NASHVILLE — In Week 2 of the preseason, the Tennessee Titans host the Seattle Seahawks at Nissan Stadium (capacity 69,143). Kickoff is scheduled for 6 p.m. CDT on Saturday, Aug. 17.

During the week, the Titans will host the Seahawks for a pair of joint training camp practices at Ascension Saint Thomas Sports Park. The sessions will take place at 10 a.m. on Wednesday, Aug. 14 and Thursday, Aug. 15. All practice tickets have been distributed.

This year's visit by the Seahawks will mark the 12th time for the Titans to host a team for joint workouts at Ascension Saint Thomas Sports Park, which opened in 1999. Previous occasions included 2001 (Indianapolis), 2002 (Miami), 2003 (Miami), 2004 (Atlanta), 2008 (St. Louis), 2010 (Arizona), 2017 (Carolina), 2018 (Tampa Bay), 2019 (New England) and 2022 (Tampa Bay and Arizona). In the same time period, the Titans have traveled for joint practices in 2000 (with St. Louis in Macomb, Ill.), 2012 (with Atlanta in Dalton, Ga.), 2014 (Atlanta), 2021 (Tampa Bay) and 2023 (Minnesota).

This is the Seahawks' second trip to Tennessee in an eight-month span. The two clubs squared off on Christmas Eve at Nissan Stadium, and the Seahawks departed with a 20-17 victory.

TITANS VICTORIOUS IN FIRST EFFORT UNDER CALLAHAN

Last week, Brian Callahan made his preseason head coaching debut and led the Titans to a 17-13 victory over the San Francisco 49ers at Nissan Stadium. Many regular Titans starters, including second-year quarterback Will Levis, were in the lineup to begin the contest. Levis directed two drives, and the Titans scored touchdowns on each occasion—the first on his one-yard quarterback sneak and the second on running back Tyjae Spears' four-yard run.

Defensively, the Titans allowed a touchdown on San Francisco's first series but then kept the 49ers off the scoreboard until less than nine minutes remained in the fourth quarter. The unit was led by inside linebacker Chance Campbell, who tallied a team-high eight tackles and a sack. The 2022 sixth-round draft choice also sealed the win with an interception on the final play of the game.

THE SEAHAWKS

The Seahawks, who finished 2023 with a 9-8 record, are in their first campaign under new head coach Mike Macdonald. He was hired in January after spending two seasons as the defensive coordinator for the Baltimore Ravens. Macdonald and current Titans defensive coordinator Dennard Wilson were on the same staff in 2023.

Seahawks quarterback Geno Smith is entering his 12th NFL season and his fifth campaign with the Seahawks after previous time with New York Jets, New York Giants and Los Angeles Chargers. In 2023, he passed for 3,624 yards and 20 touchdowns with nine interceptions.

The Seahawks opened their preseason schedule by visiting the Chargers. They scored the game's first 13 points and ultimately prevailed 16-3. Smith was held out of action, with Sam Howell starting in his place. Howell passed for 130 yards and a score.

SERIES HISTORY

This week marks the fourth all-time preseason matchup between the Titans and Seahawks. The Seahawks built a 3-0 advantage on the three prior occasions, most recently a 27-17 decision at Seattle on Aug. 11, 2012.

The two organizations have met 19 times during the regular season and postseason. The Seahawks lead the series 11-8, although the Titans have won the lone playoff game between the clubs. Seattle took five consecutive meetings from 1994 to 2005. Since then, the Titans won three of the last five. Each of the past 10 meetings have been decided by seven points or less.

The last Titans-Seahawks clash took place at Nissan Stadium on Christmas Eve 2023. The Titans took a 17-13 lead inside the final four minutes of the fourth quarter. However, with 57 seconds remaining, Geno Smith completed a five-yard touchdown pass to tight end Colby Parkinson to give the Seahawks a 20-17 win.

The last time the Titans and Seahawks met at Lumen Field was Sept. 19, 2021. The Titans scored the final 17 points of the game to stun the Seahawks 33-30 in overtime. Titans running back Derrick Henry rushed for 182 yards and scored three second-half touchdowns, and Ryan Tannehill passed for 347 yards. Randy Bullock's 36-yard field goal in overtime provided the winning margin.

In a memorable 2009 season finale at Lumen Field (Jan. 3, 2010), Titans running back Chris Johnson became the sixth player in NFL history to reach 2,000 rushing yards in a season, and he also set a new NFL record with 2,509 yards from scrimmage in a season. His final carry of the day resulted in a one-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter to give the Titans a 17-13 win.

The Seahawks began play as an expansion team in the NFC West in 1976. One season later, they were moved to the AFC West and played the then-Houston Oilers for the first time. The Oilers won the initial meeting (Nov. 20) by a 22-10 final score.

In a 1987 Wild Card Playoff game, the Oilers defeated the Seahawks at the Astrodome 23-20 in overtime. It was the Oilers' first playoff victory since the 1979 season.

The Seahawks migrated from the AFC West to the NFC West to begin the 2002 season, when the league was realigned to eight four-team divisions. The same year Lumen Field opened. Prior to that the Seahawks played their home games at the Kingdome.

TITANS-SEAHAWKS: THE LAST MEETING

Week 16: Titans 17, Seahawks 20
 Sunday, Dec. 24, 2023 • 12:00 p.m. CST • Nissan Stadium

In Week 16 of the 2023 season, the Titans hosted the Seattle Seahawks for a Christmas Eve matchup and lost by a score of 17-20.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Titans took the 7-0 lead early in the second quarter on a 12-yard touchdown pass from RB Derrick Henry to TE Chig Okonkwo. The score capped off a six-play, 57-yard drive that featured a 13-yard completion from QB Ryan Tannehill to WR DeAndre Hopkins to put the Titans at the Seattle 12-yard line.

The Seahawks cut the lead to 7-3 with a 28-yard field by K Jason Myers. The drive featured a 24-yard run by RB Kenneth Walker III and a 26-yard completion from QB Geno Smith to WR DK Metcalf.

The Titans answered on their next possession with a 33-yard field goal from K Nick Folk to finish off a 12-play, 60-yard drive that saw Tannehill scramble for a 23-yard gain on third-and-11. Neither team scored again before halftime and the Titans went into the break with a 10-3 lead.

The Seahawks opened the third quarter with a 10-play, 46-yard drive that culminated in a 27-yard field goal from Myers to make it 10-6 with 9:53 left in the quarter. Seattle drove down to the Tennessee nine-yard line but S Terrell Edmunds broke up a Smith pass intended for Metcalf on third down to force the field goal.

Seattle took its first lead of the day on an 11-yard touchdown pass from Smith to Metcalf to make it 13-10 with 12:10 left in the fourth quarter.

The Titans answered on the following possession with a Henry two-yard touchdown, which capped off a 15-play, 75-yard drive that took almost nine minutes off the clock.

But the Seahawks got the ball back and scored on a five-yard touchdown pass from Smith to TE Colby Parkinson to make it 20-17 with 57 seconds left in the game. The drive included a third-and-14 conversion when Smith found WR Jackson Smith-Njigba for 18 yards and a pass interference penalty on the Titans that put the Seahawks at the Titans five-yard line.

Tennessee was unable to answer as Tannehill was sacked twice on the final drive as the Titans fell to 5-10 on the season.

Mike Macdonald was named the ninth head coach in Seahawks history on Jan. 31, 2024. Macdonald joins Seattle after spending the previous two seasons as the defensive coordinator for the Ravens. He spent the 2021 season at the University of Michigan serving in the same role.

The 2023 Ravens defense was the first in NFL history to finish top-ranked in points allowed (16.5), sacks (60), and takeaways (31, tied). It also ranked No. 1 in the NFL in both point differential (+203) and turnover margin (+12, tied) and produced four AP All-Pros in safety Kyle Hamilton, defensive tackle Justin Madubuike and linebackers Patrick Queen and Roquan Smith.

In 2022, Macdonald led a defense that ranked in the top three in the league in scoring defense (third, 18.5 ppg), run defense (third, 92.1 ypg), and red zone defense (third, 46.4 percent). Prior to coming on as a defensive coordinator at Michigan in 2021, Macdonald got his professional coaching career started in Baltimore in 2014 as a defensive coaching intern. He spent the next six seasons serving as a defensive assistant (2015-16), defensive backs coach (2017), and linebackers coach (2018-20) before transitioning to Ann Arbor.

In his lone season at Michigan, the Wolverines had the nation's eighth-ranked scoring defense, holding opponents to 17.4 points per game. Defensive end Aidan Hutchinson earned first-team All-America honors, was a finalist for the Heisman Trophy and was eventually drafted with the second overall pick in the 2022 NFL Draft by the Detroit Lions.

