first in the NFC.

The Cottonwood Heights, Utah, native played four seasons at the University of Utah (2015-18), where he played in 50 games with 23 starts. As a senior, he was an honorable mention All-Pac 12 linebacker after leading the team with 116 tackles and adding four sacks and an interception.

2026 Notes:

- Against N.Y. Jets (9/13), posted three tackles in the season opener.
- At N.Y. Giants (9/27), totaled five tackles and a pass defensed.
- At Baltimore (10/4), tied for the team lead with eight total tackles.
- Against Houston (10/11), tied for third on the squad with six tackles. He added a team-high four quarterback pressures to tie his career high.

INTERCEPTIONS BY LINEBACKERS

Linebacker Cody Barton has eight interceptions since the beginning of the 2022 season, including a career-high three interceptions with the Titans in 2025. He ranks among the NFL leaders at the linebacker position over the past four campaigns.

#33 • LB CEDRIC GRAY

6-2, 240, 3rd Year/3rd with Titans, North Carolina

Linebacker Cedric Gray is in his third NFL season in 2026. He was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (106th overall) of the 2024 NFL Draft.

In 2025, Gray played and started in 16 games. He led the Titans and ranked fifth in the NFL with 160 total tackles on defense. No NFL player in his first or second NFL campaign in 2025 had more tackles than Gray. Additionally, Gray tied Stephen Tulloch (2010) for the Titans' second-highest single-season tackle total since 2000, trailing only Azeez Al-Shaair's 163 tackles in 2023 (GSIS tackle statistics).

As a rookie in 2024, spent the first seven games on injured reserve before being activated on Oct. 28, 2024. He appeared in the final seven games of the season and totaled 14 tackles on defense while ranking third on the team with eight tackles on special teams. His eight special teams tackles tied for the seventh-best total among rookies in 2024, and over the final seven weeks of the season, he led the rookie class and tied for second overall in the NFL (Oren Burks, Jeremy Reaves) behind only Pittsburgh's Miles Killebrew (nine).

In four seasons at the University of North Carolina, he played in 51 games with 37 starts and recorded 369 tackles, 30 tackles for loss, 8.5 sacks, five interceptions, 13 passes defensed, six forced fumbles and five fumble recoveries. He was a two-time first team All-ACC selection and a 2023 Butkus Award semifinalist.

As a senior in 2023, he played and started in 12 games and posted a team-best 121 tackles in addition to five sacks, 11 stops for loss, seven quarterback pressures, two forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries, an interception and four passes defensed. He was named first-team All-ACC by the league and the Associated Press. He recorded five double-digit tackle games and ranked second in the ACC with 121 tackles.

Gray is a native of Charlotte, N.C.

2026 Notes:

- Against Philadelphia (9/20), saw his first action of the season and totaled four tackles, including a tackle for loss.
- At N.Y. Giants (9/27), logged his first start of the season and totaled six tackles. He added a stop on special teams.
- At Baltimore (10/4), his four tackles included a tackle for loss, and he added a stop on special teams.
- Against Houston (10/11), tied for third on the squad with six tackles, including a half sack. In the first quarter, he was credited with his first half sack of 2026 when he and John Franklin-Myers forced C.J. Stroud out of bounds for no gain. The play gave him 1.5 career sacks.
- At Indianapolis (10/18), posted five tackles at linebacker and added a pair of stops on special teams.
- Against Cleveland (10/25), contributed four tackles on defense and added a special teams tackle.
- Against Jacksonville (11/15), started and led the defense with nine tackles to go along with an interception, two passes defensed and one tackle for loss. In the first quarter, he notched his first career interception, picking off a Trevor Lawrence pass that was initially tipped by Solomon Thomas. Gray was credited with 25 yards on the return. He became the first Titans player with a minimum of nine tackles, one interception, two passes defensed and one tackle for loss in a game since safety Kevin Byard against Detroit on Dec. 20, 2020. It was his 12th career game with nine or more total tackles.

2025 NFL TACKLE LEADERS

In his second NFL season, linebacker Cedric Gray ranked fifth in the NFL with 160 total tackles on defense. He led all players among those in their first or second season in the NFL.

Gray's total included 95 solo tackles. He tied Devin White for the second most in the league behind only Jordyn Brooks' 99 solo tackles.

#53 • LB ANTHONY HILL JR.

