TITANS ENTER DECEMBER STRETCH

The most recent road game the Titans played was Oct. 26 at Indianapolis. Last week, they played their fourth consecutive home game, excluding a bye in Week 10, and fell to the Jacksonville Jaguars by a final score of 25-3. Joey Slye provided Tennessee's only points with a 28-yard field goal.

This Sunday, rookie quarterback Cam Ward is scheduled to make his 13th consecutive start to begin the season. The No. 1 overall pick can match Vince Young's franchise record for starts in a season by a rookie quarterback (13 in 2006). Ward's season passing statistics include 2,351 yards, seven touchdowns and six interceptions.

The Titans defense totaled three sacks last week against Jacksonville, marking the fifth time in the past six games the team recorded at least three sacks. In that span (Week 7-13), the defense's 21 sacks tied for the fourth-best total in the NFL. Defensive tackle Jeffery Simmons leads the Titans with 6.5 sacks in 2025, including one last week against the Jaguars.

THE BROWNS

The Browns hosted the San Francisco 49ers last week. Rookie quarterback Shedeur Sanders and rookie tight end Harold Fannin Jr. connected on a 34-yard touchdown pass for Cleveland in the second quarter, but the 49ers kept the Browns off the scoreboard in the second half to win 26-8.

Sanders, a fifth-round pick from the University of Colorado, has started each of the past two games for the Browns after veteran Joe Flacco (first four games) and fellow rookie Dillon Gabriel (six) combined to start the first 10 contests. Against the 49ers, Sanders passed for 149 yards and one touchdown without throwing an interception.

Browns defensive end Myles Garrett leads the NFL with 19 sacks. He has at least one sack in each of the past six games.

Head coach Kevin Stefanski is a two-time NFL Coach of the Year (2020 and 2023) with the Browns. He is in his sixth season on the Cleveland sideline after joining the club in 2020, and since taking the post, he has led the team to two postseason appearances and a pair of 11-win seasons.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR THIS WEEK

- Has three interceptions in 2025. He can become the team's first linebacker since Keith Bulluck in 2007 (five) with four interceptions in a season.

WR CHIMERE DIKE

- With 1,921 all-purpose yards in 2025, he needs 79 more to record the sixth season in franchise history with 2,000 all-purpose yards. The previous instances were Derrick Mason in 2000 (2,690), Chris Johnson in 2009 (2,509), Derrick Henry in 2020 (2,141), Billy Cannon in 1961 (2,043) and Mason in 2001 (2,004).
- Needs 26 all-purpose yards for the most all-purpose yards by a rookie in franchise history. Jerry LeVias holds the franchise rookie mark with 1,946 all-purpose yards in 1969.
- With a league-high 1,282 kickoff return yards in 2025, he needs 36 more to surpass Bobby Jancik (1,317 in 1963) for the second-highest single-season total in franchise history. He would trail only Marc Mariani (1,530 in 2010).

TE GUNNAR HELM

- With 36 receptions in 2025, he needs two more to surpass Bo Scaife (37 in 2005) for the most receptions in franchise history among rookie tight ends.
- His 290 receiving yards currently rank fourth in franchise history among rookie tight ends. Ahead of him on the list are Chig Okonkwo (450 in 2022), Ben Troupe (329 in 2004) and Chris Dressel (316 in 1983).

LB CEDRIC GRAY

- Enters the game with 114 tackles on defense in 2025. With six tackles this week, he will become the team's fourth player since the beginning of the 2000 campaign to reach 120 tackles in the first 13 games of a season (GSIS tackle statistics), joining Stephen Tulloch (136 in 2010), Azeez Al-Shaair (124 in 2023) and Keith Bulluck (120 in 2004).

S AMANI HOOKER

- With 12 career interceptions, he needs one more to tie Jason McCourty (13) for the eighth-highest career total for the franchise during its "Titans era" (1999–present).

TE CHIG OKONKWO

- With 177 career receptions, he needs two more to surpass Erron Kinney (178) for fifth place in franchise history in career receptions among tight ends, trailing only Frank Wycheck (482), Delanie Walker (381), Bo Scaife (251) and Alvin Reed (199).
- Needs 44 receiving yards (406 entering the game) to secure his fourth consecutive season with at least 450 receiving yards. He would join Frank Wycheck (seven consecutive seasons) and Delanie Walker (five) as the only tight ends in franchise history to do so.

DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

- Enters the week with 38 career sacks. He needs one more sack to overtake Kyle Vanden Bosch (38.5) for 12th place in franchise history and fifth place for the organization during its "Titans era" (1999 to present).
- With 10 tackles for loss in 2025, he can tie his career high (12 in 2021) with two more.

K JOEY SLYE

- Has made seven field goals of at least 50 yards in 2025. With one more, he will surpass Stephen Gostkowski (seven in 2020) for the most field goals of 50-plus yards in a season in franchise history.

QB CAM WARD

- Can record his fifth consecutive game without throwing an interception.
- Enters the game with a streak of 143 consecutive pass attempts without throwing an interception.
- With 2,351 passing yards in 2025, he needs 149 more to become the second rookie in franchise history with 2,500 passing yards in a season, joining Marcus Mariota (2,818 in 2015).
- Can become the second rookie quarterback in franchise history to start at least 13 games in a season, along with Vince Young (13 starts in 2006).

OLB JIHAD WARD

- Has 4.5 sacks in 2025 and needs one more to establish a new career high. He would top the five sacks he had as a member of the New York Giants in 2023.

TE GUNNAR HELM, WR CHIMERE DIKE & WR ELIC AYOMANOR

- Can become the first rookie trio in Titans/Oilers history to record 30 receptions each. Helm enters the contest with 36 receptions, while Ayomanor and Dike each have 29 catches.

SERIES HISTORY

This week's game marks the 70th all-time meeting between the Titans and Browns. In the previous 69 outings, the Browns own a 37-32 advantage, including separate nine- and six-game winning streaks by the Browns. However, the Titans have taken 10 out of the 17 battles since 1999.

The last time the two clubs met at Huntingdon Bank Field was Sept. 24, 2023. Browns defensive end Myles Garrett produced 3.5 of his team's five sacks, leading Cleveland to a 27-3 win.

In the most recent clash at Nissan Stadium, played on Dec. 6, 2020, the Titans outscored the Browns 28-3 in the second half, but it still was not enough to overcome Cleveland's 38-7 halftime lead. The Browns won by a final score of 41-35. Ryan Tannehill passed for 389 yards and three touchdowns in the loss.

The two franchises met for the first time in 1970, when as a part of the AFL-NFL merger, the Browns moved from the NFL Century Division to the AFC Central, where they would compete with the Oilers/Titans as divisional foes for 32 seasons. The series was interrupted after the 1995 season as a result of the former Browns moving to Baltimore to transition as the Ravens.

A new team was granted to Cleveland to begin play once again in 1999. The new version of the Browns kept the old team's name, records and logos and was once again a member of the AFC Central until divisional realignment in 2002 sent them to the AFC North and the Titans to the AFC South.

The clubs have played one playoff game, a 24-23 Wild Card win by the Oilers in 1988. Allen Pinkett scored two touchdowns within a 15-second span of the second quarter, and Warren Moon rallied the Oilers with 10 fourth-quarter points for the win, capped by Tony Zendejas's 49-yard, game-winning field goal with 1 minute and 54 seconds to play in the fourth quarter.

The Titans' nine-game losing streak against the Browns from 1970-74 is tied (Oakland, 1966-73) for the second-longest losing streak against another opponent in franchise history.

On Oct. 5, 2014, the Browns recorded a historic comeback against the Titans at Nissan Stadium, erasing a 25-point deficit to win 29-28. It was the largest road comeback in NFL history.

TITANS-BROWNS: THE LAST MEETING

Week 3: Titans 3, Browns 27
Sunday, Sept. 24, 2023 • 1:00 p.m. ET • Cleveland Browns Stadium

In Week 3 of the 2023 season, the Titans traveled to Cleveland to face the Browns and fell by a score of 27-3.

Cleveland got on the board first on their opening drive with a 48-yard field goal by K Dustin Hopkins.

After both teams traded punts, CB Sean Murphy-Bunting stripped WR Elijah Moore and recovered the fumble at the Cleveland 17-yard line. But the offense was forced to settle for a 44-yard field goal by K Nick Folk to tie the game at 3-3 to open the second quarter.

The Browns reclaimed the lead on the following drive. QB DeShaun Watson found RB Jerome Ford for the 19-yard touchdown. The Titans were called for pass interference twice on the drive which put the Browns at the Tennessee 30-yard line.

Cleveland extended its lead on their next drive with a 52-yard field goal from Hopkins to make it 13-3 with one minute remaining in the first half. QB Ryan Tannehill drove the team down to the Cleveland 11-yard line with the help of two big receptions, a 26-yard completion to WR DeAndre Hopkins and a 33-yard completion to WR Chris Moore. But the scoring drive was thwarted as Tannehill was sacked on third-and-10 as time ran out.

The Browns then moved ahead 20-3 midway through the third quarter with a 11-play, 85-yard drive that culminated in a three-yard rushing touchdown by Ford.

