DIVISION ON THE LINE AS TITANS VISIT JACKSONVILLE SATURDAY NIGHT

Tennessee Titans (7-9) at Jacksonville Jaguars (8-8)

Sat. Jan. 7, 2023 • 8:15 p.m. EST/7:15 p.m. CST • TIAA Bank Field • Jacksonville, Fla. • TV: ESPN/ABC (WKRN-2)

NASHVILLE — The Tennessee Titans travel to Jacksonville this week to face the Jaguars in a game that will determine the 2022 AFC South champion. Kickoff at TIAA Bank Field (capacity 67,858) is scheduled for 8:15 p.m. EST/7:15 p.m. CST on Saturday, Jan. 7.

Heading into the final weekend of the regular season, the Jaguars own an 8-8 record and lead the 7-9 Titans by one game in the division race. Their current edge is due in part to their 36-22 victory in Tennessee on Dec. 11 in the first of two annual head-to-head clashes. The Jaguars will take the division title with either a win or a tie in Week 18.

However, if the Titans are victorious this week, they would match the Jaguars' record and take the division crown based on the division-record tiebreaker. The Titans would finish the regular season with a 4-2 mark against AFC South foes, while the Jaguars would be 3-3.

The AFC South winner will be the fourth seed in the conference playoff field and will host the fifth seed during Super Wild Card Weekend (Jan. 14-16).

THE BROADCAST

The contest will be nationally televised on ESPN and ABC, including Nashville ABC affiliate WKRN News 2. The broadcast team includes play-by-play announcer Joe Buck, analyst Troy Aikman and reporter Lisa Salters.

ESPN Deportes will carry the Spanish-language telecast.

On phones and tablets, the newly-launched NFL+ subscription service offers access to all local games and all primetime games, live local and national audio for every NFL game, and more. This week's game is also available on ESPN+.

The Titans Radio Network and Nashville flagship 104.5 The Zone carry all Titans games across the Mid-South with the "Voice of the Titans" Mike Keith, analyst Dave McGinnis, sideline reporter Amie Wells and gameday host Rhett Bryan.

Additionally, Westwood One Sports will broadcast the game to a national radio audience. Play-by-play announcer Tom McCarthy and analyst Jason McCourty have the call.

TITANS GOING FOR THIRD CONSECUTIVE DIVISION TITLE

With a win this week at Jacksonville, the Titans will clinch their third consecutive division title. The only other three-year streak of division titles in franchise annals was when the Oilers won the AFL Eastern division each season from 1960 to 1962. It would also give the Titans four straight playoff berths for the first time since a franchise-record seven consecutive playoff appearances from 1987 to 1993. Head coach Mike Vrabel would join Jeff Fisher (six) and Jack Pardee (four) as the only head coaches to lead the franchise to at least four playoff appearances.

A week ago, the Titans hosted the Dallas Cowboys on Thursday night. With several starters out, the Titans were within four points of the Cowboys at the start of the fourth quarter. However, Dallas scored the final 10 points of the night and prevailed 27-13.

In the absence of starting quarterback Ryan Tannehill, who was placed on injured reserve, quarterback Joshua Dobbs recorded his first NFL start only eight days after the Titans signed him from the Detroit Lions practice squad. He completed 20 of 39 passes for 232 yards and his first career touchdown pass, a seven-yard strike to wide receiver Robert Woods.

The defense was led by safety Kevin Byard, who picked off a pair of passes to increase his career total to 27 interceptions, including a team-leading four interceptions in 2022. He moved into a tie for fourth place on the franchise's all-time career interceptions list and now has the most in the team's "Titans era" (1999 to present).

THE JAGUARS

A win by the Jaguars this week would give them their first playoff berth since winning the division in 2017. It would also give head coach Doug Pederson's club five consecutive victories and seven wins in a nine-game stretch to close out the regular season.

Even with a loss to the Titans, the Jaguars could make it to the postseason as a wild card. It would require a New England loss (against Buffalo), a Miami loss (against the Jets) and a Pittsburgh loss (against Cleveland).

Jaguars second-year quarterback Trevor Lawrence, the first-overall draft pick in 2021, has passed for 3,901 yards with 24 touchdowns and eight interceptions in his second season. His 95.4 passer rating ranks 10th in the NFL among qualifiers.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR THIS WEEK

G AARON BREWER, S KEVIN BYARD, CB ROGER McCREARY

- Have a chance to complete the regular season with starts in all 17 games.

OLB DENICO AUTRY

- Needs one sack to match his career high of nine sacks in a season. He had nine sacks in 2018 and matched the total in 2021.

S KEVIN BYARD

- Needs one interception to break a four-way tie and gain sole possession of fourth place on the team's all-time career interceptions list. With 27 career interceptions, he is tied with Tony Banfield, W.K. Hicks and Darryll Lewis on the franchise chart.
- Can record his seventh consecutive season in which he appeared in every game and his sixth consecutive season in which he started every contest.

RB DERRICK HENRY

- Can record his 37th total 100-yard rushing game, including regular season (34) and playoffs (three).
- Can register his fourth consecutive 100-yard rushing game and his ninth such effort of 2022. It would mark the fifth time in franchise history that a player had at least eight 100-yard rushing performances in a season. He accomplished the feat in 2020 with 10 total 100-yard games.
- Needs 71 rushing yards to reach 1,500 rushing yards this season (currently 1,429), and he needs two rushing touchdowns to get to 15 on the season (currently 13). He would become the first player in NFL history to achieve the feat three times. He previously did so in 2019 and 2020.
- A 1,500-yard rushing season by Henry would be the seventh in franchise history and the third by Henry (2019 and 2020).
- Needs 23 rushing attempts (currently at 1,720 for his career) to pass Chris Johnson (1,742) for the third-most rushing attempts in franchise history.

TE CHIG OKONKWO

- Can become the second rookie tight end in franchise history with at least three touchdown catches, joining Chris Dressel (four in 1983).
- Can record his fifth reception of 30-plus yards. He would join Delanie Walker (six in 2014 and five in 2016) as the team's only tight ends since 1999 with five or more 30-yard catches in a single season.

DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

- Needs one sack to match his career high of 8.5 sacks in a season, set in 2021.

P RYAN STONEHOUSE

- Enters the game with an average of 53.02 yards per punt. The all-time NFL single-season record is 51.40 yards per punt, set by Washington's Sammy Baugh in 1940.

WR ROBERT WOODS

- Needs one reception (49 currently) to register his seventh career season with at least 50 catches.

SERIES HISTORY

The Jaguars are the Titans' longest-standing division rival. The clubs have met at least twice each year since Jacksonville began play as an expansion franchise in 1995. For the first seven seasons of the rivalry they played in the AFC Central, and since 2002 they have been members of the AFC South.

The teams have met a total of 56 times, with the Titans holding a 34-22 advantage. For eight consecutive seasons (2009–2016), the Titans and Jaguars split the annual series before Tennessee took both matchups in 2017 and 2018. In 2019, they exchanged wins once again before the Titans took both games in 2020 and 2021.

The first Titans-Jaguars contest this season took place at Nissan Stadium on Dec. 11. Jacksonville's Trevor Lawrence passed for 368 yards and three touchdowns, spearheading a 36-22 Jaguars win that broke the Titans' five-game winning streak in the series. The Jaguars forced four turnovers in the victory.

The last Titans-Jaguars matchup at TIAA Bank Field was Oct. 10, 2021. Derrick Henry rushed for three touchdowns, and safety Kevin Byard returned a fumble 30 yards for a score in the Titans' 37-19 victory.

The Titans and Jaguars have met five times on Thursday Night Football. The last occasion was Sept. 19, 2019. The Jaguars won by a final score of 20-7, taking a 3-2 lead in the Thursday night series. Jaguars then-rookie quarterback Gardner Minshew earned his first career victory as a starter in the contest.

On Thursday night, Dec. 6, 2018, Titans running back Derrick Henry rushed for a then-franchise-record 238 yards and four touchdowns on 17 carries, lifting the Titans to a 30-9 win over the Jaguars. On one of his scores, Henry matched Tony Dorsett to become only the second running back in NFL history to record a 99-yard rushing attempt.

The stakes of the rivalry were never higher than in 1999, when the Titans and Jaguars met three times, including the AFC Championship Game in Jacksonville. Steve McNair rushed for two touchdowns and Derrick Mason returned a kickoff 80 yards for a touchdown as the Titans earned their first Super Bowl berth with a 33-14 win. Tennessee went on to Super Bowl XXXIV and eventually fell at the hands of the St. Louis Rams, 23-16.

