TITANS TRAVEL TO PLAY VIKINGS, VISIT U.S. BANK STADIUM FOR FIRST TIME

Tennessee Titans (2-0) at Minnesota Vikings (0-2)
Sunday, Sept. 27, 2020 • Noon CDT • U.S. Bank Stadium • Minneapolis, Minn. • TV: CBS

NASHVILLE — The Tennessee Titans, owners of a 2-0 record for the first time since 2008, travel this week to Minnesota to make their first appearance at U.S. Bank Stadium. Kickoff against the Vikings (0-2) is scheduled for noon CDT on Sunday, Sept. 27.

This week marks the Titans' third consecutive game to start the season without fans in the stands. The Vikings announced in August that they would host at least their first two home games of 2020 without fans due to COVID-19 restrictions.

The Titans are scheduled to play in front of fans for all three of their October games—all home games—after announcing last week that Nissan Stadium will open at limited capacity beginning Oct. 4 against the Pittsburgh Steelers. They plan to gradually increase attendance for games against the Buffalo Bills (Oct. 11) and Houston Texans (Oct. 18) with the goal of reaching a fixed capacity for the remaining games in November and December.

Due to the three-game October homestand and a Week 7 bye, this week is the last road trip for the Titans until a Nov. 1 clash with the Cincinnati Bengals.

THE BROADCAST
This week's game will be regionally televised on CBS, including Nashville affiliate WTVF NewsChannel 5. The broadcast team includes play-by-play announcer Andrew Catalon, analyst James Lofton and reporter AJ Ross.

Fans can livestream the game on their mobile devices from the Titans Mobile App (iOS and Android) and on TennesseeTitans.com mobile web. Restrictions apply. For more information visit TennesseeTitans.com or NFL.com/ways-to-watch.

The Titans Radio Network, including Nashville flagship 104.5 The Zone, will carry the game across the Mid-South with the "Voice of the Titans" Mike Keith, analyst Dave McGinnis, sideline reporter Amie Wells, and gameday hosts Rhett Bryan and Jonathan Hutton.

TITANS WIN ANOTHER CLOSE CONTEST
The Titans won their first two games of 2020 by five total points. In their home opener last week, they topped the Jacksonville Jaguars by a final score of 33-30.

A week after Stephen Gostkowski's 25-yard field goal helped beat the Broncos 16-14, he was called upon to hit another game-winner, this time from 49 yards in the waning moments of the fourth quarter against the Jaguars. He sent it through the uprights with 1 minute and 36 seconds on the clock, and on the subsequent possession for the Jaguars offense, quarterback Gardner Minshew II was intercepted by outside linebacker Harold Landry III to seal the win.

Titans quarterback Ryan Tannehill enjoyed one of the most efficient games of his nine-year career, completing 18 of 24 passes for 239 yards, four touchdowns and a 145.7 passer rating. It was his second-highest single-game passer rating (min. 20 attempts) and the seventh-best passer rating in Titans/Oilers history.

Two of Tannehill's touchdown passes went to tight end Jonnu Smith, who also established a career high with 84 receiving yards. With three touchdown catches through two weeks, Smith is tied with the L.A. Rams' Tyler Higbee for the most in the NFL among tight ends.

THE VIKINGS
The Vikings are looking for their first win of 2020 after dropping their season opener to the Green Bay Packers 43-34 and falling to the Colts in Week 2 by a final score of 28-11.

Mike Zimmer is in his seventh season as Vikings head coach and his 27th season in the NFL. He led Minnesota to a wild card playoff berth in 2019, defeating the New Orleans Saints in the first round before losing to the eventual NFC champion San Francisco 49ers in the divisional round.

Vikings quarterback Kirk Cousins is in his ninth NFL campaign and his third year with the Vikings. In 2019, he earned his second career Pro Bowl berth after finishing the season with 3,603 passing yards, 26 touchdowns, six interceptions and a career-high 107.4 passer rating, which ranked fourth in the NFL.

SERIES HISTORY

The Titans and Vikings have met only 13 times in the regular season. The Vikings lead the series 9-4, including wins by the Vikings in the most recent matchup at Nissan Stadium and in the last four matchups between the clubs at Mall of America Field (Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome).

This week marks the first all-time meeting between the clubs at U.S. Bank Stadium, which opened in 2016.

The Vikings traveled to Nissan Stadium to open the 2016 campaign (Sept. 11, 2016) and escaped with a 25-16 win. The Titans built a 10-0 halftime lead, but ultimately they were undone by three second-half turnovers. The Vikings took the lead in the third quarter on a 77-yard interception return for a touchdown by linebacker Eric Kendricks, and they added a fumble return for a touchdown in the fourth quarter by defensive end Danielle Hunter.

The last time the Titans appeared during the regular season in Minneapolis was Week 5 of the 2012 campaign. The Vikings scored the game's first 23 points and ultimately won by a final score of 30-7. Quarterback Christian Ponder (258 passing yards), receiver Percy Harvin (108 receiving yards) and running back Adrian Peterson (88 rushing yards) led the way for the Vikings.

The Vikings began their expansion season in the NFL in 1961, one season after the Oilers helped launch the American Football League. It was not until five seasons into the 1970 NFL-AFL merger that the two teams played their first regular season game against each other.

The first Oilers-Vikings game in 1974 finished with a lopsided score of 51-10 in favor of the Vikings. It is still tied for the ninth biggest defeat in Titans/Oilers history. The Vikings finished that season with a trip to Super Bowl IX.

The 1974 meeting also was the first and only game played by the Oilers at Metropolitan Stadium, which the Vikings would leave in 1982 when the Metrodome opened. At the Metrodome, the Titans managed one win in seven outings. They were victorious there in 1992.

The first time the Vikings played in Tennessee during the regular season was Dec. 26, 1998. On that day, the then-Oilers hosted the Vikings in the regular season finale, a game the Vikings won by a final score of 26-16. In their final time playing at Vanderbilt Stadium, the occasion also marked the final game the team would be called the Oilers. In 1999, Nissan Stadium opened and the team took the name Titans.

GAME RECAP

In what became a tale of two halves, the Tennessee Titans dropped a 25-16 decision to the Minnesota Vikings in the season opener at Nissan Stadium. Despite holding a 10-0 halftime lead, three second-half turnovers by the Titans, two of which were returned for scores, allowed the Vikings to take control late in the game.

Tennessee took an early lead in the first quarter on a 28-yard field goal by K Ryan Succop, and then constructed a 13-play, 73-yard drive late in the second quarter, capped by a six-yard touchdown pass from QB Marcus Mariota to RB DeMarco Murray. The Titans took a 10-0 lead into halftime.

However, Minnesota began to shift momentum in the second half, opening with a 61-yard kickoff return which led to a 50-yard field goal by Vikings K Blair Walsh. Walsh added two more field goals in the second half, but it was Tennessee's miscues—an interception by Mariota, returned 77 yards by Vikings MLB Eric Kendricks, a 24-yard scoop-and-score by Vikings DE Danielle Hunter on a fumbled handoff between Mariota and Murray, and another fumble by Murray—which ultimately sealed the Titans' fate.

Mariota led a touchdown drive in the final three minutes of the game, finding Murray again in the end zone, but a failed two-point conversion attempt ended Tennessee's comeback.

The Titans defense remained stout throughout the game, never allowing an offensive touchdown and holding Vikings All-Pro RB Adrian Peterson to just 31 yards and an average of 1.6 yards per carry. The Titans offense also showed promise as rookie WR Tajaé Sharpe paced the team with seven catches for 76 yards and became the first rookie in the Titans era to start a season opener at his position.

Mike Zimmer enters his seventh season as the Vikings head coach in 2020. He was hired as the ninth head coach in Vikings history on Jan. 15, 2014 after serving as a defensive coordinator for two decades, making 2020 his 27th season on an NFL sideline.

Zimmer has been a part of 13 playoff teams and teams that have won nine division titles. He coached the Cowboys defensive backs when Dallas won Super Bowl XXX over Pittsburgh after the 1995 season.

In 2019, the Vikings finished at the 10-6 mark and advanced to the playoffs for the third time in the past five seasons under Zimmer, making it to the Divisional Round after a road win in overtime at New Orleans.

In 2018, the Vikings finished 8-7-1, one game out of the playoffs. Defensive end Danielle Hunter, wide receiver Adam Thielen, safety Harrison Smith and linebacker Anthony Barr were all named to the Pro Bowl.

The 2017, Vikings were highlighted by a No. 1 ranking in total defense. It was the first time the Vikings achieved the feat since the 1993 season. With a 13-3 record, the team placed second in franchise history for wins in a regular season, trailing only the 15-1 club in 1998.

The 2016, the Vikings battled injuries and adversity throughout the season to finish 8-8. The defense forced 27 takeaways, and the special teams group posted three touchdowns (two touchdowns on punt returns, one touchdown on kickoff returns).

In his second season leading the Vikings in 2015, Zimmer piloted the club to an NFC North title. The Vikings' 11-5 mark tied for their second-best record since 2000 and gave the Vikings their first division title since 2009.

In 2014, Zimmer started quarterback Teddy Bridgewater for 12 games and Bridgewater responded by breaking nearly every franchise record for a rookie quarterback. Defensively, the Vikings No. 7 ranked passing defense was the highest finish since the 1993 season when the club was No. 6. In Zimmer's inaugural season, the Vikings finished 7-9.

From 2008-13, Zimmer led the Bengals defense, which ranked in the NFL's top-10 in total defense four times, climbing to third in 2013. From 2011-13, the Bengals ranked second in the NFL with 139 sacks (46.3 per season) and allowed 18.8 points per game, ranking fourth. The Bengals notched top-10 defensive rakings in 2009, 2011, 2012 and 2013 after only cracking the NFL's top 10 once in the previous 18 seasons.

During Zimmer's tenure in Dallas as defensive backs coach (1994-99) and defensive coordinator (2000-06), the team ranked in the top five of NFL scoring defense a total of six times. The 1995 Cowboys hoisted the Lombardi Trophy in Super Bowl XXX with a win over Pittsburgh and one of Zimmer's pupils, cornerback Larry Brown, won the Super Bowl MVP award.

Zimmer's initial coaching stops included stints at Missouri (1979-80), Weber State (1981-88) and Washington State (1989-93). He played quarterback and linebacker at Illinois State.

LAST WEEK VS. THE JAGUARS

Week 2: Titans 33, Jaguars 30
Sunday, Sept. 20, 2020 • 12:00 p.m. CT • Nissan Stadium

In Week 2 of the 2020 season, the Titans hosted the Jacksonville Jaguars for their home opener and won by a score of 33-30. Tennessee advanced to 2-0 on the season for the first time since 2008.

The Titans opened up the game with a three-play scoring drive that elapsed 98 seconds. QB Ryan Tannehill's first pass of the game went 63 yards to TE Jonnu Smith, and two plays later Smith caught a 13-yard score for an early 7-0 Titans lead. On the following Jacksonville possession, rookie CB Kristian Fulton picked off Jaguars QB Gardner Minshew II and returned the ball 44 yards. Tennessee capitalized on the turnover as Tannehill threw a nine-yard touchdown to WR Corey Davis, 14-7 Titans. Jacksonville then responded with a touchdown drive of their own. Minshew II hit Jaguars WR DJ Chark Jr. for a 45-yard gain before ultimately tossing a 19-yard touchdown to Jaguars TE Tyler Eifert to cut the score in half, 14-7.

In the second quarter Tennessee extended its lead on another touchdown by Smith. Tannehill threw a four-yard score to Smith for a 21-7 advantage. Both teams successfully added a field goal each to make it 24-10 with the Titans ahead heading into halftime.

Jacksonville had the ball to begin the second half and quickly inched closer to the Titans with a 14-play scoring drive. Jaguars RB James Robinson scurried into the end zone on a 17-yard rush to make it a 24-17 game. On the ensuing Tennessee possession, RB Derrick Henry contributed a 14-yard gain and Davis caught a 17-yard pass to move the chains. Facing pressure and absorbing a hit as he threw the ball, Tannehill launched an 18-yard touchdown pass to WR Adam Humphries. The extra point was no good as Tennessee pulled out ahead, 30-17.

On the ensuing Jacksonville drive, Minshew II led his offense on a 75-yard scoring drive that resulted in a two-yard touchdown reception by Jaguars WR Keelan Cole Sr. Jacksonville's extra point attempt failed, 30-23 Titans.

