TITANS HOST CHARGERS AT NISSAN STADIUM

Tennessee Titans (1-7) vs. Los Angeles Chargers (5-3)

Sunday, Nov. 2, 2025 • 12 p.m. CST • Nissan Stadium • Nashville, Tenn. • TV: CBS/WTNF-5

NASHVILLE — The Tennessee Titans (1-7) host the Los Angeles Chargers (5-3) this week. Kickoff at Nissan Stadium (capacity 69,143) is scheduled for 12 p.m. CST on Sunday, Nov. 2.

This is the fourth consecutive season in which the Titans and Chargers will meet. The Titans won in 2023 at Nissan Stadium, while the Chargers took the matchups at SoFi Stadium in Los Angeles in both 2022 and 2024.

THE BROADCAST

This week's contest will be regionally televised on CBS, including Nashville affiliate WTVF NewsChannel 5, as well as on Paramount+ in the Nashville market. The broadcast team includes play-by-play announcer Tom McCarthy, analyst Ross Tucker and reporter Amanda Balionis.

Fans in Nashville can stream live Titans games on mobile devices with NFL+, which offers access to local games and all primetime games on phones and tablets. Out of market, fans can watch every Sunday afternoon game with Sunday Ticket. More information on ways to watch NFL games can be found at nfl.com/ways-to-watch.

The Titans Radio Network and Nashville flagship 104.5 The Zone carry all Titans games across the Mid-South with play-by-play announcer Taylor Zazour, analyst Dave McGinnis, executive producer Rhett Bryan, gameday host Lucas Panzica, and sideline reporters Amie Wells and Will Boling.

TITANS COMING HOME FOR EXTENDED STRETCH

The Titans enter their third week under the direction of interim head coach Mike McCoy. McCoy, who is in his 33rd overall season coaching in the NFL, served as head coach of the Chargers from 2013 to 2016, during which time the team played in San Diego. The Chargers had a top-10 passing offense every season under McCoy.

The Titans traveled to Indianapolis last week to face the AFC South's first-place Colts. No. 1 overall draft pick quarterback Cam Ward started for the eighth consecutive week for Tennessee and passed for 259 yards. He completed a touchdown pass to rookie tight end Gunnar Helm, and running back Tyjae Spears later added a rushing touchdown. However, the Colts prevailed by a final score of 38-14.

Another Titans rookie, fourth-round wide receiver Chimere Dike, led the offense with 93 yards on seven receptions, establishing highs in both categories through eight career games. Dike also leads the NFL with 1,294 all-purpose yards, the most by any NFL player through eight games since New Orleans Saints running back Darren Sproles (1,331) in 2011.

Following this week's clash with the Chargers, the Titans will enjoy a Week 10 bye, followed by three consecutive home games against the Houston Texans (Nov. 16), Seattle Seahawks (Nov. 23) and Jacksonville Jaguars (Nov. 30).

THE CHARGERS

The Chargers will have extra time to prepare for the Titans after playing a Thursday night game against the Minnesota Vikings in Week 8. They won 37-10 to keep pace one game behind the AFC West's first-place team, the Denver Broncos (6-2).

Quarterback Justin Herbert, now in his sixth NFL season, has passed for a league-high 2,140 yards with 16 touchdowns and seven interceptions this season. He threw for three touchdowns in each of the past two games.

Head coach Jim Harbaugh is in his second season with the Chargers after his time at the University of Michigan, where he led the program to a national title in 2023. Harbaugh was the head coach of the San Francisco 49ers from 2011 to 2014 prior to coaching at Michigan. His father, Jack Harbaugh, was the head coach at Western Kentucky University from 1989 to 2002.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR THIS WEEK

WR CHIMERE DIKE

- Can become the franchise's first rookie since 1999 with a minimum of four receptions and 70 receiving yards in three consecutive games.
- With 991 kickoff return yards in 2025, he needs nine more to become the third rookie in franchise history to reach 1,000 kickoff return yards in a season, joining Pacman Jones (1,127 in 2005) and Marc Mariani (1,530 in 2010). There have been eight total seasons in franchise history in which a player recorded 1,000 kickoff return yards.

LB CEDRIC GRAY

- With nine tackles this week, he will reach 80 tackles on the season. He would become the team's fourth player since 2000 to reach the mark in the first nine games of a season (GSIS tackle statistics), joining Keith Bulluck (81 in 2006), Stephen Tulloch (87 in 2010) and Azeez Al-Shaair (89 in 2023).

SAMANI HOOKER

- With 12 career interceptions, he needs one more to tie Jason McCourty (13) for the eighth-highest career total for the franchise during its "Titans era" (1999–present).

OLB DRE'MONT JONES

- Enters the game with a career-best streak of three consecutive games with a sack. A fourth straight game with a sack would make him the first Titans player to accomplish the feat since 2021, when Harold Landry III (five games) and Denico Autry (four) each accomplished the feat.

DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

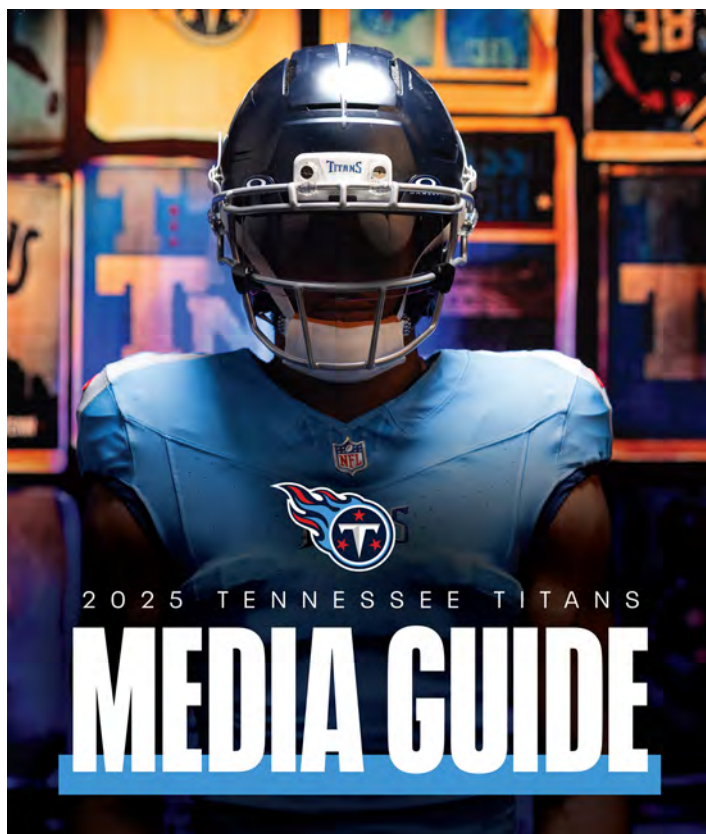

- With 4.5 sacks in 2025, he needs a half sack to record his fifth consecutive season with at least five sacks. He would join Ray Childress (nine consecutive seasons), Jurrell Casey (seven), William Fuller (six) and Sean Jones (six) as the only Titans/Oilers players to do so since individual sacks became an official statistic in 1982.
- With eight tackles for loss entering the week, he needs two more for his third consecutive season with double-digit tackles for loss (10 in 2023 and 11 in 2024).

K JOEY SLYE

- Has made six field goals of at least 50 yards in 2025. With one more, he will join Stephen Gostkowski (seven in 2020) as the only kickers in franchise history with at least seven field goals of 50-plus yards in a season.

QB CAM WARD

- Ward can register his fifth consecutive game with at least 20 completions. In the franchise's "Titans era" (1999 to present), he would join Matt Hasselbeck (2012, Weeks 5-9) as the only quarterbacks to accomplish the feat.
- Can become the first rookie quarterback in franchise history to start the first nine games of a season. Previously, Marcus Mariota held the franchise's longest rookie streak to begin a season with starts in the first five games as a rookie in 2015.

SERIES HISTORY

The Titans and Chargers share a long and storied history. The two franchises, founding members of the American Football League, have met 50 times since 1960. The Chargers lead the series 30-19-1.

In 2024, the Titans faced the Chargers at SoFi Stadium for the second time since the stadium opened in 2020. The Titans held a 7-6 lead late in the first half, but the Chargers scored touchdowns on three of their next four drives to win the game by a final score of 27-17.

The most recent clash at Nissan Stadium was on Sept. 17, 2023. Ryan Tannehill, completed 20 of 24 passes for 246 yards and accounted for two total touchdowns (one passing and one rushing), and Nick Folk's 41-yard field goal in overtime provided the margin in a 27-24 victory.

On Oct. 21, 2018, the Titans played the franchise's first overseas game against the Chargers in London. After a Titans touchdown brought them within one point with 31 seconds remaining, their two-point conversion attempt to take the lead failed, leaving the Chargers with a 20-19 win.

The Titans were founded as the Houston Oilers and moved to Tennessee in 1997 before becoming the Titans in 1999. The Chargers began in Los Angeles in 1960, moved to San Diego in 1961, and moved back to Los Angeles in 2017. The final time the Titans visited Qualcomm Stadium in San Diego was 2016.

On Sept. 18, 1960, the two clubs met for the Oilers' inaugural home game at Houston's Jeppesen Stadium. The Oilers won that matchup 38-28. In November of that same year, the Chargers won the rematch in Los Angeles, 24-21. The AFL's top two teams would meet once more that season—a rubber match for the first-ever AFL Championship. The Oilers were victorious at home, rejoicing in a 24-16 win that earned each member of the team an extra $1,016.42.

The following season, they met again for the AFL crown, and the Oilers again were the victors in a 10-3 final. They would clash twice more in the playoffs, first in a 17-14 Oilers win in a 1979 Divisional contest. Following the 2007 season, the Chargers hosted the Titans in a Wild Card matchup and earned their first victory in the postseason series, winning 17-6. It was part of the Chargers' eight-game winning streak against the Titans, lasting from 1993 until a Titans victory in 2013.

The Chargers and Oilers marked another significant day on Sept. 13, 1998, when the then-Tennessee Oilers, who played their home games in Memphis in 1997, hosted their first regular season home game in Nashville in front of 41,089 fans at Vanderbilt Stadium. To their dismay, the Chargers spoiled the festivities by handing the Oilers a 13-7 defeat.

TITANS-CHARGERS: THE LAST MEETING

2024 Week 10: Titans 17, Chargers 27
 Sunday, Nov. 10, 2024 • 1:00 p.m. PST • SoFi Stadium

In Week 10 of the 2024 season, the Titans traveled to Los Angeles and lost by a score of 27-17 to the Chargers.

The Chargers started the game with a 12-play, 68-yard drive that culminated in a 21-yard field goal by K Cameron Dicker to take an early 3-0 lead.

The Titans answered immediately, scoring on a 41-yard touchdown strike from QB Will Levis to WR Calvin Ridley, which capped a seven-play, 72-yard drive on the team's opening possession.

Early in the second quarter, the Chargers drove down to the Tennessee 24-yard line but a pass breakup in the end zone from CB Roger McCreary on third down forced another Dicker field goal, this one from 37 yards out to make it 7-6 with 12:07 left in the first half.

On the next possession, the Titans had a chance to extend their lead facing first-and-10 at the Los Angeles 21-yard line. But two penalties pushed Tennessee back to the Los Angeles 39-yard line and K Nick Folk missed the 49-yard field goal attempt.

The Chargers then took a 13-7 lead with 1:55 left in the half on a four-yard touchdown run by QB Justin Herbert, who scrambled for the score on fourth-and-one.

The Titans went three-and-out on their next possession and the Chargers took over at their own 13-yard line. Three plays later, DT Jeffery Simmons sacked Herbert as he was releasing the football. The ball was knocked loose and McCreary picked it up and returned it 20 yards for an apparent touchdown. Officials on the field ruled it a touchdown to make it 13-13. However, the replay official reviewed the fumble ruling and the call was reversed to an incomplete pass leaving the score 13-7 heading into the half.

On the opening drive of the second half, the Titans cut the lead to 13-10 on a 27-yard field goal from Folk, which capped an 11-play, 62-yard drive. Levis completed three passes for 44 yards and added 12 yards rushing on two attempts on the march.

However, WR Derius Davis returned the ensuing kickoff 56 yards to the Tennessee 43-yard line. The Chargers extended the lead seven plays later on a 16-yard touchdown pass from Herbert to WR Quentin Johnson to make it 20-10 with 3:24 left in the third.

The Titans were forced to punt on their next possession after Levis was sacked twice on the drive and the Chargers took over at their own five-yard line. From there, Los Angeles went 95 yards on 11 plays and capped off the drive with a one-yard touchdown run from RB Hassan Haskins to make it 27-10 with 7:39 left in the game.

Later in the fourth quarter, Levis connected with Ridley for a 15-yard touchdown, which capped a nine-play, 61-yard drive to make it 27-17 with just 49 seconds left on the clock. The Chargers recovered Folk's onside kick to seal the victory and drop the Titans to 2-7 on the season.

Jim Harbaugh was introduced as the 19th head coach in Chargers history in January 2024 after nine seasons as the head coach at the University of Michigan.

In his first season with the Chargers, Harbaugh led Los Angeles to a playoff berth with an 11-6 record. The defense ranked first in the NFL allowing 17.7 points per game and the offense only surrendered nine turnovers, good for second least league-wide.

While coaching at his alma mater, Harbaugh posted an 86-25 record, capturing three straight Big-Ten Championships (2021-23), three straight appearances in the College Football Playoff (2021-23) and a College Football Playoff National Championship in 2023 with a 15-0 record. This is Harbaugh's second stint as an NFL head coach. He spent four seasons (2011-14) leading the San Francisco 49ers to three consecutive NFC championship games and an appearance in Super Bowl XLVII.

Nine players from Harbaugh's Michigan teams were eventual first-round picks in the NFL Draft, including quarterback J.J. McCarthy (2024), defensive end Aidan Hutchinson (2022) and linebacker Devin Bush (2019).

With the 49ers, Harbaugh's teams posted a 49-22-1 record. He was named AP NFL Coach of the Year in his first season as head coach and led a team that went 6-10 in 2010 to a home NFC Championship game in January of 2012. The following season, San Francisco qualified for their first Super Bowl since 1994 and fell to the Ravens, coached by Harbaugh's brother, John. In 2013, the 49ers again advanced to the championship game. During Harbaugh's time with the team, 17 49ers were named to 30 combined Pro Bowls and eight were recognized as first-team AP All-Pro, including linebacker tandem Patrick Willis and NaVorro Bowman.

Prior to his time as an NFL head coach, Harbaugh spent four seasons (2007-10) leading Stanford University and three seasons (2004-06) with the University of San Diego. At Stanford, he helped the Cardinal to 29 wins during his tenure. At San Diego, the Toreros produced a 29-6 record with Harbaugh as head coach.

Harbaugh's NFL coaching career began in 2002 as the quarterbacks coach with the Oakland Raiders. That season, Raiders quarterback Rich Gannon earned AP MVP honors and the Raiders advanced to Super Bowl XXXVII.

As a player, Harbaugh played 14 seasons (1987-2000) as an NFL quarterback. He was selected by the Bears in the first-round (25th overall) of the 1987 NFL Draft and would go on to play for five teams and throw for 26,288 yards and 128 touchdowns. He also earned Comeback Player of the Year and Pro Bowl honors in 1995. Harbaugh's coaching experience began during his NFL playing career as he was also an unpaid assistant at Western Kentucky for seven years (1994-2001) while his father, Jack, served as head coach.

In four playing seasons (1983-86) at Michigan, he led the Wolverines to a 21-3-1 record as starter and earned first-team All-American honors in 1986. That season, Harbaugh also finished third in Heisman Trophy voting.

Harbaugh is a native of Toledo, Ohio. His son, Jay, is the special teams coordinator for the Seahawks. His older brother, John, is the head coach of the Ravens.

LAST WEEK VS. THE COLTS

Week 8: Titans 14, Colts 38
Sunday Oct. 26, 2025 • 4:25 p.m. EDT • Lucas Oil Stadium

In Week 8 of the 2025 season, the Titans traveled to Lucas Oil Stadium to face division rival Indianapolis Colts and fell by a score of 38-14.

The Colts jumped out to an early 3-0 lead with a 43-yard field goal by K Michael Badgley on the opening drive of the game.

After the Titans were forced to punt on their first offensive possession, the Colts extended their lead to 10-0 on a RB Jonathan Taylor 18-yard touchdown run that capped an eight-play, 73-yard drive with 15 seconds left in the first quarter.

Tennessee responded with a six-play, 69-yard drive that resulted in a one-yard touchdown pass from QB Cam Ward to TE Gunnar Helm to make it 10-7 with 11:14 left in the second quarter. The touchdown was set up by RB Tyjae Spears who broke through for a 41-yard run which put the ball at the Indianapolis 20-yard line.

However, the Colts immediately responded with another touchdown to extended the lead to 17-7. QB Daniel Jones found WR Michael Pittman Jr. on a 21-yard touchdown pass.

With 26 seconds left in the second quarter, the Titans started to drive from their own 20-yard line. Ward connected with WR Elic Ayomanor for 26 yards and WR Chimere Dike for 14 yards to bring the Titans to the Colts 40-yard line. But K Joey Slye missed the 58-yard field goal attempt to keep the score 17-7 heading into the half.

The Titans opened the second half with the ball, but the drive stalled and Tennessee opted to punt on fourth-and-three at the Colts 42-yard line. The punt resulted in a touchback and the Colts took over at their own 20-yard line.

Taylor scored on the next play with an 80-yard touchdown run, making it 24-7 with 11:10 left in the third quarter.

After a three-and-out by the Titans on the next possession, the Colts extended the lead even further with a 10-yard touchdown pass from Jones to WR Josh Downs which capped an eight-play, 74-yard drive to make it 31-7 with 5:12 left in the third.

A 19-yard pass from Jones to Taylor made it 38-7 at the start of the fourth quarter.

The Titans got on the board again late with a three-yard touchdown run by Spears to make the final score 38-14.

NOTES FROM LAST WEEK'S GAME

TEAM NOTES

- The Titans played their final road game until Dec. 7 at Cleveland. Until then, they will have four home games and a bye. They host the Los Angeles Chargers next Sunday at Nissan Stadium (noon CT).
- Eight rookies played for the Titans, marking the sixth time in eight games that at least eight rookies participated.
- Two players made their Titans debut at Indianapolis: wide receiver James Proche II and linebacker Joe Bachie.
- The Titans were penalized only three times for the second consecutive week. It marked the team's first back-to-back games with three or fewer penalties since Dec. 20-27, 2020.
- The Titans won the time-of-possession battle at Indianapolis with a season-best time of possession of 34 minutes and 21 seconds.