The Jaguars played their first game in franchise history against the then-Houston Oilers on Sept. 3, 1995. In Jacksonville, the Oilers won the game by a 10-3 final score.

TITANS-JAGUARS: THE LAST MEETING

2022 Week 14: Jaguars 36, Titans 22

Sunday, Dec. 11, 2022 • 12:00 p.m. CT • Nissan Stadium

In Week 14 of the 2022 season, the Titans hosted the Jaguars and fell by a score of 36-22.

Tennessee got on the board on its opening possession with a 10-play scoring drive that included first-down receptions by WRs Nick Westbrook-Ikhine and Robert Woods, as well as TE Chig Okonkwo. Ultimately, RB Derrick Henry ran in a three-yard rushing score for an early 7-0 Titans lead. Later in the first quarter, QB Ryan Tannehill was strip-sacked and the ball was recovered by Jaguars DL Dawuane Smoot, giving Jacksonville a first down at the Tennessee 20-yard line. Jaguars QB Trevor Lawrence found Jaguars TE Evan Engram for a 12-yard touchdown to capitalize on the turnover and tie the score, 7-7.

On the ensuing Titans possession, Tennessee took the lead back with a six-play scoring possession. Henry broke free for a 50-yard gain to earn a first down at the Jacksonville 25-yard line, before Tannehill found Okonkwo for a 10-yard touchdown pass, 14-7 Tennessee.

In the second quarter, Tannehill's pass was intercepted by Jaguars S Andrew Wingard and returned 13 yards to the Jacksonville 46-yard line, as Jaguars K Riley Patterson was able to tack on a 37-yard field goal, 14-10 Titans. After forcing the Titans to go three-and-out, Jacksonville added another field goal as Patterson converted a 43-yarder, 14-13 Titans. On the ensuing Titans possession, with Tennessee driving in Jacksonville territory, Tannehill tossed a 16-yard pass to Henry. However, Henry fumbled the ball and it was recovered by Jaguars OLB Josh Allen for a Jacksonville first down at their own 22-yard line. Lawrence found Jaguars WR Christian Kirk for a 23-yard pass, Engram for a 18-yard first down, and ultimately, Jaguars WR Zay Jones for a 20-yard touchdown pass as Jacksonville took a 20-14 lead into halftime.

In the third stanza, Jacksonville scored 13 points to increase their lead. First, a 72-yard drive culminated in a one-yard rushing score by Lawrence, 27-14. Then, a five-play possession resulted in a 21-yard touchdown pass from Lawrence to Engram. Jacksonville elected to go for two, but Lawrence's pass fell incomplete, 33-14 Jaguars.

Jacksonville capitalized on another Titans turnover in the fourth quarter, as a fumbled snap was recovered by Jaguars OLB Arden Key at the Tennessee 30-yard line. Patterson converted a 33-yard field goal to make it 36-14, Jacksonville. On the ensuing Titans possession, Tennessee put together a 10-yard scoring drive, aided by two first-down passes to TE Austin Hooper. The drive concluded with a two-yard touchdown pass from Tannehill to Westbrook-Ikhine, and Tennessee's two-point conversion was successful as Tannehill found Okonkwo on a pass play. The Titans inched closer to make it 36-22, but ultimately could not construct a comeback and fell at home.

Doug Pederson was named the seventh head coach in Jacksonville Jaguars franchise history on Feb. 4, 2022, following a five-year run as the head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles from 2016 to 2020.

Pederson has 12 years of NFL coaching experience and played in the NFL as a quarterback for parts of 13 seasons. Originally drafted by the Carolina Panthers in the 1995 expansion draft, he spent most of his playing career as a backup to Brett Favre on the Green Bay Packers, where he was part of the team that won a Super Bowl title. He was also a backup to Dan Marino on the Miami Dolphins, as well as a starter for the Philadelphia Eagles and Cleveland Browns until retiring in 2004.

In just his second season as an NFL head coach, Pederson led the Eagles to a 13-3 regular-season record, an NFC East title, the No. 1 seed in the NFC playoffs and the first Super Bowl title in franchise history with a 41-33 victory over the New England Patriots in Super Bowl LII. The Super Bowl victory was led by backup quarterback Nick Foles, after quarterback Carson Wentz went down with an injury late in the season.

Prior to his head-coaching stint in Philadelphia, Pederson served as the offensive coordinator in Kansas City from 2013-15 and helped guide the Chiefs to a 31-17 regular-season record.

Before joining Kansas City, Pederson served as an offensive quality control coach (2009-10) and then the quarterbacks coach (2011-12) in Philadelphia. In his first season as the quarterbacks coach, he helped quarterback Michael Vick become the second quarterback in NFL history to top the 3,000-yard passing and 500-yard rushing plateaus in consecutive seasons.

While serving as a backup quarterback for Green Bay from 1995-98 and 2001-04, he was part of Packers teams that won Super Bowl XXXI, two NFC Championships (1996 and 1997) and six division titles. Pederson made eight starts for the Browns in 2000 and logged 1,047 yards and two touchdowns on 117 completions. In 1999, Pederson made nine starts for the Eagles, completing 119 passes for 1,276 yards and seven touchdowns.

Pederson attended Northeast Louisiana (now Louisiana Monroe) where he was a three-year starter at quarterback. He graduated from Northeast Louisiana with a B.B.A. in business management.

LAST WEEK VS. THE COWBOYS

Week 17: Titans 13, Cowboys 27
Thursday, Dec. 29, 2022 • 7:15 p.m. CT • Nissan Stadium

In Week 17 of the 2022 season, the Titans hosted the Cowboys for a primetime matchup on Thursday Night Football and fell to Dallas by a score of 27-13.

Dallas jumped out to a 10-0 lead with a scoring drive in each of the first two quarters. In the opening stanza, Cowboys QB Dak Prescott led his team on a 10-play scoring drive that included first-down passes to Cowboys TE Dalton Schultz and Cowboys WR T.Y. Hilton. Ultimately, Cowboys RB Ezekiel Elliot found the end zone on a one-yard rushing score, 7-0 Dallas. In the second quarter, Dallas tacked on a field goal as Cowboys K Brett Maher converted a 36-yard attempt, 10-0 Dallas.

Later in the second quarter, Prescott's pass was intercepted by S Kevin Byard and returned two yards to give Tennessee possession at their own 36-yard line. QB Josh Dobbs found RB Julius Chestnut on a 33-yard screen pass to enter Cowboys territory and then found WR Robert Woods for a 10-yard gain to move the sticks. Ultimately, the Titans were forced to settle for a field goal as K Randy Bullock made a 37-yard attempt, 10-3 Dallas. On the ensuing Dallas possession, Prescott threw a second interception to Byard, who returned the ball 28 yards for a Titans first down at the Dallas 41-yard line. Dobbs threw a 30-yard pass to WR Treyton Burks, setting up a second field goal as time expired. Bullock converted a 29-yard kick as Dallas took a 10-6 lead into halftime.

Dallas increased it's lead in the third quarter with an 89-yard scoring drive. Facing a third-and-19 at the Dallas 43-yard line, a pass interference provided the Cowboys a first down at the Tennessee six-yard line. Prescott then found Schultz for a six-yard touchdown pass to extend the lead, 17-6.

However, on the ensuing Titans possession, Tennessee inched closer with a touchdown of its own. Dobbs connected with Burks for a 21-yard gain, and RB Hassan Haskins contributed a 12-yard first down rush, as the drive culminated in a seven-yard touchdown pass from Dobbs to Woods, 17-13 Cowboys.

In the fourth quarter, Dallas tacked on 10 points to put the game out of reach for Tennessee. First, a 10-play possession concluded as Prescott found Schultz for a 10-yard score to make it 24-13. Then, the Titans defense held Dallas to a field goal as Maher converted a 45-yard kick to make it 27-13. However, Tennessee was unable to construct a comeback and fell to Dallas at home.