In the fourth quarter, Jacksonville tied the game 30-30. After two catches for 32 yards contributed by Jaguars WR Chris Conley, Minshew was able to hit Jaguars RB Chris Thompson for a 14-yard touchdown to knot the score.

For the second consecutive week, Tannehill engineered a game-winning drive for Tennessee. Beginning at their own 40-yard line, the Titans moved down to the Jacksonville 31-yard line to allow K Stephen Gostkowski the opportunity to convert the go-ahead 49-yard field goal with 1:36 remaining in the game, 33-30. The Jaguars offense took the field with a minute and a half to go and DT Jeffery Simmons tipped a Minshew II seonc-down pass that was intercepted by outside linebacker Harold Landry III to preserve a Titans victory.

QB RYAN TANNEHILL

➢ Registered his 100th career start in the regular season.

➢ Recorded a 145.7 passer rating—the seventh best single-game passer rating in franchise history (minimum 20 attempts)—by completing 18 of 24 attempts for 239 yards with four touchdowns and no interceptions. It was the best passer rating for the club since Marcus Mariota's 149.8 against Green Bay on Nov. 13, 2016. It was Tannehill's second-highest career passer rating in a game with a minimum of 20 attempts, topped only by his 155.3 against the Oakland Raiders on Sept. 23, 2018.

➢ Tied his career high with four touchdown passes. He previously hit the mark with the Miami Dolphins against the Minnesota Vikings on Dec. 21, 2014 and against the Houston Texans on Oct. 25, 2015. Tannehill became the first Titans quarterback with four or more touchdown passes in a game since Nov. 13, 2016, when Marcus Mariota threw for four touchdowns against the Green Bay Packers.

➢ His four touchdown passes against the Jaguars included a 13-yard pass to tight end Jonnu Smith and a nine-yard strike to wide receiver Corey Davis in the first quarter, a four-yard touchdown to Smith in the second quarter, and finally an 18-yard toss to wide receiver Adam Humphries in the third quarter.

➢ Registered his 18th career game with three or more touchdown passes.

➢ Reached 150 career touchdown passes on his third touchdown pass of the day.

➢ Extended his career-best streak and set a franchise record with his ninth consecutive regular season game with at least two touchdown passes. Marcus Mariota established the previous team record with eight consecutive games in 2016 with two touchdown passes.

➢ Extended his streak to 12 consecutive regular season games with at least one touchdown pass, the longest streak by a Titans quarterback since Steve McNair set the franchise record from 2001 to 2002 with 23 consecutive games with a touchdown pass.

➢ Posted his NFL-high 10th game with at least two touchdown passes and no interceptions since he stepped into the starting lineup for the Titans in Week 7 of 2019, including the regular season and postseason. Tannehill owns 27 such games in his career.

➢ Registered his 18th career game-winning drive and his fifth as a member of the Titans. On the drive, which ended with the go-ahead 49-yard field goal by Stephen Gostkowski with 1:36 on the clock in the fourth quarter, Tannehill completed two of four attempts for 10 yards.

S KENNY VACCARO

➢ Notched his first sack of the season in the fourth quarter, dropping quarterback Gardner Minshew II for a four-yard loss. It gave Vaccaro 11.5 career sacks.

➢ Also tied for the team lead with 11 total tackles and added two tackles for loss and two passes defensed.

(on the team showing poise to come back and win games after losing and regaining the lead)
Well, man, unfortunately you don't know when they're going to be blowouts or when you'll have close games. Obviously the way this league is designed, I think we prepare for all kinds of situations, close games, and building a mindset that if it's not going your way, that we don't need any front runners. A lot of credit to Jacksonville and Doug (Marrone) and his staff and that football team for battling back and coming back and (answering). We have to play better. We have to coach better. I'm confident that we will, but excited to be 2-0 for the first time here in Tennessee.

(on his confidence level in kicker Stephen Gostkowski to make a game-winning field goal)
The confidence is the same for every player that's here. They're expected to do their job, so we have a lot of confidence in their ability to do their job. That's what we had to do. It came down to a field goal kick and you could see it was a really good kick, plenty of distance, accuracy, protection was good. So that's what we needed today.

(on how impressive quarterback Ryan Tannehill was on a day that Jacksonville defended the run)
Yeah, I've always had a lot of respect for this defense and their coaches and players. They play hard. That's a young group over there. They're talented. But I would say the guys went up and made plays and helped Ryan (Tannehill) out like it is all the time. Humph (Adam Humphries), or Corey (Davis), Jonnu (Smith). Those guys went up and caught the football, attacked the football, and that was really good to see. It's not all one guy. We understand that. So that was where we were today.

(on what the Titans did well on the last two defensive drives to stop Jacksonville)
Able to get off the field on third down and able to create a turnover again. The turnovers were huge, our ability to take care of the ball on offense and get two turnovers on defense. Thought the play at the end of the half is kind of where we want to be as a football team. Hold them to a field goal, execute the squib defense, use our timeouts, execute a play, and then kick a field goal. That's positive, good to see, and it ended up being a huge play in the game for us.

(on if the defense wasn't able to get to Jaguars quarterback Gardner Minshew quick enough or if Minshew was getting rid of the ball quickly)
I think a little bit of both. I think they busted a couple runs, which I would say is not ideal, to change some field position. We knew coming in if we didn't disrupt the timing he was accurate. Got a lot of respect for him as a quarterback. We have to rush better. We have to cover better. We have coach better. We have to coach all those things better. But we were able to disrupt the football and there late in the game and got the turnover that was the difference.

(on defensive back Joshua Kalu's execution on the squib kick and if that is more luck or more instinctual)
It's coached and it's executed in practice. Again, it's going to be great to teach off of just to explain to the guys why we do this stuff here at the end of the half or the game. It's a huge play, and so all the credit to Craig Aukerman, Ryan Crow, being able to teach that and get these guys ready to execute it when it comes up. It doesn't come up very often, but it did. And then also to the offensive staff to be able to put the players out there to gain 15 yards that we needed and then call the timeout.

(on what tight end Jonnu Smith is doing well this year compared to in the past)
I think he's just focused on being able to go and attack the football, use his speed. He drew a huge penalty, so he continues to improve. He's a great teammate. He's an unbelievable player to coach and be around every day. You know, I've always admired his upbringing. I know that his mom has done a fantastic job raising him and he's just a great teammate. Works hard. You're always happy to see good things happen to those type of people.

(on offensive players saying in Week One that they wanted to be more efficient and if he thinks the offense was)
I think at times, but then obviously not. There are too many plays that aren't positive, runs that are at or behind the line of scrimmage, penalties. I thought we protected well for the most part. Gave Ryan (Tannehill) some time to work through his progression. But, again, we just have to continue to improve. We're happy to be 2-0. We have to play better. We have to continue to improve. That's what the best teams in this league will do, they'll continue to improve.

(on playing today's game without fans)
Same as it was last week, except – I mean, it's quiet. We're excited to be able to get fans back here as soon as we can. Hopefully we can play well enough that they'll want to cheer as many of them that are here.
It's different, but I think we're kind of used to it now being the second game. Our play and our own personal attitude has to bring the energy. We have to make positive plays to continue to transfer that energy from group to group and unit to unit.

(on Ryan Tannehill's effort and Jacksonville's ability to move the ball today)
You know, just the ability for us to get off the field on third down, that's what it came down to. There were so many third-and-shorts. We've got to create more negative plays early in the drive so that they're not sitting there on the third and two. Had the whole playbook open. Gained two and a half yards, it's still first down. To me, there was a few X plays, which was a key to the game. They've got big receivers. They want to move the ball down field. They hit a couple runs that we can't have. Changed field position, changed momentum. And then I'm not sure what you asked me about on offense other than Ryan (Tannehill) with his four touchdowns. I thought there were some great catches and great efforts to be able to protect. Gave him a lot of time to progress on as well as those guys going up and catching the football. I know Corey (Davis) went up and got it, Jonnu (Smith). I thought that Humph (Adam Humphries)'s play was outstanding there in the end zone.

(on the performance of rookie cornerback Kristian Fulton and how he earned snaps as his game improved)
Well, I'll more reserve the evaluation for after having a chance to watch the film. I thought it was good he got his hand on the ball, and then just being ready to go. Some guys went down, and these are tough games early in the year. They're tough games. So we got to get healthy and get guys ready to go back on the road and go up to Minnesota.

(on the performance of defensive lineman Jack Crawford)
Have always since he's gotten here enjoyed coaching Jack (Crawford), being around him. He's a perfect fit for us as far as just versatility, doing whatever is asked of him for the team and his effort. So was happy to see that he had – was able to get the sack and then also help there at the end of the game. Really appreciate his effort as well as everybody else.

QUARTERBACK RYAN TANNEHILL

(on the performance of the passing game today with Jacksonville controlling the run game)
Yeah, I feel like we were pretty balanced. I think they did a good job up front of not really stopping Derrick (Henry), but limiting him from getting those explosive plays. Derrick is such a tough, strong runner. He's able to fall forward for positive yardage on a lot of his runs. That run he had in the fourth quarter in the two-minute drive, it got bottled up at the line of scrimmage and somehow he was able to break through, break tackles. I think he was carrying a guy. Really an amazing run. But proud of the way that Derrick just battled. Obviously wasn't in his normal groove. Nothing that he could do about it. But the fact that they were doing a good job on the other side of the ball, he just kept battling, just kept toting the thing, and made a huge run there for us at the end, and then we were able to play off of that the pass game.

(on the touchdown pass to wide receiver Adam Humphries as he was staring down the blitz)
Yeah, they ran a game up front and someone shook free, I saw a safety came down, knew Humph (Adam Humphries) was going to be able to win across the field, and just had to kind of stand in there and take it to the chin and make the throw. Humph did a good job adjusting to it. It kind of fluttered on me a little bit. Wasn't able to get as much on it as I wanted to with a guy in my face. Humph did a great job of adjusting to it and then going up and making a play in the end zone for me.

(on how crucial it is to have kicker Stephen Gostkowski who can make long field goals)
It's huge. Obviously coming off last week I know he wanted to get out there and bang them through today, and that's what he did. Came up huge for us there at the end. I don't know what that was, (49)-yard field goal, something like that. So, tough kick and a crucial point in the game, and had nothing but confidence he's going to bang it through and that's exactly what he did.

(on what it felt like to produce a game where he threw four touchdowns)
Yeah, we had guys making plays. You go back to first one, Jonnu (Smith), kind of off schedule, shook his guy loose late and made him throw high and away, and Jonnu was able to go up and get it. I mentioned the Humph (Adam Humphries) touchdown where he was going up and getting the ball in the end zone. CD (Corey Davis) in the back of the end zone being physical, going through contact, and making the play. Really had guys – Jonnu catching the ball underneath and physical finishing in the end zone when he got hit short of the goal line. So, really, just hats off to the guys around me. They were making plays all day. I have a lot of confidence in those guys that if I put the ball in the air that they're going to make a play on it, and that's exactly what they did today.

(on playing at home without fans)
I mean, it's weird. I don't think it'll ever be not weird to play football in an empty stadium. It's a weird feeling. I felt like our guys played with energy. It's different. We feed off each other and create our own energy, which I feel like we did today offensively. I did see a few fans back there, but it's tough to make a whole lot of noise with just a handful people. Yeah, it's going to continue to be weird until we can get more fans in there. Proud of way our guys came to play, brought our own energy, and fed off each other.

(on the importance of starting 2-0 and the overall effectiveness of the offense)
It's huge. You've got to find a way to win. Not every game is gonna be all pretty in the NFL. It's a tough league, and teams that can find ways to grind out tough wins in close games are usually teams that are going to win a lot of games. Proud of the way our guys battled. You know, got off to a good start, then hit a little bit of a lull there, but found a way to make some crucial plays down the stretch and put points on the board to win the game. Like I said, just proud of the way the guys battled and had belief in each other and the confidence that we're going to make a play and win the game.

(on what was going through his mind on the last drive as defensive tackle Jeffery Simmons batted the ball before it was picked off by outside linebacker Harold Landry III)
Yeah, I saw the ball get batted up and I was screaming, 'Pick it, pick it,' not knowing if anybody was around. Couldn't really see if we had any other defenders around the ball. I saw Harold (Landry) elevate and go attack the football and make a huge play. Man, I was fired up. That was exciting to see those guys make a play in a crucial situation. Pretty cool to see Harold elevate like that and go make a play as he's getting blocked.

