TITANS HOST DIVISION RIVAL TEXANS IN WEEK 6

Tennessee Titans (4-0) vs. Houston Texans (1-4)
Sunday, Oct. 18, 2020 • Noon CDT • Nissan Stadium • Nashville, Tenn. • TV: CBS

NASHVILLE — The Tennessee Titans, who are 4-0 for the first time since 2008 and for the second time in franchise history, host the AFC South rival Houston Texans (1-4) this week. Kickoff at Nissan Stadium is scheduled for noon CDT on Sunday, Oct. 18.

The Titans will have a short week to prepare for the Texans after hosting the Buffalo Bills last week in the franchise's first ever Tuesday contest. The matchup was changed from Sunday to Tuesday due to the Titans' COVID-19 outbreak following their Week 3 trip to Minnesota. The Titans' original Week 4 game against the Pittsburgh Steelers was moved to Oct. 25, their original bye date.

At the time of the Bills game, the Titans had eight players on their reserve/COVID-19 lists, including five from their active/inactive roster and three from their practice squad. At the outbreak's peak, there were a total of 14 players on the reserve/COVID-19 lists.

This week marks the Titans' second consecutive game hosting fans at Nissan Stadium. Ticket sales to season ticket members were limited to 15 percent of the venue's normal capacity. The number of fans allowed this season has the potential to increase to 21 percent of the venue's normal capacity under current Center for Disease Control guidelines. Detailed information on the team's Safe Stadium Plan can be found at tennesseetitans.com/safestadium.

Additionally, Compass Media Networks will broadcast the game to a national radio audience. Play-by-play announcer Bill Rosinski and analyst Chad Brown will have the call.

TITANS FIGHT THROUGH ADVERSITY FOR 4-0 START
Last week the Titans and Bills put on the NFL's second Tuesday game since 1946 and the first one since a snowstorm forced the Philadelphia Eagles to host the Minnesota Vikings on Tuesday, Dec. 28, 2010.

Positive COVID-19 test results forced the Titans to close their headquarters, Saint Thomas Sports Park, on Tuesday, Sept. 29, and the facility did not reopen until Saturday, Oct. 10. Following three days of in-person activities, the Titans took the field against the previously unbeaten Bills and won convincingly, 42-16.

The Titans scored 21 points off three turnovers by the Bills, sparked by cornerback Malcolm Butler's two interceptions and 97 total return yards.

Quarterback Ryan Tannehill completed 75 percent of his passes (21-of-28) for 195 yards with three touchdowns through the air and one on the ground. He found wide receiver A.J. Brown for one touchdown pass and tight end Jonnu Smith for two more.

Running back Derrick Henry added two touchdown runs, giving him consecutive games with a pair of rushing scores.

THE TEXANS
The Texans opened the 2020 campaign with four consecutive losses. Then, on Oct. 5, the club parted ways with head coach and general manager Bill O'Brien and promoted Romeo Crennel to interim head coach.

The 73-year-old Crennel, who attended Western Kentucky University, began the season as the team's associate head coach. Last week when the Texans hosted the Jaguars at NRG Stadium, be became the oldest NFL head coach of all-time. The Texans won by a final score of 30-14, earning their first victory of the season.

Texans quarterback Deshaun Watson is in his fourth NFL season. In Week 2, he became the first player in NFL history to reach 10,000 career passing yards and 1,000 career rushing yards in his first 40 games. In 2019, he became the NFL's first player to notch consecutive seasons with at least 25 passing touchdowns and five rushing touchdowns.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR THIS WEEK

➢ The Titans enter the game with a streak of 13 consecutive quarters with at least one score.

➢ The Titans can score 30 or more points for a fourth consecutive game, matching a 2019 accomplishment. Prior to then, the last time the Titans had four straight 30-point outings was 2003 (six games).

➢ The Titans enter the game with eight consecutive red zone possessions that have resulted in touchdowns.

➢ RB Derrick Henry can notch his 16th career 100-yard rushing game, including regular season and playoffs.

➢ TE Jonnu Smith (five touchdown receptions in 2020) needs two touchdown receptions to tie Delanie Walker (seven in 2016) for the most single-season touchdown receptions by a tight end in the franchise's "Titans era" (1999–present).

➢ QB Ryan Tannehill (nine touchdown passes in 2020) needs one touchdown pass to become the franchise's first signal caller since Warren Moon in 1992 (12) with at least 10 total touchdown passes in the first five games of a season.

SERIES HISTORY

The Titans-Texans rivalry is in its 19th year since the expansion Texans began play and the AFC South was formed in 2002. In 36 games, the Titans are 19-17 against the Texans, including an 11-7 mark at Nissan Stadium and an 8-10 record at NRG Stadium.

In the last four seasons, the Titans and Texans have split the annual series. The home team took each game from 2016 to 2018 before the road teams won in 2019.

In the 2019 regular season finale, the two eventual playoff teams met at NRG Stadium. The Texans had already clinched the AFC South, while the Titans went into the day potentially needing a win to secure the wild card berth. The Texans had defended their home turf a series-record seven consecutive times against the Titans, but the Titans came away with a 35-14 win.

The first Titans-Texans game of 2019 was played only 14 days earlier, with Houston escaping Nissan Stadium in Nashville with a 24-21 victory.

The Titans franchise has a rich and storied history with the city of Houston. Under late owner K.S. "Bud" Adams Jr., the Titans existed as the Houston Oilers from 1960-96. In Houston, the Oilers won the first two American Football League Championships and made a total of 15 playoff appearances.

Ten players who spent a significant portion of their careers in a Houston Oilers uniform are enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, including former quarterback Warren Moon, outside linebacker Robert Brazile, defensive tackle Curley Culp and offensive lineman Bruce Matthews.

The team moved to Tennessee in 1997 and in 1999 adopted the "Titans" moniker.

Current Titans Controlling Owner and Co-Chairman Amy Adams Strunk is a graduate of the University of Texas and resides in Waller, Texas.

TITANS-TEXANS: THE LAST MEETING

Week 17: Titans 35, Texans 14
Sunday, Dec. 29, 2019 • 3:25 p.m. CT • NRG Stadium

GAME RECAP

In Week 17 of the 2019 season, the Titans traveled to Houston and secured a playoff berth with a 35-14 victory over the Texans.

On Houston's opening possession, Texans QB AJ McCarron led his team on a 15-play, 75-yard scoring drive that included first down receptions by TE Jordan Akins, WR Steven Mitchell Jr., and RB Duke Johnson. Ultimately, Johnson ran into the end zone on a one-yard score for an early 7-0 lead. As the Tennessee offense took the field, Titans QB Ryan Tannehill and the offense responded and engineered a quick four-play scoring drive. Tannehill opened the drive with a 19-yard rush before connecting with WR A.J. Brown for a 51-yard touchdown down the right sideline to tie the game, 7-7.

Later in the first quarter, Tennessee began a 16-play scoring drive to take the lead. WRs Corey Davis and Tajaé Sharpe contributed first down receptions, and RB Derrick Henry added two first downs on the ground. QB Marcus Mariota entered the game to throw a 24-yard pass to Brown, which not only moved the chains, but also put Brown over 1,000 receiving yards on the season. Ultimately, Tannehill found TE MyCole Pruitt in the end zone for a one-yard touchdown and a 14-7 lead.

Tennessee began the second half in possession of the ball and orchestrated a 78-yard scoring drive that featured 10 straight run plays. Henry accounted for 46 yards on the drive, including a three-yard touchdown plunge to make it a 21-7 game. On the following Houston possession, the Texans responded with a scoring drive to pull within one possession. The 16-play scoring drive culminated in a one-yard rushing score by McCarron, 21-14. Then on the ensuing Titans possession, Brown made another big play as he caught a 47-yard reception that gave Tennessee the ball at the Houston one-yard line. Henry swiftly ran in a one-yard touchdown to make it a 28-14 game.

In the fourth quarter with 3:30 remaining to play, McCarron attempted a pass but it was intercepted by S Kevin Byard at the Tennessee 15-yard line. The offense took the field and Henry recorded three consecutive carries of five, 23, and four yards, before breaking free for a 53-yard rushing score that secured the victory as well as the NFL's rushing title. Tennessee secured a playoff berth after winning a 35-14 division game on the road.

LAST WEEK VS. THE BILLS

Week 5: Titans 42, Bills 16
Tuesday, Oct. 13, 2020 • 6:05 p.m. CT • Nissan Stadium

In Week 5 of the 2020 season, the Titans hosted the Buffalo Bills for a Tuesday night matchup that was rescheduled due to Tennessee's COVID-19 outbreak. With just two days of practice before the game after Saint Thomas Sports Park was closed, and 16 days since their Week 3 contest, the Titans used three takeaways and six total touchdowns to beat the Bills by a score of 42-16.

Buffalo had possession of the ball to begin the game, but on the third play, Bills QB Josh Allen threw an interception to CB Malcolm Butler who returned the ball 29 yards to the Buffalo 16-yard line. Tennessee quickly took a 7-0 lead as QB Ryan Tannehill tossed a 16-yard touchdown strike to WR A.J. Brown. On their ensuing possession, Buffalo put together a 76-yard scoring drive that culminated in Allen throwing a three-yard touchdown to Bills WR Isaiah McKenzie to tie the game, 7-7. Later in the first quarter, WR Kalif Raymond recorded a 40-yard punt return to put the Titans in good field position at the Buffalo 30-yard line, and he also contributed a 20-yard catch on the drive. Ultimately, RB Derrick Henry ran in a one-yard score for a 14-7 lead.

In the second quarter, Buffalo added a 10-play scoring drive with Bills TE Dawson Knox, Bills WR Stefon Diggs and Bills WR Gabriel Davis contributing first down receptions. However, the Titans defense kept Buffalo at bay and forced them to settle for a 43-yard field goal to make it 14-10. Later in the second quarter, the Titans put together a 90-yard scoring drive to close out the first half of the game on top. Henry and Tannehill rushed for first downs and Brown added a 12-yard gain before Tannehill took the ball into the end zone himself for a 10-yard touchdown and a 21-10 halftime lead.

On Buffalo's opening drive of the second half, the Bills drove from their own three-yard line to the Tennessee 33-yard line. However, Allen threw his second pick of the day to Butler, who intercepted the ball at the Tennessee 20-yard line and returned it a career-long 68 yards. Tennessee took possession in the red zone and capitalized as Tannehill threw a four-yard touchdown to TE Jonnu Smith for a 28-10 lead.

In the fourth quarter, Buffalo tacked on a 90-yard scoring drive with assistance by two first-down receptions by Bills WR Cole Beasley. Allen connected with Bills RB T.J. Yeldon for a 22-yard score, but Buffalo's two-point conversion attempt failed as Allen threw an incompletion. Buffalo cut Tennessee's lead to 28-16. However, Tennessee then constructed back-to-back scoring drives. First came an 11-play, 75-yard scoring drive that saw Tannehill contribute a 23-yard rushing gain before Henry capped the drive with a nine-yard touchdown for a 35-16 lead. On the ensuing kickoff, LB David Long Jr. caused Bills WR Andre Roberts to fumble the return and it was recovered by CB Kareem Orr. Tennessee took possession at the Buffalo 18-yard line and capitalized on the third turnover of the night as Smith caught a seven-yard touchdown. The Titans took a 42-16 lead to seal a victory and hand Buffalo it's first loss of the season.

NOTES FROM LAST WEEK'S GAME

TEAM NOTES

➢ The win gave the Titans a 4-0 start to the season for the second time in franchise history and for the first time since 2008.

➢ The Titans earned their first win against the Bills since 2012.

➢ For the first time since Nissan Stadium opened in 1999, two undefeated teams after three or more weeks of a season met there. The Bills were 4-0, while the Titans were 3-0 heading into the contest.

➢ The Titans waited 16 days to play the game after last appearing at Minnesota on Sept. 27. It was the longest break between games for the team in its "Titans era" (1999-present).