- A total of six rookies were in the starting lineup for the Titans: wide receiver Treylon Burks, tight end Chig Okonkwo, running back Hasan Haskins, linebacker Jack Gibbens and cornerbacks Roger McCreary and Tre Avery. It was the most for the Titans in a game since six rookies started at Cleveland on Nov. 6, 2005.
- For the first time in the "Titans era" (1999 to present), the Titans had rookie starters at running back (Hassan Haskins), tight end (Chig Okonkwo) and wide receiver (Treylon Burks).
- Eleven Titans rookies played in the game, which was the team's highest number since 12 rookies took the field at New England on Dec. 20, 2015. Entering the Thursday night game against the Cowboys, the Titans' total of 124 combined games played by rookies in 2022 was tied for the fourth-highest number in the NFL.
- Three Titans players made their NFL debuts: defensive lineman Jayden Peevy and offensive linemen Zack Johnson and Xavier Newman.
- Joshua Dobbs became the third quarterback to start for the Titans in 2022, joining Ryan Tannehill (12 starts) and Malik Willis (three). The last time the Titans used three different starting quarterbacks in a season was 2014 with Jake Locker, Charlie Whitehurst and Zach Mettenberger.
- The Titans were plus-one in turnover margin, totaling a pair of turnovers and three takeaways. It was the seventh time in 2022 they won the turnover battle.

- The Titans defense allowed an average of 2.7 yards per rushing attempt against the Cowboys—87 yards on 32 attempts. It was the 13th time this season—and the 13th time in a 14-game span—that their opponents did not reach the 100-yard rushing mark. The Titans entered the week ranked second in the NFL in rushing defense (80.1 opponent rushing yards per game) and now have allowed an average of 80.5 opponent rushing yards per contest.

Hicks and Darryll Lewis (27) for fourth place on the franchise's all-time interceptions list. THURSDAY, DEC. 29, 2022

Was the decision to start quarterback Joshua Dobbs to see how he compares to quarterback Malik Willis or because you believed Joshua Dobbs gave the Titans a better chance to win?

Probably a little bit of both. Last week seeing - really it was a great opportunity to evaluate Joshua (Dobbs). We'll make a decision going forward. He did some good things. We certainly would like to have a couple throws back. We will kind of see where things are here in a couple of days.

When did you know Joshua Dobbs would start this game?

Early in the week I told both of them.

How did you like how the defense performed and did penalties end up being your downfall on defense?

We just beat ourselves too much. It is too hard to beat the Cowboys or any good football teams when you beat yourself. We competed. I was extremely proud of the way that the 47 guys who we had up tonight competed, certainly not without mistake, but we gave ourselves a chance. Then again, we just did too many things that that hurt us and stole drives or allowed drives to continue. We didn't get the drive stop with a field goal down there in the red zone.

Once you made the decision to go to Joshua Dobbs was there ever any thoughts to go to back Malik Willis if performance dictated so?

Yeah.

Does bringing in Joshua Dobbs from the practice squad to start say anything about Malik Willis' progress?

We are excited about having Malik (Willis). We are excited about some of the things that he has done. We will continue to digest this over the week-end and make a decision. Malik (Willis) has worked hard, but then we just have to see where we are at with the quarterback position here going down to the last week of the season.

Was there panic from some players in some big moments like on cornerback Tre Avery's 51-yard penalty?

We just had a critical penalty. You think guys panic? They are out there playing their butts off, man. They made a mistake.

You had three pass plays over 30 yards tonight and that is something that hasn't been a part of your offense in recent weeks.

We protected well. Throughout the course of the game - I mean, there were times where it was obviously a passing down, but there was time for Joshua (Dobbs) to progress through and move the ball downfield. Treyton (Burks) was held, I think his left arm was grabbed. The same guy who called the 50-yard pass interference penalty. I didn't see it the same way on our sidelines. I don't know what to tell you. I thought there were opportunities where we could have helped Joshua (Dobbs) out as well. We couldn't come down with a catch. There were also other times where we made plays down the field, hit the screen versus pressure, and all those things. Hassan (Haskins) had one of the better runs of the year on fourth-and-two. He ran over a really good player and fell forward for a first down.

Did the roughing the passer call on Cowboys quarterback Dak Prescott and the no call on Joshua Dobbs seem similar?

Those are judgment calls and I think that was bad judgment.

Did safety Kevin Byard ask to play and how do you think he played?

I value Kevin (Byard)'s opinion. I value his role on this football team as a captain. You have to make decisions. I felt like where we were in that case, that he was going to play. He wanted to play. That was the plan. He played. He took advantage of his opportunities when the ball came his way, whether it was deflected, tipped, or whatever. He tried to tackle and come down for support. All those things aside, I appreciate his leadership. It was a different week. The whole circumstances with next week and trying to prepare a team. I am proud of the way that they fought. I am sure that everybody expected us to just lay down. I know that we didn't do that.

Was there anything that you took away as positive momentum moving into the regular season finale?

There were things when we didn't beat ourselves or we didn't extend drives or penalties. Third downs were a little bit disappointing. We stopped the run with whoever we had in there, with whatever group or front. We stopped the run. They even had the one big one. It would have been much less than that if we had just done our job and been where we were supposed to be, we wouldn't have given up the long one. That were some positives. Certainly, the penalties are a negative. Being able to avoid some of those. Offensively we got into a rhythm. We kept competing. We need to run the football better, but that is kind of been where we've been the last couple weeks. Doing some good things, just not consistently enough. Then unfortunately beating ourselves. The margin for error when you do that is pretty thin.

How did quarterback Joshua Dobbs' play pump some life into the offense?

Guys were – Woody (Robert Woods) had a big third-down catch over there on the sidelines. That was a good ball and needed some protection to get there. We will see where it went and watch the tape. I thought that there were some good. I wish Treylon (Burks) would have been able to come down with that one. It was a little behind him, but I think he expects to make that catch. I thought the timing on it was good and it was going to the right spot.

How impressive that Joshua Dobbs had this impressive of a night after only being here for a short time?

Eight days or nine days. He was excited for this opportunity to get his first start. Something that we've always said since I've been here is that it doesn't really matter how you end up here or how you get here. The only thing that matters is what you do when you're here. We have had a lot of guys take advantage of those opportunities. Joshua (Dobbs) wanted to try to do the best that he could. Unfortunately, we lost and I'm sure he would like to have the interception back, but he did some good things just not well enough.

What has to happen to be able to flip a switch and win next week?

We just have to get some guys back healthy and clean up some of the little details that show up. You only get one opportunity sometimes with a call on offense or defense versus the same exact look. It is going to happen in the game and if you don't hit it you can't say, 'Oh darn, we will just rep it again in practice.' We have had far too many of those, but we will get them cleaned up. We will have to eliminate big plays on defense, run the football, and take care of it. The same thing we always say, just do a little bit more consistently. I'm excited to watch these guys walk back into the building next week energized, recovered, and rested. I'm excited.

Do you feel like you got more from everybody that you challenged them to give after last week?

I think so. I haven't watched the tape, but I felt like the guys - some of the leadership was really good. They had some good performances just not good enough. Buying into the meetings and buying into the details. You never know when you're going to get your opportunity to make a play and be ready to make it.

Was the team operationally smoother tonight?

Without looking at the tape, maybe. There were still a few times where you have to fix those mistakes. Everybody is responsible for that, whether the formation gets called right or wrong on a play, you have to know the gameplan well enough to know where you line up and hear the call. There were some mistakes like there is every week.

Did you have a chance to talk to quarterback Ryan Tannehill before putting him on injured reserve?

Of course I had a chance to talk to Ryan (Tannehill). It is always difficult, but you have to be realistic as well with where we are at, with what was a realistic expectation for him to come back is, how long that would be, and what that may look like when he did come back. That was the decision that we made. He was obviously disappointed. We talked about his toughness. No different than all the other guys that we have had to put on injured reserve.

QUARTERBACK JOSHUA DOBBS

When did you find out you were going to start?

After the last game. It was Christmas Eve, and I was actually driving home, and Pat (O'Hara) called and said, 'Hey, can you come in tomorrow? Just to be prepared to play. We just want to go through the gameplan. I was trying to figure out which way we're going to go, but if you're playing, I just want you to see this stuff as soon as possible.' So, I go home and spend Christmas morning at home, and then turned around, around noon, and drove back up. I had a car finally, so drove back up, and then we started diving into the gameplan. And then the next day, they said they, 'Were probably going to start you, so you're going to take all the reps throughout practice.'

How big of a challenge is it to start a game after just being here eight days and how in your mind you think you did?