(on what tight end Jonnu Smith is doing to be such a reliable option in the end zone)
Jonnu (Smith) does a lot of good things for us. Man, he's explosive. He is strong. He is physical with the ball in his hands. Really, he's a weapon that we can use all over the field. We saw the first play of the game, him go – I don't know how many yards that was, 60 or something like that. Just have a ton of confidence in Jonnu. He has a great skillset, and he's been showing that the past two years. We have a lot of confidence in what he can do not only in the red zone, but in the open field as well.

(on the importance of the pass interference calls drawn by Jonnu Smith and tight end Anthony Firkser and how those calls are a product of the players doing the right things)
Yeah, it was huge. The first one, third-down play, had Jonnu (Smith) one-on-one on the outside in a matchup we liked, and put the ball up. Was feeling really good about with (where) Jonnu was at on that play. I think the DB kind of panicked and made a lot of contact trying to push him out and got the pass interference call, and then the other one on third, D-line there at end, (Anthony) Firkser did a good job of trying to create some separation, and the guy hooked him and pulled him back. Really just a good job by those guys doing what they're supposed to do and creating those penalties for us.

(on if the absence of wide receiver A.J. Brown allowed the Jacksonville defense to focus more on stopping the run)
You'll have to ask Jacksonville. I don't know. I know I had confidence in the guys we had out there. Obviously miss A.J. (Brown). He's a heck of a player. With (Cameron) Batson and Kalif (Raymond), Nick (Westbrook-Ikhine) was out there a little bit, I have a ton of confidence in those guys. They all bring something a little bit different to the table. You see (Cameron) Batson make a big play for us in the fourth quarter on the deep end cut, and yeah, we miss A.J. (Brown), but have a ton of confidence in those other guys as well.

(on the confidence the receivers give him to be able to make plays in traffic)
It's huge. I see them make it in practice and that builds the confidence, the trust, and then when they make them in games it only deepens that trust. I know in tight coverage if I put the ball in a good spot, then I have a strong belief our guys will go make a play on it. They did it today, and I expect them to keep doing it.

(on the challenge of being a steady hand on the touchdown pass to Adam Humphries when a defender is barreling at him)
Yeah, I don't think it really changes. I could see Adam (Humphries) was going to be breaking open. That's part of playing quarterback, is being able to stand in there in a tight pocket. Obviously sometimes you want to throw the ball away, sometimes you want to run, sometimes you can see your receiver is about to be breaking open and you have to stand in there, stare down the barrel, and make the throw. I was able to do that today. Like you said, Adam (Humphries) made a huge play in the end zone for us.

(on if he can sense taking a hit to throw a touchdown pass is a scenario where his teammates would deepen their respect for him)
Yeah, that would be a question for them. I know I'm going to do everything to make plays for this football team and go out and execute and try to win. Hopefully I can influence these guys and show them my toughness and the confidence that I play with, so hopefully that transfers over to them. But at the end of the day, I try to do my best to go out and execute and make plays.

RUNNING BACK DERRICK HENRY

(on what it felt like to see quarterback Ryan Tannehill throw four touchdowns)
He's on fire. He did a great job in the red zone. That's just what he does. When he needs to deliver, that's what he does. The guys did a great job catching the ball and scoring touchdowns, and getting upfield and making plays, key plays.

(on if it is easier to clean up mistakes when the team is 2-0)
Definitely. Definitely off to a great start. I don't want to get too caught up in it. I enjoyed this win today, make the corrections when we get back in the building, and keep improving as a team.

(on seeing teammates like tight end Jonnu Smith and wide receiver Adam Humphries making plays)
I'm just happy for those guys. See them working in camp, all those things are paying off. Those guys have been doing that all in camp, and it translates to the game. Those guys are playmakers, and they'll be making big plays, and hope it continues. I know it will continue by the way they work.

(on if there was any difference in this week's game-winning drive compared to last week's game-winning drive)
No, man. You know what we've got to do. We've got to win a game. Different emotions. Just focus on what we have to do.

(on playing without fans today but having fans at the next home games)
Football is better when you start to play football. Like I always said, we've got a job to do and that's come out here and play good football and win games. That would be a big old plus. I know we're all excited to have the fans back, and we can't wait for that moment. So whenever they get back in there, it will be even better. But we definitely want to come in here and play good football and win games. That's what we do this for.

(on how the team feels when kicker Stephen Gostkowski is getting ready to kick a game-winning field goal)
Feel like he's going to make it and put us up to win the game. That's how we all felt. Nothing other than that.

(on how it feels to begin the season 2-0)
It's great. I just want to keep this momentum going, playing good football, improving each and every week, making each other better throughout the week, and going out here and executing and keep winning games. Definitely good to be 2-0. Like I said, we'll enjoy this and then get ready to make corrections and improve for next week.

(on if he noticed any of the limited number of fans in the stands today)
I was so zeroed in. I think I heard some noise from some fans, but we were just focused on the game. Happy they were able to come out and see the game.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

TIGHT END JONNU SMITH

(on if working with quarterback Ryan Tannehill in the offseason helped develop their in-game chemistry)
It translated huge, just building that trust in one another, him just seeing me do it over and over and know we're good. That builds confidence, and you know me, that things get off schedule, he's going to be looking my way. So just trying to do everything I can to continue to build that trust and hope I'm making those plays.

(on the offensive confidence and knowing what the team is capable of doing)
Yeah. We all have a standard that we set on the offensive side of the ball. We're just having everybody just play for the finish. Guys just flying around and making plays. Like I said before, if you continue to see people do it over and over and over again and have progress – you know, we all have a sense of trust, a certain amount of trust. So we set a high standard with one another, and we know that we just got so much ability and belief in one another. So we just go out there on Sundays and just let loose.

(on what he did to get open on the first play of the game where he caught a 63-yard pass)
Yeah, just trying to navigate my way through a lot of traffic. I just – you know, I was just bluffing a guy and kind of just trying to find my way through all that traffic. I popped free. Ryan (Tannehill) made a great throw, a great catch, and I'm actually kind of mad at myself because I wanted to score on that play, but I made up for it a couple plays later.

(on the difference between executing the game-winning drive this week as compared to last week's)
It's not even – I won't even say it was different from last week. We just put ourselves in that situation. We go over so many situations in practice, and we execute in practice. We know whatever situation is called upon us, man, we've got to execute. It was very similar to last week. Like last week I had all the faith in our kicker to go out there and do his thing like he's been doing the past few years. We got down there, and he got it done.

(on preparing this year and at what point he felt he was about to have a breakout season)
Just when opportunity meets preparation. I work hard, man, and I've been blessed with a God-given ability. It would be a disservice to my teammates, myself, if I didn't live that out. So it's been – this is my fourth year. I never started the season out as tight end one, and with that comes a lot of great things, man. You're able to have more opportunities and make plays and put yourself, put your team in a better position to win. So I just work really hard, man, and I'm so blessed and humble to actually be able to showcase everything that I've been blessed with and work for.

(on setting the tone of the game early with his play)
It's always great to get the guys going early, man. As you all see, there's not a lot of support due to everything that's going on in the country right now with COVID, but we've got to bring our own energy. Just having to make those plays early, man, and bring the guys momentum is always great to get them going early.

(on what his relationship with Head Coach Mike Vrabel is like)
I played this game for a long time, man, and to me, the best coaches that I've been around were those who were more than coaches, and that's what you've got in Coach Vrabel. He's more than a coach. You don't just see the football side of him. You see genuine love and care for all of his players. I respect the heck out of him for that. To come here every day and actually care what's going on in our lives outside of football. So to be around a man like that for the past three years, it's been great for me. I'm blessed to have the opportunity to be coached by a man like him. Just happy to be here and happy to be a part of this organization.

(on what is clicking for him and Ryan Tannehill that allows for red zone success)
Just the trust, man, like I said. Just doing it over and over again and seeing me make those plays. He just has the trust in me that I'm going to go up and get it. This is what I've got to continue to do and practice, making sure we're on the same page in meetings, and it's all going to translate out there on the field.

WIDE RECEIVER ADAM HUMPHRIES

(on if he felt the offense was more crisp today)
Yeah, offensively we were able to stay on the field and ultimately get in the end zone, which is something we struggled with last week. Overall, being able to put some drives together and put points on the board is something we can take away from today.

(on quarterback Ryan Tannehill's decision making and how it helped the entire unit)
Ryan (Tannehill) was definitely on point today, as he was every day in practice this week. He did a good job of seeing what the defense is giving him, if there's pressure, or if there is a certain look that the play is not going to work great going into it, he will change it. He did a good job of staying poised and putting us in right play.

(on Ryan Tannehill's toughness to take a hit and still deliver him a touchdown pass)
That's awesome. That's what you want out of your quarterback as a receiver, just to trust you to go get it when the ball in is air. I didn't see the shot he took, but it was great he was able to put it out there and give me a chance to go up and make the play.

(on the overall confidence level of the offense)
Our offense is playing with some confidence right now. We've got confidence in Art (Arthur Smith) calling plays. We've got confidence in Ryan (Tannehill) leading our offense, and Derrick (Henry), and the entire offensive line through the receivers and tight ends. We've got confidence in all of our guys. So it's great to walk on field every Sunday and have confidence in our team like that.

(on how important the timing was on Ryan Tannehill's throw for his touchdown)
The ball to be in the air that long gave me a chance to peek at the free safety to see where he's at. I knew if I needed to go up and get it, or if I could run under it, or if I needed to go up and protect myself from a hit, I was able to peek to my right and see where he was at. Ryan (Tannehill) threw a great ball with pressure in his face, you can't say enough about it, and we executed it to perfection.

(on the importance of being 2-0 and if there is carry over from last year's run)
Being 2-0 is all we can ask for right now. When we watch the tape on Tuesday there will be a lot we can fix and a lot we can get better from. I do think there is some carry over from last year with our offense, with the way we've been able to work and communicate this offseason. Just to be on the same page is a great way to create confidence in our offense and we've been able to do that.

(on if they knew the passing game would have to step up today given what running back Derrick Henry has done to Jacksonville in the past)
Going into every game week, we know we all will have to step up in one way or another. Derrick (Henry) is our guy and our workhorse, he's going to do what he does. Today they made some good plays to stop him and not allow him to get some of those big plays he normally does. But its complementary football so we have to pull our end as wide receivers and tight ends. We were able to do that today and put points on the board.

(on if his touchdown play was emblematic of Ryan Tannehill's aim to be the steady hand that guides the team)
Yeah, he's our leader and we look to him in every situation. He's handled every situation and he handles it the way a NFL quarterback should. He leads our offense every day in practice and meetings and sets the example for us. He's tough. He stands in the pocket and takes some hits and delivers great throws to us. As receivers and tight ends, that is all we can ask for. He's a great leader for our team and we are just happy to be 2-0.

(on defensive back Joshua Kalu's squib kick play to help set up the field goal before half)
That play was awesome. It's a look we prepare for, the squib kick allowing them to run more time off the clock and not giving us a chance to score points. He was able to stop that kick and it put us in good field position. We worked a lot in practice in that situation with Firk (Anthony Firkser) and (Ryan) Tannehill to make that throw and get us down in position to get three points, because that was obviously a big play in this game.

SAFETY KEVIN BYARD

(on what needs to get cleaned up moving forward)
I think we can clean up everything honestly. Obviously it feels good to win. It feels good to be 2-0, but being one of the leaders on defense, I wasn't pretty pleased with our performance out here today. We missed a lot of tackles including myself. We didn't stop the run, we couldn't get pressure on the quarterback and didn't feel like we challenged the receivers good enough. But at the end of the day we did win the game, and that just shows that we obviously have a lot to clean up, but doing it at 2-0 is better than doing it at 1-1.

(on getting two stops at the end of the game and injuries in the secondary)
We practice a lot of situational football. I think, credit that to (Mike) Vrabel and all the coaching staff having us prepared for those situations. I think we did pretty good. We did allow a field goal at the half, and then (Joshua) Kalu recovered the ball and we kicked another field goal. Those types of plays in game situations, those are plays that are going to win ball games in the NFL because you are not going to be able to blow everybody out. Games are going to be close. Guys are injured. Tt's the NFL, 100 percent injury rate. You have to play with injuries. I had a little shoulder whatever, but you just got to keep playing, get in the treatment room and get ready for the next game.