Prior to joining Baltimore's staff in 2014, Macdonald spent four seasons (2010-14) at the University of Georgia, initially as a student assistant and then as a graduate assistant for the next three years. He began his coaching career in the prep ranks, working with the running backs and linebackers at Cedar Shoals High School in Athens, Ga.

Macdonald was a two-sport athlete growing up, playing basketball and football at Centennial High in Roswell, Ga. He then graduated from Georgia's Terry College of Business before earning his master's degree from Georgia while serving on the football staff.

LAST WEEK VS. THE 49ERS

Preseason Week 1: Titans 17, 49ers 13 Saturday, Aug. 10, 2024 • 6:00 p.m. CDT • Nissan Stadium

In Week 1 of the 2024 preseason, the Tennessee Titans hosted the San Francisco 49ers and won by a score of 17-13 in a contest that saw 74 different Titans players enter the game.

San Francisco won the toss and elected to receive, starting the game with an 11-play, 74-yard touchdown drive to take a 7-0 lead. The drive was highlighted by a 21-yard completion from QB Brandon Allen to TE Eric Saubert on third-and-nine to move the 49ers to the Titans 39-yard line. Allen then found WR Chris Conley for an 18-yard gain. RB Jordan Mason capped the drive with a four-yard touchdown run.

Tennessee immediately answered. WR Kearis Jackson took the kickoff 63 yards and a penalty for unsportsmanlike conduct on the 49ers gave the Titans offense the ball at the 49ers 15-yard line. Six plays later, QB Will Levis punched it in from the one-yard line to tie the game.

The Titans defense forced a punt on the next 49ers drive which WR Jha'Quan Jackson returned 26 yards to the Titans 36-yard line. Levis found WR Calvin Ridley three plays later for a 22-yard catch-and-run on third down. RB Tony Pollard then broke through for 24 yards to bring the Titans to the San Francisco 10-yard line. RB Tyjae Spears finished the drive with a four-yard touchdown run one play into the second quarter to go up 14-7.

After forcing another San Francisco punt, QB Mason Rudolph took over at the Tennessee 20-yard line. Tennessee marched down the field on a 16-play drive to San Francisco two-yard line. Facing fourth-and-one, RB Hassan Haskins was stuffed at the line of scrimmage for no gain and a turnover on downs.

Going into the half, K Nick Folk missed a 52-yard field goal as time expired to keep the score 14-7. At the end of the third quarter, the score remained the same after back-and-forth punts from both teams.

The Titans opened the fourth quarter with a 34-yard field goal from K Brayden Narveson after QB Malik Willis directed a seven-play, 49-yard drive that featured a 28-yard run by the signal caller as well as a 10-yard completion to WR Sam Schnee to take a 17-7 lead.

San Francisco answered with a six-yard touchdown run by QB Joshua Dobbs that capped off an eight-play, 70-yard drive in which he completed three passes for 48 yards to make it 17-13.

Later in the fourth quarter, facing fourth-and-five, DL Keondre Coburn and OLB Khalid Duke combined to sack Dobbs for a 15-yard loss and force a turnover on downs.

Titans punted on the next series giving the 49ers the ball at their own 20-yard line with 1:32 left in the game and a chance to win. Dobbs drove the 49ers to the Titans 31-yard line on five passes to three different receivers. But with 20 seconds left, the 49ers were called for a false start, which ran 10 seconds off the clock. An incomplete pass later, San Francisco faced fourth-and-six with one second left, Dobbs threw up a Hail Mary that was intercepted by LB Chance Campbell to seal the 17-13 Titans victory.

HEAD COACH BRIAN CALLAHAN

What's the cliff notes version of how it all happened in your mind?

I thought our ones went out and played pretty good offensively, scoring on two possessions, which was jumpstarted by our return game, which I think the two returns early in the game was really critical for us to get going. It's good to see that, both the kickoff return and the punt return, that flipped the field for us. Defensively, had a slow start on the first drive and then sort of bounced back and dug in a little bit after that. So that was good to see as well. I thought we got after the quarterback on their end, and I thought we protected the quarterback well on our end. We were pretty efficient. I thought we ran the ball well enough. I feel like there was 100 short yardages in that game. I don't know if you guys feel that way, but I think it was like 10 or something. Every time I looked up, we were in third-and-one or fourth-and-one. Just disappointed we didn't convert the two fourth-and-ones, that would have been great to see that, especially that 17-play drive where we're fourth-and-one in the low red zone and a chance to kind of break the game open and couldn't convert that. So, those were kind of the highlights. But I thought for the most part we played clean. I mean, we had zero penalties in the first half, which is good to see. And I thought we played an efficient brand of football, I think, offensively. So, that was a good start for us.

Just two series, but to come up with 14 points on 14 plays with your starters in there, how nice is that to set the tone that way?

Oh, it's good. Any time you can come out in the game and play efficient and put two scores on just to start out for our offense, being a new unit together with all the new faces, I think is really positive. It's just nice to be able to have some success. I think success is a good thing in preseason games when you have it, it doesn't really matter who you're playing against. It's just important to sustain some success and build some winning habits, I think, in the process. And so, I think that part was good to see.

The O-line was good in pass protection and also opened up some holes, especially the first group out there. How much of that was scheming? How much of it was just guys going and winning against their man?

Both. We did want to have at least some semblance of—I wouldn't say we game planned for the game, but you want to put guys in position to have success. We made sure we had the right type of runs versus the defense we were facing, and I thought we did a nice job of putting guys in position to have success and have a chance to go execute. So, that part was good. So, it's just a combination of guys just playing well and doing things right, and then have a little bit of scheme to go along with it. So, I thought it was a good day and on the ground for sure.

How beneficial was it to have the offense have a short yardage situation to go down and score and then also have to drive as well to score?

Yeah, it was good. We've talked about all camp on getting in football shape and being able to go, I think one of those (drives) was 17 plays. That's a lot. That's a long drive for guys to go out there and play. I think it was good for everybody to feel that, feel what that felt like and see where we are conditioning wise after 17 plays. If we feel—I thought we looked pretty good. I didn't think we look tired at any point. I thought our team looked fresh. And then they played really hard tonight, so that was good to see.

How do you feel about the timing of the passing game?

Yeah, I think timing wise has been good. Any time that you—I was intentional about trying to keep the quarterbacks out of harm's way to some degree. So, the ball was coming out pretty quick and some of those play-action passes were really efficient for us. They popped open. But I think our timing in the passing game is coming along really well. A couple more weeks of this and a couple more games, I think I'll feel really good about where we're at entering the regular season. But it was good to see tonight that we could be on time and play on time and operate together. It was good.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

Will Levis goes in there and gets some himself popped pretty good. Is that something that you have to have a conversation with him when he comes off, or do you feel like that's good for a guy, when he's been wearing the red 'Don't touch me jersey' all offseason?

I think there's something to that, a guy just taking a good shot early on and feeling like he's ready to play. All quarterbacks will tell you they like to get that first hit out of the way. So, we got it out of the way early. Hopefully we don't take many more of them. But it was good. I didn't mind what he did. It wasn't really an egregious put himself in real harm's way (type of hit). But, yeah, the less hits, the better obviously.

How good was it for you to see that connection with Will Levis and Calvin Ridley there on that run after catch?

It was great. We were trying to get the ball to Calvin (Ridley) two or three times there. We tried the fade in the red zone, and we tried one earlier that they kind of got their flat defender out underneath and Will (Levis) checked down to the back. But it was good to just get Calvin going and you see just how explosive he can be with the ball in his hand. So, anytime they get a chance to complete a ball together, then that's great. Just one more rep for us that we get to bank going into the regular season. Their connection is coming along really well, and I think Calvin is such a fantastic receiver. I told Will the other day that you haven't really thrown a guy like this before. He's a different style of receiver than he's probably ever played with. So, the work is coming and so far, so good.

Did you noticed Chance Campbell a lot and how was it to see him come down with that interception?

There's opportunity for those guys in the linebacker room, and I think he made the most of it. Generally speaking, in that situation, you'd like to knock the ball down as opposed to pick it off. But it was just good. He made plays kind of all night long, and I think he made a bunch of tackles. He made some hits on the quarterback. I think he sacked the quarterback once, if I'm not mistaken. But just to see him come alive a little bit was great because we're looking for guys to keep coming in that room for depth purposes. Obviously, we lost Garret Wallow. And so, there's opportunities there and he did a nice job taking advantage of it.

As you left the field tonight, it looked like you looked up at the crowd. Did you have a chance, at what point tonight did you really start to take it all in in this first game?

