

TENNESSEE TITANS

EXECUTIVES

AMY ADAMS STRUNK

CONTROLLING OWNER/
BOARD OF DIRECTORS CO-CHAIRMAN

Amy Adams Strunk is the Controlling Owner of the Tennessee Titans. She assumed the role of controlling owner in March 2015 and also serves as co-chairman of the franchise's Board of Directors.

Daughter of Titans franchise founder K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr., Adams Strunk was raised on football and is proud of her father's role in co-founding the American Football League and the decades of leadership he provided within the National Football League. Her goal is to build upon that legacy and establish the Titans as one of the league's elite franchises.

In her time as controlling owner, Adams Strunk transformed the franchise. The Titans went from a three-win team in 2015 to posting six consecutive winning seasons (2016-21), a trip to the AFC Championship game in 2019, back-to-back division titles (2020, 2021), and the top seed in the AFC in the 2021 NFL Playoffs.

Adams Strunk's dedication to enabling a modern, innovative business has facilitated significant growth in the organization's staff, increasing by over 150 percent since 2015. Over the years, she has committed significant resources to upgrade Nissan Stadium and the team's headquarters, Ascension Saint Thomas Sports Park. In 2023, her direction was instrumental in state and local government approval of a new, enclosed stadium on the east bank of the Cumberland River, which is slated to open in 2027.

In the spring of 2018, she collaborated with Nashville city officials to secure the 2019 NFL Draft for downtown Nashville. The Titans and the NFL transformed lower Broadway into one of the most dynamic and successful drafts in NFL history.

Impacting communities has also been an important centerpiece of her ownership tenure, with both monetary and in-kind donations pledged to the Waverly community after its 2021 flooding disaster, tornado relief to Middle Tennessee in 2022, local business support during the effects of COVID-19, and a number of other causes benefitting the Nashville and greater Tennessee communities.

A graduate of the University of Texas with a degree in history, Adams Strunk is an avid horse enthusiast whose other interests include farming, ranching, tennis, and a variety of other outdoor activities.

She is married to her husband, Bill. She has three children, Tracy, Tommy, and Blanche, who are all avid sports fans and outdoor enthusiasts.

Amy Adams Strunk with Brian Callahan and Chad Brinker during the 2025 NFL Draft.

BURKE NIHILL

PRESIDENT AND CEO

Burke Nihill is President and Chief Executive Officer for the Tennessee Titans. During his time with the Titans, Nihill has overseen the team's bid for Nashville's record-breaking 2019 NFL Draft; the expansion and renovation of Ascension Saint Thomas Sports Park, the Titans practice facility; and the approval, design, and construction of the team's new, enclosed stadium as the anchor of a transformational new town center on Nashville's East Bank.

Among his first projects as CEO, Nihill led the team's development of a new mission statement – "Win, Serve, Entertain" – which has become a centering statement for the franchise. The statement guides strategy and decision-making throughout the organization, from the football team and content creators to human resources and fan engagement.

In his previous roles with the team, Burke led the club's legal and human resources functions and worked on club initiatives related to state and local government, company culture, and general business planning and strategy for both the Titans and Nissan Stadium.

Before joining the Titans, Burke worked in various legal and management roles across a range of industries, including technology, big-box retail and professional services.

Nihill was recently named 'Most Admired CEO' by the Nashville Business Journal. He also serves on the Board of Directors at the United Way of Greater Nashville, Nashville Convention & Visitors Corp., Belmont University, Nashville Chamber of Commerce, and Nashville Major Events Committee.

He resides in the Nashville area with his wife, Holly, and their three children.

Burke Nihill speaking at the New Nissan Stadium groundbreaking.

CHAD BRINKER

PRESIDENT, FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Chad Brinker serves as President of Football Operations for the Tennessee Titans. He joined the Titans in 2023 as Assistant General Manager before being promoted to his current position in 2024. As President of Football Operations, Brinker provides executive leadership and direct oversight for the entire football staff, reporting directly to Titans Controlling Owner Amy Adams Strunk.

