TITANS HOST JAGUARS IN AFC SOUTH CLASH

Tennessee Titans (1-10) vs. Jacksonville Jaguars (7-4)

Sunday, Nov. 30, 2025 • 12 p.m. CST • Nissan Stadium • Nashville, Tenn. • TV: CBS/WTVF-5

NASHVILLE — The Tennessee Titans (1-10) complete their November home stand this week against the AFC South rival Jacksonville Jaguars (7-4). Kickoff at Nissan Stadium (capacity 69,143) is scheduled for 12 p.m. CST on Sunday, Nov. 30.

This is the first of two annual clashes in the series, which dates back to the Jaguars' inaugural 1995 campaign. The clubs will conclude the regular season at Jacksonville in Week 18. The Titans, who lead the all-time series 35-26 (including postseason), look to regain the momentum in the series after the Jaguars took both meetings in 2024.

Titans interim head coach Mike McCoy has a recent history with the Jaguars. He coached the team's quarterbacks from 2022 to 2024, prior to joining the Titans during the 2025 offseason as senior offensive assistant. In McCoy's time in Jacksonville, quarterback Trevor Lawrence had consecutive 4,000-yard passing seasons in 2022 and 2023 before being limited by injuries to 10 games in 2025.

THE BROADCAST

This week's contest will be regionally televised on CBS, including Nashville affiliate WTVF NewsChannel 5, as well as on Paramount+ in the Nashville market. The broadcast team includes play-by-play announcer Spero Dedes, analyst Adam Archuleta and reporter Aditi Kinkhabwala.

Fans in Nashville can stream live Titans games on mobile devices with NFL+, which offers access to local games and all primetime games on phones and tablets. Out of market, fans can watch every Sunday afternoon game with Sunday Ticket. More information on ways to watch NFL games can be found at nfl.com/ways-to-watch.

The Titans Radio Network and Nashville flagship 104.5 The Zone carry all Titans games across the Mid-South with play-by-play announcer Taylor Zarzour, analyst Dave McGinnis, executive producer Rhett Bryan, gameday host Lucas Panzica, and sideline reporters Amie Wells and Will Boling.

ROOKIES HIGHLIGHTED IN EFFORT AGAINST SEATTLE

The Titans hosted the Seattle Seahawks last week. After scoring 21 points in the second half, their comeback effort fell short in a 30-24 loss. Rookie quarterback Cam Ward passed for 256 yards and a touchdown while also scoring his first career rushing touchdown. Fellow rookie Chimere Dike reached the end zone on a punt return and added a touchdown catch.

Dike's 90-yard punt return touchdown tied for the longest punt return in franchise history, matching Pacman Jones' mark (Nov. 19, 2006 at Philadelphia). He also became the third player in franchise history with a punt return touchdown and a receiving touchdown in the same game, joining Billy "White Shoes" Johnson and Justin McCareins. With 1,760 all-purpose yards in 2025, Dike leads the NFL.

Ward, who has started every game this season, has 2,210 passing yards in 2025, which is second in franchise history for a rookie quarterback behind Marcus Mariota's 2,818 passing yards in 2015.

THE JAGUARS

The Jaguars currently reside in second place in the AFC South, one game behind the Indianapolis Colts (8-3) and one game ahead of the Houston Texans (6-5). Last week, the Jaguars traveled to face the Arizona Cardinals and escaped with a 27-24 overtime victory.

Liam Coen is in his first season as Jacksonville's head coach. He was named to the post in January after one season as the offensive coordinator for the Tampa Buccaneers (2024). In his lone season in Tampa Bay, he led the NFL's only offense that finished in the top five in total offense (399.6 yards per game), passing offense (250.4), rushing offense (149.2) and scoring (29.5 points per game).

Lawrence, the No. 1 overall pick in the 2021 NFL Draft, has started every game in 2025. On the season, he has 2,407 passing yards with 14 touchdowns and 11 interceptions. Last week, he threw three touchdown passes with three interceptions.

WR CHIMERE DIKE

- With 1,760 all-purpose yards in 2025, he needs 140 more this week to join Derrick Mason as the franchise's only players since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger with 1,900 all-purpose yards in the team's first 12 games of a season. Mason had 2,103 yards in the first 12 games of 2000.
- With 1,206 kickoff return yards in 2025, he needs 35 more to surpass Darius Reynaud (1,240 in 2012) for the third-highest single-season total in franchise history. With 112 more kickoff return yards, Dike will surpass Bobby Jancik (1,317 in 1963) for second place on the list. He would trail only Marc Mariani (1,530 in 2010).

TE GUNNAR HELM

- His 30 receptions currently rank fourth in franchise history among franchise rookie tight ends. Ahead of him on the list are Chig Okonkwo (32 in 2022), Chris Dressel (32 in 1983), Ben Troupe (33 in 2004) and Bo Scaife (37 in 2005).

S AMANI HOOKER

OLB ARDEN KEY

TE CHIG OKONKWO

- Enters the game with 35 receptions for 377 yards in 2025. With 23 receiving yards, he will become the franchise's fourth player to begin his NFL career with four consecutive seasons in which he posted at least 30 receptions and 400 receiving yards. He would join wide receivers Ernest Givins (nine straight seasons), Charlie Hennigan (six) and Kendall Wright (four).

DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

K JOEY SLYE

- Has made seven field goals of at least 50 yards in 2025. With one more, he will surpass Stephen Gostkowski (seven in 2020) for the most field goals of 50-plus yards in a season in franchise history.

- Can become the third rookie quarterback in franchise history to start at least 12 games in a season, along with Vince Young (13 starts in 2006) and Marcus Mariota (12 in 2015). Ward already became the first quarterback in franchise history to start at least the first six games of his rookie campaign.

TE GUNNAR HELM, WR CHIMERE DIKE & WR ELIC AYOMANOR

- Can become the first rookie trio in Titans/Oilers history to record 30 receptions each. Helm enters the contest with 30 receptions, while Ayomanor and Dike each have 28 catches.

SERIES HISTORY

The Jaguars are the Titans' longest-standing division rival. The clubs have met at least twice each year since Jacksonville began play as an expansion franchise in 1995. For the first seven seasons of the rivalry they played in the AFC Central, and since 2002 they have been members of the AFC South.

The teams have met a total of 61 times, with the Titans holding a 35-26 advantage. The Titans won five consecutive matchups from 2019 to 2021. Since then, however, the Jaguars have taken five of the last six in the series, including a sweep in 2024.

In the first matchup of 2024, the Jaguars visited Nissan Stadium and handed the Titans a 10-6 defeat. It was the fourth-lowest scoring game in the history of the series. In the rematch at EverBank Stadium on Dec. 29, 2024, Mac Jones started at quarterback for the Jaguars and threw two touchdown passes to defeat the Titans, led by quarterback Mason Rudolph, by a final score of 20-13.

The last win by the Titans against the Jaguars was in the 2023 season finale (Jan. 7, 2024) at EverBank Stadium. The Titans grabbed a 28-20 victory to deprive the Jaguars of a playoff berth and an AFC South title.

In the 2022 finale, played at EverBank Stadium on Jan. 7, 2023, the Titans and Jaguars played to decide the AFC South title. The Jaguars scored the game-winning touchdown with less than three minutes remaining on the clock on a 37-yard fumble return by linebacker Josh Allen, ending Tennessee's season and propelling Jacksonville to the postseason.

The Titans and Jaguars have met five times on Thursday Night Football. The last occasion was Sept. 19, 2019. The Jaguars won 20-7, taking a 3-2 lead in the Thursday night series. Jaguars then-rookie quarterback Gardner Minshew earned his first career victory as a starter in the contest.

On Thursday night, Dec. 6, 2018, Titans running back Derrick Henry rushed for a then-franchise-record 238 yards and four touchdowns on 17 carries, lifting the Titans to a 30-9 win over the Jaguars. On one of his scores, Henry matched Tony Dorsett to become only the second running back in NFL history to record a 99-yard rushing attempt.

The stakes of the rivalry were never higher than in 1999, when the Titans and Jaguars met three times, including the AFC Championship Game in Jacksonville. Steve McNair rushed for two touchdowns and Derrick Mason returned a kickoff 80 yards for a touchdown as the Titans earned their first Super Bowl berth with a 33-14 win. Tennessee went on to Super Bowl XXXIV and eventually fell at the hands of the St. Louis Rams, 23-16.

The Jaguars played their first game in franchise history against the then-Houston Oilers on Sept. 3, 1995. In Jacksonville, the Oilers won the game by a 10-3 final score.

Sunday, Dec. 29, 2024 • 1:00 p.m. EST • EverBank Stadium

In Week 17 of the 2024 season, the Titans traveled to division rival Jacksonville Jaguars and fell by a score of 20-13.

The Jaguars took a 3-0 lead on their opening possession. QB Mac Jones led a nine-play, 38-yard drive that culminated with a K Cam Little 48-yard field goal.

Later in the second quarter, QB Mason Rudolph was intercepted by LB Devin Lloyd on a tipped ball to give the Jaguars possession at the Titans 43-yard line. Jacksonville capitalized on the turnover with a five-play touchdown drive. WR Brian Thomas caught a 17-yard pass from Jones and ran for an 18-yard gain before Jones found WR Parker Washington for the two-yard touchdown.

Jacksonville extended its lead to 13-0 with a 44-yard field goal by Little on their next offensive possession to make it 13-0 with 2:02 left in the half.

The Titans then closed out the first half with a 10-play, 50-yard drive, and capped it off with a 39-yard field goal by K Matthew Wright to make it 13-3 at the half. TE Chig Okonkwo converted a fourth-and-three with a nine-yard reception to keep the drive alive.

The Titans then opened the second half with a 13-play, 85-yard drive and they capped it off with an eight-yard touchdown pass from Rudolph to TE Nick Vannett to make it 13-10 with 6:51 left in the third quarter.

Neither team scored again in the third quarter. The Jaguars opened the fourth with a 16-play, 74-yard drive that took 9:11 off the clock and culminated in an 11-yard touchdown pass from Jones to Thomas to make it 20-10 with 7:05 left in the game.

The Titans got the ball back with 1:29 left on the clock after forcing a three-and-out, while burning their three timeouts.

