TITANS VISIT CHARGERS SUNDAY IN LATE AFTERNOON KICKOFF

Tennessee Titans (7-6) at Los Angeles Chargers (7-6)

Sunday, Dec. 18, 2022 • 3:25 p.m. CST/1:25 p.m. PST • SoFi Stadium • Inglewood, Calif. • TV: CBS (WTVF-5)

NASHVILLE — The Tennessee Titans travel to Los Angeles this week to face the Chargers, pairing two playoff hopefuls with identical 7-6 records in a late Sunday afternoon matchup. Kickoff at SoFi Stadium (capacity 71,500) is scheduled for 3:25 p.m. CST/1:25 p.m. PST on Dec. 18.

The Titans will make their second visit to SoFi Stadium, but it will be their first time to play the Chargers at the venue, which opened in 2020. They defeated the Rams there on Nov. 7, 2021. It is the first clash between the Titans and Chargers franchises in Los Angeles since the Oilers visited there in 1960. The Chargers called San Diego home from 1961 to 2016.

The most recent Titans-Chargers clash at Nissan Stadium on Oct. 20, 2019 was the first start in a Titans uniform for quarterback Ryan Tannehill, as well as the first NFL game for 2019 first-round defensive tackle Jeffery Simmons. Since that week, the Titans own the league's fifth-best record at 37-19 (.661).

THE BROADCAST

The contest will be regionally televised on CBS, including Nashville affiliate WTVF NewsChannel 5. The broadcast team includes play-by-play announcer Andrew Catalon, analyst James Lofton and reporter Amanda Renner.

Fans in Nashville can stream live Titans games with the newly-launched NFL+ subscription service, which offers access to all local games and all primetime games on phones and tablets, live local and national audio for every NFL game, and more.

The Titans Radio Network and Nashville flagship 104.5 The Zone carry all Titans games across the Mid-South with the "Voice of the Titans" Mike Keith, analyst Dave McGinnis, sideline reporter Amie Wells and gameday host Rhett Bryan.

Additionally, Compass Media Networks will broadcast the game to a national radio audience. Play-by-play announcer Troy Clardy and analyst Brian Baldinger will have the call.

TITANS LOOK FOR RETURN TO THE WIN COLUMN

The Titans travel to the West Coast this week with hopes of ending their first three-game losing skid since Weeks 5-7 of the 2018 season, Mike Vrabel's first campaign as head coach. Last week they hosted the AFC South rival Jacksonville Jaguars with a chance to inch closer to their third consecutive division title. However, the Jaguars thwarted the Titans' plans, leaving Nashville with a 36-22 victory.

Running back Derrick Henry rushed for 121 yards and one touchdown on 17 attempts, and he added 34 yards on three receptions. It was his sixth 100-yard rushing game of the season, which is tied for the most in the NFL with Cleveland's Nick Chubb and Las Vegas' Josh Jacobs. Jacobs leads the NFL with 1,402 rushing yards, followed by Henry (1,199) and Chubb (1,153).

Tannehill completed a pair of touchdown passes in the loss—one to rookie tight end Chig Okonkwo and one to veteran wide receiver Nick Westbrook-Ikhine.

With four weeks remaining in the regular season, the Titans have a two-game lead in their division, ahead of the 5-8 Jaguars and 4-8-1 Indianapolis Colts. The 1-10-1 Texans have already been eliminated from contention. Following their trip to Los Angeles, the Titans host the Texans (Dec. 24) and the Dallas Cowboys (Dec. 29) before finishing the regular season with a rematch against the Jaguars in Jacksonville (Jan. 7 or 8).

THE CHARGERS

The Chargers are in their second season under head coach Brandon Staley. He was hired in 2021 after a stint as the defensive coordinator of the Los Angeles Rams. Staley has his team in second place in the AFC West behind the 10-3 Kansas City Chiefs.

The Chargers hosted the Miami Dolphins on Sunday Night Football last week. Against Miami's fourth-ranked total offense and second-ranked passing offense, the Chargers allowed only 127 net passing yards and 219 total yards, leading to a 23-17 victory.

Chargers quarterback Justin Herbert was drafted by the Chargers in the first round of the 2020 NFL Draft. His 13,056 passing yards, including 367 last week against the Dolphins, are the most in NFL history through a player's first three career seasons.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR THIS WEEK

WR TREYLON BURKS

- Can record his third consecutive individual game with a touchdown. Prior to being inactive last week, he scored on a fumble recovery in Week 12 against Cincinnati and notched his first career touchdown catch in Week 13 at Philadelphia.

S KEVIN BYARD

- With 24 career interceptions, he needs one interception to tie Michael Griffin and Ken Houston (25) for eighth place all-time for the franchise. He would tie Griffin for the most interceptions for the franchise during its "Titans era" (1999-present).

RB DERRICK HENRY

- Scheduled to play in his 100th career game (regular season).
- Will reach 8,000 career rushing yards with four more yards (7,996 currently).
- Can record his 35th career 100-yard rushing game, including regular season (32) and playoffs (three).
- Needs one touchdown of any kind (79 career) to reach 80 total career touchdowns.
- Needs 131 scrimmage yards (9,162 currently) to surpass Earl Campbell (9,292) for the third-most scrimmage yards in franchise history behind Eddie George (12, 153) and Chris Johnson (9,968).

TE AUSTIN HOOPER

- Enters the week with a streak of five consecutive games with three or more catches. A sixth straight game with three or more receptions would be the third-longest streak of his career for a single season (nine in 2018 and in 2019).

TE CHIG OKONKWO

- Needs 10 receiving yards (320 currently) to break Ben Troupe's franchise rookie tight end record of 329 receiving yards.
- Can become the second rookie tight end in franchise history with at least three touchdown catches, joining Chris Dressel (four in 1983).
- Can record his fifth reception of 30-plus yards. He would join Delanie Walker (six in 2014 and five in 2016) as the team's only tight ends since 1999 with five or more 30-yard catches in a single season.

DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

- Needs two sacks to match his career high of 8.5 sacks in a season, set in 2021.

P RYAN STONEHOUSE

- Enters the game with a streak of five consecutive games with a gross punting average of at least 50.0 yards. A sixth consecutive game would match his own NFL record set earlier this season from Week 1-7.

QB RYAN TANNEHILL

- Can record his 26th career 300-yard passing game and his 10th such performance since joining the Titans in 2019. Ten 300-yard games with the Titans would put him in a tie with Steve McNair (10) for the third-most games in franchise history.
- Can register his sixth straight game with a passer rating of at least 90.0, which would be the second-longest such streak of his career for consecutive games within a season (seven in 2019).

SERIES HISTORY

The Titans and Chargers share a long and storied history. The two teams, founding members of the American Football League, have met 47 times since 1960. The Chargers lead the series 28-18-1.

Most recently, the Titans hosted the Chargers on Oct. 20, 2019, a day when quarterback Ryan Tannehill recorded his first start for the Titans. A goal-line stand by the Titans defense in the final minute preserved the 23-20 victory, concluding when linebacker Wesley Woodyard forced a fumble and defensive tackle Jurrell Casey recovered the ball in the end zone for a touchdown.

Prior to the 2019 matchup, the Titans played the franchise's first overseas game against the Chargers in London on Oct. 21, 2018. After a touchdown pass from Marcus Mariota to tight end Luke Stocker put the Titans behind by one point with 31 seconds remaining, the Titans elected to try a two-point conversion to take the lead. However, a pass from Mariota to wide receiver Taywan Taylor was tipped by safety Adrian Phillips and fell incomplete to give the Chargers a 20-19 win.

In 2016, the Chargers' final season in San Diego, the Titans visited Qualcomm Stadium a final time and suffered a 43-35 defeat.

The Titans were founded as the Houston Oilers and moved to Tennessee in 1997 before becoming the Titans in 1999. The Chargers began in Los Angeles in 1960, moved to San Diego in 1961, and moved back to Los Angeles in 2017.

On Sept. 18, 1960, the two clubs met for the Oilers' inaugural home game at Houston's Jeppesen Stadium. The Oilers won that matchup 38-28. In November of that same year, the Chargers won the rematch in Los Angeles, 24-21. The AFL's top two teams would meet once more that season—a rubber match for the first-ever AFL Championship. The Oilers were victorious at home, rejoicing in a 24-16 win that earned each member of the team an extra $1,016.42.

The following season, they met again for the AFL crown, and the Oilers again were the victors in a 10-3 final. They would clash twice more in the playoffs, first in a 17-14 Oilers win in a 1979 Divisional contest. Following the 2007 season, the Chargers hosted the Titans in a Wild Card matchup and earned their first victory in the postseason series, winning 17-6. It was part of the Chargers' eight-game winning streak against the Titans, lasting from 1993 until 2013.

The Chargers and Oilers marked another significant day on Sept. 13, 1998, when the then-Tennessee Oilers, who played their home games in Memphis in 1997, hosted their first regular season home game in Nashville in front of 41,089 fans at Vanderbilt Stadium. To their dismay, the Chargers spoiled the festivities by handing the Oilers a 13-7 defeat.

TITANS-CHARGERS: THE LAST MEETING

Week 7: Titans 23, Chargers 20
Sunday, Oct. 20, 2019 • 3:05 p.m. CT • Nissan Stadium

GAME RECAP

In Week 7 of the 2019 season, the Titans hosted the Los Angeles Chargers and won by a score of 23-20.

Tennessee got on the board first on a nine-play, 42-yard scoring drive that included a chain-moving fake punt playcall. On fourth-and-eight at the Chargers 43-yard line, P Brett Kern threw an 11-yard pass to S Kevin Byard to help keep the drive alive, and ultimately led to K Cody Parkey converting a 45-yard field goal for a 3-0 lead. On the following drive, Los Angeles responded with their own field goal, as Chargers K Chase McLaughlin converted a 29-yard attempt for a 3-3 game.

In the second quarter, Chargers QB Philip Rivers led Los Angeles on a 14-play, 94-yard scoring drive. Chargers WR Keenan Allen contributed 32 yards on two catches, and Chargers RB Austin Ekeler totaled 24 total yards on the drive, as Rivers ultimately connected with Chargers RB Melvin Gordon for a one-yard score and a 10-3 lead. However, on the ensuing Tennessee drive, the Titans responded with a touchdown of their own. QB Ryan Tannehill connected with WR A.J. Brown for 42 yards on three catches, and RB Derrick Henry added 36 total yards, as the drive culminated in an eight-yard touchdown catch by WR Corey Davis and a 10-10 tie game.

Tennessee tacked on another score early in the fourth quarter, as Tannehill connected with WR Tajae Sharpe for an 11-yard touchdown. However, the extra point attempt was no good, as the Titans took a 16-10 lead. On the following Chargers possession, Los Angeles converted a 50-yard field goal to make it a 16-13 game.

Later in the fourth quarter, Tannehill led the Titans on a seven-play, 75-yard scoring drive. With help from a 38-yard catch by Davis, Henry ran in an 11-yard touchdown to put Tennessee ahead, 23-13. Los Angeles then responded on the next possession, as Rivers hit Ekeler for a 41-yard score. The Chargers made it a one possession game, 23-20.

With 2:35 remaining to play in regulation, Tennessee turned the ball over on downs at the Chargers 49-yard line. Rivers drove Los Angeles down the field and entered the red zone, and in Titans territory Rivers threw what was initially called a 16-yard touchdown pass to Ekeler. However, the ruling on the field was overturned. Next, a defensive pass interference penalty called on CB Malcolm Butler allowed the Chargers a fresh set of downs at the one-yard line. Then, Gordon ran in what was at first called a one-yard touchdown, but the ruling on the field was reversed as Gordon did not break the plane. On his second attempt, Gordon lost possession of the ball as LB Wesley Woodyard forced a fumble. DT Jurrell Casey recovered the ball to give the Titans possession with 15 seconds remaining in the game and seal a 23-20 victory at Nissan Stadium.

Brandon Staley was named the 17th head coach in Los Angeles Chargers franchise history on Jan. 17, 2021.

Staley has six years of NFL coaching experience and played in college as a quarterback for parts of five seasons. In his first season as the Chargers head coach, Staley led the Chargers to a 9-7 record through the first 16 games of the season. However, against Las Vegas in Week 18 in a win or tie or go home situation, the Chargers fell to the Raiders 35-32 in overtime on a game-winning field goal as time expired. The Chargers missed the playoffs at 9-8. Staley's offense set single-season team records for first downs (401), passing touchdowns (38) and fewest fumbles (10). The offensive unit also scored 181 fourth-quarter points, good for the second-most in a season in NFL history. Staley called a defense that led the NFL with 11 strip-sacks and paced the AFC with 19 forced fumbles. Six Chargers were selected to the Pro Bowl, including five that were tabbed as starters.

In 2021, The first-year head coach helped develop quarterback Justin Herbert to his first Pro Bowl game as the second-year passer set numerous single-season franchise records, including completions (443), passing yards (5,014), passing touchdowns (38) and games with 300-plus passing yards (nine). He led the AFC in 2021 in each of those categories and was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week three times. Herbert became the third-youngest player to throw for 5,000 yards in a single season (23 years, 305 days) and is the only player to throw for 5,000 yards and rush for 300 yards in the same season. In the team's Sunday Night Football victory over Pittsburgh in Week 11, Herbert threw for 382 yards and ran for 90, becoming the only player ever to top 350 passing yards and 90 rushing yards in a single game.

Staley went to the University of Dayton and started two years at quarterback for the Flyers, guiding the team to a 16-5 record from 2003-04. He finished his playing career at Mercyhurst College in 2005.

TEAM AND LOCAL CONNECTIONS

FORMER TITANS

- Chargers linebacker Derrek Tuszka played one game for the Titans earlier in 2022. He registered two tackles during his lone appearance in a Week 3 win over the Las Vegas Raiders.
- Chargers outside linebackers coach Giff Smith served as the Titans defensive line coach for two seasons (2014-15). Smith helped the Titans implement a 3-4 scheme. In 2015 under Smith, the Titans racked up 39 sacks, tied for 12th in the league. The defensive line accounted for 13.5 of those sacks, including a team-high-tying seven by defensive tackle Jurrell Casey.

CHARGERS WITH TENNESSEE CONNECTIONS

- Chargers wide receiver Joshua Palmer played football for University of Tennessee (2017-20). Palmer appeared in 42 games and tallied 99 receptions for 1,515 receiving yards and seven receiving touchdowns over his four seasons in Knoxville.
- Chargers head coach Brandon Staley served as a graduate assistant for the University of Tennessee (2012). Staley worked alongside both current Chargers defensive backs coach Derrick Ansley and current Chargers running backs coach Derrick Foster at Tennessee that season. Ansley served as the defensive backs coach and Foster also was a graduate assistant like Staley. Ansley was the only coach of the trio to return to Knoxville for more than one season, as he would eventually serve as the Vols defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach for two more seasons (2019-20).
- Chargers tight ends coach Kevin Koger served as a graduate assistant for the University of Tennessee (2015) under Butch Jones.
- Chargers defensive quality control Isaac Shewmaker served as a defensive graduate assistant for the University of Tennessee (2020) under current Chargers defensive backs coach Derrick Ansley while Ansley was the Vols' defensive coordinator.
- Chargers wide receivers coach Chris Beatty played football for East Tennessee State for four seasons (1991-94). Beatty started at wide receiver all four years and ended his career as the school's all-time leader in receptions (125) and receiving yards (1,813). Beatty would later return to the state to coach at Vanderbilt for one season (2011), as their wide receivers coach/recruiting coordinator.
- Chargers pass game specialist Tom Arth served as the head coach for Tennessee-Chattanooga for two seasons (2017-18).

TITANS WITH LOS ANGELES/CALIFORNIA CONNECTIONS

- Titans wide receiver Robert Woods is a Gardena, Calif., native and attended Junipero Serra High School, where he was played on both sides of the football and ran track. Woods played football at University of Southern California in Los Angeles, Calif., for three seasons (2010-12). Woods appeared in 38 games and recorded 253 receptions for

- 2,930 receiving yards and 32 receiving touchdowns. Woods played five seasons for the Los Angeles Rams (2017-21) where he appeared in 56 games and tallied 367 catches for 4,626 receiving yards and 23 receiving touchdowns. Woods was a part of two Super Bowl Teams (2018 and 2021) and was part of the Rams team that won Super Bowl LVI.
- Titans punter Ryan Stonehouse is a San Dimas, Calif., native and attended Mater Dei High School in Santa Ana, Calif. Stonehouse was officially rated as a three-star recruit and the third best punter prospect in the class of 2017. Ryan Stonehouse's father, Paul Stonehouse, was a punter for Stanford (1989-1992) and his uncle, John Stonehouse, punted for University of Southern California (1992-95).
- Titans tight end Austin Hooper is a San Mateo, Calif., native and attended De La Salle High School in Concord, Calif. Hooper played football at Stanford in Stanford, Calif., for two seasons (2014-15). Hooper appeared in 24 games and registered 74 receptions for 937 receiving yards and eight receiving touchdowns.
- Titans tight end Geoff Swaim is a Chico, Calif., native and attended Pleasant Valley High School in Chico, Calif. Swaim played basketball and football, playing as a linebacker and registering 124 tackles (65 solo), six sacks, one interception, one fumble recovery and two blocked extra points. He received all-section and all-league honors as a senior (2012).
- Titans defensive back Terrance Mitchell is a Sacramento, Calif., native and attended Luther Burbank High School there. Mitchell played both sides of the football as cornerback and running back. As a senior, he earned Metro League Offensive MVP honors after registering 2,360 all-purpose yards, 48 receptions, and 24 touchdowns. On defense, he received All-Metro honors after he tallied six interceptions, a forced fumble and one blocked field goal.
- Titans offensive assistant Kylan Butler is a native of Antioch, Calif. He won a state championship at De La Salle High School prior to his collegiate playing career at Arizona.
- Titans defensive line coach Terrell Williams is a native of Los Angeles and played nose guard at West Los Angeles College prior to transferring to East Carolina.
- Titans quarterbacks coach Pat O'Hara is a native of Los Angeles and attended the University of Southern California. O'Hara he played quarterback for the Trojans under head coach Larry Smith.
- Titans offensive line coach Keith Carter attended the University of California Los Angeles and served as an assistant on the football team for one season (2005). Carter returned to California to be the offensive line/run game coach at San Jose State for one season (2014), where the Spartans ran for 1,696 yards and 11 touchdowns while averaging 141.3 yards per game on the ground.

LAST WEEK VS. THE JAGUARS

Week 14: Jaguars 36, Titans 22 Sunday, Dec. 11, 2022 • 12:00 p.m. CT • Nissan Stadium

In Week 14 of the 2022 season, the Titans hosted the Jaguars and fell by a score of 36-22.

Tennessee got on the board on its opening possession with a 10-play scoring drive that included first-down receptions by WRs Nick Westbrook-Ikhine and Robert Woods, as well as TE Chig Okonkwo. Ultimately, RB Derrick Henry ran in a three-yard rushing score for an early 7-0 Titans lead. Later in the first quarter, QB Ryan Tannehill was strip-sacked and the ball was recovered by Jaguars DL Dawuane Smoot, giving Jacksonville a first down at the Tennessee 20-yard line. Jaguars QB Trevor Lawrence found Jaguars TE Evan Engram for a 12-yard touchdown to capitalize on the turnover and tie the score, 7-7.

On the ensuing Titans possession, Tennessee took the lead back with a six-play scoring possession. Henry broke free for a 50-yard gain to earn a first down at the Jacksonville 25-yard line, before Tannehill found Okonkwo for a 10-yard touchdown pass, 14-7 Tennessee.

In the second quarter, Tannehill's pass was intercepted by Jaguars S Andrew Wingard and returned 13 yards to the Jacksonville 46-yard line, as Jaguars K Riley Patterson was able to tack on a 37-yard field goal, 14-10 Titans. After forcing the Titans to go three-and-out, Jacksonville added another field goal as Patterson converted a 43-yarder, 14-13 Titans. On the ensuing Titans possession, with Tennessee driving in Jacksonville territory, Tannehill tossed a 16-yard pass to Henry. However, Henry fumbled the ball and it was recovered by Jaguars OLB Josh Allen for a Jacksonville first down at their own 22-yard line. Lawrence found Jaguars WR Christian Kirk for a 23-yard pass, Engram for a 18-yard first down, and ultimately, Jaguars WR Zay Jones for a 20-yard touchdown pass as Jacksonville took a 20-14 lead into halftime.

In the third stanza, Jacksonville scored 13 points to increase their lead. First, a 72-yard drive culminated in a one-yard rushing score by Lawrence, 27-14. Then, a five-play possession resulted in a 21-yard touchdown pass from Lawrence to Engram. Jacksonville elected to go for two, but Lawrence's pass fell incomplete, 33-14 Jaguars.

Jacksonville capitalized on another Titans turnover in the fourth quarter, as a fumbled snap was recovered by Jaguars OLB Arden Key at the Tennessee 30-yard line. Patterson converted a 33-yard field goal to make it 36-14, Jacksonville. On the ensuing Titans possession, Tennessee put together a 10-yard scoring drive, aided by two first-down passes to TE Austin Hooper. The drive concluded with a two-yard touchdown pass from Tannehill to Westbrook-Ikhine, and Tennessee's two-point conversion was successful as Tannehill found Okonkwo on a pass play. The Titans inched closer to make it 36-22, but ultimately could not construct a comeback and fell at home.