6-2, 238, Rookie, Texas

Anthony Hill Jr. was selected by the Titans in the second round (60th overall) of the 2026 NFL Draft.

Prior to entering the NFL, Hill played three seasons (2023-25) at the University of Texas. He saw action in 40 games with 32 starts over three seasons (2023-25) with the Longhorns and finished his career with 249 tackles, 31.5 tackles for loss, 17 sacks, eight forced fumbles and three interceptions.

As a junior in 2025, he started 10 games and recorded 69 tackles, seven tackles for loss, four sacks, two interceptions, three forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. He was named a second-team All-American by the Associated Press, AFCA and FWAA. He also was a finalist for the Butkus Award and a semifinalist for the Chuck Bednarik Award, and he was selected to the coaches' All-SEC second team.

As a sophomore in 2024, Hill started all 16 games and led the team with 113 tackles and 16.5 tackles for loss en route to being named a second-team All-American by the Associated Press, AFCA, Sporting News and Walter Camp.

He is a native of Denton, Texas.

2026 Notes:

➢ Against N.Y. Jets (9/13), started in his NFL debut and led the defense with 16 total tackles and two passes defensed. He became the first NFL rookie with 16 tackles and two passes defensed in a game since at least 2000; the first NFL player with 16 tackles and two passes defensed in a Week 1 game since at least 2000; and the first NFL player with 16 tackles and two passes defensed in a game since Dec. 10, 2023, when Chicago Bears safety Jaquan Brisker had 17 stops and two passes defensed against Detroit. Hill's two passes defensed also made him the first Titans rookie to have two or more passes defensed in his first game action since Adoree' Jackson had two against the Las Vegas Raiders on Sept. 10, 2017. In the first half, he totaled 11 tackles and two passes defensed, becoming the first NFL player to have at least 10 tackles and two passes defensed in any first half since Dec. 24, 2006, when Colts cornerback Marlin Jackson had 12 tackles and two passes defensed in the first half against Houston. His 11 tackles in the first half were the most by a Titans rookie in his debut first half since at least 2000 (according to Tru Media). On the first play of the game from scrimmage, which also was his first career play, he was credited with a tackle of running back Breece Hall. Later in the first quarter, he tallied his first career pass defensed on a pass intended for tight end Mason Taylor. In the second quarter, he added a pass defensed on third down on a pass intended for running back Braelon Allen, resulting in the Jets settling for a field goal.

➢ Against Philadelphia (9/20), led the team in tackles for the second consecutive week, accumulating 10 tackles against the Eagles. In the first two weeks of the season, he totaled an NFL-high 26 tackles, which also tied him with Keith Bulluck (2006) for the most total tackles (26) by a Titans player through the first two games of a season since the beginning of 2000 (GSIS press box statistics). Since the beginning of 2000, the only NFL rookie with more tackles in the first two games of a season was Indianapolis Colts linebacker Shaquille Leonard with 28 in 2018.

➢ At N.Y. Giants (9/27), finished second on the defense with eight tackles.

➢ On Oct. 1, he was named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Month for September, becoming the sixth rookie in franchise history to garner a Rookie of the Month honor and the first since 2019. Over his first three contests, he logged three starts and led the NFL with 34 tackles, while also adding two passes defensed. Hill's 34 tackles gave him the second-highest total by a Titans player through the first three games of a season since 2000, topped only by LB Akeem Ayers, who claimed the mark with 37 tackles through three games in 2012 (GSIS statistics). Since 2000, the only NFL rookie with more tackles through his team's first three games than Hill was Colts linebacker Shaquille Leonard, who had 41 stops through three games as a rookie in 2018.

➢ At Baltimore (10/4), tied for the team lead with eight total tackles to become the first Titans player since linebacker Wesley Woodyard in 2017 to begin a season with four consecutive eight-tackle performances (GSIS statistics). He totaled 42 tackles through the first four games of his career.

➢ Against Houston (10/11), tallied five tackles.

➢ At Indianapolis (10/18), finished third on the defense with nine tackles, including a tackle for loss, and added a pass defensed and three quarterback pressures. In the third quarter, his first career tackle for loss went for a five-yard loss. He logged his sixth consecutive game with at least five tackles to begin his career.

➢ Against Cleveland (10/25), finished second on the defense with 12 tackles and added a forced fumble. In the first quarter, he helped force a turnover with his first career forced fumble, jarring the ball from Harold Fannin Jr. (recovered by safety Tony Adams). He logged his seventh consecutive game with at least five tackles to begin his career.