TEAM NOTES – OFFENSE

- For the second time in 2025 (Oct. 5 at Arizona), four rookies started on offense. At Indianapolis, quarterback Cam Ward, tight end Gunnar Helm, and wide receivers Elic Ayomanor and Chimere Dike were all in the starting lineup, marking the first time that foursome started the same game.
- Titans rookies Chimere Dike, Elic Ayomanor and Gunnar Helm combined for 13 receptions, 168 receiving yards and one touchdown. The yardage total was the third-highest mark of the 2025 NFL season by a rookie class.
- For the first time in the franchise's "Titans era" (1999 to present), the Titans rookie class accounted for a minimum of 10 receptions and 150 yards in a game (13 for 168).

TEAM NOTES – DEFENSE

- The Titans recorded three sacks against the Colts, the most allowed by the Indianapolis offense in 2025. Prior to the game, the Colts had allowed six sacks all season and no more than two sacks in any game.
- After four sacks in Week 7 vs. New England, Tennessee logged consecutive games of three or more total sacks for the first time since Week 3-4 of the 2023 season.
- Tennessee held the Colts to three third-down conversions on nine attempts. The 33.3 percent third-down conversion rate was the Colts' second-lowest figure of the season, only higher than a 25 percent rate at Tennessee on Sept. 21.

WR ELIC AYOMANOR

- Totaled 52 yards on four receptions.
- Logged his eighth consecutive game to begin his career with at least two receptions, joining Tetairoa McMillan and Emeka Egbuka as the NFL's only rookie wide receivers to accomplish the feat.
- Caught a 26-yard pass from Cam Ward in the second quarter.

CB DARRELL BAKER JR.

- Tied for the team lead with five tackles before leaving the game early with an injury.

- Recorded three tackles, including a stop for loss.
- Added a pass defended, breaking up a pass intended for Michael Pittman Jr. in the second quarter.

WR CHIMERE DIKE

- Led the team with seven receptions and 93 receiving yards.
- Added 175 yards on seven kickoff returns (25.0 avg.).
- His 93 receiving yards were the most by a Titans rookie since Treyton Burks' 111 at Green Bay on Nov. 17, 2022.
- Became the first rookie for the Titans to register back-to-back games with at least 70 yards receiving since Treyton Burks in Week 11-12 of the 2022 season.

- His 269 all-purpose yards at Indianapolis were the most in any NFL game in 2025 through Sunday, Oct. 26. The total ranked third for the Titans since the beginning of the 1999 season behind only Derrick Mason's 302 all-purpose yards against Buffalo on Dec. 14, 2003 and Chris Johnson's 284 against Houston on Sept. 20, 2009.
- His 175 kickoff return yards were the most in a game by a Titans player since Leon Washington had 209 against Denver on Dec. 8, 2013.
- Caught a 21-yard pass to convert a third-and-10 in the first quarter.
- Increased his season total to an NFL-high 1,294 all-purpose yards, including 991 kickoff return yards, 97 punt return yards, 189 receiving yards and 17 rushing yards.
- His 1,294 all-purpose yards are the most for the Titans through eight games since Derrick Mason's 1,382 in 2000.
- His 1,294 all-purpose yards are the most by any NFL player through eight games since New Orleans Saints running back Darren Sproles had 1,331 in 2011.

LB CEDRIC GRAY

- Tied for the team lead with five tackles, including a stop for loss.
- Through the afternoon slate of games on Oct. 26, he ranked fifth in the NFL with 71 tackles in 2025.

CB MARCUS HARRIS

- Recorded his first career tackles on defense, finishing with two stops.

P JOHNNY HEKKER

- Punted five times for a 43.0-yard average (32.4 net avg.) with one punt placed inside the 20.
- Added a special teams tackle.
- Became the 27th NFL player to reach 1,000 career punts.

TE GUNNAR HELM

- Totaled 23 yards and a touchdown on a pair of receptions.
- Scored his first career touchdown on a one-yard catch in the second quarter.
- Hauled in a pass for 22 yards in the fourth quarter.

S AMANI HOOKER

- Recorded a season-high and career-best-tying three passes defended. The number matched his personal best against New England on Nov. 3, 2024.
- Added five tackles to tie for the team lead.

WR VAN JEFFERSON

- A six-yard reception in the third quarter was the 150th catch of his career.

OLB DRE'MONT JONES

- Logged his third straight game with a sack by bringing down Daniel Jones in the second quarter. It marked the first such streak of his career.
- Finished with two tackles and two quarterback hits.

TE CHIG OKONKWO

- Totaled 53 yards on four receptions.
- Picked up 23 yards on a reception in the third quarter.

NOTES FROM LAST WEEK'S GAME

RB TONY POLLARD

- Rushed for 44 yards on a team-high 11 attempts and added a nine-yard reception.

DL C.J. RAVENELL

- Logged his first career start.

DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

- Inactive at Indianapolis, ending his streak of 20 consecutive games played and started. It was the second-longest such streak of his career.

RB TYJAE SPEARS

- Led the offense with 59 rushing yards and a touchdown on nine attempts and added three receptions for 23 yards.
- His 82 scrimmage yards ranked fifth for his career.
- Scored his seventh career rushing touchdown (first of 2025) on a three-yard run in the fourth quarter.
- Converted a third-and-six with a career-long 41-yard attempt in the second quarter. It was the team's longest rushing attempt since Tony Pollard broke for 41 yards against Miami on Aug. 30, 2024.

NT T'VONDRE SWEAT

- Recorded a sack of Daniel Jones in the first quarter. It was his second consecutive game with a sack, the first such streak of his career.
- Added two tackles.

QB CAM WARD

- Completed 22-of-38 passes for 259 yards and a touchdown.
- Became the first Titans quarterback since Marcus Mariota in 2015 to have 20 or more completions in four consecutive team games.
- Eclipsed the 250-yard passing mark for the third time in four games.
- Threw a 21-yard pass to Chimere Dike to convert a third-and-10 in the first quarter and added a 26-yard pass to Elic Ayomanor in the second quarter.
- Completed a 23-yard pass to Chig Okonkwo in the third quarter and a 22-yard strike to Gunnar Helm in the fourth quarter.
- Became the first rookie quarterback in franchise history to start the first eight games of a season. Previously, Marcus Mariota held the franchise's longest rookie streak to begin a season with starts in the first five games as a rookie in 2015.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

SUNDAY, OCT. 26, 2025

INTERIM HEAD COACH MIKE MCCOY

Opening Statement:

All right, just a couple things. As you saw, a couple of injuries. 99 (Ali Gaye) went down with the knee injury, 25 (Xavier Woods) with the ham(string), and then 39 (Darrell Baker Jr.) with a concussion. That's kind of the injuries that we had. As you saw, a couple of our guys got rolled up that went back in the game, so I'll give you any updates tomorrow. Okay, looking back at the game, you look at it, we had an opportunity at the end of the half. I think the offense did a great job of getting in position there to kick a field goal, and unfortunately, we missed it. Knowing, you go out, you talk about it – scoring at the end of the half and then getting the ball to start the second half – and unfortunately, it didn't work out that way. And then, after that first series, getting outscored 28-nothing there, that was a tough way to start, get going, get rolling there. So, we've got to do a better job overall as an entire football team, and the run defense has got to be able to stop the run. We understand we came in here against a really good team that runs the ball. We had missed opportunities – third down situations during the game early on, an opportunity for a big play we didn't hit. So, it's just – we've got to play better.

Why not go for the fourth-and-three there at the Colts' 42-yard line?

Well, it was something we talked about. In hindsight, you look back. The last thing I thought they were going to do would have the big touchdown run after that. So, yeah, you look back and say, 'I should have gone for that.' But initially, when I said to punt it, you pin them deep, and the defense – they've done a nice job through the second quarter – and you pin them deep, get the ball back. But looking back at it, that's one you wish you had just went for it.

You're coaching in situations like that just as conservatively as Brian Callahan was. Why not come in and be different than Brian?

Like I've said for you guys from day one, you look at situations, use certain things. What was the success of the play before that? Certain things, you go – how are you playing in third down? There are so many things that go into it, and I just talked to you about why.

But what about the question? Why not be different than Brian Callahan?

I'm my own self. I'm Mike (McCoy).

Did Cam Ward express any frustration about not going for it there with you?

I did not talk to him about anything after that. I did not.

You didn't hear him yelling at you?

To be perfectly honest with you, I don't hear a lot during the game with the crowd noise and all that stuff. I've always been that focused and concentrated on the next thing. So, no, I did not hear anything.

How much of an emotional swing was it after the Colts' long touchdown run?

That's a tough pill to swallow. For an entire football team, when you see that, when that comes up like that, especially with what the score was and the approach going into it. A home run like that is tough.

You have a young team. Obviously, a lot of them are experiencing something like this for the first time. What do you say to some of the younger players to keep them in the season and make sure they don't check out?

Well, there's only one way to do this, and there's a lot of football left. And you're always – every day you go out there, you're trying to get better, you're trying to do certain things, and we have some very talented young players that have done a really nice job. You see some guys that made the plays today. You just keep grinding, and that's the only thing you can do. Week in and week out, every day the players come in they bust their tails. We've got to play better and coach better all around.

Do you sense the difficulty of this grind weighing on those players?

I mean, I think it's frustrating – you're not winning games – I think for anybody. But they've got, like I've told you guys every day – they bust their tails. They've had great weeks of practice. We've got to play better more consistently. Play complementary football. We've talked about – we're going to stick together. Everyone's got to stick together and just keep fighting and learn from this. Go home tonight, watch the film tomorrow and learn from it.

How detrimental would you say this losing is for Cam Ward's development? After all, that's the big picture here in this season.

Well, Cam (Ward) has a burning desire to win. He's very fiery. He wants to win. He puts in the time. He's trying to do everything he can to get better week in and week out. So, he's a competitor, and that's what you love about him. You love that about all the guys on the team – the way they've worked and how bad they want to win. It stinks. It stinks losing. You go in there and it's the same thing, and we've got to find a way to win one of these things.

Is there an area where you guys are discernibly better that you're able to identify?

Well, we'll go home and watch the tape and look at it and evaluate it and see what we did well this week, and what we need to improve on, like we do after every game.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

Is it possible some of these results could change dramatically? Come out in a game and say we're going to be more aggressive. We're going to be unrecognizable as the Titans that are 1-7. We're going to do things in a vastly different way.

Yeah, you always go – I mean, you go into any game and you're not trying to go out there and do certain things that don't work, things like that. You're always trying to execute. You make decisions for the team to do what you think is best at the time, and sometimes that doesn't work out. No one is trying to go out there and do something that's not going to work. You have a plan. You go into it. You say, 'If it's this down and distance, we're going to think about doing this or this,' whatever that is. And unfortunately, some of those things didn't work out.

One of the things it continues to be is like a run on first down, incompleteness and now you're third-and-long – it's a sack. Are you guys looking at this and saying, 'Hey, you know what, we're a little bit predictable – we need to get away from that and try some different things?'

Well, I think anytime you look at a situation, I mean, if you look at the whole year, we've had way too many third-and-longs. There's a number of different reasons. Whether, I mean, look at any way you possibly get in third-and-long, we've probably done it this year. That's something you always look at and say, 'Hey, how do you avoid that? How do you stay out of that third-and-long category?' So, we've got to do a better job with that, and it's just being more efficient on first and second down. And especially when you're playing a team like we just did that's very efficient. They move the ball and you have limited possessions and time, so you've got to do a great job on first and second down, and then you have to be able to convert on third down to make those plays.

Does the efficiency that you're talking about come from the plan you're referring to or the players needing to play better?

Well, I think it's a combination of everything. Like I said, we're all in this together. It's not – I mean, there are going to be plays you go into a game plan, you think it's this coverage and play something else, it's not open. There are breakdowns, whether it's protection, whether it's decisions, whether it's – I mean, there are millions of things of why plays don't work. So, it's a combination of everything. When you say being efficient, there are a number of things you look at. Was it a certain type of run scheme? Is it a pass protection? Is it a certain pass route? Is someone not winning one-on-one? So, every play, there's something you coach and you critique of why it's successful and why it's not. So, it's never just, 'This is the only reason why at this down and distance you're not winning.'

This is the fourth time in the season that the loss has been by at least 18 points. How hard is that to keep the message out there and to keep the players bought in when you're falling so short?

Well, any loss is tough. It doesn't matter what the score is. And you go in the locker with the players, depending on how the game goes, you look at – they work so hard. They deserve to win. And it's tough to lose, regardless of what the score is. I know you mentioned the differential there, and it's hard. We've got to play better.

QUARTERBACK CAM WARD

How tough is it offensively when you fall behind like you did today and the defense looks for a it to be a little more one dimensional going forward?

It's tough because we've – it's been like that the majority of the time. So, we constantly have to try and fight ourselves back into the game. That's the biggest thing that we have to change, just from week to week. That's something that we're trying to change. We've got to be able to help the defense out earlier in the game. We can't just have spurts here and there. We've got to help them from the first play of the game.

How much would you like to be aggressive on that fourth-and-three and go for it?

If it was up to me, I want to go for it every chance I could, just because I'm a competitor. That's just my breed. That's just what I want to do – my football journey. I just think it's a missed opportunity just for us as a team to get a first down, keep the drive moving. But I mean, we weren't down that much at that time, so we're going to always support whatever decision is made. But at the end of the day, we shouldn't put ourselves in that position. We just got the first down on third down.

Were you able to give Mike McCoy that feedback before the punt?

I mean, I'm thinking I'm going for it as soon as I cross the 50 every time. I'm not talking to him on a headset. I'm talking – Bo (Hardegree) is talking to me on the headset because he's calling the plays but I mean I'm trying to go for it, but I know we're going to end up going for it eventually.

Early in the game, you missed opportunity to Elic Ayomanor. You had some things to say afterwards. What happened there? Did you want him to come out of his break differently? Did he slow down, try to track the ball? What happened on that?

I just think I didn't throw a catchable ball for him, and I got an unbelievable relationship with E (Elic Ayomanor). He's one of the first people in the building every day and the last one to leave. He watches an insane amount of film, and I got to put the ball in his radius for him to make plays for us. I think if I did that at that time, it would have been a touchdown. So, that's something that me and him have got to click on next week and we got to make it work.

Was that one where you wanted to put a little more loft on it?

I think if I just throw it right at him instead of putting more loft on it, I think he'll have a better chance to get to the ball and score a touchdown.

How deflating was that sequence right after halftime? You guys weren't able to finish that drive in the third, and then they score on a long touchdown run. How much do you think that kind of changed everything?

It's not deflating. We just got to score. That's the biggest thing. At no point in the game it ever gets deflating for us. We know how to bounce back from adversity. We just have to do our job on offense. When the defense gives up a touchdown, we have to go respond with points. We can't just move the ball and then get stopped on third down every now and then. We just got to finish drives with points.

You guys had some positive moments in this game early. Is it hard to appreciate them?

Yeah, we had some positive moments, but it wasn't enough to win the game. I have to do more. I have to be more accurate with the football. We have to consistently move the ball up and down the field and end with points. I think the last couple of weeks we've been better just moving the ball, but we have to end it with points. If we don't score points, we're not going to be in a lot of games.

Did you expect it to be this hard to be consistent as a pro, to be competitive as a team in the pros?

I mean, it's not really a crazy amount of hard. It's one person not doing our job whether it's me on first down or someone else on second down. It's been like that from week-to-week. It's died down at times, but we have to be just a great offense in terms of not having Mas, myself getting completions for the offense, and then just moving the ball. And once we do that, I think we'll be one of the better offenses.

Do you feel like you're closer to doing that? You've been saying this since the beginning of the season. Do you feel like that is coming along?

It is coming along. I think it's coming along a lot for us rookies now and myself. We're a very young group. But the biggest thing is like we don't make excuses. We really take in day-to-day process. We try to get better every week, and we try to go win every week.

Did you expect more to change since the coaching change? It seems like it's very much the same deal with being conservative and not being more aggressive?

I think we're an aggressive offense, especially the last couple of weeks we've been aggressive. I just think we have to capitalize on aggression. From myself, just move consistently, moving the sticks on first and second down. I think when we get behind the chains that's when we end up putting ourselves in the hole. I mean, I think Bo (Hardegree) is doing an unbelievable job in the situation that he's in. From being the quarterback coach to calling the plays, him and Nick (Holz), they work eye-to-eye, and they're for sure putting us in the best, situation every week. We just got to do our 11 – the people on the field, and go capitalize on the big-time plays.

We've talked about the problems that are cropping up. Does it feel like that it's just something that's minor, or do you feel like it's something that can't be fixed?

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

I think it's something that's minor. We've got some key guys out just with the unfortunate circumstances and injuries. Then the guys who get a chance to play, we've got to maximize opportunity. I have to maximize my opportunity every play, and we just got to keep on going. I mean, at the end of the day we have nothing to lose. We got to keep playing football and we've got to man up and try to win next week.

With the punt, in the heat of the moment obviously coming to the sideline, you were expressing your frustration. Can you just kind of talk about how you measure what you do coming off the field there where you're expressing yourself to the coach?

I think I'm a competitor. Our whole offense is like that, our whole defense is like that from O-line to D-line – those guys, they compete every day in practice. So, I just think the biggest thing (is) that we want to be is an aggressive team, especially with the record we have right now. We have to be an aggressive team at the end of the season to get to where we want to be. So, we just got to keep on going one day at a time. We got to try to win the game next week.

Mike McCoy, he'll mention a lot of times you're not the first rookie to struggle, and he always points to Peyton Manning. I know you have a relationship with him. Have you gotten any input from him because he struggled really badly right here in this building?

Just keep on going one day at a time. You see different things every game, but you also got to be able to be a reactionary football player. I think I got better at the little things each and every game. Just having a relationship with Peyton (Manning), I mean it's cool because he constantly tells me just the little things I have to work on, and then a little things will turn into just being consistent on offense.

Any example of a little thing?

I'll say the best advice that he gave me is you've just got to continue to be yourself, no matter how high you get or how low you get. Just got to continue to be yourself, lead the guys, you know how to lead the way, and then just play football how I know how to play football. Then just be a great teammate and try to win games.

Do you think this losing is stunting your development, or how can you benefit from it in the future?

I don't think it's stunting it because whether you win or lose, you will get better and you also got to get coached up on certain things every game. Nobody in the NFL is going to play a perfect game each and every night. So, I just stay just right here at the same time. I never get too high, I never get too low. Try to do the best for my teammates to win.

WIDE RECEIVER CHIMERE DIKE

How tough is it on a day like today where you fall behind early, and the defense knows you're going to be a little bit more one dimensional? How difficult can that be?

Yeah, I mean, I think that that's a strength of the Colts, right? Like they've had leads all season. They have a really good running game, and it's tough to get behind on them. But at the same time, we had opportunities down the stretch. We've just got to be able to clean up offensively and as a team.

That relationship with you and Cam Ward seems to be developing. Is there extra work you guys are doing after practice or within the building, or what is behind that?