NOTES FROM LAST WEEK'S GAME

TEAM NOTES

- Outside linebacker Tarell Basham, cornerback John Reid, wide receiver Racey McMath and linebacker Jack Gibbens all made their first appearance of the season for the Titans. The team has now used 80 players in 2022. Their 76 players entering the week were the second most in the league behind only the Arizona Cardinals' 77 players used.
- The Titans scored a touchdown on their opening possession for the sixth time this season, driving 76 yards to the end zone on 10 plays. Their six first-drive touchdowns ties for the team's second-best total since 2000, matching the 2001 team's output and trailing only the 2020 squad, which had seven such scores. Entering the week, the Titans' five opening-drive touchdowns tied for the fourth-highest total in the NFL this season.
- The Titans scored 14 points in the first quarter to match their season high, initially set at Indianapolis on Oct. 2.
- The Titans scored on a two-point conversion in the fourth quarter, when Ryan Tannehill completed a pass to tight end Chig Okonkwo. It was the Titans' first attempted two-point conversion and their first successful two-point conversion since Oct. 3, 2021 at the New York Jets. Dating back to 2020, the Titans now have succeeded on each of their last five two-point attempts.
- The Titans offense scored touchdowns on all three of their red-zone possessions, marking the fourth game in 2020 in which the team was perfect on three or more trips inside the 20. The Titans have reached the end zone on 23 of their 35 red-zone possessions in 2022 (65.7 percent).
- The Titans defense allowed 60 rushing yards on 25 attempts (2.4 avg.). It was the fifth game in 2022 the Titans allowed 60 or fewer rushing yards.

- Finished second on the team and tied his career high with 10 tackles. He added a pass defensed.

OLB TARELL BASHAM

- Made his Titans debut.

S KEVIN BYARD

- Posted three tackles and tied for the team lead with two passes defensed.

RB JULIUS CHESTNUT

- Tallied his first two career kickoff returns for a 26.5-yard average, including a 33-yard return.
- Added two receptions for eight yards.

WR CHRIS CONLEY

- Registered a 27-yard reception during a touchdown drive in the fourth quarter.

OLB BUD DUPREE

- Finished with six tackles, including a team-high three tackles for loss.
- Dropped running back Travis Etienne Jr. for a six-yard tackle for loss in the first quarter.

LB JACK GIBBENS

- Made his NFL debut.

RB DERRICK HENRY

- Rushed for 121 yards and one touchdown on 17 attempts (7.1 avg.) and added 34 yards on three receptions.
- Increased his career total to 7,996 career rushing yards to pass Chris Johnson (7,965) for third place on the franchise's all-time career rushing list. He trails only Eddie George (10,009) and Earl Campbell (8,574).
- Found the end zone on a three-yard run in the first quarter, scoring his 11th rushing touchdown of the season and his 76th career rushing touchdown.
- Rushed for a 50-yard gain in the first quarter to help set up a touchdown four plays later. It gave him 13 career rushing attempts of 50 yards or more.
- His 96 rushing yards in the first quarter set a career high for rushing yards in the opening quarter (63 at Houston, Oct. 30, 2022).
- Went over the 100-yard mark on a 21-yard run in the second quarter to notch his 34th total 100-yard rushing game, including 31 games in the regular season and three games in the playoffs.
- Rushed for 119 yards in the first half, giving him seven career games to hit the 100-yard rushing mark within the first two quarters. Since 1991, only Adrian Peterson (11), Barry Sanders (nine), LaDainian Tomlinson (nine), Frank Gore (eight) and Emmitt Smith (eight) did so more times than Henry, who tied Terrell Davis (seven) and Priest Holmes (seven).
- Totaled 155 scrimmage yards to increase his season total to 1,519 scrimmage yards. He joined Eddie George (four seasons) and Earl Campbell (four) as the franchise's only players to reach 1,500 scrimmage yards in three different seasons, having already done so in 2019 and 2020.
- Since the start of the 2013 season, Henry's 17 career games with 150 or more scrimmage yards tied LeSean McCoy and Le'Veon Bell for the NFL's second-best total behind only Christian McCaffrey's 19 such games.

TE AUSTIN HOOPER

- Led the team with 68 receiving yards on five catches.
- Registered a 24-yard reception during a touchdown drive in the fourth quarter.

C BEN JONES

- Made his 150th career start (regular season).

WR RACEY McMATH

- Made his season debut after spending the first 12 games of the season on injured reserve.

TE CHIG OKONKWO

- Posted 45 yards and a touchdown on a team-high six receptions. The reception total was his best through 13 games of his rookie season.
- Scored his second career touchdown on a 10-yard pass from Ryan Tannehill in the first quarter.
- Caught a pass for a two-point conversion in the fourth quarter. It was the team's first two-point conversion of the season.

CB JOHN REID

- Made his Titans debut.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

SUNDAY, DEC. 11, 2022

Are the three turnovers in the first half the tale of the game?

It is a large part of the game, but we have to be able to get some turnovers. We have to be able to find a way to get our hand on the football. We batted one early on third down. Then we batted one late and we had an interception that went through our hands that turned into a touchdown. It is very complementary. It starts with taking care of the football without question. Then we have to be able to find a way to get a stop, force them to kick a field goal, and not turn those turnovers - let those be touchdowns.

What is keeping you from disrupting the quarterback right now?

There is no secret to affecting the quarterback. You have to have some guys that go, rush, and get them. Then when we pressure, we have to be able to get there. We have to get there quicker. Then coverage is going to have to allow for an extra count or a pump or a hitch. That is where it is at. There is no secret to that.

What did the players tell you with their play out on the field today?

There was a lot of good things out there today. We moved the football. We got some stops early. I thought how we came out and played early was positive. We were not good enough with the turnovers and not good enough to start the second half defensively. We will have to get a lot of those things corrected.

On how much difficult might the path be moving forward after this loss?

It is about consistency in this league, whether you win or you lose. Unfortunately, we lost. It is about finding a level of consistency, that we show up tomorrow ready to make corrections, be honest, and try to get things fixed so that we can move forward and prepare to win a football game. That is all we do whether we win or we lose.

Was there a miscommunication between wide receiver Nick Westbrook-Ikhine and quarterback Ryan Tannehill on the interception?

It was just not a well-executed play. Clearly not a well-executed play.

Was the team distracted this week?

I felt like we actually had a good week. I thought that Friday there was energy, Saturday there was a volume around the building. I thought that the way that we started the football game and what we did was positive. We just didn't do enough there once we got into the game with the turnovers and our inability to affect the quarterback and make them earn it. All those things that we try to preach each and every week.

What made Jaguars tight end Evan Engram such a problem today?

He is a good player. We didn't do enough to affect the quarterback. We lost leverage. The screen plays in man coverage. The catch-and-runs and balls down the field.

Does this first three game losing streak since your first season as head coach say something about where this team is right now?

We will all evaluate. I was excited about coming back home and excited about playing against a division opponent. I thought we were prepared. I don't know what it says about this. We understand that there are going to be some ups and downs. We are going to have to be able to weather the storm and find out who is willing to give us that extra push here down the stretch.

Pass protection hurt you again, especially early in the game when quarterback Ryan Tannehill was sacked and fumbled. Has that been an ongoing issue for this team?

What part of that was the question? Help me out with what your question is.

Was the pass protection good enough today?

Nothing was good enough today.

Does three straight games with a fumble from running back Derrick Henry qualify as a trend?

Hopefully we can give it to him as many times as we possibly can next week.

When you are preparing during the week, do you at any point this season feel hamstrung by the personnel you have available to you? Or do you feel like you come into each game with enough guys to get the job done?

I take that approach every week. Every week that I come in there, I find a way. I just tell them, 'Find out who we have and who is available.' Everybody needs to prepare as a starter. We saw we moved a lot of guys up. A lot of guys played. We will see where it is next week and do the same exact thing.

Did you come into this game thinking that you had enough guys to win this game?

I always think that we can win a football game if we are able to do the things that we talk (about). If we are able to affect their quarterback, be able to be efficient with our passing game, get some turnovers, take care of the ball, and be in a game where, when you can stop the run and force them to throw the football, then you affect the quarterback and control the game by running it. I do. I know that is what wins in this league. As well as being good situationally, which was cool to see our guys battle back. They pressured us. We got into an extra-long situation there. I thought we were going to have a chance to score there, kick an onside kick, and see if we could have the 10 percent. All that shit that happened and went wrong. I still thought guys were rotating in there. Chris Conley, Racey McMath, guys were rolling in and out that maybe hadn't had a ton of work with that two minute. I thought that there were some things there that we can build on. Unfortunately, we just had the real long yardage after the sack.

Do you want somebody on the defensive line firing off on that kneel down at the end the way that they did?

I want our guys to protect themselves at all costs throughout the game. I don't know what happened or didn't happen. I think that they should protect themselves every time that they're out there.

Often you say you have got to coach better and you have got to play better. When does that frustration boil over? Does something else have to happen?

I don't know what would have to happen at this point in time other than me coming in there with a clearly defined vision for how the week is going to go, try to figure out who is healthy, figure out what the gameplan is, how we execute, how we practice, and how we prepare. I don't think there would be anything else. If there are, I'm open to it. I'm open to all suggestions and I mean that. I think that the consistency that has to happen with my leadership and my vision for the gameplan each and every week and what we need to do to win. Hopefully I can stay consistent and like I said, come to work tomorrow, wake up with a choice of how we are going to respond, and how we are going to walk into that building tomorrow. That starts with me. It is going to have to start there and hopefully through the assistant coaches and the players. Yeah, we are frustrated. It sucks to lose.

Do you ever get angry with them and do something that is out of character?

Yeah, I do a lot of different things each and every day. The consistency is just about the approach that we take, our attitude and our mindset. There are things that I do each and every day that are - we change practice up, we make emphasis, we do ball disruption two times a day, ball security at the beginning and the end, and we add open field tackle. There are a lot of things we do with the schedule. We had a lot of things.

Has any other team had to deal with as many injuries as the Titans have?

I try to focus on the Tennessee Titans and whoever we are playing that week. That is what I try to focus on.

QUARTERBACK RYAN TANNEHILL

Did turning the ball over four times serve as cause for the loss?

No doubt, that is something that we know each and every week in this league. We all have got to be better and do a better job there.

Did wide receiver Nick Westbrook-Ikhine think he was blocking on the interception?

It was a pass play all the way. We just were not on the same page. I saw something and thought I could get a quick ball to him there. We just weren't on the same page.

What is the balance at a point like this between being angry and frustrated and not being emotional in terms of how you approach your work?

We have got to channel those emotions, channel the frustration, channel the anger or whatever individual emotions that each player has. We have to channel them, put them together, and come together to get back on track. This is not the way we want to play. We talk about the keys all the time in our building. We didn't really execute any of them on offense or defense today. We have to get back on track, stick together, channel that emotion and put it together in a positive way. Then find a way to win next week.

How much did falling behind on the scoreboard make you have to change the gameplan and throw it more often?

We were moving the ball effectively the whole first half. We just shot ourselves in the foot with turnovers. Each time we were kind of getting get in a groove and getting rolling it - actually two of them were down basically scoring range or in field goal range at least. We were moving and then had the turnover. We did a lot of good things in the first half. We have to take better care of the ball. When you get behind like we did early in the second half - they come out, score, we have a penalty, it put us in first-and-22, and backed us up. We were not able to gain yards there and ended up punting. Then they scored again. That put us down three scores, I believe. At that point you have to find a way to move and try to go get points.

How does this result feel given the usual success against the Jaguars?

It is not a place you want to be in. It is not a place that any of us walking into this building thought we were going to be in today. It is just the keys that we talk about all the time. If you don't take care of the ball, if you don't get turnovers or stops on the other side, if you can't score points, then you're going to lose. I don't think that there is any magic formula. We have got to do the things that we talk about and take advantage of the opportunities that we get. Now we have to channel this frustration, channel this anger, channel this emotion, put it together, stick together, and find a way to win next week.

How do you go about setting the tone for body language and attitude for this week?

No doubt, we have got to bring the energy. I thought we had great energy coming into this week. Guys were sticking together. We had a great week of practice and a great week of preparation. We had great energy going into the game and great energy in the first half, even though we had some mistakes and some turnovers. It was great energy. It wasn't for a lack of body language, energy or belief. We just had the mistakes that really cost us the game over the course of the game. We have to stick together, keep that focus, keep that energy, and keep it going. Times like these are when we find out what you're about. We have to stay the course, stick together, and find a way to win next week.

Is this still a confident team in your opinion?

I believe in those guys. I believe we have what we need to go win games. We've got to make it happen. We did some good things today and we did some things that ultimately cost us the game. We have just got to be cleaner, take advantage of the opportunities we get, believe in each other, and find a way to win.

How meaningful was it to get running back Derrick Henry going?

It was great. We did a lot of good things in the first half. We were able to move the ball the way we wanted to by doing some stuff in the passing game and by getting Derrick (Henry) rolling in the run game. He had some big runs and some efficient runs where it was muddy underneath, but he was able to fall forward and stay efficient by getting more yards. There were a lot of good things in that first half. We just have to do a better job of taking care of the ball.

What did you see on the interception?

The defensive lineman stepped up. I thought I had a quick window there to drive it to Nick Westbrook-Ikhine. He was not on the same page as me and the rest is history.

Were you taking a shot on the first play, flea-flicker, regardless as long as you had the time to throw it or it was there someplace else to go with the ball?

We were trying to get the shot deep but did not have that. We had Robert (Woods) coming across the field, but they buzzed out underneath. The guy was running with him underneath. The safety hung for a little bit in the middle. We were able to get behind him, so it made it a one-on-one on the outside. I took a shot down to Nick (Westbrook-Ikhine).

How do you rate the teams focus this week? Was the team distracted?

No. We had to deal with it, but the energy and focus were great throughout the week. We had a great week of preparation. Practice was great. Guys were locked in the meeting rooms, on the practice field, and we got a lot done. We just did some things that hurt us in this football game. We did a lot of good things, but when you turn the ball over and you don't get any back then you put yourself in a bad situation.

RUNNING BACK DERRICK HENRY

There seemed like there was a lot of good things happening out there in general from the offense in the first half, but just frustrated by the turnovers a little bit?

Yeah, those put us behind and they took advantage of it, turned the ball over. Coach (Vrabel), he said all week we need to take care of the ball, finish drives and score points. But unfortunately we didn't, and that's what happens.

What happened on that fumble that along the sidelines, a matter of not expecting that hit?

No, I was coming off a broken tackle. I didn't see him hit me and the ball came out. That's all. I've got to take care of the ball.

How do you think this team should react, how will this team react, it's the first three game losing streak in a while?

It better. Like I said, it's going to sound like a broken record with me. What can you do? I mean, come make the corrections, learn from it. Put your gameplan together to go win a game and focus on that. It's over. Was a loss. Come in tomorrow and correct. Take care of the ball, take care of the ball. All you can do to is try to make it better.

Mike (Vrabel) said last week he thought you guys were at a crossroads of the season Collectively, it didn't seem like a very good team I mean, so today were you surprised by that?

Surprised by how, what do you mean?

Well, it seemed like all of you last week were saying, 'Hey we're definitely going to come back.' This was a definitive team statement and instead you got the opposite?

I mean, I felt like we just didn't do what we needed to do to be able to win the game. And they came out and played better. And like I said, we turned the ball over and gave them opportunities and put us in a bad spot. I'm going to hold myself accountable always. I've got to take care of the ball and do my job a little bit better, and just continue to work and make each other better throughout the week and try to win the game. But right now we have lost three, we just got to stay positive if possible.

Is this team still confident, as it was say a month ago, when things were rolling?

We definitely are. I feel confident. We just got to sustain, finish games, put drives together, score points and do the things that we know how to do. Well, we just kept shooting ourselves in the foot today and that beat us.

What has to happen, is that practice, the meeting room, mindset and a combination of everything?

I think you have to have a growth mindset, come in and make the corrections, learn from the corrections and let it translate on the field. I mean, guys come in and work hard each and every day and it sucks, sucks to lose. But I know my teammates and the whole coaching staff, we know the will to want to get better and go out and get a win. And I think eventually it will happen for us. You know, you just have a little adversity right now and that's all it is. And, you know, we will just have to weather the storm, keep working and everything will happen the way that it is supposed to.

Despite kind of a rough day all around, the running game seem to have some success today that didn't happen lately. Do you think there were some adjustments being made during the week that you can allude to that and something and something positive you can take away from this game?

I think just running hard and getting what I can out of every run. Offensive line did a great job. All those guys did a great job blocking. And I thought we were able to be efficient in the run game today, but it still wasn't good enough. And, you know, they won.

What was supposed to happen on that last fumble, was it a direct snap? What went wrong there?

Yeah, it was direct snap and it got a little away from me a little bit. I should have fallen on it rather than trying to pick it up and get back up because I've got to be better. So no excuses on that, just get on the ball and just get another down.

How new of a feeling is it to you that the team feels like it's trending downward lately? You guys typically have always gotten better as the season has gone on and how frustrating and concerning is that?

I think that is leadership. Coach (Vrabel) always says, 'Culture is not built on when everything is going good.' It's built on when you're at your worst. Our culture is going to withstand when everything is going bad. I think leadership just needs to step up. I need to step up and, you know, just rally together, stay together. Like I said, we've been through adversity before. This one is definitely is tough. But all you can do is just make corrections, get better and go out there and try to win the game and work throughout the week, make each other better and continue to do those things. I know I've said that over the past couple of weeks, but, I mean, that's all there is to it.

The adversity that you guys had to deal with this week, you know, it was different, you know, with Jon Robinson. But how do you feel the focus was leading up to the game and even today?

Yeah, we were focused. We wanted to come out and get a win. We can't be worrying about what's going on outside and were focused on what was going to come out and get a win. We didn't. But, guys focused, had energy and we want to come out and do the best we can to help each other, and win.

So, when you say leadership needs to step up, how?

Stay positive because it's easy when everything is going bad to be down, and it happens every season. You go through this and that. But I think you just be positive. You continue to work. So the guys know, teammates, you know, we are still in it, do the work, everything is still in front of us. And we just got to keep getting better and have that focus mindset of what can we do to finish the season strong.

DEFENSIVE TACKLE JEFFERY SIMMONS

Do you feel like the events this week affected this team at all?

I don't feel like it did, and it shouldn't. I mean, Jon Robinson is not out there playing football for us. I mean, he made the decisions, but we are out there playing football. Like I said, defensively, we've got to stop giving up all these plays. We've got to affect the quarterback apparently better. We've got to cover better. It's as simple as that. We have got to tackle or whatever it may be. They wanted it more today than us apparently. I don't know how else to put it.

After three straight losses, is it a test of character now for you guys to get it back?

Yeah. I mean, it's going to be about our culture. Everything's going to show now. We're going to see what type of team we have. We're going to see what type of guys are in this locker room. And now, especially with the leaders, it's going to fall back on the leaders. You know what type of leadership we have through adversity. Adversity really shows who you are. We talk about it all the time, we don't want any front runners. But like I said, we have to play better in all three phases. I can control what I've got to control. But being a leader, we have got to play better on all three sides of the ball.

As a leader, what do you do to kind of make sure that everyone gets back up to speed?

I think it starts with holding everyone accountable. It's the little things starting tomorrow. We've got to be on time. It's all the little thing that go on throughout the whole week. I don't feel like we didn't have a good week of practice, but I mean, like I said, it's just the little things. The biggest thing is accountability.

WIDE RECEIVER ROBERT WOODS

I guess at this point, kind of given everything that you guys knew was on the line. You're trying to snap a two-game skid. This is a division game, and a real chance to solidify the division, and then, what happened, happened.

Yes, I would say disappointing, just because we didn't come out and play our best football. Obviously, we had a lot on the table, but more so just about winning a football game. We didn't come out and play our best. Had turnovers. Put ourselves in bad situations on many downs, and we got, how we played.

Is it kind of a check down for this team right now, with the three losses and looking to kind of find, reestablish your identity, and figure out who you guys are?

We know we are. We just have to play like it. We've got to start how we did, and just continue to play and play aggressive. Attacking the defense on every single blade of grass, whether it's lateral, vertical. Just have to put stress on the defense throughout the whole game.

You mentioned the turnovers. I mean, that's key. You can't have four turnovers in one game, and expect to win.

Yeah, exactly. Exactly. Can't turn the ball over.

You guys were back working in the red zone when you were down there. So how frustrating is that, where you had those first touchdowns in the first quarter, and then, just had that kind of a lull?

Yeah, I feel like we were out there and being able to play fast on the field. For like the second quarter, it felt like we weren't really out there. And then we get out there and don't sustain a drive. We just have to find ways to stay on the field. This offense is good once we get rolling, but we've just got to start fast, and start from first down, and in the second half, everything. We have got to come out a lot better.

WIDE RECEIVER NICK WESTBROOK-IKHINE

The kind of day, where you were throwing the ball pretty well and running pretty well. How demoralizing were all those turnovers today?

I feel like that was the (inaudible) of the game. Wish we had those back, definitely. But on to the next week. We've still got a lot in front of us. But like I said, that's really the difference in the game, the turnover margin.

Your coach said last week that you guys were at a crossroads. Three straight losses. I mean, how do you guys bounce back from this, going forward?

I feel like we can say that we're lucky to still be at the same crossroad and still have a lot in front of us. Still have an option, to decide our fate. So I feel like you just get back to work, find a way to get back to what we were doing before, when we were winning games. And just look into that, and fight to get back to that. That mentality.

It was a tumultuous week. Did that, as far as you know, that have anything to do with today's performance?

I wouldn't say so. I feel like we're all professionals trying to come out here, and try to play the game to the best of our ability.

OUTSIDE LINEBACKER BUD DUPREE

About the loss today? What about the mistakes today?

