TITANS-COLTS SHOWDOWN SET FOR SUNDAY;
PHILLIPS TO BE ADDED TO RING OF HONOR

Tennessee Titans (1-1) vs. Indianapolis Colts (0-2)

Sunday, Sept. 26, 2021 • Noon CDT • Nissan Stadium • Nashville, Tenn. • TV: CBS

NASHVILLE — The Tennessee Titans (1-1) return home this week to face the AFC South rival Indianapolis Colts (0-2). Kickoff at Nissan Stadium (capacity 69,143) is scheduled for noon CDT on Sunday, Sept. 26.

PHILLIPS TO BE ADDED TO RING OF HONOR

At Sunday's game, Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk will lead the franchise in posthumously adding former Oilers head coach O.A. "Bum" Phillips to the Ring of Honor at Nissan Stadium. The team will celebrate its Oilers heritage throughout the week and pay tribute to Oilers greats during the game, culminating in the halftime ceremony honoring Phillips.

Phillips was the personification of the "Luv Ya Blue Era" as the head coach of the Oilers for six seasons (1975-80). He owns the best winning percentage (.608) by a Titans/Oilers head coach who has coached at least two full seasons, totaling a 59-38 mark. He took over a team that hadn't experienced a winning season in eight campaigns and built it into a contender for the duration of his tenure, going 10-4 in his first season and reaching the AFC Championship game in 1978 and 1979. He originally joined the Oilers as the team's defensive coordinator in 1974 and was elevated to head coach a year later.

Former Oilers expected to attend the game are Dan Pastorini, Billy "White Shoes" Johnson, Robert Brazile, Elvin Bethea, Curley Culp, Warren Moon, Kenny Houston and Tony Banfield.

THE BROADCAST

Sunday's contest will be regionally televised on CBS, including Nashville affiliate WTVF NewsChannel 5. The broadcast team includes play-by-play announcer Andrew Catalon, analyst James Lofton and reporter Michael Grady.

Fans in the Nashville television market can livestream the broadcast on their mobile devices from the Titans Mobile App (iOS and Android), as well as on desktop computers and mobile web at TennesseeTitans.com. Restrictions apply. For more information on streaming options visit TennesseeTitans.com or NFL.com/ways-to-watch.

The Titans Radio Network and Nashville flagship 104.5 The Zone will carry the game across the Mid-South with the "Voice of the Titans" Mike Keith, analyst Dave McGinnis, sideline reporter Amie Wells and gameday host Rhett Bryan.

Additionally, Sports USA will broadcast the game to a national radio audience. Play-by-play announcer John Ahlers and analyst Doug Plank will have the call.

TITANS LOOK TO BUILD ON OVERTIME WIN AT SEATTLE

Last week at Seattle, the Titans scored the final 17 points of the game to stun the Seahawks 33-30 in overtime. They faced a 15-point deficit at halftime and trailed by 14 points in the fourth quarter before rallying to tie the score at 30-30 with less than a minute remaining in regulation.

In overtime, Randy Bullock's 36-yard field goal—his fourth field goal of the game in his first appearance in a Titans uniform—gave Tennessee its sixth consecutive overtime victory and its fourth (4-0) under head coach Mike Vrabel.

Titans running back Derrick Henry rushed for 182 yards and scored three second-half touchdowns, including a 60-yarder and lastly a one-yard plunge with 29 seconds on the clock in the fourth quarter. His 237 scrimmage yards (55 receiving) amounted to the 10th-best total in franchise history and the fourth-highest output of his career.

Meanwhile, quarterback Ryan Tannehill registered 347 yards on 27-of-40 passing. He was credited with his 10th game-winning drive since arriving in Tennessee in 2019, the most of any quarterback since that point.

Tannehill delivered six passes to wide receiver Julio Jones, who totaled 128 yards in his second game with the organization. Jones notched his 59th 100-yard career game in the regular season and is now tied with Marvin Harrison for third place in NFL history in 100-yard receiving games behind only Jerry Rice (76) and Randy Moss (64).

With the heroics from Henry, Tannehill and Jones, the trio gave the franchise its 10th all-time game with a 100-yard rusher, 300-yard passer and 100-yard receiver.

The offense totaled 33 first downs at Seattle, tied for the second-highest amount in franchise history and the most since Nov. 10, 1991. The 532 total yards by the Titans (212 rushing, 320 passing) were their most since a franchise-record 607 total yards in an overtime win against Houston on Oct. 18, 2020. By possessing the ball for 42 minutes and 33 seconds, the Titans had their best time of possession since Oct. 1, 2000 against the New York Giants (42:46).

THE COLTS

After dropping their first game of 2021 to the Seahawks, the Colts hosted the Los Angeles Rams in Week 2. They battled from being down 11 points in the second half to tie the score at 24-24 in the fourth quarter. But Matt Gay's 38-yard field goal with 2:23 remaining gave the Rams a 27-24 win.

The Colts are in their fourth season under head coach Frank Reich. He spearheaded two playoff berths in his first three campaigns, including a wild card appearance after an 11-5 finish in 2020.

During the offseason, the Colts acquired veteran quarterback Carson Wentz in a trade with the Philadelphia Eagles. The former second-overall NFL draft pick (2016) produced four 3,000-yard passing seasons with the Eagles, including a career-high 4,039 yards in 2019. In his first two games with the Colts, he totaled 498 passing yards with three touchdowns and one interception. However, he exited last week's game against the Rams with an ankle injury, and backup Jacob Eason finished the contest at quarterback.

SECOND HARVEST FOOD DRIVE

Prior to the game, fans are encouraged to participate in the team's annual food drive for Second Harvest Food Bank of Middle Tennessee by dropping off non-perishable food items at one of several collection sites near the Nissan Stadium entrances. Volunteers will collect donated items before the game and until 15 minutes after kickoff. Most needed items include peanut butter, canned chicken and tuna, canned fruit and vegetables, beans, soups and stews, pasta, and rice.

TITANS RING OF HONOR

When Oilers head coach Bum Phillips is inducted into the Ring of Honor at Nissan Stadium this week, he will become the 15th individual to receive the honor. Later in 2021, former head coach Jeff Fisher and general manager Floyd Reese will become the 16th and 17th members of the Ring of Honor.

A TITANS VICTORY WOULD ...

- Give the Titans their fourth consecutive division win, dating back to 2020.
- Improve the Titans' all-time record at Nissan Stadium, including playoffs, to 103-80.
- Improve Mike Vrabel's career record to 33-22 as a head coach, including playoffs.
- Improve QB Ryan Tannehill's combined starting record in the regular season and playoffs to 64-57, including a 22-11 record with the Titans.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR THIS WEEK

WR A.J. BROWN

- Can record his 10th career 100-yard receiving game. He would become the eighth player in franchise history with at least 10 career 100-yard receiving games and the first since Ernest Givins (1986-88) to accomplish the feat in his first three seasons.

S KEVIN BYARD

- With 19 career interceptions, he needs one interception to move past Keith Bulluck (19) and Miller Farr (19) for sole possession of 15th place on the franchise's career interception list.

RB DERRICK HENRY

- Can record his 25th career 100-yard rushing game, including regular season and playoffs.
- With 6,866 career scrimmage yards, he needs 100 scrimmage yards to pass Ken Burrough (6,965) for the sixth-highest total in franchise history.

WR JULIO JONES

- Needs 37 receiving yards to pass Steve Largent (13,089) for 18th place on the NFL's career leaderboard for receiving yards, and he needs 146 receiving yards to pass Andre Reed (13,198) for 17th place.
- Can extend his streak to 130 consecutive individual games with at least one reception.
- Can record his 63rd career 100-yard receiving game in the regular season and postseason. It would be his 60th such performance in the regular season, which put him ahead of Marvin Harrison (59) for third place in NFL history behind only Jerry Rice (76), and Randy Moss (64).

QB RYAN TANNEHILL

- Can record his 24th career 300-yard passing game and his eighth such performance since joining the Titans in 2019. Eight such performances would put him in a tie with Marcus Mariota for fourth place in franchise history.

SERIES HISTORY

The Titans and Colts have played 53 all-time games, including playoffs. The Colts lead the series 35-18. They have split the series in each of the past two seasons.

In 2020, the Titans and Colts played two games in a three-week span. In the first meeting on Nov. 12, a nationally-televised Thursday night game in Tennessee, the Colts scored 24 consecutive points and took advantage of Titans special teams miscues to secure a 34-17 victory. The Titans had a punt for 17 yards, a punt blocked and a missed field goal contribute to the defeat.

In the 2020 rematch at Lucas Oil Stadium on Nov. 29, the Titans won 45-26. Derrick Henry rushed for 178 yards and three touchdowns, while Ryan Tannehill threw for 221 yards with a 69-yard touchdown to A.J. Brown. Brown added a late 42-yard kickoff return touchdown to become the first player in franchise history with a receiving touchdown and a kickoff return touchdown in the same game.

The Colts swept the season series every year from 2012 through 2016 until 2017, when the Titans swept the season series for the first time since 2002.

The Titans and Colts have met only once in the postseason, a 19-16 Titans victory in a Divisional Playoff game in the RCA Dome on Jan. 16, 1999. Eddie George rushed for 162 yards, including a 68-yard touchdown run to help lead Tennessee during its run to Super Bowl XXXIV.

Three years later, in 2002, the NFL realigned, and the AFC South was created. The Titans moved from the AFC Central, and the Colts moved from the AFC East to form half of the new division.

The teams first clashed in 1970 following the AFL-NFL merger. The then-Baltimore Colts defeated the then-Houston Oilers 24-20 during the Colts' run to a Super Bowl V Championship.

TITANS-COLTS: THE LAST MEETING

2020 Week 12: Titans 45, Colts 26
Sunday, Nov. 29, 2020 • 1:00 p.m. ET • Lucas Oil Stadium

In Week 12 of the 2020 season the Titans traveled to Indianapolis to face the Colts for the second time in a three-week span. Tennessee won by a score of 45-26, advancing to 8-3 on the season and taking first place in the AFC South.

The Titans got on the board on their opening possession with a 10-play, 75-yard scoring drive. RB Derrick Henry amassed 46 all-purpose yards including a 12-yard rushing score that gave Tennessee an early 7-0 lead. Indianapolis responded on their opening possession, as Colts QB Philip Rivers threw an 11-yard touchdown to Colts TE Trey Burton to tie the game 7-7. On their next possession, the Titans came right back with a four-play scoring drive as QB Ryan Tannehill threw a 69-yard touchdown to WR A.J. Brown to put Tennessee ahead, 14-7.

In the second quarter, Indianapolis added a touchdown to tie the game again. Rivers connected with Burton and Colts RB Nyheim Hines for a pair of 19-yard passes to move the chains, before Colts backup QB Jacoby Brissett entered the game to run in a one-yard score, 14-14. Later in the second quarter, Tennessee pulled ahead of Indianapolis and added three touchdowns on consecutive possessions. Henry rushed first for an 11-yard touchdown and then a one-yard score, and Tannehill added a one-yard touchdown run to make it a 35-14 game. Henry completed the first half of the contest with 17 carries for 140 yards and three touchdowns.

In the third quarter with Indianapolis at their own 27-yard line, Rivers attempted a deep pass but it was intercepted by CB Breon Borders. Tennessee took possession at their own 37-yard line and moved the ball into Colts territory. K Stephen Gostkowski converted a 49-yard field goal as the Titans increased the lead, 38-14.

In the fourth quarter, Indianapolis constructed a 75-yard scoring drive that included a field position-flipping 50-yard pass from Rivers to Colts WR T.Y. Hilton that gave Indianapolis possession at the Tennessee three-yard line. Brissett entered the game and ran into the end zone for his second one-yard touchdown. Indianapolis' two-point conversion attempt failed, 38-20. Later in the fourth quarter with the Colts trailing by 18 points, Rivers led Indianapolis on an 11-play, 94-yard scoring drive that culminated in a five-yard touchdown reception by Hilton. The Colts attempted a two-point conversion, but the try was unsuccessful, 38-26. On the ensuing kickoff, the Colts attempted an onside kick with Tennessee's hands team on the field. However, Brown caught the kick in stride and ran it 42 yards into the end zone for a touchdown. The Titans took a 45-26 lead and sealed a divisional road win at Indianapolis.

Frank Reich was hired as the head coach of the Colts on Feb. 11, 2018. He joined the team with 26 years of NFL experience as both a player (1985-1998) and a coach (2006-2017).

In 2020, Reich led one of the league's youngest teams to an 11-5 record and a playoff berth. Indianapolis fell just short of advancing past the Wild Card round following a three-point loss on the road against Buffalo. The Colts were just one of four teams to finish in the top 10 in overall defense (eighth) and offense (10th) in 2020.

In 2019, the Colts finished the season 7-9. However, the team boasted a top-10 rushing attack for the first time since 2001 (ranked seventh at 133.1 yards per game). Continuity along the offensive line was key as Indianapolis was the only team in the NFL to start the same five offensive linemen in all 16 regular season games. The unit tied for the ninth-fewest sacks allowed.

In 2018, Reich led the Colts to the playoffs and a Wild Card win over the Houston Texans after posting a 10-6 record in the regular season.

Prior to arriving in Indianapolis, Reich spent two seasons as offensive coordinator of the Philadelphia Eagles and was instrumental in the team's Super Bowl LII championship following the 2017 season. Reich assisted with the developmental of quarterback Carson Wentz, whom the team selected in the first round (second overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft.

In 2017, Wentz led the team to an 11-2 record before suffering a season-ending knee injury. Veteran backup Nick Foles stepped in and led Philadelphia to the team's first-ever Super Bowl championship. Foles was named Super Bowl MVP.

Prior to Philadelphia, Reich spent three seasons (2013-15) with the San Diego Chargers, serving the last two seasons as offensive coordinator. Under the direction of Reich, quarterback Philip Rivers hit the 4,000-yard passing plateau in three-straight seasons.

Before his tenure in San Diego, Reich coached wide receivers for the Arizona Cardinals in 2012, where he worked with wide receiver Larry Fitzgerald, who caught 71 passes for 798 yards and four touchdowns en route to his seventh career Pro Bowl selection.

Reich spent the first six seasons of his coaching career with the Colts as wide receivers coach (2011), quarterbacks coach (2009-2010), offensive assistant (2008) and coaching intern (2006-07).

Reich enjoyed a 14-year playing career with the Buffalo Bills, Carolina Panthers, New York Jets and Detroit Lions after being selected by the Bills in the third round (57th overall) of the 1985 NFL Draft.

He spent the first 10 years of his NFL career with the Bills, where he served as a backup to Hall of Fame quarterback Jim Kelly. During his time in Buffalo, Reich was a part of Bills teams that went to four-straight Super Bowls from 1990-1993, appeared in five AFC Championships and captured five division titles.

A native of Freeport, N.Y., Reich played collegiately at the University of Maryland from 1981-84.

Reich graduated from Maryland in 1984 with a business degree and earned Academic All-ACC honors as a senior.

LAST WEEK VS. THE SEAHAWKS

Week 2: Titans 33, Seahawks 30 (OT) Sunday, Sept. 19, 2021 • 1:25 p.m. PT • Lumen Field

In Week Two of the 2021 season, the Titans traveled to Seattle to face the Seahawks and won in overtime by a score of 33-30. Tennessee overcame a double-digit deficit to tie the contest with under a minute to play to force an additional stanza of football. RB Derrick Henry rushed for 182 yards and scored three touchdowns while K Randy Bullock, in his Titans debut, made the game-winning field goal in overtime.

In the first quarter, both Tennessee and Seattle converted one field goal apiece to make it a 3-3 game. In the second quarter, the Titans tacked on another field goal on a seven-play scoring drive that saw QB Ryan Tannehill connect with WR Julio Jones for a 51-yard pass. Tennessee took a 6-3 lead as Bullock converted a 30-yard attempt. However, Seattle then scored on back-to-back possessions. First, Seahawks QB Russell Wilson connected with Seahawks WR Tyler Lockett for a 63-yard touchdown. On the following Titans drive, Tannehill was strip-sacked by Seahawks DE Alton Robinson and the ball was recovered by Seahawks DE Kerry Hyder Jr. at the Tennessee six-yard line. Seattle capitalized on the turnover as ultimately Seahawks RB Chris Carson ran in a two-yard touchdown to make it a 17-6 game.

Later in the second quarter, Tannehill orchestrated a 63-yard scoring drive with first-down receptions by Henry and Jones. The possession culminated in a 24-yard field goal by Bullock, as the Titans cut the lead 17-9. Seattle took the field with just over a minute left in the half, and promptly moved down the field for a 75-yard scoring drive as Carson scored his second touchdown of the day on a one-yard run. Seattle took a 24-9 advantage into halftime.

The Titans began the second half with possession of the ball and swiftly scored a touchdown. Tannehill connected with WR A.J. Brown and TE MyCole Pruitt for a pair of 15-yard passes, with the drive culminating in a nine-yard touchdown run by Henry, 24-16.

Seattle began the fourth quarter with a touchdown as Wilson threw a 68-yard score to Seahawks WR Freddie Swain. However, the extra point attempt was no good, as Seattle increased the lead 30-16. Tennessee responded with a two-play scoring drive of their own, as Henry took the handoff and raced 60 yards for his second score of the day to make it 30-23.

Later in the fourth quarter with the Titans trailing by seven points, Tennessee engineered a 12-play scoring drive. With under a minute remaining in regulation, Henry scored his third touchdown of the day, a game-tying one-yard rush to make it 30-30 and force overtime.

Tennessee punted on their first possession in overtime, pinning the Seahawks at their own 13-yard line. After Wilson threw two incomplete passes, OLB Ola Adeniyi sacked Wilson for a loss of 12 to make it fourth down. Beginning the drive at the Seattle 39-yard line, Henry tallied four consecutive rushes for 21 yards. Then, on fourth down, Bullock converted a game-winning 36-yard field goal to give the Titans a 33-30 walk-off victory in Seattle.

NOTES FROM LAST WEEK'S GAME

TEAM NOTES

- The Titans won their sixth consecutive overtime game, a streak that dates back to 2015.
- The win gave Mike Vrabel his 30th career win in the regular season since becoming the Titans head coach in 2018.
- The Titans are 4-0 in overtime games since Mike Vrabel joined the organization in 2018. They are the only NFL team with four overtime wins in that period of time and one of only two clubs (New Orleans, 3-0) to go undefeated in at least three overtime games.
- The Titans improved to 12-5 (.706) on the road since the start of the 2019 season.
- Entering the game, the Seahawks were 24-1 when they had a lead of at least 15 points at halftime at Lumen Field since the stadium opened in 2002. The Titans trailed 24-9 at halftime but came back to hand the Seahawks their first-such loss since Oct. 10, 2004 against the St. Louis Rams.
- The offense totaled 33 first downs, tied for the second-highest total in franchise history and the most since the Oilers had 33 first downs in an overtime game against the Cowboys on Nov. 10, 1991. The franchise record is 34 first downs against Cleveland on Dec. 9, 1990.
- The offense's 532 total net yards (212 rushing, 320 passing) tied for the 11th-best total in franchise history. It was the most by the Titans since a franchise-record 607 total yards in an overtime win against Houston on Oct. 18, 2020.
- The Titans had a time of possession of 42 minutes and 33 seconds. It was the fifth-best time of possession for the team since 1981 and the best since a 42:46 time of possession against the New York Giants on Oct. 1, 2000.
- For the 10th time in franchise history, the Titans had a 300-yard passer (347 by Ryan Tannehill), a 100-yard receiver (128 by Julio Jones) and a 100-yard rusher (182 by Derrick Henry). The last time it happened was against Houston on Oct. 18, 2020 (Tannehill, Henry and Anthony Firkser).

OLB OLA ADENIYI

- Registered a sack and led the club with two special teams tackles.
- Recorded his first career sack, dropping Russell Wilson for a 12-yard loss at Seattle's one-yard line in overtime. The play, which came on third down, helped force a Seahawks punt, and the Titans won the game on the ensuing possession.

