TITANS TRAVEL TO BALTIMORE FOR SHOWDOWN WITH RAVENS

Tennessee Titans (6-3) at Baltimore Ravens (6-3)

Sunday, Nov. 22, 2020 • 1 p.m. EST/noon CST • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore, Md. • TV: CBS

NASHVILLE — The Tennessee Titans travel to Baltimore this week to face the Ravens in a battle of AFC playoff contenders with identical 6-3 records. Kickoff at M&T Bank Stadium is scheduled for 1 p.m. EST/noon CST on Sunday, Nov. 22.

The Ravens announced that they will not host fans for the game after consulting with government and public health officials.

The Titans last visited Baltimore only 11 months ago for a divisional playoff game. Derrick Henry's 195 rushing yards helped the sixth-seeded Titans defeat the top-seeded Ravens by a final score of 28-12. It knotted the all-time overall series between the rivals at 12-12, including two wins apiece in four playoff games.

THE BROADCAST

This week's contest will be regionally televised on CBS, including Nashville affiliate WTVF NewsChannel 5. The broadcast team includes play-by-play announcer Jim Nantz, analyst Tony Romo and reporter Tracy Wolfson.

Additionally, Sports USA will broadcast the game to a national radio audience. Play-by-play announcer John Ahlers and analyst Brandon Noble will have the call.

TITANS HAVE EXTRA TIME BEFORE FOR TOUGH ROAD TEST

The Titans hope to benefit from extra rest after hosting the Indianapolis Colts last week on Thursday Night Football. For the first time since beginning the season 2-0, they are no longer alone sitting atop the AFC South after losing 34-17. The Titans and Colts own identical 6-3 records, but for now the Colts hold the head-to-head tiebreaker with the rematch scheduled for Nov. 29 at Indianapolis.

Tennessee's matchup with Baltimore could have significant playoff implications later in the season. In a race that will include seven total AFC postseason berths, there currently are nine teams with at least six wins, and there are six teams at exactly 6-3.

Against the Colts, Derrick Henry rushed for 103 yards on 19 carries, registering his fifth 100-yard rushing game of 2020. Since the beginning of the 2019 campaign, he leads the NFL with 11 total 100-yard rushing games in the regular season. Henry also re-claimed the 2020 NFL rushing lead (through Sunday, Nov. 14) with 946 yards.

Meanwhile, quarterback Ryan Tannehill passed for 147 yards and one touchdown—his 20th of the season, which ranks second in franchise history by any player in the first nine games of a season (21 by George Blanda in 1960). Tannehill and Steve McNair (2003) are the only quarterbacks in team annals to start each of the team's first nine games of a season and to have three or fewer interceptions in those appearances.

THE RAVENS

The Ravens, who are in second place in the AFC North behind the 9-0 Pittsburgh Steelers, return home to host the Titans after traveling for their last two games. They won at Indianapolis two weeks ago, but last week they were victimized by the New England Patriots 23-17 on Sunday Night Football.

A season after winning the Associated Press NFL Most Valuable Player Award, Baltimore quarterback Lamar Jackson has passed for 1,762 yards and 14 touchdowns and rushed for an additional 524 yards and three scores.

Head coach John Harbaugh has led the Ravens to a playoff berth in eight of his 12 previous seasons at the helm, including four division titles. In 2020, Harbaugh's squad boasts the NFL's second-ranked rushing offense (164.0 yards per game) and the league's top-ranked scoring defense (18.3 points allowed per game).

SERIES HISTORY

The Titans and the Ravens have developed a fierce rivalry over the course of 24 all-time meetings since the series originated in 1996, highlighted by four fiercely contested playoff matchups.

The series is tied 12-12 heading into this week. Of the 24 games the teams have played against each other, 12 have been decided by four points or less, with the Titans holding a 7-5 advantage in those meetings.

The series is also knotted at 2-2 in four playoff matchups.

The two teams played together in the AFC Central Division for six seasons after the Ravens relocated to Baltimore from Cleveland in 1996. Realignment in the league in 2002 took the Titans to the AFC South and the Ravens to the AFC North, ending their twice-yearly meetings. In the 11 games since realignment, the Titans lead 6-5.

This is the fourth consecutive season/postseason in which the Titans and Ravens have played. They met at Nissan Stadium in Week 9 of the 2017 campaign (Nov. 5), with the Titans prevailing 23-20 on the strength of two Marcus Mariota touchdown passes and two interceptions by safety Kevin Byard.

The Ravens visited Tennessee again on Oct. 14, 2018 and handed the Titans a 21-0 defeat. It marked the first and only time the Titans have been shutout at Nissan Stadium.

On Jan. 11, 2020, the Titans went to M&T Bank Stadium for a divisional playoff game and came away with a 28-12 victory over the No. 1 seed Ravens. Derrick Henry rushed for 195 yards in the contest.

The Titans controlled the majority of the outcomes for the first five years of the series, winning six out of their first nine games. Then, in 2000, the Ravens stole the momentum. Despite owning the NFL's best record at 13-3, the Titans lost to the Ravens at home in the regular season—the Titans' first-ever loss at Nissan Stadium—and then again in a divisional playoff game the same year. The playoff win launched the Ravens to their eventual Super Bowl XXXV Championship.

The Ravens went on to win a total of five consecutive games over the Titans until the 2003 playoffs, when the Titans won at Baltimore in a wild card playoff game on a 46-yard Gary Anderson field goal in the final minute of play.

Five years later at Nissan Stadium, the two clubs met again in the playoffs, this time in the 2008 divisional round. Matt Stover's 43-yard field goal with less than a minute on the clock provided the Ravens a 13-10 victory.

TITANS-RAVENS: THE LAST MEETING

2019 Divisional Round: Titans 28, Ravens 12
Saturday, Jan. 11, 2020 • 8:15 p.m. ET • M&T Bank Stadium

GAME RECAP

In the Divisional Round of the 2019 playoffs, the Titans traveled to Baltimore to face the top-seeded Ravens and won by a score of 28-12. The Titans' 217 rushing yards set a new franchise postseason mark, and the Tennessee defense notched four fourth-down stops and three takeaways.

Tennessee got on the board in the first quarter and never surrendered the lead. On the Ravens' opening possession, Baltimore posted its first turnover of the day as Ravens QB Lamar Jackson threw an interception to S Kevin Byard who returned the ball 31 yards. The Titans took over at the Baltimore 35-yard line. The offense capitalized with an eight-play scoring drive that was capped by a 12-yard touchdown pass from QB Ryan Tannehill to TE Jonnu Smith, and a 7-0 lead.

On the following possession, the Titans defense halted Jackson for no gain on fourth-and-one at Baltimore's 45-yard line. Tennessee's offense took the field, and Tannehill quickly tossed a 45-yard touchdown to WR Kalif Raymond. Tennessee took a 14-0 lead on an eight-second scoring drive.

In the second quarter, Baltimore got on the board as the Ravens added a pair of field goals. Ravens K Justin Tucker converted 49 and 22-yard attempts to make it a 14-6 game heading into halftime.

Baltimore opened the second half with possession of the ball. Facing a fourth-and-one in the red zone, Jackson was again stopped for no gain as the Titans defense stood their ground. Tennessee gained possession of the ball and put together an 81-yard scoring drive with help from a 66-yard rush by RB Derrick Henry. At the Baltimore three-yard line, Henry took a direct snap and threw a jump pass-style three-yard touchdown to WR Corey Davis for a 21-6 lead. On the first play of the following Ravens possession, Jackson was strip sacked by DT Jurrell Casey and the ball was recovered by DL Jeffery Simmons at the Baltimore 20-yard line. Henry accounted for 10 yards on the ground, and WR A.J. Brown caught a nine-yard pass, before Tannehill scrambled into the end zone on a one-yard touchdown rush. Tennessee increased the lead, 28-6.

In the fourth quarter, Baltimore tacked on a touchdown with a 10-play, 88-yard scoring drive. Jackson contributed a 27-yard rush to move the chains before connecting with Ravens

TE Hayden Hurst for a 15-yard touchdown. Baltimore's two-point conversion attempt failed, keeping the score at 28-12. The Titans preserved the lead and earned their first AFC Championship appearance since the 2002 playoffs.

John Harbaugh is in his 13th season as the Ravens head coach. He was named the franchise's third head coach on Jan. 19, 2008.

Over the last 12 years, Harbaugh has led the Ravens to a playoff berth in eight (2008-12, 2014, 2018-19) of his 12 seasons, and in 2012, he helped capture the franchise's second Super Bowl.

Harbaugh became the third head coach in NFL history to guide his team to the playoffs in each of his first five seasons (2008-12). He is the only head coach in NFL history (since 1970 merger) to win a playoff game in each of his first four and first five seasons. Baltimore owns a 10-7 postseason mark during his tenure and has appeared in three AFC Championship games (2008, 2011, 2012).

In 2019, Harbaugh was named the NFL Coach of the Year after leading the Ravens to an AFC North division title for the second straight season and finishing the year with an AFC-best 14-2 record.

In 2018, the Ravens won six of their last seven games, all with rookie quarterback Lamar Jackson as the starter, finishing 10-6, and capturing their first AFC North Division title since 2012, and fifth ever, earning a playoff berth for the seventh time during Harbaugh's 11-year tenure.

In 2014, the Ravens produced a 10-6 regular season record, earning their sixth playoff berth in seven seasons behind a then-single-season franchise record by scoring 409 points and producing 5,838 yards of offense.

The Ravens captured a second-consecutive AFC North title in 2012 with a 10-6 mark before sweeping four playoff games to win Super Bowl XLVII.

In 2011, the Ravens produced a second-straight 12-4 record and won the AFC North, sweeping the division for the first time in team history. In what was a franchise first, the Ravens also went unbeaten at home.

In 2010, Baltimore tied Pittsburgh for the best record in the division at 12-4. The 2010 campaign also marked the first time the Ravens ever earned the postseason three years in a row.

After posting a 9-7 record in 2009, the Ravens produced their sixth playoff team of the decade (2000-09) behind the NFL's ninth-ranked scoring offense (24.4 ppg) and a defense that finished third in total yards (300.5 ypg) and points allowed (16.3 ppg).