LAST WEEK VS. THE SEAHAWKS

Week 12: Titans 24, Seahawks 30
Sunday Nov. 23, 2025 • 12:00 p.m. CDT • Nissan Stadium

In Week 12 of the 2025 season, the Titans hosted the Seattle Seahawks and fell by a score of 30-24.

The Titans opened the game with a 15-play, 63-yard drive that took 9:09 off the clock and resulted in a 22-yard field goal by K Joey Slye to take an early 3-0 lead. QB Cam Ward connected with TE Gunnar Helm for a 10-yard gain on fourth-and-two to keep the drive alive but a sack on third down at the Seattle three-yard line forced the field goal.

The Seahawks answered with a field goal of their own, a 47-yarder from K Jason Myers to tie the game at 3-3 with 2:14 left in the first.

Early in the second quarter the Seahawks extended their lead when QB Sam Darnold found WR Jaxon Smith-Njigba for a 63-yard touchdown to make it 10-3.

A quick three-and-out by the Titans offense on the next possession gave the ball back to Seattle. The Seahawks drove down to the Titans two-yard line, but the defense was able to hold them off to a 30-yard field goal to make it 13-3 with 4:44 left in the first half.

After driving to the Seattle 40-yard line, the Titans were stuffed for no gain on fourth-and-one. Seattle took over and stretched their lead to 16-3 with another field goal by Myers this one from 36 yards as time expired in the first half.

The Seahawks opened the second half with a quick three-play, 76-yard scoring drive. Darnold found Smith-Njigba for 56 yards before connecting again on a 13-yard touchdown pass to make it 23-3 with 13:19 left in the third quarter.

The Titans defense forced a three-and-out on the next Seahawks possession and Seattle was forced to punt for the first time of the day. WR Chimere Dike fielded the 60-yard punt at the Tennessee 10-yard line and returned it 90 yards for the touchdown to bring life back to the Titans and Nissan Stadium. The 90-yard punt return tied the franchise record for the longest punt return set by Pacman Jones in 2006.

However, the Seahawks answered with a six-play, 74-yard scoring drive on their next possession, stretching the lead to 30-10 with a five-yard run by RB Zach Charbonnet.

The Titans didn't quit. Ward drove the team 73 yards on nine plays, completing passes of 26 yards to TE Chig Okonkwo, 12 yards to WR James Proche II and 15 yards to Helm before capping the drive himself with a six-yard run for the score. It was his first rushing touchdown of the season and made it 30-17 heading into the fourth quarter.

Then, the defense got a big play from OLB Arden Key, who sacked Darnold on a fourth-and-three play from the Tennessee 41-yard line with 13:17 left, and the Titans had life.

The Titans drove deep into Seattle territory but a penalty and sack stalled the drive giving the ball back to the Seahawks.

The Titans defense came up big again with a three-and-out giving the ball back to the offense with 5:08 left in the game. The Titans strung together a 15-play, 62-yard drive capped off with a one-yard touchdown pass from Ward to Dike to make it 30-24 with 43 seconds left.

But the hope for a comeback win ended on the failed onside kick and the Titans fell to 1-10 on the season.

TEAM NOTES

- The Titans played their third of four consecutive home games (Weeks 9-13), excluding their Week 10 bye. They continue next week with a contest at Nissan Stadium against the Jacksonville Jaguars (Nov. 30) prior to traveling to face the Cleveland Browns on Dec. 7.
- A season-high five of the team's nine 2025 draft picks started against Seattle: quarterback Cam Ward, tight end Gunnar Helm, wide receiver Chimere Dike, cornerback Marcus Harris and safety Kevin Winston Jr. It was the most total rookie draft picks to start any Titans game since the 2005 season, when five or more draft picks started a total of six times.
- A season-high 10 total rookies participated in the game for the Titans. There have been four other occasions in 2025 in which nine Titans rookies participated for the club.
- Two players made their Titans debuts: safety Jerrick Reed II and rookie wide receiver Xavier Restrepo. It was Restrepo's NFL debut. Reed and Restrepo became the 68th and 69th players to participate for the Titans in a game in 2025.
- The 24 total points by the Titans amounted to a season high through 11 games.
- The 21 points the Titans scored in the second half was the team's best total in the second half since Dec. 22, 2024, when it scored 23 points in the final two quarters at Indianapolis.
- The Titans' possessed the ball for 37 minutes and 25 seconds. It was the team's best time of possession since Nov. 3, 2024, when it had the ball for 38 minutes and 44 seconds against New England.
- The Titans offense converted five fourth downs on seven attempts (71.4 percent). The five fourth-down conversions were the most by the Titans/Oilers in any game since the beginning of the 1991 season. Within the NFL since the beginning of the 1991 campaign, the Titans' five fourth-down conversions tied for the second-highest total behind only the Los Angeles Chargers' six fourth-down conversions at Las Vegas on Jan. 9, 2022. In that span, the Titans joined nine other teams that converted five fourth downs in a contest.
- The Titans opened the game with a 15-play, 63-yard drive for a field goal on a first possession. It marked the fifth time in 2025 the team scored on its opening drive (five field goals). The drive used 9 minutes and 9 seconds. In terms of time used, it was Tennessee's longest scoring drive of the season and the longest since a touchdown drive that took 9 minutes and 36 seconds against Carolina on Nov. 26, 2023. Additionally, since the beginning of the 2000 season, the drive used more clock than any other Titans opening drive that resulted in a score.
- The Titans held the Seahawks offense to a pair of third-down conversions on seven attempts and sacked Sam Darnold on Seattle's lone fourth-down try. The 28.6 percent third-down conversion rate by the Seahawks was the second-best for the Titans defense in 2025 behind the 25.0 percent by the Indianapolis Colts on Sept. 21.
- The Titans scored their second punt return touchdown of the season on a 90-yard return by Chimere Dike. The last time the team had multiple punt return touchdowns in a season was 2012, when it had three.

CB JALYN ARMOUR-DAVIS

- Finished third on the defense with four tackles.

CB DARRELL BAKER JR.

- In the third quarter, he returned a Michael Dickson punt 90 yards for a touchdown. In doing so, he tied Pacman Jones' record (90-yard touchdown at Philadelphia on Nov. 19, 2006) for the longest punt return in franchise history.
- In the fourth quarter, he scored on a one-yard touchdown pass from Cam Ward.
- Joined Billy "White Shoes" Johnson (Oct. 26, 1975 vs. Detroit) and Justin McCareins (Nov. 23, 2003 at Atlanta) as the only players in franchise history to record a punt return for a touchdown and a receiving touchdown in the same game.
- Became the first Titans player to return two punts for touchdowns in a season since Darius Reynaud did so in 2012.

- Finished with two tackles and a quarterback hit, forcing Sam Darnold into an incompleteness in the third quarter.

K JOEY SLYE

- Made a 22-yard field goal in the first quarter and connected on all three extra point attempts.

RB TYJAE SPEARS

- Caught four passes for 21 yards and added four rushing yards on three attempts.

QB CAM WARD

- Completed 28-of-42 passes for 256 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions, amounting to a 91.0 passer rating.
- Added six rushing attempts for 37 yards and one touchdown. Four of his rushing attempts resulted in first downs.
- Scored his first career touchdown in the third quarter on a six-yard rushing attempt. It was the first rushing touchdown by a Titans quarterback since Mason Rudolph scored on an 11-yard run at Detroit on Oct. 27, 2024.
- Tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to Chimere Dike in the fourth quarter.
- Helped convert a third-and-three with a 25-yard completion to Chimere Dike in the first quarter.
- Threw a 23-yard pass to James Proche II in the second quarter to convert a third-and-nine.
- In the third quarter, he found Chig Okonkwo for a 26-yard connection.
- Became the third rookie quarterback in franchise history to start at least 11 games in a season, along with Vince Young (13 starts in 2006) and Marcus Mariota (12 in 2015). Ward previously became the first quarterback in franchise history to start at least the first six games of his rookie campaign.
- By increasing his total to 2,210 passing yards in 2025, he surpassed Vince Young (2,199 in 2006) for the second-highest total by a rookie in franchise history behind Marcus Mariota (2,818 in 2015).

OLB JIHAD WARD

- Recorded a pass defensed, combining with Marcus Harris to break up a Sam Darnold pass in the second quarter. It was his third pass defensed of the season, one shy of tying a single season career-best (four in 2022).

S KEVIN WINSTON JR.

- Led the team with a career-best 10 tackles, including a stop for loss in the second quarter in which he dropped Kenneth Walker III for a loss of four yards.
- His 10 stops were the most tackles in a game by a Titans rookie safety since the start of the 2000 season (GSIS tackle statistics). Kevin Byard held the previous mark with nine tackles at San Diego on Nov. 6, 2016.

CB SAMUEL WOMACK III

- Logged his first start as a Titan and recorded two tackles and a pass defensed.

INTERIM HEAD COACH MIKE McCOY

Just injury update. Dan (Moore Jr.) is getting further evaluation on his knee. (Shy) Tuttle is getting evaluated for a concussion. Lloyd (Cushenberry III) is getting further evaluation on his foot. So those are the three injuries. I'll just say that once again, Chim (Dike) just takes this team to another level with a big play like that, what he did to energize the sideline, the stadium, it's great to see him do what he does on a weekly basis. That's the plays you need to turn. That's what it did in that game. It energized everybody, and you saw what we did after that. It's an individual performance and the blocking, too, with that group. It's unbelievable. It's great to see it. There's just too many things during the game that we didn't do enough, plays, the second series of the game with the penalties, things like that, a couple stops on defense where we've each got to be more consistent because these guys fought their tails off once again up until the very end. But got to be more consistent throughout a game.

Seemed like just looking at it at face value that Cam Ward was pretty poised back there for the duress he was under in the drop-back game down 20 most of the time.