Tennessee was unable to get anything going on offense as they punted on back-to-back possessions. The Browns scored a final time with 6:51 left in the game when Watson found WR Amari Cooper for a 43-yard touchdown.

The deficit proved too large for the Titans to overcome as Tennessee fell on the road to Cleveland.

Kevin Stefanski was named the 18th full-time head coach of the Cleveland Browns on Jan. 13, 2020. Stefanski has led Cleveland to two playoff appearances, including a playoff win, and Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year honors in his first year as head coach in 2020 and again in 2023. He is the 16th coach to win the award multiple times. He came to Cleveland after 14 seasons with the Minnesota Vikings, where he began as an assistant to the head coach in 2006 and ended as offensive coordinator in 2019.

The Browns have eclipsed 6,000 scrimmage yards in a single season just seven times, and four of those seasons have been with Stefanski as head coach. From 2020 to 2024, Cleveland was fifth in the NFL in rushing yards per game with 130.5. Defensively during that span, they ranked third in the league with 322.3 yards allowed per game. Defensive end Myles Garrett has 91.0 sacks since Stefanski's first year, 10.5 more than the next closest NFL defender.

In 2023, Stefanski won Coach of the Year for the second time after leading the Browns to 11 wins and a playoff berth despite starting four different quarterbacks throughout the year. The Browns led the NFL in total defense (270.2 yards per game) and Garrett earned AP Defensive Player of the Year honors.

During his first three seasons, Stefanski led the Browns to 27 total wins, the most by any Browns coach since the team's return in 1999. His 11 wins in 2020 were the most by any first-year Browns coach since Paul Brown had twelve in the team's inaugural season (1946).

Prior to joining the Browns, Stefanski spent 14 seasons with the Minnesota Vikings, starting out as an assistant to the head coach in 2006. He served as assistant quarterbacks coach (2009-13), tight ends coach (2014-15), running backs coach (2016) and quarterbacks coach (2017-18) before being named interim offensive coordinator (2018) and given the permanent role in 2019.

Stefanski's pre-NFL coaching history started at his alma mater, the University of Pennsylvania, where he was assistant director of football operations in 2005 after being a team captain for Penn during his senior year as a player.

Stefanski is a native of Philadelphia, Pa.

LAST WEEK VS. THE JAGUARS

Week 13: Titans 3, Jaguars 25

Sunday Nov. 30, 2025 • 12:00 p.m. CDT • Nissan Stadium

In Week 13 of the 2025 season, the Titans hosted division rival Jacksonville Jaguars and fell by a score of 25-3 to drop to 1-11 on the year.

The Titans got off to a good start. S Kevin Winston Jr. sacked QB Trevor Lawrence on the opening drive of the game to force the Jaguars to punt.

QB Cam Ward then drove the Titans down to the Jacksonville 10-yard line but a stalled drive led to a 28-yard field goal by K Joey Slye to give the Titans a 3-0 lead with 5:06 left in the first quarter. RB Tony Pollard contributed 36 yards on three carries throughout the drive.

The Jaguars answered with a seven-play, 84-yard drive that ended in a three-yard touchdown pass from Lawrence to WR Jakobi Meyers to give Jacksonville a 7-3 lead.

On the ensuing kickoff, WR Chimere Dike fumbled the return and RB LeQuint Allen Jr. recovered the ball at the Jacksonville 35-yard line. Jacksonville cashed in on the turnover with a 21-yard touchdown pass from Lawrence to TE Brenton Strange. An encroachment penalty on the extra point attempt allowed the Jaguars to attempt a two-point conversion which made it 15-3 one play into the second quarter.

The Titans were shut out for the rest of the half, including on a fourth-and-two attempt from the Jaguars 21-yard line to turn the ball over with 20 seconds left in the half. After coming up with a stop as time expired, OLB Arden Key was flagged for roughing the passer and K Cam Little cashed in for a 45-yard field goal on an untimed down to make it 18-3 heading into the break.

Jacksonville forced another three-and-out by the Tennessee offense to open the half and took over at their own 29-yard line. The Titans defense responded by a forcing a three-and-out of their own, but a roughing the punter penalty on S Mike Brown on fourth-and-20 gave Jacksonville a first down, and the Jaguars ended a 15-play drive with another score, this one a two-yard touchdown run by RB Bhayshul Tuten to make it 25-3 at the 6:45 mark of the third quarter.

Neither team scored again as the Titans offense failed to convert two fourth down attempts and lost a fumble in the final quarter.

TEAM NOTES

- The Titans played their fourth of four consecutive home games (Weeks 9-13), excluding their Week 10 bye. It was the team's first time playing four consecutive home games without a road game since 2015. Next Sunday they travel to face the Cleveland Browns.
- The temperature at kickoff was 38 degrees, making it the third-coldest game played at Nissan Stadium in September, October or November since the stadium opened in 1999. The only colder kickoff temperatures in those months were 25 degrees against Pittsburgh on Nov. 17, 2014, and 35 degrees against Denver on Nov. 13, 2022. The wind chill against the Jaguars at kickoff was 33 degrees.
- A season-high 11 rookies participated in the game for the Titans. The previous season high was 10 rookies in Week 12 against Seattle.
- The Titans tied their season high (Nov. 23 against Seattle) with five rookie starters: quarterback Cam Ward, tight end Gunnar Helm, wide receiver Elic Ayomanor, cornerback Marcus Harris and safety Kevin Winston Jr. Prior to the 2025 season, the last time five or more Titans rookie draft picks started any game was during the 2005 campaign, when five or more draft picks started a total of six times.
- Two players made their Titans debuts: cornerbacks Kaiir Elam and Kemon Hall. Elam and Hall became the 70th and 71st players to participate for the Titans in a game in 2025.
- The Titans offense scored on its opening possession for the third consecutive game, capping its first drive with a 28-yard field goal. It was the sixth time in 2025 the team scored on its first possession (six field goals).

TEAM NOTES – DEFENSE

- The Titans defense totaled three sacks against the Jaguars. It was the fifth time in the past six games the team recorded at least three sacks. In that span (Week 7-13), the defense's 21 total sacks ranked fourth in the NFL through the early afternoon games of Nov. 30.
- The Jaguars scored seven points in the second half. It tied for the second-lowest opponent total allowed by the Titans in the second half in 2025.
- The Titans defense logged five three-and-outs against the Jaguars defense. It was the defense's fifth game in 2025 forcing at least five three-and-outs, tying for the fourth-most such games in the NFL through the early afternoon games of Nov. 30.
- The Jaguars converted three of their 13 attempts on third down. The 23.1-percent conversion rate by an opponent was the Titans defense's best number of the season.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

SUNDAY, NOV. 30, 2025

INTERIM HEAD COACH MIKE McCOY

Obviously, at the end there Strep (Xavier Restrepo) went down with an ankle and (Amani) Hooker came out of the game with ribs there. They're being evaluated now, and I'll have more answers for you tomorrow. But just looking over at the game, just sloppy all around. Too many mistakes throughout the game against a good team. A couple turnovers offensively that hurt us. Any game against a good team you can't have turnovers. I was very aggressive there at the end of the half on fourth-and-1, going for it. It did not work out. Then we had a delay of game going into that, and then after that when they get the ball, penalties to give them the opportunity to get points. So, instead of us getting points at the end, they get it. So that kind of turned things around. We've got to do a better job there. That's that.

It seemed like you guys were making some strides the last few weeks. What changed today?

Yeah, it's sloppy. You look at the whole thing, you have 10 penalties, two turnovers, some big plays were given up. We weren't very good on third down offensively, where that's where we had been better the past couple weeks. I think it was 2-of-12 or whatever. That's never going to be good enough. So there's a lot of things—it was a sloppy game all around.

Do you feel like you had them ready considering all those factors?

Yeah, we were ready, yes.

That first drive, it was like 70 yards. You ended up with 188. What changed after the fumble by Chimere Dike?

Yeah, you have a fumble and then you have three three-and-outs. I'll say this, I think Tony Pollard did a great job running the football today. Very physical. It was blocked well up front. But then you have a couple three-and-outs there so you don't get as many touches you like the way we're running the football there. We've got to be more consistent. That was a great start to—if you look at our games, I think we've been doing a nice job starting the games with the drive offensively, but you can't have three three-and-outs. That really hurts.

Last week Cam was able to get some momentum going with some rollouts and throwing on the move and also with his legs. Why wasn't there much of that involved today?

I think if you look at, like I just talked, there's four three-and-outs during the game, so you can't get in a rhythm there as you go. You have an 11-play drive to start the game, and then obviously there was the turnover, and then three three-and-outs and then we moved the ball down there at the end of the half to get an opportunity when we go for it on fourth-and-1, and then after that we didn't really get anything going. We finished the game on a couple downs going for it.

It seemed like you settled for a lot of short passes, check-downs and things like that. Were there just not open options down the field?

Yeah, I think they took certain things away. I think we missed a couple opportunities there. I think we dropped a couple balls throughout the game. We've got to do a better job all around. It was sloppy.

