TITANS TRAVEL TO HOUSTON FOR DIVISIONAL CLASH

Tennessee Titans (0-3) vs. Houston Texans (0-3)

Sunday, Sept. 28, 2025 • 12 p.m. CDT • NRG Stadium • Houston, Texas • TV: CBS/WTVF-5

NASHVILLE — The Tennessee Titans (0-3) travel to play the Houston Texans (0-3) this week, encountering their second consecutive division rival while also launching a three-game road swing. Kickoff at NRG Stadium (capacity 71,995) is scheduled for 12 p.m. CDT on Sunday, Sept. 28.

The two teams last met in the 2024 regular season finale at Nissan Stadium. The Texans, who had already clinched the AFC South, won 23-14 to avenge the Titans' 32-27 victory at NRG Stadium in Week 12. In 46 all-time battles, the Titans lead the series 24-22.

WARD, TITANS LOOKING FOR DIVISIONAL WIN

The Titans hosted the Indianapolis Colts last week. Rookie quarterback Cam Ward completed 23-of-38 passes for 219 yards and a touchdown, and running back Tony Pollard accounted for the team's other touchdown. However, Colts running back Jonathan Taylor rushed for 102 yards and three scores, leading Indianapolis to a 40-21 win.

Ward joined Marcus Mariota (2015) as the franchise's only rookie quarterbacks to start each of the team's first three games of a season. For the second consecutive week, he found fourth-round rookie wide receiver Elic Ayomanor for a touchdown, this time on an eight-yard pass on fourth-and-goal. The last occasion in which a Titans rookie quarterback and rookie wide receiver connected for multiple touchdown passes in a season was 2015 (Mariota and Dorial Green-Beckham).

Ayomanor, the 136th overall draft pick in 2025, has 10 receptions for 107 yards and two touchdowns. Among all rookie wide receivers this season, he ranks third in receiving yards, is tied for third in receptions, and is tied for second in touchdown catches.

Kicker Joey Slye made field goals of 57 and 42 yards—the second consecutive week he made a 57-yarder. The only field goal in franchise history from a longer distance was 60 yards by Rob Bironas in 2006. Slye, who previously made four field goals in each of the first two games, ranks second in the NFL with 10 field goals through three weeks.

Following this week's game, the Titans will be on the road for two more weeks. They play at Arizona on Oct. 5, followed by the franchise's first game at Las Vegas on Oct. 12.

THE TEXANS

Head coach DeMeco Ryans, who was hired to his current post in 2023, led Houston to an AFC South title in each of his first two campaigns. The Texans had identical 10-7 records in 2023 and 2024, followed by finishes in the divisional round on both occasions.

Along with Ryans, quarterback C.J. Stroud is entering his third season with the club. He was drafted with the second overall pick in the 2023 NFL Draft, and since then, he has passed for 8,434 yards and 45 touchdowns with 20 interceptions.

In Week 3, the Texans visited Jacksonville, where they lost 17-10 to the Jaguars. After Texans wideout Nico Collins caught a 50-yard touchdown pass from Stroud to help tie the game at 10-10 in the fourth quarter, Jaguars running back Travis Etienne scored the game-winning touchdown with less than two minutes remaining.

SERIES HISTORY

The Titans-Texans rivalry is in its 24th year since the expansion Texans began play and the AFC South was formed in 2002. In 46 games, the Titans are 24-22 against the Texans, including a 12-11 mark at Nissan Stadium and a 12-11 record at NRG Stadium.

In the first matchup of 2024, played at NRG Stadium on Nov. 24, the Titans won 32-27 after tight end Chig Okonkwo scored the game-winning touchdown on a 70-yard completion from Will Levis in the fourth quarter. The Titans overcame eight sacks by the Texans defense.

The 2024 rematch was played at Nissan Stadium in Week 18. The Texans prevailed 23-14 on a cold, rainy afternoon. The game featured 176 rushing yards by Texans running back Dameon Pierce, who scored a touchdown on a 92-yard run.

Several recent late-season battles with the Texans have had playoff implications for the Titans. On Jan. 9, 2022, they won 28-25 at Houston to clinch the top seed in the AFC playoff field.

In the 2020 season finale (Jan. 3, 2021), the Titans traveled to Houston needing a win to secure their first AFC South title since 2008. They got it when Sam Sloman's 37-yard field goal provided the margin in a 41-38 win, capping an historic afternoon during which Derrick Henry established a franchise record with 250 rushing yards and concluded the season with a franchise-record 2,027 rushing yards.

In the 2019 finale, the two eventual playoff teams met at NRG Stadium. The Texans had already clinched the AFC South, while the Titans went into the day potentially needing a win to secure the wild card berth. The Texans had defended their home turf a series-record seven consecutive times against the Titans, but the Titans came away with a 35-14 win.

The Titans franchise has a rich and storied history with the city of Houston. Under late owner K.S. "Bud" Adams Jr., the Titans existed as the Houston Oilers from 1960-96. In Houston, the Oilers won the first two American Football League Championships and made a total of 15 playoff appearances. The team moved to Tennessee in 1997 and in 1999 adopted the "Titans" moniker.

Ten players who spent a significant portion of their careers in a Houston Oilers uniform are enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, including former quarterback Warren Moon, outside linebacker Robert Brazile, defensive tackle Curley Culp and offensive lineman Bruce Matthews.

Titans Controlling Owner and Chairman Amy Adams Strunk is a graduate of the University of Texas and resides in Waller, Texas.

TITANS-TEXANS: THE LAST MEETING

2024 Week 18: Titans 14, Texans 23

Sunday, Jan. 5, 2025 • 12:00 p.m. CST • Nissan Stadium

In Week 18 of the 2024 campaign, the Titans hosted the AFC South rival Texans and lost by a score of 23-14 in the season finale.

The Texans opened the game with an 11-play, 69-yard drive that was capped off with a two-yard touchdown pass from QB C.J. Stroud to WR Nico Collins to take an early 7-0 lead.

Houston extended its lead early in the second quarter after RB Dameon Pierce broke away for a 92-yard touchdown run. A missed extra point from K Ka'imi Fairbairn made it 13-0 with 13:55 left in the quarter.

Later in the second quarter, Houston was driving for another score before S Daryl Worley punched the ball out of WR Robert Woods hands. CB Jarvis Brownlee Jr. recovered the fumble.

The Titans cashed in the turnover for three points on a K Matthew Wright 35-yard field goal that capped an 11-play, 53-yard drive that was highlighted by a 24-yard pass from QB Mason Rudolph to WR Calvin Ridley.

Houston ended the first half with a seven-play, 51-yard drive that culminated in a 27-yard field goal by Fairbairn to make it 16-3 going into the break.

The Titans opened the second half with a 13-play, 53-yard drive with Wright adding another field goal, this one from 38 yards, to make it 16-6 with 6:47 left in the third quarter.

Tennessee's defense then came up with a fourth-down stop on their own one-yard line to prevent Houston from scoring and keeping the game at 16-6 with 1:17 left in the third quarter.

However on the ensuing offensive drive by the Titans, QB Will Levis and WR Bryce Oliver fumbled an exchange and the loose ball was recovered by DE Derek Barnett and returned 36 yards for a touchdown. The score made it 23-6 with 13:50 left in the fourth quarter.

A 49-yard touchdown pass from Levis to WR Tay Martin capped a nine-play, 94-yard drive, with 2:41 left, and a two-point conversion, made it 23-14.

A failed on-side kick attempt gave the Texans the ball at the Titans 44-yard line. Houston was able to pick up a first down to seal the game and end the Titans season with a 3-14 record.

DeMeco Ryans was named the sixth head coach in Texans history on Jan. 31, 2023. Ryans arrived in Houston after six seasons with the San Francisco 49ers, most recently as the team's defensive coordinator for two years (2021-22).

In 2024, Ryans led the Texans to their second straight 10-win season and AFC South title. Ryans and quarterback C.J. Stroud became the first head coach/quarterback combination to win divisional titles in their first two seasons together. The Texans defense set franchise records for most sacks (49.0) and tackles for loss (106). They also finished second in the NFL in interceptions (19) and tied for third in passes defended (90) led by Associated Press First-Team All-Pro cornerback Derek Stingley Jr.