➢ At Cincinnati (11/1), led the defense with 14 tackles, marking his second career game with at least 14 tackles (16 against the N.Y. Jets in Week 1), and he added three quarterback pressures. He logged his eighth consecutive game with at least five tackles to begin his career, joining Arvell Reese (N.Y. Giants) as the NFL's first rookies to post five tackles in each of his team's first eight games since Jacksonville's Devin Lloyd and Green Bay's Quay Walker did so as rookies in 2022. Hill joined Azeez Al-Shaair as the only Titans defenders since 2000 with 80 or more tackles through the team's first eight games of a season (GSIS tackle statistics).

#24 • CB ALONTAE TAYLOR

6-1, 199, 5th Year/1st with Titans, Tennessee

Cornerback Alontae Taylor is in his fifth NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2026. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 12, 2026.

In signing with the Titans, Taylor returned to his home state. He attended Coffee County High School in Manchester, Tenn., and then went on to spend four seasons at the University of Tennessee.

Taylor was selected by the New Orleans Saints in the second round (49th overall) of the 2022 NFL Draft. He spent his first four NFL seasons in New Orleans, playing in 64 games with 53 starts. His Saints totals included 292 tackles, four interceptions, seven sacks, 21 stops for loss, three forced fumbles and 52 passes defensed. His 52 pass breakups from 2022 to 2025 ranked fourth in the NFL.

In 2025, Taylor notched his third consecutive season with 17 games played and started a career-best 16 games. His totals included 83 tackles, two interceptions, two sacks, 11 passes defensed and seven stops for loss.

In 2024, he posted a career-best 89 tackles, four sacks, seven stops for a loss, 16 passes defensed and two forced fumbles. His 16 passes defensed led the Saints and tied for fifth in the NFL. Against Carolina in the Sept. 8 season opener, he became the first Saints defensive back to ever record three sacks in a game.

At the University of Tennessee, Taylor became the first Vols true freshman to start a season opener in the secondary since 2013. Over the course of his college career (2018-21), he played in 45 games with 31 starts at cornerback and collected 162 tackles, four interceptions, one interception return for a touchdown, a fumble recovery for a touchdown, 17 passes defensed and a blocked punt.

2026 Notes:

#46 • LS MORGAN COX

6-4, 233, 17th Year/6th with Titans, Tennessee

Long snapper Morgan Cox is in his 17th NFL season and his sixth campaign with the Titans in 2026. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 19, 2021.

In 2025, Cox was voted a team captain for the third consecutive season and handled all of the team's long snapping duties for the fifth consecutive season. With 85 consecutive games played in his first five seasons with the Titans, he finished the 2025 campaign with the longest active streak of games played for the team. It was the 13th time in his career he appeared in every game for his team.

Cox also appeared in his 250th career game (regular season) in the 2025 season finale, becoming the 64th all-time NFL player to do so. He ranked ninth among all active NFL players, and his total also gave him the fourth-most NFL games played by a former University of Tennessee Volunteer behind tight end Jason Witten (271 NFL games), quarterback Peyton Manning (266) and punter Dustin Colquitt (255).

Cox worked with new battery mates in 2025 in punter Johnny Hekker and kicker Joey Slye. Hekker averaged 46.8 gross yards per punt to tie for 11th place in franchise history and 40.3 net yards per punt, which tied for ninth place in team annals. Slye delivered on 28 of 35 field goals, including four of the eight longest field goals in franchise history (58, 57, 57 and 56 yards). Also in 2025, Cox was a finalist for the NFL's Bart Starr Award for the third consecutive year.

In 2024, Cox's consistency helped kicker Nick Folk lead the NFL in field goal percentage for the second consecutive season. Folk connected on 21 of 22 field goals for an NFL-best rate of 95.5 percent. Meanwhile, punter Ryan Stonehouse ranked third in the NFL with an average of 50.6 yards per punt attempt.

In 2023, Cox's efforts helped Folk lead the NFL in field goal accuracy (96.7 percent) and helped Stonehouse lead the NFL for a second consecutive season in gross punting average (53.1).

In 2022, Cox was named to his fifth career Pro Bowl. He garnered more Pro Bowl appearances than any other player at his position since the league began naming long snappers to the Pro Bowl in 2004.

