TITANS TO HOST JAGUARS, WEAR MUSIC CITY UNIFORMS

Tennessee Titans (1-7) vs. Jacksonville Jaguars (6-2)

Sunday, Nov. 15, 2026 • 12 p.m. CST • Nissan Stadium • Nashville, Tenn. • TV: FOX/WZTV-17

NASHVILLE — The Tennessee Titans (1-7) return from their bye to host the AFC South rival Jacksonville Jaguars (6-2) this week. Kickoff at Nissan Stadium (capacity 69,143) is scheduled for noon CST on Sunday, Nov. 15.

For the first time, the Titans will don their "Music City" uniforms. The uniform features include Titans Blue helmets with navy jerseys and pants; the team's "Music City" script logo across the chest plate; a neon-inspired number font, which is a nod to Nashville's famous neon signage; and a six-string stripe along the side of the pants.

This is the first of two Titans-Jaguars contests in a three-week span. The rematch will take place at Jacksonville's EverBank Stadium on Nov. 29.

TITANS LOOK TO BUILD OFF PERFORMANCE AT CINCINNATI

Prior to their Week 9 bye, the Titans visited Cincinnati and took the Bengals to overtime before falling by a final score of 43-36. The 36 points were their most since Oct. 10, 2021 at Jacksonville (37), and their 440 total yards gave the Titans their best output since Sept. 19, 2021 at Seattle (532).

Second-year quarterback Cam Ward delivered his first career 300-yard passing performance, completing 26-of-40 passes for 304 yards with a pair of touchdowns and no interceptions. His 104.6 passer rating ranked second for his career for any game with 20-plus attempts. He also posted a career-best 41 yards on seven carries, rushed for a two-point conversion, and passed for another two-point conversion.

Ward's effort was complemented by running back Tony Pollard, who turned in his second consecutive 100-yard outing. He rushed 21 times for 117 yards with two touchdowns and added 20 receiving yards for a total of 137 scrimmage yards.

On the other side of the ball, defensive end Jacob Martin established a career high with three sacks and leads the Titans in 2026 with a career-best 6.5 sacks.

THE JAGUARS

While the Titans are coming off a bye, the Jaguars also will have a long week to prepare for this Sunday. They traveled to Baltimore for Thursday Night Football last week and won 33-10. The victory preserved their three-game lead within the AFC South, ahead of the second-place Houston Texans (3-5).

In his sixth NFL campaign, Jaguars quarterback Trevor Lawrence has completed 18 touchdown passes with four interceptions. The 2021 first-overall draft pick ranks second in the NFL with a 111.7 passer rating.

Head coach Liam Coen is in his second year in Jacksonville. In 2025, his team went 13-4 to secure an AFC South title. He became the NFL's first rookie head coach to win 13-plus games after inheriting a team that won four or fewer games the season before he was hired.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR THIS WEEK

TEAM TAKEAWAYS
- The Titans can record their fourth consecutive game with at least two takeaways. The last time they did so within a season was a five-game streak from Week 1 to Week 5 of 2008.

NET YARDS
- After gaining 322 yards against Cleveland in Week 7 and 440 yards at Cincinnati in Week 8, the Titans can post three consecutive games with 320-plus yards for the first time since a seven-game streak in 2021 (Weeks 2-8).

LB ANTHONY HILL JR.
- Can begin his career with his ninth consecutive game with at least five tackles. Hill and current New York Giants rookie Arvell Reese can become the NFL's first rookies to post five tackles in each of his team's first nine games of a season since Green Bay's Quay Walker did so as a rookie in 2022.

DE TRUMAN JONES
- Can become the first Titans player since the beginning of the 2000 season to produce a four-game streak with at least two special teams tackles in each contest (GSIS special teams tackle statistics).

DE JACOB MARTIN
- Martin, who leads the Titans with a career-best 6.5 sacks in 2026, can register his sixth game in 2026 with at least a half sack.

RB TONY POLLARD
- Enters the contest ranked 12th in franchise history with 2,756 rushing yards. He needs 14 rushing yards to break into the Titans/Oilers top 10, surpassing Chris Brown (2,757) for 11th place and Ronnie Coleman (2,769) for 10th place.
- Can register his third consecutive game with at least 100 rushing yards and two rushing touchdowns. The only players in franchise history to do so are Earl Campbell in 1980 (Weeks 8-10) and Chris Johnson in 2009 (Weeks 8-10). The last NFL player to accomplish the feat was Pittsburgh's James Connor in 2018 (three games in Weeks 5-8).
- Can record his third consecutive 100-yard rushing game and his 16th career 100-yard rushing game. It would match his career-best streak for consecutive 100-yard rushing games (2025 Weeks 14-16).
- Can record his third consecutive game with 130 scrimmage yards, which would mark the first such three-game streak of his career.

WR WAN'DALE ROBINSON
- Can increase his streak to 51 consecutive individual games with at least one reception.

G PETER SKORONSKI
- Has a team-best active streak of 55 consecutive starts entering the week.

WR CARNELL TATE
- With 413 receiving yards entering the week, he needs 87 more to join Bill Groman (796 in 1960) and Ernest Givins (545 in 1986) as the only rookies in franchise history with 500 receiving yards in the team's first nine games.
- With 34 receptions entering the week, Tate needs six receptions to join Bill Groman (46 in 1960) and Kendall Wright (42 in 2012) as the only rookies in franchise history with 40 receptions in the team's first nine games.

QB CAM WARD
- With a 300-yard passing performance this week, he will notch the team's first back-to-back 300-yard passing games since Matt Hasselbeck in Weeks 2-3 of 2011.

MUSIC CITY UNIFORMS

The Titans are scheduled to don their 2026 “Music City” Rivalries uniforms this week, featuring the team’s iconic Two-Tone Blue color palette blended with elements of Nashville’s vibrant culture.

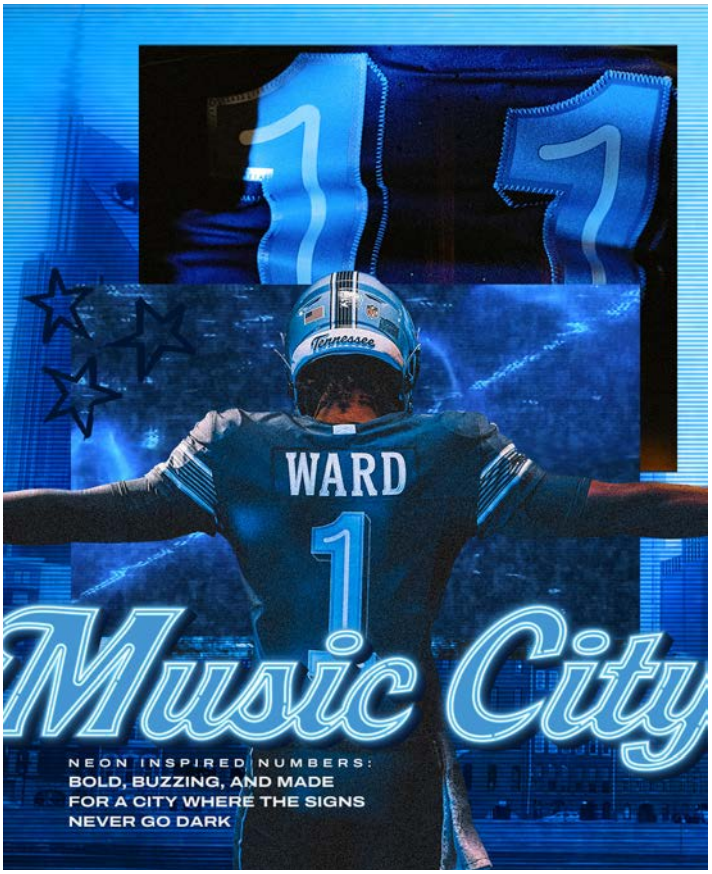

Features of the Music City uniform include:

- A Titans Blue helmet shell with navy jerseys and pants
- The team’s “Music City” script logo across the chest plate
- Neon-inspired number font, a nod to Nashville’s famous neon signage
- The rhythmic 6-string stripe along the side of the pants

The Rivalries program is a partnership with Nike that deepens the connection between football, fandom and the communities that fuel them through distinct uniform designs created for each participating team. Eight teams across two divisions are selected to wear the uniform against a division rival at home, with the AFC South and NFC North as this year’s selected divisions.

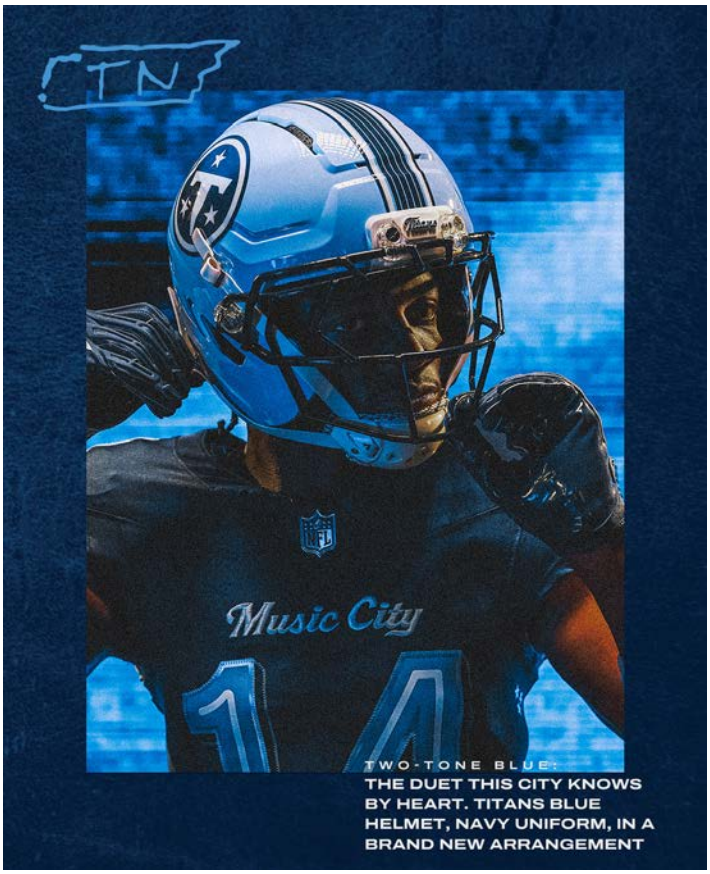

The uniform will remain in the team’s uniform rotation for three seasons.

The Music City jersey and fan gear is available online at https://Shop.TennesseeTitans.com and in-person at the Titans Team Store at Nissan Stadium. For more information on the Music City uniform, visit www.TennesseeTitans.com/MusicCity.

SERIES HISTORY

The Jaguars are the Titans' longest-standing division rival. The clubs have met at least twice each year since Jacksonville began play as an expansion franchise in 1995. For the first seven seasons of the rivalry they played in the AFC Central, and since 2002 they have been members of the AFC South.

The teams have met a total of 63 times, with the Titans holding a 35-28 advantage. The Titans won five consecutive matchups from 2019 to 2021. Since then, however, the Jaguars have taken seven of the last eight in the series, including sweeps in 2024 and 2025.

In the first matchup of 2025 (Nov. 30), the Jaguars visited Nissan Stadium and handed the Titans a 25-3 defeat. Jaguars quarterback Trevor Lawrence passed for 229 yards and two touchdowns, while Jacksonville limited the Titans to a 28-yard field goal by Joey Slye.

In the rematch at EverBank Stadium to conclude the regular season (Jan. 4), Titans rookie quarterback Cam Ward was injured on a touchdown run to conclude the offense's first possession, and he did not return. The Jaguars then scored 41 unanswered points to win 41-7.

The last win by the Titans against the Jaguars was in the 2023 season finale (Jan. 7, 2024) at EverBank Stadium. The Titans grabbed a 28-20 victory to deprive the Jaguars of a playoff berth and an AFC South title.

In the 2022 finale, played at EverBank Stadium on Jan. 7, 2023, the Titans and Jaguars played to decide the AFC South title. The Jaguars scored the game-winning touchdown with less than three minutes remaining on the clock on a 37-yard fumble return by linebacker Josh Hines-Allen, ending Tennessee's season and propelling Jacksonville to the postseason.

The Titans and Jaguars have met five times on Thursday Night Football. The last occasion was Sept. 19, 2019. The Jaguars won 20-7, taking a 3-2 lead in the Thursday night series. Jaguars then-rookie quarterback Gardner Minshew earned his first career victory as a starter in the contest.

On Thursday night, Dec. 6, 2018, Titans running back Derrick Henry rushed for a then-franchise-record 238 yards and four touchdowns on 17 carries, lifting the Titans to a 30-9 win over the Jaguars. On one of his scores, Henry matched Tony Dorsett to become only the second running back in NFL history to record a 99-yard rushing attempt.

The stakes of the rivalry were never higher than in 1999, when the Titans and Jaguars met three times, including the AFC Championship Game in Jacksonville. Steve McNair rushed for two touchdowns and Derrick Mason returned a safety kick 80 yards for a touchdown as the Titans earned their first Super Bowl berth with a 33-14 win. Tennessee went on to Super Bowl XXXIV and eventually fell at the hands of the St. Louis Rams, 23-16.