DL DENICO AUTRY

- Registered a four-yard sack of Russell Wilson in the second quarter, and later in the same drive, he shared a seven-yard sack with Jeffery Simmons. His 1.5 sacks were his first as a member of the Titans and gave him 31.5 career sacks.
- Registered his ninth career game with 1.5 or more sacks.

WR A.J. BROWN

- Caught three passes for 43 yards.

K RANDY BULLOCK

  - His 182 rushing yards ranked seventh in his career during the regular season.
  - Established a career high with six receptions for 55 yards. His previous career high for catches in a game was four against Jacksonville on Oct. 27, 2016.

  - His 237 scrimmage yards was the 10th-best total in franchise history and the fourth-highest output of his career. His 187 scrimmage yards in the second half and overtime (147 rushing, 40 receiving) were the most by a Titans player since Kenny Britt's 199 yards in the second half against Philadelphia on Oct. 24, 2010.
  - Reversed field for a nine-yard touchdown run in the third quarter. In the fourth quarter, he scored on a 60-yard run and then helped send the game to overtime at 30-30 with a one-yard touchdown run with 29 seconds remaining in regulation. It was the third performance for the team in its "Titans era" (1999 to present) in which a player had three rushing touchdowns in the second half. Eddie George accomplished the feat on Nov. 19, 2000 against Cleveland, and Henry did so for the first time on Dec. 29, 2019 at Houston.

  - His 60-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter was his seventh career touchdown run of 60 yards or longer, placing him in a tie with Ahman Green for the fifth most in NFL history behind only Adrian Peterson (15), Jim Brown (nine), Chris Johnson (eight) and Barry Sanders (eight).
  - With 6,100 career rushing yards, Henry joined Eddie George (10,009), Earl Campbell (8,574) and Chris Johnson (7,965) as the only players in franchise history to reach 6,000 career rushing yards.
  - Registered his 24th career 100-yard rushing game, including regular season and playoffs.

I found out they're willing to compete, they're willing to battle and fight. Proud of them, you know? We were close at times. I felt like we came out and moved the football early, played well defensively. Unfortunately, we gave up a couple of x-plays, which you know, you just can't hand them anything. I think our ability to have to kick field goals and their ability to hit some big plays really took the momentum. I told the team at halftime, it was a great speech at halftime. I felt at least that was our identity. You've got to stop talking about your identity, about hoping and wishing about an identity. You have to go out there and play to it and find out what it is, and I think that was certainly who we are. It's not always pretty. But if we can eliminate turning the football over and if we can eliminate easy plays on defense, then we've got a chance.

(on what momentum can be built after showing that this team can compete in the second half)

I hope we can just play better and more complementary in the first half.

We've got to stop playing defense inside the 10-yard line. There were some games, I know that. But our job is to play defense. These guys are excited, and they should be. All the credit to the players. They're the ones that came out here and kept battling and fighting, and it wasn't easy. This is a tough place to play. Give them a lot of credit. We understand the pedigree of this football team, this organization, how difficult it is to come in here and win, how difficult it is. So, I'm proud of our football team.

(on if coming back to win in the fourth quarter reinforces the idea of not being frontrunners and that this team can come from behind)

I think it does. It's who we are. But, again, you have to put it out there. You have to be willing to throw it out there and execute and fight and claw and make the correct plays at the critical situations. I'm proud to be a coach, I'm proud to represent them, and all the credit goes to the players.

(on the performance of running back Derrick Henry)

It never ceases to amaze me. We've just got to keep being in the opportunities and be in football games where he can help us affect the outcome. That's really what happened today.

(on if he considered going for two after the last touchdown scored in)

regulation)

No, you know what, you always go back and forth, and we've been through there before. I just felt like the way that the defense was playing, no, just decided early on that's what we were going to do as far as kicking it.

(on the team's history of coming back to win after double-digit leads by the opponent)

I hope they understand the importance of each and every week. I think that's a testament to the leadership of the football team. Like Derrick (Henry) mentioned, we don't want to coach or work with frontrunners. We want guys that are just going to battle and compete. It's tough to win in this league. It's really tough each and every week. We put a lot into it. When we land, we're going to have to be on to Indianapolis. We've got to be on to the Colts. How do we win at home? We're going to try and build on this, but we're going to treat this the same way whether we lost by double-digits or won in overtime.

(on what goes through his mind watching a kicker line up for a game-winning field goal and his response when it goes through)

I mean, obviously, you know, extremely happy. I'm happy for Randy (Bullock). He's been a lot of places and he's made kicks in this league, so I'm happy for him so he can get recognized and help this football team win. But, you know, you're helpless. We've all sent our kids out of the house into a car. It's Jesus take the wheel, I guess.

(on the defensive lapses today)

There were some mistakes, obviously some errors that came up. One was they just went up to make a play and we didn't get them on the ground and the other one in the second half was just a mistake.

(on other players stepping up when wide receiver A.J. Brown was struggling)

Guys stepped up, man. Guys played well, and A.J. (Brown), I'm confident that he'll continue to help us win football games. I have no more confidence in anybody on this football team. A lot of guys I have the same, but I put A.J. up at the top with some guys.

(on the catch wide receiver Julio Jones made that was initially ruled a touchdown but then the call was reversed)

First of all, when you go toe-heel, that's out of bounds. So, apparently they thought the heel came down on the line. When you drag your toe, you drag your toe and that's it. When you go toe-heel, they count the heel. So, I guess they thought there was something in between? You might want to call the league. They've got a new guy. They've got new people up there working. Al (Riveron)'s not being up there anymore. Some of them stayed with the ruling on the field last year. Now there's a new group of guys, and that's what they saw. I'm not going sit there and say anything other than I'm sure it was really close.

(on if he saw Julio Jones' performance today previewed during practice this week)

We saw it every week. He played really hard without the ball in his hand. I noticed a few times him blocking. That was something that we made an emphasis on. That's what I'm most proud of. I know they're going to catch passes and they're going to score touchdowns, but we ask a lot of those guys with how they play when they don't have the football in their hands. That's probably what I'm most proud of with his performance today.

(on responding after tackle Taylor Lewan was ruled out for the game)

We put the next guy in. That's what we do. It's what we've done for as far as I can remember as a player in this league and as a coach. You put the next guy in there and you hope everybody's prepared. That's why they come to practice. It could happen on the first snap, it could happen an hour and a half before the game. We're not sure. But we'll see what the situation is and make sure everybody is ready to try and help us on game day."

(on if the injury to Taylor Lewan happened during warmups)

We're going to take a look and see where he's at after the game. I was focused on the game when I realized that he wouldn't be able to go. My concern is about getting home safe and treating the guys who need to be treated, and Taylor (Lewan) would obviously be part of that since he wasn't able to play in the football game.

QUARTERBACK RYAN TANNEHILL

(on what was said at halftime after being down 24-9)

Nothing major was said. We knew what it was going to take, just had to go out and execute. Offensively, we were moving the ball great, we just didn't finish how we needed to finish in the red zone. That's got to get better obviously. Defense was playing good, gave up a couple big plays, but other than that, they were stopping them. There was no panic, there was no worry. We knew we were in this game. We were getting the ball coming out of the half. Offensively we knew we needed to come out and make plays and go put points on the board. We were able to do that and right when we did that, obviously we were right back in the game.

(on what was clicking today for wide receiver Julio Jones today)

He made some huge plays. The big one, I don't know if that was the first one or not, I saw something on the sideline, made the adjustment, told him about it and it paid off. He got open down the field and he was running and I was able to hit him there. Couple of big plays, the one that got called back was a huge play and it was a play that we expected to be completed later going further across the field. I was getting hit so I got the ball out early there and he was able to make the adjustment and go up. Obviously, a blade of grass away from a touchdown there. Couple big third-down catches. One early on an in cut, and I threw the ball high. It was pretty covered but threw the ball where he could go up and get it. He attacked the football and came down with it. Once I saw him make that play, I felt like he was going and it would be a good day for him.

(on if Julio Jones making a contested catch early in the game helps build their connection)

Yeah, no doubt. Obviously when you see a guy make a play like that where it's tight coverage, it's not a big window, it's a trust throw really, and you're having to go up and get it. When you make that trust throw and your guy makes a play, it definitely builds that trust. You get in that situation again and you feel strongly about giving him a chance with the ball. He made some huge plays for us today and took a big step forward for our offense.

(on if the team feels like they played more towards their standard today)

Yeah, we're headed in that direction. The first half isn't what we expect. Like I said, we moved the ball but didn't finish in the red zone. That's been a calling card for us. We need to be able to finish those drives, especially when you play good teams like Seattle. It can come back to haunt you. Got to get that cleaned up. I was proud of our guys. We battled, we were pushing piles, we were running the football. Derrick (Henry) was running extremely hard. You feel it on the field, the synergy of our offense kind of coming together and playing to our identity. There's a lot to get better, but as far as coming together as a unit, making plays, trusting each other and playing to our identity, I feel like it was a good step in the right direction today.

(on Offensive Coordinator Todd Downing and the offensive playcalling taking a step forward)

Yeah, no doubt. The whole team, Todd (Downing) included. I think we all took a step in the right direction. I thought Todd (Downing) called a really good game. We had some big adjustments on the sideline that paid off. Communication was great. The players were talking, talking to Todd. He's great to work with and making those adjustments and they paid off for us. Definitely a step in the right direction, we just need to build on it.

(on if he said anything to wide receiver A.J. Brown after Brown's struggles)

I told him that I'm going to keep throwing to him. I have a lot of faith in A.J. (Brown), and I told him I'm going to keep coming to him. I did that. I kept throwing his way and if I feel like he has an advantage on a guy, I'm going to let it rip like I always trust him. This is a guy who misses a couple plays there or something like that, I'm not going to cancel him out. I have a ton of faith in

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

A.J., he's made huge plays for us, he made big plays today. There's some plays that he wants back, but there's some plays that everybody wants back. There's plays that I want back, there's plays that Derrick (Henry) wants back, the (offensive) line wants back. It's an imperfect game. There's a lot of things that we need to get corrected, but I have a lot of faith in A.J. that he'll bounce back.

(on recovering on the sideline after three turnovers in the first two games)

It was fine. Not a lot I can do on that one. I got hit in the back of the head. I was coming off of A.J. (Brown) and was about to flip it to Derrick (Henry). It sucks, but I'm not going to go into the tank over something that I can't control, and even if I could, you have to turn the page. If you get hung up on any one play, whether it's good or bad in the game, it's going to hold you back the rest of the game. Whether it's a touchdown drive and you're coming off the field happy or a turnover and everyone's pissed off, you have to be able to reset on the sidelines and go out and get ready for the next drive.

(on if there's a good time to have a roughing the passer call like there was today late in the game)

I don't think there's ever a good time to be roughed, but when it moves the chains and I'm not injured, I'm not against it. It's just part of playing by the rules and knowing the rules. We talk about it on our team, and we know it's important. There were a couple today that helped us out.

(on being reunited with former college teammate kicker Randy Bullock and seeing his game-winning kick go through)

Total confidence. It's good to have another Aggie around. I have a lot of familiarity with Randy (Bullock), I held for him for four years in college. When he trotted out there, I had total confidence that he was going to make that kick.

(on learning before the game that tackle Taylor Lewan wouldn't play and how tackle Ty Sambrailo did in his place)

It's a game of adversity. Usually the adversity happens within the confines of the clock, but today it started in pregame. Not the news I was looking for as I was getting ready to go warm up, but I walked over to Ty (Sambrailo) and said hey, same thing like last year. No warning, you just have to go in and play your game. Play fast and aggressive and push piles. A lot of confidence in him, I feel like he came in and did that. I'm proud of him. And then (Aaron) Brewer comes in when Rodger (Saffold) goes down. Rodger (Saffold) tried to come back in and battled, but he ended up coming out again so (Aaron) Brewer comes in, a guy that I have a lot of confidence in. He's a competitor and obviously did a good job for us.

RUNNING BACK DERRICK HENRY

(on winning in a hostile environment)

We were coming into a hostile environment. Last week we didn't play up to our standards which was on us. We took full responsibility for that game in front of our fans. Coming to the West Coast, that's a hostile environment and the fans were relentless for this organization and city. I don't think anyone expected us to come here and get a W. I knew if we stuck together, trust in what we preach and what Coach (Vrabel) preaches, play the way we practice, it would eventually come together for us. I'm glad we were able to come out here and get a win.

(on if the players spoke about their first half performance at halftime)

We talked with the head coach. You can't sit here, talk, and not go out there and do. That's what Coach (Vrabel) was talking about. We can talk all we want but until we go out there and do it, it's just talk. We just wanted to go out there and put it all together. Like I said, I'm happy to get a good win against a great team in a hostile environment.

(on when during the game the team felt a turning point)

I felt like we were putting drives together, but we weren't finishing in the end zone. We kept getting three points and stalling. We knew that we could move the ball and needed to finish in the end zone. We made it a focal point to put drives together and score points. We got field goals but that wouldn't help against this team, so we eventually had to get in the end zone.

(on how this game can be a turning point for the team and lead to more victories)

I think you just enjoy this one. It was a tough fought battle. After the 24-hour rule, you move right onto the next one. We got another tough opponent coming up, a divisional opponent. It was a tough hard-fought battle, but we will come in after our day off and watch film, grow, and then get back to work again.

WIDE RECEIVER JULIO JONES

(on his catch that was initially ruled a touchdown and then reversed after review)

No, I control what I can control, right? They ruled that it wasn't a touchdown, so my mindset and mentality is to get the next play. I just saw it. I felt like I was in once I caught the ball, one foot down, second foot down. I felt like I scored. It's not my place to do their job. It's their job, they're professionals. They try to make every call with the best judgement they can do. Like I said it's not my job to go out there and officiate the game.

(on how it feels to have a performance like today's)

For me, it's always about the team, going out there and getting a win on each and every play for those guys, going to war each and every play. It feels good to come out of this thing with a win, a good team win. Just the way we went out there and were winless and didn't stop and kept going.

(on if he felt pressure based on Week One and the start of today's game)

For me, I don't put any added pressure on myself. I always come out here and try to do every play the best way I can possibly do it. That starts in practice so that when I get to the game, I'm ready to go. I'm just out there having fun.

(on what the offense can be)

We had a heck of a second half. We didn't finish the way we wanted to finish. I haven't watched film yet, or anything like that. We just have to continue to get better. It was a great team win.

SAFETY KEVIN BYARD

(on how nice it was to pull away a win)

It was a great win. Obviously, we didn't play well enough in the first half, especially defensively. We gave up some big plays, but you've got to bring a warrior-like mentality on the road. We were able to run the ball and I think on defense we played pretty well, pretty much the majority of the game. A couple of big plays but other than that, just a great win. We talked about finding out what type of team we were going to be, facing adversity and being down. I think it was 24-9 or something like that. We were able to come back and not panic on the sideline, everyone stuck together like a family. That's what you want to see against a tough team like Seattle on the road.

(on what it is about this team rising to the occasion)

I think it's the way we're built. I think the guys we have in the locker room and leadership we have when stuff isn't going well. We understand that. Things aren't always going to go well in an NFL game. It's just how it goes, and we have to stick together and just keep battling and fighting until the last whistle. I'm proud of all of the guys because we were able to come together and get this W.

(on what the atmosphere was like)

It might have been the loudest stadium I've ever played in. I've been in Kansas City in AFC Championship games and those games are pretty loud. But, that was definitely a playoff-like atmosphere. I think it was a good test for us as a team to be able to go through something like that and actually come out on top and win against a tough team facing adversity. That's how it's going to be every single week. We have a tough schedule, so every single game we have to understand that games are going to be tough. I was talking to some of the young guys on the sideline, 'This isn't college anymore, you're not going to blow people out. You're going to be down in some games, games are going to be close, and we have to continue to communicate and make sure that we're good,' Like you said, facing adversity and finding out what kind of team we are.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

(on what was said in the locker room at halftime)

Guys were turned up. I think we weren't proud of how we played in that first half. Obviously, we feel like we played pretty good, but there were big plays. We gave up three big plays, and if you look at those plays that we don't give up, it's a totally different ball game. We were obviously animated but at the same time we were like, 'Calm down, let's go out here and play football the way we know how to play it,' and I think we just needed to calm down, kind of settle down and allow the game to come to us.

TACKLE TY SAMBRAILO

(on what it's like to come off of the bench in relief)

It's always a quick shot of adrenaline and then you just go into the process that every game is. Obviously it's different, but the same. A lot of relying on the techniques and training and practice.

(on if he learned just before the game that he'd be starting)

Yeah, they just let me know, 'Hey, you're starting so get your mind right.'

(on if tackle Taylor Lewan said anything to him before the game)

He had words of encouragement and he was helping me out. He had eyes on me all game to let me know what he saw, and he gave me pointers and helped me get through whatever it was I was going through on the field. We have a great room. I love the dudes that I'm playing with and playing next to. Hopefully they feel the same about me. We're a tight group so we know it's the next man up when it has to be.

KICKER RANDY BULLOCK

(on kicking the game-winning field goal)

It's been great. It's been a crazy week just to get here and get acclimated, but to be able to cap it off like that and have the locker room go wild and crazy after last weekend has been a lot of fun.

(on his mentality running onto the field before the game-winning kick)

I think it was more of trusting what I do. I felt like I hit a pretty good ball on the ball that I did miss. There was pretty heavy wind down there into the face. You could kind of see it on the extra point that he (Jason Myers) he hit off the upright, the ball was moving. I just trusted it, hit a clean ball, and let everything else take care of itself.

(on if he thought the offense was playing to give him a chance to attempt the game-winning field goal)

Yeah, I think once they were kind of backed up punting, it set in. Obviously, I was already warming up seeing the field position, so I was waiting for an opportunity.

(on the game-winning kick)

It was just an awesome way of starting my career here. I'm really thankful for the opportunity, I'm glad that it ended the way it did, but more than anything we got a win.

TIGHT END MYCOLE PRUITT

(on going back and forth with Seahawks safety Jamal Adams)

It's just all part of the game. You get into the flow of the game and emotions get high, tensions get high, and I feel like we needed a spark at that point. Whatever I can do to provide the help to do that, I'll be able to do that. Even if I have to take it to the edge without getting a penalty, that's what I'm going to try and do.

(on if he got a sense in the locker room that he would help get things going in the second half)

Whenever I get a chance to get in there, I'm going to play my heart out. I didn't know how the game was going to go but I know that we needed a spark and I know we needed to come alive.

(on the team keeping their composure to help spark a rally)

One thing we always talk about is fighting through adversity. Everything isn't always going to go the way you want it to. But it's a four quarter game, and as long as we keep wearing on them throughout the whole game, and when it comes to that fourth quarter, we know our mentality. And we know the mentality that we should have had in the first half, but we came in and turned it on in the second half.

LINEBACKER DAVID LONG JR.

(on being back out on the field)

It felt good. I've been out for a while. Got back healthy, and glad to be out there with my teammates. We got the job done, it wasn't pretty but we made plays and we got the job done.

(on mounting the fourth quarter comeback)

It's our mentality. Never stop believing in each other. Until that clock hits zero we have to give it our all, when it got ugly nobody put their head down. Everybody came over to talk to each other, it's not over. We just kept going, and at the end of the day, Titans win.

(on the defensive mentality in the second half)

We know we have an offense that can get the job done, and we knew we just had to go out there and handle business. Personnel, communication was loud. Communication was a big part of it. Not panicking, they have a good offense over there, so just not panicking, and doing our assignments, and getting the job done.

(on the thought of potentially having been faced with a 0-2 record)

At that point there's nothing you can say. We just have to go out there and play. There's no talking, just go out there and make plays. Play after play after play, and we got that done. That was the message, not talking. There was nothing to be said.

CORNERBACK KRISTIAN FULTON

(on how he assesses his performance)

It was pretty solid. It was fun and just getting that opportunity with the coaches believing in me, I just wanted to put my best foot forward and just try to make as many plays to help the team win.