Man, we've just got to play better. First, we'll grade, but we got to go and take it tomorrow, put it behind us. Continue to grind. Come close as a unit. A lot of times, a situation like this, you've got to dig hard. Keep digging until you hit some roots. That's what we have to do. Keep digging. We have to hit the root, before we bounce back up.

Is this a test of character at this point, maybe, after three straight "Ls"?

Yeah. I mean, any time adversity strikes like that, it's always taking care. So, we've got to come in and make the right decisions tomorrow. Continue the grind, and don't look back at this. Keep it in our gut. Continue to know that what happened, and for weeks in a row, we as a team, we can't let that happen again. And we've got to hold ourselves accountable.

LINEBACKER MONTY RICE

What did they do that gave you guys trouble?

We didn't affect the quarterback. They made a bunch of plays. We didn't execute our keys that we go through every week, and we lost.

How disappointing is it, knowing everything that was on the line in this game? Mike (Vrabel) talked about it being a crossroads for the team.

Disappointed, because I mean, who likes to lose? We didn't get in this sport or this business to take Ls. It's not what I'm about, this team or any of us are about it. I mean, we put a lot into it. We have to get back to work tomorrow and get back to the drawing board and take coaching and fix mistakes.

What was Mike (Vrabel)'s team message? Getting back to the drawing board, and looking ahead, just trying to find one win to get off this night?

Like you said, after the game, we just have to find a way to get a win next week. And that's what this whole week is going to be about, just getting one win.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 2022

WHAT TO LOOK FOR – TEAM

- The Titans have had a winning record each season since 2016. The Titans went 9-7 each year from 2016 to 2019, achieved an 11-5 finish in 2020, and then earned a 12-5 mark in 2021. A seventh consecutive season above .500 would tie the franchise's all-time best streak. The only previous stretch in which the club achieved seven straight winning records was 1987 to 1993.
- The Titans can earn their fourth consecutive playoff berth. It would be the organization's first time doing so since a franchise-record seven consecutive playoff appearances from 1987 to 1993.
- The Titans can earn their third consecutive division title. The only other three-year streak of division titles in franchise annals was when the Oilers won the AFL Eastern division each season from 1960 to 1962.
- A third consecutive season with 11 or more wins would mark the first time in franchise history the team has accomplished such a streak.
- The Titans can log their fourth consecutive season with at least five road victories, which would be the longest such streak in franchise history (1978–1980 and 1998–2000).
- Entering 2022 with a record of 107-78 in regular season games at Nissan Stadium, the Titans need six wins at home to match the 113 wins the franchise had in regular season contests at the Astrodome (113-103-2). Seven home wins would give the franchise more victories at Nissan Stadium (114) than any other single venue.

- With a winning record in 2022, Mike Vrabel would become the only head coach in franchise history to begin his tenure with at least five consecutive winning seasons. Vrabel and Jack Pardee are the organization's only head coaches with as many as three such seasons to begin their tenures.
- Can join Jeff Fisher (six) and Jack Pardee (four) as the only head coaches to lead the franchise to at least four playoff appearances.

S KEVIN BYARD

- With his first interception of 2022 (23 interceptions entering the season), he tied Zeke Moore (24) for 10th place on the all-time franchise interception list.
- Needs two interceptions in 2022 to tie Michael Griffin and Ken Houston (25) for eighth place all-time for the franchise.
- Needs three interceptions in 2022 to tie Mike Reinfeldt (26) for seventh all-time for the franchise and pass Michael Griffin (25) for the most interceptions for the franchise in its "Titans era" (1999–present).
- Can lead the team in interceptions for the fifth time, which would tie Darryll Lewis' franchise record (1994-98).
- Can become the first player to lead the team in tackles for three consecutive seasons since Keith Bulluck (2002-06).

RB DERRICK HENRY

- Needs 2,000 rushing yards to become the first player in NFL history to reach the mark in two different seasons.
- Needs 1,500 rushing yards and 15 rushing touchdowns to become the first player in NFL history to reach both marks in three different seasons.
- Needs a pair of 200-yard rushing games in 2022 to give him seven for his career, which would set the NFL record. He would surpass O.J. Simpson and Adrian Peterson, who each have six such performances.
- With his seventh total touchdown of 2022, he reached 75 to break Eddie George's career franchise record of 74 total touchdowns.
- With his ninth rushing touchdown of 2022, he reached 74 to break Earl Campbell's career franchise record of 73 rushing touchdowns.
- Entering the season with 6,797 career rushing yards, he will pass Chris Johnson (7,965) for third place on the franchise's all-time career rushing list with 1,169 rushing yards in 2022.
- With his 10th rushing touchdown in 2022, he became the fifth running back in NFL history to reach the mark in five consecutive seasons, joining LaDainian Tomlinson (nine), Adrian Peterson (seven), Shaun Alexander (five) and Michael Turner (five).

DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

- Can become the team's only player since 2000 other than Keith Bulluck (2003-05) to record at least three sacks and five passes defended in three consecutive seasons.

QB RYAN TANNEHILL

- Can produce his seventh career season with at least 3,000 passing yards and his third career season with at least 4,000 passing yards.
- Can join Warren Moon (1987–1993) as the only starting quarterbacks in franchise history to lead the club to the playoffs in four consecutive seasons.
- Entered 2022 with an active streak of 43 consecutive starts. With a start in the season opener, he passed Steve McNair (43 consecutive starts from 2001 to 2003) for the most consecutive starts in franchise history by a quarterback.
- Needs 3,500 passing yards to tie Warren Moon (1989–1991) for the most seasons in franchise history with at least 3,500 passing yards. Tannehill reached the mark in each of the past two campaigns.
- Can join Buffalo's Josh Allen (2018–2020) as the NFL's only quarterbacks since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger with at least seven rushing touchdowns in three consecutive seasons. He became the first quarterback in franchise history with at least seven rushing touchdowns in back-to-back seasons from 2020 to 2021.
- Can join George Blanda (1960-63) as the only players in franchise history to throw at least 20 touchdown passes in four consecutive seasons.
- Can become the first player in franchise history with multiple career seasons with at least 30 touchdown passes.

WR ROBERT WOODS

- Can record his 10th consecutive season to begin his career with at least 40 receptions. He and DeAndre Hopkins are tied for the second-longest such active streak in the NFL with nine seasons, behind only Emmanuel Sanders (10).
- Needs five touchdown receptions to join Jerry Rice and Tyreek Hill as the NFL's only players since 1970 with at least 40 receiving touchdowns and five rushing touchdowns. Woods enters the campaign with 35 career touchdown catches to go along with five rushing touchdowns.

Mike Vrabel was named head coach of the Titans on Jan. 20, 2018, becoming the 19th head coach in franchise history.

In his first four seasons as head coach, Vrabel led the Titans to a 43-27 overall record and three postseason appearances. He joined Jack Pardee and Jerry Glanville as the only head coaches in team annals to preside over at least three playoff squads in their initial four seasons as head coach, and he tied Pardee (43-26) for the most total wins by a head coach in his first four seasons with the organization. The Titans won back-to-back AFC South titles in 2020 and 2021, marking the first time the organization accomplished the feat since the Oilers won the first three AFL Eastern division titles from 1960 to 1962.

Vrabel Honored as NFL's Top Coach in 2021

Vrabel was named the Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year in 2021 after directing the Titans to a 12-5 record during the regular season. The Titans won the AFC South, and they claimed the top seed in the AFC playoff field for the first time since 2008. They did so despite needing to use 91 total players during the season—the most in NFL history in a non-strike year. After the final preseason roster cuts through the end of the season, the team placed 26 different players on injured reserve and 21 different players on the reserve/COVID-19 list, plus additional practice squad players that received those designations.

The 2021 Titans ranked second in rushing defense (84.6 yards allowed per game), 12th in total defense (329.8), sixth on third down (37.7 percent), sixth in scoring defense (20.8 points per game) and ninth in sacks (43). Offensively, the Titans finished fifth in rushing (141.4 yards per game) despite missing Derrick Henry for nine games due to injury. The offense also ranked eighth on third down (43.6 percent), fifth in the red zone (63.9 percent) and first in goal-to-go efficiency (87.5 percent).

Situationally, Vrabel's teams fared well among the NFL leaders in his first four seasons as head coach. From 2018 to 2021, their .909 winning percentage (40-4) in regular season games in which they had a fourth-quarter lead ranked second in the NFL behind the New Orleans Saints (.939). In the same time period, the Titans had a .714 winning percentage in three-point games (15-6), which led the league. Vrabel's team was 5-1 in overtime games from 2018 through 2021, tying the Saints (5-1) for the most overtime wins.

From 2018 to 2021, the Titans had the NFL's second-best rushing offense, averaging 143.7 rushing yards per game. Only the Baltimore Ravens were better (173.6). On the other side of the ball, the Titans ranked seventh in rushing defense, allowing 106.2 rushing yards per contest. Also from 2018 to 2021, the Titans tied for eighth in scoring defense (22.0 opponent points per game) and tied for the eighth-best turnover margin (+13). The Titans were called for 370 penalties from 2018 through 2021, which was the sixth-fewest total in the NFL.

Titans Take the AFC South in Year 3 Under Vrabel

The Titans won the 2020 AFC South title with an 11-5 record in the regular season, claiming their best record and first division title since going 13-3 in 2008. They finished with a 5-1 record within the division and a 6-2 mark in road games, all while navigating the challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic.

The Titans led the NFL in 2020 with a plus-11 turnover differential. Their 23 takeaways ranked seventh in the NFL, while their 12 turnovers were the second-fewest in the league in 2020 and tied for the ninth-lowest number since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978.

In 2020, the Titans tied for second place in total offense (396.4 yards per game) and ranked fourth in scoring offense (30.7 points per game). They became the first team in NFL history to generate at least 2,500 rushing yards (2,690) and 3,500 net passing yards (3,653) while surrendering 25 or fewer sacks (25). Their 6,343 total yards and 381 first downs established franchise records, while their 491 points amounted to the organization's second-best total.

The 2020 Titans joined the 1997 Detroit Lions as the only teams in NFL history to feature a 2,000-yard rusher, a 3,000-yard passer and a 1,000-yard receiver. Henry led the NFL in rushing for the second consecutive season, and his 2,027 rushing yards gave him the fifth-best total in league history. Meanwhile, Ryan Tannehill passed for 3,819 yards, and his 106.5 passer rating was the fifth-best number in the NFL. A.J. Brown was named to the Pro Bowl after recording his second consecutive 1,000-yard season (1,075) and tying for fifth place in the NFL with 11 touchdown catches.

Titans to AFC Championship Game in Vrabel's Second Season

In 2019, Vrabel became the first head coach in the organization's history to win multiple playoff games within his first two seasons. The Titans won a pair of road games—at New England in the wild card round and at Baltimore in the divisional round—to advance to the 2019 AFC championship game, falling at Kansas City to the eventual Super Bowl champion Chiefs.

The Titans began the 2019 campaign with two wins in their first six games but rallied to win seven of their final 10 games in the regular season. From the time the NFL went to its current playoff format in 1990 through 2019, 345 teams went 2-4 or worse in their first six games of a season. From that group, the Titans became only the third team to advance to a conference championship game, joining the 2002 Titans (2-4) and the 1996 Jacksonville Jaguars (2-4).

The 2019 Titans ranked in the NFL's top 10 in scoring margin (eighth, +71), turnover margin (sixth, +6), offensive yards per play (fourth, 6.12), rushing offense (third, 138.9 yards per game), red zone efficiency (first, 75.6 percent), total touchdowns (tied for third, 54) and third-down defense (eighth, 36.3 percent).

In his first season as head coach, Vrabel directed the Titans to a 9-7 record. His nine wins tied for the fourth-highest total in franchise history by a first-year head coach.

With only 82 penalties enforced against the Titans in 2018, Vrabel's team led the NFL and set a franchise record (16-game season) for fewest penalties in a season. The 2018 Titans also placed third in points allowed (18.9 per game), eighth in total defense (333.4 yards per game), sixth in passing defense (216.9), second in red zone defense (44.7 percent touchdown rate) and seventh in rushing offense (126.4) in the league rankings.

Background as a Player and Coach

Vrabel arrived in Tennessee with 18 years of NFL experience, including four seasons as a coach and 14 seasons as a player. His distinguished playing career included three Super Bowl wins (2001, 2003 and 2004), one Pro Bowl selection (2007) and an All-Pro honor (2007). Vrabel played in 206 NFL games and totaled 57 sacks, 496 tackles, 11 interceptions, 20 forced fumbles, nine fumble recoveries and 10 touchdown receptions. Additionally, his teams advanced to the playoffs eight times (20 postseason games), with Vrabel recording eight postseason sacks and two postseason touchdown receptions.

Vrabel joined the Titans after four seasons with the Houston Texans, spending the first three seasons (2014-16) coaching linebackers and one year (2017) as the team's defensive coordinator. During his time in Houston, the Texans built one of the best defenses in the NFL and experienced tremendous success as a team – earning two division titles (2015, 2016).

Between 2014-16, the Texans defense ranked third in the NFL in yards allowed per game (319.9) and net passing yards (218.4). Houston also ranked first in third-down defense (33.6), fourth in opponent completion percentage (59.5) and sixth in points allowed per game (19.8). The 2016 defense ranked number one in the NFL, for the first time in franchise history, in yards allowed (301.3).

In 2017, his first year as a defensive coordinator, the Texans finished the campaign with 19 players on injured reserve. Despite the injuries, Vrabel led the defense to the fifth-best third-down percentage in the NFL and a franchise-record 3.97 yards per carry by opponents. Houston also had 18 different players record at least half a sack last year and 26 players tally at least one tackle for loss.

Vrabel spent his career playing and coaching with accomplished leaders, including Bill Belichick, Bill Cowher, Romeo Crennel, Urban Meyer, Bill O'Brien and Todd Haley.

As the Texans linebackers coach from 2014-16, Vrabel developed several players into top-notch performers, including Jadeveon Clowney (Pro Bowl, 2016), Whitney Mercilus, Benardrick McKinney (second-team All-Pro, 2016) and Brian Cushing. The 2015 Texans defense had the top third-down defense in the NFL (28.5 percent), which was the lowest percentage in franchise history and the lowest by any NFL team since the 2003 Titans (27.7 percent). The 2015 defense also set a franchise mark for sacks in a season with 45 - 22.5 coming from Vrabel's linebacking corps.

Prior to joining the NFL coaching ranks, Vrabel transitioned immediately from an NFL player to college coach. He started as the linebacker coach at Ohio State in 2011 and coached the defensive line from 2012-2013. The 2012 Buckeyes finished the season undefeated at 12-0. He also was named Big Ten Recruiter of the Year by ESPN.com in 2012.

Vrabel was selected by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the third round (91st overall) of the 1997 NFL Draft, after his playing career at Ohio State, where he earned All-America honors and Big Ten Conference Defensive Lineman of the Year in both 1995 and 1996.

A native of Akron, Ohio, Vrabel attended Walsh Jesuit High School. He and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons: Tyler and Carter.

MOST WINS IN FIRST FOUR SEASONS

When the Titans defeated the Houston Texans on Jan. 9, 2022, Mike Vrabel won his 43rd game, including postseason, since taking over as Titans head coach in 2018. In doing so, he tied Jack Pardee for the most total wins by a head coach in his first four seasons with the organization. In Pardee's first four seasons as head coach from 1990 through 1993, the Oilers were 43-26, including playoffs.

Vrabel, Pardee and Jerry Glanville (1986-1989) are the only head coaches in team annals to preside over at least three playoff squads in their initial four seasons. All three of Pardee's first four teams made the postseason, while Glanville's Oilers advanced to the postseason in his second, third and fourth years.

Of all Titans/Oilers head coaches with at least four seasons with the franchise, Vrabel's career winning percentage ranks the highest.

Most total wins in Titans/Oilers history in a head coach's first four seasons, including playoffs*:

NISSAN STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

Nissan Stadium hosts all Titans home football games, Tennessee State University football games, the Music City Bowl, the CMA Music Festival and numerous other events.

The procurement of naming rights to Nissan Stadium fit the automotive company's 'Fewer, Bigger, Better' marketing strategy, which has included ongoing sponsorships of NBC's 'The Voice,' the Heisman House college football program and a major advertising presence in this year's Super Bowl. Nissan is also now the official automotive partner of the Tennessee Titans.

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin.

The Nissan Smyrna Plant began operations in 1983 and employs more than 8,400 people. In 2014, the Smyrna plant assembled more than 648,000 vehicles, making it the highest volume automotive assembly plant in North America. Nissan also has a major manufacturing presence in Canton, Miss., along with research and development groups in California, Arizona and Michigan. In total, the company employs more than 22,000 employees in the U.S.

One component of the Titans-Nissan partnership is assisting charitable organizations throughout Middle Tennessee in an array of community outreach programs. A centerpiece of this is the annual "Taste of Titans" charitable event, for which Nissan serves as presenting sponsor. During the course of a 20-year relationship, a total of more than $1 million resulting from these annual events is anticipated to be distributed to local non-profit organizations.

Nissan Stadium is a city-owned venue that has housed the Titans since 1999. The naming rights agreement includes the opportunity for Nissan branding on the exterior of the stadium, as well as stadium signage and other unique displays inside the stadium. LP Building Products held the naming rights to the stadium from 2006 until the Nissan partnership was established in 2015.

WINNING CLOSE GAMES

Since the beginning of the 2018 season, no NFL team has more wins than the Titans in games decided by three points or less.

In 2021, the Titans were 6-1 in games decided by three points or less. Their six such wins led the NFL and were the most in franchise history. Twenty-seven teams in 2021 had no more than three wins of three points or less.

The Titans won their first three games of 2020 by a total of six points—a 16-14 victory at Denver followed by a 33-30 win against the Jaguars and a 31-30 win at Minnesota. They closed the season with a 41-38 win at Houston.

Most wins in games decided by three points or less, 2018–2022:

SEVEN-POINT COMEBACKS UNDER VRABEL

The Titans' 34-31 come-from-behind victory over the Buffalo Bills on Oct. 18, 2021 marked the seventh time Mike Vrabel's Titans won after trailing by at least seven points in the fourth quarter, and it was the second such occasion in 2021. They were down 30-16 at Seattle (Sept. 19) before rallying to win 33-30 in overtime.

Since Vrabel's tenure began in 2018, the Titans have had among the NFL's most fourth-quarter comebacks of seven or more points.

Most victories since 2018 after trailing by seven or more points in the fourth quarter:

THIRD-DOWN DEFENSE SINCE 2021

The Titans have fielded one of the NFL's best third-down defenses since the start of the 2021 season.

They concluded 2021 ranked sixth on third down, allowing opponents to convert on 77 of their 210 chances for a rate of 36.7 percent. Over the final month of the 2021 campaign (Weeks 15-18), the Titans ranked third in the NFL by allowing opponents to convert only 28.6 percent on third down (12 of 42). Only the Buffalo Bills (20.8) and Las Vegas Raiders (26.4) fared better in that span.

The Titans again have one of the top third-down defenses in 2022.

RUSHING DEFENSE SINCE 2021

Since the beginning of the the 2021 season, the Titans have had one of the NFL's stingiest defenses against the run.

In 2021, the Titans placed second in the NFL in rushing defense. Their opponents rushed for an average of 84.6 yards per contest. Only the Baltimore Ravens (84.5) defense allowed fewer yards on the ground.

The Titans allowed only one individual 100-yard rusher in 2021 and did not allow one after Jacksonville's James Robinson had 149 rushing yards in Week 5 (Oct. 10).

In the final five weeks of the 2021 season, no team rushed for more than 83 yards against the Titans defense.

LEAST PENALIZED TEAMS FROM 2018–2022

Under head coach Mike Vrabel, who was named to his current post in 2018, the Titans have been one of the NFL's least penalized teams.

From 2018-20, the Titans were called for the second-fewest total penalties in the NFL—267 total infractions. Only the New England Patriots (249) fared better.

In 2018, the Titans were called for only 82 penalties, leading the NFL and setting a team record for the lowest number in a 16-game season (since 1978, excluding strike-shortened 1982 and 1987 seasons). They received no more than four penalties in nine of their 16 games. The previous franchise record for fewest penalties in a 16-game season was 84 by the 1983 Oilers.

Fewest total penalties from 2018–2022:

Quarterback Ryan Tannehill is in his 11th NFL season and his fourth campaign with the Titans in 2021.

In his first three seasons in Tennessee, Tannehill built a 30-13 record as a starting quarterback and led the team to the postseason three times, becoming the franchise's first starting quarterback since Warren Moon (1987 to 1993) to direct his team to the playoffs in at least three consecutive seasons. After appearing in the AFC championship game as a wild card team in 2019, the Titans won consecutive division titles in 2020 and 2021, a first for the franchise since the Oilers took the first three AFL Eastern Division titles from 1960 to 1962. Tannehill's 30 wins were the most by any starting quarterback in franchise history in the player's first three seasons with the organization, surpassing the 28 by George Blanda from 1960 to 1962.

Tannehill started every game from Week 7 of the 2019 campaign through the end of 2021. His 43 consecutive starts in the regular season tied Steve McNair (2001-03) for the most in franchise history by a starting quarterback. During that time, Tannehill's 102.3 passer rating ranked sixth in the NFL. Also, Tannehill's 13 total game-winning drives in that span ranked second in the NFL behind only Raiders quarterback Derek Carr's 14.