The Jaguars played their first game in franchise history against the then-Houston Oilers on Sept. 3, 1995. In Jacksonville, the Oilers won the game by a 10-3 final score.

TITANS-JAGUARS: THE LAST MEETING

2025 Week 18: Titans 7, Jaguars 41
Sunday Jan. 4, 2026 • 1:00 p.m. EST • EverBank Stadium

In Week 18 of the 2025 season, the Titans traveled to division rival Jacksonville Jaguars and fell by a score of 41-7 in the season finale.

The Titans got off to a promising start. After DT Jeffery Simmons recorded his 11th sack of the season on the opening play, the Jaguars were forced to punt after a three-and-out.

QB Cam Ward and the Titans offense took over, driving 58 yards on five plays before Ward found the end zone on a seven-yard run to make it 7-0 early in the first quarter. However, Ward was injured on the play and was ruled out for the remainder of the game.

Things went downhill from there as the Jaguars scored 41 unanswered points.

A 23-yard touchdown pass from QB Trevor Lawrence to WR Parker Washington made it 7-7 before TE Brenton Strange's seven-yard catch from Lawrence made it 14-7.

Then Jaguars CB Antonio Johnson picked off QB Brandon Allen, who was playing in place of the injured Ward, and returned it 58 yards for a touchdown to make it 21-7 midway through the second quarter.

A five-yard touchdown pass from Lawrence to TE Quinton Morris made it 28-7. A 67-yard field goal by K Cam Little at the halftime horn made it 31-7 at the break.

Another Little field goal, this one from 52 yards with 1:03 left in the third quarter, made it 34-7 Jaguars.

QB Nick Mullens replaced Lawrence in the fourth quarter. RB Bhayshul Tuten made it 41-7 on a five-yard touchdown run with 7:28 left.

K Joey Slye missed a 52-yard field goal in the final minutes and the Jaguars ended the game in victory formation and dropped the Titans to 3-14 on the season.

Liam Coen was named head coach of the Jaguars on Jan. 24, 2025. Coen joined Jacksonville after spending the 2024 season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as offensive coordinator.

During his first season as a head coach, Coen led the Jaguars to a 13-4 record, the second most regular season wins in franchise history. After a four-win campaign in 2024, Jacksonville's 13-4 record was the first of its kind with a rookie head coach following a season with four or fewer wins. Under Coen, the AFC South champion Jaguars set several franchise records, including points scored (474), touchdowns scored (55), points per game (27.9) and first downs (356). Defensively, Jacksonville led the NFL in run defense (85.6 ypg) and ranked second in takeaways with 31.

With Tampa Bay, Coen's offense set Buccaneers franchise records for completion percentage (71.5 percent), passer rating (106.8), yards per rush (5.3), rushing yards (2,536) and third-down conversion rate (50.9 percent).

Under Coen, quarterback Baker Mayfield set career highs in passer rating (106.8), passing yards (4,500) and passing touchdowns (41). Offensive lineman Tristan Wirfs earned Pro Bowl and first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors and wide receiver Mike Evans recorded his NFL-record-tying 11th consecutive 1,000-receiving seasons.

Before Tampa Bay, Coen served as offensive coordinator at the University of Kentucky in 2023 and 2021. In between the two stints with Kentucky, he served in his first NFL offensive coordinator role with the Los Angeles Rams in 2022. This came after three seasons on the Rams' offensive staff from 2018 (assistant wide receivers coach) to 2020 (assistant quarterbacks coach). As assistant wide receivers coach with the Rams, he helped Robert Woods and Brandin Cooks to 1,200-plus-yard receiving seasons in 2018 and Cooper Kupp to his first 1,000-yard campaign in 2019.

Before Los Angeles, Coen spent two seasons as the offensive coordinator for the University of Maine from 2016-17. Prior to Maine, Coen coached quarterbacks at the University of Massachusetts (2014-15), where he also served as passing game coordinator, Brown University (2010, 12-13) and the University of Rhode Island (2011), where he was also passing game coordinator.

As a collegiate player, Coen played quarterback at the University of Massachusetts. He holds program records with 830 completions, 1,302 attempts, 63.7 completion percentage, 11,031 passing yards, 8.5 yards per attempts, 50 passing touchdowns and a 150.7 passer rating.

In Week 8 of the 2026 NFL season, the Titans traveled to Cincinnati and fell 43-36 in an overtime thriller. The Titans jumped out to a fast start. A 10-play, 52-yard opening drive resulted in a 46-yard field goal by K Joey Slye to give the Titans a 3-0 lead with 10:52 left in the opening quarter. After a three-and-out from the defense, the Titans got the ball back, and RB Tony Pollard capped that drive off with 40-yard touchdown run to make it 10-0 just eight minutes into the contest. Pollard recorded 117 yards on the day, marking consecutive games with 100 rushing yards. On the next Bengals possession, S Amani Hooker intercepted Burrow for the first of three times, and after another efficient drive by QB Cam Ward, Slye made it 13-0 with a 29-yard field goal with 2:14 left in the first quarter. The Bengals responded on their next possession, as Burrow connected with WR Ja'Marr Chase for a 30-yard touchdown to make it 13-7 at the 13:20 mark of the second quarter. A fumble by WR Wan'Dale Robinson, gave the Bengals possesssion back. But on a fourth-and-two play for Cincinnati, from the Tennessee five-yard line, DE Jacob Martin sacked Burrow for a 15-yard loss and Titans regained possession. It was one of three sacks for Martin, who set a career single-game high. Tennessee went three-and-out on the next drive, and Cincinnati took over at the Titans' 39-yard line. Burrow then led a nine-play, 67-yard drive and connected with TE Jack Endries on a one-yard touchdown pass with 20 seconds left in the half to give the Bengals a 14-13 lead. The second half featured back-to-back turnovers by both teams with Hooker notching his second interception of the game before Ward was stripped-sacked in Titans territory. On the next play, Burrow connected with WR Tee Higgins for a 17-yard touchdown pass to make it 21-13 at the 12:25 mark of the third quarter. The Titans fought back. On their next possession, Ward drove the Titans 80 yards on eight plays, and the drive was capped off with a one-yard touchdown run by Pollard. After Ward ran in the two-point conversion, it was 21-21 with 7:47 left in the third quarter. Hooker tallied his third interception of the day later in the third quarter to give the ball to the Titans offense on their own five-yard line. However, a false start put them at their own three-yard line and then Pollard was tackled in the end zone after receiving a handoff. The safety gave the Bengals a 23-21 lead with 46 seconds left in the third quarter. But the Titans made yet another play on defense, as Kevin Winston Jr. recovered a fumble forced by CB Alontae Taylor near midfield with 13:24 left in the game. The Titans capitalized and took the lead on an 11-yard touchdown pass from Ward to WR Chimere Dike, which made it 28-23 with 11:29 left. But the Bengals answered back with 25-yard touchdown pass from Burrow to TE Mike Gesicki to make it 29-28 with 7:13 remaining. Ward threw a 15-yard touchdown pass to receiver Wan'Dale Robinson with 3:46 left to give the the Titans a 36-29 lead. But Burrow threw an 18-yard touchdown pass to receiver Tee Higgins to tie score with 1:17 left. A 13-yard pass from Ward to WR Elic Ayomanor moved the Titans across midfield however facing third-and-three, Ward took a 13-yard sack and the Titans were forced to punt to send the game to overtime. In overtime, Burrow scored on a nine-yard touchdown run, and the Titans weren't able to match on their possession in the extra time dropping them to 1-7 heading into the bye week.

- The 36 points scored by the Titans were their most since a 37-point output at Jacksonville on Oct. 10, 2021.
- The 79 combined points by the Titans (36) and Bengals (43) were the most combined points in any Titans game since the Titans (41) and Houston Texans (38) combined for 79 points on Jan. 3, 2021.
- The Titans scored 15 points in the fourth quarter at Cincinnati. Their 70 points in the fourth quarter in 2026 ranked fourth in the NFL through the early afternoon games of Nov. 1.
- The Titans recorded four takeaways – their most since forcing four turnovers at Denver on Sept. 7, 2025.
- The Titans logged their third consecutive game with at least two takeaways. The last time they had such a three-game streak was Week 7 to Week 9 of 2021.
- The Titans offense generated 440 yards of total offense at Cincinnati, the team's highest output since gaining 532 offensive yards at Seattle on Sept. 19, 2021.
- Cam Ward's 304 passing yards was the most for a Titans player since Will Levis threw for 327 yards at Miami on Dec. 11, 2023. The team's 282 net passing yards was the most since a home game against Cincinnati on Dec.15, 2024.
- Tony Pollard led Tennessee's rushing attack with 117 rushing yards individually to contribute to the 158-yard team total. The Titans outrushed the Bengals (75) by 83 yards.
- Chimere Dike, Gunnar Helm and Wan'Dale Robinson each finished with at least five receptions and 50 receiving yards, while Dike and Helm each topped 70 receiving yards, with 71 and 76, respectively.
- In their first three possessions, the Titans scored two field goals and a touchdown, marking their first game in which they scored on each of their first three drives since Nov. 24, 2024 at Houston.
- In the first quarter, the Titans offense generated 177 yards and jumped out to a 13-0 lead. The Titans scored on all three of their possessions, the first time they've cashed in on their first three drives since Nov. 24, 2024 at Houston. Joey Slye connected on field goals from 46 and 29 yards, and Tony Pollard ran in a 41-yard touchdown. Cam Ward completed 10 of 15 pass attempts for 109 yards, the highest first quarter totals of his career and his most passing yards in a single quarter since he had 193 passing yards in the fourth quarter at Arizona on Oct. 5, 2025.

- In the last two games, the Titans tallied five rushing touchdowns, more than any other team in the league over Weeks 7 and 8 through the early afternoon games of Nov. 1. Five rushing touchdowns was the most the Titans scored in a two-game span since Weeks 6 and 7 of the 2021 season, when the Titans scored four rushing touchdowns against the Bills and another one the following week against Kansas City.
- The Titans converted on both their two-point attempts, with Ward running for a conversion in the third quarter and connecting with Helm in the end zone to go up seven points in the fourth quarter. They became the third team to convert two two-point tries in a single game this season (Atlanta against Chicago in Week 6; Denver against L.A. Rams in Week 3). The last time it occurred was Dec. 9, 2007, when Seattle's Marcus Trufant (three interceptions) and Patrick Kerney (three sacks) accomplished the feat.
- The Titans defense registered six tackles for loss. It was the unit's fifth game in 2026 with at least five tackles for loss.

Injuries real quick — Petey (Skoronski) with a 'Hammy' (hamstring) suffered on the extra point on the last touchdown drive. JC (Latham) is dealing with a hand. Marcus (Harris) with an ankle and James Williams (Sr.) is dealing with a groin.

What did you think of the team's effort and the disappointment after losing today?

I feel like I stand up here every week and say the same thing. I think our guys fight their tails off. Last five minutes, we need to figure it out. End of game situations, we got to win. That's the sixth time this year.

You scored 36 points and got four takeaways. How is that not a formula to win?

That's an explosive offense. We knew that it was going to be feast or famine this week with the entire design of the scheme. We were able to take the ball away four times, but we are leaving ourselves susceptible to some big shots. The only way to try to keep up with those guys was to get takeaways, score 36 points. I thought we did a good job at times and then there's other times where I thought we could be better. But overall, I thought our guys fought their (butts) off.

What progress did you see from Cam Ward?

He looked awesome today. I don't know what his numbers were, but I thought the offense was outstanding today. The tempo really does help Cam. We had an opportunity there at the end of the game. I wish we would have finished it right there with the Joey Slye kick. But just couldn't get there into field goal range in that moment. I thought they did a really nice job. There's a couple of things, again, we're going to look back feel like we could've done better but when you score that many points, you should win the football game.

What happened on the sack there? He knows he can't get sacked.

He knows, but also you've got to take care of the football and live to fight another down. He's still stuck in the pocket, you can't just launch it. So credit to them.

What do you want to evaluate about the secondary?

We ended up with three interceptions, which was the positive part. I'm going to give those guys a lot of credit. Joe (Burrow) is playing the best football, I've said this, he is playing the best football I've ever seen him play. He's got two really damn good receivers, an elite tight end and a really good back to throw out of the backfield. They're pretty special on that side of the ball. From this game stand point, we're going more feast or famine and trying to create takeaways and try to create put them on edge and create pressure. When you do that, it's going to be hit or miss. We gave ourselves opps on that side of the ball, but at that same time we knew there was going to be opportunities for them too. And he's pretty good at it.

How did you feel Alontae Taylor did today?

I thought he did a nice job. He's been training hard at it. There's a couple things where he could have been better positioned. I thought he made an impact on the game.

How do you feel Amani Hooker and Jacob Martin did today?

Amani is playing at a Pro Bowl level. I think he's got five interceptions on the year. He is impactful in the back end, the things that we can do with him with our dime package. It's pretty cool because of him. He is playing at an elite level from a safety stand point. And even still, he's got things he's got to clean up. I thought Jacob did a nice job. That's the thing, there's going to be a lot of guys who flashed today. At the same time, it was an explosive game on both sides.