I think just always going in and watching film (and) understanding what he sees. But at the end of the day, we didn't get the win. We've just got to keep getting better. At the end of the day, our job is to win football games for the Tennessee Titans. So, if we're not doing that, we've got to figure out ways to keep getting better and improving.

Are you able to appreciate the positive moments in games where things don't end up going so well?

Yeah, I think you always have to take the good. But I think that also leads to you can't be complacent. We're not playing good enough football right now to win games at a consistent enough level. So, it's on us to be able to look ourselves in the mirror and be able to look at like, 'What can I do better?' I didn't play perfect game today. Nobody did. So, there are ways that we can improve to help the team.

What's keeping you going personally, even with the losses?

My teammates. First off, I see the work that we put in. This is the opportunity to represent the community of Nashville with the Titans. This is what I've dreamed of my whole life. So, regardless of what's happening, it's my job to go in the building, have positive energy and stick to the process.

RUNNING BACK TYJAE SPEARS

How tough is it on a day like today where you fall behind early and the defense knows you're going to be a little bit more one dimensional?

It's definitely tough, man. Because we were right there, we were inside the fight. It was 10-7, something like that. We were inside the fight, man, and it's tough.

How do you stay upbeat? How do you keep others upbeat when the results have been what they've been?

Just stick to the routine. I keep the main thing the main thing. Get home tonight, if you want to feel sorry for yourself, feel sorry for yourself tonight, but when tomorrow comes, flip the switch. It's back to the next game that we're getting prepared for. So, you can't stay in your feelings for that long. You look and see what you did good, you look and see what you did bad and build on both.

You've got some opportunities and it seems like you made the most of them. Do you feel like you had a little jump today and good to contribute like you did, even in a loss?

Yeah, I'm always blessed and always appreciative for everything that I get. But just look and see what I could have done better, look and see what I did good and keep on building off of it.

GUARD KEVIN ZEITLER

You guys moved the ball pretty well, but just couldn't seem to cash in once you got into the red zone. How frustrating is that on a day like this?

I mean, in the NFL, the only way to do anything is score points. And no matter how, no matter how long it takes, no matter how fast it is, you've got to score points. And right now, that's our number one block I think, and we need to get that done.

How was Cam Ward during the game, in the huddle and everything like that? It looked like at one point, he got a little frustrated after not going for it on that fourth down near midfield. Was he like that in the huddle, was he keeping his composure?

Cam (Ward) is just the epitome of competitiveness. He always wants to keep competing. He wants to keep going, go for the fourth, keep going until the clock runs out, keep trying to score, keep trying to get better. And that's what you need as a QB, even when things aren't going the way we want to right now. We're going to need that fire in us throughout the rest of this year. And you know, for the rest of his career moving forward.

As a veteran, do you like seeing that from a rookie quarterback with that competitive fire?

Yeah, absolutely. We need that. As an old guy, you love when the young guys are fiery and keep you motivated and keeping you going.

2025 TITANS SCHEDULE NOTES

SEASON NOTES

- PLAYOFF OPPONENTS: The Titans have six total games against five playoff teams from last season. They have home games against Kansas City, Houston, Los Angeles Chargers and Los Angeles Rams and road contests at Houston and Denver. Four of those six games are against 2024 division winners: Houston twice (AFC South), Kansas City (AFC West) and the Los Angeles Rams (NFC West). The six games against reigning playoff clubs matches the total from last year. Prior to the 2024 season, the last time the Titans had six or fewer games against reigning playoff clubs was the 2020 campaign when they had five such games.
- TV BREAKDOWN: Excluding their Week 18 matchup with the Jaguars, which has yet to be assigned a broadcasting network, the Titans are currently scheduled for 10 games on CBS and six games on FOX. Due to the NFL's flex scheduling, some contests could be moved to a different network from the one appearing on the initial schedule.
- TOP DRAFT PICKS: The Titans selected Cameron Ward with this year's first overall pick. The team will face four of the next five selected players from the draft in Travis Hunter (second overall – Jacksonville), Will Campbell (fourth overall - New England Patriots), Mason Graham (fifth overall – Cleveland) and Ashton Jeanty (sixth overall - Las Vegas).
- HEAD COACHING EXPERIENCE: There are seven NFL head coaches who were hired by their teams this offseason, and the Titans will face four of them: New Orleans' Kellen Moore, Jacksonville's Liam Coen, Las Vegas' Pete Carroll and New England's Mike Vrabel. The Titans will also face off against two of the top five longest tenured coaches: Kansas City's Andy Reid (third-longest tenure – 13 years) and the Los Angeles Rams' Sean McVay (fifth-longest tenure – nine years).
- THREE GAMES BASED UPON 2024 FINISH: Every NFL team has two intraconference games and one interconference matchup based on the previous year's standings. As a result of the Titans' fourth-place AFC South finish in 2024, they host the AFC East's fourth-place New England Patriots and the NFC South's fourth-place New Orleans Saints, and they visit the AFC North's fourth-place Cleveland Browns. Overall, the Titans' strength of schedule is .450 (130-159) based upon their opponents' combined 2024 record, the 29th most difficult schedule out of 32 NFL teams.
- TIME (ZONE) TRAVEL: The Titans will play in every continental United States time zone at least twice during the 2025 regular season. They will stay in the Central time zone for 10 matchups, including every home contest as well as at Houston. The Titans have three trips to the Eastern time zone (at Cleveland, at Jacksonville and at Indianapolis). The farthest they will travel is Santa Clara, Calif., to face the 49ers (Pacific time zone). Tennessee will visit Allegiant Stadium in Las Vegas for the first time to face the Raiders on the franchise's first trip to the state of Nevada. Other road trips include Glendale, Ariz., to meet the Cardinals and Denver, Colo., to face the Broncos (both in the Mountain time zone). This is the first time since 2019 in which the team will play in every continental U.S. time zone.
- ORIGINAL AFL TEAMS: This season, the Titans will face off against five of the other seven original AFL teams: Kansas City Chiefs (formerly Dallas Texans), New England Patriots (Boston Patriots), Los Angeles Chargers, Las Vegas Raiders (Oakland Raiders) and Denver Broncos.

WEEK-BY-WEEK NOTES

- WEEK 4 (A) & WEEK 11 (H) vs. HOUSTON TEXANS: The reigning AFC South champion Texans have won the division the last two years. The two teams have split the season series in six of the last eight years, including last year when the Titans captured a 32-27 victory at Houston in November before falling at home in the season finale, 23-14. The Titans have a slight advantage in the series, leading 24-22 in 46 matchups since 2002. The Texans offense will feature first-time offensive coordinator Nick Caley calling plays for third-year quarterback CJ Stroud.

- WEEK 9 vs. LOS ANGELES CHARGERS: The Titans and Chargers meet for the fourth consecutive season. Most recently, the Chargers captured a 27-17 victory when the Titans traveled to SoFi Stadium in 2024. The last time the Titans hosted the Chargers, Tennessee won 27-24 in overtime on Sept. 17, 2023. The Titans have won the last three matchups at Nissan Stadium dating back to 2013. The rivalry dates back to the inaugural 1960 AFL season, with the Chargers owning a 30-19-1 lead in the series. The two franchises met in the first two AFL Championship games (1960-61), with the Houston Oilers capturing the title on both occasions.
- WEEK 10 (BYE): The Week 10 bye comes five weeks later than the Week 5 bye the Titans had in 2024. Week 10 marks the latest bye the Titans have had since the 2021 season, when their bye was Week 13.
- WEEK 12 vs. SEATTLE SEAHAWKS: The clubs held joint practices and played a preseason game in Nashville during the 2024 preseason. Seattle pulled out a 20-17 victory during their last visit to Nissan Stadium on Christmas Eve in 2023. The only postseason matchup between the franchises came in the 1988 Wild Card round when the Oilers defeated the Seahawks 23-20 in overtime. This year's game could feature two newly-acquired quarterbacks with Tennessee's Cameron Ward, taken with the first overall draft pick in 2025, and Seattle's Sam Darnold, the 2025 unrestricted free agent addition for the Seahawks and former number three overall selection in 2018.
- WEEK 13 (H) & WEEK 18 (A) vs. JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS: The annual Titans-Jaguars series heads into its 31st season since the Jaguars' inaugural 1995 campaign. This year, the contest could feature the top two draft picks of the 2025 class: Titans quarterback Cameron Ward and wide receiver/cornerback Travis Hunter, who the Jaguars drafted with the second-overall pick after trading up. The Titans, who lead the all-time series 35-26 (including postseason), look to regain the momentum in the series after being swept by the Jaguars in 2024.
- WEEK 14 at CLEVELAND BROWNS: The Titans travel to Cleveland to face the Browns in the 70th meeting between the teams, including the postseason. The Browns hold a 37-32 lead in the all-time series, winning the most recent matchup 27-3 when Tennessee last visited Huntington Bank Field in September 2023. The only playoff game between the two teams came in the Wild Card round of the 1988 postseason, with the Oilers pulling out a 24-23 victory on the road in Cleveland.
- WEEK 15 at SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS: The Titans travel to Levi's Stadium in Santa Clara, Calif., for the second time in the venue's history and the first time since 2017. The teams last met in 2021 for a 20-17 Titans win on a Thursday night at Nissan Stadium in Nashville. The 49ers hold a 9-6 lead in the all-time series. Quarterback Brock Purdy enters his fourth NFL season with the 49ers, who are also led by the 2023 AP Offensive Player of the Year, running back Christian McCaffrey.
- WEEK 16 vs. KANSAS CITY CHIEFS: The Titans host the Kansas City Chiefs for the first time since 2021, when the Titans won by a final score of 27-3. The series between two original AFL rivals dates back to 1960, with the Chiefs holding a 28-24 edge in the series. Titans first-year general manager Mike Borgonzi spent the past 16 years with the Chiefs organization, most recently serving as Kansas City's assistant general manager.
- WEEK 17 vs. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS: The Titans will host the Saints and first-year head coach Kellen Moore when New Orleans travels to Nashville for the first time since 2021. The last two meetings between the two teams have been decided by a total of three points, with the Saints winning 16-15 in the 2023 season opener at the Caesars Superdome and the Titans winning 23-21 in November 2021 at Nissan Stadium. The Titans hold a 9-7-1 record in the all-time series.

PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS CHAD BRINKER

Chad Brinker and Mike Borgonzi recap the 2025 NFL Draft

Chad Brinker serves as president of football operations for the Titans. He joined the Titans in 2023 as assistant general manager before being promoted to his current position in 2024. In his role, Brinker provides executive leadership and direct oversight for the entire football staff, reporting directly to Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk.

Since his arrival in Tennessee, Brinker's progressive approach has led to several initiatives aimed at moving the organization forward. He spearheaded the club's extensive search for a new general manager in 2025, resulting in the hiring of Mike Borgonzi. Additionally, he reshaped and refined the foundation of the team's analytics department from the ground up, while building and executing the 2024 and 2025 offseason strategies for player acquisitions in both free agency and the draft.

An NFL personnel veteran, Brinker embodies core strengths focused in executive leadership, strategic operations, financial analysis, and talent evaluation. His dual background in football operations merged with a business acumen gained from an MBA at Northwestern University's Kellogg School of Management further developed his skills as a team builder and strategic leader both on and off the field.

Prior to joining the Titans, Brinker spent 13 years with the Green Bay Packers in a variety of roles as a talent evaluator and strategic counselor to Packers leadership. In his initial season with the Packers, he collected his first Super Bowl championship when the team defeated the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XLV.

Throughout his experience with the Packers, he served as a pro and college scout; led strategy for unrestricted free agency and undrafted free agent processes; handled player contracts, salary cap administration, and roster management; and advised the general manager and executive vice president of football operations on team needs in free agency and drafts, always with an eye on long-term vision. The Packers won the NFC North Division eight times and drafted 13 Pro Bowl Players during his tenure.

Brinker also owns corporate business experience with two Fortune 100 companies in the pharmaceutical and medical device industries. He serves as an executive council member on the Freed-Hardeman University President's Council and has shared his expertise as a guest lecturer in the Sports Marketing program at Freed-Hardeman and the Sports Administration program at his alma mater, Ohio University.

A native of Martins Ferry, Ohio, Brinker first entered the NFL in 2003 as an undrafted free agent running back with the New York Jets. He holds two degrees from Ohio University, including a master's degree in sports administration, where he was a two-sport athlete and a two-time All-Mid-American Conference selection at running back. He was also selected as Ohio University's Male Athlete of the Year in 2003.

Brinker and his wife, Rachelle, have three children. In addition to prioritizing time with his family, he enjoys reading, teaching, traveling, and spending time outdoors.

Mike Borgonzi was named the 15th general manager in franchise history on Jan. 17, 2025.

Borgonzi arrived in Tennessee with 16 years of experience with the Kansas City Chiefs. For the last four seasons, he served as Kansas City's assistant general manager.

"Mike's experience speaks for itself: he has been part of the core team that delivered five AFC championships and three Super Bowls over the past six seasons," said Titans Controlling Owner Amy Adams Strunk. "It's the type of standard I want to build here in Tennessee. I know we have a lot of work ahead of us, and I'm excited for Mike to get started."

"During Mike's 16 years in the league, he has been a key part of transforming the Chiefs from a two-win team to a three-time Super Bowl champion," said Titans President of Football Operations Chad Brinker. "During our meetings, he articulated a clear plan to build a championship standard in Nashville through consistency, discipline, and hard work. I've admired him for many years and I'm thrilled to add him to the team as our general manager."

In Borgonzi's first offseason in Tennessee, the Titans acquired several veteran free agents. Among the most notable signings were tackle Dan Moore Jr. (previously with Pittsburgh); guard Kevin Zeitler (Detroit); linebacker Cody Barton (Denver); outside linebacker Dre'Mont Jones (Seattle); wide receiver Van Jefferson (Pittsburgh); safety Xavier Woods (Carolina); punter Johnny Hekker (Carolina); and kicker Joey Slye (New England).

In April, Borgonzi led the process that concluded with the selection of Miami (Fla.) quarterback Cam Ward with the first overall pick in the 2025 NFL Draft. The team's nine total draft choices also included UCLA outside linebacker Oluwafemi Oladejo (second round), Penn State safety Kevin Winston Jr. (third round), Florida wide receiver Chimere Dike (fourth round), Texas tight end Gunnar Helm (fourth round), Stanford wide receiver Elic Ayomanor (fourth round), Sacramento State offensive lineman Jackson Slater (fifth round), California cornerback Marcus Harris (sixth round) and Michigan running back Kalel Mullings (sixth round).

During Borgonzi's time in Kansas City, he contributed to 12 playoff seasons (2010, 2013, 2015-24) and 10 AFC West titles (2010, 2016-24). Borgonzi helped construct a roster that won the AFC five times (2019-20, 2022-24) and captured three Super Bowl championships (2019, 2022-23) over a six-season span.

From 2017 to 2024, Borgonzi worked under Chiefs general manager Brett Veach. As the assistant general manager from 2021 through 2024, he supervised and directed the college and professional scouting operations while closely supporting and advising Veach with the club's roster management and player acquisition via the NFL Draft, free agency, waiver claims and trades. During his four seasons as assistant general manager, the Chiefs built a league-best 52-16 regular-season record (.765). In the same four-year span, 10 different Kansas City players earned a combined 23 Pro Bowl selections: tackle Orlando Brown Jr. (2021-22), wide receiver Tyreek Hill (2021), center Creed Humphrey (2022-24), defensive tackle Chris Jones (2021-24), tight end Travis Kelce (2021-24), quarterback Patrick Mahomes (2021-23), safety Tyrann Mathieu (2021), guard Trey Smith (2024), guard Joe Thuney (2022-24) and punter Tommy Townsend (2022).

The Chiefs entered the 2024 postseason after capturing their ninth consecutive AFC West crown. They tied the Detroit Lions for the NFL's best record at 15-2, setting a franchise record for wins in a regular season and securing the AFC's top seed. Twenty original Chiefs draft picks started at least six games for the team during the 2024 regular season. Kansas City had five players voted to the Pro Bowl, marking the seventh consecutive year in which it had at least five players earn the honor.

Prior to his promotion to assistant general manager, Borgonzi served as director of football operations (2018-20), director of player personnel (2017), co-director of player personnel (2015-16), assistant director of pro scouting (2013-14), pro personnel scout (2011-12) and manager of football operations (2010). He joined the Chiefs in 2009 as the club's college scouting administrator.

Before landing in the NFL with the Chiefs, Borgonzi spent the 2007 and 2008 seasons at Boston College, where he was the assistant recruiting coordinator. He also coached tight ends at Amherst College in 2002 before working in the financial sector in Boston for several years.

A native of Everett, Mass., Borgonzi graduated from Brown University, where he was a four-year starter at fullback and was a three-time All-Ivy League selection.

He and his wife, Jill, have a son, Joseph, and a daughter, Nina. His brother, Dave, has served as the linebackers coach for the Indianapolis Colts and Chicago Bears and currently serves as the linebackers coach for the Dallas Cowboys.

INTERIM HEAD COACH MIKE McCOY

The Titans named Mike McCoy interim head coach on Oct. 13, 2025. He was hired in 2025 as senior offensive assistant.

McCoy, who is in his 23rd season as a coach in the NFL, served as the head coach of the San Diego Chargers from 2013 to 2016 and spent an additional six years as an NFL offensive coordinator.

He arrived in Tennessee after three seasons with the Jacksonville Jaguars as quarterbacks coach. While in Jacksonville, McCoy helped quarterback Trevor Lawrence register consecutive 4,000-yard passing seasons in 2022 (4,113) and 2023 (4,016). During those two seasons, Lawrence's 8,129 passing yards ranked fifth in the NFL, and his 46 touchdown passes ranked 10th. In 2024, injuries limited Lawrence to 10 games, during which time he passed for 2,045 yards and 11 touchdowns.

In 2023, Lawrence surpassed 4,000 passing yards for the second consecutive year and also eclipsed 10,000 career passing yards, becoming the third-youngest player in NFL history to reach 10,000 passing yards. Lawrence had eight consecutive games with at least 20 completions, which set a single-season franchise record.

In 2022, McCoy helped Lawrence improve in every major passing category from his rookie year to his second campaign. Lawrence produced his first 4,000-yard passing season in the NFL and finished the regular season completing 387 passes on 584 attempts for 4,113 yards. He threw 25 touchdowns against just eight interceptions. His four passing touchdowns in the Wild Card round against the Chargers were also a single-game postseason franchise record.

Before going to Jacksonville, McCoy served as the offensive coordinator for the Arizona Cardinals in 2018. He helped Josh Rosen complete 217 passes for 2,278 yards and 11 touchdowns in his rookie season, while wide receiver Larry Fitzgerald recorded a team-high 69 receptions for 734 yards and six scores. In addition, under McCoy's tutelage, the Cardinals rushing attack posted 1,342 yards and nine touchdowns.