In 2021, he placed third on the franchise's single-season passing charts in attempts (531), completions (357) and completion percentage (67.2), and he ranked fourth with 3,734 passing yards. He became the only quarterback other than Moon (1989-1991) to record multiple seasons with at least 3,500 passing yards with the franchise. Additionally, he rushed for 270 yards, and his seven rushing touchdowns ranked second among NFL signal callers behind Jalen Hurts' 10. Tannehill was the first quarterback in franchise annals with at least seven rushing touchdowns in back-to-back seasons.

After receiving a multi-year contract extension during the 2020 offseason, Tannehill responded with 16 starts for the first time since 2015 and produced one of the best seasons of any quarterback in franchise history. A Titans team captain for the first time, his statistics finished in the top five of several of the organization's single-season record lists, including 40 total touchdowns (first), a 106.5 passer rating (second), 3,819 passing yards (third), 33 touchdown passes (tied for second), 65.5 completion percentage (fourth) and 7.9 yards per attempt (tied for fifth). Tannehill became the fourth player in NFL history with a passer rating of at least 106.0 in consecutive seasons, joining Drew Brees (2018-20), Russell Wilson (2018-19) and Aaron Rodgers (2011-12).

Also in 2020, Tannehill and Buffalo's Josh Allen became the fourth and fifth quarterbacks in NFL history with at least 3,800 passing yards, 33 passing touchdowns and seven rushing touchdowns in the same season. Only Cam Newton (2015), Daunte Culpepper (2000) and Steve Young (1994) had done so previously.

In 2019, Tannehill set single-season franchise records and led the NFL with a 117.5 passer rating and a passing average of 9.6 yards per attempt. His passer rating was the fourth-highest figure in NFL history among qualifiers. Additionally, he set a club record and placed third in the NFL with a 70.3 completion percentage.

Tannehill was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for December 2019 and was named to his first career Pro Bowl. He also won the Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year Award.

Originally a first-round selection (eighth overall) by the Miami Dolphins in the 2012 NFL Draft, Tannehill was acquired by the Titans in a trade with the Dolphins on March 15, 2019. The Titans sent a 2019 seventh-round pick and a 2020 fourth-round selection to Miami in exchange for Tannehill and a 2019 sixth-rounder.

Over his seven seasons in Miami, he started 88 games, threw for 20,434 yards and 123 touchdowns, and rushed for 1,210 yards and six scores. When he left Miami, he ranked second in franchise history behind Chad Pennington in both career completion percentage (62.8) and career passer rating (87.0). He authored 13 game-winning drives for the Dolphins.

From 2012 through 2015, Tannehill's passing yardage total—15,460 yards—was the third highest mark in NFL history for a player's first four seasons, behind only Peyton Manning and Dan Marino. Tannehill's two 4,000-yard passing seasons (2015 and 2014) were the only ones recorded by a Dolphins quarterback other than Marino (six times). The Dolphins reached the playoffs in 2016, breaking an eight-year postseason drought.

A native of Big Spring, Texas, Tannehill attended Texas A&M, where he earned honorable mention All-America honors as a senior. He played both quarterback and wide receiver, passing for 5,450 yards and 42 touchdowns and adding 112 receptions for 1,596 yards and 10 scores.

2022 Game Notes:

➤ Against New York Giants (9/11), completed 20 of 33 passes for 266 yards and two touchdowns for a 106.4 passer rating. His seven-yard touchdown pass to running back Dontrell Hilliard in the first quarter was the 200th touchdown pass of his career, making him the 47th player in NFL history to reach the plateau. He added a 23-yard touchdown pass to Hilliard in the third quarter. By starting his 44th consecutive game with the club, he passed Steve McNair (43 from 2001-03) for the most consecutive starts in Titans/Oilers history by a quarterback. He extended his career-best streak to 16 consecutive games with at least one passing or rushing touchdown. With his 77th and 78th touchdown passes in a Titans uniform, he took possession of fifth place on the franchise's passing touchdowns list, passing Marcus Mariota (76). Logged his 26th game for the Titans (48th career) with a passer rating of at least 100.0.

➤ At Buffalo (9/19), completed 11 of 20 passes for 117 yards with two interceptions.

➤ Against Las Vegas (9/25), completed 19 of 27 passes for 264 yards with one touchdown and one interception (98.4 passer rating). He completed a two-yard touchdown pass to tight end Geoff Swaim in the first quarter and scored his first touchdown on the season on a one-yard rushing attempt in the second quarter. It was his 15th NFL game and his 13th game with the Titans in which he passed for at least one touchdown and rushed for at least one touchdown.

➤ At Indianapolis (10/2), completed 17 of 21 passes for 137 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions for a 125.6 passer rating. It marked the 14th time in his career he posted a passer rating of at least 125.0 (minimum of 20 attempts). His 81.0 completion percentage was the best of his career in any game with at least 20 attempts, topping his previous high of 79.3 percent (23 of 29) on Oct. 20, 2019 against the Chargers, and it ranked eighth in franchise history for a single game (minimum 20 attempts). He completed a seven-yard touchdown pass to Robert Woods in the first quarter and an eight-yard touchdown pass to Chig Okonkwo in the second quarter.

➤ At Washington (10/9), completed 15 of 25 passes for 181 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions. In the first quarter, he tossed a 13-yard touchdown pass to Dontrell Hilliard. In the third quarter, he completed a 61-yard pass to Nick Westbrook-Ikhine in the third quarter for his longest completion since a 75-yard touchdown pass against Detroit on Dec. 20, 2020. He played in his 50th game as a member of the Titans. Among franchise quarterbacks in their first 50 games for the team (minimum of 50 games), Tannehill had the most passing yards (11,260) and the highest passer rating (101.3). His 82 touchdown passes with the Titans rank second among Titans/Oilers quarterbacks in their first 50 games with the club behind only the 102 by George Blanda.

➤ Against Indianapolis (10/23), completed 13 of 20 passes for 132 yards (83.8 passer rating). He added four rushing attempts for six yards, including an eight-yard run to convert a third-and-one.

➤ At Houston (10/30), ended his streak of 49 consecutive starts when he was deactivated for the contest with an ankle injury. It was the longest consecutive starting streak by a quarterback in franchise history.

➤ At Kansas City (11/6), he was inactive with an ankle injury.

➤ Against Denver (11/13), completed 19 of 36 passes for 255 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions (94.1 passer rating). He added two carries for 12 yards, including an 11-yard scramble to help set up a touchdown in the second quarter. He returned to the lineup after missing two contests due to injury and became the sixth quarterback to register 50 regular-season starts with the organization, joining George Blanda, Dan

Pastorini, Warren Moon, Steve McNair and Marcus Mariota. With the victory, he set the record for the most wins by a Titans/Oilers starting quarterback in the first four seasons of a player's career with the organization (35 wins in the regular season and 37 including playoffs), surpassing George Blanda (34 regular season, 36 total). Tannehill completed both touchdown passes to Nick Westbrook-Ikhine, connecting on a nine-yard score in the second quarter and a 63-yarder on a flea-flicker in the third quarter. It was his longest completion since a 75-yard touchdown pass against Detroit on Dec. 20, 2020. He recorded his fourth consecutive start with no interceptions, which tied for the longest streak of his career in a single season (three times, last in 2016).

➤ At Green Bay (11/17), completed 22 of 27 passes for 333 yards with two touchdowns and one interception for a passer rating of 127.3. He established a new career high for completion percentage (81.5) in a qualifying game (minimum 20 attempts). His 25th career 300-yard passing game was his ninth such performance since joining the Titans in 2019, moving him ahead of Marcus Mariota (eight) for the fourth-highest total in franchise history. On the opening drive of the game, he completed a 43-yard pass to Treylon Burks to convert a third down and then tossed a 14-yard touchdown pass to Dontrell Hilliard. On the first play of the fourth quarter, he completed a 16-yard scoring strike to Austin Hooper. Late in the fourth quarter, he helped cement the outcome with a 51-yard completion to Burks. He reached 1,500 passing attempts as a member of the Titans (1,507), which is the number needed to qualify in the team record books for career passer rating and completion percentage marks, and he moved into first place in both categories.

➤ Against Cincinnati (11/27), completed 22 of 34 passes for 291 yards with a passer rating of 91.7. He added nine yards on two rushing attempts to give him 300 combined passing and rushing yards. In the first quarter, he completed a 25-yard pass to Nick Westbrook-Ikhine. In the second quarter, he was credited with a 69-yard pass on a screen play to Derrick Henry. The play resulted in a touchdown when Treylon Burks recovered Henry's fumble in the end zone. In the third quarter, he delivered a 51-yard pass to Treylon Burks.

➤ At Philadelphia (12/4), completed 14 of 22 passes for 141 yards and a touchdown for a passer rating of 97.0. He added three rushing attempts for a team-high 34 yards. In the first quarter, he threw a 25-yard touchdown pass to Treylon Burks, capping a drive in which he had a season-long 17-yard rushing attempt and converted a fourth-and-seven with an eight-yard scramble. He produced his fourth consecutive game with a passer rating above 90.0.

➤ Against Jacksonville (12/11), completed 25 of 38 passes for 254 yards with two touchdowns and one interception. He also rushed for 16 yards on two attempts. His 91.3 passer rating marked his fifth consecutive game with a passer rating above 90.0. In the first quarter, he completed a 10-yard touchdown pass to Chig Okonkwo, and in the fourth quarter, he had a two-yard touchdown pass to Nick Westbrook-Ikhine. He passed to Okonkwo for a two-point conversion in the fourth quarter.

QB WINS, FIRST THREE SEASONS

In leading the Titans to a 12-5 record during the 2021 regular season, Titans quarterback Ryan Tannehill improved to 30-13 as a starter since he was traded from the Dolphins to the Titans in 2019. He started every game from Week 7 of his initial season in Tennessee through the 2021 finale.

Tannehill is off to one of the best beginnings to any quarterback's tenure in franchise history. He has more regular season wins—30—than any other starting signal caller in franchise history over the player's first three years with the club, surpassing George Blanda, who won 28 regular season starts for the Oilers from 1960 to 1962.

Tannehill moved past Marcus Mariota (29 wins) and into a tie with Vince Young (30) for fifth place on the team's all-time wins list for starting quarterbacks. He trails only Steve McNair (76), Warren Moon (70), Dan Pastorini (53) and Blanda (44).

Most wins by a starting quarterback in his first three regular seasons with the Titans/Oilers franchise:

LEADING VETERAN QBS ON NEW TEAMS

In 2019, Ryan Tannehill set a new standard for veteran quarterbacks in their first year with a new team. Tannehill, who was acquired in a trade after seven years with the Miami Dolphins, had a passer rating of 117.5. No quarterback has ever finished with a passer rating that high in his first season with a new team after playing at least one year with another team.

Brett Favre held the distinction until 2019. In 2009, Favre's 107.2 passer rating with the Minnesota Vikings became the best figure in league annals by a veteran in his first campaign with a new club.

Highest passer rating in a veteran's first season with a new team (through 2019):

GAMES WITH A 130 PASSER RATING

During the 2019 campaign, Ryan Tannehill produced a streak of four consecutive games with a passer rating greater than 130. The run included a 133.9 passer rating against the Kansas City Chiefs (Nov. 10), a 155.8 against the Jacksonville Jaguars (Nov. 24), a 131.2 at the Indianapolis Colts (Dec. 1) and a 140.4 at the Oakland Raiders (Dec. 8).

In franchise history, no quarterback prior to Tannehill had ever produced four consecutive starts with a passer rating of 130 or better (minimum 10 attempts per game). Marcus Mariota (2016) was the most recent of six Titans/Oilers signal callers to do so for three games before Tannehill.

Most consecutive games in a single season with a 130 passer rating, franchise history (minimum 10 attempts each game):

Player	Dates	Games
1. Ryan Tannehill	Nov. 10–Dec. 8, 2019	4
2. Marcus Mariota	Nov. 13–Nov. 27, 2016	3

4. (several tied)			3

Tannehill registered a total of six single-game passer ratings of 130 or greater in only 10 starts during the 2019 regular season. He tied Wilson with the most such performances in 2019 and also tied for the most by any NFL starting quarterback in any season since 1960. Green Bay's Aaron Rodgers (2011) and Dallas' Tony Romo (2014) are the only other quarterbacks to accomplish the feat.

In franchise history, former Oilers quarterback Chris Chandler previously had the most season games with a 130-plus passer rating, with four in 1995.

Most starts by a quarterback with a passer rating of 130.0 or greater, 1960–2019:

Player	Season	Team	Games

BAUGH, MONTANA & TANNEHILL

During the 2019 season, Titans quarterback Ryan Tannehill accomplished a statistical feat only reached previously by a pair of Pro Football Hall of Fame quarterbacks.

Tannehill's season statistics included a 70.3 completion percentage and an average of 9.6 yards per passing attempt.

In the history of the NFL, only two previous qualifying passers have enjoyed a season in which they completed at least 70.0 percent of their passes and averaged at least 9.0 yards per attempt: Sammy Baugh and Joe Montana.

Montana led the San Francisco 49ers to a Super Bowl XXIV title and won the NFL MVP award following a 1989 season in which he completed 70.2 percent of his passes (271 of 386) and averaged 9.1 yards per attempt (3,521 yards).

Baugh directed the Washington Redskins to the NFL Championship game in 1945, while completing 70.3 percent of his passes (128 of 182) and averaging 9.2 yards per attempt (1,669 yards).

Players in NFL history (through 2019) with a completion rate of at least 70.0 percent and a passing average of at least 9.0 yards per attempt (qualifiers only):

MORE TITANS QUARTERBACKS

7 - QB MALIK WILLIS

6-1, 219, Rookie, Liberty

➤ Malik Willis was selected by the Titans in the third round (86th overall) of the 2022 NFL Draft.

➤ He was the third quarterback drafted in 2022 after the Titans traded up four spots in the third round to select him.

➤ Willis spent three total years at Liberty, including a 2019 redshirt campaign, after transferring from Auburn. In four total seasons, he registered 38 games played with 23 starts, completing 388 of 618 passes for 5,186 yards and 48 touchdowns with 18 interceptions. He also rushed for 2,131 yards and 29 touchdowns on 366 career rushing attempts.

➤ During his two seasons as Liberty's starting signal caller, he directed the Flames to a 17-6 record in 23 starts, including two bowl victories. During those two seasons he led the FBS with 74 total passing (47) and rushing (27) touchdowns.

➤ In his final season at Liberty in 2021, Willis led the Flames to an 8-5 record and a bowl win. He completed 207 of 339 passes for 2,857 yards and 27 touchdowns to go along with 197 rushing attempts for 878 yards and 13 touchdowns.

➤ Willis was named the 2021 Bobby Bowden Trophy winner. The award is presented annually to "a college football player who epitomizes a student-athlete of faith and conducts himself as an exemplary model in the classroom, on the field, on the campus and in the community."

➤ As a junior in 2020, he started all 10 games in which he played in his first season as Liberty's quarterback after sitting out 2019 due to transfer rules. He won each of his first seven career starts and completed 170 of 265 passes for 2,260 yards, 20 touchdowns and six interceptions during the season. He added 141 rushing attempts for 944 yards and 14 touchdowns, leading all FBS quarterbacks in rushing yards and touchdowns.

➤ He is a native of Atlanta, Ga.

2022 Game Notes:

➤ At Buffalo (9/19), made his NFL debut in the second half and completed one pass for six yards on four attempts. He added four rushing attempts for 16 yards. He became the first Titans rookie quarterback to appear in a game since Marcus Mariota at New England on Dec. 20, 2015.

➤ At Houston (10/30), registered his first NFL start, filling in for injured starter Ryan Tannehill. He completed six of 10 passes for 55 yards with one interception, and he added 12 rushing yards on five attempts. He became the sixth rookie quarterback in Titans/Oilers history and the first since Marcus Mariota in 2015 to win his first NFL start.

➤ At Kansas City (11/6), became the 10th rookie in franchise history with at least two starts at quarterback and the first since Marcus Mariota in 2015. He completed five of 16 passes for 80 yards and also rushed for 40 yards on eight attempts. In the first quarter, he completed a 48-yard pass to Chig Okonkwo. During a touchdown drive in the second quarter, he rushed for a 17-yard gain.

Running back Derrick Henry is in his seventh NFL season in 2022. He was selected by the Titans with the 45th overall pick in the second round of the 2016 NFL Draft.

From his rookie season through 2021, Henry ranked second in the NFL with 6,797 rushing yards, trailing only Dallas Cowboys running back Ezekiel Elliott (7,386). Henry's 65 rushing touchdowns led the league over the same period. In franchise history, Henry finished 2021 ranked fourth in career rushing yards behind Eddie George (10,009), Earl Campbell (8,574) and Chris Johnson (7,965), and his rushing touchdowns were second behind only Campbell (73).

In 2021, Henry's season was affected by a foot injury that caused him to be placed on injured reserve for the final nine games of the regular season. Prior to the injury, he was leading the NFL with 937 rushing yards and 10 rushing touchdowns, numbers that still ranked ninth and tied for sixth, respectively, at the conclusion of the regular season. He returned to start in the team's divisional playoff contest and rushed for 62 yards and one score.

Henry was honored in 2021 with his first career nomination for the NFL's Walter Payton Man of the Year Award.

In 2020, Henry was named the Associated Press NFL Offensive Player of the Year after an historic campaign in which he totaled 378 rushing attempts for 2,027 yards and 17 touchdowns. His rushing yardage total established a new franchise record and led the NFL. As the eighth player in NFL annals to hit the 2,000-yard mark, his 2,027 yards finished fifth on the all-time single-season rushing charts. He was recognized with his second consecutive Pro Bowl, named first-team Associated Press All-Pro, and won the FedEx Ground Player of the Year Award for the second consecutive year.

Henry was a first-time team captain in 2020. He started all 16 regular season games for the first time and became the first player since LaDainian Tomlinson (2006-07) to lead the NFL in rushing yards in consecutive years. He was the first player in more than 50 years to lead the league in rushing yards, attempts and rushing touchdowns in consecutive seasons and the fifth player ever to do so. The most recent prior to him was Cleveland's Leroy Kelly from 1967 to 1968.

Henry's 17 rushing touchdowns in 2020 set a career high and finished as the second-best total in franchise history behind Campbell's 19 rushing touchdowns in 1979.

In 2019, Henry was named to his first Pro Bowl and added second-team Associated Press All-Pro honors after leading the NFL in rushing. In 15 games, he totaled 1,540 yards on 303 carries (5.1 avg.), joining Billy Cannon (AFL, 1961), Campbell (1978-80) and Johnson (2009) as the only running backs in franchise history to lead their respective leagues in rushing. At the time, Henry's single-season total ranked fourth in franchise annals behind Johnson's 2009 total (2,006) and Campbell's 1979 (1,697) and 1980 (1,934) performances.

With 16 rushing touchdowns in 2019, Henry tied for the NFL lead (Aaron Jones). Adding his two receiving touchdowns, his 18 total touchdowns were third in the NFL and tied for second in franchise annals (19 by Campbell in 1979; 18 by Bill Groman in 1961).

Henry's performance late in the 2019 season was instrumental in the team's run to the AFC championship game. Over the final six games of the regular season plus three playoff appearances, Henry registered seven 100-yard games. During a three-game stretch (Dec. 29 at Houston, Jan. 4 at New England and Jan. 11 at Baltimore), he became the first player in NFL history to rush for at least 180 yards in three consecutive regular season and/or postseason games.

Henry authored his first career 1,000-yard season in 2018 and the 28th 1,000-yard rushing season in franchise history, totaling 1,059 yards and 12 touchdowns on 215 carries—all then-career highs.

His 2018 rushing yardage ranked second in the AFC to Joe Mixon's 1,168 yards, and he finished seventh in the NFL. Henry's 12 rushing touchdowns tied James Connor for third place in the NFL behind Todd Gurley (17) and Alvin Kamara (14).

Henry was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for December 2018. His 625 rushing yards in the month were the most by any NFL player in any month during the season.

Against the Jacksonville Jaguars on Dec. 6, 2018, Henry recorded one of the greatest single games in franchise history in front of a national television audience. He broke Johnson's single-game franchise record (228) with 238 rushing yards, including a 99-yard touchdown run—one of his four touchdowns in the contest. He joined Tony Dorsett as the only two players in NFL history to rush for a 99-yard score.

In 2017, Henry shared time in the Titans backfield with DeMarco Murray. Henry led the team with 744 rushing yards on 176 carries, and he added 11 receptions for 136 yards and a touchdown. His five rushing touchdowns tied for second on the club.

As a rookie in 2016, Henry played in 15 games with one start, splitting reps in the backfield with Murray. He carried the ball 110 times for 490 yards and five touchdowns and added 137 yards on 13 receptions. Henry became the third rookie for the franchise in the "Titans era" to score at least five touchdowns in a season, joining Vince Young (seven rushing touchdowns in 2006) and Johnson (nine rushing and one receiving in 2008).

The Heisman Trophy winner played three seasons (2013–2015) at the University of Alabama, where he set numerous school and SEC records while helping his team win a National Championship in 2015. He played in 39 games and totaled 602 carries for 3,591 yards and 42 rushing touchdowns and added 285 yards on 17 career receptions with three receiving scores. During Alabama's victory over Clemson in the 2016 College Football Playoff National Championship, he broke Shaun Alexander's record for most career rushing yards in Alabama history.

In his final collegiate season, Henry rushed for an Alabama and Southeastern Conference record 2,219 yards, which led the nation and ranked fifth in FBS history. He recorded 100-yard rushing games 10 times and had four 200-yard games during the season. His 28 rushing touchdowns were a national best and an SEC record, snapping Tim Tebow and Tre Mason's old mark of 23. In addition to the Heisman, he also won the Doak Walker Award, Walter Camp Award and Maxwell Award, among a multitude of other honors.