How many yards do you think you gave away on holds on special teams and why this keeps happening?

It keeps happening, and it's something we keep addressing. It's something we got to be better at.

Once you get back to Nashville and evaluate the guys, do you feel like most of the guys will be ready once they play Jacksonville following the bye?

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

I think a lot of guys will get healthy. It's been eight straight weeks of football with no Thursday Night game, nothing in between there. Our guys need a break. They'll take advantage of this break, hopefully, and attack it the right way, but there's a bunch of guys who could use these two weeks.

What type of explanation did you get on that pass interference call from the refs at the end of the half?

Not a good enough one.

There was a report that you had a really good practice after the Jeffery Simmons trade. Can you characterize or tell us anything about that practice and how you feel the response was?

These young men are resilient. They're a hell of a lot more resilient than we are as society as adults, I guess you could say. They attacked the week exactly the way they needed to. And I hate to say it this way or minimize it, we can't allow the context of Jeffery (Simmons) not being here get in the way of what needs to happen. If he was injured, we would all be gung go about next man up and trying to take advantage of opportunities, but we traded him. So the context might be different but the result can't change. Somebody needs to step up, and I thought some guys did today.

What's your message after a game like this?

What do you say when a group of men go on the field, and they hit the road and they give you everything they've got, everything they've got, and they fall short. What do you tell them? I appreciate the heck out of them. Not to be confused with moral victories, because that ain't it. This is the NFL. You're going to win some and lose some. I do believe that if we play with the fight, the energy and the intent that I think our guys played with, we're going to be on the right side more often than not. That Bengals team is going to be right there as one of the last four or eight teams alive this year. They're pretty freaking good. I do believe in our group, we've just got to figure out how to win in these fourth quarters. It's getting old, but it is what it is. 1-5 in one score games, the narrative would be completely different around these young men and we'd be seeing it differently. I love our group and we'll figure it out. I keep telling you guys, we're going to get it flipped. If our guys play and fight the way they did today, I've got confidence in them.

Cam Ward threw for over 300 yards. What does he have to do to convince you guys to try doing more things?

I feel like we have been. I thought guys did really a really good job of some run after catch. From my lens, when I watch Cam, it's like well how the hell do you believe in this when it is week-after-week? The kid is a fighter, he's a really good football player. But it's also an all-11 game from a protection stand point, to skill players making plays for your guy game. Even on the other side with Joe (Burrow). He's got guys making elite plays for him. I thought our guys did a really nice job making plays for him and run after the catch. I thought guys were schemed open. I thought (Brian) Daboll and his staff did a really nice job today. I thought we had them on their heels the entire day with some of the tempo, which I think Cam likes. At the end of the day, we fell a little bit short. I would have loved, it would have been a picture-perfect day if we could have put ourselves in a different position, if we could have gained 15 more yards on that last drive and put us in range for Joey (Slye). But it didn't happen. There's going to be a lot of things we can take out of this as a positive, but there's going to be things we're going to kick ourselves for, too.

You made that sound matchup driven. Might some of that now become philosophically driven?

Well it could be. We're going to keep trying to be as aggressive as we can and create explosive plays on both sides of the ball. Like I tell our defense all the time, our job defensively is to get the ball back to our offense as many times as possible. And then our job on offense, is to score points and finish somehow with a kick other than a punt. Make sure that we're scoring points either way. And it could be. We got to study. I think every game plan is going to be different to answer your question. Some games, we're going to have to bleed it and try to win the long game. And some days, we're going to have to try to be explosive on both sides and just wreak havoc.

What happened on the play with the safety?

Perfect play call for—a perfect play call. We're trying to run a draw and they hit it in the A-gap which is unaccounted for. Good by them.

QUARTERBACK CAM WARD

How disappointing was it for you in the end?

I think we just got to continue to play on time. If we do that from the run game perspective, when I do that from the pass game perspective, I think we're able to do some efficient stuff.

What allowed you to feel so comfortable today, making plays and doing the things you did?

I just continued to apply practice to the game, give my guys chances. Those guys getting open, and then I think the O-line continuing to do a good job, even though we lost Pete (Skoronski) and JC (Latham) down the stretch, I thought they did a good job keeping me upright.

How much did it help getting Tony Pollard going early?

It helped a lot. It's going to easily help with the passing game as soon as we get 20 going. He sees the holes well. He's able to make plays for me when I check the ball down to him. We just got to continue to build off of it. Continue to—Coach Dabs (Brian Daboll) continuing to put the ball in our hands like he always does and continue to make plays.

How disappointed are you with the final possession of regulation when you had a chance to get into field-goal range?

I think that's where we could have won the game right there. We shouldn't have gave them the opportunity to go to overtime. At the end of the day, it just came down to us not executing.

Robert Saleh said opening the game up was part of the gameplan, knowing you were going to have to slug it out with them to a degree. Having played as well as you did and getting 300 passing yards for the first time, would you like to see things open a little more like that regardless of the game?

I think just continuing doing what we do good in practice and applying it to the game. Staying on the ball allows us to think at a rapid pace and allows the defense to play to our tempo. And then, just continue to run the plays that we're good at, that we've been doing and just try to execute plays.

It seemed like a lot of running plays for you today. I'm not sure how many were designed. How comfortable are you running and would you like to run more?

It just depends on what Dabs (Brian Daboll) calls. It depends on the flow of the game is, if the (defensive) ends are crashing, if we have a couple of scramble drills I can go get some third downs if I need to. But it all depends on how the game is. Dabs, he's not a big quarterback run guy, but he knows if he needs to run me, I'm always open to doing it.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

On the sack, what was your thinking on not getting rid of the ball and holding on to it?

It really just kind of happened how it happened. It's a sack I can't take. I think I just need to watch the film and see what I could have done better in that moment.

The organization made a big move late in the week with trading Jeffery Simmons. What was the mindset and focus as team coming into this game?

To play our best ball. We know it's going to be all three phases. That's the only way you win games in the NFL. We didn't do that to a high enough level today to win. But change is good. It allows everyone to take a step back and rethink the position they're in. We just have to take advantage of every opportunity we get.

Knowing one of your major leaders was traded away, how much did you take it upon yourself to not fill that gap, but to be a leader of this team as the quarterback?

I just continue to be myself, day in and out of the facility. Continue to bring guys together on the offense or the defense and special teams. I think the biggest thing that the locker room knows about me is that I'm willing to do anything to win games. We have a tough schedule coming up after the bye week. We're going to try to get some wins against some division opponents and try to get on a little run from there.

Some of the guys said that they could see you had confidence in the huddle and got into a good rhythm today. How much did that help overall, getting off to a good start and building confidence?

I just think it goes down to the play calls with Dabs (Brian Daboll). He called play calls not only that I'm good at, but plays that the receivers feel comfortable with the O-line and pass protection. We mixed in a little RPOs, the screen game. There's a couple things we all want back, but I think to Dabs to continue to listen to the players and do a lot of things that we like to do.

You wanted the win obviously, but how encouraging is it to go into a bye week with an offensive performance like that?

Just continue to get better, continue to attack each and every day. It's really not a bye week. It's a week to get better. We can't take this week off. At the end of the day, we just need to continue to stack good games, stack good plays, and try to get some wins.

You talk so much about stacking. Do you take more out of this game that you can stack?

I think you take more out of each and every game. Whether it's a good play or bad play, you got to be able to learn from everything. There's a lot of stuff out there that we did good, but another defensive coordinator can see that and think he could get us on. Each and every play matters, and each and every game matters. We have to continue to try to win games.

What will you try to do with the bye week? Will you take a couple days to reset, or will you be grinding, watching film, working on mechanics, and things like that?

Everything, being a quarterback. Working out like it's a normal game week, watching film like a normal game week. I think the best thing about is that I get an extra week to watch more film, so I'll go into the game more prepared than I already am. I'll get to continue to game plan even longer with Coach Dabs (Brian Daboll) and Shea (Tierney). This bye week will be good for the locker room to get their bodies together. Guys who have kids to be with their families as much as they can and us reset and try to get a win coming out.

Do you feel like we've seen your best football in Tennessee yet?

I think it was a good game. But at the end of the day, we're trying to win games here. That's what the fans want and that's what we want.

A lot of your throws seemed to wind up in the middle of the field. Was that the game plan or where your reads were taking you? I know in the past you haven't done that as much.

It's both. I love being in the middle of the field. I can manipulate a lot of stuff in the middle of the field. But I think offensively we're starting to do a lot of things that get guys there. At the end of the day, we have to execute teach and every play. It's going to be plays, whether it's next game or down the road, plays that we don't feel comfortable with but we have to execute because it's good for the team. It all comes with us having elite communication with the coaching staff, and the coaching staff continuing to believe in us like they always do and just go execute plays at the end of the day.

What did Joe Burrow say to you at the end?

Just continue to keep going, that I'm a good quarterback, stay healthy, and I said the same thing to him.

TIGHT END GUNNAR HELM

How much should this game help your confidence in showing what you're capable of doing?

They told me when my time comes, I've got to be ready. I felt like I was ready to go.

It seemed like the playbook was a little more open today, throwing the ball down field a bit more...

Guys were just finding open space and we were just clicking on all cylinders. The line was blocking well, Cam was getting the ball out, and all of our receivers were involved.

DEFENSIVE TACKLE SOLOMON THOMAS

What did it mean for you guys to do something today to signal something with the armbands to Jeffery Simmons?

We just wanted to honor him because Jeffery means to world to us. We love Jeff. He's a huge part of our room and he's impacted all of us in ways he doesn't even know. The way he created a bond in the D-line room, the standard, the tenacity he plays with — we wanted to do something to honor him and to let him know he's still a part of us even though he's not here.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

What is the mindset going into the bye week?

Get away, reset and rest. We've had a lot of stuff happen in the last three, four weeks that has weighed heavy on our hearts, so get away, reset, rest and come back ready to put the details in the work, the will to want to win and finish the season the way we know we can.

What's it like to lose someone like that?

When someone leaves the room, it's hard so we wanted to show him how much we loved him and how much he means to us. Even though he's not a part of us, he's still a part of us.

What do you hope it means to him?

I hope that he just sees it and sees how much we appreciate him, because that's what it is to me. Appreciation to him and everything he's done for us. We want him to do the best that he can, which we know he will, and want him to win many games. We're excited for him.

DEFENSIVE LINEMAN JOHN FRANKLIN-MYERS

Talk about Jeffery Simmons and what you'd want to say to him ...

We just want to tell him that he's one of us, and he knows that. The impact he had on Tennessee, on the Titans, it's insurmountable. Nobody is going to be able to do something like that. The best we can do is to honor someone like that — a great that's come and played here. They shipped him off midseason, and he's in a good situation. We've got to keep that standard that he had upheld and just continue to do our thing.

What was practice like after the trade?

The interesting part about the NFL in general is you don't have time to sit here and think about it or let anything weigh on you. He got traded and five minutes later, we have meetings. You realize that the NFL moves fast, life moves fast, and truthfully, nobody cares because Jeff went to Chicago immediately and we immediately got to game planning. It's the sad part of the NFL. We were able to talk to him for a second, reach out to him and have a phone conversation also. He's in a good place.

Was it a rallying point at practice after the trade?

We had a great week of practice and what we put out there kind of represented that. We've got to finish that.

CORNERBACK ALONTAE TAYLOR

You got an opportunity and seemed to make the most of it today. Can you talk about what went on out there?

Just doing what I can do. I know who I am — a playmaker — and I feel I got to display that today.

The nickel position seems it like unlocks you a little ...

I felt very at home. It's a position I'm comfortable with. The scheme is a little different, so I am still learning. There are some areas I could have been better, but other than that, just the ability to open up and go. I feel like I got to do that.

Did it surprise you how much they were sending you (on blitzes)?

I think Coach (Robert) Saleh peeped it, trusted it and just made the call.

Talk about the last couple of weeks and what you've been through and how you've handled it ...

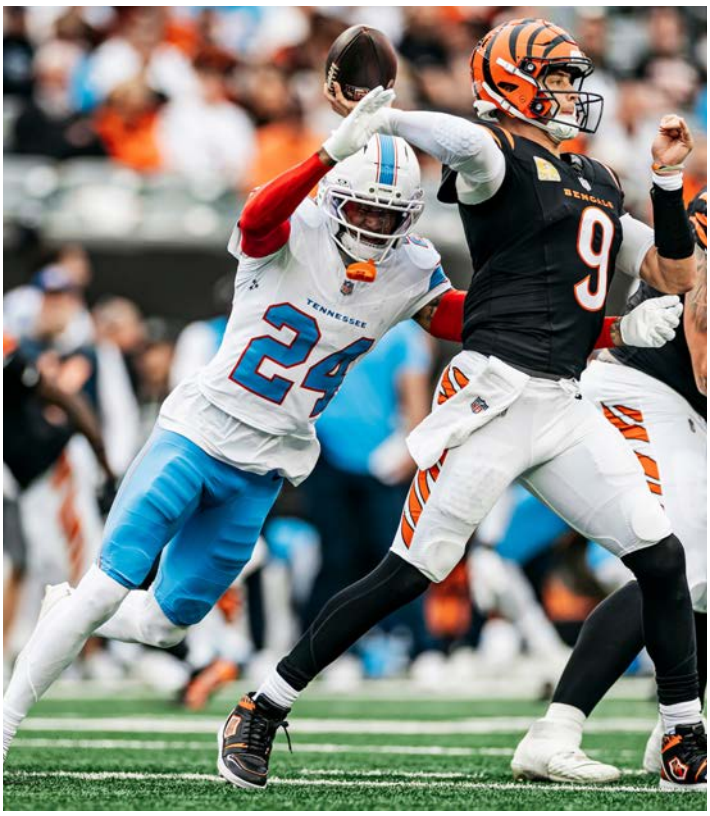

Just a testament to my faith. I handled it bad at first. I was in a bad spot. I talked to the people who trust me, talked to the people who truly love me and kept me in good spirits. I just talk to God every day, and I was just ready for my opportunity and continue to be the best teammate on the field, cheer my guys on. I feel like I took advantage of my opportunity today.