In his first season as a head coach, Ryans led Houston to a 10-7 record, a division title and a playoff berth—a first for the franchise since 2019. Houston defeated Cleveland in the wild card round by a score of 45-14 before falling to Baltimore in the divisional round. The first two Texans draft picks made with Ryans at the helm, Stroud and defensive end Will Anderson Jr., were named AP NFL Offensive and Defensive Rookie of the Year, respectively. He was named PFWA Coach of the Year, the first Texans coach to receive the honor.

Ryans was named the 2022 PFWA Assistant Coach of the Year after helping lead San Francisco to the NFC Championship. The 49ers defense ranked first in total defense (300.6 yards per game), total points allowed (277) and points allowed (16.3) per game. Under his leadership, 49ers defensive lineman Nick Bosa garnered AP Defensive Player of the Year honors in 2022, linebacker Fred Warner earned two first team All-Pro honors (2020, 2022) and defensive back Talanoa Hufanga earned first-team All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors in 2022.

Prior to his time as coordinator, Ryans served as the 49ers inside linebackers coach from (2018-20). Ryans also served as the team's defensive quality control coach in 2017, his first NFL coaching job.

As a player, Ryans was drafted by the Texans in the second round (33rd overall) of the 2006 NFL Draft. He was named first team All-Pro in 2007, was selected to the Pro Bowl in 2007 and 2009, and currently sits as the second-leading tackler in franchise history (636). He played for the Eagles from 2012-15 and finished his career starting 139 of 140 games played. Over a 10-year career, he registered 735 tackles, 46 passes defended, 13.5 sacks, 10 fumble recoveries and seven interceptions.

A native of Bessemer, Ala., Ryans played collegiately at the University of Alabama from 2002-05. As a senior, he was a unanimous All-American selection, Southeastern Conference Defensive Player of the Year and earned first team All-SEC honors.

TITANS-TEXANS CONNECTIONS

Titans quarterback Cam Ward is a native of West Columbia, Texas, located an hour south of Houston. He played at Columbia High School, where he earned all-district honors as a quarterback and finished as the basketball program's all-time leading scorer. He helped Columbia High's football team to a 9-1 record and district co-championship as a senior in 2019 before beginning his college career at Incarnate Word in San Antonio.

Ward's family is ingrained in the town's community. His mother, Patrice, is a retired special education teacher and former head basketball coach at Columbia High. His sister, Aaliyah, who started as a point guard for her mother from 2009-12, took over as the head basketball coach in 2020. Ward's other sister, Chantel, set the Houston Christian University records in the indoor and outdoor shot put before transferring to San Jose State. She is now an assistant track and field coach at Houston Christian.

In July 2025, after Ward was selected by the Titans with the first overall pick in the NFL Draft, the West Columbia City Council approved the renaming of North 17th Street in Columbia to be renamed 'Cam Ward Way' for ceremonial purposes. The street is where Patrice Ward grew up, the Ward family told ESPN.

FORMER TEXANS

- Titans kicker Joey Slye spent part of the 2021 season with the Texans, playing in three games with Houston.
- Titans assistant director of sports performance Brian Bell served as strength and conditioning assistant for the Texans from 2015-17.

DAN MOORE JR.

Titans tackle Dan Moore Jr. is a native of Beaumont, Texas, and attended Beaumont West Brook Senior High School, where he was rated a three-star recruit by ESPN, PrepStar and Rivals. Moore was rated the No. 73 offensive guard in the nation, No. 150 in the state of Texas and No. 194 in the Midlands Region coming out of high school. He played four seasons at Texas A&M (2017-20), where he started at left tackle in the final 36 games of his collegiate career with the Aggies.

QUANDRE DIGGS

Titans safety Quandre Diggs is a native of Houston. He attended Angleton (Texas) High School, where he was a two-time all-state and four-time all-district selection at multiple positions. Diggs finished his career with 8,265 all-purpose yards and 83 touchdowns on offense, rushing for 4,409 yards and 58 touchdowns, passing for 1,938 yards and 11 touchdowns, and catching 10 passes for 301 yards and three touchdowns.

On defense, he totaled 237 tackles, 19 tackles for loss, six sacks, 10 interceptions, 52 pass breakups, 11 forced fumbles, four fumble recoveries, seven blocked kicks and returned four interceptions for scores. Diggs also lettered three years in track and was a two-year letterman in basketball.

Diggs then spent four seasons at the University of Texas and played in 52 career games with 49 starts at cornerback. He ended his career tied for ninth on the Texas all-time list for interceptions (11) and Earned All-Big 12 honors three times (2011, 2013, 2014).

Now in his 10th pro season, Diggs plays with his younger cousin, Titans quarterback Cam Ward. "It's different when you walk in the locker room and see your family, like your real family," Diggs told the Tennessean after re-signing with the team in August.

Titans wide receiver Chimere Dike and Texans quarterback Graham Mertz have been close friends since meeting on the University of Wisconsin campus in 2020. When Mertz decided to transfer from Wisconsin to Florida after the 2022 season, Dike recalled that he used to watch every game that Mertz and the Gators played when Wisconsin wasn't playing. After the 2023 season, the two would reconnect as Dike joined Mertz at Florida for one last college football season together. During that final season, Dike told FloridaGators.com the duo "kind of grew up together in college football."

LAST WEEK VS. THE COLTS

Week 3: Titans 20, Colts 41
Sunday, Sept. 21, 2025 • 12:00 p.m. CDT • Nissan Stadium

In Week 3 of the 2025 season, the Titans hosted division rival Indianapolis Colts and fell by a score of 41-20.

The Colts took an early 7-0 lead after CB Kenny Moore II intercepted a QB Cam Ward throw and returned it 32 yards for a touchdown on the third play from scrimmage.

The Titans responded with a 57-yard field goal by K Joey Slye to make it 7-3.

Indianapolis extended its lead with a 24-yard field goal by K Spencer Shrader which capped a nine-play, 59-yard drive that saw the Colts drive down to the Tennessee six-yard line before settling for the field goal to make it 10-3.

The Titans went three-and-out on their next offensive possession and the Colts took over at their own 23-yard line. QB Daniel Jones strung together a nine-play, 77-yard drive that included three completions for 49 yards and a 17-yard scramble on third-and-seven. RB Jonathan Taylor capped off the drive with a one-yard touchdown run to make it 17-3 with 1:11 in the first quarter.

Tennessee responded with an 11-play, 54-yard drive that culminated in a 42 yard field goal by Slye to make it 17-6 with 10:50 left in the second quarter.

The Titans then forced the Colts to punt for the first time this season and took over at their own nine-yard line. Ward drove Tennessee to midfield before the drive stalled and Slye came out to attempt a 64-yard field goal which was no good.

Indianapolis then tried a 51-yard field goal on the ensuing drive that was also no good to keep the score at 17-6 with 3:15 left in the half.

The Titans took over at their own 41-yard line. After RB Tony Pollard picked up an initial first down and nine more yards, the Titans faced fourth-and-one at the Indianapolis 39-yard line. After a delay of game penalty, Slye attempted the 62-yard field goal which was blocked.

The Colts took advantage of the field position and ended the half with a 36-yard field goal from Shrader to head into the break up 20-6.

Indianapolis extended its lead with a six-play, 67-yard drive in which Jones found WR Michael Pittman for a 20-yard touchdown to make it 27-6 with 11:08 left in the third.

The Titans answered with a long scoring drive of their own. The 13-play, 73-yard drive culminated in a one-yard touchdown run by Pollard after RB Julius Chestnut broke loose for a 27-yard gain to bring the Titans to the Colts four-yard line.

But a 46-yard touchdown run by Taylor extended the Colts lead to 34-13 on the next possession.

HEAD COACH BRIAN CALLAHAN

Opening Statement:

Just didn't do anything probably well enough over the course of the game in any phase to put ourselves in position to win. I think the early pick-six was not good. That's put you in a hole that early. We didn't tackle well. We didn't rush well. At the end of the day, we didn't do enough good things to put ourselves in any position to win the game. Don't really have much to add. You guys go ahead.