That's a good question. Probably not much. I was pretty focused. In the pregame, I kind of stood around and soaked it in for a second, which was cool. You know you only get your first time your first time. So this was the first time I got to actually coach the team and be out there as the head coach of the Titans for the first time, and it was pretty awesome. It's a responsibility I don't take lightly, and it was a cool moment just for a very short period of time to reflect on that. A lot of work to go still, but it was nice to have a moment to do that.

How do you like the way things went operationally? You being that guy regulating everything.

Yeah, I thought it was really good. Our communication, like amongst the staff, and the play calling process, and on defense was great. There's one or two things that—we got really close to it and we kicked that field goal with the play clock, it almost ran out. That was partly because I didn't communicate with Colt (Anderson) fast enough. So, there's some things we'll iron out. Just more so the special teams to me, that's a tricky process sometimes we're going for it or when we're not. But I would say operation, I thought it was really good. Got the play calls in on time, the quarterbacks didn't have any issues with the play clock, we didn't have any delay of games. Those are all things that, as simple as it sounds, you try to avoid and put them in a position to not have to deal with that. So, did my best to get them in quick. I think I might have run off—I ran off the play clock maybe one time before the button went out on me and Mason (Rudolph) just had to go call a play. But other than that, I felt pretty good about the operation and the communication in the game, and there'll be some things we debrief on and make sure we get better for the next time.

How happy were you with Will Levis' willingness to check down in this game?

Very happy. There's going to be plenty of times where he's going to take balls down the field, and we're going to take shots and then there's going to be a lot of times they don't give those to you and you get a chance to check the ball down. And again, I think that's the difference between, a 58 percent passer and a 68 percent passer is being smart and efficient with the ball. And when you get a chance to go let your arm live and be live down the field, then great. But there's plenty of opportunities where efficiency can take you a long ways. And so, I thought all three quarterbacks did a nice job of that tonight.

Despite it being the preseason, how good does it feel to get your first 'W'?

It all matters to me. I think that there's habits in winning. I think that winning does mean something. Even in a preseason game, the mood in the locker room is always different when you win versus when you lose. I know it doesn't count for anything in the long run, I'll probably forget about the score of the game and who did what in a year's time. But I do think in the moment, these things matter. I think you're trying to build a winning team and a winning culture. It validates your work you put in, and so that helps. So, anytime you get a chance to go out and compete, you want to win, and I think that that's the mindset our guys had tonight. The way that they played, the effort they played with was fantastic. And so, again, even though it doesn't count, I'm still happy that we won.

A lot of firsts for you, I noticed you walked out with your dad. Who cool was that? Do you think it will become a weekly tradition?

I don't know, we'll see. I think that sort of organically happened. I think we were just kind of standing around as we all just started walking out. It was cool to walk out with him, that was neat. I think what was more fun for me was just the communication in the game about calling the run game and getting his input and going back and forth on what we were going to call next. That was a really cool process for me to be a part of just father to son, you know what I mean? I've never been able to do that with him before. So, that was great. But yeah, I don't know, maybe, we will. Now that I'm aware of it, maybe I'll do it.

QUARTERBACK WILL LEVIS

How did it feel to get back in the swing of things?

It was fun. I think at the end of our camp just going against our guys and transitioning over to playing a different team, we felt the energy pick up and transition into the day. So it's good to see guys go out there and be on their stuff. A lot of guys played some really good ball. I'm excited to watch the tape.

Was it good to get the first hit? And a pretty big hit you got at the goal line. Did anyone say anything to you after that one?

Yeah. I got some people tell me, 'It's the preseason, get down'. I should have just either kept extending the play and throw it up. We had third down, I was trying to make something happen. But I think I can be smarter.

How much will throwing to Calvin Ridley help you do the things you have to do, especially on third down?

I think I just got to keep seeing things the way I see them, getting him the ball and letting him do his thing. I'm not really thinking about what he's going to do after the catch. That's his deal. So, that's great for a quarterback to have a receiver like that, to be able to turn the sevens into 20-pluses and hopefully we will have even more.

How did you feel about the offensive line for those two series?

It was great. I think coach said we only had one sack on the day. So, guys held up and were on their stuff. I felt comfortable and protected back there.

What do you think about the timing of the passing offense overall and where are you guys with that?

It was good. I think there's a couple of things, route-wise and progression-wise with us when we could have moved on faster or guys just making sure they understand the progression of the play and why they need to either get to a certain depth or make sure that they have that internal timing with their routes. So, that's something we're going to continue to work on. We got a few more weeks until we play for the real thing, and we know that we're just going to get better until then.

What was your feeling like after the first drive? And then to go out and get another score on the second drive.

Yeah, shoutout to our return team for putting us in great spots for both of those. It's pretty cool starting in plus on your first drive. It gave us some comfort and allowed us to go out there for another series too and score again. It was a lot of fun being able to get those red zone reps are critical. So, it was good for us.

Young players talk all the time about the game slowing down as they get more experience; did you feel that today? Are things slowing down for you?

Yeah, there's a couple of reads I had where I really just felt like, I was really in my timing, and I was able to move on confidently and quickly and, find the right answer. I think just with the reps I've gotten within the offense and other offenses with similar kind of progressions, I've been able to make those more second nature in that. So it's been a lot of fun.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

Brian Callahan talked about wanting the operation to be clean, no false starts, no delay of games, those sorts of things. Was that a point of emphasis for you going into this?

For sure, yeah. No penalties until the second half, so that was cool to see. There's a couple things we got to clean up but that was our number one goal. And, with our group out there, I thought we did a good job of everyone on their stuff. We just got to keep getting better at it, being able to use cadence in the ways that we want to.

Brian Callahan talked about how winning means something even in the preseason with winning habits and the culture. Can you speak about that from your perspective as a leader in this locker room, what even a preseason win can do for a team?

We got to get used to winning. Winning's fun. There's a certain responsibility that comes with it. So hopefully, we can do our best in all these games and get a feel for that winning atmosphere and just keep rolling. We're excited for next week to get Seattle here and to get a couple of joint practices with them. That's going to be great for us. And then to play them here. So, we got our eyes on them already, and we're excited to have them.

So how do you like how you guys did in the running game? And how good do you think that Tyjae Spears Tony Pollard combination can be for you?

They're both great at so many different things. We're going to be able to keep defenses guessing with the different schemes that we're throwing at them. I think we gave good variety tonight of different ways we were able to give them the ball. And they're going to be huge pieces of both the run game obviously, but also the passing game.

How much are you looking forward to upcoming week with two joint practices and then a game with Seattle next week?

I'm pumped. From my rookie season last year, I remember our joint practices out in Minnesota and just how intense and fun and competitive it was. I think our team came out of that trip a much better team, just with that experience. So, we're looking to get the same out of this trip, even though it's at home. So, it will be a little more comfortable for us for them to come to our spot. We know they're going to throw a bunch of different looks at us, kind of similar to what we've seen throughout camp so it's going to be a good rehearsal for us with our rules and what our guys know.

LINEBACKER CHANCE CAMPBELL

What do you feel is working well for you? Going out there, leading the team in tackles tonight? And the exclamation point at the end there?

Yeah, I don't know, it was just fun playing for Dennard's (Wilson) defense. For Frank (Bush) and the guys that we have in the room. So it was just like, cool to go out, and be part of a new group. So just kind of fed off that, I think.

How much were you able to kind of take what you guys were doing, meeting rooms, and practice field, and transmit it over to the game?

I think a good bit. I think, there's always stuff to clean up on your first game. I think there's a lot of stuff that we wish we would have brought along. But I think there's good pieces that we did do. So I think it's this case with any game, but especially for your first one.

The kind of downhill mentality they've been talking about with inside linebackers, was that sort of, how you play?

Yeah, I think it's fun. I think when you get cut loose and you can go run and hit, I think backers love that. Yeah, I enjoy it.

When was the last time you felt like you were in a rhythm like tonight, where you were just around the ball, and making plays seemingly down-in and down-out?

I don't know. I think, you try to take it one snap at a time, and clear it so you're ready and prepared for the next snap. Every play, every down, every game.

WIDE RECEIVER JHA'QUAN JACKSON

Is there any exchange between you and Tyjae (Spears), whether it was on your return or after his touchdown?

No. We barely talked during the game. I do my thing, and he did his thing, you know. But we all feed off each other. I fed off Kearis (Jackson), he had a 65-yard kick return and then I come back just have me juiced. I'm just fired to see one of the players on our team just have a big run.

You talked a lot about how this is a dream come true. Did that dream kind of become a reality tonight?