You've got the football from your forced fumble in your hand. Talk about what that means?

This a physical definition of this testimony and this journey I've been going through each of these past couple weeks. I'm definitely going to hold onto it.

What has it been like accepting the new role, the new position and embracing it?

This is year five for me. So what am I going to do? Keep complaining, being mad about it, I can't do that. I've got to adapt. I think that was the word I used when you first interviewed me. Nickel is a position I am comfortable with. I've just got to learn the defense, and once I learn that, I think I'll unlock some more and I'll be able to make some more splash plays.

2026 TITANS SCHEDULE NOTES

SEASON NOTES

- FAREWELL SEASON: With the opening of the new Nissan Stadium set for 2027, this season will mark the farewell season at the current Nissan Stadium. The Titans will open the campaign with a home game against the New York Jets in Week 1, and the team will close out its final regular season in the current building in Week 17 against the Pittsburgh Steelers. The Titans have already played more games at Nissan Stadium than any other venue in the franchise's history entering 2026. Including regular season and postseason games, the team has appeared 224 times at Nissan Stadium (119-105), one more than the 223 total contests at the Astrodome (116-105-2) from 1968 to 1996.
- PLAYOFF OPPONENTS: The Titans have six total games against four playoff teams from last season. They have home games against Houston, Jacksonville, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh and road contests at Houston and Jacksonville. Four of those games are against 2025 division winners: Jaguars twice (AFC South), Pittsburgh (AFC North) and Philadelphia (NFC East). This is the third consecutive year in which the Titans will have six games against reigning playoff clubs.
- TV BREAKDOWN: Excluding their Week 18 matchup at Houston, which has yet to be assigned a broadcasting network, the Titans are currently scheduled for 10 games on CBS and six games on FOX. Due to the NFL's flex scheduling, some contests could be moved to a different network from the one appearing on the initial schedule.
- TOP DRAFT PICKS: The Titans selected Carnell Tate with the fourth overall pick in this year's draft. The team is slated to face seven of the top-11 players selected in this years' draft, including Fernando Mendoza (first overall – Las Vegas), David Bailey (second overall – N.Y. Jets), Arvell Reese (fifth overall – N.Y. Giants), Sonny Styles (seventh overall – Washington), Spencer Fano (ninth overall – Cleveland), Francis Mauigoa (10th overall – N.Y. Giants) and Caleb Downs (11th overall – Dallas). Tate, Reese, Styles and Downs were teammates at Ohio State University.
- HEAD COACHING EXPERIENCE: Robert Saleh was one of 10 NFL head coaches who were hired by their teams this offseason, and the Titans will face five of the others: New York Giants' John Harbaugh, Baltimore's Jesse Minter, Cleveland's Todd Monken, Las Vegas' Klint Kubiak and Pittsburgh's Mike McCarthy. It is the first time since 2022 the Titans will face five-or-more head coaches in their first season with their team.
- THREE GAMES BASED UPON 2025 FINISH: Every NFL team has two intraconference games and one interconference matchup based on the previous year's standings. As a result of the Titans' fourth-place AFC South finish in 2025, they host the AFC East's fourth-place New York Jets, and they visit the AFC West's fourth-place Las Vegas Raiders and the NFC North's fourth-place Detroit Lions. Overall, the Titans' strength of schedule is .476 (137-151-1) based upon their opponents' combined 2025 record, the eighth lowest out of 32 NFL teams.
- OFFENSIVE LEADERS: The revamped Titans defense under head coach Robert Saleh will face two of the top-five offenses from last season in the Dallas Cowboys (second – 391.9 yards per game) and Detroit Lions (fifth – 373.2).
- TIME (ZONE) TRAVEL: The Titans will stay in the Central time zone for 10 matchups in 2026, including every home game and their two trips to Texas against the Cowboys and the Texans. They will double their trips to the Eastern time zone from three in 2025 to six in 2026 (at N.Y. Giants, Baltimore, Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Jacksonville and Detroit). Outside of a preseason visit to San Francisco, the farthest Tennessee will fly is to Las Vegas, their second trip to Nevada in two seasons after never playing there before 2025. The Titans will not play in the Mountain time zone.

WEEK-BY-WEEK SCHEDULE NOTES

- WEEK 5 (H) & WEEK 18 (A) vs. HOUSTON TEXANS: The Titans and Texans rivalry enters its 25th season. The two teams have split the season series in six of the last nine years. The Titans will look to take the lead in the series as it currently sits tied at 24 wins apiece. Head coach DeMeco Ryans and quarterback C.J. Stroud enter their fourth year together. The Texans have reached the playoffs the previous three seasons but have fallen short in the divisional round each year.
- WEEK 6 (A) & WEEK 15 (H) vs. INDIANAPOLIS COLTS: The Titans look to end the Colts' six-game winning streak in the rivalry. Prior to the Colts' streak, the Titans won five consecutive matchups in the series from 2020-22. Titans' defensive coordinator, Gus Bradley, spent three seasons as the Colts defensive coordinator from 2022-24, including two years under current Colts head coach Shane Steichen. The two coaches spent four years together (2017-20) with the Chargers as Steichen climbed the ranks from offensive quality control to quarterbacks coach to offensive coordinator while Bradley served as defensive coordinator.
- WEEK 10 (H) & WEEK 12 (A) vs. JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS: The Titans and Jaguars will play two games in a three-week span, as the Jaguars defend their divisional crown. In 2025, the Jaguars went 13-4 to win the AFC South for the first time since 2022. The Titans, who lead the series 35-28 including the postseason, look to regain the momentum in the series after being swept the past two seasons. Titans defensive coordinator Gus Bradley served as head coach of the Jaguars from 2013-16. During that time, Titans head coach Robert Saleh was the linebackers coach.
- WEEK 11 at DALLAS COWBOYS: In Week 11, the Titans and Cowboys will meet for the 17th time as the Titans travel to AT&T Stadium for the first time since a 28-14 Monday Night Football victory in November 2018. Tennessee has won both of its regular season games at the site, which opened in 2009. Of the 14 new additions to the Titans coaching staff in 2026, three (Dave Borgonzi, Tanzel Smart and Aaron Whitecotton) coached for Dallas in 2025. Special teams coordinator John "Bones" Fassel joined the Titans in 2024 after five years with the Cowboys. The Titans also acquired defensive lineman Solomon Thomas in a trade with Dallas in March.
- WEEK 13 vs. WASHINGTON COMMANDERS: The Titans will face the Commanders in Week 13. In 2024, the teams also met in Week 13 in the nation's capital. The Titans lead the all-time series, 8-7, and have won two of the last three meetings. Washington coach Dan Quinn succeeded Titans defensive coordinator Gus Bradley as defensive coordinator of the Seahawks in 2013 after Bradley was hired to be the head coach of the Jaguars. Head coach Robert Saleh served as quality control coach under both Bradley and Quinn in Seattle from 2011-13, ending the 2013 season with a victory in Super Bowl XLVIII.
- WEEK 14 at DETROIT LIONS: For the second time since 2024, the Titans will make the trip to Detroit to take on the Lions, and they look to win their seventh game against Detroit in eight matchups. The Titans currently hold a 10-4 lead in the all-time series. Head coach Robert Saleh is a native of Dearborn, Mich., a suburb of Detroit. This will be his first time visiting Detroit as a head coach. Since the Lions hired Dan Campbell as head coach in 2022, their 45 regular season wins are the fourth-most in the NFL.
- WEEK 16 at LAS VEGAS RAIDERS: For the second consecutive year, the Titans will travel to Las Vegas to take on the Raiders. This year, the contest could feature the top overall pick from the last two drafts in Titans quarterback Cam Ward and Raiders quarterback Fernando Mendoza, who the Raiders took first overall in 2026. The Titans, who trail in the series 22-31, look to regain momentum after dropping last year's contest in their first ever trip to Allegiant Stadium. Former Titans interim coach Mike McCoy currently serves as the assistant head coach of the Raiders, while former offensive coordinator Nick Holz is the offensive pass game coordinator.
- WEEK 17 vs. PITTSBURGH STEELERS: In the final regular season game at the current Nissan Stadium, the Titans will face off against the Steelers, who are led by new head coach Mike McCarthy. It will be Pittsburgh's first visit to Nissan Stadium since 2020. McCarthy takes over the reins in Pittsburgh following former head coach Mike Tomlin's resignation following 19 seasons at the helm. The Titans look to snap a five-game losing streak against the Steelers dating back to 2014. In franchise history, the Titans/Oilers have played the Steelers more than any other opponent.

Jim Wyatt: New Titans GM Mike Borgonzi Shares His Vision to Build a Winner

The OTP: 2025 New Titans GM Mike Borgonzi

Mike Borgonzi was named the 15th general manager in franchise history on Jan. 17, 2025.

Borgonzi arrived in Tennessee after 16 years with the Kansas City Chiefs, helping to build the franchise into a perennial contender and three-time Super Bowl winner. During his final four seasons in Kansas City, Borgonzi served as Assistant General Manager.

Tasked with building a foundation for sustained success in Tennessee, Borgonzi directed a significant overhaul of the Titans roster from the time he arrived through the end of his second offseason on the job. Entering training camp in 2026, only 17 of the 91 players on the team (as of July 15) were with the club before he was named GM.

The additions included an eight-man class from the 2026 NFL Draft. Borgonzi took wide receiver Carnell Tate with the fourth overall pick, and on the same night, he traded back into the first round to draft defensive end Keldric Faulk at No. 31. It marked only the second time in the franchise's "Titans era" (1999 to present) that the team had multiple first-rounders. The class also included linebacker Anthony Hill Jr. in the second round and five more players on Day 3: guard Fernando Carmona Jr. (Round 5), running back Nick Singleton (5), defensive tackle Jackie Marshall (6), center Pat Coogan (6) and tight end Jaren Kanak (7).

The 2026 draft followed an active period of signings and trades, when the Titans targeted several key veterans to raise the talent level and provide leadership. From the day the NFL's unrestricted free agent signing period began to the start of the draft, a total of 21 free agents joined the Titans. The haul included wide receiver Wan'Dale Robinson (formerly of the New York Giants), tight end Daniel Bellinger (Giants), punter Tommy Townsend (Houston Texans), defensive lineman John Franklin-Myers (Denver Broncos) and cornerbacks Alontae Taylor (New Orleans Saints) and Cor'Dale Flott (Giants). Two additional veterans—defensive end Jermaine Johnson II (New York Jets) and defensive tackle Solomon Thomas (Dallas Cowboys)—were acquired in trades.

Borgonzi capped the 2026 offseason by awarding defensive tackle Jeffery Simmons with a multi-year contract extension, securing the four-time Pro Bowler's tenure in Tennessee for the foreseeable future.

The Titans' first Borgonzi-led draft in 2025 featured nine selections, including quarterback Cam Ward with the first-overall selection. All nine of the draftees appeared in at least six games as rookies, and six members of the group started at least five games. The Titans draft class accumulated 64 combined starts in 2025, which ranked second in the NFL (75 by Cleveland) and was the largest total for the franchise in the Titans era.

Ward, who was voted a team captain as a rookie, started all 17 games, and his 3,169 passing yards eclipsed Marcus Mariota's previous franchise rookie record (2,818 passing yards in 2015). With 15 touchdowns and seven interceptions on 323-of-540 passing, Ward's 1.3 percent interception rate was the best single-season mark in franchise history by all qualifying quarterbacks, breaking Ryan Tannehill's franchise mark of 1.5 percent in 2020.

Another draft pick, fourth-round wide receiver Chimere Dike, was named to the Pro Bowl as a returner and added first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors as a punt returner. Dike led the NFL with 2,427 all-purpose yards, which ranked third all-time for the franchise and first all-time among all NFL rookies. His 17.3-yard punt return average broke Billy "White Shoes" Johnson's franchise record (15.4) that stood since 1977, and he also posted a franchise-best 1,588 kickoff return yards.

During Borgonzi's time in Kansas City, he contributed to 12 playoff seasons (2010, 2013, 2015-24) and 10 AFC West titles (2010, 2016-24). Borgonzi helped construct a roster over a five-season span that won the AFC five times (2019-20, 2022-24) and captured three Super Bowl championships (2019, 2022-23).