His steady play in 2022 helped Stonehouse, a rookie, lead the league and set a new NFL record with a 53.1-yard gross punting average. Stonehouse also finished fourth in the NFL and set a rookie record with a 44.0-yard net average. Meanwhile, kicker Randy Bullock made 17 of 20 field goals (85.0 percent) and made all 28 extra point attempts.

In 2021, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties in 17 regular season games and one postseason game. He helped Bullock finish ninth in franchise history with 120 points in a single season, including three game-winning field goals (Sept. 19 at Seattle, Oct. 31 at Indianapolis and Dec. 23 against San Francisco). He also snapped for punter Brett Kern, who had the league's third-best ratio of punts inside the 20 to touchbacks (18:1).

In his first 11 seasons, Cox appeared in 165 regular season games for the Baltimore Ravens, serving as the team's primary long snapper after entering the NFL as an undrafted free agent in 2010. He was selected to four Pro Bowls and was a part of five playoff teams in Baltimore, totaling 10 postseason games played.

In 2020, he earned his fourth career Pro Bowl selection. He helped kicker Justin Tucker record his fifth consecutive season with at least 130 points, tying the NFL record of consecutive seasons with 130-plus points. Tucker connected on 26 of 29 field goals (89.7 percent) and was 52 of 53 on extra points (98.1 percent). Cox also snapped on all 51 of Sam Koch's 51 punts, as Koch was the NFL's only punter to place at least 20 punts (22) inside the 20-yard line and have no more than one touchback.

A native of Collierville, Tenn., Cox played 38 games in three seasons (2007-09) as the primary long snapper at the University of Tennessee.

MOST GAMES BY ACTIVE NFL PLAYERS

The Titans have two players in the NFL's top 10 list for most career games by active players. Punter Thomas Morstead ranks third, and long snapper Morgan Cox ranks seventh on the list. Morstead is first among punters, while Cox is third among all long snappers.

Most career games by active NFL players:

	Player	Pos	Current Team	Career Games
1.	Calais Campbell	DE	Baltimore Ravens	288
2.	J.J. Jansen	LS	Carolina Panthers	286
3.	Thomas Morstead	P	Tennessee Titans	274

#13 • P THOMAS MORSTEAD

6-4, 225, 18th Year/1st with Titans, Southern Methodist

Punter Thomas Morstead is in his 18th NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2026. He was added to the Titans practice squad on Oct. 28 and promoted to the 53-man roster on Nov. 14.

Prior to joining the Titans in 2026, he spent time on the Indianapolis Colts practice squad.

Morstead entered the NFL in 2009 as a fifth-round draft pick by the New Orleans Saints out of Southern Methodist. He spent 12 seasons in New Orleans (2009-20), where he became the franchise's all-time leader in punts (692), gross punting average (46.5) and net punting average (41.6).

After leaving the Saints, he spent time with the New York Jets (2021, 2023-24), Atlanta Falcons (2021), Miami Dolphins (2022) and San Francisco 49ers (2025).

In 2025, he saw action in all 17 games for the 49ers. He punted 44 times for a 43.6-yard average with 22 punts placed inside the 20-yard line. Appeared in both postseason contests and tallied four punts with two placed inside the 20-yard line.

During his time with the Saints, Morstead was named to the Pro Bowl and earned second-team All-Pro honors in 2012. In 2009, he helped the Saints cap the season with a win in Super Bowl XLIV over the Indianapolis Colts.

At Southern Methodist, he handled both punting and placekicking duties. As a punter, he averaged 43.4 yards on 166 career attempts, including 59 downed inside the 20. He also finished his career ranked fifth in SMU history with 217 points, including school-record streak of 78-straight extra points.

He is a native of Houston, Texas.

2026 Notes:

➢ At Cincinnati (11/1), averaged 44.7 yards on three punts (134 total yards) with a long punt of 48 yards in his Titans debut.

➢ Against Jacksonville (11/15), averaged 46.0 yards (41.0 net yards) on two punts, placing one at the Jacksonville 17-yard line in the second quarter.

#6 • K JOEY SLYE

5-11, 228, 8th Year/2nd with Titans, Virginia Tech

Kicker Joey Slye is in his eighth NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2026. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 24, 2025.

During the 2025 season, Slye made 28 field goals on 35 attempts and added 26 extra points on 27 attempts for a total of 110 points. It was the fourth time in his career that he went over the 100-point mark. His totals included a team-record nine field goals of at least 50 yards, breaking Stephen Gostkowski's record of seven such field goals in 2020. In only one season, Slye booted four of the eight longest field goals in franchise history (58, 57, 57 and 56 yards).