Realistically, how many more opportunities do you think you guys are going to get to get this thing right given how difficult it's been?

I don't really worry about that to be honest. My focus is on trying to make sure our football team is in as good a place as possible, and the rest of that stuff is what it is. I don't think about those things. You really can't. This is hard enough as it is to put those other things and think about that, it doesn't do anybody any good. So, I just go to work and work as hard as I can. I put as much effort as I can into this, that is what it is.

What happened with the field goal attempt, the delay of game before halftime?

Yeah, I was going back-and-forth. We were talking about going for it or kicking it. That's a kick that (Joey) Slye's made and a chance to make it a 17-9 game in that moment. It's a hindsight thing. If you go for it and get it, great. If you go for it and don't, you're in the same spot. Thought we had a chance to get points there. Slye's been really reliable from deep. He's been a bit of a weapon for us and has been thus far in the season. Then we went to kick it, and they were waiting for some operational things to uncover. Just would like to go faster. Obviously had no intention to take a delay of game there. Didn't want that to happen. Obviously looks really bad at the end of the day. That was not the intention to do that. So wanted to be able to kick it.

Once you call timeout there, don't you know what you're doing? Shouldn't you have your personnel on the field?

Certainly. We were going back-and-forth and wanted a minute to think about it. I was going back-and-forth between a fourth down call and a field goal and decided to go take points in that particular situation. The operational part of it to kick it on time didn't happen.

What's the downside of not going for it on fourth-and-one?

The same thing that happened when we missed the field goal. Probably get the ball back in pretty good field position and not too far away from getting points. That's exactly what happened. Again, hindsight, it doesn't work. We don't make the field goal, we don't get to kick it off, and we don't get a chance to go for it, so we don't know if we'll get it or not. Ultimately if it doesn't work, you're in the same place. Then the same question applies on the flip side. If we go for it and don't get it, the question is why didn't you try (Joey) Slye from that distance? He's been good from there. It's a hindsight thing. We didn't make the kick, and we don't look good for it. But I thought that was the right thing was to try to take points in that moment and make it a one possession game.

We've seen several times with the roll outward and then just flip it out into the flat and got caught in no man's land several times. What was going on there that was happening that wasn't supposed to happen?

It's a team that they've run the ball well so far over the course of the season. They've done a lot of the same things. Offensively we've hit a lot of the exact same type of plays. Their complements to your run game, and they've run the ball well. When you're trying to stop the run, you are susceptible to some of those boot actions and naked actions. Again, they're not usually explosive plays, but they keep them efficient. Those are the things, when you're trying to fit and play the pass, those are the conflicts you get put in. That's the NFL, that's playing first and second down defense trying to stop the run and playing boot action. We had similar plays offensively. We've got to do a better job containing those things for sure. Just frustrating overall with the inability to get stops when we needed to on defense.

What happened on Cam's pick? After that, how do you feel like he sort of returned from that?

Yeah, he bounced back. That's one of the things he does well. He doesn't flinch when those things happen. It was the third play of the game. There's a lot of football left at that point. Just the decision-making. He's going to try to check the ball down, and he's got to see the defender sitting there. I don't know, I'll have to ask him exactly how he saw it, but it's one of those things where you put the ball in harm's way like that, it's an easy interception on a check-down. Sometimes it's better to throw it at his feet and eat it or punt it, so you can punt it, but those are decisions. He hasn't had a lot of those, but that one got him.

When do you stop relying on Calvin Ridley based on the degree to which he's hurting the team?

I'm not going to stop relying on him. He's got to help us. He's got to do his part. We're going to keep throwing the ball to him. He's going to keep being put in position to make plays. It's the same thing when a guy doesn't perform his best, they've got to find a way to pull themselves out of it, and we've got to find a way to help him. At the end of the day, I know he's still a good player, and we're still going to need him. If we're going to claw our way out of the spot that we're in, we're going to need everybody in there to do it. Calvin's going to be a big part of that. He's got to find a way to get his confidence back up and perform. Certainly, never going to shy away. He's a big part of our offense, and we need him.

From your side of things, how do you help Calvin Ridley?

You've got to keep coming to him. You've got to keep throwing the ball. The hard part is these things don't show up sometimes in practice. All of a sudden in a game it's a problem. You've got to keep working. It's like a hitter in a slump. He's in a bit of one right now, and he's got to find a way to get out of it. Whatever that is, extra time after practice, whether it's making sure he's catching balls on the jugs, all those things are all a part of it. A lot of times it's an individual effort, but I still believe in Calvin. That's part of it, too. He's got to feel that the guys believe in him, the quarterback believes in him, and we've got to keep working to go back to him, and he's got to come do his part.

Your disappointment maybe in a lot of different aspects, had better moments in the first couple of games. How do you think it was today?

Indy is playing really well on offense, and they're moving the ball at a pretty rapid rate. Every time we had an opportunity, whether it was on offense to answer, on defense to answer, we could never get ourselves back into the swing, and we couldn't make the answer that we needed on either phase, and it got away from us. They're playing well. I thought we had opportunities. I was confident going into the game. We still can't—we haven't done enough good things in any phase. The penalties are still continuing to be a problem. You turn the ball over for a touchdown, we missed tackles, we haven't got the quarterback on the ground enough, all those things factor in. You've got the result that we had today.

What are some of the ways that you could clean up some of the procedural like penalty issues that have plagued the team the first few weeks?

Some of the things we've got to do a better job understanding motions and formations and being set. I think we got called twice for illegal motion and we weren't set. We've got to do a better job doing that. That's and easy thing, that shouldn't be a problem. When you're checking protection and you're moving to the back and then there's a motion involved—some of those are things that Cam's (Ward) understanding too when you've got a lot of moving parts on a third down that you have to have in this league to be able to go against the defenses you play against. That's part of it, and then part of it is we've got to do a better job doing the little things right, and we haven't done that enough and that's disappointing for the amount of time we emphasize and talk about it.

With the struggles that you've had in all phases of the game, do you feel like there's still the confidence and the buy-in coming from everybody in the locker room?

The one thing I know about our guys is they fight and they work. We fought in that game. We fought as hard as we could. Ultimately, didn't play well enough to win. I don't have any questions about guys' buy-in. I know how they perform. I know what they are in the building. I know how they work. We've just got to find a way to play better on Sundays at the end of the day. That's everybody. We've got to coach better. We've got to play better. All of that stuff matters. I don't have any doubts about what these guys do and think at this moment.

Three veterans missed tackles on the longest Taylor touchdown run. How hard is it to survive that? What's your message to them?

We've missed too many tackles through three weeks to begin with. We've had moments of really good defense. We've had moments of really good tackling. At the end of the day, you've got to do it for the entirety of the game. Having guys miss tackles is not something we expect. Again, Jonathan Taylor is a good back. Give a little bit of credit to him as a player. We've got to do a better job of getting him on the ground, and we didn't do that.

QUARTERBACK CAM WARD

What happened on the first pass out there with that one that got picked off? What did you see or not see there?

Well, I told the running back the wrong route first, and then when I got to him, I threw it, right when I threw, I seen him. So, I knew a bad play there. But I mean, at the end of the day, I knew the time will come when I throw an interception. Just how we responded from it, we did.

How tough a day was this for you in your mind and as a team and how do you get through it?

I mean, just got to keep working, honestly. We put ourselves in a hole, starting off 0-3, something that we got to climb ourselves out of. But it's all learning stuff, especially from my standpoint, the offense standpoint as a whole, and then on the defensive side of the ball.

After the two timeouts, but before the delay of game with the field goal scenario, before halftime, you urging the call from the sideline there where there's some indecision that cost you the delay there, what were you thinking as that whole thing was unfolding?

I'm just thinking, if you call the play, I'm going to call it in the huddle. And so, just really—just trying to wait to see what we're going to do. End up kicking the field goal, didn't go our way. But at the end of the day if Joey (Slye) get the opportunity again, he'll make it.

