TITANS TRAVEL TO GREEN BAY FOR THURSDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL

Tennessee Titans (6-3) at Green Bay Packers (4-6)

Thursday, Nov. 17, 2022 • 7:15 p.m. CST • Lambeau Field • Green Bay, Wis. • TV: Prime Video & WTVF-5

NASHVILLE — The Tennessee Titans (6-3) travel to Green Bay this week to face the Packers (4-6) in primetime for the second time in three seasons. Kickoff at historic Lambeau Field (capacity 81,041) is scheduled for 7:15 p.m. CST on Thursday, Nov. 17.

The Titans and Packers last met on a snowy Sunday night at Lambeau Field on Dec. 27, 2020. The Packers prevailed 40-14 to narrow the Titans' all-time lead in the series to 7-6. Although the Titans are 4-3 all-time at Green Bay, they are in search of their first victory there since 2004.

THE BROADCAST

The contest will be streamed on Prime Video. In Nashville, fans can watch over the air on WTVF NewsChannel 5. The broadcast team includes play-by-play announcer Al Michaels, analyst Kirk Herbstreit and reporter Kaylee Hartung.

On phones and tablets, the newly-launched NFL+ subscription service offers access to all local games and all primetime games, live local and national audio for every NFL game, and more.

The Titans Radio Network and Nashville flagship 104.5 The Zone carry all Titans games across the Mid-South with the "Voice of the Titans" Mike Keith, analyst Dave McGinnis, sideline reporter Amie Wells and gameday host Rhett Bryan.

Additionally, Westwood One Sports will broadcast the game to a national radio audience. Play-by-play announcer Kevin Kugler and analyst Ben Leber have the call.

TITANS WIN FOR SIXTH TIME IN SEVEN GAMES

The Titans hosted the Denver Broncos last week, and after falling behind 10-0 in the first half, they scored the game's final 17 points to win 17-10. For the third consecutive season, they have won at least six times in their first nine games.

The Titans defense kept the Broncos off the scoreboard in the second half, totaled six sacks, and got a game-clinching interception by cornerback Terrance Mitchell in the final 20 seconds of the fourth quarter. The six sacks were the most in the regular season since Mike Vrabel became head coach in 2018, and the performance gave the defense six consecutive games with three or more sacks, which is the franchise's longest such streak since 1979.

After missing two games with an ankle injury, quarterback Ryan Tannehill returned to the starting lineup and passed for 255 yards and a pair of touchdowns to wide receiver Nick Westbrook-Ikhine. Tannehill now has more wins—35 in the regular season and 37 including playoffs—than any other Titans/Oilers starting quarterback in his first four seasons with the organization.

Westbrook-Ikhine registered a career-high 119 receiving yards on five catches while notching his first career two-touchdown game.

THE PACKERS

After a three-game road swing, the Packers were back home last week to host the Dallas Cowboys. Despite a 14-point deficit in the fourth quarter, they rallied to send the game to overtime and then used a 28-yard field goal in the extra period to clinch a 31-28 victory. It ended the Packers' five-game losing streak.

Packers quarterback Aaron Rodgers is the reigning Associated Press Most Valuable Player. He secured the league's top honor in 2021 for the fourth time in his career and for the second consecutive year. Only Peyton Manning (five) has more league MVP awards in NFL history than Rodgers. In 2022, Rodgers has passed for 2,315 yards and 17 touchdowns with seven interceptions.

Green Bay is led by head coach Matt LaFleur, who was hired to his current post in 2019 after spending the 2018 season as Titans offensive coordinator under head coach Mike Vrabel. In his first three seasons at the helm, LaFleur guided Green Bay to three NFC North titles and 39 wins in the regular season—the most in NFL history by a coach in his first three campaigns.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR THIS WEEK

THE TITANS DEFENSE

- Enters the week with a streak of six consecutive games with at least three sacks. A seventh straight game with three or more sacks would be the franchise's longest streak within a season since a seven-game run in 1976.
- Enters the week with a streak of seven consecutive games with at least one interception. An eighth straight game with an interception would be the team's longest streak since it had eight consecutive games with at least one interception in 2010.

DL DENICO AUTRY

Needs two sacks to match his career high of nine sacks in a season (2018 and 2021).

S KEVIN BYARD

With 24 career interceptions, he needs one interception to tie Michael Griffin and Ken Houston (25) for eighth place all-time for the franchise. He would tie Griffin for the most interceptions for the franchise during its "Titans era" (1999–present).

DE MARIO EDWARDS JR.

Can record his third consecutive game with at least one sack.

RB DERRICK HENRY

- Needs 77 rushing yards (923 in 2022) for his fourth career season to reach 1,000.
- > Can record his 34th career 100-yard rushing game, including regular season (31) and playoffs (three).
- Can register his fifth consecutive road game with at least 100 rushing yards.
- Needs one rushing touchdown to reach 10 for the season and join LaDainian Tomlinson (nine), Adrian Peterson (seven), Shaun Alexander (five) and Michael Turner (five) as the only players in NFL history to rush for at least 10 touchdowns in five consecutive seasons.

QB RYAN TANNEHILL

- Can record his 25th career 300-yard passing game and his ninth such performance since joining the Titans in 2019. Nine 300-yard games with the Titans would put him ahead of Marcus Mariota (eight) for fourth place in franchise history.
- Can record his fifth consecutive start with no interceptions, which would be the longest streak of his career. It would be the longest streak by a Titans starting quarterback since Marcus Mariota's seven straight games from 2018 to 2019.

DE DeMARCUS WALKER

Can record his fourth consecutive game with at least one sack.

WR ROBERT WOODS

➤ Needs six receptions (594 career) to reach 600 career receptions.

SERIES HISTORY

There have been only 13 all-time matchups between the Titans and Packers.

The last time the Titans and Packers last clashed at Lambeau Field was Sunday night, Dec. 27, 2020, a day in which the temperature at kickoff was 28 degrees and a layer of snow blanketed the turf. Packers quarterback Aaron Rodgers was unfazed, passing for 231 yards and four touchdowns, including three touchdown passes to wide receiver Davante Adams. Rookie running back A.J. Dillon added 124 rushing yards and two scores, and the Packers rolled to a 40-14 finish.

The Titans, who hold a 7-6 advantage in the series, have won the only three meetings that have been played at Nissan Stadium, including the most recent game on Nov. 13, 2016. The Titans won by a final score of 47-25, tying for the 11th best single-game point total in Titans/Oilers history and recording the club's biggest output since a 47-point outing versus the St. Louis Rams on Dec. 13, 2009. Titans quarterback Marcus Mariota threw for 295 yards, four touchdowns and no interceptions (149.8 passer rating) in the win.

On Nov. 2, 2008, the two clubs went to overtime in a memorable tilt in Nashville. Rob Bironas made a 41-yard field goal in overtime to give the Titans the win after hitting the upright on a 47-yard attempt at the end of regulation.

Overall, each team has fared slightly better on the road than at home against the other, with the Titans owning a 4-3 record at Lambeau Field and the Packers building a 3-3 record at Houston/Tennessee. The trend began with the first ever Oilers-Packers game on Nov. 19, 1972, three seasons into the NFL-AFL merger. In that game, played at the Houston Astrodome, the Packers won 23-10.

The two clubs have played nearly as many times in the preseason as the regular season. In 12 matchups, the Titans lead the preseason series 8-4.

TITANS-PACKERS: THE LAST MEETING

Regular Season Week 11: Titans at Packers

Week 16: Titans 14, Packers 40 Sunday, Dec. 27, 2020 • 7:20 p.m. CT • Lambeau Field

In Week 16 of the 2020 season, the Titans traveled to Green Bay to face the Packers on Sunday Night Football and lost by a score of 40-14.

Green Bay got on the board on their opening possession and never relinquished the lead. Packers QB Aaron Rodgers led his team on an eight-play, 60-yard scoring drive that culminated in a five-yard touchdown pass to Packers WR Davante Adams, but the extra point attempt was no good as Green Bay took a 6-0 lead.

Green Bay extended the lead in the second quarter with touchdowns on back-to-back possessions. First, Rodgers guided the Packers on an 80-yard drive that ended with a 21-yard touchdown pass to Packers WR Equanimeous St. Brown. Green Bay elected to attempt a two-point conversion, but the rush was unsuccessful, 12-0. On the ensuing Titans possession, QB Ryan Tannehill was intercepted and Green Bay took possession at the Tennessee 34-yard line. The Packers capitalized on the turnover as Rodgers connected with Adams for a seven-yard touchdown and a 19-0 lead.

Later in the second quarter, the Titans got on the board after a 10-play scoring drive. WR A.J. Brown caught two first-down passes to help move the chains before Tannehill threw a 12-yard touchdown to TE Jonnu Smith to make it 19-7.

Tennessee began the second half with possession of the ball and quickly doubled their points scored with a five-play scoring drive. Tannehill threw a first-down pass to Brown before taking the ball into the end zone himself with a 45-yard touchdown rush. The Titans cut into Green Bay's lead, 19-14. However, the Packers immediately responded with a touchdown on their next possession. Packers RB Aaron Jones broke free for a 59-yard gain to set up an eight-yard touchdown pass from Rodgers to Adams as Green Bay extended the lead, 26-14. Later in the third quarter, Green Bay added another score on a 74-yard scoring drive. Facing a fourth-and-one at the Tennessee 30-yard line, Packers RB AJ Dillon took the ball into the end zone for a 30-yard rushing touchdown to give Green Bay a 33-14 advantage.

In the fourth quarter, the Packers tacked on a final touchdown as Dillon found the end zone for a seven-yard touchdown to make it a 40-14 game and hand the Titans a road loss in Green Bay.

finished the regular season with 13 wins three times on its way to three NFC North crowns and two NFC championship game appearances. LaFleur became the first coach in NFL history to post 13-plus wins in three straight seasons and his 39 wins from 2019-21 passed George Seifert (38) for the most wins by an NFL head coach in his first three seasons in the league.

In 2021, Green Bay earned the No. 1 seed, finishing with a 13-4 record. For the second consecutive season under LaFleur, and the fourth time overall, quarterback Aaron Rodgers was named the NFL's Most Valuable Player. He led the league with a passer rating of 111.9. Wide receiver Davante Adams set new single-season team records for receptions (123) and receiving yards (1,553) and became the first player in team history with three 100-catch seasons (2018, 2020-21)

In 2020, LaFleur led Green Bay to a 13-3 record and an NFC North title, while also earning the NFC's No. 1 seed for the first time since 2011. LaFleur was the sixth head coach since 1970 to lead his team to the conference championship game in both of his first two seasons as a head coach. The Packers led the NFL with 509 points, the second-highest total in team history (560 in 2011). Rodgers was named the NFL's Most Valuable Player after leading the NFL with a 121.5 passer rating, the second-highest single-season mark by a quarterback in NFL history behind only his 122.5 rating in 2011. Rodgers also led the league in passing touchdowns (team-record 48), completion percentage (team-record 70.7) and interception percentage (0.95), the first quarterback to lead the NFL in all four categories since Steve Young in 1992.