Oh, yeah, for sure. It's crazy because me and Tyjae (Spears) rode to the game (together). We never rode to a game together other than being in college. We always sit next to each other. And just today, I didn't think we were going to ride together. He was like 'ride with me bro.' It was amazing. But just being here with this coaching staff and having an organization with Miss Amy (Adams-Strunk), Ran (Carthon), and Chad (Brinker), and coach Callahan, and the coaches and the players, it's a blessing. The culture is different around here. Everybody is excited, just loving to come and practice each and every day. But it was a blessing just to play against a defense we haven't played against all training camp. We've been going against our defense. So, it was just a new look to see what we really are, what the 2024 Titans are.

In terms of the return though, that's something you do really well in your game. Was that just great individual play? Was it the scheme? What was it that helped you break that play?

It was everybody. It wasn't just me. It was the punt return team, it was the coaches, Coach (Anthony) Levine and Coach (Colt) Anderson just scheming it up for this week and telling us what we should do, go out there, play loose and have fun out there. When you get the ball, everybody hold your blocks up, and then we just hit it up the field. But it's a game of football, you can't just go out there and think about the soldiers making the play because without Tyjae's touchdown, without Kearis' (Jackson) big run, other guys blocking, it wouldn't be possible. If they didn't have them guys blocking for them, he wouldn't have got 65 yards, Tyjae would've never got a touchdown. So, we got to look back at that and look at the man to the left and the right of you and just thank them, because that's your brother. We're a team. You can't win without a team.

DEFENSIVE LINEMAN SEBASTIAN JOSEPH-DAY

What were just your initial takeaways? You know, getting some game reps with this group?

Initial takeaway is that we're a connected team. Obviously, we had that first drive probably didn't go the way we wanted it on defense. And then, we pulled it together, stayed connected, made the adjustments, and finished strong.

What gives you optimism about some of the pieces you have on that front line?

Just the way they work, you know. The way everybody comes to work each and every day. I felt like a lot of guys on the front played really well today. Obviously, some things I could fix myself. I could've done a lot better, but I felt like overall, the front, all of the guys played really well today.

OFFENSIVE LINEMAN JC LATHAM

Was there something you felt like you learned that maybe you can only grasp in a game atmosphere in the NFL, that doesn't quite translate during camp?

Honestly, just the intensity of the game. I know it's a preseason game, but it's still a game at the end of the day and a lot of guys are out there competing and really trying to earn a spot and prove your worth to your team. So, it means a lot to everybody. Practice matters. But this is a live rep, especially as a lineman, if you get beat that's a sack. In practice you can kind of gauge "Would he really get a sack in a game?" but in a game that's a sack. So yeah, it's pretty big deal to me.

Of course, we see you working with the ones in camp as well. As for this game, you mentioned earning your spot. What was your mindset on that at this point?

Everywhere I've been, you just want to prove your worth to your team so you can gain the trust of your teammates and really show them what you're capable of. I know the potential of what type of caliber player I can be. But it is potentially dangerous word, you really haven't done anything yet. Like I said, every single play just go out there and prove my worth to my team and the organization and why I was deserving of what I was.

What was the most fun part for you out there?

Scoring the first touchdown, that was awesome. I mean, I think it was a sneak to get it in. Yeah, it kind of felt like the Eagles back a couple years ago with that. But yeah that was amazing.

SEASON NOTES

- PLAYOFF OPPONENTS: The Titans have six total games against five playoff teams from last season. They have home games against Green Bay and Houston and road contests at Miami, Buffalo, Detroit and Houston. Four of those six games are against 2023 division winners: Houston twice (AFC South), Buffalo (AFC East) and Detroit (NFC North). The six games against reigning playoff clubs are the fewest for the Titans since they had five such games entering the 2020 campaign.
- TV BREAKDOWN: Excluding their Week 18 matchup with the Texans, which has yet to be assigned a broadcasting network, the Titans are currently scheduled for nine contests on CBS, six games on FOX, and one game on ESPN. Due to the NFL's flex scheduling, some contests could be moved to a different network from the one appearing on the initial schedule.
- TIME (ZONE) TRAVEL: Besides a trip to Los Angeles to face the Chargers in Week 10, the Titans stay in either the central time zone (10 games) or eastern time zone (six) for the duration of 2024, including the preseason. Other than Los Angeles, the farthest west they travel is Houston.
- HIGH NOON: During the regular season, 14 of the Titans' 16 games prior to Week 18 are scheduled for Sundays at noon CT.
- FIRST-YEAR COACHES: Brian Callahan is one of eight NFL head coaches in their first season with their current team. He and the Titans face three of the others, all within a five-week span: Jerod Mayo's New England Patriots, Jim Harbaugh's Los Angeles Chargers, and Dan Quinn's Washington Commanders. Additionally, the Titans go against the Seattle Seahawks and new head coach Mike Macdonald in the second week of the preseason.
- QUARTERBACKS 1-2-3: The 2024 NFL Draft featured quarterbacks in the top three selections, beginning with Caleb Williams going first to Chicago, followed by Jayden Daniels to Washington and Drake Maye to New England. The Titans face each of those teams this season, in addition to the Minnesota Vikings, who drafted J.J. McCarthy with the 11th overall selection.
- DIVISIONAL WAITING GAMES: The Titans must wait until Week 6 against Indianapolis to play their first AFC South matchup of 2024. It is their longest wait for a divisional game since 2010 (Week 6 at Jacksonville). However, the Titans conclude 2024 with divisional games in five of the final seven weeks, including three consecutive division battles to conclude the schedule.
- THREE GAMES BASED UPON 2023 FINISH: Every NFL team has two intraconference games and one interconference matchup based on the previous year's standings. As a result of the Titans' fourth-place finish in 2023, they host the AFC North's fourth-place Bengals, and they visit the fourth-place Chargers from the AFC West and the Washington Commanders from the NFC East. Overall, the Titans' strength of schedule is .491 (142-147) based upon their opponents' combined 2023 record, which is tied for the 21st most difficult schedule out of 32 NFL teams.
- FACING TOP OFFENSES AND DEFENSES: The Titans face four of the NFL's top 10 offenses from last season: Miami (No. 1 overall offense), Buffalo (No. 4), Detroit (No. 3) and Minnesota (No. 10). They also contend with four of the top 10 defenses from 2023: the New York Jets (No. 3 overall defense), Miami (No. 10), Buffalo (No. 9) and New England (No. 7).

WEEK-BY-WEEK NOTES

a final score of 16-15. The Caesars Superdome in New Orleans is the future site of Super Bowl LIX.

It is the first time the Titans and Bears franchises will play on Kickoff Weekend ... The Titans enter 2024 with an all-time record of 32-32 in season openers ... Although the Titans and Bears have clashed in the preseason four times in a seven-year span (2017, 2019, 2021 and 2023), this is the Titans' first appearance at Soldier Field during the regular season since a 27-21 victory on Nov. 27, 2016. Richardson's rookie season came to a premature end in a game against the Titans (Oct. 8, 2023), three weeks before Levis made his NFL debut ... Colts second-year head coach Shane Steichen served as the offensive coordinator of the Philadelphia Eagles at the same time that new Titans defensive coordinator Dennard Wilson was on the Eagles staff as defensive backs coach (2021) and defensive backs coach/defensive passing game coordinator (2022), culminating with Philadelphia's appearance in Super Bowl LVII ... Ran Carthon was named the 14th general manager in franchise history on Jan. 18, 2023. He joined the Titans after spending six seasons with the San Francisco 49ers, including the last two as the team's director of player personnel.

A year after initially joining the franchise, Carthon was promoted to executive vice president/general manager. His duties expanded to include all areas that impact the football team: roster control, team activities and personnel decisions including draft and free agency acquisitions, oversight of head coach Brian Callahan and his coaching staff, scouting, sports medicine, and player engagement.

"Over the past year, Ran has impressed me and our staff with his innovative approach to roster building," said Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk upon Carthon's promotion in 2024. "Ran's exceptional reputation around the league as a talent evaluator and culture builder was a clear competitive advantage during last year's free agency and draft process, as well as our recent search for a head coach. Simply put, Ran Carthon makes the Tennessee Titans a destination for the league's top talent. By expanding his role to include full roster control and oversight of the coaching staff, our organization will now benefit more completely from Ran's unique ability to build and lead a championship-caliber football team."

Shortly after receiving his promotion, Carthon and his staff embarked upon the 2024 offseason. Their efforts resulted in several notable signings in free agency: cornerback Chidobe Awuzie, linebacker Kenneth Murray Jr., defensive lineman Sebastian Joseph-Day, center Lloyd Cushenberry III, running back Tony Pollard, quarterback Mason Rudolph and wide receiver Calvin Ridley. The Titans then used a trade to acquire former Kansas City Chiefs cornerback L'Jarvis Sneed before circling back in free agency to add wide receiver Tyler Boyd and safety Jamal Adams.