It looked like you, Tyler (Lockett) and Calvin (Ridley) were all kind of talking in midfield near the end of the game. Just curious, what that conversation was? If it was at all about trying to get out of this hole that you've now put yourself in?

Just really us coming closer together. And that's just every day throughout the process we got to continue to stick to it, we got to continue to be around each other. We got to continue to hold each other accountable. And that's just really us three taking a moment right there just talking about what all of us have to do better from our situation both us three talking then just as a whole how we feel we got to get better. As Coach (Brian) Callahan addressed that in the locker room. So, we just go and watch film, flush it, and then we got to try to get a win against a good team.

You've talked very positively about the relationship you have with (Brian) Callahan and through three weeks, has it been what you expected in the on-field relationship?

It's been what I've expected the whole time. He's a cool guy. He doesn't get too high, too low on the sideline like me. I think the biggest thing is us just executing. We haven't done that at a high enough level to win football games.

I know in the past you've said that, you've told whoever that you'll make a bad play, so don't worry about it, but is that consistently what the conversation is?

Yeah, and then he knows he has to be better, I know I have to be better. I can't put us down 7-0 at the start of the game. So, I put us behind the eight ball and we have to, the whole game, we have to climb ourselves back until—not win the football game. So, it was kind of just really on my standpoint. Then on his, like, everybody wants a play back every game. Whether it's that play for him, it's a couple plays I want back in this game, but we can't get them back. At the end of the day, we just got to not make the same mistake next week.

Were you wanting to go for it on fourth-and-1?

I'm always trying to go for it on fourth down. That's really my mindset. But the end of the day, that's Coach (Brian Callahan). He's going put us in the best situation, Joey (Slye), he's made that kick before so, he's going to get another opportunity this season he'll make it.

It seems like sometimes the seam passes, there's a little heat on them sometimes through the first three weeks. Is that something that you're working on like with tape study or is it something that you're going to have to take some of the heat off of those passes so your receivers can come down with those?

It's not even that; it's just us just working on them more in practice. And then, especially the one to Chig (Okonkwo), I put it too high for him. He had to make a crazy catch. I shouldn't have put him in that situation to make that catch. So, it's really all depend on my accuracy. I have to be more accurate with football. And I mean, they're there. We just haven't connected with them from my side and the receiver side, but we just got to continue working it.

This is your adopted now hometown team. To hear boos come down from fans, how does that make you feel?

I play football, so I'm always going to have my opinion. I'm not really too worried about that. And I'm trying to score points. We ain't do that enough to win the game today. But I mean, if I was them, I'd be mad, too. I'm trying to win football games, the same as them. So, if that's what they're going to do, we've got to lock in as a group in the locker room and continue to motivate each other, push each other and try to get a win.

What would you say is the confidence level of the offense and just the team overall through three games?

Confidence is high. We know we have a legit football team to make a run. It's really just us beating ourselves from technique to, I would say offensively, just staying above the sticks. And at the end of the day, just come down to us just continuously trying to fight adversity. We can't put ourselves in that situation a lot of times. And the biggest thing is just penalties. We've got to be least penalized.

When you look at the sacks and the pressures that you're under? When you look at some of the other younger quarterbacks that have struggled with it in the past. What is it about you that will keep you from going down that same path?

A lot of the sacks are on me. I think that's the biggest thing, especially one at the end, just not getting the ball out. You see him, throw the ball. So it's just something that I got to continuously remind myself to just help him out, get the ball out. Then at times where I need to hold on to the ball when it's third down, so then we all just got to continue to play together. But half of the sack's on me. At the end of the day, the offensive lineman's going to get beat. They're playing against some good comp out there. So I just got help them out, getting the ball out and not letting them— not taking a bad drop and then making the angle easier for the D-End.

How important have you found decisiveness to be, and are you doing better when you make a clear decision and go with it as opposed to plays where you might hesitate a little bit?

I think I get better at that every week. I would say like Coach Bo (Hardegree) and Cally (Brian Callahan) and Coach Nick (Holz) they've all just let me know what I need to do better to help the offense out because there's times that they were moving the ball efficiently but that's what we have to do throughout the whole season we can't have highs and lows we have to be more consistent.

When you were moving the ball, were you having the most success when you were being the most decisive?

Yes, even when we weren't moving the ball when I was being decisive. It was all about us just trying not to stay— trying not be in long situations, trying to stay out of them.

How difficult is it to keep moving the chains when you're facing third-and-eight or third-and-seven on a regular basis?

I mean, third-and-10 better than being like third-and-20. So, I'll take that all day. But we have to consistently try and live in a third-and-five world, third-and-short world because the top offense in the league when they live in that world, they're just more efficient on first and second down. So, that's what we got to do. We did it at times today, but you just got to do it consistent next week.

WIDE RECEIVER ELIC AYOMANOR

How were you trying to, maybe you know Chimere Dike and Cam Ward as well, bring a spark to the team when things were going the way they were?

Yeah, I mean ultimately, the only thing you can really do is do your job until the best of your ability, right? If everybody could do that, that's where the spark really comes from. So it's really not up to one person or another, we just happen to be the ones at that point.

Have you talked to Cam at all after this one and have you guys had a discussion about how things are starting for your rookie year?

I mean I just told him, 'I appreciate you man.' Like honestly I'm always grateful to be out here with my guys, because I always know that they have my back. Really, I feel like there's a good relationship. So, I always just tell all my guys Chim (Dike), Van (Jefferson), Rid (Calvin Ridley), Cam (Ward), everybody that I appreciate them.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

What's the key to not getting discouraged?

I don't know if there's any secret. You really just got to keep putting one foot in front of the other, you know, one snap at a time, one moment at a time, one day at a time. That's really all you can do.

What did you see on that (touchdown) play, what happened?

Ultimately, my job on that play is really just to find the soft spot in the zone and Cam's (Ward) going throw it low to me and I've just got to catch it. That's how you practice it and that's how it happened.

CORNERBACK DARRELL BAKER JR.

The scorebook says these three teams are significantly better than you guys. What's the feeling in a room about where you are in the league?

Right now, I don't think we are where we want to be, but we definitely have the potential to get there. And like I said, it's just being intentional about our work every single day and just grinding and working. It's a long season. The NFL, it is not easy. If it was easy, everybody would do it. So we just have to lock in.

What do you grab on to tell you that you can get better and this team will be better than it is?

First of all, you have to grab on to each other and you know, we all grown men, most of us have kids. And again, we get paid a lot of money to play this game that we love. So that's all we have to do. Look in the mirror, what is your why? And every single snap, do it for that don't lose sight of it.

As far as the big plays go, of course big plays are happening, how would you say you all need to probably, tighten up in terms of eliminating those big plays that happen continually?

Big plays always happen because of something that we didn't do well enough. So again, we've just got to take that mirror test, go to the film, come back to our coaching. Just get back to the basics and fundamentals and dominate our jobs there, then those big plays will be eliminated.

Tough to make plays in the secondary when the quarterback has as much time as he does?

Again, we just have to come together as a collective unit. How can we go harder, a little bit more for each other, for our family, for the name on our back, for this organization? And at the end of the day, once we do that and once we put it all together, we'll like the result.

LINEBACKER CODY BARTON

You talk confidently about the talent. The scoreboard in these three games says you don't have the talent that matches up with these three teams. So what makes you see it?

Just from the time I've been here from OTAs and camp and just what we have now, I believe in the players. We have the talent. It's just, like I said, we've got to put it together. And coming from the defensive side, it's winning on first down to second down and getting third-and-long. That's huge for us to get in those situations. For the offense, it's being efficient on first and second down to get in third-and-manageable. You know what I mean? That's just the way I see the game. It's got to be a team cohesive thing in playing complementary football.

We heard a lot of boos being seemingly directed at your head coach. How did that make you feel?

I don't listen to the outside noise. I don't pay attention to it. People have their opinions, people can boo, whatever they want. And you know it doesn't feel good to get booed at your home stadium, but it's something that I've always taken with me is you don't listen to the outside noise and outside the facility walls, the stadium walls. You know, it's always about the team. And so, like I said, we've just got to get to be able to come together as a team and do what we need to do.