Since his arrival in Tennessee, Brinker's progressive approach has led to several initiatives aimed at moving the organization forward. He spearheaded the club's extensive search for a new general manager in 2025, resulting in the hiring of Mike Borgonzi. Brinker was also a pillar in the team's comprehensive search for Head Coach Brian Callahan in 2024. Additionally, he reshaped and refined the foundation of the team's analytics department from the ground up, while building and executing the 2024 and 2025 offseason strategies for player acquisitions in both free agency and the draft.

An NFL personnel veteran, Brinker embodies core strengths focused in executive leadership, strategic operations, financial analysis, and talent evaluation. His dual background in football operations merged with a business acumen gained from an MBA at Northwestern University's Kellogg School of Management further developed his skills as a team builder and strategic leader both on and off the field.

Prior to joining the Titans, Brinker spent 13 years with the Green Bay Packers in a variety of roles as a talent evaluator and strategic counselor to Packers leadership. In his initial season with the Packers, he collected his first Super Bowl championship when the team defeated the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XLV.

Throughout his experience with the Packers, he served as a pro and college scout; led strategy for unrestricted free agency and undrafted free agent processes; handled player contracts, salary cap administration, and roster management; and advised the General Manager and Executive Vice President of Football Operations on team needs in free agency and drafts, always with an eye on long-term vision. The Packers won the NFC North Division eight times and drafted 13 Pro Bowl Players during his tenure.

Brinker also owns corporate business experience with two Fortune 100 companies in the pharmaceutical and medical device industries. He serves as an Executive Council Member on the Freed-Hardeman University President's Council and has shared his expertise as a guest lecturer in the Sports Marketing program at Freed-Hardeman and the Sports Administration program at his alma mater, Ohio University.

A native of Martins Ferry, Ohio, Brinker first entered the NFL in 2003 as an undrafted free agent running back with the New York Jets. He holds two degrees from Ohio University, including a master's degree in sports administration, where he was a two-sport athlete and a two-time All-Mid-American Conference selection at running back. He was also selected as Ohio University's Male Athlete of the Year in 2003.

Brinker and his wife, Rachelle, have three children. In addition to prioritizing time with his family, he enjoys reading, teaching, traveling, and spending time outdoors.

CHAD BRINKER'S TIMELINE

EXECUTIVE TIMELINE

- 2024-25: President of Football Operations – Tennessee Titans
- 2023: Assistant General Manager – Tennessee Titans
- 2021-22: Personnel/Football Administration Executive – Green Bay Packers
- 2018-20: Assistant Director of Pro Scouting/Salary Cap Analyst – Green Bay Packers
- 2012-17: Pro Scout – Green Bay Packers
- 2010-11: Scouting Assistant – Green Bay Packers
- 2009: Scouting Intern – Green Bay Packers

PLAYING TIMELINE

- 2004: Cologne Centurions – NFL Europe
- 2003-04: New York Jets
- 1998-02: Ohio University

EDUCATION

- 2021: Northwestern University – Master of Business Administration at the Kellogg School of Management
- 2014: Ohio University – Master of Sports Administration
- 2003: Ohio University – Bachelor of Specialized Studies

MIKE BORGONZI

GENERAL MANAGER

Mike Borgonzi was named the 15th General Manager in franchise history on Jan. 17, 2025.

Borgonzi arrived in Tennessee with 16 years of experience with the Kansas City Chiefs. During his final four seasons in Kansas City, he served as Assistant General Manager.

"Mike's experience speaks for itself: he has been part of the core team that delivered five AFC championships and three Super Bowls over the past six seasons," said Titans Controlling Owner Amy Adams Strunk. "It's the type of standard I want to build here in Tennessee. I know we have a lot of work ahead of us, and I'm excited for Mike to get started."