In LaFleur's first year leading the team in 2019, Green Bay finished the regular season with a 13-3 record on its way to an NFC North crown and the No. 2 seed in the NFC as he became just the fifth coach in league history to win 13plus games in his first season as a head coach. He guided the Packers to their biggest one-year win improvement in club history (plus-seven wins) and became the first head coach to lead Green Bay to the playoffs in his first season, falling one game short of the Super Bowl.

LaFleur played quarterback at Saginaw Valley State (2000-02) after transferring from Western Michigan where he played from 1998-99.

Following his college career, LaFleur played in the National Indoor Football League for the Omaha Beef in 2003 and the Billings Outlaws in 2004.

- > Packers head coach Matt LaFleur was the Titans offensive coordinator for one season (2018) under head coach Mike Vrabel. LaFleur was given playcalling duties for the first time in his career in Tennessee, as the Titans finished 9-7. Running back Derrick Henry led the offense with 1,059 rushing yards, which ranked second in the AFC and seventh in the NFL. Under LaFleur's tutelage Henry logged his first career 1,000-yard season and his 12 rushing touchdowns ranked third in the NFL. LaFleur departed for Green Bay early in the 2019 offseason.
- > Packers defensive backs coach and passing game coordinator Jerry Gray played for the Houston Oilers in 1992. Gray also would later spend two seasons as defensive quality control coach (1997-98) and a pair of seasons as defensive backs coach (1999-2000) during the organization's first four seasons in Tennessee. Gray returned to the Titans after a decade away, when he became the team's defensive coordinator from 2011 to 2013.

LAST WEEK VS. THE BRONCOS

Week 10: Titans 17, Broncos 10 Sunday, Nov. 13, 2022 • 12:00 p.m. CT • Nissan Stadium

In Week 10 of the 2022 season, the Titans hosted the Broncos and won by a score of 17-10. The defense recorded six sacks, the highest total during Head Coach Mike Vrabel's tenure, and allowed Denver to convert only four of their 17 third-down attempts (23.5 percent). Tennessee did not allow the Broncos to run a single red zone play.

Denver got on the board first and pulled ahead to a 10-0 lead. First, Broncos QB Russell Wilson led his team on an 80-yard scoring drive that resulted in a 66-yard touchdown pass to Broncos WR Jalen Virgil, 7-0.

Later in the second quarter, Denver constructed a nine-play scoring drive that included a 17-yard first-down pass from Wilson to Broncos WR Courtland Sutton. Ultimately, Denver was forced to settle for a field goal as Broncos K Brandon McManus converted a 39-yard attempt for a 10-0 lead.

However, the Titans put together a scoring drive of their own on the ensuing possession. QB Ryan Tannehill connected with WRs Robert Woods and Nick Westbrook-lkhine for first-down passes and added an 11-yard first-down rush to move the sticks. The drive culminated in a nine-yard touchdown pass from Tannehill to Westbrook-Ikhine to cut Denver's lead to 10-7 heading into halftime.

Tennessee took the lead in the third quarter and never relinquished it. First, a threeplay, 80-yard scoring drive saw the Titans pull ahead. RB Derrick Henry rushed for two yards, WR Treylon Burks caught a 15-yard ball, and then Tannehill hit Westbrook-lkhine on a flea flicker for a 63-yard touchdown as Tennessee took a 14-10 lead.

In the fourth quarter, the Titans tacked on another score as a 10-play scoring possession culminated in a 35-yard field goal by K Randy Bullock, 17-10. The Tennessee defense shut out the Broncos in the second half, allowing the Titans to preserve the lead and seal a win at home.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

Regular Season Week 11: Titans at Packers

SUNDAY, NOV. 13, 2022

HEAD COACH MIKE VRABEL

How key was it to have the defense register six sacks?

It was absolutely huge. For us to go out there and keep battling in all three phases, they never quit. They tried to pick each other up and support each other. When the offense needed a play, the defense was able to come and help. When we made a mistake on offense or we gave up a touchdown on defense, we needed a drive offensively, we needed a big play, our special teams kept us in there and did a great job with field position.

What was the key to registering six sacks without linebackers Bud Dupree and Zach Cunningham?

They probably weren't at 100 percent either. That is how it goes in this league. I know that those guys took advantage of their opportunities. DeMarcus (Walker), Mario (Edwards Jr.), Denico (Autry) and the whole crew played relentless. We were able to get the stop there at the end on fourth down. They battled and they had them running and scrambling.

Has the flea flicker play been in the playbook for awhile or was it added this week?

Some of those you just try to carry and try hit at the right time.

What were the keys to the wide receivers having a productive day?

We just did enough to win the game. There will be a lot of things that we'll have to take a look in all three phases. To be able determine that right now, I don't know if that's fair to anybody. We make sure that when we throw it that we have time to throw, it starts there. It starts with the ability to protect the quarterback. The quarterback making great decisions. Then guys going to make plays. I can't really answer that. I can't honestly answer that right now just coming off the game, being where I was on the sidelines. I thought we had some plays that we made. I'm sure we left some out there.

How important was it to have a productive passing day given they were able to try and stifle running back Derrick Henry?

We had some big plays. Every week everybody is intent on stopping Derrick (Henry). That can go for next Thursday, the Sunday after that and the Sunday after that. We have to get him going. That is obvious. Today was tough sledding. We have to get the back going in unison with the line, make good decisions and all those things.

On if quarterback Ryan Tannehill loosened up as the game went on and found his flow?

I thought he hit some big throws. I thought the throw to Chig (Okonkwo) was a great throw. He layered it. (Austin) Hooper had the penalty and then came back and had the big third-down conversion. That is an example that we try to show the guys, 'Yeah, we would have loved not to flinch there.' But he came back and caught it, broke a couple of tackles and got a first down. That's the message that we always try to send is, 'You're going to make a mistake. Get back centered and try to figure out a way to go make it right.'

What went wrong on the fumble?

We fumbled it. It is critical that we take care of football. That's what went wrong. We just have to take care of the football.

What was it that led to eight rushing attempts in the first half given the rushing identity of this team?

How many plays did we have on offense in the first half? 16? There weren't too many. We were getting behind the chains. I know there were some three-and-outs. Even looking at the second half, we had a nine-yard gain, penalty, nine-yard gain. It was like we were just gaining nine yards in a run and then there was a penalty. We can be at our best if we could start to get in there and complement some runs and play passes. You just have to sustain some drives to be able to get that going. We'll keep looking at it.

How much did special teams help out in this win, punting in particular?

I've told you this for a while, that has got to be a strength of our team. I feel like we have the ability to be the best punt team in the NFL, the way that (Ryan) Stonehouse hits them, and guys are going down there. C.J. Board stepped up today. He got the opportunity to come and help us on special teams and drew a penalty. I noticed Tre Avery - guys get excited because they know the ball is going to be in the air for a long time and they can go down there. We knew that (Montrell) Washington wasn't going to fair catch them and there were going to be some opportunities for everybody to make some plays.

Was there a missed assignment on their long touchdown catch? We just need to get a guy over the top of them.

Is the team fortunate to win given the penalties accumulated and dropped passes?

We are always fortunate when we win.

What did you see that worked well on the two-minute drive that ended in a touchdown before the half ended?

Ryan (Tannehill) was decisive. We protected him. We got into a good flow. It started with Treylon (Burks) with a little catch-and-run where he just piled through there and was able to get the first down. He put his pads down. We had a penalty-free drive offensively. There are certainly some things that – just referencing calls. We lined up in the neutral zone however many times, jumped offsides. Those are things that we're not coaching, we're not encouraging. Those are things that, going against the elite teams in this league, will probably get you beat.

How much of a bonus is it to win a game where the team did not play their best in all aspects?

It was a long week. We went on the road last Sunday night. They laid it on the line and came up short in overtime on Sunday night. It took us a while to get over that. Then as guys continue to not be available, it felt like at least we were getting ready, and guys were excited to be able to play. That showed at certain times. We just needed to be there the entire time.

How much of a concern was it to not have kicker Randy Bullock

How much of a concern when you don't have your kicker 10 minutes before the game? A shit ton.

What was the status of Randy Bullock?

He wasn't available.

What was your impression of wide receiver Treylon Burks' return to action?

He had some inconsistency, but he was able to catch a couple of balls. We just have to continue to work him in there. You have to understand how this game is played. It is fast paced. He will continue to work on all the little things, communication with Ryan (Tannehill), how we're subbing him in, and all those little things. We're working him back in. It is just not going to be an every-snap thing.

What does the short week look like from here?

The coaches have tried to do a little bit of preparation on Green Bay. You have to. Hopefully the players can get some rest. We will be in working on our squad meeting tomorrow at 12:30 p.m. We have recovery with them. There is some research in the things that we try to do with them to get them recovered tomorrow and how we try to prepare to go on a short week.

Where do you plan to use wide receiver C.J. Board from here on out? Today it certainly was. I give Chase (Blackburn) and (Craig) Aukerman a lot of credit. They were excited to insert him in there when a player became unavailable. He did everything he could to take advantage of his opportunities as a returner and also given us some juice out there as a gunner. That is where it started and then we'll see where it progresses offensively.

QUARTERBACK RYAN TANNEHILL

How are you feeling?

I have felt better in my life, but the win tastes good. I'll tell you that much.

Did you feel like you were able to loosen up as the game went on?

I definitely didn't feel better, but things were ugly early. Guys hung with me and kept battling. We just found a way to start making some plays, take advantage of some looks that we were getting, and we made some big plays, especially there down the stretch when we needed to.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

At what point in the week did you feel like you would start this game? I was just kind of feeling it out as the week went on. It has been getting better up until today. I felt decent going about it into the week. Once we started practicing and moving around on a little bit, I had a pretty good feeling that things were going to work out.

Are you anxious to see how your ankle feels when you wake up tomorrow?

Yeah. It'll be interesting to see how I feel in the morning. Everything feels a little better when you win.

Do you feel players stepped up today for the team?