(on what has led to him being consistent)

Being confident and comfortable. I feel like the game has slowed down for me a lot this year. The coaches have been helping me with film. I'm just trying to make plays and I'm just trying to make sure I build up on my games throughout the week in practice. Just want to make sure the guys are giving me good looks so I can be ready on Sundays.

(on having the belief of the coaches)

It's definitely big. It's great when the coaches believe in you, it gives you an extra boost of confidence. It's great to know that the coaches believe in me and I don't want to let them down.

Jon Robinson was hired as Titans general manager on Jan. 14, 2016 after spending two years as director of player personnel for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Nearly one year later, on Jan. 5, 2017, he was promoted to executive vice president/general manager.

In his first five seasons on the job, the Titans finished with four consecutive 9-7 records followed by an 11-5 mark in 2020. It was the first time the organization produced at least five consecutive winning seasons since a seven-year run of winning records from 1987–1993. The Titans, Seattle Seahawks and Kansas City Chiefs were the only NFL teams without a losing season from 2016 to 2020.

Robinson became only the second general manager in franchise history whose first five teams finished above the .500 mark, joining Mike Holovak (1989-93).

Robinson's work helped the team go from three wins in the season prior to his arrival (2015) to a divisional round playoff finish following the 2017 campaign. He became the fifth general manager in franchise history to have the team in the playoffs within his first two full seasons.

Then, in 2019, the team he constructed advanced to the AFC Championship game. It was the organization's first appearance in the conference title game in 17 seasons (2002).

In 2020, Robinson and the Titans clinched the 2020 AFC South title with an 11-5 record in the regular season, claiming their best record and first division title since going 13-3 in 2008. They did so while navigating the challenges associated with the COVID-19 pandemic.

Robinson has overseen a nearly complete overhaul of the roster during his tenure. In six drafts as general manager from 2016 to 2021, he selected 48 total players, and 23 of those players were still with the organization through the 2021 offseason. The only members of the roster who predated Robinson at that time were punter Brett Kern and tackle Taylor Lewan. During that same time period (through June 2021), he engineered 26 trades and made 12 waiver claims.

2021: After the NFL's new league year began in March, the Titans struck several deals with veterans in the initial days of free agency. The incoming players included Pittsburgh Steelers outside linebackers Bud Dupree and Ola Adeniyi, New Orleans Saints cornerback Jackrabbit Jenkins, Indianapolis Colts defensive lineman Denico Autry, New York Jets safety Matthias Farley, Los Angeles Rams wide receiver Josh Reynolds, Browns tackle Kendall Lamm and Baltimore Ravens long snapper Morgan Cox.

The Titans also re-signed several of their own free agents: tight ends Anthony Firkser and Geoff Swaim, tackle Ty Sambrailo and inside linebacker Jayon Brown.

During the 2021 NFL Draft, Robinson led the selection of eight total players, beginning with Virginia Tech cornerback Caleb Farley with the 22nd overall selection in the first round. In the second round, the Titans chose North Dakota State tackle Dillon Radunz, followed by Georgia linebacker Monty Rice and Washington defensive back Elijah Molden in Round 3.

Perhaps the most notable transaction of the organization's 2021 offseason was the trade for wide receiver Julio Jones on June 9. Robinson dealt draft picks in 2022 (second round) and 2023 (fourth round) to the Atlanta Falcons in exchange for Jones and a 2023 sixth-rounder. Through 2020, Jones' average of 95.5 receiver yards per game ranked first in NFL history, and he is Atlanta's all-time career leader in receptions (848), receiving yards (12,896) and 100-yard receiving games (58).

2020: Early in 2020, the Titans reached an agreement on a multi-year contract to keep quarterback Ryan Tannehill in Tennessee. The Titans also re-signed tackle Dennis Kelly, who would go on to start all 16 games at right tackle.

After initially placing the franchise tag on running back Derrick Henry, the Titans and Henry were able to come to an agreement on a multi-year contract extension in July 2020.

Tannehill responded with 16 starts for the first time since 2015 and produced one of the best seasons of any quarterback in franchise history. He finished in the top five of several of the organization's single-season record lists with 40 total touchdowns (first), a 106.5 passer rating (second), 3,819 passing yards (third) and 33 touchdown passes (tied for second).

Robinson acquired Tannehill for the Titans in a 2019 trade with the Miami Dolphins, and in the quarterback's first two seasons with the team, he led the Titans to two playoff appearances. From the time he took over as the Titans' starter in Week 7 of 2019 through the end of 2020, Tannehill's 111.3 passer rating ranked third in the NFL behind only Drew Brees' 112.3 and Aaron Rodgers' 111.7. Tannehill's 2020 successes followed a 2019 season in which he led the NFL and set franchise records with a 117.5 passer rating and a 9.6-yard passing average. In addition to being named to his first Pro Bowl, he earned the 2019 Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year Award.

After securing his multi-year extension, Henry produced one of the greatest seasons in NFL history by a running back. He led the NFL in rushing for the second consecutive season with 2,027 rushing yards, which was only the eighth 2,000-yard rushing season in league annals, and also paced the league with 17 rushing touchdowns. He was recognized with the Associated Press Offensive Player of the Year Award.

Henry, a second-round pick by Robinson in 2016, led the Titans in rushing every season from 2017 through 2020, during which time he also led the NFL with 5,370 total rushing yards. In 2019, he won his first of two consecutive NFL rushing crowns with 1,540 yards and tied for the NFL lead with 16 rushing touchdowns.

In the 2020 NFL Draft, the Titans had six total picks, including Louisiana State cornerback Kristian Fulton in the second round (61st overall) and Appalachian State running back Darrynton Evans in the third round (93rd overall).

2019: Near the beginning of the 2019 free agent signing period, Robinson worked quickly to add several veterans from other teams who played key roles, including Tannehill and former Rams guard Rodger Saffold. Robinson also worked to re-sign safety Kenny Vaccaro and punter Brett Kern.

Then, in the 2019 NFL Draft, Robinson directed the selection of six total players, including Mississippi State defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons in the first round (19th overall), Ole Miss wide receiver A.J. Brown in the second round (51st overall) and Charlotte offensive lineman Nate Davis in the third round (82nd overall).

In his first two seasons, Brown led the Titans in every major receiving category, totaling 122 catches for 2,126 yards and 19 touchdowns. He became the 11th NFL player to reach 1,000 receiving yards in each of his first two NFL seasons and the first player to do so since Michael Thomas (2016-17). From 1970 through 2020, Brown and Randy Moss were the only players to post at least 120 receptions and 19 touchdown catches while averaging 17.0 yards per reception in their first two seasons. He was named to the Pro Bowl in 2020 after totaling 70 receptions for 1,075 yards and 11 touchdowns.

As a rookie, Brown ranked first among rookies in receiving yards (1,051), tied for the rookie lead in touchdown receptions (eight) and placed fifth in receptions (52). Among all NFL players in 2019—rookies and veterans—Brown finished second in receiving average (20.2), behind only the Los Angeles Chargers' Mike Williams (20.4).

2018: The Titans' 2018 free agent class included Pro Bowl cornerback Malcolm Butler. In his three seasons in Tennessee, Butler played in 41 games (36 starts) and totaled nine interceptions. In early August 2018, the Titans signed Vaccaro, who went on to start 42 games over his three seasons with the club.

Robinson's 2018 draft class was comprised of four players after he used multiple trades to go up and get his targets. It included first-round linebacker Rashaan Evans from Alabama (22nd overall pick) and second-round outside linebacker Harold Landry III from Boston College (41st overall). Evans started all 32 games from 2019 to 2020, and in 2019 he led the team with 139 tackles. Landry appeared in 47 games (35 starts) in his first three seasons, and his 19.0 sacks from 2018–2020 (nine in 2019) ranked first on the team.

2017: During the 2017 offseason, Robinson used free agency to address needs on defense and special teams. Most notably, he spearheaded deals for cornerback Logan Ryan (New England) and special teams contributor and 2017 Pro Bowler Brynden Trawick (Oakland).

In the 2017 NFL Draft, Robinson spent first-round picks on wide receiver Corey Davis (fifth overall) and cornerback Adoree' Jackson (18th overall). It marked the first time the franchise had a pair of first-round draft selections since 1987. The Titans' 2017 draft haul also featured tight end Jonnu Smith in the third round and linebacker Jayon Brown in the fifth round.

The 2017 Titans advanced to the playoffs for the first time since 2008. Robinson became the fifth general manager in franchise history to have the team in the postseason within his first two full seasons.

2016: In his first year as an NFL general manager, Robinson's leadership and decision-making helped the Titans triple their win total from the previous season, finishing 9-7 in 2016 after a 3-13 finish in 2015. The six-win improvement tied for the most in franchise history (1967 and 1974) and doubled the previous club benchmark for the most wins in the first year under a new general manager (three by Bum Phillips in 1975).

Within the first four months at his post, Robinson pulled the trigger on several key personnel decisions. On March 9, 2016, he made his first major acquisition, swapping fourth-round draft picks with the Philadelphia Eagles in exchange for running back DeMarco Murray. The trade provided major dividends in 2016, as Murray led the AFC and ranked third in the NFL with 1,287 rushing yards.

Around the same time, Robinson began to work the free agent market. Center Ben Jones and wide receiver Rishard Matthews highlighted the haul, and both were instrumental in helping to transform the Titans offense into the 11th-ranked unit in the NFL.

On April 14, 2016, two weeks before the NFL Draft, Robinson and the Titans dealt the first overall pick to the Los Angeles Rams in one of the biggest trades in recent NFL history. The Titans gave up the No. 1 pick and a fourth-rounder in order to receive the 15th overall pick, two second-rounders and a third-rounder in 2016, plus the Rams' first- and third-round picks in 2017. From 1990–2015, there were seven trades involving the No. 1 overall pick, but this was the first since 2004, when the San Diego Chargers selected Eli Manning with the first pick and dealt his rights to the New York Giants.

The Titans had their hands at one point or another on 17 selections in the 2016 draft due to five different trades (including one trade in 2015), and in the end, they ended up with a class of 10 players, including four of the top 45 picks. Robinson swung a draft-day trade with the Cleveland Browns to move back up to the eighth slot to choose Michigan State tackle Jack Conklin.

All 10 members of Robinson's first draft class played in at least one game in 2016. They accumulated a total of 110 games played and 38 starts, including 16 starts at right tackle by Conklin. The eighth-overall pick capped his successful rookie campaign by being named first-team All-Pro by Associated Press.

Third-round safety Kevin Byard earned first-team All-Pro honors in his second campaign. He ranked second in the NFL from 2017–2020 with 18 total interceptions also was named to the Pro Bowl in 2017.

PRIOR HISTORY: Robinson arrived in Tennessee with a wide range of experience from working his way up on the personnel side of the NFL. From 2014–2015, he served as director of player personnel for the Buccaneers and oversaw both college and pro departments as the team rebuilt its roster. The 2015 Buccaneers draft class made a significant impact, including four rookie starters: quarterback Jameis Winston, tackle Donovan Smith, guard Ali Marpet and linebacker Kwon Alexander.

Prior to joining Tampa Bay, Robinson spent 12 years with the New England Patriots, including his last five years (2009-13) as the director of college scouting. In the five years heading up their college scouting, the Patriots added a number of key components to their roster that won the Super Bowl in 2014, including wide receiver Julian Edelman, defensive back Devin McCourty, tight end Rob Gronkowski, tackle Nate Solder and defensive end Chandler Jones. He joined the Patriots as an area scout in 2002, a role he served for four seasons. Robinson then spent two years (2006-07) as a regional scout, before being promoted to assistant director of college scouting in 2008 and then director of college scouting in 2009. In his time scouting for the Patriots the team won 10 division titles, four conference titles and two Super Bowls (2003, 2004).

Robinson played three years at Southeast Missouri State as a defensive lineman after starting his college career at the Air Force Academy. Following his college career as a player, he spent one season

FIVE YEARS, THREE PLAYOFF BERTHS

Jon Robinson constructed a roster that produced five consecutive winning seasons in Robinson's first five years on the job, including 2020. The club went 9-7 in 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2019 with postseason berths following the 2017 and 2019 campaigns. Then, in 2020, the Titans finished the regular season 11-5 and won the team's first division championship since 2008.

Robinson is only the second general manager in franchise history whose first five teams finished above the .500 mark, joining Mike Holovak (1989-93).

He is also the second general manager in team annals who has helped guide the club to three playoff berths in his first five seasons. Holovak did so in each of his first five years.

FIVE CONSECUTIVE WINNING SEASONS

With an 11-5 record during the 2020 regular season, the Titans recorded their fifth season with a winning record in five seasons since Jon Robinson was hired as general manager.

In the "Titans era" (1999–present), it marks the first time the team has had as many as three consecutive winning campaigns.

With their 2020 mark on top of their 9-7 marks every season from 2016 through 2019, the Titans built the third-longest active streak of winning seasons in the NFL.

Most current consecutive winning seasons:

TO THE PLAYOFFS IN YEAR 2

In January 2016, Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk hired general manager Jon Robinson, who helped turn the Titans into a playoff team by his second season.

Robinson became the fifth general manager in franchise history to have the team in the playoffs within his first two full seasons.

Mike Vrabel was named head coach of the Titans on Jan. 20, 2018, becoming the 19th head coach in franchise history.

In 2020, the Titans made their second consecutive playoff appearance under Vrabel, who finished his third season with the organization with 31 total wins and a .596 winning percentage (31-21), including the regular season and postseason. His win total and winning percentage each tied Jack Pardee (31-21 from 1990 to 1992) for the best in franchise history over a head coach's first three seasons.

The Titans won the 2020 AFC South title with an 11-5 record in the regular season, claiming their best record and first division title since going 13-3 in 2008. They finished with a 5-1 record within the division and a 6-2 mark in road games, all while navigating the challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic.

The Titans led the NFL in 2020 with a plus-11 turnover differential. Their 23 takeaways ranked seventh in the NFL, while their 12 turnovers were the second-fewest in the league in 2020 and tied for the ninth-lowest number since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978.

In 2020, the Tennessee offense continued its ascent into the NFL's upper echelon. The Titans tied for second place in total offense (396.4 yards per game) and ranked fourth in scoring offense (30.7 points per game). They became the first team in NFL history to generate at least 2,500 rushing yards (2,690) and 3,500 net passing yards (3,653) while surrendering 25 or fewer sacks (25). Their 6,343 total yards and 381 first downs established franchise records, while their 491 points amounted to the organization's second-best total.

The 2020 Titans joined the 1997 Detroit Lions as the only teams in NFL history to feature a 2,000-yard rusher, a 3,000-yard passer and a 1,000-yard receiver. Derrick Henry led the NFL in rushing for the second consecutive season, and his 2,027 rushing yards gave him the fifth-best total in league history. Meanwhile, Ryan Tannehill passed for 3,819 yards, and his 106.5 passer rating was the fifth-best number in the NFL. A.J. Brown was named to the Pro Bowl after recording his second consecutive 1,000-yard season (1,075) and tying for fifth place in the NFL with 11 touchdown catches.

Situationally, Vrabel's teams fared well among the NFL leaders in his first three seasons as head coach. From 2018 to 2020, their .935 winning percentage (29-2) in regular season games in which they had a fourth-quarter lead ranked second in the NFL behind the New Orleans Saints (.974). In the same time period, the Titans had a .643 winning percentage in three-point games (9-5), good for fifth in the league. The Titans and Saints were the only clubs to win at least three overtime contests in the regular season from 2018 to 2020, and neither suffered a loss.

The Titans were called for 267 penalties from 2018 through 2020, which was the second-fewest total in the NFL. Only the New England Patriots (249) fared better.

Also from 2018 to 2020, the Titans were a top-10 team in scoring defense. They allowed opponents to score 22.4 points per game during that time period, the eighth-lowest average in the NFL.

Titans to AFC Championship Game in Vrabel's Second Season

In 2019, Vrabel became the first head coach in the organization's history to win multiple playoff games within his first two seasons. The Titans won a pair of road games—at New England in the wild card round and at Baltimore in the divisional round—to advance to the 2019 AFC championship game, falling at Kansas City to the eventual Super Bowl champion Chiefs.

The Titans began the 2019 campaign with two wins in their first six games but rallied to win seven of their final 10 games in the regular season. From the time the NFL went to its current playoff format in 1990 through 2019, 345 teams went 2-4 or worse in their first six games of a season. From that group, the Titans became only the third team to advance to a conference championship game, joining the 2002 Titans (2-4) and the 1996 Jacksonville Jaguars (2-4).

The 2019 Titans ranked in the NFL's top 10 in scoring margin (eighth, +71), turnover margin (sixth, +6), offensive yards per play (fourth, 6.12), rushing offense (third, 138.9 yards per game), red zone efficiency (first, 75.6 percent), total touchdowns (tied for third, 54) and third-down defense (eighth, 36.3 percent).

In his first season as head coach, Vrabel directed the Titans to a 9-7 record. His nine wins tied for the fourth-highest total in franchise history by a first-year head coach.

With only 82 penalties enforced against the Titans in 2018, Vrabel's team led the NFL and set a franchise record (16-game season) for fewest penalties in a season. The 2018 Titans also placed third in points allowed (18.9 per game), eighth in total defense (333.4 yards per game), sixth in passing defense (216.9), second in red zone defense (44.7 percent touchdown rate) and seventh in rushing offense (126.4) in the league rankings.

Background as a Player and Coach

Vrabel arrived in Tennessee with 18 years of NFL experience, including four seasons as a coach and 14 seasons as a player. His distinguished playing career included three Super Bowl wins (2001, 2003 and 2004), one Pro Bowl selection (2007) and an All-Pro honor (2007). Vrabel played in 206 NFL games and totaled 57 sacks, 496 tackles, 11 interceptions, 20 forced fumbles, nine fumble recoveries and 10 touchdown receptions. Additionally, his teams advanced to the playoffs eight times (20 postseason games), with Vrabel recording eight postseason sacks and two postseason touchdown receptions.

Vrabel joined the Titans after four seasons with the Houston Texans, spending the first three seasons (2014-16) coaching linebackers and one year (2017) as the team's defensive coordinator. During his time in Houston, the Texans built one of the best defenses in the NFL and experienced tremendous success as a team – earning two division titles (2015, 2016).

Between 2014-16, the Texans defense ranked third in the NFL in yards allowed per game (319.9) and net passing yards (218.4). Houston also ranked first in third-down defense (33.6), fourth in opponent completion percentage (59.5) and sixth in points allowed per game (19.8). The 2016 defense ranked number one in the NFL, for the first time in franchise history, in yards allowed (301.3).

MOST WINS IN FIRST THREE SEASONS

In the 2020 regular season finale at Houston, Mike Vrabel earned his 31st win in the regular season and postseason since taking over as Titans head coach in 2018. He finished the campaign with a three-year record of 31-21, including a 2-2 mark in the playoffs.

His 31 victories tied for the three-year franchise record originally established by former Oilers coach Jack Pardee from 1990 to 1992.

Vrabel, Pardee and Jerry Glanville (1986–1988) are the only head coaches in team annals to preside over at least two playoff squads in their initial three seasons. All three of Pardee's first three teams made the postseason, while Glanville's Oilers advanced to the postseason in his second and third years.

With a 31-21 record, Vrabel's winning percentage of .596 tied Pardee for the highest mark of any head coach in franchise history who has been with the organization at least three years.

When Vrabel was hired in 2018, he joined six other head coaches who joined (or rejoined) their respective clubs in the same offseason: Jon Gruden (Oakland/Las Vegas Raiders), Matt Nagy (Chicago Bears), Matt Patricia (Detroit Lions), Frank Reich (Indianapolis Colts), Pat Shurmur (New York Giants) and Steve Wilks (Arizona Cardinals). Of those seven coaches, Vrabel had the most wins from 2018 to 2020.

Vrabel, Reich and Nagy each led their respective teams to the playoffs twice in their first three seasons.

HEAD COACH MIKE VRABEL

- With a winning record in 2021, Mike Vrabel would become the only head coach in franchise history other than Jack Pardee (1990–1993) to begin his tenure with at least four consecutive winning campaigns. ## NISSAN STADIUM

NISSAN STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

Nissan Stadium hosts all Titans home football games, Tennessee State University football games, the Music City Bowl, the CMA Music Festival and numerous other events.