"During Mike's 16 years in the league, he has been a key part of transforming the Chiefs from a two-win team to a three-time Super Bowl champion," said Titans President of Football Operations Chad Brinker. "During our meetings, he articulated a clear plan to build a championship standard in Nashville through consistency, discipline and hard work. I've admired him for many years and I'm thrilled to add him to the team as our general manager."

During Borgonzi's time in Kansas City, he contributed to 12 playoff seasons (2010, 2013, 2015-24) and 10 AFC West titles (2010, 2016-24). Borgonzi helped construct a roster over a five-season span that won the AFC five times (2019-20, 2022-24) and captured three Super Bowl championships (2019, 2022-23).

For the last eight seasons (2017-24), Borgonzi worked under Chiefs General Manager Brett Veach. As the Assistant General Manager from 2021 through 2024, he supervised and directed the college and professional scouting operations while closely supporting and advising Veach with the club's roster management and player acquisition via the NFL Draft, free agency, waiver claims and trades. During his four seasons as Assistant General Manager, the Chiefs built a league-best 52-16 regular-season record (.765). In the same four-year span, 10 different Kansas City players earned a combined 23 Pro Bowl selections: tackle Orlando Brown Jr. (2021-22), wide receiver Tyreek Hill (2021), center Creed Humphrey (2022-24), defensive tackle Chris Jones (2021-24), tight end Travis Kelce (2021-24), quarterback Patrick Mahomes (2021-23), safety Tyrann Mathieu (2021), guard Trey Smith (2024), guard Joe Thuney (2022-24) and punter Tommy Townsend (2022).

The Chiefs entered the 2024 postseason after capturing their ninth consecutive AFC West crown. They tied the Detroit Lions for the NFL's best record at 15-2, setting a franchise record for wins in a regular season and securing the AFC's top seed. Twenty original Chiefs draft picks started at least six games for the team during the 2024 regular season. Kansas City had five players voted to the Pro Bowl, marking the seventh consecutive year in which it had at least five players earn the honor.

Prior to his promotion to Assistant General Manager, Borgonzi served as Director of Football Operations (2018-20), Director of Player Personnel (2017), Co-Director of Player Personnel (2015-16), Assistant Director of Pro Scouting (2013-14), Pro Personnel Scout (2011-12) and Manager of Football Operations (2010). He joined the Chiefs in 2009 as the club's College Scouting Administrator.

Before landing in the NFL with the Chiefs, Borgonzi spent the 2007 and 2008 seasons at Boston College, where he was the Assistant Recruiting Coordinator. He also coached tight ends at Amherst College in 2002 before working in the financial sector in Boston for several years.

A native of Everett, Mass., Borgonzi graduated from Brown University, where he was a four-year starter at fullback and was a three-time All-Ivy League selection.

He and his wife, Jill, have a son, Joseph, and a daughter, Nina. His brother, Dave, has served as the Linebackers Coach for the Indianapolis Colts and Chicago Bears and currently serves as the Linebackers Coach for the Dallas Cowboys.

MIKE BORGONZI'S TIMELINE

EXECUTIVE TIMELINE

2025: General Manager – Tennessee Titans
2021-24: Assistant General Manager – Kansas City Chiefs
2018-20: Director of Football Operations – Kansas City Chiefs
2017: Director of Player Personnel – Kansas City Chiefs
2015-16: Co-Director of Player Personnel – Kansas City Chiefs
2013-14: Assistant Director of Pro Scouting – Kansas City Chiefs
2011-12: Pro Personnel Scout – Kansas City Chiefs
2010: Manager of Football Operations – Kansas City Chiefs
2009: College Scouting Administrator – Kansas City Chiefs
2007-08: Assistant Recruiting Coordinator – Boston College

COACHING TIMELINE

2002: Tight Ends – Amherst College

PLAYING TIMELINE

1998-01: Fullback – Brown University

ADOLPHO BIRCH III

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT AND CHIEF EXTERNAL & LEAGUE AFFAIRS OFFICER

Adolpho Birch is Senior Vice President and Chief External & League Affairs Officer for the Tennessee Titans. Birch is tasked with enhancing the team's Community Impact footprint. He also serves a key role in the advancement of the New Nissan Stadium and overall development along the city's East Bank.