In Harbaugh's initial Baltimore season (2008), the Ravens produced an 11-5 record and advanced to the AFC Championship game. This first Harbaugh/Ravens team tied the NFL record (since 1978) for turnarounds by a head coach taking over a sub-.500 team with the 13 total victories.

Prior to coaching the Ravens, Harbaugh spent 1998-2007 as an assistant coach with the Philadelphia Eagles. Following the 2001 campaign, Harbaugh was voted the NFL's Special Teams Coach of the Year by his peers.

Harbaugh launched his coaching career in 1984 at the age of 21 as a graduate assistant for his father, Jack Harbaugh, at Western Michigan and had stops at the University of Pittsburgh (1987) and the University of Cincinnati (1989-1996).

LAST WEEK VS. THE COLTS

Week 10: Titans 17, Colts 34

Thursday, Nov. 12, 2020 • 7:20 p.m. CT • Nissan Stadium

In Week 10 of the 2020 season the Titans hosted Indianapolis for a Thursday Night Football matchup, the first of two meetings within a three-week span against the Colts. Tennessee lost the contest by a score of 34-17 and fell to 6-3 on the season.

The Titans opened with a touchdown on their first possession. WR Cameron Batson gave the offense good field position with a 35-yard kick return, and QB Ryan Tannehill threw first-down passes to FB/RB Khari Blasingame, WR A.J. Brown and WR Corey Davis. The drive culminated in a five-yard touchdown pass to RB D'Onta Foreman and an early 7-0 lead. As Indianapolis took over for their first series, Colts QB Philip Rivers guided his offense down into Tennessee territory. Facing a fourth-and-one at the Titans 29-yard line, Colts RB Jordan Wilkins took the handoff but was swiftly stuffed by CB Malcolm Butler and caused a turnover on downs.

Later in the first quarter, Indianapolis put together an 11-play scoring drive and was able to tack on a field goal to make it a 7-3 game.

Tennessee extended the lead in the second quarter with an eight-play scoring drive. RB Derrick Henry broke free for a 20-yard gain to move the sticks before TE Stephen Gostkowski converted a 50-yard field goal, 10-3 Titans. However, Indianapolis knotted the score on the ensuing possession. Rivers threw first-down passes to Colts RB Nyheim Hines, Colts WR Michael Pittman Jr., and to Colts RB Jonathan Taylor, before Hines caught a 13-yard touchdown pass to make it a 10-10 contest.

The Titans replied immediately and scored a touchdown to regain the lead. Henry rushed for two first downs and Davis added an 18-yard grab before TE Jonnu Smith ran in for a one-yard rushing score. Tennessee went ahead of Indianapolis, 17-10. The Colts regained possession and quickly constructed a scoring drive before the end of the first half. Facing a second-and-eight at the Tennessee nine-yard line with 16 seconds remaining, Rivers was sacked by DL DaQuan Jones for a loss of 11. Indianapolis was forced to settle for a field goal, making it a 17-13 game heading into halftime.

In the third quarter, the Titans defense registered a goal line stand but they suffered a three-and-out at their own 10-yard line. P Trevor Daniel shanked the punt and pushed the Colts back just 17 yards. Indianapolis took over at the Tennessee 27-yard line and quickly found the end zone as Hines ran for a two-yard touchdown. The Colts took the lead, 20-17. On the following Tennessee possession, the Titans again had a three-and-out at their own 26-yard line. Daniel's punt was blocked by Colts LB E.J. Speed and returned for a six-yard touchdown by Colts CB T.J. Carrie. Indianapolis took a 27-17 lead.

In the fourth quarter, Indianapolis recorded a four-play scoring drive. Pittman caught a 40-yard pass to flip field position as Colts QB Jacoby Brissett entered the game and rushed for a two-yard score. Indianapolis took a 34-17 lead. The Titans were unable to mount a comeback and fell to the Colts at home.

NOTES FROM LAST WEEK'S GAME

TEAM NOTES

- The Titans scored a touchdown on their opening drive for the third time this season and for the first time since Oct. 13 against the Buffalo Bills. It was the fourth time they scored points this season on the opening drive.
- The offense tied its season high by having nine different players catch at least one pass. The group also had nine pass catchers against Houston on Oct. 18.
- For the second consecutive week, the Titans defense made a fourth-down stop on the opposition's opening drive. On fourth-and-one against the Colts, running back Jordan Wilkins was stuffed by cornerback Malcolm Butler.
- The Titans defense produced a goal-line stand in the third quarter, when Jordan Wilkins was stopped for no gain on fourth-and-goal from the one-yard line.
- The Titans offense produced 25 first downs, registering its fifth game of the season with at least 25 first downs.
- The offense totaled 157 rushing yards on 32 attempts. It was the third time in 2020 and the third time in a five-game span totaling at least 150 rushing yards.
- The Titans did not commit any turnovers against the Colts, notching their second consecutive game without a turnover and their sixth contest in 2020 without a turnover.

WR CAMERON BATSON

- Began the game with a career-long 35-yard kickoff return on the opening kickoff.

WR A.J. BROWN

- Recorded a 21-yard reception in the first quarter.

S KEVIN BYARD

- Credited with a team-high 10 tackles against the Colts.

P TREVOR DANIEL

- Made his Titans debut after being elevated from the practice squad (standard elevation). He averaged 32.0 yards on two punts.

WR COREY DAVIS

- Led the team with five receptions and 67 receiving yards, including a 20-yard catch. It was his fifth game of 2020 with at least five receptions.
- Leads the Titans through the first nine games of 2020 with 34 receptions and ranks second (A.J. Brown) with 436 receiving yards.

RB D'ONTA FOREMAN

- Totaled 18 yards on seven rushing attempts in addition to his touchdown catch.

K STEPHEN GOSTKOWSKI

- Made a 50-yard field goal in the second quarter to give him six field goals on seven attempts of 50-plus yards in 2020. His previous career high for 50-yard field goals in season was five in 2013 with the New England Patriots.

RB DERRICK HENRY

- Registered his fifth 100-yard rushing game of 2020 and his 18th career 100-yard rushing game (including regular season and playoffs). He totaled 103 yards on 19 rushing attempts and added a six-yard reception.
- Since the beginning of the 2019 campaign, he leads the NFL with 11 total 100-yard rushing games in the regular season.
- Reclaimed the NFL rushing lead in 2020 (through Sunday, Nov. 15) with 946 yards on 201 carries (4.7 avg.).
- Became the fifth NFL player since 1948 to have at least 18 rushing attempts in 18 consecutive games in the regular season and postseason. He tied James Wilder, Terrell Davis and DeMarco Murray for the NFL's second-longest such streak, which for Henry dates back to Nov. 10, 2019. Emmitt Smith established the record from 1995 to 1996 with 18 carries in 23 consecutive regular season and postseason games. The Titans' record when Henry gets 18 carries is now 23-6.

DE DaQUAN JONES

- Registered an 11-yard sack of Philip Rivers in the second quarter to give him 1.5 sacks over the past two games. It was his ninth career sack.

RB JEREMY McNICHOLS

- Rushed for 26 yards on three attempts, including a 16-yard run in the fourth quarter. He added an eight-yard reception.

TE JONNU SMITH

- Posted two receptions for 14 yards and also recorded his first career rushing touchdown on a one-yard run in the second quarter. He became the fourth NFL tight end with a rushing touchdown in 2020, joining Indianapolis' Trey Burton, the L.A. Rams' Gerald Everett and the N.Y. Giants' Evan Engram. Smith became the first Titans tight end with a rushing touchdown since Delanie Walker at Jacksonville on Sept. 17, 2017.

QB RYAN TANNEHILL

It was his 20th touchdown of 2020, which ranks second in franchise history by a quarterback in the first nine games of a season. The only Titans/Oilers quarterback with more touchdown passes in the season's first nine games was George Blanda, who completed 21 in the Oilers' inaugural 1960 campaign.
- Joined Steve McNair (2003) as the only quarterbacks in franchise history to start each of the team's first nine games of a season and to have three or fewer interceptions in those games.

(on what went wrong on the third quarter punts and the issue on the missed field goal)

We missed the field goal. It didn't go in. We didn't punt it well enough the one time and then didn't block well enough on the other. Certainly things that we'll have to improve quickly.

(on the frustration level of the defense and what needs to be changed)

I mean, there's a lot of things that need to be changed. When you don't play well, you don't coach well enough, you lose. They had some fourth-and-ones, so third down we were pretty decent and got some stops and long drives that we got the stop early, which, proud of the guys for that. But everything's going to have to change when you don't play well. You got to coach better and you got to play better. That's really what it is and that's what we'll have to do. We'll have to take a couple days off here, get healthy, take a good hard look at what we did and what we're doing and continue to try to improve. We got to play complementary football in all three phases and that doesn't happy for sixty minutes right now.

(on the decision to play punter Trevor Daniel over punter Ryan Allen)

The process is always what it looks like in practice and what we felt like was best for the team and those are all the things that we look at during practice, during the week of practice, and the evaluation of those guys kicking. That's the decision that we made.

(on how the punting errors shifted momentum in Indianapolis' favor)

I think it pretty much spoke for itself there. Being able to get the ball where they did, and I guess they got it in the 30-yard line maybe the one time and then they got it in the end zone the other.

(on if he's concerned about kicker Stephen Gostkowski)

I think we're going to have to evaluate everything that we do, how we're coaching, what we do in practice, the performance. So, we have to be better and I'll say that in all areas. So, we'll look at what we're doing and try to do what's best for the team like we always do, but we all have jobs to do and we have to try to do them better.

(on what the defense has to do better when the opposing quarterback is releasing the ball as quickly as Colts quarterback Philip Rivers was today)

I think try to get – we talked about trying to get into throwing lanes and be in tight coverage and then tight coverage and not getting picked and all that stuff. So, making sure that we're into the pocket, making sure our hands are up, making sure that we're contesting, getting in tight, being in tight coverage, and contesting them and challenging them.