It's a unique situation and it's a wonderful opportunity that I really embrace and have a lot of fun with. There are obviously things that I know that I can do better and be better, especially situationally. I'm looking back to the game, and we'll dive into that because I know we've got a big one coming up, but I thought through the preparation and the guys, just how we fought throughout the game, it was great to see. We're throwing routes out there on the field that haven't even thrown practice with it being a short week. Just being able to make those plays, make crucial plays throughout the game will propel us to this upcoming week where we actually have a full week to prepare for the game.

What was it like for you waiting six years for an opportunity to start a game and then finally getting to do it?

Yeah, man, it was a long time, that's for sure. It was a long time. A lot of working out and you're like, 'Dang, I don't even know.' Especially, you're in Pittsburgh for so long, and Ben (Roethlisberger) is playing at a high level still. So, you're like, 'Dang, I don't know when I'm going to get a shot.' Every week though I give everyone the analogy. It's like this is, you know, you have an algebra test every Friday. You have to prepare for the test. You prepare, you do all the homework on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday. You go through the process, do the actual work. You go to after hours and everything. And then Friday comes, and then you just don't take the test. Then you repeat process, and you never know when you have to take the test. I prepare every single week, as if I were going to start whether I'm dressing, not dressing, starting, not starting. As I said, there are things I could definitely do better out there on the field, but I love how I fought personally, I love how the team fought, took advantage of the opportunity. I'm excited for the next one.

Finally getting the opportunity to start, did you have like those early anxious moments? And if so, what was it that you did to allow yourself to settle in?

For sure. When you haven't played a live snap of football since August, and then now it's December, that's a long time, especially when you're in a new team, new receivers, new timing new offense. They're there. I'm human, they're going to be there. In those moments, I just try to take a deep breath, stay present, stay in the moment, lock in on the gameplan. Same thing I told the guys was, take it one day at a time. You do that. You focus on that play, make it the best play possible, move on to the next one, then not get overwhelmed by the moment. There's a lot of guys out there, not just me, making their first start or first time back on the field in a long time and just watching how the guys responded to adversity, responded with success. It was great to see, and it definitely was a building opportunity for us to know.

You had a relationship with Malik Willis before he got here. What was he like through this process?

He's been great. Just helping, especially a new quarterback, a guy that's been in there being able to just talk about procedural things such as cadence, snap count, communication, code words to the guys, especially when you're going no huddle up tempo. He's been a great resource, so has Kevin Hogan in the room as well. We have a really good group, the guys do their job well and it's been good to rely on those guys, as well as Pat (O'Hara) and Todd (Downing) to help with my preparation.

Building opportunity obviously a nice thing, but still a sixth loss in a row. Is there a feeling in the room that something's turning tide wise and that in ten days you can change the result?

We control our own destiny. Every single person in the locker room understands that. We go out, play a good game, we play how we know how to play football. We don't hurt ourselves. We go play good, clean football in Jacksonville next Sunday, whenever the game is, and we come up with a win. Then we're in the playoffs and we're getting rolling from there. We control our own destiny. Guys understand that. Obviously, every time you step on the field you expect to win, you want to win. So, it's tough when you don't get the job done. Now we'll go through our process, review the film, review the tape. We have a long week before preparation for the Jacksonville game and we control our destiny. We go out there and play the football we know can, win the playoffs and AFC championship.

What do you think the thing or maybe a couple of things you're going to be focused on this week?

Situationally, as I look back throughout the game, I fumbled the ball, put the ball on the ground in the red zone. We have points. I mean, you just can't do that. You know, that's an opportunity where you have to get the ball out, take a good clean sack, kick the field goal, get points, there's even tighter game. You're going to the fourth quarter. Little things like that. I took the sack on a keeper in the second quarter, throw the ball away. It's little things like that situationally that already I'm aware of that know I can get better. Of course, that comes from reps and being out there, or getting hit for the first time in a while. I'm not too worried about those, I know I'll clean them up. I'll be excited to dive into the tape with the coaches and continue to grow and improve as quickly as possible. Give the team the best chance we have to win.

How much difference might be having Derrick Henry possibly available in that game in Jacksonville?

No doubt. I mean, he's the highest paid, best player on offense. Any chance to get him out there healthy, and playing the football he can, will be tremendous for us. I thought the young guys though, today, did a great job holding the rock. Situationally tempo, getting the pile moving forward, they did a great job. And obviously having Derrick (Henry) back would be a great asset for the offense.

How did you end up with the football after your first career touchdown and did Robert Woods know?

No chance. There's no chance he knew. Everyone was obviously extremely excited. I just asked him and was like, 'Yo, can I keep this? This is my first one, please.' He was like, 'Yeah, you got it. You're good.' We just celebrated from there. Good to have. I'm going to give it to the fam so they can take it back home and find a nice spot for it.

You go from kind of waiting for an opportunity like this for so long to now getting the opportunity and now looking at potentially the biggest opportunity there is, right? Playing for a spot in the playoffs. How good was it to get one under your belt before that big one for all the marbles?

100 percent. It was great to get out there obviously, just get the jitters out, get the anger. To actually get hit sitting in the pocket, so completely different when you're in practice. They can usually run by you and sack you. It was a whole different environment, especially then playing situational football from there. As I said, get the stuff that I know out there cleaned up. It was good to get out there and get this opportunity because the next one is for all the marbles, man. It's like you grow up, you dream about playing playoff football in the NFL, you know? And to have that opportunity is one you never take for granted. Because just in my career, my six years, and I've been into the playoffs, thankfully three times, but the three years I haven't, the two years I haven't, I guess this is year six, really are tough because you put in a lot of hard work throughout the season. We go out there, we control our own destiny. It's good to get these reps, now let's make the most of the next opportunity.

Did you ever feel like you had a chance to show what you can do in this league?

No, I didn't honestly, just given my circumstances and the lack of opportunities. It's definitely been tough. Especially when you pour everything into it and you don't get the opportunity, it's always tough. I was thinking about it earlier today, is like your current position is not your destiny. You keep working hard, the opportunities will come. You never know when they will come. But you for sure better be ready when they do come.

Do you expect to start next week?

That's up to the coaches. I think they're going to put whoever gives us the best opportunity to win out there. I respect their decision. So, we'll see when we regroup over the weekend and go from there.

SAFETY KEVIN BYARD

How you made no bones about it this week that you're playing because you wanted to help lead and kind of set the tone and clearly did that with a couple of picks?

Yeah man, people had questions, like said some stuff like, 'Oh, you should sit out,' or whatever. I play this game for three reasons. I play this game to glorify God, I play this game for my family and then I play this game for the people this room right here. If I'm healthy and I'm ready to go, I'm a go. Because like I said, these guys are busting their behinds out here every single week. Some of these guys aren't a hundred either, but they go out there and fight. I'm going to do the same exact thing, and that's my job as a leader.

Just about Joshua Dobbs, just the boost he gave this offense tonight and what did it do for the defense?

Yeah, man, I think he did a really good job of just – Coach (Vrabel) always talks about the operation. I think Todd (Downing) did some good things kind of moving him outside the pocket doors and doing some things like that. He had some really good throws, obviously he's only been here for a week or two. But I definitely, you know, as long as he continues to progress, am sure we will see him next week.

Last Saturday night, it was said this team owed the fans. How important was it to you and this team to give (the effort) to them tonight?

Yeah, I mean, like I said, it's still disappointing we didn't get the win. We went into this game to get the win, trying to win this game. You obviously saw with the effort that we played with, so we're disappointed. But I can guarantee you this, I'm going to make sure that everybody, and we're going to have a couple of days off, but (has) the mind mentally, physically, get prepared to go win a playoff game. That's pretty much what it is, a playoff game. You win, you keep playing. You lose, we all go home.

DEFENSIVE LINEMAN DEMARCUS WALKER

Four point game going into the fourth quarter. You guys were right in it.

Yeah, I know. I definitely believe in these guys every single day. Just challenging these guys every single week, every single day. They stepped up. And I'm just so proud of these guys.

What does tonight tell you, and give you momentum-wise, heading into the Jaguars' game, knowing you're going to get dudes back?

A lot of positive things to take into this week. A lot of guys are down on themselves, but we showed those guys that we're still here. Had our game going. Held them to under 100 yards rushing. Held them to 13 points in the first half...

WIDE RECEIVER ROBERT WOODS

With Josh (Dobbs) having six years of experience, it felt like everything just moved a little bit quicker, crisper?

