TITANS HOST PATRIOTS

SUNDAY ON FOX

Tennessee Titans (1-6) vs. New England Patriots (2-6)

Sunday, Nov. 3, 2024 • Noon CST • Nissan Stadium • Nashville, Tenn. • TV: FOX

NASHVILLE — The Tennessee Titans (1-6) host the New England Patriots (2-6) this week at Nissan Stadium (capacity 69,143). Kickoff is scheduled for noon CST on Sunday, Nov. 3.

The Patriots are scheduled to make their first visit to Nissan Stadium in the regular season since Nov. 11, 2018, a game won by the Titans 34-10. The two clubs have met twice since then at Gillette Stadium, including a 20-13 Titans playoff victory on Jan. 4, 2020. The Patriots also hosted the most recent clash on Nov. 18, 2021, and won by a final score of 36-13.

THE BROADCAST

The contest will be regionally televised on FOX, including Nashville affiliate WZTV FOX 17. The broadcast team includes play-by-play announcer Jason Benetti, analyst Mark Schlereth and reporter Jen Hale.

Fans in Nashville can stream live Titans games on mobile devices with NFL+, which offers access to local games and all primetime games on phones and tablets. Out of market, fans can watch every Sunday afternoon game with Sunday Ticket. More information on ways to watch NFL games can be found at nfl.com/ways-to-watch.

LAST WEEK AT DETROIT

The Titans return to Nissan Stadium to host the Patriots following two consecutive away games and three of their last four contests on the road. Last week they visited Detroit, where they fell by a final score of 52-14.

At Detroit, Titans quarterback Mason Rudolph started his second consecutive game with Will Levis inactive due to a right shoulder injury. Rudolph completed 22 of 38 passes for 266 yards and one touchdown with two interceptions, and he added an 11-yard rushing touchdown. His 266 passing yards ranked fourth in his career.

Rudolph's primary target was wide receiver Calvin Ridley. Ridley's 10 receptions tied his career high, and his 143 receiving yards tied for the third-best total of his career. In the first quarter alone, he had six catches for 118 yards, becoming the Titans' first player with 100 receiving yards in the first quarter since Drew Bennett (124) at Indianapolis on Dec. 5, 2004.

Rudolph's touchdown pass was caught by Nick Westbrook-Ikhine. The five-yard score gave the fifth-year wideout a touchdown grab in three consecutive games.

On defense, the Titans were paced by outside linebacker Arden Key, who recorded a career-high two sacks. Key, who also forced a fumble against the Lions, has three sacks in the past two weeks.

THE PATRIOTS

New England is led by head coach Jerod Mayo, who attended the University of Tennessee from 2004 through 2007. He took over the head coaching duties for the Patriots during the 2024 offseason after playing and coaching under previous head coach Bill Belichick.

Patriots rookie and former North Carolina Tar Heels quarterback Drake Maye was the third-overall draft pick in 2024. He has appeared in four games this season with three starts, passing for 564 yards and five touchdowns with two interceptions.

Last week against the AFC East rival New York Jets, Maye departed during the second quarter due to a concussion. Jacoby Brissett entered in relief and helped the Patriots to a 25-22 victory. Rhamondre Stevenson's one-yard touchdown with 22 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter provided the winning margin.

SERIES HISTORY

The Houston Oilers and Boston Patriots were charter members of the American Football League in 1960. In the league's inaugural season, the Oilers swept both games, winning 24-10 in New England and 37-21 in Houston. The teams met 20 times as part of the AFL (1960-69), with the Patriots earning a 10-9-1 advantage.

Upon the AFL-NFL merger in 1970, the Oilers moved to the AFC Central Division, and the Patriots began play in the AFC East. They officially became the New England Patriots in 1971.

Since 1989, the Patriots and Titans have met 15 times, and all but four of those games were played in New England.

Most recently, the Titans and Patriots played at Gillette Stadium on Nov. 28, 2021. The Titans had two players—Dontrell Hilliard (131) and D'Onta Foreman (109)—exceed 100 rushing yards. However, four Titans turnovers and 310 passing yards by Patriots rookie quarterback Mac Jones helped the Patriots pull away for a 36-13 victory.

The last time the Patriots visited Tennessee was Week 10 of 2018. Marcus Mariota's two touchdown passes and Derrick Henry's two rushing touchdowns helped the Titans to a 34-10 victory. The Titans never trailed in the game against that season's eventual Super Bowl champions.

There have been four total postseason meetings between the organizations. The latest was Jan. 4, 2020, when the Titans traveled to New England for a wild card playoff battle. In what would be quarterback Tom Brady's final game with the Patriots, the Titans won 20-13, as Henry established franchise postseason records with 182 rushing yards and 204 scrimmage yards.

The 2019 game came only two years after a matchup in the 2017 divisional round, when the Titans traveled to face the top-seeded Patriots and fell by a final score of 35-14. Brady passed for 337 yards and three touchdowns, out-dueling Mariota (254 yards, two touchdowns).

In a 2003 AFC divisional playoff at Gillette Stadium, the Titans played what was then the coldest game in franchise history (4 degrees at kickoff) and fell to the Patriots by a final score of 17-14. The game was tied at 14 going into the fourth quarter, but Adam Vinatieri booted a 46-yard field goal with four minutes to play that would prove to be the game-winner. New England advanced and ultimately won Super Bowl XXVIII.

In a 1978 Divisional playoff contest, the Oilers traveled to Schaefer Stadium and advanced to the AFC Championship with a 31-14 win, courtesy of three touchdown passes by Dan Pastorini and 118 rushing yards by Earl Campbell.

MOST RECENT MATCHUPS

2015 Week 15 • Dec. 20, 2015 • Titans 16 at PATRIOTS 33

Marcus Mariota is knocked out of the game in the second quarter with a knee injury, and Zach Mettenberger comes on to complete 20 of 28 passes for 242 yards and two touchdowns ... Tight end Delanie Walker scores two touchdowns ... Tom Brady leads the Patriots with 267 yards and a pair of touchdown passes ... The Patriots produce five sacks and force three turnovers, including a fumble recovery for a touchdown, helping them build a 24-3 lead in the first half.

2017 Divisional Round • Jan. 13, 2018 • Titans 14 at PATRIOTS 35

The Titans' season comes to an end in New England courtesy of a 337-yard, three-touchdown passing performance by Tom Brady ... Marcus Mariota passes for 254 yards with a pair of touchdown passes to rookie receiver Corey Davis (five catches for 63 yards) ... The Titans take a 7-0 lead into the second quarter before the Patriots score 35 consecutive points ... Five different Patriots score touchdowns ... Danny Amendola catches 11 passes for 112 yards for New England ... Mariota is sacked eight times.

2018 Week 10 • Nov. 11, 2018 • Patriots 10 at TITANS 34

The Titans score 17 points in the first quarter and never trail in the contest ... Marcus Mariota passes for 228 yards with touchdown passes to tight end Jonnu Smith and receiver Corey Davis ... Davis totals 125 yards on seven catches ... Derrick Henry rushes for two touchdowns ... The Titans defense shuts out the Patriots in the second half and for the game limits the Patriots to 40 rushing yards on 19 attempts ... The Titans sack Tom Brady three times and hold him to a 70.6 passer rating.

2019 Wild Card Round • Jan. 4, 2020 • TITANS 20 at Patriots 13

The sixth-seeded Titans defeat the third-seeded Patriots, as Derrick Henry rushes for 182 yards and a touchdown on 34 carries ... Henry sets franchise postseason records in rushing yards, rushing attempts and scrimmage yards (204) ... Ryan Tannehill passes for 72 yards, including a 12-yard touchdown to tight end Anthony Firkser ... Cornerback Logan Ryan caps the win with a nine-yard interception return for a touchdown ... Tom Brady and the Patriots offense is shut out by the Titans defense in the second half.

2021 Week 12 • Nov. 28, 2021 • Titans 13 at PATRIOTS 36

The Patriots score the game's final 20 points after leading 16-13 at halftime ... Patriots rookie quarterback Mac Jones passes for 310 yards with a pair of touchdowns to Kendrick Bourne, and Nick Folk connects on five field goals for the Patriots ... The Patriots defense records four takeaways, including three fumble recoveries ... Titans running back Dontrell Hilliard leads the team with 131 rushing yards, including a 68-yard touchdown ... D'Onta Foreman adds 109 rushing yards, as the Titans feature a pair of 100-yard ball carriers in the same game for the first time since 2008.

TITANS-PATRIOTS: THE LAST MEETING

Week 12: Titans 13, Patriots 36
 Sunday, Nov. 28, 2021 • 1:00 p.m. ET • Gillette Stadium

In Week 12 of the 2021 season, the Titans traveled to New England to face the Patriots. Despite Tennessee racking up 270 rushing yards, marking the organization's 10th-highest rushing yardage total in franchise history, and the Titans defense limiting New England to two touchdowns on five total trips inside the red zone, Tennessee fell on the road to the Patriots by a score of 36-13.

New England got on the board in the first quarter on a nine-play scoring drive that began at the Titans' 37-yard line. Patriots QB Mac Jones connected with Patriots WR Kendrick Bourne for a four-yard touchdown and an early 7-0 lead.

In the second quarter, Tennessee constructed a 14-play scoring drive that included first-down receptions by TE MyCole Pruitt, WR Cody Hollister, and two first-down scrambles by QB Ryan Tannehill. Ultimately, Tannehill found WR Nick Westbrook-Ikhine for a one-yard touchdown, but the extra point attempt was no good, 7-6 New England.

Later in the second quarter, Patriots K Nick Folk converted field goals of 22, 37, and 44 yards to make it a 16-6 game. However, Tennessee responded just before the end of the first half, as RB Dontrell Hilliard took a third-down handoff and raced 68 yards into the end zone for a touchdown. Tennessee cut the lead to 16-13 heading into halftime.

In the third quarter, New England tacked on 10 points to increase the lead. First, Folk converted a 28-yard field goal attempt for a 19-13 game. Next, Jones connected with Bourne for a 41-yard touchdown pass and his second score of the day to make it 26-13.

In the fourth quarter, the Patriots added another 10 points to put the game out of reach for Tennessee. Folk converted a 52-yard field goal to increase the lead to 29-13. Next, Tennessee turned the ball over on downs at their own 21-yard line with five and a half minutes remaining in regulation. Patriots RB Damien Harris rushed for seven yards, and then ran for a 14-yard touchdown, as New England sealed a 36-13 victory.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR THIS WEEK

LB JEROME BAKER

- Could make his first appearance in a Titans uniform and record his 100th career regular season game.

S QUANDRE DIGGS

- Enters the game with a streak of 74 consecutive games started. He is tied with Patrick Queen (74 entering Monday, Oct. 28) behind only Kevin Byard (128) and Daron Payne (75) for the NFL's longest active streak among defensive players.
- Needs one interception to join seven other active NFL players to reach 25 for his career. Diggs is tied with Jordan Poyer (24) for the eighth-most interceptions among active players.

K NICK FOLK

- Enters the game with an all-time NFL-record streak of 80 consecutive field goals made on attempts from less than 40 yards.
- With 391 career field goals, he needs two more to surpass Stephen Gostkowski (392) for 16th place in NFL history.
- Enters the game with a streak of 18 consecutive field goals made since Nov. 12, 2023, which is the fifth-longest streak of his career. The franchise record for consecutive field goals made is 20, accomplished on five different occasions, including once by Folk in 2023.

OLB HAROLD LANDRY III

- Enters the game with 45.5 career sacks, which ranks ninth in franchise history. He needs 2.5 sacks to tie Robert Brazile (48.0) for eighth place on the list. Landry owns the third-highest sack total for the team in its "Titans era" (1999–present), trailing only Jevon Kearse (52) and Jurrell Casey (51).

RB TONY POLLARD

- Needs six rushing yards (494 entering the game) to reach the 500-yard rushing mark in the team's first eight games. It would mark the second time in his career doing so (506 rushing yards in 2022).
- Can record his fifth consecutive game with at least 60 rushing yards, which would account for the second-longest such streak of his career (six games in 2022).
- With 100 scrimmage yards, he would record his second consecutive game to reach the mark, and his four such performances in 2024 would match his total from 2023.

WR CALVIN RIDLEY

- Needs 100 receiving yards to reach the mark in consecutive games for the first time since 2020. He would be the first Titans player with back-to-back 100-yard receiving performances since A.J. Brown from Oct. 24-31, 2021.
- A 10-reception (or more) performance would make him the first Titans player with two consecutive 10-catch games since Drew Bennett from Dec. 13-19, 2004.

P RYAN STONEHOUSE

- Can record his 15th consecutive game with at least one punt of 55-plus yards. Currently at 14 games, he holds the NFL's longest such active streak, which is also the longest streak of his career.

TE NICK VANNETT

- Needs one reception to reach 100 for his career.

WR NICK WESTBROOK-IKHINE

- Can record his fourth consecutive game with a touchdown reception. The last Titans player to accomplish the feat was A.J. Brown in 2020 (five consecutive games).
- Needs one touchdown reception to tie his career high for touchdowns in a season (four in 2021).

- With 99 career receptions, he needs one more to become the fourth undrafted player in the franchise's "Titans era" (1999–present) to produce 100 receptions for the team. The group includes wide receivers Nate Washington (307 receptions with the Titans) and Drew Bennett (273) and tight end Anthony Firkser (106). Westbrook-Ikhine and Bennett would be the only members of the group who initially entered the NFL with the Titans.

NOTABLE PERFORMANCES VS. THE PATRIOTS

LB JEROME BAKER

- In 13 career games against the Patriots, Baker has tallied 103 tackles, two sacks and three forced fumbles.
- On 9/13/20 at New England, Baker recorded a career-high 16 tackles. Added one sack and a forced fumble.

K NICK FOLK

- On 10/21/12 at New England, Folk tallied a season-high with 14 points by connecting on all four field goals and two extra points as a member of the Jets. Kicked a season-long 54-yard field goal.
- On 10/20/13 against New England, Folk went a perfect three for three, including the game-winning 42-yard field goal in overtime.

LB KENNETH MURRAY JR.

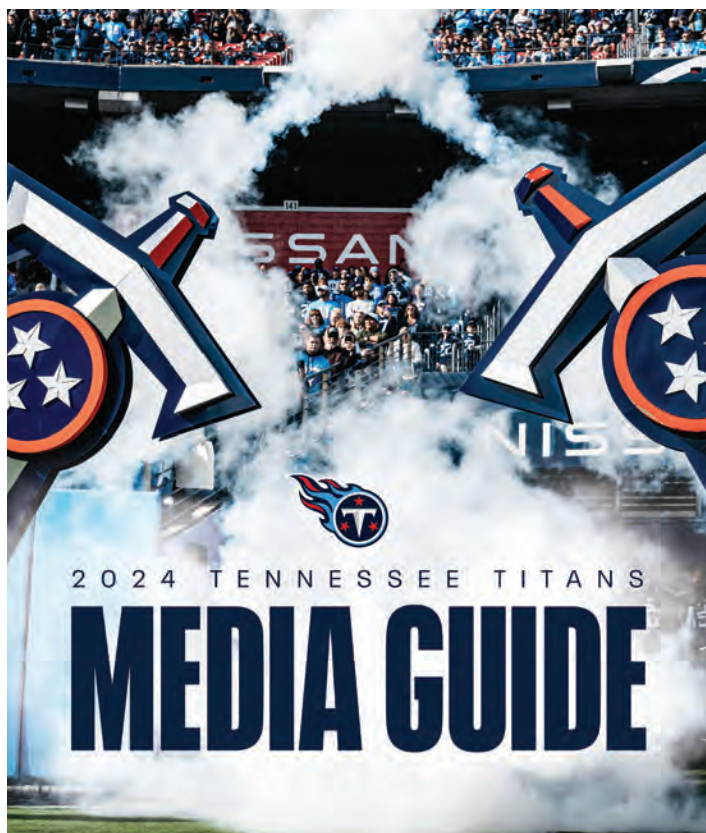

- On 12/6/20 against New England, Murray recorded a career-high 14 tackles, including two for a loss, as a member of the Chargers. Recorded the first sack of his career when he dropped Cam Newton for a four-yard loss.

CB L'JARIUS SNEED

- On 12/17/23 at New England, Sneed tied his career-high with nine tackles in the win for the Chiefs. Added two tackles for loss and two passes defensed.

WR NICK WESTBROOK-IKHINE

- On 11/28/21 at New England, Westbrook-Ikhine started at wide receiver and tied for the team lead with two receptions for a team-high 25 yards with a touchdown.

Jerod Mayo was named the 15th head coach in Patriots history in January 2024, assuming the mantle after the team and former head coach Bill Belichick parted ways after 24 seasons. Mayo had spent the previous six seasons serving on the Patriots' staff following eight seasons in New England as a player.

Mayo was drafted by the Patriots in the first round (10th overall) of the 2008 NFL Draft. The linebacker would spend his entire playing career in Foxborough, totaling 800 tackles, 30 tackles for loss, 11 sacks, 19 passes defended and three interceptions in 103 career games. He was named a team captain for seven consecutive seasons from 2009 through his final season in 2015. A two-time Pro Bowler (2010, 2012), Mayo was named AP Defensive Rookie of the Year in 2008, first-team AP All-Pro in 2010 and helped New England secure their fourth Super Bowl title to end the 2014 season.

After a stint as an executive in finance following his retirement in 2015, Mayo returned to the Patriots as inside linebackers coach in 2019 under Belichick. In his five seasons as a coach, New England's defense has been consistently stout, finishing in the top-10 in total defense four times.

In 2019, his first season coaching, inside linebacker Dont'a Hightower earned his second Pro Bowl berth and the Patriots finished ranked top in the league in total defense. Mayo gained the title of linebackers coach prior to the 2022 season.

In 2022, linebacker Matthew Judon reached career marks with 15.5 sacks, earning his fourth-straight Pro Bowl berth and his second since joining the Patriots in 2021. Mayo also helped the development of 2020 second-round pick Joshua Uche, who racked up 11.5 sacks in 2022.

In 2023, the Patriots boasted the league's seventh-ranked total defense. Mayo's linebackers were a part of a run defense that allowed a league-low 3.3 yards per carry, the lowest figure for the team since the 1970 merger.

Mayo's football life includes four seasons in Knoxville, where he played at the University of Tennessee from 2004-07. In 32 games, he recorded 236 tackles, 6.5 sacks and an interception. Mayo was a consensus All-Southeastern Conference first-team selection and an All-American second-team choice as a senior in 2007.

Mayo is a native of Hampton, Va.

TITANS-PATRIOTS CONNECTIONS

TEAM AND LOCAL CONNECTIONS

FORMER TITANS

- Patriots tight end Austin Hooper played one season with the Titans in 2022. In 17 games, Hooper recorded 41 receptions, 444 yards and two touchdowns.
- Patriots assistant special teams coach Tom Quinn spent one season with the Titans in 2023, serving in the same role. Prior to Week 14 of the season, Quinn was named interim special teams coordinator for the remainder of the year.

FORMER PATRIOTS

- Titans kicker Nick Folk played four seasons with the Patriots from 2019-22. In 50 games, Folk went 94-for-104 on field goal attempts. He set the Patriots' franchise record with 36 consecutive field goals made.
- Titans quarterbacks coach Bo Hardegree spent a season as quality control/quarterbacks coach with the Patriots in 2021.

TITANS WITH NEW ENGLAND AREA CONNECTIONS

- Titans running back Julius Chestnut played four seasons (2018-21) at Sacred Heart University in Fairfield, Conn. Chestnut logged 593 carries for 3,467 yards with 29 touchdowns in 33 games for the Pioneers. Added 28 receptions for 412 yards and five scores.
- Titans outside linebacker Harold Landry III played at Boston College from 2014-17. In 2016, Landry III set the single-season record for sacks with 16.5. He ranked second on the Eagles all-time sack list (26) and in tackles for loss in a career (47.5) and in a single season (22).
- Titans quarterback Will Levis was born in Newton, Mass., and was a three-year letter winner at Xavier (Middletown, Conn.) High School. Levis earned second-team Walter Camp All-Connecticut honors after breaking Xavier's single-season passing yards (2,793) and passing touchdowns (27) record.
- Titans outside linebackers coach Ben Bloom is a native of Wellesley, Mass., and was a three-year letter winner in four seasons (2001-04) at Tufts University as an offensive lineman. Bloom began his coaching career in 2005 as a defensive line/graduate assistant coach at his alma mater following his playing career. He then spent a season at Harvard as assistant defensive line coach in 2008.
- Titans general manager/executive vice president Ran Carthon's father, Maurice, coached for the Patriots from 1994-96.