(on what he said to the team in the third quarter when the Titans began to lose momentum)

I think that there's momentum changes in the game throughout, and I think that's the challenge that you have against a good football team, which the Colts are. That there's challenges to the ebbs and flows, and I think you have to stay the course and know that it's a long game. Guys know when they may have made a mistake. Everybody does that. It's just going to be tough to win not creating any turnovers and then obviously having those types of things happen that, again, are uncharacteristic and need to change. Those are like turnovers, and obviously when you give up scores on special teams that's not going to be easy to overcome.

(on if he has considered making a special teams coaching change)

No, I haven't thought – no. No, I've got a lot of confidence in Craig (Aukerman) and Ryan (Crow) and what they do. We have got to continue to hold people accountable and continue to improve. But no, I think that those guys, I'm fairly, I'm very confident that they know what they're doing. I know what they coach. I'm in those meetings. I'm there at practice. So, we just, we'll keep working and making sure that we start playing better in that area and performing better because we have.

(on if three holders in three weeks could be impacting Stephen Gostkowski)

I think that that would be a great question for Stephen (Gostkowski). I know what he's going to tell you because he's a professional, and he's going to say that should have no impact. But things happen. People get hurt. You're going to have to play with different people. So that's nothing new to the National Football League or any football, that you're going to have different guys in different spots just for different reasons.

(on if the offensive problems began once tackle Taylor Lewan was lost for the season due to injury)

I would tell you I don't think Tyler Sambrailo would be the first place that I would start to try to improve our offense and what we're doing. Tyler's a great player, but I just think that we all have to just play better and the timing, the consistency, you can see that when we did indeed have a rhythm, we went down there and scored, and then give them a lot of credit there in the second half for how they played, and some penalties that, untimely penalties that kind of cost us, and just again, it wasn't good enough. We didn't take advantage of our opportunities.

(on the timing and rhythm if the change is not due to the switch at left tackle)

There's a lot of places. But again, it's never going to be about one guy, not in football. So just being able to get some of these plays, and again, you look at it and then you say, 'Well, there's a lot of good things,' and then third down-wise we didn't give ourselves enough third-and-shorts. We were playing too many third-and-longs that again, that consistency early on in the series, just developing that rhythm of getting that first, first down, and we'll go back to work. That's what I told the team. We'll go back to work and we'll get away for a couple days and try to get healthy.

(on if something needs to change in the evaluation process of specialists)

Well, I mean, the evaluation process is when they make them or they kick well in practice, that you hope that leads to kicking well in the game. The operation needs to improve to help those guys. That's something that we harp on about protecting our punter and kicker. So, there's a lot of things that have to improve and I would imagine that the evaluation process that you alluded to is something that we can certainly look at as well.

(on if it was considered to have the defense press more with Philip Rivers getting the ball out so quickly)

Sure. Yeah. When they do, they threw one and they completed one down there and that's the battle that you wage, and we got picked a couple times and so we have to be better there. We can get up there and press them and then make sure that we're not getting picked and that we're conscious enough of what's going on there. But I thought, I mean, there were some great efforts down there on the goal line that I'm proud of. It can be better, but we'll certainly look at playing a lot of press coverage as we move forward.

(on wide receiver Corey Davis playing today despite suffering the loss of his brother Titus)

I mean, I think that I'm proud of not only Corey (Davis), but his teammates and it's – I'm proud of Corey. I'm proud of him and his ability to come out here, and again, our thoughts and prayers are with him and his family and I'm proud of his teammates for supporting him the way that they did.

QUARTERBACK RYAN TANNEHILL

(on what changed for the offense between the first and second halves)

We had some things early. We didn't come out and execute well in the second half. Had some opportunities, shot ourselves in the foot a few times. I think the pass I missed to Jonnu (Smith) wide open on the corner route, early opportunity there in the second half and just really couldn't get it going.

(on the frustration level and the mindset the team has to have going forward)

We have to clean up and start playing better. Plain and simple. Just inconsistent. We have done some good things. Defense has done some good things. We're just not consistent enough as a team playing complementary football, playing off of each other, and just not making enough plays. So we're going to have to clean that up, really get healthy this little extended week we have here, and be able to clear our minds and our heads and come back ready to go on Monday because we can't wait around any longer. We have to take it up a notch and be ready to play our best football every Sunday from here going forward. So the onus is on us to take a critical look at ourselves and do whatever it takes to clean it up and make the plays on Sundays.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

(on if the offensive struggles can be attributed to the loss of tackle Taylor Lewan)

Yeah, no doubt Taylor's a good player and we miss him. Obviously have a ton of confidence in Ty (Sambrailo) and what he brings to the table. Yeah, I don't know, obviously we miss Taylor, but have confidence in Ty. We just have to get it done. There's really no excuses. We had, Rodger (Saffold III) was in and out. Ben (Jones) was in and out tonight. We're banged up a little bit. But we just have to be able to find a way to push through those tough situations. We have guys playing through some injuries and showing some toughness and laying it out there for the team, but on the whole, we just have to be able to execute better and make the plays that come up. There's opportunities there and we're just not making enough plays when we get those opportunities.

(on the reasoning behind receivers dropping passes)

Yeah, it's been all types of different things, whether it's a drop, whether it's a throw, a missed block. It's never one thing or one person. But when you add the things up, you're killing drives, you're stalling out, you're not scoring points. So that's what I'm talking about. We have to start making the plays and take advantage of the opportunities that are there, whether it's a throw, a catch, a block so we can hit a crease. A lot of times we're one guy away and there's too many almosts, whether they're, like I said, throw a catch, a block. Almost doesn't get it done. We have to be able to make it happen on the whole, 11 guys working together, and when we do that, we move the football and we make plays.

(on the hit from Colts defensive end Justin Houston and having quarterback Logan Woodside step in to close the game out)

Yeah, obviously the hit hurt. It stung a little bit. Knocked my air out. Jonnu (Smith) made a good play, got us into a short-yardage situation there and Derrick (Henry) was able to convert on third down. So, yeah, the hit hurt, but I was able to get up and kind of shake it off. And then just being in that situation in the game, obviously you don't want to be out of striking distance at the end of the game. We need to play better earlier in the second half to put ourselves in position to win the game at the end. When you're down three scores at the end, obviously it's a sick feeling and not one I want to have again.

(on if the offense is pressing too hard to get back to the level it was playing at earlier in the season and if that could be why the performances aren't as smooth)

No, I don't think there's any pressing. I feel like we came out, we moved the ball early, we scored points early, did some really good things in the first half. And then in the second half, we didn't. We got to give credit to the defense. They did some good things. Made it tough on us. But we didn't execute well enough and move the football and make the plays that were there. When you play against a good team, a good defense, and you don't take advantage of the opportunities that are given to you, then you're going to stall out and have to punt and give the ball back to them.

(on opposing defenses speeding him up with pressure in recent weeks)

Yeah, I mean obviously there are certain situations where you're feeling the rush come in and the clock's going off, you want to get the ball out. Sacks kill drives. Don't want to be taking unnecessary sacks. So a lot of times you're feeling the pressure, feeling the rush, and trying to get it out before they get there.

(on what he said to wide receiver Corey Davis as Davis played one day after the death of his brother)

Yeah, just told Corey (Davis) I love him, support him, I'm here for him. Really just a really tough situation, a sick situation that you wouldn't wish upon anybody. He's so close to his brother, and his brother meant so much to him, so I can't even imagine what he's going through right now emotionally. But appreciate his effort and the way he battled through that and played for us tonight. He played a heck of a game, made some big plays for us, so he showed a lot of toughness. But it's tough, you know. The game's over but those feelings aren't gone. So definitely my heart goes out to Corey and David Long, as well. Just two terrible situations and I'm sick for them. I'm sick for him. I just want him to know that I love him, I care for him and want the best for him.

WIDE RECEIVER COREY DAVIS

(on honoring his brother on the field)

Definitely. It's definitely tough. As he was laying there all he kept telling my sister was to tell me to play, regardless of what happens. He just kept telling me to play, telling me to play throughout the whole process. That's my biggest fan. Since I was a little kid I was always chasing after him and trying to be like him. I wore his number every year to copy him. He thought it was annoying, but I looked up to him tremendously. That was my idol, my hero. I tried to honor him tonight.

(on being emotional at the start of the game and when he made his first catch)

It was heavy on my mind, every play. But I just kept thinking this is what he wanted me to do. He wouldn't want me to be sad and sulk and feel sorry for myself. I obviously miss him and wish he was here, but I know he's in a better place and that he was with me today.

RUNNING BACK DERRICK HENRY

(on having 19 carries tonight and if he would have liked to been able to carry the ball more)

Yeah, definitely would like for us to be in a better position to give ourselves a chance to win the game. They just played better than us in all three phases and hats off to them. We just got to take a couple days off and then get back to work. No excuses. Just we have to be better as a team. We know that. We need to fix the mistakes and do better this week coming up.

(on approaching the next few days with a mini-bye and then two important games)

Yeah, I think that guys just need to get their body back under them, time to rest, watch some film, and just really, just relax until we got to get back on Monday and get back to work. But this one definitely stings. They were the better team today. A lot of things we can learn from and improve on and we just have to be better.

(on if the team can take lessons learned from the improvement it made last season)

Yeah, we went on a pretty good run last year and can't really focus on what happened last year. Last year was last year. I think that we all just have to be better on all three phases and when we play like how we played today, against a team like that, then that would be the outcome. But no excuses, we just have to be better, play better, complementary football on all three phases and just go out there, finish drives, score points, get off the field and win the game.

SAFETY KEVIN BYARD

(on the difference of play from the first half to the second half today)

We just didn't play consistent enough in all three phases of the game. We got some big stops, some fourth-down stops that gave us some momentum, but we had a blocked kick, or a shank or whatever, and then we gave up a touchdown, and then we had the blocked punt for a touchdown and everything just went downhill from there. We just have to find a way to stay together and keep fighting and keep battling and prepare for Baltimore next week.

(on the goal line stop by the defense)

Absolutely, it was a big stop down there and something we really needed at that moment to get us off the field and give the offense some momentum. But when you get a stop on the goal line you aren't really putting the offense in a great position and they had to punt. I just think we didn't play consistently enough so we have to find a way to fix it ASAP.