(on outside linebacker Harold Landry intercepting a win-sealing pass)
I was just happy we won the game. It doesn't really matter who makes the play out there. I am going to be excited no matter if it is me, my teammates, I was just happy we won the game. When the ball was coming down I was actually coming down, and thought I was going to get the interception, honestly. But Jeff (Jeffery Simmons) batted the ball down. Once he caught the ball, I just heard a roar from our sideline. Actually when I am out there I'm not concerned with the crowd, but hearing the roar from our sideline was good enough.

(on what it was like playing with a handful of fans in the stadium)
We kind of knew what it was going to be like this year with no fans. I mean, we were going to have to bring our own energy, bring our own juice. I don't think the energy as far as the crowd noise really affected us as a football team. Sometimes we just were not executing our defense and sometimes we were, and it showed out there today. But we ended up getting a win, abig win for our team. It's big to be 2-0 with the Minnesota Vikings coming up next week.

(on if 7000 fans will make a difference at the next home game)
For sure. I come from Middle Tennessee where we always didn't have our stadium packed out, so I kind of know the difference between having a little bit of fans and having a packed out stadium. But whatever the case may be, it's my job and our job as a team and coaching staff to make sure we are ready to play regardless if there are fans out there or not. It's all about being locked in and being more detailed.

(on what it means to be 2-0 for the first time as a Titan)
It's not really a significant value. I know talk about being 0-2 is a death sentence as far as not making it to the playoffs so I feel good about that. It feels good to win a division game. We have a lot to fix. We have got to be more detailed as a team, as a defense. Obviously it feels good to have to fix it a 2-0. We have to come back next week and go back to work. It's a lot we can fix out there.

(on getting off to a 2-0 start)
It feels good, obviously I haven't been 2-0 since I have been here. It's kind of a place – this organization is getting things turned around in a good way and we are actually winning football. It will feel good going into the meeting room. Always there are things that can get fixed whether we were 0-2, 1-1, 2-0, things can be fixed. Being 2-0 definitely feels great. Feels great to be a Titan right now.

(on having kicker Stephen Gostkowski as a weapon)
Obviously he didn't have his best game last week. He ended up kicking a game-winning field goal last week. I think everybody on the team kind of backed him up and trusted him, and knew he was going to make his kicks. He came back this week and I think he made all his extra points, and made the game-winning field goal again. He is a pro and he has been doing this for a long time. He's made a lot of game-winning field goals and he we have trust in him.

(on if giving up nearly 500 yards is alarming)
I wouldn't say it was alarming. It's early in the season, we have a long season, but we are definitely on high alert because we have a lot of things to fix. So like I said, next week we are looking ourselves in the mirror, understand we aren't playing up to our standards we set for ourselves. That's really what this is all about. 2-0 feels good but at the same time it's like a gut check.

OUTSIDE LINEBACK HAROLD LANDRY III

(on how Jacksonville found success and how much of a relief was for him to make a game-sealing interception)
We have a lot we can learn from this game as a defense. But I feel like one thing about our team is like no matter what's happening in the game, we always play to the end. Vrabes (Mike Vrabel) does a great job of preparing us for all types of situations and Jeff (Jeffrey Simmons) was able to get his hands up which we had been preaching all week, and I was able to come down with it. It's easier to learn from your mistakes when you're winning, so we are 2-0 and that's the most important thing. We've just got to make sure we are learning so it doesn't continue into next week.

(on how frustrating it was that Jacksonville was able to find ways to score)
I mean, it was frustrating. We've got to look at the film. I feel like everyone has a part on this defense. They had success. We've just got to watch the film.

(on quarterback Ryan Tannehill's four touchdown passes)
Big time. Ryan (Tannehill)'s a big-time leader in our locker room. Everybody loves him, I am happy for him. He's a great player. Like I said, I am really happy for him and our offense. We've just got to step it up on defense and play better complementary football and we will get this thing rolling.

(on practicing special teams plays like the Jaguars squib kick)
I am not surprised. (Joshua) Kalu takes what he does very seriously. The staff does a great job of preparing us for all situations throughout the week. So, it's not surprising when the game comes, we execute it in key situations in a game like Kalu did.

(on what went through his mind when he saw ball floating through air prior to his interception)
I mean, I saw the ball and knew I needed to attack it. Obviously, it was floating up there and there were other people going to try and get it. Just attack the ball and I was pretty confident I was going to be able to come down with it. I mean, Jeff (Jeffrey Simmons) did a great job of getting his hands on it and I was able to come down with it.

(on how important it was to find a way to win)
It is always awesome to win. We are 2-0 like you said, and that is the most important thing. It's a lot easier going into the facility following a win and being able to make corrections rather than a loss. Like you said, big time to get a win in the NFL. We were able to do that and start off the season 2-0. We've just got to make the corrections and go on to next week.

(on what it was like to hear the sideline's reaction after his interception)
It was awesome. Everybody was excited. It was awesome. It's going to be awesome to have fans, but you know, it is also awesome to see the excitement from your boys on the sideline and on the defense and everything. I think that's pretty cool.

(on what it was like to play against Jaguars quarterback Gardner Minshew)
I think he is a baller. I think he knows what he does well. He doesn't try to be someone he is not and he goes out there and executes. I thought he did a great job for the Jags in that game. My hats off to them, I thought they played really well. But like I said, feel like we prepare hard for these situations and no matter what the situation is in-game, you know, if the game is close in the fourth quarter one of the key things is we try to finish. I feel like we did that and it's just a great feeling to be 2-0.

(on what it feels like to play that number of snaps played in Week Two)
I feel like being a pro you have got to be able to perform whenever coaches put you out there. I feel like that first game in Denver, playing in that atmosphere kind of helped us out for the rest of the season. I feel like I felt better this week than I did last week. It is what it is and you have to do your best to perform.

(on what has to be done moving forward)
We've just got to watch the tape and make the corrections. It's not rocket science. I feel like everybody has their job to do. We've just got the make the corrections and make sure we learn from it, and learn from our mistakes and stay on top of them and improve. It's all about improvement. You know, the best teams in the league improve each week.

CORNERBACK KRISTIAN FULTON

(on getting his first career interception in his first home game)
It was a great experience. Obviously, we wish we would have had the fans to keep us up, the energy, but it felt great to get the pick. First NFL pick. Glad it came early in my career. Just have to come back and keep getting better every week.

(on the defense shutting down Jacksonville on late drives)
That's something you have to be built for. We all talked on the sidelines, like we have to step it up, make a play for the offense. They've been doing their job.

(on what he saw on the play that led to the pick)
I was just doing my job, doing what I do. I saw the ball in the air and grabbed it and tried to make a play to put us in good field position.

KICKER STEPHEN GOSTKOWSKI

(on the kick at the end of the first half)
It was surprising to get that kick. You always have to stay ready. You have to take advantage of the opportunities you get. Luckily I was able to do that at the end of the half and the end of the game.

(on making a game-winning kick for the second week in a row)
It was a great situation to be put in. We had the lead most of the game. It was tied at the end, and to get a chance to win at the end of the game, that's what you practice for. Luckily we were able to come through today. It's exciting to get the win and get the Titans to 2-0.

WIDE RECEIVER COREY DAVIS

(on what he saw on his touchdown catch)
We had the look that we wanted, were looking for all week. I knew I had to win, and I had to get open quick. That's what I did. I ended up going over the top of the DB. Ryan (Tannehill) put it in a perfect spot, all I had to do was go get it.

(on the flow of the offense today)
We were moving the ball. That's what happens when we're just being us. Obviously we had some self-inflicted wounds we have to clean up, a lot of things we have to clean up in the run game and the passing game, but overall we were moving the ball well. It's a good win.

(on quarterback Ryan Tannehill's performance)
Ryan (Tannehill)'s always poised, which is good to have a quarterback in the huddle that's calm and collected. He's always telling us, 'It's one play at a time,' and that's what we did. We went out there and made it happen.

GUARD RODGER SAFFOLD

(on the offense)
I think it just really came down to playing complementary football. We were able to make plays. Everybody was doing their job, doing the right thing. I think that because we have somewhat of a calmness about us, that allows us to overcome some adversities that we have going against us – a series of false starts and miscommunications here and there that we were able to overcome. If you can do that consistently, you can start seeing us put more and more points up on the board. I think there was a lot of confidence, but also an understanding of what the situation is where we can go and attack it effectively.

(on Ryan Tannehill's composure)
Well, Ryan (Tannehill) is so critical of himself. Last game he thought that it wasn't good enough for himself and for us and he really went to work all week, and then you start seeing him really putting some throws together, confidence-builders through the play action, and then once he gets his number called being able to make really big time contested throws. He was able to do that. He threw that ball where he got hit in the chest, and he's probably going to get mad that I said this, but he got up and he said 'And One.' I mean, that's what you want to hear out of your quarterback. You want to hear that competitive nature coming from him so we can constantly see him improve and succeed.

(on the team's confidence after two weeks with game-winning drives)
It's a great feeling, but we also know there's a ton that needs to be corrected and that's what is helping this team out. We're constantly staying hungry. We understand that these first few games are going to be like this because there were no preseason games. We really have to depend on ourselves to be able to gain momentum, to get energy back into the stadium, and I'm glad that we've been able to do that consistently. We're constantly working on two minutes and it's winning us the game. So, I don't think that we're going to stop here.

TIGHT END ANTHONY FIRKSER

(on the third-down conversions)
We knew we had to get the chains moving on third down and convert. We diagnosed the coverage and got to the right spot, and Ryan (Tannehill) was able to make a throw, and I just had to complete the catch.

(on quarterback Ryan Tannehill's poise)
Ryan (Tannehill)'s always confident and trusts our guys. We work all the time in practice getting everyone involved, and that's our goal in the game – getting everyone touches and have threats all over the field.

WIDE RECEIVER CAMERON BATSON

(on being on the field and making big plays after spending 2019 on injured reserve)
It's been a long road, man. I'm just grateful for the opportunity to go out there and showcase my God-given talent and ability.

(on the offense's composure)
We work on that in practice, so perfect practice prevents piss-poor performance. We just went out there and did what we do on a day to day basis.

(on his catches today)
Just good technique, O-line did a great job holding up. Ryan (Tannehill) did a great job of getting in there and delivering me the ball, so all glory be to God.

DEFENSIVE LINEMAN JEFFERY SIMMONS

(on making stops on the last two drives)
I think that's what we focus on. We did these with a next-play mentality. Of course we want to get off the field on third down, but at the same time its pro level. Guys make plays but we want to eliminate big plays like that, especially on third-and-long. We got them in that type of situation, so we're just going to learn from it. Like I said, those last two drives were big for us. We got off the field, especially at the end with a turnover. That won the game.

(on tipping the pass on the ball outside linebacker Harold Landry intercepted)
We know that especially in that type of situation, that we're rushing like three or four, so you know somebody's going to get doubled. That play for sure I got doubled and I wasn't going to get too much penetration, and I knew the quarterback, he's short, so we got our hands up. Something that we preach is affect the quarterback's timing of his throws.

(on the offense's performance)
Props to our offense. Giving up 30 points, that's something for sure we'll have to talk about. We talked about it before, we have to have our offense's back and the offense has to have our back. Props to them coming out, starting fast. Of course, the defense, we want to start a little faster. We started off kind of fast, but we, I think, we got a little relaxed. That's just the game of football. We're going to come back and learn from it. Once we're up on guys we just want to keep our foot on their necks

Jon Robinson was hired as Titans general manager on Jan. 14, 2016 after spending two years as director of player personnel for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Nearly one year later, on Jan. 5, 2017, he was promoted to executive vice president/general manager.

In his first four years on the job, the Titans finished with four consecutive 9-7 seasons. It marked the first time the organization produced at least four consecutive winning seasons since a seven-year run of winning records from 1987–1993. The Titans were one of four NFL teams to accomplish the feat from 2016–2019, joining New England, Seattle and Kansas City.

Robinson became only the second general manager in franchise history whose first four teams finished above the .500 mark, joining Mike Holovak (1989-92).

Robinson's work helped the team go from three wins in the season prior to his arrival (2015) to a divisional round playoff finish following the 2017 campaign. He became the fifth general manager in franchise history to have the team in the playoffs within his first two full seasons.

Then, in 2019, the team he constructed advanced to the AFC Championship game. It was the organization's first appearance in the conference title game in 17 seasons (2002).