The procurement of naming rights to Nissan Stadium fit the automotive company's 'Fewer, Bigger, Better' marketing strategy, which has included ongoing sponsorships of NBC's 'The Voice,' the Heisman House college football program and a major advertising presence in this year's Super Bowl. Nissan is also now the official automotive partner of the Tennessee Titans.

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin.

The Nissan Smyrna Plant began operations in 1983 and employs more than 8,400 people. In 2014, the Smyrna plant assembled more than 648,000 vehicles, making it the highest volume automotive assembly plant in North America. Nissan also has a major manufacturing presence in Canton, Miss., along with research and development groups in California, Arizona and Michigan. In total, the company employs more than 22,000 employees in the U.S.

One component of the Titans-Nissan partnership is assisting charitable organizations throughout Middle Tennessee in an array of community outreach programs. A centerpiece of this is the annual "Taste of Titans" charitable event, for which Nissan serves as presenting sponsor. During the course of a 20-year relationship, a total of more than $1 million resulting from these annual events is anticipated to be distributed to local non-profit organizations.

Nissan Stadium is a city-owned venue that has housed the Titans since 1999. The naming rights agreement includes the opportunity for Nissan branding on the exterior of the stadium, as well as stadium signage and other unique displays inside the stadium. LP Building Products held the naming rights to the stadium from 2006 until the Nissan partnership was established in 2015.

Quarterback Ryan Tannehill is in his 10th NFL season and his third campaign with the Titans in 2021.

After receiving a multi-year contract extension during the 2020 offseason, Tannehill responded with 16 starts for the first time since 2015 and produced one of the best seasons of any quarterback in franchise history. A Titans team captain for the first time, his statistics finished in the top five of several of the organization's single-season record lists, including 40 total touchdowns (first), a 106.5 passer rating (second), 3,819 passing yards (third), 33 touchdown passes (tied for second), 65.5 completion percentage (fourth) and 7.9 yards per attempt (tied for fifth).

Tannehill and Buffalo's Josh Allen became the fourth and fifth quarterbacks in NFL history with at least 3,800 passing yards, 33 passing touchdowns and seven rushing touchdowns in the same season. Only Cam Newton (2015), Daunte Culpepper (2000) and Steve Young (1994) had done so previously.

From 2019 to 2020, Tannehill built an 18-8 record as a starter in the regular season and led the Titans to two playoff appearances, including an appearance in the 2019 AFC championship game. He was the team's first quarterback since Steve McNair in 2002 and 2003 to start playoff games in back-to-back seasons.

From the time he took over as the Titans' starter in Week 7 of 2019 through the 2020 campaign, Tannehill's 111.3 passer rating ranked third in the NFL behind only Drew Brees' 112.3 and Aaron Rodgers' 111.7. Among qualifiers, Tannehill became the fourth player in NFL history with a passer rating of at least 106.0 in consecutive seasons, joining Brees (2018-20), Russell Wilson (2018-19) and Rodgers (2011-12).

In 2019, Tannehill set single-season franchise records and led the NFL with a 117.5 passer rating and a passing average of 9.6 yards per attempt. His passer rating was the fourth-highest figure in NFL history among qualifiers. Additionally, he set a club record and placed third in the NFL with a 70.3 completion percentage.

Tannehill was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for December 2019 and was named to his first career Pro Bowl. He also won the Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year Award.

Originally a first-round selection (eighth overall) by the Miami Dolphins in the 2012 NFL Draft, Tannehill was acquired by the Titans in a trade with the Dolphins on March 15, 2019. The Titans sent a 2019 seventh-round pick and a 2020 fourth-round selection to Miami in exchange for Tannehill and a 2019 sixth-rounder.

Over his seven seasons in Miami, he started 88 games, threw for 20,434 yards and 123 touchdowns, and rushed for 1,210 yards and six scores. When he left Miami, he ranked second in franchise history behind Chad Pennington in both career completion percentage (62.8) and career passer rating (87.0). He authored 13 game-winning drives for the Dolphins.

From 2012 through 2015, Tannehill's passing yardage total—15,460 yards—was the third highest mark in NFL history for a player's first four seasons, behind only Peyton Manning and Dan Marino. Tannehill's two 4,000-yard passing seasons (2015 and 2014) were the only ones recorded by a Dolphins quarterback other than Marino (six times). The Dolphins reached the playoffs in 2016, breaking an eight-year postseason drought.

A native of Big Spring, Texas, Tannehill attended Texas A&M, where he earned honorable mention All-America honors as a senior. He played both quarterback and wide receiver, passing for 5,450 yards and 42 touchdowns and adding 112 receptions for 1,596 yards and 10 scores.

2021 Game Notes:

➤ Against Arizona (9/12), completed 21 of 35 passes for 212 yards with one touchdown and one interception (74.9 passer rating). He completed a 39-yard pass to Chester Rogers on a flea flicker in the second quarter and threw a 13-yard touchdown pass to A.J. Brown in the third quarter. It was his 14th consecutive game with at least one touchdown pass, tying George Blanda (14 games from 1961–1962) for the fifth-longest such streak in franchise history. He scored a touchdown on a one-yard rushing attempt in the second quarter to give him four consecutive games with at least one touchdown run, dating back to the 2020 season. He became the first quarterback in franchise history to rush for at least one touchdown in four consecutive contests. He also became the first player for the franchise and only the third NFL player since 1970 to register four consecutive games with at least one touchdown pass and at least one rushing touchdown, joining Kyler Murray (five in 2020) and Michael Vick (four in 2010).

➤ At Seattle (9/19), completed 27 of 40 passes for 347 yards (94.5 passer rating), leading the team to an overtime victory. He added 27 rushing yards on four attempts. He recorded his 23rd career game-winning drive and his 10th game-winning drive since joining the Titans in 2019. It was his 23rd career 300-yard passing game and his seventh such performance since joining the Titans in 2019. He had a 51-yard completion to Julio Jones in the second quarter.

BAUGH, MONTANA & TANNEHILL

During the 2019 season, Titans quarterback Ryan Tannehill accomplished a statistical feat only reached previously by a pair of Pro Football Hall of Fame quarterbacks.

Tannehill's season statistics included a 70.3 completion percentage and an average of 9.6 yards per passing attempt.

In franchise history, no quarterback prior to Tannehill had ever produced four consecutive starts with a passer rating of 130 or better (minimum 10 attempts per game). Marcus Mariota (2016) was the most recent of six Titans/Oilers signal callers to do so for three games before Tannehill.

He tied Wilson with the most such performances in 2019 and also tied for the most by any NFL starting quarterback in any season since 1960. Green Bay's Aaron Rodgers (2011) and Dallas' Tony Romo (2014) are the only other quarterbacks to accomplish the feat.

In franchise history, former Oilers quarterback Chris Chandler previously had the most season games with a 130-plus passer rating, with four in 1995.

To end the 2019 regular season, Ryan Tannehill completed multiple touchdown passes for seven consecutive games, one game shy of Marcus Mariota's 2016 franchise record of eight consecutive games with multiple touchdown passes.

However, Tannehill did establish a franchise benchmark in his final seven contests for most consecutive games with multiple touchdown passes and fewer than two interceptions. Over those seven games, he had two total interceptions—one each on Dec. 8 (at Oakland) and Dec. 15 (vs. Houston)—to go along with 19 touchdown passes and a 129.8 passer rating.

Running back Derrick Henry is in his sixth NFL season in 2021. He was selected by the Titans with the 45th overall pick in the second round of the 2016 NFL Draft.

Henry was named the Associated Press NFL Offensive Player of the Year in 2020 after an historic campaign in which he totaled 378 rushing attempts for 2,027 yards and 17 touchdowns. His rushing yardage total established a new franchise record and led the NFL. As the eighth player in NFL annals to hit the 2,000-yard mark, his 2,027 yards finished fifth on the all-time single-season rushing charts. He was honored with his second consecutive Pro Bowl, named first-team Associated Press All-Pro, and won the FedEx Ground Player of the Year Award for the second consecutive year.

Henry was a first-time team captain in 2020. He started all 16 regular season games for the first time and became the first player since LaDainian Tomlinson (2006-07) to lead the NFL in rushing yards in consecutive years. He was the first player in more than 50 years to lead the league in rushing yards, attempts and rushing touchdowns in consecutive seasons and the fifth player ever to do so. The most recent prior to him was Cleveland's Leroy Kelly from 1967 to 1968.

Henry's 17 rushing touchdowns in 2020 set a career high and finished as the second-best total in franchise history behind Earl Campbell's 19 rushing touchdowns in 1979.

In 2019, Henry was named to his first Pro Bowl and added second-team Associated Press All-Pro honors after leading the NFL in rushing. In 15 games, he totaled 1,540 yards on 303 carries (5.1 avg.), joining Billy Cannon (AFL, 1961), Campbell (1978-80) and Chris Johnson (2009) as the only running backs in franchise history to lead their respective leagues in rushing. At the time, Henry's single-season total ranked fourth in franchise annals behind Johnson's 2009 total (2,006) and Campbell's 1979 (1,697) and 1980 (1,934) performances.

With 16 rushing touchdowns in 2019, Henry tied for the NFL lead (Aaron Jones). Adding his two receiving touchdowns, his 18 total touchdowns were third in the NFL and tied for second in franchise annals (19 by Campbell in 1979; 18 by Bill Groman in 1961).

Henry's performance late in the 2019 season was instrumental in the team's run to the AFC championship game. Over the final six games of the regular season plus three playoff appearances, Henry registered seven 100-yard games. During a three-game stretch (Dec. 29 at Houston, Jan. 4 at New England and Jan. 11 at Baltimore), he became the first player in NFL history to rush for at least 180 yards in three consecutive regular season and/or postseason games.

Henry authored his first career 1,000-yard season in 2018 and the 28th 1,000-yard rushing season in franchise history, totaling 1,059 yards and 12 touchdowns on 215 carries—all then-career highs.

His 2018 rushing yardage ranked second in the AFC to Joe Mixon's 1,168 yards, and he finished seventh in the NFL. Henry's 12 rushing touchdowns tied James Connor for third place in the NFL behind Todd Gurley (17) and Alvin Kamara (14).

Henry was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for December 2018. His 625 rushing yards in the month were the most by any NFL player in any month during the season.

Against the Jacksonville Jaguars on Dec. 6, 2018, Henry recorded one of the greatest single games in franchise history in front of a national television audience. He broke Johnson's single-game franchise record (228) with 238 rushing yards, including a 99-yard touchdown run. He joined Tony Dorsett as the only two players in NFL history to rush for a 99-yard score.

In 2017, Henry shared time in the Titans backfield with DeMarco Murray. Henry led the team with 744 rushing yards on 176 carries, and he added 11 receptions for 136 yards and a touchdown. His five rushing touchdowns tied for second on the club.

As a rookie in 2016, Henry played in 15 games with one start, splitting reps in the backfield with Murray. He carried the ball 110 times for 490 yards and five touchdowns and added 137 yards on 13 receptions. Henry became the third rookie for the franchise in the "Titans era" to score at least five touchdowns in a season, joining Vince Young (seven rushing touchdowns in 2006) and Johnson (nine rushing and one receiving in 2008).

The Heisman Trophy winner played three seasons (2013–2015) at the University of Alabama, where he set numerous school and SEC records while helping his team win a National Championship in 2015. He played in 39 games and totaled 602 carries for 3,591 yards and 42 rushing touchdowns and added 285 yards on 17 career receptions with three receiving scores. During Alabama's victory over Clemson in the 2016 College Football Playoff National Championship, he broke Shaun Alexander's record for most career rushing yards in Alabama history.

In his final collegiate season, Henry rushed for an Alabama and Southeastern Conference record 2,219 yards, which led the nation and ranked fifth in FBS history. He recorded 100-yard rushing games 10 times and had four 200-yard games during the season. His 28 rushing touchdowns were a national best and an SEC record, snapping Tim Tebow and Tre Mason's old mark of 23. In addition to the Heisman, he also won the Doak Walker Award, Walter Camp Award and Maxwell Award, among a multitude of other honors.

Henry is a native of Yulee, Fla.

DECEMBER TO REMEMBER

In five games in the month of December 2018, Derrick Henry's rushing totals included 97 carries for 625 yards and eight touchdowns. His 625 yards were the most by any NFL player in any calendar month in 2018.

Additionally, Henry authored one of only four calendar months for the franchise since 1970 in which a player rushed for at least 600 yards. Chris Johnson (800 rushing yards in November 2009) and Earl Campbell (633 in October 1980; 662 in November 1980) were the organization's only other players to accomplish the feat in that timespan.

Henry's December rushing totals included 40 yards against the New York Jets (Dec. 2), a franchise-record 238 yards against the Jacksonville Jaguars (Dec. 6), 170 yards at the New York Giants (Dec. 16), 84 yards against the Washington Redskins (Dec. 22) and 93 yards against the Indianapolis Colts (Dec. 30).

For his efforts, Henry was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month.

Henry's 238 rushing yards set a new franchise record, breaking Chris Johnson's mark of 228 yards against the Jaguars on Nov. 1, 2009. It was the highest single-game rushing total in the NFL in 2018 and the league's highest total since Doug Martin's 251 rushing yards for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers against the Oakland Raiders on Nov. 4, 2012.

Henry later broke his own record with 250 rushing yard at Houston on Jan. 3, 2021 to take possession of five of the top eight single-game rushing totals in team annals.

In the second quarter, Henry took a handoff from Marcus Mariota inside his own one-yard line and raced 99 yards for a touchdown. It was the second 99-yard run in NFL history, tying Tony Dorsett's record-setting touchdown run for the Dallas Cowboys against the Minnesota Vikings on Jan. 3, 1983. It was also the team record, topping Johnson's 94-yard touchdown run against the New York Jets on Dec. 17, 2012. The only other runs in franchise history of at least 90 yards were Johnson's 91-yard rush against the Houston Texans on Sept. 20, 2009 and a 91-yarder by Sid Blanks against the Jets on Dec. 13, 1964.

Henry's 99-yard touchdown run tied for the longest scrimmage play in NFL history. It was the 15th such play, including his and Dorsett's runs and 13 passing plays. The last 99-yard scrimmage play before Henry's was New York Giants wide receiver Victor Cruz's 99-yard reception from Eli Manning against the New York Jets on Dec. 24, 2011.

He tied the franchise record and became the third player in franchise history to rush for four touchdowns in a game, joining Earl Campbell (against Miami on Nov. 20, 1978) and Lorenzo White (against Cleveland on Dec. 9, 1990).

The only franchise player with more overall touchdowns in a game than Henry was Oilers running back Billy Cannon, who had five total touchdowns (three rushing, two receiving) at the New York Titans on Dec. 10, 1961. Henry became the first NFL player with four rushing touchdowns in a game since New England Patriots running back Jonas Gray at Indianapolis on Nov. 16, 2014.

Additionally, Henry's rushing performance against the Jaguars accomplished the following:

- He became the ninth NFL player since 1975 with at least one 90-yard run and at least one 60-yard reception in his career. The others were Tony Dorsett, Garrison Hearst, Tiki Barber, Chris Johnson, Jamaal Charles, Herschel Walker, Warrick Dunn and Adrian Peterson.
- Henry became the seventh NFL player since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger with at least four rushing touchdowns and at least 200 rushing yards in a game, joining Clinton Portis, Barry Sanders, Doug Martin, Jonas Gray, Mike Anderson and Corey Dillon. Henry became the first to accomplish the feat in fewer than 20 carries (17).

Center Ben Jones is in his 10th NFL season and his sixth campaign with the Titans in 2021. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 10, 2016.

From 2012 through 2020, Jones appeared in 143 of 144 possible regular season games, including starts in all but one game during his first five seasons in Tennessee.

In 2020, Jones started every game at center and was a part of an offense that tied for the second-overall ranking in the NFL (396.4 yards per game), finished second in rushing (168.1), and allowed the sixth-fewest sacks (25). He helped pave the way for Derrick Henry to produce the NFL's eighth all-time 2,000-yard rushing season (2,027).

In 2019, Jones captained an offensive line that helped Henry win the NFL's rushing title (1,540 yards). He started all three playoff games en route to an AFC Championship Game appearance.

In 2015, Jones started every game at center, extending his streak of consecutive regular season games played to 64, which was the second-longest active streak among NFL centers at the conclusion of the season.

A native of Centerville, Ala., Jones attended the University of Georgia, where his 49 total starts ranked third in school annals. He was a two-time All-SEC selection by the league's coaches and was named to Georgia's Team of the Decade. As a senior (2011), the team captain earned All-SEC first-team honors.

Punter Brett Kern is in his 14th NFL season and his 12th full campaign with the Titans in 2021. The three-time Pro Bowl selection was claimed off waivers by the Titans during the 2009 season.

During his time in Tennessee, Kern has placed his name at the top of most of the franchise's leaderboards at his position. He passed Craig Hentrich (861 punts) in 2020 as the organization's all-time leading punter and finished the season with 876 punts in a Titans uniform. He also concluded 2020 as the team's all-time career leader in gross punting average (45.9 yards), net punting average (40.8) and punts placed inside the 20 (355). Kern owns the top eight net punting seasons in franchise history and six of the team's top eight gross punting seasons.

In 2020, Kern appeared in 13 games, missing three contests on injured reserve. He punted 37 times for a 45.8 gross average and a 41.5-yard net average with 22 punts placed inside the 20. Since the 1991 season, Kern's 59.5 percent of punts placed inside the 20 in 2020 was the best of any player with at least 30 punts in a season.

When Kern was placed on injured reserve during the 2020 season, it ended his consecutive games played streak ended at 199 games, including his career with the Titans and Denver Broncos. At the time, he owned the fourth-longest active consecutive games played streak in the NFL. His streak with the Titans ended at 177 consecutive games played, finishing as the second-longest streak in franchise history behind Bruce Matthews' 232 consecutive games from 1987 to 2001.

With 183 career games with the Titans through 2020, Kern ranked fourth in franchise history behind Bruce Matthews (296), Elvin Bethea (210) and Brad Hopkins (194). Kern's total was the most for any player during the franchise's "Titans era" (since 1999).

In 2019, Kern was named to the Pro Bowl for the third consecutive season, and he earned first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors for the first time in his career. His 37 punts inside the 20 led the NFL, and his 43.1-yard net average ranked second in team history.

In 2018, his 47.1-yard gross average ranked fifth in team history, and his 41.7-yard net average ranked second in team annals. He set a franchise record and recorded a career high with 39 of his 74 punts inside the 20-yard line. He finished the season with a career-long streak of 16 consecutive punts placed inside the 20, including every punt in the final three games of the season.

In 2017, Kern had arguably one of the best seasons by a punter in NFL history and was named to his first career Pro Bowl in addition to earning second-team Associated Press All-Pro honors. He punted 75 times for 3,728 yards with 28 punts placed inside the 20-yard line. His 44.6-yard net average broke his own team record and finished second in NFL history behind only Johnny Hekker's 46.0-yard net average in 2016. Kern's 49.7-yard gross average also broke his team mark and finished eighth in NFL history.

In 2015, Kern continued his annual assault on the team's all-time punting records and accomplished a first-of-its-kind NFL feat, becoming the first punter in league history to record 80 or more punts, a net average of 40 yards, and one or zero touchbacks in a single season. His season totals included 88 punts (tied for fifth place in franchise history), a 47.4-yard gross average (second in franchise history), a 40.3 net average (third in franchise history), a career-high 34 punts inside the 20 (third in franchise history) and only one touchback (career low).

In 2014, Kern launched a career-high 88 total punts for a gross average of 46.8 yards and a net average of 40.8 yards, which broke his own single-season team record (40.4-yard net average in 2012).

Kern produced one of the best punting seasons in team history in 2012. He set then-franchise records with a gross punting average of 47.6 yards and a net punting average of 40.4 yards (he later broke both marks).