During the 2024 NFL Draft, Carthon orchestrated the selection of seven total players. With the seventh overall pick in the first round, the Titans chose Alabama tackle JC Latham, and at No. 38 in the second round, they took Texas nose tackle T'Vondre Sweat.

In his first year with the Titans, Carthon re-worked the roster with several veteran additions who would become key starters for the team in 2023, including wide receiver DeAndre Hopkins, outside linebacker Arden Key, linebacker Azeez Al-Shaair, cornerback Sean Murphy-Bunting and offensive lineman Daniel Brunskill in free agency. In his first draft, offensive lineman Peter Skoronski, quarterback Will Levis and running back Tyjae Spears were selected in the first three rounds, respectively. Carthon also used a trade to acquire kicker Nick Folk.

Carthon arrived in Tennessee with a range of experience from multiple teams. In San Francisco, he was the 49ers director of pro personnel for four seasons (2017-20) and then promoted to director of player personnel in 2021, serving in that capacity until joining the Titans. In his role as director of player personnel, Carthon was responsible for evaluating the top college prospects and assisting in the construction of the pro free agent board and evaluations. He joined the 49ers when head coach Kyle Shanahan and general manager John Lynch took over in 2017 and played a part in the team's three playoff appearances, two division titles and an NFC championship in 2019. Additionally, the 49ers had nine players account for 13 total Pro Bowl selections from 2021 (seven selections) to 2022 (six selections)—evidence of the talented roster the personnel staff amassed.

Before joining San Francisco, Carthon spent five seasons (2012-16) with the St. Louis/Los Angeles Rams as their director of pro personnel. He entered the NFL scouting world as a pro scout with the Atlanta Falcons for four years (2008-11).

As a player, Carthon spent three seasons in the NFL (2004-06) primarily with the Indianapolis Colts, after entering the league as an undrafted college free agent. At the University of Florida, he tallied 1,353 career rushing yards over four seasons and was part of the Gators' 2000

SEC Championship team.

Carthon was raised in an NFL family with his father, Maurice Carthon, having a distinguished playing and coaching career. Maurice Carthon played for the Colts and New York Giants, and he coached for New England, the New York Jets, Detroit, Dallas, Cleveland, Arizona and Kansas City.

Following his playing career, Ran Carthon received his bachelor's degree in sociology from the University of Florida in 2008. As a member of the Rams (2013) and 49ers (2018) he was selected to participate in the NFL Career Development Symposium at the Wharton School of Business, and in 2022, he took part in the inaugural NFL coach and front office accelerator program.

Born Arandic Kornell Carthon in February of 1981, in Osceola, Ark., he attended Key West High School in Key West, Fla.

Brian Callahan was named head coach of the Titans on Jan. 24, 2024, becoming the 20th head coach in franchise history.

"This is an exciting time for our franchise, and we're thrilled to have Brian as our head coach," said Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk. "We went through a thorough candidate search and Brian stood out as the best person to lead our football team. I want to thank the other candidates who were part of this process and wish them well moving forward.

"Brian has a track record of success and a range of experience that has prepared him for this opportunity. His football knowledge and his enthusiasm for the game really stand out, and beyond that, we think his ability to lead will make him the ideal fit for our franchise.

"If you look at his history, Brian has been a part of a Super Bowl winning team (Denver, 2015) and another team that advanced to the Super Bowl (Cincinnati, 2021). He's worked in a variety of dynamic offenses with top-flight quarterbacks. At each step of his career, he's shown the flexibility and intelligence to make an impact.

"During his time with the Bengals, he was trusted with a number of responsibilities—offensive design, quarterback development, a contributor to the free agency and draft processes—and showed the ability to be a resource in all of those areas. As we seek sustained success and pursue a championship, Brian has seen firsthand what that looks like, and he is the right person to lead us there.

"To our fans, thank you for your support and for sticking with us. You deserve a championship team, and we're going to get there. I can't wait for you to get to know Brian and his family."

Callahan arrived in Tennessee with 18 years of coaching experience and 14 years of NFL coaching experience, including the previous five seasons as the offensive coordinator for the Cincinnati Bengals.

During his time in Cincinnati, Callahan served under head coach Zac Taylor and was part of two AFC North titles, two AFC Championship appearances and a Super Bowl berth. He also helped guide quarterback Joe Burrow from the No. 1 overall draft pick in 2020 to multiple single-season franchise records by his second year and Pro Bowl honors within three years.

Over Callahan's final three seasons in Cincinnati (2021-23), the Bengals offense ranked in the NFL's top 10 in several categories: sixth in scoring (24.9), seventh in passing (250.8 yards per game), seventh in red-zone efficiency (61.5 percent), 10th in third-down percentage (41.0) and sixth in time of possession (31:00).

From the time Burrow entered the NFL in 2020 through the 2023 campaign, he recorded the league's seventh-best passer rating (98.6) and tied for the third-best completion percentage (68.0). His 270.8 passing yards per game in that period ranked fifth.

Additionally, Cincinnati's offense under Callahan featured a trio of 1,000-yard wide receivers in Ja'Marr Chase (2021-23), Tee Higgins (2021-22) and Tyler Boyd (2019). Chase quickly emerged as one of the NFL's top wide receivers after being drafted in the first round in 2021. He earned three consecutive Pro Bowl nods and became the eighth player in NFL history to reach 1,000 receiving yards in each of his first three career seasons, including 1,216 yards on a career-high 100 receptions in 2023. Boyd's statistical highlights included 1,046 receiving yards in 2019, while Higgins contributed 1,091 yards in 2021 and 1,029 yards in 2022.

Bengals running back Joe Mixon exceeded 1,000 scrimmage yards four times in five seasons with Callahan as his offensive coordinator. From 2019 through 2023, he joined Christian McCaffrey and Aaron Jones as the NFL's only players with at least 4,500 rushing yards (4,618) and 1,500 receiving yards (1,556). Mixon was named to the Pro Bowl in 2021.

In 2023, Burrow was limited to 10 total games due to multiple injuries. Backup Jake Browning stepped into the lineup, and in the first action of his career, he registered a season passer rating of 98.4—qualifying as the seventh-best number in the NFL.

In 2022, the Bengals ranked seventh in the NFL in points per game (26.1), eighth in total offense (360.5 yards per game) and fifth in passing offense (265.0). Burrow earned his first career Pro Bowl selection while setting single-season franchise records for completions (414) and touchdown passes (35). The third-year signal caller also placed fifth in the NFL with 4,475 passing yards. The team's new-look offensive line came together during the season and did not allow more than two sacks in any of the final eight games of the regular season.

En route to an appearance in Super Bowl LVI, the 2021 Bengals ranked seventh in passing offense (259.0 yards per game) and tied for seventh in points per game (27.1). Burrow, after returning from a knee injury suffered in 2020, led the NFL in completion percentage (70.4) and established single-season Bengals records for passing yards (4,611) and passer rating (108.3). Chase was named the AP Offensive Rookie of the Year after posting a team-record 1,455 receiving yards, while Mixon placed third in the NFL in rushing yards (1,205).

In 2020, Callahan helped develop Burrow as a rookie despite facing the challenges associated with the COVID-19 pandemic, including the cancellation of all in-person NFL offseason programs. Before a knee injury ended his rookie campaign in Week 11, Burrow's 264 completions were the most ever by an NFL quarterback through his first 10 career games, while his 2,688 passing yards were fifth.

Callahan joined the Bengals after spending 2018 as the quarterbacks coach for the Oakland Raiders. Under his tutelage, Raiders quarterback Derek Carr passed for a then-career-high 4,049 yards and led the AFC with a 68.9 completion percentage.

From 2016 to 2017, Callahan was the quarterbacks coach for the Detroit Lions. Working with Matthew Stafford, he helped the veteran finish third in passing yards (4,446) and fourth in passing touchdowns (29) in 2017, while posting a then-career-best 99.3 passer rating. In 2016, Stafford's eight game-winning drives were the most by a quarterback in a season since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger.

Callahan broke into the NFL with the Denver Broncos in 2010 and served in multiple roles for the franchise through 2015. He began as a coaching assistant (2010) before transitioning to offensive quality control coach (2011-12), offensive assistant coach (2013-14) and finally offensive assistant/quarterbacks coach (2015). In 2013, Broncos quarterback Peyton Manning won the Associated Press NFL MVP award after completing a league-record 55 touchdown passes. Callahan's tenure in Denver was capped by the team's victory in Super Bowl 50 following the 2015 campaign. Before reaching the NFL, Callahan spent time at his alma mater, UCLA, as a graduate assistant in 2006 and 2007. He then spent two years (2008-09) as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for Junipero Serra High School in San Mateo, Calif.