I'll say, him just being able to see on some of the quick throws or three steppers, Josh (Dobbs) was able to stand in the pocket, being able to deliver it in a timely matter. On some third downs we were able to catch and get vertical. He put the ball in good spots to allow us to make plays.

I think you had three consecutive drives where you guys had a 30-yard completion or more and that's been missing from this offense?

I got to say, just keep giving us opportunities to make plays throughout the whole game.

With (Joshua) Dobbs, how impressive was I think he has been here a week. I mean, seems to have a pretty good command of the playbook, at least from our perspective. Do you feel that way?

Yeah, I would say so. He's been here eight days. He has been able to pick up on the offense and come in and start a football game, so that's a start. We'll see what we can do next week, but we've got more time to prepare, more time get where we are going to throw, more time to capitalize and go out and win a game.

Do you say anything to him (Joshua Dobbs) after the touchdown?

Just way to pull the trigger. I sat in the zone, kind of kept running, felt a soft spot, Josh (Dobbs) was ready for it, being able to throw it, being able to score. He said, 'I need that ball, that's my first one.'

Did you know that was his first career touchdown pass?

I did not, but definitely gave him the ball so he could cherish the touchdown.

RUNNING BACK HASSAN HASKINS

Regarding (Joshua) Dobbs what did it seem like from him, from the word go? Did he seem in command? I mean, he's had a week to learn the play. Tell me about that.

No, I was surprised. You know, he was in command. He was in control. He knew everything that was going on. And like you say, you only had like a week. He did real good.

I know it's a loss, but how can you guys use this momentum going into next week? Everything's on the table.

True. We've just got to take it one day at a time, keep building as a team. A lot of players come back next week and feel confident we'll get the job done.

I mean, how big is your first year here? You're playing for a division title. How big is this game that you're about to go into next week?

No, it's crazy. I never expected it, but I'm ready, ready to go out there, whatever the thing is they need me to do and do it. Do my job.

CENTER/GUARD COREY LEVIN

What's Joshua (Dobbs) like in the huddle? Kind of, from day one? Does he have a presence?

Yeah, so it's another guy with another calming presence, you know? He's not a big rah-rah guy, but he gets the guys locked in and there's a confidence about it. We feel good going in with every play.

Is this something to maybe build on going into next week? Not only is the offense working a little better, but you're getting dudes back next week.

Right, yeah. It's definitely something to build on as long as we can protect and get balls out and run the football how we know how to, we're always going to have a chance. Especially when our defense plays that way. We're always going to have a chance.

So what did Joshua (Dobbs) bring to the huddle tonight, and then with his performance on the field?

Like I just said, he brought a confidence. You don't want to be calm in a football game, but he brought a calming presence. Like we were never out of it. Like I said, there was just a focus and I thought we did a pretty good job other than penalties and things like that. There's obviously always stuff to work on, but as far as Josh (Dobbs), I mean, he gave us a great chance to win.

OUTSIDE LINEBACKER RASHAD WEAVER

Just for you guys, what do you take momentum wise into next week with this (defensive effort)?

I mean, we stop the run every week, that's nothing new. We didn't expect for it to change with a couple of guys out. Some guys stepped up, but it wasn't enough to get it done. So, we'll build off of the positive this week. But there's a lot to clean up when obviously you lose, and again this was another opportunity to win which is what we wanted. But now, it is behind us, 24-hour rule and then next week is a playoff game.

What do you think about Josh Dobbs' performance tonight and just how much does that kind of pump you guys up from the sideline seeing those drives?

Yeah, I mean, for a guy who just got here to go out there to put some points up against a good defense like that and then stand in there and take some big hits with the pass rush that was all over him. That's what you expect out of a guy, for him to go out there and show that he's ready to compete with his team and can do some good things is always positive, because it's going to be a team, collective team endeavor, effort.

What positives do you take from tonight's game?

I got to watch the film. Sometimes you think you did something good. Some plays you think are terrible, couldn't get it right. We hold to under 100 yards rushing for an elite back. But I won't know the true positives until I watch the film.

Did you feel like there was anything different? There was no one outside of this room that gave you a shot. It felt like there was some juice for a long time, did you feel you could do something special here tonight?

Yeah. I mean, for me, which I went to the heart of two days ago, KB (Kevin Byard) said this is a great opportunity, not because of guys being down or young guys or other guys getting an opportunity, but because it's the next game. I think we just went in there to prove a point that, like you said, when no one believes in you, you've got to go in there, hold your own, and let them know it won't be a cakewalk.

also ranked eighth on third down (43.6 percent), fifth in the red zone (63.9 percent) and first in goal-to-go efficiency (87.5 percent).

Situationally, Vrabel's teams fared well among the NFL leaders in his first four seasons as head coach. From 2018 to 2021, their .909 winning percentage (40-4) in regular season games in which they had a fourth-quarter lead ranked second in the NFL behind the New Orleans Saints (.939). In the same time period, the Titans had a .714 winning percentage in three-point games (15-6), which led the league. Vrabel's team was 5-1 in overtime games from 2018 through 2021, tying the Saints (5-1) for the most overtime wins.

From 2018 to 2021, the Titans had the NFL's second-best rushing offense, averaging 143.7 rushing yards per game. Only the Baltimore Ravens were better (173.6). On the other side of the ball, the Titans ranked seventh in rushing defense, allowing 106.2 rushing yards per contest. Also from 2018 to 2021, the Titans tied for eighth in scoring defense (22.0 opponent points per game) and tied for the eighth-best turnover margin (+13). The Titans were called for 370 penalties from 2018 through 2021, which was the sixth-fewest total in the NFL.

Titans Take the AFC South in Year 3 Under Vrabel

The Titans won the 2020 AFC South title with an 11-5 record in the regular season, claiming their best record and first division title since going 13-3 in 2008. They finished with a 5-1 record within the division and a 6-2 mark in road games, all while navigating the challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic.

The Titans led the NFL in 2020 with a plus-11 turnover differential. Their 23 takeaways ranked seventh in the NFL, while their 12 turnovers were the second-fewest in the league in 2020 and tied for the ninth-lowest number since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978.

In 2020, the Titans tied for second place in total offense (396.4 yards per game) and ranked fourth in scoring offense (30.7 points per game). They became the first team in NFL history to generate at least 2,500 rushing yards (2,690) and 3,500 net passing yards (3,653) while surrendering 25 or fewer sacks (25). Their 6,343 total yards and 381 first downs established franchise records, while their 491 points amounted to the organization's second-best total.

The 2020 Titans joined the 1997 Detroit Lions as the only teams in NFL history to feature a 2,000-yard rusher, a 3,000-yard passer and a 1,000-yard receiver. Henry led the NFL in rushing for the second consecutive season, and his 2,027 rushing yards gave him the fifth-best total in league history. Meanwhile, Ryan Tannehill passed for 3,819 yards, and his 106.5 passer rating was the fifth-best number in the NFL. A.J. Brown was named to the Pro Bowl after recording his second consecutive 1,000-yard season (1,075) and tying for fifth place in the NFL with 11 touchdown catches.

Titans to AFC Championship Game in Vrabel's Second Season

In 2019, Vrabel became the first head coach in the organization's history to win multiple playoff games within his first two seasons. The Titans won a pair of road games—at New England in the wild card round and at Baltimore in the divisional round—to advance to the 2019 AFC championship game, falling at Kansas City to the eventual Super Bowl champion Chiefs.

The Titans began the 2019 campaign with two wins in their first six games but rallied to win seven of their final 10 games in the regular season. From the time the NFL went to its current playoff format in 1990 through 2019, 345 teams went 2-4 or worse in their first six games of a season. From that group, the Titans became only the third team to advance to a conference championship game, joining the 2002 Titans (2-4) and the 1996 Jacksonville Jaguars (2-4).

The 2019 Titans ranked in the NFL's top 10 in scoring margin (eighth, +71), turnover margin (sixth, +6), offensive yards per play (fourth, 6.12), rushing offense (third, 138.9 yards per game), red zone efficiency (first, 75.6 percent), total touchdowns (tied for third, 54) and third-down defense (eighth, 36.3 percent).

In his first season as head coach, Vrabel directed the Titans to a 9-7 record. His nine wins tied for the fourth-highest total in franchise history by a first-year head coach.