PATRIOTS WITH TENNESSEE AREA CONNECTIONS

- Patriots head coach Jerod Mayo played at the University of Tennessee from 2005-07. Mayo started 26 games at Tennessee and recorded 236 tackles (137 solo), 6.5 sacks, and 21 tackles for loss for the Volunteers.
- Patriots running back Antonio Gibson attended the University of Memphis for his final two seasons as a college player. In 28 games at Memphis, Gibson recorded 33 carries for 369 yards and four rushing touchdowns and 44 receptions for 834 yards and 10 receiving touchdowns.
- Patriots quarterback Joe Milton played three seasons (2021-23) at the University of Tennessee. In 29 games at Tennessee, Milton had 16 starts and registered 4,159 passing yards and 32 touchdowns.
- Patriots defensive coordinator Demarcus Covington served as defensive line coach at Tennessee-Martin in 2015.
- Patriots inside linebackers coach Dont'a Hightower is a native of Lewisburg, Tenn., where he won the Titans' Class 3A Mr. Football award and The Tennessean's Defensive Player of the Year award at Marshall County (Lewisburg) High School as a prep player.
- Patriots defensive coaching assistant Keith Jones Jr. played five seasons (2012-16) as a defensive lineman at Tennessee-Martin.
- Patriots defensive coaching assistant Jamael Lett began his coaching career at Brainerd (Chattanooga, Tenn.) High School as defensive coordinator. Lett's first collegiate coaching job was at Tennessee-Martin, spending a season as a defensive assistant in 2015. He also earned his master's degree in curriculum and instruction from Tennessee Tech in 2012.
- Patriots safety Dell Pettus was born in Huntsville, Ala., and attended Sparkman High School (Harvest, Ala.), where he was rated as one of the 50 best high school players in Alabama by 247Sports as a recruit.

FAMILY FRIENDS

Titans quarterback Mason Rudolph has a strong connection to Patriots quarterback Drake Maye. Rudolph's father, Brett, and Maye's father, Mark, were college teammates at North Carolina in the mid-1980s. The two fathers have stayed close since their playing days and their children grew up together. The two families often vacationed together during Mason and Drake's childhood. The connection grew stronger when the Rudolphs moved to Rock Hill, S.C., while Mason was in middle school, a 45-minute drive from the Mayes' home in Huntersville, N.C. The boys went to each other's basketball and football games and remain friends today.

LAST WEEK VS. THE LIONS

Week 8: Titans 14, Lions 52
 Sunday, Oct. 27, 2024 • 1:00 p.m. EDT • Ford Field

In Week 8 of the 2024 season, the Titans traveled to Detroit and lost by a score of 52-14. The Titans defense forced a punt on the Lions first possession, but four plays later QB Mason Rudolph was intercepted by LB Trevor Nowaske at the Titans own 31-yard line. RB David Montgomery found the end zone two plays later on a seven-yard run to give the Lions an early 7-0 lead with 10:31 left in the first.

Tennessee responded later in the first quarter with a four-play, 75-yard touchdown drive. Rudolph connected on a pair of big plays as he found TE Josh Whyte for a 33-yard gain and WR Calvin Ridley for 26 yards before capping it off with an 11-yard rushing touchdown to tie the game 7-7 with 4:07 left in the quarter. It was Rudolph's first career rushing touchdown.

Detroit answered on the next play from scrimmage with a 70-yard touchdown run by RB Jahmyr Gibbs to retake a 14-7 lead.

The Titans then scored less than a minute into the second quarter, on a five-yard touchdown pass from Rudolph to WR Nick Westbrook-Ikhine, which capped off a seven-play, 70-yard drive that included four receptions for 79 yards by Ridley.

The Lions scored 38 unanswered points from there to close out the game. Following a 75-yard kickoff return by CB Khalil Dorsey, the Lions surged back ahead 21-14 on a nine-yard touchdown pass from QB Jared Goff to TE Brock Wright.

Rudolph was intercepted by S Kerby Joseph on the next play to give the Lions the ball at the Tennessee 12-yard line. Goff found WR Amon-Ra St. Brown on a one-yard touchdown pass four plays later to give Detroit a 28-14 lead with 11:37 left in the half.

A 64-yard punt return by WR Kalif Raymond set up another Lions score, this one a three-yard pass from Montgomery to TE Sam LaPorta to mkae it 35-14 with 2:18 left in the half.

Titans had a chance to cut the lead at the end of the first half, facing first-and-goal at the Detroit one-yard line, but were unable to capitalize after four consecutive incompletions ended the drive and the half.

The Lions made it 42-14 early in the third quarter on a 90-yard punt return for a touchdown by Raymond.

Later in the third, after a lost Ridley fumble put the Lions at the Titans 26-yard line, Goff found Raymond for a seven-yard touchdown completion to make it 49-14 with 6:12 left in the third quarter.

A 51-yard field goal by K Jake Bates closed out the scoring at 52-14 to drop the Titans to 1-6 on the season.

NOTES FROM LAST WEEK'S GAME

TEAM NOTES – OFFENSE

- The Titans' 416 total net yards (158 rushing and 258 passing) at Detroit were the most by the offense since a 420-yard performance against Houston on Nov. 21, 2021.
- The Titans' 158 rushing yards were their most since they had 175 rushing yards against Jacksonville on Jan. 7, 2024.
- The Titans' 258 net passing yards were their most since they had 320 net passing yards at Miami on Dec. 11, 2023.
- The offense's 23 total first downs (nine rushing, 12 passing, two by penalties) at Detroit were the most by the Titans since recording 23 first downs against Seattle on Dec. 24, 2023.
- The Titans offense recorded 285 total yards in the first half, posting their highest total in the first half of a game since Nov. 29, 2020 at Indianapolis (346).
- The Titans offense totaled 212 net passing yards in the first half, which was the unit's highest number since a 212-yard passing performance in the first half against Kansas City on Oct. 24, 2021.
- The Titans controlled the ball for 35 minutes and 37 seconds, which was their best number of the season. They won the time-of-possession battle for the fifth time in seven games in 2024.

TEAM NOTES – DEFENSE

- The Titans defense totaled four sacks in the contest, which was the unit's best total since a four-sack performance against Houston on Dec. 17, 2023.
- The Titans defense combined for seven tackles for loss, registering the third game in 2024 in which they had at least that many.
- For the second consecutive week and for the third time in 2024, the Titans defense opened the game by forcing a three-and-out against the opposing offense. The defense had three total three-and-outs at Detroit.
- The Titans defense and outside linebacker Arden Key recorded a sack on the first play of the game. It was the first time since Dec. 12, 2021 against Jacksonville that the defense's first play resulted in a sack.
- The Titans defense registered sacks on consecutive plays in the first quarter. It was the team's first time notching sacks on back-to-back plays since Dec. 17, 2023 against Houston.

CB DARRELL BAKER JR.

- Started for the second consecutive week and totaled one tackle and one pass defended.

RB JULIUS CHESTNUT

- Established career highs with seven rushing attempts and 32 rushing yards.

S QUANDRE DIGGS

- Recorded his 74th consecutive start. He entered the week trailing only Kevin Byard (127), Patrick Queen (74) and Daron Payne (74) for the NFL's longest active streak among defensive players.
- Ranked second on the defense with seven tackles.

LB JACK GIBBENS

- Started and led the defense with eight tackles.
- Logged his seventh career game with eight or more tackles.

LB LUKE GIFFORD

- Posted a team-high two special teams tackles to lead the team for the second consecutive week.

WR JHA'QUAN JACKSON

- Returned three punts for 24 total yards and added a 29-yard kickoff return.

OLB ARDEN KEY

- Led the team and set a career high with two sacks, including a strip-sack.
- Also set a career high and tied for third on the squad with six tackles.
- On the first play of the game, he sacked Jared Goff for a seven-yard loss. Later in the first quarter, he recorded another sack along with a forced fumble on the play. It was his third career strip-sack and his third career forced fumble.
- Increased his season total to three sacks and his career total to 23 sacks.
- Recorded at least one sack for the second consecutive game. It marked his first such back-to-back performances since 2022.

CB ROGER McCREARY

- Totaled three tackles, one sack and two tackles for loss.
- Credited with a 13-yard sack of Jared Goff in the first quarter. It was his first sack of the season and his third career sack.

TE CHIG OKONKWO

- Totaled 14 yards on two receptions, including an 18-yard catch in the third quarter.

RB TONY POLLARD

- Totaled 94 rushing yards on 20 attempts and added three receptions for 23 yards.
- Totaled 117 scrimmage yards, reaching 100 scrimmage yards in a game for the 19th time in his career. His 117 scrimmage yards amounted to the ninth-best total of his career.
- Reached the 20-carry mark for the sixth time in his career.
- Rushed for a 17-yard gain on an attempt in the first quarter.
- Logged his fourth consecutive game with at least 60 rushing yards, which matched the second-longest such streak of his career (six games in 2022; four games in 2021).

WR CALVIN RIDLEY

- Led the team with 10 receptions for 143 yards.
- His 10 receptions tied his career high (Dec. 20, 2020 vs. Tampa Bay), and his 143 receiving yards tied for the third-best total of his career.
- Became the first Titans player with 10 receptions in a game since A.J. Brown (11) against San Francisco on Dec. 23, 2021.
- His 143 yards were the most by a Titans player since A.J. Brown's 145 yards against San Francisco on Dec. 23, 2021. Ridley became the first Titans player with 100 receiving yards since DeAndre Hopkins (124) at Miami on Dec. 11, 2023.
- Became the only Titans/Oilers player with six or more receptions in the first quarter of a game since at least 1978. The last time a Titans player had six-plus catches in any single quarter was Nate Washington (six receptions) in the fourth quarter at Buffalo on Oct. 21, 2012.
- Went over the 100-yard receiving mark in the first quarter (118 yards). He became the first Titans player to do so since Drew Bennett (124) at Indianapolis on Dec. 5, 2004. Ridley became the NFL's second player in 2024 to accomplish the feat, joining Arizona's Marvin Harrison Jr. (Sept. 15 vs. L.A. Rams).
- In the first quarter, he helped set up a touchdown with a 26-yard catch, and later in the first quarter, he caught a 47-yard pass from Mason Rudolph.

QB MASON RUDOLPH

- Started for the second consecutive week and completed 22 of 38 passes for 266 yards and one touchdown with two interceptions. His 266 passing yards in a game ranked fourth in his career.
- Added 29 rushing yards and a touchdown on four rushing attempts.
- Found Josh Whyle for a 33-yard completion in the first quarter. Later on the same drive, he completed a 26-yard pass to Calvin Ridley and then rushed for an 11-yard score. It was his first career rushing touchdown.

NOTES FROM LAST WEEK'S GAME

- Completed a 47-yard pass to Calvin Ridley in the first quarter.

DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

- Totaled four tackles, one sack, two tackles for loss and one forced fumble.
- Recorded a strip-sack in the third quarter, taking down Jared Goff and registering a forced fumble on the play (recovered by the Lions). It was his second sack of the season, which also gave him 28.5 career sacks. He notched his third career strip-sack and his fourth career forced fumble.

P RYAN STONEHOUSE

- Averaged 49.3 yards (17.7 net) on six punts with two punts placed inside the 20.
- Recorded his 14th consecutive game with at least one punt of 55-plus yards. He holds the NFL's longest such active streak, which is also the longest streak of his career.

WR NICK WESTBROOK-IKHINE

- Totaled 39 yards and a touchdown on a pair of receptions.
- Caught a five-yard touchdown pass from Mason Rudolph in the second quarter, and later in the second quarter, he added a 34-yard grab.
- Extended his career-long streak to three consecutive games with a touchdown reception, becoming the first Titans player to do so since A.J. Brown in 2020 (five consecutive games).
- Increased his season total to three touchdown receptions, and improved his career total to 13 touchdown catches.
- Registered his fourth consecutive season with three or more touchdown receptions.

TE JOSH WHYLE

- Totaled two receptions for 33 yards.
- Recorded a career-long 33-yard catch in the first quarter.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

SUNDAY, OCT. 27, 2024

HEAD COACH BRIAN CALLAHAN

Alright, no injuries to report, nobody really left the game and didn't return, so there's nothing to report there. This is how you get beat by really good football team at their place. Turn the ball over four times, you don't take it away once, you give up an unbelievable amount of return yardage in the return game, both in kickoff and punt, put our defense in short fields, and they scored five touchdowns on all five possessions they were down in there. We allowed too many explosive plays, and we have too many penalties in the first half for sure. The positives of it are they only had one touchdown when they started in their own territory, but they started way too often in ours. Our defense played well enough, but again, the short field didn't come up with any stops, and found ways to let them score touchdowns. Other than the turnovers, I thought our offense moved the ball, especially in the first half, against good defense. We put – it was a 14-14 game at one point and thought we had a good rhythm going, and we had a chance to keep the game tight, and we are playing good football, and then that's how the game gets away from you against good football team. You give up a punt return for a touchdown, you give up a long kickoff to give the defense another short field, and then you ultimately turn the ball over four times, and at some point we're going to stop doing that, and we are going to play competitive football game, but until then, that's what they look like when you turn it over like that and don't get any turnovers in return. So, it's just not good enough anywhere, and again, you play a good team on the road that's built to capitalize on mistakes and make you pay for them, they did, and that's where we're at.

On what he says to the fans to give them hope after seeing a performance like the one today

Look, I'm not really in the business of trying to provide all that right now, we're just trying to play better football. And that's my focus, putting guys out there that – we fight, our team plays hard, but we've got to do a lot of things a lot better, and right now, it's not a product that people are excited to watch, and that's the way it is. We've got to do something about that.

On what Titans Special Teams Coordinator Colt Anderson has done to suggest he is not in over his head

Yeah, I'm not going to get into all that. Obviously, we haven't playing well enough on special teams, but that's a little bit too much for after a game. But look, I think Colt's (Anderson) a good football coach, we haven't played well enough, we haven't coached well enough, so there's really nothing else to say about that.

On what he is seeing with Tennessee's defensive struggles:

I mean, I see a lot of – we don't get down and cover, we missed tackles today, we're devoting resources to protect because that wasn't good enough early. We've protected and settled down, but then we haven't covered very well. There's blame to go around in all of it, both schematically and in performance, so we'll take a look at that when we get back on the film, but right now, none of it's good enough anywhere.

On if at some point he needs to consider major changes to not be 1-6 anymore:

I'll deal with that on my own when we get back to the building if that's something that we have to do, but at this point, I'm not in that mode.

On the defense leaving Lions players alone in the end zone on their touchdowns

Well, I'm not saying it was good enough, trust me, I'm just saying that they got put in some really tough spots, and when they weren't in those tough spots, they did some really good things. They put us in position early in the game for it to be a ball game. Obviously, we had some lapses in coverage and assignments at those spots in the red zone. Again, when you go five-for-five in the red zone, that means we're not playing the brand of football that's going to win a game for us. So, at the end of the day, that's – we have to be better there too.

On if the play calls when they were at the goal line in the second quarter were because they had success in previous games with those calls

No. All of the situations are independent, but they had their base defense and it reversed our sub-personnel, so I didn't want to get into a spot where we had to sub people in and get heavy and sub people. There's only so much time left and getting all of those things off with enough shots at the end zone, so that's ultimately what happened. You could have potentially run the ball there at some point, but they had a heavy personnel, their base defense against our sub, and I thought our advantage was the one-on-ones and we had opportunities.

On having one timeout in the second quarter when at the goal line and not using it

We had one. Yeah, we had one. And so, again, you can look back on it and second-guess it all you want. At the end of the day, I thought our best chance to get the ball in the end zone was to play our one-on-one game outside with those guys. We had some pick routes, we had some things available to us that I felt good about.

On if there was a mandate from Amy Adams Strunk that special teams be a priority for him this season

I mean yeah, I certainly don't want special teams to be an issue and I certainly wasn't anticipating any issues. We've had a lot of them though. So, yeah there's been no mandates or anything of that sort. We just have to play better on special teams for sure. There's a lot of things that aren't good enough right now.

On his overall expectation for the team's performance today

The same thing. Look, we have not come anywhere close to playing the football that I think we're capable of, and when you turn the ball over the way we turn it over, four turnovers is, I mean you're going to get blown out by every team in the league [if] you turn the ball over four times. And then we don't capture any of the ball at all, and we just don't complement each other at all. I mean, right now our special teams gives up yards, defense doesn't get a stop, we don't do anything on offense, we turn it over. So, it's just everything needs to be better, and so, that's all there is to it. You've got to look at it and find a way to get those things corrected, and until we do it's going to be hard.

On what he saw that he believed frustrated his team about Lions Defensive Coordinator Aaron Glenn's scheme down the stretch

I mean, we moved the ball pretty well, we just turned it over, you know. We turn a ball over on an interception in plus territory, fumble it two more times in plus territory. I wouldn't say anything that they did was outside of what was expected. They do a good job, it's a good defense, (Lions Defensive Coordinator) Aaron's (Glenn) a good coach, but I thought we hit spots, moved the ball well enough, and then again it got out of hand, and we didn't convert on third down on top of it. So, sort of the same list of issues.

On if it is surprising that a lot of the issues have not been corrected yet, especially the turnovers

Yeah, I mean that's why we're 1-6. It's not for lack of intention, it's not for lack of coaching it, we've just got to do a better job of doing it. That's kind of where we're at, and we'll keep hammering it, we'll keep coaching it, and we've got to find a way at some point to not do it. That's really what it comes down to.

On if he thinks the pieces exist on his roster for the team to play the kind of football he expects

Yeah, I absolutely do. I've believed that from the get-go. We've got to stop losing games. We're losing ourselves games. We're not putting ourselves in position to win. We don't play clean enough brand right now to put us in spots to be in the competitive games, and look, we've had some games that we had chances to win, we were in, and so yeah, there's things that I believe about our roster. I believe in the way our guys play and they work, but we've got to do a better job playing football, and a better job coaching it, at the end of the day, because 1-6 is what we are. We've played some teams that I think are really good, and we haven't performed well against the really good teams that we've faced, and I think we're capable of playing much better than we are, and we've got to keep finding a way to get that done.

On whether players feel that they are held accountable for a unit underperforming instead of the coach

Yeah, I mean, I think, they all, we all just start with ourselves first, and if we're not playing well enough, 'What can I do better as a player? Where are we able to make an improvement to do something better than we've done it?' Trust me, all these guys, we're all held accountable. There's nothing that's not being accounted for, so we have to do a good job of taking that accountability to the field and performing on game day – coaching and playing.

On how frustrating it was to outgain the opponent by a wide margin and still lose

Yeah, incredibly frustrating. It's, again, I thought we did some good things early in the game, we came out hot, we started fast, just like we hoped to, and ultimately don't have much to show for it. Yeah, that's really frustrating.

QUARTERBACK MASON RUDOLPH

On Tennessee outgaining Detroit by nearly double but turning the ball over four times

Yeah, unfortunately it's the same story of just giving them some easy ones. Once again putting our defense on a short field a couple of times there in the first quarter, first half. I've got to protect the ball better, put our defense in a better situation. But I think there were some good things in the first half that we did. We moved the ball, possessed the ball, but none of it matters when you get your butt kicked, so all good.

On a breakdown of his interceptions

Yeah, the first one, was trying to check it down and kind of got hit as I threw and the ball just moved on me, and then the second, that was a great play by the safety, just robbing the over route. At the time I threw it he was still in the position to cover the deep shot, and he cut the crosser well. It was a good play.

On if he threw the ball late on his second interception

I really don't think so. I have to get back and watch the tape, but maybe a hair. But I think, if anything, I'm waiting a second longer and launching it up to Nick Westbrook-(Ikhine), who got behind the safety as he was driving. I think just the way that the action of the fake took, I thought – maybe a hitch sooner. I'll have to watch it.

On why there seems to be a disconnect between the progress being made in practice and the performance in the game

Yeah, I think there's days where, in practice, I think we're doing a good job individually, offense, defense, special teams, but then we put it all together and I put the defense on a short field twice and then there's other issues on other parts of the ball and we're not all clicking together. And so, just got to keep going back to work and figuring it out.

On Tennessee keeping up with Detroit in the first two quarters until they tied the game at 14

Yeah, I think the first pick I threw, I thought I bounced back well, we kept moving the ball, went right back down the field, tied it up 7-7 and then they go up 14-7 on either a punt return or a long run and so – but then we tied it again there and so, yeah, there's some fight. Guys definitely are fighting back, and I was proud of the way we moved the ball, but not enough.

On their four plays on the goal line before halftime and not being able to score

Yeah, it's – first play, I've got to give Nick Westbrook(Ikhine) a better chance. I put a little too much on it and it sailed out of bounds – and then I think maybe I take a little bit off of it, maybe it was a little hot for Tyler (Boyd) there as we spread it left. And then the last play, Calvin (Ridley) got pushed out of bounds, which I thought there might have been some holding there, but that was an unfortunate series-end.

On not being able to get points in a two-for-one scenario

Yeah, I mean, to have moved the ball so well down the field, Nick Westbrook-(Ikhine) makes a big catch there one-on-one, and then to not get the seven, yeah, it's deflating, but you've still got a half of play and you've got to put it behind you.

On his connection with Titans WR Calvin Ridley and if he noticed him doing anything differently in practice

Yeah, I noticed that he came to work every day with a great attitude and catching as many balls as he could and he was hungry and you could tell that he wanted to bounce back, and we all did. And so, I was happy with – we were clicking man. He can take the top off a defense and then they start to adjust and play more zone when they're up by a couple scores because they can't play man, there's no reason to. But I was happy to see him move the chains for us.

On how much a player like Calvin Ridley working hard in practice can spread to the rest of the team

Yeah, it's a great lesson for the younger guys. A rookie like Jha'Quan (Jackson) who can see that work ethic and see it pay off, and we need more of that. But I've seen guys go the opposite way, when they have a bad game, they can tank or they can act like they don't care, and he did the exact opposite. He is a first-class professional.

On if the trades that Tennessee made weighed on the team

Not a lot. I think, human nature, it was a distraction for an hour or two on Wednesday and then you move on. I've been on teams that are 10-0 and you're trading people, and so it's normal NFL business.