Was it players or was it coach and players?

I'm not going to sit here and point fingers at anybody, you know. I want to watch the film first, but just like I've said numerous times now, we're going to win and lose as a team, coaches included. We're all in this together, and so we're going to win and lose the team.

CORNERBACK ROGER MCCREARY

How do you feel about I guess a loss like this, and just kind of the way that you guys have started the season?

Yeah, I mean, it's bad. I mean we just can't finish out with a win. I say we just have got to look at ourselves in the mirror. Even me, I'll say, just have got to correct ourself first, before we talk about anybody else. Look ourself in the mirror, and just take responsibility in the work that we did out there. It wasn't good enough. We just have to come back tomorrow, talk about it, go over the mistakes, the bad plays, and all be on the same page. You just have to forget about it, and go on to next week.

Is there a belief in this locker room, that it can be turned around this season?

Oh yeah, most definitely. I mean, this is the beginning of the season. You know, we're not going to hold our heads down like it's over. We still have got time. It's just that we have to correct some stuff. Like, we have be on it, right now. We just can't keep going along saying we got to get it, and get over it. We just have to look ourselves in the mirror, like I said, and really have got to move on, and just play. It's a long season ahead of us.

Usually, you've got to grab on to something that you can build from. What does this team build from? Where do you guys build from right now?

Yeah, I mean, it's the league. I mean, stuff is gonna get hard. We've been through stuff like this before. We're taking losses, after losses. I just feel like we have got to get out that mud. We got to get out. We got to correct ourselves. We got really come together as a team. Watch this game together. We've got to come together. This is when I feel like the public is going to be against us, pointing fingers and everything. And that's not how I'm looking at it, by pointing fingers. It's us. We have got to start it off.

How do you have that internal belief, that it's going to be different?

I mean, I feel like everybody's going to say 'it's going to be different'. We have really got to go out there, and prove it, and show it. We don't know how it's going to be next week. We don't know what's going to be talked about. All I know, is we need to watch this game and correct it right away, and figure out what's going on, from the top to the bottom.

OFFENSIVE TACKLE DAN MOORE JR.

What's the answer to the penalties and execution, because a lot of talk about both of those things in the first two weeks, and it's still not there?

Yeah, I mean, I don't know any other way, but to just keep going to work, keep showing up, keep trying to get better. That's what I keep telling the guys, try to stay encouraged, try to stay together. Coach talked about we got to be better on all cylinders, all three phases.

How tough is it on a day like this where it just seemed like you guys were climbing uphill all day?

Yeah, we talked about starting fast, I don't think we did that. We talked about playing clean, penalty free ball, don't think we did that. The things that we talk about all week, we just haven't translated in a game. And when that happens, that's what you get.

DEFENSIVE TACKLE JEFFERY SIMMONS

How discouraging is it for you guys to be 0-3, with three tough losses?

At this point, this is a business and this is our job. No one is going to feel sorry for us. No one is going to come save us. We have to come back with the mindset that we have to move on from this. It sucks being 0-3 right now. But it's going to be up to us to come back to work. At the end of the day, you have to do things to win football games. We tackled like s--- today. Penalties. You're going to lose football games. We've been talking about it, and keep saying the same thing over and over again. When are we going to stop getting penalties? When are we going to tackle better? So, we've got to do things to win football games. You can't just be disappointed and hang your head. You have to look in the mirror first, and see how each player can get better.

2025 TITANS SCHEDULE NOTES

SEASON NOTES

- PLAYOFF OPPONENTS: The Titans have six total games against five playoff teams from last season. They have home games against Kansas City, Houston, Los Angeles Chargers and Los Angeles Rams and road contests at Houston and Denver. Four of those six games are against 2024 division winners: Houston twice (AFC South), Kansas City (AFC West) and the Los Angeles Rams (NFC West). The six games against reigning playoff clubs matches the total from last year. Prior to the 2024 season, the last time the Titans had six or fewer games against reigning playoff clubs was the 2020 campaign when they had five such games.
- TV BREAKDOWN: Excluding their Week 18 matchup with the Jaguars, which has yet to be assigned a broadcasting network, the Titans are currently scheduled for 10 games on CBS and six games on FOX. Due to the NFL's flex scheduling, some contests could be moved to a different network from the one appearing on the initial schedule.
- TOP DRAFT PICKS: The Titans selected Cameron Ward with this year's first overall pick. The team will face four of the next five selected players from the draft in Travis Hunter (second overall – Jacksonville), Will Campbell (fourth overall - New England Patriots), Mason Graham (fifth overall – Cleveland) and Ashton Jeanty (sixth overall - Las Vegas).
- HEAD COACHING EXPERIENCE: There are seven NFL head coaches who were hired by their teams this offseason, and the Titans will face four of them: New Orleans' Kellen Moore, Jacksonville's Liam Coen, Las Vegas' Pete Carroll and New England's Mike Vrabel. The Titans will also face off against two of the top five longest tenured coaches: Kansas City's Andy Reid (third-longest tenure – 13 years) and the Los Angeles Rams' Sean McVay (fifth-longest tenure – nine years).
- THREE GAMES BASED UPON 2024 FINISH: Every NFL team has two intraconference games and one interconference matchup based on the previous year's standings. As a result of the Titans' fourth-place AFC South finish in 2024, they host the AFC East's fourth-place New England Patriots and the NFC South's fourth-place New Orleans Saints, and they visit the AFC North's fourth-place Cleveland Browns. Overall, the Titans' strength of schedule is .450 (130-159) based upon their opponents' combined 2024 record, the 29th most difficult schedule out of 32 NFL teams.
- TIME (ZONE) TRAVEL: The Titans will play in every continental United States time zone at least twice during the 2025 regular season. They will stay in the Central time zone for 10 matchups, including every home contest as well as at Houston. The Titans have three trips to the Eastern time zone (at Cleveland, at Jacksonville and at Indianapolis). The farthest they will travel is Santa Clara, Calif., to face the 49ers (Pacific time zone). Tennessee will visit Allegiant Stadium in Las Vegas for the first time to face the Raiders on the franchise's first trip to the state of Nevada. Other road trips include Glendale, Ariz., to meet the Cardinals and Denver, Colo., to face the Broncos (both in the Mountain time zone). This is the first time since 2019 in which the team will play in every continental U.S. time zone.
- ORIGINAL AFL TEAMS: This season, the Titans will face off against five of the other seven original AFL teams: Kansas City Chiefs (formerly Dallas Texans), New England Patriots (Boston Patriots), Los Angeles Chargers, Las Vegas Raiders (Oakland Raiders) and Denver Broncos.

WEEK-BY-WEEK NOTES

- WEEK 3 (H) & WEEK 8 (A) vs. INDIANAPOLIS COLTS: The Titans look to end the Colts' four-game winning streak in the rivalry. Prior to the Colts' streak, the Titans won five consecutive matchups in the series from 2020-22. Colts third-year head coach Shane Steichen served as the offensive coordinator of the Philadelphia Eagles at the same time that Titans defensive coordinator Dennard Wilson was on the Eagles staff as defensive backs coach (2021) and defensive backs coach/defensive passing game coordinator (2022), culminating with Philadelphia's appearance in Super Bowl LVII.
- WEEK 4 (A) & WEEK 11 (H) vs. HOUSTON TEXANS: The reigning AFC South champion Texans have won the division the last two years. The two teams have split the season series in six of the last eight years, including last year when the Titans captured a 32-27 victory at Houston in November before falling at home in the season finale, 23-14. The Titans have a slight advantage in the series, leading 24-22 in 46 matchups since 2002. The Texans offense will feature first-time offensive coordinator Nick Caley calling plays for third-year quarterback CJ Stroud.