Henry is a native of Yulee, Fla.

2022 Game Notes:

- Against New York Giants (9/11), led the team with 21 carries for 82 yards, including an 18-yard run in the second quarter.
- At Buffalo (9/19), rushed for 25 yards and a touchdown on 13 attempts. He scored his first touchdown of the season on a two-yard carry in the first quarter, which converted a fourth-and-one.
- Against Las Vegas (9/25), led the team with 85 yards and one touchdown on 20 rushing attempts and added a team-high five receptions for 58 yards, giving him a team-best 143 scrimmage yards. His reception total was the second best of his career, and his receiving yardage total ranked third in his career. It was his 18th career game with at least 140 scrimmage yards. His reception total included a 23-yard gain on a screen pass. In the second quarter, he scored his 70th career touchdown (67th rushing touchdown) on a one-yard run, becoming the third Titans/Oilers player to reach the end zone 70 times with the franchise along with Eddie George (74) and Earl Campbell (73).
- At Indianapolis (10/2), led the team with 114 rushing yards and a touchdown on 22 attempts for an average of 5.2 yards per carry. He added three receptions for 33 yards to give him 147 total scrimmage yards. It was his 29th career 100-yard rushing game (first of 2022), including regular season and playoffs. He recorded his second consecutive game and his 19th career game with at least 140 scrimmage yards. In the first quarter, he gained 22 yards on a screen pass on the 100th reception of his career, and two plays later, he reached the end zone on a 19-yard run. It was his third rushing touchdown of the season and his 68th career rushing touchdown. On a 12-yard run in the first quarter, he became the fourth player in franchise history to reach 7,000 career rushing yards, joining Eddie George (10,009), Earl Campbell (8,574) and Chris Johnson (7,965). He became the franchise's second player (Earl Campbell), the 16th NFL player, and the first player since Adrian Peterson in 2013 to reach 70 total touchdowns and 7,000 rushing yards within his first seven NFL seasons. Henry rushed for 99 yards in the first half, which was the sixth-highest total of his career in the first half of a game.

➤ At Washington (10/9), led the team with 102 yards and a pair of touchdowns on 28 rushing attempts and added 30 yards on two catches to give him 132 scrimmage yards. He became the fourth player in franchise history to reach 30 total 100-yard rushing games in the regular season and playoffs, joining Earl Campbell (40), Eddie George (38) and Chris Johnson (35). In the first half, he totaled 83 yards and a touchdown on 18 carries. In the first quarter, he took a screen pass 24 yards to set up a touchdown on the next play. He scored on a one-yard run in the second quarter, giving him at least one rushing touchdown in four consecutive games, and he added a second one-yard touchdown in the third quarter to join Earl Campbell as the franchise's only players to reach 70 career rushing touchdowns. His second touchdown was the 73rd overall touchdown of his career, putting him in a tie with Earl Campbell (73) for second place on the franchise's all-time touchdowns list behind Eddie George (74).

➤ Against Indianapolis (10/23), rushed for 128 yards on 30 carries and added three receptions for 10 yards. He logged his third consecutive 100-yard rushing game and his 31st career 100-yard rushing game, including regular season (28) and playoffs (three). In the second quarter, he recorded a 23-yard run. Late in the fourth quarter, he helped seal the victory with a pair of first downs—first on an 11-yard carry and then a 21-yarder. His 67 rushing yards in the fourth quarter made up the eighth-highest total of his career. He increased his career total to 8,310 scrimmage yards to move past Ernest Givins (8,280) for fourth place on the franchise's all-time career scrimmage yards list. It was his ninth career game with 30 or more rushing attempts, including seven such performances in the regular season and two in the playoffs.

➤ At Houston (10/30), named AFC Offensive Player of the Week after rushing for 219 yards and two touchdowns on 32 carries for an average of 6.8 yards per attempt. In the third quarter, on fourth-and-goal, he reached the end zone on a one-yard run to score his 75th career touchdown (72 rushing and three receiving), breaking Eddie George's franchise touchdown mark (74). In the second quarter, he scored on a 29-yard run to tie George's record and move ahead of Earl Campbell (73). Henry recorded the sixth 200-yard rushing performance of his career to tie O.J. Simpson and Adrian Peterson for the most in NFL history, and it was his fourth consecutive 200-yard rushing game against the Texans. His sixth career game with at least 200 rushing yards and at least two rushing touchdowns leads the NFL since 1950, ahead of LaDainian Tomlinson (three), Barry Sanders (three) and Jim Brown (three). His 12th career game with 150 or more rushing yards tied Tomlinson for the third-most in NFL history behind only Barry Sanders (25) and Jim Brown (13), and his 11th career game with 150-plus rushing yards and two or more rushing touchdowns moved him past Sanders (10) for the third-highest total in NFL history behind only Brown (13) and Tomlinson (12). Henry's 219 rushing yards gave him the fourth-highest single-game rushing yardage total in franchise history and the third-best total of his career. His fourth consecutive 100-yard rushing game tied the second-best streak of his career (five games in 2021 and four games in 2019). He accounted for 238 scrimmage yards (219 rushing and nine receiving) for the fifth-best total of his career and the 14th-highest total in franchise history. It was his fifth consecutive game with at least 130 scrimmage yards, tying his career-best streak (2021). It was his 100th combined game in the regular season (93) and playoffs (seven). In the first quarter, he rushed for a season-long 41-yard gain. He registered his fourth consecutive game against the Texans with at least two touchdowns, tying for the most consecutive multi-touchdown performances by any player against a single opponent in NFL history. In addition to becoming the first Titans/Oilers player to score 75 touchdowns, Henry cracked the NFL's top 10 for the fewest career games needed to reach 75 touchdowns since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger. Henry did so in his 93rd career game, surpassing wide receiver Randy Moss (94 games needed) for 10th place on the list.

➤ Named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for October after rushing for 563 yards (140.8 per game) with five touchdowns in four games during the month. He added nine receptions for 82 yards. It was the third Offensive Player of the Month award for Henry (December 2018 and October 2020), the most in franchise history. He became the first running back since Todd Gurley to win the award three times.

➤ At Kansas City (11/6), rushed for 115 yards and two touchdowns on 17 attempts for an average of 6.8 yards per carry. He scored his 73rd career rushing touchdown on a four-yard carry in the second quarter and his 74th career rushing touchdown on a one-yard run in the second quarter. In doing so, he passed Earl Campbell (73) for the most rushing touchdowns in franchise history. Henry produced his 17th career game in the regular season with at least 100 rushing yards and two rushing touchdowns, tying Adrian Peterson, Barry Sanders and Eric Dickerson for the fifth-most such performances during the Super Bowl era (1966-present)—only LaDainian Tomlinson (25), Emmitt Smith (21), Shaun Alexander (19) and Walter Payton (18) accomplished the feat more times than Henry in that span. It was Henry's 20th career game with two or more rushing touchdowns. Henry reached the 1,000-yard scrimmage mark (1,010) for the fifth consecutive season, joining Eddie George (eight consecutive seasons) and Chris Johnson (six) as the organization's only players to do so. He hit the 100-yard rushing mark on the final play of the third quarter to tally his fifth consecutive 100-yard rushing game, which tied for the best streak of his career (five games in 2021). His totals at Kansas City included 24-yard and 56-yard runs during separate touchdown drives in the second quarter. The latter gave him 12 career rushing attempts of 50 yards or more.

➤ Against Denver (11/13), led the team with 53 rushing yards on 19 carries and added two receptions for 14 yards. He reached 1,000 career receiving yards, joining Eddie George and Chris Johnson as the franchise's only players with 7,000 rushing yards and 1,000 receiving yards with the organization.

➤ At Green Bay (11/17), led the team with 87 rushing yards and a touchdown on 28 carries. He also had two receptions for 45 yards to give him 132 scrimmage yards. Additionally, he completed two passes for four yards, including a three-yard touchdown pass. He became the first player since Walter Payton on Sept. 18, 1983 to have at least 20 rushing attempts, two completed passes, one rushing touchdown and one passing touchdown in the same game. He scored on a four-yard run in the second quarter to join LaDainian Tomlinson (nine), Adrian Peterson (seven), Shaun Alexander (five) and Michael Turner (five) as the only players in NFL history to rush for at least 10 touchdowns in five consecutive seasons. He turned a screen pass into a 42-yard gain in the third quarter, and two plays later, he completed a three-yard touchdown pass to tight end Austin Hooper. It was the second touchdown pass of his career (first of 2022) in addition to one postseason touchdown pass. He joined Christian McCaffrey as the NFL's only active running backs with at least two career touchdown passes, and Henry joined Woody Campbell as only running backs in franchise history with multiple touchdown passes. Henry also completed a one-yard pass to Treylon Burks in the second quarter. He went over the 1,000-yard rushing mark for the season to join Eddie George (seven seasons), Chris Johnson (six) and Earl Campbell (five) as the franchise's only players with at least four 1,000-yard rushing seasons.

➤ Against Cincinnati (11/27), had a team-high 38 rushing yards on 17 attempts and established a new career high with 79 receiving yards on three catches. He was credited with 69 yards on a screen pass in the second quarter, and the play resulted in a touchdown. After losing control of the football at the six-yard line, teammate Treylon Burks recovered the fumble in the end zone for the score. The reception was the second-longest of Henry's career. He established career highs for receptions and receiving yards in a season, surpassing his previous highs of 19 catches in 2020 and 206 receiving yards in 2019.

➤ At Philadelphia (12/4), rushed for 30 yards on 11 carries and added two receptions for eight yards. He joined Eddie George (12,153), Chris Johnson (9,968) and Earl Campbell (9,292) as the franchise's only players to reach 9,000 scrimmage yards with the franchise.

➤ Against Jacksonville (12/11), rushed for 121 yards and one touchdown on 17 attempts (7.1 avg.) and added 34 yards on three receptions. He passed Chris Johnson (7,965) for third place on the franchise's all-time career rushing list. In the first quarter, he found the end zone on a three-yard run and rushed for a 50-yard gain to help set up another touchdown. It gave him 13 career rushing attempts of 50 yards or more. His 96 rushing yards in the first quarter set a career high for rushing yards in the opening quarter (63 at Houston, Oct. 30, 2022). On a 21-yard run in the second quarter, he went over the 100-yard mark for the 34th time in his career (31 regular season and three postseason). His 119 rushing yards in the first half gave him seven career games to hit the 100-yard rushing mark within the first two quarters. His 155 scrimmage yards increased his season total to 1,519 scrimmage yards, as he joined Eddie George (four seasons) and Earl Campbell (four) as the franchise's only players to reach 1,500 scrimmage yards in three different seasons, having already done so in 2019 and 2020.

DERRICK HENRY IN 2020

- Led the NFL and set a franchise record with 2,027 rushing yards in 2020, becoming the eighth player in league annals to rush for at least 2,000 yards in a season. His 2,027 rushing yards gave him the fifth-highest total in NFL history behind Eric Dickerson's 2,105 (1984), Adrian Peterson's 2,097 (2012), Jamal Lewis' 2,066 (2003) and Barry Sanders' 2,053 (1997). Henry broke Chris Johnson's franchise mark of 2,006 rushing yards in 2009.
- Named the Associated Press NFL Offensive Player of the Year and was named to his second consecutive Pro Bowl. He won his second consecutive FedEx Ground Player of the Year Award and added first-team AP All-Pro honors. Additionally, he earned first-team All-Pro honors from Pro Football Focus, Pro Football Writers of America and Sporting News and was the 101 Awards AFC Offensive Player of the Year.
- Became the first player since LaDainian Tomlinson (2006-07) to lead the NFL in rushing yards in consecutive seasons. Henry previously led the league in 2019 with 1,540 rushing yards.
- Became the fifth all-time NFL player to lead the NFL in rushing yards, attempts and rushing touchdowns in consecutive seasons. It is a feat that had not been attained since Cleveland's Leroy Kelly did it from 1967 to 1968. The only other players to achieve it are Jim Brown (1958-59), Steve Van Buren (1947-49) and Bill Paschal (1943-44).
- Established a single-game franchise record with 250 rushing yards on Jan. 3 at Houston. He broke his own club record of 238 rushing yards, established against the Jacksonville Jaguars on Dec. 6, 2018. Henry's 250 rushing yards tied for the 13th-best single-game total in the NFL since 1948.
- Became the first player in NFL history with five career games with at least 200 rushing yards and two rushing touchdowns.
- Became the fourth player in NFL history with at least five career 200-yard rushing games, joining O.J. Simpson (six), Adrian Peterson (six) and Tiki Barber (five).
- Set a career high with 17 rushing touchdowns in 2020, finishing with the second-best total in franchise history behind Earl Campbell's 19 rushing touchdowns in 1979.
- Finished the 2020 season with 1,221 rushing yards in road games, the most by any NFL running back since 1948. The previous high was held by Eric Dickerson, who had 1,087 rushing yards in road games for the Los Angeles Rams in 1984.
- Dating back to 2019, he had a streak of nine consecutive road games with at least 100 rushing yards, passing Chris Johnson (eight games from 2009-10) for the second-longest such streak in NFL history behind only Barry Sanders' 10-game road streak from 1996-97).
- Became the fifth player in NFL history with three 200-yard rushing games in a season, joining Earl Campbell (four in 1980), O.J. Simpson (1973), Tiki Barber (2005) and Jay Ajayi (2016).
- Became the first NFL player since LaDainian Tomlinson (2002-07) and the ninth player in NFL history to record at least three consecutive seasons in which he rushed for at least 1,000 yards and 12 touchdowns.
- Finished the season with 2,141 scrimmage yards (2,027 rushing and 114 receiving), which ranks second in franchise history behind Chris Johnson's 2,509 scrimmage yards in 2009.
- Registered 10 games in 2020 with at least 100 rushing yards to tie Earl Campbell (1980) for the third-most in franchise history. Only Campbell in 1979 (11) and Chris Johnson in 2009 (12) had more 100-yard rushing games in a Titans/Oilers season than Henry. Henry's 10 100-yard games in 2020 were the most in the NFL since Dallas running back DeMarco Murray had 12 in 2014.
- Became the NFL's first player to rush for at least 175 and two touchdowns four times in a season.
- Joined Terrell Davis (1997-98), Shaun Alexander (2004-05) and Larry Johnson (2005-06) as the only players in NFL history to rush for 1,500 yards and 15 touchdowns in two consecutive seasons.
- Established a streak of 20 consecutive games in the regular season and playoffs with at least 18 rushing attempts, the second-longest streak of its kind in the NFL since 1948. The only player with more consecutive 18-carry games in the regular season and postseason was Emmitt Smith, whose streak was 23 games with the Dallas Cowboys from 1995 to 1996.

- Became the first player in NFL history to produce more than one overtime touchdown run in a season. He joined LaDainian Tomlinson as the NFL's only players with multiple career touchdown runs in overtime. Tomlinson had three during his career.
- Joined Bo Jackson, Ahman Green, Chris Johnson and Lamar Miller as the only NFL players to record two career rushing touchdowns of at least 90 yards. Henry joined Miller (two 97-yard touchdown runs) as the only players to ever record multiple touchdown runs of at least 94 yards.

300 CARRIES/15 TOUCHDOWNS/5.0 AVG

Derrick Henry won the NFL's rushing title with 303 carries for 1,540 yards and 16 touchdowns in 2019. He followed in 2020 with 378 carries for 2,027 yards and 17 touchdowns.

He became the first player in NFL history to produce multiple seasons with a minimum of 300 rushing attempts, a rushing average of at least 5.0 yards per carry and a minimum of 15 rushing touchdowns

The only other players to do so once in their careers are O.J. Simpson (1975), Terrell Davis (1998), Priest Holmes (2002), Ahman Green (2003), Larry Johnson (2005), Shaun Alexander (2005), LaDainian Tomlinson (2016), Ezekiel Elliott (2016) and Dalvin Cook (2020).

DECEMBER TO REMEMBER

In five games in the month of December 2018, Derrick Henry's rushing totals included 97 carries for 625 yards and eight touchdowns. His 625 yards were the most by any NFL player in any calendar month in 2018.

Additionally, Henry authored one of only four calendar months for the franchise since 1970 in which a player rushed for at least 600 yards. Chris Johnson (800 rushing yards in November 2009) and Earl Campbell (633 in October 1980; 662 in November 1980) were the organization's only other players to accomplish the feat in that timespan.

Henry's December rushing totals included 40 yards against the New York Jets (Dec. 2), a franchise-record 238 yards against the Jacksonville Jaguars (Dec. 6), 170 yards at the New York Giants (Dec. 16), 84 yards against the Washington Redskins (Dec. 22) and 93 yards against the Indianapolis Colts (Dec. 30).

For his efforts, Henry was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month.

Titans/Oilers with 500 rushing yards in any calendar month from 1970-2021 (includes playoffs):

Player	Season	Month	Rushing Yards
1. Chris Johnson	2009	November	800
2. Earl Campbell	1980	November	662
3. Earl Campbell	1980	October	633

13. Earl Campbell	1981	October	510

RUSHING YARDS IN A TWO-GAME SPAN

Following a franchise-record 238 rushing yards against the Jacksonville Jaguars on Dec. 6, 2018, Derrick Henry then totaled 170 rushing yards at the New York Giants on Dec. 16 to give him a franchise record of 408 rushing yards in a two-game span.

The previous record of 405 rushing yards in two games was set by Earl Campbell in 1980, when Campbell posted 203 yards against Tampa Bay (Oct. 19) and 202 yards against Cincinnati (Oct. 26).

Most total rushing yards in two consecutive games, franchise history:

Player	Game 1	Yds	Game 2	Yds	Total
Derrick Henry	12/6/18 vs. Jax	238	12/16/18 at NYG	170	408
Earl Campbell	10/19/80 vs. TB	203	10/26/80 vs. Cin	202	405

RECORD-SETTING NIGHT

On Dec. 6, 2018, Derrick Henry had one of the most memorable rushing performances in NFL history on Thursday Night Football. He rushed for a then-team-record 238 yards and four touchdowns (tied franchise record), including a 99-yard touchdown run.

WATCH: Highlights from Derrick Henry's performance on 12/6/18

Henry's 238 rushing yards set a new franchise record, breaking Chris Johnson's mark of 228 yards against the Jaguars on Nov. 1, 2009. It was the highest single-game rushing total in the NFL in 2018 and the league's highest total since Doug Martin's 251 rushing yards for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers against the Oakland Raiders on Nov. 4, 2012.

Henry later broke his own record with 250 rushing yard at Houston on Jan. 3, 2021 to take possession of five of the top eight single-game rushing totals in team annals.

Most rushing yards in a game, franchise history:

Player	Date	Opponent	Rushing Yards
1. Derrick Henry	1/3/21	at Houston	250
2. Derrick Henry	12/6/18	Jacksonville	238
3. Chris Johnson	11/1/09	Jacksonville	228
4. Eddie George	8/31/97	Oakland	216
Billy Cannon	12/10/61	at New York	216
6. Derrick Henry	12/13/20	at Jacksonville	215
7. Derrick Henry	10/18/20	Houston	212
8. Derrick Henry	12/29/19	at Houston	211
9. Earl Campbell	11/16/80	at Chicago	203
Earl Campbell	10/19/80	Tampa Bay	203

In the second quarter, Henry took a handoff from Marcus Mariota inside his own one-yard line and raced 99 yards for a touchdown. It was the second 99-yard run in NFL history, tying Tony Dorsett's record-setting touchdown run for the Dallas Cowboys against the Minnesota Vikings on Jan. 3, 1983. It was also the team record, topping Johnson's 94-yard touchdown run against the New York Jets on Dec. 17, 2012. The only other runs in franchise history of at least 90 yards were Johnson's 91-yard rush against the Houston Texans on Sept. 20, 2009 and a 91-yarder by Sid Blanks against the Jets on Dec. 13, 1964.

Henry's 99-yard touchdown run tied for the longest scrimmage play in NFL history. It was the 15th such play, including his and Dorsett's runs and 13 passing plays. The last 99-yard scrimmage play before Henry's was New York Giants wide receiver Victor Cruz's 99-yard reception from Eli Manning against the New York Jets on Dec. 24, 2011.

Longest runs from scrimmage in NFL history:

Player	Team	Date	Opponent	Rushing Yards
1. Derrick Henry	Tennessee	12/6/18	Jacksonville	99t
Tony Dorsett	Dallas	1/3/83	Minnesota	99t
3. Ronald Jones	Tampa Bay	11/15/20	Carolina	98t
Ahman Green	Green Bay	12/28/03	Denver	98t
5. Lamar Miller	Houston	11/26/18	Tennessee	97t
Lamar Miller	Miami	12/28/14	N.Y. Jets	97t
Andy Uram	Green Bay	10/8/39	Chi. Cardinals	97t
Bob Gage	Pittsburgh	12/4/49	Chi. Bears	97t

Henry scored on a three-yard run in the first quarter, a 99-yard run in the second quarter, a 16-yard run in the third quarter, and finally a 54-yard run in the third quarter. He tied the franchise record and became the third player in franchise history to rush for four touchdowns in a game, joining Earl Campbell (against Miami on Nov. 20, 1978) and Lorenzo White (against Cleveland on Dec. 9, 1990).

The only franchise player with more overall touchdowns in a game than Henry was Oilers running back Billy Cannon, who had five total touchdowns (three rushing, two receiving) at the New York Titans on Dec. 10, 1961. Henry became the first NFL player with four rushing touchdowns in a game since New England Patriots running back Jonas Gray at Indianapolis on Nov. 16, 2014.