On what they can do to stop the bleeding in a game like this and change the result and attitude

Yeah, it only takes a play here or there to – we played two darn good teams on the road, man, and when you're giving the ball up, that's just a – even if you don't turn it over, those are still hard games to win. So, we shot ourselves in the foot but there's a lot of football ahead and all it takes is to get a W at home and get some momentum swinging.

On if he expects to go back to the normal week of a backup quarterback where he will not know if he will play or not

I'm not sure. I'm going to watch the tape and see how we can correct and make our team better, but that's out of my hands.

2024 TITANS SCHEDULE NOTES

SEASON NOTES

- PLAYOFF OPPONENTS: The Titans have six total games against five playoff teams from last season. They have home games against Green Bay and Houston and road contests at Miami, Buffalo, Detroit and Houston. Four of those six games are against 2023 division winners: Houston twice (AFC South), Buffalo (AFC East) and Detroit (NFC North). The six games against reigning playoff clubs are the fewest for the Titans since they had five such games entering the 2020 campaign.
- TV BREAKDOWN: Excluding their Week 18 matchup with the Texans, which has yet to be assigned a broadcasting network, the Titans are currently scheduled for nine contests on CBS, six games on FOX, and one game on ESPN. Due to the NFL's flex scheduling, some contests could be moved to a different network from the one appearing on the initial schedule.
- TIME (ZONE) TRAVEL: Besides a trip to Los Angeles to face the Chargers in Week 10, the Titans stay in either the central time zone (10 games) or eastern time zone (six) for the duration of 2024, including the preseason. Other than Los Angeles, the farthest west they travel is Houston.
- HIGH NOON: During the regular season, 14 of the Titans' 16 games prior to Week 18 are scheduled for Sundays at noon CT.
- FIRST-YEAR COACHES: Brian Callahan is one of eight NFL head coaches in their first season with their current team. He and the Titans face three of the others, all within a five-week span: Jerod Mayo's New England Patriots, Jim Harbaugh's Los Angeles Chargers, and Dan Quinn's Washington Commanders. Additionally, the Titans go against the Seattle Seahawks and new head coach Mike Macdonald in the second week of the preseason.
- QUARTERBACKS 1-2-3: The 2024 NFL Draft featured quarterbacks in the top three selections, beginning with Caleb Williams going first to Chicago, followed by Jayden Daniels to Washington and Drake Maye to New England. The Titans face each of those teams this season, in addition to the Minnesota Vikings, who drafted J.J. McCarthy with the 11th overall selection.
- DIVISIONAL WAITING GAMES: The Titans must wait until Week 6 against Indianapolis to play their first AFC South matchup of 2024. It is their longest wait for a divisional game since 2010 (Week 6 at Jacksonville). However, the Titans conclude 2024 with divisional games in five of the final seven weeks, including three consecutive division battles to conclude the schedule.
- THREE GAMES BASED UPON 2023 FINISH: Every NFL team has two intraconference games and one interconference matchup based on the previous year's standings. As a result of the Titans' fourth-place finish in 2023, they host the AFC North's fourth-place Bengals, and they visit the fourth-place Chargers from the AFC West and the Washington Commanders from the NFC East. Overall, the Titans' strength of schedule is .491 (142-147) based upon their opponents' combined 2023 record, which is tied for the 21st most difficult schedule out of 32 NFL teams.
- FACING TOP OFFENSES AND DEFENSES: The Titans face four of the NFL's top 10 offenses from last season: Miami (No. 1 overall offense), Buffalo (No. 4), Detroit (No. 3) and Minnesota (No. 10). They also contend with four of the top 10 defenses from 2023: the New York Jets (No. 3 overall defense), Miami (No. 10), Buffalo (No. 9) and New England (No. 7).

WEEK-BY-WEEK NOTES

- WEEK 9 vs. NEW ENGLAND: Led by new head coach Jerod Mayo, who attended the University of Tennessee from 2004 through 2007, the Patriots make their first visit to Nissan Stadium in the regular season since Nov. 11, 2018, a game won by the Titans 34-10 ... Mayo takes over the reins in New England after playing and coaching under previous head coach Bill Belichick ... Patriots rookie and former North Carolina Tar Heels quarterback Drake Maye was the third-overall draft pick in 2024 ... Titans quarterback and Madison, Conn., native Will Levis could make his first career appearance against the Patriots.
- WEEK 10 at LOS ANGELES CHARGERS: The Titans and Chargers meet for the third consecutive season ... In their only previous encounter at SoFi Stadium, the Chargers defeated the Titans 17-14 on Dec. 18, 2022 ... Most recently, Tennessee won 27-24 in overtime at Nissan Stadium on Sept. 17, 2023 ... Head coach Jim Harbaugh is in his first season with the Chargers after leading the University of Michigan to a national title in 2023. Harbaugh was the head coach of the San Francisco 49ers from 2011 to 2014 prior to coaching at Michigan. His father, Jack Harbaugh, was the head coach at Western Kentucky University from 1989 to 2002 ... The Titans look for their first road victory against the Chargers since 1990.
- WEEK 11 vs. MINNESOTA: The Vikings are scheduled to make their third all-time appearance at Nissan Stadium and their first since 2016 ... The most recent Titans-Vikings matchup in the regular season was at Minnesota on Sept. 27, 2020. Then-rookie Vikings wide receiver Justin Jefferson recorded his first career start, touchdown and 100-yard game, but the Titans won 31-30 ... In the 2024 NFL Draft, the Vikings selected Michigan quarterback J.J. McCarthy with the 11th overall pick.
- WEEKS 12 & 18 vs. HOUSTON: The Texans and Titans collectively feature a pair of top quarterbacks from the 2023 rookie class: C.J. Stroud (first round, second overall) and Will Levis (second round, 33rd overall), respectively ... Stroud won the 2023 AP Offensive Rookie of the Year Award, and his teammate, defensive end Will Anderson, was named the AP Defensive Rookie of the Year ... During the 2024 offseason, the Texans signed former Titans defensive end Denico Autry and linebacker Azeez Al-Shaair as unrestricted free agents ... The Titans, who lead the all-time series 23-21 heading into 2024, look to end the Texans' three-game winning streak in the rivalry ... Week 18 marks the fourth time in a six-year span the two rivals conclude the regular season against each other.

2024 TITANS SCHEDULE NOTES

- WEEK 13 at WASHINGTON COMMANDERS: The Titans and Commanders clash in 2024 as a result of their respective divisional finishes in 2023 ... The Titans have won the past two contests in the series, including most recently a 21-17 victory at Washington on Oct. 9, 2022 ... During the 2024 offseason, the Commanders hired a new general manager, Adam Peters, and a new head coach, Dan Quinn ... Peters and Titans executive vice president/general manager Ran Carthon previously worked together at the San Francisco 49ers ... Quinn, who was the head coach of the Atlanta Falcons from 2015 to 2020, arrives in Washington following his role as the defensive coordinator of the Dallas Cowboys.
- WEEKS 14 & 17 vs. JACKSONVILLE: The annual Titans-Jaguars series heads into its 30th season since the Jaguars' inaugural 1995 campaign ... The two rivals face each other twice in the month of December ... The Titans won the most recent contest, a 28-20 victory in the 2023 season finale at Nissan Stadium ... During the 2024 offseason, former Jaguars wide receiver Calvin Ridley was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent. In 2023, during his only season with the Jaguars, Ridley started every contest and caught 76 passes for 1,016 yards and eight touchdowns ... New Titans offensive coordinator Nick Holz also arrives from Jacksonville, where he was the Jaguars' passing game coordinator.
- WEEK 15 vs. CINCINNATI: Early in the 2024 offseason, the Titans made Brian Callahan the 20th head coach in franchise history after he spent the previous five campaigns as Cincinnati's offensive coordinator. During his tenure in Cincinnati, Callahan served under head coach Zac Taylor, helping the Bengals to two AFC North titles, two AFC Championship appearances and a Super Bowl berth ... Wide receiver Tyler Boyd spent the first eight seasons of his career with the Bengals before signing with the Titans as a free agent in 2024 ... This is the fourth consecutive season in which the Bengals have visited Tennessee in either the postseason (2021) or regular season (2022-24) ... The Titans took last year's contest on Oct. 1 by a final score of 27-3.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 2024

WHAT TO LOOK FOR – TEAM

- The Titans franchise is set to embark on its 65th season—the 26th campaign as the Titans after 39 seasons as the Oilers
- The Titans can earn their fifth playoff berth in an eight-year span.
- The Titans are slated to play the 1,000th regular season game in franchise history in the season finale against Houston (Jan. 4-5).

HEAD COACH BRIAN CALLAHAN

- Begins his tenure as the 20th head coach in franchise history.

WR TYLER BOYD

- Can record his seventh consecutive season with at least 50 receptions and 500 receiving yards. He is tied for the NFL's seventh-longest such active streak entering 2024.

LS MORGAN COX

- Enters 2024 ranked 10th in the NFL in career games played among active players (216 entering 2024).
- By appearing in all 17 contests in 2024, which would give him 233 career games, Cox would rank fourth in career NFL games among all players from the University of Tennessee. He would trail only Jason Witten (271), Peyton Manning (266) and Dustin Colquitt (255).

S QUANDRE DIGGS

- Enters 2024 as the NFL's only player with an active streak of 17 starts and at least one interception in three consecutive seasons.

K NICK FOLK

- Enters 2024 ranked seventh in the NFL in career games played among active players (228 entering 2024).
- Needs 18 field goals to reach 400 for his career. Entering 2024, only 13 players in NFL history previously reached the mark. His 382 career field goals through 2023 ranked 19th in NFL annals.

- Goes into 2024 with an NFL-record streak of 78 consecutive field goals made from under 40 yards. His last miss in that range was a 31-yarder against New England on Oct. 5, 2017, when he played for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

OLB HAROLD LANDRY III

- Enters the 2024 season ranked 11th in franchise history with 41.5 career sacks. With 8.5 sacks in 2024, he would become only the eighth defender in franchise annals to be credited with 50 sacks.
- With 11 sacks in 2024 (41.5 entering the season), Landry will pass Jevon Kearse (52) for the most sacks by a player in the franchise's "Titans era" (1999–present).

QB WILL LEVIS

- Can become the third player in franchise history to start at least nine games in each of his first two NFL seasons, joining Vince Young and Marcus Mariota.
- Can become the third player in franchise history to average at least 12.0 yards per completion in each of his first two NFL seasons, joining Warren Moon and Marcus Mariota.

TE CHIG OKONKWO

- Can join Frank Wycheck (six consecutive seasons) and Delanie Walker (five) as the only tight ends in franchise history to record consecutive seasons with at least 50 receptions and 500 receiving yards.
- Can become the franchise's first tight end to begin his NFL career with three consecutive seasons in which he posted at least 30 receptions and 400 receiving yards.

RB TONY POLLARD

- Needs 60 scrimmage yards in 2024 to reach 5,000 for his career (3,621 rushing yards and 1,319 receiving yards entering 2024).
- Can notch his third consecutive season with at least 1,000 rushing yards.
- Looks to extend his streak to four consecutive seasons with at least 1,000 scrimmage yards.

WR CALVIN RIDLEY

- Needs 642 receiving yards in 2024 to reach 5,000 for his career (4,358 entering 2024).
- Needs 76 receptions in 2024 to reach 400 for his career (324 entering 2024).

DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

- Needs 3.5 sacks in 2024 to reach 30 career sacks (26.5 entering 2024). He would be the franchise's 10th player to do so since individual sacks became an official NFL statistic in 1982, as well as the organization's sixth player in its "Titans era" (1999–present) to reach 30 sacks.
- Enters 2024 on a streak of three consecutive seasons with at least 5.5 sacks. With 5.5 or more sacks in 2024, he would become the franchise's first player to reach the number in four consecutive seasons since Ray Childress (eight consecutive seasons from 1987–1994).

CB L'JARIUS SNEED

- Can record his fifth consecutive season to begin his career with at least two interceptions.
- Can become the NFL's only player since the beginning of the 2008 season to register three consecutive seasons with at least 11 passes defended and five tackles for loss. In that span, only Sneed, Chris Harris (2013–2014), Troy Polamalu (2010–2011) and Charles Woodson (2009–2010) have recorded two such consecutive campaigns.

P RYAN STONEHOUSE

- Can become the first player since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger to lead the league in gross punting average for three consecutive seasons.
- After averaging an NFL-record 53.1-yards per punt as a rookie in 2022 and then averaging 53.1 yards per attempt in 2023, Stonehouse can become the first player since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger to record three career seasons with an average of 50.0 yards per punt. AJ Cole (Las Vegas) could also accomplish the feat in 2023.

2024 GAME-BY-GAME RECAP

Week 1 • Sept. 8, 2024 • Titans 17 at BEARS 24 • 0-1

The Titans build a 17-0 lead in the first half, but the Bears score the final 24 points of the game ... The Bears score touchdowns in the second half on Jonathan Owens' 21-yard return of a blocked punt and Tyrique Stevenson's 43-yard interception return ... Stevenson's go-ahead score came with 7:35 remaining in the fourth quarter ... The Titans limit the Bears and rookie quarterback Caleb Williams—making his first career start—to 148 total yards and 64 net passing yards ... Running back Tony Pollard leads the Titans offense with 82 rushing yards, including a 26-yard touchdown run.

Week 2 • Sept. 15, 2024 • JETS 24 at Titans 17 • 0-2

Jets running back Braelon Allen scores the game-winning touchdown on a 20-yard run with 4:31 remaining in the fourth quarter ... A final Titans drive led by Will Levis ends at New York's 14-yard line on a fourth-down incompletion ... The Jets record takeaways on consecutive Titans offensive plays in the first half—the first on a fumble by Levis and the second on an interception ... Jets wide receiver Irvin Charles blocks a Ryan Stonehouse punt, leading to a field goal ... Titans wide receiver Calvin Ridley registers a 10-yard rushing touchdown and a 40-yard receiving touchdown ... Jets quarterback Aaron Rodgers tosses a pair of touchdown passes.

Week 3 • Sept. 22, 2024 • PACKERS 30 at Titans 14 • 0-3

Malik Willis starts at quarterback for Packers in place of injured starter Jordan Love ... Willis, who was traded from the Titans to the Packers prior to the regular season, passes for 202 yards and a touchdown and also rushes for 73 yards and a score ... The Packers defense sacks Will Levis eight times and forces three turnovers ... Packers cornerback Jaire Alexander scores on a 35-yard interception return for a touchdown ... Levis passes for 260 yards and connects on touchdown passes to Nick Vannett and DeAndre Hopkins.

Week 4 • Sept. 30, 2024 • TITANS 31 at Dolphins 12 • 1-3

Titans win on Monday Night Football after starting quarterback Will Levis exits in the first quarter with a shoulder injury and backup Mason Rudolph finishes ... The Titans never trail after taking a 3-0 lead in the second quarter ... Miami is kept out of the end zone until less than four minutes remain in the fourth quarter ... Rudolph passes for 85 yards in leading seven scoring drives ... Nick Folk connects on five field goals—three from beyond 50 yards (53, 52 and 51) ... Tony Pollard accounts for 108 scrimmage yards and a touchdown ... The Titans defense limits quarterback Tyler Huntley and the Dolphins offense to 184 total yards and 78 net passing yards.

Week 6 • Oct. 13, 2024 • COLTS 20 at Titans 17 • 1-4

The Titans lose at home after returning from their Week 5 bye ... The Colts score the game's final 10 points in the fourth quarter, including the game-winning touchdown pass quarterback Joe Flacco to wide receiver Michael Pittman Jr. ... Flacco starts for an injured Anthony Richardson and passes for two touchdowns ... The Titans rush for 146 yards, including 93 yards by Tony Pollard, who also scores on a 23-yard run ... Will Levis and Nick Westbrook Ikhine provide the Titans' first touchdown on a nine-yard completion ... Neither team allows a sack, but each quarterback is intercepted, including Levis in the fourth quarter.

Week 7 • Oct. 20, 2024 • Titans 10 at BILLS 34 • 1-5

The Bills score 34 consecutive points after the Titans claim a 10-0 lead in the second quarter ... Buffalo scores on all five possessions in the second half ... Quarterback Mason Rudolph records his first start in a Titans uniform with Will Levis inactive due to injury ... Rudolph passes for 215 yards, including a four-yard touchdown to Nick Westbrook-Ikhine ... The Bills force two turnovers and get a crucial turnover on downs, stopping the Titans offense on fourth down at their 44-yard line on the opening drive of the second half ... Josh Allen passes for 323 yards and two touchdowns for the Bills, while rookie Keon Coleman registers 125 receiving yards.

Week 8 • Oct. 27, 2024 • Titans 14 at LIONS 52 • 1-6

The Lions force four turnovers (two fumbles and two interceptions) and record 303 return yards on kickoffs (72), punts (190) and interceptions (41) ... Mason Rudolph records his second consecutive start at quarterback for the Titans and accounts for 266 yards and one touchdown passing, as well as a rushing score ... After the Titans tie the score 14-14 in the second quarter, the Lions score the final 38 points ... Detroit's Jared Goff passes for only 85 yards but has three completions for touchdowns ... Kalif Raymond totals 190 punt return yards for the Lions, including a 90-yard touchdown.

EVP/GENERAL MANAGER RAN CARTHON

Ran Carthon was named the 14th general manager in franchise history on Jan. 18, 2023. He joined the Titans after spending six seasons with the San Francisco 49ers, including the last two as the team's director of player personnel.

A year after initially joining the franchise, Carthon was promoted to executive vice president/general manager. His duties expanded to include all areas that impact the football team: roster control, team activities and personnel decisions including draft and free agency acquisitions, oversight of head coach Brian Callahan and his coaching staff, scouting, sports medicine, and player engagement.

"Over the past year, Ran has impressed me and our staff with his innovative approach to roster building," said Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk upon Carthon's promotion in 2024. "Ran's exceptional reputation around the league as a talent evaluator and culture builder was a clear competitive advantage during last year's free agency and draft process, as well as our recent search for a head coach. Simply put, Ran Carthon makes the Tennessee Titans a destination for the league's top talent. By expanding his role to include full roster control and oversight of the coaching staff, our organization will now benefit more completely from Ran's unique ability to build and lead a championship-caliber football team."

Shortly after receiving his promotion, Carthon and his staff embarked upon the 2024 offseason. Their efforts resulted in several notable signings in free agency: cornerback Chidobe Awuzie, linebacker Kenneth Murray Jr., defensive lineman Sebastian Joseph-Day, center Lloyd Cushenberry III, running back Tony Pollard, quarterback Mason Rudolph and wide receiver Calvin Ridley. The Titans then used a trade to acquire former Kansas City Chiefs cornerback L'Jarius Sneed before circling back in free agency to add wide receiver Tyler Boyd and safety Jamal Adams. Prior to the start of the 2024 season, another trade brought linebacker Ernest Jones IV to the Titans from the Los Angeles Rams.

During the 2024 NFL Draft, Carthon orchestrated the selection of seven total players. With the seventh overall pick in the first round, the Titans chose Alabama tackle JC Latham, and at No. 38 in the second round, they took Texas nose tackle T'Vondre Sweat.

In his first year with the Titans, Carthon re-worked the roster with several veteran additions who would become key starters for the team in 2023, including wide receiver DeAndre Hopkins, outside linebacker Arden Key, linebacker Azeez Al-Shaair, cornerback Sean Murphy-Bunting and offensive lineman Daniel Brunskill in free agency. In his first draft, offensive lineman Peter Skoronski, quarterback Will Levis and running back Tyjae Spears were selected in the first three rounds, respectively. Carthon also used a trade to acquire kicker Nick Folk.

Carthon arrived in Tennessee with a range of experience from multiple teams. In San Francisco, he was the 49ers director of pro personnel for four seasons (2017-20) and then promoted to director of player personnel in 2021, serving in that capacity until joining the Titans. In his role as director of player personnel, Carthon was responsible for evaluating the top college prospects and assisting in the construction of the pro free agent board and evaluations. He joined the 49ers when head coach Kyle Shanahan and general manager John Lynch took over in 2017 and played a part in the team's three playoff appearances, two division titles and an NFC championship in 2019. Additionally, the 49ers had nine players account for 13 total Pro Bowl selections from 2021 (seven selections) to 2022 (six selections)—evidence of the talented roster the personnel staff amassed.

Before joining San Francisco, Carthon spent five seasons (2012-16) with the St. Louis/Los Angeles Rams as their director of pro personnel. He entered the NFL scouting world as a pro scout with the Atlanta Falcons for four years (2008-11).

As a player, Carthon spent three seasons in the NFL (2004-06) primarily with the Indianapolis Colts, after entering the league as an undrafted college free agent. At the University of Florida, he tallied 1,353 career rushing yards over four seasons and was part of the Gators' 2000 SEC Championship team.

Carthon was raised in an NFL family with his father, Maurice Carthon, having a distinguished playing and coaching career. Maurice Carthon played for the Colts and New York Giants, and he coached for New England, the New York Jets, Detroit, Dallas, Cleveland, Arizona and Kansas City.

Following his playing career, Ran Carthon received his bachelor's degree in sociology from the University of Florida in 2008. As a member of the Rams (2013) and 49ers (2018) he was selected to participate in the NFL Career Development Symposium at the Wharton School of Business, and in 2022, he took part in the inaugural NFL coach and front office accelerator program.

Born Arandic Kornell Carthon in February of 1981, in Osceola, Ark., he attended Key West High School in Key West, Fla.