- WEEK 5 at ARIZONA CARDINALS: The Cardinals and Titans meet for the first time since 2021 and for the 12th time in history. Arizona holds an 8-4 lead over the Titans in the series. With only 12 games between the two franchises, the Cardinals rank as the second-least frequent opponent in Titans/Oilers history (Carolina Panthers, seven total meetings). This will be the Titans' first visit to Phoenix since the 2017 season and only the second visit to State Farm Stadium, which originally opened in 2006. The Titans look to snap a three-game losing streak against the Cardinals.
- WEEK 6 at LAS VEGAS RAIDERS: In a clash between two of the original members of the American Football League, the Titans trek to Nevada for the first time in franchise history when they take on the Las Vegas Raiders at Allegiant Stadium. The last time Tennessee traveled to face the Raiders was 2019, the franchise's final season in Oakland before it relocated to Las Vegas in 2020. Tennessee put up 21 unanswered points in the second half to defeat the Raiders 42-21. The Raiders hold a 30-22 advantage in the all-time series, including wins in all four postseason meetings. The Titans have won the last two meetings, most recently a 24-22 win in September of 2022 at Nissan Stadium in Nashville.
- WEEK 7 vs. NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS: The Titans will host New England for the first time since Mike Vrabel became New England's head coach after spending six seasons (2018-23) at the Titans helm. The Titans hosted the Patriots last season and won 20-17. Outside linebacker Harold Landry III signed with the Patriots during the 2025 offseason after spending his first seven NFL seasons with the Titans and rising to eighth in franchise history in career sacks (50.5). In addition to Vrabel, the Patriots staff includes several other former Titans coaches, including current Patriots defensive coordinator Terrell Williams.
- WEEK 9 vs. LOS ANGELES CHARGERS: The Titans and Chargers meet for the fourth consecutive season. Most recently, the Chargers captured a 27-17 victory when the Titans traveled to SoFi Stadium in 2024. The last time the Titans hosted the Chargers, Tennessee won 27-24 in overtime on Sept. 17, 2023. The Titans have won the last three matchups at Nissan Stadium dating back to 2013. The rivalry dates back to the inaugural 1960 AFL season, with the Chargers owning a 30-19-1 lead in the series. The two franchises met in the first two AFL Championship games (1960-61), with the Houston Oilers capturing the title on both occasions.
- WEEK 10 (BYE): The Week 10 bye comes five weeks later than the Week 5 bye the Titans had in 2024. Week 10 marks the latest bye the Titans have had since the 2021 season, when their bye was Week 13.
- WEEK 12 vs. SEATTLE SEAHAWKS: Two second-year head coaches meet for the first time in the regular season when Seattle's Mike Macdonald and Tennessee's Brian Callahan lead their teams. The clubs held joint practices and played a preseason game in Nashville during the 2024 preseason. Seattle pulled out a 20-17 victory during their last visit to Nissan Stadium on Christmas Eve in 2023. The only postseason matchup between the franchises came in the 1988 Wild Card round when the Oilers defeated the Seahawks 23-20 in overtime. This year's game could feature two newly-acquired quarterbacks with Tennessee's Cameron Ward, taken with the first overall draft pick in 2025, and Seattle's Sam Darnold, the 2025 unrestricted free agent addition for the Seahawks and former number three overall selection in 2018.
- WEEK 13 (H) & WEEK 18 (A) vs. JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS: The annual Titans-Jaguars series heads into its 31st season since the Jaguars' inaugural 1995 campaign. This year, the contest could feature the top two draft picks of the 2025 class: Titans quarterback Cameron Ward and wide receiver/cornerback Travis Hunter, who the Jaguars drafted with the second-overall pick after trading up. The Titans, who lead the all-time series 35-26 (including postseason), look to regain the momentum in the series after being swept by the Jaguars in 2024.

- WEEK 14 at CLEVELAND BROWNS: The Titans travel to Cleveland to face the Browns in the 70th meeting between the teams, including the postseason. The Browns hold a 37-32 lead in the all-time series, winning the most recent matchup 27-3 when Tennessee last visited Huntington Bank Field in September 2023. The only playoff game between the two teams came in the Wild Card round of the 1988 postseason, with the Oilers pulling out a 24-23 victory on the road in Cleveland.
- WEEK 15 at SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS: The Titans travel to Levi's Stadium in Santa Clara, Calif., for the second time in the venue's history and the first time since 2017. The teams last met in 2021 for a 20-17 Titans win on a Thursday night at Nissan Stadium in Nashville. The 49ers hold a 9-6 lead in the all-time series. Quarterback Brock Purdy enters his fourth NFL season with the 49ers, who are also led by the 2023 AP Offensive Player of the Year, running back Christian McCaffrey.

- WEEK 16 vs. KANSAS CITY CHIEFS: The Titans host the Kansas City Chiefs for the first time since 2021, when the Titans won by a final score of 27-3. The series between two original AFL rivals dates back to 1960, with the Chiefs holding a 28-24 edge in the series. Titans first-year general manager Mike Borgonzi spent the past 16 years with the Chiefs organization, most recently serving as Kansas City's assistant general manager.
- WEEK 17 vs. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS: The Titans will host the Saints and first-year head coach Kellen Moore when New Orleans travels to Nashville for the first time since 2021. The last two meetings between the two teams have been decided by a total of three points, with the Saints winning 16-15 in the 2023 season opener at the Caesars Superdome and the Titans winning 23-21 in November 2021 at Nissan Stadium. The Titans hold a 9-7-1 record in the all-time series.

Chad Brinker and Mike Borgonzi recap the 2025 NFL Draft

Chad Brinker serves as president of football operations for the Titans. He joined the Titans in 2023 as assistant general manager before being promoted to his current position in 2024. In his role, Brinker provides executive leadership and direct oversight for the entire football staff, reporting directly to Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk.

Since his arrival in Tennessee, Brinker's progressive approach has led to several initiatives aimed at moving the organization forward. He spearheaded the club's extensive search for a new general manager in 2025, resulting in the hiring of Mike Borgonzi. Brinker was also a pillar in the team's comprehensive search for head coach Brian Callahan in 2024. Additionally, he reshaped and refined the foundation of the team's analytics department from the ground up, while building and executing the 2024 and 2025 offseason strategies for player acquisitions in both free agency and the draft.

An NFL personnel veteran, Brinker embodies core strengths focused in executive leadership, strategic operations, financial analysis, and talent evaluation. His dual background in football operations merged with a business acumen gained from an MBA at Northwestern University's Kellogg School of Management further developed his skills as a team builder and strategic leader both on and off the field.

Prior to joining the Titans, Brinker spent 13 years with the Green Bay Packers in a variety of roles as a talent evaluator and strategic counselor to Packers leadership. In his initial season with the Packers, he collected his first Super Bowl championship when the team defeated the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XLV.

Throughout his experience with the Packers, he served as a pro and college scout; led strategy for unrestricted free agency and undrafted free agent processes; handled player contracts, salary cap administration, and roster management; and advised the general manager and executive vice president of football operations on team needs in free agency and drafts, always with an eye on long-term vision. The Packers won the NFC North Division eight times and drafted 13 Pro Bowl Players during his tenure.

Brinker also owns corporate business experience with two Fortune 100 companies in the pharmaceutical and medical device industries. He serves as an executive council member on the Freed-Hardeman University President's Council and has shared his expertise as a guest lecturer in the Sports Marketing program at Freed-Hardeman and the Sports Administration program at his alma mater, Ohio University.

A native of Martins Ferry, Ohio, Brinker first entered the NFL in 2003 as an undrafted free agent running back with the New York Jets. He holds two degrees from Ohio University, including a master's degree in sports administration, where he was a two-sport athlete and a two-time All-Mid-American Conference selection at running back. He was also selected as Ohio University's Male Athlete of the Year in 2003.

Brinker and his wife, Rachele, have three children. In addition to prioritizing time with his family, he enjoys reading, teaching, traveling, and spending time outdoors.

Mike Borgonzi was named the 15th general manager in franchise history on Jan. 17, 2025.

Borgonzi arrived in Tennessee with 16 years of experience with the Kansas City Chiefs. For the last four seasons, he served as Kansas City's assistant general manager.

"Mike's experience speaks for itself: he has been part of the core team that delivered five AFC championships and three Super Bowls over the past six seasons," said Titans Controlling Owner Amy Adams Strunk. "It's the type of standard I want to build here in Tennessee. I know we have a lot of work ahead of us, and I'm excited for Mike to get started."