In 2017, McCoy joined the Broncos in his second stint as an offensive coordinator in Denver and helped running back CJ Anderson finish ninth in the NFL in rushing yards (1,007).

From 2013 to 2016, McCoy was the head coach of the San Diego Chargers. During that time, San Diego ranked ninth in the league in total offense (365.9 yards per game) and second in offensive third-down percentage (44.6 percent). In addition, McCoy's group had a top-10 passing attack each season. San Diego qualified for the postseason in McCoy's first campaign at the helm (2013) and beat the Bengals in the Wild Card round.

Under McCoy, Chargers quarterback Philip Rivers finished with his three highest single-season completion percentage marks while averaging more than 31 touchdown passes per year. Rivers earned Comeback Player of the Year honors from the Associated Press in 2013 after completing a career-best and NFL-high 69.5 percent of his passes for 4,478 yards with 32 touchdowns and 11 interceptions (105.5 rating).

Prior to his tenure as head coach in San Diego, McCoy served as the Broncos offensive coordinator for four seasons (2009-12). During his final year in Denver in 2012, the Broncos tied Atlanta for the NFL's best record at 13-3 in quarterback Peyton Manning's first season with the team. The Broncos featured the NFL's fourth-ranked offense and fifth-ranked passing attack as Manning earned Comeback Player of the Year honors after passing for a then-franchise-record 4,659 yards with 37 touchdowns.

In 2011, the Broncos led the NFL and established a franchise record with 2,632 rushing yards. They earned a postseason berth and Wild Card victory with Tim Tebow at quarterback, marking the first of back-to-back playoff appearances (2011-12). Tebow finished that season with 660 rushing yards, the most by a quarterback in team history, while running back Willis McGahee tied for the NFL lead with seven 100-yard rushing games and earned his second career Pro Bowl selection after rushing for 1,199 yards.

McCoy oversaw the NFL's seventh-ranked passing attack in 2010 as quarterback Kyle Orton finished fourth in the league averaging 281 passing yards per game. Brandon Lloyd led the NFL with 1,448 receiving yards and earned his first Pro Bowl selection while also becoming just the fourth wide receiver in team history to be named All-Pro.

In 2009, Brandon Marshall tied for third in the NFL with 101 receptions, including an NFL-record 21 catches in one game. Running back Knowshon Moreno earned All-Rookie honors after leading all NFL rookies in rushing yards (947), yards from scrimmage (1,160) and total touchdowns (nine).

McCoy spent his first nine seasons as a coach in Carolina, working his way up from offensive assistant (2000) to wide receivers coach (2001), quarterbacks coach/offensive assistant (2002), quarterbacks coach (2003-06) and passing game coordinator/quarterbacks coach (2007-08). The Panthers totaled three playoff appearances, two division titles, two NFC Championship Game appearances and advanced to Super Bowl XXXVIII during McCoy's tenure.

During McCoy's time with Carolina, he worked closely with Jake Delhomme, helping the quarterback to four 3,000-yard passing seasons and his first Pro Bowl selection in 2005. Delhomme averaged the fifth-most yards per pass attempt (7.8) in the NFL during McCoy's two seasons managing Carolina's passing attack while wide receiver Steve Smith Sr. ranked seventh in the league with 2,423 yards in that span.

A college quarterback, McCoy spent his first two years at Long Beach State (1990-91) before spending his last two years at Utah (1993-94). He signed with the Broncos as an undrafted rookie free agent in 1995 and spent his rookie season on Green Bay's practice squad. He played in NFL Europe with the Amsterdam Admirals (1997) and spent one game on San Francisco's roster as its third quarterback in 1997. McCoy spent training camp with the Philadelphia Eagles (1998) before finishing his playing career with the Calgary Stampeders in the CFL in 1999.

McCoy and his wife, Kellie, have a daughter, Liv, and a son, Luke.

JOHN FASSEL SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Click For Complete Online Bio

- Fassel joined the Titans in 2025 after spending the previous five seasons with the Dallas Cowboys.
- After Fassel's arrival in Dallas in 2020, the Cowboys improved from the league's bottom-ranked kick return and punt coverage units to top five marks in both categories during his tenure.
- Under Fassel's direction in 2024, second-year kicker Brandon Aubrey connected on a franchise-record 40 field goals, tying for the third-highest total in NFL history. The Cowboys also ranked second in the league with 1,091 kickoff return yards, led the NFL with an NFL-record 32.1 kickoff return average, and were the only team to return multiple kickoffs for touchdowns. Aubrey and second year returner KaVontae Turpin received AP All-Pro honors.
- In 2023, Cowboys punter Bryan Anger led the NFC with a 51.4 gross average.
- Before his time in Dallas, Fassel served as special teams coordinator for the Los Angeles Rams for eight seasons from 2012-19. During those eight seasons, the Rams led the NFL in net yards per punt (43.3) and ranked second in gross yards per punt (46.9). Fassel helped Los Angeles to a Super Bowl berth during the 2018 season. In 2013, Fassel oversaw a punt team that set the single-season NFL record for net punting average (46.0), led by punter Johnny Hekker.
- Fassel joined the Rams after three seasons (2009-11) with the Oakland Raiders as special teams coordinator. He began his NFL coaching career as an assistant special teams coach with the Baltimore Ravens.
- Prior to his NFL career, Fassel was the head coach and assistant athletic director at New Mexico Highlands University. His coaching career also included stops at Idaho State (2001) and with the Amsterdam Admirals of NFL Europe (2000) and Bucknell University (1999, 2002).
- The Anaheim, Calif., native played wide receiver at Weber State. He signed as an undrafted free agent with the Colts following his college playing career.
- Fassel is the son of the late NFL coach Jim Fassel.

NICK HOLZ OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Click For Complete Online Bio

- Holz (pronounced "HOLTS") arrived in Tennessee in 2024 with 11 years of NFL coaching experience and 16 total years of coaching experience.
- In 2024, Holz helped direct a Titans offense that featured running back Tony Pollard (1,079 rushing yards) and wide receiver Calvin Ridley (1,017 receiving yards), who produced 1,000-yard seasons rushing and receiving, respectively.
- He joined the Titans after spending the 2023 campaign as the passing game coordinator for the Jacksonville Jaguars. Working in an offense that featured quarterback Trevor Lawrence, he helped the unit rank ninth in passing (242.7 yards per game) and 13th in points scored (22.2 points per game). Calvin Ridley posted 1,016 receiving yards and eight touchdowns, while Evan Engram led all NFL tight ends with 114 receptions for 963 yards.
- Before his stint in Jacksonville, Holz was the offensive coordinator for UNLV in 2022, which followed 10 campaigns with the Oakland/Las Vegas Raiders (2012-21). With the Raiders, he served in a variety of roles on offense, mostly focused on wide receivers. He served on the staff of three different Raiders head coaches and worked with a notable list of offensive minds, including Greg Knapp, Greg Olson, Bill Musgrave and Jon Gruden.
- Prior to joining the Raiders, Holz was an assistant at Stanford under head coach Jim Harbaugh (2008-10) and David Shaw (2011). As an assistant quarterbacks coach, he helped Andrew Luck earn first-team All-American honors and finish as the runner-up in Heisman Trophy voting two times.
- Holz began his collegiate coaching career in 2007 at Nebraska, where he served as offensive quality control coach and video intern for the Cornhuskers under head coach Bill Callahan.

NISSAN STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of an exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

Eight years later, on Nov. 17, 2023, the Titans and Nissan North America announced a new agreement: a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that brands the new Titans home venue as 'Nissan Stadium.'

Slated for completion in 2027, the new Nissan Stadium will host Titans home games, Tennessee State University football games, concerts, large-scale events and other community events.

"This partnership is a natural extension of our already longstanding friendship with Nissan," said Burke Nihill, Titans President and CEO. "Our mission at the Titans is to Win, Serve, and Entertain. We pride ourselves on collaborating with organizations who love this city and state as much as we do, and for the past 40 years, Nissan has invested more than $10.5 billion statewide, serving as a great example of an outstanding corporate steward and community advocate. We look forward to the continued positive impact of this relationship for the Titans organization and the City of Nashville."

"Since 2015 our fans and organization have called our home 'Nissan Stadium,' and we are proud to continue that tradition in the new stadium as we deepen and expand our relationship with them," said Titans Chief Revenue Officer Adam Nuse. "The new stadium will host the world's largest events, as well as serve as a community hub for our local neighbors. We're excited to have a partner like Nissan embark on this journey with us as we look towards the future."

The partnership will feature dedicated areas in the new stadium for brand experiences and displays, innovative technology integration, and involvement in Titans broadcast platforms. Nissan also will support a to-be-determined program in the Titans' ONE Community philanthropic platform, which reaches Nashville's most underrepresented and marginalized communities with a focus on three areas – Opportunity, Neighborhoods and Education.

"Nissan Stadium is a centerpiece of the Nashville skyline and has become a household name in Middle Tennessee. It is important for Nissan to keep our name on the new stadium," said Jérémie Papin, chairperson, Nissan Americas. "As more people come to Nashville both to visit and to live in this wonderful city, Nissan Stadium is true showcase for our brand and for the career opportunities we've offered here for more than four decades. This partnership sends a strong message about the bright future for Nissan, the Titans, Nashville and the State of Tennessee."

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin. Nissan is home to more than 11,000 employees across all three locations.

"Nissan has been a strong partner to middle Tennessee for four decades, and I'm thrilled that the Titans have united with a partner that invests in our community and its people," said Nashville Mayor Freddie O'Connell. "The familiarity and trust they've established with the Titans in the last eight years will undoubtedly be a great asset as we plan for the stadium's opening in 2027."

The new Nissan stadium will be built on the east side of the current stadium campus, along Nashville's East Bank. Features of the building include: a circular translucent roof; exterior porches with panoramic views of Nashville; improved sightlines for all spectators through a range of diverse seating experiences; and a 12,000 square foot community space available for use year-round. A waitlist for those interested in purchasing PSLs or suites is now open at NewNissanStadium.com.

Quarterback Cam Ward was selected by the Titans with the first overall pick in the 2025 NFL Draft. He became the first No. 1 overall pick for the franchise since running back Earl Campbell in 1978.

In five college seasons, Ward played for three different schools: Incarnate Word (2020-21), Washington State (2022-23) and Miami (2024). In 57 career games—all starts—he completed 1,516 of 2,330 passes for 18,184 yards, and his 158 touchdown passes set an NCAA Division I (FBS/FCS) record. He also totaled 399 rushes for 473 yards and 20 touchdowns.

During his graduate campaign at Miami, he started all 13 games and led the Hurricanes to a 10-3 record, giving them their first 10-win season since 2017. He earned first-team Associated Press All-America honors and was a Heisman finalist after establishing Miami's single-season records for passing yards (4,313), touchdowns (39) and completion percentage (67.2 percent, 305-for-454), while throwing only seven interceptions. He received the 2024 Davey O'Brien Award, recognizing the nation's top quarterback, and was named ACC Player of the Year, ACC Offensive Player of the Year and first-team All-ACC.

At Washington State in 2023, Ward started all 12 games and completed 324 of 486 passes for 3,732 yards and 25 touchdowns with seven interceptions. He also accounted for eight rushing touchdowns. At the conclusion of the season, he received All-Pac-12 Conference honorable mention for the second consecutive season.

Ward arrived at Washington State as a junior in 2022. He started all 13 games in his first season with the Cougars and completed 320 of 497 passes for 3,231 yards and 23 touchdowns with nine interceptions. He added five rushing touchdowns.

In 2021, Ward was a sophomore at Incarnate Word, where he was named Southland Conference Offensive Player of the Year, FCS All-American second team and a Walter Payton Award Finalist after leading UIW to Southland Conference Championship, a 10-3 record and into the second round of the FCS playoffs. His statistics included 384 completions on 590 attempts for 4,648 yards, 47 touchdowns and 10 interceptions. He set program records for single game passing yards (610), single-game passing touchdowns (seven), career passing touchdowns (71) and career passing yards (6,908).

As a freshman in 2020, Ward started in all six games at Incarnate Word during the spring season (2021) that resulted from the COVID-19 outbreak. He completed 183 of 303 passes for 2,260 yards and 24 touchdowns and was named the Jerry Rice Award winner, given to the top FCS freshman.

Ward is a native of West Columbia, Texas.

2025 Game Notes:

➤ At Denver (9/7), completed 12 of 28 passes for 112 yards in his NFL debut. Joined Marcus Mariota (2015) as the only rookie quarterbacks in franchise history to start a season opener. Became the 13th rookie starting quarterback in franchise history and the first since Will Levis in 2023. Became the 20th quarterback in the common draft era (since 1967) to be selected with the first pick in the NFL Draft and start in Week 1 of his rookie season. On his first NFL pass attempt in the first quarter, converted a third-and-10 with a short pass to Tony Pollard that went 29 yards. It led to a Titans field goal to cap their first drive.

➤ Against the L.A. Rams (9/14), completed 19 of 33 passes for 175 yards and one touchdown (82.3 passer rating), and he added four rushing attempts for eight yards. In the first half, his statistics included 10 completions, 17 attempts, 123 yards, one touchdown, no interceptions and a 100.9 passer rating. He also rushed for two first downs in the first half. In the first quarter, he delivered a 26-yard pass to Calvin Ridley, and he added a 21-yarder to Ridley in the second quarter. Rushed for three yards and a first down on fourth-and-one in the second quarter. With a nine-yard toss across the field to Elic Ayomanor late in the second quarter, he completed his first career touchdown pass.

➤ Against Indianapolis (9/21), completed 23 of 38 passes for 219 yards with one touchdown and one interception, and added three rushing attempts for 12 yards. In the first quarter, he found Chig Okonkwo for a 22-yard completion and Calvin Ridley on a 27-yarder. In the third quarter, he led a 13-play, 73-yard touchdown drive, during which he completed five passes for 32 yards on six attempts. On a 16-play, 77-yard touchdown drive, he threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to Elic Ayomanor on fourth-and-goal in the fourth quarter. On the drive, Ward completed eight-of-11 passes for 80 yards.

➤ At Houston (9/28), while joining Marcus Mariota (2015) as the only rookie quarterbacks in franchise history to start the first four games of a season, completed 10-of-26 passes for 108 yards with one interception. He added 22 yards and a first down on two rushing attempts. In the first quarter, he found Elic Ayomanor for a 33-yard completion, his longest career completion to date. In the second quarter, he converted a third-and-six with a 22-yard pass to Calvin Ridley.

➤ At Arizona (10/5), earned his first career win as a starting quarterback, completing 21 of 39 passes for 265 yards. He engineered a 15-point fourth-quarter comeback in the win, and in the fourth quarter, he was 13-of-18 passing for 193 yards in the fourth quarter. He was credited with his first career game-winning drive, which ended with Joey Slye's game-winning field goal as time expired. Ward completed five of his six passes on the drive for 67 yards, including a 38-yard pass to Calvin Ridley to help set up the field goal. The Titans trailed by 18 points in the second quarter, which tied for the second-largest deficit by any quarterback in their first career win as a starter in the Super Bowl era (21 by Atlanta's Mike Moroski in Week 13, 1983; 18 by New York Giants' Daniel Jones in Week 3, 2019; 18 by Seattle's Jon Kitna in Week 16, 1997). Since 2000, Ward joined Vince Young (Nov. 26, 2006 against the New York Giants) as the only NFL rookie quarterbacks to win a game in which they trailed by 15 or more points in the fourth quarter. Ward's 193 fourth-quarter passing yards were the fourth-most by an NFL rookie in a game since the beginning of the 1978 season. In that span, Ward ranked behind only Tampa Bay's Jameis Winston (238 at St. Louis on Dec. 17, 2015), Houston's Davis Mills (220 vs. L.A. Rams on Oct. 31, 2021) and Washington's Jayden Daniels (194 vs. Dallas on Nov. 24, 2024). From that group, Ward's total was the second-most in a road game and the most in a victory. He found Ridley in the fourth quarter for a 47-yard pass, which was the longest of Ward's career to date, to help set up a touchdown.

➤ At Las Vegas (10/12), completed 26 of 38 passes for 222 yards with one touchdown and one interception. He completed his first six passes of the game, and in the first quarter, he converted a third-and-10 with an 18-yard pass to Calvin Ridley. Ward connected three times with Van Jefferson on passes of at least 20 yards: a 20-yarder in the second quarter, a 23-yarder in the third quarter and another 23-yarder in the fourth quarter. In the fourth quarter, he converted a fourth-and-15 with a 20-yard completion to Chig Okonkwo and registered his third career touchdown pass on a one-yard toss to David Martin-Robinson. In franchise history, he became the first rookie quarterback to start the first six games of a season. Marcus Mariota was the only previous franchise rookie to start at quarterback for the first five games of a season.

➤ Against New England (10/19), completed 25 of 34 passes for 255 yards with one touchdown and one interception. His 73.5 completion percentage, 7.50 yards per attempt, 14 passing first downs, and 92.2 passer rating were his best marks through seven NFL games. His 73.5 completion percentage was the best in franchise history by a rookie quarterback with at least 30 attempts in a game, eclipsing Marcus Mariota's previous mark of 71.8 (28-of-39) as a rookie at New Orleans on Nov. 8, 2015. Ward became the team's first rookie quarterback in its "Titans era" (1999 to present) with 25 or more completions in back-to-back games. The last quarterback to accomplish the feat for the Titans was Mariota, who accomplished the feat in two consecutive games from Sept. 11-18, 2016. Ward completed 10 of his first 11 passes for 144 yards and one touchdown (149.1 passer rating), including a 38-yard touchdown pass to Chimere Dike in the first quarter.

➤ At Indianapolis (10/26), completed 22-of-38 passes for 259 yards and a touchdown, eclipsing the 250-yard passing mark for the third time in four games. He became the first Titans quarterback since Marcus Mariota in 2015 to have 20 or more completions in four consecutive team games. Ward threw a 21-yard pass to Chimere Dike to convert a third-and-10 in the first quarter and added a 26-yard pass to Elic Ayomanor in the second quarter. He also completed a 23-yard pass to Chig Okonkwo in the third quarter and a 22-yard strike to Gunnar Helm in the fourth quarter.

#8 • QB WILL LEVIS

6-4, 229, 3rd Year/3rd with Titans, Kentucky

Click for complete bio

Quarterback Will Levis is in his third season in 2025. He was selected by the Titans in the second round (33rd overall) of the 2023 NFL Draft after the Titans traded up to select him.

Levis will spend the 2025 campaign on injured reserve due to a shoulder injury.

During his first two NFL seasons, Levis totaled 21 starts. In franchise history, only Warren Moon (30), Vince Young (28) and Marcus Mariota (27) started more games at quarterback than Levis within their first two NFL seasons. Levis' career numbers through his first two campaigns included 339 completions, 556 attempts, 3,899 yards, 21 touchdowns and 16 interceptions.