Video: Brian Callahan's Introductory Press Conference

Brian Callahan was named head coach of the Titans on Jan. 24, 2024, becoming the 20th head coach in franchise history.

"This is an exciting time for our franchise, and we're thrilled to have Brian as our head coach," said Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk. "We went through a thorough candidate search and Brian stood out as the best person to lead our football team. I want to thank the other candidates who were part of this process and wish them well moving forward.

"Brian has a track record of success and a range of experience that has prepared him for this opportunity. His football knowledge and his enthusiasm for the game really stand out, and beyond that, we think his ability to lead will make him the ideal fit for our franchise.

"If you look at his history, Brian has been a part of a Super Bowl winning team (Denver, 2015) and another team that advanced to the Super Bowl (Cincinnati, 2021). He's worked in a variety of dynamic offenses with top-flight quarterbacks. At each step of his career, he's shown the flexibility and intelligence to make an impact.

"During his time with the Bengals, he was trusted with a number of responsibilities—offensive design, quarterback development, a contributor to the free agency and draft processes—and showed the ability to be a resource in all of those areas. As we seek sustained success and pursue a championship, Brian has seen firsthand what that looks like, and he is the right person to lead us there.

"To our fans, thank you for your support and for sticking with us. You deserve a championship team, and we're going to get there. I can't wait for you to get to know Brian and his family."

Callahan arrived in Tennessee with 18 years of coaching experience and 14 years of NFL coaching experience, including the previous five seasons as the offensive coordinator for the Cincinnati Bengals.

During his time in Cincinnati, Callahan served under head coach Zac Taylor and was part of two AFC North titles, two AFC Championship appearances and a Super Bowl berth. He also helped guide quarterback Joe Burrow from the No. 1 overall draft pick in 2020 to multiple single-season franchise records by his second year and Pro Bowl honors within three years.

Over Callahan's final three seasons in Cincinnati (2021-23), the Bengals offense ranked in the NFL's top 10 in several categories: sixth in scoring (24.9), seventh in passing (250.8 yards per game), seventh in red-zone efficiency (61.5 percent), 10th in third-down percentage (41.0) and sixth in time of possession (31:00).

From the time Burrow entered the NFL in 2020 through the 2023 campaign, he recorded the league's seventh-best passer rating (98.6) and tied for the third-best completion percentage (68.0). His 270.8 passing yards per game in that period ranked fifth.

Additionally, Cincinnati's offense under Callahan featured a trio of 1,000-yard wide receivers in Ja'Marr Chase (2021-23), Tee Higgins (2021-22) and Tyler Boyd (2019). Chase quickly emerged as one of the NFL's top wide receivers after being drafted in the first round in 2021. He earned three consecutive Pro Bowl nods and became the eighth player in NFL history to reach 1,000 receiving yards in each of his first three career seasons, including 1,216 yards on a career-high 100 receptions in 2023. Boyd's statistical highlights included 1,046 receiving yards in 2019, while Higgins contributed 1,091 yards in 2021 and 1,029 yards in 2022.

Bengals running back Joe Mixon exceeded 1,000 scrimmage yards four times in five seasons with Callahan as his offensive coordinator. From 2019 through 2023, he joined Christian McCaffrey and Aaron Jones as the NFL's only players with at least 4,500 rushing yards (4,618) and 1,500 receiving yards (1,556). Mixon was named to the Pro Bowl in 2021.

In 2023, Burrow was limited to 10 total games due to multiple injuries. Backup Jake Browning stepped into the lineup, and in the first action of his career, he registered a season passer rating of 98.4—qualifying as the seventh-best number in the NFL.

In 2022, the Bengals ranked seventh in the NFL in points per game (26.1), eighth in total offense (360.5 yards per game) and fifth in passing offense (265.0). Burrow earned his first career Pro Bowl selection while setting single-season franchise records for completions (414) and touchdown passes (35). The third-year signal caller also placed fifth in the NFL with 4,475 passing yards. The team's new-look offensive line came together during the season and did not allow more than two sacks in any of the final eight games of the regular season.

En route to an appearance in Super Bowl LVI, the 2021 Bengals ranked seventh in passing offense (259.0 yards per game) and tied for seventh in points per game (27.1). Burrow, after returning from a knee injury suffered in 2020, led the NFL in completion percentage (70.4) and established single-season Bengals records for passing yards (4,611) and passer rating (108.3). Chase was named the AP Offensive Rookie of the Year after posting a team-record 1,455 receiving yards, while Mixon placed third in the NFL in rushing yards (1,205).

In 2020, Callahan helped develop Burrow as a rookie despite facing the challenges associated with the COVID-19 pandemic, including the cancellation of all in-person NFL offseason programs. Before a knee injury ended his rookie campaign in Week 11, Burrow's 264 completions were the most ever by an NFL quarterback through his first 10 career games, while his 2,688 passing yards were fifth.

Callahan joined the Bengals after spending 2018 as the quarterbacks coach for the Oakland Raiders. Under his tutelage, Raiders quarterback Derek Carr passed for a then-career-high 4,049 yards and led the AFC with a 68.9 completion percentage.

From 2016 to 2017, Callahan was the quarterbacks coach for the Detroit Lions. Working with Matthew Stafford, he helped the veteran finish third in passing yards (4,446) and fourth in passing touchdowns (29) in 2017, while posting a then-career-best 99.3 passer rating. In 2016, Stafford's eight game-winning drives were the most by a quarterback in a season since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger.

Callahan broke into the NFL with the Denver Broncos in 2010 and served in multiple roles for the franchise through 2015. He began as a coaching assistant (2010) before transitioning to offensive quality control coach (2011-12), offensive assistant coach (2013-14) and finally offensive assistant/quarterbacks coach (2015). In 2013, Broncos quarterback Peyton Manning won the Associated Press NFL MVP award after completing a league-record 55 touchdown passes. Callahan's tenure in Denver was capped by the team's victory in Super Bowl 50 following the 2015 campaign. Before reaching the NFL, Callahan spent time at his alma mater, UCLA, as a graduate assistant in 2006 and 2007. He then spent two years (2008-09) as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for Junipero Serra High School in San Mateo, Calif.

As a former walk-on quarterback at UCLA, he appeared in 13 games as a holder on PATs. He earned a bachelor's degree in sociology in 2006 and added a master's in education in 2008.

TITANS 2024 ASSISTANT COACHES

COLT ANDERSON SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Click For Complete Online Bio

- Anderson arrived in Tennessee in 2024 with four years (2020-23) of NFL coaching experience following a nine-year NFL playing career (2009-17) as a safety and special teams standout.
- Prior to joining the Titans, Anderson spent four years as an assistant special teams coach with the Cincinnati Bengals alongside head coach Zac Taylor and assistant head coach/special teams coordinator Darrin Simmons. Current Titans head coach Brian Callahan also served on the staff.
- In 2023, Cincinnati's special teams units ranked in the NFL's top 10 in several categories: 10th in punt return average (10.2 yards per return), eighth in opponent punt return average (7.0 yards per return), second in opponent kickoff return average (17.0) and fifth in opponent net punting average (40.2 yards per punt).
- As a player, Anderson was a rotational safety whose impact was felt most on special teams. Over his nine seasons as an NFL player, he spent time with the Minnesota Vikings, Philadelphia Eagles, Indianapolis Colts and Buffalo Bills. He played in 84 career games (seven starts), and recorded 109 tackles, one interception and two forced fumbles on defense, along with 58 stops on special teams.
- Anderson played collegiately at the University of Montana. He originally joined the Grizzlies' program as a walk-on safety and went on to become a four-time All-Big Sky performer—three times as a safety and once as a special teams player. As a senior in 2008, he set a school record with 129 tackles.

DENNARD WILSON DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Click For Complete Online Bio

- Wilson arrived in Tennessee in 2024 with 12 years of NFL coaching experience, including nine seasons leading defensive back units.
- Prior to joining the Titans, Wilson spent the 2023 campaign as the defensive backs coach with the Baltimore Ravens, working with head coach John Harbaugh and defensive coordinator Mike Macdonald. The defense ranked first in points allowed (16.5 per game), sixth overall (301.4 yards allowed per game), sixth in pass defense (191.9 yards per game), first in sacks (60) and third in interceptions (18). Second-year safety Kyle Hamilton earned All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors.
- Before he joined the Ravens, Wilson spent two seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles, where he served as defensive passing game coordinator/defensive backs (2022) and a defensive backs coach (2021). In 2022, the Eagles ranked first in the NFL in pass defense (179.8 yards per game) en route to an appearance in Super Bowl LVII.
- Wilson spent four total seasons (2017-20) with the New York Jets—initially as defensive backs coach (2017-18) and then passing game coordinator/defensive backs (2019-20). While there he oversaw the development of safeties Jamal Adams and Marcus Maye.
- Wilson's initial NFL coaching job was with the St. Louis/Los Angeles Rams under head coach Jeff Fisher. He began his tenure with the Rams as a defensive quality control coach (2012-14) and then spent two years as the defensive backs coach (2015-16).
- From 2008 to 2011, he was employed by the Chicago Bears as a pro scout.
- The Upper Marlboro, Md., native was a three-year starter and team captain as a corner and safety at the University of Maryland. He entered the NFL in 2004 as a rookie free agent with Washington.

NICK HOLZ OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Click For Complete Online Bio

- Holz (pronounced "HOLTS") arrived in Tennessee in 2024 with 11 years of NFL coaching experience and 16 total years of coaching experience.
- He joined the Titans after spending the 2023 campaign as the passing game coordinator for the Jacksonville Jaguars. Working in an offense that featured quarterback Trevor Lawrence, he helped the unit rank ninth in passing (242.7 yards per game) and 13th in points scored (22.2 points per game). Calvin Ridley posted 1,016 receiving yards and eight touchdowns, while Evan Engram led all NFL tight ends with 114 receptions for 963 yards.
- Before his stint in Jacksonville, Holz was the offensive coordinator for UNLV in 2022, which followed 10 campaigns with the Oakland/Las Vegas Raiders (2012-21). With the Raiders, he served in a variety of roles on offense, mostly focused on wide receivers. He served on the staff of three different Raiders head coaches and worked with a notable list of offensive minds, including Greg Knapp, Greg Olson, Bill Musgrave and Jon Gruden.
- Prior to joining the Raiders, Holz was an assistant at Stanford under head coach Jim Harbaugh (2008-10) and David Shaw (2011). As an assistant quarterbacks coach, he helped Andrew Luck earn first-team All-American honors and finish as the runner-up in Heisman Trophy voting two times.
- Holz began his collegiate coaching career in 2007 at Nebraska, where he served as offensive quality control coach and video intern for the Cornhuskers under head coach Bill Callahan.
- At the University of Colorado, Holz was a three-year letter winner (2004-06) as a wide receiver and holder.

NISSAN STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of an exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

NISSAN STADIUM

Eight years later, on Nov. 17, 2023, the Titans and Nissan North America announced a new agreement: a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that brands the new Titans home venue as 'Nissan Stadium.'

Slated for completion in 2027, the new Nissan Stadium will host Titans home games, Tennessee State University football games, concerts, large-scale events and other community events.

"This partnership is a natural extension of our already longstanding friendship with Nissan," said Burke Nihill, Titans President and CEO. "Our mission at the Titans is to Win, Serve, and Entertain. We pride ourselves on collaborating with organizations who love this city and state as much as we do, and for the past 40 years, Nissan has invested more than $10.5 billion statewide, serving as a great example of an outstanding corporate steward and community advocate. We look forward to the continued positive impact of this relationship for the Titans organization and the City of Nashville."

"Since 2015 our fans and organization have called our home 'Nissan Stadium,' and we are proud to continue that tradition in the new stadium as we deepen and expand our relationship with them," said Titans Chief Revenue Officer Adam Nuse. "The new stadium will host the world's largest events, as well as serve as a community hub for our local neighbors. We're excited to have a partner like Nissan embark on this journey with us as we look towards the future."

The partnership will feature dedicated areas in the new stadium for brand experiences and displays, innovative technology integration, and involvement in Titans broadcast platforms. Nissan also will support a to-be-determined program in the Titans' ONE Community philanthropic platform, which reaches Nashville's most underrepresented and marginalized communities with a focus on three areas – Opportunity, Neighborhoods and Education.

"Nissan Stadium is a centerpiece of the Nashville skyline and has become a household name in Middle Tennessee. It is important for Nissan to keep our name on the new stadium," said Jérémie Papin, chairperson, Nissan Americas. "As more people come to Nashville both to visit and to live in this wonderful city, Nissan Stadium is true showcase for our brand and for the career opportunities we've offered here for more than four decades. This partnership sends a strong message about the bright future for Nissan, the Titans, Nashville and the State of Tennessee."

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin. Nissan is home to more than 11,000 employees across all three locations.

"Nissan has been a strong partner to middle Tennessee for four decades, and I'm thrilled that the Titans have united with a partner that invests in our community and its people," said Nashville Mayor Freddie O'Connell. "The familiarity and trust they've established with the Titans in the last eight years will undoubtedly be a great asset as we plan for the stadium's opening in 2027."

The new Nissan stadium will be built on the east side of the current stadium campus, along Nashville's East Bank. Features of the building include: a circular translucent roof; exterior porches with panoramic views of Nashville; improved sightlines for all spectators through a range of diverse seating experiences; and a 12,000 square foot community space available for use year-round. A waitlist for those interested in purchasing PSLs or suites is now open at NewNissanStadium.com.

Quarterback Will Levis was selected by the Titans in the second round (33rd overall) of the 2023 NFL Draft. He was the fourth quarterback chosen in the draft after the Titans traded up in the second round to select him.

In his debut season, Levis recorded starts in all nine games in which he appeared, becoming the third rookie quarterback in franchise history to start at least nine games. Only Vince Young (13 starts in 2006) and Marcus Mariota (12 starts in 2015) preceded him in the accomplishment. Levis' rookie passing totals included 255 attempts, 149 completions, 1,808 yards, eight touchdowns and four interceptions. His 84.2 passer rating was the second best in franchise history by a rookie quarterback (91.5 by Mariota in 2015), and the number also ranked first in NFL history among second-round quarterbacks in their rookie season (minimum 200 attempts). Levis had an additional 57 yards and a touchdown rushing.

Prior to entering the NFL, Levis spent two seasons at the University of Kentucky after transferring from Penn State. In four combined college seasons, he appeared in 39 games with 26 starts. He completed 479 of his 738 passes (64.9 percent) for 5,876 yards with 46 touchdowns and 25 interceptions. He also rushed for 742 yards and 17 touchdowns.

At Kentucky, Levis went 17-7 as a starter, tying Terry Wilson for the second-most quarterback wins since 1993. The two-time team captain completed 418 of 636 passes for 5,233 yards with 43 passing touchdowns and 11 rushing scores for the Wildcats. His six 300-yard passing games were the fourth-most in school history.

As a senior in 2022, he started 11 games at quarterback and connected on 185 of 283 passes for 2,406 yards with 19 passing scores, while ranking fourth in the SEC in pass efficiency (151.9). He finished fifth in the SEC with 19 passing scores.

As a junior in 2021, he transferred from Penn State to Kentucky and started in all 13 games, helping to lead UK to 10 wins for the fourth time in school history. He totaled 3,203 yards total offense, becoming the seventh player in school history to reach 3,000 yards of total offense in a season. He was 233-of-353 passing for 2,826 yards and 24 touchdowns, and he also registered 107 rushes for 376 yards and a team-high tying nine rushing touchdowns.

He is a native of Madison, Conn.

2024 Game Notes:

➤ At Chicago (9/8), in his first Week 1 start and his 10th career start, completed 19 of 32 passes for 127 yards and a touchdown with two interceptions. He added 36 rushing yards on four carries. In the second quarter, he converted a third-and-15 with a 22-yard pass to Calvin Ridley and tossed a 17-yard touchdown pass to Chig Okonkwo. It was his ninth career touchdown pass.

➤ Against the New York Jets (9/15), completed 19 of 28 passes for 192 yards with one touchdown and one interception (84.2 passer rating). His 67.9 completion percentage set a career high (min. 20 attempts). He added a career-high 38 rushing yards on four attempts, marking the second consecutive week he posted a career high in rushing. In the first half, he completed 11 of 13 passes, and his 84.6 first-half completion percentage was the second-highest mark of his career (88.9 against Houston, Dec. 17, 2023) through 11 starts. In the second quarter, he converted a third-and-three with a 22-yard pass to Tony Pollard. In the third quarter, his career-long 21-yard rushing attempt converted a third-and-one. Also in the third quarter, he completed a 40-yard touchdown pass to Calvin Ridley for his second touchdown pass of the season.

➤ Against Green Bay (9/22), completed 26 of 34 passes for 260 yards with two touchdowns and two interceptions. His 26 completions were a career high, and his 76.5 completion percentage established a new career high (minimum of 20 pass attempts). His completion percentage also tied Ken Stabler (Sept. 28, 1980 at Cincinnati) for fourth place in franchise history in a game in which a quarterback attempted at least 34 passes behind only Steve McNair (79.4 against Jacksonville on Nov. 4, 2001), Warren Moon (78.9 against Detroit on Nov. 5, 1989) and Neil O'Donnell (77.5 against Cleveland on Sept. 19, 1999). His 92.8 passer rating ranked second in his career in a game with at least 20 attempts. Levis tallied his third career game with two or more touchdown passes. On the team's opening offensive series, he completed a 23-yard pass to Josh Whyle on the first play of the game, added a 20-yard pass to Tyler Boyd, and completed a one-yard touchdown pass to Nick Vannett. In the third quarter, he completed a screen pass for 29 yards to Tyjae Spears, and later on the same drive, he completed an 11-yard touchdown pass to DeAndre Hopkins.

➤ At Miami (9/30), completed three of four passes for 25 yards with one interception before leaving the game in the first quarter with a right shoulder injury. He added five yards on two rushing attempts.

➤ Against Indianapolis (10/13), completed 16 of 27 passes for 95 yards with one touchdown and one interception, and he added three rushing attempts for 15 yards. In the first quarter, he tossed a nine-yard touchdown pass to Nick Westbrook-Ikhine to register his 13th career touchdown pass (fifth in 2024). He found DeAndre Hopkins for a 23-yard gain in the second quarter.

➤ At Buffalo (10/20) and at Detroit (10/27), he was inactive with a right shoulder injury.

SECOND-ROUND QUARTERBACKS

From the first common draft in 1967 to 2023, there were 63 quarterbacks selected in the second round of the NFL Draft. Among those with at least 200 passing attempts in their rookie season, Titans quarterback Will Levis delivered the highest passer rating. Levis was 149-of-255 passing for 1,808 yards with eight touchdowns and four interceptions, amounting to an 84.2 passer rating. The previous leader was Charlie Batch, who had an 83.5 passer rating as a rookie with the Detroit Lions in 1998.

Levis' 58.4 completion percentage also ranked as the best of any second-rounder in his rookie campaign. Former Cincinnati Bengals quarterback Andy Dalton previously held the top spot with a 58.1 completion percentage as a rookie in 2011.

#11 • QB MASON RUDOLPH

6-5, 235, 7th Year/1st with Titans, Oklahoma State
Click for complete bio

Mason Rudolph is in his seventh NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 15, 2024.

Rudolph joined the Titans after spending his first six seasons with the Pittsburgh Steelers. In 21 games during his time in Pittsburgh, he started at 13 times, throwing for 3,085 yards and 19 touchdowns with a completion percentage of 63.5.

In 2023, Rudolph started three games during the regular season, passing for 719 yards and three touchdowns. He also started Pittsburgh's playoff game at Buffalo.

In 2019, in relief of the injured Ben Roethlisberger, he went 5-3 as Pittsburgh's starter while throwing for 1,765 yards and 13 touchdowns in 10 total games played.

Rudolph was originally drafted by the Steelers in the third round (76th overall) of the 2018 NFL Draft.

In four seasons at Oklahoma State (2014-17), led the Cowboys to a 32-9 record as a starter to become the winningest quarterback in school history. His 13,618 career passing yards ranked fourth in Big-12 history and he was the recipient of the 2017 Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, awarded to the top upperclassmen quarterback in the country.

He is a native of Rock Hill, S.C.

2024 Game Notes:

➤ At Miami (9/30), made his Titans debut. After entering the game in the first quarter when starter Will Levis exited with a shoulder injury, he completed nine of 17 pass attempts for 85 yards. He directed seven total scoring drives—five field goals and two touchdowns. In the second quarter, he completed a 27-yard pass to Tyler Boyd to set up a field goal as time expired in the first half.

➤ At Buffalo (10/20), registered his 14th career start and his first start since joining the Titans as an unrestricted free agent during the 2024 offseason. He completed 25 of 40 attempts for 215 yards with one touchdown and one interception (74.5 passer rating) and added five rushing attempts for 13 yards. His 25 completions and his 40 passing attempts were the third-highest single-game totals of his career. In the first quarter, he found Chig Okonkwo for a 26-yard connection. In the second quarter, he engineered an eight-play, 75-yard drive that culminated with his four-yard touchdown pass to Nick Westbrook-Ikhine. He later completed a 33-yard pass to Calvin Ridley on the final play of the first half.

➤ At Detroit (10/27), started for the second consecutive week and completed 22 of 38 passes for 266 yards and one touchdown with two interceptions. His 266 passing yards in a game ranked fourth in his career. He added 29 rushing yards and a touchdown on four rushing attempts. In the first quarter, he found Josh Whyle for a 33-yard completion, and later on the same drive, he completed a 26-yard pass to Calvin Ridley and then rushed for an 11-yard score. It was his first career rushing touchdown. He also completed a 47-yard pass to Ridley in the first quarter.