➢ By kickoff, the Titans still had five players on their reserve/COVID-19 list, plus an additional three practice squad players on reserve/COVID-19. At the peak of the outbreak, they had 14 total players on reserve/COVID-19 and practice squad reserve/COVID-19. The four practice squad players elevated to participate in the game against Buffalo were wide receiver Cody Hollister, cornerback Kareem Orr, linebacker Daren Bates and offensive lineman David Quessenberry.

➢ The Titans and Bills played the 21st Tuesday game in NFL history. The last occurred on Dec. 28, 2010, when the Eagles hosted the Vikings on a Tuesday due to a weekend snowstorm. Prior to that instance, the last Tuesday game was the Boston Yanks at the New York Giants on Oct. 1, 1946.

➢ The announced attendance at Nissan Stadium was 8,403. It was the first time the Titans were able to have fans at a preseason or a regular season game in 2020, and ticket sales were limited to 12.5 percent of the venue's capacity.

➢ The Titans' 42 total points against the Bills tied for the fourth-highest total by the team in a game at Nissan Stadium, which opened in 1999. The last time the Titans scored at least 42 points at home was Nov. 24, 2019 against the Jacksonville Jaguars (42).

➢ The Titans' 26-point margin over the Bills was their fifth-highest in a game at Nissan Stadium. It was the highest for the team at home since a 40-point win over the St. Louis Rams on Dec. 13, 2009.

➢ The Titans recorded their third consecutive game with at least 31 points. Through four games, the Titans' average of 30.5 points per game ranks sixth in the NFL.

➢ The Titans' 122 points in 2020 are most ever by the franchise through the first four games of a season. The previous high was 121 points by the Oilers in 1989.

➢ The Titans scored 21 points off turnovers, posting touchdowns after each of their three takeaways (two interceptions and one fumble recovery). It was their highest point total off turnovers since Sept. 8, 2019 at Cleveland (21).

➢ The Titans have nine total takeaways and one turnover through four games in 2020. They lead the NFL with a plus-eight turnover differential.

➢ The Titans scored three receiving touchdowns and three rushing touchdowns for the first time in a game since Oct. 11, 2004 at Green Bay.

➢ The Titans scored a touchdown on their opening possession for the second time in 2020 (Sept. 20 vs. Jacksonville). They have scored on their opening possession in three straight games (two touchdowns, one field goal).

➢ The Titans had the ball in the red zone six times during the game and scored touchdowns on all six occasions. It was the first time since at least 2000 that the Titans have had six or more possessions in the red zone and scored touchdowns on 100 percent of them. Prior to the Titans, the last NFL team that was perfect (scored touchdowns) on at least six red zone drives in a game was Baltimore against Buffalo on Sept. 9, 2018.

➢ The Titans offense converted 60 percent of their third-down attempts (6-of-10), reaching the mark for the second time this season. They were 63.6 percent (7-of-11) against Jacksonville on Sept. 20. They also converted their only fourth-down attempt against the Bills.

➢ The Titans offense did not give up a sack for the first time since Dec. 29, 2019 at Houston. The Titans' four sacks allowed in 2020 is the second-lowest total in the NFL (three by Green Bay).

➢ Against the Bills, the Titans' average starting field position was their own 46-yard line (46.1), while the Bills' average was their own 17 (17.3). The average field position differential of 28.8 yards was the highest in the NFL since Nov. 15, 2015, when Kansas City averaged 29.2 more yards per drive start than Denver. It was the Titans' best figure since at least 2000.

WR A.J. BROWN

➢ Led the team with seven receptions and 82 receiving yards, including a touchdown reception. It was the second-highest reception total of his career (eight vs. Houston on Dec. 15, 2019) and his seventh-highest receiving yardage total.

➢ Recorded his first touchdown of the season and the ninth touchdown reception of his career on a 16-yard pass from Ryan Tannehill in the first quarter

CB MALCOLM BUTLER

➢ Registered his second career game with two interceptions and his first since he played the New York Jets as a member of the New England Patriots on Dec. 24, 2016. He added seven tackles against the Bills.

➢ Ended the Bills' first possession with an interception of a Josh Allen pass. He returned the ball 29 yards to help set up a Titans touchdown on the ensuing drive. It was Butler's first interception of the season.

➢ Intercepted Josh Allen and raced 68 yards on the return to set up a touchdown in the third quarter. It was his longest career interception return, topping his 56-yard touchdown return against Washington on Dec. 22, 2018. It was the longest interception return by a Titans player since Zach Brown's 79-yarder against Jacksonville on Dec. 30, 2012. Butler notched his 15th career interception on the play.

➢ Produced 97 total interception return yards, the most by an NFL player in 2020 and the most by a Titans player since Zach Brown's 109 yards against Jacksonville on Dec. 30, 2012.

ILB RASHAAN EVANS

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

TUESDAY, OCT. 13, 2020

(on today's game being a game of 'want and desire' after the team was faced with adversity)
I mean, they're all about want and desire. We want to win every game and we have to prepare in any manner that we have to to get the team ready. All the credit goes to the players for sticking together to execute and plan, going from Zoom meetings to driving in (to) the building to leaving the building and going back and forth. So, all the credit goes to the players for sticking together and going out there and executing and playing in a manner this which they did.

(on if he questioned how the team would play tonight and if he was surprised at the outcome)
I'm never going to question this football team, the effort. You know, I'm never going go into a game questioning how we're going to do. I expect us to win and play with great effort. There is a lot of stuff we can get better at and improve on, and we're going to have to do it quickly when we bring in here -- when the Texans come in here in a few days.

(on the importance of getting off to a fast start)
It's something that Buffalo has really done well in their four victories, was getting off to a fast start. We knew that there were going to be some turnover opportunities. We took care of the football, which is always key. Took care of (Andre) Roberts on the return game. You know, we were able to situationally – I think that the ability for us to go down there and score before halftime and come out and have the opportunity to score again was critical. But thought we played a complementary game. Thought the players played extremely hard and we're excited.

(on coaching the secondary with a depleted coaching staff)
Everybody has a role, and Jim (Haslett) helped, Shane (Bowen) helped. I went over there and talked to them and tried to help wherever I could.

(on beginning offensive possessions with good field position)
To get a (punt) return, we talked about that, taking advantage of our opportunity and creating field position. Couple penalties that we're going to need to clean up, but these guys were excited, ready to play, and our focus now moves on to Houston.

(on the most challenging part about this week's preparation)
You know, I learned a long time ago the definition of a pro is they make the hard look easy. Whatever situation we're presented with, we have to all come together and make the best decision for the team each and every time. Our coaches had our players prepared and the players responded.

(on how he ensured the team galvanized despite bad news on an almost daily basis)
You don't all of a sudden galvanize when things are bad. That's a testament to these players and what we've tried to build here. You don't say, 'There is a shitstorm, we better galvanize.' You stay tight throughout, and then you hope that the fundamentals and your cover beliefs and values can take over when things get difficult.

(on if it's vindicating to win today)
No. I mean, I think this is – we expect to win. Four games, you're right, never going to win anything. All it does is continue to put us in a position to play meaningful games. We get a division game on a team that's coming off a great win coming in a few short days with the Texans.

(on if it was nice to see the Titans control the game and not need 'miracles' by way of a game-winning drive)
You know, I wouldn't call those miracles, but I appreciate your support there. It's just the way it went. Turnovers in the short field, being able to score touchdowns in the red zone, all these things contribute. Going to have to get better on third down. You're not going to be able to play much defense when they're 11-of-15 on third down. We played well defensively, but that all got overshadowed on third down.

(on the offensive efficiency and overall low penalty count despite little practice)
Again, that goes back to fundamentals, technique, fundamentals, base plan, you know, cover packages, things that the players really know. It's hard to go out there and scheme things. Again, going down there and being able to pick up the first down late in the game there was great, and then be able to score the touchdown.

(on quarterback Ryan Tannehill becoming the starter one year ago today and what he's noticed Tannehill do best in that timespan)
I think he's got great command of what we're asking him to do in the system. He's been accurate and has taken care of the football, and he's led. He's been a great leader.

(on the smaller less noticeable contributions that allowed the team to win today despite the recent circumstances)
You could start with everybody in our building, cafeteria workers, Johnny who helps us clean and Rob who helps us clean the building each and every day. Our operations department equipment managers, everybody pulled together. Practice squad guys that were depleted that were able to take every single rep for us on what would've been Friday and Saturday – or excuse me, Saturday and Sunday. And everybody involved in our organization will get a game ball. I felt like everybody who played tonight – looked out there and there was a lot of contribution on special teams and offense and defense. Looked like everybody had a role in the game, so we knew that was going to be important. There were going to have to be some guys that get a break and come out, and there may be a little bit of fatigue. I think everybody really took that to heart and was ready to get in there and execute.

(on holding Buffalo to under 100 yards rushing)
They came out and it was early it was evident that they wanted to throw the football. They wanted to throw the football, and we need to rush better. But, again, being we took advantage of the opportunities, and when they did run it, it felt like we swarmed there and gave up the big one at the end. That's unfortunate, but I guess meaningless.

(on if the gameplan was to use running back Derrick Henry less when considering the snaps played by running backs Darrynton Evans and Jeremy McNichols)
I don't necessarily know that. The plan is to play, and everybody is expected to be ready to play the entire game. Unfortunately, Darrynton (Evans) went down there and Jeremy (McNichols) stepped in and did some nice things.

(on wide receiver A.J. Brown returning after missing time due to injury and if the intention was to get him involved quickly)
Sure. He's been working hard to get back. A.J. (Brown) is a critical part of our team, as are a lot of the other guys. He's continued to work and develop, and we're going to need him. We're going to need everybody. We're going to need those guys that weren't with us tonight to get back and get healthy in a short amount of time. Going to be a tough game here on Sunday and the recovery is going to be critical.

(on how the team will correct the third-down defense)
I mean, it's about rush and cover. Three times I could tell you, whether it was first or second down, or on third down where we've got somebody free on the quarterback and we can't make the play against Josh (Allen), which we knew was going to be a huge key to the game. We'll just have to continue to improve on that. It's not going to get any easier this week with Deshaun (Watson).

QUARTERBACK RYAN TANNEHILL

(on what the team was able to prepare ahead of the game and how much of today was 'cold turkey' play)
We were able to get a few reps on, let's see, what day did we get in there? Saturday was a walkthrough, Sunday we were able to get closer to live speed. We had some coaches playing some DB spots, so it wasn't quite full action there. But then Sunday -- I mean Monday, day before the game, walkthrough again. So got a few reps on Sunday, two days before the game. Really it was a lot of walkthrough reps that we were able to get.

(on his end zone celebration and how much him running was part of the gameplan)
Yeah, feel like I got a little extra air than I was excepting and wasn't a smooth landing at all. Pretty embarrassing moment. Just got to roll with it and have fun with it. I'm thankful that nothing happened there. I think coming in I didn't really know if it was going to be a rushing game or not. I feel like the scrambles, they just come up and you feel them, you feel the space, and able to take advantage of it. But we didn't really have any design run besides the QB sneak there late in game.

(on the team scoring 106 points in three games and how confident he is that can be kept up)
I think we're headed in the right direction. We're doing some good things. We were better in the red zone today, which I'm proud of. Going back to Minnesota, we didn't fight through the fringe and put the ball in the end zone there few times when we had opportunities. So proud of our guys and the way we tightened things up down there. Just have to keep pushing, keep heading in the right direction. There are a lot of things we can clean up. On a short week, we're going to have to do it quickly. Enjoy the moment. We're headed in the right direction, but we've got to keep the foot on the gas and keep getting better as the season goes on.

(on what he expected coming into tonight's game given the circumstances)
I felt really good coming in. It was great energy in the locker room. I think guys were excited to go out and play. It's been a long couple weeks, ups and downs. We were playing, not playing, practicing, not practicing, Zoom, OK, in the building, out of the building. Just been a roller coaster every which way. But our guys believe in each other. We stuck together through the process and we were given the opportunity to get back in the building. Took advantage of those reps, whether they were walkthrough or the few full-speed reps we were able to get. We felt prepared and came out, and like I said, believed in each other and made plays that we needed to and were able to win the game.