Prior to joining the Titans, Birch served as an advisor to Commissioners Paul Tagliabue and Roger Goodell, holding multiple senior-level roles during his 23-year tenure at the NFL. He oversaw the negotiation and enforcement of policies critical to the integrity of the game, in addition to the advancement of legislative efforts on key issues such as youth concussion prevention and treatment, the league's tax status and the FCC's blackout rule. Leading the NFL's player engagement efforts, he focused on continuing education, financial education, career development and clinical assistance designed to support player and employee off-field success.

Birch serves on several professional and philanthropic boards, including the Vanderbilt University Board of Trust; Sports Lawyers Association; Nashville Ballet; Partnership Tennessee; Tennessee Access to Justice Commission. He was named a 'Best of the Bar' honoree by the Nashville Business Journal for the past four consecutive years.

HALEY DAVIDSON

CHIEF OF STAFF

Haley Davidson serves as Chief of Staff for the Tennessee Titans. Davidson oversees many facets of the organization, driving alignment across various workstreams and leading the Strategic Operations, Communications, and ONE Community teams. She also plays a key role in the planning, vision, strategy, and development for the New Nissan Stadium.

Previously, Davidson spent more than a decade in strategic communications. Most recently, Davidson served as the Chief Operating Officer for Nashville-based consulting firm, Calvert Street Group, supporting many government affairs projects and large-scale development efforts throughout the city and state. Prior to her time at Calvert Street, she served as a communications aide for former U.S. Rep. Jim Cooper.

Haley serves on the board of the Nashville Downtown Partnership.

VIN MARINO

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

Vincent Marino is in his 19th season with the Titans and first as Senior Vice President of Football Administration in 2025. He originally joined the organization in 2007, as the Senior Director of Football Administration after spending 18 years at the NFL offices in New York.

Marino's primary responsibilities include the management of the Titans' salary cap and player contract negotiations. He interacts closely with Titans President of Football Operations Chad Brinker and General Manager Ran Carthon on numerous football-related issues.

Marino also serves as the Titans liaison with the NFL office regarding labor and contract issues, as well as player personnel matters. In 2014, he was selected to participate in the prestigious NFL's Career Development Symposium at the Wharton School of Business in Philadelphia. Currently, he is a member of the NFL Player Insurance Trust; and additionally, he sits on the appeals panels for the NFL Player Tuition Assistance Plan and the NFL Severance Pay Plan.

During his time with the NFL's Management Council, Marino spent eight years in the Player Personnel Department (Analyst, 1990-95; Manager/Player Personnel, 1995-98) and eight years in Labor Operations (Sr. Manager of Labor Operations, 1998-03), the last three as the Director of Labor Operations (2003-06). Marino gained expertise in various capacities and his experience includes: being a primary club contact for player contract valuations, enforcing the rules of the CBA (collective bargaining agreement), salary cap regulation and participating in a strategic group related to forming the CBA between the league and the players.

Additionally, he assisted the league in Super Bowl game operations and served as a replay communicator at numerous games during his tenure. He originally joined the NFL as an assistant in the Public Relations department, where he spent two years.

Born and raised in the Bronx, N.Y., Marino graduated from the Bronx High School of Science and went on to earn summa cum laude honors from Fordham University. While at Fordham, he earned a communications degree and is a member of Phi Beta Kappa.

Marino and his wife, Nikoleta, have two sons: Nikolas and Alexander.