Most rushing touchdowns in a game, franchise history:

Player	Date	Opponent	Rushing Touchdowns
1. Derrick Henry	12/6/18	Jacksonville	4
Lorenzo White	12/9/90	Cleveland	4
Earl Campbell	11/20/78	Miami	4
4. (several tied)			3

Additionally, Henry's rushing performance against the Jaguars accomplished the following:

- He became the ninth NFL player since 1975 with at least one 90-yard run and at least one 60-yard reception in his career. The others were Tony Dorsett, Garrison Hearst, Tiki Barber, Chris Johnson, Jamaal Charles, Herschel Walker, Warrick Dunn and Adrian Peterson.
- Henry became the seventh NFL player since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger with at least four rushing touchdowns and at least 200 rushing yards in a game, joining Clinton Portis, Barry Sanders, Doug Martin, Jonas Gray, Mike Anderson and Corey Dillon. Henry became the first to accomplish the feat in fewer than 20 carries (17).
- He matched former Titans running back Chris Johnson as the only players in NFL history with a rushing touchdown of at least 90 yards and a rushing touchdown of at least 50 yards in the same game. Johnson accomplished the feat against the Houston Texans on Sept. 20, 2009.
- His 24 points tied for the fourth-highest single-game total in franchise history, trailing only Billy Cannon (30 on Dec. 10, 1961), Rob Bironas (26 on Oct. 21, 2007) and George Blanda (26 on Sept. 18, 1960). Earl Campbell (Nov. 20, 1978) and Lorenzo White (Dec. 9, 1990) also had 24 points on four touchdowns in a single game.
- His 238 rushing yards and four rushing touchdowns were each the most in any Thursday Night Football game in history.

RUSHING YARDS IN A SINGLE POSTSEASON

Derrick Henry accumulated 446 rushing yards during the 2019 playoffs. He had 182 yards on 34 carries in the wild card round at New England, followed by 195 yards on 30 attempts in the divisional round at Baltimore. In the AFC championship game, he had 69 yards on 19 rushing attempts.

Henry's average of 148.7 rushing yards per game ranked fourth in NFL history for players with at least two games played. Only a trio of Pro Football Hall of Fame members—Denver Broncos running back Terrell Davis (156.0 in 1998), Los Angeles Raiders running back Marcus Allen (155.3 in 1983) and Washington Redskins running back John Riggins (152.5 in 1982) have averaged more rushing yards in a single postseason than Henry.

In Titans/Oilers history, Eddie George established the previous record for average rushing yards in a single postseason during the 1999 playoffs. In four games, George carried the ball 108 times for 449 yards, or an average of 112.3 yards per contest.

Most rushing yards per game in a single NFL postseason (minimum two games):

Player	Team	Season	Games	Rush Yards	Per Game
1. Terrell Davis	Denver	1998	3	468	156.0
2. Marcus Allen	L.A. Raiders	1983	3	466	155.3
3. John Riggins	Washington	1982	4	610	152.5
4. Derrick Henry	Tennessee	2019	3	446	148.7
5. Eric Dickerson	L.A. Rams	1985	2	294	147.0
6. Terrell Davis	Denver	1997	4	581	145.3

Tight end Austin Hooper is in his seventh NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2022. He was signed by the Titans as a free agent during the 2022 offseason.

Prior to his arrival in Tennessee, Hooper accumulated 298 receptions for 3,024 yards with 23 touchdowns during his time with the Atlanta Falcons (2016-19) and Cleveland Browns (2020-21), registering at least three touchdowns in each of his first six seasons.

The two-time Pro Bowl selection was originally selected by the Falcons in the third round (81st overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft. After his rookie season in 2016, he ranked first among his team's tight ends in receptions each season from 2017 to 2021.

In 2021, Hooper started a career-high 16 games and collected 38 receptions for 345 yards with three touchdowns. The only game he missed was due to time on the reserve/COVID-19 list.

Hooper's first season in Cleveland was 2020. He started 13 games and hauled in 46 passes for 435 yards with four touchdowns during the regular season. In the postseason, he started both contests and registered nine receptions for 62 yards and a score.

In 2019, Hooper enjoyed the most productive season of his career in his final campaign with the Falcons. He generated career-bests of 75 receptions, 787 receiving yards and six touchdown catches.

The San Mateo, Calif., native appeared in 27 games in his two seasons playing at Stanford, where he caught 74 passes for 937 yards and eight touchdowns during his career. As a sophomore in 2015, he was a Mackey Award finalist and was selected to the All-Pac-12 first team after recording 34 catches for 438 yards and six touchdowns.

2022 Game Notes:

- Against New York Giants (9/11), posted one reception for six yards in his first game with the Titans.
- At Buffalo (9/19), registered his 300th career reception, a 19-yard catch in the first quarter. He became the 26th tight end since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger to reach the 300-catch and 3,000-yard receiving marks within his first 90 career games. Additionally, he joined Travis Kelce, Zach Ertz and George Kittle as the only NFL tight ends with a minimum of 300 receptions and 3,000 receiving yards since the beginning of the 2016 season.
- Against Las Vegas (9/25), caught two passes for 19 yards and also recovered an onside kick late in the fourth quarter to cement the team's victory.
- At Indianapolis (10/2), registered one catch for four yards on third down to extend a touchdown drive.
- At Washington (10/9), converted a third down with a seven-yard catch in the third quarter, leading to the go-ahead touchdown two plays later.
- Against Indianapolis (10/23), led the team with 56 receiving yards and tied for the team lead with three receptions. During a drive in the second half that ended with a field goal, he registered a 14-yard catch to convert a third-and-10 and made a 23-yard grab in traffic four plays later. He added a juggling 19-yard reception to convert a third-and-six in the fourth quarter, leading to a Titans field goal.
- At Houston (10/30), caught one pass for five yards.
- At Kansas City (11/6), led the team with two receptions for 34 yards. He contributed a 16-yard reception and an 18-yard reception during separate touchdown drives in the second quarter.

- Against Denver (11/13), tied for the team lead with five receptions for 41 yards. He converted a third-and-11 with a 17-yard catch in the fourth quarter.
- At Green Bay (11/17), totaled 36 yards and two touchdowns on four receptions. He caught a three-yard touchdown pass from running back Derrick Henry in the third quarter and a 16-yard touchdown pass from Ryan Tannehill in the fourth quarter. It was his second career game with multiple touchdown receptions and his first since Sept. 22, 2019 at Indianapolis as a member of the Atlanta Falcons.
- Against Cincinnati (11/27), caught three passes for 30 yards, including an eight-yard reception on third-and-five in the first quarter.
- At Philadelphia (12/4), appeared in his 100th NFL game (regular season). He caught three passes for 22 yards, including a nine-yard grab on third-and-five during a scoring drive in the second quarter.
- Against Jacksonville (12/11), led the team with 68 receiving yards on five catches, including a 24-yard reception during a touchdown drive in the fourth quarter.

MORE TITANS TIGHT ENDS

85 - TE CHIG OKONKWO
6-3, 238, Rookie, Maryland

- Chig Okonkwo (pronounced "CHIGG oh-KAHN-kwoh") was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (143rd overall) of the 2022 NFL Draft.
- The Powder Springs, Ga., native appeared in 37 games with 20 starts over four seasons (2018-21) at Maryland and caught 77 passes for 717 yards and eight touchdowns. Okonkwo also added three carries for 72 yards and three touchdowns, including a career-long rush of 54 yards.
- As a senior in 2021, started all 13 games and posted career-high marks with 52 catches for 447 yards and a team-leading five touchdowns. His 52 receptions ranked second in Terrapins history for a single season by a tight end, behind only former Titans tight end Frank Wycheck (58 in 1990). Okonkwo's 447 receiving yards were the most by a Terps tight end in a season since Vernon Davis (871 in 2005).
- He sat out the 2020 season with myocarditis due to COVID-19.
- He saw action in 12 games (four starts) as a freshman and 12 games (three starts) as a sophomore.

2022 Game Notes:

- Against New York Giants (9/11), made his NFL debut and recorded his first career reception in the fourth quarter, picking up 11 yards on a pass from Ryan Tannehill.
- At Indianapolis (10/2), registered his first career start and caught three passes for 38 yards and a touchdown. He picked up 23 yards in the first quarter on his second career reception and scored his first career touchdown in the second quarter on an eight-yard pass from Ryan Tannehill. With less than two minutes remaining in the fourth quarter, he helped seal the victory with a seven-yard catch on third-and-four. It allowed the Titans to kneel on the ball to close out the win.
- At Houston (10/30), caught one pass for three yards.
- At Kansas City (11/6), had a 48-yard reception in the first quarter, his longest reception through eight career games. It was the longest reception by a Titans tight end since Jonnu Smith's 63-yard catch against Jacksonville on Sept. 20, 2020. He made an athletic play and helped flip field position by keeping a Ryan Stonehouse 57-yard punt out of the end zone that was then downed at the Chiefs' three-yard line in the second quarter.

- Against Denver (11/13), posted a 41-yard reception to convert a third-and-four in the fourth quarter. He joined A.J. Brown (three times) as the only Titans players since the beginning of 2011 to have a reception of at least 40 yards in back-to-back games, and he became the Titans' first tight end to accomplish the feat since at least the beginning of the 2000 campaign.
- At Green Bay (11/17), caught a 31-yard pass in the third quarter to become the Titans' only tight end since the start of the 2000 season to have a reception of at least 30 yards in three consecutive games.
- Against Cincinnati (11/27), caught three passes for 35 yards, including a 17-yard grab to convert a third-and-one during a scoring drive in the fourth quarter. The three catches tied his career high through 11 games of his rookie season.
- At Philadelphia (12/4), led the team and established career highs through 12 games with four receptions and 68 receiving yards. With a 41-yard reception in the second quarter, he became the second NFL tight end in 2022 to record his fourth catch of at least 30 yards, joining Kansas City's Travis Kelce (five). It was Okonkwo's fourth such play in a five-game span. He added two tackles on special teams.
- Against Jacksonville (12/11), posted 45 yards and a touchdown on a team-high six receptions. He scored his second career touchdown on a 10-yard pass from Ryan Tannehill in the first quarter. In the fourth quarter, he caught a pass from Tannehill to score the team's first two-point conversion of the season.

86 - TE KEVIN RADER

6-4, 250, 2nd Year, Youngstown State

- Kevin Rader was signed by the Titans to the practice squad on Sept. 1, 2022 and signed to the 53-man roster on Sept. 22, 2022.
- Prior to joining the Titans, Rader appeared in seven career NFL games, all with the Pittsburgh Steelers. His totals included two receptions for eight yards and three special teams tackles.
- In 2021, Rader registered six games played, one start and two receptions for eight yards with the Steelers.
- After originally entering the NFL as an undrafted free agent with the Green Bay Packers in 2018, Rader spent the majority of 2019 and 2020 on the Steelers practice squad.
- A native of Pittsburgh, Pa., Rader played 42 games for Youngstown State University, totaling 44 receptions for 601 yards and four touchdowns during his college career.

2022 Game Notes:

- Against Las Vegas (9/25), made his Titans debut.
- At Washington (10/9), led the team with a career-high three special teams tackles.

87 - TE GEOFF SWAIM

6-4, 260, 7th Year, Texas

- Swaim was signed by the Titans prior to the start of the 2020 season.
- In 2021, he established career highs with 16 games played, 16 starts, 31 receptions and three touchdown catches. His 210 receiving yards ranked second in his career. He also started the team's divisional playoff contest.
- Originally a seventh-round pick by the Cowboys in the 2015 NFL Draft, Swaim played in 43 total games over five seasons with the Cowboys (2015-18) and the Jaguars (2019). His career totals in that time included 48 catches for 401 yards and a touchdown in his career.
- In 2020, he appeared in 10 games (eight starts) in his first season in Tennessee. He produced nine receptions for 83 yards and one touchdown and helped block for Derrick Henry's 2,027-yard rushing season. Swaim started one playoff game with one reception for five yards.
- As a senior at the University of Texas, he started all 13 games, spending most of his time helping block for a running game that rushed for 1,786 yards and seven touchdowns. He totaled 13 catches for 84 yards.
- A native of Chico, Calif., Swaim played at Butte College in Oroville, Calif., for two years prior to transferring to Texas.

2022 Game Notes:

- Against New York Giants (9/11), tied for second on the team with three receptions, totaling 19 yards.
- Against Las Vegas (9/25), totaled 19 yards and a touchdown on three receptions. He registered his first touchdown catch of the season on a two-yard pass from Ryan Tannehill in the first quarter.

#16 • WR TREYTON BURKS

6-2, 225, Rookie, Arkansas

Click for complete bio

Wide receiver Treyton Burks was selected by the Titans in the first round (18th overall) of the 2022 NFL Draft.

In three seasons (2019-21) at the University of Arkansas, Burks appeared in 32 career games with 30 starts. He totaled 146 receptions for 2,399 yards and 18 touchdowns to go along with 32 rushing attempts for 222 yards and one score. He returned 13 punts for 134 yards (10.3-yard average) and returned 11 kickoff returns for 226 yards (20.5 avg.).

At the conclusion of his collegiate career, he ranked sixth in Razorbacks history in career receptions and receiving yards, and his touchdown reception total tied for fifth all-time. He set an Arkansas record with 10 career 100-yard receiving games, including a school-record six 100-yard receiving performances in his final year.

Burks earned All-SEC honors in each of his three seasons: in 2019, second-team All-SEC as a returner and All-Freshman as a receiver; second-team All-SEC in 2020; and first-team All-SEC in 2021.

The Warren, Ark., native was drafted with the highest pick of any Arkansas player since Darren McFadden was taken fourth overall in 2008, and Burks was the first Arkansas wide receiver to be selected in the first round since Matt Jones was taken 21st overall by Jacksonville in 2006.

As a junior in 2021, Burks was named first-team All-SEC after totaling 66 receptions (seventh in the SEC) for 1,104 yards (fourth) and 11 touchdowns (fourth). His 92.0 receiving yards per game ranked third in the SEC behind only Jameson Williams (104.8) and Wan'Dale Robinson (102.6).

As a sophomore in 2020, he was named second-team All-SEC after contributing 51 receptions for 820 yards and seven touchdowns. His 91.1 receiving yards per game ranked third in the SEC behind only Elijah Moore (149.1) and DeVonta Smith (142.8).

2022 Game Notes:

- Against New York Giants (9/11), made his NFL debut and caught three passes for 55 yards. He tied for second place on the team in receptions. Since 1970, his 55 receiving yards ranked sixth among Titans/Oilers rookies and first-year players in a Week 1 game. He picked up 20 yards and a first down on his first NFL reception in the first quarter. The catch led to a Titans touchdown on the next play. He also recorded a 27-yard catch in the third quarter.
- At Buffalo (9/19), registered his first career start. He led the team with 47 receiving yards and tied for the team lead with four receptions.
- Against Las Vegas (9/25), caught one pass for 13 yards and added eight yards on a rushing attempt.
- At Indianapolis (10/2), caught two passes for 14 yards and added a four-yard rushing attempt for a first down before exiting the contest with an injury in the fourth quarter.
- Placed on injured reserve on Oct. 8, 2022.
- Activated from injured reserve on Nov. 12, 2022.
- Against Denver (11/13), returned to action after missing four games on injured reserve. He totaled 24 yards on three receptions, including a 15-yard grab.

- At Green Bay (11/17), led the team and established career highs with seven receptions and 111 receiving yards to notch his first career 100-yard receiving game. He posted a 43-yard reception to convert a third down in the first quarter. Late in the fourth quarter, he helped cement the outcome with a career-long 51-yard catch, allowing the offense to run out the clock on the ensuing set of downs. He became the team's first rookie since A.J. Brown in 2019 to record a 100-yard receiving game.
- Against Cincinnati (11/27), tied for the team lead with four receptions and finished second on the team with 70 receiving yards. In the second quarter, he scored his first NFL touchdown by recovering the ball in the end zone after it was fumbled by Derrick Henry. Burks was the first Titans offensive player to recover a fumble in the end zone for a touchdown since tight end Anthony Firkser against Houston on Nov. 21, 2021. He caught a 51-yard pass from Ryan Tannehill in the third quarter to tie his career long and give him consecutive games with a 51-yard catch. He became the team's first player since A.J. Brown in 2019 (Dec. 8-15) and the NFL's fourth player in 2022 to have a catch of at least 50 yards in back-to-back games.
- At Philadelphia (12/4), started and recorded his first NFL touchdown reception on a 25-yard pass from Ryan Tannehill in the first quarter. It was his second consecutive week to score a touchdown after recovering a fumble in the end zone the previous week against Cincinnati. Burks was forced to exit the game after the play with an injury.
- Against Jacksonville (12/11), he was inactive with a concussion.

Wide receiver Robert Woods is in his 10th NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2022. He was acquired in a March 2022 trade in which the Titans sent a 2023 sixth-round draft pick to the Los Angeles Rams in exchange for Woods.

Prior to arriving in Tennessee, Woods produced 570 receptions for 7,077 yards with 35 touchdown catches in 125 career games. He added 74 rushing attempts for 507 yards and five scores.

Woods entered the league as a second-round pick of the Buffalo Bills in the 2013 NFL Draft out of Southern California and spent his first four NFL seasons with the club. In 57 games with the Bills, he caught 203 passes for 2,451 yards and 12 touchdowns.

In 2017, he went to Los Angeles as an unrestricted free agent and in the next five years totaled 367 receptions for 4,626 yards and 23 receiving for the Rams, culminating with the Rams' Super Bowl LVI championship to conclude the 2021 season.

Woods missed the final eight games of the 2021 regular season and the entire postseason due to a knee injury, but prior to being placed on injured reserve he registered 45 catches for 556 yards and four touchdowns.

In 2020, Woods tied a career-best with 90 receptions for 936 yards with six touchdowns. It was his second consecutive season with 90 catches after reaching the mark in 2019.

In 2018, Woods posted 86 receptions for a career-high 1,219 yards with six touchdowns in his first season with the Rams. His six touchdown catches also established a career high.

The Gardena, Calif., native started all 38 games in his three-year career at the University of Southern California and finished his career as the Trojans' all-time leader with 252 receptions. He placed eighth in program history with 2,930 receiving yards and second with 32 receiving touchdowns.

➤ Against Jacksonville (12/11), registered a 27-yard reception during a touchdown drive in the fourth quarter.

8 - WR CODY HOLLISTER*6-4, 216, 3rd Year, Arkansas

➤ Cody Hollister joined the Titans in 2019 and has spent most of his time since then on the team's practice squad and active roster.

➤ In 2021, he spent the final seven games of the regular season and the postseason on the Titans practice squad. He appeared in three games with one start, totaling 33 yards on four receptions.

➤ In 2020, Hollister spent the majority of the season on the practice squad after initially making the 53-man roster in Week 1. He appeared in two total games and caught one pass for 12 yards.

➤ He initially signed with the Titans as a free agent following a tryout during 2019 rookie minicamp. During the 2019 season he appeared in five games and posted two catches for 13 yards on the season.

➤ Originally signed by the New England Patriots as an undrafted free agent following the 2017 NFL Draft.

➤ The Bend, Ore., native played in 29 games with 12 starts at Arkansas and caught 27 passes for 342 yards and a touchdown. Also rushed twice for 48 yards and one score.

2022 Game Notes:

➤ Against Indianapolis (10/23), tied his career high with two receptions and set a new career high with 32 receiving yards. It was his third career game with a pair of receptions (last at New England on Nov. 28, 2021). His previous single-game high for receiving yards was 22 at New England on Nov. 28, 2021. He recorded the longest catch of his career on a 27-yard pass from Ryan Tannehill in the first quarter, leading to a Titans field goal. His previous long reception was a 22-yarder at New England on Nov. 28, 2021.

➤ Placed on injured reserve on Dec. 5, 2022.

13 - WR RACEY McMATH*6-3, 217, 2nd Year, Louisiana State

➤ The Titans selected Racey McMath with the 205th overall pick in the sixth round of the 2021 NFL Draft.

➤ In 2021, he caught two passes for eight yards and added four special teams tackles in nine games.

➤ A native of New Orleans, La., he spent four seasons at LSU, appearing in 34 total games with six starts, 33 receptions for 522 yards and four touchdowns. He was a key contributor during the Tigers' 2019 national championship campaign.

➤ As a senior (2020), started all six games in which he appeared and caught 14 passes for 195 yards and one touchdown. Added a pair of special teams tackles and a forced fumble.

➤ In 2019, he appeared in 14 games producing career highs with 17 receptions, 285 receiving yards and three touchdowns during a national championship season.

➤ He is a native of New Orleans, La.

18 - WR KYLE PHILIPS
5-11, 189, Rookie, UCLA

➤ The Titans selected Kyle Philips with the 163rd overall pick in the fifth round of the 2022 NFL Draft.

➤ Started 23 of his 34 games during a four-year career at UCLA, where he totaled 163 receptions for 1,821 yards and 17 touchdowns. He added 25 punt returns for 496 yards (19.8 avg.) with two touchdowns.

➤ He registered at least one reception in 32 of his 34 college games, including a streak of 29 consecutive games with at least one catch to end his career.

➤ At the end of his UCLA career, he ranked fourth on the school's all-time career receptions list. He was the first Bruin to lead the team in receptions in three straight seasons since Craig Bragg from 2001 to 2004.

➤ As a junior in 2021, he led the Bruins in receptions (59), receiving yards (739) and receiving touchdowns (10). He also led the team in punt returns (nine) and punt return average (22.6).