Prior to arriving in Tennessee, Slye totaled six seasons with the Carolina Panthers (2019-20), Houston Texans (2022), San Francisco 49ers (2022), Washington Commanders (2022-23) and New England Patriots (2024). The Virginia Tech product has also spent time with the N.Y. Giants and Jacksonville Jaguars.

In 2024, Slye played in all 17 games for the Patriots and connected on 26 of 33 field goal attempts and 25 of 26 extra point attempts for a total of 103 points. At San Francisco on Sept. 29, 2024, he set a Patriots record and established his career long with a 63-yard field goal at the end of the second quarter. It tied for the fourth-longest field goal in NFL history.

In his final season in Washington (2023), Slye saw action in all 17 games and handled all kickoffs, field goals and extra points for the Commanders. He connected on 19 of 24 field goals and 32 of 35 extra points for 89 points. Also had 64 touchbacks on 69 kickoffs.

The North Stafford, Va., native attended Virginia Tech (2014-17), where he played four seasons and made 78 of 108 field goal attempts (72.2 percent) and 169 of 172 extra point attempts (98.3 percent).

2026 Notes:

- Against N.Y. Jets (9/13), connected on a 42-yard field goal in the first quarter to give Tennessee its first points of the contest.
- Against Philadelphia (9/20), made a 37-yard field goal on the final play of the first half and added a 33-yarder in the fourth quarter. He was also good on both extra point attempts.
- At Baltimore (10/4), made a 33-yard field goal and his only extra point attempt.
- Against Houston (10/11), made a 30-yard field goal to conclude the opening drive of the game.
- At Indianapolis (10/18), made all four field goal attempts and both extra point attempts. He connected on field goals from 29, 56, 49 and 44 yards, logging his ninth career game with at least four field goals. His 56-yard field goal in the third quarter tied for the fifth-longest field goal in franchise history and tied for Slye's seventh-longest career field goal.
- Against Cleveland (10/25), made a 29-yard field goal in the fourth quarter and also made all three of his extra point attempts. After punter Tommy Townsend was injured in the first half, Slye notched his first career punt in the third quarter for 42 yards with no return.
- At Cincinnati (11/1), connected on field goals of 46 yards and 29 yards in the first quarter and also made both of his extra point attempts.
- Against Jacksonville (11/15), connected on all three field goals and both extra point attempts. He made a 53-yard field goal in the first quarter and added field goals from 54 and 50 yards in the third stanza. It was his first career game with at least three field goals of 50-plus yards and his sixth career game with at least two field goals of 50-plus yards. His three field goals of 50-plus yards tied the franchise's single-game record, previously accomplished by Stephen Gostkowski (Sept. 27, 2020 at Minnesota) and Nick Folk (Sept. 30, 2024 at Miami; Nov. 24, 2024 at Houston). Slye became the first NFL kicker in 2026 with three field goals of 50-plus yards in a game. Additionally, he recorded his first career forced fumble, jarring the ball loose from Jaguars kickoff returner Josh Cameron in the third quarter (recovered by the Jaguars). He became the first kicker to force a fumble since Stephen Hauschka did so in 2017 as a member of the Buffalo Bills. Slye also tied his career high and tied for the team lead with two special teams tackles.

FIELD GOALS OF 50+ YARDS

In 2025, Joey Slye kicked a career-high and team-record nine field goals of at least 50 yards, breaking Stephen Gostkowski's record of seven such field goals in 2020. In only one season, Slye booted four of the eight longest field goals in franchise history (58, 57, 57 and 56 yards).

#3 • P TOMMY TOWNSEND

6-1, 191, 7th Year/1st with Titans, Florida
Click for complete bio

Punter Tommy Townsend is in his seventh NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2026. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 12, 2026.

Townsend entered the NFL in 2020 as an undrafted free agent with the Kansas City Chiefs and spent his first four seasons with the club, contributing to a pair of Super Bowl title runs in 2022 and 2023. Prior to arriving in Tennessee, Townsend spent the 2024 and 2025 campaigns with the Houston Texans. In each of his first six NFL seasons, his team won at least one postseason game.

In 2025, Townsend saw action in all 17 contests for the fourth consecutive year. He punted 72 times for an average of 47.6 yards and a net average of 41.6 yards. He placed 30 punts inside the 20.