(on having more preparation time for Baltimore after the short week)

First and foremost, some guys need to get healthy. We are going to have a nice little weekend for guys to get away, get some rest and get back. When we come back next week it's all about really preparing. We have a couple extra days so we need to use that and take advantage so we can go out there and try to win a tough game on the road.

CENTER BEN JONES

(on the rhythm of the offense in the first half)

Maintaining drives is key in the league and we were just trying to stay in rhythm. Things just didn't and we left some things out there in the second half that we wish we could have back. We just have to move on, and you have to have a short memory in this league.

(on not being able to get the push needed after being backed up after the goal line stand)

We get the first, first down and we're going for the next one. When we get there, we have third-and-one and we take a chance, but not all chances work out. We're trying to make plays every time. We're not a cautious offense. We try to make plays all the time and the Colts got us.

(on making mistakes on drives and how that can kill a drive)

You have to eliminate drive killers, penalties, false starts and anything like that. We have to be smart on those. You want to overcome those, but a lot of those are hard to overcome.

SAFETY KENNY VACCARO

(on what the issues defensively are)

Yeah, man, I think that some of the same things that kind of crept up in our game all year kind of came back to haunt us, whether it's really just the details, fundamentals, cutting guys loose. A lot of times we were shooting ourselves in the foot. Instead of actually making offenses beat us, we're beating ourselves. So, I mean obviously we get these three days off to kind of reflect. Everybody look at their selves in the mirror and try to figure out exactly what's going on because if you play like that in this league, you're not going to win very many games and we understand that. I'm eager to look at the film just to see exactly what happened in this particular game. But at the same time, I don't want to sound like a broken record. The communication, the details of each play are things we've got to get fixed because we're on the field way too long, like you said. We had some great fourth-down stops this game, but at the same time those inconsistencies keep you on the field and you give up points. So, we've got to get it figured out quick. We've got two great teams these next two weeks.

(on the momentum swing from a fourth-down stop followed by a shanked punt that put the defense immediately back on the field)

Yeah, it's huge. But at the same time, we've got to play complementary ball and once we get the fourth-down stop, score points, and then OK, we don't score points and we get back on field. Well, we've got to get a stop and put the offense in plus field position so they can score points. We've got to create turnovers so the offense will have more attempts at scoring. We've got to get more three-and-outs so the offense can get in a rhythm. So, we take that – we've got to do more on defense and that's just the way I want to put it.

(on if the defense was fatigued tonight)

No. No, it wasn't a fatigue thing. I think guys played hard every play. It's more of a, like I said, details and not executing the way we're coached. That's the problem. It's not fatigue, no.

(on if there is confidence that the defense can correct the issues at hand)

Yeah. I mean I think with the men in our locker room, the guys on our defense we can get it fixed, and we will. We'll figure out. We're at the halfway point now. We got like a little mini-bye week coming up. We will. I know we will, just with the guys in the locker room. The guys on the team on the defense, we'll get it figured out. We've got to hold each other accountable, and we've got to do it so we can win. I mean there's just no choice.

(on the frustration of producing stops but being unable to seize momentum and allowing the Colts to rally when it looked like the Titans were taking control)

It's frustrating, but at the same time, though, it is what it is. Whatever situation, whatever cards we get dealt on defense, we need to come out on top, whether we get fourth down stops, whether we get turnovers, we didn't do enough. That's just what it comes down to. We were on the field too long. Our offenses don't have as many opportunities to score. We got to figure out how to get the offense back on the field as many times as possible.

(on if the defense is playing more off coverage and allowing free releases because opposing quarterbacks are getting the ball out quickly)

Well, I think with (Philip) Rivers, too, he knows that, he's such a smart quarterback, he knows exactly where to go with the ball and where the weaknesses are. But at the same time, we've got to do a better job on defense of mixing our alignments up, showing press, going off, being off, coming up to press. I mean there's different things we can do. Just challenging guys. A lot of times if you get up and you challenge guys in their face, it discourages those quick throws. But it also encourages the offense to take deeper shots, so there's a little give-and-take there. But at the same time, like I said, Philip (Rivers) always got the ball out quick. He's very, very smart. He knows where to go with the ball. He doesn't really give you a chance to sack him. They're the least-sacked team in the league, or one of them, top three, and so I think he does a good job and a lot of good quarterbacks do that.

(on if lining up numerous yards off of the line of scrimmage is a coaching or player choice)

It just depends what the coverage is, whether it's quarters, whether it's man, single high, cover two, either way, like I said, regardless of what coverage we're running we have to do a better job of discouraging those quick throws by changing our alignments, showing press, coming off, being off, getting down and press. Like our coaches told us that before this week, 'Hey, we need to do a better job of changing it up.' So I don't know, I haven't watched the film so I don't know what to say on that.

(on the frustration level for the team and the mindset going forward)

I think we need to get away from ball these next three days. I usually can't so I'll probably watch the film tonight and kind of digest that. But come back, ready to go on a good stretch, ready to beat Baltimore, we're going to Baltimore. They're going to be, after what happened last year, they're going to be ready to roll, they're going to be ready to roll regardless because it's the next game. But being tough, I mean we have been through that, we have been through it last year, we have been through it, every game in this league's tough, I don't care if it's who knows who. So, it's not really about the next opponent, really for us and in general on defense we need to worry about what we're doing and how we execute and not so much who the next opponent is.

(on why the team didn't have these communication errors last year and why a group with almost identical personnel hasn't been able to correct it)

Honestly, I can't really, I mean, I can't really put my thumb on it exactly why we're having those issues this year. Like you said it's a lot of the same guys, but like I said, we're going to work to get it fixed and last year's last year. I'm focused on this year. I know right now we're in a better spot this year than we, a hell of a lot better spot this year than we were last year, we just need to make sure we take advantage of that.

LINEBACKER RASHAAN EVANS

(on if the loss tonight was especially tough with what was at stake)

Oh, no doubt, man. You want to try to win your division games because those really are your most important games. The good thing is we have another opportunity to be able to play these guys in about two more weeks, so for us, we've just got to go back to the drawing board and just get better.

(on what happened after the two-score lead that flipped the game in the second half)

I just feel like everything that we did, we just really hurt ourselves. So, I really do think it was too much of what Indianapolis did, but I think it's what we did to our own selves. Playing in this league when you make mistakes like that you will get beat.

(on what allowed Colts quarterback Philip Rivers to be so effective with quick throws)

Yeah, I feel like they just took advantage of that – doing the quick throws, not allowing our pass rushers to get to him as fast as we wanted to and that worked on their end. For us, we just couldn't get to the quarterback like we wanted to and that allowed them to be able to gain yardage.

Jon Robinson was hired as Titans general manager on Jan. 14, 2016 after spending two years as director of player personnel for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Nearly one year later, on Jan. 5, 2017, he was promoted to executive vice president/general manager.

In his first four years on the job, the Titans finished with four consecutive 9-7 seasons. It marked the first time the organization produced at least four consecutive winning seasons since a seven-year run of winning records from 1987–1993. The Titans were one of four NFL teams to accomplish the feat from 2016–2019, joining New England, Seattle and Kansas City.

Robinson became only the second general manager in franchise history whose first four teams finished above the .500 mark, joining Mike Holovak (1989-92).

Robinson's work helped the team go from three wins in the season prior to his arrival (2015) to a divisional round playoff finish following the 2017 campaign. He became the fifth general manager in franchise history to have the team in the playoffs within his first two full seasons.

Then, in 2019, the team he constructed advanced to the AFC Championship game. It was the organization's first appearance in the conference title game in 17 seasons (2002).

When the Titans took the field for the 2019 postseason, only seven players remained on the 53-man roster from prior to Robinson's arrival—a turnover rate of 87 percent. That included 23 free agents, 18 draft picks, four players acquired via trade and one waiver pickup. An additional six players he acquired (four free agents, one draft pick and one waiver claim) ended 2019 on injured reserve.

The 2020 NFL Draft was Robinson's fifth draft as general manager. In those five drafts, he selected 35 total players, and 21 of those players remained with the club at the beginning of training camp in 2020. During that same time period (as of July 28, 2020), he engineered 20 trades and made 11 waiver claims.

2020: Prior to the 2020 free agent signing period, the Titans reached an agreement on a multi-year contract to keep quarterback Ryan Tannehill in Tennessee. The Titans also re-signed tackle Dennis Kelly, among others.

After initially placing the franchise tag on running back Derrick Henry, the Titans and Henry were able to come to an agreement on a multi-year contract extension in July 2020.

Robinson patiently waited to add two more significant free agents just prior to the beginning of the 2020 regular season, picking up kicker

Stephen Gostkowski and outside linebacker Jadeveon Clowney during the first week of September. Gostkowski earned four Pro Bowl berths and three Super Bowl rings during 14 seasons with the Patriots, becoming the team's all-time leading scorer (1,775 points). Through 2019, he was the NFL's fifth-most accurate kicker in history (374 of 428). Clowney, a three-time Pro Bowl selection, joined Aaron Donald and Chandler Jones as the only NFL players with at least 60 tackles for loss, eight forced fumbles and 150 quarterback pressures from 2016 through 2019.

In the 2020 NFL Draft, the Titans had six total picks. The first of those was Georgia tackle Isaiah Wilson (first round, 29th overall), followed by Louisiana State cornerback Kristian Fulton (second round, 61st overall) and Appalachian State running back Darrynton Evans (third round, 93rd overall) in the first three rounds.

2019: Near the beginning of the 2019 free agent signing period, Robinson worked quickly to add several veterans from other teams who played key roles in 2019: Buccaneers wide receiver Adam Humphries, Rams guard Rodger Saffold and Tannehill in a trade with the Dolphins. Robinson also worked to re-sign starting safety Kenny Vaccaro and punter Brett Kern.

Then, in the 2019 NFL Draft, Robinson directed the selection of six total players, including Mississippi State defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons in the first round (19th overall), Ole Miss wide receiver A.J. Brown in the second round (51st overall) and Charlotte offensive lineman Nate Davis in the third round (82nd overall).

Tannehill, who proved to be one of the NFL's top acquisitions of 2019, started every game after Week 6, leading the team into the playoffs. He led the NFL and set franchise records with a 117.5 passer rating and a 9.6-yard passing average. In addition to being named to his first Pro Bowl, he earned Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year honors.