Kern was claimed by the Titans off waivers from the Denver Broncos on Oct. 27, 2009. He spent the entire 2008 season and the first six games of 2009 campaign in Denver, totaling 73 punts and a 46.5-yard average in 22 games with the Broncos.

In 2008, Kern ranked fifth in the league with a 46.7-yard punting average that marked the third-best season total by a Bronco in club history. At the time, his punting average was the best in NFL history by a rookie. He was named to the All-Rookie team by Pro Football Weekly/PFWA and The Sporting News.

The Grand Island, N.Y., native was originally signed by the Broncos as a rookie free agent on April 28, 2008, following four seasons at the University of Toledo.

HEAD COACH MIKE VRABEL PRESS CONFERENCE TRANSCRIPT
Monday, September 20, 2021

(on the challenge of building the momentum from yesterday's game going into a divisional matchup this weekend)

Hopefully there is not a challenge. Hopefully it is just try to continue it and see what it looks like. We have talked about what we want it to be, but you have to go out there and prove it. You have to actually put it out on the tape and watch all three phases play that way, complement each other, and doing things to help the team win.

(on being patient with getting the run game going)

There is a fine line just based on where the game is going. We felt like we did have time and we were doing some really positive things, and it was keeping us efficient and out of those third-and-long situations and helping us gain first downs. I think it is all just a feel and how the game is going and what the situation is. It was great that we could answer and when you hit some big ones like that, like we did, it certainly allows you to stay in that mode. We kept it close enough, we kept answering. Defensively, we played just well enough in the second half to allow us to stick with the run game.

(on seeing the signs that the run game could start opening up during the game)

We always want to avoid negative plays and there are a lot of factors that go into it, mostly it is execution. Working with some of the things that we did, with the silence cadence in the noise, and give them credit with their run pressures and how they played. Just really proud of our guys in the effort that our guys played with in all three phases. Again, it needs to be better, we can play better, but that was a big game for us just the way we all played in the second half.

(on cornerback Kristian Fulton and continuing to grow his confidence)

I think he has played well. We had high expectations for Kristian (Fulton) with how he performed in the offseason and how he performed in training camp. Confidence is a large part of life and football and obviously most importantly playing corner. You get beat, you come back. You made a mistake, he came back, made a play, and got us off the field on third down. Those are all really positive things and I thought he did a nice job of not getting into anything after the whistle. We finally eliminated some of the dumb stuff that gets you beat. There were a bunch of opportunities for us to do some of those things, but we stopped short of getting any sort of penalties.

(on what was clicking defensively outside of the giving up the long touchdown)

We swarmed, we played hard, I thought we executed the plan on third down. I thought there was a level of a rush that forced them out of there. Even on the first one, (Russell Wilson) took off and scrambled and was short of it. Unfortunate again that we had the communication and the breakdown there on the third-and-11. The biggest thing is that we have to make them earn everything. It is hard to win when you give up 200 yards on five plays, you are lucky, you are really lucky to win that way. Then you have to look at the other 50 that gained 180. You are playing pretty good defense when they have 50 snaps and you give up 180 yards. We have to get some turnovers though.

(on the health of the offensive line following the injuries on Sunday)

Rodger (Saffold III) didn't finish, and obviously Taylor (Lewan) wasn't available. I think we will know more as we make our way through the week, and we will see if we get both of those guys back.

(on defensive back Dane Cruikshank and his play)

Dane (Cruikshank) needs to – he had some mistakes and there are some plays he would like to have back, but I thought he played fast and showed up. He played with a speed I think we are looking for, so I think he did enough to probably earn some more opportunities.

(on the offensive line stepping up after their performance last week)

I can't say enough about that group. That is who we are. At the end of the game they are picking themselves off of the ground, but they battled, they competed. They got us a couple times on some pressures on third down that we have to better on, but they gave us a chance to win. That unit certainly gave us a chance to win. Ty (Sambrailo) stepping in there, that is something that he has done in the past, and then (Aaron Brewer) stepping in there and being in there for Rodger (Saffold III). That is kind of what we expect from them, and they did that.

(on if running back Derrick Henry rushes harder when backups are in the lineup)

Maybe the guys that are in there are playing hard and trying to get some extra efforts. I am not sure if Derrick (Henry) knows the difference, but maybe it is just a good coincidence.

(on players being able to give the team a spark coming off the bench)

We did a nice job of hitting some of those checkdowns that – when they took off and got some depth, Ryan (Tannehill) was able to find some completions and help us out with checkdowns whether that be Derrick (Henry), Jeremy (McNichols), or (MyCole Pruitt).

(on defensive back Elijah Molden getting used to the speed of opposing slot receivers)

There are a lot of ways that you can do your job, and I think that he probably has to understand what his skillset is and what the other players' skillset is, and be able to try and disrupt them and find different ways to cover them. That was one of the big plays, we couldn't get him on the ground when he did catch it down the field. They are going to catch passes and are going to make some plays, we just have to be able to get them on the ground and limit the x-play touchdown.

(on watching the film of outside linebacker Ola Adeniyi's sack in overtime and if he thought it was a safety)

I am not going to sit here and debate the officiating. They didn't see it as a safety, apparently, they saw it as a sack, and it is what it was.

(on deciding when to go for a two-point conversion)

It probably takes place well before when we take possession. Just thinking, OK, here we are – if we get into the drive, if we get a first down we are probably in four-down territory, and if you don't then you are probably going to punt and try to use three timeouts. Then once you get into the drive, it is, 'Hey, we are in four-down,' then knowing how much time do they have left? And do you feel like they are going to be able to come back and attempt a field goal? We kind of figured we were going to kick the extra point.

(on the team's response to adversity this week)

That is kind of who we are. It is something that we have to embrace. We have to be able to build on the efforts that we played with in the second half and understand what got us to that point to eliminate those, our ability to take care of the football, our ability to score in the red zone, our ability to get off the field. We have to play better in two-minute at the end of the half. We let them out of bounds four times, it is inexcusable not to look over and get the call, all those types of things. The silver lining is who we want to be and sometimes what we have been here in the past kind of came to light there in the second half, so hopefully we can build on it. It is my job to show everybody what it is that we can be in that environment, with those circumstances there in the second half.

(on how big it is to get this early win after already facing so much adversity early on in the season)

There is always going to be adversity. Every week there is going to be something that happens, there is going to be things that come up, situations that come up. You want to try to be as consistent and as calm and controlled as you can be, be prepared for things and allow the players to go play. I am proud of the way they played in the second half and a lot of times in the first half. Our ability to put a long drive together, unfortunate it ended in a field goal, but there were a lot of great things going on that long drive offensively. Defensively, just have to continue to make them earn it and not hand them things and then find a way to play better on special teams.

(on his success in winning close games)

I think you probably need them each and every year, I don't think you can go back too long. I don't think there is too much panic, I think that we controlled the situation there at the end. Being able to go in there and score, use the clock how we wanted to, have conversations about not rushing and not leaving a lot of time left for some of these quarterbacks and offenses. I thought that was handled well. I thought our player understood what we were trying to do. Little conversation there about taking the run-off or using a timeout. I felt like we were all in unison in how we communicated that situation.

(on if they discussed being patient in the running game throughout the week)

I don't think you could ever go into a game and predict how it is going to go. You have to be willing to adjust and adapt and make some changes on the sidelines in all three phases. Then there is just a sense that as long as you are in the game, and you can continue to be positive with it, maybe there was one missed block or a missed cut or things that are close, when it is close, you want to stick with it. When it doesn't look like it is very positive, you kind of have to move on to something else.

(on if the patience in the run game is a part of dictating what happens in the game)

It is, it also goes to set up a lot of the stuff that we are doing. We were able to convert some third downs that now got us into drives that now allowed us to hit a play pass or hit a shot down the field. That is all predicated on getting into the drives and trying to set some things up.

(on seeing the other team get exhausted when running back Derrick Henry gets going)

When Derrick (Henry) is able to get to the second level and run past one of their faster players and one of their better players. It got started, A.J. (Brown) got us into the play, he blocked (Jamal) Adams, he is down there around the line of scrimmage and does such an excellent job. We got everybody covered up, we came back, Julio (Jones) was able to get a block on the back side that the play was never designed to go there. Just keep asking some of our better players that don't have to football in their hand to be able to help us in other ways and they did that most of the time. It was just an outstanding effort by Derrick (Henry) in the run game and a lot of other people.

(on Derrick Henry improving in the passing game)

It was good that Derrick (Henry) caught all the ones that we threw to him and really that allowed us to usually get a first down. We had a lot more on the screen, we have to look at our effort and look what happened there, which we will. His ability to catch the football and get north and south in those checkdown opportunities is good.

(on Derrick Henry's pass blocking)

He blocked (Jamal) Adams sometimes, he did some nice things. That is just an example of playing without the football, having to protect on some of those blitzes and being willing to do that, and he did.

(on if he said anything to wide receiver A.J. Brown after yesterday's game)

I would say it was just uncharacteristic. I think we all have come to expect a high level of performance from A.J. (Brown) and he expects a lot from himself. We just have to focus on concentration, focus on the week of practice and making those plays, and visualizing them, and finishing them.

(on Seattle's crowd yesterday and if it was what he expected from a noise standpoint)

At the beginning or at the end? It is a really difficult place to play. It is. I felt like we embraced it, I felt like we were ready for it. The guys responded, I thought the plan was good, some of the stuff we did to help negate that wasn't perfect, but the more that you execute the more that goes away.

(on the league emphasizing throwing a flag for taunting)

I think anything that is directed at an opponent, whether you point at them, spike the ball, things that are directed at opponents, should be taunting. Things that are directed at your teammates, your fans, your crowd is a celebration. I think there is a difference. I am not going to look at them at a case-by-case basis, but that is one of the things that we focused on is not trying to do things that hurt the team, and taunting would be one of those things that we put under that label. If you are excited, go make a play. If Kristian Fulton makes a play, there is no reason for us to talk to (DK) Metcalf or the receiver. We should go and congratulate and celebrate with Kristian Fulton.

TITANS-CARDINALS: GAME SUMMARY

Week 1: Titans 13, Cardinals 38
Sunday, Sept. 12, 2021 • 12:00 p.m. CT • Nissan Stadium

In Week 1 of the 2021 season, the Titans hosted Arizona for the third-ever matchup between the two clubs at Nissan Stadium. Tennessee fell 38-13 to the Cardinals in the team's home opener.

Arizona built a 10-point lead in the first quarter and never relinquished the advantage. First, Cardinals K Matt Prater converted a 34-yard field goal for a 3-0 lead. On the ensuing Tennessee possession, QB Ryan Tannehill was strip-sacked by Cardinals OLB Chandler Jones and the ball was recovered by Cardinals DL Corey Peters and returned to the Titans' one-yard line. Cardinals QB Kyler Murray eventually tossed a five-yard touchdown pass to Cardinals WR DeAndre Hopkins, as Arizona went ahead, 10-0.

In the second quarter, Murray connected with Hopkins for a 17-yard touchdown as the Cardinals extended the lead, 17-0. However, the Titans responded and got on the board with an 11-play, 75-yard scoring drive. Tannehill connected with WR A.J. Brown and TE Anthony Firkser for first-down receptions, and also tossed a 39-yard pass to WR Chester Rogers on a flea flicker playcall to move the sticks. Ultimately, Tannehill ran the ball into the end zone for a one-yard touchdown, but the extra point attempt failed, 17-6.

Before the first half concluded, Arizona found the end zone on a 12-play scoring drive that saw Murray toss first-down passes to Cardinals WRs Rondale Moore and Christian Kirk. The drive culminated in Murray running in a two-yard touchdown as Arizona took a 24-6 lead into halftime.

Tennessee opened up the second half by capitalizing on a turnover. S Kevin Byard intercepted Murray and returned the ball 12 yards to give the Titans possession at the Arizona 32-yard line. Tannehill tossed a 19-yard pass to Brown, which was followed by a 13-yard touchdown to Brown, as Tennessee cut the lead, 24-13.

Arizona replied on their following possession with a six-play scoring drive that included first-down catches by Moore and Hopkins. Ultimately, Murray connected with Kirk for a 26-yard strike and a 31-13 Arizona advantage. Later in the third quarter, Tannehill was strip sacked by Jones and the ball was recovered by Cardinals LB Markus Golden. Arizona capitalized on the turnover as Murray linked up with Kirk for an 11-yard touchdown to make it 38-13. The Titans were unable to mount a comeback in their home opener and fell to the Cardinals by a score of 38-13 in their first loss of 2021.

In the second quarter, the Titans tacked on another field goal on a seven-play scoring drive that saw QB Ryan Tannehill connect with WR Julio Jones for a 51-yard pass. Tennessee took a 6-3 lead as Bullock converted a 30-yard attempt. However, Seattle then scored on back-to-back possessions. First, Seahawks QB Russell Wilson connected with Seahawks WR Tyler Lockett for a 63-yard touchdown. On the following Titans drive, Tannehill was strip-sacked by Seahawks DE Alton Robinson and the ball was recovered by Seahawks DE Kerry Hyder Jr. at the Tennessee six-yard line. Seattle capitalized on the turnover as ultimately Seahawks RB Chris Carson ran in a two-yard touchdown to make it a 17-6 game.

Later in the second quarter, Tannehill orchestrated a 63-yard scoring drive with first-down receptions by Henry and Jones. The possession culminated in a 24-yard field goal by Bullock, as the Titans cut the lead 17-9. Seattle took the field with just over a minute left in the half, and promptly moved down the field for a 75-yard scoring drive as Carson scored his second touchdown of the day on a one-yard run. Seattle took a 24-9 advantage into halftime.

The Titans began the second half with possession of the ball and swiftly scored a touchdown. Tannehill connected with WR A.J. Brown and TE MyCole Pruitt for a pair of 15-yard passes, with the drive culminating in a nine-yard touchdown run by Henry, 24-16.

Seattle began the fourth quarter with a touchdown as Wilson threw a 68-yard score to Seahawks WR Freddie Swain. However, the extra point attempt was no good, as Seattle increased the lead 30-16. Tennessee responded with a two-play scoring drive of their own, as Henry took the handoff and raced 60 yards for his second score of the day to make it 30-23.

Later in the fourth quarter with the Titans trailing by seven points, Tennessee engineered a 12-play scoring drive. With under a minute remaining in regulation, Henry scored his third touchdown of the day, a game-tying one-yard rush to make it 30-30 and force overtime.

Tennessee punted on their first possession in overtime, pinning the Seahawks at their own 13-yard line. After Wilson threw two incomplete passes, OLB Ola Adeniyi sacked Wilson for a loss of 12 to make it fourth down. Beginning the drive at the Seattle 39-yard line, Henry tallied four consecutive rushes for 21 yards. Then, on fourth down, Bullock converted a game-winning 36-yard field goal to give the Titans a 33-30 walk-off victory in Seattle.

GAME CLIPS

TITANS RALLY FOR 33-30 OVERTIME WIN OVER SEAHAWKS

BY JIM WYATT
TENNESSEE TITANS
SEPTEMBER 19, 2021

SEATTLE – Just when it looked like the start of the 2021 season was for the birds, the Titans staged a furious comeback here on Sunday, and they walked out of Lumen Field with a 33-30 overtime win over the Seahawks.

In the end, a 36-yard field goal from kicker Randy Bullock won it.

"I found out that they're willing to compete, willing to battle and fight," Titans coach Mike Vrabel said of his team after the game. "I was proud of them ... I felt like that was our identity. You have to stop talking about your identity and hoping and wishing about an identity, you have to go out there and play to it and find out what it is.

"I think that (performance) was certainly who we are. ... These guys are excited, and they should be. All the credit to the players."

Running back Derrick Henry scored on a one-yard touchdown run with 29 seconds left in the fourth quarter to tie the game at 30-30, and send it into overtime. The run capped a 12-play, 68-yard scoring drive in the final four minutes and helped the Titans erase a two-touchdown deficit.

The Titans, who trailed 30-16 early in the fourth quarter, are now 1-1.

"Last week, we didn't play to our standards, and that was on us," Henry said after the game, referencing the season-opening loss to the Cardinals. "I don't think anybody expected us to come out here and get a W. But we stuck together ... and I'm glad we came out here and got a win."

Henry ran for 182 yards and two touchdowns on 35 carries for the Titans, including a 60-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter.

Titans receiver Julio Jones has six catches for 128 receiving yards in the contest.

"For me, it's all about the team," Jones said. "It feels good just to come out here with a win, a team win. We kept going, kept playing for one another."

After punting the ball away in their first possession in overtime, the Titans got a big stop on defense. Linebacker Ola Adeniyi nearly sacked Seahawks quarterback Russell Wilson for a safety, and Seattle had to punt the ball out of its own end zone.

When the Titans got the ball for their second possession in overtime, they got in position for Bullock to win in.

Bullock, just signed this week, delivered.

"It's been a crazy week, just to get here and get acclimated," Bullock said. "To be able to cap it off like that, and have the locker room going wild and crazy after last week and everything, it has been a lot of fun."

The two teams traded field goals at the start.

After the Seahawks took a 3-0 lead in the first quarter on a 31-yard field by kicker Jason Myers, the Titans answered back with a 13-play, 70-yard drive that was capped off with a 33-yard field goal by Bullock. Jones made a leaping 17-yard catch on the drive, and tight end Tommy Hudson also came up with a big third down catch.

The Titans put together another nice drive when they got the ball back, and it feature a pair of completions to Jones, including a 52-yarder. But once again the drive fizzled near the goal line, and the Titans had to settle for another field goal from Bullock, this one from 30 yards out.

The Titans defense got burned on a big play on the next series, however, as Wilson connected with receiver Tyler Lockett for a 63-yard touchdown pass with cornerback Elijah Molden and safety Bradley McDougald in coverage.

Disaster struck on Tennessee's next series, as Titans quarterback Ryan Tannehill was sacked, and he lost the football in the process. The Seahawks recovered, and two plays later Seattle running back Chris Carson scored on a two-yard touchdown run to make it 17-6 with 5:20 left in the second quarter.

Late in the first half, the Titans appeared to close the gap with a seven-yard touchdown pass from Tannehill to Jones, who made a remarkable catch in the back of the end zone. Officials ruled it a touchdown on the field, but the call was ultimately reversed, and the Titans settled for another field goal, this one from 24 yards.

It didn't take Seattle long to drive the field on their ensuing possession, and they took a 24-9 halftime lead on a one-yard run by Carson, which capped a seven-play, 75-yard drive that took just 48 seconds off the clock.

The Titans started the second half with a bang, driving 80 yards on eight plays and capping it off with a nine-yard touchdown run by Henry to make it 24-16.

The Titans had a chance to cut the lead further, but another stalled drive resulted in another field goal attempt by Bullock, and this one was no good from 44 yards out and the game remained 24-16 heading into the fourth quarter.

Seattle didn't waste much time to get in the end zone again, as Wilson with receiver Freddie Swain for a 68-yard touchdown pass, thanks to a blown coverage by the Titans, and it was 30-16 after a missed PAT by Seattle.

Just when it appeared the Titans were done, Henry busted loose for a 60-yard touchdown run to make it 30-23 with 12:17 left in the contest.

Then came the late-game rally, and the improbable win.

The Titans return to action next Sunday against the Indianapolis Colts at Nissan Stadium.

"It was a great win," Titans safety Kevin Byard said. "You have to bring a warrior-like mentality on the road, and it was a great win.

"We talk about finding out what type of team we're going to be, when facing adversity. We were able to come back, and stick together as a family, and that's what you want to see."

TENNESSEE TITANS STUN SEATTLE SEAHAWKS, 33-30, IN OVERTIME ON RANDY BULLOCK'S WINNING KICK

BY BEN ARTHUR
THE TENNESSEAN
SEPTEMBER 19, 2021

SEATTLE – The Tennessee Titans engineered a second-half rally Sunday that evoked memories of the Super Bowl contender they hope to be.

They erased a 15-point halftime deficit to force overtime and stun the Seattle Seahawks 33-30 at Lumen Field, preventing the franchise from falling to 0-2 for the first time since 2012.