VIN MARINO'S TIMELINE

EXECUTIVE TIMELINE

- 2025: Senior Vice President of Football Administration – Tennessee Titans
- 2011-24: Vice President of Football Administration – Tennessee Titans
- 2007-11: Senior Director of Football Administration – Tennessee Titans
- 2003-06: Director of Labor Operations – NFL Management Council
- 1998-03: Senior Manager of Labor Operations – NFL Management Council
- 1995-98: Manager/Player Personnel – NFL Management Council
- 1990-95: Analyst – NFL Management Council

ANDREW McINTYRE

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, TECHNOLOGY AND INNOVATION

Andrew joined the Tennessee Titans in July of 2024 as Senior Vice President of Technology & Innovation. Andrew is responsible for the Information Technology and Audio Visual & Broadcast Technology departments supporting the Titans, Nissan Stadium, Ascension Saint Thomas Sports Park and the Titans House.

Prior to joining the Titans, Andrew spent five years with the Vinik Sports Group (VSG) as Senior Vice President of Technology & Innovation. VSG creates world-class experiences that grow brands, drive revenue, and impact the Tampa community. It is the parent company of the Tampa Bay Lightning and Amalie Arena, Tampa Bay Entertainment Properties, and marketing rightsholder for University of South Florida Athletics and Yuengling Center. As the leader of Technology & Innovation practice, Andrew's responsibilities include technology infrastructure & operations, audio visual & technical production, and software development. VSG leverages these competencies to support their operations throughout Tampa Bay.

Before joining VSG, Andrew spent the previous eight years with the Chicago Cubs. Andrew was responsible for software development and system implementation for enterprise business applications as well as the technology infrastructure and operations across Wrigley Field and the Chicago campus, the spring training facility in Mesa AZ, and the training academy in the Dominican Republic.

Andrew graduated from the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign with a bachelor's degree in Mechanical Engineering and earned a Masters of Business Administration from the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign.

REGGIE MCKENZIE

VICE PRESIDENT/FOOTBALL ADVISOR

Reggie McKenzie enters his first season with the Titans as a Vice President/Football Advisor.

McKenzie spent the past six seasons (2019 – 24) with the Miami Dolphins as Senior Personnel Executive, assisting General Manager Chris Grier and Assistant General Manager Marvin Allen in national college and pro scouting.

In joining the Titans, McKenzie returns to his home state, where he was raised in Knoxville, was an all-state linebacker and valedictorian at Austin-East High School, and played linebacker at the University of Tennessee from 1981-84. McKenzie was inducted into the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame in 2018.

After a professional playing career that included time with the Los Angeles Raiders (1985-88), Phoenix Cardinals (1989-90) and San Francisco 49ers (1992), he spent 1993 as a graduate assistant for the Volunteers.

In 1994, McKenzie embarked on a career working in NFL front offices that is now entering its 32nd campaign. He totaled 18 seasons (1994 - 2011) with the Green Bay Packers, rising in the ranks from Pro Personnel Assistant (1994-96) to Director of Pro Personnel (1997-2007) and finally Director of Football Operations (2008-11). In his final role with the team, McKenzie oversaw Green Bay's scouting efforts as well as evaluating current players and potential free agents, working closely with the head coach and general manager in day-to-day transactions and in preparation for the NFL Draft. During his time in Green Bay, the team earned eight division titles, three conference championships and two Super Bowls (XXXI and XLV), while totaling the second-best record (185-103) in the NFL over that period.

In 2012, the Raiders hired McKenzie as General Manager, a role he maintained for seven seasons (2012-18). Oakland's first general manager since Al Davis assumed the role in 1963, McKenzie was named the NFL's Executive of the Year by Sporting News, The MMQB and the PFWA (Pro Football Writers Association) in 2016 as the Raiders posted a 12-4 record and their first playoff appearance in 14 years. The players drafted during McKenzie's tenure include 2016 AP Defensive Player of the Year linebacker Khalil Mack (2014), quarterback Derek Carr (2014), and wide receiver Amari Cooper (2015), the latter two receiving three Pro Bowl honors, respectively, while under McKenzie. The Raiders also signed offensive tackle Donald Penn (2014) and offensive guard Kelechi Osemele (2016) in free agency during McKenzie's tenure. The two veterans were each selected to the Pro Bowl in 2016 and 2017, with Osemele receiving first-team All-Pro honors in 2016.