In 2024, Levis finished with a team-high 301 pass attempts, 190 completions, 2,091 yards, 13 touchdowns and 81.4 passer rating. His 63.1 completion percentage qualified for the 10th-best mark in franchise history. He added 183 rushing yards on 45 attempts.

In his debut season, Levis recorded starts in all nine games in which he appeared, becoming the third rookie quarterback in franchise history to start at least nine games. Only Young (13 starts in 2006) and Mariota (12 starts in 2015) preceded him in the accomplishment. Levis' rookie passing totals included 255 attempts, 149 completions, 1,808 yards, eight touchdowns and four interceptions. His 84.2 passer rating was the second best in franchise history by a rookie quarterback (91.5 by Mariota in 2015), and the number also ranked first in NFL history among second-round quarterbacks in their rookie season (minimum 200 attempts). Levis had an additional 57 yards and a touchdown rushing.

Prior to entering the NFL, Levis spent two seasons at the University of Kentucky after transferring from Penn State. In four combined college seasons, he appeared in 39 games with 26 starts. He completed 479 of his 738 passes (64.9 percent) for 5,876 yards with 46 touchdowns and 25 interceptions. He also rushed for 742 yards and 17 touchdowns.

At Kentucky, Levis went 17-7 as a starter, tying Terry Wilson for the second-most quarterback wins since 1993. The two-time team captain completed 418 of 636 passes for 5,233 yards with 43 passing touchdowns and 11 rushing scores for the Wildcats. His six 300-yard passing games were the fourth-most in school history.

As a senior in 2022, he started 11 games at quarterback and connected on 185 of 283 passes for 2,406 yards with 19 passing scores, while ranking fourth in the SEC in pass efficiency (151.9). He finished fifth in the SEC with 19 passing scores.

As a junior in 2021, he transferred from Penn State to Kentucky and started in all 13 games, helping to lead UK to 10 wins for the fourth time in school history. He totaled 3,203 yards total offense, becoming the seventh player in school history to reach 3,000 yards of total offense in a season. He was 233-of-353 passing for 2,826 yards and 24 touchdowns, and he also registered 107 rushes for 376 yards and a team-high tying nine rushing touchdowns.

He is a native of Madison, Conn.

#20 • RB TONY POLLARD

6-0, 209, 7th Year/2nd with Titans, Memphis

Click for complete bio

Running back Tony Pollard is in his seventh NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2025. The Memphis native was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 14, 2024.

During his first year with the Titans, Pollard ranked third in the AFC and tied for 12th in the NFL with a career-best 1,079 rushing yards on a career-high 260 carries. Both numbers led the team, as did his five rushing touchdowns. With an additional 238 yards on 41 receptions, he produced a team-high 1,317 scrimmage yards—the second-best total of his career.

Prior to joining the Titans, Pollard spent five seasons (2019-23) with the Dallas Cowboys, who selected him in the fourth round (128th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft. During his time in Dallas, he appeared in 79 games with 23 starts, totaling 3,621 rushing yards and 23 touchdowns on 762 carries. With an additional 176 receptions for 1,319 yards and five receiving touchdowns, he reached 1,000 scrimmage yards in each of his final three years in Dallas while also returning 63 kickoffs for 1,500 yards, including one return for a score.

In 2023, his first season as the lead running back in Dallas, Pollard started all 17 games for the first time in his career and led the team with 1,005 rushing yards on a career-high 252 carries (4.0 avg.) with six touchdowns.

In 2022, he set career marks with 193 carries for 1,007 yards and nine scores, averaging 5.2 yards-per-carry to rank third in the NFL and earn his first Pro Bowl nod.

At the University of Memphis, he played in 40 games at running back and wide receiver, amassing 2,233 yards and 18 touchdowns on offense. He also averaged 30.1 yards per kickoff return and tied an NCAA record with seven kickoff returns for touchdowns.

2025 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/7), started and led the team with 60 rushing yards on 18 attempts. He added one catch for 29 yards. Helped convert a third-and-10 in the first quarter with a 29-yard reception. His 12 rushing attempts in the first half set a new career high (11, four times, last vs. Jacksonville, on Dec. 8, 2024).
- Against the L.A. Rams (9/14), rushed for a team-high 92 yards on 20 attempts (4.6 avg.). It was his 27th career game with at least 90 scrimmage yards.
- Against Indianapolis (9/21), carried the ball 16 times for 45 yards and a touchdown. In the third quarter, he scored his first touchdown of the season and the 29th rushing touchdown of his career on a one-yard plunge. Added two receptions for 14 yards.
- At Houston (9/28), led the team with 64 rushing yards on 14 carries and added a team-high three receptions for 12 yards. In the second quarter, he rushed for a 21-yard gain, his longest run since a 21-yarder against Jacksonville on Dec. 8, 2024.
- At Arizona (10/5), participated in his 100th NFL game (regular season). He led the team with 67 rushing yards on 14 attempts and added 11 yards on three catches. Scored his second touchdown of the season and the 30th rushing touchdown of his career on a one-yard carry in the fourth quarter. In the third quarter, he reached the 5,000-yard career rushing mark.

➤ At Las Vegas (10/12), led the team with 34 yards on 10 carries and added two receptions for 13 yards. He picked up 17 yards on a run in the third quarter.

➤ Against New England (10/19), totaled 18 yards on six rushing attempts and added a team-high six receptions for 43 yards. He recorded his highest reception total since a seven-catch performance against Philadelphia as a member of the Dallas Cowboys on Dec. 10, 2023.

➤ At Indianapolis (10/26), rushed for 44 yards on a team-high 11 attempts and added a nine-yard reception.

4. Chris Johnson	2008	1,228
5. Tony Pollard	2024	1,079

CONSISTENCY FROM 2022-2024

In addition to his 1,079 rushing yards in 2024, Tony Pollard accounted for 238 receiving yards out of the backfield. With 1,317 total scrimmage yards, Pollard registered his third consecutive season in which he accounted for at least 1,200 scrimmage yards and at least five scrimmage touchdowns. He did so in each of his final two seasons with the Dallas Cowboys prior to signing with the Titans as an unrestricted free agent.

Pollard was one of only five NFL running backs with 1,200 scrimmage yards and five scrimmage touchdowns in each of the 2022, 2023 and 2024 campaigns. The others on the list were Baltimore's Derrick Henry, Houston's Joe Mixon, Philadelphia's Saquon Barkley and Pittsburgh's Najee Harris.

#2 • RB TYJAE SPEARS

5-11, 195, 3rd Year/3rd with Titans, Tulane
Click for complete bio

Running back Tyjae Spears is in his third NFL season. He was selected by the Titans in the third round (81st overall) of the 2023 NFL Draft.

In 2024, Spears appeared in 12 games with one start. His totals included 312 yards and four touchdowns on 84 rushing attempts, and he added 30 receptions for 224 yards and a touchdown.

As a rookie, Spears did not miss a game and registered one start. He carried the ball 100 times for 453 yards and two touchdowns, and he added 52 receptions for 385 yards and one score. His 838 scrimmage yards ranked seventh in franchise history among rookie running backs, and the total also placed fourth among rookie running backs in 2023 behind Atlanta's Bijan Robinson, Detroit's Jahmyr Gibbs and Miami's De'Von Achane. Spears became the franchise's first rookie running back with at least 50 receptions since Sid Blanks in 1964 (56).

Spears spent four years at Tulane (2019-22) prior to entering the NFL. He appeared in 33 games with 20 starts at running back for the Green Wave, totaling 2,910 yards and 31 touchdowns on 427 carries with an additional 48 receptions for 564 yards and three scores. He ended his career as the school's all-time leader in yards per carry (6.8), tied for second in 100-yard rushing games (15), tied for third in rushing touchdowns (31), fourth in rushing yards per game (85.6) and sixth in rushing yards (2,910) and total touchdowns (34). His 6.8 yards per carry from 2019 to 2022 ranked second in the FBS behind only Alabama-Birmingham running back DeWayne McBride's 7.3-yard average (minimum 400 attempts).

As a junior in 2022, he started all 14 games for the Green Wave, totaling 1,581 yards and 19 touchdowns on 229 rushing attempts and adding 22 receptions for 256 yards and two touchdowns. He tied for the national lead with 21 total touchdowns and tied for third in the country with 19 rushing touchdowns, a total that ranked second in Tulane single-season history. His 1,581 rushing yards led the conference and made up the Green Wave's all-time second-highest single-season total. His nine 100-yard rushing games included eight consecutive such efforts to finish the season. He was named the American Athletic Conference Offensive Player of the Year and also earned first-team All-AAC honors. His efforts helped Tulane earn a 12-2 record and win an American Athletic Conference title.

He is a native of Ponchatoula, La.

#85 • TE CHIG OKONKWO

6-3, 238, 4th Year/4th with Titans, Maryland

Click for complete bio

Tight end Chig Okonkwo (pronounced "CHIGG oh-KAHN-kwoh") is in his fourth NFL season in 2025. He was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (143rd overall) of the 2022 NFL Draft.

Through his first three seasons, Okonkwo led the team's tight ends with 138 receptions for 1,457 yards and six touchdowns. During that time, he did not miss a game, appearing in 51 contests with 30 starts. His career yardage total through 2024 ranked second among all tight ends drafted in 2022, trailing only Trey McBride (2,236).

Okonkwo became the fifth tight end in franchise history to register three or more seasons with a minimum of 30 receptions and 450 receiving yards per season. He joined Frank Wycheck (1995–2001), Delanie Walker (2013–2017), Dave Casper (1980–1982) and Alvin Reed (1968–1970).

In 2024, Okonkwo tied his career high with 11 starts, matching his 2023 total. He ranked second on the team and led the Titans tight ends with 52 receptions. His 479 receiving yards ranked third on the team and led the team's tight ends, and he had two touchdown receptions.

Okonkwo started 11 games in 2023 and finished the season with 54 receptions for 528 yards and one touchdown. He ranked second on the team in receptions and receiving yards.

During his rookie season, Okonkwo appeared in all 17 games with eight starts and totaled 32 receptions for 450 yards (14.1 avg.) and three touchdowns. His yardage total ranked second on the team. He also tied for fifth on the team with seven special teams tackles. He was named to the Pro Football Writers of America All-Rookie team.

Okonkwo's 450 receiving yards in 2022 established a new record for franchise rookie tight ends, surpassing Ben Troupe's 329 yards in 2004. Okonkwo tied Chris Dressel (32 receptions in 1983) for the third-best reception total among all Titans/Oilers rookie tight ends, trailing only Bo Scaife (37 in 2005) and Troupe (33 in 2004), and he became the second rookie tight end in franchise history with at least three touchdown catches, joining Dressel (four in 1983).

The Powder Springs, Ga., native appeared in 37 games with 20 starts over four seasons (2018–21) at Maryland and caught 77 passes for 717 yards and eight touchdowns. He added three carries for 72 yards and three touchdowns, including a career-long rush of 54 yards.

As a senior in 2021, he started all 13 games and posted career-high marks with 52 catches for 447 yards and a team-leading five touchdowns. His 52 receptions ranked second in Terrapins history for a single season by a tight end, behind only Wycheck (58 in 1990). Okonkwo's 447 receiving yards were the most by a Terps tight end in a season since Vernon Davis (871 in 2005).

He sat out the 2020 season with myocarditis due to COVID-19. Prior to then, he saw action in 12 games (four starts) as a freshman and 12 games (three starts) as a sophomore.

2025 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/7), started and totaled three receptions for 19 yards. Converted a third-and-13 with a 14-yard grab in the third quarter.
- Against the L.A. Rams (9/14), totaled 35 yards on four receptions, which tied for the team lead. He recorded a 14-yard catch in the first quarter. Surpassed the 1,500-yard receiving mark for his career (1,511).
- Against Indianapolis (9/21), led the offense with five receptions and 66 receiving yards. In the first quarter, he picked up 22 yards on a reception, and he added a 17-yard catch in the third quarter. It was his eighth career game with five or more receptions and his sixth career game with at least 60 receiving yards. Reached 150 career receptions, becoming the sixth tight end in franchise history to hit the mark.
- At Houston (9/28), recorded a four-yard catch.
- At Arizona (10/5), posted four receptions for 48 yards, including a 16-yarder during the game-winning drive in the fourth quarter.
- At Las Vegas (10/12), produced 46 yards on a team-high six receptions. It was his fifth career game with six or more catches. In the fourth quarter, he converted a fourth-and-15 with a 20-yard grab.
- At Indianapolis (10/26), totaled 53 yards on four receptions, including a 23-yard reception in the third quarter.

In the second quarter, he made a one-handed, 23-yard catch along the sideline, and three plays later, he scored his first career touchdown on a nine-yard pass from Cam Ward.

➤ Against Indianapolis (9/21), caught four passes for 38 yards and a touchdown. In the fourth quarter, he scored a touchdown with an eight-yard grab on fourth-and-goal. It marked his second consecutive week with a touchdown reception. He became the first Titans rookie with a touchdown catch in consecutive games since A.J. Brown (Weeks 14-15) in 2019.

➤ At Houston (9/28), recorded a team-high 44 receiving yards on a pair of receptions. In the first quarter, he hauled in a 33-yard pass to notch his longest career reception to date. He became the team's first player with at least two receptions in each of the first four games of his rookie season since Tajae Sharpe (first five games) in 2016. He also became the team's fourth player since 1999 with 12 or more receptions in the team's first four games of his rookie season, joining Kendall Wright (18 in 2012), Kenny Britt (17 in 2009) and Tajae Sharpe (16 in 2016).

➤ At Arizona (10/5), caught two passes for 18 yards. He became the team's first rookie since Tajae Sharpe (2016) to record at least two receptions in each of the first five games of his rookie season.

➤ At Las Vegas (10/12), caught three passes for 27 yards.

➤ Against New England (10/19), posted a pair of catches for 29 yards, including a 20-yard reception in the first quarter.

➤ At Indianapolis (10/26), totaled 52 yards on four receptions, logging his eighth consecutive game to begin his career with at least two receptions, joining Tetairoa McMillan and Emeka Egbuka as the NFL's only rookie wide receivers to accomplish the feat in 2025. He caught a 26-yard pass from Cam Ward in the second quarter.

#17 • WR CHIMERE DIKE

6-1, 196, Rookie, Florida

Wide receiver Chimere Dike was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (103rd overall) of the 2025 NFL Draft.

The Waukesha, Wis., native played four seasons (2020-23) at Wisconsin before transferring to Florida for his final season (2024). In five total seasons, he appeared in 57 games with 42 starts and tallied 139 receptions for 2,261 yards and 11 touchdowns. He added 14 rushing attempts for 99 yards and one touchdown, and additionally, he recorded 26 punt returns for 300 yards and 20 kickoff returns for 472 yards.

In 2024, Dike was named a team captain for the Gators during his first and only season with the team. He led the team in catches (42) and ranked second with a career-high in receiving yards (783) and touchdown catches (two). In SEC play, he averaged a league-leading 16.5 yards per punt return. He was one of 23 players in the FBS to contribute four punt returns of 20-plus yards.

In Dike's final season at Wisconsin, he started in 11 games and finished with 19 receptions for 328 yards and one touchdown. He added 12 punt returns for 108 yards and 11 kickoff returns for 249 yards.

As a junior in 2022, he started all 13 games for the Badgers and led the team with 47 catches, 689 receiving yards and six touchdown catches. His six scores tied for seventh in the Big Ten and were the most for a Badger wide receiver since 2019.

2025 Game Notes:

➤ At Denver (9/7), made his NFL debut. Totaled 144 yards with a 36.0-yard average on four kickoff returns and added a 12-yard punt return. Gained nine yards on his first NFL rushing attempt in the second quarter. Recorded a 71-yard kickoff return in the second quarter to set up a Titans field goal. It was the Titans' longest kickoff return since Darius Jennings returned a kickoff 94 yards for a touchdown on Sept. 9, 2018 at Miami. His 71-yard kickoff return was the longest by a Titans rookie since Marc Mariani's 73-yarder at Dallas on Oct. 10, 2010. His 144 kickoff return yards made up the highest single-game total for a Titans player since Darrynton Evans (145) on Dec. 27, 2020 at Green Bay.

➤ Against the L.A. Rams (9/14), totaled 37 yards on two punt returns, including a 21-yard long. He also returned five kickoffs for 83 yards (16.6 avg.), caught two passes resulting in a net loss of one yard, and added nine rushing yards on two attempts.

➤ Against Indianapolis (9/21), registered his first NFL start at wide receiver. He totaled 162 kickoff return yards on six attempts (27.0 average), accumulating the most kickoff return yards in a game by a Titans player since Leon Washington's 209 kickoff return yards at Denver on Dec. 8, 2013. His 35-yard kickoff return in the first quarter helped set up a field goal. Also totaled three yards on two rushing attempts and two yards on three receptions.

➤ At Houston (9/28), returned six kickoffs for a 23.5-yard average (long of 29). He became the NFL's first rookie since Chad Morton of the New Orleans Saints in 2000 with at least four kickoff returns in each of the first four games of his rookie season.

➤ At Arizona (10/5), contributed two receptions for 17 yards, three punt returns for 33 yards, and four kickoff returns for 136 yards. He provided a spark with a 65-yard kickoff return in the second quarter—the second-longest kickoff return of his rookie season (71 at Denver on Sept. 7). It gave him two of the NFL's top five longest kickoff returns to date in 2025. His 71-yarder against Denver was the second longest of the season and his 65-yard return ranked fourth.

➤ At Las Vegas (10/12), totaled 66 yards on three kickoff returns and eight yards on a pair of receptions.

➤ Against New England (10/19), totaled four receptions for 70 yards and a touchdown. He added a 15-yard punt return and 84 yards on three kickoff returns (28.0 avg.). In the first quarter, he posted four receptions for 70 yards in the first quarter. His 70 receiving yards in the first quarter were the most by a Titans rookie in the first quarter of a game since Justin McCareins had 70 in the first quarter against Tampa Bay on Oct. 14, 2001. His first career touchdown came on a 38-yard pass from Cam Ward after he set up the scoring drive with a 29-yard kickoff return to the New England 41-yard line. In the first seven games of 2025, he totaled 1,025 combined total yards (scrimmage yards + return yards) to join two previous players in the team's "Titans era" (1999 to present) to reach 1,000 combined yards in the team's first seven games of a season: Derrick Mason in 2000 (1,221 yards in the first seven games) and Derrick Henry in 2021 (1,023). In the same span, only three previous NFL rookies reached 1,000 combined yards in the first seven games of a season: Adrian Peterson (1,251 in 2007), Percy Harvin (1,007 in 2009) and Kareem Hunt (1,002 in 2017). His 1,025 combined yards were the most in the NFL in a team's first seven games since Alvin Kamara had 1,031 in the first seven games of the New Orleans Saints' 2020 campaign.