Randy Bullock, who was signed from the practice squad earlier in the week, made four field goals, including the game-winning 36-yard attempt.

Here are quick takeaways from the win:

Derrick Henry was brilliant

Titans star running back Derrick Henry had 35 carries for 182 yards and three touchdowns. He added six catches on six targets for 55 yards, giving him 237 total yards from scrimmage. Tennessee rode him late in the second half as it staged its comeback and into overtime.

It marked the latest brilliant showing from Henry on the road. In his 16 previous regular-season road games entering Sunday, Henry rushed for 20 touchdowns and more than 2,000 yards.

Henry's surge in the second half came after wide receiver Julio Jones surpassed 100 yards receiving in the first half.

Jones caught six passes for 128 yards — 102 in the first half — and nearly had his first touchdown catch since signing with the Titans in the offseason.

Jones was ruled to have caught a touchdown from Ryan Tannehill in the back of the end zone in the first half, but the call was overturned by replay review.

Randy Bullock delivers

Bullock was signed from the practice squad in a desperate attempt to curb the Titans' kicking woes.

He made four of five attempts, including kicks of 33, 30 and 24 yards, along with the game-winner. His miss came from 44 yards.

His performance came six days after the Titans waived Michael Badgley, who missed a PAT and 46-yard field goal in the Week 1 loss to the Arizona Cardinals.

Titans' secondary gashed despite win

The Titans' secondary gave up three plays of more than 50 yards, including two touchdowns of more than 60 yards: a 63-yard score to Seahawks star receiver Tyler Lockett in the first quarter and a 68-yard TD to second-year pro Freddie Swain, who had no Titans defender within 15 yards of him on the score.

Tennessee's secondary, which has only one returning starter (safety Kevin Byard) from last year, also was worked in the season-opening loss to Arizona. The Titans gave up the second-most passing touchdowns in the NFL last season.

Ola Adeniyi with key sack

Titans outside linebacker Ola Adeniyi sacked Russell Wilson when the Seahawks were deep in their own territory in overtime, forcing a Seattle punt at its own 1. Tennessee started its final drive at the Seattle 48 and worked its way to the 18-yard line, where Bullock made his kick.

Up next

The Titans (1-1) return home next week to kick off AFC South play at noon CT against the Indianapolis Colts (0-2) at Nissan Stadium.

KING HENRY LEADS TITANS' LATE RALLY TO STUN SEAHAWKS 33-30

BY TIM BOOTH
ASSOCIATED PRESS
SEPTEMBER 19, 2021

SEATTLE (AP) — Derrick Henry and the Tennessee Titans found a way to silence Seattle's notorious noise that hadn't been heard for nearly two years.

The Titans leaned on their All-Pro star and staged the kind comeback they haven't pulled off in a regular-season game in more than a decade.

Henry ran for 182 yards and two fourth-quarter touchdowns, Randy Bullock hit a 36-yard field goal midway through overtime, and the Titans rallied from a 14-point deficit to stun the Seattle Seahawks 33-30 on Sunday.

"It just never ceases to amaze me. We just got to keep being in opportunities and being in football games where he can help us affect the outcome," Titans coach Mike Vrabel said. "That's really what happened today."

Down 24-9 at halftime and 30-16 early in the fourth quarter, the Titans leaned on their All-Pro running back, who carried them on the day Seattle welcomed fans back for a regular-season game for the first time since the end of the 2019 season.

ADVERTISEMENT

They left in silence, thanks to Henry, a terrific fourth-quarter drive from Ryan Tannehill and Seattle's missed opportunities.

The Titans rallied from a 21-3 halftime deficit to beat Kansas City 22-21 in the 2017 playoffs. The last time Tennessee pulled off a bigger comeback in the regular season was 2006 when it erased a 21-0 halftime deficit to beat the Giants 24-21.

Seattle led by 14 after Freddie Swain busted free from coverage for a 68-yard touchdown with 13:06 left. But Jason Myers missed the extra point, hitting the upright and setting the stage for a wild conclusion.

Henry rumbled 60 yards for his second touchdown of the game less than a minute after Swain's TD catch. His 1-yard run with 29 seconds left in regulation and the extra point from Bullock tied the game at 30.

And when Tennessee needed yards in overtime after nearly ending the game with a safety, Henry had four runs for 21 yards to set up Bullock's winning kick.

Henry also had a career-high six receptions for 55 yards and his 182 yards rushing matched the most allowed by Seattle during coach Pete Carroll's tenure. Tannehill was 27 for 40 for 347 yards and Julio Jones had the 59th 100-yard game of his career with six receptions for 128 yards.

Most important, the Titans avoided an 0-2 start.

Russell Wilson was splendid for three-plus quarters, but struggled in the closing minutes of regulation and overtime when Seattle had chances to put the game away.

Wilson was 22 of 31 for 343 yards and two touchdowns, including a 63-yard strike to Tyler Lockett in the first half. Chris Carson added a pair of short TD runs.

It was the fourth time in franchise history Seattle lost when leading by at least 15 points at halftime and first since losing to the St. Louis Rams 33-27 in overtime in 2004 at home.

Seattle also had its 12-game win streak in home openers snapped.

"We see what we can do in the first half, we know what we're capable of," said Lockett, who had eight catches for 178 yards. "We've just got to be able to learn how to be able to play when we're on top."

It was a disastrous fourth quarter for Seattle and overtime wasn't much better. Tennessee nearly won the game when Ola Adeniyi sacked Wilson on Seattle's only overtime possession. It appeared to be a safety, but Wilson was ruled down at the 1. The resulting short field led to an easy winning drive for the Titans.

Four runs from Henry set up Bullock, who hit from 33, 30 and 24 yards, and missed from 44 earlier in the game.

"Happy for him that he can get recognized and help his football team win," Vrabel said.

Seattle's first home regular-season game with fans since Week 17 of the 2019 season was a giant party from the pregame concert with hometown hip-hop artist Macklemore to the roar after Lockett's long touchdown reception that left the stadium swaying.

But the atmosphere turned tense in the fourth quarter and downright sour as fans headed for the exits.

Tannehill was 7 for 7 on the final drive of regulation, six of the seven passes going to running backs. The Titans faced just one third down and on first-and-goal, Henry plunged in from the 1.

Tennessee finished with 532 total yards, including 345 in the second half and overtime.

KINGLY COMPANY

Henry now has four career games with at least 150 yards rushing and three or more touchdowns. Only Barry Sanders (six), Jim Brown (six) and LaDainian Tomlinson (five) have more. Eric Dickerson also had four.

Henry also became the 18th player in league history with at least 10 games of 150 yards rushing. The Titans are 10-0 in those games.

"He got rolling, and when he gets rolling, he's dangerous," Seattle's Jamal Adams said.

INJURIES

The Titans' offensive line took a big blow two hours before kickoff when left tackle Taylor Lewan limped off the field with a knee injury suffered in early pregame warmups. Ty Sambrailo started in Lewan's place, the same role he took on last year after Lewan was lost to a season-ending knee injury in October.

The injury woes up front persisted for Tennessee as left guard Rodger Saffold III went down with a shoulder injury briefly in the first half, returned, then left for good in the third quarter.

Seattle right tackle Brandon Shell left in the fourth quarter with an ankle injury and DK Metcalf seemed bothered late after banging his knee, Carroll said.

TITANS SHOW THEIR ID, RIDE BOUNCER DERRICK HENRY IN STUNNER OF SEAHAWKS

BY JOE REXRODE
THE ATHLETIC
SEPTEMBER 19, 2021

SEATTLE – Before Randy Bullock showed up at his postgame press conference looking like the dude who adjusts the microphones at postgame press conferences, before he silenced and sent home one of the best crowds in American sports, before Derrick Henry took over, before the Titans' offense started to resemble in real life what it is rumored to be in media circles, before Tennessee's defense came up with stops of Russell Wilson that would have been unthinkable just an hour earlier, before the ghastly mistakes that made those stops unthinkable, Keith Carter had a quick talk with Ty Sambrailo.

"You're starting," the Titans offensive line coach said to the backup offensive tackle. "So get your mind right."

Just as it would have been an overreaction to take the whoopee cushion sound the Titans made in a season-opening 38-13 home loss to Arizona as a statement on what the 2021 season will be, Sunday's 33-30 comeback, overtime win over the Seahawks in front of 68,585 makers of loud noises at Lumen Field is not declarative proof of greatness to come. And that's especially true if the cause of Sambrailo's sudden starting assignment – left tackle Taylor Lewan's pre-game injury of the right knee he needed ACL surgery on in October – results in an extended absence for Lewan.

But you have to hand it to Mike Vrabel's team, and consider again why it might be awfully good, after comebacks from deficits of 24-9 at the half and 30-16 with less than 13 minutes to play in regulation. This was the offense a near-packed Nissan Stadium came out to see a week earlier. Julio Jones making big plays like he did for years in Atlanta.

Ryan Tannehill spraying the ball all over the yard. Henry making a defense long for a break – he had 35 carries for 182 yards and three touchdowns, plus a career-high six catches for 55 yards, which means the Seahawks had to tackle him 38 times – and showing that, yes, he matters when the Titans are down big, too.

Henry's 60-yard sprint to the end zone, flicking Seattle safety Quandre Diggs off him like a mosquito in the process, made it 30-23 Seahawks with 12 minutes, 17 seconds left, and came two plays from scrimmage after Wilson's 68-yard touchdown pass to an impossibly wide-open Freddie Swain.

"All day long we fought not to let that happen," Seattle coach Pete Carroll said of the Henry home run, "and then it finally did."

Swain's touchdown was the third huge passing play at the Titans' expense, all involving coverage mistakes of some sort, accounting for 182 of Seattle's 397 total yards. The Swain score figured to be too much to overcome, the shot that would drop the Titans to 0-2, a place few teams in NFL history visit on their way to the playoffs.

Henry wouldn't let it happen. Then he scored the tying touchdown with 29 seconds left in regulation. Then he burrowed 21 yards on four carries on the final overtime possession to set up the 36-yard game winner from Bullock.

"It never ceases to amaze me," Vrabel said of Henry's latest takeover in a game that saw the Titans gain 532 yards and have the ball for 42:33 to Seattle's 22:42.

"Just laying on those guys," Jones, who had six catches for 128 yards and had one acrobatic touchdown catch taken away by replay review, said of fellow Alabama product Henry. "Breaking tackles. Bama built. ... He put us on his back."

But it was Tannehill, too, 27-for-40 passing for 347 yards in a duel with

Wilson (22-for-31, 343 and two touchdowns). It was Sambrailo stepping in for Lewan and fitting in seamlessly against a pass rush that still managed to get three sacks — one creating a Tannehill fumble and Seattle recovery — to make it an NFL-best seven straight games for Seattle with three or more.

"Yeah, not the news I was looking for as I was getting ready to go warm up," Tannehill said of Lewan's injury, about which there were no specifics provided after the game.

It was Aaron Brewer sliding in next to Sambrailo and doing the job after left guard Rodger Saffold injured a shoulder and had to leave. It was MyCole Pruitt making plays at tight end with Anthony Firkser out, and it was Chester Rogers and Jeremy McNichols catching key passes with A.J. Brown (three catches, 43 yards) uncharacteristically dropping four. It was offensive coordinator Todd Downing getting into a rhythm and hitting Seattle with some calls, including a screen to Henry, that played a big role in the comeback. It was, to paraphrase Tannehill, an awakening.

"You could feel it on the field," Tannehill said, "the synergy of our offense coming together and playing to our identity."

And, yes, it was defense, too. You can't take out those big plays because they count and very nearly cost the Titans the game. But if you do, the Seahawks are left with 215 yards on 49 plays, an average of 4.4 per play. There were things to like about the Titans' effort on that side of the ball against one of the best passing arsenals in the league. Kristian Fulton stood tall again, battling with star DK Metcalf. The Titans had three sacks, Denico Autry with half of those, Ola Adeniyi nearly ending the game with a safety of Wilson before the Titans' winning drive. Seattle was just 4 of 12 on third down.

The Titans missed safety Amani Hooker, who has been placed on injured reserve, and fill-in Bradley

McDougald had a rough return to Seattle. The Titans need Jayon Brown (hamstring), too, but David Long Jr. returned to action just in time and provided key relief there. After that touchdown pass to Swain, the Seahawks had four possessions in the rest of the fourth quarter and overtime. They went three and out three times and got one first down on the other possession. That is not “2020 Titans defense” kind of stuff, especially against an offense this good.

This was, however, “2020 and 2019 Titans recovery from embarrassment” kind of stuff. The Titans are 8-0 since the start of the 2019 season in games after double-digit losses, and they have won nine straight such games under Vrabel since dropping the first two in his debut season of 2018. The Titans are 12-5 on the road since the start of the 2019 season, though this one deserves more recognition than anything that happened in 2020 because of the environment – “that might have been the loudest stadium I’ve ever played in,” Kevin Byard said.

None of these trends figured to be continuing when it was 30-16 (it would have been 31-16 but for a missed extra point, which along with 10 Seattle penalties for 100 yards served as comeback aid for the Titans). Nor when it was 24-9 and the Titans sat in a quiet locker room at halftime.

“You’ve got to stop talking about your identity, about hoping and wishing about an identity,” Vrabel said of his message at the time. “You have to go out there and play to it and find out what it is, and I think that was certainly who we are.”

This looked like a team that has a chance to have one of the best offenses in the NFL, with a defense that is more of a complement and less of an albatross. The resilience and offensive playmaking were familiar. The defensive clutchness, less so. The need to become familiar with the latest kicker was very familiar. The kicker himself, less so.

Bullock is the 11th person to play the position for the Titans since 2019. He was elevated last week from the practice squad after the Titans cut Michael Badgley, who missed a kick and extra point in the opener and only played because Sam Ficken got hurt. Who emerged as the main guy after Tucker McCann got hurt. And so on.

Bullock was 3 of 4 on field goals Sunday, pushing wide right from 44 yards and making from 33, 30 and 24, when Vrabel decided to play the last possession to set him up for a fourth make. Henry got it four times and Bullock – 31 years old, Tannehill’s former teammate at Texas A&M, getting paychecks from his seventh team since 2012 – trotted out to win it.

“You know, you’re helpless,” Vrabel said of that moment as a coach. “We’ve all sent our kids out of the house into a car. You know, it’s ‘Jesus, take the wheel,’ I guess.”

Bullock connected with a kick that drifted right but easily got between the uprights first. A crowd that had lived up to near-mythical standards for more than three hours shuffled out quietly. The Titans celebrated on the field. An 0-2 start turned to 1-1, with the 0-2 Colts up next at Nissan Stadium. A team that raised red flags galore a week earlier is raising eyebrows again. And the non-descript dude in the black fleece and white ballcap, who was actually at the lectern to speak and not to adjust the microphone, can return to trying to learn everyone’s name in the Titans’ locker room. It was a check your ID kind of day in that room.

“If you tried to quiz me, I’d probably struggle with it,” Bullock said. “I know a lot more guys know who I am now.”

TITANS 33, SEAHAWKS 30: MOMENTS THAT MATTERED

BY DAVID BOCLAIR
SI.COM
SEPTEMBER 19, 2021

For Tennessee Titans, nothing matters more than the result.

So, they gave up 21 points in the second quarter? They trailed by 14 early in the fourth? They had a touchdown taken away by a questionable video review? They finished the game with backups playing on the left side of their offensive line? For the third time in two games, their quarterback lost a fumble when sacked?

All of it— and then some — happened Sunday when the Titans faced the Seattle Seahawks at Lumen Field, where no visiting team had won in the Seahawks' home-opener in more than a decade.

The most important thing is that Tennessee overcame all of it in a 33-30 overtime victory that evened their record at 1-1.

That being said, there was much to digest along the way. Here are the moments that mattered from what might have been a season-saving triumph.

The Long Run: Derrick Henry got free for a 60-yard touchdown run with 12:17 to play in the fourth quarter. It was his 23rd carry of the contest and it gave him 135 rushing yards and two touchdowns at that point — a notable combination given that Tennessee was 14-0 when Henry had at least 100 rushing yards and two touchdowns in a game.

Of Henry's four longest runs in 2020, three came in the second half. In 2019, his three longest and four of his top five came in the second half. There is no better indication that the two-time NFL rushing champion is starting to get to an opponent than when he gets loose and runs away from defenders.

After the long one, he carried 12 more times for another 47 yards, including the touchdown that sent the contest to overtime. He finished with 182 yards and three touchdowns on 35 carries, which made it just the fourth time he has had three rushing touchdowns and more than 175 rushing yards in a game. Oh, and the Titans are now 15-0 when he has 100 or more rushing yards and two rushing touchdowns.

Going deep: The game's first touchdown was a 63-yard completion from Seattle's Russell Wilson to Tyler Lockett with 6:34 to play in the second quarter. Always a deep threat, Lockett beat rookie cornerback Elijah Molden and then ran away from Molden and safety Bradley McDougald for the score.

Tennessee's defense showed signs of life, particularly in the second half, but the secondary made it clear there is work to be done to before that unit becomes what players and coaches hope it will be. Seattle scored another touchdown on a 68-yard reception by Freddie Swain, and its first points — a first-quarter field goal — came shortly after a 51-yard reception by Lockett.

Wilson threw for 343 yards in the contest, but more than half of those — 182, to be exact — came on those three plays. Yes, the Titans won this one, but they can't think they can give up big gains with such frequency and come out on top often.

Getting there: On the third play of the game, a third-and-8 for Seattle's offense, defensive lineman Denico Autry stopped a scrambling Russell Wilson for a seven-yard gain. It stalled what soon became a fast start for Seattle's offense, which scored on four of its next five possessions, and kicked off what was a good game for one of the Titans' big offseason additions.

Much was made about the fact that Autry played relatively little in the Week 1 loss to Arizona, but coaches were clear afterward that they want to use him as often as possible in obvious passing situations. Given the sizable lead the Cardinals had for most of that contest, there were few of those.

Early in the second quarter, Autry registered a sack and a half in a span of three plays that forced another Seahawks punt. For the game, he was credited with three tackles, two quarterback hits and one tackle for a loss, which shows he can in fact make things miserable for opposing quarterbacks, just as franchise officials figured when they signed him.

Hands down: With 7:38 to play in the first quarter, quarterback Ryan Tannehill targeted wide receiver A.J. Brown for the first time. It was a play-action pass that sent Brown deep down the left seam, where he was open. Tannehill's pass was on target, but Brown dropped it.

That was the beginning of what turned out to be a challenging day for Tennessee's leading receiver in each of the last two years. Brown was targeted nine times, which was more than any other Tennessee player, yet he finished with three catches for 43 yards. That is a miserable catch rate of 33.3 percent.

Last season, Brown played — and put up big numbers — despite knee and ankle issues that bothered him from start to finish. That gave the impression that he is somewhat impervious to pain. However, Brown has been on the injury report each of the first two weeks of this season and thus far has caught just seven of the 17 passes that have come his way (41.2 percent). There is a lot to like from this game, but it seems reasonable to wonder whether Brown has pushed himself too far physically and if he will need to shut it down — at least for a time — at some point this season.

Kicking it: Their second offensive possession stalled at the Seattle 15 and the Titans were forced to settle for a 33-yard field goal from Randy Bullock, the franchise's latest placekicker. By halftime, Bullock had kicked three field goals and accounted for all of Tennessee's points.

Anybody would take touchdowns over field goals every chance they get. Still, if coach Mike Vrabel had known this game was going to come down to a kick, he might have looked for opportunities to allow Bullock to settle in, given that he had been on the active roster for just five days and with the franchise for just over a week.

It was not a perfect debut. Bullock missed a 44-yard field goal in the second half. But with a chance to end things in overtime, he drilled one from 36 yards with 4:45 to play. So, maybe all that work he got earlier in the contest was worth it because Bullock made the one that mattered most.