McKenzie is married to June, a retired attorney. The couple has two daughters, Jasmin and Mahkayla, and two sons, Kahlil and Jalen. Kahlil attended Tennessee and was drafted by Kansas City in 2018 and Jalen attended Southern California and most recently played for Las Vegas in 2024. McKenzie's twin brother, Raleigh, also played 16 seasons in the NFL and was inducted into the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame alongside McKenzie in 2018.

REGGIE MCKENZIE'S TIMELINE

EXECUTIVE TIMELINE

- 2025: Vice President/Football Advisor – Tennessee Titans
- 2019-24: Senior Personnel Executive – Miami Dolphins
- 2012-18: General Manager – Oakland Raiders
- 2008-11: Director of Football Operations – Green Bay Packers
- 1997-07: Pro Personnel Director – Green Bay Packers
- 1994-96: Pro Personnel Assistant – Green Bay Packers

PLAYING TIMELINE

- 1992: Linebacker – San Francisco 49ers
- 1992: Linebacker – Montreal Machine
- 1989-90: Linebacker – Phoenix Cardinals
- 1985-88: Linebacker – Los Angeles Raiders

SHANNON MYERS

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT AND CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Shannon Myers is Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer for the Tennessee Titans.

Myers oversees the financial operations, the Legal team, as well as the People and Culture team, which focuses on employee engagement and development and compensation administration, while ensuring the club prioritizes diversity, equity, and inclusion. Myers also serves as the executive sponsor for the Titans Professional Women's Network and the Sustainability Committee.

Prior to joining the club, Myers worked in public accounting with Ernst & Young (EY) in Nashville for over 10 years. As an Assurance Senior Manager with EY, she advised clients on technical accounting issues, financial reporting requirements, process improvement opportunities, and strengthening internal controls. While at EY, she held several leadership roles including co-leading the Nashville Professional Women's Network, founding/leading the Nashville Working Mom's Network, and more.

Myers also serves as a board member for the Adventure Science Center, as well as participates in its Development and Executive Committees.

ADAM NUSE

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT AND CHIEF REVENUE OFFICER

Adam Nuse is Senior Vice President and Chief Revenue Officer for the Tennessee Titans. Nuse leads many of the team's revenue generating areas, including Ticketing, Titans House, and Client Services & Hospitality. He also serves a key role in the development and vision of the New Nissan Stadium.

Prior to joining the Titans in 2021, Nuse spent five seasons as General Manager and Chief Operating Officer of the Nashville Sounds, overseeing all day-to-day operations related to the organization. Under his leadership, the Sounds broke attendance records and were regularly recognized by industry publications as leaders in operational excellence and fan experience. In 2019, Baseball America awarded the Sounds with its prestigious Freitas Award in recognition of the club's community involvement, long-term business success and consistent operational excellence.

Nuse currently serves on the National Sports Forum Steering Committee, Nashville Sports Authority's Women's Professional Sports Committee, as well as the board of directors for Boy Scouts of America of Middle Tennessee, Wichita State University Barton School of Marketing, Western Kentucky University Sports Management, and the Bowling Green East Little League.

ERIN SWARTZ

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, BRAND MARKETING

Erin Swartz serves as Senior Vice President of Brand Marketing for the Tennessee Titans. Overseeing the Creative, Marketing, Fan Engagement, and Cause Marketing teams, Erin leads the strategy and execution of the Titans' brand vision across all fan touchpoints. She plays a central role in unifying the team's identity locally in Tennessee and extending its presence across the NFL landscape.