➤ At Indianapolis (10/26), led the team with seven receptions and 93 receiving yards and added 175 yards on seven kickoff returns (25.0 avg.). His 93 receiving yards were the most by a Titans rookie since Treylon Burks' 111 at Green Bay on Nov. 17, 2022. Dike became the first rookie for the Titans to register back-to-back games with at least 70 yards receiving since Burks in Week 11-12 of the 2022 season. His 269 all-purpose yards at Indianapolis were the most in any NFL game in 2025 through Sunday, Oct. 26, and the total ranked third for the Titans since the beginning of the 1999 season behind only Derrick Mason's 302 all-purpose yards against Buffalo on Dec. 14, 2003 and Chris Johnson's 284 against Houston on Sept. 20, 2009. His 175 kickoff return yards were the most in a game by a Titans player since Leon Washington had 209 against Denver on Dec. 8, 2013. At the conclusion of the game, his 1,294 all-purpose yards in 2025 were the most for the Titans through eight games since Derrick Mason's 1,382 in 2000, and Dike had the most by any NFL player through eight games since New Orleans Saints running back Darren Sproles had 1,331 in 2011.

#11 • WR VAN JEFFERSON

6-1, 200, 6th Year/1st with Titans, Florida

Click for complete bio

Wide receiver Van Jefferson is in his sixth NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2025. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 14, 2025.

Jefferson has previously played for the Los Angeles Rams (2020-23), Atlanta Falcons (2023) and Pittsburgh Steelers (2024). In 78 games prior to his arrival in Tennessee, he totaled 137 receptions for 1,876 yards and 12 touchdowns.

As a member of the Steelers in 2024, he appeared in 17 games for the second consecutive season. He registered 24 catches for 276 yards and a pair of touchdowns.

His breakout season came in 2021 for the Rams, recording 50 receptions for 802 yards and six touchdowns while starting all 17 contests. His receiving and yardage totals ranked third on the team that would go on to win Super Bowl LVI. During the team's championship run, Jefferson started all four postseason games, tallying nine catches for 102 yards.

Jefferson entered the NFL as a second-round selection (57th overall) by the Rams in the 2020 NFL Draft. As a college player, he spent two seasons at Ole Miss before playing his final two years at the University of Florida. Over his four years of college, he posted 175 receptions for 2,159 yards and 16 touchdowns in 48 total games.

He is the son of former Titans wide receivers coach Shawn Jefferson and attended Ravenwood High School in Brentwood, Tenn.

2025 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/7), made his Titans debut.
- Against the L.A. Rams (9/14), caught his first two passes as a member of the Titans for 10 total yards.
- At Las Vegas (10/12), led the offense with 75 receiving yards on four catches. He produced three receptions of 20-plus yards: a 20-yarder in the second quarter, a 23-yarder in the third quarter and another 23-yarder in the fourth quarter. It was his first career game with at least three receptions of 20-plus yards. His 75 receiving yards were his most in a game since he had 77 with the Los Angeles Rams at the Los Angeles Chargers in Week 17 of 2022.
- Against New England (10/19), logged his first start of the season and totaled 41 yards on four receptions. In the second quarter, he converted a third-and-three with a 15-yard reception and added a 12-yard grab on the following play. His second reception of the game helped him eclipse 2,000 career receiving yards (2,016).
- At Indianapolis (10/26), recorded a six-yard reception in the third quarter, which was the 150th catch of his career.

#0 • WR CALVIN RIDLEY

6-1, 190, 7th Year/2nd with Titans, Alabama

Click for complete bio

Wide receiver Calvin Ridley is in his seventh NFL season and his second season with the Titans in 2025. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 15, 2024.

During the 2024 campaign, Ridley led the Titans offense with 64 receptions and 1,017 receiving yards and caught four touchdown passes. His 15.9-yard receiving average in 2024 ranked fifth in the NFL among qualifiers. Only Ridley and Philadelphia's A.J. Brown (67 receptions for 1,079 yards, 16.1 avg.) accumulated at least 60 receptions and 1,000 receiving yards with an average of at least 15.0 yards per catch. Ridley also rushed for 55 yards and a touchdown.

Ridley's 2024 season was his third career 1,000-yard receiving season (2020 and 2023), and it was the franchise's 12th 1,000-yard receiving season during its "Titans era" (1999 to present). He became the ninth player in NFL history to have at least one 1,000-yard receiving season with three different teams, joining Brandin Cooks (four teams), Brandon Marshall (four), Amari Cooper (three), DeAndre Hopkins (three), Irving Fryar (three), Randy Moss (three), Terrell Owens (three) and Tony Martin (three). Ridley became the first player in NFL history to secure his first three 1,000-yard receiving seasons with three different teams.

Prior to joining the Titans, Ridley appeared in 66 NFL games with 52 starts. He was originally drafted by the Atlanta Falcons with the 26th overall pick of the 2018 NFL Draft and was traded to the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2022. His statistical totals with the Falcons and Jaguars included 324 receptions for 4,358 yards and 36 touchdowns.

In 2023, Ridley started a career-high 17 games for the Jaguars and led the team with 1,016 yards and eight receiving touchdowns on 76 catches.

From 2018 through 2020, no member of the 2018 draft class had more receptions or touchdown catches than Ridley, who totaled 217 grabs and 26 scores for the Falcons during that span. His 3,061 receiving yards ranked second in his draft class behind only DJ Moore's 3,156. Ridley's 90 receptions and 1,374 yards in 2020 were career highs.

As a rookie in 2018, Ridley played in all 16 games and accumulated 64 receptions. He led all rookie receivers in the NFL with 821 receiving yards and a team-high 10 receiving touchdowns, including an NFL-rookie record six receiving scores in the team's first four games. He was named to the All-Rookie team by the Professional Football Writers of America.

A native of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Ridley attended the University of Alabama, where he played in 44 games over three seasons (2015-17). He finished his career second in Crimson Tide history with 224 receptions and 19 receiving touchdowns. He also ranked third with 2,781 receiving yards, while totaling eight career 100-yard receiving games to tie for third in the Alabama record books.

2025 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/7), registered a team-high four receptions for 27 yards.
- Against the L.A. Rams (9/14), tallied a team-high 57 receiving yards on three catches. He recorded a 26-yard reception in the first quarter and added a 21-yard catch in the second quarter.
- Against Indianapolis (9/21), tallied a 27-yard reception in the first quarter.
- At Houston (9/28), totaled 30 yards on a pair of receptions. He converted a third-and-six with a 22-yard catch in the second quarter. It was his 23rd reception of 20-plus yards since the start of the 2024 season, which tied for third in the NFL.
- At Arizona (10/5), led the team with five receptions for 131 yards, logging his 17th career 100-yard game. It was the sixth-highest receiving yardage total of his career. Late in the first quarter, he hauled in a 25-yard pass. In the second quarter, his 400th career reception resulted in a 13-yard gain

1,000 IN FIRST SEASON WITH THE TITANS

In 2024, Calvin Ridley's first campaign in Tennessee, he paced the club with 64 receptions and 1,017 receiving yards. He reached the 1,000-yard receiving mark for the third time in his career.

Ridley became the sixth player in franchise history to accomplish the feat in his first season with the franchise. He joined Bill Groman, Drew Hill, Ernest Givins, A.J. Brown and DeAndre Hopkins.

1,000 REC YARDS WITH THREE TEAMS

Calvin Ridley has registered a 1,000-yard receiving season with three different NFL teams. He first hit the plateau as a member of the Atlanta Falcons in 2020 (1,374 yards), and in 2023, he hit 1,000 yards (1,016) while playing for the Jacksonville Jaguars. He posted 1,017 receiving yards for the Titans in 2024.

In NFL history, only eight players previously had a 1,000-yard receiving season with three different teams. DeAndre Hopkins was the most recent member to join the group after accomplishing the feat with the Titans in 2023.

Ridley became the first player in NFL history to secure his first three 1,000-yard receiving seasons with three different teams.

NFL players with 1,000-yard receiving seasons for three different teams, all-time:

to convert a third-and-four. In the fourth quarter, he caught a 47-yard pass to help set up a touchdown, and later, he helped set up the game-winning field goal with a 38-yard grab. His 93 receiving yards in the fourth quarter established a career high and were the most by a Titans player in the fourth quarter since Taywan Taylor's 104 receiving yards in the fourth quarter against the New York Jets on Dec. 2, 2018. Ridley's fourth-quarter total was the third-most in the NFL in 2025 (through Sunday, Oct. 5) behind the 98 receiving yards by Las Vegas' Tre Tucker (Sept. 21) and 95 by Buffalo's Keon Coleman (Sept. 7).

➤ At Las Vegas (10/12), converted a third-and-10 with an 18-yard reception in the first quarter before leaving the game with an injury.

#55 • T JC LATHAM

6-6, 342, 2nd Year/2nd with Titans, Alabama

Click for complete bio

JC Latham is in his second NFL season. He was drafted by the Titans with the seventh overall pick in the first round of the 2024 NFL Draft.

As a rookie, Latham finished the season with 17 starts at left tackle, joining Jack Conklin (2016), Chance Warmack (2013) and Michael Roos (2005) as the franchise's only rookie offensive linemen in the "Titans era" (1999–present) to start every game. He was the first to do so exclusively at left tackle. Pro Football Focus named him to its All-Rookie team.

Latham did not miss an offensive snap during his rookie season. He led all rookie offensive linemen and ranked third among all rookies in 2024 with 1,032 offensive snaps. Only Chicago quarterback Caleb Williams (1,052) and Denver quarterback Bo Nix (1,040) played more offensive snaps than Latham among the 2024 rookie class.

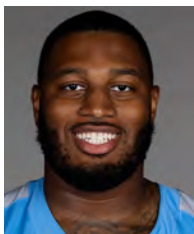

Prior to entering the NFL, Latham spent three seasons at the University of Alabama, where he appeared in 41 total games, including 27 consecutive starts at right tackle to conclude his collegiate career. He was credited with allowing only four sacks during his time with the Tide.

As a junior in 2023, Latham was a second-team All-American and a first-team All-SEC selection at right tackle. He recorded 41 knockdown blocks and allowed only two sacks.

A native of Oak Creek, Wis., Latham attended IMG Academy for the final two years of high school. He began his high school career as a defensive lineman before finishing as one of the nation's top left tackle prospects.

STARTS BEFORE 22ND BIRTHDAY

First-round draft pick JC Latham started every game at left tackle in 2024. With 17 starts before his 22nd birthday (Feb. 8, 2025), he ranked second in franchise history for starts before turning 22. He finished behind only former defensive tackle Randy Starks, who registered 21 starts before celebrating his 22nd birthday in 2005.

Latham was the NFL's only player under age 22 to log 17 starts in 2024.

Most starts in franchise history (1960–2024) before a player's 22nd birthday:

Click for complete bio

Dan Moore Jr. is in his fifth NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2025. He was signed by the Titans on March 13, 2025.

Prior to joining the Titans, Moore spent the previous four seasons (2021-24) with the Pittsburgh Steelers. He started 66 total games—all at left tackle—protecting the blind side for all but two contests during his time in the Steel City. During that span, Moore ranked third in the NFL in offensive snaps (4,109) played by tackles, trailing only Penei Sewell (4,328) and Jawaan Taylor (4,135).

In each of Moore's four seasons with the Steelers, running back Najee Harris surpassed 1,000 rushing yards. In 2023, the Steelers offensive line allowed only 36 sacks, which ranked ninth in the NFL.

Moore was drafted by the Steelers in the fourth round (128th overall) of the 2021 NFL Draft after attending Texas A&M University. The Beaumont, Texas, native appeared in 44 games with 37 starts for the Aggies, including starts at left tackle in each of the final 36 games of his collegiate career.

#77 • G PETER SKORONSKI

6-4, 313, 3rd Year/3rd with Titans, Northwestern
Click for complete bio

Peter Skoronski is in his third NFL season. He was selected by the Titans with the 11th overall pick in the first round of the 2023 NFL Draft.

During his first two seasons, Skoronski started 31 games at left guard. After missing three of the first four games during his rookie season due to an appendectomy, he started the next 30 games through the end of the 2024 campaign. In 2024, he did not miss a snap.

As a rookie in 2023, Skoronski started 14 games at left guard and helped running back Derrick Henry finish second in the NFL with 1,167 rushing yards. He was one of nine NFL rookie offensive linemen in 2023 to register 14 or more starts, and he joined Nicholas Petit-Frere (2022), Jack Conklin (2016), Chance Warmack (2013), Michael Roos (2005) and Jacob Bell (2004) as the only rookie offensive linemen to record at least 14 starts for the franchise during its "Titans era" (1999–present).

During a three-year career at Northwestern University, Skoronski started all 33 games at left tackle without missing a game. He earned second-team All-Big Ten honors as a freshman and first-team recognition in each of the next two seasons. He became the first offensive lineman in program history to earn two All-Big Ten first-team awards.

As a junior in 2022, he was named the Rimington-Pace Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year—the first ever by a Northwestern lineman—after starting all 12 games at left tackle. He was the first player in school history to become a unanimous first-team All-American and was named first-team All-Big Ten by coaches and media. He finished as a finalist for the 2022 Outland Trophy.

When the Titans drafted Skoronski, he became Northwestern's highest draft selection since guard Chris Hinton went to Denver with the fourth pick in 1983, and he was the 11th player in program history to be picked in the first round.

His grandfather, Bob Skoronski Sr., was a left tackle for the Green Bay Packers, playing nine total seasons with the franchise. He was a permanent offensive captain for the Packers under Vince Lombardi and played on five NFL championship teams. In 1976, he was inducted into the Packers Hall of Fame. Bob Skoronski Jr., Peter's father, was an All-Ivy League football player at Yale.

Peter Skoronski attended Maine South High School in Park Ridge, Ill.

#70 • G KEVIN ZEITLER

6-4, 332, 14th Year/1st with Titans, Wisconsin
Click for complete bio

Kevin Zeitler is in his 14th NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2025. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 13, 2025.

Prior to his arrival in Tennessee, Zeitler appeared in 198 games with 197 starts in 13 total seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals (2012-16), Cleveland Browns (2017-18), New York Giants (2019-20), Baltimore Ravens (2021-23) and Detroit Lions (2024). From the time he entered the NFL in 2012 through the 2024 campaign, he played more offensive snaps (12,443) than any other offensive lineman in the league.

In 2023, he was named to the Pro Bowl for the first time after starting 15 contests in his final season with the Ravens. Then, in 2024, he was a 16-game starter at right guard for the Lions.

Zeitler also arrived in Tennessee with significant playoff experience. He accumulated seven total starts over four playoff seasons with the Bengals (2012-15) and two postseasons with the Ravens (2022-23). Additionally, he contributed to Detroit's 2024 division championship but was inactive during the playoffs due to injury.

Zeitler entered the NFL with the Bengals as first-round selection (27th overall) in the 2012 NFL Draft. As a rookie, he was named to the Pro Football Writer's Association All-Rookie team.

At the University of Wisconsin, Zeitler played in 43 career games with 36 starts in four seasons (2008-11). He helped the Badgers to consecutive Big Ten titles and Rose Bowl berths in his junior and senior campaigns, and as a senior, he earned first-team All-Big Ten honors.

6-4, 310, 7th Year/2nd with Titans, Rutgers
Click for complete bio

Defensive lineman Sebastian Joseph-Day is in his seventh NFL season and his second season with the Titans in 2025. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 20, 2024.

During the 2024 campaign, Joseph-Day registered 17 games played for the first time in his career. His first year in Tennessee concluded with 44 tackles, 2.5 sacks, 14 quarterback pressures, three tackles for loss and one pass defended for the NFL's second-overall ranked defense.

Prior to arriving in Tennessee, Joseph-Day totaled 71 games played and 68 starts for the Los Angeles Rams (2018-21), Los Angeles Chargers (2022-23) and San Francisco 49ers (2023). His statistical totals during that time included 230 tackles, 11 sacks, one interception, five passes defended, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery.

In 2023, Joseph-Day started the first 14 games of the season with the Chargers and collected 32 tackles, three sacks and 25 quarterback pressures. After being released by the Chargers, he was signed by the 49ers as a free agent on Dec. 27 and saw action as a reserve in the final two regular season contests, amassing five tackles. He then appeared as a reserve in all three of the 49ers' postseason contests and registered three tackles, including a tackle in Super Bowl LVIII.

Joseph-Day originally entered the NFL as a sixth-round pick (195th overall) of the Rams in 2018. After not seeing game action his entire rookie campaign, he totaled 38 starts and six sacks over the next three seasons with the Rams, culminating with an appearance in the Rams' Super Bowl LVI victory. He then joined the Chargers during the 2022 offseason and played in 30 regular season games with the club before heading to San Francisco.

The Stroudsburg, Pa., native played five seasons at Rutgers, where he amassed 90 total tackles, 3.5 sacks, two passes defended, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery.

2025 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/7), started and notched five tackles and recovered a fumble caused by a Jeffery Simmons strip sack in the second quarter. The turnover yielded three points for the Titans after a Joey Slye field goal on the ensuing possession. It was his second career fumble recovery.
- At Houston (9/28), recorded four tackles and two quarterback pressures.
- At Arizona (10/5), posted his first sack of the season in the fourth quarter, bringing down Kyler Murray for a 10-yard loss. He added five tackles and an additional stop for loss, marking his first career game with at least five tackles, two tackles for loss and a sack.
- At Las Vegas (10/12), finished with two tackles and a stop for loss.
- Against New England (10/19), finished with four tackles, a quarterback pressure and a stop for loss. He dropped running back Rhamondre Stevenson for a loss of two yards in the first quarter.

#98 • DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

6-4, 305, 7th Year/7th with Titans, Mississippi State
Click for complete bio

Defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons completed is in his seventh NFL season in 2025. He was selected by the Titans in the first round (19th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft.

During his first six seasons, Simmons earned three Pro Bowl berths (2021-22, 2024), was a four-time team captain (2021-24), and was nominated two times for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award (2023-24). During that span, he appeared in 84 games with 82 starts, accumulating 316 tackles, 31.5 sacks, 24 passes defended, five forced fumbles and six fumble recoveries. He was second on the defense in sacks during that span behind only Harold Landry III (46).

Simmons missed only one game in 2024. His 16 starts made up the second-highest total of his career through six seasons behind his 17 starts in 2021. Among his season totals, he set career highs with 76 tackles and two forced fumbles, and he added five sacks and a team-high 42 quarterback pressures. He was rewarded with his third Pro Bowl invitation.

Simmons' 76 tackles ranked second on the Titans in 2024. It was the best number for any defensive lineman for the organization in its "Titans era" (1999 to present), topping defensive end Kyle Vanden Bosch's previous mark of 75 tackles in 2006 (press box statistics). Among NFL defensive linemen in 2024, Simmons finished second in tackles behind Carolina's A'Shawn Robinson (80).