How frustrating are the penalties, especially the ones that keep drives alive?

Yeah, that's critical, penalties that get them points. I think there's two scores they have at the end of the half, and then at the beginning of the second half the penalties extended drives, certain things like that. And you understand when you've got a kicker like that, too, we can't have that.

You had more personal fouls than points; what do you think about the discipline part of the penalties, particularly after the whistle?

Yeah, we can't have those penalties. It's unacceptable. We can't be doing it. It's hard enough to win, and to stop teams defensively and move the ball offensively. We've had the past couple weeks, I'd say, way too many penalties.

Did you get an explanation from Julius Chestnut about what started that fight there?

No, I did not, no. I'll look at it on tape. I do not know that.

In your experience, do you choose to discipline players after something like that happens or do you let things...

We'll look at it and see what happened and go from there.

What happened at the end of the first half when you guys take the delay of game? You got all three timeouts on the board?

Well, that's unacceptable. I thought he was going to snap the ball. I thought he was going to snap it. I've got to have more awareness myself, too. So, I've got to call timeout if I see that. There's been a couple times, even last week, that exact same thing came up and he snapped it right at the last second. So that's what I thought he was going to do, but that's on me. I can't let that happen. I've got to do a better job there and just call timeout, even if it's at one second or two seconds and I don't think he's going to get it off. I've got to do a better job there.

What's the process on the first drive where you get down to close to fourth-and-3, what did you balance there?

Yeah, we said if we got down there and the conversation was if it was fourth-and-2 we were going for it, if it was fourth-and-3 we were going to kick it the first drive and get points. That's what we said before the play was even snapped, and that's what it was there. I was very aggressive going down there at the end of the half, it was fourth-and-1, with the time that was left there, get the first down, call timeout if it's inbounds, and then take a couple shots and go for a touchdown, and that did not work, so that's on me. I made the decision, and it did not work. I take full responsibility for that.

Were you guys seeing something on tape during the week that caused you to throw more of the hole shots instead of attacking the middle of the field like you did the past two weeks?

I think you design a game plan, you put a game plan together and you go execute it, and there's certain coverages that are going to be run that take you to one of those hole shots or not. It may not be designed initially to throw that, but then all of a sudden they take a route away underneath or something, so you see it, you throw it. So, you're going to go through a progression. I'm not going to say it's always this or that. It's defensively sometimes change your progression, you've got to move on in the progression.

Do you feel like the players are completely interested in this game today?

Yes, they are.

What tells you that based on the effort?

Well, I know the players that we have and the type of people that we have in that room. I know they're going out there and playing.

You've talked a lot about inconsistency this season and you talk a lot about knowing the players in the room. At this point in the year at 1-11, what gives you the belief that this is inconsistency and it's not just who the team is and that these are what these players are capable of?

I know what kind of players they are, what kind of people they are. They're true professionals. They come in week in and week out, work their tails off. They fight to the bitter end of every single game. When I talk about the consistency part of that, that's the game of football. You want to be more consistent. You always look at that. You're making progress at certain times and then all of a sudden something comes up and you've got to get out of that and continue to keep going.

Would you say the results have been consistent, though?

Well, you're trying to win football games. That's the most important thing. You're trying to go out there and win and play your best football. We've got to do a better job so we can win these games.

QUARTERBACK CAM WARD

After the opening drive, why was it so difficult to get things back on track offensively?

The same stuff that's been happening all season, just self-inflicted wounds. Myself on the first three-and-out I need to progress, throw right over the ball. Then the second one, probably just step up and run for it. So everything is just self-inflicted. It's been like that the whole year and it was like that today.

I know there's a million things happening around you, but were you less comfortable today than you have been in previous weeks? You look like you were moving around a little more in the pocket out of necessity.

No, just how I felt the pocket at the time. I just think that's just something that I got to continue to harp on myself, get better at each and every day. And then just distribute the balls to my playmakers.

How frustrating is it, as a team you guys have maybe made some strides in recent weeks been competitive. And then today, which seemed like a step back. How come you think that was?

I mean, I'm big on results. So, win or loss is the only thing I care about. Strides, we haven't made any strides. We've got the same outcome for the last couple of weeks. So, it's more about just winning a football game now. Don't matter how it gets done, whether one side of the ball is playing good and the other side isn't, or special teams wins the game for us, but it comes down to just winning games.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

Did you think that team today was as interested as it's been in other weeks? You guys have more personal fouls than points. Seemed like a lot of guys weren't that into it.

No, we're into it every week. It's just the way football goes. But I mean at the end of the day, the personal fouls we had, the penalties, the bad plays that we had on offense, it all supported the reason why we lost the game. And that's just something that is unacceptable from just us as an organization and that's just something that we've got to improve on.

You guys have talked about some unacceptable stuff and you just said you don't necessarily see the improvement you want in wins or losses. So when does the unacceptable stuff get to be too much?

It's already too much, honestly. Throughout the whole year, from Week 1 all the way to now, it's always been something in every game. Penalty, a self-inflicted wound by myself or someone else. And then it came to the result of us not winning the game, that's what happened today.

Did you sense more frustration on this one from the team than you had before?

I'm frustrated every time I lose a game. At the at the end of the day, I try to do what I can to help put the offense and the team in the best situation to be successful. I didn't do that enough. And just as a whole, we just got to continue to come together in the last parts of the season and try to pull some wins out.

Why do you feel like that does keep happening with the self-inflicted stuff?

That's a good question. I don't know why it keeps happening. But the only thing that we can do is continue to harp on it until it doesn't happen. We've got to continue to emphasize it, and we just got to continue to pour to one another because at the end of the day, it's only going to be us in that locker room. It's the only people who can physically go out there and make plays to win the game and we just got to try to do that for the last couple of weeks.

It seemed like you guys settled for a lot of short passes, short of the sticks and things like that. Did they take the deeper chunk plays away or just didn't have time to get it off? What was behind that?

A lot goes into it. Progression wise, whether if the short throw's the first read or not. Then sometimes, it could be me having to move through the pocket and get off a read. Then it could be just sometimes where a scramble drill, that's where I throw the ball. So really a lot goes into it. I just think we just got to continue to try to be more explosive. We got to find a way to get explosive plays and just try to go from there.

On the first drive, did you try to make a case for going for it there on the fourth-and-three, at the at the goal line there?

Yeah, we need to go for it, I believe. What do we have to lose?

Did you make that point clear to Coach, did you guys talk about it?

I talk about it really all the time. He knows my mindset as a quarterback. I want go for it every chance, especially now with what our record displays. And we just got to continue to be the aggressive team.

What did you say to Xavier Restrepo before he got carted off and how much do you hate seeing him go off that way?

Just God's got him. He has a plan for all of us. And losing him, he's a real key piece, not just him being elevated, but just to the team, the energy he brings every day. And that's sad to see that, one of your homeboys to go out like that. But you see the guys who came over there and helped him up. You see the guys just on a knee on the sideline praying for him. So, we're going to all continue to rally each other, but that's something that you never want to see.

What do you think led into the after-the-play stuff today?

Players been themselves. That's what we want. I support it. If they do it on the field with the late penalties, but we got to be able offensively to back them up and overcome those penalties. So at the end of the day, I'm always supporting my teammates. If that's how they feel in the moment, I'm going to be with them.

In in terms of the self-inflicted wounds continuing that you've mentioned, do you think there's anything the team or you specifically could do that is not being done internally or behind the scenes a different way to address guys or if you speak up or hold some kind of meeting and address the players in a certain way?

No, I think no meeting could address that situation. It has to only be addressed on the field and it's something that starts in practice. It's something that we've got to emphasize in practice. But I mean it's just unacceptable to be in the NFL and continue to have these bad plays from just all of us as a whole. And that's why our record is what it is. But on the bright side, I mean there's really nothing that can get worse. We just got to continue to be better each and every day, and continue to pull each other along try to get wins.

You're the most sacked quarterback in in the league right now. How much is that starting to wear on you physically or mentally?

I live the life of a quarterback. I play the next play. I live the next day. I like to live my life one day at a time. So how I'm feeling, it really doesn't bother me. Someone in the world has it a lot worse than I have. So that's just how I put it in perspective. I'm very blessed. God's bless me with the ability to do what I love for a living. Not a lot of people get to say—get the chance to say that. He's given me the ability to play football. So, every time whether I'm hurt, whether I'm sore, whether I'm healthy, I just try to go play through him, play for my teammates as well.

Do you feel like, all of the things that you're going through, do you feel like it's testing your strength, your faith, your love for football, your ability to keep on?

Oh, for sure. It's for sure testing it. But you know, to win you got to lose. So, at the end of the day just continue to get better, try not to make the same mistakes each and every day. But eventually the storm's going to end and all of us in the locker room we'll remember all this moment, we'll remember the guys who's on the team of this year and we'll be excited for the future.

It's not often that that a team gets four straight home games as you guys did this season. How disappointing is it to go 0-4 during that four game stretch here at home?