(on his reaction to running back Derrick Henry's stiff arm)
Yeah, I screamed, 'Holy crap.' That was unbelievable just to see the way he tossed that guy. Derrick (Henry) is a special player. We've seen the stiff arm from him. I saw it all last year. I've seen it before I got here, highlights of it. Obviously he's strong, physically a tough runner. That was probably one of the meanest stiff arms I've ever seen, no doubt.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

(on the team being under scrutiny this week)
Yeah, we were under a lot of heat. Didn't quite understand it, why we were under such heat, but we stuck together. We believed in each other and knew that guys in our building, on our team, were all we needed. We were down some guys, had some guys step up and make some big plays for us that aren't usually in those spots. I don't think we missed a beat. Obviously be great to get some of our guys back, but felt really confident going in that no matter who was out there we would get it done. Yeah, we were under some heat for a couple weeks obviously, and felt really good to be able to go out play and shake it off.

(on starting offensive possessions in good field position)
Yeah, no doubt. That was huge. Like I said, last week – I guess two weeks ago now – we got in those positions a couple times and weren't able to finish in the end zone. I'm proud of our guys the way we were able to capitalize on those great opportunities given to us by the defense. Malcolm (Butler) made a couple huge plays. I don't know how he kept his feet on the one. I'm screaming at him, 'Get down, get down,' and he's getting spun around. Somehow he keeps his feet and flips the whole field for you, us. Pretty incredible to watch and just a lot of fun.

(on what the team said to one another about the scrutiny that was placed on the team)
Yeah, I mean, we said a lot of things throughout the past couple weeks. Things are being said and personal things that were said against our team, our guys, and really felt uncalled for. Yeah, we are a little ticked off about how we've been treated, looked at over the past couple weeks. We've really just stuck together through that process and believed in each other and wanted to come out and play our game and play how we believe in each other and we did that.

(on lobbying offensive coordinator Arthur Smith for more designed runs)
I don't know. He doesn't really take too kind to me lobbying for runs. We'll see what can happen.

(on if the team plays with a chip on it's shoulder)
Yeah, I think this team kind of always plays with a chip on our shoulder for whatever reason. We are who we are, and people look at us a certain way. We've got a lot of confidence within our building and locker room, and belief in each other that we're going to find a way to get it done. We've gritted out some tough wins early in the season, and really things came together for us tonight. We've won in several different ways. Like I said, we just need to continue pushing the envelope and getting better. There are a lot of things we can clean up, but excited where we are being 4-0 and big opportunity this week with a division opponent coming to town.

(on his touchdown celebration in the end zone)
Yeah, I'm going to catch a lot of grief for that, and deservedly so. That was an embarrassing moment. Definitely not a graceful moment. I got a little more air than I was expecting on the run and the legs were stiff by the time I hit the ground, which was a bad look, no doubt. Had a lot fun. Didn't hurt, so thankful for that. But just enjoying the moment. Guys were giving me crap for it and I'm sure I'll continue to get crap for it. It's fine, so look forward to it.

(on if tonight was one of the more satisfying victories)
Yeah, no doubt, especially with past couple years here. We have had some really satisfying ones, but what this team, this organization has been through over the past couple weeks, to really fight through all of that, shake it off, really limited practice, limited reps, and go out and put this kind of win together I think makes a statement. You know, I'm happy that we were able to do that today.

(on of the touchdown pass to wide receiver A.J. Brown was a check and how important it was to get Brown involved early)
It was huge to have A.J. (Brown) back. He's obviously extremely talented and does a lot for us. No, that was Arthur (Smith)'s call. Great call there. You know, we weren't expecting to be obviously down in the red zone to start the game. We knew we wanted to get him involved early but didn't know it was going to be down in the red zone with an opportunity for a touchdown.
He did a great job. I think he had one arm being held and was still able to come down with that football, so huge play for us there.

(on being named the Titans starter one year ago today and if he would have believed what the previous year entailed if he was told)
Honestly, I don't know. I look at things one week at a time. I try not to look into the future or think about too much into the future. For me personally it's best if I concentrate on getting one win at a time and doing everything I can one week at a time. That's the mentality that I take. Approach every game like it's your last opportunity to go out there, because you never know. I'm going to continue to take that approach, and hopefully keep stacking wins together.

(on the lesser-known contributions that helped the team win today)
Yeah, no doubt. Kalif Raymond, Cody Hollister, Nick Westbrook(-Ikhine) stepped up for us. Those are three guys that have been around and played for us a little bit, but got a lot of action tonight and made some huge plays. Nick (Westbrook-Ikhine) made his first catch, which was great. Got a big first down for us. Kalif (Raymond) has been big for us at other times in this year, but got a lot more reps. Geoff Swaim, tight end, a guy who has been on the practice squad and was able to come in and really make a big impact, do some great things for us filling in for MyCole (Pruitt). So just a group effort. Ty (Sambrailo) came off the sideline when Taylor (Lewan) went again and stepped in and held the left side down for us. Just a belief that we have in one another that no matter who comes in we're going to get it done. I think we've shown that time and time again this year.

RUNNING BACK DERRICK HENRY

(on how the team was able to win in a convincing fashion after facing adversity)
Yeah, you just said it. I mean, we love ball, love playing together. We just missed doing that. You know, throughout the process we were just ready to get back. Glad the NFL and the whole organization was able to work something out so we were safe to be able to play. It's a good team and a good opponent tonight and getting the win.

(on the performance of quarterback Ryan Tannhill since being named the starter one year ago today)
Spectacular. Couldn't say enough. I can go on and on and on. Ryan (Tannehill) is being Ryan, balling out. He's just different.

(on the stiff arm play of Bills cornerback Josh Norman)
I've been doing too many curls. I've got to lay off the arms.

(on what the last two weeks have been like for him personally)
I mean, just taking it day by day, working out, doing normal stuff, staying in shape, conditioning. Just waiting to hear what is the plan for us. As far as us as a team and what we needed to do to be able to get back in the building, by what Coach (Vrabel) was telling us, you know, praying for my teammates, praying for everybody in the organization that was affected by the coronavirus that they come out healthy and be able to be back with us. So that's all I was doing.

(on what he did to stay in shape the last two weeks)
I just work out and run. That's all we really could do, so I just did that until we got an opportunity to go in the building.

(on what he expected heading into tonight's game and if he felt the team would be ready to play all things considered)
I mean, I know we all had two weeks off and I know we all love ball, were ready to play. We were going to line up with whoever we had to go out there with and go play -- it's a good team -- and try to win a football game. That was our whole mindset as a team, and that's what we try to go out there and do.

(on the performance of running back Jeremy McNichols)
I thought he did a great job. Any time he gets in there he plays hard. He knows what to do. He plays fast. When he runs, he runs physical. But I think him stepping in there and taking out linebackers and pass blocking which don't go on the stat sheet, nobody really talks about, but that's the type of player he is. He'll get in there and do the dirty work, you know, taking on linebackers one on one and being physical in pass protection. That's how tough of a player he is. He's physical and do whatever he can to help the team.

(on if the team is extra motivated by the scrutiny placed on the team in recent days)
I mean, it's been a lot. First time an outbreak like this has happened in the league, unfortunately it was us. But I felt like we did the best job we could. Try to get it handled and under control so we could come out and play football. I think guys were just ready to play. We been off for like I said two weeks, and we were just ready to get back out to ball.

(on if he had any interaction with Bills cornerback Josh Norman postgame)
No, we didn't talk after the game.

OFFENSIVE LINEMAN DaQUAN JONES

(on at what point he felt he would be ready for this game and how difficult it was to return from COVID-19)
I wasn't really sure. You know, I made sure I did all the things to get back, take care of my body, make sure if the opportunity lended itself. I am happy to be back. I'm happy I got to play today. I am happy it worked out.

(on how severe his symptoms were)
I just had some bad headaches for a couple of days, that's about it.

(on if conditioning was an issue after being away)
No, I actually felt good today. I made sure I left the house and went on walks, and did some type of stuff. Doing three days of walkthroughs really helped me out, getting back ready to go. So, I felt fine today.

(on how important today's fast start was to put the last two weeks in the past)
Yeah, I mean, we always talking about starting fast and capitalizing on opportunities. I thought we did that today early on. We just kept grinding and played with momentum.

(on what makes the team believe it can get it done considering the circumstances of the past two weeks)

It's a gritty team, man. We want to go out there and compete every snap, every play. That's what we are going to do, no matter what the situation is we're going out there to play. We truly believe we have a chance to win every game and that's all you really need. That's why this team is so confident coming in even though not having a lot of time for practice, but we took advantage – studied the playbook, still being able to watch film and stuff like that. I think we always believe in each other and don't get down no matter what.

(on if today's performance)
They can say what they want. I not going to stand up here and blame the hype. We know what we have in this locker room, we know what type of guys we have. We know when we go out on that field, like I said we know have an opportunity to win and get it done as long we execute and play our style of football.

TIGHT END JONNU SMITH

(on how fun it was to play well with everything the team has been through the last two weeks)
All the work that we put in, all the hours of just pushing each other and trying to get better paid off. We had 16 days that we had to get through and those hours showed up. To see it manifest makes this win even better. At the end of the day we are 4-0 with a lot of games left. It's still early so we have to continue to have that growth mindset and look forward to the next one.

(on if the sky is the limit for this team with its belief and mental toughness)
We just believe in each other, you hit it right on the money. That's all we do, is believe and trust that we are going to play for the guy next to us and for the entire organization. That's what it comes down to, just having passion and having love for what we do and caring for the guy next to you. There's success within that.

(on what led to such a fast start despite having just one walkthrough practice)
We took advantage of what we could do, whether it was virtual meetings or what. Elite athletes are going to run fast, be strong and jump high. That's what we've been doing our entire lives. We are the best at it when playing at this level. We knew that that would be here, it's just getting better and getting everything on the same page. It was just a little tougher because we couldn't do that physically. We did what we could do at home, we are professionals and you have to be self-motivated to get what you can get at home to prepare for the game. A lot of these guys have been playing at this level for a long time so we know what it requires and we do what we can do.

(on if the outside talk and doubt served as motivation)
Block it out. Everyone has their ways of dealing with things. I honestly didn't pay attention to what was going on in the media, I just knew it wasn't good things. Whether it be good things or bad things, me as a player I just try to block all that stuff out because it's not good for your mindset. People try to write you off when it may not be as bad as it is, or amplify things when it's not as good as it is, so I just try to keep it even-keel and go out there and play the game with passion. I've been doing this since I was four or five years old and I still have that same love and passion I had then. Don't get me wrong, I love the love and support from our fans and this great support system in the city and the Southern area and we definitely appreciate that, but I just block that stuff out

(on if the team was playing with a chip on its shoulder after having two games rescheduled)
We've always been that team, that's been our identity. We're not flashy. We aren't the team that's going to get all the primetime games, but we find ways to win. It may look ugly and may be by like one or two points, but we get it done. That's what we preach. We pride ourselves on being a team that establishes a culture in locker room and believes in each other.

(on scoring his fourth touchdown in five games)
It feels great to continue to be a contributor to this offense, team, and organization. I'm just going to keep doing what I've been doing and continue getting better. I've got a lot of things I need to clean up. I did some good things and I have to get the things cleaned up I didn't do too well and continue with that mindset.

(on if he saw Ryan Tannehill's landing on his touchdown run celebration)
Yeah we saw that. 'Don't do that again, don't do that again man.' Ryan (Tannehill) is good for giving us a good scare. I don't know if it's because its October and Halloween is coming up and wants to scare us, but he's got to chill out. We need you. He's getting a little bit of tough love.

WIDE RECEIVER A.J. BROWN

(on what it meant to return to action and make significant contributions)
Means everything, to be honest. I was battling the injury, a lot of uncertainty during that injury. I didn't know when I was going to be back, so I just put it in God's hands. Tonight just told myself just be bold, be courageous and let God handle the rest, and made plays for the team.