Running back Tyjae Spears was selected by the Titans in the third round (81st overall) of the 2023 NFL Draft.

As a rookie, Spears did not miss a game and registered one start. He carried the ball 100 times for 453 yards and two touchdowns, and he added 52 receptions for 385 yards and one score. His 838 scrimmage yards ranked seventh in franchise history among rookie running backs, and the total also placed fourth among rookie running backs in 2023 behind Atlanta's Bijan Robinson, Detroit's Jahmyr Gibbs and Miami's De'Von Achane. Spears became the franchise's first rookie running back with at least 50 receptions since Sid Blanks in 1964 (56).

Spears spent four years at Tulane (2019-22) prior to entering the NFL. He appeared in 33 games with 20 starts at running back for the Green Wave, totaling 2,910 yards and 31 touchdowns on 427 carries with an additional 48 receptions for 564 yards and three scores. He ended his career as the school's all-time leader in yards per carry (6.8), tied for second in 100-yard rushing games (15), tied for third in rushing touchdowns (31), fourth in rushing yards per game (85.6) and sixth in rushing yards (2,910) and total touchdowns (34). His 6.8 yards per carry from 2019 to 2022 ranked second in the FBS behind only Alabama-Birmingham running back DeWayne McBride's 7.3-yard average (minimum 400 attempts).

As a junior in 2022, he started all 14 games for the Green Wave, totaling 1,581 yards and 19 touchdowns on 229 rushing attempts and adding 22 receptions for 256 yards and two touchdowns. He tied for the national lead with 21 total touchdowns and tied for third in the country with 19 rushing touchdowns, a total that ranked second in Tulane single-season history. His 1,581 rushing yards led the conference and made up the Green Wave's all-time second-highest single-season total. His nine 100-yard rushing games included eight consecutive such efforts to finish the season. He was named the American Athletic Conference Offensive Player of the Year and also earned first-team All-AAC honors. His efforts helped Tulane earn a 12-2 record and win an American Athletic Conference title.

He is a native of Ponchatoula, La.

Click for complete bio

Tight end Chig Okonkwo (pronounced "CHIGG oh-KAHN-kwoh") is in his third NFL season in 2024. He was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (143rd overall) of the 2022 NFL Draft.

In his first two campaigns, Okonkwo did not miss a game and totaled 19 starts. His two-year statistics included 86 receptions for 978 yards and four touchdowns. His 11.4-yard receiving average tied for sixth among all NFL tight ends from 2022 to 2023.

Okonkwo started 11 games in 2023 and finished the season with 54 receptions for 528 yards and one touchdown. He ranked second on the team in receptions and receiving yards.

During his rookie season, Okonkwo appeared in all 17 games with eight starts and totaled 32 receptions for 450 yards (14.1 avg.) and three touchdowns. His yardage total ranked second on the team. He also tied for fifth on the team with seven special teams tackles. He was named to the Pro Football Writers of America All-Rookie team.

Okonkwo's 450 receiving yards in 2022 established a new record for franchise rookie tight ends, surpassing Ben Troupe's 329 yards in 2004. Okonkwo tied Chris Dressel (32 receptions in 1983) for the third-best reception total among all Titans/Oilers rookie tight ends, trailing only Bo Scaife (37 in 2005) and Troupe (33 in 2004), and he became the second rookie tight end in franchise history with at least three touchdown catches, joining Dressel (four in 1983).

The Powder Springs, Ga., native appeared in 37 games with 20 starts over four seasons (2018-21) at Maryland and caught 77 passes for 717 yards and eight touchdowns. He added three carries for 72 yards and three touchdowns, including a career-long rush of 54 yards.

As a senior in 2021, he started all 13 games and posted career-high marks with 52 catches for 447 yards and a team-leading five touchdowns. His 52 receptions ranked second in Terrapins history for a single season by a tight end, behind only former Titans tight end Frank Wycheck (58 in 1990). Okonkwo's 447 receiving yards were the most by a Terps tight end in a season since Vernon Davis (871 in 2005).

He sat out the 2020 season with myocarditis due to COVID-19. Prior to then, he saw action in 12 games (four starts) as a freshman and 12 games (three starts) as a sophomore.

2024 Game Notes:

➤ At Chicago (9/8), started and caught two passes for 15 yards and a touchdown. He hauled in a 17-yard touchdown pass from Will Levis in the second quarter for his fifth career touchdown reception.

➤ Against the N.Y. Jets (9/15), totaled 16 yards on three receptions. He reached the 1,000-yard receiving mark for his career (1,009), becoming the franchise's 15th tight end to reach the plateau.

#83 • WR TYLER BOYD

6-2, 203, 9th Year/1st with Titans, Pittsburgh
Click for complete bio

Wide receiver Tyler Boyd is in his ninth NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2024. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent on May 14, 2024.

Prior to joining the Titans, Boyd spent the first eight seasons of his career with the Cincinnati Bengals. He was originally selected by the Bengals in the second round (55th overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft.

During his time in Cincinnati, he played in 120 games with 77 starts, plus an additional seven postseason contests with six starts. His production at the Bengals included 513 career receptions for 6,000 yards and 31 touchdowns, and he departed Cincinnati ranked fourth in franchise history in receptions and seventh in receiving yards.

From 2016 through 2023, Boyd ranked first in the NFL in receptions (390), receiving yards (4,813) and first downs (233) among wide receivers from the slot formation, per Next Gen Stats.

During his final campaign in Cincinnati in 2023, Boyd ranked second on Cincinnati's offense with 67 receptions and 667 receiving yards, including two touchdown grabs. It was his sixth consecutive season with a minimum of 58 receptions and 667 receiving yards, and he was one of only nine NFL players to do so each year from 2018 through 2023. Boyd appeared in all but four contests during that six-year stretch.

In 2019, Boyd achieved career highs with 15 starts, 90 receptions and 1,046 receiving yards during his fourth NFL season.

A native of Clairton, Pa., Boyd attended the University of Pittsburgh, where he played three seasons (2013-15) and was named first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference in each of his final two seasons. He finished his collegiate career as Pittsburgh's all-time leader in both receptions (254) and receiving yards (3,361) and finished second at Pitt in career all-purpose yards (5,243), trailing only Tony Dorsett (7,117).

2024 Game Notes:

- At Chicago (9/8), started in his Titans debut and totaled 18 yards on three receptions.
- Against the N.Y. Jets (9/15), totaled 26 yards on a pair of receptions.
- Against Green Bay (9/22), totaled 33 yards on three receptions, including a 20-yard grab in the first quarter to convert a third-and-nine.
- At Miami (9/30), tied for the team lead with two receptions and 31 receiving yards. He caught a 27-yard pass from Mason Rudolph to help set up a field goal as time expired in the first half.
- Against Indianapolis (10/13), registered 19 yards on three receptions.
- At Buffalo (10/20), registered 43 yards on a team-high five receptions. His three first downs on receptions set a season high through six games.
- At Detroit (10/27), totaled 14 yards on three receptions.

#16 • WR TREYLON BURKS

6-2, 225, 3rd Year/3rd with Titans, Arkansas
Click for complete bio

Wide receiver Treylon Burks is in his third NFL season in 2024. He was selected by the Titans in the first round (18th overall) of the 2022 NFL Draft.

Through his first two seasons, Burks totaled 49 receptions for 665 yards and one touchdown in 22 games (15 starts). That included 16 catches for 221 yards in 2023.

As a rookie, Burks appeared in 11 games with six starts, totaling 33 receptions for 444 yards and one touchdown. His reception total tied for third place on the team, while his yardage total tied for third on the squad. Among NFL rookies in 2022, Burks' 444 receiving yards ranked ninth.

In three seasons (2019-21) at the University of Arkansas, Burks appeared in 32 career games with 30 starts. He totaled 146 receptions for 2,399 yards and 18 touchdowns to go along with 32 rushing attempts for 222 yards and one score. He returned 13 punts for 134 yards (10.3-yard average) and returned 11 kickoff returns for 226 yards (20.5 avg.).

At the conclusion of his collegiate career, he ranked sixth in Razorbacks history in career receptions and receiving yards, and his touchdown reception total tied for fifth all-time. He set an Arkansas record with 10 career 100-yard receiving games, including a school-record six 100-yard receiving performances in his final year.

Burks earned All-SEC honors in each of his three seasons: in 2019, second-team All-SEC as a returner and All-Freshman as a receiver; second-team All-SEC in 2020; and first-team All-SEC in 2021.

The Warren, Ark., native was drafted with the highest pick of any Arkansas player since Darren McFadden was taken fourth overall in 2008, and Burks was the first Arkansas wide receiver to be selected in the first round since Matt Jones was taken 21st overall by Jacksonville in 2006.

As a junior in 2021, Burks was named first-team All-SEC after totaling 66 receptions (seventh in the SEC) for 1,104 yards (fourth) and 11 touchdowns (fourth). His 92.0 receiving yards per game ranked third in the SEC behind only Jameson Williams (104.8) and Wan'Dale Robinson (102.6).

As a sophomore in 2020, he was named second-team All-SEC after contributing 51 receptions for 820 yards and seven touchdowns. His 91.1 receiving yards per game ranked third in the SEC behind only Elijah Moore (149.1) and DeVonta Smith (142.8).

2024 Game Notes:

- At Chicago (9/8), caught one pass for two yards and had one rushing yard on two attempts.
- Against Green Bay (9/22), recorded a nine-yard reception.
- At Miami (9/30), caught a 13-yard pass.
- Against Indianapolis (10/13), converted a fourth-and-one with a 10-yard reception in the third quarter.
- Placed on injured reserve on Oct. 19, 2024.

#0 • WR CALVIN RIDLEY

6-1, 190, 6th Year/1st with Titans, Alabama
Click for complete bio

Wide receiver Calvin Ridley is in his sixth NFL season and his first season with the Titans in 2024. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 15, 2024.

Prior to joining the Titans, Ridley appeared in 66 NFL games with 52 starts. He was originally drafted by the Atlanta Falcons with the 26th overall pick of the 2018 NFL Draft and was traded to the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2022. His statistical totals with the Falcons and Jaguars included 324 receptions for 4,358 yards and 36 touchdowns.

In 2023, Ridley started a career-high 17 games for the Jaguars and led the team with 1,016 yards and eight receiving touchdowns on 76 catches.

From 2018 through 2020, no member of the 2018 draft class had more receptions or touchdown catches than Ridley, who totaled 217 grabs and 26 scores for the Falcons during that span. His 3,061 receiving yards ranked second in his draft class behind only DJ Moore's 3,156. Ridley's 90 receptions and 1,374 yards in 2020 were career highs.

As a rookie in 2018, Ridley played in all 16 games and accumulated 64 receptions. He led all rookie receivers in the NFL with 821 receiving yards and a team-high 10 receiving touchdowns, including an NFL-rookie record six receiving scores in the team's first four games. He was named to the All-Rookie team by the Professional Football Writers of America.

A native of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Ridley attended the University of Alabama, where he played in 44 games over three seasons (2015-17). He finished his career second in Crimson Tide history with 224 receptions and 19 receiving touchdowns. He also ranked third with 2,781 receiving yards, while totaling eight career 100-yard receiving games to tie for third in the Alabama record books.

2024 Game Notes:

- At Chicago (9/8), started in his Titans debut and led the offense with 50 receiving yards on three catches. He converted a third-and-15 with a 22-yard reception in the second quarter.
- Against the N.Y. Jets (9/15), led the team with 77 receiving yards on four catches, including a touchdown, and added a rushing touchdown. On a drive in the first quarter, he converted a third-and-five with a 15-yard catch and capped the series with his first career rushing touchdown on a 10-yard run. It was the team's first rushing touchdown by a wide receiver since A.J. Brown's 49-yarder against New Orleans on Dec. 22, 2019. In the third quarter, he registered his first receiving touchdown with the Titans on a 40-yard pass from Will Levis. He became the first Titans wide receiver with a rushing touchdown and a receiving touchdown in the same game since Nate Washington accomplished the feat against Indianapolis on Oct. 30, 2011. It was his 10th consecutive game with at least three receptions.
- Against Green Bay (9/22), caught one pass for nine yards.

- At Miami (9/30), caught one pass for five yards and added a 10-yard rushing attempt.
- At Buffalo (10/20), totaled 42 yards on three receptions. He tallied a 33-yard reception on the final play of the first half.
- At Detroit (10/27), led the team with 10 receptions for 143 yards. His 10 receptions tied his career high (Dec. 20, 2020 vs. Tampa Bay), and his 143 receiving yards tied for the third-best total of his career. He became the first Titans player with 10 receptions in a game since A.J. Brown (11) against San Francisco on Dec. 23, 2021, and Ridley's 143 yards were the most by a Titans player since Brown's same performance against San Francisco. Ridley became the first Titans player with 100 receiving yards since DeAndre Hopkins (124) at Miami on Dec. 11, 2023. In the first quarter, he had six receptions for 118 yards, becoming the only Titans/Oilers player with six or more receptions in the first quarter of a game since at least 1978. The most recent time a Titans player had six-plus catches in any single quarter was Nate Washington (six receptions) in the fourth quarter at Buffalo on Oct. 21, 2012. Ridley was the first Titans player over the 100-yard receiving mark in the first quarter since Drew Bennett (124) at Indianapolis on Dec. 5, 2004. He helped set up a touchdown in the first quarter by catching a 26-yard pass from Mason Rudolph, and later in the first quarter, he recorded a 47-yard catch.

#15 • WR NICK WESTBROOK-IKHINE

6-2, 211, 5th Year/5th with Titans, Indiana

Click for complete bio

Wide receiver Nick Westbrook-Ikhine is in his fifth NFL season in 2024. He was originally signed by the Titans as a rookie free agent on May 7, 2020.

During his first four seasons in the NFL, no player appeared in more games in a Titans uniform than Westbrook-Ikhine, who logged 61 games in that stretch with 30 starts. He totaled 94 receptions for 1,276 yards and 10 touchdowns.

From the beginning of his second year in the NFL (2021) through 2023, Westbrook-Ikhine led the Titans in receptions (91), receiving yards (1,243), touchdown catches (10) and receptions for first downs (59).

The 2023 campaign was the third consecutive season for Westbrook-Ikhine with at least 25 receptions, 370 receiving yards and three touchdowns. He registered 28 catches for 370 yards and three scores in 14 games (nine starts) before finishing the season on injured reserve.

In 2022, Westbrook-Ikhine appeared in all 17 games with a career-high 13 starts. He posted 25 catches for 397 yards and three touchdowns.

In 2021, he played in 16 games with seven starts. He ranked second on the team and set career highs with 38 receptions, 476 receiving yards and four touchdown catches, and he added three tackles on special teams. Westbrook-Ikhine was named the team's 2021 recipient of the Ed Block Courage Award.

As a rookie in 2020, he appeared in 14 games with one start and totaled three receptions for 33 yards, two special teams tackles and one reception for a two-point conversion. In one playoff game, he registered two catches for 17 yards and a special teams tackle.

A native of Lake Mary, Fla., he appeared in 52 games with 36 starts at Indiana University, where he totaled 144 receptions for 2,226 yards with 16 touchdowns over four seasons. He ranked sixth in school history in catches, seventh in yardage and touchdowns, and tied for seventh in 100-yard receiving games (six). He became the seventh Hoosier to reach 125 receptions and 2,000 yards. As a senior in 2019, he caught 42 passes for 572 yards and five touchdowns.

2024 Game Notes:

- At Chicago (9/8), led the team and set a career high with two special teams tackles.
- Against Indianapolis (10/13), caught a nine-yard touchdown pass from Will Levis in the first quarter. He notched his 11th career touchdown reception on his first catch of 2024.
- At Buffalo (10/20), totaled two receptions for 10 yards and a touchdown. In the second quarter, he caught a four-yard touchdown pass from Mason Rudolph, giving him his second touchdown reception of 2024 and his 12th career touchdown grab. It was the first time in his career he recorded a touchdown reception in consecutive games.
- At Detroit (10/27), totaled 39 yards and a touchdown on a pair of receptions. In the second quarter, he caught a five-yard touchdown pass from Mason Rudolph, and later in the second quarter, he added a 34-yard grab. He extended his career-long streak to three consecutive games with a touchdown reception, becoming the first Titans player to do so since A.J. Brown in 2020 (five consecutive games). He secured his fourth consecutive season with three or more touchdown receptions.

Nicholas Petit-Frere (pronounced "puh-TEET FRAIR") is in his third NFL season in 2024. He was selected by the Titans with the 69th overall pick in the third round of the 2022 NFL Draft.

In 2023, Petit-Frere was limited to three games and two starts. He started one game at right tackle and one contest at left tackle before he was placed on injured reserve on Nov. 11.

As a rookie, Petit-Frere started 16 games at right tackle. He joined Michael Roos (2005), Chance Warmack (2013) and Jack Conklin (2016) as the only offensive linemen in the franchise's "Titans era" (1999–present) to start at least 16 games as a rookie. Petit-Frere helped running back Derrick Henry rush for 1,538 yards, which ranked second in the NFL.

In four seasons at Ohio State, Petit-Frere saw action in 35 career games with 20 starts. He was a member of three consecutive Big Ten Conference championship teams (2018-20) and was a part of two Ohio State teams that qualified for the College Football Playoffs (2019-2020).

As a junior in 2021, he was named first team All-Big Ten by both the coaches and media after starting all 12 games at left tackle, helping Ohio State lead the nation in total offense and scoring offense. He added first-team All-American honors by the Football Writers Association of America and CBS Sports.

As a sophomore in 2020, he received second-team All-Big Ten honors after starting seven games at right tackle for the eighth-ranked rushing attack in the country. He was an Academic All-Big Ten selection.

Petit-Frere is a native of Tampa, Fla.

Click for complete bio

Dillon Radunz (pronounced "RAY-dinz") is in his fourth NFL season in 2024. He was selected by the Titans with the 53rd overall pick in the second round of the 2021 NFL Draft.

In 2023, he returned from a season-ending knee injury during the previous season to record career highs with 16 games played and 11 starts. He logged starts at four different offensive line positions: seven starts at right tackle, two starts at left guard, one start at left tackle and one start at right guard. Radunz was voted by his teammates as the Ed Block Courage Award winner for the Titans in 2023.

In 2022, he appeared in 11 games, including four starts. He started two games at left guard and two games at right guard. His season came to an end on Dec. 21 when he was placed on injured reserve.

As a rookie in 2021, he appeared in 12 games with one start at left tackle.

A native of Becker, Minn., Radunz declared for the NFL Draft after North Dakota State's lone fall game his senior season, choosing to forego the Bisons' spring football schedule.

He started 32 collegiate games—all at left tackle—at NDSU and was a member of four Missouri Valley Football Conference championship teams and three NCAA Division I football national championships.

Peter Skoronski was selected by the Titans with the 11th overall pick in the first round of the 2023 NFL Draft.

As a rookie in 2023, Skoronski started 14 games at left guard and helped running back Derrick Henry finish second in the NFL with 1,167 rushing yards. He was one of nine NFL rookie offensive linemen in 2023 to register 14 or more starts, and he joined Nicholas Petit-Frere (2022), Jack Conklin (2016), Chance Warmack (2013), Michael Roos (2005) and Jacob Bell (2004) as the only rookie offensive linemen to record at least 14 starts for the franchise during its "Titans era" (1999–present).

During a three-year career at Northwestern University, Skoronski started all 33 games at left tackle without missing a game. He earned second-team All-Big Ten honors as a freshman and first-team recognition in each of the next two seasons. He became the first offensive lineman in program history to earn two All-Big Ten first-team awards.

As a junior in 2022, he was named the Rimington-Pace Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year—the first ever by a Northwestern lineman—after starting all 12 games at left tackle. He was the first player in school history to become a unanimous first-team All-American and was named first-team All-Big Ten by coaches and media. He finished as a finalist for the 2022 Outland Trophy.

When the Titans drafted Skoronski, he became Northwestern's highest draft selection since guard Chris Hinton went to Denver with the fourth pick in 1983, and he was the 11th player in program history to be picked in the first round.

His grandfather, Bob Skoronski Sr., was a left tackle for the Green Bay Packers, playing nine total seasons with the franchise. He was a permanent offensive captain for the Packers under Vince Lombardi and

71 - OL JAELYN DUNCAN

#69 • DE SEBASTIAN JOSEPH-DAY6-4, 310, 6th Year/1st with Titans, RutgersClick for complete bio

Defensive lineman Sebastian Joseph-Day is in his sixth NFL season and his first season with the Titans in 2024. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 20, 2024.

Prior to arriving in Tennessee, Joseph-Day totaled 71 games played and 68 starts for the Los Angeles Rams (2018-21), Los Angeles Chargers (2022-23) and San Francisco 49ers (2023). His statistical totals during that time included 230 tackles, 11 sacks, one interception, five passes defended, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery.

In 2023, Joseph-Day started the first 14 games of the season with the Chargers and collected 32 tackles, three sacks and 25 quarterback pressures. After being released by the Chargers, he was signed by the 49ers as a free agent on Dec. 27 and saw action as a reserve in the final two regular season contests, amassing five tackles. He then appeared as a reserve in all three of the 49ers' postseason contests and registered three tackles, including a tackle in Super Bowl LVIII.