It's very disappointing. The fans are a big reason why a lot of us play this game. The excitement they bring, the joy they bring, even the negativity they can bring, that's all part of the job. So I—it's just hard for me to not be able to do all I can do, to put my best performance for the fans and for the city. But that's just something that we all got to go through together. At the end of the day, the storm is going to end and everybody's going to be the bright side of it.

You played seven games with Mike McCoy and five with Brian Callahan before that. What have these experiences with those two taught you about what qualities you want in the next head coach as the team kind of turns toward that search?

I think really just the biggest thing that they both taught me is that you just got to have someone who's just a strong leader, within the locker room, outside of the locker room. And both of those coaches, they did that for us. But they got to continue to connect with the players on all three phases, not just one side of the ball. Then we just want a coach who's going to come in and be himself, hold the team to the standard that he holds himself and we all going to rally behind him.

CORNERBACK MARCUS HARRIS

As the game went on, they started running more crossing routes and things like that. Was it more the man-to-man, or was it more kind of zone? Or were they just kind of just splitting zones, and things like to pop guys open?

Yeah, I mean, once you realize what's going on, I think they obviously were running a good amount of man, just to stay tighter in coverage. So they started running runaway routes. Earlier we were running obviously more zone, as you guys saw. And we were taking that kind of stuff away. So then, they went to their zone beaters, and we tried to match it up. Obviously, they were just running away.

What's that transition like going from playing nickel the last couple of weeks, making that transition, and kind of finding your groove there, and then playing outside against guys like BTJ (Brian Thomas Jr), and Jakobi Meyers.

Obviously, it's a little different for your play entry, from outside versus inside. But at the end of the day, it's just covering the guy in front of you, and knowing what's going on.

What about the communication? It seemed like Kevin Winston Jr. and you were communicating pretty well on the back end. Seemed like some things kind of got inside of you guys. Is that just things that you all will have to iron out as rookies, or is that something that's on the play call side?

I mean we're both rookies. I think when we're able to communicate, and discuss how we see things, how he sees it, how I see it, we're able to solve problems faster, rather than not communicating about it. I think we, as a whole secondary, we communicate. Obviously, we're both rookies so we came in together. We talk a little bit more, because we're both going through the same thing.

OUTSIDE LINEBACKER ARDEN KEY

What happened at the end of the first half over there on the Jags sideline?

Only thing, (they) thought I hit Trevor (Lawrence) too high in the head. What went down with Trevor, a couple years ago. I see why they did it. I see why they did it.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

What about after that on the sidelines?

Just talking.

It seems like there was more dust ups this game?

Yeah, I think it's just a division game. Division rivals. Jags don't like Titans. Titans don't like the Jags. So, I think that's where that came from.

There are five games left. What has to happen from here for you to have any good feelings about how this season's going to end?

Man, right now, it's just putting out good football. Everybody has got to look in the mirror individually, and just do they're one of 11 and put good stuff out on their own film. That's where we're at.

RUNNING BACK TONY POLLARD

The opening drive really well for you, you got points off of that, why do you guys think you weren't able to maintain that throughout the game?

Just the ebbs and flows of the game. Got to stick with the run a little bit and it started to kind of get away from us. Had a few plays that we probably wanted back, especially at the end of the half and then just started compiling on top of each other after that.

How disappointing was this effort today overall, given the fact that you guys were highly competitive in the previous two games?

It's tough, I mean any loss in this league is tough, especially at home to a division opponent. A team that we know we could have beaten. You know, that's a lot of teams that we played, but until we go out there and show it, we are what our record says.

What do you make of all the fourth downs in this game, some of which you guys went for, some of which you didn't, how do you view those? I mean it's just us being aggressive just with our backs against the wall. Just trying to fight. Any chance we get, trying to make a play and unfortunately, we weren't able to make a lot of them.

How do you view the chippiness with the Jags today?

I mean it's a division game, so that type of atmosphere is what you expect in those type of games.

DEFENSIVE TACKLE JEFFERY SIMMONS

The last three games, narrow margins, seems like a lot of things came unwound today. You feel like that was a step in the wrong direction?

We lost.

They had the drive and scored the touchdown and then got a fumble on the kickoff, then things just opened up. What happened?

No momentum. The team scored and they're right back on the field. It's like you keep saying go out there, go out there, get a stop. But man, we're fighting. I mean it was three-and-out, three-and-outs. I don't know.

You used to say that you guys had to be like a fireman to go put the fire out. It didn't matter where the ball was...

We still have that mindset. But I don't know, man. I mean it's just not clicking right now. Nothing's clicking. We're 1-11 for a reason.

Arden (Key) alluded to some factors that he couldn't speak on that has potentially impacted either this game or the result. I imagine you don't want to speak on it either, but what can you say about maybe the attitude or environment around the team right now?

We need to figure something out. I mean, we got five games left for sure. We got to figure it out. I mean, once we figure out, once we get through this season, I mean, we got to do a lot of self-reflecting. And whoever comes in to be this head coach, we need somebody who's going to lead this football team. Yeah, I mean that's it. We got to figure it out.

Is there a feeling of here we go again when bad things start to snowball like it did the first half?

I mean you try not to have that mindset during the game, but it's like, we're trying to, going on the field playing snaps on defense, like I love to run out there on defense. But it's also like complementary football. I mean we going to keep saying that word. We have to play complementary football. Nothing is clicking right now for the team.

They were able to keep that drive alive on the roughing the punter penalty and eventually score. How tough was that when it looked like you guys had gotten off the field?

Like he just said over here, we got to go try to put the fire out again. We get off the field and guess we got to continue to put the fire out. Like I said, it's just not—I mean I thought that was I don't know what the reason why they called it. But I mean, I don't really know exactly what happened, but I saw him dive and it was like he hit his right leg and not the left leg. But we got some calls in that game that were questionable, but got to go out there and try to put the fire out again.

GUARD PETER SKORONSKI

Can you convince me this team like gives a (crap) and wants to be here?

We do because I can feel the frustration in this locker room right now. I don't think that frustration exists if people don't care. I think we're all pretty pissed off right now. It doesn't matter eliminated or what our record it is, we want to go out there and try to win and put a good performance and that wasn't that. And I feel a lot of frustration about that and I come to work to try to be the best player I can. So we care. I know I feel the guys in this room working hard and care.

These four games in a row at home that teams don't often get that kind of break in their schedule. Disappointing not to have come through, at least get one of these home wins?

Yeah, totally. You want to win a game at home. So, it's really upsetting, so yeah.

After being so close these last couple of weeks to a win, why do you think you were so far away from a win today?

Not moving the ball, not converting when we get close to the goal line, just about everything on the laundry list of things you got to do as an offense and we didn't do it.

SAFETY KEVIN WINSTON JR.

How disappointing was this overall, given the fact that you guys were highly competitive, the previous two games?

It's always disappointing to take an L, whether it's close or not. We want to go out there and win, and it's disappointing when you go out there and lose.

I know it's not the result you wanted, but individually, you were a monster out there. You're flying around making tackles. How much more comfortable are you getting in this defense?

Yeah, I'm getting more and more comfortable. Obviously today, I was playing a different position, trying to get used to that. And there were plays that I left out there. Times where I was the problem in the play. So, I focus on that part, getting that fixed. A lot of good things happened, but we've got to get the other things fixed

Kevin, it's your first time playing the Jags. What do you make of some of the chippiness out there with them?

It's competing. That's how it's going to be when you go out there competing with a division team. That's what I expected, going into the game. We expect that every time we play. It's what makes the game fun.

It's obviously a sour feeling, but your first career sack, for you. How'd that happen?

Yeah, that's amazing. The first sack. It's always a blessing to have that, but we're trying to win games. That's a highlight, but at the end of the day, the focus is getting the win.

As a young player, what are you learning the most about what it takes to actually win games?

It's the little things. So many small things that go into getting the win or putting yourself in position to win. So, I'm just learning so much about all those small things and trying to make sure I start capitalizing on the little things.

How tough was that when you guys get off the field, they get the roughing the punter penalty, and then they extend the drive and they score. How tough was that?

Yeah, it's tough, but as a defense, we take pride in moments like that. Stand up and get another stop. At the end of the day, what we have to do, no matter what happens in the game, we have to get back on the field and get a stop. That's what we have to do, and that's all we can control at that point.