When the Titans took the field for the 2019 postseason, only seven players remained on the 53-man roster from prior to Robinson's arrival—a turnover rate of 87 percent. That included 23 free agents, 18 draft picks, four players acquired via trade and one waiver pickup. An additional six players he acquired (four free agents, one draft pick and one waiver claim) ended 2019 on injured reserve.

The 2020 NFL Draft was Robinson's fifth draft as general manager. In those five drafts, he selected 35 total players, and 21 of those players remained with the club at the beginning of training camp in 2020. During that same time period (as of July 28, 2020), he engineered 20 trades and made 11 waiver claims.

2020: Prior to the 2020 free agent signing period, the Titans reached an agreement on a multi-year contract to keep quarterback Ryan Tannehill in Tennessee. The Titans also re-signed tackle Dennis Kelly and outside linebacker Kamalei Correa, among others.

After initially placing the franchise tag on running back Derrick Henry, the Titans and Henry were able to come to an agreement on a multi-year contract extension in July 2020.

Robinson also led the acquisition of unrestricted free agent outside linebacker Vic Beasley from the Atlanta Falcons. The former first-round pick spent his first five NFL seasons (2015-19) in Atlanta, capping his tenure there with eight sacks in 2019. He led the NFL with 15.5 sacks in 2016, and from his rookie season through 2019, he ranked 16th in the NFL in sacks by edge rushers (outside linebackers and defensive ends).

Robinson patiently waited to add two more significant free agents just prior to the beginning of the 2020 regular season, picking up kicker Stephen Gostkowski and outside linebacker Jadeveon Clowney during the first week of September. Gostkowski earned four Pro Bowl berths and three Super Bowl rings during 14 seasons with the Patriots, becoming the team's all-time leading scorer (1,775 points). Through 2019, he was the NFL's fifth-most accurate kicker in history (374 of 428). Clowney, a three-time Pro Bowl selection, joined Aaron Donald and Chandler Jones as the only NFL players with at least 60 tackles for loss, eight forced fumbles and 150 quarterback pressures from 2016 through 2019.

In the 2020 NFL Draft, the Titans had six total picks. The first of those was Georgia tackle Isaiah Wilson (first round, 29th overall), followed by Louisiana State cornerback Kristian Fulton (second round, 61st overall) and Appalachian State running back Darrynton Evans (third round, 93rd overall) in the first three rounds.

2019: Near the beginning of the 2019 free agent signing period, Robinson worked quickly to add several veterans from other teams who played key roles in 2019: Buccaneers wide receiver Adam Humphries, Rams guard Rodger Saffold and Tannehill in a trade with the Dolphins. Robinson also worked to re-sign starting safety Kenny Vaccaro and punter Brett Kern.

Then, in the 2019 NFL Draft, Robinson directed the selection of six total players, including Mississippi State defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons in the first round (19th overall), Ole Miss wide receiver A.J. Brown in the second round (51st overall) and Charlotte offensive lineman Nate Davis in the third round (82nd overall).

Tannehill, who proved to be one of the NFL's top acquisitions of 2019, started every game after Week 6, leading the team into the playoffs. He led the NFL and set franchise records with a 117.5 passer rating and a 9.6-yard passing average. In addition to being named to his first Pro Bowl, he earned Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year honors.

As a rookie, Brown led the Titans in every major receiving category. Among all rookies in 2019, he ranked first in receiving yards (1,051), tied for the rookie lead in touchdown receptions (eight) and placed fifth in receptions (52). Among all NFL players in 2019—rookies and veterans—Brown finished second in receiving average (20.2), behind only the Los Angeles Chargers' Mike Williams (20.4).

2018: The Titans' 2018 free agent class included Pro Bowl cornerback Malcolm Butler. In his first two seasons in Tennessee, Butler played in 25 games (20 starts) and totaled five interceptions. In early August, the Titans signed Vaccaro, who went on to start 13 games his first season in Tennessee and all 16 games in 2019.

Robinson's 2018 draft class was comprised of four players after he used multiple trades to go up and get his targets. It included first-round linebacker Rashaan Evans from Alabama (22nd overall pick) and second-round outside linebacker Harold Landry III from Boston College (41st overall). Evans started all 16 games in 2019 and led the team with 139 tackles. Landry appeared in 31 games (19 starts) in his first two seasons, and his 13.5 sacks from 2018–2019 (nine in 2019) ranked first on the team.

2017: During the 2017 offseason, Robinson used free agency to address needs on defense and special teams. Most notably, he spearheaded deals for cornerback Logan Ryan (New England) and special teams contributor and 2017 Pro Bowler Brynden Trawick (Oakland).

In the 2017 NFL Draft, Robinson spent first-round picks on wide receiver Corey Davis (fifth overall) and cornerback Adoree' Jackson (18th overall). It marked the first time the franchise had a pair of first-round draft selections since 1987. The Titans' 2017 draft haul also featured tight end Jonnu Smith in the third round and linebacker Jayon Brown in the fifth round.

The 2017 Titans advanced to the playoffs for the first time since 2008. Robinson became the fifth general manager in franchise history to have the team in the postseason within his first two full seasons.

2016: In his first year as an NFL general manager, Robinson's leadership and decision-making helped the Titans triple their win total from the previous season, finishing 9-7 in 2016 after a 3-13 finish in 2015. The six-win improvement tied for the most in franchise history (1967 and 1974) and doubled the previous club benchmark for the most wins in the first year under a new general manager (three by Bum Phillips in 1975).

Within the first four months at his post, Robinson pulled the trigger on several key personnel decisions. On March 9, 2016, he made his first major acquisition, swapping fourth-round draft picks with the Philadelphia Eagles in exchange for running back DeMarco Murray. The trade provided major dividends in 2016, as Murray led the AFC and ranked third in the NFL with 1,287 rushing yards.

Around the same time, Robinson began to work the free agent market. Center Ben Jones and wide receiver Rishard Matthews highlighted the haul, and both were instrumental in helping to transform the Titans offense into the 11th-ranked unit in the NFL.

On April 14, 2016, two weeks before the NFL Draft, Robinson and the Titans dealt the first overall pick to the Los Angeles Rams in one of the biggest trades in recent NFL history. The Titans gave up the No. 1 pick and a fourth-rounder in order to receive the 15th overall pick, two second-rounders and a third-rounder in 2016, plus the Rams' first- and third-round picks in 2017. From 1990–2015, there were seven trades involving the No. 1 overall pick, but this was the first since 2004, when the San Diego Chargers selected Eli Manning with the first pick and dealt his rights to the New York Giants.

The Titans had their hands at one point or another on 17 selections in the 2016 draft due to five different trades (including one trade in 2015), and in the end, they ended up with a class of 10 players, including four of the top 45 picks. Robinson swung a draft-day trade with the Cleveland Browns to move back up to the eighth slot to choose Michigan State tackle Jack Conklin.

All 10 members of Robinson's first draft class played in at least one game in 2016. They accumulated a total of 110 games played and 38 starts, including 16 starts at right tackle by Conklin. The eighth-overall pick capped his successful rookie campaign by being named first-team All-Pro by Associated Press.

Henry, a second-rounder in 2016, led the Titans in rushing every season from 2017 through 2019. In 2019, he won the NFL's rushing crown with 1,540 yards and tied for the NFL lead with 16 rushing touchdowns.

Third-round safety Kevin Byard earned first-team All-Pro honors in his second campaign. He led the NFL from 2017–2019 with 17 total interceptions also was named to the Pro Bowl in 2017.

PRIOR HISTORY: Robinson arrived in Tennessee with a wide range of experience from working his way up on the personnel side of the NFL. From 2014–2015, he served as director of player personnel for the Buccaneers and oversaw both college and pro departments as the team rebuilt its roster. The 2015 Buccaneers draft class made a significant impact, including four rookie starters: quarterback Jameis Winston, tackle Donovan Smith, guard Ali Marpet and linebacker Kwon Alexander.

Prior to joining Tampa Bay, Robinson spent 12 years with the New England Patriots, including his last five years (2009-13) as the director of college scouting. In the five years heading up their college scouting, the Patriots added a number of key components to their roster that won the Super Bowl in 2014, including wide receiver Julian Edelman, defensive back Devin McCourty, tight end Rob Gronkowski, tackle Nate Solder and defensive end Chandler Jones. He joined the Patriots as an area scout in 2002, a role he served for four seasons. Robinson then spent two years (2006-07) as a regional scout, before being promoted to assistant director of college scouting in 2008 and then director of college scouting in 2009. In his time scouting for the Patriots the team won 10 division titles, four conference titles and two Super Bowls (2003, 2004).

Robinson played three years at Southeast Missouri State as a defensive lineman after starting his college career at the Air Force Academy. Following his college career as a player, he spent one season (1998) coaching at his alma mater and three years (1999-2001) coaching at Nicholls State.

A native of Union City, Tenn., Robinson and his wife, Jaimie, have two daughters, Taylor and Bailey.

FOUR WINNING SEASONS

Jon Robinson constructed a roster that produced four consecutive winning seasons in Robinson's first four years on the job. The club went 9-7 in 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2019 with postseason berths following the 2017 and 2019 campaigns.

Robinson became only the second general manager in franchise history whose first four teams finished above the .500 mark, joining Mike Holovak (1989-92).

Video: Igniting the Fire - Who is Mike Vrabel?

Mike Vrabel enters his third season as head coach in 2020. He was named to the position on Jan. 20, 2018, becoming the 19th head coach in franchise history.

In Vrabel's first two years, he directed the Titans to a 20-15 record, including a 2-1 mark in the 2019 playoffs. His 20 wins made up the second-highest total in franchise history for a head coach's first two seasons, behind only Jack Pardee's 21 wins from 1990–1991.

Vrabel became the first head coach in the organization's history to win multiple playoff games within his first two seasons. The Titans won a pair of road games—at New England in the wild card round and at Baltimore in the divisional round—to advance to the 2019 AFC championship game, falling at Kansas City to the eventual Super Bowl champion Chiefs.

The Titans began the 2019 campaign with two wins in their first six games but rallied to win seven of their final 10 games in the regular season. From the time the NFL went to its current playoff format in 1990 through 2019, 345 teams went 2-4 or worse in their first six games of a season. From that group, the Titans became only the third team to advance to a conference championship game, joining the 2002 Titans (2-4) and the 1996 Jacksonville Jaguars (2-4).

The 2019 Titans ranked in the NFL's top 10 in scoring margin (eighth, +71), turnover margin (sixth, +6), offensive yards per play (fourth, 6.12), rushing offense (third, 138.9 yards per game), red zone efficiency (first, 75.6 percent), total touchdowns (tied for third, 54) and third-down defense (eighth, 36.3 percent).

From 2018–2019, Vrabel's Titans were the second-least penalized NFL team (181). Over the same period of time, they were the fourth-best rushing offense (129.2 yards per game), the fifth-best scoring defense (19.8 points allowed per game) and the seventh-best third-down defense (36.4 percent).

In his first season as head coach, Vrabel directed the Titans to a 9-7 record. His nine wins tied for the fourth-highest total in franchise history by a first-year head coach.

With only 82 penalties enforced against the Titans in 2018, Vrabel's team led the NFL and set a franchise record (16-game season) for fewest penalties in a season. The 2018 Titans also placed third in points allowed (18.9 per game), eighth in total defense (333.4 yards per game), sixth in passing defense (216.9), second in red zone defense (44.7 percent touchdown rate) and seventh in rushing offense (126.4) in the league rankings.

Vrabel arrived in Tennessee with 18 years of NFL experience, including four seasons as a coach and 14 seasons as a player. His distinguished playing career included three Super Bowl wins (2001, 2003 and 2004), one Pro Bowl selection (2007) and an All-Pro honor (2007). Vrabel played in 206 NFL games and totaled 57 sacks, 496 tackles, 11 interceptions, 20 forced fumbles, nine fumble recoveries and 10 touchdown receptions. Additionally, his teams advanced to the playoffs eight times (20 postseason games), with Vrabel recording eight postseason sacks and two postseason touchdown receptions.

Vrabel joined the Titans after four seasons with the Houston Texans, spending the first three seasons (2014-16) coaching linebackers and one year (2017) as the team's defensive coordinator. During his time in Houston, the Texans built one of the best defenses in the NFL and experienced tremendous success as a team – earning two division titles (2015, 2016).