As a rookie, Brown led the Titans in every major receiving category. Among all rookies in 2019, he ranked first in receiving yards (1,051), tied for the rookie lead in touchdown receptions (eight) and placed fifth in receptions (52). Among all NFL players in 2019—rookies and veterans—Brown finished second in receiving average (20.2), behind only the Los Angeles Chargers' Mike Williams (20.4).

2018: The Titans' 2018 free agent class included Pro Bowl cornerback Malcolm Butler. In his first two seasons in Tennessee, Butler played in 25 games (20 starts) and totaled five interceptions. In early August, the Titans signed Vaccaro, who went on to start 13 games his first season in Tennessee and all 16 games in 2019.

Robinson's 2018 draft class was comprised of four players after he used multiple trades to go up and get his targets. It included first-round linebacker Rashaan Evans from Alabama (22nd overall pick) and second-round outside linebacker Harold Landry III from Boston College (41st overall). Evans started all 16 games in 2019 and led the team with 139 tackles. Landry appeared in 31 games (19 starts) in his first two seasons, and his 13.5 sacks from 2018–2019 (nine in 2019) ranked first on the team.

2017: During the 2017 offseason, Robinson used free agency to address needs on defense and special teams. Most notably, he spearheaded deals for cornerback Logan Ryan (New England) and special teams contributor and 2017 Pro Bowler Brynden Trawick (Oakland).

In the 2017 NFL Draft, Robinson spent first-round picks on wide receiver Corey Davis (fifth overall) and cornerback Adoree' Jackson (18th overall). It marked the first time the franchise had a pair of first-round draft selections since 1987. The Titans' 2017 draft haul also featured tight end Jonn Smith in the third round and linebacker Jayon Brown in the fifth round.

The 2017 Titans advanced to the playoffs for the first time since 2008. Robinson became the fifth general manager in franchise history to have the team in the postseason within his first two full seasons.

2016: In his first year as an NFL general manager, Robinson's leadership and decision-making helped the Titans triple their win total from the previous season, finishing 9-7 in 2016 after a 3-13 finish in 2015. The six-win improvement tied for the most in franchise history (1967 and 1974) and doubled the previous club benchmark for the most wins in the first year under a new general manager (three by Bum Phillips in 1975).

Within the first four months at his post, Robinson pulled the trigger on several key personnel decisions. On March 9, 2016, he made his first major acquisition, swapping fourth-round draft picks with the Philadelphia Eagles in exchange for running back DeMarco Murray. The trade provided major dividends in 2016, as Murray led the AFC and ranked third in the NFL with

The Titans used their first-round pick in 2018 on Rashaan Evans.

1,287 rushing yards.

Around the same time, Robinson began to work the free agent market. Center Ben Jones and wide receiver Rishard Matthews highlighted the haul, and both were instrumental in helping to transform the Titans offense into the 11th-ranked unit in the NFL.

On April 14, 2016, two weeks before the NFL Draft, Robinson and the Titans dealt the first overall pick to the Los Angeles Rams in one of the biggest trades in recent NFL history. The Titans gave up the No. 1 pick and a fourth-rounder in order to receive the 15th overall pick, two second-rounders and a third-rounder in 2016, plus the Rams' first- and third-round picks in 2017. From 1990–2015, there were seven trades involving the No. 1 overall pick, but this was the first since 2004, when the San Diego Chargers selected Eli Manning with the first pick and dealt his rights to the New York Giants.

The Titans had their hands at one point or another on 17 selections in the 2016 draft due to five different trades (including one trade in 2015), and in the end, they ended up with a class of 10 players, including four of the top 45 picks. Robinson swung a draft-day trade with the Cleveland Browns to move back up to the eighth slot to choose Michigan State tackle Jack Conklin.

All 10 members of Robinson's first draft class played in at least one game in 2016. They accumulated a total of 110 games played and 38 starts, including 16 starts at right tackle by Conklin. The eighth-overall pick capped his successful rookie campaign by being named first-team All-Pro by Associated Press.

Henry, a second-rounder in 2016, led the Titans in rushing every season from 2017 through 2019. In 2019, he won the NFL's rushing crown with 1,540 yards and tied for the NFL lead with 16 rushing touchdowns.

Third-round safety Kevin Byard earned first-team All-Pro honors in his second campaign. He led the NFL from 2017–2019 with 17 total interceptions also was named to the Pro Bowl in 2017.

PRIOR HISTORY: Robinson arrived in Tennessee with a wide range of experience from working his way up on the personnel side of the NFL. From 2014–2015, he served as director of player personnel for the Buccaneers and oversaw both college and pro departments as the team rebuilt its roster. The 2015 Buccaneers draft class made a significant impact, including four rookie starters: quarterback James Winston, tackle Donovan Smith, guard Ali Marpet and linebacker Kwon Alexander.

Prior to joining Tampa Bay, Robinson spent 12 years with the New England Patriots, including his last five years (2009-13) as the director of college scouting. In the five years heading up their college scouting, the Patriots added a number of key components to their roster that won the Super Bowl in 2014, including wide receiver Julian Edelman, defensive back Devin McCourty, tight end Rob Gronkowski, tackle Nate Solder and defensive end Chandler Jones. He joined the Patriots as an area scout in 2002, a role he served for four seasons. Robinson then spent two years (2006-07) as a regional scout, before being promoted to assistant director of college scouting in 2008 and then director of college scouting in 2009. In his time scouting for the Patriots the team won 10 division titles, four conference titles and two Super Bowls (2003, 2004).

Robinson played three years at Southeast Missouri State as a defensive lineman after starting his college career at the Air Force Academy. Following his college career as a player, he spent one season (1998) coaching at his alma mater and three years (1999-2001) coaching at Nicholls State.

A native of Union City, Tenn., Robinson and his wife, Jaimie, have two daughters, Taylor and Bailey.

Robinson became only the second general manager in franchise history whose first four teams finished above the .500 mark, joining Mike Holovak (1989-92).

Mike Vrabel enters his third season as head coach in 2020. He was named to the position on Jan. 20, 2018, becoming the 19th head coach in franchise history.

In Vrabel's first two years, he directed the Titans to a 20-15 record, including a 2-1 mark in the 2019 playoffs. His 20 wins made up the second-highest total in franchise history for a head coach's first two seasons, behind only Jack Pardee's 21 wins from 1990–1991.

Vrabel became the first head coach in the organization's history to win multiple playoff games within his first two seasons. The Titans won a pair of road games—at New England in the wild card round and at Baltimore in the divisional round—to advance to the 2019 AFC championship game, falling at Kansas City to the eventual Super Bowl champion Chiefs.

The Titans began the 2019 campaign with two wins in their first six games but rallied to win seven of their final 10 games in the regular season. From the time the NFL went to its current playoff format in 1990 through 2019, 345 teams went 2-4 or worse in their first six games of a season. From that group, the Titans became only the third team to advance to a conference championship game, joining the 2002 Titans (2-4) and the 1996 Jacksonville Jaguars (2-4).

The 2019 Titans ranked in the NFL's top 10 in scoring margin (eighth, +71), turnover margin (sixth, +6), offensive yards per play (fourth, 6.12), rushing offense (third, 138.9 yards per game), red zone efficiency (first, 75.6 percent), total touchdowns (tied for third, 54) and third-down defense (eighth, 36.3 percent).

From 2018–2019, Vrabel's Titans were the second-least penalized NFL team (181). Over the same period of time, they were the fourth-best rushing offense (129.2 yards per game), the fifth-best scoring defense (19.8 points allowed per game) and the seventh-best third-down defense (36.4 percent).

In his first season as head coach, Vrabel directed the Titans to a 9-7 record. His nine wins tied for the fourth-highest total in franchise history by a first-year head coach.

With only 82 penalties enforced against the Titans in 2018, Vrabel's team led the NFL and set a franchise record (16-game season) for fewest penalties in a season. The 2018 Titans also placed third in points allowed (18.9 per game), eighth in total defense (333.4 yards per game), sixth in passing defense (216.9), second in red zone defense (44.7 percent touchdown rate) and seventh in rushing offense (126.4) in the league rankings.

Vrabel arrived in Tennessee with 18 years of NFL experience, including four seasons as a coach and 14 seasons as a player. His distinguished playing career included three Super Bowl wins (2001, 2003 and 2004), one Pro Bowl selection (2007) and an All-Pro honor (2007). Vrabel played in 206 NFL games and totaled 57 sacks, 496 tackles, 11 interceptions, 20 forced fumbles, nine fumble recoveries and 10 touchdown receptions. Additionally, his teams advanced to the playoffs eight times (20 postseason games), with Vrabel recording eight postseason sacks and two postseason touchdown receptions.

Vrabel joined the Titans after four seasons with the Houston Texans, spending the first three seasons (2014-16) coaching linebackers and one year (2017) as the team's defensive coordinator. During his time in Houston, the Texans built one of the best defenses in the NFL and experienced tremendous success as a team – earning two division titles (2015, 2016).

Between 2014-16, the Texans defense ranked third in the NFL in yards allowed per game (319.9) and net passing yards (218.4). Houston also ranked first in third-down defense (33.6), fourth in opponent completion percentage (59.5) and sixth in points allowed per game (19.8). The 2016 defense ranked number one in the NFL, for the first time in franchise history, in yards allowed (301.3).

In 2017, his first year as a defensive coordinator, the Texans finished the campaign with 19 players on injured reserve. Despite the injuries, Vrabel led the defense to the fifth-best third-down percentage in the NFL and a franchise-record 3.97 yards per carry by opponents. Houston also

NISSAN STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

Nissan Stadium hosts all Titans home football games, Tennessee State University football games, the Music City Bowl, the CMA Music Festival and numerous other events.

The procurement of naming rights to Nissan Stadium fit the automotive company's 'Fewer, Bigger, Better' marketing strategy, which has included ongoing sponsorships of NBC's 'The Voice,' the Heisman House college football program and a major advertising presence in this year's Super Bowl. Nissan is also now the official automotive partner of the Tennessee Titans.

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin.