➤ As a redshirt freshman in 2019, he posted a career-high 60 receptions for 681 yards and five touchdowns.

➤ He is a native of San Marcos, Calif.

2022 Game Notes:

➤ Against New York Giants (9/11), made his NFL debut and led the team with six receptions and 66 receiving yards. He added four punt returns for 62 yards and a 15.5-yard average. On the first punt return of his career in the first quarter, he gained 46 yards. In the third quarter, he registered his first career reception for 20 yards, and he added a 21-yard catch in the fourth quarter. Among all Titans/Oilers rookies since 1970, his six receptions tied Corey Davis (six receptions against Oakland on Sept. 10, 2017) for the second-best total in a Week 1 game, behind only Tajaé Sharpe's seven receptions against Minnesota on Sept. 11, 2016. Also since 1970, Philips' 66 receiving yards ranked fifth among franchise rookies in a Week 1 game.

➤ Placed on injured reserve on Oct. 25, 2022.

Click for complete bio

Aaron Brewer is in his third NFL season in 2022. He was signed by the Titans as an undrafted free agent on May 7, 2020.

In 2021, he appeared in 12 games with a career-high five starts, including three starts at right guard and two starts at left guard.

As a rookie in 2020, he appeared in 12 games with one start at left guard (Nov. 22 at Baltimore) before landing on reserve/COVID-19 for the postseason.

The Dallas, Texas, native appeared in 48 games with 47 consecutive starts in four seasons at Texas State. During his college career, he started at least five games at every position on the offensive line. He totaled eight starts at left tackle, seven starts at left guard, 15 starts at center, five starts at right guard and 12 starts at right tackle.

As a senior, he started all 12 contests at right tackle and earned All-Sun Belt second-team recognition. He was the highest-graded offensive lineman in the Sun Belt Conference (82.8) by Pro Football Focus, surrendering just three combined sacks and hits in 496 snaps in pass protection.

Click for complete bio

Nate Davis is in his fourth NFL season in 2022. He was selected by the Titans in the third round (82nd overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft.

Davis started 14 games at right guard in 2021, giving him 42 starts in his first three NFL seasons. Additionally, he started each of the club's five playoff games from 2019 to 2021. He helped the Titans finish fifth in the NFL in rushing in 2021 (141.4 rushing yards per game), marking the third consecutive season the Titans ranked in the top five in rushing.

Davis was a part of a 2020 offense that tied for the second-overall ranking in the NFL (396.4 yards per game), finished second in rushing (168.1), and allowed the sixth-fewest sacks (25). Davis helped pave the way for Derrick Henry to produce the NFL's eighth all-time 2,000-yard rushing season (2,027).

As a rookie in 2019, Davis played in 13 games with 12 starts at right guard. It was the highest number of starts at guard by a Titans rookie since Chance Warmack's 16 starts in 2013. He also started all three of the team's postseason games.

In four seasons at Charlotte (2015-18), Davis appeared in 41 career games with 37 starts. A four-year starter on the offensive line, Davis started at guard from 2015-17 before switching to right tackle for his senior season in 2018.

He is a native of Ashburn, Va.

#60 • C BEN JONES

6-3, 303, 11th Year, Georgia
Click for complete bio

Center Ben Jones is in his 11th NFL season and his seventh campaign with the Titans in 2022. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 10, 2016.

From 2012 through 2021, Jones appeared in 160 of 161 possible regular season games, including starts in all but one game during his first six seasons in Tennessee. During those six seasons in Tennessee (2016-21), he was one of only eight offensive linemen to start at least 96 of a possible 97 games. He finished the 2021 campaign with an active streak of 40 consecutive starts, ranking third among centers.

Jones started all 17 games in 2021 and helped the Titans finish fifth in the NFL in rushing (141.4 rushing yards per game), marking the fifth time in his six seasons in Tennessee that he helped the offense rank in the top five in rushing.

From 2016 through 2021, the Titans averaged 137.7 rushing yards per game, posting the second-highest average in the NFL behind only the Baltimore Ravens (150.6). The Titans joined the Dallas Cowboys and Indianapolis Colts as the only teams in those six seasons to produce four individual 1,000-yard rushing seasons—three by Derrick Henry and one by DeMarco Murray.

In 2020, Jones started every game at center and was a part of an offense that tied for the second-overall ranking in the NFL (396.4 yards per game), finished second in rushing (168.1), and allowed the sixth-fewest sacks (25). He helped pave the way for Henry to produce the NFL's eighth all-time 2,000-yard rushing season (2,027).

In 2019, Jones captained an offensive line that helped Henry win the NFL's rushing title (1,540 yards). He started all three playoff games en route to an AFC Championship Game appearance.

On Dec. 12, 2019, Jones was named the Titans nominee for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award. Considered one of the league's most prestigious honors, the award recognizes an NFL player for outstanding community service activities off the field, as well as excellence on the field.

On Nov. 3, 2019, Jones' streak of 120 consecutive games played and 88 consecutive starts came to an end when he was deactivated with a concussion. At the time, Jones' consecutive games streak tied Kansas City's Mitchell Schwartz for the longest active streak in the NFL among offensive linemen, and his starting streak ranked first in the NFL among all centers.

Jones started all 16 games at center in 2018, registering a start in every contest for the fifth consecutive season, dating back to his third year in Houston (2014).

In his first year in Tennessee, Jones played a key role in an offensive turnaround. He was a key cog in helping the Titans finish 11th overall in offense, third in rushing and tied for seventh in fewest sacks allowed.

Jones was originally selected by the Houston Texans in the fourth round (99th overall) of the 2012 NFL Draft. Over the following four seasons, he started contests at center and both guard spots. He was a starter on two playoff teams in Houston (2012 and 2015).

In 2015, Jones started every game at center, extending his streak of consecutive regular season games played to 64, which was the second-longest active streak among NFL centers at the conclusion of the season.

A native of Centreville, Ala., Jones attended the University of Georgia, where his 49 total starts ranked third in school annals. He was a two-time All-SEC selection by the league's coaches and was named to Georgia's Team of the Decade. As a senior (2011), the team captain earned All-SEC first-team honors.

#77 • T TAYLOR LEWAN

6-7, 309, 9th Year, Michigan
Click for complete bio

Tackle Taylor Lewan is in his ninth NFL season in 2022. He was selected by the Titans with the 11th overall pick of the 2014 NFL Draft.

Lewan was placed on injured reserve on Sept. 24, 2022, two games into the season.

In 2021, Lewan returned from a season-ending injury in 2020 to start in 13 games. He helped the Titans finish fifth in the NFL in rushing (141.4 rushing yards per game), marking the fifth time during his career in Tennessee that the offense ranked in the top five in rushing.

During the franchise's "Titans era," beginning in 1999, Lewan's 98 starts at the conclusion of 2021 ranked ninth for the club. Among Titans offensive linemen, only Michael Roos (148), Benji Olson (139), David Stewart (116) and Brad Hopkins (101) had more starts than Lewan from 1999 through 2021.

Lewan's 2020 season was cut short after he was placed on injured reserve on Oct. 19, 2020, one day after suffering a knee injury against the Houston Texans. He started each of the team's first five games of the season.

In 2019, Lewan registered 12 starts during the regular season, anchoring an offensive line that helped running back Derrick Henry win the NFL's rushing title (1,540 yards). He started all three playoff games, including the AFC Championship Game.

Lewan was named to the Pro Bowl for the third consecutive season in 2018. He played and started in 15 of the team's 16 games at left tackle, marking his fourth consecutive season with at least 15 starts.

In 2017, Lewan became the team's first offensive lineman to make multiple Pro Bowls since center Kevin Mawae from 2008–2009. Lewan started all 16 games for the second consecutive season in 2017 and added starts in both postseason contests.

In 2016, Lewan started all 16 games for the first time. The left tackle was the anchor a line that helped the Titans finish 11th overall in offense, third in rushing and tied for seventh in fewest sacks allowed.

In 2015, Lewan started the first 15 games of the season at left tackle before missing the finale with a concussion.

As a rookie in 2014, Lewan played in 11 games with six starts before suffering an ankle injury. He played as a reserve for the first five games and then started in six consecutive contests before the injury caused him to be inactive the final five weeks. For his efforts, Lewan was named to the Pro Football Writers of America All-Rookie Team.

In four seasons at Michigan, Lewan appeared in 50 games with 48 starts at left tackle. He started the final 41 games of his career and was named the Big Ten Conference Offensive Lineman of the Year in 2012 and 2013. As a senior in 2013, he started all 13 games at left tackle for the third consecutive season and was named second-team Associated Press All-American.

At the 2014 NFL Scouting Combine, he ran the 40-yard dash in 4.87 seconds, beating all other offensive linemen in his class and clocking the fourth-fastest time among offensive linemen in the last five years (2010-14). He also ranked among the top offensive linemen at the 2014 combine in the broad jump (first at nine feet, nine inches), vertical jump (tied for third at 30.5 inches) and three-cone drill (fourth at 7.39 seconds).

A native of Cave Creek, Ariz., Lewan became the first offensive tackle selected by the Titans/Oilers in the first round since tackle Brad Hopkins (13th overall) in 1993.

#98 • DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

6-4, 305, 4th Year, Mississippi State

Click for complete bio

Defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons is in his fourth NFL season in 2022. He was selected by the Titans in the first round (19th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft.

Before the start of the 2021 season, Simmons was named a team captain for the first time in his career, and he went on to become one of six players on the roster to start all 17 games. He was named to his first career Pro Bowl and added Associated Press second-team All-Pro honors after setting career highs in several categories, including sacks (8.5), tackles (54), quarterback pressures (58), tackles for loss (12) and passes defended (six). He led the squad in pressures and placed third in sacks. Among all defensive tackles in the NFL, his 8.5 sacks ranked sixth. In the divisional playoffs, he set a franchise postseason record with three sacks.

In 2020, Simmons appeared and started in 15 games. With three defensive fumble recoveries, he tied Chase Young for the most in the NFL in 2020 and was the first Titans defender with three fumble recoveries in a season since 2005, when linebacker Brad Kassell accomplished the feat. Simmons ranked second on the team with 19 quarterback pressures and added 49 tackles, three sacks, three tackles for loss, five passes defended and one forced fumble. In the franchise's "Titans era" (since 1999), he became the first player to post at least three fumble recoveries, three sacks and five passes defended in the same season. He also had three tackles and a tackle for loss in one playoff contest.

Simmons began his rookie season on the non-football injury list due to a knee injury he suffered during training in February 2019. He missed the first six games of the season before joining the 53-man roster in Week 7.

His rookie totals included 40 tackles, two sacks, two tackles for loss, 14 quarterback pressures and one pass defended in nine games (seven starts). He added four tackles, three quarterback pressures and a fumble recovery in three playoff contests.

During a three-year career as a defensive tackle at Mississippi State, Simmons appeared in 38 contests with 28 starts. He finished his career ranked sixth in school history with 32.5 in tackles for loss. He also tied for sixth in MSU annals with five forced fumbles and tied for fourth with three blocked kicks. His totals also included 163 tackles, seven sacks, seven passes defended and two defensive touchdowns.

He was a first-team All-SEC selection as a sophomore and junior and was one of two players in the nation to be named a Bednarik Award Semifinalist in both 2017 and 2018.

As a junior in 2018, Simmons was named second-team All-American after totaling 63 tackles, 17 tackles for loss and two sacks. His 17 tackles for loss led the team, ranked fourth in the SEC and were the third-most in single-season school history.

During his sophomore season (2017), he set a career high with five sacks and added 12 tackles for loss. With three total blocked kicks and punts, he became the first SEC player since 2004 to lead the nation in the category.

Simmons is a native of Macon, Miss.

2022 Game Notes:

➤ Against New York Giants (9/11), totaled six tackles, two sacks, six quarterback pressures (tied for team lead) and one forced fumble. In the first quarter, he recorded a five-yard sack, taking down Giants quarterback Daniel Jones. In the second quarter, he registered the first strip-sack of his career, forcing Jones to fumble. The ball was recovered by outside linebacker Bud Dupree. It was the second forced fumble of Simmons' career. The takeaway led to a Titans field goal. It was his third career regular-season game with multiple sacks, in addition to one multi-sack performance in the postseason. Including the 2021 regular-season finale at Houston (one sack on Jan. 9) and the team's postseason game against Cincinnati (three sacks on Jan. 22), he notched a total of six sacks in a three-game span. He also tackled Saquon Barkley for a six-yard loss in the fourth quarter.

➤ At Buffalo (9/19), registered a pass defended and two quarterback pressures.

➤ Against Las Vegas (9/25), posted two tackles, one pass defended and a team-high five quarterback pressures.

➤ At Indianapolis (10/2), credited with five tackles and helped limit the Colts to 38 rushing yards on 23 attempts.

➤ At Washington (10/9), totaled a team-high seven quarterback pressures, five tackles, 1.5 sacks and a pass defended. He was credited with a sack when he dropped Carson Wentz for no gain in the second quarter and combined with Sam Okuayinonu for an eight-yard sack of Wentz during the fourth quarter.

➤ Against Indianapolis (10/23), totaled six tackles, one sack, four quarterback pressures and two tackles for loss. In the second quarter, he ended a Colts drive with a nine-yard sack of Matt Ryan on third down. It was his second consecutive game with at least one sack.

➤ At Houston (10/30), led the defense with five quarterback pressures and tied for the team lead with two tackles for loss, including a sack. In the third quarter, he sacked Davis Mills for a 12-yard loss to give him his first career streak of three consecutive games with at least one sack.

➤ At Kansas City (11/6), credited with four tackles, two quarterback pressures and one pass defended.

➤ Against Denver (11/13), he was inactive with an ankle injury.

➤ At Green Bay (11/17), played his 50th career game and registered four tackles, including a 12-yard sack of Aaron Rodgers in the fourth quarter. He joined Jevon Kearse (35) and Harold Landry III (20.5) as the franchise's only players since 1982, when individual sacks became an official statistic, to reach the 20-sack mark within their first 50 NFL games. Simmons was the club's first interior lineman to do so.

➤ Against Cincinnati (11/27), totaled five tackles, including a tackle for loss.

➤ At Philadelphia (12/4), posted one tackle and one pass defended.

➤ Against Jacksonville (12/11), tied for the team lead with two passes defended and three quarterback pressures.

Click for complete bio

Inside linebacker Zach Cunningham is in his sixth NFL season and his second season with the Titans in 2022. He was claimed off waivers from the Houston Texans on Dec. 9, 2021.

After joining the Titans, Cunningham started the final four games of the 2021 regular season and led the defense over that stretch with 25 tackles. His totals also included three tackles for loss and one stop on special teams. In the team's divisional playoff contest, he led the defense with 10 tackles.

Cunningham joined the Titans after four-plus seasons (2017-21) in Houston, where he appeared in 72 games with 66 starts. During his time with the Texans, he tallied 570 tackles, 26 tackles for loss, 6.5 sacks, five forced fumbles, three fumble recoveries and one interception.

In 2020, he started all 16 games and led the NFL with 163 total tackles while also notching a single-season career high with three sacks. He tallied 14 tackles (nine solo) in Week 16 against Cincinnati. He also joined J.J. Watt as the only players in Texans history with at least 10 total tackles, one tackle for loss and one forced fumble in a single game in Week 17 vs. Tennessee.

In 2019, Cunningham started in all 16 regular season games and both postseason contests. He finished the season with 137 total tackles, seven tackles for loss, two sacks, three quarterback hits, two passes defended and two fumble recoveries, while tallying five tackles on special teams. His 137 tackles led the AFC and ranked seventh in the NFL, and he was the only player in the NFL to record over 100 tackles on defense and at least five tackles on special teams.

In 2018, he tied for the Texans team lead with a then-career-high 105 total tackles, five passes defended, one interception returned for a touchdown, three tackles for loss, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery.

As a rookie in 2017, Cunningham finished second on the team with 82 total tackles to go along with six passes defended, five tackles for loss, two quarterback hits, 1.5 sacks and one forced fumble in 16 games. He tied for second among all NFL rookies in total tackles and fourth in franchise history among Houston rookies. He was the first player in franchise history to record 80 total tackles and eight special teams tackles in a single season.

The Pinson, Ala., native played three seasons (2014-16) at Vanderbilt University after redshirting the 2013 campaign. He finished his Commodores career ranked third in program history with 39.5 tackles for loss and totaled 295 career tackles.

Cunningham was originally selected by the Texans in the second round (57th overall) of the 2017 NFL Draft.

2022 Game Notes:

- Against New York Giants (9/11), posted six tackles.

6-5, 285, 9th Year, Mississippi State
Click for complete bio

Defensive lineman Denico Autry is in his ninth NFL season and his second season with the Titans in 2022. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 19, 2021.

In 2021, Autry appeared in all 17 games with 11 starts and finished second on the team with nine sacks. His sack total tied his career high, matching the nine sacks he had in 2018 as a member of the Indianapolis Colts. He added 32 tackles, 44 quarterback pressures, 10 tackles for loss and six passes defended.

Over a four-season stretch from 2018 to 2021, Autry posted 29 sacks, ranking fifth among all NFL defensive tackles. Only Aaron Donald (59), Chris Jones (41), DeForest Buckner (36) and Cameron Heyward (31) had more during that time.

Autry also has been one of the NFL's best in blocking opponent kicks and punts. From 2014 to 2021, he recorded a league-high total of nine blocks, getting a hand on five extra point attempts, one punt and three field goals, including a blocked field goal in 2021.

After entering the NFL as a rookie free agent with the Oakland Raiders in 2014, Autry played four seasons with the Raiders (2014-17) and then three seasons with the Indianapolis Colts (2018-20). During that time he appeared in 96 games with 56 starts and amassed 200 tackles, 30.5 sacks, 53 quarterback hits, 17 passes defended, three forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries.

In 2020, Autry collected 33 tackles, 7.5 sacks, 10 quarterback pressures and nine tackles for loss in 14 games with the Colts. His 13 starts were the second-highest total of his career (14 in 2019).

In 2018, Autry led the Colts with a career-best nine sacks in his first season in Indianapolis. He also posted career highs with 13 tackles for loss and two forced fumbles.

The Albemarle, N.C., native played in 26 games (23 starts) in two seasons at Mississippi State University, totaling 73 tackles, 16 tackles for loss, six sacks and three forced fumbles. He spent his first two collegiate seasons at East Mississippi Community College where he was an NJCAA All-American and national champion.

2022 Game Notes:

- Against New York Giants (9/11), posted four tackles and two quarterback pressures.
- At Buffalo (9/19), sacked Josh Allen for a four-yard loss in the third quarter. His first sack of 2022 gave him 40.5 career sacks. He added a pass defended and a team-high three quarterback pressures.
- At Indianapolis (10/2), led the team with two sacks and added a forced fumble and a team-high five quarterback pressures. It was his ninth career game with at least two sacks and second with the Titans. In the first quarter, he was credited with a 17-yard sack of Matt Ryan and forced a fumble on the play. The ball was recovered by outside linebacker Bud Dupree and led to a Titans touchdown. It was Autry's third career strip-sack. He added an eight-yard sack in the fourth quarter that helped the Titans preserve a seven-point lead. The third-down play began on the Tennessee 25-yard line, and the Colts missed a field goal on the ensuing play.
- At Washington (10/9), tallied four tackles, including a nine-yard sack of Carson Wentz in the fourth quarter. The play came on third down, forcing a Washington punt. It was his second consecutive game with at least one sack. He added four quarterback pressures.

- Against Indianapolis (10/23), totaled three tackles, including a sack, and added two quarterback pressures and a pass defended. Recorded his fifth sack of the season on a four-yard takedown of Matt Ryan in the fourth quarter. He registered his third consecutive game with at least one sack and secured his fifth career season with at least five sacks.

- At Houston (10/30), credited with four quarterback pressures.

- At Kansas City (11/6), totaled three tackles, four quarterback pressures and a team-high two sacks. His two sacks of Patrick Mahomes in the second quarter each came on third down to end Chiefs drives, first for a five-yard loss and then for a six-yard loss. It was his 10th career game with at least two sacks. He posted his third consecutive season with at least seven sacks and his fourth total seasons with at least seven sacks.

- Against Denver (11/13), tallied a pair of tackles and finished second on the squad with seven quarterback pressures.

- At Green Bay (11/17), blocked an extra point attempt in the first quarter. It was his NFL-best 10th total block since his rookie season in 2014. He left the contest with an injury in the third quarter.

Click for complete bio

Outside linebacker Bud Dupree is in his eighth NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2022. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 19, 2021.

Dupree returned from a season-ending injury with the Steelers in 2020 to play in 11 games with six starts for the Titans in 2021. He totaled 17 tackles, three sacks, 15 quarterback pressures, two tackles for loss, one pass defended and one forced fumble. In the team's divisional playoff game, he added two tackles, a sack and two quarterback pressures.

Dupree spent his first six NFL seasons in Pittsburgh after the Steelers chose him with the 22nd overall draft choice in the 2015 NFL Draft. His totals with the Steelers included 231 tackles, 39.5 sacks, 64 quarterback pressures, 53 tackles for loss, one interception, eight forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries in 81 games.

From 2019 to 2020, Dupree totaled 19.5 sacks, ranking eighth in the NFL despite missing five games. His six strip-sacks tied for fourth in the same period. In his final 17 games in Pittsburgh, he registered at least half a sack on 12 occasions.

In 2020, Dupree started the first 11 games but missed the final five contests due to injury. He totaled eight sacks, 15 quarterback hits, 31 tackles, eight tackles for loss, two forced fumbles and two passes defended.