I love the way Cam (Ward) played today. You see the competitor, the ability to make plays. You guys have asked since day one about him making plays with his feet and the way he moved in the pocket at certain times during the game and just competed his tail off. Some of the plays he made, the wow plays, the scrambles—I'm sitting there saying one thing and next thing you know here's a big play that he makes. But it's taking that next step, and that's what he's done. We've been saying it from day one, the way he competes, the way he works every day. When we first came in in the off-season program, the early mornings, staying late, things like that, it's starting to pay off. We've said it all along, as a young quarterback in this league, it takes some time, and it's great to see the improvements that he's making week in and week out. There's the ups and downs, definitely. We're going to turn the film on tomorrow and look at some things. We'll clean it up and say, 'Hey, you've got to do these things better.' But just the command of the offense and some checks that he made during the game, I really liked the way he played today.

Titans lost a lot of games this year by fairly significant point spreads. Last three games, all one score. Do you take any encouragement at all from...

I just love the way the guys compete. They just keep going. They fight their tails off. It's been that way the entire time, the way they work, the week of preparation, the little details, the fine focus they had in practice this week. We've got to find a way to make more plays consistently and not hurt ourselves at certain times of the game like the second series. The first drive of the game, that's a phenomenal way to start against a really good defense, the plays that we're making, the efficiency, going down there and getting points to start the game, that's awesome, but then you come around to the next series and you have a number of penalties. Those are the things against a good football team you have to avoid.

It seemed like you guys converted a couple of really key third and fourth downs today, a lot of that going to the tight ends and coming out of the slot. Was that something that you guys saw on tape or something you were working on in practice and decided to implement today?

As we talked about coming out of the bye week, that was one of the things we said was a big focus was third down, and it's players making plays. I don't know the numbers. I haven't looked at a stat sheet so I don't know what exactly we were, but I think there was a number of big plays with guys just going out there and making plays, and that's what the game is all about. I think a lot of that has to do with Cam, with his feet, making plays, and then guys creating separation against a good defense. Happy with those guys making the plays and the conversions.

All jokes aside, were you guys making that decision to go for it a lot earlier in the process as opposed to...

We've answered this question a number of times. You get in the flow of a game, you do certain things, there's a certain aggression you take at times, and you go for it. You do certain—the flow of the game and there's certain times. And when I don't do it sometimes or it doesn't work or it turns the other way, I kick myself in the ass at times. You lose sleep over it. But we went in there with the approach we were going to take, the aggressive approach that we wanted to have, and the players executed it for the most part. Not the entire time. There was the one that we did not get in there that was critical. But give them all the credit in the world for executing it.

That early fourth-and-1 that got stuffed, did that give you any doubt or hesitation?

I knew it was coming. I knew I was going to come in here and you guys were going to ask a bunch of questions on it. We've got to execute better. We were aggressive on the third-and-1. We had a good match-up with Gunnar (Helm) that we thought could be a big play in that situation, they made a good play on it, and then we went back. But those are the things that I'm telling you earlier that we've got to convert those things. That's how you win games. In critical times—you don't know when it's going to be. You don't know first quarter, second quarter, third quarter, sometimes the fourth quarter, you've got to make those plays. You've got to somehow dig down deeper and just convert, or we've got to just find a way to get done.

Talk about how Restrepo did in his first opportunity.

But I'd say this, all those guys, (Xavier) Strep (Restrepo), Pro (James Proche II) and Mason (Kinsey), to where they were at the beginning of the season and you see how hard they worked every single day to help our defense, and then when they would fill in offensively because they never knew, obviously Mason and Pro had been up before and this and that, but that's what this game is all about, making the most of your opportunities, especially a young player like him, that he got an opportunity to finally dress today and goes out there and makes some plays. You feel—that's what it's—I'm so happy for those guys because you get rewarded for all the hard work, and that doesn't always happen in this business. Depending on what team you're on and the injuries and all those things come into play. And then you see some of the linemen come in today. We had two guys go down and next thing you know here comes two other guys that step up, and that's the way it's been the last couple weeks. We just keep going up and down the field at certain times. That's the reward and that's what I keep telling you guys. I love this football team. I love the way they work. They're unselfish. They love playing together. But it's about winning, and we've got to find a way to make more plays to one win of these games.

The ad lib stuff, there's clearly something with Cam (Ward) and (Xavier) Restrepo there. Can that be a benefit to you guys moving forward?

They probably have something in their helmets communicating with each other, talking back and forth. I think it's just Cam has probably thrown more balls to him than anybody else. So, I think that there's the—if you looked at the sideline a couple times, I looked back there one time and it was like, Strep was there like right in his ear sitting on the corner of the bench and just talking to him, and I'm like, okay, this is interesting. But that's the relationship they have. They've had a lot of success playing together. I think it's just great to see them playing at this level together, just pleased with the two of them and the way they work. Really what you love about them, too, is the love for the game. Strep really loves the game of football. You guys deal with him all the time, but just the way he approaches it. He's unselfish, and he was told what he needed to do to continue his development with the kicking game and things like that. Once we told him that, he was in there, living in there to try to figure out a way because he has a burning desire to get out there like he did today.

The challenge defensively of trying to defend a guy like Jaxon Smith-Njigba. He had a season high today.

He's going to make plays. He's one of the best in the business. Look at the numbers week in and week out. I'm good friends with Clint Kubiak. We worked together in Denver, and his dad coached me way back in '95 in Denver. So, I've known the family for a long time, so Clint and I were talking, what a special player he is. Some of the things you watch, you watch the third down conversion they've had this year, some of the throws that Sam (Darnold) makes to him, he's a special player. You don't see many guys like that make some of those conversions in tight great coverage. It's like, where else do you want the defender to be? And here he is making those plays. But a very explosive player, and you've got to try to minimize—they're going to make their plays, but you've just got to try to minimize the number.

We talked about Chim Dike's return. How did that play out from your vantage point?

Well, I love it. It's explosive play. We talked about it all week long, the way he just went and ran all the way across the field, down the sideline, and just the awareness of players to keep the blocks legal knowing the opportunity that we had. And then there was one guy left, and it was just a young player energizing the franchise and the fans. So happy for him. But just great execution. Bones (John Fassel) and Stew (Rayna Stewart) do an outstanding job putting the plans together, and the players did an outstanding job of executing. I think the one thing, too, give the players or the other 10 guys all the credit in the world. But when you have a special returner like that, it makes you want to do your job that much better because you don't want to come in an Monday morning and look at the tape and say, I was the one that missed that one little—it doesn't take a lot because he makes the first guy miss often and then he does what he does.

Two young defensive backs that have stepped into big roles so far for you in Marcus (Harris) and Kevin (Winston Jr.) made some pretty key plays today. Seemed like they stepped into those roles and kind of solidified them for you. Can you speak to them and how they played today?

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

They've done an outstanding job. There's going to be, with all young players, rookies, there's going to be a developmental part, a growth part, some growing pains, things like that, that you're going to go through. I've heard the coaches a number of times say don't make the same mistake twice. You're going to make some mistakes. You're going to get beat. Like the question about 11 (Jaxon Smith-Njigba), a special player, he's going to make some plays. It's just, you learn from it. I think the great thing with Kevin (Winston Jr.) is (Amani) Hook(er) is back there with him to help him and to lead. So that's the big thing is the more they play together on the back end, the communication part of it is a lot better. I think both the players, they're starting to recognize things a lot quicker. It's not, you learn not just playing part of it but the week of preparation, how are you watching film, looking for keys, all those little things. That's just being a young player. But they've got very, very bright futures. You love the way they work. You see the way they work in practice. Give the coaches credit for the success those two have had. They've done a phenomenal job of helping these guys get to where they are. And there's a lot of football left, so I just look for them to get better as time goes on.

QUARTERBACK CAM WARD

How do you feel you progressed today as a passer or play overall because you ran too?

I mean the only thing that matters the win or loss, so that sums it up. But it's just really the biggest thing with us offensively we got to be better in the middle of the games. Continue to have penalties from us as a group. So that's the biggest thing that we got to harp on, we got to focus on.

What was going right when you guys were productive and scoring and what went wrong to keep you from being able to be consistent on offense?

I think what was going right was just everybody playing on time. Myself getting the ball out, receivers winning in man coverage and zone, knowing where to sit. O-line did a fantastic job, just in the run game and in pass protection. I just think what went wrong was just the penalties. Self-inflicted wounds and that's unfortunately what just continues to happen.

How much did Chim's (Dike) 90-yard punt return provide a spark for you guys in the second half?

It helped us a lot. That's a that's All-Pro right there, Chim (Dike). So, it's special to have him as a teammate, but just know him off the field, the way he takes care of himself, his everyday routine, what he does to be a pro. So, everything that's going right for Chim, he deserves it. And I'm glad he's able to get two touchdowns today.

Last week you made it seem like your running lanes and stuff were created largely from the way the Texans rushed. I don't imagine you got exactly the same looks today and stuff, but you still found room to run. It seems like a trend now. What helped you find that stuff again today?

Just feeling the pocket. Getting better at it and just knowing where I need to set up every play. And then also being able to play on time and have a clock in my head to get the ball to my playmakers or whether I need to scramble around. But I just got to continue to do what I need to do to help the offense be successful.

When you talk about that clock in your head getting stronger and getting better in the pocket, how do you think you've been able to do that? Why do you think you've been able to do that? What do you owe the success in the pocket and timing to?

Just really all the work we do in the facility. Coach Bo (Hardegree), Payton (McCollum) over there helped me out, Nick (Holz). So, all the guys, we all do a part in trying to do as best for myself to help put the team in a good situation. And I'll just say just continue watching the pocket on film, working with my quarterback coach just on days I can and just trying to be better every day I can.

When you talk about the timing and trying to have the clock and all of that stuff, how long this season have you started to focus on that in your running ability?

I focus on it every game. I think the biggest part about watching the rush, how—whether it's a D-tackle or defensive end rush is how much width they can get. But also, not putting my tackles in a bad situation to where they give up an easy sack that'll end up being on me. So, I just think you just got to—it just takes countless hours of watching just how you think it ends up in the game, but also watching about how it could end up. So, you just got to watch different situations.

The play where you rolled to the sideline and threw it back to your left to find Xavier (Restrepo), is that something you guys have done many times in the past and what was it like having him back out there with you?

Yeah, we've done that before. We work it and it was great to have him on the field with me. Someone who I have a good bond with on and off the field. And he made a couple of plays for us. I know some plays that he wished he wants back. But every time he steps on the field he always comes with the same mindset as he does practice. And I think that's—having him on the field is going to help our receiving core. And then along with the other guys who play well today.