2025 TITANS SCHEDULE NOTES

SEASON NOTES

- PLAYOFF OPPONENTS: The Titans have six total games against five playoff teams from last season. They have home games against Kansas City, Houston, Los Angeles Chargers and Los Angeles Rams and road contests at Houston and Denver. Four of those six games are against 2024 division winners: Houston twice (AFC South), Kansas City (AFC West) and the Los Angeles Rams (NFC West). The six games against reigning playoff clubs matches the total from last year. Prior to the 2024 season, the last time the Titans had six or fewer games against reigning playoff clubs was the 2020 campaign when they had five such games.
- TV BREAKDOWN: Excluding their Week 18 matchup with the Jaguars, which has yet to be assigned a broadcasting network, the Titans are currently scheduled for 10 games on CBS and six games on FOX. Due to the NFL's flex scheduling, some contests could be moved to a different network from the one appearing on the initial schedule.
- TOP DRAFT PICKS: The Titans selected Cameron Ward with this year's first overall pick. The team will face four of the next five selected players from the draft in Travis Hunter (second overall – Jacksonville), Will Campbell (fourth overall - New England Patriots), Mason Graham (fifth overall – Cleveland) and Ashton Jeanty (sixth overall - Las Vegas).
- HEAD COACHING EXPERIENCE: There are seven NFL head coaches who were hired by their teams this offseason, and the Titans will face four of them: New Orleans' Kellen Moore, Jacksonville's Liam Coen, Las Vegas' Pete Carroll and New England's Mike Vrabel. The Titans will also face off against two of the top five longest tenured coaches: Kansas City's Andy Reid (third-longest tenure – 13 years) and the Los Angeles Rams' Sean McVay (fifth-longest tenure – nine years).
- THREE GAMES BASED UPON 2024 FINISH: Every NFL team has two intraconference games and one interconference matchup based on the previous year's standings. As a result of the Titans' fourth-place AFC South finish in 2024, they host the AFC East's fourth-place New England Patriots and the NFC South's fourth-place New Orleans Saints, and they visit the AFC North's fourth-place Cleveland Browns. Overall, the Titans' strength of schedule is .450 (130-159) based upon their opponents' combined 2024 record, the 29th most difficult schedule out of 32 NFL teams.
- TIME (ZONE) TRAVEL: The Titans will play in every continental United States time zone at least twice during the 2025 regular season. They will stay in the Central time zone for 10 matchups, including every home contest as well as at Houston. The Titans have three trips to the Eastern time zone (at Cleveland, at Jacksonville and at Indianapolis). The farthest they will travel is Santa Clara, Calif., to face the 49ers (Pacific time zone). Tennessee will visit Allegiant Stadium in Las Vegas for the first time to face the Raiders on the franchise's first trip to the state of Nevada. Other road trips include Glendale, Ariz., to meet the Cardinals and Denver, Colo., to face the Broncos (both in the Mountain time zone). This is the first time since 2019 in which the team will play in every continental U.S. time zone.

- ORIGINAL AFL TEAMS: This season, the Titans will face off against five of the other seven original AFL teams: Kansas City Chiefs (formerly Dallas Texans), New England Patriots (Boston Patriots), Los Angeles Chargers, Las Vegas Raiders (Oakland Raiders) and Denver Broncos.

WEEK-BY-WEEK NOTES

- WEEK 13 (H) & WEEK 18 (A) vs. JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS: The annual Titans-Jaguars series heads into its 31st season since the Jaguars' inaugural 1995 campaign. This year, the contest could feature the top two draft picks of the 2025 class: Titans quarterback Cameron Ward and wide receiver/cornerback Travis Hunter, who the Jaguars drafted with the second-overall pick after trading up. The Titans, who lead the all-time series 35-26 (including postseason), look to regain the momentum in the series after being swept by the Jaguars in 2024.
- WEEK 14 at CLEVELAND BROWNS: The Titans travel to Cleveland to face the Browns in the 70th meeting between the teams, including the postseason. The Browns hold a 37-32 lead in the all-time series, winning the most recent matchup 27-3 when Tennessee last visited Huntington Bank Field in September 2023. The only playoff game between the two teams came in the Wild Card round of the 1988 postseason, with the Oilers pulling out a 24-23 victory on the road in Cleveland.
- WEEK 15 at SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS: The Titans travel to Levi's Stadium in Santa Clara, Calif., for the second time in the venue's history and the first time since 2017. The teams last met in 2021 for a 20-17 Titans win on a Thursday night at Nissan Stadium in Nashville. The 49ers hold a 9-6 lead in the all-time series. Quarterback Brock Purdy enters his fourth NFL season with the 49ers, who are also led by the 2023 AP Offensive Player of the Year, running back Christian McCaffrey.
- WEEK 16 vs. KANSAS CITY CHIEFS: The Titans host the Kansas City Chiefs for the first time since 2021, when the Titans won by a final score of 27-3. The series between two original AFL rivals dates back to 1960, with the Chiefs holding a 28-24 edge in the series. Titans first-year general manager Mike Borgonzi spent the past 16 years with the Chiefs organization, most recently serving as Kansas City's assistant general manager.
- WEEK 17 vs. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS: The Titans will host the Saints and first-year head coach Kellen Moore when New Orleans travels to Nashville for the first time since 2021. The last two meetings between the two teams have been decided by a total of three points, with the Saints winning 16-15 in the 2023 season opener at the Caesars Superdome and the Titans winning 23-21 in November 2021 at Nissan Stadium. The Titans hold a 9-7-1 record in the all-time series.

Chad Brinker serves as president of football operations for the Titans. He joined the Titans in 2023 as assistant general manager before being promoted to his current position in 2024. In his role, Brinker provides executive leadership and direct oversight for the entire football staff, reporting directly to Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk.

Since his arrival in Tennessee, Brinker's progressive approach has led to several initiatives aimed at moving the organization forward. He spearheaded the club's extensive search for a new general manager in 2025, resulting in the hiring of Mike Borgonzi. Additionally, he reshaped and refined the foundation of the team's analytics department from the ground up, while building and executing the 2024 and 2025 offseason strategies for player acquisitions in both free agency and the draft.

An NFL personnel veteran, Brinker embodies core strengths focused in executive leadership, strategic operations, financial analysis, and talent evaluation. Prior to joining the Titans, Brinker spent 13 years with the Green Bay Packers in a variety of roles as a talent evaluator and strategic counselor to Packers leadership. In his initial season with the Packers, he collected his first Super Bowl championship when the team defeated the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XLV.

Throughout his experience with the Packers, he served as a pro and college scout; led strategy for unrestricted free agency and undrafted free agent processes; handled player contracts, salary cap administration, and roster management; and advised the general manager and executive vice president of football operations on team needs in free agency and drafts, always with an eye on long-term vision. The Packers won the NFC North Division eight times and drafted 13 Pro Bowl Players during his tenure.

Brinker also owns corporate business experience with two Fortune 100 companies in the pharmaceutical and medical device industries. He serves as an executive council member on the Freed-Hardeman University President's Council and has shared his expertise as a guest lecturer in the Sports Marketing program at Freed-Hardeman and the Sports Administration program at his alma mater, Ohio University.

A native of Martins Ferry, Ohio, Brinker first entered the NFL in 2003 as an undrafted free agent running back with the New York Jets. He holds two degrees from Ohio University, including a master's degree in sports administration, where he was a two-sport athlete and a two-time All-Mid-American Conference selection at running back. He was also selected as Ohio University's Male Athlete of the Year in 2003.

Mike Borgonzi was named the 15th general manager in franchise history on Jan. 17, 2025.

Borgonzi arrived in Tennessee with 16 years of experience with the Kansas City Chiefs. For the last four seasons, he served as Kansas City's assistant general manager.

"Mike's experience speaks for itself: he has been part of the core team that delivered five AFC championships and three Super Bowls over the past six seasons," said Titans Controlling Owner Amy Adams Strunk. "It's the type of standard I want to build here in Tennessee. I know we have a lot of work ahead of us, and I'm excited for Mike to get started."

"During Mike's 16 years in the league, he has been a key part of transforming the Chiefs from a two-win team to a three-time Super Bowl champion," said Titans President of Football Operations Chad Brinker. "During our meetings, he articulated a clear plan to build a championship standard in Nashville through consistency, discipline, and hard work. I've admired him for many years and I'm thrilled to add him to the team as our general manager."

In Borgonzi's first offseason in Tennessee, the Titans acquired several veteran free agents. Among the most notable signings were tackle Dan Moore Jr. (previously with Pittsburgh); guard Kevin Zeitler (Detroit); linebacker Cody Barton (Denver); outside linebacker Dre'Mont Jones (Seattle); wide receiver Van Jefferson (Pittsburgh); safety Xavier Woods (Carolina); punter Johnny Hekker (Carolina); and kicker Joey Slye (New England).

In April, Borgonzi led the process that concluded with the selection of Miami (Fla.) quarterback Cam Ward with the first overall pick in the 2025 NFL Draft. The team's nine total draft choices also included UCLA outside linebacker Oluwafemi Oladejo (second round), Penn State safety Kevin Winston Jr. (third round), Florida wide receiver Chimere Dike (fourth round), Texas tight end Gunnar Helm (fourth round), Stanford wide receiver Elic Ayomanor (fourth round), Sacramento State offensive lineman Jackson Slater (fifth round), California cornerback Marcus Harris (sixth round) and Michigan running back Kalel Mullings (sixth round).

During Borgonzi's time in Kansas City, he contributed to 12 playoff seasons (2010, 2013, 2015-24) and 10 AFC West titles (2010, 2016-24). Borgonzi helped construct a roster that won the AFC five times (2019-20, 2022-24) and captured three Super Bowl championships (2019, 2022-23) over a six-season span.