In 2019, Dupree posted a career-best 11.5 sacks, 68 tackles, 16 tackles for loss, 17 quarterback hits, four forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and three passes defended in a career-high 16 starts. His 16 tackles for loss ranked fourth in the NFL, while his sack total was the ninth-best in the league.

A native of Irwinton, Ga., Dupree played in 47 games with 38 starts at the University of Kentucky (2011-14) and finished with 247 tackles, 23.5 sacks, 38.0 tackles for loss and four forced fumbles. At the time he left school for the NFL, he ranked second in Wildcat history in career sacks.

2022 Game Notes:

- Against New York Giants (9/11), recorded a six-yard sack in the first quarter. In the second quarter, he registered his fourth career fumble recovery, gaining control of the ball after it was fumbled by Daniel Jones on a sack by Jeffery Simmons. The takeaway led to a Titans field goal. He added six quarterback pressures to tie for the team lead.

#58 • OLB HAROLD LANDRY III

6-2, 252, 5th Year, Boston College

Click for complete bio

Outside linebacker Harold Landry III is in his fifth NFL season in 2022. He was selected by the Titans in the second round (41st overall) of the 2018 NFL Draft after the Titans traded up 16 spots in the second round (57 to 41) in order to take the former Boston College standout.

Landry was placed on injured reserve on Sept. 2, 2022.

From the start of his rookie season through 2021, Landry's 31 total sacks led the Titans. Other than Jevon Kearse (37), Landry produced the highest sack total by a Titans/Oilers player in his first four NFL seasons since individual sacks became an official NFL statistic in 1982.

From 2018 to 2021, Landry joined Pittsburgh's Cameron Heyward as the NFL's only players to be credited with at least 250 tackles (press box statistics), 30 sacks and two interceptions.

In 2021, Landry was named to his first Pro Bowl after starting all 17 games. He registered his third consecutive season to start every contest, extending his streaks to 64 consecutive games played and 52 consecutive starts. At the conclusion of 2021, his starting streak was the sixth-longest active streak in the NFL among all defensive players.

Landry's 12 sacks in 2021 led the Titans, ranked 10th in the NFL and established a career high. He became the first Titans player to record double-digit sacks in a season since Brian Orakpo (10.5) in 2016 and the first Titans player with 12 sacks in a season since Jason Babin (12.5) in 2010. Landry tied for second on the squad with 75 tackles, ranked second with a career-high 49 quarterback pressures, led the team with 14 tackles for loss, and added a forced fumble. He joined Micah Parsons, Aaron Donald and Heyward as the only NFL players in 2021 to post at least 75 tackles and 10 sacks.

Then, in the team's 2021 divisional playoff contest, he recorded 1.5 sacks. He improved his postseason career total to 4.5 sacks, becoming the organization's first player with at least four career postseason sacks since individual sacks became an official statistic in 1982.

In 2020, Landry recorded 16 starts for the second consecutive season. He led the team with 5.5 sacks, a then-career-high 32 quarterback pressures and a then-career-high 10 tackles for loss. He totaled 69 tackles and added one interception and a career-high five passes defensed. In one playoff contest, he led the team with 10 tackles and two sacks.

Landry started all 16 games in 2019 and led the Titans with nine sacks. His 28 quarterback pressures ranked second, and he added 81 tackles, four tackles for loss, one pass defensed, one forced fumble and two fumble recoveries. He also started all three postseason games and registered a sack and a team-high eight quarterback pressures.

As a rookie in 2018, he played in 15 games with three starts. His 4.5 sacks tied for third place on the team, and he also tied for second on the defense with 18 quarterback pressures.

In 46 career games playing defensive end for Boston College, Landry totaled 160 tackles, 26 sacks, 47.5 tackles for loss, seven passes defensed, 10 forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and one interception. His 26 career sacks were exceeded in school history by only Mathias Kiwanuka (37.5 from 2002-05).

As a senior in 2017, Landry played and started eight games before a season-ending ankle injury ended his year. He finished second on the team with five sacks and totaled 38 tackles, 8.5 tackles for loss and two passes defensed.

In 2016, Landry set the school's single-season record with 16.5 sacks, which led the nation. He added seven forced fumbles, which also led the country, while his 22 tackles for loss ranked fifth nationally and ranked second all-time for the Eagles. His numerous honors included Walter Camp second-team All-America, AP second-team All-America and second-team All-ACC by the Atlantic Coast Sports Media Association and the league's head coaches.

He is a native of Spring Lake, N.C.

2022 Game Notes:

#31 • S KEVIN BYARD

5-11, 212, 7th Year, Middle Tennessee State
Click for complete bio

Safety Kevin Byard is in his seventh NFL season in 2022. He was selected by the Titans in the third round (64th overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft.

Byard is one of the team's most accomplished defenders and is among the NFL's most successful safeties in recent years. He finished the 2021 campaign as a three-time team captain, two-time Pro Bowl selection and a two-time Associated Press first-team All-Pro. Since entering the league, he has been a part of six consecutive winning seasons and four playoff berths.

Byard did not miss a game from 2016 through 2021, totaling 97 games in the regular season and seven postseason games. At the conclusion of 2021, his 88 consecutive starts in the regular season was the leading current streak among all Titans players, ranked first in the NFL among defenders, and was the sixth-longest active streak among all players.

Over a five-year period from 2017 through 2021, Byard led all safeties with 23 interceptions. The only players with more interceptions in that time were cornerbacks Xavien Howard (27) and J.C. Jackson (25). His interception total was 11th on the franchise's all-time list and sixth among all Titans/Oilers safeties.

In 2021, Byard was announced as a starter to his second career Pro Bowl and earned first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors for the second time in his career. He joined Bruce Matthews (1999–2000) and Albert Haynesworth (2007–2008) as the franchise's only players in its "Titans era" (since 1999) to earn multiple first-team AP All-Pro honors.

Byard led the Titans in 2021 with five interceptions and 88 tackles, becoming the franchise's first player to lead the team in tackles and interceptions in the same season since the team began tracking individual tackle statistics in 1974. It was his second consecutive season to lead the club in tackles and the fourth time in his career he was the interceptions leader. Additionally, his 13 passes defended ranked second on the team and made up the highest total among NFL safeties. He also was credited with one sack, two quarterback pressures, one tackle for loss, two forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and his first two career touchdowns—one on a fumble return and one on an interception return. He was the first Titans player with two defensive touchdowns in the same season since linebacker Zach Brown in 2012.

In 2020, Byard was a defensive team captain for the second consecutive season and the team's Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year nominee. His 111 tackles led the team and established a career high. Additionally, he registered one interception, seven passes defended, two quarterback pressures, one tackle for loss and one forced fumble. In one playoff game he produced five tackles, one pass defended and a quarterback pressure.

From 2017 through 2019, no NFL player had more interceptions than Byard, who had 17. His 2019 totals included a team-leading five interceptions, 10 passes defended, 91 tackles, one quarterback pressure and two tackles for loss. In three postseason games, he added 20 tackles and one interception.

In 2018, Byard finished with a team-leading four interceptions, 10 passes defended, 96 tackles and two sacks. He also completed a touchdown pass on a memorable fake punt to help defeat the Houston Texans (Sept. 16).

Byard experienced a breakthrough second-year season in 2017. He was named to the Pro Bowl and earned first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors after tying Detroit's Darius Slay for the NFL lead with eight interceptions. He added a pair of fumble recoveries to pace the league with 10 total takeaways.

As a rookie in 2016, Byard played in every game, starting the final seven contests at free safety. His 63 tackles were the most by a Titans rookie safety since Tank Williams' 69 tackles in 2002. He also ranked second on the squad with 10 special teams tackles.

During a four-year career at Middle Tennessee State University, he appeared in 49 games and notched 46 starts at safety while becoming one of the most prolific defenders in school history. He set school records with 19 career interceptions, 377 interception return yards and four interception returns for touchdowns, and he finished sixth in MTSU history with 312 career tackles. In total, he had a hand in 25 turnovers (19 interceptions, five forced fumbles and one fumble recovery) during his career and added 17 career passes defended and five tackles for loss. He was twice named first-team All-Conference USA.

As a senior in 2015, Byard appeared in 12 games with nine starts as a permanent team captain and was named first-team All-Conference USA for the second consecutive year. He ranked fourth on the team with 66 tackles and led the squad with four interceptions and six additional pass breakups.

The Lithonia, Ga., native set a career high in college with six interceptions as a junior and forced to fumbles the same season.

2022 Game Notes:

- Against New York Giants (9/11), led the team with 12 tackles.
- At Buffalo (9/19), finished second on the team with seven tackles.
- Against Las Vegas (9/25), credited with four tackles and one interception in his 100th regular-season game in the NFL. Recorded his first interception of 2022 in the fourth quarter, picking off a Derek Carr pass in the end zone and racing 24 yards on the return. With his 24th career interception, he tied Zeke Moore (24) for 10th place on the all-time franchise interception list. With 24 interceptions in his first 100 career games, he recorded the third-highest total among Titans/Oilers players since 1970 in a player's first 100 career games. Only Cris Dishman (26) and Mike Reinfeldt (25) had more.
- At Indianapolis (10/2), posted six tackles and helped limit the Colts to 38 rushing yards.
- At Washington (10/9), finished second on the team with eight tackles.
- Against Indianapolis (10/23), tallied four tackles.
- At Houston (10/30), tied for third place on the team with four tackles.
- At Kansas City (11/6), led the team with 12 total tackles.
- Against Denver (11/13), posted three tackles.
- At Green Bay (11/17), tied for second on the team with six total tackles.
- Against Cincinnati (11/27), finished second on the defense with seven tackles.
- At Philadelphia (12/4), tied for the team lead with seven total tackles. He registered his 100th consecutive start at safety, joining five other NFL players who entered the week with active streaks of 100 or more starts (Jake Matthews, Jason Kelce, Charles Leno Jr., Devin McCourty and quarterback Tom Brady). Byard joined linebacker Keith Bulluck (127 consecutive starts) and tackle Michael Roos (119) as the franchise's only players to start 100 consecutive games in the team's "Titans era," which began in 1999.
- Against Jacksonville (12/11), posted three tackles and tied for the team lead with two passes defended.

Long snapper Morgan Cox is in his 13th NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2022. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 19, 2021.

In 2021, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties in all 17 regular season games and one postseason game. He helped kicker Randy Bullock finish ninth in franchise history with 120 points in a single season, including three game-winning field goals (Sept. 19 at Seattle, Oct. 31 at Indianapolis and Dec. 23 against San Francisco). He also snapped for punter Brett Kern, who had the league's third-best ratio of punts inside the 20 to touchbacks (18:1).

In his first 11 seasons, Cox appeared in 165 regular season games for the Baltimore Ravens, serving as the team's primary long snapper after entering the NFL as an undrafted free agent in 2010. He was selected to four Pro Bowls and was a part of five playoff teams in Baltimore, totaling 10 postseason games played.

In 2020, he earned his fourth career Pro Bowl selection. He helped kicker Justin Tucker record his fifth consecutive season with at least 130 points, tying the NFL record of consecutive seasons with 130-plus points. Tucker connected on 26 of 29 field goals (89.7 percent) and was 52 of 53 on extra points (98.1 percent). Cox also snapped on all 51 of Sam Koch's 51 punts, as Koch was the NFL's only punter to place at least 20 punts (22) inside in the 20-yard line and have no more than one touchback.

A native of Collierville, Tenn., Cox played 38 games in three seasons (2007-09) as the primary long snapper at the University of Tennessee.

#14 • K RANDY BULLOCK

5-9, 210, 11th Year, Texas A&M

Click for complete bio

Kicker Randy Bullock is in his 11th NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2022. He was added to the practice squad on Sept. 11, 2021 and promoted to the 53-man roster four days later.

Bullock appeared in 16 games during the 2021 regular season. He made 26 field goals on 31 attempts (83.9 percent) and added 42 extra points on 45 attempts (93.3 percent). His 120 points ranked ninth in franchise history and were the most by a Titans player since Ryan Succop scored 136 points in 2017. He totaled a career-high three game-winning field goals: Sept. 19 at Seattle, Oct. 31 at Indianapolis and Dec. 23 against San Francisco. Bullock's 42 extra points tied for seventh in franchise annals. Additionally, he made one field goal and one extra point in the team's divisional playoff contest.

Prior to joining the Titans, Bullock appeared in 107 games over nine seasons with the Houston Texans (2012-15), New York Jets (2015), New York Giants (2016), Pittsburgh Steelers (2016) and Cincinnati Bengals (2016-20). He also had a stint with the Detroit Lions during the 2021 offseason.

Through his first nine seasons, he connected on 168 of 202 field goal attempts (83.2 percent) and 215 of 225 extra points (95.6 percent).

In 2020, he played in 12 games for the Bengals and made 21 of 26 field goal attempts and 24 of 25 extra point attempts.

In 2017, he registered a career-best rate of 90 percent on field goals (18 of 20) and also was 31 of 33 on extra point chances.

In four seasons at Texas A&M (2008-11), he set school records for total points (365), field goals (63) and extra points (176). As a senior in 2011, he was named first-team All-American and won the Lou Groza Award for college football's best placekicker.

2022 Game Notes:

- Against N.Y. Giants (9/11), made field goals in the second quarter of 46 yards and 23 yards and missed in the fourth quarter from 47 yards. He made each of his extra point attempts.
- At Buffalo (9/19), made his only extra point attempt.
- Against Las Vegas (9/25), made a 48-yard field goal as time expired in the first half and also made all three of his extra point attempts.
- At Indianapolis (10/2), made his only field goal attempt, a 44-yarder in the second quarter, and made all three of his extra point attempts.
- At Washington (10/9), made all three of his extra point attempts.
- Against Indianapolis (10/23), made all four field goal attempts and his only extra point attempt. He made field goals from 27, 28, 38 and 48 yards. The four field goals tied his high since joining the Titans in 2021 (four at Seattle on Sept. 19, 2021). It was his sixth career game with four or more field goals. On his second field goal of the game, he reached 200 career field goals, becoming the 10th active NFL kicker to reach the mark. He was named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week.
- At Houston (10/30), made one of his two field goal attempts, connecting from 29 yards in the fourth quarter. He also made both of his extra point attempts.
- At Kansas City (11/6), made his only field goal attempt—a 44-yarder in the third quarter—as well as both of his extra point attempts.
- Against Denver (11/13), made a 35-yard field goal in the fourth quarter and connected on both of his extra point attempts.
- At Green Bay (11/17) and against Cincinnati (11/27), he was inactive with a calf injury.
- At Philadelphia (12/4), returned to action after missing two games with an injury. He made a 36-yard field goal in the second quarter and was successful on his only extra point attempt in the first quarter.
- Against Jacksonville (12/11), made his two extra point attempts.

#4 • P RYAN STONEHOUSE

5-10, 193, Rookie, Colorado State

Click for complete bio

Punter Ryan Stonehouse was signed by the Titans as a rookie free agent on May 13, 2022.

Stonehouse appeared in 53 games over five seasons at Colorado State (2017-21) and set an NCAA career record with a 47.8-yard gross punting average. His career totals included 244 punts for 11,656 yards with 91 punts inside the 20. He totaled 106 punts of 50-plus yards and became the first player in Colorado State history to log 11,000 punting yards in a career.

During his final college season in 2021, Stonehouse appeared in 12 games and averaged 50.9 yards per attempt on 58 punts, including a career-long 81-yard punt. He placed 27 punts inside the 20-yard line and totaled 32 punts of 50-plus yards en route to being named a second-team All-Mountain West selection and a Ray Guy Award semifinalist.

He is a native of La Verne, Calif.

2022 Game Notes:

➤ Against New York Giants (9/11), made his NFL debut and punted six times for a 57.0-yard gross average and a 46.7-yard net average. He placed three of his punts inside the 20. In franchise history, his 57.0-yard gross punting average ranked fifth for a single game (minimum four punts). In the fourth quarter, he posted a 66-yard punt, which was the longest punt for the Titans since Brett Kern booted a 66-yarder at Denver on Sept. 14, 2020. Stonehouse also registered a 54-yard punt on his first career attempt in the first quarter and launched a 62-yard punt in the third quarter to help pin the Giants on their 10-yard line.

➤ At Buffalo (9/19), totaled six punts for a 55.5-yard average and a 45.3-yard net average with two punts placed inside the 20. He registered a 64-yard punt in the fourth quarter. For the second consecutive week to begin his career, he delivered one of the organization's top-10 single-game gross punting averages (minimum four punts). His 55.5-yard gross average at Buffalo was the franchise's eighth-best number in a single contest.

➤ Against Las Vegas (9/25), punted three times for a 60.3-yard average and a 49.3-yard net average. He did not meet the minimum of four attempts required to qualify for single-game records. His 70-yard punt in the fourth quarter was the Titans' first punt of 70-plus yards since Brett Kern's 70-yarder at Cleveland on Sept. 8, 2019. In his first three NFL games, he became the first punter in NFL history to record three consecutive games with a punting average of at least 55.0 yards in each game and at least two punts in each game. Twelve previous players had reached the mark in two consecutive contests.

➤ At Indianapolis (10/2), punted four times for a 52.8-yard average and a 47.8-yard net average, including a long punt of 57 yards.

➤ At Washington (10/9), punted eight times for a 52.0-yard gross average and a 48.4-yard net average with four punts placed inside the 20. His 48.4-yard net average ranked 11th in franchise history for a single game and ranked third in team annals for a player who attempted at least eight punts in a game. He booted a 66-yard punt to Washington's 15-yard line during the second quarter.

➤ Against Indianapolis (10/23), punted three times for a 54.7-yard average and a 39.0-yard net average. He logged his sixth consecutive game to begin his career with a punting average of at least 52.0 yards.

➤ At Houston (10/30), averaged 48.8 yards (40.8 net) on five punts with four punts placed inside the 20.

➤ At Kansas City (11/6), punted eight times for a 48.8-yard gross average (41.4 net) with two punts placed inside the 20. In the second quarter, he booted a 57-yard punt to the Chiefs' three-yard line. In the fourth quarter, he helped flip the field in the fourth quarter with a 63-yard punt.

➤ Against Denver (11/13), punted eight times for a 54.0-yard gross average and a 47.3-yard net average with three punts placed inside the 20. He pinned the Broncos inside their own 10-yard line three times in the first quarter: first on the four-yard line with a 64-yard punt, then on the six-yard line with a 38-yard punt, and finally on the eight-yard line with a 42-yard punt. In the second quarter, he booted a 74-yard punt, his longest punt through nine NFL games. It was the Titans' longest punt since Brett Kern's 74-yarder against Cincinnati on Nov. 12, 2017. He was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week, becoming the franchise's first rookie punter to earn the honor.

➤ At Green Bay (11/17), averaged 50.7 yards (36.7 net average) on three punts with one punt placed inside the 20.

➤ Against Cincinnati (11/27), averaged 53.8 gross yards (43.8 net) on five punts with two punts placed inside the 20. In the third quarter, he booted a 71-yard punt for a touchback, which was his third punt of the season that went at least 70 yards. He recorded his ninth performance of the season with an average of at least 50.0 yards per punt, which surpassed Brett Kern's eight such games in 2012 for the franchise's most total games in a single season with a 50.0-yard gross punting average.

➤ At Philadelphia (12/4), punted seven times for a 57.3-yard gross average and a 42.3-yard net average with one punt placed inside the 20. His 57.3-yard gross average established a career high through 12 games and qualified as the fifth-best single-game punting average in franchise history. It also ranked second in NFL history by a player with at least seven punts in a game behind only Houston's Shane Lechler at Arizona on Nov. 10, 2013 (58.9-yard average on seven punts). In the fourth quarter, he pinned the Eagles on their four-yard line with a 61-yard punt.

➤ Against Jacksonville (12/11), averaged 50.0 yards (43.3 net) on three punts and added a tackle on special teams. He registered his 11th game of 2022 in which he averaged 50.0 yards per punt, surpassing Shane Lechler (10 games in 2009), Thomas Morstead (2012), Corey Bojorquez (2020) and A.J. Cole III (2021) for the most games with a 50.0-yard average in a season in NFL history.

TITANS PODCASTS

The OTP: Official Titans Podcast

Hosted by Mike Keith and Amie Wells, The OTP features contributions from TennesseeTitans.com senior writer/editor Jim Wyatt, Titans Radio analyst Dave McGinnis and various Titans players and guests each week.

Titans Amie and Coach Mac Podcast

Amie Wells and Dave McGinnis talk all things football, with a perspective and roster of special guests only Coach Mac can bring following 30+ years of coaching in the NFL. New episodes every Friday.

Titans Talk with Cason

"Hey Kids... Titans Talk with Cason" originally began in 2019 as "Sports Talk with Cason," when then 11-year old die-hard Titans fan, Cason Romero, began his own podcast, with the help of his mom, Carrie. In 2021, Cason's podcast became a member of the Official Titans Podcast Network. New episodes every Wednesday.

TITANS RADIO

Titans Radio brings football to fans across the Mid-South in one of the NFL's largest radio networks, including Nashville flagship 104.5 The Zone. Play-by-play announcer Mike Keith connection with pro football across the Mid-South dates back to 1996, a year before the Oilers arrived in Tennessee, and he became the "Voice of the Titans" in 1999. Former Titans assistant coach and NFL head coach Dave McGinnis began serving as Titans Radio's color analyst in 2017, while Titans Radio gameday host Rhett Bryan's involvement with the broadcast dates back to 1997. Amie Wells has been reporting on the sidelines since 2018.