You've been pushing for maybe some more fourth down attempts. What did you think of the number that you guys went for today and how you converted? I think it was five for seven.

It's just the situation that we put ourselves in. We had to go for those fourth downs just because we were trailing. But I mean I'm a competitor. If we're backed up fourth down, fourth-and-inches, I want to go for it. I want to always have the ball in my hands and offensive line's hands up front. And they going to continue to lead the way. So, just us being successful on fourth down today is just something that we got to continue to trend upwards in.

Cam (Ward), the number of rookies that are contributing on this team is kind of—the role keeps going up for both you and other guys. Even in spite of the record, how much hope does that give for where this is all headed?

Well that gives a lot of hope. Because we know the problems, and we're fixing the problems, but at the end of the day a lot of stuff is only one person can control. Whether that's myself in my position or a defensive guy at their position, every person has that right to control it and that's the biggest thing is trying to flip the switch now. Trying to get a couple wins to get us a little jump start. But I just think the rookies, the draft class we made was a pretty good draft class and we've got to continue try to get better.

Was that a no-look pass you hit to Gunnar (Helm) when you were going left back to right?

Yep. And Gunnar (Helm), he did a good job not running, just sitting in the zone. But, I'm glad he caught it.

How much trust do you have to have for a no-look pass? How much confidence do you have to have to try that in the NFL and have it pay off?

I mean, you just got to prepare the right way every week to attempt stuff like that. Watch a certain amount of film. Even before the game you got to watch film just to—you know that you know it, and when it happens in the game, you can kind of control stuff. And Gunnar (Helm), he's one of those guys who's real savvy in space. He knows where to get to, he knows what I'm thinking all the time, and he made a great catch.

Obviously, some positive moments in this game that you mentioned, you didn't win. What's the balance or the lines where you want to take some pride in improvements and good things happening but acknowledging that it's just not good enough?

The only thing I would say is just it's a loss. And we have to continue to try and win games and dig ourselves out of the hole that we're in. But at the end of the day, we get better every week, and we got to emphasize getting better now. Getting better faster. And that starts tomorrow, so we just got to continue to get back to work and try to win next week.

The offense was on the field for almost a quarter longer than Seattle. So, in talking about those types of improvement, what does that say about how you guys are figuring out how to sustain drives and stay out there?

I just think it means we didn't do enough. We didn't score enough points to win the game. And having the ball for a long period of time really means nothing if you don't score points. So, we just got to finish drives with kicks, finish drives with six points, put Joey Slye out there a couple more times and find ways to help the defense out and win some games.

Chim's (Dike) the only guy outside of you who has more than two touchdowns this year for the offense, what is the fix to that to get more guys to kind of involve in that scoring?

I think the fix would be just everyone taking accountability. Everyone in the facility, myself. And we know we got a lot of things that we got to fix, but I just think the more we continue to play team football like we have been and continue to push each other every day and make plays in practice so it shows up in the game, I think by next week we'll be able to score a couple more points.

WIDE RECEIVER CHIMERE DIKE

Can you walk us through the 90-yard punt return, just how it kind of played out in your eyes?

Yeah, I mean punter got all of it. Kind of sent me back. He's a really good punter. He hides his direction really well. I saw that Wo (Samuel Womack III) had a great initial jam on him. I knew I was going to have space, and made a guy miss, and then I just saw the edge. And as soon as I seen the boys, I knew we were going to score. They did a great job on the kicker too, sealing off the edge.

Your teammates say you should be a Pro Bowler without a doubt. When you hear that, how does that make you feel?

It feels great. Those guys battle for me. They make me go. Without those guys fighting, we watch the all-22 on all those big plays, and I'm making people miss but they're also making huge blocks and springing it. So, I'm super thankful for them and thankful for Coach Bones (John Fassel) and just this whole team.

Coach McCoy was just talking about the boost that gave the team. Did you feel that yourself?

Yeah, I mean I think that we kind of fed off that. That's something that we got to continue to do. When somebody makes a big play, just take the momentum and keep building. That definitely felt good that to kind of help flip it.

Chim, what's the key to being a successful punt returner? What have you been able to find that works so well?

Yeah, I mean I think tracking it first, right? Making sure you have good security. I mean I returned one on the ground today, got to be better in that aspect, right? That's the accountability stuff. But tracking it and then having the vision and the speed obviously. But also, just amazing teammates, like I said. Without those guys, like they say I'm a pro bowl returner, they're a pro bowl return unit.

You feel like the offense is making progress?

Yeah, I mean I think that we show signs but that's just a consistency level that we need to reach, right? Be able to continue throughout. You have times like in the fourth quarter moving the ball, times in the first half where we're having success but kind of shooting ourselves in the foot and just clean up those details and keep getting better.

OUTSIDE LINEBACKER ARDEN KEY

It was a game that early on, it looked like it may get away from you guys. But you fought back into it. Do you take solace from that? You never gave up. You always had a shot.

I mean it's every week. We never give up. We keep fighting to the end. We never was out. I've been in the league for eight years, and being up that much early, the teams tend to come back.

To what do you attribute the continuous fight of this team, despite the struggles?

It's just in us. It's not talked about, keep fighting, keep fighting. No. I think, it's just in us. We all understand where we at, record-wise. I think we all understand, that what you put on film, is you. And every individual has to put on good, good tape.

DEFENSIVE TACKLE JEFFERY SIMMONS

Jeff, you mentioned last week you didn't want to sugarcoat anything. Despite the loss, how would you assess the response of this team? Was it a better response this week?

Like I said earlier this week, it's never an attack, it was a challenge. It's always a challenge for me to go and challenge my teammate. Each and every day I come into work, I push myself to be the best player I can be every day. I hold myself to a high standard, and that's where it starts at. You look in the mirror first and then, that's when you can lead the team. So I think we had a hell of a week of practice. Everybody responded and today, just the fight that we had, the finish that guys were trying to finish with and the way we tried to finish that game, that's what we're talking about as a team.

Do you think you guys are close to breaking through? You said one play away and kind of been that way the past few weeks. Do you think you're close to getting there?

Man, we continue to just look at the games. I mean, a lot of the games that we had is one possession. One possession here, one possession there. Just like I said, I hate to keep saying it, there's no such thing as moral victories. And just like I said, Chim (Dike) gave us a good hell of a play when we needed a play. We talk about somebody making that play and he made the play. Just didn't have no more time and there wasn't no more time on the clock to eventually make another play. So just got to continue to find a way throughout the game, especially early in the game, to make those plays. So we won't have to fight and scratch with two minutes left on the clock to try to make a play.

SAFETY KEVIN WINSTON JR.

On several plays, the way they were able get Jaxon Smith-Njigba isolated. How tough was that today?

One of those was on me. I have to be cleaner and stay more inside on those. And then another one, just in general, we have to be better in the post on those two plays. I put that on me. I'll get that fixed and work on that. But credit to them, they put him in a good position to make a play. I've got to get that fixed, and go back, and look at film, and get that right.

What does it say about you guys, that you kept fighting?

That's who we've tried to become. That's who we are. No matter the circumstance, no matter the situation, we're going to go out there and fight. We have a certain pride for ourselves, a certain way we go about things, no matter what the score is or how we feel. We go out there and compete.

Chimere Dike returned a punt for a touchdown. When he goes out there and you guys are watching, do you expect that can happen every time?

Every time he touches the ball, there's a chance he's going to score. I get ready to put my helmet back on, when I see him get the ball, because I know we're probably going to go back out there on defense. It's great to see Chim (Dike) do his thing. He's been really good for us.

2025 TITANS SCHEDULE NOTES

SEASON NOTES

- PLAYOFF OPPONENTS: The Titans have six total games against five playoff teams from last season. They have home games against Kansas City, Houston, Los Angeles Chargers and Los Angeles Rams and road contests at Houston and Denver. Four of those six games are against 2024 division winners: Houston twice (AFC South), Kansas City (AFC West) and the Los Angeles Rams (NFC West). The six games against reigning playoff clubs matches the total from last year. Prior to the 2024 season, the last time the Titans had six or fewer games against reigning playoff clubs was the 2020 campaign when they had five such games.
- TV BREAKDOWN: Excluding their Week 18 matchup with the Jaguars, which has yet to be assigned a broadcasting network, the Titans are currently scheduled for 10 games on CBS and six games on FOX. Due to the NFL's flex scheduling, some contests could be moved to a different network from the one appearing on the initial schedule.
- TOP DRAFT PICKS: The Titans selected Cameron Ward with this year's first overall pick. The team will face four of the next five selected players from the draft in Travis Hunter (second overall – Jacksonville), Will Campbell (fourth overall - New England Patriots), Mason Graham (fifth overall – Cleveland) and Ashton Jeanty (sixth overall - Las Vegas).
- HEAD COACHING EXPERIENCE: There are seven NFL head coaches who were hired by their teams this offseason, and the Titans will face four of them: New Orleans' Kellen Moore, Jacksonville's Liam Coen, Las Vegas' Pete Carroll and New England's Mike Vrabel. The Titans will also face off against two of the top five longest tenured coaches: Kansas City's Andy Reid (third-longest tenure – 13 years) and the Los Angeles Rams' Sean McVay (fifth-longest tenure – nine years).
- THREE GAMES BASED UPON 2024 FINISH: Every NFL team has two intraconference games and one interconference matchup based on the previous year's standings. As a result of the Titans' fourth-place AFC South finish in 2024, they host the AFC East's fourth-place New England Patriots and the NFC South's fourth-place New Orleans Saints, and they visit the AFC North's fourth-place Cleveland Browns. Overall, the Titans' strength of schedule is .450 (130-159) based upon their opponents' combined 2024 record, the 29th most difficult schedule out of 32 NFL teams.
- TIME (ZONE) TRAVEL: The Titans will play in every continental United States time zone at least twice during the 2025 regular season. They will stay in the Central time zone for 10 matchups, including every home contest as well as at Houston. The Titans have three trips to the Eastern time zone (at Cleveland, at Jacksonville and at Indianapolis). The farthest they will travel is Santa Clara, Calif., to face the 49ers (Pacific time zone). Tennessee will visit Allegiant Stadium in Las Vegas for the first time to face the Raiders on the franchise's first trip to the state of Nevada. Other road trips include Glendale, Ariz., to meet the Cardinals and Denver, Colo., to face the Broncos (both in the Mountain time zone). This is the first time since 2019 in which the team will play in every continental U.S. time zone.