SIX THINGS THAT STOOD OUT FOR THE TITANS IN SUNDAY'S COMEBACK WIN OVER SEAHAWKS

BY JIM WYATT
TENNESSEE TITANS
SEPTEMBER 20, 2021

SEATTLE – The Titans rallied for an improbable, 33-30 overtime win over the Seahawks on Sunday.

Here's a look at six things that stood out:

Resiliency

The Titans looked like they were done on Sunday. Not once, but a couple of times. Down 24-9 in the third quarter, and 30-16 in the fourth, it appeared the Titans were on their way to an 0-2 start. But as ESPN's Lee Corso likes to say, 'Not so fast, my friend.' Touchdown drives of 68, 75 and 80 yards in the second half gave the Titans a second life in overtime, and once there, they closed the deal. It was a gut-check win, and the hope is it's also a momentum-builder moving forward. "I was proud of our guys, we battled," Titans quarterback Ryan Tannehill said. "There's a lot to get better, but as far as coming together as a unit, making plays, trusting each other and playing to our identity, I feel like it was a good step in the right direction."

King Henry

Oh yeah, this was peak Derrick Henry once again. The NFL's leading rusher in 2020 turned it another big-time performance, carrying the ball 35 times for 182 yards and three touchdowns. Henry reminded me of Titans great Chris Johnson on a nine-yard touchdown run in the third quarter, when he cut back across the field to find paydirt. He reminded me of Derrick Henry on his 60-yard bolt to the end zone, and with his battering ram approach throughout the game. Henry put the team on his back when the game was on the line, and he was plenty sturdy. His success is a big reason why the Titans won the time of possession battle 42:33 to 22:42, and the game. "I don't think anyone expected us to come here and get a W," Henry said. "I knew if we stuck together, trust in what we preach and what coach preaches, play the way we practice, it would eventually come together for us."

Hello, Julio + A.J.'s Off Day

Yes, this was the Julio Jones Titans fans expected to see. A seven-time Pro Bowler, Jones came up big for the Titans on Sunday after a less-than-stellar debut in Week One. Jones caught six passes for 128 yards, including a 51-yard catch on a deep ball down the middle of the field. Jones looked smooth as he ran under that one, and he looked tough when he snagged other catches out of the air. Jones also looked like he got both feet inbounds on what was initially ruled a touchdown, but that call was later reversed. "I always come out here and try to do every play the best way I can possibly do it," Jones said. "That starts in practice so that when I get to the game, I'm ready to go. I'm just out there having fun." As for Brown, it was a struggle, as he let a number of balls go off his hands and caught just three balls for 43 yards on nine targets. "Someone from my family told me I wouldn't have caught COVID today if I'd tried," Brown said on social media after the contest. The bet here is he bounces back next week.

Pressure Kick

Mike Vrabel couldn't help but crack a joke when the team's kicking situation came up during the week, suggesting the Titans have had 53 different kickers during his tenure as head coach. It hasn't been that many, of course, even if it's seemed like it at times. Enter veteran Randy Bullock, who was signed by the team this week. Bullock trotted on the field in overtime with a chance to win it, and he delivered. Bullock made four of his five kicks against the Seahawks, including the 36-yarder in overtime. He was awarded a game ball after the contest. "It's been a crazy week, just to get here and get acclimated," Bullock said with a smile. "To be able to cap it off like that and have the locker room go wild and crazy after last weekend has been a lot of fun."

Good and Bad on Defense

There were blown coverages, a few in fact. The Titans gave up a 63-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Russell Wilson to Tyler Lockett, and later a 68-yard touchdown pass from Wilson to Freddie Swain. From the press box during the game, I joked that I was the closest defender on the long ball to Swain. Maybe some folks can find the humor in that after a win, probably not those responsible. The reality the Titans need to get this fixed. But it wasn't all bad for the Titans on defense. In fact, the team made some big plays to put themselves in a position to win it late, and it held Seattle to just 4-of-12 on third down. Linebacker Ola Adeniyi had a huge sack in overtime to force a punt on a day when defensive lineman Denico Autry had 1 ½ sacks, and defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons added a ½ sack of his own. Cornerback Kristian Fulton was scrappy once again and other defenders made plays. The Titans are going to need to play better, but there's no denying they played winning football when it mattered most.

Banged-Up O-Line

The sight of Titans left tackle Taylor Lewan limping off the field in warm-ups was the last thing anyone wanted to see. Yet here was Lewan, who initially looked good working on his own a few hours before kickoff, hobbling to the locker room with the team's head trainer after suffering a setback. Lewan watched the game in sweatpants, as Ty Sambrailo stepped in to replace him. Then, in-game, guard Rodger Saffold left on two different occasions because of an injury, and was replaced by back-up Aaron Brewer. The Titans did enough to win up front, as the group paved the way for Henry's rushing performance, along with 532 total yards and 33 first downs, on a day when Tannehill was still hit too many times. Some things still need to get cleaned up here, but first, we'll have to wait to find out what's going on with Lewan. "We'll see what the situation is," Vrabel said of Lewan. "My concern is about getting home safe and treating the guys that need to be treated and Taylor will obviously be a part of that since he wasn't able to play in the football game."

ONE WIN THAT MEANS MORE THAN MOST

BY JOHN GLENNON
SI.COM
SEPTEMBER 19, 2021

It is one of those stats that leaves you scratching your head, wondering if it can really be true.

Since 1990, a total of 258 teams have started their NFL seasons 0-2.

Only 30 of those 258 – a mere 11.6 percent – ended up turning their seasons around and making the playoffs. An even tinier fraction – a mere 5.8 percent – won their division after defeats in their first two games.

So, no matter how often NFL teams love to toss around the “it’s a marathon, not a sprint” phrase, the harsh reality is that if you don’t start out with at least a little bit of a sprint, your marathon is likely doomed to fail.

Don’t believe it? Consider this: In 2020, the NFL expanded to 14 playoff teams, meaning close to half the entire league qualified for the postseason. But even with the bigger opportunity, not one of the 11 teams that started the season 0-2 made the playoffs.

Those were the ugly numbers that crawled into the baggage compartment along with the Titans this weekend, when they flew westward to a site where they’d rarely met with success. Only twice in nine meetings – prior to Sunday’s thrilling 33-30 overtime victory – had the Titans/Oilers ever come away with a win in the Emerald City.

It was hardly a surprise, based on the Titans’ brutally bad season opener – combined with the Seahawks’ Week One win in Indianapolis – that Seattle was close to a touchdown favorite in Sunday’s contest. And yes, that was well before Titans starting left tackle Taylor Lewan suffered a knee injury in pre-game drills, leaving the Titans with a starting tackle tandem of Ty Sambrailo and David Quessenberry.

“Coming to play on the West Coast, a hostile environment, the fans are relentless, for this organization and city,” Titans running back Derrick Henry said. “I don’t think nobody except us expected to come out here and get a ‘W.’”

The Titans certainly must have felt pretty confident in their own abilities, so self-assured, in fact, that they shrugged off another stinker of a first half, one that saw them head to the locker room trailing 24-9 – after surrendering touchdown drives of 83, 6 and 63 yards on Seattle’s final three possessions.

Thirty minutes to overcome a 15-point, second-half deficit in Seattle, despite the Seahawks – per CBS Sports – having produced a 52-0 mark in all such previous situations.

Thirty minutes, more importantly, to avoid that dreaded 0-2 start, the kind that – surprisingly enough – has doomed the postseason hopes of so many teams over the years.

So what tantrums were thrown, what tables were overturned, what blackboards were smashed in the Titans’ locker room as they contemplated their predicament?

“Nothing major was said,” Titans quarterback Ryan Tannehill told media in Seattle. “There was no panic. There was no worry. We knew we were in this game.

“We were getting the ball coming out of half. Offensively, we knew we needed to make plays, go put points on the board.”

Which is exactly what the Titans did, thanks, of course, to ... tight end MyCole Pruitt?

Sure enough, Pruitt, who was signed from the Titans’ practice squad last Monday, caught a pair of passes for 21 yards on Tennessee’s critical drive to open the third quarter. His fiery play also goaded Seattle safety Jamal Adams into a pair of penalties, helping the Titans drive 80 yards for a touchdown and deliver a statement that the visitors had not yet packed their bags for the airport.

We could go on for paragraphs about the other offensive heroes. There was wide receiver Julio Jones, who played like the seven-time Pro Bowl wide receiver Titans fans expected to see, catching six passes for 128 yards. There was Tannehill, who, though hit and harried often, completed 27-of-40 passes for 327 yards. And there was of course running back Derrick Henry, who – after being held to 13 carries for 35 yards – in the first half, exploded for 22 carries for 147 yards and three touchdowns over the remainder of the contest.

“I felt like we were putting drives together, but we just weren’t finishing in the end zone,” Henry said of the team’s sluggish start. “We were taking the three points, stalling. We knew we could move the ball, we just had to finish in the end zone. When we came back out, that was the main focal point.”

But we can’t overlook the Titans’ much-maligned defense, the group that had been steamrolled for much of the first two quarters, surrendering 24 points in the opening 30 minutes – for the second straight week.

It was the defense that held the Seahawks to just six first downs and six points after halftime, the defense that forced Seattle to punt four times during that stretch and gave the Titans’ offense its opportunities. Most importantly, it was the defense that stuffed the Seahawks on their overtime possession, when all Seattle needed was a field goal to win. The Titans forced a pair of Russell Wilson incompletions, followed by an Ola Adeniyi sack on what would be the Seahawks’ final offensive play of the contest.

“A lot of guys are fighters,” cornerback Kristian Fulton, who blanketed DK Metcalf for much of the contest, said. “That’s kind of the thing that coach Vrabel wants to build this team around, guys that are going to fight no matter the situation.

“We don’t care whether we’re up 20 or down 20. We are going to play hard. We want to show our foundation to the world.”

When the Titans’ newest arrival on the ever-revolving kicker carousel – Randy Bullock – drilled the game-winning 36-yard field goal in overtime, the visitors had stunned not only the Seahawks, but a tremendously loud Lumen Field crowd of 68,585.

Would the Titans have been toast had they not won this game, cast aside as just another non-playoff team?

In all honesty, probably not. For starters, they play in the AFC South, which has a combined total of two wins through two weeks. It’s a division that – aside from Tannehill – might feature these starting quarterbacks next week: Jacob Eason for Indianapolis, Davis Mills in Houston and rookie Trevor Lawrence in Jacksonville.

In addition, the season is 17 games long this season, which gives those unlucky 0-2 teams (there are currently six of them with another to join the ranks on Monday) an extra game in which to redeem themselves.

That said, the stats are what they are. History tells us that 0-2 is a much deeper hole than what it might appear when it comes to qualifying for the playoffs.

By winning Sunday, the Titans made sure they didn’t tumble too far too fast.

IN SEATTLE, TITANS REDISCOVER THEIR IDENTITY AND GET A W IN A TOUGH SPOT

BY PAUL KUHARSKY
PAULKUHARSKY.COM
SEPTEMBER 19, 2021

SEATTLE – Through three halves of football, the Titans had given people sufficient cause for significant concern.

In 30 minutes and 5:15 of bonus time at Lumen Field, however, the Titans showed us who they think they are and expect to be.

The third and fourth quarters plus overtime produced a 33-30 win over a high-quality Seahawks team and got them to 1-1.

As things turned, they did so with a predictable dose of Derrick Henry carries and offensive patience and an unpredictable measure of MyCole Pruitt and Henry receptions. A defense that has suffered some big busts and allowed plays of 68, 63 and 51 yards clamped down. The last four times Seattle had the ball, the Seahawks managed 43 yards, three first downs and no points.

The Titans came back from 24-9. Per CBS, the Seahawks were previously 52-0 at home in games they led by 15.

Mike Vrabel gave his guys a direct message at halftime.

“You’ve got to stop talking about your identity and hoping and wishing about an identity and go out there and play to it and find out what it is,” he said. “And I think that certainly was who we are. It’s not always pretty. If we can eliminate turning the football over and eliminate easy plays on defense, we’ve got a chance. ... You have to put it out there and be willing to throw it out there and execute and fight and claw and make the correct plays at the critical situations.”

“Coach Vrabel wants to build his team around guys who are fighters no matter the situation,” Kristian Fulton said. “We don’t care whether we are up 20, down 20, we are going to play hard, we want to build our foundation, show our foundation to the world.”

Ultimately the ninth kicker the Titans have sent on the field in the last three seasons – who’d earlier missed a 44-yard attempt – finished it, nailing a 36-yarder.

Of Randy Bullock’s game-winning attempt, Vrabel said, “You’re helpless. We’ve all sent our kids out of the house into a car and it’s Jesus take the wheel, I guess, I don’t know.”

The Titans were in a shaky position coming off a blowout loss to Arizona at home, and suffered a setback when Taylor Lewan limped out of warmups and was a scratch. Ty Sambrailo was plugged in at left tackle and did a serviceable job, as did Aaron Brewer, who replaced Rodger Saffold who left the game with a shoulder injury.

Ryan Tannehill was sacked three times and lost a fumble on one of them. That’s not great, but it’s half as many sacks as he took from the Cardinals. He dropped back more than the Titans probably would have liked, connecting on 27 of 40 attempts for 347 yards with no touchdowns and no picks.

He found a rhythm with Julio Jones in their second game together, connecting six times for 128 yards and had a 6-yard TD in the back of the end zone reversed by officials, who said his heel came down out of bounds. It was ever so slight if it hit while rather than green.

“I felt like I was in,” Jones said. “...I felt like I score but it’s not my place to do their job.”

And while Henry caught all six passes Tannehill threw his way for 55 yards, he took 35 carries for 182 yards, including a 60-yard touchdown.

“We were too aggressive on the edge” Seattle coach Pete Carroll said of Henry’s 60-yard scoring run. “Just got Jamal (Adams) fired up about taking a shot at something and the combination of how we played the edge right there, the ball bounced and (Henry’s) been doing that for years, he takes off and gets on the edge and nobody can take him down. All day long we fought to not let that happen and then it finally did.”

That has to be such a pleasing thing for everyone involved with the Titans’ offense to hear, as it’s just what they play to have unfold.

Tannehill didn’t think there was such a big jump to make after intermission for the offense.

Three times in the first half the Titans, usually a very good red zone team, got inside the Seahawks’ 20-yard line.

But drives stalled at the 15, the 12 and the 6 and they had to send Bullock onto the field. Of a potential 21 points, they got just 9.

“There was no panic, there was no worry, Tannehill said. “We knew we were in this game. We were getting the ball coming out of the half, we needed to come out and make plays and go put points on the board and we were able to do that. When we did that, obviously we were right back in the game.”

They got some help. Four of their 24 second-half first downs came thanks to Seattle penalties – 44 yards on an unnecessary roughness, a taunting and a roughing the passer.

The other side was pretty much the flip side of the story.

The Seahawks finished the first half touchdown, touchdown, touchdown and the Titans had to find way to slow things down.

While Tyler Lockett got the best of the Titans with 178 yards on eight receptions, Kristian Fulton did the bulk of the work quieting their other major receiving weapon. DK

Metcalf has six receptions for only 53 yards.

“I think I played pretty solid,” Fulton said. “It was fun going against one of the best guys in the league.”

Henry reiterated Vrabel’s halftime message: Talk didn’t matter until the Titans went out and did their thing.

Now they’ve done it.

Teams don’t pick up where they left off from one season to the next, so there has to be some degree of relief.

They still have it in them. Now they have to do it again, way more often than not, to get where they’ve talked about going.

Following his career at EMCC, Autry signed with Mississippi State amid offers from Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Florida State, Ole Miss, Southern California and Texas among others.
- Denico's brother, Lee, played defensive line at EMCC before transferring to Mississippi State as well. He signed with the Chicago Bears as a rookie free agent in 2020 and also spent time with the Los Angeles Chargers and Las Vegas Raiders during his rookie campaign.

13 CAMERON BATSON

WIDE RECEIVER • 5'8" • 175 LBS • COLLEGE: TEXAS TECH
ACQUIRED: FREE AGENT - 2018 • NFL EXPERIENCE (NFL/TITANS): 4/4
HOMETOWN: OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLA.
GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 23/3 (PLAYOFFS: 1/0)

PRO: The Titans signed Cameron Batson as a rookie free agent following the 2018 NFL Draft. The 5-foot-8-inch, 180-pounder is a shifty route-runner with good burst and run-after-catch ability. The Texas Tech product also has experience in the return game having brought back both kickoffs and punts during his collegiate career. In four seasons with the Red Raiders, Batson collected 157 receptions for 1,499 yards and 14 touchdowns, while returning 22 kickoffs for 417 yards and 65 punts for 394 yards.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In 2020, Batson set career-bests in receptions (12), receiving yards (100), receiving touchdowns (one), rushing attempts (four), rushing yards (20), kickoff returns (11), and kickoff return yards (231). He made his postseason debut and caught one six-yard pass.
- In 2018, Batson made the Titans' active roster out of training camp as a rookie free agent. He appeared in 11 games with two starts at wide receiver and posted eight catches for 82 yards.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- Batson was the valedictorian of his class at Millwood (Okla.) High School, and at Texas Tech, he graduated cum laude with his accounting degree in just over three years. His valedictorian speech – he had 52 in his graduating class – focused on his class, along with his past, and his journey.
- Batson wasn't necessarily expecting to make the team's 53-man roster as a rookie free agent in 2018. So when he walked into general manager Jon Robinson's office during cutdown day, he was expecting the worst. But things took a nice turn, and then something happened even the GM had never experienced before. Robinson told Batson he'd made the team's 53-man roster, and an impromptu prayer broke out. "I sat there and prayed," Batson said, "and Jon bowed his head with me. He said, 'That's the first time anyone had ever done that.' ... I just wanted to give God the glory, with everything that is going on good or bad, because without Him nothing is possible."
- He has a dog named Kookie, and runs an Instagram account for her @ms.kookiemonster.
- Batson was roommates with Kansas City Chiefs quarterback Patrick Mahomes at Texas Tech.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Oklahoma City, Okla., native was signed by the Titans as an undrafted free agent on May 11, 2018.
- Waived by the Titans on Sept. 17, 2018 and signed to the team's practice squad a day later.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- As a child growing up in Statesville, N.C., Borders faced immense adversity at a young age. From birth until he was almost seven, Borders was raised by his grandmother, Yvonne Bennett, until his 'immediate family went to prison for drugs,' Bennett included. 'That kind of devastated me,' Borders said. 'It was like a drug chain...When one person went down, everybody went down.' To Borders, Bennett was '...my world. She was my everything.' Borders went to live with his great aunt and Bennett's sister, Sandra Reid, until he was 14. 'Even though it's a messed up situation, I feel like that situation prepared me for life. For seven years, I didn't see my mom, dad, my grandma, my brother. From seven to 14, it was a huge lesson that I had to overcome. When I did, I felt like I could get past anything.'