The Nissan Smyrna Plant began operations in 1983 and employs more than 8,400 people. In 2014, the Smyrna plant assembled more than 648,000 vehicles, making it the highest volume automotive assembly plant in North America. Nissan also has a major manufacturing presence in Canton, Miss., along with research and development groups in California, Arizona and Michigan. In total, the company employs more than 22,000 employees in the U.S.

One component of the Titans-Nissan partnership is assisting charitable organizations throughout Middle Tennessee in an array of community outreach programs. A centerpiece of this is the annual "Taste of Titans" charitable event, for which Nissan serves as presenting sponsor. During the course of a 20-year relationship, a total of more than $1 million resulting from these annual events is anticipated to be distributed to local non-profit organizations.

Nissan Stadium is a city-owned venue that has housed the Titans since 1999. The naming rights agreement includes the opportunity for Nissan branding on the exterior of the stadium, as well as stadium signage and other unique displays inside the stadium. LP Building Products held the naming rights to the stadium from 2006 until the Nissan partnership was established in 2015.

FANS RETURN TO NISSAN STADIUM

On Sept. 17, the Titans announced that Nissan Stadium will open at limited capacity beginning with the Oct. 4 Titans home game against the Pittsburgh Steelers. The three October home games will gradually increase in capacity with the goal of reaching a fixed capacity for the remaining games in November and December.

The Oct. 4 game will be open to season ticket members up to 10 percent of the stadium's capacity, which is roughly 7,000 fans in the lower bowl and club levels. The next October home game (Oct. 11) will allow 12.5 percent and the third (Oct. 18) 15 percent. For November until the end of the season, capacity could reach 21 percent, which is the maximum capacity the facility can accommodate under current CDC guidelines. Outside of the seating bowl, suites will operate at a limited capacity.

"We are thrilled to welcome fans back to Nissan Stadium and can't thank Mayor Cooper and the Metro Nashville Public Health Department enough for their collaboration in making this possible," said Titans President and CEO Burke Nihill. "The health and safety of our fans, players and staff remains our top priority and we felt like a gradual capacity plan was the right call, knowing that we may need to be flexible as time goes on. We feel confident that our Safe Stadium Plan will give everyone a safe and comfortable experience as they return to our gates."

Detailed information on the Safe Stadium Plan can be found at www.tennesseetitans.com/safestadium. Key components include:

- Socially-distant seating pods accommodating parties of one to a maximum of six people
- Mobile ticketing and parking, to eliminate physical contact while scanning passes
- Mandatory face coverings at all times, except when actively eating or drinking
- Over 300 hand sanitizing stations throughout the stadium
- Individually-wrapped food items at concession stands
- Elimination of all smoking and vaping areas in the facility
- Health screenings and personal protective equipment for all Nissan Stadium employees
- A comprehensive cleaning plan during events for bathrooms and near concession areas

Fans will be asked to arrive early and head straight to the gates after they arrive. After consulting with local and national health experts, there will be no tailgating or pregame activities allowed outside of the stadium. The stadium will have dedicated security crews throughout Nissan Stadium to enforce all Safe Stadium policies.

Quarterback Ryan Tannehill is in his ninth NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2020. He received a multi-year contract extension during the 2020 offseason.

In 2019, Tannehill took control as the team's starting quarterback in Week 7 and subsequently led the Titans to the playoffs and an appearance in the AFC championship game. In his 13 starts, including the regular season and playoffs, the Titans went 9-4.

Tannehill set single-season franchise records and led the NFL with a 117.5 passer rating and a passing average of 9.6 yards per attempt. His passer rating was the fourth-highest figure in NFL history among qualifiers. Additionally, he set a club record and placed third in the NFL with a 70.3 completion percentage.

Tannehill was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for December 2019 and was named to his first career Pro Bowl. He also won the Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year Award.

Originally a first-round selection (eighth overall) by the Miami Dolphins in the 2012 NFL Draft, Tannehill was acquired by the Titans in a trade with the Dolphins on March 15, 2019. The Titans sent a 2019 seventh-round pick and a 2020 fourth-round selection to Miami in exchange for Tannehill and a 2019 sixth-rounder.

Over his seven seasons in Miami, he started 88 games, threw for 20,434 yards and 123 touchdowns, and rushed for 1,210 yards and six scores. When he left Miami, he ranked second in franchise history behind Chad Pennington in both career completion percentage (62.8) and career passer rating (87.0). He authored 13 game-winning drives for the Dolphins.

During the first four seasons of his career (2012-15), Tannehill's passing yardage total—15,460 yards—was the third highest mark in NFL history, behind only Peyton Manning and Dan Marino. Tannehill's two 4,000-yard passing seasons (2015 and 2014) were the only ones recorded by a Dolphins quarterback other than Marino (six times). The Dolphins reached the playoffs in 2016, breaking an eight-year postseason drought.

A native of Big Spring, Texas, Tannehill attended Texas A&M, where he earned honorable mention All-America honors as a senior. He played both quarterback and wide receiver, passing for 5,450 yards and 42 touchdowns and adding 112 receptions for 1,596 yards and 10 scores.

2020 Notes:

➤ At Denver (9/14), opened the season on Monday Night Football with a 97.9 passer rating after completing 29 of 43 passes for 249 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions. He also rushed for 14 yards on three attempts. He registered his 17th career game-winning drive and his fourth as a member of the Titans. On the team's final drive, which ended with the go-ahead 25-yard field goal by Stephen Gostkowski, Tannehill completed five of seven attempts for 40 yards. His two touchdown passes included a one-yard pass to tight end MyCole Pruitt in the second quarter and a one-yard touchdown toss to tight end Jonnu Smith in the fourth quarter. He extended his streak to 11 consecutive regular season games with at least one touchdown pass and extended his streak to eight consecutive regular season games with at least two touchdown passes. His 43 passing attempts were his most in a game since Sept. 18, 2016 (45 vs. New England).

no interceptions. It was the best passer rating for the club since Marcus Mariota's 149.8 against Green Bay on Nov. 13, 2016. It was Tannehill's second-highest career passer rating in a game with a minimum of 20 attempts, topped only by his 155.3 against the Oakland Raiders on Sept. 23, 2018. He tied his career high with four touchdown passes, becoming the first Titans quarterback with four or more touchdown passes in a game since Mariota's 2016 performance against Green Bay. Tannehill's four touchdown passes against the Jaguars included a 13-yard pass to tight end Jonnu Smith and a nine-yard strike to wide receiver Corey Davis in the first quarter, a four-yard touchdown to Smith in the second quarter, and finally an 18-yard toss to wide receiver Adam Humphries in the third quarter. He registered his 18th career game with three or more touchdown passes and reached 150 career touchdown passes on his third touchdown pass of the day. He extended his career-best streak and set a franchise record with his ninth consecutive regular season game with at least two touchdown passes. Marcus Mariota established the previous team record with eight consecutive games in 2016 with two touchdown passes. He also extended his streak to 12 consecutive regular season games with at least one touchdown pass, the longest streak by a Titans quarterback since Steve McNair set the franchise record from 2001 to 2002 with 23 consecutive games with a touchdown pass. He posted his NFL-high 10th game with at least two touchdown passes and no interceptions since he stepped into the starting lineup for the Titans in Week 7 of 2019, including the regular season and postseason. Tannehill owns 27 such games in his career. He registered his 18th career game-winning drive and his fifth as a member of the Titans.

➤ At Minnesota (9/27), completed 23 of 37 passes for 321 yards with one interception. He registered his 20th career 300-yard passing game and his first of 2020. He had three passes of more than 35 yards: a 44-yard completion to Kalif Raymond during the opening series, a 38-yard strike to Corey Davis in the third quarter and a 61-yard bomb to Raymond in the third quarter. He became the first NFL quarterback since Matt Ryan in 2015 with a game-winning drive in each of his team's first three games of a season, logging his 19th career game-winning drive and his sixth as a member of the Titans. He led the offense to eight total scoring drives, including five scoring drives in the second half.

➤ Against Buffalo (10/13), completed 21 of 28 passes (75.0 percent) for 195 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions. His passer rating of 129.3 was the ninth-best single-game mark of his career (minimum 20 attempts). He added 42 rushing yards, including a 10-yard rushing touchdown in the second quarter and a 23-yard run for a first down in the fourth quarter. He recorded the second game of his career with at least three passing touchdowns and at least one rushing touchdown, matching what he achieved as a member of the Miami Dolphins against the Denver Broncos on Nov. 23, 2014. His three touchdown passes included a 16-yard pass to A.J. Brown on his first attempt of the game, a four-yard touchdown pass to Jonnu Smith in the third quarter and a seven-yard toss to Smith in the fourth quarter.

➤ Against Houston (10/18), completed 30 of 41 passes for 366 yards with four touchdowns and one interception for a passer rating of 122.6. His yardage total was the fifth-highest number of his career and his second-highest figure in a Titans uniform. His four touchdown passes tied a career high and included a seven-yard pass to tight end Anthony Firkser and a six-yard strike to wide receiver A.J. Brown in the first quarter, a 22-yard touchdown to wide receiver Adam Humphries in the second quarter, and finally a seven-yard toss to Brown in the fourth quarter. He helped lead the Titans back from a late deficit with his second touchdown pass to A.J. Brown with four seconds remaining in the fourth quarter. The extra point tied the score at 36-36. During the game-tying two-minute drive, he completed eight of nine attempts for 76 yards. The Titans' overtime scoring drive registered as his 20th career game-winning drive and his seventh in a Titans uniform. It was his fourth game-winning drive of 2020. He completed his final 10 passes of the game in the fourth quarter and overtime. His 13 touchdown passes through five games tied for the second-highest total in franchise history through the first five games of a season, trailing only George Blanda, who holds the top spot for the franchise with 14 in 1962 and also had 13 in 1966. Tannehill's 364 passing yards ranked 11th for the franchise in its "Titans era" (since 1999). He registered his third career game with three touchdown passes in the first half. He was named FedEx Air Player of the Week for his performance.

➤ Against Pittsburgh (10/25), completed 18 of 30 passes for 220 yards

2 TD PASSES W/ LESS THAN 2 INTS

To end the 2019 regular season, Ryan Tannehill completed multiple touchdown passes for seven consecutive games, one game shy of Marcus Mariota's 2016 franchise record of eight consecutive games with multiple touchdown passes.