It was huge. Nick (Westbrook-Ikhine) made some plays getting that twominute drive going on the touchdown there at the end of half and on the other long touchdown. (Austin) Hooper made some big plays on third down. Chig (Okonkwo), that was a huge third down there at the end of the fourth quarter. It was something on the sideline that I talked to him about and we made a little adjustment, came back and were able to hit it. It is pretty cool whenever you make those sideline adjustments, talk through it with a young player like Chig (Okonkwo), who is coming on for us, and he goes out there and makes a huge play for.

Did you come into the game anticipating the flea flicker play being in the gameplan?

Yeah, that was part of the plan. There are a lot of plays in the plan, so you never know if it is going to get called or not. Todd (Downing) dialed it up right at the perfect time and guys executed. I had plenty of time to make the throw. Nick (Westbrook-Ikhine) did a good job on the outside.

Did you know as the game went on that the pass game would have to be there given how they limited running back Derrick Henry?

Yeah, no doubt. We had opportunities early in the passing game, I just wasn't good enough. We stuck with it. They were one upping us a lot in personnel. The run game was tough. I feel like we kept battling and were able to create a few runs and get some efficient runs which was good. There was going to be opportunities in the passing game, and we finally got things going and took advantage of them.

Can wide receiver Nick Westbrook-Ikhine's 100-yard day be a launching point for this receiving corps?

It was huge. You want to start stacking good performances. Those guys were doing a good job all game. They hung with me and started making plays there when I got them the ball as the game went on. A lot of good things to stack and build on from that group.

Did you test your ability to scramble before the scramble in-game today?

I definitely had not tested that, and it didn't feel too good. It was a necessity there, the pocket got muddy. Things were not clean downfield, and I was able to squirt out of there.

What kind of challenge will playing four days from now be?

No doubt it is challenge. It is a challenge each and every Thursday night game that comes around. We have to get past this one quickly. Get your body right and do everything we can. We only have a few days to heal up and knock out any soreness. We are all going to have to be diligent in our sleep, in our preparation, and in our healing. Just try to get as much work in as we can in the training room and in getting our bodies right. Then we can be ready to go on Thursday.

What was the issue on the fumble by quarterback Malik Willis?

I don't know exactly what happened. You would have to ask Malik (Willis). It was something that we practiced during the week, especially in that type of situation. Unfortunately, the ball went on the ground.

What will be the key to becoming more consistent throughout the game?

Consistency, you said it. We've done good things at times and did good things at times today. It just takes consistency from everybody, starting with me and then on down the line. We have got to be able to take advantage of plays when they when they come up and be consistent from the first drive to the end of the game.

How much of a morale boost is it to win a game like this where you did not play up to your full potential?

It is huge. I'm proud of those guys that came to play and were battling all game. They kept us in it when things weren't pretty offensively early. They kept us in the game. Then finally the offense started making some plays. I am proud of our guys and the way we battled. That is one thing I know about this team, we're going to go battle no matter what's going on, no matter how things are going on the field. We're going to stick together. We're going to keep battling and try to find a way to win. We were able to do that today.

Did you find out before the game that kicker Randy Bullock was injured?

I got that little birdie in my ear pregame like, 'Hey, you might be holding.' It was not the information you want to get in pregame. Randy (Bullock) was able to stick it out and make some kicks for us there on extra points and then on that field goal, crucial field goal, there at the end. He showed some toughness for us and battled it out. He came up big.

Did you think there was a chance of you kicking?

That is not going to happen. The only ever field goal attempt I have attempted in my life, it was my freshman year in college, and I drilled the left guard in the back of the head. It is not going to happen again.

RUNNING BACK DERRICK HENRY

Derrick, how good was it just to get out here and find a way to win

Yeah, a great win, a great team win. (We) stuck together through it and got a victory and you know that's always good. Everybody's always happy.

You like seeing the pass game step up like that? Because it was obvious that they were keying on you trying to keep you from running the ball all day.

Yeah, very happy of guys to be able to, you know, guys get up and catch some balls and make some big plays for us. Ryan (Tannehill) did a great job. Credit to those guys and just happy to see it all come together and just guys make some plays and some touchdowns.

How big was it for you guys when after the turnover the defense gets a stop and gives you an opportunity to go back down?

They have been playing lights out and play with full effort, relentless, and we've got to do our part and go out there and put points on the board. But (the) defense has been playing lights out.

You guys are that kind of find ways to win when you don't necessarily play your best, you feel like you're in that stage of the season where you've got to play better, even in the weeds, to be ready for what's coming in January?

Yeah, I think you've just got to continue to focus, continue to want get better as a team in all three phases and then just let everything come together and just keep stacking and trying to get better each and every day.

You have played this Thursday game before, what is the challenge coming off a Sunday and trying get ready to play now in four days?

I think you just watch the film on this game and get past it, and then do everything you need to get your body ready. Prepare all week, quick turn around and get ready for Thursday.

What was their defense doing to slow you down?

They just played well and had a lot of them in the box, and I've got to play better. No excuses, but I could have done a lot better than what I did. Just watch film, make corrections and learn from it.

You were in and out of the tent a couple of times. What was going on there?

I went to the bathroom.

The flea flicker, obvious that is something you guys had worked on when you...could you tell they bit on it and you could get a sense that maybe that you could hit a home run on that one?

When I saw it come up, I was hoping. I made a good toss to Ryan (Tannehill) and saw it was open, it was wide open and got a touchdown. Made a special

On that play, Nick Westbrook-Ikhine's eyes kind of lit up when that # play was first called. What was going through your mind when that play was first called?

Once I threw it, I looked, and it was wide open. Saw it was going to be a touchdown when he caught the ball. I mean, Nick (Westbrook-Ikhine) works hard and he loves his team and whatever he can (do to) help us win, and just happy for him. He was able to make some plays today.

Coach Vrabel talks about it all the time, we hear about the ton of players now out with injuries all through the season, but to be able to step up without some of those key starters tonight. What does that say just about the resiliency of this team?

We can't wait to get those guys back. I think the guys went in there and played hard and showed how hungry they are, how focused they are to details and how ready they are to make a play to help us win, and credit to those guys.

Ben Jones talked about the quick turnaround this week and he said a quick turnaround always been easier after a win. Why do you feel that way?

I mean, you lose and you know each other. It's hard to get over a loss, but when you win, you can make the corrections and move forward and get ready for the next one.

What happened on the play with Malik (Willis) on the fumble?

I mean, it was a bad exchange and I'm not really sure. I've got to watch the film, but you know just made a mistake and we will learn from it and get better at it.

SAFETY KEVIN BYARD

What can you say about this win today, with so many guys out?

Man, it was great, obviously. Didn't feel like we started the game the way that we wanted to. I don't feel like the energy was really there. It wasn't really detailed with what we were doing. And we gave the extra, on third down, that big play. But other than that, I feel like we really settled down especially the in the second half. Guys were battling their butts off. Obviously, we know that's what we're going to do. We're going to battle. But I just think going forward, especially on a short week in Green Bay, we just have to be a little bit tighter on our details.

With the offense struggling the way they were in the first half, how much did you guys take it upon yourselves to keep things in order?

Yeah, that's the way we've played all year. We know that we might not get 30 points, 20-something points. But we kind of play it calm every time, like no matter what happens, when a fumble happens, like when Malik (Willis) fumbled, we're like, 'So what? We've got to play ball.' We got a three-and-out. That was a huge draw for us. That might be the biggest job of the defense for us, during that game. But like I said, we're always going to battle. We're going to keep fighting. But I just felt like our details can just be a little bit better.

How about their final drive? How are you guys able to keep them out of the end zone?

Just practice in those situations. Always in practice, those two-minute drills. Make it to the sideline. Getting the calls. Make sure we're communicating. And obviously, those last couple of plays, during the timeouts, had to come to the sideline and get some small little details and figure it out. But like I said, guys just battling out there, man. Just what we do. We want to be the last team, or the last face on the field to go out there and win the game for the team.

With starters out and injuries everywhere, how have other guys have been able to just step up and step right in? You guys know that in the locker room, but explain how is that possible?

DeMarcus (Walker) has been playing all year. It's not like he hasn't played. So, all these guys have played. They've been in the defense. It's not like they're new guys just getting started. Kind of like a team early in the year, they've been here and they've been making plays. But guys go down. That's opportunity for another guy. That's the way this league goes. So, you have to be happy for a guy that takes advantage of his opportunities. That's the way we play ball. I'm happy for those guys.

DEFENSIVE LINEMAN DEMARCUS WALKER

Six sacks on Russell (Wilson) today by this defense. What does that say about what you guys were able to do?

We just have to keep going, man. It was definitely good to get Russ (Russell Wilson), but now we've got big A-Rod (Aaron Rodgers). Go for him next week. Now we've got to get him.

You guys have been doing it, replacing players week in and week out, and not missing a beat. Can you explain that?

We work hard, man. This team definitely competes. Everyone is running around each other, so this is – it's just definitely for real. I'm at a loss for words right now. Oh man, Naquan (Jones) stepped up. A lot of people got (inaudible) everyone just stepped up and played together.

TIGHT END CHIG OKONKWO

Nick (Westbrook-Ikhine) had a monster day, today. He's the ultimate team guy. Does everything right. How good is it to see him get in there?

It's awesome. I like seeing a guy like that who works so hard. To come from the bottom and work so hard, and just keep going. Despite what people say, just seeing him come out here. That big play going into the second half, giving us points. That was huge. Coming back and making another play to put us ahead. I'm just really proud of him and I'm very appreciative of having a teammate like him. He doesn't get mad when he doesn't get the ball. He's always blocking. He's very willing to do anything you ask him to do. So, seeing him come out here today and make big plays and shine, I'm very excited for him.

How good was it to have Ryan (Tannehill) back out there with you guys?

Huge. It was huge having your quarterback out there who commands the offense. When he's back there, he commands it. We're very comfortable with him and so it's very good to have him back.

It was the first time that you guys had lost since September, last Sunday night. What does this do for, A, bounce back purposes, and B, you guys have a short week this week?

Man, it definitely is good going into the short week with a win. And Coach (Mike) Vrabel said, this game was a game for us to get back on track, and I think that's we did.