With only 82 penalties enforced against the Titans in 2018, Vrabel's team led the NFL and set a franchise record (16-game season) for fewest penalties in a season. The 2018 Titans also placed third in points allowed (18.9 per game), eighth in total defense (333.4 yards per game), sixth in passing defense (216.9), second in red zone defense (44.7 percent

Vrabel Honored as NFL's Top Coach in 2021

Background as a Player and Coach

Vrabel arrived in Tennessee with 18 years of NFL experience, including four seasons as a coach and 14 seasons as a player. His distinguished playing career included three Super Bowl wins (2001, 2003 and 2004), one Pro Bowl selection (2007) and an All-Pro honor (2007). Vrabel played in 206 NFL games and totaled 57 sacks, 496 tackles, 11 interceptions, 20 forced fumbles, nine fumble recoveries and 10 touchdown receptions. Additionally, his teams advanced to the playoffs eight times (20 postseason games), with Vrabel recording eight postseason sacks and two postseason touchdown receptions.

Vrabel joined the Titans after four seasons with the Houston Texans, spending the first three seasons (2014-16) coaching linebackers and one year (2017) as the team's defensive coordinator. During his time in Houston, the Texans built one of the best defenses in the NFL and experienced tremendous success as a team – earning two division titles (2015, 2016).

Between 2014-16, the Texans defense ranked third in the NFL in yards allowed per game (319.9) and net passing yards (218.4). Houston also ranked first in third-down defense (33.6), fourth in opponent completion percentage (59.5) and sixth in points allowed per game (19.8). The 2016 defense ranked number one in the NFL, for the first time in franchise history, in yards allowed (301.3).

In 2017, his first year as a defensive coordinator, the Texans finished the campaign with 19 players on injured reserve. Despite the injuries, Vrabel led the defense to the fifth-best third-down percentage in the NFL and a franchise-record 3.97 yards per carry by opponents. Houston also had 18 different players record at least half a sack last year and 26 players tally at least one tackle for loss.

Vrabel spent his career playing and coaching with accomplished leaders, including Bill Belichick, Bill Cowher, Romeo Crennel, Urban Meyer, Bill O'Brien and Todd Haley.

As the Texans linebackers coach from 2014-16, Vrabel developed several players into top-notch performers, including Jadeveon Clowney (Pro Bowl, 2016), Whitney Mercilus, Benardrick McKinney (second-team All-Pro, 2016) and Brian Cushing. The 2015 Texans defense had the top third-down defense in the NFL (28.5 percent), which was the lowest percentage in franchise history and the lowest by any NFL team since the 2003 Titans (27.7 percent). The 2015 defense also set a franchise mark for sacks in a season with 45 - 22.5 coming from Vrabel's linebacking corps.

Prior to joining the NFL coaching ranks, Vrabel transitioned immediately from an NFL player to college coach. He started as the linebacker coach at Ohio State in 2011 and coached the defensive line from 2012-2013. The 2012 Buckeyes finished the season undefeated at 12-0. He also was named Big Ten Recruiter of the Year by ESPN.com in 2012.

Vrabel was selected by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the third round (91st overall) of the 1997 NFL Draft, after his playing career at Ohio State, where he earned All-America honors and Big Ten Conference Defensive Lineman of the Year in both 1995 and 1996.

A native of Akron, Ohio, Vrabel attended Walsh Jesuit High School. He and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons: Tyler and Carter.

MOST WINS IN FIRST FOUR SEASONS

When the Titans defeated the Houston Texans on Jan. 9, 2022, Mike Vrabel won his 43rd game, including postseason, since taking over as Titans head coach in 2018. In doing so, he tied Jack Pardee for the most total wins by a head coach in his first four seasons with the organization. In Pardee's first four seasons as head coach from 1990 through 1993, the Oilers were 43-26, including playoffs.

Vrabel, Pardee and Jerry Glanville (1986-1989) are the only head coaches in team annals to preside over at least three playoff squads in their initial four seasons. All three of Pardee's first four teams made the postseason, while Glanville's Oilers advanced to the postseason in his second, third and fourth years.

Of all Titans/Oilers head coaches with at least four seasons with the franchise, Vrabel's career winning percentage ranks the highest.

Of those seven coaches, Vrabel had the most wins from 2018 to 2021.

NISSAN STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

Nissan Stadium hosts all Titans home football games, Tennessee State University football games, the Music City Bowl, the CMA Music Festival and numerous other events.

The procurement of naming rights to Nissan Stadium fit the automotive company's 'Fewer, Bigger, Better' marketing strategy, which has included ongoing sponsorships of NBC's 'The Voice,' the Heisman House college football program and a major advertising presence in this year's Super Bowl. Nissan is also now the official automotive partner of the Tennessee Titans.

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin.

The Nissan Smyrna Plant began operations in 1983 and employs more than 8,400 people. In 2014, the Smyrna plant assembled more than 648,000 vehicles, making it the highest volume automotive assembly plant in North America. Nissan also has a major manufacturing presence in Canton, Miss., along with research and development groups in California, Arizona and Michigan. In total, the company employs more than 22,000 employees in the U.S.

One component of the Titans-Nissan partnership is assisting charitable organizations throughout Middle Tennessee in an array of community outreach programs. A centerpiece of this is the annual "Taste of Titans" charitable event, for which Nissan serves as presenting sponsor. During the course of a 20-year relationship, a total of more than $1 million resulting from these annual events is anticipated to be distributed to local non-profit organizations.

Nissan Stadium is a city-owned venue that has housed the Titans since 1999. The naming rights agreement includes the opportunity for Nissan branding on the exterior of the stadium, as well as stadium signage and other unique displays inside the stadium. LP Building Products held the naming rights to the stadium from 2006 until the Nissan partnership was established in 2015.

Quarterback Ryan Tannehill is in his 11th NFL season and his fourth campaign with the Titans in 2021.

In his first three seasons in Tennessee, Tannehill built a 30-13 record as a starting quarterback and led the team to the postseason three times, becoming the franchise's first starting quarterback since Warren Moon (1987 to 1993) to direct his team to the playoffs in at least three consecutive seasons. After appearing in the AFC championship game as a wild card team in 2019, the Titans won consecutive division titles in 2020 and 2021, a first for the franchise since the Oilers took the first three AFL Eastern Division titles from 1960 to 1962. Tannehill's 30 wins were the most by any starting quarterback in franchise history in the player's first three seasons with the organization, surpassing the 28 by George Blanda from 1960 to 1962.

Tannehill started every game from Week 7 of the 2019 campaign through the end of 2021. His 43 consecutive starts in the regular season tied Steve McNair (2001-03) for the most in franchise history by a starting quarterback. During that time, Tannehill's 102.3 passer rating ranked sixth in the NFL. Also, Tannehill's 13 total game-winning drives in that span ranked second in the NFL behind only Raiders quarterback Derek Carr's 14.

In 2021, he placed third on the franchise's single-season passing charts in attempts (531), completions (357) and completion percentage (67.2), and he ranked fourth with 3,734 passing yards. He became the only quarterback other than Moon (1989-1991) to record multiple seasons with at least 3,500 passing yards with the franchise. Additionally, he rushed for 270 yards, and his seven rushing touchdowns ranked second among NFL signal callers behind Jalen Hurts' 10. Tannehill was the first quarterback in franchise annals with at least seven rushing touchdowns in back-to-back seasons.

After receiving a multi-year contract extension during the 2020 offseason, Tannehill responded with 16 starts for the first time since 2015 and produced one of the best seasons of any quarterback in franchise history. A Titans team captain for the first time, his statistics finished in the top five of several of the organization's single-season record lists, including 40 total touchdowns (first), a 106.5 passer rating (second), 3,819 passing yards (third), 33 touchdown passes (tied for second), 65.5 completion percentage (fourth) and 7.9 yards per attempt (tied for fifth). Tannehill became the fourth player in NFL history with a passer rating of at least 106.0 in consecutive seasons, joining Drew Brees (2018-20), Russell Wilson (2018-19) and Aaron Rodgers (2011-12).

Also in 2020, Tannehill and Buffalo's Josh Allen became the fourth and fifth quarterbacks in NFL history with at least 3,800 passing yards, 33 passing touchdowns and seven rushing touchdowns in the same season. Only Cam Newton (2015), Daunte Culpepper (2000) and Steve Young (1994) had done so previously.

In 2019, Tannehill set single-season franchise records and led the NFL with a 117.5 passer rating and a passing average of 9.6 yards per attempt. His passer rating was the fourth-highest figure in NFL history among qualifiers. Additionally, he set a club record and placed third in the NFL with a 70.3 completion percentage.