However, Tannehill did establish a franchise benchmark in his final seven contests for most consecutive games with multiple touchdown passes and fewer than two interceptions. Over those seven games, he had two total interceptions—one each on Dec. 8 (at Oakland) and Dec. 15 (vs. Houston)—to go along with 19 touchdown passes and a 129.8 passer rating.

During Mariota's 2016 season, he registered the previous franchise-best streak of four straight games with at least two touchdown passes and fewer than two interceptions.

Most consecutive games in a season in franchise history with multiple touchdown passes and fewer than two interceptions:

It was Tannehill's second-highest career passer rating in a game with a minimum of 20 attempts, topped only by his 155.3 as a member of the Miami Dolphins against the Raiders on Sept. 23, 2018.

6-3, 247, 5th Year, Alabama

Click for complete bio

Running back Derrick Henry is in his fifth NFL season in 2020. He was selected by the Titans with the 45th overall pick in the second round of the 2016 NFL Draft and received a multi-year contract extension in 2020.

In 2019, Henry was named to his first career Pro Bowl and added second-team Associated Press All-Pro honors after leading the NFL in rushing in 2019. In 15 games, he totaled 1,540 yards on 303 carries (5.1 avg.), joining Billy Cannon (AFL, 1961), Earl Campbell (1978-80) and Chris Johnson (2009) as the only running backs in franchise history to lead their respective leagues in rushing. Henry's single-season total ranked fourth in franchise annals behind Johnson's 2009 total (2,006) and Campbell's 1979 (1,697) and 1980 (1,934) performances. He was named the FedEx Ground Player of the Year.

With 16 rushing touchdowns in 2019, Henry tied for the NFL lead (Aaron Jones) and finished second in team history (19 by Campbell in 1979). Adding his two receiving touchdowns, his 18 total touchdowns were third in the NFL and tied for second in franchise annals (19 by Campbell in 1979; 18 by Bill Groman in 1961).

Henry's performance late in the 2019 season was instrumental in the team's run to the AFC championship game. Over the final six games of the regular season plus three playoff appearances, Henry registered seven 100-yard games. During a three-game stretch (Dec. 29 at Houston, Jan. 4 at New England and Jan. 11 at Baltimore), he became the first player in NFL history to rush for at least 180 yards in three consecutive regular season and/or postseason games.

Henry authored his first career 1,000-yard season in 2018 and the 28th 1,000-yard rushing season in franchise history, totaling 1,059 yards and 12 touchdowns on 215 carries—all then-career highs.

His 2018 rushing yardage ranked second in the AFC to Joe Mixon's 1,168 yards, and he finished seventh in the NFL. Henry's 12 rushing touchdowns tied James Connor for third place in the NFL behind Todd Gurley (17) and Alvin Kamara (14).

Henry was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for December 2018. His 625 rushing yards in the month were the most by any NFL player in any month during the season.

Against the Jacksonville Jaguars on Dec. 6, 2018, Henry recorded one of the greatest single games in franchise history in front of a national television audience. He broke Johnson's single-game franchise record (228) with 238 rushing yards, including a 99-yard touchdown run. He joined Tony Dorsett as the only two players in NFL history to rush for a 99-yard score.

In 2017, Henry shared time in the Titans backfield with DeMarco Murray. Henry led the team with 744 rushing yards on 176 carries, and he added 11 receptions for 136 yards and a touchdown. His five rushing touchdowns tied for second on the club.

As a rookie in 2016, Henry played in 15 games with one start, splitting reps in the backfield with Murray. He carried the ball 110 times for 490 yards and five touchdowns and added 137 yards on 13 receptions. Henry became the third rookie for the franchise in the "Titans era" to score at least five touchdowns in a season, joining Vince Young (seven rushing touchdowns in 2006) and Johnson (nine rushing and one receiving in 2008).

The Heisman Trophy winner played three seasons (2013–2015) at the University of Alabama, where he set numerous school and SEC records while helping his team win a National Championship in 2015. He played in 39 games and totaled 602 carries for 3,591 yards and 42 rushing touchdowns and added 285 yards on 17 career receptions with three receiving scores. During Alabama's victory over Clemson in the 2016 College Football Playoff National Championship, he broke Shaun Alexander's record for most career rushing yards in Alabama history.

In his final collegiate season, Henry rushed for an Alabama and Southeastern Conference record 2,219 yards, which led the nation and ranked fifth in FBS history. He recorded 100-yard rushing games 10 times and had four 200-yard games during the season. His 28 rushing touchdowns were a national best and an SEC record, snapping Tim Tebow and Tre Mason's old mark of 23. In addition to the Heisman, he also won the Doak Walker Award, Walter Camp Award and Maxwell Award, among a multitude of other honors.

Henry is a native of Yulee, Fla.

2020 Notes:

➤ At Denver (9/14), rushed for 116 yards on 31 carries on Monday Night Football to notch his 14th career 100-yard rushing game (regular season and playoffs). He extended his streak to 10 consecutive regular season games with at least 80 scrimmage yards. His 31 rushing attempts made up the third-highest total of his career in the regular season.

➤ Against Jacksonville (9/20), rushed for 84 yards on 25 carries and became the fifth player in franchise history to reach the 4,000-yard career rushing mark (4,033). He registered his third consecutive regular season game with at least 25 carries, dating back Dec. 29, 2019.

➤ At Minnesota (9/27), rushed for 119 yards on 26 carries with two touchdowns, notching his 15th career 100-yard rushing game (regular season and playoffs). He became the fifth player in NFL history to have 25 or more rushing attempts in each of his team's first three games of a season, joining Buffalo's O.J. Simpson (1975), Dallas' Emmitt Smith (1994), Indianapolis' Edgerrin James (2002) and Houston's Arian Foster (2012). Henry passed Lorenzo White (4,079 career rushing yards) for fourth place on the franchise's all-time rushing list. He scored his first touchdown of the season on a one-yard plunge in the third quarter and added another one-yard touchdown run on the following series. He tallied his ninth career regular season game with at least two touchdown runs. It was his 11th career regular season game with at least two total touchdowns. He became the second player in franchise history to record 12 consecutive regular season games with at least 80 scrimmage yards, joining Chris Johnson (12 from 2009 to 2010) as the only Titans/Oilers to do so. Henry added 11 receiving yards on two catches to give him 130 total scrimmage yards, marking his 10th career regular season game with at least 130 scrimmage yards. He became the fourth player in franchise history to hit 40 career rushing touchdowns, joining Earl Campbell (73), Eddie George (64) and Chris Johnson (50).

➤ Against Buffalo (10/13), rushed for 57 yards and two touchdowns on 19 attempts. It was his 10th career game with at least two rushing touchdowns. He registered a one-yard touchdown run in the second quarter and added a nine-yard score in the fourth quarter. He rushed for two touchdowns in consecutive games for the third time in his career.

➤ Against Houston (10/18), totaled 22 carries for 212 yards and two touchdowns, recording his third career 200-yard rushing game. It was his second-highest rushing total for a single game (238). His 212 rushing yards were fifth in franchise history and put him in ownership of three of the top six single-game rushing performances in team annals. He scored the game-winning touchdown in overtime on a five-yard run out of the Wildcat formation, registering the second "walk-off" overtime touchdown run in franchise history and the first since Vince Young's 39-yard run to win in overtime at Houston on Dec. 10, 2006. Henry added 52 receiving yards, including a 53-yard reception—the third-longest catch of his career—in overtime, to give him 264 scrimmage yards. The scrimmage yardage total placed fourth in franchise history, and it was the most scrimmage yards by a Titans player in a game since Chris Johnson's 284 on Sept. 20, 2009. Henry's total of 264 scrimmage yards was the most by any NFL player since the New York Giants' Saquon Barkley had 279 at Washington on Dec. 22, 2019. Henry scored on a 94-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter, tying Chris Johnson for the second-longest run in franchise history behind Henry's own 99-yard touchdown run (Dec. 6, 2018 vs. Jacksonville). Henry became the fifth NFL player to record two career rushing touchdowns of 90 or more yards, joining Bo Jackson, Ahman Green, Chris Johnson and Lamar Miller. Henry joined Miller (two 97-yard touchdown runs) as the only players to ever record multiple touchdown runs of at least 94 yards. With five 70-yard (or longer) career rushing touchdowns, Henry tied Barry Sanders (five) and O.J. Simpson (five) for the third-most in NFL history behind only Chris Johnson (seven) and Adrian Peterson (seven). Henry became the first player in NFL history to record a game with 200-plus rushing yards in three consecutive seasons. He previously accomplished the feat against Jacksonville on Dec. 6, 2018 (238) and at Houston on Dec. 29, 2019 (211). He became the NFL's 15th player since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to record at least three career 200-yard rushing games and the first to reach the mark since Jay Ajayi had his third 200-yard rushing game in 2016. Henry joined Chris Johnson (Sept. 20, 2009 vs. Houston) as the only NFL players since 1975 with a rushing attempt of at least 90 yards and a reception of at least 50 yards in a game. He notched his 16th career 100-yard rushing game, including regular season and playoffs, and his third of 2020. He recorded his third consecutive game with at least two rushing touchdowns, joining Earl Campbell (1980) and Chris Johnson (2009) as the franchise's only players to do so. Henry joined Eddie George (1996–2003) as the franchise's only players to begin their careers with at least five rushing touchdowns in five consecutive seasons. He was named the AFC Offensive Player of the Week and the FedEx Ground Player of the Week for his performance.

➤ Against Pittsburgh (10/25), totaled 20 rushing attempts for 75 yards and one touchdown. He scored on a one-yard plunge in the fourth quarter, reaching the end zone for the seventh time in 2020. It was his fourth consecutive game with at least one rushing touchdown. Reached 75 rushing yards for the fifth time in 2020 and for the 13th time in his last 15 games.

