TITANS HOST COLTS ON THURSDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL

Tennessee Titans (6-2) vs. Indianapolis Colts (5-3)

Thursday, Nov. 12, 2020 • 7:20 p.m. CST • Nissan Stadium • Nashville, Tenn. • TV: FOX, NFLN & Amazon

NASHVILLE — The Tennessee Titans (6-2) host the Indianapolis Colts (5-2) this week in a nationally-televised, primetime battle for first place in the AFC South. Kickoff at Nissan Stadium is scheduled for 7:20 p.m. CST on Thursday, Nov. 12.

Ticket sales for the contest were limited to 21 percent of the venue's normal capacity following current Center for Disease Control guidelines. Detailed information on the team's Safe Stadium Plan can be found at tennesseetitans.com/safestadium.

THE BROADCAST

This week's contest will be televised on FOX and NFL Network. In Nashville, viewers can watch over the air on FOX affiliate WZTV FOX 17. The broadcast team includes play-by-play announcer Joe Buck, analyst Troy Aikman, rules analyst Mike Pereira, and reporters Erin Andrews and Kristina Pink.

Fans can livestream the broadcast on their mobile devices from the Titans Mobile App (iOS and Android) and on TennesseeTitans.com mobile web. Restrictions apply. For more information and additional options visit TennesseeTitans.com or NFL.com/ways-to-watch.

Additionally, the game will be available on Amazon Prime Video. Fans can watch the FOX broadcast team or the Prime Video announcing team of Hannah Storm and analyst Andrea Kremer. A separate Prime Video "Scouts Feed" features Joy Taylor, Bucky Brooks and Daniel Jeremiah.

The Titans Radio Network, including Nashville flagship 104.5 The Zone, will carry the game across the Mid-South with the "Voice of the Titans" Mike Keith, analyst Dave McGinnis, sideline reporter Amie Wells, and gameday hosts Rhett Bryan and Jonathan Hutton.

Additionally, Westwood One Sports will broadcast the game to a national radio audience. Play-by-play announcer Tom McCarthy and analyst Tony Boselli will have the call.

TITANS HOPE TO MAINTAIN SOLE GRIP ON FIRST PLACE

The Titans' meeting with the Colts comes four days after ending a two-game losing skid with a victory at Nissan Stadium over the Chicago Bears. They used two touchdown passes by Ryan Tannehill and a touchdown on defense to win by a final score of 24-17.

Newcomer Desmond King II scored for the Titans on a 63-yard fumble return less than a week after he was acquired in a trade with the Los Angeles Chargers. The fourth-year cornerback was one of five players to make his Titans debut against the Bears, capping an eventful week that saw the team record 18 total transactions to their active roster, practice squad and reserve lists.

Tannehill completed a 40-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver A.J. Brown and connected with tight end Jonnu Smith for a two-yard touchdown. It was his fifth consecutive game with at least two touchdown passes and his seventh two-touchdown performance in 2020. His 109.4 passer rating in 2020 ranks sixth in the NFL.

A victory over the Colts would give the Titans a two-game lead in the AFC South and a 3-0 divisional record. They would hold a win over each of their division foes, and the Colts would drop to 0-2 within the division. Meanwhile, a Colts victory would even the clubs' records at 6-3 and would provide the Colts a head-to-head edge with the rematch at Indianapolis scheduled for Nov. 29.

THE COLTS

The Colts, who have the NFL's top-ranked defense (290.0 yards allowed per game), will travel to Tennessee on a short week following a 24-10 home loss to the Baltimore Ravens in Week 9.

Quarterback Philip Rivers is in his first season in Indianapolis after joining the club as an unrestricted free agent from the Los Angeles Chargers during the offseason. The eight-time Pro Bowl selection and Athens, Ala., native ranks sixth in NFL history in passing yards (61,358) and passing touchdowns (407).

The Colts are trying to get back to the playoffs under Frank Reich, who is in his third season as the organization's head coach. After he spearheaded a 10-6 record and a first-round playoff win in 2018, the Colts finished 7-9 in 2019.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR THIS WEEK

- WR A.J. Brown can record his sixth consecutive game with at least one touchdown reception. He would be the team's first player to do so since Bill Groman's franchise-record eight-game streak in 1961.
- WR A.J. Brown can record consecutive 100-yard receiving games for the second time in his career. It would be his eighth total career 100-yard receiving game.
- WR A.J. Brown (six touchdown receptions in 2020) needs two touchdown catches to become the fourth player in franchise history with at least eight touchdown receptions in back-to-back seasons. He would join Bill Groman (1960-61), Charlie Hennigan (1961-64) and Drew Hill (1988-89).
- RB Derrick Henry (49 total career touchdowns) needs one touchdown to be the fifth player in franchise history to score at least 50 career touchdowns of any kind.
- RB Derrick Henry (843 rushing yards in 2020) needs 157 rushing yards to record his third consecutive 1,000-yard rushing season. He would be the fourth player in franchise history to accomplish the feat, along with Earl Campbell (1978-1981), Eddie George (1996-2000) and Chris Johnson (2008-2013).
- RB Derrick Henry can notch his 18th career 100-yard rushing game (including regular season and playoffs) and his fifth 100-yard rushing game of 2020.
- WR Adam Humphries (2,922 career receiving yards) needs 78 receiving yards to reach 3,000 for his career.
- TE Jonnu Smith (97 career receptions) needs three receptions to reach 100 for his career. He would be the 12th tight end in franchise history to hit the mark.
- TE Jonnu Smith (six touchdown receptions in 2020) needs one touchdown reception to tie Delanie Walker (seven in 2016) for the most single-season touchdown receptions by a tight end in the franchise's "Titans era" (1999-present).
- QB Ryan Tannehill can record his sixth consecutive game with multiple touchdown passes.

SERIES HISTORY

The Titans and Colts have played 51 all-time games, including playoffs. The Colts lead the series 34-17.

The two teams most recently met in Indianapolis on Dec. 1, 2019. The Titans blocked two field goals in the game, and Ryan Tannehill's two touchdown passes helped them win 31-17 in the team's second all-time win at Lucas Oil Stadium.

In the first meeting of 2019, played on Sept. 15, the Colts invaded Nissan Stadium and escaped with a 19-17 victory. The Titans held the lead going into the fourth quarter, but a four-yard touchdown pass from Colts quarterback Jacoby Brissett to receiver T.Y. Hilton with less than five minutes remaining in regulation was enough to give Indianapolis the win.

In the 2018 season finale at Nissan Stadium (Dec. 30), the Titans and Colts played to decide who would clinch a playoff berth as the AFC's sixth seed. The Titans were forced to play the game without injured quarterback Marcus Mariota, and the Colts pulled away in the fourth quarter for a 33-17 victory.

The Colts swept the season series every year from 2012 through 2016 until 2017, when the Titans swept the season series for the first time since 2002.

The Titans and Colts have met only once in the postseason, a 19-16 Titans victory in a Divisional Playoff game in the RCA Dome on Jan. 16, 1999. Eddie George rushed for 162 yards, including a 68-yard touchdown run to help lead Tennessee during its run to Super Bowl XXXIV.

Three years later, in 2002, the NFL realigned, and the AFC South was created. The Titans moved from the AFC Central, and the Colts moved from the AFC East to form half of the new division.

The teams first clashed in 1970 following the AFL-NFL merger. The then-Baltimore Colts defeated the then-Houston Oilers 24-20 during the Colts' run to a Super Bowl V Championship.

TITANS-COLTS: THE LAST MEETING

Week 13: Titans 31, Colts 17
Sunday, Dec. 1, 2019 • 1:00 p.m. ET • Lucas Oil Stadium

GAME RECAP

In Week 13 of the 2019 season, the Titans traveled to Indianapolis and won by a score of 31-17. This marked Tennessee's third consecutive victory, and the third consecutive game in which the Titans scored 30 or more points. Tennessee forced three turnovers and blocked two field goals in the win.

On the first play of the game RB Derrick Henry recorded a nine-yard rush, but turned the ball over as Colts LB Anthony Walker forced Henry to fumble. Colts S Malik Hooker recovered the fumble which gave Indianapolis possession at the Tennessee 39-yard line. Indianapolis capitalized on the turnover as Colts QB Jacoby Brissett tossed a 21-yard touchdown pass to Colts TE Jack Doyle for an early 7-0 lead. However, the Titans responded immediately on the ensuing possession. With help from a 23-yard reception by WR Corey Davis, and a 13-yard catch by WR A.J. Brown, QB Ryan Tannehill tossed a 13-yard score to WR Adam Humphries to tie the game, 7-7.

Later in the first quarter, Tannehill was strip-sacked by Colts LB Bobby Okereke and the ball was recovered by Colts DE Justin Houston. The Titans defense held Indianapolis to a field goal attempt, but as Colts K Adam Vinatieri attempted a 53-yard kick, DL Austin Johnson blocked the ball to keep the game tied, 7-7.

In the second quarter, Indianapolis constructed an 11-play, 80-yard scoring drive with help from 18 and 19-yard catches by Colts WR Marcus Johnson. Vinatieri converted a 28-yard field goal to give Indianapolis a 10-7 lead.

Indianapolis opened the second half with an 11-play, 75-yard scoring drive that saw Colts RB Nyheim Hines rush for a one-yard touchdown and a 17-7 lead. But, on the ensuing Tennessee possession, the Titans manufactured their own 75-yard scoring drive. Henry accounted for a 34-yard rush to move the chains, and he ultimately recorded a 13-yard rushing score on fourth-and-one to inch closer to Indianapolis, 17-14. On the Colts' next offensive play, Brissett was intercepted by S Kevin Byard who returned the ball 21 yards to the Indianapolis 14-yard line. The Titans capitalized on the turnover as K Ryan Succop converted a 31-yard field goal for a 17-17 tie.

In the fourth quarter, with Indianapolis driving, OLB Kamalei Correa sacked Brissett on third down at the Tennessee 27-yard line. Vinatieri lined up to attempt a 46-yard field goal, but DB Dane Cruikshank blocked the kick and it was recovered by CB Tye Smith. Smith raced for a 63-yard touchdown as Tennessee went ahead, 24-17. Brissett was then intercepted by CB Logan Ryan who returned the ball 16 yards. The Titans capitalized on the turnover, as Tannehill tossed a 40-yard touchdown bomb to WR Kalif Raymond. Tennessee increased the lead to 31-17, and preserved the score to seal a divisional road victory.

Frank Reich was hired as the head coach of the Colts on Feb. 11, 2018. He joined the team with 26 years of NFL experience as both a player (1985-1998) and a coach (2006-2017). He previously spent six years on the team's coaching staff from 2006-2011.

In 2019, the Colts finished the season 7-9. However, the team boasted a top-10 rushing attack for the first time since 2001 (ranked seventh at 133.1 yards per game). Continuity along the offensive line was key as Indianapolis was the only team in the NFL to start the same five offensive linemen in all 16 regular season games. The unit tied for the ninth-fewest sacks allowed.

In 2018, Reich led the Colts to the playoffs and a Wild Card win over the Houston Texans after posting a 10-6 record in the regular season.

Prior to arriving in Indianapolis, Reich spent two seasons as offensive coordinator of the Philadelphia Eagles and was instrumental in the team's Super Bowl LII championship following the 2017 season. Reich assisted with the developmental of quarterback Carson Wentz, whom the team selected in the first round (second overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft.

In 2017, Wentz led the team to an 11-2 record before suffering a season-ending knee injury. Veteran backup Nick Foles stepped in and led Philadelphia to the team's first-ever Super Bowl championship. Foles was named Super Bowl MVP.

Prior to Philadelphia, Reich spent three seasons (2013-15) with the San Diego Chargers, serving the last two seasons as offensive coordinator. Under the direction of Reich, quarterback Philip Rivers hit the 4,000-yard passing plateau in three-straight seasons. Also during that span, Rivers threw 92 touchdowns, the fourth-highest total in the NFL, while recording the second-highest completion percentage (67.3).

Before his tenure in San Diego, Reich coached wide receivers for the Arizona Cardinals in 2012, where he worked with wide receivers Larry Fitzgerald and Michael Floyd. Fitzgerald caught 71 passes for 798 yards and four touchdowns en route to his seventh career Pro Bowl selection.

Reich spent the first six seasons of his coaching career with the Colts as wide receivers coach (2011), quarterbacks coach (2009-2010), offensive assistant (2008) and coaching intern (2006-07).

Reich enjoyed a 14-year playing career with the Buffalo Bills, Carolina Panthers, New York Jets and Detroit Lions after being selected by the Bills in the third round (57th overall) of the 1985 NFL Draft. Including postseason play, he played in 129 career games (22 starts) and completed 575-of-1,036 passes for 6,858 yards and 47 touchdowns.

He spent the first 10 years of his NFL career with the Bills, where he served as a backup to Hall of Fame quarterback Jim Kelly. During his time in Buffalo, Reich was a part of Bills teams that went to four-straight Super Bowls from 1990-1993, appeared in five AFC Championships and captured five division titles.

A native of Freeport, N.Y., Reich played collegiately at the University of Maryland from 1981-84 where he backed up Boomer Esiason before earning the starting job as a senior in 1984.

Reich graduated from Maryland in 1984 with a business degree and earned Academic All-ACC honors as a senior.

LAST WEEK VS. THE BEARS

Week 9: Titans 24, Bears 17
Sunday, Nov. 8, 2020 • 12:00 p.m. CT • Nissan Stadium

In Week 9 of the 2020 season the Titans hosted the Chicago Bears and won by a score of 24-17. Tennessee's defense limited Chicago to two third-down conversions on 15 attempts and allowed the Bears to rush for just 56 yards. Tennessee's defense limited Chicago to two third-down conversions on 15 attempts and allowed the Bears to rush for just 56 yards.

Tennessee got on the board first with an eight-play, 56-yard scoring drive and never relinquished the lead. WR A.J. Brown caught a 38-yard pass to help move the chains before K Stephen Gostkowski ultimately made a 40-yard field goal for an early 3-0 lead.

In the second quarter, the Titans extended the lead with a 91-yard scoring drive. RB Derrick Henry carried the ball for five consecutive plays, and Brown added a 17-yard reception before he then bulldozed his way into the end zone on a 40-yard touchdown catch to make it 10-0 Tennessee.

In the third quarter with Chicago driving toward the red zone, Bears QB Nick Foles threw a short pass to Bears RB David Montgomery, but DL Jeffery Simmons forced him to fumble. CB Desmond King II scooped up the fumble and returned it for a 63-yard touchdown to extend the Titans lead, 17-0.

Chicago got on the board in the fourth quarter on a 15-play scoring drive. Bears WR Allen Robinson II contributed a 23-yard catch to help move the sticks but Chicago was halted at the Tennessee four-yard line. Bears K Cairo Santos converted a 23-yard field goal to make it a 17-3 game. On the ensuing Titans possession, Tennessee quickly added another touchdown. Henry broke free for a 26-yard gain, and QB Ryan Tannehill threw a 30-yard pass to TE Jonnu Smith to give the Titans a first down at the Chicago two-yard line. On the next play, Tannehill tossed a two-yard touchdown pass to Smith to put Tennessee up, 24-3.

Chicago responded on the next possession with a touchdown of their own. Robinson contributed a 27-yard catch to bring the Bears into Titans territory before Foles ultimately connected with Bears RB Ryan Nall for a six-yard touchdown. Chicago moved closer, 24-10.

Later in the fourth quarter, the Bears tacked on another score on an 80-yard possession. Nall added two first-down receptions, and Robinson contributed an 11-yard first down, before Foles threw an eight-yard touchdown to Bears TE Jimmy Graham. Chicago made it a one possession game at 24-17 but could not recover an onside kick as the Titans advanced to 6-2 on the season.

NOTES FROM LAST WEEK'S GAME

TEAM NOTES

- With their 24-17 win against the Bears, the Titans are 6-2 at the season's midpoint. It marks the sixth time in the Titans era (since 1999) and the first time in 12 years that they have won at least six of their first eight games after previously doing so in 1999 (6-2), 2000 (7-1), 2003 (6-2), 2007 (6-2) and 2008 (8-0).
- The Titans have a 2-0 record against the NFC North in 2020 and five consecutive wins against NFC North teams dating back to 2016.
- The Titans have 24 wins in their 33 most recent home games. Their all-time record at Nissan Stadium, including playoffs, is 101-76.
- After the Titans made several roster moves during the week, five total players made their debuts with the team: cornerback Desmond King II, defensive lineman Teair Tart (first career game), outside linebacker Wyatt Ray (first career game), punter Ryan Allen and long snapper Matt Overton.
- The 77 degree temperature at kickoff made the Titans-Bears game the warmest game played at Nissan Stadium in November or later since the venue opened in 1999. The previous high temperature in November/December/January games was 76 degrees against the Houston Texans on Nov. 10, 2002.
- The paid attendance was 13,871, a season high for the Titans at Nissan Stadium after the amount of tickets made available for the game was increased to 21 percent of capacity, where it is expected to stay for the remainder of the season.
- For the sixth time in eight games in 2020, the Titans won the turnover battle. The Titans did not commit any turnovers, while the defense recovered two fumbles. For the season (through afternoon games of Nov. 8), the Titans lead the NFL with a plus-10 turnover margin.
- The Titans defense produced its best first-half numbers through eight games in yards allowed (105), passing yards allowed (79), rushing yards allowed (26), third-down percentage (0.0), points allowed (0), three-and-out drives forced (three), and first downs allowed (three).
- The Titans defense produced a first-half shutout for the first time since Dec. 16, 2018, when the unit did not allow the Giants to score in the first half at New York.
- The Titans defense limited the Bears to two conversions on 15 attempts on third down—a season best for the Titans of 13.3 percent. It was the lowest percentage by a Titans opponent since the 2019 season opener, when the Browns converted 10.0 percent (one conversion on 10 attempts).
- The Titans defense allowed the Bears to rush for only 56 yards, the lowest total by a Titans opponent since Dec. 16, 2018, when the Titans limited the Giants to 47 rushing yards at New York.

- The Titans defense limited the Bears to 2.8 yards per rushing attempt (56 yards on 20 carries), the lowest rushing average for a Titans opponent since the Los Angeles Chargers averaged 1.9 yards (21 attempts for 39 yards) at Tennessee on Oct. 20, 2019.
- The Titans totaled a season-high three sacks. It was their highest total since a four-sack performance at Houston on Dec. 29, 2019.

P RYAN ALLEN

- Made his Titans debut one day after being signed to the roster.
- Punted eight times for a 50.5-yard gross average and a 40.0-yard net average. His 50.5-yard gross average tied for the 10th-best number of his career, while his eight punts were his most in a game since he had eight punts for the New England Patriots against the New York Jets on Dec. 31, 2017.
- Booted a 60-yard punt out of bounds to flip field position in the first quarter and punted 65 yards from his own end zone in the second quarter. His 65-yarder tied for the fifth-longest punt of his career.

WR CAMERON BATSON

- Registered his first career kickoff return for 23 yards in the fourth quarter. He added a six-yard reception.

CB BREON BORDERS

- Recorded his second career start and his first start in a Titans uniform.
- Ranked second on the defense and set a new career high with nine total tackles.

WR A.J. BROWN

- Registered his seventh career 100-yard receiving game and his second 100-yard performance of 2020. He led the team with four receptions and 101 receiving yards with one touchdown.
- Became the franchise's third player to eclipse 1,500 career receiving yards before his 24th birthday. Born on June 30, 1997, he was 23 years and 131 days old against the Bears. He joined Kenny Britt (22 years, 357 days) and Ernest Givins (23 years, 80 days) as the only Titans/Oilers to reach 1,500 receiving yards before turning 24.
- Registered his fifth consecutive game with at least one touchdown reception. He is the team's first player to do so since Kenny Britt's five-game streak in 2010, and his streak tied for the third-longest streak of its kind in franchise history.
- After recording a 38-yard reception in the first quarter, he posted a 40-yard touchdown reception in the second quarter. It was his sixth touchdown of 2020 and his 14th career touchdown catch.

ILB JAYON BROWN

- Dropped Nick Foles for a six-yard sack in the second quarter. It was his first sack of 2020 and gave him 9.5 sacks in his four-year career.
- Created a turnover in the fourth quarter when he registered his second forced fumble of the season. He knocked the ball out of the hands of wide receiver Anthony Miller, and defensive tackle Jeffery Simmons recovered it for the Titans. The play gave Brown four career forced fumbles.
- Credited with a team-high 10 tackles in the contest.

ILB RASHAAN EVANS

- Split a one-yard sack of Nick Foles with defensive lineman DaQuan Jones in the fourth quarter. The play gave Evans 0.5 sacks in 2020 and three career sacks.

NOTES FROM LAST WEEK'S GAME

K STEPHEN GOSTKOWSKI

- Made his only field goal attempt from 40 yards and hit all three of his extra point attempts.

RB DERRICK HENRY

- Led the team with 21 rushing attempts for 68 yards, including a 26-yard run on a touchdown drive in the fourth quarter.
- Leads the AFC and ranks second in the NFL (Dalvin Cook, 858) with 843 rushing yards in 2020.

DL DaQUAN JONES

- Split a one-yard sack of Nick Foles with linebacker Rashaan Evans in the fourth quarter. The play gave Jones one sack in 2020 and eight career sacks.

P BRETT KERN

- Did not play in a game for the first time in his career after he was placed on injured reserve on Nov. 7. His consecutive games played streak ended at 199 games, including his career with the Titans and Denver Broncos. Prior to the game, he owned the fourth-longest active consecutive games played streak in the NFL behind only Philip Rivers (232), Sam Koch (231) and Mason Crosby (216).
- His streak with the Titans ended at 177 consecutive games played. It finished as the second-longest streak in franchise history behind Bruce Matthews' 232 consecutive games from 1987 to 2001.

DB JOSHUA KALU

- Credited with a team-high three special teams tackles.

CB DESMOND KING II

- Recorded his first start with the Titans after being acquired during the week leading up to the game in a trade with the Los Angeles Chargers.
- Returned a David Montgomery fumble 63 yards in the third quarter to score his first career fumble return touchdown. It gave him five career touchdowns, which also includes two touchdowns on interceptions and two scores on punt returns. He recorded the Titans' first fumble return for a touchdown since Jayon Brown at Oakland on Dec. 8, 2019.
- Recorded the Titans' longest fumble return since Oct. 13, 2013, when Jason McCourty scored on a 77-yard fumble return at Seattle.

OLB HAROLD LANDRY III

- Dropped Nick Foles for a nine-yard sack in the third quarter to give him 2.5 sacks in 2020 and 16 sacks in his three-year career. Two plays later, he forced an intentional grounding penalty on Foles.

OLB WYATT RAY

- Made his NFL debut as a reserve on defense after being elevated from the practice squad for the game (standard elevation).

WR KALIF RAYMOND

- Returned three punts for a total of 49 yards. His 16.3-yard punt return average was the best of his career in a game with at least three returns. He returned three consecutive punts in the first quarter for 21, 16 and 12 yards, respectively.

DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

- Credited with his first career forced fumble in the third quarter, leading to a Titans touchdown. After he knocked the ball out of the hands of running back David Montgomery, cornerback Desmond King II scooped it up and raced 63 yards for a touchdown.
- Recorded his second fumble recovery of 2020. In the fourth quarter, after Jayon Brown stripped the ball from Anthony Miller, he recovered the ball for the takeaway.
- Registered his first career game with a fumble recovery and a forced fumble. He became the team's first defensive lineman to record a fumble recovery and a forced fumble in the same game since Jurrell Casey at Atlanta on Sept. 29, 2019.

TE JONNU SMITH

- Helped extend the Titans' lead in the fourth quarter with a 30-yard reception and a two-yard touchdown catch on the next play. It gave him six touchdown receptions in 2020 to extend his career high, as well as 14 career touchdown receptions.
- Became the first Titans tight end with at least six touchdown receptions in a season since Delanie Walker (seven) in 2016.

QB RYAN TANNEHILL

- Registered his fifth game of 2020 with a passer rating at or above 100.0. He completed 10 of 21 passes for 158 yards and a pair of touchdowns for a passer rating of 104.9, giving him 13 performances in 18 games as a Titans starter with a passer rating of at least 100.0.
- Reached the 25,000-yard career passing mark during the first quarter.
- Found A.J. Brown for a 38-yard gain in the first quarter and found Brown again for a 40-yard touchdown in the second quarter.
- With a two-yard touchdown pass to Jonnu Smith, he notched his fifth consecutive game with at least two touchdown passes and his seventh two-touchdown performance in 2020. In 18 career starts with the Titans, he has passed for at least two touchdown passes 15 times.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

SUNDAY, NOV. 8, 2020

HEAD COACH MIKE VRABEL

(on winning today's game)

The reason why we come to work is to win. That's the only reason we do this is to win, and we put a lot into it and it's credit to the players for being able to pull it out today.