Regular Season Week 11: Titans at Packers

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 2022

WHAT TO LOOK FOR - TEAM

- The Titans have had a winning record each season since 2016, when general manager Jon Robinson arrived in Tennessee. The Titans went 9-7 each year from 2016 to 2019, achieved an 11-5 finish in 2020, and then earned a 12-5 mark in 2021. A seventh consecutive season above .500 would tie the franchise's all-time best streak. The only previous stretch in which the club achieved seven straight winning records was 1987 to 1993.
- The Titans can earn their fourth consecutive playoff berth. It would be the organization's first time doing so since a franchise-record seven consecutive playoff appearances from 1987 to 1993.
- The Titans can earn their third consecutive division title. The only other three-year streak of division titles in franchise annals was when the Oilers won the AFL Eastern division each season from 1960 to 1962.
- ➤ A third consecutive season with 11 or more wins would mark the first time in franchise history the team has accomplished such a streak.
- The Titans can log their fourth consecutive season with at least five road victories, which would be the longest such streak in franchise history (1978-1980 and 1998-2000).
- Entering 2022 with a record of 107-78 in regular season games at Nissan Stadium, the Titans need six wins at home to match the 113 wins the franchise had in regular season contests at the Astrodome (113-103-2). Seven home wins would give the franchise more victories at Nissan Stadium (114) than any other single venue.

GM JON ROBINSON

- > Can oversee a winning season for the seventh consecutive season since joining the Titans in 2016. He already is the only general manager in franchise history to oversee six total seasons above the .500 mark.
- Can join Mike Holovak (1989–1993) as the only two general managers in franchise history to oversee five or more playoff seasons.

HEAD COACH MIKE VRABEL

- With a winning record in 2022, Mike Vrabel would become the only head coach in franchise history to begin his tenure with at least five consecutive winning seasons. Vrabel and Jack Pardee are the organization's only head coaches with as many as three such seasons to begin their tenures.
- Can join Jeff Fisher (six) and Jack Pardee (four) as the only head coaches to lead the franchise to at least four playoff appearances.

S KEVIN BYARD

- ➤ With his first interception of 2022 (23 interceptions entering the season), he tied Zeke Moore (24) for 10th place on the all-time franchise
- ➤ Needs two interceptions in 2022 to tie Michael Griffin and Ken Houston (25) for eighth place all-time for the franchise.
- Needs three interceptions in 2022 to tie Mike Reinfeldt (26) for seventh all-time for the franchise and pass Michael Griffin (25) for the most interceptions for the franchise in its "Titans era" (1999-present).
- Can lead the team in interceptions for the fifth time, which would tie Darryll Lewis' franchise record (1994-98).
- Can become the first player to lead the team in tackles for three consecutive seasons since Keith Bulluck (2002-06).

RB DERRICK HENRY

- ➤ Needs 2,000 rushing yards to become the first player in NFL history to reach the mark in two different seasons.
- Needs 1,500 rushing yards and 15 rushing touchdowns to become the first player in NFL history to reach both marks in three different seasons.
- Needs a pair of 200-yard rushing games in 2022 to give him seven for his career, which would set the NFL record. He would surpass O.J. Simpson and Adrian Peterson, who each have six such performances.
- With his seventh total touchdown of 2022, he reached 75 to break Eddie George's career franchise record of 74 total touchdowns.
- With his ninth rushing touchdown of 2022, he reached 74 to break Earl Campbell's career franchise record of 73 rushing touchdowns.
- ➤ Entering the season with 6,797 career rushing yards, he will pass Chris Johnson (7,965) for third place on the franchise's all-time career rushing list with 1,169 rushing yards in 2022.
- Needs 10 rushing touchdowns in 2022 to become the fifth running back in NFL history to reach the mark in five consecutive seasons, joining LaDainian Tomlinson (nine), Adrian Peterson (seven), Shaun Alexander (five) and Michael Turner (five).

DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

Can become the team's only player since 2000 other than Keith Bulluck (2003-05) to record at least three sacks and five passes defensed in three consecutive seasons.

QB RYAN TANNEHILL

- Can produce his seventh career season with at least 3,000 passing yards and his third career season with at least 4,000 passing yards.
- Can join Warren Moon (1987–1993) as the only starting quarterbacks in franchise history to lead the club to the playoffs in four consecutive
- Entered 2022 with an active streak of 43 consecutive starts. With a start in the season opener, he passed Steve McNair (43 consecutive starts from 2001 to 2003) for the most consecutive starts in franchise history by a quarterback.
- Needs 3,500 passing yards to tie Warren Moon (1989–1991) for the most seasons in franchise history with at least 3,500 passing yards. Tannehill reached the mark in each of the past two campaigns.
- Can join Buffalo's Josh Allen (2018-2020) as the NFL's only quarterbacks since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger with at least seven rushing touchdowns in three consecutive seasons. He became the first quarterback in franchise history with at least seven rushing touchdowns in back-to-back seasons from 2020 to 2021.
- > Can join George Blanda (1960-63) as the only players in franchise history to throw at least 20 touchdown passes in four consecutive
- Can become the first player in franchise history with multiple career seasons with at least 30 touchdown passes.

WR ROBERT WOODS

- Can record his 10th consecutive season to begin his career with at least 40 receptions. He and DeAndre Hopkins are tied for the secondlongest such active streak in the NFL with nine seasons, behind only Emmanuel Sanders (10).
- Needs five touchdown receptions to join Jerry Rice and Tyreek Hill as the NFL's only players since 1970 with at least 40 receiving touchdowns and five rushing touchdowns. Woods enters the campaign with 35 career touchdown catches to go along with five rushing touchdowns.

Jon Robinson was hired as Titans general manager on Jan. 14, 2016 after spending two years as director of player personnel for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Nearly one year later, on Jan. 5, 2017, he was promoted to executive vice president/general manager.

The Titans finished with a winning record in each of his first six seasons on the job. They had four consecutive 9-7 records from 2016 to 2019, followed by an 11-5 mark in 2020 and a 12-5 record in 2021. It was the first time the organization produced at least six consecutive winning seasons since a seven-year run of winning records from 1987-1993. The Titans and Kansas City Chiefs were the only NFL teams without a losing season from 2016 to 2021.

Robinson became the first general manager in franchise history with six seasons above the .500 mark, surpassing Bum Phillips (1975, 1977-1980) and Mike Holovak (1989-93). Robinson's winning records from 2016 to 2021 also eclipsed Holovak for the most consecutive winning seasons by a Titans/Oilers general manager.

The Titans went to the playoffs four times in Robinson's first six seasons with the club: 2017, 2019, 2020 and 2021. The four playoff appearances tied for the third-most in the league during that time, and only Kansas City (six) and the New England Patriots (five) had more. Robinson's four playoff campaigns already place him in the top three in team annals along with Holovak (five) and Floyd Reese (four).

Robinson's work helped the team go from three wins in the season prior to his arrival (2015) to a divisional round playoff finish following the 2017 campaign. He became the fifth general manager in franchise history to have the team in the playoffs within his first two full seasons.

Then, in 2019, the team he constructed advanced to the AFC championship game. It was the organization's first appearance in the conference title game in 17 seasons (2002).

In 2020, Robinson and the Titans clinched the 2020 AFC South title with an 11-5 record in the regular season, claiming their best record and first division title since going 13-3 in 2008. They did so while navigating the challenges associated with the COVID-19 pandemic.

In 2021, the Titans won their second consecutive AFC South crown with a 12-5 mark, celebrating the franchise's first back-to-back division championships since the Oilers took the first three AFL Eastern division titles from 1960 to 1962.

Robinson has overseen a nearly complete overhaul of the roster during his tenure. In seven drafts as general manager from 2016 to 2022, he selected 52 total players, and 27 of those players were still with the organization prior to the 2022 regular season (as of Sept. 4, 2022). The only member of the roster who predated Robinson at that time was tackle Taylor Lewan. During that same time period, he engineered 33 total trades.

2022: After the NFL's new league year began in March 2022, Robinson engineered a trade with the Rams to acquire veteran wide receiver Robert Woods, who totaled 570 receptions for 7,077 yards in nine previous seasons in Buffalo and Los Angeles.

Robinson then went to work in the free agent market, highlighted by the addition of two-time Pro Bowl tight end Austin Hooper, who played his first four seasons with the Atlanta Falcons before spending a pair of campaigns with the Cleveland Browns.

The Titans also were active in re-signing several of their own key free agents, including center Ben Jones and Pro Bowl outside linebacker Harold Landry III.

During the first round of the 2022 NFL Draft, the Titans acquired the 18th overall selection and an additional third-rounder from Philadelphia in a trade that sent wide receiver A.J. Brown to the Eagles. With the 18th pick, Robinson and the Titans grabbed Arkansas wide receiver Treylon Burks.

Robinson would execute two more trades during the draft to end up with nine total players, including Auburn cornerback Roger McCreary in the second round.

2021: In 2021, the Titans struck several deals with veterans in the initial days of free agency. The incoming players included Pittsburgh Steelers outside linebackers Bud Dupree and Ola Adeniyi, New Orleans Saints cornerback Jackrabbit Jenkins, Indianapolis Colts defensive lineman Denico Autry and Baltimore Ravens long snapper Morgan Cox. The Titans also re-signed several of their own free agents: tight ends Anthony Firkser and Geoff Swaim and inside linebacker Jayon Brown.

Autry proved to be a key addition for the defense. He appeared in every game in his first season with the club and finished second on the team with nine sacks. His sack total tied his career high, matching the nine sacks he had in 2018 as a member of the Indianapolis Colts.

During the 2021 NFL Draft, Robinson led the selection of eight total players, beginning with Virginia Tech cornerback Caleb Farley with the 22nd overall selection in the first round. In the second round, the Titans chose North Dakota State offfensive lineman Dillon Radunz, followed by Georgia linebacker Monty Rice and Washington defensive back Elijah Molden in Round 3.

Late in the 2021 campaign, Robinson claimed inside linebacker Zach Cunningham off waivers from the division rival Houston Texans. Over three seasons from 2019 to 2021, Cunningham's 392 total tackles were more than every NFL player other than Seattle's Bobby Wagner (467) and Chicago's Roquan Smith (402).

2020: Early in 2020, the Titans reached an agreement on a multi-year contract to keep quarterback Ryan Tannehill in Tennessee. The Titans also re-signed tackle Dennis Kelly, who would go on to start all 16 games at right tackle.

After initially placing the franchise tag on running back Derrick Henry, the Titans and Henry were able to come to an agreement on a multi-year contract extension in July 2020.

Robinson acquired Tannehill for the Titans in a 2019 trade with the Miami Dolphins. In his first three seasons in Tennessee, Tannehill built a 30-13 record as a starting quarterback and became the franchise's first starting quarterback since Warren Moon (1987 to 1993) to direct his team to the playoffs in at least three consecutive seasons. He started every game from Week 7 of the 2019 campaign through the end of 2021, and during that time, Tannehill's 102.3 passer rating ranked sixth in the NFL. He became the only quarterback other than Moon (1989-1991) to record multiple seasons with at least 3,500 passing yards with the franchise. Also, Tannehill's 13 total game-winning drives in that span ranked second in the NFL behind only Raiders quarterback Derek Carr's 14. In 2019. Tannehill was named to his first Pro Bowl earned the 2019 Associated Press Comeback Player of the

After securing his multi-year extension in 2020, Henry produced one of the greatest seasons in NFL history by a running back. He led the NFL in rushing for the second consecutive season with 2,027 rushing yards, which was only the eighth 2,000-yard rushing season in league annals, and also paced the league with 17 rushing touchdowns. He was recognized with the Associated Press Offensive Player of the Year Award.