In his final eight seasons in Kansas City (2017-24), Borgonzi worked under Chiefs General Manager Brett Veach. As the Assistant General Manager from 2021 through 2024, he supervised and directed the college and professional scouting operations while closely supporting and advising Veach with the club's roster management and player acquisition via the NFL Draft, free agency, waiver claims and trades. During his four seasons as Assistant General Manager, the Chiefs built a league-best 52-16 regular-season record (.765). In the same four-year span, 10 different Kansas City players earned a combined 23 Pro Bowl selections: tackle Orlando Brown Jr. (2021-22), wide receiver Tyreek Hill (2021), center Creed Humphrey (2022-24), defensive tackle Chris Jones (2021-24), tight end Travis Kelce (2021-24), quarterback Patrick Mahomes (2021-23), safety Tyrann Mathieu (2021), guard Trey Smith (2024), guard Joe Thuney (2022-24) and Townsend (2022).

In 2024, the Chiefs captured their ninth consecutive AFC West crown. They tied the Detroit Lions for the NFL's best record at 15-2, setting a franchise record for wins in a regular season and securing the AFC's top seed. Twenty original Chiefs draft picks started at least six games for the team during the 2024 regular season. Kansas City had five players voted to the Pro Bowl, marking the seventh consecutive year in which it had at least five players earn the honor.

Prior to his promotion to Assistant General Manager, Borgonzi served as Director of Football Operations (2018-20), Director of Player Personnel (2017), Co-Director of Player Personnel (2015-16), Assistant Director of Pro Scouting (2013-14), Pro Personnel Scout (2011-12) and Manager of Football Operations (2010). He joined the Chiefs in 2009 as the club's College Scouting Administrator.

Before landing in the NFL with the Chiefs, Borgonzi spent the 2007 and 2008 seasons at Boston College, where he was the Assistant Recruiting Coordinator. He also coached tight ends at Amherst College in 2002 before working in the financial sector in Boston for several years.

A native of Everett, Mass., Borgonzi graduated from Brown University, where he was a four-year starter at fullback and was a three-time All-Ivy League selection.

The Tennessee Titans hired Robert Saleh as the 22nd head coach in franchise history on Jan. 22, 2026.

Saleh arrives in Tennessee with 21 seasons of NFL coaching experience: six seasons with the Houston Texans (2005-10), three with the Seattle Seahawks (2011-13), three with the Jacksonville Jaguars (2014-16), five total seasons over two stints with the San Francisco 49ers (2017-20, 2025), and four campaigns as the head coach of the New York Jets (2021-24). During his time in the NFL, he has been a part of nine top-10 defenses, and in his nine seasons as a defensive coordinator or head coach, his team has finished in the top five in total defense on five occasions.

In 2025, Saleh returned to the San Francisco 49ers for his second stint as defensive coordinator under head coach Kyle Shanahan. With the roster decimated by injuries, including season-ending injuries to All-Pro defensive lineman Nick Bosa and All-Pro linebacker Fred Warner, the 49ers went 12-5 during the regular season and progressed to the Divisional Round of the playoffs.

As the head coach of the Jets, Saleh guided four different players in their first four years in the NFL to Associated Press First-Team All-Pro honors (cornerback Sauce Gardner, defensive lineman Quinnen Williams and returner Braxton Berrios) and/or Pro Bowl appearances (Gardner, Williams and linebacker Jermaine Johnson II). The Jets defense finished in the top 10 in multiple categories over the 2022 and 2023 seasons, including first in passing yards allowed per game (178.9) and opponent yards per play (4.7), second in total defense (301.7), and sixth in opponent yards per rush (4.1). The unit also tallied 93 sacks and 29 interceptions during that time, tied for the eighth and 10th-most, respectively, in the NFL.

The 2023 Jets featured a pair of first-team Associated Press All-Pros in Gardner and linebacker Quincy Williams, as well as three Pro Bowl selections in Gardner, Johnson II and Quinnen Williams. The Jets also won four games after trailing in the fourth quarter, tying for the second-most such victories in the NFL. Defensively, the Jets finished in a tie for first place in opponent yards per play (4.6) and ranked second in passing yards allowed per game (168.3), third in total defense (292.3) and tied for eighth in takeaways (27). The Jets held opponents to seven points or less in 10 of their 17 games, which was tied for the most such games in the NFL. Meanwhile, the Jets offense gained 4,566 total yards in 2023, with 64.1 percent of those yards coming from rookie and second-year players, the second-most in the NFL. Saleh saw second-year running back Breece Hall register career highs in rushing yards (994), receiving yards (591), yards from scrimmage (1,585) and total touchdowns (nine).

In 2022, Saleh led a roster that featured two first-team AP All-Pro selections (Gardner and Quinnen Williams), a second-team All-Pro (linebacker C.J. Mosley) and four Pro Bowl selections (special teamer Justin Hardee, Gardner, Mosley and Quinnen Williams). He also oversaw the development of the NFL's Offensive and Defensive Rookies of the Year in wide receiver Garrett Wilson and Gardner, making the Jets the third team in NFL history to have both rookie players win the honor. Wilson led all rookie wide receivers in receptions (83) and receiving yards (1,103), while Gardner led the NFL in passes defensed (20). The Jets improved their win total by three games, which marked the sixth-largest win improvement in the NFL in 2022. The club boasted a defense that tied for first in opponent yards per play (4.8) and finished third in passing defense (189.4), fourth in scoring defense (316) and fourth in total defense (311.1).

In his first year as head coach of the Jets, the 2021 team was led by rookie quarterback Zach Wilson (2,519 passing yards), rookie running back Michael Carter (639 rushing yards) and rookie wide receiver Elijah Moore (538 receiving yards). The Jets were just the second team since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger to be led by rookies in passing yards, rushing yards and receiving yards.

Before taking the helm in New York, Saleh logged four seasons (2017-20) in his first stint as the defensive coordinator for the 49ers. During that span, the 49ers defense ranked third in passing yards allowed per game (211.4), fourth in total defense (323.6) and opponent yards per play (5.1) and sixth in opponent yards per rush (4.1).

In 2020, despite injuries to key players throughout the year, the 49ers defense held top-five marks in passing yards allowed per game (207.9, fourth), third-down defense (35.5 percent, fourth), total defense (314.4, fifth) and opponent yards per play (5.0, tied for fifth). The unit also ranked tied for sixth in opponent yards per rush (4.0) and seventh in opponent rushing yards per game (106.4). The defense was led by Warner, who earned first-team AP All-Pro honors and a Pro Bowl selection after registering a team-high 125 tackles to go along with a sack, two interceptions, six passes defensed, one forced fumble and two fumble recoveries.

In 2019, Saleh was named Coordinator of the Year by Sporting News after leading the 49ers defense to a second-place finish in total defense – 281.8 yards allowed per game – which was the fewest total yards allowed per game by the team since 1997 (250.8). San Francisco placed first in the NFL in passing yards allowed per game (169.2), the fewest passing yards allowed per game in the NFL since 2009 (153.7 by the Jets). It marked the first time San Francisco led the NFL in passing defense since 1987 (165.6). The 49ers tied for second in the NFL in third-down percentage allowed (33.3) and tied for fifth in the NFL in sacks (48), the most by the team in a single season since 1998 (51). San Francisco also ranked seventh in

CONTROLLING OWNER AMY ADAMS STRUNK:
"We're delighted to welcome Robert and his family to the Titans, and firmly believe he is the right person for our team and community. We immediately connected with his competitive spirit and detailed approach to developing our players and team. Also, Robert's recommendations from across the league were overwhelmingly positive and were only reinforced during our time together. I want to thank Mike Borgonzi for his leadership during this process and acknowledge the work done by the search committee. They dedicated so much time and effort and I am thrilled with the results – and most importantly – I believe Titans fans will be, too. Congratulations to Robert and his family, and welcome to Nashville."

GENERAL MANAGER MIKE BORGONZI:
"On behalf of the entire Titans organization and Nashville community, I am thrilled to welcome Robert Saleh as our head coach. Robert embodies the fundamental values of what we believe a Titan should look like and represent. He's smart, tough, dependable, and values working with people. His innate ability to lead and respond to adversity is what makes him the right person to lead our football program back to one whose identity embodies sustainable success. We understand the urgency to win, and believe this is a step in that direction with a coach best equipped to accomplish our goals. The work has just begun, but I'm grateful for this partnership and excited to build this together."

opponent completion percentage (61.3) and opponent quarterback rating (83.0).

Bosa, a rookie in 2019, played in all 16 games (14 starts) and registered 47 tackles, nine sacks, one interception, one forced fumble, two fumble recoveries and two passes defensed. He was named Defensive Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press and the PFWA, and Rookie of the Year by Sporting News and PFWA, as well as the NFL's Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Year. He was also named to the PFWA All-Rookie Team and was named a starter in the Pro Bowl. With defensive linemen Arik Armstead (10.0), Bosa (nine), DeForest Buckner (7.5) and Dee Ford (6.5), the 49ers were the only team in the NFL to have four or more players with at least 6.5 sacks in 2019. Rookie linebacker Dre Greenlaw was named to the PFWA All-Rookie team. The secondary was led by cornerback Richard Sherman, who registered three interceptions (one returned for a touchdown) and was named second-team All-Pro.

In 2018, the 49ers defense registered 37 sacks, the most by the team in a single season at the time since 2013 (38). The defense ranked among the top dozen teams in the league in rushing yards per play allowed (4.09, seventh), opponent completion percentage (63.5, 10th), yards per play allowed (5.42, 11th) and net passing yards per game allowed (233.3, 11th). San Francisco was one of six teams (Baltimore Ravens, Buffalo Bills, Detroit Lions, Indianapolis Colts & New England Patriots) to allow fewer net yards per game, rushing yards per game and passing yards per game than in 2017. The 2018 San Francisco defense was anchored by Buckner, who led the team with a career-high 12 sacks and was named to the Pro Bowl for the first time in his career. His 12 sacks were the most by a 49ers defender since 2012 (19.5 by Aldon Smith). Warner started all 16 games as a rookie and led the team with 123 tackles, ranking 12th in the NFL and third among all rookies.

In 2017, Saleh spearheaded a 49ers defensive unit that allowed 5.28 yards per play, which was a 0.62 yards-per-play improvement from 2016 and the third-largest improvement in the NFL from 2016 to 2017 behind Cleveland (0.76) and the Jets (0.72). The defense also held its opponents under 100 yards rushing seven times. From Weeks 12-16, the 49ers' streak of holding each of their five opponents under 100 yards rushing was tied for the longest streak in the NFL over that span (Arizona). The 49ers defense was among the league leaders at getting into the opponent's backfield on running plays, finishing tied for fifth in the NFL by forcing 53 rushes for negative yardage. Over the final eight weeks of the year, San Francisco ranked second in the NFL in rushing yards allowed (640) and tied for fourth in yards per carry allowed (3.62).

Saleh joined San Francisco after three years (2014-16) as the linebackers coach of the Jaguars. In 2016, Saleh's linebackers helped the Jacksonville defense rank fifth in passing yards allowed (215.3) and sixth in opponent rushing average (3.82). Team captain Paul Posluszny started all 16 games at middle linebacker and led the club in tackles for the second consecutive season. According to Jaguars team statistics, linebacker Telvin Smith Sr. registered 118 tackles while starting all 16 games at outside linebacker for the first time in his career. Smith's 350 career tackles from 2014 through 2016 were the most by a Jaguars player in his first three NFL seasons.

In 2015, the Jaguars defense allowed 3.68 yards per rushing attempt, which was the fifth-lowest rushing average allowed in the NFL. Posluszny led the squad and ranked fifth in the NFL with 133 tackles, according to GSIS statistics, while tying with Smith for the team lead with 13 tackles for loss.

Under Saleh's guidance, Smith stepped into the starting lineup in 2014 and ranked third among all rookies with 99 tackles. Smith led the team with two fumble recoveries while ranking second with nine tackles for loss. After a season-ending injury to Posluszny midway through the year, J.T. Thomas stepped in and set a career high in tackles along with two interceptions.