(on the third-down adjustments made today)

Again, we'll take a look at the tape. It felt like they were locked in during the week and when we played man they were all up there tight. Zone, we gave them some different looks out of the zone and guys executed it. Again, to be able to try to affect them a little bit inside and pressure them. I think the fourth down stops, those were huge, those third-and-ones that we got, those are hard to get but I think that that was a huge momentum there in the beginning of the game.

(on getting contributions today from players who were making their Titans debut)

Everybody that comes to work, players or whatever roster they're on, active roster, practice squad, they're expected to be ready to play in the game. They never know when their opportunity is going to come and I think the guys started to realize that. Practice is critical, so was the preparation, the meetings, watching film, but then performance is always the key. So I think the guys understand that anybody can play, whether it's Cam Batson or Teair Tart, all those guys, (Wyatt) Ray, (Breon) Borders had an opportunity, and then just Desmond (King), appreciate his professionalism, working through Zoom the whole week, pretty unique situation not seeing him until Saturday, and then playing extensively in the game.

(on cornerback Desmond King II contributing in his debut and scoring a touchdown)

The touchdown is what it is. The ball is on the ground and give him credit for scooping and somebody obviously helped him out by causing the fumble. But again, the professionalism that he showed. He was excited to be a part of our team. I think he was excited for a fresh start. Looks like his teammates have certainly embraced him. Probably was – earned a lot of respect of theirs by understanding what we were doing, by going through those Zoom meetings, and when he came in and met with them and they talked and they were in the film room on Saturday, they probably respected him for the way that he prepared to get to that point.

(on what Chicago had shown that slowed the offense down in the beginning of the game)

Same thing they had shown throughout the year. It was excellent defense, good inside, good in the secondary, tight coverage, so we knew that it was probably going to be tough sledding. Hit a play down there. We were – there were some really good third-down conversions. I thought Firk (Anthony Firkser) going inside there. We had some drops that we'll have to clean up and try to eliminate. But they're an excellent defense. They're well-coached and they've got really good players.

(on how pressuring Bears quarterback Nick Foles helped the team while having a lead)

I don't know. Every week is different. We'll try to see where, what it looked like on film, and who was winning and how the games worked and coach everything up from there, and then get on to Indianapolis in a real short week.

(on quarterback Ryan Tannehill and the receivers seeming disconnected initially and if that was a factor of pressure or off timing)

I think I'll watch the tape and we'll figure it out, but usually those are the things that somewhat contribute to that. Like, I think there were some drops. I think there were some balls that I would expect our guys to catch.

(on newcomers to the team providing a spark)

I mean, I hope whoever is out there is eager to play. But it's always great when guys take advantage of their opportunities because then they earn more opportunities.

(on how impactful outside linebacker Harold Landry III was today)

Well again, we have high expectations for Harold (Landry). It means a lot to him. He's conscientious, he plays hard. We move him around different places and I really would want to watch the film to see how it looked. But again, it did look like he had an impact and was helping us, but it takes all 11 coordinated guys and executing the gameplan and playing together, communicating.

(on the performance of defensive lineman DaQuan Jones)

We'll look at the film and see how it was, but we, again, we have high expectations for him. I'm sure there's some things that he did well. I noticed them. But he's improved. He's shedding the blocker and making plays at or around the line of scrimmage. He's one of our captains, and he has, he provides a great leadership and so I think that any time that we can come on out with him being healthy moving on to next week is positive.

(on if wide receiver A.J. Brown and defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons are making the leap from good to great in their sophomore seasons)

We're not going to crown anybody in their second, halfway through their second season. Those players are very important to us. Love coaching them. Love seeing them every single day. They work hard. They work hard in the offseason in the weight room. They have got a very unique skillset with the size that each player possesses. So, I'm thankful that I get to coach them. They continue to want to improve and get better. I don't think they are satisfied, which I think all players and coaches should try to adhere to is that we're always trying to continually improve.

(on if he thinks today's win is encouraging for the defense)

Every week is different. Some days you rely on your offense. I think we've got to improve the special teams. We had some moving parts. We had some guys out. And not making excuses, it has to be better. We have to be able to protect our punter better. We've got to kick better. Certainly giving up the fake punt isn't what we're looking for. So, every week is a new week but I think that guys were excited to be able to play well on third down. At least early. Two-minute at the end there is somewhat frustrating.

(on how the team responded to the adversity of losing two games and the challenge now in preparing on a short week)

I think that we were at a crossroads here of where we were going with our season. Looking at coming off the two losses, kind of coming back home, proud of the way the guys played. Proud of the way they prepared, and then now the challenge is to come back in there tomorrow and forget about this one and take care of our bodies. The team that gets healthy the quickest and obviously prepares in a short amount of time that we have, is going to have an advantage in the football game.

(on the performance of special teams)

I just mentioned that it had to be better. But getting in there with a new snapper, a new punter and a holder, I would say that operation was OK. We have to protect the punter better. There were some moving parts in there on the punt team. Our guys covered hard. We had some really nice gunner coverage I noticed, unfortunately the one got called back with the penalty. But Chris Milton and Nick (Dzubnar) and all those guys flying down there to try to disrupt the returner.

(on if part of today's plan included managing running back Derrick Henry's carries to keep him fresh for Thursday)

I think we're always conscious of that and what it's going to take to win the game. We got a little bit of a lead there and were able to, I think, kind of come off of him a little bit. We just have to finish games better. We're up, dominating the football game, and then make it too close.

QUARTERBACK RYAN TANNEHILL

(on the conversation with wide receiver A.J. Brown after the missed deep shot and how Brown made up for that later in the game and if he sees Brown making the jump from good to great)

There's a lot to that question. First one, we were just a little off for whatever reason. We'll clean that up. He made a huge play for us on that third down, being able to fight through the contact. The DB was trying to get his hands in there and he was trying to swipe his hands down and use late hands to catch that ball and then, obviously, the physical finish to get the thing in the end zone. So, proud of him. He made a bunch of big plays for us today. The play, the catch and run, high ball, catch and run on the first drive was huge for us, and some other big catches as well. So, proud of what he did today. He continues to take steps in the right direction and we're just going to keep pushing him along that way.

(on the defensive performance)

It was huge. No doubt about it. It was huge. They were playing fast. They were playing free. They were making plays. Three-and-outs early in the game kept us in it. Offense wasn't doing our job. We weren't moving the ball, but defense was playing stout defense, really team defense. You could see them swarming, really just giving up nothing. So, proud of those guys and the way they played today. Obviously, made some huge plays getting the turnovers for us and really just kept us in the game the whole game and then finished it off.

(on how the team responded today after losing two games)

I'm proud that we got a win. I think it wasn't pretty. We didn't execute well enough. Too many missed opportunities offensively. Defense came out, played stout from the jump and kept us in it and the offense was able to make enough plays to get the win. So, we battled. We found a way to make some plays, put some points on the board and get the win, but definitely a lot of things we can clean up.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

(on A.J. Brown being able to make plays after the catch or in traffic)

It's huge. He made a couple big plays for us, no doubt about it. They were making it tough upfront. We knew it coming in that they had a really good front and they did a good job for the whole game. So, we knew we had to make some plays outside. We missed on some close opportunities, and just didn't finish on enough plays, but A.J. (Brown) was huge in making those plays down field for us.

(on getting back into a rhythm after passes that looked to be high and dropped passes)

The only one I felt like was high was the one A.J. (Brown) caught, made a good play on it and then finished it off with a great run. So, I didn't really think it was a problem. Obviously, I would like to have had that one a little bit down, but it wasn't like a consistent problem. But you mentioned just not finishing plays, whether it's a throw, the catch, the block, we just had too many missed opportunities overall on offense today, so we need to clean those things up. We have a good team coming to town on Thursday, so we have to get it cleaned up in a hurry.

(on how offensive line reserves are stepping up with injuries to starters)

They have been huge for us. Obviously, it's tough when you lose guys upfront but Ty (Sambraio) stepped in for us early in the year, and then obviously when Taylor (Lewan) went down, he's played a big role for us now. I'll find out more about Rodger (Saffold), but losing Rodger (Saffold) for over half this game, having Jamil (Douglas) step in there, I know Jamil (Douglas) has played a lot of football for us and we have a ton of confidence in him. So, hopefully Rodger (Saffold) will be back soon but we have a ton of confidence in Jamil (Douglas) as well.

(on involving tight end Jonnu Smith and allowing him to make plays)

Yeah it was huge. That play to Jonnu (Smith), the first one, the explosive one, was huge for us. Derrick (Henry) had a big run, breaking some tackles and tight roping the sideline, staying in bounds there. It was really a crucial point in the game where we needed to move the ball offensively and put points on the board. So, I'm proud of our guys, the way we found a way to execute there when we needed to, when it was really on the line and you mentioned Jonnu (Smith) making a huge play for us and him being able to finish off with a touchdown the next play.

(on how gratifying it is for the team to getting production out of new players)

It's huge. Obviously, whenever you have somebody new step in, it's a team effort to get them ready to go and then that person has to kind of take the onus upon themselves to make it happen. So, like you mentioned, we've had guys offensively step in, Jamil (Douglas) did it today for us. Then you mentioned Desmond King on the other side. Got here on Saturday and was able to go out and make some huge plays for us. So proud of the way that our team really built up around those guys, communicated with them and then he was able to make some big plays for us.

(on how he likes where the team sits in the standings and the challenge of preparing on a short week)

No doubt. We got to enjoy this one tonight but get ourselves recovered and ready to go, have a big one, division game at home on Thursday Night Football, so we're excited for that, excited for the opportunity. 6-2, but at this point we have to look forward and we're really 0-0 going into the second half of the season. We have done some good things, we need to clean up some things. Offensively, just be cleaner, make some plays when the opportunities present themselves, but excited about the toughness we have both mentally and physically, and being able to find a way to win.

RUNNING BACK DERRICK HENRY

(on how he's seen wide receiver A.J. Brown mature and grow as a player)

Yeah, it's his approach to the game and how he practices. It just translates to the game, and he wants to be a playmaker, make plays on offense, do anything he can to help the team win and it's just showing up on gamedays.

(on how the team has handled the adversity of two losses and roster changes)

I think we just had to believe in what we do and our standard and go out there and play like we know how to play, and I think that the defense did a great job today. Offense, we need to do better, but it starts from everything that's been going on. They just came out and played lights out and had fun and executed everything that they wanted to do.

(on being on the sideline more than usual today and the quick turnaround ### of a short week)

I can't really speak on anything like that. When I'm out there I try to make plays and do the best I can to help my team, and so I let the coaches do what they do and what they feel is best for the team. I'm going to go out there when I'm out there playing and do what I can to help us win.

LINEBACKER JAYON BROWN

(on what changed on defense today that allowed for success)

This week we emphasized communication and talking to each other to make sure we're all on the same page and that came through into the game, and when it came down to third down, we made the plays on the field and was giving our offense back the ball.

(on improving the communication with new players starting)

We just treated everybody as if it was their first day because we haven't played with a lot of new guys, and they performed really good today for us. A lot of dudes made plays all over the field and the communication was a big part of that.

(on if new players like cornerback Desmond King II provided a spark)

100 percent. New guys bring in new energy, and (we have) got vets on the field keeping everybody focused and on the same page, and everybody loves ball, so we were out there having fun.

(on the intensity level on defense)

We came out with energy with the start of the game. I believe we didn't (allow) a point until late in the game, I think like third quarter or second quarter, but I'm proud of the way we played. I say we gave up too many points, my personal opinion, but we won, and we get back to the field and make a few corrections. We've got a quick turnaround to get back on the Colts for this week.

(on communication with cornerback Desmond King II during the game)

We did that not with just him but with everybody on the field, even myself. Desmond (King)'s a quick learner and he performed today. Got a touchdown for the first time in a Titans jersey, we're very happy for him. As a defense coaches did a real good job of preparing us this week, and for the players, we kept each other focused and went out there and got the job done.

(on importance of getting early success defensively)

It was huge. Coach called great plays for us to make us make those stops happen, and we had really good players going out there and making plays. It was a good combination of complementing football to coaches and players and we got the job done.

CORNERBACK DESMOND KING II

(on how he was able to get engrained with the team so quickly)

I'm pretty familiar with some of the guys already, especially on the defensive side. Kenny (Vaccaro), Kevin (Byard), Malcolm Butler, Amani Hooker, we train together in the offseason in California, so I already had a little bit of chemistry with those guys. But like I said, it's a family over here. These guys love to play football and that's why I'm here, I love to play football. It just means a lot to us and you can see it when we are out there on the field as a team.

(on how he was able to pick the defense up and have great communication)

It was definitely a challenge just because I wasn't in practice. I was under COVID protocol because of the trade, so I was sitting in the hotel for most of the day just doing Zoom meetings with the team and then I got into the playbook. The challenge for me was to be prepared to come in and play on Sunday. I felt like I handled it the right way. Going out there with my teammates they helped me communicate as a team, but that's what we are here for, that's what we are supposed to do as teammates out there. You want to communicate with the person next to you. Like Coach (Vrabel) said in our team meeting yesterday, 'Don't act like it's just one person that came in, act like everybody just came in. That's how we need to communicate to make sure everybody is on the same page.'

(on how he's approaching the new opportunity with the Titans)

Just come in ready to play. It's a business here and you have to be professional. You have to come here and be prepared and ready. It was a tough week for me, but I got it done with the help of my teammates out there on the field. It made everything a lot better.

(on how much of a whirlwind this week has been and how great it was to cap it off with a win)

Everyone gets challenged with something, it's just a matter of how you're going to attack it and how you're going to approach it. You have to go with a positive mindset and use it as motivation. I think that's exactly what I did, and use it as a challenge and just step up to the plate for it. I think I came out with a great outcome at the end of the day.

(on preparing for a game while being stuck in a hotel room all week)

When I was in the hotel, me and this chair became best friends and that's where I've been sitting at literally for the past week. I just put my head in the playbook. I knew I had a short week of getting this down and not letting it be a distraction. I used that as motivation to know that I have to get it down to go out there and play and have my teammates trust me when I'm out there.

(on if teammates had to help decode plays for him on the field)

It all came down to communicating on the field and that's what we're out there for, especially as a defense. You have to communicate with the person to your left and the person to your right. I think that's what made things so much smoother and so much easier for all of us out there. Even for me.

(on how motivated he is for this fresh start and what he thinks so far about this Titans team)

When I heard about the trade, I absolutely loved it. I knew it was going to be a great opportunity for me. It was already a great defense and adding me to it made it even better. These guys love to play football here at the Titans and that's one thing I definitely respect about it. Just to come in here and have the opportunity to play with these guys is definitely a blessing.

(on how much he wanted to be an 'energy guy' for the team today)

Showing that enthusiasm on the field is what brings everyone around you together. That's where I think the guys were like, 'All right, it's time to go. We can trust this guy and we are going to play together.' Just keeping that energy and that juice out there on the field making plays. That's what it's about, just out there having fun.

(on what his feelings were after scoring a touchdown to cap a whirlwind week)

Scoring that touchdown is what you expect. Those are expectations you have to live up to. I know my ability and what I can do. Just to come here and put that to use and contribute to the team's success is what it's really about.

WIDE RECEIVER A.J. BROWN

(on his 40-yard touchdown catch being rated as Next Gen Stats' most improbable catch)

I've got a question for you. Where do people come up with the improbability of a catch? I kind of drilled into Ryan (Tannehill)'s head all week whenever the play is called and I get an opportunity one-on-one to throw the ball, and he trusts me and I made a play for him. So, you know, hopefully we can keep it going.

(on if there was miscommunication on the third-and-nine play early in the game)

Unlike some other passes, we just didn't connect on that one. I don't know if on that play it is a question for him, but didn't connect on that one and a couple of others today.

(on what it is like adding new players on the field)

Just got to stay ready. I think all week long it depends on how the game goes. You never know what can happen. It's about being a pro, staying ready so you don't have to get ready. Credit to the guys coming in and helping us. They're not normal starters but they are doing a great job coming in and playing a role.

(on his touchdown celebration)

For some weeks I have been thinking about jumping on the goal posts and I forgot. They got to at least honor that first, you know? Just try to have fun when I am out there and whatever comes to my mind I try to do, but I got to handle my business first and then I celebrate.

(on how important it is to show that he has downhill running ability)

It's at least got to be on film that you can take a guy over the top, then they got to worry about something else. They got to worry about the catch and run ability, so couple of things added to the arsenal is not a bad thing.

(on the importance of the team winning today to get back on track)

It was real important to get this win. It's midway through the season. A lot of teams go down, a lot of teams go up, a lot of teams stay the same, been preaching that all week and that's true. Last year we started going in the up direction. Every game, every week we just started focusing and get the win. It doesn't matter how you get it. It can be ugly, it can be pretty, it doesn't matter, it's about winning games.

(on if there was miscommunication earlier in the game on the deep incompletions and having an opportunity later in the game on a deep shot)

It was nice period just to take a shot, because the first two balls, number 24 (Buster Skrine), whatever number, jumped both routes. So, we had to let them know we will take them deep. We had to let them know, just a thought so he can sort of back up a little bit and be a little more conservative. At first he was kind of trigger happy, so we had to try to see if we could take him off the top. So, we got him to thinking a little bit.

(on not concern about taking hits as other receivers)

Yeah, you worry about the hits you don't see of course. That time I braved myself. I don't worry about getting hit. I try to do the hitting. But that time I had gotten a chance to gather myself and get some yards after the play.

(on getting more comfortable in the league)

My confidence is still growing. I like to tell myself I haven't done anything yet, never too high, never too low. I'm still working every day, always trying to improve something to my game. I am nowhere I want to be, but I feel like I am getting there.

(on if he wants to score to be a tone-setter on offense)

I am always trying to find a way to get the ball, get the team going no matter when it is. I like to be a spark whenever. But I got to do what is necessary, do other things before all that takes place and not worry about the ending, so that's my mindset when I am out there. Do little things first and the big stiff happens afterward.

(on when he met cornerback Desmond King II and seeing him score a touchdown in his Titans debut)

I met him yesterday in the locker room, he introduced himself, talked a little bit. We were talking on the sideline how about his first game getting a touchdown. That's crazy. He played a good game today. I am excited for him to be a part of the team.

(on early miscommunication and adjustments made)

Like I said earlier, we just wanted to let them know we will take them deep because he was jumping. He jumped the first two routes so we had to at least put the thought in his mind even if we didn't complete it that we will take him deep, we will go deep on them. I don't know if Ryan (Tannehill) was trying to look off the safety or whatever, but the second time we connected and he threw a great ball. I finished the play.

DEFENSIVE LINEMAN JEFFERY SIMMONS

(on if the fourth-down stop helped to build confidence for the defense)

I think that's the thing about playing defense. You have to build on your momentum and just by us flying to the ball, doing our job, especially up front, knocking the offensive line back, linebackers coming up, DB's doing their job, everybody doing their job. That's what we're about. We came into this week, we have to – KB (Kevin Byard), he said it early this week, we have to have that swag on D, we have to bring the energy. We have to bring the juice, and all day today, defense, we had that juice. We did what we talked about and building on that, and then end up making the fourth-down stop early in the game and that just helped us out more with the juice. So, that's what we talk about all week bringing the energy.

(on his role as a veteran who starts on a weekly basis to help new players on defense transition seamlessly)

I mean, those guys, they've been practicing, they've been with us for a while and they know that we're depending on them to come in and help us out especially up front. But the thing is with us, especially on third down, we do a lot of things that interact with us inside and the guys on outside, and the main thing is communication. That's all we talk about. In order to get a call, you've got to give a call, so that's our thing. We have to build on that, our communication, no matter who is in there. It could be Harold Landry, guys like that who have been starting with us and playing every week, and that's what we talk about, just communicate, give them a call, I get a call, I give them a call, so that's just a big thing, communication for us.

(on if there is any current or former player he talks to about what it takes to go from good to great)

My mentor is my uncle Jason Hatcher, and as I grew up he's been in my life and even when in college – that's the one of the guys that I worked out with over the summer. Just having him in my corner, just after the games or through the week, he's checking in on me. During the summer, I'm working out with him, like I said, since college and even in high school. Just a guy like that that I know who – he played 10 years in the league and you know, he knows about the league, not just on the field but off the field. He helped me out to be a man. Just in my ear trying to give me tips and how to be dominant, especially on the field because he did it for 10 years. So, that's one of the guys that I always, if I've got a question or whatever it is, I just go to him. Like I said, that's my uncle and so he's just a phone call away.

(on if he thinks he's taking the jump from good to great)

Honestly, I'm just taking it day by day. It's not one of those things that you're thinking about especially during the season. Especially during the season, it's like, how can I be dominant every single game or every even at practice? How can I be a leader? How can I take that next step as you're saying to make my game better each week? I'm taking it day by day, no matter what it is, on and off the field, in the meeting room, when I'm at home watching extra film, stuff like that. I think that plays a big part in this, especially in this league. One, taking care of your body, but studying plays a big part in playing in this league.

(on the keys to pressuring Bears quarterback Nick Foles today despite not having outside linebacker Jadeveon Clowney)

Just doing what we do. Of course, we want more sacks. We talk about it every week. We talk about who's going to be in the backfield, who's going to get the sack first. I think the thing was just the energy coming from the guys. Everybody was hyped up. Everybody had their energy and just doing our job. It comes down to winning your one-on-ones. It comes down to coordinating your rushes and make sure you're on the same page, and like I said earlier, just communication. You've got guys who want to be out there on our defense and everybody, every time they get their opportunity, they're making it happen. So, I'm just the next man up. Of course we wish we had (Jadeveon) Clowney out there with us but, hopefully he'll be out there with us next week. But, like I said, those other guys came in, (Wyatt) Ray and Roby (Derick Roberson) and all them guys. I'm just happy we could be able to have a next man up mentality. So just keep it rolling.

(on how much pressure he and defensive lineman DaQuan Jones put on themselves heading into today's game with an opposing offensive line that was missing starters)

Honestly, it's kind of like I said, that mentality we had coming into the game. We know they were going to be down offensive linemen, but at the same time we have to have that mentality that no matter who's across the ball from us, we're going to have to dominate. Props to DaQuan (Jones) today. He had a hell of a game. I told him after the game, you did your job. Especially when you're getting single blocked, that's what happens. Like I said, DaQuan (Jones) is a hell of a player. He's been in this league for a while. I learn from him and we ask each other questions. So that's what we are here for. That's what we get paid to do and happy for him today. Today it was there.

(on if he believes that a little bit of change can impact an entire unit and how the defense can consistently bring the energy)

Honestly, I don't control the change. It's whoever is on the field with me, I'm going to try to bring their energy with them and they're going to bring the energy we need. You feed off each other. But I think that just by having that energy, especially with a lot of new guys playing today, the bigger thing is communication and everybody did that and that just played a part in the urgency. Everybody was flying around having fun today and that's what our defense is about, that's what we want to get back to, just having that juice and flying around.

(on if he reels relieved that the team won today and if the team is back on track after losing two)

It's not relief. We don't like losing for sure, but we should have been 7-0 or whatever it was, 8-0, whatever. But I think that the thing is with us we have to just stay on that track. We have to stay on the grind and have that mindset that we're going to bring that energy every game. We're going to bring that swagger, especially on defense. I can speak for the defensive side right now, but as a whole, no matter what it is, it's a team win and we just all bring it all together and we're going to keep it on the roll.

(on how impressed he is that cornerback Desmond King II was able to be as involved with the defense as he was today)

It was impressive. That's what we talked about, even like what Vrabel (Mike Vrabel) was saying, just treat everybody like they just got here, over-communicate. I think the guys on the back end helped him out a lot, especially coming in on a short week, knowing that he is going to have to play this week. He did a great job coming in trying to help out this defense, especially learning the defense that fast and I think he did a hell of a job today. I'm happy for him and especially his first game, he got a touchdown, so what better feeling than that?

TACKLE DENNIS KELLY

(on bouncing back against a good defense in Chicago)

Their defense is very sound and confident in what they are doing and they play really hard. We are glad our defense played really well today.

(on guard/center Jamil Douglas stepping in for guard Rodger Saffold III)

Jamil (Douglas) is a great pro. He's a great guy. He knows his role now and embraces it. Whenever he has to, he is ready to step in.

(on the quick turnaround before Thursday Night Football)

We have to recover and get a win.

PUNTER RYAN ALLEN

(on his debut as a Tennessee Titan)

It was a quick turnaround but I'm blessed to be here and part of this organization. I am just trying to do my part and help this team anyway I can. It felt good. I got a good amount of reps in. It was fun working with Matt (Overton).