The 2024 campaign marked Simmons' fourth consecutive season with at least five sacks. His 31.5 career sacks through 2024 ranked 13th in franchise history and sixth for the organization during its "Titans era" (1999 to present).

In 2023, although he was limited to 12 games and finished the season on injured reserve, he managed to register 5.5 sacks, marking his third consecutive season to reach that number or higher. He added 44 tackles, 38 quarterback pressures, 11 tackles for loss, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and one pass defended. For the first time in his career, he received the honor of the team's nomination for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year award.

In 2022, Simmons appeared in 15 games and anchored a unit that ranked first in the NFL in rushing defense (76.9 opponent rushing yards per game). En route to his second consecutive Pro Bowl appearance, he totalled 53 tackles, 7.5 sacks, 43 quarterback pressures, nine tackles for loss, one forced fumble and a career-high seven passes defended, which tied for the fourth-best mark among all NFL defensive linemen. Simmons and Arizona's J.J. Watt were the NFL's only players in 2022 with at least seven sacks and seven passes defended.

Before the start of the 2021 season, Simmons was named a team captain for the first time in his career, and he went on to become one of six players on the roster to start all 17 games. He was named to his first career Pro Bowl and added Associated Press second-team All-Pro honors after setting career highs in several categories, including sacks (8.5), tackles (54), quarterback pressures (58), tackles for loss (12) and passes defended (six). He led the squad in pressures and placed third in sacks. Among all defensive tackles in the NFL, his 8.5 sacks ranked sixth. In the divisional playoffs, he set a franchise postseason record with three sacks.

In 2020, Simmons appeared and started in 15 games. With three defensive fumble recoveries, he tied Chase Young for the most in the NFL in 2020 and was the first Titans defender with three fumble recoveries in a season since 2005, when linebacker Brad Kassell accomplished the feat. Simmons ranked second on the team with 19 quarterback pressures and added 49 tackles, three sacks, three tackles for loss, five passes defended and one forced fumble. In the franchise's "Titans era" (since 1999), he became the first player to post at least three fumble recoveries, three sacks and five passes defended in the same season. He also had three tackles and a tackle for loss in one playoff contest.

Simmons began his rookie season on the non-football injury list due to a knee injury he suffered during training in February 2019. He missed the first six games of the season before joining the 53-man roster in Week 7.

His rookie totals included 40 tackles, two sacks, two tackles for loss, 14 quarterback pressures and one pass defended in nine games (seven starts). He added four tackles, three quarterback pressures and a fumble recovery in three playoff contests.

During a three-year career as a defensive tackle at Mississippi State, Simmons appeared in 38 contests with 28 starts. He finished his career ranked sixth in school history with 32.5 tackles for loss. He also tied for sixth in MSU annals with five forced fumbles and tied for fourth with three blocked kicks. His totals also included 163 tackles, seven sacks, seven passes defended and two defensive touchdowns.

He was a first-team All-SEC selection as a sophomore and junior and was one of two players in the nation to be named a Bednarik Award Semifinalist in both 2017 and 2018.

As a junior in 2018, Simmons was named second-team All-American after totaling 63 tackles, 17 tackles for loss and two sacks. His 17 tackles for loss led the team, ranked fourth in the SEC and were the third-most in single-season school history.

During his sophomore season (2017), he set a career high with five sacks and added 12 tackles for loss. With three total blocked kicks and punts, he became the first SEC player since 2004 to lead the nation in the category.

Simmons is a native of Macon, Miss.

2025 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/7), started at defensive tackle and finished the game with four tackles, a stop for loss, a sack, a forced fumble and a team-high four quarterback pressures. Recorded a strip sack on Bo Nix in the second quarter, the fourth of his career. It was his first sack fumble since Oct. 27, 2024 at Detroit. Notched a quarterback hit on Bo Nix on a third down in the first quarter to help force a field goal attempt. Increased his career total to 32.5 sacks.
- Against the L.A. Rams (9/14), recorded two tackles and three quarterback pressures. He registered a hit on Matthew Stafford on third down to help force a Los Angeles punt in the second quarter.
- Against Indianapolis (9/21), generated three tackles and three quarterback pressures.
- At Houston (9/28), produced five tackles, one sack, a career-high four tackles for loss and four quarterback pressures. In the first quarter, he logged his second sack of the season (33.5 career), dropping C.J. Stroud for a loss of three yards. It was his fifth career sack against the Texans, his highest career total against any opponent. He became the only Titans player with at least four tackles for loss in a game since the beginning of the 2008 season. He joined three other NFL players in 2025 to record four or more tackles for loss in a game through Sept. 28: Tuli Tuipulotu (five on Sept. 28), Myles Garrett (four on Sept. 7) and Derwin James Jr. (four on Sept. 21). He joined the same four players as the only players in 2025 with five tackles, four tackles for loss and a sack in a game. According to NFL NextGenStats, Simmons sacked Stroud 2.09 seconds after the ball was snapped, the fastest sack in the NFL since the beginning of the 2024 season. His get-off time was recorded at 0.32 seconds, the fastest time by a defensive tackle in 2025.

➤ At Arizona (10/5), totaled 1.5 sacks, a season-high eight tackles, a stop for loss and six quarterback pressures. Dropped Kyler Murray in the second quarter for a 10-yard loss to force a Cardinals punt. It was his second consecutive game with a sack. He also combined with Arden Key to bring Murray down in the third quarter, giving him 3.5 sacks over the first five games of the 2025 season.

➤ At Las Vegas (10/12), totaled six tackles, one sack, two tackles for loss and three quarterback pressures (tied for team high). He registered his third consecutive game with at least one sack by bringing down Geno Smith in the first quarter. It is the second such three-game streak of his career and his first since Oct. 9-30, 2022. He became the first Titans defender since Brian Orakpo in 2016 with at least 4.5 sacks and eight tackles for loss in the team's first six games of a season. The last NFL defensive tackle to accomplish the feat was Cincinnati's Geno Atkins in 2018.

➤ Against New England (10/19), recorded two tackles before exiting the game in the first half with an injury.

#93 • NT T'VONDRE SWEAT

6-4, 366, 2nd Year/2nd with Titans, Texas

Click for complete bio

Defensive tackle T'Vondre Sweat is in his second NFL season. He was selected by the Titans in the second round (38th overall) of the 2024 NFL Draft.

As a rookie, Sweat appeared in all 17 games with 16 starts. His totals for the NFL's second-ranked overall defense included 51 tackles, one sack, four tackles for loss, one pass defended, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. He earned All-Rookie honors from Pro Football Focus and Pro Football Writers of America.

Sweat became the franchise's first rookie defensive lineman to start 16 games in a season since defensive end Jevon Kearse (16) in 1999, and he was the NFL's first interior defensive lineman to start at least 16 games in a rookie season since Dexter Lawrence (16) with the New York Giants in 2019.

During his five-year career at the University of Texas, Sweat appeared in 62 games with 17 starts. He finished his collegiate career with 128 tackles, 17.5 tackles for loss, five sacks, 14 passes defended, one forced fumble, two fumble recoveries and one blocked extra point.

In 2023, Sweat's final collegiate campaign, he played in all 14 games with eight starts. His 45 tackles, 18 solo tackles, eight tackles for loss, two sacks, four pass breakups and one blocked kick all established career highs, and he added a two-yard touchdown reception on offense. His efforts earned him the 2023 Outland Trophy, which is presented to the nation's top interior lineman. He also garnered unanimous first-team All-American, Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year and unanimous first-team All-Big 12 honors. He was the fifth Texas defensive tackle to be a unanimous All-American.

As a senior in 2022, Sweat played in all 13 games with nine starts and established a then-career high with 30 tackles and added 2.5 tackles for loss, seven quarterback hurries and four pass breakups. He was named honorable mention All-Big 12 by the league's coaches.

He is a native of Huntsville, Texas.

2025 Game Notes:

#33 • LB CEDRIC GRAY

6-2, 234, 2nd Year/2nd with Titans, North Carolina
Click for complete bio

Linebacker Cedric Gray is in his second NFL season in 2025. He was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (106th overall) of the 2024 NFL Draft.

As a rookie in 2024, spent the first seven games on injured reserve before being activated on Oct. 28, 2024. He appeared in the final seven games of the season and totaled 14 tackles on defense while ranking third on the team with eight tackles on special teams. His eight special teams tackles tied for the seventh-best total among rookies in 2024, and over the final seven weeks of the season, he led the rookie class and tied for second overall in the NFL (Oren Burks, Jeremy Reaves) behind only Pittsburgh's Miles Killebrew (nine).

In four seasons at the University of North Carolina, he played in 51 games with 37 starts and recorded 369 tackles, 30 tackles for loss, 8.5 sacks, five interceptions, 13 passes defended, six forced fumbles and five fumble recoveries. He was a two-time first team All-ACC selection and a 2023 Butkus Award semifinalist.

As a senior in 2023, he played and started in 12 games and posted a team-best 121 tackles in addition to five sacks, 11 stops for loss, seven quarterback pressures, two forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries, an interception and four passes defended. He was named first-team All-ACC by the league and the Associated Press. He recorded five double-digit tackle games and ranked second in the ACC with 121 tackles.

Gray is a native of Charlotte, N.C.

2025 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/7), made his first NFL start. He ranked third on the team with seven tackles and added a stop on special teams.
- Against the L.A. Rams (9/14), finished with four tackles on defense and added a tackle on special teams.
- Against Indianapolis (9/21), tied for second on the defense with five tackles.
- At Houston (9/28), collected 17 tackles—a career-high, the most for a Titans defender this season, and the most tackles for a Titans defender since Daryl Worley had 17 at Washington on Dec. 1, 2024. His 17 tackles tied for the highest figure by a Titans player since 2020 (Worley). It was the 11th time since 2000 (press box statistics) in which a Titans defender registered 15 or more tackles in a game. Through Sept. 28, Gray's 17 stops at Houston were the most of any defender in the NFL during a single game in the 2025 season. The last NFL player to register 17 tackles in a game was Philadelphia's Oren Burks on Jan. 5, 2025. He added a tackle for loss and a quarterback pressure.

- At Arizona (10/5), led the team in tackles for the second consecutive game, collecting 12 tackles, including a stop for loss. His 29 total tackles in Weeks 4-5 ranked second in the NFL behind Miami's Jordyn Brooks (31).
- At Las Vegas (10/12), collected 11 tackles to lead the team for the third consecutive week, and he added a tackle on special teams. He also tallied a career-best two passes defended, becoming the first Titans defender to record at least 11 tackles and two passes defended in a game since Kevin Byard III on Oct. 10, 2021 at Jacksonville. He also became the first Titans defender with 11 or more tackles in three consecutive games since Azeez Al-Shaair from Oct. 8-29, 2023.
- Against New England (10/19), collected 10 tackles to lead the team for the third consecutive week and added three quarterback pressures. Over a four-game span, he accumulated 50 total tackles, and since the beginning of the 2000 season, only two previous Titans players had produced 50 tackles (GSIS tackle statistics) in a four-game stretch during a single season: Brad Kassell (50 from Dec. 13, 2004 to Jan. 2, 2005) and Azeez Al-Shaair (50 from Oct. 1, 2023 to Oct. 29, 2023; 51 from Oct. 8, 2023 to Nov. 2, 2023). Gray joined Al-Shaair (2023) as the team's only defenders since the beginning of the 2011 season with 10 or more tackles in four consecutive games.
- At Indianapolis (10/26), tied for the team lead with five tackles, including a stop for loss. He added a quarterback pressure.

#49 • OLB ARDEN KEY

6-5, 240, 8th Year/3rd with Titans, Louisiana State
Click for complete bio

Outside linebacker Arden Key is in his eighth NFL season and his third campaign with the Titans in 2025. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 20, 2023.

In 2024, he participated in the first 16 games of the season with a career-high 15 starts. When he was inactive for the season finale, it ended his streak of 75 consecutive games played. His 6.5 sacks in 2024 tied his career high (2021) and ranked second on the team, and he also established career highs with 42 total tackles and 11 tackles for loss. He added 38 quarterback pressures, one pass defended, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery.

In 2023, Key appeared in 17 games for the third consecutive season and registered nine starts—the most since starting 10 times in 2018 as a rookie with Oakland. He ranked second on the team with a career-high 57 quarterback pressures, and his six sacks provided the second-best total of his career. He added 30 tackles, four tackles for loss, two passes defended and two forced fumbles.

Key originally entered the NFL as a third-round pick (87th overall) of the Oakland Raiders in 2018 and spent his first three campaigns with the organization. He then spent the 2021 campaign with the San Francisco 49ers and the 2022 season with the Jacksonville Jaguars. His statistical totals during his first five NFL seasons included 98 tackles and 14 sacks in 71 games (13 starts).

In 2022, Key played 17 games with three starts for the Jaguars and totaled 27 tackles, 4.5 sacks, 38 quarterback pressures, five tackles for loss and a fumble recovery. His 38 pressures ranked second for the Jaguars, and over the last five weeks of the season, he posted 25 pressures, which ranked second in the league behind Nick Bosa over that time frame. He was a key figure in helping the Jaguars win the AFC South and advance to the divisional round of the playoffs.

In 2021, Key notched a career-best 6.5 sacks to go along with 22 tackles and 25 quarterback pressures in his lone season with the 49ers.

During a three-year career at Louisiana State University, Key totaled 21 sacks and 26.5 tackles for loss. As a sophomore, he earned all-conference honors, while setting the school record for sacks in a season (12.0).

He is a native of Atlanta, Ga.

2025 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/7), started and posted one tackle in the season opener.
- Against the L.A. Rams (9/14), blocked a Rams extra point attempt in the fourth quarter. It was the Titans' first blocked kick since Dec. 11, 2023 at Miami when Denico Autry blocked a 44-yard field goal attempt. It was the second blocked kick of Key's career and the first since Dec. 2, 2018 as a member of the Raiders against the Kansas City Chiefs, when he blocked an extra point attempt by Harrison Butker. Added one tackle.

➤ At Houston (9/28), notched his first sack of the season in the second quarter, taking down C.J. Stroud to force a third-and-17. It was his first sack since Dec. 1, 2024 at Washington. He added two tackles and two quarterback pressures.

➤ At Arizona (10/5), recorded a half sack in the second quarter, his second consecutive week with at least a half sack. Combined with Jeffery Simmons to bring down Kyler Murray for a loss of eight yards. Improved his total to 14 sacks since signing as a free agent in 2023, most among active Titans in that span.

Outside linebacker Oluwafemi Oladejo (pronounced "oh-loo-wah-FEH-me oh-luh-DAY-jo") was selected by the Titans in the second round (52nd overall) of the 2025 NFL Draft.

After playing two seasons at the University of California (2021-22), Oladejo finished his collegiate career with two seasons at UCLA (2023-24). He began college as an off-the-ball linebacker before transitioning to the edge position during his senior campaign at UCLA. With 46 games played and 27 starts over his four combined seasons, he totaled 238 total tackles, 24 stops for loss, six sacks, a forced fumble and three fumbles recoveries.

As a senior at UCLA in 2024, Oladejo started two games at inside linebacker before moving to the edge spot. He recorded starts in all 12 games on the season and logged 57 total tackles, 13.5 tackles for loss, 4.5 sacks and two pass breakups. His 13.5 stops for loss, 4.5 sacks and six quarterback hurries led the team. After the season, he was named the Kenny Clark Award winner for the team's most outstanding defensive lineman.

In his first year at UCLA, Oladejo appeared in all 13 games with four starts. His statistics included 54 tackles, a half sack, 3.5 stops for loss, an interception, three passes defensed and two fumble recoveries.

The Sacramento, Calif., native played in nine games at Cal as a true freshman in 2021, and in 2022, he appeared in 10 games with 10 starts.

2025 Game Notes:

➤ At Denver (9/7), started at outside linebacker in his NFL debut. He became the first Titans rookie to start at outside linebacker since Harold Landry III in 2018. Posted two tackles and notched a quarterback hit on Bo Nix in the third quarter.

➤ At Arizona (10/5), posted two tackles and two quarterback pressures.

➤ At Las Vegas (10/12), tied for the team-lead with a career-high two tackles for loss, bringing down Ashton Jeanty for losses of three and five yards. He added three tackles and two quarterback pressures.

➤ Placed on injured reserve on Oct. 14.

Cornerback L'Jarius Sneed is in his sixth NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2025. He was acquired by the Titans in a trade with the Kansas City Chiefs on April 1, 2024.

Sneed started five games before missing the remainder of the season due to a quad injury. He was placed on injured reserve on Nov. 23. His statistics prior to the injury included 23 tackles and two tackles for loss.

Sneed spent four seasons with the Chiefs after they selected him in the fourth round (138th overall) of the 2020 NFL Draft. During that time, he tallied 10 interceptions, 40 passes defended and 6.5 sacks in 57 games. He and Harrison Smith were the only two NFL players from 2020 to 2023 to record at least 10 interceptions and 6.5 sacks.

Sneed also arrived in Tennessee with 13 games of postseason experience. He helped the Chiefs win two Super Bowls (LVII, LVIII), and his seven passes defended tied for third in the postseason from 2020 to 2023. He became one of five NFL players from 2000 to 2023 with at least 75 tackles, two sacks and seven passes defended in the postseason, joining Ray Lewis, James Farrior, Brian Dawkins and Rodney Harrison.

In 2023, he started 16 games at cornerback and amassed 78 tackles, two interceptions, a career-best 14 passes defended and a fumble recovery. He was in the starting lineup for all four Chiefs postseason games and generated 17 tackles, three passes defended and a forced fumble while helping the Chiefs to their second consecutive Super Bowl championship.

As a rookie in 2020, Sneed was named to the Pro Football Writers Association's All-Rookie team after notching 41 tackles, three interceptions, two sacks and seven passes defended in nine games.

As a college player at Louisiana Tech, Sneed was named second-team All-Conference USA as a senior in 2019. He played safety and cornerback in college, and in 51 games, he registered 177 tackles, eight interceptions and 19 passes defended.

He is a native of Minden, La.

2025 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/7), started at cornerback and notched a pass defended in his first action since Week 6 of the 2024 season.
- Against the L.A. Rams (9/14), posted three tackles and a team-high two passes defended.
- At Arizona (10/5), affected Emari Demercado as he lost a fumble through the back of the end zone in the fourth quarter, resulting in a touchback and returning possession to the Titans. The turnover preceded 16 Tennessee points in the final frame to capture the 22-21 victory. He also logged four tackles.
- At Las Vegas (10/12), notched a career-high 10 tackles.
- Against New England (10/19), registered a pair of tackles before leaving the game with an injury.
- Placed on injured reserve on Oct. 23, 2025.

Three-time Pro Bowl safety Quandre Diggs is in his 11th NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2025. He re-signed on Aug. 7, 2025 after initially joining the Titans as a free agent on Aug. 6, 2024.