Henry, a second-round pick by Robinson in 2016, led the Titans in rushing every season from 2017 through 2021, during which time he also led the NFL with 6,307 total rushing yards. In 2019, he won his first of two consecutive NFL rushing crowns with 1,540 yards and tied for the NFL lead with 16 rushing touchdowns.

In the 2020 NFL Draft, the Titans had six total picks, including Louisiana State cornerback Kristian Fulton in the second round (61st overall). Fulton emerged as a full-time starter in 2021 and tied for 11th place in the NFL with a team-high 14 passes defensed.

2019: Near the beginning of the 2019 free agent signing period, Robinson worked quickly to add several veterans from other teams who played key roles, including Tannehill and former Rams guard Rodger Saffold. Robinson also worked to re-sign safety Kenny Vaccaro and punter Brett Kern.

Then, in the 2019 NFL Draft, Robinson directed the selection of six total players, including Mississippi State defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons in the first round (19th overall), Ole Miss wide receiver A.J. Brown in the second round (51st overall) and Charlotte offensive lineman Nate Davis in the third round (82nd overall).

In his first three seasons, Brown led the Titans in every major receiving category, totaling 185 receptions, 2,995 receiving yards, a 16.2-yard receiving average and 24 touchdown catches. Since 1970, Brown was only the fourth NFL player to reach all of those numbers within his first three seasons, joining Randy Moss, Jerry Rice and John Jefferson. He was named to the Pro Bowl in 2020 after totaling 70 receptions for 1,075 yards and 11 touchdowns.

Simmons was named to the Pro Bowl in 2021 and added Associated Press second-team All-Pro honors. He ranked sixth in the NFL among defensive tackles with 8.5 sacks, and he set a franchise single-game postseason record with three sacks.

Saffold also earned his first career Pro Bowl berth in 2021, the third consecutive season since he arrived in Tennessee in which the team finished in the top five in rushing.

2018: The Titans' 2018 free agent class included Pro Bowl cornerback Malcolm Butler. In his three seasons in Tennessee, Butler played in 41 games (36 starts) and totaled nine interceptions. In early August 2018, the Titans signed Vaccaro, who went on to start 42 games over his three seasons with the club.

Robinson's 2018 draft class was comprised of four players after he used multiple trades to go up and get his targets. It included first-round linebacker Rashaan Evans from Alabama (22nd overall pick) and second-round outside linebacker Harold Landry III from Boston College (41st overall).

From the start of his rookie season through 2021, Landry's 31 total sacks led the Titans, and other than Jevon Kearse (37), it was the highest total by a Titans/Oilers player in his first four NFL seasons since individual sacks became an official NFL statistic in 1982. In 2021, Landry was named to his first Pro Bowl after his career-high 12 sacks ranked 10th in the NFL.

2017: During the 2017 offseason, Robinson used free agency to address needs on defense and special teams. Most notably, he spearheaded deals for cornerback Logan Ryan (New England) and special teams contributor and 2017 Pro Bowler Brynden Trawick (Oakland).

In the 2017 NFL Draft, Robinson spent first-round picks on wide receiver Corey Davis (fifth overall) and cornerback Adoree' Jackson (18th overall). It marked the first time the franchise had a pair of first-round draft selections since 1987. The Titans' 2017 draft haul also featured tight end Jonnu Smith in the third round and linebacker Jayon Brown in the fifth round.

The 2017 Titans advanced to the playoffs for the first time since 2008. Robinson became the fifth general manager in franchise history to have the team in the postseason within his first two full seasons.

2016: In his first year as an NFL general manager, Robinson's leadership and decision-making helped the Titans triple their win total from the previous season, finishing 9-7 in 2016 after a 3-13 finish in 2015. The sixwin improvement tied for the most in franchise history (1967 and 1974) and doubled the previous club benchmark for the most wins in the first year under a new general manager (three by Bum Phillips in 1975).

Within the first four months at his post, Robinson pulled the trigger on several key personnel decisions. On March 9, 2016, he made his first major acquisition, swapping fourth-round draft picks with the Philadelphia Eagles in exchange for running back DeMarco Murray. The trade provided major dividends in 2016, as Murray led the AFC and ranked third in the NFL with 1,287 rushing yards.

Around the same time, Robinson began to work the free agent market. Center Ben Jones and wide receiver Rishard Matthews highlighted the haul, and both were instrumental in helping to transform the Titans offense into the 11th-ranked unit in the NFL.

Jones became a foundational member of the offensive line. From 2016 to 2021, he was one of only eight offensive lineman to start at least 96 of a possible 97 games. He finished the 2021 campaign with an active streak of 40 consecutive starts, ranking third among centers.

On April 14, 2016, two weeks before the NFL Draft, Robinson and the Titans dealt the first overall pick to the Los Angeles Rams in one of the biggest trades in recent NFL history. The Titans gave up the No. 1 pick and a fourth-rounder in order to receive the 15th overall pick, two second-rounders and a third-rounder in 2016, plus the Rams' first- and third-round picks in 2017. From 1990–2015, there were seven trades involving the No. 1 overall pick, but this was the first since 2004, when the San Diego Chargers selected Eli Manning with the first pick and dealt his rights to the New York Giants.

The Titans had their hands at one point or another on 17 selections in the 2016 draft due to five different trades (including one trade in 2015), and in the end, they ended up with a class of 10 players, including four of the top 45 picks. Robinson swung a draft-day trade with the Cleveland Browns to move back up to the eighth slot to choose Michigan State tackle Jack Conklin.

All 10 members of Robinson's first draft class played in at least one game in 2016. They accumulated a total of 110 games played and 38 starts, including 16 starts at right tackle by Conklin. The eighth-overall pick capped his successful rookie campaign by being named first-team All-Pro by Associated Press.

Third-round safety Kevin Byard has become one of the most successful players at his position in franchise history. He finished the 2021 campaign as a three-time team captain, two-time Pro Bowl selection and a two-time Associated Press first-team All-Pro. Over a five-year period from 2017 through 2021, Byard led all NFL safeties and ranked third in the NFL with 23 interceptions. His career interception total was 11th on the franchise's all-time list and sixth among all Titans/Oilers safeties.

PRIOR HISTORY: Robinson arrived in Tennessee with a wide range of experience from working his way up on the personnel side of the NFL. From 2014–2015, he served as director of player personnel for the Buccaneers and oversaw both college and pro departments as the team rebuilt its roster. The 2015 Buccaneers draft class made a significant impact, including four rookie starters: quarterback Jameis Winston, tackle Donovan Smith, guard Ali Marpet and linebacker Kwon Alexander.

Prior to joining Tampa Bay, Robinson spent 12 years with the New England Patriots, including his last five years (2009-13) as the director of college scouting. In the five years heading up their college scouting, the Patriots added a number of key components to their roster that won the Super Bowl in 2014, including wide receiver Julian Edelman, defensive back Devin McCourty, tight end Rob Gronkowski, tackle Nate Solder and defensive end Chandler Jones. He joined the Patriots as an area scout in 2002, a role he served for four seasons. Robinson then spent two years (2006-07) as a regional scout, before being promoted to assistant director of college scouting in 2008 and then director of college scouting in 2009. In his time scouting for the Patriots the team won 10 division titles, four conference titles and two Super Bowls (2003, 2004).

Robinson played three years at Southeast Missouri State as a defensive lineman after starting his college career at the Air Force Academy. Following his college career as a player, he spent one season (1998) coaching at his alma mater and three years (1999-2001) coaching at Nicholls State.

A native of Union City, Tenn., Robinson and his wife, Jaimie, have two daughters, Taylor and Bailey.

Jon Robinson constructed a roster that produced six consecutive winning seasons in his first six years on the job, including a 12-5 mark during the 2021 regular season. Mike Vrabel was named head coach of the Titans on Jan. 20, 2018, becoming the 19th head coach in franchise history.

In his first four seasons as head coach, Vrabel led the Titans to a 43-27 overall record and three postseason appearances. He joined Jack Pardee and Jerry Glanville as the only head coaches in team annals to preside over at least three playoff squads in their initial four seasons as head coach, and he tied Pardee (43-26) for the most total wins by a head coach in his first four seasons with the organization. The Titans won back-to-back AFC South titles in 2020 and 2021, marking the first time the organization accomplished the feat since the Oilers won the first three AFL Eastern division titles from 1960 to 1962.

Vrabel Honored as NFL's Top Coach in 2021

Vrabel was named the Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year in 2021 after directing the Titans to a 12-5 record during the regular season. The Titans won the AFC South, and they claimed the top seed in the AFC playoff field for the first time since 2008. They did so despite needing to use 91 total players during the season—the most in NFL history in a non-strike year. After the final preseason roster cuts through the end of the season, the team placed 26 different players on injured reserve and 21 different players on the reserve/COVID-19 list, plus additional practice squad players that received those designations.

The 2021 Titans ranked second in rushing defense (84.6 yards allowed per game). 12th in total defense (329.8), sixth on third down (36.7) percent), sixth in scoring defense (20.8 points per game) and ninth in sacks (43). Offensively, the Titans finished fifth in rushing (141.4 yards per game) despite missing Derrick Henry for nine games due to injury. The offense also ranked eighth on third down (43.6 percent), fifth in the red zone (63.9 percent) and first in goal-to-go efficiency (87.5 percent).

Situationally, Vrabel's teams fared well among the NFL leaders in his first four seasons as head coach. From 2018 to 2021, their .909 winning percentage (40-4) in regular season games in which they had a fourthquarter lead ranked second in the NFL behind the New Orleans Saints (.939). In the same time period, the Titans had a .714 winning percentage in three-point games (15-6), which led the league. Vrabel's team was 5-1 in overtime games from 2018 through 2021, tying the Saints (5-1) for the most overtime wins.

From 2018 to 2021, the Titans had the NFL's second-best rushing offense, averaging 143.7 rushing yards per game. Only the Baltimore Ravens were better (173.6). On the other side of the ball, the Titans ranked seventh in rushing defense, allowing 106.2 rushing yards per contest. Also from 2018 to 2021, the Titans tied for eighth in scoring defense (22.0 opponent points per game) and tied for the eighth-best turnover margin (+13). The Titans were called for 370 penalties from 2018 through 2021, which was the sixth-fewest total in the NFL.