(on being familiar with kicker Stephen Gostkowski from playing together in New England)

Steve (Gostkowski) and I have logged several years together. I was pretty fortunate when I got the call last week, and I was pretty excited about maybe potentially being able to suit back up for a few weeks and play with Stephen (Gostkowski). Him and I are pretty close. I was pretty fortunate when I got the call. It's been fun.

(on punting a ball from the end zone)

It's just a little bit tighter and you have got to make sure you are quick on operation time, but protection was good. A punt unit is eleven guys working together, it doesn't matter how far or high you hit it. If your gunners don't do a good job or protection doesn't do a good job, it's a play you'll end up getting nullified. There is definitely some stuff I want to clean up. I definitely know I can do that. It was good to be able to execute some of those when we needed them.

TIGHT END JONNU SMITH

(on bouncing back against a good defense in Chicago)

It was huge. We had to bounce back. Give them all the credit, but we kept fighting and kept fighting and came out on top.

(on the two plays that led to a scoring touchdown)

I was just trying to take advantage of every opportunity. It was mid-fourth quarter and I knew those plays would come up big. A good team like that can sneak up on you. Being able to get those big plays going, a big catch-and-run and then a touchdown after that to try to seal it off, that's big.

(on feeding off the defense playing well)

The defense played lights out in my opinion. Of course we all can do better, do some things better to improve but that's what this league is all about. It's about improving. No week is perfect. We have to continue to get better.

(on the upcoming Indianapolis Colts matchup)

An in-conference opponent in our division. So, we just have to do what we have to do. They know us and we know them, so it's going to be a battle. We are going to get prepared. It's a short week so we have to get our body, our minds right and get the win.

OUTSIDE LINEBACKER HAROLD LANDRY III

(on the defense creating pressure)

I felt like we were playing together, to be honest. I saw everybody flying around making plays. We knew that at the end of the day we just needed to go out there with some swag and play together and have some fun together, and I think that's what we did today. Played confident.

(on forcing turnovers and scoring on defense)

Vrabel (Mike Vrabel) is always preaching about it, the turnover battle every game. That's our job, to go out there and try to force turnovers and give the ball back to the offense and get them rolling.

(on if the defense was stunting to impact the Bears offensive line's communication)

We knew that when teams are moving guys around on the O-line that they are probably going to do some gadget stuff, like boots and spread out and get the quarterback out of the pocket to kind of protect him, so we knew we had to take advantage of the opportunity when it is there.

(on the quick turnaround for the Indianapolis Colts)

It's a quick turnaround. Enjoy it for tonight but we all what know the challenge is ahead. The Colts are a very good team so and we got to make sure we are ready to go on Thursday night.

Jon Robinson was hired as Titans general manager on Jan. 14, 2016 after spending two years as director of player personnel for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Nearly one year later, on Jan. 5, 2017, he was promoted to executive vice president/general manager.

In his first four years on the job, the Titans finished with four consecutive 9-7 seasons. It marked the first time the organization produced at least four consecutive winning seasons since a seven-year run of winning records from 1987–1993. The Titans were one of four NFL teams to accomplish the feat from 2016–2019, joining New England, Seattle and Kansas City.

Robinson became only the second general manager in franchise history whose first four teams finished above the .500 mark, joining Mike Holovak (1989-92).

Robinson's work helped the team go from three wins in the season prior to his arrival (2015) to a divisional round playoff finish following the 2017 campaign. He became the fifth general manager in franchise history to have the team in the playoffs within his first two full seasons.

Then, in 2019, the team he constructed advanced to the AFC Championship game. It was the organization's first appearance in the conference title game in 17 seasons (2002).

When the Titans took the field for the 2019 postseason, only seven players remained on the 53-man roster from prior to Robinson's arrival—a turnover rate of 87 percent. That included 23 free agents, 18 draft picks, four players acquired via trade and one waiver pickup. An additional six players he acquired (four free agents, one draft pick and one waiver claim) ended 2019 on injured reserve.

The 2020 NFL Draft was Robinson's fifth draft as general manager. In those five drafts, he selected 35 total players, and 21 of those players remained with the club at the beginning of training camp in 2020. During that same time period (as of July 28, 2020), he engineered 20 trades and made 11 waiver claims.

2020: Prior to the 2020 free agent signing period, the Titans reached an agreement on a multi-year contract to keep quarterback Ryan Tannehill in Tennessee. The Titans also re-signed tackle Dennis Kelly, among others.

After initially placing the franchise tag on running back Derrick Henry, the Titans and Henry were able to come to an agreement on a multi-year contract extension in July 2020.

Robinson also led the acquisition of unrestricted free agent outside linebacker Vic Beasley Jr. from the Atlanta Falcons. The former first-round pick spent his first five NFL seasons (2015-19) in Atlanta, capping his tenure there with eight sacks in 2019. He led the NFL with 15.5 sacks in 2016, and from his rookie season through 2019, he ranked 16th in the NFL in sacks by edge rushers (outside linebackers and defensive ends).

Robinson patiently waited to add two more significant free agents just prior to the beginning of the 2020 regular season, picking up kicker Stephen Gostkowski and outside linebacker Jadeveon Clowney during the first week of September. Gostkowski earned four Pro Bowl berths and three Super Bowl rings during 14 seasons with the Patriots, becoming the team's all-time leading scorer (1,775 points). Through 2019, he was the NFL's fifth-most accurate kicker in history (374 of 428). Clowney, a three-time Pro Bowl selection, joined Aaron Donald and Chandler Jones as the only NFL players with at least 60 tackles for loss, eight forced fumbles and 150 quarterback pressures from 2016 through 2019.

In the 2020 NFL Draft, the Titans had six total picks. The first of those was Georgia tackle Isaiah Wilson (first round, 29th overall), followed by Louisiana State cornerback Kristian Fulton (second round, 61st overall) and Appalachian State running back Darrynton Evans (third round, 93rd overall) in the first three rounds.

2019: Near the beginning of the 2019 free agent signing period, Robinson worked quickly to add several veterans from other teams who played key roles in 2019: Buccaneers wide receiver Adam Humphries, Rams guard Rodger Saffold and Tannehill in a trade with the Dolphins. Robinson also worked to re-sign starting safety Kenny Vaccaro and punter Brett Kern.

Then, in the 2019 NFL Draft, Robinson directed the selection of six total players, including Mississippi State defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons in the first round (19th overall), Ole Miss wide receiver A.J. Brown in the second round (51st overall) and Charlotte offensive lineman Nate Davis in the third round (82nd overall).

Tannehill, who proved to be one of the NFL's top acquisitions of 2019, started every game after Week 6, leading the team into the playoffs. He led the NFL and set franchise records with a 117.5 passer rating and a 9.6-yard passing average. In addition to being named to his first Pro Bowl, he earned Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year honors.

As a rookie, Brown led the Titans in every major receiving category. Among all rookies in 2019, he ranked first in receiving yards (1,051), tied for the rookie lead in touchdown receptions (eight) and placed fifth in receptions (52). Among all NFL players in 2019—rookies and veterans—Brown finished second in receiving average (20.2), behind only the Los Angeles Chargers' Mike Williams (20.4).

2018: The Titans' 2018 free agent class included Pro Bowl cornerback Malcolm Butler. In his first two seasons in Tennessee, Butler played in 25 games (20 starts) and totaled five interceptions. In early August, the Titans signed Vaccaro, who went on to start 13 games his first season in Tennessee and all 16 games in 2019.

Robinson's 2018 draft class was comprised of four players after he used multiple trades to go up and get his targets. It included first-round linebacker Rashaan Evans from Alabama (22nd overall pick) and second-round outside linebacker Harold Landry III from Boston College (41st overall). Evans started all 16 games in 2019 and led the team with 139 tackles. Landry appeared in 31 games (19 starts) in his first two seasons, and his 13.5 sacks from 2018–2019 (nine in 2019) ranked first on the team.

2017: During the 2017 offseason, Robinson used free agency to address needs on defense and special teams. Most notably, he spearheaded deals for cornerback Logan Ryan (New England) and special teams contributor and 2017 Pro Bowler Brynden Trawick (Oakland).

In the 2017 NFL Draft, Robinson spent first-round picks on wide receiver Corey Davis (fifth overall) and cornerback Adoree' Jackson (18th overall). It marked the first time the franchise had a pair of first-round draft selections since 1987. The Titans' 2017 draft haul also featured tight end Jonnu Smith in the third round and linebacker Jayon Brown in the fifth round.

The 2017 Titans advanced to the playoffs for the first time since 2008. Robinson became the fifth general manager in franchise history to have the team in the postseason within his first two full seasons.

2016: In his first year as an NFL general manager, Robinson's leadership and decision-making helped the Titans triple their win total from the previous season, finishing 9-7 in 2016 after a 3-13 finish in 2015. The six-win improvement tied for the most in franchise history (1967 and 1974) and doubled the previous club benchmark for the most wins in the first year under a new general manager (three by Bum Phillips in 1975).

Within the first four months at his post, Robinson pulled the trigger on several key personnel decisions. On March 9, 2016, he made his first major acquisition, swapping fourth-round draft picks with the Philadelphia Eagles in exchange for running back DeMarco Murray. The trade provided major dividends in 2016, as Murray led the AFC and ranked third in the NFL with 1,287 rushing yards.

Around the same time, Robinson began to work the free agent market. Center Ben Jones and wide receiver Rishard Matthews highlighted the haul, and both were instrumental in helping to transform the Titans offense into the 11th-ranked unit in the NFL.

On April 14, 2016, two weeks before the NFL Draft, Robinson and the Titans dealt the first overall pick to the Los Angeles Rams in one of the biggest trades in recent NFL history. The Titans gave up the No. 1 pick and a fourth-rounder in order to receive the 15th overall pick, two second-rounders and a third-rounder in 2016, plus the Rams' first- and third-round picks in 2017. From 1990–2015, there were seven trades involving the No. 1 overall pick, but this was the first since 2004, when the San Diego Chargers selected Eli Manning with the first pick and dealt his rights to the New York Giants.

The Titans had their hands at one point or another on 17 selections in the 2016 draft due to five different trades (including one trade in 2015), and in the end, they ended up with a class of 10 players, including four of the top 45 picks. Robinson swung a draft-day trade with the Cleveland Browns to move back up to the eighth slot to choose Michigan State tackle Jack Conklin.

All 10 members of Robinson's first draft class played in at least one game in 2016. They accumulated a total of 110 games played and 38 starts, including 16 starts at right tackle by Conklin. The eighth-overall pick capped his successful rookie campaign by being named first-team All-Pro by Associated Press.

Henry, a second-rounder in 2016, led the Titans in rushing every season from 2017 through 2019. In 2019, he won the NFL's rushing crown with 1,540 yards and tied for the NFL lead with 16 rushing touchdowns.

Third-round safety Kevin Byard earned first-team All-Pro honors in his second campaign. He led the NFL from 2017–2019 with 17 total interceptions also was named to the Pro Bowl in 2017.

PRIOR HISTORY: Robinson arrived in Tennessee with a wide range of experience from working his way up on the personnel side of the NFL. From 2014–2015, he served as director of player personnel for the Buccaneers and oversaw both college and pro departments as the team rebuilt its roster. The 2015 Buccaneers draft class made a significant impact, including four rookie starters: quarterback Jameis Winston, tackle Donovan Smith, guard Ali Marpet and linebacker Kwon Alexander.

Prior to joining Tampa Bay, Robinson spent 12 years with the New England Patriots, including his last five years (2009-13) as the director of college scouting. In the five years heading up their college scouting, the Patriots added a number of key components to their roster that won the Super Bowl in 2014, including wide receiver Julian Edelman, defensive back Devin McCourty, tight end Rob Gronkowski, tackle Nate Solder and defensive end Chandler Jones. He joined the Patriots as an area scout in 2002, a role he served for four seasons. Robinson then spent two years (2006-07) as a regional scout, before being promoted to assistant director of college scouting in 2008 and then director of college scouting in 2009. In his time scouting for the Patriots the team won 10 division titles, four conference titles and two Super Bowls (2003, 2004).

Robinson played three years at Southeast Missouri State as a defensive lineman after starting his college career at the Air Force Academy. Following his college career as a player, he spent one season (1998) coaching at his alma mater and three years (1999-2001) coaching at Nicholls State.

A native of Union City, Tenn., Robinson and his wife, Jaimie, have two daughters, Taylor and Bailey.

FOUR WINNING SEASONS

Jon Robinson constructed a roster that produced four consecutive winning seasons in Robinson's first four years on the job. The club went 9-7 in 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2019 with postseason berths following the 2017 and 2019 campaigns.

Robinson became only the second general manager in franchise history whose first four teams finished above the .500 mark, joining Mike Holovak (1989-92).

ROBINSON TO THE PLAYOFFS IN YEAR 2

In January 2016, Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk hired general manager Jon Robinson, who helped turn the Titans into a playoff team by his second season.

Robinson became the fifth general manager in franchise history to have the team in the playoffs within his first two full seasons.

2020 TITANS DRAFT CLASS

OL ISAIAH WILSON | 6-6, 350, Georgia
1st round, 29th overall

College: Following a redshirt season, Wilson started 24 total games for the Bulldogs from 2018 to 2019. All of his starts came at right tackle. As a sophomore (2019), Wilson was named second-team Associated Press All-SEC and was the co-winner of the Offensive "Up Front" Award. Wilson was named to the Football Writers Association of America Freshman All-America team and the 2018 Coaches Freshman All-SEC Team his redshirt freshman year (2018).

CB KRISTIAN FULTON | 5-11, 197, Louisiana State
2nd round, 61st overall

College: In a three-year career at LSU (2016-19), Fulton appeared in 28 games and made 25 starts. He finished his career with 65 tackles, 25 passes defended, two interceptions, and one forced fumble. As a senior in 2019, Fulton started all 15 games and posted 38 tackles, one tackle for loss, 15 passes defended and one interception. He also earned second-team All-SEC recognition by the Associated Press. During his junior season (2018), Fulton started 10 games and tallied 25 tackles, one tackle for loss, 10 passes defended, one interception and one forced fumble.

RB DARRYNTON EVANS | 5-10, 203, Appalachian State
3rd round, 93rd overall

College: In three on-field seasons at Appalachian State (2016, 2018-19), Evans appeared in 39 games and made 22 starts. He was a two-time All-Sun Belt first-team selection and was the Sun Belt's Offensive Player of the Year in 2019. Evans was a two-time Sun Belt Championship Game MVP and MVP of the 2019 New Orleans Bowl. He finished his career with 2,884 rushing yards (ninth all-time at Appalachian State) despite being the primary running back for just 23 career games. Evans set school records for most career rushes without a fumble (482) and single-season rushes without a fumble (255 in 2019). Evans had 4,642 all-purpose yards, including 1,439 yards on kickoff returns and 319 yards as a receiver, plus 14 passing yards. Evans scored 34 total touchdowns with 25 rushing, six receiving and a program-record three as a kick returner. Evans totaled 11 runs of at least 50 yards in his final two seasons.

DL LARRELL MURCHISON | 6-2, 297, North Carolina State
5th round, 174th overall

College: During a two-year stint as a defensive tackle at North Carolina State, Murchison started all 25 contests. As a senior in 2019, Murchison started all 12 games at defensive tackle and registered 51 tackles. He led the Wolfpack with 12 tackles for loss and seven sacks. Murchison was named a second-team All-ACC choice by the league and an honorable mention All-ACC by Pro Football Focus. Murchison ranked sixth in the ACC in sacks with 0.58 per game. In 2018 as a redshirt junior, Murchison ranked second on the team with four sacks, earned the team's Cary Brewbaker Award for Defensive Lineman of the Year. He finished his Wolfpack career with 85 tackles, 11 sacks, 20 tackles for loss, five quarterback hits, an interception, three passes defended and three fumble recoveries. He started his collegiate career at Louisiana State and was named a NJCAA junior-college honorable mention All-American.

QB COLE MCDONALD | 6-3, 215, Hawaii
7th round, 224th overall

Currently not on the roster

College: After redshirting in 2016, McDonald was a reserve in 2017 before taking control as the starter in 2018. In 33 career games, including 24 starts, he completed 616 of 1,004 passes for 8,032 yards, 70 touchdowns and 24 interceptions. He added 880 yards and 12 touchdowns on 251 career rushing attempts. He finished in Hawaii's top five in nearly a dozen career statistical categories, including finishing fourth in all-time passing yards, attempts, completions, touchdowns and total offense (8,912).

DB CHRIS JACKSON | 5-10, 193, Marshall
7th round, 243th overall

College: During a four-year career at Marshall, started 48 games and posted 189 tackles, 6.5 tackles for loss, two sacks, seven interceptions with one returned for a touchdown, 45 passes defended and two fumble recoveries with one returned for a score on kickoff coverage for the Thundering Herd. Jackson's 45 passes defended rank first in Marshall history and his 48 career starts rank 14th in program history. He earned all-conference recognition in all four of his collegiate seasons.

Mike Vrabel enters his third season as head coach in 2020. He was named to the position on Jan. 20, 2018, becoming the 19th head coach in franchise history.

In Vrabel's first two years, he directed the Titans to a 20-15 record, including a 2-1 mark in the 2019 playoffs. His 20 wins made up the second-highest total in franchise history for a head coach's first two seasons, behind only Jack Pardee's 21 wins from 1990–1991.

Vrabel became the first head coach in the organization's history to win multiple playoff games within his first two seasons. The Titans won a pair of road games—at New England in the wild card round and at Baltimore in the divisional round—to advance to the 2019 AFC championship game, falling at Kansas City to the eventual Super Bowl champion Chiefs.

The Titans began the 2019 campaign with two wins in their first six games but rallied to win seven of their final 10 games in the regular season. From the time the NFL went to its current playoff format in 1990 through 2019, 345 teams went 2-4 or worse in their first six games of a season. From that group, the Titans became only the third team to advance to a conference championship game, joining the 2002 Titans (2-4) and the 1996 Jacksonville Jaguars (2-4).

The 2019 Titans ranked in the NFL's top 10 in scoring margin (eighth, +71), turnover margin (sixth, +6), offensive yards per play (fourth, 6.12), rushing offense (third, 138.9 yards per game), red zone efficiency (first, 75.6 percent), total touchdowns (tied for third, 54) and third-down defense (eighth, 36.3 percent).

From 2018–2019, Vrabel's Titans were the second-least penalized NFL team (181). Over the same period of time, they were the fourth-best rushing offense (129.2 yards per game), the fifth-best scoring defense (19.8 points allowed per game) and the seventh-best third-down defense (36.4 percent).

In his first season as head coach, Vrabel directed the Titans to a 9-7 record. His nine wins tied for the fourth-highest total in franchise history by a first-year head coach.

With only 82 penalties enforced against the Titans in 2018, Vrabel's team led the NFL and set a franchise record (16-game season) for fewest penalties in a season. The 2018 Titans also placed third in points allowed (18.9 per game), eighth in total defense (333.4 yards per game), sixth in passing defense (216.9), second in red zone defense (44.7 percent touchdown rate) and seventh in rushing offense (126.4) in the league rankings.

Vrabel arrived in Tennessee with 18 years of NFL experience, including four seasons as a coach and 14 seasons as a player. His distinguished playing career included three Super Bowl wins (2001, 2003 and 2004), one Pro Bowl selection (2007) and an All-Pro honor (2007). Vrabel played in 206 NFL games and totaled 57 sacks, 496 tackles, 11 interceptions, 20 forced fumbles, nine fumble recoveries and 10 touchdown receptions. Additionally, his teams advanced to the playoffs eight times (20 postseason games), with Vrabel recording eight postseason sacks and two postseason touchdown receptions.

Vrabel joined the Titans after four seasons with the Houston Texans, spending the first three seasons (2014-16) coaching linebackers and one year (2017) as the team's defensive coordinator. During his time in Houston, the Texans built one of the best defenses in the NFL and experienced tremendous success as a team – earning two division titles (2015, 2016).

Between 2014-16, the Texans defense ranked third in the NFL in yards allowed per game (319.9) and net passing yards (218.4). Houston also ranked first in third-down defense (33.6), fourth in opponent completion percentage (59.5) and sixth in points allowed per game (19.8). The 2016 defense ranked number one in the NFL, for the first time in franchise history, in yards allowed (301.3).

In 2017, his first year as a defensive coordinator, the Texans finished the campaign with 19 players on injured reserve. Despite the injuries, Vrabel led the defense to the fifth-best third-down percentage in the NFL and a franchise-record 3.97 yards per carry by opponents. Houston also had 18 different players record at least half a sack last year and 26 players tally at least one tackle for loss.

Vrabel spent his career playing and coaching with accomplished leaders, including Bill Belichick, Bill Cowher, Romeo Crennel, Urban Meyer, Bill O'Brien and Todd Haley.

As the Texans linebackers coach from 2014-16, Vrabel developed several players into top-notch performers, including Jadeveon Clowney (Pro Bowl, 2016), Whitney Mercilus, Benardrick McKinney (second-team All-Pro, 2016) and Brian Cushing. The 2015 Texans defense had the top third-down defense in the NFL (28.5 percent), which was the lowest percentage in franchise history and the lowest by any NFL team since the 2003 Titans (27.7 percent). The 2015 defense also set a franchise mark for sacks in a season with 45 - 22.5 coming from Vrabel's linebacking corps.

Prior to joining the NFL coaching ranks, Vrabel transitioned immediately from an NFL player to college coach. He started as the linebacker coach at Ohio State in 2011 and coached the defensive line from 2012–2013. The 2012 Buckeyes finished the season undefeated at 12-0. He also was named Big Ten Recruiter of the Year by ESPN.com in 2012.

Vrabel was selected by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the third round (91st overall) of the 1997 NFL Draft, after his playing career at Ohio State, where he earned All-America honors and Big Ten Conference Defensive Lineman of the Year in both 1995 and 1996.

A native of Akron, Ohio, Vrabel attended Walsh Jesuit High School. He and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons: Tyler and Carter.

FASTEST TO 25 WINS

With the Titans' Oct. 18 overtime win against the Houston Texans, Titans head coach Mike Vrabel recorded his 25th win with the franchise, including playoffs.

Vrabel tied Jack Pardee as the fastest head coach in franchise history to 25 wins, reaching the number in only his 40th game since being hired in 2018.

The Titans went 9-7 in Vrabel's first two regular seasons, followed by a 2-1 record in the 2019 postseason.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 2020

WHAT TO LOOK FOR – TEAM

- With their third win of the season at Nissan Stadium (Oct. 18 vs. Houston), the Titans reached 100 all-time wins there, including postseason. They entered 2020 with a combined regular season and postseason record at Nissan Stadium (opened in 1999) of 97-75.
- The Titans can record their fifth consecutive season with a winning record. It would be the second-longest such streak in franchise history trailing only the Oilers' seven consecutive winning records from 1987 through 1993. Entering 2020, the Titans own the fourth-longest active streak of winning seasons in the NFL behind only the New England Patriots (19), Seattle Seahawks (eight) and Kansas City Chiefs (seven).

WR A.J. BROWN

- Needs 1,000 receiving yards to become the 11th player to reach 1,000 receiving yards in each of his first two NFL seasons. He would be the first NFL player since Michael Thomas (2016-17) and the only player in Titans/Oilers history other than Bill Groman (1960-61) to accomplish the feat.
- Needs 1,000 receiving yards, 50 receptions and five receiving touchdowns to become the ninth player in NFL history to accomplish the feat in each of his first two seasons.
- Needs five 100-yard receiving games to become the ninth NFL player with 10 such games through his first two seasons.

S KEVIN BYARD

- Needs three interceptions in 2020 (17 interceptions entering the season) to become the 15th player in franchise history to reach 20 career interceptions. The most recent Titans player to do so was safety Michael Griffin.
- Can record four or more interceptions for the fourth consecutive season. He would join Darryll Lewis (1994-98) as the only players to do so in franchise history.
- Needs three interceptions and two sacks to become the sixth player with at least 20 interceptions and five sacks through his first five seasons in NFL history. He would join Kenny Easley, David Fulcher, Michael Downs, Erik McMillan and Greg Wesley.

RB DERRICK HENRY

- Can become the ninth player in NFL history to reach 1,000 rushing yards and 12 rushing touchdowns in three consecutive seasons. The most recent player to do so was LaDainian Tomlinson (2002-07).
- Passed Lorenzo White (4,079 rushing yards) for fourth place on the franchise's all-time rushing list. He trails only Eddie George (10,009), Earl Campbell (8,574) and Chris Johnson (7,965).
- Can become the fourth player in franchise history with three consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons, joining Earl Campbell (1978–1981), Eddie George (1996–2000) and Chris Johnson (2008–2013).
- Needs 13 rushing touchdowns in 2020 (38 entering the season) to pass Chris Johnson (50) for third place on the franchise's all-time rushing touchdowns list. He would sit behind only Earl Campbell (73) and Eddie George (64).