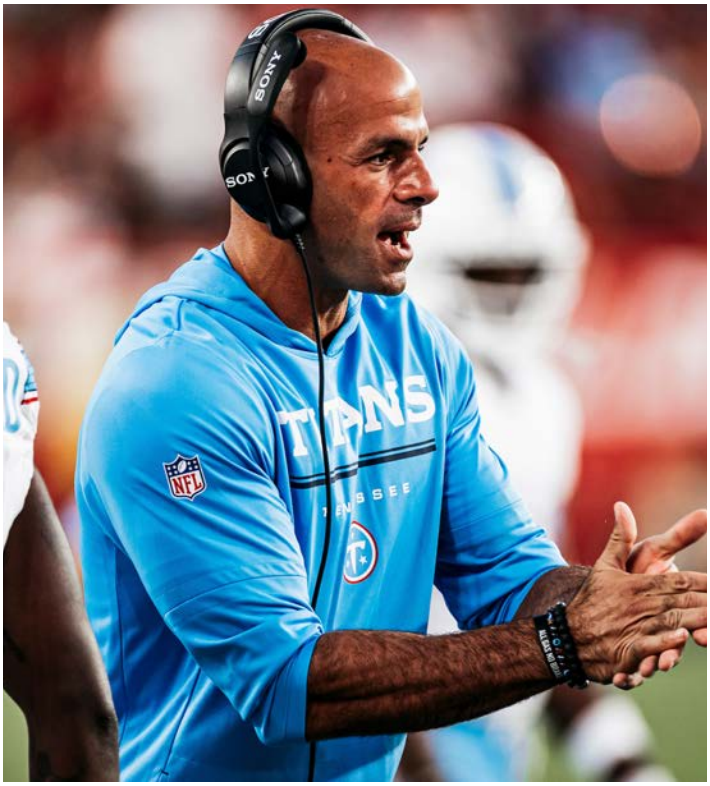

Prior to Jacksonville, Saleh spent three seasons (2011-13) as a defensive quality control coach for the Seahawks. During that period, he was responsible for assisting the defensive staff with day-to-day duties with a focus on the linebackers. Working under linebackers coach Ken Norton Jr., Saleh aided in the development of K.J. Wright, Bobby Wagner and Super Bowl XLVIII MVP Malcolm Smith.

Before joining the Seahawks, Saleh totaled six seasons with the Texans, serving as a coaching intern (2005), defensive assistant (2006-08) and assistant linebackers coach (2009-10). While there, Saleh oversaw the growth of the Texans linebackers, including AP Defensive Rookie of the Year performances by DeMeco Ryans (2006) and Brian Cushing (2009). In 2009, the Pro Bowl duo of Ryans and Cushing were the only teammates to each rank among the league's top 10 tacklers.

Saleh's coaching career began with three seasons in the collegiate ranks. He launched his career at Michigan State University as an offensive assistant/tight ends coach (2002) and defensive assistant/defensive line coach (2003). He then spent one season (2004) as a defensive assistant/defensive line coach at Central Michigan University before a brief stint at the University of Georgia as a defensive assistant/linebackers coach (2005).

A native of Dearborn, Mich., Saleh attended Northern Michigan University, where he was a four-year starter at tight end.

He and his wife, Sanaa, have eight children: sons Adam, Zane, Michael, Sam, Jacob and Robert Jr., and daughters Mila and Ella.

NISSAN STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of an exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

Eight years later, on Nov. 17, 2023, the Titans and Nissan North America announced a new agreement: a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that brands the new Titans home venue as 'Nissan Stadium.'

Slated for completion in 2027, the new Nissan Stadium will host Titans home games, Tennessee State University football games, concerts, large-scale events and other community events.

"This partnership is a natural extension of our already longstanding friendship with Nissan," said Burke Nihill, Titans President and CEO. "Our mission at the Titans is to Win, Serve, and Entertain. We pride ourselves on collaborating with organizations who love this city and state as much as we do, and for the past 40 years, Nissan has invested more than $10.5 billion statewide, serving as a great example of an outstanding corporate steward and community advocate. We look forward to the continued positive impact of this relationship for the Titans organization and the City of Nashville."

"Since 2015 our fans and organization have called our home 'Nissan Stadium,' and we are proud to continue that tradition in the new stadium as we deepen and expand our relationship with them," said Titans Chief Revenue Officer Adam Nuse. "The new stadium will host the world's largest events, as well as serve as a community hub for our local neighbors. We're excited to have a partner like Nissan embark on this journey with us as we look towards the future."

The partnership will feature dedicated areas in the new stadium for brand experiences and displays, innovative technology integration, and involvement in Titans broadcast platforms. Nissan also will support a to-be-determined program in the Titans' ONE Community philanthropic platform, which reaches Nashville's most underrepresented and marginalized communities with a focus on three areas – Opportunity, Neighborhoods and Education.

"Nissan Stadium is a centerpiece of the Nashville skyline and has become a household name in Middle Tennessee. It is important for Nissan to keep our name on the new stadium," said Jérémie Papin, chairperson, Nissan Americas. "As more people come to Nashville both to visit and to live in this wonderful city, Nissan Stadium is true showcase for our brand and for the career opportunities we've offered here for more than four decades. This partnership sends a strong message about the bright future for Nissan, the Titans, Nashville and the State of Tennessee."

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin. Nissan is home to more than 11,000 employees across all three locations.

"Nissan has been a strong partner to middle Tennessee for four decades, and I'm thrilled that the Titans have united with a partner that invests in our community and its people," said Nashville Mayor Freddie O'Connell. "The familiarity and trust they've established with the Titans in the last eight years will undoubtedly be a great asset as we plan for the stadium's opening in 2027."

The new Nissan stadium will be built on the east side of the current stadium campus, along Nashville's East Bank. Features of the building include: a circular translucent roof; exterior porches with panoramic views of Nashville; improved sightlines for all spectators through a range of diverse seating experiences; and a 12,000 square foot community space available for use year-round. A waitlist for those interested in purchasing PSLs or suites is now open at NewNissanStadium.com.

Quarterback Cam Ward was selected by the Titans with the first overall pick in the 2025 NFL Draft. He became the first No. 1 overall pick for the franchise since running back Earl Campbell in 1978.

As a rookie, Ward was voted a team captain prior to the season. He started all 17 games, and his final statistics included 323 completions, 3,169 yards, 15 touchdowns and seven interceptions on 540 attempts with a passer rating of 80.2. He broke Marcus Mariota's franchise rookie record (2,818 passing yards in 2015) for passing yards in a season. He also rushed for 159 yards and two touchdowns on 39 attempts.

With 17 starts, he set a franchise record for starts by a rookie quarterback and joined Ryan Tannehill (2021) as the only Titans quarterbacks with 17 starts in a season since the NFL schedule went to 17 games in 2021. Previously during the 16-game schedule era from 1978 to 2020, six Titans/Oilers quarterbacks combined for 10 total seasons with 16 starts: Warren Moon (three), Steve McNair (three), Dan Pastorini, Ken Stabler, Matt Hasselbeck and Tannehill.

Ward's 540 attempts in 2025 were not only more than any other rookie in the organization's history, but also more than every quarterback in franchise annals in a season other than Warren Moon, who had 655 attempts in 1991 and 584 attempts in 1990.

On 540 attempts, Ward threw only seven interceptions. His 1.3 interception percentage stands as the best single-season mark in franchise history by all qualifying quarterbacks. He broke Ryan Tannehill's franchise record of 1.5 percent in 2020. Over the final nine games of the season, Ward threw only one interception. His 1.3 percent interception rate also tied for the third-best mark in the NFL among qualifiers in 2025 behind Atlanta's Michael Penix Jr. (1.1) and Chicago's Caleb Williams (1.2).

Prior to entering the NFL, Ward played for three different schools over five college seasons: Incarnate Word (2020-21), Washington State (2022-23) and Miami (2024). In 57 career games—all starts—he completed 1,516 of 2,330 passes for 18,184 yards, and his 158 touchdown passes set an NCAA Division I (FBS/FCS) record. He also totaled 399 rushes for 473 yards and 20 touchdowns.

During his graduate campaign at Miami, he started all 13 games and led the Hurricanes to a 10-3 record, giving them their first 10-win season since 2017. He earned first-team Associated Press All-America honors and was a Heisman finalist after establishing Miami's single-season records for passing yards (4,313), touchdowns (39) and completion percentage (67.2 percent, 305-for-454), while throwing only seven interceptions. He received the 2024 Davey O'Brien Award, recognizing the nation's top quarterback, and was named ACC Player of the Year, ACC Offensive Player of the Year and first-team All-ACC.

At Washington State in 2023, Ward started all 12 games and completed 324 of 486 passes for 3,732 yards and 25 touchdowns with seven interceptions. He also accounted for eight rushing touchdowns. At the conclusion of the season, he received All-Pac-12 Conference honorable mention for the second consecutive season.

Ward arrived at Washington State as a junior in 2022. He started all 13 games in his first season with the Cougars and completed 320 of 497 passes for 3,231 yards and 23 touchdowns with nine interceptions. He added five rushing touchdowns.

In 2021, Ward was a sophomore at Incarnate Word, where he was named Southland Conference Offensive Player of the Year, FCS All-American second team and a Walter Payton Award Finalist after leading UIW to Southland Conference Championship, a 10-3 record and into the second round of the FCS playoffs. His statistics included 384 completions on 590 attempts for 4,648 yards, 47 touchdowns and 10 interceptions. He set program records for single game passing yards (610), single-game passing touchdowns (seven), career passing touchdowns (71) and career passing yards (6,908).

As a freshman in 2020, Ward started in all six games at Incarnate Word during the spring season (2021) that resulted from the COVID-19 outbreak. He completed 183 of 303 passes for 2,260 yards and 24 touchdowns and was named the Jerry Rice Award winner, given to the top FCS freshman.

Ward is a native of West Columbia, Texas.

2026 Notes:

➢ Against N.Y. Jets (9/13), started at quarterback, joining Marcus Mariota (2015-16) as the only quarterbacks in franchise history to start Week 1 in each of their first two NFL seasons. He finished with 140 yards on 19-of-32 passing and added four rushes for 21 yards. In the fourth quarter, he connected with Elic Ayomanor for an 11-yard touchdown.

➢ Against Philadelphia (9/20), completed 13 of 20 passes for 183 yards and a 94.4 passer rating. His passer rating was the third best of his 19-game career in a contest with at least 20 attempts. He added two rushing touchdowns, finishing with seven rushing yards on four attempts. He scored the Titans' first touchdown of the contest with a one-yard run on fourth-and-goal in the first quarter and then capped a 12-play, 69-yard drive with his second rushing touchdown of the contest on a one-yard carry in the third quarter. It was his first career game with multiple rushing touchdowns and gave him four career rushing scores. Ward became the first Titans quarterback with multiple rushing touchdowns in a game since Ryan Tannehill had a pair at Houston on Jan. 3, 2021. His four passes of 25-plus yards in the game matched a career high (Ayomanor for 28 and 41 yards, Tyjae Spears for 27 yards, and Calvin Ridley for 25 yards). He increased his streak to six consecutive games without an interception, including the final four games of 2025, while also increasing his streak to 173 consecutive passes without an interception, second in the franchise record books behind only Marcus Mariota's 205 consecutive passes without an interception from 2018 to 2019. Over an 11-game span, including the final nine games of 2025, his totals included one interception, 11 touchdown passes and four rushing touchdowns.

➢ At N.Y. Giants (9/27), finished the game with 181 yards on 23-of-36 passing, with a four-yard touchdown pass to Wan'Dale Robinson. On a fourth-quarter scoring drive, completed all eight pass attempts for 54 yards and a touchdown. In the second half, he completed 16-of-23 passes (69.6 percent) for 141 yards with a touchdown and an interception. Ward's 16 completions in the second half tied for the second-most in any half in his career. Prior to his interception—his first since Dec. 7, 2025 at Cleveland—he attempted 208 consecutive passes without an interception to break the franchise record, previously set by Marcus Mariota, who had 205 consecutive pass attempts without an interception from 2018 to 2019.

➢ At Baltimore (10/4), completed 20-of-31 passes (64.5 completion percentage) for a season-high 222 yards with a touchdown and an interception. In the first quarter, he led a 10-play, 70-yard scoring drive, throwing for 34 yards on the drive before Tony Pollard plunged in for a three-yard touchdown. In the fourth quarter, he led a second 70-yard scoring drive, including a 33-yard connection with Carnell Tate to convert fourth-and-11 and a career-long 22-yard scramble. The drive was capped off by a three-yard touchdown pass to Wan'Dale Robinson and a pass to Gunnar Helm in the end zone for a two-point conversion. It was his ninth consecutive game with either a passing or rushing touchdown.

- Against Houston (10/11), completed 23-of-36 passes for 170 yards.
- At Indianapolis (10/18), completed 11-of-22 passes for 102 yards and an eight-yard touchdown to Carnell Tate in the third quarter. He engineered his second career game-winning drive, leading the offense on a seven-play, 52-yard drive in the fourth quarter that resulted in a 49-yard field goal to put Tennessee ahead for good. During the drive, he completed a six-yard pass to Wan'Dale Robinson to convert a third-and-five.
- Against Cleveland (10/25), finished with 181 yards on 20-of-31 passing and led the offense on touchdown drives of 65, 24 and 63 yards. In the fourth quarter, he engineered an 11-play, 63-yard touchdown drive that included a 26-yard pass to Elic Ayomanor on fourth-and-eight and an 18-yard connection with Carnell Tate on third-and-12. He took one sack (zero yards) against Cleveland, marking his fourth game of the season taking one or fewer sacks.
- At Cincinnati (11/1), passed for a career-best 304 yards, completing 26 of 40 passes (65.0 percent) with two touchdowns. He became the first Titans quarterback with 300 passing yards, two touchdown passes and no interceptions since Ryan Fitzpatrick at Oakland on Nov. 24, 2013. Adding seven rushes for a career-high 41 yards, he joined Lamar Jackson as the only quarterbacks to pass for 300 yards and rush for 40 yards in a game in 2026. He became the first Titans quarterback with such a performance since Marcus Mariota on Sept. 30, 2018 against Philadelphia. Ward completed five passes of at least 20 yards, his most in any game since entering the league in 2025. In the fourth quarter, he connected with Chimere Dike and Wan'Dale Robinson for go-ahead touchdown passes of 11 and 15 yards, respectively. It was the second time in his career he had multiple passing touchdowns in a quarter and his first two-touchdown passing fourth quarter. In the third quarter, he ran in a two-point conversion attempt and connected with Gunnar Helm for another two-point conversion in the fourth quarter. He set career highs for the first half with 21 pass attempts, 14 completions and 166 passing yards – the second most yards he had in any half of his career, trailing only a 209-yard passing performance in the second half at Arizona on Oct. 5, 2025.