(on what tonight's win means considering all the adversity the team has faced)
I think the team mindset is just another game, to be honest. Yeah, we had to deal with certain stuff, but that is like life. You know, curve balls will be thrown at you all the time. You got to keep on moving. So, us getting this win is just what we expected to do. Come out and play hard, play physical. That's a great team over there. Shout out to them, but we just try to come out and do what we do.

(on if it's impressive that the Titans were able to beat an undefeated team after extremely limited practice)
I'm a very humble guy. You're going to get the same answer out of me. Like I said, we just expect to win every time we go out there. We get a chance to play, we expect to win no matter who we're playing, so that's just our outlook on the game regardless of what we were going through throughout the week. None of that mattered. You got to find a way. That was our motto the whole way. We're going to find a way. They let us play, we're going to play.

(on going through the rehab process particularly while the facility was closed)
I kind of – funny story, I kind of did more than what I was supposed to. To be honest, they didn't expect me to be back this soon, but during the time I couldn't go in the building I would go to a field, run routes, just to see where I'm at. I would ice my knee like every hour. I mean, like every 30 minutes into the hour I'm icing, icing, because I was sore afterwards or whatnot. I kind of did more than I expected and I came back and I told them, I think I'm doing a lot better than a lot of people think, so I want to give it a go, you know what I'm saying? I have good days and I have bad days.

(on if he feels his performance was a statement to opposing defenses)
To be honest, all that stuff handles itself. I was able today to go out there and make some plays on a really good corner. I let God handle all that stuff. I let people talk for me. I don't talk for myself.

(on if he worked harder to return for today's game knowing that wide receivers Corey Davis and Adam Humphries would be unavailable)
I kind of put it on me. Just seeing those guys end up being – I kind of put it on myself, because during the week I was having like a bad week. I told myself, I'm going this week, I'm going this week, so I have to. A lot of the guys, a lot of people depend on me, and Ryan (Tannehill) just kept talking to me, 'We need you this week, we need you this week.' I just told myself I'm going, and that's that.

(on the Titans scoring 106 points in the last three games and if 30+ points should be the team's standard each week)
Every time we touch a ball we expect ourselves to score. I don't know about those stats, but every time we touch the ball we expect to score.

(on the other three wide receivers active today being undrafted players and what was said to one another prior to the game)
I told those guys, 'When we leave this game we need to be mentally and physically exhausted.' There's only four of us, and that's all you need. No matter where you come from, none of that stuff matters. You can't match the heart, and that's what we brought to this game, our heart. It was only four of us, we rotated a lot. Shout out to those guys for helping me out because I couldn't breathe half the time. But shout out to those guys for lifting each other, playing as group, as a unit. We did really well.

(on what about the team leads the players to believe in one another so intensely)
When you go through things you grow through things, to be honest. Prime example, we just dealt with. We stayed together as a team. We communicated. We Zoomed a lot. We just tried to stay on top of things. Just tried to keep a positive mindset. That's what we did, and I definitely feel like this whole episode of COVID, whatever, definitely made us closer.

(on the value quarterback Ryan Tannehill brings and if that value is under-hyped because Tannehill doesn't throw for the number of passing yards other quarterbacks may throw for)
Ryan (Tannehill) is a really good quarterback. He may not come out and throw for 500 yards or whatnot like other guys, but we get wins. That's what it comes down to. We're not here for any visual stats. We're here to compete as a unit and go out and do it as a unit. So, when we have a big game, who cares if he doesn't throw for 500 yards? As long as we get the win, we do what needs to be done, all that matters, that's the only thing that matters. I don't know about to the league, but he's definitely a value to our team. He's the general, he's the head man in charge, he leads us. He's a great leader.

(on the challenge of recovering and preparing for a division game in five days)
I don't know about other guys, but I'm about to go get in the cold tub like tonight, like a couple times. But we're definitely going to recover, try to shake back, watch this film and try to clean up the little things and get back out there. Move forward. We got a big game coming up, division game.

CORNERBACK MALCOLM BUTLER

(on the mental toughness the team had coming into tonight)
Well, we knew it wasn't going to be perfect. We went through a lot these last two weeks, you know, dealing with this virus. I just think it made us closer. It made us play for each other and go out there and play hard for each other and just get the win, man. It's all about winning.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

(on his two interceptions and the offense capitalizing on the turnovers)
It was all about complementary football. Getting turnovers, trying to take the ball to the red zone. (Ryan) Tannehill, A.J. Brown, Derrick Henry, they're going to score for us. We've just got to play complementary football and play as a unit and we'll be tough to beat, but we haven't done anything. Four games are not enough in this league. We've just got to continue working, grind hard and play together.

(on being determined to get as many yards as possible out of his interceptions)
Well, I used to play offense in high school. I always wanted to play offense so once I get the ball, I'm trying to show my skills – my running skills and my vision whenever I get the chance. You know you don't have many opportunities to get the ball when you're playing defensive back. I was always told, 'Don't go down until you're tackled.' I know I scared some of my teammates. I could hear Mike Vrabel telling me to get down and take care of the ball, but once I get the ball I'm always trying to score.

(on the second interception and what happened to confuse Bills quarterback Josh Allen)
I just looked back at my post second and we were just disguising. I was on the same page with him and we made him think it was something that it wasn't. I just came off my man and got back in the seam. Just playing good complementary football and everybody working on the screen together.

(on fooling Bills quarterback Josh Allen and if that was something he watched in a game)
No, I just knew we were in one-coverage and I saw my safety disguise it. So, I said I'm going to make it look like I'm going to do the same thing he's doing. Make it look like whatever we're planning. That's what I did and that probably confused him, so yes, that's what happened.

(on explaining how the team came out tonight with the one-sided win)
You know, I'll keep it plain and simple. We expected to win and we don't need nobody to give us a chance. We gave ourselves a chance and that's exactly what we did tonight. We're a good team. If you're with us, you're with us. If you're not, you're not. It's all about those guys on the field. We expected to win this game and we're going to act like it.

(on what the team did tonight to make him proud)
We had a rough 16 days, well, however many days it was. Thinking you were going to go to practice one day and then you don't, doing Zoom meetings, not being able to go to practice and get the reps and things like that. You've probably practiced like two days since we've been out of the building. I'm just proud of everyone that stuck with the game plan that Jon Robinson and Mike Vrabel presented to us and we executed it. We did what they asked us to do. We just stick together. We stuck together. We know a lot about adversity. That was one of our key words this week and we ran with it,

(on if the team made a statement tonight)
No, I don't think so. Like I said, we expected to win. Whoever didn't expect us to win, it really doesn't matter because the only things that matter are these guys in this locker room, this whole team, the staff. No, it's not a statement. Four games are not going to get you nowhere in this league. The ultimate goal is to play the last game of the season and win it. You know, we've got a long way to go. We've just got to keep working, man.

(on if the team sent group texts when they were unable to meet to stay motivated)
Some of our leaders would step up and just say, 'Stick together man,' and 'Once we get back on the field, you know we're going to play hard,' or 'Play for each other.' The defense has been itching to get out on the field. Last time we had a game we won, but we had a bitter taste in our mouths. We've been waiting to get out there, get a better taste. But guys would send texts, 'Stick together, don't separate from each other, we've just got to stick together and believe in each other, believe in the game plan the coaches and Jon Robinson gave us.' We've got a lot of leaders on this team – Kevin Byard, Ryan Tannehill, you know those guys are good at what they do on and off the field. It was a lot of good motivational messages.

(on the fast start tonight being important to put the last two weeks behind the team)
You've got to put everything behind you once you go out there on that field. We always talk about complementary football and that's the only way we're going to be able to win. We've just got to go out there and win and do your job the best way you can, be there for your teammates and just play ball, man.

TACKLE DENNIS KELLY

(on a great performance after a tumultuous week)
I think it's a really kind of a special moment. With all the unknown, adversity, there were multiple times where guys could've just said, 'Screw it,' whatever, just chop it up as a loss, but that was never the mindset. Guys just came in when we were able to. We're locked in, we're focused, and I think this just showed how strong our team culture is and I think that it's a really proud night.

LINEBACKER JAYON BROWN

(overcoming this week's adversity)
We have a really great coaching staff, and it was tough trying to get into the facility, but we had really good meetings on Zoom. We believe in each other to stay strong and cut out all the outside noise and came out here and got the job done.

(on what the defense did to contain the Bills offense)
We just played good team defense. Malcolm (Butler) made big plays for us, two interceptions, almost got home to the end zone. Harold (Landry) made a big sack for us. Everybody was just running to the ball, being really good tacklers, and came home victorious.

(on the offense and defense playing complementary football)
We love setting the offense up with a short field for them to score and we have to keep it going.

SAFETY KEVIN BYARD

(on getting the win after a tumultuous two weeks)
Obviously the past 12 days, two weeks, however many days it's been, it's definitely been tough on the team, tough on everybody. We still need to get some guys back. Guys are still going through the protocol and guys are still actually sick, so we're hoping they get back. We had the right people in our locker room. The coaching staff did a great job of keeping us prepared, keeping our minds right, keeping our minds good and making sure we were going to play a game. Really just locking in. We had great Zoom meetings, just making sure that we're really locking in on the small details. I told you guys earlier in the week that we weren't going to make any excuses. We went out there and showed out.

(on stopping an undefeated Bills team)
Every week is different, I kind of talk about it all the time. I feel like in the NFL, momentum does not carry week to week. You build momentum throughout the week based off your preparation and things you do throughout the week, studying and locking in on the keys. We just tried to mix it up on them, tried to give them a bunch of different looks. I think that's one of the big things, me and Kenny (Vaccaro) and the DBs all had a really good game. We're just trying to mix it up, kind of confuse them a little bit, and make them throw some interceptions. Just make them pay when they make some bad decisions.

(on cornerback Malcolm Butler's performance)
A guy like Malcolm (Butler), he's faced a lot of adversity his entire life. I just love the way he bounced back this game. Obviously, he felt like he didn't play his best ball against Minnesota, and he went out there and had two picks. That's just who he is. He's a guy who's going to fight and claw for everything he can get, so I'm definitely happy for him and the game he had today.

CORNERBACK CHRIS MILTON

(on his big special team plays)
I think we've probably got one of the best punters in the league. (Brett) Kern does a great job with just putting it where it needs to be, so it makes the job easier for pretty much everyone on the punt team.

(on the adversity the team has dealt with)
It was a great win for the whole team. A lot of guys counting us out, so we kind of just stayed focused and stayed to ourselves and did what we had to do, just continuing to get better.

LINEBACKER DAVID LONG JR.

(on his forced fumble on the kick return)
The whole night I was trying to work over the top. One time I made the play coming backside, the other time I got pushed off, so that time I just felt like I should be more aggressive. I saw him there on the front side, so I used my strength and instincts and he came out that hole and I was right there to meet him.

(on the ability of the defense to force turnovers and the offense to capitalize on them)
It was great for us to go out there, coming off so little practices, and coming out there and playing ball. Coming out there and doing what we need to do to get the win.

Jon Robinson was hired as Titans general manager on Jan. 14, 2016 after spending two years as director of player personnel for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Nearly one year later, on Jan. 5, 2017, he was promoted to executive vice president/general manager.

In his first four years on the job, the Titans finished with four consecutive 9-7 seasons. It marked the first time the organization produced at least four consecutive winning seasons since a seven-year run of winning records from 1987–1993. The Titans were one of four NFL teams to accomplish the feat from 2016–2019, joining New England, Seattle and Kansas City.

Robinson became only the second general manager in franchise history whose first four teams finished above the .500 mark, joining Mike Holovak (1989-92).

Robinson's work helped the team go from three wins in the season prior to his arrival (2015) to a divisional round playoff finish following the 2017 campaign. He became the fifth general manager in franchise history to have the team in the playoffs within his first two full seasons.

Then, in 2019, the team he constructed advanced to the AFC Championship game. It was the organization's first appearance in the conference title game in 17 seasons (2002).