Joseph-Day originally entered the NFL as a sixth-round pick (195th overall) of the Rams in 2018. After not seeing game action his entire rookie campaign, he totaled 38 starts and six sacks over the next three seasons with the Rams, culminating with an appearance in the Rams' Super Bowl LVI victory. He then joined the Chargers during the 2022 offseason and played in 30 regular season games with the club before heading to San Francisco.

The Stroudsburg, Pa., native played five seasons at Rutgers, where he amassed 90 total tackles, 3.5 sacks, two passes defended, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery.

2024 Game Notes:

- At Chicago (9/8), started in his Titans debut and totaled three tackles, one sack, two quarterback pressures, two tackles for loss and one pass defended. He became the first Titans defender to reach each of those marks in a game since Denico Autry accomplished the feat against the Houston Texans on Dec. 24, 2022. Joseph-Day was credited with a 19-yard sack of Caleb Williams in the first quarter. The 19 sack yards on the play were the most yards on a single sack by a Titans player since Dec. 1, 2021, when Derick Roberson sacked Jacksonville's Trevor Lawrence for a 20-yard loss.
- Against the N.Y. Jets (9/15), tallied a pair of tackles.
- Against Green Bay (9/22), posted one tackle.
- At Miami (9/30), tied for second on the team with six tackles, including a sack. He sacked Tyler Huntley for a 10-yard loss in the third quarter, picking up his 13th career sack.
- Against Indianapolis (10/13), contributed two tackles and a quarterback pressure.
- At Buffalo (10/20), recorded one tackle and two quarterback pressures.
- At Detroit (10/27), posted four tackles and a quarterback pressure.

In 2020, Simmons appeared and started in 15 games. With three defensive fumble recoveries, he tied Chase Young for the most in the NFL in 2020 and was the first Titans defender with three fumble recoveries in a season since 2005, when linebacker Brad Kassell accomplished the feat. Simmons ranked second on the team with 19 quarterback pressures and added 49 tackles, three sacks, three tackles for loss, five passes defended and one forced fumble. In the franchise's "Titans era" (since 1999), he became the first player to post at least three fumble recoveries, three sacks and five passes defended in the same season. He also had three tackles and a tackle for loss in one playoff contest.

Simmons began his rookie season on the non-football injury list due to a knee injury he suffered during training in February 2019. He missed the first six games of the season before joining the 53-man roster in Week 7.

His rookie totals included 40 tackles, two sacks, two tackles for loss, 14 quarterback pressures and one pass defended in nine games (seven starts). He added four tackles, three quarterback pressures and a fumble recovery in three playoff contests.

During a three-year career as a defensive tackle at Mississippi State, Simmons appeared in 38 contests with 28 starts. He finished his career ranked sixth in school history with 32.5 tackles for loss. He also tied for sixth in MSU annals with five forced fumbles and tied for fourth with three blocked kicks. His totals also included 163 tackles, seven sacks, seven passes defended and two defensive touchdowns.

He was a first-team All-SEC selection as a sophomore and junior and was one of two players in the nation to be named a Bednarik Award Semifinalist in both 2017 and 2018.

As a junior in 2018, Simmons was named second-team All-American after totaling 63 tackles, 17 tackles for loss and two sacks. His 17 tackles for loss led the team, ranked fourth in the SEC and were the third-most in single-season school history.

During his sophomore season (2017), he set a career high with five sacks and added 12 tackles for loss. With three total blocked kicks and punts, he became the first SEC player since 2004 to lead the nation in the category.

Simmons is a native of Macon, Miss.

2024 Game Notes:

- At Chicago (9/8), registered two tackles, including a tackle for loss.
- Against the N.Y. Jets (9/15), tied for third on the defense with five tackles. Late in the second quarter, he teamed with Ernest Jones IV to end a Jets drive with a two-yard tackle for loss against Breece Hall on third-and-one.
- Against Green Bay (9/22), totaled five tackles, including his first sack of the season. In the second quarter, he dropped Malik Willis for a two-yard sack on a third down.
- At Miami (9/30), he was inactive due to an elbow injury.
- Against Indianapolis (10/13), recorded three tackles, including a tackle for loss, and tied for the team lead with three quarterback pressures.
- At Buffalo (10/20), posted two tackles, two quarterback pressures and one pass defended.
- At Detroit (10/27), totaled four tackles, one sack, three quarterback pressures, two tackles for loss and one forced fumble. He recorded a strip-

#98 • DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

6-4, 305, 6th Year/6th with Titans, Mississippi State
Click for complete bio

Defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons is in his sixth NFL season in 2024. He was selected by the Titans in the first round (19th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft.

During his first five seasons, Simmons appeared in 68 games with 66 starts and earned two Pro Bowl berths. The three-time team captain (2021-23) accumulated 240 tackles, 26.5 sacks, 20 passes defended, three forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries. He was third on the defense in sacks during that span behind only Harold Landry III (37) and Denico Autry (28.5).

In 2023, although he was limited to 12 games and finished the season on injured reserve, he managed to register 5.5 sacks, marking his third consecutive season to reach that number or higher. He added 44 tackles, 38 quarterback pressures, 11 tackles for loss, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and one pass defended. For the first time in his career, he received the honor of the team's nomination for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year award.

In 2022, Simmons appeared in 15 games and anchored a unit that ranked first in the NFL in rushing defense (76.9 opponent rushing yards per game). En route to his second consecutive Pro Bowl appearance, he totaled 53 tackles, 7.5 sacks, 43 quarterback pressures, nine tackles for loss, one forced fumble and a career-high seven passes defended, which tied for the fourth-best mark among all NFL defensive linemen. Simmons and Arizona's J.J. Watt were the NFL's only players in 2022 with at least seven sacks and seven passes defended.

Before the start of the 2021 season, Simmons was named a team captain for the first time in his career, and he went on to become one of six players on the roster to start all 17 games. He was named to his first career Pro Bowl and added Associated Press second-team All-Pro honors after setting career highs in several categories, including sacks (8.5), tackles (54), quarterback pressures (58), tackles for loss (12) and passes defended (six). He led the squad in pressures and placed third in sacks. Among all defensive tackles in the NFL, his 8.5 sacks ranked sixth. In the divisional playoffs, he set a franchise postseason record with three sacks.

sack in the third quarter, taking down Jared Goff and registering a forced fumble on the play (recovered by the Lions). He notched his third career strip-sack and his fourth career forced fumble.

Outside linebacker Arden Key is in his seventh NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2024. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 20, 2023.

In 2023, Key appeared in 17 games for the third consecutive season and registered nine starts—the most since starting 10 times in 2018 as a rookie with Oakland. He ranked second on the team with a career-high 57 quarterback pressures, and his six sacks provided the second-best total of his career. He added 30 tackles, four tackles for loss, two passes defended and two forced fumbles.

Key originally entered the NFL as a third-round pick (87th overall) of the Oakland Raiders in 2018 and spent his first three campaigns with the organization. He then spent the 2021 campaign with the San Francisco 49ers and the 2022 season with the Jacksonville Jaguars. His statistical totals during his first five NFL seasons included 98 tackles and 14 sacks in 71 games (13 starts).

In 2022, Key played 17 games with three starts for the Jaguars and totaled 27 tackles, 4.5 sacks, 38 quarterback pressures, five tackles for loss and a fumble recovery. His 38 pressures ranked second for the Jaguars, and over the last five weeks of the season, he posted 25 pressures, which ranked second in the league behind Nick Bosa over that time frame. He was a key figure in helping the Jaguars win the AFC South and advance to the divisional round of the playoffs.

In 2021, Key notched a career-best 6.5 sacks to go along with 22 tackles and 25 quarterback pressures in his lone season with the 49ers.

During a three-year career at Louisiana State University, Key totaled 21 sacks and 26.5 tackles for loss. As a sophomore, he earned all-conference honors, while setting the school record for sacks in a season (12.0).

He is a native of Atlanta, Ga.

#58 • OLB HAROLD LANDRY III

6-2, 252, 7th Year/7th with Titans, Boston College

Click for complete bio

Outside linebacker Harold Landry III is in his seventh NFL season in 2024. He was selected by the Titans in the second round (41st overall) of the 2018 NFL Draft after the Titans traded up 16 spots in the second round (57 to 41) in order to take the former Boston College standout.

During his first six NFL seasons, Landry totaled a team-leading 41.5 sacks. He finished the 2023 season ranked 11th for the franchise in career sacks, and in the organization's "Titans era" (1999–present), his total trailed only Jevon Kearse (52), Jurrell Casey (51) and Derrick Morgan (44.5).

In 2023, Landry played in all 17 games (10 starts) after missing the entire 2022 campaign due to injury. He ranked second on the team with 10.5 sacks, producing his second-best career total (12 sacks in 2021). In doing so, he became the NFL's third veteran player since 1982 to miss an entire NFL season and come back the next year to record at least 10 sacks. The only previous players to do so were a pair of New Orleans Saints: Joe Johnson in 2000 (12 sacks) and Charlie Clemons in 2001 (13.5 sacks). Landry's 14 tackles for loss led the defense and matched his career high, and his 48 quarterback pressures were third on the squad and were one off his career high in 2021 (49). His statistics also included 70 tackles.

Landry was placed on injured reserve on Sept. 2, 2022, ending his fifth NFL season before Week 1. Prior to the injury, he recorded 64 consecutive games played and 52 consecutive starts.

From the start of his rookie campaign through 2021, Landry's 31 total sacks led the Titans. Other than Jevon Kearse (37), Landry produced the highest sack total by a Titans/Oilers player in his first four NFL seasons since individual sacks became an official NFL statistic in 1982.

From 2018 to 2021, Landry joined Pittsburgh's Cameron Heyward as the NFL's only players to be credited with at least 250 tackles (press box statistics), 30 sacks and two interceptions.

In 2021, Landry was named to his first Pro Bowl after starting all 17 games. He registered his third consecutive season to start every contest, extending his streaks to 64 consecutive games played and 52 consecutive starts. At the conclusion of 2021, his starting streak was the sixth-longest active streak in the NFL among all defensive players.

Landry's 12 sacks in 2021 led the Titans, ranked 10th in the NFL and established a career high. He became the first Titans player to record double-digit sacks in a season since Brian Orakpo (10.5) in 2016 and the first Titans player with 12 sacks in a season since Jason Babin (12.5) in 2010. Landry tied for second on the squad with 75 tackles, ranked second with a career-high 49 quarterback pressures, led the team with 14 tackles for loss, and added a forced fumble. He joined Micah Parsons, Aaron Donald and Heyward as the only NFL players in 2021 to post at least 75 tackles and 10 sacks.

Then, in the team's 2021 divisional playoff contest, he recorded 1.5 sacks. He improved his postseason career total to 4.5 sacks, becoming the organization's first player with at least four career postseason sacks since individual sacks became an official statistic in 1982.

In 2020, Landry recorded 16 starts for the second consecutive season. He led the team with 5.5 sacks, a then-career-high 32 quarterback pressures and a then-career-high 10 tackles for loss. He totaled 69 tackles and added one interception and a career-high five passes defensed. In one playoff contest, he led the team with 10 tackles and two sacks.

Landry started all 16 games in 2019 and led the Titans with nine sacks. His 28 quarterback pressures ranked second, and he added 81 tackles, four tackles for loss, one pass defensed, one forced fumble and two fumble recoveries. He also started all three postseason games and registered a sack and a team-high eight quarterback pressures.

As a rookie in 2018, he played in 15 games with three starts. His 4.5 sacks tied for third place on the team, and he also tied for second on the defense with 18 quarterback pressures.

In 46 career games playing defensive end for Boston College, Landry totaled 160 tackles, 26 sacks, 47.5 tackles for loss, seven passes defensed, 10 forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and one interception. His 26 career sacks were exceeded in school history by only Mathias Kiwanuka (37.5 from 2002-05).

As a senior in 2017, Landry played and started eight games before a season-ending ankle injury ended his year. He finished second on the team with five sacks and totaled 38 tackles, 8.5 tackles for loss and two passes defended.

In 2016, Landry set the school's single-season record with 16.5 sacks, which led the nation. He added seven forced fumbles, which also led the country, while his 22 tackles for loss ranked fifth nationally and ranked second all-time for the Eagles. His numerous honors included Walter Camp second-team All-America, AP second-team All-America and second-team All-ACC by the Atlantic Coast Sports Media Association and the league's head coaches.

He is a native of Spring Lake, N.C.

2024 Game Notes:

- At Chicago (9/8), tied for the team lead with six tackles, recorded a team-high three quarterback pressures, and also tallied a sack. In the third quarter, he recorded his first sack of the season, dropping Caleb Williams for a 10-yard loss on third down.
- Against the N.Y. Jets (9/15), posted three tackles, including a pair of sacks, and added two passes defended and a team-high four quarterback pressures. He became the first Titans player with two sacks and two passes defended in a game since defensive end Carlos Hall did so against Philadelphia on Sept. 8, 2002. In the second quarter, he recorded a five-yard sack of Aaron Rodgers, and in the third quarter, he dropped Rodgers for a seven-yard loss on third-and-10. Landry registered his sixth career game with two or more sacks, and for the first time in his career, he recorded at least one sack in each of the team's first two games of the season. In improving his career total to 44.5 sacks, he tied Derrick Morgan for 10th place on the franchise's all-time sack list. He also tied Morgan for the third-highest sack total for the team in its "Titans era" (1999–present), trailing only Jevon Kearse (52) and Jurrell Casey (51). Landry became the first Titans player to total three or more sacks through the first two games of a season since Derrick Morgan accomplished the feat (three sacks) in 2015.
- Against Green Bay (9/22), tallied four tackles and two quarterback pressures.
- At Miami (9/30), totaled five tackles, including a sack. In the first quarter, he ended a Dolphins drive by sacking Tyler Huntley for an eight-yard loss on third down. By increasing his career total to 45.5 sacks, he moved ahead of Derrick Morgan (44.5) and Ted Washington (45.0) for ninth place in franchise history. He surpassed Morgan for the third-highest sack total for the team in its "Titans era" (1999–present), trailing only Jevon Kearse (52) and Jurrell Casey (51). The sack gave him 9.5 total over a 10-game stretch. He also reached 10 sacks during his career in primetime games, becoming the franchise's third player to reach double digits in sacks in primetime games since individual sacks became an official NFL statistic in 1982, joining Ray Childress (15.5) and William Fuller (15.5).

- Against Indianapolis (10/13), registered seven tackles, including a team-high two tackles for loss, and tied for the team lead with three quarterback pressures. He logged his 14th career game with two or more tackles for loss, including twice in 2024.
- At Buffalo (10/20), posted four tackles, a team-high-tying three quarterback pressures, one tackle for loss and one pass defended. He registered the third game of his career with a minimum of four tackles, one tackle for loss and one pass defended, and his first such performance since Nov. 8, 2020 against Chicago.
- At Detroit (10/27), credited with one tackle.

6. Harold Landry III	Tennessee Titans	13
	Anfernee Jennings	New England Patriots	13
8. (seven tied)		12

LANDRY'S TRIUMPHANT COMEBACK

In 2021, Harold Landry III was named to his first career Pro Bowl, finishing his fourth NFL season with a career-high 12 sacks. Then, poised to follow up on his career year, he suffered a knee injury before the start of the 2022 regular season. It forced him to spend all 17 games on injured reserve.

In 2023, Landry bounced back from the injury to participate in every game and record 10.5 sacks. In doing so, he became the NFL's third veteran player since 1982 to miss an entire NFL season and come back the next year to record at least 10 sacks. The only previous players to do so were a pair of New Orleans Saints: Joe Johnson in 2000 (12 sacks) and Charlie Clemons in 2001 (13.5 sacks).

NFL players with 10 or more sacks in a season after missing the entire previous season, 1982 to 2023:

Player	Team	Season Missed	Season with 10+ Sacks	Sacks
Harold Landry III	Tennessee Titans	2022	2023	10.5
Charlie Clemons	New Orleans Saints	2000	2001	13.5
Joe Johnson	New Orleans Saints	1999	2000	12.0

Note: Rookie seasons with 10-plus sacks excluded

FOURTH-QUARTER SACKS IN 2023

In 2023, Titans outside linebacker Harold Landry III recorded 10.5 total sacks, and 8.5 of his sacks came in the fourth quarter. His fourth-quarter total was more than any other NFL player.

Most sacks in the fourth quarter in 2023:

Player	Team	4th Quarter Sacks
1. Harold Landry	Tennessee Titans	8.5
2. Trey Hendrickson	Cincinnati Bengals	8.0
3. Josh Allen	Jacksonville Jaguars	6.5

Cornerback Chidobe Awuzie is in his eighth NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2024. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 14, 2024.

Awuzie arrived in Tennessee with seven years of experience and 86 total games with the Dallas Cowboys (2017-20) and Cincinnati Bengals (2021-23). His totals during that time included 74 starts, 369 tackles, six interceptions, 62 passes defensed, four forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries.

In his three seasons with the Bengals, Awuzie recorded two interceptions and broke up 25 passes, including six passes defensed in 15 games during the 2023 campaign.

Awuzie was a member of the 2021 Bengals squad that won the AFC and advanced to Super Bowl LVI. After recording a career-high two interceptions and tying his career high with 14 passes defensed during the regular season, he added an interception in the Super Bowl.

Awuzie was originally drafted by the Dallas Cowboys in the second round (60th overall) of the 2017 NFL Draft. In four seasons with the Cowboys, he played in 49 games with 42 starts and recorded 213 tackles, 37 passes defensed, four interceptions, two forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries.

A native of San Jose, Calif., Awuzie attended the University of Colorado. In four collegiate seasons, he appeared in 47 games with 42 starts and tallied 35 passes defensed, three interceptions, five forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries.

2024 Game Notes:

- At Chicago (9/8), started in his Titans debut and recorded one tackle. He was part of a defensive effort that allowed only 64 net passing yards.
- Against the N.Y. Jets (9/15), posted two tackles.
- Against Green Bay (9/22), credited with one tackle before leaving the game with an injury in the first half.
- Placed on injured reserve on Sept. 27.

#21 • CB ROGER MCCREARY

5-11, 190, 3rd Year/3rd with Titans, Auburn
Click for complete bio

Cornerback Roger McCreary is in his third NFL season in 2024. He was selected by the Titans in the second round (35th overall) of the 2022 NFL Draft.

In his first two seasons, McCreary's totals included two interceptions and 170 tackles in 32 games (28 starts). His 170 tackles from 2022 to 2023 made up the NFL's third-highest total among cornerbacks, trailing Buffalo's Taron Johnson (187) and former Chiefs cornerback and current Titan L'Jarius Sneed (186).

In 2023, McCreary ranked third on the team and led all Titans defensive backs with 86 tackles. Among all NFL cornerbacks, his 86 tackles tied Las Vegas' Nate Hobbs for the third-highest total behind Johnson (98) and Indianapolis' Kenny Moore II (93). McCreary added one interception, six passes defensed, two sacks, four quarterback pressures, seven tackles for loss and one forced fumble.

As a rookie, McCreary was one of three players on the team to start all 17 games (Kevin Byard, Aaron Brewer), and he became the first Titans rookie cornerback since Adoree' Jackson in 2017 to start every game. Only two other rookie cornerbacks in the NFL—Seattle's Tariq Woolen and the New York Jets' Sauce Gardner—started all 17 games in 2022. McCreary finished third on the Titans defense with 85 tackles, ranked second on the defense with eight passes defensed, and added one interception, two tackles for loss and one quarterback pressure.

During four seasons at Auburn (2018-21), McCreary appeared in 43 games with 23 starts and posted 135 tackles, five interceptions, 35 passes defensed, 10 stops for loss, a forced fumble and two fumble recoveries.

As a senior in 2021, McCreary started 12 games at cornerback for the Tigers and collected a career-best 49 tackles, an interception, a sack, two stops for loss and a team-best 16 passes defended. He was a first-team All-America selection by The Athletic, Associated Press, ESPN and Reese's Senior Bowl.

As a junior in 2020, he established career highs with three interceptions and seven tackles for loss.

McCreary is a native of Mobile, Ala.

2024 Game Notes:

- At Chicago (9/8), totaled five tackles and led the defense with a career-high three tackles for loss. His three tackles for loss were the most by a Titans defensive back since cornerback Alterraun Verner had three tackles for loss against the Indianapolis Colts on Oct. 28, 2012.
- Against the N.Y. Jets (9/15), totaled three tackles, including a tackle for loss, and added a quarterback pressure. He stuffed running back Breece Hall for a six-yard tackle for loss in the fourth quarter.
- Against Green Bay (9/22), credited with two tackles.
- At Miami (9/30), posted one tackle.
- Against Indianapolis (10/13), totaled four tackles.
- At Buffalo (10/20), recorded his second start of the season.
- At Detroit (10/27), totaled three tackles, one sack and two tackles for loss. He was credited with a 13-yard sack of Jared Goff in the first quarter, which was his first sack of the season and his third career sack.

#38 • CB L'JARIUS SNEED

6-1, 192, 5th Year/1st with Titans, Louisiana Tech
Click for complete bio

Cornerback L'Jarius Sneed is in his fifth NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2024. He was acquired by the Titans in a trade with the Kansas City Chiefs on April 1, 2024.

Sneed spent four seasons with the Chiefs after they selected him in the fourth round (138th overall) of the 2020 NFL Draft. During that time, he tallied 10 interceptions, 40 passes defended and 6.5 sacks in 57 games. He and Harrison Smith were the only two NFL players from 2020 to 2023 to record at least 10 interceptions and 6.5 sacks.