- Needs 1,500 rushing yards and 15 rushing touchdowns to become the fourth player in NFL history to accomplish the feat in consecutive seasons. He would join Terrell Davis (1997-98), Shaun Alexander (2004-05) and Larry Johnson (2005-06).
- Needs two games with at least 200 rushing yards to become the third player in NFL history with four such games in his first five seasons. Only Earl Campbell and LaDainian Tomlinson have previously accomplished the feat.

P BRETT KERN

- Can record his seventh total season and fourth consecutive campaign with a net punting average of at least 40.0 yards. No other punter in franchise history has had one such season.
- Needs 23 punts in 2020 (839 punts with the Titans entering the season) to pass Craig Hentrich (861) for the most career punts in franchise history.
- Became the seventh player in franchise history to play 12 seasons for the organization, joining Bruce Matthews (1983–2001), Elvin Bethea (1968–1983), Brad Hopkins (1993–2005), Gregg Bingham (1973–1983), Mike Munchak (1982–1993) and Craig Hentrich (1998–2009). Kern is the first to accomplish the feat exclusively in the "Titans era" (1999–present).
- Passed Gregg Bingham (173) for fifth place on the franchise's career games played list. He needs eight total games in 2020 to pass Craig Hentrich (177) for fourth place. He would trail only Bruce Matthews (296), Elvin Bethea (210) and Brad Hopkins (194).

GM JON ROBINSON

- Can become the only Titans/Oilers general manager other than Mike Holovak (1989–1993) to oversee five consecutive winning seasons in his first five years on the job. Only two general managers in franchise history have presided over five total winning seasons with the organization: Bum Phillips and Holovak.

QB RYAN TANNEHILL

- Can produce his fifth career season with at least 3,000 passing yards and his third career season with at least 4,000 passing yards.
- Can become the first player in franchise history to produce consecutive seasons with a passer rating of at least 100.0 (117.5 in 2019).
- Entered 2020 with a current streak of seven consecutive regular season games with at least two touchdown passes and extended the streak to nine games, which is the best streak of his career (five in 2015) and the best streak in franchise history.
- Entered 2020 with a current streak of 10 consecutive regular season games with at least one touchdown pass and extended the streak to 12 games, the longest streak by a Titans quarterback since Steve McNair's franchise-record 23 straight games from 2001 to 2002.

HEAD COACH MIKE VRABEL

- Mike Vrabel can become the second head coach in franchise history to produce winning seasons in each of his first three seasons as head coach, joining Jack Pardee (four seasons: 1990–1993).

NISSAN STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

Nissan Stadium hosts all Titans home football games, Tennessee State University football games, the Music City Bowl, the CMA Music Festival and numerous other events.

The procurement of naming rights to Nissan Stadium fit the automotive company's 'Fewer, Bigger, Better' marketing strategy, which has included ongoing sponsorships of NBC's 'The Voice,' the Heisman House college football program and a major advertising presence in this year's Super Bowl. Nissan is also now the official automotive partner of the Tennessee Titans.

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin.

The Nissan Smyrna Plant began operations in 1983 and employs more than 8,400 people. In 2014, the Smyrna plant assembled more than 648,000 vehicles, making it the highest volume automotive assembly plant in North America. Nissan also has a major manufacturing presence in Canton, Miss., along with research and development groups in California, Arizona and Michigan. In total, the company employs more than 22,000 employees in the U.S.

One component of the Titans-Nissan partnership is assisting charitable organizations throughout Middle Tennessee in an array of community outreach programs. A centerpiece of this is the annual "Taste of Titans" charitable event, for which Nissan serves as presenting sponsor. During the course of a 20-year relationship, a total of more than $1 million resulting from these annual events is anticipated to be distributed to local non-profit organizations.

Nissan Stadium is a city-owned venue that has housed the Titans since 1999. The naming rights agreement includes the opportunity for Nissan branding on the exterior of the stadium, as well as stadium signage and other unique displays inside the stadium. LP Building Products held the naming rights to the stadium from 2006 until the Nissan partnership was established in 2015.

WINNING AT HOME

Since the midway point of the 2016 season, the Titans have been one of the NFL's most successful teams at home. In that time, the Titans have won 24 of their 33 games at Nissan Stadium.

In 2018, the Titans won six games and lost twice at Nissan Stadium. They followed that with a 4-4 home record in 2019.

Since the weekend of their 2016 home victory over the Jaguars (Oct. 27, 2016), the Titans' winning percentage in home games is one of the highest in the NFL.

Highest winning percentage in home games (regular season) since Week 8 of 2016 (Oct. 27, 2016):

FANS RETURN TO NISSAN STADIUM

On Sept. 17, the Titans announced that Nissan Stadium will open at limited capacity beginning with the Oct. 4 Titans home game against the Pittsburgh Steelers. The three October home games will gradually increase in capacity with the goal of reaching a fixed capacity for the remaining games in November and December.

The Oct. 4 game will be open to season ticket members up to 10 percent of the stadium's capacity, which is roughly 7,000 fans in the lower bowl and club levels. The next October home game (Oct. 11) will allow 12.5 percent and the third (Oct. 18) 15 percent. For November until the end of the season, capacity could reach 21 percent, which is the maximum capacity the facility can accommodate under current CDC guidelines. Outside of the seating bowl, suites will operate at a limited capacity.

"We are thrilled to welcome fans back to Nissan Stadium and can't thank Mayor Cooper and the Metro Nashville Public Health Department enough for their collaboration in making this possible," said Titans President and CEO Burke Nihill. "The health and safety of our fans, players and staff remains our top priority and we felt like a gradual capacity plan was the right call, knowing that we may need to be flexible as time goes on. We feel confident that our Safe Stadium Plan will give everyone a safe and comfortable experience as they return to our gates."

Detailed information on the Safe Stadium Plan can be found at www.tennesseetitans.com/safestadium. Key components include:

- Socially-distant seating pods accommodating parties of one to a maximum of six people
- Mobile ticketing and parking, to eliminate physical contact while scanning passes
- Mandatory face coverings at all times, except when actively eating or drinking
- Over 300 hand sanitizing stations throughout the stadium
- Individually-wrapped food items at concession stands
- Elimination of all smoking and vaping areas in the facility
- Health screenings and personal protective equipment for all Nissan Stadium employees
- A comprehensive cleaning plan during events for bathrooms and near concession areas

Fans will be asked to arrive early and head straight to the gates after they arrive. After consulting with local and national health experts, there will be no tailgating or pregame activities allowed outside of the stadium. The stadium will have dedicated security crews throughout Nissan Stadium to enforce all Safe Stadium policies.

FOUR CONSECUTIVE WINNING SEASONS

In 2019, the Titans recorded their fourth season with a winning record in four seasons since Jon Robinson was hired as general manager.

In the "Titans era" (1999-present), it marks the first time the team has had as many as three consecutive winning campaigns.

With 9-7 records every season from 2016 through 2019, the Titans own the fourth-longest active streak of winning seasons in the NFL through 2019. Only the New England Patriots (19), Seattle Seahawks (eight) and Kansas City Chiefs (seven) have longer streaks.

Most current consecutive winning seasons (through 2019):

Team	Total	Seasons
1. New England Patriots	19	2001-2019

8. Minnesota Vikings	22.0
9. Denver Broncos	22.1
10. Kansas City Chiefs	22.2

LEAST PENALIZED TEAMS FROM 2018–2020

Under head coach Mike Vrabel, who was named to his current post in 2018, the Titans have been one of the NFL's least penalized teams.

From 2018-19, the Titans were called for the second-fewest total penalties in the NFL—181 total penalties.

In 2018, the Titans were called for only 82 penalties, leading the NFL and setting a team record for the lowest number in a 16-game season (since 1978, excluding strike-shortened 1982 and 1987 seasons). They received no more than four penalties in nine of their 16 games. The previous franchise record for fewest penalties in a 16-game season was 84 by the 1983 Oilers.

Fewest total penalties from 2018–2020:

Team	Penalties
1. New England Patriots	207
2. Tennessee Titans	227
3. Minnesota Vikings	231

Click for complete bio

Quarterback Ryan Tannehill is in his ninth NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2020. He received a multi-year contract extension during the 2020 offseason.

In 2019, Tannehill took control as the team's starting quarterback in Week 7 and subsequently led the Titans to the playoffs and an appearance in the AFC championship game. In his 13 starts, including the regular season and playoffs, the Titans went 9-4.

Tannehill set single-season franchise records and led the NFL with a 117.5 passer rating and a passing average of 9.6 yards per attempt. His passer rating was the fourth-highest figure in NFL history among qualifiers. Additionally, he set a club record and placed third in the NFL with a 70.3 completion percentage.

Tannehill was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for December 2019 and was named to his first career Pro Bowl. He also won the Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year Award.

Originally a first-round selection (eighth overall) by the Miami Dolphins in the 2012 NFL Draft, Tannehill was acquired by the Titans in a trade with the Dolphins on March 15, 2019. The Titans sent a 2019 seventh-round pick and a 2020 fourth-round selection to Miami in exchange for Tannehill and a 2019 sixth-rounder.

Over his seven seasons in Miami, he started 88 games, threw for 20,434 yards and 123 touchdowns, and rushed for 1,210 yards and six scores. When he left Miami, he ranked second in franchise history behind Chad Pennington in both career completion percentage (62.8) and career passer rating (87.0). He authored 13 game-winning drives for the Dolphins.

During the first four seasons of his career (2012-15), Tannehill's passing yardage total—15,460 yards—was the third highest mark in NFL history, behind only Peyton Manning and Dan Marino. Tannehill's two 4,000-yard passing seasons (2015 and 2014) were the only ones recorded by a Dolphins quarterback other than Marino (six times). The Dolphins reached the playoffs in 2016, breaking an eight-year postseason drought.

A native of Big Spring, Texas, Tannehill attended Texas A&M, where he earned honorable mention All-America honors as a senior. He played both quarterback and wide receiver, passing for 5,450 yards and 42 touchdowns and adding 112 receptions for 1,596 yards and 10 scores.

2020 Notes:

➤ At Denver (9/14), opened the season on Monday Night Football with a 97.9 passer rating after completing 29 of 43 passes for 249 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions. He also rushed for 14 yards on three attempts. He registered his 17th career game-winning drive and his fourth as a member of the Titans. On the team's final drive, which ended with the go-ahead 25-yard field goal by Stephen Gostkowski, Tannehill completed five of seven attempts for 40 yards. His two touchdown passes included a one-yard pass to tight end MyCole Pruitt in the second quarter and a one-yard touchdown toss to tight end Jonnu Smith in the fourth quarter. He extended his streak to 11 consecutive regular season games with at least one touchdown pass and extended his streak to eight consecutive regular season games with at least two touchdown passes. His 43 passing attempts were his most in a game since Sept. 18, 2016 (45 vs. New England).

➤ Against Jacksonville (9/20), registered his 100th career start in the regular season and recorded a 145.7 passer rating—the seventh best single-game passer rating in franchise history (minimum 20 attempts)—by completing 18 of 24 attempts for 239 yards with four touchdowns and no interceptions. It was the best passer rating for the club since Marcus Mariota's 149.8 against Green Bay on Nov. 13, 2016. It was Tannehill's second-highest career passer rating in a game with a minimum of 20 attempts, topped only by his 155.3 against the Oakland Raiders on Sept. 23, 2018. He tied his career high with four touchdown passes, becoming the first Titans quarterback with four or more touchdown passes in a game since Mariota's 2016 performance against Green Bay. Tannehill's four touchdown passes against the Jaguars included a 13-yard pass to tight end Jonnu Smith and a nine-yard strike to wide receiver Corey Davis in the first quarter, a four-yard touchdown to Smith in the second quarter, and finally an 18-yard toss to wide receiver Adam Humphries in the third quarter. He registered his 18th career game with three or more touchdown passes and reached 150 career touchdown passes on his third touchdown pass of the day. He extended his career-best streak and set a franchise record with his ninth consecutive regular season game with at least two touchdown passes. Marcus Mariota established the previous team record with eight consecutive games in 2016 with two touchdown passes. He also extended his streak to 12 consecutive regular season games with at least one touchdown pass, the longest streak by a Titans quarterback since Steve McNair set the franchise record from 2001 to 2002 with 23 consecutive games with a touchdown pass. He posted his NFL-high 10th game with at least two touchdown passes and no interceptions since he stepped into the starting lineup for the Titans in Week 7 of 2019, including the regular season and postseason. Tannehill owns 27 such games in his career. He registered his 18th career game-winning drive and his fifth as a member of the Titans.

➤ At Minnesota (9/27), completed 23 of 37 passes for 321 yards with one interception. He registered his 20th career 300-yard passing game and his first of 2020. He had three passes of more than 35 yards: a 44-yard completion to Kalif Raymond during the opening series, a 38-yard strike to Corey Davis in the third quarter and a 61-yard bomb to Raymond in the third quarter. He became the first NFL quarterback since Matt Ryan in 2015 with a game-winning drive in each of his team's first three games of a season, logging his 19th career game-winning drive and his sixth as a member of the Titans. He led the offense to eight total scoring drives, including five scoring drives in the second half.

➤ Against Buffalo (10/13), completed 21 of 28 passes (75.0 percent) for 195 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions. His passer rating of 129.3 was the ninth-best single-game mark of his career (minimum 20 attempts). He added 42 rushing yards, including a 10-yard rushing touchdown in the second quarter and a 23-yard run for a first down in the fourth quarter. He recorded the second game of his career with at least three passing touchdowns and at least one rushing touchdown, matching what he achieved as a member of the Miami Dolphins against the Denver Broncos on Nov. 23, 2014. His three touchdown passes included a 16-yard pass to A.J. Brown on his first attempt of the game, a four-yard touchdown pass to Jonnu Smith in the third quarter and a seven-yard toss to Smith in the fourth quarter.

➤ Against Houston (10/18), completed 30 of 41 passes for 366 yards with four touchdowns and one interception for a passer rating of 122.6. His yardage total was the fifth-highest number of his career and his second-highest figure in a Titans uniform. His four touchdown passes tied a career high and included a seven-yard pass to tight end Anthony Firkser and a six-yard strike to wide receiver A.J. Brown in the first quarter, a 22-yard touchdown to wide receiver Adam Humphries in the second quarter, and finally a seven-yard toss to Brown in the fourth quarter. He helped lead the Titans back from a late deficit with his second touchdown pass to A.J. Brown with four seconds remaining in the fourth quarter. The extra point tied the score at 36-36. During the game-tying two-minute drive, he completed eight of nine attempts for 76 yards. The Titans' overtime scoring drive registered as his 20th career game-winning drive and his seventh in a Titans uniform. It was his fourth game-winning drive of 2020. He completed his final 10 passes of the game in the fourth quarter and overtime. His 13 touchdown passes through five games tied for the second-highest total in franchise history through the first five games of a season, trailing only George Blanda, who holds the top spot for the franchise with 14 in 1962 and also had 13 in 1966. Tannehill's 364 passing yards ranked 11th for the franchise in its "Titans era" (since 1999). He registered his third career game with three touchdown passes in the first half. He was named FedEx Air Player of the Week for his performance.

➤ Against Pittsburgh (10/25), completed 18 of 30 passes for 220 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions for a passer rating of 104.9. His two touchdown passes included a five-yarder to Corey Davis in the second quarter and a 73-yarder to A.J. Brown in the third quarter. The latter tied for his fourth-longest career pass and his second-longest pass in a Titans uniform. It was his third consecutive game with multiple touchdown passes and his fifth such outing in six contests in 2020. He made his 16th regular season start with the Titans since first appearing in the starting lineup against the Los Angeles Chargers on Oct. 20, 2019. In that span of time, he was 327-of-473 passing (69.1 percent) for 4,188 yards, 37 touchdowns, seven interceptions and a NFL-best passer rating of 116.5. His 116.5 passer rating was the best in NFL history by a player in his first 16 starts with a team (starts only), topping the 111.8 passer rating by Kansas City's Patrick Mahomes in his first 16 starts from 2017-18. He reached 160 career touchdown passes against Pittsburgh.

➤ At Cincinnati (11/1), completed 18 of 30 passes for 233 yards and two touchdowns with one interception for a passer rating of 92.8. He recorded his fourth consecutive game with at least two touchdown passes and his sixth two-touchdown performance in 2020. His touchdowns included a nine-yard pass to A.J. Brown and a 12-yarder to Corey Davis. He matched his career high with two touchdown passes in the fourth quarter, achieving the feat for the second time as a Titans starter. He had four completions of more than 20 yards, including passes of 27, 24 and 23 yards to Corey Davis and 26 yards to Anthony Firkser. He added a pair of rushing first downs, including a 15-yard run on third-and-five.

➤ Against Chicago (11/8), completed 10 of 21 passes for 158 yards and a pair of touchdowns for a passer rating of 104.9. He registered his fifth game of 2020 with a passer rating at or above 100.0. He reached the 25,000-yard career passing mark during the first quarter. In the first quarter, he found A.J. Brown for a 38-yard gain and found Brown again for a 40-yard touchdown in the second quarter. With a two-yard touchdown pass to Jonnu Smith, he notched his fifth consecutive game with at least two touchdown passes and his seventh two-touchdown performance in 2020. It was his 15th game passing for at least two touchdowns in 18 career starts with the Titans.

SINGLE-SEASON FRANCHISE RECORDS

Ryan Tannehill's 2019 regular season totals included 2,742 yards, 22 touchdowns and six interceptions on 201-of-286 passing. His passer rating of 117.5 ranked first in the NFL.

Tannehill set three of the franchise's major single-season passing records. He established new benchmarks for passer rating, completion percentage (70.3) and passing average (9.6).

Steve McNair established the franchise's single-season record with a passer rating of 100.4 in 2003, his MVP season. Marcus Mariota set the completion percentage mark for the club in 2018, completing 68.9 percent of his passes. For passing average (yards per attempt), George Blanda held the team record since 1961, the franchise's second season, when he averaged 9.2 yards per pass.

SEASON GAMES WITH A 130 RATING

Ryan Tannehill registered a total of six single-game passer ratings of 130 or greater in only 10 starts during the 2019 regular season. He tied Seattle's Russell Wilson with the most such performances in 2019 and also tied for the most by any NFL starting quarterback in any season since 1960. Green Bay's Aaron Rodgers (2011) and Dallas' Tony Romo (2014) are the only other quarterbacks to accomplish the feat.

In franchise history, former Oilers quarterback Chris Chandler previously had the most season games with a 130-plus passer rating, with four in 1995.

Most starts by a quarterback with a passer rating of 130.0 or greater, 1960–2019:

Player	Season	Team	Games

CONSECUTIVE GAMES WITH A 130 RATING

During the 2019 campaign, Ryan Tannehill produced a streak of four consecutive games with a passer rating greater than 130. The run included a 133.9 passer rating against the Kansas City Chiefs (Nov. 10), a 155.8 against the Jacksonville Jaguars (Nov. 24), a 131.2 at the Indianapolis Colts (Dec. 1) and a 140.4 at the Oakland Raiders (Dec. 8).

In franchise history, no quarterback prior to Tannehill had ever produced four consecutive starts with a passer rating of 100 or better (minimum 10 attempts per game). Marcus Mariota (2016) was the most recent of six Titans/Oilers signal callers to do so for three games before Tannehill.

Most consecutive games in a single season with a 100 passer rating, franchise history (minimum 10 attempts each game):

RYAN TANNEHILL'S GAME-WINNING DRIVES

In his NFL career, quarterback Ryan Tannehill has led 20 game-winning drives in the fourth quarter or overtime, including the regular season and postseason. That includes three games in 2019, his first season with the Titans: a 23-20 win against the Los Angeles Chargers in his first start with the team (10/20), a 27-23 victory against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (10/27) and a 35-32 win against the Kansas City Chiefs (11/10). He has four such performances in 2020—at Denver (9/14), against Jacksonville (9/20), at Minnesota (9/27) and against Houston (10/18).

Per the Elias Sports Bureau, a game-winning drive is defined as when a quarterback's team scores on an offensive possession to put the team ahead (whether tied or from behind) for good in the fourth quarter or overtime.

2 TD PASSES W/ LESS THAN 2 INTS

To end the 2019 regular season, Ryan Tannehill completed multiple touchdown passes for seven consecutive games, one game shy of Marcus Mariota's 2016 franchise record of eight consecutive games with multiple touchdown passes.

However, Tannehill did establish a franchise benchmark in his final seven contests for most consecutive games with multiple touchdown passes and fewer than two interceptions. Over those seven games, he had two total interceptions—one each on Dec. 8 (at Oakland) and Dec. 15 (vs. Houston)—to go along with 19 touchdown passes and a 129.8 passer rating.

During Mariota's 2016 season, he registered the previous franchise-best streak of four straight games with at least two touchdown passes and fewer than two interceptions.

Most consecutive games in a season in franchise history with multiple touchdown passes and fewer than two interceptions:

TEAM SINGLE-GAME PASSER RATING

On Sept. 20, 2020, Ryan Tannehill recorded a 145.7 passer rating against the Jacksonville Jaguars. It qualified as the seventh best single-game passer rating in franchise history (minimum 20 attempts). He completed 18 of 24 attempts for 239 yards with four touchdowns and no interceptions. It was Tannehill's second-highest career passer rating in a game with a minimum of 20 attempts, topped only by his 155.3 as a member of the Miami Dolphins against the Raiders on Sept. 23, 2018.

LEADING VETERAN QBS ON NEW TEAMS

In 2019, Ryan Tannehill set a new standard for veteran quarterbacks in their first year with a new team. Tannehill, who was acquired in a trade after seven years with the Miami Dolphins, had a passer rating of 117.5. No quarterback has ever finished with a passer rating that high in his first season with a new team after playing at least one year with another team.

Brett Favre held the distinction until 2019. In 2009, Favre's 107.2 passer rating with the Minnesota Vikings became the best figure in league annals by a veteran in his first campaign with a new club.

Highest passer rating in a veteran's first season with a new team:

Player	Season	New Team	Former Team	Rating
1. Ryan Tannehill	2019	Tennessee	Miami	117.5

BAUGH, MONTANA & TANNEHILL

During the 2019 season, Titans quarterback Ryan Tannehill accomplished a statistical feat only reached previously by a pair of Pro Football Hall of Fame quarterbacks.

Tannehill's season statistics included a 70.3 completion percentage and an average of 9.6 yards per passing attempt.

In the history of the NFL, only two previous qualifying passers have enjoyed a season in which they completed at least 70.0 percent of their passes and averaged at least 9.0 yards per attempt: Sammy Baugh and Joe Montana.

Montana led the San Francisco 49ers to a Super Bowl XXIV title and won the NFL MVP award following a 1989 season in which he completed 70.2 percent of his passes (271 of 386) and averaged 9.1 yards per attempt (3,521 yards).

Baugh directed the Washington Redskins to the NFL Championship game in 1945, while completing 70.3 percent of his passes (128 of 182) and averaging 9.2 yards per attempt (1,669 yards).

Players in NFL history with a completion rate of at least 70.0 percent and a passing average of at least 9.0 yards per attempt (qualifiers only):

#22 ■ RB DERRICK HENRY

6-3, 247, 5th Year, Alabama

Click for complete bio

Running back Derrick Henry is in his fifth NFL season in 2020. He was selected by the Titans with the 45th overall pick in the second round of the 2016 NFL Draft and received a multi-year contract extension in 2020.

In 2019, Henry was named to his first career Pro Bowl and added second-team Associated Press All-Pro honors after leading the NFL in rushing in 2019. In 15 games, he totaled 1,540 yards on 303 carries (5.1 avg.), joining Billy Cannon (AFL, 1961), Earl Campbell (1978-80) and Chris Johnson (2009) as the only running backs in franchise history to lead their respective leagues in rushing. Henry's single-season total ranked fourth in franchise annals behind Johnson's 2009 total (2,006) and Campbell's 1979 (1,697) and 1980 (1,934) performances. He was named the FedEx Ground Player of the Year.

With 16 rushing touchdowns in 2019, Henry tied for the NFL lead (Aaron Jones) and finished second in team history (19 by Campbell in 1979). Adding his two receiving touchdowns, his 18 total touchdowns were third in the NFL and tied for second in franchise annals (19 by Campbell in 1979; 18 by Bill Groman in 1961).

Henry's performance late in the 2019 season was instrumental in the team's run to the AFC championship game. Over the final six games of the regular season plus three playoff appearances, Henry registered seven 100-yard games. During a three-game stretch (Dec. 29 at Houston, Jan. 4 at New England and Jan. 11 at Baltimore), he became the first player in NFL history to rush for at least 180 yards in three consecutive regular season and/or postseason games.