From 2017 to 2024, Borgonzi worked under Chiefs general manager Brett Veach. As the assistant general manager from 2021 through 2024, he supervised and directed the college and professional scouting operations while closely supporting and advising Veach with the club's roster management and player acquisition via the NFL Draft, free agency, waiver claims and trades. During his four seasons as assistant general manager, the Chiefs built a league-best 52-16 regular-season record (.765). In the same four-year span, 10 different Kansas City players earned a combined 23 Pro Bowl selections: tackle Orlando Brown Jr. (2021-22), wide receiver Tyreek Hill (2021), center Creed Humphrey (2022-24), defensive tackle Chris Jones (2021-24), tight end Travis Kelce (2021-24), quarterback Patrick Mahomes (2021-23), safety Tyrann Mathieu (2021), guard Trey Smith (2024), guard Joe Thuney (2022-24) and punter Tommy Townsend (2022).

The Chiefs entered the 2024 postseason after capturing their ninth consecutive AFC West crown. They tied the Detroit Lions for the NFL's best record at 15-2, setting a franchise record for wins in a regular season and securing the AFC's top seed. Twenty original Chiefs draft picks started at least six games for the team during the 2024 regular season. Kansas City had five players voted to the Pro Bowl, marking the seventh consecutive year in which it had at least five players earn the honor.

Prior to his promotion to assistant general manager, Borgonzi served as director of football operations (2018-20), director of player personnel (2017), co-director of player personnel (2015-16), assistant director of pro scouting (2013-14), pro personnel scout (2011-12) and manager of football operations (2010). He joined the Chiefs in 2009 as the club's college scouting administrator.

Before landing in the NFL with the Chiefs, Borgonzi spent the 2007 and 2008 seasons at Boston College, where he was the assistant recruiting coordinator. He also coached tight ends at Amherst College in 2002 before working in the financial sector in Boston for several years.

A native of Everett, Mass., Borgonzi graduated from Brown University, where he was a four-year starter at fullback and was a three-time All-Ivy League selection.

He and his wife, Jill, have a son, Joseph, and a daughter, Nina. His brother, Dave, has served as the linebackers coach for the Indianapolis Colts and Chicago Bears and currently serves as the linebackers coach for the Dallas Cowboys.

INTERIM HEAD COACH MIKE McCOY

The Titans named Mike McCoy interim head coach on Oct. 13, 2025. He was hired in 2025 as senior offensive assistant.

McCoy, who is in his 23rd season as a coach in the NFL, served as the head coach of the San Diego Chargers from 2013 to 2016 and spent an additional six years as an NFL offensive coordinator.

He arrived in Tennessee after three seasons with the Jacksonville Jaguars as quarterbacks coach. While in Jacksonville, McCoy helped quarterback

Trevor Lawrence register consecutive 4,000-yard passing seasons in 2022 (4,113) and 2023 (4,016). During those two seasons, Lawrence's 8,129 passing yards ranked fifth in the NFL, and his 46 touchdown passes ranked 10th. In 2024, injuries limited Lawrence to 10 games, during which time he passed for 2,045 yards and 11 touchdowns.

In 2023, Lawrence surpassed 4,000 passing yards for the second consecutive year and also eclipsed 10,000 career passing yards, becoming the third-youngest player in NFL history to reach 10,000 passing yards. Lawrence had eight consecutive games with at least 20 completions, which set a single-season franchise record.

In 2022, McCoy helped Lawrence improve in every major passing category from his rookie year to his second campaign. Lawrence produced his first 4,000-yard passing season in the NFL and finished the regular season completing 387 passes on 584 attempts for 4,113 yards. He threw 25 touchdowns against just eight interceptions. His four passing touchdowns in the Wild Card round against the Chargers were also a single-game postseason franchise record.

Before going to Jacksonville, McCoy served as the offensive coordinator for the Arizona Cardinals in 2018. He helped Josh Rosen complete 217 passes for 2,278 yards and 11 touchdowns in his rookie season, while wide receiver Larry Fitzgerald recorded a team-high 69 receptions for 734 yards and six scores. In addition, under McCoy's tutelage, the Cardinals rushing attack posted 1,342 yards and nine touchdowns.

In 2017, McCoy joined the Broncos in his second stint as an offensive coordinator in Denver and helped running back CJ Anderson finish ninth in the NFL in rushing yards (1,007).

From 2013 to 2016, McCoy was the head coach of the San Diego Chargers. During that time, San Diego ranked ninth in the league in total offense (365.9 yards per game) and second in offensive third-down percentage (44.6 percent). In addition, McCoy's group had a top-10 passing attack each season. San Diego qualified for the postseason in McCoy's first campaign at the helm (2013) and beat the Bengals in the Wild Card round.

Under McCoy, Chargers quarterback Philip Rivers finished with his three highest single-season completion percentage marks while averaging more than 31 touchdown passes per year. Rivers earned Comeback Player of the Year honors from the Associated Press in 2013 after completing a career-best and NFL-high 69.5 percent of his passes for 4,478 yards with 32 touchdowns and 11 interceptions (105.5 rating).

Prior to his tenure as head coach in San Diego, McCoy served as the Broncos offensive coordinator for four seasons (2009-12). During his final year in Denver in 2012, the Broncos tied Atlanta for the NFL's best record at 13-3 in quarterback Peyton Manning's first season with the team. The Broncos featured the NFL's fourth-ranked offense and fifth-ranked passing attack as Manning earned Comeback Player of the Year honors after passing for a then-franchise-record 4,659 yards with 37 touchdowns.

In 2011, the Broncos led the NFL and established a franchise record with 2,632 rushing yards. They earned a postseason berth and Wild Card victory with Tim Tebow at quarterback, marking the first of back-to-back playoff appearances (2011-12). Tebow finished that season with 660 rushing yards, the most by a quarterback in team history, while running back Willis McGahee tied for the NFL lead with seven 100-yard rushing games and earned his second career Pro Bowl selection after rushing for 1,199 yards.

McCoy oversaw the NFL's seventh-ranked passing attack in 2010 as quarterback Kyle Orton finished fourth in the league averaging 281 passing yards per game. Brandon Lloyd led the NFL with 1,448 receiving yards and earned his first Pro Bowl selection while also becoming just the fourth wide receiver in team history to be named All-Pro.

In 2009, Brandon Marshall tied for third in the NFL with 101 receptions, including an NFL-record 21 catches in one game. Running back Knowshon Moreno earned All-Rookie honors after leading all NFL rookies in rushing yards (947), yards from scrimmage (1,160) and total touchdowns (nine).

McCoy spent his first nine seasons as a coach in Carolina, working his way up from offensive assistant (2000) to wide receivers coach (2001), quarterbacks coach/offensive assistant (2002), quarterbacks coach (2003-06) and passing game coordinator/quarterbacks coach (2007-08). The Panthers totaled three playoff appearances, two division titles, two NFC Championship Game appearances and advanced to Super Bowl XXXVIII during McCoy's tenure.

During McCoy's time with Carolina, he worked closely with Jake Delhomme, helping the quarterback to four 3,000-yard passing seasons and his first Pro Bowl selection in 2005. Delhomme averaged the fifth-most yards per pass attempt (7.8) in the NFL during McCoy's two seasons managing Carolina's passing attack while wide receiver Steve Smith Sr. ranked seventh in the league with 2,423 yards in that span.

A college quarterback, McCoy spent his first two years at Long Beach State (1990-91) before spending his last two years at Utah (1993-94). He signed with the Broncos as an undrafted rookie free agent in 1995 and spent his rookie season on Green Bay's practice squad. He played in NFL Europe with the Amsterdam Admirals (1997) and spent one game on San Francisco's roster as its third quarterback in 1997. McCoy spent training camp with the Philadelphia Eagles (1998) before finishing his playing career with the Calgary Stampeders in the CFL in 1999.

McCoy and his wife, Kellie, have a daughter, Liv, and a son, Luke.

NISSAN STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of an exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

Eight years later, on Nov. 17, 2023, the Titans and Nissan North America announced a new agreement: a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that brands the new Titans home venue as 'Nissan Stadium.'

Slated for completion in 2027, the new Nissan Stadium will host Titans home games, Tennessee State University football games, concerts, large-scale events and other community events.

"This partnership is a natural extension of our already longstanding friendship with Nissan," said Burke Nihill, Titans President and CEO. "Our mission at the Titans is to Win, Serve, and Entertain. We pride ourselves on collaborating with organizations who love this city and state as much as we do, and for the past 40 years, Nissan has invested more than $10.5 billion statewide, serving as a great example of an outstanding corporate steward and community advocate. We look forward to the continued positive impact of this relationship for the Titans organization and the City of Nashville."

"Since 2015 our fans and organization have called our home 'Nissan Stadium,' and we are proud to continue that tradition in the new stadium as we deepen and expand our relationship with them," said Titans Chief Revenue Officer Adam Nuse. "The new stadium will host the world's largest events, as well as serve as a community hub for our local neighbors. We're excited to have a partner like Nissan embark on this journey with us as we look towards the future."

The partnership will feature dedicated areas in the new stadium for brand experiences and displays, innovative technology integration, and involvement in Titans broadcast platforms. Nissan also will support a to-be-determined program in the Titans' ONE Community philanthropic platform, which reaches Nashville's most underrepresented and marginalized communities with a focus on three areas – Opportunity, Neighborhoods and Education.