During the 2022 season in Kansas City, Townsend averaged 50.4 yards per punt with a net average of 45.6 yards. His punting average and net average both established Chiefs single-season records. In addition to being named September AFC Special Teams Player of the Month, he was voted to the Pro Bowl and earned first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors.

The Orlando, Fla., native played at the University of Florida from 2016 to 2019. In 26 college games, he recorded 93 punts for a 44.8-yard average with 44 kicks placed inside the 20-yard line. He set the Gators record for most yards by a punter in a single game (432, nine punts) and the seventh-longest punt (71 yards; twice). He began his career at the University of Tennessee and redshirted before transferring to Florida.

Townsend's older brother, Johnny, punted at Florida in college and then spent time in the NFL with the Raiders, Ravens, Chiefs and Titans in between 2018 and 2021. He appeared in three games for the Titans in 2021, punting 11 times for 465 yards with two kicks placed inside the 20-yard line.

2026 Notes:

- Against Philadelphia (9/20), averaged 50.8 yards on four punts, including one punt inside the 20. He delivered a 65-yard punt in the first quarter.
- At N.Y. Giants (9/27), averaged 45.4 net yards on five punts (47.8 gross average) with three punts placed inside the 20. He was credited with a 53-yard punt in the first quarter that pinned the Giants on their five-yard line.
- At Baltimore (10/4), established a franchise single-game record with a net average of 51.0 yards per punt (minimum of four punts to qualify). He punted five times for a 53.2-yard gross average with two punts placed inside the 20, and his effort included punts of 63, 35, 54, 56 and 54 yards. He broke Brett Kern's single-game franchise record of 50.2 net yards per punt, set at Miami on Oct. 8, 2017.
- Against Houston (10/11), averaged 47.0 yards on four punts with a net average of 41.8 yards and one punt placed inside the 20.
- At Indianapolis (10/18), averaged 53.0 yards (43.3 net yards) on three punts with one punt placed inside the 20. In the second quarter, he had punts of 64 and 57 yards.
- Against Cleveland (10/25), averaged 47.0 gross yards and 47.0 net yards on two punts with one punt placed inside the 20 before leaving the game in the second quarter with an injury. In the first quarter, he helped pin the Browns on their six-yard line with a 50-yard punt.
- On Nov. 14, he was placed on injured reserve.

CAREER NET PUNTING AVERAGE LEADERS

Since he entered the NFL in 2020, Titans punter Tommy Townsend has established himself as one of the league's all-time leaders in net punting average. His 42.8-yard career net average is fourth in NFL history.

Still and video photographers will be issued tan vests, while team-affiliated photographers and videographers (scoreboard, social, coaches' shows, etc.) will be issued gray vests. Additionally, media with in-game field access will be issued an armband. All vests and armbands must be obtained prior to each game at the check-in table. Vest/arm-band check-in is located on the third-floor landing near the press box. All vests must be returned at the conclusion of the game to Titans personnel or to the vest check-in table.

NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX INTERNET ACCESS

Login information will be available upon arrival in the press box. A limited number of ethernet lines also are available.

FROM NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX TO INTERVIEW ROOMS

Take the press box elevator (Level 3) to field level (Level 1). The Titans interview room is immediately on the right. Turn left and continue straight along the concourse to reach the visiting team's interview room (white line).

POSTGAME POLICIES

Reporters with press box credentials will not be allowed on the field during pregame activities or during the game itself. Press box credentials do NOT provide access to the field at the two-minute warning in the fourth quarter. Media will be allowed to gather in the Titans interview room to watch the end of the game or remain in the press box to make the short walk down to service level at the conclusion of the game. Interviews with Titans players are not permitted on the field following the game. The press conference will begin approximately 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game and will be held in the interview room across from the Titans locker room. Key players also will be brought to the interview room. Simultaneously, the locker room will open to credentialed media members with a working function. The press conference audio will be played live over the press box speakers.

POSTGAME QUOTES

Quotes from each team's head coach and key players will be transcribed and distributed throughout the Nissan Stadium press box following the game. The quotes also will be available at www.TennesseeTitans.com/media.

POOL REPORTS

Pool reporters are assigned by the Pro Football Writers of America. Requests for pool reports with game officials must be made in advance through the home team's media relations. Interviews will be conducted virtually. Pool reports will be recorded, transcribed and then distributed in the press box.