Henry authored his first career 1,000-yard season in 2018 and the 28th 1,000-yard rushing season in franchise history, totaling 1,059 yards and 12 touchdowns on 215 carries—all then-career highs.

His 2018 rushing yardage ranked second in the AFC to Joe Mixon's 1,168 yards, and he finished seventh in the NFL. Henry's 12 rushing touchdowns tied James Connor for third place in the NFL behind Todd Gurley (17) and Alvin Kamara (14).

Henry was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for December 2018. His 625 rushing yards in the month were the most by any NFL player in any month during the season.

Against the Jacksonville Jaguars on Dec. 6, 2018, Henry recorded one of the greatest single games in franchise history in front of a national television audience. He broke Johnson's single-game franchise record (228) with 238 rushing yards, including a 99-yard touchdown run. He joined Tony Dorsett as the only two players in NFL history to rush for a 99-yard score.

In 2017, Henry shared time in the Titans backfield with DeMarco Murray. Henry led the team with 744 rushing yards on 176 carries, and he added 11 receptions for 136 yards and a touchdown. His five rushing touchdowns tied for second on the club.

As a rookie in 2016, Henry played in 15 games with one start, splitting reps in the backfield with Murray. He carried the ball 110 times for 490 yards and five touchdowns and added 137 yards on 13 receptions. Henry became the third rookie for the franchise in the "Titans era" to score at least five touchdowns in a season, joining Vince Young (seven rushing touchdowns in 2006) and Johnson (nine rushing and one receiving in 2008).

The Heisman Trophy winner played three seasons (2013–2015) at the University of Alabama, where he set numerous school and SEC records while helping his team win a National Championship in 2015. He played in 39 games and totaled 602 carries for 3,591 yards and 42 rushing touchdowns and added 285 yards on 17 career receptions with three receiving scores. During Alabama's victory over Clemson in the 2016 College Football Playoff National Championship, he broke Shaun Alexander's record for most career rushing yards in Alabama history.

In his final collegiate season, Henry rushed for an Alabama and Southeastern Conference record 2,219 yards, which led the nation and ranked fifth in FBS history. He recorded 100-yard rushing games 10 times and had four 200-yard games during the season. His 28 rushing touchdowns were a national best and an SEC record, snapping Tim Tebow and Tre Mason's old mark of 23. In addition to the Heisman, he also won the Doak Walker Award, Walter Camp Award and Maxwell Award, among a multitude of other honors.

Henry is a native of Yulee, Fla.

2020 Notes:

➤ At Denver (9/14), rushed for 116 yards on 31 carries on Monday Night Football to notch his 14th career 100-yard rushing game (regular season and playoffs). He extended his streak to 10 consecutive regular season games with at least 80 scrimmage yards. His 31 rushing attempts made up the third-highest total of his career in the regular season.

➤ Against Jacksonville (9/20), rushed for 84 yards on 25 carries and became the fifth player in franchise history to reach the 4,000-yard career rushing mark (4,033). He registered his third consecutive regular season game with at least 25 carries, dating back Dec. 29, 2019.

➤ At Minnesota (9/27), rushed for 119 yards on 26 carries with two touchdowns, notching his 15th career 100-yard rushing game (regular season and playoffs). He became the fifth player in NFL history to have 25 or more rushing attempts in each of his team's first three games of a season, joining Buffalo's O.J. Simpson (1975), Dallas' Emmitt Smith (1994), Indianapolis' Edgerrin James (2002) and Houston's Arian Foster (2012). Henry passed Lorenzo White (4,079 career rushing yards) for fourth place on the franchise's all-time rushing list. He scored his first touchdown of the season on a one-yard plunge in the third quarter and added another one-yard touchdown run on the following series. He tallied his ninth career regular season game with at least two touchdown runs. It was his 11th career regular season game with at least two total touchdowns. He became the second player in franchise history to record 12 consecutive regular season games with at least 80 scrimmage yards, joining Chris Johnson (12 from 2009 to 2010) as the only Titans/Oilers to do so. Henry added 11 receiving yards on two catches to give him 130 total scrimmage yards, marking his 10th career regular season game with at least 130 scrimmage yards. He became the fourth player in franchise history to hit 40 career rushing touchdowns, joining Earl Campbell (73), Eddie George (64) and Chris Johnson (50).

➤ Against Buffalo (10/13), rushed for 57 yards and two touchdowns on 19 attempts. It was his 10th career game with at least two rushing touchdowns. He registered a one-yard touchdown run in the second quarter and added a nine-yard score in the fourth quarter. He rushed for two touchdowns in consecutive games for the third time in his career.

➤ Against Houston (10/18), totaled 22 carries for 212 yards and two touchdowns, recording his third career 200-yard rushing game. It was his second-highest rushing total for a single game (238). His 212 rushing yards were fifth in franchise history and put him in ownership of three of the top six single-game rushing performances in team annals. He scored the game-winning touchdown in overtime on a five-yard run out of the Wildcat formation, registering the second "walk-off" overtime touchdown run in franchise history and the first since Vince Young's 39-yard run to win in overtime at Houston on Dec. 10, 2006. Henry added 52 receiving yards, including a 53-yard reception—the third-longest catch of his career—in overtime, to give him 264 scrimmage yards. The scrimmage yardage total placed fourth in franchise history, and it was the most scrimmage yards by a Titans player in a game since Chris Johnson's 284 on Sept. 20, 2009. Henry's total of 264 scrimmage yards was the most by any NFL player since the New York Giants' Saquon Barkley had 279 at Washington on Dec. 22, 2019. Henry scored on a 94-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter, tying Chris Johnson for the second-longest run in franchise history behind Henry's own 99-yard touchdown run (Dec. 6, 2018 vs. Jacksonville). Henry became the fifth NFL player to record two career rushing touchdowns of 90 or more yards, joining Bo Jackson, Ahman Green, Chris Johnson and Lamar Miller. Henry joined Miller (two 97-yard touchdown runs) as the only players to ever record multiple touchdown runs of at least 94 yards. With five 70-yard (or longer) career rushing touchdowns, Henry tied Barry Sanders (five) and O.J. Simpson (five) for the third-most in NFL history behind only Chris Johnson (seven) and Adrian Peterson (seven). Henry became the first player in NFL history to record a game with 200-plus rushing yards in three consecutive seasons. He previously accomplished the feat against Jacksonville on Dec. 6, 2018 (238) and at Houston on Dec. 29, 2019 (211). He became the NFL's 15th player since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to record at least three career 200-yard rushing games and the first to reach the mark since Jay Ajayi had his third 200-yard rushing game in 2016. Henry joined Chris Johnson (Sept. 20, 2009 vs. Houston) as the only NFL players since 1975 with a rushing attempt of at least 90 yards and a reception of at least 50 yards in a game. He notched his 16th career 100-yard rushing game, including regular season and playoffs, and his third of 2020. He recorded his third consecutive game with at least two rushing touchdowns, joining Earl Campbell (1980) and Chris Johnson (2009) as the franchise's only players to do so. Henry joined Eddie George (1996-2003) as the franchise's only players to begin their careers with at least five rushing touchdowns in five consecutive seasons. He was named the AFC Offensive Player of the Week and the FedEx Ground Player of the Week for his performance.

➤ Against Pittsburgh (10/25), totaled 20 rushing attempts for 75 yards and one touchdown. He scored on a one-yard plunge in the fourth quarter, reaching the end zone for the seventh time in 2020. It was his fourth consecutive game with at least one rushing touchdown. Reached 75 rushing yards for the fifth time in 2020 and for the 13th time in his last 15 games.

➤ At Cincinnati (11/1), totaled 112 yards and one touchdown on 18 rushing attempts, notching his fourth 100-yard rushing game of 2020 and his 17th career 100-yard rushing game (including regular season and playoff games). He scored his eighth rushing touchdown of the campaign on a three-yard run in the second quarter. On the scoring drive, he carried the ball seven times for 46 yards. It was his fifth consecutive game with at least one rushing touchdown. It marks the fifth such streak in franchise history, matching a feat he achieved in 2019 to tie Earl Campbell (1979) and DeMarco Murray (2016) for the second-longest streak in team annals.

➤ Against Chicago (11/8), led the team with 21 rushing attempts for 68 yards, including a 26-yard run on a touchdown drive in the fourth quarter.

RUSHING IN THE FOURTH QUARTER

Since 2017, running back Derrick Henry has accumulated more rushing yards in the fourth quarter than any other NFL running back.

In 2019, 328 of Henry's 1,540 rushing yards came in the fourth quarter, which ranked third in the NFL.

In 2017, Henry accumulated 390 of his 744 rushing yards in the fourth quarter. The only player with more rushing yards in the fourth quarter that season was Kansas City's league-leading rusher, Kareem Hunt.

FIVE CONSEC. TEAM GAMES WITH RUSHING TD

Derrick Henry recorded a streak in 2020 of at least one rushing touchdown in five consecutive team games. It was his second such streak in as many seasons and tied for the longest such streak in franchise history. DeMarco Murray (2016) and Earl Campbell (twice—1979 and 1983) are the only other franchise players with five consecutive team games with a rushing touchdown.

3 CONSEC. GAMES W/ 200 SCRIMMAGE YDS

From the final week of the 2019 regular season (Dec. 29 at Houston) through the Titans' first two playoff games (Jan. 4 at New England and Jan. 11 at Baltimore), Derrick Henry became the first player in NFL history to rush for at least 180 yards in three consecutive regular season or postseason games.

He also became only the third player since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger to have 200 scrimmage yards in three consecutive games. The other two players to accomplish the feat were Chicago Bears running back Walter Payton (1977) and Pittsburgh Steelers running back Le'Veon Bell (2014).

During the 2019 regular season and playoffs, Henry and Carolina Panthers running back Christian McCaffrey (two) were the only two players with multiple 200-yard scrimmage games. Together they accounted for five of the 14 such individual performances.

RUSHING YARDS IN A TITANS PLAYOFF GAME

On Jan. 4, 2020, Derrick Henry rushed for 182 yards and one touchdown on 34 attempts in a wild card playoff victory at New England. In doing so, he set a new franchise single-game postseason record for rushing yards in a game, surpassing Eddie George's 162 yards at Indianapolis on Jan. 16, 2000.

One week later, on Jan. 11, 2020, Henry broke his own record, going for 195 rushing yards on 30 carries at Baltimore.

Henry now owns two of the top three rushing games in franchise postseason history.

SCRIMMAGE YARDS IN A TITANS PLAYOFF GAME

Derrick Henry's 182 rushing yards and 22 receiving yards in the team's wild card playoff victory at New England on Jan. 4, 2020 gave him a franchise-record 204 scrimmage yards.

Henry broke his own record of 191 scrimmage yards in a wild card playoff contest at Kansas City on Jan. 6, 2018 (156 rushing, 35 receiving).

On Jan. 11, 2020, one week after establishing the current record, Henry had 202 scrimmage yards (195 rushing, seven receiving) at Baltimore, giving him the three biggest scrimmage yards totals in franchise postseason history.

Prior to Henry, the organization record stood for 57 years. It was set on Jan. 1, 1961, when Billy Cannon had 178 scrimmage yards against the Los Angeles Chargers.

Most single-game scrimmage yards in franchise postseason history:

RUSHING YARDS IN A SINGLE POSTSEASON

Derrick Henry accumulated 446 rushing yards during the 2019 playoffs. He had 182 yards on 34 carries in the wild card round at New England, followed by 195 yards on 30 attempts in the divisional round at Baltimore. In the AFC championship game, he had 69 yards on 19 rushing attempts.

Henry's average of 148.7 rushing yards per game ranked fourth in NFL history for players with at least two games played. Only a trio of Pro Football Hall of Fame members—Denver Broncos running back Terrell Davis (156.0 in 1998), Los Angeles Raiders running back Marcus Allen (155.3 in 1983) and Washington Redskins running back John Riggins (152.5 in 1982) have averaged more rushing yards in a single postseason than Henry.

In Titans/Oilers history, Eddie George established the previous record for average rushing yards in a single postseason during the 1999 playoffs. In four games, George carried the ball 108 times for 449 yards, or an average of 112.3 yards per contest.

Most rushing yards per game in a single NFL postseason (minimum two games):

Player	Team	Season	Games	Rush Yards	Per Game
1. Terrell Davis	Denver	1998	3	468	156.0
2. Marcus Allen	L.A. Raiders	1983	3	466	155.3
3. John Riggins	Washington	1982	4	610	152.5
4. Derrick Henry	Tennessee	2019	3	446	148.7

9. Brian Westbrook	Philadelphia	2006	2	257	128.5
10. Fred Taylor	Jacksonville	1998	2	248	124.0

George's 449 yards during the team's run to Super Bowl XXXIV also established the franchise benchmark for most total rushing yards in a single postseason. Henry came within three yards of the mark in one fewer game.

Most rushing yards in a single postseason, franchise history:

Player	Season	Games	Rush Yards
1. Eddie George	1999	4	449

3. Earl Campbell	1978	3	264
4. Steve McNair	1999	4	209
5. Derrick Henry	2017	2	184

Henry's 2019 playoff rushing yardage total ranked sixth in NFL history. It was the most by any NFL player since George's 1999 postseason.

Most total rushing yards in a single NFL postseason:

DECEMBER TO REMEMBER

In five games in the month of December 2018, Derrick Henry's rushing totals included 97 carries for 625 yards and eight touchdowns. His 625 yards were the most by any NFL player in any calendar month in 2018.

Additionally, Henry authored one of only four calendar months for the franchise since 1970 in which a player rushed for at least 600 yards. Chris Johnson (800 rushing yards in November 2009) and Earl Campbell (633 in October 1980; 662 in November 1980) were the organization's only other players to accomplish the feat in that timespan.

Henry's December rushing totals included 40 yards against the New York Jets (Dec. 2), a franchise-record 238 yards against the Jacksonville Jaguars (Dec. 6), 170 yards at the New York Giants (Dec. 16), 84 yards against the Washington Redskins (Dec. 22) and 93 yards against the Indianapolis Colts (Dec. 30).

For his efforts, Henry was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month.

RECORD-SETTING NIGHT

On Dec. 6, 2018, Derrick Henry had one of the most memorable rushing performances in NFL history on Thursday Night Football. He rushed for a team-record 238 yards and four touchdowns (tied), including a 99-yard touchdown run.

WATCH: Highlights from Derrick Henry's performance on 12/6/18

Henry's 238 rushing yards set a new franchise record, breaking Chris Johnson's mark of 228 yards against the Jaguars on Nov. 1, 2009. It was the highest single-game rushing total in the NFL in 2018 and the league's highest total since Doug Martin's 251 rushing yards for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers against the Oakland Raiders on Nov. 4, 2012.

Most rushing yards in a game, franchise history:

10. Eddie George	12/9/99	Oakland	199
Earl Campbell	11/20/78	Miami	199

In the second quarter, Henry took a handoff from Marcus Mariota inside his own one-yard line and raced 99 yards for a touchdown. It was the second 99-yard run in NFL history, tying Tony Dorsett's record-setting touchdown run for the Dallas Cowboys against the Minnesota Vikings on Jan. 3, 1983. It was also the team record, topping Johnson's 94-yard touchdown run against the New York Jets on Dec. 17, 2012. The only other runs in franchise history of at least 90 yards were Johnson's 91-yard rush against the Houston Texans on Sept. 20, 2009 and a 91-yarder by Sid Blanks against the Jets on Dec. 13, 1964.

Henry's 99-yard touchdown run tied for the longest scrimmage play in NFL history. It was the 15th such play, including his and Dorsett's runs and 13 passing plays. The last 99-yard scrimmage play before Henry's was New York Giants wide receiver Victor Cruz's 99-yard reception from Eli Manning against the New York Jets on Dec. 24, 2011.

Longest runs from scrimmage in NFL history:

Andy Uram	Green Bay	10/8/39	Chi. Cardinals	97t
Bob Gage	Pittsburgh	12/4/49	Chi. Bears	97t

Henry scored on a three-yard run in the first quarter, a 99-yard run in the second quarter, a 16-yard run in the third quarter, and finally a 54-yard run in the third quarter. He tied the franchise record and became the third player in franchise history to rush for four touchdowns in a game, joining Earl Campbell (against Miami on Nov. 20, 1978) and Lorenzo White (against Cleveland on Dec. 9, 1990).

The only franchise player with more overall touchdowns in a game than Henry was Oilers running back Billy Cannon, who had five total touchdowns (three rushing, two receiving) at the New York Titans on Dec. 10, 1961. Henry became the first NFL player with four rushing touchdowns in a game since New England Patriots running back Jonas Gray at Indianapolis on Nov. 16, 2014.

Most rushing touchdowns in a game, franchise history:

1. Derrick Henry	12/6/18	Jacksonville	4
Lorenzo White	12/9/90	Cleveland	4
Earl Campbell	11/20/78	Miami	4
4. (several tied)			3

Additionally, Henry's rushing performance against the Jaguars accomplished the following:

- He became the ninth NFL player since 1975 with at least one 90-yard run and at least one 60-yard reception in his career. The others were Tony Dorsett, Garrison Hearst, Tiki Barber, Chris Johnson, Jamaal Charles, Herschel Walker, Warrick Dunn and Adrian Peterson.
- Henry became the seventh NFL player since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger with at least four rushing touchdowns and at least 200 rushing yards in a game, joining Clinton Portis, Barry Sanders, Doug Martin, Jonas Gray, Mike Anderson and Corey Dillon. Henry became the first to accomplish the feat in fewer than 20 carries (17).
- Henry recorded his NFL-high three rushing attempts of at least 70 yards since the beginning of the 2017. Leonard Fournette (two) was the only other player with more than one through 14 weeks of the 2018 campaign.
- He matched former Titans running back Chris Johnson as the only players in NFL history with a rushing touchdown of at least 90 yards and a rushing touchdown of at least 50 yards in the same game. Johnson accomplished the feat against the Houston Texans on Sept. 20, 2009.
- His 24 points tied for the fourth-highest single-game total in franchise history, trailing only Billy Cannon (30 on Dec. 10, 1961), Rob Bironas (26 on Oct. 21, 2007) and George Blanda (26 on Sept. 18, 1960). Earl Campbell (Nov. 20, 1978) and Lorenzo White (Dec. 9, 1990) also had 24 points on four touchdowns in a single game.
- His 238 rushing yards and four rushing touchdowns were each the most in any Thursday Night Football game in history.

MORE TITANS RUNNING BACKS

41 - RB/FB KHARI BLASINGAME

6-0, 233, 2nd Year, Vanderbilt

➤ Blasingame was signed by the Titans to their active roster from the Minnesota Vikings' practice squad on Nov. 13, 2019.

➤ In his rookie season (2019), he saw action in six games with three starts at fullback, catching four passes for 54 yards and collecting two special teams tackles, tying for the team lead in special teams tackles twice in 2019 (at IND, at NE).

➤ The former Vanderbilt product played in all three postseason contests with a start at fullback and notched two special teams tackles and a forced fumble on coverage units.

➤ Made his first career start in his NFL debut against Jacksonville (11/24/19).

➤ Amassed 997 rushing yards and 15 rushing scores as well as 35 catches for 380 yards and two receiving touchdowns during his collegiate career at Vanderbilt.

➤ The New Market, Ala., native was originally signed by the Minnesota Vikings as a rookie free agent on May 3, 2019.

2020 Notes:

➤ Placed on the reserve/COVID-19 list on Oct. 5 and removed from the list on Oct. 16.

32 - RB DARRYNTON EVANS

5-10, 203, Rookie, Appalachian State

➤ The Oak Hill, Fla., native was selected by the Titans in the third round (93rd overall) of the 2020 NFL Draft.

➤ In three on-field seasons at Appalachian State (2016, 2018-19), Evans appeared in 39 games and made 22 starts.

➤ He was a two-time All-Sun Belt first-team selection and was the Sun Belt's Offensive Player of the Year in 2019. Evans was a two-time Sun Belt Championship Game MVP and MVP of the 2019 New Orleans Bowl.

➤ He finished his career with 2,884 rushing yards (ninth all-time at Appalachian State) despite being the primary running back for just 23 career games. Set school records for most career rushes without a fumble (482) and single-season rushes without a fumble (255 in 2019). Had 4,642 all-purpose yards, including 1,439 yards on kickoff returns and 319 yards as a receiver, plus 14 passing yards on a forward-flipped jet sweep. Scored 34 total touchdowns with 25 rushing, six receiving and a program-record three as a kick returner. Totaled 11 runs of at least 50 yards in his final two seasons.

2020 Notes:

- At Minnesota (9/27), made his NFL debut and recorded three rushing attempts for nine yards.
- Placed on injured reserve on Oct. 15.

45 - RB D'ONTA FOREMAN*6-1, 236, 3rd Year, Texas

#81 - TE JONNU SMITH*6-3, 248, 4th Year, Florida InternationalClick for complete bio

Tight end Jonnu Smith is in his fourth NFL season in 2020. He was selected by the Titans in the third round (100th overall) of the 2017 NFL Draft.

In 2019, Smith returned from a serious knee injury in 2018 to play in all 16 games with a career-high 14 starts. He set career highs with 35 receptions and 439 receiving yards and tied his career high with three touchdown catches. In the playoffs, he started all three games and contributed six receptions for 59 yards and one touchdown. He was named the team's 2019 Ed Block Courage Award recipient.

Smith's 2018 campaign came to a premature end when he suffered a knee injury against the Jacksonville Jaguars on Dec. 6 and was subsequently placed on injured reserve on Dec. 11. Prior to the injury, he played in 13 games with 12 starts and achieved then-career highs with 20 receptions, 258 receiving yards and three touchdowns. He led the club's tight ends in all three categories at the time of his injury.

During the 2017 regular season, Smith was one of three rookie tight ends to appear in all 16 games (Gerald Everett and David Njoku) and one of two rookie tight ends with at least 13 starts (O.J. Howard). He caught 18 passes for 157 yards and two touchdowns, ranking fifth among all rookie tight end in receptions. He also caught three passes for 19 yards in two postseason games.

Smith concluded his four-year career at Florida International University's all-time leader among tight ends in receptions and receiving yards, totaling 178 receptions for 2,001 yards and 18 touchdowns. On the school's all-time receiving list, regardless of position, Smith finished fourth in receptions, fifth in receiving yards and third in receiving touchdowns.

Smith finished his collegiate career registering at least one reception in every game he played. The 43-game streak was the second-longest streak of its kind in school annals.

During his senior campaign, he started 11 games and earned second-team All-Conference USA honors. He registered 42 receptions for 506 yards and four touchdowns.

As a sophomore (2014), led all college tight ends with 61 receptions, 710 receiving yards and eight touchdown catches.

Smith is a native of Philadelphia, Pa.

2020 Notes:

- At Denver (9/14), totaled four receptions for 36 yards, including a one-yard touchdown reception on a pass from Ryan Tannehill in the fourth quarter. It was his ninth career touchdown reception. He also recorded a 22-yard reception on a screen play in the first quarter.
- Against Jacksonville (9/20), led the team with a career-high 84 receiving yards on four receptions, including a pair of touchdown catches. He set a career long with a 63-yard reception on the first play from scrimmage. His touchdowns included a 13-yard grab in the first quarter and a four-yard reception in the second quarter. It marked his first career game with multiple touchdowns. He improved his season total to three touchdown receptions after also posting a one-yard touchdown catch in the season opener at Denver, and it marked the third time in his career with at least one touchdown in back-to-back games. He improved his career total to 11 touchdown receptions. Additionally, he drew a 22-yard pass interference penalty in the second quarter on third down.

➤ At Minnesota (9/27), tied for the team lead with five receptions for a total of 61 yards. He went over the 1,000-yard career receiving mark with his 21-yard grab in the third quarter.

➤ Against Buffalo (10/13), registered five receptions for 40 yards and a team-high two touchdowns. His two touchdowns tied his career high, established two games earlier against Jacksonville (Sept. 20). His touchdown grabs against the Bills included a four-yard catch in the third quarter and a seven-yarder in the fourth quarter. He surpassed his previous career high for a season of three touchdown catches (2018 and 2019).

➤ Against Houston (10/18), logged his 50th career regular season game and recorded one reception for 13 yards before leaving the game with an injury.

➤ Against Pittsburgh (10/25), caught one pass for nine yards.

➤ At Cincinnati (11/1), caught two passes for 29 yards, including a long reception of 19 yards.

➤ Against Chicago (11/8), caught two passes for 32 yards and a touchdown. He helped extend the Titans' lead in the fourth quarter with a 30-yard reception and a two-yard touchdown catch on the next play. It gave him six touchdown receptions in 2020 to extend his career high, and it made him the first Titans tight end with at least six touchdown receptions in a season since Delanie Walker (seven) in 2016.