Titans Take the AFC South in Year 3 Under Vrabel

The Titans won the 2020 AFC South title with an 11-5 record in the regular season, claiming their best record and first division title since going 13-3 in 2008. They finished with a 5-1 record within the division and a 6-2 mark in road games, all while navigating the challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic.

The Titans led the NFL in 2020 with a plus-11 turnover differential. Their 23 takeaways ranked seventh in the NFL, while their 12 turnovers were the second-fewest in the league in 2020 and tied for the ninth-lowest number since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978.

In 2020, the Titans tied for second place in total offense (396.4 yards per game) and ranked fourth in scoring offense (30.7 points per game). They became the first team in NFL history to generate at least 2,500 rushing yards (2,690) and 3,500 net passing yards (3,653) while surrendering 25 or fewer sacks (25). Their 6,343 total yards and 381 first downs established franchise records, while their 491 points amounted to the organization's second-best total.

The 2020 Titans joined the 1997 Detroit Lions as the only teams in NFL history to feature a 2,000-yard rusher, a 3,000-yard passer and a 1,000-yard receiver. Henry led the NFL in rushing for the second consecutive season, and his 2,027 rushing yards gave him the fifth-best total in league history. Meanwhile, Ryan Tannehill passed for 3,819 yards, and his 106.5 passer rating was the fifth-best number in the NFL. A.J. Brown was named to the Pro Bowl after recording his second consecutive 1,000-yard season (1,075) and tying for fifth place in the NFL with 11 touchdown catches.

Titans to AFC Championship Game in Vrabel's Second Season

In 2019, Vrabel became the first head coach in the organization's history to win multiple playoff games within his first two seasons. The Titans won a pair of road games—at New England in the wild card round and at Baltimore in the divisional round-to advance to the 2019 AFC championship game, falling at Kansas City to the eventual Super Bowl champion Chiefs.

The Titans began the 2019 campaign with two wins in their first six games but rallied to win seven of their final 10 games in the regular season. From the time the NFL went to its current playoff format in 1990 through 2019, 345 teams went 2-4 or worse in their first six games of a season. From that group, the Titans became only the third team to advance to a conference championship game, joining the 2002 Titans (2-4) and the 1996 Jacksonville Jaguars (2-4).

The 2019 Titans ranked in the NFL's top 10 in scoring margin (eighth, +71), turnover margin (sixth, +6), offensive yards per play (fourth, 6.12), rushing offense (third, 138.9 yards per game), red zone efficiency (first, 75.6 percent), total touchdowns (tied for third, 54) and third-down defense (eighth, 36.3 percent).

In his first season as head coach, Vrabel directed the Titans to a 9-7 record. His nine wins tied for the fourth-highest total in franchise history by a first-year head coach.

With only 82 penalties enforced against the Titans in 2018, Vrabel's team led the NFL and set a franchise record (16-game season) for fewest penalties in a season. The 2018 Titans also placed third in points allowed (18.9 per game), eighth in total defense (333.4 yards per game), sixth in passing defense (216.9), second in red zone defense (44.7 percent

Background as a Player and Coach

Vrabel arrived in Tennessee with 18 years of NFL experience, including four seasons as a coach and 14 seasons as a player. His distinguished playing career included three Super Bowl wins (2001, 2003 and 2004), one Pro Bowl selection (2007) and an All-Pro honor (2007). Vrabel played in 206 NFL games and totaled 57 sacks, 496 tackles, 11 interceptions, 20 forced fumbles, nine fumble recoveries and 10 touchdown receptions. Additionally, his teams advanced to the playoffs eight times (20 postseason games), with Vrabel recording eight postseason sacks and two postseason touchdown receptions.

Vrabel joined the Titans after four seasons with the Houston Texans, spending the first three seasons (2014-16) coaching linebackers and one year (2017) as the team's defensive coordinator. During his time in Houston, the Texans built one of the best defenses in the NFL and experienced tremendous success as a team – earning two division titles (2015, 2016).

Between 2014-16, the Texans defense ranked third in the NFL in yards allowed per game (319.9) and net passing yards (218.4). Houston also ranked first in third-down defense (33.6), fourth in opponent completion percentage (59.5) and sixth in points allowed per game (19.8). The 2016 defense ranked number one in the NFL, for the first time in franchise history, in yards allowed (301.3).

In 2017, his first year as a defensive coordinator, the Texans finished the campaign with 19 players on injured reserve. Despite the injuries, Vrabel led the defense to the fifth-best third-down percentage in the NFL and a franchise-record 3.97 yards per carry by opponents. Houston also had 18 different players record at least half a sack last year and 26 players tally at least one tackle for loss.

Vrabel spent his career playing and coaching with accomplished leaders, including Bill Belichick, Bill Cowher, Romeo Crennel, Urban Meyer, Bill O'Brien and Todd Haley.

As the Texans linebackers coach from 2014-16, Vrabel developed several players into top-notch performers, including Jadeveon Clowney (Pro Bowl, 2016), Whitney Mercilus, Benardrick McKinney (secondteam All-Pro, 2016) and Brian Cushing. The 2015 Texans defense had the top third-down defense in the NFL (28.5 percent), which was the lowest percentage in franchise history and the lowest by any NFL team since the 2003 Titans (27.7 percent). The 2015 defense also set a franchise mark for sacks in a season with 45 - 22.5 coming from Vrabel's linebacking corps.

Prior to joining the NFL coaching ranks, Vrabel transitioned immediately from an NFL player to college coach. He started as the linebacker coach at Ohio State in 2011 and coached the defensive line from 2012-2013. The 2012 Buckeyes finished the season undefeated at 12-0. He also was named Big Ten Recruiter of the Year by ESPN.com in 2012.

Vrabel was selected by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the third round (91st overall) of the 1997 NFL Draft, after his playing career at Ohio State, where he earned All-America honors and Big Ten Conference Defensive Lineman of the Year in both 1995 and 1996.

A native of Akron, Ohio, Vrabel attended Walsh Jesuit High School. He and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons: Tyler and Carter.

MOST WINS IN FIRST FOUR SEASONS

When the Titans defeated the Houston Texans on Jan. 9, 2022, Mike Vrabel won his 43rd game, including postseason, since taking over as Titans head coach in 2018. In doing so, he tied Jack Pardee for the most total wins by a head coach in his first four seasons with the organization. In Pardee's first four seasons as head coach from 1990 through 1993, the Oilers were 43-26, including playoffs.

Vrabel, Pardee and Jerry Glanville (1986-1989) are the only head coaches in team annals to preside over at least three playoff squads in their initial four seasons. All three of Pardee's first four teams made the postseason, while Glanville's Oilers advanced to the postseason in his second, third and fourth years.

Of all Titans/Oilers head coaches with at least four seasons with the franchise, Vrabel's career winning percentage ranks the highest.

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of a 20-year, exclusive namingrights partnership that

VISSAN STADIUM

Regular Season Week 11: Titans at Packers

rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

Nissan Stadium hosts all Titans home football games, Tennessee State University football games, the Music City Bowl, the CMA Music Festival and numerous other events.

The procurement of naming rights to Nissan Stadium fit the automotive company's 'Fewer, Bigger, Better' marketing strategy, which has included ongoing sponsorships of NBC's 'The Voice,' the Heisman House college football program and a major advertising presence in this year's Super Bowl. Nissan is also now the official automotive partner of the Tennessee Titans Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin.

The Nissan Smyrna Plant began operations in 1983 and employs more than 8,400 people. In 2014, the Smyrna plant assembled more than 648,000 vehicles, making it the highest volume automotive assembly plant in North America. Nissan also has a major manufacturing presence in Canton, Miss., along with research and development groups in California, Arizona and Michigan. In total, the company employs more than 22,000 employees in the U.S.

One component of the Titans-Nissan partnership is assisting charitable organizations throughout Middle Tennessee in an array of community outreach programs. A centerpiece of this is the annual "Taste of Titans" charitable event, for which Nissan serves as presenting sponsor. During the course of a 20-year relationship, a total of more than $1 million resulting from these annual events is anticipated to be distributed to local non-profit organizations.

Nissan Stadium is a city-owned venue that has housed the Titans since 1999. The naming rights agreement includes the opportunity for Nissan branding on the exterior of the stadium, as well as stadium signage and other unique displays inside the stadium. LP Building Products held the naming rights to the stadium from 2006 until the Nissan partnership was established in 2015.

Quarterback Ryan Tannehill is in his 11th NFL season and his fourth campaign with the Titans in 2021.

In his first three seasons in Tennessee, Tannehill built a 30-13 record as a starting quarterback and led the team to the postseason three times, becoming the franchise's first starting quarterback since Warren Moon (1987 to 1993) to direct his team to the playoffs in at least three consecutive seasons. After appearing in the AFC championship game as a wild card team in 2019, the Titans won consecutive division titles in 2020 and 2021, a first for the franchise since the Oilers took the first three AFL Eastern Division titles from 1960 to 1962. Tannehill's 30 wins were the most by any starting quarterback in franchise history in the player's first three seasons with the organization, surpassing the 28 by George Blanda from 1960 to 1962.

Tannehill started every game from Week 7 of the 2019 campaign through the end of 2021. His 43 consecutive starts in the regular season tied Steve McNair (2001-03) for the most in franchise history by a starting quarterback. During that time, Tannehill's 102.3 passer rating ranked sixth in the NFL. Also, Tannehill's 13 total game-winning drives in that span ranked second in the NFL behind only Raiders quarterback Derek Carr's

In 2021, he placed third on the franchise's single-season passing charts in attempts (531), completions (357) and completion percentage (67.2), and he ranked fourth with 3,734 passing yards. He became the only quarterback other than Moon (1989-1991) to record multiple seasons with at least 3,500 passing yards with the franchise. Additionally, he rushed for 270 yards, and his seven rushing touchdowns ranked second among NFL signal callers behind Jalen Hurts' 10. Tannehill was the first quarterback in franchise annals with at least seven rushing touchdowns in back-to-back

After receiving a multi-year contract extension during the 2020 offseason, Tannehill responded with 16 starts for the first time since 2015 and produced one of the best seasons of any quarterback in franchise history. A Titans team captain for the first time, his statistics finished in the top five of several of the organization's single-season record lists, including 40 total touchdowns (first), a 106.5 passer rating (second), 3,819 passing yards (third), 33 touchdown passes (tied for second), 65.5 completion percentage (fourth) and 7.9 yards per attempt (tied for fifth). Tannehill became the fourth player in NFL history with a passer rating of at least 106.0 in consecutive seasons, joining Drew Brees (2018-20), Russell Wilson (2018-19) and Aaron Rodgers (2011-12).