55 JAYON BROWN

LINEBACKER • 6'0" • 226 LBS • COLLEGE: UCLA
ACQUIRED: 5TH ROUND - 2017 • NFL EXPERIENCE (NFL/TITANS): 5/5
HOMETOWN: LONG BEACH, CALIF.
GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 57/34 (PLAYOFFS: 4/2)

PRO: The Titans selected Jayon Brown in the fifth round of the 2017 NFL Draft. He was re-signed by the club as an unrestricted free agent in 2021. The 6-foot, 226-pound defender possesses tremendous speed for the position and excels at covering tight ends and running backs. A three-down linebacker, Brown is one of the Titans' top defensive playmakers and leaders, often serving as the defensive signal caller. In 2019, he ranked third on the team with a career-high 117 tackles after finishing second on the squad with 107 total tackles and six sacks in 2018.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In 2020, Brown led the team with 76 tackles through the first 10 games of the season but spent the remainder of the campaign on injured reserve.
- In 2019, Brown started a career-best 14 games and ranked third on the team with a career-high 117 tackles and fourth on squad with nine passes defended.
- In 2018, Brown finished second on the defense with 107 tackles and six sacks, and his 18 quarterback pressures tied for the second-highest total on the team. He was one of only six NFL linebackers with at least six sacks, one interception, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery during the season.
- Against Indianapolis on Dec. 30, 2018, Brown recorded his first career interception and returned the ball 22 yards for his first career touchdown. He later recorded a forced fumble and fumble recovery, and in doing so, he became the third NFL player in 2018 to record an interception for a touchdown, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery in the same game (Bobby Wagner, Khalil Mack). Brown became the first Titans player to accomplish the feat since at least 1993.
- As a rookie in 2017, Brown appeared in every game as the team's nickel linebacker. He registered 67 tackles, which tied for the 10th-highest total by a "Titans era" rookie (1999–present) and ranked fifth among the team's rookie linebackers in that span.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- Brown spent time as a child in the YMCA's after-school care program in Long Beach, Calif., and he is using those experiences to drive his involvement in the Nashville community. He launched the Jayon Brown MVP Program in conjunction with the YMCA's Community Action Program (YCAP), which helps at-risk and underserved youth in the Nashville area by closing the opportunity gap. Each week, Brown's program identifies a student in YCAP who exemplifies the core principles set forth in what he calls the "55 Game Plan." That student receives four tickets to an upcoming Titans game. "I lay out a game plan for them, which is to be a good student in the classroom, listen to your teachers, do your homework, make good choices, and live a healthy lifestyle," Brown said. "And I compare my life to theirs – I have to learn the playbook each and every week, be a good teammate, listen to my coaches, be coachable, go home and watch film, be healthy, work out, and play football."
- Brown went to the same California high school, Long Beach Poly, as former Titans great Jurrell Casey. Brown's older brother, Juwuan, was Jurrell's teammate there.
- He likes spending as much time as possible with his dogs, "a mutt named Lou" and a Rottweiler named Kali. He also enjoys puzzles and watching movies.
- Former Long Beach Poly and New England Patriots star Willie McGinest is a close friend of the Brown family.
- Brown's younger brother, Joshua, is a defensive end at the University of Arizona, and his two older brothers also played college football. Jason played linebacker at Idaho, while Juwuan was a defensive lineman at Southern Oregon.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Long Beach, Calif., native was selected by the Titans in the fifth round (155th overall) of the 2017 NFL Draft.
- Re-signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 23, 2021.

Following his second season, during which he tied for the NFL lead in interceptions (eight) and led the NFL in total takeaways (10), he was named first-team Associated Press All-Pro and earned his first Pro Bowl berth. From 2017 through 2019, no player had more interceptions than Byard, who totaled 17. The 5-foot-11-inch, 212-pound defender was named a team captain for the defense for the first time in 2019. A product of Middle Tennessee State University, Byard has a reputation as a sideline-to-sideline, ball-hawking safety who plays with tremendous intelligence and effort.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In 2020, Byard was named the team's Walter Payton Man of the Year for his work in the community.
- Byard led the team and set a career-high in 2020 with 111 tackles.
- From 2017 through 2020, Byard ranked second in the NFL with 18 interceptions, behind only Miami's Xavien Howard.

- In 2017, Byard was named to the Pro Bowl and earned first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors after tying Detroit's Darius Slay for the NFL lead with eight interceptions. He added a pair of fumble recoveries to pace the league with 10 total takeaways.
- His eight interceptions in 2017 tied for seventh in franchise history and made up the highest total by any franchise player since Oilers cornerback Richard Johnson picked off eight passes in 1990.
- In 2016, Byard saw action in all 16 games with seven starts and compiled 63 tackles, a sack, five tackles for loss, three quarterback pressures, four passes defended and 10 special teams tackles. His seven starts were the most by a Titans rookie safety since Michael Griffin (10) in 2007.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- In July 2020, Byard was named the official spokesperson for the United Way of Greater Nashville. His first order of business was to participate in the organization's virtual Stuff the Bus school supply drive.
- During the 2020 season, Byard assisted his wife, Clarke, in the unintentional home birth of their son, Kevin Leon Byard IV. 'It's one of those deals where we just couldn't make it to the hospital,' Byard said. 'We weren't planning on having the baby at the house.' Byard said Clarke started having mild contractions on the evening of August 23. Around 10:30 p.m., she woke up and things escalated quickly. Then, she started having more severe contractions while on the bathroom floor. The baby was due on August 24th. 'I kind of got up, I wasn't really panicking, but I was scrambling to get some clothes on, helping her try to get dressed,' Byard recalled. 'Her mom was downstairs, so I called her up.' Byard then got the car ready, as Clarke started moving around. Byard called the doula and said, 'meet us at the hospital,' but with things changing, it became, 'meet us at the house.' With the doula being 30 minutes away from the Byard's home, she provided instructions. The first: 'Let's try and get her in the bathtub.' But by this time, Byard said his son's 'head was already poking out.' At this point, Byard said his wife was on her hands and knees. 'The (doula) said, "Tell her to start pushing, the baby is coming,"' Byard recalled. 'His face was pointing upward, so I could see his face was real purple. I was nervous about that, so the doula told me to support his head.' About 10 or 15 minutes later, he was holding Kevin IV in his arms. 'Once he got his head out, his shoulders and everything just kind of slipped out,' Byard said. 'And I kind of caught him in my arms. He waited about five seconds, he coughed about two or three times, and started crying.' Byard has said it is a story he will be able to tell his son for the rest of his days.

- Byard credits his mother, Artina Stanley, for much of his success. Following a divorce when Byard was in ninth grade, his mother moved with the children from Philadelphia to Atlanta. Although it was a financial struggle, Stanley worked long hours to make sure her children received what they needed. Byard claims he and his older brother "had to grow up really fast" as they helped their mother with taking care of the younger kids in the family. In May 2020, Byard was able to accomplish a goal of helping to purchase his mother her "forever home."
- During the 2019 offseason, Byard hosted 200-plus youngsters at the inaugural Kevin Byard Football Camp at Ensworth School. He plans to hold the camp—which is free—every year.
- The Titans had an inside track in their scouting of Byard. Titans general manager Jon Robinson received glowing reports on Byard from his friend and MTSU recruiting coordinator Steve Ellis. When Robinson was a linebackers coach at Nicholls State, Ellis was one of his pupils, and the two remained close through the years. Additionally, Patrick Callaway, college scout for the Titans, was Byard's high school teammate.
- Byard says his football role models are Ed Reed, Brian Dawkins and Troy Polamalu.
- Byard has aspirations to travel the world, and his bucket list includes setting foot on every continent.

54 RASHAAN EVANS

LINEBACKER • 6'2" • 232 LBS • COLLEGE: ALABAMA

ACQUIRED: 1ST ROUND - 2018 • NFL EXPERIENCE (NFL/TITANS): 4/4

HOMETOWN: AUBURN, ALA.

GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 49/41 (PLAYOFFS: 4/4)

PRO: The Titans traded up to select Rashaan Evans with the 22nd overall pick in the first round of the 2018 NFL Draft. The 6-foot-2 inch, 232-pound defender was identified as a playmaker that could quickly bolster the linebacking corps and develop into a leader on defense. He appeared in all but one game in his first three campaigns, including starts at inside linebacker in every game from 2019 to 2020. He led the Titans defense with 139 tackles and 11 tackles for loss in his second season.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In 2020, Evans started every game for the second consecutive season and finished third on the defense with 96 tackles.
- In 2019, Evans started every game during the regular season and playoffs. He led the team with 139 tackles and 11 tackles for loss.
- As a rookie in 2018, Evans played in 15 games with seven starts at inside linebacker and totaled 63 tackles, six quarterback pressures, two tackles for loss and three passes defended.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- Upon being drafted by Tennessee, Evans was reunited with former Crimson Tide teammate Derrick Henry. Henry phoned Evans immediately after he was selected with the 22nd pick to congratulate him.
- He has two pregame rituals. Evans prays before each game and pulls grass from the field early in pregame to get a feel for the turf.
- His nickname is 'Razor, because I cut up.'
- At Alabama, Evans shared the field with his brother, Alex, a member of the Crimson Tide spirit squad.
- Two of his football role models are DeMarcus Ware and Lawrence Taylor. He met Ware, who also is from Auburn, Ala., at the 2018 NFL Draft. He later had a chance to meet Taylor during a trip to Miami and calls each experience an "amazing moment."
- Growing up in rural Alabama, Evans would chase wild horses to work on improving his speed and athleticism.
- Evans' father, Alan, was a star running back at Auburn. Evans' mother, Chenavis, received four degrees from Auburn, including her doctorate. Evans' older sister was a cheerleader at Auburn, and despite the family ties including his cousins attending Auburn, Evans stuck with his gut and instead chose Alabama.

3 CALEB FARLEY

CORNERBACK • 6'2" • 197 LBS • COLLEGE: VIRGINIA TECH
ACQUIRED: 1ST ROUND - 2021 • NFL EXPERIENCE: ROOKIE
HOMETOWN: MAIDEN, N.C.
GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 1/0 (PLAYOFFS: 0/0)

PRO: The Titans selected Caleb Farley with the 22nd overall pick in the first round of the 2021 NFL Draft. The 6-foot-2 inch, 197-pound defender possesses a rare combination of size and speed for an athlete at his position. The Maiden, N.C., native only began playing cornerback as a redshirt freshman at Virginia Tech after switching from wide receiver. He took to his new position quickly, intercepting six passes in 24 games with the Hokies.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In 2019, Farley's final season at Virginia Tech, he was named first team All-ACC after he led the conference with 16 passes defended. His four interceptions tied for second place in the conference.
- Farley intercepted two passes in his first collegiate game—and his first game ever playing cornerback—at Florida State on Sept. 3, 2018.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- Farley credits his late mother, Robin Farley, for instilling in him the faith that has carried him through hard times. Robin lost her life to breast cancer on Jan. 2, 2018, but not before providing him lessons that continue to instruct his life. "She filled my heart with the love of God," Caleb says, "and that's why I am where I am today."
- Growing up he was a big fan of boxer Floyd Mayweather and made it a point to watch all of Mayweather's fights.
- Farley was the third Virginia Tech cornerback selected in the first round in the NFL's "common draft" era (since 1967), joining DeAngelo Hall (2004) and Kyle Fuller (2014). At the age of nine, he met Hall at a youth track-and-field event and got Hall to sign one of the medals he won. He still has the memento.
- Farley is a movie buff. His favorites include "Braveheart," "Troy" and "The Count of Monte Cristo."

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Maiden, N.C., native was selected by the Titans in the first round (22nd overall) of the 2021 NFL Draft.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In 2020, Henry was named the NFL Offensive Player of the Year, Associated Press first-team All-Pro, and FedEx Ground Player of the Year for the second consecutive season after leading the NFL with a franchise-record 2,027 rushing yards, becoming the eighth player in NFL history to eclipse 2,000 rushing yards in a season. His 2,027 rushing yards gave him the fifth-highest total in NFL history behind Eric Dickerson's 2,105 (1984), Adrian Peterson's 2,097 (2012), Jamal Lewis' 2,066 (2003) and Barry Sanders' 2,053 (1997). Henry broke Chris Johnson's franchise mark of 2,006 rushing yards in 2009.
- Additionally, in 2020 he earned first-team All-Pro honors from Pro Football Focus, Pro Football Writers of America and Sporting News and was the 101 Awards AFC Offensive Player of the Year.
- Henry became the first player to lead the NFL in rushing yards in consecutive seasons (2019-20) since LaDainian Tomlinson (2006-07).
- In 2020, Henry became the fifth all-time NFL player to lead the NFL in rushing yards, attempts and rushing touchdowns in consecutive seasons. The last to do so prior to Henry was Cleveland's Leroy Kelly from 1967 to 1968. The only other players to achieve it are Jim Brown (1958-59), Steve Van Buren (1947-49) and Bill Paschal (1943-44).
- In 2020, Henry recorded three 200-yard rushing games in a season, becoming the fifth player in NFL history to do so, joining Earl Campbell (four in 1980), O.J. Simpson (1973), Tiki Barber (2005) and Jay Ajayi (2016). He became the first player in NFL history with five career games with at least 200 rushing yards and two rushing touchdowns.
- In the 2020 regular season finale at Houston (1/3/21), set the franchise record with 250 rushing yards, breaking his own club record of 238 rushing yards (12/6/18 vs. Jacksonville). Henry's 250 rushing yards tied for the 13th-best single-game total in the NFL since 1948.

CENTER • 6'3" • 308 LBS • COLLEGE: GEORGIA
ACQUIRED: UNRESTRICTED FREE AGENT (HOU) - 2016
NFL EXPERIENCE (NFL/TITANS): 10/6 • HOMETOWN: BRENT, ALA.
GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 145/124 (PLAYOFFS: 9/9)

 Captain: 2019

Community Man of the Year: 2019

PRO: The Titans signed Ben Jones early in the 2016 free agency period to bring veteran leadership and experience to the center position and he has provided just that during his tenure with the club. The 6-foot-3-inch, 308-pounder was originally selected by the Houston Texans in the fourth round (99th overall) of the 2012 NFL Draft. From 2012 through 2020, Jones appeared in 143 of 144 possible regular season games, including starts in all but one game during his first five seasons in Tennessee. The University of Georgia product is a versatile player, having started contests at center and both guard spots in his first four seasons with the Texans.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Jones has started games at center, left guard and right guard during his NFL career and has opened holes for an 1,000-yard rusher in six different seasons.
- In 2020, Jones started every game at center and was a part of an offense that tied for the second-overall ranking in the NFL (396.4 yards per game), finished second in rushing (168.1), and allowed the sixth-fewest sacks (25). He helped pave the way for Derrick Henry to produce the NFL's eighth all-time 2,000-yard rushing season (2,027).
- In 2019, Jones started 15 games at center and helped Derrick Henry lead the NFL with 1,540 rushing yards.
- In Week 9 of the 2019 season, Jones missed the first game of his eight-year NFL career when he was inactive due to injury. It ended his streak of 120 consecutive games played and 88 consecutive starts. At the time, Jones' consecutive games streak tied Kansas City's Mitchell Schwartz for the longest active streak in the NFL among offensive linemen, and his starting streak ranked first in the NFL among all centers.
- In Week 11 of the 2019 season, Jones returned to the lineup and started his 100th career game.
- Jones made a career-high three postseason starts in 2019.
- In 2018, Jones started all 16 games at center, registering five consecutive seasons with a start in every contest (2014-15 with Houston).
- Jones appeared in his 100th career game in Week 4 of the 2018 season.
- As of the completion of the 2018 season, among NFL offensive linemen listed as centers, Jones ranked first in the NFL with 80 consecutive games started. He had played in 112 consecutive games, which at this point tied for the longest active consecutive games streak among NFL offensive linemen.
- In 2016, Jones centered all 16 games in his first campaign with the Titans and was a part of an offensive front that blocked for the NFL's third-ranked rushing attack which averaged 136.7 rush yards per game.
- In 2015, Jones transitioned to his natural position of center and started all 16 games and the playoff contest for the Texans.
- In 2014, Jones started all 16 contests at left guard.
- As a rookie in 2012, Jones started the final 10 games of the season at right guard and was named the Texans Rookie of the Year.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- Jones switched from jersey #61 to #60 prior to his senior season at Georgia, to honor his father, Steve, a former collegiate star, who was killed in a helicopter crash when he was 10 years old.
- Jones' pregame ritual consists of walking barefoot on the field "to get a feel for the turf." The routine began before one game with his brother in high school and after enjoying success that night, it has continued ever since.
- When he was 10 years old, Jones suffered a blow to the head with a baseball bat. The impact caused a blood clot to develop on his brain and fractured his skull. The injury kept him out of all athletic activity for a year, proving to be a challenging time for an active and athletic boy. Although it was a tough period in his life, Ben says this time turned him into the man he is today. As soon as he was cleared for activities, Jones threw himself into being the best athlete he could be.

- In 2017, Jones established The Jones Mission Fund at The Community Foundation to provide at-risk youth with opportunities they might otherwise not have through grants, additional resources and educational opportunities.
- During the offseason, Jones and his wife host the annual Ben Jones Celebrity Clay Shoot. The event has raised more than $400,000 benefitting The Jones Mission Fund.
- Jones hosts a free Friday Night Lights youth football camp in his native Alabama every June.
- Jones sponsors a trip to a Titans game each fall for the seniors of his high school's football team in Alabama. The experience includes round trip transportation from his hometown, tickets, a private tailgate, swag bags, and a meet-and-greet with a tour of the Titans practice facility after the game with Jones.
- Jones' brother, Clay, played baseball for the University of Alabama and then was drafted by the Detroit Tigers.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- A native of Brent, Ala., Jones was originally selected by the Houston Texans in the fourth round (99th overall) of the 2012 NFL Draft.

HOMETOWN: CAVE CREEK, ARIZ.
GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 91/86 (PLAYOFFS: 5/5)

Pro Bowl: 2016, 2017, 2018

PRO: With the 11th overall selection in the 2014 NFL Draft, the Titans selected former Michigan left tackle Taylor Lewan (pronounced leh-WAHN). The 6-foot-7-inch, 309-pound lineman is considered one of the top tackles in the NFL, evidenced by his Pro Bowl berths following the 2016, 2017 and 2018 campaigns. Lewan signed a long-term extension with the club during the 2018 training camp and will be anchor for the offensive front for years to come. An outgoing personality off the field, he is tenacious and aggressive on it. At Michigan, he was a four-year starter, anchoring the line at left tackle for 48 career starts. Lewan became the first offensive tackle selected by the Titans/Oilers in the first round since tackle Brad Hopkins (13th overall) in 1993.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In 2019, Lewan helped open holes for Derrick Henry to lead the NFL with 1,540 rushing yards.
- In 2018, Lewan was selected to his third consecutive Pro Bowl after starting 15 games at left tackle.
- In 2017, Lewan was named to his second Pro Bowl after starting every game at left tackle for the second consecutive season. He became the team's first offensive lineman to make multiple Pro Bowls since center Kevin Mawae from 2008–2009.
- In 2016, Lewan was named to his first career Pro Bowl after starting all 16 games at left tackle and blocking for the NFL's third-ranked rushing attack which averaged 136.7 rush yards per game.
- Lewan was named the Big Ten Conference Offensive Lineman of the Year in 2012 and 2013.
- At the conclusion of the 2011 season, during which Lewan helped pave the way for a pair of 1,000-yard rushers (Denard Robinson and Fitzgerald Toussaint), the Wolverines scored an overtime victory over Virginia Tech in the Sugar Bowl.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- Lewan is the co-founder of the popular podcast Bussin' With The Boys with former teammate Will Compton. The two friends host guests on an old Monte Carlo Budweiser bus and discuss any and everything.
- Lewan was the originator of the 2018 Offseason Titan Games, inspired by the popular video game Fortnite. The entire 90-man roster engaged in a contest in which two-man teams could eliminate other players anywhere other than at Saint Thomas Sports Park using foam swords. The contest lasted several weeks, and eventually fellow offensive lineman John Theus was declared the winner.
- Lewan owns a taxidermied beaver named Steve. The fedora-donning stuffed rodent, who was a gift from Lewan's wife, Taylin, makes appearances around the Titans locker room, often appearing at the locker of an unsuspecting rookie.
- Lewan chose to wear jersey number 77 at Michigan and then at the pro level because of the legacy of Wolverine tackles who have donned the number, including Jake Long and Jon Jansen.
- Lewan has a mustache tattooed on his right index finger and a stick figure tattooed on the outside edge of his right hand that he calls his "right-hand man."
- One of Lewan's close friends is former Carolina Panthers defensive end Craig Roh. The two played together as high school seniors and then went to Michigan at the same time.
- At the 2014 NFL Scouting Combine, Lewan ran the 40-yard dash in 4.87 seconds, beating all other offensive linemen in his class and clocking the fourth-fastest time among offensive linemen from 2010-14. He also ranked among the top offensive linemen at the 2014 combine in the broad jump (first at nine feet, nine inches), vertical jump (tied for third at 30.5 inches) and three-cone drill (fourth at 7.39 seconds).

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- A native of Cave Creek, Ariz., Lewan was selected by the Titans in the first round (11th overall) of the 2014 NFL Draft.