SMITH EXCEEDS 600 SNAPS

A year after leading all rookie tight ends with 13 starts in 2017, Jonnu Smith continued to see a high rate of offensive snaps in 2018, his second NFL season.

Despite spending the final three contests on injured reserve, he participated in 609 total offensive snaps in 2018 (including penalized plays), a total that ranked fourth among all tight ends in their rookie, first-year or second-year seasons. The only three such tight ends with more offensive snaps than Smith were San Francisco's George Kittle (925), Cleveland's David Njoku (863) and the New York Jets' Christopher Herndon (624).

Smith's offensive play total ranked third among all non-linemen on the Titans. Only wide receiver Corey Davis (870) and quarterback Marcus Mariota (773) had more.

Most offensive snaps in 2018 among rookie, first-year and second-year tight ends (includes offensive plays called back due to penalty):

#11 - WR A.J. BROWN

6-1, 226, 2nd Year, Mississippi

Click for complete bio

Wide receiver A.J. Brown is in his second NFL season in 2020. He was selected by the Titans in the second round (51st overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft.

As a rookie, Brown led the Titans in every major receiving category, totaling 52 catches for 1,051 yards and eight touchdowns. He added a 49-yard rushing touchdown. Among all rookies in franchise history, Brown ranked third in receiving yards and fifth in receptions, and he tied for the third-highest receiving touchdown total.

Brown led the 2019 NFL rookie class in receiving yards and total touchdowns, and he tied for the rookie lead in touchdown receptions. He also placed fifth among rookies in receptions. Among all NFL players in 2019—rookies and veterans—Brown finished second in receiving average (20.2), behind only the Los Angeles Chargers' Mike Williams (20.4).

During a three-year career at Mississippi (2016-18), Brown became the program's all-time leading receiver with 2,984 yards. He ranked third in school history with 189 receptions and fifth all-time with 19 touchdowns. Brown averaged 15.8 yards per catch and 82.9 yards per game, and he tallied the most 100-yard receiving games in Ole Miss history with 12. He became the only receiver in Ole Miss history to tally 60 or more receptions in back-to-back seasons.

In 2018, Brown started all 12 games and set Ole Miss' single-season receiving records in yards (1,320) and catches (85), leading the SEC in both categories. His 1,320 receiving yards ranked seventh in the nation. Brown caught six touchdowns, averaging 110.0 yards per game, and he topped the 100-yard receiving mark in six contests. He earned AP first-team All-SEC and third-team All-American honors for the second consecutive season.

Brown was selected in the 19th round of the 2016 Major League Baseball Draft by the San Diego Padres as a centerfielder and he participated in the team's extended spring training program each summer from 2016-18.

He is a native of Starkville, Miss.

2020 Notes:

➤ At Denver (9/14), posted five receptions for 39 yards. It was his 17th consecutive regular season game with at least one reception to begin his career. On the game-winning drive late in the fourth quarter, he drew a key 16-yard pass interference penalty.

➤ Against Jacksonville (9/20) and at Minnesota (9/27), he was inactive with a knee injury.

➤ Against Buffalo (10/13), returned to the lineup and led the team with seven receptions and 82 receiving yards, including a touchdown reception. It was the second-highest reception total of his career (eight vs. Houston on Dec. 15, 2019) and his seventh-highest receiving yardage total. He recorded his first touchdown of the season and the ninth touchdown reception of his career on a 16-yard pass from Ryan Tannehill in the first quarter.

➤ Against Houston (10/18), totaled five receptions for 58 yards and two touchdowns. He scored on a six-yard grab in the first quarter and a seven-yard reception late in the fourth quarter. His two touchdown receptions tied his career high, matching a feat he most recently accomplished at Oakland on Dec. 8, 2019. He registered the 10th and 11th touchdown receptions of his 19-game career, and in doing so, he became the franchise's first player since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to reach 10 career touchdown receptions in less than 20 career games. Former wide receiver Chris Sanders held the previous franchise mark since 1970 with nine touchdown receptions in his first 20 games. With four seconds remaining in the fourth quarter, his seven-yard touchdown reception on a pass from Ryan Tannehill gave the Titans a chance to tie the score at 36-36 with the extra point and eventually win the game in overtime.

➤ Against Pittsburgh (10/25), led the team and tied his career high with 153 receiving yards on six receptions with one touchdown. He matched the 153 yards he posted at Oakland on Dec. 8, 2019. He recorded a 73-yard touchdown reception in the third quarter to notch the second-longest reception of his career (91 yards at Oakland on Dec. 8, 2019). The play gave him four touchdown receptions in 2020 and 12 career touchdown catches. He joined Robby Anderson (two) as the only NFL players with multiple touchdown receptions of at least 73 yards since the start of the 2019 season, and he joined Kenny Britt (two) and Nate Washington (two) as the only players in the franchise's "Titans era" (since 1999) with multiple career touchdown receptions of at least 73 yards. Brown became the first Titans player with a streak of three consecutive games catching a touchdown pass since Rishard Matthews accomplished the feat in 2016. His 153 receiving yards tied for the 10th-highest total by a player in the franchise's "Titans era" (since 1999). He recorded his sixth career game with at least 100 receiving yards (first of 2020), going over the 100-yard mark on a 20-yard grab in the fourth quarter.

➤ At Cincinnati (11/1), totaled four receptions for 24 yards and one touchdown, giving him his fourth consecutive game with at least one touchdown reception. He became the team's first player to do so since Kenny Britt's four-game streak from 2010 to 2011 and the team's first player to do so in a single season since Britt had a separate five-game streak in 2010.

➤ Against Chicago (11/8), led the team with four receptions and 101 receiving yards with one touchdown. He registered his seventh career 100-yard receiving game and his second 100-yard performance of 2020. At 23 years and 131 days old, he became the franchise's third player to eclipse 1,500 career receiving yards before his 24th birthday, joining Kenny Britt (22 years, 357 days) and Ernest Givins (23 years, 80 days). With his fifth consecutive game with at least one touchdown reception, he became the team's first player to do so since Kenny Britt's five-game streak in 2010, and his streak tied for the third-longest streak of its kind in franchise history. After recording a 38-yard reception in the first quarter, he posted a 40-yard touchdown reception in the second quarter.

45+ YARD RUN & 90+ YARD CATCH

A.J. Brown's longest scrimmage play of his rookie season was a 91-yard touchdown reception at Oakland on Dec. 8. That play in combination with his 49-yard touchdown run on Dec. 22 against New Orleans made him only the fifth NFL player since 1948 with at least one touchdown catch of 90-plus yards and at least one touchdown run of 45-plus yards in the same season.

Prior to Brown, the last time a player did so was 1985, when New England Patriots running back Craig James had a 90-yard touchdown reception to go with touchdown runs of 65 and 57 yards.

NFL players since 1948 with a touchdown reception of at least 90 yards and a rushing touchdown of at least 45 yards in the same season:

50 RECEPTIONS, 1,000 YARDS

A.J. Brown enjoyed one of the finest seasons in franchise history by a rookie wide receiver. His 2019 regular season totals included 52 receptions, 1,051 receiving yards and eight touchdown catches, and his 20.2-yard receiving average ranked second in the NFL.

Brown achieved a rare statistical combination matched by only three other NFL rookies since 1970. Since then, John Jefferson (1978), Bill Brooks (1986), Randy Moss (1998) and Brown are the league's only rookies to have a minimum of 50 receptions, 1,000 receiving yards and five receiving touchdowns while averaging at least 17.0 yards per catch.

NFL rookies since 1970 with 50 receptions, 1,000 receiving yards, five touchdown receptions and a 17.0-yard receiving average:

#84 ■ WR COREY DAVIS

6-3, 209, 4th Year, Western Michigan
Click for complete bio

Wide receiver Corey Davis is in his fourth NFL season in 2020. He was selected by the Titans with the fifth overall pick in the 2017 NFL Draft.

During his first three seasons, Davis led the Titans in total receptions (142), receiving yards (1,867) and receiving first downs (97), and his six touchdown catches tied for third place on the club.

Davis' 2019 statistics included 43 receptions for 601 yards and a pair of touchdowns in 15 games (11 starts). He added 68 yards and a touchdown on six receptions during the playoffs.

Davis led the Titans offense in 2018 with 65 receptions, 891 receiving yards and four touchdowns. His yardage total ranked ninth among all AFC wide receivers.

As a rookie, Davis totaled 34 receptions for 375 yards in 11 games (nine starts). He started both postseason contests and contributed nine receptions for 98 yards and a team-high two touchdowns.

In four seasons at Western Michigan (2013–2016), Davis played and started 50 games. He registered 332 career receptions for 5,285 yards and 52 touchdowns, setting the Mid-American Conference record in each category and becoming the only player in FBS history with 300 catches, 5,000 yards and 50 touchdowns. His 5,285 career receiving yards were the most in FBS history, and he ended his career ranked second all-time in FBS history with 52 career receiving touchdowns (60 by Jarett Dillard). Davis' 332 career receptions ranked fourth all-time in FBS annals.

As a senior, he set career highs with 97 receptions, 1,500 receiving yards and 19 touchdowns, ranking eighth, seventh and first (tied) in the FBS, respectively. He helped the Broncos win the MAC and go undefeated until suffering their first loss in the Cotton Bowl. Davis' record-setting, All-American campaign included five games of 100-plus yards and six games of two or more receiving touchdowns.

Davis is a native of Wheaton, Ill.

2020 Notes:

➤ At Denver (9/14), led the team on Monday Night Football with seven receptions and 101 receiving yards, including a long reception of 23 yards in the second quarter. His reception total tied for the second-highest number of his career, and his yardage total ranked third in his career. He contributed a nine-yard catch for a first down during the game-winning scoring drive late in the fourth quarter. It was the eighth 100-yard receiving game in franchise history by a player in a Week 1 road game, most recently by A.J. Brown at Cleveland in 2019.

➤ Against Jacksonville (9/20), totaled three receptions for 36 yards, including a touchdown on a nine-yard pass from Ryan Tannehill in the first quarter. It was his first touchdown of 2020 and the seventh touchdown of his four-year career. He reached 150 career receptions on his nine-yard touchdown catch and reached the 2,000-yard career receiving mark on his 17-yard catch in the third quarter.

➤ At Minnesota (9/27), tied for the team lead with five receptions for 69 receiving yards. On his first reception, he extended his streak to 25 consecutive receptions resulting in a first down. The streak ended on his next catch. It was the longest active streak in the NFL at the time. He turned a pass from Ryan Tannehill into a 38-yard gain in the third quarter, leading to a Titans touchdown three plays later.

➤ Placed on reserve/COVID-19 on Oct. 7 and activated from the list on Oct. 19.

➤ Against Pittsburgh (10/25), tied for the team lead with six receptions for 35 yards and a touchdown. He registered a five-yard touchdown reception in the second quarter. It was his second touchdown reception of 2020 and his eighth career touchdown catch.

➤ At Cincinnati (11/1), led the team with eight receptions for 128 yards, including a touchdown catch. His reception and yardage totals were each the second-best numbers of his career behind his nine-catch, 161-yard effort against Philadelphia on Sept. 30, 2018. That was also the last time before his performance at Cincinnati that the Titans had a player with at least eight receptions and at least 120 receiving yards in a single game. He became the franchise's fourth player in the "Titans era" (since 1999) to have multiple career games with at least eight receptions, at least 120 receiving yards and at least one touchdown catch. The only others to accomplish the feat were Delanie Walker (two games), Derrick Mason (three games) and Drew Bennett (two games). He posted three receptions of 20-plus yards: 27- and 24-yard catches in the first quarter and a 23-yard reception in the third quarter. It was his second consecutive game with a touchdown catch.

100 RECEPTIONS IN 29 GAMES

Against Indianapolis on Sept. 15, 2019, Corey Davis reached 100 career receptions. In doing so, he became one of the franchise's fastest players to 100 receptions.

Since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger, only wide receivers Kendall Wright (22 games) and Ernest Givins (24) hit 100 receptions with the Titans/Oilers within their first 30 games prior to Davis.

Fewest career NFL games needed to reach 100 receptions with the franchise, 1970–2019:

AMONG FASTEST TO 1,000 REC YARDS

On Nov. 26, 2018 at Houston, Titans wide receiver Corey Davis hit the 1,000-yard career receiving mark in his 22nd NFL game.

Davis reached the 1,000-yard mark in fewer career games than all but two players for the franchise since 1970. In that time period, only Ernest Givins and Chris Sanders hit the mark in fewer games. Givins reached 1,000 receiving yards in his 14th career game in 1985, and Sanders took 21 games from 1995–1996 to reach the plateau. Davis tied Kendall Wright, who also hit 1,000 receiving yards in his 22nd game (2012–2013).

Titans/Oilers to reach 1,000 receiving yards in the fewest games at the beginning of a career from 1970 to 2018:

#10 - WR ADAM HUMPHRIES

5-11, 195, 6th Year, Clemson

Click for complete bio

Wide receiver Adam Humphries is in his sixth NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2020. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 15, 2019 after spending the first four years of his career (2015-18) with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Humphries appeared in the first 12 games of the regular season before suffering an ankle injury, which caused him to be inactive for the final four games in December. His regular season totals included 37 receptions for 374 yards and a pair of touchdowns. He returned for the AFC Championship Game and registered four catches for 25 yards.

In 60 career games with the Buccaneers (17 starts), Humphries totaled 219 receptions for 2,329 yards and nine touchdowns, increasing his reception and yardage totals every season. He also returned 51 punts for 425 yards.

In 2018, Humphries set career highs with 76 receptions, 816 receiving yards and five touchdowns. Aligned in the slot (per Sportradar and Next Gen Stats), he ranked first in the NFL in receiving first downs (42), tied for second in receptions (59), and finished second in total yards after catch (319).

A native of Spartanburg, S.C., Humphries played four seasons at Clemson, where he accumulated 127 catches for 1,097 yards and three touchdowns in 53 career games.

He entered the NFL by signing with the Buccaneers as an undrafted free agent on May 11, 2015.

2020 Notes:

- At Denver (9/14), finished second on the team with six receptions and 47 receiving yards. He had two receptions for 14 yards during the game-winning drive in the fourth quarter. His six catches tied his high mark for number of receptions in a Titans uniform.
- Against Jacksonville (9/20), posted a team-high five receptions for 48 yards and one touchdown. He scored on an 18-yard pass from Ryan Tannehill in the third quarter to register his first touchdown of 2020 and the 12th touchdown catch of his career.
- At Minnesota (9/27), recorded four receptions for 41 yards, including a 23-yard catch.
- Placed on reserve/COVID-19 on Oct. 2 and removed from the list on Oct. 14, 2020
- Against Houston (10/18), finished second on the club with six receptions and 64 receiving yards. It was his third game of the season with at least five receptions. His 22-yard touchdown reception in the second quarter was his second touchdown catch of 2020 and his 13th career touchdown reception. He had three receptions for 24 yards during the game-tying drive late in the fourth quarter.
- Against Pittsburgh (10/25), recorded a 19-yard reception during a second-quarter scoring drive.

➤ Against Chicago (11/8), he was inactive with a concussion.

13 - WR CAMERON BATSON 5-8, 175, 3rd Year, Texas Tech

➤ Promoted from the practice squad to the 53-man roster on Nov. 7, 2020.

➤ Originally signed with the Titans as an undrafted free agent following the 2018 NFL Draft.

➤ In 2019, he spent the entire season on injured reserve after suffering an injury during training camp.

➤ As a rookie, appeared in 11 games with two starts at wide receiver and posted eight catches for 82 yards.

➤ A native of Oklahoma City, Okla., he appeared in 50 games over four seasons at Texas Tech and totaled 157 receptions for 1,499 yards and 14 touchdowns. He also returned 22 kickoffs for 417 yards and returned 65 punts for 394 yards. Batson was roommates with Kansas City Chiefs quarterback Patrick Mahomes at Texas Tech.

➤ He was the valedictorian of his class at Millwood (Okla.) High School.

2020 Notes:

➤ Against Jacksonville (9/20), returned to the lineup for the first time since 2018 and snared two passes for 26 yards. Rushed once for 11 yards on a jet sweep.

➤ Placed on reserve/practice squad COVID-19 on Oct. 2 and removed from the list on Oct. 14, 2020.

➤ Against Chicago (11/8), registered his first career kickoff return for 23 yards in the fourth quarter. He added a six-yard reception.

14 - WR KALIF RAYMOND*5-8, 182, 3rd Year, Holy Cross

- Raymond joined the Titans as a member of the practice squad on Dec. 24, 2018. He was first promoted to the active roster from the practice squad on Oct. 26, 2019.
- In eight games in 2019, he produced nine receptions for 170 yards and one touchdown, four punt returns for 45 yards (11.3 avg.) and 18 kickoff returns for 403 yards (22.4 avg.). Additionally, he appeared in two playoff games and totaled one reception for a 45-yard touchdown, one punt return for nine yards and four kickoff returns for 68 yards (17.0 avg.).
- In 2018, Raymond spent a total of three games on the Titans practice squad, as well as one game on the New York Giants practice squad.
- Raymond arrived in Tennessee with 12 games of NFL experience with the Denver Broncos, New York Jets and Giants. His statistics prior to joining the Titans included 29 punt returns for 210 yards and 20 kick returns for 408 yards.
- Raymond originally signed with the Broncos as a rookie free agent on May 6, 2016. He spent the majority of his rookie season on the Broncos practice squad before being elevated to the active roster and appearing in four contests. He tallied 11 punt returns for 111 yards and six kick returns for 137 yards.
- In 2017, Raymond spent time on the practice squads and active rosters of both the New York Jets and New York Giants. He appeared in two games for the Jets (Weeks 1-2) and returned five punts for 38 yards and three kicks for 85 yards. He was re-signed to the Jets practice squad for Weeks 3-4 before being waived and signed to the Giants' practice squad on Oct. 11, 2017. He was elevated to the active roster and saw action in six total contests for the Giants, returning 13 punts for six yards and 11 kicks for 186 yards.
- Raymond played in 40 games with 23 starts over four seasons (2012-15) as a wide receiver and return specialist for Holy Cross. He totaled 155 receptions for 1,683 yards and 14 touchdowns, returned 62 punts for 464 yards and a score, as well as 80 kick returns for 1,809 yards and two touchdowns.
- He is a native of Lawrenceville, Ga.

2020 Notes:

- At Minnesota (9/27), led the team with a career-high 118 receiving yards on three receptions, logging his first career 100-yard game. He recorded a 44-yard reception during the first series of the game and then posted a career-long 61-yard catch in the third quarter, leading to a Titans touchdown two plays later. His receiving yardage total was the most by a Titans player on three or fewer receptions since Dec. 5, 2004, when Drew Bennett had 124 yards on three catches at Indianapolis. Raymond added a 30-yard kickoff return and two punt returns for five yards.
- Against Buffalo (10/13), recorded his second start of the season to set a career high. He totaled two receptions for 26 yards, two punt returns for 40 yards and two kickoff returns for 35 yards. He produced a career-long 40-yard punt return in the first quarter, beating his previous long of 25 yards (twice, last at Buffalo on Sept. 10, 2017). It was the longest punt return for the Titans since Adoree' Jackson's 46-yarder at Jacksonville on Sept. 17, 2017. He also caught a 20-yard pass to convert a third-and-20 in the first quarter.
- Against Houston (10/18), caught three passes for 32 yards (long of 20). He added three punt returns for 20 yards (long of 16) and three kickoff returns for 63 yards (long of 23).

- Against Pittsburgh (10/25), returned one punt five yards and returned three kickoffs 43 yards (long of 23).
- Against Chicago (11/8), returned three punts for a total of 49 yards. His 16.3-yard punt return average was the best of his career in a game with at least three returns. He returned three consecutive punts in the first quarter for 21, 16 and 12 yards, respectively.

#60 - C BEN JONES

6-3, 303, 9th Year, Georgia

Click for complete bio

Center Ben Jones is in his ninth NFL season and his fifth campaign with the Titans in 2020. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 10, 2016.

From 2012 through 2019, Jones appeared in 127 of 128 possible regular season games, including starts in all but one game during his first four seasons in Tennessee.

In 2019, Jones captained an offensive line that helped running back Derrick Henry win the NFL's rushing title (1,540 yards). He started all three playoff games en route to an AFC Championship Game appearance.

On Dec. 12, 2019, Jones was named the Titans nominee for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award. Considered one of the league's most prestigious honors, the award recognizes an NFL player for outstanding community service activities off the field, as well as excellence on the field.

On Nov. 3, 2019, Jones' streak of 120 consecutive games played and 88 consecutive starts came to an end when he was deactivated with a concussion. At the time, Jones' consecutive games streak tied Kansas City's Mitchell Schwartz for the longest active streak in the NFL among offensive linemen, and his starting streak ranked first in the NFL among all centers.

Jones started all 16 games at center in 2018, registering a start in every contest for the fifth consecutive season, dating back to his third year in Houston (2014).

In his first year in Tennessee, Jones played a key role in an offensive turnaround. The veteran was a key cog in a line that helped the Titans finish 11th overall in offense, third in rushing and tied for seventh in fewest sacks allowed.

Jones was originally selected by the Houston Texans in the fourth round (99th overall) of the 2012 NFL Draft. Over the following four seasons, he started contests at center and both guard spots. He was a starter on two playoff teams in Houston (2012 and 2015).

In 2015, Jones started every game at center, extending his streak of consecutive regular season games played to 64, which was the second-longest active streak among NFL centers at the conclusion of the season.

A native of Centreville, Ala., Jones attended the University of Georgia, where his 49 total starts ranked third in school annals. He was a two-time All-SEC selection by the league's coaches and was named to Georgia's Team of the Decade. As a senior (2011), the team captain earned All-SEC first-team honors.

Click for complete bio

Dennis Kelly is in his ninth NFL season and his fifth campaign with the Titans in 2020. He was acquired in a trade with the Philadelphia Eagles on Aug. 16, 2016. In exchange for Kelly, the Titans dealt wide receiver Dorial Green-Beckham to the Eagles.

Kelly appeared in 15 games during the 2019 regular season, including starts at left tackle in each of the team's first four games. He caught a touchdown pass against Jacksonville on Nov. 24 and added another touchdown catch in the AFC Championship Game at Kansas City on Jan. 19.

Kelly played in 11 games in 2018 with five starts at right tackle. It was the third-highest start total of his career.

Kelly played in all 16 games in both 2016 and 2017. During that time he had a regular role in the team's "heavy" personnel package and earned six total starts—six in 2016 and one in 2017. He helped the Titans rush for an average of 136.7 yards per game in 2016, which ranked third in the NFL.

Kelly entered the NFL as a fifth-round selection by the Eagles in the 2012 NFL Draft. In four seasons with the Eagles, he recorded 15 starts and 30 games played. He recorded nine starts with the Eagles at right tackle, four starts at right guard and two starts at left guard.

A native of Chicago Heights, Ill., Kelly was a team captain and a two-time offensive MVP at Purdue. He started his final three seasons at left tackle for the Boilermakers.

#77 ■ T TAYLOR LEWAN

6-7, 309, 7th Year, Michigan

Click for complete bio

Tackle Taylor Lewan is in his seventh NFL season in 2020. He was selected by the Titans with the 11th overall pick of the 2014 NFL Draft and received a multi-year contract extension in 2018.

Lewan was placed on injured reserve on Oct. 19, 2020, one day after suffering a knee injury against the Houston Texans. He started each of the team's first five games of the season.

In 2019, Lewan registered 12 starts during the regular season, anchoring an offensive line that helped running back Derrick Henry win the NFL's rushing title (1,540 yards). He started all three playoff games, including the AFC Championship Game.

Lewan was named to the Pro Bowl for the third consecutive season in 2018. He played and started in 15 of the team's 16 games at left tackle, marking his fourth consecutive season with at least 15 starts.

In 2017, Lewan became the team's first offensive lineman to make multiple Pro Bowls since center Kevin Mawae from 2008–2009. Lewan started all 16 games for the second consecutive season in 2017 and added starts in both postseason contests.

In 2016, Lewan started all 16 games for the first time. The left tackle was the anchor a line that helped the Titans finish 11th overall in offense, third in rushing and tied for seventh in fewest sacks allowed.

In 2015, Lewan started the first 15 games of the season at left tackle before missing the finale with a concussion.

As a rookie in 2014, Lewan played in 11 games with six starts before suffering an ankle injury. He played as a reserve for the first five games and then started in six consecutive contests before the injury caused him to be inactive the final five weeks. For his efforts, Lewan was named to the Pro Football Writers of America All-Rookie Team.

In four seasons at Michigan, Lewan appeared in 50 games with 48 starts at left tackle. He started the final 41 games of his career and was named the Big Ten Conference Offensive Lineman of the Year in 2012 and 2013. As a senior in 2013, he started all 13 games at left tackle for the third consecutive season and was named second-team Associated Press All-American.