Between 2014-16, the Texans defense ranked third in the NFL in yards allowed per game (319.9) and net passing yards (218.4). Houston also ranked first in third-down defense (33.6), fourth in opponent completion percentage (59.5) and sixth in points allowed per game (19.8). The 2016 defense ranked number one in the NFL, for the first time in franchise history, in yards allowed (301.3).

In 2017, his first year as a defensive coordinator, the Texans finished the campaign with 19 players on injured reserve. Despite the injuries, Vrabel led the defense to the fifth-best third-down percentage in the NFL and a franchise-record 3.97 yards per carry by opponents. Houston also had 18 different players record at least half a sack last year and 26 players tally at least one tackle for loss.

2001-08	New England Patriots	Linebacker
1997-00	Pittsburgh Steelers	Linebacker

Vrabel spent his career playing and coaching with accomplished leaders, including Bill Belichick, Bill Cowher, Romeo Crennel, Urban Meyer, Bill O'Brien and Todd Haley.

As the Texans linebackers coach from 2014-16, Vrabel developed several players into top-notch performers, including Jadeveon Clowney (Pro Bowl, 2016), Whitney Mercilus, Benardrick McKinney (second-team All-Pro, 2016) and Brian Cushing. The 2015 Texans defense had the top third-down defense in the NFL (28.5 percent), which was the lowest percentage in franchise history and the lowest by any NFL team since the 2003 Titans (27.7 percent). The 2015 defense also set a franchise mark for sacks in a season with 45 - 22.5 coming from Vrabel's linebacking corps.

Prior to joining the NFL coaching ranks, Vrabel transitioned immediately from an NFL player to college coach. He started as the linebacker coach at Ohio State in 2011 and coached the defensive line from 2012–2013. The 2012 Buckeyes finished the season undefeated at 12-0. He also was named Big Ten Recruiter of the Year by ESPN.com in 2012.

Vrabel was selected by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the third round (91st overall) of the 1997 NFL Draft, after his playing career at Ohio State, where he earned All-America honors and Big Ten Conference Defensive Lineman of the Year in both 1995 and 1996.

A native of Akron, Ohio, Vrabel attended Walsh Jesuit High School. He and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons: Tyler and Carter.

20 WINS IN FIRST TWO YEARS

Mike Vrabel won nine games as a rookie head coach in 2018. Of the 19 head coaches in the organization's history, beginning in 1960, Vrabel became the eighth to reach nine wins in his first full season as head coach.

Then, in 2019, Vrabel's team again went 9-7 in the regular season. The club earned a wild card playoff berth and won two postseason games before falling in the AFC title game.

Including regular season and postseason games, Vrabel's 20 wins from 2018–2019 give him the second-highest total in franchise history for a head coach's first two seasons (not including interim seasons). Only Jack Pardee's 21 wins from 1990–1991 rank better than Vrabel's total.

Most combined regular season and postseason wins in a head coaches first two seasons, franchise history*:

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 2020

WHAT TO LOOK FOR – TEAM

➢ The Titans need three wins at Nissan Stadium to reach 100 all-time wins there, including postseason. They entered 2020 with a combined regular season and postseason record at Nissan Stadium (opened in 1999) of 97-75.

➢ The Titans can record their fifth consecutive season with a winning record. It would be the second-longest such streak in franchise history trailing only the Oilers' seven consecutive winning records from 1987 through 1993. Entering 2020, the Titans own the fourth-longest active streak of winning seasons in the NFL behind only the New England Patriots (19), Seattle Seahawks (eight) and Kansas City Chiefs (seven).

WR A.J. BROWN

➢ Needs 1,000 receiving yards to become the 11th player to reach 1,000 receiving yards in each of his first two NFL seasons. He would be the first NFL player since Michael Thomas (2016-17) and the only player in Titans/Oilers history other than Bill Groman (1960-61) to accomplish the feat.

➢ Needs 1,000 receiving yards, 50 receptions and five receiving touchdowns to become the ninth player in NFL history to accomplish the feat in each of his first two seasons.

➢ Needs five 100-yard receiving games to become the ninth NFL player with 10 such games through his first two seasons.

S KEVIN BYARD

➢ Needs three interceptions in 2020 (17 interceptions entering the season) to become the 15th player in franchise history to reach 20 career interceptions. The most recent Titans player to do so was safety Michael Griffin.

➢ Can record four or more interceptions for the fourth consecutive season. He would join Darryll Lewis (1994-98) as the only players to do so in franchise history.

➢ Needs three interceptions and two sacks to become the sixth player with at least 20 interceptions and five sacks through his first five seasons in NFL history. He would join Kenny Easley, David Fulcher, Michael Downs, Erik McMillan and Greg Wesley.

RB DERRICK HENRY

NISSAN STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

Nissan Stadium hosts all Titans home football games, Tennessee State University football games, the Music City Bowl, the CMA Music Festival and numerous other events.

The procurement of naming rights to Nissan Stadium fit the automotive company's 'Fewer, Bigger, Better' marketing strategy, which has included ongoing sponsorships of NBC's 'The Voice,' the Heisman House college football program and a major advertising presence in this year's Super Bowl. Nissan is also now the official automotive partner of the Tennessee Titans.

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin.

The Nissan Smyrna Plant began operations in 1983 and employs more than 8,400 people. In 2014, the Smyrna plant assembled more than 648,000 vehicles, making it the highest volume automotive assembly plant in North America. Nissan also has a major manufacturing presence in Canton, Miss., along with research and development groups in California, Arizona and Michigan. In total, the company employs more than 22,000 employees in the U.S.

One component of the Titans-Nissan partnership is assisting charitable organizations throughout Middle Tennessee in an array of community outreach programs. A centerpiece of this is the annual "Taste of Titans" charitable event, for which Nissan serves as presenting sponsor. During the course of a 20-year relationship, a total of more than $1 million resulting from these annual events is anticipated to be distributed to local non-profit organizations.

Nissan Stadium is a city-owned venue that has housed the Titans since 1999. The naming rights agreement includes the opportunity for Nissan branding on the exterior of the stadium, as well as stadium signage and other unique displays inside the stadium. LP Building Products held the naming rights to the stadium from 2006 until the Nissan partnership was established in 2015.

FANS RETURN TO NISSAN STADIUM

On Sept. 17, the Titans announced that Nissan Stadium will open at limited capacity beginning with the Oct. 4 Titans home game against the Pittsburgh Steelers. The three October home games will gradually increase in capacity with the goal of reaching a fixed capacity for the remaining games in November and December.

The Oct. 4 game will be open to season ticket members up to 10 percent of the stadium's capacity, which is roughly 7,000 fans in the lower bowl and club levels. The next October home game (Oct. 11) will allow 12.5 percent and the third (Oct. 18) 15 percent. For November until the end of the season, capacity could reach 21 percent, which is the maximum capacity the facility can accommodate under current CDC guidelines. Outside of the seating bowl, suites will operate at a limited capacity.

"We are thrilled to welcome fans back to Nissan Stadium and can't thank Mayor Cooper and the Metro Nashville Public Health Department enough for their collaboration in making this possible," said Titans President and CEO Burke Nihill. "The health and safety of our fans, players and staff remains our top priority and we felt like a gradual capacity plan was the right call, knowing that we may need to be flexible as time goes on. We feel confident that our Safe Stadium Plan will give everyone a safe and comfortable experience as they return to our gates."

Detailed information on the Safe Stadium Plan can be found at www.tennesseetitans.com/safestadium. Key components include:

• Socially-distant seating pods accommodating parties of one to a maximum of six people

• Mobile ticketing and parking, to eliminate physical contact while scanning passes

• Mandatory face coverings at all times, except when actively eating or drinking

• Over 300 hand sanitizing stations throughout the stadium

• Individually-wrapped food items at concession stands

• Elimination of all smoking and vaping areas in the facility

• Health screenings and personal protective equipment for all Nissan Stadium employees

• A comprehensive cleaning plan during events for bathrooms and near concession areas

Fans will be asked to arrive early and head straight to the gates after they arrive. After consulting with local and national health experts, there will be no tailgating or pregame activities allowed outside of the stadium. The stadium will have dedicated security crews throughout Nissan Stadium to enforce all Safe Stadium policies.

TITANS REBOUND AFTER 2-4 START

After winning their 2019 regular season opener at Cleveland (Sept. 8), the Titans dropped four of their next five games to begin the season with a 2-4 record. From that point forward, they won nine of their last 13 games, including playoffs.

Since the NFL went to its current playoff format in 1990, 345 teams have gone 2-4 or worse in their first six games of a season. From that group, the Titans became the 21st team to earn a postseason berth.

Their wild card victory over the Patriots made the Titans the 10th team to win a playoff game and the 11th team to advance to the divisional round after faring no better than 2-4 in their first six games.

A week later, the Titans became the third such team to advance to the conference championship, joining the 2002 Titans (2-4) and the 1996 Jacksonville Jaguars (2-4).

As a franchise, the Titans/Oilers have advanced to the divisional round or beyond three times following a 2-4 or worse start through six games. In addition to the 2019 squad and the 2002 club, the 1993 Oilers went to the divisional round with a first-round bye.

THE SIXTH SEED

The Titans entered the 2019 playoffs with a 9-7 record and the sixth and final seed in the AFC playoffs. In winning their wild card game at New England and their divisional matchup at Baltimore, they became the NFL's first No. 6 seed to reach the conference championship game since 2010.

Since the NFL instituted the current 12-team playoff format in 1990, the Titans joined the 2005 Pittsburgh Steelers, 2008 Philadelphia Eagles, 2008 Baltimore Ravens, 2010 New York Jets and 2010 Green Bay Packers in reaching the conference championship game as No. 6 seeds.

Tannehill set single-season franchise records and led the NFL with a 117.5 passer rating and a passing average of 9.6 yards per attempt. His passer rating was the fourth-highest figure in NFL history among qualifiers. Additionally, he set a club record and placed third in the NFL with a 70.3 completion percentage.

Tannehill was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for December 2019 and was named to his first career Pro Bowl. He also won the Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year Award.

Originally a first-round selection (eighth overall) by the Miami Dolphins in the 2012 NFL Draft, Tannehill was acquired by the Titans in a trade with the Dolphins on March 15, 2019. The Titans sent a 2019 seventh-round pick and a 2020 fourth-round selection to Miami in exchange for Tannehill and a 2019 sixth-rounder.

Over his seven seasons in Miami, he started 88 games, threw for 20,434 yards and 123 touchdowns, and rushed for 1,210 yards and six scores. When he left Miami, he ranked second in franchise history behind Chad Pennington in both career completion percentage (62.8) and career passer rating (87.0). He authored 13 game-winning drives for the Dolphins.

During the first four seasons of his career (2012-15), Tannehill's passing yardage total—15,460 yards—was the third highest mark in NFL history, behind only Peyton Manning and Dan Marino. Tannehill's two 4,000-yard passing seasons (2015 and 2014) were the only ones recorded by a Dolphins quarterback other than Marino (six times). The Dolphins reached the playoffs in 2016, breaking an eight-year postseason drought.

A native of Big Spring, Texas, Tannehill attended Texas A&M, where he earned honorable mention All-America honors as a senior. He played both quarterback and wide receiver, passing for 5,450 yards and 42 touchdowns and adding 112 receptions for 1,596 yards and 10 scores.