EXITING NISSAN STADIUM

FROM NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX TO STADIUM EXIT: Cross the press box catwalk to the third floor lobby. If less than two hours have elapsed since the end of the game, take the stairs or elevator one floor down to Level 2. Exit through the doors and walk right to get to the "M" or "G" lot. If more than two hours have elapsed since the end of the game, take the elevator down to Level 1. Proceed through the lower concourse and exit through the security checkpoint at the loading dock.

FROM NISSAN STADIUM TO AIRPORT (APPROXIMATELY 15 MINUTES): Take I-24 East toward Chattanooga to I-40 East toward Knoxville. The airport is at Exit 216A.

NISSAN STADIUM PARKING, MEDIA WILL CALL AND MEDIA ENTRANCE

The media will call window and media entrance are located in the northwest corner of Nissan Stadium near Gate 6. The media will call window opens three hours prior to kickoff. Photographers' vests can be picked up near the entrance to the press box on Level 3.

Jim Wyatt: Titans Unveil New Uniforms, Logo, to Represent the Next Chapter of Franchise History

On March 12, 2026, the Tennessee Titans revealed new logos and uniforms, marking an exciting moment for the organization that honors the team's deep roots and celebrates its home in Nashville and the state of Tennessee.

More than just a new look, the uniform and logo embody the spirit of the organization – its rich history dating back to 1960, heritage, and home. The design was inspired by the voices and passion of Titans fans, players, alumni, and neighbors.

"We are incredibly proud to unveil this new look for the Tennessee Titans," said Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk. "Our uniforms and logo represent the strength of our history, the passion of our fans, and the bold future we're building together. Today is about honoring over 65 years of our organization while confidently stepping into the next chapter, and I couldn't be more excited for our players, our city, and our fans to wear this identity with pride."