➤ ORIGINAL AFL TEAMS: This season, the Titans will face off against five of the other seven original AFL teams: Kansas City Chiefs (formerly Dallas Texans), New England Patriots (Boston Patriots), Los Angeles Chargers, Las Vegas Raiders (Oakland Raiders) and Denver Broncos.

WEEK-BY-WEEK NOTES

- WEEK 13 (H) & WEEK 18 (A) vs. JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS: The annual Titans-Jaguars series heads into its 31st season since the Jaguars' inaugural 1995 campaign. Chad Brinker and Mike Borgonzi recap the 2025 NFL Draft

Chad Brinker serves as president of football operations for the Titans. He joined the Titans in 2023 as assistant general manager before being promoted to his current position in 2024. In his role, Brinker provides executive leadership and direct oversight for the entire football staff, reporting directly to Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk.

Since his arrival in Tennessee, Brinker's progressive approach has led to several initiatives aimed at moving the organization forward. He spearheaded the club's extensive search for a new general manager in 2025, resulting in the hiring of Mike Borgonzi. Additionally, he reshaped and refined the foundation of the team's analytics department from the ground up, while building and executing the 2024 and 2025 offseason strategies for player acquisitions in both free agency and the draft.

An NFL personnel veteran, Brinker embodies core strengths focused in executive leadership, strategic operations, financial analysis, and talent evaluation. His dual background in football operations merged with a business acumen gained from an MBA at Northwestern University's Kellogg School of Management further developed his skills as a team builder and strategic leader both on and off the field.

Prior to joining the Titans, Brinker spent 13 years with the Green Bay Packers in a variety of roles as a talent evaluator and strategic counselor to Packers leadership. In his initial season with the Packers, he collected his first Super Bowl championship when the team defeated the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XLV.

Throughout his experience with the Packers, he served as a pro and college scout; led strategy for unrestricted free agency and undrafted free agent processes; handled player contracts, salary cap administration, and roster management; and advised the general manager and executive vice president of football operations on team needs in free agency and drafts, always with an eye on long-term vision. The Packers won the NFC North Division eight times and drafted 13 Pro Bowl Players during his tenure.

Brinker also owns corporate business experience with two Fortune 100 companies in the pharmaceutical and medical device industries. He serves as an executive council member on the Freed-Hardeman University President's Council and has shared his expertise as a guest lecturer in the Sports Marketing program at Freed-Hardeman and the Sports Administration program at his alma mater, Ohio University.

A native of Martins Ferry, Ohio, Brinker first entered the NFL in 2003 as an undrafted free agent running back with the New York Jets. He holds two degrees from Ohio University, including a master's degree in sports administration, where he was a two-sport athlete and a two-time All-Mid-American Conference selection at running back. He was also selected as Ohio University's Male Athlete of the Year in 2003.

Brinker and his wife, Rachelle, have three children. In addition to prioritizing time with his family, he enjoys reading, teaching, traveling, and spending time outdoors.

Mike Borgonzi was named the 15th general manager in franchise history on Jan. 17, 2025.

Borgonzi arrived in Tennessee with 16 years of experience with the Kansas City Chiefs. For the last four seasons, he served as Kansas City's assistant general manager.

"Mike's experience speaks for itself: he has been part of the core team that delivered five AFC championships and three Super Bowls over the past six seasons," said Titans Controlling Owner Amy Adams Strunk. "It's the type of standard I want to build here in Tennessee. I know we have a lot of work ahead of us, and I'm excited for Mike to get started."

"During Mike's 16 years in the league, he has been a key part of transforming the Chiefs from a two-win team to a three-time Super Bowl champion," said Titans President of Football Operations Chad Brinker. "During our meetings, he articulated a clear plan to build a championship standard in Nashville through consistency, discipline, and hard work. I've admired him for many years and I'm thrilled to add him to the team as our general manager."

In Borgonzi's first offseason in Tennessee, the Titans acquired several veteran free agents. Among the most notable signings were tackle Dan Moore Jr. (previously with Pittsburgh); guard Kevin Zeitler (Detroit); linebacker Cody Barton (Denver); outside linebacker Dre'Mont Jones (Seattle); wide receiver Van Jefferson (Pittsburgh); safety Xavier Woods (Carolina); punter Johnny Hekker (Carolina); and kicker Joey Slye (New England).

In April, Borgonzi led the process that concluded with the selection of Miami (Fla.) quarterback Cam Ward with the first overall pick in the 2025 NFL Draft. The team's nine total draft choices also included UCLA outside linebacker Oluwafemi Oladejo (second round), Penn State safety Kevin Winston Jr. (third round), Florida wide receiver Chimere Dike (fourth round), Texas tight end Gunnar Helm (fourth round), Stanford wide receiver Elic Ayomanor (fourth round), Sacramento State offensive lineman Jackson Slater (fifth round), California cornerback Marcus Harris (sixth round) and Michigan running back Kalel Mullings (sixth round).

During Borgonzi's time in Kansas City, he contributed to 12 playoff seasons (2010, 2013, 2015-24) and 10 AFC West titles (2010, 2016-24). Borgonzi helped construct a roster that won the AFC five times (2019-20, 2022-24) and captured three Super Bowl championships (2019, 2022-23) over a six-season span.

From 2017 to 2024, Borgonzi worked under Chiefs general manager Brett Veach. As the assistant general manager from 2021 through 2024, he supervised and directed the college and professional scouting operations while closely supporting and advising Veach with the club's roster management and player acquisition via the NFL Draft, free agency, waiver claims and trades. During his four seasons as assistant general manager, the Chiefs built a league-best 52-16 regular-season record (.765). In the same four-year span, 10 different Kansas City players earned a combined 23 Pro Bowl selections: tackle Orlando Brown Jr. (2021-22), wide receiver Tyreek Hill (2021), center Creed Humphrey (2022-24), defensive tackle Chris Jones (2021-24), tight end Travis Kelce (2021-24), quarterback Patrick Mahomes (2021-23), safety Tyrann Mathieu (2021), guard Trey Smith (2024), guard Joe Thuney (2022-24) and punter Tommy Townsend (2022).

The Chiefs entered the 2024 postseason after capturing their ninth consecutive AFC West crown. They tied the Detroit Lions for the NFL's best record at 15-2, setting a franchise record for wins in a regular season and securing the AFC's top seed. Twenty original Chiefs draft picks started at least six games for the team during the 2024 regular season. Kansas City had five players voted to the Pro Bowl, marking the seventh consecutive year in which it had at least five players earn the honor.

Prior to his promotion to assistant general manager, Borgonzi served as director of football operations (2018-20), director of player personnel (2017), co-director of player personnel (2015-16), assistant director of pro scouting (2013-14), pro personnel scout (2011-12) and manager of football operations (2010). He joined the Chiefs in 2009 as the club's college scouting administrator.

Before landing in the NFL with the Chiefs, Borgonzi spent the 2007 and 2008 seasons at Boston College, where he was the assistant recruiting coordinator. He also coached tight ends at Amherst College in 2002 before working in the financial sector in Boston for several years.

A native of Everett, Mass., Borgonzi graduated from Brown University, where he was a four-year starter at fullback and was a three-time All-Ivy League selection.

He and his wife, Jill, have a son, Joseph, and a daughter, Nina. His brother, Dave, has served as the linebackers coach for the Indianapolis Colts and Chicago Bears and currently serves as the linebackers coach for the Dallas Cowboys.

INTERIM HEAD COACH MIKE McCOY

The Titans named Mike McCoy interim head coach on Oct. 13, 2025. He was hired in 2025 as senior offensive assistant.

McCoy, who is in his 23rd season as a coach in the NFL, served as the head coach of the San Diego Chargers from 2013 to 2016 and spent an additional six years as an NFL offensive coordinator.

He arrived in Tennessee after three seasons with the Jacksonville Jaguars as quarterbacks coach. While in Jacksonville, McCoy helped quarterback Trevor Lawrence register consecutive 4,000-yard passing seasons in 2022 (4,113) and 2023 (4,016). During those two seasons, Lawrence's 8,129 passing yards ranked fifth in the NFL, and his 46 touchdown passes ranked 10th. In 2024, injuries limited Lawrence to 10 games, during which time he passed for 2,045 yards and 11 touchdowns.

In 2023, Lawrence surpassed 4,000 passing yards for the second consecutive year and also eclipsed 10,000 career passing yards, becoming the third-youngest player in NFL history to reach 10,000 passing yards. Lawrence had eight consecutive games with at least 20 completions, which set a single-season franchise record.

In 2022, McCoy helped Lawrence improve in every major passing category from his rookie year to his second campaign. Lawrence produced his first 4,000-yard passing season in the NFL and finished the regular season completing 387 passes on 584 attempts for 4,113 yards. He threw 25 touchdowns against just eight interceptions. His four passing touchdowns in the Wild Card round against the Chargers were also a single-game postseason franchise record.

Before going to Jacksonville, McCoy served as the offensive coordinator for the Arizona Cardinals in 2018. He helped Josh Rosen complete 217 passes for 2,278 yards and 11 touchdowns in his rookie season, while wide receiver Larry Fitzgerald recorded a team-high 69 receptions for 734 yards and six scores. In addition, under McCoy's tutelage, the Cardinals rushing attack posted 1,342 yards and nine touchdowns.

In 2017, McCoy joined the Broncos in his second stint as an offensive coordinator in Denver and helped running back CJ Anderson finish ninth in the NFL in rushing yards (1,007).

From 2013 to 2016, McCoy was the head coach of the San Diego Chargers. During that time, San Diego ranked ninth in the league in total offense (365.9 yards per game) and second in offensive third-down percentage (44.6 percent). In addition, McCoy's group had a top-10 passing attack each season. San Diego qualified for the postseason in McCoy's first campaign at the helm (2013) and beat the Bengals in the Wild Card round.