Before joining the Titans, Swartz built a successful career in brand and marketing within the NFL and broader entertainment industry. Her experience includes leading creative and strategic efforts that have helped shape and grow team identities, deepen fan engagement, and deliver memorable brand experiences. She brings a fan-first mindset and a passion for creating meaningful, consistent brand experiences.

Erin lives in Franklin with her husband and three sons. Their family enjoys exploring Nashville's food and music scene.

DAN WERLY

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT AND CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Dan Werly is a Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer for the Tennessee Titans. Werly oversees Strategy & Analytics and the construction and operation of New Nissan Stadium. He also plays a key role in the vision and development of the New Stadium.

Prior to joining the Titans, Werly was the first General Counsel of Major League Soccer's Nashville Soccer Club and worked at several law firms, primarily focusing on representing professional sports teams and leagues.

He sits on the board of W.O. Smith School of Music and the Pedigree Foundation and is on the Advisory Board of the American Bar Association's Sports Division. He also served as an Adjunct Professor of Law at Vanderbilt University Law School and Charleston School of Law.

DAVE ZIEGLER

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Ziegler enters his first season as Assistant General Manager for the Titans after being hired in January 2025.

Ziegler arrives in Tennessee with 15 years of NFL personnel experience. He served as General Manager for the Las Vegas Raiders from 2022-2023 and spent the 2024 season as Senior Personnel Advisor for the New Orleans Saints.

Ziegler broke into the NFL with the Denver Broncos in 2010. While in Denver, he assisted in the scouting and evaluation process of pro and college players, departing after the 2012 season as a pro scout. Ziegler then headed to the New England Patriots, where he was the Assistant Director of Pro Personnel (2013-15), Director of Pro Personnel (2016-19), Assistant Director of Player Personnel (2020) and Director of Player Personnel (2021). During his nine seasons (2013-21) with New England, the Patriots won seven division titles, advanced to six conference championship games and claimed three Super Bowl (XLIX, LI, LIII) titles.

As General Manager in Las Vegas, Ziegler led the Raiders' acquisition of wide receiver Davante Adams via trade with Green Bay during the 2022 offseason. That season, Adams was selected to the Pro Bowl and named first-team All-Pro, finishing with 100 receptions for 1,516 yards and a league-high 14 scores. In Ziegler's first draft as general manager, the Raiders selected offensive guard Dylan Parham in the third round. Parham was named to the PFWA All-Rookie Team after starting 17 games on an offensive line that helped Raiders running back Josh Jacobs lead the league with 1,653 rushing yards.

Before entering the NFL, Ziegler enjoyed a high school and college coaching career with stops at Chaparral High School in Scottsdale, Ariz., as special teams coordinator, at Iona College as a wide receivers and special teams coach, and at his alma mater, John Carroll University, serving in the same role.

A native of Tallmadge, Ohio, Ziegler was an accomplished wide receiver and returner at John Carroll University. He holds several program records including career return yards, return average and return touchdowns.

Ziegler is married to Carissa, and the couple has two sons, Asher and Camden, and a daughter, Georgina.

DAVE ZIEGLER'S TIMELINE

EXECUTIVE TIMELINE

- 2025: Assistant General Manager – Tennessee Titans
- 2024: Personnel Executive – New Orleans Saints
- 2022-23: General Manager – Las Vegas Raiders
- 2021: Director of Player Personnel – New England Patriots
- 2020: Assistant Director of Player Personnel – New England Patriots
- 2016-19: Director of Pro Personnel – New England Patriots
- 2013-15: Assistant Director of Pro Scouting – New England Patriots
- 2011-12: Scout – Denver Broncos
- 2010: Player Personnel Assistant – Denver Broncos

COACHING TIMELINE

- 2007-09: Assistant Coach – Chaparral (Ari.) High School
- 2006: Wide Receivers/Special Teams Coach – Iona
- 2004-05: Graduate Assistant – John Carroll