When the Titans took the field for the 2019 postseason, only seven players remained on the 53-man roster from prior to Robinson's arrival—a turnover rate of 87 percent. That included 23 free agents, 18 draft picks, four players acquired via trade and one waiver pickup. An additional six players he acquired (four free agents, one draft pick and one waiver claim) ended 2019 on injured reserve.

The 2020 NFL Draft was Robinson's fifth draft as general manager. In those five drafts, he selected 35 total players, and 21 of those players remained with the club at the beginning of training camp in 2020. During that same time period (as of July 28, 2020), he engineered 20 trades and made 11 waiver claims.

2020: Prior to the 2020 free agent signing period, the Titans reached an agreement on a multi-year contract to keep quarterback Ryan Tannehill in Tennessee. The Titans also re-signed tackle Dennis Kelly, among others.

After initially placing the franchise tag on running back Derrick Henry, the Titans and Henry were able to come to an agreement on a multi-year contract extension in July 2020.

Robinson also led the acquisition of unrestricted free agent outside linebacker Vic Beasley from the Atlanta Falcons. The former first-round pick spent his first five NFL seasons (2015-19) in Atlanta, capping his tenure there with eight sacks in 2019. He led the NFL with 15.5 sacks in 2016, and from his rookie season through 2019, he ranked 16th in the NFL in sacks by edge rushers (outside linebackers and defensive ends).

Robinson patiently waited to add two more significant free agents just prior to the beginning of the 2020 regular season, picking up kicker Stephen Gostkowski and outside linebacker Jadeveon Clowney during the first week of September. Gostkowski earned four Pro Bowl berths and three Super Bowl rings during 14 seasons with the Patriots, becoming the team's all-time leading scorer (1,775 points). Through 2019, he was the NFL's fifth-most accurate kicker in history (374 of 428). Clowney, a three-time Pro Bowl selection, joined Aaron Donald and Chandler Jones as the only NFL players with at least 60 tackles for loss, eight forced fumbles and 150 quarterback pressures from 2016 through 2019.

In the 2020 NFL Draft, the Titans had six total picks. The first of those was Georgia tackle Isaiah Wilson (first round, 29th overall), followed by Louisiana State cornerback Kristian Fulton (second round, 61st overall) and Appalachian State running back Darrynton Evans (third round, 93rd overall) in the first three rounds.

2019: Near the beginning of the 2019 free agent signing period, Robinson worked quickly to add several veterans from other teams who played key roles in 2019: Buccaneers wide receiver Adam Humphries, Rams guard Rodger Saffold and Tannehill in a trade with the Dolphins. Robinson also worked to re-sign starting safety Kenny Vaccaro and punter Brett Kern.

Then, in the 2019 NFL Draft, Robinson directed the selection of six total players, including Mississippi State defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons in the first round (19th overall), Ole Miss wide receiver A.J. Brown in the second round (51st overall) and Charlotte offensive lineman Nate Davis in the third round (82nd overall).

Tannehill, who proved to be one of the NFL's top acquisitions of 2019, started every game after Week 6, leading the team into the playoffs. He led the NFL and set franchise records with a 117.5 passer rating and a 9.6-yard passing average. In addition to being named to his first Pro Bowl, he earned Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year honors.

As a rookie, Brown led the Titans in every major receiving category. Among all rookies in 2019, he ranked first in receiving yards (1,051), tied for the rookie lead in touchdown receptions (eight) and placed fifth in receptions (52). Among all NFL players in 2019—rookies and veterans— Brown finished second in receiving average (20.2), behind only the Los Angeles Chargers' Mike Williams (20.4).

2018: The Titans' 2018 free agent class included Pro Bowl cornerback Malcolm Butler. In his first two seasons in Tennessee, Butler played in 25 games (20 starts) and totaled five interceptions. In early August, the Titans signed Vaccaro, who went on to start 13 games his first season in Tennessee and all 16 games in 2019.

Robinson's 2018 draft class was comprised of four players after he used multiple trades to go up and get his targets. It included first-round linebacker Rashaan Evans from Alabama (22nd overall pick) and second-round outside linebacker Harold Landry III from Boston College (41st overall). Evans started all 16 games in 2019 and led the team with 139 tackles. Landry appeared in 31 games (19 starts) in his first two seasons, and his 13.5 sacks from 2018–2019 (nine in 2019) ranked first on the team.

2017: During the 2017 offseason, Robinson used free agency to address needs on defense and special teams. Most notably, he spearheaded deals for cornerback Logan Ryan (New England) and special teams contributor and 2017 Pro Bowler Brynden Trawick (Oakland).

In the 2017 NFL Draft, Robinson spent first-round picks on wide receiver Corey Davis (fifth overall) and cornerback Adoree' Jackson (18th overall). It marked the first time the franchise had a pair of first-round draft selections since 1987. The Titans' 2017 draft haul also featured tight end Jonnu Smith in the third round and linebacker Jayon Brown in the fifth round.

The 2017 Titans advanced to the playoffs for the first time since 2008. Robinson became the fifth general manager in franchise history to have the team in the postseason within his first two full seasons.

2016: In his first year as an NFL general manager, Robinson's leadership and decision-making helped the Titans triple their win total from the previous season, finishing 9-7 in 2016 after a 3-13 finish in 2015. The six-win improvement tied for the most in franchise history (1967 and 1974) and doubled the previous club benchmark for the most wins in the first year under a new general manager (three by Bum Phillips in 1975).

Within the first four months at his post, Robinson pulled the trigger on several key personnel decisions. On March 9, 2016, he made his first major acquisition, swapping fourth-round draft picks with the Philadelphia Eagles in exchange for running back DeMarco Murray. The trade provided major dividends in 2016, as Murray led the AFC and ranked third in the NFL with 1,287 rushing yards.

Around the same time, Robinson began to work the free agent market. Center Ben Jones and wide receiver Rishard Matthews highlighted the haul, and both were instrumental in helping to transform the Titans offense into the 11th-ranked unit in the NFL.

On April 14, 2016, two weeks before the NFL Draft, Robinson and the Titans dealt the first overall pick to the Los Angeles Rams in one of the biggest trades in recent NFL history. The Titans gave up the No. 1 pick and a fourth-rounder in order to receive the 15th overall pick, two second-rounders and a third-rounder in 2016, plus the Rams' first- and third-round picks in 2017. From 1990–2015, there were seven trades involving the No. 1 overall pick, but this was the first since 2004, when the San Diego Chargers selected Eli Manning with the first pick and dealt his rights to the New York Giants.

The Titans had their hands at one point or another on 17 selections in the 2016 draft due to five different trades (including one trade in 2015), and in the end, they ended up with a class of 10 players, including four of the top 45 picks. Robinson swung a draft-day trade with the Cleveland Browns to move back up to the eighth slot to choose Michigan State tackle Jack Conklin.

All 10 members of Robinson's first draft class played in at least one game in 2016. They accumulated a total of 110 games played and 38 starts, including 16 starts at right tackle by Conklin. The eighth-overall pick capped his successful rookie campaign by being named first-team All-Pro by Associated Press.

Henry, a second-rounder in 2016, led the Titans in rushing every season from 2017 through 2019. In 2019, he won the NFL's rushing crown with 1,540 yards and tied for the NFL lead with 16 rushing touchdowns.

Third-round safety Kevin Byard earned first-team All-Pro honors in his second campaign. He led the NFL from 2017–2019 with 17 total interceptions also was named to the Pro Bowl in 2017.

PRIOR HISTORY: Robinson arrived in Tennessee with a wide range of experience from working his way up on the personnel side of the NFL. From 2014–2015, he served as director of player personnel for the Buccaneers and oversaw both college and pro departments as the team rebuilt its roster. The 2015 Buccaneers draft class made a significant impact, including four rookie starters: quarterback Jameis Winston, tackle Donovan Smith, guard Ali Marpet and linebacker Kwon Alexander.

Prior to joining Tampa Bay, Robinson spent 12 years with the New England Patriots, including his last five years (2009-13) as the director of college scouting. In the five years heading up their college scouting, the Patriots added a number of key components to their roster that won the Super Bowl in 2014, including wide receiver Julian Edelman, defensive back Devin McCourty, tight end Rob Gronkowski, tackle Nate Solder and defensive end Chandler Jones. He joined the Patriots as an area scout in 2002, a role he served for four seasons. Robinson then spent two years (2006-07) as a regional scout, before being promoted to assistant director of college scouting in 2008 and then director of college scouting in 2009. In his time scouting for the Patriots the team won 10 division titles, four conference titles and two Super Bowls (2003, 2004).

Robinson played three years at Southeast Missouri State as a defensive lineman after starting his college career at the Air Force Academy. Following his college career as a player, he spent one season (1998) coaching at his alma mater and three years (1999-2001) coaching at Nicholls State.

A native of Union City, Tenn., Robinson and his wife, Jaimie, have two daughters, Taylor and Bailey.

Mike Vrabel enters his third season as head coach in 2020. He was named to the position on Jan. 20, 2018, becoming the 19th head coach in franchise history.

In Vrabel's first two years, he directed the Titans to a 20-15 record, including a 2-1 mark in the 2019 playoffs. His 20 wins made up the second-highest total in franchise history for a head coach's first two seasons, behind only Jack Pardee's 21 wins from 1990–1991.

Vrabel became the first head coach in the organization's history to win multiple playoff games within his first two seasons. The Titans won a pair of road games—at New England in the wild card round and at Baltimore in the divisional round—to advance to the 2019 AFC championship game, falling at Kansas City to the eventual Super Bowl champion Chiefs.

The Titans began the 2019 campaign with two wins in their first six games but rallied to win seven of their final 10 games in the regular season. From the time the NFL went to its current playoff format in 1990 through 2019, 345 teams went 2-4 or worse in their first six games of a season. From that group, the Titans became only the third team to advance to a conference championship game, joining the 2002 Titans (2-4) and the 1996 Jacksonville Jaguars (2-4).

The 2019 Titans ranked in the NFL's top 10 in scoring margin (eighth, +71), turnover margin (sixth, +6), offensive yards per play (fourth, 6.12), rushing offense (third, 138.9 yards per game), red zone efficiency (first, 75.6 percent), total touchdowns (tied for third, 54) and third-down defense (eighth, 36.3 percent).

From 2018–2019, Vrabel's Titans were the second-least penalized NFL team (181). Over the same period of time, they were the fourth-best rushing offense (129.2 yards per game), the fifth-best scoring defense (19.8 points allowed per game) and the seventh-best third-down defense (36.4 percent).

In his first season as head coach, Vrabel directed the Titans to a 9-7 record. His nine wins tied for the fourth-highest total in franchise history by a first-year head coach.

With only 82 penalties enforced against the Titans in 2018, Vrabel's team led the NFL and set a franchise record (16-game season) for fewest penalties in a season. The 2018 Titans also placed third in points allowed (18.9 per game), eighth in total defense (333.4 yards per game), sixth in passing defense (216.9), second in red zone defense (44.7 percent touchdown rate) and seventh in rushing offense (126.4) in the league rankings.

Vrabel arrived in Tennessee with 18 years of NFL experience, including four seasons as a coach and 14 seasons as a player. His distinguished playing career included three Super Bowl wins (2001, 2003 and 2004), one Pro Bowl selection (2007) and an All-Pro honor (2007). Vrabel played in 206 NFL games and totaled 57 sacks, 496 tackles, 11 interceptions, 20 forced fumbles, nine fumble recoveries and 10 touchdown receptions. Additionally, his teams advanced to the playoffs eight times (20 postseason games), with Vrabel recording eight postseason sacks and two postseason touchdown receptions.

Vrabel joined the Titans after four seasons with the Houston Texans, spending the first three seasons (2014-16) coaching linebackers and one year (2017) as the team's defensive coordinator. During his time in Houston, the Texans built one of the best defenses in the NFL and experienced tremendous success as a team – earning two division titles (2015, 2016).