Under McCoy, Chargers quarterback Philip Rivers finished with his three highest single-season completion percentage marks while averaging more than 31 touchdown passes per year. Rivers earned Comeback Player of the Year honors from the Associated Press in 2013 after completing a career-best and NFL-high 69.5 percent of his passes for 4,478 yards with 32 touchdowns and 11 interceptions (105.5 rating).

Prior to his tenure as head coach in San Diego, McCoy served as the Broncos offensive coordinator for four seasons (2009-12). During his final year in Denver in 2012, the Broncos tied Atlanta for the NFL's best record at 13-3 in quarterback Peyton Manning's first season with the team. The Broncos featured the NFL's fourth-ranked offense and fifth-ranked passing attack as Manning earned Comeback Player of the Year honors after passing for a then-franchise-record 4,659 yards with 37 touchdowns.

In 2011, the Broncos led the NFL and established a franchise record with 2,632 rushing yards. They earned a postseason berth and Wild Card victory with Tim Tebow at quarterback, marking the first of back-to-back playoff appearances (2011-12). Tebow finished that season with 660 rushing yards, the most by a quarterback in team history, while running back Willis McGahee tied for the NFL lead with seven 100-yard rushing games and earned his second career Pro Bowl selection after rushing for 1,199 yards.

McCoy oversaw the NFL's seventh-ranked passing attack in 2010 as quarterback Kyle Orton finished fourth in the league averaging 281 passing yards per game. Brandon Lloyd led the NFL with 1,448 receiving yards and earned his first Pro Bowl selection while also becoming just the fourth wide receiver in team history to be named All-Pro.

In 2009, Brandon Marshall tied for third in the NFL with 101 receptions, including an NFL-record 21 catches in one game. Running back Knowshon Moreno earned All-Rookie honors after leading all NFL rookies in rushing yards (947), yards from scrimmage (1,160) and total touchdowns (nine).

McCoy spent his first nine seasons as a coach in Carolina, working his way up from offensive assistant (2000) to wide receivers coach (2001), quarterbacks coach/offensive assistant (2002), quarterbacks coach (2003-06) and passing game coordinator/quarterbacks coach (2007-08). The Panthers totaled three playoff appearances, two division titles, two NFC Championship Game appearances and advanced to Super Bowl XXXVIII during McCoy's tenure.

During McCoy's time with Carolina, he worked closely with Jake Delhomme, helping the quarterback to four 3,000-yard passing seasons and his first Pro Bowl selection in 2005. Delhomme averaged the fifth-most yards per pass attempt (7.8) in the NFL during McCoy's two seasons managing Carolina's passing attack while wide receiver Steve Smith Sr. ranked seventh in the league with 2,423 yards in that span.

A college quarterback, McCoy spent his first two years at Long Beach State (1990-91) before spending his last two years at Utah (1993-94). He signed with the Broncos as an undrafted rookie free agent in 1995 and spent his rookie season on Green Bay's practice squad. He played in NFL Europe with the Amsterdam Admirals (1997) and spent one game on San Francisco's roster as its third quarterback in 1997. McCoy spent training camp with the Philadelphia Eagles (1998) before finishing his playing career with the Calgary Stampeders in the CFL in 1999.

McCoy and his wife, Kellie, have a daughter, Liv, and a son, Luke.

NISSAN STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of an exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

Eight years later, on Nov. 17, 2023, the Titans and Nissan North America announced a new agreement: a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that brands the new Titans home venue as 'Nissan Stadium.'

Slated for completion in 2027, the new Nissan Stadium will host Titans home games, Tennessee State University football games, concerts, large-scale events and other community events.

"This partnership is a natural extension of our already longstanding friendship with Nissan," said Burke Nihill, Titans President and CEO. "Our mission at the Titans is to Win, Serve, and Entertain. We pride ourselves on collaborating with organizations who love this city and state as much as we do, and for the past 40 years, Nissan has invested more than $10.5 billion statewide, serving as a great example of an outstanding corporate steward and community advocate. We look forward to the continued positive impact of this relationship for the Titans organization and the City of Nashville."

"Since 2015 our fans and organization have called our home 'Nissan Stadium,' and we are proud to continue that tradition in the new stadium as we deepen and expand our relationship with them," said Titans Chief Revenue Officer Adam Nuse. "The new stadium will host the world's largest events, as well as serve as a community hub for our local neighbors. We're excited to have a partner like Nissan embark on this journey with us as we look towards the future."

The partnership will feature dedicated areas in the new stadium for brand experiences and displays, innovative technology integration, and involvement in Titans broadcast platforms. Nissan also will support a to-be-determined program in the Titans' ONE Community philanthropic platform, which reaches Nashville's most underrepresented and marginalized communities with a focus on three areas – Opportunity, Neighborhoods and Education.

"Nissan Stadium is a centerpiece of the Nashville skyline and has become a household name in Middle Tennessee. It is important for Nissan to keep our name on the new stadium," said Jérémie Papin, chairperson, Nissan Americas. "As more people come to Nashville both to visit and to live in this wonderful city, Nissan Stadium is true showcase for our brand and for the career opportunities we've offered here for more than four decades. This partnership sends a strong message about the bright future for Nissan, the Titans, Nashville and the State of Tennessee."

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin. Nissan is home to more than 11,000 employees across all three locations.

"Nissan has been a strong partner to middle Tennessee for four decades, and I'm thrilled that the Titans have united with a partner that invests in our community and its people," said Nashville Mayor Freddie O'Connell. "The familiarity and trust they've established with the Titans in the last eight years will undoubtedly be a great asset as we plan for the stadium's opening in 2027."

The new Nissan stadium will be built on the east side of the current stadium campus, along Nashville's East Bank. Features of the building include: a circular translucent roof; exterior porches with panoramic views of Nashville; improved sightlines for all spectators through a range of diverse seating experiences; and a 12,000 square foot community space available for use year-round. A waitlist for those interested in purchasing PSLs or suites is now open at NewNissanStadium.com.

for 32 yards on six attempts. On a 16-play, 77-yard touchdown drive, he threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to Elic Ayomanor on fourth-and-goal in the fourth quarter. On the drive, Ward completed eight-of-11 passes for 80 yards.

➤ At Houston (9/28), while joining Marcus Mariota (2015) as the only rookie quarterbacks in franchise history to start the first four games of a season, completed 10-of-26 passes for 108 yards with one interception. He added 22 yards and a first down on two rushing attempts. In the first quarter, he found Elic Ayomanor for a 33-yard completion, his longest career completion to date. In the second quarter, he converted a third-and-six with a 22-yard pass to Calvin Ridley.

➤ At Arizona (10/5), earned his first career win as a starting quarterback, completing 21 of 39 passes for 265 yards. He engineered a 15-point fourth-quarter comeback in the win, and in the fourth quarter, he was 13-of-18 passing for 193 yards in the fourth quarter. He was credited with his first career game-winning drive, which ended with Joey Slye's game-winning field goal as time expired. Ward completed five of his six passes on the drive for 67 yards, including a 38-yard pass to Calvin Ridley to help set up the field goal. The Titans trailed by 18 points in the second quarter, which tied for the second-largest deficit by any quarterback in their first career win as a starter in the Super Bowl era (21 by Atlanta's Mike Moroski in Week 13, 1983; 18 by New York Giants' Daniel Jones in Week 3, 2019; 18 by Seattle's Jon Kitna in Week 16, 1997). Since 2000, Ward joined Vince Young (Nov. 26, 2006 against the New York Giants) as the only NFL rookie quarterbacks to win a game in which they trailed by 15 or more points in the fourth quarter. Ward's 193 fourth-quarter passing yards were the fourth-most by an NFL rookie in a game since the beginning of the 1978 season. In that span, Ward ranked behind only Tampa Bay's Jameis Winston (238 at St. Louis on Dec. 17, 2015), Houston's Davis Mills (220 vs. L.A. Rams on Oct. 31, 2021) and Washington's Jayden Daniels (194 vs. Dallas on Nov. 24, 2024). From that group, Ward's total was the second-most in a road game and the most in a victory. He found Ridley in the fourth quarter for a 47-yard pass, which was the longest of Ward's career to date, to help set up a touchdown.

➤ At Las Vegas (10/12), completed 26 of 38 passes for 222 yards with one touchdown and one interception. He completed his first six passes of the game, and in the first quarter, he converted a third-and-10 with an 18-yard pass to Calvin Ridley. Ward connected three times with Van Jefferson on passes of at least 20 yards: a 20-yard in the second quarter, a 23-yard in the third quarter and another 23-yard in the fourth quarter. In the fourth quarter, he converted a fourth-and-15 with a 20-yard completion to Chig Okonkwo and registered his third career touchdown pass on a one-yard toss to David Martin-Robinson.

➤ Against New England (10/19), completed 25 of 34 passes for 255 yards with one touchdown and one interception. His 73.5 completion percentage, 7.50 yards per attempt, 14 passing first downs, and 92.2 passer rating were his best marks through seven NFL games. His 73.5 completion percentage was the best in franchise history by a rookie quarterback with at least 30 attempts in a game, eclipsing Marcus Mariota's previous mark of 71.8 (28-of-39) as a rookie at New Orleans on Nov. 8, 2015. Ward became the team's first rookie quarterback in its "Titans era" (1999 to present) with 25 or more completions in back-to-back games. The last quarterback to accomplish the feat for the Titans was Mariota, who accomplished the feat in two consecutive games from Sept. 11-18, 2016. Ward completed 10 of his first 11 passes for 144 yards and one touchdown (149.1 passer rating), including a 38-yard touchdown pass to Chimere Dike in the first quarter.

➤ At Indianapolis (10/26), completed 22-of-38 passes for 259 yards and a touchdown, eclipsing the 250-yard passing mark for the third time in four games. He became the first Titans quarterback since Marcus Mariota in 2015 to have 20 or more completions in four consecutive team games. Ward threw a 21-yard pass to Chimere Dike to convert a third-and-10 in the first quarter and added a 26-yard pass to Elic Ayomanor in the second quarter. He also completed a 23-yard pass to Chig Okonkwo in the third quarter and a 22-yard strike to Gunnar Helm in the fourth quarter.