"During Mike's 16 years in the league, he has been a key part of transforming the Chiefs from a two-win team to a three-time Super Bowl champion," said Titans President of Football Operations Chad Brinker. "During our meetings, he articulated a clear plan to build a championship standard in Nashville through consistency, discipline, and hard work. I've admired him for many years and I'm thrilled to add him to the team as our general manager."

In Borgonzi's first offseason in Tennessee, the Titans acquired several veteran free agents. Among the most notable signings were tackle Dan Moore Jr. (previously with Pittsburgh); guard Kevin Zeitler (Detroit); linebacker Cody Barton (Denver); outside linebacker Dre'Mont Jones (Seattle); wide receivers Van Jefferson (Pittsburgh) and Tyler Lockett (Seattle); safety Xavier Woods (Carolina); punter Johnny Hekker (Carolina); and kicker Joey Slye (New England).

In April, Borgonzi led the process that concluded with the selection of Miami (Fla.) quarterback Cam Ward with the first overall pick in the 2025 NFL Draft. The team's nine total draft choices also included UCLA outside linebacker Oluwafemi Oladejo (second round), Penn State safety Kevin Winston Jr. (third round), Florida wide receiver Chimere Dike (fourth round), Texas tight end Gunnar Helm (fourth round), Stanford wide receiver Elic Ayomanor (fourth round), Sacramento State offensive lineman Jackson Slater (fifth round), California cornerback Marcus Harris (sixth round) and Michigan running back Kalel Mullings (sixth round).

During Borgonzi's time in Kansas City, he contributed to 12 playoff seasons (2010, 2013, 2015-24) and 10 AFC West titles (2010, 2016-24). Borgonzi helped construct a roster that won the AFC five times (2019-20, 2022-24) and captured three Super Bowl championships (2019, 2022-23) over a six-season span.

From 2017 to 2024, Borgonzi worked under Chiefs general manager Brett Veach. As the assistant general manager from 2021 through 2024, he supervised and directed the college and professional scouting operations while closely supporting and advising Veach with the club's roster management and player acquisition via the NFL Draft, free agency, waiver claims and trades. During his four seasons as assistant general manager, the Chiefs built a league-best 52-16 regular-season record (.765). In the same four-year span, 10 different Kansas City players earned a combined 23 Pro Bowl selections: tackle Orlando Brown Jr. (2021-22), wide receiver Tyreek Hill (2021), center Creed Humphrey (2022-24), defensive tackle Chris Jones (2021-24), tight end Travis Kelce (2021-24), quarterback Patrick Mahomes (2021-23), safety Tyrann Mathieu (2021), guard Trey Smith (2024), guard Joe Thuney (2022-24) and punter Tommy Townsend (2022).

The Chiefs entered the 2024 postseason after capturing their ninth consecutive AFC West crown. They tied the Detroit Lions for the NFL's best record at 15-2, setting a franchise record for wins in a regular season and securing the AFC's top seed. Twenty original Chiefs draft picks started at least six games for the team during the 2024 regular season. Kansas City had five players voted to the Pro Bowl, marking the seventh consecutive year in which it had at least five players earn the honor.

Prior to his promotion to assistant general manager, Borgonzi served as director of football operations (2018-20), director of player personnel (2017), co-director of player personnel (2015-16), assistant director of pro scouting (2013-14), pro personnel scout (2011-12) and manager of football operations (2010). He joined the Chiefs in 2009 as the club's college scouting administrator.

Before landing in the NFL with the Chiefs, Borgonzi spent the 2007 and 2008 seasons at Boston College, where he was the assistant recruiting coordinator. He also coached tight ends at Amherst College in 2002 before working in the financial sector in Boston for several years.

A native of Everett, Mass., Borgonzi graduated from Brown University, where he was a four-year starter at fullback and was a three-time All-Ivy League selection.

He and his wife, Jill, have a son, Joseph, and a daughter, Nina. His brother, Dave, has served as the linebackers coach for the Indianapolis Colts and Chicago Bears and currently serves as the linebackers coach for the Dallas Cowboys.

Brian Callahan was named head coach of the Titans on Jan. 24, 2024, becoming the 20th head coach in franchise history.

During his first season as head coach, Callahan guided a team that underwent significant personnel changes. In Week 1, 11 players started for the team who were added during the offseason—five players on offense and six on defense. Two of those players on offense, running back Tony Pollard (1,079 rushing yards) and wide receiver Calvin Ridley (1,017 receiving yards), went on to produce 1,000-yard seasons rushing and receiving, respectively.

All seven members of the Titans' 2024 draft class saw action in at least seven games as rookies. First-rounder JC Latham was the NFL's only rookie in 2024 to start 17 games at left tackle, while second-rounder T'Vondre Sweat appeared in every game and led all rookie defensive linemen in defensive snaps (667). Fifth-round cornerback Jarvis Brownlee Jr. was one of five NFL rookie defensive backs to start at least 14 games in 2024.

Defensively, the Titans finished Callahan's first season ranked second overall (311.2 opponent yards per game) and second in passing defense (177.3) despite a unit that suffered significant injuries. The starting secondary of safety Quandre Diggs (eight games played), safety Amani Hooker (14 games played), cornerback L'Jarius Sneed (five games played) and cornerback Chidobe Awuzie (eight games played) missed a combined total of 33 games.

Callahan, who at age 40 became the second-youngest head coach in Titans/Oilers history behind Jeff Fisher (36), arrived in Tennessee with 18 years of coaching experience and 14 years of NFL coaching experience, including the previous five seasons as the offensive coordinator for the Cincinnati Bengals.

During his time in Cincinnati, Callahan served under head coach Zac Taylor and was part of two AFC North titles, two AFC Championship appearances and a Super Bowl berth. He also helped guide quarterback Joe Burrow from the No. 1 overall draft pick in 2020 to multiple single-season franchise records by his second year and Pro Bowl honors within three years.

Over Callahan's final three seasons in Cincinnati (2021-23), the Bengals offense ranked in the NFL's top 10 in several categories: sixth in scoring (24.9), seventh in passing (250.8 yards per game), seventh in red-zone efficiency (61.5 percent), 10th in third-down percentage (41.0) and sixth in time of possession (31:00).

From the time Burrow entered the NFL in 2020 through the 2023 campaign, he recorded the league's seventh-best passer rating (98.6) and tied for the third-best completion percentage (68.0). His 270.8 passing yards per game in that period ranked fifth.

Additionally, Cincinnati's offense under Callahan featured a trio of 1,000-yard wide receivers in Ja'Marr Chase (2021-23), Tee Higgins (2021-22) and Tyler Boyd (2019). Chase quickly emerged as one of the NFL's top wide receivers after being drafted in the first round in 2021. He earned three consecutive Pro Bowl nods and became the eighth player in NFL history to reach 1,000 receiving yards in each of his first three career seasons, including 1,216 yards on a career-high 100 receptions in 2023. Boyd's statistical highlights included 1,046 receiving yards in 2019, while Higgins contributed 1,091 yards in 2021 and 1,029 yards in 2022.

Bengals running back Joe Mixon exceeded 1,000 scrimmage yards four times in five seasons with Callahan as his offensive coordinator. From 2019 through 2023, he joined Christian McCaffrey and Aaron Jones as the NFL's only players with at least 4,500 rushing yards (4,618) and 1,500 receiving yards (1,556). Mixon was named to the Pro Bowl in 2021.

In 2023, Burrow was limited to 10 total games due to multiple injuries. Backup Jake Browning stepped into the lineup, and in the first action of his career, he registered a season passer rating of 98.4—qualifying as the seventh-best number in the NFL.

In 2022, the Bengals ranked seventh in the NFL in points per game (26.1), eighth in total offense (360.5 yards per game) and fifth in passing offense (265.0). Burrow earned his first career Pro Bowl selection while setting single-season franchise records for completions (414) and touchdown passes (35). The third-year signal caller also placed fifth in the NFL with 4,475 passing yards. The team's new-look offensive line came together during the season and did not allow more than two sacks in any of the final eight games of the regular season.