"Nissan Stadium is a centerpiece of the Nashville skyline and has become a household name in Middle Tennessee. It is important for Nissan to keep our name on the new stadium," said Jérémie Papin, chairperson, Nissan Americas. "As more people come to Nashville both to visit and to live in this wonderful city, Nissan Stadium is true showcase for our brand and for the career opportunities we've offered here for more than four decades. This partnership sends a strong message about the bright future for Nissan, the Titans, Nashville and the State of Tennessee."

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin. Nissan is home to more than 11,000 employees across all three locations.

"Nissan has been a strong partner to middle Tennessee for four decades, and I'm thrilled that the Titans have united with a partner that invests in our community and its people," said Nashville Mayor Freddie O'Connell. "The familiarity and trust they've established with the Titans in the last eight years will undoubtedly be a great asset as we plan for the stadium's opening in 2027."

The new Nissan stadium will be built on the east side of the current stadium campus, along Nashville's East Bank. Features of the building include: a circular translucent roof; exterior porches with panoramic views of Nashville; improved sightlines for all spectators through a range of diverse seating experiences; and a 12,000 square foot community space available for use year-round. A waitlist for those interested in purchasing PSLs or suites is now open at NewNissanStadium.com.

He added 22 yards and a first down on two rushing attempts. In the first quarter, he found Elic Ayomanor for a 33-yard completion, his longest career completion to date. In the second quarter, he converted a third-and-six with a 22-yard pass to Calvin Ridley.

➤ At Arizona (10/5), earned his first career win as a starting quarterback, completing 21 of 39 passes for 265 yards. He engineered a 15-point fourth-quarter comeback in the win, and in the fourth quarter, he was 13-of-18 passing for 193 yards in the fourth quarter. He was credited with his first career game-winning drive, which ended with Joey Slye's game-winning field goal as time expired. Ward completed five of his six passes on the drive for 67 yards, including a 38-yard pass to Calvin Ridley to help set up the field goal. The Titans trailed by 18 points in the second quarter, which tied for the second-largest deficit by any quarterback in their first career win as a starter in the Super Bowl era (21 by Atlanta's Mike Moroski in Week 13, 1983; 18 by New York Giants' Daniel Jones in Week 3, 2019; 18 by Seattle's Jon Kitna in Week 16, 1997). Since 2000, Ward joined Vince Young (Nov. 26, 2006 against the New York Giants) as the only NFL rookie quarterbacks to win a game in which they trailed by 15 or more points in the fourth quarter. Ward's 193 fourth-quarter passing yards were the fourth-most by an NFL rookie in a game since the beginning of the 1978 season. In that span, Ward ranked behind only Tampa Bay's Jameis Winston (238 at St. Louis on Dec. 17, 2015), Houston's Davis Mills (220 vs. L.A. Rams on Oct. 31, 2021) and Washington's Jayden Daniels (194 vs. Dallas on Nov. 24, 2024). From that group, Ward's total was the second-most in a road game and the most in a victory. He found Ridley in the fourth quarter for a 47-yard pass, which was the longest of Ward's career to date, to help set up a touchdown.

➤ At Las Vegas (10/12), completed 26 of 38 passes for 222 yards with one touchdown and one interception. He completed his first six passes of the game, and in the first quarter, he converted a third-and-10 with an 18-yard pass to Calvin Ridley. Ward connected three times with Van Jefferson on passes of at least 20 yards: a 20-yarder in the second quarter, a 23-yarder in the third quarter and another 23-yarder in the fourth quarter. In the fourth quarter, he converted a fourth-and-15 with a 20-yard completion to Chig Okonkwo and registered his third career touchdown pass on a one-yard toss to David Martin-Robinson.

➤ Against New England (10/19), completed 25 of 34 passes for 255 yards with one touchdown and one interception. His 73.5 completion percentage, 7.50 yards per attempt, 14 passing first downs, and 92.2 passer rating were his best marks through seven NFL games. His 73.5 completion percentage was the best in franchise history by a rookie quarterback with at least 30 attempts in a game, eclipsing Marcus Mariota's previous mark of 71.8 (28-of-39) as a rookie at New Orleans on Nov. 8, 2015. Ward became the team's first rookie quarterback in its "Titans era" (1999 to present) with 25 or more completions in back-to-back games. The last quarterback to accomplish the feat for the Titans was Mariota, who accomplished the feat in two consecutive games from Sept. 11-18, 2016. Ward completed 10 of his first 11 passes for 144 yards and one touchdown (149.1 passer rating), including a 38-yard touchdown pass to Chimere Dike in the first quarter.

➤ At Indianapolis (10/26), completed 22-of-38 passes for 259 yards and a touchdown, eclipsing the 250-yard passing mark for the third time in four games. He became the first Titans quarterback since Marcus Mariota in 2015 to have 20 or more completions in four consecutive team games. Ward threw a 21-yard pass to Chimere Dike to convert a third-and-10 in the first quarter and added a 26-yard pass to Elic Ayomanor in the second quarter. He also completed a 23-yard pass to Chig Okonkwo in the third quarter and a 22-yard strike to Gunnar Helm in the fourth quarter.

➤ Against the L.A. Chargers (11/2), completed 12 of 21 passes for 145 yards. He completed a 21-yard pass to Van Jefferson in the first quarter and connected with Tyjae Spears for a 26-yard completion in the second quarter. In the third quarter, he helped convert a third-and-seven with a 29-yard pass to Elic Ayomanor.

➤ Against Houston (11/16), completed 24 of 37 passes for 194 yards and one touchdown (87.0 passer rating). He also rushed for 33 yards on three attempts. During a 95-yard, game-tying drive in the fourth quarter, he completed a 39-yard pass to Chig Okonkwo and a four-yard touchdown pass to Van Jefferson. During the drive, he completed six of eight passes for 63 yards and also scrambled for a 20-yard gain. In the first quarter, he completed six of eight passes for 57 yards (94.3 passer rating). He rushed for a 10-yard gain to convert a third-and-four in the fourth quarter. He became the first rookie quarterback in franchise history to start the first 10 games of a season. Previously, Marcus Mariota held the franchise's longest rookie streak to begin a season with starts in the first five games as a rookie in 2015.

➤ Against Seattle (11/23), completed 28-of-42 passes for 256 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions, amounting to a 91.0 passer rating. He added six rushing attempts for 37 yards and one touchdown, and four of his rushing attempts resulted in first downs. He tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to Chimere Dike in the fourth quarter. He also had completions of 25 yards to Dike and 26 yards to Chig Okonkwo. He scored his first career touchdown on a six-yard rushing attempt in the third quarter—the first rushing touchdown by a Titans quarterback since Mason Rudolph's 11-yard run at Detroit on Oct. 27, 2024. By increasing his total to 2,210 passing yards in 2025, he surpassed Vince Young (2,199 in 2006) for the second-highest total by a rookie in franchise history behind Marcus Mariota (2,818 in 2015).

➤ Against Jacksonville (11/30), completed 24 of 38 passes for 141 yards and added a seven-yard rushing attempt for a first down. It was his fourth consecutive game without throwing an interception, and he extended his streak to 143 pass attempts without throwing an interception. At the conclusion of the game, it was the second-longest active streak in the NFL behind the 156 consecutive attempts without an interception by Atlanta's Michael Penix Jr. He became the third rookie quarterback in franchise history to start at least 12 games in a season, along with Vince Young (13 starts in 2006) and Marcus Mariota (12 in 2015). Ward previously became the first quarterback in franchise history to start at least the first six games of his rookie campaign.

Levis' rookie passing totals included 255 attempts, 149 completions, 1,808 yards, eight touchdowns and four interceptions. His 84.2 passer rating was the second best in franchise history by a rookie quarterback (91.5 by Mariota in 2015), and the number also ranked first in NFL history among second-round quarterbacks in their rookie season (minimum 200 attempts). Levis had an additional 57 yards and a touchdown rushing.

Prior to entering the NFL, Levis spent two seasons at the University of Kentucky after transferring from Penn State. In four combined college seasons, he appeared in 39 games with 26 starts. His 93 receiving yards were the most by a Titans rookie since Treylon Burks' 111 at Green Bay on Nov. 17, 2022. Dike became the first rookie for the Titans to register back-to-back games with at least 70 yards receiving since Burks in Week 11-12 of the 2022 season. His 269 all-purpose yards at Indianapolis were the most in any NFL game in 2025 through Sunday, Oct. 26, and the total ranked third for the Titans since the beginning of the 1999 season behind only Derrick Mason's 302 all-purpose yards against Buffalo on Dec. 14, 2003 and Chris Johnson's 284 against Houston on Sept. 20, 2009. His 175 kickoff return yards were the most in a game by a Titans player since Leon Washington had 209 against Denver on Dec. 8, 2013. At the conclusion of the game, his 1,294 all-purpose yards in 2025 were the most for the Titans through eight games since Derrick Mason's 1,382 in 2000, and Dike had the most by any NFL player through eight games since New Orleans Saints running back Darren Sproles had 1,331 in 2011.
- Against the L.A. Chargers (11/2), totaled 220 all-purpose yards, including three punt returns for 98 yards, four kickoff returns for 117 yards and one reception for five yards. In the first quarter, he returned a punt 67 yards for a touchdown—the team's first punt return touchdown since Darius Reynaud had two against Jacksonville on Dec. 30, 2012 and the team's first special teams return score (punt or kickoff) since A.J. Brown's kickoff return touchdown at Indianapolis on Nov. 29, 2020. His 98 yards on three punt returns made up the highest punt return yardage total in a game by a Titans player since Reynaud's franchise-record 160 vs. Jacksonville on Dec. 30, 2012. He was the first Titans rookie in the team's "Titans era" (1999 to present) to log multiple games with at least 200 all-purpose yards, while becoming the NFL's first rookie to do so since Cincinnati's Ja'Marr Chase in 2021. Dike joined Pacman Jones (1,127 in 2005) and Marc Mariani (1,530 in 2010) as the only rookies in franchise history to reach 1,000 kickoff return yards in a season (1,108), and he also secured the ninth overall individual season in franchise history with 1,000 kickoff return yards.