➤ At Cincinnati (11/1), totaled 112 yards and one touchdown on 18 rushing attempts, notching his fourth 100-yard rushing game of 2020 and his 17th career 100-yard rushing game (including regular season and playoff games). He scored his eighth rushing touchdown of the campaign on a three-yard run in the second quarter. On the scoring drive, he carried the ball seven times for 46 yards. It was his fifth consecutive game with at least one rushing touchdown. It marks the fifth such streak in franchise history, matching a feat he achieved in 2019 to tie Earl Campbell (1979) and DeMarco Murray (2016) for the second-longest streak in team annals.

➤ Against Chicago (11/8), led the team with 21 rushing attempts for 68 yards, including a 26-yard run on a touchdown drive in the fourth quarter.

➤ Against Indianapolis (11/12), totaled 103 yards on 19 rushing attempts and added a six-yard reception. He registered his fifth 100-yard rushing game of 2020 and his 18th career 100-yard rushing game (including regular season and playoffs). He became the fifth NFL player since 1948 to have at least 18 rushing attempts in 18 consecutive games in the regular season and postseason. He tied James Wilder, Terrell Davis and DeMarco Murray for the NFL's second-longest such streak behind only Emmitt Smith, who established the record from 1995 to 1996 with 18 carries in 23 consecutive regular season and postseason games.

Among all NFL players in 2019—rookies and veterans—Brown finished second in receiving average (20.2), behind only the Los Angeles Chargers' Mike Williams (20.4).

During a three-year career at Mississippi (2016-18), Brown became the program's all-time leading receiver with 2,984 yards. ➤ Against Jacksonville (9/20) and at Minnesota (9/27), he was inactive with a knee injury.

➤ Against Buffalo (10/13), returned to the lineup and led the team with seven receptions and 82 receiving yards, including a touchdown reception. It was the second-highest reception total of his career (eight vs. Houston on Dec. 15, 2019) and his seventh-highest receiving yardage total. He recorded his first touchdown of the season and the ninth touchdown reception of his career on a 16-yard pass from Ryan Tannehill in the first quarter.

➤ Against Houston (10/18), totaled five receptions for 58 yards and two touchdowns. He scored on a six-yard grab in the first quarter and a seven-yard reception late in the fourth quarter. His two touchdown receptions tied his career high, matching a feat he most recently accomplished at Oakland on Dec. 8, 2019. He registered the 10th and 11th touchdown receptions of his 19-game career, and in doing so, he became the franchise's first player since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to reach 10 career touchdown receptions in less than 20 career games. Former wide receiver Chris Sanders held the previous franchise mark since 1970 with nine touchdown receptions in his first 20 games. With four seconds remaining in the fourth quarter, his seven-yard touchdown reception on a pass from Ryan Tannehill gave the Titans a chance to tie the score at 36-36 with the extra point and eventually win the game in overtime.

➤ Against Pittsburgh (10/25), led the team and tied his career high with 153 receiving yards on six receptions with one touchdown. He matched the 153 yards he posted at Oakland on Dec. 8, 2019. He recorded a 73-yard touchdown reception in the third quarter to notch the second-longest reception of his career (91 yards at Oakland on Dec. 8, 2019). The play gave him four touchdown receptions in 2020 and 12 career touchdown catches. He joined Robby Anderson (two) as the only NFL players with multiple touchdown receptions of at least 73 yards since the start of the 2019 season, and he joined Kenny Britt (two) and Nate Washington (two) as the only players in the franchise's "Titans era" (since 1999) with multiple career touchdown receptions of at least 73 yards. Brown became the first Titans player with a streak of three consecutive games catching a touchdown pass since Rishard Matthews accomplished the feat in 2016. His 153 receiving yards tied for the 10th-highest total by a player in the franchise's "Titans era" (since 1999). He recorded his sixth career game with at least 100 receiving yards (first of 2020), going over the 100-yard mark on a 20-yard grab in the fourth quarter.

➤ At Cincinnati (11/1), totaled four receptions for 24 yards and one touchdown, giving him his fourth consecutive game with at least one touchdown reception. He became the team's first player to do so since Kenny Britt's four-game streak from 2010 to 2011 and the team's first player to do so in a single season since Britt had a separate five-game streak in 2010.

➤ Against Chicago (11/8), led the team with four receptions and 101 receiving yards with one touchdown. He registered his seventh career 100-yard receiving game and his second 100-yard performance of 2020. At 23 years and 131 days old, he became the franchise's third player to eclipse 1,500 career receiving yards before his 24th birthday, joining Kenny Britt (22 years, 357 days) and Ernest Givins (23 years, 80 days). With his fifth consecutive game with at least one touchdown reception, he became the team's first player to do so since Kenny Britt's five-game streak in 2010, and his streak tied for the third-longest streak of its kind in franchise history. After recording a 38-yard reception in the first quarter, he posted a 40-yard touchdown reception in the second quarter.

➤ Against Indianapolis (11/12), recorded a 21-yard reception in the first quarter.

That was also the last time before his performance at Cincinnati that the Titans had a player with at least eight receptions and at least 120 receiving yards in a single game. He became the franchise's fourth player in the "Titans era" (since 1999) to have multiple career games with at least eight receptions, at least 120 receiving yards and at least one touchdown catch. Center Ben Jones is in his ninth NFL season and his fifth campaign with the Titans in 2020. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 10, 2016.

From 2012 through 2019, Jones appeared in 127 of 128 possible regular season games, including starts in all but one game during his first four seasons in Tennessee.

In 2019, Jones captained an offensive line that helped running back Derrick Henry win the NFL's rushing title (1,540 yards). He started all three playoff games en route to an AFC Championship Game appearance.

On Dec. 12, 2019, Jones was named the Titans nominee for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award. Considered one of the league's most prestigious honors, the award recognizes an NFL player for outstanding community service activities off the field, as well as excellence on the field.

On Nov. 3, 2019, Jones' streak of 120 consecutive games played and 88 consecutive starts came to an end when he was deactivated with a concussion. At the time, Jones' consecutive games streak tied Kansas City's Mitchell Schwartz for the longest active streak in the NFL among offensive linemen, and his starting streak ranked first in the NFL among all centers.

Jones started all 16 games at center in 2018, registering a start in every contest for the fifth consecutive season, dating back to his third year in Houston (2014).

In his first year in Tennessee, Jones played a key role in an offensive turnaround. The veteran was a key cog in a line that helped the Titans finish 11th overall in offense, third in rushing and tied for seventh in fewest sacks allowed.

Jones was originally selected by the Houston Texans in the fourth round (99th overall) of the 2012 NFL Draft. Over the following four seasons, he started contests at center and both guard spots. He was a starter on two playoff teams in Houston (2012 and 2015).

In 2015, Jones started every game at center, extending his streak of consecutive regular season games played to 64, which was the second-longest active streak among NFL centers at the conclusion of the season.

A native of Centreville, Ala., Jones attended the University of Georgia, where his 49 total starts ranked third in school annals. He was a two-time All-SEC selection by the league's coaches and was named to Georgia's Team of the Decade. As a senior (2011), the team captain earned All-SEC first-team honors.

Click for complete bio

Punter Brett Kern is in his 13th NFL season and his 11th full campaign with the Titans in 2019. He was claimed off waivers by the Titans during the 2009 season.

During his time in Tennessee, Kern has placed his name at the top of most of the franchise's leaderboards at his position. At the end of the 2019 campaign, he ranked as the team's all-time career leader in gross punting average (45.9 yards), net punting average (40.8) and punts placed inside the 20 (333). He punted 839 times in a Titans uniform from 2009–2019, second all-time for the franchise behind Craig Hentrich's 861 punts. Kern owns the top eight net punting seasons in franchise history and six of the team's top eight gross punting seasons.

In 2019, Kern was named to the Pro Bowl for the third consecutive season, and he earned first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors for the first time in his career. His 37 punts inside the 20 led the NFL, and his 43.1-yard net average ranked second in team history.

At the end of the 2019 campaign, Kern's 170 consecutive games played (regular season) ranked second in team history behind only Bruce Matthews (232). Kern's 170 career games ranked sixth in franchise annals and were the most in the organization's "Titans era" (1999–2019).

In 2018, his 47.1-yard gross average ranked fifth in team history, and his 41.7-yard net average ranked second in team annals. He set a franchise record and recorded a career high with 39 of his 74 punts inside the 20-yard line. He finished the season with a career-long streak of 16 consecutive punts placed inside the 20, including every punt in the final three games of the season.

In 2017, Kern had arguably one of the best seasons by a punter in NFL history and was named to his first career Pro Bowl in addition to earning second-team Associated Press All-Pro honors. He punted 75 times for 3,728 yards with 28 punts placed inside the 20-yard line. His 44.6-yard net average broke his own team record and finished second in NFL history behind only Johnny Hekker's 46.0-yard net average in 2016. Kern's 49.7-yard gross average also broke his team mark and finished eighth in NFL history.

In 2015, Kern continued his annual assault on the team's all-time punting records and accomplished a first-of-its-kind NFL feat, becoming the first punter in league history to record 80 or more punts, a net average of 40 yards, and one or zero touchbacks in a single season. His season totals included 88 punts (tied for fifth place in franchise history), a 47.4-yard gross average (second in franchise history), a 40.3 net average (third in franchise history), a career-high 34 punts inside the 20 (third in franchise history) and only one touchback (career low).

In 2014, Kern launched a career-high 88 total punts for a gross average of 46.8 yards and a net average of 40.8 yards, which broke his own single-season team record (40.4-yard net average in 2012).

Kern produced one of the best punting seasons in team history in 2012. He set then-franchise records with a gross punting average of 47.6 yards and a net punting average of 40.4 yards (he later broke both marks).

Kern was claimed by the Titans off waivers from the Denver Broncos on Oct. 27, 2009. He spent the entire 2008 season and the first six games of 2009 campaign in Denver, totaling 73 punts and a 46.5-yard average in 22 games with the Broncos.

In 2008, Kern ranked fifth in the league with a 46.7-yard punting average that marked the third-best season total by a Bronco in club history. At the time, his punting average was the best in NFL history by a rookie. He was named to the All-Rookie team by Pro Football Weekly/PFWA and The Sporting News.

The Grand Island, N.Y., native was originally signed by the Broncos as a rookie free agent on April 28, 2008, following four seasons at the University of Toledo.