2020 Notes:
➢ At Denver (9/14), opened the season on Monday Night Football with a 97.9 passer rating after completing 29 of 43 passes for 249 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions. He also rushed for 14 yards on three attempts. He registered his 17th career game-winning drive and his fourth as a member of the Titans. On the team's final drive, which ended with the go-ahead 25-yard field goal by Stephen Gostkowski, Tannehill completed five of seven attempts for 40 yards. His two touchdown passes included a one-yard pass to tight end MyCole Pruitt in the second quarter and a one-yard touchdown toss to tight end Jonnu Smith in the fourth quarter. He extended his streak to 11 consecutive regular season games with at least one touchdown pass and extended his streak to eight consecutive regular season games with at least two touchdown passes. His 43 passing attempts were his most in a game since Sept. 18, 2016 (45 vs. New England).
➢ Against Jacksonville (9/20), registered his 100th career start in the regular season and recorded a 145.7 passer rating—the seventh best single-game passer rating in franchise history (minimum 20 attempts)—by completing 18 of 24 attempts for 239 yards with four touchdowns and no interceptions. It was the best passer rating for the club since Marcus Mariota's 149.8 against Green Bay on Nov. 13, 2016. It was Tannehill's second-highest career passer rating in a game with a minimum of 20 attempts, topped only by his 155.3 against the Oakland Raiders on Sept. 23, 2018. He tied his career high with four touchdown passes, becoming the first Titans quarterback with four or more touchdown passes in a game since Mariota's 2016 performance against Green Bay. Tannehill's four touchdown passes against the Jaguars included a 13-yard pass to tight end Jonnu Smith and a nine-yard strike to wide receiver Corey Davis in the first quarter, a four-yard touchdown to Smith in the second quarter, and finally an 18-yard toss to wide receiver Adam Humphries in the third quarter. He registered his 18th career game with three or more touchdown passes and reached 150 career touchdown passes on his third touchdown pass of the day. He extended his career-best streak and set a franchise record with his ninth consecutive regular season game with at least two touchdown passes. Marcus Mariota established the previous team record with eight consecutive games in 2016 with two touchdown passes. He also extended his streak to 12 consecutive regular season games with at least one touchdown pass, the longest streak by a Titans quarterback since Steve McNair set the franchise record from 2001 to 2002 with 23 consecutive games with a touchdown pass. He posted his NFL-high 10th game with at least two touchdown passes and no interceptions since he stepped into the starting lineup for the Titans in Week 7 of 2019, including the regular season and postseason. Tannehill owns 27 such games in his career. He registered his 18th career game-winning drive and his fifth as a member of the Titans.

Over those seven games, he had two total interceptions—one each on Dec. 8 (at Oakland) and Dec. 15 (vs. Houston)—to go along with 19 touchdown passes and a 129.8 passer rating.

During Mariota's 2016 season, he registered the previous franchise-best streak of four straight games with at least two touchdown passes and fewer than two interceptions.

Running back Derrick Henry is in his fifth NFL season in 2020. He was selected by the Titans with the 45th overall pick in the second round of the 2016 NFL Draft and received a multi-year contract extension in 2020.

In 2019, Henry was named to his first career Pro Bowl and added second-team Associated Press All-Pro honors after leading the NFL in rushing in 2019. In 15 games, he totaled 1,540 yards on 303 carries (5.1 avg.), joining Billy Cannon (AFL, 1961), Earl Campbell (1978-80) and Chris Johnson (2009) as the only running backs in franchise history to lead their respective leagues in rushing. Henry's single-season total ranked fourth in franchise annals behind Johnson's 2009 total (2,006) and Campbell's 1979 (1,697) and 1980 (1,934) performances. He was named the FedEx Ground Player of the Year.

With 16 rushing touchdowns in 2019, Henry tied for the NFL lead (Aaron Jones) and finished second in team history (19 by Campbell in 1979). Adding his two receiving touchdowns, his 18 total touchdowns were third in the NFL and tied for second in franchise annals (19 by Campbell in 1979; 18 by Bill Groman in 1961).

Henry's performance late in the 2019 season was instrumental in the team's run to the AFC championship game. Over the final six games of the regular season plus three playoff appearances, Henry registered seven 100-yard games. During a three-game stretch (Dec. 29 at Houston, Jan. 4 at New England and Jan. 11 at Baltimore), he became the first player in NFL history to rush for at least 180 yards in three consecutive regular season and/or postseason games.

Henry authored his first career 1,000-yard season in 2018 and the 28th 1,000-yard rushing season in franchise history, totaling 1,059 yards and 12 touchdowns on 215 carries—all then-career highs.

His 2018 rushing yardage ranked second in the AFC to Joe Mixon's 1,168 yards, and he finished seventh in the NFL. Henry's 12 rushing touchdowns tied James Connor for third place in the NFL behind Todd Gurley (17) and Alvin Kamara (14).

Henry was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for December 2018. His 625 rushing yards in the month were the most by any NFL player in any month during the season.

Against the Jacksonville Jaguars on Dec. 6, 2018, Henry recorded one of the greatest single games in franchise history in front of a national television audience. He broke Johnson's single-game franchise record (228) with 238 rushing yards, including a 99-yard touchdown run. He joined Tony Dorsett as the only two players in NFL history to rush for a 99-yard score.

In 2017, Henry shared time in the Titans backfield with DeMarco Murray. Henry led the team with 744 rushing yards on 176 carries, and he added 11 receptions for 136 yards and a touchdown. His five rushing touchdowns tied for second on the club.

As a rookie in 2016, Henry played in 15 games with one start, splitting reps in the backfield with Murray. He carried the ball 110 times for 490 yards and five touchdowns and added 137 yards on 13 receptions. Henry became the third rookie for the franchise in the "Titans era" to score at least five touchdowns in a season, joining Vince Young (seven rushing touchdowns in 2006) and Johnson (nine rushing and one receiving in 2008).

The Heisman Trophy winner played three seasons (2013–2015) at the University of Alabama, where he set numerous school and SEC records while helping his team win a National Championship in 2015. He played in 39 games and totaled 602 carries for 3,591 yards and 42 rushing touchdowns and added 285 yards on 17 career receptions with three receiving scores. During Alabama's victory over Clemson in the 2016 College Football Playoff National Championship, he broke Shaun Alexander's record for most career rushing yards in Alabama history.

In his final collegiate season, Henry rushed for an Alabama and Southeastern Conference record 2,219 yards, which led the nation and ranked fifth in FBS history. He recorded 100-yard rushing games 10 times and had four 200-yard games during the season. His 28 rushing touchdowns were a national best and an SEC record, snapping Tim Tebow and Tre Mason's old mark of 23. In addition to the Heisman, he also won the Doak Walker Award, Walter Camp Award and Maxwell Award, among a multitude of other honors.

Henry is a native of Yulee, Fla.

He extended his streak to 10 consecutive regular season games with at least 80 scrimmage yards. His 31 rushing attempts made up the third-highest total of his career in the regular season.
➢ Against Jacksonville (9/20), rushed for 84 yards on 25 carries and became the fifth player in franchise history to reach the 4,000-yard career rushing mark (4,033). He also became the second player in franchise history to record 11 consecutive regular season games with at least 80 scrimmage yards, joining Chris Johnson (12 from 2009 to 2010) as the only Titans/Oilers to do so. The only active NFL streak better than Henry's is owned by Carolina Panthers running back Christian McCaffrey, who has a 12-game stretch of 80-yard scrimmage games after Week 2. Henry registered his third consecutive regular season game with at least 25 carries, dating back Dec. 29, 2019.

It was also the team record, topping Johnson's 94-yard touchdown run against the New York Jets on Dec. 17, 2012. The only other runs in franchise history of at least 90 yards were Johnson's 91-yard rush against the Houston Texans on Sept. 20, 2009 and a 91-yarder by Sid Blanks against the Jets on Dec. 13, 1964.

Henry's 99-yard touchdown run tied for the longest scrimmage play in NFL history. It was the 15th such play, including his and Dorsett's runs and 13 passing plays. The last 99-yard scrimmage play before Henry's was New York Giants wide receiver Victor Cruz's 99-yard reception from Eli Manning against the New York Jets on Dec. 24, 2011.

Center Ben Jones is in his ninth NFL season and his fifth campaign with the Titans in 2020. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 10, 2016.

From 2012 through 2019, Jones appeared in 127 of 128 possible regular season games, including starts in all but one game during his first four seasons in Tennessee.

In 2019, Jones captained an offensive line that helped running back Derrick Henry win the NFL's rushing title (1,540 yards). He started all three playoff games en route to an AFC Championship Game appearance.

On Dec. 12, 2019, Jones was named the Titans nominee for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award. Considered one of the league's most prestigious honors, the award recognizes an NFL player for outstanding community service activities off the field, as well as excellence on the field.

On Nov. 3, 2019, Jones' streak of 120 consecutive games played and 88 consecutive starts came to an end when he was deactivated with a concussion. At the time, Jones' consecutive games streak tied Kansas City's Mitchell Schwartz for the longest active streak in the NFL among offensive linemen, and his starting streak ranked first in the NFL among all centers.

Jones started all 16 games at center in 2018, registering a start in every contest for the fifth consecutive season, dating back to his third year in Houston (2014).

In his first year in Tennessee, Jones played a key role in an offensive turnaround. The veteran was a key cog in a line that helped the Titans finish 11th overall in offense, third in rushing and tied for seventh in fewest sacks allowed.

Jones was originally selected by the Houston Texans in the fourth round (99th overall) of the 2012 NFL Draft. Over the following four seasons, he started contests at center and both guard spots. He was a starter on two playoff teams in Houston (2012 and 2015).

In 2015, Jones started every game at center, extending his streak of consecutive regular season games played to 64, which was the second-longest active streak among NFL centers at the conclusion of the season.

A native of Centreville, Ala., Jones attended the University of Georgia, where his 49 total starts ranked third in school annals. He was a two-time All-SEC selection by the league's coaches and was named to Georgia's Team of the Decade. As a senior (2011), the team captain earned All-SEC first-team honors.

Cornerback Malcolm Butler is in his seventh NFL season and his third campaign with the Titans in 2020. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 16, 2018.

Butler's 2019 season was cut short due to a wrist injury he suffered in the ninth game (Nov. 3 at Carolina). Until that point, he had 30 tackles, two interceptions, including one for a touchdown, and 10 passes defensed.

In 2018, Butler led the Titans with 13 passes defensed in his first season as a Titan and was second on the team with three interceptions, which included an interception return for a touchdown. He added 56 tackles, one sack, one quarterback pressure, three tackles for loss and one forced fumble in 16 games (11 starts).

Prior to his arrival in Tennessee, Butler spent the first four seasons of his career with the New England Patriots. During his time in New England, he appeared in 59 career regular season games with 48 starts and amassed 204 tackles, eight interceptions, 47 passes defensed, four forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries.

Butler appeared in 11 career playoff games with seven starts with the Patriots. He started all three postseason contests on the Patriots' run to the Super Bowl LI title in 2016 and made the crucial, game-winning interception at the goal line in New England's Super Bowl XLIX victory over the Seattle Seahawks to conclude the 2014 campaign.

In 2017, he played in all 16 games during the regular season with 15 starts and amassed 60 tackles, two interceptions, a sack, 12 passes defensed and three forced fumbles. He saw action in all three postseason games (two starts) and posted four tackles.

In 2016, Butler earned his second consecutive Pro Bowl invitation and was named Associated Press second-team All-Pro after starting all 16 regular season games and recording 63 tackles, one sack, a career-high four interceptions and 17 passes defensed.

As a rookie free agent in 2014, Butler was involved in one of the most memorable plays in Super Bowl history. With 26 seconds remaining against the Seattle Seahawks in Super Bowl XLIX, he intercepted a pass intended for Ricardo Lockette at the goal line, preventing a go-ahead touchdown by the Seahawks and sealing New England's championship victory.

The Vicksburg, Miss., native was originally signed by the New England Patriots on May 19, 2014, following two seasons at the University of West Alabama, where he was a two-time first team All-Gulf South Conference selection at cornerback. He transferred to West Alabama from Hinds (Miss.) Community College.

Click for complete bio
Punter Brett Kern is in his 13th NFL season and his 11th full campaign with the Titans in 2019. He was claimed off waivers by the Titans during the 2009 season.

During his time in Tennessee, Kern has placed his name at the top of most of the franchise's leaderboards at his position. At the end of the 2019 campaign, he ranked as the team's all-time career leader in gross punting average (45.9 yards), net punting average (40.8) and punts placed inside the 20 (333). He punted 839 times in a Titans uniform from 2009–2019, second all-time for the franchise behind Craig Hentrich's 861 punts. Kern owns the top eight net punting seasons in franchise history and six of the team's top eight gross punting seasons.

In 2019, Kern was named to the Pro Bowl for the third consecutive season, and he earned first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors for the first time in his career. His 37 punts inside the 20 led the NFL, and his 43.1-yard net average ranked second in team history.

At the end of the 2019 campaign, Kern's 170 consecutive games played (regular season) ranked second in team history behind only Bruce Matthews (232). Kern's 170 career games ranked sixth in franchise annals and were the most in the organization's "Titans era" (1999–2019).

In 2018, his 47.1-yard gross average ranked fifth in team history, and his 41.7-yard net average ranked second in team annals. He set a franchise record and recorded a career high with 39 of his 74 punts inside the 20-yard line. He finished the season with a career-long streak of 16 consecutive punts placed inside the 20, including every punt in the final three games of the season.