Between 2014-16, the Texans defense ranked third in the NFL in yards allowed per game (319.9) and net passing yards (218.4). Houston also ranked first in third-down defense (33.6), fourth in opponent completion percentage (59.5) and sixth in points allowed per game (19.8). The 2016 defense ranked number one in the NFL, for the first time in franchise history, in yards allowed (301.3).

In 2017, his first year as a defensive coordinator, the Texans finished the campaign with 19 players on injured reserve. Despite the injuries, Vrabel led the defense to the fifth-best third-down percentage in the NFL and a franchise-record 3.97 yards per carry by opponents. Houston also had 18 different players record at least half a sack last year and 26 players tally at least one tackle for loss.

Vrabel spent his career playing and coaching with accomplished leaders, including Bill Belichick, Bill Cowher, Romeo Crennel, Urban Meyer, Bill O'Brien and Todd Haley.

As the Texans linebackers coach from 2014-16, Vrabel developed several players into top-notch performers, including Jadeveon Clowney (Pro Bowl, 2016), Whitney Mercilus, Benardrick McKinney (second-team All-Pro, 2016) and Brian Cushing. The 2015 Texans defense had the top third-down defense in the NFL (28.5 percent), which was the lowest percentage in franchise history and the lowest by any NFL team since the 2003 Titans (27.7 percent). The 2015 defense also set a franchise mark for sacks in a season with 45 - 22.5 coming from Vrabel's linebacking corps.

Prior to joining the NFL coaching ranks, Vrabel transitioned immediately from an NFL player to college coach. He started as the linebacker coach at Ohio State in 2011 and coached the defensive line from 2012–2013. The 2012 Buckeyes finished the season undefeated at 12-0. He also was named Big Ten Recruiter of the Year by ESPN.com in 2012.

Vrabel was selected by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the third round (91st overall) of the 1997 NFL Draft, after his playing career at Ohio State, where he earned All-America honors and Big Ten Conference Defensive Lineman of the Year in both 1995 and 1996.

A native of Akron, Ohio, Vrabel attended Walsh Jesuit High School. He and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons: Tyler and Carter.

20 WINS IN FIRST TWO YEARS

Mike Vrabel won nine games as a rookie head coach in 2018. Of the 19 head coaches in the organization's history, beginning in 1960, Vrabel became the eighth to reach nine wins in his first full season as head coach.

Then, in 2019, Vrabel's team again went 9-7 in the regular season. The club earned a wild card playoff berth and won two postseason games before falling in the AFC title game.

Including regular season and postseason games, Vrabel's 20 wins from 2018–2019 give him the second-highest total in franchise history for a head coach's first two seasons (not including interim seasons). Only Jack Pardee's 21 wins from 1990–1991 rank better than Vrabel's total.

Most combined regular season and postseason wins in a head coaches first two seasons, franchise history*:

NISSAN STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

NISSAN STADIUM

Nissan Stadium hosts all Titans home football games, Tennessee State University football games, the Music City Bowl, the CMA Music Festival and numerous other events.

The procurement of naming rights to Nissan Stadium fit the automotive company's 'Fewer, Bigger, Better' marketing strategy, which has included ongoing sponsorships of NBC's 'The Voice,' the Heisman House college football program and a major advertising presence in this year's Super Bowl. Nissan is also now the official automotive partner of the Tennessee Titans.

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin.

The Nissan Smyrna Plant began operations in 1983 and employs more than 8,400 people. In 2014, the Smyrna plant assembled more than 648,000 vehicles, making it the highest volume automotive assembly plant in North America. Nissan also has a major manufacturing presence in Canton, Miss., along with research and development groups in California, Arizona and Michigan. In total, the company employs more than 22,000 employees in the U.S.

One component of the Titans-Nissan partnership is assisting charitable organizations throughout Middle Tennessee in an array of community outreach programs. A centerpiece of this is the annual "Taste of Titans" charitable event, for which Nissan serves as presenting sponsor. During the course of a 20-year relationship, a total of more than $1 million resulting from these annual events is anticipated to be distributed to local non-profit organizations.

Nissan Stadium is a city-owned venue that has housed the Titans since 1999. The naming rights agreement includes the opportunity for Nissan branding on the exterior of the stadium, as well as stadium signage and other unique displays inside the stadium. LP Building Products held the naming rights to the stadium from 2006 until the Nissan partnership was established in 2015.

FANS RETURN TO NISSAN STADIUM

On Sept. 17, the Titans announced that Nissan Stadium will open at limited capacity beginning with the Oct. 4 Titans home game against the Pittsburgh Steelers. The three October home games will gradually increase in capacity with the goal of reaching a fixed capacity for the remaining games in November and December.

The Oct. 4 game will be open to season ticket members up to 10 percent of the stadium's capacity, which is roughly 7,000 fans in the lower bowl and club levels. The next October home game (Oct. 11) will allow 12.5 percent and the third (Oct. 18) 15 percent. For November until the end of the season, capacity could reach 21 percent, which is the maximum capacity the facility can accommodate under current CDC guidelines. Outside of the seating bowl, suites will operate at a limited capacity.

"We are thrilled to welcome fans back to Nissan Stadium and can't thank Mayor Cooper and the Metro Nashville Public Health Department enough for their collaboration in making this possible," said Titans President and CEO Burke Nihill. "The health and safety of our fans, players and staff remains our top priority and we felt like a gradual capacity plan was the right call, knowing that we may need to be flexible as time goes on. We feel confident that our Safe Stadium Plan will give everyone a safe and comfortable experience as they return to our gates."

Detailed information on the Safe Stadium Plan can be found at www.tennesseetitans.com/safestadium. Key components include:

• Socially-distant seating pods accommodating parties of one to a maximum of six people

• Mobile ticketing and parking, to eliminate physical contact while scanning passes

• Mandatory face coverings at all times, except when actively eating or drinking

• Over 300 hand sanitizing stations throughout the stadium

• Individually-wrapped food items at concession stands

• Elimination of all smoking and vaping areas in the facility

• Health screenings and personal protective equipment for all Nissan Stadium employees

• A comprehensive cleaning plan during events for bathrooms and near concession areas

Fans will be asked to arrive early and head straight to the gates after they arrive. After consulting with local and national health experts, there will be no tailgating or pregame activities allowed outside of the stadium. The stadium will have dedicated security crews throughout Nissan Stadium to enforce all Safe Stadium policies.

TITANS REBOUND AFTER 2-4 START

After winning their 2019 regular season opener at Cleveland (Sept. 8), the Titans dropped four of their next five games to begin the season with a 2-4 record. From that point forward, they won nine of their last 13 games, including playoffs.

Since the NFL went to its current playoff format in 1990, 345 teams have gone 2-4 or worse in their first six games of a season. From that group, the Titans became the 21st team to earn a postseason berth.

Their wild card victory over the Patriots made the Titans the 10th team to win a playoff game and the 11th team to advance to the divisional round after faring no better than 2-4 in their first six games.

A week later, the Titans became the third such team to advance to the conference championship, joining the 2002 Titans (2-4) and the 1996 Jacksonville Jaguars (2-4).

As a franchise, the Titans/Oilers have advanced to the divisional round or beyond three times following a 2-4 or worse start through six games. In addition to the 2019 squad and the 2002 club, the 1993 Oilers went to the divisional round with a first-round bye.

Quarterback Ryan Tannehill is in his ninth NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2020. He received a multi-year contract extension during the 2020 offseason.

In 2019, Tannehill took control as the team's starting quarterback in Week 7 and subsequently led the Titans to the playoffs and an appearance in the AFC championship game. In his 13 starts, including the regular season and playoffs, the Titans went 9-4.

Tannehill set single-season franchise records and led the NFL with a 117.5 passer rating and a passing average of 9.6 yards per attempt. His passer rating was the fourth-highest figure in NFL history among qualifiers. Additionally, he set a club record and placed third in the NFL with a 70.3 completion percentage.

Tannehill was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for December 2019 and was named to his first career Pro Bowl. He also won the Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year Award.

Originally a first-round selection (eighth overall) by the Miami Dolphins in the 2012 NFL Draft, Tannehill was acquired by the Titans in a trade with the Dolphins on March 15, 2019. The Titans sent a 2019 seventh-round pick and a 2020 fourth-round selection to Miami in exchange for Tannehill and a 2019 sixth-rounder.

Over his seven seasons in Miami, he started 88 games, threw for 20,434 yards and 123 touchdowns, and rushed for 1,210 yards and six scores. When he left Miami, he ranked second in franchise history behind Chad Pennington in both career completion percentage (62.8) and career passer rating (87.0). He authored 13 game-winning drives for the Dolphins.

During the first four seasons of his career (2012-15), Tannehill's passing yardage total—15,460 yards—was the third highest mark in NFL history, behind only Peyton Manning and Dan Marino. Tannehill's two 4,000-yard passing seasons (2015 and 2014) were the only ones recorded by a Dolphins quarterback other than Marino (six times). The Dolphins reached the playoffs in 2016, breaking an eight-year postseason drought.

A native of Big Spring, Texas, Tannehill attended Texas A&M, where he earned honorable mention All-America honors as a senior. He played both quarterback and wide receiver, passing for 5,450 yards and 42 touchdowns and adding 112 receptions for 1,596 yards and 10 scores.

2020 Notes:
➢ At Denver (9/14), opened the season on Monday Night Football with a 97.9 passer rating after completing 29 of 43 passes for 249 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions. He also rushed for 14 yards on three attempts. He registered his 17th career game-winning drive and his fourth as a member of the Titans. On the team's final drive, which ended with the go-ahead 25-yard field goal by Stephen Gostkowski, Tannehill completed five of seven attempts for 40 yards. His two touchdown passes included a one-yard pass to tight end MyCole Pruitt in the second quarter and a one-yard touchdown toss to tight end Jonnu Smith in the fourth quarter. He extended his streak to 11 consecutive regular season games with at least one touchdown pass and extended his streak to eight consecutive regular season games with at least two touchdown passes. His 43 passing attempts were his most in a game since Sept. 18, 2016 (45 vs. New England).
➢ Against Jacksonville (9/20), registered his 100th career start in the regular season and recorded a 145.7 passer rating—the seventh best single-game passer rating in franchise history (minimum 20 attempts)—by completing 18 of 24 attempts for 239 yards with four touchdowns and no interceptions. It was the best passer rating for the club since Marcus Mariota's 149.8 against Green Bay on Nov. 13, 2016. It was Tannehill's second-highest career passer rating in a game with a minimum of 20 attempts, topped only by his 155.3 against the Oakland Raiders on Sept. 23, 2018. He tied his career high with four touchdown passes, becoming the first Titans quarterback with four or more touchdown passes in a game since Mariota's 2016 performance against Green Bay. Tannehill's four touchdown passes against the Jaguars included a 13-yard pass to tight end Jonnu Smith and a nine-yard strike to wide receiver Corey Davis in the first quarter, a four-yard touchdown to Smith in the second quarter, and finally an 18-yard toss to wide receiver Adam Humphries in the third quarter. He registered his 18th career game with three or more touchdown passes and reached 150 career touchdown passes on his third touchdown pass of the day. He extended his career-best streak and set a franchise record with his ninth consecutive regular season game with at least two touchdown passes. Marcus Mariota established the previous team record with eight consecutive games in 2016 with two touchdown passes. He also extended his streak to 12 consecutive regular season games with at least one touchdown pass, the longest streak by a Titans quarterback since Steve McNair set the franchise record from 2001 to 2002 with 23 consecutive games with a touchdown pass. He posted his NFL-high 10th game with at least two touchdown passes and no interceptions since he stepped into the starting lineup for the Titans in Week 7 of 2019, including the regular season and postseason. Tannehill owns 27 such games in his career. He registered his 18th career game-winning drive and his fifth as a member of the Titans.