Running back Tony Pollard is in his eighth NFL season and his third campaign with the Titans in 2026. The Memphis native was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 14, 2024.

In 2025, Pollard was voted a team captain for the first time in his career. He led the Titans in rushing for the second consecutive season with 242 carries for a career-high 1,082 yards and five touchdowns. It was the second consecutive season in which he set a career high in rushing (1,079 yards in 2024).

Pollard became the fourth player in Titans/Oilers history to rush for 1,000 yards in each of his first two seasons with the club, joining Earl Campbell (1978-81), Eddie George (1996-00) and Chris Johnson (2008-13). With his fourth consecutive 1,000-yard rushing season, including his final two campaigns in Dallas, he joined Derrick Henry as the NFL's only running backs to rush for 1,000 yards every season from 2022 to 2025.

Pollard's durability continued through seven NFL campaigns, during which time he never missed more than two games in a season. He started all 17 games in 2025, marking the second time in his career (2023) that he started every week. Over a three-season span (2023-25), Pollard missed only one total game (2024).

During his first year with the Titans, Pollard ranked third in the AFC and tied for 12th in the NFL with a then-career-best 1,079 rushing yards on a career-high 260 carries. Both numbers led the team, as did his five rushing touchdowns. With an additional 238 yards on 41 receptions, he produced a team-high 1,317 scrimmage yards—the second-best total of his career.

Prior to joining the Titans, Pollard spent five seasons (2019-23) with the Dallas Cowboys, who selected him in the fourth round (128th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft. During his time in Dallas, he appeared in 79 games with 23 starts, totaling 3,621 rushing yards and 23 touchdowns on 762 carries. With an additional 176 receptions for 1,319 yards and five receiving touchdowns, he reached 1,000 scrimmage yards in each of his final three years in Dallas while also returning 63 kickoffs for 1,500 yards, including one return for a score.

In 2023, his first season as the lead running back in Dallas, Pollard started all 17 games for the first time in his career and led the team with 1,005 rushing yards on a career-high 252 carries (4.0 avg.) with six touchdowns.

In 2022, he set career marks with 193 carries for 1,007 yards and nine scores, averaging 5.2 yards-per-carry to rank third in the NFL and earn his first Pro Bowl nod.

At the University of Memphis, he played in 40 games at running back and wide receiver, amassing 2,233 yards and 18 touchdowns on offense. He also averaged 30.1 yards per kickoff return and tied an NCAA record with seven kickoff returns for touchdowns.

- At N.Y. Giants (9/27), led the team with 17 carries for 74 rushing yards and added four receptions for 22 yards. It was his 13th game with at least 90 yards from scrimmage since joining the Titans in 2024, and his 32nd career game with at least 90 scrimmage yards.
- At Baltimore (10/4), rushed for 48 yards on 16 carries. In the first quarter, he scored his first touchdown on the season on a three-yard run. He recorded seven carries on the 10-play, 70-yard scoring drive, rushing for 23 yards. During the game he reached the 6,000-yard rushing mark for his career (6,003). Additionally, he surpassed LenDale White (2,349) for 12th place on the franchise's all-time career rushing list.
- Against Houston (10/11), logged 14 rush attempts for 52 yards, including a 14-yard rush in the first quarter.
- At Indianapolis (10/18), logged a season-high 76 rushing yards on 19 attempts.
- Against Cleveland (10/25), matched a personal best with three scores on the ground and set a season high with 129 rushing yards on 25 carries. He scored on the Titans' first two possessions in the first quarter on runs of 36 and 10 yards. To open the game, he carried the ball five times for 60 yards on a 65-yard drive, and his 36-yard touchdown was the eighth-longest rushing touchdown of his career. His 87 first-quarter rushing yards tied a career-best (87 at Cleveland on Dec. 7, 2025). His 10-yard touchdown run later in the first quarter marked his sixth career game with multiple rushing touchdowns and his first career game with multiple rushing scores in the same quarter. In the first half, he rushed 16 times for 92 yards, with a 5.8-yard average, making him the first player in 2026 to average 5.8 rushing yards in a half where they carried the ball at least 16 times. Pollard's third rushing score, a one-yard run to help tie the game at 24-24 late in the fourth quarter, tied his high for a single game originally set on Oct. 30, 2022 as a member of the Dallas Cowboys. Pollard logged his first 100-yard performance of the 2026 season and the 14th such game of his career. He added three receptions for 26 yards to finish with 155 yards from scrimmage, his third-most scrimmage yards since entering the league in 2019. He became the first Titans player to rush for three touchdowns in a game since Derrick Henry against Buffalo on Oct. 18, 2021, and he also joined Henry (Sept. 13 at Indianapolis) as the NFL's first players in 2026 with at least 125 rushing yards and three rushing touchdowns in a game. Henry was also the last Titans player to accomplish the feat prior to Pollard when he did so against Buffalo on Oct. 18, 2021.
- At Cincinnati (11/1), finished with 117 rushing yards on 21 carries (5.6-yard average), marking his second consecutive 100-yard rushing game and the 16th such performance of his career. He ran in a 40-yard touchdown in the first quarter to increase the Titans' lead in Cincinnati, giving him the seventh-longest rushing touchdown of his career. At the time it was the ninth-longest rushing score in the NFL in 2026 and the second-longest offensive play by a Titan in 2026, trailing only Elic Ayomanor's 41-yard reception against Philadelphia in Week 2. It marked the first time in his career with back-to-back games with touchdown runs of 20-plus yards. In the third quarter, he scored on a one-yard run.

#17 • WR CHIMERE DIKE

6-1, 196, 2nd Year/2nd with Titans, Florida
Click for complete bio

Wide receiver Chimere Dike was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (103rd overall) of the 2025 NFL Draft.

As a rookie, he led the NFL with 2,427 all-purpose yards, which included 1,588 kickoff return yards, 398 punt return yards, 423 receiving yards and 18 rushing yards.

He was named to the Pro Bowl as the AFC's starting returner, becoming the franchise's sixth rookie to be named to the Pro Bowl since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger and the first since returner Marc Mariani in 2010. The others to do so were running back Earl Campbell (1978), defensive end Jevon Kearse (1999), quarterback Vince Young (2006) and running back Chris Johnson (2008).

Dike also earned first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors as a punt returner. He was the franchise's fourth rookie since the merger to earn first-team AP All-Pro honors, joining Campbell (1978), Kearse (1999) and tackle Jack Conklin (2016).

Dike's 2,427 all-purpose yards in 2025 ranked third in franchise history for a single season behind Derrick Mason's 2,690 all-purpose yards in 2000 and Johnson's 2,509 yards in 2009. The number established the all-time NFL rookie record for all-purpose yards and was the highest in a season by any NFL player since 2011, when Darren Sproles set the NFL record with 2,696 all-purpose yards.

Dike returned 23 punts for 398 yards and two touchdowns. His 17.3-yard average tied for the NFL lead with New England's Marcus Jones while also breaking the franchise single-season record, which was held for 48 years by Billy "White Shoes" Johnson. Dike averaged nearly two yards per return more than Johnson's mark of 15.4 yards in 1977 (35 for 539 yards).

Dike also returned 62 kickoffs for a franchise-record 1,588 yards, averaging 25.6 yards per attempt. He ranked second in the NFL in kickoff return yards in 2025 behind Dallas' KaVontae Turpin (1,814). His 1,588 kickoff return yards put him in third place in NFL history among rookies, trailing only the Raiders' Chris Carr (1,752 in 2005) and Arizona's Josh Scobey (1,684 in 2003).

With a punt return average of 17.3 yards and a kickoff return average of 25.6 yards, Dike became the NFL's first player since Detroit's Jack Christiansen in 1952 (21.5 punt return average and 25.6 kickoff return average) to qualify with an average 17.0-plus yards per punt return and 25.0-plus yards per kickoff return in a season.

On offense, Dike's rookie contributions included finishing second on the squad with 48 receptions, ranking third with 423 receiving yards, and tying for the team lead with four touchdown catches. His six total touchdowns led the Titans.

The Waukesha, Wis., native played four seasons (2020-23) at Wisconsin before transferring to Florida for his final season (2024). In five total seasons, he appeared in 57 games with 42 starts and tallied 139 receptions for 2,261 yards and 11 touchdowns. He added 14 rushing attempts for 99 yards and one touchdown, and additionally, he recorded 26 punt returns for 300 yards and 20 kickoff returns for 472 yards.

In 2024, Dike was named a team captain for the Gators during his first and only season with the team. He led the team in catches (42) and ranked second with a career-high in receiving yards (783) and touchdown catches (two). In SEC play, he averaged a league-leading 16.5 yards per punt return. He was one of 23 players in the FBS to contribute four punt returns of 20-plus yards.

In Dike's final season at Wisconsin, he started in 11 games and finished with 19 receptions for 328 yards and one touchdown. He added 12 punt returns for 108 yards and 11 kickoff returns for 249 yards.

As a junior in 2022, he started all 13 games for the Badgers and led the team with 47 catches, 689 receiving yards and six touchdown catches. His six scores tied for seventh in the Big Ten and were the most for a Badger wide receiver since 2019.

2026 Game Notes:

- Against N.Y. Jets (9/13), recorded one reception for seven yards and also returned three kickoffs for 62 yards.
- At N.Y. Giants (9/27), returned four punts for 38 yards and two kickoffs for 54 yards, and he hauled in one reception for three yards.

Wide receiver Wan'Dale Robinson is in his fifth NFL season and his first season with the Titans in 2026. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 12, 2026.

Prior to his arrival in Tennessee, he played in 54 NFL contests over four seasons with the New York Giants, who selected him in the second round (43rd overall) of the 2022 NFL Draft. During that time, he tallied 268 catches for 2,465 yards with nine touchdowns. Among all players in Giants history, only Odell Beckham Jr. (313) had more receptions in his first four NFL seasons than Robinson did.

In his final season in New York, Robinson saw action in 16 games. He finished the year with a team-high 92 catches and single-season career highs in receiving yards (1,014) and receiving touchdowns (four). His 92 receptions gave him the NFL's ninth-highest total in 2025. The number ranked sixth in franchise history, and Robinson joined Beckham as the only players in franchise history with 90 or more catches in multiple seasons. Robinson was one of five NFL players to record 90-plus receptions in 2024 and 2025. Additionally, Robinson tied for ninth in the NFL with 11 receptions of 25-plus yards and tied for ninth with 25 receptions on third down.

In 2024, he saw action in all 17 games for the first time in his career with seven starts. His career-best 93 receptions ranked him 13th in the NFL, and he led the league with 34 third-down receptions.

A native of Frankfort, Ky., Robinson played in 31 games with 24 starts in three collegiate seasons (two at Nebraska and one at Kentucky). He caught 195 passes for 2,248 yards with 10 receiving touchdowns in his career.

As a junior at Kentucky in 2021, he was named second-team All-SEC after playing in all 13 games and setting career highs with a then school-record 104 receptions, 1,334 yards and seven touchdowns.

Wide receiver Carnell Tate was selected by the Titans with the fourth overall pick in the 2026 NFL Draft.

Click for complete bio

JC Latham is in his third NFL season in 2026. He was drafted by the Titans with the seventh overall pick in the first round of the 2024 NFL Draft.

In 2025, Latham moved to right tackle, where he started 13 games. He was in the lineup every game for the final 12 contests after missing four of the first five weeks due to injury.

With 30 starts in his first two NFL seasons, Latham joined Jack Conklin (32 from 2016-17), Chance Warmack (32 from 2013-14), Michael Roos (32 from 2005-06) and Peter Skoronski (31 from 2023-24) as the franchise's only offensive linemen in its "Titans era" (1999 to present) to accomplish the feat. He did so all before his 23rd birthday (Feb. 8, 2026). Among NFL offensive linemen under 23 at the end of the 2025 regular season, Latham had the most career starts.

As a rookie, Latham notched 17 starts at left tackle, joining Jack Conklin (2016), Chance Warmack (2013) and Michael Roos (2005) as the franchise's only rookie offensive linemen in the "Titans era" (1999–present) to start every game. He was the first to do so exclusively at left tackle. Pro Football Focus named him to its All-Rookie team.

Latham did not miss an offensive snap during his rookie season. He led all rookie offensive linemen and ranked third among all rookies in 2024 with 1,032 offensive snaps. Only Chicago quarterback Caleb Williams (1,052) and Denver quarterback Bo Nix (1,040) played more offensive snaps than Latham among the 2024 rookie class.