As a former walk-on quarterback at UCLA, he appeared in 13 games as a holder on PATs. He earned a bachelor's degree in sociology in 2006 and added a master's in education in 2008.

Born in Champaign, Ill., Callahan attended De La Salle High School in Concord, Calif., where he was a part of the school's national-record 151-game winning streak and a No. 1 national ranking.

He and his wife, Allyson, have a son, Ronan, and a daughter, Norah. He is the son of longtime NFL coach Bill Callahan, the current Titans offensive line coach.

NISSAN STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of an exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

NISSAN STADIUM

Eight years later, on Nov. 17, 2023, the Titans and Nissan North America announced a new agreement: a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that brands the new Titans home venue as 'Nissan Stadium.'

Slated for completion in 2027, the new Nissan Stadium will host Titans home games, Tennessee State University football games, concerts, large-scale events and other community events.

"This partnership is a natural extension of our already longstanding friendship with Nissan," said Burke Nihill, Titans President and CEO. "Our mission at the Titans is to Win, Serve, and Entertain. We pride ourselves on collaborating with organizations who love this city and state as much as we do, and for the past 40 years, Nissan has invested more than $10.5 billion statewide, serving as a great example of an outstanding corporate steward and community advocate. We look forward to the continued positive impact of this relationship for the Titans organization and the City of Nashville."

"Since 2015 our fans and organization have called our home 'Nissan Stadium,' and we are proud to continue that tradition in the new stadium as we deepen and expand our relationship with them," said Titans Chief Revenue Officer Adam Nuse. "The new stadium will host the world's largest events, as well as serve as a community hub for our local neighbors. We're excited to have a partner like Nissan embark on this journey with us as we look towards the future."

The partnership will feature dedicated areas in the new stadium for brand experiences and displays, innovative technology integration, and involvement in Titans broadcast platforms. Nissan also will support a to-be-determined program in the Titans' ONE Community philanthropic platform, which reaches Nashville's most underrepresented and marginalized communities with a focus on three areas – Opportunity, Neighborhoods and Education.

"Nissan Stadium is a centerpiece of the Nashville skyline and has become a household name in Middle Tennessee. It is important for Nissan to keep our name on the new stadium," said Jérémie Papin, chairperson, Nissan Americas. "As more people come to Nashville both to visit and to live in this wonderful city, Nissan Stadium is true showcase for our brand and for the career opportunities we've offered here for more than four decades. This partnership sends a strong message about the bright future for Nissan, the Titans, Nashville and the State of Tennessee."

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin. Nissan is home to more than 11,000 employees across all three locations.

"Nissan has been a strong partner to middle Tennessee for four decades, and I'm thrilled that the Titans have united with a partner that invests in our community and its people," said Nashville Mayor Freddie O'Connell. "The familiarity and trust they've established with the Titans in the last eight years will undoubtedly be a great asset as we plan for the stadium's opening in 2027."

The new Nissan stadium will be built on the east side of the current stadium campus, along Nashville's East Bank. Features of the building include: a circular translucent roof; exterior porches with panoramic views of Nashville; improved sightlines for all spectators through a range of diverse seating experiences; and a 12,000 square foot community space available for use year-round. A waitlist for those interested in purchasing PSLs or suites is now open at NewNissanStadium.com.

#10 • WR DeANDRE HOPKINS

6-1, 212, 12th Year/2nd with Titans, Clemson

Click for complete bio

Wide receiver DeAndre Hopkins is in his 12th NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2024. He was signed by the team prior to training camp in 2023.

Hopkins entered the league as the 27th overall pick in the 2013 NFL Draft out of Clemson and spent his first seven seasons with the Houston Texans before being traded to the Arizona Cardinals in 2020.

Over NFL 11 seasons, Hopkins established himself as one of the premier receivers in NFL history. Among all players during that 11-year period, he ranked first in receptions (928), first in first-down receptions (642), first in receiving yards (12,355), third in receiving touchdowns (78), and first in receptions of 25-plus yards (113). He has been named to five Pro Bowls (2015, 2017-20) and received AP All-Pro honors four times—first-team All-Pro from 2017 to 2019 and second-team All-Pro in 2020.

From 2013 through 2023, Hopkins surpassed 100 receptions four times, had seven seasons reaching 1,000 receiving yards, recorded three seasons with at least 10 touchdowns, and posted 100 or more receiving yards in a game 42 times. Hopkins was the only NFL player to have 100-plus receptions every season between from 2018 to 2020.

Hopkins became one of 17 players in NFL history to reach 900 receptions, 12,000 receiving yards and 75 touchdown catches during a career. Only five players—Hopkins, Marvin Harrison, Jerry Rice, Brandon Marshall and Larry Fitzgerald—reached all three milestones within their first 11 NFL seasons.

He concluded the 2023 season tied with Antonio Brown for 21st place in NFL history with 928 career receptions. His 12,355 career receiving yards ranked 23rd all-time, and his 78 touchdown receptions were 35th in history.

Through 2023, he had at least one reception in all 162 career games he played during the regular season. That represents the longest active streak in the NFL at the conclusion of 2023 and the third-longest streak in NFL history to begin a career behind only Marvin Harrison (190 consecutive games) and Keyshawn Johnson (167).

During the 2022 campaign with the Cardinals, Hopkins finished with a team-high 64 receptions for 717 yards (second on the team) and three touchdowns despite being limited to nine contests. His average of 7.1 receptions per game ranked fourth in the NFL among all players. His three games with 10-plus receptions matched the second most in franchise annals behind Larry Fitzgerald's four such performances in 2017.

At the conclusion of his tenure with the Texans (2013-19), Hopkins owned several franchise records, including franchise marks for career receiving average (13.6), receptions in a season (115 in 2018; tied Andre Johnson, 2008), receiving touchdowns in a season (13 in 2017) and receiving first downs in a season (83 in 2015). When he left Houston, he ranked second on the franchise's all-time career charts in receptions (632), receiving yards (8,602) and touchdown catches (54), trailing only Andre Johnson in each category.

The Central, S.C., native appeared in 39 games with 32 starts over three seasons (2010-12) at Clemson and totaled 206 receptions for 3,020 yards and 27 touchdowns. He left Clemson ranked first in school history in receiving yards, first in receiving touchdowns, first in 100-yard receiving games (12) and second in receptions. As a junior (2012), he led the team with 82 receptions for 1,405 yards and 18 touchdowns.

#98 • DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

6-4, 305, 6th Year/6th with Titans, Mississippi State
Click for complete bio

Defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons is in his sixth NFL season in 2024. He was selected by the Titans in the first round (19th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft.

During his first five seasons, Simmons appeared in 68 games with 66 starts and earned two Pro Bowl berths. The three-time team captain (2021-23) accumulated 240 tackles, 26.5 sacks, 20 passes defensed, three forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries. He was third on the defense in sacks during that span behind only Harold Landry III (37) and Denico Autry (28.5).

In 2023, although he was limited to 12 games and finished the season on injured reserve, he managed to register 5.5 sacks, marking his third consecutive season to reach that number or higher. He added 44 tackles, 38 quarterback pressures, 11 tackles for loss, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and one pass defensed. For the first time in his career, he received the honor of the team's nomination for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year award.

In 2022, Simmons appeared in 15 games and anchored a unit that ranked first in the NFL in rushing defense (76.9 opponent rushing yards per game). En route to his second consecutive Pro Bowl appearance, he totaled 53 tackles, 7.5 sacks, 43 quarterback pressures, nine tackles for loss, one forced fumble and a career-high seven passes defensed, which tied for the fourth-best mark among all NFL defensive linemen. Simmons and Arizona's J.J. Watt were the NFL's only players in 2022 with at least seven sacks and seven passes defensed.

Before the start of the 2021 season, Simmons was named a team captain for the first time in his career, and he went on to become one of six players on the roster to start all 17 games. He was named to his first career Pro Bowl and added Associated Press second-team All-Pro honors after setting career highs in several categories, including sacks (8.5), tackles (54), quarterback pressures (58), tackles for loss (12) and passes defensed (six). He led the squad in pressures and placed third in sacks. Among all defensive tackles in the NFL, his 8.5 sacks ranked sixth. In the divisional playoffs, he set a franchise postseason record with three sacks.