➢ At Minnesota (9/27), completed 23 of 37 passes for 321 yards with one interception. He registered his 20th career 300-yard passing game and his first of 2020. He had three passes of more than 35 yards: a 44-yard completion to Kalif Raymond during the opening series, a 38-yard strike to Corey Davis in the third quarter and a 61-yard bomb to Raymond in the third quarter. He became the first NFL quarterback since Matt Ryan in 2015 with a game-winning drive in each of his team's first three games of a season, logging his 19th career game-winning drive and his sixth as a member of the Titans. He led the offense to eight total scoring drives, including five scoring drives in the second half.

➢ Against Buffalo (10/13), completed 21 of 28 passes (75.0 percent) for 195 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions. His passer rating of 129.3 was the ninth-best single-game mark of his career (minimum 20 attempts). He added 42 rushing yards, including a 10-yard rushing touchdown in the second quarter and a 23-yard run for a first down in the fourth quarter. He recorded the second game of his career with at least three passing touchdowns and at least one rushing touchdown, matching what he achieved as a member of the Miami Dolphins against the Denver Broncos on Nov. 23, 2014. His three touchdown passes included a 16-yard pass to A.J. Brown on his first attempt of the game, a four-yard touchdown pass to Jonnu Smith in the third quarter and a seven-yard toss to Smith in the fourth quarter.

It was Tannehill's second-highest career passer rating in a game with a minimum of 20 attempts, topped only by his 155.3 as a member of the Miami Dolphins against the Oakland Raiders on Sept. 23, 2018.

Running back Derrick Henry is in his fifth NFL season in 2020. He was selected by the Titans with the 45th overall pick in the second round of the 2016 NFL Draft and received a multi-year contract extension in 2020.

In 2019, Henry was named to his first career Pro Bowl and added second-team Associated Press All-Pro honors after leading the NFL in rushing in 2019. In 15 games, he totaled 1,540 yards on 303 carries (5.1 avg.), joining Billy Cannon (AFL, 1961), Earl Campbell (1978-80) and Chris Johnson (2009) as the only running backs in franchise history to lead their respective leagues in rushing. Henry's single-season total ranked fourth in franchise annals behind Johnson's 2009 total (2,006) and Campbell's 1979 (1,697) and 1980 (1,934) performances. He was named the FedEx Ground Player of the Year.

With 16 rushing touchdowns in 2019, Henry tied for the NFL lead (Aaron Jones) and finished second in team history (19 by Campbell in 1979). Adding his two receiving touchdowns, his 18 total touchdowns were third in the NFL and tied for second in franchise annals (19 by Campbell in 1979; 18 by Bill Groman in 1961).

Henry's performance late in the 2019 season was instrumental in the team's run to the AFC championship game. Over the final six games of the regular season plus three playoff appearances, Henry registered seven 100-yard games. During a three-game stretch (Dec. 29 at Houston, Jan. 4 at New England and Jan. 11 at Baltimore), he became the first player in NFL history to rush for at least 180 yards in three consecutive regular season and/or postseason games.

Henry authored his first career 1,000-yard season in 2018 and the 28th 1,000-yard rushing season in franchise history, totaling 1,059 yards and 12 touchdowns on 215 carries—all then-career highs.

His 2018 rushing yardage ranked second in the AFC to Joe Mixon's 1,168 yards, and he finished seventh in the NFL. Henry's 12 rushing touchdowns tied James Connor for third place in the NFL behind Todd Gurley (17) and Alvin Kamara (14).

Henry was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for December 2018. His 625 rushing yards in the month were the most by any NFL player in any month during the season.

Against the Jacksonville Jaguars on Dec. 6, 2018, Henry recorded one of the greatest single games in franchise history in front of a national television audience. He broke Johnson's single-game franchise record

(228) with 238 rushing yards, including a 99-yard touchdown run. He joined Tony Dorsett as the only two players in NFL history to rush for a 99-yard score.

In 2017, Henry shared time in the Titans backfield with DeMarco Murray. Henry led the team with 744 rushing yards on 176 carries, and he added 11 receptions for 136 yards and a touchdown. His five rushing touchdowns tied for second on the club.

As a rookie in 2016, Henry played in 15 games with one start, splitting reps in the backfield with Murray. He carried the ball 110 times for 490 yards and five touchdowns and added 137 yards on 13 receptions. Henry became the third rookie for the franchise in the "Titans era" to score at least five touchdowns in a season, joining Vince Young (seven rushing touchdowns in 2006) and Johnson (nine rushing and one receiving in 2008).

The Heisman Trophy winner played three seasons (2013–2015) at the University of Alabama, where he set numerous school and SEC records while helping his team win a National Championship in 2015. He played in 39 games and totaled 602 carries for 3,591 yards and 42 rushing touchdowns and added 285 yards on 17 career receptions with three receiving scores. During Alabama's victory over Clemson in the 2016 College Football Playoff National Championship, he broke Shaun Alexander's record for most career rushing yards in Alabama history.

In his final collegiate season, Henry rushed for an Alabama and Southeastern Conference record 2,219 yards, which led the nation and ranked fifth in FBS history. He recorded 100-yard rushing games 10 times and had four 200-yard games during the season. His 28 rushing touchdowns were a national best and an SEC record, snapping Tim Tebow and Tre Mason's old mark of 23. From the final week of the 2019 regular season (Dec. 29 at Houston) through the Titans' first two playoff games (Jan. 4 at New England and Jan. 11 at Baltimore), Derrick Henry became the first player in NFL history to rush for at least 180 yards in three consecutive regular season or postseason games.

He also became only the third player since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger to have 200 scrimmage yards in three consecutive games. The other two players to accomplish the feat were Chicago Bears running back Walter Payton (1977) and Pittsburgh Steelers running back Le'Veon Bell (2014).

During the 2019 regular season and playoffs, Henry and Carolina Panthers running back Christian McCaffrey (two) were the only two players with multiple 200-yard scrimmage games. Together they accounted for five of the 14 such individual performances.

It was the second 99-yard run in NFL history, tying Tony Dorsett's record-setting touchdown run for the Dallas Cowboys against the Minnesota Vikings on Jan. 3, 1983. It was also the team record, topping Johnson's 94-yard touchdown run against the New York Jets on Dec. 17, 2012. The only other runs in franchise history of at least 90 yards were Johnson's 91-yard rush against the Houston Texans on Sept. 20, 2009 and a 91-yarder by Sid Blanks against the Jets on Dec. 13, 1964.

Henry's 99-yard touchdown run tied for the longest scrimmage play in NFL history. It was the 15th such play, including his and Dorsett's runs and 13 passing plays. The last 99-yard scrimmage play before Henry's was New York Giants wide receiver Victor Cruz's 99-yard reception from Eli Manning against the New York Jets on Dec. 24, 2011.

The only franchise player with more overall touchdowns in a game than Henry was Oilers running back Billy Cannon, who had five total touchdowns (three rushing, two receiving) at the New York Titans on Dec. 10, 1961. Henry became the first NFL player with four rushing touchdowns in a game since New England Patriots running back Jonas Gray at Indianapolis on Nov. 16, 2014.

Additionally, Henry's rushing performance against the Jaguars accomplished the following:

➢ Henry became the seventh NFL player since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger with at least four rushing touchdowns and at least 200 rushing yards in a game, joining Clinton Portis, Barry Sanders, Doug Martin, Jonas Gray, Mike Anderson and Corey Dillon. Henry became the first to accomplish the feat in fewer than 20 carries (17).

➢ Henry recorded his NFL-high three rushing attempts of at least 70 yards since the beginning of the 2017. Leonard Fournette (two) was the only other player with more than one through 14 weeks of the 2018 campaign.

➢ He matched former Titans running back Chris Johnson as the only players in NFL history with a rushing touchdown of at least 90 yards and a rushing touchdown of at least 50 yards in the same game. Johnson accomplished the feat against the Houston Texans on Sept. 20, 2009.

➢ His 24 points tied for the fourth-highest single-game total in franchise history, trailing only Billy Cannon (30 on Dec. 10, 1961), Rob Bironas (26 on Oct. 21, 2007) and George Blanda (26 on Sept. 18, 1960). Earl Campbell (Nov. 20, 1978) and Lorenzo White (Dec. 9, 1990) also had 24 points on four touchdowns in a single game.

Click for complete bio

Cornerback Malcolm Butler is in his seventh NFL season and his third campaign with the Titans in 2020. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 16, 2018.

Butler's 2019 season was cut short due to a wrist injury he suffered in the ninth game (Nov. 3 at Carolina). Until that point, he had 30 tackles, two interceptions, including one for a touchdown, and 10 passes defensed.

In 2018, Butler led the Titans with 13 passes defensed in his first season as a Titan and was second on the team with three interceptions, which included an interception return for a touchdown. He added 56 tackles, one sack, one quarterback pressure, three tackles for loss and one forced fumble in 16 games (11 starts).

Prior to his arrival in Tennessee, Butler spent the first four seasons of his career with the New England Patriots. During his time in New England, he appeared in 59 career regular season games with 48 starts and amassed 204 tackles, eight interceptions, 47 passes defensed, four forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries.

Butler appeared in 11 career playoff games with seven starts with the Patriots. He started all three postseason contests on the Patriots' run to the Super Bowl LI title in 2016 and made the crucial, game-winning interception at the goal line in New England's Super Bowl XLIX victory over the Seattle Seahawks to conclude the 2014 campaign.

In 2017, he played in all 16 games during the regular season with 15 starts and amassed 60 tackles, two interceptions, a sack, 12 passes defensed and three forced fumbles. He saw action in all three postseason games (two starts) and posted four tackles.

In 2016, Butler earned his second consecutive Pro Bowl invitation and was named Associated Press second-team All-Pro after starting all 16 regular season games and recording 63 tackles, one sack, a career-high four interceptions and 17 passes defensed.

As a rookie free agent in 2014, Butler was involved in one of the most memorable plays in Super Bowl history. With 26 seconds remaining against the Seattle Seahawks in Super Bowl XLIX, he intercepted a pass intended for Ricardo Lockette at the goal line, preventing a go-ahead touchdown by the Seahawks and sealing New England's championship victory.

The Vicksburg, Miss., native was originally signed by the New England Patriots on May 19, 2014, following two seasons at the University of West Alabama, where he was a two-time first team All-Gulf South Conference selection at cornerback. He transferred to West Alabama from Hinds (Miss.) Community College.

It was Butler's first interception of the season. In the third quarter, he intercepted Allen and raced 68 yards on the return to set up a touchdown. It was his longest career interception return, topping his 56-yard touchdown return against Washington on Dec. 22, 2018. It was the longest interception return by a Titans player since Zach Brown's 79-yarder against Jacksonville on Dec. 30, 2012. His 97 total interception return yards were the most by an NFL player in 2020 through five weeks and the most by a Titans player since Brown's 109 yards against Jacksonville (Dec. 30, 2012). Butler registered his sixth consecutive season with at least two interceptions. He added seven tackles against the Bills, including a tackle for loss.

In his first 14 seasons, he made 374 of his 428 field goal attempts. At the end of the 2019 season, his 87.4 percent success rate on field goals made him the fifth-most accurate kicker in NFL history.

Gostkowski also scored 205 points in the postseason for the Patriots to rank second in NFL history in playoff scoring.

One of his finest statistical seasons came in 2017, when he scored 156 points, made 37 of 40 field goal attempts and made a career-long 62-yard field goal.

Click for complete bio
Punter Brett Kern is in his 13th NFL season and his 11th full campaign with the Titans in 2019. He was claimed off waivers by the Titans during the 2009 season.

During his time in Tennessee, Kern has placed his name at the top of most of the franchise's leaderboards at his position. At the end of the 2019 campaign, he ranked as the team's all-time career leader in gross punting average (45.9 yards), net punting average (40.8) and punts placed inside the 20 (333). He punted 839 times in a Titans uniform from 2009–2019, second all-time for the franchise behind Craig Hentrich's 861 punts. Kern owns the top eight net punting seasons in franchise history and six of the team's top eight gross punting seasons.

In 2019, Kern was named to the Pro Bowl for the third consecutive season, and he earned first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors for the first time in his career. His 37 punts inside the 20 led the NFL, and his 43.1-yard net average ranked second in team history.