En route to an appearance in Super Bowl LVI, the 2021 Bengals ranked seventh in passing offense (259.0 yards per game) and tied for seventh in points per game (27.1). Burrow, after returning from a knee injury suffered in 2020, led the NFL in completion percentage (70.4) and established single-season Bengals records for passing yards (4,611) and passer rating (108.3). Chase was named the AP Offensive Rookie of the Year after posting a team-record 1,455 receiving yards, while Mixon placed third in the NFL in rushing yards (1,205).

In 2020, Callahan helped develop Burrow as a rookie despite facing the challenges associated with the COVID-19 pandemic, including the cancellation of all in-person NFL offseason programs. Before a knee injury ended his rookie campaign in Week 11, Burrow's 264 completions were the most ever by an NFL quarterback through his first 10 career games, while his 2,688 passing yards were fifth.

Callahan joined the Bengals after spending 2018 as the quarterbacks coach for the Oakland Raiders. Under his tutelage, Raiders quarterback Derek Carr passed for a then-career-high 4,049 yards and led the AFC with a 68.9 completion percentage.

From 2016 to 2017, Callahan was the quarterbacks coach for the Detroit Lions. Working with Matthew Stafford, he helped the veteran

He then spent two years (2008-09) as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for Junipero Serra High School in San Mateo, Calif.

As a former walk-on quarterback at UCLA, he appeared in 13 games as a holder on PATs. He earned a bachelor's degree in sociology in 2006 and added a master's in education in 2008.

Born in Champaign, Ill., Callahan attended De La Salle High School in Concord, Calif., where he was a part of the school's national-record 151-game winning streak and a No. 1 national ranking.

He and his wife, Allyson, have a son, Ronan, and a daughter, Norah. He is the son of longtime NFL coach Bill Callahan, the current Titans offensive line coach.

NISSAN STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of an exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

Eight years later, on Nov. 17, 2023, the Titans and Nissan North America announced a new agreement: a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that brands the new Titans home venue as 'Nissan Stadium.'

Slated for completion in 2027, the new Nissan Stadium will host Titans home games, Tennessee State University football games, concerts, large-scale events and other community events.

"This partnership is a natural extension of our already longstanding friendship with Nissan," said Burke Nihill, Titans President and CEO. "Our mission at the Titans is to Win, Serve, and Entertain. We pride ourselves on collaborating with organizations who love this city and state as much as we do, and for the past 40 years, Nissan has invested more than $10.5 billion statewide, serving as a great example of an outstanding corporate steward and community advocate. We look forward to the continued positive impact of this relationship for the Titans organization and the City of Nashville."

"Since 2015 our fans and organization have called our home 'Nissan Stadium,' and we are proud to continue that tradition in the new stadium as we deepen and expand our relationship with them," said Titans Chief Revenue Officer Adam Nuse. "The new stadium will host the world's largest events, as well as serve as a community hub for our local neighbors. We're excited to have a partner like Nissan embark on this journey with us as we look towards the future."

The partnership will feature dedicated areas in the new stadium for brand experiences and displays, innovative technology integration, and involvement in Titans broadcast platforms. Nissan also will support a to-be-determined program in the Titans' ONE Community philanthropic platform, which reaches Nashville's most underrepresented and marginalized communities with a focus on three areas – Opportunity, Neighborhoods and Education.

"Nissan Stadium is a centerpiece of the Nashville skyline and has become a household name in Middle Tennessee. It is important for Nissan to keep our name on the new stadium," said Jérémie Papin, chairperson, Nissan Americas. "As more people come to Nashville both to visit and to live in this wonderful city, Nissan Stadium is true showcase for our brand and for the career opportunities we've offered here for more than four decades. This partnership sends a strong message about the bright future for Nissan, the Titans, Nashville and the State of Tennessee."

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin. Nissan is home to more than 11,000 employees across all three locations.

"Nissan has been a strong partner to middle Tennessee for four decades, and I'm thrilled that the Titans have united with a partner that invests in our community and its people," said Nashville Mayor Freddie O'Connell. "The familiarity and trust they've established with the Titans in the last eight years will undoubtedly be a great asset as we plan for the stadium's opening in 2027."

The new Nissan stadium will be built on the east side of the current stadium campus, along Nashville's East Bank. Features of the building include: a circular translucent roof; exterior porches with panoramic views of Nashville; improved sightlines for all spectators through a range of diverse seating experiences; and a 12,000 square foot community space available for use year-round. A waitlist for those interested in purchasing PSLs or suites is now open at NewNissanStadium.com.

In the divisional playoffs, he set a franchise postseason record with three sacks.

In 2020, Simmons appeared and started in 15 games. With three defensive fumble recoveries, he tied Chase Young for the most in the NFL in 2020 and was the first Titans defender with three fumble recoveries in a season since 2005, when linebacker Brad Kassell accomplished the feat. Simmons ranked second on the team with 19 quarterback pressures and added 49 tackles, three sacks, three tackles for loss, five passes defensed and one forced fumble. In the franchise's "Titans era" (since 1999), he became the first player to post at least three fumble recoveries, three sacks and five passes defensed in the same season. Long snapper Morgan Cox is in his 16th NFL season and his fifth campaign with the Titans in 2025. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 19, 2021.

In 2024, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties for the fourth consecutive season. With 68 consecutive games played in his first four seasons with the Titans, he finished the 2024 campaign with the longest active streak of games played for the team. It was the 12th time in his career he appeared in every game for his team.

With Cox serving as the team's long snapper, kicker Nick Folk led the NFL in field goal percentage for the second consecutive season in 2024. Folk connected on 21 of 22 field goals for an NFL-best rate of 95.5 percent. Meanwhile, punter Ryan Stonehouse ranked third in the NFL with an average of 50.6 yards per punt attempt. Also in 2024, Cox was a finalist for the NFL's Bart Starr Award for the second consecutive year.

Cox finished the 2024 season with a career total of 233 games played. He ranked 10th among all active NFL players, and his total also moved him past Reggie White (232 games) for the fourth-most NFL games played by a former University of Tennessee Volunteer behind tight end Jason Witten (271 NFL games), quarterback Peyton Manning (266) and punter Dustin Colquitt (255).

In 2023, Cox's efforts helped Folk lead the NFL in field goal accuracy (96.7 percent) and helped Stonehouse lead the NFL for a second consecutive season in gross punting average (53.1).

In 2022, Cox was named to his fifth career Pro Bowl. He has more Pro Bowl appearances than any other player at his position since the league began naming long snappers to the Pro Bowl in 2004.

His steady play in 2022 helped Stonehouse, a rookie, lead the league and set a new NFL record with a 53.1-yard gross punting average. Stonehouse also finished fourth in the NFL and set a rookie record with a 44.0-yard net average. Meanwhile, kicker Randy Bullock made 17 of 20 field goals (85.0 percent) and made all 28 extra point attempts.

In 2021, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties in 17 regular season games and one postseason game. He helped Bullock finish ninth in franchise history with 120 points in a single season, including three game-winning field goals (Sept. 19 at Seattle, Oct. 31 at Indianapolis and Dec. 23 against San Francisco). He also snapped for punter Brett Kern, who had the league's third-best ratio of punts inside the 20 to touchbacks (18:1).

In his first 11 seasons, Cox appeared in 165 regular season games for the Baltimore Ravens, serving as the team's primary long snapper after entering the NFL as an undrafted free agent in 2010. He was selected to four Pro Bowls and was a part of five playoff teams in Baltimore, totaling 10 postseason games played.

In 2020, he earned his fourth career Pro Bowl selection. He helped kicker Justin Tucker record his fifth consecutive season with at least 130 points, tying the NFL record of consecutive seasons with 130-plus points. Tucker connected on 26 of 29 field goals (89.7 percent) and was 52 of 53 on extra points (98.1 percent). Cox also snapped on all 51 of Sam Koch's 51 punts, as Koch was the NFL's only punter to place at least 20 punts (22) inside in the 20-yard line and have no more than one touchback.

A native of Collierville, Tenn., Cox played 38 games in three seasons (2007-09) as the primary long snapper at the University of Tennessee.