In 2020, Simmons appeared and started in 15 games. With three defensive fumble recoveries, he tied Chase Young for the most in the NFL in 2020 and was the first Titans defender with three fumble recoveries in a season since 2005, when linebacker Brad Kassell accomplished the feat. Simmons ranked second on the team with 19 quarterback pressures and added 49 tackles, three sacks, three tackles for loss, five passes defensed and one forced fumble. In the franchise's "Titans era" (since 1999), he became the first player to post at least three fumble recoveries, three sacks and five passes defensed in the same season. He also had three tackles and a tackle for loss in one playoff contest.

Simmons began his rookie season on the non-football injury list due to a knee injury he suffered during training in February 2019. He missed the first six games of the season before joining the 53-man roster in Week 7.

His rookie totals included 40 tackles, two sacks, two tackles for loss, 14 quarterback pressures and one pass defensed in nine games (seven starts). He added four tackles, three quarterback pressures and a fumble recovery in three playoff contests.

During a three-year career as a defensive tackle at Mississippi State, Simmons appeared in 38 contests with 28 starts. He finished his career ranked sixth in school history with 32.5 tackles for loss. He also tied for sixth in MSU annals with five forced fumbles and tied for fourth with three blocked kicks. His totals also included 163 tackles, seven sacks, seven passes defensed and two defensive touchdowns.

He was a first-team All-SEC selection as a sophomore and junior and was one of two players in the nation to be named a Bednarik Award Semifinalist in both 2017 and 2018.

As a junior in 2018, Simmons was named second-team All-American after totaling 63 tackles, 17 tackles for loss and two sacks. His 17 tackles for loss led the team, ranked fourth in the SEC and were the third-most in single-season school history.

During his sophomore season (2017), he set a career high with five sacks and added 12 tackles for loss. With three total blocked kicks and punts, he became the first SEC player since 2004 to lead the nation in the category.

Simmons is a native of Macon, Miss.

Outside linebacker Harold Landry III is in his seventh NFL season in 2024. He was selected by the Titans in the second round (41st overall) of the 2018 NFL Draft after the Titans traded up 16 spots in the second round (57 to 41) in order to take the former Boston College standout.

During his first six NFL seasons, Landry totaled a team-leading 41.5 sacks. He finished the 2023 season ranked 11th for the franchise in career sacks, and in the organization's "Titans era" (1999–present), his total trailed only Jevon Kearse (52), Jurrell Casey (51) and Derrick Morgan (44.5).

In 2023, Landry played in all 17 games (10 starts) after missing the entire 2022 campaign due to injury. He ranked second on the team with 10.5 sacks, producing his second-best career total (12 sacks in 2021). In doing so, he became the NFL's third veteran player since 1982 to miss an entire NFL season and come back the next year to record at least 10 sacks. The only previous players to do so were a pair of New Orleans Saints: Joe Johnson in 2000 (12 sacks) and Charlie Clemons in 2001 (13.5 sacks). Landry's 14 tackles for loss led the defense and matched his career high, and his 48 quarterback pressures were third on the squad and were one off his career high in 2021 (49). His statistics also included 70 tackles.

Landry was placed on injured reserve on Sept. 2, 2022, ending his fifth NFL season before Week 1. Prior to the injury, he recorded 64 consecutive games played and 52 consecutive starts.

From the start of his rookie campaign through 2021, Landry's 31 total sacks led the Titans. Other than Jevon Kearse (37), Landry produced the highest sack total by a Titans/Oilers player in his first four NFL seasons since individual sacks became an official NFL statistic in 1982.

From 2018 to 2021, Landry joined Pittsburgh's Cameron Heyward as the NFL's only players to be credited with at least 250 tackles (press box statistics), 30 sacks and two interceptions.

In 2021, Landry was named to his first Pro Bowl after starting all 17 games. He registered his third consecutive season to start every contest, extending his streaks to 64 consecutive games played and 52 consecutive starts. At the conclusion of 2021, his starting streak was the sixth-longest active streak in the NFL among all defensive players.

Landry's 12 sacks in 2021 led the Titans, ranked 10th in the NFL and established a career high. He became the first Titans player to record double-digit sacks in a season since Brian Orakpo (10.5) in 2016 and the first Titans player with 12 sacks in a season since Jason Babin (12.5) in 2010. Landry tied for second on the squad with 75 tackles, ranked second with a career-high 49 quarterback pressures, led the team with 14 tackles for loss, and added a forced fumble. He joined Micah Parsons, Aaron Donald and Heyward as the only NFL players in 2021 to post at least 75 tackles and 10 sacks.

Then, in the team's 2021 divisional playoff contest, he recorded 1.5 sacks. He improved his postseason career total to 4.5 sacks, becoming the organization's first player with at least four career postseason sacks since individual sacks became an official statistic in 1982.

In 2020, Landry recorded 16 starts for the second consecutive season. He led the team with 5.5 sacks, a then-career-high 32 quarterback pressures and a then-career-high 10 tackles for loss. He totaled 69 tackles and added one interception and a career-high five passes defended. In one playoff contest, he led the team with 10 tackles and two sacks.

Landry started all 16 games in 2019 and led the Titans with nine sacks. His 28 quarterback pressures ranked second, and he added 81 tackles, four tackles for loss, one pass defended, one forced fumble and two fumble recoveries. He also started all three postseason games and registered a sack and a team-high eight quarterback pressures.

As a rookie in 2018, he played in 15 games with three starts. His 4.5 sacks tied for third place on the team, and he also tied for second on the defense with 18 quarterback pressures.

In 46 career games playing defensive end for Boston College, Landry totaled 160 tackles, 26 sacks, 47.5 tackles for loss, seven passes defended, 10 forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and one interception. His 26 career sacks were exceeded in school history by only Mathias Kiwanuka (37.5 from 2002-05).

As a senior in 2017, Landry played and started eight games before a season-ending ankle injury ended his year. He finished second on the team with five sacks and totaled 38 tackles, 8.5 tackles for loss and two passes defended.

In 2016, Landry set the school's single-season record with 16.5 sacks, which led the nation. He added seven forced fumbles, which also led the country, while his 22 tackles for loss ranked fifth nationally and ranked second all-time for the Eagles. His numerous honors included Walter Camp second-team All-America, AP second-team All-America and second-team All-ACC by the Atlantic Coast Sports Media Association and the league's head coaches.

#46 • LS MORGAN COX

6-4, 233, 15th Year/4th with Titans, Tennessee

Click for complete bio

Long snapper Morgan Cox is in his 15th NFL season and his fourth campaign with the Titans in 2024. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 19, 2021.

In 2023, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties for the third consecutive season. With 51 consecutive games played in his first three seasons with the Titans, he finished the 2023 campaign with the longest active streak of games played for the team. His efforts helped kicker Nick Folk lead the NFL in field goal accuracy (96.7 percent) and helped punter Ryan Stonehouse lead the NFL for a second consecutive season in gross punting average (53.1). He was also a finalist in 2023 for the NFL's Bart Starr Award.

In 2022, Cox was named to his fifth career Pro Bowl. He has more Pro Bowl appearances than any other player at his position since the league began naming long snappers to the Pro Bowl in 2004.

His steady play in 2022 helped Stonehouse, a rookie, lead the league and set a new NFL record with a 53.1-yard gross punting average. Stonehouse also finished fourth in the NFL and set a rookie record with a 44.0-yard net average. Meanwhile, kicker Randy Bullock made 17 of 20 field goals (85.0 percent) and made all 28 extra point attempts.

In 2021, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties in 17 regular season games and one postseason game. He helped Bullock finish ninth in franchise history with 120 points in a single season, including three game-winning field goals (Sept. 19 at Seattle, Oct. 31 at Indianapolis and Dec. 23 against San Francisco). He also snapped for punter Brett Kern, who had the league's third-best ratio of punts inside the 20 to touchbacks (18:1).

In his first 11 seasons, Cox appeared in 165 regular season games for the Baltimore Ravens, serving as the team's primary long snapper after entering the NFL as an undrafted free agent in 2010. He was selected to four Pro Bowls and was a part of five playoff teams in Baltimore, totaling 10 postseason games played.

In 2020, he earned his fourth career Pro Bowl selection. He helped kicker Justin Tucker record his fifth consecutive season with at least 130 points, tying the NFL record of consecutive seasons with 130-plus points. Tucker connected on 26 of 29 field goals (89.7 percent) and was 52 of 53 on extra points (98.1 percent). Cox also snapped on all 51 of Sam Koch's 51 punts, as Koch was the NFL's only punter to place at least 20 punts (22) inside in the 20-yard line and have no more than one touchback.