➤ Against the L.A. Chargers (11/2), completed 12 of 21 passes for 145 yards. He completed a 21-yard pass to Van Jefferson in the first quarter and connected with Tyjae Spears for a 26-yard completion in the second quarter. In the third quarter, he helped convert a third-and-seven with a 29-yard pass to Elic Ayomanor.

➤ Against Houston (11/16), completed 24 of 37 passes for 194 yards and one touchdown (87.0 passer rating). He also rushed for 33 yards on three attempts. During a 95-yard, game-tying drive in the fourth quarter, he completed a 39-yard pass to Chig Okonkwo and a four-yard touchdown pass to Van Jefferson. During the drive, he completed six of eight passes for 63 yards and also scrambled for a 20-yard gain. In the first quarter, he completed six of eight passes for 57 yards (94.3 passer rating). He rushed for a 10-yard gain to convert a third-and-four in the fourth quarter. He became the first rookie quarterback in franchise history to start the first 10 games of a season. Previously, Marcus Mariota held the franchise's longest rookie streak to begin a season with starts in the first five games as a rookie in 2015.

➤ Against Seattle (11/23), completed 28-of-42 passes for 256 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions, amounting to a 91.0 passer rating. He added six rushing attempts for 37 yards and one touchdown, and four of his rushing attempts resulted in first downs. He tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to Chimere Dike in the fourth quarter. He also had completions of 25 yards to Dike and 26 yards to Chig Okonkwo. He scored his first career touchdown on a six-yard rushing attempt in the third quarter—the first rushing touchdown by a Titans quarterback since Mason Rudolph's 11-yard run at Detroit on Oct. 27, 2024. Ward became the third rookie quarterback in franchise history to start at least 11 games in a season, along with Vince Young (13 starts in 2006) and Marcus Mariota (12 in 2015). Ward previously became the first quarterback in franchise history to start at least the first six games of his rookie campaign. By increasing his total to 2,210 passing yards in 2025, he surpassed Vince Young (2,199 in 2006) for the second-highest total by a rookie in franchise history behind Marcus Mariota (2,818 in 2015).

It was the Titans' longest kickoff return since Darius Jennings returned a kickoff 94 yards for a touchdown on Sept. 9, 2018 at Miami. His 71-yard kickoff return was the longest by a Titans rookie since Marc Mariani's 73-yarder at Dallas on Oct. 10, 2010. His 144 kickoff return yards made up the highest single-game total for a Titans player since Darrynton Evans (145) on Dec. 27, 2020 at Green Bay.

➤ Against the L.A. Rams (9/14), totaled 37 yards on two punt returns, including a 21-yard long. He also returned five kickoffs for 83 yards (16.6 avg.), caught two passes resulting in a net loss of one yard, and added nine rushing yards on two attempts.

➤ Against Indianapolis (9/21), registered his first NFL start at wide receiver. He totaled 162 kickoff return yards on six attempts (27.0 average), accumulating the most kickoff return yards in a game by a Titans player since Leon Washington's 209 kickoff return yards at Denver on Dec. 8, 2013. His 35-yard kickoff return in the first quarter helped set up a field goal. Also totaled three yards on two rushing attempts and two yards on three receptions.

➤ At Houston (9/28), returned six kickoffs for a 23.5-yard average (long of 29). He became the NFL's first rookie since Chad Morton of the New Orleans Saints in 2000 with at least four kickoff returns in each of the first four games of his rookie season.

➤ At Arizona (10/5), contributed two receptions for 17 yards, three punt returns for 33 yards, and four kickoff returns for 136 yards. He provided a spark with a 65-yard kickoff return in the second quarter—the second-longest kickoff return of his rookie season (71 at Denver on Sept. 7). It gave him two of the NFL's top five longest kickoff returns to date in 2025. His 71-yarder against Denver was the second longest of the season and his 65-yard return ranked fourth.

➤ At Las Vegas (10/12), totaled 66 yards on three kickoff returns and eight yards on a pair of receptions.

➤ Against New England (10/19), totaled four receptions for 70 yards and a touchdown. He added a 15-yard punt return and 84 yards on three kickoff returns (28.0 avg.). In the first quarter, he posted four receptions for 70 yards in the first quarter. His 70 receiving yards in the first quarter were the most by a Titans rookie in the first quarter of a game since Justin McCareins had 70 in the first quarter against Tampa Bay on Oct. 14, 2001. His first career touchdown came on a 38-yard pass from Cam Ward after he set up the scoring drive with a 29-yard kickoff return to the New England 41-yard line. In the first seven games of 2025, he totaled 1,025 combined total yards (scrimmage yards + return yards) to join two previous players in the team's "Titans era" (1999 to present) to reach 1,000 combined yards in the team's first seven games of a season: Derrick Mason in 2000 (1,221 yards in the first seven games) and Derrick Henry in 2021 (1,023). In the same span, only three previous NFL rookies reached 1,000 combined yards in the first seven games of a season: Adrian Peterson (1,251 in 2007), Percy Harvin (1,007 in 2009) and Kareem Hunt (1,002 in 2017). His 1,025 combined yards were the most in the NFL in a team's first seven games since Alvin Kamara had 1,031 in the first seven games of the New Orleans Saints' 2020 campaign.

➤ At Indianapolis (10/26), led the team with seven receptions and 93 receiving yards and added 175 yards on seven kickoff returns (25.0 avg.). His 93 receiving yards were the most by a Titans rookie since Treylon Burks' 111 at Green Bay on Nov. 17, 2022. Dike became the first rookie for the Titans to register back-to-back games with at least 70 yards receiving since Burks in Week 11-12 of the 2022 season. His 269 all-purpose yards at Indianapolis were the most in any NFL game in 2025 through Sunday, Oct. 26, and the total ranked third for the Titans since the beginning of the 1999 season behind only Derrick Mason's 302 all-purpose yards against Buffalo on Dec. 14, 2003 and Chris Johnson's 284 against Houston on Sept. 20, 2009. His 175 kickoff return yards were the most in a game by a Titans player since Leon Washington had 209 against Denver on Dec. 8, 2013. At the conclusion of the game, his 1,294 all-purpose yards in 2025 were the most for the Titans through eight games since Derrick Mason's 1,382 in 2000, and Dike had the most by any NFL player through eight games since New Orleans Saints running back Darren Sproles had 1,331 in 2011.

➤ Against the L.A. Chargers (11/2), totaled 220 all-purpose yards, including three punt returns for 98 yards, four kickoff returns for 117 yards and one reception for five yards. In the first quarter, he returned a punt 67 yards for a touchdown—the team's first punt return touchdown since Darius Reynaud had two against Jacksonville on Dec. 30, 2012 and the team's first special teams return score (punt or kickoff) since A.J. Brown's kickoff return touchdown at Indianapolis on Nov. 29, 2020. His 98 yards on three punt returns made up the highest punt return yardage total in a game by a Titans player since Reynaud's franchise-record 160 vs. Jacksonville on Dec. 30, 2012. He was the first Titans rookie in the team's "Titans era" (1999 to present) to log multiple games with at least 200 all-purpose yards, while becoming the NFL's first rookie to do so since Cincinnati's Ja'Marr Chase in 2021. Dike joined Pacman Jones (1,127 in 2005) and Marc Mariani (1,530 in 2010) as the only rookies in franchise history to reach 1,000 kickoff return yards in a season (1,108), and he also secured the ninth overall individual season in franchise history with 1,000 kickoff return yards.

➤ Against Houston (11/16), caught two passes for 14 yards before exiting the contest in the second quarter with an injury.

➤ Against Seattle (11/23), caught five passes for 44 yards and a touchdown to go along with a 90-yard punt return for a touchdown, and he added 98 yards on five kickoff returns to give him 232 all-purpose yards—his second-highest total through 11 career games. It was his third time in a four-game span exceeding 200 all-purpose yards. In the third quarter, he returned a Michael Dickson punt 90 yards for a touchdown, and in doing so, he tied Pacman Jones' record (90-yard touchdown at Philadelphia on Nov. 19, 2006) for the longest punt return in franchise history. In the fourth quarter, he scored on a one-yard touchdown pass from Cam Ward. In doing so, he joined Billy "White Shoes" Johnson (Oct. 26, 1975 vs. Detroit) and Justin McCareins (Nov. 23, 2003 at Atlanta) as the only players in franchise history to record a punt return for a touchdown and a receiving touchdown in the same game. Dike became the first Titans player to return two punts for touchdowns in a season since Darius Reynaud did so in 2012, and Dike became the second NFL player in 2025, along with Jacksonville's Parker Washington, to return two punts for touchdowns. Only six previous rookies since 2000 recorded at least two punt return touchdowns: Patrick Peterson (four), Devin Hester (three), Jamal Agnew (two), Tyreek Hill (two), Dez Bryant (two) and B.J. Sams (two). Dike's highlights also included a 25-yard reception to convert a third-and-three in the first quarter. He finished the contest with 1,760 all-purpose yards in 2025 to join Derrick Mason (1,963 yards in the first 11 games of 2000) as the franchise's only players since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger with 1,700 all-purpose yards in the team's first 11 games of a season.

Defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons completed his seventh NFL season in 2025. He was selected by the Titans in the first round (19th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft.

During his first six seasons, Simmons earned three Pro Bowl berths (2021-22, 2024), was a four-time team captain (2021-24), and was nominated two times for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award (2023-24). During that span, he appeared in 84 games with 82 starts, accumulating 316 tackles, 31.5 sacks, 24 passes defensed, five forced fumbles and six fumble recoveries. He was second on the defense in sacks during that span behind only Harold Landry III (46).

Simmons missed only one game in 2024. His 16 starts made up the second-highest total of his career through six seasons behind his 17 starts in 2021. Among his season totals, he set career highs with 76 tackles and two forced fumbles, and he added five sacks and a team-high 42 quarterback pressures. He was rewarded with his third Pro Bowl invitation.

Simmons' 76 tackles ranked second on the Titans in 2024. It was the best number for any defensive lineman for the organization in its "Titans era" (1999 to present), topping defensive end Kyle Vanden Bosch's previous mark of 75 tackles in 2006 (press box statistics). Among NFL defensive linemen in 2024, Simmons finished second in tackles behind Carolina's A'Shawn Robinson (80).