Sneed also arrived in Tennessee with 13 games of postseason experience. He helped the Chiefs win two Super Bowls (LVII, LVIII), and his seven passes defended tied for third in the postseason from 2020 to 2023. He became one of five NFL players from 2000 to 2023 with at least 75 tackles, two sacks and seven passes defended in the postseason, joining Ray Lewis, James Farrior, Brian Dawkins and Rodney Harrison.

In 2023, he started 16 games at cornerback and amassed 78 tackles, two interceptions, a career-best 14 passes defended and a fumble recovery. He was in the starting lineup for all four Chiefs postseason games and generated 17 tackles, three passes defended and a forced fumble while helping the Chiefs to their second consecutive Super Bowl championship.

As a rookie in 2020, Sneed was named to the Pro Football Writers Association's All-Rookie team after notching 41 tackles, three interceptions, two sacks and seven passes defended in nine games.

As a college player at Louisiana Tech, Sneed was named second-team All-Conference USA as a senior in 2019. He played safety and cornerback in college, and in 51 games, he registered 177 tackles, eight interceptions and 19 passes defended.

He is a native of Minden, La.

2024 Game Notes:

- At Chicago (9/8), started in his Titans debut and totaled four tackles. He was part of a defensive effort that allowed only 64 net passing yards.
- Against the N.Y. Jets (9/15), posted three tackles.

- Against Green Bay (9/22), registered five tackles, including a tackle for loss.
- At Miami (9/30), registered three tackles.
- Against Indianapolis (10/13), tied for second on the defense with eight tackles, including a tackle for loss.
- At Buffalo (10/20) and at Detroit (10/27), he was inactive with a quad injury.

5-9, 197, 10th Year/1st with Titans, Texas
Click for complete bio

Three-time Pro Bowl safety Quandre Diggs is in his 10th NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2024. He was signed by the Titans as a free agent on Aug. 6, 2024.

Prior to arriving in Tennessee, Diggs totaled nine seasons between his time with the Detroit Lions (2015-19) and Seattle Seahawks (2019-23). He was originally drafted by the Lions in the sixth round (200th overall) of the 2015 NFL Draft and later traded to the Seahawks during the 2019 campaign. His career totals with the Lions and Seahawks included 137 games played, 112 starts, 24 interceptions, 56 passes defended, 574 tackles, one sack, five forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. He was named to three consecutive Pro Bowls from 2020 to 2022.

In 2023, Diggs started every game for the Seahawks for the fourth consecutive season. He totaled a career-high 95 tackles to go along with one interception and five passes defended.

From 2017 through 2022, Diggs was the NFL's only player to record at least three interceptions every season. He set a career benchmark with five interceptions in 2020 and matched the number in 2021.

Diggs started a total of eight games in his first two years in Detroit. In his third season, he registered 11 starts before starting 16 games for the first time in 2018.

A native of Houston, Texas, Diggs played cornerback at the University of Texas, where he never missed a game in four seasons, appearing in 52 games with 49 starts. He finished his collegiate career tied for ninth in Longhorns history with 11 interceptions, while his 37 career passes defended tied for ninth on the all-time list. He earned All-Big 12 honors three times (2011, 2013, 2014).

2024 Game Notes:

- At Chicago (9/8), started in his Titans debut. He tallied four tackles and was part of a defensive effort that allowed only 64 net passing yards.
- Against the N.Y. Jets (9/15), tied for third on the defense with five tackles.
- Against Green Bay (9/22), tied for second on the team with eight tackles.
- At Miami (9/30), totaled four tackles. In the second quarter, he helped end a Dolphins drive by stopping wide receiver Tyreek Hill short on fourth-and-one.
- Against Indianapolis (10/13), totaled six tackles.
- At Buffalo (10/20), tied for third on the squad with five tackles.
- At Detroit (10/27), ranked second on the defense with seven tackles. He extended his streak to 74 consecutive games started, lengthening what is tied (Patrick Queen) for the NFL's third-longest active streak among defensive players behind Kevin Byard (128) and Daron Payne (75).

Long snapper Morgan Cox is in his 15th NFL season and his fourth campaign with the Titans in 2024. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 19, 2021.

In 2023, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties for the third consecutive season. With 51 consecutive games played in his first three seasons with the Titans, he finished the 2023 campaign with the longest active streak of games played for the team. His efforts helped kicker Nick Folk lead the NFL in field goal accuracy (96.7 percent) and helped punter Ryan Stonehouse lead the NFL for a second consecutive season in gross punting average (53.1). He was also a finalist in 2023 for the NFL's Bart Starr Award.

In 2022, Cox was named to his fifth career Pro Bowl. He has more Pro Bowl appearances than any other player at his position since the league began naming long snappers to the Pro Bowl in 2004.

His steady play in 2022 helped Stonehouse, a rookie, lead the league and set a new NFL record with a 53.1-yard gross punting average. Stonehouse also finished fourth in the NFL and set a rookie record with a 44.0-yard net average. Meanwhile, kicker Randy Bullock made 17 of 20 field goals (85.0 percent) and made all 28 extra point attempts.

In 2021, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties in 17 regular season games and one postseason game. He helped Bullock finish ninth in franchise history with 120 points in a single season, including three game-winning field goals (Sept. 19 at Seattle, Oct. 31 at Indianapolis and Dec. 23 against San Francisco). He also snapped for punter Brett Kern, who had the league's third-best ratio of punts inside the 20 to touchbacks (18:1).

In his first 11 seasons, Cox appeared in 165 regular season games for the Baltimore Ravens, serving as the team's primary long snapper after entering the NFL as an undrafted free agent in 2010. He was selected to four Pro Bowls and was a part of five playoff teams in Baltimore, totaling 10 postseason games played.

In 2020, he earned his fourth career Pro Bowl selection. He helped kicker Justin Tucker record his fifth consecutive season with at least 130 points, tying the NFL record of consecutive seasons with 130-plus points. Tucker connected on 26 of 29 field goals (89.7 percent) and was 52 of 53 on extra points (98.1 percent). Cox also snapped on all 51 of Sam Koch's 51 punts, as Koch was the NFL's only punter to place at least 20 punts (22) inside in the 20-yard line and have no more than one touchback.

A native of Collierville, Tenn., Cox played 38 games in three seasons (2007-09) as the primary long snapper at the University of Tennessee.

#6 • K NICK FOLK

6-1, 225, 17th Year/2nd with Titans, Arizona

Click for complete bio

Kicker Nick Folk is in his 17th NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2024. He was acquired by the Titans in a trade with the New England Patriots on Aug. 29, 2023.

At the conclusion of the 2023 season, Folk's 382 career field goals ranked fourth among all active kickers behind only Matt Prater (401), Mason Crosby (400) and Justin Tucker (395), and Folk's number also ranked 19th in NFL history. His 1,632 total points scored ranked 23rd in league annals. Among all active NFL players at the conclusion of 2023, Folk's 228 career games ranked 10th.

Through 2023, Folk carried an all-time NFL-record streak of 78 consecutive field goals from under 40 yards—a streak going back to 2017. Tucker previously owned the record with 70 straight under-40-yarders from 2016 to 2020.

In his first season in Tennessee, Folk appeared in all 17 games and made 29 field goals on 30 attempts. His career-best 96.7 percent accuracy on field goals led the NFL and tied for the 14th-best single-season mark in NFL history. It also established a new franchise record for a single season, breaking the record of 92.3 percent by Al Del Greco (1998) and Rob Bironas (2010). Folk's initial season with the Titans also included 28 extra points on 30 attempts. His 115 total points tied for the 13th-best single-season total in franchise history.

In his first 15 NFL seasons prior to joining the Titans, Folk spent time with the Dallas Cowboys (2007-09), New York Jets (2010-2016), Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2017) and Patriots (2019-22). During that time, he connected on 82.9 percent (353 of 426) of his field goal attempts and 96.8 percent of his extra point attempts (458 of 473). He had 10 seasons with at least 100 points, including a league-leading 150 points in 2021 with the Patriots. He registered 11 game-winning field goals in the regular season and one in postseason play.

Over his four years with New England, Folk made 108 of his 121 field goal attempts (89.3 percent) in 57 games. He departed the Patriots in fifth place on the New England all-time field goal list and tied for seventh place on the franchise's all-time scoring list with 440 total points.

In 2022, he played in all 17 games for New England and totaled 128 points on 32-of-37 field goal attempts. He was also 32-of-35 on extra points. Folk became one of six all-time NFL players to have at least five seasons with 30 field goals, joining Tucker (eight), Stephen Gostkowski (five), Robbie Gould (five), John Carney (five) and David Akers (five).

Folk established the NFL record for consecutive field goals made under 50 yards with a streak of 64 such kicks from Oct. 5, 2017 to Oct. 16, 2022. He broke the record (56 consecutive) set by Ryan Succop of the Titans from 2014 to 2017.

While with the Patriots, he also set the franchise mark for consecutive field goals made (36) during a streak that spanned from 2020 to 2021 and posted the third-highest field goal percentage for a season by a Patriot in 2020 (92.9).

Folk entered the NFL as a sixth-round selection by the Dallas in the 2007 NFL Draft. As a rookie for the Cowboys, he earned a Pro Bowl selection and all-rookie honors.

A native of Sherman Oaks, Calif., Folk attended the University of Arizona, where he earned All-PAC 10 accolades in his final season.

2024 Game Notes:

- At Chicago (9/8), made his only field goal attempt, a 40-yarder in the second quarter, and made both of his extra point attempts.
- Against the N.Y. Jets (9/15), made a 41-yard field goal as time expired in the first half and also connected on both of his extra point attempts. With his 384th career field goal, he surpassed Nick Lowery (383) for 18th place in NFL history.
- Against Green Bay (9/22), made both extra points.
- At Miami (9/30), named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week after matching his career high with five field goals and also making both extra points. He connected from 53, 52 and 47 yards in the second quarter, marking his third career game in which he made three or more field goals in a single quarter. He added a 51-yarder in the third quarter and a 29-yarder in the fourth quarter. His performance established a career high with three field goals of 50-plus yards in a game. It was his third career game with at least two field goals of 50-plus yards and his first time accomplishing the feat since Oct. 10, 2021 at Houston, when he was a member of the New England Patriots. He increased his career total to 44 career field goals from 50-plus yards on 67 career attempts (65.7 percent). He logged his 52nd career game with three or more field goals. He improved his active streak to 16 consecutive made field goals, including his first seven attempts of 2024. In finishing the contest with 389 field goals, he surpassed David Akers (386) for 17th place in NFL history for career field goals. He also set a career high with seven touchbacks on kickoffs.

- Against Indianapolis (10/13), made a 44-yard field goal in the second quarter and also connected on both extra point attempts.
- At Buffalo (10/20), made a 25-yard field goal in the first quarter and in the second quarter made his only extra point attempt. He extended his all-time NFL-record streak to 80 consecutive field goals made on attempts from less than 40 yards. He connected on his 18th consecutive field goal, dating back to Nov. 12, 2023, which gave him the fifth-longest streak of his career and also tied for the eighth-longest streak in team annals.
- At Detroit (10/27), made both of his extra point attempts.

#4 • P RYAN STONEHOUSE

5-10, 193, 3rd Year/3rd with Titans, Colorado State

Click for complete bio

Punter Ryan Stonehouse is in his third NFL season in 2024. He was signed by the Titans as a rookie free agent on May 13, 2022.

In only two NFL seasons, Stonehouse recorded the top two single-season gross punting averages in NFL history, and he also recorded two of the top three single-season net averages in franchise history. He became the first punter in NFL annals to lead the league in gross punting average in each of his first two seasons.

In 2023, he appeared in the first 12 games of the season before missing the final five contests on injured reserve. Despite his missed time, he averaged a league-high 53.06 yards per punt, grossing 2,812 yards on 53 attempts. The average qualified as the second-highest figure in NFL history behind his own record-setting 53.10 yards per punt as a rookie in 2022. He also finished sixth in the NFL with a 43.87-yard net punting average, which ranked third in franchise history.

In 2022, Stonehouse finished the season with a gross average of 53.10 yards per punt on 90 total punts (4,779 total yards). In doing so, he broke Sammy Baugh's single-season NFL record of 51.40 yards per punt, which was established in 1940 and was never matched among qualifiers (2.5 punts per team game) until Stonehouse's rookie campaign. Stonehouse's mark also surpassed Brett Kern's franchise record of 49.7 yards per punt in 2017.

With a net punting average of 44.0 yards per punt in 2022, Stonehouse also established a new NFL record for the highest net average by a rookie punter. He broke the record set by Indianapolis' Rigoberto Sanchez, who averaged 42.64 net yards per punt as a rookie in 2017. Stonehouse finished fourth in the NFL in net punting behind veterans Tommy Townsend (45.6), Michael Dickson (44.5) and Johnny Hekker (44.1). In franchise history, his net average ranked second for a single season, trailing only Kern's 44.6 net average in 2017.

Stonehouse's 90 punts in 2022 made up the NFL's second-highest total. Only Denver's Corliss Waitman (96) had more. The 90 punts by Stonehouse tied Craig Hentrich's 1999 number for the fourth-highest total in team annals behind Rich Camarillo (96 punts in 1994) and Cliff Parsley (93 in 1979; 91 in 1978).

Stonehouse appeared in 53 games over five seasons at Colorado State (2017-21) and set an NCAA career record with a 47.8-yard gross punting average. His career totals included 244 punts for 11,656 yards with 91 punts inside the 20. He totaled 106 punts of 50-plus yards and became the first player in Colorado State history to log 11,000 punting yards in a career.

During his final college season in 2021, Stonehouse appeared in 12 games and averaged 50.9 yards per attempt on 58 punts, including a career-long 81-yard punt. He placed 27 punts inside the 20-yard line and totaled 32 punts of 50-plus yards en route to being named a second-team All-Mountain West selection and a Ray Guy Award semifinalist.

He is a native of La Verne, Calif.

2024 Game Notes:

➤ At Chicago (9/8), played in the regular season for the first time since suffering a season-ending knee injury on Dec. 3, 2023. He averaged 53.6 yards on five punts (34.0 net) with one punt placed inside the 20 and one punt blocked.

➤ Against the N.Y. Jets (9/15), averaged 56.5 yards on four punts (38.2 net) with one punt placed inside the 20 and one punt blocked. His 56.5-yard gross average was the fifth-best of his career in a game with four or more punts. He booted a 63-yard punt in the third quarter, and his 59-yarder in the fourth quarter pinned the Jets inside the 20.

➤ Against Green Bay (9/22), averaged 46.8 yards (43.0 net) on four punts with one punt placed inside the 20. In the fourth quarter, he launched a 57-yard punt.

➤ At Miami (9/30), averaged 41.8 yards (32.4 net) on five punts with two punts placed inside the 20. In the third quarter, he booted a 64-yard punt.

➤ Against Indianapolis (10/13), averaged 57.8 yards (40.4 net) on five punts. His 57.8-yard gross average was the second-best average of his career and ranked fourth in franchise history for a single game (minimum four punts). In the fourth quarter, he registered a career-long 75-yard punt. It was the longest punt by a Titans player since Brett Kern tied the franchise record with a 79-yarder against the Colts on Dec. 28, 2014. Stonehouse's previous long punt was 74 yards (twice, last at Cleveland on Sept. 24, 2023).

➤ At Buffalo (10/20), averaged 53.2 yards (42.0 net) on five punts in windy conditions. In the second quarter, he registered a 62-yard punt, logging his third consecutive game with a punt of at least 62 yards.

➤ At Detroit (10/27), averaged 49.3 yards (17.7 net) on six punts with two punts placed inside the 20. He recorded his 14th consecutive game with at least one punt of 55-plus yards, which is the NFL's longest such active streak and the longest streak of his career.

NFL RECORD: SINGLE-SEASON AVERAGE

In 1940, Washington's Sammy Baugh punted 35 times for 1,799 yards, averaging 51.40 yards per punt. Eighty-two seasons later, the mark still stood as the best qualifying single-season punting average in NFL history, until Titans rookie punter Ryan Stonehouse broke the record in 2022.

Stonehouse, an undrafted rookie from Colorado State University, averaged 53.10 yards per attempt on 90 total punts—1.70 yards per punt ahead of Baugh's number.

Then, in his second season, Stonehouse averaged an NFL-high 53.06 yards per punt. His 53 attempts (2,812 yards) qualified him for the single-season charts, and as a result, he owns the top two numbers of all-time in his first two NFL seasons.

Prior to Stonehouse's rookie campaign, Baugh's mark was one of the NFL's longest-held records. In the 2022 NFL Record & Fact Book, only three single-season individual records predated Baugh's punting mark, and all three of those were later tied: most safeties in a season (two by Green Bay's Tom Nash in 1932 and subsequently tied 18 times), most fumbles returned for a touchdown in a season (two by Boston's Harold McPhail in 1934 and tied 44 times), and most opponent fumbles returned for a touchdown in a season (two by McPhail in 1934 and tied 41 times).

To qualify for the single-season average record, a punter needs a minimum of 2.5 attempts per team game.

Highest single-season punting average (gross average) in NFL history (minimum 2.5 punts per team game):

- Cox's wife, Lauren, is an actress and has appeared in Baltimore filmed TV shows "House of Cards" and "Veep" and on the drama "To-Do."
- Cox played an integral part in the Baltimore Ravens' social justice initiatives. In 2018, he participated in the announcement of the HVAC donation from the Players' Social Justice Fund at Lakewood Elementary in Baltimore. In 2017, Cox took part in a police ride along with law enforcement officials in West Baltimore to meet with local youth and discuss topics surrounding social justice.

79 - C LLOYD CUSHENBERRY III

- At Louisiana State, Cushenberry was the first offensive lineman to be awarded the No. 18 jersey, which is given to the player that best represents what it means to be an LSU football player – on and off the field.
- During his time in Denver, Cushenberry spent time volunteering with Food Bank of the Rockies and Denver Rescue Mission.

28 - S QUANDRE DIGGS

- Diggs' half-brother, Quentin Jammer, was a three-year starter and All-American defensive back at Texas (1997-98, 2000, 01) and played for the Denver Broncos in 2013 after 11 seasons with the San Diego Chargers (2002-12).
- He was a four-year starter at Angleton (Texas) High School and finished his career with 8,265 all-purpose yards and 83 touchdowns on offense. He also lettered three years in track and was a two-year letterman in basketball.

71 - OL JAEALYN DUNCAN

- Growing up, Duncan didn't play organized sports and wasn't introduced to football until he was a freshman at Northern High School. As a freshman, Duncan played travel football for the Patuxent Rhinos 15-U team. He then joined the varsity team at Northern as a sophomore where he played until transferring for his senior year to St. Frances Academy in Baltimore.
- Duncan said he relied on his sheer physical advantages until his redshirt freshman year of college when he really began to understand and implement different techniques into his game.

6 - K NICK FOLK

- Folk is a dual citizen of both the United States and Germany.
- His mother is a direct descendant of William Bradford, an original Mayflower passenger and governor of Plymouth Colony.
- The Children's Tumor Foundation has a special place in Folk's heart. His cousin, Blake, has neurofibromatosis (NF), a genetic disorder that causes tumors to grow on nerves throughout the body. The term NF represents three distinct disorders: NF1, NF2 and schwannomatosis. For Blake, his

TITANS TIDBITS: THE BEST OF TITANS OFF-THE-FIELD NOTES

NF impacts him most where his optic nerves cross in his brain. He currently has five brain tumors. Though NF affects over 2.5 million people worldwide, it is still relatively unknown in the general public. The Children's Tumor Foundation's MAKE NF VISIBLE campaign brings awareness and inclusion to all NF patients. Those with visible signs of NF struggle to be seen as more than just their NF, while patients whose NF is invisible struggle to make others understand. MAKE NF VISIBLE is about seeing NF, and seeing the person living with it.

99 - OLB ALI GAYE

- Gaye was born in The Gambia and immigrated to the United States with his family when he was 12, settling in Everett, Wash. He began playing American football in eighth grade at the age of 14.
- Gaye was a soccer player when he moved to the United States. He stood just 5-foot-5 when he was 12 and had more of a soccer player's body. Trying out for the football team in eighth grade was an "experiment" with the sport. The following year is when Gaye started to grow, shooting up about five inches and putting on around 50 pounds during his freshman year.

50 - LB JACK GIBBENS

- As a rookie, he was nicknamed 'Dr. Gibby' by then-head coach Mike Vobel because of Gibbens' intelligence.
- Gibbens spent time working as a financial analysis intern and served as a teaching and research assistant during college.

57 - LUKE GIFFORD

- Gifford was the recipient of Nebraska's prestigious Sam Foltz Hero 27 Award in 2018 for exceptional leadership, consistent and dedicated community service, and positive influence on the team.

92 - JAYLEN HARRELL

- His father, James Harrell, played linebacker in the NFL for the Detroit Lions (1979-83, 85-86) and the Kansas City Chiefs (1987). He also played for the USFL's Tampa Bay Bandits from 1984-85.
- Harrell played with Titans offensive lineman Nicholas Petit-Frere at Berkeley Preparatory School in Tampa, Fla.