A native of Collierville, Tenn., Cox played 38 games in three seasons (2007-09) as the primary long snapper at the University of Tennessee.

Folk's initial season with the Titans also included 28 extra points on 30 attempts. His 115 total points tied for the 13th-best single-season total in franchise history.

In his first 15 NFL seasons prior to joining the Titans, Folk spent time with the Dallas Cowboys (2007-09), New York Jets (2010-2016), Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2017) and Patriots (2019-22). He registered 11 game-winning field goals in the regular season and one in postseason play.

Over his four years with New England, Folk made 108 of his 121 field goal attempts (89.3 percent) in 57 games. He departed the Patriots in fifth place on the New England all-time field goal list and tied for seventh place on the franchise's all-time scoring list with 440 total points.

Folk became one of six all-time NFL players to have at least five seasons with 30 field goals, joining Tucker (eight), Stephen Gostkowski (five), Robbie Gould (five), John Carney (five) and David Akers (five).

Folk established the NFL record for consecutive field goals made under 50 yards with a streak of 64 such kicks from Oct. 5, 2017 to Oct. 16, 2022. He broke the record (56 consecutive) set by Ryan Succop of the Titans from 2014 to 2017.

While with the Patriots, he also set the franchise mark for consecutive field goals made (36) during a streak that spanned from 2020 to 2021 and posted the third-highest field goal percentage for a season by a Patriot in 2020 (92.9).

Folk entered the NFL as a sixth-round selection by the Dallas in the 2007 NFL Draft. As a rookie for the Cowboys, he earned a Pro Bowl selection and all-rookie honors.

Punter Ryan Stonehouse is in his third NFL season in 2024. He was signed by the Titans as a rookie free agent on May 13, 2022.

In only two NFL seasons, Stonehouse recorded the top two single-season gross punting averages in NFL history, and he also recorded two of the top three single-season net averages in franchise history. He became the first punter in NFL annals to lead the league in gross punting average in each of his first two seasons.

In 2023, he appeared in the first 12 games of the season before missing the final five contests on injured reserve. Despite his missed time, he averaged a league-high 53.06 yards per punt, grossing 2,812 yards on 53 attempts. The average qualified as the second-highest figure in NFL history behind his own record-setting 53.10 yards per punt as a rookie in 2022. He also finished sixth in the NFL with a 43.87-yard net punting average, which ranked third in franchise history.

In 2022, Stonehouse finished the season with a gross average of 53.10 yards per punt on 90 total punts (4,779 total yards). In doing so, he broke Sammy Baugh's single-season NFL record of 51.40 yards per punt, which was established in 1940 and was never matched among qualifiers (2.5 punts per team game) until Stonehouse's rookie campaign. Stonehouse's mark also surpassed Brett Kern's franchise record of 49.7 yards per punt in 2017.

With a net punting average of 44.0 yards per punt in 2022, Stonehouse also established a new NFL record for the highest net average by a rookie punter. He broke the record set by Indianapolis' Rigoberto Sanchez, who averaged 42.64 net yards per punt as a rookie in 2017. Stonehouse finished fourth in the NFL in net punting behind veterans Tommy Townsend (45.6),

Michael Dickson (44.5) and Johnny Hekker (44.1). In franchise history, his net average ranked second for a single season, trailing only Kern's 44.6 net average in 2017.

Stonehouse's 90 punts in 2022 made up the NFL's second-highest total. Only Denver's Corliss Waitman (96) had more. The 90 punts by Stonehouse tied Craig Hentrich's 1999 number for the fourth-highest total in team annals behind Rich Camarillo (96 punts in 1994) and Cliff Parsley (93 in 1979; 91 in 1978).

Stonehouse appeared in 53 games over five seasons at Colorado State (2017-21) and set an NCAA career record with a 47.8-yard gross punting average. His career totals included 244 punts for 11,656 yards with 91 punts inside the 20. He totaled 106 punts of 50-plus yards and became the first player in Colorado State history to log 11,000 punting yards in a career.

During his final college season in 2021, Stonehouse appeared in 12 games and averaged 50.9 yards per attempt on 58 punts, including a career-long 81-yard punt. He placed 27 punts inside the 20-yard line and totaled 32 punts of 50-plus yards en route to being named a second-team All-Mountain West selection and a Ray Guy Award semifinalist.

He is a native of La Verne, Calif.

NFL RECORD: SINGLE-SEASON AVERAGE

In 1940, Washington's Sammy Baugh punted 35 times for 1,799 yards, averaging 51.40 yards per punt. Eighty-two seasons later, the mark still stood as the best qualifying single-season punting average in NFL history, until Titans rookie punter Ryan Stonehouse broke the record in 2022.

Stonehouse, an undrafted rookie from Colorado State University, averaged 53.10 yards per attempt on 90 total punts—1.70 yards per punt ahead of Baugh's number.

Then, in his second season, Stonehouse averaged an NFL-high 53.06 yards per punt. His 53 attempts (2,812 yards) qualified him for the single-season charts, and as a result, he owns the top two numbers of all-time in his first two NFL seasons.

Prior to Stonehouse's rookie campaign, Baugh's mark was one of the NFL's longest-held records. In the 2022 NFL Record & Fact Book, only three single-season individual records predated Baugh's punting mark, and all three of those were later tied: most safeties in a season (two by Green Bay's Tom Nash in 1932 and subsequently tied 18 times), most fumbles returned for a touchdown in a season (two by Boston's Harold McPhail in 1934 and tied 44 times), and most opponent fumbles returned for a touchdown in a season (two by McPhail in 1934 and tied 41 times).

To qualify for the single-season average record, a punter needs a minimum of 2.5 attempts per team game.

MEDIA INFORMATION FOR TRAINING CAMP

CREDENTIALS: Media credentials for training camp are required for access to Ascension Saint Thomas Sports Park. All credential requests must be submitted through an online application process at a link provided by the football communications department. Email kaylee.connors@titans.nfl.com for more information.

Separate credentials are issued for training camp and Titans games. Approval for one category does not guarantee approval for another.

TRAINING CAMP CREDENTIAL APPLICATIONS MUST BE SUBMITTED PRIOR TO A MEDIA OUTLET'S ARRIVAL AT CAMP. SAME-DAY REQUESTS WILL NOT BE HONORED.

PARKING AND MEDIA WORKROOM AT ASCENSION SAINT THOMAS SPORTS PARK:

SPORTS PARK: Parking at Ascension Saint Thomas Sports Park is extremely limited. Please make contact with Titans media relations prior to coming to practice to receive instructions. Media arriving at training camp without prearrangements through the football communications staff are likely to be denied parking.

The media workroom inside Ascension Saint Thomas Sports Park is located on the second floor. The workroom will be open on days the media is invited to cover practice and/or a press conference. Food is provided but only available to the working media.

Stand-ups on the field are permitted following practice and media availability, but otherwise media members will be asked to clear the field and return to the media workroom. Access to the field at other times must be prearranged with the football communications staff.

INTERVIEW POLICY DURING TRAINING CAMP: During training camp, head coach Brian Callahan and players typically are made available to speak with the media following practice sessions. Callahan will address the media at the podium on assigned days at the conclusion of practice, followed by player availability. On days Callahan does not speak at the podium, players will be available immediately coming off the practice field. Select players also will be made available at the podium. Coordinators and assistant coaches are available for interviews on days that are predetermined and announced by the football communications department. In accordance with the NFL's media access policy, the locker room will be open to the media on a regular basis prior to the start of the regular season.

LIVE UPDATES, SOCIAL MEDIA AND PHOTOGRAPHY: During training camp sessions, reporters are limited in shooting photos and videos to the beginning portions of practice—generally the stretch and individual periods, or to specific periods as directed by the media relations staff. During this time, live reporting on practice is allowed. However, live streaming in any format is not permitted at any practice, per NFL rules.

If a practice is open to the public, periodic live textual reports following stretch and individual periods are permitted throughout the remainder of practice (no photos or videos). Live streaming of the practice is not allowed.

If a practice is closed to the public, once the stretch and individual periods are finished and shooting has ended, reportable information observed for the remainder of the session must not be posted until the conclusion of practice.

Within reports from practice, observations on general team and individual performances are allowed. However, reporting on items related to competitive advantage is prohibited, such as positional rotation and scheme-related observations. Media also must not report specifics of conversations between players and coaches overheard on the practice field.

This policy includes, but is not limited to, website articles, social media posts, call-ins to radio stations, video reports and text messaging.

During practice, all media members are asked to stay within the boundaries on the practice field designated by the football communications staff—typically the outer boundaries of the field. Walking on or through the practice areas is prohibited.