The 2024 campaign marked Simmons' fourth consecutive season with at least five sacks. His 31.5 career sacks through 2024 ranked 13th in franchise history and sixth for the organization during its "Titans era" (1999 to present).

In 2023, although he was limited to 12 games and finished the season on injured reserve, he managed to register 5.5 sacks, marking his third consecutive season to reach that number or higher. He added 44 tackles, 38 quarterback pressures, 11 tackles for loss, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and one pass defensed. For the first time in his career, he received the honor of the team's nomination for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year award.

In 2022, Simmons appeared in 15 games and anchored a unit that ranked first in the NFL in rushing defense (76.9 opponent rushing yards per game). En route to his second consecutive Pro Bowl appearance, he totaled 53 tackles, 7.5 sacks, 43 quarterback pressures, nine tackles for loss, one forced fumble and a career-high seven passes defensed, which tied for the fourth-best mark among all NFL defensive linemen. Simmons and Arizona's J.J. Watt were the NFL's only players in 2022 with at least seven sacks and seven passes defensed.

Before the start of the 2021 season, Simmons was named a team captain for the first time in his career, and he went on to become one of six players on the roster to start all 17 games. He was named to his first career Pro Bowl and added Associated Press second-team All-Pro honors after setting career highs in several categories, including sacks (8.5), tackles (54), quarterback pressures (58), tackles for loss (12) and passes defensed (six). He led the squad in pressures and placed third in sacks. Among all defensive tackles in the NFL, his 8.5 sacks ranked sixth. In the divisional playoffs, he set a franchise postseason record with three sacks.

In 2020, Simmons appeared and started in 15 games. With three defensive fumble recoveries, he tied Chase Young for the most in the NFL in 2020 and was the first Titans defender with three fumble recoveries in a season since 2005, when linebacker Brad Kassell accomplished the feat. Simmons ranked second on the team with 19 quarterback pressures and added 49 tackles, three sacks, three tackles for loss, five passes defensed and one forced fumble. In the franchise's "Titans era" (since 1999), he became the first player to post at least three fumble recoveries, three sacks and five passes defensed in the same season. He also had three tackles and a tackle for loss in one playoff contest.

Simmons began his rookie season on the non-football injury list due to a knee injury he suffered during training in February 2019. He missed the first six games of the season before joining the 53-man roster in Week 7.

His rookie totals included 40 tackles, two sacks, two tackles for loss, 14 quarterback pressures and one pass defensed in nine games (seven starts). He added four tackles, three quarterback pressures and a fumble recovery in three playoff contests.

During a three-year career as a defensive tackle at Mississippi State, Simmons appeared in 38 contests with 28 starts. He finished his career ranked sixth in school history with 32.5 tackles for loss. He also tied for sixth in MSU annals with five forced fumbles and tied for fourth with three blocked kicks. His totals also included 163 tackles, seven sacks, seven passes defensed and two defensive touchdowns.

He was a first-team All-SEC selection as a sophomore and junior and was one of two players in the nation to be named a Bednarik Award Semifinalist in both 2017 and 2018.

As a junior in 2018, Simmons was named second-team All-American after totaling 63 tackles, 17 tackles for loss and two sacks. His 17 tackles for loss led the team, ranked fourth in the SEC and were the third-most in single-season school history.

During his sophomore season (2017), he set a career high with five sacks and added 12 tackles for loss. With three total blocked kicks and punts, he became the first SEC player since 2004 to lead the nation in the category.

Simmons is a native of Macon, Miss.

His eight special teams tackles tied for the seventh-best total among rookies in 2024, and over the final seven weeks of the season, he led the rookie class and tied for second overall in the NFL (Oren Burks, Jeremy Reaves) behind only Pittsburgh's Miles Killebrew (nine).

His 17 tackles tied for the highest figure by a Titans player since 2020 (Worley). It was the 11th time since 2000 (press box statistics) in which a Titans defender registered 15 or more tackles in a game. Through Sept. 28, Gray's 17 stops at Houston were the most of any defender in the NFL during a single game in the 2025 season. The last NFL player to register 17 tackles in a game was Philadelphia's Oren Burks on Jan. 5, 2025. He added a tackle for loss and a quarterback pressure.
- At Arizona (10/5), led the team in tackles for the second consecutive game, collecting 12 tackles, including a stop for loss. His 29 total tackles in Weeks 4-5 ranked second in the NFL behind Miami's Jordyn Brooks (31).
- At Las Vegas (10/12), collected 11 tackles to lead the team for the third consecutive week, and he added a tackle on special teams. He also tallied a career-best two passes defensed, becoming the first Titans defender to record at least 11 tackles and two passes defensed in a game since Kevin Byard III on Oct. 10, 2021 at Jacksonville. He also became the first Titans defender with 11 or more tackles in three consecutive games since Azeez Al-Shaair from Oct. 8-29, 2023.

➤ Against New England (10/19), collected 10 tackles to lead the team for the third consecutive week and added three quarterback pressures. Over a four-game span, he accumulated 50 total tackles, and since the beginning of the 2000 season, only two previous Titans players had produced 50 tackles (GSIS tackle statistics) in a four-game stretch during a single season: Brad Kassell (50 from Dec. 13, 2004 to Jan. 2, 2005) and Azeez Al-Shaair (50 from Oct. 1, 2023 to Oct. 29, 2023; 51 from Oct. 8, 2023 to Nov. 2, 2023). Gray joined Al-Shaair (2023) as the team's only defenders since the beginning of the 2011 season with 10 or more tackles in four consecutive games.

➤ At Indianapolis (10/26), tied for the team lead with five tackles, including a stop for loss. He added a quarterback pressure.

➤ Against the L.A. Chargers (11/2), led the team with 16 tackles, including a sack. He notched his first career sack by bringing down Justin Herbert for a seven-yard loss in the fourth quarter. By increasing his total to a team-leading 87 tackles through nine games in 2025, he became the team's fourth player since 2000 to reach the mark in the first nine games of a season (GSIS tackle statistics), joining Keith Bulluck (81 in 2006), Stephen Tulloch (87 in 2010) and Azeez Al-Shaair (89 in 2023). Gray registered his second game of 2025 with at least 16 tackles, after tallying 17 at Houston on Sept. 28. Since 2000, Gray was the first Titans player to have multiple games in a season with at least 16 tackles (GSIS tackle statistics). Only five Titans defenders in that span had previously notched one game with 16-plus tackles. Gray also became the NFL's first player in 2025 to register multiple games with 16 or more tackles.

➤ Against Houston (11/16), tied for the team lead with 11 tackles and tied a career best with two passes defensed. He also recovered a Titans fumble on a kickoff return to prevent a turnover. In the second quarter, he brought down Woody Marks for a loss of three yards for his sixth tackle for loss of the season. Since the beginning of the 2000 campaign, Gray's 98 total tackles on the season were the most by a Titans player through the team's first 10 games of a season (GSIS tackle statistics). Previously in that span, Stephen Tulloch (96 in 2010) and Azeez Al-Shaair (94 in 2023) had the most tackles for the Titans in the first 10 games of a season.

#46 • LS MORGAN COX

6-4, 233, 16th Year/5th with Titans, Tennessee

Long snapper Morgan Cox is in his 16th NFL season and his fifth campaign with the Titans in 2025. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 19, 2021.

In 2024, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties for the fourth consecutive season. With 68 consecutive games played in his first four seasons with the Titans, he finished the 2024 campaign with the longest active streak of games played for the team. It was the 12th time in his career he appeared in every game for his team.

With Cox serving as the team's long snapper, kicker Nick Folk led the NFL in field goal percentage for the second consecutive season in 2024. Folk connected on 21 of 22 field goals for an NFL-best rate of 95.5 percent. Meanwhile, punter Ryan Stonehouse ranked third in the NFL with an average of 50.6 yards per punt attempt. Also in 2024, Cox was a finalist for the NFL's Bart Starr Award for the second consecutive year.

Cox finished the 2024 season with a career total of 233 games played. He ranked 10th among all active NFL players, and his total also moved him past Reggie White (232 games) for the fourth-most NFL games played by a former University of Tennessee Volunteer behind tight end Jason Witten (271 NFL games), quarterback Peyton Manning (266) and punter Dustin Colquitt (255).

In 2023, Cox's efforts helped Folk lead the NFL in field goal accuracy (96.7 percent) and helped Stonehouse lead the NFL for a second consecutive season in gross punting average (53.1).

In 2022, Cox was named to his fifth career Pro Bowl. He has more Pro Bowl appearances than any other player at his position since the league began naming long snappers to the Pro Bowl in 2004.

His steady play in 2022 helped Stonehouse, a rookie, lead the league and set a new NFL record with a 53.1-yard gross punting average. Stonehouse also finished fourth in the NFL and set a rookie record with a 44.0-yard net average. Meanwhile, kicker Randy Bullock made 17 of 20 field goals (85.0 percent) and made all 28 extra point attempts.

In 2021, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties in 17 regular season games and one postseason game. He helped Bullock finish ninth in franchise history with 120 points in a single season, including three game-winning field goals (Sept. 19 at Seattle, Oct. 31 at Indianapolis and Dec. 23 against San Francisco). He also snapped for punter Brett Kern, who had the league's third-best ratio of punts inside the 20 to touchbacks (18:1).

In his first 11 seasons, Cox appeared in 165 regular season games for the Baltimore Ravens, serving as the team's primary long snapper after entering the NFL as an undrafted free agent in 2010. He was selected to four Pro Bowls and was a part of five playoff teams in Baltimore, totaling 10 postseason games played.

In 2020, he earned his fourth career Pro Bowl selection. He helped kicker Justin Tucker record his fifth consecutive season with at least 130 points, tying the NFL record of consecutive seasons with 130-plus points. Tucker connected on 26 of 29 field goals (89.7 percent) and was 52 of 53 on extra points (98.1 percent). Cox also snapped on all 51 of Sam Koch's 51 punts, as Koch was the NFL's only punter to place at least 20 punts (22) inside in the 20-yard line and have no more than one touchback.

A native of Collierville, Tenn., Cox played 38 games in three seasons (2007-09) as the primary long snapper at the University of Tennessee.