Also in 2020, Tannehill and Buffalo's Josh Allen became the fourth and fifth quarterbacks in NFL history with at least 3,800 passing yards, 33 passing touchdowns and seven rushing touchdowns in the same season. Only Cam Newton (2015), Daunte Culpepper (2000) and Steve Young (1994) had done so previously.

In 2019, Tannehill set single-season franchise records and led the NFL with a 117.5 passer rating and a passing average of 9.6 yards per attempt. His passer rating was the fourth-highest figure in NFL history among qualifiers. Additionally, he set a club record and placed third in the NFL with a 70.3 completion percentage.

Tannehill was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for December 2019 and was named to his first career Pro Bowl. He also won the Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year Award.

Originally a first-round selection (eighth overall) by the Miami Dolphins in the 2012 NFL Draft, Tannehill was acquired by the Titans in a trade with the Dolphins on March 15, 2019. The Titans sent a 2019 seventh-round pick and a 2020 fourth-round selection to Miami in exchange for Tannehill and a 2019 sixth-rounder.

Over his seven seasons in Miami, he started 88 games, threw for 20,434 yards and 123 touchdowns, and rushed for 1,210 yards and six scores. When he left Miami, he ranked second in franchise history behind Chad Pennington in both career completion percentage (62.8) and career passer rating (87.0). He authored 13 game-winning drives for the Dolphins.

From 2012 through 2015, Tannehill's passing yardage total—15,460 yards—was the third highest mark in NFL history for a player's first four seasons, behind only Peyton Manning and Dan Marino. Tannehill's two 4,000-yard passing seasons (2015 and 2014) were the only ones recorded by a Dolphins quarterback other than Marino (six times). The Dolphins reached the playoffs in 2016, breaking an eight-year postseason drought.

A native of Big Spring, Texas, Tannehill attended Texas A&M, where he earned honorable mention All-America honors as a senior. He played both quarterback and wide receiver, passing for 5,450 yards and 42 touchdowns and adding 112 receptions for 1,596 yards and 10 scores.

- > Against New York Giants (9/11), completed 20 of 33 passes for 266 yards and two touchdowns for a 106.4 passer rating. His seven-yard touchdown pass to running back Dontrell Hilliard in the first quarter was the 200th touchdown pass of his career, making him the 47th player in NFL history to reach the plateau. He added a 23-yard touchdown pass to Hilliard in the third quarter. By starting his 44th consecutive game with the club, he passed Steve McNair (43 from 2001-03) for the most consecutive starts in Titans/Oilers history by a quarterback. He extended his careerbest streak to 16 consecutive games with at least one passing or rushing touchdown. With his 77th and 78th touchdown passes in a Titans uniform, he took possession of fifth place on the franchise's passing touchdowns list, passing Marcus Mariota (76). Logged his 26th game for the Titans (48th career) with a passer rating of at least 100.0.
- > At Buffalo (9/19), completed 11 of 20 passes for 117 yards with two interceptions.
- Against Las Vegas (9/25), completed 19 of 27 passes for 264 yards with one touchdown and one interception (98.4 passer rating). He completed a two-yard touchdown pass to tight end Geoff Swaim in the first quarter and scored his first touchdown of the season on a one-yard rushing attempt in the second quarter. It was his 15th NFL game and his 13th game with the Titans in which he passed for at least one touchdown and rushed for at least
- > At Indianapolis (10/2), completed 17 of 21 passes for 137 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions for a 125.6 passer rating. It marked the 14th time in his career he posted a passer rating of at least 125.0 (minimum of 20 attempts). His 81.0 completion percentage was the best of his career in any game with at least 20 attempts, topping his previous high of 79.3 percent (23 of 29) on Oct. 20, 2019 against the Chargers, and it ranked eighth in franchise history for a single game (minimum 20 attempts). He completed a seven-yard touchdown pass to Robert Woods in the first quarter and an eight-yard touchdown pass to Chig Okonkwo in the second quarter.

Running back Derrick Henry is in his seventh NFL season in 2022. He was selected by the Titans with the 45th overall pick in the second round of the 2016 NFL Draft.

From his rookie season through 2021, Henry ranked second in the NFL with 6,797 rushing yards, trailing only Dallas Cowboys running back Ezekiel

Elliott (7,386). Henry's 65 rushing touchdowns led the league over the same period. In franchise history, Henry finished 2021 ranked fourth in career rushing yards behind Eddie George (10,009), Earl Campbell (8,574) and Chris Johnson (7,965), and his rushing touchdowns were second behind only Campbell (73).

In 2021, Henry's season was affected by a foot injury that caused him to be placed on injured reserve for the final nine games of the regular season. Prior to the injury, he was leading the NFL with 937 rushing yards and 10 rushing touchdowns, numbers that still ranked ninth and tied for sixth, respectively, at the conclusion of the regular season. He returned to start in the team's divisional playoff contest and rushed for 62 yards and one score

Henry was honored in 2021 with his first career nomination for the NFL's Walter Payton Man of the Year Award.

In 2020, Henry was named the Associated Press NFL Offensive Player of the Year after an historic campaign in which he totaled 378 rushing attempts for 2,027 yards and 17 touchdowns. His rushing yardage total established a new franchise record and led the NFL. As the eighth player in NFL annals to hit the 2,000-yard mark, his 2,027 yards finished fifth on the all-time single-season rushing charts. He was recognized with his second consecutive Pro Bowl, named first-team Associated Press All-Pro, and won the FedEx Ground Player of the Year Award for the second consecutive year

Henry was a first-time team captain in 2020. He started all 16 regular season games for the first time and became the first player since LaDainian Tomlinson (2006-07) to lead the NFL in rushing yards in consecutive years. He was the first player in more than 50 years to lead the league in rushing yards, attempts and rushing touchdowns in consecutive seasons and the fifth player ever to do so. The most recent prior to him was Cleveland's Leroy Kelly from 1967 to 1968.

Henry's 17 rushing touchdowns in 2020 set a career high and finished as the second-best total in franchise history behind Campbell's 19 rushing touchdowns in 1979.

In 2019, Henry was named to his first Pro Bowl and added second-team Associated Press All-Pro honors after leading the NFL in rushing. In 15 games, he totaled 1,540 yards on 303 carries (5.1 avg.), joining Billy Cannon (AFL, 1961), Campbell (1978-80) and Johnson (2009) as the only running backs in franchise history to lead their respective leagues in rushing. At the time, Henry's single-season total ranked fourth in franchise annals behind Johnson's 2009 total (2,006) and Campbell's 1979 (1,697) and 1980 (1,934) performances.

With 16 rushing touchdowns in 2019, Henry tied for the NFL lead (Aaron Jones). Adding his two receiving touchdowns, his 18 total touchdowns were third in the NFL and tied for second in franchise annals (19 by Campbell in 1979; 18 by Bill Groman in 1961).

Henry's performance late in the 2019 season was instrumental in the team's run to the AFC championship game. Over the final six games of the regular season plus three playoff appearances, Henry registered seven 100-yard games. During a three-game stretch (Dec. 29 at Houston, Jan. 4 at New England and Jan. 11 at Baltimore), he became the first player in NFL history to rush for at least 180 yards in three consecutive regular season and/or postseason games.

Henry authored his first career 1,000-yard season in 2018 and the 28th 1,000-yard rushing season in franchise history, totaling 1,059 yards and 12 touchdowns on 215 carries—all then-career highs.

His 2018 rushing yardage ranked second in the AFC to Joe Mixon's 1,168 yards, and he finished seventh in the NFL. Henry's 12 rushing touchdowns tied James Connor for third place in the NFL behind Todd Gurley (17) and Alvin Kamara (14).

Henry was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for December 2018. His 625 rushing yards in the month were the most by any NFL player in any month during the season.

Against the Jacksonville Jaguars on Dec. 6, 2018, Henry recorded one of the greatest single games in franchise history in front of a national television audience. He broke Johnson's single-game franchise record (228) with 238 rushing yards, including a 99-yard touchdown run—one of his four touchdowns in the contest. He joined Tony Dorsett as the only two players in NFL history to rush for a 99-yard score.

In 2017, Henry shared time in the Titans backfield with DeMarco Murray. Henry led the team with 744 rushing yards on 176 carries, and he added 11 receptions for 136 yards and a touchdown. His five rushing touchdowns tied for second on the club.

As a rookie in 2016, Henry played in 15 games with one start, splitting reps in the backfield with Murray. He carried the ball 110 times for 490 yards and five touchdowns and added 137 yards on 13 receptions. Henry became the third rookie for the franchise in the "Titans era" to score at least five touchdowns in a season, joining Vince Young (seven rushing touchdowns in 2006) and Johnson (nine rushing and one receiving in 2008).

The Heisman Trophy winner played three seasons (2013–2015) at the University of Alabama, where he set numerous school and SEC records while helping his team win a National Championship in 2015. He played in 39 games and totaled 602 carries for 3,591 yards and 42 rushing touchdowns and added 285 yards on 17 career receptions with three receiving scores. During Alabama's victory over Clemson in the 2016 College Football Playoff National Championship, he broke Shaun Alexander's record for most career rushing yards in Alabama history.

In his final collegiate season, Henry rushed for an Alabama and Southeastern Conference record 2,219 yards, which led the nation and ranked fifth in FBS history. He recorded 100-yard rushing games 10 times and had four 200-yard games during the season. His 28 rushing touchdowns were a national best and an SEC record, snapping Tim Tebow and Tre Mason's old mark of 23. Chris Johnson (800 rushing yards in November 2009) and Earl Campbell (633 in October 1980; 662 in November 1980) were the organization's only other players to accomplish the feat in that timespan.

Henry's December rushing totals included 40 yards against the New York Jets (Dec. 2), a franchise-record 238 yards against the Jacksonville Jaguars (Dec. 6), 170 yards at the New York Giants (Dec. 16), 84 yards against the Washington Redskins (Dec. 22) and 93 yards against the Indianapolis Colts (Dec. 30).

It was the highest single-game rushing total in the NFL in 2018 and the league's highest total since Doug Martin's 251 rushing yards for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers against the Oakland Raiders on Nov. 4, 2012.

Henry later broke his own record with 250 rushing yard at Houston on Jan. 3, 2021 to take possession of five of the top eight single-game rushing totals in team annals.