Prior to entering the NFL, Latham spent three seasons at the University of Alabama, where he appeared in 41 total games, including 27 consecutive starts at right tackle to conclude his collegiate career. He was credited with allowing only four sacks during his time with the Tide.

As a junior in 2023, Latham was a second-team All-American and a first-team All-SEC selection at right tackle. He recorded 41 knockdown blocks and allowed only two sacks.

A native of Oak Creek, Wis., Latham attended IMG Academy for the final two years of high school. He began his high school career as a defensive lineman before finishing as one of the nation's top left tackle prospects.

STARTS BEFORE 24TH BIRTHDAY

Titans tackle JC Latham has accumulated more starts before his 24th birthday than almost every other player in franchise history. He does not celebrate his 24th birthday until Feb. 8, 2027.

As a rookie in 2024, the first-round pick started every game at left tackle. With 17 starts before his 22nd birthday, he ranked second in franchise history for starts before turning 22. He finished behind only former defensive tackle Randy Starks, who registered 21 starts before celebrating his 22nd birthday in 2005. Among all NFL players in 2024, Latham was the only one under age 22 to log 17 starts.

Then, in 2025, Latham moved to right tackle and registered 13 starts. By increasing his total to 30 games played and 30 starts, he ranked fifth in franchise history in total games before a player's 23rd birthday and second in total starts before a player's 23rd birthday. Only Starks (31) had more starts for the organization before turning 23.

Most games started in franchise history (1960 to 2026) before a player's 24th birthday:

Long snapper Morgan Cox is in his 17th NFL season and his sixth campaign with the Titans in 2026. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 19, 2021.

In 2025, Cox was voted a team captain for the third consecutive season and handled all of the team's long snapping duties for the fifth consecutive season. With 85 consecutive games played in his first five seasons with the Titans, he finished the 2025 campaign with the longest active streak of games played for the team. It was the 13th time in his career he appeared in every game for his team.

Cox also appeared in his 250th career game (regular season) in the 2025 season finale, becoming the 64th all-time NFL player to do so. He ranked ninth among all active NFL players, and his total also gave him the fourth-most NFL games played by a former University of Tennessee Volunteer behind tight end Jason Witten (271 NFL games), quarterback Peyton Manning (266) and punter Dustin Colquitt (255).

Cox worked with new battery mates in 2025 in punter Johnny Hekker and kicker Joey Slye. Hekker averaged 46.8 gross yards per punt to tie for 11th place in franchise history and 40.3 net yards per punt, which tied for ninth place in team annals. Slye delivered on 28 of 35 field goals, including four of the eight longest field goals in franchise history (58, 57, 57 and 56 yards). Also in 2025, Cox was a finalist for the NFL's Bart Starr Award for the third consecutive year.

In 2024, Cox's consistency helped kicker Nick Folk lead the NFL in field goal percentage for the second consecutive season. Folk connected on 21 of 22 field goals for an NFL-best rate of 95.5 percent. Meanwhile, punter Ryan Stonehouse ranked third in the NFL with an average of 50.6 yards per punt attempt.

In 2023, Cox's efforts helped Folk lead the NFL in field goal accuracy (96.7 percent) and helped Stonehouse lead the NFL for a second consecutive season in gross punting average (53.1).

In 2022, Cox was named to his fifth career Pro Bowl. He garnered more Pro Bowl appearances than any other player at his position since the league began naming long snappers to the Pro Bowl in 2004.

His steady play in 2022 helped Stonehouse, a rookie, lead the league and set a new NFL record with a 53.1-yard gross punting average. Stonehouse also finished fourth in the NFL and set a rookie record with a 44.0-yard net average. Meanwhile, kicker Randy Bullock made 17 of 20 field goals (85.0 percent) and made all 28 extra point attempts.

In 2021, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties in 17 regular season games and one postseason game. He helped Bullock finish ninth in franchise history with 120 points in a single season, including three game-winning field goals (Sept. 19 at Seattle, Oct. 31 at Indianapolis and Dec. 23 against San Francisco). He also snapped for punter Brett Kern, who had the league's third-best ratio of punts inside the 20 to touchbacks (18:1).

In his first 11 seasons, Cox appeared in 165 regular season games for the Baltimore Ravens, serving as the team's primary long snapper after entering the NFL as an undrafted free agent in 2010. He was selected to four Pro Bowls and was a part of five playoff teams in Baltimore, totaling 10 postseason games played.

In 2020, he earned his fourth career Pro Bowl selection. He helped kicker Justin Tucker record his fifth consecutive season with at least 130 points, tying the NFL record of consecutive seasons with 130-plus points. Tucker connected on 26 of 29 field goals (89.7 percent) and was 52 of 53 on extra points (98.1 percent). Cox also snapped on all 51 of Sam Koch's 51 punts, as Koch was the NFL's only punter to place at least 20 punts (22) inside in the 20-yard line and have no more than one touchback.

A native of Collierville, Tenn., Cox played 38 games in three seasons (2007-09) as the primary long snapper at the University of Tennessee.

Jim Wyatt: Titans Unveil New Uniforms, Logo, to Represent the Next Chapter of Franchise History

On March 12, 2026, the Tennessee Titans revealed new logos and uniforms, marking an exciting moment for the organization that honors the team's deep roots and celebrates its home in Nashville and the state of Tennessee.

More than just a new look, the uniform and logo embody the spirit of the organization – its rich history dating back to 1960, heritage, and home. The design was inspired by the voices and passion of Titans fans, players, alumni, and neighbors.

"We are incredibly proud to unveil this new look for the Tennessee Titans," said Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk. "Our uniforms and logo represent the strength of our history, the passion of our fans, and the bold future we're building together. Today is about honoring over 65 years of our organization while confidently stepping into the next chapter, and I couldn't be more excited for our players, our city, and our fans to wear this identity with pride."

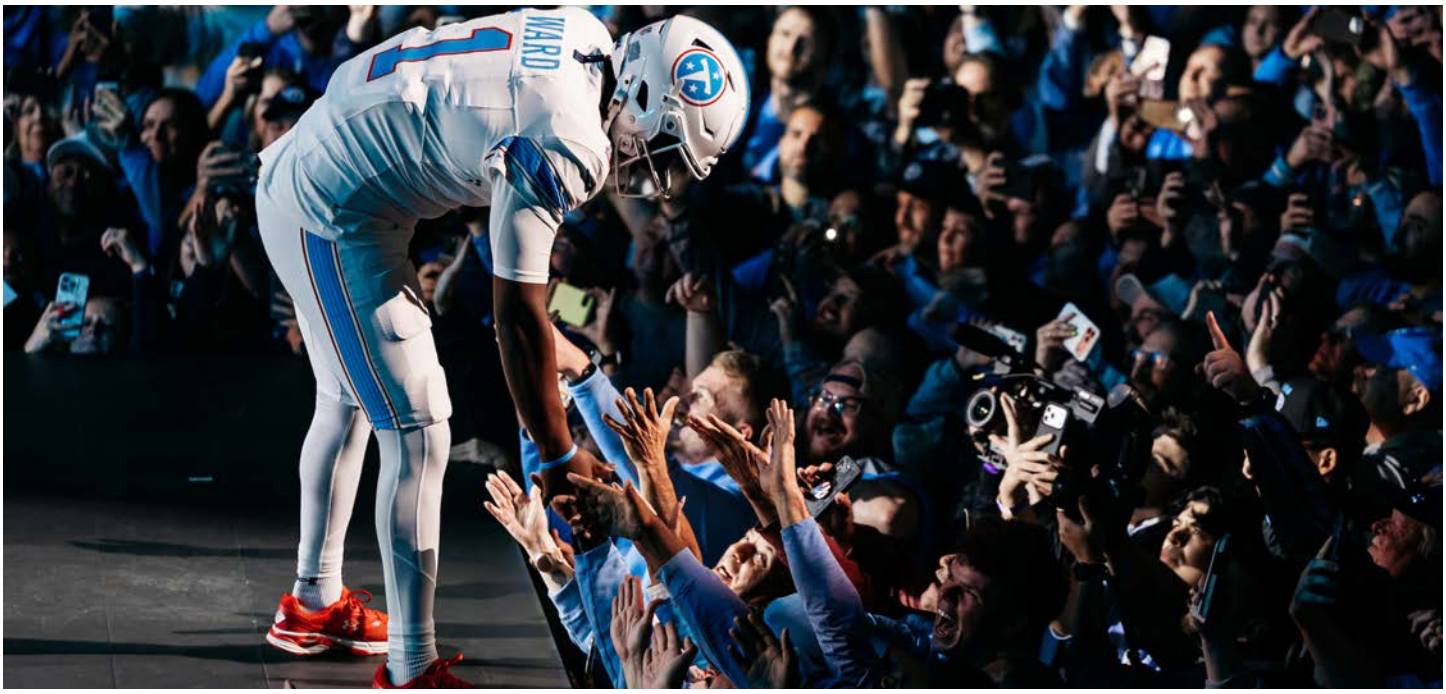

The team's new primary logo, The Shield, remains true to the Titans identity, featuring strong colors of Titans blue, white, and red, and the team's familiar tri-stars. A secondary mark, The Football, gives a cultural nod to city and state and offers fans a fresh way to show their Titans pride. The letters "T" and "N" are blended in a vertical arrangement commemorating both the state's postal abbreviation and the city of Nashville, TN. An array of other marks, including a handcrafted script wordmark, also adorn the team's new logo slick.

The team uniform features some of the organization's most iconic aspects of its heritage and brings them into its present and future.

- At home in Nashville, the Titans primary jerseys will don the distinctive Titans blue, with "TITANS" emblazoned across the chest. The chest font draws inspiration from traditional woodblock printmaking – a tribute to the city's creative spirit – while the numbers echo classic collegiate design.
- On the road, white jerseys will carry the "TENNESSEE" name, ensuring the team represents the state everywhere they play.
- The Tennessee Tri-Star can be found in navy in the tab at the back of the uniform and on the side panel underneath the arm.
- Inside every jersey, a simple "WE" tag is stitched, a rallying cry for the team that emphasizes a "we over me" mentality.
- The iconic stripe of the team's past was infused with Nashville's deep roots in music and is now the 6-String Stripe, represented on the pants, sleeve, and helmet.

Jerseys and new team merchandise is now available online at shop.tennesseetitans.com and at the Titans Team Store in Nissan Stadium. More gear will be arriving later this spring and summer. For more information on events and merchandise, visit tennesseetitans.com/brand.

"From the beginning, we approached this process with tremendous care and pride, knowing how much the Titans identity means to our fans and to the state of Tennessee," said Titans President and CEO Burke Nihill. "Every element of these uniforms was thoughtfully considered — from the Titans blue and Tri-Star to the new 6-String Stripe that celebrates Nashville's deep musical roots. We wanted to honor the history that defines this franchise while creating something that reflects who we are today and where we're going. The result is a uniform that represents our team, our city, and our state with authenticity and pride."

TITANS UNVEIL NEW LOGO AND UNIFORMS

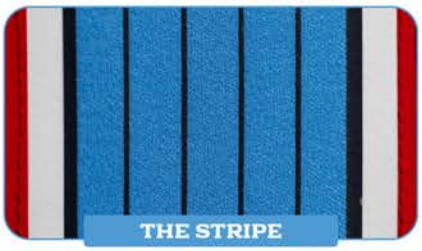

THE HELMET

Our primary logo, "The Shield" adorns the side of the helmet, while the 6-String Stripe runs down the center. The helmet's clean, white shell is paired with an all-white face mask.

THE CHEST PLATES

The Titans primary wordmark, stitched prominently across the center of the chest, announces our name in a bold, serif font inspired by Tennessee woodblock type and classic athletics. Rendered in a sans-serif typeface, our away jersey proudly represents our home state everywhere we play.

THE STRIPE

The "6-String Stripe" infuses the iconic stripe from our past with Nashville's deep roots in music. This stripe is featured prominently along the pants, sleeve, and helmet.

THE NAMEPLATE

The nameplate uses a roster font that is an extension of the woodblock-inspired wordmark.

THE NUMBERS

Inspired by collegiate-style block numbers, our classic jersey numbers stand out in white on our primary home jersey and in Titans blue while we're away, both accented with red outlines.

THE ACCENTS

Navy continues in the 6-String Stripe, the collar tab, the Tri-Star vents at the side panels, the Nike Swoosh, and the 3D helmet bumpers.

THE TAB

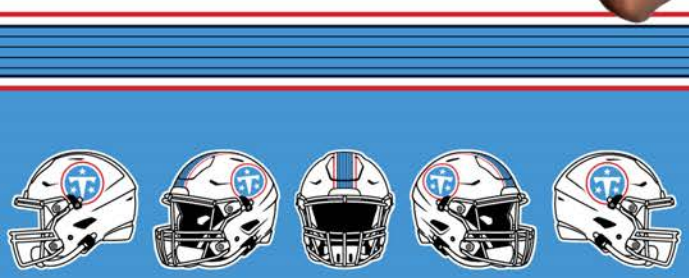

The collar tab features the Tennessee Tri-Star, proudly honoring the three Grand Divisions of our home state. Inside the collar tab is the word, "WE," representing the team's "We Over Me" mentality.