Diggs was limited to eight games in 2024 due to a foot injury. Prior to being placed on injured reserve, he tallied 42 tackles.

Before arriving in Tennessee, Diggs totaled nine seasons between his time with the Detroit Lions (2015-19) and Seattle Seahawks (2019-23). He was originally drafted by the Lions in the sixth round (200th overall) of the 2015 NFL Draft and later traded to the Seahawks during the 2019 campaign. His career totals with the Lions and Seahawks included 137 games played, 112 starts, 24 interceptions, 56 passes defended, 574 tackles, one sack, five forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. He was named to three consecutive Pro Bowls from 2020 to 2022.

In 2023, Diggs started every game for the Seahawks for the fourth consecutive season. He totaled a career-high 95 tackles to go along with one interception and five passes defended.

From 2017 through 2022, Diggs was the NFL's only player to record at least three interceptions every season. He set a career benchmark with five interceptions in 2020 and matched the number in 2021.

Diggs started a total of eight games in his first two years in Detroit. In his third season, he registered 11 starts before starting 16 games for the first time in 2018.

A native of Houston, Texas, Diggs played cornerback at the University of Texas, where he never missed a game in four seasons, appearing in 52 games with 49 starts. He finished his collegiate career tied for ninth in Longhorns history with 11 interceptions, while his 37 career passes defended tied for ninth on the all-time list. He earned All-Big 12 honors three times (2011, 2013, 2014).

Woods arrived in Tennessee with eight years of NFL experience, including four seasons with the Dallas Cowboys (2017-20), one season with the Minnesota Vikings (2021) and three seasons with the Carolina Panthers (2022-24). During that span, he appeared in 123 games with 111 starts and totaled 616 tackles, 13 interceptions, 47 passes defended, 11 stops for loss, one sack, five forced fumbles and five fumble recoveries.

Playing in Carolina in 2024, Woods did not miss a defensive snap and led the league in the category with 1,152, according to TruMedia. He set a career best with 119 tackles and tied his career high with three interceptions.

Woods was a sixth-round selection by Dallas in the 2017 NFL Draft. He played four seasons at Louisiana Tech and was named an All-Conference USA selection three times. Woods finished fifth in school history with 14 career interceptions to go along with a school-record 325 interception return yards. Titans cornerback L'Jarius Sneed and Woods were teammates with the Bulldogs in 2016.

He is a native of West Monroe, La.

2025 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/7), started in his Titans debut. He tallied an interception in the third quarter, the 14th interception of his career, and also added two tackles.
- Against the L.A. Rams (9/14), finished fourth on the defense with six tackles.
- Against Indianapolis (9/21), tied for the team lead with six tackles and added a pass defended. On a third down in the second quarter, he broke up a Daniel Jones pass intended for Josh Downs to force a Colts field goal attempt that was no good.
- At Las Vegas (10/12), recorded six tackles, tying a season-high.
- Against New England (10/19), tallied four tackles and a sack. In the first quarter, he stopped Drake Maye for no gain to register his second career sack. His only other sack was on Oct. 31, 2021 as a member of the Minnesota Vikings.

#46 • LS MORGAN COX

6-4, 233, 16th Year/5th with Titans, Tennessee

Click for complete bio

Long snapper Morgan Cox is in his 16th NFL season and his fifth campaign with the Titans in 2025. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 19, 2021.

In 2024, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties for the fourth consecutive season. With 68 consecutive games played in his first four seasons with the Titans, he finished the 2024 campaign with the longest active streak of games played for the team. It was the 12th time in his career he appeared in every game for his team.

With Cox serving as the team's long snapper, kicker Nick Folk led the NFL in field goal percentage for the second consecutive season in 2024. Folk connected on 21 of 22 field goals for an NFL-best rate of 95.5 percent. Meanwhile, punter Ryan Stonehouse ranked third in the NFL with an average of 50.6 yards per punt attempt. Also in 2024, Cox was a finalist for the NFL's Bart Starr Award for the second consecutive year.

Cox finished the 2024 season with a career total of 233 games played. He ranked 10th among all active NFL players, and his total also moved him past Reggie White (232 games) for the fourth-most NFL games played by a former University of Tennessee Volunteer behind tight end Jason Witten (271 NFL games), quarterback Peyton Manning (266) and punter Dustin Colquitt (255).

In 2023, Cox's efforts helped Folk lead the NFL in field goal accuracy (96.7 percent) and helped Stonehouse lead the NFL for a second consecutive season in gross punting average (53.1).

In 2022, Cox was named to his fifth career Pro Bowl. He has more Pro Bowl appearances than any other player at his position since the league began naming long snappers to the Pro Bowl in 2004.

His steady play in 2022 helped Stonehouse, a rookie, lead the league and set a new NFL record with a 53.1-yard gross punting average. Stonehouse also finished fourth in the NFL and set a rookie record with a 44.0-yard net average. Meanwhile, kicker Randy Bullock made 17 of 20 field goals (85.0 percent) and made all 28 extra point attempts.

In 2021, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties in 17 regular season games and one postseason game. He helped Bullock finish ninth in franchise history with 120 points in a single season, including three game-winning field goals (Sept. 19 at Seattle, Oct. 31 at Indianapolis and Dec. 23 against San Francisco). He also snapped for punter Brett Kern, who had the league's third-best ratio of punts inside the 20 to touchbacks (18:1).

In his first 11 seasons, Cox appeared in 165 regular season games for the Baltimore Ravens, serving as the team's primary long snapper after entering the NFL as an undrafted free agent in 2010. He was selected to four Pro Bowls and was a part of five playoff teams in Baltimore, totaling 10 postseason games played.

In 2020, he earned his fourth career Pro Bowl selection. He helped kicker Justin Tucker record his fifth consecutive season with at least 130 points, tying the NFL record of consecutive seasons with 130-plus points. Tucker connected on 26 of 29 field goals (89.7 percent) and was 52 of 53 on extra points (98.1 percent). Cox also snapped on all 51 of Sam Koch's 51 punts, as Koch was the NFL's only punter to place at least 20 punts (22) inside in the 20-yard line and have no more than one touchback.

A native of Collierville, Tenn., Cox played 38 games in three seasons (2007-09) as the primary long snapper at the University of Tennessee.

#3 • P JOHNNY HEKKER

6-5, 225, 14th Year/1st with Titans, Oregon State
Click for complete bio

Four-time Pro Bowl punter Johnny Hekker is in his 14th NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2025. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 13, 2025.

In 13 seasons before arriving in Tennessee, Hekker played in 212 games and punted 963 times for a 46.8-yard gross average (45,052 yards) with 378 punts placed inside the 20-yard line and a 42.9 career net punting average. A member of the NFL 2010's All-Decade team, Hekker is a six-time All-Pro with four first-team selections (2013, 2015-17) and two second-team selections (2014, 2018). He was named to the Pro Bowl following the 2013, 2015, 2016 and 2017 seasons.

Hekker has climbed near the top of several all-time NFL leaderboards during his career. In 2016, he established the NFL single-season record with 51 punts inside the 20 (51 in 2016), and in the same season, he established an NFL record (since broken) with a 46.0 net punting average. Hekker ended the 2024 campaign ranked fifth all-time in career net average (42.9) and tied for 11th all-time in gross average (46.8).

Hekker entered the league as a rookie free agent with the St. Louis Rams in 2012. The Oregon State product spent his first 10 NFL campaigns with the club and helped the Rams conclude the 2021 campaign with a win Super Bowl LVI before signing with the Carolina Panthers as a free agent in 2022.

In 2024, his last season with the Panthers, Hekker saw action in all 17 games and punted 73 times for 3,338 yards (45.7 gross avg.) with 24 punts placed inside the 20-yard line and a 41.9 net punt average.

He is a native of Bothell, Wash.

2025 Game Notes:

➤ At Denver (9/7), made his Titans debut and averaged 49.4 yards and 41.0 net yards on eight punts with two punts placed inside the 20. In his 17th career game with eight or more punts, his 49.4-yard gross average ranked fifth in his career in a game with eight or more punts. His gross average also ranked ninth in franchise history for a player in a game with eight or more punts.

➤ Against the L.A. Rams (9/14), averaged 50.0 gross yards and 47.2 net yards on five punts with two punts placed inside the 20. In the first quarter, he pinned the Rams on their 10-yard line with a 48-yard punt, and in the second quarter, he pinned the Rams on their four-yard line with a 44-yard punt. Through two games, he placed three total punts inside the opponent's 10-yard line, which tied for the most by a Titans player through the first two games of a season (Brett Kern in 2011 and 2013) since 2000.

➤ Against Indianapolis (9/21), recorded a 52-yard punt on his only attempt.

➤ At Houston (9/28), averaged 42.6 gross yards and 39.6 net yards on five punts with two punts placed inside the 20.

➤ At Arizona (10/5), averaged 54.2 gross yards and 47.0 net yards on five punts with three punts inside the 20. He logged his fifth career game and his first since Dec. 15, 2019 in which he punted five or more times and averaged at least 54.0 gross yards and 47.0 net yards with three or more punts inside the 20. In the second quarter, he pinned Arizona on its 11-yard line with a 50-yard punt, and in the third quarter, his 50-yard punt pinned the Cardinals on the seven-yard line.

➤ At Las Vegas (10/12), averaged 44.0 gross yards and 34.6 net yards on five punts (long of 53).

➤ Against New England (10/19), averaged 40.7 yards (40.7 net) on three punts with two punts placed inside the 20. He used a 38-yard punt to pin the Patriots on their seven-yard line in the second quarter, and a 53-yard punt produced the identical result in the third quarter.

➤ At Indianapolis (10/26), punted five times for a 43.0-yard average (32.4 net avg.) with one punt placed inside the 20, and he added a special teams tackle. During the game, he became the 27th NFL player to reach 1,000 career punts.

#6 • K JOEY SLYE

5-11, 213, 7th Year/1st with Titans, Virginia Tech
Click for complete bio

Kicker Joey Slye is in his seventh NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2025. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 24, 2025.

Prior to arriving in Tennessee, Slye appeared in 95 games over six seasons with the Carolina Panthers (2019-20), Houston Texans (2022), San Francisco 49ers (2022), Washington Commanders (2022-23) and New England Patriots (2024). The Virginia Tech product has also spent time with the N.Y. Giants and Jacksonville Jaguars. From 2019 to 2024, he made 147 field goals on 180 attempts and added 163 extra points on 182 attempts.

In 2024, Slye played in all 17 games for the Patriots and connected on 26 of 33 field goal attempts and 25 of 26 extra point attempts for a total of 103 points. At San Francisco on Sept. 29, 2024, he set a Patriots record and established his career long with a 63-yard field goal at the end of the second quarter. It tied for the fourth-longest field goal in NFL history.

In his final season in Washington (2023), Slye saw action in all 17 games and handled all kickoffs, field goals and extra points for the Commanders. He connected on 19 of 24 field goals and 32 of 35 extra points for 89 points. Also had 64 touchbacks on 69 kickoffs.

The North Stafford, Va., native attended Virginia Tech (2014-17), where he played four seasons and made 78 of 108 field goal attempts (72.2 percent) and 169 of 172 extra point attempts (98.3 percent).

2025 Game Notes:

➤ At Denver (9/7), converted on all four field goal attempts in his Titans debut, including makes of 50, 39, 42 and 35 yards. It was Slye's sixth career game with four or more made field goals. His first attempt as a member of the Titans was a 50-yarder that he made in the first quarter. Joined Nick Folk (Sept. 10, 2023 at New Orleans) and Ryan Succop (Sept. 7, 2014 at Kansas City) as the team's only kickers with four or more field goals in a Week 1 game in the franchise's "Titans era" (since 1999).

➤ Against the L.A. Rams (9/14), made all four field goal attempts, connecting from 55, 37, 57 and 35 yards. He added an extra point. Kicked two of the 10 longest field goals in franchise history in the game. Joined Brandon Aubrey (2024), John Kasay (1996) and Nick Lowery (1985) as the only NFL players since the 1970 merger to make four field goals in each of the first two weeks of a season. Became the first player in franchise history to record two field goals of 55-plus yards in the same game. At the time, his 55-yard field goal in the second quarter tied (four previous) for the fifth-longest field goal in franchise history. Drilled a 37-yard field goal as time expired in the first half. Recorded a 57-yard field goal in the third quarter, the second-longest in franchise history. The only field goal from a longer distance was Rob Bironas' 60-yard game-winner against Indianapolis on Dec. 3, 2006. Increased his career total to 10 field goals of 55 yards or longer. For the first time in his career, he recorded back-to-back performances with four field goals, and for the first time in his career, he reached three consecutive games with at least three field goals made. He connected on a trio of field goals in the 2024 season finale with the Patriots before making four field goals in Week 1 of 2025 at Denver. In his first two games with the Titans, he connected on all eight field goal attempts with makes in six of the team's eight quarters played in 2025. His eight field goals established a new franchise high for any Titans/Oilers kicker in the first two games of a season, breaking the mark of seven field goals by Nick Folk in 2023.

➤ Against Indianapolis (9/21), made two of his four attempts, connecting from 57 and 42 yards and missing from 64 and 62 yards, the latter of which was blocked. In the first quarter, he made a 57-yard field goal to tie the second-longest field goal in franchise history, which he made in the previous game against the L.A. Rams (Sept. 14). He joined Jake Elliott (2025), Brandon Aubrey (2024), Greg Zuerlein (2022) and Brett Maher (2019) as the NFL's only kickers to have a field goal of at least 57 yards in two consecutive games. Slye joined Rob Bironas (2009) as the team's only kickers in the "Titans era" (since 1999) to register three consecutive games with at least one field goal of 50-plus yards, and also became the only franchise kicker other than Bironas (four) with three career field goals of 55-plus yards. He was credited with a career-high two special teams tackles.

➤ At Arizona (10/5), participated in his 100th NFL game (regular season). Made three field goals, including the game-winning 29-yard field goal as time expired in the fourth quarter. It was his first career game-winning field goal. He also made a 44-yard field goal in the first quarter and a 51-yarder in the second quarter. His game-winner was his 13th field goal of the season. He joined Ryan Succop (13 in 2018) and Nick Folk (13 in 2023) as the only players in franchise history with 13 or more field goals in the first five games of a season.

➤ Against New England (10/19), made a 49-yard field goal in the first quarter, and in the second quarter, he connected on a 50-yarder to give the Titans a 13-10 lead. With his sixth field goal of 50-plus yards in 2025, he joined Stephen Gostkowski (seven in 2020), Rob Bironas (six in 2011) and Nick Folk (six in 2024) as the only kickers in franchise history with at least six field goals of 50-plus yards in a season.

Beginning Sept. 7 - end of the season

NISSAN STADIUM GAMEDAY MEDIA INFORMATION

FOOTBALL COMMUNICATIONS CONTACTS

Titans Media Relations (Press Box Seats B8-B15): (615) 565-4450
Evert Geerlings, Vice President, Football Communications
Dwight Spradlin, Director of Football Communications
Jared Puffer, Associate Director of Football Communications (Field Contact)
Kaylee Connors, Coordinator of Football Communications
Travis McDaniel, Football Communications Assistant
Preston Anderson, Football Communications Fellow (Media Will Call)
Visiting Team Media Relations (Press Box Seats 29-32): (615) 565-4452

DIRECTIONS TO NISSAN STADIUM

FROM AIRPORT TO NISSAN STADIUM (APPROXIMATELY 15 MINUTES):
Take I-40 West toward Nashville/Memphis to I-24 West (before downtown). Exit at James Robertson Parkway (Exit 48). Turn left at first light (Interstate Drive). Turn right on Woodland Street. Nissan Stadium will be on the left. Follow signs to parking lot ("M" lot on northwest corner/river side of stadium).

NISSAN STADIUM MEDIA WILL CALL/MEDIA ENTRANCE

The media will call window and media entrance are located in the northwest corner of Nissan Stadium near Gate 6. The media will call window opens three hours prior to kickoff.

FIELD MEDIA VESTS

All members of the media with field access during the game must wear a media vest. Still and video photographers will be issued tan vests, while team-affiliated photographers and videographers (scoreboard, social, coaches' shows, etc.) will be issued gray vests. Additionally, media with in-game field access will be issued an armband. All vests and armbands must be obtained prior to each game at the check-in table. Vest check-in is located on the third-floor landing near the press box. All vests must be returned at the conclusion of the game to Titans personnel or to the vest check-in table.

NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX INTERNET ACCESS

Wireless internet access is available free of charge in the Nissan Stadium press box. The login information will be available upon arrival in the press box. A limited number of ethernet lines also are available. Accessing the wireless network works the same in the Nissan Stadium press box as it does in most areas with free connectivity. Titans staff may be able to assist in a limited manner, but you should first contact your company's I.T. department with any questions.

FROM NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX TO INTERVIEW ROOMS

Take the press box elevator (Level 3) to field level (Level 1). The Titans interview room is immediately on the right. Turn left and continue straight along the concourse to reach the visiting team's interview room (white line).

POSTGAME POLICIES

Reporters with press box credentials will not be allowed on the field during pregame activities or during the game itself. Press box credentials do NOT provide access to the field at the two-minute warning in the fourth quarter. Media will be allowed to gather in the Titans interview room to watch the end of the game or remain in the press box to make the short walk down to service level at the conclusion of the game. Interviews with Titans players are not permitted on the field following the game. The press conference will begin approximately 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game and will be held in the interview room across from the Titans locker room. Key players also will be brought to the interview room. Simultaneously, the locker room will open to credentialed media members with a working function. The press conference audio will be played live over the press box speakers.

POSTGAME QUOTES

Quotes from each team's head coach and key players will be transcribed and distributed throughout the Nissan Stadium press box following the game. The quotes also will be available at www.TennesseeTitans.com/media.

POOL REPORTS

Pool reporters are assigned by the Pro Football Writers of America. Requests for pool reports with game officials must be made in advance through the home team's media relations. Interviews will be conducted virtually. Pool reports will be recorded, transcribed and then distributed in the press box.

EXITING NISSAN STADIUM

FROM NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX TO STADIUM EXIT: Cross the press box catwalk to the third floor lobby. If less than two hours have elapsed since the end of the game, take the stairs or elevator one floor down to Level 2. Exit through the doors and walk right to get to the "M" lot. If more than two hours have elapsed since the end of the game, take the elevator down to Level 1. Proceed through the lower concourse and exit through the security checkpoint at the loading dock.

FROM NISSAN STADIUM TO AIRPORT (APPROXIMATELY 15 MINUTES):
Take I-24 East toward Chattanooga to I-40 East toward Knoxville. The airport is at Exit 216A.

NISSAN STADIUM PARKING AND MEDIA ENTRANCE

The media will call window and media entrance are located in the northwest corner of Nissan Stadium near Gate 6. The media will call window opens three hours prior to kickoff. Photographers' vests can be picked up near the entrance to the press box on Level 3.