In 2017, Kern had arguably one of the best seasons by a punter in NFL history and was named to his first career Pro Bowl in addition to earning second-team Associated Press All-Pro honors. He punted 75 times for 3,728 yards with 28 punts placed inside the 20-yard line. His 44.6-yard net average broke his own team record and finished second in NFL history behind only Johnny Hekker's 46.0-yard net average in 2016. Kern's 49.7-yard gross average also broke his team mark and finished eighth in NFL history.

In 2015, Kern continued his annual assault on the team's all-time punting records and accomplished a first-of-its-kind NFL feat, becoming the first punter in league history to record 80 or more punts, a net average of 40 yards, and one or zero touchbacks in a single season. His season totals included 88 punts (tied for fifth place in franchise history), a 47.4-yard gross average (second in franchise history), a 40.3 net average (third in franchise history), a career-high 34 punts inside the 20 (third in franchise history) and only one touchback (career low).

In 2014, Kern launched a career-high 88 total punts for a gross average of 46.8 yards and a net average of 40.8 yards, which broke his own single-season team record (40.4-yard net average in 2012).

Kern produced one of the best punting seasons in team history in 2012. He set then-franchise records with a gross punting average of 47.6 yards and a net punting average of 40.4 yards (he later broke both marks).

Kern was claimed by the Titans off waivers from the Denver Broncos on Oct. 27, 2009. He spent the entire 2008 season and the first six games of 2009 campaign in Denver, totaling 73 punts and a 46.5-yard average in 22 games with the Broncos.

In 2008, Kern ranked fifth in the league with a 46.7-yard punting average that marked the third-best season total by a Bronco in club history. At the time, his punting average was the best in NFL history by a rookie. He was named to the All-Rookie team by Pro Football Weekly/PFWA and The Sporting News.

The Grand Island, N.Y., native was originally signed by the Broncos as a rookie free agent on April 28, 2008, following four seasons at the University of Toledo.

2020 Notes:
➢ At Denver (9/14), punted four times for a 51.0-yard gross average and a 47.0-yard net average with two punts inside the 20, including a long punt of 66 yards to help pin the Broncos inside their 10-yard line in the second quarter. He became the seventh player in franchise history to play in 12 seasons with the organization, joining Bruce Matthews (1983–2001), Elvin Bethea (1968–1983), Brad Hopkins (1993–2005), Gregg Bingham (1973–1983), Mike Munchak (1982–1993) and Craig Hentrich (1998–2009). Kern became the first to accomplish the feat exclusively in the "Titans era" (1999–present).
➢ Against Jacksonville (9/20), averaged 40.7 yards on three punts with all three punts placed inside the 20. He pinned the Jaguars on their own six-yard line with a 34-yard punt in the second quarter.

C BEN JONES

➤ Jones switched from jersey #61 to #60 prior to his senior season at Georgia, to honor his father, Steve, a former collegiate star, who was killed in a helicopter crash when he was 10 years old.

➤ Jones' pregame ritual consists of walking barefoot on the field "to get a feel for the turf." The routine began before one game with his brother in high school and after enjoying success that night, it has continued ever since.

➤ When he was 10 years old, Jones suffered a blow to the head with a baseball bat. The impact caused a blood clot to develop on his brain and fractured his skull. The injury kept him out of all athletic activity for a year.

➤ In 2017, Jones established The Jones Mission Fund at The Community Foundation to provide at-risk youth with opportunities they might otherwise not have.

➤ For the past three offseasons, Jones and his wife has hosted the annual Ben Jones Celebrity Clay Shoot. The three events combined have raised more than $400,000 benefitting The Jones Mission Fund.

➤ Jones sponsors a trip to a Titans game each fall for the seniors of his high school's football team in Alabama. The experience includes round trip transportation from his hometown, tickets, a private tailgate, swag bags, and a meet-and-greet with a tour of the Titans practice facility after the game with Jones.

➤ Jones' brother, Clay, played baseball for the University of Alabama and then was drafted by the Detroit Tigers

DL DAQUAN JONES

➤ Jones has a reputation as an upbeat, positive influence. "I've always had that positive mindset, even when things weren't as good," he says. "The guys laugh at me sometimes because I'm always smiling ... It's not that I'm happy all the time, but I just feel like in today's world, if you let anything get you down, it will. The smallest thing will turn into the biggest problem if you let it, so I just try my best to keep a positive mindset."

➤ Jones majored in criminal justice at Penn State and spent a portion of his 2013 summer as an intern observing the Spring Township Police Department near State College.

➤ Jones entered the Penn State program after being rated the second-best offensive lineman in the nation during his playing days at Johnson City High School. He switched to the other side of the ball and made an immediate impact as a true freshman.

➤ Jones lists his father, Steve, as the most inspirational person in his life. Steve raised DaQuan as a single father and one of his father's greatest traits is that he works extremely hard in everything he does. Steve works as an executive chef at Cornell University.

➤ Jones is in the process of launching his own non-profit organization called "Create Your Legacy." In June 2019, he hosted the DaQuan Jones Create Your Legacy Football Camp for more than 100 kids ages 11-18 at Johnson City (N.Y.) High School.

CB JOHNATHAN JOSEPH

➤ Joseph annually hosts "Operation Backpack" to offer students in Rock Hill, S.C. new backpacks for the upcoming school year.

➤ Kalu was heavily involved in the Lincoln community while at Nebraska. He was named to the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team and the Tom Osborne Citizenship Team as a sophomore, junior and senior for his work with Make-A-Wish, NFL Fuel Up to Play 60, the Souper Bowl of Caring, Husker Heroes and Husker Hotline, as well as local hospital and school outreach events.

➤ He earned his degree in child, youth and family studies in December of 2017, finishing his undergraduate work in 3 1/2 years.

T DENNIS KELLY

➤ Kelly went back to school during the 2014 offseason to earn his degree in organizational leadership from Purdue, and in May 2019, Kelly received his MBA from the Kelley School of Business at Indiana University.

➤ Kelly is an avid professional wrestling fan that does not let the opportunity pass him by whenever a live WWE show is in town. He lists the Undertaker as the one person in the world he would like to have dinner with.

➤ Kelly's brother, Tim, played football at Eastern Illinois and is currently the offensive coordinator for the Houston Texans.

➤ Kelly's favorite football player growing up was former Titans great Jevon Kearse.

➤ He and his son, Greyson, share the same June 5 birthday.

➤ Landry's 26 career sacks at Boston College were exceeded in school history by only Mathias Kiwanuka (37.5 from 2002-05).

➤ In 2016, he set a Boston College record and led the nation with 16.5 sacks. His seven forced fumbles also ranked first nationally.

T TAYLOR LEWAN (pronounced leh-WAHN)

➤ Lewan is the co-founder of the popular podcast Bussin' With The Boys with teammate Will Compton. The two friends host guests on an old Monte Carlo Budweiser bus and discuss any and everything.

➤ Lewan owns a taxidermied beaver named Steve. The fedora-donning stuffed rodent, who was a gift from Lewan's wife, Taylin, makes appearances around the Titans locker room, often appearing at the locker of an unsuspecting rookie.

➤ Lewan chose to wear jersey number 77 at Michigan and then at the pro level because of the legacy of Wolverine tackles who have donned the number, including Jake Long and Jon Jansen.

➤ One of Lewan's close friends is former Carolina Panthers defensive end Craig Roh. The two played together as high school seniors and then went to Michigan at the same time.

➤ At the 2014 NFL Scouting Combine, Lewan ran the 40-yard dash in 4.87 seconds, beating all other offensive linemen in his class and clocking the fourth-fastest time among offensive linemen from 2010-14. He also ranked among the top offensive linemen at the 2014 combine in the broad jump (first at nine feet, nine inches), vertical jump (tied for third at 30.5 inches) and three-cone drill (fourth at 7.39 seconds).

In 2018, Long Jr. went into the ring with headgear against his old man for the first time. They went for three 90-second rounds. "He busted up my lip, but it was fun," Long Jr. says. "He was really iffy that I knew how to throw my hands for real. It was just jabs, but it's grown-man strength."

➤ Long was a high school teammate of safety Mike Edwards, who was drafted by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the third round of the 2019 NFL Draft.

DT ISAIAH MACK

They trained together during the weeks leading up to the draft. Now if he ever has questions, he still reaches out to the legendary cornerback.

TITANS TIDBITS: THE BEST OF TITANS OFF-THE-FIELD NOTES

Perry was one of two players signed by the Chicago Bears after a May tryout. He excelled on special teams in the preseason games and sealed his 53-man roster spot as an undrafted free agent.
➢ Perry excelled in track and field as a high school senior, winning the Georgia state titles in the 100 meters and long jump.
➢ Perry's hobbies include photography, and he has a desire to learn how to deep sea fish.

TE MYCOLE PRUITT
➢ The name MyCole has a unique origin. Pruitt's mother's name is Colette. Cole means "people's victory" in Greek baby names. She named him MyCole for My-Victory. MyCole is his mother's victory.
➢ Named best tight end in Missouri Valley Football Conference history as part of the MVFC's 30-year anniversary celebration.
➢ Pruitt graduated in December 2014 with a bachelor's degree in industrial technology from Southern Illinois.
➢ Pruitt attended the same high school as former NFL wide receiver Jeremy Maclin.

WR KALIF RAYMOND
➢ Raymond was a dual-sport collegiate athlete, competing in football as well as track and field during his senior season at Holy Cross. He placed second in the 100-meter dash at the 2015 New England Outdoor Championship with a time of 10.71 seconds.
➢ Raymond received little interest from college football programs when he was a student at Greater Atlanta Christian (Ga.) High School, partly due to a serious injury he suffered as a senior. Undeterred, he began sending emails to colleges with football programs with high academic standards. The only schools to respond were Lehigh, Georgetown and Holy Cross, and he chose the latter.
➢ In preparation for the 2016 NFL Draft, Raymond, who was not invited to the NFL Scouting Combine, was allowed to participate in Harvard's pro day since Holy Cross did not host a pro day.

OLB DERICK ROBERSON

TE JONNU SMITH (first name pronounced JAH-new)
➢ Smith competed in weightlifting, finishing second in the county in the 219-pound weight class in high school at West Port.
➢ Smith credits his mother, Karen, for his successes. Jonnu's father passed away as a result of a tow truck accident when he was four years old and his mother raised all six children by herself. "My mother is my rock. It was tough, but we always got what we needed—not necessarily what we wanted all the time—but what we needed. She was so strong all the time."
➢ Smith endured a lot of challenges as a youngster in Philadelphia and after his brother was arrested and one of his friends was killed on the streets, a decision needed to be made. His family didn't have the financial means to just uproot, so for his own safety Jonnu moved in with his mother's sister and brother-in-law, Darla and Mike Kirkland, in Ocala, Fla. He started playing high school football and even though he was far from a touted recruit, he earned a scholarship to Florida International where his play took off.

CB TYE SMITH
➢ In 2018, Smith began hosting the annual "Simple Greatness" youth football clinic at St. Augustine University in his hometown of Raleigh, N.C. Smith says Simple Greatness to him means, "It can't be measured. It means heart, dedication. It's all the intangibles that we as a society overlook because we look so much at things we can measure."
➢ Smith enjoys volunteering his free time in the community and he helped raise money for Habitat for Humanity in 2018 with a bowling event and kids field day activity in his hometown of Raleigh, N.C.
➢ He has his own website, www.simplegns.com.

TE GEOFF SWAIM
➢ Two-time member of the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll.

➢ Graduated with a business marketing degree in December 2019 from Indiana's No. 10 ranked Kelley School of Business.

T ISAIAH WILSON
➢ Wilson enjoys watching cartoons, and he has a particular fondness for "SpongeBob SquarePants." "I can really dissect it deeply and learn a lot from it," he says.
➢ Wilson is comfortable working in the kitchen, dishing out everything from French toast to mac and cheese and collard greens to his family. He was employed at a summer camp for three summers in high school, spending much of that time in the camp kitchen.
➢ One of his rituals is eating an ice cream sundae the night before every game.
➢ Wilson welcomed the opportunity to begin his career in Music City. He listens to a diverse range of music, listing Travis Scott, Brantley Gilbert, Aretha Franklin and Mötley Crüe as a sampling of his many favorites.