Tannehill was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for December 2019 and was named to his first career Pro Bowl. He also won the Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year Award.

Originally a first-round selection (eighth overall) by the Miami Dolphins in the 2012 NFL Draft, Tannehill was acquired by the Titans in a trade with the Dolphins on March 15, 2019. The Titans sent a 2019 seventh-round pick and a 2020 fourth-round selection to Miami in exchange for Tannehill and a 2019 sixth-rounder.

Over his seven seasons in Miami, he started 88 games, threw for 20,434 yards and 123 touchdowns, and rushed for 1,210 yards and six scores. When he left Miami, he ranked second in franchise history behind Chad Pennington in both career completion percentage (62.8) and career passer rating (87.0). He authored 13 game-winning drives for the Dolphins.

From 2012 through 2015, Tannehill's passing yardage total—15,460 yards—was the third highest mark in NFL history for a player's first four seasons, behind only Peyton Manning and Dan Marino. Tannehill's two 4,000-yard passing seasons (2015 and 2014) were the only ones recorded by a Dolphins quarterback other than Marino (six times). The Dolphins reached the playoffs in 2016, breaking an eight-year postseason drought.

A native of Big Spring, Texas, Tannehill attended Texas A&M, where he earned honorable mention All-America honors as a senior. He played both quarterback and wide receiver, passing for 5,450 yards and 42 touchdowns and adding 112 receptions for 1,596 yards and 10 scores.

With the victory, he set the record for the most wins by a Titans/Oilers starting quarterback in the first four seasons of a player's career with the organization (35 wins in the regular season and 37 including playoffs), surpassing George Blanda (34 regular season, 36 total). Tannehill completed both touchdown passes to Nick Westbrook-Ikhine, connecting on a nine-yard score in the second quarter and a 63-yarder on a flea-flicker in the third quarter. It was his longest completion since a 75-yard touchdown pass against Detroit on Dec. 20, 2020. 6-3, 247, 7th Year, Alabama

Running back Derrick Henry is in his seventh NFL season in 2022. He was selected by the Titans with the 45th overall pick in the second round of the 2016 NFL Draft.

From his rookie season through 2021, Henry ranked second in the NFL with 6,797 rushing yards, trailing only Dallas Cowboys running back Ezekiel Elliott (7,386). Henry's 65 rushing touchdowns led the league over the same period. In franchise history, Henry finished 2021 ranked fourth in career rushing yards behind Eddie George (10,009), Earl Campbell (8,574) and Chris Johnson (7,965), and his rushing touchdowns were second behind only Campbell (73).

In 2021, Henry's season was affected by a foot injury that caused him to be placed on injured reserve for the final nine games of the regular season. Prior to the injury, he was leading the NFL with 937 rushing yards and 10 rushing touchdowns, numbers that still ranked ninth and tied for sixth, respectively, at the conclusion of the regular season. He returned to start in the team's divisional playoff contest and rushed for 62 yards and one score.

Henry was honored in 2021 with his first career nomination for the NFL's Walter Payton Man of the Year Award.

In 2020, Henry was named the Associated Press NFL Offensive Player of the Year after an historic campaign in which he totaled 378 rushing attempts for 2,027 yards and 17 touchdowns. His rushing yardage total established a new franchise record and led the NFL. As the eighth player in NFL annals to hit the 2,000-yard mark, his 2,027 yards finished fifth on the all-time single-season rushing charts. He was recognized with his second consecutive Pro Bowl, named first-team Associated Press All-Pro, and won the FedEx Ground Player of the Year Award for the second consecutive year.

Henry was a first-time team captain in 2020. He started all 16 regular season games for the first time and became the first player since LaDainian Tomlinson (2006-07) to lead the NFL in rushing yards in consecutive years. He was the first player in more than 50 years to lead the league in rushing yards, attempts and rushing touchdowns in consecutive seasons and the fifth player ever to do so. The most recent prior to him was Cleveland's Leroy Kelly from 1967 to 1968.

Henry's 17 rushing touchdowns in 2020 set a career high and finished as the second-best total in franchise history behind Campbell's 19 rushing touchdowns in 1979.

In 2019, Henry was named to his first Pro Bowl and added second-team Associated Press All-Pro honors after leading the NFL in rushing. In 15 games, he totaled 1,540 yards on 303 carries (5.1 avg.), joining Billy Cannon (AFL, 1961), Campbell (1978-80) and Johnson (2009) as the only running backs in franchise history to lead their respective leagues in rushing. At the time, Henry's single-season total ranked fourth in franchise annals behind Johnson's 2009 total (2,006) and Campbell's 1979 (1,697) and 1980 (1,934) performances.

With 16 rushing touchdowns in 2019, Henry tied for the NFL lead (Aaron Jones). Adding his two receiving touchdowns, his 18 total touchdowns were third in the NFL and tied for second in franchise annals (19 by Campbell in 1979; 18 by Bill Groman in 1961).

Henry's performance late in the 2019 season was instrumental in the team's run to the AFC championship game. Over the final six games of the regular season plus three playoff appearances, Henry registered seven 100-yard games. During a three-game stretch (Dec. 29 at Houston, Jan. 4 at New England and Jan. 11 at Baltimore), he became the first player in NFL history to rush for at least 180 yards in three consecutive regular season and/or postseason games.

Henry authored his first career 1,000-yard season in 2018 and the 28th 1,000-yard rushing season in franchise history, totaling 1,059 yards and 12 touchdowns on 215 carries—all then-career highs.

His 2018 rushing yardage ranked second in the AFC to Joe Mixon's 1,168 yards, and he finished seventh in the NFL. Henry's 12 rushing touchdowns tied James Connor for third place in the NFL behind Todd Gurley (17) and Alvin Kamara (14).

Henry was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for December 2018. His 625 rushing yards in the month were the most by any NFL player in any month during the season.

Against the Jacksonville Jaguars on Dec. 6, 2018, Henry recorded one of the greatest single games in franchise history in front of a national television audience. He broke Johnson's single-game franchise record (228) with 238 rushing yards, including a 99-yard touchdown run—one of his four touchdowns in the contest. He joined Tony Dorsett as the only two players in NFL history to rush for a 99-yard score.

In 2017, Henry shared time in the Titans backfield with DeMarco Murray. Henry led the team with 744 rushing yards on 176 carries, and he added 11 receptions for 136 yards and a touchdown. His five rushing touchdowns tied for second on the club.

As a rookie in 2016, Henry played in 15 games with one start, splitting reps in the backfield with Murray. He carried the ball 110 times for 490 yards and five touchdowns and added 137 yards on 13 receptions. Henry became the third rookie for the franchise in the "Titans era" to score at least five touchdowns in a season, joining Vince Young (seven rushing touchdowns in 2006) and Johnson (nine rushing and one receiving in 2008).

The Heisman Trophy winner played three seasons (2013–2015) at the University of Alabama, where he set numerous school and SEC records while helping his team win a National Championship in 2015. He played in 39 games and totaled 602 carries for 3,591 yards and 42 rushing touchdowns and added 285 yards on 17 career receptions with three receiving scores. During Alabama's victory over Clemson in the 2016 College Football Playoff National Championship, he broke Shaun Alexander's record for most career rushing yards in Alabama history.

In his final collegiate season, Henry rushed for an Alabama and Southeastern Conference record 2,219 yards, which led the nation and ranked fifth in FBS history. He recorded 100-yard rushing games 10 times and had four 200-yard games during the season. His 28 rushing touchdowns were a national best and an SEC record, snapping Tim Tebow and Tre Mason's old mark of 23. In addition to the Heisman, he also won the Doak Walker Award, Walter Camp Award and Maxwell Award, among a multitude of other honors.

Henry is a native of Yulee, Fla.