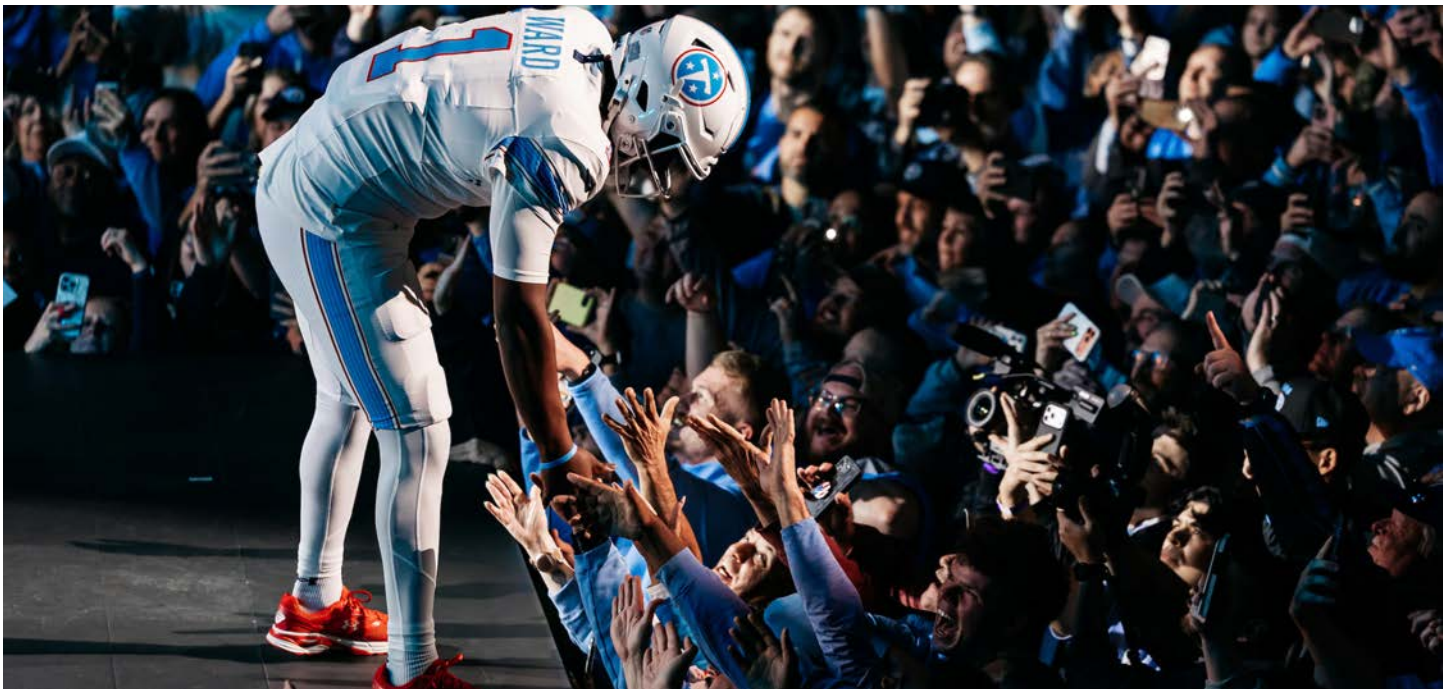

The team's new primary logo, The Shield, remains true to the Titans identity, featuring strong colors of Titans blue, white, and red, and the team's familiar tri-stars. A secondary mark, The Football, gives a cultural nod to city and state and offers fans a fresh way to show their Titans pride. The letters "T" and "N" are blended in a vertical arrangement commemorating both the state's postal abbreviation and the city of Nashville, TN. An array of other marks, including a handcrafted script wordmark, also adorn the team's new logo slick.

The team uniform features some of the organization's most iconic aspects of its heritage and brings them into its present and future.

- At home in Nashville, the Titans primary jerseys will don the distinctive Titans blue, with "TITANS" emblazoned across the chest. The chest font draws inspiration from traditional woodblock printmaking – a tribute to the city's creative spirit – while the numbers echo classic collegiate design.
- On the road, white jerseys will carry the "TENNESSEE" name, ensuring the team represents the state everywhere they play.
- The Tennessee Tri-Star can be found in navy in the tab at the back of the uniform and on the side panel underneath the arm.
- Inside every jersey, a simple "WE" tag is stitched, a rallying cry for the team that emphasizes a "we over me" mentality.
- The iconic stripe of the team's past was infused with Nashville's deep roots in music and is now the 6-String Stripe, represented on the pants, sleeve, and helmet.

Jerseys and new team merchandise is now available online at shop.tennesseetitans.com and at the Titans Team Store in Nissan Stadium. More gear will be arriving later this spring and summer. For more information on events and merchandise, visit tennesseetitans.com/brand.

"From the beginning, we approached this process with tremendous care and pride, knowing how much the Titans identity means to our fans and to the state of Tennessee," said Titans President and CEO Burke Nihill. "Every element of these uniforms was thoughtfully considered — from the Titans blue and Tri-Star to the new 6-String Stripe that celebrates Nashville's deep musical roots. We wanted to honor the history that defines this franchise while creating something that reflects who we are today and where we're going. The result is a uniform that represents our team, our city, and our state with authenticity and pride."

TITANS UNVEIL NEW LOGO AND UNIFORMS

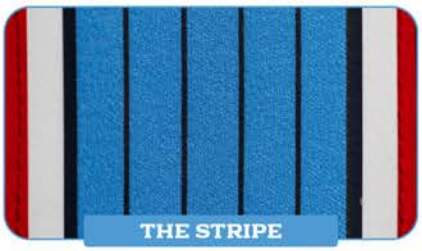

THE HELMET

Our primary logo, "The Shield" adorns the side of the helmet, while the 6-String Stripe runs down the center. The helmet's clean, white shell is paired with an all-white face mask.

THE CHEST PLATES

The Titans primary wordmark, stitched prominently across the center of the chest, announces our name in a bold, serif font inspired by Tennessee woodblock type and classic athletics. Rendered in a sans-serif typeface, our away jersey proudly represents our home state everywhere we play.

THE STRIPE

The "6-String Stripe" infuses the iconic stripe from our past with Nashville's deep roots in music. This stripe is featured prominently along the pants, sleeve, and helmet.

THE NAMEPLATE

The nameplate uses a roster font that is an extension of the woodblock-inspired wordmark.

THE NUMBERS

Inspired by collegiate-style block numbers, our classic jersey numbers stand out in white on our primary home jersey and in Titans blue while we're away, both accented with red outlines.

THE ACCENTS

Navy continues in the 6-String Stripe, the collar tab, the Tri-Star vents at the side panels, the Nike Swoosh, and the 3D helmet bumpers.

THE TAB

The collar tab features the Tennessee Tri-Star, proudly honoring the three Grand Divisions of our home state. Inside the collar tab is the word, "WE," representing the team's "We Over Me" mentality.