It was the second 99-yard run in NFL history, tying Tony Dorsett's record-setting touchdown run for the Dallas Cowboys against the Minnesota Vikings on Jan. 3, 1983. It was also the team record, topping Johnson's 94-yard touchdown run against the New York Jets on Dec. 17, 2012. The only other runs in franchise history of at least 90 yards were Johnson's 91-yard rush against the Houston Texans on Sept. 20, 2009 and a 91-yarder by Sid Blanks against the Jets on Dec. 13, 1964.

Henry's 99-yard touchdown run tied for the longest scrimmage play in NFL history. It was the 15th such play, including his and Dorsett's runs and 13 passing plays. The last 99-yard scrimmage play before Henry's was New York Giants wide receiver Victor Cruz's 99-yard reception from Eli Manning against the New York Jets on Dec. 24, 2011.

From 2016 through 2021, the Titans averaged 137.7 rushing yards per game, posting the second-highest average in the NFL behind only the Baltimore Ravens (150.6). The Titans joined the Dallas Cowboys and Indianapolis Colts as the only teams in those six seasons to produce four individual 1,000-yard rushing seasons—three by Derrick Henry and one by DeMarco Murray.

In 2020, Jones started every game at center and was a part of an offense that tied for the second-overall ranking in the NFL (396.4 yards per game), finished second in rushing (168.1), and allowed the sixth-fewest sacks (25). He helped pave the way for Henry to produce the NFL's eighth all-time 2,000-yard rushing season (2,027).

Jones started all 16 games at center in 2018, registering a start in every contest for the fifth consecutive season, dating back to his third year in Houston (2014).

In his first year in Tennessee, Jones played a key role in an offensive turnaround. He was a key cog in helping the Titans finish 11th overall in offense, third in rushing and tied for seventh in fewest sacks allowed.

In 2015, Jones started every game at center, extending his streak of consecutive regular season games played to 64, which was the secondlongest active streak among NFL centers at the conclusion of the season.

A native of Centreville, Ala., Jones attended the University of Georgia, where his 49 total starts ranked third in school annals. He was a two-time All-SEC selection by the league's coaches and was named to Georgia's Team of the Decade. As a senior (2011), the team captain earned All-SEC first-team honors.

He started the final 41 games of his career and was named the Big Ten Conference Offensive Lineman of the Year in 2012 and 2013. He also ranked among the top offensive linemen at the 2014 combine in the broad jump (first at nine feet, nine inches), vertical jump (tied for third at 30.5 inches) and three-cone drill (fourth at 7.39 seconds).

A native of Cave Creek, Ariz., Lewan became the first offensive tackle selected by the Titans/Oilers in the first round since tackle Brad Hopkins (13th overall) in 1993.

Landry was placed on injured reserve on Sept.

From the start of his rookie season through 2021, Landry's 31 total sacks led the Titans. Other than Jevon Kearse (37), Landry produced the highest sack total by a Titans/Oilers player in his first four NFL seasons since individual sacks became an official NFL statistic in 1982.

From 2018 to 2021, Landry joined Pittsburgh's Cameron Heyward as the NFL's only players to be credited with at least 250 tackles (press box statistics), 30 sacks and two interceptions.

In 2021, Landry was named to his first Pro Bowl after starting all 17 games. He registered his third consecutive season to start every contest, extending his streaks to 64 consecutive games played and 52 consecutive starts. At the conclusion of 2021, his starting streak was the sixth-longest active streak in the NFL among all defensive players.

Landry's 12 sacks in 2021 led the Titans, ranked 10th in the NFL and established a career high. He became the first Titans player to record double-digit sacks in a season since Brian Orakpo (10.5) in 2016 and the first Titans player with 12 sacks in a season since Jason Babin (12.5) in 2010. Landry tied for second on the squad with 75 tackles, ranked second with a career-high 49 quarterback pressures, led the team with 14 tackles for loss, and added a forced fumble. He joined Micah Parsons, Aaron Donald and Heyward as the only NFL players in 2021 to post at least 75 tackles and 10 sacks.

Then, in the team's 2021 divisional playoff contest, he recorded 1.5 sacks. He improved his postseason career total to 4.5 sacks, becoming the organization's first player with at least four career postseason sacks since individual sacks became an official statistic in 1982.

In 2020, Landry recorded 16 starts for the second consecutive season. He led the team with 5.5 sacks, a then-career-high 32 quarterback pressures and a then-career-high 10 tackles for loss. He totaled 69 tackles and added one interception and a career-high five passes defensed. In one playoff contest, he led the team with 10 tackles and two sacks.

Landry started all 16 games in 2019 and led the Titans with nine sacks. His 28 quarterback pressures ranked second, and he added 81 tackles, four tackles for loss, one pass defensed, one forced fumble and two fumble recoveries. He also started all three postseason games and registered a sack and a team-high eight quarterback pressures.

As a rookie in 2018, he played in 15 games with three starts. His 4.5 sacks tied for third place on the team, and he also tied for second on the defense with 18 guarterback pressures.

In 46 career games playing defensive end for Boston College, Landry totaled 160 tackles, 26 sacks, 47.5 tackles for loss, seven passes defensed, 10 forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and one interception. His 26 career sacks were exceeded in school history by only Mathias Kiwanuka (37.5 from 2002-05).

As a senior in 2017, Landry played and started eight games before a season-ending ankle injury ended his year. He finished second on the team with five sacks and totaled 38 tackles, 8.5 tackles for loss and two passes defensed.

In 2016, Landry set the school's single-season record with 16.5 sacks, which led the nation. Pro Bowl selection and a two-time Associated Press first-team All-Pro. Since entering the league, he has been a part of six consecutive winning seasons and four playoff berths.

Byard did not miss a game from 2016 through 2021, totaling 97 games in the regular season and seven postseason games. At the conclusion of 2021, his 88 consecutive starts in the regular season was the leading current streak among all Titans players, ranked first in the NFL among defenders, and was the sixth-longest active streak among all players.

Over a five-year period from 2017 through 2021, Byard led all safeties with 23 interceptions. The only players with more interceptions in that time were cornerbacks Xavien Howard (27) and J.C. Jackson (25). His interception total was 11th on the franchise's all-time list and sixth among all Titans/Oilers safeties.

In 2021, Byard was announced as a starter to his second career Pro Bowl and earned first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors for the second time in his career. He joined Bruce Matthews (1999–2000) and Albert Haynesworth (2007–2008) as the franchise's only players in its "Titans era" (since 1999) to earn multiple first-team AP All-Pro honors.

Byard led the Titans in 2021 with five interceptions and 88 tackles, becoming the franchise's first player to lead the team in tackles and interceptions in the same season since the team began tracking individual tackle statistics in 1974. It was his second consecutive season to lead the club in tackles and the fourth time in his career he was the interceptions leader. Additionally, his 13 passes defensed ranked second on the team and made up the highest total among NFL safeties. He also was credited with one sack, two quarterback pressures, one tackle for loss, two forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and his first two career touchdowns—one on a fumble return and one on an interception return. He was the first Titans player with two defensive touchdowns in the same season since linebacker Zach Brown in 2012.

In one playoff game he produced five tackles, one pass defensed and a quarterback pressure.

From 2017 through 2019, no NFL player had more interceptions than Byard, who had 17. His 2019 totals included a team-leading five interceptions, 10 passes defensed, 91 tackles, one quarterback pressure and two tackles for loss. In three postseason games, he added 20 tackles and one interception.

He was named to the Pro Bowl and earned first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors after tying Detroit's Darius Slay for the NFL lead with eight interceptions. He added a pair of fumble recoveries to pace the league with 10 total takeaways.

As a rookie in 2016, Byard played in every game, starting the final seven contests at free safety. His 63 tackles were the most by a Titans rookie safety since Tank Williams' 69 tackles in 2002. He also ranked second on the squad with 10 special teams tackles.

During a four-year career at Middle Tennessee State University, he appeared in 49 games and notched 46 starts at safety while becoming one of the most prolific defenders in school history. He set school records with 19 career interceptions, 377 interception return yards and four interception returns for touchdowns, and he finished sixth in MTSU history with 312 career tackles. In total, he had a hand in 25 turnovers (19 interceptions, five forced fumbles and one fumble recovery) during his career and added 17 career passes defensed and five tackles for loss. # DIRECTIONS TO NISSAN STADIUM

FROM AIRPORT TO NISSAN STADIUM (APPROXIMATELY 15 MINUTES): Take I-40 West toward Nashville/Memphis to I-24 West (before downtown). Exit at James Robertson Parkway (Exit 48). Turn left at first light (Interstate Drive). Turn right on Woodland Street. Nissan Stadium will be on the left. Follow signs to parking lot ("M" lot on northwest corner/river side of stadium).

NISSAN STADIUM MEDIA WILL CALL/MEDIA ENTRANCE

The media will call window and media entrance are located in the northwest corner of Nissan Stadium near Gate 6. The media will call window opens three hours prior to kickoff.

FIELD MEDIA VESTS

All members of the media with field access during the game must wear a media vest. Still and video photographers will be issued tan vests, while team-affiliated video photographers (coaches' shows, etc.) will be issued gray vests. Additionally, media with in-game field access will be issued an armband. All vests and armbands must be obtained prior to each game at the check-in table. All vests must be returned at the conclusion of the game to Titans personnel or a designated vest receptacle.

NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX INTERNET ACCESS

Wireless internet access is available free of charge in the Nissan Stadium press box. The login information will be available upon arrival in the press box. A limited number of ethernet lines also are available. Accessing the wireless network works the same in the Nissan Stadium press box as it does in most areas with free connectivity. Titans staff may be able to assist in a limited manner, but you should first contact your company's I.T. department with any questions.

FROM NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX TO INTERVIEW ROOMS

Take the press box elevator (Level 3) to field level (Level 1). The Titans interview room is immediately on the right. Turn left and continue straight along the concourse to reach the visiting team's interview room (white line).

POSTGAME POLICIES

Reporters with press box credentials will not be allowed on the field during pre-game activities or during the game itself. Press box credentials do NOT provide access to the field at the two-minute warning in the fourth quarter. Media will be allowed to gather in the Titans interview room to watch the end of the game or remain in the press box to make the short walk down to the field level at the conclusion of the game. Interviews with Titans players are not permitted on the field following the game. The press conference will begin approximately 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game and will be held in the interview room across from the Titans locker room. Key players also will be brought to the interview room. Simultaneously, the locker room will open to credentialed media members with a working function. The press conference audio will be played live over the press box speakers.

POSTGAME QUOTES

Quotes from each team's head coach and key players will be transcribed and distributed throughout the Nissan Stadium press box following the game. The quotes also will be available at www.TennesseeTitans.com/media.