At the 2014 NFL Scouting Combine, he ran the 40-yard dash in 4.87 seconds, beating all other offensive linemen in his class and clocking the fourth-fastest time among offensive linemen in the last five years (2010-14). He also ranked among the top offensive linemen at the 2014 combine in the broad jump (first at nine feet, nine inches), vertical jump (tied for third at 30.5 inches) and three-cone drill (fourth at 7.39 seconds).

A native of Cave Creek, Ariz., Lewan became the first offensive tackle selected by the Titans/Oilers in the first round since tackle Brad Hopkins (13th overall) in 1993.

#76 ■ G RODGER SAFFOLD III

6-5, 325, 11th Year, Indiana

Click for complete bio

Guard Rodger Saffold III is in his 11th NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2020. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent from the Los Angeles Rams on March 15, 2019.

In 2019, Saffold started all 16 games for the second consecutive season and for the fourth time in his career. He was a key member of an offensive line that helped running back Derrick Henry win the NFL's rushing title (1,540 yards). He started all three playoff games, including the AFC Championship Game.

During the first nine seasons of his career (2010-18), Saffold appeared in 114 regular season games with 111 starts. He also gained experience in the postseason, starting four career playoff games, including all three postseason contests on the Rams' run to Super Bowl LIII at the conclusion of 2018.

From 2017-18, Saffold played an integral role in one of the NFL's top-ranked offenses. According to STATS Inc., he allowed only two sacks during that time.

Saffold is extremely versatile, having started with the Rams at right tackle (three games), left tackle (36), right guard (13) and left guard (43).

A native of Bedford, Ohio, he spent four seasons at Indiana University (2006-09), where he started 41 career games and earned All-Big Ten honors as a senior.

Saffold was originally selected by the Rams in the second round (33rd overall) of the 2010 NFL Draft.

#90 - DL DAQUAN JONES

6-4, 322, 7th Year, Penn State
Click for complete bio

Defensive lineman DaQuan Jones is in his seventh NFL season in 2020. He was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (112th overall) of the 2014 NFL Draft.

In 2019, Jones started all 16 games for the fourth time in his career and for the second consecutive season. He achieved career highs with 21 quarterback pressures and three passes defended, and his totals also included 50 tackles, one sack and one tackle for loss.

In 2018, Jones started all 16 games and tallied 39 tackles on the season. He added 14 quarterback pressures, a career-high four tackles for loss and one pass defended.

Jones was placed on injured reserve on Dec. 4, 2017 due to a bicep injury he suffered the previous day against the Houston Texans. It concluded a season in which he totaled a career-high 3.5 sacks. The injury put an end to his streak of 45 consecutive starts.

Jones was one of two Titans who started every game from 2015–2016, holding down a spot at defensive end for consecutive seasons. Outside linebacker Brian Orakpo was the other member of the team to start every game in that time period.

As a rookie, Jones appeared in seven games with one start. He registered 13 tackles, a sack, three quarterback pressures, two tackles for loss and a forced fumble.

A leader at Penn State during a time of turmoil, Jones started 23 of 46 college games, with all of his starting assignments coming during the last two seasons. Jones finished his career with 92 tackles, adding 4.5 sacks for minus 28 yards, 15.5 stops for losses totaling 55 yards, two fumble recoveries and a pass deflection.

As a senior in 2013, he started all 12 games at defensive tackle, finishing fifth on the team with a career-high 56 tackles (33 solos). His tackle total was the most for any interior defensive lineman in the Big Ten during the 2013 campaign. Jones was named first-team All-Big Ten by the league's coaches and second-team All-Conference by the media. He was named Penn State's Outstanding Senior Player and the recipient of the team's Reid-Robinson Award.

Jones is a native of Johnson City, N.Y.

#98 - DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

6-4, 305, 2nd Year, Mississippi State
Click for complete bio

Defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons is in his second NFL season. He was selected by the Titans in the first round (19th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft.

Simmons began his rookie season on the non-football injury list due to a knee injury he suffered during training in February 2019. He missed the first six games of the season before joining the 53-man roster in Week 7.

His rookie totals included 40 tackles, two sacks, two tackles for loss, 14 quarterback pressures and one pass defended in nine games (seven starts). He added four tackles, three quarterback pressures and a fumble recovery in three playoff contests.

During a three-year career as a defensive tackle at Mississippi State, Simmons appeared in 38 contests with 28 starts. He finished his career ranked sixth in school history with 32.5 in tackles for loss. He also tied for sixth in MSU annals with five forced fumbles and tied for fourth with three blocked kicks. His totals also included 163 tackles, seven sacks, seven passes defended and two defensive touchdowns.

He was a first-team All-SEC selection as a sophomore and junior and was one of two players in the nation to be named a Bednarik Award

Semifinalist in both 2017 and 2018.

As a junior in 2018, Simmons was named second-team All-American after totaling 63 tackles, 17 tackles for loss and two sacks. His 17 tackles for loss led the team, ranked fourth in the SEC and were the third-most in single-season school history.

During his sophomore season (2017), he set a career high with five sacks and added 12 tackles for loss. With three total blocked kicks and punts, he became the first SEC player since 2004 to lead the nation in the category.

Simmons is a native of Macon, Miss.

2020 Notes:

- At Denver (9/14), tallied four tackles and a fumble recovery on Monday Night Football. He notched his first career fumble recovery in the second quarter on a reception by Melvin Gordon III (fumble forced by Kevin Byard). He recovered the ball at Denver's 23-yard line, and the offense scored a touchdown on the ensuing drive.
- Against Jacksonville (9/20), helped clinch the victory by batting a pass at the line of scrimmage that was then picked off by outside linebacker Harold Landry III on the Jaguars' final possession. It was the second consecutive game in which Simmons was involved in a takeaway after recovering a fumble in the season opener at Denver. He added three tackles against the Jaguars.
- At Minnesota (9/27), produced five total tackles, one sack, one tackle for loss and a career-high five quarterback pressures. He forced the Vikings to punt with a six-yard sack of Kirk Cousins on third down in the first quarter. It was his first sack of 2020 and the third sack of his career.
- Placed on reserve/COVID-19 on Oct. 3 and removed from the list on Oct. 15.
- Against Houston (10/18), registered his second sack of the season and the fourth sack of his career in the fourth quarter, taking down Deshaun Watson for a 12-yard loss on third down. He tied his career high with six tackles and also batted down a pass by Watson on a two-point conversion attempt with less than two minutes remaining in the fourth quarter. The play kept the Titans' deficit to seven points (36-29), and the Titans offense subsequently drove to tie the score and force overtime.
- Against Pittsburgh (10/25), registered three tackles and a pass defended. He deflected a Ben Roethlisberger pass in the third quarter that was subsequently intercepted by linebacker Jayon Brown. It was the second time in 2020 that Simmons tipped a pass that was then intercepted (Sept. 20 vs. Jacksonville).
- At Cincinnati (11/1), contributed four tackles.
- Against Chicago (11/8), totaled three tackles, one pass defended, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. He was credited with his first career forced fumble in the third quarter, leading to a Titans touchdown. After he knocked the ball out of the hands of running back David Montgomery, cornerback Desmond King II scooped it up and raced 63 yards for a touchdown. In the fourth quarter, after Jayon Brown stripped the ball from Anthony Miller, he recovered the ball for the takeaway. It was his first career game with a fumble recovery and a forced fumble. He became the team's first defensive lineman to record a fumble recovery and a forced fumble in the same game since Jurrell Casey at Atlanta on Sept. 29, 2019.

#55 - ILB JAYON BROWN

6-0, 226, 4th Year, UCLA
Click for complete bio

Linebacker Jayon Brown is in his fourth NFL season in 2020. He was selected by the Titans in the fifth round (155th overall) of the 2017 NFL Draft.

Brown appeared in 14 contests in 2019 with a career-high 14 starts. He finished third on the team and set a career high with 117 tackles while adding one sack, four tackles for loss, seven quarterback pressures, one interception, nine passes defended and one fumble return for a touchdown. He added eight tackles and one pass defended in two postseason contests.

Brown played in all 16 games with nine starts in 2018. He finished second on the defense with 107 tackles and six sacks, and his 18 quarterback pressures tied for the second-highest total on the team. He was one of only six NFL linebackers with at least six sacks, one interception, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery during the season.

As a rookie, Brown appeared in all 16 regular season games and both postseason games as the team's nickel linebacker. He registered 67 tackles, which tied for the 10th-highest total by a "Titans era" rookie (1999–present) and ranked fifth among the team's rookie linebackers in that span.

In four seasons at UCLA (2013-16), Brown appeared in 49 games with 21 starts and totaled 220 tackles, three sacks, nine tackles for loss, three interceptions, 15 passes defended, one forced fumble and four fumble recoveries. He started 21 games over his final two seasons and totaled nine games with double-digit tackles.

As a senior in 2016, he earned first-team All-Pac-12 honors after leading the Bruins with 119 tackles, which tied for 16th on the all-time school single-season list. He added 2.5 sacks, seven tackles for loss, three interceptions, 23 passes defended and two fumble recoveries.

Brown is a native of Long Beach, Calif.

2020 Notes:

➤ At Denver (9/14), registered five tackles and a tackle for loss on Monday Night Football.

➤ Against Jacksonville (9/20), totaled seven tackles, one tackle for loss, one quarterback pressure and one pass defended.

➤ At Minnesota (9/27), led the defense with eight tackles and added a pass defended and two quarterback pressures.

➤ Against Buffalo (10/13), recorded five tackles and forced fumble (recovered by Buffalo) in his 50th career game.

➤ Against Houston (10/18), credited with a team-high 10 tackles, including a tackle for loss.

➤ Against Pittsburgh (10/25), credited with an interception, a team-high and career-high four passes defended, and tied for the team lead with eight tackles. He intercepted a Ben Roethlisberger pass in the third quarter for his first interception of 2020 on a pass that was deflected by Jeffery Simmons. The play gave Brown three career interceptions. He also helped cause an interception in the fourth quarter when he defended a pass from Ben Roethlisberger to JuJu Smith-Schuster that was then picked off by Amani Hooker.

➤ At Cincinnati (11/1), led the team and set a season high through seven games with 12 total tackles.

➤ Against Chicago (11/8), credited with a team-high 10 tackles in the contest along with one sack, one pass defended and one forced fumble.

He dropped Nick Foles for a six-yard sack in the second quarter. In the fourth quarter, he created a turnover when he registered his second forced fumble of the season. He knocked the ball out of the hands of wide receiver Anthony Miller, and defensive tackle Jeffery Simmons recovered it for the Titans. The play gave Brown four career forced fumbles.

#54 ■ ILB RASHAAN EVANS

6-2, 232, 3rd Year, Alabama

Click for complete bio

Linebacker Rashaan Evans is in his third NFL season in 2020. He was selected by the Titans with the 22nd pick in the first round of the 2018 NFL Draft. The Titans traded up from the 25th spot in order to take the former Alabama standout.

In 2019, Evans started all 16 games at inside linebacker and led the Titans with 139 tackles and 11 tackles for loss. He added 2.5 sacks, 11 quarterback pressures, one pass defensed and one fumble return for a touchdown. He started all three postseason games and finished second on the squad with 22 tackles, including a team-high three tackles for loss.

During his rookie season, Evans overcame an injury that kept him out of the preseason. He played in 15 games with seven starts at inside linebacker and totaled 63 tackles, six quarterback pressures, two tackles for loss and three passes defensed.

In four seasons with the Crimson Tide (2014–2017), Evans appeared in 53 games with 14 starts and totaled 152 tackles, 15.0 sacks, 23.5 tackles for loss, five passes defensed, 19 quarterback hurries, two forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. During his four years there, he appeared in three CFP National Championship contests with two victories.

As a senior in 2017, Evans started 12 games and tied for the team lead with 74 tackles. He led the Crimson Tide with 13 tackles for loss despite missing a pair of games due to injury and also posted seven quarterback hurries, six sacks, three passes defensed, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery.

Following his senior campaign, he was named a first-team All-American by the AFCA, earned first-team All-SEC honors from Associated Press and second-team All-SEC team from the conference coaches.

6-5, 255, 7th Year, South Carolina

Click for complete bio

Jadeveon Clowney (first name pronounced juh-DEV-ee-on) is in his seventh NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans. He joined the Titans as an unrestricted free agent in September 2020.

Clowney played his first five NFL seasons with the Houston Texans after he was the first overall pick in the 2014 NFL Draft. He was traded to the Seattle Seahawks in 2019.

In his first six NFL seasons, Clowney played in 75 games and tallied 236 tackles, 32 sacks, 71 tackles for loss, 14 passes defensed, nine forced fumbles and seven fumble recoveries. He also scored four total touchdowns—three on fumble recoveries and one on an interception return. Clowney was named to the Pro Bowl each season from 2016 through 2018, and he added second-team Associated Press All-Pro honors in 2016.

Over a four-season span from 2016 through 2019, Clowney was one of only three NFL players with at least 60 tackles for loss, eight forced fumbles and 150 quarterback pressures, per Sportradar. The others on the list were Aaron Donald and Chandler Jones. Clowney ranked fourth in the NFL over those four seasons with 60 tackles for loss.

In 2019, Clowney played for the Seattle Seahawks and tallied 31 tackles, three sacks, seven tackles for loss, a career-best four forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries in 13 games.

Before being traded to the Seahawks just prior to the 2019 season kicking off, Clowney played five seasons (2014-18) for the Texans. His best statistical output came in 2017, when he started 16 games and recorded 9.5 sacks, 21 quarterback hits, 21 tackles for loss, two forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. He joined Jones as the only NFL players to register 20 or more tackles for loss and 20 or more quarterback hits.

A native of Rock Hill, S.C., Clowney had a three-year (2011-13) career at the University of South Carolina and became the third Gamecock to earn All-American honors twice during their career. His college career stats included 130 tackles, 24 sacks, 47 tackles for loss, a school-record nine forced fumbles and one fumble recovery in 36 games played.

#21 - CB MALCOLM BUTLER

5-11, 190, 7th Year, West Alabama

Click for complete bio

Cornerback Malcolm Butler is in his seventh NFL season and his third campaign with the Titans in 2020. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 16, 2018.

Butler's 2019 season was cut short due to a wrist injury he suffered in the ninth game (Nov. 3 at Carolina). Until that point, he had 30 tackles, two interceptions, including one for a touchdown, and 10 passes defended.

In 2018, Butler led the Titans with 13 passes defended in his first season as a Titan and was second on the team with three interceptions, which included an interception return for a touchdown. He added 56 tackles, one sack, one quarterback pressure, three tackles for loss and one forced fumble in 16 games (11 starts).

Prior to his arrival in Tennessee, Butler spent the first four seasons of his career with the New England Patriots. During his time in New England, he appeared in 59 career regular season games with 48 starts and amassed 204 tackles, eight interceptions, 47 passes defended, four forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries.

Butler appeared in 11 career playoff games with seven starts with the Patriots. He started all three postseason contests on the Patriots' run to the Super Bowl LI title in 2016 and made the crucial, game-winning interception at the goal line in New England's Super Bowl XLIX victory over the Seattle Seahawks to conclude the 2014 campaign.

In 2017, he played in all 16 games during the regular season with 15 starts and amassed 60 tackles, two interceptions, a sack, 12 passes defended and three forced fumbles. He saw action in all three postseason games (two starts) and posted four tackles.

In 2016, Butler earned his second consecutive Pro Bowl invitation and was named Associated Press second-team All-Pro after starting all 16 regular season games and recording 63 tackles, one sack, a career-high four interceptions and 17 passes defended.

As a rookie free agent in 2014, Butler was involved in one of the most memorable plays in Super Bowl history. With 26 seconds remaining against the Seattle Seahawks in Super Bowl XLIX, he intercepted a pass intended for Ricardo Lockette at the goal line, preventing a go-ahead touchdown by the Seahawks and sealing New England's championship victory.

The Vicksburg, Miss., native was originally signed by the New England Patriots on May 19, 2014, following two seasons at the University of West Alabama, where he was a two-time first team All-Gulf South Conference selection at cornerback. He transferred to West Alabama from Hinds (Miss.) Community College.

2020 Notes:

➤ At Denver (9/14), notched three tackles on Monday Night Football in his first action since being injured in Week 9 of the 2019 season.

➤ Against Jacksonville (9/20), tied for the team lead with a career-high 11 total tackles and added two passes defended.

➤ At Minnesota (9/27), totaled four tackles and a team-best two passes defended.

➤ Against Buffalo (10/13), registered his second career game with two interceptions and his first since he played the New York Jets as a member of the New England Patriots on Dec. 24, 2016. Butler ended the Bills' first possession with an interception of a Josh Allen pass. He returned the ball 29 yards to help set up a Titans touchdown on the ensuing drive. It was Butler's first interception of the season. In the third quarter, he intercepted Allen and raced 68 yards on the return to set up a touchdown. It was his longest career interception return, topping his 56-yard touchdown return against Washington on Dec. 22, 2018. It was the longest interception return by a Titans player since Zach Brown's 79-yarder against Jacksonville on Dec. 30, 2012. His 97 total interception return yards were the most by an NFL player in 2020 through five weeks and the most by a Titans player since Brown's 109 yards against Jacksonville (Dec. 30, 2012). Butler registered his sixth consecutive season with at least two interceptions. He added seven tackles against the Bills, including a tackle for loss.

- Against Houston (10/18), tallied eight tackles and a pass defended.
- Against Pittsburgh (10/25), shared the team lead with eight total tackles in the game.
- At Cincinnati (11/1), produced eight tackles and two passes defended.
- Against Chicago (11/8), credited with four tackles and two passes defended.

#25 - CB ADOREE' JACKSON

5-11, 185, 4th Year, Southern California
Click for complete bio

Cornerback Adoree' Jackson is in his fourth NFL season in 2020. He was selected by the Titans with the 18th overall pick in the first round of the 2017 NFL Draft.

Jackson played in 11 games with 10 starts in 2019 and totaled 40 tackles, two tackles for loss and seven passes defended. He missed five total contests due to injury, including the final four weeks of the regular season, and then returned to start all three postseason contests. His six passes defended during the playoffs led the squad.

In 2018, Jackson appeared in all 16 games for the second consecutive season with 13 starts. He set single-season career highs with 69 tackles and two interceptions. His 11 passes defended ranked second on the squad, and he added one quarterback pressure and three tackles for loss. He also handled the team's punt return duties, averaging 9.3 yards on 16 returns.

In 2017, Jackson was the first rookie cornerback for the team in the "Titans era" (1999–present) to record 16 starts. His 1,260 total plays (1,017 defensive snaps, 231 special teams snaps and 12 offensive snaps) ranked second in the NFL among all players behind only Arizona Cardinals safety Tyrann Mathieu (1,261).

Jackson's rookie defensive totals included a team-high 23 passes defended, 67 tackles, four tackles for loss, one quarterback pressures and three forced fumbles (tied for team lead). He ranked fifth in the NFL with 290 punt return yards (34 returns), ranked sixth in the NFL with a 23.1-yard kickoff return average (25 returns), and finished sixth with 868 combined kickoff return and punt return yards. He added 55 yards on five rushing attempts.

In three seasons at Southern California, Jackson appeared in 39 games with 36 starts. Although he was a starter at cornerback, he was a three-way threat, contributing as a returner and on offense. He scored 15 total touchdowns during his career in four different ways: via reception (6), interception (1), punt return (4) and kickoff return (4).

Jackson's career defensive totals with the Trojans included 139 tackles, 29 passes defended, six interceptions, six stops for loss, three fumble recoveries and two forced fumbles.

As a return specialist, Jackson notched 79 kickoff returns for 2,141 yards with four touchdowns and 46 punt returns for 578 yards with four touchdowns. He tied two NCAA records with his eight career touchdowns on kick/punt returns and nine touchdowns on all runbacks. He also set Southern California career records for kickoff returns and kickoff return yards.

As a junior in 2016, Jackson was awarded the Jim Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back. Additionally, he was a consensus All-American, the 2016 Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year, a team captain and the team MVP (the first Trojan to repeat as team MVP since 2004-05), and he earned first-team All-Pac-12 honors at two different positions (defensive back and return specialist). He started all 13 games at cornerback and led the team with five interceptions, 11 passes defended and two fumble recoveries. He scored twice on kickoff returns, twice on punt returns and once on offense.

A native of East St. Louis, Ill., Jackson also made his name as a world-class track athlete. He was a long jumper and sprinter on USC's track team in 2015 and 2016, winning the Pac-12 outdoor long jump title both years (and placing second in the Pac-12 100 meters in 2016) and earning All-American status both years after twice placing fifth in the NCAA long jump. He also placed 10th in the long jump in the U.S. Olympic Trials.

2020 Notes:

- Placed on injured reserve on Sept. 14 due to a knee injury.

#33 - CB DESMOND KING II

5-10, 201, 4th Year, Iowa

Click for complete bio

Cornerback Desmond King II is in his fourth NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2020. He was acquired in a trade with the Los Angeles Chargers on Nov. 2, 2020 in exchange for a sixth-round draft choice in 2021.

In his time with the Chargers, he tallied 213 tackles, four interceptions, two forced fumbles, four fumble recoveries and 7.5 sacks in 53 games played (23 starts).

He earned AP All-Pro honors at cornerback and second-team All-Pro as a punt returner in 2018 for the Chargers. His 2018 totals included 60 tackles, three interceptions, one forced fumble, two fumble recoveries and an 13.8-yard average as a punt returner.

During a four-year career at Iowa (2013-16), he was a four-year starter and earned the Jim Thorpe Award, which is given to the nation's best defensive back. He also earned Iowa's MVP award on defense and on special teams. His collegiate totals included 14 interceptions, including eight in his junior season, and three interceptions returned for touchdowns. He also posted a career punt return average of 11.2 yards.

He is a native of Detroit, Mich.

2020 Notes:

➤ Against Chicago (11/8), recorded his first start with the Titans after being acquired during the week leading up to the game in a trade with the Los Angeles Chargers. He totaled two tackles and returned a David Montgomery fumble 63 yards in the third quarter to score his first career fumble return touchdown. It gave him five career touchdowns, which also includes two touchdowns on interceptions and two scores on punt returns. He recorded the Titans' first fumble return for a touchdown since Jayon Brown at Oakland on Dec. 8, 2019. It was the Titans' longest fumble return since Oct. 13, 2013, when Jason McCourty scored on a 77-yard fumble return at Seattle.

Safety Kevin Byard is in his fifth NFL season in 2020. He was selected by the Titans in the third round (64th overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft.

From 2017 through 2019, no NFL player had more interceptions than Byard, who had 17. His 2019 totals included a team-leading five interceptions, 10 passes defended, 91 tackles, one quarterback pressure and two tackles for loss. He started all 16 regular season games for the third consecutive season. In three postseason games, he added 20 tackles and one interception.

In 2018, Byard finished with a team-leading four interceptions, 10 passes defended, 96 tackles and two sacks in 16 games (all starts). He also completed a touchdown pass on a memorable fake punt to help defeat the Houston Texans (Sept. 16).

Byard experienced a breakthrough second-year season in 2017. He was named to the Pro Bowl and earned first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors after tying Detroit's Darius Slay for the NFL lead with eight interceptions. He added a pair of fumble recoveries to pace the league with 10 total takeaways.

As a rookie in 2016, Byard played in every game, starting the final seven contests at free safety. His 63 tackles were the most by a Titans rookie safety since Tank Williams' 69 tackles in 2002. He also ranked second on the squad with 10 special teams tackles.

During a four-year career at Middle Tennessee State University, he appeared in 49 games and notched 46 starts at safety while becoming one of the most prolific defenders in school history. He set school records with 19 career interceptions, 377 interception return yards and four interception returns for touchdowns, and he finished sixth in MTSU history with 312 career tackles. In total, he had a hand in 25 turnovers (19 interceptions, five forced fumbles and one fumble recovery) during his career and added 17 career passes defended and five tackles for loss. He was twice named first-team All-Conference USA.

As a senior in 2015, Byard appeared in 12 games with nine starts as a permanent team captain and was named first-team All-Conference USA for the second consecutive year. He ranked fourth on the team with 66 tackles and led the squad with four interceptions and six additional pass breakups.

The Lithonia, Ga., native set a career high in college with six interceptions as a junior and forced to fumbles the same season.

2020 Notes:

- At Denver (9/14), recorded his first career forced fumble in the second quarter on a reception by Melvin Gordon III. The ball was recovered at Denver's 23-yard line by defensive tackle Jeffery Simmons, and the offense scored a touchdown on the ensuing drive. Byard also led the defense with nine tackles and added a pass defended.
- Against Jacksonville (9/20), posted three tackles.
- At Minnesota (9/27), totaled four tackles and one pass defended.
- Against Buffalo (10/13), posted two tackles and one pass defended.
- Against Houston (10/18), credited with eight tackles.
- Against Pittsburgh (10/25), totaled six tackles.