At the end of the 2019 campaign, Kern's 170 consecutive games played (regular season) ranked second in team history behind only Bruce Matthews (232). Kern's 170 career games ranked sixth in franchise annals and were the most in the organization's "Titans era" (1999–2019).

In 2018, his 47.1-yard gross average ranked fifth in team history, and his 41.7-yard net average ranked second in team annals. He set a franchise record and recorded a career high with 39 of his 74 punts inside the 20-yard line. He finished the season with a career-long streak of 16 consecutive punts placed inside the 20, including every punt in the final three games of the season.

In 2017, Kern had arguably one of the best seasons by a punter in NFL history and was named to his first career Pro Bowl in addition to earning second-team Associated Press All-Pro honors. He punted 75 times for 3,728 yards with 28 punts placed inside the 20-yard line. His 44.6-yard net average broke his own team record and finished second in NFL history behind only Johnny Hekker's 46.0-yard net average in 2016. Kern's 49.7-yard gross average also broke his team mark and finished eighth in NFL history.

In 2015, Kern continued his annual assault on the team's all-time punting records and accomplished a first-of-its-kind NFL feat, becoming the first punter in league history to record 80 or more punts, a net average of 40 yards, and one or zero touchbacks in a single season. His season totals included 88 punts (tied for fifth place in franchise history), a 47.4-yard gross average (second in franchise history), a 40.3 net average (third in franchise history), a career-high 34 punts inside the 20 (third in franchise history) and only one touchback (career low).

In 2014, Kern launched a career-high 88 total punts for a gross average of 46.8 yards and a net average of 40.8 yards, which broke his own single-season team record (40.4-yard net average in 2012).

Kern produced one of the best punting seasons in team history in 2012. He set then-franchise records with a gross punting average of 47.6 yards and a net punting average of 40.4 yards (he later broke both marks).

Kern was claimed by the Titans off waivers from the Denver Broncos on Oct. 27, 2009. He spent the entire 2008 season and the first six games of 2009 campaign in Denver, totaling 73 punts and a 46.5-yard average in 22 games with the Broncos.

In 2008, Kern ranked fifth in the league with a 46.7-yard punting average that marked the third-best season total by a Bronco in club history. At the time, his punting average was the best in NFL history by a rookie. He was named to the All-Rookie team by Pro Football Weekly/PFWA and The Sporting News.

The Grand Island, N.Y., native was originally signed by the Broncos as a rookie free agent on April 28, 2008, following four seasons at the University of Toledo.

CB CHRIS MILTON
➢ Milton is related to former NFL running back Tashard Choice, who played six seasons (2008-2013) in the NFL with the Dallas Cowboys, Washington, Buffalo Bills and Indianapolis Colts.
➢ Milton had the opportunity to learn from Pro Football Hall of Famer Champ Bailey. Their families were close, and when Milton was getting ready for the NFL, he reached out to Bailey for tips. They trained together during the weeks leading up to the draft. Now if he ever has questions, he still reaches out to the legendary cornerback.
➢ Milton enjoys fishing in his free time and when he is not playing or training for football he feels like a full-time fisherman on the water.

C DANIEL MUNYER
➢ As a senior at Colorado, Munyer was awarded the department of communication's Academic Leadership Award for his dedication to learning and strong positive presence in the classroom.
➢ He earned his degree in communication, with a certificate in digital media from Colorado in December 2014. He was named to the honorable mention Pac-12 All-Academic Team as a redshirt freshman, sophomore and junior.
➢ He enjoys fishing, hiking, playing video games, handing out with friends and watching movies and lists the best movie he has seen recently as the Book of Eli.

DL LARRELL MURCHISON
➢ Murchison grew up working with his mother at her restaurant in Elizabethtown called Glenda's Just Desserts and Lunch Counter, which she has owned for 10 years. He would work doing whatever needed to be done – mopping floors, sweeping, waiting tables and taking orders. "Everything is good, but if you go, I'd say start with the fried pork chops, mac and cheese and cabbage."
➢ Murchison loves everything music and enjoys playing the drums. His dad played drums in the church when he was younger, and he just followed in his footsteps.

RB SENORISE PERRY (first name pronounce suh-nah-RISS)
➢ Perry wasn't among the rookie free agents signed in the days following the 2014 NFL Draft. He hit the tryout circuit and hoped to make an impression. Perry was one of two players signed by the Chicago Bears after a May tryout. He excelled on special teams in the preseason games and sealed his 53-man roster spot as an undrafted free agent.
➢ Perry excelled in track and field as a high school senior, winning the Georgia state titles in the 100 meters and long jump.
➢ Perry's hobbies include photography, and he has a desire to learn how to deep sea fish.

TITANS TIDBITS: THE BEST OF TITANS OFF-THE-FIELD NOTES

TE MYCOLE PRUITT
➤ The name MyCole has a unique origin. Pruitt's mother's name is Colette. Cole means "people's victory" in Greek baby names. She named him MyCole for My-Victory. MyCole is his mother's victory.
➤ Named best tight end in Missouri Valley Football Conference history as part of the MVFC's 30-year anniversary celebration.
➤ Pruitt graduated in December 2014 with a bachelor's degree in industrial technology from Southern Illinois.
➤ Pruitt attended the same high school as former NFL wide receiver Jeremy Maclin.

WR KALIF RAYMOND
➤ Raymond was a dual-sport collegiate athlete, competing in football as well as track and field during his senior season at Holy Cross. He placed second in the 100-meter dash at the 2015 New England Outdoor Championship with a time of 10.71 seconds.
➤ Raymond received little interest from college football programs when he was a student at Greater Atlanta Christian (Ga.) High School, partly due to a serious injury he suffered as a senior. Undeterred, he began sending emails to colleges with football programs with high academic standards. The only schools to respond were Lehigh, Georgetown and Holy Cross, and he chose the latter.
➤ In preparation for the 2016 NFL Draft, Raymond, who was not invited to the NFL Scouting Combine, was allowed to participate in Harvard's pro day since Holy Cross did not host a pro day.

OLB DERICK ROBERSON (pronounced ROW-ber-son)
➤ Roberson enjoys painting on and designing sneakers and cleats.
➤ Roberson is unsure how many tattoos he has at this point, but he has drawn and designed some of the ones he has inked on his body.

G RODGER SAFFOLD III
➤ Saffold is the owner of competitive "Call of Duty" and "Fortnite" teams called Rise Nation. He invested in the video game industry in April 2014.
➤ His father, Rodger II, played football at the University of Iowa in the mid-1970s.
➤ Rodger and his wife Asia grew up on the same street as eight-year olds in Ohio. The childhood friend's romance didn't begin until quite awhile later when the two re-connected on Facebook during Saffold's second-year with the Rams.

T TY SAMBRAILO
➤ Sambrailo is an avid skier who as a youth earned USSA titles in the slalom, giant slalom and super-G events for his age group.
➤ Sambrailo's dad, Mark, graduated from the University of Colorado, where he was a pole vaulter, his brother, Erik, also is a CU graduate and competed as a skier in the Junior Olympics, his sister, Kiersten, played volleyball at Oregon State, and his grandfather, Bill Sambrailo, played football at Santa Clara, helping the team to a berth in the Orange Bowl.

DT JEFFERY SIMMONS
➤ During college Simmons was a two-time member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll.
➤ Simmons' brother, Dylan Bradley, played football at Southern Miss and then spent time with the Minnesota Vikings. His uncle, Jason Hatcher, played 10 total seasons with the Dallas Cowboys and Washington.
➤ Away from football, Simmons enjoys fishing and spending time outdoors.

TE JONNU SMITH (first name pronounced JAH-new)
➤ Smith competed in weightlifting, finishing second in the county in the 219-pound weight class in high school at West Port.
➤ Smith credits his mother, Karen, for his successes. Jonnu's father passed away as a result of a tow truck accident when he was four years old and his mother raised all six children by herself. "My mother is my rock. It was tough, but we always got what we needed—not necessarily what we wanted all the time—but what we needed. She was so strong all the time."
➤ Smith endured a lot of challenges as a youngster in Philadelphia and after his brother was arrested and one of his friends was killed on the streets, a decision needed to be made. His family didn't have the financial means to just uproot, so for his own safety Jonnu moved in with his mother's sister and brother-in-law, Darla and Mike Kirkland, in Ocala, Fla. He started playing high school football and even though he was far from a touted recruit, he earned a scholarship to Florida International where his play took off.
➤ Smith's best friend Willie "Quasim" Jefferson tragically died from a gun shot in October 2016. Jonnu gave his son the middle name Quasim in honor of him.

CB TYE SMITH
➤ In 2018, Smith began hosting the annual "Simple Greatness" youth football clinic at St. Augustine University in his hometown of Raleigh, N.C. Smith says Simple Greatness to him means, "It can't be measured. It means heart, dedication. It's all the intangibles that we as a society overlook because we look so much at things we can measure."
➤ Smith enjoys volunteering his free time in the community and he helped raise money for Habitat for Humanity in 2018 with a bowling event and kids field day activity in his hometown of Raleigh, N.C.
➤ He has his own website, www.simplegns.com.

TE GEOFF SWAIM
➤ Two-time member of the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll.
➤ Brother, Mycal, also attended Butte College and then played safety at Eastern Michigan (2012-13) before signing as a free agent with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers following the 2014 NFL Draft.

QB RYAN TANNEHILL
➤ Ryan founded the Tannehill's A.C.E.S. (Achieving Community Educations Success) program with wife, Lauren, which consisted of 17 sophomores from American Senior High School and is focused on awarding scholarships to the participating students who strive for good grades and took on an active role in their community by hosting monthly events to reward the students and help them give back to the community.
➤ Ryan's father, Tim, played wide receiver at Texas Tech from 1985-87.

S KENNY VACCARO
➤ Vaccaro traveled to Kenya during the 2016 offseason with former Texas and Saints teammate Alex Okafor and is involved in community and fundraising efforts to construct a school in the region.
➤ Vaccaro's uncle, A.J. Johnson, played for Washington (1989-94), helping them to Super Bowl XXVI win before spending a season with the San Diego Chargers (1995).
➤ Vaccaro founded the Kenny Vaccaro Foundation to provide economically challenged students with literacy and education resources so that they can achieve academic excellence, develop confident personal skills, and make positive decisions to avoid high risk behavior.

WR NICK WESTBROOK-IKHINE (pronounced uh-KEEN-UH)
➤ Westbrook-Ikhine attended Lake Mary (Fla.) High School where he set the program's career, single-season and single-game receiving yardage and touchdowns records.
➤ He also lettered in lacrosse and track and field in high school, participating in the 300-meter hurdles, long jump and triple jump.
➤ Graduated with a business marketing degree in December 2019 from Indiana's No. 10 ranked Kelley School of Business.

T ISAIAH WILSON
➤ Wilson enjoys watching cartoons, and he has a particular fondness for "SpongeBob SquarePants." "I can really dissect it deeply and learn a lot from it," he says.
➤ Wilson is comfortable working in the kitchen, dishing out everything from French toast to mac and cheese and collard greens to his family. He was employed at a summer camp for three summers in high school, spending much of that time in the camp kitchen.
➤ One of his rituals is eating an ice cream sundae the night before every game.
➤ Wilson welcomed the opportunity to begin his career in Music City. He listens to a diverse range of music, listing Travis Scott, Brantley Gilbert, Aretha Franklin and Mötley Crüe as a sampling of his many favorites.
➤ Prior to being drafted by the Titans, Wilson, a video game enthusiast, would choose the Titans when he played Madden NFL because of Derrick Henry. "You can't stop him," Wilson says.

QB LOGAN WOODSIDE
➤ In his free time, Woodside enjoys playing golf and fishing in his home state of Kentucky.
➤ His hometown of Frankfort, Ky., is a three-hour drive from Nashville.
➤ During the 2019 offseason, Woodside played for the Alliance of American Football League's San Antonio Commanders. In seven AAF games, he completed 116 of 201 passes for 1,385 yards and seven touchdowns.