37 - S AMANI HOOKER

- Hooker was named a finalist for Minnesota's Mr. Football in 2015. Yet he had just two FBS scholarship offers. When the in-state university showed hesitancy after multiple workouts, Hooker knew he belonged at Iowa saying, "love who loves me."
- Amani's brother, Quinton, played basketball for North Dakota and helped take the team to the NCAA tournament his senior year. Quinton was Minnesota's Mr. Basketball in high school and currently plays basketball professionally in France.

19 - WR JHA'QUAN JACKSON

- Jackson's uncle is NFL Hall of Fame safety Ed Reed.
- Jackson is a close friend and former roommate of Titans current running back Tyjae Spears at Tulane.
- Jackson is also close with former Titans running back/returner and Hahnville High School alumnus Darius Reynaud. Jackson and Reynaud speak "about once a week ever since I was in high school."

32 - CB GABE JEUDY-LALLY

- Jeudy-Lally speaks fluent Russian. His mother immigrated to the U.S. from Ukraine, and his grandfather played on Ukraine's national soccer team.
- He graduated with a degree in human and organizational development with a minor in business from Vanderbilt in May 2022. He then earned his masters in sports management from University of Tennessee in May 2024.

69 - DE SEBASTIAN JOSEPH-DAY

- While in Los Angeles, Joseph-Day was a co-host of a podcast with boxing legend Mike Tyson. On the podcast, Hotboxin' with Mike Tyson, Joseph-Day and Tyson interviewed Ne-Yo, Hasbulla, The Undertaker, Terrell Owens, T-Pain and Tony Hawk, among others.
- Joseph-Day, whose nickname is 'Bash,' has hosted a digital series called 'Dine N Bash.' The show combines his passion for food and culture, highlighting local Los Angeles restaurants and sharing their origin stories, top dishes and what makes them unique. Joseph-Day began the show during the COVID-19 pandemic as a way to showcase local businesses.

49 - OLB ARDEN KEY

- Key comes from a large family that includes four sets of twins, all who share in his athleticism on the basketball court. Arden's twin, Angel, was a cheerleader for her brother's football team.
- His father, Arden Key Sr., played point guard and shooting guard at Jacksonville State and also coached Arden Jr. in football.

12 - WR MASON KINSEY

- At Berry College, Kinsey's career receptions (203), receiving yardage (3,343) and receiving touchdowns (50) all rank first in school history, and his career receiving yardage and touchdowns set Southern Athletic Association records.

58 - HAROLD LANDRY III

- Landry could have entered the NFL Draft following his 16.5-sack junior season at Boston College. However, he chose to stay in school and received his degree in communications in December 2017.
- Landry enjoys traveling. One of his favorite getaways is Destin, Fla.
- He and his wife, Danielle, have two sons, Greyson and Ollie. He and Greyson share the same June 5 birthday.

55 - T JC LATHAM

- Latham enrolled at IMG Academy intending to play defensive line, but injuries to three teammates forced him to move to offensive line two weeks before the start of his junior season.
- One of Latham's talents off the field is his cooking. He believes 'no one can make your food the way you like it better than you.' His go-to dish is hot honey jerk chicken over rice and mac and cheese.

8 - QB WILL LEVIS

- Levis' great grandfather, Alva Kelley, was an All-America football player at Cornell University and won a National Championship in 1939. His mother, Beth Kelley Levis, was a two-time All-America soccer player at Yale and has been inducted into the Connecticut Girls' Soccer Association Hall of Fame. His father, Mike, was a tight end at Denison University. His uncle, David Kelley, also was an Academic All-America football player at Yale.
- Levis has used his platform to make a difference in the community. He set up a Cameo campaign to raise money for flood victims in eastern Kentucky in 2022 and organized an autograph signing with fellow teammates to gather funds for tornado victims in western Kentucky in 2021. He has also volunteered with Amachi, an organization that aims to assist children affected by incarceration.
- Levis was a special guest at Special Olympics of Tennessee's Summer Games Opening Ceremonies in 2024. He shook hands, took photos, signed autographs and had conversations with a majority of the athletes participating in the games.
- Levis has an endorsement deal with Hellmann's Mayonnaise that resulted in the 2024 release of the world's first parfum de mayonnaise, Will Levis No. 8, and a humorous accompanying ad campaign.

97 - DL JAMES LYNCH

- While participating in the 2020 NFL Combine, Lynch partnered with Uplifting Athletes to raise money for the rare disease community.
- Lynch's middle name, Husker, was given to him by his father, Tim, who played linebacker at Nebraska.

88 - TE DAVID MARTIN-ROBINSON

- Martin-Robinson spent 2022 spring break in Rome as part of Temple University's Study Abroad program.
- His nickname is "DMR."
- Martin-Robinson was a three-sport athlete at Hempfield (Landisville, Pa.) High School playing football, baseball and track and field.

21 - CB ROGER MCCREARY

- McCreary's pregame ritual in college was eating two plates of baked beans with sugar the night before a game. The tradition started when he got to Auburn and he says Bush's baked beans are his favorite.

TITANS TIDBITS: THE BEST OF TITANS OFF-THE-FIELD NOTES

➤ His uncle, Angelo James, was a defensive back for the Philadelphia Eagles.

56 - LB KENNETH MURRAY JR.

➤ Murray's family adopted three special needs children when he was 10 years old, and he has used his love for them and his family to motivate his success on the gridiron.

➤ Murray is a certified scuba diver.

➤ In the summer of 2019, Murray performed CPR to revive an unresponsive woman on a street corner in Norman, Okla.

89 - TE THOMAS ODUKOYA

➤ Odukoya joined the Titans in 2022 as part of the NFL's International Player Pathway program. He was born in the Netherlands to a Dutch mother and Nigerian father.

➤ A play made by Odukoya in the Titans' final game of the 2024 preseason at New Orleans garnered national attention. He made a touchdown-saving tackle at the end of the first half, forcing Samson Nacua out of bounds at the three-yard line following a 106-yard return of a missed field goal. Odukoya ran a total of 163 yards before making the stop. In the Next Gen Stats player-tracking era (since 2016), it was the longest distance covered to make a tackle by any player in any preseason, regular season or postseason game.

61 - OL JOHN OJUKWU

➤ As a junior at Boise State (Idaho) High School, Ojukwu weighed only 185 pounds. Knowing that he needed to gain weight to have a chance in college, he ate large amounts of food and constantly worked out. He gained close to 100 pounds in nine months with a diet that included a daily gallon of milk and sometimes whole pizzas.

➤ In high school, Ojukwu interned for Boise State University's sports performance department.

85 - TE CHIG OKONKWO

➤ Okonkwo's father, Charlton, passed away of a heart attack when Okonkwo was 15. According to his mother, Isioma, who emigrated from Nigeria, "In our culture, the boys, even if they're young or not, they're always considered more important. When my husband passed, the people who came let him know that he's the man and now he has the responsibility to take care of his mom and his sisters." According to Okonkwo, "In our culture, [being] the man in the house is a really big deal. As the only male, I was the one giving my mom support."

➤ Okonkwo sat out the 2020 season with myocarditis due to COVID.

➤ Okonkwo is a cat lover and has a feline named Sage.

➤ In his free time, Okonkwo enjoys watching anime.

78 - OL NICHOLAS PETIT-FRERE

➤ Petit-Frere was about 270 pounds when he arrived at Ohio State, and it took him a while to get to his current weight of around 315 pounds. During the COVID-19 pandemic, he learned how to cook to help him continue his weight progress. He still enjoys cooking to this day, especially a lot of pastas, but says he can cook anything. He really enjoys trying out new recipes.

➤ Petit-Frere is trying to learn how to play the piano after playing the cello in middle school.

➤ He worked for Metropolitan Ministries in high school and would like to continue to be involved in education and causes to help underprivileged children and victims of domestic violence.

20 - RB TONY POLLARD

➤ Pollard's family owns Pollard's Bar-B-Q restaurant in his hometown of Memphis. Starting from humble beginnings, Pollard's was first established as a mobile catering business in 1995. As the demand for their unique southern style of Memphis BBQ grew, Pollard's reopened in the fall of 1996 as a small carry-out catering business. In 2011, Pollard's answered the overwhelming demands of its growing customer base by becoming a dine-in restaurant. With the new expansion came bigger and better things, such as an expanded menu and an upscale renovation by Food Network's Robert Irvine from Restaurant Impossible.

➤ Pollard was a dynamic kickoff returner at the collegiate level, tying a FBS record with seven career kickoff returns for touchdowns during his Memphis

75 - OL DILLON RADUNZ

➤ Radunz has a long history with the jersey number 75. At Becker (Minn.) High School, No. 75 was passed down from the previous player of the year to him. After he won the player of the year award, he passed it on to the next winner. Then he was issued the number at North Dakota State and later passed it on to his younger brother, Nick.

➤ The community fellowship program Alcoholics Anonymous has a special place in Radunz's life due to his father's struggles with alcoholism. His father, Jeff, passed away at the age of 45 in an alcohol-related incident when Dillon was 12.

➤ He was voted by his teammates as the Ed Block Courage Award winner for the Titans in 2023 after coming back from a knee injury that he suffered in 2022.

41 - LB OTIS REESE IV

➤ Reese played safety during his college career, but made the transition to linebacker once he arrived with the Titans.

➤ When asked what he would be if not an NFL player, Reese said he never considered a plan B. "If I didn't make it, I was going to keep trying until I did."

0 - WR CALVIN RIDLEY

➤ Ridley and his younger brothers spent parts of their childhood growing up in foster homes in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. He says that's when football saved his life. The Ridley brothers were moved to SOS Children's Village in Coconut Creek, Fla., a small complex with 10 houses and around 150 apartments. He used to wake up in the morning and bang on all the doors, rounding up everybody to play football. At that time, he realized if he had football, he would be all right.

➤ When he was younger, Ridley played Pop Warner football in the same league as Baltimore Ravens quarterback Lamar Jackson, Kansas City Chiefs wide receiver Marquise Brown and Ravens cornerback Trayvon Mullen, in the Pompano Beach area of Florida just four miles from the high school he would attend.

➤ His younger brother, Riley, played college football at Georgia and was drafted by the Chicago Bears in the fourth round of the 2019 NFL Draft.

11 - QB MASON RUDOLPH

➤ Rudolph comes from an athletic family. His mother, Jamie, ran track at Liberty University and his dad, Brett, played football at the University of North Carolina. His younger brother, Logan, played on the defensive line at Clemson from 2017-19.

➤ Rudolph has a strong connection to 2024 first-round quarterback Drake Maye. In the mid-1980s, Drake's father, Mark, was the starting quarterback at North Carolina and his roommate was Mason's dad, Brett, a linebacker on the Tar Heels. The two fathers have stayed close in the years since college, and their children grew up together. When the Rudolphs lived in Virginia, the families would go on vacation together once or twice each year. After the Rudolphs moved to Rock Hill, S.C., when Mason was in middle school, they were a 45-minute drive from the Mayes' home in Huntersville, N.C. The boys went to each other's basketball and football games.

76 - OL ANDREW RUPCICH

➤ Rupcich was the only NAIA player to play in the 2022 NFLPA Collegiate Bowl Game. The game was held at the Rose Bowl, which holds a very special place in his heart because it was where he "watched his first-ever live football game... so it was amazing to see it come full circle." Rupcich was also the only NAIA player to participate in the NFL Combine that year.

98 - DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

➤ In 2023, Simmons was named the Titans nominee for the NFL's Walter Payton Man of the Year Award that recognizes a player for outstanding community service, as well as excellence on the field. "To be in a position to be able to give back, it means a lot. I want to be a light in the community."

➤ In July 2023, Simmons paid homage to his hometown of Macon, Miss., with his first 'Community Fun Day,' which included local food vendors, games, inflatables and fireworks. He was then honored by city officials with a key to the city. He also holds an annual youth football camp in Mississippi.

➤ In July 2022, the official ribbon cutting was held at the Jeffery B. Simmons Field House at Noxubee County High School in Macon, Miss.

TITANS TIDBITS: THE BEST OF TITANS OFF-THE-FIELD NOTES

Simmons donated more than $50,000 to upgrade his former high school's athletic facilities. During the same week, he donated $75,000 to Starkville (Miss.) Parks and Recreation to be used for a new turf field at the Starkville Sportsplex. The field was also named in his honor.

- Simmons' brother, Dylan Bradley, played football at Southern Miss and then spent time with the Minnesota Vikings. His uncle, Jason Hatcher, played 10 total seasons with the Dallas Cowboys and Washington Commanders.
- Away from football, Simmons enjoys fishing and spending time outdoors.

77 - G PETER SKORONSKI

➤ His grandfather, Bob Skoronski, was a left tackle for the Green Bay Packers, playing nine total seasons with the franchise. He missed two seasons while serving in the U.S. Air Force. He was a permanent offensive captain for the Packers under Vince Lombardi from 1964 to 1968 and played on five NFL championship teams. In 1976, he was inducted into the Packers Hall of Fame.

- Among all offensive linemen at the 2023 NFL Scouting Combine, Skoronski placed second in the vertical jump (34.50 inches), second in the broad jump (9 feet 7 inches), fifth in the bench press (30 reps) and ninth in the 10-yard split (1.75 seconds).
- Minored in history in college and considers himself a "history nerd."
- Has a black lab named Slim.

38 - CB L'JARIUS SNEED

➤ After playing wide receiver at Minden (La.) High School, Sneed converted to cornerback at Louisiana Tech and saw playing time in his true freshman season. His initial collegiate campaign was highlighted by an interception return touchdown against Western Kentucky in the Conference USA Championship Game.

- Sneed's brother, T.Q. Mims, played football at Arkansas-Pine Bluff from 2010 to 2013.

2 - RB TYJAE SPEARS

➤ In the sixth round of the 2024 NFL Draft, the Titans selected one of Spears' best friends and his former college roommate, Tulane wide receiver Jha'Quan Jackson. Spears was with Jackson when he received the phone call from general manager Ran Carthon during the draft.

- Spears has worked with a non-profit organization in New Orleans called Son of a Saint, which provides "mentorship, education, recreation, camaraderie, cultural enrichment, emotional support and helping to fill the void for dozens of fatherless young men."
- His first job as a teenager was working at Walmart.

4 - P RYAN STONEHOUSE

➤ Stonehouse comes from a lineage of punters. His father, Paul, was an All-American punter for Stanford. His uncle, John Stonehouse was an All-American punter at Southern California and was signed by the New York Giants as a rookie free agent in 1996. His uncle, Jeff Banks, was a punter at Washington State. His younger cousin, Jack, is a punter at Missouri.

- Stonehouse's father, Paul, and uncle, John, used to teach punting at their camp, The Kicking Game, and through private lessons. The camp's website houses testimonials from coaches Bill Walsh, John Robinson, Paul Pasqualoni and Mike Price.
- As a craftsman, Stonehouse built an outdoor kitchen in his home, that is owned by his grandmother, and it is complete with two different cooking areas, a sink, granite countertops, it is made out of wood and brick and is even wired for lighting.

93 - NT T'VONDRE SWEAT

➤ Sweat considers fellow Titans defensive lineman Keondre Coburn a close friend and mentor after playing together at Texas.

- Away from football, Sweat enjoys playing video games, including Madden, NBA 2K and Call of Duty: Warzone.
- The son of Lashunda Ross, Sweat is a self-proclaimed "Momma's boy" and chose to go to Texas to be closer to her. After being drafted and signing his first NFL contract, he surprised his mother by purchasing her a home in their hometown of Houston.

84 - TE NICK VANNETT

- Vannett played a role in the development of a product called "Screen Skinz," a tempered glass screen protector that shows logos of professional and major college sports teams while a phone is off.
- He graduated from Ohio State in August 2015 with a degree in sport industry.

72 - T LEROY WATSON IV

- Watson, who started playing football as a high school junior, played exclusively at tight end during his collegiate career before transitioning to the offensive line in the NFL.
- Watson is a talented musician who excels at playing the piano.
- He also has a passion for cooking and improving his culinary skills.

15 - WR NICK WESTBROOK-IKHINE

- As an avid dog lover, Westbrook-Ikhine took care of dogs while in college through the popular app "Rover." Westbrook-Ikhine joined Rover the summer before his senior year at Indiana, and he would set his rate $10-15 lower than the average price to ensure he was selected as a dog-sitter. Westbrook-Ikhine would bring the dogs everywhere with him, even to Indiana's indoor field, and would let the dogs run around on the turf. He has his own rescue dog now named Winston.
- In 2021, Westbrook-Ikhine was named the team's Ed Block Courage Award recipient.
- Westbrook-Ikhine and his wife have become involved with Destiny Rescue, a "global, faith-based organization that rescues children out of sexual exploitation and human trafficking and most importantly helps them stay free." He chose to represent the organization through the NFL's My Cause My Cleats initiative.

81 - TE JOSH WHYLE

- Whyle had the chance to meet Titans great Delanie Walker at the 2023 NFL Combine and the two tight ends enjoyed dinner together one evening.
- He loves country music and his all-time favorite artists are Johnny Cash, Luke Combs and Kenny Chesney.
- He has two cats named Boots and Georgie.
- Whyle and fellow Titans tight end Chig Okonkwo were born on the same day: Sept. 8, 1999.

52 - LB JAMES WILLIAMS

- Williams played against fellow 2024 Titans draftee Jarvis Brownlee Jr. since they were both young from pee wee ball through high school in the Fort Lauderdale, Fla., area.
- Williams' hidden talent is writing poetry.

24 - DB JULIUS WOOD

- Wood is familiar with the new professional surroundings having trained at X3 Performance and Physical Therapy in Nashville during the 2024 pre-draft process.

NISSAN STADIUM GAMEDAY MEDIA INFORMATION

MEDIA RELATIONS CONTACTS

Titans Media Relations (Press Box Seats 1-7): (615) 565-4450
Robbie Bohren, Vice President, Football Communications
Dwight Spradlin, Director of Football Communications
Jared Puffer, Associate Director of Football Communications (Field Contact)
Kaylee Connors, Coordinator of Football Communications
Travis McDaniel, Football Communications Assistant (Media Will Call)
Visiting Team Media Relations (Press Box Seats 29-32): (615) 565-4452

DIRECTIONS TO NISSAN STADIUM

FROM AIRPORT TO NISSAN STADIUM (APPROXIMATELY 15 MINUTES): Take I-40 West toward Nashville/Memphis to I-24 West (before downtown). Exit at James Robertson Parkway (Exit 48). Turn left at first light (Interstate Drive). Turn right on Woodland Street. Nissan Stadium will be on the left. Follow signs to parking lot ("M" lot on northwest corner/river side of stadium).

NISSAN STADIUM MEDIA WILL CALL/MEDIA ENTRANCE

The media will call window and media entrance are located in the northwest corner of Nissan Stadium near Gate 6. The media will call window opens three hours prior to kickoff.

FIELD MEDIA VESTS

All members of the media with field access during the game must wear a media vest. Still and video photographers will be issued tan vests, while team-affiliated photographers and videographers (scoreboard, social, coaches' shows, etc.) will be issued gray vests. Additionally, media with in-game field access will be issued an armband. All vests and armbands must be obtained prior to each game at the check-in table. Vest check-in is located on the third-floor landing near the press box. All vests must be returned at the conclusion of the game to Titans personnel or to the vest check-in table.

NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX INTERNET ACCESS

Wireless internet access is available free of charge in the Nissan Stadium press box. The login information will be available upon arrival in the press box. A limited number of ethernet lines also are available. Accessing the wireless network works the same in the Nissan Stadium press box as it does in most areas with free connectivity. Titans staff may be able to assist in a limited manner, but you should first contact your company's I.T. department with any questions.

FROM NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX TO INTERVIEW ROOMS

Take the press box elevator (Level 3) to field level (Level 1). The Titans interview room is immediately on the right. Turn left and continue straight along the concourse to reach the visiting team's interview room (white line).

POSTGAME POLICIES

Reporters with press box credentials will not be allowed on the field during pre-game activities or during the game itself. Press box credentials do NOT provide access to the field at the two-minute warning in the fourth quarter. Media will be allowed to gather in the Titans interview room to watch the end of the game or remain in the press box to make the short walk down to the field level at the conclusion of the game. Interviews with Titans players are not permitted on the field following the game. The press conference will begin approximately 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game and will be held in the interview room across from the Titans locker room. Key players also will be brought to the interview room. Simultaneously, the locker room will open to credentialed media members with a working function. The press conference audio will be played live over the press box speakers.

POSTGAME QUOTES

Quotes from each team's head coach and key players will be transcribed and distributed throughout the Nissan Stadium press box following the game. The quotes also will be available at www.TennesseeTitans.com/media.

POOL REPORTS

Pool reporters are assigned by the Pro Football Writers of America. Requests for pool reports with game officials must be made in advance through the home team's media relations. Interviews will be conducted virtually. Pool reports will be recorded, transcribed and then distributed in the press box.

EXITING NISSAN STADIUM

FROM NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX TO STADIUM EXIT: Cross the press box catwalk to the third floor lobby. Take the stairs or elevator one floor down to Level 2. Exit through the doors and walk right to get to the "M" lot.

FROM NISSAN STADIUM TO AIRPORT (APPROXIMATELY 15 MINUTES): Take I-24 East toward Chattanooga to I-40 East toward Knoxville. The airport is at Exit 216A.

NISSAN STADIUM PARKING AND MEDIA ENTRANCE

The media will call window and media entrance are located in the northwest corner of Nissan Stadium near Gate 6. The media will call window opens three hours prior to kickoff. Photographers' vests can be picked up near the entrance to the press box on Level 3.