- At Cincinnati (11/1), produced seven tackles and one pass defended.
- Against Chicago (11/8), registered seven tackles .

PLAYERS WITH INTERCEPTION & TD PASS

In a victory over the Houston Texans on Sept. 16, 2018, Kevin Byard completed a 66-yard touchdown pass to defensive back Dane Cruikshank.

Byard became the first defensive player in franchise history to record a touchdown pass, while Cruikshank became the first defensive player in team annals to record a touchdown reception. Additionally, Byard's touchdown pass was the longest by a defensive player in the Super Bowl era. The previous long was held by Los Angeles Rams defensive back Ed Meador, who had an 18-yard touchdown pass at Atlanta on Nov. 19, 1967.

Byard, who tied for the NFL lead in 2017 with eight interceptions, also became only the fifth player in the Super Bowl era to throw at least one touchdown pass and record at least one career interception.

NFL players in the Super Bowl era with at least one career interception and one career touchdown pass (1966 through 2018):

MORE TITANS SAFETIES

29 - DB DANE CRUIKSHANK

6-1, 209, 3rd Year, Arizona

- The Chino Hills, Calif., native was selected by the Titans in the fifth round (152nd overall) of the 2018 NFL Draft.
- From 2018-19, Cruikshank tallied 18 special teams tackles which ranked second on the squad.
- In 2019, Cruikshank totaled a career-high 10 special teams tackles, which ranked second on the team, and blocked one extra point and one field goal. He saw action as a reserve in all 16 games and all three postseason contests. He tied for the team lead in special teams tackles four times in 2019.
- In 2018, he scored his first career touchdown with a 66-yard reception on a fake punt against Houston (9/16) and was named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week.
- During a two-year career at Arizona (2016-2017), he started all 25 games at 'spur' safety and cornerback. Cruikshank recorded 135 tackles, 1.5 sacks, seven tackles for loss, 17 passes defended, one forced fumble and intercepted five passes for 68 yards

2020 Notes:

- Placed on injured reserve on Sept. 6.
- Activated off injured reserve to the 53-man roster on Oct. 24.
- Against Pittsburgh (10/25), returned from injured reserve to play in his first game of the season. He recorded his first career interception, picking off a Ben Roethlisberger pass in the end zone on the final play of the first half.

37 - DB AMANI HOOKER*5-11, 210, 2nd Year, Iowa

➤ The Minneapolis, Minn., native was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (116th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft.

➤ In 2019, Hooker played as a reserve safety in all 16 games as a rookie and collected 13 tackles while ranking third on the team with eight special teams tackles.

➤ During a three-year career at Iowa, he played in 36 games with 19 starts and totaled 125 tackles, six interceptions, a sack, 3.5 tackles for loss and nine passes defended. He declared for the NFL Draft following his junior campaign.

➤ As a junior in 2018, Hooker received the Tatum-Woodson award given to the best defensive back in the Big Ten.

2020 Notes:

➤ At Minnesota (9/27), clinched the victory with his first career interception. With 1 minute and 9 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter, the Minneapolis native intercepted a pass from Kirk Cousins to Adam Thielen on fourth down.

➤ Against Pittsburgh (10/25), registered his second interception of 2020 and his second career interception, picking off a Ben Roethlisberger pass in the end zone in the fourth quarter. He totaled three tackles, two passes defended and one special teams stop in the contest.

➤ Against Chicago (11/8), established a career high with seven tackles and added two stops on special teams.

46 - DB JOSHUA KALU*6-0, 203, 2nd Year, Nebraska

➤ The Houston, Texas, native was signed by the Titans as an undrafted free agent on May 11, 2018 and has spent time on the practice squad and active roster.

➤ In Week 10 of 2019 against Kansas City, Kalu secured the victory by coming off the edge and blocking Harrison Butker's potential game-tying 52-yard field goal as time expired.

➤ In 2018, made his NFL debut and appeared in five games during his rookie season.

➤ Played in 48 games with 37 starts at cornerback and safety over four seasons at Nebraska. Totaled 215 tackles, two sacks, 27 passes defended, seven interceptions for 78 yards and a score, three forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. His 27 passes defended rank tied for seventh in Cornhusker history and his 215 career tackles rank fifth all-time among Nebraska defensive backs and among the top 30 overall tacklers in Cornhusker history.

2020 Notes:

➤ At Denver (9/14), credited with a forced fumble on the final play of the first half. He also registered a tackle in the contest.

➤ Against Jacksonville (9/20), credited with a two-yard kickoff return on one of the key plays of the game. With the Jaguars kicking off with 12 seconds remaining in the second quarter, he got in front of Josh Lambo's attempted squib kick at Tennessee's 49-yard line and moved the ball to the opposite 49. Two plays later, the Titans made a 51-yard field goal as the clock expired.

➤ Against Chicago (11/8), credited with a team-high three special teams tackles.

#3 - K STEPHEN GOSTKOWSKI*6-1, 215, 15th Year, MemphisClick for complete bio

Kicker Stephen Gostkowski (pronounced gost-COW-ski) is in his 15th NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2020. He was signed by the Titans as a free agent on Sept. 3, 2020.

After entering the NFL as a fourth-round pick by the New England Patriots in 2006, he spent the next 14 years with the club, earning four Pro Bowl selections (2008, 2013-15) and three Super Bowl championships (2014, 2016, 2018). He became the franchise's leading scorer with 1,775 career points over 204 games.

In his first 14 seasons, he made 374 of his 428 field goal attempts. At the end of the 2019 season, his 87.4 percent success rate on field goals made him the fifth-most accurate kicker in NFL history.

Gostkowski also scored 205 points in the postseason for the Patriots to rank second in NFL history in playoff scoring.

One of his finest statistical seasons came in 2017, when he scored 156 points, made 37 of 40 field goal attempts and made a career-long 62-yard field goal.

In 2019, he was limited to four games before being placed on injured reserve. He made seven of his eight field goal attempts in his final season in New England.

Gostkowski finished his collegiate career at the University of Memphis ranked 13th in NCAA Division 1-A history with 369 points and ranked 14th with 70 career field goals. He also played baseball at Memphis.

2020 Notes:

➤ At Denver (9/14), made his debut in a Titans uniform on Monday Night Football and connected on the game-winning 25-yard field goal with 17 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter. It was his 10th career game-winning field goal (ninth in the regular season).

➤ Against Jacksonville (9/20), made a 51-yard field goal as time expired in the second quarter and the game-winning 49-yard field goal with 1 minute and 36 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter. He added three extra points on four attempts. He hit a game-winning field goal for the second consecutive week, marking the second time in his career he made a game-winner in back-to-back games (Nov. 24-Dec. 1, 2013). His kick to beat the Jaguars was his 11th career game-winning field goal (10th in the regular season). He became the first kicker since Adam Vinatieri with New England in 1999 to make a game-winning field goal in the final two minutes of regulation in each of his team's first two games of a season.

➤ At Minnesota (9/27), set a career high with six total field goals, including the game-winning field goal from 55 yards with 1 minute and 44 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter. In his 15-year career, he previously made five total field goals on two occasions, most recently against Kansas City on Oct. 14, 2018. In addition to his game-winner, he also connected on field goals of 39 and 31 yards in the first quarter, 30 yards in the second quarter, 51 yards in the third quarter and 54 yards in the fourth quarter. His 55-yard field goal tied for the fourth-longest field goal in franchise history and the second-longest game-winning field goal in team annals behind Rob Bironas' 60-yarder to beat Indianapolis on Dec. 3, 2006. His 54-yarder at Minnesota ranked as the eighth-longest field goal in team annals. He became the second player in franchise history to make at least six field goals in a game. The other is Rob Bironas, who set the team and NFL record with eight field goals at Houston on Oct. 21, 2007. Gostkowski became the first player in franchise history to record game-winning field goals in three consecutive games, as well as the first NFL player since the 1970 merger to kick a game-winning field goal in the final two minutes of regulation in each of his team's first three games of the season. He hit three field goals of at least 50 yards in distance for the first time in his career and was the first NFL player since Baltimore's Justin Tucker on Nov. 27, 2016 (vs. Cincinnati) to accomplish the feat. He extended his streak to a career-best 28 consecutive games with at least one field goal, which tied for the fifth-longest streak in NFL history (Jim Turner, 1970-72; Chip Lohmiller, 1988-90). He tied his career high with 19 total points in the contest. He was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week.

- Named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for September. It was his fifth career AFC Special Teams Player of the Month award.
- Against Buffalo (10/13), made all six extra point attempts.
- Against Houston (10/18), made all four extra point attempts, had a 27-yard field goal blocked, and missed from 37 yards.
- Against Pittsburgh (10/25), made one of two field goal attempts, including a successful field goal from 51 yards. He also made all three extra point attempts.
- At Cincinnati (11/1), made both extra point attempts and missed a field goal from 53 yards.
- Against Chicago (11/8), made his only field goal attempt from 40 yards and hit all three of his extra point attempts.

#6 - P BRETT KERN

6-2, 214, 13th Year, Toledo

Click for complete bio

Punter Brett Kern is in his 13th NFL season and his 11th full campaign with the Titans in 2019. He was claimed off waivers by the Titans during the 2009 season.

During his time in Tennessee, Kern has placed his name at the top of most of the franchise's leaderboards at his position. At the end of the 2019 campaign, he ranked as the team's all-time career leader in gross punting average (45.9 yards), net punting average (40.8) and punts placed inside the 20 (333). He punted 839 times in a Titans uniform from 2009–2019, second all-time for the franchise behind Craig Hentrich's 861 punts. Kern owns the top eight net punting seasons in franchise history and six of the team's top eight gross punting seasons.

In 2019, Kern was named to the Pro Bowl for the third consecutive season, and he earned first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors for the first time in his career. His 37 punts inside the 20 led the NFL, and his 43.1-yard net average ranked second in team history.

At the end of the 2019 campaign, Kern's 170 consecutive games played (regular season) ranked second in team history behind only Bruce Matthews (232). Kern's 170 career games ranked sixth in franchise annals and were the most in the organization's "Titans era" (1999–2019).

In 2018, his 47.1-yard gross average ranked fifth in team history, and his 41.7-yard net average ranked second in team annals. He set a franchise record and recorded a career high with 39 of his 74 punts inside the 20-yard line. He finished the season with a career-long streak of 16 consecutive punts placed inside the 20, including every punt in the final three games of the season.

In 2017, Kern had arguably one of the best seasons by a punter in NFL history and was named to his first career Pro Bowl in addition to earning second-team Associated Press All-Pro honors. He punted 75 times for 3,728 yards with 28 punts placed inside the 20-yard line. His 44.6-yard net average broke his own team record and finished second in NFL history behind only Johnny Hekker's 46.0-yard net average in 2016. Kern's 49.7-yard gross average also broke his team mark and finished eighth in NFL history.

In 2015, Kern continued his annual assault on the team's all-time punting records and accomplished a first-of-its-kind NFL feat, becoming the first punter in league history to record 80 or more punts, a net average of 40 yards, and one or zero touchbacks in a single season. His season totals included 88 punts (tied for fifth place in franchise history), a 47.4-yard gross average (second in franchise history), a 40.3 net average (third in franchise history), a career-high 34 punts inside the 20 (third in franchise history) and only one touchback (career low).

In 2014, Kern launched a career-high 88 total punts for a gross average of 46.8 yards and a net average of 40.8 yards, which broke his own single-season team record (40.4-yard net average in 2012).

Kern produced one of the best punting seasons in team history in 2012. He set then-franchise records with a gross punting average of 47.6 yards and a net punting average of 40.4 yards (he later broke both marks).

Kern was claimed by the Titans off waivers from the Denver Broncos on Oct. 27, 2009. He spent the entire 2008 season and the first six games of 2009 campaign in Denver, totaling 73 punts and a 46.5-yard average in 22 games with the Broncos.

In 2008, Kern ranked fifth in the league with a 46.7-yard punting average that marked the third-best season total by a Bronco in club history. At the time, his punting average was the best in NFL history by a rookie. He was named to the All-Rookie team by Pro Football Weekly/PFWA and The Sporting News.

The Grand Island, N.Y., native was originally signed by the Broncos as a rookie free agent on April 28, 2008, following four seasons at the University of Toledo.

2020 Notes:

➤ At Denver (9/14), punted four times for a 51.0-yard gross average and a 47.0-yard net average with two punts inside the 20, including a long punt of 66 yards to help pin the Broncos inside their 10-yard line in the second quarter. He became the seventh player in franchise history to play in 12 seasons with the organization, joining Bruce Matthews (1983–2001), Elvin Bethea (1968–1983), Brad Hopkins (1993–2005), Gregg Bingham (1973–1983), Mike Munchak (1982–1993) and Craig Hentrich (1998–2009). Kern became the first to accomplish the feat exclusively in the "Titans era"

During his career, Gostkowski has made 86.3 percent of his field goal attempts, a rate that ranks 10th in NFL history.

(1999–present).

- Against Jacksonville (9/20), averaged 40.7 yards on three punts with all three punts placed inside the 20. He pinned the Jaguars on their own six-yard line with a 34-yard punt in the second quarter.
- At Minnesota (9/27), averaged 47.7 yards on three punts (41.0 net) with one punt inside the 20. He tied Gregg Bingham (1973-84) for fifth place on the franchise games played list with his 173rd game.
- Against Buffalo (10/13), passed Gregg Bingham (173 games) for fifth place on the franchise's career games played list by playing in his 174th game with the Titans. He averaged 42.7 yards (43.0 net) on three punts with all three punts placed inside the 20. He helped pin the Bills on their own nine-yard line with a 55-yard punt in the first quarter, and he pinned the Bills on their own three-yard line with a 41-yard punt in the third quarter.
- Against Houston (10/18), recorded only one punt (54 yards) in a game for only the sixth time in his career and for the first time since Nov. 5, 2018 at Dallas.
- Against Pittsburgh (10/25), established a new franchise record and a career high with a gross punting average of 60.5 yards (minimum requirement of four punts). His four punts went, in order, for 63 yards, 59 yards, 61 yards and 59 yards. He eclipsed the old franchise record of 59.2 yards set by Greg Montgomery against Buffalo on Dec. 27, 1992. Kern's net average against Pittsburgh was 39.8 yards with one punt inside the 20. His 60.5-yard gross average ranked third in the NFL since 1970, trailing only Andy Lee's 63.0-yard average for Carolina at Denver on Sept. 8, 2016 and Kansas City's Tommy Townsend against New England on Oct. 5, 2020.
- At Cincinnati (11/1), averaged 36.0 yards (26.0 net) on two punts with one punt inside the 20. He tied Craig Hentrich for fourth place on the franchise's all-time games played list with his 177th game, trailing only Bruce Matthews (296), Elvin Bethea (210) and Brad Hopkins (194).
- Placed on injured reserve (wrist) on Nov. 7.
- Against Chicago (11/8), did not appear in a game for the first time in his career after he was placed on injured reserve the day before the contest. His consecutive games played streak ended at 199 games, including his career with the Titans and Denver Broncos. Prior to the game, he owned the fourth-longest active consecutive games played streak in the NFL behind only Philip Rivers (232), Sam Koch (231) and Mason Crosby (216). His streak with the Titans ended at 177 consecutive games played. It finished as the second-longest streak in franchise history behind Bruce Matthews' 232 consecutive games from 1987 to 2001.

TITANS TIDBITS: THE BEST OF TITANS OFF-THE-FIELD NOTES

P RYAN ALLEN

- Allen won the Super Bowl in 2014, 2016 and 2018, all with New England.
- His cousin, Emily Westerberg, played basketball for Arizona State.
- His uncles, Nick and Tony Westerberg, played football and basketball, respectively, at Oregon State.

WR CAMERON BATSON

- Batson was the valedictorian of his class at Millwood (Okla.) High School, and at Texas Tech, he graduated cum laude with his accounting degree in just over three years. His valedictorian speech – he had 52 in his graduating class – focused on his class, along with his past, and his journey.
- Batson wasn't necessarily expecting to make the team's 53-man roster as a rookie free agent in 2018. So when he walked into general manager Jon Robinson's office during cutdown day, he was expecting the worst. But things took a nice turn, and then something happened even the GM had never experienced before. Robinson told Batson he'd made the team's 53-man roster, and an impromptu prayer broke out. "I sat there and prayed," Batson said, "and Jon bowed his head with me. He said, 'That's the first time anyone had ever done that.' ... I just wanted to give God the glory, with everything that is going on good or bad, because without Him nothing is possible."
- He has a dog named Kookie, and runs an Instagram account for her @ms.kookiemonster.
- Batson was roommates with Kansas City Chiefs quarterback Patrick Mahomes at Texas Tech.

FB/RB KHARI BLASINGAME

- Blasingame enjoys playing the saxophone.
- He originally started his Vanderbilt career at linebacker before transitioning to running back as a sophomore in 2016.
- After his football career, Blasingame's goal is to become the CEO of a hospital or health care system. Once there, he wants to focus on improving health care outcomes for disadvantaged populations.

for better equipment at his alma mater.

WR ADAM HUMPHRIES

- Humphries was originally a rookie tryout invitee with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers following the 2015 NFL Draft. Titans general manager Jon Robinson was a member of the Bucs player personnel department at the time and saw the 5-foot-11-inch wideout grind it out in practice and eventually earn a spot on the team's 53-man roster. "Humph came in as a tryout and won a spot on the 90-man roster," said Robinson. "He was a tough guy to cover all through training camp and he kept working and working. I've always had an affinity for him and liked his style. He's earned everything he's got."
- Clemson head football coach Dabo Swinney took a visit to Humphries' high school, Dorman, before the 2011 season to scout eventual signee Charone Peake during a basketball game. But once the game began, Swinney couldn't help but notice Dorman's 5-foot-11 point guard running the show. "I go watch a basketball game at Dorman High School to see Charone Peake, and I'm going, 'Dang, who's this point guard?'" Swinney said. "And I've got Coach (Dave) Gutshall going, 'Well that's the best football player I've got on the team.' And I'm like, 'Really? We need to watch this guy a little bit.' He played corner, he played receiver, he played running back, he played quarterback. He was the best football player on the team. Adam Humphries was his name. I don't think he had any offers. So we offer the guy, 'Well, we're only offering the guy to get Charone Peake. No, no, no. We want Humphries.'"
- Humphries maintains a friendship with former Clemson teammate DeAndre Hopkins.
- After going down with an injury in the 2019 season, Humphries adopted a shiba inu puppy, Gigi, to keep him company.
- An avid golfer, Humphries is around a 7 handicap.
- During the unique 2020 offseason, Humphries helped pass the time by playing video games. His main purpose was to connect with old friends from high school and college, and former teammates from the Buccaneers. He enjoys Fortnite and Rory McIlroy PGA Tour.

- Jones' brother, Clay, played baseball for the University of Alabama and then was drafted by the Detroit Tigers

DL DAQUAN JONES

- Jones has a reputation as an upbeat, positive influence. "I've always had that positive mindset, even when things weren't as good," he says. "The guys laugh at me sometimes because I'm always smiling ... It's not that I'm happy all the time, but I just feel like in today's world, if you let anything get you down, it will. The smallest thing will turn into the biggest problem if you let it, so I just try my best to keep a positive mindset."
- Jones majored in criminal justice at Penn State and spent a portion of his 2013 summer as an intern observing the Spring Township Police Department near State College.
- Jones entered the Penn State program after being rated the second-best offensive lineman in the nation during his playing days at Johnson City High School. He switched to the other side of the ball and made an immediate impact as a true freshman.
- Jones lists his father, Steve, as the most inspirational person in his life. Steve raised DaQuan as a single father and one of his father's greatest traits is that he works extremely hard in everything he does. Steve works as an executive chef at Cornell University.
- Jones is in the process of launching his own non-profit organization called "Create Your Legacy." In June 2019, he hosted the DaQuan Jones Create Your Legacy Football Camp for more than 100 kids ages 11-18 at Johnson City (N.Y.) High School.
- Jones has four dogs, one of which he named Titan.

TE JONNU SMITH (first name pronounced JAH-new)

- Smith competed in weightlifting, finishing second in the county in the 219-pound weight class in high school at West Port.
- Smith credits his mother, Karen, for his successes. Jonnu's father passed away as a result of a tow truck accident when he was four years old and his mother raised all six children by herself. "My mother is my rock. It was tough, but we always got what we needed—not necessarily what we wanted all the time—but what we needed. She was so strong all the time."
- Smith endured a lot of challenges as a youngster in Philadelphia and after his brother was arrested and one of his friends was killed on the streets, a decision needed to be made. His family didn't have the financial means to just uproot, so for his own safety Jonnu moved in with his mother's sister and brother-in-law, Darla and Mike Kirkland, in Ocala, Fla. He started playing high school football and even though he was far from a touted recruit, he earned a scholarship to Florida International where his play took off.
- Smith's best friend Willie "Quasim" Jefferson tragically died from a gun shot in October 2016. Jonnu gave his son the middle name Quasim in honor of him.

CB TYE SMITH

- In 2018, Smith began hosting the annual "Simple Greatness" youth football clinic at St. Augustine University in his hometown of Raleigh, N.C. Smith says Simple Greatness to him means, "It can't be measured. It means heart, dedication. It's all the intangibles that we as a society overlook because we look so much at things we can measure."
- Smith enjoys volunteering his free time in the community and he helped

- raise money for Habitat for Humanity in 2018 with a bowling event and kids field day activity in his hometown of Raleigh, N.C.
- He has his own website, www.simplegns.com.

TE GEOFF SWAIM

- Two-time member of the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll.
- Brother, Mycal, also attended Butte College and then played safety at Eastern Michigan (2012-13) before signing as a free agent with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers following the 2014 NFL Draft.

QB RYAN TANNEHILL

- Ryan founded the Tannehill's A.C.E.S. (Achieving Community Educations Success) program with wife, Lauren, which consisted of 17 sophomores from American Senior High School and is focused on awarding scholarships to the participating students who strive for good grades and took on an active role in their community by hosting monthly events to reward the students and help them give back to the community.
- Ryan's father, Tim, played wide receiver at Texas Tech from 1985-87.

DL TEAIR TART

- Tart graduated from Florida International in December 2019 with a degree in liberal studies.
- Played offensive and defensive line in high school to help guide his team to its first PIAA 3A title.

S KENNY VACCARO

- Vaccaro traveled to Kenya during the 2016 offseason with former Texas and Saints teammate Alex Okafor and is involved in community and fundraising efforts to construct a school in the region.
- Vaccaro's uncle, A.J. Johnson, played for Washington (1989-94), helping them to Super Bowl XXVI win before spending a season with the San Diego Chargers (1995).
- Vaccaro founded the Kenny Vaccaro Foundation to provide economically challenged students with literacy and education resources so that they can achieve academic excellence, develop confident personal skills, and make positive decisions to avoid high risk behavior.

WR NICK WESTBROOK-IKHINE (pronounced uh-KEEN-UH)

- Westbrook-Ikhine attended Lake Mary (Fla.) High School where he set the program's career, single-season and single-game receiving yardage and touchdowns records.
- He also lettered in lacrosse and track and field in high school, participating in the 300-meter hurdles, long jump and triple jump.
- Graduated with a business marketing degree in December 2019 from Indiana's No. 10 ranked Kelley School of Business.

T ISAIAH WILSON

- Wilson enjoys watching cartoons, and he has a particular fondness for "SpongeBob SquarePants." "I can really dissect it deeply and learn a lot from it," he says.
- Wilson is comfortable working in the kitchen, dishing out everything from French toast to mac and cheese and collard greens to his family. He was employed at a summer camp for three summers in high school, spending much of that time in the camp kitchen.
- One of his rituals is eating an ice cream sundae the night before every game.
- Wilson welcomed the opportunity to begin his career in Music City. He listens to a diverse range of music, listing Travis Scott, Brantley Gilbert, Aretha Franklin and Mötley Crüe as a sampling of his many favorites.
- Prior to being drafted by the Titans, Wilson, a video game enthusiast, would choose the Titans when he played Madden NFL because of Derrick Henry. "You can't stop him," Wilson says.

QB LOGAN WOODSIDE

- In his free time, Woodside enjoys playing golf and fishing in his home state of Kentucky.
- His hometown of Frankfort, Ky., is a three-hour drive from Nashville.
- During the 2019 offseason, Woodside played for the Alliance of American Football League's San Antonio Commanders. In seven AAF games, he completed 116 of 201 passes for 1,385 yards and seven touchdowns.