Simpson and Adrian Peterson for the most in NFL history, and it was his fourth consecutive 200-yard rushing game against the Texans. His sixth career game with at least 200 rushing yards and at least two rushing touchdowns leads the NFL since 1950, ahead of LaDainian Tomlinson (three), Barry Sanders (three) and Jim Brown (three). His 12th career game with 150 or more rushing yards tied Tomlinson for the third-most in NFL history behind only Barry Sanders (25) and Jim Brown (13), and his 11th career game with 150-plus rushing yards and two or more rushing touchdowns moved him past Sanders (10) for the third-highest total in NFL history behind only Brown (13) and Tomlinson (12). His fourth consecutive 100-yard rushing game tied the second-best streak of his career (five games in 2021 and four games in 2019). He accounted for 238 scrimmage yards (219 rushing and nine receiving) for the fifth-best total of his career and the 14th-highest total in franchise history. It was his fifth consecutive game with at least 130 scrimmage yards, tying his career-best streak (2021). It was his 100th combined game in the regular season (93) and playoffs (seven). In the first quarter, he rushed for a season-long 41-yard gain. He registered his fourth consecutive game against the Texans with at least two touchdowns, tying for the most consecutive multi-touchdown performances by any player against a single opponent in NFL history. Henry did so in his 93rd career game, surpassing wide receiver Randy Moss (94 games needed) for 10th place on the list.

Henry produced his 17th career game in the regular season with at least 100 rushing yards and two rushing touchdowns, tying Adrian Peterson, Barry Sanders and Eric Dickerson for the fifth-most such performances during the Super Bowl era (1966-present)—only LaDainian Tomlinson (25), Emmitt Smith (21), Shaun Alexander (19) and Walter Payton (18) accomplished the feat more times than Henry in that span. Defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons is in his fourth NFL season in 2022. He was selected by the Titans in the first round (19th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft.

Before the start of the 2021 season, Simmons was named a team captain for the first time in his career, and he went on to become one of six players on the roster to start all 17 games. He was named to his first career Pro Bowl and added Associated Press second-team All-Pro honors after setting career highs in several categories, including sacks (8.5), tackles (54), quarterback pressures (58), tackles for loss (12) and passes defended (six). He led the squad in pressures and placed third in sacks. Among all defensive tackles in the NFL, his 8.5 sacks ranked sixth. In the divisional playoffs, he set a franchise postseason record with three sacks.

In 2020, Simmons appeared and started in 15 games. With three defensive fumble recoveries, he tied Chase Young for the most in the NFL in 2020 and was the first Titans defender with three fumble recoveries in a season since 2005, when linebacker Brad Kassell accomplished the feat. Simmons ranked second on the team with 19 quarterback pressures and added 49 tackles, three sacks, three tackles for loss, five passes defended and one forced fumble. In the franchise's "Titans era" (since 1999), he became the first player to post at least three fumble recoveries, three sacks and five passes defended in the same season. He also had three tackles and a tackle for loss in one playoff contest.

Simmons began his rookie season on the non-football injury list due to a knee injury he suffered during training in February 2019. He missed the first six games of the season before joining the 53-man roster in Week 7.

His rookie totals included 40 tackles, two sacks, two tackles for loss, 14 quarterback pressures and one pass defended in nine games (seven starts). He added four tackles, three quarterback pressures and a fumble recovery in three playoff contests.

During a three-year career as a defensive tackle at Mississippi State, Simmons appeared in 38 contests with 28 starts. He finished his career ranked sixth in school history with 32.5 in tackles for loss. He also tied for sixth in MSU annals with five forced fumbles and tied for fourth with three blocked kicks. His totals also included 163 tackles, seven sacks, seven passes defended and two defensive touchdowns.

He was a first-team All-SEC selection as a sophomore and junior and was one of two players in the nation to be named a Bednarik Award Semifinalist in both 2017 and 2018.

As a junior in 2018, Simmons was named second-team All-American after totaling 63 tackles, 17 tackles for loss and two sacks. His 17 tackles for loss led the team, ranked fourth in the SEC and were the third-most in single-season school history.

During his sophomore season (2017), he set a career high with five sacks and added 12 tackles for loss. With three total blocked kicks and punts, he became the first SEC player since 2004 to lead the nation in the category.

Simmons is a native of Macon, Miss.

Landry was placed on injured reserve on Sept. 2, 2022.

From the start of his rookie season through 2021, Landry's 31 total sacks led the Titans. Other than Jevon Kearse (37), Landry produced the highest sack total by a Titans/Oilers player in his first four NFL seasons since individual sacks became an official NFL statistic in 1982.

From 2018 to 2021, Landry joined Pittsburgh's Cameron Heyward as the NFL's only players to be credited with at least 250 tackles (press box statistics), 30 sacks and two interceptions.

In 2021, Landry was named to his first Pro Bowl after starting all 17 games. At the conclusion of 2021, his starting streak was the sixth-longest active streak in the NFL among all defensive players.

Landry's 12 sacks in 2021 led the Titans, ranked 10th in the NFL and established a career high. He became the first Titans player to record double-digit sacks in a season since Brian Orakpo (10.5) in 2016 and the

5-11, 212, 7th Year, Middle Tennessee State
Click for complete bio

Safety Kevin Byard is in his seventh NFL season in 2022. He was selected by the Titans in the third round (64th overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft.

Byard is one of the team's most accomplished defenders and is among the NFL's most successful safeties in recent years. He finished the 2021 campaign as a three-time team captain, two-time Pro Bowl selection and a two-time Associated Press first-team All-Pro. Since entering the league, he has been a part of six consecutive winning seasons and four playoff berths.

Byard did not miss a game from 2016 through 2021, totaling 97 games in the regular season and seven postseason games. At the conclusion of 2021, his 88 consecutive starts in the regular season was the leading current streak among all Titans players, ranked first in the NFL among defenders, and was the sixth-longest active streak among all players.

Over a five-year period from 2017 through 2021, Byard led all safeties with 23 interceptions. The only players with more interceptions in that time were cornerbacks Xavien Howard (27) and J.C. Jackson (25). His interception total was 11th on the franchise's all-time list and sixth among all Titans/Oilers safeties.

In 2021, Byard was announced as a starter to his second career Pro Bowl and earned first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors for the second time in his career. He joined Bruce Matthews (1999–2000) and Albert Haynesworth (2007–2008) as the franchise's only players in its "Titans era" (since 1999) to earn multiple first-team AP All-Pro honors.

Byard led the Titans in 2021 with five interceptions and 88 tackles, becoming the franchise's first player to lead the team in tackles and interceptions in the same season since the team began tracking individual tackle statistics in 1974. It was his second consecutive season to lead the club in tackles and the fourth time in his career he was the interceptions leader. Additionally, his 13 passes defended ranked second on the team and made up the highest total among NFL safeties. He also was credited with one sack, two quarterback pressures, one tackle for loss, two forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and his first two career touchdowns—one on a fumble return and one on an interception return. He was the first Titans player with two defensive touchdowns in the same season since linebacker Zach Brown in 2012.

In 2020, Byard was a defensive team captain for the second consecutive season and the team's Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year nominee. His 111 tackles led the team and established a career high. Additionally, he registered one interception, seven passes defended, two quarterback pressures, one tackle for loss and one forced fumble. In one playoff game he produced five tackles, one pass defended and a quarterback pressure.

From 2017 through 2019, no NFL player had more interceptions than Byard, who had 17. His 2019 totals included a team-leading five interceptions, 10 passes defended, 91 tackles, one quarterback pressure and two tackles for loss. In three postseason games, he added 20 tackles and one interception.

In 2018, Byard finished with a team-leading four interceptions, 10 passes defended, 96 tackles and two sacks. He also completed a touchdown pass on a memorable fake punt to help defeat the Houston Texans (Sept. 16).

Byard experienced a breakthrough second-year season in 2017. He was named to the Pro Bowl and earned first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors after tying Detroit's Darius Slay for the NFL lead with eight interceptions. He added a pair of fumble recoveries to pace the league with 10 total takeaways.

As a rookie in 2016, Byard played in every game, starting the final seven contests at free safety. His 63 tackles were the most by a Titans rookie safety since Tank Williams' 69 tackles in 2002. He also ranked second on the squad with 10 special teams tackles.

During a four-year career at Middle Tennessee State University, he appeared in 49 games and notched 46 starts at safety while becoming one of the most prolific defenders in school history. He set school records with 19 career interceptions, 377 interception return yards and four interception returns for touchdowns, and he finished sixth in MTSU history with 312 career tackles. In total, he had a hand in 25 turnovers (19 interceptions, five forced fumbles and one fumble recovery) during his career and added 17 career passes defended and five tackles for loss. He was twice named first-team All-Conference USA.

As a senior in 2015, Byard appeared in 12 games with nine starts as a permanent team captain and was named first-team All-Conference USA for the second consecutive year. He ranked fourth on the team with 66 tackles and led the squad with four interceptions and six additional pass breakups.