➤ Against Houston (11/16), caught two passes for 14 yards before exiting the contest in the second quarter with an injury.

➤ Against Seattle (11/23), caught five passes for 44 yards and a touchdown to go along with a 90-yard punt return for a touchdown, and he added 98 yards on five kickoff returns to give him 232 all-purpose yards—his second-highest total through 11 career games. It was his third time in a four-game span exceeding 200 all-purpose yards. In the third quarter, he returned a Michael Dickson punt 90 yards for a touchdown, and in doing so, he tied Pacman Jones' record (90-yard touchdown at Philadelphia on Nov. 19, 2006) for the longest punt return in franchise history. In the fourth quarter, he scored on a one-yard touchdown pass from Cam Ward. In doing so, he joined Billy "White Shoes" Johnson (Oct. 26, 1975 vs. Detroit) and Justin McCareins (Nov. 23, 2003 at Atlanta) as the only players in franchise history to record a punt return for a touchdown and a receiving touchdown in the same game. Dike became the first Titans player to return two punts for touchdowns in a season since Darius Reynaud did so in 2012, and Dike became the second NFL player in 2025, along with Jacksonville's Parker Washington, to return two punts for touchdowns. Only six previous rookies since 2000 recorded at least two punt return touchdowns: Patrick Peterson (four), Devin Hester (three), Jamal Agnew (two), Tyreek Hill (two), Dez Bryant (two) and B.J. Sams (two). Dike's highlights also included a 25-yard reception to convert a third-and-three in the first quarter. He finished the contest with 1,760 all-purpose yards in 2025 to join Derrick Mason (1,963 yards in the first 11 games of 2000) as the franchise's only players since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger with 1,700 all-purpose yards in the team's first 11 games of a season.

➤ Against Jacksonville (11/30), returned five punts for 76 yards and three kickoffs for 76 yards, in addition to an eight-yard reception. In the fourth quarter, he returned a Logan Cooke punt 47 yards. It was his third punt return of his rookie season of at least 47 yards. With a league-leading 1,921 all-purpose yards through 12 games, he joined Derrick Mason as the franchise's only players since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger with 1,900 all-purpose yards in the team's first 12 games of a season. Mason had 2,103 yards in the first 12 games of 2000. With 1,282 kickoff return yards through 12 games, he surpassed Darius Reynaud (1,240 in 2012) for the third-highest single-season total in franchise history, trailing only Bobby Jancik (1,317 in 1963) and Marc Mariani (1,530 in 2010).

Wide receiver Calvin Ridley is in his seventh NFL season and his second season with the Titans in 2025. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 15, 2024.

During the 2024 campaign, Ridley led the Titans offense with 64 receptions and 1,017 receiving yards and caught four touchdown passes. His 15.9-yard receiving average in 2024 ranked fifth in the NFL among qualifiers. Only Ridley and Philadelphia's A.J. Brown (67 receptions for 1,079 yards, 16.1 avg.) accumulated at least 60 receptions and 1,000 receiving yards with an average of at least 15.0 yards per catch. Ridley also rushed for 55 yards and a touchdown.

Ridley's 2024 season was his third career 1,000-yard receiving season (2020 and 2023), and it was the franchise's 12th 1,000-yard receiving season during its "Titans era" (1999 to present). He became the ninth player in NFL history to have at least one 1,000-yard receiving season with three different teams, joining Brandin Cooks (four teams), Brandon Marshall (four), Amari Cooper (three), DeAndre Hopkins (three), Irving Fryar (three), Randy Moss (three), Terrell Owens (three) and Tony Martin (three). Ridley became the first player in NFL history to secure his first three 1,000-yard receiving seasons with three different teams.

Prior to joining the Titans, Ridley appeared in 66 NFL games with 52 starts. He was originally drafted by the Atlanta Falcons with the 26th overall pick of the 2018 NFL Draft and was traded to the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2022. His statistical totals with the Falcons and Jaguars included 324 receptions for 4,358 yards and 36 touchdowns.

In 2023, Ridley started a career-high 17 games for the Jaguars and led the team with 1,016 yards and eight receiving touchdowns on 76 catches.

From 2018 through 2020, no member of the 2018 draft class had more receptions or touchdown catches than Ridley, who totaled 217 grabs and 26 scores for the Falcons during that span. His 3,061 receiving yards ranked second in his draft class behind only DJ Moore's 3,156. Ridley's 90 receptions and 1,374 yards in 2020 were career highs.

As a rookie in 2018, Ridley played in all 16 games and accumulated 64 receptions. He led all rookie receivers in the NFL with 821 receiving yards and a team-high 10 receiving touchdowns, including an NFL-rookie record six receiving scores in the team's first four games. He was named to the All-Rookie team by the Professional Football Writers of America.

A native of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Ridley attended the University of Alabama, where he played in 44 games over three seasons (2015-17). He finished his career second in Crimson Tide history with 224 receptions and 19 receiving touchdowns. #46 • LS MORGAN COX*6-4, 233, 16th Year/5th with Titans, Tennessee

Long snapper Morgan Cox is in his 16th NFL season and his fifth campaign with the Titans in 2025. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 19, 2021.

In 2024, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties for the fourth consecutive season. With 68 consecutive games played in his first four seasons with the Titans, he finished the 2024 campaign with the longest active streak of games played for the team. It was the 12th time in his career he appeared in every game for his team.

With Cox serving as the team's long snapper, kicker Nick Folk led the NFL in field goal percentage for the second consecutive season in 2024. Folk connected on 21 of 22 field goals for an NFL-best rate of 95.5 percent. Meanwhile, punter Ryan Stonehouse ranked third in the NFL with an average of 50.6 yards per punt attempt. Also in 2024, Cox was a finalist for the NFL's Bart Starr Award for the second consecutive year.

Cox finished the 2024 season with a career total of 233 games played. He ranked 10th among all active NFL players, and his total also moved him past Reggie White (232 games) for the fourth-most NFL games played by a former University of Tennessee Volunteer behind tight end Jason Witten (271 NFL games), quarterback Peyton Manning (266) and punter Dustin Colquitt (255).

In 2023, Cox's efforts helped Folk lead the NFL in field goal accuracy (96.7 percent) and helped Stonehouse lead the NFL for a second consecutive season in gross punting average (53.1).

In 2022, Cox was named to his fifth career Pro Bowl. He has more Pro Bowl appearances than any other player at his position since the league began naming long snappers to the Pro Bowl in 2004.

His steady play in 2022 helped Stonehouse, a rookie, lead the league and set a new NFL record with a 53.1-yard gross punting average. Stonehouse also finished fourth in the NFL and set a rookie record with a 44.0-yard net average. Meanwhile, kicker Randy Bullock made 17 of 20 field goals (85.0 percent) and made all 28 extra point attempts.

In 2021, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties in 17 regular season games and one postseason game. He helped Bullock finish ninth in franchise history with 120 points in a single season, including three game-winning field goals (Sept. 19 at Seattle, Oct. 31 at Indianapolis and Dec. 23 against San Francisco). He also snapped for punter Brett Kern, who had the league's third-best ratio of punts inside the 20 to touchbacks (18:1).

In his first 11 seasons, Cox appeared in 165 regular season games for the Baltimore Ravens, serving as the team's primary long snapper after entering the NFL as an undrafted free agent in 2010. He was selected to four Pro Bowls and was a part of five playoff teams in Baltimore, totaling 10 postseason games played.

In 2020, he earned his fourth career Pro Bowl selection. He helped kicker Justin Tucker record his fifth consecutive season with at least 130 points, tying the NFL record of consecutive seasons with 130-plus points. Tucker connected on 26 of 29 field goals (89.7 percent) and was 52 of 53 on extra points (98.1 percent). Cox also snapped on all 51 of Sam Koch's 51 punts, as Koch was the NFL's only punter to place at least 20 punts (22) inside in the 20-yard line and have no more than one touchback.

A native of Collierville, Tenn., Cox played 38 games in three seasons (2007-09) as the primary long snapper at the University of Tennessee.
